Adam wants to be James Bond. He sees two men take a woman's bag and tries to help. The men are thieves. They are very angry when they see that they have got the wrong bag. They follow Serena and Adam. Adam is very afraid but Serena is not. Serena uses a water gun to stop one of the thieves. When the thief speaks, Adam understands that the thief is his boss. The police arrest the thieves. Serena and Adam take the money to the bank and the film director asks Adam to be in his film as a bank robber!

Possible answer:

Serena is a beautiful young actor. She is tall with long black hair, and she drives a red sports car.

Her latest film is about a bank robbery. But Serena is not afraid of real bank robbers and real guns. She hits a real bank robber, takes his gun and ties him up. Then she sits on him, holds a gun to his head and waits for the police.

Serena has good ideas. She speaks to the film director on Adam's mobile phone. She has the idea about the water gun, and about Adam's tie. And she isn't afraid of the assistant manager at the bank because she asks her to say 'please'.
