find-ing /'faɪndɪŋ/ n. [C usually plural] information that someone has learned as a result of studies, work, etc.: the newest research findings

fine¹ /faɪn/ adj. 1 good enough or acceptable [SYN] all right: "What do you want for lunch?" "A sandwich is fine." | "More coffee?" "No, I'm fine, thanks." | "How about seeing a movie?" "That's fine by me." 2 healthy and well: "How are you?" "Fine, thanks."

THESAURUS

healthy, well, better, in (good) shape, physically fit → HEALTHY

3 very good: He congratulated the team on a fine performance. | a selection of fine wines 4 very thin or narrow, or made of very small pieces: fine hair | a fine layer of dust 5 fine differences, changes, or details are small or exact and difficult to see: I didn't understand some of the finer points of his argument. 6 a fine line if you say that there is a fine line between two different things, you mean that they are so similar that one can easily become the other: There's a fine line between genius and madness.

fine² adv. (spoken) in a way that is satisfactory or acceptable [SYN] well: "How's everything going?" "Fine." | The washer's working fine now. | Relax, you're doing just fine.

fine³ n. [C] money that you have to pay as a punishment for breaking a law or rule: a parking fine

THESAURUS

punishment, sentence,

penalty → PUNISHMENT

fine⁴ v. [T] to make someone pay money as a punishment: He was fined $50 for speeding.

fine 'arts n. the fine arts ENG. LANG. ARTS activities such as painting, music, etc. that are concerned with making beautiful things fine-ly /'faɪnli/ adv. 1 in very thin or small pieces: finely chopped onion 2 to a very exact degree: finely tuned instruments fine 'print n. [U] the part of a contract or other document that has important information, often written in small print: Before signing the contract, make sure you read the fine print.

fi-nesse /fɪ'nes/ n. [U] if you do something with finesse, you do it with a lot of skill and style fine-tune v. [T] to make small changes to something in order to make it as good as possible: The team is still fine-tuning its game plan.

fin-ger¹ /'fɪŋɡə/ n. [C] 1 one of the four long thin parts at the end of your hand, not including your thumb: Hold the thread between your fingers. | She has a ring on every finger. → INDEX FINGER, LITTLE FINGER, MIDDLE FINGER → see picture on page A3 2 not lift a finger to not make any effort to help someone: I do all the work – Frank never lifts

F

a finger. 3 keep/have your fingers crossed (spoken) said when you hope that something will happen the way you want: Keep your fingers crossed that the car makes it home. 4 put your finger on sth (informal) to realize exactly what is wrong, different, or unusual about something: There's something strange about him, but I can't put my finger on what it is. [ORIGIN: Old English] finger² v. [T] to touch or feel something with your fingers

fin-ger-nail /'fɪŋgə,neɪl/ n. [C] the hard flat part that covers the top end of your finger → see picture at HAND¹

fin-ger-print /'fɪŋgə,prɪnt/ n. [C] the mark made by the pattern of lines at the end of someone's finger fin-ger-tip /'fɪŋgə,tɪp/ n. [C] 1 the end of a finger 2 have sth at your fingertips to have something easily available and ready to use, especially knowledge or information fin-ick-y /'fɪŋɪki/ adj. someone who is finicky only likes a few kinds of food, clothes, music, etc. and is difficult to please: a finicky eater

fin-ish¹ /'fɪnɪʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to do the last part of something, or to stop when everything has been done ANT start: Have you finished your homework? | Everyone applauded when she finished speaking. | What time does the show finish?

THESAURUS end, stop, come to an end, be over → END²

2 [T] also finish off/up to eat, drink, or use all the rest of something: Finish your breakfast before it gets cold. | Who finished off the cake? | Why don't you finish up the apple pie? 3 [I,T] to be in a particular position at the end of a race, competition, etc.: She finished second in the marathon. 4 [T] to give the surface of something a smooth appearance by painting, POLISHING, etc. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French finir, from Latin finire, from finis "end"] finish sth ↔ up phr. v. to end an event, situation, etc. by doing one final thing: We finished up the evening with drinks in a bar downtown.

finish with sth phr. v. be finished with sth to no longer need to use something: Are you finished with the scissors?

finish² n. 1 [C usually singular] the end or last part of something, especially a race: It was a close finish (=the race ended with the competitors close together), but Jarrett won. 2 [C,U] the way that a surface looks after it has been painted or POLISHED: a table with a glossy finish | What kind of finish did you put on the deck?

fin-ish^{ed} /'fɪnɪʃt/ adj. 1 [only before noun] completed: the finished product

THESAURUS done, complete, over → DONE²

2 [not before noun] at the end of an activity: I'm not quite finished. 3 [not before noun] (informal) no longer able to do something successfully: If the bank doesn't loan us the money, we're finished.

'finish line n. [C] the line at the end of a race that a competitor must cross first in order to win fi-nite /'faɪnaɪt/ AC adj. having an end or a limit: the Earth's finite resources

fir /fɜː/ n. [C] a tree with leaves shaped like needles that do not fall off in winter → see picture on page A10

fire¹ /faɪə/ n. 1 [C,U] uncontrolled flames and heat that destroy and damage things: Fire destroyed part of the building. | a forest fire | Police are trying to find out who started the fire. | It took firefighters two days to put out the fire (=stop it burning). | The house is on fire (=burning)! | Some other buildings caught fire (=started to burn). | Rioters set fire to cars and stores (=made them burn).

COLLOCATIONS

verbs used with fire

burn – to produce heat and flames break out – to start burning suddenly rage/blaze – to burn strongly for a long time over a large area die down – to stop burning strongly go out/die – to stop burning completely smolder – to burn slowly with no flames and only a little smoke extinguish/put out – to make a fire stop burning flames – the bright parts of a fire that you see burning in the air blaze – the flames from a fire, or a large and dangerous fire: Firemen fought to keep the blaze under control.

THESAURUS

inferno (literary) – a very large and very dangerous fire: Soon, the house became a raging inferno.
bonfire – a large outdoor fire: a bonfire at the beach campfire – a fire that you build outdoors when you are camping

2 [C] burning wood or coal used to heat a room or provide heat: a campfire | Let's light a fire in the fireplace. 3 [U] shooting by guns: Troops opened fire on (=started shooting at) the rebels. 4 be/come under fire to be criticized very strongly [ORIGIN: Old English fyr]

fire² v. 1 [T] to make someone leave his/her job: She didn't expect to get fired. | Brian was fired from his job at the bank. | My boss fired me for refusing to work over. 2 [I,T] to shoot bullets from a gun: Someone fired a shot. | Frank fired at the target. 3 fire questions (at sb) to ask someone a lot of questions very quickly 4 fire away (spoken) said in order to show that you are ready to answer someone's questions fire sth ↔ off phr. v. 1 to quickly send an angry letter to someone: She fired off an angry e-mail to the manager. 2 to shoot a weapon, often so that there are no bullets, etc. left fire ↔ up phr. v. (informal) 1 fire sth ↔ up to start a machine or piece of equipment, especially one that burns gas: Let's fire up the grill. 2 fire sb ↔ up to make someone very excited and eager: The kids were all fired up for the game.

'fire alarm n. [C] a piece of equipment that makes a loud noise to warn people of a fire in a building fire-arm /'faɪə-ɑ:m/ n. [C] (formal) a gun fire-brand /'faɪə-brænd/ n. [C] (formal) someone who tries to make people angry about a law, government, etc. so that they will try to change it fire-crack-er /'faɪə,k-ræk-ə/ n. [C] a small FIRE-WORK that explodes loudly

'fire department n. [C] an organization that works to prevent fires and stop them from burning

'fire drill n. [C] an occasion when people practice how to leave a burning building safely

'fire engine n. [C] a special large vehicle that carries people and equipment to stop fires from burning

'fire escape n. [C] metal stairs on the outside of a building that people can use in order to escape if there is a fire

'fire extinguisher n. [C] a metal container with water or chemicals in it, used for stopping small fires fire-fight-er /'faɪə,fai-tə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to stop fires fire-fly /'faɪə-flaɪ/ n. (plural fireflies) [C] an insect with a tail that shines in the dark

'fire hydrant n. [C] a water pipe in a street, used for getting water to stop fires fire-man /'faɪə-mən/ n. (plural firemen /-mən/) [C] a man whose job is to stop fires fire-place /'faɪə-pleɪs/ n. [C] an open place in the wall of a room where you can make a fire fire-proof /'faɪə-pru:f/ adj. something that is fire-proof cannot be damaged by fire —fireproof v. [T] fire-side /'faɪə-saɪd/ n. [singular] the area close to a fireplace or around a small fire: We were sitting by the fireside.

'fire station n. [C] a building where the equipment used to stop fires from burning is kept, and where FIREFIGHTERS stay until they are needed

'fire truck n. [C] a FIRE ENGINE fire-wall /'faɪə-wɔ:l/ n. [C] IT a system that protects a computer network from being used or looked at by people who do not have permission to do so fire-wood /'faɪə-wʊd/ n. [U] wood that has been cut or collected in order to be burned on a fire fire-work /'faɪə-wɜ:k/ n. [C usually plural] an object that burns or explodes to produce colored lights and noise in the sky: a Fourth of July fire-works display

'firing squad n. [C] a group of soldiers whose duty is to shoot and kill a prisoner

firm¹ /fɜ:m/ n. [C] ECONOMICS a business or company, especially a small one that does not make goods: a law firm

THESAURUS company, business, corporation, subsidiary → COMPANY

firm² adj. 1 not completely hard, but not soft and not easy to bend: a bed with a firm mattress | Choose the ripest firmest tomatoes.

THESAURUS hard, stiff, solid, rigid → HARD¹

2 [only before noun] definite and not likely to change: No firm decision has been reached. | I'm a firm believer in the value of education. 3 strong and in control: You need to be firm with children.

THESAURUS strict, tough, stern → STRICT

4 strongly fastened or placed in position and not likely to move: Make sure the ladder feels firm before you climb up. 5 a firm grip/grasp/hold etc. a tight strong hold on something: a firm handshake firm³ v.

firm sth ↔ up phr. v. to make arrangements, ideas, or plans more definite and exact: We hope to firm up the deal later this month.

first¹ /fɜ:st/ adj. 1 coming before all the other things or people in a series: Susan was his first girlfriend. | The first time I flew on a plane I was really nervous. | I've only read the first chapter. 2 most important (SYN) main: Our first priority is to maintain the quality of the product. 3 in the first place (spoken) used in order to talk about the beginning of a situation: Why did you agree to meet her in the first place? 4 at first sight/glance the first time that you look at someone or something, before you notice any details: At first sight, there didn't appear to be much damage. 5 first thing (spoken) as soon as you wake up or start work in the morning: I'll call you first thing tomorrow, okay? 6 first things first (spoken) used in order to say that something is important and must be dealt with before other things [ORIGIN: Old English fyrst] → first/second/third string at STRING¹, in the first/second/third place at PLACE¹

first² adv. 1 before anything or anyone else: Who's going first? 2 before doing anything else,

F

or before anything else happens: I'll join you in a minute, but first I've got to make a phone call | First of all, we'd better make sure we have everything we need. 3 done for the first time: The book was first published in 1995. 4 first come, first served used in order to say that only the first people to arrive, ask for something, etc. will be given something: Free movie tickets are being given away on a first come, first served basis.

USAGE

Use first or first of all when you are giving a list of points, reasons, etc.: There are three reasons for this. First of all it is too expensive...

Use first or first of all to say what happens first in a series of actions: First I checked my e-mail. Then I made a couple of calls.

Use at first to say what happened at the beginning of a situation or time, when this changed later: At first, we were very happy together.

F first³ number, pron. 1 at first in the beginning: At first I thought he was weird, but now I really like him. 2 a first something that has never happened before: "Dad actually washed the dishes tonight." "That's a first." 3 the first person or thing in a series: My uncle was the first in my family to go to college. | the 1st of June (=first day of June)

first 'aid n. [U] basic medical treatment that is given as soon as possible to someone who is injured or who suddenly becomes sick first 'base n. [U] in a game of baseball, the first of the four places that a player must touch before gaining a point first 'class n. [U] the best and most expensive place to sit on an airplane, train, or ship: He was sitting in first class.

first-'class² adj. 1 much better than other things of the same type: a first-class educational system

THESAURUS good, great, excellent, wonderful, fantastic, outstanding, exceptional, superb, ace → GOOD¹

2 using the FIRST CLASS on an airplane, train, or ship: two first-class tickets to Hawaii —first class adv.: flying first class

first 'floor n. [C] the floor of a building that is at ground level (SYN) ground floor first-hand /ˈfɜːst'hænd/ adj. [only before noun] firsthand knowledge is knowledge that you get or learn yourself, not from other people —firsthand adv.: experience you have gained firsthand first 'lady n. the First Lady the wife of the President of the U.S.

first-ly /ˈfɜːstli/ adv. used before saying the first of several things: Firstly, I would like to thank everyone for coming.

'first name n. [C] the name that, in English, comes before your family's name → LAST NAME, MIDDLE NAME: Her first name is Caroline.

'first 'person n. 1 the first person ENG. LANG. ARTS the form of a verb or PRONOUN that you use to show that you are the speaker. "I," "we," "me," and "us" are all first person pronouns, and "am" is the first person singular of the verb "to be." → SECOND PERSON, THIRD PERSON 2 in the first person ENG. LANG. ARTS a story in the first person is told by the writer or a speaker who is involved in the story → THIRD PERSON

'first-'person adj. first-person narrative/account/story ENG. LANG. ARTS a story that is told by a first person narrator

'first person 'narrator n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a person who writes or tells a story that s/he is involved in, and who refers to himself or herself as "I." A first person narrator only knows about the events s/he is involved in or is told about. → THIRD PERSON NARRATOR

'first-'rate adj. extremely good: a first-rate performance

'fis-cal /ˈfɪskəl/ adj. ECONOMICS relating to money, taxes, debts, etc., especially those involving the government: the budget for the forthcoming fiscal year | The country faces a fiscal crisis if the government fails to act immediately. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin fiscus "basket, money bag"] —fiscally adv.

'fiscal 'policy n. [C] ECONOMICS a government's plan for dealing with taxes, spending, and borrowing: The Treasury's remedy for inflation is to tighten fiscal policies.

'fiscal 'year n. [C] a period of 12 months, used by a government or business to calculate its accounts

'fish¹ /fɪʃ/ n. (plural fish or fishes) 1 [C] an animal that lives in water and uses its FINS and tail to swim: How many fish did you catch? 2 [U] the flesh of a fish used as food: We had fish for dinner. [ORIGIN: Old English fisc; related to Pisces]

'fish² v. 1 [I] to try to catch fish: Dad's fishing for salmon. 2 [I,T] to search for something in a bag, pocket, etc., or to bring it out when you have found it: He fished around in his pocket for a quarter. | She finally fished a dime out of her jeans. 3 be fishing for compliments to be trying to make someone say nice things about you

'fish-bowl /ˈfɪʃbɔʊl/ n. [C] 1 a place or situation in which you cannot do anything without people knowing about it 2 a glass container that pet fish are kept in

'fish-er-man /ˈfɪʃəmən/ n. (plural fishermen /-mənz/) [C] a man who catches fish as a job or a sport

'fish-er-y /ˈfɪʃəri/ n. (plural fisheries) [C] a part of the ocean that is used for catching fish as a business

'fish-ing /ˈfɪʃɪŋ/ n. [U] the job or sport of catching fish: Do you want to go fishing?

'fishing pole also 'fishing rod n. [C] a long thin pole with a long string and a hook tied to it, used for catching fish fish-net /'fɪʃnɛt/ n. [U] a material with a pattern of threads and small holes like a net: fishnet stockings

fish-y /'fɪʃi/ adj. 1 (informal) seeming bad or dishonest: There's something fishy about his business deals. 2 tasting or smelling like fish fis-sion /'fɪʃən/ n. [U] PHYSICS the process of splitting the NUCLEUS (=central part) of an atom to produce large amounts of energy or an explosion → FUSION [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin fissus, past participle of findere "to split"]

fish-sure /'fɪʃə/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a deep crack in rock or the ground

fit /fɪt/ n. [C] a hand with all the fingers bent tightly in toward the PALM: She held the money tightly in her fist.

fit¹ /fɪt/ v. (past tense and past participle fit or fitted, present participle fitting) 1 [I,T] to be the right size and shape for someone or something: The dress fit her perfectly. | This lid doesn't fit very well. 2 [I] to be the right size and shape for a particular space, and not be too big or too small: This key doesn't seem to fit in the lock. | All of these pieces are supposed to fit together. 3 [I,T] if something fits into a place, there is enough space for it: I don't think we'll be able to fit any more people into the car. | We can't get the table to fit through the door. 4 [T] to put a piece of equipment into a place, or a new part onto a machine, so that it is ready to be used: The windows and doors are all fitted with security locks. 5 [I,T] if something fits another thing, it is similar to it or appropriate for it: A man fitting the police description (=looking like it) was seen running from the park. | We wanted an experienced journalist, and Watts fit the bill (=had the right experience).

fit in phr. v. 1 if someone fits in, s/he is accepted by the other people in a group: New students often have a hard time fitting in. 2 fit sb/sth ↔ in to manage to do something or see someone, even though you have a lot of other things to do: Dr. Tyler can fit you in on Monday at 3:30 p.m.

fit² n. [C] 1 have/throw a fit (spoken) to become very angry and shout a lot: Mom's going to have a fit when she sees what you've done. 2 a short period of time when someone stops being conscious and cannot control his/her body: an epileptic fit 3 a very strong emotion that you cannot control: a fit of rage 4 a period during which you laugh or cough a lot: I had a coughing fit during the concert. 5 be a good/tight/perfect etc. fit to fit a person or a particular space well, tightly, perfectly, etc.: The skirt's a perfect fit.

fit³ adj. 1 appropriate or good enough for something (ANT) unfit: This book is not fit for publication. | You're in no fit state to drive. 2 healthy and strong: He was young and physically fit.

THESAURUS healthy, well, fine, better, in (good) shape → HEALTHY

3 see fit to do sth (formal) to decide that it is right to do something, even though many people disagree: The government has seen fit to start testing more nuclear weapons.

fit-ful /'fɪtʃəl/ adj. always starting and stopping, not continuous or regular: a fitful sleep

fit-ness /'fɪtˈnɪs/ n. [U] 1 the condition of being healthy or strong enough to do hard work or sports: classes to improve your physical fitness 2 the quality of being appropriate for something, especially a job: They were unsure of his fitness for a job as a social worker.

fit-ted /'fɪtɪd/ adj. 1 fitted clothes are designed so that they fit closely to someone's body: a fitted jacket 2 be fitted with sth to have or include something as a permanent part: The food processor is fitted with three blades.

fit-ting¹ /'fɪtɪŋ/ adj. (formal) right or appropriate: It was fitting that it rained the day of his funeral. | The game was a fitting end to the season.

fitting² n. [C] an occasion when you put on clothes that are being made for you to find out if they fit

'fitting room n. [C] a DRESSING ROOM five¹ /faɪv/ number 1 5 2 five o'clock: I get off work at five. 3 five years old: My nephew is almost five. [ORIGIN: Old English fif] five² n. [C] 1 a piece of paper money worth $5 2 give sb five (informal) to hit the inside of someone's hand with the inside of your hand in order to show that you are very pleased about something fix¹ /fɪks/ v. [T]

1 REPAIR to repair something that is broken or not working correctly: I've fixed your bike. | Do you know how to fix the problem?

THESAURUS repair, mend, renovate, restore, service, rebuild, recondition → REPAIR²

2 PREPARE to prepare a meal or drinks: Let me fix you a drink. | Mom was fixing dinner.

3 DECIDE to decide on an exact time, place, price, etc.: Have you fixed a date for the wedding? | The interest rate was fixed at 6.5%

4 HAIR/FACE to make your hair or MAKEUP look neat and attractive: Let me fix my hair first and then we can go.

5 RESULT to make dishonest arrangements so that an election, competition, etc. has the results that you want: If you ask me, the game was fixed. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin fixus, past participle of figere "to fasten"] fix sb/sth ↔ up phr. v.

1 to decorate or repair a room or building: We fixed up the guest bedroom.

2 (informal) to find a romantic partner for someone: Rachel keeps trying to fix me up with her brother.

fix² n. 1 a quick fix something that solves a problem quickly but is only a temporary solution 2 be in a fix to have a problem that is difficult to solve: We're going to be in a real fix if we miss the last bus. 3 get a fix on sb/sth a) to find out exactly where someone or something is b) to understand what someone or something is really like 4 [singular] (slang) an amount of an illegal drug that someone needs to take regularly fix-a-tion /fɪk'seɪʃən/ n. [C] a very strong interest in someone or something that is not healthy or natural: Brian has a fixation with motorcycles. —fixated /'fɪkseɪtɪd/ adj.

F

fixed /fɪkst/ adj. 1 a fixed amount or time cannot be changed: pensioners on a fixed income | fixed costs 2 firmly fastened to something and in a particular position: a mirror fixed to the wall 3 have fixed ideas/opinions (disapproving) to have opinions or ideas that will not change fix-ed-ly /'fɪksɪdli/ adv. without looking at or thinking about anything else: Ann stared fixedly at the screen.

fix-ture /'fɪkstʃə/ n. 1 [C usually plural] a piece of equipment that is attached inside a house, such as an electric light or a FAUCET: a bathroom with gold-plated fixtures 2 be a (permanent) fixture to always be present, and unlikely to move or go away: He's been a fixture in the Senate since 1968.

fizz /fɪz/ n. [singular, U] the BUBBLES of gas in some types of drinks, or the sound they make → see picture on page A7 —fizz v. [I] —fizzy adj.

fiz-zle /'fɪzəl/ v.

fizzle out phr. v. to gradually end in a weak or disappointing way: The party fizzled out before midnight.

FL the written abbreviation of FLORIDA

flab /flæb/ n. [U] (informal) soft loose fat on a person's body flab-ber-gast-ed /'flæbə'gæstɪd/ adj. (informal) extremely shocked or surprised

THESAURUS surprised, amazed, shocked, astonished, astounded, stunned, dumbfounded, nonplussed, taken aback → SURPRISED

flab-by /'flæbi/ adj. (informal) having too much soft loose fat instead of strong muscles: flabby arms

flac-cid /'flæsɪd/ adj. soft and weak instead of firm: flaccid muscles

flag¹ /flæg/ n. [C] 1 a piece of cloth with a picture or pattern that is used to represent a particular country or organization: The children were waving flags. | the French flag 2 a piece of colored cloth used as a signal: The flag went down, and the race began. [ORIGIN: (1) 1400—1500 Old Norse flaga]

flag² v. (flagged, flagging) [I] to become tired, weak, or less interested in something: By the end of the meeting we had begun to flag. —flagging adj.

flag sb/sth ↔ down phr. v. to make the driver of a vehicle stop by waving at him/her: I flagged down a cab.

fla-gel-lum /flə'dʒələm/ n. (plural flagella /-lə/) [C] BIOLOGY a thin part, like a hair, that grows from the surface of some cells and from BACTERIA, which helps them move around flag-pole /'flægpəʊl/ n. [C] a tall pole used for hanging flags fla-grant /'fleɪgrənt/ adj. a flagrant action is shocking because it is done in a very noticeable way and shows no respect for the law, the truth, etc.: The arrests are a flagrant violation of human rights. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin flagrare “to burn”] —flagrantly adv.

flag-ship /'flægʃɪp/ n. [C] 1 the most important ship in a group of Navy ships, on which the ADMIRAL sails 2 [usually singular] a company's best and most important product, building, etc.

flag-stone /'flægstəʊn/ n. [C] a smooth flat piece of stone used for floors, paths, etc.

flail /fleɪl/ v. [I, T] to wave your arms and legs in a fast but uncontrolled way flair /fleɪr/ n. [singular, U] a natural ability to do something very well: He has a flair for languages.

THESAURUS skill, talent, ability, knack, gift, aptitude → SKILL

flak /flæk/ n. [U] (informal) strong criticism: She got a lot of flak for that decision.

flake¹ /fleɪk/ v. [I] to break or come off in small thin pieces: The paint on the door is starting to flake off.

flake out phr. v. (spoken) to do something strange or to not do what you said you were going to do: Kathy kind of flaked out on us today.

flake² n. [C] 1 a small flat thin piece that breaks off of something: The paint was coming off the door in flakes. 2 (slang) someone who easily forgets things or who does strange things flak-y /'fleɪki/ adj. 1 tending to break into small thin pieces: rich, flaky croissants 2 (slang) someone who is flaky easily forgets things or does strange things flam-boy-ant /fləm'boɪənt/ adj. 1 behaving in a loud, confident, or exciting way that makes people notice you: flamboyant gestures 2 noticeable because of being brightly colored, expensive, big, etc.: a flamboyant red sequined dress [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French, present participle of flamboyer “to flame”] —flamboyance n. [U] flame /fleɪm/ n. [C, U] 1 hot bright burning gas that you see when something is on fire: Flames poured out of the windows. 2 in flames burning strongly: By the time the firemen arrived, the house was in flames.

fla-men-co /flə'men'kou/ n. [C, U] a very fast and exciting Spanish dance, or the music for this dance [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Spanish “person from Flanders;” in former times the people of Flanders wore bright clothes and were often thought to look like gypsy dancers] flam-ing /ˈfleɪmɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] 1 very bright: flaming red hair 2 burning strongly and brightly: flaming torches fla-min-go /fləˈmɪŋɡoʊ/ n. (plural flamingos or flamingoes) [C] a tall tropical water bird with long thin legs, pink feathers, and a long neck [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Portuguese flamengo, from Provençal flamenc “flamingo, fire-bird”] flam-ma-ble /ˈflæməbəl/ adj. something that is flammable burns very easily (ANT) nonflammable

THESAURUS

Flammable and inflammable both describe something that burns very easily, but people usually use flammable.

Nonflammable describes something that does not burn easily.

flank¹ /flæŋk/ n. [C] 1 the side of a person's or animal's body between the RIBS and the HIP 2 the side of an army in a battle: The enemy attacked us on our left flank.

flank² v. [T] to be on both sides of someone or something: The President arrived, flanked by bodyguards.

flan-nel /ˈflænl/ n. [U] soft light cotton or wool cloth that is used for making warm clothes: a flannel shirt

flap¹ /flæp/ v. (flapped, flapping) 1 [T] if a bird flaps its wings, it moves them up and down 2 [I] if a piece of cloth, paper, etc. flaps, it moves around quickly and makes a noise: The ship's sails flapped in the wind.

flap² n. [C] a thin flat piece of cloth, paper, skin, etc. that is attached by one end to a surface, which you can lift up easily: the flap of the envelope flare¹ /flær/ v. 1 [I] also flare up to suddenly begin to burn very brightly: The fire flared up again. 2 [I] also flare up if strong feelings flare or flare up, people suddenly become angry, violent, etc.: Tempers flared during the debate. 3 [I] also flare up if a disease or illness flares up, it suddenly becomes worse: My allergies are flaring up. 4 [I,T] to become wider at the bottom edge, or to make something do this: a skirt that flares out flare² n. [C] a very bright light used outdoors as a signal to show people where you are, especially because you need help

'flare-up n. [C] 1 a situation in which someone suddenly becomes angry or violent 2 a situation in which someone suddenly has problems because of a disease or illness after not having any problems for a long time: a flare-up of her arthritis

flash¹ /flæʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to suddenly shine brightly for a short time, or to make something shine in this way: Lightning flashed overhead. | Why did that guy flash his headlights at me?

THESAURUS

shine, flicker, twinkle, glow, sparkle, shimmer, gleam, glint, glisten → SHINE¹

2 [I] to move very quickly: An ambulance flashed by/past. 3 [T] to show something to someone suddenly and for a short amount of time: Sergeant Wicks flashed his badge. 4 [I] flash through sb's mind/head/brain if images, thoughts, memories, etc. flash through your mind, you suddenly remember or think about them: The possibility that he was lying flashed through my mind. 5 flash a smile/glance/look etc. to smile or look at someone quickly flash² n. [C] 1 a sudden quick bright light: a flash of lightning 2 a bright light on a camera that you use when taking photographs indoors or when there is not much light: Did the flash go off? → CAMERA 3 in a flash very quickly: Wait right here. I'll be back in a flash. 4 a flash in the pan someone or something that is successful only for a very short time flash-back /ˈflæʃbæk/ n. 1 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS part of a movie, play, book, etc. that shows something that happened earlier 2 [C] a very sudden memory of a past event flash-card /ˈflæʃkɑːd/ n. [C] a card with a word or picture on it, used in teaching flash-er /ˈflæʃə/ n. [C] (informal) someone who shows his or her sex organs in public

'flash flood n. [C] a sudden flood that is caused by a lot of rain falling in a short period of time flash-light /ˈflæʃlaɪt/ n. [C] a small electric light that you carry in your hand → see picture at LIGHT¹ flash-y /ˈflæʃi/ adj. very big, bright, or expensive: a flashy new sports car

flask /flæsk/ n. [C] 1 a small flat container used for carrying alcohol in your pocket 2 a glass bottle with a narrow top used by scientists flat¹ /flæt/ adj. (comparative flatter, superlative flat-test) 1 smooth and level, with no slopes or raised parts: The highway stays flat for the next 50 miles. | a flat roof level – a surface or area that is level does not slope in any direction, so that every part of it is at the same height: Make sure the shelves are level. smooth – having an even surface, without any holes or raised areas: Sand the wood until it is smooth.

THESAURUS

even – flat, level, and smooth: Make sure that the floor is even before laying tiles.

horizontal – a horizontal line, position, or surface is straight, flat, and not sloping: horizontal layers of rock

2 flat rate/fee etc. an amount of money that is paid and that does not increase or decrease: They charge a flat rate for delivery. 3 a tire that is flat does not have enough air inside it 4 a drink that is flat does not taste fresh because it has no more BUBBLES of gas: This Coke is completely flat. 5 a flat refusal/denial etc. a refusal, etc. that is definite and which someone will not change 6 ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note that is flat is played or sung slightly lower than it should be, in a way that is unpleasant → SHARP 7 E flat/B flat etc. ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note that is lower than E, B, etc. by a specific amount → SHARP

flat² adv. 1 in a straight position or stretched against a flat surface: The box can be folded flat for storage. | I have to lie flat on my back when I sleep. 2 in 10 seconds/two minutes etc. flat (informal) very quickly, in 10 seconds, two minutes, etc.: I was out of the house in 10 minutes flat. 3 fall flat if a joke, story, etc. falls flat, it does not achieve the effect that is intended: All of her jokes fell flat. 4 ENG. LANG. ARTS if you sing or play music flat, you sing or play slightly lower than the correct note so that the sound is unpleasant → SHARP 5 flat out (informal) in a direct and complete way: She asked him flat out if he was seeing another woman.

flat³ n. [C] 1 (informal) a tire that does not have enough air inside it: The car has a flat. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note that is one HALF STEP lower than a particular note → SHARP 3 flats [plural] a type of women's shoes with very low heels

'flat character n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a character (=person) in a book, movie, etc. with only one or two features or qualities, who is not interesting and does not have an effect on the way the story develops → ROUND CHARACTER flat-ly 'flætli/ adv. 1 said in a definite way that is not likely to change: They flatly refused to help me. 2 without showing any emotion: "It's hopeless," he said flatly.

'flat screen n. [C] IT a very thin flat television or computer screen with a very sharp clear picture → see picture on page A6 flat-ten 'flætˈn/ v. [I,T] to make something flat or to become flat: The hills flatten out near the coast.

flat-ter 'flætə/ v. [T] 1 be/feel flattered to be pleased because someone has shown you that s/he likes or admires you: When they asked me to come, I felt flattered. 2 to say nice things about someone or show that you admire him or her, sometimes when you do not really mean it: He always flatters my mom by praising her cooking.

THESAURUS praise, congratulate, compliment sb/pay sb a compliment, extol, commend → PRAISE¹

3 to make someone look as attractive as s/he can: That dress really flatters your figure. 4 flatter yourself to believe that your abilities or achievements are better than they really are: "I think you like me more than you'll admit." "Don't flatter yourself." [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French flater "to move the tongue against, flatter"] —flatterer n. [C] —flattering adj.

flat-ter-y 'flætəri/ n. [U] nice things that you say about someone or something, but which you do not really mean: Flattery will get you nowhere! (=will not help you get what you want) flat-u-lence 'flætʃələns/ n. [U] (formal) the condition of having too much gas in your stomach

flaunt /flɒnt, flant/ v. [T] to deliberately show your money, success, beauty, etc. in order to make other people notice it: Pam was flaunting a new diamond ring.

fla-vor¹ 'fleɪvə/ n. 1 [C] the particular taste of a food or a drink: Which flavor do you want – chocolate or vanilla? | The wine has a smoky flavor. | the strong flavor of the cheese 2 [U] the quality of tasting good: The meat was cooked exactly right and full of flavor. 3 [singular] a small amount of a particular quality that shows what the typical qualities of something are: His book gives us the flavor of life on a midwestern farm.

flavor² v. [T] to give something a particular taste or more taste: The sauce is flavored with herbs.

fla-vored 'fleɪvəd/ adj. strawberry-flavored/ chocolate-flavored etc. tasting like a STRAWBERRY, chocolate, etc.: almond-flavored cookies fla-vor-ing 'fleɪvərɪŋ/ n. [C,U] a substance used to give food or drink a particular flavor flaw /flɔ/ n. [C] 1 a mark or weakness that makes something not perfect: I could see a flaw in the glass.

THESAURUS defect, problem, bug, fault, imperfection → DEFECT¹

2 a mistake in an argument, plan, etc.: There is a fundamental flaw in his argument. 3 a bad part of someone's character flawed /flɒd/ adj. spoiled by having mistakes, weaknesses, or damage: The whole system is deeply flawed.

flaw-less 'flɒlɪs/ adj. perfect, with no mistakes, marks, or weaknesses (SYN) perfect: Lena has flawless skin. —flawlessly adv.

flea /fli/ n. [C] a very small jumping insect that bites animals to drink their blood flea-bag 'fli bæg/ adj. (informal) cheap and dirty: a fleabag hotel

'flea market n. [C] a market, usually in the street, where old or used goods are sold fleck /fleɪk/ n. [C] a small mark or spot: a black beard with flecks of gray

flecked /flekt/ adj. having small marks or spots: His jeans were flecked with white paint.

fledg-ling /'fledʒlɪŋ/ adj. a fledgling country, organization, etc. is new and still developing: a fledgling republic flee /fli/ v. (past tense and past participle fled /fled/) [I,T] to leave somewhere very quickly in order to escape from danger: The president was forced to flee the country.

THESAURUS escape, get away, get out, break out, break free/break away, abscond → ESCAPE¹

fleece¹ /flis/ n. [C] 1 the wool of a sheep 2 an artificial soft material used for making warm coats —fleecy adj.

fleece² v. [T] (informal) to charge someone too much money for something, usually by tricking him/her fleet /flit/ n. [C] 1 a group of ships, or all the ships in a navy 2 a group of vehicles that are controlled by one company: a fleet of trucks fleet-ing /'fli:tɪŋ/ adj. happening for only a moment: a fleeting smile

flesh¹ /flesh/ n. [U] 1 the soft part of the body of a person or animal, between the skin and the bones: a freshwater fish with firm white flesh 2 the soft part of a fruit or vegetable that you eat → see picture on page 414 3 (see/meet sb) in the flesh to see someone whom you previously had only seen in a picture, on television, or in a movie: He's more handsome in the flesh than on television. 4 your own flesh and blood someone who is part of your family flesh² v.

flesh sth ↔ out phr. v. to add more details to something: You need to flesh out your essay with more examples.

flesh-y /'fleshɪ/ adj. having a lot of flesh: a round fleshy face flew /flu/ v. the past tense of FLY

flex /fleks/ v. [T] to bend and move part of your body so that your muscles become tight flex-i-ble /'fleksəbəl/ (AC) adj. 1 able to change easily (ANT) inflexible: flexible working hours | Teachers have to be flexible. 2 easy to bend: flexible plastic [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin flexibilis, from flexus, past participle of flectere “to bend”] —flexibility /'fleksə'bɪləti/ n. [U]: You need some flexibility in how you deal with bad behavior. | Stretching improves your flexibility.

flex-time /'fleks,taim/ n. [U] a system in which people can change the times at which they start and finish working flick¹ /flɪk/ v. 1 [T] to make something move by hitting or pushing it quickly, especially with your thumb and finger: Barry flicked the ash from his cigarette. → see picture on page A8 2 [I,T] to move with a quick sudden movement, or to make something move in this way: She flicked her hair back from her face. 3 [T] to press a SWITCH to start or stop electrical equipment: He flicked the light switch on.

flick² n. [C] 1 (spoken) a movie: That was a great flick! → MOVIE 2 a short sudden movement or hit with your hand, a whip, etc.

flick-er¹ /'flɪkə/ v. [I] 1 to burn or shine with an unsteady light: flickering candles

THESAURUS shine, flash, twinkle, glow, sparkle, shimmer, gleam, glint, glisten → SHINE¹

2 (literary) if an emotion or expression flickers on someone's face, it appears for only a short time: A look of anger flickered across Andrea's face.

flicker² n. 1 [singular] an unsteady light that goes on and off quickly: the flicker of the old gas lamp 2 a flicker of interest/guilt etc. a feeling or an expression on your face that only continues for a short time: Not even a flicker of emotion showed on his face.

fli-er /'flaɪə/ n. [C] a sheet of paper advertising something

THESAURUS advertisement, commercial, billboard, poster, junk mail → ADVERTISEMENT

flight /flaɪt/ n. 1 [C] a trip in an airplane or space vehicle, or the airplane or vehicle that is making the trip: We caught the next flight home. | Our flight leaves in 20 minutes. | We almost missed our flight. | I'm coming in on Flight 255 from Chicago. 2 [U] the act of flying through the air: a bird in flight 3 [C] a set of stairs between one floor and the next: She fell down a whole flight of stairs. 4 [U] the act of avoiding a difficult situation by leaving or escaping: The movie ends with the family's flight from Austria in World War II. [ORIGIN: Old English flyht] flight attendant n. [C] someone who is responsible for the comfort and safety of the passengers on an airplane flight deck n. [C] the place where the pilot sits to control the airplane flight-less /'flaɪtlɪs/ adj. a bird that is flightless is unable to fly flight-y /'flaɪtɪ/ adj. someone who is flighty changes his/her ideas or activities a lot without finishing them or being serious about them

flim-sy /'flɪmzi/ adj. 1 flimsy clothing or material is thin, light, and does not cover much of the body: a flimsy summer blouse 2 weak and not made very well: a flimsy table 3 a flimsy argument, excuse, etc. does not seem very likely and people do not believe it: The evidence against him is very flimsy.

flinch /flɪntʃ/ v. [I] 1 to make a sudden small backward movement when you are hurt or afraid of something: He raised his hand, and the child flinched. 2 to avoid doing something because it is difficult or unpleasant: He never flinches from the truth, no matter how painful.

F

fling¹ /flɪŋ/ v. (past tense and past participle flung /flʌŋ/) [T] to throw or move something quickly with a lot of force: She flung her coat onto the bed and sat down. | Val flung her arms around my neck.

THESAURUS throw, toss, chuck, hurl, cast, pass, pitch, lob → THROW¹

fling² n. [C] a short and not very serious sexual relationship flint /flɪnt/ n. [C,U] a type of very hard black or gray stone that makes a small flame when you strike it with steel

flip¹ /flɪp/ v. (flipped, flipping) 1 [I,T] to turn over quickly, or to make something turn over: The vehicle flipped over several times. | Let's flip a coin to see who goes first. 2 [T] to change the position of something: You just flip a switch and the machine does everything for you. 3 also flip out [I] (informal) to suddenly become very angry or upset, or start behaving in a crazy way: Harry flipped out when he found out that I'd wrecked his motorcycle.

flip through sth phr. v. to look at a book, magazine, etc. quickly flip² n. [C] a movement in which you jump up and turn over in the air, so that your feet go over your head flip³ adj. (informal) FLIPPANT

'flip chart n. [C] large pieces of paper which are connected at the top so that you can turn the pages over to present information to groups of people

'flip-flop n. [C] (informal) an occasion when someone changes his/her decision —flip-flop v. [I] flip-pant /'flɪpənt/ adj. not serious about something that other people think you should be serious about: a flippant answer flip-per /'flɪpə/ n. [C] 1 a flat part on the body of some large sea animals, used for pushing themselves through water 2 a large flat rubber shoe that you use in order to help you swim faster

'flip side n. [singular] (informal) the bad effects of something that also has good effects: The flip side is that the medicine may cause hair loss.

flirt¹ /flɪt/ v. [I] to behave toward someone as though you are sexually attracted to him/her, but not in a very serious way: He's always flirting with the women in the office.

flirt with sth phr. v. 1 to consider doing something, but not be very serious about it: I've been flirting with the idea of moving to Greece. 2 flirt with danger/disaster etc. to do something that might be dangerous or have a very bad effect flirt² n. [C] someone who flirts: Dave is such a flirt!

flir-ta-tion /flɪ'teɪʃən/ n. 1 [U] behavior that shows you are sexually attracted to someone, but not in a serious way 2 [C] a short period of time during which you are interested in someone or something flir-ta-tious /flɪ'teɪʃəs/ adj. behaving as if you are sexually attracted to someone, but not in a serious way flit /flɪt/ v. (flitted, flitting) [I] to move quickly from one place to another, never staying long in any one place: birds flitting from branch to branch

float¹ /flaʊt/ v. 1 a) [I] to stay or move on the surface of a liquid without sinking: Leaves were floating on the surface of the water. | Their raft was floating away. b) [T] to put something on the surface of a liquid so that it does not sink: Children were floating small boats on the lake. 2 [I] to stay in the air or move slowly through the air: I watched a balloon float up into the sky. 3 [T] to suggest an idea or plan, especially in order to find out what people think about it: Bob floated the idea in a recent meeting. 4 [T] ECONOMICS to sell SHARES in a company or business to the public for the first time [ORIGIN: Old English flotan]

float² n. [C] 1 a large vehicle that is decorated to be part of a PARADE 2 a SOFT DRINK that has ICE CREAM floating in it

flock¹ /flæk/ n. [C] 1 a group of sheep, goats, or birds: a flock of geese 2 a large group of people of the same type flock² v. [I] if people flock to a place, a lot of them go there: People are flocking to that new Thai restaurant.

flog /flag, flɒg/ v. (flogged, flogging) [T] to beat a person or animal with a whip or stick as a punishment —flogging n. [C]

flood¹ /flʌd/ v. 1 [I,T] to make a place become covered with water, or to become covered with water: The river floods the valley every spring. | The basement flooded and everything got soaked. 2 [I,T] to arrive or go somewhere in large numbers or amounts: Offers of help came flooding in. 3 be flooded with sth to receive so many letters, complaints, etc. that you cannot deal with them all: After the show, the station was flooded with calls from angry viewers. 4 flood the market ECONOMICS to sell something in very large quantities, so that the price goes down 5 [I] if a memory or a feeling floods back, you remember it very strongly flood² n. [C] 1 a very large amount of water that covers an area that is usually dry: The town was destroyed by floods. 2 a very large number of things or people that arrive at the same time: A flood of lawsuits followed the plane crash. 3 EARTH SCIENCES a FLOOD TIDE

flood-gate /'flʌdɡeɪt/ n. open the floodgates to suddenly make it possible for a lot of people to do something: The case could open the floodgates for thousands of other similar claims.

flood-ing /'flʌdɪŋ/ n. [U] a situation in which an area that is usually dry becomes covered with water: The heavy rain has caused more flooding.

flood-light /'flʌdlaɪt/ n. [C] a very bright light, used at night to light the outside of buildings, sports fields, etc.

flood-lit /'flʌd,lɪt/ adj. lit by floodlights

'flood plain n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a large area of flat land on either side of a river that becomes covered with water when the river is too full

'flood tide n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES the flow of the ocean toward the land, when the TIDE comes in → EBB TIDE

floor¹ /flɔːr/ n. [C] 1 the surface that you stand on when you are inside a building: the kitchen floor | She found her keys on the floor.

THESAURUS ground, land, earth →
GROUND¹

2 one of the levels in a building: My office is on the third floor. 3 ocean/forest/valley etc. floor the ground at the bottom of the ocean or in a forest → see picture at PHOTIC 4 the floor a) the part of a public or government building where people discuss things: an argument on the Senate floor b) the people attending a public meeting: Are there any questions from the floor? 5 an area in a room where people can dance: couples on the dance floor 6 an area in a building where a lot of people do their job: the factory floor [ORIGIN: Old English flor] floor² v. [T] 1 to surprise or shock someone so much that s/he does not know what to say or do: I was completely floored by his question. 2 to make a car go as fast as possible floor-board

/'flɔːrbɔːrd/ n. [C] 1 a board in a wooden floor 2 the floor in a car floor-ing /'flɔːrɪŋ/ n. [U] a material used to make or cover floors

'floor-length adj. long enough to reach the floor: a floor-length skirt

'floor plan n. [C] a drawing that shows the shape of a room or rooms in a building and the positions of things in it, as seen from above floo-zy /'fluːzi/ n. (plural floozies) [C] (informal, disapproving) a woman who has sexual relationships with a lot of different men flop¹ /flɒp/ v. (flopped, flopping) [I] 1 to sit or fall down quickly, especially because you are tired: Jan flopped down on the bed. 2 (informal) if something such as a product, play, or plan flops, it is not successful: The musical flopped after its first week on Broadway.

flop² n. [C] 1 (informal) a film, play, plan, etc. that is not successful: Her last movie was a flop. 2 a heavy falling movement or the noise that it makes: He fell with a flop into the water.

flop-house /'flɒphaʊs/ n. [C] (slang) a cheap hotel, especially one that has many beds in one room flop-py /'flɒpi/ adj. soft and hanging loosely down: a floppy hat

'floppy 'disk also floppy n. [C] IT a small flat piece of plastic, used for storing information from a computer flo-ra /'flɔːrə/ n. [U] BIOLOGY all the plants that grow in a particular place → FAUNA [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Modern Latin, Latin Flora, Roman female god of flowers, from flos “flower”]

flo-ral /'flɔːrəl/ adj. made of flowers or decorated with flowers: fabrics with floral patterns

floor-id /'flɔːrɪd, 'flaɪrɪd/ adj. 1 florid language, writing, or music, etc. has too much decoration or detail: florid language 2 (literary) skin that is florid is red: florid cheeks flo-rist /'flɔːrɪst, 'flaɪ-/ n. [C] someone who owns or works in a store that sells flowers floss /flɒs, flʌs/ v. [I,T] to clean between your teeth with DENTAL FLOSS

flo-til-la /fləʊ'tɪlə/ n. [C] a group of small ships [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Spanish flota “group of ships”]

flounce /flaʊns/ v. [I] to walk in a way that shows you are angry: She frowned and flounced out of the room.

floun-der /'flaʊndə/ v. [I] 1 to not know what to say or do because you feel confused or upset: She floundered helplessly, unable to answer his question. 2 to have a lot of problems and be likely to fail completely: The economy is floundering. 3 to move awkwardly or with difficulty, especially in water, mud, etc.

flour /flaʊə/ n. [U] a powder made from grain, usually wheat, that is used for making bread, cakes, etc.

flour-ish¹ /'flaʊɪʃ, 'flaɪɪʃ/ v. [I] to grow or develop well: The plants flourished in the warm sun. | His business is flourishing. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French florir “to produce flowers,” from Latin flos “flower”] flourish² n. with a flourish with a large confident movement that makes people notice you: He handed us his coat with a flourish.

flout /flaʊt/ v. [T] (formal) to deliberately disobey a rule or law

THESAURUS disobey, break a rule/law, rebel, defy, violate, infringe, contravene → DISOBEY

flow¹ /fləʊ/ v. [I] 1 if a liquid flows, it moves in a steady continuous stream: The river flows past our cabin.

THESAURUS pour, drip, leak, ooze, gush, spurt, run, come out → POUR

2 to move easily, smoothly, and continuously from one place to another: The cars flowed in a steady stream. 3 a) if conversation or ideas flow, people talk or have ideas without being interrupted b) if the ideas or words of a speech or piece of writing flow, they seem to go well together and make sense: If I change this paragraph, do you think it will flow better? 4 if clothing, hair, etc. flows, it hangs loosely and gracefully: Her hair flowed down over her shoulders. [ORIGIN: Old English flōwan]

flow² n. 1 [C usually singular] a smooth steady movement of liquid: They tried to stop the flow of blood. 2 [C usually singular] a continuous movement of something from one place to another: the constant flow of traffic in the street 3 [U] actions, words, or ideas that are produced continuously: I had interrupted the flow of their conversation. 4 go with the flow (spoken) to do what is easiest in your situation, and not try to do something difficult → CASH FLOW flow chart n. [C] a drawing that uses shapes and ARROWS to show how a series of actions or parts of a system are connected with each other → see picture at CHART¹

flower¹ /flaʊə/ n. [C] 1 the colored part of a plant or tree that produces the seeds or fruit: The tree has beautiful pink flowers in early spring. → see picture at PLANT¹ 2 a small plant that produces beautiful flowers: She's growing vegetables and flowers in the garden. | a bouquet of flowers 3 in flower a plant that is in flower has flowers on it [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French flor, flour, from Latin flos]

flower² v. [I] to produce flowers flow-er-bed /'flaʊə,bɛd/ n. [C] an area of ground in which flowers are grown flow-ered /'flaʊəd/ adj. decorated with pictures of flowers: a flowered dress flow-er-pot /'flaʊə,pɒt/ n. [C] a pot in which you grow plants flow-er-y /'flaʊəri/ adj. 1 decorated with pictures of flowers: a flowery pattern 2 flowery speech or writing uses complicated and unusual words instead of simple clear language flown /fləʊn/ v. the past participle of FLY flow resource n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a natural RESOURCE such as wind, light from the Sun, or flowing water, that must be used at the time or place that it exists flu /flu/ n. [U] a common disease that is like a bad cold but is more serious: Both of us have had the flu recently. | I was in bed with the flu. | She fell ill with flu-like symptoms (=felt tired, had a sore throat, was coughing, etc.). | a flu bug/virus

flub /flʌb/ v. (flubbed, flubbing) [I,T] (informal) to make a mistake or do something badly: Several of the actors flubbed their lines.

fluc-tu-ate /'flʌktʃu,eɪt/ (Ac) v. [I] if a price or amount fluctuates, it keeps changing from a high level to a low one and back again: Currency exchange rates fluctuate from day to day. | The price has fluctuated between $3 and $6 a share. | The temperature in the room fluctuated wildly. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin fluctuare, from fluere “to flow”] —fluctuation /,flʌktʃu'eɪʃən/ n. [C]: fluctuations in oil prices

flue /flu/ n. [C] a pipe through which smoke or heat from a fire can pass out of a building flu-ent /'fluənt/ adj. able to speak or write a language very well: Ted is fluent in French. | He spoke fluent English. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, present participle of fluere “to flow”] —fluently adv.: She speaks Spanish fluently. —fluency n. [U]

fluff¹ /flʌf/ n. [U] 1 small light pieces of waste wool, thread, etc. 2 (disapproving) news, music, writing, work, etc. that is not serious or important: The movie is pure romantic fluff. 3 very soft fur or feathers, especially from a young animal or bird fluff² also fluff up/out v. [T] to make something soft appear larger by shaking or brushing it: a bird fluffing out its feathers fluff-y /'flʌfi/ adj. made of or covered with something soft and light: a fluffy kitten flu-id¹ /'fluɪd/ n. [C,U] a liquid: My doctor told me to rest and drink plenty of fluids.

fluid² adj. 1 fluid movements are smooth and graceful 2 a situation that is fluid is likely to change or is able to change —fluidity /fluɪ'dɪti/ n. [U] fluid ounce (written abbreviation fl oz) n. [C] a unit for measuring liquid, equal to 1/16 of a PINT or 0.0296 liters fluke /fluk/ n. [C] (informal) something that only happens because of chance or luck: Their victory was a fluke.

flung /flʌŋ/ v. the past tense and past participle of FLING flunk /flʌŋk/ v. [I,T] (informal) to fail a test or course, or to give someone a low grade so s/he does this: I flunked the history exam. | Mrs. Harris flunked me in English.

flunk out phr. v. (informal) to be forced to leave a school or college because your work is not good enough: Tim flunked out of Yale.

flun-ky /'flʌŋki/ n. (plural flunkies) [C] (informal) someone who does the boring or physical work that someone else tells him or her to do flu-o-res-cent /flu'ɹesənt, flɔ-/ adj. 1 a fluorescent light is a very bright electric light in the form of a tube 2 fluorescent colors shine very brightly [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 fluorspar, type of fluorescent mineral (18—21 centuries), from Modern Latin fluor “mineral used for melting,” from Latin fluere “to flow”]

fluor-ide /'flɔraɪd/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a chemical that helps to protect teeth against decay

fluor-ine /'flɔrɪn, 'flɔr-/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol F) a chemical substance that is usually in the form of a poisonous gas. It is a chemical ELEMENT belonging to the HALOGEN group.

flur-ry /'flɜːi, 'flɜːri/ n. (plural flurries) 1 [C usually singular] an occasion when there is suddenly a lot of activity for a short time: His arrival produced a flurry of excitement. 2 [C usually plural] an occasion when it snows for a short time: Snow flurries are expected tonight.

flush¹ /flʌʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] if a toilet flushes, or if you flush it, you make water go through it to clean it 2 [I] to become red in the face, especially because you are embarrassed or angry → FLUSHED: Billy flushed and looked down. 3 [T] also flush out to clean something by forcing water through it: Drinking water helps flush out harmful substances from the body.

flush² n. 1 [singular] the red color that appears on your face when you are embarrassed or angry 2 a flush of pride/embarrassment/happiness etc. a sudden feeling of pride, embarrassment, etc.: He felt a strong flush of pride as he watched his daughter on stage.

flush³ adj. [not before noun] 1 if two surfaces are flush, they are at exactly the same level, so that the place where they meet is flat: Is that cupboard flush with the wall? 2 (informal) if someone is flush, s/he has plenty of money: I'll buy dinner. I'm feeling flush right now.

flushed /flʌʃt/ adj. 1 red in the face: You look a little flushed. 2 flushed with excitement/success excited or pleased in a way that is easy to notice: Jill ran in, flushed with excitement.

flus-tered /'flʌstəd/ adj. feeling nervous and confused: Jay got flustered and forgot what he was supposed to say.

flute /flut/ n. [C] a musical instrument shaped like a pipe that you play by holding it across your lips and blowing into it [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French flahute, from Old Provençal flaut] → see picture at WOODWIND —flutist n. [C] flut-ter /'flʌtə/ v. 1 [I,T] if a bird or insect flutters, or flutters its wings, its wings move quickly and lightly up and down: moths fluttering around the light 2 [I] to wave or move gently in the air: flags fluttering in the wind 3 [I] if your heart or your stomach flutters, you feel very excited or nervous —flutter n. [singular] flux /flʌks/ n. be in (a state of) flux to be changing a lot so that you cannot be sure what will happen: The economy is in flux at the moment.

fly¹ /flaɪ/ v. (past tense flew /flu/, past participle flown /floun/, third person singular flies)

1 THROUGH AIR [I,T] to move through the air, or to make something do this: We watched the birds flying overhead. | He was flying a kite in the park. | The planes fly right over our house.

2 TRAVEL [I] to travel by airplane: Are you going to fly or drive? | Fran flew to Paris last week.

3 AIRLINE [I,T] to use a particular AIRLINE or use a particular type of ticket when flying: He usually flies first class.

4 BE A PILOT [I,T] to be the pilot of an airplane: Bill's learning to fly.

5 SEND SB/STH BY AIRPLANE [T] to take goods or people somewhere by airplane: Food and medicine are being flown into the area.

6 MOVE [I] to suddenly move very quickly: Timmy flew down the stairs and out the door. | The door suddenly flew open.

7 TIME [I] (informal) if time flies, it seems to pass quickly: Is it 5:30 already? Boy, time sure does fly! | Last week just flew by.

8 fly off the handle (informal) to suddenly become angry for no good reason

9 FLAG [I,T] if a flag is flying, it is fixed to the top of a tall pole

fly² n. (plural flies) [C] 1 a common small flying insect with two wings: There were flies all over the food. 2 (informal) the part at the front of a pair of pants that you can open: Your fly is unzipped. 3 a hook that is made to look like a fly, used for catching fish

'fly-by-night adj. [only before noun] (informal, disapproving) a fly-by-night organization cannot be trusted and is not likely to exist very long: fly-by-night operators who take your money and run

fly-er /'flaɪə/ n. [C] a FLIER

fly-ing¹ /'flaɪ-ɪŋ/ n. [U] the activity of traveling by airplane or of being a pilot: fear of flying fly-ing² adj. 1 able to fly: a type of flying insect 2 with flying colors if you pass a test with flying colors, you are very successful on it flying 'saucer n. [C] a space vehicle shaped like a plate that some people believe carries creatures from another world (SYN UFO)

fly-swat-ter /'flaɪ,swʌtə/ n. [C] a plastic square attached to a long handle, used for killing flies

FM n. [U] frequency modulation a system of broadcasting radio programs which produces a clear sound → AM foal /foʊl/ n. [C] a very young horse

foam¹ /foʊm/ n. [U] 1 a lot of very small BUBBLES on the surface of something: white foam on the tops of the waves 2 a light solid substance filled with many very small BUBBLES of air: foam packing material —foamy adj.

foam² v. [I] 1 to produce foam 2 foam at the mouth to be very angry foam 'rubber n. [U] soft rubber full of air BUBBLES that is used, for example, to fill PILLOWS fo-cal point /'foʊkəl, 'pɔɪnt/ n. [C] someone or something that you pay the most attention to: Television has become the focal point of most American homes.

F

fo-cus¹ /'foʊkəs/ (Ac) v. [I,T] 1 to give all your attention to a particular thing: In his speech he focused on the economy. | She tried to focus her attention on her work. 2 to change the position of the LENS on a camera, TELESCOPE, etc. so you can see something clearly: The telescopes are focused on a distant part of the galaxy. → CAMERA 3 if you focus your eyes, or if your eyes focus, you are able to see something clearly [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin “hearth (=place for a fire in a house)”]

focus² (Ac) n. 1 [singular] the thing, person, situation, etc. that people pay special attention to: He is the focus of intense media scrutiny. | She loves being the focus of attention. 2 [U] special attention that you give to a particular person or subject: Our main focus is on helping people get back to work. 3 in focus/out of focus if a photograph, camera, etc. is in focus, the edges of the things you see are clear; if it is out of focus, the edges are not clear fo-cused (Ac) /'foʊkəst/ adj. paying careful attention to what you are doing, in a way that shows you are determined to succeed: You need to practice hard and stay focused.

fod-der /'fʌdə/ n. [U] food for farm animals foe /foʊ/ n. [C] (literary) an enemy fog¹ /fəg, fɔg/ n. [C,U] cloudy air near to the ground that is difficult for you to see through: I could hardly see the road through thick/heavy fog.

fog² also fog up v. (fogged, fogging) [I,T] if glass fogs or becomes fogged, it becomes covered with very small drops of water so you cannot see through it: My glasses fogged up as soon as I stepped outside.

fo-gey, fogy /'foʊgi/ n. (plural fogeys or fogies) [C] (informal) someone who is old-fashioned and who does not like change: Don't be such an old fogey.

fog-gy /'fəgi, 'fɔgi/ adj. (comparative foggier, superlative foggiest) 1 not clear because of FOG: a foggy morning 2 I don't have the foggiest (idea) (spoken, old-fashioned) said in order to emphasize that you do not know something: I don't have the foggiest idea what his address is.

fog-horn /'fəghɔrn, 'fɔg-/ n. [C] a loud horn used by ships in a FOG to warn other ships of their position

foi-ble /'fɔɪbəl/ n. [C] (formal) a habit that someone has that is slightly strange or silly foil¹ /fɔɪl/ n. [U] metal sheets that are thin like paper, used for wrapping food: Cover the pan tightly with aluminum foil.

foil² v. [T] if you foil someone's plans, you stop him/her from doing something foist /fɔɪst/ v.

foist sth on/upon sb phr. v. to make someone accept something that s/he does not want: Marie is always trying to foist her religious beliefs on everyone.

fold¹ /foʊld/ v. 1 [T] to bend a piece of paper, cloth, etc. so that one part covers another part: She folded her clothes and put them on a chair. | Fold the paper in half (=fold it across the middle). 2 [I,T] to make something, for example a table or chair, smaller by bending it or closing it, so that it can be stored: Be sure to fold up the ironing board when you're finished. 3 fold your arms to bend your arms so they are resting across your chest: George stood silently with his arms folded. 4 [I] if a business folds, it fails and is not able to continue [ORIGIN: Old English fealdan]

fold sth in phr. v. to gently mix another substance into a mixture when you are preparing food fold² n. 1 [C] a line made in paper, cloth, etc. when you fold one part of it over another: Bend the card and cut along the fold. 2 [C usually plural] the folds in material, skin, etc. are the loose parts that hang over other parts of it: She adjusted the folds of her dress. 3 the fold the group of people you belong to or have the same beliefs as: The church will welcome him back to the fold. 4 [C] a small area where sheep are kept for safety fold-er /'foʊldə/ n. [C] 1 a large folded piece of hard paper, in which you keep loose papers 2 a picture on a computer screen that shows you where a FILE is kept fo-li-age /'fəʊlɪdʒ/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the leaves of a plant

folk¹ /fəʊk/ adj. [only before noun] ENG. LANG. ARTS folk music, art, dancing, etc. is traditional and typical of the ordinary people who live in a particular area [ORIGIN: Old English folc] folk² n. 1 sb's folks your parents or family: I need to call my folks sometime this week-end. 2 folks [plural] (spoken) said when you are talking to a group of people in a friendly way: That's all for now, folks. 3 folks [plural] (informal) people: Most folks around here are very friendly. 4 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS folk music folk-lore /'fəʊk-lɔː/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the traditional stories, CUSTOMS, etc. of the ordinary people of a particular area

'folk music n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS traditional music that is played by the ordinary people of a particular area folk-sy /'fəʊksɪ/ adj. (informal) friendly and informal: The town has a certain folksy charm.

'folk tale n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a traditional spoken story from a particular area that is passed on by adults telling it to children. Folk tales usually form part of a particular society's CULTURE (=customs, beliefs, and way of life).

fol-li-cle /'fɒlɪkəl/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY one of the small holes in the skin that hair grows from. A follicle consists of a group of cells. 2 BIOLOGY a space that forms around an egg and the surrounding cells when the egg is developing inside a female's body [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Modern Latin folliculus, from Latin follis "bag"] fol-low /'fəloʊ/ v.

1 COME BEHIND [I,T] to walk, drive, etc. behind or after someone else: If you follow me, I'll show you to your room. | The president came in, followed by a crowd of photographers. | You go ahead – I'll follow later.

2 IN ORDER TO WATCH SB [T] to go closely behind someone else in order to find out where s/he is going: Marlowe looked over his shoulder to make sure no one was following him.

THESAURUS

chase – to quickly follow someone or something in order to catch him, her, or it: Police chased the thief down the street.

pursue (formal) – to chase or follow someone or something in order to catch him, her, or it: We ran faster, but he continued to pursue us.

run after – to chase someone or something: She started to leave, and Smith ran after her.

tail (informal) – to secretly watch and follow someone such as a criminal: Police have been tailing him.

track – to search for a person or animal by following a smell or marks on the ground: The police used dogs to track the missing girl.

stalk – to follow a person or animal quietly in order to catch, attack, or kill him, her, or it: a tiger stalking its prey

3 HAPPEN AFTER [I,T] to happen or come immediately after something else: There was a shout from the garage followed by a loud crash. | In the days that followed, Angie tried to forget about Sam.

4 follow the instructions/rules/advice etc. to do something according to how the instructions, rules, etc. say it should be done: Did you follow the instructions on the box?

5 follow suit to do the same thing as someone else, after s/he has done it: He praised Kim and encouraged others to follow suit. | When Allied Stores reduced prices, other companies were forced to follow suit.

6 follow (in) sb's footsteps to do the same job that someone else did before you: Toshi followed in his father's footsteps and started his own business.

7 BE INTERESTED [T] to be interested in something, especially a sport, and pay attention to it: Do you follow baseball at all?

8 as follows used in order to introduce a list of names, instructions, etc.: The winners are as follows: first place, Tony Gwynn; second place, ...

9 UNDERSTAND [I,T] (spoken) to understand something such as an explanation or story: Sorry, I don't follow you.

10 it follows that used in order to show that something must be true as a result of something else that is true: If interest rates come down, it follows that more people will borrow money.

11 GO IN A DIRECTION [T] to continue on a road or path, or go in the same direction as a river: The road follows the river for the next six miles.

12 BELIEVE/OBEY [T] to believe in or obey a particular set of religious or political ideas: They still follow the teachings of Gandhi. [ORIGIN: Old English folgian]

follow sb around phr. v.

to keep following someone everywhere s/he goes: My little brother is always following me around.

follow sth ↔ through phr. v.

to do what needs to be done to complete something or make it successful: Harry was trained as an actor, but he never followed through with it.

follow sth ↔ up phr. v.

to find out more about something, or to do more about something: Did Jay ever follow up on that job possibility in Tucson?

fol-low-er /'fəloʊə/ n. [C] someone who believes in or supports a particular leader or set of ideas: the early followers of Buddha fol-low-ing¹ /'fəloʊɪŋ/ adj. the following day/year/chapter etc. the day, year, etc. after the one you have just mentioned: Neil arrived on Friday, and his wife came the following day.

THESAURUS next, subsequent, succeeding, later, ensuing → NEXT¹ following² n. 1 [singular] a group of people who support or admire someone such as a performer:

F

The band has a big following in Europe. 2 the following the people or things that you are going to mention next: To open an account, you will need the following: ID, proof of residency and a minimum deposit of $50.

following³ prep. immediately after: There will be time for questions following the lecture.

follow-up n. 1 [C] a book, movie, article, etc. that comes after another one that has the same subject or characters: The studio is planning to do a follow-up next year. | a follow-up to their successful first album 2 [C,U] something that is done to make sure that earlier actions have been successful or effective — follow-up adj. [only before noun]

fol-ly /'fɒli/ n. (plural follies) [C,U] (formal) a very stupid thing to do: It would be sheer folly to buy another car at this point.

fo-ment /'fəʊmənt, fəʊ'ment/ v. foment war/revolution/trouble etc. (formal) to do something that encourages people to cause a lot of trouble in a society fond /fand/ adj. 1 be fond of sb/sth to like someone or something very much: Mrs. Winters is very fond of her grandchildren. 2 fond memories memories that make you happy when you think of them: Marie still had fond memories of their time together. 3 be fond of doing sth to enjoy doing something, and to do it often: Dad is very fond of telling that story. 4 [only before noun] a fond look, smile, action, etc. shows that you like someone very much: As we left, we said a fond farewell. — fondness n. [U] fon-dle /'fandl/ v. [T] to gently touch and move your fingers over part of someone's body in a way that shows love or sexual desire fond-ly /'fandli/ adv. 1 in a way that shows you like someone or something very much: Greta smiled fondly at him from across the room. 2 fondly remember/recall to feel happy when you remember what you liked about a person or place: That trip is still fondly remembered by all of us.

F

font /fant/ n. [C] 1 a set of printed letters that is a particular size and shape 2 a stone container in a church that holds the water used for the ceremony of BAPTISM food /fud/ n. 1 [C,U] things that people and animals eat, such as vegetables or meat → FAST FOOD, HEALTH FOOD, JUNK FOOD: I love Chinese food. | We didn't have enough food for everyone. | the frozen foods section of the supermarket

COLLOCATIONS

fresh – recently picked or prepared, and not dried, put in cans, or frozen stale – used about bread or cake that is not good any more because it has become hard and dry sour – used about milk or cream that tastes and smells bad and is not good any more frozen – packed and stored at very low temperatures canned – stored and sold in cans processed – processed food has chemicals in it to make it last longer organic – produced without using harmful chemicals vegetarian – containing no meat or fish nutritious/nourishing/wholesome – good for your health

2 food for thought something that makes you think carefully about something: The teacher's advice certainly gave me food for thought. [ORIGIN: Old English foda] food bank n. [C] a place that gives food to people who need it food chain n. [singular] BIOLOGY animals and plants considered as a group in which one animal is eaten by another animal, which is eaten by another, etc.

food poisoning n. [U] an illness caused by eating food that contains harmful BACTERIA food processor n. [C] a piece of electrical equipment for preparing food, that cuts or mixes it very quickly food stamp n. [C usually plural] an official piece of paper, given by the government to poor people, that can be used instead of money to buy food food-stuff /'fudstʌf/ n. [C usually plural] food – used especially when talking about the business of producing or selling food food web n. [C] BIOLOGY all the connected and dependent FOOD CHAINS in a particular place

fool¹ /ful/ n. [C] 1 a stupid person: I felt like a fool, locking my keys in the car like that. 2 make a fool of yourself to do something stupid that you feel embarrassed about later: Sorry if I made a fool of myself last night. I was drunk. 3 make a fool of sb to deliberately try to make someone seem stupid: She made a fool of me in front of all the other students. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French fol, from Latin foliis “bag for blowing air”] fool² v. 1 [T] to trick or deceive someone: Don't be fooled into buying more insurance than you need. 2 you could have fooled me (spoken) said when you do not believe what someone has told you: “Look, we're doing our best to fix it.” “Well, you could have fooled me.” 3 be fooling yourself to try to make yourself believe something that you know is not really true: You're fooling yourself if you think he's going to come back to you.

fool around phr. v. 1 to waste time behaving in a silly way or doing things that are not important: Stop fooling around and start studying! 2 to behave in a way which is careless and not responsible: Stop fooling around with those scissors before someone gets hurt. 3 to have a sexual relationship with someone else, especially when you should not fool with sb/sth phr. v. (informal) to touch or play with something in a careless way: Don't fool with that control panel unless you know what you're doing.

fool-har-dy /'fʊl,hɑrdi/ adj. taking risks that are not necessary fool-ish /'fʊlɪʃ/ adj. not sensible or wise: It was a very foolish thing to do. | a foolish woman —foolishly adv.: I foolishly agreed to go with them. —foolishness n. [U] fool-proof /'fʊlprʊf/ adj. a foolproof plan, method, etc. is certain to be successful

foot¹ /fʊt/ n. [C]

1 BODY PART (plural feet /fit/) the part of your body that you stand on and walk on: Turner kicks with his left/right foot. | He always walks around in bare feet (=without shoes and socks). → see picture on page A3

2 MEASUREMENT (plural feet or foot) (written abbreviation ft.) a unit for measuring length, equal to 12 INCHES or 0.3048 meters

3 on foot if you go somewhere on foot, you walk there: We set out to explore the city on foot.

4 the foot of sth the lowest part of something such as a mountain or tree, or the end of something such as a bed

5 on your feet a) to be standing for a long time without sitting down: Waitresses are on their feet all day. b) to be healthy again after being sick: It's good to see you on your feet again!

6 off your feet sitting or lying down, rather than standing or walking: The doctor told me to stay off my feet for a few days.

7 get/rise/jump etc. to your feet to stand up after you have been sitting: The fans cheered and rose to their feet.

8 set foot in sth to go into a place: If that woman ever sets foot in this house, I'm leaving!

9 put your foot down a) to say very firmly what someone must do or not do: Brett didn't want to go to the doctor, but Dad put his foot down. b) to make a car go faster

10 put your feet up to relax and rest, especially by having your feet supported on something

11 put your foot in your mouth to accidentally say something that embarrasses or upsets someone

12 have/keep both feet on the ground to be sensible and practical in the way you live your life

13 get your foot in the door to get your first opportunity to work in a particular organization or industry

14 have one foot in the grave (humorous) to be old

15 ON SEA/LAND ANIMAL BIOLOGY a muscle used to move forward, found on the lower part of a sea or land animal that has a soft body covered by a hard shell

16 POETRY ENG. LANG. ARTS a part of a line of poetry in which there is one strong BEAT and one or two weaker ones, to give the line a RHYTHM → IAMB, ANAPEST, DACTYL, TROCHEE, SPONDEE

17 -footed having a particular number or type of feet: a four-footed animal | a flat-footed man

18 -footer being a particular number of feet in length: Our sailboat's a twenty-footer. [ORIGIN: Old English fof]

foot² v. foot the bill (informal) to pay for something: Her father is footing the bill for flying lessons.

foot-age /'fʊtɪdʒ/ n. [U] film that shows a particular event: black-and-white footage of the 1936 Olympics foot-ball /'fʊtˈbɔl/ n. 1 [U] a game in which two teams of 11 players carry, kick, or throw a ball into an area at the end of a field to win points: a football game → see picture on page A4 2 [C] the ball used in this game foot-bridge /'fʊt,briːdʒ/ n. [C] a narrow bridge for people to walk over foot-fall /'fʊtfɔl/ n. [C,U] (literary) the sound of each step when someone is walking (SYN) footstep

foot-hill /'fʊt,hɪl/ n. [C usually plural] EARTH SCIENCES one of the low hills at the bottom of a group of mountains: the foothills of the Rockies → see picture on page A11

foot-hold /'fʊthəʊld/ n. [C] 1 a position from which you can start trying to get what you want: The Republicans gained a foothold during the last elections. 2 a space where you can safely put your foot when climbing a rock foot-ing /'fʊtɪŋ/ n. [singular] 1 the conditions or arrangements under which something exists or operates: Most of all, the city needs to get on a firm financial footing. | The new rules will allow candidates to compete on an equal footing (=with the same advantages and disadvantages). 2 a firm hold with your feet on a surface: He lost his footing and fell down the stairs.

foot-lights /'fʊtlɑːts/ n. [plural] a row of lights along the front of the stage in a theater

'foot ,locker n. [C] a large strong box that you keep your things in foot-loose /'fʊtlʊs/ adj. able to do what you want and enjoy yourself because you are not responsible for anyone or anything: No, I'm not married – still footloose and fancy free.

foot-note /'fʊtˈnəʊt/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a note in a book at the bottom of a page, which gives more information about something on that page foot-path /'fʊtpæθ/ n. [C] a TRAIL

foot-print /'fʊtˈprɪnt/ n. [C] a mark made by a foot or shoe: a deer's footprints in the snow → see picture at FINGERPRINT foot-rest /'fʊtˈrest/ n. [C] a part of a chair that you can raise or lower in order to support your feet when you are sitting down foot-sie /'fʊtsi/ n. play footsie (with sb) (informal) to secretly touch someone's feet with your feet under a table, to show that you think s/he is sexually attractive foot-step /'fʊtstep/ n. [C] the sound of each step when someone is walking: He heard someone's footsteps in the hall. → follow (in) sb's footsteps at FOLLOW foot-stool /'fʊtstul/ n. [C] a low piece of furniture used for supporting your feet when you are sitting down foot-wear /'fʊtˈweɪ/ n. [U] things you wear on your feet, such as shoes or boots foot-work /'fʊtˈwɜːk/ n. [U] skillful use of your feet when dancing or playing a sport: the dancer's fancy footwork

for¹ /fɔː/; strong fɔːr/ prep. 1 intended to be given to or used by a particular person or group: Save a piece of cake for Noah. | Somebody left a message for you. | We made cookies for the party. 2 used in order to show the purpose of an object, action, etc.: a knife for cutting bread | What did you do that for? (=why did you do it?) | What's this gadget for? (=what is its purpose) 3 for sale/rent used in order to show that something is available to be sold or rented: They've just put their house up for sale. 4 in order to get or do something: Alison is looking for a job. | We were waiting for the bus. | Let's go for a walk. | For more information, write to this address.

THESAURUS in order to, to, so (that) → ORDER¹

5 used in order to show the time when something is planned to happen: an appointment for 3:00 | It's time for dinner (=we're going to have dinner now). 6 in order to help someone: Let me lift that box for you. | What can I do for you? (=can I help you) 7 used in order to talk about a particular length of time: I've known Kim for a long time. | Bake the cake for 40 minutes. 8 because of or as a result of: I got a ticket for going through a red light. | The award for the highest sales goes to Pete McGregor. 9 used in order to show where a person, vehicle, etc. is going: The plane for Las Vegas took off an hour late. | I was just leaving for church when the phone rang. 10 used in order to express a distance: We walked for miles. 11 used in order to show a price or amount: a check for $100 | an order for 200 copies | I'm not working for nothing/for free (=without being paid). 12 for breakfast/lunch/dinner used in order to say what you ate or will eat at breakfast, LUNCH, etc.: "What's for lunch?" "Hamburgers." | We had steak for dinner last night. 13 for sb/sth to do sth used when discussing what is happening, what may happen, or what can happen: It's unusual for it to be this cold in June. | The plan is for us to leave on Friday morning and pick up Joe. 14 if you are happy, sad, etc. for someone, you feel happy, sad, etc. because something has happened to him or her: I'm really happy for you. 15 for now used in order to say that a situation can be changed later: Just put the pictures in a box for now. 16 work for/play for etc. to work at a particular company, play a sport on a particular team, etc.: She worked for Exxon until last year. | He plays for the Boston Red Sox. 17 supporting or agreeing with someone or something: How many people voted for Mulhoney? | I'm for getting a pizza, what about you? 18 for all a) considering how little: For all the good I did, I shouldn't have tried to help. b) in spite of: For all his expensive education, Leo doesn't know very much. 19 for all I know/care (spoken) used in order to say that you really do not know or care: He could be in Canada by now for all I know. 20 for Christmas/for sb's birthday etc. in order to celebrate Christmas, someone's BIRTHDAY, etc.: What did you get for your birthday? | We went to my grandmother's for Thanksgiving last year. 21 having the same meaning as another word, sign, etc.: What's the Spanish word for oil? 22 when you consider a particular fact: Libby's very tall for her age. 23 if it hadn't been for/if it weren't for sb/sth if something had not happened, or if a situation were different: If it weren't for Michelle's help, we'd never get this job done.

for² conjunction (literary) because for-age /'fɔːrɪdʒ, 'fɑː-/ v. [I] to go to a lot of places searching for food or other supplies: animals foraging for food for-ay /'fɔːreɪ, 'færeɪ/ n. [C] 1 a short attempt at doing a particular job or activity: a brief foray into politics 2 a short sudden attack by a group of soldiers for-bade /fɔː'bæd/ v. the past tense of FORBID

for-bear-ance /fɔː'berəns, fɔː-/ n. [U] (literary) the quality of being patient, having control over your emotions, and being willing to forgive someone for-bid /fɔː'bɪd/ v. (past tense forbade /-bæd/, past participle forbidden /-bɪdn/, present participle forbidding) [T] 1 to order someone not to do something: I forbid you to see that man again.

THESAURUS

not allow/permit/let – to say that someone must not do something, and stop him/her doing it: People are not allowed to sell food or drinks along the parade route.

ban – to officially say that people must not do something or that something is not allowed: The country's government has banned foreign journalists from the area.

prohibit – to say officially that an action is illegal or not allowed: Selling alcohol to people under 21 is prohibited.

bar – to officially prevent someone from doing something: During the drought, residents were barred from watering their lawns.

proscribe (formal) – to officially stop the existence or use of something: The laws proscribe child labor.

2 God/Heaven forbid (spoken) said in order to emphasize that you hope that something will not happen: God forbid you should have an accident. [ORIGIN: Old English forbeodan] for-bid-den /fɔː'bɪdn/ adj. not allowed, especially because of an official rule: It's forbidden to smoke in the hospital. | This area is forbidden to everyone but the police.

for-bid-ding /fəˈbɪdɪŋ/ adj. looking frightening, unfriendly, or dangerous: The mountains looked more forbidding as we got closer.

force¹ /fɔːs/ n.

1 TRAINED GROUP [C] a group of people who have been trained to do military or police work → ARMED FORCES, AIR FORCE, POLICE FORCE: Rebel forces are seeking to overthrow the government | A multinational military force will be sent to the region.

2 VIOLENT ACTION [U] violent physical action used in order to achieve something: The police used force to break up the demonstration. | *an investigation into the excessive use of force

3 NATURAL POWER a) [U] the natural power that is used or produced when one thing moves or hits another thing: Waves were hitting the rocks with great force. | The force of the explosion threw her backwards. b) [C,U] PHYSICS a natural power that produces movement in another object: the force of gravity

THESAURUS

power – the physical strength of something such as an explosion, or the energy produced by a natural force: wind power | Their home is heated by solar power.

strength – the physical quality that makes you strong: I don't have the strength to lift this.

4 SB/STH THAT INFLUENCES [C] someone or something that has a strong influence or a lot of power: Mandela was the driving force behind the changes (=the one who made them happen). | Technology can be a force for good (=it can make good things happen).

5 STRONG EFFECT [U] the powerful effect of someone or something: The force of public opinion stopped the new highway project.

6 join/combine forces to work together to do something: Various community groups have joined forces on the project.

7 in force a) if a law or rule is in force, it must be obeyed b) in a large group: The mosquitoes are going to be out in force tonight!

8 by/from force of habit because you have always done a particular thing: Ken puts salt on everything by force of habit.

force² v. [T] 1 to cause someone to do something s/he does not want to do: Nobody's forcing you to come, you know. | I had to force myself to get up this morning. | Bad health forced him into early retirement.

THESAURUS

make – to force someone to do something: I wish there were something I could do to make her quit smoking.

coerce (formal) – to force someone to do something by threatening him/her: Her parents tried to coerce her into an arranged marriage.

compel – to force someone to do something:

The resulting scandal compelled her to resign.

impel (formal) – to make you feel very strongly that you must do something: I felt impelled to find out more.

pressure – to try to make someone do something by using influence, arguments, threats, etc.: Don't let them pressure you into making a donation.

2 to use physical strength to move something or go somewhere: Firefighters had to force open the door (=open it using force). | The doctor forced his way through the crowd. 3 force the issue to do something that makes it necessary for someone to make decisions or take action: Don't force the issue; give them time to decide.

force sth on/upon sb phr. v. to make someone accept something even though s/he does not want it: They tried to force their own views on me.

forced /fɔːst/ adj. 1 done because you must do something, not because of any sincere feeling: a forced smile 2 [only before noun] done suddenly and quickly because a situation makes it necessary: The plane had to make a forced landing in a field.

force-feed v. (past tense and past participle force-fed) [T] to force someone to eat by putting food or liquid down his/her throat force-ful /'fɔːsfəl/ adj. powerful and strong: a forceful personality | a forceful argument —forcefully adv.

for-ceps /'fɔːsəps, -seps/ n. [plural] a medical tool used for picking up, holding, or pulling things force-i-ble /'fɔːsəbəl/ adj. done using physical force: There aren't any signs of forcible entry into the building. —forcibly adv.: The demonstrators were forcibly removed from the embassy.

ford¹ /fɔːd/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a place in a river that is not deep, so that you can walk or drive across it ford² v. [T] to walk or drive across a river at a place where it is not too deep fore /fɔː/ n. come to the fore to become important or begin to have influence: Environmental issues came to the fore in the 1980s.

fore-arm /'fɔːrɑːm/ n. [C] the lower part of the arm between the hand and the elbow fore-bear /'fɔːrbɛə/ n. [C usually plural] (formal) someone who was part of your family a long time ago (SYN) ancestor fore-bod-ing /fɔː'boʊdɪŋ/ n. [C,U] a feeling that something bad will happen soon: We waited for news of the men with a sense of foreboding.

fore-cast¹ /'fɔːrkæst/ n. [C] a description of what is likely to happen in the future, based on information you have now: the weather forecast | the company's sales forecast

forecast² v. (past tense and past participle forecast or forecasted) [T] to say what is likely to happen in the future, based on information you have now:

F

Warm weather has been forecast for this weekend.
—forecaster n. [C]: a weather forecaster | a stock market forecaster

THESAURUS predict, prophesy, foretell, foresee, have a premonition → PREDICT fore-close /fɔːr'kloʊz/ v. [I] ECONOMICS to take away someone's property because s/he cannot pay back the money that s/he has borrowed to buy it —foreclosure /fɔːr'kloʊzə/ n. [C,U]

fore-fa-ther /'fɔːr,fɑðəz/ n. [C usually plural] someone who was part of your family a long time ago (SYN) ancestor fore-fin-ger /'fɔːr,fɪŋgə/ n. [C] the finger next to your thumb (SYN) index finger fore-front /'fɔːrfɒnt/ n. in/at/to the forefront of sth in the main or most important position: The company has always been at the forefront of science and technology.

F fore-gone con-clu-sion /fɔːrgɒn kən'kluːʒən/ n. be a foregone conclusion if something is a foregone conclusion, the result of it is certain even though it has not happened yet fore-ground /'fɔːgraʊnd/ n. the foreground the part of a picture, photograph, etc. nearest to you

fore-head /'fɔːrhed, 'fɔːrɪd, 'fɑːrɪd/ n. [C] the part of the face above the eyes and below the hair: He wiped his forehead with a handkerchief. → see picture on page A3

for-eign /'fɑːrɪn, 'fɔːrɪn/ adj. 1 not from your own country: Can you speak a foreign language? | He was in a foreign country, far away from home. 2 [only before noun] involving or dealing with other countries (ANT) domestic: American foreign policy | The budget calls for cuts in foreign aid. 3 foreign to sb not familiar, or not typical: Their way of life was completely foreign to her. 4 foreign body/matter something that has come into a place where it does not belong, especially someone's body: foreign matter in someone's eye [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French forein, from Latin foris “outside”] foreign affairs n. [plural] POLITICS political matters that affect or concern the relationship between one country and other countries for-eign-er /'fɑːrənə, 'fɔːr-/ n. [C] someone who is from a country that is not your own foreign ex-change n. 1 [U] the system of buying and selling foreign money: The dollar is expected to fall in the foreign exchange markets (=places where foreign money is bought and sold). 2 [C] an arrangement in which people, especially students, travel to another country to work or study for a particular length of time: a foreign exchange student foreign 'minister n. [C] POLITICS a government official with a high rank who is in charge of a country's foreign affairs foreign 'policy n. [U] POLITICS a government's decisions, actions, etc. relating to other countries → DOMESTIC POLICY: The French president criticized American foreign policy in the Middle East.

fore-leg /'fɔːrlæg/ n. [C] one of the two front legs of an animal that has four legs fore-man /'fɔːrmən/ n. (plural foremen /-mən/) [C] 1 someone who is in charge of a group of workers, for example, in a factory

THESAURUS boss, manager, head, chief, supervisor, forewoman → BOSS¹

2 the leader of a JURY

fore-most /'fɔːmoʊst/ adj. [only before noun] the most famous or important: the foremost writer of her time fo-ren-sic /fə'rensɪk, -zɪk/ adj. [only before noun] relating to methods for finding out about a crime: Scientists are still examining the forensic evidence.

—forensics n. [U]

fore-play /'fɔːpleɪ/ n. [U] sexual activity, such as touching the sexual organs and kissing, that happens before having sex fore-run-ner /'fɔːr,rʌnə/ n. [C] someone or something that is an early example or a sign of something that comes later: He described the machine as the forerunner of the modern computer.

fore-see /'fɔːr'si/ v. (past tense foresaw /-'sɔ/, past participle foreseen /-,sɪn/) [T] (formal) to know that something will happen before it happens: No one could have foreseen such a disaster.

THESAURUS predict, prophesy, foretell, forecast, have a premonition → PREDICT fore-see-a-ble /fɔːr'siəbəl/ adj. 1 for/in the foreseeable future continuing for as long as you can imagine: Leila will be staying here for the foreseeable future. 2 in the foreseeable future fairly soon: There is a chance of water shortages in the foreseeable future. 3 foreseeable difficulties, events, etc. should be planned for because they are very likely to happen in the future fore-shad-ow /fɔːr'ʃædəʊ/ v. [T] (literary) to be a sign of something that will happen in the future fore-shad-ow-ing /fɔːr'ʃædəʊɪŋ/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a way of suggesting what will happen later in a story: There was a lot of foreshadowing in the movie, so I wasn't surprised when the main character shot his wife.

fore-sight /'fɔːrsaɪt/ n. [singular, U] the ability to imagine what might happen in the future, and to consider this in your plans: Luckily, we'd had the foresight to take plenty of food and warm clothing.

fore-skin /'fɔːr,skɪn/ n. [C] a loose fold of skin covering the end of a man's PENIS for-est /'fɔːrɪst, 'fɑːr-/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES a very large area of land that is covered with trees: tropical rain forests | a virgin forest (=a forest that is still in its natural state and has not been used or changed by people) [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin foris “outside” (because it was outside the main fenced area of woods)] → see picture on page A11

fore-stall /fɔːrˈstɔːl/ v. [T] to prevent something from happening by doing something first: The National Guard was sent in, to forestall trouble.

forest ranger n. [C] someone whose job is to protect or manage part of a public forest fore-est-ry /fɔːrɛstri/, ˈfɔːr-/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the science and practice of planting and taking care of forests fore-taste /ˈfɔːrteɪst/ n. be a foretaste of sth to be a sign of something more important, more impressive, etc. that will happen in the future fore-tell /fɔːrˈtɛl/ v. (past tense and past participle foretold /-ˈtəʊld/) [T] to say what will happen in the future, especially by using special magic powers

THESAURUS predict, prophesy, forecast, foresee, have a premonition → PREDICT

fore-thought /ˈfɔːrθɔːt/ n. [U] careful thought or planning before you do something fore-ev-er /fɔːrɛvə/, fɔː-/ adv. 1 for all future time: I wanted the holiday to last forever. | You can't avoid him forever.

THESAURUS always, permanently, for life, for good → ALWAYS

2 (spoken) for a very long time: Greg will probably be a student forever. | It'll take forever to drive to Helen's. 3 go on forever to be extremely long or large: The roads out west seem to go on forever.

fore-warn /fɔːrˈwɔːn/ v. [T] 1 to warn someone about something dangerous or unpleasant that may happen 2 forewarned is forearmed used in order to say that if you know about something before it happens, you can be prepared for it fore-wom-an /ˈfɔːr,wʊmən/ n. [C] 1 a woman who is the leader of a group of workers, for example in a factory

THESAURUS boss, manager, head, chief, supervisor, foreman → BOSS¹

2 a woman who is the leader of a JURY fore-word /ˈfɔːrwɜːd/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a short piece of writing at the beginning of a book that introduces the book or the person who wrote it for-feit¹ /ˈfɔːrfɪt/ v. [T] to give something up or have it taken away from you because of a rule or law: criminals who have forfeited their right to freedom.

forfeit² n. [C] something that you have to give away or do as a punishment because you have broken a rule or law for-gave /fɔːrˈgeɪv/ v. the past tense of FORGIVE

forge¹ /fɔːrdʒ/ v. [T] 1 to illegally copy something such as a document, a painting, or money in order to make people think it is real: The signature on the check had been forged.

THESAURUS copy, reproduce, duplicate, replicate, pirate → COPY²

2 to develop something new, especially a strong relationship with other people or groups: A special alliance has been forged between the U.S. and Canada. 3 to make something from a piece of metal by heating and shaping it forge ahead phr. v. to make progress: The organizers are forging ahead with a program of public events.

forge² n. [C] a large piece of equipment that is used for heating and shaping metal objects, or the building where this is done forg-er /ˈfɔːrdʒə/ n. [C] someone who illegally copies documents, money, paintings, etc. and tries to make people think they are real for-ger-y /ˈfɔːrdʒəri/ n. (plural forgeries) 1 [C] a document, painting, or piece of paper money that has been illegally copied (SYN fake: An art dealer insisted that the portrait is a forgery.) 2 [U] the crime of illegally copying something for-get /fɔːrˈɡet/ v. (past tense forgot /-ˈɡat/, past participle forgotten /-ˈɡatən/, present participle forgetting) 1 [I,T] to be unable to remember facts, information, or something that happened: I've forgotten her name. ▶ Don't say “I am forgetting.” ◀ | I know you told me, but I forgot. | He forgot all about our anniversary. 2 [I,T] to not remember to do something that you should do: I forgot to turn off my headlights. | David had forgotten (that) we had a meeting. 3 [T] to not remember to bring something that you should have taken with you: Oh, I forgot your book.

USAGE

You can say “I forgot my passport.”
You cannot say “I forgot my passport at home.”
When you want to talk about the place where you left something by mistake, you must use “leave”: I left my passport at home.

4 [I,T] to stop thinking or worrying about someone or something: You'll forget (that) you're wearing contact lenses after a while. | I'll never forget her. | I can't just forget about the accident. 5 [I,T] to stop planning to do or get something because it is no longer possible: With this injury, you can forget about playing this season.

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 forget it a) used in order to tell someone that something is not important: “I'm sorry I broke your mug.” “Forget it.” | “Did you say something?” “No, forget it.” b) used in order to tell someone to stop asking or talking about something because it is annoying you: I'm not buying you that bike, so just forget it. 7 don't forget used in order to remind someone about something: Don't forget your lunchbox! | Don't forget to turn off the lights. 8 I forget said instead of “I have forgotten”: You know the guy we saw last week – I forget his name. 9 forget it/you/that! used in order to refuse to do something, or to say that something is impossible: Drive to the airport in this snow? Forget it. 10 ...and don't you forget it! said in order to remind someone angrily about something important that should make him/her behave differently: I'm your father, and don't you forget it!

F

[ORIGIN: Old English forġietan]

for-get-ful /fə'getfəl/ adj. often forgetting things —forgetfulness n. [U]

for'get-me-not n. [C] a plant with small blue flowers for-give /fə'gɪv/ v. (past tense forgave /-ˈgeɪv/, past participle forgiven /-ˈgɪvən/) [I,T] 1 to stop being angry and blaming someone, although s/he has done something wrong: I can't forgive him for what he did to her. | "I'm sorry." "That's OK — you're forgiven (=I forgive you)." | If anything happened to the kids, I'd never forgive myself. | Maybe you can forgive and forget, but I can't (=forgive someone and behave as if s/he had never done anything wrong). 2 forgive me (spoken) said when you are going to say or ask something that might seem rude or offensive: Forgive me for saying so, but that's nonsense. 3 forgive a loan/debt ECONOMICS if a country forgives a LOAN, it says that the country that borrowed the money does not have to pay it back for-give-ness /fə'gɪvnɪs/ n. [U] (formal) the act of forgiving someone for-giv-ing /fə'gɪvɪŋ/ adj. willing to forgive: a forgiving person for-go /fə'gəʊ/ v. (past tense forwent /-ˈwent/, past participle forgone) [T] (formal) to decide not to do or have something for-got /fə'gɒt/ v. the past tense of FORGET

for-got-ten /fə'gɒtən/ v. the past participle of FORGET

fork¹ /fɔːrk/ n. [C] 1 a tool used for picking up and eating food, with a handle and three or four points: knives, forks, and spoons 2 a place where a road or river divides into two parts: Turn left at the fork in the road. 3 a tool with a handle and three or four points, used for digging and breaking up soil: a gardening fork 4 a PITCHFORK [ORIGIN: Old English forca, from Latin furca] fork² v. 1 [I] if a road or river forks, it divides into two parts 2 [T] to pick up, carry, or turn something over using a fork fork sth ↔ over/out phr. v. (informal) to spend a lot of money on something because you have to: Fans are being asked to fork over $120 for tickets to see the concert.

forked /fɔːkt/ adj. with one end divided into two or more parts: a snake's forked tongue fork-lift /ˈfɔːk,lɪft/ n. [C] a vehicle with special equipment on the front for lifting and moving heavy things, for example, in a factory for-lorn /fə'ɔːlɔːn, fɔː-/ adj. (literary) sad and lonely: The child looked forlorn.

form¹ /fɔːm/ n. 1 [C] one type of something, that exists in many different varieties (SYN kind: ballet and other forms of dance | a severe form of cancer) 2 [C,U] the way in which something exists or appears: You can get the vitamin C in tablet or liquid form. | The story is written in the form of a letter. | Language practice can take the form of drills or exercises. 3 [C] an official document with spaces where you have to provide information: an application form for college | Please fill out the form in black ink. 4 [C] a shape: dark forms behind the trees | The brooch is made of diamonds and rubies in the form of a butterfly. 5 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a way of writing or saying a word that shows its number, tense, etc. For example, "was" is a past form of the verb "to be."

form² v. 1 [I,T] to start to exist, or to make something start to exist (SYN develop: Ice was already forming on the roads. | the cloud of dust and gas that formed the universe | Reporters had already formed the impression (=begun to think) that Myers was guilty.) 2 [I,T, linking verb] to come together in a particular shape or a line, or to make something have a particular shape: Form the dough into a circle, then roll it out. | The line forms to the right. | The birch trees formed a ring around a grassy hollow. 3 [T] to start a new organization, committee, relationship, etc.: Students formed a protest group. | Everett seemed unable to form close friendships. 4 [T] to make something by combining two or more parts: One way to form nouns is to add the suffix "-ness." 5 [linking verb] to be the thing, or one of the things, that makes up something else: Rice forms a basic part of their diet. | The Rio Grande forms the boundary between Texas and Mexico.

for-mal¹ /ˈfɔːməl/ adj. 1 made or done officially or publicly (ANT informal: a formal announcement | The college made a formal request for extra funding. | His lawyer filed a formal complaint against the police.) 2 formal education/training/qualifications education in a subject or skill that you get in school rather than by practical experience: Most priests have no formal training in counseling. 3 formal behavior is very polite, and is used in official situations, or with people you do not know well (ANT informal) 4 formal language is used in official or serious situations (ANT informal: a formal letter) 5 a formal event is important, and people who go to it wear special clothes and behave very politely: Jack won't wear a tie, even on formal occasions. 6 formal clothes, such as a TUXEDO or long dress, are worn to formal events (ANT casual: men's formal wear —formally adv.: The winner will be formally announced this afternoon.)

formal² n. [C] 1 a dance at which you have to wear formal clothes

THESAURUS

dance, ball, prom → DANCE²

2 an expensive and usually long dress that women wear on formal occasions for-mal-de-hyde /fɔː'mældə,haɪd, fɔːr-/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a strong-smelling gas that can be mixed with water and used for preserving things such as parts of a body for-mal-i-ty /fɔːr'mæləti/ n. (plural formalities) 1 [C usually plural] something formal or official that you must do as part of an activity or process, even though it may not have any practical importance: I need your signature here, but it's just a formality. 2 [U] careful attention to polite behavior or language in formal situations for-mal-ize /'fɔrmə,laɪz/ v. [T] to make a plan or decision official and describe all its details: The contracts must be formalized within one month.

for-mat¹ /'fɔrmæt/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 the way something such as a computer document, television show, or meeting is organized or arranged: The new show is slightly different from the usual talk-show format. 2 IT used when talking about what type of equipment is needed to play a video, CD, tape, etc. 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS the size, shape, design, etc. in which something such as a book or magazine is produced: a newsletter format [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French, German, from Latin formatus, past participle of formare “to form”] format² v. (formatted, formatting) [T] 1 IT to organize the space on a computer DISK so that information can be stored on it 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS to arrange a book, document, page, etc. according to a particular design or plan: The new text will be formatted in the same way as the previous paragraphs. —formatting n. [U] —formatted adj.

for-ma-tion /fɔːr'meɪʃən/ n. 1 [U] the process by which something develops into a particular thing or shape: the formation of the solar system 2 [U] the process of starting a new organization or group: the formation of a democratic government 3 [C,U] something that is formed in a particular shape, or the shape in which it is formed: rock formations | soldiers marching in formation (=in a special order) form-a-tive /'fɔrmətɪv/ adj. having an important influence on the way someone or something develops: a child's formative years (=when his/her character develops)

for-mer¹ /'fɔrmə/ adj. 1 having a particular position in the past, but not now (SYN) last, previous: our former president 2 happening or existing before, but not now: the former Soviet Union former² n. the former (formal) the first of two people or things that are mentioned → LATTER: Of the two possibilities, the former seems more likely.

for-mer-ly /'fɔrməli/ adv. in earlier times: New York was formerly called New Amsterdam.

for-mi-da-ble /'fɔrmədəbəl, fɔːr'mɪdə-/ adj. 1 very powerful or impressive: a formidable opponent | He had a formidable lead in the polls. 2 difficult to deal with and needing a lot of skill: the formidable task of working out a peace plan —formidably adv.

form-less /'fɔrmlɪs/ adj. without a definite shape form, letter n. [C] a standard letter that is sent to many people, without any personal details in it for-mu-la /'fɔrmyələ/ (Ac) n. (plural formulas or formulae /-li/) 1 [C] a method or set of principles that you use in order to solve a problem or to make sure that something is successful: a formula for peace | There's no magic formula for a happy marriage. 2 [C] MATH a series of numbers or letters that represent a mathematical or scientific rule: What is the formula for calculating the area of a circle? 3 [C] a list of substances used in order to make something, showing the amounts of each substance to use: a formula for a perfect loaf of fresh bread 4 [C,U] a liquid food for babies that is similar to a woman's breast milk [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin “small form,” from forma, perhaps from Greek morphe “form, shape”] for-mu-late /'fɔrmyə,leɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to develop something such as a plan or set of rules, and decide all the details of how it will be done: What role does he have in formulating foreign policy? 2 to think carefully about what you want to say, and say it clearly: Ricardo asked for time to formulate a reply. 3 to make something using particular amounts of different substances: specialty formulated baby lotions —formulation /,fɔrmyə'leɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

for-sake /fɔː'seɪk, fɔːr-/ v. (past tense forsook /-ˈsʊk/, past participle forsaken /-ˈseɪkən/) [T] (formal) 1 to leave someone, especially when s/he needs you 2 to leave a place or stop doing or having something: We have forsaken our heritage.

fort /fɔːt/ n. [C] a strong building or group of buildings used by soldiers or an army for defending an important place [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French, Latin fortis “strong”] forte¹ /fɔːt, 'fɔrteɪ/ n. be sb's forte to be something that someone is good at doing: Cooking isn't my forte.

for-te² /'fɔrteɪ/ adj., adv. ENG. LANG. ARTS played or sung loudly (ANT) piano forth /fɔːθ/ adv. go forth (literary) to go out or away from where you are → back and forth at BACK¹, and so on/forth at SO¹ forth-com-ing /fɔːθ'kʌmɪŋ/ (Ac) adj. (formal) 1 happening or coming soon: her forthcoming novel 2 given or offered when needed: If more money is not forthcoming, we'll have to close the theater. 3 willing to give information about something: Lassen was not very forthcoming.

forth-right /'fɔrθraɪt/ adj. saying honestly what you think, in a way that may seem rude: a forthright answer

THESAURUS honest, frank, candid, direct, upfront, straight, straightforward, blunt → HONEST

F

for-ti-eth /'fɔrtiθ/ number 40th for-ti-fi-ca-tion /,fɔrtəfə'keɪʃən/ n. 1 [U] the process of making something stronger 2 fortifications [plural] towers, walls, etc. built around a place in order to protect it for-ti-fy /'fɔrtəfaɪ/ v. (fortified, fortifies) [T] 1 to build towers, walls, etc. around a place in order to defend it: a fortified city 2 (formal, humorous) to make someone feel physically or mentally stronger: He fortified himself with a glass of whiskey before going on stage. 3 to make food or drinks more healthy by adding VITAMINS to them: vitamin D fortified milk for-ti-tude /'fɔrtətud/ n. [U] courage shown when you are in pain or having a lot of trouble for-tress /'fɔrtɪs/ n. [C] a large strong building used for defending an important place for-tu-i-tous /fɔr'tuətəs/ adj. (formal) lucky and happening by chance: a fortuitous discovery

THESAURUS lucky, fortunate, miraculous, auspicious → LUCKY

for-tu-nate /'fɔrtənɪt/ adj. 1 lucky (ANT) unfortunate: We were fortunate enough to get tickets for the last show. | It was fortunate that the ambulance arrived so quickly.

THESAURUS lucky, fortuitous, miraculous, auspicious → LUCKY

2 less fortunate people who are less fortunate are poor: Less fortunate children should still get a good education. | Welfare should provide a safety net for the less fortunate (=poor people).

for-tu-nate-ly /'fɔrtənɪtli/ adv. happening because of good luck: Fortunately, firefighters quickly put out the blaze.

for-tune /'fɔrtən/ n. 1 [C] a very large amount of money: Hunter made a fortune (=earned a lot of money) in real estate. | Julia must've spent a fortune on her wedding dress. | He lost a small fortune (=a lot of money) playing the stock market. 2 [U] chance or luck: I had the good fortune to have Mrs. Dawson as my instructor. 3 [C usually plural] the good or bad things that happen in life: The loss marked a change in the team's fortunes. 4 tell sb's fortune to tell someone what will happen to him/her in the future, by using special cards, or looking at his/her hand, etc. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 French, Latin fortuna]

'fortune cookie n. [C] a Chinese-American cookie with a piece of paper inside it that tells you what will happen in your future

'fortune teller n. [C] someone who tells you what is going to happen to you in the future for-ty /'fɔrti/ number 1 40 2 the forties a) the years between 1940 and 1949 b) the numbers between 40 and 49, especially when used for measuring temperature 3 be in your forties to be aged between 40 and 49: He's in his early/mid/late forties.

fo-rum /'fɔrəm/ n. [C] 1 an organization, meeting, report, etc. in which people have a chance to publicly discuss an important subject: a forum for discussing ideas | a forum on neighborhood crime 2 a group of computer users who are interested in a particular subject and discuss it using a website on the Internet for-ward¹ /'fɔrwəd/ also forwards adv. 1 toward a place or position that is in front of you (ANT) backward: The crowd moved forward. | He leaned forward to hear what they were saying. 2 toward more progress, improvement, or development: NASA's space project cannot go forward without more money. | The business is ready to move forward. 3 toward the future (ANT) backward: The company must look forward (=make plans for the future) and use the newest technology. → FAST FORWARD, look forward to sth at LOOK¹, step forward at STEP² forward² adj. 1 forward progress/planning/ thinking etc. progress, plans, ideas, etc. that are helpful in a way that prepares you for the future 2 [only before noun] closer to a person, place, etc. that is in front of you (ANT) backward: Troops were moved to a forward position on the battlefield. 3 [only before noun] at the front part of a ship, car, airplane, etc. (ANT) rear: the forward cabin forward³ v. [T] to send a message or letter that you have received to the person it was intended for, usually at his/her new address: The Post Office should be forwarding all my mail.

forward⁴ n. [C] in basketball, one of two players whose main job is to SHOOT the ball at the other team's BASKET

'forwarding address n. [C] an address you give to someone when you move so that s/he can send your mail to you

'forward-looking also 'forward-thinking adj. thinking about and planning for the future in a positive way, especially by being willing to try new ideas

'forward slash n. [C] a line (/) used in writing to separate words, numbers, or letters, for example in a website address → BACKSLASH

fos-sil /'fɒsəl/ n. [C] part of an animal or plant that lived millions of years ago, or the shape of one of these plants or animals that is now preserved in rock [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin fossilis “dug up,” from fodere “to dig”] —fossil adj.

'fossil fuel n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES a FUEL such as gas or oil that has been formed from plants and animals that lived millions of years ago

fossilize /ˈfɒsəl,laɪz/ v. [I,T] EARTH SCIENCES to become a fossil by being preserved in rock, or to make something do this fossil record n. [C] BIOLOGY information about the animals and other creatures that lived many thousands of years ago, what they looked like, what they ate, and the kind of environment they lived in, etc., which is obtained from their fossils foster¹ /ˈfɒstə, ˈfɑ-/ v. [T] 1 to help to develop an idea, skill, feeling, etc.: Teachers want to foster a spirit of cooperation in their classrooms. 2 to take care of someone else's child for a period of time without becoming his/her legal parent → ADOPT foster² adj. 1 foster mother/father/parents/family the person or people who foster a child 2 foster child a child who is fostered 3 foster home a person's or family's home where a child is fostered fought /fɔt/ v. the past tense and past participle of FIGHT

foul¹ /faʊl/ v. [I,T] to do something in a sport that is against the rules: Rickey fouled the first pitch (=hit it outside the legal area). | Sal hit two free throws after being fouled. 2 [T] to make something very dirty: The water had been fouled by industrial waste.

foul (sth ↔) up phr. v. (informal) to do something wrong or to ruin something by making a mistake: Glen fouled up the seating arrangements. | You've totally fouled up this time.

foul² adj. 1 very dirty or not having a pleasant smell or taste: A foul smell filled the cell. | foul-tasting coffee

THESAURUS horrible, disgusting, awful, revolting, terrible, dreadful, horrendous → HORRIBLE

2 foul language rude and offensive words 3 in a foul mood/temper likely to get angry easily 4 foul weather bad weather, with strong winds, rain, or snow foul³ n. [C] an action in a sport that is against the rules foul play n. [U] 1 murder or illegal violence: Cattrell may have been the victim of foul play. 2 an activity that is dishonest and unfair

'foul-up n. [C] (informal) a mistake: a bureaucratic foul-up

found¹ /faʊnd/ v. the past tense and past participle of FIND [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French fonder, from Latin fundus “bottom”] found² v. [T] 1 to start an organization, town, or institution that is intended to continue for a long time: The college was founded in 1701. | The Center for Auto Safety was founded by Ralph Nader. 2 be founded on/upon sth to base your ideas, beliefs, etc. on something: The U.S. was founded on the idea of religious freedom.

foun-da-tion /faʊnˈdeɪʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] an idea, fact, or system from which a religion, way of life, etc. develops: The Constitution provided/laid the foundation for the American government. | The children had a solid foundation in reading and writing. 2 [C] an organization that gives or collects money to be used for special purposes: a grant from the National Science Foundation 3 [C] the solid base that is built under a building to support it: Construction workers have begun to lay the foundation (=build it). 4 [U] the action of establishing an organization, city, or institution 5 without foundation not true, reasonable, or able to be proved: Luckily my fears were without foundation.

found-er¹ /ˈfaʊndə/ (Ac) n. [C] someone who establishes a business, organization, school, etc.: the founders of Brandon College

founder² v. [I] (formal) 1 to fail after a period of time: His campaign foundered before the first primary. 2 if a ship or boat founders, it fills with water and sinks founding father n. 1 [C] someone who begins something such as a new way of thinking or a new organization: one of the founding fathers of modern science 2 the Founding Fathers [plural] HISTORY the group of men who wrote the American Constitution and Bill of Rights and started the U.S. as a country → FRAMERS found-ry /ˈfaʊndri/ n. (plural foundries) [C] a place where metals are melted and made into new parts for machines foun-tain /ˈfaʊntɪn/ n. [C] a structure that sends water straight up into the air, built for decoration [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French fontaine, from Latin fons “place where water comes out of the ground”] → DRINKING FOUNTAIN four /fɔː/ number 1 4 2 four o'clock: I'll meet you at four. 3 four years old: My son is four. 4 on all fours on your hands and knees: Andy was on all fours looking for something. [ORIGIN: Old English feower] four-leaf 'clover n. [C] a CLOVER plant with four leaves instead of the usual three, that is considered to be lucky four-letter 'word n. [C] a word that is considered offensive or shocking by most people four-teen /ˈfɔːtɪn/ number 14 —fourteenth number fourth /fɔːθ/ number, n. 1 [C] 4th 2 [C] 1/4 (Syn) quarter

Fourth of Ju'ly n. a U.S. national holiday to celebrate the beginning of the United States as an independent nation fowl /faʊl/ n. [C] a bird, especially one such as a chicken that is kept for its meat and eggs fox /fəks/ n. [C] 1 a wild animal like a small dog with dark red fur, a pointed face, and a thick tail → see picture at NOCTURNAL 2 (spoken) an attractive person: He is such a fox!

FOX /fəks/ n. one of the main companies that broadcasts television programs in the U.S.

F

fox-trot /ˈfɒkstrɒt/ n. [C] a type of formal dance with quick movements, or the music for this dance fox-y /ˈfɒksi/ adj. (informal) someone who is foxy is sexually attractive foy-er /ˈfɔɪə/ n. [C] a room or hall at the entrance of a house, hotel, theater, etc.

fra-cas /ˈfrækəs, ˈfreɪ-/ n. [singular] a short noisy fight involving a lot of people [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French, Italian fracassare “to break in pieces”] frac-tion /ˈfrækʃən/ n. [C] 1 a very small amount of something: For a fraction of a second, there was silence. 2 MATH a number that is smaller than 1, such as 3/4 or 1/2, and that shows how many parts of a whole there are. For example, in 3/4, there are three of four equal parts. —fractional adj. —fractionally adv.

frac-tious /ˈfrækʃəs/ adj. someone who is fractious gets angry very easily and tends to start fights frac-ture /ˈfræktʃə/ n. [C] a crack or break in something hard such as a bone or rock

F

THESAURUS injury, wound, bruise, contusion, cut, laceration, scrape, sprain → INJURY

fracture ² v. [I,T] to crack or break something hard such as a bone or rock: He fractured his arm when he fell.

frag-ile /ˈfrædʒəl/ adj. 1 easily broken, damaged, harmed, or ruined: a fragile china teapot 2 weak, and likely to become worse: the country's fragile peace | Mama's fragile health [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin fragilis, from frangere “to break”] —fragility /fræˈdʒɪləti/ n. [U]

frag-ment /ˈfrægmənt/ n. [C] 1 a part of something, or a small piece that has broken off of something: Only fragments of the text have survived. | glass fragments

THESAURUS piece, scrap, chunk, lump, crumb, slice, strip, block → PIECE¹

2 also sentence fragment a sentence that is not complete, often because it does not have a verb → RUN-ON SENTENCE —fragment /ˈfrægmənt/ v. [T] frag-ment-ed /ˈfrægməntɪd/ adj. separated into many parts, groups, or events and not seeming to have a main purpose: Our society seems to be becoming more fragmented.

fra-grance /ˈfreɪgrəns/ n. 1 [C,U] a pleasant smell: the sweet fragrance of the flowers

THESAURUS smell, aroma, scent, perfume → SMELL²

2 [C] a PERFUME

fra-grant /ˈfreɪgrənt/ adj. having a pleasant smell: a fragrant bouquet of red roses frail /freɪl/ adj. thin and weak, especially because of being old: Grandpa looked tiny and frail in the hospital bed. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French fraile, from Latin fragilis, from frangere “to break”]

frail-ty /ˈfreɪlti/ n. (plural frailties) [C,U] (formal) a lack of physical or moral strength: human frailties

frame¹ /freɪm/ n. [C] 1 a structure made of wood, metal, etc. that holds or surrounds something such as a picture, door, or window: I should put this graduation picture in a frame. | Wes leaned against the door frame. 2 the main structure that supports something such as a house, piece of furniture, or vehicle: a bicycle frame | a frame house (=with a wooden frame) → see picture at BICYCLE 3 an area of film that contains one photograph, or one of the series of separate photographs that make up a movie or video 4 IT one of the areas into which a WEB PAGE is divided 5 (literary) someone's body: her slender frame 6 frame of mind a particular attitude or feeling that you have: Melissa was in a good frame of mind when we visited. 7 frame of reference all your knowledge, experiences, etc. that influence the way you think 8 frames [plural] the metal or plastic part of a pair of glasses that surrounds each LENS → TIME FRAME

frame² v. [T] 1 to put a picture in a frame: a framed photo of her daughter 2 to surround something or be surrounded by something: Tammy's sweet face was framed by golden curls. 3 to try to make someone seem guilty of a crime by deliberately giving false information: His lawyers claimed he had been framed by the police. 4 to organize and develop something in a particular way: General Green was able to frame his battle plan on the basis of accurate information about the enemy's position. | He framed his response to the question carefully. 5 to build or have a main structure that supports something: iron-framed windows

Fram-ers /ˈfreɪməz/ n. the Framers HISTORY the group of men who wrote the American Constitution and Bill of Rights and started the U.S. as a country → FOUNDING FATHERS

frame-work /ˈfreɪmwɜ:k/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a set of rules, beliefs, knowledge, etc. that people use when making a decision or planning something: a framework for further research 2 the structure of something such as a society or organization: the country's existing legal/political/social framework 3 the main structure that supports a large thing such as a building or vehicle fran-chise /ˈfræntʃaɪz/ n. [C] 1 ECONOMICS permission that a company gives a person or group to sell the company's products or services, or the business that has this permission: a McDonald's franchise 2 a sports team that has been given permanent permission to play in a particular LEAGUE, or the business that owns the sports team: The Seahawks franchise has been in Seattle since 1974. —franchise v. [T] fran-ci-um /ˈfænsɪəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Fr) a heavy RADIOACTIVE metal that is an ELEMENT. It is found naturally in URANIUM or is produced as part of a NUCLEAR REACTION.

frank /fræŋk/ adj. honest and direct in the way that you speak: Jane said she would be frank with me. | Well, to be frank, I don't think this is going well. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French “free, generous,” from Late Latin Francus “Frank” (because the Franks, an ancient German people, were given political freedom in France)]

THESAURUS honest, candid, direct, upfront, straight, straightforward, blunt, forthright → HONEST

frank-fur-ter /'fræŋk,fətə/ also frank /fræŋk/ n. [C] a HOT DOG

frank-ly /'fræŋkli/ adv. 1 used in order to show that you are saying what you really think about something: Frankly, it was boring. 2 honestly and directly: She spoke frankly about her problems.

fran-tic /'fræntɪk/ adj. 1 extremely hurried and not very organized: the frantic rush to get things ready 2 very worried, frightened, or anxious: His mother was frantic with worry. —frantically adv.

frat n. [C] (informal) a fraternity

fra-ter-nal /frə'tɜːnl/ adj. 1 friendly because you share the same interests with someone: a fraternal organization 2 relating to brothers: fraternal love [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Medieval Latin fraternalis, from Latin frater “brother”]

fra-ter-ni-ty /frə'tɜːnəti/ n. (plural fraternities) 1 [C] also fraternity house a club at a college or university that has only male members → SORORITY 2 [U] a feeling of friendship among people who have the same interests, job, or nationality frat-er-nize /'frætə,naɪz/ v. [I] to be friendly with someone who is not allowed to be your friend: Soldiers who fraternize with the enemy will be shot.

fraud /frɒd/ n. 1 [C,U] LAW the crime of deceiving people in order to gain money or goods: The police arrested him for tax/credit card/insurance fraud. 2 [C] someone or something that is not what he, she, or it claims to be: He wasn't a real doctor – he was a fraud. | The police proved that the letter was a fraud. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French fraude, from Latin fraus “deceiving”]

fraud-u-lent /'frɒdʒələnt/ adj. LAW intended to deceive people: the sale of fraudulent bonds | fraudulent statements —fraudulently adv.

fraught /frɔːt/ adj. fraught with problems/danger/pain etc. full of problems, danger, pain, etc.

fray¹ /freɪ/ v. [I] if a cloth or rope frays, its threads become loose because it is old or torn —frayed adj.

fray² n. the fray a fight or argument: Then, two junior congressmen joined/entered the fray, claiming the bill is unconstitutional.

fraz-zled /'fræzəld/ adj. (informal) confused, tired, and worried freak¹ /friːk/ n. 1 bike/movie/health etc. freak someone who is very interested in a particular thing or activity, or likes something a lot 2 someone or something that looks very strange or behaves in an unusual way: He looked at me as if I were some kind of freak. → CONTROL FREAK freak² adj. unexpected and very unusual: Her parents were killed in a freak accident.

freak³ also freak out v. [I,T] (spoken) to suddenly become very angry, frightened, or anxious, or to make someone do this: When she heard the news, she just freaked. | Horror films always freak me out.

freak-y /'friki/ adj. (spoken) strange and slightly frightening freck-le /'frekəl/ n. [C usually plural] a small brown spot on someone's skin, especially the face: a little girl with red hair and freckles —freckled adj.

THESAURUS blemish, pimple, zit, mole → MARK²

free¹ /fri/ adj.

1 NOT RESTRICTED allowed to live, exist, or happen without being controlled or restricted: Students are free to choose the activities they want to work on. | The media is free from governmental control. | the right to free speech

2 NO COST not costing any money: I won free tickets to the concert. | Admission is free for children.

3 NOT CONTAINING STH not having any of a particular substance: sugar-free bubble gum | The water is free from chemical pollutants.

4 NOT BUSY not busy doing other things: Are you free for lunch? | Hansen does volunteer work in her free time.

5 NOT BEING USED not being used at this time: Excuse me, is this seat free?

THESAURUS empty, deserted, uninhabited, vacant → EMPTY¹

6 feel free (spoken) used in order to tell someone that s/he is allowed to do something: Feel free to ask me any questions after the class.

7 NOT A PRISONER not a prisoner or SLAVE: Muller will be free in three years. | The UN demanded that the three hostages be set free (=be given their freedom).

8 NOT SUFFERING not suffering or not having to deal with something bad: free of danger* | Patients undergoing the treatment are now free from cancer. | a happy and trouble-free life

9 TAX if something is free of tax, you do not have to pay tax: the duty-free store at the airport

10 free hand if someone has a free hand to do something, s/he is allowed to do what s/he wants or needs to do: The police were given a free hand to deal with the gang problems.

11 a free ride something you get without paying or working for it free² v. [T] 1 to allow someone to leave prison or somewhere s/he has been kept as a prisoner: After nine months, the hostages were finally freed. 2 to move someone or something that is trapped or stuck, or to make something loose: Firefighters helped free two men trapped in the car. 3 to stop someone or something from being controlled or restricted: The farmers were freed from government controls on what they could plant. 4 to stop someone suffering, or help someone by removing something bad or difficult: The scholarship freed her from having to work while attending college. 5 also free up to help someone be able to do something, or to make something be able to be used: Hiring an assistant will free up your time to do other tasks. | I need to free up some space on the hard disk.

F

free³ adv. 1 without having to pay any money: Students can visit the museum free of charge. | Kyle is fixing my car for free. 2 not being restricted or controlled by someone: He created music that broke free of tradition. 3 not stuck or held in a particular place or position: He grabbed my wrist but I managed to struggle/pull free.

F

free 'agent n. [C] a professional sports player who can choose whether to sign a contract with a team free-bie /'fri:bi/ n. [C] (informal) something that you are given free, especially by a business, store, etc.

free-dom /'frɪdəm/ n. 1 [C,U] the right to do what you want without being restricted or controlled by someone else: The First Amendment guarantees freedom of speech/religion/expression (=the legal right to say what you want, choose your own religion, etc.). | The government must respect our basic freedoms. | Individual freedom is limited by social responsibilities. 2 [U] the state of being free and allowed to do what you want: I had a great sense of freedom when I first left home. | Thanks to the internet, many people have the freedom to work from home. 3 freedom from sth the state of not being hurt or affected by something: freedom from hunger

'freedom fighter n. [C] someone who fights in a war against a dishonest government, army, etc.

free 'enterprise n. [U] ECONOMICS the freedom for companies to control their own business without being limited by the government very much free-for-'all n. [C] (informal) a fight or noisy argument that a lot of people join: The argument in the bar turned into a free-for-all.

free-hand /'fri:hænd/ adj., adv. drawn by hand without using any special tools free-lance /'frɪləns/ adj., adv. doing work for one or more companies, rather than being employed only by one particular company: a freelance journalist | She works freelance from home. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 free lance “soldier in former times who sold his fighting skills to anyone”] —freelancer n. [C] —freelance v. [I] free-load-er /'fri:ləʊdər/ n. [C] (informal, disapproving) someone who takes food, money, or other things from other people, without giving them anything in return —freeload v. [I]

free-ly /'fri:li/ adv. 1 without anyone or anything preventing or limiting something: People can now travel freely across the border. | They were speaking freely, assuming we could not understand. 2 freely admit/acknowledge to say that something is true, even though this is difficult: I freely admit I made a bad choice. 3 freely available very easy to get: Information is freely available on the Internet. 4 generously or in large amounts: a company that gives freely to local charities

free 'market n. [singular] a situation in which prices are not controlled by the government or any other powerful group

Free-ma-son /'fri:meɪsən/ n. [C] a MASON

free-'range adj. relating to a type of farming which allows animals such as chickens and pigs to move around and eat naturally, rather than being kept in cages: free-range eggs free 'spirit n. [C] someone who lives the way s/he wants to, rather than in the way society considers usual free 'throw n. [C] an occasion in the game of basketball when a player is allowed to throw the ball toward the basket without anyone trying to prevent him/her because another player has FOULED him/her free-'trade zone n. [C] ECONOMICS a place where goods can be IMPORTED (=brought in from another country to be sold) and EXPORTED (=sent to another country to be sold) without paying taxes free 'verse n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS poetry that does not have a definite RHYTHM or structure and that does not RHYME at the end of the lines free-way /'fri:weɪ/ n. [C] a very wide road in a city on which cars can travel very fast

THESAURUS road, street, main street, avenue, lane, main road, the main drag, highway, expressway, toll road, turnpike → ROAD

free-wheel-ing /,fri:'wi:lɪŋ/ adj. (informal) not worrying about rules or what will happen in the future: a freewheeling lifestyle free 'will n. do sth of your own free will to do something because you want to and not because someone forces you to: She's offered to go of her own free will.

freeze¹ /frɪz/ v. (past tense froze /frouz/, past participle frozen /'frouzən/) 1 [I,T] if a liquid or thing freezes, or if something freezes it, it becomes solid and hard because it is so cold (ANT) melt, thaw: The lake had frozen overnight. | One man got lost in the blizzard and froze to death. | The ground was frozen solid. 2 [I,T] to preserve food for a long time by keeping it very cold in a freezer: Do you want to freeze some of these pies? 3 it's freezing

(spoken) said when the temperature is extremely cold

THESAURUS cold, cool, chilly, frosty, icy (cold), bitter (cold), frigid → COLD¹

4 [I] (spoken) to feel very cold: Put on a coat – you'll freeze. | We almost froze to death (=felt very cold) at the football game. 5 [I] to suddenly stop moving and stay very quiet and still: Officer Greer shouted, "Freeze!" 6 [T] to officially prevent money from being spent, or prevent prices, salaries, etc. from being increased [ORIGIN: Old English freosan] freeze sb ↔ out phr. v. to deliberately prevent someone from being involved in something freeze over phr. v. if an area of water freezes over, its surface turns into ice freeze up phr. v. to suddenly be unable to speak normally because you are nervous: He freezes up whenever she asks him a question.

freeze² n. [C] 1 ECONOMICS an occasion when something is stopped or kept at a particular level: a freeze on hiring new employees | a pay freeze 2 a short period of time, especially at night, when the temperature is very low freeze-dried adj. freeze-dried food or drinks are preserved by being frozen and then dried very quickly: freeze-dried coffee freezer n. /'frɪzə/ [C] a large piece of electrical equipment that is usually part of a REFRIGERATOR and is used for storing food at a very low temperature for a long time freezing /'frɪzɪŋ/ n. above/below freezing above or below the temperature at which water freezes freezing point n. [C] the temperature at which a liquid freezes freight /freɪt/ n. [U] goods that are carried by train, airplane, or ship freight-er /'freɪtə/ n. [C] an airplane or ship that carries goods freight train n. [C] a train that carries goods

French¹ /'frentʃ/ adj. 1 relating to or coming from France 2 relating to the French language

French² n. 1 [U] the language used in France 2 the French [plural] the people of France

French bread n. [U] white bread that is shaped like a long stick

French fry n. (plural French fries) [C usually plural] a FRY

French toast n. [U] pieces of bread that are put into a mixture of egg and milk, then cooked in hot oil fre-ne-tic /frə'neɪtɪk/ adj. frenetic activity happens in a way that is fast and not very organized: the frenetic pace of life in the city

fren-zied /'frenzɪd/ adj. frenzied activity is completely uncontrolled: a frenzied attack

fren-zy /'frenzi/ n. [singular, U] 1 the state of being very anxious, excited, and unable to control your behavior: The kids had worked themselves into a frenzy of anticipation. 2 a period in which people do a lot of things very quickly: The house was a frenzy of activity as we got ready for the party. 3 feeding frenzy (informal) an occasion when a lot of people get involved in something in an uncontrolled way: The media went into a feeding frenzy over this story.

fre-quen-cy /'frikwənsi/ n. (plural frequencies) 1 [U] the number of times that something happens within a particular period, or the fact that it happens a lot: the frequency of fatal road accidents | high frequency names such as Smith or Johnson | Arguments began taking place with increasing frequency. 2 [C] the number of radio waves broadcast per second by a particular station, used to find a station on the radio 3 [C,U] PHYSICS the number of sound, light, or radio WAVES that pass any point in a second, which is determined by the WAVELENGTH (=the distance between two points on the wave): high frequency sounds frequency distribution n. [C] MATH a GRAPH or table showing how often a particular number or value appears in a set of DATA

fre-quent¹ /'frikwənt/ adj. happening very often (ANT) infrequent: He's a frequent guest on TV talk shows. | Her absences were becoming more/less frequent.

fre-quent² /'frikwənt, fri'kwent/ v. [T] to go to a particular place very often: a restaurant frequented by students frequent flier n. [C] someone who travels on airplanes very often, especially using a particular AIRLINE —frequent-flier adj.

fre-quent-ly /'frikwənt'li/ adv. very often: We call each other frequently.

THESAURUS often, a lot, regularly, repeatedly, constantly, continuously, again and again/over and over (again) → OFTEN fresh /freʃ/ adj.

1 ADDED/REPLACING adding to or replacing what was there before: Let me make some fresh coffee. | I put fresh sheets on the bed.

2 RECENT recently done, made, or learned: fresh tracks in the snow | fresh-squeezed orange juice | Researchers have presented fresh data. | Write about your trip while it's still fresh in your mind.

3 NEW not done, seen, etc. before: a new manager with fresh ideas | a fresh approach to teaching

4 FOOD fresh food or flowers are in good condition because they have recently been produced, picked, or prepared: fresh strawberries | bread fresh from the bakery

5 CLEAN looking, feeling, smelling, or tasting clean, cool, and nice: a fresh breeze | a fresh minty taste

6 fresh air air from outside, especially clean air: Let's go and get some fresh air.

7 be fresh out of sth (spoken) a) to have used your last supplies of something: I'm sorry, we're fresh out of bagels. b) also be fresh from sth to have recently finished doing something: He's fresh out of college.

8 WATER fresh water has no salt and comes from rivers and lakes

9 fresh start the act of starting doing something again in a new or different way, especially after being unsuccessful: immigrants who came to America to make a fresh start (=start a new life) [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French freis] fresh-en /'frɛʃən/ v. 1 [I] if the wind freshens, it becomes stronger 2 [T] also freshen up to add more liquid to a drink freshen up phr. v. to wash your hands and face in order to feel comfortable: Would you like to freshen up before dinner?

fresh-ly /'frɛʃli/ adv. very recently: freshly mown grass

F

THESAURUS recently, just, a little/short while ago, lately, newly → RECENTLY

fresh-man /'frɛʃmən/ n. (plural freshmen /-mənz/) [C] a student in the first year of HIGH SCHOOL or college → STUDENT fresh-wa-ter /'frɛʃ,wətə-, -wətə/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES relating to rivers or lakes rather than the ocean: freshwater fish

fret¹ /fret/ v. [I] to worry about small or unimportant things, or to make someone do this: Don't fret about the delay – we'll get there on time.

fret² n. [C] one of the raised lines on the long straight part of a GUITAR or similar instruments fret-ful /'frɛtful/ adj. (old-fashioned) worried, complaining, and unable to relax: a fretful child

Freud-i-an /'frɔɪdiən/ adj. 1 relating to Sigmund Freud's ideas about the way the mind works 2 Freudian slip something you say by mistake that shows a thought or feeling you did not mean to show, or did not know you had fri-ar /'fraɪə/ n. [C] a man who belongs to a Roman Catholic group, whose members in past times traveled around teaching about religion and who were very poor fric-tion /'frɪkʃən/ n. [U] 1 disagreement, angry feelings, or lack of friendship between people: the things that create friction between parent and child 2 PHYSICS a force that tries to stop the movement of one surface against another. When things keep moving against each other, friction causes them to rub together and produce heat: Moving parts subjected to constant friction eventually wear out. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French, Latin frictio, from fricare “to rub”]

Fri-day /'fraɪdi-, -dei/ (written abbreviation Fri.) n. [C,U] the sixth day of the week, between Thursday and Saturday: Diane won't be here Friday. | I have class on Friday. | Next Friday is my birthday. | I talked to Jim last Friday. | Do you have plans for

Friday night? [ORIGIN: Old English frīgedæg “day of Frigg, female god of love”]

fridge /frɪdʒ/ n. [C] (informal) a REFRIGERATOR

fried¹ /fraɪd/ adj. 1 cooked in hot fat: a fried egg 2 (slang) very tired: My brain is fried today.

fried² v. the past tense and past participle of FRY friend /frɛnd/ n. [C] 1 someone whom you like very much and enjoy spending time with: I'm meeting a friend for lunch. | Is she a friend of yours? | Tony's her best friend. | one of my closest friends | Lee's an old friend.

COLLOCATIONS

You may have lots of good/close friends but your best friend is the one you like most.

An old friend is one you have known for a long time.

If you have friends, you know and like them already.

If you make friends with someone, you start to know and like him or her.

If friends hang out together (informal), or if you hang out with friends (informal), you spend time together in a relaxed way.

If friends come over, they visit you at home.

2 make friends (with sb) to become friendly with someone: Kate makes friends easily. 3 be friends (with sb) to be someone's friend: They've been friends with the Wilsons for years. 4 someone who has the same beliefs or wants to achieve the same things: our friends and allies around the world 5 someone who supports a theater, MUSEUM, etc. by giving money or help 6 have friends in high places to know important people who can help you [ORIGIN: Old English freond]

friend-ly /'frɛndli/ adj. 1 showing that you like someone and are ready to talk to him/her: Diane's friendly to/with everyone. | a friendly smile

THESAURUS

warm – friendly: Sonya's a very warm person.

cordial – friendly and polite but formal: The two nations have always maintained cordial relations.

amiable – friendly and pleasant: an amiable man genial (formal) – cheerful, kind, and friendly: the genial host of the party affable (formal) – friendly and easy to talk to: an affable young woman with plenty of friends welcoming – making you feel happy and relaxed: Everyone was very welcoming.

hospitable – friendly, welcoming, and generous to visitors: They were very kind and hospitable to us.

2 user-friendly/ozone-friendly etc. a) easy for people to use or be comfortable with: user-friendly computers | a kid-friendly house b) not damaging or harming something: environmentally-friendly detergent 3 not at war with you, or not your enemy or opponent: The two countries have friendly relations. 4 friendly fire bombs, bullets, etc. that accidentally kill people who are fighting on the same side —friendliness n. [U]

friend-ship /'frɛndʃɪp/ n. 1 [C] a relationship between friends: Their friendship began in college. | his friendship with Bill | The two boys formed/developed a lasting friendship. | a close friendship 2 [U] the feelings that exist between friends: I was grateful for her friendship and support.

frizee /friz/ n. [C] a decoration that goes along the top of a wall frig-ate /'frɪɡɪt/ n. [C] a small fast ship used especially for protecting other ships in a war fright /fraɪt/ n. [singular, U] a sudden fear: People screamed in fright. | He was shaking with fright.

fright-en /'fraɪtən/ v. [T] to make someone feel afraid: Libby was frightened by the thunder. | Don't stand so close to the edge – you're frightening me.

frighten sb/sth ↔ away phr. v. to make a person or animal go away by making him, her, or it afraid: Be quiet or you'll frighten away the birds.

frighten sb ↔ off phr. v. to make someone so nervous or afraid that s/he goes away and does not do something s/he was going to do: The company's poor results have frightened off investors.

fright-ened /'fraɪtənd/ adj. feeling afraid: a frightened child | He was frightened of losing her. | She was frightened that he might hit her.

THE SAURUS

afraid/scared – frightened because you think that you may get hurt or that something bad may happen: I'm afraid to go out alone after dark. | I've always been scared of dogs.

terrified – very frightened: I'm terrified of heights.

petrified – very frightened: He's petrified of snakes.

fearful (formal) – afraid: Even doctors are fearful of getting the disease.

phobic (formal) – having very strong and unreasonable fears: My mother, who was phobic about leaving the apartment, never ventured outdoors.

fright-en-ing /'fraɪtənɪŋ/ adj. making you feel afraid or nervous: a frightening experience —frighteningly adv.

frig-id /'frɪdʒɪd/ adj. 1 a woman who is frigid does not like having sex 2 very cold

THE SAURUS

cold, cool, chilly, frosty, freezing (cold), icy (cold), bitter (cold) → COLD¹

3 (literary) not friendly: She gave me a frigid look. —frigidity /frɪ'dʒɪdɪti/ n. [U]

frill /frɪl/ n. 1 [C] a decoration on the edge of a piece of cloth, made of another piece of cloth with many small folds in it 2 frills [plural] features that are nice but not necessary: We saved money by cutting out frills like dining out. | a no-frills airline → NO-FRILLS frill-y /'frɪli/ adj. with many frills: a frilly blouse

fringe¹ /frɪndʒ/ n. 1 [C] a small number of people whose ideas are more unusual or extreme than those of most other people: the environmental fringe 2 [C,U] an edge of hanging threads used as a decoration on a curtain, piece of clothing, etc.: a cowboy jacket with leather fringe 3 [C] the area that is furthest from the center of something: the eastern fringe of Vancouver 4 on the fringes of sth not completely involved in or accepted by a particular group: Cato lived on the fringes of society.

fringe² adj. not representing or involving many people, and expressing unusual ideas: a fringe group of political extremists

'fringe benefit n. [C usually plural] a service or advantage that you are given with your job in addition to pay: The job's many fringe benefits include a company car.

fringed /frɪndʒd/ adj. 1 decorated with a fringe: a large fringed shawl 2 having something on the edge: a palm-fringed beach

F

Fris-bee /'frɪzbi/ n. [C,U] (trademark) a piece of plastic shaped like a plate that people throw and catch as a game

frisk /frɪsk/ v. [T] to search someone for hidden weapons, drugs, etc. by passing your hands over his/her body frisk-y /'frɪski/ adj. full of energy, happiness, and fun: a frisky kitten

frít-ter¹ /'frɪtə/ n. [C] a piece of fruit, vegetable, or meat covered with a mixture of eggs and flour and cooked in oil: corn fritters fritter² v.

fritter sth ↔ away phr. v. to waste time, money, or effort on something that is not important fritz /frɪts/ n. (informal) be on the fritz if something electrical is on the fritz, it is not working correctly frí-vol-i-ty /frɪ'vɒləti/ n. (plural frivolities) [C,U] behavior or activities that are not serious or sensible friv-o-lous /'frɪvələs/ adj. 1 not sensible: pretty, frivolous clothes 2 not important or necessary: a frivolous request

frizz-y /'frɪzi/ adj. frizzy hair is very tightly curled in an unattractive way —frizz v. [I,T] fro /froʊ/ adv. → TO AND FRO

frog /frɒg, fræg/ n. [C] 1 a small animal with smooth skin that lives in or near water, makes a deep sound, and has long legs for jumping → TOAD 2 have a frog in your throat (informal) to have difficulty in speaking because your throat is dry or sore [ORIGIN: Old English froga]

frol-ic /'frɒlɪk/ v. [I] to play in an active happy way —frol-ic n. [C] from /frəm; strong frʌm/ prep.

1 WHERE SB/STH STARTS starting at a particular place, position, or condition: He drove all the way from Colorado. | I liked him from the first time I met him. | prices ranging from $80 to $250

2 ORIGIN a) used in order to show the origin of someone or something: lines from a play | I got the idea from Scott. | “Where do you come from?” “I’m from Norway.” b) sent or given by someone: Who is the present from? | I got a phone call from Ernie today.

3 MOVED/SEPARATED used in order to show that things or people are moved, separated, or taken away: He pulled his shoes out from under the bed. | I’ll take that away from you! | She needs some time away from the kids (=time when she is not with them). | Subtract $40 from the total.

4 DISTANCE/TIME used in order to show distance or time: We live about 3 miles from Des Moines. | It’ll cost $400 to fly from Albuquerque to Atlanta. | The morning class is from 9:00 to 11:00. | One month from now we’ll be in Mexico!

5 from now on starting now and continuing into the future: I decided that, from now on, I would keep a journal.

6 from day to day/person to person/place to place etc. used in order to say that something continues or keeps changing: The stock’s value varied/fluctuated from week to week.

7 from time to time sometimes, but not regularly (SYN) occasionally: We talk on the phone from time to time.

8 POSITION used in order to show where you are when you see, watch, or do something: There’s a man watching us from behind that fence. | From the top of the mountain, you can see the ocean.

9 RESULT because of, or as a result of: the number of injuries from car accidents | We could tell what he was thinking from the expression on his face.

10 STOP STH HAPPENING used in order to say what is stopped, avoided, or prevented: The fog prevented planes from landing.

11 COMPARING used when comparing things: Frieda is very different from her sister. [ORIGIN: Old English]

frond /frʌnd/ n. [C] a leaf of a FERN or PALM TREE

front¹ /frʌnt/ n.

1 the front a) the part of something that is furthest forward, and closest to the direction it faces (ANT) back: Good students tend to sit near the front. | Let’s sit at the front of the bus. b) the side or surface of something that faces or moves forward (ANT) back: the large doors at the front of the building | He ran around the front of the car. | a sweatshirt with the college’s name on the front c) the most important side or surface of something, that you look at first (ANT) back: a postcard with a picture of a lighthouse on the front | The author had signed his name in the front of the book (=on one of the first pages).

2 in front of sb/sth a) further forward than or ahead of someone or something (ANT) behind: A car suddenly pulled out in front of my truck. | two girls standing in front of me in line b) facing someone or something (ANT) behind: She sat in front of the mirror. | Mrs. Podell stood in front of the class. c) near the entrance of a building (ANT) behind: Drop me off in front of the theater. | a tree in front of their house d) where someone can see or hear you: He threatened her in front of several witnesses. | They won in front of 13,000 fans.

3 in (the) front a) in the most forward or leading position (SYN) ahead: Watch the car in front! b) in the area nearest to the most forward part of something, or nearest to the entrance to a building: The club has two bars, one in the front and one in the back. c) in the part of a car where the driver sits: Can I sit in front with you?

4 in front of the TV/computer etc. watching a television or using a computer: They’d eaten supper in front of the TV.

5 out front in the area near the entrance to the building that you are in: Jim’s waiting out front.

6 WEATHER [C] EARTH SCIENCES the place where two areas of air that have different temperatures meet each other: The weather report says a warm/cold front is coming.

7 on the publicity/money/health etc. front in a particular area of activity: new developments on the economic front

8 up front (informal) a) money that is paid up front is paid before work is done or goods are supplied: We need the money up front before we can do anything. b) directly and clearly from the start: She told him up front she wasn’t interested in marriage.

9 ON YOUR BODY sb’s front (informal) someone’s chest, or the part of the body that faces forward: Oh, I’ve just spilled milk down my front!

10 BEHAVIOR [C, usually singular] a way of behaving that shows what you want people to see, rather than what you may feel: Parents should try to present a united front (=seem to agree with each other) to their children. | Celia was nervous, but she put up a brave front.

11 ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES [C] a legal business that someone operates in order to hide the illegal activities s/he is involved in

12 POLITICAL PARTY [singular] POLITICS used in the names of political parties or unofficial military organizations: the Quebec Liberation Front

13 WAR [C] a line along which fighting takes place during a war

front² adj. [only before noun] 1 at, on, or in the front of something (ANT) back: the front door | tickets for front row seats | the magazine’s front cover | one of the front wheels 2 legally doing business as a way of hiding a secret or illegal activity: a front organization for drug dealing front³ v. 1 [T] to lead something such as a musical group by being the person that the public sees most: He’s now fronting his own band. 2 [I,T] to face something, or to be in front of something: a building fronting Lake Michigan front-age /ˈfrʌntɪdʒ/ n. [C] the part of a building or piece of land that is along a road, river, etc.

frontal /ˈfrʌntəl/ adj. 1 toward the front of something: a frontal attack 2 at the front part of something: the frontal lobe of the brain

front-tier /frʌn'tɪr/ n. [C] 1 the frontier the area beyond the places that people know well, especially in the western U.S. in the 19th century: the settlement of the Oklahoma frontier 2 the limit of what is known about something: the frontiers of science 3 the border of a country, or the area near the border front man n. [C] 1 someone who speaks for an organization, often an illegal one, but is not the leader of it 2 the leader of a JAZZ or ROCK band front-run-ner /'frʌntˌrʌnər/ n. [C] the person or thing that is most likely to succeed in a competition: the frontrunner for the Republican nomination

frost¹ /frɒst/ n. 1 [U] ice that looks white and powdery and covers things that are outside when the temperature is very cold: trees white with frost

THESAURUS snow, snowflakes, sleet, slush → SNOW¹

2 [C,U] very cold weather, when water freezes: an early frost

frost² v. 1 [T] to cover a cake with frosting 2 [I] to cover something with frost, or to become covered with frost: All the windows had frosted over during the night.

frost-bite /'frɒstbaɪt/ n. [U] a condition caused by extreme cold, in which your fingers, toes, etc. freeze, so that they swell, become darker, and sometimes drop off —frostbitten /'frɒst,bɪtˈn/ adj.

frost-ing /'frɒstɪŋ/ n. [U] a sweet substance that you put on cakes, made from sugar and liquid: chocolate frosting frost-y /'frɒsti/ adj. 1 very cold or covered with FROST: a frosty morning

THESAURUS cold, cool, chilly, freezing (cold), icy (cold), bitter (cold), frigid → COLD¹

2 unfriendly: a frosty greeting

froth¹ /frɒθ/ n. [singular, U] a lot of BUBBLES formed on top of a liquid froth² v. [I] to produce froth froth-y /'frɒθi, -ði/ adj. full of froth or covered with froth: frothy beer

frown¹ /fraʊn/ v. [I] to make an angry or unhappy expression by moving your EYEBROWS together, so that lines appear on your FOREHEAD: Debbie's mother frowned at her.

frown on/upon sth phr. v. to disapprove of something: Even though divorce is legal, it's often frowned upon.

frown² n. [C] the expression on your face when you frown froze /frəʊz/ v. the past tense of FREEZE fro-zen¹ /'frəʊzən/ v. the past participle of FREEZE frozen² adj. 1 preserved by being kept at a very low temperature: frozen peas 2 be frozen (stiff) (spoken) to feel very cold: Can you turn up the heat? I'm frozen! 3 made very hard or turned to ice because of the cold: the frozen lake → see picture at MELT 4 be frozen with fear/terror/fright to be so afraid, shocked, etc. that you cannot move

fruc-tose /'frʊktʊs, 'frʌk-/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a type of natural sugar in fruit juices and HONEY → GLUCOSE, LACTOSE, SUCROSE

fru-gal /'frʊgəl/ adj. 1 careful to only buy what is necessary: My parents were very frugal. 2 small in quantity and cost: a frugal lunch of cheese and bread —frugally adv. —frugality /'frʊ'gæləti/ n. [U]

fruit /frʊt/ n. (plural fruit or fruits) 1 [C,U] something that grows on a plant, tree, or bush, can be eaten as food, contains seeds, and is usually sweet: Apples and bananas are Nancy's favorite fruits. | Would you like a piece of fruit? see picture on page 414 2 the fruit(s) of sth the good results that you have from something, after you have worked hard: the fruits of his research [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French, Latin fructus, from frui "to enjoy, have the use of"] → bear fruit at BEAR¹ fruit-cake /'frʊtˌkeɪk/ n. 1 [C,U] a cake that has dried fruit in it 2 [C] (informal) someone who seems to be mentally ill or behaves in a strange way

'fruit fly n. [C] a small fly that eats and lays eggs on fruit fruit-ful /'frʊtfəl/ adj. producing good results: a fruitful meeting

fru-i-tion /'frʊɪʃən/ n. [U] (formal) the successful result of a plan, idea, etc.: The community has worked hard for this plan to come to/be brought to fruition.

fruit-less /'frʊtlɪs/ adj. failing to produce good results, especially after much effort: a fruitless attempt to end the fighting —fruitlessly adv.

fruit-y /'frʊti/ adj. tasting or smelling strongly of fruit: a fruity wine

frump-y /'frʌmpi/ adj. someone, especially a woman, who is frumpy wears old-fashioned clothes and looks unattractive

frus-trate /'frʌstreɪt/ v. [T] 1 if something frustrates you, it makes you feel annoyed or angry because you are unable to do what you want: The lack of public transportation frustrates commuters. 2 to prevent someone's plans, efforts, or attempts from succeeding: They feel the system frustrates their attempts to improve productivity.

frus-trat-ed /'frʌstreɪtɪd/ adj. feeling annoyed or angry because you are unable to do what you want to do: He gets frustrated and angry because he feels stupid. | I was frustrated with the lack of progress.

frus-trat-ing /'frʌstreɪtɪŋ/ adj. making you feel annoyed or angry because you cannot do what you want to do: Having a broken arm is really frustrating.

F

THESAURUS cook, bake, roast, broil, grill, sauté, boil, steam, deep fry → COOK¹

fu-el /'fyuəl, fyul/ n. [C,U] a substance such as coal, gas, or oil that can be burned to produce heat or energy [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French fouaille, from feu “fire,” from Latin focus “hearth”]

ful·fil /fu'lfil/ v. [T] 1 to get, do, or achieve something you wanted, promised, or hoped for: *The president fulfilled his election promise to cut taxes. | Learning to fly fulfilled a childhood dream. | an education that will help each child fulfill his potential (=be as successful as he can be) 2 to do or provide what is necessary or needed: The firm failed to fulfill its obligations under the contract. | The breakfast club fulfills a need in this poor neighborhood school. 3 to make you feel satisfied because you are doing something useful and interesting and using your skills and qualities: She wanted work that would fulfill her.

ful-filled /fʊl'fɪld/ adj. satisfied with your life, job, etc. because you feel that it is interesting or useful and you are using all your skills ful-fill-ing /fʊl'fɪlɪŋ/ adj. making you feel happy and satisfied because you are doing interesting, useful, or important things: a fulfilling career ful-fill-ment /fʊl'fɪlmənt/ n. [U] 1 the feeling of being happy and satisfied with your life because you are doing interesting, useful, or important things: Ann's work gives her a real sense of fulfillment. 2 the act or state of meeting a need, demand, or condition: This contract offer depends upon the fulfillment of certain conditions.

full¹ /fʊl/ adj.

1 CONTAINER/ROOM/PLACE ETC. holding or containing as much or as many things or people as possible (ANT empty): Don't talk with your mouth full. | a full glass of milk | The bottle was only half full. | a box full of paper → see picture at EMPTY¹

THESAURUS

filled with sth – full of something: a shopping cart filled with groceries packed – extremely full of people or things: The trial took place in front of a packed courtroom. | The stadium was packed with fans.
crammed – full of people or things: The garage was crammed with junk.
stuffed (full of sth) – full of things: a suitcase stuffed full of clothes bursting (with sth) – very full of something: a muffin bursting with blueberries overflowing – a container that is overflowing is so full that the liquid or things inside it come out over the top: an overflowing trash basket overloaded – if a vehicle or ship is overloaded, too many people or things have been put in it: The helicopter was overloaded and barely got off the ground.
teeming with sth – full of people or animals that are all moving around: The lake was teeming with fish.
replete (formal) – full of something: Books on the war were replete with references to him.

2 COMPLETE [only before noun] including all parts or details: Please write your full name and address in the boxes. | We will pay the full cost of repairs.

3 HIGHEST AMOUNT/LEVEL [only before noun] the highest level or greatest amount of something that is possible: The ship was going at full speed. | You have our full support. | I didn't pay full price for the jacket.

4 be full of sth a) to contain many things of the same kind: Eric's essay is full of mistakes. | a garden full of flowers b) to feel or express a strong emotion: Cathy woke up full of excitement. | He was full of praise for the children's achievement. c) to think or talk about only one subject all the time: She's full of plans for the wedding.

5 FOOD [not before noun] having eaten so much food that you cannot eat any more: "Would you like some more soup?" "No thanks. I'm full."

6 CLOTHING a full skirt, pair of pants, etc. is made with a lot of material and fits loosely

7 BODY a full face, body, etc. is rounded or large: clothes for the fuller figure

8 TASTE/SOUND ETC. a full taste, sound, color, etc. is strong and pleasant: a full-bodied wine

9 RANK [only before noun] having or giving all the rights, duties, etc. that belong to a particular rank or position: a full professor full² n. 1 in full if you pay an amount of money in full, you pay the whole amount 2 to the full in the best or most complete way: Ronnie lived his life to the full.

full³ adv. (literary) directly: The sun shone full on her face.

'full-blown adj. fully developed: full-blown AIDS

'full-fledged adj. completely developed, trained, or established: a full-fledged lawyer

'full-grown adj. a full-grown person, animal, or plant has developed to his, her, or its full size and will not grow any bigger

'full 'house n. [C] an occasion at a concert hall, sports field, etc. when every seat has someone sitting in it

'full-length adj. 1 full-length mirror/ photograph etc. a mirror, etc. that shows all of a person, from his/her head to his/her feet 2 full-length skirt/dress a skirt, etc. that reaches the ground 3 full-length play/book etc. a play, etc. of the normal length

'full 'moon n. [singular] the moon when it looks completely round full-ness /'fʊlnɪs/ n. 1 in the fullness of time (formal) when the right time comes: I'm sure he'll tell us everything in the fullness of time. 2 [U] the condition of having eaten enough food 3 [U] the quality of being large and round: the fullness of her lips

'full-scale adj. 1 as complete or thorough as possible: a full-scale investigation 2 a full-scale model, copy, picture, etc. is the same size as the thing it represents

'full-time adj., adv. working or studying for the number of hours that people usually work or study → PART-TIME: Andrea works full-time for an insurance company. | full-time students

ful-ly /'fʊli/ adv. completely: a fully trained nurse fum-ble /'fʌmbəl/ v. 1 [I] to try to hold, move, or find something with your hands in an awkward way: Gary fumbled for the light switch in the dark. 2 [I,T] to have difficulty saying something: She fumbled for an appropriate response. 3 [I,T] to drop a ball after catching it —fumble n. [C] fume /fjum/ v. [I] to be very angry: He was fuming about/over/at the repair costs.

fumes /fjumz/ n. [plural] strong-smelling gas or smoke that is unpleasant to breathe in: gasoline fumes

F

fu-mi-gate /'fjumə,ɡert/ v. [T] to remove disease, BACTERIA, insects, etc. from somewhere using chemical smoke or gas —fumigation /,fjumə'geɪʃən/ n. [U]

fun¹ /fʌn/ n. [U] 1 pleasure, amusement, and enjoyment, or an activity that is enjoyable: Swimming is a lot of fun. | Did you have fun at Phil's house? | I have to admit — it's more fun to win. | It's nice to have time to read something for fun. | The trip would be no fun (=not fun) with a bad back.

USAGE

Use fun to talk about situations or activities that you enjoy: Ice skating is a lot of fun.
Use funny to describe someone or something that makes you laugh: The movie was so funny we couldn't stop laughing.

2 make fun of sb/sth to make unkind jokes about someone or something: Some of the kids started making fun of Sarinder's accent. 3 in fun if you make a joke or say something about someone in fun, you do not intend it to be insulting: I'm sorry, I only said it in fun.

fun² adj. 1 a fun activity or experience is enjoyable: It was a fun day. 2 a fun person is enjoyable to be with: Terry is always fun to be with.

func-tion¹ /'fʌŋkʃən/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 the usual purpose of a thing, or the job that someone usually does: What's the exact function of this program? | A manager has to perform many different functions. 2 a large party or ceremonial event, especially for an important or official occasion: The mayor has to attend all kinds of official functions. 3 a mathematical quantity that changes according to how another mathematical quantity changes [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin functio, from fungi “to perform”]

function² (Ac) v. [I] to work in a particular way or in the correct way: Her kidneys had stopped functioning.

function as sth phr. v. to be used or work as something: The space station functions as a laboratory in space.

func-tion-al /'fʌŋkʃənəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 designed to be useful rather than attractive: functional furniture 2 working in the way that something is supposed to: There is a fully functional calculator on the key ring. 3 functional illiteracy/illiterate the quality of being able to read, but not well enough to perform skilled jobs, or someone who has this quality —functionally adv.

'function key n. [C] IT a key on the KEYBOARD of a computer that tells it to do something

'function word n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word such as a PRONOUN or PREPOSITION that is used in place of another word, or that shows the relationship between two words. For example, in the sentences “The cat is hungry. It hasn't been fed yet,” “it” is a function word.

fund¹ /fʌnd/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 ECONOMICS an amount of money that is kept for a particular purpose:

candidates' campaign funds | a scholarship fund 2 funds [plural] ECONOMICS the money that an organization needs or has: The PTO helps raise funds for the school. | federal funds for welfare programs → MUTUAL FUND 3 an organization that is responsible for collecting and spending money for a particular purpose: the Environmental Defense Fund [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin fundus “bottom, piece of land”]

fund² (Ac) v. [T] to provide money for an activity, organization, event, etc.: Their medical research is federally funded.

fun-da-men-tal¹ /,fʌndə'mentəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 relating to the most basic and important parts of something: People are demanding a fundamental change in the political system. | the fundamental democratic principle of free speech

THESAURUS basic, essential, elementary, central, underlying → BASIC

2 necessary for something to exist or develop: Education is fundamental to improving people's chances in life.

fundamental² (Ac) n. [C usually plural] the most important ideas, rules, skills, etc. that something is based on: the fundamentals of basketball fun-da-men-tal-ist /,fʌndə'mentəlist/ n. [C] 1 someone who follows the rules of his/her religion very strictly 2 a Christian who believes that everything in the Bible is completely and actually true —fundamentalist adj. —fundamentalism n. [U] fun-da-men-tal-ly /,fʌndə'mentəl-i/ (Ac) adv. in every way that is important or basic: Our political views are fundamentally different.

fun-da-men-tals /,fʌndə'mentəlz/ n. the fundamentals of sth the most important ideas, rules, etc. that something is based on: a class in the fundamentals of computer programming fund-ing /'fʌndɪŋ/ (Ac) n. [U] ECONOMICS an amount of money used for a special purpose: The university is providing funding for the research.

'fund-raising adj. fund-raising events collect money for a specific purpose fu-ner-al /'fyunərəl/ n. [C] a ceremony, usually religious, for burying or burning a dead person: The funeral will be held on Thursday at St. Patrick's church. | More than 150 people attended the funeral. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Late Latin funeralis, from Latin funus “funeral”]

'funeral di,rector n. [C] someone whose job is to arrange funerals

'funeral home also 'funeral ,parlor n. [C] the place where a body is kept before a funeral and where sometimes the funeral is held fun-gus /'fʌŋɡəs/ n. (plural fungi /'fʌndʒaɪ, -ɡaɪ/ or funguses) [C,U] BIOLOGY a simple plant without leaves, such as MUSHROOMS, MOLD, and YEAST, that grows in dark warm slightly wet places —fungal /'fʌŋɡəl/ adj.

funk /fʌŋk/ n. [U] 1 a type of popular music with a strong beat that is based on JAZZ and African music 2 in a funk (informal) unhappy or worried about something funk-y /'fʌŋki/ adj. (informal) 1 modern, fashionable, and interesting: a funky website 2 funky music is simple, with a strong RHYTHM that is easy to dance to fun-nel¹ /'fʌnl/ n. [C] a tube with a wide top and a narrow bottom, used for pouring liquids or powders into a container funnel² v. 1 [I,T] if you funnel something somewhere, or if it funnels there, it goes there by passing through a narrow opening: The crowd funneled through the narrow streets. 2 [T] to send things or money from different places to a particular place or person: a policy of funneling the most talented students into special schools fun-nies /'fʌniz/ n. the funnies a number of different CARTOONS (=funny pictures) printed together in newspapers or magazines fun-ni-ly /'fʌnəli/ adv. → strangely/oddly/funnily enough at ENOUGH

funny¹ /'fʌni/ adj. 1 amusing you and making you laugh: John gave a funny little speech. | What's so funny? | He looked really funny.

THESAURUS

hilarious/hysterical – extremely funny witty – using words in a funny and intelligent way: witty remarks amusing/humorous – slightly more formal ways to say that something is funny: an amusing anecdote (=a short, interesting, and funny story about an event or person) comical – funny, especially in a strange or unexpected way: a comical hat → see USAGE box at FUN¹

2 strange or unexpected, and difficult to understand or explain: What's that funny noise? | The room smelled funny. | I got a funny feeling that someone was watching me.

THESAURUS

strange, peculiar, curious, mysterious, odd, weird, bizarre, eccentric → STRANGE¹

3 slightly sick: It makes my stomach feel funny.

SPOKEN PHRASES

4 it's funny used in order to say that you do not understand something that seems strange or unexpected: "It's funny," she said. "You seem different somehow." | It's funny how you can affect people and not even realize it. 5 that's funny said when you are surprised by something that has happened, that you cannot explain: That's funny! She was here just a minute ago. 6 the funny thing is is used in order to say what the strangest or most amusing part of a story or situation is: The funny thing is, once I stopped dieting I started to lose weight. 7 very funny! said when someone is laughing at you or making a joke that you do not think is funny funny² adv. in a strange or unusual way: Judy's been acting kind of funny lately.

'funny bone n. [singular] the soft part of your elbow that hurts a lot when you hit it against something fur /fə/ n. 1 [U] the thick soft hair that covers the bodies of some animals, such as dogs and cats → see picture on page A2 2 [C,U] the skin of a dead animal with the fur still attached to it, or a piece of clothing made from this: a fur coat [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 fur "to cover the inside of with fur" (14–19 centuries), from Old French forre "inside covering"] fu-ri-ous /'fʊəriəs/ adj. 1 very angry: Jim'll be furious with me if I'm late. | Dad was furious that I had taken the car without asking.

THESAURUS

angry, annoyed, irritated, livid, mad, indignant, irate, outraged, resentful → ANGRY

2 done with a lot of uncontrolled energy or anger: He woke up to a furious pounding at the door. —furiously adv.

furled /fəld/ adj. rolled or folded: a furled umbrella —furl v. [T] fur-long /'fɜːlɒŋ/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a unit for measuring length that is used in horse racing. A furlong equals 201 meters and there are eight furlongs in a mile.

fur-lough /'fɜːluː/ n. [C] a short period of time in which someone is allowed to be away from his/her job, especially in the military: a soldier home on furlough

THESAURUS

vacation, holiday, break, leave, r & r, sabbatical → VACATION

fur-nace /'fɜːnɪs/ n. [C] a large container with a hot fire inside it, used for producing power or heat, or to melt metals and other materials fur-nish /'fɜːnɪʃ/ v. [T] 1 to put furniture and other things into a house or room: a room furnished with two beds 2 to supply something: Your Internet provider will furnish you with e-mail software. —furnished adj.: a furnished apartment fur-nish-ings /'fɜːnɪʃɪŋz/ n. [plural] the furniture and other things in a room, such as curtains, decorations, etc.

fur-ni-ture /'fɜːnɪʃə/ n. [U] large objects such as chairs, tables, and beds that you use in a room, office, etc.: The room's only piece of furniture was an old sofa. | office furniture [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French fourniture, from Old French furnir "to complete, provide equipment"]

GRAMMAR

Furniture does not have a plural form. Do not say “furnitures”. You can say some furniture or any furniture: We need to buy some new furniture. A single chair or table is a piece of furniture.

fu-ror /'fyʊrɔː/ n. [singular] a sudden expression of anger or excitement among a large group of people: His decision to resign caused/created a furor.

fur-row /'fʊrəʊ, 'flaʊ/ n. [C] a long deep fold or line in the surface of something such as skin or the ground: the furrows of a plowed field furrow ² v. [T] to make a long deep fold or line in the surface of something such as skin or the ground: Saks furrowed his brow. —furrowed adj.

fur-ry /'fʊɹi/ adj. covered with fur, or looking or feeling as if covered with fur: furry material

fur-ther ¹ /'fʊðə/ adv. 1 more, or to a greater degree: I have nothing further to say. | Mark went further into debt. | He was falling further and further behind in his schoolwork. 2 a longer way in time or space: The records don't go any further back than 1960. | Their home is further down the street. 3 take sth further to do something at a more serious or higher level: Hallas decided not to take the court case any further. 4 (formal) in addition to what has already been written or said [SYN] furthermore further ² adj. additional: Are there any further questions? | Further information is available on the website.

THESAURUS

more, another, extra, additional, supplemental, supplementary → MORE² further ³ v. [T] (formal) to help something to succeed: The training should help him further his career.

fur-ther-more /'fʊðə,mɔː/ [Ac] adv. (formal) in addition to what has already been written or said: Cycling to work is quicker than driving. Furthermore, it's a lot cheaper.

fur-theft /'fʊðɪst/ adj., adv. 1 to the greatest degree or amount, or more than before: Smith's book has probably gone furthest (=done the most) in explaining these events. 2 at the greatest distance from a place or point in time: the houses furthest from the center of town fur-tive /'fʊtɪv/ adj. behaving as if you want to keep something secret: a furtive glance [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French furtif, from Latin fur “thief”] —furtively adv.

fu-ry /'fyʊri/ n. 1 [singular, U] a state or feeling of extreme anger: She was filled with fury. | Hanson left the meeting in a fury. 2 the fury of the wind/storm etc. used in order to describe very bad weather 3 a fury of sth a state of great activity or strong feeling: Joe went home in a fury of frustration.

fuse ¹ /fyuz/ n. [C] 1 a short wire inside a piece of electrical equipment that prevents damage to the equipment by melting if too much electricity tries to pass through it: I went down to the basement and replaced a blown fuse (=a fuse that had melted). 2 also fuze a part of a bomb, FIREWORK, etc. that delays it from exploding or makes it explode at a particular time 3 used in expressions relating to someone becoming angry: Randy finally blew a fuse (=got angry very suddenly) and screamed at us. | Martina has a short fuse (=gets angry easily) when she's tired.

fuse ² v. [I,T] 1 to join together and become one thing, or to join two things together: His novel fuses historical information with a romantic story. 2 PHYSICS if metals, rocks, etc. fuse together, they melt and join together fuse-box /'fyuzbɒks/ n. [C] a metal box that contains the fuses for the electrical system in a building fu-se-lage /'fyusə,lɑːʒ, -lɪdʒ, -zə-/ n. [C] the main part of an airplane, in which people sit or goods are carried → see picture at AIRPLANE

fu-sion /'fyuʒən/ n. [C,U] 1 PHYSICS the process of joining together the nuclei (NUCLEUS) of atoms, which produces heavier atoms and a lot of energy → FISSION: experiments in nuclear fusion 2 the combination of separate things, groups, or ideas: a fusion of French and Indian cuisine [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin fusio, from fundere “to pour, melt”] fuss ¹ /fʌs/ n. 1 [singular, U] attention, excitement, or activity that is not really necessary: Hey, what's all the fuss about (=why are people so excited, angry, busy, etc.)? | They wanted a quiet wedding without any fuss. 2 make a fuss/kick up a fuss to complain or become angry about something that other people do not think is important: Don't be afraid to make a fuss if you think you're not being treated right. 3 make a fuss over sb/sth to pay a lot of attention to someone or something that you like: His mother made a fuss over him, stroking his hair.

fuss ² v. [I] to complain or become upset: The baby woke up and started to fuss.

fuss over sb/sth phr. v. to pay a lot of attention to someone or something that you like: The women started fussing over Kate's baby.

fuss with sth phr. v. to move or touch something again and again in a nervous way: Stop fussing with your hair!

fuss-y /'fʌsi/ adj. (comparative fussier, superlative fussiest) 1 concerned or worried about things that are not very important: Many kids are fussy eaters. 2 a fussy baby cries a lot 3 very detailed or decorated, in a way that is unpleasant fu-tile /'fyuɪl/ adj. having no chance of being effective or successful: a futile attempt/effort to prevent the war —futility /'fyu'tɪləti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS pointless, useless, a waste of time/money/effort, senseless → POINTLESS

fu-ton /'futan/ n. [C] a soft flat MATTRESS that can be used as a bed or folded into a chair

fu-ture¹ /'fyutʃə/ n. 1 the future the time that will happen after the present: Each story has a different vision of the future. | a feeling of hope for the future | The airport has room for another runway to be built in the future (=at some time in the future). | Investigators hope to wrap up the case in the near/immediate future (=soon). | The order will keep the company busy for the foreseeable future (=for as long as you can plan for). | a story set in the not too distant future (=not too far in the future) 2 in the future the next time you do the same activity: In the future I'll be sure to reserve tickets. 3 [C,U] what will happen to someone or something, or what he, she, or it will do in the future: Parents want the best for their children's futures. | an issue that will affect the future of our country | Businesses must look to the future (=plan for what will happen). 4 the future ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the tense of a verb that shows that an action or state will happen or exist at a later time. It is often shown in English by the MODAL VERB "will" followed by a verb. In the sentence "We will leave tomorrow," "will leave" is in the future. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French futur, from Latin futurus "going to be"]

future² adj. 1 likely to happen or exist during the time after the present: The park will be preserved for future generations. | companies planning for future growth | I'd like you to meet my future wife (=the person who will be your wife). 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, being a tense of a verb that shows a future action or state: the future tense 3 for future reference in order to be used again at a later time: Can I keep that article for future reference?

future 'perfect n. the future perfect ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the tense of a verb that shows that an action will be completed before a particular time in the future. It is shown by the AUXILIARY VERBS "will have" followed by a past participle. In the sentence "I will have finished my finals by next Friday," "will have finished" is in the future perfect.

fu-tur-is-tic /,fyutʃə'rɪstɪk/ adj. futuristic ideas, books, movies, etc. describe what might happen in the future, especially because of scientific developments fuze /fyuz/ n. [C] another spelling of FUSE¹

fuzz /fʌz/ n. [U] (informal) small soft thin hairs, or a similar material, on fruit such as PEACHES fuzz-y /'fʌzi/ adj. 1 if a sound or picture is fuzzy, it is not clear: Unfortunately, a lot of the photos are fuzzy. 2 not easy to understand or not having very clear details: The distinction between the two is fuzzy. 3 having a lot of very small thin hairs, fur, etc. that are very soft: a fuzzy sweater

fwy. the written abbreviation of FREEWAY

FYI the abbreviation of for your information, used especially on MEMOS (=short business notes)

Gg

G, g /dʒi/ the seventh letter of the English alphabet

G /dʒi/ n. 1 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the fifth note in the musical SCALE of C, or the musical KEY based on this note 2 [C] PHYSICS an amount of force caused by GRAVITY on an object that is on the surface of the Earth 3 [C] PHYSICS a unit for measuring the rate at which an object increases speed as a result of GRAVITY 4 [C,U] general – used to show that a movie has been approved for people of any age

GA the written abbreviation of GEORGIA

gab /gæb/ v. (gabbed, gabbing) [I] (informal) to talk continuously, usually about things that are not important ga-ble /'geɪbəl/ n. [C] the top part of a wall of a house where it joins with a pointed roof, making a shape like a TRIANGLE

gadg-et /'gædʒɪt/ n. [C] a small tool or machine that makes a particular job easier: a handy kitchen gadget

THESAURUS machine, appliance, device, mechanism, contraption → MACHINE¹

gaffe /gæf/ n. [C] an embarrassing mistake made in a social situation

gag¹ /gæg/ v. (gagged, gagging) 1 [I] to be unable to swallow and feel as if you are going to bring up the food from your stomach: The smell made me gag. | I started gagging on a piece of my burrito. 2 [T] to tie a piece of cloth over someone's mouth so that s/he cannot make any noise

gag² n. [C] 1 (informal) a joke or funny story

THESAURUS joke, wisecrack, one-liner, quip, witticism, pun, funny story → JOKE¹

2 a piece of cloth used in order to gag someone 3 gag gift a present for someone that is meant to be funny → GAG ORDER gagged /gægd/ adj. having your mouth tied with a piece of cloth so that you cannot make any noise gag-gle /'gægəl/ n. [C] a group of GEESE, or a noisy group of people

'gag order n. [C] an order given by a court of law to prevent any public reporting of a case that is still being considered in the court

'gag rule n. [C] 1 POLITICS a rule or law that stops

G

people from talking about a subject during a particular time or in a particular place 2 HISTORY a law passed by the House of Representatives in 1836 that prevented any speeches or documents that were against SLAVERY to be read or dealt with in the House

gai-e-ty /'geɪtɪ/ n. [U] (old-fashioned) the state of having fun and being happy gai-ly /'geɪli/ adv. (old-fashioned) in a happy way

gain¹ /geɪn/ v. 1 [I,T] to get, win, or achieve something that you want or need (ANT) lose: The Republicans gained control of Congress. | India gained independence in 1947. | What do you hope to gain from the course?

USAGE

Gain means to get something useful or necessary: I've gained a lot of useful experience. Do not use gain to talk about getting money for the work you do. Use earn: How much do you think he earns a year?

Make is a less formal way of saying earn: You can make a lot of money.

Win means to get a prize in a game or competition: I won second prize.

G

2 [I,T] to gradually get more of a quality, feeling, etc.: The ideas quickly gained popular support. | a chance to gain experience in publishing | The show has been gaining in popularity. 3 [T] to increase in weight, speed, height, or value: Bea has gained a lot of weight since Christmas. | The dollar gained 4% against the yen. 4 gain access a) to be able to enter a room or building: Somehow the thief had gained access to his apartment. b) to be allowed to see or use something: Marston had difficulty gaining access to official documents.

gain on sb/sth phr. v. to start getting closer to the person, car, etc. that you are chasing: Hurry up! They're gaining on us! [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French gagner, from Old French gaaignier “to prepare the ground for growing crops, earn, gain”]

gain² n. 1 [C,U] an increase in the amount or level of something: the program's gain in popularity | weight gain | the country's recent economic gains 2 [C] an advantage or an improvement: gains in medical science

gait /geɪt/ n. [U] the way that someone walks gal /gæl/ n. [C] (informal) a girl or woman gal-la /'gælə, 'geɪlə/ n. [C] an event at which a lot of people are entertained and celebrate a special occasion [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Italian, Old French gale “fun and enjoyment”] —gala adj.

ga-lac-tic /gə'læktɪk/ adj. PHYSICS relating to the galaxy gal-ax-y /'gæləksi/ n. (plural galaxies) [C] 1 PHYSICS one of the large groups of stars that are in the universe → SPACE 2 the Galaxy PHYSICS the large group of stars that includes the Earth, the Sun, and the other PLANETS in our SOLAR SYSTEM [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Late Latin galaxias, from Greek, from gala “milk;” because the galaxy looks milky white from the Earth]

gale /geɪl/ n. [C] a very strong wind: a fierce gale

THESAURUS wind, breeze, gust, storm, hurricane, tornado, typhoon → WIND¹

gall /gɒl/ n. have the gall to do sth to do something rude or unreasonable that most people would be embarrassed to do: She had the gall to say that I looked fat!

gal-lant /'gælənt/ adj. (old-fashioned) brave and kind: a gallant soldier —gallantly adv. —gallantry n. [U]

'gall ,bladder n. [C] BIOLOGY the organ in your body that stores BILE

gal-ler-y /'gæləri/ n. (plural galleries) [C] 1 a room, hall, or building where people can look at paintings or other types of art: the National Gallery of Art in Washington 2 a small expensive store where people can look at and buy art: art galleries in Manhattan 3 an upper floor like a BALCONY inside a hall, church, or theater, where people can sit [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Medieval Latin galleria] gal-ley /'gæli/ n. [C] 1 a kitchen on a ship or an airplane 2 a long Greek or Roman ship that was rowed by SLAVES gall-ing /'gɒlɪŋ/ adj. annoying: a galling defeat

gal-lon /'gælən/ n. [C] a unit for measuring liquid, equal to 4 QUARTS or 3.785 liters: a gallon of gas [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old North French, Medieval Latin galeta “liquid container, liquid measure”] gal-lop¹ /'gæləp/ v. [I] if a horse gallops, it runs as fast as it can gallop² n. [singular] the fastest speed that a horse can go, or the movement of a horse at this speed gal-lop-ing /'gæləpɪŋ/ adj. increasing or developing very quickly: galloping inflation gal-lows /'gæləʊz/ n. (plural gallows) [C] a structure that is used for killing criminals by hanging them gall-stone /'gɒlstəʊn/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a hard stone that can form in your GALL BLADDER

ga-lore /gə'lɔːr/ adj. in large amounts or numbers:

He had toys and clothes galore. ▶ Don't say "He had galore clothes." ◀ [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Irish Gaelic go leor "enough"] ga-losh-es /gə'loʃɪz/ n. [plural] (old-fashioned) rubber shoes you wear over your normal shoes when it rains or snows gal-va-nize /'gælvə,naɪz/ v. [T] to shock someone so much that s/he realizes s/he needs to do something to solve a problem or improve the situation: Martin Luther King's protests galvanized the nation.

gal-va-nized /'gælvə,naɪzd/ adj. galvanized metal has been treated in a special way so that it does not RUST gam-bit /'gæmbɪt/ n. [C] something you do or say in order to gain control in an argument, conversation, or meeting [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Italian gambetto "act of making someone fall over," from gamba "leg"]

gam-ble ¹ /'gæmbəl/ v. 1 [I] to risk money or possessions on the result of something such as a card game, race, etc. because you might win a lot more money if the race, etc. has the result you want: Jack won $700 gambling in Las Vegas. | They gambled on the horses. 2 [I,T] to do something that involves risk because you hope things will happen the way you want them to: Many investors gambled that the market would continue to improve.

gamble sth ↔ away phr. v. to lose money or possessions by gambling gamble ² n. [singular] an action or plan that involves risk because it might not be successful: The coach took a gamble in playing the inexperienced young quarterback.

gam-bler /'gæmblər/ n. [C] someone who gambles, especially as a habit gam-bling /'gæmbliŋ/ n. [U] the activity of risking money and possessions because you might win a lot more if a race, card game, etc. has the result you want: Gambling is legal in Nevada.

game ¹ /geɪm/ n. 1 [C] an activity or sport that people play for fun or in a competition: a good card/video/board game | The boys are outside, playing some kind of game.

THESAURUS

sport – a physical activity in which people or teams play against each other and try to win: Her favorite sport is basketball.

recreation – all the activities that people do in order to relax: the city's parks and recreation department hobby – an activity that you do in your free time: Her hobbies are reading and music.

diversion (formal) – an activity that you do for pleasure or amusement: Knitting is a relaxing diversion.

2 [C] a particular occasion when you play a sport or activity: Who won/lost the football game? | The Aztecs play only two games this month. | How about a game of chess? 3 games [plural] a large sports event, where a variety of sports are played: the Olympic Games 4 [C] one of the parts of a competition, such as in tennis or BRIDGE: Williams leads, two games to one. 5 sb's game how well someone plays a particular game or sport: Ramone's game steadily improved. | Abdul-Jabbar was at the top of his game (=playing very well). 6 play games to behave in a way that is not serious or that is dishonest or unfair: Don't play games with me. I don't have time. 7 be (just) a game if something is just a game to you, you do not consider how serious or important it is: Marriage is just a game to you, isn't it? 8 [U] wild animals and birds that are hunted for food and as a sport [ORIGIN: Old English gamen] game ² adj. willing to do something dangerous, new, or difficult: I'm game if you are.

'game plan n. [C] a plan for achieving success, especially in business or politics: the Senator's political game plan

'game show n. [C] a television program in which people play games or answer questions in order to win money and prizes → TELEVISION

gam-ete /'gæmit/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a type of cell that joins with another cell, starting the development of a baby or other young creature [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Modern Latin gameta, from Greek gametes "husband"]

gam-ma ray /'gæmə reɪ/ n. [C] PHYSICS a type of RADIATION that is the result of splitting the NUCLEUS (=central part) of an atom gam-ut /'gæmʊt/ n. [singular] a complete range of possibilities: His musical influences ran the gamut from Elvis to the Sex Pistols (=included all the possibilities between two extremes). [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Medieval Latin gamma ut, names given to the highest and lowest notes on the musical scale] gan-der /'gændə/ n. 1 [C] a male GOOSE 2 have/take a gander at sth (informal) to look at something gang ¹ /gæŋ/ n. [C] 1 a group of young people who often cause trouble and fight other similar groups: teenage gang members | Chicago street gangs | the victims of gang violence 2 a group of criminals who work together: a gang of drug dealers 3 a group of friends: All the old gang will be there.

gang ² v.

gang up on sb phr. v. to join a group in order to criticize or attack someone: My brothers used to gang up on me.

gang-bust-ers /'gæŋ,bʌstəz/ n. like gang-busters (informal) very eagerly and with a lot of energy, or very quickly and successfully: The town is growing like gangbusters.

gang-land /'gæŋlənd/ adj. a gangland killing/shooting/murder a violent action that happens because of organized crime gan-gly /'gæŋgli/ also gan-gling /'gæŋɡliŋ/ adj.

very tall and thin and unable to move gracefully: a gangly teenager gang-plank /'gæŋplæŋk/ n. [C] a board you walk on between a ship and the shore, or between two ships gan-grene /'gæŋɡrin, gæŋ'ɡrin/ n. [U] a medical condition in which your flesh decays on part of your body because blood has stopped flowing there as a result of an illness or injury gang-ster /'gæŋstə/ n. [C] a member of a group of violent criminals gang-way /'gæŋweɪ/ n. [C] a large gangplank

gap /ɡæp/ n. [C] 1 an empty space between two things or two parts of something: a big gap between her two front teeth | a gap in the fence

THESAURUS hole, space, leak, crack, opening, cavity → HOLE¹

2 a difference between two situations, groups, amounts, etc.: a large age gap between Jorge and his sister | We should be trying to bridge the gap between rich and poor. 3 something that is missing that stops something else from being good or complete: His death left a gap in my life. | a gap in her memory | The company has filled a gap in the market (=they produce a product or service that did not exist before). 4 a period of time in which nothing happens or nothing is said: an uncomfortable gap in the conversation 5 a low place between two higher parts of a mountain gape /geɪp/ v. [I] 1 to look at something for a long time, usually with your mouth open, because you are very shocked or surprised: She backed away from the children, who were gaping at her.

THESAURUS look, glance, peek, peer, stare, gaze, regard → LOOK¹

2 also gape open to be wide open or open widely: Dan stood at the door, his shirt gaping open.

gap-ing /'geɪpɪŋ/ adj. a gaping hole, wound, or mouth is very wide and open

ga-rage /gə'reɪʒ, gə'radʒ/ n. [C] 1 a building, usually connected to or next to your house, where you keep your car: I think my tools are out in the garage. | a one-car/two-car garage 2 a place where cars are repaired: We took the car to a garage on Fourth Street. [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 French garer "to shelter"] → PARKING GARAGE

ga'rage, sale n. [C] a sale of used clothes, furniture, toys, etc. that you no longer want, usually held in your garage garb /ɡarb/ n. [U] (literary) a particular style of clothing

gar-bage /'ɡɑːbɪdʒ/ n. 1 [singular, U] waste material such as old food, dirty paper, and empty bags, usually considered together with the container that holds it: The place smelled of garbage. | Can somebody take out the garbage? | We threw the paper plates in the garbage.

THESAURUS

trash – things that you throw away, such as old food, dirty paper, etc.: a bag stuffed with trash refuse (formal) – things that you throw away, such as old food, dirty paper, etc.: the money spent on refuse collection litter – garbage, especially pieces of paper, food containers, etc., that people leave on the ground in public places: The Scouts picked up litter in the park.

waste – unwanted things or substances that are left after you have used something: the safe disposal of nuclear waste

2 [singular] (informal) something that is of very low quality: Most of the stuff they sell is just garbage. 3 [U] (informal) statements or ideas that are silly or wrong (SYN) nonsense: I don't want to hear this garbage. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Anglo-French]

'garbage can n. [C] a large container with a lid in which you put waste materials, usually kept outside (SYN) trash can

'garbage collector n. [C] someone whose job is to remove waste from garbage cans

'garbage disposal n. [C] a small machine in a kitchen sink that cuts food waste into small pieces

'garbage man n. [C] a garbage collector

'garbage truck n. [C] a large vehicle used for carrying waste that is removed from people's garbage cans gar-bled /'ɡɑːbəld/ adj. confusing and not giving correct information: a garbled version of the story gar-den /'ɡɑːdn/ n. 1 [C] the part of someone's land used for growing flowers, or vegetable and fruit plants: Jane was weeding the vegetable/flower garden. 2 gardens [plural] a public park where a lot of flowers and unusual plants are grown: the Japanese Tea Gardens in Golden Gate park [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old North French] gar-den-er /'ɡɑːdnə/ n. [C] someone who does gardening as a job gar-den-ing /'ɡɑːdn-ɪŋ/ n. [U] the activity or job of making a garden, yard, etc. look pretty by growing flowers, removing weeds, etc.: gardening tools gar-gan-tu-an /ɡɑː'ɡæntʃuən/ adj. extremely large: a gargantuan bed [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Gargantua, name of a giant in the book Gargantua (1534) by François Rabelais] gar-gle /'ɡɑːɡəl/ v. [I] to move medicine or liquid around in your throat in order to make it stop feeling sore, or to clean the inside of your mouth: If you have a sore throat, gargling with salt water might help. —gargle n. [C,U] gar-goyle /'ɡɑːɡɔɪl/ n. [C] a stone figure shaped like the face of a strange creature, usually on the roofs of old buildings [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French gargouille "throat;" because the water appears to come out of the creature's throat] gar-ish /'gærɪʃ, 'gær-/ adj. very brightly colored and unpleasant to look at: the garish carpet in the hotel lobby gar-land /'gærlənd/ n. [C] a ring of flowers or leaves, worn for decoration or in special ceremonies gar-lic /'gærlɪk/ n. [U] a small plant like an onion with a very strong taste, used in cooking [ORIGIN: Old English garleac, from gar “spear” + leac] gar-ment /'gæmənt/ n. [C] (formal) a piece of clothing gar-ner /'gærnə/ v. [T] (formal) to take or collect something, especially information or support: Harris garnered 54% of the vote.

gar-net /'gærnɪt/ n. [C] a dark red stone used in jewelry gar-nish¹ /'gærnɪʃ/ v. [T] 1 to decorate food with a small piece of a fruit or vegetable: Garnish each plate with a slice of lemon. 2 also garnishee /'gærnə'ʃi/ LAW to take money directly from someone's salary because s/he has not paid his/her debts garnish² n. [C] a small piece of a fruit or vegetable that you use to decorate food gar-ret /'gærɪt/ n. [C] (literary) a small room at the top of a house gar-ri-son /'gærəsən/ n. [C] a group of soldiers who live in a particular area in order to defend it —garrison v. [T] gar-ru-lous /'gærələs/ adj. always talking a lot: her garrulous women friends gar-ter /'gɑːtə/ n. [C] a piece of ELASTIC (=material that stretches) attached to a woman's underwear and to her STOCKINGS to hold them up

gas¹ /gæs/ n. 1 [U] also gasoline a liquid that is used for producing power in the engines of cars, trucks, etc.: How much is a gallon of gas? | The mechanic found a hole in the gas tank (=container for holding gas). 2 (plural gases or gasses) [C,U] PHYSICS a substance such as air that is not solid or liquid and does not have a definite shape or VOLUME (=measurement of the amount of space it fills), and cannot usually be seen: hydrogen gas | greenhouse gases 3 [U] a clear substance like air that is burned to give heat for cooking and heating: a gas stove | I think we might have a gas leak in here. 4 the gas the gas pedal on a car: Step on the gas (=push down the gas pedal and make the car go faster). 5 [U] the condition of having a lot of air in your stomach [ORIGIN: (2) 1600–1700 Modern Latin, Greek khaos “empty space”] → NATURAL GAS

gas² v. (gassed, gassing) [T] to attack or kill someone with poisonous gas

'gas chamber n. [C] a large room in which people or animals are killed with poisonous gas gas-e-ous /'gæsiəs, 'gæfəs/ adj. consisting of gas or in the form of gas: Jupiter is the largest gaseous planet in our solar system.

gash /gæʃ/ n. [C] a deep cut —gash v. [T] gas-ket /'gæskɪt/ n. [C] a flat piece of rubber between two surfaces of a machine that prevents steam, oil, etc. from escaping

'gas mask n. [C] a piece of equipment that you wear over your face to protect you from breathing poisonous gases gas-o-line /,gæsə'lin, 'gæsə,lin/ n. [U] GAS gasp /gæsp/ v. [I] 1 to breathe in suddenly and loudly because you are surprised or in pain: The audience gasped in/with surprise. 2 to quickly breathe in a lot of air because you are having difficulty breathing normally: Kim crawled out of the pool, gasping for air/breath. —gasp n. [C]: a gasp of disbelief

'gas pedal n. [C] the thing that you press with your foot to make a car go faster SYN accelerator → DRIVE¹

'gas station n. [C] a place that sells gas for your car gas-tric /'gæstrɪk/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to the stomach: gastric ulcers

gas-tro-nom-ic /,gæstrə'nəmɪk/ adj. [only before noun] relating to cooking and eating good food: the gastronomic delights of Chinatown gate /geɪt/ n. [C] 1 a door in a fence or outside wall → DOOR: Who left the gate open? | Make sure the front/back/rear/main gate is locked. 2 the place where you leave an airport building to get on the airplane: Flight 207 to Chicago will be leaving from gate 16. | the departure gate [ORIGIN: Old English geat]

gate-crasher, gate-crash-er /'geɪt,kreɪʃə/ n. [C] someone who goes to a party that s/he has not been invited to —gate-crash v. [I,T] gate-way /'geɪtˈweɪ/ n. [C] 1 an opening in a fence or wall that can be closed by a gate 2 the gateway to sth a place, especially a city, that you go through in order to reach another place: St. Louis was once the gateway to the West. 3 it a way of connecting two different computer networks that helps them to work together

gath-er /'gæðə/ v. 1 [I,T] if people gather somewhere, or if someone gathers them, they come together in the same place: A crowd gathered to watch the fight. | Gather around and I'll tell you a story. | Jill gathered the children and lined them up. | Dozens of reporters were gathered outside the hotel.

THESAURUS meet, get together, assemble, come together, congregate, convene → MEET¹

2 [T] to bring things from different places together: I'm currently trying to gather new ideas for my next novel. | “Wait for me,” said Anna, gathering up her books. 3 [T] to believe that something is true based on the information you have: From what I can gather/As far as I can gather (=I think it is true that) he never intended to sell the house. | I gather (that) he won't be coming. 4 gather steam/speed/momentum/force etc. to become faster, stronger, etc.: The car gathered speed as it rolled down the hill. 5 gather dust if something useful gathers dust, it is not being used: The report has been gathering dust for 18 years. [ORIGIN: Old English gaderian]

gath-er-ing /'gæðərɪŋ/ n. [C] a meeting of a group of people: a family gathering | a gathering of war veterans

gauche /ɡoʊʃ/ adj. someone who is gauche says or does things that are considered impolite because s/he does not know the right way to behave gaud-y /'ɡɔːdi/ adj. something that is gaudy is too bright and looks cheap: gaudy jewelry [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 gaud “bright decorative object”] gauge /geɪdʒ/ n. [C] 1 an instrument that measures the amount or size of something: a car's gas gauge 2 a gauge of sth something that helps you make a judgment about a person or situation: The amount of money you make is not the only gauge of your success. 3 a measurement of the width or thickness of something: a 12-gauge shotgun gauge v. [T] 1 to judge what someone is likely to do or how s/he feels: It's difficult to gauge exactly how he's going to respond.

THESAURUS judge, evaluate, assess, appraise → JUDGE²

2 to calculate the size or amount of something: The thermostat will gauge the temperature and control the heat.

gaunt /ɡɒnt, ɡant/ adj. very thin, pale, and unhealthy

THESAURUS thin, slim, slender, slight, skinny, lean, underweight, emaciated, anorexic, skeletal → THIN¹

gaunt-let /'ɡɒntˈlɪt, 'ɡantˈ-/ n. [C] 1 run the gauntlet to be criticized or attacked by a lot of people: There was no way to avoid running the gauntlet of media attention. 2 throw down the gauntlet to invite someone to fight, argue, or compete with you 3 a thick long GLOVE that you wear to protect your hand gauze /ɡɔːz/ n. [U] a very thin light cloth used for covering wounds and making clothes: His hand was wrapped in a gauze bandage.

gave /ɡeɪv/ v. the past tense of GIVE gav-el /'ɡævəl/ n. [C] a small hammer that someone in charge of a court of law, meeting, etc. hits on a table to get people's attention gawk /ɡɔːk/ v. [I] to look at someone or something for a long time, in a way that looks stupid: Drivers slowed to gawk at the accident.

gawk-y /'ɡɔːki/ adj. tall and not graceful: a tall gawky teenager

gay ¹ /geɪ/ adj. 1 sexually attracted to people of the same sex (SYN) homosexual → LESBIAN: the gay community | He told me she's gay. 2 (old-fashioned) bright and attractive: a room painted in gay colors 3 (old-fashioned) happy and cheerful: gay laughter [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French gai “happy”] gay ² n. [C] someone, especially a man, who is sexually attracted to people of the same sex (SYN) homosexual → LESBIAN gaze ¹ /geɪz/ v. [I] to look at someone or something for a long time: He sat for hours just gazing out the window.

THESAURUS look, glance, peek, peep, peer, stare, gape, regard → LOOK¹

gaze ² n. [singular] a long steady look: Uncle John inspected us both with a clear and steady gaze.

ga-ze-bo /ɡə'zɪboʊ/ n. (plural gazebos) [C] a small building in a garden or park that you can sit in ga-zelle /ɡə'zɛl/ n. [C] an animal like a small DEER

G.C.F. MATH the abbreviation of GREATEST COMMON FACTOR

GDP n. ECONOMICS

gross domestic product the total value of all goods and services produced in a country in one year, not including income received from abroad → GNP gear ¹ /ɡɪr/ n. 1 [C,U] the machinery in a vehicle such as a car, truck, or bicycle that you use to go at different speeds: There's a weird noise every time I change/shift gears. | The car's in first/second etc. gear. → see picture at BICYCLE 2 [U] special equipment, clothing, etc. that you need for a particular activity: camping gear 3 [U] a piece of machinery that does a particular job: the landing gear on a plane

gear ² v. be geared to/toward sb/sth to be organized in order to achieve a particular purpose: All his training was geared to winning an Olympic gold medal. | concerts geared toward young children gear up phr. v. to prepare for something: Congress is gearing up for a debate on Social Security.

gear-box /'ɡɪrbaks/ n. [C] the system of gears in a vehicle

'gear shift n. [C] a stick that you move to change gears in a vehicle

GED n. [C usually singular] General Equivalency Diploma a DIPLOMA that people who did not finish HIGH SCHOOL can get by taking a test gee /dʒi/ interjection (spoken, old-fashioned) said when you are surprised or annoyed: Aw, gee, Mom, I don't want to go to bed.

geek /gik/ n. [C] (slang) someone who is not popular because s/he wears unfashionable clothes and does not know how to behave in social situations: a computer geek —geeky adj.

geese /gis/ n. the plural of GOOSE

gee-zer /'gizə/ n. [C] (informal) an old man

Gei-ger count-er /'gaɪgə ,kaʊntə/ n. [C] an instrument that finds and measures RADIOACTIVITY [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 Hans W. Geiger (1882–1945), German scientist who invented it (with Walter M. Müller)] gei-sha /'geɪʃə, 'giʃə/ n. [C] a Japanese woman who is trained to dance, play music, and entertain men [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Japanese gei “art” + -sha “person”]

gel¹ /dʒel/ n. [C,U] a thick liquid, used in beauty or cleaning products: hair gel | shower gel

gel² v. (gelled, gelling) [I] 1 if people gel, they begin to work together well as a group: As yet, the team hasn't quite gelled. 2 if an idea or plan gels, it becomes clearer or more definite: These new trends have not yet gelled. 3 if a liquid gels, it becomes thicker gel-a-tin /'dʒələtɪn, -lətɪn/ n. [U] a clear substance used for making liquid food more solid and in sweet foods such as Jell-O [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French gélatine, from Italian gelatina, from gelare “to freeze”] geld-ing /'geldɪŋ/ n. [C] a horse that has had its TESTICLES removed gem /dʒem/ n. [C] 1 a valuable stone that has been cut into a particular shape: precious gems 2 (informal) someone or something that is very special: a little gem of a movie

Gem-i-ni /'dʒemənaɪ/ n. 1 [U] the third sign of the ZODIAC, represented by TWINS 2 [C] someone born between May 21 and June 21

gen-der /'dʒendə/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] (formal) the fact of being male or female: A person cannot be denied a job because of age, race, or gender. | traditional gender roles | Showing the clothes were tall models of both genders (=both men and women). 2 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the system in some languages of dividing nouns, adjectives, and PRO-NOUNS into MASCULINE, FEMININE, and NEUTER [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French gendre, from Latin genus “birth, race, type”]

'gender gap n. [C usually singular] SOCIAL SCIENCE a large difference between the life experiences of men and women, for example differences in the amounts of money men and women earn, or a difference in the way they think about politics

gene /dʒin/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a part of a cell in a living thing that controls how it develops. Parents pass genes on to their children. [ORIGIN: 1900—

2000 German gen, from Greek genos “birth, kind”]

ge-ne-al-o-gy /,dʒɪni'ælədʒi/ n. (plural genealogies) [C,U] the study of the history of a family, or document that explains how each person in a family is related to the other members of the family —genealogist n. [C] —genealogical /,dʒɪniə'lədʒɪkəl/ adj.

'gene map n. [C] BIOLOGY a drawing showing the position of all the known GENES along a CHROMOSOME (=the part of every living cell that is shaped like a thread and contains genes)

'gene pool n. [C] BIOLOGY all of the genes in a SPECIES of animal, plant, or other living thing in a particular area at a particular time

gen-er-al¹ /'dʒenərəl/ adj.

1 NOT DETAILED relating to the whole of something or its main features, not the details: a general introduction to computers | The general standard of the students isn't very high. | I've got a general idea of how I want the room to look. | The mayor spoke in general terms about his plans for the next four years.

2 in general a) usually, or in most situations: In general, the Republicans favor tax cuts. b) as a whole: I love jazz, blues, and music in general.

3 MOST PEOPLE including most people or situations: How soon will the drug be available for general use? | As a general rule, you should call before visiting someone. | The service will soon become available to the general public (=most ordinary people).

4 NOT LIMITED not limited to one subject, service, product, etc.: a general education | Montreal General Hospital

5 JOB used in the job title of someone who has complete responsibility for a particular area of work: the general manager [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 French, Latin generalis “of the whole type,” from genus “birth, race, type”] general² n. [C] an officer with a very high rank in the Army, Air Force, or Marines general anes'thetic n. [C,U] a medicine that makes you unconscious during an operation so that you do not feel any pain general e'lection n. [C] an election in which all the voters in a country elect a government

gen-er-al-i-ty /,dʒenə'ræləti/ n. (plural generalities) [C usually plural] a general statement that does not mention specific facts, details, etc.: Bryant spoke in generalities about his plans to protect the environment.

gen-er-al-i-za-tion /,dʒenərələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (disapproving) a statement that may be true in most situations, but is not true all of the time, or the act of making statements of this kind: Don't make sweeping generalizations.

gen-er-al-ize /'dʒenərəlaɪz/ v. [I] 1 (disapproving) to form an opinion about something after considering only a few examples of it: statements that generalize about women 2 to make a statement about people, events, or facts without mentioning any details: It's difficult to generalize about a subject as big as American history.

gen·er·al·ly /ˈdʒenərəli/ adv. 1 considering something as a whole, rather than its details: Her school work is generally very good. | Generally speaking, movie audiences like happy endings. 2 by or to most people: It's generally believed that the story is true. | an agreement that is generally acceptable 3 usually: Megan generally works late on Fridays.

general store n. [C] a store that sells a lot of different things, especially in a small town

gen·er·ate /ˈdʒenəreɪt/ [Ac] v. [T] 1 to produce or make something: Our discussion generated a lot of new ideas. | The new game generated more than $1 million in sales. | Reed hopes the exhibit will generate interest in the museum. 2 to produce energy, power, heat, etc.: A solar panel helps generate power for the building.

THESAURUS make, produce, manufacture, build, construct, create → MAKE¹

gen·er·a·tion /ˈdʒenərəʃən/ [Ac] n. 1 [C] all the people in a society or family who are about the same age: Three generations of Monroes have lived in this house. | music for the younger/older generation | first-generation/second-generation etc. Americans (=being a member of the first, second, etc. generation to be born in America) 2 [C] the average period of time between your birth and the birth of your children: A generation ago, no one had home computers. | This store has been here for generations. 3 [C] machines that are at the same stage of development: the next generation of TV technology 4 [U] the process of producing power or energy: the generation of electricity

gene·ra·tion gap n. [singular] a lack of understanding between older and younger people

Generation X n. [U] the group of people who were born during the late 1960s and 1970s in the U.S.

gen·er·a·tor /ˈdʒenəreɪtər/ n. [C] a machine that produces electricity ge·ner·ic /dʒəˈnɛrɪk/ adj. 1 CHEMISTRY a generic drug or other product is an exact copy of an existing drug or product, but does not have a BRAND NAME (=the name a company gives to each of its products): the need for cheaper generic drugs 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to a whole group of similar things, rather than just one of them: Fine Arts is a generic term for subjects such as painting, music, and sculpture. —generically adv.

gen·er·os·i·ty /ˈdʒenərəsəti/ n. [U] a generous attitude, or generous behavior: Thank you for your generosity. | The company is known for its generosity toward employees.

gen·er·ous /ˈdʒenərəs/ adj. 1 someone who is generous is kind and enjoys giving people things or helping them: She's always been generous to the kids. | Carl is generous with his time (=is willing to spend time helping people). | It is very generous of you to help. 2 more than the usual amount: a generous slice of cake [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French généreux, from Latin generosus “born into a high rank”] —generously adv.: Clark gives generously to local charities.

gen·e·sis /ˈdʒenəsɪs/ n. [singular] (formal) the beginning of something [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, Greek, from gignesthai “to be born”]

ge·net·ic /dʒəˈnetɪk/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to GENES or genetics: genetic research | genetic defects —genetically adv.

ge·net·ic·ally 'modified adj. BIOLOGY genetically modified food, crops, etc. have been changed so that their GENE structure is different from the one they would have naturally ge·net·ic 'code n. [C] BIOLOGY the arrangement of chemicals in DNA or RNA that controls the way in which features are passed on from parents to their young ge·net·ic di·versity n. [U] BIOLOGY the fact that there are many creatures, plants, etc. with slightly different GENES within a particular SPECIES (=group of animals or plants that can breed together) ge·net·ic engin·eering n. [U] the science of changing the GENES of a living thing ge·net·ics /dʒəˈnetɪks/ n. [plural] BIOLOGY the study of how GENES affect the development of living things —geneticist n. [C]

Ge·ne·va Con·ven·tion /dʒəˈnɪvə kənˈvenʃən/ n. HISTORY one of a series of international agreements containing rules for the treatment of prisoners of war, sick and wounded soldiers, and CIVILIANS in a time of war ge·nial /ˈdʒɪniəl, -niəl/ adj. cheerful, kind, and friendly: a genial host

THESAURUS sociable, outgoing, extroverted, gregarious, affable, convivial → SOCIABLE friendly, warm, cordial, amiable, affable, welcoming, hospitable → FRIENDLY

ge·nie /ˈdʒɪni/ n. [C] a magical creature in old stories who can make wishes come true

gen·i·tals /ˈdʒenətɪlz/ also gen·i·ta·lia /ˈdʒenəˈteɪliə/ n. [plural] BIOLOGY the outer sex organs —genital adj.

gen·i·tive /ˈdʒenətɪv/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a form of the noun in some languages, which shows a relationship of possession or origin between one thing and another —genitive adj.

ge·nius /ˈdʒɪnyəs/ n. 1 [U] a very high level of intelligence or ability: a man of genius | Even the movie's title was a stroke of genius (=a very smart idea). 2 [C] someone who has a very high level of intelligence or ability: a musical genius [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin “spirit who guards a person or place,” from gignere]

gen-o-cide /'dʒenəsaɪd/ n. [U] the deliberate murder of a whole race of people [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 Greek genos “birth, race, type” + English -cide “to kill”] —genocidal /,dʒenə'saɪdl/ adj.

ge-nome /'dʒɪnoʊm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY all the GENES in one cell of a living thing, containing all the GENETIC information about that particular living thing: the human genome [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 Greek genos “birth, race, type” + English chromosome] ge-no-type /'dʒɪnətaɪp/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the type and structure of the GENES found in a living thing

gen-re /'ʒɑnrə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a particular type of art, writing, music, etc.: Science fiction is a relatively new literary genre.

THESAURUS type, kind, sort, category, variety → TYPE¹

gent /dʒɛnt/ n. [C] (informal) a GENTLEMAN

gen-teel /dʒɛn'tiːl/ adj. polite, gentle, or graceful —gentility /dʒɛn'tɪləti/ n. [U] gen-tile /'dʒɛntaɪl/ n. [C] someone who is not Jewish —gentile adj.

gen-tle /'dʒɛntəl/ adj. 1 kind, and careful not to hurt anyone or anything: Be gentle with the baby. | a gentle young man 2 not strong, extreme, or violent: a gentle voice | a gentle breeze | gentle persuasion | gentle humor 3 a gentle hill or slope is not steep —gentleness n. [U] —gently adv.: He gently lifted the baby from the cradle.

gen-tle-man /'dʒɛntəlˌmæn/ n. (plural gentlemen /-mənz/) [C] 1 a man who is polite and behaves well: Roland was a perfect gentleman last night. 2 a polite word used for a man you do not know: Can you show this gentleman to his seat? | Thank you, ladies and gentlemen.

THESAURUS man, guy, fellow, boy, youth,
male → MAN¹

—gentlemanly adj.

gen-tri-fi-ca-tion /,dʒɛntrɪfə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] a process in which a poor area improves after people who have money move there gen-try /'dʒɛntri/ n. [plural] (old-fashioned) people of a high social class who owned land and employed others to work in their house or on their land gen-u-flect /'dʒɛnyə'flekt/ v. [I] to bend one knee when in a church or a holy place, as a sign of respect

gen-u-ine /'dʒɛnyuɪn/ adj. 1 a genuine feeling or desire is one that you really have, not one that you pretend to have (SYN) sincere: He has a genuine interest in seeing his students succeed. | Mrs. Liu showed a genuine concern for Lisa's well-being. 2 something that is genuine is real or true

(SYN) real: a genuine diamond 3 someone who is genuine is honest and sincere —genuinely adv.: She seemed genuinely surprised.

ge-nus /'dʒɪnəs/ n. (plural genera /'dʒɛnərə/) [C] BIOLOGY of the groups into which scientists divide animals and plants. A genus is larger than a SPECIES but smaller than a FAMILY. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin “birth, race, type”] ge-o-graph-i-cal /,dʒiə'græfɪkəl/ also ge-o-graph-ic /,dʒiə'græfɪk/ adj. relating to geography: geographical maps of the area

geo-graphic iso'lation n. [U] BIOLOGY a situation in which a river, mountain, ocean, etc. keeps two populations of people, animals, plants, etc. apart, so that they develop different GENES and become a separate SPECIES ge-og-ra-phy /dʒi'ɑgrəfi/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the study of the countries, oceans, cities, populations, etc. of the world or of a particular area [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin geographia, from Greek, “describing the Earth”] —geographer n. [C] ge-o-log-ic time /,dʒiələdʒɪk 'taɪm/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the period of time from when the Earth first formed until the present day ge-o-l-o-gy /dʒi'ələdʒi/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the study of materials such as rocks, soil, and minerals, and how they have changed over time [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Modern Latin geologia, from Greek ge “Earth” + -logia “study”] —geologist n. [C] —geological /,dʒiə'lədʒɪkəl/ adj.

ge-o-met-ric /,dʒiə'metɪkəl/ also ge-o-met-ric-al /,dʒiə'metɪkəl/ adj. 1 having a regular pattern of shapes and lines: geometric shapes 2 relating to geometry geometric 'figure n. [C] MATH a shape, such as a TRIANGLE, square, or PYRAMID, etc., that has lines, curves, or points. Geometric figures can be flat or THREE-DIMENSIONAL (=having length, depth, and height).

geometric 'mean n. [singular] MATH an average value of a set of numbers geometric 'sequence n. [C] MATH a series of related numbers formed by multiplying or dividing each previous number in the list by one particular number. For example, in the geometric sequence 2, 4, 8, 16, each number is multiplied by 2 to get the next number in the series geometric 'series n. [C] MATH the sum of the numbers in a geometric sequence ge-om-e-try /dʒi'əmətɪ/ n. [U] MATH the mathematical study of angles, shapes, lines, etc. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French géométrie, from Greek geometria “measuring the Earth,” from ge “Earth” + metron “measure”] ge-o-pol-i-tic-al /,dʒiəpə'lɪtɪkəl/ adj. SOCIAL SCIENCE relating to geopolitics: geopolitical boundaries ge-o-pol-i-tics /ˌdʒiəʊˈpɒlətɪks/ n. [plural]

SOCIAL SCIENCE the study of the effects of a country's position, population, etc. on its political character and development ge-o-ther-mal /ˌdʒiəʊˈθɜːmə/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES relating to or coming from the heat inside the Earth: geothermal energy

ge-ra-ni-um /dʒəˈreɪniəm/ n. [C] a common house plant with colorful flowers and large round leaves [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, Greek geranion, from geranos “crane;” because the plant's seed-case looks like a crane's long beak] ger-bil /ˈdʒɜːbəl/ n. [C] a small animal with soft fur and a long tail that is often kept as a pet ger-i-at-ric /ˌdʒeriˈætrɪk/ adj. relating to geriatrics: geriatric patients [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Greek geras “old age” + English -iatric]

ger-i-at-rics /ˌdʒeriˈætrɪks/ n. [U] the medical treatment and care of old people germ /dʒɜːm/ n. [C] 1 a very small living thing that can make you sick → BACTERIA: Sneezing spreads germs. 2 the germ of an idea/hope etc. the beginning of an idea, etc. that may develop into something else [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French germe, from Latin germen “seed, bud, germ”]

Ger-man ¹ /ˈdʒɜːmən/ adj. relating to Germany, its people, or its language

German ² n. 1 [U] the language used in Germany, Austria, and parts of Switzerland 2 [C] someone from Germany

German 'measles n. [plural] an infectious disease that causes red spots on the body (SYN) rubella

German 'shepherd n. [C] a large dog that looks like a WOLF, often used by the police and for guarding property ger-mi-nate /ˈdʒɜːməˌneɪt/ v. [I,T] BIOLOGY if a seed germinates, or if it is germinated, it begins to grow —germination /ˌdʒɜːməˌneɪʃən/ n. [U] ger-ry-man-der-ing /ˌdʒeriˌmændərɪŋ/ n. [U] the practice of changing the borders of an area before an election, so that one person or party has an unfair advantage [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Elbridge Gerry (1744–1818), U.S. politician + salamander; because a voting area he made to help his own party win an election was said to be shaped like a salamander] —gerry-mander v. [I,T] ger-und /ˈdʒerənd/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a noun formed from the PRESENT PARTICIPLE of a verb, such as “reading” in the sentence “He enjoys reading.”

ges-ta-tion /dʒeˈsteɪʃən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the process during which a baby grows inside its mother's body, or the period when this happens: a nine-month gestation period

ges-tic-u-late /dʒeˈstɪkjəˌleɪt/ v. [I] to make movements with your arms and hands while speaking, usually because you are excited or angry ges-ture ¹ /ˈdʒestʃə, ˈdʒeɪtʃə/ n. 1 [C,U] a movement of your head, arm, or hand to express your feelings: He made a rude gesture at us as he drove by. | He made a fist in a gesture of disgust. 2 [C] something you do or say to show that you care about someone or something: The flowers were a nice gesture. | a gesture of friendship/support gesture ² v. [I] to move your head, arm, or hand in order to tell someone something: Tom gestured for me to move out of the way.

get /get/ v. (past tense got /ɡat/, past participle gotten /ˈɡɑːtən/, present participle getting)

1 RECEIVE/BUY [T] to receive, buy, or obtain something: Did you get the job? | We haven't gotten any mail for three days. | I got an A in Spanish. | How much money did you get from Grandma? | My mom got these earrings for a dollar. | Jill knows a woman who can get the material for you.

THESAURUS buy, purchase, acquire, procure, snap sth up, pick sth up, stock up → BUY¹

2 have got a) used to say that you have or possess something: Mike's got a good job. | We've got tickets for tonight's game. b) used to say that you need to do something or you must do something: I've got a lot of work to do.

3 BECOME [linking verb] to change from one state, feeling, etc. to another (SYN) become: Vicky got really mad at him. | If I wear wool, my skin gets all red. | The weather had suddenly gotten cold. | I got lost on the way to the stadium. | Sean's getting married next week. | Hurry up and get dressed!

4 CHANGE POSITION/STATE [I,T] to change or move from one place, position, or state to another, or to make something do this: How did the burglar get into their house? | I can't get this jar open. | Everybody get down on the floor!

5 REACH A PLACE [I] to reach a particular place or position: When did you get home? | She got downstairs, and found that the room was full of smoke. | The thieves got away (=escaped). | You might be disappointed when you get to the end of the book.

6 BRING/TAKE [T] to bring someone or something back from somewhere, or take something from somewhere: Run upstairs and get me that book. | She got some money out of her purse. | I'm going to go get the kids from the babysitter's.

7 MONEY [T] to receive money for doing work or selling something: He gets $12 an hour at his job. | How much can you get for a house this size?

THESAURUS earn, make, be/get paid, gross, net → EARN

8 get to do sth (informal) to have an opportunity to do something: As you get to know the city, I'm sure you'll like it better. | I didn't get to see the game last night.

9 MAKE STH HAPPEN [T] to make or arrange for someone or something to do a particular job or action: I have to get this work done by tomorrow. | We'll have to get this room painted before they move in.

10 ILLNESS [T] to begin to have an illness: I got the flu when we were on vacation.

11 REACH A STAGE [I] to reach a particular stage in a process successfully: We didn't seem to be getting anywhere. | I started reading the book, but I didn't get very far.

12 get sb to do sth to persuade or force someone to do something: I tried to get Jill to come out tonight, but she was too tired.

13 get sth to do sth to make something do something: Bert couldn't get the light to work.

14 get the feeling/idea etc. to start to have a feeling or an idea: I get the feeling you don't like her.

15 get the bus/a flight etc. to travel somewhere on a bus, airplane, etc.: She managed to get a flight into Detroit.

16 RECEIVE A PUNISHMENT [T] to receive a punishment: He got ten years for robbery.

17 RADIO/TV [T] to be able to receive a particular radio signal, television station, etc.: Her TV doesn't get channel 24.

SPOKEN PHRASES

18 [T] to understand something: Tracey didn't get the joke. | I don't get it!

19 you/we etc. get sth used in order to say that something happens or exists: We get a lot of rain around here in the summer.

20 get moving/going to begin moving or going somewhere: We have to get going, or we'll be late!

21 get the door/phone to answer the door or telephone: Can you get the phone, please?

22 [T] to prepare a meal: Are you hungry? Can I get you anything?

23 get sb to attack, hurt, or catch someone: I want to get him before he gets me.

[ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old Norse geta]

get sth ↔ across phr. v.

to be understood, or to make someone understand something: The message isn't getting across. | It was difficult to get my idea across to the committee.

get ahead phr. v.

to be successful in your job, work, etc.: She lacks the business skills she'll need to get ahead.

get along phr. v.

1 to have a friendly relationship with someone: She gets along with Cy really well.

2 get along without sb/sth to be able to continue doing something without having someone or something to help: We'll have to get along without the car until the new part arrives.

get around phr. v.

1 get around sth to avoid something that will cause problems: There are ways of getting around the law.

2 get around (sth) to go to different places: His new wheelchair lets him get around more easily.

3 if news or information gets around, a lot of people hear about it get around to sth phr. v.

to do something you have been intending to do for a long time: I meant to go to the bookstore, but I never got around to it.

get at sth phr. v.

1 be getting at sth to be trying to explain an idea: Did you understand what he was getting at?

2 get at the meaning/facts etc. to discover information about something: The judge asked a few questions to try to get at the truth.

3 to be able to reach something: I could see the ring stuck under the refrigerator, but I couldn't get at it.

get away phr. v.

1 to leave a place: Barney had to work late, and couldn't get away until 9:00.

2 to escape from someone who is chasing you: The two men got away in a blue pickup truck.

3 to go on vacation: Are you going to be able to get away this summer?

get away with sth phr. v.

to not be noticed or punished when you have done something wrong: He'll cheat if he thinks he can get away with it.

get back phr. v.

1 to return to a place: I didn't get back until after midnight. | Call me when you get back to Miami.

2 get sth ↔ back to have something again after you had lost it or given it to someone: Did you get your wallet back?

3 get sb back also get back at sb to hurt or embarrass someone who has hurt or embarrassed you: Jerry wants to get back at her for leaving him.

get back to phr. v.

1 get back to sth to return to a previous state, condition, or activity: It was hard to get back to work after my vacation. | Life is beginning to get back to normal.

2 get back to sb to talk to or telephone someone later in order to answer a question or give him/her information: I'll try to get back to you later today.

get behind phr. v.

if you get behind with work or a regular payment, you fail to do the work or pay the money in time: They made people pay extra if they got behind in/on their rent.

get by phr. v.

to have only just enough of something to be able to do the things you need to do: I know enough French to get by. | He gets by on just $800 a month.

get down phr. v.

1 get sth ↔ down to quickly write something down on paper: Let me get your number down before I forget it.

2 get sb down (informal) to make someone feel unhappy: Don't let his criticism get you down.

3 get sth ↔ down to be able to swallow food or drink: I knew I'd feel better once I got some food down.

get down to sth phr. v.

to start doing something that needs time or energy: It's time to get down to work.

get in phr. v.

1 to be allowed or able to enter a place: The door was locked, and he couldn't get in. | I applied to Princeton but I didn't get in.

2 to arrive at a particular time or in a particular place: What time does the plane get in?

3 to arrive home: Steve just got in a few minutes ago.

4 get sth in to send or give something to a particular person, company, etc.: Make sure you get your homework in by Thursday.

get in on sth phr. v. (informal) to become involved in something that other people are doing: The kids saw us playing and wanted to get in on the game.

get into sth phr. v.
1 to be allowed to go to a school, college, or university: Liz got into the graduate program at Berkeley.

2 to start being involved in a situation: He's always getting into trouble.

3 (informal) to start being interested in something: When I was in high school I got into rap music.

4 (informal) to begin to have a discussion about something: Let's not get into it right now. I'm tired.

get off phr. v.

1 get off (sth) to finish working: What time do you get off work?

2 get (sb) off to get little or no punishment for a crime, or to help someone escape punishment: I can't believe his lawyers managed to get him off. | He got off lightly (=received a very small punishment).

3 where does sb get off (doing sth)? (spoken) said when someone has done something that you think s/he does not have a right to do: Where does he get off telling me how to raise my kids?

get on phr. v.

1 get on with sth to continue or to make progress with a job, work, etc.: Let's get on with the meeting, so we can go home on time.

2 be getting on (in years) to be old get onto sth phr. v.

to start talking about a particular subject: Then, we got onto the subject of women, and Craig wouldn't shut up.

get out phr. v.

1 get (sb) out to leave or escape from a place, or to help someone do this: How did the dog get out of the yard? | We knew it was going to be difficult to get him out of the country.

2 if secret information gets out, people find out about it: Once word gets out, we're going to be in big trouble.

get out of sth phr. v.

1 to avoid doing something that you should do: She couldn't get out of the meeting, so she canceled our dinner.

2 get sth out of sb to persuade someone to tell or give you something: I was determined to get the truth out of her.

3 get sth out of sth to enjoy an activity and feel you have gained something from it: She gets a lot of pleasure out of acting.

get over phr. v.

1 get over sth to feel better after an illness or bad experience: It will take a couple of weeks to get over the infection. | Her son died suddenly, and she never got over it.

2 get sth over with to finish something you do not like doing as quickly as possible: "It should only hurt a little." "OK. Just get it over with."

3 sb can't/couldn't get over sth (spoken) said when you are surprised, shocked, or amused by something: I can't get over how much weight you've lost.

get through phr. v.

1 get (sb) through sth to manage to deal with a difficult or bad experience until it ends, or to help someone do this: I was so embarrassed. I don't know how I got through the rest of the dinner.

2 to succeed in calling someone on the telephone: When she finally got through, the department manager wasn't there.

3 get (sth) through sth if a law gets through Congress, it is officially accepted get through to sb phr. v.

to succeed in making someone understand you: I tried to explain, but I couldn't get through to her.

get to sb phr. v. (informal) to upset someone: Don't let him get to you, honey. He's just teasing you.

get together phr. v.

1 to meet with someone or with a group of people: We should get together for a drink. | Every time he got together with Murphy they argued.

2 to start a romantic relationship with someone

3 get yourself together/get it together to change the way you live so that you are better organized, happier, etc.: It took a year for me to get myself together after she left.

get up phr. v.

1 get (sb) up to get out of your bed after sleeping, or to make someone do this: I have to get up at 6:00 tomorrow. | Could you get me up at 8:00?

2 to stand up: Corrinne got up slowly and went to the window.

get-a-way /'getəweɪ/ n. [C] an escape from a place after doing something wrong: a getaway car (=a car used by criminals to escape after a crime) | The bank robber made his getaway in a red truck.

'get-to-gether n. [C] an informal meeting or party: a small get-together with friends get-up /'getʌp/ n. [C] (informal) strange or unusual clothes that someone is wearing geyser /'gaɪzə/ n. [C]

EARTH SCIENCES a natural spring that sends hot water and steam suddenly into the air from a hole in the ground ghast-ly /'gæstli/ adj.

extremely bad, shocking, or upsetting:
ghastly injuries | a ghastly noise

ghet-to /'getou/ n. (plural ghettos or ghettoes) [C] a part of a city where poor people live in bad conditions, especially people of one particular race or social class [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Italian]

THESAURUS area, region, territory, zone, district, neighborhood, suburb, slum → AREA

'ghetto blaster n. [C] (informal) a BOOM BOX

ghost /'goust/ n. [C] the spirit of a dead person that some people think they can see: They say the captain's ghost still haunts the waterfront. —ghostly adj.

THESAURUS

spirit – a creature without a physical body, such as an angel or ghost phantom/specter/apparition (literary) – a ghost

'ghost story n. [C] a story about ghosts that is intended to frighten people

'ghost town n. [C] a town that is empty because most of its people have left ghost writer, ghost-writ-er /'goust,raɪtə/ n. [C] someone who is paid to write a book or story for another person, whose name then appears as the writer of the book —ghostwrite v. [T] ghoul /gul/ n. [C] an evil spirit in stories that steals and eats dead bodies —ghoulish adj.

GI /,dʒi 'aɪ/ n. [C] a soldier in the U.S. army

gi-ant /'dʒaɪənt/ adj. much bigger than other things of the same type: a giant step towards peace in the region | a giant TV screen [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French geant, from Greek gigas]

giant² n. [C] 1 a very tall strong man in stories 2 a very successful person or company: one of the giants of the music industry

gib-ber-ish /'dʒɪbəɪʃ/ n. [U] things you say or write that have no meaning or are difficult to understand gibe /dʒaɪb/ n. [C] an unkind remark intended to make someone seem silly gib-lets /'dʒɪblɪts/ n. [plural] organs such as the heart and LIVER that you remove from a bird before cooking it giddy /'ɡɪdi/ adj. (comparative giddier, superlative giddiest) 1 behaving in a silly, happy, and excited way: We were giddy with excitement. 2 feeling slightly sick and unable to stand up because everything seems to be spinning around (SYN dizzy)

GIF /ɡɪf/ n. [C] IT Graphics Interchange Format a type of computer FILE used on the Internet that contains pictures, photographs, or other images gift /ɡɪft/ n. 1 [C] something that you give to someone as a present: a birthday/Christmas/wedding etc. gift | a gift from my mother | He sent her gifts of flowers and chocolate. 2 [C, usually singular] a natural ability to do something: Ekena sure has a gift for making people laugh. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old Norse]

THESAURUS skill, talent, ability, knack, flair, aptitude → SKILL

'gift certificate n. [C] a special piece of paper that is worth a specific amount of money when it is exchanged at a store for goods

gift-ed /'ɡɪftɪd/ adj. having the natural ability to do something very well: a gifted poet | a gifted child (=a child who is extremely intelligent)

THESAURUS intelligent, smart, bright, brilliant, wise, clever, intellectual, apt → INTELLIGENT skillful, expert, accomplished, talented, adept, deft → SKILLFUL 'gift wrap n. [U] attractive colored paper used for wrapping presents in —gift wrap v. [T]: Would you like this gift wrapped?

gig /ɡɪɡ/ n. [C] (informal) a concert at which musicians play popular music or JAZZ gig-a-byte /'ɡɪɡə,baɪt/ n. [C] IT a unit for measuring computer information, equal to 1024 MEGABYTES

gi-gan-tic /dʒaɪ'ɡæntɪk/ adj. extremely large: a gigantic skyscraper

THESAURUS big, large, substantial, sizable, prodigious, huge, enormous, vast, massive, immense, colossal → BIG gig-gle /'ɡɪɡəl/ v. [I] to laugh quickly in a high voice, especially because you are nervous or embarrassed: If you can't stop giggling, you'll have to leave the room. —giggle n. [C]: a nervous giggle

THESAURUS laugh, chuckle, cackle, snicker, titter, guffaw → LAUGH¹

gild /ɡɪld/ v. [T] to cover the surface of something with a thin layer of gold or gold paint gill /ɡɪl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the organs on the side of a fish through which it breathes → see picture on page A2

gilt /ɡɪlt/ adj. covered with a thin layer of gold or gold-colored paint —gilt n. [U] gim-mick /'ɡɪmɪk/ n. [C] (informal, disapproving) something unusual that is used to make people notice something: advertising gimmicks —gimmicky adj.

gin /dʒɪn/ n. [U] a strong clear alcoholic drink made from grain [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 geneva “gin” (18—20 centuries), from Dutch genever, from Latin juniperus “juniper,” plant used to give gin its taste]

ging-er /'dʒɪndʒə/ n. [U] a hot-tasting light brown root, or the powder made from this root, used in cooking

'ginger ale n. [U] a SOFT DRINK (=drink with no alcohol in it) with a ginger taste gin-ger-bread /'dʒɪndʒəˌbrɛd/ n. [U] a type of cookie or cake with ginger in it: a gingerbread house/man (=cookie in the shape of a house or person) gin-ger-ly /'dʒɪndʒəli/ adv. very slowly, carefully, and gently: They gingerly loaded the patient into the ambulance.

ging-ham /'gɪŋəm/ n. [U] cotton cloth that has a pattern of small white and colored squares on it gi-raffe /dʒəˈræf/ n. [C] a tall African animal with a very long neck and legs and dark spots on its yellow-brown fur gird-er /'gɜːdər/ n. [C] an iron or steel beam that supports a floor, roof, or bridge

gir-dle /'gɜːdl/ n. [C] a piece of women's underwear that fits tightly around her waist and hips girl /gɜːl/ n. [C] 1 a female child: She's tall for a girl of her age. | a six-year-old girl | I've wanted to be in the movies since I was a little girl. 2 a daughter → BOY: They have two boys and a girl. 3 a word meaning a young woman, which is considered offensive by some women 4 the girls (informal) a woman's female friends: I'm going out with the girls tonight.

girl-friend /'gɜːlfrend/ n. [C] 1 a girl or woman with whom you have a romantic relationship 2 a woman or girl's female friend girl-hood /'gɜːlhud/ n. [U] the time in a woman's life when she is a girl

'Girl Scout n. 1 the Girl Scouts an organization for girls, that teaches them practical skills and helps develop their character → BOY SCOUTS 2 [C] a member of the Girl Scouts girth /gɜːθ/ n. [C,U] the distance around the middle of something: the girth of the tree's trunk

GIS n. [singular] EARTH SCIENCES geographic information system a computer system for storing and examining information about the natural features of the Earth's surface gist /dʒɪst/ n. the gist the main idea or meaning of what someone has said or written: After a while I began to get the gist of his speech (=understand the main ideas).

give¹ /gɪv/ v. (past tense gave /geɪv/, past participle given /'gɪvən/)

1 PROVIDE [T] to provide something for someone: Dan gave me a ride to work. | She refused to give me any help. | They gave the job to that guy from Texas.

2 PUT STH IN SB'S HAND [T] to put something in someone's hand (SYN hand, pass: Give me your coat. | He gave the books to Carl.)

3 LET SB DO STH [T] to allow or make it possible for someone to do something: I was never given a chance to explain. | She gave me some time to finish the report. | Who gave you permission to come in here? | This bill will give more power to local authorities.

4 PRESENT [T] to let someone have something as a present: She gave Jen a CD for Christmas.

THESAURUS

donate – to give money to an organization that uses it to help people: Would you like to donate something to charity?

leave/bequeath (formal) – to give something to people after you die: This house was left to me by my aunt.

award – to officially give money or a prize to someone: Heaney was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature.

present – to formally or officially give something to someone who is with you: The students presented her with a bouquet of flowers.

grant (formal) – to give someone something that s/he has asked for or earned: Ms. Chung was granted American citizenship last year.

5 TELL SB STH [T] to tell someone information or details about something, or tell someone to do something: Would you give Kim a message for me? | Let me give you some advice. | The police will ask him to give a description of the man. | Could you give me directions to the airport (=tell me how to get there)? | Harris walked into the room and started giving orders.

6 PERFORM AN ACTION [T] to perform a particular action: The boy gave Lydia a big smile. | The theater company gave performances in neighborhood schools and hospitals. | Give me a call (=telephone me) tonight. | Come on, give your Grandpa a hug.

7 give sb trouble/problems etc. to make someone have problems: The machines in the lab are giving us trouble. | Stop giving me a hard time (=stop criticizing me)!

8 ILLNESS [T] to infect someone with the same illness that you have, or make someone feel a particular emotion or sensation: The noise is giving me a headache. | My husband gave this cold to me.

9 QUALITY [T] to make someone or something have a particular quality: The color of the room gives it a warm cozy feeling.

10 give (sb) an idea/feeling etc. to make someone think about something in a particular way: She gave me the impression she wasn't interested.

11 MONEY [T] to pay a particular amount of money for something: I'll give you $75 for the oak desk.

12 BEND/STRETCH [I] to bend, stretch, or break because of weight or pressure: The leather will give slightly when you wear the boots.

13 give or take a few minutes/a mile/a dollar etc. used in order to show that a number or amount is not exact: The show lasts about an hour, give or take five minutes.

14 give (sth) thought/attention/consideration etc. to spend some time thinking about something carefully

15 not give sth another/a second thought to not think or worry about something

16 BREAK/FALL [I] also give way to break or fall down suddenly under pressure: The branch suddenly gave way beneath him.

SPOKEN PHRASES

17 sb would give anything/a lot/your right arm etc. for sth said in order to emphasize that you want something very much: I'd give my right arm for his job.

18 don't give me that! said when someone has just said something that you know is not true: "I'm too tired." "Oh, don't give me that. You just don't want to come."

[ORIGIN: Old English giefan] → GIVE AND TAKE, give sb a (big) hand *at HAND*¹, give/lend sb a hand *at HAND*¹

give away phr. v.

1 give sth ↔ away to give someone something without asking for money: I gave my old clothes away. | The store is giving away toasters to the first 50 customers.

2 give sb/sth ↔ away to do or say something that lets someone know a secret: They said they were English, but their New York accents gave them away (=showed they were lying). → GIVEAWAY give (sb) sth ↔ back

to return something to its owner: Give him back his toy. | I gave her the book back. | I'll give the money back to you next week.

give in phr. v.

1 to finally agree to do something that you did not want to do: Randy asked her out for months until she finally gave in. | The government refused to give in to their demands.

2 to accept that you have lost a fight, game, etc.: Even when they fell behind by three goals, the team refused to give in.

give in to sth phr. v.

to no longer try to stop yourself from doing something you want to do: If you feel the need for a cigarette, don't give in to it.

give off sth phr. v.

to produce a smell, light, heat, a sound, etc.: The factory gives off a terrible smell.

give out phr. v.

1 give sth ↔ out to give something to each person in a group: She stood on the corner, giving out flyers. | He gave out candy to the kids.

THESAURUS

hand out/pass out – to give something to each of the people in a group: Mr. Goodmanson handed out the test.

share – to divide something into equal parts and give a part to each person: She made a cake and shared it with the children.

distribute – to give things to a large number of people, especially on the street: Anti-war protesters were distributing leaflets.

dispense (formal) – to give or provide something to people, especially as part of an official activity: Volunteers helped dispense food and blankets.

allot (formal) – to give a particular share of something to someone: Each person was allotted four tickets.

2 to stop working correctly: My voice gave out half way through the song.

give up phr. v.

1 give (sth ↔) up to stop trying to do something: I looked everywhere for the keys – finally, I just gave up. | Vladimir has given up trying to teach her Russian.

2 give sth ↔ up to stop doing something, especially something that you do regularly: I've been trying to give up smoking. | She gave up her job, and started writing full time.

3 give yourself/sb up to allow yourself or someone else to be caught by the police or enemy soldiers give up on sb phr. v.

to stop hoping that someone or something will change or improve: His parents finally gave up on him.

give² n. [U] the ability of a material to bend or stretch when it is under pressure give and 'take n. [U] if there is give and take between two people, each person agrees to do some of the things that the other person wants: In every successful marriage there is a certain amount of give and take.

give-a-way /'gɪvə,weɪ/ n. 1 be a giveaway to make it very easy to guess something: He's been smoking – the smell on his breath is a dead giveaway. 2 [C] a product, prize, etc. that a store or company gives to its customers for free —giveaway adj.: giveaway prices giv-en¹ /'gɪvən/ adj. 1 any/a given day/time/situation any particular time, situation, etc., used when giving an example: In any given year, over half of all accidents happen in the home. 2 [only before noun] previously arranged: Candidates will have to give a presentation on a given topic.

given² prep. taking something into account: Given the number of people we invited, I'm surprised that so few came.

given³ v. the past participle of GIVE given⁴ n. a given a basic fact that you accept as the truth: It'll be a very difficult game – that's a given.

'given name n. [C] FIRST NAME giz-mo /'gɪzmoo/ n. (plural gizmos) [C] (informal) a GADGET giz-zard /'gɪzəd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an organ near a bird's stomach that helps it break down food gla-cial /'gleɪʃəl/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES relating to ice or glaciers, or formed by glaciers: glacial streams

gla-cier /'gleɪʃə/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a large area of ice that moves slowly over an area of land glad /glæd/ adj. [not before noun] 1 pleased and happy about something: Mom's really glad (that) you came. | I'm glad to hear that you're feeling better. | I'll be glad when this is over. ▶ Don't say "She's a really glad person." ◀

THESAURUS happy, pleased, content, delighted, thrilled, overjoyed, ecstatic, jubilant, elated → HAPPY

2 be glad to do sth to be willing to do something: He said he'd be glad to help me. [ORIGIN: Old English glæd "bright, shining, happy"] glade /gleɪd/ n. [C] (literary) a small open space inside a forest glad-i-a-tor /'glædi,etə/ n. [C] HISTORY a man who had to fight other men or animals as entertainment in ancient Rome glad-ly /'glædli/ adv. willingly or eagerly: "Would you drive Jenny to school today?" "Gladly."

glam-or-ize /'glæməraɪz/ v. [T] to make something seem more attractive or exciting than it really is: Hollywood has always glamorized drinking.

glam-or-ous /'glæməərəs/ adj. attractive, exciting, and relating to wealth and success: a glamorous lifestyle glam-our, glamor /'glæmə/ n. [U] the attractive and exciting quality of being connected with wealth and success: the glamour of Hollywood [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Scottish English "magic," from English grammar; because of an old association of knowledge with magic] glance¹ /glæns/ v. [I] 1 to look at someone or something for a short time and then look quickly away: He glanced at his watch.

THESAURUS look, peek, peep, peer, stare, gaze, gape, regard → LOOK¹

2 to read something very quickly: Paul glanced at/through the menu and ordered a sandwich.

glance² n. [C] 1 a quick look: He gave her a glance as she walked by. 2 at a glance immediately: I knew at a glance that something was wrong. 3 at first glance when you first look at or think about something: At first glance, the place seemed completely empty.

gland /glænd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an organ in the body that produces a substance such as SWEAT or SALIVA —glandular /'glændʒələ/ adj.

glare¹ /glɛr/ v. [I] 1 to look angrily at someone or something for a long time: They glared at each other across the room. 2 to shine with a strong bright light that hurts your eyes: Sunlight was glaring off the hood of the car.

glare² n. 1 [singular, U] a strong bright light that hurts your eyes: the glare of the sun 2 [C] a long angry look: a menacing glare

glar-ing /'glɛrɪŋ/ adj. 1 too bright to look at: a glaring white light

THESAURUS bright, strong, brilliant, dazzling, blinding → BRIGHT

2 bad and very noticeable: glaring mistakes

glass /glæs/ n. 1 [U] a hard transparent material that is used for making windows, bottles, etc.: a glass jar | a piece of broken glass | panes of glass | the cathedral's stained-glass windows → see picture at MATERIAL¹ 2 [C] a container made of glass used for drinking, or the drink in it: Did you put the wine glasses on the table? | a glass of milk 3 glasses [plural] two pieces of specially cut glass or plastic in a frame that you wear in front of your eyes in order to see better: I need to buy a new pair of glasses. | He's just started wearing glasses. 4 [U] objects made of glass: a collection of Venetian glass [ORIGIN: Old English glæs]

a stained-glass window

glass 'ceiling n. [C] the fact that women or people from MINORITY groups are not given jobs at the highest level in a company glassed-in adj. surrounded by a glass structure: a glassed-in porch glass-ware /'glæswɛr/ n. [U] glass objects, especially ones used for drinking and eating glass-y /'glæsi/ adj. 1 smooth and shiny, like glass: the glassy surface of the lake 2 glassy eyes do not show any expression glau-co-ma /glau'koumə, glɔ-/ n. [U] BIOLOGY an eye disease in which someone gradually loses the ability to see because of an increase in the pressure inside his/her eye glaze¹ /gleɪz/ v. 1 [I] also glaze over if your eyes glaze, they show no expression because you are bored or tired: Her eyes glazed over as if she were daydreaming. 2 [T] to cover clay pots, bowls, etc. with a thin liquid that gives them a shiny surface 3 [T] to cover food with a liquid that gives it an attractive shiny surface 4 [T] to put glass into a window frame —glazed adj.

glaze² n. [C,U] 1 a liquid that is put on clay pots, bowls, etc. to give them a shiny surface 2 a liquid put on food to give it an attractive shiny surface gleam¹ /glim/ v. [I] 1 to shine, especially after being cleaned: Grandpa polished his shoes until they gleamed.

THESAURUS shine, flash, flicker, twinkle, glow, sparkle, shimmer, glint, glisten → SHINE¹

2 if your eyes or face gleam with a feeling, they show it: Her eyes gleamed with excitement.

gleam² n. [C] 1 the shiny quality that something, especially something POLISHED, has when light shines on it 2 an emotion or expression that appears on someone's face for a short time: There was a gleam of happiness on his face.

glean /glin/ v. [T] to find out information slowly and with difficulty: Several lessons can be gleaned from our experience so far.

glee /gli/ n. [U] a feeling of excitement and satisfaction: The kids shouted with glee when they saw Santa. —gleefully adv.

glen /glɛn/ n. [C] a deep narrow valley in Scotland or Ireland glib /glɪb/ adj. (disapproving) 1 said in a way that makes something sound simple, easy, or true when it is not: The doctor made some glib comment about my headaches being “just stress.” 2 speaking easily but not sincerely: a glib salesman —glibly adv.

glide /glɑɪd/ v. [I] to move smoothly and quietly, as if without effort: We watched the sailboats glide across the lake. —glide n. [C] glider /ˈglɑɪdər/ n. [C] a light airplane that flies without an engine gliding /ˈglɑɪdɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of flying a glider → see picture on page A4 glimmer /ˈglɪmər/ n. [C] 1 a glimmer of hope/doubt etc. a small amount of hope, doubt, etc. 2 a light that is not very bright glimmer ² v. [I] to shine with a light that is not very bright glimpse /ˈglɪmps/ n. [C] 1 a quick look at someone or something that does not allow you to see them clearly: Dad only got/caught a glimpse of the guy who stole our car. 2 a short experience of something that helps you to understand it: Visitors to the museum get a glimpse of what life was like during the 1800s.

glimpse ² v. [T] to see someone or something for a moment without getting a complete view of them: I glimpsed a figure at the window.

glint /glɪnt/ v. [I] if something that is shiny or smooth glints, it flashes with a very small amount of light: Her teeth glinted as she smiled. —glint n. [C]

THESAURUS shine, flash, flicker, twinkle, glow, sparkle, shimmer, gleam, glisten → SHINE¹

glis-ten /ˈglɪsən/ v. [I] to shine and look wet or oily: His back was glis-tening with sweat.

THESAURUS shine, flash, flicker, twinkle, glow, sparkle, shimmer, gleam, glint → SHINE¹ glitch /glɪtʃ/ n. [C] a small problem that prevents something from working correctly: Company records were lost due to a glitch.

glit-ter /ˈglɪtər/ v. [I] to shine brightly with a lot of small flashes of light: Fresh snow glittered in the morning light. —glittering adj.

glitter ² n. [U] 1 brightness consisting of many flashing points of light: the glitter of her diamond ring 2 the exciting attractive quality of a place, way of life, etc. that is connected with rich and famous people: the glitter of Broadway 3 very small pieces of shiny plastic, metal, or paper that are used for decoration gloat /gləʊt/ v. [I] to show in an annoying way that you are proud of your success, or happy about someone else's failure: The fans are still gloating over the team's victory.

glob /glɒb/ n. [C] (informal) a small amount of a soft substance or thick liquid, that has a round shape: a glob of ketchup

glob-al /ˈgləʊbəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 affecting or including the whole world: the global economy | global climate change* 2 affecting a whole computer system, program, or FILE: a set of global changes to the file 3 considering all the parts of a problem or a situation: a global study on the company's weaknesses —globally adv.

glob-al-i-za-tion /ˌgləʊbələˈzeɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 ECONOMICS the process of operating a business in a lot of countries all over the world, or the result of this: the globalization of world markets 2 the idea that all the places in the world are becoming very similar, as large businesses become more powerful: *protests against globalization global 'warming n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES an increase in the world temperatures, caused by an increase of CARBON DIOXIDE around the Earth → ENVIRONMENT globe /gləʊb/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a round object that has a map of the Earth painted on it 2 the globe the world: Carson traveled all over the globe. 3 an object shaped like a ball [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French, Latin globus] glob-u-lar /ˈgləʊbələr/ adj. shaped like a ball or a drop of liquid glob-ule /ˈgləʊbyul/ n. [C] a small drop of liquid or a melted substance gloom /glum/ n. [singular, U] 1 (literary) darkness that you can hardly see through: He was sitting alone in the gloom. 2 a feeling of sadness, or having no hope → doom and gloom at DOOM¹ gloom-y /ˈglumi/ adj. (comparative gloomier, superlative gloomiest) 1 making you feel that a situation will not improve: The report paints a gloomy picture of the economy. 2 sad because you do not have a lot of hope: gloomy thoughts

THESAURUS sad, unhappy, miserable, sorrowful, depressed, down, low, blue, downhearted, melancholy, morose, glum → SAD

3 dark in a way that makes you feel sad: the cold gloomy weather —gloomily adv.

glo-ri-fied /ˈglɒrɪfaɪd/ adj. [only before noun] made to seem like something more important: My title is “Editorial Assistant,” but I’m just a glorified secretary.

glo-ri-fy /ˈglɒrɪfaɪ/ v. (glorified, glorifies) [T] 1 to make someone or something seem more important or better than he, she, or it is: movies that glorify violence 2 to praise someone or something, especially God —glorification /ˌglɒrɪfəˈkeɪʃən/ n. [U]: the glorification of war

glo-ri-ous /ˈglɒriəs/ adj. 1 having or deserving praise and honor: a glorious achievement | the country's glorious past 2 very beautiful or impressive: glorious views of the coast | a glorious fall morning —gloriously adv.

glo-ry¹ /ˈglɒri/ n. (plural glories) 1 [U] the importance, praise, and honor that people give someone they admire: At 19 he won glory as an Olympic champion. 2 [C] an achievement that is greatly admired or respected, or that makes you feel proud: Becoming a Supreme Court judge was the crowning glory (=the final, most successful part) of her legal career. | the glories of nature | the team's past glories 3 [U] a beautiful and impressive appearance: They spent $10 million on restoring the Grand Theater to its former glory.

glory² v. (gloried, glories)

glory in sth phr. v. to enjoy or be proud of the praise, attention, or success that you get: The new mayor gloried in his victory.

G

gloss¹ /glɒs, glɑːs/ n. 1 [singular, U] a shiny attractive surface: a hair gel that adds gloss to dull hair 2 [C] a note in a piece of writing that explains a difficult word, phrase, or idea gloss² v. [T] to provide a note in a piece of writing which explains a difficult word, phrase, or idea gloss over sth phr. v. to avoid talking about something unpleasant, or to say as little as possible about it: She glossed over the details of her divorce.

glos-sa-ry /ˈglɒsəri, ˈglɒ-/ n. (plural glossaries) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a list of technical or unusual words with an explanation of their meaning, printed at the end of a book gloss-y /ˈglɒsi, ˈgləsi/ adj. 1 shiny and smooth: glossy healthy hair 2 a glossy magazine, book, or photograph is printed on shiny good quality paper glot-tis /ˈglɑːtɪs/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the space between your VOCAL CORDS. When you open and close this space, the movement produces the sound of your voice. —glottal adj.

glove /glɒv/ n. [C] a piece of clothing worn on your hand, with separate parts to cover the thumb and each finger → MITTEN: a pair of gloves [ORIGIN: Old English glof] → see picture at CLOTHES

'glove compartment also 'glove box n. [C] a small cupboard in a car in front of the passenger seat, where small things such as maps can be kept glow¹ /gləʊ/ v. [I] 1 to shine with a soft steady light: The red tip of his cigarette was glowing in the dark

THESAURUS shine, flash, flicker, twinkle, sparkle, shimmer, gleam, glint, glisten → SHINE¹

2 if your face glows, it is bright or hot because you are healthy, have been doing exercise, or are feeling a strong emotion 3 glow with happiness/

pride/pleasure etc. to show in your expression that you are very happy, proud, etc.: Jodie was glowing with pride as she looked at the baby.

glow² n. [singular] 1 a soft steady light: the glow of candlelight | At sunset we could see an orange glow from the clouds. 2 the bright color your face has when you are healthy, have been exercising, or are feeling a strong emotion: the healthy glow in her cheeks 3 a glow of pleasure/pride/satisfaction etc. a strong feeling of pleasure, pride, etc.

glow-er /ˈgləʊə/ v. [I] to look at someone in an angry way: Donna glowered at her husband but said nothing. —glower n. [C] glow-ing /ˈgləʊɪŋ/ adj. glowing report/review/description etc. a report, etc. that is full of praise for someone or something: He spoke in glowing terms about the concert. —glowingly adv.

glow-worm /ˈgləʊwɜːm/ n. [C] an insect that gives out light from its body

glu-cose /ˈglukəʊs/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a natural form of sugar that is in fruits → FRUCTOSE, LACTOSE, SUCROSE

glue¹ /glu/ n. [C,U] a sticky substance used for joining things together: Stick the ribbon on with glue.

glue² v. [T] 1 to join things together using glue: The two pieces of leather were glued together.

THESAURUS fasten, attach, secure, join, tape, staple, clip, tie, button (up), zip (up) → FASTEN

2 be glued to sth to look at something with all your attention: He was glued to the TV for the World Series.

glum /glʌm/ adj. unhappy and quiet: Anna looked glum.

THESAURUS sad, unhappy, miserable, sorrowful, depressed, down, low, blue, downhearted, melancholy, morose, gloomy → SAD

glut¹ /glʌt/ n. [C] a supply of something that is more than you need: a glut of new cars on the market glut² v. be glutted with sth to be supplied with too much of something: The world market was glutted with oil.

glut-ton /ˈglʌtɪn/ n. [C] 1 someone who eats too much food 2 a glutton for punishment someone who seems to enjoy working very hard or doing something unpleasant glut-ton-y /ˈglʌtɪn-i/ n. [U] (formal) the bad habit of eating and drinking too much glyc-er-in /ˈglɪsərɪn/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a sticky colorless liquid used in making soap, medicine, and EXPLOSIVES

glyph /glɪf/ n. [C] HISTORY a sign or picture, especially one cut into stone, used in a writing system

gm. the written abbreviation of GRAM

GMAT /'dʒi mət/ n. [C] (trademark) Graduate Management Admission Test an examination taken by students who have completed a first degree and want to go to GRADUATE SCHOOL to study business

GMO n. [C] BIOLOGY genetically modified organism a plant or other living thing whose GENES have been changed by scientists in order to make it stronger, less likely to get diseases, etc. —GMO adj.

gnarled /nɑːld/ adj. rough and twisted: a gnarled branch gnash-ing /'næʃɪŋ/ n. gnashing of teeth (humorous) used in order to say that people are very angry about something and are complaining loudly gnat /næt/ n. [C] a small flying insect that bites gnaw /nɔː/ v. [I,T] to keep biting something: a dog gnawing on a bone

gnaw at sb phr. v. to make you feel worried or anxious over a long time: Guilt had been gnawing at him all day.

gnaw-ing /'nɔːɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] worrying or painful for a long time: gnawing doubts gnome /noʊm/ n. [C] a creature in children's stories like a little old man, who lives under the ground

GNP n. ECONOMICS Gross National Product the total value of the goods and services produced in a country, including income received from abroad → GDP

go¹ /goʊ/ v. (past tense went /wɛnt/, past participle gone /ɡɒn, ɡʌn/, third person singular goes /goʊz/) 1 LEAVE [I] to leave a place → COME: I wanted to go, but Craig wanted to stay. | Let's go home. | It's late – we should be/get going.

2 VISIT (past participle gone or been) [I] to visit a place and then leave it: Lucia has gone to Paris (=she is in Paris now). | Lucia has been to Paris (=she has visited Paris in the past).

GRAMMAR

gone and been

Gone is the usual past participle of go: She has gone to New York (=she has traveled to New York and is there now).

Been is the past participle of the sense of go that means "visit": I have been to New York many times (=I have visited New York many times in the past, but I am not there now).

3 TRAVEL/MOVE [I] to travel or move in a particular way or for a particular distance: The car was going much too fast. | We can go by bus/car/train etc.

4 be going to do sth used in order to say that something will happen, or is supposed to happen in the future: It looks like it's going to rain.

5 DO A PARTICULAR ACTIVITY [I] to leave the place where you are in order to do something: Let's go for a walk. | I'll go and pick up the car for you.

6 go shopping/swimming/clubbing etc. to leave somewhere in order to shop, swim, etc.

7 REACH [I] to reach as far as a particular place, or lead to a particular place: The roots of the tree go very deep. | The belt won't go around my waist.

THESAURUS

reach, come → REACH¹

8 BE SENT [I] to be sent or passed on: The email went to everyone in the company.

9 USUAL POSITION [I] if something goes somewhere, that is its usual position: "Where do the plates go?" "On the shelf."

10 FIT [I] to be the right size, shape, or amount for a particular space: I don't think all these bags will go in the trunk.

11 CHANGE [linking verb] to change in some way, especially by becoming worse than before: The company went bankrupt last year. | Her hair is starting to go gray.

12 BE IN A STATE [linking verb] to be or remain in a particular state: Many families are forced to go hungry. | His letter went unanswered (=nobody replied to his letter).

13 ATTEND [I] a) to regularly attend school, a church, etc.: Is Brett going to college next year? b) to be at a concert, party, meeting, etc.: Are you going to Gloria's party?

14 HAPPEN [I] to happen or develop in a particular way: How did your French test go? | The party went well.

15 START [I] to start doing something: It's time to get going on the cleaning. | The builders are ready to go, but their equipment isn't here yet.

16 GET RID OF SB/STH [I] to be bad enough to be made to leave or be thrown away: They knew that Parker had to go. | "Do you want all these magazines?" "No, they can go."

17 MONEY [I] if money goes, it is spent: The money goes to local charities.

18 TIME [I] if time goes, it passes: I just don't know where the time goes!

19 BE SOLD [I] to be sold: The painting should go for $2,000.

20 SOUND/SONG [T] to make a particular sound, or have particular words or music: Do you remember how that song goes? | The balloon suddenly went bang.

21 MATCH [I] to look or taste good together: Those colors don't go together very well. | Does red wine go with chicken?

22 GET WORSE [I] to become weak and not work correctly: He's old, and his hearing is going.

23 to go a) remaining before something happens: Only two weeks to go before we leave for South America! b) food that is to go is bought from a restaurant and taken away to be eaten: I'll have an order of fries to go, please.

SPOKEN PHRASES

24 How's it going?/How are things going? said in order to ask someone how s/he is: "Hey, Jimmy, how's it going?" "All right, I guess."

25 go like this/that used in order to tell someone about what movement someone or something made: He went like this and knocked the lamp over.

26 don't (even) go there used in order to say that you do not want to think or talk about something: "What if the two of them...?" "Don't even go there."

27 it (just) goes to show used in order to emphasize what something proves or shows: It just goes to show how important your first impression is.

28 go (to the bathroom) to pass liquid or solid waste from your body: Mommy, I have to go!

[ORIGIN: Old English gan]

go about sth phr. v.

to do something or begin doing something: I don't know how to go about this. | I didn't have the slightest idea how to go about making a movie.

go after sb/sth phr. v.

1 to follow or chase someone: Joe went after her to make sure she was okay.

2 to try to get something: I can't decide whether to go after the job or not.

go against sb/sth phr. v.

1 if something goes against your beliefs, principles, etc., it is the opposite of what you believe in: This goes against everything I've been brought up to believe in.

2 to do the opposite of what someone wants or advises you to do: She was scared to go against her father's wishes.

go ahead phr. v.

1 (spoken) said in order to give someone permission to do something, or to let him/her speak before you: You can go ahead of me – I'm waiting for someone.

2 to start or continue to do something: They've decided to go ahead with plans to build 50 new houses on the site.

3 also go on ahead to go somewhere before the other people in your group: You can go ahead and we'll catch up with you later.

go along phr. v.

1 to continue doing something: I went along making the same mistakes for weeks.

2 if you do something as you go along, you do it without preparing or planning it: I just made up the story as I went along.

go along with sb/sth phr. v.

to agree with or support someone or something: You'll never get Mom to go along with it.

go around phr. v.

1 go around doing sth to behave or dress in a particular way: You can't go around lying to people all the time!

2 if something such as an illness or news is going around, it is being passed from one person to another: There's a rumor going around that Hugh is having an affair.

3 enough/plenty to go around enough for each person: Is there enough ice cream to go around?

go at sb/sth phr. v.

to attack someone or start a fight: The dogs went at each other as soon as we let go.

go away phr. v.

1 to leave a place or a person: Go away! Leave me alone!

2 to spend some time away from home, especially on vacation: We're going away for two weeks in June.

3 if a problem or bad feeling goes away, it disappears: My headache hasn't gone away.

go back phr. v.

1 to return to a place that you have just come from: I think we ought to go back now.

2 to continue something that you were doing before: I'll go back to studying after the news is over.

3 to have been made, built, or started at some time in the past: Their family history goes back to the 16th century.

go back on sth phr. v.

if you go back on a promise or agreement, you do not do what you promised to do: We're not going back on our word.

go by phr. v.

1 if time goes by, it passes: Two months went by before Winton called.

2 go by sth to use information, rules, etc. to help you decide what to do: Don't go by that map. It's really old.

go down phr. v.

1 BECOME LESS to become lower or less in level, amount, size, quality, etc.: The temperature went down to freezing last night. | The swelling in her knee didn't go down for days.

2 GO FROM ONE PLACE TO ANOTHER (spoken) to go to a place for a particular purpose: We went down to Hudson's to buy a camera.

3 SUN when the Sun goes down, it appears to move down until you cannot see it anymore

4 AIRPLANE if an airplane goes down, it crashes

5 SHIP if a ship goes down, it sinks

6 COMPUTER IT to stop working for a short time: My computer went down an hour ago.

7 go down well/badly etc. to get a particular reaction from someone: Robbie's jokes didn't go down very well with her parents.

8 BE REMEMBERED to be remembered or recorded in a particular way: This day will go down in history (=be remembered always).

go for sb/sth phr. v.

1 to try to get or win something: a swimmer going for an Olympic record

2 go for it (spoken) said when you want to encourage someone to do something: Well, if you're sure you want to, go for it!

3 I could/would go for sth (spoken) to want something: I could really go for a taco right now.

4 (spoken) to usually like a particular type of person or thing: Kathy tends to go for older men.

go into sth phr. v.

1 to start working in a particular profession or type of business: Vivian wants to go into politics.

2 to be used in order to make something work or happen: A lot of money has gone into building this house.

3 to describe or explain something thoroughly: I don't want to go into details right now, but it was horrible.

4 MATH if one number goes into another, it can divide it: 12 goes into 60 five times.

go off phr. v.

1 to explode: Fireworks went off all over the city that night.

2 to make a loud noise: My alarm clock didn't go off.

3 to leave a place, especially in order to do something: He went off to get something to eat.

4 if a machine or light goes off, it stops working or stops shining: Suddenly, all the lights went off.

go on phr. v.

1 to continue without stopping or changing: We can't go on fighting like this! | This guy went on and on (=talked for a long time) about himself all night. | We had to go on with our lives.

2 to happen: What's going on down there? Did something break?

3 to do something new when you have finished something else: Go on to question number 5 when you're done.

4 to continue talking or explaining something, after you have stopped for a while: After a minute, she stopped crying and went on with the story.

5 (spoken) said in order to encourage someone to do something: Go on, have another drink.

6 to base an opinion or judgment on something: The police don't have much to go on.

7 be going on six o'clock/25 etc. to be nearly a time, age, number, etc.: Aunt Tess must be going on 70 by now.

8 if time goes on, it passes: As time went on, he became more friendly.

9 if a machine or light goes on, it starts working or starts shining go out phr. v.

1 to leave your house, especially in order to do something you enjoy: Are you going out tonight? | We went out for dinner/lunch etc. on Saturday. | Can I go out and play now?

2 to have a romantic relationship with someone: Leah used to go out with Dan's brother.

3 if the TIDE goes out, the water moves away from the land (ANT) come in

4 if a light or fire goes out, it stops shining or burning go over phr. v.

1 go over sth to look at or think about something carefully: I've gone over the budget and I don't think we can afford a new computer.

2 go over well if something goes over well, people like it: His comments didn't go over very well with customers.

go through phr. v.

1 go through sth to have a very upsetting or difficult experience: She's just been through a divorce.

2 go through sth to use all of something: Jeremy goes through at least a quart of milk every day!

3 if a deal, agreement, or law goes through, it is officially accepted: My car loan has finally gone through.

4 go through sth to look at, read, or explain something carefully: She had to go through all her uncle's papers after he died.

go through with sth phr. v.

to do something you had planned or promised to do: I'm not sure if I can go through with the wedding.

go to sth phr. v.

1 go to a lot of trouble/go to great lengths to use a lot of effort to get something or do something: Suki went to a lot of trouble to get us the tickets.

2 to begin to experience or do something, or begin to be in a particular state: I lay down and went to sleep.

go under phr. v.

ECONOMICS if a business goes under, it has serious problems and fails go up phr. v.

1 to increase in number or amount: Our rent has gone up by almost 20%.

2 to be built: All of those houses have gone up in the past six months.

3 to explode or be destroyed by fire: The factory went up in flames before the firemen got there.

go with sb/sth phr. v.

1 to be included as part of something: The car goes with the job.

2 to accept someone's idea or plan: Let's go with John's original proposal.

go without sth phr. v.

1 to not have something you need or want: We can go without a car in the city.

2 it goes without saying used in order to say that something should be clear without needing to be said: It goes without saying that you should stay with us when you're in Boston.

go² n. (plural goes) [C] 1 an attempt to do something: *Don't worry about getting it right – just give it a go. 2 on the go (informal) very busy or working all the time: *Susan's three children really keep her on the go.

goad /goad/ v. [T] to make someone do something by annoying him/her until s/he does it: Kathy goaded him into confessing that he had lied.

'go-a-head n. give sb the go-ahead (informal) to officially give someone permission to start doing something: The bank finally gave us the go-ahead to start building.

goal /gool/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 something that you hope to achieve in the future: My ultimate/long-term goal is to become a doctor. | He will do anything it takes to achieve/reach his goal.

THESAURUS

aim – something that you want to achieve when you do something: His aim was to grow enough food to feed his family.

objective – something that you are working hard to achieve, especially in business or politics: The major objectives have been achieved.

target – the number or amount that you want to achieve: He set himself the target of raising over $1 million for cancer research.

mission – the things that a person or organization wants to achieve, which forms the basis of all their activities: The company says its mission is to organize the world's information and make it available to everyone.

2 in a game or sport, the result of making the ball go into a particular area to win a point, or the point won by doing this: He hasn't scored a goal in over four games. 3 the area into which a player tries to put the ball in order to win a point [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 gol “limit,” “boundary” (1300–1400)]

goal-ie /'gouli/ n. [C] (informal) a GOALKEEPER

goal-keep-er /'goul,kipə/ also goal-tend-er /'goul,tendə/ n. [C] the player on a sports team who tries to stop the ball from going into the goal

G goal-post /'goulpoust/ n. [C] one of the two upright BARS, with another bar along the top or across the middle, that form the goal in games like SOCCER and football goat /gout/ n. [C] 1 a common farm animal with horns and with long hair under its chin → see picture at FARM 2 get sb's goat (informal) to make someone very angry or annoyed [ORIGIN: Old English gat] goat-ee /gou'ti/ n. [C] a small BEARD on the end of a man's chin gob-ble /'gabəl/ also gobble up v. [T] (informal) to eat something very quickly gob-ble-dy-gook, gobbledegook /'gabəldi,guk/ n. [U] (informal, disapproving) very complicated or technical language that seems to have no meaning

'go-between n. [C] someone who takes messages from one person or group to another because the two sides do not want to meet or cannot meet: The lawyer will act as a go-between for the couple.

gob-let /'gabli/ n. [C] a cup made of glass or metal with a base and long stem but no handles gob-lin /'gablin/ n. [C] a small and ugly creature in children's stories who likes to trick people gobs /gabz/ n. [plural] (informal) a large amount of something: They must have gobs of money.

'go-cart n. [C] a small car made of an open frame on four wheels that people race for fun

god /gad/ n. 1 God the spirit or BEING whom Christians, Jews, Muslims, etc. pray to, and who they believe made the universe: She believes in God. 2 [C] a male spirit or BEING who is believed by some religions to control the world or part of it, or who represents a particular quality → GODDESS: Mars, the god of war

THESAURUS

deity/divinity – a god or goddess idol – an image or object that people pray to as a god

3 [C] someone or something that is given too much importance or respect: Money became his god. 4 a God-given duty/right/talent etc. a duty, etc. received from God [ORIGIN: Old English]

god-child /'gɒdʃaɪld/ n. (plural godchildren /-,tʃɪldrən/) [C] a child that a GODPARENT promises to help, usually by teaching him/her Christian values god-dess /'gɒdɪs/ n. [C] a female spirit or BEING who is believed by some religions to control the world or part of it, or who represents a particular quality → GOD: Athena, the Greek goddess of wisdom god-fa-ther /'gɒd,fɑðə/ n. [C] 1 a male GODPARENT 2 (slang) the leader of a criminal organization

'god-fearing adj. (old-fashioned) behaving according to the moral rules of a religion: god-fearing men and women

god-for-sak-en /'gɒdfəːsəkən/ adj. a godforsaken place is far away from where people live, and does not have anything interesting or cheerful in it god-less /'gɒdlɪs/ adj. not showing any respect for or belief in God god-like /'gɒdlaɪk/ adj. having a quality like God or a god god-ly /'gɒdli/ adj. (old-fashioned) showing that you obey God by behaving according to the moral rules of a religion god-moth-er /'gɒd,mʌðə/ n. [C] a female godparent god-par-ent /'gɒd,pərənt/ n. [C] someone who promises to help a child, usually by teaching him/her Christian values god-send /'gɒdsend/ n. [singular] something good that happens to you at a time when you really need it: The drug has proved a godsend to people with the disease.

go-fer /'goufə/ n. [C] (informal) someone whose job is to get and carry things for other people

'go-getter n. [C] (informal) someone who is very determined to succeed

'goggle-eyed adj. (informal) with your eyes wide open and looking at something that surprises you gog-gles /'gɒɡəlz/ n. [plural] special glasses that protect your eyes, for example when you are swimming go-ing¹ /'ɡoʊɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 the act of leaving a place: His going will be a great loss to the company. 2 rough/hard/good etc. going (informal) the speed at which you do something: I'm getting the work done, but it's slow going.

going² adj. 1 the going rate the usual cost of a service, or the usual pay for a job 2 [not before noun] available, or able to be found: We think we make the best computers going.

going-over n. [singular] a thorough examination of something to make sure it is all right: Our lawyers will give the contract a good going-over.

goings-on n. [plural] (informal) activities or events that you think are strange or interesting gold¹ /ɡoʊld/ n. 1 [U] a valuable soft yellow metal that is used to make jewelry, coins, etc.: The locket is made of pure gold. 2 [C,U] a bright shiny yellow color [ORIGIN: Old English] gold² adj. 1 made of gold: a gold necklace 2 having the color of gold: a gold dress

'gold digger n. [C] (informal) someone who marries someone else only for his/her money gold-en /'ɡoʊldən/ adj. 1 having a bright shiny yellow color: golden hair 2 golden age the time when something was at its best: the golden age of television 3 a golden opportunity a good chance to get something valuable, or to be very successful 4 (literary) made of gold: a golden crown gold-fish /'ɡoʊld,fɪʃ/ n. [C] a small shiny orange fish often kept as a pet gold 'medal n. [C] a prize that is given to the winner of a race or competition, and that is usually made of gold: He won three gold medals at the Olympics. —gold medalist n. [C] gold-mine /'ɡoʊldmaɪn/ n. [C] 1 (informal) a business or activity that produces a lot of money 2 a hole under the ground from which gold is taken golf /ɡɒlf, ɡɔlf/ n. [U] a game in which you hit a small white ball into a hole in the ground with a golf club, using as few hits as possible: I play golf every weekend. → see picture on page A4 —golfer n. [C]

'golf club n. [C] 1 a long wooden or metal stick used for hitting the ball in golf 2 a place where a group of people pay to play golf

'golf course n. [C] an area of land on which you play golf gol-ly /'ɡɒli/ interjection (old-fashioned) said when you are surprised gon-do-la /'ɡɒndələ, ɡɒn'doʊlə/ n. [C] a long narrow boat, used on the CANALS of Venice gone /ɡɒn, ɡɒn/ v. the past participle of GO gon-er /'ɡɒnə, 'ɡɒ-/ n. be a goner (informal, spoken) to be about to die, or in a lot of danger: I heard an explosion, and I thought I was a goner.

gong /ɡɒŋ, ɡɒŋ/ n. [C] a round piece of metal that hangs in a frame and is hit with a stick to make a loud sound as a signal gon-na /'ɡɒnə, ɡɒnə/ v. (nonstandard) a way of writing "going to," used to show how people sound when they speak: I'm gonna talk to her about it tomorrow.

gon-or-rhe-a /ɡɒnə'riə/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a disease of the sex organs that is passed from one person to another during sex goo /ɡu/ n. [U] a thick unpleasant sticky substance —goosey adj.: goosey caramel good¹ /ɡud/ adj. (comparative better, superlative best)

1 HIGH IN QUALITY of a high standard (ANT) bad, poor: The food was really good. | Who's the best player on the team? | His work just isn't good enough.

THESAURUS

great (especially spoken): We had a great time at camp.

excellent: It was an excellent concert.

wonderful: a wonderful place for a picnic fantastic: That's fantastic news!

outstanding: an outstanding achievement exceptional: She's an exceptional student.

superb: a superb performance

first-class: a first-class piece of work

ace (informal): an ace guitarist → BAD¹

USAGE

Use good to describe the quality of something or someone: They did a good job. | He's a good actor.

Use well to talk about the way someone does something: He plays tennis very well.

2 APPROPRIATE appropriate or convenient (ANT) bad: When would be a good time for us to meet? | It was a good place to rest.

3 SUCCESSFUL likely to be successful (ANT) bad: That's a good idea. | We stand a good chance of winning.

4 SKILLFUL smart or skillful: a good swimmer | Andrea is very good at languages.

5 NICE enjoyable and pleasant: good weather | It's good to see you again. | We had such a good time.

6 HEALTHY a) useful for your health or character: Watching so much TV isn't good for you. b) healthy: "How do you feel today?" "Better, thanks." | I'm in reasonably good health.

7 ABLE TO BE USED able to be used, and not broken or damaged: There, now the table is as good as new (=fixed so that it looks new again). | The guarantee on my new watch is good for three years.

8 WELL-BEHAVED behaving well, used especially about children: Sit here and be a good girl.

9 KIND kind and helpful: It's good of you to come. | Dad was always good about helping me with my homework.

10 as good as almost: The work is as good as finished.

11 a good deal (of sth) a lot: I spent a good deal of time preparing for this test.

12 RIGHT morally right: He had always tried to lead a good life.

13 LARGE/LONG large in amount, size, etc.: a good-sized car | They've been gone a good while (=a long time).

14 COMPLETE [only before noun] complete or thorough: The car needs a good wash. | Take a good look at this picture.

15 too good to be true/too good to last (informal) so good that you cannot believe it is real, or you expect something bad to happen: Their relationship had always seemed too good to be true.

SPOKEN PHRASES

16 good/oh good said when you are pleased that something has happened or has been done: "I've finished." "Good, put your papers in the box."

17 good luck used in order to say that you hope that someone is successful

18 good idea/question/point etc. used when someone says or suggests something interesting or important that you had not thought of before: "But it's Sunday – the bank will be closed." "Good point."

19 it's a good thing said when you are glad that something has happened: It's a good thing you remembered to bring napkins.

20 Good for sb! used in order to say that you approve of something that someone has done: "I've decided to accept the job." "Good for you!"

21 good God/grief/heavens etc. said in order to express anger, surprise, or other strong feelings. Saying "God" in this way is offensive to some people: Good grief! Is it that late?

[ORIGIN: Old English god]

good² n. [U] 1 something that improves a situation or gives you an advantage: It'll do you good (=make you feel better) to take a vacation. | Take your medicine – it's for your own good (=it will help you). 2 no good/not much good/not any good a) not likely to be useful or successful: It's no good trying to explain it to her – she won't listen. b) bad: That movie isn't any good. 3 what's the good of...?/what good is...? used in order to say that it is not worth doing or having something in a particular situation: What good is an expensive house if you're always traveling? 4 goods [plural] ECONOMICS things that are produced in order to be sold: furniture and other household goods | the tax payable on consumer goods (=televisions, refrigerators, etc. that people buy) 5 for good permanently: I'd like to stay in Colorado for good. 6 be up to no good (informal) to be doing or planning to do something that is wrong or bad 7 deliver the goods/come up with the goods (informal) to do what other people need or expect 8 make good on a promise/threat/claim etc. to do what you say you are going to do or what you should do: They're asking for more time to make good on their debts. 9 behavior or actions that are morally right or follow religious principles: the battle between good and evil good, after'noon interjection used in order to say hello to someone in the afternoon

good-bye /ɡʊd'baɪ, ɡə'd'baɪ/ interjection said when you are leaving or being left by someone → HELLO: Goodbye, Mrs. Anderson. | I just have to say goodbye to Erica. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 God be with you] good 'evening interjection used in order to say hello to someone in the evening → GOOD NIGHT: Good evening, ladies and gentlemen.

good-for-'nothing n. [C] someone who is lazy or has no skills: He's a lazy good-for-nothing. —good-for-'nothing adj.

Good 'Friday n. the Friday before EASTER good-'humored adj. cheerful and friendly good-'looking adj. someone who is good-looking is attractive

THESAURUS attractive, nice-looking, pretty, beautiful, handsome, gorgeous, stunning, cute, hot → ATTRACTIVE good 'looks n. [plural] if someone has good looks, s/he is attractive good 'morning interjection used in order to say hello to someone in the morning good-'natured adj. naturally kind and helpful, and not easily made angry —good-naturedly adv.

good-ness /'ɡʊdnɪs/ n. [U] 1 (spoken) said when you are surprised or annoyed: My goodness, you've lost a lot of weight! | For goodness' sake, will you be quiet! 2 the quality of being good: Anne believed in the basic goodness of people.

good 'night interjection said when you are leaving or being left by someone at night, especially late at night → GOOD EVENING good-will /ɡʊd'wɪl/ n. [U] kind feelings toward or between people: Christmas should be a time of peace and goodwill.

good-y /'ɡʊdi/ n. (plural goodies) [C usually plural] (informal) something that is attractive, pleasant, or desirable, especially something good to eat: We brought lots of goodies for the picnic.

'goody-goody also goody-'two-shoes n. (plural goody-goodies) [C] (disapproving) someone who tries too hard to be good and helpful, in a way that others think is annoying goof /ɡʊf/ v. [I] (informal) to make a silly mistake goof around/off phr. v. (informal) to spend time doing silly things or not doing very much: We spent the afternoon just goofing around at the mall.

goof² n. [C] (informal) 1 a silly mistake 2 someone who is silly goof-y /'gʊfi/ adj. (informal) stupid or silly: a goofy smile

goon /ɡʊn/ n. [C] (informal) 1 a violent criminal who is paid to frighten or attack people 2 a silly or stupid person goop /ɡʊp/ n. [U] (informal) a thick slightly sticky substance: What's that goop in your hair?

goose /ɡʊs/ n. (plural geese /gis/) 1 [C] a common water bird that is similar to a duck but larger, and makes loud noises 2 [U] the meat from this bird [ORIGIN: Old English gos] goose-bumps /'ɡʊsbʌmps/ also 'goose pimples n. [plural] a condition in which your skin is raised up in small points because you are cold, afraid, or excited: I get goosebumps every time I think about playing in the championship.

GOP n. the GOP Grand Old Party; another name for the Republican party in U.S. politics go-pher /'ɡoʊfə/ n. [C] a North and Central American animal like a SQUIRREL with a short tail, that lives in holes in the ground gore¹ /ɡɔː/ v. [T] if an animal gores someone, it wounds him/her with its horns gore² n. [U] blood that has flowed from a wound and become thicker and darker → GORY: There's too much blood and gore (=violence and blood) in the movie.

gorge¹ /ɡɔːdʒ/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a deep narrow valley with steep sides → see picture on page A11

gorge² v. gorge yourself on/with sth to eat until you are too full: We gorged ourselves on popcorn and hot dogs at the game.

gor-geous /'ɡɔːdʒəs/ adj. very beautiful or pleasant: What a gorgeous sunny day! | Liz looked gorgeous.

THESAURUS attractive, good-looking, nice-looking, pretty, beautiful, handsome, stunning, cute, hot → ATTRACTIVE

go-ril-la /ɡə'rɪlə/ n. [C] the largest type of APE (=animal like a monkey) [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Greek Gorillai, name of an African tribe of hairy women in old stories] → see picture at APE

gor-y /'ɡɔːri/ adj. clearly describing or showing violence, blood, and killing: a gory movie gosh /ɡɔːʃ/ interjection said when you are surprised: Gosh! I never knew that!

gos-ling /'ɡɔːzlɪŋ/ n. [C] a baby GOOSE

gos-pel /'ɡɔːspəl/ n. 1 [C] also Gospel one of the four stories of Christ's life in the Bible 2 [U] also gospel truth something that is completely true: Don't take what Ellen says as gospel (=believe it to be completely true). 3 [U] also 'gospel music ENG. LANG. ARTS a type of Christian music, performed especially in African-American churches [ORIGIN: Old English godspel, from god "good" + spell "story, news"] gos-sip¹ /'ɡɔːsɪp/ n. 1 [U] conversation or information about other people's behavior and private lives, often including unkind or untrue remarks: People love hearing gossip about movie stars. 2 [C] someone who likes talking about other people's private lives [ORIGIN: Old English god-sibb "godparent, close friend," from god "god" + sibb "relative"] gossip² v. [I] to talk or write gossip about someone or something: What are you gossiping about?

THESAURUS talk, have a conversation, chat (with/to sb)/have a chat, converse, visit with sb, discuss → TALK¹ got /ɡɒt/ v. 1 the past tense of GET 2 a past participle of GET got-cha /'ɡɒtʃə/ interjection (spoken) 1 a short form of "I've got you," said when you catch someone, or you have gained an advantage over him/her 2 a word meaning "I understand" or "all right": "We have to be at the airport for five." "Gotcha."

Goth-ic /'ɡɒθɪk/ adj. 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS a style of building that was common in Western Europe between the 12th and 16th centuries. Its main features were pointed ARCHES, tall PILLARS, and tall thin pointed windows.: Gothic architecture 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a Gothic story, movie, etc. is about frightening things that happen in mysterious old buildings and lonely places, especially stories that were popular in the early 19th century 3 Gothic writing, printing, etc. has thick decorated letters got-ta /'ɡɒtə/ v. a way of writing "got to," used to show how people sound when they speak: I gotta go now. | You've gotta admit he plays really well.

got-ten /'ɡɒtən/ v. the usual past participle of GET

gou-ache /ɡu'ɑːʃ, ɡwɑːʃ/ n. 1 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a method of painting using colors that are mixed with water and made thicker with a type of GUM 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a picture produced using this method gouge /ɡaʊdʒ/ v. [T] 1 to make a deep hole or cut in the surface of something 2 (informal) to charge someone too much money for something: Hotels are ready to gouge Olympic visitors by raising their prices. —gouge n. [C] gouge sth ↔ out phr. v. to make a hole in something such as rock by removing material that is on its surface gourd /ɡɔːd, ɡɔːrd/ n. [C] a large fruit with a hard shell, that is sometimes used as a container gour-mand /'ɡɔːmænd/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who enjoys good food and drink very much, but who sometimes eats too much → GOURMET

gour-met¹ /ɡʊr'meɪ, 'ɡɔrmeɪ/ adj. [only before noun] relating to very good food and drink: a gourmet restaurant gourmet² n. [C] someone who knows a lot about good food and drink, and who enjoys them gout /ɡaʊt/ n. [U] a disease that makes your toes, knees, and fingers hurt and swell [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French goute, from Latin gutta “drop;” because it used to be believed that it was caused by drops of disease in the blood]

gov-ern /'ɡʌvən/ v. 1 [I,T] to officially control a country, state, etc. and make all the decisions about things such as taxes and laws: The same party governed for thirty years. 2 [T] (formal) to control the way a system or situation works: new rules governing immigration [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French gouverner, from Latin gubernare, from Greek kybernan “to control the direction of something”]

gov-er-nance /'ɡʌvənəns/ n. [U] POLITICS the act or process of governing

gov-ern-ess /'ɡʌvənɪs/ n. [C] a woman who lives with a family and teaches the children at home, especially in past times gov-ern-ment /'ɡʌvənmənt, 'ɡʌvənmənt/ n. 1 [C] also Government the group of people who govern a country, state, etc.: The government will send aid to the disaster area. | the British/German etc. government

THESAURUS

democracy – a political system in which everyone can vote to choose the government, or a country that has this system republic – a country that has an elected government, and does not have a king or queen monarchy – a country that has a king or queen as the head of state, and which may or may not also have an elected government regime – a government, especially one that was not elected fairly or that you disapprove of: a brutal military regime dictatorship – a political system in which a dictator (=a leader who has complete power and who has not been elected) controls a country, or a country that has this system totalitarian country/state, etc. – a country in which the government has complete control over everything police state – a country where the government strictly controls people's freedom, for example to travel or to talk about politics → POLITICIAN

2 [U] the process of governing, or the system used for governing: Voting is essential to democratic government. — governmental /'ɡʌvən'məntl/ adj.

gov-er-nor, Governor /'ɡʌvənə-, -və-/ n. [C] the person in charge of governing a U.S. state: the Governor of California — governorship n. [U]

THESAURUS

politician, president, congressman/congresswoman, senator, mayor → POLITICIAN

gown /gaʊn/ n. [C] 1 a long dress worn by a woman on formal occasions: a silk evening gown 2 a long loose piece of clothing worn for a particular activity or ceremony: a graduation gown

GPA n. [C] grade point average a number representing the average of all a student's grades, in which an A is 4 points, a B is 3 points, a C is 2 points, a D is 1 point, and an F is 0 points: Kim has a really high/low GPA. | He graduated with a 3.5 GPA.

GPS n. (plural GPSES) 1 [U] Global Positioning System a system that uses radio signals from SATELLITES to show your exact position on the Earth 2 [C] a special piece of equipment that uses GPS to show your exact position, which people use in their cars to help them find places they are going to grab¹ /græb/ v. (grabbed, grabbing) [T] 1 to take hold of someone or something with a sudden or violent movement: He grabbed my bag and ran off. | Kay grabbed hold of my arm to stop me from going. 2 (informal) to eat or sleep for a very short time: I'll just grab a sandwich for lunch. 3 (informal) to quickly take an opportunity to do something: Try to get there early and grab a seat. | You should grab the chance to travel while you're young. 4 how does sth grab you? (spoken) used in order to ask if someone would be interested in doing a particular thing: How does the idea of a trip to Hawaii grab you?

grab at sth phr. v. to quickly and suddenly put out your hand in order to take hold of something: I grabbed at the glass just before it fell.

grab² n. 1 make a grab for/at sth to suddenly try to take hold of something: Parker made a grab for the knife. 2 be up for grabs (informal) if a job, prize, opportunity, etc. is up for grabs, it is available for anyone who wants to try to get it grace¹ /greɪs/ n. [U] 1 a smooth way of moving that appears natural, relaxed, and attractive: She moved with the grace of a dancer. 2 a) polite and pleasant behavior: At least he had the grace to admit he was wrong. | Kevin accepted his defeat with good grace (=without complaining). b) graces [plural] the skills needed to behave in a way that is considered polite and socially acceptable: Her parents tried to teach her all the finer social graces. 3 also grace period more time that is added to the period you are allowed for finishing a piece of work, paying a debt, etc.: The bill was supposed to be paid by Friday, but they're giving me a week's grace. 4 (formal) God's kindness that is shown to people: Through the grace of God my dream became reality. 5 a short prayer before a meal: Who would like to say grace? [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French, Latin gratia “pleasing quality, kindness,” from gratus] grace² v. [T] 1 grace sb/sth with your presence (humorous) said when someone arrives late, or when someone who rarely comes to meetings or events arrives: I'm so glad you've decided to grace us with your presence! 2 (formal) to make a place or an object look more beautiful or attractive: His new painting now graces the wall of the dining room.

grace·ful /ˈɡreɪsfəl/ adj. 1 moving in a smooth and attractive way, or having an attractive shape: a graceful dancer | the car's graceful curves 2 polite and exactly right for a situation: They urged him to take the graceful way out and resign. —gracefully adv.

gracious /ˈɡreɪʃəs/ adj. 1 behaving in a polite, kind, and generous way: a gracious host 2 having the type of expensive style, comfort, and beauty that only rich people can afford: gracious living 3 (goodness) gracious! (spoken, old-fashioned) used in order to express surprise or to emphasize “yes” or “no” —graciously adv.: Valerie graciously agreed to let the group meet at her house.

grad /ɡræd/ n. [C] (spoken) a GRADUATE grad·a·tion /ɡreɪˈdeɪʃən, ɡrə-/ n. [C] (formal) a small change in a set of changes: gradations of color from dark red to pink

grade¹ /ɡreɪd/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] one of the 12 years you are in school in the U.S., or the students in a particular year: My brother is in the eleventh grade. | a fourth-grade teacher 2 [C] a number or letter that shows how well you have done at school, college, etc.: She works hard and gets good grades. 3 [C,U] a particular standard or level of quality that a product, material, etc. has: Grade A beef 4 make the grade to succeed or reach the necessary standard: I wanted to be an actress, but I was afraid I wouldn't make the grade. 5 [C] a slope or a degree of slope, especially in a road or railroad tracks 6 [C,U] the level of importance you have or the level of pay you receive in a company or organization: The pay depends on your grade. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French, Latin gradus “step, degree”]

grade² (Ac) v. [T] 1 to separate things, or arrange them in order according to their quality or rank: The eggs are graded according to size. 2 to give a grade to an examination paper or to a piece of school work: Grading essays takes time. —grading n. [U]: I have a lot of grading to do.

grad·ed /ˈɡreɪdɪd/ adj. 1 designed to suit different levels of learning: The reading materials are graded. 2 made level or less steep: a graded road

'grade point average n. [C] a GPA

-grader /ɡreɪdər/ n. [C] a child in a particular grade: a cute little first-grader

'grade school n. [C] an ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

grad·i·ent /ˈɡreɪdiənt/ n. [C] a slope, or a measurement of how steep a slope is, especially in a road or railroad

'grad school n. [C] (informal) a GRADUATE SCHOOL

grad·u·al /ˈɡrædʒuəl/ adj. 1 happening, developing, or changing slowly over a long time (ANT) sudden: gradual changes

THESAURUS slow, leisurely, sluggish → SLOW¹

2 a gradual slope is not steep

grad·u·al·ly /ˈɡrædʒuəli, -dʒəli/ adv. in a way that happens or develops slowly over time: Gradually, his back got better. | The situation is gradually getting better. | The animals evolved gradually over millions of years.

grad·u·ate¹ /ˈɡrædʒʊrt/ n. [C] someone who has successfully completed his/her studies at a school, college, or university → UNDERGRADUATE: high school graduates | a graduate of UCLA → STUDENT grad·u·ate² /ˈɡrædʒu,ert/ v. [I] to obtain a DIPLOMA or a degree by completing your studies at a school, college, or university: Ruth has just graduated from Princeton.

grad·u·at·ed /ˈɡrædʒu,ertɪd/ adj. divided into different levels or sizes from lower to higher amounts or degrees: graduated rates of income tax

'graduate school n. [C,U] a college or university where you can study for a MASTER'S DEGREE or a PH.D., or the period of time when you do this

'graduate student n. [C] a student who is studying for an advanced degree → STUDENT grad·u·a·tion /ˈɡrædʒu'eɪʃən/ n. 1 [U] the time when you complete a college or university degree or HIGH SCHOOL education: After graduation, Jayne went to nursing school. 2 [C,U] a ceremony at which you receive a degree or DIPLOMA: We're going to Sara's graduation today.

graf·fi·ti /ɡrəˈfiʃi/ n. [U] writing and pictures that are drawn illegally on the walls of buildings, trains, etc. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Italian graffiare “to make marks in a surface”] graft¹ /ɡræft/ n. 1 [U] the practice of dishonestly using your position to get money or advantages: politicians accused of graft

2 [C] a piece of healthy skin or bone taken from someone's body and put on a damaged part of his/her body: skin grafts 3 [C] a piece cut from one plant and joined to another plant so that it grows where it is joined graft² v. [I,T] 1 to put a piece of healthy skin or bone from one part of someone's body onto another part that has been damaged: Doctors grafted skin from Mike's arm onto his burnt face. 2 to join a part of a flower, plant, or tree onto another flower, plant, or tree grain /greɪn/ n. 1 [C,U] a seed or seeds of crops such as corn, wheat, or rice that are used for food, or the crops themselves: five-grain cereal | fields of grain 2 [C] a very small piece or amount of something: a grain of sand | There's not a grain of truth in what she said. 3 the grain the lines or patterns you can see in things such as wood or rock: Split the wood along the grain. 4 go against the grain if something that you must do goes against the grain, you do not like doing it because it is not what you would naturally do 5 take sth with a grain of salt to not completely believe what someone tells you because you know that s/he often lies or is wrong [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin granum “seed”] grain-y /'greɪni/ adj. a photograph that is grainy has a rough appearance, as if the images are made up of spots gram /græm/ n. [C] (written abbreviation gm) a unit for measuring weight, equal to 1/1000 of a kilogram or 0.035 OUNCES gram-mar /'græmə/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the rules by which words change their form and are combined into sentences: Check your spelling and grammar. | the rules of English grammar [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French gramaire, from Latin grammatica, from Greek grammatikos “of letters”]

gram-mat-i-cal /grə'mætɪkəl/ adj. 1 [only before noun] ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to the use of grammar: grammatical errors 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS correct according to the rules of grammar: a grammatical sentence —grammatically adv.: The sentence is grammatically correct.

Gram-my /'græmi/ n. (plural Grammies) [C] a prize given in the U.S. every year to the best song, the best singer, etc. in the music industry grand¹ /grænd/ adj. 1 higher in rank than others of the same kind: the grand prize 2 grand total the final total you get when you add up several numbers or amounts 3 (old-fashioned) very good or impressive: a grand old house [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Old French “large, great,” from Latin grandis] —grandly adv.

grand² n. (plural grands) [C] (informal) 1,000 dollars: Bill only paid five grand for that car.

grand-child /'græntʃaɪld/ n. (plural grandchildren /-,tʃɪldrən/) [C] the child of your son or daughter grand-dad /'grændæd/ n. [C] (informal) a GRANDFATHER

grand-daugh-ter /'grændɔːtə/ n. [C] the daughter of your son or daughter gran-deur /'grændʒə-, -dʒʊr/ n. [U] impressive beauty, power, or size: the grandeur of the Pacific Ocean grand-fa-ther /'grændfɑːðə/ n. [C] the father of your mother or father → RELATIVE¹

'grandfather clock n. [C] a tall clock in a wooden case that stands on the floor gran-dil-o-quent /græn'dɪləkwənt/ adj. (formal) using words that are too long and formal, in order to sound important (SYN) pompous: a grandiloquent speech —grandiloquence n. [U] gran-di-ose /'grændi,ʊs, -'grændi'ʊs/ adj. grandiose plans sound very important but are really not practical

'grand jury n. [C] a group of people who decide whether someone who may be guilty of a crime should be judged in a court of law

grand-ma /'grændmə, 'græmə/ n. [C] (informal) a GRANDMOTHER

grand-moth-er /'grændmʌðə/ n. [C] the mother of your mother or father → RELATIVE¹

grand-pa /'grændpə, 'græmpə/ n. [C] (informal) a GRANDFATHER grand-par-ent /'grændpərənt/ n. [C] the parent of your mother or father

'grand pi'ano n. [C] the type of large piano often used at concerts grand prix /,grɑːn 'pri/ n. [C] one of a set of international races, especially a car race

'grand slam n. [C] 1 a hit in baseball that gets four points because it is a HOME RUN and there are players on all the bases 2 the result of winning all of a set of important sports competitions in the same year grand-son /'grændsʌn/ n. [C] the son of your son or daughter grand-stand /'grændstænd/ n. [C] a large structure that has many rows of seats and a roof, where people sit to watch sports competitions or races → BLEACHERS gran-ite /'grænit/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a very hard gray rock, often used in buildings gran-ny /'græni/ n. (plural grannies) [C] (informal) a grandmother

gra-no-la /grə'nəʊlə/ n. [U] a breakfast food made from nuts, OATS, and seeds

grant¹ /grænt/ (Ac) n. [C] an amount of money given to someone by an organization for a particular purpose: They have applied for a research grant. | a grant from the National Institute of Health [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French creanter, graafter, from Latin credere “to believe”] grant² AC v. 1 take it for granted (that) to believe that something is true without making sure SYN assume: You shouldn't take it for granted that your parents will pay for college. 2 take sb for granted to expect that someone will always be there when you need him/her, and never thank him/her: He's so busy with his work that he takes his family for granted. 3 [T] (formal) to give someone something that s/he has asked for or earned, especially official permission to do something: The U.S. granted her permission to remain as a refugee.

THESAURUS give, award, present → GIVE¹

4 granted (that) used in order to say that something is true, before you say something else about it: Granted, he didn't practice much, but he played well anyway.

gran-u-lat-ed /'grænyələtɪd/ adj. granulated sugar is in the form of small white grains gran-ule /'grænyul/ n. [C] a very small hard piece of something: coffee granules —granular /'grænyələ/ adj.

grape /greɪp/ n. [C] a small round green or purple fruit that grows on a VINE and is often used to make wine: a bunch of grapes [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French crape, grape “hook, bunch of grapes”] → see picture on page 414 grape-fruit /'greɪpfɹʊt/ n. [C] a large yellow or pink CITRUS fruit with a thick skin, like a large orange grape-vine /'greɪpvəɪn/ n. hear sth on/through the grapevine to hear news because it has been passed from one person to another in conversation: Sarah had heard through the grapevine that Larry was getting the job.

graph /græf/ n. [C] a drawing that shows how two or more sets of measurements are related to each other: a graph showing population growth over 50 years → see picture at CHART¹ graph-ic /'græfɪk/ adj. 1 a graphic account/description etc. a very clear detailed description of an event 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to drawing or printing: graphic art —graphically adv.: She described the scene so graphically that we felt we were there.

graphical 'user interface n. [U] IT GUI graphic de'sign n. [U] the art of combining pictures and words in the production of books, magazines, etc. —graphic designer n. [C] graphic 'novel n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a book that tells a story using a series of pictures, each of which is drawn inside a box, as they are in a COMIC STRIP —graphic novelist n. [C] graphic 'organizer n. [C] a picture, GRAPH, DIAGRAM, etc. that helps you organize information in a way that is easy to see graph-ics /'græfɪks/ n. [plural] IT pictures or images, especially those produced on a computer: the latest computer graphics graph-ite /'græfɪt/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a soft black substance that is a type of CARBON and is used in pencils

grap-ple /'græpəl/ v. [I] to fight or struggle with someone, holding him/her tightly: A young man was grappling with the guard.

grapple with sth phr. v. to try hard to understand or solve a difficult problem: The new governor will have to grapple with the problem of unemployment.

grasp¹ /græsp/ v. [T] 1 to take and hold something firmly in your hands: I grasped his arm firmly and led him away.

THESAURUS hold, grip, clutch, catch/take/keep/get (a) hold of sth, clasp, grab (hold of sth)/seize → HOLD¹

2 to completely understand a fact or an idea, especially a complicated one: They couldn't quite grasp the significance of the problem. → be grasping/clutching at straws at STRAW grasp at sth phr. v. to eagerly try to get or hold on to something: He was desperately grasping at some way to stay in power.

grasp² n. [singular] 1 the ability to understand a complicated idea or situation: He has a good grasp of English grammar. | ideas that are beyond my grasp (=too difficult to understand) 2 the possibility of being able to achieve or gain something: Eve felt that success was finally within her grasp. 3 a hold on something, or your ability to hold it: The bottle slipped out of his grasp and smashed on the floor.

grasp-ing /'græspɪŋ/ adj. (disapproving) too eager to get money: a grasping man grass /græs/ n. 1 [U] a very common plant with thin green leaves that grows across fields, parks, hills, and yards: Please keep off the grass. | a blade of grass (=a single leaf) 2 [C,U] a particular type of grass: mountain grasses 3 [U] (informal) MARIJUANA [ORIGIN: Old English græs]

grass-hop-per /'græs,hɒpə/ n. [C] an insect that jumps with its long back legs and makes short loud noises grass-land /'græslænd/ n. [U] also grasslands [plural] EARTH SCIENCES a large area of land covered with wild grass grass 'roots n. the grass roots the ordinary people in an organization rather than the leaders —grass-roots adj.: a grass-roots campaign gras-sy /'græsi/ adj. covered with grass: a grassy hill grate¹ /greɪt/ v. 1 [T] to rub food such as cheese, vegetables, etc. against a rough or sharp surface in order to break it into small pieces: grated cheese

THESAURUS cut, chop (up), slice, dice, peel, carve, shred → CUT¹

2 [I] (informal) to annoy someone: She's really beginning to grate on my nerves.

grate² n. [C] 1 the frame and metal BARS that hold wood, coal, etc. in a FIREPLACE 2 a metal frame with bars across it that covers a hole, window, etc. (SYN) grating: iron grates on the windows grate-ful /'greɪtfəl/ adj. 1 feeling that you want to thank someone because of something kind that s/he has done (ANT) ungrateful: I'm very grateful for the opportunity to study at Harvard. | Mona was grateful to Lorenzo for his support. | We're just grateful that you can help. | the thanks of a grateful nation 2 I/we would be grateful if... used in formal situations or letters to make a request: I would be grateful if you would allow me to visit your school. —gratefully adv.: We gratefully accepted their offer.

grat-er /'greɪtə/ n. [C] a kitchen tool used for grating food grat-i-fy /'grætəˌfaɪ/ v. (gratified, gratifies) [T] (formal) to make someone feel pleased and satisfied: We were gratified by the result of the vote. —gratification /ˌgrætəfəˈkeɪʃən/ n. [U] grat-i-fy-ing /'grætəˌfaɪ-ɪŋ/ adj. (formal) pleasing and satisfying: It's gratifying to know that we have achieved so much.

grat-ing¹ /'greɪtɪŋ/ n. [C] a metal frame with bars across it that covers a hole, window, etc.

grating² adj. a grating sound is unpleasant and annoying: a grating voice gra-tis /'græts/, 'grɑ-/ adj., adv. (formal) provided without payment (SYN) free grat-i-tude /'grætəˌtʊd/ n. [U] the feeling of being grateful (ANT) ingratitude: I would like to express my gratitude to everyone who helped us.

gra-tu-i-tous /grəˈtuətəs/ adj. said or done without a good reason in a way that offends someone: television programs full of gratuitous violence gra-tu-i-ty /grəˈtuəti/ n. (plural gratuities) [C] (formal) a TIP

grave¹ /greɪv/ n. [C] 1 the place where a dead body is buried: We visited my grandfather's grave. | They buried him in an unmarked grave (=one with no name on it). 2 sb would turn/roll over in their grave used in order to say that someone who is dead would strongly disapprove of something that is happening now 3 the grave (literary) death: He took the secret to the grave with him. [ORIGIN: Old English græf]

grave² adj. 1 very serious and worrying: I think he is making a grave mistake. | The war is a cause of grave concern. 2 looking or sounding very serious: My parents spoke quietly and looked grave for the rest of the day. —gravely adv.

grave³ /greɪv, græv/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS a grave ACCENT is a mark put above a letter in some languages such as French to show how the letter is pronounced, for example è grav-el /'grævəl/ n. [U] small stones used in order to make a surface for paths or roads grav-el-ly /'grævəli/ adj. a gravelly voice sounds low and rough grave-side /'greɪvsɑɪd/ n. [C usually singular] the area around a grave: Mourners stood somberly at his graveside (=beside it).

grave-stone /'greɪvstəʊn/ n. [C usually singular] a stone on a grave that shows the name of the dead person and the dates of his/her birth and death grave-yard /'greɪvɪjɑrd/ n. [C] an area of ground where people are buried, often near a church → CEMETERY

'graveyard shift n. [C] a period of working time that begins late at night and continues until the early morning, or the people who work during this time grav-i-tate /'grævəˌteɪt/ v. [I] to be attracted to something and move toward it, or become involved with it: Students gravitate toward others with similar interests.

grav-i-ta-tion /ˌgrævəˈteɪʃən/ n. [U] PHYSICS the force that makes two objects, such as PLANETS, move toward each other because of their MASS grav-i-ta-tion-al /ˌgrævəˈteɪʃənəl/ adj. PHYSICS relating to gravity: the Earth's gravitational pull gravi,tational 'field n. [C] PHYSICS an area in space around every large mass such as a PLANET or star, that attracts other objects toward it grav-i-ty /'grævəti/ n. [U] 1 PHYSICS the force that makes objects fall to the ground: the laws of gravity 2 (formal) the seriousness or importance of an event, situation, etc.: I don't think they understand the gravity of the situation.

gra-vy /'greɪvi/ n. [U] SAUCE made from the juice of cooked meat, flour, and milk: mashed potatoes and gravy

'gravy train n. [singular] (informal) an organization, activity, or business from which many people can make money without much effort

gray¹ /greɪ/ adj. 1 having the color of black mixed with white: He was wearing a gray suit. 2 having gray hair: Ryan's black hair is turning/going gray. 3 if the weather is gray, the sky is full of clouds and the Sun is not bright: a gray day 4 gray area a part of a subject such as law or science that is hard to deal with because the rules are not clear gray² n. [U] a color made from black mixed with white: The suit comes in gray or red.

gray³ v. [I] if someone is graying, his/her hair is becoming gray

'gray matter n. [U] (informal) your intelligence, or the part of your brain that thinks graze¹ /greɪz/ v. 1 [I,T] if an animal grazes, it eats grass: cattle grazing in the field 2 [T] to injure yourself by accidentally rubbing against something rough: Billy grazed his knee when he fell. 3 [T] to touch something lightly while passing it, sometimes damaging it: The bullet grazed his arm.

graze² n. [C] a wound caused by rubbing against something rough, which slightly breaks your skin: minor cuts and grazes

GRE n. [C] (trademark) Graduate Record Examination an examination taken by students who have completed a first degree and want to go to GRADUATE SCHOOL

grease¹ /gris/ n. [U] 1 a thick oily substance that is put on the moving parts of a car or machine to make it run smoothly 2 soft fat from animals or vegetables grease² v. [T] to put grease on something: Grease the pan lightly with butter.

greasy /'grisi, -zi/ adj. covered in grease or oil: greasy food | greasy hair

THESAURUS dirty, filthy, dusty, muddy, grimy, soiled, polluted → DIRTY¹ greasy 'spoon n. [C] (informal) a small cheap restaurant that mainly serves fried (FRY) food great /greɪt/ adj.

1 USEFUL (informal) very useful or appropriate for something: This stuff's great for getting stains out of clothes.

2 LARGE very large in size, amount, or degree: Willis caught a great big fish! | A great many people died in the earthquake.

3 IMPORTANT very important, successful, or famous: the great civilizations of the past | Ella Fitzgerald was the greatest jazz singer ever.

SPOKEN PHRASES

4 EXCELLENT very good: It's great to see you again! | We had a great time.

THESAURUS good, excellent, wonderful, fantastic, outstanding, exceptional, superb, first-class, ace → GOOD¹ nice, enjoyable, pleasant, fantastic, wonderful → NICE

5 NOT GOOD said when you are annoyed and think that something is not good at all: "Your car won't be ready until next week." "Oh, great!"

6 a great deal a lot: He's traveled a great deal. | The explosion caused a great deal of damage.

7 great-grandmother/great-uncle etc. the grandmother, uncle, etc. of one of your parents

8 great-granddaughter/great-nephew etc. the GRANDDAUGHTER, NEPHEW, etc. of your child

9 (the) Great used in names to mean large or important: Alexander the Great | the Great Lakes

10 Greater Boston/New York etc. used to talk about a large city, including all the outer areas: the Greater Los Angeles area [ORIGIN: Old English] —greatness n. [U] greatest ,common 'factor (abbreviation GCF) n. [singular] MATH the largest positive number that divides exactly into each of a set of numbers great-ly /'greɪtˈli/ adv. (formal) extremely or very much: The money you lent us was greatly appreciated. ▶ Don't say "The money was appreciated greatly." ◀ greed /grid/ n. [U] a strong desire for more food, money, power, possessions, etc. than you need greed-y /'gridi/ adj. (comparative greedier, superlative greediest) always wanting more food, money, power, possessions, etc. than you need: He was being selfish and greedy. —greedily adv. —greediness n. [U]

Greek¹ /griːk/ adj. 1 relating to or coming from Greece 2 relating to the Greek language

Greek² n. 1 [U] the language used in Greece 2 [C] someone from Greece

green¹ /grin/ adj. 1 having the color of grass: green eyes | pale/dark green leaves 2 covered with grass, trees, bushes, etc.: green fields 3 fruit that is green is not yet ready to be eaten: green bananas 4 relating to or concerned about the environment: green issues 5 be green with envy to wish very much that you had something that someone else has 6 give sb/sth the green light to allow a project, plan, etc. to begin: The board just gave us the green light to begin research. 7 (informal) young and lacking experience: The trainees are still pretty green.

THESAURUS young, youthful, immature, underage → YOUNG¹

8 have a green thumb to be good at making plants grow [ORIGIN: Old English grene] green² n. 1 [C,U] the color of grass 2 [C] the smooth flat area of grass around a hole on a GOLF COURSE: the 18th green 3 greens [plural] vegetables with large green leaves: salad greens green-back /'grɪnbæk/ n. [C] (informal) a dollar BILL green 'bean n. [C] a long thin green vegetable that is picked and eaten before the beans inside it grow green 'card n. [C] a document that shows that someone who is not a citizen can live and work in the U.S.

green-er-y /'grɪnəri/ n. [U] green leaves and plants green-horn /'grɪnhɔːrn/ n. [C] (informal) someone who lacks experience in a job and can be easily deceived green-house /'grɪnhaʊs/ n. [C] a glass building in which you grow plants that need to be protected from the weather

'greenhouse effect n. the greenhouse effect EARTH SCIENCES the gradual warming of the air around the Earth as a result of the Sun's heat being trapped by POLLUTION → ENVIRONMENT

'greenhouse gas n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a gas, especially CARBON DIOXIDE or METHANE, that traps heat above the Earth and causes the greenhouse effect

'green onion n. [C] a small white onion with a small round end and a long green stem that you eat raw (SYN) scallion

'greet /grit/ v. [T] 1 to say hello to someone or welcome him/her: Carol's mother greeted her with hugs and kisses. 2 to react to something in a particular way: The first speech was greeted with cheers and laughter.

'greet-ing /'grɪtɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 something that you say or do when you meet someone: The two men exchanged greetings (=said hello to each other). | We received a warm (=friendly) greeting. 2 holiday/birthday/Christmas etc. greetings a message saying that you hope someone will be happy and healthy on his/her BIRTHDAY, at Christmas, etc.

'greeting card n. [C] a card that you send to someone on his/her BIRTHDAY, at Christmas, etc.

'gre-gar-i-ous /grɪ'ɡeriəs/ adj. someone who is gregarious is friendly and enjoys being with other people [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 gregarius, from grex "group of animals"]

THESAURUS sociable, outgoing, extroverted, affable, genial, convivial → SOCIABLE

'grem-lin /'ɡremɪn/ n. [C] an imaginary evil spirit that is blamed for problems in machinery

'gre-nade /grə'neɪd/ n. [C] a small bomb that can be thrown by hand or fired from a gun

'grew /gru/ v. the past tense of GROW grey /greɪ/ adj. another spelling of GRAY greyhound /'greɪhaʊnd/ n. [C] a thin dog with long legs that can run very fast, often used in races grid /ɡrɪd/ n. [C] 1 a pattern of straight lines that cross each other and form squares: streets organized in a grid system 2 the system of squares with numbers on them that are printed on a map so the exact position of any place can be found 3 a network of CABLES that supply an area with electricity grid-dle /'ɡrɪdl/ n. [C] an iron plate used for cooking food on top of a STOVE grid-i-ron /'ɡrɪdaɪən/ n. [C] (informal) a football field

grid-lock /'ɡrɪdlɒk/ n. [U] 1 a situation in which the streets have so many cars, etc. using them that the cars cannot move 2 a situation in which nothing can happen, usually because people disagree strongly —gridlocked adj.: Traffic was gridlocked in the downtown area.

'grief /ɡrɪf/ n. [U] 1 extreme sadness, especially because someone you love has died: His grief was obvious from the way he spoke. 2 give sb grief (informal) to say something that annoys or causes trouble for someone: My mom's been giving me grief about not helping with my little sister. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French gref, from Latin gravis]

'griev-ance /'ɡrɪvəns/ n. [C,U] something that you complain about because you think it is unfair: He has major grievances against his former employer.

'grieve /ɡrɪv/ v. [I,T] to feel extremely sad, especially because someone you love has died: We are still grieving over the death of our mother. | families grieving for their loved ones | grieving parents

'griev-ous /'ɡrɪvəs/ adj. (formal) very serious and likely to be harmful: Lying to the police was a grievous error/mistake. —grievously adv.

'grift-er /'ɡrɪftə/ n. [C] (informal) someone who dishonestly obtains something, especially money

'grill¹ /ɡrɪl/ v. 1 [I,T] if you grill food, or if it grills, you cook it over a fire

THESAURUS cook, bake, fry, roast, broil, sauté, boil, steam, deep fry → COOK¹

2 [T] (informal) to ask someone a lot of difficult questions for a long period of time: The police grilled him about the murder.

'grill² n. [C] 1 a flat metal frame with BARS across it that can be put over a fire so that food can be cooked on it: Let's put a few steaks on the grill. 2 also grille a frame of metal bars used for protecting something such as a window

'grim /ɡrɪm/ adj. 1 making you feel worried and unhappy: grim news on the economy | We were running out of money and things were looking pretty grim. 2 looking or sounding very serious: a grim-faced judge 3 a place that is grim is unattractive and unpleasant —grimly adv.

grim-ace /'grɪməs/ v. [I] to twist your face in an ugly way because you feel pain, do not like something, or are trying to be funny: Theo rolled around on the field grimacing with pain. —grimace n. [C] grime /graɪm/ n. [U] thick black dirt that forms a layer on surfaces grim-y /'grɑɪmi/ adj. covered in thick black dirt: a grimy apartment building

THESAURUS dirty, filthy, dusty, muddy, greasy, soiled, polluted → DIRTY¹

grin¹ /grɪn/ v. (grinned, grinning) [I] 1 to smile continuously with a very big smile: Sally was grinning at Martin from across the room.

THESAURUS smile, beam, smirk, simper → SMILE

2 grin and bear it (informal) to accept a difficult situation without complaining because you cannot change it: It won't be fun, but we'll have to grin and bear it.

grin² n. [C] a wide smile: He looked back at me with a big grin on his face.

grind¹ /graɪnd/ v. (past tense and past participle ground /graʊnd/) [T] 1 to crush something such as coffee beans into small pieces or powder: Could you grind some coffee for me?

THESAURUS press, squash, crush, mash, squeeze, compress, compact → PRESS¹

2 to cut food such as raw meat into small pieces, using a machine 3 to press something down into a surface and rub it with a strong twisting movement: He paused and ground his cigarette butt into the ashtray. 4 to make something smooth or sharp by rubbing it on a hard surface or by using a machine: a stone for grinding knives and scissors 5 grind your teeth to rub your upper and lower teeth together, making a noise 6 grind to a halt if something grinds to a halt, it stops moving or making progress: Traffic slowly ground to a halt.

grind² n. [singular] (informal) something that is hard, boring, and tiring: The work has become a grind to them.

grind-er /'graɪndə/ n. [C] a machine used to crush or cut food into small pieces: a coffee grinder grind-ing /'graɪndɪŋ/ adj. grinding poverty the state of being extremely poor grind-stone /'graɪndstəʊn/ n. [C] a large round stone that is turned like a wheel and is used for making tools sharp → keep your nose to the grindstone *at NOSE*¹

grip¹ /grɪp/ n. 1 [singular] a tight hold on something, or your ability to hold it: Get a firm grip on the rope, and then pull. 2 [singular] the control that you have over a person, a situation, or your emotions: Come on, Dee, get a grip on yourself (=try to control your emotions)! 3 come/get to grips with sth to understand and deal with a difficult problem or situation: Eric still hasn't come to grips with his drug problem. 4 be in the grip of sth to be experiencing a very unpleasant situation: The economy is deep in the grip of a recession.

grip² v. (gripped, gripping) 1 [T] to hold something very tightly: I gripped his hand in fear.

THESAURUS hold, clutch, catch/take/keep/get (a) hold of sth, grasp, clasp, grab (hold of sth)/seize → HOLD¹

2 [T] to have a strong effect: Unusually cold weather has gripped the northwest. 3 [I,T] if something grips a surface, it stays on without slipping: tires that grip the road 4 [T] to hold all of your attention and interest: a book that really grips you gripe¹ /graɪp/ v. [I] (informal) to complain about something continuously and in an annoying way: Now what's Pete griping about?

gripe² n. [C] something that you keep complaining about: The students' main gripe is the dorm food.

grip-ping /'grɪpɪŋ/ adj. very exciting and interesting: a gripping story

THESAURUS exciting, thrilling, dramatic, exhilarating, electric → EXCITING interesting, fascinating, intriguing, absorbing, enthralling, engrossing, compelling, riveting → INTERESTING gris-ly /'grɪzli/ adj. extremely unpleasant because death or violence is involved: a grisly murder grist /grɪst/ n. grist for the mill something that is useful in a particular situation: The president's comments provided journalists with plenty of grist for their mill.

gris-tle /'grɪsəl/ n. [U] the part of a piece of meat that is not soft enough to eat grit¹ /grɪt/ n. 1 [U] very small pieces of stone 2 [U] (informal) determination and courage (SYN) guts 3 grits [plural] a type of crushed grain that is cooked and eaten for breakfast, especially in the southern U.S. —gritty adj.

grit² v. (gritted, gritting) grit your teeth to use all your determination to continue doing something in spite of pain or difficulties: Just grit your teeth; the worst is almost over.

griz-zly bear /'grɪzli ,bɛr/ also grizzly n. [C] a large brown bear that lives in the northwest of North America groan /grəʊn/ v. [I] to make a long deep sound, for example because you are in pain or are not happy about something: Charlie was holding his arm and groaning. —groan n. [C]: Loud groans came from the crowd.

gro-cer /'grouəsə-, -fə/ n. [C] someone who owns or works in a grocery store [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French grossier “person who sells in large quantities,” from gros “big, thick”] gro-cer-ies /'grouəsəriz, 'groufriz/ n. [plural] the food or other things that are sold in a grocery store or SUPERMARKET gro-cer-y store /'grouəsəri, 'stɔr, -fri-/ also grocery n. [C] a store that sells food and other things used in the home grog-gy /'grəgi/ adj. weak and unable to walk steadily or think clearly because you are sick or very tired groin /grɔɪn/ n. [C] the place where your legs join at the front of your body groom¹ /grum/ v. [T] 1 to prepare someone for an important job or position by training him/her: Sharon's being groomed to take over the business. 2 to take care of your appearance by keeping your hair and clothes clean and neat: a well-groomed young man 3 to take care of animals by cleaning and brushing them —grooming n. [U] groom² n. [C] 1 a man at the time he gets married, or just after he is married: a wedding photo of the bride and groom → WEDDING 2 someone whose job is to take care of horses groove /gru:v/ n. 1 [C] a thick line cut into a surface to hold something, or to make something move or flow where you want it to: Plant the seeds in grooves about a foot apart. 2 [singular] (informal) the way things should be done, so that it seems easy and natural: It will take the players a while to get back in the groove.

grope /grou:p/ v. 1 [I] to try to find something you cannot see, using your hands: She groped in the dark for the flashlight. 2 grope your way along/across etc. to go somewhere by feeling the way with your hands because you cannot see 3 grope for sth to have difficulty in finding the right words to say or the right solution to a problem 4 [T] (informal) to touch someone's body in a sexual way when s/he does not want to be touched gross¹ /grou:s/ adj. 1 (spoken) very unpleasant to look at or think about: There was one really gross part in the movie. | Oh, gross! I hate spinach! 2 [only before noun] ECONOMICS a gross amount of money is the total amount before any tax or costs have been taken away → NET: His gross profit was $300,000. 3 a gross weight is the total weight of something, including its wrapping 4 [only before noun] wrong and unacceptable: Workers are suing the company for gross negligence. | That's a gross exaggeration. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French gros “big, thick,” from Latin grossus] —grossly adv. —grossness n. [U] gross² v. [T] ECONOMICS to earn an amount as a total profit or earn it as a total amount, before tax has been taken away: The movie has already grossed over $10 million.

THESAURUS earn, make, get, be/get paid, net → EARN gross sb ↔ out phr. v. if something grosses you out, it is very unpleasant and almost makes you feel sick: His dirty fingernails really gross me out.

gross domestic product n. [singular, U] ECONOMICS GDP

gross national product n. [singular, U] ECONOMICS GNP

gro-tesque /grou'tesk/ adj. ugly or strange in a way that is unpleasant or frightening: drawings of grotesque monsters [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French, Old Italian (pittura) grottesca “cave painting,” from grotta] —grotesquely adv.: The movie is grotesquely violent.

THESAURUS ugly, unattractive, unsightly, hideous, repulsive → UGLY

grot-to /'grəʊ/ n. (plural grottos or grottoes) [C] a small CAVE grouch¹ /graʊtʃ/ n. [C] (informal) someone who is always complaining grouch² v. [I] (informal) to complain in a slightly angry way grouch-y /'graʊtʃi/ adj. feeling annoyed and complaining a lot

THESAURUS grumpy, cranky, crabby, cantankerous, irritable, touchy → GRUMPY

ground¹ /graʊnd/ n.

1 EARTH'S SURFACE [singular, U] a) the surface of the Earth: We were all sitting on the ground. | People in the area were advised to move to higher ground in the event of a flood. | The fuel is stored below ground. | The pipes are laid above ground. b) the soil on and under the surface of the Earth: We put seeds in the ground. → see picture at WATER CYCLE

USAGE

Use on the ground to say where someone or something is: I saw the keys on the ground next to the car.

Use to the ground to show movement that goes down: Eddie was knocked to the ground.

THESAURUS

The ground is the surface under your feet when you are outside: The ground was very muddy. The floor is the surface under your feet when you are inside a building: The floors all have carpets.

Land is an area of ground that is owned or controlled by someone: He owns all the land around here.

Earth or soil is the substance that plants grow in: The soil is good for growing plants.

2 AREA OF LAND a) [C] a large area of land or ocean that is used for a particular purpose: a burial ground b) grounds [plural] the land or gardens around a building: prison grounds

3 KNOWLEDGE [U] an area of knowledge, ideas, experience, etc.: Scientists are breaking new ground (=discovering new ideas) in cancer research. | We covered a lot of ground in class today.

4 OPINIONS [U] the general opinions you have about something: There has to be a way we can find some common/middle ground (=something that everyone can agree about). | Neither side was willing to give any ground (=agree that someone else is right).

5 hold/stand your ground a) to refuse to move when someone threatens you, in order to show that you are not afraid b) to refuse to change your opinion, belief, etc., even though people are trying to make you change it: Joanne held her ground and made no apologies.

6 REASON grounds [plural] a good reason for doing, believing, or saying something: Mental cruelty can be grounds for divorce. | The committee rejected the proposal on the grounds that it would be too expensive.

7 get off the ground to start being successful: His company hasn't really gotten off the ground yet.

8 gain/lose ground to become more or less successful or popular: Republicans have been gaining ground in recent months.

9 ELECTRICAL [singular] PHYSICS a wire that connects a piece of electrical equipment to the ground for safety

10 SMALL PIECES grounds [plural] the small pieces of something such as coffee which sink to the bottom of a liquid: coffee grounds [ORIGIN: Old English grund]

ground² v. [T] 1 to stop an aircraft or pilot from flying: All planes were grounded due to the snow. 2 be grounded in sth to be based on something: His theories about education are grounded in years of research. 3 (informal) to stop a child from going out with his/her friends as a punishment for doing something wrong: If you stay out that late again, you'll be grounded for a week. 4 PHYSICS to make a piece of electrical equipment safe by connecting it to the ground with a wire ground³ adj. 1 ground beef/turkey/pork etc. meat that has been cut up into very small pieces 2 ground coffee, pepper, etc. has been crushed into small pieces: freshly ground pepper

ground⁴ v. the past tense and past participle of GRIND ground-break-ing /'graʊnd,breɪkɪŋ/ adj. groundbreaking work involves making new discoveries, using new methods, etc.: groundbreaking research

'ground crew n. [C] the group of people who work at an airport taking care of the aircraft

'ground 'floor n. [C] the part of a building that is on the same level as the ground ground-hog /'graʊnd,hɒg/ n. [C] a small North American animal that has thick brown fur and lives in holes in the ground (SYN) woodchuck → see picture at RODENT

'Groundhog 'Day n. February 2; according to American stories, the first day of the year that a groundhog comes out of its hole. If it sees its shadow, there will be six more weeks of winter; if it does not, good weather will come early.

ground-less /'graʊndlɪs/ adj. not based on facts or reason: They assured me that my fears were totally groundless.

'ground rule n. [C] a rule or principle on which future actions should be based ground-swell /'graʊndswel/ n. a groundswell of support/enthusiasm a sudden increase in how strongly people feel about something: There has been a groundswell of support for change.

ground-work /'graʊndwɜ:k/ n. [U] work that needs to be done in order for an activity or plan to be successful: Amelia is already laying the ground-work for her re-election campaign.

ground 'zero n. [U] 1 the place where an explosion happens, where a lot of damage has been done and a lot of people have been killed 2 Ground zero HISTORY the place in New York City where the World Trade Center buildings were destroyed by TERRORISTS on September 11, 2001

group¹ /grʊp/ n. [C] 1 several people or things that are all together in the same place: a group of children | The teacher asked everyone to get into groups of four.

THESAURUS

group of people

crowd – a large group of people in one place team – a group of people who work together: a team of doctors | a successful baseball team crew – a group of people who all work together, especially on a ship or airplane: the flight crew gang – a group of young people, especially a group that often causes trouble and fights mob – a large noisy group of people, especially one that is angry and violent: an angry mob | mob violence bunch (informal) – a group of people: They're a nice bunch of kids flock – a large group of people of the same type: a flock of tourists horde – a large group of people moving in a noisy uncontrolled way: There were hordes of people coming out of the subway.

mass – a large group of people all close together in one place: As soon as the doors opened a mass of people pushed their way into the store.

party – a group of people who have been organized to do something together: a search party

group of animals

herd of cows/deer/elephants flock of sheep/birds

school/shoal of fish/dolphins/herring, etc.

pack of dogs

litter of puppies/kittens (=a group of baby animals born from the same mother at the same time)

group of things

bunch of flowers/grapes/keys, etc. (=several flowers, etc. tied or held together) bundle of papers/clothes/sticks (=several papers, etc. tied or held together) set of dishes/keys/rules, etc. (=several things that belong together or are related in some way)

2 several people or things that are connected with each other in some way: a terrorist group | There should be equal treatment of all racial and ethnic groups. 3 musicians or singers who perform together, usually playing popular music: a rock group 4 CHEMISTRY a COLUMN of ELEMENTS in the PERIODIC TABLE, which all have similar ATOMIC structures and chemical properties (PROPERTY) [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French groupe, from Italian gruppo]

group² v. [I,T] to come together to make a group, or to arrange people or things in a group: The visitors grouped themselves around the statue. | Birds can be grouped into several types.

group-ie ¹grupi/ n. [C] (informal) someone, especially a young woman, who follows popular musicians or other famous people around, hoping to meet them group-ing ¹gru:piŋ/ n. [C] a set of people, things, or organizations that have the same interests, qualities, or features: social groupings group 'therapy n. [U] a method of treating people with emotional or PSYCHOLOGICAL problems by bringing them together in groups to talk about their problems grouse¹ /graus/ v. [I] (informal, disapproving) to complain about something: He's always grouching about the weather.

grouse² n. (plural grouse) [C,U] a small fat bird that is hunted for food and sport, or the meat from this bird grove /grouv/ n. [C] a piece of land with trees growing on it: a lemon grove

grov-el ¹grævəl, ²græ-/ v. [I] to try too hard to please someone or to keep telling him/her that you are sorry: I hate it when people start groveling to the boss.

grow /grou/ v. (past tense grew /gru/, past participle grown /groun/)

1 PERSON/ANIMAL [I] to develop and become bigger over a period of time: Jamie's grown two inches this year.

2 HAIR/NAILS [I,T] to let your hair or nails become longer: He's growing a beard.

3 PLANTS [I,T] if plants grow, or if you grow them, they develop and become bigger: Not many plants can grow in the far north. | We're trying to grow roses this year.

4 INCREASE [I] to increase in amount, size, or degree: a growing business | The number of students grew by 5% last year. | A growing number of people are working from home.

THESAURUS increase, go up, rise, double, shoot up, multiply → INCREASE¹

5 BECOME [linking verb] to become old, hot, worse, etc. over a period of time: He became more conservative as he grew older.

6 grow to like/fear/respect etc. to gradually start to like, fear, etc. someone or something: She had grown to love the city.

7 IMPROVE [I] to improve in ability or character: Beth's really growing as a singer.

8 BUSINESS [T] to make something such as a business become larger or more successful: The president thinks cutting taxes will help grow the economy.

grow apart phr. v.

if two people grow apart, their relationship changes and they become less close grow into sb/sth phr. v.

1 to develop over time and become a particular type of person or thing: Gene's grown into a handsome young man.

2 if a child grows into clothes, s/he becomes big enough to wear them: The jacket's a little bit big for him now, but he'll soon grow into it.

grow on sb phr. v.

if someone or something grows on you, you gradually start to like him, her, or it: I didn't like blue cheese at first, but the taste has kind of grown on me.

grow out of sth phr. v.

1 if a child grows out of clothes, s/he becomes too big to wear them

2 to stop doing something as you get older: Sarah still sucks her thumb, but she'll grow out of it.

grow up phr. v.

1 to develop from being a child to being an adult: I grew up in San Diego.

2 grow up! (spoken) said in order to tell someone to behave more like an adult grow-er ¹grəʊə/ n. [C] a person or company that grows fruit, vegetables, etc. in order to sell them

'growing ,pains n. [plural] problems and difficulties that start at the beginning of a new activity, for example starting a business

'growing ,season n. [C] the period during the year from the time when crops start to grow until they become fully grown growl /graʊl/ v. 1 [I] if an animal growls, it makes a deep angry sound: dogs growling at a visitor 2 [I,T] to say something in a low angry voice: "Go away!" he growled. —growl n. [C] grown¹ /groun/ adj. grown man/woman an adult, used especially when you think someone is not behaving as an adult should: I've never seen a grown man act like that.

grown² v. the past participle of GROW

'grown-up¹ n. [C] an adult, used especially by children or when talking to children: Ask a grown-up to help you.

'grown-up² adj. fully developed as an adult: a grown-up son

growth /grouθ/ n. 1 [singular, U] an increase in amount, size, or degree: rapid population growth | There's been tremendous growth in the health food industry. | the growth of modern technology 2 [U] the increase in the physical size and strength of a person, animal, or plant over a period of time: Vitamins are necessary for healthy growth. 3 [U] the development of someone's character, intelligence, or emotions: a job that provides opportunities for personal growth 4 [C] something that grows in your body or on your skin, caused by a disease: a cancerous growth 5 [C,U] something that is growing: There are signs of new growth on the tree.

grub /grʌb/ n. [U] (informal) food grub-by /'grʌbi/ adj. dirty: grubby hands

grudge¹ /grʌdʒ/ n. [C] a feeling of anger or dislike you have for someone who has harmed you: Diane doesn't hold grudges (=stay angry with people). | Aunt Alice bore a grudge against him for 25 years.

grudge² v. [T] BEGRUDGE

grudg-ing /'grʌdʒɪŋ/ adj. done in a way that shows you do not really want to do something: Some of the staff had grudging respect for her. —grudgingly adv. They grudgingly agreed.

gru-el-ing /'gruəlɪŋ/ adj. very difficult and tiring: a grueling entrance exam [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 gruel “to punish”, from gruel “food,” because people were given gruel as a punishment]

grue-some /'grusəm/ adj. very unpleasant to look at, and usually involving death or injury: a gruesome accident [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 grue “to shake (with fear)” (14—19 centuries), from Middle Dutch gruwen] gruff /grʌf/ adj. unfriendly or annoyed: a gruff answer —gruffly adv.

grum-ble /'grʌmbəl/ v. [I] to keep complaining in a quiet but slightly angry way: He's always grumbling about how expensive everything is.

grump-y /'grʌmpi/ adj. (comparative grumpier, superlative grumpiest) easily annoyed and tending to complain: a grumpy old man —grumpily adv.

THESAURUS

cranky/crabby/grouchy (informal) – easily annoyed and complaining a lot: I was feeling hungry and cranky.

cantankerous – easily annoyed and complaining a lot: a cantankerous old man irritable – easily annoyed or made angry: He's been a little irritable lately.

touchy – easily offended or annoyed: She's touchy about her weight.

grunge /grʌndʒ/ n. [U] (informal) dirt and GREASE —grungy adj.

grunt /grʌnt/ v. 1 [I,T] to make short sounds or say only a few words, especially because you do not want to talk: He just grunted hello and kept walking. 2 [I] if a pig grunts, it makes short low sounds —grunt n. [C]

G-string /'dʒɪ strɪŋ/ n. [C] very small underwear that does not cover the BUTTOCKS

gua-ca-mo-le /,gwəkə'mouli/ n. [U] a Mexican dish made with crushed AVOCADOS [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 American Spanish, Nahuatl, from ahuacatl “avocado” + molli “sauce”]

guar-an-tee¹ /,gærən'ti/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to promise that something will happen or be done: We guarantee delivery within 48 hours. | Can you guarantee (that) it will arrive tomorrow? | It's impossible to guarantee everyone a job.

THESAURUS promise, give sb your word, swear, take/swear an oath, vow, pledge, undertake to do sth, commit → PROMISE¹

2 to make a formal written promise to repair or replace a product if it has a problem within a specific time 3 to make it certain that something will happen: Practicing guarantees that you'll play better, but it doesn't guarantee that you'll win. 4 be guaranteed to do sth to be certain to behave, work, or happen in a particular way: This show is guaranteed to make you smile. 5 if someone guarantees an amount of money, s/he is legally responsible for the payment of the money: The city guaranteed the loan for the first five years.

guarantee² (Ac) n. [C] 1 a formal written promise that a product will please the customer or perform in a particular way for a specific length of time: a two-year guarantee | The breadmaker comes with a money-back guarantee (=a promise that you will get your money back if it doesn't work). 2 a formal promise that something will be done or will happen: There's no guarantee that the books will be delivered this week (=it is not sure to happen). | a guarantee that aid will be sent 3 an action, situation, etc. that makes it certain that something else will happen: A high school diploma is no guarantee of a job. 4 an agreement to be responsible for someone else's promise, especially a promise to pay a debt: a loan guarantee

guar-an-tor /,gærən'tɔr, 'gærəntɔ/ n. [C] ECO-NOMICS someone who promises that s/he will pay for something if the person who should pay for it does not guard¹ /gɑrd/ n. 1 [C] someone whose job is to guard people, places, or objects so that they are not attacked or stolen: The guards stopped us at the gate. | a security guard | prison guards 2 [U] the act of protecting a place or person, or preventing a prisoner from escape: Soldiers are always on guard at the embassy. | The prisoners were held under armed guard at all times. 3 catch/take sb off guard to surprise someone by doing something that s/he is not ready to deal with: The question caught the senator off guard. 4 [C] something that covers and protects someone or something: a hockey player's face guard 5 sb's guard the state of paying careful attention to what is happening in order to avoid being tricked or getting into danger: These men are dangerous, so you'll need to be on your guard (=be careful). | He never let down his guard (=relaxed and felt comfortable with others). 6 [C] a) one of two players in basketball whose main job is to defend his/her BASKET b) one of two football players who play on either side of the CENTER [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French garde]

guard² v. [T] 1 to protect someone or something from being attacked or stolen, or to prevent a prisoner from escaping: They have a dog to guard their house. | a heavily-guarded courtroom

THESAURUS protect, safeguard, shield, give/offer/provide protection, shelter, preserve, conserve → PROTECT

C

2 to protect something such as a right or secret by preventing other people from taking it: a closely-guarded secret guard against sth phr. v. to try hard to prevent something from happening: Exercise can help guard against a number of serious illnesses.

guard-ed /'gɑ:dɪd/ adj. careful not to show your emotions or give away information: a guarded answer guard-i-an /'gɑ:diən/ n. [C] 1 someone who is legally responsible for a child, but who is not the child's parent: His aunt is his legal guardian. 2 (formal) a person or organization that tries to protect something —guardianship n. [U] guardian 'angel n. [C] an imaginary good spirit who protects a person guard-rail /'gɑ:d-reɪl/ n. [C] a long metal BAR that keeps cars or people from falling over the edge of a road, boat, or high structure gua-va /'gwɑ:və/ n. [C] a small tropical fruit with pink flesh and many seeds inside [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Spanish guayaba, from Arawakan (a group of South American languages)] gu-ber-na-to-ri-al /,gubənə'tɔ:riəl/ adj. (formal) relating to the position of being a GOVERNOR

guer-ril-la, guerilla /gə'rɪlə/ n. [C] a member of a military group that is fighting for political reasons: guerrilla warfare [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Spanish guerra "war"]

guess¹ /ges/ v. 1 [I,T] a) to try to answer a question or form an opinion when you are not sure whether you will be correct: I'd say he's about 40, but I'm just guessing. b) to guess something correctly: "Don't tell me; you got the job." "How did you guess?" | I never would have guessed that they were sisters. 2 keep sb guessing to not tell someone what is going to happen next: a film that really keeps the audience guessing

SPOKEN PHRASES

3 I guess a) said when you think that something is true or likely: I wasn't there, but I guess Mr. Radkin yelled at Jeannie. | His light's on, so I guess he's still up. b) said in order to show that you do not feel very strongly about what you are planning or agreeing to do: I guess I'll stay home tonight.

THESAURUS think, believe, suspect, consider, figure → THINK

4 I guess so/not used in order to say yes or no to a question or statement, when you are not very sure: "She wasn't happy?" "I guess not." 5 guess what/you'll never guess who/what etc. said when you are about to tell someone something that will surprise him/her: You'll never guess who I saw today.

guess² n. [C] 1 an attempt to guess something: Just take/make a guess. | I can only hazard a guess (=make a guess) on how old she is.

COLLOCATIONS

good guess – a guess that is likely to be right educated guess – a guess that is likely to be correct because it is based on some information wild guess – a guess that you make when you do not have any information, and that is likely to be wrong lucky guess – a guess that is right, and that you made without very much information rough guess – a guess that is not exact

2 an opinion formed by guessing: My guess is (that) Don won't come. 3 be anybody's guess to be something that no one knows: What she's going to do with her life now is anybody's guess. 4 your guess is as good as mine (spoken) said in order to tell someone that you do not know any more than s/he does about something guess-ti-mate /'gestəmit/ n. [C] (informal) an attempt to judge a quantity by guessing it —guesstimate /'gestə,meɪt/ v. [I,T] guess-work /'geswɜ:k/ n. [U] a way of trying to find the answer to something by guessing

guest¹ /gest/ n. [C] 1 someone whom you invite to stay in your home, be at your party, etc.: a dinner guest | He was a frequent guest at the White House. 2 someone famous who is invited to take part in a television program, concert, etc.: Tonight's special guest will be Justin Timberlake. 3 someone who is paying to stay in a hotel: Use of the swimming pool is free for guests. 4 be my guest (spoken) said when giving someone permission to do what s/he has asked to do: "Could I use your phone?" "Be my guest." [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old Norse gestr] guest² adj. 1 guest speaker/artist/star etc. someone famous who is invited to speak on a subject or take part in a performance 2 [only before noun] for guests to use: the guest room | guest towels

guf-faw /gə'fɔ/ v. [I] to laugh loudly —guffaw n. [C]

THESAURUS laugh, giggle, chuckle, cackle, snicker, titter → LAUGH¹

GUI /'gui/ n. [U] IT graphical user interface a way of arranging information on a computer screen using pictures, which makes it easier for you to tell the computer what to do guid-ance /'gɑ:dns/ n. [U] helpful advice about work, education, etc.: Ms. Norris has given me a lot of guidance about colleges and careers.

THESAURUS advice, tip, suggestion, recommendation, counseling, warning → ADVICE

'guidance counselor n. [C] someone who works in a school, giving advice to students about what subjects to study and helping them with personal problems guide¹ /gaɪd/ n. [C] 1 someone whose job is to take tourists to a place, or show a place to tourists: a tour guide 2 a book that provides information about a particular subject or explains how to do something: a guide for new parents 3 something that helps you decide what is likely to happen or helps you to make a decision: The balance sheet is a fairly reliable guide to the company's financial position.

guide² v. [T] 1 to take someone to or through a place that you know very well, showing him/her the way: He offered to guide us around/through the city.

THESAURUS lead, direct, point, show, escort, usher → LEAD¹

2 to help someone or something to move in a particular direction: The pilot guided the plane to a safe landing. 3 to help someone to do something or to make a decision: Children need parents to guide them.

guide-book /'gaɪdbʊk/ n. [C] a special book about a city or country that gives details about the place and its history guide-lines /'gaɪdlaɪnz/ n. [plural] rules or instructions about the best way to do something: the guidelines for health and safety at work

THESAURUS rule, law, regulation, restriction, statute, code, precept → RULE¹ guild /gɪld/ n. [C] an organization of people who share the same interests, skills, or profession: the writers' guild guile /gaɪl/ n. [U] (formal) the use of smart but dishonest methods to deceive someone guile-less /'gaɪl-lɪs/ adj. behaving in an honest way, without trying to deceive people guil-lo-tine /'gɪlə,tɪn, 'giə-, 'giə'tɪn/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that was used in past times to cut off the heads of criminals [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French, from Joseph Guillotin (1738–1814), French doctor who invented it] —guillotine v. [T]

guilt /gɪlt/ n. [U] 1 a strong feeling of shame and sadness that you have when you know or believe you have done something wrong: Marta felt a sense of guilt about leaving home. | He used to buy them expensive presents out of guilt.

THESAURUS

shame – the feeling of being guilty or embarrassed that you have after doing something that is wrong: I was too scared to help them, and I was filled with shame.

remorse – a strong feeling of being sorry for doing something very bad: a murderer who showed no remorse conscience – the set of feelings that tell you whether what you are doing is morally right or wrong: My conscience wouldn't allow me to lie to her.

2 guilt trip (informal) a feeling of guilt about something, when this is unreasonable: I wish my parents would stop laying a guilt trip on me (=making me feel guilty) about not going to college. 3 the fact that someone has broken an official law or moral rule (ANT) innocence: The jury was sure of the defendant's guilt. 4 the state of being responsible for something bad that has happened (SYN) fault: Ron admitted that the guilt was his.

'guilt-ridden adj. feeling extremely guilty about something

guilt-y /'gɪlti/ adj. 1 ashamed and sad because you have done something that you know is wrong: I feel guilty about not inviting her to the party. | I don't think of watching TV as a guilty pleasure (=something you like doing but feel guilty about). | His guilty conscience kept him awake at night.

THESAURUS

ashamed – unhappy and disappointed with yourself because you have done something wrong or unpleasant: You should be ashamed of yourself for lying to your mother.

embarrassed – feeling slightly worried about what people will think of you because you have done something stupid or silly: I forgot his name, and I felt so embarrassed. | I'm embarrassed to say I voted for him.

contrite (formal) – feeling guilty and sorry for something bad that you have done: She felt suddenly contrite, and apologized.

2 having broken a law or a rule (ANT) innocent: I was not guilty of doing anything wrong. | The jury found him guilty of murder. | Her lawyers entered a guilty plea. → COURT¹ —guiltily adv. —guiltiness n. [U]

guin-ea pig /'gɪni piɡ/ n. [C] 1 a small animal like a rat with fur, short ears, and no tail that is often kept as a pet 2 (informal) someone who is used in a test to see how successful or safe a new product, system, etc. is guise /gaɪz/ n. [C] (formal) the way someone or something seems to be, which is meant to hide the truth: In/under the guise of being protectors, the army took over the government.

gui-tar /gɪ'tɑː/ n. [C] a musical instrument with six strings, a long neck, and a wooden body, which you play by pulling the strings [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French guitare, from Spanish guitarra, from Arabic qītar, from Greek kithara type of stringed instrument] —guitarist n. [C] gulch /gʌltʃ/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a narrow deep valley formed by flowing water, but usually dry gulf /gʌlf/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a large area of ocean partly enclosed by land: the Gulf of Mexico 2 a serious and important difference between two groups of people, where neither understands or is concerned about the other: There is a widening gulf between the rich and the poor.

Gulf Stream n. the Gulf Stream EARTH SCIENCES a current of warm water that flows northeast in the Atlantic Ocean from the Gulf of Mexico toward Europe

G

gull /gʌl/ n. [C] a SEAGULL

gul-let /'gʌlɪt/ n. [C] (informal) the tube through which food goes down your throat gul-li-ble /'gʌləbəl/ adj. a gullible person always believes what other people say, and is therefore easy to trick —gullibility /'gʌlə'bɪləti/ n. [U] gul-ly /'gʌli/ n. (plural gullies) [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a small narrow valley, formed by a lot of rain flowing down the side of a hill 2 a deep DITCH

gulp¹ /gʌlp/ v. 1 [T] also gulp down to swallow something quickly: She gulped her tea and ran to catch the bus. 2 [T] also gulp in to take in large breaths of air quickly: Steve leaned on the car and gulped in the night air. 3 [I] to swallow suddenly because you are surprised or nervous: Shula read the test questions, and gulped.

gulp sth ↔ back phr. v. to stop yourself from expressing your feelings: The boy was trying to gulp back his tears.

gulp² n. [C] an act of swallowing something quickly: He drank his beer in one gulp.

gum /gʌm/ n. 1 [C] a sweet substance that you CHEW for a long time but do not swallow 2 [C usually plural] the pink part inside your mouth that holds your teeth 3 [U] BIOLOGY a sticky substance in the stems of some trees —gummy adj.

gum-bo /'gʌmbou/ n. [U] a thick soup made with meat, fish, and particular vegetables gump-tion /'gʌmpʃən/ n. [U] (informal) the ability and determination to decide what needs to be done and to do it: At least he had the gumption to call the police.

gun¹ /gʌn/ n. [C] 1 a weapon from which bullets are fired: He was carrying a gun. | a loaded gun |

I've never fired a gun in my life. | He had a gun in the car. 2 big/top gun (informal) someone who controls an organization, or who is the most successful person in a group 3 a tool used in order to send out a liquid by pressure: a spray gun → jump the gun at JUMP¹, stick to your guns at STICK TO gun² v. (gunned, gunning) [T] 1 (informal) to make the engine of a car go very fast by pressing the ACCELERATOR very hard 2 be gunning for sth to be trying very hard to obtain something: They're gunning for their third straight Superbowl win. 3 be gunning for sb (informal) to be trying to find an opportunity to criticize or harm someone gun sb ↔ down phr. v. to shoot someone and badly injure or kill him/her: He was gunned down outside his own home.

gun-boat /'gʌnbəʊt/ n. [C] a small military ship that carries several large guns

'gun con,trol n. [U] laws that restrict the possession and use of guns gun-fire /'gʌnfaiə/ n. [U] the repeated shooting of guns, or the noise made by this → GUNSHOT: We heard gunfire in the distance. | an exchange of gunfire (=when people are shooting at each other for a short time) gung-ho /'gʌŋ'həʊ/ adj. (informal) very eager, or too eager to do something: a gung-ho supporter of the president [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 Chinese gonghe, from jongguo gongye hozo she “Chinese Industrial Cooperatives Society,” used as a battle cry (meaning “work together”) by U.S. soldiers in World War II]

gunk /gʌŋk/ n. [U] (informal) any substance that is thick, dirty, and sticky: There's a bunch of gunk clogging the drain.

gun-man /'gʌnmən/ n. (plural gunmen /-mən/) [C] a criminal who uses a gun gun-ner /'gʌnə/ n. [C] a soldier, sailor, etc. whose job is to aim or fire a large gun gun-point /'gʌnpɔɪnt/ n. at gunpoint while threatening people with a gun, or being threatened with a gun: She was robbed at gunpoint gun-pow-der /'gʌnpaʊdə/ n. [U] an explosive substance in the form of powder gun-run-ning /'gʌn,rʌnɪŋ/ n. [U] the activity of taking guns into a country secretly and illegally —gunrunner n. [C] gun-shot /'gʌnfʌt/ n. 1 [C] the action of shooting a gun, or the sound that this makes → GUNFIRE: We heard a gunshot and a loud scream. 2 [U] the bullets that are shot from a gun: a gunshot wound

gup-py /'gʌpi/ n. (plural guppies) [C] a small brightly colored tropical fish gur-gle /'gʊgəl/ v. [I] 1 if water gurgles, it flows along gently with a pleasant low sound 2 if a baby gurgles, it makes a happy low sound in its throat —gurgle n. [C] gu-ru /'gʊru, 'gʊru/ n. [C] 1 (informal) someone who knows a lot about a particular subject, and to whom people go for advice: a fashion guru 2 a Hindu religious teacher or leader

gush¹ /gʌʃ/ v. [I,T] 1 to flow or pour out quickly in large quantities: Water gushed out of the broken pipe. | Blood was gushing from the wound. | His cheek was gushing blood.

THESAURUS pour, flow, drip, leak, ooze, spurt, run, come out → POUR

2 to express your praise, pleasure, etc. in a way that other people think is too strong: "This is so exciting," gushed Dana.

gush² n. [C] a large quantity of liquid that suddenly flows from somewhere: a gush of warm water gush-er /'gʌʃə/ n. [C] (informal) an oil WELL where the flow of oil is suddenly so strong that it shoots into the air

gush-ing /'gʌʃɪŋ/ also gush-y /'gʌʃi/ adj. expressing admiration, pleasure, etc. in a way that other people think is too strong: He wrote in gushing terms about the poet well before he met him.

gust¹ /gʌst/ n. [C] a sudden strong wind that blows for a short time: A gust of wind blew our tent over. —gusty adj.

THESAURUS wind, breeze, gale, storm, hurricane, tornado, typhoon → WIND¹

gust² v. [I] if wind gusts, it blows strongly with sudden short movements: Winds were gusting up to 70 mph.

gust-to /'gʌstə/ n. with gusto if you do something with gusto, you do it with a lot of eagerness and energy: a band playing with gusto

gut¹ /gʌt/ n. 1 gut reaction/feeling/instinct (informal) a reaction or feeling that you are sure is right, although you cannot give a reason for it: My gut reaction is that it's a bad idea. 2 guts [plural] (informal) the courage and determination you need to do something difficult or unpleasant: He didn't have the guts to say what he really thought. | It takes guts to start a business on your own. 3 [C] (informal) someone's stomach, especially when it is large: He felt as if someone had just kicked him in the gut. | a beer gut 4 a) guts [plural] (informal) the organs inside your body b) [C] BIOLOGY the tube in your body through which food passes gut² v. (past tense and past participle gutted, present participle gutting) [T] 1 to completely destroy the inside of a building, especially by fire 2 to remove the organs from inside a fish or animal in order to prepare it for cooking gut-sy /'gʌtsi/ adj. (informal) brave and determined: It was a gutsy performance.

gut-ter /'gʌtə/ n. [C] 1 the low place along the edge of a road, where water collects and flows away 2 an open pipe at the edge of a roof for collecting and carrying away RAINWATER 3 the gutter the bad social conditions of the lowest and poorest people in society gut-tur-al /'gʌtərəl/ adj. a guttural sound is produced deep in the throat

guy /gaɪ/ n. [C] 1 (informal) a man: He's a really nice guy. | There's some guy who wants to talk to you.

THESAURUS man, gentleman, fellow, boy, youth, male → MAN¹

2 you guys/those guys (spoken) said when talking to or about two or more people, male or female → Y'ALL: We'll see you guys Sunday, okay?

guz-zle /'gʌzəl/ v. [I,T] (informal) to drink a lot of something eagerly and quickly: Chris has been guzzling beer all evening.

THESAURUS drink, sip/take a sip, slurp, gulp down, down, knock back, swig, take/have a swig, imbibe → DRINK² gym /dʒɪm/ n. 1 [C] a special building or room that has equipment for doing physical exercise: I go to the gym as often as I can. 2 [U] sports and exercises done indoors, especially as a school subject: gym class [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 gymnasium Latin, Greek gymnasion, from gymnazein "to exercise with no clothes on"] → EXERCISE² gym-na-si-um /dʒɪm'neɪzɪəm/ n. [C] a GYM [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, Greek gymnasion, from gymnazein "to exercise with no clothes on," from gymnos "naked"]

gym-nast

/'dʒɪmnæst, -nəst/ n. [C] someone who does gymnastics as a sport: an Olympic gymnast

gym-nas-tics

/dʒɪm'næstɪks/ n. [plural] a sport involving physical exercises and movements that need skill and control, often performed in competitions gym-no-sperm

/'dʒɪmnə'spərm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a plant producing seeds that are contained in a CONE

gy-ne-col-o-gy /,gaɪnə'kɒlədʒi/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the study and treatment of medical conditions that affect women —gynecologist n. [C] —gynecological /,gaɪnəkə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj.

gyp-sy /'dʒɪpsi/ n. (plural gypsies) [C] 1 a member of a group of people who traditionally live and travel around in CARAVANS. Most gypsies prefer to be called Romanies. 2 someone who does not like to stay in the same place for a long time

gy-rate /'dʒaɪreɪt/ v. [I] to turn around fast in circles: dancers gyrating wildly

Hh

H, h /ɜrtʃ/ the eighth letter of the English alphabet ha /hə/ interjection (spoken) said when you are surprised or pleased about something: Ha! I knew I was right. → HA HA ha-be-as corpus /ˈheɪbiəs ˈkɔrpəs/ n. [U] LAW the right of someone who is in prison to come to a court of law so that the court can decide whether s/he should stay in prison or be freed hab-er-dash-er-y /ˈhæbərˌdæʃəri/ n. (plural haberdasheries) [C,U] (old-fashioned) a store or part of a store that sells men's clothing, or the clothes sold there

hab-it /ˈhæbɪt/ n. 1 [C,U] something that you do regularly, and usually without thinking: healthy eating habits | Jen was in the habit of going to lunch with them every day. | Try to get in the habit of exercising regularly. | After my son moved out, I was still cleaning his room out of habit (=because it was a habit).

THESAURUS

custom – something that people in a particular society do because it is traditional, or something that people think is the normal and polite thing to do: It is a Japanese custom that you take off your shoes when you enter a house.

tradition – a belief, custom, or way of doing something that has existed for a long time: In many countries it's a tradition for the bride to wear white. | a family tradition practice – something that people often do, especially as part of their work or daily life: The practice of punishing children by making them sit on a chair for a period of time is fairly common.

convention – a rule of behavior that most people in a society accept: Shaking hands to greet someone is a social convention.

2 [C] something you do regularly that annoys other people or is bad for your health: Biting your nails is a very bad habit. | He has a habit of being late. | Brad's been smoking for twenty years, and he just can't break/kick the habit. | a drug habit 3 don't make a habit of (doing) sth used in order to tell someone who has done something bad or wrong that s/he should not do it again: You can turn your paper in late this time, but don't make a habit of it. 4 [C] a set of long loose clothes worn by members of some religious groups

hab-it-a-ble /ˈhæbətəbəl/ adj. good enough for people to live in hab-i-tat /ˈhæbətət/ n. [C] the natural environment in which a plant or animal lives: We got a chance to see the gorillas in their natural habitat.

hab-i-ta-tion /ˈhæbətetʃən/ n. [U] (formal) the act of living in a place: There was no sign of habitation on the island.

ha-bit-u-al /həˈbɪtʃuəl/ adj. 1 happening as a habit, or often doing something because it is a habit: a habitual smoker 2 [only before noun] usual or typical: James took his habitual morning walk around the park. —habitually adv.

ha-bit-u-ation /həˈbɪtʃuˈeɪʃən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a basic learning process by which the reaction of a person, animal, or other living thing to a STIMULUS (=something that makes them move or react) gradually becomes less strong, so that after a period of time the person, animal, etc. does not react at all hack¹ /hæk/ v. 1 [I,T] to cut something into pieces roughly or violently, or to hurt someone badly with a weapon such as a sword: We hacked away the ivy that was growing over the wall. | He was hacked to death by the mob. 2 [I,T] to use a computer in order to secretly and illegally enter someone else's computer system: Somebody hacked into the company's central database. 3 sb can't hack it (informal) used in order to say that someone cannot continue to do something because it is too difficult or boring 4 [I] to cough very loudly and painfully: a hacking cough

hack² n. [C] someone who writes low quality books, articles, etc.

hack-er /ˈhækər/ n. [C] (informal) someone who uses a computer to secretly use or change the information in another person's computer system —hacking n. [U] hack-neyed /ˈhæknɪd/ adj. a hackneyed phrase is boring and does not have much meaning because it has been used too often hack-saw /ˈhæksɔ/ n. [C] a small SAW (=cutting tool) used especially to cut metal had /d, əd, həd; strong həd/ v. 1 the past tense and past participle of HAVE 2 be had to be tricked or made to look stupid: She had the feeling she'd been had.

had-dock /ˈhædək/ n. (plural haddock) [C,U] a common fish that lives in northern oceans, or the meat from this fish had-n't /ˈhædnt/ v. the short form of “had not”: We hadn't been there long.

hag /hæg/ n. [C] an ugly or mean woman, especially one who is old or looks like a WITCH hag-gard /ˈhægəd/ adj. having lines on your face and dark marks around your eyes because you are tired, sick, or worried: He was thin and haggard. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French hagard “wild”] hag-gle /ˈhægəl/ v. [I] to argue about the amount of money you will pay for something: The car dealer and I were haggling over the price for an hour.

hah /hə/ interjection another spelling of HA ha ha /hə ˈhə/ interjection used in writing to represent laughter hail¹ /heɪl/ v. 1 [T] to call out to someone in order to get his/her attention: He was hailing a taxi/cab (=waving at a taxi to make it stop). 2 [I] if it hails, frozen rain falls from the sky hail sb/sth as sth phr. v. to publicly state how good someone or something is: Their discovery was hailed as the most important event of the century.

hail from sth phr. v. to come from a particular place: The professor hailed from Massachusetts.

hail² n. 1 [U] small hard drops of frozen rain that fall from the sky

THESAURUS rain, hailstones, sleet →
RAIN¹

2 a hail of bullets/stones etc. a lot of bullets, stones, etc. that are shot or thrown at someone hail-stone /'heɪlstəʊn/ n. [C usually plural] a small drop of hard frozen rain hail-storm /'heɪlstɔːm/ n. [C] a storm when a lot of hail falls hair /her/ n. 1 [U] the things like thin threads that grow on your head: He has brown hair and blue eyes. | She was brushing her hair. | I used to have/wear my hair very long. → see picture on page 462

COLLOCATIONS

Describing hair

short/long hair shoulder-length hair blond/light hair dark/brown/black/gray hair red/auburn hair straight/wavy/curly hair frizzy hair – hair with many small curls in it spiky hair – hair that sticks up from your head in thin stiff points fine/thin/thick hair white-haired/dark-haired/red-haired/long-haired/curly-haired, etc. (=used to describe someone)

Verbs you can use with hair cut/trim your hair wash/shampoo your hair dry your hair blow dry your hair – to dry your hair, using an electric hairdryer comb/brush your hair style your hair – to arrange your hair in a particular way dye your hair – to change the color of your hair, using a dye bleach your hair – to dye your hair a blond color, using chemicals → HEAD¹, SKIN¹

2 [C,U] the things like thin threads that grow on a person's or animal's skin → FUR: An old blanket was covered with cat hair. 3 short-haired/dark-haired etc. having a particular type of hair or fur: a long-haired cat 4 let your hair down (informal) to stop being serious and enjoy yourself 5 a hair a small amount: Larson won the race by a hair. [ORIGIN: Old English hær]

hair-brush /'heɪbrʌʃ/ n. [C] a brush you use on your hair to make it look neat → see picture at BRUSH¹ hair-cut /'heɪkʌt/ n. [C] 1 the act of having your hair cut by someone: I'm getting a haircut tomorrow. 2 the style your hair has when it is cut: Do you like my new haircut?

hair-do /'heɪdu/ n. (plural hairdos) [C] (informal) the style in which someone's hair is cut or shaped hair-dress-er /'heɪ,dresə/ n. [C] someone who washes, cuts, and arranges people's hair hair-dryer /'heɪ,draɪə/ n. [C] a machine that you sit under that blows out hot air, used for drying hair → BLOW DRYER hair-line /'heɪlaɪn/ n. [C] 1 the area around the top of your face where your hair starts growing 2 a hairline crack/fracture a very thin crack in something hard such as glass or bone hair-net /'heɪnet/ n. [C] a thin net worn over your hair in order to keep it in place

'hair-raising adj. frightening in an exciting way: a hair-raising adventure

hair-split-ting /'heɪ,splɪtɪŋ/ n. [U] the act of paying too much attention to unimportant details and differences

'hair spray n. [C,U] a sticky liquid that you put onto your hair in order to make it stay in place hair-style /'heɪstaɪl/ n. [C] the particular style your hair has when it is cut, brushed, or arranged hair-y /'heəri/ adj. 1 having a lot of body hair: a hairy chest 2 (informal) dangerous or frightening: I've had a few hairy moments when sailing.

hal-cy-on /'hælsɪən/ adj. halcyon days (literary) a time in the past when you were very happy hale /heɪl/ adj. hale and hearty someone, especially an old person, who is hale and hearty is very healthy and active half¹ /hæf/ determiner, adj. [only before noun] 1 50% (½) of an amount, time, distance, number, etc.: The wall is half a mile long. | Only half the guests had arrived by 7:00. | I'll wait another half hour (=30 minutes), but then I have to go. 2 half the time/people etc. a lot of the time, people, etc.: I was up half the night worrying about you. 3 be half the battle (spoken) used in order to say that when you have done the most difficult part of an activity, the rest is easy: Getting your children to listen to you is half the battle. 4 if something or someone is half one thing and half something else, he, she, or it is a combination of those two things: She's half Mexican and half German. 5 half a dozen also a half dozen a) six: half a dozen eggs b) a small number of people or things: There were half a dozen other people in front of me. 6 half a second/minute (spoken) a very short time: If you can wait half a second, I'll be ready to go.

half² n., pron. [C] (plural halves /hævz/) 1 one of two equal parts of something: Half of 10 is 5. | Do you want the sandwich cut in half (=in two equal pieces)? | Half of the hotel's rooms have double beds in them. ▶ Don't say "the half of the rooms." ◀ | Our profits increased in the second half of the year. | My son's two and a half (=2½) now. ▶ Don't say "two and one half." ◀ 2 half past one/two/three etc. thirty minutes after the hour mentioned: We should arrive there at half past three. 3 one of two parts into which a sports event is divided: The score was 21 to 10 at the end of the second half.

H

half³ adv. 1 partly but not completely: I was half expecting her to say "no." | She sat up in bed, still half asleep. | There were several half-empty coffee cups on the table. 2 half as good/interesting etc. (as sth) much less good, less interesting, etc. than someone or something else: The movie wasn't half as good as the book. 3 not half bad said when something that you expected to be bad is actually good: The dinner wasn't half bad. 4 half and half partly one thing and partly something else: The group was about half and half, men and women.

half-and-'half n. [U] a mixture of milk and cream, used in coffee half-baked adj. (informal) a half-baked idea, plan, or suggestion is not sensible or intelligent enough to be successful

'half-brother n. [C] a brother who is the child of only one of your parents half-'hearted adj. a half-hearted attempt is something that you do without really trying or wanting to be successful: a half-hearted effort

'half-life n. [singular] PHYSICS the amount of time it takes for a RADIOACTIVE substance to lose half of its RADIOACTIVITY half-'mast n. fly/be at half-mast if a flag flies or is at half-mast, it is lowered to the middle of its pole because someone important has died

'half note n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note that continues for half the length of a WHOLE NOTE → QUARTER NOTE

'half-sister n. [C] a sister who is the child of only one of your parents

'half step n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the difference in PITCH between any two notes that are next to each other on a piano half-time /'hæftaɪm/ n. [U] a period of rest between two parts of a game such as football or basketball: Our team was in the lead at halftime.

H

half-way /ˈhæfˈweɪ/ adj., adv. at the middle point in space or time between two things: I fell asleep half-way through the concert. | a town half-way between Los Angeles and San Francisco | Their boat was half-way across the lake when it started to rain. | We had reached the half-way mark/point of the trail. → meet (sb) halfway at MEET¹

hal-i-but /ˈhæləbət/ n. [C,U] a large flat sea fish, or the meat from this fish hall /hɒl/ n. [C] 1 a passage in a house or building that leads to other rooms: The bathroom's just down the hall. 2 a public building or large room that is used for events such as meetings, concerts, and parties: a concert at Carnegie Hall in New York | a dance hall [ORIGIN: Old English heall]

hal-le-lu-jah /ˌhæləˈluɪə/ interjection said in order to express thanks or praise to God hall-mark /ˈhɒlmɑːk/ n. [C] 1 a quality, idea, or method that is typical of a particular person or thing: Excellent service has always been the hall-mark of this hotel. 2 an official mark put on silver, gold, or PLATINUM to prove that it is real

Hall of Fame n. (plural Halls of Fame) [C] a list of famous sports players, or a building in which the players' uniforms, sports equipment, and information about them is kept — Hall of Famer n. [C]: baseball Hall of Famer, Roger Clemens hal-lowed /ˈhæləʊd/ adj. 1 made holy: hal-lowed ground 2 respected, honored, and important: the hallowed walls of the U.S. Supreme Court

Hal-low-eeen /ˌhæləˈwiːn, ˌhɑː-/ n. [U] a holiday on the night of October 31, when children wear COSTUMES, play tricks, and walk from house to house in order to get candy → TRICK OR TREAT [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 All Hallow Even “All Saints' Eve”] hal-lu-ci-na-tion /həˌlʊsəˈneɪʃən/ n. [C,U] something you see or hear that is not really there, or the experience of this, usually caused by a drug or mental illness — hallucinate /həˈlʊsəˌneɪt/ v. [I] hal-lu-ci-no-gen-ic /həˌlʊsənəˈdʒenɪk/ adj. hallucinogenic drugs cause hallucinations hall-way /ˈhɒlweɪ/ n. [C] a HALL

ha-lo /ˈheɪləʊ/ n. (plural halos) [C] a circle of light that is painted above or around the head of a holy person in a religious painting hal-o-gen /ˈhælədʒən/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY one of a group of five simple chemical substances that make compounds easily. They are: CHLORINE, FLUORINE, IODINE, BROMINE, and ASTATINE. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Swedish, Greek hals “salt”] halogen adj. a halogen lamp/light/bulb etc. a type of lamp or LIGHT BULB that uses halogen gas to produce light halt /hɒlt/ v. [I,T] to stop or make something stop: Safety concerns have halted work on the dam.

halt n. [singular] a stop or pause: Traffic suddenly came/ground to a halt. | The project was brought to a halt (=ended) due to lack of money.

hal-ter /ˈhɒltə/ n. [C] 1 also halter top a piece of women's clothing that ties behind the neck and does not cover the arms or back 2 a rope or leather band fastened around a horse's head in order to lead it halt-ing /ˈhɒltɪŋ/ adj. stopping a lot when you move or speak, especially because you are nervous: her halting voice halve /hæv/ v. [T] 1 to reduce the amount of something by half: The number of people taking part in the 10k run has almost halved this year. 2 to cut something into two equal parts: Wash and halve the mushrooms.

halves /hævz/ n. the plural of HALF ham /hæm/ n. [C,U] meat from the upper part of a pig's leg that is preserved with salt or smoke: a ham sandwich [ORIGIN: (1) Old English ham] ham v. (hammered, hammering) ham it up (informal) to perform or behave with too much false emotion ham-burg-er /ˈhæmˌbɜːɡə/ n. 1 [U] BEEF that is ground (GRIND) into very small pieces: a pound of hamburger 2 [C] BEEF that has been ground (GRIND) into very small pieces and is then cooked in a flat round shape and eaten between pieces of round bread → CHEESEBURGER [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 German “of Hamburg,” city in Germany]

ham-let /ˈhæmlɪt/ n. [C] a very small VILLAGE

ham-mer /ˈhæmə/ n. [C] a tool with a heavy metal part on a straight handle, used for hitting nails into wood hammer v. 1 [I,T] to hit something with a hammer in order to force it into a particular position or shape: You'll have to hammer a few nails into the frame. 2 [I] to hit something again and again, making a lot of noise: They hammered on the door until I opened it.

THESAURUS hit, knock, bang, pound → HIT¹

hammer sth into sb also hammer sth home phr. v. to continue repeating something until people completely understand it: The message must be hammered home that crime doesn't pay.

hammer out sth phr. v. to finally agree on a solution, contract, etc. after arguing about details for a long time: It took several days to hammer out an agreement.

ham-mock /ˈhæmək/ n. [C] a large piece of material or a net you can sleep on that hangs between two trees or poles [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Spanish hamaca, from Taino (a Caribbean language)] ham-per /ˈhæmpə/ v. [T] to make someone have difficulty moving, doing something, or achieving something: The searches for the missing girl were hampered by the bad weather.

H

hamper² n. [C] a large basket with a lid, used for holding dirty clothes until they can be washed ham-ster /'hæmstə/ n. [C] a small animal with soft fur and no tail that is often kept as a pet → see picture at PET¹ ham-string¹ /'hæm,striŋ/ n. [C] a TENDON behind your knee hamstring² v. (past tense and past participle hamstrung /-,strʌŋ/) [T] to make a person or group have difficulty doing or achieving something: A lack of funds has hamstrung the research.

hand¹ /hænd/ n. [C]

1 BODY PART the body part at the end of a person's arm that includes the fingers and thumb, used for holding, etc. things: Go wash your hands. | I write with my right/left hand. | I saw them holding hands and kissing. | Maria took the child by the hand and led him away. | Raise your hand (=lift it up) if you know the answer. | Here's a picture of me shaking hands (=as a greeting or sign of friendship) with the mayor.

2 a hand help: Can you give/lend me a hand with this box? It's really heavy. | Do you need a hand with the cooking?

3 (on the one hand...) on the other hand used when comparing two different or opposite facts or ideas: The movie was scary, but on the other hand it made me laugh. | On the one hand, they work slowly, but on the other hand they always finish the job.

4 get out of hand to become impossible to control: The demonstration seemed to be getting out of hand.

5 in sb's hands/in the hands of sb being dealt with or cared for by someone: The decision is in your hands. | Don't worry – the children are in good hands. | Most farmland is in private hands (=owned or controlled by someone, not the government). | The decision is now in the hands of the court.

6 on hand close and ready when needed: Our staff are always on hand to help.

7 hand in hand a) holding each other's hands: They strolled hand in hand through the rose garden. b) if two things go hand in hand, they are closely connected: Wealth and power go hand in hand in most societies.

8 by hand a) done or made by a person, not a machine: The rug was made by hand. b) delivered from one person to another, not through the mail

9 out of sb's hands if something is out of your hands, you have no control over it: The decision was out of her hands.

10 get/lay your hands on sth to find or obtain something: I read every book I could get my hands on at school.

11 have a hand in sth to influence or be involved in something: He scored one goal and had a hand in two others.

12 at hand (formal) a) near in time or space: Graduation day is close at hand. b) needing to be dealt with now: Let's discuss the case at hand, shall we?

13 in hand being dealt with and controlled: Lisa seemed to have things in hand by the time he returned.

14 off your hands if someone or something is off your hands, you are not responsible for him, her, or it anymore: Once this problem is off our hands we can relax.

15 hands down easily: He would have won hands down if he hadn't hurt his knee.

16 have your hands full to be very busy or too busy: You're going to have your hands full once you have the baby!

17 give sb a (big) hand to CLAP loudly for a performer or speaker

18 CLOCK one of the long things that point to the numbers on a clock → see picture at WATCH²

19 CARDS the cards that you are holding in a game → FIRSTHAND, LEFT-HAND, RIGHT-HAND, SECONDHAND, change hands at CHANGE¹, shake sb's hand/shake hands (with sb) at SHAKE¹, wait on sb hand and foot at WAIT ON

hand² v. [T] 1 to pass something to someone else [SYN] give: Can you hand me a towel? 2 you have to hand it to sb (spoken) said when you are admiring something that someone has done: I have to hand it to you, Claire: you sure know how to cook!

hand sth ↔ back phr. v. to give something back to the person who gave it to you: Mr. Evans handed back our essays today.

hand sth ↔ down phr. v. 1 to give something to a younger relative, or to people who live after you: The ring was handed down to her from her grandmother. 2 if a court of law hands down a decision or sentence, it officially announces a decision or punishment hand sth ↔ in phr. v. to give something to someone in a position of authority: Please hand in your application by September 30.

hand sth ↔ out phr. v. to give something to everyone in a group: They were handing out free t-shirts at the concert.

THESAURUS give out, pass out, distribute

→ GIVE¹

hand over phr. v. 1 hand sth ↔ over to give something to someone with your hand, especially because s/he has asked for it or should have it: She handed the phone over to me. 2 to give someone power or responsibility over something which you used to be in charge of: He will be handing over the business to his son.

hand-bag /'hændbæg/ n. [C] a PURSE hand-book /'hændbʊk/ n. [C] a small book with instructions and information about a particular subject: an employee handbook hand-cuff /'hændkʌf/ v. [T] to put handcuffs on someone hand-cuffs /'hændkʌfs/ n. [plural] two metal rings joined by a chain, used for holding a prisoner's wrists together: Two people were arrested and taken away in handcuffs.

hand-ful /'hændfʊl/ n. [C] 1 an amount that you can hold in your hand: a handful of nuts 2 a handful of sth a small number of people or things: Only a handful of people showed up. 3 a handful (informal) someone, especially a child, who is difficult to control: She's a real handful!

'hand grenade n. [C] a small bomb that is thrown by a person rather than shot from a machine hand-gun /'hændɡʌn/ n. [C] a small gun you hold in one hand when you shoot hand-held /'hændheld/ adj. [only before noun] a handheld machine is small enough to hold in your hand when using it: a handheld computer —handheld n. [C] hand-i-cap /'hændi,kæp/ n. [C] 1 something permanently wrong with a person's mind or body: a severe physical handicap 2 something that makes it difficult for you to do or achieve something: Not being able to speak Spanish was a real handicap. [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 handicap "game in which people put their hand, holding money for a bet, into a hat" (1600—1700), from hand in cap] handicap ² v. (handicapped, handicapping) [T] to make it difficult for someone to do something that s/he wants to do: The charity is handicapped by a lack of funds.

hand-i-capped /'hændi,kæpt/ adj. 1 not able to use a part of your body or mind normally because it has been damaged. Many people think that this word is offensive → DISABLED, IMPAIRED: schools for mentally/physically handicapped children 2 the handicapped people who are mentally or physically handicapped hand-i-work /'hændi,wɜ:k/ n. [U] something that someone does or makes: The documentary is the handiwork of a respected director.

hand-ker-chief /'hæŋkətʃif, -,tʃif/ n. [C] a piece of cloth that you use for drying your nose or eyes han-dle ¹ /'hændl/ v. [T] 1 to deal with a situation or problem: The principal handled the situation very well. | The job was so stressful, he couldn't handle it any longer.

THESAURUS deal with sth, tackle, cope, take care of sth → DEAL²

2 to organize or be in charge of something: Ms. Lee handled all of our travel arrangements. 3 to pick up, hold, or touch something: Please handle this package with care. → TOUCH¹ 4 to buy, sell, or deal with particular products or services: Upton was charged with handling stolen goods.

handle ² n. [C] the part of something that is used for holding or opening it: a door handle | a knife with an ivory handle han-dle-bars /'hændl,bɜ:z/ n. [plural] the metal BARS above the front wheel of a bicycle or MOTOR-CYCLE that you turn to control the direction you go in → see picture at BICYCLE hand-ler /'hændlə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to deal with or be in charge of a particular kind of thing: baggage handlers | a police dog and its handler hand-made /'hænd'meɪd/ adj. made by a person and not a machine: handmade quilts

'hand-me-down n. [C] a piece of clothing that has been worn by someone and then given to his/her younger relative —hand-me-down adj.

hand-out /'hændaʊt/ n. [C] 1 money or food that is given to someone, usually because s/he is poor: We're not looking for a handout from the government. 2 a piece of paper with printed or copied information that is given to people in a class, meeting, etc.: Let's look at the first page of the handout.

hand-o-ver /'hænd,ʊvə/ n. [singular] the act of formally giving someone else control of a place or business: The handover of the business to his daughter has gone smoothly.

hand-picked /'hænd'pɪkt/ adj. someone who is handpicked has been carefully chosen for a particular purpose hand-set /'hændset/ n. [C] 1 the part of a telephone that you hold with your hand to your ear and mouth 2 a CELL PHONE hands-free /'hændz'fri/ adj. [only before noun] a handsfree machine is one that you operate without using your hands: a handsfree headset for your cell phone hand-shake /'hændʃeɪk/ n. [C] the action of taking someone's right hand and shaking it, usually done when people meet or leave each other: a firm handshake hands 'off interjection said when warning someone not to touch something that is yours: Hands off my cookies!

'hands-off adj. 1 a hands-off approach/attitude etc. a method, attitude, etc. taken by someone who likes to leave other people to make decisions and do all the work 2 someone who is hands-off does not like to be directly involved in a job and leaves other people to make the decisions and do all the work hand-some /'hænsəm/ adj. 1 a) a man who is handsome is attractive: He was a handsome young man. b) a woman who is handsome looks healthy and strong in an attractive way

THESAURUS attractive, good-looking, nice-looking, pretty, beautiful → ATTRACTIVE

2 a handsome gift/reward/profit a gift, etc. that is valuable or is a lot of money [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 handsome “easy to handle” (15—17 centuries), from hand]

'hands-on adj. 1 hands-on experience/training etc. experience, training, etc. that you get by doing something rather than studying it 2 someone who is hands-on likes to be involved in a job and does not let other people make all the decisions and do all the work hand-stand /'hændstænd/ n. [C] a movement in which you kick your legs up into the air so that you are upside down and supporting yourself on your hands hand to 'mouth adv. with just enough money and food to live, and nothing for the future: For years they had been living hand to mouth.

hand-writ-ing /'hænd,raɪtɪŋ/ n. [U] the way someone writes when s/he uses a pen or a pencil: She has very neat handwriting.

hand-y /'hændi/ adj. 1 useful, or simple to use: The extra key may come in handy (=be useful in the future). 2 (informal) near and easy to reach: You should always keep a first aid kit handy. 3 be handy with sth to be good at using something, especially a tool: Terry's very handy with a needle and thread.

hand-y-man /'hændi,mæn/ n. (plural handymen /-mən/) [C] someone who is good at making and repairing things

hang¹ /hæŋ/ v. (past tense and past participle hung /hʌŋ/) 1 [I,T] to put something somewhere so that its top part is fixed but its bottom part is free to move, or to be in this position: You can hang your coat in the closet. | paintings hanging on the wall 2 hang in the balance to be in a situation in which the result is not certain, and something bad may happen: The whole future of the airline is hanging in the balance. 3 leave sb/sth hanging to fail to finish something, or tell someone your decision about something: The investigation should not be left hanging. 4 [I] to stay in the air in the same place for a long time: Dark clouds hung over the valley. 5 hang your head to look ashamed and embarrassed: Kevin hung his head and left the room in silence.

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 hang in there also hang tough to remain determined to succeed in a difficult situation: Just hang in there, Midori, things will get better. 7 hang a right/left said in order to tell the driver of a car to turn right or left hang around phr. v. (informal) 1 to stay in one place without doing very much, often because you are waiting for someone: I hung around for about an hour and then left. 2 hang around with sb to spend a lot of time with someone: He's been hanging around with Rick a lot lately.

hang back phr. v. to be unwilling to say or do something, often because you are shy: Stella ran out to see what was happening, but the others hung back.

hang on phr. v. 1 (informal) to hold something tightly: Hang on, everybody, the road's pretty bumpy. 2 hang on! (spoken) said in order to tell someone to wait for you: Hang on, I'll be with you in a minute!

hang onto sb/sth phr. v. (spoken) to keep something, or continue a relationship with someone: I'd hang onto that letter. You might need it later.

hang out phr. v. (informal) to spend a lot of time at a particular place or with particular people: A lot of kids hang out at the mall.

hang up phr. v. 1 to put the telephone down at the end of a conversation: Please hang up and dial again. | She got mad and hung up on me (=put the phone down before I was finished speaking). 2 hang sth ↔ up to put something such as clothes on a hook or hanger

hang² v. (past tense and past participle hanged) [I,T] to kill someone by dropping him/her with a rope around his/her neck, as a punishment for a crime, or to die in this way: Clayton hanged himself in his prison cell. | He was hanged for the killings.

hang³ n. get the hang of sth (informal) to learn how to do something: Driving a car is hard at first, but you'll get the hang of it.

hang-ar /'hæŋə, 'hæŋgə/ n. [C] a very large building where aircraft are kept hang-er /'hæŋə/ n. [C] a thing for hanging clothes on, made of a curved piece of metal, wood, or plastic with a hook on it

'hanger-on n. (plural hangers-on) [C] (disapproving) someone who tries to spend a lot of time with important people, so that s/he can get some advantage

'hang glider n. [C] a large frame covered with cloth, that you hang from and fly slowly through the air on, without an engine

'hang gliding n. [U] the sport of flying using a hang glider hang-ing /'hæŋɪŋ/ n. [C,U] the action of killing someone by dropping him/her with a rope around his/her neck as a punishment for a crime hang-man /'hæŋmən/ n. (plural hangmen /-mən/) [C] someone whose job is to kill criminals by hanging them hang-nail /'hæŋneɪl/ n. [C] a piece of dead skin that has become loose near the bottom of your FINGERNAIL hang-out /'hæŋaʊt/ n. [C] (informal) a place that you like to go to often, especially with friends: The coffee shop is our favorite hangout.

hang-over /'hæŋ,ʊvə/ n. [C] the feeling of sickness that someone has the day after s/he has drunk too much alcohol: I have a really bad hang-over.

hang-up /'hæŋʌp/ n. [C] (informal) something that you are worried or embarrassed about: She has a lot of hang-ups about relationships.

hank-er /'hæŋkə/ v. [I] (informal) to have a very strong desire for something over a period of time: The voters seem to be hankering for change. —hankering n. [singular] han-kie, hanky /'hæŋki/ n. (plural hankies) [C] (informal) a HANDKERCHIEF han-ky-pan-ky /,hæŋki 'pæŋki/ n. [U] (informal, humorous) sexual or criminal behavior that is not very serious

Ha-nuk-kah /'hʌnəkə/ n. an eight-day Jewish holiday in December hap-haz-ard /,hæp'hæzəd/ adj. (disapproving) happening or done in a way that is not organized or planned —haphazardly adv.

hap-less /'hæplɪs/ adj. (literary) unlucky hap-loid /'hæplɔɪd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a cell that contains only one set of CHROMOSOMES and one set of GENES —haploid adj.: haploid cells

hap-pen /'hæpən/ v. [I] 1 if an event or situation happens, it exists and continues for a period of time, usually without being planned: Did anything exciting happen while I was away? | We must do all we can to prevent such a disaster ever happening again. | We'll still be friends whatever happens.

THESAURUS

Happen is mainly used to talk about things that have not been planned: A funny thing happened on my way to work. | No one knows exactly what will happen.

Take place is mainly used to talk about events that have been planned or that have already happened: The next meeting will take place on Thursday.

Occur is a formal word, used especially to say that something happens in a particular place or situation: The accident occurred around 9 pm.

2 happen to sb/sth to affect someone or something: Strange things have been happening to me lately. 3 to be the result of something you do: When I try to turn on the motor, nothing happens. | What happens if your parents find out? 4 happen to do sth to do or to have something by chance: I happened to see Hannah at the store today. 5 sb/sth happens to be sth (spoken) said when you are angry or annoyed, to add force to what you are saying: That happens to be my foot that you just stepped on! 6 as it happens/it (just) so happens (spoken) used in order to say that something happens by chance, especially when this is surprising: It just so happened that Mike and I had gone to the same school. 7 what/whatever happened to sb/sth? used in order to ask where a person or thing is now: What happened to my

blue sweater? | Whatever happened to Jenny Beale? [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 hap “chance, luck” (13–20 centuries), from Old Norse happ]

happen on/upon sb/sth phr. v. to meet someone or find something by chance: We just happened on the cabin when we were hiking one day.

hap-pen-ing¹ /'hæpənɪŋ/ adj. (informal) fashionable and exciting: a happening club happening² n. [C] something that happens: The paper has a listing of the day's happenings.

THESAURUS

event, occurrence, incident

→ EVENT

hap-pi-ly /'hæpəli/ adv. 1 in a happy way: Michelle smiled happily. | a happily married couple | Cinderella marries the prince and they live happily ever after (=for the rest of his/her life). 2 fortunately: Happily, no one was hurt in the fire. 3 very willingly: I'll happily watch the kids for you while you're gone.

hap-pi-ness /'hæpɪnɪs/ n. [U] the state of being happy: Her face was glowing with happiness. | They found happiness together at last.

hap-py /'hæpi/ adj. (comparative happier, superlative happiest) 1 feeling pleased and cheerful, often because something good has happened to you (ANT) unhappy, sad: He was a happy child. | I've never felt happier in my life. | I'm happy (that) everything worked out in the end. | I don't think he was too happy about having to stay late. | Congratulations! I'm so happy for you.

THESAURUS

glad – pleased about a situation or something that has happened: I'm so glad you were able to come.

pleased – happy and satisfied with something that has happened: Her parents were pleased that she had done so well.

content – happy and satisfied: We're usually content to stay at home and read or watch TV.

delighted/thrilled/overjoyed – extremely happy because something good has happened: We were delighted when she had a baby girl.

ecstatic – extremely happy and excited: When he heard he'd gotten the job, he was ecstatic.

jubilant (formal) – extremely happy and pleased because you have been successful: After the game, a jubilant crowd celebrated the win.

elated (formal) – extremely happy and excited: Ron was elated to hear that his wife was pregnant.

2 be happy to do sth to be willing to do something, especially to help someone else: I'll be happy to answer questions later. 3 a happy time, place, etc. is one that makes you feel pleased or happy: Those were the happiest years of my life. | They had a very happy marriage. 4 [not before noun] satisfied or not worried: Amy was not very happy with their decision. 5 Happy Birthday/New Year etc. used as a greeting, or to wish someone good luck on his/her BIRTHDAY or a special occasion

H

happy-go-lucky adj. enjoying life and not worrying about things

'happy hour n. [C,U] a short period of time when a BAR sells drinks at a lower price ha-rangue /hə'reɪŋ/ v. [T] to speak in an angry way, often for a long time, to try to persuade someone that you are right —harangue n. [C] ha-rass /hə'ræs/, 'hærəs/ v. [T] to deliberately annoy or threaten someone, often over a long period of time: They claim that they are being harassed by the police.

ha-rass-ment /hə'ræsmənt/, 'hærəs-/ n. [U] behavior that is threatening or offensive to other people: Tina accused her boss of sexual harassment.

har-bor¹ /'hɑ:bə/ n. [C,U] an area of water next to the land, where ships can stay safely harbor² v. [T] 1 to protect someone by hiding him/her from the police 2 to keep hopes, bad thoughts, or fears in your mind for a long time: Ralph harbors no bitterness toward his ex-wife.

hard¹ /hɑ:d/ adj.

1 FIRM TO TOUCH firm and stiff, and difficult to cut, press down, or break (ANT soft): I can't sleep on a hard mattress. | hard candy | The plums are still too hard to eat.

H

THESAURUS

firm – not completely hard, but not soft and not easy to bend: Brownies are done when the edges are firm but the middle is still soft.

stiff – difficult to bend or move: a piece of stiff, brightly colored cardboard solid – firm and usually hard, without spaces or holes: They blasted the tunnel through solid rock.

rigid – stiff and impossible to bend: Old airplanes had a rigid frame with cloth stretched tightly over it.

2 DIFFICULT difficult to do or understand (ANT easy): Chemistry was one of the hardest classes I've ever taken. | The print was small and hard to read. | I find it extremely hard to believe that no one saw the accident. | It was hard for me to tell him the truth. | It's hard to say (=difficult to know) when Glenn will be back.

THESAURUS

difficult, tough, awkward, challenging, demanding → DIFFICULT

3 A LOT OF EFFORT involving a lot of physical or mental effort: I had a hard day at work. | Mowing the lawn is hard work.

4 be hard on sb (informal) a) to treat someone in a way that is unfair or too strict: Don't be too hard on the children – they were only playing. b) to cause someone a lot of problems: It's hard on her, having her husband in the hospital.

5 be hard on sth (informal) to have a bad effect on something: Aspirin can be pretty hard on your stomach.

6 give sb a hard time (informal) a) to make someone feel embarrassed or uncomfortable, often by making jokes about him/her: The guys were giving him a hard time about missing the ball. b) to criticize someone a lot

7 NOT KIND showing no kindness or sympathy: Mr. Katz is a hard man to work for, but he's fair.

8 PROBLEMS full of problems, especially not enough money: Times were hard, and we were forced to sell our house. | My mother has had a hard life.

9 learn sth the hard way to learn about something by a bad experience or by making mistakes

10 no hard feelings (spoken) used in order to tell someone that you no longer feel angry with him/her

11 WATER hard water has a lot of minerals in it and does not mix easily with soap (ANT soft) [ORIGIN: Old English heard] —hardness n. [U]

hard² adv. 1 using a lot of effort: She has worked hard all her life. | We try hard to keep our customers happy. 2 with a lot of force: You need to hit the ball hard. | It's raining hard outside. 3 be hard pressed/put/pushed to do sth (informal) to have difficulty doing something: The painters will be hard pressed to finish by 6 o'clock. 4 take sth hard to feel very upset about something: I didn't know that Joe would take the news so hard.

hard-and-fast adj. hard-and-fast rules/regulations rules that cannot be changed hard-back /'hɑ:dbæk/ n. [C] a book that has a strong stiff cover → BOOK¹ hard-ball /'hɑ:dbɔ:l/ n. play hardball (informal) to be very determined to get what you want, especially in business or politics hard-boiled adj. 1 a hard-boiled egg has been boiled until it becomes solid 2 (written) not showing or influenced by your emotions (SYN tough): a hard-boiled policeman hard 'cash n. [U] paper money and coins, not checks or CREDIT CARDS

'hard copy n. [C,U] information from a computer that is printed onto paper, or the printed papers themselves hard-core /'hɑ:dkɔ:r/ adj. [only before noun] extreme, and unlikely to change: hardcore criminals hard-cover /'hɑ:d,kʌvə/ n. [C] a book that has a strong stiff cover → BOOK¹ —hardcover adj.

'hard 'currency n. [C,U] ECONOMICS money from a country that has a strong ECONOMY, that is unlikely to lose its value

'hard 'disk n. [C] IT a DISK inside a computer, used for permanently storing a large amount of information

'hard drive n. [C] IT the part of a computer where information and programs are stored, consisting of HARD DISKS and the electronic equipment that reads the information stored on them → see picture on page A6

'hard 'drugs n. [plural] very strong illegal drugs such as COCAINE

hard-en /'hɑ:dn/ v. [I,T] 1 to become firm or stiff, or to make something do this: The glue takes about an hour to harden. 2 to become less kind, less afraid, and more determined, or to make someone become this way: Leslie's face hardened, and she turned away from him. | a hardened criminal hard 'hat n. [C] a protective hat, worn by workers in places where buildings are being built → see picture at HAT hard-'headed adj. able to make difficult decisions without being influenced by your emotions hard-'hearted adj. not caring about other people's feelings hard-'hitting adj. criticizing someone or something in a strong and effective way: a hard-hitting TV documentary hard-line /,hɑ:d'laɪn/ adj. unwilling to change your extreme political opinions: hardline conservatives —hardliner n. [C]

hard 'liquor n. [U] strong alcohol such as WHISKY hard-ly /'hɑ:dlɪ/ adv. 1 almost not or almost none: I hardly know the people I'm working with. | The children were so excited they could hardly speak. | Hardly anyone (=very few people) goes to the old theater anymore. | Katy is hardly ever (=almost never) at home. 2 (formal) used in order to say that something is not at all true, surprising, etc.: It's hardly surprising that she won't answer his calls after the way he's treated her. | You can hardly blame Tom for not waiting.

hard-'nosed adj. not affected by emotions, and determined to get what you want: a hard-nosed negotiator hard of 'hearing adj. [not before noun] unable to hear well hard-'pressed adj. having a lot of problems and not enough money or time: The program is meant to help hard-pressed families with young children.

hard 'rock n. [U] loud ROCK music hard 'sell n. [singular] a way of selling in which someone tries very hard to persuade you to buy something hard-ship /'hɑ:dʃɪp/ n. [C,U] something that makes your life difficult, especially the condition of having very little money: Many families were suffering economic hardship. | the hardships of war hard 'up adj. (informal) not having much money: Scott was pretty hard up, so I gave him $20.

hard-ware /'hɑ:dwɛr/ n. [U] 1 IT computer machinery and equipment, as opposed to the programs that make computers work → SOFTWARE 2 equipment and tools you use in your home and yard: a hardware store (=where you can buy these things) hard-'wired adj. IT computer systems that are hard-wired are controlled by HARDWARE rather than SOFTWARE and cannot be easily changed by the user hard-wood /'hɑ:dwud/ n. [C,U] strong heavy wood used for making furniture, or a type of tree that produces this kind of wood → SOFTWOOD hard-'working adj. working seriously with a lot of effort, and not wasting time (ANT) lazy: a hard-working student har-dy /'hɑ:di/ adj. strong and healthy and able to live through difficult conditions: hardy plants hare /hɛr/ n. [C] an animal like a rabbit, but larger, with longer ears and longer back legs hare-brained /'hɛrbreɪnd/ adj. not sensible or practical: a harebrained scheme hare-lip /'hɛr,lɪp/ n. [singular, U] the condition of having a top lip that is divided into two parts har-em /'hɛrəm, 'hærəm/ n. [C] 1 the group of wives or women who lived with a rich or powerful man in some Muslim societies in past times 2 the rooms in a Muslim home where the women live hark /hɑ:k/ also hark-en /'hɑ:kən/ v.

hark/harken back to sth phr. v. to remember or to remind people of something from the past: The band's music harks back to the 1950s.

har-lot /'hɑ:lət/ n. [C] (literary) a PROSTITUTE

harm¹ /hɑ:m/ n. [U] 1 damage, injury, or trouble caused by someone's actions or by an event: Some chemicals cause harm to the environment. | Just give it a taste; it won't do you any harm. | Trying to lose weight can do more harm than good (=cause problems). 2 there's no harm in doing sth used in order to suggest that doing something may be helpful or useful: There's no harm in asking. 3 not mean any harm used in order to say that even though someone hurt or upset someone else, this was not his/her intention: I'm sure he didn't mean any harm. 4 no harm done (spoken) said in order to tell someone that you are not upset by what s/he has done or said: "I'm sorry." "That's OK; no harm done."

harm² v. [T] to damage or hurt something: Too much sun will harm your skin.

harm-ful /'hɑ:mfəl/ adj. causing harm, or likely to cause harm: the harmful effects of pollution | Some pesticides are harmful to the environment.

THESAURUS

poisonous/toxic – containing a substance that can kill you or make you sick if you eat it, breathe it, etc.: a poisonous snake | toxic fumes detrimental (formal) – harmful or damaging to something: Fatty foods are detrimental to your health.

damaging – having a bad effect on someone or something: the damaging effects of alcohol on the brain destructive – causing something to be destroyed: If the herd is too big, deer can be very destructive to woodlands.

deleterious (formal) – damaging or harmful: the deleterious effects of smoking harm-less /'hɑ:mlɪs/ adj. 1 unable or unlikely to hurt anyone or cause damage: harmless bacteria 2 not likely to upset or offend anyone: harmless fun —harmlessly adv.

har-mon-i-ca /hər'mɒnɪkə/ n. [C] a small musical instrument that you play by blowing into it and moving it from side to side har-mo-nize /'hɑrmənaɪz/ v. [I] 1 to work well or look good together: Choose clothes that harmonize with your coloring. 2 to sing or play music in harmony har-mo-ny /'hɑrməni/ n. (plural harmonies) 1 [U] a situation in which people are friendly and peaceful, and agree with each other: The students lived/worked together in harmony. 2 [C,U] combinations of musical notes that sound good together: four-part harmony —harmonious /hər'moʊniəs/ adj.

har-ness¹ /'hɑrnɪs/ n. 1 [C,U] a set of leather bands fastened with metal, used in order to control a horse and attach it to a vehicle that it pulls 2 [C] a set of bands that is used to hold someone in a place, or to stop him/her from falling: a safety harness

harness² v. [T] 1 to control and use the natural force or power of something: a dam to harness the power of the river 2 to fasten two animals together, or to fasten an animal to something using a harness

H

harp¹ /hɑrp/ n. [C] a large musical instrument with strings stretched on a frame with three corners —harpist n. [C] harp² v.

harp on sth phr. v. (informal, disapproving) to talk about something again and again, in a way that is annoying or boring: My parents are always harping on my boyfriend's faults.

har-poon /hɑr'pu:n/ n. [C] a weapon used for hunting WHALES harp-si-chord /'hɑrpsɪkɔrd/ n. [C] a musical instrument like a piano, used especially in CLASSICAL MUSIC har-row-ing /'hæroʊɪŋ/ adj. (formal) a harrowing sight or experience is one that frightens, shocks, or upsets you very much harsh /hɑrʃ/ adj. 1 harsh conditions are difficult to live in and very uncomfortable: harsh Canadian winters | the harsh realities of war 2 too loud or too bright, and making you feel uncomfortable: a harsh voice | the harsh street lights 3 unkind, cruel, or strict: harsh criticism | He had harsh words for the way the mayor has handled the issue. —harshly adv. —harshness n. [U]

har-vest¹ /'hɑrvɪst/ n. 1 [C,U] the time when crops are gathered from the fields, or the act of gathering them: It was harvest time. | the wheat harvest 2 [C] the size or quality of the crops: a good harvest

harvest² v. [T] to gather crops from the fields has /z, s, əz, həz; strong hæz/ v. the third person singular of the present tense of HAVE

'has-been n. [C] (informal) someone who was important or popular, but who has been forgotten hash¹ /hæʃ/ n. 1 [C,U] a dish made with cooked meat and potatoes 2 [U] (informal) hashish hash² v.

hash sth ↔ out phr. v. to discuss something very thoroughly and carefully: It took them a long time to hash out a compromise.

hash 'browns n. [plural] potatoes that have been cut into very small pieces, pressed together, and cooked in oil hash-ish /'hæʃɪʃ, hæ'ʃɪʃ/ n. [U] a form of the drug MARIJUANA has-n't /'hæzənt/ v. the short form of "has not": She hasn't seen Bruce in seven years.

has-sle¹ /'hæsəl/ n. 1 [C,U] something that is annoying because it causes problems, or is difficult to do: Driving downtown is just too much hassle. | legal hassles

THESAURUS problem, difficulty, trouble → PROBLEM

2 [C] (informal) an argument: I've had a few hassles with the management.

hassle² v. [T] (informal) to ask someone again and again to do something, in a way that is annoying: She just kept hassling me to get a summer job.

haste /heɪst/ n. [U] 1 great speed in doing something, especially because you do not have enough time: In her haste to get to the airport, Pam forgot the tickets. 2 in haste quickly or in a hurry 3 haste makes waste used in order to say that if you do something too quickly, it will not turn out well has-ten /'heɪsən/ v. (formal) 1 [T] to make something happen faster or sooner: The popularity of radio hastened the end of silent movies. 2 hasten to do sth to do or say something quickly or without delay

THESAURUS rush, speed → RUSH¹

hast-y /'heɪsti/ adj. (formal) done in a hurry, especially with bad results: a hasty decision —hastily adv.: a hastily written speech

THESAURUS impulsive, rash, impetuous → IMPULSIVE hat /hæt/ n. [C] 1 a piece of clothing that you wear on your head: a big straw hat | a cowboy hat 2 keep sth under your hat to keep information secret 3 throw/toss your hat into the ring to officially announce that you will compete or take part in a competition hatch¹ /hætʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] if an egg hatches or is hatched, it breaks and a baby bird, fish, or insect is born 2 [l] also hatch out to break through an egg in order to be born hatch² n. [C] a hole in a ship or aircraft, used for loading goods, or the door that covers it hatch-back /'hætʃbæk/ n. [C] a car with a door at the back that opens up hatch-et /'hætʃɪt/ n. [C] 1 a small AX with a short handle 2 do a hatchet job on sb (informal) to criticize someone severely and often unfairly → bury the hatchet at BURY hate¹ /heit/ v. [T] 1 to dislike someone or something very much: She hated my father. | I really hate spinach. | Tony hates it when people are late.

THESAURUS

can't stand – to hate someone or something: I can't stand being late.

detest/loathe (formal) – to hate someone or something very much: I was going out with a boy my mother detested.

despise – to hate someone very much and not respect him/her at all: She despised her neighbors.

abhor (formal) – to hate something because you think it is morally wrong: He abhors violence of any kind. → LOVE¹

2 I hate to think what/how (spoken) used when you feel sure that something would have a bad result: I hate to think what would happen if Joe got lost. 3 hate sb's guts (informal) to hate someone very much [ORIGIN: Old English hete] —hated adj.

hate² n. [U] an angry feeling of wanting to harm someone you dislike: a look of hate

'hate crime n. [C] a crime that is committed against someone only because s/he belongs to a particular race, religion, etc.

hate-ful /'hɛtʃfəl/ adj. very bad or unkind: a hateful thought ha-tred /'heɪtrɪd/ n. [U] (formal) HATE: his hatred of racism

haugh-ty /'hɔːti/ adj. (literary, disapproving) proud and unfriendly —haughtily adv.

THESAURUS proud, conceited, arrogant, stuck-up → PROUD haul¹ /hɔːl/ v. [T] to carry or pull something heavy: Trucks hauled cement to the site.

THESAURUS carry, tote, lug, cart → CARRY pull, tug, drag → PULL¹

haul sb off phr. v. (informal) to take someone somewhere s/he does not want to go: Dave got hauled off to jail.

haul² n. 1 [C] a large amount of illegal or stolen goods that are found by the police: a huge drugs haul 2 the long haul the long time that it takes to achieve something difficult: 'We're in this for the long haul,' said a government source. 3 a long haul a long distance to travel haunch /hɒntʃ, hantʃ/ n. 1 haunches [plural] the part of your body at the back between your waist and legs: They squatted on their haunches playing dice. 2 [C] one of the back legs of a four-legged animal, especially when it is used as meat haunt¹ /hɒnt, hant/ v. [T] 1 if the spirit of a dead person haunts a place, it appears there often: The story is that the ship is haunted by ghosts of sea captains. 2 if something haunts you, you keep remembering it or being affected by it, although you do not want this: It's the kind of decision that comes back to haunt you later.

haunt² n. [C] a place that someone likes to go to often: Dan went back to visit his favorite old haunts.

haunt-ed /'hɒntɪd, 'hæn-/ adj. a place that is haunted is one where the spirits of dead people are believed to live: a haunted house haunt-ing /'hɒntɪŋ, 'hæn-/ adj. sad, beautiful, and staying in your thoughts for a long time: a haunting memory —hauntingly adv.

have¹ /v, əv, həv; strong hæv/ auxiliary verb (past tense and past participle had, third person singular has) 1 used with the past participle of a verb to make the perfect tenses: Yes, I've read the book. | Have you seen the new Disney movie? | She had lived in Peru for 30 years. | Rick has not been honest with us. 2 used with some MODAL VERBS and a past participle to make a past MODAL: Carrie should have been nicer. | I must've left my wallet at home. 3 had better used in order to give advice, or to say what is the best thing to do: You'd better take the popcorn off the stove or it'll burn. | I'd better not go out tonight – I'm too tired. 4 have had it (spoken) a) said when someone or something is old, broken, or not good any longer: I think the car has had it. It wouldn't start this morning. b) I've had it with said when you are so annoyed by someone or something that you do not want to deal with him, her, or it any longer: I've had it with the noise here. Let's go! [ORIGIN: Old English habban] have² /hæv/ v. [T not in passive]

1 FEATURES/QUALITIES used when saying what someone or something looks like, or what qualities or features he, she, or it possesses: Rudy has brown eyes and dark hair. | My mother grew up in a house that didn't have an indoor toilet. | Japan has a population of over 120 million.

2 OWN OR USE to own something, or be able to use something: Kurt had a nice bike, but it got stolen. | The school doesn't have room for any more students. | We don't have enough money for a washing machine. | Dad, can I have the car tonight?

THE SAURUS

own, possess → OWN²

3 have got used instead of "have" to mean "possess": I've got four tickets to the opera.

4 EAT/DRINK to eat, drink, or smoke something: Do you want to come have a beer with us? | We're having steak for dinner tonight. | What time do you usually have lunch/breakfast/dinner?

5 EXPERIENCE/DO to experience or do something: I have a meeting in 15 minutes. | The kids will have fun at the circus. | Her secretary had trouble/problems with the copy machine.

6 RECEIVE to receive something: Jenny! You have a phone call! | I'm sure he had help from his father on his homework.

7 IN A POSITION/STATE to put or keep something in a particular position or state: He had his eyes closed. | Why do you always have the TV on so loud?

8 may I have/can I have/I'll have (spoken) said when you are asking for something: I'll have two hot dogs to go, please. | Could I have that pencil, please?

9 SELL/MAKE AVAILABLE to sell something, or make it available for people to use: Do they have lawn mowers at Sears? | The other pool has a water slide.

10 FAMILY/FRIENDS ETC to know or be related to someone: She has six brothers. | Chris has a friend who lives in Malta.

11 AMOUNT OF TIME also have got to be allowed a particular amount of time to do something: You have 30 minutes to finish the test.

12 have time if you have time to do something, there is nothing else that you must do at that particular time: Do you have time to come and have a cup of coffee with us?

13 BE SICK/INJURED to become sick with a particular illness, or be injured in a particular way: Sheila had the flu for a week. | He has a broken leg.

14 CARRY WITH YOU to be carrying something with you: Do you have your knife? | How much money do you have on you?

15 IDEA/THOUGHT to think of something, or realize something: Listen, I have an idea.

16 have sth ready/done etc. to make something ready, or finish something: They promised to have it done by Friday.

17 GIVE BIRTH to give birth: Sasha had twins!

18 have your hair cut/have your house painted etc. to employ someone to cut your hair, paint your house, etc.

19 GUESTS to be with someone, or be visited by someone: Sorry, I didn't realize you had guests. | Barry had an Australian guy with him.

20 have an influence/effect etc. to influence someone or something, or cause a particular effect: Folk songs had a great influence on his music.

21 have nothing against used in order to say that you do not dislike someone or something: I have nothing against hard work, but 80 hours a week is too much. → be had at HAD have on phr. v.

1 have sth on to be wearing something: Marty had a blue shirt on.

2 have sth on sb to know about something bad someone has done: Do the police have anything on him?

ha·ven /'heɪvən/ n. [C,U] a place where people go to be safe: a haven for refugees have-n't /'hævənt/ v. the short form of "have not": We haven't tried Indian food yet. ▶ Don't say "haven't to."

have to /'hæftə; strong 'hæftu/ also have got to /v 'gʌtə, əv-, həv-/ modal verb 1 to be forced to do something because someone makes you do it, or because a situation makes it necessary: We don't have to answer their questions. | Susan hates having to get up early. | I've got to go now. I'm already late! 2 used when saying that it is important that something happens: You'll have to be nice to Aunt Lynn. 3 used when telling someone how to do something: First you have to take the wheel off. 4 used when saying that you are sure that something will happen or is true: He has to be stuck in traffic – he wouldn't be late otherwise.

GRAMMAR

have to, have got to, must have to – used when a rule, law, situation, etc. forces you to do something and you do not have a choice about it: You have to pay tax on your income (=because the law says it is necessary). | We have to be at the airport by 5:30 (=because the plane will leave soon after that time).

must – used especially in more formal writing when a law or person in authority forces you to do something: All visitors must report to reception.

must – used when you make yourself do something because you think it is a good idea or necessary: You must come to Boston! (=because we want to see you and we think it would be a good idea) | I must study for tomorrow's test (=because I know it is a good idea if I want to do well).

have got to – used in spoken English instead of have to or must to emphasize how important it is to do something: I've got to be back by 8:00.

hav·oc /'hævək/ n. [U] a situation in which there is a lot of confusion and damage: The bus strike caused/created havoc in the city's streets. | The war will wreak havoc on the country's economy. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Anglo-French, Old French havot “destruction, disorder”]

hawk¹ /hɒk/ v. [T] to try to sell goods by carrying them around and talking about them —hawker n.

hawk² n. [C] a large wild bird that eats small birds and animals hay /heɪ/ n. [U] a type of long grass that has been cut and dried, used as food for farm animals → STRAW → hit the hay *at HIT*¹

'hay, fever n. [U] a medical condition like a bad COLD, caused by breathing in POLLEN (=dust from plants) → ALLERGY

hay-ride /'heɪraɪd/ n. [C] an organized ride in a CART filled with hay, usually as part of a social event hay-stack /'heɪstæk/ n. [C] a large firmly built pile of hay hay-wire /'heɪwaɪə/ adj. go haywire (informal) to start working in completely the wrong way: My computer's going haywire again.

haz-ard¹ /'hæzəd/ n. [C] 1 something that may be dangerous or cause accidents, problems, etc.: a health hazard | the hazards of starting your own business

THESAURUS danger, risk, threat → DANGER

2 occupational hazard a problem or risk that cannot be avoided in the job that you do [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French hasard “game of chance played with dice,” from Arabic az-zahr “the chance”] —hazardous adj.: hazardous waste from factories hazard² v. [T] to say something that is only a suggestion or guess: I don't know, but I could hazard a guess.

haze /heɪz/ n. [U] smoke, dust, etc. in the air that is difficult to see through → HAZY, FOG, SMOG: There was a gray haze of smoke over the mountains.

ha-zel /'heɪzəl/ adj. eyes that are hazel are greenish-brown ha-zel-nut /'heɪzəl,nʌt/ n. [C] a sweet round nut haz-ing /'heɪzɪŋ/ n. [C,U] the activity of making people who want to join a club or FRATERNITY do silly or dangerous things before they can join haz-y /'heɪzi/ adj. 1 air that is hazy is not clear because there is a lot of smoke, dust, or mist in it: a hazy sky 2 an idea, memory, etc. that is hazy is not clear: My memories of that night are a little hazy.

he /i/; strong hi/ pron. a male person or animal that has already been mentioned or is already known about: “Does Matt still work here?” “No, he works in Ohio now.” | How old is he? | He's (=he is) my brother. [ORIGIN: Old English]

head¹ /hed/ n.

1 TOP OF BODY [C] the top part of your body that has your eyes, mouth, etc. in it: He turned his head to kiss her. → see picture on page A3

COLLOCATIONS

turn your head – to look at something shake your head (=move it from side to side) – to disagree or say “no” nod your head (=move it up and down) – to agree or say “yes” raise/lift your head – to look up bend/lower your head – to look down bow your head (=move it down) – to show respect for someone hang your head (=lower it and keep it lowered) – if you are ashamed scratch your head (=rub it with your fingers) – if you are thinking hard → HAIR, EYE¹

2 MIND [C] your mind: Phil has some strange ideas in his head. | Ann has a good head for math (=she is good at doing math). | Why don't you use your head (=think carefully and sensibly) to find a solution? | I wish he'd get it into his head (=realize or understand) that school is important.

3 LEADER [C] the leader or most important person in a group or organization: the head of the biology department | the head waiter

THESAURUS chief, supervisor, foreman, forewoman → BOSS¹

H

4 POSITION [singular] the top or front of something, or the most important part of it: Edgar sat proudly at the head of the table (=at the end where the most important people sit).

5 ON A TOOL [C] the widest or top part of something such as a piece of equipment or a tool: a shower head

6 PLANT [C] the top part of a plant with a lot of leaves: a head of lettuce/cabbage

7 (from) head to toe/foot over your whole body: The kids were covered from head to toe in mud.

8 put your heads together (spoken) to discuss a difficult problem together: If we put our heads together, we'll think of a way.

9 go over sb's head a) to be too difficult for someone to understand: Most of the lecture went way over my head. b) to ask a more important person to deal with something than the person you would normally ask

10 keep/lose your head to behave reasonably or stupidly in a difficult situation: I guess I just lost my head for a minute.

11 go to sb's head a) to make someone feel more important than s/he really is: It's too bad Dave let his promotion go to his head. b) to make someone quickly feel slightly drunk

12 come to a head if a problem comes to a head, it becomes worse and you have to do something about it immediately: The situation came to a head when the workers went on strike.

13 heads up! (spoken) used in order to warn people that something is falling from above, or that something is being thrown to them

14 keep your head above water to just manage to live or keep your business working when you have money problems

15 laugh/shout/scream etc. your head off (informal) to laugh, shout, etc. very loudly

16 head over heels (in love) loving someone very much

17 COIN heads [U] the side of a coin that has a picture of a head on it (ANT tails [ORIGIN: Old English heafod] → see also BIGHEADED, REDHEAD

head² v. 1 [I,T] to go or make something go in a particular direction: Where were they heading when you saw them? | A boat was heading toward/for the shore. | Roz headed the car down the hill. 2 [T] to be in charge of a government, organization, or group: The committee is headed by Jake Wilson. | Most single-parent families are headed by women. 3 be heading/headed for sth if you are heading for a situation, it is likely to happen: They're heading for trouble. 4 be headed if a list, page, etc. is headed with particular words, those words are at the top: The longest list was headed "Problems."

head sb/sth ↔ off phr. v. to stop someone going in a particular direction by moving in front of him/her: We'll try to head them off at the next intersection.

H

head-ache /'hedək/ n. [C] 1 a pain in your head: I have a bad headache. 2 (informal) an annoying or worrying problem: Balancing the checkbook is always a headache.

head-band /'hedbənd/ n. [C] a band that you wear around your head to keep your hair off your face head count, head-count /'hedkaunt/ n. [C] (usually singular) the process of counting the number of people in a particular place or event, or the actual number: Hal did a quick head count before the meeting began.

head-dress /'hed-dres/ n. [C] something that someone wears on his/her head for decoration on a special occasion head-er /'hedə/ n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS information at the top of a page, especially things such as page numbers or the titles that appear on each page in a document 2 IT information at the beginning of an EMAIL message that shows when it was written or sent, who wrote or sent it, etc. 3 a shot in SOCCER made by hitting the ball with your head head-first /,hed'fəst/ adv. moving or falling forward with your head going first: He fell down the stairs headfirst.

head-gear /'hedgɪr/ n. [U] hats and similar things that you wear on your head head-hunt-er /'hed,hʌntə/ n. [C] someone who finds people with the right skills and experience to do a particular job head-ing /'hedɪŋ/ n. [C] the title written at the top of a piece of writing head-land /'hedlənd, -lənd/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES an area of land that sticks out from the coast into the ocean head-light /'hedlaɪt/ n. [C] one of the large lights at the front of a vehicle: She flashed her headlights (=quickly turned them on and off) at me.

head-line /'hedlaɪn/ n. [C] 1 the title of a newspaper article, printed in large letters above the article 2 make (the) headlines to do something important, shocking, or new, so that newspapers, television shows, etc. talk about you: The attacks made headlines around the world.

head-long /'hedlɒŋ, 'hed'ləŋ/ adj. adv. 1 without thinking carefully: They rushed headlong into marriage. 2 falling or moving quickly with your head going first: He fell headlong from the window.

head-mas-ter /'hed,mæstə/, head-mis-tress /'hed,mɪstrɪs/ n. [C] a PRINCIPAL in a private school head of 'state n. (plural heads of state) [C] POLITICS the main representative of a country, such as a queen, king, or president head-'on adv. 1 meet/hit/crash etc. head-on if two vehicles meet or hit head-on, the front part of one vehicle comes toward or hits the front part of the other vehicle 2 if you deal with someone or something head-on, you deal with him, her, or it in a direct and determined way: She intended to face her difficulties head-on. —head-on adj.: a head-on crash head-phones

/'hedfəʊnz/ n. [plural] a piece of equipment that you wear over your ears to listen to a radio or recording → EAR-PHONES

head-quar-ters

/'hed,kwɔ:təz/ n. [plural] 1 a building or office that is the center of a large organization, or the center of a particular activity: the corporation's global headquarters in New York 2 also HQ the place from which military operations are controlled head-rest /'hɛd-rɛst/ n. [C] the top part of a chair or seat that supports the back of your head head-room /'hɛd-rʊm/ n. [U] the amount of space above your head inside a car

Head 'Start n. POLITICS a government program for poor children, that helps prepare them to start school and that gives families advice about health and about other programs that may help them head 'start n. [C] the advantage you gain in a particular activity by starting before other people: We should give the younger kids a head start in the race.

head-stone /'hɛdstoʊn/ n. [C] a GRAVESTONE head-strong /'hɛdstrɒŋ/ adj. very determined to do what you want, even when other people advise you not to do it: a headstrong child

head-to-'head adj., adv. directly competing with another person or group: The new sitcom will go head-to-head with the top-rated show on Thursday nights. | head-to-head competition head-wa-ters /'hɛd,wɔ:təz/ n. [plural] EARTH SCIENCES the place or places where a stream starts, before it flows into a river head-way /'hɛdweɪ/ n. make headway to make progress toward achieving something even when you have difficulties (SYN) make progress: They have made little headway in the peace talks.

head-wind /'hɛd,wɪnd/ n. [C] a wind that blows directly toward you when you are moving head-y /'hɛdi/ adj. (written) exciting in a way that makes you feel you can do anything: the heady days of our youth heal /hiːl/ v. 1 [I] if a wound or broken bone heals, it becomes healthy again: The scratch on her finger healed quickly. 2 [T] to cure someone who is ill, or make a wound get better [ORIGIN: Old English hælan]

health /hɛlθ/ n. [U] 1 the general condition of your body, and how healthy you are: You should take better care of your health. | a 68-year-old man in good health | serious health problems 2 the state of being without illness or disease: I wish you health and happiness. 3 how successful an ECONOMY, business, or organization is [ORIGIN: Old English hælh, from hal "healthy, unhurt, complete"] health care, health-care /'hɛlθkɛr/ n. [U] the service of taking care of the health of all the people in a country or area: the high cost of health care

'health club n. [C] a place where people go to exercise that you have to pay to use

'health food n. [C,U] food that contains only natural substances health-ful /'hɛlθfəl/ adj. (written) likely to make you healthy health-y /'hɛlθi/ adj. 1 physically strong and not likely to become sick: a healthy baby girl | Rachel's always been perfectly healthy.

THESAURUS

well – healthy, used especially when describing how someone feels or looks: I'm not feeling very well.

fine (spoken) – healthy, used when someone has asked you how you feel and you are replying that you feel well: "Hi, Tom, how are you?" "Fine, thanks."

better – less sick than you were, or no longer sick: I'm feeling a lot better now.

in (good) shape – in a good state of health and physically strong: Jogging keeps me in pretty good shape.

physically fit – healthy and having a strong body: Even kids need exercise to be physically fit.

2 good for your body or your mind: a healthy diet/lifestyle | It's not healthy for her to depend on him like that. 3 successful and likely to stay that way: a healthy economy/business 4 (informal) fairly large or noticeable: She seems to have a healthy appetite. | a healthy increase in sales | Reed has a healthy respect for rattlesnakes. 5 showing that you are healthy: healthy skin — healthiness n. [U]

heap¹ /hip/ n. [C] 1 a large messy pile of things: a heap of newspapers | His clothes lay in a heap by the bed.

THESAURUS

pile, mound, stack → PILE¹

2 (informal) an old car that is in bad condition heap² v. [T] 1 to put a lot of things on top of each other in a messy way: Magazines were heaped on the table. 2 be heaped with sth to have a lot of things on top of something: He held a plate heaped with food.

heap-ing /'hiptɪŋ/ adj. a heaping measurement of food is slightly more than the tool it is being measured with can hold: two heaping teaspoons of sugar

hear /hɪr/ v. (past tense and past participle heard /hɜ:d/) 1 [I,T] to know that a sound is being made, using your ears: I love to hear the baby laugh like that. | Didn't you hear when I called you?

THESAURUS

If a sound is drowned out by something, it prevents you from hearing the sound: His voice was drowned out by the traffic.

If someone cannot hear you because s/he is very far away from you, s/he is out of earshot: "What are we going to do if you lose your job?" I asked John, as soon as the children were out of earshot. If someone is close enough to hear what you say, s/he is within earshot.

If someone says something under his/her breath, s/he makes a rude or angry statement very quietly because s/he does not want anyone to hear him/her: "You rat," he muttered under his breath.

H

If someone is inaudible, s/he speaks so quietly that you cannot hear him/her: Her reply was inaudible.
 If someone is not able to hear very well because of a physical problem with his/her ears, you can say that s/he is hard of hearing or hearing impaired: My grandmother's a little hard of hearing.
 If someone is deaf, s/he is not able to hear anything at all.
 You hear a noise or something that someone says, often without trying to: Did you hear that noise? | I could hear the phone ringing.
 If you listen to words, sounds, or music, you pay attention to them: I enjoy watching movies and listening to music. | She listened carefully to his advice. → SEE

2 [T] to listen to music that is being played, to what someone is saying, etc.: I heard a great song on the radio. | You should at least hear what she has to say. 3 [I,T] to be told or find out a piece of information: Have you heard about the new project? | "Mark's going to law school." "So I've heard" (=said when you already know about something). 4 hear a case to listen to what is said in a court of law, and make a decision: The case will be heard on July 16. 5 (do) you hear (me)? (spoken) said when you are giving someone an order and want to be certain that s/he will obey you: Be home by ten, you hear? [ORIGIN: Old English hieran]

H

hear from sb phr. v. to get news or information from someone, usually by letter: Have you heard from Jane yet?

hear of sb/sth phr. v. have heard of sb/sth to know that someone or something exists because you have been told about him, her, or it: "Do you know a guy named Phil Merton?" "I've never heard of him."

hear sb out phr. v. to listen to all of someone's explanation for something, without interrupting: Look, I know you're mad, but at least hear me out.

hear-ing /'hɪrɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] the sense that you use to hear sounds: My hearing's not as good as it used to be. 2 [C] a meeting of a court or special committee to find out the facts about a case

'hearing aid n. [C] a small thing that you put in your ear if you cannot hear well, to make sounds louder

'hearing-impaired adj. unable to hear well
—the hearing-impaired n. [plural]

hear-say /'hɪrseɪ/ n. [U] something that you have heard about from other people, but do not know to be true → GOSSIP: Her opinions are based mainly on rumors and hearsay.

hearse /hɜːs/ n. [C] a large car in which a dead body in a CASKET is carried to or from a funeral [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French herce "frame for holding candles, farm tool for breaking up soil," from Latin hirpex] heart /hɑːt/ n.

1 BODY [C] BIOLOGY the body part inside a person's or animal's chest that pumps blood through the body: He could feel his heart beating faster. | Dad's had some heart trouble this year.

2 EMOTIONS [C,U] the part of you that is able to feel strong emotions such as love: I knew in my heart that I wouldn't see her again. | I loved her with all my heart.

3 SHAPE [C] a shape used for representing love

4 the heart of sth a) the main or most important part of something: We talked for hours before we got to the heart of the problem/matter. b) [singular] the middle or the busiest part of an area: a big hotel in the heart of the city

5 a sth at heart if you are a particular type of person at heart, that is the type of person you really are: Bob can seem tough, but he's really a sweet guy at heart.

6 know/learn/recite etc. sth by heart to correctly remember or say all of something that you have been taught, without needing to read it

7 GAME [C usually plural] a playing card with one or more red heart shapes on it → see picture at PLAYING CARD

8 sb's heart sank used in order to say that someone suddenly became very sad or disappointed: Nick's heart sank when he heard the news.

9 do sth to your heart's content to do something as much as you want to: You can go sailing to your heart's content at the resort.

10 -hearted having a particular type of character: a kind-hearted old lady

11 have a heart of gold to be very generous and kind

12 take/lose heart to begin to have more hope, or to stop having hope [ORIGIN: Old English heorte] → cross my heart (and hope to die) at CROSS¹ heart-ache /ˈhɑːtək/ n. [U] a strong feeling of sadness heart at tack n. [C] a serious medical condition in which a person's heart suddenly stops working: Jo's dad had a heart attack last year.

heart-beat /ˈhɑːtˌbit/ n. [C usually singular] the action or the sound of a heart pumping blood through the body heart-break /ˈhɑːtˌbreɪk/ n. [U] a strong feeling of sadness and disappointment heart-break-ing /ˈhɑːtˌbreɪkɪŋ/ adj. making you feel very upset: a heartbreaking story heart-bro-ken /ˈhɑːtˌbrʊkən/ adj. very sad because someone or something has disappointed you heart-burn /ˈhɑːtˌbɜːn/ n. [U] a slightly painful burning feeling in your stomach or chest caused by INDIGESTION heart disease n. [U] a medical condition in which a person's heart has difficulty pumping blood heart-ened /ˈhɑːtˌnd/ adj. feeling happier and more hopeful (ANT) disheartened —hearten v. [T] heart-en-ing /ˈhɑːtˌnɪŋ/ adj. making you feel happier and full of hope (ANT) disheartening: heartening news heart failure n. [U] the failure of the heart to continue working, which causes death heart-felt /ˈhɑːtˌfelt/ adj. felt very strongly and sincerely: heartfelt thanks hearth /hɑːθ/ n. [C] the part of the floor around a FIREPLACE heart-i-ly /ˈhɑːtli/ adv. 1 loudly and cheerfully: He laughed heartily. 2 very much or completely: I heartily agree with you.

heart-land /ˈhɑːtlænd/ n. the heartland the part of a country where most of the food is produced and where people live in a way that represents the basic values of that country heart-less /ˈhɑːtlɪs/ adj. cruel or unkind heart-rend-ing /ˈhɑːtˌrendɪŋ/ adj. making you feel great pity: heartrending sobs heart-strings /ˈhɑːtˌstriŋz/ n. tug/pull on sb's heartstrings to make someone feel a lot of pity or love heart-throb /ˈhɑːtθrəb/ n. [C] (humorous) a famous person whom many young people feel romantic love for: a picture of the latest teen heartthrob heart-to-'heart n. [C usually singular] a conversation in which two people honestly express their feelings or opinions about something: I sat down and had a heart-to-heart with Emily. —heart-to-heart adj.

heart-warm-ing /ˈhɑːtˌwɔːmɪŋ/ adj. making you feel happy, calm, and hopeful: a heartwarming story heart-wood /ˈhɑːtˌwʊd/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the older harder wood at the center of a tree which provides support but does not carry any SAP heart-y /ˈhɑːti/ adj. 1 very cheerful and friendly: a hearty laugh 2 a hearty meal or APPETITE is very large

heat¹ /hit/ n. 1 [U] warmth or the quality of being hot: heat generated by the sun 2 [U] very hot weather: I can't work in this heat. | The heat has been almost unbearable. 3 [U] the system in a house that keeps it warm, or the warmth that comes from this system: Can you turn the heat on/off? | houses with no heat or electricity 4 the heat of the moment/argument etc. the period in a situation, argument, etc. when you feel extremely angry or excited: In the heat of the moment, I said some things I didn't mean. 5 take the heat to deal with difficulties in a situation, especially by saying that you are responsible for them: Coach Brown had to take the heat for the team's loss in the press. 6 [C] one of the parts of a sports competition from which the winners are chosen to go on to the next part 7 in heat if a female animal is in heat, she is able to become PREGNANT 8 [U] energy that moves from one object to another when there is a difference in temperature between the objects [ORIGIN: Old English hætu]

heat² also heat up v. [I,T] to become warm or hot, or to make something warm or hot: I'll just heat some soup for dinner. | The oven heats up pretty quickly.

heat up phr. v. if a situation, argument, etc. heats up, the people involved in it become angrier and more excited heat capacity n. [C] CHEMISTRY the amount of heat needed in order to raise the temperature of one gram of an object or system by one degree CELSIUS heat-ed /ˈhiːtɪd/ adj. 1 kept warm by a heater: a heated swimming pool 2 heated argument/discussion etc. an argument, etc. in which people become very angry and excited heat-er /ˈhiːtə/ n. [C] a machine used for heating air or water hea-then /ˈhiðən/ n. (plural heathen) [C] (old-fashioned, disapproving) someone who does not belong to the Christian religion, or to any of the main world religions —heathen adj.

heat wave n. [C] a period of unusually hot weather heave¹ /hiv/ v. 1 [I,T] to pull, throw, or lift something with a lot of effort: She heaved the box onto the back of the truck.

THESAURUS pull, tug, drag, haul → PULL¹

2 heave a sigh to breathe out loudly, especially because you have stopped worrying about something: We all heaved a sigh of relief when it was over. 3 [I] if your chest heaves, it moves up and down quickly because it is difficult to breathe 4 [I] (informal) to VOMIT

H

heave² n. [C] a strong pulling, pushing, or throwing movement heav-en /'hevən/ n. 1 [U] also Heaven the place where God or the gods are believed to live, and where good people go after they die → HELL 2 [U] (informal) a very good thing, situation, or place: Give Brad a TV and a comfortable chair, and he's in heaven. 3 (Good) Heavens! (spoken) said when you are surprised or slightly annoyed: Good heavens! Where have you been? 4 for heaven's sake (spoken) said when you are annoyed or angry: For heaven's sake, just shut up! 5 heaven forbid (spoken) said in order to emphasize that you hope something will not happen: And if – heaven forbid – he has an accident, what do I do then? 6 the heavens (literary) the sky: Their eyes lifted to the heavens. [ORIGIN: Old English heofon] heav-en-ly /'hevənli/ adj. 1 relating to heaven 2 very good or pleasing: a heavenly desert

heavenly 'body n. [C] a star, PLANET, or moon

heav-i-ly /'hevəli/ adv. 1 in very large amounts: He's been drinking heavily recently. 2 very or very much: heavily armed rebels | The band's sound is heavily influenced by early punk rock. 3 someone who is breathing heavily is breathing very slowly and loudly

H

heavy-y /'hevi/ adj.

1 THINGS weighing a lot: Be careful lifting that box – it's really heavy. | The suitcase feels heavier than before.

2 PEOPLE used in order to politely describe someone who is fat: He's gotten very heavy since we saw him last. | Tom's at least twenty pounds heavier than he was last year.

THESAURUS fat, overweight, big, large, obese, plump, stout → FAT¹

3 AMOUNT unusually large in amount or quantity: Roads were closed due to heavy rain/snow (=a large amount of rain or snow). | Traffic is heavy on the 405 freeway.

COLLOCATIONS

heavy losses – used especially in order to say that a company has earned a lot less money than it has spent heavy casualties/losses – used in order to say that a lot of people have been injured or killed in a war, battle, etc.

4 BUSY very busy and full of activities: a heavy day/schedule

5 heavy sleeper someone who does not wake up very easily

6 a heavy smoker/drinker someone who smokes a lot or drinks a lot of alcohol

7 SERIOUS very complicated or serious and involving a lot of mental effort: a heavy discussion | For a comedy, that movie was heavy going.

8 heavy breathing breathing that is slow and loud

9 a heavy workload/load/burden a problem or situation that is large or too difficult to deal with: Three jobs! That's a heavy load for just one person.

10 with a heavy heart (literary) feeling very sad [ORIGIN: Old English hefig] → heaviness n. [U] → compare LIGHT² heavy-duty adj. 1 strong enough to be used often or for hard work without being damaged: heavy-duty plastic gloves 2 (informal) said when you want to emphasize how complicated, serious, etc. someone or something is: The movie deals with some heavy-duty issues.

heavy-handed adj. strict, unfair, and not considering other people's feelings: heavy-handed demands heavy 'industry n. [C,U] an industry that produces goods such as coal, steel, or chemicals, or large goods such as cars and machines heavy 'metal n. [U] a type of ROCK music with a strong beat that is played very loudly on electric GUITARS heavy-weight /'hevi,weɪt/ n. [C] 1 someone who BOXES or WRESTLES, and is in the heaviest weight group → LIGHTWEIGHT 2 someone who has a lot of power and experience in a particular business or job: political heavyweights → heavyweight adj.

He-brew /'hibru/ n. [U] the official language of Israel, also used in many other places by Jewish people → Hebrew, Hebraic /hɪ'breɪ-ɪk/ adj.

heck /hek/ interjection 1 said in order to emphasize a question, or when you are annoyed: Who/what/where etc. the heck is that? | Ah, heck! I've lost my glasses. 2 a/one heck of a sth said in order to emphasize a statement: That was one heck of a storm! | We had a heck of a time finding a parking space. 3 what the heck! said when you do something that you should not do: "Want another piece of pie?" "Yeah, what the heck!"

heck-le /'hekəl/ v. [T] to interrupt someone who is speaking or performing in front of a group of people → heckler n. [C] → heckling n. [U] hec-tare /'hekter/ n. [C] a unit for measuring an area of land, equal to 10,000 square meters or 2.471 ACRES hec-tic /'hektɪk/ adj. very busy, hurried, and slightly exciting: It's been a really hectic week.

he'd /ɪd; strɒŋ hɪd/ 1 the short form of "he would": Ed said he'd be a little late. 2 the short form of "he had": He'd never been a good dancer.

hedge¹ /hedʒ/ n. [C] 1 a row of bushes used as a border around a yard or between two yards 2 a hedge against disaster/inflation etc. something that helps avoid problems, losing a lot of money, etc.: Putting your money into different stocks is a hedge against financial risk.

hedge² v. 1 [I] to avoid giving a direct answer to a question: She tried to hedge when Tom asked her age. 2 hedge your bets to reduce your chances of failing by trying several different possibilities instead of one: It is a good idea to hedge your bets by applying to more than one college.

hedge against sth phr. v. to protect yourself from having problems, losing a lot of money, etc.: You could invest in bonds to hedge against sudden changes in interest rates.

hed-o-nism /'hɛdn,ɪzəm/ n. [U] the belief that pleasure is the most important thing in life [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Greek hedone “pleasure”] —hedonist n. [C] —hedonistic /,hɛdn'ɪstɪk/ adj.

heed¹ /hid/ v. [T] (formal) to pay attention to someone's advice or warning: If she had heeded my advice, none of this would have happened.

heed² n. [U] (formal) take heed of sth/pay heed to sth to pay attention to something and think about it seriously: Congress has taken heed of voter dissatisfaction.

heed-less /'hidlis/ adj. (literary) not paying attention to something important heel¹ /hil/ n. 1 [C] the back part of your foot 2 [C] the back raised part of a shoe, or the back part of a sock that is under your heel: shoes with high/low heels → see picture at SHOE¹ 3 heels [plural] HIGH HEELS 4 -heeled having a particular type of heel: a high-heeled shoe 5 on the heels of sth very soon after something: The team's loss came on the heels of another defeat in Dallas. 6 the raised part of your hand near your wrist: Use the heel of your hand to knead the bread dough.

heel² v. heel! used in order to tell your dog to stay near you hefty /'hefti/ adj. 1 big, heavy, or strong: a hefty man 2 a hefty price/sum etc. a large amount of money he-gem-o-ny /'hɛdʒəməni, -'ge-, 'hɛdʒəməni/ n. [U] POLITICS a situation in which one state, country, or group has much more power than any other [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Greek hegemonia, from hegemon “leader”] heif-er /'hefə/ n. [C] a young female cow that has not yet given birth to a CALF (=baby cow) height /hart/ n. 1 [C,U] how tall someone or something is: Sue is about the same height as her mom. | Sunflowers can grow to a height of 15 feet. 2 [C] a particular distance above the ground: The shelves were installed at the wrong height. → see picture at DIMENSION 3 the height of sth a) the time when something is the strongest, most successful, etc. it can ever be: At the height of the dotcom boom, web designers were in short supply. b) the greatest degree or amount of something: The hotel was the height of luxury. 4 heights [plural] high places: I'm afraid of heights. 5 to new heights to an increased or more successful level: Prices jumped to new heights last Wednesday. [ORIGIN: Old English hie-hthu] height-en /'hartɪn/ v. [I,T] to increase or make something become increased [SYN] increase, intensify: Recent events have heightened residents' awareness of crime.

hei-nous /'heɪnəs/ adj. extremely bad: a heinous crime heir /ɛr/ n. [C] someone who will legally receive all of the money, property, etc. of a person who has died: the sole heir to a vast fortune heir-loom /'ɛrlum/ n. [C] a valuable object that a family owns for many years heist /haɪst/ n. [C] a BURGLARY

he-jab /hr'dʒʌb/ n. [U] another spelling of HIJAB held /hɛld/ v. the past tense and past participle of HOLD hel-i-cop-ter /'hɛlə,kɑptə/ n. [C] a type of aircraft with metal blades on top of it that spin very fast [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French hélicoptère, from Greek heliko- + pteron “wing”] → see picture at TRANSPORTATION

he-li-o-cen-tric /,hɪliəʊ'sɛntrɪk/ adj. PHYSICS having the Sun at the center: Copernicus described a heliocentric system, with the planets going around the Sun.

hel-i-port /'hɛlə,pɔrt/ n. [C] an airport for helicopters he-li-um /'hɪliəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol He) a gas that is an ELEMENT and that is lighter than air, often used in order to make BALLOONS float [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Greek helios “Sun;” because it was discovered in the Sun's spectrum]

he-lix /'hɪlɪks/ n. (plural helices /-lɪsɪz/) [C] MATH a line that curves and rises around a central line [SYN] spiral he'll /ɪl, ɪl, hɪl; strong hil/ the short form of “he will”: I'm sure he'll get here soon.

hell, Hell /hɛl/ n. [singular] the place where bad people will be punished after they die, according to some religions [ORIGIN: Old English]

Hel-le-nis-tic /,hɛlə'nɪstɪk/ adj. HISTORY relating to the ancient Greeks in the period between the fourth and the first century B.C.

hel-lo /hə'loʊ, hɛ'loʊ, 'hɛloʊ/ interjection 1 used when meeting someone or greeting someone: Hello, my name is Betty. 2 said when answering the telephone or when starting a telephone conversation: “Hello?” “Hello, is Chad there?” 3 said when trying to get someone's attention: Hello? Is anybody here? 4 say hello to have a quick conversation with someone: I'll drop by later and say hello.

helm /hɛlm/ n. [C] 1 at the helm (of sth) controlling a group or organization: With Ms. Mathis at the helm, the company has grown by 20%. 2 a wheel used for guiding a ship's direction hel-met /'hɛlmɪt/ n. [C] a hard hat that covers and protects your head: a motorcycle helmet help¹ /hɛlp/ v. 1 [I,T] if you help people, you do something for them that makes it easier for them to do something: Do you want me to help you move that table? | Mom, can you help me with my homework? | Is there anything I can do to help?

THESAURUS

give sb a hand (with sth) – to help someone do something: Can you give me a hand moving these boxes?

need a hand – to need help doing something: I need a hand to paint the house.

lend a hand (with sth) – to help someone, especially when there are not enough people to do something: I went over to see if I could lend a hand.

assist/aid (formal) – to help someone, especially when you use special skills: Dr. Taylor assisted in the research for this article.

facilitate (formal) – to make it easier for something to happen: Computers can be used to facilitate language learning.

aid and abet (Law) – to help someone do something illegal: He was accused of aiding and abetting the rioters.

2 [I,T] to make it possible for something to become better, easier, or more developed: It might help to talk to someone about your problems. | Brushing your teeth helps prevent cavities.

SPOKEN PHRASES

3 can't/couldn't help said when you are unable to stop doing something: I just couldn't help laughing. 4 I can't help it said when you think something is not your fault: I can't help it if she lost the stupid book! 5 help yourself used when telling someone to take as much food or drink as s/he wants: Help yourself to anything in the fridge. 6 help! said when you need someone to help you, especially because you are in danger

help (sb ↔) out phr. v. to help someone because s/he is very busy, has a lot of problems, etc.: They did everything they could to help us out. | Do you need anyone to help out in the store? [ORIGIN: Old English helpan]

help² n. 1 [U] the action of helping someone: Do you need any help washing the dishes? | They gave us some help filling out the forms. | Dave built the garage with the help of his brother. 2 [singular, U] someone or something that is useful or helpful: The instructions weren't much help. | Thanks a lot – you've been a big help. 3 [U] advice, treatment, money, etc. given in order to help someone: She needs professional help from a psychiatrist.

help-er /'helpə/ n. [C] someone who helps another person

help-ful /'helpfəl/ adj. 1 providing useful help in making a situation better or easier (ANT) unhelpful: helpful advice | an extremely helpful guidebook 2 willing to help: Everyone was so helpful and friendly. —helpfully adv.

help-ing¹ /'helpɪŋ/ n. [C] the amount of food you are given or that you take: Teri ate two helpings of pie.

helping² adj. lend/give a helping hand to help someone

'helping, verb n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS an AUXILIARY VERB help-less /'helplɪs/ adj. unable to take care of yourself or protect yourself: The man lay helpless in the street. —helplessness n. [U] —helplessly adv.

hel-ter-skel-ter /'heltə'skeltə/ adj., adv. done in a disorganized, confusing, and hurried way hem¹ /hem/ n. [C] the folded and sewn edge of a piece of clothing → EDGE¹

hem² v. (hemmed, hemming) [T] to fold and sew the edge of a piece of clothing hem sb ↔ in phr. v. 1 to surround someone or something closely: The valley is hemmed in by mountain ranges on both sides. 2 to make someone feel that s/he is not free to do what s/he wants: She felt hemmed in by her tight schedule.

hem-i-sphere /'hemə'sfɪr/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES one of the halves of the Earth, especially the northern or southern parts above and below the EQUATOR: *the northern hemisphere (=the half of the Earth that is north of the equator) | *the southern hemisphere (=the half of the Earth that is south of the equator) → see picture at GLOBE 2 BIOLOGY one of the two halves of your brain: The right hemisphere of your brain controls the left side of your body.

hem-line /'hemlaɪn/ n. [C] the bottom edge or length of a dress, skirt, or pair of pants hem-lock /'hemlɒk/ n. [C,U] a very poisonous plant, or the poison of this plant

he-mo-glo-bin /'hɪmə'gləʊbɪn/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a red substance in the blood that carries oxygen and iron [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 hematoglobulin, from Greek haima “blood”] he-mo-phil-i-a /'hɪmə'fɪliə, -'fɪliə/ n. [U] BIOL-OGY a serious disease that usually affects only men, in which the blood does not become thick, so that they lose too much blood after being cut or wounded [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Modern Latin hemo- from Greek haima “blood” + -philia “fondness”] —hemophiliac /'hɪmə'fɪli,æk/ n. [C] hem-or-rhage /'hemərɪdʒ/ n. [C] a serious medical condition in which an area in someone's body loses too much blood [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French hémorrhagie, from Latin haemorrhagia, from Greek, from haima “blood” + “bursting out, flow”] hem-or-rhoids /'hemə'rɔɪdz/ n. [plural] painfully swollen BLOOD VESSELS at the ANUS hemp /hemp/ n. [U] a plant used for making a strong type of rope, and also for making the drug MARIJUANA hen /hen/ n. [C] a fully grown female bird, especially a female chicken

hence /hens/ (Ac) adv. (formal) for this reason

→ THUS: The sugar from the grapes remains in the wine, hence the sweet taste. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 hen “hence” (12—15 centuries) (from Old English heonan) + -s (as in backwards)] henceforth /ˈhɛnsfɔrθ, ˈhɛnsˈfɔrθ/ adv. (formal) from this time on: Henceforth in this book, these people will be called “The Islanders.”

henchman /ˈhɛntʃmən/ n. [C] someone who faithfully obeys a powerful person such as a politician or a criminal hen-na /ˈhɛnə/ n. [U] a reddish-brown substance used to change the color of your hair or to DYE the skin — henna v. [T]

Hen-ry's law /ˈhɛnrɪz ˌlɔ/ n. CHEMISTRY a scientific principle that says the amount of gas that can be ABSORBED by a liquid will increase if the pressure of the gas above the liquid increases and the temperature remains the same he-pat-ic /hɪˈpætɪk/ adj. [only before noun] BIOLOGY relating to your LIVER hep-a-ti-tis /ˌhɛpəˈtaɪtɪs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a serious disease of the LIVER

hep-ta-gon /ˈheptəɡən/ n. [C] MATH a flat shape with seven sides and seven angles — heptagonal /ˈheptəɡənəl/ adj.

THE SAURUS polygon, pentagon, hexagon, octagon, decagon, dodecagon → POLYGON

hep-tath-lon /ˈheptəθlən, -lən/ n. [singular] a women's sports competition consisting of seven running, jumping, and throwing events → DECATHLON, PENTATHLON

her¹ /ə/ strong hɜ/ possessive adj. 1 belonging to or relating to a female person or animal that has been mentioned or is known about: Lori said her cat died last week. | Have you seen her new house? 2 used when talking about a country, car, ship, etc. that has been mentioned: Her top speed is 110 miles per hour. [ORIGIN: Old English hiere]

her² pron. 1 the object form of “she”: I gave her $20. | Did you see her at the concert? 2 a country, ship, car, etc. that has been mentioned her-ald /ˈherəld/ v. [T] 1 to say publicly that someone or something is likely to be successful: He was heralded as the poet of his generation. 2 to be a sign that something is going to come or happen soon: The Internet heralded a new age of communications.

herb /əb/ n. [C] a plant used in cooking to give food more taste, or to make medicine: herbs and spices [ORIGIN: 1200 — 1300 Old French erbe, from Latin herba “grass, herb”] herb-al /ˈəbəl/ adj. relating to herbs: herbal tea herb-i-cide /ˈhɜbəsaɪd, ˈəbə-/ n. [C, U] BIOLOGY a substance used to kill unwanted plants herb-i-vore /ˈhɜbəvɔr, ˈəbə-/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an animal that only eats plants [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Latin herbivorus “plant-eating,” from herba

“grass, herb” + -vorus, from vorare “to eat”] → compare CARNIVORE

herd¹ /hɜd/ n. [C] a group of a particular type of animal that lives together: a herd of cattle

herd² v. [I, T] to form a group, or to make people or animals move together as a group: The tour guide herded us onto the bus.

here¹ /hɪr/ adv. 1 in or to this place (ANT) there: I'm going to stay here with Kim. | How long have you lived here? | Chad said he's never been here before. | It's so dark in/out here. | Come over here so I can talk to you. 2 if a period of time is here, it has begun: Spring is here! 3 here and there scattered in several different places: There were a few magazines lying around here and there. 4 at this point in a discussion or piece of writing: We might as well take a break here. [ORIGIN: Old English her] here² interjection said when you offer something to someone: Here, use my pen.

here-a-bouts /ˈhɪrəˌbaʊts, ˈhɪrəˌbaʊts/ adv. around or near the place where you are: Everyone hereabouts thinks he's guilty.

here-after¹ /ˈhɪræftə/ adv. (formal) from this time or in the future hereafter² n. the hereafter life after you die: Do you believe in the hereafter?

here-by /ˈhɪrˈbaɪ, ˈhɪrbaɪ/ adv. (formal) as a result of this statement: I hereby pronounce you man and wife.

he-red-i-tar-y /həˈredəˌtəri/ adj. if a mental or physical quality, or a disease is hereditary, it is passed to a child from the GENES of his/her parents: a hereditary condition

he-red-i-ty /həˈredəti/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the process of passing on a mental or physical quality from a parent to a child through the GENES [ORIGIN: 1500 — 1600 French hérédité, from Latin hereditas]

here-in /ˈhɪrɪn/ adv. (formal) in this place, situation, or piece of writing her-e-sy /ˈherəsi/ n. (plural heresies) [C, U] 1 beliefs or behavior that are considered to be wrong by a particular political or social group 2 a belief or action that is so strongly against the normal beliefs of a particular religion that it is considered to be evil her-e-tic /'herətɪk/ n. [C] someone whose beliefs are considered to be evil by a particular religion —heretical /hə'retɪkəl/ adj.

here-with /hɪr'wɪθ, -'wɪð/ adv. (formal) with this letter or document

he-ri-ta-ble /'herətəbəl/ adj. 1 BIOLOGY a physical or mental feature that is heritable can be passed from a parent to his or her children: a heritable cancer gene 2 [usually before noun] LAW heritable property, land, etc. is property or land that you can legally give to someone when you die → INHERIT her-it-age /'herəɪdʒ/ n. [singular, U] the traditions, values, arts, etc. that are passed down over many years within a country, society, or family: the immense variety of America's musical heritage her-ma-phro-dite /hə'mæfrə'daɪt/ n. [C] BIOL-OGY a living thing that has both male and female sexual organs [ORIGIN: 1400 — 1500 Latin hermaphroditus, from Greek Hermaphroditos] —hermaphrodite adj. —hermaphroditic /hə'mæfrə'dɪtɪk/ adj.

her-met-i-cal-ly /hə'metɪkli/ adv. hermetically sealed very tightly closed so that no air can get in or out —hermetic adj.

her-mit /'həmit/ n. [C] someone who prefers to live far away from other people → RECLUSE [ORIGIN: 1100 — 1200 Old French eremite, from Greek eremites “living in the desert” from eremos “lonely”] her-mit-age /'həmitɪdʒ/ n. [C] a place where a hermit lives or has lived

'hermit crab n. [C] a type of CRAB that lives in the empty shells of other sea creatures her-ni-a /'hɜːniə/ n. [C,U] BIOLOGY a medical condition in which an organ pushes through the skin or muscle that covers it he-ro /'hɪroʊ/ n. [C] (plural heroes) 1 someone who is admired for doing something very brave or good: one of America's national heroes | It was a chance to meet my hero in person. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a man or boy who is the main character of a book, play, or movie → HEROINE: The hero of the story is a young soldier.

THESAURUS

main character — the most important person in a story, play, or movie, especially the person the story is about: The main character is an eleven-year-old boy who finds out that he is a wizard.

protagonist (formal) — the main character in a play, movie, or story: The protagonist is based on the author's grandfather.

anti-hero — the main character in a story, play, or movie who is an ordinary or unpleasant person and does not have the qualities that most people think a hero should have, such as being good or brave: Hoffman plays Benjamin, the movie's anti-hero, who rebels against his parents' values more out of boredom than for any moral reasons.

villain — the main bad character in a story, play, or movie: Comic book villains such as Lex Luthor or The Joker are written as wholly evil characters.

3 also hero sandwich a SANDWICH made of a long LOAF of bread filled with meat, cheese, etc.

[SYN sub] [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin heros, from Greek]

he-ro-ic /hɪ'roʊɪk/ adj. 1 admired for being brave, strong, and determined: the firefighters' heroic efforts to rescue people from the fire

THESAURUS brave, courageous, valiant → BRAVE¹

2 a heroic story, poem, etc. has a hero in it he-ro-ics /hɪ'roʊɪks/ n. [plural] brave actions or words that are meant to seem impressive to other people he-ro-in /'heroʊɪn/ n. [U] a strong illegal drug that some people take, usually by putting it into their arms with a special needle

he-ro-ine /'heroʊɪn/ n. [C] a female hero her-o-ism /'heroʊ,ɪzəm/ n. [U] very great courage: the soldiers' heroism in battle her-on /'herən/ n. [C] a large wild bird with very long legs and a long beak that lives near water her-pes /'hɜːpɪz/ n. [U] a very infectious disease that causes spots on the skin, especially on the face or sexual organs her-ring /'hɛrɪŋ/ n. [C,U] (plural herring or her-rings) a long thin silver sea fish, or the meat from this fish hers /hɜːz/ pron. the thing or things belonging to or relating to a female person or animal that has been mentioned or is known about: That's my car. This is hers. | Tim is a friend of hers. | My boots are black. Hers are brown.

her-self /ə'self; strong hɜː'self/ pron. 1 the REFLEXIVE form of “she”: Carol hurt herself. | She bought herself a new scarf. 2 the strong form of “she,” used in order to emphasize the subject or object of a sentence: She installed the cabinets herself. | It's true! Vicky told me herself. 3 (all) by herself a) without help: My daughter made dinner all by herself. b) alone: She went for a walk by herself. 4 (all) to herself for her own use: Alison had the whole house to herself that night. 5 not be herself (spoken) if someone is not herself, she is not behaving or feeling the way she usually does because she is sick or upset: Mom hasn't been herself lately.

hertz /hɜːts/ n. (plural hertz) [C] PHYSICS (written abbreviation Hz) a unit used to measure FREQUENCY. One hertz is one CYCLE each second. [ORIGIN: 1800 — 1900 Heinrich Hertz (1857-94), German scientist who worked on energy waves]

he's /ɪz; strong hiz/ 1 the short form of “he is”: He's a lawyer. 2 the short form of “he has,” used when “has” is an AUXILIARY VERB: He's been in prison.

hes-i-tant /ˈhezətənt/ adj. not willing to do or say something because you are uncertain or worried: He was hesitant to discuss the details.

hes-i-tate /ˈhezəteɪt/ v. [I] 1 to pause before doing or saying something because you are uncertain: She hesitated before answering his question. 2 do not hesitate to do sth (formal) used in order to tell someone not to worry about doing something: Don't hesitate to call me if you need any help. [ORIGIN: 1600 — 1700 Latin, past participle of hesitare “to stick firmly, hesitate,” from haerere “to stick”] hes-i-ta-tion /ˈhezətetʃən/ n. [U] the action of hesitating: Without hesitation he said, “Yes!”

het-er-o-ge-ne-ous /ˌhetərəˈdʒiniəs, -nyəs/, het-er-og-e-nous /ˌhetərəˈdʒənəs/ adj. (formal) consisting of parts or members that are very different from each other → HOMOGENEOUS: a heterogeneous population [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Medieval Latin heterogeneus, from Greek, from heteros “other” + genos “type”] —heterogeneity /ˌhetərəʊdʒəˈniəti/ n. [U] heterogeneous 'mixture n. [C] CHEMISTRY a substance consisting of two or more different substances that remain physically separate, so that all parts of the mixture look different het-er-o-sex-u-al /ˌhetərəˈseksʃuəl/ adj. (formal) sexually attracted to people of the opposite sex [SYN] straight → BISEXUAL, HOMOSEXUAL —heterosexuality /ˌhetərəˈseksʃuˈæləti/ n. [U] het-e-ro-troph /ˌhetərəˈtraɪf, -trəʊf/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a living creature that obtains the energy it needs in order to live, grow, and stay healthy from the foods it eats, rather than by PHOTOSYNTHESIS

he-te-ro-zy-gote /ˌhetərəʊˈzaɪɡəʊt/ n. [C] BIOL-OGY a plant, animal, etc. that has two different GENES in a particular place on a pair of CHROMOSOMES that have the same series of genes → HOMOZYGOTE het-e-ro-zy-gous /ˌhetərəʊˈzaɪɡəs/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to a cell or ORGANISM that has two or more different forms of a particular GENE

heu-ris-tic /hyuˈrɪstɪk/ adj. 1 heuristic education is based on discovering and experiencing things for yourself 2 helping you in the process of learning or discovery —heuristically adv.

heu-ris-tics /hjuˈrɪstɪks/ n. [U] the study of how people use their experience to find answers to questions or to improve performance hew /hyu/ v. (past participle hewed or hewn /hyun/) [T] (literary) to cut something with a cutting tool hex-a-dec-i-mal /ˌheksəˈdesəməl/ also hex /heks/ adj. MATH hexadecimal numbers are based on the number 16 and are mainly used on computers hex-a-gon /ˈheksəˌɡɒn/ n. [C] MATH a flat shape with six sides and six angles [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, from Greek hexagonon, from hex “six” + gonia “angle”] → see picture at POLYGON —hexagonal /ˌheksəˈɡɒnəl/ adj.

THESAURUS polygon, pentagon, heptagon, octagon, decagon, dodecagon → POLYGON

hex-a-gram /ˈheksəˌɡræm/ n. [C] MATH a star shape with six points, made from two TRIANGLES

hex-am-e-ter /ˌheksəˈmɛtə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a line of poetry with six main beats hey /heɪ/ interjection (informal) 1 said in order to get someone's attention, or to show someone you are surprised or annoyed: Hey, you! Get away from my car! 2 said in order to greet someone who you know well [SYN] hi: Hey, Rob. How's it going?

hey-day /ˈheɪdeɪ/ n. [C] the time when someone or something was most popular, successful, or powerful: the heyday of silent movies [ORIGIN: 1500 — 1600 heyda a shout of happiness (16 — 17 centuries), influenced by day]

Hi the written abbreviation of HAWAII

hi /haɪ/ interjection (informal) hello: Hi! How are you?

hi-a-tus /haɪˈeɪtəs/ n. [C usually singular] (formal) a pause in an activity [ORIGIN: 1500 — 1600 Latin hiare “to yawn”]

hi-ber-nate /ˈhaɪbəˌneɪt/ v. [I] if an animal hibernates, it sleeps all the time during the winter [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Latin, past participle of hibernare “to pass the winter,” from hibernus “of the winter”] —hibernation /ˌhaɪbəˈneɪʃən/ n. [U] hic-cup /ˈhɪkəp/ n. [C] 1 [usually plural] a sudden repeated stopping of the breath, usually caused by eating or drinking too fast: I have the hiccups. 2 a small problem or delay: There's a slight hiccup in the schedule for today.

hiccup² v. (hiccupped, hiccupping) [I] to have the hiccups hick /hɪk/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who lives in the country and is thought to be uneducated or stupid hick-ey /ˈhɪki/ n. (plural hickeys) [C] (informal) a slight BRUISE (=dark mark on your skin) from being kissed too hard hick-o-ry /ˈhɪkəri/ n. [U] a North American tree that produces nuts, or the hard wood from this tree [ORIGIN: 1600 — 1700 Algonquian pawcohiccora “food made from crushed nuts”] hid /hɪd/ v. the past tense of HIDE hid-den /ˈhɪdn/ v. the past participle of HIDE

H

hidden² adj. 1 difficult to see or find: Marcia kept her letters hidden in a box. 2 not easy to notice or discover: a hidden meaning

hide¹ /haɪd/ v. (past tense hid /hɪd/, past participle hidden /'hɪdn/) 1 [T] to put something in a place where no one else can see or find it: Jane hid the Christmas presents in the closet.

THESAURUS

conceal (formal) – to hide something carefully: She dyes her hair to conceal the gray.

cover/cover up – to put something over something else in order to hide it: He covered his face with his hands.

disguise/mask – to hide a smell or taste, your feelings, or the truth: The scented candles masked the cooking smells from the kitchen.

secrete (formal) – to hide something: The money had been secreted somewhere within the house.

2 [I] to go to or stay in a place where no one can see or find you: I'll hide behind/under the bed. 3 [T] to not show your feelings to people, or to not tell someone about something: She could not hide her embarrassment. 4 [T] to not tell someone about something: The police knew Wilson was hiding something. [ORIGIN: Old English hydan] hide² n. [C] an animal's skin, especially when it is removed to be used for leather hide-and-seek n. [U] a children's game in which one child shuts his/her eyes while the other children hide, and then s/he tries to find them hide-a-way /'haɪdə,weɪ/ n. (plural hideaways) [C] a place where you can go to hide or be alone hide-ous /'hɪdiəs/ adj. extremely ugly or disgusting: a hideous monster [ORIGIN: 1300 – 1400 Old French hidous, from hide “terror”] —hideously adv.

THESAURUS ugly, unattractive, unsightly, repulsive, grotesque → UGLY hide-out /'haɪdaʊt/ n. [C] a place where you can hide hid-ing /'haɪdɪŋ/ n. go into hiding to stay somewhere in secret, often because you have done something illegal or you are in danger hier-ar-chy /'haɪə,rɑːki/ (Ac) n. (plural hierarchies) 1 [C,U] SOCIAL SCIENCE a system of organization in which people have higher and lower ranks 2 [C] the most powerful members of an organization 3 [C] BIOLOGY the system in which animals are organized so that some are more important than others, which affects the way they behave [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French ierarchie, from Latin, from Greek hierarches, from hieros “holy” + -arches “ruler”] —hierarchical /haɪə'rɑːkɪkəl/ adj.

hier-o-glyph /'haɪə,ɡlɪf/ n. [C] HISTORY a sign or picture used in a writing system, for example by the ancient Egyptians hier-o-glyph-ics /'haɪə'ɡlɪfɪks/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a system of writing, especially one from ancient Egypt, that uses pictures to represent words [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French hiéroglyphique, from Late Latin, from Greek, from hieros “holy” + glyphein “to cut marks in a surface”] —hieroglyphic adj.

hi-fi /,haɪ 'faɪ/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a piece of electronic equipment for playing recorded music high¹ /haɪ/ adj.

1 TALL something that is high measures a long distance from its top to its bottom (ANT low) → TALL: the highest mountain in Colorado | a high wall

2 ABOVE GROUND being a long way above the ground (ANT low): The nest was on a high branch.

3 MORE THAN USUAL a high amount, number, or level is greater than usual (ANT low): clothes selling at high prices | high speed | a higher level of productivity → EXPENSIVE

4 RANK/POSITION having an important or powerful position or rank: She was elected to high office. | the highest levels of management

5 GOOD very good (ANT low): Most items were of very high quality. | We insist on high standards.

6 DRUGS under the effects of drugs: He was high on drugs. | kids getting high on marijuana

7 CONTAINING A LOT containing a lot of a particular substance or quality (ANT low): Candy bars are high in calories.

8 SOUND/VOICE near the top of the range of sounds that humans can hear (ANT low): singing the high notes

THESAURUS

high-pitched – higher than most sounds or voices: a high-pitched voice piercing – very high and loud in a way that is not nice to listen to: a piercing scream shrill – high and unpleasant: a shrill whistle squeaky – making very high noises that are not loud: squeaky floorboards

9 knee-high/waist-high etc. having a particular height: The grass was knee-high.

10 high noon (old-fashioned) exactly 12 O'CLOCK in the day [ORIGIN: Old English heah]

high² adv. 1 at or to a level that is far above the ground: kites flying high in the sky | She held her award high above her head. 2 at or to a high value, amount, rank, etc.: Jenkins has risen high in the company. | Ribas advised the students to “aim high” (=try to be successful). 3 look/search high and low to look everywhere for someone or something: I searched high and low for the car keys. 4 be left high and dry (informal) to be left without any help in a difficult situation

high³ n. [C] 1 the highest level, number, temperature, etc. that has been recorded in a particular time period: The price of gold reached a new high yesterday. | a high (=high temperature) in the mid 90s 2 (informal) a feeling of great excitement caused by drugs or success, enjoyment, etc.

'high-born adj. (formal) born into the highest social class high-brow /ˈhaɪbraʊ/ adj. a highbrow book, movie, etc. is very serious and may be difficult to understand (ANT) lowbrow high-chair /ˈhaɪtʃeər/ n. [C] a tall chair that a baby sits in to eat

'high-class adj. of good quality and style, and usually expensive: a high-class restaurant

'high-defi'nition (abbreviation HD) adj. [only before noun] a high-definition television or computer MONITOR shows images very clearly

'higher edu'cation n. [U] education at a college or university

'highest common 'factor n. [C] MATH the largest number that a set of numbers can all be divided by exactly: The highest common factor of 12, 24, and 30 is 6.

'high ex'plosive n. [C,U] a substance that explodes with great power and violence high-frequency 'word n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word that is used much more often than most words in speaking or writing: high-frequency words such as "the" and "and"

'high-grade adj. of high quality: high-grade motor oil

'high 'heels n. [plural] women's shoes with a high raised heel at the back —high-heeled adj. → see picture at SHOE¹

'high jinks n. [U] (old-fashioned) noisy or excited behavior when people are having fun

'high jump n. the high jump a sport in which you run and jump over a BAR that is raised higher after each successful jump —high jumper n. [C] high-lands /ˈhaɪləndz/ n. [plural] EARTH SCIENCES an area with a lot of mountains → LOWLANDS: the Scottish highlands —highland adj. [only before noun] —highlander n. [C]

'high-level adj. involving important people, especially in the government: high-level peace talks

high-light¹ /ˈhaɪlaɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to make a problem, subject, etc. easy to notice so people will pay attention to it: The report highlights the problem of inner-city crime.

THESAURUS emphasize, stress, underline, underscore → EMPHASIZE

2 to mark written words with a pen or on a computer so that you can see them more easily highlight² n. [C] the most important or exciting part of a movie, sports event, etc.: the highlights of our trip high-light-er /ˈhaɪlaɪtə-/ n. [C] a special pen that you use to mark written words so that you can see them more easily high-ly /ˈhaɪli/ adv. 1 very: a highly successful meeting | highly skilled workers 2 to a high level or degree: a highly paid attorney

'high-'minded adj. having high moral standards or principles

High-ness /ˈhaɪnɪs/ n. Your/His etc. Highness a royal title used when speaking to a king, queen, etc.

'high-'pitched adj. a high-pitched song or voice is higher than most sounds or voices

'high-'powered adj. 1 very powerful: a high-powered speedboat 2 very important or successful: a high-powered businessman

'high 'pressure n. [C usually singular] EARTH SCIENCES an area of high air pressure in the sky, which usually brings warm weather

'high-pressure adj. 1 a high-pressure job or situation is one in which you need to work very hard to be successful 2 having or using a lot of pressure: a high-pressure hose

'high-'profile adj. attracting a lot of attention from people: a high-profile court case

'high-rise, high-rise /ˈhaɪraɪz/ n. [C] a tall building —high-rise adj.: high-rise apartment buildings

'high 'roller n. [C] (informal) someone who spends a lot of money, especially by BETTING on games, races, etc.

'high school n. [C,U] a school in the U.S. and Canada for students aged 14 and over: Most high school students take three years of math. | Wendy and I were best friends in high school.

'high-speed adj. [only before noun] designed to travel or operate very fast: a high-speed train

'high-'spirited adj. having a lot of energy and liking to have fun: a high-spirited four-year-old boy

'high-'strung adj. nervous, and easily upset or excited: a high-strung horse

high-tech, hi-tech /ˈhaɪˈtek/ adj. using the most modern information, machines, etc.: a new high-tech camera

THESAURUS advanced, state-of-the-art, cutting-edge → ADVANCED

'high 'tide n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES the time when the ocean is at its highest level (ANT) low tide → see picture at TIDE¹

'high-tops, high-tops /ˈhaɪtəps/ n. [plural] sports shoes that cover your ANKLES high-way /ˈhaɪweɪ/ n. (plural highways) [C] a wide fast road that connects cities or towns: There's always a lot of traffic on that highway.

H

THESAURUS freeway, expressway, toll road, turnpike → ROAD

hi-jab, hejab /hɪ'dʒʌb/ n. 1 [C] a SCARF worn by Muslim women that completely covers the head and sometimes includes a VEIL (=a thin piece of material) that covers the face except for the eyes 2 [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the custom for some Muslim women to wear clothes that cover most of their body

hi-jack /'haɪdʒæk/ v. [T] 1 to take control of an airplane, vehicle, etc. illegally: The plane was hijacked by terrorists. 2 to take control of something and use it for your own purposes: The protesters tried to hijack the meeting. —hijacker n. [C] —hijacking n. [C,U] hike¹ /haɪk/ n. [C] 1 a long walk in the country, mountains, etc.: We went for a hike on Sunday. 2 (informal) a large increase in something: a huge tax hike 3 take a hike (spoken) a rude way of telling someone to go away hike² v. 1 [I,T] to take a long walk in the country, mountains, etc.

THESAURUS walk, march, stroll, trudge → WALK¹

2 [T] also hike up to increase the price of something by a large amount (SYN) raise: The governor plans to hike gasoline tax next month.

H

hike-ing /'haɪkɪŋ/ n. [U] an outdoor activity in which you take long walks in the country or mountains: We could go hiking tomorrow.

hi-lar-i-ous /hɪ'ləriəs, -'lær-/ adj. extremely funny: a hilarious video [ORIGIN: 1800 — 1900 Latin hilarus “cheerful,” from Greek hilaros] —hilariously adv. —hilarity /hɪ'lærəti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS funny, hysterical, amusing, humorous, comical → FUNNY¹

hill /hɪl/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES an area of high land, like a small mountain: driving up a steep hill 2 over the hill (informal) no longer young, or too old to do a job well 3 the Hill POLITICS another word for CAPITOL HILL, used especially by politicians and JOURNALISTS [ORIGIN: Old English hyll] —hilly adj.

hill-bil-ly /'hɪl,bɪli/ n. (plural hillbillies) [C] someone who lives in the mountains and is thought to be uneducated or stupid hill-side /'hɪlsaɪd/ n. [C] the side of a hill hilt /hɪlt/ n. 1 to the hilt completely or extremely: Their house had been mortgaged to the hilt. 2 [C] the handle of a sword or a large knife him /ɪm; strong him/ pron. the object form of “he”: Why don't you just ask him yourself? | The cop ordered him out of the car. [ORIGIN: Old English]

him-self /ɪm'self; strong him'self/ pron. 1 the REFLEXIVE form of “he”: Bill looked at himself in the mirror. 2 the strong form of “he,” used in order to emphasize the subject or object of a sentence:

It's true! He told me himself. 3 (all) by himself a) without help: He tried to fix the car by himself. b) alone: Sam was all by himself on the mountain trail. 4 (all) to himself for his own use: Ben had the house to himself for a week. 5 not feel/look/seem like himself if someone does not feel like himself, he is not behaving or feeling as he usually does, because he is sick or upset hind /haɪnd/ adj. hind legs/feet the back legs or feet of an animal → see picture on page A2 hin-der /'hɪndə-/ v. [T] to make it difficult for someone to do something: The bad weather is hindering rescue efforts.

Hin-di /'hɪndi/ n. [U] a language used in India hind-quar-ters /'haɪnd,kwɔːtəz/ n. [plural] (formal) the back part of an animal hin-drance /'hɪndrəns/ n. [C] someone or something that makes it difficult for you to do something: Students' family problems can be a hindrance to their education.

hind-sight /'haɪndsart/ n. [U] the ability to understand something after it has happened: In hindsight, it was a terrible mistake.

Hin-du /'hɪndu/ n. [C] someone who believes in Hinduism —Hindu adj.

Hin-du-ism /'hɪndu,ɪzəm/ n. [U] the main religion in India, which includes belief in REINCAR-NATION hinge¹ /hɪndʒ/ n. [C] a metal part that joins two things together, such as a door and a frame, so that one part can swing open and shut —hinged adj.

hinge² v.

hinge on/upon sth phr. v. to depend on something: His political future hinges on this election.

hint¹ /hɪnt/ n. [C] 1 something that you say or do that helps someone guess what you really want: Come on, give me a hint. | Sue has been dropping hints (=giving hints) about what she wants for her birthday. 2 a hint of sth a small amount of something: a hint of perfume in the air 3 a useful piece of advice on how to do something: a book full of hints on gardening

hint² v. [I,T] to say something that helps someone guess what you want, or what will happen: Irene hinted that I might get a raise.

hin-ter-land /'hɪntə,lænd/ n. the hinterland the inner part of a country, usually away from cities or the coast hip¹ /hɪp/ n. [C] one of the two parts on either side of your body, where your legs join your body: She stood there with her hands on her hips. [ORIGIN: (1) Old English hype] → see picture on page A3

hip² adj. (informal) modern and fashionable: a hip new comedy on NBC

'hip-hop n. [U] 1 a type of dance music with a strong regular beat and spoken words 2 a type of popular culture among young people in big cities, which includes RAP music, dancing, and GRAFFITI art hip-pie, hippy /'hɪpi/ n. [C] someone, especially in the 1960s and 1970s, who usually had long hair, opposed the standards of society, and took drugs for pleasure hip-po-pot-a-mus /,hɪpə'pɒtəməs/ also hip-po /'hɪpɒ/ n. (plural hippopotamuses) [C] a large African animal with a big head, fat body, and thick gray skin, that lives in and near water [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, Greek, from hippos “horse” + potamos “river”] hire¹ /haɪə/ v. [T] to employ someone to work for you: We're going to hire a lawyer to handle the case.

hire² n. [C] someone who has recently been hired by a company: All new hires will receive training.

his¹ /ɪz/; strong hɪz/ possessive adj. belonging to or relating to a male person or animal that has been mentioned or is known about: Leo hates cleaning his room. | His mother is Spanish.

his² pron. the thing or things belonging to or relating to a male person or animal that has been mentioned or is known about: I think he has my suitcase, and I have his. | Dave is a friend of his. | My boots are black. His are brown.

His-pan-ic /hɪ'spænɪk/ adj. from or relating to a country where Spanish or Portuguese is spoken [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin hispanicus, from Hispania “Spain”] —Hispanic n. [C] hiss /hɪs/ v. [I] to make a noise that sounds like “ssss”: Steam hissed from the pipe. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 from the sound] —hiss n. [C] → see picture on page A7

his-to-gram /hɪstə'græm/ n. [C] MATH a type of BAR GRAPH in which the area of each bar represents how often a value appears in a set of information his-to-ri-an /hɪ'stɔəriən/ n. [C] someone who studies or writes about history his-tor-ic /hɪ'stɔrɪk, -'stɑr-/ adj. a historic place or event is important as a part of history: important historic sites | “This is a historic moment,” he told journalists.

his-tor-i-cal /hɪ'stɔrɪkəl, -'stɑr-/ adj. 1 relating to the study of history: a collection of historical documents 2 historical events, people, etc. really happened or existed in the past his-to-ry /'hɪstəri/ n. (plural histories) 1 [U] all the things that happened in the past: Throughout history, wars have been fought over religion. | Lincoln has an important place in American history. 2 [U] the study of history, especially the political, social, or economic development of a particular country: a class in European history 3 [C] a book about events that happened in the past: a history of the Roman empire 4 be (ancient) history (spoken) to not exist any more or not affect you any more: One more losing season, and the coach will be history. 5 have a history of sth to have had illness, problems, etc. in the past: Paul has a history of heart disease. 6 make history/go down in history to do something important that will be remembered [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin historia, from Greek, from histor “knowing, learned”] his-tri-on-ics /,hɪstri'ʌnɪks/ n. [plural] (disapproving) behavior that is very emotional but is not sincere —histrionic adj.

hit¹ /hɪt/ v. (past tense and past participle hit, present participle hitting) [T]

1 STRIKE to swing your hand, or something held in your hand, hard against someone or something: He hit the boy on the nose. | She swung the bat and hit the ball.

THESAURUS

punch – to hit someone hard with your closed hand, especially in a fight: Steve punched him in the nose.

slap – to hit someone with the flat part of your hand, especially because you are angry with him or her: I felt like slapping his face.

beat – to hit someone or something deliberately many times, or to hit against the surface of something continuously: He had been robbed and beaten. | The wind howled and rain beat against the windows.

smack – to hit someone or something, usually with your open hand: Rick smacked him in the face. | Should a parent ever smack a child?

whack (informal) – to hit someone or something very hard: Edmonds whacked the ball over the fence.

strike (formal) – to hit someone or something very hard: She had been struck on the side of the head.

knock – to hit a door or window with your closed hand in order to attract the attention of the people inside: Someone was knocking on the door.

bang – to make a loud noise, especially by hitting something against something hard: A policeman was banging on the door.

tap – to gently hit your fingers or foot against something: I tapped him on the shoulder.

pound – to knock very hard, making a lot of noise: Thomas pounded on the door with his fist.

rap – to knock quickly several times: She rapped on his window angrily.

hammer – to hit against something several times, making a lot of noise: They hammered on my door until I opened up.

2 CRASH to crash into someone or something quickly and hard: Ann's car hit a tree. | I hit my head on the table.

THESAURUS

bump – to hit or knock against something, especially by accident: I bumped my head on the wall.

collide – to crash violently into something or someone: The two cars almost collided.

bang – to hit a part of your body against something by accident: I banged my toe on the dresser.

strike (formal) – to hit someone or something: The boys were struck and killed by a speeding car.

3 BAD EFFECT to have a bad effect on someone or something: The state's economy has been hit by budget cuts.

4 BULLET/BOMB to wound someone or damage something with a bullet or bomb: Over 90% of the bombs hit their intended targets.

5 REACH STH to reach a particular level, number, position, etc.: Unemployment has hit a new high, at 11.3%. | We'll hit the exit in three miles.

6 hit it off (with sb) (informal) to like someone as soon as you meet him/her

7 THINK OF if an idea, thought, etc. hits you, you suddenly think of it: It suddenly hit me that he was just lonely.

8 hit the roof/ceiling (informal) to become very angry: Cheryl really hit the roof when I told her.

9 hit the road (informal) to start on a trip

10 hit the hay/sack (spoken) to go to bed

11 hit the spot (spoken) if a food or drink hits the spot, it tastes good and is exactly what you want [ORIGIN: 1000–1100 Old Norse hitta 'to find, hit'] → hit the bottle at BOTTLE¹ hit back phr. v.

to attack or criticize someone who is attacking or criticizing you: Today the President hit back at his critics.

hit on sth phr. v.

to have a good idea about something, often by chance: Turner may have hit on a solution.

hit sb up for sth phr. v.

(spoken) to ask someone for something: Mitch hit him up for a loan.

hit² n. [C] 1 a movie, song, play, etc. that is very successful: Her first novel was a big hit.

THESAURUS bestseller, blockbuster → POPULAR

2 the action of successfully striking something you are aiming at: The missile scored a direct hit. 3 be a hit (with sb) to be liked very much by someone: These brownies are always a hit. 4 a quick hard blow with your hand, or with something in your hand hit-and-miss also hit-or-miss adj. (informal) done in a way that is not planned or organized well hit-and-run adj. a hit-and-run accident is one in which a car driver hits someone and then drives away without stopping to help hitch¹ /hɪtʃ/ v. 1 [I, T] (informal) to travel by asking for free rides in other people's cars [SYN] hitchhike: We hitched a ride with a couple from Florida. 2 [T] to fasten something to something else: Dad finished hitching the trailer to the car. 3 get hitched (informal) to get married hitch sth ↔ up phr. v. to pull a piece of clothing up: Bill hitched up his pants.

hitch² n. [C] 1 a small problem that causes a delay: The performance went off without a hitch (=happened with no problems).

THESAURUS problem, setback, difficulty, snag → PROBLEM

2 a part on a vehicle that is used to connect it to something it is pulling hitch-hike /hɪtʃhaɪk/ v. [I] to travel by asking for free rides in other people's cars —hitchhiker n. [C] —hitchhiking n. [U]

hi-tech /ˌhaɪˈtɛk/ adj. another spelling of HIGH-TECH hither /ˈhɪðə/ adv. (literary) 1 (old-fashioned) here, to this place 2 hither and thither/yon in many directions hitherto /ˌhɪðəˈtuː, ˈhɪðəˈtu/ adv. (formal) up until now: a hitherto unexplored land

'hit list n. [C usually singular] (informal) the names of people, organizations, etc. whom you would like to damage, hurt, or deal with

'hit man n. [C] (informal) a criminal whose job is to kill someone

HIV also HIV/AIDS /ˌeɪtʃ aɪ vi ˈeɪdz/ n. [U] BIOLOGY Human Immunodeficiency Virus a type of VIRUS that enters the body through the blood or through sexual activity, and that can develop into AIDS: Brad tested HIV positive (=he has HIV). hive /haɪv/ n. 1 [C] also beehive a place where BEES live 2 hives [plural] a condition in which someone's skin swells and becomes red, usually because s/he is ALLERGIC to something hmm, hm /hm, hmh/ interjection a sound that you make to express doubt or disagreement

HMO n. [C] health maintenance organization a type of health insurance organization, in which members can only go to doctors and hospitals that are part of the organization ho /hoʊ/ interjection used in writing to represent a shout of laughter in a deep voice hoard¹ /hɔːd/ also hoard up v. [T] to collect things in large amounts and keep them in a secret place: Fearful citizens were hoarding food in case of war.

THESAURUS keep, store, save, collect → KEEP¹ hoard² n. [C] a group of valuable things that someone has hidden to keep safe: a hoard of gold hoarse /hɔːrs/ adj. someone who is hoarse has a voice that sounds rough, often because of a sore throat hoax /həʊks/ n. [C] a trick that makes someone believe something that is not true: The bomb threat turned out to be a hoax. —hoaxer n. [C] hob-ble /ˈhɒbəl/ v. [I] to walk with difficulty, taking small steps, usually because you are injured

hob-by /'hɒbi/ n. (plural hobbies) [C] an activity that you enjoy doing in your free time: Do you have a hobby? | I started painting as a hobby.

THESAURUS game, sport, recreation →
GAME¹

ho-bo /'həʊbəʊ/ n. (plural hoboes or hobos) [C] (old-fashioned) someone who travels around and has no home or regular job hock¹ /hɒk/ v. [T] (informal) to PAWN something hock² n. be in hock (informal) to be in debt hock-ey /'hɒki/ n. [U] also ice hockey a sport played on ice in which players use long curved sticks to try to hit a hard flat round object into a GOAL → FIELD HOCKEY: a hockey team/player/game → see picture on page A4

hodge-podge /'hɒdʒpɒdʒ/ n. [singular] a lot of things put together with no order or arrangement: The cafe is decorated with a hodgepodge of little knick-knacks and souvenirs.

hoe /hoʊ/ n. [C] a garden tool with a long handle, used for making the soil loose and for removing wild plants —hoe v. [I,T] hog¹ /hɒg, hɒʒ/ n. [C] 1 a large pig that is kept for its meat 2 (informal) someone who keeps or uses all of something for himself/herself 3 go (the) whole hog (informal) to do something thoroughly or completely hog² v. (hogged, hogging) [T] (informal) to keep or use all of something for yourself in a way that is unfair: My sister was hogging the mirror.

ho-hum /,hoʊ 'hʌm/ adj. (informal) disappointing or boring: a ho-hum movie hoist¹ /hɔɪst/ v. [T] to raise or lift something, especially using ropes or a special machine hoist² n. [C] a piece of equipment used for lifting heavy things ho-key /'hɒki/ adj. (informal, disapproving) expressing emotions in a way that seems old-fashioned, silly, or too simple: a hokey love song hold¹ /həʊld/ v. (past tense and past participle held /held/)

1 IN YOUR HANDS/ARMS [T] to have something firmly in your hands or arms: Will you hold my purse for a minute? | Hold my hand when we cross the street. | He held it carefully in his hands. | I held her tight. | a couple holding hands (=holding each other's hands) → see picture on page A8

THESAURUS

grip – to hold something very tightly: I gripped the rail and tried not to look down.

clutch – to hold something tightly, especially something you think might be taken away from you: a child clutching a bag of candy catch/take/keep/get (a) hold of sth – to take something in your hands and hold it tightly: Catch hold of the rope and pull.

grasp – to take and hold something firmly in your hands: I grasped his arm and led him away.

clasp – to hold someone or something tightly, especially someone's hands: The child clasped her mother's hand.

grab (hold of sth)/seize – to take hold of someone or something suddenly or violently: He grabbed the bag and ran.

THESAURUS hug, embrace, cuddle, wrap your arms around sb → HUG¹

2 EVENT [T] to have a meeting, party, etc., especially in a particular place or at a particular time: a conference held in Las Vegas | Elections will be held in March. | The Senate will be holding hearings into the matter. | In April, the president held talks with Chinese leaders.

3 MOVE IN YOUR HAND [T] to move your hand or something in your hand in a particular direction: She held the picture up so we could see it. | Hold out your hand.

4 KEEP IN POSITION [T] to make something stay in a particular position: He held the door open for me. | Some tape held it in place/position. | Hold still (=don't move) for a minute.

5 HAVE SPACE FOR [T] to have space for a particular amount of something: The jug holds two gallons of liquid.

6 KEEP/CONTAIN [T] to keep or contain something: The files are held on computer. | That closet holds our winter clothes.

7 POSITION/RANK/JOB [T] to have a particular position, job, or level of achievement: The permit allows foreign workers to hold jobs in the U.S. | She was the first woman to hold high office. | He holds the record for the 10,000 meters race.

8 CONTINUE/NOT CHANGE [I,T] to continue at a particular level, rate, or number, or to make something do this: Hold your speed at fifty miles an hour. | Housing prices are holding steady.

9 hold it! (spoken) used in order to tell someone to wait, or to stop doing something

10 TELEPHONE [I] to wait until the person you have telephoned is ready to answer: Will you hold, please?

11 hold sb's interest/attention to keep someone interested: She knows how to hold her students' interest.

12 hold sb responsible/liable/accountable etc. to think that someone is responsible for something bad that has happened: Parents may be held responsible for their children's crimes.

13 hold your own to succeed in a difficult situation, or to be good enough when compared to similar things: The rebels held their own against the better-equipped army.

14 HAVE A QUALITY [T] to have a particular quality: The new drug holds promise for cancer sufferers.

15 CAGE/PRISONER [T] to keep a person or animal in a place where he, she, or it cannot leave: Police are holding two suspects. | The tigers are held in cages until they can be released in the wild. | He was held hostage/prisoner/captive for two years.

16 SUPPORT WEIGHT [I,T] to support the weight of something: I wasn't sure the branch would hold him.

H

17 THINK/BELIEVE [T] (formal) to think or believe something: He disagrees with most of the views/beliefs/opinions held by Republican politicians. | The theory holds that tax cuts help economic growth.

18 hold true/good (formal) to be true in particular situations: I think her statement holds true for older women (=is true about them). [ORIGIN: Old English healdan] → hold your breath at BREATH, hold your horses! at HORSE¹, hold sway at SWAY² hold sth against sb phr. v.

to blame someone for something s/he has done: If the economy worsens, voters are likely to hold it against him.

hold back phr. v.

1 hold sth ↔ back to control something or make it stay in one place: The police couldn't hold the crowds back.

2 hold (sth ↔) back to stop yourself from showing a particular feeling or saying something: She struggled to hold back her tears.

3 hold sb/sth back to prevent someone or something from developing or improving: Your son's reading problems are holding him back.

hold sth ↔ down phr. v.

1 to stop someone or something from moving, by pressing or holding him, her, or it: Hold down the red button while lifting the handle.

2 to keep something at a low level: Insurance companies want to hold down health care costs.

3 hold down a job to keep your job: It's hard to hold down a job and go to college at the same time.

hold off phr. v.

1 to delay doing something: We held off on making the decision.

2 hold sb ↔ off to prevent someone from attacking or defeating you: The Jaguars held off the Buccaneers with a touchdown late in the game.

hold on phr. v.

1 (spoken) said when you want someone to wait or stop talking for a short time: Yeah, hold on, Mike is right here. | Hold on a minute/second. Let me put this in the car.

2 to hold something tightly with your hand or arms: She can hardly walk without holding on to something. | Okay, Becky, hold on tight!

3 to continue to do something difficult until it gets better: The Rangers held on to win the game in the final period.

hold on to sth phr. v.

to keep something, especially something that someone else wants: People are holding on to their cars for longer.

hold out phr. v.

1 to continue to defend yourself, or keep on refusing to do something: Some of the council members are holding out against the changes.

2 hold out hope/the prospect etc. to say that something may happen: The doctors don't hold out much hope.

3 if a supply of something holds out, there is still some of it left: We talked for as long as the wine held out.

hold out for sth phr. v.

to refuse to accept less than you have asked for: He hasn't signed a contract; he's holding out for more money.

hold out on sb phr. v.

to refuse to tell someone something s/he wants or needs to know hold over phr. v.

be held over if a concert, play, or movie is held over, it is shown for longer than was planned because it is very good: The play has been held over for another week.

hold sb to sth phr. v.

to make someone do what s/he has promised to do: "He said he would do it." "Well, you'd better hold him to it."

hold together phr. v.

1 hold sth ↔ together if a group, family, organization, etc. holds together, or something holds it together, it stays together: The children are the only thing holding their marriage together.

2 to remain whole, without breaking: I hope the car holds together long enough to get us to Fresno.

hold up phr. v.

1 hold sb/sth ↔ up to make someone or something late: I got held up in traffic.

2 hold up sth to try to steal money from a store, bank, etc. using a gun: Two men held up the convenience store.

3 hold sth ↔ up to support something: Posts hold up the tin roof.

4 to remain strong or effective: The theory didn't hold up in practice.

hold² n. 1 [singular, U] the action of holding something: He grabbed/took/caught hold of my arm. 2 get (a) hold of sth to find someone or something for a particular purpose: Were you able to get a hold of Mike? | See if you can get hold of an overhead projector. 3 on hold a) waiting on the telephone before speaking to someone: His secretary put me on hold. b) if something is on hold, it is going to be done or dealt with later: Her own plans had to be put on hold while she took care of her mother. 4 [singular] control, power, or influence over something or someone: The rebels were tightening their hold over the countryside. 5 take hold to start to have an effect on someone or something: The ceasefire took hold in December. 6 [C] the part of a ship where goods are stored hold-er /'hoʊldə/ n. [C] 1 someone who has control of or owns a place, position, or thing: Only ticket holders will be admitted. 2 something that holds or contains something else: a napkin holder hold-ing /'hoʊldɪŋ/ n. [C] something that you own or rent, especially land or part of a company

'holding company n. [C] a company that owns a controlling number of SHARES in other companies hold-o-ver /'hoʊld,ovə/ n. [C] a feeling, idea, fashion, etc. from the past that has continued to the present: The robes that judges wear are a holdover from a time when all important people wore robes.

hold-up /'hoʊldʌp/ n. [C] 1 a delay, especially one caused by traffic 2 an attempt to rob someone, especially using a gun hole¹ /hoʊl/ n. [C] 1 an empty or open space in something solid: a hole in my sock | The dog dug a hole in the yard.

THESAURUS

space – the empty area between two things, into which you can put something: There's a space for that box on the shelf over there.

gap – an empty space between two things or two parts of something: A cold wind blew through the gap in the window.

leak – a small hole that lets liquid or gas flow into or out of something: a leak in the oil tank crack – a very narrow space between two things or two parts of something: John peeked through the crack in the door.

opening – a hole or space in something: an opening in the fence cavity (formal) – a hole or space inside something solid, especially your body: an infection in your nasal cavities

2 the home of a small animal: a rabbit hole 3 one of the small holes in the ground that you try to hit the ball into in GOLF 4 a problem or fault in an idea, plan, or story, so that it can be proven wrong or does not make sense: The witness's testimony was full of holes. 5 (informal) a bad, ugly, or dirty place: I have to get out of this hole. 6 be in the hole (spoken) to owe money: We're still $600 in the hole. [ORIGIN: Old English hol]

hole² v.

hole up phr. v. to hide somewhere, or find shelter somewhere: The rebels are holed up in an army building.

hol-i-day /'hɒlə,deɪ/ n. (plural holidays) [C] a day when you do not have to go to work, school, etc.: July 1 is a national holiday in Canada. [ORIGIN: Old English haligdæg “holy day”]

THESAURUS

vacation, break, leave →

VACATION

ho-li-ness /'hoʊlɪnɪs/ n. 1 [U] the quality of being pure and holy 2 Your/His Holiness a title used for talking to or about some religious leaders, especially the Pope ho-lis-tic /hoʊ'lɪstɪk/ adj. concerning the whole of something, rather than its parts: Some doctors are interested in holistic medicine (=medicine that treats the whole person, not just the illness).

hol-ler /'hɒlə/ v. [I,T] (informal) to shout loudly: Dad hollered at me to hurry up. —holler n. [C]

THESAURUS

shout, scream, yell, bellow →

SHOUT¹

hol-low¹ /'həloʊ/ adj. 1 having an empty space inside: a hollow chocolate bunny 2 feelings or words that are hollow are not sincere: His promises ring hollow (=seem insincere). 3 hollow cheeks/eyes etc. cheeks, eyes, etc. where the skin has sunk inward, especially because the person is sick or too thin hollow² n. [C] 1 a hole in something, especially the ground, that is not very deep 2 a small valley hollow³ v.

hollow sth ↔ out phr. v. to remove the inside of something hol-ly /'hɒli/ n. [U] a small tree with dark shiny pointed green leaves and red berries, often used as a decoration at Christmas → see picture on page A10

Hol-ly-wood /'hɒli,wʊd/ n. a city in California near Los Angeles, known as the center of the American movie industry

hol-o-caust /'hɒlə,kɔːst, 'hoʊ-/ n. [C] 1 an event that kills many people and destroys many things: a nuclear holocaust 2 the Holocaust HISTORY the killing of millions of Jews by the Nazis in Europe in World War II [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French holocauste, from Greek holokaustos “burnt whole,” from holos “whole” + kaiein “to burn”] hol-o-gram /'hoʊlə,græm, 'hɑ-/ n. [C] a special picture made with a LASER that looks as if it is not flat [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Greek holos “whole” + English -gram]

hol-ster /'hoʊlstə/ n. [C] a leather object that you use for carrying a gun ho-ly /'hoʊli/ adj. (comparative holier, superlative holiest) 1 relating to God or religion (SYN) sacred: the holy city of Jerusalem 2 very religious and morally pure: a holy man 3 holy cow/mackerel/moly (spoken) used in order to express surprise, admiration, or fear [ORIGIN: Old English halig]

Holy 'Ghost n. the HOLY SPIRIT

holy grail /,hoʊli 'greɪl/ n. [singular] 1 something that you try very hard to get or achieve: A cure for AIDS has become something of a medical holy grail. 2 the Holy Grail the cup believed to have been used by Jesus Christ before his death. In stories, especially stories about King Arthur, people search for this cup.

'Holy Land n. the Holy Land the parts of the Middle East where the events in the Bible happened

'Holy 'Spirit n. the Holy Spirit God in the form of a spirit, according to the Christian religion [SYN] Holy Ghost

hom-age /'hɑmɪdʒ, 'ɑ-/ n. [singular, U] (formal) something that you say or do to show respect for an important person: The visitors paid homage to the war veterans. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French hommage, from homme “man, man who owes duty to a ruler”]

home¹ /həʊm/ n. 1 [C,U] the place where you usually live, especially with your family: I decided just to stay at home. | I've been living at home (=living with my parents) for the past two years.

THESAURUS

house – the house, apartment, or room where someone lives: Let's go over to Dave's house.

place (informal) – the house, apartment, or room where someone lives: Do you want to come back to my place for coffee?

residence (formal) – the place where you live: a private residence dwelling (formal) – a house, apartment, etc. where people live: the cliff dwellings in Colorado, where the Anasazi Indians used to live abode (formal) – the place where you live, used especially in literature: In Norse mythology, Valhalla is the abode of fallen warriors.

2 [C,U] the place where you come from or your country: car sales at home and abroad | It even made the news back home. 3 be/feel at home to feel comfortable somewhere, or confident doing something: I grew up in Manhattan, and this is where I feel at home. | It took a while before I felt at home using the new program. 4 the home of sth the place where something lives or comes from: Australia is the home of the kangaroo. 5 make yourself at home (spoken) said in order to tell someone who is visiting that s/he should relax 6 [C] a place where people live who cannot take care of themselves because they are very old, sick, etc.: I could never put Dad into a home. 7 [C] also home plate the base that players must touch in baseball to gain a point [ORIGIN: Old English ham “village, home”]

home² adv. 1 to or at the place where you live: Hi, honey, I'm home. | Come on, Andy, it's time to go home. | Many kids come home to an empty house. | I should get home in time for dinner. ▶ Don't say “go/get/come at home.” ◀ 2 take home to earn a particular amount of money after tax has been taken away: I take home about $200 a week. 3 drive/hammer sth home to make someone understand what you mean by saying it in a very clear and determined way: We need to hammer home the message that drugs are dangerous. 4 hit home if something hits home, it makes you realize or understand something more clearly: She said I was bullying her, and that really hit home.

home³ adj. 1 relating to or belonging to your home or family, or done at home: My home town is Matamata. | What's your home address? | some good home cooking (=meals cooked by your family) 2 playing on your own sports field rather than an opponent's field [ANT] away: The home team is ahead by four runs.

home⁴ v.

home in on sth phr. v. to aim exactly at something and move directly toward it: A rescue plane homed in on the location of the crash.

home-boy /'həʊmbɔɪ/ n. [C] (slang) a male HOMEY home-com-ing /'həʊm,kəmɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 an occasion when someone comes back to his/her home after being away for a long time 2 an occasion when former students return to their school or college home-land /'həʊmlænd/ n. [C] the country where you were born home-less /'həʊmlɪs/ adj. 1 the homeless people who do not have a place to live, and who often live in the streets 2 without a home: The war left a lot of people homeless. —homelessness n. [U] home-ly /'həʊmli/ adj. a homely person is not very attractive —homeliness n. [U] home-made /'həʊm'meɪd/ adj. made at home and not bought from a store: homemade jam home-mak-er /'həʊm,mekə/ n. [C] someone who works at home cooking and cleaning, and does not have another job

'home 'office n. [C] an office you have in your house so that you can do your job at home

ho-me-op-a-thy /,həʊmi'əpəθi/ n. [U] a system of medicine in which someone who is sick is given very small amounts of a substance that has the same effects as the disease [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 German homöopathie, from Greek homoios “like” + pathos “suffering”] —homeopathic /,həʊmiə'pæθɪk/ adj.

ho-me-o-sta-sis /,həʊmiə'steɪsɪs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the process in which a living ORGANISM or cell stays in the same state even when its environment changes home page, home-page /'həʊmpeɪdʒ/ n. [C] IT the first page of a website on the Internet, which usually has LINKS to the other parts of the website

'home plate n. [U] in a game of baseball, the place where you stand to hit the ball, which is also the last place the player who is running must touch in order to get a point hom-er /'həʊmər/ n. [C] a HOME RUN —homer v. [I] home-room /'həʊmrum, -rɒm/ n. [C] the room where students go at the beginning of the school day, or at the beginning of each SEMESTER

'home 'run n. [C] a long hit in baseball that lets the player run around all the bases and get a point home 'shopping n. [U] shopping that you do at home by telephone, mail, or Internet, buying things that you have seen on the television or Internet home-sick /'hoom,sɪk/ adj. feeling sad because you are away from your home: I felt homesick already for my family. —homesickness n. [U] home-stead /'hoomstɛd/ n. [C] a farm and the area of land and buildings around it, especially one that was originally given to someone by the government —homestead v. [I,T] home-stead-er /'hoom,stɛdɜ:/ n. [C] HISTORY in the past, homesteaders were people who owned an area of land that was given to them by the government according to a law called the Homestead Act home-ward /'hoomwɔ:d/ adj. going toward home —homeward adv.

home-work /'hoomwɜ:k/ n. [U] 1 work for school that a student does at home → HOUSEWORK: Have you done your homework? | my math/history/English etc. homework 2 do (sb's) homework to prepare for something by finding out information: Before the interview, do some homework about the company.

hom-ey¹ /'hoomi/ adj. comfortable and pleasant, like home: The restaurant had a nice homey atmosphere.

homey² n. [C] (slang) a friend, or someone who comes from your area or GANG hom-i-ci-dal /,həmə'saɪdl̩, 'hou-/ adj. likely to murder someone hom-i-cide /'həmə,said, 'hou-/ n. [C,U] LAW the crime of murder [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 French, Latin homicidium, from homo “man” + caedere “to kill”] hom-i-nid /'həmənɪd, 'hou-/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a member of a group of animals which includes humans and also the animals from which humans developed hom-i-noid /'həmənɔɪd, 'hou-/ adj. 1 similar to a human 2 BIOLOGY belonging to a group of animals that includes humans and APES ho-mo-ge-ne-ous /,hoomə'dʒɪniəs, -nyəs/ also ho-mog-e-nous /hə'mɒdʒənəs/ adj. (formal) consisting of parts or members that are all the same → HETEROGENEOUS [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Medieval Latin homogeneus, from Greek homo- “same” + genos “type”] —homogeneity /,hoomoudʒə'niəti, -'neɪti/ n. [U] homo-geneous 'mixture n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical substance consisting of two or more different substances that have completely combined together, so that all parts of the mixture look the same (SYN) solution ho-mo-ge-nize /hə'mɒdʒə,naɪz/ v. [T] (formal) to change something so that its parts become similar or the same ho-mo-ge-nized /hə'mɒdʒə,naɪzd/ adj. homogenized milk has had its cream mixed in with the milk hom-o-graph /'həmə,grɑf, 'hou-/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word that is spelled the same as another, but is different in meaning, origin, grammar, or pronunciation. For example, the noun “record” is a homograph of the verb “record.” [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Greek homo- “same” + -graphos “written”] ho-mol-o-gous /hə'mələgəs/ adj. 1 BIOLOGY relating to two CHROMOSOMES that have the same form and structure 2 BIOLOGY relating to parts of a person's or animal's body which EVOLVED (=developed) from the same animal, and which now look different or have a different purpose: a homologous structure

hom-o-nym /'həmənɪm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word that sounds the same and is spelled the same as another word, but has a different meaning. For example, the noun “bear” and the verb “bear” are homonyms. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin homonymum, from Greek, from homos + onyma “name”] ho-mo-pho-bi-a /,hoomə'foubiə/ n. [U] hatred and fear of homosexuals [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 homosexual + -phobia] —homophobic adj.

THESAURUS prejudice, intolerance, sexism
→ PREJUDICE¹

H

hom-o-phone /'həmə,foun, 'hou-/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word that sounds the same as another word, but is different in spelling or meaning. For example, “pair” and “pear” are homophones.

ho-mo-sex-u-al /,hoomə'sɛkʃuəl/ adj. (formal) sexually attracted to people of the same sex (SYN) gay (ANT) heterosexual → BISEXUAL —homosexual n. [C] —homosexuality /,hoomə'sɛkʃu'æləti/ n. [U]

ho-mo-zy-gous /,hoomou'zaɪgəs/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to a homologous CHROMOSOME which contains a pair of GENES which are exactly the same hon-cho /'hantʃou/ n. (plural honchos) [C] (informal) an important person who controls something: Where's the head honcho? [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 Japanese hanchō “group leader”] hone /houn/ v. [T] 1 to improve a skill: Players must practice to hone their skills. 2 to make a knife, sword, etc. sharp

hon-est /'anɪst/ adj. 1 someone who is honest does not lie, cheat, or steal (ANT) dishonest: an honest, hardworking man 2 not hiding the truth or the facts about something: The honest answer was that I didn't know. | I need you to be honest with me.

THESAURUS

frank – honest and direct in the way that you speak: To be frank, I don't like him very much.
candid – telling the truth, even when the truth may be unpleasant or embarrassing: It sounds like you need to have a candid talk with him.

direct – saying exactly what you mean in an honest and clear way: direct criticism upfront – talking or behaving in a direct and honest way: Parents need to be upfront with their kids about the risks of drugs and alcohol.

straight – honest and direct and telling the truth: Are you being straight with me?

straightforward – honest and not hiding what you think: He seems like a straightforward guy.

blunt – speaking in an honest way even if it upsets people: She was blunt about her feelings.

forthright – saying honestly what you think, in a way that may seem rude: She answered the questions in a forthright manner.

3 honest/to be honest (spoken) said to emphasize that what you are saying is true: We didn't think of that, to be honest with you. 4 honest mistake a mistake you make when you did not intend to deceive anyone or be cruel [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French honeste, from Latin honestus]

hon-est-ly /'anɪstli/ adv. 1 (spoken) said to emphasize that what you are saying is true, even though it may seem surprising: I honestly don't know what to do. | Honestly, it doesn't matter. 2 in an honest way (ANT dishonestly): Walters spoke honestly about her problems.

H hon-es-ty /'anəsti/ n. [U] 1 the quality of being honest (ANT dishonesty): He has a reputation for honesty and decency. 2 in all honesty (spoken) said when you tell someone what you really think: In all honesty, we made a lot of mistakes.

hon-ey /'hani/ n. [U] 1 a sweet sticky substance made by BEES, used as food 2 (spoken) a name that you call someone you love: Have a good day, honey. [ORIGIN: Old English hunig]

hon-ey-comb /'hani,kʊm/ n. [C] a structure made by BEES to store honey in → see picture at HIVE

hon-ey-moon /'hani,mun/ n. [C] a vacation taken by two people who have just gotten married: a picture of them on their honeymoon [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 honey + moon; because the moon appears to get smaller, like the love of some newly married people] —honeymooner n. [C] hon-ey-suck-le /'hani,səkəl/ n. [C,U] a climbing plant with yellow or pink flowers that smell sweet

honk /hɒŋk, hɒŋk/ v. [I,T] to make a loud noise like a car horn or a GOOSE: A taxi driver honked his horn behind her. —honk n. [C]

hon-or /'ɒnə/ n. 1 [singular] something that makes you feel proud and glad: It's an honor to meet you. | Being chosen to give the speech was a great honor. 2 [U] the respect that someone or something receives from other people → DIS-HONOR: a statue in honor of (=to show respect for) Abraham Lincoln 3 [C] something that is given to someone to show him/her that people respect and admire what s/he has done: The medal is the government's highest honor for artists. 4 with honors if you finish high school or college with honors, you get one of the highest grades: Sabrina graduated with honors. 5 [U] strong moral beliefs and standards of behavior that make people respect and trust you: a man of honor 6 Your Honor used when speaking to a judge honor² v. [T] 1 to do something to show publicly that someone is respected and admired: The team will be honored with a parade. 2 be honored to feel very proud and glad: I'm honored to meet you. 3 honor a contract/agreement etc. to do what you have agreed to do in a contract, etc. 4 honor a check to accept a check as payment hon-or-a-ble /'ɒnərəbəl/ adj. morally correct, and deserving respect and admiration (ANT dishonorable): an honorable action —honorably adv.

hon-or-ar-y /'ɒnə,ri/ adj. 1 given to someone as an honor: an honorary degree 2 someone who has an honorary position does not receive payment for his/her work

'honor roll n. [C] a list of the best students in a school: Don made the honor roll for the first time.

'honor student n. [C] a student whose name is included on the honor roll because his/her grades are among the highest in the school

hood /hʊd/ n. [C] 1 the metal cover over the engine of a car 2 the part of a coat that you pull up to cover your head 3 (slang) a NEIGHBORHOOD 4 (informal) a hoodlum hood-ed /'hʊdɪd/ adj. having a hood or wearing a hood: a hooded jacket hood-lum /'hʊdləm, 'hʊd-/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a young person who does bad, often illegal things [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 German dialect hudel-lump “lazy useless person”] hoof /hʊf, hʊf/ n. (plural hoofs or hooves /hʊvz, hʊvz/) [C] the hard foot of an animal such as a horse → see picture on page A2

hook¹ /hʊk/ n. [C] 1 a curved object that you hang things on: a coat hook 2 a curved piece of metal with a sharp point that you use for catching fish 3 let sb off the hook to allow someone to get out of a difficult situation: I'll let you off the hook today, but don't be late again. 4 off the hook if a telephone is off the hook, the part of the telephone that you speak into is not on its base, so no one can call you hook² v. [T] 1 to fasten or hang something onto something else: Hook the rope over/on the nail. 2 (informal) to succeed in making someone interested in something or attracted to something: The ads are designed to hook young people. 3 to catch a fish with a hook hook sth ↔ up phr. v. to connect something, especially a piece of equipment, to another piece of equipment or to an electricity supply: Jen helped me hook up the printer to my computer.

hook up with sb phr. v. to meet someone and become friendly with him/her or start a romantic relationship with him/her hooked /hʊkt/ adj. 1 be/get hooked on sth (informal) a) to be or become very interested in something and want to do or see it a lot: We're trying to get kids hooked on books. b) to be unable to stop taking a drug (SYN) addicted 2 shaped like a hook: a hooked nose hook-er /'hʊkə/ n. [C] (informal) a PROSTITUTE

Hooke's law /,hʊks 'lɔ/ n. PHYSICS a scientific rule stating that the amount an ELASTIC material stretches, is pressed, etc. is directly connected to the amount of force being used hook-y /'hʊki/ n. (informal) play hooky to stay away from school without permission hoo-li-gan /'hʊlɪɡən/ n. [C] a noisy violent person who causes trouble by fighting or damaging things hoop /hʊp/ n. 1 [C] a circular piece of wood, metal, plastic, etc.: hoop earrings | a basketball hoop (=what you throw the ball through) 2 hoops [plural] (informal) basketball: The guys are out shooting hoops (=playing basketball).

hoo-ray /hʊ'reɪ/ interjection shouted when you are very excited and happy about something hoot¹ /hʊt/ n. [C] 1 the sound made by an OWL or a ship's horn 2 a shout or laugh that shows you think something is funny, exciting, or stupid: hoots of laughter 3 be a hoot (spoken) to be a lot of fun 4 not give a hoot (spoken) to not care or be interested in something hoot² v. [I,T] 1 if an OWL or a ship's horn hoots, it makes a loud clear noise 2 to shout or laugh loudly because you think something is funny or stupid

hooves /hʊvz, hʊvz/ n. a plural of HOOF

hop¹ /hɒp/ v. (hopped, hopping) [I] 1 to move by making short quick jumps → see picture at JUMP¹

THESAURUS jump, skip, leap, spring → JUMP¹

2 (informal) to get into, onto, or out of something, for example a vehicle: Hop in and I'll give you a ride.

hop² n. [C] 1 a short jump 2 short hop (informal) a short trip by airplane

hope¹ /həʊp/ v. [I,T] to want something to happen or be true: I hope (that) you feel better soon. | We hope to reduce our costs. | Leaders are hoping for a quick end to the fighting. | You just do what you can and hope for the best (=hope a situation will end well). | "Can I help you?" "I hope so (=I hope this will happen)." | "Do you think it's going to rain?" "I hope not!" (=I hope this will not happen)

USAGE

Use hope to to talk about something that you or someone else wants to do: She hopes to go to law school.

Use hope that to talk about what you hope will happen: I hope that the weather will be sunny tomorrow.

hope² n. 1 [C usually singular, U] the feeling that good things can or will happen: The new treatment gives/offers hope to cancer patients (=makes them have hope). | The report expresses little hope that the economy will improve soon. | our hopes for peace | We have high hopes (=strong feelings that something good will happen) for this year's team. 2 [C,U] a chance of succeeding or of something good happening: Many of these children have no hope of going to college. | There is still a faint hope that the two sides will reach an agreement. 3 [C] something that you hope will happen: her hopes and fears for the future 4 in the hope that/of sth if you do something in the hope that you will get a particular result, you do it, even though you cannot be sure of this result: Her parents put her in a new school, in the hope that her work would improve. 5 don't get your hopes up (spoken) used in order to tell someone that something s/he is hoping for is not likely to happen hope-ful /'həʊpfəl/ adj. 1 believing that what you want is likely to happen: We're hopeful about our chances of winning. | I'm hopeful that the situation will improve. 2 making you feel that what you want is likely to happen: There are hopeful signs that an agreement will be reached. —hopefulness n. [U]

hope-ful-ly /'həʊpfəli/ adv. 1 a way of saying what you hope will happen, which some people think is not correct: Hopefully, I'll be home early. 2 in a hopeful way: They talked hopefully about their futures.

hope-less /'həʊp-lɪs/ adj. 1 without any chance of success or improvement: the hopeless poverty of the inner cities 2 feeling no hope, or showing this —hopelessly adv. —hopelessness n. [U] hop-scotch /'hɒpskɒtʃ/ n. [U] a game in which children jump on squares drawn on the ground horde /hɔːd/ n. [C] a large crowd moving in a noisy uncontrolled way: hordes of tourists ho-ri-zon /hə'reɪzən/ n. 1 the horizon the place where the land or ocean seems to meet the sky: a ship on the horizon 2 horizons [plural] the limit of your ideas, knowledge, and experience: I took an evening class to broaden my horizons. 3 on the horizon seeming likely to happen in the future: There may be a recession on the horizon. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Late Latin, Greek, from horizein "to limit"] hor-i-zon-tal /,hɔːrə'zɒntəl, ,hɔːr-/ adj. flat and level: a horizontal surface —horizontally adv. → see picture at LINE¹

THESAURUS flat, level → FLAT¹

hor-mone /'hɔːmoun/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a substance

H

produced by your body that influences its growth, development, and condition —hormonal /hɔːr'mounl/ adj.

horn /hɔːn/ n. 1 [C,U] a hard pointed thing that grows in pairs on the heads of cows, goats, etc., or the substance this is made of → ANTLERS → see picture on page A2 2 [C] the thing in a car, truck, etc. that you push to make a sound as a warning: Someone was honking/blowing a horn (=made a noise with the horn) behind him. 3 [C] a TRUMPET hor-net /'hɔːnɪt/ n. [C] a large black and yellow insect that can sting you hor-o-scope /'hɔːə,skoʊp, 'hɑː-/ n. [C] a description of your character and things that will happen to you, based on the position of the stars and PLANETS when you were born → ZODIAC [ORIGIN: 1000–1100 French, Greek horoskōpos, from hora “hour” + skopein “to look at”] hor-ren-dous /hə'rendəs, hɔː-/ adj. 1 frightening and terrible: a horrendous disaster

THESAURUS bad, awful, terrible, horrible, appalling, horrific → BAD¹

2 extremely bad or difficult: Traffic was horrendous on the freeway.

THESAURUS horrible, awful, terrible, dreadful → HORRIBLE

H hor-ri-ble /'hɔːrəbəl, 'hɑː-/ adj. 1 very bad, and sometimes frightening (SYN terrible, awful): a horrible accident | The weather was horrible.

THESAURUS

Describing a horrible taste or smell disgusting: It tastes disgusting.

awful: The wine was awful.

revolting: What's that revolting smell?

foul: the foul smell of the chemicals

Describing a horrible experience, situation, or feeling terrible: I feel terrible.

awful: an awful headache dreadful: What a dreadful thing to happen.

horrendous: The weather was horrendous. → BAD¹

2 not polite or not friendly (SYN terrible, awful): horrible manners —horribly adv.

hor-rif-ic /hɔːrɪfɪk, hɔː-/ adj. very bad, frightening, and upsetting: horrific violence

THESAURUS bad, awful, terrible, horrible, appalling, horrendous → BAD¹

hor-ri-fied /'hɔːə,faɪd, 'hɑː-/ adj. feeling very shocked or upset: We were horrified to hear/see/learn how sick he was. —horrifying adj. —horrify v. [T] hor-ror /'hɔːə, 'hɑː-/ n. 1 [U] a strong feeling of shock and fear: I watched in horror as Ramsey hit her. 2 [C] something that is very shocking or frightening: the horrors of war hors d'oeu-vre /ɔːr 'dɔːv/ n. [C] a small amount of food that is served before people sit down at the table for the main meal

horse¹ /hɔːrs/ n. [C] 1 a large strong animal that people ride on and use for pulling heavy things → PONY: A girl was riding a white horse. | a horse race → *see picture at FARM*¹ 2 hold your horses! (spoken) said when you want someone to wait or to stop doing something [ORIGIN: Old English hors] horse² v.

horse around phr. v. (informal) to play in a rough and silly way horse-back /'hɔːsbæk/ n. 1 horseback riding the activity of riding a horse for pleasure 2 on horseback riding a horse: two men on horseback horse-play /'hɔːs-pleɪ/ n. [U] rough noisy play horse-pow-er /'hɔːs,paʊə/ n. (plural horse-power) (written abbreviation hp) [C] a unit for measuring the power of an engine horse-shoe /'hɔːf-ʃu, 'hɔːs-/ n. 1 [C] a curved piece of iron that is attached to the bottom of a horse's foot to protect it 2 horseshoes [U] an outdoor game in which horseshoes are thrown at a post hor-ti-cul-ture /'hɔːtə,kʌltʃə/ n. [U] the practice or science of growing plants [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin hortus “garden” + English culture] —horticultural /,hɔːtə'kʌltʃərəl/ adj.

hose¹ /hoʊz/ n. 1 [C,U] a long rubber or plastic tube that can be moved and bent, used to put water onto plants, fires, etc., or to allow liquids or air to flow through an engine, etc. 2 [plural] PANTYHOSE

hose² v.

hose sb/sth ↔ down/off phr. v. to wash or pour water over someone or something, using a hose: Would you hose down the car for me?

hos-pice /'haspɪs/ n. [C] a special hospital where people who are dying are cared for hos-pi-ta-ble /hə'spɪtəbəl, 'haspɪ-/ adj. 1 friendly, welcoming, and generous to visitors (ANT inhospitable → HOSPITALITY: a hospitable family)

THESAURUS friendly, warm, cordial, welcoming → FRIENDLY

2 providing a situation in which something can succeed or happen (ANT inhospitable): Nursing was a field hospitable to women.

hos-pi-tal /'haspɪtl/ n. [C,U] a building where sick or injured people receive medical treatment: *Rick's dad is still in the hospital (=being cared for in a hospital). | He was unconscious and had to be taken/rushed to the hospital. | His wife had been admitted to/released from the hospital the day before. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Medieval Latin hospitale “place to stay at,” from Latin hospitalis “of a guest”] hos-pi-tal-i-ty /ˌhɒspə'tæləti/ n. [U] friendly behavior toward visitors hos-pi-tal-ize /ˌhɒspɪtlaɪz/ v. [T] to put someone into a hospital for medical treatment: Two people were hospitalized with stab wounds. —hospitalization /ˌhɒspɪtl-ə'zeɪʃən/ n. [U] host¹ /hoʊst/ n. [C] 1 the person at a party who invited the guests and organized the party → HOST-ESS: Our host greeted us at the door. 2 someone who introduces and talks to the guests on a television or radio show: a game show host 3 a country or organization that provides the space, equipment, etc. for a special event: The bookstore will play host to a poetry reading. 4 a (whole) host of sth a large number of things: a host of possibilities 5 BIOLOGY an animal or plant on which a smaller animal or plant is living as a PARASITE host² v. [T] to be the host of an event, television program, etc.

hos-tage /ˈhɒstɪdʒ/ n. [C] someone who is kept as a prisoner by an enemy, so that the other side will do what the enemy demands (SYN captive): Three nurses were taken/held hostage (=caught and used as hostages) by the rebels.

hos-tel /ˈhɒstl/ n. [C] a cheap place for young people to stay when they are traveling

THESAURUS hotel, motel, inn, bed and breakfast (b&b), campground → HOTEL

host-ess /ˈhoʊstɪs/ n. [C] 1 the woman at a party who invited the guests and organized the party 2 a woman who takes people to their seats in a restaurant hos-tile /ˈhɒstl, 'hɒstəl/ adj. 1 very unfriendly and ready to fight or argue with someone: a hostile audience 2 opposing a plan or idea very strongly: Several unions are hostile to the proposals. 3 belonging to an enemy: hostile territory 4 difficult to live in: Plants such as cacti can survive in hostile environments. 5 hostile takeover/bid a situation in which a company tries to buy another company which does not want to be bought [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French, Latin hostilis, from hostis “stranger, enemy”] hos-til-i-ty /hɒ'stɪləti/ n. 1 [U] unfriendly and angry feelings or behavior: Why is there so much hostility toward immigrants? 2 [U] strong opposition to a plan or idea: There's a certain amount of hostility to the changes.

THESAURUS opposition, antagonism, antipathy → OPPOSITION

3 hostilities [plural] (formal) the fighting in a war: an end to hostilities

hot /hɒt/ adj. (comparative hotter, superlative hottest) 1 high in temperature (ANT cold): Be careful – the soup's hot. | a hot shower | It's hot (=the weather is hot) today. | The Mojave Desert is the hottest place in America. | We were all hot and tired. | a steaming/piping/boiling hot cup of coffee |

a scorching/broiling/boiling hot day in August | The metal became red hot (=extremely hot).

THESAURUS

warm – a little hot, especially in a pleasant way: a warm summer evening humid – having air that feels hot and wet rather than dry: the humid heat of the Brazilian rainforest boiling/baking/scorching (hot) – extremely hot: a boiling hot weekend in August sweltering – hot in a very unpleasant, uncomfortable way: the sweltering heat of the desert lukewarm – a liquid that is lukewarm is only slightly warm, and not as cold or hot as it should be: a glass of lukewarm water scalding – a scalding liquid is extremely hot, and hot enough to burn you: a cup of scalding coffee → COLD¹, WEATHER¹

2 food that tastes hot has a burning taste (SYN spicy) (ANT mild): hot peppers

THESAURUS sweet, tasty, sour, salty, spicy → TASTE¹

3 (informal) very good, popular, or exciting: The tennis program has produced some hot young talents. | the hottest toy this Christmas 4 difficult or dangerous to deal with: Studio bosses decided her video was too hot to handle (=too much trouble to deal with). | Education has become the hot topic/issue (=the subject that people are arguing about) in this election. 5 (informal) sexually exciting or attractive 6 not so hot (spoken) slightly sick: I'm not feeling so hot. 7 be in hot water (informal) to be in trouble because you have done something wrong: He was always in hot water at school. 8 hot air (informal) things that someone says to sound important, but that do not really mean anything or are not true 9 be hot at sth to be very good at doing something: I wasn't too hot at math. 10 a hot potato (informal) a subject or problem that no one wants to deal with because any decision would make a lot of people angry 11 be in/on the hot seat to be forced to deal with a difficult or bad situation, especially in politics [ORIGIN: Old English hat]

hot-'air bal-loon n. [C] a very large BALLOON made of cloth and filled with hot air, used for carrying people in the air hot-bed /ˈhɒtˈbed/ n. a hotbed of sth a place where a lot of a particular type of activity happens: At that time, the university was a hotbed of liberal ideas.

hot-cake /ˈhɒtˈkerk/ n. [C] 1 sell/go like hot-cakes (spoken) to sell very quickly and in large amounts 2 a PANCAKE

'hot dog, hot-dog /ˈhɒtdɒg/ n. [C] a long SAUSAGE (=tube-shaped piece of cooked meat), eaten in a long BUN (=type of bread)

ho-tel /həu'tel/ n. [C] a large building where people pay to stay for a short time: I prefer to stay in a small hotel. | We checked into our hotel by six.

[ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French hôtel, from Old French hostel]

TOPIC

In order to arrange to stay at a hotel, you can make a reservation or reserve a room. When you arrive at the hotel, you check in or check into the hotel by going to the reception desk and saying that you have arrived. In many hotels, you can eat a meal in the restaurant or call/order room service in order to arrange for food to be delivered to your room. When you leave the hotel, you check out or check out of the hotel and pay the bill.
→ ACCOMMODATION

THESAURUS

motel – a hotel for people traveling by car, usually with a place for the car near each room inn – a small hotel, especially one where you can have breakfast and that is not in a city bed and breakfast (B&B) – a house or a small hotel where you pay to sleep and have breakfast hostel – a cheap place for young people to stay when they are traveling campground – a place where you camp in a tent hot 'flash n. [C] a sudden hot feeling that women have during MENOPAUSE

H

hot-head /'hʌθəd/ n. [C] someone who gets angry or excited easily and does things too quickly, without thinking —hotheaded adj.

'hot key n. [C] IT one or more keys that you can press on a computer KEYBOARD to make the computer quickly do a particular set of actions hot-line /'hɒtˈlaɪn/ n. [C] a special telephone number that people can call for quick help with questions or problems: a suicide hotline hot-ly /'hɒtli/ adv. 1 in an angry or excited way: a hotly debated/disputed issue 2 done with a lot of energy or effort: the hotly contested race for governor

'hot plate, hot-plate /'hɒtpleɪt/ n. [C] a small piece of equipment with a flat heated top, used for cooking food

'hot rod n. [C] (informal) a car that you have put a powerful engine into hot-shot /'hɒtˌʃɒt/ n. [C] (informal, disapproving) someone who is very successful and confident —hotshot adj.: a hotshot lawyer

'hot spot n. [C] 1 a place where there is likely to be fighting or a particular problem: hot spots around the globe 2 PHYSICS a place where there is a lot of heat or RADIATION 3 IT an area on a computer screen that you CLICK on in order to make other pictures, words, etc. appear

'hot-'tempered adj. tending to become angry very easily

'hot tub n. [C] a heated bathtub that several people can sit in hot-'water ,bottle n. [C] a rubber container filled with hot water, used to make a bed warm

'hot-wire v. [T] (informal) to start the engine of a vehicle without a key, by using the wires of the IGNITION system

hound¹ /haʊnd/ v. [T] to keep following someone and asking him/her questions in an annoying or threatening way: Celebrities are hounded by reporters.

hound² n. [C] a dog used for hunting hour /aʊə/ n. 1 [C] a unit for measuring time. There are 60 minutes in one hour: It takes two hours to get here from the airport. | I'll be home in an hour. | We met for an hour over lunch. | Paul should have been here a half hour/half an hour (=30 minutes) ago. | A bomb exploded in the airport just hours before (=a few hours before) the President's arrival. | a ten-hour trip (=one that is ten hours long) | a top speed of 120 miles per hour ▶ Don't say "a ten hours trip." ◀ 2 [C] the distance you can travel in an hour: The lake is an hour from Hartford. 3 [singular] a time of day when a new hour starts: Classes begin on the hour (=exactly at 1 o'clock, 2 o'clock, etc.). 4 [C] a particular period or point in time during the day or night: I'll go to the store on my lunch hour. | Parking is restricted during daylight hours. | I'm sorry to bother you at this hour (=at this late time). 5 [C] an important time in history or in your life: You were there in my hour of need (=when I needed help). 6 hours [plural] a) the period of time when a store or business is open, or when a particular activity happens: The mall's opening hours are from 9 a.m. till 9 p.m. | Please phone during office hours. | What are the visiting hours (=the time when you can visit) at the hospital? | The inventory will be done after hours (=when the store is closed). b) (informal) a long time: She spends hours on the phone. 7 at all hours at any time during the day and night: People wander through the lobby at all hours. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French heure, from Latin hora, from Greek] hour-glass /'aʊəglæs/ n. [C] a glass container for measuring time, in which sand moves from the top half through a narrow middle part to the bottom half in exactly one hour hour-ly /'aʊəli/ adj., adv. 1 happening or done every hour: an hourly news bulletin | Trains from Boston arrive hourly.

THESAURUS

regular, daily, weekly, monthly, yearly → REGULAR¹

2 hourly pay/fees etc. the amount you earn or charge for every hour you work

house¹ /haʊs/ n. (plural houses /'haʊzɪz/) 1 [C] a building that you live in, especially one that is intended to be used by one family: I'm going over to Dean's house. | a three-bedroom house | Every room in the house was cluttered with books. | You're welcome to stay at my house.

THESAURUS

ranch house/ranch – a long narrow house built on one level cottage – a small house in the country row house – one of a row of houses that are joined together mansion – a very large house bungalow – a small house that is usually all on one level duplex – a house that is divided into two separate homes apartment – a set of rooms that is part of a bigger building condominium/condo – one apartment in a building with several apartments, each of which is owned by the people living in it townhouse a house in a group of houses that share one or more walls mobile home/trailer – a type of house that can be pulled by a large vehicle and moved to another place home, place, residence, dwelling, abode → HOME¹

2 [C] all the people who live in a house: Be quiet, or you'll wake the whole house! 3 [C] a building used for a particular purpose or to keep a particular thing in: the Opera House | a hen house 4 [C] a) POLITICS one of the groups of people who make the laws of a state or country: The President will speak to both houses of Congress on Thursday. b) the House POLITICS the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 5 [C] a company, especially one involved in a particular area of business: America's oldest publishing house 6 [C] the part of a theater where people sit, or the people in it: There was a full house (=every seat was full) at Friday's performance. 7 be on the house (spoken) if drinks or meals in a restaurant are on the house, they are free 8 also house music [U] a type of modern dance music [ORIGIN: Old English hus]

house² /haʊz/ v. [T] 1 to provide someone with a place to live: More than 150,000 prisoners are housed in 32 prisons. 2 if a building houses something, that thing is kept there

'house ar,rest n. be under house arrest to not be allowed to leave your house by the government or police house-bound /'haʊsbəʊnd/ adj. not able to leave your house, especially because you are sick or old house-bro-ken /'haʊs,broʊkən/ adj. a pet animal that is housebroken has been trained not to make the house dirty with its URINE or other body waste house-hold¹ /'haʊshəʊld, 'haʊsəʊld/ n. [C] all the people who live together in one house household² adj. 1 relating to taking care of a house and the people in it: household chores 2 be a household name/word to be famous or known about by many people house-keep-er /'haʊs,ki:pə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to do the cooking, cleaning, etc. in a house or hotel house-keep-ing /'haʊs,ki:pɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 the work that needs to be done in a house, hotel, etc. to keep it clean 2 the department in a large building such as a hotel or hospital that is in charge of keeping the building clean inside

'House of Repre'sentatives n. the House of Representatives POLITICS the larger of the two groups of people who are part of the government and who make the laws in countries such as the U.S. and Australia → SENATE house-plant /'haʊsplənt/ n. [C] a plant that is grown indoors for decoration

'house-sit v. [I] to take care of someone's house while s/he is away house-ware's /'haʊswɜːz/ n. [plural] things used in the home, such as plates and lamps house-warm-ing /'haʊs,wɔːmɪŋ/ n. [C] a party that you give to celebrate moving into a new house house-wife /'haʊswaɪf/ n. [plural housewives /-waɪvz/] [C] a married woman who works at home doing the cooking, cleaning, etc. → HOME-MAKER house-work /'haʊswɜːk/ n. [U] the work that you do to take care of a house, for example cleaning and washing clothes → HOMEWORK housing /'haʊzɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] the buildings that people live in: affordable housing 2 [U] the work of providing houses for people to live in: a housing program 3 [C] a protective cover for a machine: the engine housing

'housing development n. [C] a number of houses built in the same area at the same time, usually in a similar style

'housing project n. [C] a group of houses or apartments for poor families, usually built with money from the government hov-el /'hʌvəl, 'hɑː-/ n. [C] (literary) a small dirty place where someone lives hov-er /'hʌvə-/ v. [I] 1 if a bird, insect, or HELICOPTER hovers, it stays in one place in the air 2 to stay in the same place, especially because you are waiting for something: Her family hovered at her bedside. 3 to stay close to a particular amount: The temperature hovered just above freezing.

how /haʊ/ adv., conjunction 1 used in order to ask about or explain the way something happens or is done: How do you spell your name? | Martin explained how the system worked. | The advisor can show you how to apply for the loan. 2 used in order to ask about the amount, size, or degree of something: How old is Debbie? | How long have you been here? | How much are the tickets? (=what do they cost) 3 used in order to ask about someone's health: How is your mother these days? 4 used in order to ask someone about his/her opinion or his/her experience of something: "How do I look?" "Great!" | How was your vacation? 5 used in order to ask what someone or something looks like, behaves like, or the way something is expressed: How does that song go? | How does she act with other children? 6 used before an adjective or adverb to emphasize it: How odd that they didn't tell anyone they were leaving.

H

SPOKEN PHRASES

7 how are you?/how's it going?/how are you doing? used when asking if someone is well and happy: So, how's it going at work? 8 how about ...? used when making a suggestion about what to do: I'm busy tonight, but how about tomorrow? 9 how come? used when asking why something has happened (SYN why): How come you didn't tell me this before? 10 how do you know? used when asking why someone is sure about something: "He's not back yet." "How do you know?" 11 how can/could sb do sth? said when you are very surprised by something or disapprove strongly of it: How could you say that to her? 12 how do you do? (formal) said when you meet someone for the first time how-dy /'haʊdi/ (spoken, informal, humorous) used in order to say "hello" in an informal, usually humorous way how-ev-er¹ /'haʊ'evə/ adv. 1 used in order to add an idea or fact that is surprising or seems very different from what you have just said: It is a serious disease that is, however, easy to treat. → ALTHOUGH 2 used in order to say that it does not matter how big, good, serious, etc. something is because it will not change a situation in any way: However difficult it is for you to accept, it is the truth.

however² conjunction in whatever way: However you do it, I'm sure it will be good.

howl /haʊl/ v. [I] 1 to make a long loud crying sound like a dog or a WOLF → BARK 2 if the wind howls, it makes a loud high sound as it blows 3 to make a loud shouting or crying sound: The jokes had the audience howling with laughter. —howl n. [C]

HQ the abbreviation of HEADQUARTERS

hr. (plural hrs.) the written abbreviation of HOUR

HTML n. [U] IT hypertext markup language a computer language used to make documents that can be put on the Internet → SGML, XML hub /hʌb/ n. [C] 1 the central part of an area, system, etc. that all the other parts are connected to: the hub of a transit system 2 the central part of a wheel hub-bub /'hʌbʌb/ n. [singular, U] (informal) 1 the noise of a lot of people all talking at the same time 2 a situation in which there is a lot of activity or excitement: the hubbub surrounding the trial hub-cap /'hʌbkæp/ n. [C] a metal cover for the center of a wheel on a vehicle hu-bris /'hyubris/ n. [U] (literary) too much PRIDE (=pleasure in what you have achieved) huddle /'hʌdl/ v. [I] 1 also huddle together/up if a group of people huddle together, they gather very closely together: A group of reporters were huddled around the door. 2 to lie or sit with your arms and legs close to your body because you are cold or frightened: Rosie huddled under the blankets. —huddle n. [C] hue /hyu/ n. [C] (literary) a color or type of color → SHADE: a golden hue

huff¹ /hʌf/ n. in a huff feeling angry: Ray left in a huff.

huff² v. (informal) huff and puff to breathe out in a noisy way, especially because you have been doing physical work huffy /'hʌfi/ adj. (informal) annoyed or slightly angry: Don't get huffy with me.

hug¹ /hʌg/ v. (hugged, hugging) [T] 1 to put your arms around someone and hold him/her tightly to show love or friendship: Hug your children.

THESAURUS

embrace – to put your arms around someone and hold him/her in a caring way: Jason warmly embraced his son.

cuddle – to put your arms around someone or something as a sign of love: Dawn and her boyfriend were cuddling on the sofa.

hold – to have something firmly in your hands or arms: She held the baby in her arms.

wrap your arms around sb – to hold someone in a loving way by putting your arms around his or her body: I wrapped my arms around my daughter as she cried.

2 to move along the side, edge, top, etc. of something, staying very close to it: A boat was hugging the coast.

hug² n. [C] the act of hugging: Give me a hug.

huge /hyudʒ/ adj. very big: Their house is huge. | a huge problem —hugely adv.

THESAURUS big, large, enormous, vast, gigantic, massive, immense, colossal → BIG huh /hʌ/ interjection 1 said when you have not heard or understood a question: "What do you think, Bob?" "Huh?" 2 said at the end of a question to ask for agreement: Not a bad restaurant, huh?

hulk /hʌlk/ n. [C] 1 an old ship, airplane, or vehicle that is no longer used 2 a large heavy person or thing hull /hʌl/ n. [C] the main outer structure or body of a ship hul-la-ba-loo

/'hʌləbə'lu, ,hʌləbə'lu/ n. [singular, U] (informal) a lot of noise, excited talk, newspaper stories, etc., especially about something surprising or shocking: There's always so much hullabaloo about the Olympics.

hum /hʌm/ v. (hummed, humming) 1 [I,T] to sing a tune by making a continuous sound with your lips closed: Mrs. Garner hummed while she worked. 2 [I] to make a low continuous sound: Air conditioners hummed in the windows. 3 [I] if a place is humming, it is very busy and full of activity —hum n. [singular]

hu-man¹ /'hyʊmən/ adj. 1 belonging to or relating to people: human behavior | the different cell types in the human body | Viruses are too small to be seen by the human eye. | NASA said the accident was a result of human error (=a mistake made by a person, not a machine). | the value of human life 2 human weaknesses, emotions, etc. are typical of ordinary people → INHUMAN: The movie shows us human nature (=the good and bad qualities that are typical of people) at its best and worst. 3 sb is only human used in order to say that someone should not be blamed for what s/he has done 4 human interest a quality that makes a story interesting because it is about people's lives, feelings, relationships, etc. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French humain, from Latin humanus]

human² also human being n. [C] a man, woman, or child hu-mane /hyu'meɪn/ adj. treating people or animals in a way that is kind, not cruel (ANT) inhuman —humanely adv.

hu-man-ism /'hyʊməˌnɪzəm/ n. [U] the belief that human problems can be solved through science rather than religion —humanist n. [C] —humanistic /ˌhyʊməˌnɪstɪk/ adj.

hu-man-i-tar-i-an /hyu,mænə'terɪən/ adj. [only before noun] concerned with improving bad living conditions and preventing unfair treatment of people: Humanitarian aid/relief/assistance is flowing into the country. —humanitarian n. [C] —humanitarianism n. [U]

hu-man-i-ty /hyu'mænəti/ n. 1 [U] people in general → HUMANKIND: Pollution poses a danger to humanity. 2 [U] kindness, respect, and sympathy toward other people (ANT) inhumanity: a man of great humanity 3 the humanities [plural] subjects you study that are related to literature, history, art, etc. rather than mathematics or science 4 [U] the state of being human hu-man-ize /'hyʊməˌnaɪz/ v. [T] to make a system more pleasant for people: The changes should help to humanize the prison.

hu-man-kind /'hyʊmənˌkaɪnd/ n. [U] people in general (SYN) mankind → HUMANITY

THESAURUS man, mankind, people → MAN¹ hu-man-ly /'hyʊmənli/ adv. humanly possible able to be done using all your skills, knowledge, time, etc.: The doctors did everything humanly possible to save his life.

human 'race n. the human race all people, considered as a single group human 'resources n. [U] the department in a company that deals with employing, training, and helping people (SYN) personnel human 'rights n. [plural] the basic rights that every person should have to be treated in a fair equal way without cruelty, especially by his/her government hum-ble¹ /'hʌmbəl/ adj. 1 (approving) not considering yourself or your ideas to be as important as other people's (ANT) proud → HUMILITY: a quiet, humble man 2 relating to a low social class or position: The senator talked about his humble beginnings/background on a farm in Iowa. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin humilis “low, humble,” from humus “earth”] —humbly adv.

humble² v. [T] to make someone realize that s/he is not as important, good, kind, etc. as s/he thought: The team was humbled by a surprise defeat. —humbling adj.

hum-drum /'hʌmdrʌm/ adj. boring, ordinary, and having very little variety: a humdrum job

THESAURUS boring, dull, tedious, not (very/that/all that) interesting, monotonous → BORING hu-mer-us /'hyʊməɹəs/ n. (plural humeri /-raɪ/) [C] BIOLOGY the bone between your shoulder and elbow hu-mid /'hyʊmɪd/ adj. if the weather is humid, the air feels warm and wet: Summers here are hot and humid. → HOT → DAMP hu-mid-i-fier /hyu'mɪdəˌfaɪə/ n. [C] a machine that makes the air in a room less dry —humidify v. [T] hu-mid-i-ty /hyu'mɪdəti/ n. [U] the amount of water that is contained in the air: Atlanta is known for its heat and high humidity during the summer.

hu-mil-i-ate /hyu'mɪliˌeɪt/ v. [T] to make someone feel ashamed or stupid, especially when other people are present → EMBARRASS: Her husband abused and humiliated her. —humiliated adj. —humiliation /hyu,mɪli'eɪʃən/ n. [C,U] hu-mil-i-at-ing /hyu'mɪliˌeɪtɪŋ/ adj. making you feel ashamed or embarrassed: a humiliating defeat at the polls hu-mil-i-ty /hyu'mɪləti/ n. [U] (approving) the quality of not being too proud about yourself hu-mor¹ /'hyʊmə/ n. [U] 1 the ability to laugh at things and think that they are funny, or funny things you say that show you have this ability: She has a great sense of humor. | Allen's dry/black/wry humor (=humor with a particular quality) 2 the quality in something that makes it funny and makes people laugh: a novel full of humor and intelligence 3 good humor a happy friendly attitude to people and events

H

humor² v. [T] to do what someone wants so that s/he will not become angry or upset: Just humor me and listen, please.

hu-mor-ist /'hyumərɪst/ n. [C] someone, especially a writer, who tells jokes and funny stories hu-mor-less /'hyumərlɪs/ adj. (disapproving) too serious and not able to laugh at things that are funny hu-mor-ous /'hyumərəs/ adj. funny and enjoyable: a humorous look at relationships —humorously adv.

THE SAURUS funny, witty, amusing, comical → FUNNY¹ hump /hʌmp/ n. [C] 1 a raised part on the back of a person or animal: a camel's hump 2 a round shape that rises above a surface: Do you see that big hump of rock sticking out of the prairie? 3 be over the hump to have finished the most difficult part of something hunch¹ /hʌntʃ/ n. [C] a feeling that something is true or that something will happen: My hunch is that things will improve soon. | I had a hunch you'd call today.

hunch² v. [I] to bend down and lean forward so that your back forms a curve: Employees were hunched over their computer screens. —hunched adj.

hunch-back /'hʌntʃ'bæk/ n. [C] (offensive) someone who has a large HUMP on his/her back hun-dred¹ /'hʌndrɪd/ number 1 100: a hundred years | two hundred miles 2 a very large number of things or people: Hundreds of people marched in protest. | You've seen that program a hundred times! 3 a/one hundred percent completely: I agree one hundred percent. 4 give a hundred percent to do everything you can in order to achieve something: Everyone on the team gave a hundred percent. [ORIGIN: Old English] —hundredth /'hʌndrɪdθ/ number hundred² n. [C] a piece of paper money worth $100 hun-dred-weight /'hʌndrɪd,weɪt/ (written abbreviation cwt) n. (plural hundredweight) [C] a measure of weight equal to 100 pounds or 45.36 kilograms hung /hʌŋ/ v. the past tense and past participle of HANG hun-ger¹ /'hʌŋɡə/ n. 1 [U] the feeling that you want or need to eat → HUNGRY, THIRSTY: He had hunger pangs (=feelings of being hungry) from missing lunch. ▶ Don't say "I have hunger." Say "I am hungry." 2 [U] a severe lack of food, especially for a long period of time (SYN) starvation: People were dying of hunger. 3 [singular, U] a strong need or desire for something: a hunger for power hunger² v.

hunger for sth phr. v. to want something very much

'hunger strike n. [C] a situation in which someone refuses to eat, in order to protest about something hung 'jury n. [C usually singular] a JURY that cannot agree about whether someone is guilty of a crime hung 'over adj. feeling sick because you drank too much alcohol the previous day → HANGOVER

hun-gry /'hʌŋɡri/ adj. (comparative hungrier, superlative hungriest) 1 wanting to eat something → HUNGER, THIRST: When's dinner? I'm hungry. | If you get hungry, there's some turkey in the fridge. 2 go hungry to not have enough food to eat: Despite our country's wealth, many poor families still go hungry. 3 be hungry for sth to want something very much: She was a lonely child who was hungry for a friend. —hungrily adv.

hung 'up adj. (informal) worrying too much about someone or something: Let's not get hung up on the details here.

hunk /hʌŋk/ n. [C] 1 a thick piece of something that has been taken from a bigger piece: a hunk of bread 2 (informal) an attractive man who has a strong body hun-ker /'hʌŋkə/ v.

hunker down phr. v. 1 (informal) to not do things that may be risky, so that you are safe and protected: People are hunkering down and waiting for the economy to get better. 2 to bend your knees so that you are sitting on your heels, close to the ground (SYN) squat hunt¹ /hʌnt/ v. [I,T] 1 to chase animals or birds in order to catch and kill them: This isn't the season for hunting deer. 2 to look for someone or something very carefully: She was hunting for the perfect wedding gown. [ORIGIN: Old English huntian] hunt sb/sth ↔ down phr. v. to find an enemy or criminal after searching hard: The agency was created to hunt down war criminals.

hunt² n. [C] 1 a careful search for someone or something: The hunt for the missing child continues today. 2 an occasion when people chase animals in order to catch or kill them hunt-er /'hʌntə/ n. [C] 1 a person or animal that hunts wild animals 2 someone who is looking for a particular thing: job hunters

'hunter-gatherer n. [C] SOCIAL SCIENCE a member of a society who live by hunting animals and collecting wild plants hunt-ing /'hʌntɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 the act of chasing animals in order to catch or kill them: Ed's going to go deer hunting next weekend. 2 job-hunting/ house-hunting etc. the activity of looking for a job, a house to live in, etc. —hunting adj.

hur-dle¹ /'hʌdl/ n. [C] 1 a problem or difficulty that you must deal with before you can achieve something: The drug has cleared the final hurdle for FDA approval. 2 a type of small fence that a person or a horse jumps over during a race hurdle² v. [T] to jump over something while you are running —hurdler n. [C]

THESAURUS jump, skip, hop, leap, vault → JUMP¹

hurl /hɜːl/ v. 1 [T] to throw something using a lot of force: He hurled a brick through/out the window.

THESAURUS throw, toss, chuck, fling, lob
→ THROW¹

2 hurl insults/abuse etc. at sb to shout at someone in a loud and angry way 3 [I] (spoken, humorous) to VOMIT

hur-ray /hə'reɪ, hʊ'reɪ/ also hur-rah /hʊ'ra/ interjection HOORAY hur-ri-cane /'hʊɹi,keɪn, 'hʌr-/ n. [C] a severe tropical storm that forms over the Atlantic Ocean at the end of summer and beginning of fall, with very strong winds of at least 74 miles per hour → TORNA DO [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Spanish huracán, from Taino (a Caribbean language) hurakán]

THESAURUS wind, gale, storm, tornado, typhoon → WIND¹

hur-ried /'hʊɹɪd, 'hʌrɪd/ adj. done more quickly than usual: We ate a hurried breakfast. —hurriedly adv.

hur-ry¹ /'hʊɹi, 'hʌri/ v. (hurried, hurries) [I,T] to do something or go somewhere more quickly than usual, or to make someone or something do this (SYN) rush: Students hurried across/around etc. campus. | The girls hurried home to tell their parents. | I spend so much time hurrying the kids to/from activities.

THESAURUS rush, race, dash, hasten → RUSH¹

hurry up phr. v. 1 to do something or move somewhere more quickly: I wish the bus would hurry up and get here. | Hurry up! (=said when you want someone to hurry) We're going to be late! 2 hurry sb/sth up to make someone do something more quickly, or to make something happen more quickly

hurry² n. 1 be in a hurry to need to do something, go somewhere, etc. more quickly than usual: Why is she in such a hurry? | He was in a hurry to get to town. 2 (there's) no hurry (spoken) said in order to tell someone that s/he does not have to do something quickly or soon: Relax, there's no hurry. 3 not be in any hurry/be in no hurry to be able to wait because you have a lot of time in which to do something: Take your time; I'm not in any hurry. 4 what's (all) the hurry? (spoken) said when you think someone is doing something too quickly

hurt¹ /hɜːt/ v. (past tense and past participle hurt) 1 [T] to injure yourself or someone else: She hurt her knee playing volleyball. | Did you hurt yourself?

THESAURUS

Hurt and injure can mean the same, but hurt is usually used when the damage to your body is not very great: Alex fell and hurt his knee.

injure – used especially to say that someone has been hurt in an accident: Three people were seriously injured in the crash.

wound – to hurt someone using a weapon such as a gun or knife: The gunman killed two people and wounded six others.

maim (formal) – to injure someone very seriously and often permanently: People are killed or maimed every day in the war.

break – to damage a bone in your body bruise – to get a dark mark on your skin after part of your body has hit against something hard sprain/twist – to damage a joint in your body by suddenly twisting it strain/pull – to hurt one of your muscles by stretching it or using it too much dislocate – to move a bone out of its normal position in a joint

2 [I,T] to feel pain or cause pain in a part of your body: My stomach hurts. | It hurts my knees to run.

THESAURUS

ache – to feel a continuous pain: My back was aching.

throb – if a part of your body throbs, you get a regular feeling of pain in it: My throat was dry and my head was throbbing.

sting – to feel a sudden sharp pain in your eyes, throat, or skin, or to make someone feel this: The antiseptic might sting a little.

smart – to hurt with a stinging pain: The smoke made my eyes smart.

pinch – if something you are wearing pinches you, it is too tight and presses painfully on your skin: These shoes pinch my toes. → PAINFUL

3 [I,T] to make someone feel very upset or unhappy: I'm sorry, I didn't mean to hurt your feelings. 4 [T] to have a bad effect on someone or something: The loss hurts the team's chances of getting to the playoffs.

5 it won't/doesn't hurt to do sth (spoken) said when you think someone should do something or something is a good idea: It won't hurt him to clean his room. 6 be hurting (informal) to feel upset or unhappy about something —hurt n. [C,U] hurt² adj. 1 suffering pain or injury: It's okay, nobody got hurt. | Kerry was badly/seriously/slightly hurt in a skiing accident. 2 very upset or unhappy: Debra felt hurt and betrayed. ▶ You say “seriously/badly/slightly hurt” about an injury, but “very hurt” when someone upsets you. ◀ hurt-ful /'hɜːtʃəl/ adj. making you feel upset or unhappy hur-tle /'hɜːtl/ v. [I] to move or fall very fast hus-band /ˈhʌzbənd/ n. [C] the man that a woman is married to → WIFE: I'd like you to meet my husband Leon. [ORIGIN: Old English husbonda, from Old Norse, from hus “house” + bondi “someone who lives in a house”] hush¹ /hʌʃ/ v. [I] (spoken) said in order to tell someone to be quiet, or to comfort a child who is crying hush sth ↔ up phr. v. to prevent people from knowing about something dishonest: The senator denied that he had tried to hush up the story.

hush² n. [singular] a peaceful silence: A hush fell over the room (=everyone suddenly became quiet).

hushed /hʌʃt/ adj. quiet: They were speaking in hushed tones.

hush-hush adj. (informal) secret: The whole project was very hush-hush.

husk /hʌsk/ n. [C] the dry outer part of some grains, nuts, corn, etc.

husk-y¹ /ˈhʌski/ adj. 1 a husky voice is deep and sounds rough 2 a husky boy or man is big and strong husky² n. (plural huskies) [C] a dog with thick hair, often used for pulling sleds over snow hus-tle¹ /ˈhʌsəl/ v. 1 [T] to make someone move quickly, often by pushing him/her: Jackson was hustled into his car by bodyguards. 2 [I] to hurry in doing something or going somewhere: Come on, you guys! Let's hustle! 3 [I,T] (informal) to cheat someone in order to get money hustle² n. 1 hustle and bustle busy and noisy activity 2 [U] (informal) energy and determination in doing an activity: She's a good worker with a lot of hustle. 3 [C] (informal) a way of getting money that is illegal and dishonest hus-tler /ˈhʌslə/ n. [C] someone who gets money in a way that is illegal and dishonest hut /hʌt/ n. [C] a small wooden building with only one or two rooms hutch /hʌtʃ/ n. [C] 1 a small wooden box in which you can keep rabbits 2 a piece of furniture used for storing and showing dishes

hwy. the written abbreviation of HIGHWAY

hy-brid /ˈhaɪbrɪd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY 1 an animal or plant that is produced from parents of different breeds or types 2 something that is a mixture of two or more things: The book is a hybrid of fantasy and satire. —hybrid adj.: hybrid seed corn

hy-brid-i-za-tion /ˌhaɪbrɪdəˈzeɪʃən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a process in which a hybrid plant or animal is made —hybridize /ˈhaɪbrəˈdaɪz/ v. [I,T] hy-drant /ˈhaɪdrənt/ n. [C] a FIRE HYDRANT

hy-drau-lic /ˈhaɪˈdrɒlɪk/ adj. moved or operated by the pressure of water or other liquids: hydraulic brakes —hydraulically adv.

hy-drau-lics /ˈhaɪˈdrɒlɪks/ n. [U] PHYSICS the study of how to use water pressure to produce power hy-dro-car-bon /ˌhaɪdrouˈkɑːbən/ n. [C usually plural] CHEMISTRY a chemical compound that consists only of hydrogen and CARBON, such as coal or NATURAL GAS

hy-dro-e-lec-tric /ˌhaɪdrouˈlektɹɪk/ adj. PHYSICS using water power to produce electricity —hydroelectricity /ˌhaɪdrouˈlekˈtrɪsəti/ n. [U]: Large hydroelectric dams generate most of the country's hydroelectricity.

hy-dro-gen /ˈhaɪdrədʒən/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol H) a gas that is an ELEMENT and is lighter than air, and that forms water when it combines with oxygen [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French hydrogène, from hydro- “water” + -gène “producing;” because it produces water when it is burned] hydrogen per-oxide n. [U] CHEMISTRY a chemical liquid used for killing BACTERIA and for making hair and other substances lighter in color

hy-dro-plane /ˈhaɪdrəˌpleɪn/ v. [I] if a car hydroplanes, it slides on a wet road

hy-dro-ther-mal vent /ˌhaɪdrouˌθəˈməlˈvent/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES an opening in the ground at the bottom of the ocean, from which very hot water containing a lot of minerals is sent out with a lot of force

hy-drox-ide /ˈhaɪˈdrɒksaɪd/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical compound that contains one oxygen atom combined with one HYDROGEN atom hy,droxide-ion n. [C] CHEMISTRY a negative ION which has one oxygen atom and one HYDROGEN atom hy-e-na /haɪˈɪnə/ n. [C] a wild animal like a dog that makes a loud sound like a laugh

hy-giene /ˈhaɪdʒɪn/ n. [U] the practice of keeping yourself and the things around you clean in order to prevent diseases: The rules help to ensure good hygiene in school kitchens. | Good eating habits and personal hygiene (=keeping your body clean) can prevent infections. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French hygiène, from Greek hygieina, from hygies “healthy”]

hy-gi-en-ic /ˈhaɪˈdʒenɪk, -ˈdʒɪnɪk/ adj. clean and likely to prevent diseases from spreading hy-gro-scop-ic /ˌhaɪgrəˈskɒpɪk/ adj. CHEMISTRY hygroscopic salts and other compounds are able or likely to take in water easily from the surrounding air hymn /hɪm/ n. [C] a song of praise to God [ORIGIN: 800—900 Latin hymnus “song of praise,” from Greek hymnos]

hym-nal /ˈhɪmnəl/ n. [C] a book of hymns hype¹ /haɪp/ n. [U] attempts to make people think something is good or important by talking about it a lot on television, the radio, etc.: The movie looks like it'll be good, but there is so much media hype around it!

hype² also hype up v. [T] to try to make people think something is good or important by advertising or talking about it a lot on television, the radio, etc.: The mayor's speech has been hyped for weeks.

THESAURUS advertise, promote, market, publicize, plug → ADVERTISE hyped 'up adj. (informal) very excited or anxious about something: They're all hyped up about getting into the playoffs.

hy-per /'haɪpə/ adj. (informal) extremely excited or nervous hy-per-ac-tive /,haɪpə'æktɪv/ adj. someone, especially a child, who is hyperactive is too active, and not able to keep still or quiet for very long —hyperactivity /,haɪpə'æk'tɪvəti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS energetic, vigorous, full of energy, dynamic, lively → ENERGETIC hy-per-bo-la /haɪ'pəbələ/ n. [C] MATH a pair of curved lines formed by a PLANE (=flat surface) crossing two CONES, so that the difference of the distances between two fixed points inside the curves to any point on the curves is always the same → CONIC SECTION —hyperbolic /,haɪpə'bɒlɪk/ adj.

hy-per-bo-le /haɪ'pəbəli/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a way of describing something by saying that it is much bigger, smaller, heavier, etc. than it really is

hy-per-in-fla-tion /,haɪpə'ɪn'fleɪʃən/ n. [U] ECONOMICS a very fast rise in prices that seriously damages a country's ECONOMY

hy-per-link /'haɪpə,lɪŋk/ n. [C] IT a word or picture on a WEBSITE or computer document that will take you to another page or document if you CLICK on it (SYN) link hy-per-sen-si-tive /,haɪpə'sensətɪv/ adj. very easily offended or upset hy-per-ten-sion /,haɪpə'tenʃən, 'haɪpə'tenʃən/ n. [U] a medical condition in which someone's BLOOD PRESSURE is too high hy-per-ton-ic /,haɪpə'tɒnɪk/ adj. CHEMISTRY a hypertonic SOLUTION (=liquid with substances dissolved in it) contains more of a SOLUTE (=substance that is dissolved) than another solution that you are comparing it to → HYPOTONIC hy-per-ven-ti-late /,haɪpə'ventl,eɪt/ v. [I] to breathe too quickly because you are very excited or upset hy-phen /'haɪfən/ n. [C] a mark (-) used in writing to join words or parts of words hy-phen-ate /'haɪfə,neɪt/ v. [T] to join words or parts of words with a hyphen —hyphenated adj. —hyphenation /,haɪfə'neɪʃən/ n. [U] hyp-no-sis /hɪp'noʊsɪs/ n. [U] a state similar to sleep, in which someone's thoughts and actions can be influenced by someone else → HYPNOTIZE: He remembered details of the crime under hypnosis.

hyp-not-ic /hɪp'notɪk/ adj. 1 making someone feel tired, especially because sound or movement is repeated 2 relating to hypnosis: He was in a hypnotic trance. —hypnotically adv.

hyp-no-tize /'hɪpnə,təɪz/ v. [T] to produce a sleep-like state in someone, so that you can influence his/her thoughts or actions —hypnotism /'hɪpnə,tɪzəm/ n. [U] —hypnotist /'hɪpnətɪst/ n. [C] hy-po-chon-dri-ac /,haɪpə'kɒndrɪ,æk/ n. [C] someone who worries all the time about his/her health, even when s/he is not sick —hypochondriac adj. —hypochondria /,haɪpə'kɒndrɪə/ n. [U]

hy-poc-ri-sy /hɪ'pɒkrəsi/ n. [U] (disapproving) the act of saying you have particular beliefs, feelings, etc., but behaving in a way that shows you do not really have these beliefs or feelings [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French ypocrisie, from Greek hypokrisis "act of playing a part on stage, hypocrisy"]

hyp-o-crite /'hɪpə,kraɪt/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who pretends to believe something or behave in a good way when really s/he does not —hypocritical /,hɪpə'krɪtɪkəl/ adj.

hy-po-der-mic /,haɪpə'dəmkɪk/ also hypo-dermic needle n. [C] an instrument with a hollow needle used for putting drugs into someone's body through the skin → SYRINGE —hypodermic adj.

hy-pot-e-nuse /haɪ'pat'n-us/ n. [C] MATH the longest side of a TRIANGLE that has a RIGHT ANGLE

hy-po-thal-a-mus /,haɪpəu'θæləməs/ n. (plural hypothalami /-ləməɪ/) [C] BIOLOGY a small part of the brain that controls the temperature of your body, your desire for food and drink, and your need for sleep → see picture at BRAIN¹

hy-po-ther-mi-a /,haɪpə'θəmiə/ n. [U] a serious medical condition in which someone's body temperature becomes very low, caused by extreme cold hy-poth-e-sis /haɪ'pəθəsɪs/ (Ac) n. (plural hypotheses /-θəsɪz/) [C] 1 SCIENCE an idea that is suggested as an explanation of something, but that has not yet been proven to be true → THEORY: research that supports this hypothesis

THESAURUS idea, concept, theory → IDEA

2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the idea that follows "if" or "unless" in a CONDITIONAL sentence (=sentence that expresses an idea, fact, etc. that causes something else to be true) [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Greek hypothēnai "to put under"] —hypothesize /haɪ'pəθə,saɪz/ v. [T] hy-po-thet-i-cal /,haɪpə'θetɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. based on a situation that is not real, but that might happen (SYN) theoretical: This is a hypothetical story that illustrates the difference in how rich and poor people are treated. —hypothetically adv.

H

hy-po-ton-ic /ˌhaɪpəʊˈtɒnɪk/ adj. BIOLOGY a hypotonic SOLUTION (=liquid with substances dissolved in it) contains less of a SOLUTE (=substance that is dissolved) than another solution that you are comparing it to → HYPERTONIC hys-ter-ec-to-my /ˌhɪstəˈrektəmi/ n. (plural hysterectomies) [C] a medical operation to remove a woman's UTERUS hys-ter-i-a /hɪˈstɛriə, -ˈstɪriə/ n. [U] extreme excitement, anger, fear, etc. that you cannot control: News stories like these could cause mass hysteria. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 hysteria “hysterical” (17–20 centuries), from Greek hystera “uterus;” because it was believed hysteria was caused by the uterus]

hys-ter-i-cal /hɪˈstɛrɪkəl/ adj. 1 (informal) extremely funny: a hysterical comedy act

THESAURUS funny, hilarious, amusing, humorous → FUNNY¹

2 unable to control your behavior or emotions because you are very upset, afraid, excited, etc.: Don't tell Rob – he'll just get hysterical. —hysterically adv.

hys-ter-ics /hɪˈstɛrɪks/ n. [plural] 1 a state of being unable to control your behavior or emotions because you are very upset, afraid, excited, etc.: As soon as she saw the rat she went into hysterics. 2 be in hysterics (informal) to be unable to stop laughing: The audience was in hysterics.

H_z PHYSICS the written abbreviation of HERTZ

I

ii

I, i /aɪ/ 1 the ninth letter of the English alphabet 2 the number 1 in the system of ROMAN NUMERALS

I /aɪ/ pron. used as the subject of a verb when you are the person speaking: I saw Mike yesterday. | I've been playing softball. | I'm thirsty. | My boyfriend and I went to Miami. ▶ When you write or talk about yourself and another person, you should always mention the other person first, so don't say “I and my boyfriend...”

i number MATH an imaginary number that is equal to the SQUARE ROOT of negative 1

IA the written abbreviation of IOWA

i-amb /ˈaɪəmb/ also i-am-bus /aɪˈæmbəs/ n. (plural iambuses or iambi) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a RHYTHM in poetry in which a word or SYLLABLE that is not STRESSED is followed by one that is stressed, as in the word “alive”

i-am-bic pen-tam-e-ter /aɪˈæmbɪk pɛnˈtæmətər/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a common RHYTHM (=pattern of beats) used in English poetry, in which each line consists of five iambs. It was used more commonly in the past than it is today.

ice¹ /aɪs/ n. 1 [U] water that has frozen into a solid: Do you want some ice in your drink? | There's too much ice and snow on the roads. 2 break the ice to begin to be friendly to someone by talking to him/her: Stan tried to break the ice by asking her where she was from. [ORIGIN: Old English is]

ice² v. [T] 1 to put ice on a part of your body that is injured 2 FROST ice over/up phr. v. to become covered with ice: The lake iced over during the night.

'ice age n. 1 [C] EARTH SCIENCES one of the periods in the Earth's history when temperatures were very cold and ice covered large parts of the Earth's surface 2 the Ice Age HISTORY the most recent ice age, which happened thousands of years ago, when ice covered most northern countries ice-berg /ˈaɪsbɜːg/ n. [C] an extremely large piece of ice floating in the ocean → tip of the iceberg at TIP¹ ice-break-er /ˈaɪs,breɪkər/ n. [C] 1 something you say or do to make someone less nervous 2 a ship that can sail through ice

'ice cap n. [C usually singular] EARTH SCIENCES an area of thick ice that always covers the North and South Poles

'ice-'cold adj. extremely cold: ice-cold drinks

'ice cream n. [U] 1 a frozen sweet food made of milk or cream and sugar, usually with fruit, nuts, chocolate, etc. added to it: vanilla ice cream 2 [C] a small amount of this food for one person

'ice cream cone n. [C] a hard thin cookie shaped like a CONE, with ice cream in it

'ice cube n. [C] a small block of ice that you put in cold drinks

'iced 'coffee also 'ice 'coffee n. [C,U] cold coffee that is served with ice, milk, and sometimes sugar, or a glass of this drink

'iced 'tea also 'ice 'tea n. [C,U] cold tea that is served with ice and sometimes LEMON or sugar, or a glass of this drink

'ice hockey n. [U] HOCKEY → see picture on page A4

'ice pack n. [C] a bag of ice used for keeping something cold

'ice skate¹ n. [C usually plural] one of two special boots with metal blades on the bottom that let you slide quickly on ice

'ice skate² v. [I] to move along on ice for fun wearing ice skates —ice skater n. [C] —ice skating n. [U] i-ci-cle /'aɪsɪkəl/ n. [C] a thin pointed piece of ice that hangs down from something such as a roof ic-ing /'aɪsɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 FROSTING 2 sth is (the) icing on the cake used to say that something makes a good situation even better: Coe was delighted to win the race, but breaking the world record was the icing on the cake.

icky /'ɪki/ adj. (spoken) very disgusting to look at, taste, or feel: The soup tasted icky.

i-con /'aɪkən/ n. [C] 1 IT a small picture on a computer screen that makes the computer do something when you CLICK on it with the MOUSE 2 someone or something famous that people think represents an important idea: The peace symbol is an icon of the sixties. 3 a picture or figure of a holy person: religious icons [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, Greek eikon, from eikēnai “to be like”] i-con-o-clast /aɪ'kənə,klæst/ n. [C] someone who attacks established ideas and traditional ways of doing things icy /'aɪsi/ adj. (comparative icier, superlative iciest) 1 extremely cold: a burst of icy air

THESAURUS cold, cool, chilly, frosty, freezing (cold), bitter (cold), frigid → COLD¹

2 covered in ice: an icy road 3 unfriendly and frightening: an icy stare —icily adv. —iciness n. [U]

I'd /aɪd/ 1 the short form of “I had”: I'd never met Kurt before today. 2 the short form of “I would”: I'd love to come!

ID¹ n. [C,U] identification something that shows your name, address, the date you were born, etc., usually with a photograph: Can I see your ID? | Pete got into the club with a fake ID.

ID² the written abbreviation of IDAHO

i-de-a /aɪ'diə/ n. 1 [C] a plan or suggestion that someone thinks of: Braby got the idea for his book from some old letters. | That sounds like a good/great idea. | Ann thinks it's a bad idea to go today. | I have an idea – let's get Dad a set of golf clubs.

THESAURUS

An idea that explains something concept – someone's general idea of what something is like: our modern concept of love theory – an idea or set of ideas that is intended to explain something, especially in science: Einstein's theory of relativity hypothesis – an idea that is suggested as an explanation of something, but has not yet been proven to be true: He carried out a series of experiments in order to test his hypothesis.

Something you think of thought – something that you think of, think about, or remember: Erika had a sudden thought: “Why don't you come with me?”

inspiration – something or someone that encourages you to do or produce something good: People like Tara are an inspiration to us all.

2 [C,U] understanding or knowledge of something: The book gives you a pretty good idea of the basic principles of law. | Can you give me a rough idea of (=a not very exact description of) how much it will cost? | I had no idea (=did not know at all) what they were talking about. | I don't have the faintest idea (=I don't know at all) what to get Rachel for her birthday. 3 [C,U] the aim or purpose of doing something: The idea of the game is to hit the ball into the holes. 4 [C] an opinion or belief: Bill has some strange ideas about religion. | I don't want you to get the idea (=begin to believe) that I look like this all the time.

i-de-al /aɪ'diəl/ adj. 1 being the best that something could possibly be: ideal weather conditions | The beaches are ideal for evening strolls.

THESAURUS perfect, just right → PERFECT¹

2 perfect, but not likely to exist: In an ideal world, no one would ever get sick.

ideal² n. [C] 1 a principle or standard that you would like to achieve: the ideal of perfect equality 2 a perfect example of something: current ideals of beauty

i-de-al-ism /aɪ'diə,lɪzəm/ n. [U] the belief that you should live according to your high standards or principles, even if it is difficult

i-de-al-ist-ic /,aɪ'diə'lɪstɪk/ adj. (approving) believing in principles and high standards, even if they cannot be achieved in real life: idealistic young people —idealist /aɪ'diəlɪst/ n. [C] i-de-al-ize /aɪ'diə,ləɪz/ v. [T] to imagine or suggest that something is perfect or better than it really is: The show idealizes family life. —idealized adj.

i-de-al-ly /aɪ'diəli/ adv. 1 [sentence adverb] in a way that you would like things to be, even if it is not possible: Ideally, I'd like to work at home. 2 perfectly: The job is ideally suited to Amy's circumstances.

i-den-ti-cal /aɪ'dentɪkəl, ɪ-/ (Ac) adj. exactly the same: The two pictures looked identical. | Jan's dress is identical to mine. | William and David are identical twins (=two brothers or sisters who were born together and look the same). [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Medieval Latin identicus, from Late Latin identitas, from Latin idem “same”] —identically adv.

THESAURUS similar, like, alike, matching → SIMILAR

i-den-ti-fi-a-ble /aɪˌdɛntəˈfaɪəbəl, ɪ-/ (Ac) adj. able to be recognized: The male birds are easily/readily identifiable by their bright colors.

i-den-ti-fi-ca-tion /aɪˌdɛntəfəˈkeɪʃən, ɪ-/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 official documents that prove who you are: You can use a passport as identification. 2 the act of recognizing someone or something: The victim's dental records were used in the identification process. | After identification of the child's learning problems, a program of help is developed. 3 a strong feeling that you are like someone or something and share the qualities s/he or it has: Freud discusses a child's identification with his or her mother.

i-den-ti-fy /aɪˌdɛntəˈfaɪ, ɪ-/ (Ac) v. (identified, identifies) [T] to recognize and name someone or something: The victims were identified as John and Louise Preston. | The tests help identify children with reading problems. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Late Latin identificare, from Latin idem “same”] identify with sb/sth phr. v. 1 identify with sb to be able to share or understand the feelings of someone else: It was easy to identify with the novel's main character. 2 be identified with sb/sth to be closely connected with an idea or organization: He will always be identified with the Harry Potter movies.

i-den-ti-ty /aɪˌdɛntəti, ɪ-/ (Ac) n. (plural identities) 1 [C,U] who someone is: She refused to reveal the identity of the killer. | All passengers must provide proof of identity at check-in. 2 [U] the qualities someone has that make him/her different from other people: Many people's sense of identity comes from their job. | America has always had a strong sense of national identity. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Late Latin identitas, from Latin idem “same”] i'dentity, theft also i'dentity, fraud n. [U] any crime in which someone steals personal information about another person, for example his/her bank account number, and uses this information to deceive other people and get money or goods

i-de-o-log-i-cal /ˌaɪdiəˈlɒdʒɪkəl, ˌɪdiə-/ (Ac) adj. based on a particular set of beliefs or ideas: the movie's ideological content —ideologically adv.

i-de-ol-o-gy /ˌaɪdiˈɒlədʒi, ˌɪdi-/ (Ac) n. (plural ideologies) [C,U] a set of beliefs or ideas, especially political beliefs: Communist ideology

id-i-o-cy /ˈɪdiəsi/ n. [U] something that is extremely stupid → IDIOT id-i-om /ˈɪdiəm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a group of words that have a special meaning that is very different from the ordinary meaning of the separate words [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French idiome, from Greek idioma “personal way of expressing yourself”] —idiomatic /ˌɪdiəˈmætɪk/ adj.: an idiomatic expression

THESAURUS phrase, expression, cliché, saying, proverb, maxim → PHRASE¹

id-i-o-syn-cra-sy /ˌɪdiəˈsɪŋkrəsi/ n. (plural idiosyncrasies) [C] 1 an unusual habit or way of behaving that someone has: Her husband is used to her idiosyncrasies. 2 an unusual or unexpected feature that something has: the idiosyncrasies of English spelling —idiosyncratic /ˌɪdiəˈsɪŋˈkrætɪk/ adj.

id-i-ot /ˈɪdiət/ n. [C] a stupid person, or someone who has done something stupid: You idiot! What did you say that for? —idiotic /ˌɪdiˈɒtɪk/ adj.

i-dle /ˈaɪdl/ adj. 1 not working or being used: Many aircraft sat idle during the strike. 2 (old-fashioned) lazy

THESAURUS lazy, indolent, shiftless, slack, slothful → LAZY

3 having no useful purpose: idle gossip —idleness n. [U] —idly adv.

idle ² v. [I] if an engine idles, it runs slowly because it is not doing much work i-dol /ˈaɪdl/ n. [C] 1 someone or something that you admire very much: Janet was always my idol when I was a kid. 2 an image or object that people pray to as a god [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French idole, from Greek eidolon “image, idol”]

THESAURUS god, deity, divinity → GOD

i-dol-a-try /aɪˈdɒlətri/ n. [U] 1 the practice of WORSHIPING idols 2 too much admiration for someone or something: The fans' admiration of her seems to border on idolatry. —idolatrous adj.

i-dol-ize /ˈaɪdlˌaɪz/ v. [T] to admire someone so much that you think s/he is perfect: Susan idolizes her mother.

THESAURUS admire, worship, revere → ADMIRE

i-dyl-lic /aɪˈdɪlɪk/ adj. very happy and peaceful i.e. /aɪ ˈi/ a written abbreviation used when you want to explain the exact meaning of something [SYN] that is: Transfer the text via the clipboard (i.e. cut and paste).

if /ɪf/ conjunction 1 used in order to talk about something that might happen or that might have happened: If I call her now, she should still be at home. | If I get the job, I'll move to New York. If not, I'll stay in Dallas. | The crew will work all weekend if necessary. | I want to leave by 5 o'clock if possible. | We would've canceled the game if the weather was too bad. ▶ Don't use the future tense with “will” in a clause beginning with “if.” ◀

THESAURUS

as long as/provided that — only if you do something, or only if something happens: Hiking in the mountains is safe, as long as you follow some basic rules.

on condition that — only if someone agrees to do something: They offered him the job on condition that he moved to Chicago.

unless – if something does not happen, or if someone does not do something: You won't pass your final exams unless you study hard.

otherwise – used when saying that there will be a bad result if someone does not do something, or if something does not happen: He had better hurry up, otherwise we'll be late.

in case – in order to deal with something that might happen: She did not think it would rain, but she took her umbrella just in case.

whether or not – used when saying that it does not matter if something happens or not, or if something is true or not: Her comments are always interesting, whether or not you agree with what she says.

2 used in order to mean “whether,” when you are asking or deciding something: Do you mind if I close the door? | We really don't know if there's a problem with the phone line. 3 used when you are talking about something that always happens [SYN] whenever: If I drink milk, I get a stomach-ache. 4 said when you are surprised, angry, or upset because something has happened or is true: I'm sorry if I upset you. 5 if I were you used in order to give advice to someone: If I were you, I'd call him instead of writing to him. → even if at EVEN¹, as if/though at AS, if only at ONLY¹

if² n. [C] 1 a condition or possibility: There are still too many ifs to know if this will succeed. | Parry will start in Sunday's game if he's healthy – but that's a big if (=it is unlikely). 2 no ifs, ands, or buts used to say that you want something done quickly, without any disagreement

if-fy /'ɪfi/ adj. (informal) an iffy situation is one in which you do not know what will happen: The weather looks iffy today.

ig-loo /'ɪglu/ n. (plural igloos) [C] a round house made from blocks of hard snow and ice [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Inuit iglu “house”]

ig-ne-ous /'ɪgniəs/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES igneous rocks are formed from LAVA (=hot liquid rock)

ig-nite /ɪg'nait/ v. (formal) 1 [T] to start a dangerous situation, angry argument, etc.: These actions could ignite a civil war. 2 [I,T] to start burning, or to make something do this: A spark caused fuel vapors in the tank to ignite.

ig-ni-tion /ɪg'nɪʃən/ n. 1 [singular] the electrical part of an engine in a car that makes it start working: Put the key in the ignition. → DRIVE¹ 2 [U] (formal) the act of making something start to burn ig-no-min-i-ous /,ɪgnə'mɪniəs/ adj. (formal) making you feel ashamed or embarrassed: his ignominious failure —ignominiously adv.

ig-no-rance /'ɪgnərəns/ (AC) n. [U] 1 (disapproving) lack of knowledge or information about something: Many mistakes were caused by ignorance of/about the law. | I would have remained in ignorance if Shaun hadn't mentioned it. 2 igno-rance is bliss used in order to say that if you do not know about a problem, you cannot worry about it

ig-no-rant /'ɪgnərənt/ (AC) adj. (disapproving) not knowing facts or information that you should know: Many students seem ignorant of geography, and can't find even Canada on a map. | He was a brutal ignorant man.

ig-nore /ɪg'nɔː/ (AC) v. [T] to not pay any attention to someone or something: Jeannie ignored me all night! | The school board has ignored our complaints. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French ignorer “not to know,” from Latin, from ignarus “not knowing, unknown”] ignore – to know about something but deliberately not pay any attention to it: You must not ignore other people's feelings.

USAGE

be ignorant of sth – to not know about something: We were ignorant of the dangers involved.

i-gua-na /'ɪgwənə/ n. [C] a large tropical American LIZARD [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Spanish, Arawakan (a group of South American languages) iwana]

IL the written abbreviation of ILLINOIS

I'll /aɪl/ the short form of “I will”: I'll be there in a minute.

ill¹ /ɪl/ adj. 1 [not usually before noun] suffering from a disease or not feeling well [SYN] sick → ILLNESS: The doctor said Patty was seriously/critically ill (=extremely ill). | patients who are terminally ill (=who are going to die from their illness) | Don's brother is mentally ill.

THESAURUS sick, not very well, under the weather, ailing, infirm → SICK

2 [only before noun] bad or harmful: Has he suffered any ill effects from the treatment? | Anita felt no ill will (=unkind feelings) toward her ex-husband. | Several prisoners complained of ill treatment. 3 ill at ease nervous or embarrassed [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old Norse illr]

ill² adv. (formal) 1 badly or not enough: We were ill-prepared for the cold weather. 2 sb can ill afford (to do) sth used in order to say that you cannot or should not do something because it would make your situation more difficult: Congress can ill afford to raise taxes so close to an election.

ill³ n. [C] (formal) a bad thing, especially a problem or something that makes you worry: the social ills caused by poverty ill-ad'vised adj. (formal) not sensible or not wise: an ill-advised decision to change the law

il-le-gal¹ /ɪ'liɡəl/ (AC) adj. not allowed by the law (ANT) legal: Did you know it is illegal to park your car here? | illegal immigrants/aliens in the U.S. | illegal drugs —illegally adv.: Most of the software had been illegally copied. —illegality /ɪlɪ'ɡæləti/ n. [C,U]: the illegality of what he had done illegal² also illegal immigrant/alien n. [C] someone who comes into a country to live or work without official permission il-leg-i-ble /ɪˈlɛdʒəbəl/ adj. difficult or impossible to read: His handwriting was completely illegible. —illegibly adv.

il-le-git-i-mate /ɪˈlɛdʒɪtəmɪt/ adj. (formal) 1 born to parents who are not married to each other: He admitted that he had an illegitimate son. 2 not allowed by the rules or law: an illegitimate use of public money —illegitimacy /ɪˈlɛdʒɪtəməsi/ n. [U] ill-e-quipped adj. not having the necessary equipment or skills for something: Many companies are ill-equipped to survive in today's economy.

ill-'fated adj. unlucky and leading to serious problems or bad results: an ill-fated attempt to reach the South Pole

THESAURUS unlucky, unfortunate, inauspicious → UNLUCKY

il-lic-it /ɪˈlɪsɪt/ adj. not allowed by the law, or not approved of by society, and kept secret: an illicit love affair | illicit drugs —illicitly adv.

il-lit-er-ate /ɪˈlɪtərəɪt/ adj. not able to read or write —illiteracy /ɪˈlɪtərəsi/ n. [U] ill-ness /ɪˈlɪnɪs/ n. [C,U] a disease of the body or mind, or the state of having a disease or sickness: Mrs. Elms died Friday after a long illness. | The research examines the connections between homelessness and mental illness. | a serious/chronic/terminal illness

THESAURUS disease, sickness → DISEASE

il-log-i-cal /ɪˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. not sensible or reasonable (ANT) logical: The structure of your report is completely illogical.

ill-'treat v. [T] to be cruel to a person or animal il-lu-mi-nate /ɪˈlʊməneɪt/ v. [T] to make a light shine on something: Their faces were illuminated by the candle on the table. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of illuminare, from lumen “light”] —illuminated adj.

il-lu-mi-nat-ing /ɪˈlʊməneɪtɪŋ/ adj. (formal) making something easier to understand: an illuminating lecture il-lu-mi-na-tion /ɪˈlʊməˈneɪʃən/ n. [U] (formal) the light provided by a lamp, fire, etc.

il-lu-sion /ɪˈluʒən/ n. [C] 1 something that seems to be different from what it really is → OPTICAL ILLUSION: Large mirrors gave the room an illusion of space. 2 an idea or belief that is false: Terry is under the illusion that (=wrongly believes that) he's going to pass the test. | We have no illusions about the hard work that lies ahead (=we know there will be a lot of hard work).

il-lu-so-ry /ɪˈlusəri, -zəri/ adj. (formal) false, but seeming to be true or real il-lus-trate /ɪˈlʌstreɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to explain or make something clear by giving examples: The charts will help to illustrate this point. | The following examples illustrate how the system works. 2 to draw, paint, etc. pictures for a book [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of illustrare, from lustrare “to make pure or bright”] —illustrative /ɪˈlʌstrətɪv, ˈɪlʌstreɪtɪv/ adj.: The calculations here are for illustrative purposes.

il-lus-tra-tion /ɪˈlʌstreɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a picture in a book → GRAPHIC, DIAGRAM: watercolor illustrations

THESAURUS picture, sketch, painting, snapshot, portrait, cartoon, caricature → PICTURE¹

2 an example that helps you understand something or shows the truth of something: Saturday's game provided a vivid illustration of how popular soccer has become.

il-lus-tra-tor /ɪˈlʌstreɪtər/ n. [C] someone whose job is to draw pictures for books, magazines, etc.

il-lus-tri-ous /ɪˈlʌstriəs/ adj. (formal) very famous and admired by a lot of people

I'm /aɪm/ the short form of “I am”: I'm not sure where he is. | Hi, I'm Tim, Ann's brother.

im-age /ɪˈmɪdʒ/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 the opinion that people have about someone or something, especially because of the way he, she, or it is shown on television, in newspapers, etc.: The mayor did not want to spoil his public image so close to the election. | The party is trying to improve its image. | We need to project the right image in our advertising. | We want to change the old image of New York as an unfriendly city. 2 a picture that you can see through a camera, on a television, in a mirror, etc.: The baby was looking at his image in the mirror. | images of starving people on the news → PICTURE¹ 3 a picture that you have in your mind: She had a clear image of how he would look in 20 years. 4 a word, picture, or phrase that describes an idea in a poem, book, movie, etc.: The image of the river represents change. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French imagine, from Latin imago]

im-age-ry /ɪˈmɪdʒəri/ (Ac) n. [U] the use of words, pictures, or phrases to describe ideas or actions in poems, books, movies, etc.: Some video games are full of violent imagery.

i-mag-i-na-ble /ɪˈmædʒənəbəl/ adj. able to be imagined: I had the worst/best day imaginable.

i-mag-i-nar-y /ɪˈmædʒənəri/ adj. not real, but imagined → IMAGINATIVE: Many children have imaginary friends.

i,maginary 'number n. [C] MATH any number that can be written in the form bi, where i is the SQUARE ROOT of -1 and b is not zero → COMPLEX NUMBER

i-mag-i-na-tion /ɪˈmædʒəˈneɪʃən/ n. [C,U] the ability to form pictures or ideas in your mind

→ FANTASY: Use your imagination to come up with a new dessert. | Ben always had a vivid/lively imagination. | Sheila realized that her fears had all been in her imagination (=were not true). | It does not take much imagination to understand the depth of their grief.

i-mag-i-na-tive /ɪ'mædʒənətɪv/ adj. 1 able to think of new and interesting ideas: an imaginative writer 2 containing new and interesting ideas: an imaginative story —imaginatively adv. → IMAGINARY

i-mag-ine /ɪ'mædʒɪn/ v. [T] 1 to form pictures or ideas in your mind → IMAGINARY, IMAGINATION: Imagine (that) you're lying on a beach somewhere. | Just imagine what you could do with a million dollars.

THESAURUS

visualize – to form a picture of someone or something in your mind: Evans visualized every step he would take in the 400-meter race.

picture – to imagine something, especially by making an image in your mind: I had pictured him as short and dark, but he was actually very tall.

conceive of sth – to imagine a situation or what something is like: It's difficult to conceive of any reason why he would do something like that.

fantasize – to think about something that is pleasant or exciting, but unlikely to happen: I fantasized about losing weight and becoming a thin person.

daydream – to think about nice things, so that you forget what you should be doing: Eddie used to daydream about finding treasure in the woods.

envision/envisage (formal) – to imagine something as a future possibility: He envisions an America where poor children have just as many opportunities as richer ones.

2 to have a false or wrong idea about something: There's no one there – you must be imagining things. 3 (spoken) to think that something may happen or may be true: I imagine Kathy will be there tomorrow.

im-ag-ing /ɪ'mɪdʒɪŋ/ n. [U] the process of producing images or photographs of something using technical equipment im-bal-ance /ɪm'bæləns/ n. [C,U] a lack of balance between two things, so they are not equal or correct: a trade imbalance —imbalanced adj.

im-be-cile /ɪ'mbəsəl/ n. [C] someone who is extremely stupid (SYN) idiot im-bibe /ɪm'baɪb/ v. [I,T] (formal, humorous) to drink something, especially alcohol im-bue /ɪm'byu/ v.

imbue sb/sth with sth phr. v. to make someone feel an emotion very strongly, or to make something contain a strong emotion or other quality: The movie is imbued with a real sense of optimism.

im-i-tate /ɪ'mə'teɪt/ v. [T] 1 to copy the way someone else speaks, moves, etc., especially in order to make people laugh: Jerry started imitating his uncle, and everyone laughed. 2 to copy something because you think it is good: The first successful program was widely imitated in Latin America. —imitative adj. —imitator n. [C]

im-i-ta-tion¹ /ɪ'mə'teɪʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] a copy of someone's speech, behavior, etc., or the act of copying: Harry does an excellent imitation of Elvis. | Children learn by imitation. 2 [C] a copy of something: It's not an antique; it's an imitation.

imitation² adj. [only before noun] made to look and seem like something real (ANT) genuine, real: an imitation leather/fur jacket

THESAURUS artificial, synthetic, fake, man-made, simulated → ARTIFICIAL im-mac-u-late /ɪ'mækjələt/ adj. 1 very clean and neat: Barb's house is always immaculate. 2 perfect and without any mistakes: They danced with immaculate precision. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin immaculatus, from in- “not” + macula “spot of dirt”] —immaculately adv.

im-ma-te-ri-al /ɪ'mə'tɪriəl/ adj. not important in a particular situation (SYN) irrelevant im-ma-ture /ɪ'mə'tʃər, -'tʃər/ (Ac) adj. 1 (disapproving) behaving in a way that is not sensible because it is typical of the behavior of someone much younger (SYN) childish: He seemed immature compared to his classmates. → YOUNG¹ 2 not fully formed or developed: immature plants —immaturity n. [U] im-me-di-a-cy /ɪ'midiəsi/ n. [U] the quality of seeming to be important and urgent, and directly relating to what is happening now

im-me-di-ate /ɪ'midiət/ adj. [usually before noun] 1 happening or done with no delay: Carla's first cafe was an immediate success. | Police demanded the immediate release of the hostages. | When we launched the new system, the results were immediate. 2 existing now, and needing to be dealt with quickly: Our immediate concern was to stop the fire from spreading. | Doctors knew his life was in immediate danger. 3 near something or someone in time or place: We have no plans to expand the business in the immediate future. | They closed the streets in the immediate vicinity of (=very close to) the sports arena. 4 sb's immediate family someone's parents, children, brothers, and sisters

im-me-di-ate-ly /ɪ'midiət'li/ adv. 1 with no delay: Mix in the other ingredients and serve immediately. | She realized her mistake almost immediately. | The rescue team immediately went to work. | The victims' names were not immediately available.

THESAURUS

instantly – immediately, used when something happens at almost the same time as something else: Data is available instantly over the computer network.

right away (especially spoken) – immediately, used especially when something needs to be done urgently: Jill called him right away.

at once – immediately, or without waiting: I realized at once I had said the wrong thing.

right now (spoken) – immediately, used especially when something needs to be done urgently: I need it right now!

2 very near to something in time or place: Jon arrived immediately before/after the end of the show.

im-mense /ɪ'mɛns/ adj. extremely large [SYN huge: an immense palace [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French, Latin immensus, from in- “not” + mensus “measured”]]

THESAURUS big, large, substantial, sizable, prodigious, huge, enormous, vast, gigantic, massive, colossal → BIG

im-mense-ly /ɪ'mɛnsli/ adv. very or very much: Mountain bikes became immensely popular very quickly. | He enjoyed it immensely.

im-merse /ɪ'mɜːs/ v. [T] 1 be immersed in sth/immerse yourself in sth to be or become completely involved in something: Grant is completely immersed in his work. 2 to put something completely in a liquid: First, immerse the jars in boiling water. —immersion /ɪ'mɜːʒən/ n. [U]

im-mi-grant /ɪ'mɪɡrənt/ (Ac) n. [C] someone who enters another country to live there permanently → EMIGRANT, MIGRANT: an immigrant from Russia | Chinese immigrants to the U.S. | the number of legal/illegal immigrants each year

im-mi-grate /ɪ'mɪɡreɪt/ (Ac) v. [I] to enter another country in order to live there permanently: His family immigrated to Canada a few years ago. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin, past participle of immigrare “to go in,” from migrare] immigrate – to enter a new country in order to live there: Yuko immigrated to the U.S. last year.

THESAURUS

emigrate – to leave your own country in order to live in a different one: My grandparents emigrated from Italy.

migrate – if birds migrate, they go to another part of the world in the fall and in the spring

im-mi-gra-tion /ɪ'mɪɡreɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 the process of entering another country in order to live there, or the total number of people who do this → EMIGRATION, MIGRATION: There has been a rise in immigration to the United States. | immigration from countries such as Mexico 2 the place in an airport, at a border, etc. where officials check your documents, such as your PASSPORT

im-mi-nent /ɪ'mɪnənt/ adj. likely to happen very soon: We believe that an attack is imminent. | The city is not in imminent danger. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, present participle of imminere “to stick out, threaten”] —imminently adv.

im-mis-ci-ble /ɪ'mɪsəbəl/ adj. CHEMISTRY immiscible liquids cannot combine together into one liquid (ANT miscible: Oil and water are immiscible.)

im-mo-bile /ɪ'məʊbəl/ adj. not moving, or not able to move im-mod-est /ɪ'mɒdɪst/ adj. 1 (formal) too proud of yourself and your abilities, and always willing to tell people about your achievements or how smart you are (ANT modest 2 clothes that are immodest show too much of someone's body (ANT modest 3 immodest sexual behavior shocks or embarrasses im-mor-al /ɪ'mɒrəl, ɪ'mɔːr-/ adj. morally wrong, and not accepted by society: Their church believes that dancing is sinful and immoral. —immorality /ɪ'mɒ'ræləti, ɪ'mɔː-/ n. [U]

THESAURUS bad, evil, wicked, wrong →

BAD¹

im-mor-tal /ɪ'mɔːtl/ adj. 1 living or continuing forever: your immortal soul 2 an immortal phrase, song, etc. is so famous that it will never be forgotten: In the immortal words of James Brown, “I feel good!” —immortality /ɪ'mɔː'ræləti/ n. [U] im-mov-a-ble /ɪ'mʊvəbəl/ adj. impossible to move, change, or persuade im-mune /ɪ'myun/ adj. 1 not able to be affected by a disease or illness: Young children may not be immune to the virus. 2 not affected by bad things that affect people, organizations, etc. in similar situations: The company seems to be immune to economic pressures. | The Governor is popular, but not immune from criticism.

im-mune re'sponse also im-mune re'action n. [C,U] BIOLOGY the reaction of the body's immune system to disease or infection im'mune system n. [C] BIOLOGY the system by which your body protects itself against disease im-mun-i-ty /ɪ'myunəti/ n. [U] 1 LAW the state or right of being protected from particular laws or punishment: Congress granted immunity (=gave immunity) to both men. 2 BIOLOGY the state of being immune to diseases or illnesses: The disease causes a low immunity to infections.

im-mu-ni-za-tion /ɪ'myənə'zeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] the act of immunizing someone: Doctors are encouraging the immunization of babies in the U.S. against hepatitis B.

im-mu-nize /ɪ'myənəɪz/ v. [T] to protect someone from disease by giving him/her a VACCINE: Have you been immunized against tuberculosis?

im-mu-ta-ble /ɪ'myutəbəl/ adj. (formal) never changing, or impossible to change (ANT mutable: an immutable law of nature, such as gravity —immutability /ɪ'myutə'bɪləti/ n. [U])

im-pact¹ /ɪ'mpækt/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] the effect that an event or situation has on someone or something: Every decision at work has an impact on profit. | What would be the economic impact of a possible

strike? | Rising fuel costs could have a major impact on consumers. 2 [C,U] the force of one object hitting another: The impact of the crash made the car turn over. 3 on impact at the moment when one thing hits another: The missile explodes on impact. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin, past participle of impingere, from pangere “to fasten, drive in”]

im·pact² /ɪmˈpækt/ [AC] v. [I,T] to have an important or noticeable effect on someone or something: The growth of the airport has impacted the city's economy. | Childcare is an issue that impacts on many women's lives.

im·pair /ɪmˈpeɪr/ v. [T] to damage something, or make it less good: Her sight was impaired as a result of the disease. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French empeirer, from Vulgar Latin impejorare, from Late Latin pejorare “to make worse”] —impairment n. [U] im·paired /ɪmˈpeɪrd/ adj. 1 damaged, less strong, or less good: impaired kidney function 2 hearing/visually/physically impaired someone who is hearing impaired or visually impaired cannot hear, see, etc. well im·pale /ɪmˈpeɪl/ v. [T] if someone or something is impaled on something, a sharp pointed object goes through him, her, or it im·part /ɪmˈpɑːrt/ v. [T] (formal) 1 to give a particular quality to something: Roasted chili peppers impart a smoky flavor to the dish. 2 to give information, knowledge, etc. to someone: He accused the universities of failing to impart moral values to students.

im·par·tial /ɪmˈpɑːʃəl/ adj. not giving special attention or support to any one person or group [SYN] objective [ANT] biased: impartial advice | Rosen said he was unable to remain impartial in the case. —impartially adv. —impartiality /ɪmˌpɑːʃiˈæləti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS fair, just, balanced, even-handed, unbiased → FAIR¹

im·pass·a·ble /ɪmˈpæsəbəl/ adj. impossible to travel along or through: The road into the valley had become impassable.

im·pas·se /ɪmpæs/ n. [singular] a situation in which it is impossible to continue with a discussion or plan because the people involved cannot agree: Discussions about pay have reached an impasse.

im·pas·sioned /ɪmˈpæʃənd/ adj. full of strong feelings and emotion: an impassioned speech im·pas·sive /ɪmˈpæsiʋ/ adj. (formal) not showing any emotions: His face was impassive as the judge spoke. —impassively adv.

THESAURUS matter-of-fact, detached, dispassionate, cold → MATTER-OF-FACT im·pa·tient /ɪmˈpeɪʃənt/ adj. 1 annoyed because of delays or mistakes that make you wait: After numerous delays in the project, some people began to get/grow impatient. | Rob's dad is very impatient with him sometimes. 2 very eager for something to happen, and not wanting to wait: Gary was impatient to leave. —impatience n. [U] —impatiently adv.

im·peach /ɪmˈpitʃ/ v. [T] LAW to say officially that a public official is guilty of a serious crime —impeachment n. [C,U] im·pec·ca·ble /ɪmˈpekəbəl/ adj. completely perfect and impossible to criticize: She has impeccable taste in clothes. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin impeccabilis, from in- “not” + peccare “to do bad things”] —impeccably adv.

im·pe·cu·ni·ous /ɪmˈpiːkjuːniəs/ adj. having very little money, especially over a long period of time [SYN] penniless, poor: an impecunious student

THESAURUS poor, needy, destitute, impoverished, broke, indigent, penurious → POOR

im·pede /ɪmˈpiːd/ v. [T] (formal) to make it difficult for someone or something to make progress: Rescue attempts were impeded by storms.

im·ped·i·ment /ɪmˈpedəmənt/ n. [C] 1 a physical problem that makes speaking, hearing, or moving difficult: Gina has a slight speech impediment. 2 a fact or event that makes action difficult or impossible: The current law is a major impediment to trade.

im·pel /ɪmˈpel/ v. (impelled, impelling) [T] (formal) to make you feel very strongly that you must do something: He felt impelled to explain his actions.

THESAURUS force, make, compel → FORCE² im·pend·ing /ɪmˈpendɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] likely to happen soon: an impending oil shortage im·pen·e·tra·ble /ɪmˈpenətrəbəl/ adj. 1 impossible to get through, see through, or get into → PENETRATE: impenetrable fog 2 very difficult or impossible to understand: impenetrable business jargon im·per·a·tive¹ /ɪmˈperətɪv/ adj. 1 (formal) extremely important and urgent: It is imperative that all fees be paid in full. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS an imperative verb expresses an order. In the sentence “Go to your room,” “go” is an imperative verb. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Late Latin imperativus, from Latin imperatus, past participle of imperare “to command”] imperative² n. [C] 1 (formal) something that must be done urgently: Reducing air pollution has become an imperative. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the form of a verb that expresses an order. In the sentence “Do it now!” the verb “do” is in the imperative.

im·per·cep·ti·ble /ɪmˈpɜːptəbəl/ adj. impossible to notice: an almost imperceptible change —imperceptibly adv.

im-per-fect¹ /ɪm'pɜːfɪkt/ adj. not completely perfect: an imperfect legal system —imperfectly adv.

imperfect² n. [singular] ENG. LANG. ARTS the form of a verb that shows an incomplete action in the past that is formed with “be” and the PRESENT PARTICIPLE. In the sentence “We were walking down the road,” the verb phrase “were walking” is in the imperfect.

im-per-fec-tion /ɪmpə'fekʃən/ n. [C,U] the state of being imperfect, or something that is imperfect: A few slight/small imperfections won't spoil the overall appearance.

THESAURUS defect, problem, flaw, fault → DEFECT¹ im-pe-ri-al /ɪm'piəriəl/ adj. relating to an EMPIRE or to the person who rules it im-pe-ri-al-ism /ɪm'piəriə'lɪzəm/ n. [U] 1 POLITICS a political system in which one country controls a lot of other countries 2 (disapproving) the way in which a rich or powerful country's way of life, CULTURE, businesses, etc. influence and change a poorer country's way of life, etc.: Small nations resent the West's cultural/economic imperialism. —imperialist n. [C] —imperialist, imperialistic /ɪm'piəriə'lɪstɪk/ adj.

im-per-i-al 'state n. [C] HISTORY a state that was part of the Holy Roman Empire and had a vote in its PARLIAMENT im-pe-ri-ous /ɪm'piəriəs/ adj. giving orders and expecting to be obeyed: his imperious personality —imperiously adv.

im-per-son-al /ɪm'pɜːsənəl/ adj. not showing any feelings of sympathy, friendliness, etc.: an impersonal letter —impersonally adv.

im-per-so-nate /ɪm'pɜːsə'neɪt/ v. [T] 1 to pretend to be someone else by copying his/her appearance, voice, etc. in order to deceive people: Quinn was arrested for impersonating a police officer. 2 to copy someone's voice and behavior in order to make people laugh: a comedian who impersonates politicians —impersonator n. [C] —impersonation /ɪm'pɜːsə'neɪʃən/ n. [U]

im-per-ti-nent /ɪm'pɜːtɪ'n-ənt/ adj. impolite and not respectful, especially to someone who is older or more important (SYN) rude, impudent: an impertinent child | impertinent questions —impertinence n. [U]

THESAURUS rude, impolite, offensive, insolent, disrespectful, impudent → RUDE

im-per-vi-ous /ɪm'pɜːviəs/ adj. (formal) 1 impervious to sth not affected or influenced by something: He seemed impervious to the noise around him. 2 impervious to sth not allowing anything to pass through: The container must be impervious to water.

im-pet-u-ous /ɪm'petʃuəs/ adj. (formal) tending to do things quickly, without thinking —impetuously adv. —impetuousness n. [U]

THESAURUS impulsive, rash, hasty, precipitate → IMPULSIVE

im-pe-tus /'ɪmpətəs/ n. [U] (formal) an influence that makes something happen, or happen more quickly: Much of the impetus for reform came from local activists. | The conference gave fresh impetus to change.

im-pinge /ɪm'pɪndʒ/ v.

impinge on/upon sth phr. v. (formal) to have an unwanted or bad effect on someone or something: International politics have impinged on decisions made in Congress.

im-plac-a-ble /ɪm'plækəbəl/ adj. (formal) very determined to continue opposing someone or something: an implacable enemy —implacably adv.

im-plant¹ /ɪm'plænt/ v. [T] 1 to put something into someone's body in a medical operation: Some healthy cells were implanted in/into the patient's brain. 2 to influence someone so that s/he believes or feels something strongly: His family implanted in him a strong sense of patriotism.

im-plant² /'ɪmplənt/ n. [C] something that has been put into someone's body in a medical operation: silicone breast implants im-plau-si-ble /ɪm'pləʊzəbəl/ adj. difficult to believe and not likely to be true: an implausible excuse im-ple-ment¹ /'ɪmplə'ment/ (AC) v. [T] if you implement a plan, process, etc., you begin to make it happen: Their recommendations may be difficult to implement. —implementation /ɪ'mplə'mən'teɪʃən/ n. [U]: implementation of the new program

im-ple-ment² /'ɪmplə'mənt/ (AC) n. [C] a tool, especially one used in farming or building: agricultural implements

im-plic-a-te /'ɪmplɪ'keɪt/ (AC) v. [T] 1 to show that someone is involved in something wrong: He pleaded guilty and implicated his cousin in the crime. 2 to show that something is likely to be the cause of something bad or harmful: Meat from this company was implicated in the food poisoning outbreak. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, past participle of implicare “to twist together, make complicated”] im-plic-a-tion /ɪ'mplɪ'keɪʃən/ (AC) n. 1 [C] a possible effect or result of a plan, action, etc.: What are the implications of their research? | This ruling will have implications for many people. 2 [C,U] something you do not say directly but that you want people to understand: I don't like the implication that I was lying. 3 [U] a situation in which it is suggested that someone or something is involved in something wrong, illegal, or harmful: the implication of the bank president in the theft | the implication of smoking in cases of lung disease

im-plic-it /ɪm'plɪsɪt/ (AC) adj. 1 suggested or understood but not stated directly → EXPLICIT:

There was implicit criticism in the principal's statement. 2 complete and containing no doubts: She has implicit faith in her husband. 3 be implicit in sth (formal) to be a central part of something, without being stated: Risk is implicit in owning a business. —implicitly adv.

implied 'powers n. [plural] POLITICS powers given to the U.S. government that are not clearly stated in the CONSTITUTION, but which are accepted as necessary in order for the government to carry out its EXPRESSED POWERS (=those written down in the Constitution)

im-plode /ɪmˈplɒd/ v. [I] to explode inward im-plore /ɪmˈplɔː/ v. [T] (formal) to ask someone for something in an emotional way (SYN) beg: Joan implored him not to leave.

THESAURUS ask, demand, beg, plead → ASK

im-ply /ɪmˈplaɪ/ (AC) v. (implied, implies) [T] 1 to suggest that something is true without saying or showing it directly: He implied that the money hadn't been lost, but had been stolen instead. 2 to show that something is likely to exist or be true: The chart implies that many purchases are not necessary. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French emplier, from Latin implicare “to twist together, make complicated”] im-po-lite /ɪmpəˈlaɪt/ adj. not polite (SYN) rude: It would be impolite to leave in the middle of her recital.

THESAURUS rude, insulting, disrespectful
→ RUDE

im-port¹ /ɪmˈpɔːt/ n. 1 [C,U] ECONOMICS a product that is brought from one country into another so that it can be sold there, or the business of doing this (ANT) export: Car imports have risen recently. | The government has banned the import of weapons. 2 (formal) [U] importance or meaning: a matter of great import [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin importare, from portare “to carry”] im-port² /ɪmˈpɔːt/ v. [T] ECONOMICS to bring something from one country into another so that it can be sold there (ANT) export: Oil is imported from the Middle East. —importer n. [C]

im-por-tance /ɪmˈpɔːtəns, -pɔːtns/ n. [U] the quality of being important: the importance of regular exercise | The company attaches great importance to employee training. | These issues are of great/critical/vital importance.

im-por-tant /ɪmˈpɔːtənt, -pɔːtnt/ adj. having a big effect or influence: a very important meeting | Ellen's family is more important to her than anything else. | It's important that you look professional at the interview. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French, Old Italian importante “carrying a meaning, significant,” from Latin importare] —importantly adv.

THESAURUS

of great/considerable importance – very important: Friends are of great importance to your child's development.

crucial – very important: The U.S. plays a crucial role in the region.

vital – extremely important or necessary: vital information essential – extremely important: It's essential that you buy tickets in advance.

major – very large or important, especially when compared to other things: our major cities | a major problem

key – very important and necessary for success or to understand something: the team's key players | He plays a key role in the company. | The key question is whether to buy or sell.

paramount (formal) – more important than anything else: The needs of the customer should be paramount.

significant – noticeable or important: The new research is highly significant.

salient (formal) – most noticeable or important: the salient points of the plan im-por-ta-tion /ɪmˈpɔːtətʃən/ n. [U] the business of bringing goods from another country to sell in your country im-pose /ɪmˈpəʊz/ (AC) v. 1 [T] to introduce a rule, tax, punishment, etc. and force people to accept it: City officials have imposed limits on commercial development. 2 [T] to force someone to have the same ideas, beliefs, etc. as you: Parents impose their values on their children. 3 [I] to ask or expect someone to do something when it is not convenient for him/her to do it: I didn't ask you because I didn't want to impose. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French imposer, from Latin imponere, from ponere “to put”] im-pos-ing /ɪmˈpəʊzɪŋ/ (AC) adj. large and impressive: an imposing statue

THESAURUS impressive, awe-inspiring, breathtaking, majestic, magnificent → IMPRESSIVE

im-po-si-tion /ɪmˈpəʊzɪʃən/ (AC) n. 1 [C usually singular] something that someone expects or asks you to do for him/her, when it is not convenient for you to do it: We want you to stay with us – it's not an imposition at all. 2 [U] the introduction of something such as a rule, tax, or punishment: the imposition of taxes on cigarettes

im-pos-si-ble /ɪmˈpəsəbəl/ adj. 1 not able to be done or to happen: It was impossible for us to answer all their questions. | It is impossible to predict what will happen. | The storm made driving impossible. 2 extremely difficult to deal with: an impossible situation 3 behaving in an unreasonable and annoying way: You're impossible! —impossibly adv. —impossibility /ɪmˈpəsəˈbɪləti/ n. [C,U]

im·pos·ter /ɪmˈpɒstə/ n. [C] someone who pretends to be someone else in order to trick people im·po·tent /ˈɪmpətənt/ adj. 1 a man who is impotent is unable to have sex because he cannot have an ERECTION 2 unable to take effective action because you do not have enough power, strength, or control: an impotent city government —impotence n. [U] im·pound /ɪmˈpaʊnd/ v. [T] LAW if the police or court of law impound your possessions, they take them and keep them until you go and get them im·pov·er·ished /ɪmˈpɒvərɪʃt/ adj. very poor: an impoverished country

THESAURUS poor, needy, destitute, poverty-stricken, disadvantaged, underprivileged, deprived → POOR

im·prac·ti·cal /ɪmˈpræktɪkəl/ adj. 1 an impractical plan, suggestion, etc. is not sensible because it would be too expensive or difficult 2 not good at dealing with ordinary practical matters —impractically adv. —impracticality /ɪmˈpræktɪˈkæləti/ n. [C,U] im·pre·cise /ɪmˈpriːsaɪs/ (Ac) adj. not exact: an imprecise measurement —imprecisely adv. —imprecision /ɪmˈpriːsɪʒən/ n. [U] im·preg·na·ble /ɪmˈpregnəbəl/ adj. very strong and unable to be entered: an impregnable fort im·preg·nate /ɪmˈpreg,neɪt/ v. [T] (formal) 1 to make a woman or female animal PREGNANT 2 to make a substance spread completely through something, or to spread completely through something: The paper is impregnated with perfume.

im·press /ɪmˈpres/ v. [T] 1 to make someone feel admiration and respect: She dresses like that to impress people. | We were impressed by/with the size of his art collection. 2 to make the importance of something clear to someone: My parents impressed on me the value of an education.

im·pres·sion /ɪmˈpreʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] the opinion or feeling you have about someone or something because of the way s/he or it seems: I get the impression that something's wrong here. | First impressions can be wrong. | It's important to make a good impression at your interview. 2 be under the impression (that) to think that something is true when it is not true: I was under the impression that Marcie was coming to dinner too. 3 [C] the act of copying the speech or behavior of a famous person in order to make people laugh: Eric does a great impression of Mick Jagger. 4 [C] the mark left by pressing something into a soft surface im·pres·sion·a·ble /ɪmˈpreʃənəbəl/ adj. easy to influence: The girls are at an impressionable age.

im·pres·sion·ism /ɪmˈpreʃənɪzəm/ n. [U] 1 also Impressionism ENG. LANG. ARTS a style of painting used especially in France in the 19th century, which uses color instead of details of form to produce effects of light or feeling 2 ENG. LANG.

ARTS a style of music or literature from the late 19th and early 20th centuries that emphasizes feelings and images —Impressionist adj.: Impressionist painters —Impressionist n. [C] im·pres·sion·is·tic /ɪmˈpreʃənɪstɪk/ adj. based on a general feeling of what something is like rather than on details: an impressionistic account of the events

im·pres·sive /ɪmˈpresɪv/ adj. causing admiration: an impressive performance on the piano | The view was impressive. —impressively adv.

THESAURUS

imposing – large and impressive: The judge sat behind an imposing desk.

dazzling – very impressive, exciting, or interesting: a dazzling display of Christmas decorations awe-inspiring – so impressive that you feel awe (=a feeling of respect and admiration): The cathedral was an awe-inspiring sight.

brehtaking – extremely impressive, exciting, or surprising: brehtaking views of the Rocky Mountains majestic – looking very big and impressive: the majestic pyramids at Giza in Egypt magnificent – very impressive because of being big, beautiful, etc.: a magnificent cathedral im·press·ment /ɪmˈpresmənt/ n. [U] HISTORY the action of forcing people to serve in the military im·print¹ /ˈɪm,prɪnt/ n. [C] the mark left by an object that has been pressed into or onto something: the imprint of her thumb on the clay im·print² /ɪmˈprɪnt/ v. be imprinted on your mind/memory if something is imprinted on your mind or memory, you can never forget it im·print·ing /ˈɪm,prɪntɪŋ/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a very early learning process in animals, in which a young animal learns patterns of behavior and its connection to members of its own kind, especially its parents im·pris·on /ɪmˈprɪzən/ v. [T] to put someone in prison or to keep him/her in a place s/he cannot escape from: The opposition leaders were imprisoned and tortured. —imprisonment n. [U] im·prob·a·ble /ɪmˈprəbəbəl/ adj. 1 not likely to happen or to be true (Syn) unlikely: It is highly improbable that you will find sharks in these waters. 2 surprising and slightly strange: an improbable partnership —improbably adv. —improbability /ɪmˈprəbəˈbɪləti/ n. [C,U] im·promp·tu /ɪmˈprɒmptu/ adj. done or said without any preparation or planning: an impromptu speech —impromptu adv.

im·prop·er /ɪmˈprəpə/ adj. unacceptable according to professional, moral, or social rules of behavior: Many cases of "stomach flu" result from improper cooking of food. | the improper use of funds —improperly adv.: The car alarm had been improperly installed.

im-pro-pri-e-ty /,ɪmprə'praɪəti/ n. (plural improprieties) [C,U] (formal) behavior or an action that is unacceptable according to moral, social, or professional standards

im-prove /ɪm'pruv/ v. [I,T] to become better, or to make something better: Do some exercises to improve your muscle strength. | Your math skills have improved this year. | The situation improved dramatically. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 emprowe “to improve” (15–16 centuries), from Anglo-French emprouer “to make a profit”] —improved adj.

improve on/upon sth phr. v. to do something better than before, or to make it better: No one's been able to improve on her Olympic record.

im-prove-ment /ɪm'pruvmənt/ n. 1 [C,U] an act of improving, or the state of being improved: There's certainly been an improvement in Danny's behavior. | Your English is getting better, but there's still room for improvement (=the possibility of more improvement). | Jerry has made dramatic improvement since the surgery. | Ben's work is showing signs of improvement. 2 [C] a change or addition that makes something better: home improvements

im-pro-viso /'ɪmprə,vəɪz/ v. 1 [I,T] to make or do something without any preparation, using what you have: I left my lesson plans at home, so I'll have to improvise. 2 [I] to perform music, sing, etc. from your imagination: Jazz musicians are good at improvising. —improvisation /ɪm,prəvə'zeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] im-pu-dent /'ɪmpyədənt/ adj. (formal) rude and not showing respect —impudence n. [U]

THESAURUS rude, impolite, insulting, offensive, insolent, disrespectful, impertinent
→ RUDE

im-pulse /'ɪmpʌls/ n. 1 [C,U] a sudden desire to do something without thinking about the results: She resisted the impulse to hit him. | I bought this shirt on impulse, and now I don't like it. 2 [C] PHYSICS a short electrical signal sent in one direction along a wire or nerve, or through the air 3 [C] PHYSICS a measure of MOMENTUM that you get if you multiply the average value of a force by the length of time that the force acts im-pul-sive /ɪm'pʌlsɪv/ adj. tending to do things without thinking about the results, or showing this quality: an impulsive shopper | an impulsive decision —impulsively adv.

THESAURUS
rash – if you do something rash, especially something dangerous or stupid, you do it too quickly and without thinking carefully first. If you are rash, you behave like this: Don't do anything rash!
hotheaded – if someone is hotheaded, s/he gets angry or excited easily and does things too quickly, without thinking: a hotheaded young man impetuous (formal) – tending to do things quickly, without thinking carefully first: He is young and impetuous.

hasty (formal) – done in a hurry, especially with bad results: He soon regretted his hasty decision.

spontaneous – done without being planned or organized, because you suddenly want to do it: They began a spontaneous game of hide-and-seek.

precipitate (formal) – done too quickly, without thinking carefully enough: Perhaps I was too precipitate in my judgment.

im-pu-ni-ty /ɪm'pyunəti/ n. with impunity without risk of punishment: We cannot let them break laws with impunity.

im-pure /ɪm'pyʊr/ adj. 1 mixed with other substances: impure drugs 2 (old-fashioned) morally bad, especially when relating to sex: impure thoughts im-pu-ri-ty /ɪm'pyʊrəti/ n. (plural impurities) 1 [C usually plural] a part of an almost pure substance that is of a lower quality: The silver contained some impurities. 2 [U] the state of being impure im-pute /ɪm'pyut/ v. (formal) impute sth to sb phr. v. 1 to say that someone is responsible for something bad, often unfairly: The police were not guilty of the violence imputed to them. 2 to say that someone or something has a particular quality: The author does not impute a modern way of thinking to her 19th-century characters. —imputation /ɪm,pyə'teɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

IN the written abbreviation of INDIANA

in¹ /ɪn/ prep. 1 used with the name of a container, place, or area to show where something is: The paper is in the top drawer. | I was still in bed at 11:30. | Cows were standing in the field. | He lived in Boston for 15 years. 2 used with the names of months, years, seasons, etc. to say when something happens: We bought our car in April. | In 1969 the first astronauts landed on the moon. | Sarah starts college in the fall. 3 during a period of time: We finished the whole project in a week. 4 at the end of a period of time: Gerry should be home in an hour. | I wonder if the business will still be going in a year. 5 included as part of something: One of the people in the story is a young doctor. | In the first part of the speech, he talked about the environment. 6 sb has not done sth in years/months/weeks if you have not done something in years, etc., you have not done it for that amount of time: I haven't been to the circus in years! 7 using a particular kind of voice, or a particular way of speaking or writing: “Why?” she asked him in a whisper. | Their parents always talk to them in Italian. | Do not write in pen on this test. 8 working at a particular kind of job: She's in advertising. 9 arranged in a particular way, often to form a group or shape: Stand against the wall in a line. | He had made a bowl in the shape of a heart. | Put the words in alphabetical order. 10 used in order to show the connection between two ideas or subjects: I was never interested in sports as a kid. 11 used before the bigger number when you are talking about a relationship between two numbers: 1 in 10 women (=10% of all women) has the disease. 12 in shock/horror etc. used in order to describe a strong feeling someone has when s/he does something: She looked at me in shock as I told her how everything had gone wrong. 13 in all used when giving a total amount: There were about 50 of us in all at the reunion.

in² adj., adv. 1 so as to be contained inside or surrounded by something: She pushed the box towards me so that I could put my money in. 2 inside a building, especially the one where you live or work: Mr. Linn should be in soon. | You're never in when I call. 3 if an airplane, bus, train, or boat is in, it has arrived at the airport, station, etc.: Her flight gets in at 5:30. 4 given or sent to a particular place in order to be read or looked at: Your final papers have to be in by Friday. 5 if you write, paint, or draw something in, you write it, etc. in the correct place: Fill in the blanks, using a number 2 pencil. 6 if clothes, colors, etc. are in, they are fashionable: Long hair is in again. 7 if a ball is in during a game, it is inside the area where the game is played. 8 be in for sth if someone is in for something, something bad is about to happen to him/her: She's in for a shock if she thinks we're going to help her pay for it. 9 be in on sth to be involved in doing, talking about, or planning something: Everyone was in on the secret except Cheryl. 10 if the TIDE comes in or is in, the ocean water is at its highest level. 11 in joke an in joke is one that is only understood by a small group of people.

in-a-bil-i-ty /ˌɪnəˈbɪləti/ n. [singular, U] a lack of the ability, skill, etc. to do something: an inability to remember details in-ac-ces-si-ble /ˌɪnəkˈsɛsəbəl/ (Ac) adj. difficult or impossible to reach: The stairs make the building inaccessible to the disabled.

in-ac-cu-ra-cy /ɪnˈækjʊrəsi/ (Ac) n. (plural inaccuracies) [C,U] a mistake, or when something is not correct: There were several inaccuracies in the report.

in-ac-cu-rate /ɪnˈækjʊrɪt/ (Ac) adj. 1 not completely correct: an inaccurate description

THE SAURUS wrong, incorrect, erroneous, misleading → WRONG¹

2 not aimed correctly, or not reaching the place aimed for: an inaccurate throw to third base —inaccurately adv.

in-ac-tion /ɪnˈækʃən/ n. [U] lack of action in-ac-tive /ɪnˈæktɪv/ adj. not doing anything or not working: inactive volcanoes | He injured his knee and was inactive for the rest of the season. —inactivity /ˌɪnækˈtɪvəti/ n. [U]

in-ad-e-qua-cy /ɪnˈædəkʊəsi/ (Ac) n. (plural inadequacies) 1 [U] a feeling that you are unable to deal with situations because you are not as good as other people: Not having a job can cause strong feelings of inadequacy. 2 [C,U] the fact of not being good enough for a particular purpose, or something that is not good enough: The research looked at the inadequacy of the children's diet.

in-ad-e-quate /ɪnˈædəkʊɪt/ (Ac) adj. not good enough, big enough, skilled enough, etc. for a particular purpose: inadequate heating | She made me feel so inadequate. | Both he and his wife work, but their wages are inadequate to lift the family out of poverty. —inadequately adv.

in-ad-mis-si-ble /ˌɪnədˈmɪsəbəl/ adj. LAW not allowed to be used as EVIDENCE in a court of law: Some of the evidence was inadmissible.

in-ad-vert-ent-ly /ˌɪnədˈvɜːtɪntli/ adv. without intending to do something: She inadvertently hit the brakes. —inadvertent adj.

in-al-i-en-a-ble /ɪnˈeɪliənəbəl/ adj. (formal) an inalienable right cannot be taken away from you in-ane /ɪˈneɪn/ adj. extremely stupid, or without much meaning: inane jokes in-an-i-mate /ɪnˈænəmət/ adj. not living: Rocks are inanimate objects.

in-ap-pro-pri-ate /ˌɪnəˈprɒpriət/ (Ac) adj. not appropriate for a particular purpose or situation: inappropriate behavior | The school board felt the book was inappropriate for fourth-grade children. —inappropriately adv.

in-ar-tic-u-late /ˌɪnərˈtɪkjələt/ adj. not able to express yourself or speak clearly in-as-much as /ˌɪnəzˈmʌtʃ əz/ conjunction (formal) used in order to begin a phrase that explains the rest of your sentence by showing the limited way that it is true: She's guilty, inasmuch as she knew what the other girls were planning to do.

in-au-di-ble /ɪnˈɔːdəbəl/ adj. too quiet to be heard: Her reply was inaudible. —inaudibly adv.

in-au-gu-rate /ɪˈnɔːɡyərɪt/ v. [T] 1 to have an official ceremony in order to show that someone is beginning an important job: The President is inaugurated in January. 2 to open a new building or start a new service with a ceremony —inaugural /ɪˈnɔːɡyərəl/ adj.: the president's inaugural speech —inauguration /ˌɪnɔːɡyərɪˈʃən/ n. [C,U]

in-aus-pi-cious /ˌɪnəˈspɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) seeming to show that the future will be unlucky: an inauspicious start to our trip → UNLUCKY

in-between adj. (informal) in the middle of two points, sizes, etc.: She's at that in-between age, neither a little girl nor a woman.

in-born /ˌɪnˈbɔːn/ adj. an inborn quality or ability is one that you have had naturally since birth: Humans have an almost inborn love of stories.

in-bred /ˌɪnˈbrɛd/ adj. produced by the breeding of closely related members of a family, which often causes problems: an inbred genetic defect —inbreeding /ˌɪnˈbrɪdɪŋ/ n. [U]

Inc. /ɪŋk, ɪnˈkɔrpəreɪtɪd/ the written abbreviation of INCORPORATED: General Motors Inc.

in-cal-cu-la-ble /ɪnˈkælkjələbəl/ adj. too many or too great to be measured: The scandal has done incalculable damage to the college's reputation.

in-can-des-cent /ɪnkənˈdesənt/ adj. giving a bright light when heated —incandescence n. [U] in-can-ta-tion /ɪnkənˈteɪʃən/ n. [C,U] a set of special words that someone uses in magic, or the act of saying these words in-ca-pa-ble /ɪnˈkeɪpəbəl/ (Ac) adj. unable to do something or to feel a particular emotion: He seemed incapable of understanding how I felt.

in-ca-pac-i-tate /ɪnkəˈpæsəteɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] to make someone too sick or weak to live or work normally: He was incapacitated for a while after the operation.

in-ca-pac-i-ty /ɪnkəˈpæsəti/ n. [U] lack of ability, strength, or power to do something, especially because you are sick in-car-cer-ate /ɪnˈkɑrsəreɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to put someone in a prison or keep him/her there —incarceration /ɪnˈkɑrsəreɪʃən/ n. [U] in-car-nate /ɪnˈkɑrnɪt, -,neɪt/ adj. evil/beauty/greed etc. incarnate someone who is considered extremely evil, beautiful, etc.

in-car-na-tion /ɪnˈkɑrneɪʃən/ n. 1 [C] according to some religions, the state of being alive in the form of a particular person or animal, or the period during which this happens 2 the incarnation of sth someone who has a lot of a particular quality, or represents it: She was the incarnation of wisdom.

in-cen-di-ar-y /ɪnˈsendɪəri/ adj. (formal) designed to cause a fire: an incendiary device/ bomb in-cense /ɪnˈsɛns/ n. [U] a substance that is burned in order to fill a room with a particular smell [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French encens, from Latin incensus, past participle of incendere “to cause to start burning”] in-censed /ɪnˈsɛnst/ adj. extremely angry in-cen-tive /ɪnˈsɛntɪv/ (Ac) n. [C,U] something that encourages you to work harder, start new activities, etc.: The government provides incentives for new businesses. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Late Latin incentivum, from Latin incinere “to set the tune”] in-cep-tion /ɪnˈsepʃən/ n. [singular] (formal) the start of an organization or institution: He has worked for the company since its inception in 1970.

in-ces-sant /ɪnˈsɛsənt/ adj. (formal) without stopping: the incessant traffic noise —incessantly adv.

in-cest /ɪnˈsɛst/ n. [U] illegal sex between people who are closely related to each other —incestuous /ɪnˈsɛstʃuəs/ adj. —incestuously adv.

inch¹ /ɪntʃ/ n. (plural inches) [C] 1 (written abbreviation in) a unit for measuring length, equal to 1/12 of a foot or 2.54 centimeters: The females lay eggs that are about 5 inches long. 2 every inch all of someone or something: Every inch of the closet was filled with boxes. 3 inch by inch very slowly or by a small amount at a time: The old buses moved inch by inch toward the pyramids. 4 not give/budge an inch to refuse to change your opinions at all: At first Will refused to give an inch in the argument. [ORIGIN: 1000—1100 Latin uncia “one twelfth”] inch² v. [I,T] to move very slowly and carefully, or to move something in this way: I got a glass of wine and inched my way across the crowded room.

in-cho-ate /ɪnˈkəʊɪt/ adj. (formal) inchoate ideas, plans, attitudes, etc. are just starting to develop or are not well formed in-ci-dence /ɪnˈsɪdəns/ (Ac) n. [singular] (formal) the number of times something happens: Researchers found a high incidence of asthma in Detroit.

in-ci-dent /ɪnˈsɪdənt/ (Ac) n. [C] something unusual, serious, or violent that happens: Any witnesses to the incident should speak to the police. | The protest finished without incident (=without anything unusual or bad happening). [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French, Latin, present participle of incidere “to fall into”]

THESAURUS event, occurrence, affair, happening → EVENT

in-ci-den-tal /ɪnˈsɪdəntl/ adj. happening or existing in connection with something else that is more important: The issue that he brought up was incidental to the main debate.

in-ci-den-tal-ly /ɪnˈsɪdəntli/ (Ac) adv. 1 used when giving additional information, or when changing the subject of a conversation: Incidentally, Jenny's coming over tonight. 2 happening or existing as a result of something else, but in a way that is not planned and not the main purpose: The dam was built for irrigation, but incidentally will control flooding.

in-cin-er-ate /ɪnˈsɪnəreɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to burn something in order to destroy it —incineration /ɪnˈsɪnəreɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-cin-er-a-tor /ɪnˈsɪnəreɪtə/ n. [C] a machine that burns things at very high temperatures in-ci-sion /ɪnˈsɪʒən/ n. [C] (formal) a cut that a doctor makes in someone's body during an operation in-ci-sive /ɪnˈsaɪsɪv/ adj. incisive words, remarks, etc. are very direct and deal with the most important part of a subject in-ci-sor /ɪnˈsaɪzə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of your eight front teeth that has sharp edges in-cite /ɪnˈsaɪt/ v. [T] to deliberately encourage people to fight, argue, etc.: One man was jailed for inciting a riot. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French inciter, from Latin citare “to cause to start moving”] in-cli-na-tion /ˌɪnkləˈneɪʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] the desire to do something: I didn't have the time or inclination to go with them. 2 [C,U] a tendency to think or behave in a particular way: his inclination to act violently in-cline¹ /ɪnˈklaɪn/ (Ac) v. [I,T] to slope at a particular angle, or make something do this [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French incliner, from Latin clinare “to lean”] in-cline² /ɪnˈklaɪn/ (Ac) n. [C] a slope: a steep incline

in-clined /ɪnˈklaɪnd/ (Ac) adj. 1 be inclined to agree/believe/think etc. to have a particular opinion, but not have it very strongly: I'm inclined to agree with you, but I don't really know. 2 wanting to do something: My client is not inclined to speak with reporters. 3 likely or tending to do something: He's inclined to get upset over small things.

in-clude /ɪnˈklud/ v. [T] 1 if one thing includes another, the second thing is part of the first: The price includes your flight, hotel, and car rental. | Tim's job responsibilities include hiring new teachers. | Service is included in the bill. 2 to make someone or something part of a larger group or set (ANT exclude): Homework exercises are included in the book. | You should include your educational background on your résumé. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin includere, from in “in” + claudere “to close”] in-clud-ing /ɪnˈkludɪŋ/ prep. used in order to show that someone or something is part of a larger group or set that you are talking about (ANT excluding): There were 20 people in the room, including the teacher. | We only paid $12 each for dinner, including the tip.

in-clu-sion /ɪnˈkluzən/ n. 1 [U] the action of including someone or something in a larger group or set, or the fact of being included in one: I am surprised at his inclusion in the team. | Here's the list of books we're considering for inclusion on the reading list. 2 [C] someone or something that is included in-clu-sive /ɪnˈklusɪv/ adj. including a wide variety of people, things, etc.: American colleges try very hard to be inclusive.

in-cog-ni-to /ˌɪnkəɡˈniːtoʊ/ adv. if a famous person does something incognito, s/he is hiding who s/he really is [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Italian, Latin incognitus “unknown”] in-co-her-ent /ˌɪnkooˈhɪrənt/ (Ac) adj. 1 not clear, not organized, and hard to understand: an incoherent letter 2 speaking in a way that cannot be understood or that does not make sense: Joey mumbled something incoherent. —incoherently adv.

in-come /ˈɪnkʌm, ˈɪŋ-/ (Ac) n. [C,U] the money that you earn from working or making INVESTMENTS: a good/high/low income | She has an annual income of $40,000. | an elderly couple living on a fixed income (=an income that does not change or grow)

THESAURUS pay, salary, wages, earnings, bonus, remuneration → PAY²

'income distri-bution n. [U] ECONOMICS the way in which the total income earned by the population of a country exists in different amounts in different areas, depending on the number of people living in each place and their level of income

'income tax n. [U] ECONOMICS tax paid on the money you earn in-com-ing /ˌɪnˈkʌmɪŋ/ adj. 1 incoming call/letter/fax a telephone call, letter, or FAX that you receive (ANT outgoing) 2 coming toward a place, or about to arrive (ANT outgoing): the incoming tide in-com-mu-ni-ca-do /ˌɪnkəˈmyʊnɪˈkadoʊ/ adj., adv. not allowed or not wanting to communicate with anyone in-com-pa-ra-ble /ɪnˈkʌmpərəbəl/ adj. so impressive, beautiful, etc. that nothing or no one is better: the incomparable beauty of the landscape —incomparably adv.

in-com-pat-i-ble /ˌɪnkəmˈpætəbəl/ (Ac) adj. too different to be able to be accepted, work together well, or have a good relationship: The two cellphones use incompatible systems. | Results of the two experiments were incompatible. | These new scientific facts are incompatible with each other. | Tony and I have always been incompatible. —incompatibility /ˌɪnkəmˈpætəˈbɪləti/ n. [U]

in-com-pe-tence /ɪnˈkʌmpətəns/ n. [U] lack of ability or skill to do your job: Police have been accused of incompetence.

in-com-pe-tent /ɪnˈkʌmpətənt/ adj. not having the ability or skill to do your job: a totally incompetent waitress —incompetent n. [C]

in-com-plete¹ /ˌɪnkəmˈplɪt/ adj. not having all its parts or not finished yet: an incomplete sentence | The report is still incomplete.

incomplete² n. [C] a grade given to college students, which shows that they still have to finish some work for a course: I got an incomplete in astronomy.

in-com-pre-hen-si-ble /ˌɪnkəmpriˈhensəbəl/ adj. impossible to understand: His speech was incomprehensible.

in-con-ceiv-a-ble /ˌɪnkənˈsivəbəl/ (Ac) adj. too strange or unusual to seem real or possible: It was inconceivable that such a quiet man could be violent. —inconceivably adv.

in-con-clu-sive /ˌɪnkənˈklusɪv/ (Ac) adj. not leading to any decision or result: inconclusive research | The evidence the police provided was inconclusive (=did not prove anything). —inconclusively adv.

in-con-gru-ous /ɪn'kɒŋgruəs/ adj. (formal) seeming to be wrong or unusual in a particular situation: Her quiet voice seemed incongruous with her hard face. —incongruously adv. —incongruity /ɪn'kɒŋgruəti/ n. [C,U]

in-con-se-quen-tial /ɪnkənsə'kwɛntʃəl/ adj. (formal) not important (SYN) insignificant: The issue is totally inconsequential. —inconsequentially adv.

in-con-sid-er-ate /ɪnkən'sɪdəɪt/ adj. not caring about other people's needs or feelings: It was really inconsiderate of you not to call and say you'd be late. —inconsiderately adv.

in-con-sist-en-cy /ɪnkən'sɪstənsi/ (Ac) n. (plural inconsistencies) 1 [C,U] a situation in which two statements are different and cannot both be true: The police became suspicious because of the inconsistencies in her story. 2 [U] the quality of changing your ideas too often or of doing something differently each time, so that people do not know what to expect: The team's inconsistency has resulted in a poor league position.

in-con-sist-ent /ɪnkən'sɪstənt/ (Ac) adj. 1 two ideas or statements that are inconsistent are different and cannot both be true: We're getting inconsistent results from the lab tests. | His story was inconsistent with the evidence. 2 not doing things in the same way each time: Inconsistent discipline can make children behave badly. 3 not following an expected principle or standard: What they have done is inconsistent with the agreement that they made with us. —inconsistently adv.

in-con-sol-a-ble /ɪnkən'səʊləbəl/ adj. (literary) so sad that you cannot be comforted: His widow was inconsolable.

in-con-spic-u-ous /ɪnkən'spɪkyuəs/ adj. not easily seen or noticed: *I sat in the corner, trying to look/be inconspicuous.

in-con-ti-nent /ɪn'kəntɪn-ənt, -tənənt/ adj. unable to control your BLADDER or BOWELS —incontinence n. [U]

in-con-tro-vert-i-ble /ɪnkəntɹə'vɜːtəbəl/ adj. an incontrovertible fact is definitely true: The police have incontrovertible evidence that he committed the crime. —incontrovertibly adv.

in-con-ven-i-ence¹ /ɪnkən'vɪnyəns/ n. [C,U] something that causes you problems or difficulties, or the state of having problems or difficulties: We apologize for any inconvenience caused by the delay to the bus service.

inconvenience² v. [T] to cause problems or difficulties for someone: "I'll drive you home." "Are you sure? I don't want to inconvenience you."

in-con-ven-i-ent /ɪnkən'vɪnyənt/ adj. causing problems or difficulties, especially in an annoying way: Is this an inconvenient time for you to talk? —inconveniently adv.

in-cor-po-rate /ɪn'kɒrpəreɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to include something as part of a group, system, etc.: Several safety features have been incorporated into the car's design. 2 to form a CORPORATION [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Late Latin, past participle of incorporare, from Latin corpus "body"] —incorporation /ɪn'kɒrpə'reɪʃən/ n. [U]

In-cor-po-rat-ed /ɪn'kɒrpə'reɪtɪd/ (written abbreviation Inc.) adj. used after the name of a company in the U.S. to show that it is a CORPORATION in-cor-rect /ɪnkə'rekt/ adj. not correct (SYN) wrong: incorrect answers —incorrectly adv.

THESAURUS wrong, erroneous, inaccurate, misleading, false → WRONG¹

in-cor-ri-gi-ble /ɪn'kɒrɪdʒəbəl, -'kər-/ adj. someone who is incorrigible is bad in some way and cannot be changed: an incorrigible liar

in-crease¹ /ɪn'kris/ v. [I,T] to become larger in number, amount, or degree, or make something do this (ANT) decrease: The price of gas has increased by 4%. | Immigration has increased dramatically in recent decades. | The waves were increasing in size. | Smoking increases your chances of getting cancer. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French encreistre, from Latin increscere, from crescere "to grow"] —increasing adj.: increasing concern about job security

THESAURUS

go up – to increase in number, amount, or value: Prices have gone up 2%.

rise – to increase in number, amount, quality, or value: Motor vehicle thefts rose from 145 to 312 last year.

grow – to increase in amount, size, or degree: The number of people working from home has grown substantially.

double – to become twice as large or twice as much, or to make something do this: The firm has doubled in size in ten years.

shoot up – to quickly increase in number, size, or amount: Unemployment shot up.

multiply – to increase greatly, or to make something do this: The company's problems have multiplied over the past year.

in-crease² /ɪn'kris/ n. [C,U] a rise in number, amount, or degree (ANT) decrease: an increase in sales | *People are complaining about the large tax increase. | *There has been a dramatic/significant increase in housing prices. | Crime in the city is on the increase (=increasing).

in-creased /ɪnˈkrist/ adj. larger or more than before: an increased awareness of environmental issues in-creas-ing-ly /ɪnˈkrisɪŋli/ adv. more and more: It's becoming increasingly difficult to find employment.

in-cred-i-ble /ɪnˈkrədəbəl/ adj. 1 extremely good, large, or impressive: The view from our hotel window was incredible. | an incredible bargain 2 very hard to believe: It's incredible that he survived the fall. | It's incredible to think they actually lost the game.

in-cred-i-bly /ɪnˈkrədəbli/ adv. 1 extremely: It's incredibly beautiful here in the spring. 2 in a way that is difficult to believe: Incredibly, he was not injured.

in-cred-u-lous /ɪnˈkrədʒələs/ adj. showing that you are unable or unwilling to believe something: "You sold the car?" she asked, incredulous. —incredulously adv. —incredulity /ɪnkrɪˈdʊləʃi/ n. [U]

in-cre-ment /ɪnˈkrəmənt, ˈɪŋ-/ n. [C] an amount by which a value, number, or amount of money increases: an annual salary increment of 2.9% | He is paying off the $5,000 fine in small increments. —incremental /ɪnkrəˈmentl/ adj.

in-crim-i-nate /ɪnˈkrɪmənt/ v. [T] to make someone seem guilty of a crime: He refused to incriminate himself by answering questions. —incriminating adj.: incriminating evidence —incrimination /ɪnˈkrɪməneɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-cu-bate /ɪŋkjuˈbeɪt/ v. [I,T] BIOLOGY if a bird incubates its egg or if an egg incubates, it is kept warm under a bird's body until the baby bird comes out —incubation /ɪŋkjuˈbeɪʃən/ n. [U] in-cu-ba-tor /ɪŋkjuˈbeɪtə/ n. [C] 1 a machine used by hospitals for keeping very small or weak babies alive 2 a machine for keeping eggs warm until the young birds come out in-cul-cate /ɪnˈkʌlˌkeɪt, ɪnˈkʌlˌkeɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to make someone accept an idea or principle by repeating it to him/her frequently → INSTILL: Dad had inculcated in us a strong sense of family loyalty. | The army inculcates its recruits with patriotism. —inculcation /ɪnˈkʌlˌkeɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-cum-bent /ɪnˈkʌmbənt/ n. [C] (formal) someone who has been elected to an official position and is doing that job now: The election will be tough for the incumbents on the city council.

incumbent² adj. (formal) 1 it is incumbent on/upon sb to do sth if it is incumbent on you to do something, it is your duty or responsibility to do it 2 the incumbent President/Senator etc. the president, senator, etc. at the present time in-cur /ɪnˈkʊə/ v. (incurred, incurring) [T] to have something bad, such as a punishment or debt, happen because of something you have done: The oil company incurred a debt of $5 million last year.

[ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin incurrere “to run into,” from currere “to run”] in-cur-a-ble /ɪnˈkyʊərəbəl/ adj. impossible to cure or change: an incurable disease | I am an incurable optimist. —incurably adv.

in-cur-sion /ɪnˈkʊʒən/ n. [C] (formal) a sudden attack or arrival into an area that belongs to other people: There was heavy fighting after the army's incursion into the northern provinces.

in-debt-ed /ɪnˈdeɪtɪd/ adj. be indebted to sb to be very grateful to someone for the help s/he has given you: I am indebted to my friend Catherine, who edited my manuscript. —indebtedness n. [U]

in-de-cent /ɪnˈdisənt/ adj. indecent behavior, clothes, or actions are likely to offend or shock people because they are against social or moral standards, or because they involve sex: You can't wear a skirt that short — it's indecent! | indecent material on the Internet —indecently adv. [C,U]

in-de-ci-sion /ɪndɪˈsɪʒən/ n. [U] the state of not being able to make decisions: After a week of indecision, we agreed to buy the house.

in-de-ci-sive /ɪndɪˈsaɪsɪv/ adj. 1 unable to make decisions: He was criticized for being a weak, indecisive leader. 2 not having a clear result: an indecisive battle —indecisiveness n. [U] in-deed /ɪnˈdiːd/ adv. 1 used when adding more information to a statement: Most people at that time were illiterate. Indeed, only 8% of the population could read. 2 used when emphasizing a statement or a question: Jackson is indeed the best player in the league.

in-de-fat-i-ga-ble /ɪndɪˈfætɪɡəbəl/ adj. (formal) determined and never becoming tired (SYN) tireless: an indefatigable worker in-de-fen-si-ble /ɪndɪˈfensəbəl/ adj. too bad to be excused or defended: indefensible behavior in-de-fin-a-ble /ɪndɪˈfaɪnəbəl/ adj. difficult to describe or explain: For some indefinable reason she felt afraid.

in-def-i-nite /ɪnˈdefənt/ (Ac) adj. 1 an indefinite action or period of time has no definite end arranged for it: He was away in Alaska for an indefinite period. 2 not clear or definite (SYN) vague: The schedule is still indefinite.

in,definite 'article n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the words “a” and “an” → DEFINITE ARTICLE in-def-i-nite-ly /ɪnˈdefəntli/ (Ac) adv. for a period of time without an arranged end: I'll be staying here indefinitely.

in,definite 'pronoun n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word such as “some,” “any,” or “either” that is used instead of a noun, but that does not say exactly which person or thing is meant in-del-i-ble /ɪnˈdeləbəl/ adj. impossible to remove or forget (SYN) permanent: indelible ink |

The movie left an indelible impression on her (=she could not forget it). —indelibly adv.

in-del-i-cate /ɪn'delɪkɪt/ adj. (literary) slightly impolite or offensive: an indelicate question —indelicately adv.

in-dem-ni-fy /ɪn'demnəˌfaɪ/ v. (indemnified, indemnifies) [T] LAW to promise to pay someone if something s/he owns becomes lost or damaged, or if s/he is injured in-dem-ni-ty /ɪn'demnəti/ n. (plural indemnities) 1 [U] LAW protection in the form of a promise to pay for any damage or loss 2 [C] LAW money that is paid to someone for any damages, losses, or injury in-dent /ɪn'dent/ v. [T] to start a line of writing closer to the middle of the page than the other lines in-den-ta-tion /ɪnden'teɪʃən/ n. [C] 1 a space at the beginning of a line of writing 2 a cut or space in the edge of something in-den-tured serv-ant /ɪn,dentʃəd 'sɜ:vənt/ n. [C] HISTORY in past times, someone who agreed or was forced to work for his/her employer for a particular number of years before s/he could be free in-de-pend-ence /ɪndɪ'pendəns/ n. [U] 1 the freedom and ability to make your own decisions and take care of yourself without having to ask other people for help, money, or permission: Many old people want to keep/maintain their independence. | Staying out late is one way teenagers try to assert their independence. | Having a job gives you financial independence. 2 political freedom from control by another country: The United States declared independence in 1776. | Mexico gained independence from Spain in 1821.

Independence Day n. a U.S. national holiday on July 4th that celebrates the beginning of the United States as an independent nation in-de-pend-ent /ɪndɪ'pendənt/ adj. 1 confident, free, and not needing to ask other people for help, money, or permission to do something: Women have become better educated and more independent. | He helps disabled people to lead independent lives. 2 not controlled by another government or organization: India became an independent nation in 1947. | a European army independent of NATO 3 not influenced by other people: an independent report on the experiment —independently adv.

independent 'clause n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a CLAUSE that can make up a sentence by itself, for example “He woke up” in the sentence “He woke up when he heard the bell.” (SYN main clause → DEPENDENT CLAUSE) independent 'variable n. [C] SCIENCE in a scientific EXPERIMENT (=test), one of the conditions you change, add, or remove in order to test its effect on something else involved in the experiment (SYN manipulated variable) independent 'voter n. [C] POLITICS someone who votes but who does not support one particular political party

'in-depth adj. in-depth study/report a study or report that is very thorough and considers all the details in-de-scrib-a-ble /ɪndɪ'skraɪbəbəl/ adj. too good, strange, frightening, etc. to be described: My joy at seeing him was indescribable.

in-de-struct-i-ble /ɪndɪ'strʌktəbəl/ adj. impossible to destroy: The tank was built to be indestructible.

in-de-ter-mi-nate /ɪndɪ'təmənɪt/ adj. impossible to find out or calculate exactly: a woman of indeterminate age in-dex¹ /'ɪndeks/ (Ac) n. (plural indexes or indices /'ɪndə'sɪz/) [C] 1 an alphabetical list at the end of a book, that lists all the names, subjects, etc. in the book and the pages where you can find them: Children should understand how to use an index. 2 a set of cards with information, or a DATABASE, in alphabetical order: Look up the book in the library's card index. 3 a standard or level you can use for judging or measuring something: the Consumer Price Index 4 MATH the number that is written before and slightly above a RADICAL SIGN (√), which shows how many times a number was multiplied by itself to produce the number after the radical sign. The index of $\sqrt[3]{5}$ is 3. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin “first finger, guide,” from indicare] index² v. [T] to make an index for something: The software can index the documents on your computer.

'index card n. [C] a small card that you write information on

'index finger n. [C] the finger next to the thumb (SYN forefinger → see picture at HAND¹)

in-di-an¹ /'ɪndiən/ adj. 1 relating to NATIVE AMERICANS 2 relating to or coming from India

Indian² n. [C] 1 a NATIVE AMERICAN 2 someone from India

'Indian 'Ocean n. the Indian Ocean the ocean surrounded by Africa in the west, India in the north, and Australia in the east

'Indian 'summer n. [C,U] a period of warm weather in the fall in-di-cate /'ɪndəˌkeɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to show that something exists or is likely to be true: Research indicates that women live longer than men. | Her writing indicated a deep understanding of science.

THESAURUS demonstrate, show, suggest → DEMONSTRATE

2 to point at something: Indicating a chair, he said, “Please, sit down.” 3 to say or do something that shows what you want or intend to do: He indicated that he had no desire to come with us. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, past participle of indicare, from dicare “to say publicly or officially”]

in-di-ca-tion /ˌɪndəˈkeɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] a sign that something exists or is likely to be true: Did Rick ever give any indication that he was unhappy? | There has been no indication of improvement in his condition.

in-dic-a-tive¹ /ɪnˈdɪkətɪv/ (Ac) adj. (formal) 1 be indicative of sth to show that something exists or is likely to be true: His reaction is indicative of how frightened he is. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to the indicative indicative² (Ac) n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the form of a verb that is used to make ordinary statements. For example, in the sentences “Penny passed her test,” and “Mike likes cake,” the verbs “passed” and “likes” are in the indicative. → IMPERATIVE, SUBJUNCTIVE in-di-ca-tor /ˌɪndəˈkeɪtə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 an event, fact, etc. that shows that something exists, or shows you the way something is developing: All the main economic indicators suggest that business is improving. 2 something on a machine that shows the temperature, speed, etc.

in-di-ces /ˌɪndəˈsɪz/ n. a plural of INDEX

in-dict /ɪnˈdɪkt/ v. [I,T] LAW to officially charge someone with a crime: He was indicted on charges of perjury. —indictable /ɪnˈdaɪtəbəl/ adj.

in-dict-ment /ɪnˈdɪktˌmənt/ n. [C] 1 LAW an official written statement saying that someone has done something illegal

THESAURUS accusation, allegation, charge, complaint → ACCUSATION

2 be an indictment of sth something which shows that a system, method, etc. is very bad or wrong: Bellow's novel can be read as an indictment of modern society.

in-dif-fer-ence /ɪnˈdɪfrəns/ n. [U] lack of interest or concern: his indifference to the suffering of others in-dif-fer-ent /ɪnˈdɪfrənt/ adj. not interested in someone or something, or not having any feelings or opinions about him, her, or it: The industry seems indifferent to environmental concerns.

in-dig-e-nous /ɪnˈdɪdʒənəs/ adj. (formal) indigenous plants, animals, etc. have always lived or grown naturally in the place where they are (SYN native: These plants are indigenous to the Amazon region. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Late Latin indigenus, from Latin indigena “someone born in a place”]) in-di-gent /ˌɪndɪdʒənt/ adj. (formal) not having much money or many possessions (SYN poor: money to help indigent hospital patients —indigent n. [C] —indigence n. [U])

THESAURUS poor, needy, destitute, impoverished, impecunious, penurious, poverty-stricken → POOR

in-di-gest-i-ble /ˌɪndrɪˈdʒestəbəl, -daɪ-/ adj. food that is indigestible cannot easily be broken down in the stomach → DIGEST

in-di-ges-tion /ˌɪndəˈdʒestʃən, -daɪ-/ n. [U] the pain caused by eating food that cannot easily be broken down in the stomach in-dig-nant /ɪnˈdɪgnənt/ adj. angry because you feel you have been insulted or unfairly treated: Marsha was indignant about the poor service she had received. —indignantly adv.

THESAURUS angry, annoyed, irritated, livid, furious, mad, irate, outraged → ANGRY

in-dig-na-tion /ˌɪndɪgˈneɪʃən/ n. [U] feelings of anger and surprise because you feel insulted or unfairly treated: her indignation at the suggestion that it was her fault | His eyes blazed with indignation.

in-dig-ni-ty /ɪnˈdɪgnəti/ n. (plural indignities) [C,U] a situation that makes you feel very ashamed and not respected: Two of the diplomats suffered the indignity of being arrested.

in-di-rect /ˌɪndəˈrɛkt, -daɪ-/ adj. 1 not directly caused by something or relating to it: The accident was an indirect result of the heavy rain. 2 not using the straightest or most direct way to get to a place: an indirect route 3 suggesting something without saying it directly or clearly: He never mentioned my work, which I felt was an indirect criticism of its quality. —indirectly adv.

indirect object n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the person or thing that receives something as the result of the action of the verb in a sentence. In the sentence “Pete gave me the money,” “me” is the indirect object. → DIRECT OBJECT indirect 'reasoning also indirect 'proof n. [U] MATH the process of proving that a mathematical statement is true by first saying that it is false, and then showing that, if the statement is really false, other mathematical statements which are known or believed to be true must also be false indirect 'rule n. [U] POLITICS the act of governing a COLONY (=a country or area ruled by a more powerful country) using local laws rather than the laws of the ruling country

indirect 'speech n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS REPORTED SPEECH in-dis-creet /ˌɪndrɪˈskri:t/ adj. careless about what you say or do, so that you let people know too much in-dis-cre-tion /ˌɪndrɪˈskreɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] an action, remark, or behavior that shows bad judgment and is usually considered socially or morally unacceptable: his embarrassing sexual indiscretions | youthful indiscretion in-dis-crim-i-nate /ˌɪndrɪˈskrɪmənɪt/ adj. an indiscriminate action is done without thinking about what harm it might cause: indiscriminate acts of violence in-dis-pen-sa-ble /ˌɪndɪˈspɛnsəbəl/ adj. someone or something that is indispensable is so important or useful that you cannot manage without him, her, or it: The information he provided was indispensable to our research.

THESAURUS necessary, essential, vital → NECESSARY

in-dis-pu-ta-ble /ˌɪndɪˈspjuːtəbəl/ adj. a fact that is indisputable must be accepted because it is definitely true —indisputably adv.

in-dis-tinct /ˌɪndɪˈstɪŋkt/ (Ac) adj. not able to be seen, heard, or remembered very clearly [SYN] unclear: We could hear indistinct voices in the next room. —indistinctly adv.

in-dis-tin-guish-a-ble /ˌɪndɪˈstɪŋɡwɪʃəbəl/ adj. things that are indistinguishable are so similar that you cannot see any difference between them: This material is indistinguishable from real silk.

in-di-vid-u-al¹ /ˌɪndəˈvɪdʒuəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 considered separately from other people or things in the same group: Each individual drawing is slightly different. | the tasks given to the individual members of the group 2 belonging to or intended for one person rather than a group: Individual attention must be given to each student. | The gallery relies on both corporate and individual donations. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Medieval Latin individualis, from Latin individuus “undividable”]

individual² (Ac) n. [C] one person, considered separately from the rest of the group or society that s/he lives in: Thousands of homeless individuals and families use these shelters. | The substance can help prevent heart disease in some individuals.

in-di-vid-u-al-ism /ˌɪndəˈvɪdʒuəlɪzəm/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 the behavior or attitude of someone who does things in his or her own way without being influenced by other people: The culture of the western U.S. has always valued rugged individualism. 2 the belief that the rights and freedom of individual people are the most important rights in society: Japanese society promotes the group rather than individualism. —individualist n. [C]: He was an individualist who always spoke his mind. —individualistic /ˌɪndəˈvɪdʒuəlɪstɪk/ adj.

in-di-vid-u-al-i-ty /ˌɪndəˈvɪdʒuəlɪti/ (Ac) n. [U] the quality that makes someone or something different from all others: His individuality shows in his art work.

in-di-vid-u-al-ly /ˌɪndəˈvɪdʒuəli, -dʒəli/ (Ac) adv. separately, not together in a group: Mr. Wong met with each employee individually.

in-di-vis-i-ble /ˌɪndəˈvɪzəbəl/ adj. not able to be separated or divided into parts —indivisibly adv.

in-doc-tri-nate /ɪnˈdɒktrəˌneɪt/ v. [T] (disapproving) to teach someone to accept a particular set of beliefs and not consider any others —indoctrination /ɪnˈdɒktrəˌneɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-do-lent /ˈɪndələnt/ adj. (formal) lazy —indolently adv. —indolence n. [U]

in-dom-i-ta-ble /ɪnˈdɒmətəbəl/ adj. indomitable spirit/courage etc. (formal) determination, courage, etc. that can never be defeated in-door /ˈɪndɔːr/ adj. [only before noun] used or happening inside a building (ANT) outdoor: an indoor swimming pool in-doors /ɪnˈdɔːrz/ adv. into or inside a building (ANT) outdoors: He stayed indoors all morning.

in-du-ce /ɪnˈdus/ (Ac) v. (formal) 1 [T] to make someone decide to do something: What induced you to spend so much money on a car?

THESAURUS cause, make, prompt → CAUSE²

2 [T] to cause a particular physical condition: This drug may induce drowsiness. 3 [I,T] to make a woman give birth to her baby by giving her a special drug in-du-ce-ment /ɪnˈdusmənt/ n. [C,U] something that you are offered to persuade you to do something: He was given $10,000 as an inducement to leave the company.

in-duct /ɪnˈdʌkt/ v. [T] to officially make someone a member of a group or organization: Joni Mitchell was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. —inductee /ɪnˈdʌkˈti/ n. [C] in-duc-tion /ɪnˈdʌkʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] the act or ceremony of officially making someone a member of a group or organization in-duc-tive /ɪnˈdʌktɪv/ adj. using known facts or patterns to form the general principles of something or a general opinion about something: inductive research in,ductive 'reasoning n. [U] MATH the process of forming a general mathematical rule for solving a mathematical problem using an existing pattern of specific results or facts in-dulge /ɪnˈdʌldʒ/ v. 1 [I,T] to let yourself do or have something that you enjoy, especially something that is considered bad for you: We indulged in a piece of cheesecake after lunch. | Go ahead – indulge yourself. 2 [T] to let someone do or have whatever s/he wants, even if it is bad for him/her: She did not like her children to be indulged.

in-dul-gence /ɪn'dʌldʒəns/ n. 1 [U] the habit of eating too much, drinking too much, etc.: a life of indulgence 2 [C] something that you do or have for pleasure, not because you need it: Chocolate is my only indulgence.

in-dul-gent /ɪn'dʌldʒənt/ adj. allowing someone to do or have whatever s/he wants, even if it is bad for him/her: indulgent parents —indulgently adv.

in-dus-tri-al /ɪn'dʌstriəl/ adj. 1 relating to industry or the people working in industry: industrial waste | industrial production 2 having many industries, or industries that are well developed: an industrial region —industrially adv.

in-dus-tri-al-ist /ɪn'dʌstriəlɪst/ n. [C] the owner of a factory, industrial company, etc.

in-dus-tri-al-ize /ɪn'dʌstriəlaɪz/ v. [I,T] if a country or place is industrialized, or if it industrializes, it develops a lot of industry —industrialization /ɪn,dʌstriələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [U] in'dustrial park n. [C] an area of land that has offices, businesses, small factories, etc. on it in,dustrial revo'lution n. the Industrial Revolution HISTORY the period in the 18th and 19th centuries in Europe, when machines and factories began to be used to produce goods in large quantities in-dus-tri-ous /ɪn'dʌstriəs/ adj. (formal) tending to work hard: an industrious young woman —industriously adv.

in-dus-try /ɪn'dʌstri/ n. (plural industries) 1 [U] the production of goods, especially in factories → INDUSTRIAL: The country's economy is supported by industry.

THESAURUS business, commerce, trade, private enterprise → BUSINESS

2 [C] a particular type of trade or service that produces things: He works in the auto/retail/insurance industry. | She's one of the most successful people in this industry. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French industrie “skill, work involving skill,” from Latin industria “willingness to work hard”] in-e-bri-at-ed /ɪ'nɪbri,eɪtɪd/ adj. (formal) drunk —inebriation /ɪ,nɪbri'eɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-ed-i-ble /ɪn'edəbəl/ adj. not good enough to eat, or not appropriate for eating: inedible mushrooms in-ef-fa-ble /ɪn'efəbəl/ adj. (formal) too great to be described in words: He felt an ineffable sadness. —ineffably adv.

in-ef-fec-tive /ɪnə'fektɪv/ adj. something that is ineffective does not achieve what it was intended to achieve: Critics say that gun-control laws have been ineffective. —ineffectiveness n. [U]

in-ef-fec-tu-al /ɪnə'fektʃuəl/ adj. not achieving what someone or something is trying to do: an ineffectual leader —ineffectually adv.

in-ef-fi-cient /ɪnə'fɪʃənt/ adj. not working well and wasting time, money, or energy: an inefficient use of good farmland —inefficiently adv. —inefficiency n. [C,U]

in-e-las-tic /ɪnɪ'læstɪk/ adj. ECONOMICS if the demand for a particular product or service is inelastic, a change in the price produces only a small change in the amount people will buy (ANT) elastic in-el-e-gant /ɪn'eləɡənt/ adj. (formal) not graceful or well done: inelegant manners → CLUMSY

in-el-i-gi-ble /ɪn'elədʒəbəl/ adj. not allowed to do or have something: Our family is ineligible for state aid. —ineligibility /ɪn,elədʒə'bɪləti/ n. [U] in-ept /ɪ'nɛpt/ adj. having no skill: an inept driver —ineptitude /ɪ'nɛptɪ,tud/ n. [U]

in-e-qual-i-ty /ɪnɪ'kwələti/ n. (plural inequalities) [C,U] an unfair situation, in which some groups in society have more money, opportunities, power, etc. than others → UNEQUAL: There are many inequalities in our legal system.

in-eq-ui-ty /ɪn'ekwəti/ n. (plural inequities) [C,U] (formal) lack of fairness, or something that is unfair: There are still inequities in the amount that men and women earn for the same job.

in-ert /ɪ'nɜ:t/ adj. 1 CHEMISTRY not producing a chemical reaction when combined with other substances: inert gases 2 not moving: He lay there, inert. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin iners “unskilled, doing nothing,” from ars “skill, art”] in-er-tia /ɪ'nɜ:ʃə/ n. [U] 1 a tendency for a situation to stay unchanged for a long time: the problem of inertia in large bureaucracies 2 a feeling that you do not want to do anything at all 3 PHYSICS the force that keeps an object in the same position or keeps it moving until it is moved or stopped by another force in-es-cap-a-ble /ɪnə'skeɪpəbəl/ adj. (formal) impossible to avoid or ignore: The inescapable fact is that he has a drinking problem. —inescapably adv.

in-es-ti-ma-ble /ɪn'estəməbəl/ adj. (formal) too much or too great to be calculated —inestimably adv.

in-ev-i-ta-ble /ɪ'nɛvətəbəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 certain to happen and impossible to avoid: A lawsuit seems inevitable. | It was inevitable that someone would get hurt. 2 the inevitable something that is certain to happen: Finally, the inevitable happened and he lost his job. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin inevitabilis, from evitare “to avoid”] —inevitability /ɪ,nɛvətə'bɪləti/ n. [U]

in-ev-i-ta-bly /ɪ'nɛvətəbli/ (Ac) adv. as was certain to happen: Inevitably, there were a few mistakes. | Questions will inevitably arise.

in-ex-act /ˌɪnɪɡˈzækt/ adj. not exact: Psychology is an inexact science (=you cannot measure things exactly in it).

in-ex-cus-a-ble /ˌɪnɪkˈskyuzəbəl/ adj. inexcusable behavior is too bad to be excused: Being late on your first day at a job is inexcusable. —inexcusably adv.

in-ex-haust-i-ble /ˌɪnɪɡˈzɔstəbəl/ adj. something that is inexhaustible exists in such large amounts that it can never be used up: Warton seems to have an inexhaustible supply of energy. —inexhaustibly adv.

in-ex-o-ra-ble /ˌɪnˈeksərəbəl/ adj. (formal) an inexorable process cannot be stopped: the inexorable process of aging —inexorably adv.

in-ex-pen-sive /ˌɪnɪkˈspensɪv/ adj. low in price: an inexpensive vacation —inexpensively adv.

THESAURUS cheap, reasonable, a good/great deal, good/great value → CHEAP¹

in-ex-pe-ri-enced /ˌɪnɪkˈspɪəriənst/ adj. not having much experience or knowledge: an inexperienced driver —inexperience n. [U] in-ex-pli-ca-ble /ˌɪnɪkˈsplɪkəbəl/ adj. too unusual or strange to be explained or understood: Police are investigating his inexplicable disappearance. —inexplicably adv.

in-ex-tric-a-ble /ˌɪnɪkˈstri:kəbəl, ɪnˈɛkstri:k-/ adj. (formal) two or more things that are inextricable cannot be separated from each other: the inextricable link between language and culture in-ex-tri-ca-bly /ˌɪnɪkˈstri:kəbli/ adv. (formal) things that are inextricably connected or related cannot be separated from each other: Their political beliefs and their religion are inextricably linked.

in-fal-li-ble /ɪnˈfæləbəl/ adj. 1 always right, and never making mistakes: Many small children believe their parents are infallible. 2 always having the intended effect: an infallible cure for hiccups —infallibility /ɪnˈfæləˈbɪləti/ n. [U] in-fa-mous /ˈɪnfəməs/ adj. well known for being bad or evil → FAMOUS: an infamous criminal —infamously adv.

THESAURUS famous, legendary, notorious → FAMOUS in-fa-my /ˈɪnfəmi/ n. [U] the state of being evil or of being well known for evil things in-fan-cy /ˈɪnfənsi/ n. [U] 1 the period in a child's life before s/he can walk or talk: Their son died in infancy. 2 in its infancy something that is in its infancy is just starting to be developed: The project is still in its infancy.

in-fant /ˈɪnfənt/ n. [C] (formal) a baby, especially one that cannot walk yet [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French enfant, from Latin infans “unable to speak,” from fari “to speak”] in-fan-tile /ˈɪnfənˌtaɪl, -təl/ adj. 1 (disapproving) infantile behavior seems silly in an adult because it is typical of a child: his infantile jokes 2 [only before noun] affecting very small children: infantile illnesses in-fan-try /ˈɪnfəntri/ n. [U] soldiers who fight on foot in-farc-tion /ɪnˈfɑrkʃən/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a medical condition in which a blood VESSEL becomes blocked, so that no blood can go through in-fat-u-at-ed /ɪnˈfætʃuːɪtɪd/ adj. having unreasonably strong feelings of love for someone: He's infatuated with her. —infatuation /ɪnˈfætʃuːɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

in-fect /ɪnˈfekt/ v. [T] 1 BIOLOGY to give someone a disease: People can feel well but still infect others. | a young man who is infected with the AIDS virus 2 BIOLOGY to make food, water, etc. dangerous and able to spread disease: bacteria that can infect fruit 3 if a feeling that you have infects other people, it makes them begin to feel the same way: Lucy's enthusiasm soon infected the rest of the class. 4 IT if a computer VIRUS infects your computer or DISKS, it changes or destroys the information on them [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin, past participle of inficere “to dip in, stain”]

in-fect-ed /ɪnˈfektɪd/ adj. 1 BIOLOGY a part of your body or a wound that is infected has harmful BACTERIA in it that prevent it from HEALING: an infected finger 2 BIOLOGY food, water, etc. that is infected contains BACTERIA that spread disease: water infected with cholera 3 IT if a computer or DISK is infected, the information on it has been changed or destroyed by a computer VIRUS in-fec-tion /ɪnˈfɛkʃən/ n. [C,U] a disease or sickness in a part of your body, caused by BACTERIA or a VIRUS: Wash the cut thoroughly to protect against infection. | an ear infection in-fec-tious /ɪnˈfɛkʃəs/ adj. 1 an infectious disease can be passed from one person to another: Flu is highly infectious. 2 someone who is infectious has a disease that could be passed to other people 3 infectious feelings or laughter spread quickly from one person to another in-fer /ɪnˈfɜ:/ (Ac) v. (inferred, inferring) [T] (formal) to form an opinion that something is probably true because of information that you have: What can you infer from the available data?

in-fer-ence /ˈɪnfərəns/ (Ac) n. [C,U] something that you think is true, based on information that you have: You'll have to draw your own inferences from the evidence (=decide what you think is true).

in-fer-en-tial ques-tion /ˌɪnfərənʃəl ˈkwɛstʃən/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a question that asks someone to say what s/he thinks is true, based on something that s/he has read → EVALUATIVE QUESTION, LITERAL QUESTION in-fe-ri-or¹ /ɪnˈfɪəriə/ adj. 1 not good, or not as good as someone or something else (ANT) superior: Larry always makes me feel inferior. | Her work is inferior to mine. 2 (formal) lower in rank (ANT) superior: an inferior court [ORIGIN: 1400—

1500 Latin “lower,” from inferus “below” —inferiority /ɪnˈfɪəriəti, -'ɔr-/ n. [U] inferior² n. [C] someone who has a lower position or rank than you in an organization (ANT) superior inferior 'court n. [C] LAW a LOWER COURT → SUPERIOR COURT

in-fer-no /ɪnˈfənoʊ/ n. (plural infernos) [C] (literary) a very large and dangerous fire: a raging inferno (=an extremely violent fire)

THESAURUS fire, flames, blaze → FIRE¹

in-fer-tile /ɪnˈfətl/ adj. 1 an infertile person or animal cannot have babies 2 infertile land or soil is not good enough to grow plants on —infertility /ˌɪnfəˈtɪləti/ n. [U]

in-fest /ɪnˈfest/ v. [T] if insects, rats, etc. infest a place, they are there in large numbers and usually cause damage: The old carpet was infested with fleas. —infestation /ˌɪnfəˈsteɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

in-fi-del /ˈɪnfədl, -ˌdɛl/ n. (old-fashioned, disapproving) [C] someone who does not believe in what you consider to be the true religion in-fi-del-i-ty /ˌɪnfədələti/ n. (plural infidelities) [C,U] an act of being unfaithful to your wife or husband by having sex with someone else in-field /ˈɪnfɪld/ n. [singular] the part of a baseball field inside the four bases —infielder n. [C] in-fight-ing /ɪnˈfaɪtɪŋ/ n. [U] unfriendly competition and disagreement among members of the same group or organization: political infighting in-fil-trate /ɪnˈfɪlˌtreɪt, ˈɪnfɪl-/ v. [I,T] to join an organization or enter a place, especially in order to find out secret information about it or to harm it: The police have made several attempts to infiltrate the Mafia. —infiltrator n. [C] —infiltration /ˌɪnfɪlˈtreɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-fi-nite /ˈɪnfənɪt/ (Ac) adj. 1 very great: a teacher with infinite patience | There are an infinite number of devices to make preparing food easier. 2 without limits in space or time: The universe is infinite. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin in “not” + finitus, past participle of finire “to end”] in-fi-nite-ly /ˈɪnfənɪtli/ (Ac) adv. very much: This stove is infinitely better/worse than the other one.

in-fin-i-tes-i-mal /ˌɪnfɪnəˈtesəməl/ adj. extremely small: infinitesimal changes in temperature —infinitesimally adv.

in-fin-i-tive /ɪnˈfɪnətɪv/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the basic form of a verb, used with “to.” In the sentence “I forgot to buy milk,” “to buy” is an infinitive. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Late Latin infinitivus, from Latin infinitus; because the verb is not limited by person or number] in-fin-i-ty /ɪnˈfɪnəti/ n. 1 [U] a space or distance without limits or an end 2 [singular, U] MATH a number that is larger than all others in-firm /ɪnˈfərm/ adj. (formal) weak or sick, especially because of being old

THESAURUS sick, ill, not very well, under the weather, ailing → SICK in-fir-ma-ry /ɪnˈfəməri/ n. (plural infirmaries) [C] (formal) a place where sick people can receive medical treatment, especially in a place such as a school in-fir-mi-ty /ɪnˈfəməti/ n. (plural infirmities) [C,U] (formal) bad health or a particular illness in-flame /ɪnˈfleɪm/ v. [T] (literary) to make someone have strong feelings of anger, excitement, etc.

in-flam-ma-ble /ɪnˈflæməbəl/ adj. (formal) inflammable materials or substances will start to burn very easily (SYN) flammable (ANT) nonflammable: Gasoline is highly inflammable.

THESAURUS flammable, nonflammable → FLAMMABLE in-flam-ma-tion /ˌɪnfləˈmeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] swelling and soreness on or in a part of your body, which is often red and hot to touch —inflamed /ɪnˈfleɪmd/ adj.

in-flam-ma-to-ry /ɪnˈflæməˌtɔri/ adj. (formal) an inflammatory speech, piece of writing, etc. is likely to make people angry in-flat-a-ble /ɪnˈfleɪtəbəl/ adj. an inflatable object has to be filled with air before you can use it: an inflatable mattress

in-flate /ɪnˈfleɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to fill something with air or gas, so that it becomes larger, or to make something do this (ANT) deflate: The machine quickly inflates the tires. 2 [T] to make something larger in size, amount, or importance: a policy that inflates land prices [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, past participle of inflare, from flare “to blow”] in-flat-ed /ɪnˈfleɪtɪd/ adj. 1 greater or larger than is reasonable: He has an inflated opinion of his own importance. 2 filled with air or gas: an inflated balloon in-fla-tion /ɪnˈfleɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 ECONOMICS a continuing increase in prices, or the rate at which prices increase: countries with high/low inflation | an inflation rate (=the rate at which prices rise over time) of three percent 2 the process of filling something with air or gas in-fla-tion-a-ry /ɪnˈfleɪʃənəri/ adj. ECONOMICS relating to or causing price increases: inflationary wage increases in-flect /ɪnˈflekt/ v. [I] ENG. LANG. ARTS if a word inflects, its form changes according to its meaning or use in-flec-tion /ɪnˈflekʃən/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the way in which a word changes its form to show differences in its meaning or use, such as the plural or a past tense, or one of the forms that is used in this way. For example, the inflections of “run” are “runs,” “ran,” and “running.”

in-flex-i-ble /ɪnˈfleksəbəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 impossible to influence or change: a school with inflexible rules | an inflexible boss 2 inflexible material is stiff and will not bend —inflexibility /ɪnˈfleksəˈbɪləti/ n. [U]

in-flict /ɪnˈflɪkt/ v. [T] to make someone suffer something bad: Soldiers assessed the damage inflicted on/upon the enemy. —infliction /ɪnˈflɪkʃən/ n. [U]

in-flu-ence¹ /ˈɪnfluəns/ n. 1 [C,U] the power to have an effect on the way someone or something develops, behaves, or thinks: Diego Rivera had a profound influence on artists of the 1930s. | He has a lot of political influence in the community. | Lewis used his influence to avoid military service. 2 [C] someone or something that has an effect on other people or things: Alex's parents always thought that I was a good/bad influence on him. | The country remains untouched by outside influences. 3 under the influence drunk or feeling the effects of a drug [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French, Medieval Latin influentia, from Latin fluere “to flow”]

influence² v. [T] to have an effect on the way someone or something develops, behaves, or thinks: I don't want to influence your decision. | As a singer, she was strongly influenced by gospel music.

THESAURUS persuade, convince, coax, cajole, prevail on/upon sb → PERSUADE

in-flu-en-tial /ɪnfluˈenʃəl/ adj. having a lot of influence: an influential politician | Dewey was influential in shaping economic policy. → POWERFUL —influentially adv.

in-flu-en-za /ɪnfluˈenzə/ n. [U] (formal) FLU in-flux /ˈɪnflʌks/ n. [C usually singular] the arrival of large numbers of people or things: an influx of cheap imported goods in-fo /ˈɪnfə/ n. [U] (informal) information in-fo-mer-cial /ˈɪnfəʊ,məʃəl/ n. [C] a long television advertisement that is made to seem like a regular program in-form /ɪnˈfɔrm/ v. [T] to formally tell someone about something: Please inform us of any progress. inform against/on sb phr. v. to tell the police, an enemy, etc. about what someone has done in-for-mal /ɪnˈfɔrməl/ adj. 1 relaxed and friendly: an informal meeting 2 appropriate for ordinary situations or conversations: an informal letter to your family —informally adv. —informality /ɪnfərˈmæləti/ n. [U]

in-form-ant /ɪnˈfɔrmənt/ n. [C] someone who gives secret information to the police, a government department, etc.: a CIA informant

in-for-ma-tion /ɪnfərˈmeɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 facts or details that tell you something about a situation, person, event, etc.: I need some more information about/on this machine. | Goodwin was able to provide several new pieces of information. | For further information, call the number below. 2 the telephone service that you can call to get someone's telephone number

GRAMMAR

Information is an uncountable noun and is never plural. Do not say “an information” or “some informations.” Say some information, any information, or a piece/bit of information: Do you have any information about places to stay in Seattle? | I found out an interesting piece of information.

infor-mation tech,nology (abbreviation IT) n. [U] the use of electronic processes, especially computers, for gathering information, storing it, and making it available in-form-a-tive /ɪnˈfɔrmətɪv/ adj. providing many useful facts or ideas: a very informative book —informatively adv.

in-formed /ɪnˈfɔrmd/ adj. having a lot of knowledge or information about a particular subject or situation: well-informed voters in-form-er /ɪnˈfɔrmə/ n. [C] an INFORMANT

in-fo-tain-ment /ɪnfəʊˈteɪnmənt/ n. [U] television programs that present news and other types of information in an entertaining way in-frac-tion /ɪnˈfrækʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) an act of breaking a rule or law in-fra-red /ɪnfərəˈred/ adj. infrared light produces heat but cannot be seen → ULTRAVIOLET infrared radiation n. [U] PHYSICS energy in the form of waves that you cannot see, which are longer than waves of light that you can see and shorter than radio waves in-fra-struc-ture /ˈɪnfə,straʃktʃə/ (Ac) n. [C] the basic systems that a country or organization needs in order to work in the right way, for example roads, COMMUNICATIONS, and banking systems: Japan's economic infrastructure in-fre-quent /ɪnˈfrikwənt/ adj. not happening often (SYN) rare: I met him on one of his infrequent visits to his parents. —infrequently adv.

in-fringe /ɪnˈfrɪndʒ/ v. [T] to do something that is against the law or someone's legal rights —infringement n. [C,U]: copyright infringement

THESAURUS disobey, break a rule/law, defy, flout, violate, contravene → DISOBEY infringe on/upon sth phr. v. to limit someone's freedom in some way: The new law infringes on our basic right to freedom of speech.

in-fu-ri-ate /ɪnˈfyʊri,eɪt/ v. [T] to make someone very angry: He really infuriates me!

THESAURUS annoy, irritate, vex, irk → ANNOY

in-fu-ri-at-ing /ɪnˈfyʊri,eɪtɪŋ/ adj. very annoying: an infuriating delay of four hours —infuriatingly adv.

in-fuse /ɪn'fyuz/ v. 1 [T] to fill someone or something with a particular feeling or quality: The coach has managed to infuse the team with new enthusiasm. 2 [I,T] to put a substance such as tea in very hot water, so that its taste passes into the water in-fu-sion /ɪn'fyuʒən/ n. 1 [C,U] the act of putting something new into something, especially a new feeling or quality: I felt an infusion of spirituality. | A cash infusion helped save the company. 2 [C] a medicine made with HERBS in hot water and usually taken as a drink in-ge-nious /ɪn'dʒɪnyəs/ adj. 1 an ingenious plan, idea, etc. works well and is the result of intelligent thinking and new ideas: an ingenious device 2 an ingenious person is very good at inventing things, thinking of new ideas, etc. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French ingénieux, from Latin ingenium “natural ability”] —ingeniously adv.

in-ge-nu-i-ty /ɪndʒə'nuəti/ n. [U] skill at inventing things, thinking of new ideas, etc.

in-gen-u-ous /ɪn'dʒɛnyuəs/ adj. (formal) an ingenuous person trusts people too much and is honest, especially because they do not have experience in how badly people can behave (ANT) disingenuous —ingenuously adv. —ingenuousness n. [U]

in-gest /ɪn'dʒɛst/ v. [T] (formal) to eat something —ingestion /ɪn'dʒɛstʃən/ n. [U]

THESAURUS eat, devour, gobble something up, wolf something down, nibble (on) → EAT

in-grained /ɪn'greɪnd, 'ɪngreɪnd/ adj. ingrained attitudes or behavior are firmly established and difficult to change: A sense of duty is deeply ingrained in most people.

in-gra-ti-ate /ɪn'greɪfi,eɪt/ v. ingratiate yourself (with sb) (disapproving) to try to get someone's approval by doing things to please him/her, expressing admiration, etc., especially in a way that does not seem sincere: Politicians try to ingratiate themselves with the voters. —ingratiating adj. —ingratiatingly adv.

in-grat-i-tude /ɪn'grætə,tud/ n. [U] the quality of not being grateful for something in-gre-di-ent /ɪn'grɪdiənt/ n. [C] 1 one of the things that goes into a mixture from which a type of food is made: Combine all the ingredients in a large bowl. | Flour, water, and eggs are the main ingredients. 2 a quality that helps to achieve something: Jack seems to have all the ingredients to succeed in business. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, present participle of ingredi, from in “in” + gradi “to go”] in-hab-it /ɪn'hæbɪt/ v. [T] to live in a particular place: The forest is inhabited by bears and moose.

in-hab-it-ant /ɪn'hæbətənt/ n. [C] one of the people who live in a particular place: the inhabitants of large cities in-hale /ɪn'heɪl/ v. [I,T] to breathe in air, smoke, or gas: Try not to inhale the fumes from the glue. —inhalation /ɪnhə'leɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

THESAURUS breathe, take a breath, exhale, pant, wheeze → BREATHE in-hal-er /ɪn'heɪlə/ n. [C] a plastic tube containing medicine that someone, especially someone with ASTHMA, inhales in order to make his/her breathing easier in-her-ent /ɪn'hɪrənt, -'hɛr-/ (AC) adj. a quality that is inherent in something is a natural part of it and cannot be separated from it: The problem is inherent in the system. —inherently adv.

inherent 'powers n. [plural] POLITICS powers given to the U.S. government that are not clearly stated in the CONSTITUTION, but which are accepted as necessary in order for the United States to be a completely independent country in-her-it /ɪn'hɛrɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to receive something from someone after s/he has died: I inherited the house from my uncle. 2 [T] to get a quality, type of behavior, appearance, etc. from one of your parents: Suzy inherited her mother's good looks.

in-her-i-tance /ɪn'hɛrɪtəns/ n. [C,U] money, property, etc. that you receive from someone after s/he has died in-hib-it /ɪn'hɪbɪt/ (AC) v. [T] 1 to prevent something from growing or developing in the usual or expected way: The new treatments inhibit the spread of the disease. 2 to make someone feel embarrassed or less confident, so s/he cannot do or say what s/he wants to: Fear of criticism may inhibit a child's curiosity. 3 to make it more difficult or impossible for someone to do something: The goal is to inhibit the virus from invading healthy cells. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of inhibere “to prevent,” from habere “to have”] in-hib-it-ed /ɪn'hɪbɪtɪd/ (AC) adj. not confident or relaxed enough to express how you really feel or do what you really want to do (ANT) uninhibited: She wanted to dance with him, but felt too inhibited to tell him.

in-hi-bi-tion /ɪnhɪ'bɪʃən, ɪnə-/ (AC) n. [C,U] 1 a feeling of worry or embarrassment that stops you from expressing how you really feel or doing what you really want to do: She seems to lose her inhibitions (=stops feeling worried or embarrassed) after a few drinks. 2 the process of preventing something from working, growing, or developing in the usual or expected way: Alcohol causes the inhibition of certain neurons in the brain, preventing them from communicating with other neurons.

in-hos-pi-ta-ble /ɪnhə'spɪtəbəl, ɪn'həspɪ-/ adj. (formal) 1 not friendly, welcoming, or generous to visitors 2 difficult to live or stay in because of severe weather conditions or lack of shelter: an inhospitable climate —inhospitably adv.

in-'house adj., adv. within a company or organization rather than outside it: an in-house training department in-hu-man /ɪnˈhjuːmən/ adj. 1 very cruel and without any normal feelings of pity: inhuman treatment 2 lacking any human qualities in a way that seems strange or frightening: an inhuman scream in-hu-mane /ɪnhyuˈmeɪn/ adj. treating people or animals in a cruel and unacceptable way: inhuman living conditions —inhumanely adv. —inhumanity /ɪnhyuˈmænəti/ n. [U] in-im-i-cal /ɪˈnɪmɪkəl/ adj. making it difficult for something to exist or happen: This type of task is inimical to creativity.

in-im-i-ta-ble /ɪˈnɪmətəbəl/ adj. too good for anyone else to copy: Jerry gave the speech in his own inimitable style.

in-iq-ui-ty /ɪˈnɪkwəti/ n. (plural iniquities) [C,U] (formal) the quality of being very unfair or evil, or an action that is very unfair or evil

i-ni-tial¹ /ɪˈnɪʃəl/ (Ac) adj. happening at the beginning (Syn) first: the initial stages of the war | My initial reaction was shock. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin initialis, from initium “beginning,” from inire “to go in”] —initially adv.: He initially refused the offer.

initial² n. [C] the first letter of a name: a suitcase with the initials S.H. on it initial³ v. [T] to write your initials on a document: Could you initial this form for me, please?

i-ni-ti-ate /ɪˈnɪʃi,et/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 (formal) to arrange for something important to start: The prison has recently initiated new security procedures. 2 to introduce someone into an organization, club, etc., usually with a special ceremony: This week, 11 students will be initiated into the school's honor society.

i-ni-ti-a-tion /ɪˈnɪʃiˈeɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] 1 the process of introducing someone into an organization or club, or a young person into adult life: an initiation ceremony 2 the act of arranging for something important to start: the initiation of legal proceedings

i-ni-tia-tive /ɪˈnɪʃətiʋ/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] the ability to make decisions and take action without waiting for someone to tell you what to do: I wish he would show more initiative. | Try using your own initiative (=doing something without being told what to do). 2 [C] a plan or process that has been started in order to achieve a particular aim or to solve a particular problem: The state has several initiatives to reduce spending. 3 take the initiative to be the first one to take action to achieve a particular aim or solve a particular problem 4 [C] POLITICS a process by which citizens can suggest a change in a law by signing a form asking for the change to be voted on: an effort to get the initiative on the ballot in-ject /ɪnˈdʒekt/ v. [T] 1 to put a liquid, especially a drug, into your body by using a special needle: His shoulder was injected with a painkiller. 2 to improve something by adding an important thing or quality to it: Her remarks injected some humor into the situation. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, past participle of inicare, from jacere “to throw”] in-jec-tion

/ɪnˈdʒekʃən/

n. 1 [C,U] an act of putting a liquid, especially a drug, into your body by using a special needle (Syn) shot: The nurse gave me an injection of painkillers. 2 [C] an addition of an important thing or quality to something in order to improve it: The business received a cash injection of $20,000.

in-junc-tion /ɪnˈdʒʌŋkʃən/ n. [C] LAW an official order given by a court, that stops someone from being allowed to do something in-jure /ɪndʒə/ (Ac) v. [T] to hurt a person or animal: She was seriously/badly injured in the accident. | Frank has injured his knee again.

THESAURUS hurt, wound, maim, break, bruise, sprain, twist, strain, pull, dislocate → HURT¹

in-jured /ɪndʒəd/ (Ac) adj. 1 hurt or wounded: his injured leg | injured civilians 2 the injured people who are hurt or wounded: Doctors treated the injured.

in-ju-ry /ɪndʒəri/ (Ac) n. (plural injuries) [C,U] physical harm or damage that is caused by an accident or attack, or a particular example of this: a knee/back/head injury | serious/severe injuries to the head and neck | Luckily, she suffered only minor injuries.

THESAURUS

wound – an injury, especially a deep cut made in your skin by a knife or bullet: He needed emergency treatment for a gunshot wound.
bruise/contusion (formal) – a black or blue mark on your skin that you get when you fall or get hit: There was a dark bruise on her cheek.
cut – the small wound you get if a sharp object cuts your skin: a cut on her finger laceration (formal) – a bad cut or tear on the skin: She suffered facial lacerations in the attack.
scrape – a mark or slight injury caused by rubbing your skin against a rough surface: His legs were covered in scrapes and bruises.
sprain – an injury to a joint in your body, caused by suddenly twisting it: a slight ankle sprain bump – an area of skin that is swollen because you have hit it on something: a bump on his forehead fracture – a crack or broken part in a bone: X-rays revealed a small fracture.

in-jus-tice /ɪnˈdʒʌstɪs/ n. [C,U] a situation in which people are treated very unfairly: Our country has a history of injustices against black people.

ink /ɪŋk/ n. [U] a colored liquid used for writing, printing, etc.

ink-ling /'ɪŋklɪŋ/ n. [singular] a slight idea about something: We had no inkling that he was leaving.

in-laid /'ɪnləɪd, ɪn'leɪd/ adj. having a thin layer of a material set into the surface for decoration: a wooden box inlaid with gold in-land¹ /'ɪnlənd/ adj. an inland area, city, etc. is not near the coast in-land² /ɪn'lænd, 'ɪnlænd, -lənd/ adv. in a direction away from the coast and toward the center of a country inland 'sea n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a sea that is completely surrounded by land

'in-laws n. [plural] your relatives by marriage, especially the mother and father of your husband or wife: We're spending Christmas with my in-laws.

in-lay /'ɪnleɪ/ n. [C,U] a material that has been set into the surface of another material as a decoration, or the pattern made by this in-let /'ɪnlet, 'ɪnlət/ n. [C] 1 a narrow area of water reaching from the ocean or a lake into the land, or between islands 2 the part of a machine through which liquid or gas flows in

in-line 'skate n. [C] a special boot with a single row of wheels fastened under it (SYN) Rollerblade → ROLLERSKATE in-mate /'ɪnmert/ n. [C] someone who is kept in a prison or in a hospital for people with mental illnesses inn /ɪn/ n. [C] a small hotel, especially one that is not in a city

THESAURUS hotel, motel, bed and breakfast (b&b), hostel → HOTEL in-nards /'ɪnədz/ n. [plural] (informal) the parts inside your body, especially your stomach in-nate /ɪ'nert/ adj. 1 an innate quality has been part of your character since you were born: an innate sense of fun 2 innate behavior BIOLOGY the things that an animal or person does naturally from the time that they are first born, without having to learn to behave in this way —innately adv.

in-ner /'ɪnə/ adj. [only before noun] 1 on the inside or close to the center of something (ANT) outer: the inner ear 2 inner feelings, thoughts, meanings, etc. are secret and not expressed 3 inner circle the few people in an organization, political party, etc. who control it or share power with its leader inner 'city n. [C] the part of a city that is near the middle, especially the part where the buildings are in a bad condition and the people are poor —inner city adj.: an inner city school inner 'ear n. [C] BIOLOGY the part of your ear inside your head that you use for hearing and balance in-ner-most /'ɪnə,məʊst/ adj. 1 your innermost feelings, desires, etc. are the ones you feel most strongly and keep private (ANT) outermost

THESAURUS private, secret, personal, intimate → PRIVATE¹

2 (formal) farthest inside

'inner tube n. [C] the rubber tube that is filled with air inside a tire in-ning /'ɪnɪŋ/ n. [C] one of the nine playing periods in a game of baseball inn-keep-er /'ɪn,kɪpə/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) someone who owns or manages an INN in-no-cence /'ɪnəsəns/ n. [U] 1 the fact of not being guilty of a crime (ANT) guilt: How did they prove her innocence? 2 the state of not having much experience of life, especially experience of bad or complicated things: a child's innocence

in-no-cent /'ɪnəsənt/ adj. 1 not guilty of a crime (ANT) guilty: Nobody would believe that I was innocent. | He was found innocent of murder by the jury (=they decided he was innocent). 2 innocent victims/bystanders/people etc. people who get hurt or killed in a war or as a result of a crime, though they are not involved in it 3 not having much experience of life, especially so that you are easily deceived: I was 13 years old and very innocent. 4 done or said without intending to harm or offend anyone: It was a perfectly innocent question. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French, Latin, from in “not” + nocens “evil,” present participle of nocere “to harm”] —innocently adv.

in-noc-u-ous /ɪ'nəkyuəs/ adj. not offensive, dangerous, or harmful: an innocuous but boring movie —innocuously adv.

in-no-vate /'ɪnə,vet/ (Ac) v. [I] to think of and begin to use new ideas, methods, or inventions: Firms have to innovate to earn higher profits. —innovator /'ɪnə,vetə/ n. [C]: Parker was one of the great jazz innovators.

in-no-va-tion /ɪ'nə'veɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] a new idea, method, or invention, or the introduction and use of a new idea, method, etc.: innovations in design | Too many regulations can discourage innovation.

in-no-va-tive /'ɪnə,vetɪv/ (Ac) adj. using new ideas, methods, or inventions: an innovative approach to language teaching in-nu-en-do /ɪ'nyu'endou/ n. (plural innuendoes or innuendos) [C,U] a remark that suggests something sexual or unpleasant without saying it directly, or remarks like this in general: He made some nasty innuendos about Laurie and the boss. | His writing is full of sexual innuendoes.

in-nu-mer-a-ble /ɪ'numərəbəl/ adj. (formal) very many THESAURUS many, plenty, numerous, countless, myriad → MANY in-oc-u-late /ɪˈnɒkyəˌleɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to protect someone against a disease by introducing a weak form of it into his/her body [SYN] immunize, vaccinate: Children should be inoculated against measles. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of inoculare “to attach a bud to a plant,” from oculus “eye, bud”] —inoculation /ɪˈnɒkyəˌleɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

in-of-fen-sive /ɪˈnɒfənsɪv/ adj. unlikely to offend anyone: a quiet, inoffensive man in-op-er-a-ble /ɪnˈɒpərəbəl/ adj. 1 something that is inoperable is not working and cannot be used [ANT] operable: The airport is closed and will remain inoperable until Labor Day. 2 an inoperable illness or condition cannot be treated by a medical operation [ANT] operable: an inoperable brain tumor in-op-por-tune /ɪnˈɒpəˈtʃun, ɪnə-/ adj. (formal) not appropriate or not good for a particular situation: They arrived at an inopportune moment.

in-or-di-nate /ɪnˈɔːdn-ɪt/ adj. (formal) much greater than is reasonable: an inordinate amount of work —inordinately adv.

in-or-gan-ic /ɪˈnɔːɡænik/ adj. CHEMISTRY not consisting of anything that is living: inorganic matter —inorganically adv.

inorganic 'chemistry n. [U] CHEMISTRY the science and study of substances that do not contain HYDROCARBONS. Usually, inorganic chemistry deals with substances that are not related to life processes. → ORGANIC CHEMISTRY in-pa-tient /ɪnˈpeɪʃənt/ n. [C] someone who stays and sleeps in a hospital while s/he is getting medical treatment → OUTPATIENT in-put /ɪnˈpuːt/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] ideas, advice, money, or effort that you put into a job or activity in order to help it succeed: I'd like to get your input on a few issues. | I'd like input from each of our employees. 2 [U] IT information that is put into a computer [ANT] output 3 [C,U] electrical power that is put into a machine for it to use input² [Ac] v. (past tense and past participle input or inputted, present participle inputting) [T] IT to put information into a computer: The user inputs the data, and the computer stores it in its memory.

in-quest /ɪnˈkwɛst/ n. [C] LAW an official process to find out the cause of a sudden or unexpected death, especially if there is a possibility that the death is the result of a crime in-quire /ɪnˈkwɪər/ v. [I,T] (formal) to ask someone for information: I am writing to inquire about your advertisement in the New York Post. | She called to inquire whether her application had been received. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French enquerre, from Latin inquirere, from quaerere “to look for”] —inquirer n. [C]

THESAURUS ask, question, interrogate → ASK inquire into sth phr. v. to ask questions in order to get more information about something or to find out why something happened: The investigation will inquire into the reasons for the disaster.

in-quir-ing /ɪnˈkwɪərɪŋ/ adj. wanting to find out more about something: Dad taught us to have inquiring minds. —inquiringly adv.

in-quir-y /ɪnˈkwɪəri, ɪnkwəri/ n. (plural inquiries) [C] 1 a question you ask in order to get information: We're getting a lot of inquiries about our new train service. 2 the official process of finding out why something happened, especially something bad in-qui-si-tion /ɪnkwəˈzɪʃən/ n. [singular] (formal) a series of questions that someone asks you in a way that seems threatening or not nice in-quis-i-tive /ɪnˈkwɪzətɪv/ adj. interested in a lot of different things and wanting to find out more about them: a very inquisitive little boy in-quis-i-tor /ɪnˈkwɪzətər/ n. [C] someone who asks you a lot of difficult questions and makes you feel very uncomfortable —inquisitorial /ɪnkwɪzətəriəl/ adj. —inquisitorially adv.

in-roads /ɪnˈrəʊdz/ n. make inroads into/on sth to become more and more successful, powerful, or popular and so take away power, trade, votes, etc. from a competitor or enemy: Their new soft drink is already making huge inroads into the market.

INS n. the INS the Immigration and Naturalization Service the U.S. government department that deals with people who come to live in the U.S. from other countries ins and 'outs n. the ins and outs of sth all the exact details of a complicated situation, system, problem, etc.: I'm still learning the ins and outs of my new job.

in-sane /ɪnˈseɪn/ adj. 1 (informal) completely stupid or crazy, often in a way that is dangerous: You must've been totally insane to go with him! | an insane idea 2 someone who is insane is permanently and seriously mentally ill

THESAURUS crazy, mentally ill, disturbed, nuts, loony, demented, psychotic, unstable → CRAZY

—insanely adv.

in-san-i-ty /ɪnˈsænti/ n. [U] 1 very stupid actions that may cause you serious harm 2 the state of being seriously mentally ill: A jury found him not guilty by reason of insanity.

in-sa-tia-ble /ɪnˈseɪʃəbəl/ adj. always wanting more and more of something: an insatiable appetite in·scribe /ɪnˈskraɪb/ v. [T] 1 to cut, print, or write words on something, especially on the surface of a stone or coin: a tree inscribed with the initials J.S. → WRITE 2 be inscribed in something a) MATH if a circle is inscribed in another shape, the circle is inside the shape and each of the sides of the shape share one point with the circle b) MATH if a shape is inscribed in a circle, it is inside the circle and its angles are points on the circle —inscription /ɪnˈskɪpʃən/ n. [C] inscribed 'angle n. [C] MATH an angle formed inside a circle when two lines meet at a point on the edge of the circle in·scru·ta·ble /ɪnˈskruːəbəl/ adj. (formal) someone who is inscrutable shows no reaction or emotion on his/her face so it is impossible to know what s/he is thinking or feeling: an inscrutable smile —inscrutably adv.

in·sect /ˈɪnsɛkt/ n. [C] a small creature such as an ant or a fly, with six legs and a body divided into three parts in·sec·ti·cide /ɪnˈsektəˌsaɪd/ n. [C,U] a chemical substance used for killing insects in·sec·ti·vore /ɪnˈsektəˌvɔːr/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a creature that eats insects —insectivorous /ˌɪnsɛkˈtɪvərəs/ adj.

in·se·cure /ˌɪnsɪˈkyʊər/ (Ac) adj. 1 not feeling confident about yourself, your abilities, your relationships, etc. (ANT) confident: Jane is insecure about her looks. | Children often behave badly when they feel insecure.

THESAURUS

unsure of yourself – not very confident about yourself: She's nervous and unsure of herself.
lack confidence – also be lacking in confidence – to not believe that you have the ability to do something well: He is actually a pretty good player, but he lacks confidence.

2 not safe or not protected: She feels that her position in the company is insecure (=she may lose her job). | an insecure computer network —insecurity n. [U] —insecurely adv.

in·sem·i·na·tion /ɪnˌseməˈneɪʃən/ n. [U] the act of putting SPERM into a female's body in order to make her have a baby: The cows are made pregnant by artificial insemination (=using medical treatment, not sex).

in·sen·si·tive /ɪnˈsensətɪv/ adj. 1 not noticing other people's feelings, and not realizing that something that you do will upset them: insensitive remarks | She's totally insensitive to my feelings. 2 not affected by physical effects or changes —insensitively adv. —insensitivity /ɪnˌsensəˈtɪvəti/ n. [U]

in·sep·a·ra·ble /ɪnˈsepərəbəl/ adj. 1 people who are inseparable are always together and are very friendly with each other: When they were younger, the boys were inseparable. 2 unable to be separated, or not able to be considered separately: The patient's mental and physical problems are inseparable. —inseparably adv.

in·sert¹ /ɪnˈsɜːt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to put something inside or into something else: Insert the key in/into the lock. 2 to add something to something that already exists, especially a piece of writing: The program will insert addresses in standard letters. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of inserere, from serere “to join”] —insertion /ɪnˈsɜːʃən/ n. [C,U]: the insertion of a needle into a vein to withdraw blood in·sert² /ɪnˈsɜːt/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 something that is designed to be put inside something else: Put special inserts in your shoes to protect your heels. 2 printed pages that are put inside a newspaper or magazine in order to advertise something in·side¹ /ɪnˈsaɪd, ˈɪnsaɪd/ adv., prep. 1 in or into a container, room, building, etc. (ANT) outside: He opened the box to find two kittens inside. | Go inside and get your jacket. 2 if you have a feeling or thought inside you, you feel or think it but do not always express it: You never know what's happening inside his head. | Don't keep the anger inside. 3 used in order to emphasize that what is happening in a country or organization is known about there, but not outside it: Sources inside the company confirmed that there will be more layoffs. 4 in less time than: We'll be there inside of an hour.

inside² n. [C] 1 the inside the inner part of something (ANT) outside: The inside of the house was nicer than the outside. | The door had been locked from the inside. 2 inside out with the usual outside part on the inside: Your shirt is on inside out. 3 know/learn sth inside out to know everything about a subject: She knows the business inside out.

inside³ adj. 1 on or facing the inside of something: the inside pages of a magazine 2 inside information/the inside story information that is known only by people who are part of an organization, company, etc.

in-sid-er /ɪn'saɪdər/ n. [C] someone who has special knowledge of a particular organization because s/he is part of it in-sid-i-ous /ɪn'sɪdiəs/ adj. happening gradually without being noticed, but causing great harm: Breathing polluted air can have insidious effects on your health. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin insidiosus, from insidiae “attack from a hiding-place”] —insidiously adv.

in-sight /ɪn'saɪt/ (Ac) n. [C,U] a useful understanding of something that you did not have before, or the ability to understand something clearly: The article gives us a real insight into Chinese culture. | We gained valuable insight about our relationship.

in-sig-ni-a /ɪn'sɪɡniə/ n. (plural insignia or insignias) [C] a BADGE or other object that shows what official or military rank someone has, or which group or organization s/he belongs to

in-sig-nif-i-cant

/ɪn'sɪɡnɪfəkənt/ (Ac) adj. too small or unimportant to consider or worry about: an insignificant change in the unemployment rate —insignificantly adv. —insignificance n. [U]

in-sin-cere /ɪn'sɪn'sɪr/ adj. pretending to be pleased, sympathetic, etc., but not really meaning what you say: an insincere smile —insincerely adv. —insincerity /ɪn'sɪn'serəti/ n. [U]

in-sin-u-ate /ɪn'sɪnyu,eɪt/ v. [T] to say something that seems to mean something unpleasant, without saying it directly: Are you insinuating that she didn't deserve the promotion? —insinuation /ɪn'sɪnyu'eɪʃən/ n. [C,U] in-sip-id /ɪn'sɪpɪd/ adj. (disapproving) not interesting, exciting, or attractive: the movie's insipid story —insipidly adv.

THESAURUS boring, dull, tedious, not (very/that/all that) interesting → BORING

in-sist /ɪn'sɪst/ v. [I] 1 to say firmly and again and again that something is true, especially when other people think it may not be true: The boys insisted that they were innocent. 2 to demand that something happen: I insisted that he leave. | They're insisting on your resignation. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin insistere “to stand on, continue with determination,” from sistere “to stand”] in-sist-ence /ɪn'sɪstəns/ n. [U] the act of insisting that something should happen: He came, but only at my insistence.

in-sist-ent /ɪn'sɪstənt/ adj. insisting that something should happen: She's very insistent that we should all be on time. —insistently adv.

in so far as, insofar as /ɪnsoʊ'fɑr əz/ conjunction (formal) to the degree that something affects another thing: Insofar as sales are concerned, the company is doing very well.

in-so-lent /ɪn'sələnt/ adj. (formal) rude and not showing any respect: She gave me a cold, insolent look. —insolence n. [U] —insolently adv.

THESAURUS rude, impolite, insulting, offensive, disrespectful, impertinent, impudent → RUDE in-sol-u-ble /ɪn'sɒlyəbəl/ adj. 1 CHEMISTRY an insoluble substance does not DISSOLVE when you put it into a liquid 2 also insolvable impossible to explain or solve: a seemingly insoluble problem in-sol-vent /ɪn'sɒlvənt/ adj. (formal) not having enough money to pay what you owe —insolvency n. [U]

in-som-ni-a /ɪn'səmniə/ n. [U] the condition of not being able to sleep —insomniac /ɪn'səmni,æk/ n. [C]

in-spect /ɪn'spekt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to examine something carefully: She bent down to inspect the plant more closely. | The animals are inspected for quality.

THESAURUS examine, go through/go over, scrutinize → EXAMINE

2 to make an official visit to a building, organization, etc. to check that everything is satisfactory and that rules are being obeyed: Nursing homes must be inspected once a year. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin, past participle of inspicere, from specere “to look”]

in-spec-tion /ɪn'spekʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] the act of carefully checking a place, thing, or organization in order to be sure that it is in good condition or that rules are being obeyed: The ship had recently passed a safety inspection. | a close inspection of the soldiers' living areas in-spec-tor /ɪn'spektər/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 an official whose job is to inspect something: a health inspector 2 a police officer of middle rank in-spi-ra-tion /ɪnspə'reɪʃən/ n. [C,U] something or someone that encourages you to do or produce something good: Dante was the inspiration for my book on Italy. | Her hard work and imagination should be an inspiration to everyone. → IDEA —inspirational adj.: an inspirational speech in-spire /ɪn'spaɪər/ v. [T] 1 to encourage someone to do or produce something good: The church is trying to inspire more young men to become priests. 2 to make someone have a particular feeling: The captain inspires confidence in his men. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French inspirer, from

Latin, from spirare “to breathe”] —inspiring adj.: a powerful, inspiring story in-spired /ɪnˈspaɪəd/ adj. having very exciting special qualities: an inspired leader in-sta-bil-i-ty /ˌɪnstəˈbɪləti/ (Ac) n. [U] the state of being uncertain and likely to change suddenly → UNSTABLE: political instability in the region in-stall /ɪnˈstɔːl/ v. [T] 1 to put a piece of equipment somewhere and connect it so that it is ready to be used: Many residents have installed new burglar alarms. 2 IT to copy computer software onto a computer so that the software is ready to be used 3 to put someone in an important job or position, especially with a ceremony: She will be installed as president of the college next week. —installation /ˌɪnstəˈleɪʃən/ n. [C,U] install'lation, art n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS modern art that can include objects, light, sound, etc., not just painting or SCULPTURE, or a particular example of this type of art in-stall-ment /ɪnˈstɔːlmənt/ n. [C] 1 one of a series of regular payments that you make until you have paid all the money you owe: You can pay for the computer in twelve monthly installments. 2 one of the parts of a story that appears as a series in a magazine, newspaper, etc.

in-stance /ˈɪnstəns/ (Ac) n. 1 for instance for example: There are some promising signs. For instance, high-school students' test scores have risen. 2 [C] an example of a particular fact, event, etc. (Syn) case: We are examining reports on instances of police brutality.

in-stant /ˈɪnstənt/ adj. 1 happening or produced immediately: The movie was an instant success. 2 [only before noun] instant food, coffee, etc. is in the form of powder and is made ready to eat or drink by adding liquid to it instant² n. 1 [C usually singular] a moment in time: I didn't believe her for an instant. 2 this instant (spoken) now, without delay (Syn) immediately: Come here this instant!

in-stan-ta-ne-ous /ˌɪnstənˈteɪniəs/ adj. happening immediately: an instantaneous reaction to the drug —instantaneously adv.

in-stant-ly /ˈɪnstəntli/ adv. immediately: He was killed instantly.

THESAURUS immediately, right away, at once → IMMEDIATELY instant 'replay n. [C] the immediate repeating of an important moment in a sports game on television by showing the film or VIDEOTAPE again in-stead /ɪnˈsted/ adv. 1 instead of sb/sth in place of someone or something: Can I have chicken instead of beef? | You should do something instead of just sitting around all day. 2 in place of someone or something that has just been mentioned: I can't go, but Lilly could go instead.

in-step /ˈɪnstɛp/ n. [C usually singular] the raised part of your foot between your toes and your ANKLE, or the part of a shoe that covers this part of your foot in-sti-gate /ˈɪnstəˌgeɪt/ v. [T] to make something start to happen, especially something that will cause trouble: Gang leaders were accused of instigating the riot. —instigator n. [C] —instigation /ˌɪnstəˈgeɪʃən/ n. [U] in-still /ɪnˈstɪl/ v. [T] to teach someone a way of thinking or behaving over a long time: Bonilla says he tries to instill hope in his students.

in-stinct /ˈɪnstɪŋkt/ n. [C,U] a natural tendency or ability to behave or react in a particular way, without having to learn it or think about it: a lion's instinct to hunt | People have a natural instinct for survival. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin instinctus, from instinguere “to make someone wish to do something”] in-stinc-tive /ɪnˈstɪŋktɪv/ adj. based on instinct: an instinctive reaction —instinctively adv.

in-sti-tute¹ /ˈɪnstəˌtut/ (Ac) n. [C] an organization that has a particular purpose, such as scientific or educational work: Walt Disney gave money to help found the California Institute of the Arts. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin, past participle of instituere, from statuere “to set up”]

THESAURUS organization, institution, association → ORGANIZATION

institute² v. [T] (formal) to introduce or start a system, rule, legal process, etc.: The school has instituted changes in the lunch menu.

in-sti-tu-tion /ˌɪnstəˈtuʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] a large organization that has a particular purpose, such as scientific, educational, or medical work: financial/religious/educational, etc. institutions

THESAURUS organization, institute, association → ORGANIZATION

2 a place where people go to live when they need to be taken care of: He was sent to a mental institution. 3 [C] an established system or tradition in society: The Civil War brought an end to the institution of slavery. 4 [U] the act of introducing or starting a system, rule, legal process, etc.: the institution of a new law —institutional adj. → MENTAL INSTITUTION in-sti-tu-tion-al-ize /ˌɪnstəˈtuʃənəˌlaɪz/ v. [T] to send someone to live in a mental hospital, a special home for old people, etc.

in-sti-tu-tion-al-ized /ˌɪnstəˈtuʃənəˌlaɪzd/ (Ac) adj. institutionalized violence/racism/corruption violence, etc. that has happened for so long in an organization or society that it has become accepted as normal in-struct /ɪnˈstrʌkt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to officially tell someone what to do: The teacher instructed them to open their test sheets and begin. 2 to teach someone or show him/her how to do something:

Diane instructs senior citizens in basic computer skills.

in·struc·tion /ɪn'strʌkʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 in·struc·tions [plural] information or advice that tells you how to do something, how to use a piece of equipment or machine, etc. (Syn) directions: Follow the instructions at the top of the paper. | Did you read the instructions first? | He gave us instructions on/about how to fix the toilet. | Inside, you'll find instructions for setting up your computer. | He gave instructions to keep the ball on the ground, not to kick it high. 2 [U] teaching in a particular skill or subject: She's never had any formal instruction (=lessons or classes) in music. —instructional adj.

in·struc·tive /ɪn'strʌktɪv/ (Ac) adj. (formal) giving useful information: an instructive story in·struc·tor /ɪn'strʌktər/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 someone who teaches a particular subject, sport, skill, etc.: a swimming instructor

THESAURUS teacher, professor, lecturer, coach → TEACHER

2 someone who teaches at a college or university and has a rank below that of PROFESSOR in·stru·ment /ɪn'strʌmənt/ n. [C] 1 an object such as a piano, TRUMPET, VIOLIN, etc., used for producing musical sounds: Can you play any musical instruments? 2 a tool used in work such as science or medicine: medical instruments in·stru·men·tal /ɪn'strʌməntl/ adj. 1 be instrumental in (doing) sth to be important in making something happen: Helen has been instrumental in organizing the festival. 2 instrumental music is for instruments, not voices in·sub·or·di·na·tion /ɪn'sʌb,ɔːdn'eɪʃən/ n. [U] (formal) refusal to obey someone who has a higher rank in·sub·stan·tial /ɪn'sʌb'stænʃəl/ adj. not solid, large, strong, or not enough: The evidence against him was insubstantial.

in·suf·fi·cient /ɪn'sʌfɪʃənt/ (Ac) adj. not enough: insufficient supplies of food | His wages were insufficient to support his family. —insufficiently adv. —insufficiency n. [singular, U]

in·su·lar /ɪn'sʌlə, 'ɪnsyə-/ adj. (formal, disapproving) not interested in anything except your own group, country, way of life, etc. —insularity /ɪn'sʌ'lærəti/ n. [U]

in·su·late /ɪn'sʌ,leɪt/ v. [T] 1 to cover or protect something so that electricity, sound, heat, etc. cannot get in or out: Insulate your garage to make it into a year-round workshop. 2 to protect someone from bad experiences or unwanted influences: College students are somewhat insulated from the hardships of real life.

in·su·la·tion /ɪn'sʌ'leɪʃən/ n. [U] the material used in order to insulate something, especially a building: Insulation can save money on heating bills.

in·su·lin /ɪn'sʌlən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a substance produced naturally by your body that allows sugar to be used for energy in·sult /ɪn'sʌlt/ v. [T] to say or do something that offends someone, by showing that you do not respect him/her: She didn't want to insult her hosts by leaving too early. | John would be insulted if we didn't go. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French insulter, from Latin insultare “to jump on, insult”] —insulting adj.

in·sult /ɪn'sʌlt/ n. [C] a rude or offensive remark or action: Both groups screamed and shouted insults at each other. | The plan is an insult to teachers. → add insult to injury at ADD

in·sur·ance /ɪn'ʃʊərəns/ n. [U] 1 an arrangement with a company in which you pay it money regularly and the company pays the costs if anything bad happens to you or your property, such as an illness or an accident: Do you have insurance on/for your car? | The club took out insurance for all its members. | an insurance policy | life/health/auto insurance companies | It's a good idea to buy travel insurance. 2 protection against something bad that might happen: We bought an alarm as insurance against burglary.

in·sure /ɪn'ʃʊər/ v. [T] 1 to buy or provide insurance: Is your house insured against flooding? | This painting is insured for $5,000. 2 to make something certain to happen: The board will insure that all schools have adequate funds.

in·sur·gent /ɪn'sədʒənt/ n. [C] one of a group of people fighting against the government of their own country —insurgency n. [U] —insurgent adj.

in·sur·mount·a·ble /ɪn'sə'maʊntəbəl/ adj. (formal) a difficulty or problem that is insurmountable is too large or too difficult to deal with in·sur·rec·tion /ɪn'sʌ'rekʃən/ n. [C,U] an attempt by a group of people within a country to take control using force and violence: The armed insurrection was led by the army.

THESAURUS revolution, rebellion, revolt, insurgency, coup → REVOLUTION

in·tact /ɪn'tækt/ adj. [not before noun] not broken, damaged, or spoiled: Almost nothing was left intact by the storm. | The team's management system will remain intact.

in·take /ɪn'teɪk/ n. [singular] the amount of food, FUEL, etc. that is taken in by someone or something: I've been told to lower my intake of fat and alcohol.

in·tan·gi·ble /ɪn'tændʒəbəl/ adj. an intangible quality or feeling cannot be clearly felt or described, although you know it exists —intangibly adv.

in·te·ger /ɪn'tɛdʒər/ n. [C] MATH a number that is positive, negative, or zero, such as 3, -2, or 0 in-te-gral /'ɪntəgrəl, ɪn'teɡrəl/ (Ac) adj. forming a necessary part of something: an integral part of the contract | In this musical, the songs are integral to the story.

in-te-grate /'ɪntəɡreɪt/ (Ac) v. 1 [I,T] to join in the life and traditions of a group or society, or to help someone do this: It will take time for new members to integrate into the group. 2 [T] to combine two or more things in order to make an effective system: This software integrates moving pictures with sound. 3 [I,T] to end the practice of separating people of different races in a place or institution (Syn) desegregate (Ant) segregate: The Supreme Court decided that public schools should be integrated. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, past participle of integrare, from integer “whole, complete”] in-te-grat-ed /'ɪntəɡreɪtɪd/ (Ac) adj. combining many different groups, ideas, or parts in a way that works well: an integrated world economy | integrated schools in-te-gra-tion /,ɪntə'ɡreɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 the combining of two or more things so that they work together effectively: economic integration 2 the process of getting people of different races to live or work together instead of separately: In 1963, Governor Wallace stood in the door to prevent the integration of the University of Alabama. 3 the process by which people join in with a group or society and become members of it: The book examines the integration of Jewish people into American life.

in-teg-ri-ty /ɪn'teɡrəti/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 the quality of being honest and having high moral principles: a man of integrity 2 (formal) the state of being united as one complete thing: the building's structural integrity in-tel-lect /'ɪntəl,ekt/ n. [C,U] the ability to understand things and think intelligently: an artist of great intellect in-tel-lec-tu-al /,ɪntəl'ektʃuəl/ adj. 1 concerning the ability to think and understand ideas and information: the intellectual development of children 2 an intellectual person is well-educated and interested in complicated ideas and subjects such as science, literature, etc.

THESAURUS intelligent, smart, bright, brilliant → INTELLIGENT

—intellectually adv.

intellectual ² n. [C] someone who is well-educated and interested in complicated ideas and subjects such as science, literature, etc.

in-tel-li-gence /ɪn'telədʒəns/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 the ability to learn, understand, and think about things: a child of average intelligence 2 information about the secret activities of other governments, or the group of people who gather this: intelligence on troop movements in-tel-li-gent /ɪn'telədʒənt/ (Ac) adj. having a high level of ability to learn, understand, and think about things (Syn) smart (Ant) stupid: a young woman who is highly intelligent | an intelligent question [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, present participle of intelligere “to understand,” from inter- + legere “to gather, choose”] —intelligently adv.

THESAURUS

smart – intelligent: a really smart guy bright – intelligent, used especially about children and young people: a bright kid brilliant – extremely intelligent and good at the work you do: a brilliant scientist wise – having a lot of experience and knowledge about people and the world: a wise old man clever – intelligent, especially in a way that is unusual: She's clever and creative.

cunning/crafty – good at using your intelligence to trick people: a cunning criminal intellectual – having a lot of education and interested in learning about art, science, literature, etc.

gifted – a gifted child is much more intelligent than most other children apt (formal) – an apt pupil or student is able to learn or understand things quickly in-tel-li-gi-ble /ɪn'telədʒəbəl/ adj. able to be understood (Syn) clear —intelligibly adv.

in-tend /ɪn'tend/ v. 1 [T] to have something in your mind as a plan or purpose (Syn) mean: The work took longer than we intended. | Bob never intended to hurt him. 2 be intended for sb/sth to be provided or designed for someone or something: The program is intended for the families of deaf children. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French entendre “to have as a purpose,” from Latin intendere “to stretch out, have as a purpose”]

—intended adj.: the movie's intended audience

in-tense /ɪn'tens/ (Ac) adj. 1 very extreme or having a very strong effect: The department's researchers have been under intense pressure. | We weren't prepared for the intense heat. 2 making you do a lot of work, think hard, etc.: intense physical exercise 3 serious and having very strong feelings or opinions: an intense young woman

—intensely adv.

in-ten-si-fi-er /ɪn'tensə'faɪə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a word that changes the meaning of another word, phrase, or sentence, in order to make its meaning stronger or weaker in-ten-si-fy /ɪn'tensə'faɪ/ (Ac) v. (intensified, intensifies) [I,T] to increase in strength, size, or amount, etc., or to make something do this: Spices will intensify the flavor. | Global competition has continued to intensify. —intensification /ɪn'tensə'fə'keɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-ten-si-ty /ɪn'tensə'ti/ (Ac) n. [U] the quality of being felt very strongly or of having a strong effect: I was surprised by the intensity of his feelings.

in-ten-sive /ɪn'tensɪv/ (Ac) adj. involving a lot of activity, effort, or attention in order to achieve something: an intensive English course —intensively adv.

in-tensive 'care n. [U] a department in a hospital that treats people who are very seriously sick or injured: She's been in intensive care for two days.

in-tent¹ /ɪn'tent/ n. [C] 1 (formal) what you intend to do (SYN) intention: Our intent is to become the market leader. 2 for all intents and purposes almost completely, or very nearly: For all intents and purposes, their marriage was over.

intent² adj. be intent on (doing) sth to be determined to do something: Nick is intent on going to an Ivy League college.

in-ten-tion /ɪn'tenʃən/ n. [C,U] something that you plan to do: I have no intention of retiring anytime soon.

in-ten-tion-al /ɪn'tenʃənəl/ adj. done deliberately: If he did break the rules, I'm sure it was not intentional. —intentionally adv.

in-ter /ɪn'tə/ v. (interred, interring) [T] (formal) to bury a dead body in-ter-act /ɪn'tə'rækt/ (AC) v. [I] 1 to talk to other people and work together with them: The website allows visitors to interact with other users. | Dinnertime is a good time for parents and children to interact. 2 if two or more things interact, they have an effect on each other: Alcohol interacts with nerve receptors in the brain.

in-ter-ac-tion /ɪn'tə'ræktʃən/ (AC) n. [C,U] 1 the activity of talking with other people and working together with them: social interaction between teenagers 2 a process in which two or more things have an effect on each other, or an occasion when this happens: This medicine has fewer drug interactions than the other main drug used for the condition.

in-ter-ac-tive /ɪn'tə'ræktɪv/ (AC) adj. 1 IT if a computer program, game, etc. is interactive, it does things as a reaction to the actions of the person using it: an interactive software program for children 2 involving people talking and working together: interactive teaching methods in-ter-cept¹ /ɪn'tə'sept/ v. [T] to stop someone, or catch something that is going from one place to another before he, she, or it gets there: O'Neill intercepted the ball. —interception /ɪn'tə'sepʃən/ n. [C,U]

in-ter-cept² /ɪn'tə'sept/ n. [C] MATH the point at which a line crosses an AXIS on a GRAPH

in-ter-change /ɪn'tə,tʃeɪndʒ/ n. 1 [C] a place where two HIGHWAYS, FREEWAYS, or railroad tracks meet 2 [singular, U] an exchange of ideas, thoughts, etc.: a friendly interchange of ideas in-ter-change-a-ble /ɪn'tə'tʃeɪndʒəbəl/ adj. things that are interchangeable can be used instead of each other: a toy with interchangeable parts —interchangeably adv.

in-ter-com /ɪn'tə,kəm/ n. [C] a communication system by which people in different parts of a building, aircraft, etc. can speak to one another: Suddenly, the captain's voice came over the intercom.

in-ter-con-ti-nen-tal /ɪntə,kantə'nentl, -kant'nentl/ adj. happening between or going from one CONTINENT to another: an intercontinental flight in-ter-course /ɪntə,kɔrs/ n. [U] (formal) the act of having sex in-ter-de-pend-ent /ɪntədrɪ'pendənt/ adj. depending on or necessary to each other: Plants and animals form an interdependent network of life. —interdependence n. [U]

in-ter-est¹ /ɪn'trɪst/ n. 1 [singular, U] a feeling that makes you want to pay attention to something and find out more about it: Both girls share an interest in politics. | Kelly lost interest (=stopped being interested) halfway through the movie.

COLLOCATIONS

have an/no/some/little interest in sth: Many young people have no interest in politics.

show (an/no/some/little) interest in sth: Joe has never shown any interest in baseball.

express (an) interest in sth – to say that you are interested in something: The airline has expressed an interest in buying the plane.

attract/arouse (little/some) interest – to make people interested: His first film attracted interest from the big Hollywood studios.

lack interest (in sth) – to not have much interest in something: It's hard to teach students if they lack interest in the subject.

2 [C] a subject or activity that you enjoy studying or doing: a list of your hobbies and interests 3 [U] a) ECONOMICS money that you must pay for borrowing money: You will be paying 12% on the unpaid balance of the loan. | interest payments b) ECONOMICS money that a bank pays you when you keep your money there: The more money you save, the more interest it will earn. → INTEREST RATE 4 [U] a quality of something that attracts your attention and makes you want to know more about it: a tourist guide to local places of interest 5 be in sb's interest to be an advantage to someone: It would be in your interest to study the handbook carefully.

interest² v. [T] to make someone want to pay attention to something and find out more about it: I have some books that might interest you.

in-ter-est-ed /ɪn'trɪstɪd, 'ɪntə'restɪd/ adj. 1 giving a lot of attention to something because you want to find out more about it: Tim's really interested in antique cars. | I'd be interested to know what you think about it. 2 eager to do or have something: Jill is interested in studying in Europe.

'interest group n. [C] a group of people who join together to try to influence the government in order to protect their own particular rights, advantages, etc.

in·ter·est·ing /ˈɪntrɪstɪŋ, ˈɪntəˌrestɪŋ/ adj.
unusual or exciting in a way that keeps your attention: That's an interesting idea. | Amy's a very interesting person. | It's interesting that so many people choose to live in remote locations.
—interestingly adv.

THESAURUS

fascinating – very interesting: He's had a fascinating life.

intriguing – something that is intriguing is interesting because it is unusual or mysterious, and you want to find out more: That raises some intriguing questions.

absorbing/enthraling/engrossing – interesting and keeping your attention completely: The book is an absorbing read. | She has written an engrossing memoir.

compelling – very interesting or exciting: a compelling story gripping/riveting – very interesting and exciting, and keeping your attention, used about stories and movies: Money, power, and romance combine in this riveting story. → BORING

'interest period n. [C usually singular] ECONOMICS a period of time during which you are charged interest on a LOAN

'interest rate n. [C] ECONOMICS the PERCENTAGE amount that is charged by a bank, etc. on money that you borrow, or that is paid to you by a bank when you keep money in your account there: high/low interest rates | The Federal Reserve decided to cut interest rates (=make them lower).

in·ter·face /ˈɪntəˌfeɪs/ n. [C] 1 the way a computer program looks on a screen, or the way you type or put information into the program 2 the way two subjects, events, etc. affect each other: the interface between Islam and the West in·ter·fere /ˈɪntəˌfɪr/ v. [I] to deliberately get involved in a situation when you are not wanted or needed: It's better not to interfere in their arguments. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French entreferir “to hit each other,” from ferir “to hit”] interfere with sth phr. v. 1 to prevent something from succeeding or happening in the way it was planned: Don't let sports interfere with your schoolwork. 2 to spoil the sound or picture of a radio or television broadcast in·ter·fer·ence /ˈɪntəˌfɪrəns/ n. [U] 1 the act of interfering: I resented his interference in my personal life. 2 in sports, the act of blocking or touching another player when you are not supposed to do this 3 unwanted noise, a spoiled picture, etc. on the radio, telephone, or television in·ter·gov·ern·men·tal rev·e·nue /ˈɪntəˌɡʌvəˌmentəl ˈrevənʊ/ n. [U] ECONOMICS money that one level of government gets from another level for a particular purpose or for financial support in·ter·im /ˈɪntərəm/ adj. [only before noun] an interim report, payment, manager, etc. is used or accepted for a short time until a final one is made or found (SYN) temporary interim² n. in the interim in the period of time between two events: The new stadium will not be ready until November, so games will be played at the university in the interim.

in·te·ri·or¹ /ɪnˈtɪriə/ n. [C] the inner part or inside of something (ANT) exterior: a car with a brown leather interior [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French intérieur, from Latin interior] interior² adj. inside or indoor (ANT) exterior: interior lighting in·ter·ior de·sign n. [U] the job or skill of choosing and arranging furniture, colors, art, etc. for the inside of houses or buildings —interior designer n. [C] in·ter·ject /ˈɪntəˌdʒekt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to interrupt what someone is saying with a sudden remark [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of intericere, from jacere “to throw”] in·ter·jec·tion /ˈɪntəˌdʒekʃən/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a word or phrase that is used in order to express surprise, shock, pain, etc. In the sentence “Ouch! That hurt!,” “ouch” is an interjection.

in·ter·lock·ing /ˈɪntəˌlɒkɪŋ/ adj. connected firmly together: the Olympic symbol of interlocking circles —interlock v. [I,T] in·ter·loc·u·tor /ˈɪntəˌlɒkyətər/ n. [C] (formal) the person someone is speaking with in·ter·lop·er /ˈɪntəˌloʊpər/ n. [C] (formal) someone who enters a place where s/he should not be in·ter·lude /ˈɪntəˌlud/ n. [C] a period of time between activities or events: There was a brief interlude of peace before the fighting began again.

in·ter·me·di·ar·y /ˈɪntəˌmɪdiəri/ n. (plural intermediaries) [C] someone who tries to help two other people or groups to agree with one another in·ter·me·di·ate /ˈɪntəˌmɪdiət/ (AC) adj. done, existing, or happening between two other stages, levels, etc. → BEGINNING, ELEMENTARY, ADVANCED: an intermediate Spanish class | He was promoted to an intermediate-level position. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Medieval Latin intermediatus, from Latin intermedius, from medius “middle”] in·ter·mi·na·ble /ɪnˈtɜːmənəbəl/ adj. very long and boring: an interminable speech —interminably adv.

THESAURUS long, lengthy, prolonged, long-winded → LONG¹ in·ter·mis·sion /ˈɪntəˌmɪʃən/ n. [C,U] a short period of time between the parts of a play, concert, etc.: We talked for a while during the intermission. → THEATER in·ter·mit·tent /ˈɪntəˌmɪtɪnt/ adj. happening at some times, but not regularly or continuously: clouds and intermittent rain —intermittently adv.

in-tern¹ /'ɪntən/ n. [C] 1 someone, especially a student, who works for a short time in a particular job in order to gain experience → INTERNSHIP 2 someone who has almost finished training as a doctor and is working in a hospital → RESIDENT in-tern² /ɪn'tən/ v. 1 [I] to work as an intern: Pena interned at the newspaper's Austin bureau for a year. 2 [T] (formal) to put someone in prison, especially for political reasons → INTERMENT

in-ter-nal /ɪn'tənl/ (Ac) adj. 1 inside something such as your body (ANT) external: internal bleeding | internal injuries 2 within a particular company, organization, country, etc.: the company's confidential internal documents | A major internal investigation is underway. 3 inside something rather than outside (ANT) external: an internal modem [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Medieval Latin internalis, from Latin internus “inward, inside”] —internally adv.: This medicine should not be taken internally.

in,ter-nal 'energy n. [U] PHYSICS the total amount of energy in or relating to all the atoms and MOL-ECULES in an object or substance in-ter-na-lize /ɪn'tənəlaɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 if you internalize a belief, attitude, etc., it becomes part of your character: She had internalized the work ethic of her parents. 2 if you internalize emotions, you do not express them, but think about them → EXTERNALIZE: Just allowing someone to talk can release internalized fears.

In,ter-nal 'Revenue Service n. the Internal Revenue Service the IRS

in-ter-na-tion-al /,ɪntə'næʃənəl/ adj. relating to more than one country: an international agreement | international trade | an international airport —internationally adv.

in-ter-net /'ɪntənɛt/ n. the Internet IT a system of connected computers that allows computer users around the world to exchange information (SYN) the Net, the Web: I found information about the college on the Internet.

TOPIC

To use the Internet, you first have to connect to it, using a modem. Some people use a broadband connection so that they can get Internet information faster. On the Internet, you can look for information using a search engine, or you can type in the address of a website. If you spend a lot of time looking at different websites, you can say that you are surfing the net. Many people also visit chat rooms (=sites where you can have a conversation with other people) and newsgroups (=sites where people with a shared interest exchange messages), and some people write blogs (=websites that you keep adding new information to). People use email to contact friends and family, or for work. More and more people and companies are using the Internet to send and receive work, and some people work online. → EMAIL, COMPUTER in-ter-nist /'ɪntənɪst/ n. [C] a doctor who treats medical conditions of the organs inside your body by using medicines, rather than by using SURGERY → SURGEON in-ter-n-ment /ɪn'tənmənt/ n. [C,U] the act of keeping someone in prison, especially for political reasons in-ter-n-ship /'ɪntənʃɪp/ n. [C] the period of time when an INTERN works, or the particular job s/he does: an internship in a law firm in-ter-per-son-al /,ɪntə'pəʊʃənəl/ adj. involving relationships between people: interpersonal skills in-ter-plan-e-tar-y /,ɪntə'plænə,təri/ adj. [only before noun] happening or done between the PLANETS in-ter-play /'ɪntə'pleɪ/ n. [U] the way that two people or things affect each other: the interplay between man and nature in-ter-po-late /ɪn'təpə'leɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to put additional words, ideas, information, etc. into something such as a piece of writing (SYN) insert —interpolation /ɪn,təpə'leɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

in-ter-pret /ɪn'təprɪt/ (Ac) v. 1 [I,T] to change words spoken in one language into another → TRANSLATE: Gina spoke enough Spanish to be able to interpret for me. 2 [T] to explain or decide on the meaning of an event, statement, etc.: His silence was interpreted as guilt. | A judge's main role is to interpret the law. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French interpréter, from Latin interpretari, from interpres “someone who explains or translates”] in-ter-pre-ta-tion /ɪn,təprə'teɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] an explanation for an event, someone's actions, etc.: This is only one scientist's interpretation of the data; other scientists see it differently.

in-ter-pret-er /ɪn'təprətə/ n. [C] someone who changes the spoken words of one language into another → TRANSLATOR in-ter-pre-tive /ɪn'təprə'tɪv/ (Ac) also in-ter-pre-ta-tive /ɪn'təprə'teɪtɪv/ adj. 1 relating to, explaining, or understanding the meaning of something: an interpretive lecture on the park's geology 2 relating to how feelings are expressed through music, dance, art, etc.: interpretive dance in-ter-ra-cial /,ɪntə'reɪʃəl/ adj. between different races of people: an interracial marriage in-ter-re-lat-ed /,ɪntə'rɪ'leɪtɪd/ adj. things that are interrelated all have an effect on each other in-ter-ro-gate /ɪn'terə'geɪt/ v. [T] to ask someone a lot of questions, sometimes in a threatening way: Police are interrogating the suspect now. —interrogator n. [C] —interrogation /ɪn,tərə'geɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

THESAURUS ask, question, inquire → ASK in-ter-ro-g-a-tive /,ɪntəˈrəɡətɪv/ n. 1 the interrogative ENG. LANG. ARTS the form of a sentence or verb that is used for asking questions → DECLARATIVE, EXCLAMATORY 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word such as “who” or “what” that is used to ask questions —interrogative adj.: an interrogative sentence in-ter-rupt /,ɪntəˈrʌpt/ v. 1 [I,T] to stop someone from speaking by suddenly saying or doing something: Sorry, I didn't mean to interrupt you. | One guy in the front row kept interrupting during Kay's talk. 2 [T] to stop a process or activity for a short time: The war interrupted the supply of oil. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin, past participle of interrumpere, from rumpere “to break”]

THESAURUS stop, break, pause → STOP¹

—interruption /,ɪntəˈrʌpʃən/ n. [C,U]: Work on the bridge continued without interruption. | several interruptions in the schedule in-ter-sect /,ɪntəˈsekt/ v. [I,T] if two lines, roads, etc. intersect, they meet or go across each other [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin, past participle of intersecare, from inter “between” + secare “to cut”] in-ter-sec-tion /ˈɪntəˌseksjən, ˌɪntəˌseksjən/ n. [C] the place where two roads, lines, etc. meet and go across each other in-ter-sperse /,ɪntəˈspɜːs/ v. [T] to mix something together with something else: The speeches were interspersed with short musical performances.

in-ter-state¹ /ˈɪntəˌsteɪt/ n. [C] a road for fast traffic that goes between states interstate² adj. [only before noun] between or involving different states in the U.S.: interstate trade in-ter-twined /,ɪntəˈtwɑɪnd/ adj. twisted together or closely related: several intertwined stories in-ter-val /ˈɪntəvəl/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a period of time between two events, activities, etc.: The Bijou Theater opened again after an interval of five years. | There was a brief interval between the battles. 2 at intervals with a particular amount of time or distance between things, activities, etc.: Tickets let visitors in at half-hour intervals. | Look away from your screen at regular intervals to rest your eyes. | planes were landing at intervals of two minutes 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS the amount of difference in PITCH between two musical notes [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French entreval, from Latin intervallum “space between castle walls, interval”] in-ter-vene /,ɪntəˈvin/ (Ac) v. [I] 1 to do something to try to stop an argument, problem, war, etc.: The police had to intervene in the march to stop the fighting. 2 to happen between two events, especially in a way that interrupts or prevents something: They had planned to get married, but the war intervened. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin intervenire, from inter “between” + venire “to come”] in-ter-ven-ing /,ɪntəˈvɪnɪŋ/ (Ac) adj. relating to the amount of time between two events: He had aged a lot in the intervening years.

in-ter-ven-tion /,ɪntəˈvenʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] the act of becoming involved in an argument, problem, war, etc. in order to affect or change what happens: Is military intervention in the region necessary?

in-ter-view¹ /ˈɪntəˌvyu/ n. 1 [C] an occasion when someone famous is asked questions about his/her life, opinions, etc.: The former president gave an interview to Barbara Walters (=he answered her questions). | an interview with several sports stars 2 [C,U] also job interview a formal meeting in which someone is asked questions, usually to find out if s/he is good enough for a job: I have an interview for a job as a project manager tomorrow. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Early French entrevue, from entrevoir “to see each other, meet”] interview² v. [T] to ask someone questions during an interview: Kelly was interviewed on the radio after the game. —interviewer n. [C]

in-ter-weave /,ɪntəˈwɪv/ v. (past tense interwove /-ˈwʊv/, past participle interwoven /-ˈwʊvən/, present participle interweaving) [T] if two or more ideas or situations are interwoven, they are too closely related to be separated easily: The histories of the two countries are closely interwoven.

in-tes-tine /ɪnˈtestɪn/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the long tube that takes food from your stomach out of your body: bacteria that live in the intestines | the large intestine (=the lower part of the intestines, in which water is removed from waste food as it passes through) | the small intestine (=the long tube that food goes through after it has passed through your stomach) [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French intestin, from Latin intestinum, from intus “inside”] → see picture at ORGAN —intestinal adj.

in-ti-ma-cy /ˈɪntəməsi/ n. [U] a state of having a close personal relationship with someone → INTIMATE: the intimacy of good friends in-ti-mate¹ /ˈɪntəmət/ adj. 1 having a very close relationship with someone: a party for a few intimate friends 2 (formal) relating to sex: The virus can only be transmitted through intimate contact. 3 relating to very private or personal matters: intimate secrets [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Late Latin, past participle of intimare “to put in, announce,” from Latin intimus “furthest inside”] —intimately adv.

in-ti-mate² /ˈɪntəˌmeɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to make someone understand what you mean without saying it directly in-ti-ma-tion /,ɪntəˈmeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) an indirect or unclear sign that something is true or may happen: The narrator gives strong intimations that Johnson is unreliable.

in-tim-i-date /ɪn'tɪmə,deɪt/ v. [T] to make someone afraid, often by using threats, so that s/he does what you want —intimidation /ɪn,tɪmə'deɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-tim-i-dat-ed /ɪn'tɪmə,deɪtɪd/ adj. feeling worried or afraid because you are in a difficult situation: Ben felt intimidated by the older boys.

in-tim-i-dat-ing /ɪn'tɪmə,deɪtɪŋ/ adj. making you feel worried and less confident: Interviews can be an intimidating experience.

in-to /'ɪntə; before vowels 'ɪntu; strong 'ɪntu/ prep. 1 in order to be inside something or in a place: Amy went into the next room. | She put the fish back into the water. 2 involved in a situation or activity: He decided he would try to go into business for himself (=start his own business). | Try not to get into trouble. 3 in a different situation or physical form: Make the bread dough into a ball (=the shape of a ball). | Poe's house has been turned into a museum. 4 to a point where you hit something, usually causing damage: Dick drove his dad's car into a tree. 5 be into sth (spoken) to like and be interested in something: I was really into music in high school. 6 in a particular direction: Look into my eyes. 7 at or until a particular time: We talked long into the night.

in-tol-er-a-ble /ɪn'tələ'reɪbəl/ adj. too difficult, bad, or painful for you to bear: intolerable conditions —intolerably adv.

in-tol-er-ant /ɪn'tələ'rənt/ adj. not willing to accept ways of thinking and behaving that are different from your own: He's very intolerant of other people's political opinions. —intolerance n. [U] → PREJUDICE¹ in-to-na-tion /ɪntə'neɪʃən, -tu-/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the rise and fall in the level of your voice when you speak in-tox-i-cat-ed /ɪn'tɒksə,keɪtɪd/ adj. (formal) 1 drunk: He was intoxicated at the time of the accident. 2 happy and excited because of success, love, power, etc. —intoxicating adj. —intoxication /ɪn,tɒksə'keɪʃən/ n. [U]

in-trac-ta-ble /ɪn'træktəbəl/ adj. (formal) very difficult to deal with or solve: an intractable problem —intractability /ɪn,tɒktə'bɪləti/ n. [U]

in-tra-mu-ral /ɪntrə'myʊərəl/ adj. intended for the students of one school: intramural sports in-tran-si-gent /ɪn'trænsədʒənt, -zə-/ adj. (formal) unwilling to change your ideas or behavior in a way that seems unreasonable, or showing this quality: intransigent attitudes —intransigence n. [U] —intransigently adv.

in-tran-si-tive /ɪn'trænsətɪv, -zə-/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, an intransitive verb has a subject but no object. In the sentence "They arrived early," "arrive" is an intransitive verb. → TRANSITIVE in-tra-ve-nous /ɪntrə'veɪnəs/ adj. in or connected to a VEIN (=a tube that takes blood to your heart) → IV: an intravenous injection —intravenously adv.

in-trep-id /ɪn'treɪpɪd/ adj. (literary) willing to do dangerous things or go to dangerous places: intrepid travelers

THESAURUS brave, courageous, heroic, valiant, daring, bold, fearless → BRAVE¹

in-tri-ca-cy /'ɪntrɪkəsi/ n. (plural intricacies) 1 the intricacies of sth the complicated details of something: You need an expert to help you with the intricacies of the tax system. 2 [U] the state of containing a lot of parts or details: the intricacy of the plot in-tri-cate /'ɪntrɪkɪt/ adj. containing a lot of parts or details: an intricate pattern [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, past participle of intricare "to mix up in a complicated way," from tricae "small unimportant things, things that get in your way"] in-trigue¹ /ɪn'trɪg/ v. [T] to interest someone a lot, especially by being strange or mysterious: I was intrigued by her story.

THESAURUS complicated, complex, elaborate → COMPLICATED

in-trigue² /'ɪntrɪg, ɪn'trɪg/ n. [C,U] the practice of making secret plans to harm or deceive someone: a book about political intrigue in-tri-guing /ɪn'trɪɡɪŋ/ adj. very interesting because it is strange or mysterious: an intriguing new book —intriguingly adv.

THESAURUS interesting, fascinating, absorbing, enthralling, engrossing, compelling, gripping, riveting → INTERESTING

in-trin-sic /ɪn'trɪnzɪk, -sɪk/ (AC) adj. being part of the basic nature or character of someone or something: the intrinsic value of good behavior | Meaning is intrinsic to a piece of writing; it is not wholly decided by the reader. —intrinsically adv.

in-tro /'ɪntroʊ/ n. (plural intros) [C] (informal) a short part at the beginning of a song, piece of writing, etc. (SYN) introduction in-tro-duce /ɪntrə'dus/ v. [T] 1 if you introduce people to each other, you tell them each other's name for the first time → INTRODUCTION: Al, let me introduce you to my parents. | Have you two been introduced yet? 2 to make a change, plan, product, etc. happen, exist, or be available for the first time → INTRODUCTION: Over 60 new computer models were introduced last year. 3 introduce sb to sth to show someone something or tell him/her about it for the first time: My aunt introduced me to cooking when I was 12. 4 to speak at the beginning of a television program, public speech, etc. to say what will happen next → INTRODUCTION [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin introducere, from ducere “to lead”]

in-tro-duc-tion /ˌɪntrəˈdʌkʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] the act of making a change, plan, product, etc. happen, exist, or be available for the first time → INTRODUCE: the introduction of new drugs 2 [C] the act of telling two people each other's names when they meet for the first time → INTRODUCE 3 [C] a written or spoken explanation at the beginning of a book or speech → INTRODUCE in-tro-duc-to-ry /ˌɪntrəˈdʌktəri/ adj. relating to the beginning of a book, speech, course, etc.: the introductory chapter in-tro-vert-ed /ˌɪntrəˈvɜːtɪd/ adj. thinking a lot about your own problems, interests, etc. and not wanting to be with other people (SYN) shy → EXTROVERTED —introvert n. [C]

THESAURUS shy, timid, bashful, demure, self-conscious, reserved → SHY¹ in-trude /ɪnˈtruːd/ v. [I] to go into a place or get involved in a situation where you are not wanted: Newspaper stories often intrude into/on people's private lives. → ENTER¹ in-trud-er /ɪnˈtruːdə/ n. [C] someone who enters a building or area where s/he is not supposed to be in-tru-sion /ɪnˈtruːʒən/ n. [C,U] an unwanted person, event, etc. that interrupts or annoys you: Some people feared the government's intrusion into their personal lives. —intrusive /ɪnˈtruːsɪv/ adj.

in-tu-i-tion /ˌɪntuːɪʃən/ n. [C,U] the ability to understand or know that something is true, based on your feelings rather than facts: Trust your intuition if you feel a situation is unsafe. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Late Latin intuitio, from Latin intueri “to look at, think about”] in-tu-i-tive /ɪnˈtuːɪtɪv/ adj. based on feelings rather than facts: an intuitive understanding of the problem —intuitively adv.

In-u-it /ˈɪnuɪt/ n. the Inuit [plural] a group of people who live in places such as northern Canada, Greenland, Alaska, and eastern Siberia —Inuit adj.

in-un-date /ˈɪnənˌdeɪt/ v. [T] 1 be inundated with/by sth to receive so much of something that you cannot deal with all of it: We were inundated with requests for tickets. 2 (formal) to flood a place [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of inundare, from unda “wave”] —inundation /ˌɪnənˈdeɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

in-ure /ɪˈnʊr/ v.

inure sb to sth phr. v. (formal) to make people become used to something unpleasant, so they are no longer upset by it: Doctors must never become inured to suffering.

in-vade /ɪnˈveɪd/ v. 1 [I,T] to enter a place using military force → INVASION: A few days later, the island was invaded. 2 [T] to go into a place in large numbers → INVASION: All the neighborhood kids invaded our pool yesterday. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin invadere, from in “in” + vadere “to go”] —invader n. [C] in-val-id /ɪnˈvælɪd/ adj. not legally or officially acceptable (ANT) valid: an invalid bus pass in-val-id² /ɪnˈvælɪd/ n. [C] someone who needs to be cared for because s/he is sick, injured, or very old —invalid adj.

in-val-i-date /ɪnˈvæləˌdeɪt/ (AC) v. [T] 1 to make a document, ticket, etc. not legally acceptable anymore → VALID: The Supreme Court invalidated a section of the new Immigration Act. 2 to show that something such as a belief, explanation, etc. is wrong: New research has invalidated the theory.

in-val-u-a-ble /ɪnˈvæljuəbəl, -yuəbəl/ adj. extremely useful (SYN) valuable: Your advice has been invaluable.

in-var-i-a-bly /ɪnˈvəriəbli, -ˈvæər-/ (AC) adv. (formal) always, without changing: The disease almost invariably ends in death. → ALWAYS —invariable adj.: The pattern is invariable.

in-va-sion /ɪnˈveɪʒən/ n. [C,U] 1 an occasion when an army enters a country using military force → INVADE: the invasion of Normandy → ATTACK¹ 2 the arrival of people or things at a place where they are not wanted → INVADE: Ron has tried everything to get rid of the invasion of ants in his kitchen. 3 invasion of privacy a situation in which someone tries to find out about someone else's personal life, in a way that is upsetting and often illegal —invasive /ɪnˈveɪsɪv/ adj.

in,vasive 'species n. [C] BIOLOGY a type of plant that does not naturally grow in a particular place, but which grows and spreads very quickly when planted there, stopping existing plants from growing successfully in-vec-tive /ɪnˈvektɪv/ n. [U] (formal) impolite and insulting words that someone says when s/he is very angry in-vent /ɪnˈvent/ v. [T] 1 to make, design, or produce something for the first time → INVENTION, INVENTOR: Who invented the light bulb?

THESAURUS

create – to invent or design something: a dish created by our chef think up – to produce an idea, plan, etc. that is completely new: Teachers constantly have to think up new ways to keep the kids interested.

come up with sth – to think of a new idea, plan, reply, etc.: Carson said he came up with the idea for the book about five years ago.

conceive (formal) – to think of a new idea or plan: It was Dr. Salk who conceived the idea of a polio vaccine.

devise (formal) – to plan or invent a way of doing something: The system was devised as a way of measuring students' progress.

make up sth – to produce a new story, song, game, etc.: Grandpa made up stories for us at bedtime.

dream sth up – to think of a plan or idea, especially an unusual one: The company's name was dreamed up by Harris' 15-year-old daughter.

2 to think of an idea, story, etc. that is not true, usually to deceive people [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of invenire “to come upon, find,” from venire “to come”]

THESAURUS lie, make sth up, tell (sb) a lie, mislead, deceive → LIE²

in-ven-tion /ɪnˈvɛnʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] the act of inventing something, or the thing that is invented → INVENTOR: The 20th century was a time when new inventions changed our lives. | the invention of television 2 [C] an idea, story, etc. that is not true in-ven-tive /ɪnˈvɛntɪv/ adj. able to think of new and interesting ideas: an inventive cook —inventiveness n. [U] in-ven-tor /ɪnˈvɛntə/ n. [C] someone who has invented something in-ven-to-ry /ɪnˈvɛn.tɔːri/ n. (plural inventories) 1 [U] all the goods in a store 2 [C,U] a list of all the things in a place: The store will be closed on Friday to take inventory (=make a list of its goods).

in-verse¹ /ɪnˈvɜːs, ˈɪnvɜːs/ adj. in inverse proportion/relation etc. to sth getting larger as something else gets smaller, or getting smaller as something else gets larger —inversely adv.

in-verse² /ɪnˈvɜːs, ɪnˈvɜːs/ n. [singular] 1 MATH a number that is related to another number because an inverse operation has been done 2 (formal) the complete opposite of something inverse ope'ration n. [C] MATH a mathematical operation that does the opposite of another operation. For example, addition is the inverse operation of SUBTRACTION, and subtraction is the inverse operation of addition.

in-vert /ɪnˈvɜːt/ v. [T] (formal) to put something in the opposite position, especially by turning it upside down —inversion /ɪnˈvɜːʒən/ n. [C,U]

in-ver-te-brate /ɪnˈvɜːtəbrɪt, -ˌbreɪt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an animal that does not have a BACKBONE → VERTEBRATE —invertebrate adj.

in-vest /ɪnˈvest/ [Ac] v. 1 [I,T] to give money to a company, bank, etc., or to buy something, in order to get a profit later → INVESTMENT: He recommended investing in stocks and bonds. | Greg invested his life savings in high-tech companies. 2 [T] to use a lot of time or effort to make something succeed: How much time are you prepared to invest in this project? 3 [T] to give someone power or a position: By the power invested in me, I pronounce you man and wife. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Italian investire “to dress, invest,” from Latin, “to dress,” from vestis “piece of clothing”] —investor n. [C]: investors in the local property market invest sb/sth with sth phr. v. (formal) to make someone or something seem to have a particular quality or character: He invested his reply with scorn.

in-ves-ti-gate /ɪnˈvestəˌgeɪt/ [Ac] v. [I,T] to try to find out the truth about something, for example a crime, accident, etc.: Police are currently investigating the case. | I heard a noise and went downstairs to investigate. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of investigare “to follow the track of,” from vestigium “track”] —investigator n. [C]: police investigators

in-ves-ti-ga-tion /ɪnˈvestəˌgeɪʃən/ [Ac] n. [C,U] an official attempt to find out the reasons for something, such as a crime or scientific problem: an investigation into the plane crash | The issue is still under investigation (=being investigated). | a thorough investigation of the incident in-ves-ti-ga-tive /ɪnˈvestəˌgeɪtɪv/ [Ac] adj. intended to discover new details and facts about something, or relating to someone who does this: investigative journalism in-vest-ment /ɪnˈvestmənt/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] the use of money to get a profit or to make a business activity successful, or the money that is used to do this → INVEST: a $5,000 investment in stocks | Vietnam's economic development has been helped by foreign investment. 2 [C] something that you buy or do because it will be valuable or useful later: We bought the house as an investment. | Education is always a good investment. 3 [C,U] a large amount of time, energy, emotion, etc. that you spend on something: You cannot fully measure the investment of time and money that parents put into their children.

in-vet-er-ate /ɪnˈvetərɪt/ adj. [only before noun] (formal) relating to doing or feeling something for a long time, and being unable or unwilling to change: an inveterate gambler —inveterately adv.

in-vig-o-rat-ing /ɪnˈvɪɡəˌreɪtɪŋ/ adj. making you feel more active and healthy: an invigorating morning run —invigorate v. [T] —invigorated adj.

in-vin-ci-ble /ɪnˈvɪnsəbəl/ adj. too strong to be defeated or destroyed —invincibly adv.

in-vi-o-la-ble /ɪnˈvaɪələbəl/ adj. (formal) an inviolable right, law, principle, etc. is extremely important and should not be gotten rid of —inviolability /ɪnˌvaɪələˈbɪləti/ n. [U]

in-vis-i-ble /ɪnˈvɪzəbəl/ [Ac] adj. not able to be seen, or not noticed: These organisms are invisible without using a microscope. | It was as though my elderly mother were invisible to these young people; no one even said hello to her. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin visibilis, from in “not” + visus, past participle of videre “to see”] —invisibly adv. —invisibility /ɪnˌvɪzəˈbɪləti/ n. [U]

in-vi-ta-tion /ɪnvəˈteɪʃən/ n. [C] a request to someone that invites him/her to go somewhere or do something, or the card this is written on: Mel didn't get an invitation to Tom's party.

COLLOCATIONS

a party/wedding/dinner, etc. invitation send out invitations – to send them to a number of people get/receive an invitation accept an invitation – to say yes turn down/refuse an invitation – to say no

in-vite¹ /ɪnˈvaɪt/ v. [T] 1 to ask someone to come to a party, meal, wedding, etc. → INVITATION: I invited the Rosens to dinner next Friday. | They've invited us for lunch. | “Why weren't you at Eva's party?” “I wasn't invited.” 2 invite trouble/criticism etc. to make trouble, criticism, etc. more likely to happen to you [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French inviter, from Latin invitare] invite sb along phr. v. to ask someone to come with you when you go somewhere: You can invite one of your friends along.

invite sb in phr. v. to ask someone to come into your home, usually when s/he is standing at the door invite sb over phr. v. to ask someone to come to your home for a party, meal, etc.: You could invite the Chans over for dinner.

in-vite² /ɪnˈvaɪt/ n. [C] (informal) an invitation in-vit-ing /ɪnˈvaɪtɪŋ/ adj. an inviting sight, smell, etc. is attractive and makes you want to do something: The lake looked inviting (=made me want to swim in it). —invitingly adv.

in-voice /ɪnˈvoɪs/ n. [C] a list that shows how much you owe for goods, work, etc. (SYN bill) [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Early French envois, plural of envoi “message”] —invoice v. [T]: We were invoiced for two parts that never arrived.

THESAURUS

bill, check, tab → BILL¹

in-voke /ɪnˈvəʊk/ (Ac) v. [T] (formal) 1 to use a law, principle, etc. to support your opinions or actions: The reporter invoked the First Amendment when she refused to name her sources. 2 to make a particular idea, image, or feeling appear in people's minds: Her singing style invokes Billie Holiday, the great jazz singer. 3 (literary) to ask for help from someone, especially a god: St. Anthony is invoked against starvation.

in-vol-un-tar-y /ɪnˈvələntəri/ adj. an involuntary movement, reaction, etc. is one that you make suddenly without intending to —involuntarily /ɪnˈvələntəri/ adv.

in-volve /ɪnˈvɒlv/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to include or affect someone or something: The riot involved 45 prisoners. 2 to ask or allow someone to take part in something: To improve kids' health, efforts should be made to involve them in sports activities. 3 to include something as a necessary part or result of something else: Taking the job involves moving to Texas. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin involvere “to wrap,” from volvere “to roll”]

in-volved /ɪnˈvɒlvd/ (Ac) adj. 1 taking part in an activity or event: I don't want to get involved in her personal problems. | Parents need to be involved with their children's education. 2 being a necessary part of an activity, event, etc.: I hate the red tape involved in getting any project approved by the managers. 3 difficult to understand because it is complicated or has a lot of parts: a long involved answer 4 be involved with sb to be having a sexual relationship with someone in-volve-ment /ɪnˈvɒlvmənt/ (Ac) n. [U] the act of taking part in an activity or event: Brian's involvement in local politics has made a difference in our community. | The difference between kids who do well in school and those who don't is often parental involvement.

in-vul-nerable /ɪnˈvʌlnərəbəl/ adj. not easy to harm, hurt, or attack in-ward¹ /ɪnˈwɜːd/ adj. [only before noun] 1 felt in your own mind, but not expressed to other people (ANT outward): inward panic 2 on or toward the inside of something —inwardly adv.: Ginny was inwardly disappointed that she hadn't seen him at the party.

inward² also inwards adv. toward the inside (ANT outward)

i-o-dine /ˈaɪəˌdaɪn, -daɪn/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol I) a dark red chemical substance, often used as a medicine for wounds. It is a chemical ELEMENT belonging to the HALOGEN group. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French iode, from Greek ion “dark bluish-red”]

i-on /ˈaɪən, ˈaɪɒn/ n. [C] PHYSICS an atom that has been given a positive or negative force i-on-ic bond /aɪˌɒnɪk ˈbɒnd/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical BOND which is the result of atoms gaining and losing an ELECTRON, so that a negative ION and a positive ion are formed (SYN electrovalent bond)

i-on-ize /ˈaɪəˌnaɪz/ v. [I,T] CHEMISTRY to form ions or make them form —ionization /ˌaɪənəˈzeɪʃən/ n. [U] i-on-o-sphere /aɪˈɒnəˌsfɪr/ n. the ionosphere EARTH SCIENCES the lower part of the THERMOSPHERE, where some of the harmful energy from the Sun is reduced [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 ion + -sphere (as in atmosphere)] → compare EXOSPHERE i-o-ta /aɪˈoʊtə/ n. not one/an iota of sth not even a small amount of something: There's not an iota of truth in what he says.

IOU n. [C] (informal) I owe you a note that you sign to say that you owe someone some money

IPA n. [singular] ENG. LANG. ARTS International Phonetic Alphabet a system of signs that represent the sounds made in speech iPod /'aɪpɒd/ n. [C] (trademark) IT a small piece of electronic equipment for playing and storing music that you DOWNLOAD from the Internet

IQ n. [C usually singular] intelligence quotient the level of someone's intelligence, with 100 being the average level: He has an IQ of 130.

IRA /'aɪrə/ n. individual retirement account a special bank account in which you can save money for your RETIREMENT without paying taxes on it until later i-ras-ci-ble /'ræsəbəl/ adj. (formal) easily becoming angry —irascibly adv.

i-rate /aɪ'reɪt/ adj. extremely angry: an irate customer —irate adv.

THESAURUS angry, livid, furious, mad, indignant, outraged → ANGRY

ir-i-des-cent /,ɪrə'desənt/ adj. showing colors that seem to change in different lights —iridescence n. [U] i-ris /'aɪrɪs/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY the round colored part of your eye → see picture at EYE 2 a tall plant with purple, yellow, or white flowers and long thin leaves

i-rish /'aɪrɪʃ/ adj. relating to or coming from Ireland

Irish n. the Irish [plural] the people of Ireland irk /ɜ:k/ v. [T] to annoy someone

THESAURUS annoy, irritate, get on sb's nerves, infuriate, bother, vex → ANNOY

iron¹ /'aɪən/ n. 1 [C] an object that is heated and that you push across a piece of clothing to make it smooth 2 [U] a common hard metal that is used to make steel, and is found in very small quantities in food and in blood [ORIGIN: Old English isern, iren] iron² v. [T] to make your clothes smooth using an iron: Can you iron my shirt for me?

iron sth ↔ out phr. v. to solve a small problem: Jim and Sharon are ironing out their differences.

iron³ adj. 1 made of iron: iron bars on the gate 2 very firm or strict: He ruled the country with an iron fist (=in a very strict and powerful way).

'Iron Age n. the Iron Age HISTORY the period of time, about 3,500 years ago, when iron was first used for making tools, weapons, etc. → BRONZE AGE, STONE AGE

'Iron Curtain n. the Iron Curtain HISTORY a name used in past times for the border between the Communist countries of Eastern Europe and the rest of Europe

i-ron-ic /aɪ'rənɪk/ adj. 1 using words that are the opposite of what you really mean, in order to be amusing or show that you are annoyed 2 an ironic situation is unusual or amusing because something strange or unexpected happens: It's ironic that your car was stolen outside the police station. —ironically adv.

i-ron-ing /'aɪənɪŋ/ n. [U] the activity of making clothes smooth with an iron

'ironing board n. [C] a narrow board for ironing clothes → *see picture at BOARD*¹

i-ro-ny /'aɪrəni/ n. (plural ironies) 1 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the use of words that are the opposite of what you really mean, in order to be amusing or show that you are annoyed 2 [C,U] the part of a situation that is unusual or amusing because something strange happens, or the opposite of what is expected happens: The irony is that the drug was supposed to save lives. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin ironia, from Greek eironeia, from eiron "person who lies"] ir-ra-tion-al /'ɪrəʃənəl/ (Ac) adj. not based on using sensible or clear reasons, or not thinking clearly: an irrational fear of spiders | His decisions seemed irrational at the time. —irrationally adv. —irrationality /ɪrəʃə'næləti/ n. [U]

ir-rec-on-cil-a-ble /ɪ'rekən'saɪləbəl/ adj. irreconcilable opinions, positions, etc. are very different, making it impossible to reach an agreement: They are getting divorced because of irreconcilable differences. —irreconcilably adv.

ir-re-fut-a-ble /ɪ'rɪ'fju:təbəl/ adj. (formal) an irrefutable statement, argument, etc. cannot be proved wrong: There was irrefutable proof/evidence that he had lied.

ir-reg-u-lar /'ɪrɛgylə/ adj. 1 having a shape, surface, etc. that is not even or smooth: a face with irregular features 2 not happening at regular times or at the usual time: an irregular heartbeat 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS an irregular verb or a form of a word does not follow the usual pattern in grammar. For example, the past tense "went" of the verb "go" is irregular. —irregularly adv. —irregularity /ɪ'regylə'ti/ n. [C,U] ir-rel-e-vance /'ɪrələvəns/ (Ac) also ir-rel-e-van-cy /'ɪrələvənsi/ n. [U] a lack of importance in a particular situation: the irrelevance of her remark ir-rel-e-vant /'ɪrələvənt/ (Ac) adj. not useful or not relating to a particular situation, and therefore not important: Large parts of the movie seemed irrelevant to the plot. —irrelevantly adv.

ir-rep-a-ra-ble /'ɪrɛpərəbəl/ adj. irreparable damage, harm, etc. is so bad that it can never be repaired or made better —irreparably adv.

ir-re-place-a-ble /ɪ'rɪ'pleɪsəbəl/ adj. too special, valuable, or rare to be replaced by anything else: an irreplaceable work of art ir-re-press-i-ble /ɪ'rɪ'presəbəl/ adj. always full of energy, happiness, or confidence, and never letting anything affect this: Nathan's excitement was irrepressible.

ir-re-proach-a-ble /ˌɪrɪˈpraʊtʃəbəl/ adj. (formal) so good that you cannot criticize it: Her behavior was irreproachable.

ir-re-sist-i-ble /ˌɪrɪˈzɪstəbəl/ adj. 1 so attractive or desirable that you cannot stop yourself from wanting it: The dessert looks irresistible. | The offer of so much money would be irresistible to most people. 2 too strong or powerful to be stopped: an irresistible urge to cry —irresistibly adv.

ir-re-spec-tive /ˌɪrɪˈspektɪv/ adv. irrespective of sth used in order to show that a particular fact does not affect a situation at all: Anyone can play, irrespective of age.

ir-re-spon-si-ble /ˌɪrɪˈspənsəbəl/ adj. doing careless things without thinking about the possible bad results: It was irresponsible of John to leave the kids alone. —irresponsibly adv. —irresponsibility /ˌɪrɪˈspənsəˈbɪləti/ n. [U] ir-rev-er-ent /ɪˈrevərənt/ adj. not showing enough respect for organizations, beliefs, etc.: an irreverent sense of humor —irreverently adv. —irreverence n. [U] ir-re-ver-si-ble /ˌɪrɪˈvɜːsəbəl/ (Ac) adj. something that has irreversible damage, change, etc. cannot be changed back to how it was before: irreversible brain damage ir-rev-o-ca-ble /ɪˈrevəkəbəl/ adj. not able to be changed or stopped: an irrevocable decision —irrevocably adv.

ir-ri-gate /ɪˈrɪɡeɪt/ v. [T] to supply water to land or crops —irrigation /ɪˈrɪɡeɪʃən/ n. [U]: an agricultural irrigation system

ir-ri-ta-ble /ɪˈrɪtəbəl/ adj. easily annoyed or made angry: He's always irritable in the morning. —irritably adv. —irritability /ɪˈrɪtəˈbɪləti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS grumpy, cranky, crabby, grouchy, cantankerous, touchy → GRUMPY ir-ri-tant /ɪˈrɪtənt/ n. [C] (formal) 1 something that makes you feel angry or annoyed: Traffic noise is a constant irritant in the city. 2 a substance that makes part of your body painful and sore ir-ri-tate /ɪˈrɪteɪt/ v. [T] 1 to make someone angry or annoyed: Her voice really irritates me.

THESAURUS annoy, get on sb's nerves, infuriate, bother, vex, irk → ANNOY

2 to make a part of your body painful and sore: Wool irritates my skin.

ir-ri-tat-ed /ɪˈrɪteɪd/ adj. feeling annoyed and impatient about something: The teachers became increasingly irritated by Kevin's childish behavior.

THESAURUS angry, annoyed, mad, resentful → ANGRY ir-ri-tat-ing /ɪˈrɪteɪɪŋ/ adj. annoying: He has an irritating habit of always being late. —irritatingly adv.

ir-ri-ta-tion /ɪˈrɪteɪʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] the feeling of being annoyed, or something that makes you feel this way: Tim made no secret of his irritation with me. 2 [U] a painful sore feeling on a part of your body

IRS n. the IRS the Internal Revenue Service the government organization in the U.S. that deals with taxes is /z, s, əz; strong ɪz/ v. the third person singular of the present tense of BE

Is-lam /ˈɪzləm, ɪzˈlām, ˈɪsləm/ n. [U] the Muslim religion, which was started by Muhammad and whose holy book is the Koran [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Arabic islam “obeying (the will of God)”] —Islamic /ɪzˈlɑːmɪk, ɪs-/ adj.

is-land /ˈaɪlənd/ n. [C] a piece of land completely surrounded by water: a hotel development on the island | the island of St. Kitts [ORIGIN: Old English igland, from ig “island” + land] is-land-er /ˈaɪləndə/ n. [C] someone who lives on an island isle /aɪl/ n. [C] an island, used in poetry or in names of islands is-n't /ɪzənt/ v. the short form of “is not”: That isn't true.

i-so-late /ˈaɪsəleɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to make or keep one person or thing separate from others: The town was isolated by the floods. | Computers seem to have isolated us from one another. 2 to separate something from other things so that it can be examined, studied, or dealt with by itself: It is difficult to isolate and measure the effect that this has had on the business.

i-so-lat-ed /ˈaɪsəleɪtɪd/ (Ac) adj. 1 far away from other things: an isolated farm 2 feeling alone or unable to meet or speak to other people: New mothers often feel isolated. 3 an isolated case/example etc. a case, example, etc. that happens only once: an isolated case of the disease | The violence was an isolated incident. [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French isolé, from Italian isolata, from isola “island”]

i-so-la-tion /ˈaɪsəleɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 the state of being separate from other places, things, or people: the city's geographical isolation (=its location far away from other cities) 2 in isolation separately: These events cannot be examined in isolation from one another. 3 a feeling of being lonely and unable to meet or talk to other people: I buried the isolation I felt by working harder than ever.

i-so-la-tion-ism /ˈaɪsəleɪʃənɪzəm/ (Ac) n. [U] POLITICS beliefs or actions that are based on the political idea that your country should not be involved in the affairs of other countries: America's isolationism before World War I —isolationist n. [C] —isolationist adj.

i-so-mer /ˈaɪsəmər/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY one of two or more chemical compounds that have the same number of the same types of atoms, but different chemical structures and qualities

i-sos-ce-les trap-e-zoid /aɪ,səsəlɪz
'træpə,zɔɪd/ n. [C] MATH a TRAPEZOID (=shape with four straight sides, two of which are parallel) in which the two angles at its base are the same size, and the two sides that are not parallel are the same length

i-sos-ce-les tri-an-gle /aɪ,səsəlɪz
'traɪ,æŋɡəl/ n. [C] MATH a TRIANGLE in which two of the sides are the same length, and the two angles at the base are the same size → see picture at TRIANGLE

i-so-ton-ic /ˈarsə'tɒnɪk/ adj. CHEMISTRY an isotonic SOLUTION has the same amount of a substance DISSOLVED in it as another solution that you are comparing it to

i-so-tope /ˈarsə'toʊp/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY one of two or more atoms of a chemical ELEMENT that have the same number of PROTONS but a different number of NEUTRONS [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 iso- “equal” + Greek topos “place”] is-sue¹ /'ɪʃu/ [Ac] n. [C] 1 a subject or problem that people discuss: We should raise the issue (=begin to discuss it) at our next meeting. | the controversial issue of abortion | Safety is the most important issue. 2 a magazine, newspaper, etc. printed for a particular day, week, month, or year: the April issue of Vogue 3 make an issue (out) of sth to argue about something 4 at issue (formal) being discussed or considered: At issue is whether the Senator improperly used campaign funds. 5 take issue with sb/sth to disagree or argue with someone about something: He took issue with Mayor Farrell's statement. 6 not be the issue to not be the problem or subject that you are concerned about: Money is not the issue here. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French issir “to come out, go out,” from Latin exire, from ire “to go”]

issue² [Ac] v. [T] 1 to officially make a statement or give a warning: The President is expected to issue a statement later today. 2 to officially provide or produce something: Every player was issued with a new uniform.

issue from sth phr. v. (formal) if something issues from a place or thing, it comes out of it: Blood issued from the wound.

isth-mus /'ɪsməs/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a narrow piece of land with water on both sides, that connects two larger areas of land

IT n. [U] INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

it /ɪt/ pron. [used as a subject or object] 1 a thing, situation, or idea that has been mentioned or is known about: “Did you bring your umbrella?” “No, I left it at home.” | “Where’s the bread?” “It’s (=it is) on the shelf.” | In the summer, it must be beautiful here. 2 the situation that someone is in now: I can’t stand it any longer. I’m resigning. | How’s it going, Bob? (=how are you?) 3 used as the subject or object of a sentence when the real subject or object is later in the sentence: It costs less to drive than to take the bus. 4 used with the verb “be” to talk about the weather, time, distance, etc.: It’s raining. | It’s only a few miles from here to the beach. 5 used in order to emphasize one piece of information in a sentence: I don’t know who took your book, but it wasn’t me. | It was last year at this time that they went to Australia. 6 used as the subject of the words “seem,” “appear,” “look,” and “happen”: It seemed like she was angry. 7 it’s... used in order to give the name of a person or thing when it is not already known: “What’s that?” “It’s a pen.” | “Who’s on the phone?” “It’s Jill.” 8 used in order to talk about a child or animal when you do not know what sex s/he is: “Marilyn had a baby.” “Is it a boy or girl?” [ORIGIN: Old English hit] → that’s it at THAT¹

i-tal-ian¹ /ɪ'tæljən/ adj. 1 relating to or coming from Italy 2 relating to the Italian language

Italian² n. 1 [U] the language used in Italy 2 [C] someone from Italy

i-tal-ics /ɪ'tælɪks, aɪ-/ n. [plural] a type of printed letters that lean to the right: This example is printed in italics. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin italicus “Italian,” because these letters were introduced by a 16th-century Italian printer, Aldus Manutius] itch¹ /ɪtʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] if part of your body itches, you have an unpleasant feeling on your skin that makes you want to rub it with your nails: My back is itching. 2 be itching to do sth (informal) to want to do something very much, as soon as possible: Ian’s been itching to try out his new bike.

itch² n. [C] 1 an unpleasant feeling on your skin that makes you want to rub it with your nails 2 (informal) a strong desire to do or have something: an itch to do something different itch-y /'ɪtʃi/ adj. (comparative itchier, superlative itchiest) 1 if part of your body is itchy, it feels unpleasant and you want to rub it: My eyes are really itchy. 2 itchy clothes make your skin feel unpleasant and you want to rub it —itchiness n. [U] it’d /'ɪtəd/ 1 the short form of “it would”: It’d be easier if we both did it. 2 the short form of “it had”: It’d been raining since Sunday.

i-tem /'aɪtəm/ [Ac] n. [C] 1 a single thing in a set, group, or list: an item of clothing | There is one more item on the agenda. | household items

THESAURUS

thing, object, article → THING

2 a piece of news in the newspaper or on television: I saw an item about the kidnapping in the paper. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin “in the same way, also” (used to introduce things in a list), from ita “in this way”] i-tem-ize /'aɪtə,maɪz/ v. [T] to write down all of the parts of something in a list —itemized adj.

it-er-a-tive /'ɪtə,reɪtɪv, -rəɪtɪv/ adj. MATH repeating a mathematical process or set of instructions for a computer program until a particular result is achieved: an iterative process

i-tin-er-ant /aɪ'tɪnərənt/ adj. (formal) traveling from place to place: itinerant farm workers

i-tin-er-ar-y /aɪ'tɪnə,ɹəri/ n. (plural itineraries) [C] a plan of a trip, usually including the places you want to see it'll /'ɪtl/ the short form of “it will”: It'll be nice to see Martha again.

it's /ɪts/ 1 the short form of “it is”: It's snowing! 2 the short form of “it has”: It's been snowing all day.

its /ɪts/ possessive adj. belonging or relating to a thing, situation, person, or idea that has been mentioned or is known about: The tree has lost all of its leaves.

it-self /ɪt'self/ pron. 1 the REFLEXIVE form of “it”: The cat was licking itself. 2 in itself only the thing mentioned, and not anything else: We're proud you finished the race. That in itself is an accomplishment.

it-sy-bit-sy /,ɪtsɪ 'bɪtsɪ/ also it-ty-bit-ty /,ɪtɪ 'bɪtɪ/ adj. (informal) very small

IUD n. [C] intrauterine device a small plastic or metal object placed in a woman's UTERUS to prevent her from having a baby

IV n. [C] intravenous medical equipment that is used for putting liquid directly into your body

I've /aɪv/ the short form of “I have”: I've seen you somewhere before.

i-vo-ry /'aɪvəri/ n. [U] 1 the hard smooth yellow-white substance from the TUSK (=long teeth) of an elephant 2 a pale yellow-white color —ivory adj.

i-vy /'aɪvi/ n. [U] a climbing plant with dark green shiny leaves → POISON IVY

Ivy League adj. relating to a small group of old respected colleges in the northeast of the U.S.: an Ivy League graduate —Ivy League n. [singular]

J, j /dʒeɪ/ the tenth letter of the English alphabet jab /dʒæb/ v. (jabbed, jabbing) [I,T] to quickly push something pointed into something else, or toward it: The nurse jabbed a needle into his arm. —jab n. [C] jab-ber /'dʒæbə/ v. [I] to talk quickly, in an excited way, and not very clearly jack¹ /dʒæk/ n. [C] 1 a piece of equipment used for lifting something heavy, such as a car, and supporting it 2 an electronic connection for a telephone or other electronic machine 3 a card used in card games which has a young man's picture on it: the jack of clubs → see picture at PLAYING CARD jack² v.

jack sb/sth ↔ up phr. v. 1 to lift something heavy using a jack: Dad jacked the car up so I could change the tire. 2 (informal) to increase prices, sales, etc. by a large amount: Stores have jacked up their prices since July.

jack-al /'dʒækəl/ n. [C] a wild animal like a dog that lives in Africa and Asia jack-ass /'dʒækəs/ n. [C] 1 (spoken) an impolite word meaning an annoying stupid person 2 a male DONKEY

jack-et /'dʒækɪt/ n. [C] 1 a short light coat: a leather jacket | a rain jacket → see picture at CLOTHES 2 the part of a suit that covers the top part of your body 3 a stiff piece of folded paper that fits over the cover of a book to protect it [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French jaquet, from jaque “short coat”]

jack-ham-mer /'dʒæk,hæmə/ n. [C] a large powerful tool used for breaking hard materials such as the surface of a road jack-in-the-box n. [C] a toy shaped like a box, from which a figure jumps out when the box's lid is lifted jack knife n. [C] a POCKET KNIFE

jack-knife /'dʒæknaɪf/ v. [I] if a truck or train with two or more parts jackknives, the back part swings toward the front part jack-of-all-trades n. [singular] someone who can do many different types of jobs jack-o-lan-tern /'dʒæk ə ,læntən/ n. [C] a PUMPKIN with a face cut into it, usually with a light inside, made at HALLOWEEN jack-pot /'dʒækpət/ n. [C] 1 a very large amount of money that you can win in a game 2 hit the jackpot a) to win a lot of money b) to be very successful or lucky jade /dʒeɪd/ n. [U] a green stone used for making jewelry and ORNAMENTS [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French from early Spanish (piedra de la ijada “(stone of the) lower back”; because it was believed that jade cured pain in the kidneys]

Ja-cuz-zi /dʒə'kuzi/ n. [C] (trademark) a HOT TUB

jad-ed /'dʒeɪdɪd/ adj. not interested in or excited by things, usually because you have seen them or done them too much jag-ged /'dʒægɪd/ adj. having a rough uneven edge with a lot of sharp points: jagged rocks

jag-uar /'dʒægwar/ n. [C] a large wild cat with black spots from Central and South America [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Spanish yaguar and Portuguese jaguar, from Guaraní yaguara and Tupi (South American languages) jaguara] jail /dʒeɪl/ n. [C,U] a place where someone is sent to be punished for a crime [SYN] prison: overcrowded jails | He was in jail for 15 years. | a two-year jail sentence [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French jaiiole, from Latin caveola, from cavea “cage”]

COLLOCATIONS

go to jail: If you commit a crime, you should go to jail.

put sb in jail: I hope they put him in jail and never let him out.

send sb to jail: He has a record of sending even petty criminals to jail.

spend time in jail

release sb from jail: She was released from jail and given parole.

get out of jail: We want to get these men out of jail and into a drug rehabilitation program.

escape from jail: He escaped from jail last year and has been on the run ever since.

end up in jail: I always said he'd end up in jail.

jail² v. [T] to put someone in jail jail-er, jailor /'dʒeɪlə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to guard a prison or prisoners ja-lop-y /dʒə'ləpi/ n. (plural jalopies) [C] (informal) a very old car in bad condition jam¹ /dʒæm/ v. (jammed, jamming) 1 [T] to push someone or something using a lot of force, especially into a small place: Mr. Braithwaite jammed the letters into his pockets and left.

THESAURUS

shove, stick, thrust, cram →

SHOVE

2 [I,T] also jam up if a machine jams up, or if you jam it, it stops working because something is stuck inside it: Every time I try to use the Xerox machine, it jams. 3 [T] to fill a place with a lot of people or things, so that nothing can move: The roads were jammed with cars. 4 [I] to play music for fun with a group of people without practicing first jam² n. 1 [U] a thick sticky sweet substance made from fruit, usually eaten on bread: strawberry jam 2 be in a jam/get into a jam (informal) to be or become involved in a difficult or bad situation: Sarah, I'm in a jam — could you do me a favor? 3 [C] a situation in which something is stuck somewhere: a jam in the fax machine → TRAFFIC JAM jam-b /dʒæm/ n. [C] the side post of a door or window jam-bo-ree /,dʒæmbə'ri/ n. [C] a big noisy party or celebration jammed /dʒæmd/ adj. impossible to move because of being stuck: The stupid door's jammed again.

jam-packed adj. (informal) completely full of people or things: a cereal jam-packed with vitamins jam session n. [C] an occasion when people meet to play music together for fun

Jane Doe /,dʒeɪn 'dou/ n. LAW a name used in legal forms, documents, etc. when a woman's name is not known jan-gle /'dʒæŋɡəl/ v. [I,T] to make a noise that sounds like metal objects hitting against each other: His keys were jangling in his pocket.

jan-i-tor /'dʒænətə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to clean and take care of a large building: the school janitor

Jan-u-ar-y /'dʒænyu,əri/ (written abbreviation Jan.) n. [C,U] the first month of the year, between December and February: Our wedding anniversary is on January 6th. | The baby's due sometime in January. | Mom was 60 last January. | I'm going to visit him next January. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin Januarius, from Janus, ancient Roman god of doors, gates, and new beginnings]

Jap-a-nese¹ /,dʒæpə'nɪz/ adj. 1 relating to or coming from Japan 2 relating to the Japanese language

Japanese² n. 1 [U] the language used in Japan 2 the Japanese [plural] the people of Japan

J

jar¹ /dʒɑr/ n. [C] 1 a round glass container with a lid, used for storing food 2 the amount of food contained in a jar: There's half a jar of peanut butter left. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Old Provençal jarra, from Arabic jarrah “pot for carrying water”]

jar² v. (jarred, jarring) [I,T] 1 to shock someone, especially by making an unpleasant noise: The alarm jarred her awake. 2 to shake or hit something with enough force to damage it or make it become loose: Alice jarred her knee when she jumped off the wall.

jar-gon /'dʒɑrgən/ n. [U] technical words and phrases used by people in a particular profession that are difficult for other people to understand: medical/legal/technical jargon

THE SAURUS language, lingo, slang, terminology → LANGUAGE

jaun-dice /'dʒɔndɪs, 'dʒɑn-/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a medical condition in which your skin and the white part of your eyes become yellow jaun-diced /'dʒɔndɪst, 'dʒɑn-/ adj. 1 tending to judge people, things, or situations in a negative way, often because of your own bad experiences in the past: a jaundiced view of the world 2 suffering from jaundice jaunt /dʒɔnt, dʒant/ n. [C] a short trip for pleasure jaun-ty /'dʒɔnti, 'dʒanti/ adj. showing that you feel confident and cheerful —jauntily adv.

jav-e-lin /'dʒævəlɪn, -vlɪn/ n. 1 [U] a sport in which you throw a SPEAR (=a long pointed stick) as far as you can 2 [C] the stick used in this sport jaw /dʒɔ/ n. 1 [C] one of the two bones that form your mouth and that have all your teeth: a broken jaw → see picture on page A3 2 sb's jaw dropped used in order to say that someone looked very surprised or shocked: Sam's jaw dropped when Katy walked into the room. 3 jaws [plural] the mouth of a person or animal, especially a dangerous animal [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French joe] jay-walk-ing /'dʒeɪwɔkɪŋ/ n. [U] the action of walking across a street in an area that is not marked for walking —jaywalker n. [C]

jazz¹ /dʒæz/ n. [U] 1 a type of popular music that usually has a strong beat and parts for performers to play alone 2 and all that jazz (spoken) and things like that: I'm sick of rules, responsibilities, and all that jazz.

jazz² v.

jazz sth ↔ up phr. v. (informal) to make something more exciting and interesting: You could jazz up that shirt with some accessories.

jazzed /dʒæzd/ adj. (spoken) excited jazz-y /'dʒæzi/ adj. (comparative jazzier, superlative jazziest) 1 bright, colorful, and easily noticed: a jazzy tie 2 similar to the style of jazz music

jeal-ous /'dʒeləs/ adj. 1 feeling angry or unhappy because someone else has a quality, thing, or ability that you wish you had → ENVOUS: Diane was jealous of me because I got better grades. 2 feeling angry or unhappy because someone you love is paying attention to another person, or because another person is showing too much interest in someone you love: It used to make me jealous when he danced with other women. | a jealous husband

jeal-ous-y /'dʒeləsi/ n. [U] the feeling of being jealous jeans /dʒɪnz/ n. [plural] a popular type of pants made from DENIM: a pair of jeans [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 jean “strong cotton cloth” (15—21 centuries), from Gene, early form of the name Genoa, Italian city where the cloth was first made] → see picture at CLOTHES

Jeep /dʒɪp/ n. [C] (trademark) a type of car made to travel over rough ground jeer /dʒɪr/ v. [I,T] to shout, speak, or laugh in order to annoy or frighten someone you dislike: The crowd jeered at the speaker. —jeer n. [C] jeez /dʒɪz/ interjection said in order to express sudden feelings such as surprise, anger, or shock

Je-ho-vah /dʒɪ'hoʊvə/ n. a name for God in the OLD TESTAMENT (=first part of the Bible)

Je-hovah's 'Witness n. [C] a member of a religious organization that believes the end of the world will happen soon and sends its members to people's houses to try to persuade them to join je-june /dʒɪ'dʒʊn/ adj. (formal) 1 ideas and behavior that are jejune are too simple or childish: jejune philosophical ideals 2 writing or speech that is jejune is boring because it does not have any interesting details or humor jell /dʒel/ v. [I] another spelling of GEL²

Jell-O, jello /'dʒeləʊ/ n. [U] (trademark) a soft solid substance made from GELATIN and sweet fruit juice

jel-ly /'dʒeli/ n. [U] a thick sticky sweet substance made from fruit but having no pieces of fruit in it, usually eaten on bread: a peanut butter and jelly sandwich [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French gelee, from geler “to freeze,” from Latin gelare] jel-ly-fish /'dʒeli,fɪʃ/ n. [C] a round transparent sea animal with long things that hang down from its body jeop-ard-ize /'dʒepəˌdaɪz/ v. [T] to risk losing or destroying something that is valuable or important: Junot was too worried about jeopardizing his career to say anything.

jeop-ard-y /'dʒepəˌdi/ n. in jeopardy in danger of being lost or destroyed: My job is in jeopardy. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Anglo-French juparti, from Old French jeu parti “divided game, uncertainty”] jerk¹ /dʒək/ v. 1 [I,T] to move with a quick movement, or to make something move this way: He jerked his head around to see her. 2 [I,T] to pull something suddenly and quickly: Tom jerked open the door.

jerk sb around phr. v. (informal) to waste someone's time or deliberately make things difficult for him/her: Don't jerk me around.

jerk² n. [C] 1 (informal) someone, especially a man, who is stupid or who does things that annoy or hurt other people: What a jerk! 2 a quick movement, especially a pulling movement: He pulled the cord with a jerk. —jerky adj.

jerk-y /'dʒəki/ n. [U] pieces of dried meat, usually with a salty or SPICY taste jer-sey /'dʒəzi/ n. (plural jerseys) [C] a shirt worn as part of a sports uniform jest /dʒest/ n. in jest intending to be funny: The comment was made in jest.

jest-er /'dʒestə/ n. [C] a man employed in past times to entertain important people with jokes, stories, etc.

Je-sus /'dʒizəs/ also Jesus 'Christ n. the man who Christians believe to be the son of God, and whose life and TEACHING Christianity is based on jet¹ /dʒet/ n. [C] 1 a fast airplane with a jet engine 2 a narrow stream of liquid or gas that comes quickly out of a small hole, or the hole itself: a strong jet of water jet² v. (jettied, jetting) [I] (informal) to travel in an airplane: He jettied off to Paris yesterday.

jet 'engine n. [C] an engine that forces out a stream of hot air and gases, used in airplanes

'jet lag n. [U] the feeling of being very tired after traveling a long distance in an airplane —jet-lagged adj.

jet-pro'pelled adj. using a jet engine for power —jet propulsion n. [U]

'jet set n. [singular] rich and fashionable people who travel a lot —jet setter n. [C] jet-ti-son /'dʒetəsən, -zən/ v. [T] 1 to get rid of someone or something, or decide not to use him/her anymore: They're not likely to jettison their star player just because he's injured. 2 to throw things away, especially from a moving airplane or ship jet-ty /'dʒeti/ n. (plural jetties) [C] 1 a wide wall built out into the water, as protection against large waves 2 a WHARF jew-el /'dʒuəl/ n. 1 [C] a small valuable stone, such as a DIAMOND 2 jewels [plural] jewelry [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French juel, from jeu "game, play"] jew-eled /'dʒuəld/ adj. decorated with valuable stones jew-el-er /'dʒuələ/ n. [C] someone who buys, sells, makes, or repairs jewelry jew-el-ry /'dʒuəlri/ n. [U] small decorations you wear that are usually made from gold, silver, and jewels, such as rings and NECKLACES

Jew-ish /'dʒuɪʃ/ adj. relating to Judaism —Jew n. [C]

jibe¹ /dʒaɪb/ n. [C] another spelling of GIBE jibe² v. [I] if two statements, actions, etc. jibe with each other, they agree or make sense together: Your statement to the police does not jibe with the facts.

jif-fy /'dʒɪfi/ n. (spoken) in a jiffy very soon: I'll be back in a jiffy.

jig /dʒɪg/ n. [C] a type of quick dance, or the music for this dance jig-ger /'dʒɪgə/ n. [C] a unit for measuring alcohol, equal to 1.5 OUNCES jig-gle /'dʒɪgəl/ v. [I,T] to move from side to side with short quick movements, or to make something do this jig-saw puz-zle /'dʒɪgsɔʊ, ˌpʌzəl/ n. [C] a picture cut up into many small pieces that you try to fit together for fun ji-had /dʒɪ'hɑd/ n. [C] SOCIAL SCIENCE a holy struggle to defend the Muslim faith against people, organizations, governments, etc. who are believed to be against Islam jilt /dʒɪlt/ v. [T] to suddenly end a relationship with someone: His girlfriend jilted him. —jilted adj.

Jim Crow /ˌdʒɪm 'kroʊ/ n. HISTORY a system of laws and practices used in the U.S. until the 1960s, that treated African-American people unfairly and separated them from white people → SEGREGATION: One Jim Crow law said that separate railroad cars had to be provided for white and black passengers.

jin-gle¹ /'dʒɪŋɡəl/ v. [I,T] to shake small metal objects together so that they produce a noise, or to make this noise: He jingled his keys in his pocket.

jingle² n. 1 [C] a short song used in television and radio advertisements 2 [singular] the sound made by metal objects touching together jinx¹ /dʒɪŋks/ n. [singular] someone or something that brings bad luck, or a period of bad luck that results from this jinx² /dʒɪŋkst/ v. [I,T] to make someone have bad luck: I don't want to talk about winning — I'm afraid I'll jinx myself. —jinxed adj.

jit-ters /'dʒɪtəz/ n. the jitters the feeling of being nervous and anxious, especially before an important event: I always get the jitters before I go on stage.

jit-ter-y /'dʒɪtəri/ adj. worried and nervous: The recession has made consumers jittery.

jive¹ /dʒaɪv/ v. 1 sth doesn't jive (with sth) (informal) to seem so strange or unusual that something does not make sense: The newspaper report doesn't jive with the story on TV. 2 [T] (slang) to try to make someone believe something that is not true: You're jiving me!

jive² n. 1 [C,U] a very fast type of dance, often performed to fast JAZZ music 2 [U] (slang) statements that you do not believe are true: Don't you go giving me any of that jive!

job /dʒəb/ [Ac] n. [C]

1 WORK work that you do regularly in order to earn money: She applied for a job at the bank. | a part-time/full-time job | Suzy got a job as a legal secretary. | He quit/left his job so he could go back to school. | I lost my job last week. | It is not your age which is important; it is your ability to do the job.

THESAURUS

Your job is the particular work you do regularly to earn money.

Work is used in a more general way to talk about employment or the activities involved in it: I started work when I was 18.

Employment is a slightly formal word for any work that you do to earn money: He's been looking for employment for six months.

Position or post are more formal words for a job in a particular organization: How long have you been in your current position?

Occupation is used mainly on official forms to mean your job: Please give your name, age, and occupation.

A profession is a job for which you need special education and training: the legal profession

Your career is the work you do for most of your life: I'm interested in a career in journalism.

A vocation is a feeling that the purpose of your life is to do a particular job, or the job itself: I accepted that nursing was both my job and my vocation. → WORK²

USAGE

Do not say "What is your job?" or "What is your work?" Say "What do you do?" or "What kind of work do you do?"

2 on the job while doing work or at work: Our reporters are on the job now. | All our employees get on-the-job training.

3 DUTY a particular duty or responsibility that you have: It's my job to take care of my little brother. | Robots can carry out a wide variety of jobs in factories.

4 IMPROVE STH something you do to fix or improve something: The car needs a paint job. | a nose job (=an operation to change the shape of your nose)

5 STH YOU MUST DO a piece of work you must do, usually without being paid: I have a lot of odd jobs (=different things) to do on Saturday.

6 do a good/great/bad etc. job to do something well or badly

7 Good job! (spoken) used to tell someone that s/he has done something well

8 KIND OF THING also jobby (spoken) used in order to say that something is of a particular type: His new computer's one of those little portable jobs.

9 do the job (informal) to make something have the result that you want or need: A little more glue should do the job.

10 CRIME (informal) a crime such as robbing a bank

11 COMPUTER an action done by a computer: a print job jock /dʒək/ n. [C] (informal) a student who plays a lot of sports jockey¹ /'dʒəki/ n. (plural jockeys) [C] someone who rides horses in races jockey² v. jockey for position to try to be in the best position or situation jock-strap /'dʒəkstræp/ n. [C] underwear that men wear to support their sex organs when playing sports joc-u-lar /'dʒəkyələ/ adj. (formal) joking or humorous —jocularity /,dʒəkyə'lærəti/ n. [U]

jog¹ /dʒəg/ v. (jogged, jogging) 1 [I] to run slowly and in a steady way, especially for exercise: Julie jogs every morning. → see picture on page A9

2 jog sb's memory to make someone remember something: This picture might jog your memory. 3 [T] to knock or push something lightly by mistake: Someone jogged my elbow and I dropped the plate.

jog² n. [singular] a slow steady run, especially for exercise: Let's go for a jog.

jog-ging /'dʒəgɪŋ/ n. [U] the activity of running as a way of exercising: We went jogging in Central Park. → EXERCISE² —jogger n. [C]

john /dʒən/ n. [C] (spoken, informal) a toilet

John 'Doe n. LAW a name used in legal forms, documents, etc. when a man's name is not known join /dʒɔɪn/ v. 1 [I,T] to become a member of an organization, society, or group: Mary joined the gym last month. | It doesn't cost anything to join. 2 [T] also join in to begin to take part in an activity that other people are involved in: Joining a political campaign is a great experience. 3 [I,T] to do something together with someone else: Why don't you join us for dinner? | Please join with me in welcoming tonight's speaker. 4 [I,T] to connect or fasten things together, or to be connected: the place where the two roads join

THESAURUS

fasten, attach, secure, glue, tape, staple, clip, tie, button (up), zip (up) → FASTEN

5 join hands if two or more people join hands, they hold each other's hands [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French joindre, from Latin ungere]

joint¹ /dʒɔɪnt/ adj. 1 involving two or more people, or owned or shared by them: They have to reach a joint decision. | a joint bank account | "Who cooked dinner?" "It was a joint effort (=we did it together)." 2 joint resolution POLITICS a decision or law agreed by both houses of the U.S. Congress and signed by the President —jointly adv. The company is jointly owned by Time Warner and Disney.

joint² n. [C] 1 a part of the body where two bones meet, that can bend: the knee joint 2 (slang) a place, especially a BAR, club, or restaurant: a fast-food joint 3 (slang) a MARIJUANA cigarette 4 a place where two things or parts of an object are joined together: One of the pipe joints was leaking. 5 out of joint a bone that is out of joint has been pushed out of its correct position joint 'venture n. [C] a business arrangement in which two or more companies work together to achieve something joke¹ /dʒoʊk/ n. [C] 1 something funny that you say or do to make people laugh: Let me tell you a joke.

COLLOCATIONS

inside joke – a joke that only a few people with knowledge about a particular subject or event will understand running joke – a joke that continues or is repeated over a long period of time practical joke – a trick that is intended to surprise someone or make other people laugh at him/her dirty joke – a joke that is about sex sick joke – a joke that is very cruel or disgusting

THESAURUS

gag – a short joke, especially one told by a professional entertainer: His first job was writing gags for radio comedians.

wisecrack – a quick, funny, and often slightly unkind remark: She made the other kids laugh with her jokes and wisecracks.

one-liner – a very short joke: The play is full of hilarious one-liners.

quip (formal) – an amusing remark: She was always ready with a quip or funny story.

witticism (formal) – a smart and amusing remark: He is known for his witticisms.

pun – an amusing use of a word or phrase that has two meanings, or of words with the same sound but different meanings: The band is called Esso Es, a pun that to English-speakers sounds like a call for help, but in Spanish means "That's what it is."

funny story – a short story that is told to make people laugh: He was telling funny stories about his college days.

2 (informal) a situation that is so silly or unreasonable that it makes you angry: What a joke that meeting was. 3 take a joke to be able to laugh at a joke about yourself: Come on – can't you take a joke? [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin jocus]

joke² v. [I] to say things that are intended to be funny: Owen's always joking about something. | Davis was joking with reporters. —jokingly adv.

jok-er /'dʒoʊkə/ n. [C] someone who makes a lot of jokes jol-ly /'dʒɒli/ adj. (comparative jollier, superlative jolliest) happy and cheerful jolt¹ /dʒoʊlt/ n. [C] 1 a sudden shock: a jolt of electricity | Being fired came as quite a jolt to her. 2 a sudden rough or violent movement: We felt a big jolt, and then the room started shaking.

jolt² v. 1 [I,T] to move suddenly and roughly, or to make someone or something do this: The earthquake jolted southern California. 2 [T] to give someone a sudden shock: Companies have been jolted by the tax changes.

jost-ile /'dʒɒsəl/ v. [I,T] to push or knock against someone in a crowd: Spectators jostled for a better view.

jot /dʒɒt/ v. (jotted, jotting) jot sth ↔ down phr. v. to write something quickly: She jotted down some ideas for her essay.

joule /dʒuːl, dʒaʊl/ n. [C] PHYSICS (written abbreviation J) a unit of energy equal to the amount of energy used to move something one meter against a force of one NEWTON [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 James Joule (1818–89), English scientist] jour-nal /'dʒɜːnl/ [Ac] n. [C] 1 a written record that you make of the things that happen to you each day

THESAURUS

record, diary, log (book) → RECORD¹

2 a magazine or newspaper for people who are interested in a particular subject: The Wall Street Journal | The report was published in a medical journal. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French journal “daily,” from Latin diurnalis, from diurnus “of the day”]

jour-nal-is-m /'dʒɜːnlɪzəm/ n. [U] the job or activity of writing reports for newspapers, magazines, television, or radio jour-nal-ist /'dʒɜːnlɪst/ n. [C] someone who writes reports for newspapers, magazines, television, or radio → NEWSPAPER jour-ne-y /'dʒɜːni/ n. [C] a trip from one place to another, especially over a long distance: a long journey to El Salvador | our journey across the United States [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French ournée “day’s journey,” from jour “day,” from Latin diurnus]

THESAURUS

travel, trip, voyage, tour, expedition, pilgrimage → TRAVEL² jo-vi-al /'dʒoʊviəl/ adj. friendly and cheerful: a jovial face [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French, Late Latin jovialis “of the god Jove or Jupiter;” because people born under the influence of the planet Jupiter were thought likely to be happy] jowls /dʒɒʊlz/ n. [plural] loose skin on someone’s lower jaw joy /dʒɔɪ/ n. [C,U] great happiness and pleasure, or something that gives you this feeling: She laughed with joy at the news. | I almost jumped for joy (=I was very happy). [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French joie, from Latin gaudia] joy-ful /'dʒɔɪfəl/ adj. very happy, or likely to make people very happy: joyful laughter —joyfully adv.

joy-ous /'dʒɔɪəs/ adj. (literary) full of happiness,

J

or likely to make people happy: a joyous song —joyously adv.

joy-ride /'dʒɔɪraɪd/ n. [C] a fast dangerous drive in a car, often after someone has stolen it for fun —joyriding n. [U] —joyrider n. [C]

joy-stick /'dʒɔɪstɪk/ n. [C] a handle that you use in order to control something such as an aircraft or a computer game → see picture on page A6

JPEG /'dʒeɪ pɛɡ/ n. [C] Joint Photograph Experts Group a type of computer FILE that contains pictures, photographs, or other images
→ MPEG

Jr. the written abbreviation of JUNIOR ju-bi-lant /'dʒubələnt/ adj. extremely happy and pleased because you have been successful —jubilant /'dʒubə'leɪʃən/ n. [U]

THESAURUS happy, glad, delighted, thrilled, overjoyed, ecstatic, elated → HAPPY

Ju-da-ism /'dʒʊdɪzəm, -deɪ-, -də-/ n. [U] the Jewish religion based on the Old Testament, the Talmud, and later TEACHINGS of the RABBIS

Ju-de-o-Christ-ian /dʒu,deɪəʊ 'krɪstʃən/ adj. [only before noun] SOCIAL SCIENCE relating to the ideas and values that Jewish and Christian people share because of the relationship of their religions: the morals taught within the Judeo-Christian tradition

judge¹ /dʒʌdʒ/ n. [C] 1 the official in control of a court who decides how criminals should be punished → COURT¹ 2 someone who decides on the result of a competition: a panel of judges at the Olympics 3 a good/bad etc. judge of sth someone who is usually right or wrong about something: a good judge of character

judge² v. 1 [I,T] to form or give an opinion about someone or something after thinking about all the information: Employees should be judged on the quality of their work. | Judging by her clothes, I'd say she's rich.

THESAURUS

evaluate (formal) – to judge how good, useful, or successful someone or something is: The survey was meant to evaluate customer satisfaction.

assess – to judge a person or situation after thinking carefully about it: Psychologists will assess the child's behavior.

appraise – to judge how valuable, effective, or successful someone or something is: The company regularly appraises the performance of its employees.

gauge – to judge what someone is likely to do or how s/he feels: It can be difficult to gauge students' understanding.

2 [T] to decide in court whether someone is guilty of a crime 3 [I,T] to decide the result in a competition: Kim and I will be judging the writing competition. 4 [I,T] to form an opinion about someone in an unfair or criticizing way: I just want Mom to stop judging me.

judg-ment /'dʒʌdʒmənt/ n. 1 [C,U] an opinion that you form after thinking about something: It's still too early to make a judgment about the quality of her work. | In my judgment (=in my opinion), John is the best candidate. 2 [U] the ability to make decisions about situations or people: good/bad/poor judgment | I trust your judgment. 3 [C,U] an official decision given by a judge or a court of law 4 judgment call a decision you have to make yourself because there are no fixed rules in a situation

judg-ment-al /dʒʌdʒ'məntl/ adj. (disapproving) too quick to form opinions and criticize other people

'Judgment Day n. a time after death when everyone is judged by God, according to some religions ju-di-cial /dʒu'dɪʃəl/ adj. relating to a court of law, judges, etc.: the judicial system ju,dicial 'branch n. [singular] POLITICS the part of a government that decides whether laws are good and whether people have disobeyed these laws ju,dicial re'view n. [U] LAW a process in which a court decides if a law, another court's decision, or an official action is right or CONSTITUTIONAL ju-di-ci-ar-y /dʒu'dɪʃɪəri, -fəri/ n. the judiciary (formal) all the judges in a country who, as a group, form part of the system of government [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin judiciarius, from judicium] ju-di-cious /dʒu'dɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) sensible and careful: a judicious use of money ju-do /'dʒʊdʊ/ n. [U] a Japanese method of defending yourself, in which you try to throw your opponent onto the ground, usually done as a sport [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 a Japanese word meaning “gentle way”] jug /dʒʌɡ/ n. [C] a large deep container for liquids that has a narrow opening and a handle jug-gle /'dʒʌɡəl/

v. 1 [I,T] to keep three or more objects moving through the air by throwing and catching them very quickly 2 [T] to try to fit two or more jobs, activities, etc. into your life: It's hard trying to juggle work and children. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 juggler (11–21 centuries), from Old French jogleour, from Latin joculari “to make fun”] —juggler n. [C] jug-u-lar /'dʒʌɡjələ/ n. [C] 1 go for the jugular (informal) to criticize or attack someone very strongly 2 BIOLOGY the large VEIN in your neck that takes blood from your head to your heart juice /dʒʊs/ n. 1 [C,U] the liquid that comes from fruit and vegetables, or a drink made from this: a glass of orange juice 2 [U] the liquid that comes out of meat when it is cooked [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French jus, from Latin] juic-y /'dʒʊsi/ adj. (comparative juicier, superlative juiciest) 1 containing a lot of juice: a juicy peach 2 juicy gossip/details (informal) interesting or shocking information —juiciness n. [U]

juke box /'dʒʊk bɒks/ n. [C] a machine in BARS, restaurants, etc. that plays music when you put money in it

Ju-ly /dʒʊ'laɪ, dʒə-/ (written abbreviation Jul.) n. [C,U] the seventh month of the year, between June and August: The package arrived on July 3rd. | Henry started working here in July. | We're getting married next July. | I haven't heard from him since last July. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Latin Julius, from Gaius Julius Caesar who was born in this month]

jum-ble /'dʒʌmbəl/ n. [singular] a messy mixture of things: a jumble of papers —jumble v. [T] jum-bo /'dʒʌmbəʊ/ adj. (informal) larger than other things of the same type: a jumbo jet jump¹ /dʒʌmp/ v.

1 UP [I,T] to push yourself suddenly up in the air using your legs, or to go across or over something by doing this: A fan tried to jump onto the stage. | Lyle was jumping up and down (=jumping many times) and waving his arms.

THESAURUS

skip – to move forward with little jumps between your steps hop – to move around by jumping on one leg leap – to jump high into the air or over something spring – to jump or move suddenly and quickly in a particular direction hurdle – to jump over something while you are running dive – to jump into water with your head and arms first vault – to jump over something in one movement, using your hands or a pole to help you

2 DOWN [I] to let yourself drop from a place that is above the ground: During the fire, two people jumped out of a window.

3 MOVE FAST [I] to move quickly or suddenly in a particular direction: Paul jumped up to answer the door.

4 IN SURPRISE/FEAR [I] to make a sudden movement because you are surprised or frightened: The sudden ring of the telephone made us jump.

5 INCREASE [I] if a number or amount jumps, it increases suddenly and by a large amount: Profits jumped 20% last month.

6 jump down sb's throat (informal) to suddenly speak angrily to someone: All I did was ask a question, and he jumped down my throat!

7 jump to conclusions to form an opinion about something before you have all the facts

8 jump the gun to start doing something too soon, especially without thinking about it carefully: I know you wanted to tell Bill the news yourself, but I'm afraid I jumped the gun.

jump at sth phr. v.

to eagerly accept the chance to do something: Ruth jumped at the chance to study at Harvard.

jump on sb phr. v. (informal) to criticize or punish someone, especially unfairly: Dad jumps on Jeff for every little mistake.

jump² n. [C] 1 an act of pushing yourself suddenly up into the air using your legs 2 an act of letting yourself drop from a place that is above the ground: a parachute jump 3 a sudden large increase in an amount or value: a jump in prices 4 get a jump on sth (informal) to gain an advantage by doing something earlier than usual or earlier than someone else: I want to get a jump on my Christmas shopping.

J

'jump drive n. [C] IT a USB DRIVE

'jump-er /'dʒʌmpə/ n. [C] 1 a dress without SLEEVES, usually worn over a shirt 2 a person or animal that jumps

'jumper cables n. [plural] thick wires used to connect the batteries (BATTERY) of two cars, in order to start one car that has lost power

'jump rope n. [C] a long piece of rope that you pass over your head and under your feet as you jump, either as a game or for exercise —jump rope v. [I] → see picture at JUMP

'jump-start v. [T] 1 to help a process or activity start or become more successful: The government has made efforts to jump-start the economy. 2 to start a car whose BATTERY has lost power by connecting it to another BATTERY jump-suit /'dʒʌmpsuːt/ n. [C] a single piece of clothing like a shirt attached to a pair of pants, worn especially by women jump-y /'dʒʌmpi/ adj. worried or excited because you are expecting something bad to happen junc-tion /ˈdʒʌŋkʃən/ n. [C] a place where one road, track, etc. meets another: a railroad junction

junc-ture /ˈdʒʌŋktʃə/ n. at this juncture (spoken, formal) at this point in an activity or time

June /dʒʊn/ (written abbreviation Jun.) n. [C,U] the sixth month of the year, between May and July: Can you come to our party on June 24th? | Janet was born in June. | The movie will be released next June. | I graduated last June. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 French juin, from Latin Junius] jun-gle /ˈdʒʌŋɡəl/ n. [C,U] a thick tropical forest with many large plants that grow very close together [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Hindi jāngal “forest,” from Sanskrit jāngala]

Jun-ior /ˈdʒʊniə/ adj. (written abbreviation Jr.) used after the name of a man who has the same name as his father → SENIOR junior¹ n. [C] 1 a student in the third year of HIGH SCHOOL or college → STUDENT 2 be two/five/ten etc. years sb's junior to be two, five, etc. years younger than someone else junior² adj. [only before noun] younger, less experienced, or of a lower rank (ANT) senior: the junior senator from Georgia → POSITION¹ junior college n. [C,U] a college where students can study for two years (SYN) community college junior high school also junior high n. [C,U] a school in the U.S. and Canada for students who are between 12 and 14 or 15 years old → MIDDLE SCHOOL, HIGH SCHOOL junk /dʒʌŋk/ n. [U] old or unwanted things that have no use or value: an attic filled with junk jun-ket /ˈdʒʌŋkɪt/ n. [C] (disapproving) an unnecessary trip made by a public official that is paid for by government money junk food n. [U] (informal) food that is not healthy because it has a lot of fat or sugar junk-ie /ˈdʒʌŋki/ n. [C] 1 (informal) someone who takes dangerous drugs and is dependent on them 2 (humorous) someone who likes something so much that s/he seems to need it: a political junkie

'junk mail n. [U] mail that advertisers send to people who do not want it

THESAURUS advertisement, flier, spam → ADVERTISEMENT junk-yard /ˈdʒʌŋkˌjɑrd/ n. [C] a business that buys old cars, broken furniture, etc. and sells the parts of them that can be used again, or the place where this business keeps these things jun-ta /ˈhʊntə, ˈdʒʌntə/ n. [C] a military government that has gained power by using force

Ju-pi-ter /ˈdʒʊpɪtə/ n. PHYSICS the largest PLANET, which is fifth from the Sun → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM

jur-is-dic-tion /ˌdʒʊrɪsˈdɪkʃən/ n. [U] LAW the right to use an official power to make legal decisions, or the area where this right exists: a matter outside the court's jurisdiction

jur-is-pru-dence /ˌdʒʊrɪsˈprʊdnəs/ n. [U] LAW the science or study of law ju-ror /ˈdʒʊrə/ n. [C] a member of a jury ju-ry /ˈdʒʊri/ n. (plural juries) [C] 1 LAW a group of 12 people who listen to details of a case in court and decide whether someone is guilty or not → GRAND JURY → COURT¹ 2 a group of people chosen to judge a competition

'jury duty n. [U] a period of time during which you must be ready to be part of a jury if necessary

just¹ /dʒʌst/ adv. 1 exactly: My brother looks just like my dad. | The temperature was just right. | The $250 TV is just as good as the $300 one. | Just then Mr. Struthers walked in. 2 only: He was just a little boy when his mother died. | Don't be upset – I was just joking. | Can you wait five minutes? I just have to iron this. 3 if something has just happened, it happened only a short time ago: I just got back from Marilyn's house.

THESAURUS recently, a little/short while ago, lately → RECENTLY

4 just about almost: She calls her mother just about every day. | I'm just about finished. 5 be just about to do sth to be going to do something soon: I was just about to call you. 6 just before/after only a short time before or after something else: Theresa got home just before us. 7 just (barely) if something just happens, it does happen, but it almost did not: Kurt just barely made it home before the storm.

SPOKEN PHRASES

8 used when politely asking or telling someone something: Could/Can I just use your phone for a minute? 9 just a minute/second/moment used in order to ask someone to wait for a short time while you do something: Just a second – I'm getting dressed. 10 used in order to emphasize something that you are saying: The young woman just kept getting angrier and angrier. | Just be quiet, will you? 11 it's just that used in order to explain the reason for something when someone thinks there is a different reason: Boulder is nice, it's just that I don't know anybody there. 12 just now a moment ago, or at this time: He just now walked in the front door. 13 I would just as soon do sth if you would just as soon do something, you are saying in a polite way that you would prefer to do it: I'd just as soon go with you, if that's okay. 14 it's just as well said when it is lucky that something has happened in the way it did because, if not, there may have been problems: It's just as well Scott didn't go to the party, because Lisa was there. 15 just because ... (it) doesn't mean ... used to say that although one thing is true, another thing is not necessarily true: Just because you're older than me doesn't mean you can tell me what to do!

[ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French juste, from Latin justus, from jus “right, law”]

just² adj. morally right and fair (ANT) unjust: a just punishment

THESAURUS fair, equitable, balanced, even-handed, impartial, unbiased → FAIR¹

jus-tice /ˈdʒʌstɪs/ n. 1 [U] fairness in the way people are treated (ANT) injustice: If there were any justice in the world, teachers would earn more than athletes. 2 [U] the system by which people are judged in courts of law and criminals are punished: the criminal justice system 3 [C] a judge in a court of law 4 do sb/sth justice also do justice to sb/sth to treat or represent someone or something in a way that is fair and shows his, her, or its best qualities: This picture doesn't do you justice. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French, Latin justitia, from justus, from jus “right, law”]

Justice of the 'Peace n. [C] LAW someone who judges less serious cases in small courts of law and can perform marriage ceremonies jus-ti-fi-a-ble /ˌdʒʌstɪˈfaɪəbəl/ (Ac) adj. an action, decision, etc. that is justifiable is reasonable because it is done for good reasons: The students take justifiable pride in what they have accomplished. —justifiably adv.

jus-ti-fi-ca-tion /ˌdʒʌstɪˈfeɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] a good and acceptable reason for doing something: There is no justification for terrorism. | They argued, with some justification, that the law was unconstitutional.

jus-ti-fied /ˌdʒʌstɪˈfaɪd/ (Ac) adj. having an acceptable explanation or reason: Your complaints are certainly justified. | Violence can never be justified under any circumstances.

jus-ti-fy /ˌdʒʌstɪˈfaɪ/ (Ac) v. (justified, justifies) [T] to give an acceptable explanation for something that other people think is unreasonable: How can you justify spending so much money on a coat? | People sometimes try to justify stealing on grounds of poverty. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French justifier, from Late Latin justificare, from Latin justus, from jus “right, law”] jut /dʒʌt/ v. (juttied, jutting) [I] also jut out to stick up or out farther than the other things in the same area: The land juts out into the ocean at that point.

ju-ve-nile /ˈdʒʊvənəl, -ˌnaɪl/ adj. 1 LAW relating to young people who are not yet adults: juvenile crime 2 typical of a child, rather than an adult (SYN) childish: a juvenile sense of humor

THESAURUS child, kid, teenager, adolescent, youngster, minor → CHILD

—juvenile n. [C]

juvenile de'linquent n. [C] a child or young person who behaves in a criminal way —juvenile delinquency n. [U]

jux-ta-pose /ˈdʒʌkstəˌpəʊz, ˌdʒʌkstəˈpəʊz/ v. [T] (formal) to put things together, especially things that are not normally together, in order to compare them or make something new: His art is made of photos juxtaposed with painted and drawn images. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 from French juxtaposer, from Latin juxta “near” + French poser “to put”] —juxtaposition /ˌdʒʌkstəpəˈzɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

Kk

K, k /keɪ/ the 11th letter of the English alphabet

K /keɪ/ 1 PHYSICS an abbreviation of Kelvin (=a measurement of temperature) 2 (informal) an abbreviation of 1,000, especially 1,000 dollars: He earns $50K a year.

k /keɪ/ 1 IT an abbreviation of KILOBYTE (=a measurement of computer information) 2 an abbreviation of KILOMETER: a 10k race ka-lei-do-scope /kəˈleɪdəˌskoʊp/ n. [C] a tube with mirrors and pieces of colored glass at one end that shows colored patterns when you look into the tube and turn it [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Greek kalos “beautiful” + eidōs “form” + English -scope (as in telescope)] kan-ga-roo /ˌkæŋɡəˈruː/ n. (plural kangaroos) [C] an Australian animal that has strong back legs for jumping and carries its babies in a pocket of skin on its stomach → see picture at MARSUPIAL ka-put /kəˈpʊt/ adj. (spoken) broken: The TV went kaput right during the game. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 German, French capot “having lost in a card game”]

kar-at /ˈkærət/ n. [C] a unit for measuring how pure a piece of gold is: Pure gold is 24 karats.

ka-ra-te /kəˈrɑːti/ n. [U] a Japanese fighting sport in which you use your hands and feet to hit and kick [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 a Japanese word meaning “empty hand”] kar-ma /ˈkɑːmə/ n. [U] 1 (informal) the feeling you get from a person, place, or action: This house has a lot of good/bad karma. 2 the force that is produced by the things you do in your life and that will influence you in the future, according to some religions [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 a Sanskrit word meaning “work”] kay-ak /ˈkaɪæk/ n. [C] a type of boat, usually for one person, that has a hole for that person to sit in, and that is moved using a PADDLE [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Inuit qajaq] kay-ak-ing /ˈkaɪækɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of making a kayak move through water using an OAR → see picture on page A4

K

kcal PHYSICS a written abbreviation of KILOCALORIE

ke-bab /kə'bab/ n. [C] SHISH KEBAB keel¹ /kiːl/ n. stay/remain on an even keel also keep an even keel to continue doing the things you always do, or feeling the way you always feel, without any sudden changes keel² v.

keel over phr. v. to fall over sideways: Rob looked as if he were ready to keel over.

keen /kin/ adj. 1 very interested in something, or eager to do it: Most people are keen to do a job well. | I was never very keen on science. 2 a keen sense of smell, sight, or hearing is an extremely good ability to smell, etc. 3 (formal) intelligent and quick to understand things: a keen mind —keenly adv.

keep¹ /kip/ v. (past tense and past participle kept /kept/)

1 NOT GIVE BACK [T] to have something and not give it back to the person who had it before: You can keep that sweater – it's too small for me.

2 NOT LOSE [T] to continue to have something and not lose it or get rid of it: They're keeping the house in Colorado and selling this one. | I've kept her photograph all these years.

3 NOT CHANGE/MOVE [linking verb] to continue to be in a particular condition or place and not change or move (SYN stay): This blanket should help you keep warm. | Keep still so I can cut your hair.

4 MAKE SB/STH NOT CHANGE OR MOVE [T] to make someone or something continue to be in a particular state, situation, or place: They kept him in jail for two weeks. | It's hard to keep the house clean with three kids. | Her son kept her waiting for an hour. | I don't know what's keeping her. It's 8:00 already. | Keep those kids out of my yard!

5 keep (on) doing sth to continue doing something, or repeat an action many times: If he keeps on growing like this, he'll be taller than Dad soon. | Keep driving – I'll tell you when we're almost there.

6 STORE STH [T] to leave something in one particular place so that you can find it easily: I keep my keys in the top drawer of my dresser.

THESAURUS

store – to put things away and keep them there until you need them: Canned goods can be stored at room temperature.

save – to keep something so that you can use or enjoy it in the future: I'm saving this bottle of champagne for a special occasion.

reserve – to keep something separate so that it can be used for a particular purpose: These seats are reserved for people with tickets.

file – to store papers or information in a particular order or a particular place: All the contracts are filed alphabetically.

collect – to get and keep objects of the same type because you think they are attractive or interesting: Kate collects old postcards.

hoard – to collect things in large amounts and keep them, especially in a secret place: The peasants hoarded rice and then sold it on the black markets.

7 keep a record/diary etc. to regularly write down information in a particular place: She's kept a diary since she was 13.

8 keep going (spoken) used to encourage someone who is doing something and to tell them to continue: Keep going, you're doing fine.

9 keep your promise/word to do what you have promised to do: The President kept his promise to appoint more women to his cabinet.

10 keep sth quiet/keep quiet about sth to not say anything in order to avoid complaining, telling a secret, or causing problems: I'll tell you what happened, but you have to keep it quiet.

11 keep sb posted to continue to tell someone the most recent news about someone or something: Keep me posted – I'd like to know about any changes.

12 FOOD [I] if food keeps, it stays fresh enough to still be eaten: How long do you think this milk will keep? [ORIGIN: Old English cepan] keep at sth phr. v.

to continue working hard at something: Just keep at it until you get it right.

keep (sb/sth ↔) away phr. v.

to avoid going somewhere or seeing someone, or to make someone or something do this: Keep away from the fire. | Mom kept us away from school for a week.

keep sth ↔ down phr. v.

1 to control something in order to prevent it from increasing: They promised to keep the rents down.

2 keep it down (spoken) said when you want someone to be quieter: Keep it down! I'm on the phone.

3 to succeed in keeping food in your stomach without VOMITING: I haven't been able to keep anything down all day.

keep from phr. v.

1 keep sth from sb to not tell someone something that you know: He kept Angie's death from his family for three days.

2 keep (sb/sth) from doing sth to prevent someone from doing something or prevent something from happening: She had to cover her mouth to keep from laughing. | Put foil over the pie to keep it from burning.

keep sth off phr. v.

to prevent something from affecting or damaging something else: Wear a hat to keep the sun off your head.

keep out phr. v.

1 Keep Out! used on signs to tell people that they are not allowed into a place

2 keep sb/sth out to prevent someone or something from getting into a place: She closed the window to keep the dust out.

keep out of sth phr. v.

to try not to become involved with something: My father warned us to keep out of trouble.

keep to phr. v.

1 keep to sth to continue to do, use, or talk about one thing and not change: You're better off keeping to the main roads. | Mullin kept to the same strategy throughout the game.

2 keep sth to yourself to not tell anyone else something that you know

3 keep to yourself to live a quiet private life, not doing things that involve other people: Nina kept to herself at the party.

keep up phr. v.

1 keep sth ↔ up to prevent something from going to a lower level: The shortage of supplies is keeping the price up.

2 keep sth ↔ up to continue doing something, or to make something continue: Keep up the good work!

3 to move as fast as someone else: Hey, slow down. I can't keep up!

4 to learn as fast or do as much as other people: Davey's having trouble keeping up with the other students.

5 to continue to learn about a subject: It's hard to keep up on/with changes in computer technology.

6 keep sb up to prevent someone from sleeping: The dog has been keeping us up all night.

keep² n. [C] 1 earn your keep to do a job in order to pay for the basic things you need such as food, clothing, etc. 2 for keeps (informal) forever keep-ing /'kɪpɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 for safe keeping so that something will not be damaged or lost: I'll put the tickets here for safe keeping. 2 in keeping with sth/out of keeping with sth appropriate or not appropriate for a particular occasion or purpose: In keeping with tradition, we opened our presents on Christmas Eve.

keep-sake /'kɪpsək/ n. [C] a small object that reminds you of someone or something keg /kɛɡ/ n. [C] a large round container, used especially for storing beer

Kel-vin /'kɛlvin/ n. [U] (written abbreviation K) PHYSICS a scale of temperature in which ABSOLUTE ZERO (=the lowest temperature that is possible) is represented as 0 K, water freezes at 273.15 K, and water boils at 373.15 K

ken-nel /'kɛnl/ n. [C] a place where dogs are cared for while their owners are away, or the CAGE where they sleep [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 From an unrecorded Old North French kenil, from Vulgar Latin canile, from Latin canis “dog”] kept /kɛpt/ v. the past tense and past participle of KEEP

ker-nel /'kɛnl/ n. [C] 1 the center part of a nut or seed, usually the part you can eat 2 one of the small yellow parts of corn that you eat 3 something that is the most important part of a statement, idea, plan, etc.: There may be a kernel of truth in what he says.

ker-o-sene /'kɛrə,sɪn, 'kɛrə'sɪn/ n. [U] a type of oil that is burned for heat and light ketch-up /'kɛtʃəp, 'kæ-/ n. [U] a red sauce made from tomatoes and used on food [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Malay kechap “hot-tasting fish sauce”]

ket-tle /'kɛtl/ n. [C] a special metal pot used for boiling and pouring water key¹ /ki/ n. [C] 1 a specially shaped piece of metal that you put into a lock in order to lock or unlock a door, start a car, etc.: I can't find my car keys. 2 the key the part of a plan, action, etc. that everything else depends on: Exercise is the key to a healthy body. 3 the part of a musical instrument, computer, or machine that you press with your fingers to make it work 4 ENG. LANG. ARTS a set of seven musical notes that have a particular base note, or the quality of sound these notes have: the key of G [ORIGIN: Old English cæg] key² adj. very important and necessary for success or to understand something: a key player

THESAURUS important, crucial, vital, essential, major → IMPORTANT

key³ v.

key sth ↔ in phr. v. to put information into a computer by using a keyboard: Key in your password and press “Return.”

key-board /'kɪbɔ:d/ n. [C] 1 it a piece of equipment with buttons that have letters or numbers on them, which you press to put information into a computer → see picture on page A6 2 a row of keys on a musical instrument, such as a piano, that you press in order to play the instrument 3 an electronic musical instrument similar to a piano, that can make the sounds of various musical instruments keyed 'up adj. (informal) worried or excited: I was so keyed up I couldn't sleep.

key-hole /'kihoʊl/ n. [C] the hole in a lock that you put a key in key-note /'kiɒt/ adj. 1 keynote speech/address the most important speech at an official event 2 keynote speaker the person who gives the most important speech at an official event

'key ring n. [C] a metal ring that you keep keys on kg the written abbreviation of KILOGRAM

kha-ki /'kæki/ n. 1 [U] a dull brown or green-brown color 2 [U] cloth of this color, especially when worn by soldiers 3 khakis [plural] pants that are made from khaki [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Hindi “dust-colored,” from khak “dust”] —khaki adj.

kick¹ /kɪk/ v. 1 [T] to hit something with your foot: Stop kicking me! | She kicked the pile of books over. → see picture on page A9 2 [I,T] to move one or both of your legs with short quick movements as if you are hitting something with your foot: a baby kicking its legs | Kyle collapsed on the floor kicking and screaming. 3 kick the habit (informal) to stop doing something, such as smoking, that is a harmful habit 4 kick yourself (spoken) said when you are annoyed with yourself because you have made a mistake or missed an opportunity: I wanted to kick myself for forgetting her name. 5 kick the bucket (humorous) to die kick around phr. v. 1 kick sth ↔ around (informal) to think about something a lot or get people's opinions about it before making a decision: We've been kicking around the idea of getting a dog. 2 kick sb around (informal) to treat someone badly or unfairly: He won't be kicking me around anymore!

K

kick back phr. v. (informal) to relax: I thought I'd kick back and watch some TV.

kick in phr. v. 1 (informal) to begin to have an effect: Those pills should kick in any time now. 2 kick in sth (informal) to join with others to give money or help with something: Everyone kicked in $5 for gas. 3 kick sth ↔ in to kick something so hard that it breaks open: The police had to kick the door in.

kick sth ↔ off phr. v. (informal) to start, or to make an event start: The festivities will kick off with a barbecue dinner.

kick sb ↔ out phr. v. (informal) to dismiss someone, or make him/her leave a place: Sean was kicked out of school for cheating.

kick² n. [C] 1 an act of hitting something with your foot: If the gate won't open, just give it a good kick (=kick it hard). 2 (informal) a strong feeling of excitement or pleasure: I get a real kick out of watching my two cats play. | She started stealing for kicks. 3 be on a health/wine/swimming etc. kick (informal) to have a strong new interest in something kick-back /'kɪkbæk/ n. [C,U] money that you pay someone for secretly or dishonestly helping you to make money (SYN) bribe kick-off /'kɪk-ɔf/ n. [C,U] the time when a game of football or soccer starts, or the first kick that starts it: Kickoff is at 3:00.

K

kid¹ /kɪd/ n. 1 [C] (informal) a child: Kim is really good with kids. | She's loved animals since she was a little kid.

THESAURUS child, baby, toddler, teenager, adolescent, youngster, minor, juvenile → CHILD

2 [C] (informal) a son or daughter: How many kids do you have? 3 [C] (informal) a young person: college kids 4 kid stuff (informal, disapproving) something that is very easy or boring 5 [C,U] a young goat, or the leather made from its skin kid² v. (kidded, kidding) (informal) 1 [I,T] to say something that is not true, especially as a joke: Don't get mad. I was just kidding.

SPOKEN PHRASES

2 no kidding used when you are surprised by what someone says: "You lived in Baltimore? I did, too." "No kidding." 3 You're kidding! said when it is difficult for you to believe that what someone is telling you is true: They fired you? You're kidding! 4 kid yourself to make yourself believe something that is not true or not likely: Don't kid yourself; she'll never change.

kid³ adj. kid brother/sister (informal) your brother or sister who is younger than you kid-nap /'kɪdnæp/ v. (kidnapped, kidnapping also kidnaped, kidnaping) [T] to take someone away illegally and demand money for returning him/her: She was kidnapped and held for ransom. —kidnapper n. [C] —kidnapping n. [C,U] kid-ney /'kɪdni/ n. (plural kidneys) [C] BIOLOGY one of the two organs in your lower back that separate waste liquid from blood and make URINE → see picture at ORGAN

'kidney bean n. [C] a dark red bean with a curved shape

kill¹ /kɪl/ v. 1 [I,T] to make a person or living thing die: Kerr is accused of killing three men. | Too much water could kill the plants. | Who knows when he might kill again? | Smoking kills.

THESAURUS

murder – to deliberately kill someone commit manslaughter – to kill someone without intending to commit suicide – to deliberately cause your own death assassinate – to deliberately kill an important person, especially a politician slaughter/massacre – to kill a large number of people in a violent way execute sb/put sb to death – to kill someone as a punishment for a crime exterminate (formal) – to kill all of a particular group of animals or people slay (formal) – to kill someone violently, used especially in newspapers → CRIME

2 [T] to make something stop or fail, or turn off the power to something: Nothing that the doctor gives me kills the pain. | A group of bankers persuaded lawmakers to kill the proposal. 3 [T] (informal) to be very angry at someone: My wife will kill me if I don't get home soon. 4 sth is killing me (spoken) used to say that a part of your body is hurting a lot: My head is killing me. 5 kill time (informal) to do something that is not very useful or interesting while you are waiting for something to happen: We hung out at the mall to kill time. 6 kill two birds with one stone to achieve two things with one action kill sb/sth ↔ off phr. v. to cause the death of a lot of living things: Pollution is rapidly killing off marine life in the lake.

kill² n. 1 [singular] an animal killed by another animal, especially for food: The lion dragged its kill into the bushes. 2 [C usually singular] the act of killing a hunted animal: The hawk swooped in for the kill.

kill-er¹ /'kɪlə/ n. [C] a person, animal, or thing that kills or has killed: Police are still looking for the girl's killer.

killer² adj. [only before noun] 1 (slang) very attractive or very good: That looks like a killer movie. 2 very harmful or likely to kill you: a killer landslide kill-ing /'kɪlɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 a murder: a series of brutal killings 2 make a killing (informal) to make a lot of money very quickly: They planned to make a killing on the stock market.

kiln /kɪln/ n. [C] a special oven for baking clay pots, bricks, etc. [ORIGIN: 700–800 Latin culina “kitchen,” from coquere “to cook”] ki-lo /'ki:lou, 'kɪ-/ n. (plural kilos) [C] a kilogram ki-lo-byte /'kɪlə,baɪt/ n. [C] IT a unit for measuring computer information, equal to 1,024 BYTES ki-lo-cal-o-rie /'kɪlə,kæləri/ n. [C] PHYSICS (written abbreviation kcal) a unit of heat. It equals the amount of heat needed to increase the temperature of one kilogram of water by 1°C.

ki-lo-gram /'kɪlə,græm/ also kilo n. [C] PHYSICS (written abbreviation kg) a unit for measuring weight, equal to 1,000 grams ki-lo-me-ter /kɪ'ləmətə, 'kɪlə,mɪtə/ n. [C] (written abbreviation km) a unit for measuring length, equal to 1,000 meters ki-lo-watt /'kɪlə,wat/ n. [C] PHYSICS (written abbreviation kW) a unit for measuring electrical power, equal to 1,000 WATTS kilt /kɪlt/ n. [C] a type of wool skirt with a pattern of lines and squares on it, traditionally worn by Scottish men kil-ter /'kɪltə/ n. out of kilter also off kilter if something is out of kilter, it is not working the way it should be or not doing what it should ki-mo-no /kə'moʊnoʊ/ n. (plural kimonos) [C] a traditional piece of Japanese clothing like a long coat, that is worn at special ceremonies kin /kɪn/ n. [plural] 1 next of kin (formal) your most closely related family 2 (old-fashioned) your family

THESAURUS family, relative, relation, folks → FAMILY

kind¹ /kaɪnd/ n. 1 [C] a type or sort of person or thing: What kind of dog is that? | We sell all kinds of hats. | She met people of all kinds while traveling. | This camera is the best of its kind.

THESAURUS type, sort, category, genre, variety, species → TYPE¹

2 kind of (spoken) a) slightly, or in some ways: You must be kind of disappointed. b) used when you are explaining something and want to avoid giving the details: I kind of made it look like it was an accident. 3 (a) kind of (a) (spoken) used in order to say that your description of something is not exact: a kind of reddish-brown color 4 one of a kind the only one of a particular type of something: Each vase is handmade and is one of a kind. 5 in kind reacting by doing the same thing that someone else has just done: The U.S. should respond in kind if other countries do not trade fairly. [ORIGIN: Old English cynd]

kind² adj. helpful, friendly, and caring toward other people: Thank you for your kind invitation. | That was very kind of you. | Janine has been very kind to me lately.

THESAURUS

nice – friendly and kind: It was really nice of him to give me a ride home.

considerate – thinking about other people's feelings: How considerate of her, I thought, to leave a light on for me.

thoughtful – thinking of things you can do to make other people happy: a thoughtful gift caring – kind to someone and willing to help him/her: caring parents warm-hearted – friendly and kind: a warm-hearted old lady compassionate (formal) – feeling sympathy for people who are suffering: My father was firm with us, but also warm and compassionate.

sympathetic – showing that you understand how sad, hurt, lonely, etc. someone feels: He gave me a sympathetic look. → NICE kind-a /'kaɪndə/ a short form of “kind of,” used in writing to show how people sound when they speak: I'm kinda tired.

kin-der-gar-ten /'kɪndə,ɡɑːtən, -,ɡɑːdn/ n. [C] a class for young children who are about five years old that prepares them for school → NURSERY SCHOOL [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 German “children's garden”] kind-hearted adj. kind and generous: a kind-hearted woman kin-dle /'kɪndl/ v. 1 [T] to make something start burning 2 kindle excitement/interest etc. to make someone excited, interested, etc.

kin-dling /'kɪndlɪŋ/ n. [U] small pieces of dry wood, leaves, etc. that you use for starting a fire kind-ly¹ /'kaɪndli/ adv. 1 in a kind way (SYN) generously: Mr. Thomas has kindly offered to let us use his car. 2 not take kindly to sth to be annoyed or upset by something that someone says or does: He didn't take kindly to having his picture taken. 3 (spoken) a word meaning “please,” often used when you are annoyed: Would you kindly close that door?

kindly² adj. (old-fashioned) kind and caring about other people: a kindly woman kind-ness /'kaɪndnɪs/ n. [C,U] kind behavior, or a kind action: We were overwhelmed by the kindness of the local people.

kin-dred /'kɪndrɪd/ adj. a kindred spirit someone who thinks and feels the way you do ki-net-ic /kɪ'netɪk/ adj. 1 kinetic art/sculpture/painting etc. ENG. LANG. ARTS art that has moving parts 2 PHYSICS relating to movement: the kinetic properties of each gas

K

kinetic 'energy n. [U] PHYSICS the energy that a moving object has as a result of its own movement → POTENTIAL ENERGY: A rock rolling down a hill contains kinetic energy.

kinetic 'theory n. [U] PHYSICS a scientific THEORY used to describe and explain the behavior and properties of gases, based on the idea that all matter consists of PARTICLES which are continuously moving around very quickly, and that energy and MOMENTUM are produced when particles hit each other king /kɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 a man who is the ruler of a country because he is from a royal family → QUEEN: the king of Spain | King Edward

THESAURUS

queen – the female ruler of a country, or the wife of a king prince the son of a king or queen, or the male ruler of some small countries princess the daughter of a king or queen, or the wife of a prince monarch – a king or queen ruler – someone such as a king, who has official power over a country and its people emperor – the ruler of an empire (=group of countries) sovereign (formal) – a king or queen

2 someone who is considered to be the most important or best member of a group: the king of comedy king-dom /'kɪŋdəm/ n. [C] 1 POLITICS a country ruled by a king or queen 2 the animal/plant/mineral kingdom BIOLOGY the three parts into which scientists divide the natural world 3 BIOLOGY one of the six large groups into which scientists divide plants and animals king-pin /'kɪŋ,pɪn/ n. [C] the most important person in a group: a drug kingpin

'king-size also 'king-sized adj. very large, and usually the largest of its type: a king-size bed

K kink /kɪŋk/ n. [C] 1 a twist in something that is normally straight: The hose has a kink in it. 2 work out the kinks to solve all the problems in a plan, situation, etc.

kink-y /'kɪŋki/ adj. (informal) 1 someone who is kinky, or who does kinky things, has strange ways of getting sexual excitement 2 kinky hair has a lot of tight curls ki-osk /'kiɔsk/ n. [C] a small building where you can buy things such as newspapers or tickets [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French kiosque, from Turkish kiosk “small building for sitting in”]

kiss¹ /kɪs/ v. 1 [I,T] to touch someone with your lips as a greeting, or to show love: They stood on the beach and kissed. | She kissed me on the cheek. | He leaned forward and kissed her good-night. 2 kiss sth goodbye (spoken) used in order to say that someone will lose his/her chance to get or do something: If you don't start working harder, you can kiss medical school goodbye. [ORIGIN: Old English cyssan]

kiss² n. [C] an act of kissing: Come here and give me a kiss.

kit /kɪt/ n. [C] 1 a set of tools, equipment, etc. that you use for a particular purpose or activity: a first-aid kit 2 something that you buy in parts and put together yourself: a model airplane kit

kitch-en /'kɪtʃən/ n. [C] the room where you prepare and cook food: Jay's in the kitchen washing the dishes. | Put the groceries on the kitchen table. [ORIGIN: Old English cycene] kite /kaɪt/ n. [C] a toy that you fly in the air on the end of a long string, made from a light frame covered in paper or plastic kitsch /kɪtʃ/ n. [U] decorations, movies, etc. that seem to be cheap and without style, and often amuse people because of this —kitsch, kitschy adj.

kit-ten /'kɪtɪn/ n. [C] a young cat [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 From an unrecorded Old North French caton, from cat “cat,” from Late Latin cattus] kit-ty /'kɪti/ n. (plural kitties) [C] 1 (spoken) also kit-ty-cat /'kɪtu,kæt/ a word meaning a cat, used especially by children or when calling to a cat: Here, kitty kitty! 2 [usually singular] the money that people have collected for a particular purpose

'kitty-corner adv. kitty-corner from sth on the other side of the street, and slightly to the left or the right, from a place: His store is kitty-corner from the bank.

ki-wi /'kiwi/ also 'kiwi fruit n. [C] a soft green fruit with small black seeds and a thin brown skin → see picture on page 414

KKK n. the abbreviation of KU KLUX KLAN

Kleen-ex /'kleɪks/ n. [C,U] (trademark) a piece of soft thin paper, used especially for blowing your nose klutz /kɫʌts/ n. [C] (informal) someone who often drops things and falls easily [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Yiddish klotz, klutz, from German klotz “large piece of wood”] —klutzy adj.

km the written abbreviation of KILOMETER knack /næk/ n. [singular] (informal) a natural ability to do something well: Knight has always had a knack for teaching.

THESAURUS

skill, talent, flair, gift, aptitude

→ SKILL

knap-sack /'næpsæk/ n. [C] a bag that you carry on your shoulders (SYN backpack) [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Low German knappsack or Dutch knapsak “food bag”]

knead /nid/ v. [T] to press DOUGH (=a mixture of flour, water, etc. for making bread) many times with your hands → see picture on page A5

knee¹ /ni/ n. [C] 1 the joint where your leg bends: a knee injury | He actually got down on his knees and asked me to forgive him. → see picture on page

A3 2 the part of your pants that covers your knee: Billy's jeans had holes in both knees. 3 bring sb/sth to their knees a) to defeat a country or group of people in a war b) to have such a bad effect on an organization, activity, etc. that it cannot continue [ORIGIN: Old English cneow] knee² v. [T] to hit someone with your knee: Victor kneed him in the stomach.

knee-cap /'nikæp/ n. [C] the bone at the front of your knee → see picture on page A3 knee-deep

adj. 1 a) deep enough to reach your knees b) in something that is deep enough to reach your knees: The trails were knee-deep in snow. 2 knee-deep in sth (informal) very involved in something, or greatly affected by something that you cannot avoid: Ralph lost his job, and we ended up knee-deep in debt.

knee-high adj. tall enough to reach your knees: knee-high water

'knee-jerk adj. (disapproving) a knee-jerk reaction, opinion, etc. is what you feel or say about a situation from habit, without thinking about it kneel /nil/ also kneel down v. (past tense and past participle kneelt /nɛlt/ or kneeled) [I] to be in or move into a position where your body is resting on your knees: She knelt down on the floor to pray. → see picture on page A9 knell /nɛl/ n. [C] (literary) the sound of a bell being rung slowly because someone has died knew /nu/ v. the past tense of KNOW knickerbockers /'nɪkəz/ n. [plural] short loose pants that fit tightly at your knees, worn especially in past times knick-knack /'nɪk næk/ n. [C] (informal) a small object used as a decoration knife¹ /naɪf/ n. (plural knives /naɪvz/) [C] a tool used for cutting or as a weapon, consisting of a metal blade attached to a handle: a knife and fork [ORIGIN: Old English cnif] knife² v. [T] to put a knife into someone's body [SYN] stab: The victim was knifed in the back.

knight /naɪt/ n. [C] 1 a European man with a high rank in past times, who was trained to fight while riding a horse 2 the CHESS piece with a horse's head on it knight-hood /'naɪthud/ n. [C,U] a special title or rank that is given to someone by the British king or queen

knit¹ /nɪt/ v. (past tense and past participle knit or knitted, present participle knitting) [I,T] 1 to make clothes out of YARN (=thick thread) using knitting needles or a special machine: She's knitting me a sweater. 2 to join people, things, or ideas more closely, or to be closely related: The broken bone should knit together smoothly. | a tightly/closely knit community 3 knit your brows to show you are worried, thinking hard, etc. by moving your EYEBROWS together [ORIGIN: Old English cnyttan]

knit² adj. [only before noun] made by knitting: a gray knit sweater knit-ting /'nɪtɪŋ/ n. [U] something that is being knitted

'knitting needle n. [C] one of the two long sticks that you use to knit something → see picture at KNIT¹ knives /naɪvz/ n. the plural of KNIFE knob /nəb/ n. [C] a round handle that you turn or pull to open a door or drawer, turn on a radio, etc. → DOORKNOB knob-by /'nəbi/ adj. with hard parts that stick out from under the surface of something: knobby knees knock¹ /næk/ v. 1 [I] to hit a door or window with your closed hand in order to attract the attention of the people inside: I've been knocking at/on the door for five minutes.

THESAURUS hit, bang, tap, pound, rap, hammer → HIT¹

2 [I,T] to hit someone or something with a quick hard hit, so that he, she, or it moves or falls down: The ball was knocked loose, out of his hands. | A car knocked into a pole in the parking lot. 3 knock sb unconscious to hit someone so hard that s/he becomes unconscious

SPOKEN PHRASES

4 knock it off used in order to tell someone to stop doing something because it is annoying you 5 knock some sense into sb to make someone learn to behave in a more sensible way: Maybe getting arrested will knock some sense into him. 6 knock on wood an expression that is used after a statement about something good, in order to prevent your luck from becoming bad: I haven't had a cold all winter, knock on wood.

K

7 [T] to criticize someone or something, especially in an unfair or annoying way: The mayor took every opportunity to knock his opponent.

THESAURUS criticize, attack, find fault with, be disparaging about sb/sth → CRITICIZE knock sth ↔ back phr. v. (informal) to drink a large amount of alcohol very quickly: He knocked back a few beers.

knock sb/sth ↔ down phr. v. 1 to hit or push someone so that s/he falls to the ground: The horse knocked Laura down while she was cleaning the stable. 2 to destroy a building or structure: My elementary school was knocked down so a mall could be built. 3 (informal) to reduce the price of something: The new stove we bought was knocked down from $800 to $550.

knock off phr. v. (informal) 1 to stop working: We decided to knock off around 3. 2 knock sth ↔ off to reduce the price of something by a particular amount: I got him to knock $10 off the regular price.

knock out phr. v. 1 knock sb ↔ out to make someone become unconscious: He knocked out his opponent in the fifth round. 2 knock sb/sth ↔ out to defeat a person or team in a competition so that he, she, or it cannot continue to take part in the competition: Indiana knocked Kentucky out of the tournament. 3 knock yourself out (informal) to work very hard in order to do something well, especially so that you are very tired when you finish: He's been knocking himself out trying to find a job.

knock sb/sth ↔ over phr. v. to hit or push someone or something so that he, she, or it falls down: Scott knocked the lamp over.

knock² n. [C] 1 the sound of something hard hitting a hard surface: a loud knock at the door 2 the action of something hard hitting your body: a knock on the head 3 take a knock (informal) to have some bad luck or trouble: Lee's taken quite a few hard knocks lately.

knock-er /'nɒkə/ n. [C] a piece of metal on an outside door, that you use to knock loudly knock-out /'nɒk-aʊt/ n. [C] 1 an act of hitting your opponent so hard in BOXING that s/he falls down and cannot get up again 2 (old-fashioned, informal) a woman who is very attractive knoll /noʊl/ n. [C] a small round hill knot¹ /nɒt/ n. [C] 1 a place where two ends or pieces of rope, string, etc. have been tied together: Her Brownie troop is learning how to tie knots. 2 many hairs, threads, etc. that are twisted together 3 a hard round place in a piece of wood where a branch once joined the tree 4 a tight painful place in a muscle, or a tight uncomfortable feeling in your stomach: a knot in my back | My stomach is in knots. 5 tie the knot (informal) to get married 6 a small group of people standing close together 7 a unit for measuring the speed of a ship that is about 1,853 meters per hour [ORIGIN: Old English cnotta]

knot² v. (knotted, knotting) 1 [T] to tie together two ends or pieces of rope, string, etc. 2 [I,T] if hairs, threads, etc. knot, or if something knots them, they become twisted together

know¹ /noʊ/ v. (past tense knew /nu/, past participle known /noʊn/)

1 HAVE INFORMATION [I,T] to have information about something: Do you know the answer? | I don't know much about art. | We don't know what we're supposed to be doing. | Did you know that Andy was fired? | He wants to know (=wants to be told) what happened.

2 BE SURE [I,T] to be sure about something: "Is Bob coming?" "I don't know." | I knew that she didn't like him. | Barry didn't know what to say.

3 BE FAMILIAR WITH SB/STH [T] to be familiar with a person, place, system, etc.: She knows the city pretty well. | I've known Jack since we were in the army. | He said he'd like to get to know us better (=would like to know more about us).

4 REALIZE [T] to realize or understand something: I don't think he knows how stupid he sounds. | I know exactly what you mean. | You know full/perfectly well what I'm talking about.

5 RECOGNIZE [T] to be able to recognize someone or something: She knew it was Gail by her voice (=she recognized Gail because of her voice).

6 know better to be wise or experienced enough to avoid making mistakes: He should have known better than to trust Rich.

7 know your way around to be familiar with a place, organization, system, etc. so that you can use it effectively

SPOKEN PHRASES

8 you know a) said when you cannot quickly think of what to say next, but you want to keep someone's attention: And then I told him he could, you know, call me whenever he wants. b) said when you are trying to explain something by giving more information: I have some clothes for Matthew, you know, for the baby, if Carrie wants them. c) said when you begin talking about a subject: You know, I spoke to Eric last night. d) said in order to check if someone understands what you are saying: I can't stand it when people are late, you know?

9 I know a) used to agree with someone or to say that you feel the same way: "That meeting was so boring!" "I know – I couldn't wait to get out of there." b) said when you suddenly have an idea or think of the answer to a problem: I know, let's ask Luis for a ride.

10 as far as I know said when you think something is true, but you are not sure: As far as I know, Bethany left at 6:00.

11 you never know used to say that you are not sure what will happen: You never know, you might win!

[ORIGIN: Old English cnawan]

know of sb/sth phr. v.

1 to have been told or to have read about someone or something, but not know much about him, her, or it: I only know of him – I've never met him.

2 used to ask for or give advice: Do you know of any good restaurants around here?

3 not that I know of used in order to say that the answer to a question is “No,” but that there may be facts you do not know about: “Does Chris smoke?” “Not that I know of.”

know² n. in the know having more information than most people about something: Those in the know say that gas prices will be going up.

know-how n. [U] (informal) knowledge, practical ability, or skill know-ing /'nouɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] showing that you know all about something: a knowing smile know-ing-ly /'nouɪŋli/ adv. 1 deliberately: He'd never knowingly hurt you. 2 in a way that shows you know all about something: Tara nodded knowingly.

know-it-all n. [C] (informal, disapproving) someone who behaves as if s/he knows everything

knowl-edge /'nɒlɪdʒ/ n. [U] 1 the information and understanding that you have gained through learning or experience: His knowledge of American history is impressive. 2 what someone knows or has information about: To the best of my knowledge, each of the victims survived (=I think this is true, although I may not have all the facts). | The decision to attack was made without my knowledge (=I did not know about it). | “Has there been any improvement in the patient's condition?” “Not to my knowledge” (=I do not think this is true, based on what I know)."

knowl-edge-a-ble /'nɒlɪdʒəbəl/ adj. knowing a lot: Steve's very knowledgeable about politics.

known¹ /nu:n/ v. the past participle of KNOW known² adj. known about, especially by many people: a known criminal knuck-le¹ /'nʌkəl/ n. [C] one of the joints in your fingers → see picture at HAND¹ knuckle² v.

knuckle under phr. v. (informal) to accept someone's authority or orders without wanting to: She refused to knuckle under to company regulations.

KO the abbreviation of KNOCKOUT

ko-a-la /kou'ələ/ also ko'ala bear n. [C] an Australian animal like a small bear that climbs trees and eats leaves → see picture at MARSUPIAL

Ko-ran /kə'reɪn, -'ræn/ n. the Koran the holy book of the Muslim religion [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Arabic qur'an, from qara'a “to read”]

Ko-re-an¹ /kə'reɪən/ adj. 1 relating to or coming from Korea 2 relating to the Korean language

Korean² n. 1 [U] the language used in Korea 2 [C] someone from Korea

ko-sheer /'kouʃə/ adj. 1 kosher food is prepared according to Jewish law 2 kosher restaurants or stores sell food prepared in this way 3 (informal) honest and legal, or socially acceptable: I don't think the way she broke up with him was kosher.

kow-tow /'kaʊtəʊ/ v. [I] (informal, disapproving) to be too eager to please or obey someone who has more power than you: I don't like the way this president kowtows to big business. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Chinese ke tou “to hit your head;” because when you bow very low you hit your head on the floor]

Krem-lin /'krɛmlɪn/ n. the Kremlin the government of Russia and the former USSR, or the buildings that are this government's offices

KS the written abbreviation of KANSAS

ku-dos /'kudɒs, -dɒz/ n. [U] admiration and respect that you get for being important or doing something important

Ku Klux Klan /'ku klʌks 'klæn/ (abbreviation KKK) n. the Ku Klux Klan a U.S. political organization, whose members are Protestant white people, which believes that people of other races or religions should not have any power or influence in American society kung fu /'kʌŋ 'fu/ n. [U] an ancient Chinese fighting art in which you attack people with your feet and hands

kW PHYSICS the written abbreviation of KILOWATT

Kwan-zaa /'kwʌnzə/ n. [C,U] a holiday celebrated by some African-Americans between December 26 and January 1

KY the written abbreviation of KENTUCKY

L, l /ɛl/ 1 the TWELFTH letter of the English alphabet 2 the number 50 in the system of ROMAN NUMERALS

LA 1 the written abbreviation of LOUISIANA 2 L.A. Los Angeles lab /læb/ n. [C] (informal) 1 a LABORATORY: a research lab at Columbia University 2 a LABRADOR

la-bel¹ /'leɪbəl/ (AC) n. [C] 1 a piece of paper or other material that is attached to something and has information about that thing printed on it: a beer label | Always read the instructions on the label. | The label should give clear information about how much salt and fat is in the product. 2 a famous name that represents a company that is selling a product: Fischer recorded two albums for the Victor label. 3 a word or phrase that is used in order to describe someone or something: As a writer, he's proud of his "liberal" label. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French "long narrow piece of cloth"]

label² v. [T] 1 to attach a label to something or write information on something: Make sure your charts are clearly labeled. 2 to use a particular word or phrase in order to describe someone: No one wants to be labeled a racist. | The principal labeled his behavior as inappropriate.

THE SAURUS call, characterize, brand, portray → CALL¹

la·bor¹ /'leɪbər/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 work, especially work using a lot of physical effort: farm labor | manual labor (=physical work) | Marx defined the working class as people who sell their labor to employers. 2 all the people who work for a company or in a country: a shortage of skilled labor (=trained workers) | When there are labor shortages, employers have to raise wages. 3 the process in which a baby is born by being pushed from its mother's body, or the period when this happens: Sandra was in labor for 17 hours. | Twenty-four hours is a long labor for a second child.

labor² v. [I] 1 (formal) to work very hard: Farmers labored in the fields. 2 to try to do something that is difficult: Writers can spend hours laboring over a single sentence.

lab·ora·to·ry /'læbrəˌtɔːri/ n. (plural laboratories) [C] a special room or building in which scientists do tests and RESEARCH [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Medieval Latin laboratorium, from Latin laborare "to work"]

'labor camp n. [C] a place where prisoners are forced to do hard physical work

'Labor Day n. a public holiday in the U.S. and Canada on the first Monday in September la·bor·er /'leɪbərər/ n. [C] someone whose job involves a lot of physical work

L la·bo·ri·ous /ləˈbɔːriəs/ adj. needing to be done slowly, and with a lot of effort: Filmmaking can be a laborious process.

'labor union n. [C] SOCIAL SCIENCE an organization that represents the ordinary workers in a particular trade or profession, especially in meetings with employers

Lab·ra·dor /'læbrəˌdɔːr/ n. [C] a large dog with black or yellow fur lab·y·rinth /'læbəˌrɪnθ/ n. [C] a MAZE lace¹ /leɪs/ n. 1 [U] a type of fine cloth made with patterns of very small holes: lace curtains 2 [C usually plural] a string that is pulled through special holes in shoes or clothing and tied, in order to pull the edges together and fasten them → see picture at SHOE¹ [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French laz "net, string," from Latin laqueus "trap"] lace² also lace up v. [T] to pull something together by tying a lace: Paul laced up his boots.

lac·er·ate /'læsəˌreɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to badly cut or tear the skin lac·er·a·tion /ˌlæsəˌreɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) a serious cut in your skin or flesh

lack¹ /læk/ n. [singular, U] the state of not having something, or of not having enough of it: a lack of interest | The project was canceled for lack of money (=because there was not enough). [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Middle Dutch laken] lack² v. [T] to not have something, or to not have enough of it: She's talented but lacks experience.

lack·ing /'lækɪŋ/ adj. 1 not having enough of a particular thing or quality: No one said she was lacking in determination. 2 not existing or available: Information about the cause of the crash was lacking.

lack·lus·ter /'lækˌlʌstər/ adj. not very exciting or impressive: a lackluster performance la·con·ic /ləˈkɒnɪk/ adj. using only a few words when you talk [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin laconicus "of Sparta," from Greek lakonikos; because the people of ancient Sparta were famous for not using many words] lac·quer /'lækər/ n. [U] a clear substance painted on wood or metal to give it a hard shiny surface —lacquered adj.: a lacquered box lac·tose /'læktɔːs/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a type of sugar found in milk → FRUCTOSE, GLUCOSE, SUCROSE lac·y /'leɪsi/ adj. decorated with LACE, or looking like lace: black lacy underwear lad /læd/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a boy or young man lad·der /'lædə/ n. [C] 1 a piece of equipment used for climbing up to high places, consisting of two long BARS connected with RUNGS (=steps): The painter climbed up/down the ladder. 2 the jobs you have to do in an organization in order to gradually become more powerful or important: Stevens worked his way to the top of the corporate ladder. [ORIGIN: Old English hlæder] lad·en /'leɪdn/ adj. carrying or containing a lot of something: The table was laden with food.

'ladies' room n. [C] a room in a public building with toilets for women

THE SAURUS toilet, bathroom, restroom, men's room, lavatory → TOILET la·dle /'leɪdl/ n. [C] a deep spoon with a long handle —ladle v. [T]: I ladled soup into bowls.

la·dy /'leɪdi/ n. (plural ladies) [C] a word meaning a woman, used in order to be polite: Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for coming this evening. | a little old lady [ORIGIN: Old English hlæfdige, from hlaf "bread" + -dige "one who kneads"] la·dy·bug /'leɪdiˌbʌg/ n. [C] a small round insect that is red with black spots lag¹ /læɡ/ v. (lagged, lagging) [I] to move or develop more slowly than other things or people: Students' test scores are lagging behind last year's.

lag² n. [C] a delay between two events → JET LAG la-goön /lə'gun/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES an area of ocean that is not very deep, and is nearly separated from the ocean by rocks, sand, or CORAL laid /leɪd/ v. the past tense and past participle of LAY laid-back adj. relaxed and not seeming to worry about anything: He's a pretty laid-back guy.

THESAURUS calm, relaxed, easygoing, mellow → CALM²

lain /leɪn/ v. the past participle of LIE

lair /leɪr/ n. [C] the place where a wild animal hides and sleeps: a wolf's lair laissez-faire /,ləseɪ 'feɪr/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the principle that the government should not control or INTERFERE with businesses or the economy

lake /leɪk/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a large area of water surrounded by land: We're going swimming in the lake. | Lake Michigan [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French lac, from Latin lacus] → see picture on page A11

lamb /læm/ n. [C,U] a young sheep, or the meat of a young sheep [ORIGIN: Old English]

lam-bast /læm'beɪst, 'læmberst/ v. [T] to severely criticize someone or something

THESAURUS criticize, attack, knock → CRITICIZE

lame¹ /leɪm/ adj. 1 (old-fashioned) unable to walk easily because your leg or foot is injured 2 (informal) too silly or stupid to believe: a lame excuse 3 (spoken) boring or not very good: The party was lame.

lame² v. [T] to make a person or animal lame lame 'duck n. [C] someone such as a president who has no real power because his/her period in office will soon end la-ment¹ /lə'ment/ v. [I,T] to express feelings of great sadness or disappointment about something lament² n. [C] something such as a song that expresses great sadness lam-en-ta-ble /lə'mentəbəl/ adj. (formal) very disappointing lam-i-nate /'læmə,neɪt/ v. [T] to cover paper or wood with a thin layer of plastic in order to protect it —laminated adj.

lamp /læmp/ n. [C] an object that produces light by using electricity, oil, or gas: a desk lamp [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French lampe, from Latin lampas, from Greek lampein “to shine”] → see picture at LIGHT¹

lam-poon /læm'pu:n/ v. [T] to write about someone such as a politician in a funny way that makes him/her seem stupid —lampoon n. [C] lamp-shade /'læmpʃeɪd/ n. [C] a cover put over the top of a lamp for decoration and in order to make the light less bright

LAN /læn, ,el eɪ 'en/ n. [C] IT local area network a small network of computers connected to each other within the same building or organization, so that people who work there can see and use the same information lance /læns/ n. [C] a long thin pointed weapon used in past times by soldiers on horses

land¹ /lænd/ n. 1 [U] the ground, especially when owned by someone and used for buildings or farming → EARTH, SOIL: A mall is being built on the land near the lake. | 5,000 acres of agricultural land → GROUND¹ 2 [U] the solid dry part of the Earth's surface: Frogs live on land and in the water. → EARTH 3 [C] (literary) a country or place: a faraway land [ORIGIN: Old English] → COUNTRY¹

land² v. 1 [I,T] if an airplane lands, or if a pilot lands an airplane, the airplane moves down until it is safely on the ground (ANT) take off: My flight landed in Chicago an hour late.

THESAURUS arrive, get to, reach, get in, come in → ARRIVE

2 [I] to fall or come down onto something after moving through the air: Chris slipped and landed on his back. 3 [T] to finally succeed in getting a particular job, contract, or deal: Kelly landed a job with a big law firm. 4 [I] to arrive somewhere in a boat, airplane, etc.: The immigrants landed in New York. 5 [T] to put someone or something on land from an airplane or boat: They landed 1,200 troops on the beach.

'land bridge n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a narrow piece of land that connects two large areas of land: People and animals migrated eastwards across the land bridge that is now covered by the Bering Sea.

land-fill /'lændfɪl/ n. [C] a place where waste is buried in large amounts land-form /'lændfɔ:m/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a natural physical feature of the Earth's surface, for example a mountain or valley

'land grant n. [C] a gift of public land from the government, usually used to build something such as a college, railroad, or HIGHWAY land-ing /'lændɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 the floor at the top of a set of stairs 2 the action of arriving on land, or of making something such as an airplane or boat come onto land → TAKEOFF: an emergency landing (=a sudden landing made by an airplane because it is having trouble)

'landing gear n. [U] an aircraft's wheels and wheel supports

'landing pad n. [C] the area where a HELICOPTER comes down to earth

'landing strip n. [C] a special road on which an airplane lands, especially one not at an airport → RUNWAY land-la-dy /'lænd,lerdi/ n. (plural landladies) [C] a woman who owns a building or other property and rents it to people land-locked /'lændlɒkt/ adj. surrounded by land: a landlocked country land-lord /'lændlɔ:d/ n. [C] someone who owns a building or other property and rents it to other people land-mark /'lændmɑ:k/ n. [C] 1 something that helps you recognize where you are, such as a famous building 2 one of the most important events, changes, or discoveries that influences someone or something: The treaty is an important landmark in U.S.-Mexico relations.

'land mine, land-mine /'lændmaɪn/ n. [C] a type of bomb hidden in the ground that explodes when someone walks or drives over it land-own-er /'lænd,əʊnə/ n. [C] someone who owns a large amount of land

'land redistribution n. [U] a process in which land is taken away from people who own large farms and given to people who do not have any land at all or have very little land

'land reform n. [C,U] POLITICS actions that are taken, especially by a government, to divide up farm land so that more people own some of it

land-scape /'lændskeɪp/ n. [C] 1 a view across an area of land, including hills, forests, fields, etc. → SCENERY: the beautiful landscape of Sonoma Valley 2 a photograph or painting of a landscape → see picture at PAINTING

L landscape ² v. [T] to arrange where the plants should grow in a park, yard, or garden —landscaping n. [U] land-slide /'lændslaɪd/ n. [C] 1 the sudden falling of a lot of soil and rocks down the side of a hill, cliff, or mountain: Part of Highway 101 is blocked by a landslide. 2 a victory in which a person or political party wins a lot more votes than the others in an election: The president was re-elected in/by a landslide.

lane /leɪn/ n. [C] 1 one of the parts of a main road that is divided by painted lines: We drove in the fast/slow lane (=in the lane that is farthest left or farthest right). 2 a narrow country road

THESAURUS road, street, main street, avenue, main road → ROAD

3 one of the narrow areas that a pool or race track is divided into lan-guage /'læŋgwɪdʒ/ n. 1 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a system of words, phrases, and grammar, used by people who live in a country or area to communicate with each other: the English language | Her native language (=the first language she learned) is Tagalog. | "Do you speak any foreign languages?" "Yes, I speak Japanese."

THESAURUS

dialect – a form of a language that is spoken in one area, which is different from the way it is spoken in other areas: Cantonese is only one of many Chinese dialects.

accent – a way of pronouncing words that someone has because of where s/he was born or lives: She has a strong Southern accent.

tongue – a particular language: Winnie started school knowing only her native tongue.

vernacular (formal) – the language or dialect that ordinary people in a country or area speak, especially when this is not the official language: Much of the comedian's material is performed in the black vernacular.

lingo (informal) – a language, especially a foreign one: I've picked up some of the lingo, enough to be polite.

slang – very informal and sometimes offensive language, used especially by people who belong to a particular group: Mudbugs is Louisiana slang for crawfish.

jargon – technical words and phrases used by people in a particular profession: a document full of legal jargon terminology (formal) – the technical words or expressions that are used in a particular subject: the basic terminology used by geologists

2 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the use of words, grammar, etc. to communicate with other people: language skills

3 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the kind of words that someone uses, or that are used when talking or writing about a particular subject: the language of business | poetic language | bad language (=words that people consider offensive) 4 [C,U] IT a system of instructions used in computer programs 5 [C,U] any system of signs, movements, sounds, etc. that are used to express meanings or feelings: the language of music [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French langue "tongue, language," from Latin lingua]

'language laboratory also 'language lab n. [C] a room in a school or college where students can listen to TAPES of a foreign language and practice speaking it lan-guid /'læŋgwɪd/ adj. (literary) moving slowly and weakly, but in an attractive way lan-guish /'læŋgwɪʃ/ v. [I] to be prevented from developing, improving, or being dealt with: The case has languished for years in the courts.

lank-y /'læŋki/ adj. someone who is lanky is very tall and thin lan-tern /'læntən/ n. [C] a type of lamp you can carry that usually has a metal frame and glass sides → see picture at LIGHT¹

lap¹ /læp/ n. [C] 1 the upper part of your legs when you are sitting down: The little girl was sitting on her mother's lap. 2 a single trip around a race track or between the two ends of a pool: Patty swims 30 laps a day.

lap² v. (lapped, lapping) 1 [I,T] if water laps something, or laps against something, it touches something with small waves: Listen to the sound of the lake lapping against the shore. 2 [T] also lap up to drink using quick movements of the tongue: a cat lapping milk lap sth ↔ up phr. v. (disapproving) to enjoy or believe something without criticizing or doubting it at all: She's flattering him and he's just lapping it up!

lapel /lə'pel/ n. [C] the front part of a coat or JACKET that is attached to the collar and folds back on both sides lapse¹ /læps/ n. [C] 1 a short period of time when you forget something, do not pay attention, or fail to do something you should: a memory lapse 2 the period of time between two events: There was a lapse of ten years before they met again.

lapse² v. [I] to end, especially because an agreed time limit is finished: The insurance policy has lapsed.

lapse into sth phr. v. 1 to start behaving or speaking in a very different way, especially one that is more normal or usual for you: Without thinking, he lapsed into Spanish. 2 to become very quiet, less active, or unconscious: She lapsed into silence.

lap-top /'læptɒp/ also laptop com-puter n. [C] IT a small computer that you can carry with you → see picture on page A6

lar-ce-ny /'lɑːrsəni/ n. [U] LAW the crime of stealing something lard /lɑːd/ n. [U] the thick white fat from pigs, used in cooking large /lɑːdʒ/ adj. 1 big, or bigger than usual in size, number, or amount (ANT small: a large pepperoni pizza | What's the largest city in Canada?)

THESAURUS big, huge, enormous, vast, gigantic, massive, immense, colossal → BIG

2 a large person is tall and often fat: Aunt Betsy was a very large woman.

THESAURUS fat, overweight, big, heavy, obese, chubby, plump, stout, corpulent, rotund → FAT¹

3 at large in general: The risk is to American society at large. 4 be at large if a dangerous person or animal is at large, he, she, or it has escaped from somewhere and may cause harm: The suspect is still at large. 5 larger than life more attractive, exciting, or interesting than other people or things 6 by and large used in order to say that something is generally true or usually happens, but not always: By and large, the kids are well-behaved. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French, Latin largus] —largeness n. [U]

large intestine n. [singular] BIOLOGY the lower part of your INTESTINES, where food is changed into solid waste matter → SMALL INTESTINE → see picture at ORGAN large-ly /'lɑːdʒli/ adv. mostly or mainly: The delay was largely due to bad weather.

THESAURUS mainly, chiefly, principally, primarily → MAINLY large-scale adj. involving a lot of people, effort, money, supplies, etc.: large-scale unemployment

lar-ge-ss, largess /lɑːr'dʒes, -'ʒes/ n. [U] (formal) the quality or act of being generous and giving money or gifts to people who have less than you, or the money or gifts that you give → GENEROSITY: The museum thanked him for his largess.

lark /lɑːk/ n. [C] a small wild brown bird that sings and has long pointed wings lar-va /'lɑːrvə/ n. (plural larvae /'lɑːrvi/) [C] BIOLOGY a young insect with a soft tube-shaped body that will become an insect with wings → see picture on page A2

lar-rin-ges /lɑː'rɪndʒɪz/ n. a plural of LARYNX

lar-yn-gi-tis /lɑːrən'dʒaɪtɪs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY an illness in which your throat and larynx are swollen, making it difficult for you to talk lar-y-nx /'lærɪŋks/ n. (plural larynges /lɑː'rɪndʒɪz/ or larynxes) [C] BIOLOGY the part of your throat from which your voice is produced [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Modern Latin, Greek] → see picture at LUNG lar-sa-gna /lɑː'zanyə/ n. [C,U] a type of Italian food made with flat pieces of PASTA, meat or vegetables, and cheese las-civ-i-ous /lɑː'sɪvɪəs/ adj. (disapproving) showing a very strong sexual desire la-ser /'leɪzə/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that produces a powerful narrow beam of light, or the beam of light itself: laser surgery | a laser beam [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 From “light amplification by stimulated emission of radiation”] lash¹ /læʃ/ v. 1 [T] to hit someone very hard with a whip, stick, etc. 2 [T] to tie something tightly to something else using a rope: The branches were lashed together. 3 [I,T] to hit sharply against something: Waves lashed against the rocks.

lash out phr. v. 1 to suddenly speak loudly and angrily: He lashed out at critics. 2 to suddenly try to hit someone with a lot of violent uncontrolled movements

L

lash² n. [C] 1 a hit with a whip, especially as a punishment 2 an EYELASH las-so /'læsəʊ/ n. (plural lassos or lassoes) [C] a rope with one end tied in a circle, used for catching cattle and horses —lasso v. [T]

last¹ /læst/ determiner, adj. 1 most recent → NEXT: Did you go to the last football game? | I saw Tim last night/week/Sunday. | The last time I saw Ken, we got into an argument.

USAGE

Use last to mean “the one that happened most recently” or “the one before the present one”: my last visit to Florida | my last boyfriend
Use latest to mean “new and most recent”: the latest news | the latest version of the software

THESAURUS

previous – happening or existing before the particular event, time, or thing mentioned: Sales were higher than in the previous year.
former – happening or existing before, but not now: the former owner of the property

2 at the end, after everyone or everything else: The last part of the song is sad. | He's the last person I'd ask for help (=I do not want to ask him). 3 remaining after all others have gone: The last guests were just putting on their coats. | Do you want the last piece of cake? 4 on its last legs likely to fail or break: The truck was on its last legs. 5 have the last word to make the last statement in an argument, which gives you an advantage

last² adv. 1 most recently before now: When did you see her last? 2 after everything or everyone else: Harris is going to speak last. 3 last but not least said when making a final statement, to show that it is just as important as your other statements: Last but not least, I'd like to thank my mother.

last³ n., pron. [C] 1 the last the person or thing that comes after all the others: Joe was the last of nine children (=he was born last). | Les was the last to go to bed that night. 2 at (long) last if something happens at last, it happens after you have waited a long time: At last, we were able to afford a house. 3 the day/week/year before last the day, week, etc. before the one that has just finished 4 the last I/we ... (informal) used when telling someone the most recent news that you know: The last we heard, Paul was in Brazil. 5 the last of sth the remaining part of something: This is the last of the paint.

last⁴ v. [I] 1 to continue to happen or exist: Jeff's operation lasted three hours. | I wish this moment would last forever. 2 to continue to be effective, useful, or in good condition: Most batteries will last for up to eight hours.

last-ditch adj. last-ditch effort/attempt etc. a final attempt to achieve something before it becomes impossible to do last-ing /'læstɪŋ/ adj. continuing for a long time:

It has been difficult to achieve lasting peace in the Middle East.

THESAURUS

long, lengthy, long-running, prolonged → LONG¹ last-ly /'læstli/ adv. (formal) used when telling someone the last thing in a series of statements: Lastly, I'd like to suggest a few solutions.

USAGE

Use lastly or finally to introduce the last point, action, or instruction in a list: Lastly/Finally, I wanted to wish you all good luck.

Use finally or eventually to say that something happens after a long time: Finally/Eventually, we realized what the problem was. | She eventually/finally found her glasses case under the bed.

Use at last to emphasize that you are glad when something happens because you have been waiting a long time for it: At last some rain!

→ FIRST¹

last-minute adj. [only before noun] happening or done as late as possible within a process, event, or activity: a last-minute decision

last name n. [C] your family's name, which in English comes after your other names → FIRST NAME, MIDDLE NAME latch¹ /lætʃ/ n. [C] a small metal BAR used for fastening a door, gate, window, etc. → see picture at LOCK² latch² v.

latch onto sth phr. v. (informal) if you latch onto an idea, style, phrase, etc., you think it is so good, important, etc. that you start using it too

late¹ /leɪt/ adj. 1 arriving, happening, or done after the expected time: Sorry I'm late. I got stuck in traffic. | Peggy was late for school. | a late breakfast | Is it too late to send in my forms?

THESAURUS

overdue – not done or happening when expected: He recently paid two overdue tax bills.

be behind with sth – to be late or slow in doing something: They were three months behind with the rent.

be delayed – to be made late by something: The flight was delayed by bad weather.

be held up – to be late because of something that has happened: Sorry I'm late – I got held up.

tardy – late, especially arriving after the expected time: If you are tardy once more, you will have to stay after school.

belated – happening or arriving late, used about things or actions: a belated birthday card

2 near the end of a period of time: The house was built in the late 19th century. 3 happening at night, especially when most people are asleep: I watched the late show on TV. 4 paid or given back after the arranged time: I had to pay a fee because my payment was late. 5 [only before noun] (formal) dead: Marion and her late husband bought the house back in 1975. [ORIGIN: Old English læt]

THESAURUS dead, deceased → DEAD¹

late² adv. 1 after the usual or expected time: I probably won't be home until late. | Our flight arrived two hours late. 2 near the end of a period of time: late in the afternoon | Would you ever take a walk late at night?

late-ly /'leɪtli/ adv. recently: It hasn't rained much lately. | Lately, I've been really busy. → RECENTLY

USAGE

You must always use lately with the present perfect tense. It shows that the situation you are talking about is still continuing. You can use recently like this, too: He hasn't been feeling very well lately. | There hasn't been much rain recently. You can also use recently with the simple past tense to talk about something that happened not long ago: They recently got married.

la-tent /'leɪtənt/ adj. present but not yet noticeable, active, or completely developed: latent racism

late-er¹ /'leɪtə/ adv. 1 after the present time or a time you are talking about: I'll see you later. | They met in July, and two months later they got married. → AFTER¹ 2 later on at some time in the future, or after something else: That's a decision we can make later on.

later² adj. 1 coming in the future, or after something else: This will be decided at a later time/date.

THESAURUS next, following, subsequent, succeeding, ensuing → NEXT¹

2 [only before noun] more recent: Later models of the car are much improved.

late-er-al /'leɪtərəl/ adj. relating to the side of something, or movement to the side late-est¹ /'leɪtɪst/ adj. [only before noun] most recent or newest: What's the latest news? | the latest fashions → NEW latest² n. at the latest no later than the time mentioned: I want you home by 11 at the latest.

la-tex /'leɪtɛks/ n. [U] a thick white liquid used for making products such as rubber, glue, and paint, and produced artificially or by some plants: latex gloves lath-er¹ /'læðə/ n. [singular, U] a lot of small white BUBBLES produced by rubbing soap with water lather² v. [I, T] to produce a lather, or cover something with lather

Lat-in¹ /'lætɪn/ adj. 1 relating to or coming from Mexico, Central America, or South America 2 relating to the Latin language

Latin² n. [U] an old language that is now used mostly for legal, scientific, or medical words whose family comes from a country in Latin America —Latina adj.

La-ti-na /lə'ti:nə/ n. [C] a woman in the U.S.

Latin A'merica n. the land including Mexico, Central America, and South America —Latin American adj.

La-ti-no /lə'ti:nə/ n. (plural Latinos) [C] a man in the U.S. whose family comes from a country in Latin America ▶ In the plural, Latinos can mean a group of men and women, or just men. ◀ —Latino adj.

lat-i-tude /'lætə,tud/ n. 1 [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES the distance north or south of the EQUATOR, measured in degrees → compare LONGITUDE → see picture at GLOBE 2 [U] (formal) freedom to do or say what you like: Students now have greater latitude in choosing their classes. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin latitudo, from latus “wide”] —latitudinal /,lætə'tudnəl/ adj.

la-trine /lə'trin/ n. [C] a toilet that is outside at a camp or military area

THESAURUS toilet, lavatory, outhouse, privy → TOILET lat-ter¹ /'lætə/ n. the latter (formal) the second of two people or things that are mentioned → FORMER: Either glass or plastic would be effective, but the latter (=plastic) weighs less.

latter² adj. 1 the latter sth (formal) being the last person or thing that has just been mentioned: Of the phrases “go crazy” and “go nuts,” the latter term is used less frequently. 2 the latter sth closer to the end of a period of time: the latter part of the 19th century laud-a-ble /'ləʊdəbəl/ adj. (formal) deserving praise or admiration laud-a-to-ry /'ləʊdə,təri/ adj. (formal) expressing praise or admiration: laudatory comments about his work

laugh¹ /æf/ v. 1 [I] to make a sound with your voice, usually while smiling, because you think something is funny → LAUGHTER, SMILE: How come no one ever laughs at my jokes? | The story made me laugh so hard I started crying. | Nancy and I burst out laughing (=suddenly started laughing).

THESAURUS

giggle – to laugh quickly in a high voice, especially because you think something is very funny or because you are nervous or embarrassed chuckle – to laugh quietly cackle – to laugh in an unpleasant loud way snicker – to laugh quietly in an unkind way titter – to laugh quietly, especially in a nervous way guffaw – to laugh loudly

2 no laughing matter something serious that should not be joked about [ORIGIN: Old English hliehhan] laugh at sb/sth phr. v. to make unkind or funny remarks about someone: If I told them my real feelings, they would just laugh at me.

laugh sth ↔ off phr. v. to joke about something in order to pretend that it is not very serious or important: She laughed off their insults.

laugh² n. 1 [C] the sound you make when you laugh → SMILE: a loud laugh 2 have the last laugh to finally be successful after someone has criticized or defeated you laugh-a-ble /'læfəbəl/ adj. impossible to be treated seriously because of being so silly, bad, or difficult to believe (SYN) ridiculous laugh-ing-stock /'læfɪŋstək/ n. [C] someone who has done something silly or stupid, and whom people make jokes about and laugh at in a way that is not nice laugh-ter /'læftə/ n. [U] the action of laughing, or the sound of people laughing: Everyone burst into laughter (=started laughing). | The audience roared with laughter.

launch¹ /lɒntʃ, lɒntʃ/ v. [T] 1 to start something new, such as an activity, plan, or profession: The movie launched his acting career. 2 to send a weapon or a space vehicle into the sky or into space 3 to put a boat or ship into the water [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old North French lancer, from Late Latin lanciare “to throw a lance”] launch into sth phr. v. to suddenly start describing something or criticizing something: He launched into the story of his life.

launch² n. [C] an occasion at which a new product is shown or made available

'launch pad n. [C] the area from which a space vehicle, ROCKET, etc. is sent into space

laun-der /'lɒndə, 'lɒn-/ v. [T] 1 to put stolen money into legal businesses or bank accounts in order to hide it or use it 2 (formal) to wash clothes

Laun-dro-mat /'lɒndrəmət, 'lɒn-/ n. [C] (trademark) a place where you pay money to wash your clothes in machines

laun-dry /'lɒndri, 'lɒn-/ n. (plural laundries) 1 [U] clothes, sheets, etc. that need to be washed, or that have already been washed: I have to do the laundry (=wash clothes, sheets, etc.). | a laundry basket 2 [C] a place or business where clothes etc. are washed and IRONED lau-re-ate /'lɔːriːt, 'lɔːr-/ n. [C] (formal) someone who has been given an important prize: a Nobel laureate lau-rel /'lɔːrəl, 'lɔːr-/ n. [C] 1 a small tree with smooth shiny dark green leaves that do not fall off in winter 2 rest/sit on your laurels to be satisfied with what you have achieved and therefore stop trying to achieve anything new

lav-a /'lævə, 'lævə/ n. [U] 1 EARTH SCIENCES hot melted rock that flows from a VOLCANO → see picture at VOLCANO 2 EARTH SCIENCES this rock when it becomes cold and solid lav-a-to-ry /'lævə,tɔːri/ n. (plural lavatories) [C] (formal) a room with a toilet in it [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Medieval Latin lavatorium “bowl for washing in,” from Latin lavare “to wash”]

THESAURUS toilet, bathroom, restroom, women's/ladies' room, men's room, latrine → TOILET lav-en-der /'lævəndə/ n. 1 [C,U] a plant with purple flowers that have a strong pleasant smell 2 [U] a pale purple color [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Anglo-French lavendre, from Medieval Latin lavandula] lav-ish¹ /'lævɪʃ/ adj. very generous and often expensive or complicated: lavish gifts | He is lavish with his praise.

lavish² v.

lavish sth on sb phr. v. to give someone a lot of something good: They lavish a lot of attention on their children.

law /lɔ/ n. 1 [singular, U] the system of rules that people in a country, city, or state must obey → LEGAL: Drunk driving is against the law (=illegal). | He never intended to break the law (=do something illegal). 2 [C] a rule that people in a particular country, city, or local area must obey: Under a new law, drivers may not use cell phones.

THESAURUS rule, regulation, restriction → RULE¹

3 [U] the study of law, or the profession involving laws: She practices law (=works as a lawyer) in New York. 4 the law the police: Is he in trouble with the law? 5 law and order a situation in which people respect the law, and crime is controlled by the police, the prison system, etc.: The national guard was sent in to restore law and order. 6 [C] a statement that describes and explains how something works: the law of gravity | the economic law of supply and demand [ORIGIN: Old English lagu]

'law-a,biding adj. respectful of the law and obeying it law-ful /'lɔfəl/ adj. (formal) considered by the government or courts of law to be legal law-less /'lɔlɪs/ adj. (formal) not obeying the law, or not controlled by law lawn /lɒn/ n. [C] an area of ground around a house or in a park that is covered with grass: I should mow the lawn (=cut the grass) today. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Old French launde “open space between woods”] lawn mower, lawn-mow-er /'lɒn,məʊə/ n. [C] a machine that you use to cut the grass law of de'mand n. the law of demand ECO-NOMICS an idea which says that people will buy more of a product when its price decreases and buy less of a product when its price increases → LAW OF SUPPLY

law of inertia n. the law of inertia PHYSICS another name for NEWTON'S FIRST LAW law of reflection n. the law of reflection PHYSICS a scientific rule which says that when a RAY of light hits a surface and then REFLECTS (=is sent back) off that surface, the angle between the light and the surface is the same when it hits as when it reflects off law of supply n. the law of supply ECONOMICS an idea which says that when the demand for a product stays the same, an increase in supply leads to a lower price, and a decrease in supply leads to a higher price → LAW OF DEMAND law school n. [C,U] a part of a university or a special school where you study to become a lawyer after you get your B.A.

law-suit /'lɔːsɪt/ n. [C] a problem or complaint that someone brings to a court of law to be settled, especially for money: They have filed a lawsuit against the builders.

law-yer /'lɔːjə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to advise people about laws, write formal agreements, or represent people in court (SYN) attorney lax /læks/ adj. not strict or careful about standards of behavior, work, safety, etc.: The airport has been criticized for lax security. → STRICT —laxity n. [U] lax-a-tive /'læksətɪv/ n. [C] a medicine or something that you eat that makes your BOWELS empty easily —laxative adj.

lay¹ /leɪ/ v. (past tense and past participle laid) 1 [T] to put someone or something carefully into a particular position: Lay the peppers on the chicken. | Martha laid the baby down.

USAGE

Lay means to put something down in a flat position: They laid the map on the table.

Lie has two different meanings:

– to be in or move into a flat position on the floor, a bed, etc.: She was lying on a sofa. The past tense for this meaning of lie is lay: He lay on the bed.

– to say something that is not true: I know that he's lying. The past tense for this meaning of lie is lied: She lied because she didn't want to make him unhappy.

2 lay bricks/carpet/cable etc. to put or attach something in the correct place, especially onto something flat or under the ground: laying down a new bedroom carpet 3 [I,T] if a bird, insect, etc. lays eggs, it produces them from its body 4 lay a finger/hand on sb to hurt someone, especially to hit him/her: He never laid a finger on her. 5 lay blame/criticism/emphasis etc. (formal) to blame, criticize, emphasize, etc. 6 lay yourself open to blame/criticism etc. to do something that makes you likely to be blamed, criticized, etc.

lay sth ↔ down phr. v. to officially state rules, methods, etc. that someone must obey or use: The rules have already been laid down.

lay into sb phr. v. (informal) to attack someone physically or criticize him/her angrily: You should have heard Dad laying into Tommy.

lay off phr. v. 1 lay sb ↔ off to stop employing someone, especially when there is not much work to do: 500 auto workers were laid off. 2 lay off sth (spoken) to stop doing, having, or using something: Don't you think you should lay off alcohol for a while? 3 lay off sb to stop annoying, hurting, or criticizing someone: Lay off him, he's just a kid.

lay sth ↔ out phr. v. 1 to spread something out: Pam laid her dress out on the bed. 2 (informal) to explain or describe a plan, idea, etc.: The mayor laid out her budget proposal at Tuesday's meeting.

lay up phr. v. be laid up (with sth) to have to stay in bed because you are sick or injured: He's laid up with a broken collarbone.

lay² v. the past tense of LIE

lay³ adj. [only before noun] not trained in a particular profession or subject: a lay preacher lay-a-way /'leɪə,weɪ/ n. [U] a way of buying goods in which the goods are kept by the seller for a small amount of money until the full price is paid lay-er¹ /'leɪə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 an amount of a substance that covers all of a surface: a layer of dust on the desk 2 something that is placed on or between other things: several layers of clothing | The lower layer of rock is normally older than the upper layer.

layer² v. [T] to put something down in layers: The lemon cake is layered with raspberries on top.

lay-man /'leɪmən/ n. [C] someone who is not trained in a particular subject or type of work: He has written a book on astronomy for the layman (=people in general).

lay-off /'leɪɔf/ n. [C] the act of stopping a worker's employment because there is not enough work: There have been layoffs in the computer industry.

lay-out /'leɪaʊt/ n. [C,U] 1 the way things are arranged in a particular area or place: changes in the office layout 2 the way in which writing and pictures are arranged on a page lay-o-ver /'leɪ,ʊvə/ n. [C] a short stay somewhere between parts of a trip: We'll have a two-hour layover in Dallas.

lay-per-son /'leɪ,pəˈsən/ n. [C] a word meaning a LAYMAN that is used when the person could be a man or a woman laze /leɪz/ v. [I] to relax and enjoy yourself without doing very much: Jeff spent the morning just lazing in the yard.

la-zy /'leɪzi/ adj. (comparative lazier, superlative laziest) 1 not liking to do work or to make an effort: the laziest boy in the class | I've gotten a little lazy about cooking.

THESAURUS

idle (old-fashioned) – lazy and wasting time when there is work to do: In the story, Jack is an idle boy who would rather play than work.

indolent (formal) – lazy and living a comfortable life: The news startled him out of his state of indolent contentment.

shiftless – lazy and not at all interested in working: Some politicians seem to think that anyone who doesn't have a job is shiftless.

slack – lazy and not taking enough care to do things correctly: Some of the students were slack, not bothering to even turn in their homework.

slothful (literary) – lazy and not doing the things you ought to do: She tells slothful Americans to get out and exercise.

2 a lazy time is spent relaxing: lazy summer afternoons lb the written abbreviation of POUND [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin libra “pound”]

lead¹ /lɪd/ v. (past tense and past participle led /lɛd/)

1 GUIDE [T] to take a person or animal to a place by going with or in front of the person or animal: Isabel led us up/down some narrow stairs and into a small room. | We led the horses along the river.

THESAURUS

guide – to take someone to or through a place you know well, especially in order to show him/her interesting things: She guides tourists around the White House.

direct (formal) – to explain to someone how to get somewhere: He directed them to the station.

point – to show someone which direction to go: A sign pointed the way.

show – to take someone somewhere, especially when it is hard for him or her to find the way: Could you show Mrs. Wright the way to the university library?

escort – to take someone somewhere, protecting him or her or showing him or her the way: The president was escorted by his bodyguards.

usher (formal) – to show someone the way to somewhere nearby, usually into or out of a room or building: His secretary ushered us into his office.

2 GO IN FRONT [I,T] to go in front of a group of people or vehicles: The high school band is leading the parade.

3 DOOR/ROAD [I] if a door, road, etc. leads somewhere, you can get there by using it: The second door leads to the principal's office.

4 CONTROL [T] to be in charge of something, especially an activity or a group of people: Who is leading the investigation?

5 WIN [I,T] to be winning a game or competition: At half time, the Green Bay Packers were leading 12–0.

6 CAUSE STH [T] to be the thing that makes someone do something or think something: What led you to study geology? | Rick led me to believe (=made me believe) he was going to return the money.

7 lead a normal/dull etc. life to have a normal, boring, etc. type of life

8 SUCCESS [I,T] to be more successful than other people, companies, or countries in a particular activity or area of business: Georgia leads the nation in peanut production.

9 lead the way a) to guide someone in a particular direction b) to be the first to do something good or successful: The Japanese led the way in using robots in industry.

10 CONVERSATION [I,T] to direct a conversation or discussion so that it develops in the way you want: She finally led the topic around to pay raises.

lead off ↔ sth phr. v.

to begin an event by doing something: They led off the concert with a Beethoven overture.

lead sb on phr. v.

to make someone believe something that is not true: I thought he was in love with me, but he was just leading me on.

lead to sth phr. v.

to make something happen or exist as a result of something else: Opening the new lumber mill has led to the creation of 200 jobs.

lead up to sth phr. v.

1 to come before something: In the days leading up to the election, campaigners increased the number of phone calls to voters.

2 to gradually introduce a subject into a conversation: He made some remarks that were obviously leading up to a request for money.

lead² n. 1 [singular] the position or situation of being in front of, or better than, everyone else in a race or competition: Lewis is still in the lead. | Michael Phelps has taken the lead (=moved into the front position in a race). 2 [singular] the distance, number of points, etc. by which one competitor is ahead of another: The Bulls have a 5-point lead over the Celtics at halftime. 3 [C] a piece of information that may help you to make a discovery or find the answer to a problem: Police are pursuing all leads. 4 [C] the main acting part in a play, movie, etc., or the main singer, dancer, etc. in a group: Who has the lead in the school play? | the lead guitarist

lead³ /lɛd/ n. 1 [U] a soft gray-blue metal that melts easily 2 [C,U] the substance in a pencil that makes the marks when you write lead-er /'lɪdər/ n. [C] 1 the person who directs or controls a team, organization, country, etc.: Most world leaders will attend the conference. | the leader of the Senate 2 the person, organization, etc. that is better than all the others, especially in a race or competition: leaders in the field of medical science lead-er-ship /'lɪdərʃɪp/ n. 1 [U] the quality of being good at leading a team, organization, country, etc.: Kids who are involved in Scouts learn leadership skills. 2 [U] the position of being the leader of a team, organization, etc.: Under Brown's leadership, the magazine attracted new readers. 3 [singular] the people who lead a country, organization, etc.

lead-ing /'lɪdɪŋ/ adj. 1 best, most important, or most successful: a leading athlete 2 a leading question a question asked in a way that makes you give a particular answer leading 'indicators n. [plural] ECONOMICS a list of important economic things that are likely to change over time, printed every month by the U.S. government and used as a sign of what is likely to happen in the U.S. ECONOMY

leaf¹ /lif/ n. (plural leaves /livz/) 1 [C] one of the flat green parts of a plant that are joined to its stem or branches: There are still some leaves on the trees. → see picture at PLANT¹ 2 [C] a part of the top of a table that can be added to make the table larger 3 [U] gold or silver in a very thin sheet → turn over a new leaf at TURN¹ leaf² v.

leaf through sth phr. v. to turn the pages of a book quickly, without reading it carefully leaf-let /'liflt/ n. [C] a small piece of printed paper that gives information or advertises something leaf-y /'lifi/ adj. having a lot of leaves: green leafy vegetables league /lig/ n. [C] 1 a group of sports teams or players who play games against each other to see who is best: major league baseball 2 a group of people or countries that have joined together because they have similar aims, political beliefs, etc.: the League of Nations 3 not in the same league/out of sb's league not having the same abilities or qualities as someone or something else: He knows a lot more than I do – he's way out of my league.

leak¹ /lik/ v. 1 [I,T] to let a liquid or gas in or out of a hole or crack: Somebody's car must be leaking oil. | The roof's leaking! 2 [I] to pass through a hole or crack: Gas was leaking out of the pipes.

THESAURUS pour, flow, drip, ooze, gush, spurt, come out → POUR

3 [T] to deliberately give secret information to a newspaper, television company, etc.: Details of the President's speech were leaked to reporters. —leakage n. [C,U] leak out phr. v. if secret information leaks out, a lot of people find out about it leak² n. [C] 1 a small hole that lets liquid or gas flow into or out of something: a leak in the water pipe

THESAURUS hole, crack → HOLE¹

2 a situation in which someone has secret information and gives it to someone else: leaks from the White House leak-y /'liki/ adj. having a hole or crack so that liquid or gas can pass through: a leaky faucet lean¹ /lin/ v. 1 [I] to move or bend your body in a particular position: He leaned over and kissed his wife. 2 [I] to support yourself or be supported in a position that is not straight or upright: Brad was leaning on/against a wall. → see picture on page A9 3 [T] to put something in a sloping position against something else: Dad leaned the ladder against the wall.

THESAURUS

stand – to put something in an almost upright position: He stood the Christmas tree against the wall.

rest – to support an object by putting it on or against something: I rested my head on the back of the chair.

prop – to support something or keep it in a particular position: A small mirror was propped against the wall.

lean on sb/sth phr. v. to get support and encouragement from someone: I know I can always lean on my friends.

lean toward sth phr. v. to tend to agree with or support a particular set of opinions, beliefs, etc.: Most of the church's members lean toward the political right.

lean² adj. 1 thin in a healthy and attractive way: She is lean and athletic-looking.

THESAURUS thin, slim, slender, slight, skinny → THIN¹

2 lean meat does not have much fat on it 3 difficult as a result of bad economic conditions or lack of money: a lean year for the business

lean-ing /'linɪŋ/ n. [C] a tendency to prefer or agree with a particular set of beliefs, opinions, etc.: liberal leanings leap¹ /lip/ v. (past tense and past participle leaped or leapt /lept/) [I] 1 to jump high into the air or over something: One by one, the kids were leaping into the river.

THESAURUS jump, spring, hurdle, vault → JUMP¹

2 to move very quickly and with a lot of energy: Jon leaped up to answer the phone.

leap at sth phr. v. to accept an opportunity very eagerly: The manager needed an assistant, and Paula leaped at the chance. [ORIGIN: Old English hleapan] leap² n. 1 [C] a big jump 2 by/in leaps and bounds very quickly: Your English is improving in leaps and bounds.

leap-frog /'lipfræg/ n. [U] a children's game in which someone bends over and someone else jumps over him/her

'leap year n. [C] a year when February has 29 days instead of 28, which happens every four years

learn /lɜːn/ v. 1 [I,T] to gain knowledge of a subject or of how to do something, through experience or study: Lisa's learning Spanish. | I'd like to learn (how) to sew. | We've been learning about electricity in school.

USAGE

You learn a subject or skill when you study or practice it: She's learning to drive. | Learning languages can be fun.

If you teach someone a subject or skill, you help him/her learn it: He taught me to play the guitar. You cannot say "He learned me to ..."

THESAURUS

study – to spend time going to classes, reading, etc. to learn about a subject: I studied French when I was in high school.

pick sth up – to learn something without much effort, by watching or listening to other people: I picked up some Korean when I was in the army.

get the hang of sth – to learn how to do something, especially by practicing it: She's fallen off the bike a lot, but she's beginning to get the hang of it.

acquire (formal) – to develop or learn a skill: The program helps adults acquire the skills they need to get into full-time work.

master – to learn something so well that you understand it completely and have no difficulty with it: It is a difficult piece of music, but she has mastered it.

2 [T] to get to know something so well that you can easily remember it: Have you learned your lines for the play? 3 [I,T] (formal) to find out information, news, etc. by hearing it from someone else: We only learned about the accident later. 4 learn sth the hard way to understand something by learning from your mistakes and experiences: I've learned the hard way that it's better to keep business and friendship separate. 5 learn your lesson to suffer so much after doing something wrong that you will not do it again: I didn't punish him because I thought he had learned his lesson. [ORIGIN: Old English leornian] —learner n. [C]: a fast/quick/slow learner learn-ed /'lɜːnɪd/ adj. (formal) having a lot of knowledge because you have read and studied a lot learn-ing /'lɜːnɪŋ/ n. [U] knowledge gained through reading and study

'learning curve n. [C] the rate at which you learn a new skill: I like my new job, but it's been a steep learning curve (=I had to learn a lot very quickly).

'learning disability n. [C] a mental problem that affects a child's ability to learn lease¹ /lis/ n. 1 [C] a legal agreement that allows you to use a building, property, etc. when you pay rent: a two-year lease on the apartment | We signed the lease in December. 2 a new/fresh lease on life the feeling of being healthy, active, or happy again after being sick or unhappy lease² v. [T] to use or let someone use buildings, property, etc. when s/he pays rent: The lofts have been leased to artists.

leash /liʃ/ n. [C] a piece of rope, leather, etc. fastened to a dog's collar in order to control the dog: All dogs in the park must be kept on a leash.

least¹ /list/ determiner, pron. [the superlative of "little"] 1 at least a) not less than a particular number or amount: The thunderstorm lasted at least two hours. b) used when mentioning an advantage to show that a situation is not as bad as it seems: Well, at least you got your money back. c) said when you want to correct or change something you have just said: His name is Jerry. At least, I think it is. d) even if nothing else is said or done: Will you at least say you're sorry? 2 the least sb could do said when you think someone should do something to help someone else: The least he could do is help you clean up. 3 to say the least used in order to show that something is more serious than you are actually saying: Their relationship is unusual, to say the least. 4 the smallest number or amount → LESS: Compared to the other cakes, this one has the least amount of calories.

least² adv. 1 less than anything or anyone else: It always happens when you least expect it. | I'm the least experienced person on the team. 2 least of all especially not: I don't like any of them, least of all Debbie.

least common denominator n. [C] MATH the smallest positive INTEGER (=whole number such as 1, 2, 3, 4, etc.) that can be divided exactly by all the DENOMINATORS (=bottom numbers) in a set of FRACTIONS

leath-er /'leðə/ n. [U] animal skin that has been treated to preserve it, and is used for making shoes, etc. → SUEDE: a leather belt [ORIGIN: Old English lether] → see picture at MATERIAL¹ leath-er-y /'leðəri/ adj. hard and stiff like leather: leathery skin leave¹ /liv/ v. (past tense and past participle left /lɛft/, present participle leaving)

1 GO AWAY [I,T] to go away from a place or person: Jones quickly left the room. | I'm leaving for (=going to) Milwaukee in an hour. | I feel a little lonely now the kids have all left home (=are no longer living at home).

THESAURUS

Leave a place

go away – to leave a place, often for a long time or permanently: The kids have gone away to summer camp. | Her husband went away and left her.

set off – to start going somewhere: What time do you set off?

drive off/away – to leave somewhere in a car: She got into her car and drove off.

take off – if a plane takes off, it leaves the ground and goes up into the sky: The plane took off two hours late.

depart (formal) – if a plane, train or bus departs, it leaves a place: The next train will depart at 10:30.

withdraw – if an army withdraws from a place, it leaves: U.S. forces will start to withdraw at the beginning of April.

Leave your boyfriend/wife, etc.

split up with – to end your relationship with your boyfriend, wife, etc.: She split up with her boyfriend after she saw him with another girl.

walk out on sb – to suddenly end your relationship with someone in a way that seems unfair and unkind: Her first husband walked out on her after just two years of marriage.

leave your job or school → QUIT

2 leave sb alone (spoken) used in order to tell someone to stop annoying or upsetting someone else: Just stop asking questions and leave me alone.

3 leave sth alone (spoken) used in order to tell someone to stop touching something: Timmy! Leave that alone – you'll break it!

4 STAY IN POSITION/STATE [T] to make or let something stay in a particular state, place, or position when you are not there: We're going to leave the car at the airport.

5 PUT STH IN A PLACE [T] to put something in a place for someone: Just leave the map on the table. | Please leave a message and I'll get back to you.

6 FORGET [T] to forget to take something with you when you leave a place: I think I left my keys in the car.

7 be left to remain after everything else has been taken away: Is there any coffee left?

8 NOT DO STH [T] to not do something until later: Let's leave the dishes for the morning.

9 HUSBAND/WIFE [I,T] to stop living with your husband or wife: Tammy's husband left her last year.

10 LET SB DECIDE [T] to let someone decide something or be responsible for something: Leave the details to me; I'll arrange everything.

11 GIVE AFTER DEATH [T] to give something to someone after you die: She left a lot of money to her son.

THESAURUS give, bequeath → GIVE¹

12 leave it at that (spoken) to not say or do anything more about a situation: He's not going – let's just leave it at that.

13 leave a mark/stain etc. to make a mark, STAIN, etc. that remains afterward: Make sure that you don't leave any footprints.

14 leave a lot to be desired to be very unsatisfactory: Though the play leaves a lot to be desired, the costumes are beautiful.

15 from where sb left off from the place where you stopped: Tomorrow, we'll start the reading

from where we left off. [ORIGIN: Old English]

leave sb/sth behind phr. v.

to forget to take something with you when you leave a place, or to not take something on purpose: Did you leave your umbrella behind in the restaurant?

leave sb/sth ↔ out phr. v.

1 to not include someone or something in a group, list, activity, etc.: The stew will still taste okay if we leave out the wine.

2 be/feel left out to feel as if you are not accepted or welcome in a social group: I always felt left out when my sister's friends were here.

leave² n. 1 [U] time that you are allowed to spend away from your work because you are sick, have had a baby, etc.: How much sick leave have you taken?

THESAURUS vacation, holiday, break → VACATION

2 leave of absence a period of time that you are allowed to spend away from work for a particular purpose leaves /livz/ n. the plural of LEAF

lech-er-ous /'lektʃərəs/ adj. (disapproving) a lecherous man is always thinking about sex lec-tern /'lektən/ n. [C] a high desk that you stand behind when you give a speech

lec-ture¹ /'lektʃə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a long talk to a group of people about a particular subject: She's giving a lecture on modern art. | Students take notes while listening to lectures.

THESAURUS lesson, course, seminar → CLASS¹

2 a long serious talk that criticizes someone or warns him/her about something: My parents gave me another lecture about my school work. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Late Latin lectura “act of reading,” from Latin legere “to read”] lecture² v. 1 [T] to talk angrily or seriously to someone in order to criticize or warn him/her: I wish you'd stop lecturing me about smoking. 2 [I] to teach a group of people about a particular subject, especially at a college: He lectures on psychiatry at the medical school.

led /led/ v. the past tense and past participle of LEAD ledge /ledʒ/ n. [C] 1 a narrow flat surface like a shelf, that sticks out from the side of a building: a window ledge 2 a narrow flat surface of rock, that is parallel to the ground ledg-er /'ledʒə/ n. [C] a book in which a bank, business, etc. records the money received and spent → RECORD¹

THESAURUS record, file, accounts, books → RECORD¹

leech /litʃ/ n. [C] a small soft creature that attaches itself to an animal in order to drink its blood leek /lik/ n. [C] a vegetable with long straight green leaves, that tastes like an onion leer /lɪr/ v. [I] to look at someone in an unpleasant way that shows that you think s/he is sexually attractive —leer n. [C] leer-y /'lɪrɪ/ adj. worried and unable to trust someone or something: The girl was leery of strangers.

lee-way /'liweɪ/ n. [U] freedom to do things in the way you want to: Students have some leeway in what they can write about.

left¹ /left/ adj. 1 your left side is the side of your body that contains your heart (ANT right): He broke his left leg. 2 on the same side of something as your left side (ANT right): Our house is the first one on the left side of the street.

left² adv. toward the left side (ANT right): Turn left at the next street.

left³ n. [C] 1 the left side or direction (ANT right): It's the second door on your/the left. 2 the left/Left POLITICS political parties or other groups who believe that the government should use money received from taxes to pay for social services and should limit the power of businesses → LIBERAL (ANT right)

left⁴ v. the past tense and past participle of LEAVE

'left field n. 1 in/from left field (informal) unusual or strange compared to the way that people usually behave: Some of his ideas are way out in left field (=very strange). 2 [singular] the area in baseball in the left side of the OUTFIELD

'left-hand adj. on the left side of something: the top left-hand drawer

'left-handed adj. 1 someone who is left-handed uses his/her left hand to do most things 2 done with the left hand: a left-handed throw 3 made to be used with the left hand: left-handed scissors —left-handed adv.

left-o-vers /'left,ʊvəz/ n. [plural] food that remains at the end of a meal and is kept to be eaten later

'left-wing adj. POLITICS a left-wing person or group supports the ideas and beliefs of SOCIALISM or COMMUNISM (ANT right-wing): a left-wing newspaper —left-wing n. [singular] —left-winger n. [C] leg /leg/ n.

1 BODY PART [C] one of the two long parts of your body that you use to stand or walk, or a similar part on an animal or insect: How did you hurt your leg? | Mia was sitting with her legs crossed. | She fell and broke her left/right leg. → see picture on page A2

2 FURNITURE [C] one of the upright parts that support a piece of furniture: a table leg

3 PANTS [C] the part of your pants that covers your leg

4 FOOD [C,U] the leg of an animal eaten as food: roast leg of lamb

5 TRIP/RACE ETC. [C] a part of a long trip, race, process, etc. that is done one part at a time: She started the last leg of the tour last week.

6 TRIANGLE [C] MATH one of the two sides of a TRIANGLE that meet and form an angle of 90°

7 -legged having a particular number or type of legs: a three-legged cat

8 leg room space in which to put your legs comfortably when you are sitting in a car, theater, etc.: There wasn't enough leg room.

9 not have a leg to stand on (informal) to be in a situation where you cannot prove or legally support what you say [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old Norse leggr] → on its last legs at LAST¹ leg-a-cy /'legəsi/ n. (plural legacies) [C] 1 a situation that exists as a result of things that happened at an earlier time: Racial tension in the country is a legacy of slavery. 2 LAW money or property that you receive from someone after s/he dies le-gal /'ligəl/ (AC) adj. 1 allowed, ordered, or approved by law (ANT illegal): Is it legal to park here overnight? | a legal agreement | Divorce finally became legal there in 1992. 2 relating to the law: the legal system | If you don't pay soon, we'll be forced to take legal action (=go to court). | Parents are under a legal obligation to ensure that their child receives an education. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French, Latin legalis, from lex "law"] —legally adv.: You can't legally buy alcohol until you're 21. | Teachers are legally responsible for the care of students. —legality /lɪ'gæləti/ n. [U]: The legality of his actions has been questioned.

le-gal-ize /'ligəlaɪz/ v. [T] to make something legal that was not legal before: a campaign to legalize marijuana —legalization /,lɪgələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [U] leg-end /'ledʒənd/ n. 1 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS an old well-known story, often about brave people or adventures, or all stories of this kind: the legend of King Arthur

THESAURUS story, tale, myth, fable → STORY

2 [C] someone who is famous and admired for being extremely good at doing something: Elvis Presley, the rock and roll legend leg-end-ar-y /'ledʒən,dəri/ adj. 1 famous and admired: the legendary baseball player Joe DiMaggio

THESAURUS famous, well-known, infamous, notorious, celebrated, renowned → FAMOUS

2 talked or read about in legends leg-er-de-main /,ledʒə'də'meɪn/ n. [U] (old-fashioned) skillful use of your hands when performing tricks leg-gings /'legɪŋz/ n. [plural] women's pants that stretch to fit the shape of the body leg-i-ble /'ledʒəbəl/ adj. written or printed clearly enough for you to read (ANT illegible): His writing was barely legible. —legibly adv.

le-gion /'lidʒən/ n. [C] a large group of soldiers or people leg-is-late /'ledʒə,slert/ (AC) v. [I,T] POLITICS to make a law about something: The group wants to legislate against abortion. | Can Congress legislate a national minimum drinking age?

leg-is-la-tion /,ledʒə'sleɪʃən/ (AC) n. [U] 1 LAW a law or set of laws: human rights legislation | The new legislation has been widely supported by the business community. 2 POLITICS the act of making laws: Legislation can be an extremely lengthy process.

leg-is-la-tive /'ledʒə,slertɪv/ (AC) adj. POLITICS relating to laws or to making laws: legislative leaders | the legislative branch of government | The new assemblies will have no legislative power.

leg-is-la-tor /'ledʒə,slertə/ (AC) n. [C] POLITICS an elected government official who is involved in making laws: A state legislator cannot stay in office for more than 12 years. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin legis lator “suggester of a law”]

leg-is-la-ture /'ledʒə,slertʃə/ (AC) n. [C] POLITICS an institution that has the power to make or change laws: the Ohio state legislature | The legislature passed a law moving the election to April.

leg-it /lɪ'dʒɪt/ adj. (spoken) legitimate leg-it-i-mate /lə'dʒɪtəmət/ adj. 1 fair or reasonable: She has a legitimate reason for being late. 2 operating legally or according to the law: legitimate business activities —legitimacy n. [U] lei-sure /'li:ʒə/ n. [U] 1 time when you are not working and can do things you enjoy: I spend most of my leisure time reading. 2 at sb's leisure as slowly as you want, and when you want: Read it at your leisure.

lei-sure-ly /'li:ʒəli/ adj. moving or done in a relaxed way: a leisurely walk around the park

THESAURUS slow, sluggish, tardy → SLOW¹

lem-on /'lemən/ n. [C,U] a yellow fruit that has a sour-tasting juice [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French limon, from Medieval Latin limo, from Arabic laymun] → see picture on page 414

lem-on-ade /,lemə'neɪd/ n. [U] a drink made with lemon juice, sugar, and water lend /lənd/ v. (past tense and past participle lent /lənt/) [T] 1 to let someone borrow money or something that belongs to you for a short time: Could you lend me your bike?

USAGE

If you lend something to someone, you give it to him/her so that s/he can use it for a short time: I lent him my jacket. | Could you lend me some money? You cannot say “Could you borrow me some money?”

If you borrow something from someone, you take something that belongs to him/her for a short time, with his/her permission, and then give it back: Can I borrow your pen? You cannot say “Can I lend your pen?”

2 if a bank lends money, it lets someone borrow it if s/he pays it back with an additional amount of money: This bank lends a lot of money to local businesses. 3 lend (sb) a hand to help someone do something, especially something that needs physical effort: Lend me a hand with this box. 4 sth lends itself to sth used to say that something is appropriate for being used in a particular way: Nature lends itself to drawing and painting. 5 to give something a particular quality: The balloons lend a festive air to the park. [ORIGIN: Old English lænan, from læn] —lender n. [C]

length /lɛŋkθ, lɛnθ/ n. 1 [C,U] the measurement of something from one end to the other: The length of the room is five feet. | a pole about seven feet in length → see picture at DIMENSION 2 [C,U] the amount of time that you spend doing something or that something continues for: the length of your stay in the hospital 3 [C,U] the amount of writing in a book, article, etc., or the amount of time that a movie, play, etc. continues for: His new film is nearly twice the length of his last one. 4 go to great lengths to do sth to be willing to use many different methods to achieve something you want: She went to great lengths to help us. 5 at length for a long time: She spoke at length on the dangers of smoking. 6 [C] a piece of something that is long and thin: two lengths of rope length-en /'lɛŋkθən/ v. [I,T] to make something longer, or to become longer (ANT shorten): I need this dress lengthened.

length-wise /'lɛŋkθwaɪz/ also length-ways /'lɛŋkθweɪz/ adv. in the direction or position of the longest side: Fold the cloth lengthwise.

length-y /'lɛŋkθi/ adj. continuing for a long time: The magazine published a lengthy interview with the French president. | a lengthy period of economic growth

le-ni-ent /'lɪniənt, 'lɪnyənt/ adj. not strict in the way you punish someone or control his/her behavior: She was too lenient with the children. → STRICT —leniency n. [U] lens /lɛnz/ n. [C] 1 SCIENCE a piece of curved glass or plastic that makes things look bigger, smaller, or clearer, for example in a pair of GLASSES, or in a TELESCOPE or a MICROSCOPE: glasses with thick lenses → see picture at MICROSCOPE 2 BIOLOGY the clear part inside your eye that FOCUSES so you can see things clearly

Lent /lənt/ n. the 40 days before Easter, when some Christians stop eating particular things or stop particular habits [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Lenten “springtime, Lent” (11–17 centuries), from Old English lengten; because the days get longer in spring]

lent v. the past tense and past participle of LEND len·til /ˈlɛntəl/ n. [C] a small round seed which has been dried and can be cooked

Le-o /ˈliu/ n. 1 [U] the fifth sign of the ZODIAC, represented by a lion 2 [C] someone born between July 23 and August 22

leop·ard /ˈlepəd/ n. [C] a large wild cat with yellow fur and black spots, from Africa and southern Asia [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French leupart, from Late Latin leopardus, from Greek, from leon “lion” + pardos “leopard”] le-o-tard /ˈliə,tərd/ n. [C] a tight-fitting piece of women’s clothing that covers the body from the neck to the top of the legs, worn especially while exercising [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Jules Léotard (1830–70), French trapeze artist who invented it]

lep·er /ˈlepə/ n. [C] someone who has leprosy lep-ro-sy /ˈleprəsi/ n. [U] a serious infectious disease in which someone’s flesh is gradually destroyed —leprous /ˈleprəs/ adj.

les-bi-an /ˈlezbɪən/ n. [C] a woman who is sexually attracted to other women → HOMOSEXUAL, GAY le-sion /ˈliʒən/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a wound or a sore infected area on someone’s skin: Many workers developed skin lesions from handling fiberglass. 2 BIOLOGY a dangerous change in part of someone’s body such as his/her lungs or brain, caused by injury or illness: brain lesions found in Alzheimer’s patients

less /les/ quantifier, pron., adv. [the comparative of “little”] 1 a smaller amount, or to a smaller degree (ANT) more: The job involves much less stress than my last one. | I’m trying to exercise more and eat less. | Women generally earn less money than men. | She spends less of her time playing tennis now. 2 less and less gradually becoming smaller in amount or degree: We seem to be spending less and less time together. 3 no less than sth used to emphasize that an amount or number is large: I watched him eat no less than three pizzas. 4 nothing less than sth used to emphasize how serious or important something is: Her death was nothing less than a tragedy.

GRAMMAR

less, fewer

Use less before U nouns: He earns less money than she does.

Use fewer before plural noun forms: There are fewer flights on Sundays.

less-en /ˈlesən/ v. [I,T] to become smaller in size, amount, importance, or value, or to make something do this → REDUCE: A low-fat diet can lessen the risk of heart disease.

THESAURUS relieve, alleviate, palliate → REDUCE

less-er /ˈlesə/ adj. 1 (formal) not as large, as important, or as much as something else: The same is true for Argentina, and to a lesser extent Chile. | These wounds would have killed a lesser man (=someone not as strong or brave). 2 the lesser of two evils the less bad or harmful of two bad choices —lesser adv.: a lesser-known artist

les-son /ˈlesən/ n. [C] 1 a period of time in which someone is taught a particular subject or skill: I have a guitar lesson today. | Hannah is taking cooking lessons from a professional chef.

THESAURUS course, lecture, seminar →
CLASS¹

2 an experience, especially a bad one, that makes you more careful in the future: Our town’s experience with the fire should serve as a lesson to the entire state. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French leçon, from Latin lectio “act of reading”] → learn your lesson at LEARN, teach sb a lesson at TEACH

let /let/ v. (past tense and past participle let, present participle letting) 1 [T] to allow someone to do something, or allow something to happen: I wanted to go but my mother wouldn’t let me. | Ed lets me borrow his car whenever I want. | Don’t pick up the phone – let the answering machine get it. | Let me finish this, then we can go.

THESAURUS allow, permit, authorize, sanction, condone → ALLOW

2 let go to stop holding someone or something: You can let go of my hand when we’ve crossed the street. 3 let sb go a) to allow a person or animal to leave a place where they have been kept: The police let her go after two hours. b) to dismiss someone from his/her job: I’m afraid we have to let you go. 4 let sb know to tell someone something: Could you let me know when you’re done? 5 let alone used to say that because one thing does not happen, is not true, etc. another thing cannot possibly happen or be true: I don’t have $10, let alone $10,000! 6 let sth go/pass to decide not to react to something bad or annoying that someone has said or done: I’ll let it go this time, but don’t be late again. 7 let sb/sth be also let sb/sth alone to stop annoying someone, asking questions, or trying to change things: Your mother’s had a hard day, so just let her be.

SPOKEN PHRASES

8 let’s is the short form of “let us,” used when you want to suggest that someone or a group of people do something with you: I'm hungry; let's eat. | Let's not talk about this right now. 9 let's see a) said when you are going to try to do something: Let's see if/whether Andy's home. b) said when you pause because you cannot remember or find something: Now let's see, where did I put it? c) said to ask someone to show you something: "I got a new dress." "Really? Let's see." 10 let's hope (that) said when you hope something is true or will happen: Let's hope she didn't hear what we were saying. 11 let me do sth said when you are offering to help someone: Let me carry that for you. 12 let me tell you said to emphasize a statement: It was a really great party, let me tell you.

[ORIGIN: Old English laetan]

let sb ↔ down phr. v. to make someone feel disappointed because you have behaved badly or have not done what you said you would do → LET-DOWN let sb/sth ↔ in phr. v. 1 to open the door of a room, building, etc. so that someone can come in: She unlocked the door to let him in. 2 to allow light, water, etc. to enter a place: The door opened, letting in a gust of wind. 3 let sb in on sth to tell someone a secret: I'll let you in on a little secret.

let sb ↔ into sth phr. v. to allow someone to come into a room or building: Security guards refused to let reporters into the building.

let sb ↔ off phr. v. to not punish someone, or to not make him/her do something: The police officer let us off with a warning.

let on phr. v. to behave in a way that shows you know a secret: Don't let on (that) you know!

let out phr. v. 1 let sb ↔ out to allow someone to leave a building, room, etc.: Let the dog out, please. 2 if a school, college, movie, etc. lets out, it ends, and people can leave: School lets out at 3:30. 3 let sth ↔ out to allow light, air, etc. to leave a place: Close the door – you're letting all the heat out. 4 let out a scream/cry etc. to make a sound, especially a loud one let up phr. v. if rain or snow lets up, it stops or there is less of it → LETUP let-down /'letdaʊn/ n. [singular] (informal) something that makes you feel disappointed because it is not as good as you expected (SYN) disappointment: Our hotel was a big letdown.

lethal /'liθəl/ adj. able to kill someone: a lethal dose of heroin [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin lethalis, from lethum "death"] lethargic /lə'θɑ:dʒɪk/ adj. having no energy, so that you feel lazy or tired [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin lethargicus, from Greek, from lethargos "forgetful, lazy"] —lethargy /'leθə:dʒi/ n. [U]

let's /lets/ the short form of "let us," used especially to make a suggestion: I'm hungry. Let's eat! | Let's stay home tonight. → LET

let-ter /'letə/ n. [C] 1 a written message that you put into an envelope and send to someone by mail: Ken wrote a letter to the local newspaper. | Can you mail this letter on your way to work? 2 one of the signs in writing that represents a sound in speech: There are 26 letters in the English alphabet. 3 to the letter exactly: He followed their instructions to the letter. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French lettre, from Latin littera]

let-ter-head /'letə,hed/ n. 1 [U] paper that has the name and address of a person or business printed at the top of it 2 [C] the name and address of a person or business printed at the top of a piece of paper

let-tuce /'letɪs/ n. [C,U] a round green vegetable with large thin leaves, eaten raw in SALADS [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French laitues, plural of laitue, from Latin lactuca, from lac "milk;" because of its milky juice] → see picture at VEG-ETABLE let-up /'letʌp/ n. [singular, U] a pause or a reduction in a difficult, dangerous, or tiring activity: We drove 24 hours straight without letup (=without stopping).

leu-ke-mia /lu'kimɪə/ n. [U] a serious disease that affects the blood and that can cause death [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Greek leukos "white" + -aimia (from haima "blood")]

lev-ee /'levi/ n. [C] a special wall built to stop a river from flooding

lev-el¹ /'levəl/ n. [C] 1 the amount or degree of something, as compared to another amount or degree: a high/low level of risk | The temperature will stay at these levels until Friday. 2 the height or position of something in relation to the ground or another thing: Check the water level in the radiator. | Hang the picture at eye level (=at the same height as your eyes). → SEA LEVEL 3 a standard of skill or ability in a particular subject, sport, etc.: Students are given an exam to determine their level. | Few athletes can compete at this level. 4 a particular position in a system that has different ranks: The decision will be made at local/state/federal etc. level. | high-level talks (=discussions between important people) 5 a floor in a building that has several floors: Housewares is on Level 3. 6 a tool used for checking if a surface is flat level² adj. 1 flat and not sloping, with no surface higher than the rest: The floor isn't level.

THESAURUS flat, even, horizontal → FLAT¹

2 at the same height or position as something else: My head was level with his chin.

level³ v. [T] 1 to knock down or completely destroy a building or area: An earthquake leveled several buildings in the city. 2 level a charge/accusation/criticism etc. to publicly criticize someone or say s/he is responsible for a crime, mistake, etc.: Dunn leveled one criticism after another at the university. 3 to make a surface flat and smooth: Level the ground before laying the turf.

level off/out phr. v. to stop going up or down, and continue at the same height or amount: The plane climbed to 20,000 feet, then leveled off. | Oil prices have leveled off at $55 a barrel.

L

level with sb phr. v. (informal) to speak honestly with someone and tell him/her what you really think level-headed adj. calm and sensible in making judgments or decisions lev-er /'levə, 'li-/ n. [C] 1 a stick or handle attached to a machine, that you move to make the machine work 2 a long thin piece of metal, wood, etc. that you put under a heavy object in order to lift it —lever v. [T] lev-er-age /'levərɪdʒ, 'li-/ n. [U] influence that you can use to make people do what you want: Small businesses have less leverage in dealing with banks.

lev-i-tate /'levə,teɪt/ v. [I] to rise and float in the air as if by magic —levitation /,levə'teɪʃən/ n. [U]

lev-i-ty /'levəti/ n. [U] (formal) the quality of telling jokes and having fun instead of being serious lev-y /'levi/ (Ac) v. (levied, levies) levy a tax/charge etc. to officially make someone pay a tax, etc.: A 15% tax is levied on most hotel services.

levy ² n. (plural levies) [C] an additional sum of money, usually paid as a tax: A new levy on agricultural imports will be introduced.

lewd /lud/ adj. using rude words or movements that make someone think of sex: lewd jokes lex-i-cal /'leksɪkəl/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to words lex-i-con /'leksɪ,kən/ n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS all the words used in a language or by people in a particular group, profession, etc. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a book containing lists of words and their meanings [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Late Greek lexikon, from lexikos “of words,” from Greek lexis “word, speech”] li-a-bil-i-ty /,laɪə'bɪləti/ n. (plural liabilities) 1 [U] LAW legal responsibility for something, especially for paying money that is owed, or for damage or injury: The company has admitted liability for the accident. 2 [C usually singular] someone or something that is likely to cause you problems: He became a liability to the team. 3 liabilities [plural] ECONOMICS the amount of debt that a company owes → ASSET

li-a-ble /'laɪəbəl/ adj. 1 be liable to do sth to be likely to do something, behave in a particular way, or be treated in a particular way: Wayne and I are liable to start arguing if we discuss politics. 2 LAW legally responsible for the cost of something: The university was not held liable for the damage done by its students.

li-aise /li'eɪz/ v. [I] to work with other people and share information with them li-ai-son /li'eɪ,zən/ n. 1 [C] someone who talks to different people, departments, groups, etc. and tells each of them about what the others are doing: He's the liaison between the ruler and the local people. 2 [C] a secret sexual relationship 3 [singular, U] a working relationship between two groups, companies, etc.

li-ar /'laɪə/ n. [C] someone who tells lies li-bel /'laɪbəl/ n. [C,U] LAW the act of writing or printing untrue statements about someone, so that other people are likely to have a bad opinion of him/her: He is suing the magazine for libel. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin libellus, from liber “book”] —libel v. [T]

THESAURUS lie, fib, falsehood, fabrication, slander → LIE³

lib-eral ¹ /'lɪbrəl, -bəɪrəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 willing to understand or respect the different behavior, ideas, etc. of other people (ANT conservative: a liberal attitude toward sex | The role of the media is important in a liberal society.) 2 POLITICS supporting political ideas that include more involvement by the government in business and in people's lives, and willing to accept people's differences and changes in society (ANT conservative: the liberal wing of the Democratic party) 3 POLITICS allowing people or organizations a lot of political, economic, or social freedom: a liberal democracy | The party supports a more liberal policy on crime and punishment. 4 (formal) given in large amounts: a liberal donation [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin liberalis, from liber “free”] liberal ² n. [C] POLITICS someone with liberal opinions or principles (ANT conservative: Liberals want Congress to introduce more programs to relieve child poverty.) liberal 'arts n. [plural] subjects that develop someone's general knowledge and ability to think, rather than technical skills lib-eral-is-m /'lɪbrə,lɪzəm/ (Ac) n. [U] liberal opinions and principles, especially on social and political subjects → CONSERVATISM

lib-eral-ize /'lɪbrə,ləɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] to make a system, laws, or moral attitudes less strict: Both candidates promised to liberalize trade policies.

lib-eral-ly /'lɪbrəli/ (Ac) adv. 1 in large amounts: The story was liberally illustrated with photographs. 2 with liberal ideas or opinions: a liberally-minded politician

lib-er-ate /'lɪbə,reɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to free someone from feelings or situations that make his/her life difficult: These gadgets liberated housewives from many hard chores. 2 to free prisoners, a city, a country, etc. from someone's control: The city was liberated by the Allies in 1944. —liberator n. [C] —liberation /,lɪbə'reɪʃən/ n. [U]: the liberation of Eastern Europe | Some human rights violations may have occurred immediately after the liberation of the country.

lib-er-at-ed /'lɪbə,reɪtɪd/ (Ac) adj. free to do the things you want, and not controlled by rules or other people: The 1960s saw the beginning of a new liberated and permissive attitude.

lib-er-tar-i-an /ˈlɪbəˈtɛəriən/ n. [C] someone who believes strongly that people should be free to live with little or no government involvement in their lives —libertarian adj.

lib-er-ty /ˈlɪbəti/ n. (plural liberties) 1 [U] the freedom to do what you want without having to ask permission from people in authority: principles of liberty and democracy 2 [C usually plural] a particular legal right: civil liberties 3 be at liberty to do sth to have the right or permission to do something: I'm not at liberty to say where he is at the moment. 4 take the liberty of doing sth to do something without asking permission because you do not think it will upset or offend anyone: I took the liberty of inviting Jeff along. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French liberté, from Latin libertas, from liber “free”] li-bi-do /lɪˈbɪdoʊ/ (plural libidos) n. [C,U] someone's desire to have sex

Li-bra /ˈlɪbrə/ n. 1 [U] the seventh sign of the ZODIAC, represented by a SCALE 2 [C] someone born between September 23 and October 23

li-brar-i-an /lɪˈbrəriən/ n. [C] someone who works in a library li-brar-y /lɪˈbrəri/ n. (plural libraries) [C] a room or building containing books that you can borrow or read there [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Medieval Latin librarium, from Latin liber “book”] lice /laɪs/ n. the plural of LOUSE

li-cense¹ /ˈlaɪsəns/ [Ac] n. 1 [C] an official document that gives you permission to own something or do something: a driver's license | He was charged with possessing firearms without a license. | The Tennessee Valley Authority applied for a license to operate the nuclear facility. 2 [U] (formal) freedom to do or say whatever you want: He thinks because he's famous he has license to be rude. | Teachers should be allowed greater license in choosing their teaching materials. 3 [U] the way in which a writer or painter changes the facts of the real world to make his/her story, description, or picture of events more interesting or more beautiful: The novelist allows himself considerable poetic license in his description of the town.

license² v. [T] to give official permission for someone to own or do something: Williams is not licensed to practice law in New York. | Medical personnel must be licensed by the state.

li-censed /ˈlaɪsənst/ adj. having official permission to own or do something: He had completed his studies to become licensed as a surveyor.

'license plate n. [C] one of the signs with numbers and letters on it at the front and back of your car li-cen-tious /lɪˈsɛnfəs/ adj. (literary) sexually immoral or not controlling behavior in an acceptable way: licentious books —licentiousness n. [U] lick¹ /lɪk/ v. [T] 1 to move your tongue across the surface of something in order to taste it, clean it, etc.: Judy's dog jumped up to lick her face. 2 (informal) to defeat an opponent or solve a problem: “It looks like we have the fire licked,” said Chief Grafton. [ORIGIN: Old English liccian] lick² n. [C usually singular] an act of licking something: Can I have a lick of your ice cream cone?

lick-ing /ˈlɪkɪŋ/ n. [singular] (informal) 1 a severe beating as a punishment 2 a heavy defeat in a sports competition lic-o-ri-ce /ˈlɪkərɪʃ/ n. [U] a type of strong-tasting black or red candy [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French, Late Latin liquiritia, from Latin glycyrrhiza, from Greek, from glykys “sweet” + rhiza “root”] lid /lɪd/ n. [C] 1 a cover for a pot, box, or other container: He carefully lifted the lid of the box.

THESAURUS cover, top, cap → COVER²

2 keep a lid on sth (informal) to control a situation so that it does not become worse: Police try to keep a lid on crime in the area. 3 an EYELID [ORIGIN: Old English hlid]

lie¹ /laɪ/ v. (past tense lay /leɪ/, past participle lain /leɪn/, present participle lying) [I] 1 a) to be in a position in which your body is flat on the floor, a bed, etc.: We lay on the beach all day. | I lay awake worrying. b) also lie down to put yourself in this position: I'm going upstairs to lie down. 2 to be in a particular place or position: The town lies to the east of the lake. | The ship had lain on the ocean floor for decades. 3 used to say where something such as a reason or answer can be found: Mitchell's charm lies in his sense of humor. 4 to be or remain in a particular condition or position: The city lay in ruins. | The letters lay hidden in her attic for forty years. 5 lie low to remain hidden when someone is trying to find you: Weaver decided to lie low at his sister's house. 6 lie ahead if something lies ahead, it is going to happen in the future: There are difficulties that lie ahead. → not take sth lying down at TAKE¹ lie around phr. v. 1 to be left out of the correct place, so that things look messy: Books and papers were lying around everywhere. 2 to spend time being lazy, not doing anything useful: We lay around the house all afternoon, watching TV.

lie behind sth phr. v. to be the true reason for an action, decision, etc.: I wonder what really lay behind her decision to quit her job.

lie² v. (past tense and past participle lied /laɪd/, present participle lying) [I] to deliberately tell someone something that is not true: She's lying about her age. | Don't lie to me!

THESAURUS make sth up – to invent a story, explanation, etc. in order to deceive someone: “What'll you tell your mother?” “I'll make something up.”

tell (sb) a lie – to lie: Did he make a mistake, or did he tell a lie?

invent – to think of an idea, story, etc. that is not true: If I can't find a reason, I'll invent one.

mislead – to make someone believe something that is not true by giving him/her false or incomplete information: The ads were accused of misleading consumers.

deceive – to make someone believe something that is not true: In order to deceive the enemy, our troops first headed north, away from the bridge.

perjure yourself/commit perjury (formal) – to tell a lie in a court of law: Company executives may have perjured themselves in sworn testimony to Congress.

falsify – to change figures, records, etc. so that they contain false information: Apparently, he falsified the records in order to steal the money.

lie³ n. [C] something that you say or write that you know is not true: I've never known him to tell lies.

THESAURUS

fib (informal) – a small unimportant lie white lie – a small lie that you tell someone, usually to avoid hurting his/her feelings story – an excuse, explanation, or lie falsehood (formal) – a statement that is not true fabrication (formal) – a story, piece of information, etc. that you make up in order to deceive someone slander (formal) – something untrue that is said about someone which could harm the opinion people have of him/her libel (formal) – something untrue that is written about someone which could harm the opinion people have of him/her perjury (formal) – the crime of telling a lie in a court of law

'lie detector n. [C] a machine used by the police to find out if someone is lying lieu /lu/ n. (formal) in lieu of sth instead of something else lieutenant /lu'tenənt/ n. [C] a) a fairly low rank in the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marines, or an officer who has this rank b) a fairly high rank in the police force, or an officer who has this rank life /laɪf/ n. (plural lives /laɪvz/)

1 PERIOD OF LIFE [C,U] the period of time between someone's birth and death: Charles lived in New York City all his life. | It was the happiest day of my life. | She spent her life helping others. | I've never felt better in my life.

2 BEING ALIVE [C,U] the state of being alive: Surgery could save her life. | Firemen risked their lives (=did something during which they could have been killed) to save him. | Tragically, she took her own life (=killed herself).

3 WAY OF LIVING [C,U] all the experiences and activities that are typical of a particular way of living: How's life in Japan? | He's spent most of his working life (=time spent working) with one company. | Married life has been an adjustment. | Violence is a way of life for many teenagers.

4 EXPERIENCES [C] the type of experience that someone has during his/her life: Tia had a full and happy life. | She wanted to save her son from a life of crime. | Then he started telling me his life story (=all the things that happened in his life).

5 LIVING THINGS [U] BIOLOGY living things such as people, animals, or plants: Do you think there is life on other planets?

6 private/sex/social etc. life activities in your life that are private, relate to sex, are done with friends, etc.: I don't have much time for a social life.

7 MOVEMENT [U] activity or movement: We looked around for any signs of life. | Katie was young and full of life (=very cheerful and active).

8 EXISTENCE [U] human existence, and all the things that can happen during someone's life: Life can be hard sometimes.

9 PRISON [U] also life in prison a LIFE SENTENCE: The defendants were sentenced to life.

10 real life what really happens rather than what only happens in stories or someone's imagination: Things like that don't happen in real life.

11 quality of life the level or quality of health, success, and comfort in someone's life: Crime affects everyone's quality of life.

12 WORKING/EXISTING [singular] the period of time during which something exists or continues to happen: long-life batteries

13 bring sb/sth to life a) to make someone or something live: Doctors fought to bring the baby back to life. b) to make something more exciting or interesting: The movie really brings 19th-century New York to life.

SPOKEN PHRASES

14 that's life said when something bad has happened that you must accept

15 life is too short said when telling someone that something is not important enough to worry about: Life's too short to hold grudges.

16 Get a life! used to tell someone you think s/he is boring

17 Not on your life! used to say that you will definitely not do something

18 for the life of me said when you cannot do something, even when you try very hard: I can't remember her name for the life of me!

[ORIGIN: Old English lif]

life-boat /'laɪfbəʊt/ n. [C] 1 a small boat that is used for helping people who are in danger on the ocean 2 a small boat carried by ships in order to save people if the ship sinks

'life cycle n. [C] BIOLOGY all the different stages of development that an animal or plant goes through during its life life expectancy n. (plural life expectancies) [C] 1 BIOLOGY the average length of time that a person or animal is expected to live: an insect with a life expectancy of only a week 2 the age that a particular person is likely to live to, based on things such as his/her health, whether s/he smokes, etc., used to calculate the risk of insuring that person life-guard /'laɪfgɑːd/ n. [C] someone whose job is to help swimmers who are in danger at the beach or a pool

'life insurance n. [U] a type of insurance that someone buys so that when s/he dies, his/her family will receive money

'life jacket n. [C] a piece of equipment that you wear around your chest to prevent you from sinking in the water life-less /'laɪflɪs/ adj. 1 (literary) dead, or seeming to be dead: His lifeless body was discovered in the river. → DEAD 2 lacking excitement, activity, or interest: The team's performance was dull and lifeless.

life-like /'laɪflaɪk/ adj. very much like a real person or thing: a lifelike statue life-line /'laɪflaɪn/ n. [C] something that someone depends on completely: Because I live so far from a town, the phone is my lifeline.

life-long /'laɪflɒŋ/ adj. continuing all through your life: lifelong friends life-saver /'laɪf,seɪvə/ n. [C] someone or something that helps you avoid a difficult or bad situation

'life sentence n. [C] the punishment of sending someone to prison for the rest of his/her life

'life-size also 'life-sized adj. a life-size model, picture, etc. is the same size as the person or object it represents life-style /'laɪfstɑɪl/ n. [C] the way someone lives, including his/her work and activities, and what things s/he owns: an active, healthy lifestyle

'life support n. [U] machines or methods that keep someone who is extremely sick alive

'life-threatening adj. a life-threatening illness, injury, or situation could cause a person to die life-time /'laɪftaɪm/ n. [C] the period of time during which someone is alive: During her lifetime, she had witnessed two world wars.

'life vest n. [C] a LIFE JACKET

lift¹ /lɪft/ v. 1 [T] to take something in your hands and raise it, move it, or carry it somewhere: Can you help me lift this box? → see picture on page A9 2 [I,T] also lift up to move something up into the air, or to move up into the air: Lift up your feet so I can sweep the floor. 3 [T] to remove a rule or a law that says that something is not allowed: Does the government plan to lift the ban on Cuban cigars? 4 [I] if clouds or FOG lift, they disappear 5 [T] (informal) to steal something, or to copy the words, ideas, music, etc. that someone else has written: Parts of her essay were lifted directly from an encyclopedia.

lift² n. [C] 1 if you give someone a lift, you take him/her somewhere in your car (SYN) ride: Can you give me a lift to the nearest gas station? 2 give sb/sth a lift to make someone feel happier, or to make something more successful: Lower interest rates should give the economy a lift. 3 a movement in which something is lifted or raised

'lift-off n. [C,U] the moment when a vehicle that is about to travel in space leaves the ground → TAKE-OFF lig-a-ment /'lɪgəmənt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a band of strong material in your body that joins your bones together [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin ligamentum, from ligare “to tie”] light¹ /laɪt/ n.

1 LIGHT TO SEE [U] the energy from the Sun, a lamp, etc. that allows you to see things: Light was streaming in through the window. | The light is better over here.

2 ELECTRIC LIGHT [C] something such as a lamp that uses electricity: Can you turn/switch the lights on/off for me?

3 TRAFFIC [C] one of a set of red, green, and yellow lights used for controlling traffic: Turn left at the next light. | He was fined for running a red light (=driving past a red light).

4 ON A VEHICLE [C] one of the lights on a car, bicycle, etc., especially the HEADLIGHTS

5 a light a match or lighter that you use to light a cigarette: Excuse me, do you have a light?

6 come to light/be brought to light if new information comes to light, it becomes known: New evidence has come to light since the trial.

7 in light of sth because of something: The highway has been closed in light of heavy snow.

8 in a new/different/bad etc. light if someone or something is seen or shown in a new, different, etc. light, people begin to have a different opinion of him, her, or it: A recent biography shows the actor in a new light.

9 shed/throw/cast light on sth to provide new information about something so it is easier to understand: This sheds some light on the cause of the disease.

10 light at the end of the tunnel something that gives you hope that a bad situation will end soon

11 see the light to suddenly realize and understand something: We're hoping that one of these days he'll see the light and quit drinking. [ORIGIN: Old English leoht]

light² *adj.1 COLOR a light color is pale and not dark(ANT) dark: a light blue dressTHESAURUS*pale – a pale color has more white in it than usual: a dress made of pale yellow silkpastel – having a soft light color: She was knitting a baby blanket in pastel blue yarn.faded – having lost color, for example by being washed many times or by being left out in the Sun: a pair of faded jeanssoft – soft colors are not too bright: Use soft colors if you want the room to feel calm.2 WEIGHT not weighing very much (ANT) heavy: My new cell phone is lighter than my old one.3 CLOTHES light clothes are thin and not very warm: a light sweater4 ROOM if a room or building is light, a lot of light from the Sun gets into it: The house was light and airy.5 TOUCH very gentle and soft: She gave him a light kiss on the cheek.6 FOOD a) having less fat or fewer CALORIES than usual: light cream cheese b) not having a strong taste: a light wine7 NOT SERIOUS not serious in meaning or style: light reading8 WIND blowing without much force → STRONG: a light breeze9 it is/gets light used to say that there is enough natural light outside to see by: It was still light when we got home.10 SMALL AMOUNT small in amount, or less than you expected: Traffic was lighter than usual today.11 make light of sth to joke about something, or to treat it as if it were not importantlight³ v. (past tense and past participle lit /lɪt/ or lighted) 1 [I,T] to start burning, or to make something do this: Derek stopped to light a cigarette. 2 [T] to give light to something: The room is lit by candles. | a brightly-/poorly-/well-lit roomlight up phr. v. 1 to become bright, or to make something bright: Fireworks lit up the night sky. 2 if your face or eyes light up, you show that you are pleased or excited: Paula's eyes lit up when she saw all of her presents. 3 (informal) to light a cigarettelight⁴ adv. travel light to travel without carrying too many clothes, etc.'light bulb n. [C] the glass object in a lamp, that produces lightlight-en /'laɪtən/ v. 1 [T] to reduce the amount of work, worry, debt, etc. that someone has: Hiring extra men will lighten the load. 2 [I,T] to become brighter, or make something become brighter (ANT) darken: At 5 a.m., the sky started to lighten. 3 lighten up! (spoken) used in order to tell someone not to be so serious about something: Hey, lighten up! It was just a joke. 4 [I,T] to reduce the weight of something, or to become less heavylight-er /'laɪtə/ n. [C] a small object that produces a flame to light cigarettes, CIGARS, etc.light-headed adj. not able to think clearly or not able to move steadily because you are sick or have drunk too much alcohol (SYN) dizzy*light-hearted adj. 1 not intended to be serious: a light-hearted comedy 2 cheerful and happylight-house*'light-house /'laɪthaʊs/ n. [C] a tower with a bright light that guides ships away from danger near the shorelight-ing /'laɪtɪŋ/ n. [U] the lights in a room, building, etc., or the quality of the light: soft/bright/dim lightinglight-ly /'laɪtli/ adv. 1 with only a small amount of weight or force: I tapped herlightly on the shoulder. 2 using or having only a small amount of something: Sprinkle sugar lightly over the cake. 3 take sth lightly to do something without serious thought: A bomb threat is not to be taken lightly.light-ning¹ /'laɪtˈnɪŋ/ n. [U] a bright flash of light in the sky that happens during a storm: The tree was struck (=hit) by lightning.lightning² adj. extremely fast or sudden: a lightning attack'light pol,lution n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES electric light from STREETLIGHTS, offices, houses, etc. that prevents you from being able to see the stars in the night sky clearlylight-weight¹ /'laɪtˈweɪt/ adj. 1 weighing less than average: a lightweight computer 2 showing a lack of serious thought: a lightweight novellightweight² n. [C] (disapproving) 1 someone who you do not think has the ability to think about serious or difficult subjects 2 someone who has no importance or influence: a political lightweight'light year n. [C] PHYSICS the distance that light travels in one yearlik-a-ble /'laɪkəbəl/ adj. likable people are nice, and are easy to like

like¹ /laɪk/ prep. 1 similar in some way to something else: You two are behaving just like children. | I'd love a car like yours. | Ken looks like his brother. | It tastes like chicken. | Was the movie anything like the book (=was it similar in any way)? | There's nothing like (=there is nothing better than) a day at the beach. 2 typical of a particular person: It's not like Dad to be late (=it is unusual that Dad is late). 3 (nonstandard) used to give an example of something (SYN) such as: Foods like spinach and broccoli are high in iron. 4 what is sb/sth like? used when asking someone to describe or give his/her opinion on a person or thing: What's the new house like?

SPOKEN PHRASES

5 like this/so said when showing someone how to do something or how something is done: He was leaning against the wall, like this. 6 more like said when giving a number that you think is more correct than the one already mentioned: "He's been in there for 15 minutes." "More like half an hour!"

GRAMMAR

like, such as

Many teachers think that using like to give an example is wrong. It is better to use such as: Companies such as Toyota and General Motors are developing electric cars.

like² v. [T] 1 to enjoy something, or think that someone or something is nice or good (ANT) dislike: Do you like Mexican food? | I like Billy a lot. | He really likes camping. | Pam doesn't like to walk home late at night. | Mom doesn't like it when we argue.

THESAURUS

enjoy, love, relish → ENJOY

2 to prefer that something is done in one particular way or at one particular time rather than another: Jim likes to get to the airport early. | How do you like your hamburger cooked?

SPOKEN PHRASES

3 I/she etc. would like used to say politely what someone wants: I'd like a large pizza with mushrooms. | He'd like to know how much it will cost. | We would like you to be there if you can. 4 Would you like ...? used to ask someone if s/he wants something: Would you like some more coffee? 5 How do you like sth? used to ask someone for his/her opinion of something: "How did you like the movie?" "It was okay." 6 (whether you) like it or not used to emphasize that something bad is true or will happen and cannot be changed: They expect us to work together, whether we like it or not.

[ORIGIN: Old English lician]

GRAMMAR

Do not say "I am liking it" or "I am liking to do it." Say "I like it" or "I like to do it."
Do not say "I am liking very much this town."
Say "I like this town very much."

like³ adv. (spoken, nonstandard) 1 I'm like/he's like/Bob's like etc. a) used in order to tell someone the exact words someone used: He asked if he could use my car and I was like, no way. b) said when describing an event, feeling, or person, when it is difficult to describe or when you use a noise instead of a word: He was like, huh (=he was really surprised)? | We were like, oh no (=we realized something was wrong)! 2 said when you pause because you do not know what to say, you are embarrassed, etc.: Would it be OK if I, like, called you up sometime? 3 said in order to give an example: My neighbor's driving me crazy. Like last night I had to tell him to turn his radio down. 4 said when what you are saying is not exact: It was like 9 o'clock and she still wasn't home. 5 said in order to emphasize something: That's like so stupid.

like⁴ conjunction 1 (nonstandard) as if: He acts like he owns the place. 2 (informal) like I said/told you/was saying said when you are repeating something you have already said: Like I said, we'll be there around ten. 3 in the same way as: I don't want you to turn out like your father.

like⁵ adj. 1 (formal) similar in some way: a chance to meet people of like minds (=who think in a similar way)

THESAURUS

similar, alike, comparable →

SIMILAR

2 -like typical of, or similar to something: moving with cat-like grace

like⁶ n. sb's likes and dislikes all the things you like and do not like like-li-hood /'laɪkli,hʊd/ n. [singular, U] 1 how likely something is to happen: The likelihood of being burglarized is very low. 2 in all likelihood almost definitely like-ly /'laɪkli/ adj. something that is likely will probably happen or is probably true: It's likely to rain tomorrow. | Young drivers are more likely to have accidents than older drivers. —likely adv.: I'd very likely have done the same thing.

like-minded adj. having similar interests and opinions lik-en /'laɪkən/ v.

liken sb/sth to sb/sth phr. v. (formal) to say that someone or something is similar to someone or something else: She likened the new hospital to a five-star hotel.

like-ness /'laɪknɪs/ n. 1 [U] the quality of being similar in appearance to someone or something else: a strong likeness to his father 2 [C] the image of someone in a painting or photograph: It's a good likeness of Eva.

like-wise /'laɪk-waɪz/ (Ac) adv. 1 (formal) in the same way: I fastened my seat belt and told the kids to do likewise. | Saturn was once thought to be unique, but we now know that Jupiter, Uranus, and Neptune likewise have rings. 2 (spoken) said in order to return someone's greeting or polite remark: "It's great to see you." "Likewise."

lik-ing /'larkɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 liking for sb/sth the feeling when you like someone or something: He always had a liking for whiskey. 2 take a liking to sb (informal) to begin to like someone or something li-lac /'laɪlək, -lək/ n. 1 [C] a small tree with pale purple or white flowers 2 [U] a pale purple color [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Early French, from Arabic lilak, from Persian nilak "bluish"] —lilac adj.

li-lt /lɪlt/ n. [singular] the pleasant rise and fall in the sound of someone's voice or a piece of music li-l-y /'lɪli/ n. (plural lilies) [C] a plant with large white flowers that are usually bell-shaped li-ma bean /'laɪmə ,bɪn/ n. [C] a pale green flat bean limb /lɪm/ n. [C] 1 a large branch of a tree 2 be/go out on a limb to do something risky without any help or support 3 an arm or leg lim-bo /'lɪmbəʊ/ n. be in limbo to be in an uncertain situation in which it is difficult to know what to do: I'm in limbo until I know which college I'm going to.

lime /laɪm/ n. 1 [C] a bright green fruit with a sour taste, or the tree this grows on → see picture on page 414 2 [U] a white substance used especially for making CEMENT [ORIGIN: (1) 1600—1700 French, Provençal limo, from Arabic lim] lime-light /'laɪmlaɪt/ n. the limelight the attention someone gets from newspapers and television [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 lime + light; because originally the light was produced by burning lime]

lim-er-ick /'lɪməɪrɪk/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a humorous short poem with five lines

lime-stone /'laɪmstəʊn/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a type of rock that contains CALCIUM, often used to make buildings

lim-it¹ /'lɪmɪt/ n. [C] 1 the greatest or least amount, number, etc. that is allowed or is possible: a 65 mph speed limit | There is a limit on/to the time you have to complete the test. | There's no limit to her potential. | Set a limit before you go shopping. | Our finances are stretched to the limit (=we do not have any more money to spend). 2 the furthest point or edge of a place, often one that must not be passed: Los Angeles city limits 3 off limits beyond the area where someone is allowed to go: The beach is off limits after dark. 4 within limits within the time, level, amount, etc. considered acceptable: Employees can dress how they like – within limits.

limit² v. [T] 1 to stop an amount or number from increasing beyond a particular point: Class size is limited to 30. 2 to allow someone to use only a particular amount of something: Try to limit yourself to a glass of wine per night. 3 to exist or happen only in a particular place or group: The damage was limited to the roof. —limiting adj.

lim-i-ta-tion /'lɪmə'teɪʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] the act or process of controlling or reducing something: a nuclear limitation treaty | new limitations on parking 2 limitations [plural] things that limit how good something can be: Computers have their limitations.

lim-it-ed /'lɪmɪtɪd/ adj. not very great in amount, number, degree, etc.: The organization has very limited resources. | There are only a limited number of tickets available.

limited 'government n. [U] POLITICS a principle in the U.S. CONSTITUTION which says that the only powers the government should have are the powers the Constitution gives it limited point of 'view n. [singular] ENG. LANG. ARTS the style of telling a story in which the NARRATOR (=person telling the story) tells you what only one character or a limited number of characters experience, think, and feel → OMNISCIENT POINT OF VIEW lim-o /'lɪməʊ/ n. (plural limos) (informal) [C] a limousine lim-ou-sine /'lɪmə,zɪn, 'lɪmə'zɪn/ n. [C] a big expensive car, driven by someone who is paid to drive [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 French "covering for the driver of a horse-drawn vehicle (as worn in Limousin)," from Limousin area of France]

limp¹ /lɪmp/ adj. not strong or firm: The dog's body went limp as the drug took effect.

limp² v. [I] to walk with difficulty because one leg is hurt → WALK¹

limp³ n. [C] the way someone walks when s/he is limping: After my surgery, I walked with a limp.

lim-pid /'lɪmpɪd/ adj. (literary) clear or transparent: a limpid little stream in the woods —limpidly adv. —limpidness n. [U] —limpidity /lɪm'pɪdɪti/ n. [U]

linch-pin /'lɪntʃ,pɪn/ n. the linchpin of sth the most important person or thing in a group, system, etc., on which everything depends: My mother is the linchpin of the family.

line¹ /laɪn/ n.

1 LONG THIN MARK [C] a long thin, usually continuous mark on a surface: She drew a line on the map to show him how to get to the museum. → DOTTED LINE

THESAURUS

stripe – a long narrow line of color: a tie with thin blue and white stripes streak – a colored line or thin mark, especially one that is not straight or has been made accidentally: a streak of blood ran down his arm band – a narrow area of color that is different from the areas around it: The fish has a black band on its fin.

2 LIMIT/END [C] a long thin mark used to show a limit or end of something: You're supposed to park between the white lines. | crossing the finish line

→ FINISH LINE

3 PEOPLE/THINGS [C] a row of people or things: a line of cars | We stood/waited in line for more than two hours.

4 DIRECTION [C] the direction something travels, or the imaginary path between two points in space: Light travels in a straight line.

5 COMPUTER on line IT using a computer that is connected to the Internet or a computer system to get information or communicate with other people: You can buy airline tickets on line. → ONLINE

6 LAND [C] an imaginary line on the surface of the Earth, for example one showing where one state or area of land stops and another begins: I didn't stop driving until I crossed the state line. | lines of latitude/longitude

7 line of action/thought/reasoning etc. a way or method of doing something or thinking about something: That line of thinking will get you into trouble.

8 WAY OF DOING STH [C] a way of thinking about or doing something: This meeting will be organized along the same lines (=in the same way) as the last one.

9 be out of line (informal) to say or do something that is not acceptable in a particular situation: I thought what Kenny said was way out of line.

10 be in line with sth if one thing is in line with another, they are similar to each other, or they operate in a similar way: The company's actions are in line with state laws.

11 ON SB'S FACE [C] a line on the skin of someone's face (SYN wrinkle): There were fine lines around her eyes.

12 PLAY/POEM ETC. [C] a) ENG. LANG. ARTS a line of words in a poem, film, song, etc. b) ENG. LANG. ARTS the words of a play or performance that an actor learns: He has trouble remembering his lines.

13 PHONE [C] a telephone wire or connection → TELEPHONE, PHONE: We were on the line (=on the phone) for almost two hours. | You'll have to try again later – the line's busy (=someone is already using it).

14 RAILROAD [C] a track that a train travels along: a railroad line

15 WAR [C] the edge of an area that is controlled by an army, where soldiers stay and try to prevent their enemy from moving forward: a raid inside enemy lines

16 be (first/second/next etc.) in line for sth to be very likely to be the first, next, etc. person to get something: Carl is next in line for a raise.

17 PRODUCTS [C] ECONOMICS a type of goods for sale in a store: a new line of computers

18 COMPANY [C] a company that provides a system for moving goods by road, water, or air: a large shipping line

19 SHAPE [C usually plural] the outer shape of something long or tall: the car's smooth, elegant lines

20 the line a CLOTHESLINE

21 FAMILY [singular] the people that came or existed before you in your family: She comes from a long line of politicians.

22 SPORTS [C] a row of players with a particular purpose in a sport such as football: the Bears' defensive line

23 FISHING [C] a strong thin string, used to catch fish → draw the line (at sth) at DRAW¹, POVERTY LINE, read between the lines at READ, somewhere along the line/way at SOMEWHERE

line² v. [T] 1 to cover the inside of something with something else: We lined the box with newspaper. 2 to form rows along the edge of something: Thousands of fans lined the streets.

line up phr. v. 1 line sb/sth ↔ up to make a row, or arrange people or things in a row: Customers lined up hours before the show. | Line the chairs up in rows of ten. 2 line sb/sth ↔ up to make arrangements so that something will happen or someone will be available for an event: They've lined up some dancers for the show.

lin-e-age /'lɪniɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] (formal) the way in which members of a family are related to other members who lived in past times lin-e-ar /'lɪniə/ adj. 1 consisting of lines, or in the form of a straight line: a linear drawing 2 related to length: linear measurements 3 involving a series of connected events, ideas, etc. that develop in stages linear equation n. [C] MATH an EQUATION that appears as a straight line when it is represented on a GRAPH linear function n. [C] MATH a mathematical FUNCTION, that can be represented by a linear equation, in which the VARIABLES are multiplied only by CONSTANTS and not by themselves, and are combined only by addition and SUBTRACTION linear perspective n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a method for making a picture appear to have distance and depth by having a series of straight lines from the edge that come together at a single point on the HORIZON (=line far away where the land or ocean seems to meet the sky). The shape and size of each object in the picture is then drawn in relation to its position along one of these lines.

line-back-er /'laɪnbækə/ n. [C,U] a football player whose job is to try to TACKLE the member of the other team who has the ball lined /laɪnd/ adj. 1 a skirt, coat, etc. that is lined has a piece of material covering the inside: a fur-lined coat 2 lined paper has straight lines printed on it line-man /'laɪnmən/ n. (plural linemen /-mənz/) [C] a player who plays in the front line of a football team lin-en /'lɪnən/ n. [U] 1 sheets, TABLECLOTHS, etc.: bed/table linen 2 cloth used to make high quality clothes, home decorations, etc.

lin-er /'laɪnə/ n. [C] 1 a large ship for carrying people: an ocean liner → see picture at TRANSPORTATION, AIRLINER 2 a piece of material used inside something in order to protect it line-up /'laɪnʌp/ n. [C] 1 a set of events, programs, performers, etc. arranged to follow each other: The lineup of performers included Madonna and Diana Ross. 2 a group of people arranged in a row by the police so that a person who saw a crime can try to recognize the criminal → STARTING LINEUP lin-ger /'lɪŋɡə/ v. [I] 1 to stay somewhere for a little longer, especially because you do not want to leave: We found a small cafe where we could linger over our coffee. 2 also linger on if a smell, memory, etc. lingers, it does not disappear for a long time: The smell of smoke lingered for days.

lin-ge-rie /ˌlɒŋʒə'reɪ, ˌlɒndʒə-/ n. [U] women's underwear lin-ger-ing /'lɪŋɡərɪŋ/ adj. slow to finish or disappear: lingering questions about the murder

lin-go /'lɪŋɡoʊ/ n. [C usually singular] (informal) 1 words used only by a group of people who do a particular job or activity: computer lingo

THESAURUS language, slang, jargon, terminology → LANGUAGE

L 2 a language, especially a foreign one lin-guist /'lɪŋgwɪst/ n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who studies or teaches linguistics 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who speaks several languages well lin-guis-tic /lɪŋ'gwɪstɪk/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to language, words, or linguistics lin-guis-tics /lɪŋ'gwɪstɪks/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the study of languages, including their structures, grammar, and history lin-ing /'laɪnɪŋ/ n. [C,U] a piece of material covering the inside of a box, a coat, etc.: a jacket with a silk lining link¹ /lɪŋk/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 if two things are linked, they are related, often because one strongly affects or causes the other: Lung cancer has been linked to/with smoking cigarettes. | Educational success is strongly linked to social class.

THESAURUS related, connected, relevant, pertinent → RELATED

2 also link up to connect computers, communication systems, etc. so that electronic messages can be sent between them: Each computer is linked to/with the Internet. 3 to connect one place to another: a highway linking two major cities

link² n. [C] 1 a relationship or connection between two or more events, people, ideas, etc.: the link between poverty and crime | He is believed to have links with terrorist groups. | Scientists have established a clear link between pollution and lung disease. 2 one of the rings in a chain 3 a satellite/telephone/rail etc. link something that makes communication or travel between two places possible: The administration is trying to improve road links in the south of the country. 4 IT a word or picture on a WEBSITE or computer document that will take you to another page or document if you CLICK on it: Click on a link to explore other related websites. → CUFF LINK link-age /'lɪŋkɪdʒ/ (Ac) n. [C,U] a link or connection between two things: It is claimed that there is a linkage between violence on TV and violence in the home.

'linking verb n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a verb that connects the subject of a sentence to a word or phrase that describes it. In the sentence "She seems friendly," "seems" is the linking verb.

li-no-le-um /lɪ'noʊliəm/ n. [U] smooth shiny material that is used to cover a floor lint /lɪnt/ n. [U] soft light pieces of thread or wool that come off cotton, wool, or other material li-on /'laɪən/ n. [C] a large African and Asian wild cat, the male of which has long thick hair around his neck [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin leo, from Greek leon] li-on-ess /'laɪənɪs/ n. [C] a female lion lip /lɪp/ n. [C] 1 one of the two edges of your mouth where your skin is redder or darker: a kiss on the lips → see picture on page A3 2 the top edge of a container such as a bowl or cup 3 my lips are sealed (spoken) said when promising someone that you will not tell a secret 4 thin-lipped/full-lipped etc. with lips that are thin, round, etc. 5 pay/give lip service to sth to say that you support or agree with something, without doing anything to prove this [ORIGIN: Old English lippa]

'lip gloss n. [C,U] a substance used to make lips look very shiny lip-read /'lɪp rɪd/ v. [I,T] to watch someone's lips move in order to understand what s/he is saying, especially because you cannot hear —lip-reading n. [U] lip-stick /'lɪp,stɪk/ n. [C,U] a substance used for adding color to your lips, or a small tube containing this lip sync /'lɪp ˌsɪŋk/ v. [I] to pretend to sing by moving your lips at the same time as a recording is being played liq-ue-fy /'lɪkwəˌfaɪ/ v. (liquefied, liquefies) [I,T] (formal) to become liquid, or make something become liquid li-queur /lɪ'kəʃ, lɪ'kyʊr/ n. [C,U] a strong sweet alcoholic drink usually drunk after a meal liq-uid /'lɪkwɪd/ n. [C,U] a substance such as water that is not a solid or a gas: Cook the rice until all the liquid is absorbed. —liquid adj.: liquid soap liq-ui-date /'lɪkwəˌdeɪt/ v. [I,T] ECONOMICS to close a business or company and sell the things that belong to it, in order to pay a debt —liquidation /ˌlɪkwəˌdeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] li-quad-i-ty /lɪ'kwɪdətɪ/ n. [U] ECONOMICS a situation in which a business or a person has enough money to pay debts or owns goods that can be sold to pay debts

Liquid 'Paper n. [U] (trademark) white liquid that is used to correct mistakes in writing and TYPING liq-uor /'lɪkwə/ n. [U] a strong alcoholic drink such as WHISKEY [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French licour, from Latin liquor, from liquere “to flow as a liquid”]

'liquor store n. [C] a store where alcohol is sold lisp /lɪsp/ n. [C] someone who has a lisp pronounces “s” sounds like “th” —lisp v. [I,T]

list¹ /lɪst/ n. [C] a set of names, things, numbers, etc. written one below the other: a list of questions | Make a list of the things you'll need. | a shopping list | Is my name on the list? ▶ Don't say “in the list.” ◀

THESAURUS

Types of lists

- grocery list or shopping list – a list of food you need to buy
- mailing list – a list of people who are all sent information or advertising material by mail or email
- price list – a printed list of a company's goods or services, and their prices
- checklist – a list of things you need to check
- waiting list – a list of people who want something but will have to wait for it
- guest list – a list of people invited somewhere

list² v. [T] to write a list, or mention things one after the other: Each Monday the newspaper lists the ten most popular films.

lis-ten /'lɪsən/ v. [I] 1 to pay attention to what someone is saying or to something that you hear: This is very important, so I need you to listen. | Have you listened to this CD? 2 (spoken) used to tell someone to pay attention to what you are saying: Listen, can I call you back later? 3 to consider what someone says to you and accept his/her advice: I told him it was dangerous, but he wouldn't listen. [ORIGIN: Old English hlýsnan]

listen for sth/sb phr. v. to pay attention so that you are sure you will hear a sound: He put down the paper and listened for the telephone.

listen in phr. v. to listen to what someone is saying without him/her knowing it: I think someone's listening in on the other phone.

listen up phr. v. (spoken) used in order to get people's attention so they will hear what you are going to say: OK, people, listen up. I'm only going to say this once.

lis-ten-er /'lɪsənə/ n. [C] 1 someone who listens, especially to the radio → VIEWER 2 a good listener someone who listens in a patient and sympathetic way to other people list-ing /'lɪstrɪŋ/ n. 1 [C] something that is on a list 2 listings [plural] lists of movies, plays, and other events, with the times and places at which they will happen list-less /'lɪtlɪs/ adj. feeling tired and not interested in things lit¹ /lɪt/ v. the past tense and past participle of LIGHT lit² adj. having light or burning: a brightly-lit hallway lit-a-ny /'lɪtˈni-/ n. a litany of sth a long list of problems, questions, complaints, etc.

lite /laɪt/ adj. a way of spelling “light”, often used as part of the name of food or drink that has fewer CALORIES than usual: lite beer li-ter /'lɪtə/ n. [C] (written abbreviation l) a unit for measuring liquids, equal to 2.12 PINTS or 0.26 gallons: a liter of vodka [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 French litre, from Medieval Latin litra, a measure, from Greek, a weight] lit-er-a-cy /'lɪtərəsi/ n. [U] the ability to read and write lit-er-al /'lɪtərəl/ adj. the literal meaning of a word or expression is its basic or original meaning → FIGURATIVE: a literal interpretation of the Bible lit-er-al-ly /'lɪtərəli/ adv. 1 according to the most basic meaning of a word or expression: There are literally millions of students in these programs. 2 (spoken) used in order to emphasize something you have just said: The program has moved literally thousands of homeless people off the streets. 3 take sb/sth literally to think that a word or statement is literal when it is not: Lou was joking, but Sara took it literally.

literal 'question n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a question that asks for a fact or detail that is contained in a piece of writing → EVALUATIVE QUESTION, INFERENTIAL QUESTION lit-er-ar-y /'lɪtəˌrəri/ adj. 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to literature: a literary critic 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS typical of writing used in literature rather than in ordinary writing and talking lit-er-ate /'lɪtərɪt/ adj. 1 able to read and write (ANT) illiterate 2 well educated lit-er-a-ture /'lɪtərəʃə, 'lɪtrə-/ n. [U] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS books, plays, etc. that are considered to be very good and important: the great classics of

English literature 2 books, articles, etc. on a particular subject: scientific literature 3 printed information produced by organizations that want to sell something or tell people about something: the candidate's campaign literature | sales literature [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin litteratura, from litteratus] lithe /laɪð/ adj. able to bend and move your body easily and gracefully lith-i-um /'lɪθiəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Li) a soft silver-colored ELEMENT that is the lightest known metal [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Greek lithos "stone"] lith-o-sphere /'lɪθəsfɪr/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES the solid surface of the Earth, including the CRUST (=the surface layer of rocks, soil, etc.) and the upper MANTLE (=the layer directly below the Earth's crust) lit-i-gant /'lɪtəɡənt/ n. [C] LAW someone who is making a claim against someone else, or defending himself or herself against a claim in a court of law lit-i-ga-tion /'lɪtə'ɡeɪʃən/ n. [U] LAW the process of taking a legal case to a court of law —litigate /'lɪtə,ɡeɪt/ v. [I,T] lit-mus /'lɪtˈməs/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a chemical that turns red when touched by acid, and blue when touched by an ALKALI litmus paper n. [U] CHEMISTRY paper containing litmus, used to test whether a chemical is an acid or an ALKALI litmus test n. 1 [singular] a single action, situation, or quality that allows you to measure someone's attitude, beliefs, etc.: The elections will be a litmus test of the political mood in the U.S. 2 [C] CHEMISTRY a test in which litmus paper is used to find out whether a chemical is an acid or an ALKALI lit-ter¹ /'lɪtə/ n. 1 [U] pieces of waste paper, etc. that people leave on the ground in public places

THESAURUS garbage, trash, refuse, waste → GARBAGE

2 [C] a group of baby animals born at the same time to one mother: a litter of puppies

litter² v. 1 [I,T] to leave pieces of waste paper, etc. on the ground in a public place: The sign says: "Please Do Not Litter." 2 [T] if a lot of things litter a place, they are spread all over it in a messy way: The floor was littered with clothes.

lit-tle¹ /'lɪtl/ adj. 1 small in size: a little house

THESAURUS small, tiny, minute, miniature, minuscule → SMALL

2 a little bit not very much: It will only hurt a little bit. | Can I have a little bit of (=a small amount of) milk in my coffee, please? 3 short in time or distance: I'll wait a little while and then call again. | Anna walked a little way down the road with him. 4 young and small: a little boy | Amy's little brother/sister (=younger brother or sister)

THESAURUS young, small → YOUNG¹

5 not important: He gets angry over little things. | There is one little problem. 6 (spoken) used in order to emphasize an adjective: She owns a nice little restaurant in the city. [ORIGIN: Old English lytel]

little² quantifier (comparative less, superlative least) 1 only a small amount of something: Little is known about the disease. | We had very little money. 2 a little a small amount: I only know a little Spanish. | She told him a little about it. | I need a little more time to finish the test. | Tony went out to see a little of the town. 3 a short time or distance: He must be a little over 60 (=slightly older than 60). | Phoenix is a little under 50 miles from here (=slightly fewer than 50 miles).

GRAMMAR

little, a little

Use little when you mean "not much": We have very little time.

Use a little when you mean "a small amount": I only used a little salt.

Little and a little are always used with U nouns.

→ FEW

little³ adv. 1 not much or only slightly → LESS, LEAST: He moved the table a little closer to the wall. | I was a little afraid of the dog. | She goes out very little. 2 little by little gradually: Little by little, his playing improved.

little 'finger n. [C] the smallest finger on your hand

Little League 'Baseball n. [U] (trademark) a group of baseball teams for children lit-ur-gy /'lɪtə'dʒi/ n. (plural liturgies) [C,U] prayers, songs, etc. that are said or sung in a particular order in a religious ceremony —liturgical /'lɪtə'dʒɪkəl/ adj.

liv-a-ble, liveable /'lɪvəbəl/ adj. good enough to live in, but not very good (SYN) habitable

live¹ /lɪv/ v. 1 [I] to be alive or to continue to stay alive: My grandmother lived to be 88. | Thoreau lived in the mid-1800s. 2 [I] to have your home in a particular place: Where do you live? | I live in Boston. | They live on Bergen Street. | Kitty still lives at home (=lives with her parents). 3 [I,T] to have a particular type of life, or to live in a particular way: We earn enough to live comfortably. | children living in poverty [ORIGIN: Old English libban]

live sth down phr. v. not live sth down to not be able to make people forget about something bad or embarrassing you have done: You'll never live this evening down!

live for sb/sth phr. v. to consider someone or something to be the most important thing in your life: She lives for her children.

live off sb/sth phr. v. to get your food or money from someone or something other than a job: He's living off money from his investments.

live on phr. v. 1 live on sth to have a particular amount of money to buy food and other necessary things: I don't know how he can live on $600 a month. 2 live on sth to eat a lot of a particular kind of food: These animals live on insects. 3 to continue to exist: She will live on in our memories.

live through sth phr. v. to experience difficult or dangerous conditions and continue living: Don didn't expect to live through the war.

live together phr. v. to live with another person in a sexual relationship without being married: Mark and I have been living together for two years.

live up to sth phr. v. to do something as well, or be as good as someone expects: Charles could never live up to his father's expectations.

live with phr. v. 1 live with sth to accept a difficult situation even when it continues for a long time: living with pain 2 live with sb to live with another person, especially in a sexual relationship without being married: Tim's living with a girl he met in college.

live² /laɪv/ adj. 1 not dead or artificial (ANT) dead: He fed the snake live rats. 2 broadcast as an event happens: a live broadcast of the Rose Parade 3 performed for people who are watching: The club has live music six nights a week. 4 having electricity flowing through it: a live wire 5 ready to explode: a live bomb → real live at REAL¹

live³ /laɪv/ adv. 1 if something is broadcast live, it is broadcast on television or radio as it is actually happening: The pictures were broadcast live across the world. 2 performing in front of people: The band is playing live in Houston this week.

live-li-hood /'laɪvli,hʊd/ n. [C,U] the way you earn money in order to live: Farming is their livelihood.

live-ly /'laɪvli/ adj. (comparative livelier, superlative liveliest) 1 very active and cheerful: a lively group of children

THESAURUS energetic, vigorous, full of energy, dynamic → ENERGETIC

2 very exciting and interesting: a lively debate —liveliness n. [U] liv-en /'laɪvən/ v.

liven (sth ↔) up phr. v. to become more exciting, or to make something more exciting: Better music might liven the party up.

liv-er /'lɪvə/ n. 1 [C] BIOLOGY a large organ in your body that cleans your blood → see picture at ORGAN 2 [U] the liver of an animal used as food lives /laɪvz/ n. the plural of LIFE live-stock /'lɑːvstək/ n. [U] animals that are kept on a farm liv-id /'lɪvɪd/ adj. extremely angry

THESAURUS angry, furious, mad, indignant, irate, outraged → ANGRY

liv-ing¹ /'lɪvɪŋ/ adj. 1 [only before noun] alive now (ANT) dead: She is one of our greatest living writers. | The ocean is full of living things (=animals and plants). 2 existing or being used now: a living language

living² n. 1 [C usually singular] the way that you earn money: What does he do for a living? | It's hard to make a living (=earn enough money) as an actor. 2 [U] the way that someone lives his/her life: Sometimes I want to give up city living and move to the country. 3 the living [plural] all the people who are alive → COST OF LIVING

'living room n. [C] the main room in a house, where you relax, watch television, etc.

'living will n. [C] LAW a document that explains what legal and medical decisions should be made for you if you are too sick to make them yourself

liz-ard /'lɪzəd/ n. [C] a REPTILE that has rough skin, four short legs, and a long tail [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French lesard, from Latin lac-erta]

-'ll /l, əl/ the short form of “will”: He'll be here soon.

lla-ma /'lɑːmə/ n. [C] a large South American animal with thick hair like wool and a long neck [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Spanish, Quechua (a South American language)]

Ln. the written abbreviation of LANE

load¹ /ləʊd/ n. [C] 1 a large quantity of something that is carried by a person, a vehicle, etc.: a ship carrying a full load of fuel and supplies 2 car-load/truckload etc. the largest amount or number that a car, etc. can carry: a busload of kids 3 the amount of work that a machine or a person has to do: a light/heavy work load 4 a quantity of clothes that are washed at the same time: Can you do a load of clothes later today?

SPOKEN PHRASES

5 a load of sth/loads of sth a lot of something: Don't worry, there's loads of time. 6 get a load of sb/sth said when you want someone to notice something funny or surprising

[ORIGIN: Old English lad “support, carrying”]

load² v. 1 [I,T] also load up to put a load of something on or into a vehicle or container: They loaded all their luggage into the car. | He cleared the table and loaded the dishwasher. 2 [T] to put bullets into a gun or film into a camera 3 [T] to put a program into a computer load sb/sth ↔ down phr. v. to make someone carry too many things or do too much work: Mom was loaded down with groceries.

load-ed /'ləʊdɪd/ adj. 1 containing bullets or film: a loaded gun 2 carrying a load of something: a loaded truck 3 [not before noun] (informal) very rich: His grandmother is loaded. 4 loaded question a question that is unfair because it makes you give a particular answer 5 loaded with sth full of a particular quality, or containing a lot of something: a cake loaded with nuts loaf¹ /loʊf/ n. (plural loaves /loʊvz/) [C] bread that is shaped and baked in one large piece: a loaf of bread [ORIGIN: Old English hlaf] → see picture at BREAD loaf² v. [I] (informal) to waste time in a lazy way when you should be working: He spends his days loafing around the house.

Loaf-er /'loʊfə/ n. [C] (trademark) a flat leather shoe without LACES

loan¹ /loʊn/ n. 1 [C] an amount of money that you borrow from a bank: We'll take out a loan to buy the car. | I'll be paying off/back the loan for at least five years. | student loans (=money that students borrow to pay for college) 2 on loan being borrowed: The book is on loan from the library. 3 [singular] the act of lending something [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old Norse lan] loan² v. [T] to lend someone something, especially money: Can you loan me $20 until Friday?

'loan shark n. [C] (disapproving) someone who lends money to people and charges a very high rate of INTEREST loath /loʊθ, loʊð/ adj. be loath to do sth (formal) to be unwilling to do something loathe /loʊð/ v. [T] (formal) to hate someone or something —loathing n. [U]

THESAURUS hate, can't stand, detest, despise, abhor → HATE¹ loath-some /'loʊðsəm, 'loʊθ-/ adj. (formal) very unpleasant (SYN) disgusting loaves /loʊvz/ n. the plural of LOAF

lob /lɒb/ v. (lobbed, lobbing) [T] to throw or hit a ball so that it moves slowly in a high curve

THESAURUS throw, toss, chuck, hurl, fling, pass, pitch → THROW¹

L lob-by¹ /'lɒbi/ n. (plural lobbies) [C] 1 a large hall inside the entrance of a building: waiting in the hotel lobby 2 a group of people who try to persuade the government to change or approve a particular law: the environmental lobby [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Medieval Latin lobium “covered way for walking”] lobby² v. (lobbied, lobbies) [I,T] to try to persuade the government to change or approve a particular law: a group lobbying for/against the law

lob-by-ing /'lɒbiŋ/ n. [U] POLITICS the activity of trying to persuade someone with political power to change a law so that it is more favorable to a particular group of people lob-by-ist /'lɒbiɪst/ n. [C] POLITICS someone whose paid job involves trying to persuade people with political power to change a law so that it is more favorable to the group of people that he or she represents lobe /loʊb/ n. [C] your EARLOBE

lob-ster /'lɒbstə/ n. [C,U] an ocean animal with eight legs, a shell, and two large CLAWS, or the meat of this animal lo-cal¹ /'loʊkəl/ adj. 1 [usually before noun] relating to a particular place or area, especially the place you live in: a good local hospital | The story appeared in the local newspaper. | It costs a quarter to make a local call (=a telephone call to someone in the same area as you). →

NEAR¹ 2 affecting a particular part of your body: a local anesthetic [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French, Late Latin localis, from Latin locus “place”]

local² n. the locals the people who live in a particular place local area network n. [C] IT a LAN lo-cale /loʊ'kæl/ n. [C] (formal) the place where something happens lo-cal-i-ty /loʊ'kæləti/ n. [C] (plural localities) (formal) a small area of a country, city, etc.

lo-cal-ized /'loʊkələɪzd/ adj. (formal) only within a small area: localized pain lo-cal-ly /'loʊkəli/ adv. in or near the area where you are or the area you are talking about: locally grown apples nearby: Do you live nearby?

THESAURUS

close by/close to here: My folks live close by.
around here: Is there a bank around here?
in the neighborhood: Is there a good Chinese restaurant in the neighborhood?
in/around these parts: Most folk in these parts don't want the dam to be built. in close proximity (to) (formal) – near in distance: the nations in close proximity to Russia
 → NEAR¹

'local time n. [U] the time of day in a particular part of the world: We'll arrive in Boston at 4:00 local time.

lo-cate /'loʊkeɪt/ (Ac) v. 1 [T] to find the exact position of something: Divers have located the shipwreck. | If you have difficulty locating a particular book, ask a librarian for assistance.

THESAURUS find, discover, trace, track sb/sth down, unearth → FIND¹

2 be located to be in a particular place or position: The bakery is located in the middle of town. | Many volcanoes are located along the coastal area. 3 [I,T] to come to a place and start a business there: The company located its offices in New Jersey when rents went up in New York. | Large retail companies are only prepared to locate stores in areas where there are a lot of people. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, past participle of locare “to place,” from locus]

lo-ca-tion /lou'keɪʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] a particular place or position: His apartment is in a really good location. | a map showing the location of the school | The climate of an area partly depends on its geographical location.

THESAURUS place, position, spot, site → PLACE¹

2 [C,U] a place where a movie is filmed, away from the STUDIO: scenes shot on location in Montana

lock¹ /lɒk/ v. 1 [I,T] to be fastened with a lock, or to fasten something with a lock (ANT) unlock: Lock the door when you leave. 2 lock sth up/away/in etc. to put something in a safe place and fasten it with a lock: He locked the money in a safe. 3 [I] to become set in one position and be unable to move: The brakes locked and we skidded.

lock sb in phr. v. to prevent someone from leaving a place by locking the door lock into sth phr. v. be locked into sth to be unable to change a situation: families who are locked into a cycle of poverty lock sb out phr. v. to prevent someone from entering a place by locking the door lock up phr. v. 1 (informal) lock sb up to put someone in prison 2 lock (sth ↔) up to make a building safe by locking all the doors lock² n. [C] 1 a thing that keeps a door, drawer, etc. fastened or shut and is usually opened with a key: There's no lock on the door. 2 lock, stock, and barrel including every part of something: They sold everything, lock, stock, and barrel. 3 under lock and key kept safely in something that is locked 4 a small number of hairs on your head that hang together: Carla twisted a lock of hair around her finger. 5 a special area on a river where the water level can go up or down to raise or lower boats lock-er /'lɒkə/ n. [C] a small cupboard with a lock where you leave books, clothes, etc., especially at school or when you are playing sports

'locker room n. [C] a room where you change your clothes and leave them in a locker lock-et /'lɒkɪt/ n. [C] a piece of jewelry like a small round box in which you put a picture of someone, worn on a chain around your neck lock-smith /'lɒk,smɪθ/ n. [C] someone who makes and repairs locks lo-co-mo-tive /,ləʊkə'moʊtɪv/ n. [C] a train engine lo-cust /'ləʊkəst/ n. [C] an insect similar to a GRASSHOPPER that flies in large groups and often destroys crops lo-cu-tion /lou'kyuʃən/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a phrase, especially one used in a particular area or by a particular group of people: a Yiddish locution lodge¹ /lɒdʒ/ v. 1 [I] to become stuck somewhere (ANT) dislodge: He had a fish bone lodged in his throat. 2 lodge a complaint/protest etc. to officially complain, protest, etc. about something: He has lodged a formal complaint with the club. 3 [I] to pay someone rent in order to live in a room in his/her house lodge² n. [C] 1 a building in the country where people can stay for a short time, especially in order to do a particular activity: a ski lodge 2 a local meeting place for some organizations: the Masonic lodge lodg-ing /'lɒdʒɪŋ/ n. [C,U] a place to stay: The tourist office will give you information on lodging.

loft /lɒft/ n. [C] 1 a space above a business, factory, etc. that was once used for storing goods, but has been changed into living space or work space for artists: She's just bought a loft in Manhattan. 2 a raised area above the main part of a room, usually used for sleeping 3 a raised level in a BARN, where HAY is kept [ORIGIN: 900—1000 Old Norse lopt “air, upstairs room”] loft-y /'lɒfti/ adj. (comparative loftier, superlative loftiest) 1 showing high standards or high moral qualities: lofty ideals 2 (literary) high log¹ /lɒg, ləg/ n. [C] 1 a thick piece of wood cut from a tree → see picture at PLANT¹ 2 an official record of events on a ship or airplane

THESAURUS record, diary, journal → RECORD¹

log² v. (logged, logging) 1 [T] to make an official record of events, facts, etc., especially on a ship or airplane 2 [I,T] to cut down trees —logger n. [C] log off/out phr. v. IT to stop using a computer or computer system by typing (TYPE) a special word log on/in phr. v. IT to start using a computer or computer system by typing (TYPE) a special word log-a-rithm /'lɒgə,rɪðəm/ also log n. [C] MATH the number of times a number must be multiplied by itself to equal another number [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Modern Latin logarithmus, from Greek logos “ratio, word” + arithmos “number”]

,log 'cabin n. [C] a small house made of logs

L

log-ger-heads /'lɒɡəˌhedz, 'lɑ-/ n. be at loggerheads (with sb) to disagree very strongly with someone [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 loggerhead “stupid person, large head, type of heavy tool” (16–20 centuries), from logger “block of wood” (16–18 centuries) + head] log-ging /'lɒɡɪŋ, 'lɑ-/ n. [U] the industry of cutting down trees for wood, paper, etc.

log-ic /'lɒdʒɪk/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 a set of sensible and correct reasons: There is no logic in releasing criminals just because the prisons are crowded. | The logic behind that statement is faulty. 2 the science or study of thinking carefully about something, using formal methods: Logic was invented by the ancient Greeks over 3,000 years ago. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French logique, from Latin logica, from Greek logos “speech, word, reason”]

log-i-cal /'lɒdʒɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 seeming reasonable and sensible (ANT) illogical: It's the logical place to build a new supermarket. | Is there a logical explanation for this unusual weather? 2 based on the rules of logic: a logical conclusion | Finding a new scientific theory is a creative act, not a process of logical analysis. —logically adv.

lo-gi-cian /loo'dʒɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C] someone who studies or is skilled in logic: This is a problem that has puzzled logicians for centuries.

lo-gis-tics /loo'dʒɪstɪks, lə-/ n. the logistics of sth the practical organizing that is needed to make a complicated plan or activity successful —logistical adj. —logistically adv.

log-jam /'lɒgdʒæm, 'lɑ-/ n. [C] a lot of problems or other things that are preventing something from being done: a logjam of work lo-go /'lɒɡoʊ/ n. (plural logos) [C] a small design that is the official sign of a company or organization loin-cloth /'lɒɪŋklɒθ/ n. [C] a piece of cloth that men in some hot countries wear around their waist loins /lɒɪnz/ n. [plural] (literary) the part of the body below your waist where the sexual organs are

L loi-ter /'lɒɪtə/ v. [I] to stand in a public place without having a reason to be there loll /lɒl/ v. [I] 1 to sit or lie in a lazy or relaxed way: We spent the afternoon lolling around on the beach. 2 if someone's head or tongue lolls, it hangs down lol-li-pop /'lɒli,pɒp/ n. [C] a hard candy on the end of a stick lone /loun/ adj. [only before noun] (literary) being the only person or thing in a place, or the only person or thing that does something: a lone figure standing in the snow lone-ly /'lounli/ adj. 1 unhappy because you are alone: She was very lonely after her husband died. 2 far from where people live: a lonely country road —loneliness n. [U] lon-er /'lounə/ n. [C] someone who wants to be alone or who has no friends lone-some /'lounsəm/ adj. LONELY

long¹ /lɒŋ/ adj.

1 MEASUREMENT measuring a great length, distance, or time (ANT) short: long hair | There was a long line at the bank. | The meeting was too long. | It takes a long time to drive to work.

2 PARTICULAR LENGTH having a particular length: The snake was at least three feet long.

3 TIME continuing for a particular amount of time: How long is the movie? | O'Keeffe lived long enough to see her artwork become successful.

THESAURUS

lengthy – continuing for a long time, especially so that you have to wait before you can do something: Finding the right job can be a lengthy process.

long-running – use this about arguments, battles, events, or performances: The two families have been involved in a long-running argument over land.

lasting – strong enough to continue for a long time: They formed a lasting friendship when they were in college.

prolonged – continuing for much longer than people expected: He was absent from school for prolonged periods.

long-winded – too long and using too many words, in a way that is boring or confusing: a long-winded explanation interminable – much too long in a way that is extremely boring: The movie was interminable, and I couldn't wait till it ended.

4 SEEMING LONG (informal) seeming too long in time or distance because you are tired, bored, etc.: It's been a long day.

5 long hours a large amount of time: She spent long hours working at the computer.

6 BOOK/LIST/NAME ETC. a long book, list, etc. has a lot of pages, details, etc.

7 long weekend three days, including Saturday and Sunday, when you do not have to go to work or school

8 in the long run when something is finished, or at a later time: All our hard work will be worth it in the long run.

9 CLOTHES covering all of your arms or legs (ANT) short: a long skirt | a long-sleeved shirt [ORIGIN: Old English long, lang] long² adv. 1 for a long time: Have you been waiting long? 2 long before/after for a long time before or after a particular time or event: The farm was sold long before you were born. 3 for long for a long time: Have you known the Garretts for very long? 4 as long as if: You can go, as long as you're back by four o'clock. 5 no longer also not any longer used in order to show that something happened in the past, but does not happen now: Mr. Allen no longer works for the company. 6 so long (spoken) goodbye 7 before long soon: It will be Christmas before long.

long³ v. [I] (formal) to want something very much: The children longed to get outside.

long-'distance adj. [only before noun] 1 a long-distance telephone call is to a place that is far away (ANT) local 2 traveling, running, etc. between two places that are far away from each other: long-distance flights — long-distance adv.

long di'vision n. [C,U] MATH a method of dividing one large number by another large number long-drawn-'out adj. [only before noun] continuing for a longer time than is necessary: a long-drawn-out discussion long-gev-i-ty /lɒn'dʒɛvəti/, lɒn-/ n. [U] (formal) long life long-hand /'lɒŋhænd/ n. [U] writing full words by hand rather than using a machine such as a computer long-ing /'lɒŋɪŋ/ n. [singular, U] a strong feeling of wanting someone or something very much: a long-ing for peace — longing adj. — longingly adv.

long-gi-tude /'lɒndʒə,tud/ n. [C,U] a position on the Earth measured in degrees east or west of an imaginary line from the top of the Earth to the bottom [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin longitudo “length,” from longus “long”] — longitudinal /,lɒndʒə'tudn-əl/ adj. → compare LATITUDE → see picture at GLOBE

'long johns n. [plural] (informal) warm underwear that covers your legs

'long jump n. [U] a sport in which you jump as far as possible long-'lasting adj. continuing for a long time: hopes for a long-lasting peace in the region | long-lasting batteries

long-lived /,lɒŋ 'laɪvd/ adj. living or existing for a long time long-'lost adj. [only before noun] lost or not seen for a long time: a long-lost friend long-'range adj. [usually before noun] 1 relating to a time that continues far into the future: long-range development plans 2 covering a long distance: a long-range missile long-'running adj. [usually before noun] having existed or happened for a long time: a long-running TV show long-shore-man /,lɒŋ'ʃɔrmən, 'lɒŋ,ʃɔrmən/ n. (plural longshoremen) [C] someone whose job is to load and unload ships

'long shot n. [C usually singular] (informal) 1 someone or something with very little chance of success: It's a long shot, but I may as well apply. 2 not by a long shot not at all, or not nearly: This isn't over, not by a long shot.

long-'standing adj. having continued or existed for a long time: a long-standing agreement between the two countries long-'suffering adj. [usually before noun] patient in spite of problems or unhappiness long-'term adj. continuing for a long period of time into the future → SHORT-TERM: The long-term effects of the drug are not known. → in the long/short term *at TERM*¹ long-time /'lɒŋtaim/ adj. [only before noun] having existed for a long time, or having had a particular position for a long time: a longtime friend of the family | longtime residents of Takoma Park long-'winded adj. continuing to talk for too long in a way that is boring: a long-winded speech

look¹ /lʊk/ v. 1 [I] to turn your eyes toward something so that you can see it: I didn't see it. I wasn't looking. | “I have to go,” Mel said, looking at his watch.

USAGE

You look at a picture, person, thing, etc. because you want to: She was looking at some old photographs.

You see something without planning to: I saw two men running out of the building.

You watch TV, a movie, a game, or something that happens for a period of time: He's watching the baseball game. | The kids are watching TV.

You can also say that you saw a movie, a program, etc., but you cannot say “see television”: I saw a really good movie last night.

THESAURUS

glance – to look at someone or something for a short time and then look quickly away: Kevin glanced at the clock.

peek/peep – to quickly look at something, especially something you are not supposed to see: I peeked through the curtains, trying to see if they were home.

peer – to look very carefully, especially because you cannot see something well: Hansen peered through the windshield at the street signs.

stare – to look at someone or something for a long time, especially without blinking your eyes: He stood staring out into the street.

gaze – to look at someone or something for a long time, often without realizing that you are doing it: Helen gazed out the window at the shimmering water.

gape – to look at something for a long time, usually with your mouth open, because you are very shocked or surprised: She backed away as the children gaped at her.

regard (formal) – to look at someone or something, especially in a particular way: He regarded her steadily.

2 [I] to try to find someone or something using your eyes: I've looked everywhere for the money. | Have you looked in here? | Brad was looking for you last night.

THESAURUS

search – to look carefully for someone or something: We searched the whole house for the keys.

try to find sb/sth – to look for someone or something, especially when this is difficult: He's been trying to find a job for several months.

L

hunt for sb/sth – to look in a lot of places for someone or something: I always seem to be hunting for my keys.

seek (formal) – to try to find someone or something: The new graduates are seeking employment.

go through sth – to examine something very thoroughly when looking for something: Security officers went through our bags.

have a look for sb/sth (spoken) – to look quickly for someone or something: I think I put it in the kitchen drawer; I'll take a look.

3 [linking verb] to seem to be something, especially by having a particular appearance: You look nice/good in that dress. | He looks like he hasn't slept for days. | Gina and Ron looked very happy.

THESAURUS seem, appear → SEEM

4 -looking having a particular type of appearance: That was a funny-looking dog! | weird-looking people 5 look sb in the eye to look directly at someone in order to show that you are not afraid of him/her

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 Look ... said when you are annoyed and you want to emphasize what you are saying: Look, I'm very serious about this. 7 [T] said in order to make someone notice something: Look how skinny she is. | Mom, look what I made! 8 (I'm) just looking used in a store in order to tell someone who works there that you do not need help: "Can I help you?" "No thanks, I'm just looking."

[ORIGIN: Old English locian]

look after sb/sth phr. v. to take care of someone or something: Paul helps look after his two younger brothers.

look ahead phr. v. to think about what will happen in the future: We need to look ahead and plan for next year.

look around phr. v. look around sth to see, study, read, etc. many different things in order to find something or to learn about something: We have about three hours to look around the downtown.

look at phr. v. 1 look at sth to read something quickly: Jane was looking at a magazine while she waited. 2 look at sth to study and consider something in order to decide what to do: The doctor looked at the cut on her head. 3 look at sb (spoken) used to give someone or something as an example of a situation: Look at Eric. He didn't go to college and he's doing fine.

look back also look back on sth phr. v. to think about something that happened in the past: Looking back, I see my mistake.

look down on sb/sth phr. v. to think that you are better than someone or something else: He looks down on anyone who doesn't have a college education.

look for sb/sth phr. v. 1 to try to find a particular type of thing or person that you need or want: How long have you been looking for a job? 2 be looking for trouble/a fight (informal) to be behaving in a way that makes it likely that problems or a fight will happen look forward to sth phr. v. to be excited and happy about something that is going to happen: We're really looking forward to skiing in Tahoe.

look into sth phr. v. to try to find out the truth about something: The FBI will look into the cause of the fire.

look on phr. v. 1 to watch something, without being involved in it: Children ran through the playground as their mothers looked on. 2 look on/upon sth to think about something in a particular way: My family looks on divorce as a sin.

look out to pay attention to what is happening around you: Look out! There's a car coming.

look sth/sb ↔ over phr. v. to examine something or someone quickly: Can you look over my résumé before I send it?

look through phr. v. 1 look through sth to look for something in a pile of papers, a drawer, someone's pockets, etc.: I found her looking through my old letters. 2 look right through sb to pretend that you have not seen someone look up phr. v. 1 if a situation is looking up, it is becoming better: Things are looking up for me. 2 look sth ↔ up to try to find information in a book, on a computer, etc.: If you don't know the word, look it up. 3 look sb ↔ up to visit someone you know, especially when you go to the place where s/he lives for another reason: Don't forget to look up my parents when you're in Boston.

look up to sb phr. v. to admire and respect someone: Everybody looks up to him.

look² n. 1 [C usually singular] an act of looking at something: Let me take/have a look at that map again. 2 [C] an expression that you make with your eyes or face to show how you feel: She gave me an angry look. 3 [C] the appearance of someone or something: I don't like the look of that bruise – maybe you should see a doctor. 4 looks [plural] how attractive someone is: He's got his father's good looks.

look-a-like ¹/lʊkə,lark/ n. [C] (informal) someone who looks very similar to someone else, especially someone famous: a Madonna lookalike look-out ¹/lʊk-aʊt/ n. 1 be on the lookout (for sb/sth) to continuously watch a place or pay attention to a situation because you are looking for someone or something: Be on the lookout for snakes. 2 [C] someone whose duty is to watch carefully for danger, or the place where s/he does this loom¹ ¹/lum/ v. [I] 1 to appear as a large unclear threatening shape: The mountain loomed in front of us. 2 if a problem or difficult situation looms, it is likely to happen soon: The report warns that a crisis in the airline industry is looming. 3 loom large to seem important, worrying, and difficult to avoid: Fear of failure loomed large in his mind.

loom² n. [C] a frame or machine used for weaving cloth loon-y /'luni/ adj. (informal) extremely silly or crazy loop¹ /lup/ n. 1 [C] a shape like a curve or a circle, or a line, piece of wire, string, etc. that has this shape: belt loops (=cloth loops used for holding a belt on pants) 2 be out of the loop to not be part of a group of people that has information and makes decisions about something loop² v. [I,T] to make a loop, or to make something into a loop loop-hole /'luphoʊl/ n. [C] a small mistake in a law or rule that makes it possible to legally avoid doing what the law says: tax loopholes loose¹ /lus/ adj.

1 NOT FIRMLY ATTACHED not firmly attached to something: a loose screw | The buttons on my shirt are coming loose.

2 NOT TIED/FASTENED not tied or fastened very tightly: My shoelaces are loose.

3 CLOTHES loose clothes are big and do not fit tightly on your body [SYN] baggy

4 NOT CONTROLLED free from being controlled in a CAGE, prison, or institution: Two of the prisoners broke loose from the guards. | Don't let your dog loose on the beach.

5 not exact: a loose translation/interpretation

6 loose ends parts of something such as work or an agreement that have not yet been completed: I have to tie up a few loose ends before we go away.

7 loose cannon someone who cannot be trusted because s/he says or does things you do not want him/her to

8 NOT MORAL (old-fashioned) behaving in a way that is considered to be sexually immoral: The film portrayed her as a loose woman. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old Norse lauss] —loosely adv.: A towel was loosely wrapped around his neck.

loose² n. on the loose if a criminal is on the loose, s/he has escaped from prison loose-leaf adj. [only before noun] having pages that can be put in or taken out easily: a loose-leaf notebook

loos-en /'lusən/ v. [I,T] to become less tight or less firmly attached to something, or to make something do this: He loosened his tie. | The screws in the shelf had loosened.

loosen (sb/sth ↔) up phr. v. 1 to become more relaxed and feel less worried, or to make someone feel this way: Claire loosened up after she'd had a drink. 2 if your muscles loosen up, or if you loosen them up, they stop feeling stiff loot¹ /lut/ v. [I,T] to steal things, especially from stores that have been damaged in a war or RIOT: Businesses were looted and burned in the riot. —looting n. [U] —looter n. [C]

THESAURUS steal, burglarize, rob, shoplift, plunder, pilfer → STEAL¹

loot² n. [U] goods that are stolen by thieves or taken by soldiers who have won a battle lop /lap/ v. (lopped, lopping) [T] also lop off to cut part of something off lope /loʊp/ v. [I] (literary) to run easily using long steps lop-sid-ed /'lap,saidɪd/ adj. having one side that is heavier, larger, or lower than the other side: a lopsided smile

lo-qua-cious /lou'kwɛɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) a loquacious person likes to talk a lot, sometimes too much —loquaciousness also loquacity /lou'kwæʃəti/ n. [U]

Lord /lɔrd/ n. [C] 1 also the Lord a title used for God or Jesus Christ 2 good/oh/my Lord! (spoken) said when you are surprised, worried, or angry lord n. [C] a man who has a particular position in the ARISTOCRACY [ORIGIN: Old English hlaford, from hlaf “bread” + weard “keeper”] lore /lɔr/ n. [U] knowledge and TRADITIONS that people learn from other people rather than from books lose /luz/ v. (past tense and past participle lost /lɒst/, present participle losing)

1 NOT FIND [T] to be unable to find someone or something: Danny's always losing his keys.

USAGE

If you lose something, you cannot find it: I've lost my keys.

If you miss a class, meeting, etc. that you regularly attend, you do not go to it: He didn't want to miss his class. → LOST¹

2 NOT HAVE [I] to stop having something important that you need: Michelle lost her job. | Anna's family lost everything in the war.

3 NOT WIN [I,T] to not win a game, argument, war, etc.: We lost to the Red Sox 5–0. | Sanders lost the election by 371 votes.

4 HAVE LESS [T] to have less of something than before: I need to lose weight. | She's lost a lot of blood.

5 lose your sight/memory/voice etc. to stop being able to see, remember things, talk, etc.

6 STOP HAVING A QUALITY [T] to no longer have a particular quality, belief, attitude, etc.: The kids were losing interest in the game. | Jake lost his temper/cool (=became angry) and started shouting. | He lost control of the car and drove into a ditch.

7 lose an arm/leg etc. to have a serious injury in which your arm, leg, etc. is cut off

8 lose your balance to become unsteady, especially so that you fall

9 lose your husband/mother etc. if you lose your husband, mother, etc., s/he dies: Michael lost his wife to cancer. | Janet lost the baby (=the baby died before being born).

10 lose your life to die: 5,000 soldiers lost their lives.

11 WASTE [T] to waste time or opportunities: Pam lost no time in finding a new boyfriend. | You lost your chance!

12 lose sb (informal) to confuse someone when explaining something to him/her: You've lost me. Can you repeat that?

13 have nothing to lose if you have nothing to lose, it is worth taking a risk because you cannot make your situation any worse: You might as well apply for the job – you've got nothing to lose.

14 lose touch (with sb/sth) a) to not speak to, see, or write to someone for so long that you do not know where s/he is: I've lost touch with all my high school friends. b) to not know the most recent information about a particular place, situation, event, etc.: He's lost touch with his Mexican culture.

15 lose it (spoken) a) to suddenly start shouting, laughing, or crying a lot because you think something is very bad, funny, or wrong: When he started criticizing me again, I just completely lost it. b) to become crazy

16 lose your mind (informal) to go crazy or to stop behaving sensibly: What are you doing on the roof? Have you lost your mind?

17 lose sight of sth to forget about the most important part of something you are doing: We can't lose sight of our goals.

18 lose your touch to stop having a special ability or skill

19 lose heart to become disappointed and unhappy lose out phr. v.

to not get something important such as a job because someone else gets it: He lost out on a scholarship because his grades were low. [ORIGIN: Old English losian “to destroy or be destroyed, to lose”] los·er /'luzə/ n. [C] 1 someone who does not win: a bad/sore loser (=someone who becomes too upset when s/he loses) 2 (informal, disapproving) someone who is never successful in life, work, or relationships: Pam's boyfriend is such a loser!

loss /lɒs/ n. 1 [C,U] the fact of not having something any longer, or the action of losing something: weight loss | the loss of innocence | job losses

COLLOCATIONS

loss of confidence – when you stop believing in your ability to do things well loss of appetite – when you do not get hungry, for example because you are sick loss of memory also memory loss – when you cannot remember things well loss of blood also blood loss – when you bleed a lot, for example after an accident weight loss – when you become thinner hearing loss also loss of hearing – when you cannot hear as well as you could before job losses – when a number of people lose their jobs in a company, industry, etc.

2 [C,U] ECONOMICS money that has been lost by a company, government, person, etc.: The auto industry reported losses of $10 million last year. 3 [C] an occasion when you do not win a game: a record of 3 wins and 4 losses so far this season 4 [C,U] the death of someone: Troops suffered heavy losses (=many deaths) in the first battle. 5 [singular, U] the sadness you feel or disadvantage you have because someone or something leaves: She felt a great sense of loss when her son left home. 6 be at a loss to not know what you should do or say: I'm at a loss to explain what happened. 7 it's sb's loss (spoken) said when you think someone is stupid for not taking a good opportunity: Well, if he doesn't want to come, it's his loss.

lost¹ /lɒst/ adj. 1 not knowing where you are or how to find your way: We got lost driving around the city.

USAGE

Use lost in order to describe something that someone cannot find, or someone who does not know where s/he is: a lost ball | We took a wrong turn and got lost.

Use missing in order to describe someone or something you have been looking for, especially when the situation is serious: We're still trying to locate the missing money. | the search for the two missing boys

2 unable to be found: a lost dog 3 wasted: lost opportunities 4 be/feel lost to not feel confident or able to take care of yourself: I'd be lost without all your help. 5 be lost on sb if humor or intelligent thinking is lost on someone, s/he cannot understand it or does not want to accept it: Your sarcasm was lost on him. 6 Get lost! (spoken) used in order to tell someone rudely to go away 7 lost cause something that has no chance of succeeding: Trying to interest my son in classical music is a lost cause.

lost² v. the past tense and past participle of LOSE lost-and-found n. [singular] an office used for keeping things that people have lost until their owners can get them

lot /lɒt/ n. 1 a lot also lots (informal) a) a large amount, quantity, or number of something: A lot of people at work have the flu. | Mrs. Ruiz has lots of money. | A lot of times (=usually or often) we just sat and talked. b) much: You'll get there a lot quicker if you drive. 2 have a lot on your mind to have many problems you are thinking about 3 [C] an area of land used especially for building on → PARKING LOT

GRAMMAR

a lot of, much, many

In negative sentences, you can use much or many instead of a lot of.

Much is used with uncountable nouns: We never had much money.

Many is used with plural noun forms: There weren't many women musicians in those days.

A lot of can be used with both types of noun: I don't have a lot of time. | She doesn't have a lot of friends.

lo-tion /'louʃən/ n. [C,U] a liquid mixture that you put on your skin in order to make it soft or to protect it: hand lotion [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin lotio “act of washing,” from lavare “to wash”] lot-ter-y /'lɒtəri/ n. (plural lotteries) [C] a game of chance in which people buy tickets in order to try to win a lot of money: Maybe I'll win the lottery.

loud¹ /laʊd/ adj. 1 making a lot of noise (ANT) quiet, soft: The TV's too loud!

THESAURUS

noisy – making a lot of noise, or full of noise: a classroom full of noisy kids | a noisy bar rowdy – behaving in a noisy and uncontrolled way: rowdy football fans thunderous – extremely loud: thunderous applause deafening – very loud, so that you cannot hear anything else: a deafening roar ear-splitting – painfully loud: The Saints scored and the crowd erupted in an ear-splitting din.
shrill – a shrill sound is high and unpleasant: a shrill voice raucous – a raucous voice or noise is very loud and unpleasant: a raucous laugh resounding – a resounding noise is loud and clear and seems to continue for a few seconds: a resounding cheer sonorous (formal) – having a deep pleasantly loud sound: the singer's sonorous voice → QUIET¹

2 (disapproving) loud clothes are too brightly colored [ORIGIN: Old English hlud] —loudly adv.

loud² adv. loudly: Can you talk a little louder, please? → out loud at OUT¹

'loud-mouth n. [C] (disapproving) someone who talks too much, too loudly, and often in an offensive way —loud-mouthed adj.

loud-speak-er /'laʊd,spi:kə/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that makes messages loud enough to be heard in a public place lounge¹ /laʊndʒ/ n. [C] a room in a public building where people can relax, sit down, or drink: We were watching TV in the student lounge.

lounge² v. [I] to stand or sit in a lazy way: We were lounging by the pool.

louse¹ /laus/ n. (plural lice /laɪs/) [C] a very small insect that lives on the skin and hair of animals and people louse² v.

louse sth ↔ up phr. v. to make a mistake or do something badly, especially so that it affects other people: I don't want to louse things up in our relationship.

lous-y /'lauzi/ adj. (informal) very bad: What lousy weather! | I'm still feeling pretty lousy (=feeling ill).

THESAURUS

bad, awful, terrible, horrible, horrendous, atrocious, abysmal → BAD¹

lov-a-ble /'lʌvəbəl/ adj. easy to love: a lovable child

love¹ /lʌv/ v. [T] 1 to care very much about someone, especially a member of your family or a close friend: It's incredible how much she loves those two kids.

THESAURUS

If you are infatuated with someone, you have unreasonably strong feelings of love for him/her. If you have a crush on someone, you have a strong feeling of love for him/her, but it usually only continues for a short time: Carrie has a crush on her brother's best friend. If you are crazy about someone, you love him/her very much, especially in a way that you cannot control. If you are devoted to someone, you love him/her and are loyal to him/her: He has always been devoted to his wife. If you dote on someone, you love him or her very much and show this by your actions: They absolutely dote on their little boy. If you adore someone, you love him/her very much and are proud of him/her: She adores her grandchildren. → HATE¹

2 to have a strong feeling of caring for and liking someone, combined with sexual attraction: I love you, Betty. | Tom was the only man she had ever really loved. 3 to like something very much, or enjoy doing something very much: Tom loves to read. | I love being out in the woods. | Mom really loved her new dress.

THESAURUS

enjoy, like, relish → ENJOY

4 to have a strong feeling of loyalty to your country, an institution, etc.: He loves his country. 5 I would love to/I'd love to (do sth) (spoken) said when you really want to do something: I'd love to come with you, but I have work to do. [ORIGIN: Old English lufu]

love² n. 1 [U] a strong romantic feeling for someone: He is in love with Laura. | They fell in love. | It was love at first sight. 2 [U] the strong feeling of caring very much about someone or something: a mother's love for her child 3 [C,U] something that you like very much, or that you enjoy doing very much: his love of music 4 [C] someone whom you have romantic feelings about: Mike was my first love. 5 make love (to/with sb) to have sex with someone you love 6 love/lots of love/all my love (informal) written at the end of a letter to a friend, parent, husband, etc.: Take care. Lots of love, Dad.

'love af,fair n. [C] a romantic sexual relationship: a secret love affair love-ly /'lʌvli/ adj. very nice, beautiful, or enjoyable: Thank you for a lovely evening.

lov-er /'lʌvə/ n. [C] 1 a sexual partner, usually someone whom you are not married to: His wife had many lovers. | a pair of young lovers 2 someone who enjoys something very much: music lovers

'love seat n. [C] a small SOFA for two people love-sick /'lʌv,sɪk/ adj. sad because the person you love is not with you or does not love you lov-ing /'lʌvɪŋ/ adj. very caring: a wonderful, loving husband

low¹ /lou/ adj. 1 not high, or not far above the ground (ANT high: Move the toys onto a lower shelf. | a low ceiling | low clouds 2 small in degree or amount (ANT high: low temperatures | Their profits were lower than expected. 3 bad, or below an acceptable standard (ANT high: a low grade in math | a low opinion of his work 4 if a supply is low, you have used almost all of it: We're running/getting low on gas. 5 unhappy: I've been feeling pretty low since he left.

THESAURUS sad, unhappy, down, blue, depressed, miserable → SAD

6 a low voice, sound, etc. is quiet or deep (ANT high

THESAURUS quiet, soft → QUIET¹

7 lights that are low are not bright low² adv. in a low position or at a low level (ANT high: The helicopters seemed to be flying very low.

low³ n. [C] a low price, level, degree, etc.: Prices dropped to an all-time low (=the lowest they have ever been). | Tomorrow's low will be 25°F.

low-brow /'ləʊbraʊ/ adj. (disapproving) a low-brow book, movie, etc. is not about serious ideas or not of very good quality low-cal /'ləʊ'kæl/ adj. (informal) low-cal food or drinks do not have many CALORIES low-down /'ləʊdaʊn/ n. get the lowdown on sb/sth (informal) to be given the important facts about someone or something

'low-end adj. [usually before noun] (informal) not the most expensive or not of the best quality: low-end home computers

L

low-er¹ /'ləʊə/ adj. [only before noun] 1 below something else (ANT upper: He began to bite his lower lip. 2 near or at the bottom of something (ANT upper: the lower floors of the building 3 less important than other things (ANT upper: the lower levels of the organization

lower² v. 1 [I,T] to become less, or to reduce something in amount, degree, strength, etc.: We're lowering prices on all our products! | Please lower your voice (=speak more quietly)!

THESAURUS reduce, decrease, cut, slash → REDUCE

2 [T] to move something down: The flag was lowered at sunset.

low-er-case /'ləʊə,keɪs/ n. [U] letters written in their small form, such as a, b, c, etc. (ANT upper-case

'lower 'class n. the lower class SOCIAL SCIENCE the group of people in society who have less money, power, or education than anyone else → MIDDLE CLASS, UPPER CLASS, WORKING CLASS —lower-class adj.: a lower-class family

'lower 'court n. [C] LAW any court whose decisions can be considered and changed by a higher court (SYN inferior court → SUPERIOR COURT

'lowest ,common de'nominator n. [C,U] MATH the smallest number that the DENOMINATORS (=bottom numbers) of a group of FRACTIONS can be divided into exactly

'low-'fat adj. low-fat food has very little fat: low-fat milk | a low-fat diet

'low-'key adj. not intended to attract a lot of attention: The reception was very low-key.

low-lands /'ləʊləndz/ n. [plural] EARTH SCIENCES an area of land that is lower than the land around it → HIGHLANDS: the Bolivian lowlands —lowland adj. [only before noun]: a tropical lowland rainforest —lowlander n. [C]

'low life n. [C] (informal) someone who is involved in crime or who is bad —low-life adj.

low-ly /'ləʊli/ adj. low in rank or importance

'low-'lying adj. 1 low-lying land is not much higher than the level of the ocean 2 not very high: low-lying fog

'low 'pressure n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a large area in the sky where there is low air pressure, which usually causes wet weather

'low 'tide n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES the time when the ocean is at its lowest level (ANT high tide → see picture at TIDE¹ loy-al /'ləʊəl/ adj. always supporting a particular person, set of beliefs, or country (ANT disloyal: a loyal friend | The army has remained loyal to the government. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Old French leial, leel, from Latin legalis, from lex “law”]

THESAURUS faithful, staunch, steadfast, true → FAITHFUL

loy-al-ist /'ləʊəlɪst/ n. [C] 1 someone who continues to support a government or country when a lot of people want to support it 2 Loyalist HISTORY an American who supported the British during the Revolutionary War loy-al-ty /'ləʊəlti/ n. (plural loyalties) 1 [U] the quality of being loyal to a particular person, set of beliefs, or country: The company demands loyalty from its workers. 2 [C usually plural] a feeling of wanting to help and encourage someone or something: political loyalties

loz-enge /'ləʊzəndʒ/ n. [C] a small candy that has medicine in it

LSAT /'elsæt/ n. [C] (trademark) Law School Admission Test an examination taken by students who have completed a first degree and want to go to LAW SCHOOL

LSD n. [U] an illegal drug that makes people have HALLUCINATIONS lube /lub/ v. [T] (informal) to lubricate the parts of a car's engine lu-bri-cant /'lubrəkənt/ n. [C,U] a substance such as oil that is used on things that rub together, making them move more smoothly and easily lu-bri-cate /'lubrəkert/ v. [T] to put a lubricant on something [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, past participle of lubricare, from lubricus “slippery”] —lubrication /,lubrə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] lu-cid /'lusɪd/ adj. 1 clearly expressed and easy to understand: a lucid speech 2 able to think clearly and understand what is happening around you: He was rarely lucid during his long illness.

luck¹ /lʌk/ n. [U] 1 success or something good that happens by chance: Have you had any luck finding a new roommate? | Wish me luck! | Good luck with your interview!

USAGE

You can use have with luck only when luck has something before it such as “bad,” “good,” or “any”: He's had a lot of bad luck recently. Or you can use be with lucky: She's lucky to be alive. You cannot say you “have luck to do something.”

2 the way in which good or bad things happen to people by chance: I've had nothing but good/bad luck since moving here. 3 be in luck/be out of luck to get or not get something that you want: You're in luck – there's one ticket left! 4 just my luck! (spoken) said when you are disappointed but not surprised that something bad has happened: Just my luck! The guys just left. 5 better luck next time (spoken) said when you hope that someone will be more successful the next time s/he tries to do something [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Middle Dutch luk] → tough!/tough luck! at TOUGH¹ luck² v.

luck out phr. v. (informal) to be lucky: I lucked out and got an A.

luck-y /'lʌki/ adj. (comparative luckier, superlative luckiest) 1 having good luck (ANT) unlucky: He's lucky to be alive. | “I just got the last bus.” “That was lucky!” → see USAGE box at LUCK¹

THESAURUS

fortunate lucky: It was fortunate that no one was injured in the accident. | a fortunate coincidence fortuitous (formal) lucky and happening by chance: He made a fortuitous discovery.

miraculous extremely lucky, especially because you avoid having something bad happen to you: The woman had a miraculous escape after her car overturned on the freeway.

auspicious (formal) an auspicious moment or start makes people feel hopeful that good things will happen: The candidate could not have hoped for a more auspicious start to an election campaign.

2 bringing good luck: 7 is my lucky number. —luckily adv.: Luckily, no one was hurt.

lu-cra-tive /'lukrətɪv/ adj. (formal) making you earn a lot of money: lucrative business deals lu-di-crous /'ludɪkrəs/ adj. silly, wrong, and unreasonable (SYN) ridiculous [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin ludicrus “playful,” from ludus “play”] lug /lʌg/ v. (lugged, lugging) [T] (informal) to pull or carry something that is very heavy: We lugged our suitcases up to our room.

THESAURUS

carry, tote, cart, haul, schlep

→ CARRY

lug-gage /'lʌgɪdʒ/ n. [U] the bags, etc. carried by people who are traveling (SYN) baggage: We had lost our luggage.

GRAMMAR

Luggage does not have a plural form. You can say some luggage, any luggage, or a piece of luggage: Do you have any more luggage?

lu-gu-bri-ous /lə'gubriəs/ adj. (literary) very sad and serious luke-warm /,luk'wɔrm/ adj. 1 a liquid that is lukewarm is only slightly warm → HOT 2 not showing very much interest or excitement: His idea got only a lukewarm response from the committee.

lull¹ /lʌl/ v. [T] 1 to make someone feel calm or sleepy: Singing softly, she lulled us to sleep. 2 to make someone feel so safe and confident that you can easily deceive him/her: She was lulled into believing that there was no danger.

lull² n. [C] a short period when there is less activity or noise than usual: a lull in the conversation lul-la-by /'lʌləbaɪ/ n. (plural lullabies) [C] a song that you sing to children in order to make them calm and sleepy [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 from lu-lu, a sound used to make a child sleepy + by (=bye-bye)]

lum-ber¹ /'lʌmbə/ n. [U] trees that are cut down and used as wood for building lumber² v. [I] to move in a slow awkward way, usually because you are heavy lum-ber-jack

/'lʌmbə,dʒæk/ n. [C] someone whose job is to cut down trees for wood lu-mi-nar-y

/'lumə,neri/ n. (plural luminaries) [C] someone who is famous and respected because of his/her knowledge or skills lu-mi-nous /'lumənəs/ adj. able to shine in the dark without being lit: luminous paint lump¹ /lʌmp/ n. 1 [C] a small piece of something solid that does not have a definite shape: a lump of clay

THESAURUS piece, scrap, chunk, fragment, crumb → PIECE¹

2 [C] a hard swollen area on someone's skin or in his/her body 3 a lump in your throat the tight feeling in your throat that happens when you want to cry lump² v. [T] to put two or more different people or things together and consider them as a single group: Do you think I can lump these ideas into one paragraph?

lump 'sum n. [C] an amount of money given in a single payment lump-y /'lʌmpi/ adj. (comparative lumpier, superlative lumpiest) having lumps and therefore not smooth: a lumpy mattress lu-na-cy /'lunəsi/ n. [U] actions or behavior that seem very stupid and unreasonable lu-nar /'lunə/ adj. relating to the moon: a lunar eclipse lu-na-tic /'lunətɪk/ n. [C] someone who behaves in a crazy, stupid, or very strange way [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French lunatique, from Late Latin lunaticus, from Latin luna “moon;” because people thought mental illness was caused by the moon] —lunatic adj.

lunch /lʌntʃ/ n. [C,U] a meal eaten in the middle of the day, or that time of day: What do you want for lunch? | When do you usually eat lunch? | We've already had lunch. | I'll see you at lunch. | school lunches for children [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 luncheon]

COLLOCATIONS

have/eat lunch
have sth for lunch – to eat a particular food for lunch go out for lunch – to go to eat lunch in a restaurant take sb out to lunch – to take someone to a restaurant for lunch and pay the bill be at lunch – to not be working because you are having lunch break for lunch – to stop working in order to eat lunch (brown) bag lunch also sack lunch – food, for example a sandwich, that you take to work or school for lunch → MEAL

lunch-eon /'lʌntʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) lunch

lunch-time /'lʌntʃtaɪm/ n. [C,U] the time in the middle of the day when people usually eat lunch: Is it lunchtime yet? | I usually go for a walk at lunchtime.

lung /lʌŋ/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of two organs in your body that you use for breathing [ORIGIN: Old English] lunge /lʌndʒ/ v. [I] to make a sudden forceful movement toward someone or something: She suddenly lunged at me. —lunge n. [C] lurch¹ /lɜ:tʃ/ v. [I] to walk or move in an unsteady or uncontrolled way lurch² n. 1 [C] a sudden movement 2 leave sb in the lurch to leave someone at a time when you should stay and help him/her lure¹ /lʊr/ v. [T] to persuade someone to do something by making it seem attractive, exciting, etc.: Another company tried to lure him over by offering more money.

lure² n. 1 [C usually singular, U] something that attracts people, or the quality of being able to do this: the lure of power and money 2 [C] an object used in order to attract animals or fish so that they can be caught lu-rid /'lʊrɪd/ adj. (disapproving) a description, story, etc. that is lurid is deliberately shocking and involves sex or violence: the lurid details of the murder [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin luridus “pale yellow,” from luror “pale yellow color”] lurk /lɜ:k/ v. [I] 1 to wait somewhere secretly, usually before doing something bad: men lurking in the alley 2 if you lurk in a CHAT ROOM on the Internet, you read what other people are writing to each other, but you do not write any messages yourself

lus-cious /'lʌʃəs/ adj. extremely good to eat: luscious ripe strawberries [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 licious (14—17 centuries), from delicious] lush¹ /lʌʃ/ adj. having lots of very green and healthy plants or leaves: New Zealand is a country of lush green hills.

lush² n. [C] (informal) someone who drinks too much alcohol lust¹ /lʌst/ n. [C,U] a very strong feeling of sexual desire, or a strong desire for something such as power or money: his lust for power lust² v.

lust after/for sb/sth phr. v. 1 to have a strong feeling of sexual desire for someone 2 to want something very much, especially something you do not really need: Ever since I can remember, I've lusted for a Chevrolet Corvette.

lus-ter /'lʌstə/ n. [singular, U] an attractive shiny appearance —lustrous /'lʌstrəs/ adj.

lust-y /'lʌsti/ adj. (literary) strong and healthy [SYN] powerful: the lusty cry of a newborn baby —lustily adv.

Lu-ther-an /'luθərən/ adj. relating to the Protestant church that follows the ideas of Martin Luther —Lutheran n. [C] lux-u-ri-ant /lʌg'zʊriənt, lʌk'fʊ-/ adj. healthy and growing thickly and strongly lux-u-ri-ate /lʌg'zʊri,eɪt, lʌk'fʊ-/ v.

luxuriate in sth phr. v. to relax and enjoy the pleasure you feel: She luxuriated in the hot bath.

lux-u-ri-ous /lʌg'zʊriəs, lʌk'fʊ-/ adj. very comfortable, beautiful, and expensive: a luxurious hotel

lux-u-ry /'lʌkfəri, 'lʌgzəri/ n. (plural luxuries) 1 [U] very great comfort and pleasure that you get from expensive food, beautiful houses, cars, etc.: They lead a life of luxury. | a luxury car/hotel 2 [C] something expensive that you want but do not need: Back in the 1950s, a washing machine was a luxury. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French luxurie, from Latin luxuria “too great quantity”]

Ly-cra /'laɪkrə/ n. [U] (trademark) a cloth that stretches, used especially for making tight-fitting sports clothes

ly-ing /'laɪ-ɪŋ/ v. the present participle of LIE lymph /lɪmf/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a clear liquid that is formed in your body and that passes into your blood. This liquid contains cells that help to fight against infections. —lymphatic /lɪm'fætɪk/ adj.

'lymph node also 'lymph gland n. [C] BIOLOGY one of many small GLANDS in your body through which lymph passes in order to get rid of any BACTERIA before the lymph enters your BLOOD-STREAM (=blood flowing around your body)

lynch /lɪntʃ/ v. [T] if a crowd of people lynch someone, they kill that person by HANGING him/her, without using the usual legal process [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 William Lynch (1724-1820), U.S. citizen who organized illegal trials in Virginia] —lynching n. [C] lynch-pin /'lɪntʃ,pɪn/ n. [C] a LINCHPIN

lyr-ic /'lɪrɪk/ n. [C usually plural] ENG. LANG. ARTS the words of a song lyr-i-cal /'lɪrɪkəl/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS expressing strong emotions in a beautiful way: lyrical poetry lyr-i-cist /'lɪrəsɪst/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who writes lyrics

Mm

M, m /ɛm/ 1 the thirteenth letter of the English alphabet 2 the number 1,000 in the system of ROMAN NUMERALS

M 1 the written abbreviation of MEDIUM, used especially in clothes 2 the written abbreviation of MILLION 3 the written abbreviation of MALE

m 1 the written abbreviation of METER 2 the written abbreviation of MILE 3 the written abbreviation of MARRIED 4 PHYSICS the written abbreviation of MASS, when written in ITALICS

MA the written abbreviation of MASSACHUSETTS ma /mə, mɔ/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) mother

M.A. n. [C] Master of Arts a university degree in a subject such as history or literature that you can get after you have your first degree → M.S.: Eve has an M.A. in French.

ma'am /mæm/ n. [C] (spoken) used in order to speak politely to a woman when you do not know her name → MISS, SIR: May I help you, ma'am?

Mac /mæk/ n. 1 [C] also (Apple) Mackintosh IT a type of personal computer → PC: Will this software run on a Mac? 2 (spoken) an impolite way of talking to a man whose name you do not know: Hey, Mac, move your car out of the way!

ma-ca-bre /mə'kabrə, mə'kʌb/ adj. (literary) strange, frightening, and relating to death or injury: a macabre tale | macabre humor

mac-a-da-mi-a /,mækə'deɪmiə/ n. [C] a sweet white nut that grows on a tropical tree, or the tree that produces this nut mac-a-ro-ni /,mækə'rouni/ n. [U] a type of PASTA in the shape of small curved tubes: macaroni and cheese (=macaroni cooked with a cheese sauce)

Mace /meɪs/ n. [U] (trademark) a chemical that makes your eyes and skin sting painfully, which some people carry to defend themselves ma-che-te /mə'ʃeɪ, -'tʃe-/ n. [C] a large knife with a broad heavy blade, used as a tool for cutting or as a weapon ma-chine /mə'ʃɪn/ n. [C] 1 a piece of equipment that uses power such as electricity to do a particular job: a washing/sewing machine | Just hit that button to stop the machine. | I left a message on her machine (=answering machine).

M

M

THESAURUS

appliance – a machine that is used in the home: kitchen appliances such as refrigerators device – a piece of equipment that is usually small and usually electronic, that does a special job: A seismograph is a device that measures earthquake activity.

gadget – a small piece of equipment that makes a particular job easier to do: a new gadget for opening wine bottles mechanism – a part of a machine that does a particular job: a car's steering mechanism contraption – a piece of equipment that looks strange: What does that contraption do?

2 IT a computer: My machine just crashed again. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Old French, Latin machina, from Greek mechane, from mechos “way of doing things”] machine² v. [T] to make or shape something, especially metal parts, using a machine ma'chine gun n. [C] a gun that fires a lot of bullets very quickly ma,chine-'readable adj. IT able to be understood and used by a computer: machine-readable text

ma-chin-er-y /mə'ʃinəri/ n. [U] 1 machines, especially large ones: farm machinery | You shouldn't drive or operate heavy machinery while taking this medication. 2 the parts inside a machine that make it work 3 an official system or set of processes for organizing or achieving something: The machinery of the law works slowly.

ma-chin-ist /mə'ʃinist/ n. [C] someone who operates or makes machines ma-cho /'mætʃəʊ/ adj. (informal) a man who is macho has qualities such as strength that are typical of men, but is not sensitive or sympathetic [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Spanish “male,” from Latin masculus] mack-er-el /'mækərəl/ n. [C,U] a common sea fish that has a strong taste, or the meat from this fish mac-ro-cos-m /'mækrə,kəzəm/ n. [C] a large complicated system such as the whole universe or a society, considered as a single unit → MICROCOSM mad /mæd/ adj. (comparative madder, superlative maddest) 1 (informal) angry: Are you still mad at me? | You make me so mad! | Lucy got mad and told us all to leave.

THESAURUS

angry, annoyed, irritated, livid, furious, indignant, irate, outraged, resentful → ANGRY

2 do sth like mad (informal) to do something as quickly as you can: Carlos was writing like mad at the end of the exam. 3 behaving in a wild uncontrolled way, without thinking about what you are doing: We made a mad dash for (=ran wildly toward) the door. 4 power-mad/money-mad etc. only thinking about power, money, etc.: a power-mad dictator [ORIGIN: Old English gemæd] mad-am /'mædəm/ n. 1 Dear Madam used at the beginning of a business letter to a woman whose name you do not know 2 Madam President/Ambassador etc. used to address a woman who has an important official position 3 [C] a woman who is in charge of a BROTHEL [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French ma dame “my lady”] mad-den-ing /'mædn-ɪŋ, 'mædnɪŋ/ adj. very annoying: maddening behavior made /meɪd/ v. 1 the past tense and past participle of MAKE 2 be made of sth to be produced from a particular substance or material: The frame is made of silver.

USAGE

Use made of when you can clearly see what material has been used to make something: a table made of wood | a handbag made of leather Use made from when the materials have been completely changed in the process of making something: Paper is made from wood. | soap made from the finest ingredients Use made by to talk about the person or company that has made something: furniture made by craftsmen

3 be made for each other (informal) to be completely suitable for each other, especially as husband and wife: I think Anna and Juan were made for each other. 4 sb has (got) it made (informal) to have everything that you need for a happy life or to be successful mad-house /'mædhaʊs/ n. [C] a place that is very busy and noisy mad-ly /'mædli/ adv. 1 madly in love (with sb) very much in love 2 in a wild uncontrolled way: Shoppers were rushing madly through the store.

mad-man /'mædmæn, -mən/ n. [C] (plural mad-men /-mən, -mən/) someone who behaves in a wild uncontrolled way: He drives like a madman.

mad-ness /'mædnɪs/ n. [U] very stupid and often dangerous behavior: It's madness to spend that kind of money on a car.

Ma-don-na /mə'dənə/ n. 1 the Madonna Mary, the mother of Jesus Christ in the Christian religion 2 [C] a picture or figure of the Madonna mael-strom /'meɪlstrəm/ n. [C] (literary) a situation full of events that you cannot control or strong emotions that make people feel confused or frightened mae-stro /'maɪstrəʊ/ n. (plural maestros) [C] someone who can do something very well, especially a musician

Ma-fi-a /'mafɪə/ n. the Mafia a large organization of criminals who control many illegal activities

[ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Italian, Italian dialect, “great confidence, proud talk”]

mag-a-zine /ˌmæɡəˈzɪn, ˈmæɡəˌzɪn/ n. [C] 1 a large thin book with a paper cover, that contains news stories, articles, photographs, etc. and is sold weekly or monthly: a fashion/computer/news magazine | He subscribes to several magazines. | a magazine article 2 the part of a gun that holds the bullets [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Early French, “building where things are stored,” from Old Provençal, from Arabic makhazin, plural of makhzan “storehouse”] ma-gen-ta /məˈdʒɛntə/ n. [U] a dark purple-red color [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Magenta, town in Italy where the substance the color is made from was discovered] —magenta adj.

mag-got /ˈmæɡət/ n. [C] the LARVA (=young insect) of a fly, that lives in decaying food or flesh mag-ic¹ /ˈmædʒɪk/ n. [U] 1 a special power that makes strange or impossible things happen: Do you believe in magic?

THESAURUS

witchcraft – the use of magic, usually to do bad things: Hundreds of women were accused of witchcraft in the 1600s.

sorcery – magic, especially evil magic: In the 18th and 19th centuries, missionaries sometimes suspected Native Americans of sorcery.

black magic – magic that is believed to use the power of the Devil for evil purposes: tales of black magic and adventure spell – a piece of magic that someone does, or the special words or ceremonies used in making it happen: An evil witch cast a spell on him, turning him into a beast.

curse – magic words that bring someone bad luck: People believed the pharaoh would put a curse on anyone who broke into the tomb.

the occult – the knowledge and study of magic and spirits: stories that deal with the occult voodoo – magical beliefs and practices used as a form of religion, especially in parts of Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean: Folks say she's worked a voodoo spell on him.

2 the skill of doing tricks that look like magic, or the tricks themselves 3 an attractive quality that makes someone or something interesting or exciting: Christmas has lost some of its magic for me over the years. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French magique, from Latin magice, from Greek magos “person with magic powers”]

magic² adj. [only before noun] 1 a magic word or object has special powers that make strange or impossible things happen: a magic sword | a book of magic spells 2 relating to the skill of doing tricks that look like magic: He performed some magic tricks to keep us amused.

mag-i-cal /ˈmædʒɪkəl/ adj. 1 very enjoyable and exciting, in a strange or special way: a magical evening beneath the stars 2 containing magic, or done using magic: magical powers —magically adv.

ma-gi-cian /məˈdʒɪʃən/ n. [C] someone who entertains people by doing magic tricks

Magic 'Marker n. [C,U] (trademark) a large pen with a thick soft point ma-gis-trate /ˈmædʒɪstreɪt, -strɪt/ n. [C] someone who judges less serious crimes in a court of law [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin magistratus, from magister “master”] mag-ma /ˈmægmə/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES hot melted rock below the surface of the Earth → see picture at VOLCANO

Mag-na Car-ta /ˌmæɡnə ˈkɑrtə/ n. HISTORY a document, signed by King John of England in 1215, which established the rights of NOBLES, the church, and free citizens and limited the power of the king mag-nan-i-mous /mægˈnænəməs/ adj. (formal) kind and generous toward other people —magnanimity /ˌmæɡnəˈnɪməti/ n. [U] mag-nate /ˈmæɡneɪt, -nɪt/ n. steel/oil/shipping etc. magnate a wealthy and powerful person in the steel, etc. industry mag-ne-si-um /mægˈnɪziəm, -zəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Mg) a light silver-white metal that is an ELEMENT and burns with a bright flame [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Modern Latin magnesia] mag-net /ˈmæɡnɪt/ n. [C] 1 PHYSICS a piece of iron or steel that can make other metal objects move toward it 2 a person or place that attracts many other people or things: The city has become a magnet for many new industries. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French magnete, from Latin magnes, from Greek magnes (lithos) “(stone) of Magnesia,” ancient city in Turkey] mag-net-ic /mægˈnetɪk/ adj. 1 PHYSICS having the power of a magnet: The compass needle points to the magnetic North Pole. 2 magnetic tape/disk etc. IT a special TAPE, etc. that contains electronic information which can be read by a computer or other machine 3 magnetic personality a quality that someone has that makes other people feel strongly attracted to him/her magnetic 'field n. [C] PHYSICS an area around an object that has magnetic power: the Earth's magnetic field mag-net-ism /ˈmæɡnəˌtɪzəm/ n. [U] 1 a quality that makes other people feel attracted to you: Raul's natural magnetism 2 PHYSICS the power that a magnet has to attract things mag-net-ize /ˈmæɡnəˌtaɪz/ v. [T] PHYSICS to make iron or steel able to pull other pieces of metal toward itself mag-nif-i-cent /mægˈnɪfəsənt/ adj. very impressive because of being big, beautiful, etc.: The view was magnificent. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin magnificus “very impressive, excellent,” from magnus “great”] —magnificence n. [U]

M

M

THESAURUS impressive, imposing, dazzling, awe-inspiring, breathtaking, majestic → IMPRESSIVE mag·ni·fy

/ˈmæɡnəˌfaɪ/ v. [T] (magnified, magnifies) 1 to make something appear larger than it is: A microscope magnifies the image so you can see the cells. 2 to make something seem more important or worse than it really is: The reports tend to magnify the risks involved. —magnification /ˌmæɡnəˈfeɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

'magnifying glass n. [C] a round piece of glass with a handle, that magnifies things when you look through it → see picture at MAGNIFY mag·ni·tude /ˈmæɡnəˌtʊd/ n. [U] 1 how large or important something is: I hadn't realized the magnitude of the problem. 2 EARTH SCIENCES how strong an EARTHQUAKE is 3 PHYSICS how bright a star is mag·no·lia /mægˈnoʊliə/ n. [C] a tree or bush with large white, yellow, pink, or purple sweet-smelling flowers mag·pie /ˈmæɡpaɪ/ n. [C] a wild bird with black and white feathers and a loud cry ma·hog·a·ny /məˈhɑɡəni/ n. (plural mahoganies) [C,U] a tropical American tree, or the hard dark wood of this tree [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Early Spanish mahogani] maid /meɪd/ n. [C] 1 a woman whose job is to clean rooms, serve meals, wash clothes, etc. in a large house 2 a woman whose job is to clean rooms in a hotel maid·en¹ /ˈmeɪdn/ also maid n. [C] (literary) a young woman or girl who is not married maiden² adj. maiden flight/voyage the first trip that an airplane or ship makes

'maiden name n. [C] the family name that a woman had before she got married and began using her husband's name

THESAURUS name, first name/given name, last name/family name/surname, middle name, full name → NAME¹

,maid of 'honor n. [C] the main BRIDESMAID at a wedding → WEDDING

mail¹ /meɪl/ n. [U] 1 the system of collecting and delivering letters, packages, etc.: What time does the mail come? | I just put the letter in the mail. | You can renew your passport by mail. 2 the letters, packages, etc. that are delivered to a particular person or at a particular time: They sent his mail to the wrong address. 3 IT messages that are sent and received on a computer (SYN) email → AIRMAIL

mail² v. [T] 1 to send a letter, package, etc. to someone: I'll mail it to you tomorrow. 2 IT to send a document to someone using a computer (SYN) email: Can you mail it to me as an attachment?

mail·box /ˈmeɪlbaks/ n. [C] 1 a box, usually outside a house, where someone's letters are delivered or collected 2 a special box outdoors or at a POST OFFICE, where you mail letters 3 IT the part of a computer's memory where email messages are stored mail·ing /ˈmeɪlɪŋ/ n. [C,U] the act of sending a large number of letters, advertisements, etc. at the same time, or the total number of letters that you send

'mailing list n. [C] a list of people's names and addresses that a company keeps in order to send information or advertisements to them: We have more than 1,000 names on our mailing list.

mail·man /ˈmeɪlmæn, -mən/ n. (plural mailmen /-men, -mən/) [C] a man who delivers mail to people's houses

,mail 'order n. [U] a method of buying and selling in which you buy goods from a company that sends them by mail: a mail order catalog

maim /meɪm/ v. [T] (formal) to injure someone very seriously and often permanently: The accident maimed her for life.

THESAURUS hurt, injure, wound → HURT¹

main¹ /meɪn/ adj. [only before noun] 1 bigger or more important than all other things, ideas, etc. of the same kind: Let's meet by the main entrance. | My main goal is to compete in the Olympics. | He left the job because of money – at least that was the main reason. 2 the main thing (spoken) used in order to say what the most important thing is in a situation: As long as you're not hurt, that's the main thing.

main² n. [C] a large pipe carrying water or gas, that is connected to people's houses by smaller pipes: a frozen water main

,main 'clause n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a CLAUSE that can form a sentence on its own (SYN) independent clause main·frame /ˈmeɪnfreɪm/ n. [C] IT a large computer that can work very fast and that a lot of people can use at the same time main·land /ˈmeɪnlænd, -lənd/ n. the mainland EARTH SCIENCES the main area of land that forms a country, as compared to islands near it that are also part of that country —mainland adj.: mainland China

main·ly /ˈmeɪnli/ adv. used in order to mention the main part or cause of something, the main reason for something, etc.: Students in our program are mainly from Asia. | Their diet consists mainly of rice and beans. | I don't go out much, mainly because I have to look after the kids.

THESAURUS

chiefly – mainly: Their forest consists chiefly of fir trees.

principally – firstly and most importantly: Foreign aid was sent principally to the south of the region.

largely – mainly, and because of a particular reason: The school is in a largely black neighborhood.

primarily – mainly because of one reason or situation, which is more important than any other: We are primarily concerned with the effect this will have on the students here.

main-stay /'meɪnstə/ n. [C] the most important part of something that makes it possible for it to work correctly or to continue to exist: Farming is still the mainstay of our country's economy.

main-stream /'meɪnstrɪm/ n. the mainstream the beliefs and opinions that represent the most usual way of thinking about or doing something, or the people who have these beliefs and opinions: The Green Party is still outside the mainstream in American politics. —mainstream adj.: mainstream Hollywood movies main-tain /meɪn'teɪn/ [Ac] v. [T] 1 to make something continue in the same way or at the same standard as before: The U.S. and Britain have maintained close ties. | It is important to maintain a healthy weight. | Strong controls must be maintained over important wildlife habitats. 2 to keep something in good condition by taking care of it: It costs a lot of money to maintain a big house. | The report found that safety equipment had been very poorly maintained. 3 to strongly express an opinion or attitude: I've always maintained that any changes in the law will hurt the poor more than the rich. | From the beginning, James has maintained his innocence. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French maintenir, from Latin manu tenere “to hold in the hand”]

main-te-nance /'meɪntˈn-əns/ [Ac] n. [U] the work that is necessary to keep something in good condition: car maintenance | the maintenance of school buildings | The equipment needs very little maintenance.

ma-jes-tic /mə'dʒɛstrɪk/ adj. looking very big and impressive: a majestic view of the lake —majestically adv.

THESAURUS impressive, imposing, dazzling, awe-inspiring, breathtaking, magnificent → IMPRESSIVE

maj-es-ty /'mædʒəsti/ n. 1 [U] the quality of being impressive and beautiful: the majesty of the Grand Canyon 2 Your/Her/His Majesty used when talking to or about a king or queen ma-jor¹ /'meɪdʒə/ [Ac] adj. [usually before noun] 1 very large or important, especially when compared to other things or people of a similar kind [ANT] minor: major surgery | There were no major problems. | Training new employees is a major part of her job. | Carbon dioxide is a major factor in global warming. ▶ Don't say “major than.” Say “more important than” or “bigger than.” ◀

THESAURUS important, of great/considerable importance, crucial, vital, essential, key → IMPORTANT

2 ENG. LANG. ARTS based on a musical SCALE in which there are HALF STEPS between the third and fourth and the seventh and eighth notes [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Latin “larger, greater,” from magnus “large, great”] major² [Ac] n. [C] 1 the main subject that you study at a college or university → MINOR: His major is history. | Fewer students choose economics as a major. → UNIVERSITY 2 someone who is studying a particular subject as his/her main subject at a college or university: Darla was a biology major. → STUDENT 3 a middle rank in the Army, Air Force, or Marines, or an officer who has this rank

major³ v.

major in sth phr. v. to study something as your main subject at a college or university: I'm majoring in biology.

ma-jor-i-ty¹ /mə'dʒɔːrəti, -'dʒər-/ [Ac] n. (plural majorities) 1 [singular] most of the people or things in a particular group [ANT] minority: The majority of people support the president. | The vast majority of (=nearly all) young people own a cell phone. | The overwhelming majority of the population were involved in farming. 2 [C usually singular] the difference between the number of votes gained by the winning party or person in an election and the number gained by other parties or people: He won by a majority of 500 votes. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French majorité, from Latin major “larger, greater,” from magnus “large, great”] majority² adj. [only before noun] happening as a result of the decision of most members of a group: a majority decision/ruling

major-league adj. [usually before noun] 1 relating to the Major Leagues: a major-league pitcher 2 important or having a lot of power: a major-league player in Michigan politics

Major 'Leagues also Majors n. [plural] the group of teams that make up the highest level of American professional baseball → MINOR LEAGUES ma-jor-ly /'meɪdʒəli/ adv. (spoken, slang) very or extremely: When they broke up, he was majorly depressed.

make¹ /meɪk/ v. (past tense and past participle made /meɪd/)

1 PRODUCE STH [T] to produce something by working or doing something: Can I call you back? I'm making dinner. | She made the curtains herself. | My flute was made in Japan.

THESAURUS

produce – to make or grow something in large quantities: The cheese is produced in Italy.

M

M

manufacture – to make things in large quantities in factories: The vast majority of American consumer goods are manufactured in China.

build – to make a house, tunnel, bridge, etc.: John and his father built the cabin themselves.

construct – to make something, especially something large, solid, and strong, by putting parts together: The roof frames were constructed from thick, heavy timbers.

create – to make something new and original in art, music, fashion, etc.: Picasso created a completely new style of painting.

generate – to produce electricity or power: The building uses solar panels to generate electricity.

2 DO STH [T] used before some nouns to show that someone does the action of the noun: Maybe they made a mistake. | We've finally made a decision. | Do you want to make an appointment with the doctor?

3 CAUSE [T] to cause a particular state or situation to happen: Thanks for listening – you've really made me feel better. | That button makes the machine stop. | What made you decide to become a lawyer? ▶ Don't say "What made you to decide to become a lawyer?" ◀

THESAURUS cause, bring about sth, result in sth, trigger, prompt → CAUSE²

4 FORCE [T] to force someone to do something: Mom, make Billy stop it! | I wasn't hungry, but I made myself eat something.

THESAURUS force, coerce, compel, impel, pressure → FORCE²

5 EARN MONEY [T] to earn or get money: He's working Saturdays to make some extra money.

THESAURUS earn, get, be/get paid → EARN

6 NUMBER [linking verb] MATH to be a particular number or amount when added together: 2 and 2 make 4. | If you include us, that makes eight people for dinner.

7 make time (for sb/sth) to leave enough time to do something: She always makes time for exercise.

8 BE SUITABLE [linking verb] to have the qualities that are necessary for a particular job, use, or purpose: John will make a good father. | Sonia's life would make a good movie.

9 make a difference to cause a change, especially one that improves a situation: Having a car has made a big difference in our lives.

10 make it a) to arrive somewhere: We just made it to the hospital before the baby arrived. b) to be able to go to an event, meeting, etc.: I'm sorry I can't make it to your play. c) to be successful in a particular business or activity: He's made it big (=has been very successful) in Hollywood. d) to live after a serious illness or injury, or to deal with a very difficult situation: Mom made it through the operation all right.

11 make the bed to pull the sheets and BLANKETS over a bed to make it look neat when you are not sleeping in it

12 that makes two of us (spoken) used in order to say that you feel the same way that someone else does: "I'm so tired!" "Yeah, that makes two of us."

13 make or break to cause either great success or failure: The first year can make or break a new business.

14 make do to manage to do something using the things you already have, even though they are not exactly what you want: We'll have to make do with a quick sandwich.

15 make believe to pretend that something is true, especially as a game [ORIGIN: Old English macian] → be made of at MADE², make a (big) difference/make all the difference at DIFFERENCE, make love at LOVE², make sense at SENSE¹, make the best of sth at BEST³, make friends (with sb) at FRIEND, make up your mind at MIND¹ make for sth phr. v.

1 to go toward a place: We made for the exit.

2 to have a particular result or effect: It should make for an interesting evening. [ORIGIN: Old English macian] → be made for each other at MADE² make sth ↔ into sth phr. v.

to change something into something else: We can make your room into a study.

make sth of sb/sth phr. v.

1 to have a particular opinion about someone or something, or a particular way of understanding something: I really don't know what to make of him.

2 make the most of sth to use an opportunity in a way that gives you as much advantage as possible: I want to make the most of the time I have left in Europe.

3 make too much of sth to treat a situation as if it is more important than it really is: He doesn't like to make too much of his birthday. → make a fool of yourself at FOOL¹ make off with sth phr. v.

to steal something: They made off with our TV.

make out phr. v.

1 make (sth ↔) out to be able to hear, see, or understand something: I can't make out what the sign says.

2 make a check out to sb to write a check so that the money is paid to a particular person, company, store, etc.

3 make out (that) (informal) to say that something is true when it is not: The situation was never as bad as the media made out.

4 how did sb make out ...? (spoken) used in order to ask if someone did something well: "How did you make out in the interview?" "I think it went well."

5 (spoken) to kiss and touch someone in a sexual way make up phr. v.

1 make (sth ↔) up to invent a story, explanation, etc. in order to deceive someone: Ron made up an excuse so his mother wouldn't be mad.

2 make (sth ↔) up to produce a new story, song, game, etc.: "What are you singing?" "I don't know – I just made it up."

3 make up sth to combine together to form a substance, group, system, etc.: the rocks and minerals that make up the Earth's outer layer | Women make up 60% of our employees.

4 make up sth to add to an amount in order to bring it up to the level that is needed: We're going to have to charge more to make up the difference.

5 make (sth ↔) up to work at times when you do not usually work because you have not done enough work at some other time: I have to leave early, but I'll make up the time/work tomorrow.

6 make (sb ↔) up to put MAKEUP on someone's face in order to make him/her look better or different: They made him up to look like an old man.

7 make it up to sb to do something good for someone because you feel responsible for something bad that happened to him/her: I'm sorry I forgot! I promise I'll make it up to you.

8 make up to become friends with someone again, after you have had an argument: Have you two made up?

make up for sth phr. v.

1 to make a bad situation or event seem better: He bought everyone a drink to make up for being late.

2 to have so much of one quality that it does not matter that you do not have others: Jay lacks experience, but he makes up for it with hard work.

3 make up for lost time to do something very quickly because you started late or something made you work too slowly make² n. 1 [C] a product made by a particular company: "What make is your car?" "It's a Chevy."

THESAURUS type, kind, sort, brand, model → TYPE¹

2 be on the make (disapproving) to be trying hard to get something such as money or sex

'make-believe adj., adv. not real, but imagined or pretended: Many small children have make-believe friends.

mak-er /'meɪkə/ n. [C] 1 a person, company, or machine that makes something or does something: U.S. auto makers | a coffee maker 2 decision maker/peacemaker etc. someone who is good at or responsible for making decisions, stopping arguments, etc.

make-shift /'meɪk,ʃɪft/ adj. [only before noun] made for temporary use when you need something and there is nothing better available: a makeshift table made from boxes make-up /'meɪk-ʌp/ n. 1 [U] substances such as powder, creams, and LIPSTICK that some people, usually women or actors, put on their faces: I waited for Ginny to put on her makeup. 2 [singular] all the parts, members, or qualities that make up something: We haven't yet been told what the makeup of the new government will be (=who the members will be).

mak-ing /'meɪkɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] the process or business of making something: He wrote a book about the making of the movie. | the art of rug making 2 in the making in the process of being made or produced: The deal was 11 months in the making. 3 have the makings of sth to have the qualities or skills needed to become a particular type of person or thing: Sandy has the makings of a good doctor.

mal-a-dy /'mælədi/ n. (plural maladies) [C] (formal) 1 an illness 2 something that is wrong with a system or organization mal-aise /mæ'leɪz/ n. [U] (formal) a feeling of anxiety, and a lack of confidence and satisfaction ma-lar-i-a /mə'lerɪə/ n. [U] a serious disease that is common in hot countries and is caused by the bite of an infected MOSQUITO [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Italian mala aria "bad air;" because it was believed that the disease came from gases rising from wet land]

male¹ /meɪl/ adj. 1 BIOLOGY belonging to the sex that cannot have babies (ANT) female: a male lion | Many women earn less than their male colleagues. 2 BIOLOGY typical of this sex (ANT) female: a male voice —male n. [C]: Males under 25 pay the highest car insurance rates.

THESAURUS man, guy, gentleman, fellow, boy, youth → MAN¹

male 'chauvinist also male chauvinist 'pig n. [C] a man who believes that men are better than women —male chauvinism n. [U] mal-e-dic-tion /,mælə'dɪkʃən/ n. [C] (formal) a wish or prayer that something bad will happen to someone (SYN) curse ma-lev-o-lent /mə'levələnt/ adj. (formal) showing a desire to harm other people [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin malevolens "wishing evil"] —malevolence n. [U] mal-func-tion /mæl'fʌŋkʃən/ n. [C] a fault in the way a machine works: a malfunction in the computer system —malfunction v. [I] mal-ice /'mæɪs/ n. [U] the desire to harm or upset someone: The criticism was made without malice.

ma-li-cious /mə'liʃəs/ adj. showing a desire to harm or upset someone: malicious gossip —maliciously adv.

THESAURUS mean, cruel, unkind, nasty, thoughtless, spiteful, abusive, vicious → MEAN² ma-lign /mə'laɪn/ v. [T] (formal) to say or write unpleasant and untrue things about someone: He's been much maligned by the press.

M

M

ma-lig-nant /mə'liɡnənt/ adj. BIOLOGY a malignant TUMOR (=a group of growing cells) contains CANCER and may kill someone (ANT) benign [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Late Latin, present participle of malignari, from Latin malignus, from male “badly” + gigni “to be born”) —malignancy n. [U] mall /mɒl/ n. [C] a very large building with a lot of stores in it (SYN) shopping mall → STRIP MALL: Suzy's at the mall. | Do you want to go to the mall? [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 mall “long path used for playing a game called “pall-mall”” (17—19 centuries)]

mal-lard /'mæləd/ n. [C] a type of common wild duck mal-le-a-ble /'mæliəbəl/ adj. 1 something that is malleable is easy to press, pull, or bend into a new shape: a malleable metal 2 (formal) someone who is malleable is easily influenced or changed by people mal-let /'mælit/ n. [C] a wooden hammer mal-nour-ish-ed /,mæl'nəʊrɪʃt, -'nɑːrɪʃt/ adj. sick or weak because of not eating enough food, or because of not eating good food mal-nu-tri-tion /,mælnu'trɪʃən/ n. [U] illness or weakness as a result of being malnourished mal-prac-tice /,mæl'præktɪs/ n. [C,U] LAW the act of failing to do a professional duty, or of making a mistake while doing it malt /mɒlt/ n. 1 [C] a drink made from milk, malt powder, ICE CREAM, and something such as chocolate 2 [U] grain, usually BARLEY, that is used for making beer, WHISKEY, etc.

malt-ed /'mɒltɪd/ also ,malted 'milk n. [C] a malt drink mal-treat /mæl'trit/ v. [T] (formal) to treat an animal or person cruelly —maltreatment n. [U] ma-ma /'mama/ n. [C] (informal) a mother [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 From the sounds made by a baby]

'mama's boy n. [C] (informal, disapproving) a boy or man that people think is weak because his mother is too protective of him mam-mal /'mæməl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the group of animals, including humans, that drink milk from their mother's breasts when they are young [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Late Latin mammallis “of the breast,” from Latin mamma “breast”] mam-ma-ry gland /'mæməri ˌglænd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the part of a woman's breast that produces milk, or a similar part of a female animal mam-mo-gram /'mæməˌgræm/ n. [C] an X-RAY picture of a woman's breast mam-moth /'mæməθ/ adj. very large: Replacing the bridge will be a mammoth construction project

man¹ /mæn/ n. (plural men /mɛn/)

1 MALE [C] an adult male human → WOMAN: Carl is a really nice man. | A group of middle-aged men came into the restaurant.

THESAURUS

guy (informal) — a man: He's such a great guy. | One of the guys at work is from Mexico.

gentleman — a polite word for a man, often used in formal situations: Good evening, ladies and gentlemen.

fellow (old-fashioned) — a man: a nice young fellow boy — a young male person, usually a child or a teenager: I took the boys swimming. | a teenage boy | The gang, including a boy of 10, had all been at the party.

youth — a teenage boy or young man: He teaches at a school for troubled youths in San Diego.

male (formal) — a man, used especially by researchers or the police: The suspect is a young white male. → WOMAN

2 STRONG/BRAVE [C usually singular] a man who has the qualities that people think a man should have, such as being brave, strong, etc.: If someone has something to say, be a man and speak up.

3 ALL PEOPLE [U] all people, both male and female, considered as a group: This is one of the worst diseases known to man.

4 PERSON [C] (old-fashioned) a person, either male or female: All men are equal in the eyes of the law.

THESAURUS

Man can mean “people in general”: Man has always tried to understand the stars.

Mankind means “all people, considered as a group”: the darkest time in the history of mankind Some people think that using man and mankind in this way seems to not include women. To avoid this problem, you can use people to mean “people in general” and humankind instead of mankind: People have always tried to understand the stars. | the darkest time in the history of humankind

5 WORKER [C] a man who does a job for you, usually repairing something: The telephone man is supposed to come this morning.

6 SOLDIER [C usually plural] a soldier, SAILOR, police officer, etc. who has a low rank: General Lee ordered his men to retreat.

7 WHAT SB LIKES [C] used in order to say that a man likes, or likes doing, a particular thing: a gambling man | He's a meat and potatoes man (=likes eating plain traditional food).

8 GAMES [C] one of the pieces you use in a game such as CHESS

9 man and wife (formal) to be or become married: I now pronounce you man and wife (=you are now officially married).

SPOKEN PHRASES

10 [C] used in order to speak to someone, especially an adult male: Hey, man! How're you doing?

11 my man said by some men when talking to a male friend

[ORIGIN: Old English]

man² v. (manned, manning) [T] to use or operate a vehicle, piece of equipment, etc.: the astronauts who manned the first spacecraft → MANNED man³ interjection used in order to emphasize what you are saying: Oh man! I'm going to be really late.

man-a-cle /'mænəkəl/ n. [C] an iron ring on a chain that is put around the hand or foot of a prisoner man-age /'mænidʒ/ v. [I,T] 1 to succeed in doing something difficult, such as dealing with a problem or living in a difficult situation: Don't worry – we'll manage somehow. | Did you manage to get any sleep on the plane? 2 to direct or control a business and the people who work in it: Katie manages a restaurant in town. 3 (spoken) to be able to do something or carry something without help: "Can I help you with that?" "That's okay – I can manage."

man-age-a-ble /'mænidʒəbəl/ adj. easy to control or deal with: Break the task down into manageable stages.

man-age-ment /'mænidʒmənt/ n. 1 [U] the act or process of controlling and organizing the work of a company or organization and the people who work for it: He studied Business Management. 2 [singular, U] the people who are in charge of controlling and organizing a company or organization: The management has agreed to talk with our union. | a member of the senior management team

man-ag-er /'mænidʒə/ n. [C] someone who directs the work of something such as a business, organization, department, etc.: That meal was terrible – I want to speak to the manager! | the manager of the store | the general/sales/marketing etc. manager

THESAURUS boss, head, chief, principal, president, CEO, supervisor, foreman, forewoman, deputy manager/principal, etc. → BOSS¹

man-a-ge-ri-al /,mænə'dʒɪriəl/ adj. relating to the job of being a manager: good managerial skills

Man-da-rin /'mændərɪn/ n. [U] the official language of China man-date /'mændert/ n. 1 [C] (formal) an official order given to a person or organization to do something 2 [C] POLITICS the right or power that a government has to do something, which it has after winning an election or vote: The governor was elected with a clear mandate to raise taxes. 3 [C,U] POLITICS the power given to one country to govern another country, or the country that is being governed: Lebanon became a French mandate after World War I. —mandate v. [T] man-da-to-ry /'mændə,tɔri/ adj. something that is mandatory must be done: mandatory safety inspections

THESAURUS necessary, essential, vital, compulsory, requisite, indispensable → NECESSARY

mane /meɪn/ n. [C] the long hair on the back of a horse's neck, or around the face and neck of a male lion ma-neu-ver¹ /mə'nuvə/ n. 1 [C] a skillful movement or carefully planned action, especially to avoid something or go around it: basic skiing maneuvers 2 maneuvers [plural] a military exercise like a battle, used for training soldiers maneuver² v. [I,T] to move or turn skillfully, or to move or turn something skillfully: It was hard to maneuver the piano through the door.

ma-neu-ver-a-ble /mə'nuvərəbəl/ adj. easy to move or turn man-ger /'meɪndʒə/ n. [C] a long open container that horses, cows, etc. eat from man-gle /'mæŋɡəl/ v. [T] to damage something badly by crushing or twisting it: The car was badly mangled in the accident.

man-go /'mæŋɡoʊ/ n. [C] (plural mangos or mangoes) a sweet juicy tropical fruit with a large seed [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Portuguese manga, from Tamil man-kay] → see picture on page 414 man-grove /'mæŋɡroʊv/ n. [C] a tropical tree that grows in or near water and grows new roots from its branches mang-y /'meɪndʒi/ adj. looking old, dirty, and in bad condition man-han-dle /'mæn,hændl/ v. [T] to move someone or something roughly, using force man-hole /'mænhəʊl/ n. [C] a hole on the surface of a road, covered by a lid, that people go down to examine pipes, wires, etc.

man-hood /'mænhʊd/ n. [U] 1 the qualities that people think a man should have: He felt the need to prove his manhood. 2 (formal) the state of being a man rather than a boy man-hunt /'mænhʌnt/ n. [C] an organized search, usually for a criminal ma-ni-a /'meɪniə/ n. [C,U] 1 a very strong desire for or interest in something, especially among a lot of people 2 a type of mental illness in which someone is extremely excited and active ma-ni-ac /'meɪni,æk/ n. [C] (informal) 1 someone who is not responsible and behaves in a stupid or dangerous way: He drives like a maniac. 2 someone who is considered strange because s/he is too involved or interested in something: a sex maniac ma-ni-a-cal /mə'naiəkəl/ adj. behaving as if you are crazy: maniacal laughter man-ic /'mænik/ adj. behaving in a very excited

M

M

and often anxious way: She had a lot of manic energy.

man-i-cure /'mæni,kʏər/ n. [C,U] a treatment for the hands and FINGERNAILS that includes cleaning, cutting, etc. → PEDICURE [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French, Latin manus “hand” + cura “care”]
—manicure v. [T] —manicurist n. [C] man-i-fest /'mænə,fɛst/ v. (formal) manifest itself if something manifests itself, it appears or becomes easy to see: The disease can manifest itself in many ways.

manifest ² adj. (formal) plain and easy to see [SYN] obvious: a manifest error of judgment —manifestly adv.: The rules are manifestly unfair.

THESAURUS noticeable, clear, obvious, striking, eye-catching, evident, apparent, conspicuous, unmistakable → NOTICEABLE man-i-fes-ta-tion /,mænəfə'steɪʃən/ n. [C,U] a very clear sign that a particular situation or feeling exists: These latest riots are a clear manifestation of growing unhappiness.

man-i-fes-to /,mænə'fɛstəʊ/ n. (plural manifestos) [C] a written statement by a group, especially a political group, saying what it thinks and intends to do: the Communist manifesto man-i-fold /'mænə,fəʊld/ adj. (formal) many, and of different kinds: The problems facing the government are manifold.

ma-nil-a /mə'nɪlə/ adj. made of a strong brown paper: a manila envelope

ma-nip-u-late /mə'nɪpyə,leɪt/ [Ac] v. [T] 1 to make someone do exactly what you want by deceiving or influencing him/her: I don't like the way he manipulates people. | He knew he was being manipulated, but felt powerless to protest. 2 to skillfully handle, control, or move something: Babies investigate their world by manipulating objects. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 manipulation (18—21 centuries), from French, from manipule “handful,” from Latin manipulus]
—manipulation /mə'nɪpyə'leɪʃən/ n. [U] ma,nipulated 'variable n. [C] SCIENCE in a scientific EXPERIMENT (=test), one of the conditions you change, add, or remove in order to test its effect on something else involved in the experiment [SYN] independent variable

ma-nip-u-la-tive /mə'nɪpyələtɪv/ [Ac] adj. (disapproving) good at controlling or deceiving people to get what you want: She is very manipulative. | Manipulative behavior is learned at an early age.
—manipulator /mə'nɪpyə,leɪtər/ n. [C] man-kind /,mæn'kaɪnd/ n. [U] all humans, considered as a group [SYN] humankind: the worst war in the history of mankind man-ly /'mænlɪ/ adj. (approving) having qualities such as strength or courage that are considered to be typical of a man —manliness n. [U]

,man-'made adj. made of substances such as plastic that are not natural → ARTIFICIAL: man-made fibers

THESAURUS artificial, synthetic, fake, simulated, imitation → ARTIFICIAL manned /mænd/ adj. controlled or operated by people [ANT] unmanned: a manned space flight man-ne-quin /'mænəkən/ n. [C] a model of a human body, used for showing clothes

man-ner /'mænər/ n. 1 [singular] (formal) the way in which something is done or happens: The issue should be resolved in a manner fair to both parties. 2 [singular] the way in which someone talks or behaves with other people: She has an easygoing manner. | Greet the customer in a friendly and courteous manner.

THESAURUS behavior, conduct, demeanor → BEHAVIOR

3 manners [plural] polite ways of behaving in social situations: The girl had good/bad manners. 4 all manner of sth (formal) many different kinds of things or people: The camp offers all manner of activities. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French maniere “way of acting, way of handling,” from Latin manuarius “of the hand”] man-nered /'mænəd/ adj. well-mannered/bad-mannered etc. (formal) polite or not polite to other people: a nice mild-mannered young man man-ner-ism /'mænə,rɪzəm/ n. [C,U] a way of speaking, behaving, moving, etc. that is typical of a particular person or group of people: Some of his mannerisms are exactly like his father's.

man-nish /'mæniʃ/ adj. a woman who is mannish looks or behaves like a man man-or /'mænər/ n. [C] 1 a large house with a large area of land around it 2 HISTORY in past times, the land that belonged to an important man of high rank man-pow-er /'mæn,pəʊər/ n. [U] all the workers available to do a particular type of work: We don't have enough manpower right now to start the project.

man-sion /'mænfən/ n. [C] a very large house → HOUSE¹ man-slaugh-ter /'mæn,sləʊtər/ n. [U] LAW the crime of killing someone without intending to → MURDER man-tel /'mæntl/ also man-tel-piece /'mæntl,pis/ n. [C] the shelf above a FIREPLACE man-tle /'mæntl/ n. [C] 1 take on/assume/wear the mantle of sth to accept or have a particular duty or responsibility: He assumed the mantle of leadership when the Prime Minister died. 2 a mantle of snow/darkness etc. (literary) something that covers or surrounds a surface or area 3 EARTH SCIENCES the part of the Earth around the central CORE → see picture at GLOBE man-tra /'mɒntrə/ n. [C] a repeated word or sound, used as a prayer or to help people MEDITATE man-u-al /'mænyuəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 manual work involves using your hands or your physical strength rather than your mind: He makes a living doing manual labor. | People in manual occupations have a lower life expectancy. 2 operated or done by hand or without the help of electricity, a computer, etc.: a manual pump | It would take too long to do a manual search of all the data. 3 relating to how well you use your hands to do or make things: manual skills [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French manuel, from Latin manualis, from manus “hand”] —manually adv.

manual ² n. [C] a book that gives instructions about how to do something such as use a machine: a computer manual man-u-fac-ture ¹ /,mænyə'fæktʃə/ v. [T] ECONOMICS to use machines to make goods, usually in large numbers: I work for a company that manufactures aircraft engine parts. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French, Latin manu factus “made by hand”]

THESAURUS make, produce, build, construct → MAKE¹ manufacture ² n. [U] ECONOMICS the process of making goods, usually in large numbers man-u-fac-tur-er /,mænyə'fæktʃərə/ n. [C] ECONOMICS a company that makes goods, usually in large numbers: the world's largest shoe manufacturer man-u-fac-tur-ing /,mænyə'fæktʃərɪŋ/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the process of making goods in factories ma-nure /mə'nʊr/ n. [U] waste matter from animals that is put into the soil to produce better crops man-u-script /'mænyə'skript/ n. [C] 1 a book or piece of writing before it is printed: She sent a 350-page manuscript to the publisher. 2 an old book written by hand before printing was invented: an ancient Chinese manuscript [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin manu scriptus “written by hand”]

man-y /'meni/ quantifier, pron. (comparative more, superlative most) 1 a large number of people or things (ANT few): I don't have many friends. | How many people are in your class? | There aren't many tickets left. | Many of the staff work part-time. | I've missed too many days off work (=more than I should) already. | Why did you bring so many pencils? → see Grammar box at LOT

USAGE

many, a lot of

In sentences that are not negative and not questions, it is more usual to say a lot of instead of many, especially in spoken English: You have a lot of books.

THESAURUS

a large number: They collected a large number of signatures on the petition.

a lot/lots – a large amount, quantity, or number of something: There are lots of other kids to play with in the neighborhood. | He has a lot of money.

plenty – a large amount that is enough or more than enough: Make sure you eat plenty of fruits and vegetables.

numerous (formal) – many, but able to be counted: There have been numerous studies showing that obese people do not necessarily overeat.

countless/innumerable (formal) very many: He had spent countless hours playing video games.

a multitude of sb/sth (formal) – a very large number of things or people: I had never seen such a multitude of stars.

a plethora of sth (formal) – a very large number of something: a plethora of diet books myriad (formal) a very large number of something, or being a large number of something: the myriad plants and animal species that live in the forest

2 as many the same number: There weren't as many people at the meeting as we had hoped. 3 a good/great many (formal) a large number: A great many men died in that battle. [ORIGIN: Old English manig]

map ¹ /mæp/ n. [C] a drawing of an area or country showing rivers, roads, cities, etc.: a map of Texas | a street/city map | Do you see Smith Street on the map? [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Medieval Latin mappa, from Latin, “cloth, towel”]

COLLOCATIONS

You look at a map when you are trying to find your way to or around a place.
If you look very carefully at a map, you can say that you study the map.
If you can read a map, you can understand the information on a map.
If something is on the map, the map shows it: I can't find Church Street on the map.
A detailed map is one which includes a lot of information: a detailed map showing the way to the campground map ² v. (mapped, mapping) [T] to make a map of a particular area map sth ↔ out phr. v. to plan something carefully: His future had been mapped out by his parents.

ma-ple /'meɪpəl/ n. [C,U] a tree in northern countries that has leaves with many points, or the wood from this tree → see picture on page A10 ma-quette /mæ'ket/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a small model or drawing that an artist produces in preparation for making a SCULPTURE mar /mɑː/ v. (past tense and past participle marred, present participle marring) [T] (written) to make something less attractive or enjoyable (SYN spoil): His good looks were marred by a scar along his cheek.

mar-a-thon ¹ /'mæɪəθən/ n. [C] a race in which competitors run 26 miles and 385 yards: She ran the marathon in just under three hours. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Marathon, place in Greece; from the story that in 490 B.C. a Greek soldier ran about 25 miles from the battlefield of Marathon to Athens, to bring news of the Athenian victory over the Persians] marathon² adj. [only before noun] continuing for a very long time: a marathon session of Congress

M

ma-raud-ing /məˈrɒdɪŋ/ adj. searching for something to kill, steal, or destroy: marauding soldiers

mar-ble /ˈmɑːbəl/ n. 1 [U] EARTH SCIENCES a hard white rock that can be POLISHED and used for building, STATUES, etc.: a marble floor 2 [C] a small colored glass ball that children roll along the ground as part of a game 3 marbles a game played by children using marbles

March /mɑːtʃ/ (written abbreviation Mar.) n. [C,U] the third month of the year, between February and April: We're going to meet on March 15th. | I might be going to California in March. | Julia had her baby last March. | The elections will take place next March. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin martius, from martius “of Mars, god of war”]

march¹ v. [I] 1 to walk quickly and with firm regular steps like a soldier: The Union army marched across the field. → see picture on page A9

THESAURUS walk, stride, stroll, amble, trudge, hike → WALK¹

2 to walk quickly because you are angry or determined: Mrs. Hawthorne stood up, turned around, and marched out the front door. 3 to walk somewhere in a large group to protest about something: The group plans to march on the White House next week. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French mar-chier “to step heavily”]

THESAURUS protest, demonstrate, riot → PROTEST²

march² n. [C] 1 an organized event in which many people walk together to protest about something: a civil rights march 2 the act of walking with firm regular steps like a soldier 3 a piece of music with a regular beat for soldiers to march to

'marching band n. [C] a group of musicians who march while they play instruments

Mar-di Gras /ˈmɑːdi ˈgrɑː/ n. the day before Lent, or the music, dancing, etc. that celebrate this day mare /mɛr/ n. [C] a female horse or DONKEY → STALLION mar-ga-rine /ˈmɑːdʒəriːn/ n. [U] a yellow food that is similar to butter [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French, Greek margaron “pearl”] mar-gin /ˈmɑːdʒɪn/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 the empty space at the side of a printed page: I wrote some notes in the margin. | Word-processing software can set margins automatically.

THESAURUS edge, border, boundary, perimeter → EDGE¹

2 ECONOMICS the difference in the number of votes, points, etc. that exists between the winners and the losers of an election or competition: *Polls show the senator leading by a wide margin (=a lot of votes). | The bill was approved by a margin of 45 votes. 3 margin of error the degree to which a calculation can be wrong without affecting the final results 4 the difference between what a business pays for something and what they sell it for (SYN) profit margin [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin margo “border”]

mar-gin-al /ˈmɑːdʒənəl/ (Ac) adj. small in importance or amount: The film was a marginal success. | The figures show a marginal rise in the rate of inflation. —marginally adv.: The population of New Hampshire is only marginally larger than that of the city of Detroit.

'marginal cost n. [C] ECONOMICS the additional cost of producing one more of a particular product or thing

'marginal revenue n. [C] ECONOMICS the additional money a business earns from selling one more of a particular product, which can be equal to the selling price of the product mar-i-jua-na /ˌmæɪəˈwʌnə/ n. [U] an illegal drug in the form of dried leaves that people smoke ma-ri-na /məˈriːnə/ n. [C] a small area of water where people keep boats used for pleasure mar-i-nate /ˈmæɪəˌneɪt/ also mar-i-nade /ˌmæɪəˌneɪd/ v. [T] to put meat or fish in a mixture of oil, wine, spices, etc. before you cook it: Marinate the chicken in soy sauce for one hour.* —marinate n.

ma-rine¹ /məˈriːn/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES relating to the ocean and the animals and plants that live there: marine life (=animals and fish that live in the ocean) [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin marinus, from mare “sea”] marine² n. [C] someone who is in the Marines mar-i-ner /ˈmæɪəˌnɜː/ n. [C] (literary) a sailor

Ma-rines /məˈriːnz/ also Ma-rine Corps n. the Marines the military organization of the U.S. consisting of soldiers who are on ships mar-i-o-nette /ˌmæɪəˌɒˌnet/ n. [C] a toy that looks like a person, animal, etc. that is moved by pulling strings attached to its body → see picture at PUPPET mar-i-tal /ˈmæɪəˌtəl/ adj. relating to marriage: marital problems [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin maritalis, from maritus “husband”] mar-i-time /ˈmæɪəˌtaɪm/ adj. 1 relating to the ocean or ships: *the maritime industry 2 near the ocean: *the maritime provinces [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin maritimus, from mare “sea”]

mark¹ /mark/ v. 1 [T] to make a sign, shape, or word on something using a pen or pencil: Check the envelopes that are marked "urgent" first. | The boxes are all marked with my name. 2 [T] to show where something is or was: The grave is marked by a stone cross. 3 [T] if a particular year, month, or week marks an important event, the event happened on that date during a previous year: This year marks the company's 50th anniversary. 4 [T] to grade a student's work 5 [I,T] to make a mark on something in a way that spoils or damages it: The heels of his boots had marked the floor.

mark sth ↔ down phr. v. to reduce the price of things that are being sold: Books have been marked down by 25%. → MARKDOWN mark sth ↔ up phr. v. to increase the price of something, so that you sell it for more than you paid for it → MARKUP

mark² n. [C]

1 DIRTY SPOT a spot or small dirty area on something that spoils its appearance: What are these black marks on the couch?

THESAURUS

Types of dirty marks

stain – a mark that is difficult to remove: an ink stain on the shirt pocket spot – a small mark: a grease spot on his shirt smudge – a dirty mark, made when something is rubbed against a surface: a smudge of paint on her cheek smear – a mark that is left when a substance is spread on a surface: There was a smear of blood on the chair.

Types of marks on someone's skin blemish – a mark on your skin that spoils its appearance bruise – a purple or brown mark on your skin that you get because you have fallen or been hit scar – a permanent mark on your skin, caused by a cut or by something that burns you pimple – a small raised red mark or lump on your skin that teenagers often have zit (informal) – a pimple wart – a small hard raised mark on your skin caused by a virus (=a living thing that causes an infectious illness) blister – a small area of skin that is swollen and full of liquid because it has been rubbed or burned freckle – one of several small light brown marks on someone's skin mole – a small usually brown mark on the skin that is often slightly higher than the skin around it

2 DAMAGE a small damaged area on someone or something: Her injuries included scratch marks on her face.

3 WRITING a sign or shape that is written or printed: She made a mark on the map to show where her house was.

4 make/leave your mark to become successful or famous: He first made his mark as a pianist playing with Miles Davis.

5 a mark of sth a sign that something is true or exists: We'd like to give you this gift as a mark of our respect.

6 be off the mark/be wide of the mark to be incorrect: My estimate was way off the mark.

7 on your mark(s), get set, go! (spoken) said in order to start a race mark-down /'markdaʊn/ n. [C] a reduction in the price of something marked /markt/ adj. very easy to notice: a marked improvement —markedly /'markɪdli/ adv.

mark-er /'markə/ n. [C] 1 an object, sign, etc. that shows the position of something: a marker at the edge of the football field 2 a large pen with a thick point → MAGIC MARKER mar-keṭ¹ /'markɪt/ n.

1 PLACE TO BUY/SELL [C] a) an area outside where people buy and sell goods, food, etc.: We buy all our vegetables from the farmers' market. b) a GROCERY STORE → SUPERMARKET

2 the market ECONOMICS the STOCK MARKET

3 on the market ECONOMICS available for someone to buy: Our house has been on the market for a year now.

4 COUNTRY/AREA [C] ECONOMICS a particular country or area where a company sells its goods: our biggest overseas/domestic market | the Japanese market

5 BUYERS [singular] ECONOMICS the number or kind of people who want to buy something: The market for used cars in the U.S. is getting smaller. | the youth market

6 BUYING AND SELLING [C] ECONOMICS the activity of buying and selling goods, services, etc.: Manufacturers are competing in an increasingly global market. | The housing market is beginning to recover. | the world's financial markets

7 the job/labor market the number of people looking for work or the number of jobs available

8 be in the market for sth to be interested in buying something: I'm in the market for a new car.

9 a buyer's/seller's market ECONOMICS a time that is better for buyers because prices are low, or better for sellers because prices are high [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old North French, Latin mercatus "buying and selling, marketplace," from mercari "to buy and sell," from merx "things to sell"] → corner the market at CORNER² → BLACK MARKET, FLEA MARKET, FREE MARKET

market² v. [T] ECONOMICS to try to persuade someone to buy something by advertising it in a particular way: The game is being marketed as a learning toy. —marketer n. [C] advertise, promote, publicize, hype, plug → ADVERTISE

THESAURUS

mar-keṭ-a-ble /'markɪtəbəl/ adj. marketable goods, skills, etc. are easy to sell because people want them: The program is designed to provide students with real marketable skills. —marketability /,markɪtə'bɪləti/ n. [U]

M

M

market e'conomy n. [C] ECONOMICS an economic system in which companies are not controlled by the government and decisions about what to produce or sell are based on profit market 'forces n. [plural] ECONOMICS the conditions that exist when business and trade are not controlled by the government, which affect the level of prices and pay at a particular time

mar·ket·ing /'mɑ:kɪŋ/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the activity of deciding how to advertise a product, what price to charge for it, etc., or the type of job in which you do this: a large marketing campaign | Reed works in marketing.

mar·ket·place /'mɑ:kɪtˌpleɪs/ n. 1 the marketplace ECONOMICS the business of buying and selling goods in competition with other companies 2 [C] a market market 'value n. [C,U] 1 ECONOMICS the value of a product, building, etc. based on the price that people are willing to pay for it, rather than the cost of producing it or building it 2 ECONOMICS the total value of all the SHARES on a STOCK MARKET, or the value of the STOCK of a particular company mark·ing /'mɑ:kɪŋ/ n. [C usually plural] 1 marks painted or written on something: line markings on the highway 2 the colored patterns and shapes on an animal's fur or skin: a cat with black and gray markings marks·man /'mɑ:ksmən/ n. (plural marksmen /-mən/) [C] someone who can shoot very well mark·up /'mɑ:k-ʌp/ n. [C] ECONOMICS an increase in the price of something: The usual retail markup is 50%.

mar·ma·lade /'mɑ:mə,leɪd/ n. [U] a JAM made with fruit such as oranges [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Portuguese marmelada “jam made from quinces,” from marmelo “quince”] ma·roon /mə'ru:n/ n. [U] a very dark red-brown color [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 French marron “chestnut”] —maroon adj.

ma·rooned /mə'rund/ adj. if you are marooned somewhere, you are in a place from which you cannot leave, and there are no people to help you: The climbers were marooned on the mountain for three days.

mar·quee /mɑ:'ki/ n. [C] a large sign on a theater that gives the name of the movie or play mar·riage /'mæɪdʒ/ n. 1 [C,U] the relationship between two people who are married, or the state of being married: a long and happy marriage | She felt she wasn't ready for marriage. | She has two children from a previous marriage.

COLLOCATIONS

a happy/good marriage
an unhappy/broken/troubled/failed/loveless marriage sb's marriage breaks up – someone's marriage ends because of problems and disagreement the breakup of sb's marriage – the end of someone's marriage sb's marriage ends in divorce

a proposal of marriage – an occasion when one person asks another person to marry him or her a mixed/interracial marriage – a marriage between people of different races an arranged marriage – a marriage in which your parents choose the person you marry

2 [C] the ceremony in which two people get married (SYN) wedding

mar·ried /'mæɪd/ adj. having a husband or a wife: How long have you been married? | Agnes and I have decided to get married. | Helen is married to a lawyer. → MARRY

THESAURUS

single – not married

engaged – having formally agreed to marry someone in the future fiancée/fiancé – a woman or man who is engaged separated – no longer living with your husband or wife because of problems in your marriage divorced – no longer married because you have officially ended your marriage divorcee – someone who is divorced widowed – no longer married because your husband or wife has died widow/widower – a woman or man who is widowed living together – in a romantic relationship and sharing a home together, though not married partner – one of two people who are living together or who are married spouse (formal) – a husband or wife → WEDDING

mar·row /'mærou/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the soft substance in the hollow center of bones (SYN) bone marrow

mar·ry /'mæri/ v. (married, marries) 1 [I,T] to become someone's husband or wife: I've asked Linda to marry me. | My uncle didn't marry until he was 50. | We got married last July. | She married young (=at a young age). ▶ Don't say “married with.” ◀ 2 [T] to perform the ceremony at which two people get married: Rabbi Feingold will marry us. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 French marier, from Latin maritare, from maritus “husband”] marry into sth phr. v. to join a family by marrying someone who belongs to it: She married into a rich family.

Mars /mɑ:z/ n. PHYSICS the fourth PLANET from the Sun → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM

marsh /mɑ:ʃ/ n. [C,U] an area of low ground that is soft and wet → SWAMP —marshy adj.

mar·shal /'mɑ:ʃəl/ n. [C] 1 a police officer in the U.S. whose job is to make sure that people obey an order that has been given by a court of law: a U.S. marshal 2 the officer in charge of a city's fire-fighting department: the fire marshal marshal² v. marshal your resources/forces etc. to organize things or people so that they are used in the most effective way marsh-mal-low /ˈmɑːʃ,məloʊ/ n. [C,U] a very soft white candy made of sugar mar-su-pi-al /mɑːˈsʊpiəl/ n. [C] a type of animal that carries its baby in a pocket of skin on its body mart, Mart /mɑːt/ n. [C] a market or MALL, used especially in the names of stores: Wall-Mart Stores Inc. | There wasn't a Pepsi machine or a convenience mart in sight.

martial /ˈmɑːʃəl/ adj. related to war and fighting [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin martialis “of Mars,” from Mars, god of war] martial 'art n. [C usually plural] a sport such as KARATE, in which you fight with your hands and feet martial 'law n. [U] POLITICS a situation in which the army takes control of an area and many citizens' rights are taken away, especially because of fighting against the government: The country has been under martial law since the attempted coup.

Mar-tian /ˈmɑːʃən/ n. [C] an imaginary creature from Mars

Mar-tin Lu-ther King Day /ˈmɑːtɪn ˈluθəˈkiŋ ˌdeɪ/ n. a public holiday in the U.S. on the third Monday in January, when people remember Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

mar-tyr /ˈmɑːtɪə/ n. [C] someone who dies for his/her religious or political beliefs, and whose death makes people believe more strongly in those beliefs —martyr v. [T] —martyrdom n. [U] mar-vel¹ /ˈmɑːvəl/ v. [I,T] to feel surprise or admiration for the quality of something: We marveled at her courage.

marvel² n. [C] something or someone that is extremely impressive: Laser surgery is one of the marvels of modern medicine.

mar-vel-ous /ˈmɑːvələs/ adj. extremely good, enjoyable, or impressive: You are doing a marvelous job. | a marvelous opportunity

Marx-is-m /ˈmɑːk,sɪzəm/ n. [U] a political system based on Karl Marx's ideas that explains the changes in history as the result of the struggle between social classes —Marxist n. [C] masc. the written abbreviation of MASCULINE

mas-car-a /mæˈskærə/ n. [U] a dark substance that you use to color your EYELASHES

mas-cot /ˈmæskət/ n. [C] an animal, toy, etc. that represents a team or organization, and is thought to bring it good luck [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French mascotte, from Provençal mascolo, from masco “woman with magic powers”] mas-cu-line /ˈmæskjəlɪn/ adj. 1 having qualities that are considered to be typical of men → FEMININE: a masculine voice 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a masculine noun or PRONOUN has a form that means it relates to a male, such as “widower” or “him” → FEMININE

mas-cu-lin-i-ty /ˈmæskjəlɪnəti/ n. [U] qualities that are considered typical of a man → FEMININITY

mash /mæʃ/ v. [T] to crush something, such as food that has been cooked, until it is soft: Mash the potatoes until they're smooth.

mask¹ /mæsk/ n. [C] something that covers all or part of your face, to protect or hide it: a ski mask | The attackers wore masks. → GAS MASK

mask² v. [T] 1 to hide the truth about a situation, about how you feel, etc.: Small children find it hard to mask their emotions.

THESAURUS hide, conceal, cover/cover up, disguise → HIDE¹

2 to prevent a smell, taste, sound, etc. from being noticed: She turned on the radio to mask the noise.

masked /mæskt/ adj. wearing a mask: a masked gunman

'masking tape n. [U] a special type of tape, made of paper

mas-och-ism /ˈmæsə,kɪzəm/ n. [U] sexual behavior in which someone gets pleasure from being hurt —masochist n. [C] —masochistic /ˈmæsəˈkɪstɪk/ adj.

ma-son /ˈmeɪsən/ n. [C] 1 someone who builds walls, buildings, etc. with bricks, stones, etc. 2 Mason also Freemason a man who belongs to a society in which each member helps the other members to become successful, and in which they also do work to help other people

Ma-son-Dix-on line /ˈmeɪsən ˈdɪksən ˌlaɪn/ n. the Mason-Dixon line HISTORY the border between the states of Pennsylvania and Maryland, considered to be the dividing line between the northern and southern U.S.

ma-son-ry /ˈmeɪsənri/ n. [U] brick or stone from which a building, wall, etc. is made

M

mas·quer·ade¹ /ˌmæskə'reɪd/ n. [C] a formal dance or party where people wear MASKS and unusual clothes masquerade² v. [I] to pretend to be someone or something else: Two men masquerading as police officers robbed a local bank.

mass¹ /mæs/ n. 1 [C] a large amount or quantity of something: The train wreck was a mass of twisted steel. 2 [singular] a large crowd: a mass of people 3 Mass [C,U] the main religious ceremony in some Christian churches, especially the Roman Catholic Church 4 the masses [plural] all the ordinary people in a society 5 [U] PHYSICS the amount of material that a physical object contains. It is similar to its weight, but the mass of an object does not depend on GRAVITY: the mass of a star

mass² adj. involving or intended for a large number of people: weapons of mass destruction | a mass grave mass³ v. [I,T] to come together in a large group, or to make people or things do this: Troops are massing at the border.

mas·sa·cre¹ /ˌmæsəkə/ n. [C,U] the killing of a lot of people, especially people who cannot defend themselves: the massacre of 17 unarmed peasants massacre² v. [T] to kill a lot of people, especially people who cannot defend themselves: Government troops massacred hundreds of students.

THESAURUS kill, murder, slaughter, exterminate, slay → KILL¹

mas·sage /mæ'sɑːʒ, -'sɑːʒ/ n. [C,U] the action of pressing and rubbing someone's body with your hands to reduce pain or help him/her relax: I felt much calmer after the massage. | Larry gave me a gentle back massage. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French masser "to massage," from Arabic massa "to stroke"] —massage v. [T]

mas·seur /mæ'sɔː, mæ-/ n. [C] someone who gives people a massage mas·seuse /mæ'suːz, mæ-/ n. [C] a woman who gives people a massage mas·sive /'mæsɪv/ adj. 1 very large, solid, and heavy: a massive stone fireplace

THESAURUS big, large, huge, enormous, vast, gigantic, immense, colossal → BIG

2 unusually large, powerful, or damaging: Dad suffered a massive heart attack. | a massive tax bill mass 'media n. the mass media all the people and organizations that provide information and news for the public, including television, radio, and newspapers mass 'murderer n. [C] someone who has murdered a lot of people

'mass number n. [C] PHYSICS the total number of PROTONS and NEUTRONS in the NUCLEUS (=central part) of an atom

'mass-pro'duced adj. produced in large numbers using machinery, so that each object is the same and can be sold cheaply: The computers will be mass-produced in Korea. —mass production n. [U] —mass-produce v. [T] mast /mæst/ n. [C] 1 a tall pole on which the sails on a ship are hung 2 a tall pole on which a flag is hung mas·ter¹ /'mæstə/ n. [C] 1 someone who is very skilled at something: a master of disguise 2 a document, record, etc. from which other copies are made 3 (old-fashioned) a man who has authority over people or animals → MISTRESS master² v. [T] to learn something so well that you understand it completely and have no difficulty with it: It only took him a few months to master French.

THESAURUS learn, study, pick sth up, get the hang of sth, acquire → LEARN master³ adj. 1 master copy/list/tape etc. the original thing from which copies are made 2 master plumber/chef etc. someone who is very skillful at doing a particular job 3 most important or main: the master bedroom

mas·ter·ful /'mæstəfəl/ adj. skillfully done, made, or dealt with: a masterful performance

'master key n. [C] a key that will open all the door locks in a building

mas·ter·mind /'mæstə,maɪnd/ n. [C usually singular] someone who organizes a complicated plan, especially a criminal plan: the mastermind behind the bombings —mastermind v. [T]

'Master of Arts n. an M.A.

'master of 'ceremonies n. [C usually singular] someone who introduces speakers or performers at a social or public occasion (SYN) MC, emcee

'Master of Science n. an M.S.

mas·ter·piece /'mæstə,piːs/ n. [C] a work of art, piece of writing, music, etc. that is of the highest quality

'master's de'gree also master's n. [C] a university degree that you get by studying for one or two years after your first degree

mas·ter·y /'mæstəri/ n. [U] complete control or power over someone or something: Shakespeare's mastery of the English language

mas·tur·bate /'mæstə,beɪt/ v. [I,T] to touch or rub your sexual organs for pleasure —masturbation /ˌmæstə'beɪʃən/ n. [U] mat /mæt/ n. [C] 1 a small piece of thick material that covers part of a floor 2 a piece of thick soft material used in some activities for people to sit on, fall onto, etc.

mat-a-dor /'mætə,dɔː/ n. [C] someone who fights and tries to kill a BULL during a BULLFIGHT

match¹ /mætʃ/ n. 1 [C] a small wooden or paper stick with a special substance at the top, used to light a fire, cigarette, etc.: a box of matches | He lit/struck a match so we could see. 2 [C] a game or sports event: a tennis/boxing/soccer match | a semi-final match against South Korea 3 be no match for sb to be much less strong, fast, etc. than an opponent: Our defense was no match for theirs. 4 a shouting match a loud argument

match² v. 1 [I,T] if one thing matches another, or if two things match, they look good together because they have a similar color, pattern, etc.: We found a carpet to match the curtains in this room. | Do these socks match? 2 [I,T] if two things match, or if one matches the other, they look or seem the same: Police say the murder weapon matches a knife belonging to the suspect. 3 [T] to be appropriate for a particular person, thing, or situation: We'll try to help you find a job to match your skills. 4 [T] to put two people or things together that are somehow related to each other: Match the title of each book with its author. 5 [T] to be equal to something in value, size, or quality: His ambition was matched by a devotion to his family.

match up phr. v. 1 to be of a similar level or of similar quality to something: If the product doesn't match up to our standards, we don't sell it. 2 to belong with or fit together with something: The edges of the cloth don't match up.

match-book /'mætʃbʊk/ n. [C] a small piece of thick folded paper containing paper matches match-box /'mætʃbɒks/ n. [C] a small box containing matches match-ing /'mætʃɪŋ/ adj. having the same color, style, or pattern as something else: She wore a green skirt with a matching jacket.

THESAURUS similar, like, alike, comparable, akin to sth, analogous, identical → SIMILAR

match-less /'mætʃlɪs/ adj. (formal) better than all other things of the same kind match-mak-er /'mætʃ,mekə/ n. [C] someone who tries to find the right person for someone else to marry —matchmaking n. [U]

mate¹ /meɪt/ n. [C] 1 office/band/locker etc. mate someone you work with, do an activity with, or share something with → CLASSMATE, ROOMMATE 2 a husband, wife, or sexual partner, used especially in magazines: He's still searching for the perfect mate. 3 BIOLOGY the sexual partner of an animal 4 one of a pair of objects: I can't find the mate to this glove.

mate² v. [I] BIOLOGY if animals mate, they have sex to produce babies: The male mates with several females.

ma-te-ri-al¹ /mə'tɪriəl/ n. 1 [C,U] cloth used for making clothes, curtains, etc.: Mom bought some velvet material to make a dress. 2 [C,U] things such as wood, plastic, paper, etc. from which things can be made: building materials 3 [U] also mate-rials [plural] the things that are used for making or doing something: reading/writing/teaching material 4 [U] information or ideas used in books, movies, etc.: He's looking for new material for his next book.

material² adj. 1 relating to your money, possessions, living conditions, etc. rather than the needs of your mind or soul: We have very few material possessions, but we have each other. 2 relating to the real world or to physical objects, rather than religious matters: the material world 3 LAW important and needing to be considered when making a decision: a material witness for the defense | He was prosecuted for concealing facts material to the investigation.

ma-te-ri-al-ism /mə'tɪriəlɪzəm/ n. [U] (disapproving) the belief that money and possessions are more important than art, religion, morality, etc. —materialist adj., n. [C] —materialistic /mə'tɪriəlɪstɪk/ adj.

ma-te-ri-al-ize /mə'tɪriəl,aɪz/ v. [I] 1 to happen or appear in the way that you expected: The student protest failed to materialize/never materialized (=did not happen). 2 to appear in an unexpected and strange way: A man materialized from the shadows.

M

ma·ter·nal /mə'tɜːnl/ adj. 1 typical of the way a good mother feels or acts → PATERNAL: maternal feelings 2 maternal grandfather/aunt etc. your mother's father, sister, etc.

ma·ter·ni·ty /mə'tɜːnɪti/ adj. relating to a woman who is PREGNANT, or who has had a baby, or to the time when she is pregnant: maternity clothes ma·ternity leave n. [U] time that a woman is allowed away from her job when she has a baby: Karen's still on maternity leave.

ma·ternity ward n. [C] a department in a hospital where a woman is cared for after having a baby math /mæθ/ n. [U] (informal) the study or science of numbers and of the structure and measurement of shapes math·e·mat·i·cal /mæθ'mætrɪkəl, 'mæθə-/ adj. related to or using mathematics: a mathematical equation math·e·ma·ti·cian /,mæθmə'tɪʃən/ n. [C] someone who studies or teaches mathematics math·e·mat·ics /mæθ'mætrɪks, 'mæθə-/ n. [U] (formal) the study or science of numbers and of the structure and measurement of shapes (SYN math [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin mathematicus, from Greek, from mathema “learning, mathematics”]) mat·i·n·ée /,mæt'n'eɪ/ n. [C] a performance of a play or movie in the afternoon ma·tri·arch /'meɪtri,ɑːrk/ n. [C] a woman who has the most influence or power in a family or social group → PATRIARCH —matrarchal /,meɪtri'ɑːrkəl/ adj.

ma·tri·ar·chy /'meɪtri,ɑːki/ n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE a social system in which women hold all the power → PATRIARCHY ma·tric·u·late /mə'trɪkɪə,leɪt/ v. [I] (formal) to officially begin studying at a school or college: He majored in theater after matriculating to Northwestern. —matriculation /mə'trɪkɪə'leɪʃən/ n. [U] mat·ri·lin·e·al /,mætrə'liːniəl/ adj. SOCIAL SCIENCE a matrilineal society regards the connections between mothers and daughters as more important than the connections between fathers and sons → PATRILINEAL mat·ri·mo·ny /'mætrə,moʊni/ n. [U] (formal) the state of being married [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French matremoine, from Latin matrimonium “being a mother, marriage”] —matrimonial /,mætrə'moʊniəl/ adj.

ma·trix /'meɪtrɪks/ n. (plural matrices /-trɛsɪz/ or matrixes) [C] MATH an arrangement of numbers, letters, or signs on a GRID (=a background of regular crossed lines), used in mathematics, science, etc.

ma·tron /'meɪtrən/ n. [C] (literary) an older married woman ma·tron·ly /'meɪtrənli/ adj. a polite word to describe a woman who is not thin, young, or attractive matte /mæt/ adj. matte paint, color, or photographs are not shiny mat·ted /'mæɪtɪd/ adj. matted hair or fur is twisted and stuck together mat·ter¹ /'mætə-/ n.

1 SUBJECT/SITUATION [C] a subject or situation that you have to think about or deal with: I need to speak with you about a serious matter. | The argument was strictly a private/personal matter. | matters of public concern | Whether he is guilty is a matter for the jury to decide. | financial matters

THESAURUS subject, topic, theme, issue
→ SUBJECT¹

2 matters [plural] a situation that you are in or have been describing: She tried to apologize, but that only made matters worse. | It didn't help matters (=made the situation worse) when the money failed to arrive.

SPOKEN PHRASES

3 the matter used to ask why something is not working normally, someone seems upset or sick, or something looks wrong: What's the matter? Why are you crying? | Is there something the matter with the car?

4 as a matter of fact said when giving a surprising or unexpected answer to a question or statement: “Have you ever been to Paris?” “As a matter of fact, I just came from there.”

5 the fact of the matter is (that) used when saying what you think is really true concerning a situation: The fact of the matter is the company has had financial problems for years.

6 no matter how/where/what etc. used to say that something is always the same whatever happens, or in spite of someone's efforts to change it: No matter how hard she tried, she couldn't get the door open.

7 it's only/just a matter of time used to say that something will definitely happen in the future: It's only a matter of time before he loses his job.

8 SUBSTANCE [U] a) PHYSICS the material that everything in the universe is made of b) a substance that consists of a particular thing: waste/vegetable matter

9 take matters into your own hands to deal with a problem yourself because other people have failed to deal with it: Local people took matters into their own hands and hired their own security guards.

10 sth is a matter of principle/money etc. used to say that what happens or what you decide depends on your judgment, how much something costs, how much time there is, etc.: The money isn't important – it's a matter of principle.

11 be a matter of doing sth used to say that you only have to do a particular thing, or do something in a particular way, in order to be successful: I have a place to stay. Now it's just a matter of booking my flight.

12 sth is a matter of opinion used to say that people have different opinions about something

13 a matter of life and death a very dangerous or serious situation

14 a matter of seconds/days/inches etc. only a few seconds, days, inches, etc.: The bullet missed him by a matter of inches.

15 for that matter used to say that what you have said about one thing is also true about another: We don't have a TV yet, or even a bed for that matter.

matter² v. [I] 1 to be important, or to have an effect on what happens: Money is the only thing that matters to him. | Does it matter which road I take? | No matter how much suntan lotion I put on, I still burn. 2 it doesn't matter (spoken) a) used to say that you do not care which one of two things you have: "Do you want tea or coffee?" "Oh, it doesn't matter." b) used to tell someone you are not angry or upset: "I lost the book you loaned me." "It doesn't matter – I have another copy."

matter-of-fact adj. showing no emotion when you are talking about something, especially something exciting, frightening, upsetting, etc.: Jerry was very matter-of-fact about losing his job.
—matter-of-factly adv.

THESAURUS

detached – not reacting to something in an emotional way: She described what had happened in a detached way.

impassive – not showing any emotions: The witness remained impassive throughout questioning.

dispassionate (formal) – not easily influenced by personal feelings: a dispassionate analysis of the situation cold – without friendly feelings: a cold and distant man mat-tress /'mætrɪs/ n. [C] the soft part of a bed that you lie on [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French materas, from Arabic matrah "place where something is thrown"] ma-ture¹ /mə'tʃʊr, mə'tʊr/ (Ac) adj. 1 behaving in a reasonable way like an adult – used especially about a child or young person (Ant) immature: She's young, but she's very mature for her age. 2 fully grown and developed: Eagles aren't sexually mature until age five. | mature wine | The human brain isn't fully mature until about age 25. 3 a polite way of describing someone who is not young anymore [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin maturus]

mature² (Ac) v. [I] 1 to begin to behave in a reasonable way like an adult: Pat's matured a lot since going to college. 2 BIOLOGY to become fully grown or developed: The fly matures in only seven days. | It will mature into a small tree. | Girls tend to mature more quickly than boys, both physically and emotionally. 3 ECONOMICS if a financial arrangement, such as a BOND or POLICY, matures, it becomes ready to be paid —maturation n. [U]: Scientists studied the maturation of the seeds under different weather conditions.

ma-tur-i-ty /mə'tʃʊrəti, -'tʊr-/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 the quality of behaving in a sensible way like an adult: He has a lot of maturity for a 15-year-old. 2 BIOLOGY the time when a person, animal, or plant is fully grown or developed: Rabbits reach maturity in only five weeks. | Few of the plants grew to maturity. 3 ECONOMICS the time when a financial arrangement, such as a BOND or POLICY, is ready to be paid: With these particular bonds, interest is paid at maturity.

maud-lin /'mɒdlɪn/ adj. (disapproving) talking or behaving in a sad and silly way: moments of maudlin self-pity maul /mɔːl/ v. [T] if an animal mauls someone, it injures him/her badly, tearing his/her flesh mau-so-le-um /mə'sə'liəm, -zə-/ n. [C] a large stone building made specially to contain the body of a dead person or the dead bodies of an important family [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, Greek, from Mausolos king of Caria in ancient Turkey, for whom such a building was made] mauve /muːv/ n. [U] a pale purple color —mauve adj.

mav-er-ick /'mævərɪk/ n. [C] someone who thinks or behaves in a way that is different from most people: a political maverick [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Samuel A. Maverick (1803–70), U.S. cattle owner who did not mark some of his young cattle] —maverick adj.

mawk-ish /'mɔːkɪʃ/ adj. showing too much emotion in a way that is embarrassing (Syn) sentimental: He writes movingly about his wife without becoming mawkish. —mawkishly adv. —mawkishness n. [U] max¹ /mæks/ (Ac) n. 1 (informal) the abbreviation of MAXIMUM: Five people will fit, but that's the max. 2 to the max (slang) to the greatest degree possible —max adj., adv.: It'll cost $50 max.

max² v.

max sth ↔ out phr. v. (slang) to use something such as money or supplies so that there is none left: I maxed out my credit card.

max-im /'mæksɪm/ n. [C] a well-known phrase that gives a rule for sensible behavior

THESAURUS phrase, expression, idiom, cliché, saying, proverb → PHRASE¹

max-i-mize /'mæksəmaɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to increase something as much as possible (Ant) mini-mize: We want to maximize the services available to our customers. | The company's main function is to maximize profit. 2 IT to CLICK on a special part of a WINDOW on a computer screen so that it becomes as big as the screen (Ant) minimize: Users

M

will need to maximize the window to see the full picture.

max-i-mum¹ /'mæksəməm/ (AC) adj. the maximum amount, quantity, speed, etc. is the largest that is possible or allowed (ANT) minimum: The maximum penalty is five years in prison. | The maximum height of these trees is 25 feet. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin maximus “greatest,” from agnus “great”]

maximum² n. [C usually singular] the largest number, amount, etc. that is possible or is allowed (ANT) minimum: The road was designed for a maximum of 35,000 vehicles a day. | The country's agricultural policies force farmers to exploit their land to the maximum.

May /meɪ/ n. [C,U] the fifth month of the year, between April and June: Our anniversary is on May 1st. | We might be going to Texas in May. | Construction is scheduled to begin next May. | We haven't seen Tania since last May. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French mai, from Latin Maius, from Maia Roman goddess]

may modal verb 1 used to talk about what is or was possible → MIGHT: You may have to come back next week. | This may not be enough money. ▶ Don't say “mayn't.” ◀ 2 may I ...? (spoken) used to ask politely if you can do something: May I borrow your pen? | May I please speak to Carl? 3 (formal) used to say that someone is allowed to do something: You may start writing on your test forms now. 4 may ..., but ... used to say that although one thing is true, something else which seems very different is also true: This may taste bad, but it's good for you. 5 may as well → might as well at MIGHT¹

GRAMMAR

May is not used in questions about possible events or situations. Use might instead: Might there be a connection between these two things?

may-be /'merbi/ adv. 1 used to say that something may be true or may happen, but that you are not sure (SYN) perhaps: Maybe Anna's stuck in traffic. | “Will you be there tomorrow night?” “Maybe.” | Maybe this wasn't such a good idea. | Maybe you're right, but maybe not.

USAGE

Use maybe to talk about something that is possible, especially as a way of suggesting or explaining something. Maybe usually goes at the beginning of a sentence: Maybe we can get together this weekend.

May be is a modal verb followed by “be,” used to show that something is possible but not sure: We may be getting together this weekend.

2 used to make a suggestion: Maybe Jeff could help you.

May Day n. the first day of May, when people traditionally celebrate the arrival of spring may-day /'meɪdeɪ/ n. [C usually singular] a radio signal used to ask for help when a ship or airplane is in danger [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 French m'aider “help me”] may-hem /'meɪhəm/ n. [U] an extremely confused situation in which people are very frightened or excited: There was complete mayhem after the explosion.

may-o /'meɪou/ n. [U] (spoken) mayonnaise may-on-naise /'meɪə,neɪz/ n. [U] a thick white sauce made of egg and oil [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French] may-or /'meɪə, mɛr/ n. [C] someone who is elected to lead the government of a town or city politician, president, congressman/congresswoman, senator, governor → POLITICIAN

THESAURUS

maze /meɪz/ n.

[C] 1 a maze of streets/tunnels etc. a complicated and confusing arrangement of streets, etc. 2 something that is complicated and difficult to understand: a maze of rules/laws/regulations 3 a specially designed system of paths that is difficult to find your way through, which people go to for fun [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 maze “to confuse”]

M.B.A. n. [C] Master of Business Administration a GRADUATE degree that teaches you the skills you need to be in charge of a business

MC the abbreviation of MASTER OF CEREMONIES

MCAT /'emkæt/ n. [C] (trademark) Medical College Admission Test an examination taken by students who have completed a first degree and want to go to MEDICAL SCHOOL

Mc-Coy /mæ'kɔɪ/ n. the real McCoy (informal) something that is real and not a copy

MD the written abbreviation of MARYLAND

M.D. n. [C] DOCTOR OF MEDICINE

ME the written abbreviation of MAINE

me /mi/ pron. 1 the object form of “I”: Cathy called me last night. | Give it to me. 2 me too (spoken) said when you agree with someone, or are going to do the same thing as s/he is: “I'm hungry!” “Me too.” 3 me neither (spoken) said when you agree with a negative statement someone has just made: “I don't like fruitcake.” “Me neither.”

mead-ow /'medou/ n. [C] a field with wild grass and flowers mea-ger /'mɪgə/ adj. very small in amount: a meager salary [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French maigre, from Latin macer “thin”] meal /mil/ n. [C] a particular time when you eat food, or the food that is eaten then: Would you like wine with your meal? | Don't eat a heavy meal before going to bed. | We had a nice meal. [ORIGIN: Old English mæl "time, meal"]

COLLOCATIONS

evening meal – dinner or supper main meal – the most important and largest meal you eat during a day three/four/five-course meal – a large meal that has three, etc. courses (=separate parts of a meal) light/quick meal – a small meal decent/good/full meal – a large meal with good food have/eat a meal
cook/prepare/make a meal go (out) for a meal – to go to a restaurant to eat ask sb out for a meal also take sb out for a meal – to ask someone to come to a restaurant with you to eat, or to take someone there → LUNCH

THESAURUS

Types of meals

breakfast – a meal that you eat in the morning lunch – a meal that you eat in the middle of the day brunch – a meal that you eat in the late morning, instead of breakfast or lunch dinner/supper – a meal that you eat in the evening picnic – a meal that you eat outdoors, consisting of food that you cook or prepare earlier barbecue – a meal that you cook and eat outdoors

Parts of a large meal appetizer – a small dish of food served at the beginning of a meal hors d'oeuvre – a small amount of food that is served before people sit down at the table for the main meal main course/entrée – the main part of a meal side dish – food eaten with the main course dessert – sweet food eaten at the end of the meal → CORNMEAL, OATMEAL meal-time /'mɪltaɪm/ n. [C] a time during the day when you have a meal

mean¹ /min/ v. (past tense and past participle meant /mənt/) [T] 1 to have or represent a particular meaning: What does 'inoculate' mean? | This light means you're running low on fuel. ▶ Don't say "is meaning." ◀ 2 to intend a particular meaning when you say something: I said Monday but I meant Tuesday. | I just meant that we need to think carefully about our options. ▶ Don't say "I am meaning." ◀ 3 to intend to do something or intend that someone else should do something: I've been meaning to ask you something. | He says he didn't mean for her to get hurt. 4 to have a particular result: An airline strike meant that he was stuck in Athens for another week.

SPOKEN PHRASES

5 I mean a) said when you want to explain or give an example of something, or when you stop to think about what to say next: She's always late for work. I mean, yesterday she showed up at 10:30. b) said when you want to quickly correct what you have just said: She plays the violin, I mean the viola. 6 (do) you mean ...? said when you are checking that you understand something that someone has said: You mean you want me to call you, or will you call me? 7 (do) you know what I mean? said when you are asking someone if s/he understands you: He wore a hat like the one Sherlock Holmes had. You know what I mean? 8 I know what you mean used to tell someone that you understand or agree with what s/he is saying: "I'm so tired of his complaining." "I know what you mean." 9 I see what you mean used to tell someone that you now understand what s/he has been saying 10 what do you mean (...)? a) said when you do not understand someone b) said when you are very surprised or annoyed by something someone has said: What do you mean, you sold the car?

11 sb/sth means sth (to sb) used to say that someone or something is very important to someone: It would mean a lot to your father if you offered to help. 12 sb means business to be determined to do something: You have to be strict about the rules so they know you mean business. 13 sth was meant to be used to say that you think a situation was certain to happen and that no one could have prevented it: Our marriage was never meant to be. [ORIGIN: Old English mænan]

mean² adj. 1 cruel or not kind: Why do you say such mean things to me? | Don't be mean to your sister. | It was mean of you not to invite her.

THESAURUS

cruel – deliberately making someone suffer or feel unhappy: Kids can be very cruel to each other.
unkind – treating people in a way that makes them unhappy or hurts their feelings: She never says an unkind word.
nasty – not kind and not pleasant, often deliberately: Their neighbors were really nasty.
thoughtless – not thinking about the needs and feelings of other people: a thoughtless remark spiteful – being unkind deliberately in order to annoy or upset someone: Her reaction was spiteful.
abusive – using cruel words or physical violence: an abusive father vicious – very cruel and deliberately trying to upset someone: a vicious rumor malicious (formal) – showing a desire to harm or upset someone: malicious gossip

2 no mean feat/trick/achievement etc. something that is very difficult to do, so that someone who does it deserves to be admired: It was no mean

M

M

achievement for a woman to become a doctor in 1920. 3 a mean sth (informal) used to say that something is very good or someone is very good at doing something: Ray plays a mean game of tennis. 4 MATH average: The mean age of the men in the study was 47.

mean³ n. 1 means [plural] a method, system, object, etc. that is used as a way of achieving a result: We'll use any means we can to raise the money. | My bicycle is my main means of transportation. | The oil is transported by means of (=using) a pipeline. 2 means [plural] ECONOMICS the money or income that you have: They don't have the means to buy a car. | Try to live within your means (=only spending what you can afford). | a man of means (=who is rich) 3 by all means (spoken) used to mean "of course" when politely allowing someone to do something or agreeing with a suggestion: "Can I invite Clarence?" "Oh, by all means." 4 by no means (formal) not at all: The results are by no means certain. 5 a means to an end something that you do only to achieve a result, not because you want to do it: This job is just a means to an end. 6 the mean MATH the average amount, figure, or value → MEDIAN, MODE: The mean of 7, 9, and 14 is 10.

me-an-der /mi'ændə/ v. [I] to move in a slow relaxed way, not in any particular direction: I spent the afternoon meandering through the city. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin maeander, from Greek, from Maiaandros (now Menderes), river in Turkey] mean-ing /'mi:nɪŋ/ n. 1 [C,U] the thing, idea, feeling, etc. that a word, phrase, or sign represents: I don't understand the meaning of this word. 2 [C,U] the thoughts or ideas that someone wants you to understand from what s/he says, does, writes, etc.: The exact meaning of the king's statement was not clear. 3 [U] the importance that something has in a particular situation: Until today, I hadn't realized the full meaning of what had happened. 4 (not) know the meaning of sth to have, or not have, experience and understanding of a particular situation or feeling: Those kids don't know the meaning of hard work.

mean-ing-ful /'mi:nɪŋfəl/ adj. 1 serious, useful, or important: a meaningful relationship | meaningful work 2 easy to understand: The data isn't very meaningful to anyone but a scientist. 3 a meaningful look/smile etc. a look that clearly expresses the way someone feels mean-ing-less /'mi:nɪŋlɪs/ adj. having no purpose or importance and therefore not worth doing or having: a meaningless job | a statistic that is completely/totally/absolutely meaningless meant /mənt/ v. the past tense and past participle of MEAN mean-time /'mi:ntaɪm/ n. in the meantime in the period of time between now and a future event, or between two events in the past: We want to buy a house, but in the meantime we're renting the apartment.

mean-while /'minwaɪl/ adv. while something else is happening, or in the time between two events: I was in the kitchen cleaning up. Meanwhile, Ray was in the living room watching TV.

mea-sles /'mizəlz/ also the measles n. [U] an infectious illness in which you have a fever and small red spots on your face and body mea-sly /'mizli/ adj. (informal) very small and disappointing in size, quantity, or value: I only won a measly $5.

meas-ur-a-ble /'meɪʒərəbəl/ adj. 1 able to be measured: A manager should set measurable goals. 2 important or large enough to have an effect: The changes have not achieved any measurable results. —measurably adv.

meas-ure¹ /'meɪʒə/

v. 1 [T] to find the size, length, or amount of something: Measure the wall to see if the bookshelves will fit. 2 [T] to judge the importance or value of something: It is too early to measure the effectiveness of the drug. | Education cannot be measured by test scores alone. 3 [linking verb] to be a particular size, length, or amount: The table measures four feet by six feet.

measure sb/sth against sth phr. v. to judge someone or something by comparing him, her, or it to another person or thing measure up phr. v. to be good enough to do a particular job or to reach a particular standard: The test will allow us to see how our students measure up.

measure² n. 1 [C] an official action that is intended to deal with a problem: Congress passed a measure to control spending today. | We have taken measures to limit smoking to one area in the building. | Officials said they were satisfied with security measures. 2 a measure of sth an amount of something good or something that you want: Over time, they developed a measure of trust. 3 be a measure of sth (formal) to be a sign of the importance, strength, etc. of something: Profits are often used as a measure of a company's success. 4 [C,U] a system or unit for measuring the weight, length, etc. of something: A kilo is a measure of weight.

meas-ure-ment /'meɪʒəmənt/ n. [C,U] the length, height, value, etc. of something, or the act of measuring this: We took measurements and realized that the table wouldn't fit through the doorway.

measure of 'spread also measure of variability, measure of variation n. [C] MATH a measurement used to show how STATISTICAL information is spread across particular DATA measures 'of center n. [plural] MATH three standard units of measurement used when examining and describing DATA. The units are called the MEAN (=used to show the average quantity), the MODE (=used to show the most frequent quantity), and the MEDIAN (=used to show the middle quantity).

meat /mit/ n. [U] the flesh of animals and birds eaten as food: She never eats meat on Fridays. | red meat (=dark meat such as beef) | white meat (=pale meat such as chicken) [ORIGIN: Old English mete “food”]

THESAURUS

Types of meat

beef – the meat from a cow veal – the meat from a young cow pork – the meat from a pig ham – meat from a pig, that has been preserved with salt or smoke bacon – long thin pieces of meat from the back or sides of a pig, that have been preserved with salt or smoke

The meat from lamb, birds, or fish is called by the name of the animal: We had chicken for dinner. | roast lamb | salmon steaks in tomato sauce meat-ball /'mitˈbɔːl/ n. [C] a small round ball made from very small pieces of meat pressed together meat-loaf /'mitləʊf/ n. (plural meatloaves) [C,U] meat, egg, bread, etc. mixed and baked together in the shape of a LOAF meat-y /'miːtɪ/ adj. containing a lot of meat or having a strong meat taste: a meaty stew mec-ca /'mekə/ n. [singular] 1 Mecca a city in Saudi Arabia which is the most important holy city of Islam 2 a place that many people want to visit for a particular reason: Alaska is a mecca for nature lovers.

me-chan-ic /mɪˈkænɪk/ n. 1 [C] someone whose job is to repair vehicles and machinery 2 mechanics [U] the science that deals with the effects of forces on objects 3 the mechanics of (doing) sth the way in which something works or is done: The mechanics of bookkeeping can be complex.

me-chan-i-cal /mɪˈkænɪkəl/ adj. 1 relating to machines, or using power from a machine: Mechanical failure caused the jet to crash. | a mechanical device 2 done or said without thinking, as if you were a machine: a mechanical answer [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Late Latin mechanicus, from Greek, from mechane “machine”] —mechanically adv.

mech-a-nism /'mekəˌnɪzəm/ [AC] n. [C] 1 the part of a machine, or a set of parts, that does a particular job: a car's steering mechanism 2 a way in which something works, or the process by which it is done: the mechanisms of the brain | a mechanism for measuring employee performance |

Alcohol affects the perception mechanism of the brain.

mech-a-nized /'mekəˌnaɪzd/ adj. using machines instead of people or animals: a highly mechanized factory —mechanize v. [T] med-al /'medl/ n. [C] a round flat piece of metal given to someone who has won a competition or who has done something brave: He won an Olympic gold medal.

med-al-ist /'medl-ɪst/ n. [C] someone who has won a medal in a competition: a gold/silver/bronze medalist me-dal-lion /məˈdæljən/ n. [C] a piece of metal shaped like a large coin, worn as jewelry on a chain around the neck med-dle /'medl/ v. [I] (disapproving) to try to influence a situation that does not concern you: I don't want the government meddling in my affairs. —meddler n. [C]

me-di-a /'mɪdiə/ [AC] n. [plural] all the organizations, such as television, radio, and newspapers, that provide news and information for the public, or the people who do this work: the news media | The film attracted a lot of media attention. | The scandal was widely reported in the media. → MASS MEDIA

me-di-an /'mɪdiən/ n. 1 [C] something that divides a road or HIGHWAY, such as a thin piece of land 2 [singular] MATH the middle number in a set of numbers that are arranged in order of size → MEAN, MODE: The median of 3, 9, 11, 13, and 14 is 11. 3 [C usually singular] also median of a triangle MATH a line passing from one of the points of a TRIANGLE to the middle of the opposite side me-di-ate /'mɪdi,eɪt/ [AC] v. [I,T] to try to help two groups, countries, etc. to stop arguing and make an agreement: The court had to mediate between Hassel and his neighbors. | He will be mediating talks between the two sides. —mediation /ˌmɪdi'eɪʃən/ n. [U] me-di-a-tor /'mɪdi,eɪtə/ n. [C] someone who helps people, groups, countries, etc. to end an argument and reach an agreement

Med-i-caid /'medɪˌkeɪd/ n. [U] a system by which the government helps to pay the cost of medical treatment for poor people

med-i-cal /'medɪkəl/ [AC] adj. relating to medicine and the treatment of disease or injury: medical school | The clinic provides free medical care. | new types of medical treatment | the medical profession (=doctors, nurses, etc.) | More funding is needed for medical research. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French médical, from Late Latin medicālis, from Latin medicus “doctor”] —medically adv.

'medical school n. [C,U] a part of a university, where people study to become doctors

Med-i-care /'medɪˌkeər/ n. [U] a system by which the government helps to pay for the medical treatment of old people

M

M

med-i-cat-ed /ˈmɛdɪˌkeɪtɪd/ adj. containing medicine: medicated shampoo

med-i-ca-tion /ˌmɛdɪˈkeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] medicine given to people who are sick: Are you taking any medication? | He's on medication for his heart.

THESAURUS medicine, pill, tablet, capsule, eye/ear drops, drug, dosage, prescription → MEDICINE me-dic-i-nal /məˈdɪsənəl/ adj. helping to cure illness or disease: The herbs are used for medicinal purposes.

med-i-cine /ˈmɛdəsən/ n. 1 [C,U] a substance used for treating illness: Remember to take your medicine. | Medicines should be kept away from children.

THESAURUS

pill/tablet/capsule – a small hard piece of medicine that you swallow eye/ear drops – liquid medicine that you put into your eye or ear drug – a medicine or a substance for making medicines: a new drug in the treatment of breast cancer medication – medicine given to people who are sick: He's on medication for his heart.
dosage – the amount of medicine that you should take: The usual dosage is 25 to 50 mg.
prescription – a type of medicine that a doctor says you should take, or the piece of paper on which a doctor writes this down: I need to pick up my prescription at the pharmacy.

2 [U] the treatment and study of illnesses and injuries: She plans to study medicine at Harvard.

me-di-e-val /mɪˈdɪvəl, mɛ-, mi-/ adj. relating to the MIDDLE AGES: medieval poetry [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Modern Latin medium aevum “middle age”] me-di-o-cre /ˌmɪdɪˈoʊkɹə/ adj. not very good, but not extremely bad: a mediocre student [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French, Latin mediocris “halfway up a mountain”] —mediocrity /ˌmɪdɪˈoʊkrəti/ n. [U] med-i-tate /ˈmɛdəˌteɪt/ v. [I] to make yourself very calm by relaxing completely, and thinking only about one thing such as a sound or a religious idea —meditation /ˌmɛdəˈteɪʃən/ n. [U] med-i-ta-tive /ˈmɛdəˌteɪtɪv/ adj. thinking deeply and seriously about something, or showing that you are doing this: He was in a meditative mood.

Med-i-ter-ra-ne-an /ˌmɛdɪtəˈreɪniən/ n. the Mediterranean EARTH SCIENCES the areas of land surrounding the Mediterranean Sea (=sea between northern Africa and southern Europe), and the islands in it —Mediterranean adj.

me-di-um¹ /ˈmɪdiəm/ (Ac) adj. of middle size or amount: “What size do you wear?” “Medium.” | Cook the soup over medium heat for 30 minutes. | a man of medium height | The study focused on medium-sized cities.

medium² (Ac) n. [C] 1 (plural media /ˈmiːdiə/) a way of communicating or expressing something: The Internet is a powerful advertising medium. | In the modern age, television is the primary medium of communication. 2 (plural media) the material, paints, etc. that an artist uses: This sculptor's favorite medium is wood. 3 (plural mediums) someone who claims to speak to dead people and receive messages from them

'medium-sized also 'medium-size adj. not small, but not large either: medium-sized apples | a medium-size city

med-ley /ˈmɛdli/ n. (plural medleys) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS tunes from different songs that are played one after the other as a single piece of music: a medley of folk songs

med school /ˈmɛd skul/ n. [C,U] (informal) a MEDICAL SCHOOL me-dul-la ob-lon-ga-ta /məˌdʌlə ɒblŋŋˈɡɑːtə/ n. [singular] BIOLOGY the lowest part of your brain, where it connects with your SPINAL CORD. The medulla oblongata controls your breathing and the flow of blood to and from your heart. → see picture at BRAIN¹ meek /mɪk/ adj. very quiet and gentle, and not willing to argue —meekly adv. —meekness n. [U] meet¹ /mit/ v. (past tense and past participle met /met/)

1 SEE SB FOR THE FIRST TIME [I,T] to see and talk to someone for the first time, or to be introduced to someone: Mike and Sara met in college. | When did we first meet? | I saw Jim's wife once, but I never met her.

2 BE IN THE SAME PLACE [I,T] to come to the same place as someone else because you have arranged to find him/her there: Let's meet for lunch tomorrow. | I could meet you at the coffee shop at 11.

THESAURUS

get together – to meet with someone or with a group of people: Why don't we all get together and go out for a drink?

gather – if people gather somewhere, or if someone gathers them, they come together in the same place: Fans have started to gather outside the stadium.

assemble – if you assemble people, or if people assemble, they are brought together in the same place: The members of the tour group assembled at the airport before departure.

come together – if people come together, they meet in order to discuss things, exchange ideas, etc.: People came together from miles away to attend his funeral.

congregate – to come together in a group: A group of protesters had congregated outside.

convene (formal) – to come together for a formal meeting, or to ask people to do this: The committee will convene again in two weeks time.

3 nice/good/pleased to meet you (spoken) said when you meet someone for the first time: "Paul, this is Jack." "Nice to meet you."

4 (it was) nice meeting you (spoken) used when saying goodbye to someone you have just met for the first time

5 MEETING [I] to be together in the same place in order to discuss something: The committee met to discuss goals for the coming year.

6 meet a need/demand etc. to have or do enough of what is needed, or be good enough to reach a particular standard: We're trying to find a way to meet the needs of all students.

7 SB ARRIVING [T] to be at an airport, station, etc. when someone arrives: I'm going to meet John's plane. | Alice will meet us at the station.

8 JOIN [I,T] to join together at a particular place: the place where two roads meet

9 meet (sb) halfway to do some of the things that someone wants, if s/he does some of the things you want [ORIGIN: Old English metan] meet up phr. v.

to meet someone informally in order to do something together: Let's meet up after the game. | We met up with Jan outside the museum.

meet with sb/sth phr. v.

1 to have a meeting with someone: The President met with European leaders today in Paris.

2 to get a particular reaction or result: His proposal met with opposition/approval.

meet² n. [C] a sports competition: a swim/track meet meet-ing /'mi:tɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 an organized gathering of people for the purpose of discussing something: We have a meeting at two. | a meeting of world business leaders | a meeting with my boss | John has been in a meeting all morning. 2 a meeting of the minds a situation in which people agree about something

'meeting house n. [C] a building where Quakers go to WORSHIP

meg-a /'megə/ adj., adv. (informal) very big, impressive, and enjoyable: Their first record was a mega hit.

meg-a-byte /'megə,bart/ n. [C] IT a unit for measuring computer information equal to a million BYTES meg-a-lo-ma-ni-a /,megə'lou'meɪniə/ n. [U] the belief that you are extremely important and powerful —megalomaniac /,megə'lou'meɪni,æk/ adj., n. [C] meg-a-phone /'megə,fəʊn/ n. [C] a thing like a large CONE, that you talk through when speaking to a crowd in order to make your voice sound louder meg-a-ton /'megə,tʌn/ n. [C] a measure of the power of an explosive, that is equal to that of a million TONS of TNT (=a powerful explosive) mei-o-sis /maɪ'əʊsɪs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the process by which a cell divides to become two cells, each new cell having only half the number of CHROMOSOMES of the original cell → MITOSIS: During meiosis, the paired genes separate to form sperm or eggs.

mel-an-chol-y¹ /'melən,kəli/ adj. sad, or making you feel sad: a melancholy look

THESAURUS sad, unhappy, miserable, sorrowful, depressed, down, low, blue, downhearted, morose, gloomy, glum → SAD

melancholy² n. [U] (literary) a feeling of sadness mel-a-nin /'melənɪn/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a natural substance in human skin, hair, and eyes that gives them a dark color meld /meld/ v. [I,T] to mix or combine two or more different things together mel-low¹ /'meləʊ/ adj. 1 pleasant and smooth in sound or taste: mellow jazz | a mellow wine 2 friendly, relaxed, and calm: Tim's more mellow now that he's older.

THESAURUS calm, relaxed, laid-back, easygoing, cool, placid, serene → CALM² mellow² also mellow out v. [I,T] to become more relaxed and calm, or to make someone do this: She's mellowed over the years.

me-lod-ic /mə'lɒdɪk/ adj. 1 having a pleasant tune or a pleasant sound like music: a sweet melodic voice 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to the main tune in a piece of music: the melodic structure of Beethoven's symphonies me-lo-di-ous /mə'ləʊdiəs/ adj. (literary) having a pleasant tune or a pleasant sound like music: a melodious voice mel-o-dra-ma /'melə,dramə/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a story or play with many exciting events in which people's emotions are shown very strongly mel-o-dra-mat-ic /,melədrə'mætɪk/ adj. (disapproving) having or showing emotions that are strong and unreasonable: Stop being melodramatic!

mel-o-dy /'melədi/ n. (plural melodies) [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a song or tune [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French melodie, from Late Latin, from Greek meloidia "music"] mel-on /'melən/ n. [C,U] one of several types of large sweet juicy fruits with hard skins and flat seeds

melt /melt/ v. 1 [I,T] to change something from solid to liquid by heating → FREEZE, THAW: The snow's melting. | Melt the butter, and add the chopped onion. → see picture on page 632 2 [I] to suddenly feel love or sympathy: My heart melted when I saw her crying. 3 melt in your mouth if food melts in your mouth, it is smooth and tastes good [ORIGIN: Old English meltan] melt away phr. v. to disappear quickly and easily: He began to exercise regularly, and the weight melted away.

M

M

melt-down /ˈmɛltˈdaʊn/ n. [C,U] a very dangerous situation in which the material in a NUCLEAR REACTOR melts and burns through its container, allowing RADIOACTIVITY to escape

'melting pot n. [C] a place where people from different races, countries, or social classes come and live together: People always refer to America as a melting pot.

mem-ber /ˈmɛmbə/ n. [C] 1 someone who has joined a particular club, group, or organization: Are you a member of the French club? | Ben treats his dog like a member of the family. | Frank has been a staff member for 20 years. 2 one of a group of similar people or things: Cats and tigers are members of the same species. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French membre, from Latin membrum]

mem-ber-ship /ˈmɛmbəʃɪp/ n. 1 [C,U] the state of being a member of a club, group, organization, or system: Many countries have applied for membership in NATO. | I just renewed my gym membership. | The membership fee (=money that you pay to become a member) is $25. 2 [singular] all the members of a club, group, or organization: The membership will vote for a chairman tonight.

mem-brane /ˈmɛmbreɪn/ n. [C,U] BIOLOGY a very thin substance similar to skin, that covers or connects parts of the body: The cell membranes had been damaged. | the membrane that covers the spinal cord | the nuclear membrane (=a layer covering the nucleus of a living cell) → see picture at CELL me-men-to /məˈmentəʊ/ n. (plural mementos) [C] a small object that you keep to remind you of someone or something: I kept the picture as a memento of my college days.

mem-o /ˈmɛməʊ/ n. (plural memos) [C] a short official note to another person in the same company: a memo to employees | I'll send you a memo when we set a date for the meeting.

mem-oirs /ˈmɛmwɔːz/ n. [plural] a book written by a famous person about his/her life and experiences mem-o-ra-bil-i-a /ˌmɛməərəˈbɪliə, -ˈbɪl-/ n. [plural] things that you keep or collect because they relate to a famous person, event, or time: sports memorabilia mem-ora-ble /ˈmɛmrəbəl/ adj. worth remembering: a memorable evening —memorably adv.

mem-o-ran-dum /ˌmɛməˈrændəm/ n. (plural memoranda /-ˈrændə/ or memorandums) [C] (formal) a MEMO me-mo-ri-al /məˈmɔːriəl/ adj. [only before noun] made or done in order to remind people of someone who has died: a memorial service for my grandfather

memorial² n. [C] a public structure with writing on it that reminds people of someone who has died: the Lincoln memorial | The wall was built as a memorial to soldiers who died in Vietnam.

Me'morial Day n. a U.S. national holiday on the last Monday in May, when people remember soldiers who were killed in wars mem-o-rize /ˈmɛməˌraɪz/ v. [T] to learn and remember words, music, or other information: You all should have your lines memorized by Friday.

mem-o-ry /ˈmɛmri, -məri/ n. (plural memories) 1 [C,U] the ability to remember things, places, experiences, etc.: My memory isn't as good as it used to be. | Could you draw the map from memory (=from what you remember, without any other help)? 2 [C usually plural] something that you remember from the past about a person, place, or experience → SOUVENIR: John talked about his memories of the war. | I have such fond/happy memories of my grandmother. | That song really brings back memories (=makes me remember something). 3 [U] IT the amount of space that can be used for storing information on a computer: 256 megabytes of memory 4 [C,U] IT the part of a computer in which information can be stored 5 in memory of sb for the purpose of remembering someone who has died: We observed a moment of silence in memory of the bombing victims. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French memorie, from Latin memor “remembering”] memory card n. [C] IT a small piece of electronic equipment inside a DIGITAL camera, a CELL PHONE, or a small computer that you carry with you, used for storing photographs or information

'Memory Stick n. [C] (trademark) IT a small piece of equipment for storing information, that connects into a computer using a USB PORT. A Memory Stick can be removed and carried easily, and will fit into other computers. → see picture on page A6 men /mɛn/ n. the plural of MAN men-ace¹ /ˈmɛnɪs/ n. 1 [C] something or someone that is dangerous or extremely annoying: That man is a menace to society! 2 [U] a threatening quality or manner: There was real menace in her voice. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French, Latin minacia, from minari “to threaten”] menace² v. [T] (formal) to threaten someone or something with danger or harm men-ac-ing /ˈmɛnɪsɪŋ/ adj. making you expect something dangerous or bad (SYN) threatening: a menacing laugh

me-nag-er-ie /mə'nædʒəri, -ʒə-/ n. [C] (literary) a collection of animals kept privately or for people to see mend¹ /mend/ v. 1 [T] to repair a tear or hole in a piece of clothing: You'd better mend that shirt.

THESAURUS repair, fix → REPAIR²

2 mend your ways to improve the way you behave after behaving badly for a long time mend² n. be on the mend to be getting better after an illness men-da-cious /mə'ndeɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) not truthful: The evidence was planted by mendacious police. —mendaciously adv.

men-di-cant or-der /ˌmendɪkənt 'ɔrdə/ n. [C] a society of MONKS or NUNS (=men or women who live a holy life according to religious rules) who completely depend on the money or gifts that people give to them in order to live —mendicant adj.: mendicant monks me-ni-al /ˌminiəl, -nyəl/ adj. (disapproving) menial work is boring and needs no skill me-nin-ges /mə'nɪndʒɪz/ n. [plural] BIOLOGY MEMBRANES (=substance like very thin skin) that completely cover and protect the brain and the SPINAL CORD men-o-pause /ˌmɛnəˌpɔz/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the time when a woman stops menstruating me-no-rah /mə'nɔrə/ n. [C] a special CANDLESTICK that holds seven CANDLES, used in Jewish ceremonies

'men's room n. [C] a room in a public place with toilets for men

THESAURUS toilet, bathroom, restroom, women's/ladies' room, lavatory → TOILET men-stru-ate /ˌmenstruˌeɪt, -streɪt/ v. [I] BIOLOGY when a woman menstruates every month, blood flows from her body → PERIOD —menstrual adj. —menstruation /ˌmenstruˌeɪʃən, mə'nstreɪʃən/ n. [U]

men-tal /ˈmentəl/ (Ac) adj. [only before noun] relating to the mind, or happening in the mind: He has a history of severe mental problems. | Mental illness often runs in families. | The doctors were worried about her mental health. | I'm a little concerned about Jeremy's mental state. | I made a mental note (=made an effort to remember) to call Julie. | He conducted important research into the mental development of children. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French, Late Latin mentalis, from Latin mens "mind"] —mentally adv.: She is obviously mentally ill.

'mental insti,tution n. [C] a hospital for people who are mentally ill men-tal-i-ty /mə'nɪtəli/ (Ac) n. (plural mentalities) [C,U] a particular type of attitude or way of thinking: The crowd was gripped by a mob mentality. | The study investigates the mentality of people who commit violent crimes.

men-thol /ˈmenθəl, -θəl/ n. [U] a substance that smells and tastes like MINT, used in medicine, candy, and cigarettes men-tion¹ /ˈmenʃən/ v. [T] 1 to say or write about something in a few words: I mentioned the idea to Joan, and she seemed to like it. | Helen mentioned (that) she had been feeling depressed.

THESAURUS

refer to sth — to mention or speak about someone or something: Palmer was referring to an article in the Times.

note (formal) — to mention something because it is important or interesting: His lawyer noted that Miller had no previous criminal record.

raise — to begin to talk or write about something that you want someone to consider: Becky raised the question of whether the students would learn better in smaller groups.

allude to sth (formal) — to mention something in a way that is not direct: Many stories and poems allude to this myth.

bring sth up — to start to talk about a particular subject or person: He waited until she was calmer to bring up the subject again.

cite — to mention something as an example or proof of something else: Collins cited the document as evidence that something had gone wrong.

THESAURUS

say, add, state, utter, express

→ SAY¹

2 don't mention it (spoken) used in order to say in a friendly way that there is no need for someone to thank you: "Thanks for helping me out." "Don't mention it." 3 not to mention sth said when you are adding a piece of information that emphasizes what you have been saying: He already has two houses and two cars, not to mention the boat.

mention² n. [C,U] the act of mentioning someone or something in a conversation or piece of writing: Any mention of the accident upsets her. | The report made no mention of any financial difficulties.

men-tor /ˈmentər, -tər/ n. [C] an experienced person who advises and helps a less experienced person [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Mentor, adviser of Odysseus's son Telemachus in the ancient Greek Odyssey by Homer] men-tor-ing /ˈmentərɪŋ/ n. [U] a system of using people who have a lot of experience and knowledge to advise other people

men-u /ˈmenyu/ n. [C] 1 a list of all the kinds of food that are available in a restaurant: Can we see a menu, please? | the most popular dish on the menu → RESTAURANT 2 it a list of things on a computer screen which you can ask the computer to do: Go to the Edit menu and select Copy. | a pull-down menu (=a list of choices which appears when you CLICK on a place on the screen)

M

M

me·ow /mi'au/ n. [C] the crying sound that a cat makes —meow v. [I] mer·can·til·ism /'mækəntil,ɪzəm/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the idea that trade produces wealth, EXPORTS (=goods sold to other countries) should be encouraged, and IMPORTS (=goods bought from other countries) should be restricted mer·ce·nar·y¹ /'məsə,nəri/ n. (plural mercenaries) [C] someone who fights for any country that pays him/her mercenary² adj. (disapproving) only interested in making money, and not caring about whether your actions are right or wrong mer·chan·dise /'mɜ:tʃən,daɪz, -,daɪs/ n. [U] ECONOMICS things that are for sale in stores: Several thousand dollars' worth of merchandise was stolen.

mer·chant /'mɜ:tʃənt/ n. [C] ECONOMICS someone who buys and sells large quantities of goods: a wine merchant

mer·chant ma·rine n. the merchant marine all of a country's ships that are used for trade, not war, and the people who work on these ships mer·ci·ful /'mɜ:sɪfəl/ adj. kind to people, rather than being cruel mer·ci·ful·ly /'mɜ:sɪfli/ adv. fortunately, because a situation could have been much worse: At least her death was mercifully quick.

mer·cu·ri·al /mɜ:'kyʊəriəl/ adj. (literary) changing mood suddenly: It would be difficult working for his mercurial brother-in-law.

Mer·cu·ry /'mɜ:kyəri/ n. PHYSICS the smallest PLANET, which is nearest the Sun → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM

mercury n. [U] CHEMISTRY a liquid silver-white metal that is used in THERMOMETERS

mer·cy /'mɜ:si/ n. 1 [U] kindness, pity, and a willingness to forgive: The boy was begging/pleading for mercy. | The judge showed him no mercy. 2 at the mercy of sb/sth in a situation that is controlled by someone or something that has the power to hurt you: We were at the mercy of the storm. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French merci, from Latin merces “price paid, payment for work”]

'mercy ,killing n. [C,U] EUTHANASIA

mere /mɪr/ adj. [only before noun] 1 used in order to emphasize how small or unimportant someone or something is: A mere 10% of the population voted in the last election. 2 used in order to say that something small or unimportant has a big effect: The mere thought of food made her feel sick.

mere·ly /'mɪrli/ adv. (formal) used in order to emphasize that an action, person, or thing is very small, simple, or unimportant, especially when compared to what it could be (SYN) only, just: For Ken, a job is merely a way to make money. | His behavior was not merely foolish but dangerous.

merge /mɜ:dʒ/ v. 1 [I,T] to combine or join together to form one thing: The two unions merged to form a larger one. | Her company merged with another. 2 [I] if traffic merges, the cars from two roads come together onto the same road merge into sth phr. v. to seem to disappear into something and become part of it: a point where the mountains merged into the sky merg·er /'mɜ:dʒə/ n. [C] ECONOMICS the act of joining together two or more companies or organizations to form one larger one me·rid·i·an /mɜ:'rɪdiən/ n. [C] a line drawn from the North Pole to the South Pole to show the positions of places on a map me·ringue /mɜ'ræŋ/ n. [C,U] a light sweet food made by baking a mixture of sugar and the white parts of eggs: lemon meringue pie

mer·it¹ /'mɜ:ɪt/ n. 1 [C usually plural] one of the good qualities or features of something or someone: Living downtown has its merits.

THE SAURUS advantage, benefit, good point → ADVANTAGE

2 [U] (formal) a good quality that makes something deserve praise or admiration: a book of great merit | Each student will be judged on merit.

merit² v. [T] (formal) to deserve something: The idea merits serious consideration.

mer·i·to·ri·ous /,mɜ:'tɔ:riəs/ adj. (formal) very good and deserving praise: a medal for meritorious service —meritoriously adv.

mer·maid /'mɜ:meɪd/ n. [C] a woman in stories who has a fish's tail instead of legs mer·ry /'mɜ:ri/ adj. (comparative merrier, superlative merriest) 1 Merry Christmas! used to say that you hope someone will have a happy time at Christmas 2 cheerful and happy

'merry-go-round n. [C] a large round thing that children ride on for fun, which turns around and around mesh¹ /mɛʃ/ n. [U] a piece of material made of threads or wires that have been woven together like a net: a wire mesh screen

mesh² v. [I] 1 if two or more ideas, qualities, people, etc. mesh, they go well together: He wants a job that will mesh with his skills and interests. 2 if two parts of an engine or machine mesh, they fit closely together mes·mer·ize /'mɛzmə,raɪz/ v. [T] to make someone become completely interested in something: The kids sat mesmerized in front of the TV. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Franz Mesmer (1734–1815), Austrian doctor who developed hypnotism] —mesmerizing adj.

mes·o·sphere /'mɛzə,sfɪr/ n. the mesosphere EARTH SCIENCES the outer layer of the Earth's lower ATMOSPHERE, from about 30 to 50 miles above the Earth → see picture at ATMOSPHERE

Mes·o·zo·ic /,mɛzə'zəʊɪk/ n. the Mesozoic EARTH SCIENCES the period of time in the Earth's history, from about 250 million until about 65 million years ago, when DINOSAURS, birds, and plants with flowers first started to exist

—Mesozoic adj.: the Mesozoic period → CENOZOIC, PALEOZOIC, PRECAMBRIAN

mess¹ /mes/ n. 1 [singular, U] a place or a group of things that is not organized or arranged neatly: This house is a mess! | I'll help you clean up the mess. | The kids made a mess in their room again. 2 [singular] (informal) a situation in which there are a lot of problems and difficulties, especially as a result of mistakes or people not being careful: My life is such a mess. | How did we ever get into this mess? 3 [singular] (informal) someone who has a lot of emotional problems: Nell was a complete mess after the divorce.

mess² v.

mess around phr. v. (informal) 1 to play or do silly things when you should be working or paying attention: Stop messing around and do your homework. 2 to have a sexual relationship with someone, especially when you should not: Joe found his wife messing around with another man.

mess up phr. v. (informal) 1 mess sth ↔ up to spoil or ruin something: I hope I haven't messed up your plans. 2 mess sth ↔ up to make something dirty or messy: Stop it! You'll mess up my hair! 3 mess (sth ↔) up to make a mistake or do something badly: "How did you do on the test?" "Oh, I really messed up." → MESSED UP mess with phr. v. (informal) 1 mess with sth to use something, or make small changes to it: Who's been messing with my computer? 2 mess with sb to make someone angry, or argue with him/her: I wouldn't mess with Nick if I were you.

mes-sage /'mesɪdʒ/ n. 1 [C] written or spoken information that you leave for someone, especially when you cannot speak to him/her directly: Did you get my message? | Hugh left a message saying he would be late. | Sorry, Tony's not home yet. Can I take a message? (=used during phone calls) | There's a message from your mother on the answering machine.

COLLOCATIONS

telephone/phone message email/mail message
 fax message
 text message – a written message on a cell phone error message – a message on a computer screen, saying that the computer cannot do what you want it to do message of thanks/congratulations/support/sympathy

2 [singular] the main idea or the most important idea in a movie, book, speech, etc.: The message was clear: global warming will eventually affect us all. | *an effective way of getting your message across 3 get the message (informal) to understand what someone means or what s/he wants you to do: OK, I get the message – I'm going. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Medieval Latin missaticum, from Latin mittere “to send”]

‘messed ‘up adj. (informal) if someone is messed up, s/he has a lot of emotional problems

mes-sen-ger /'mesəndʒə/ n. [C] someone who takes packages or messages to other people

‘messenger RN'A n. [U] BIOLOGY (written abbreviation mRNA) a form of RNA that copies GENETIC information from DNA and carries it to RIBOSOMES

‘mess hall n. [C] a large room where soldiers eat

mes-si-ah /mə'saɪə/ n. the Messiah Jesus Christ in the Christian religion, or the leader sent by God to save the world in the Jewish religion

Messrs. /'mesəz/ n. (formal) the written plural of Mr.

mess-y /'mesi/ adj. (comparative messier, superlative messiest) 1 dirty, or not arranged in an organized way: a messy desk 2 a messy situation is complicated and difficult to deal with, especially because it involves people's emotions: a messy divorce met /met/ v. the past tense and past participle of MEET me-tab-o-lism /mə'tæbə,lɪzəm/ n. [C,U] BIOL-OGY the chemical processes in your body that change food into the energy you need for working and growing —metabolic /,metə'balɪk/ adj.

met-al /'metl/ n. [C,U] a hard, usually shiny substance such as iron, gold, or steel: a metal pipe | scrap metal [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin metallum “mine, metal,” from Greek metallon]

‘metal de,tector n. [C] a machine used for finding metal, especially one used at airports for finding weapons me-tal-lic /mə'tælɪk/ adj. made of metal, or similar to metal in color, appearance, or taste: a car painted metallic blue met-al-lur-gy /'metl,ədʒi/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the scientific study of metals and their uses —metallurgical /,metl'ədʒɪkəl/ adj.

met-a-mor-phic /,metə'mɔrfɪk/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES metamorphic rock and other material is formed by the continuous effects of pressure, heat, or water: This metamorphic rock has been compressed for millions of years.

met-a-mor-phism /,metə'mɔrfɪzəm/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES changes in the structure of rock, caused by the continuous effects of pressure, heat, or water: If the pressure and temperatures are high enough, the rocks can undergo metamorphism.

met-a-mor-pho-sis /,metə'mɔrfəʊsɪs/ n. (plural metamorphoses /-sɪz/) [C,U] 1 the process in which something changes in a very noticeable way: She underwent a metamorphosis to become the school's best tennis player. 2 BIOLOGY the process in which a young insect, FROG, etc. changes as it moves on to the next stage in its development: a caterpillar's metamorphosis into a butterfly met-a-phor /'metə,fɔr/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a way of describing something by comparing it to something else that has similar qualities, without using the words “like” or “as.” For example, the phrase “a river of tears” is a metaphor. → SIMILE —metaphorical /ˌmɛtəˈfɔːrɪkəl/ adj.

M

M

—metaphorically adv.

met-a-phys-i-cal /ˌmɛtəˈfɪzɪkəl/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to a study of PHILOSOPHY that is concerned with trying to understand and describe what REALITY is —metaphysics n. [U]
—metaphysically adv.

mete /mit/ v.

mete sth ↔ out phr. v. (formal) to give someone a punishment me-te-or /ˈmiːtjə/ n. [C] PHYSICS a small piece of rock or metal that produces a bright burning line in the sky when it falls from space into the Earth's ATMOSPHERE → SPACE¹ me-te-or-ic /ˌmiːtjəˈrɪk, -ˈar-/ adj. happening very suddenly and usually continuing for only a short time: his meteoric rise to fame me-te-or-ite /ˈmiːtjəˌraɪt/ n. [C] PHYSICS a small meteor that has landed on the Earth's surface me-te-o-roid /ˈmiːtjəˌrɔɪd/ n. [C] PHYSICS a piece of rock or similar material in space. When a meteoroid enters the Earth's ATMOSPHERE (=air surrounding the Earth), it becomes a meteor, and if it reaches the surface of the Earth, it is called a meteorite.

me-te-or-ol-o-gy /ˌmiːtjəˈrɒlədʒi/ n. [U] the scientific study of weather [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French météorologie, from Greek, from meteoron “something in the sky,” from meteoros “high in air”] —meteorologist n. [C]

meter /ˈmiːtə/ n. 1 [C] (written abbreviation m) a unit for measuring length, equal to 100 centimeters or 39.37 inches 2 [C] a piece of equipment that measures the amount of gas, electricity, time, etc. you have used: Someone from the gas company came to look at the meter. | The cab driver waited with the meter running. → PARKING METER 3 [C,U] the way that the words of a poem are arranged into a pattern of weak and strong beats [ORIGIN: (1) 1800—1900 French mètre, from Greek metron “measure”]

'meter maid n. [C] (old-fashioned) a woman whose job is to check that cars are not parked illegally meth-a-done /ˈmɛθəˌdoʊn/ n. [U] a drug that is often given to people who are trying to stop taking HEROIN meth-ane /ˈmɛθeɪn/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a gas with no color or smell, which can be burned to give heat

meth-od /ˈmɛθəd/ (Ac) n. [C] a planned way of doing something: I think we should try again using a different method. | an effective method of birth control | traditional teaching methods [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin methodus, from Greek methodos, from meta- “after” + hodos “way”] way – a method of doing something: Staying in a country is a great way to learn the language.

THESAURUS

technique – a particular way of doing something by using a special skill that you have learned: The book teaches you some simple techniques which you can use to help you do well on the SATs.

strategy – a carefully designed plan for achieving something that is difficult and may take a long time: a meeting to discuss the company's business strategy procedure – the correct or official way of doing something, especially something that has several stages: What is the procedure for getting a new passport?

approach – a way of doing something or dealing with a problem: We need a new approach to the problem of street crime.

→ SCIENTIFIC METHOD

meth-od-i-cal /məˈθɒdɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. done in a careful and well organized way, or always doing things this way: They made a methodical search of the building. | He is very methodical in his research.
—methodically adv.

THESAURUS careful, thorough, meticulous, systematic, painstaking, scrupulous, conscientious → CAREFUL

Meth-od-ist /ˈmɛθədɪst/ adj. relating to the Protestant church that follows the ideas of John Wesley —Methodist n. [C]

meth-od-ol-o-gy /məθəˈdɒlədʒi/ (Ac) n. (plural methodologies) [C,U] a set of methods and principles used when studying a particular subject or doing a particular type of work: More recently, studies have attempted to refine their research methodologies.
—methodological /ˌmɛθədəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj.

me-tic-u-lous /məˈtɪkyləs/ adj. (approving) very careful about details, and always trying to do things correctly: She kept meticulous records.
—meticulously adv.

THESAURUS careful, methodical, thorough, systematic, painstaking, scrupulous, conscientious → CAREFUL met-ric /ˈmɛtrɪk/ adj. MATH using the metric system, or relating to it: All the tools are in metric sizes.

'metric system n. the metric system MATH the system of weights and measures based on the meter, the liter, and the gram met-ro /ˈmɛtroʊ/ adj. [only before noun] relating to or belonging to a very large city: the metro area | Metro Detroit me-trop-o-lis /məˈtrɒpəlɪs/ n. [C] a very large city, or the most important city of a country or area [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Late Latin, Greek, from meter “mother” + polis “city”] —metropolitan

/ˌmetrəˈpəlɪtən/ adj.: the New York metropolitan area met-tle /ˈmɛtl/ n. [U] (literary) courage and determination (SYN) valor: an outstanding soldier who proved his mettle in battle many times

Mex-i-can¹ /ˈmɛksɪkən/ adj. relating to or coming from Mexico

Mexican² n. [C] someone from Mexico

mez·za·nine /ˈmɛzəˌnɪn, ˌmɛzəˈnɪn/ n. [C] the floor or BALCONY just above the main floor in a theater, hotel, store, etc.

mg the written abbreviation of MILLIGRAM

MI the written abbreviation of MICHIGAN mi-ca /ˈmaɪkə/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a mineral that separates easily into small flat transparent pieces of rock, often used to make electrical instruments mice /maɪs/ n. the plural of MOUSE mi-crobe /ˈmaɪkrəʊb/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an extremely small living creature that cannot be seen without a MICROSCOPE [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 micro- + Greek bios “life”] mi-cro-bi-ol-o-gy /ˌmaɪkrəʊbərɪˈɒlədʒi/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the scientific study of very small living things —microbiologist n. [C] mi-cro-brew-er-y /ˈmaɪkrəʊˌbrʊəri/ n. (plural microbreweries) [C] a small company that makes beer to sell, and often has a restaurant where its beer is served mi-cro-chip /ˈmaɪkrəʊˌtʃɪp/ n. [C] IT a computer CHIP mi-cro-cli-mate /ˈmaɪkrəʊˌklaɪmɪt/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES the general weather patterns in a small area, which are different from the weather patterns in the surrounding area mi-cro-cosm /ˈmaɪkrəˌkɒzəm/ n. [C,U] a small group, society, etc. that has the same qualities as a much larger one → MACROCOSM: San José's mix of people is a microcosm of America.

mi-cro-fiche /ˈmaɪkrəʊˌfɪʃ/ n. [C,U] a sheet of microfilm that can be read using a special machine, especially in a library mi-cro-film /ˈmaɪkrəˌfɪlm/ n. [C,U] film used for making very small photographs of important documents, newspapers, maps, etc.

mi-cro-or-ga-nism /ˌmaɪkrəʊˌɔrgənɪzəm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an extremely small living creature that cannot be seen without a microscope mi-cro-phone /ˈmaɪkrəˌfoʊn/ n. [C] a piece of electrical equipment that makes your voice sound louder when you hold it in front of your mouth while you are singing, giving a speech, etc.: Please speak clearly into the microphone.

mi-cro-proc-es-sor /ˌmaɪkrəʊˈprəʊsɪsə/ n. [C] IT the main CHIP in a computer that controls most of its operations mi-cro-scope /ˈmaɪkrəˌskoʊp/ n. [C] a scientific instrument that makes extremely small things appear large enough to be seen: We looked at the insects under a microscope.

M

mi-cro-scop-ic /ˌmaɪkrəˌskɒpɪk/ adj. extremely small: microscopic organisms mi-cro-wave¹ /ˈmaɪkrəˌweɪv/ n. [C] 1 also microwave oven a type of OVEN that cooks food very quickly by using electric waves instead of heat 2 PHYSICS a very short electric wave used especially for cooking food, sending radio messages, and in RADAR microwave² v. [T] to cook something in a microwave mid-air /ˈmɪdˈɛər/ n. in midair in the air or sky: The plane exploded in midair. —midair adj. [only before noun]: a midair collision

mid-day /ˈmɪdˌdeɪ/ n. [U] the middle of the day, around 12:00 p.m. (SYN) noon → MIDNIGHT

mid-dle¹ /ˈmɪdl/ n. 1 the middle the part that is nearest the center of something, and furthest from the sides, edges, top, bottom, etc. (SYN) center: Tom's the guy in the middle. | Hannah's toys were in the middle of the floor. | Why's your car parked right in the middle of the road? 2 the middle the part that is between the beginning and the end of a period of time or an event, story, etc.: I fell asleep in the middle of class. 3 be in the middle of (doing) something to be busy doing something: Can I call you back later? I'm right in the middle of cooking dinner. [ORIGIN: Old English middel]

middle² adj. [only before noun] 1 nearest to the center of something: The socks are in the middle drawer. | The middle lane was blocked off because of an accident. 2 half way through an event, action, or period of time, or between the beginning and the end: I missed the middle act of the play. 3 middle child/daughter/brother etc. the child, daughter, brother, etc. who is between the oldest and the youngest middle-aged adj. belonging or relating to the period of your life when you are about 45 to 65 years old: a middle-aged woman —middle age n. [U]

M

Middle Ages n. the Middle Ages HISTORY the period in European history between the 5th and 15th centuries A.D.

Middle America n. 1 the MIDWEST 2 SOCIAL SCIENCE average Americans who have traditional ideas and beliefs middle class n. the middle class also the middle classes a) SOCIAL SCIENCE the group of people in society who are neither rich nor poor, especially people who are educated and work in professional jobs → LOWER CLASS, UPPER CLASS, WORKING CLASS b) HISTORY in the past, the social class in Europe between NOBLES (=rich royal people who owned land) and PEASANTS (=poor farmers), which included people who made or bought and sold things —middle-class adj.: middle-class families middle ear n. [singular] BIOLOGY the central part of the ear, between the EARDRUM and the COCHLEA. The middle ear contains parts that make the movement of the sound waves stronger.

Middle East n. the Middle East the part of Asia that is between the Mediterranean Sea and the Arabian Sea, including countries such as Turkey and Iran → FAR EAST —Middle Eastern adj.

middle finger n. [C] the longest finger in the middle of the five fingers on your hand → see picture at HAND¹ middle-man n. [plural middlemen /-,men/) [C] someone who buys things in order to sell them to someone else, or who helps to arrange business deals for other people middle name n. [C] the name that, in English, comes between your first name and your family name

THESAURUS name, first name/given name, last name/family name/surname, full name, maiden name → NAME¹ middle-of-the-road adj. middle-of-the-road ideas, opinions, etc. are not extreme, so many people agree with them middle school n. [C] a school in the U.S. for students between the ages of 11 and 14 mid-et n. [C] (offensive) a person who is very small because his/her body has not grown correctly mid-life crisis n. [C] usually singular the worry and lack of confidence that some people feel when they are about 40 or 50 years old mid-night n. [U] 12 o'clock at night

→ NOON, MIDDAY: We arrived at midnight. | I fell asleep a little after/before midnight.

mid-point of a segment n. [C] MATH a point that is in the middle of a SEGMENT (=line connecting two points), so that the segment is divided into two parts of equal length mid-riff n. [C] (formal) the front part of the body between your chest and your waist midst n. in the midst of sth in the middle of something such as an event, situation, place, or group: The city is in the midst of a crisis.

mid-term n. 1 [C] an examination that students take in the middle of a SEMESTER: I have a biology midterm on Friday. → UNIVERSITY 2 [U] POLITICS the middle of the period when an elected government has power —midterm adj.

mid-way adj., adv. at the middle point between two places, or in the middle of a period of time or an event: There's a gas station midway between here and Fresno. | He went silent midway through his speech.

mid-week adj., adv. on one of the middle days of the week, such as Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday: midweek classes | I can see you midweek.

Mid-west n. the Midwest the central northern area of the U.S. —Midwestern adj.

mid-wife n. (plural midwives /-waɪvz/) [C] a specially trained nurse, usually a woman, whose job is to help women when they are having a baby miffed adj. (informal) annoyed

might¹ modal verb 1 used in order to talk about what was or is possible: I might be able to get free tickets. | They might not come until tomorrow morning. | She might have tried calling, but I've been out. 2 used instead of "may" when reporting what someone said or thought: I thought he might still be mad at me. 3 might as well (spoken) used to suggest that someone should do something because there is no good reason to do anything else: You might as well go fishing with your brother as sit around here all day. 4 used in order to give advice or make a suggestion: You might try calling the store. | You might want to get your blood pressure checked.

might² n. [U] (literary) strength and power: She tried with all her might to push him away.

might-y¹ adj. strong and powerful: mighty warriors mighty² adv. (informal) very: That was a mighty fine meal.

mi-graine n. [C] an extremely bad HEADACHE [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French, Late Latin hemicrania "pain in one side of the head"] mi-grant n. [C] 1 someone who goes to another area or country, especially in order to find work → IMMIGRANT, EMIGRANT: migrant workers | Texas has a large population of migrant and seasonal farm laborers. 2 a bird or animal that travels from one part of the world to another, especially in the fall and spring: Most species of geese are migrants.

mi-grate /'maɪgreɪt/ (Ac) v. [I] 1 if birds or animals migrate, they travel to a different part of the world, especially in the fall and spring: More than 2 million ducks migrate to the lake each fall. 2 to go to another area or country for a short time, usually in order to find a place to live or work: During the 1980s, over 27 million people migrated from rural to urban areas. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, past participle of migrare] → IMMIGRATE

mi-gra-tion /maɪ'greɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] the action of a large group of birds, animals, or people moving from one area or country to another: the yearly migration of geese | The railroads were built to make migration and settlement easier. —migratory /'maɪgrə'tɔːri/ adj.

mike /maɪk/ n. [C] (informal) a MICROPHONE

mild /maɪld/ adj. 1 not too severe or serious: a mild case of the flu | mild criticism 2 not strong-tasting or spicy: mild cheddar cheese 3 if the weather is mild, it is not too cold or wet and not too hot: a mild winter 4 if a soap or beauty product is mild, it is gentle to your skin, hair, etc.

mil-dew /'mɪldu/ n. [U] a white or gray substance that grows on walls and other surfaces in warm, slightly wet places —mildewed adj.

mild-ly /'maɪldli/ adv. 1 slightly: McKee was only mildly interested. 2 to put it mildly (spoken) said when you are saying something bad or severe in the most polite way that you can: We were not welcome there, to put it mildly. 3 in a gentle way without being angry: "Perhaps," he answered mildly.

mile /maɪl/ n. [C] 1 a unit for measuring distance, equal to 5,280 feet or about 1,609 meters: Mark jogs at least five miles a day. | We're only a few hundred miles from Atlanta. 2 miles (informal) a very long distance: We walked for miles without seeing anyone. 3 talk a mile a minute (spoken) to talk very quickly without stopping [ORIGIN: Old English mīl, from Latin mīlia passum "thousands of paces"] mile-age /'maɪlɪdʒ/ n. 1 [singular, U] the number of miles that a car has traveled since it was made or since a particular time: a used car with low mileage 2 [U] the number of miles a car can travel using each gallon of gasoline: Our car gets really good mileage (=a lot of miles per gallon). 3 get a lot of mileage out of sth to make something be as useful for you as it can be: I've gotten a lot of mileage out of that old joke.

mile-stone /'maɪlstuːn/ n. [C] a very important event in the development of something: a milestone in automotive history

mil-lieu /mɪl'juː, mɪl'yu/ n. (plural milieus) [C,U] (formal) all the things and people that surround you and influence you

mil-i-tant¹ /'mɪlətənt/ adj. willing to use force or violence: militant nationalists —militancy n. [U] militant² n. [C] someone who uses violence to achieve social or political change mil-i-ta-ris-m /'mɪlɪtə'rɪzəm/ n. [U] POLITICS the belief that a country should increase its army, navy, etc. and use them to get what it wants, or when a country increases and uses its military forces in this way —militaristic /'mɪlətə'rɪstɪk/ adj.

mil-i-tar-y¹ /'mɪlə'tɛri/ (Ac) adj. used by, involving, or relating to the army, navy, air force, or Marine Corps: military aircraft | a military base in Greece | The U.S. is prepared to take military action. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French militaire, from Latin militaris, from miles "soldier"] —militarily /'mɪlə'terəli/ adv.

military² n. the military the military organizations of a country, such as the army and navy: My father is in the military. | In some countries women are not allowed to join the military.

mi-li-tia /mə'lɪʃə/ n. [C] a group of people trained as soldiers who are not members of the permanent army milk¹ /mɪlk/ n. [U] 1 a white liquid that people drink, which is usually produced by cows or goats: a glass of milk | Would you like milk in your coffee?

THESAURUS

Types of milk

skim milk – milk that has had all the fat removed from it low-fat/2% milk – milk that has had some of the fat removed from it whole milk – milk that has not had any fat removed from it buttermilk – the liquid that remains after butter has been made, used for drinking or cooking half-and-half – a mixture of milk and cream, used in coffee

2 a white liquid produced by female animals and women for feeding their babies [ORIGIN: Old English meolc, mīlc]

milk² v. [T] 1 to take milk from a cow or goat 2 milk sb/sth for sth (informal) to get all the money, advantages, etc. that you can from a person, thing, or situation: I'm going to milk her for every penny she has.

milk-man /'mɪlkmæn/ n. (plural milkmen /-mɛn/) [C] someone who delivers milk to houses each morning milk-shake /'mɪlkʃeɪk/ n. [C] a thick drink made from milk and ICE CREAM: a chocolate milkshake milky /'mɪlki/ adj. 1 water or a liquid that is milky is not clear and looks like milk 2 milky skin is white and smooth

M

M

Milky Way n. the Milky Way PHYSICS the pale white band made up of large numbers of stars, that you can see across the sky at night mill¹ /mɪl/ n. [C] 1 a large machine used for crushing food such as corn, grain, or coffee into a powder 2 a building where materials such as paper, steel, or cotton cloth are made 3 a small machine used for crushing pepper or coffee [ORIGIN: (1,2) Old English mylen, from Latin mola “mill, millstone”] mill² v. [T] to crush grains in a mill mill around phr. v. (informal) if a lot of people are milling around, they are moving around a place without any particular purpose: Students were milling around waiting for their pictures to be taken.

mil-len-ni-um /məˈlɛniəm/ n. (plural millennia /-niə/) [C] 1 a period of 1,000 years 2 the time when a new 1,000-year period begins: the start of the new millennium mil-li-gram /ˈmɪləɡræm/ n. [C] (written abbreviation mg) a unit for measuring weight, equal to 1/1,000th of a gram mil-li-li-ter /ˈmɪləlɪtə/ n. [C] (written abbreviation ml) a unit for measuring liquids, equal to 1/1,000th of a liter mil-li-me-ter /ˈmɪləmɪtə/ n. [C] (written abbreviation mm) a unit for measuring length, equal to 1/1,000th of a meter mil-lion /ˈmɪljən/ number 1 1,000,000: $350 million | 4 million people ▶ Don’t say “4 million of people.” ◀ 2 also millions an extremely large number of people or things: I’ve heard that excuse a million times. 3 not/never in a million years (spoken) said in order to emphasize how impossible or unlikely something is: I never would have guessed in a million years. 4 one in a million the best of all possible people or things: People like Sue are one in a million. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French, Old Italian milione, from mille “thousand”] —millionth /ˈmɪljənθ/ number mil-lion-aire /ˈmɪljəˈneɪr/ n. [C] someone who is very rich and has at least one million dollars mime¹ /maɪm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS an actor who performs without using words, or a performance in which no words are used mime² v. [I,T] to perform using actions and movements without any words: She stretched out her arms, miming a swimmer.

mim-ic¹ /ˈmɪmɪk/ v. (past tense and past participle mimicked, present participle mimicking) [T] 1 to copy the way someone speaks, moves, or behaves, usually to make people laugh: Lily mimicked Sue’s Boston accent. 2 to behave or operate in exactly the same way as someone or something else: The drug mimics the action of the body’s own chemicals. —mimicry n. [U] mimic² n. [C] a person or animal that is good at mimicking someone’s voice, appearance, etc. or something such as the sound of a machine

min. 1 the written abbreviation of MINIMUM 2 the written abbreviation of MINUTE or MINUTES

mince /mɪns/ v. 1 [T] to cut food into extremely small pieces: Mince the onion and garlic. 2 not mince words to say exactly what you think, even if this may offend people: Stella has never been one to mince words. 3 [I] to walk, using very small steps and moving your hips a lot mince-meat /ˈmɪnsmɪt/ n. [U] a sweet mixture of apples, dried fruit, and SPICES, but no meat, used in PIES mind¹ /maɪnd/ n.

1 BRAIN [C,U] your thoughts, or the part of your brain used for thinking and imagining things: Grandma’s mind is as sharp as ever. | What kind of plans did you have in mind (=what have you thought of doing)? | What’s on your mind (=what are you thinking about)?

2 change your mind to change your opinions or decision about something: If you change your mind and want to come, give us a call.

3 make up your mind to decide something, or become very determined to do something: Have you made up your mind which college you want to go to? | Once she made up her mind to go, there was no stopping her.

4 cross/enter your mind if something crosses your mind, you think about it for a short period: It never crossed my mind that she might be unhappy.

5 be out of your mind (informal) to behave in a crazy or stupid way: Are you out of your mind?

6 go out of your mind/lose your mind (informal) to start to become mentally ill or behave in a crazy way: I’m going to lose my mind if I don’t find a new apartment soon.

7 on your mind if something is on your mind, you are thinking or worrying about it a lot: Sorry I didn’t call, but I’ve had a lot on my mind lately. | Is there something on your mind?

8 have sb/sth in mind to have an idea about who or what you want for a particular purpose: Did you have anyone in mind for the job?

9 with sb/sth in mind while thinking about someone or something or considering that person or thing: Racing cars weren’t built with safety in mind.

10 come/spring to mind if something comes to mind, you suddenly think of it: She was so nervous she just started saying whatever came to mind.

11 state/frame of mind the way you are feeling, such as how happy or sad you are: I have to be in the right frame of mind before a game.

12 -minded having a particular attitude, or believing that a particular thing is important: He was a mean, narrow/closed-minded old man (=he did not accept other ideas and opinions). | politically-minded students

13 keep/bear sth in mind to remember something: Keep in mind that the bank will be closed tomorrow.

14 no one in his/her right mind (informal) no one who is sensible: No woman in her right mind would walk alone at night around here.

15 have/keep an open mind to be willing to accept new ideas and opinions: The mayor promises to keep an open mind on the issue of new schools.

16 take/get/keep your mind off sth to make you stop thinking about something: Dad needs a vacation to take his mind off work.

17 keep your mind on sth to keep paying attention to something, even if you want to think about something else: He could hardly keep his mind on what she was saying.

18 put your mind to sth to decide to do something and use a lot of effort in order to succeed: You can win if you just put your mind to it. [ORIGIN: Old English gemynd] → ONE-TRACK MIND, sth blows your mind at BLOW¹, slip your mind at SLIP¹

mind² v. 1 [I,T] to feel annoyed, worried, or angry about something: Do you mind if I open the window? | Chicago's a nice place to live if you don't mind cold winters. | He doesn't mind sleeping on the couch. | She doesn't mind that her book has not been selling well.

SPOKEN PHRASES

2 do/would you mind used to ask politely if you can do something or if someone will do something: Do you mind if I use your phone? | Would you mind waiting here a minute? 3 mind your own business to not ask questions about a situation that does not involve you, often used to tell someone rudely not to do this: Why doesn't she mind her own business? 4 I wouldn't mind (doing) sth said when you would like something or would like to do something: I wouldn't mind living in Minneapolis.

5 mind your manners to behave or speak in a polite way → never mind at NEVER mind-ful /'maɪndfəl/ adj. behaving in a way that shows you remember a rule or fact: Mindful of the guide's warning, they returned before dark.

'mind-boggling adj. (informal) very difficult to imagine because of being so big, strange, or complicated: The number of insects living in the rainforest is mind-boggling.

mind-less /'maɪndlɪs/ adj. 1 so simple that you do not have to think about what you are doing: mindless work 2 stupid and without any purpose: mindless violence/cruelty —mindlessness n. [U] mind-set /'maɪndset/ n. [C usually singular] someone's general attitude, and the way in which s/he thinks about things and makes decisions

mine¹ /maɪn/ pron. the thing or things belonging or relating to the person who is speaking: Theresa's coat is black. Mine is blue. | He doesn't have a car, so I let him borrow mine. | Tom's a good friend of mine.

mine² n. [C] 1 a type of bomb that is hidden just below the ground or under water, which explodes when someone or something touches it 2 a deep hole or holes in the ground, from which gold, coal, etc. is dug: coal/gold etc. mines

mine³ v. 1 [I,T] to dig into the ground in order to get gold, coal, etc.: men mining for gold 2 [T] to hide bombs under the ground or in the ocean: The beaches were heavily mined.

mine-field /'maɪnfɪld/ n. [C] 1 an area of land that has mines hidden in it 2 a situation in which there are many hidden dangers: The issue is a political minefield.

min-er /'maɪnə/ n. [C] someone who works in a mine: a coal miner min-er-al /'maɪnərəl/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a natural substance such as coal, rock, or salt that is present in the Earth: an area rich in minerals 2 CHEMISTRY a substance such as CALCIUM or iron that is present in some foods and that is important for good health: Milk is full of valuable vitamins and minerals.

'mineral water n. [C,U] water that comes from under the ground and contains minerals min-gle /'mɪŋɡəl/ v. 1 [I] to meet and talk with a lot of different people at a social event: Reporters mingled with movie stars at the awards ceremony. 2 [I,T] if smells, sounds, feelings, etc. mingle, they combine with each other: anger mingled with disappointment and fear mini- /mini/ adj. (informal) small compared with others of the same type: a minivan | a mini-market (=a small food store)

min-i-a-ture¹ /'mɪniətʃə, 'mɪnɪtʃə/ adj. very small: a miniature camera

THESAURUS small, little, tiny, minute, minuscule → SMALL miniature² n. [C] 1 something that has the same appearance as someone or something, but is much smaller: This painting is a miniature of the one in the museum. 2 in miniature exactly like someone or something but much smaller: She has her mother's face in miniature.

miniature 'golf n. [U] a golf game, played for fun, in which you hit a small ball through passages, over small bridges and hills, etc.

min-i-mal /'mɪnəməl/ (Ac) adj. very small in degree or amount: The damage caused by the fire was minimal. | Desert plants will stay healthy even with minimal watering. —minimally adv.

min-i-mize /'mɪnəmaɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to make the degree or amount of something as small as possible (ANT) maximize: To minimize the risk of getting heart disease, eat well and exercise daily. 2 IT to make a document or program on your computer very small when you are not using it but still want to keep it open (ANT) maximize: Click on the top of the window to minimize it.

min-i-mum¹ /'mɪnəməm/ (Ac) adj. the minimum number, amount, or degree is the smallest that it is possible to have (ANT) maximum: You will need to make a minimum payment of $50 a month. | The factory owners wanted to get a minimum price fixed for their goods. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin minimus “smallest”]

M

M

minimum² n. [C usually singular] the smallest number, amount, or degree that it is possible to have (ANT) maximum: Jim works a minimum of (=at least) 50 hours a week. | Costs were kept to a minimum. | We must try to keep the use of pesticides to an absolute minimum.

minimum wage n. [singular, U] the lowest amount of money that can legally be paid per hour to a worker: More than four million Americans earn the minimum wage.

min-ing /ˈmaɪnɪŋ/ n. [U] the action or industry of digging gold, coal, etc. out of the ground min-i-se-ries /ˈmɪni,sɪrɪz/ n. (plural miniseries) [C] a television DRAMA that is divided into several parts and shown on different nights min-i-skirt /ˈmɪni,skɜːt/ n. [C] a very short skirt min-is-ter /ˈmɪnəstə/ n. [C] 1 a religious leader in some Christian churches → PRIEST 2 a politician who is in charge of a government department in some countries: the Minister of Defense [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French ministre, from Latin minister “servant”]

min-is-te-ri-al /ˌmɪnəˈstɪəriəl/ (Ac) adj. relating to a minister, or done by a minister: The project was approved at ministerial level.

min-is-try /ˈmɪnəstri/ (Ac) n. (plural ministries) 1 the ministry the profession of being a church leader: Our son entered/joined the ministry (=became a minister) two years ago. 2 [C usually singular] the work done by a religious leader 3 [C] a government department in some countries: the Foreign Ministry [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin ministerium, from minister “servant”]

min-i-van /ˈmɪni,væn/ n. [C] a large vehicle with seats for six or more people → see picture at TRANSPORTATION

mink /mɪŋk/ n. [C,U] a small animal with soft brown fur, or the valuable fur from this animal: a mink coat min-now /ˈmɪnou/ n. [C] a very small fish that lives in rivers, lakes, etc.

mi-nor¹ /ˈmaɪnə/ (Ac) adj. 1 small and not very important or serious, especially when compared with other things (ANT) major: minor surgery | We made a few minor changes to the plan. | It's only a minor injury. | Most of the changes in the law were relatively minor. ▶ Don't say “minor than.” ◀ 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS based on a musical SCALE in which the third note of the related MAJOR scale has been lowered by a HALF STEP [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin “smaller”] minor² n. [C] 1 LAW someone who is not old enough to be considered legally responsible for his/her actions: It's illegal to sell cigarettes to minors.

THESAURUS child, kid, teenager, adolescent, youngster, juvenile → CHILD

2 the second main subject that you study at college for your degree → MAJOR: She has a minor in history. → UNIVERSITY

minor³ v.

minor in sth phr. v. to study a second main subject as part of your college degree: I'm minoring in history.

mi-nor-i-ty¹ /məˈnɔːrəti, maɪ-, -ˈnɔːr-/ (Ac) n. (plural minorities) 1 [C usually plural] a group of people of a different race or religion than most people in a country, or someone in one of these groups: ethnic/racial/religious minorities | The law prevents discrimination against minorities. 2 [singular] a small part of a larger group of people or things → MAJORITY: Only a small minority of senators were in favor of a tax increase. | Opposition came from a small but vocal minority. 3 be in the minority to be less in number than any other group: Male teachers are very much in the minority at public schools.

minority² adj. relating to a group of people who do not have the same opinion, religion, race, etc. as most of the larger group that they are in: help for minority groups | minority students minor league n. the minor leagues also the Minor Leagues the groups of teams that form the lower levels of American professional sports, especially baseball → MAJOR LEAGUES —minor-league adj. [only before noun]: a minor-league team min-strel /ˈmɪnstrəl/ n. [C] 1 a white singer or dancer who tried to look like an African-American person, and who performed in shows in the early part of the 20th century 2 a singer or musician in the Middle Ages mint¹ /mɪnt/ n. 1 [C] a candy with a strong fresh taste 2 [U] a plant with strong fresh-tasting leaves, used in cooking and making medicine → PEPPERMINT 3 [C] a place where coins are officially made mint² adj. in mint condition looking new and in perfect condition: a 1957 Chevy in mint condition

mint³ v. [T] to make a coin mint-y /ˈmɪnti/ adj. tasting or smelling of mint

mi-nus¹ /ˈmaɪnəs/ prep. 1 MATH used in mathematics when you SUBTRACT one number from another → PLUS: 17 minus 5 is 12 (17 – 5 = 12) | the value of your assets minus tax → CALCULATE 2 (informal) without something that would normally be there: He came back from skate park minus a couple of front teeth.

minus² n. [C] 1 MATH a minus sign 2 something bad about a situation → PLUS: There are pluses and minuses to living in a big city.

minus³ adj. 1 A minus/B minus etc. a GRADE used in a system of judging a student's work. A minus is lower than A, but higher than B PLUS. → PLUS 2 minus 5/20/30 etc. less than zero, especially less than zero degrees in temperature → BELOW: At night the temperature can go as low as minus 30.

min-us-cule /'mɪnəs,skyul/ adj. extremely small: Her allowance is minuscule. | a minuscule amount of food

THESAURUS small, little, tiny, minute, miniature → SMALL

'minus, sign n. [C] MATH a sign (-) showing that a number is less than zero, or that the second of two numbers is to be SUBTRACTED from the first min-ute¹ /'mɪnɪt/ n. 1 [C] a period of time equal to 60 seconds: Ethel's train arrives in 15 minutes. | three minutes to/before 4:00 | 12 minutes after/past one 2 [C] a very short period of time: For a minute I thought he was serious. | I'll be ready in a minute. 3 wait a minute/just a minute/hold on a minute (spoken) a) used to ask someone to wait a short period of time while you do something: "Are you coming with us?" "Yes. Just a minute." b) used when you want to tell someone that you do not agree with something s/he has said or done: Wait a minute – you said my car would be ready by 5:00! 4 last minute at the last possible time, just before something must be done or completed: Frank changed his mind at the last minute and decided to come after all. | a few last-minute arrangements 5 the minute (that) as soon as: I knew it was Jill the minute I heard her voice. 6 any minute (now) (spoken) very soon: She should be here any minute now. 7 minutes [plural] an official written record of what is said and decided at a meeting 8 [C] MATH one of the 60 parts into which a degree of an angle can be divided. It can be shown as a SYMBOL after a number. For example, 78° 52' means 78 degrees 52 minutes.

mi-nute² /maɪ'nʊt/ adj. 1 extremely small: You only need a minute amount.

THESAURUS small, little, tiny, miniature, minuscule → SMALL

2 paying attention to the smallest things or parts: Johnson explained the plan in minute detail.

mir-a-cle /'mɪrəkəl/ n. [C] 1 something lucky that happens when you did not expect it to happen or did not think it was possible: It's a miracle (that) you weren't killed! | the country's economic miracle 2 an action or event believed to be caused by God, which is impossible according to the ordinary laws of nature 3 miracle cure/drug an effective treatment for a serious medical illness mi-rac-u-lous /mɪ'rækjələs/ adj. completely unexpected and very lucky: The patient made a miraculous recovery. —miraculously adv.

THESAURUS lucky, fortunate, fortuitous → LUCKY mi-rage /mɪ'rɑːʒ/ n. [C] something you think you see that is not actually there, caused by hot air in a desert mire /maɪə/ v. be mired in sth a) to be in a very difficult situation: an economy mired in recession b) to be stuck in deep mud

mir-ror¹ /'mɪrər/ n. [C] 1 a piece of special flat glass that you can look at and see yourself in: the bathroom mirror | a rearview mirror (=a mirror in a car, for looking behind you) | He looked at himself in the mirror. 2 mirror image a system or pattern that is almost exactly the same as another one: This year's election is a mirror image of the one in 1984. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French mirour, from mīrer "to look at," from Latin mirare] mirror² v. [T] to represent or be very similar to something else: The election results mirrored public opinion.

mirth /mɜːθ/ n. [U] (literary) happiness and laughter mis-ad-ven-ture /,mɪsəd'ventʃər/ n. [C,U] bad luck or an accident mis-ap-pro-pri-ate /,mɪsə'prouprɪ,et/ v. [T] (formal) to dishonestly take something, especially money, that a company, organization, etc. has trusted you to keep safe —misappropriation /,mɪsə'prouprɪ'eɪʃən/ n. [U] mis-be-have /,mɪsbɪ'heɪv/ v. [I] to behave badly: Anne's being punished for misbehaving in class. —misbehavior /,mɪsbɪ'heɪvyər/ n. [U]

misc. the written abbreviation of MISCELLANEOUS

mis-cal-cu-late /,mɪs'kælkjəleɪt/ v. [I,T] 1 to make a mistake in deciding how long something will take to do, how much money you will need, etc.: We miscalculated the time it would take to drive to Long Island. 2 to make a mistake when you are judging a situation: Republicans seem to have miscalculated the mayor's popularity. —miscalculation /,mɪs,kælkjə'leɪʃən/ n. [C] mis-car-riage /'mɪs,kæɪdʒ, 'mɪs'kæɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] 1 the act of accidentally giving birth too early for the baby to live → ABORTION: She had a miscarriage and nearly died. 2 miscarriage of justice a situation in which someone is wrongly punished by a court of law for something s/he did not do mis-car-ry /,mɪs'kæɪ/ v. (miscarried, miscarries) [I] to accidentally give birth to a baby too early for him/her to live mis-cel-la-ne-ous /,mɪsəl'eɪniəs/ adj. made up of many different things or people that do not seem to be related to each other: a stack of miscellaneous papers

mis-chief /'mɪstʃɪf/ n. [U] bad behavior, especially by children, that causes trouble or damage but no serious harm: A group of kids were running around and making mischief (=behaving in a way that causes trouble). | Sports kept me out of mischief when I was growing up. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French meschief "something bad that happens"]

M

M

mis·chie·vous /'mɪstʃəvəs/ adj. a mischievous child likes to have fun by playing tricks on people or doing things to annoy or embarrass them —mischievously adv.: He smiled mischievously.

mis·ci·ble /'mɪsəbəl/ adj. CHEMISTRY miscible liquids or gases are able to mix and combine together completely into one liquid or gas (ANT) immiscible: Miscible liquids such as water and ethanol will diffuse (=mix together).

mis·con·cep·tion /,mɪskən'sɛpʃən/ n. [C,U] an idea that is wrong or untrue, but that people still believe: It's a misconception that red meat cannot be part of a healthy diet.

mis·con·duct /,mɪs'kɒndʌkt/ n. [U] (formal) bad or dishonest behavior by someone in a position of authority or trust: an investigation into police misconduct mis·con·strue /,mɪskən'stru/ v. [T] (formal) to not understand correctly what someone has said or done: The research results have been misconstrued.

mis·deed /,mɪs'diːd/ n. [C] (formal) a wrong or illegal action mis·de·mean·or /,mɪsdrɪ'miːnə/ n. [C] LAW a crime that is not very serious mis·di·rect /,mɪsdə'rekt/ v. [T] (formal) to use your efforts, emotions, or abilities in a way that is wrong or not appropriate: misdirected anger mi·ser /'maɪzə/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who hates spending money and likes saving it —miserly adj.

mis·er·a·ble /'mɪzərəbəl/ adj. 1 very unhappy, especially because you are lonely or sick: I saw Dana last week, and she looked miserable. | She made my life miserable.

THESAURUS sad, unhappy, sorrowful, depressed, down, low, blue, downhearted, melancholy, morose, gloomy, glum → SAD

2 very bad in quality: miserable weather [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French, Latin miserabilis] —miserably adv.

mis·er·y /'mɪzəri/ n. (plural miseries) [C,U] great suffering or unhappiness, caused for example by being very poor or very sick: The conflict is causing human misery on an unprecedented scale. | the suffering and misery of the poor mis·fit /'mɪs,fɪt/ n. [C] someone who does not seem to belong in a place because s/he is very different from the other people there: a social misfit mis·for·tune /mɪs'fɔːtʃən/ n. [C,U] bad luck, or something that happens to you as a result of bad luck: We had the misfortune of being in an airport when the snowstorm hit.

mis·giv·ing /mɪs'gɪvɪŋ/ n. [C usually plural, U] a feeling of doubt or fear about what might happen, or about whether something is right: He had some misgivings about letting me use his car.

mis·guid·ed /mɪs'gaɪdɪd/ adj. 1 intended to be helpful but actually making a situation worse: a misguided attempt to impress her boss 2 wrong because of being based on a wrong understanding of a situation: He became a teacher on the misguided belief that the hours were short.

mis·han·dle /,mɪs'hændl/ v. [T] to deal with a situation badly, or not skillfully: The government has mishandled the crisis.

mis·hap /'mɪshæp/ n. [C,U] a small accident or mistake that does not have a very serious effect: The rest of the flight continued without mishap. | We had a few mishaps, nothing serious. → ACCIDENT mis·in·form /,mɪsɪn'fɔːm/ v. [T] to give someone information that is not correct: Patients were misinformed about their treatment.

mis·in·ter·pret /,mɪsɪn'təprɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] to not understand the correct meaning of something that someone says or does: They may misinterpret your actions as a sign of weakness. —misinterpretation /,mɪsɪn,təprə'teɪʃən/ n. [C,U] mis·judge /,mɪs'dʒʌdʒ/ v. [T] 1 to form a wrong or unfair opinion about a person or situation: The White House has badly misjudged Congress's support for his bill. 2 to guess an amount, distance, etc. wrongly: Don misjudged the turn and wrecked his car. —misjudgment n. [C,U] mis·lead /mɪs'liːd/ v. (past tense and past participle misled /-lɛd/) [T] to make someone believe something that is not true by giving him/her false or incomplete information: a deliberate attempt to mislead the public mis·lead·ing /mɪs'liːdɪŋ/ adj. likely to make someone believe something that is not true: Statistics can be very misleading. —misleadingly adv.

THESAURUS lie, make sth up, tell (sb) a lie, invent, deceive, perjure yourself/commit perjury, falsify → LIE²

THESAURUS wrong, incorrect, erroneous, inaccurate, false → WRONG¹ mis·man·age /,mɪs'mænɪdʒ/ v. [T] if someone mismanages something s/he is in charge of, s/he deals with it badly: This project's been completely mismanaged from the beginning. —mismanagement n. [U]: financial mismanagement mis·match /'mɪsmætʃ/ n. [C] a combination of things or people that do not work well together or are not appropriate for each other: There seems to be a mismatch between skills and jobs. —mismatched adj.

mis·no·mer /,mɪs'noʊmə/ n. [C] a wrong or inappropriate name: The term "dry cleaning" is something of a misnomer, as fluids are actually used.

mi·sog·y·nist /mɪ'sɒdʒənɪst/ n. [C] (formal) a man who hates women —misogyny n. [U] —misogynistic /mɪ,sɒdʒə'nɪstɪk/ adj.

mis-place /,mɪsˈpleɪs/ v. [T] to put something somewhere and then forget where you put it: I've misplaced my glasses again.

mis-placed /,mɪsˈpleɪst/ adj. misplaced feelings of trust, love, etc. are inappropriate because the person that you have these feelings for does not deserve them: a misplaced sense of loyalty mis-print /ˈmɪsˌprɪnt/ n. [C] a mistake in a book, magazine, etc.

mis-pro-nounce /,mɪsprəˈnaʊns/ v. [T] to pronounce a word or name wrongly —mispronunciation /,mɪsprəˈnɑːnsiˈeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] mis-quote /,mɪsˈkwəʊt/ v. [T] to make a mistake in reporting what someone else has said or written: Morales claims the magazine misquoted him.

mis-read /,mɪsˈrɪd/ v. (past tense and past participle misread /-ˈrɛd/) [T] 1 to make a wrong judgment about a situation or person → MISINTERPRET: The UN badly misread the situation. 2 to read something in the wrong way: I misread the schedule and missed my bus.

mis-rep-re-sent /,mɪsrɛprɪˈzɛnt/ v. [T] to deliberately give a wrong description of someone's opinions or of a situation (SYN) distort, twist: Our aims have been misrepresented in the press.
—misrepresentation /mɪsˌrɛprɪzənˈteɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

miss¹ /mɪs/ v. 1 [T] to not go somewhere or do something, especially when you want to but cannot: Sorry I missed your call. | She didn't want to miss a chance/opportunity to work in Hollywood. 2 [T] to be too late for something: By the time we got there, we'd missed the beginning of the movie. | You'll miss your plane/train/bus unless you leave now. 3 [T] to feel sad because you are not with a particular person, or because you no longer have something or are no longer doing something: Did you miss me while I was gone? | I miss living in London. 4 [I,T] to not hit or catch something: She fired at the target but missed. | Jackson missed an easy catch and the A's scored. 5 miss the point to not understand the main point of what someone is saying 6 [T] to not see, hear, or notice something: Jody found an error that everyone else had missed. | It's a big red house with a small pond in front – you can't miss it. 7 [T] to notice that something or someone is not in the place you expect him, her, or it to be: I didn't miss my key until I got home. 8 miss the boat (informal) to fail to take an opportunity that will give you an advantage: Investors who failed to buy the stock when it was first listed have missed the boat.

miss out phr. v. to not have the chance to do something that you enjoy: You're the one who'll miss out if you don't come. | She got married very young, and now she feels she's missing out on life.

miss² n. 1 Miss Smith/Jones etc. used in front of the family name of a woman who is not married in order to speak to her politely, write to her, or talk about her → MRS., MS. 2 [C] a failed attempt to hit, catch, or hold something 3 used to speak politely to a young woman when you do not know her name: Excuse me, miss, you've dropped your umbrella.

mis-shap-en /,mɪsˈʃeɪpən, ˌmɪˈʃeɪ-/ adj. not the normal or natural shape: He was born with a misshapen spine.

mis-sile /ˈmɪsəl/ n. [C] 1 a weapon that can fly over long distances and that explodes when it hits something: a nuclear missile 2 (formal) an object that is thrown at someone in order to hurt him/her miss-ing /ˈmɪsɪŋ/ adj. 1 someone or something that is missing is not in the place where you would normally expect him, her, or it to be: Police are still searching for the missing child. | A button on his shirt was missing. | $200 was missing from my desk drawer.

USAGE

Use lost in order to describe something that someone cannot find, or someone who does not know where s/he is: a lost ball | We took a wrong turn and got lost.

Use missing in order to describe someone or something you have been looking for, especially when the situation is serious: We're still trying to locate the missing money. | the search for the two missing boys

2 not included, although it ought to have been: Why is my name missing from the list? 3 missing in action a soldier who is missing in action has not been seen after a battle, and is probably dead mis-sion /ˈmɪʃən/ n. [C] 1 an important job that someone has been given to do: His mission was to help the president win re-election. 2 a group of people who are sent by their government to another country for a particular purpose: a Canadian trade mission to Japan 3 the purpose or the most important aim of an organization: Each school's central mission should be to teach reading, writing, and arithmetic.

THESAURUS

goal, aim, objective, target →

GOAL

4 something that you feel you must do because it is your duty: She feels her mission in life is to help poor people. 5 a special trip made by a space vehicle or military airplane: a mission to Mars 6 the work of a missionary, or a building where s/he does this work [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin missio “act of sending,” from mittere “to send, throw”] mis-sion-ar-y /ˈmɪʃənəri/ n. (plural missionaries) [C] someone who has gone to a foreign country in order to teach people about Christianity mis-spell /,mɪsˈspɛl/ v. [T] to spell a word incorrectly —misspelling n. [C,U] mis-step /ˈmɪsˌstɛp/ n. [C] (written) a mistake, especially one that offends or upsets people: political missteps mist¹ /mɪst/ n. [C,U] cloud that is close to the ground, making it difficult to see very far → FOG: The sun had burned through the early morning mist.

M

M

mist² v. [I,T] to become covered with very small drops of water, or to make something do this: The windows are all misted up/over.

mis-take¹ /mɪ'steɪk/ n. [C] 1 something that has been done in the wrong way, or an opinion or statement that is incorrect: spelling mistakes | I think you've made a mistake – I ordered fish, not beef. | The bill is $500? There must be some mistake.

THESAURUS

A mistake is something that you do by accident, or that is the result of a bad judgment: I took Larry's coat by mistake. | We made a mistake in buying this car.

An error is a mistake that you do not realize you are making, and that causes problems: He made several errors when adding up the bill.

2 something you do that you later realize was not the right thing to do: Marrying him was a big mistake. | I made the mistake of giving him my phone number. | We need to start learning from our mistakes. 3 by mistake if you do something by mistake, you do it without intending to: I brought the wrong book home by mistake. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old Norse mistaka]

mistake² v. (past tense mistook /-ˈstʊk/, past participle mistaken /-ˈstɜːkən/) mistake sb/sth for sb/sth phr. v. to think that one person or thing is someone or something else: I mistook him for his brother.

mis-tak-en /mɪ'steɪkən/ adj. wrong about something: I think the party is next week, but I might be mistaken. | We bought the rug in Turkey, if I'm not mistaken. —mistakenly adv.

mis-ter /ˈmɪstə/ n. 1 the full form of MR. 2 (spoken, old-fashioned) said in order to speak to a man when you do not know his name → SIR: Hey, mister, is this your wallet?

mis-tle-toe /ˈmɪsəl,təʊ/ n. [U] a plant with small white berries that is often used as a decoration at Christmas mis-took /mɪ'stʊk/ v. the past tense of MISTAKE mis-treat /ˈmɪs'triːt/ v. [T] to treat a person or animal cruelly: The hostages said they had not been mistreated. —mistreatment n. [U] mis-tress /ˈmɪstrɪs/ n. [C] 1 a woman that a man has a sexual relationship with, even though he is married to someone else 2 (old-fashioned) a woman who has authority over servants or animals → MASTER mis-tri-al /ˈmɪstreɪl/ n. [C] LAW a TRIAL during which a mistake in the law is made, so that a new trial has to be held mis-trust /mɪs'trʌst/ n. [U] the feeling that you cannot trust someone: Some Americans admit to deep mistrust of the media. —mistrust v. [T] mist-y /ˈmɪsti/ adj. 1 misty weather is weather with a lot of mist 2 (literary) full of tears: her eyes became misty mis-un-der-stand /ˌmɪsʌndəˈstænd/ v. (past tense and past participle misunderstood /-ˈstʊd/) [I,T] to fail to understand someone or something correctly: I think you misunderstood what I was trying to say.

mis-un-der-stand-ing /ˌmɪsʌndəˈstændɪŋ/ n. 1 [C,U] a failure to understand a question, situation, or instruction: There must be some misunderstanding. I didn't order all these books. | We've called a meeting to clear up any misunderstandings about the project. 2 [C] an argument or disagreement that is not very serious: We've had our misunderstandings in the past, but we're good friends now.

mis-un-der-stood /ˌmɪsʌndəˈstʊd/ adj. if someone is misunderstood, s/he has been treated unfairly because people have decided that they do not like him/her, without knowing what s/he is really like: Albert's really a nice guy; he's just misunderstood.

mis-use¹ /ˈmɪs'yuz/ v. [T] to use something in the wrong way or for the wrong purpose: He faces a charge of misusing state funds for his re-election campaign.

mis-use² /ˈmɪs'yus/ n. [C,U] the use of something in the wrong way or for the wrong purpose: a misuse of power mite /maɪt/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a very small insect that lives in plants, CARPETS, etc.: dust mites 2 a mite (old-fashioned) a little: The hotel was a mite expensive.

mit-i-gate /ˈmɪtəˌgeɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to make a situation or the effects of something less bad, harmful, or serious: Only foreign aid can mitigate the terrible effects of the war. —mitigation /ˌmɪtəˌgeɪʃən/ n. [U]

mi-to-chon-dri-on /ˌmaɪtəˈkɒndrɪən/ n. (plural mitochondria /-driə/) [C] BIOLOGY a very small part of a cell in a plant, animal, or FUNGUS, which changes ORGANIC MATTER (=natural material that is going through the process of decaying) into energy mi-to-sis /maɪˈtəʊsɪs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the process by which a cell divides to become two cells, each new cell having the same number of CHROMOSOMES as the original cell → MEIOSIS mi-tral valve /ˈmaɪtrəl ˌvælv/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a BICUSPID VALVE → see picture at HEART

mitt /mɪt/ n. [C] 1 a type of leather GLOVE used for catching a ball in baseball 2 a GLOVE made of thick material, worn to protect your hand: an oven mitt mit-ten /ˈmɪtˌn/ n. [C] a type of GLOVE that does not have separate parts for each finger mix¹ /mɪks/ v. 1 [I,T] if you mix two or more substances, or if they mix, they combine to become a single substance: Oil and water don't mix. | Mix

the butter and sugar together, and then add the milk. | Mix the beans thoroughly with the sauce.
→ see picture on page A5

THESAURUS

combine – to join two or more things together, or to be joined together with another thing: Combine the ingredients and beat until smooth.
stir – to mix a liquid or food by moving a spoon around in it: Reduce the heat and stir until thickened.
blend – to mix together soft or liquid substances to form a single smooth substance: Blend the yogurt with fresh fruit for a wonderful drink.
beat – to mix food together quickly and thoroughly using a fork or kitchen tool: Beat the eggs and add to the sugar mixture.

2 [I,T] to combine two or more different activities, ideas, groups of things, etc.: Their music mixes jazz and rock. | I don't mix business with pleasure. 3 [I] to enjoy meeting, talking, and spending time with other people, especially people you do not know very well: Joey mixed easily with the other children.

mix up phr. v. 1 mix sb/sth ↔ up to make the mistake of thinking that someone or something is another person or thing: I keep mixing him up with his brother. 2 mix sth ↔ up to change the way things have been arranged so that they are no longer in the same order: Don't mix up those papers, or we'll never find the ones we need. 3 mix sb up (informal) to make someone feel confused: Too many people were giving her advice and mixing her up. → MIXED UP, MIX-UP mix² n. 1 [C,U] a combination of substances that you mix together to make something: cake mix 2 [singular] the particular combination of things or people that form a group: There was a strange mix of people at Larry's party.

mixed /mɪkst/ adj. 1 consisting of many different types of things or people: a can of mixed nuts | They were a mixed group, predominantly young, but there were some older people too. 2 have mixed emotions/feelings (about sth) to be unsure about whether you like or agree with something: We had mixed feelings about moving to New York. 3 a mixed blessing something that is good in some ways but bad in others: Having children is a mixed blessing. 4 mixed response/reaction if something gets a mixed response, some people say that they like it, but others do not like it mixed 'marriage n. [C,U] a marriage between two people from different races or religions mixed 'up adj. 1 confused: I got mixed up and went to the wrong restaurant. 2 be mixed up with sb to be involved with someone who has a bad influence on you: If you get mixed up with those people, you'll end up in jail. 3 be mixed up in sth to be involved in an illegal or dishonest activity: I don't want my kids getting mixed up in drugs.

mix-er /'mɪksə/ n. [C] a piece of equipment used for mixing different substances together: Beat the eggs and sugar with an electric mixer.

mix-ture /'mɪkstʃə/ n. 1 [C,U] a single substance made by mixing several substances together: Pour the cake mixture into a pan and bake it for 45 minutes.

THESAURUS

combination – two or more different things, substances, etc. that are used or put together: Doctors use a combination of drugs to combat the disease.
blend – a mixture of two or more things: The salad dressing is an interesting blend of oil, vinegar, and spices.
compound – a chemical compound is a substance that consists of two or more different substances: Carbon dioxide is a common compound found in the air.
solution – a liquid mixed with a solid or a gas: a weak sugar solution

2 [C usually singular] a combination of two or more people, things, feelings, or ideas that are different: I listened to his excuse with a mixture of amusement and disbelief.

'mix-up n. [C] (informal) a mistake that causes confusion about details or arrangements: There was a mix-up at the station and Eddie got on the wrong bus.

ml the written abbreviation of MILLILITER mm the written abbreviation of MILLIMETER

MN the written abbreviation of MINNESOTA

MO the written abbreviation of MISSOURI

mo. the written abbreviation of MONTH

moan¹ /moʊn/ v. [I] 1 to make the sound of a moan: The victim was bleeding and moaning in pain. 2 (informal) to complain in an annoying way, especially in an unhappy voice: Stop moaning about your problems and get to work! —moaner n. [C] moan² n. [C] a long low sound expressing pain or sadness moat /moʊt/ n. [C] a deep wide hole, usually filled with water, that was dug around a castle as a defense

mob¹ /mɒb/ n. [C] 1 a large noisy crowd, especially one that is angry and violent: A mob of protesters attacked the police. | The thieves were lynched by an angry mob. 2 the Mob (informal) the MAFIA

mob² v. (mobbed, mobbing) [T] 1 to form a crowd around someone in order to express admiration or to attack him/her: She's mobbed by her fans wherever she goes. 2 if a place is mobbed, it has a lot of people in it: The beach was mobbed with people.

mo-bile¹ /'moʊbəl/ adj. able to move or be moved easily (ANT) immobile: I'm much more mobile now that I have a car. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French,

M

M

Latin mobilis, from movere “to move” —mobility /mou'biləti/ n. [U]: elderly people with limited mobility mo·bile² /'moobil/ n. [C] a decoration made of small objects tied to string and hung up so that they move when air blows around them mobile 'home n. [C] a type of house made of metal, that can be pulled by a large vehicle and moved to another place → HOUSE¹

mobile 'phone n. [C] a CELL PHONE mo·bi·lize /'moobə,laɪz/ v. [I,T] 1 to gather together, or be brought together, in order to work to achieve something difficult: Forces have been mobilized to defend the capital. 2 mobilize support/opposition to encourage people to support or oppose something —mobilization /,moobələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] mob·ster /'mɒbstə/ n. [C] (informal) a member of the Mafia moc·ca·sin /'mækəsən/ n. [C] a flat comfortable shoe made of soft leather [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Virginia Algonquian mockasin]

mock¹ /mæk/ v. [I,T] to laugh at someone or something and try to make him, her, or it seem stupid, especially by copying his, her, or its actions or speech: Wilson mocked Joe's southern accent. | Are you mocking me? —mockingly adv.

mock² adj. not real: a mock debate | mock horror/surprise

mock·er·y /'mækəri/ n. 1 make a mockery of sth to make something such as a plan or system seem completely useless or ineffective: The trial made a mockery of justice. 2 [U] the act of laughing at someone or something and trying to make him, her, or it seem stupid or silly mock·ing·bird /'mækɪŋ,bɜ:d/ n. [C] an American bird that copies the songs of other birds modal 'verb also modal n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a verb that is used with other verbs to change their meaning by expressing ideas such as possibility, permission, or intention. In English, the modals are “can,” “could,” “may,” “might,” “shall,” “should,” “will,” “would,” “must,” “ought to,” “used to,” “have to,” and “had better.” → AUXILIARY VERB mode /moud/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] (formal) a particular way or style of behaving, living, or doing something: a very efficient mode of transportation | Artists use various modes of expression, such as painting and poetry. 2 [singular] MATH the middle number in a set of numbers that are arranged in order of size → MEAN, MEDIAN

mod·el¹ /'mɒdl/ n. [C] 1 someone whose job is to show clothes, hair styles, etc. by wearing them and being photographed: a top fashion model 2 a small copy of a vehicle, building, machine, etc., especially one that can be put together from separate parts: They showed us a model of the building. 3 someone who is employed by an artist or photographer in order to be painted or photographed 4 a person or thing that is a perfect example of something good and is therefore worth copying: It served as a model for other cities. | Shelly's essay is a model of care and neatness. → ROLE MODEL 5 a particular type or design of a vehicle, machine, weapon, etc.: Ford has two new models coming out in October.

THESAURUS type, kind, sort, category, brand, make → TYPE¹

6 SCIENCE a description of a system or structure that is used to help people understand similar systems or structures: Early astronomers constructed a model of the universe in purely geometric terms.

model² adj. 1 model airplane/train/car etc. a small copy of an airplane, etc., especially one that can be put together from separate parts 2 model wife/employee/school etc. a person or thing that is a perfect example of its type model³ v. 1 [I,T] to wear clothes in order to show them to possible buyers 2 [I,T] to be employed by an artist or photographer in order to be painted or photographed 3 [T] to copy a system or way of doing something: Their education system is modeled on the French one. 4 model yourself after sb to try to be like someone else because you admire him/her: The young singer modeled himself after Frank Sinatra. 5 [T] to make small objects from materials such as wood or clay mod·el·ing /'mɒdl-ɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 the work of a fashion model: a career in modeling 2 the activity of making models or objects: clay modeling mo·dem /'moʊdəm/ n. [C] IT a piece of electronic equipment that allows information from one computer to be sent along telephone wires to another computer → INTERNET

mod·er·ate¹ /'mɒdərɪt/ adj. 1 neither very big nor very small, very hot nor very cold, very fast nor very slow, etc.: a moderate temperature | Moderate exercise can reduce the risk of heart disease. 2 having opinions or beliefs, especially about politics, that are not extreme and that most people consider reasonable: a moderate Republican/Democrat | moderate voters mod·e·rate² /'mɒdə'reɪt/ v. [I,T] to make something less extreme or violent, or to become less extreme or violent: To lose weight, moderate the amount of food you eat.

mod·e·rate³ /'mɒdərɪt/ n. [C] someone whose opinions or beliefs, especially about politics, are not extreme and are considered reasonable by most people mod·er·ate·ly /'mɒdərɪtli/ adv. fairly but not very: a moderately successful company

mod·er·a·tion /,mɒdə'reɪʃən/ n. 1 in moderation if you do something in moderation, you do not do it too much: You've got to learn to drink in moderation. 2 [U] (formal) control of your behavior, so that you keep your actions, feelings, habits, etc. within reasonable or sensible limits mod-er-at-or /ˈmɒdəˌreɪtə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to control a discussion or argument and to help people reach an agreement

mod-ern /ˈmɒdən/ adj. 1 belonging to the present time or the most recent time → CONTEMPORARY: modern American history | Computers are an essential part of modern life. | The country is suffering one of its worst economic crises in modern times.

THESAURUS advanced, sophisticated, high-tech, state-of-the-art, cutting-edge → ADVANCED

2 using or willing to use very recent ideas, fashions, or ways of thinking: The school is very modern in its approach to sex education. 3 made or done using the most recent methods: advances in modern medicine | modern technology [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Late Latin modernus, from Latin modo “just now”]

THESAURUS new, recent, original, latest → NEW —modernity /məˈdɜːnəti, -ˈdɜː-/ n. [U] mod-ern-i-za-tion /ˈmɒdəˌnəˈzeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] 1 the process or act of modernizing something: the modernization of the railroads 2 ECONOMICS the process by which a country becomes more developed through new TECHNOLOGY, social change, and better government mod-ern-ize /ˈmɒdəˌnaɪz/ v. [T] to change something so that it is more modern, by using new equipment or methods: We’re modernizing the whole house, starting with a new bathroom.

mod-est /ˈmɒdɪst/ adj. 1 (approving) unwilling to talk proudly about your abilities and achievements (ANT) immodest: He was extremely modest about his achievements. 2 not very big in size, quantity, value, etc.: a modest salary | The film was only a modest success. 3 shy about showing your body or attracting sexual interest [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin modestus] —modestly adv.

mod-es-ty /ˈmɒdəsti/ n. [U] 1 (approving) the quality of being modest about your abilities or achievements 2 the quality of being modest about your body mod-i-cum /ˈmɒdɪkəm/ n. (formal) a modicum of sth a small amount of something, especially a good quality: Walker had a modicum of success as a football player.

mod-i-fi-ca-tion /ˈmɒdəfəˈkeɪʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] a small change made in something such as a design, plan, or system: We’ve made a few modifications to the original design. | In 2007, a further modification to the system was agreed. 2 [U] the act of modifying something, or the process of being modified: Modification of a patient’s environment can sometimes speed up recovery.

mod-i-fi-er /ˈmɒdəˌfaɪə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, an adjective, adverb, or phrase that gives additional information about another word. In the sentence “The dog is barking loudly,” “loudly” is a modifier.

mod-i-fy /ˈmɒdəˌfaɪ/ (Ac) v. (modified, modifies) [T] 1 to make small changes to something in order to improve it: The car’s been modified to go faster. | Many of these ideas, in modified form, still interest scientists today.

THESAURUS change, alter, adapt, adjust, revise, amend → CHANGE¹

2 ENG. LANG. ARTS to act as a modifier: In English, an adjective usually immediately precedes the noun it modifies. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French modifier, from Latin modificare “to measure, moderate,” from modus “measure, way”] mod-u-lar /ˈmɒdʒələ/ adj. based on modules or made using modules: modular furniture mod-u-late /ˈmɒdʒəˌleɪt/ v. [T] to change the sound of your voice or another sound —modulation /ˈmɒdʒəˌleɪʃən/ n. [U] mod-ule /ˈmɒdʒul/ n. [C] 1 one of several separate parts that can be combined to form a larger object, such as a machine or building 2 a part of a SPACECRAFT that can be separated from the main part and used for a particular purpose → SPACE¹ mo-gul /ˈmoʊɡəl/ n. media/business/movie etc. mogul someone who has great power and influence in a particular industry or activity [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Mogul “member of a Muslim group that ruled India in former times” (16—21 centuries), from Persian Mughul, from Mongolian Mongol]

mo-hair /ˈmoʊhər/ n. [U] expensive wool made from ANGORA

Mo-ham-med /moʊˈhæməd/ n. MUHAMMAD moi-e-ty /ˈmoɪəti/ n. (plural moieties) [C] (formal) a half of something moist /moɪst/ adj. slightly wet, in a pleasant way: Make sure the soil is moist before planting the seeds. | a moist chocolate cake [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French moiste, from Latin mucidus “wet and slippery”] → DAMP moist-en /ˈmoɪsən/ v. [I,T] to become slightly wet, or to make something become slightly wet: Moisten the clay with a little water.

mois-ture /ˈmoɪstʃə/ n. [U] small amounts of water that are present in the air, in a substance, or on a surface: The roots of the trees are not getting enough moisture.

mois-tur-iz-er /ˈmoɪstʃəˌraɪzə/ n. [C] a creamy liquid you put on your skin to keep it soft mol /moʊl/ CHEMISTRY another spelling of MOLE mo-lar /ˈmoʊlə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the large teeth at the back of the mouth, used for crushing food [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin molaris “crushing like a mill,” from mola]

mo-las-ses /məˈlæsɪz/ n. [U] a thick dark sweet liquid that is obtained from raw sugar plants when they are being made into sugar

M

M

mold¹ /mould/ n. 1 [U] a soft green or black substance that grows on old food and on objects that are in warm, slightly wet places 2 [C] a hollow container that you pour liquid into, so that when the liquid becomes solid, it takes the shape of the container: a candle mold shaped like a star

mold² v. [T] 1 to shape a solid substance by pressing or rolling it, or by putting it into a mold: a figure of a man molded out of clay 2 to influence the way someone's character or attitudes develop: I try to take young athletes and mold them into team players.

mold-ing /'mouldɪŋ/ n. [C,U] a thin line of stone, wood, plastic, etc. used as decoration around the edge of something such as a wall, car, or piece of furniture mold-y /'mouldi/ adj. covered with mold: moldy bread

mole /mool/ n. [C] 1 a small brown mark on the skin that is sometimes slightly higher than the skin around it

THESAURUS mark, blemish, bruise, scar, pimple, zit, wart, blister, freckle → MARK²

2 a small animal with brown fur that lives in holes in the ground, and that cannot see well → see picture at RODENT 3 someone who works for an organization, especially a government, in order to secretly give information about it to its enemy 4 also mol CHEMISTRY an amount of a substance that contains 6.0225×10^{23} atoms, molecules, etc., which is equal to the number of atoms in 12 grams of CARBON-12

mol-e-cule /'mələ,kyul/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY one or more atoms that form the smallest unit of a particular substance: a single water molecule [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 French molécule, from Latin moles “mass”] —molecular /mə'lekjələ/ adj.

mo-lest /mə'lest/ v. [T] to attack or harm someone, especially a child, by touching him/her in a sexual way or trying to have sex with him/her: She was sexually molested by her uncle. —molester n. [C]: a child molester —molestation /,moulə'steɪʃən, ,mə-/ n. [U] mol-li-fy /'mələ,fai/ v. (mollified, mollifies) [T] to make someone feel less angry and upset about something: I'm sorry,' Mike said, trying to mollify her. —mollification /,mələfə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] mol-lusk /'mələsk/ n. [C] a type of sea or land animal with a soft body covered by a hard shell, for example a SNAIL or CLAM molt /moult/ v. [I] BIOLOGY when a bird or animal molts, it loses hair, feathers, skin, or shell so that new hair, etc. can grow mol-ten /'moultɪn/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES molten metal or rock is liquid because it has been heated to a very high temperature molt-ing /'moultɪŋ/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a process in which a bird or animal loses its hair, feathers, skin, or shell so that new hair, etc. can grow

mom /mɑm/ n. [C] (informal) mother: Can I go to David's house, Mom? | I called my mom. → RELATIVE¹

mo-ment /'moumənt/ n. [C] 1 a very short period of time → MINUTE: Robert paused for a moment. | I'll be back in a moment. | Could you wait just a moment? | He was here a moment ago. | Denise arrived moments later. 2 a particular point in time: Just at that moment, Shelly came in. | I knew it was you the moment (that) I heard your voice. | He said he loved her from the moment (that) he met her. | At that very/exact/precise moment, the phone rang. 3 at the moment now: Japanese food is popular at the moment. 4 any moment soon: The attack could come at any moment. 5 for the moment used in order to say that something is happening now but will probably change in the future: For the moment, she decided not to argue. 6 a particular period of time when you have a chance to do something: It was her big moment (=important chance); she took a deep breath and began to play. | Jo speaks out against sexism, but knows she has to choose her moments (=choose the best time) carefully.

mo-men-tar-i-ly /,moumənt'etərɪli/ adv. 1 for a very short time: The car slowed down momentarily. 2 very soon: I'll be with you momentarily.

mo-men-tar-y /'moumənt,etəri/ adj. continuing for a very short time: a momentary silence mo-men-tous /mou'mentəs, mə-/ adj. a momentous event, occasion, decision, etc. is very important, especially because of the effects it will have in the future: the momentous events of the past year

mo-men-tum /mou'mentəm, mə-/ n. [U] 1 the ability to keep increasing, developing, or being more successful: Leconte won the first set, then seemed to lose momentum. | Cellular phone use has gained/gathered momentum in the past few years. 2 the force that makes a moving object keep moving: I'd gained/gathered so much momentum (=moved faster and faster) that I couldn't stop. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin “movement, moment,” from movere “to move”] mom-ma /'mɑmə/ n. [C] (spoken) mother mom-my /'mami/ n. (plural mommies) [C] (spoken) mother → RELATIVE¹

mon-arch /'mɑnək, 'mɑnɑrk/ n. [C] a king or queen [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Late Latin monarcha, from Greek, from mono- + -archos (from archein “to rule”)]

THESAURUS king, queen, prince, princess, ruler, emperor, sovereign → KING

mon-ar-chy /'mɑnəki/ n. (plural monarchies) 1 [U] the system in which a country is ruled by a king or queen → REPUBLIC

THESAURUS government, democracy, republic, regime, dictatorship, totalitarian country/state, etc., police state → GOVERNMENT

2 [C] a country that is ruled by a king or queen

mon-as-ter-y /'mɒnə,steri/ n. (plural monasteries) [C] a building or group of buildings in which MONKS live → CONVENT [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Late Latin monasterium, from Greek, from monazein “to live alone”]

mo-nas-tic /mə'næstɪk/ adj. relating to MONKS or a monastery

Mon-day /'mʌndi, -dei/ (written abbreviation Mon.) n. (plural Mondays) [C,U] the second day of the week, between Sunday and Tuesday: The results will be announced Monday. | It snowed on Monday. | We'll see you next Monday. | Kelly arrived last Monday. | I'll call you first thing Monday morning. [ORIGIN: from Old English monandæg, from a translation of Latin lunae dies “day of the moon”]

mon-e-tar-y /'mʌnə,teri/ adj. ECONOMICS relating to money, especially all the money in a particular country: France's monetary policy

mon-ey /'mʌni/ n. [U] 1 what you earn by working and use in order to buy things, for example coins or special pieces of paper → CASH, CURRENCY: $250 is a lot of money. | the amount of money California spends on schools | Teachers don't make/earn a lot of money. | We're trying to save enough money for a trip to Europe. | Women tend to spend their money on their families. | I forgot my wallet – do you have enough money to pay for the meal? | Buying a used truck is a waste of money. | The raffle is to raise money for the school. | Plumbers can make good money (=good wages). | a business that is losing money (=earning less money than it spends)

THESAURUS

Types of money

bill – paper money: a $20 bill coin – metal money: old coins penny – a coin worth 1 cent nickel – a coin worth 5 cents dime – a coin worth 10 cents quarter – a coin worth 25 cents cash – money in the form of coins and bills: I didn't have enough cash, so I paid by check.

change – money in the form of coins: Do you have any change for the phone?

currency – the money used in a particular country: He had $500 worth of Japanese currency.

2 all the money that a person, country, or organization owns: Is Ed just marrying her for her money? | I think he made his money on the stock market. 3 get your money's worth to think that something you have paid to do or see was worth the price that you paid: Fans should get their money's worth.

SPOKEN PHRASES

4 this/that kind of money a phrase meaning a lot of money, used when you think something costs too much, when someone earns a lot more than other people, etc.: The rent was $5,250, and I just don't have that kind of money. 5 pay good money for sth to spend a lot of money on something: I paid good money for those shoes! 6 for my money used when giving your opinion about something, to emphasize that you believe it strongly: For my money, Williams was a much better ballplayer. 7 put your money where your mouth is to show by your actions that you really believe what you say: The legislature needs to put its money where its mouth is regarding the environment. 8 money is no object used in order to say that you can spend as much money as you want to on something

[ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French monnaie, from Latin moneta “mint, money,” from Moneta, name given to Juno, the goddess in whose temple the ancient Romans produced money]

mon-ey-mak-er /'mʌni,meɪkə/ n. [C] ECONOMICS a product or business that earns a lot of money

'money market n. [C] ECONOMICS the banks and other financial institutions that buy and sell BONDS, CURRENCY (=paper money), etc.

'money order n. [C] a special type of check that you buy and send to someone so that s/he can exchange it for money

'money sup-ply n. [singular] ECONOMICS all the money that exists in a country's ECONOMY at a particular time, and the speed at which it is used mon-grel /'mʌŋgrəl, 'mʌŋ-/ n. [C] a dog that is a mix of several breeds → MUTT

mon-i-tor¹ /'mʌnəʔə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 IT a piece of equipment, especially computer equipment, that looks like a television and shows information or pictures: the regular beeps from the patient's heart monitor | a flat-screen monitor → see picture on page A6 2 someone whose job is to make sure that something happens fairly or in the right way: UN monitors will oversee the elections. 3 a child who is chosen to help a teacher in some way [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin monere “to warn”]

monitor² v. [T] to carefully watch, listen to, or examine something over a period of time, to check for any changes or developments: Nurses are monitoring the patient's condition. | Army intelligence has been closely monitoring the enemy's radio broadcasts.

monk /mʌŋk/ n. [C] a man who is a member of a group of religious men who live together in a MONASTERY (=special building) → NUN

mon-key¹ /'mʌŋki/ n. (plural monkeys) [C] 1 a type of active animal that lives in hot countries and has a long tail that it uses with its hands to climb trees 2 (informal) a small child who is active and likes to play tricks 3 monkey business behavior that may cause trouble or be dishonest monkey² v. (monkeyed, monkeyes) monkey (around) with sth phr. v. to touch or change something, usually when you do not know how to do it correctly: They should stop monkeying around with the tax system.

M

M

'monkey bars n. [plural] a structure of metal bars for children to climb on

'monkey wrench n. [C] a tool that is used for holding or turning things of different widths, especially NUTS mon-o /'manou/ n. [U] (informal) an infectious illness that makes you feel weak and tired for a long time mon-o-chro-mat-ic /,manəkrou'mætɪk/ adj. PHYSICS monochromatic light has only one WAVELENGTH

mon-o-cot-y-le-don /,manəkətl'idn/ also mon-o-cot /'manəkət/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a type of plant that has seeds which produce one COTYLEDON (=first leaf) when it first starts to grow. An example of a monocotyledon is grass. → DICOTYLEDON mo-nog-a-my /mə'nəgəmi/ n. [U] the CUSTOM or practice of being married to only one person at one time → POLYGAMY —monogamous /mə'nəgəməs/ adj.

mon-o-gram /'manəgræm/ n. [C] a design made from the first letters of someone's names that is put on things such as shirts or writing paper —monogrammed adj.

mon-o-lith-ic /,manl'iθɪk/ adj. a monolithic organization, political system, etc. is very large and difficult to change —monolith /'manl-iθ/ n. [C] mon-o-logue, monolog /'manlɒg, -,əg/ n. [C] a long speech by one character in a play, movie, or television show mon-o-mer /'manəmə/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a MOLECULE with a simple chemical structure, which can combine with other molecules to form a POLYMER mo-no-mi-al /mə'noʊmiəl/ n. [C] MATH an EXPRESSION in ALGEBRA that consists of only a single group of numbers, letters, or INDEXES. For example, y , $5x$, or $5x^2y$ is a monomial, but $2x + 9y$ is not. → POLYNOMIAL

mon-o-nu-cle-o-sis /,manou'nukli'ousɪs/ n. [U] (formal) MONO mo-nop-o-lize /mə'nəpəlaɪz/ v. [T] (disapproving) to have complete control over something, especially a type of business, so that other people cannot get involved: Big farming corporations are starting to monopolize the industry. —monopolization /mə'nəpələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [U]

Mo-nop-o-ly /mə'nəpəli/ n. [U] (trademark) a game using artificial money in which you try to get more money and property than your opponents monopoly n. (plural monopolies) [C usually singular] 1 ECONOMICS the control of all or most of a business activity, or the company that has this control: The train company has a monopoly on/over services to New Jersey. 2 have a monopoly on sth to have complete control or possession of something, so that other people cannot have it: No country has a monopoly on bravery. —monopolistic /mə'nəpə'lɪstɪk/ adj.

mon-o-rail /'manəreɪl/ n. [C] a type of railroad that uses a single RAIL, or the train that travels on this type of railroad mon-o-sac-cha-ride /,manou'sækə,raɪd/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a type of natural sugar, such as GLUCOSE, that has a very simple chemical structure → POLYSACCHARIDE mon-o-syl-lab-ic /,manəsɪ'læbɪk/ adj. 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS a monosyllabic word has only one SYLLABLE → POLYSYLLABIC 2 someone who is monosyllabic, or makes monosyllabic remarks, seems impolite because s/he does not say much: a monosyllabic response

mon-o-the-ism /'manəθi,ɪzəm/ n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the belief that there is only one God → POLYTHEISM —monotheistic /,manəθi'ɪstɪk/ adj.

mon-o-tone /'manə,toun/ n. [singular] a way of talking that is boring because it does not get louder or softer: She read aloud in a monotone.

mo-not-o-nous /mə'nat'nəs/ adj. boring because nothing changes: a monotonous job —monotony n. [U] —monotonously adv.

THESAURUS boring, dull, tedious → BORING

mon-soon /man'sun/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES the season, from April to October, when it rains a lot in India and other southern Asian countries, or the rain or wind that happens during this season [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Early Dutch monssoen, from Portuguese monção, from Arabic mawsim "time, season"]

mon-ster /'mɒnstə/ n. [C] 1 an imaginary large ugly frightening creature: a sea monster 2 someone who is cruel and evil: Only a monster could kill an innocent child. 3 an object, animal, etc. that is unusually large: The storm was a monster. —monster adj.

mon-stros-i-ty /man'strasəti/ n. (plural monstrosities) [C] something large that is very ugly, especially a building mon-strous /'mɒnstrəs/ adj. 1 very wrong, immoral, or unfair: a monstrous crime 2 unusually large: a monstrous animal —monstrously adv.

mon-tage /man'taʒ, moun-/ n. 1 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS an art form in which a picture, movie, etc. is made by combining parts of different pictures, etc. 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a picture, movie, etc. made using this process month /mʌnθ/ n. [C] 1 one of the 12 periods of time that a year is divided into: the month of May | He's starting college at the end of this month. | the meeting last/next month (=the month before or after this one) | We see my parents once/twice etc. a month. 2 any period of time equal to about four weeks: a six-month-old baby | We'll be back a month from today/tomorrow/Friday. 3 months a long time: He was in the hospital for months. [ORIGIN: Old English monath]

GRAMMAR

Talking about months

Use in to talk about a month but not about a particular date in that month: The concert is in August.

Use on to talk about a particular date in a month: The concert is on August 20th. | She finishes school on the nineteenth of July.

You can use next to talk about a month in the year after the present one: They're getting married next June.

You can also use this or this coming to talk about a month in the very near future: This coming October, my daughter turns 15.

You can use last to talk about a month before the present one: She left last October.

You can also use this or this past to talk about a month in the very recent past: He returned to Los Angeles this past July.

month-ly /'mʌnθli/ adj., adv. 1 happening or done every month: a monthly meeting | The windows are cleaned monthly.

THESAURUS

regular, hourly, daily, weekly, yearly, annual → REGULAR¹

2 relating to a single month: his monthly income

mon-u-ment /'mʌnɪmənt/ n. [C] a building or other large structure that is built to remind people of an important event or famous person → STATUE: a monument to soldiers killed in the war [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin monumentum, from monere "to remind"] mon-u-men-tal /'mʌnɪ'mentl/ adj. [usually before noun] 1 extremely large, bad, good, impressive, etc.: a monumental task 2 very important and having a lot of influence: Darwin's monumental work on evolution moo /mu/ n. [C] the sound that a cow makes —moo v. [I] mood /mud/ n. 1 [C] the way you feel at a particular time: You're certainly in a good/bad mood today. 2 be in the mood to want to do something or feel that you would enjoy something: He wasn't in the mood for jokes. 3 [singular] the way a group of people feels about something or about life in general: The mood of the country has changed. 4 [C usually singular] the way that a place, book, movie, etc. makes you feel: The opening shot of dark, rainy streets sets the mood for the whole movie. 5 mood swings occasions when someone's mood changes from being happy to being sad or angry, usually for no reason 6 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, one of the sets of verb forms that show whether the speaker is describing facts, giving orders, or expressing a wish or doubt. These verb forms are called the INDICATIVE (=used to express a fact or action), the IMPERATIVE (=used to express a command), and the SUBJUNCTIVE (=used to express a doubt or wish).

mood-y /'mudi/ adj. (comparative moodier, superlative moodiest) 1 (disapproving) someone who is moody becomes angry or sad quickly: a moody teenager 2 making people feel sad, worried, or frightened: the song's moody lyrics

moon¹ /mun/ n. 1 the Moon also the moon PHYSICS the round object that shines in the sky at night: The moon rose over the frozen lake. | the craters on the surface of the Moon → SPACE¹ → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM 2 [singular] the shape of this object as it appears at a particular time: There's no moon tonight (=it cannot be seen). | a full moon (=the moon when it looks completely round) | the new moon (=the moon when it first appears again in the sky as a thin CRESCENT) 3 [C] PHYSICS a large round object that moves around PLANETS other than the Earth: Saturn has several moons. [ORIGIN: Old English mona] → once in a blue moon at ONCE¹

moon² v. [I,T] (informal) to bend over and show your uncovered BUTTOCKS to someone as a rude joke moon-less /'munlɪs/ adj. without the moon showing in the sky: a cloudy moonless night moon-light¹ /'munlaɪt/ n. [U] the light of the moon: The water looked silver in the moonlight.

moonlight² v. [I] (informal) to have a second job in addition to your main job: Clayton's been moonlighting as a security guard. —moonlighting n. [U] moon-lit /'mun,lɪt/ adj. made brighter by the light of the moon: a beautiful moonlit night moon-shine /'munʃaɪn/ n. [U] (informal) strong alcohol that is produced illegally moor /mʊr/ v. [I,T] to fasten a ship or boat to the land or the bottom of the sea, lake, etc. with a rope or chain moor-ing /'mʊrɪŋ/ n. [C] the place where a ship or boat moors moose /mus/ n. [C] a large wild North American, European, or Asian animal with large ANTLERS (=flat horns that look like branches) and a head like a horse moot /mut/ adj. a situation or possible action that is moot is no longer likely to happen or exist, or is no longer important: I've already handed in my notice, so whether it was the right thing to do is a moot point.

mop¹ /map/ n. [C] 1 a thing for washing floors, made of a long stick with thick strings or a SPONGE fastened to one end 2 (informal) a large amount of thick messy hair: a mop of curly hair

mop² v. (mopped, mopping) [T] 1 to wash a floor with a wet mop

THESAURUS

clean, do the housework, vacuum, sweep (up), scrub → CLEAN²

M

M

2 to remove liquid from a surface by rubbing it with a cloth or something soft: He mopped his face with a napkin.

mop sth ↔ up phr. v. to clean liquid off a surface using a mop, cloth, or something soft: We mopped up the spill with a rag.

mope /moʊp/ also mope around v. [I] to pity yourself and feel sad, without trying to be happier: Jack just moped around the house all day feeling guilty.

mo-ped /'moʊpəd/ n. [C] a vehicle like a bicycle with a small engine mo-raine /mə'reɪn/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES rock, sand, clay, etc. that is pushed along in front of a GLACIER when it moves forward, and that is left in place when the glacier melts

mor-al /'mɔrəl, 'mɔrəl/ adj. [usually before noun] 1 relating to the principles of what is right and wrong behavior, and the difference between good and evil (ANT) immoral: a moral issue such as the death penalty | There are doubts about his ethical and moral standards/values. | a moral responsibility/obligation/duty to help the poor 2 moral support encouragement that you give by expressing approval or interest, rather than by giving practical help: I went along to offer moral support. 3 moral victory a situation in which you show that your beliefs are right and fair, even if you do not win 4 always behaving in a way that is based on strong principles about what is right and wrong: a moral man moral² n. 1 morals [plural] principles or standards of good behavior, especially in matters of sex: You're dealing with someone who has no morals or ethics.

THESAURUS

ethics – moral rules or principles of behavior for deciding what is right and wrong: Corporations should learn to care about ethics as much as profit.

standards – moral principles about what kind of behavior and attitudes are acceptable: Are the country's moral standards lower than in the past?

values – your beliefs about what is right and wrong, or about what is important in life: Children should learn values from their parents.

principles – a set of rules or ideas about what is right and wrong that influences how you behave: He tries to live according to his Christian principles.

scruples – a belief about what is right and wrong that prevents you from doing something bad: No one should set aside their moral scruples when they go to work.

mores (formal) – the customs, social behavior, and moral values of a particular group: During the 1960's, American sexual mores began to change.

2 [C] a practical lesson about how to behave that you learn from a story or from something that happens to you: The moral of the story is that crime doesn't pay.

mo-rale /mə'ræl/ n. [U] a person's or group's morale is how good, bad, or confident they feel about their situation: The employees' morale is low/high (=bad/good).

mor-al-ist-ic /,mɔrə'lɪstɪk/, 'mɔr-/ adj. (disapproving) having very strong beliefs about what is right and wrong, and about how people should behave —moralist /'mɔrəlɪst, 'mɔ-/ n. [C] mo-ral-i-ty /mə'ræləti/ n. [U] 1 beliefs or ideas about what is right and wrong, and about how people should behave: declining standards of morality 2 the degree to which something is right or acceptable: a discussion on the morality of the death penalty

mor-al-ize /'mɔrəlaɪz, 'mɔr-/ v. [I] (disapproving) to tell other people your ideas about right and wrong behavior, and about how people should behave mor-al-ly /'mɔrəli, 'mɔr-/ adv. 1 according to moral principles about what is right and wrong: It wasn't against the law, but it was morally wrong. 2 in a way that is good and right: He tried to act morally.

mo-rass /mə'ræs/ n. [singular] 1 a complicated and confusing situation that is very difficult to get out of: the country's economic morass 2 a complicated amount of information: a morass of details mor-a-to-ri-um /,mɔrə'tɔriəm, 'mɔr-/ n. [C usually singular] an official announcement stopping an activity for a period of time: a moratorium on nuclear weapons testing mor-bid /'mɔrbɪd/ adj. (disapproving) having a strong interest in unpleasant subjects, especially death: The newspapers printed all the morbid details of the murder. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin morbidus “diseased,” from morbus “illness”] —morbidly adv.

more¹ /mɔr/ adv. 1 [used before an adjective or adverb to form the comparative] having a particular quality to a greater degree (ANT) less: The second test was more difficult. | It was more expensive than I thought it would be. | People change careers much/a lot/far more frequently now. | Teenagers rely more and more on their friends. | Children are no more likely than adults to develop the disease. 2 happening a greater number of times, or for longer (ANT) less: I promised I'd help more in the house. | We see our grandchildren more than we used to. | He's been working a lot more lately. 3 not ... any more used in order to show that something that used to happen or be true does not happen or is not true now → ANYMORE: Sarah doesn't live here any more. → once more at ONCE¹

more² quantifier [the comparative of “many” and “much”] 1 a greater amount or number: More new jobs were created than were lost in the industry. | The bus was more than two hours late. | More and more schools have their own website. 2 an additional number or amount: Would you like some more coffee? | I have some/a few/many etc. more phone calls to make. | Is there any more cake? | We had no more questions. | We had 5/12/20 more people at the meeting than we expected. | Scott needed to see more of his father.

THESAURUS

another – something in addition to a particular amount, distance, period of time, etc.: Do you want another cup of coffee?

extra – more than the usual or standard amount of something: I always carry an extra key, in case I lose my other one.

additional – more than you already have, or more than was agreed or expected: Additional troops will be sent to the region.

further – more, used especially when something happens again or is done again: Further research is needed.

supplemental/supplementary – additional, used especially when the original amount is not quite enough: Colleges can help students who need more money to get supplemental loans.

3 more or less almost: This report says more or less the same thing as the other one.

more-o-ver /mɔː'ʊvə/ adv. (formal) a word meaning “in addition to this” that is used in order to add information to something that has just been said: The rent is reasonable, and, moreover, it's close to work.

mo-res /'mɔːreɪz/ n. [plural] (formal) the CUSTOMS, social behavior, and moral values of a particular group: American social mores

THESAURUS

moral, ethics, standards, values → MORAL² morgue /mɔːrg/ n. [C] a building or room where dead bodies are kept before they are buried or burned

Mor-mon /'mɔːmən/ adj. relating to a religious organization called The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, that has strict moral rules such as not allowing its members to drink alcohol and coffee —Mormon n. [C] —Mormonism n. [U]

morn-ing /'mɔːnɪŋ/ n. 1 [C,U] the early part of the day, especially from when the Sun rises until the middle of the day: I got a letter from Wayne this morning. | The freeway is usually jammed in the morning. | Andy woke up at two/three etc. in the morning (=during the night). | the TV programs that are on Saturday/Tuesday etc. morning | a meeting yesterday/tomorrow morning | a sunny/cloudy/foggy etc. morning | I had my morning coffee/walk/routine etc. (=coffee, etc. that you have in the morning) 2 (Good) Morning (spoken) said in order to greet someone when you meet him/her in the morning: Morning, Rick.

'morning sickness n. [U] a feeling of sickness that some women have when they are PREGNANT mo-ron /'mɔːrən/ n. [C] someone who is very stupid —moronic /mə'reɪnɪk/ adj.

mo-rose /mə'rouz/ adj. (literary) unhappy, silent, and in a bad mood —morosely adv.

THESAURUS

sad, unhappy, miserable, sorrowful, depressed, down, low, blue, downhearted, melancholy, gloomy, glum → SAD

morph /mɔːrf/ v. 1 [I,T] IT to make one image gradually change into a different image by using a computer, or to gradually change into a different image 2 [I] (informal) to gradually change into something different: At that time, I was morphing into being a single mom.

mor-pheme /'mɔːfɪm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the smallest unit of language that has meaning, consisting of a word or part of a word that cannot be divided without losing its meaning. For example, “gun” contains one morpheme, but “gunfighter” contains three: “gun,” “fight,” and “-er.” → PHO-NEME mor-phine /'mɔːfɪn/ n. [U] a powerful drug used for stopping pain [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French Morpheus ancient Roman god of sleep]

mor-phol-o-gy /mɔː'fɒlədʒi/ n. [U] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS the study of the morphemes of a language and of the way in which they are joined together to make words → SYNTAX 2 BIOLOGY the scientific study of how animals, plants, and their parts are formed

Morse code /,mɔːs 'kəʊd/ n. [U] a system of sending messages in which the alphabet is represented by short and long signals of sound or light mor-sel /'mɔːsəl/ n. [C] a small piece of food: a morsel of bread

mor-tal¹ /'mɔːtl/ adj. 1 not living forever (ANT) immortal: mortal creatures 2 mortal injuries/blow/danger etc. injuries, etc. that will cause death or are likely to cause death 3 mortal fear/terror/dread extreme fear [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin mortalis, from mors “death”] —mortally adv.: *He was mortally wounded.

mortal² n. 1 lesser/ordinary/mere mortals (humorous) an expression meaning ordinary people, as compared with people who are more important or more powerful 2 [C] (literary) a human mor-tal-i-ty /mɔː'tæləti/ n. [U] 1 also mortal-ity rate the number of deaths during a particular period of time among a particular group of people or from a particular cause: a decrease in the infant mortality rate (=the rate at which babies die) 2 the condition of being human and having to die mor-tar /'mɔːtə/ n. 1 [C] a heavy gun that fires explosives in a high curve 2 [U] a mixture of LIME, sand, and water, used in building for sticking bricks or stones together

M

M

mort-tar-board

/ˈmɔrtəˌbɔrd/ n. [C] a cap with a flat square top that you wear when you GRADUATE from a HIGH SCHOOL, college, or university

mort-gage¹

/ˈmɔrgɪdʒ/ n.

[C] 1 ECONOMICS an agreement in which you borrow money from a bank in order to buy a house, and pay back the money over a period of years: We took out a bigger mortgage (=borrowed money) to pay for the work on the house. | a mortgage on the farm 2 ECONOMICS the amount of money lent on a mortgage: a mortgage of $100,000 [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French mort “dead” + gage “promise”]

mortgage² v. [T] ECONOMICS to borrow money by giving someone, usually a bank, the right to own your house, land, or property if you do not pay back the money the person or bank lent you within a certain period of time mort-ti-cian /ˈmɔrtɪʃən/ n. [C] someone whose job is to arrange funerals and prepare bodies before they are buried mort-ti-fy /ˈmɔrtɪfaɪ/ v. be mortified to feel extremely embarrassed or ashamed: Harry was mortified by his mistake. —mortifying adj. —mortification /ˌmɔrtəfəˈkeɪʃən/ n. [U] mort-tu-ar-y /ˈmɔrtʃuəri/ n. (plural mortuaries) [C] the place where a body is kept before a funeral and where the funeral is sometimes held mo-sa-ic /mouˈzeɪɪk/ n. [C,U] a pattern or picture made by fitting together small pieces of colored stone, glass, etc.

mosh /mɔʃ/ v. [I] (informal) to dance using a lot of energy at a concert with loud ROCK or PUNK music mosque /mask/ n. [C] a building where Muslims go to have religious services [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French mosquee, from Old Spanish mezquita, from Arabic sajada “to lie face downward”] mos-qui-to /məˈskiːtoʊ/ n. (plural mosquitoes) [C] a small flying insect that bites and sucks the blood of people and animals, making you ITCH and sometimes spreading diseases [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Spanish mosca “fly,” from Latin musca] moss /mɒs/ n. [U] a small flat green or yellow plant that looks like fur and often grows on trees and rocks —mossy adj.

Mos-lem /ˈmɔzləm, ˈmas-/ n. [C] a MUSLIM —Moslem adj.

most¹ /moʊst/ adv. 1 [used before an adjective or adverb to form the superlative] having the greatest amount of a particular quality: Basketball is the most popular sport. | She has lived in France, Italy, and, most recently, Spain. | the most powerful man in the world 2 to a greater degree, or more times than anything else: Which do you like most? | It's been challenging, but most of all, it's been fun. 3 (spoken, informal) almost: We eat at Joe's most every weekend.

most² quantifier [the superlative of “many” and “much”] 1 almost all of the people or things in a group → MAJORITY: Most of the books were old. | Polls show that most Americans don't eat enough fruit. 2 a larger amount or number than anyone or anything else: Which class has the most children? | The team that scores the most points wins. 3 the largest number or amount possible: How can we get the most power from the engine? 4 at (the) most used in order to say that a number or amount will not be larger than you say: It'll take twenty minutes at the most. 5 for the most part used in order to say that something is generally true but not completely true: For the most part, they did a pretty good job. 6 make the most of sth/get the most out of sth to get the greatest possible advantage from a situation: It's your only chance, so make the most of it.

GRAMMAR

most, most of

Use most immediately before a plural noun form or an uncountable noun when you are talking about something in general: I like most kinds of music. | Most oil comes from the Middle East.

Use most of before “the,” “this,” “my,” etc. and a noun when you are talking about a particular group or thing: Most of the houses are new. | Most of her friends still lived with their parents.

most-ly /ˈmoʊstli/ adv. in most cases, or most of the time: The room was full of athletes, mostly football players. | Mostly, we talked about marriage and kids. ▶ Don't say “mostly all,” “mostly everybody,” etc. Say “almost all,” “almost everybody,” etc. ◀ mo-tel /moʊˈtɛl/ n. [C] a hotel for people traveling by car, with a place for the car near each room

THESAURUS

hotel, inn, bed and breakfast

(b&b), hostel → HOTEL

moth /mɒθ/ n. [C] an insect similar to a BUTTERFLY, that usually flies at night, especially toward lights → see picture at BUTTERFLY moth-ball¹ /ˈmɒθbɔːl/ v. [T] (informal) to close a factory or operation, and keep all its equipment or plans for a long time without using them mothball² n. [C] a small ball made of a strong-smelling chemical, used for keeping moths away from clothes moth-er /ˈmʌðər/ n. [C] 1 a female parent: My mother said I have to be home by 9:00. | a mother of three (=with three children) | a mother hen and her chicks → RELATIVE¹ 2 (spoken) something that is a very good or very bad example of its type, or that is very impressive: I woke up with the mother of all hangovers. [ORIGIN: Old English modor]

—mother v. [T]

moth-er-board /'mʌðəˌbɔːrd/ n. [C] IT the main CIRCUIT BOARD inside a computer moth-er-hood /'mʌðəˌhʊd/ n. [U] the state of being a mother moth-er-ing /'mʌðərɪŋ/ n. [U] the activity of a mother taking care of her children

'mother-in-law n. (plural mothers-in-law) [C] the mother of your husband or wife moth-er-ly /'mʌðəli/ adj. typical of a kind or concerned mother: The teacher was a motherly woman.

'Mother 'Nature n. [U] an expression used in order to talk about the Earth, its weather, and the living creatures and plants on it

'mother-of-'pearl n. [U] a pale-colored smooth shiny substance on the inside of some shells, used for making buttons, jewelry, etc.

'Mother's Day n. a holiday in honor of mothers, celebrated in the U.S. and Canada on the second Sunday of May

'mother-to-'be n. (plural mothers-to-be) [C] a woman who is going to have a baby mo-tif /mou'tɪf/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS an idea, subject, or pattern that is regularly repeated and developed in a book, movie, work of art, etc.

mo-tion¹ /'mouʃən/ n. 1 [U] the process of moving, or the way that someone or something moves: the gentle rolling motion of the ship 2 [C] a single movement of your head, hand, etc.: One of the soldiers made a chopping motion with his hand. 3 [C] a proposal that is made formally at a meeting and then decided on by voting: The motion to increase the charges was passed/carried by 15 votes to 10. | Janke made/proposed a motion that the meeting be adjourned. | The motion was seconded by Levin. 4 in slow motion if something on television or in the movies is shown in slow motion, it is shown more slowly than usual so that all the actions can be clearly seen: Let's look at that touchdown in slow motion. 5 set sth in motion to start a process or series of events that will continue: The kidnapping set in motion a massive police investigation. 6 go through the motions to do something because you have to do it, without being very interested in it: Too many of our top players are just going through the motions.

motion² v. [I,T] to give someone directions or instructions by moving your head, hand, etc.: The police officer motioned for me to stop the car.

mo-tion-less /'mouʃənɪs/ adj. not moving at all: Kemp sat motionless as the verdict was read.

'motion 'picture n. [C] a movie mo-ti-vate /'mouʃəˌveɪt/ [Ac] v. [T] 1 to make someone feel determined or eager to do something: Praise, rather than criticism, motivates children to do well. 2 motivating factor/force the reason why someone behaves in a particular way: Money was the main the motivating factor behind their decision.

mo-ti-vat-ed /'mouʃəˌveɪtɪd/ [Ac] adj. 1 very eager to do or achieve something: an intelligent and highly motivated student 2 done for a particular reason: The killings were thought to be racially motivated (=done because someone hates other races).

mo-ti-va-tion /,mouʃəˌveɪʃən/ [Ac] n. 1 [U] the determination and desire to do something: Jack is smart, but he lacks motivation. | If the task is too difficult, learners lose motivation. 2 [C] the reason why you want to do something: a student's motivation for learning | What was the motivation behind his actions? —motivational adj.: a motivational speech

mo-tive /'mouʃɪv/ [Ac] n. [C] the reason that makes someone do something, especially when this reason is kept hidden: Police are trying to find out the motive for the attack. | The people began to question the motives of their leaders. → ulterior motive at ULTERIOR

THESAURUS

reason, explanation, excuse, rationale, grounds → REASON¹ mot-ley /'matli/ adj. (disapproving) a motley crew/bunch/assortment etc. a group of people or other things that do not seem to belong together mo-tor¹ /'mouʃə/ n. [C] the part of a machine that makes it work or move → ENGINE: The drill is powered by a small electric motor.

motor² adj. 1 using power provided by an engine: a motor vehicle 2 relating to the way muscles are controlled: a child's motor skills mo-tor-bike /'mouʃəˌbaɪk/ n. [C] a motorcycle, especially a small one → see picture at TRANSPORTATION

mo-tor-cade /'mouʃəˌkeɪd/ n. [C] a group of cars and other vehicles that travel together and surround a very important person's car mo-tor-cy-cle /'mouʃəˌsaɪkəl/ n. [C] a fast, usually large, two-wheeled vehicle with an engine

'motor home n. [C] a large vehicle with beds, a kitchen, etc. in it, used for traveling [Syn] RV → MOBILE HOME mo-tor-ist /'mouʃərɪst/ n. [C] (formal) someone who drives a car mo-tor-ized /'mouʃəˌraɪzd/ adj. having an engine, especially when something does not usually have an engine: a motorized wheelchair

'motor ,scooter n. [C] a SCOOTER

'motor ,vehicle n. [C] (formal) a car, bus, truck, etc.

mot-tled /'mɒtld/ adj. covered with spots of light and dark colors of different shapes: mottled skin mot-to /'mɒtʊ/ n. (plural mottos) [C] a short statement that expresses the aims or beliefs of a person, school, or institution: The motto of the Boy Scouts is "Be Prepared."

M

M

mound /maʊnd/ n. [C] 1 a pile of dirt, stones, sand, etc. 2 a large pile of something: a mound of papers

THESAURUS

pile, heap, stack, drift →

PILE¹

mount¹ /maʊnt/ v. 1 [I] also mount up to increase gradually in size, degree, or amount → MOUNTING: His debts continued to mount up. | Tensions mounted as we waited for the result. 2 [T] to plan, organize, and begin an event or a course of action: The gallery mounted an exhibition of Weston's photographs. | Guerrillas mounted an attack on the village. 3 [I,T] (formal) to get on a horse or bicycle (ANT dismount) 4 [T] (formal) to go up something such as a set of stairs: He mounted the steps and shook hands with Bianchi. 5 be mounted on sth to be attached to something and supported by it: paintings mounted on the wall [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French monter "to go up," from Latin mons] mount² n. 1 Mount part of the name of a mountain: Mount Everest 2 [C] (literary) an animal, especially a horse, that you ride on mountain /maʊntɪn/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a very high hill: the highest mountain in California | She was the first British woman to climb the mountain. | the mountain ranges (=lines of mountains) in the west | snow-capped mountain peaks (=tops of mountains) → see picture on page A11 2 a very large pile or amount of something: a mountain of work to do

'mountain bike n. [C] a strong bicycle with wide thick tires that you can ride on rough ground

'mountain biking n. [U] the activity of riding a mountain bike on rough ground → see picture on page A4

moun-tain-eeer-ing /maʊntɪnɪrɪŋ/ n. [U] an outdoor activity in which you climb mountains —mountaineer n. [C]

'mountain goat n. [C] a type of goat that lives in the western mountains of North America

'mountain lion n. [C] a COUGAR moun-tain-ous /maʊntɪnəs/ adj. having a lot of mountains: a mountainous region of Europe moun-tain-side /maʊntɪnˌsaɪd/ n. [C] the side of a mountain moun-tain-top /maʊntɪnˌtɒp/ n. [C] the top part of a mountain

Mount-ie /maʊnti/ n. [C] a member of the national police force of Canada mount-ing /maʊntɪŋ/ adj. gradually increasing or becoming worse: There was mounting pressure from the country's political leaders.

mourn /mɔːn/ v. [I,T] to feel very sad because someone has died, and show this in the way you behave: The whole country mourned Kennedy's death. | She was still mourning for her sister.

mourn-er /'mɔːnə/ n. [C] (written) someone who attends a funeral, especially a relative of the dead person mourn-ful /'mɔːnfəl/ adj. (literary) very sad: slow mournful music mourn-ing /'mɔːnɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 great sadness because someone has died: People wore black as a sign of mourning. 2 be in mourning to be very sad because someone has died: She's still in mourning for her son.

mouse /maʊs/ n. [C] 1 (plural mouses or mice /maɪs/) IT a small object connected to a computer by a wire, that you move with your hand to give instructions to the computer → see picture on page A6 2 (plural mice) a small furry animal with a long tail and a pointed nose that lives in buildings or in fields [ORIGIN: Old English mus] → see picture at RODENT

'mouse pad n. [C] IT a small piece of flat material on which you move a computer mouse → see picture on page A6

mousse /mus/ n. [U] 1 a cold sweet food made from a mixture of cream, eggs, and fruit or chocolate: chocolate mousse 2 a slightly sticky substance that you put in your hair to make it look thicker or to hold it in place

mous-tache /'mʌstæʃ, mə'stæʃ/ n. [C] a MUSTACHE

mous-y /'maʊsi, -zi/ adj. (disapproving) 1 mousy hair is a dull brownish-gray color 2 a mousy girl or woman is small, quiet, not interesting, and not attractive mouth¹ /maʊθ/ n. (plural mouths /maʊðz/) [C] 1 the part of your face that you use for speaking and eating: his round face and wide mouth | The beginnings of a smile touched the corners of her mouth. | Don't talk with your mouth full (=full of food). → see picture on page A3 2 open/shut your mouth to start to speak, or to stop speaking: Shut your mouth, Tonya! | He was afraid to open his mouth during the meeting. 3 keep your mouth shut (informal) to not say what you are thinking, or not tell someone a secret: I was getting really mad, but I kept my mouth shut. 4 an opening, entrance, or way out: the mouth of a river (=where it joins the ocean) | the mouth of a jar 5 big mouth (informal) someone who is a big mouth or has a big mouth often says things that s/he should not say 6 make your mouth water if food makes your mouth water, it smells or looks so good you want to eat it immediately → MOUTH-WATERING 7 open-mouthed/wide-mouthed etc. with an open, wide, etc. mouth [ORIGIN: Old English muth] → shoot your mouth off at SHOOT¹

mouth² /maʊð/ v. [T] to move your lips as if you are saying words, but without making any sound: Kim looked at me and mouthed, "It's O.K." → BAD-MOUTH mouth off phr. v. (informal) to talk angrily or rudely to someone: a boxer mouthed off to his opponent mouth-ful /'maʊθfʊl/ n. [C] an amount of food or drink that you put into your mouth at one time: He swallowed a mouthful of coffee.

mouth-piece /'maʊθpiːs/ n. [C] 1 the part of a musical instrument, telephone, etc. that you put in your mouth or next to your mouth 2 a person, newspaper, etc. that expresses the opinions of a government or a political organization, especially without ever criticizing these opinions: The newspaper is the mouthpiece of the ruling party.

mouth-wash /'maʊθwɔːʃ, -wɔːʃ/ n. [U] a liquid you can use to make your mouth smell fresh or to get rid of an infection in your mouth

'mouth-watering adj. food that is mouth-watering looks or smells extremely good mov-a-ble /'mʊvəbəl/ adj. able to be moved (ANT) immovable: dolls with movable arms and legs

move¹ /mʊv/ v.

1 CHANGE POSITION [I,T] to change from one place or position to another, or to make something do this → MOTION: Molly sat down and refused to move. | Could you move your car, please? | Pat moved closer to/toward her. | She moved slowly/quickly etc. to the door. | The kids were moving around the classroom, choosing activities.

2 NEW PLACE [I,T] to go to a new place to live, work, or study, or to make someone do this: Her parents are moving into a retirement home. | The army paid to move our family to Germany.

3 CHANGE JOB/CLASS ETC. [I,T] to change to a different job, class, etc., or to make someone do this: He moved easily from teaching into administration. | Some students were moved into the intermediate class.

4 get moving also move it (spoken) used in order to say that someone needs to hurry: If you don't get moving, you'll miss the bus.

5 PROGRESS [I] to progress or change in a particular way: The talks seem to be moving swiftly toward a deal.

6 START DOING STH [I] to start doing something in order to achieve something: U.S. leaders should move quickly to outlaw these weapons. | The Senate has not yet moved on (=not done anything as a result of) the suggestions from the committee.

7 FEEL EMOTION [T] to make someone feel a strong emotion, especially sadness or sympathy → MOVING: The mourners were all moved to tears by the poem. | The audience, deeply/genuinely moved, was silent.

8 CHANGE ARRANGEMENTS [T] to change the time or order of something: The meeting's been moved to Tuesday.

9 MEETING [I] (formal) to make an official suggestion at a meeting: Dr. Reder moved that the proposal be accepted.

10 GO FAST [I] (informal) to travel very fast: That truck was really moving. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French mouvoir, from Latin movere] move away phr. v.

to go to live in a different area: I lost touch with her when her family moved away.

move in phr. v.

1 also move into to start living in a new house (ANT) move out: When are you moving into your new house?

2 to start living with someone in the same house: After her father died, she moved in with her aunt. | Al and Bridget have moved in together.

3 to start being involved in and controlling a situation that someone else controlled previously: huge companies moving in on small businesses move on phr. v.

1 to leave your present job, class, or activity and start doing another one: After 12 years as principal here, Garcia will move on to a new school this fall.

2 to leave a place where you have been staying or doing something in order to continue to another place: We stayed in Singapore for a few days and then decided to move on.

3 to start talking or writing about a new subject in a speech, book, discussion, etc.: Before we move on, does anyone have any questions?

4 to develop in your life, and change your relationships, interests, activities, etc.: Harry left you a year ago; it's time for you to move on.

5 to progress, improve, or become more modern as time passes: By the time the software was ready, the market had moved on.

move out phr. v.

to leave the house where you are living in order to go to live somewhere else (ANT) move in: When did Bob move out? | I moved out of my folk's place when I turned 18.

move over phr. v.

to change position so that there is space for someone or something else: Move over a little, so I can sit down.

move up phr. v.

to get a better job, or change to a more advanced group, higher rank, or higher level: Students have to pass oral and written exams before moving up. | Moving up the economic ladder is everyone's dream.

move² n. [C] 1 something that you decide to do in order to achieve something or make progress: The White House says the statement is a move toward peace. | I'm not sure that's a good/bad/wise etc. move. | The government made no move to end the conflict. 2 an action in which someone moves in a particular direction: dancers practicing their moves | Grover made a move toward the door. | They watched us, but made no move to stop us. 3 be on the move to travel or move a lot: These little fish are always on the move. 4 get a move on (spoken) said when you want someone to hurry: Get a move on, or we'll be late! 5 the process of leaving the place where you live or work and going to live or work somewhere else: We visited Seattle several times before deciding to make the move. 6 the act of changing the position of one of the objects in a game: It's your move, Jane.

M

M

move-ment /'mʊvmənt/ n. 1 [C,U] an action in which something or someone changes position or moves from one place to another: the dancer's graceful movements | troop movements in the desert | the movement of goods across the border 2 [C] a group of people who share the same ideas or beliefs and work together to achieve a particular aim: the civil rights/antiwar/feminist etc. movement | the movement for democracy 3 [C] a change or development in a situation or in people's attitudes or behavior: a movement away from/toward fairness in employment 4 [C] one of the main parts into which a piece of music such as a SYMPHONY is divided 5 [C] the moving parts of a piece of machinery, especially a clock 6 [C] (formal) the action of getting rid of waste matter from your BOWELS

mov-er /'mʊvə/ n. [C] 1 someone whose job is to help people move from one house to another 2 mover and shaker an important person who has power and influence over what happens in a situation

mov-ie /'muvi/ n. [C] 1 a story that is told using sound and moving pictures (SYN) film: I was watching a movie on television when the phone rang. | I've seen that movie twice. | She appeared in several TV movies.

THESAURUS

Types of movies

feature film – a movie made to be shown in movie theaters comedy – a movie intended to make people laugh romantic comedy – a movie about love that is intended to make the people who watch it feel happy thriller – an exciting movie about murder or serious crimes western – a movie with cowboys in it action movie – a movie that has lots of fighting, explosions, etc.

horror movie – a frightening movie about ghosts, murders, etc.

science fiction movie – a movie about imaginary events in the future or in outer space animated movie/cartoon – a movie with characters that are drawn or made using a computer flick (informal) – a movie: an action flick film – a movie, especially one that people think is very good or important: a foreign film

People who make movies

actor – a man or woman who acts in a movie actress – a woman who acts in a movie star – a famous actor or actress director – the person who tells the actors and actresses in a movie what to do producer – the person who makes the arrangements for a movie to be made and controls the movie's budget (=the money available to make the film) film/movie crew – the people operating the camera, lights, etc. who help the director make a movie

2 the movies the theater where you go to watch a movie: Do you want to go to the movies with us?

'movie star n. [C] a famous movie actor or actress

'movie theater n. [C] a building where you go to watch movies

mov-ing /'mʊvɪŋ/ adj. 1 making you feel strong emotions, especially sadness or sympathy: a moving story | a deeply/very moving experience

THESAURUS

emotional, touching, poignant, emotive, sentimental, schmaltzy → EMOTIONAL

2 [only before noun] changing from one position to another: the moving parts of an engine | fast/slow moving traffic —movingly adv.: She spoke movingly about her father's last days.

'moving van n. [C] a large vehicle used for moving furniture from one house to another mow /mou/ v. (past tense mowed, past participle mowed or mown /moun/) [I,T] to cut grass with a machine: When are you going to mow the lawn?

THESAURUS

cut, trim, snip → CUT¹

mow sb ↔ down phr. v. to kill people or knock them down, especially in large numbers: soldiers mowed down by machine-gun fire

mow-er /'mouə/ n. [C] a LAWN MOWER

MP3 /,em pi 'θri/ n. [C] it a type of computer FILE containing recorded music

MP3 player n. [C] it a small piece of equipment used to play MP3 music FILES → see picture on page A6

MPEG /'empeg/ n. [C] it Moving Picture Experts Group a type of computer FILE that contains sound and VIDEO → JPEG

mpg miles per gallon – used when describing the amount of gasoline used by a car: a car that gets 35 mpg mph miles per hour – used when describing the speed of a vehicle: a 65 mph speed limit

Mr. /'mɪstə/ 1 Mr. Smith/Jones etc. used before a man's family name to be polite when you are speaking to him, writing to him, or talking about him 2 a title used when speaking to a man in an official position: Mr. Chairman | Mr. President 3 Mr. Right (informal) a man who would be the perfect husband for a particular woman: Jill's still looking for Mr. Right.

MRI n. 1 [U] magnetic resonance imaging the use of strong MAGNETIC FIELDS to make an image of the inside of the body 2 [C] a picture of the inside of someone's body made using MRI equipment

mRNA BIOLOGY the abbreviation of MESSENGER RNA

Mrs. /ˈmɪsɪz/ Mrs. Smith/Jones etc. used before a married woman's family name to be polite when you are speaking to her, writing to her, or talking about her → MISS, MS.

MS the written abbreviation of MISSISSIPPI

Ms. /mɪz/ Ms. Smith/Jones etc. used before a woman's family name when she does not want to be called "Mrs." or "Miss," or when you do not know whether she is married or not

M.S., M.Sc. n. [C] Master of Science a university degree in science that you can earn after your first degree → M.A.

MSG n. [U] a chemical that is added to food to make it taste better

MT the written abbreviation of MONTANA

Mt. the written abbreviation of MOUNT: Mt. Everest

much¹ /mʌtʃ/ adv. 1 [used before comparatives or superlatives] a lot: I'm feeling much better. | This one is much higher/bigger/longer etc. | The job was much more difficult than I expected. | He was driving much too fast. 2 too much/so much/very much/how much etc. used in order to talk about the amount or degree to which someone does something or something happens: Thank you very much! | How much further is it? | He's feeling so much better today. 3 not ... much a) only a little or hardly at all: "Did you enjoy it?" "No, not much." | She isn't much younger than me. | Rob didn't like the movie very much. b) used in order to say that something does not happen very often: Kids don't play outside as much as they used to. → see Grammar box at LOT 4 much like/as sth also much the same (as sth) used in order to say that something is very similar to something else: It tastes very much like butter. 5 much less used in order to say that one thing is even less true or less possible than another: You'll never see him in a tie, much less a suit.

much² quantifier 1 ["much" is used mainly in questions and negatives] a lot of something: Was there much traffic? | We don't have much time. | The storm will bring rain to much of the state. 2 how much used in order to ask or talk about the amount or cost of something: How much were the groceries (=what did they cost)? | It is not clear how much of the crime problem is gang-related. 3 so much/too much used in order to talk about an amount that is very large, especially one that is larger than it should be: There was so much smoke we couldn't see anything. | Ray drinks too much. 4 not much/nothing much used in order to say that something is not important, interesting, good, etc.: "What's going on?" "Not much." | I didn't think much of the book (=I didn't like it). 5 as much (...) as an amount that is equal and not less: I hope you have as much fun as we did. | Just try to eat as much as you can. 6 so much for sth (spoken) said when a particular action, idea, statement, etc. was not useful or did not produce the result that was hoped for: She wouldn't discuss it. So much for trying to compromise. 7 be too much for sb to be too difficult for someone: The stairs were too much for her.

GRAMMAR

much, a lot of

In sentences that are not negative and not questions, use a lot of rather than much: She has a lot of money. Do not say "She has much money." → LOT muck /mʌk/ n. [U] something such as dirt, mud, or another sticky substance: the muck near the water's edge muck-rak-er /ˈmʌk, reɪkə/ n. [C] (disapproving) a writer for a newspaper who tells the public about the bad things that important or famous people have done or are supposed to have done —muckraking n. [U], adj.

mu-cus /ˈmyukəs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a sticky liquid produced by parts of your body such as your nose —mucous adj.

mud /mʌd/ n. [U] 1 wet earth that is soft and sticky: His boots were covered in mud. 2 sb's name is mud (spoken) said when people are annoyed at someone because s/he has caused trouble mud-dle¹ /ˈmʌdl/ v.

muddle through (sth) phr. v. to continue doing something even though it is confusing or difficult muddle² n. [C usually singular] a state in which things are confused, not organized correctly, or done badly: a bureaucratic muddle mud-dled /ˈmʌdlɪd/ adj. confused, messy, or not organized correctly: a muddled line between reality and fantasy mud-dy¹ /ˈmʌdi/ adj. covered with mud, or containing mud: muddy boots | muddy water

THESAURUS

DIRTY¹

dirty, filthy, grimy, soiled →

muddy² v. (muddied, muddies) [T] 1 muddy the issue/waters to make a situation more complicated or more confusing than it was before 2 to make something dirty with mud mud-slide /ˈmʌdslaɪd/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a lot of very wet mud that has slid down the side of a hill mud-sling-ing /ˈmʌd, slɪŋɪŋ/ n. [U] the practice of saying bad things about someone so that other people will have a bad opinion of him/her: political mudslinging —mudslinger n. [C] muf-fin /ˈmʌfən/ n. [C] a small, slightly sweet type of bread that often has fruit in it: a blueberry muffin

muf-ble /ˈmʌfəl/ v. [T] to make a sound less loud or clear: Thick curtains muffled the traffic noise.

M

M

—muffled adj.: the muffled sound of a TV in the next room

muf-fler /'mʌflə/ n. [C] 1 a piece of equipment on a vehicle that makes the noise from the engine quieter 2 (old-fashioned) a SCARF mug¹ /mʌg/ n. [C] a large cup with straight sides and a handle: a mug of coffee mug² v. (mugged, mugging) [T] to attack and rob someone in a public place: She was mugged in front of her apartment.

—mugging n. [U]

—mugger n. [C]

THESAURUS steal, burglarize, rob → STEAL¹

THESAURUS offender, thief, robber, burglar, attacker → CRIME mug-gy /'mʌgi/ adj. (comparative muggier, superlative muggiest) (informal) muggy weather is unpleasant because it is too warm and wet → HUMID —mugginess n. [U] mug-shot /'mʌgʃɒt/ n. [C] (informal) a photograph of a criminal's face taken by the police

Mu-ham-mad /mou'hæməd/ n. a religious leader, born in Mecca, who started the religion of Islam and is its most important PROPHET. According to Islam, God told him many things, which were later written down to form the holy book called the Koran.

mu-lat-to /mʌ'lətu/ n. (plural mulattoes) [C] (old-fashioned) a word for someone with one black parent and one white parent, now considered offensive mulch /mʌltʃ/ n. [singular, U] decaying leaves that you put on the soil to improve its quality and to protect the roots of plants mule /myul/ n. [C] an animal that has a DONKEY and a horse as parents mull /mʌl/ v. [T] to heat wine or beer with sugar and SPICES mull sth ↔ over phr. v. to think about something carefully: I decided to mull over his offer.

mul-lah /'mʌlə/ n. [C] a religious leader or teacher in Islam mul-ti-col-ored /'mʌlti,kələd/ adj. having many different colors: a multicolored shirt mul-ti-cul-tur-al /'mʌlti'kʌltʃərəl/ adj. involving people or ideas from many different countries, races, religions, etc.: The U.S. is a multicultural society.

mul-ti-cul-tu-ral-ism /'mʌlti'kʌltʃərəlɪzəm/ n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the belief that it is important and right to include and respect people who have come to a country from many other countries, and who may be a different race or religion or have different customs than most of the people in their new country —multiculturalist n. [C] mul-ti-far-i-ous /'mʌlti'feriəs/ adj. of very many different kinds: He hired assistants to help with these multifarious projects. —multifariously adv. —multifariousness n. [U] mul-ti-lat-er-al /'mʌlti'lætərəl/ adj. involving several different countries, companies, etc. → BILATERAL, UNILATERAL: a multilateral agreement to stop the fighting mul-ti-me-di-a /'mʌlti'midiə/ adj. [only before noun] IT using a mixture of sounds, words, pictures, etc. to give information, especially on a computer program —multimedia n. [U] mul-ti-na-tion-al /'mʌlti'næʃənl/ adj. 1 ECONOMICS a multinational company has offices, businesses, etc. in several different countries

THESAURUS company, firm, business, corporation, subsidiary → COMPANY

2 involving people from several different countries: a multinational peace-keeping force

mul-ti-ple¹ /'mʌltəpəl/ adj. including or involving many parts, people, events, etc.: He suffered multiple injuries to his legs. | She ordered multiple copies of the book. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French, Latin multiplex] multiple² n. [C] MATH a number that can be divided by a smaller number an exact number of times. For example, 20 is a multiple of 4 and 5.

multiple 'choice adj. a multiple choice test or question shows several possible answers and you must choose the correct one mul-ti-plex /'mʌlti,pleks/ n. [C] a movie theater that has several rooms in which different movies are shown mul-ti-pli-ca-tion /'mʌltəplə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 MATH a method of calculating in which you multiply numbers → ADDITION, DIVISION, MULTIPLICATION 2 (formal) a large increase in the size, amount, or number of something mul-ti-plic-i-ty /'mʌltə'plɪsəti/ n. [singular, U] (formal) a large number or great variety of things: a multiplicity of views on the issue mul-ti-ply /'mʌltəplaɪ/ v. (multiplied, multiplies) [I,T] 1 to increase greatly, or to make something do this: The company's problems have multiplied over the past year.

THESAURUS increase, go up, rise, grow, double, shoot up → INCREASE¹

2 MATH to do a calculation in which you add one number to itself a particular number of times: 4 multiplied by 5 is 20 (=4 x 5 = 20) → CALCULATE mul-ti-pur-pose /'mʌlti'pʊpəs/ adj. having many different uses or purposes: a multipurpose room

mul-ti-ra-cial /ˌmʌltɪ'reɪʃəl/ adj. including or involving many different races of people → MULTI-CULTURAL: a multiracial society mul-ti-tude /ˌmʌltəˈtʊd/ n. (formal) a multitude of sb/sth a very large number of people or things: a multitude of possible interpretations mum-ble /ˈmʌmbəl/ v. [I,T] to say something too quietly or not clearly enough, so that other people cannot understand you: He mumbled something and left.

mum-bo-jum-bo /ˌmʌmbəʊ ˈdʒʌmbəʊ/ n. [U] (informal) something that is difficult to understand or that makes no sense: legal mumbo-jumbo mum-mi-fy /ˈmʌməˈfaɪ/ v. (mummified, mummifies) [T] to preserve a dead body by putting special oils on it and wrapping it with cloth mum-my /ˈmʌmi/ n. (plural mummies) [C] a dead body that has been preserved and often wrapped in cloth, especially in ancient Egypt [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Old French momie, from Medieval Latin mumia, from Arabic mumiyah, from Persian mum “wax”] mumps /ˈmʌmps/ n. the mumps an infectious illness in which your throat swells and becomes painful munch /ˈmʌntʃ/ v. [I,T] to eat something in a noisy way: The kids were munching on popcorn.

munch-ies /ˈmʌntʃɪz/ n. [plural] (informal) 1 have the munchies to feel hungry, especially for food such as cookies or POTATO CHIPS 2 foods such as cookies or POTATO CHIPS that are served at a party mun-dane /ˈmʌnˈdeɪn/ adj. ordinary and not interesting or exciting (SYN boring: Initially, the job was pretty mundane. —mundanely adv.

mu-nic-i-pal /myuˈnɪsəpəl/ adj. relating to the government of a town or city: municipal elections mu-nic-i-pal-i-ty /myuˈnɪsəˈpæləti/ n. (plural municipalities) [C] a town or city that has its own government mu-nif-i-cent /myuˈnɪfəsənt/ adj. (formal) very generous: a munificent gift —munificence n. [U] —munificently adv.

mu-ni-tions /myuˈnɪʃənz/ n. [plural] military supplies such as bombs and large guns mu-ral /ˈmyʊərəl/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a painting that is painted on a wall

mur-der /ˈmɜːdə/ n. 1 [C,U] the crime of deliberately killing someone: Lowe has been charged with murder. | Police don't know who committed the murders. | the brutal murder of a young woman | Investigators have not yet found the murder weapon.

THESAURUS crime, robbery, assault, mugging → CRIME

2 get away with murder (informal) to not be punished for doing something wrong, or to be allowed to do anything you want: The parents just let him get away with murder! [ORIGIN: Partly from Old English morthor, partly from Old French murdre] murder /ˈmɜːdə/ v. [T] to kill someone deliberately and illegally: John Lennon was murdered in 1980. —murderer n. [C]: a convicted murderer

THESAURUS kill, commit manslaughter, commit suicide, assassinate, execute sb/put sb to death, exterminate, slay → KILL¹

THESAURUS offender, thief, robber, burglar, attacker, mugger → CRIMINAL²

mur-der-ous /ˈmɜːdəəs/ adj. very dangerous or violent and likely to kill someone: He went into a murderous rage.

murk-y /ˈmɜːki/ adj. (comparative murkier, superlative murkiest) dark and difficult to see through: murky water

mur-mur /ˈmɜːmə/ v. [I,T] to say something in a soft quiet voice: He softly murmured her name. —murmuring n. [C,U] murmur /ˈmɜːmə/ n. [C] 1 a soft quiet sound made by someone's voice: She answered in a low murmur. 2 a murmur of approval/dissent/disbelief etc. approval, etc. that is expressed in a soft or quiet way

mus-cle /ˈmʌsəl/ n. 1 [C,U] BIOLOGY one of the pieces of flesh inside your body that join bones together and make your body move: stomach/leg/thigh etc. muscles | Weightlifting will strengthen your muscles. | I think I've pulled a muscle (=injured a muscle). 2 military/political etc. muscle military, etc. power or influence 3 [U] physical strength and power: It takes muscle to move a piano. 4 not move a muscle to not move at all

mus-cu-lar /ˈmʌskjələ/ adj. 1 having a lot of big muscles: strong muscular arms 2 related to or affecting the muscles: a muscular disease muse /myuz/ v. [I] (formal) to imagine or think a lot about something mu-se-um /myuˈziəm/ n. [C] a building where important objects are kept and shown to the public: the Museum of Modern Art [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, Greek Mouseion, from Mousa] mush /mʌʃ/ n. [singular, U] a soft food that is part solid and part liquid mush-room /ˈmʌʃrʊm/ n. [C] one of several kinds of FUNGUS with stems and round tops, some of which can be eaten and some of which are poisonous [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French mousse-ron, from Latin mussirio] → see picture at VEGETABLE mushroom /ˈmʌʃrʊm/ v. [I] to grow in size or numbers very quickly: The city's population has mushroomed to over one million.

M

M

'mushroom ,cloud n. [C] a large cloud shaped like a mushroom that is caused by a NUCLEAR explosion

mush-y /'mʌʃi/ adj. 1 soft and wet: a mushy banana 2 expressing love in a silly way: He gets all mushy when he's around you. | mushy love stories

mu-sic /'myuzɪk/ n. [U] 1 the arrangement of sounds made by instruments or voices in a way that is pleasant or exciting: What kind of music does your band play? | pop/country/classical etc. music | I like to listen to music. | My favorite piece of music is Bach's "Magnificat." | Why don't you put some music on (=turn on the radio or start playing a CD)?

THESAURUS

tune – a series of musical notes that are nice to listen to: Suzi was humming a tune.

melody – a song or tune: a lovely melody song – a short piece of music with words: pop songs arrangement – a piece of music that has been written or changed for a particular instrument: an arrangement for flute and guitar composition – a piece of music or art, or a poem: one of Schubert's early compositions number – a piece of popular music, a song, a dance, etc. that forms part of a larger performance: She sang several numbers from her most recent album.

piece – a piece of music: This is a piece I'm learning for my piano recital.

track – one of the songs or pieces of music on a CD: The first track is my favorite.

Types of music

pop (music), rock (music), rock'n'roll, heavy metal, reggae, house (music), hip-hop, rap (music), jazz, classical (music), country (music), folk (music)

2 the art of writing or playing music: music lessons 3 a set of written marks representing music, or the paper that this is written on: Jim plays the piano well, but he can't read music. 4 face the music to admit that you have done something wrong and accept punishment: If he took the money, he'll have to face the music. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French musique, from Latin, from Greek mousike “art of the Muses”] mu-si-cal /'myuzɪkəl/ adj. 1 [only before noun] relating to music or consisting of music: musical instruments 2 good at playing or singing music: I wasn't very musical as a child. —musically adv.

musical ² n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a play or movie that uses songs and music to tell a story → THEATER mu-si-cian /myu'zɪʃən/ n. [C] someone who plays a musical instrument very well or as a job: classical musicians musk /mʌsk/ n. [U] a strong-smelling substance used to make PERFUME —musky adj.

mus-ket /'mʌskɪt/ n. [C] a type of gun used in past times

Mus-lim /'mʌzləm, 'mʊz-, 'mʊs-/ adj. relating to Islam [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 An Arabic word meaning “someone who surrenders (to God)”] —Muslim n. [C] muss /mʌs/ v. [T] (informal) to make something messy, especially hair mus-sel /'mʌsəl/ n. [C] a small sea animal with a black shell and a soft body that can be eaten → see picture at SHELLFISH

must ¹ /mʌst; strong mʌst/ modal verb (negative short form mustn't) 1 (past tense had to) used in order to say that something is necessary because of a rule, or because it is the best thing to do: The $60 passport fee must accompany your application. | It's getting late – I really must go. → see Grammar box at HAVE TO

USAGE

If an action is not necessary, you can say that you don't need to do it: I don't need to leave until 10.

If someone must not do something, s/he is not allowed to do it. Must not is quite formal and is used especially in written English: You must not take any sharp objects on the plane.

Do not say don't need to to mean must not.

2 (past tense must have) used in order to say that something is very likely to be true: George must be almost 80 years old now. | We must have gone the wrong way. 3 used in order to suggest that someone do something: You must see his new film.

must ² /mʌst/ n. a must (informal) something that you must do or must have: The Greens Cookbook is a must for any serious vegetarian.

mus-tache /'mʌstæʃ, mə'stæʃ/ n. [C] hair that grows on a man's upper lip [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French moustache, from Italian mustaccio, from Medieval Greek moustaki] → see picture on page 462

mus-tang /'mʌstæŋ/ n. [C] a small wild horse

mus-tard /'mʌstəd/ n. [U] a yellow SAUCE with a strong taste, usually eaten in small amounts with meat mus-ter ¹ /'mʌstə/ v. muster (up) courage/support etc. to find or gather as much courage, etc. as you can in order to do something difficult: I'm still trying to muster up the courage to speak to her.

muster ² n. pass muster to be accepted as good enough for something must-n't /'mʌsənt/ modal verb the short form of “must not”: You mustn't forget to tell her what I said.

must-y /'mʌsti/ adj. having a wet unpleasant smell: musty old books mu-ta-ble /'myʊtəbəl/ adj. (formal) able or likely to change (ANT) immutable —mutability /,myʊtə'bɪləti/ n. [U] mu-tant /'myʊtˈnt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an animal or plant that is different from others of the same kind because of a change in its GENES —mutant adj.

mu-tate /'myʊtɪt/ v. [I] BIOLOGY if an animal or plant mutates, it becomes different from others of the same kind because of a change in its GENES —mutation /myu'teɪʃən/ n. [C,U] mute¹ /myʊt/ v. [T] to make a sound quieter, or to make it disappear completely: I usually mute the TV during the commercials.

mute² adj. unable to speak —mutely adv.

mut-ed /'myʊtɪd/ adj. 1 muted criticism/response etc. criticism, etc. that is not expressed strongly 2 quieter than usual: the muted sound of snoring from the next room 3 a muted color is less bright than usual mu-ti-late /'myʊtlɪt/ v. [T] to damage someone or something severely, especially by removing part of it: bodies mutilated in the explosion —mutilation /,myʊtlɪ'eɪʃən/ n. [C,U] mu-ti-nous /'myʊtɪnəs/ adj. involved in a mutiny: mutinous soldiers mu-ti-ny /'myʊtɪni/ n. (plural mutinies) [C,U] a situation in which soldiers or SAILORS refuse to obey someone in authority and try to take control for themselves —mutiny v. [I] mutt /mʌt/ n. [C] (informal) a dog that does not belong to a particular breed

mut-ter /'mʌtə/ v. [I,T] to speak in a quiet voice, especially when you are complaining about something but do not want other people to hear you: What are you muttering about?

mut-ton /'mʌtɒn/ n. [U] the meat from a sheep [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French moton “(male) sheep”]

mu-tu-al /'myʊtʃuəl/ (AC) adj. 1 a feeling that is mutual is felt by two or more people toward one another: A good marriage is marked by mutual respect. | European nations can live together in a spirit of mutual trust. | There is a need to promote mutual understanding between people of different faiths. 2 mutual agreement/consent a situation in which two or more people both agree to something: He has left the company by mutual agreement. 3 shared by two or more people: We were introduced by a mutual friend (=someone we both know). | Members of the organization share a mutual interest in science. 4 the feeling is mutual (spoken) said when you have the same feeling about someone as s/he has toward you: “You really drive me crazy sometimes!” “The feeling’s mutual!” [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French mutuel, from Latin mutuus “lent, borrowed, mutual”] —mutuality /,myʊtʃu'æləti/ n. [U]

'mutual fund n. [C] a company through which you can buy SHARES of other companies

mu-tu-al-ly /'myʊtʃuəli, -tʃəli/ (AC) adv. 1 done, felt, or experienced by two or more people: They have mutually agreed to go their separate ways. | a solution that was mutually beneficial to both sides 2 mutually exclusive if two ideas, beliefs, etc. are mutually exclusive, they cannot both exist or be true at the same time: The beliefs of Christians and atheists are mutually exclusive.

Mu-zak /'myuzæk/ n. [U] (trademark) recorded music that is played continuously in airports, offices, etc.

muzz-zle¹ /'mʌzəl/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY the nose and mouth of an animal, especially a dog or horse → see picture on page A2 2 the end of the BARREL of a gun 3 something that you put over a dog’s mouth so it cannot bite someone muzzle² v. [T] 1 to prevent someone from speaking freely or from expressing his/her opinions: an attempt to muzzle the press 2 to put a muzzle over a dog’s mouth so that it cannot bite someone my /maɪ/ possessive adj. belonging or relating to the person who is speaking: That’s my car over there. | I tried not to let my feelings show. | My son is in college.

my-e-lin sheath /,maɪəlɪn 'ʃiθ/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a MEMBRANE (=material like a very thin piece of skin) in a nerve cell that covers and protects the AXON (=part that carries messages to muscles and other parts of the body)

my-o-car-di-um /,maɪou'kɑrdiəm/ n. (plural myocardia) [C usually singular, U] BIOLOGY the layer of muscle surrounding the heart my-o-pi-a /maɪ'oupiə/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a medical condition which stops you seeing things clearly when they are far away (SYN) nearsightedness my-op-ic /maɪ'apɪk, -'ou-/ adj. BIOLOGY unable to see things clearly when they are far away (SYN) nearsighted

my-o-sin /'maɪəsɪn/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a PROTEIN in muscle cells that makes the muscle become tighter or relaxed myr-i-ad /'mɪriəd/ n. [C] (literary) a very large number of something: a myriad of stars in the sky —myriad adj.

THESAURUS many, a large number, a lot/lots, plenty, numerous, countless, innumerable, a multitude of sb/sth, a plethora of sth → MANY

my-self /maɪ'self/ pron. 1 used by the person speaking or writing to show that s/he is affected by his/her own action: I made myself a cup of coffee. | I blame myself for what has happened. 2 used in order to emphasize “I” or “me”: They say it’s a beautiful place, but I myself have never been there. 3 (all) by myself a) without help: Look, Mommy—I tied my shoes all by myself! b) alone: I went to the movie by myself. 4 (all) to myself for my own use: I had the whole swimming pool to myself today. 5 not be myself (spoken) said when you are not behaving or feeling as you usually do because you are sick or upset: I'm sorry for what I said – I'm not myself these days.

N

mys-te-ri-ous /mɪ'stɪəriəs/ adj. 1 strange and difficult to explain or understand: the mysterious disappearance of our neighbor

THESAURUS strange, peculiar, curious, odd, weird, bizarre → STRANGE¹

2 not saying much about something because you want it to be a secret: Oliver is being very mysterious about his plans. —mysteriously adv.: Modotti died mysteriously in 1945.

mys-ter-y /'mɪstəri/ n. (plural mysteries) 1 [C] something that is difficult to explain or understand: The location of the stolen money remains a mystery. | It won't be easy to solve the mystery. 2 [C] a story, especially about a murder, in which events are not explained until the end: the Sherlock Holmes mystery stories 3 [U] a quality that makes someone or something seem strange, interesting, and difficult to explain or understand: There's an air of mystery about him that intrigues people. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin mysterium, from Greek, from mystos “keeping silent”]

mys-ti-cal /'mɪstɪkəl/ also mys-tic /'mɪstɪk/ adj. relating to religious or magical powers that people cannot understand —mystically adv.

mys-ti-cism /'mɪstə,sɪzəm/ n. [U] a religious practice in which someone tries to gain knowledge about God and truth by praying and thinking very seriously —mystic /'mɪstɪk/ n. [C] mys-ti-fy /'mɪstə,fai/ v. (mystified, mystifies) [T] to make someone feel confused and unable to explain or understand something: a case that mystified the police —mystifying adj.

mys-tique /mɪ'stɪk/ n. [U] (formal) the quality that makes something seem mysterious, special, or interesting myth /mɪθ/ n. [C,U] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS an ancient story, especially one that explains a natural or historical event, or this type of story in general: Greek myths

THESAURUS story, tale, legend, fable → STORY

2 an idea or story that many people believe, but that is not true: the myth that older workers are not productive [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Greek mythos “story, speech, myth”] myth-i-cal /'mɪθɪkəl/ adj. 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS existing only in a myth: mythical creatures such as the Minotaur 2 imagined or invented my-thol-o-gy /mɪ'θɒlədʒi/ n. [U] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS ancient myths in general, or the beliefs that they represent: stories from Greek mythology 2 ideas or stories that many people have, but that are not true —mythological /,mɪθə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj.

Nn

N, n /ɛn/ the fourteenth letter of the English alphabet

N also N. the written abbreviation of NORTH or NORTHERN

n. the written abbreviation of NOUN

'n' /n, ɛn/ conjunction a short form of “and”: rock 'n' roll music

N/A not applicable – used on a form to show that you do not need to answer a particular question nab /næb/ v. (nabbed, nabbing) [T] (informal) to catch someone doing something illegal: The police nabbed him for speeding.

na-dir /'neɪdər/ n. [singular] (literary) the time when a situation is at its worst, or when something is at its lowest level (ANT zenith): The series has reached a nadir with this unconvincing and ridiculous episode.

nag¹ /næg/ v. (nagged, nagging) [I,T] 1 to continuously ask someone to do something in an annoying way: Shawna has been nagging me to fix the kitchen sink. 2 to make someone feel continuously worried or uncomfortable over a period of time: A problem had been nagging at me for days.

nag² n. [C] (informal) someone who keeps complaining or asking someone to do something, in an annoying way nag-ging /'nægɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] making you worry or feel pain all the time: I have this nagging feeling that he's lying. | a nagging injury

nail¹ /neɪl/ n. [C] 1 a thin pointed piece of metal with a flat end, that you push into a piece of wood, etc. using a hammer 2 the hard flat part that covers the top end of your fingers and toes: Stop biting your nails! | I need to cut/file/paint my nails. [ORIGIN: Old English næg] → fight (sb/sth) tooth and nail at TOOTH

COLLOCATIONS

You cut/clip your nails with scissors or nail clippers.

You file your nails (=rub them) with a nail file to make them the right shape.

Some women put nail polish on their nails.

If you have a manicure, someone shapes and polishes your nails for you.

nail² v. [T] 1 to fasten something to something else with a nail: The windows were nailed shut. | She nailed the poster to the wall. 2 (informal) to catch someone who has done something wrong and prove that s/he is guilty: They finally nailed him for fraud. 3 (informal) to do something exactly right, or to be exactly correct: Jackson nailed his final shot, and the Bulls won the game.

nail sth ↔ down phr. v. (informal) to reach a final and definite decision about something: The contract hasn't been nailed down yet.

nail-brush /'neɪlbrʌʃ/ n. [C] a small stiff brush used for cleaning your nails

'nail file n. [C] a thin piece of metal with a rough surface, used for shaping your nails

'nail polish n. [U] colored or clear liquid that you paint on your nails to make them look attractive na-ive /nə'iv/ adj. lacking any experience of life, so that you believe most people are honest and kind and that only good things will happen to you → INNOCENT: a naive young girl —naively adv.

—naivety, naiveté /nə,ivə'teɪ, nə'iv,tet/ n. [C,U] na-ked /'neɪkɪd/ adj. 1 not wearing any clothes: The child was running naked through the backyard. | He was stark naked (=completely naked).

THESAURUS

nude – not wearing any clothes, used especially when talking about people in paintings, movies, etc.: a nude photograph of a beautiful woman undressed – not wearing any clothes, especially because you have just taken them off in order to go to bed, take a bath, etc.: Rachel got undressed and ready for bed.

bare – not covered by clothes: Their long, bare legs dangled over the edge of the porch.

have nothing on also not have anything on: He didn't have anything on except a towel.

2 the naked eye if you can see something with the naked eye, you can see it without using something such as a TELESCOPE to help you: On a clear night, many other planets are visible to the naked eye. —nakedness n. [U] —nakedly adv.

name¹ /neɪm/ n. 1 [C] the word that someone or something is called or known by: My first name is Vera and my last name is Smith. | She called him by his first name (=she used his first name when talking to him). | Please write your full name (=complete name) and address. | I can't remember the name of the hotel. | They don't have a name for the baby yet.

THESAURUS

Types of names

first name/given name – for example “Bret” in the name Bret Stern last name/family name/surname – for example “Potter” in the name Harry Potter middle name – the name between your first and last names full name – your complete name maiden name – a woman's family name before she got married and changed it nickname – a name your friends and family use for you, not your real name stage name – the name an actor uses that is not his/her real name pen name/pseudonym – a name a writer uses that is not his/her real name assumed name/alias – a false name, often one used by a criminal

2 a big/famous/household name (informal) someone who is famous: the biggest names in Hollywood 3 [singular] the opinion that people have about a person, company, etc. (SYN) reputation: He has given baseball a bad name (=made people have a bad opinion about it). | He is determined to clear his family's good name (=make people respect them again). 4 be in sb's name to officially belong to someone: The house is in my wife's name. 5 (do sth) in the name of science/religion etc. to use science, religion, etc. as the reason for doing something, even if it is wrong 6 call sb names to say something insulting to someone 7 the name of the game the most important thing or quality in a particular activity [ORIGIN: Old English nama]

name² v. [T] 1 to give someone or something a particular name: They named their son Jacob. | We named the baby Henry, after his grandfather (=gave him the same name as his grandfather). | RFK Stadium was named for Robert F. Kennedy (=it was given his name to show respect for him). 2 to say what the name of someone or something is: He refused to name his clients. | Wells was named as the leading suspect. 3 to officially choose someone for a particular job: Roy Johnson was named as the new manager. 4 you name it (spoken) said after a list of things to mean that there are many more that you could mention: Beer, whiskey, wine – you name it and I've got it! 5 name names to give the names of people who are involved in something, especially something wrong or something they want to hide: She did not name names, but I think she was referring to Richard.

'name-calling n. [U] the act of using an unpleasant or insulting word to describe someone in order to hurt or embarrass him/her name-drop-ping /'neɪm,drɒpɪŋ/ n. [U] (disapproving) the act of mentioning the name of a famous or important person to make it seem that you know them well —namedrop v. [I] name-less /'neɪmlɪs/ adj. 1 not known by a name (SYN) anonymous: a gift from a nameless businessman 2 sb who shall remain nameless (spoken) used when you want to say that someone has done something wrong, but without saying his/her name 3 having no name: millions of nameless stars name-ly /'neɪmli/ adv. used when saying the name of the person or thing you are talking about: The movie won two Oscars, namely “Best Actor” and “Best Director.”

name-sake /'neɪmseɪk/ n. sb's namesake someone or something that has the same name as someone or something else

'name tag n. [C] a small sign with your name on it, that you attach to your clothes so that people know who you are nan-ny /'næni/ n. (plural nannies) [C] a woman whose job is to take care of a family's children, usually in the children's own home

N

N nan-o-me-ter /'nænə,mi:tə/ n. [C] SCIENCE a unit for measuring distance. There are a BILLION (=1,000,000,000) nanometers in a meter.

nan-o-sec-ond /'nænou,sekənd/ n. [C] SCIENCE a unit for measuring time. There are a BILLION (=1,000,000,000) nanoseconds in a second.

nan-o-tech-nol-o-gy /,nænətek'nɒlədʒi/ n. [U] SCIENCE the science of making extremely small electronic equipment from atoms or MOLECULES that measure less than 100 nanometers nap /næp/ n. [C] a short sleep during the day: Dad usually takes a nap in the afternoon. —nap v. [I] na-palm /'neɪpəm/ n. [U] a liquid used in bombs to burn people and things nape /neɪp/ n. [singular] the back of your neck: He kissed the nape of her neck.

nap-kin /'næpkɪn/ n. [C] a small piece of cloth or paper used for cleaning your mouth or hands when you are eating [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 nape "cloth" (1400—1500), from Old French, from Latin mappa "cloth, towel"] narc /nɑrk/ n. [C] (informal) a police officer who deals with catching people who use and sell illegal drugs nar-cis-sis-tic /,nɑrsə'sɪstɪk/ adj. (formal) having too much admiration for your own appearance or abilities —narcissism /'nɑrsə,sɪzəm/ n. [U] —narcissist n. [C] nar-cot-ic /nɑr'kɑtɪk/ n. [C] a strong drug such as HEROIN that stops pain and makes people sleep [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French narcotique, from Greek narkotikos, from narkoun "to make numb"] —narcotic adj.

nar-rate /'nærɪt, nɑ'reɪt/ v. [T] ENG. LANG. ARTS if someone narrates a movie or television program, s/he describes or explains what is happening in the pictures: a documentary narrated by Robert Redford —narration /nɑ'reɪʃən/ n. [C,U] nar-ra-tive /'nærətɪv/ n. 1 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a description of events that is told as a story

THESAURUS story, tale, yarn → STORY

2 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the skill or process of telling a story —narrative adj.

nar-ra-tor /'nɑrɪtə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who tells the story in a movie, book, etc.

nar-row¹ /'nærou/ adj. 1 only measuring a small distance from side to side (ANT wide: a long narrow street | The stairs were very narrow. 2 narrow defeat/victory etc. a defeat, victory, etc. that is achieved with difficulty or happens by only a small amount: France finished in first place after a narrow victory over Brazil. | Bush won the election by a narrow margin (=by a very small amount). 3 (disapproving) a narrow attitude or way of looking at a situation is too limited and does not consider enough possibilities: She has a very narrow view of life. 4 narrow escape an occasion when you just avoid something bad or dangerous that almost happens to you [ORIGIN: Old English nearu] —narrowness n. [U] → the straight and narrow at STRAIGHT³

narrow² v. [I,T] 1 to become more narrow, or to make something do this: The road narrows here. | She narrowed her eyes and frowned. 2 also nar-row down to reduce the number of possibilities or choices: The police have narrowed down their list of suspects.

nar-row-ly /'nærouli/ adv. 1 only by a small amount: Smith narrowly lost the election. | They narrowly escaped death in the accident. 2 in a limited way: The law is being interpreted too narrowly.

narrow-minded adj. (disapproving) not willing to accept ideas or beliefs that are new and different → PREJUDICED na-sal /'neɪzəl/ adj. 1 a nasal sound or voice comes mostly through your nose 2 [only before noun] BIOLOGY relating to the nose: the nasal cavity —nasally adv.

nas-cent /'næsənt, 'neɪ-/ adj. [only before noun] (formal) coming into existence or starting to develop: a developing country's nascent car market

nas-ty /'næsti/ adj. (comparative nastier, superlative nastiest) 1 unkind or unpleasant: Matt has been saying some nasty things about me. | a nasty old man | I don't understand why Stacy was so nasty to us. | nasty weather | a nasty habit

THESAURUS mean, cruel, unkind, thoughtless, spiteful, abusive, vicious, malicious → MEAN²

2 (spoken) having a bad appearance, smell, or taste: That looks like a nasty bruise. | Those toilets are so nasty. —nastiness n. [U] —nastily adv.

na-tion /'neɪʃən/ n. [C] 1 POLITICS a country and its people, used especially when considering its political and economic structures: The President is addressing the nation tomorrow. | People all across the nation were protesting against the war. | the major industrialized nations

THESAURUS country, state, power, land, realm → COUNTRY¹

2 a large group of people of the same race who speak the same language: the Cherokee nation [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 French, Latin natio, from natus, past participle of nasci "to be born"]

THESAURUS race, people, tribe, ethnic group → RACE¹

na-tion-al¹ /'næʃənəl/ adj. 1 relating to a whole nation rather than to part of it or to other nations → INTERNATIONAL: the national news | an issue of national importance 2 [only before noun] owned or controlled by the government: Yosemite National Park

national² n. [C] someone who is a citizen of one country but is living in another country → ALIEN, CITIZEN: a Korean national living in the U.S.

national 'anthem n. [C] the official song of a nation that is sung or played at public occasions na-tion-al-ism /'næʃənlɪzəm/ n. [U] 1 POLITICS the belief that your country is better than any other country 2 POLITICS the desire by a group of people of the same race or origin to have their own country: the rise of nationalism in Eastern Europe na-tion-al-ist /'næʃənl-ɪst/ adj. POLITICS wanting to become politically independent, or wanting to remain this way — nationalist n. [C]: Quebec nationalists na-tion-al-is-tic /,næʃnə'lɪstɪk/ adj. believing that your country is better than other countries → PATRIOTIC na-tion-al-i-ty /,næʃə'næləti/ n. (plural nation-alities) [C,U] 1 the legal right of belonging to a particular country [SYN] citizenship: He has British/Swiss etc. nationality. ▶ Don't say "My nationality is Mexican/Swedish etc." Say "I come from Mexico/Sweden etc." ◀ 2 a large group of people who have the same race, language, or culture: There are children of many different nationalities at our school.

na-tion-al-ize /'næʃənəlaɪz/ v. [T] ECONOMICS if a government nationalizes a large company or an industry, it buys it or takes control of it → PRIVATIZE na-tion-al-ly /'næʃənl-i/ adv. by or to everyone in a nation: a series of nationally televised debates national 'monument n. [C] a building or a special place that is protected by the government for people to visit national se'curity n. [U] the ways in which a country protects its citizens or keeps its secrets safe, for example by having a strong army na-tion-wide /,næʃən'waɪd/ adj. happening or existing in every part of a nation: nationwide price increases — nationwide adv.: The brewery employs about 3,000 people nationwide.

THE SAURUS everywhere, all over sth, throughout sth, worldwide → EVERYWHERE

na-tive¹ /'neɪtɪv/ adj. 1 native country/land etc. the place where you were born: He returned to his native Poland. 2 native Californian/New Yorker etc. someone who was born in California, etc. 3 growing, living, or produced in a particular area: a plant native to Ecuador 4 native language/tongue the language you first learned to speak

native² n. [C] 1 someone who was born in a particular country: Andrea is a native of Brazil. 2 [usually plural] a word used by white people in the past to refer to the people who lived in Africa, America, etc. before Europeans arrived. Many people now consider this word offensive.

Native A'merican n. [C] someone who belongs to one of the tribes who were living in North America before the Europeans arrived — Native American adj.

native 'speaker n. [C] someone who has learned a particular language as his/her first language, rather than as a foreign language [ANT] non-native speaker: a native speaker of English

NATO /'neɪtəʊ/ n. North Atlantic Treaty Organization a group of countries in North America and Europe that give military help to each other nat-u-ral¹ /'nætʃərəl/ adj. 1 normal or usual, and what you would expect in a particular situation [ANT] unnatural: It's only natural to have doubts before your wedding. | It's not natural for a four-year-old to be so quiet. 2 existing in nature, not caused, made, or controlled by people: earthquakes and other natural disasters | natural fibers like cotton | He died of natural causes (=because of illness or old age). | The storm of meteorites was rare, but it was a natural phenomenon (=something unusual that happens naturally).

THE SAURUS

Describing things that are natural wild — used about flowers, plants, and animals that are not controlled by people: Wild dogs roamed the streets.

pure — used about food or drink that has not had anything added to it: pure orange juice organic — used about fruit, vegetables, meat, etc. that is produced without using chemicals: organic tomatoes

3 [only before noun] having a particular skill or ability without being taught: a natural athlete 4 behaving in a way that is normal and shows you are relaxed and not trying to pretend: Just be natural — you'll do fine. — naturalness n. [U] natural² n. be a natural to be very good at doing something without being taught natural 'gas n. [U] gas used for cooking or heating that is taken from under the earth or ocean natural 'history n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the study of plants, animals, and minerals nat-u-ral-ism /'nætʃərəlɪzəm, 'nætʃrə-/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a style of art or literature that tries to show the world and people exactly as they are

nat-u-ral-ist /'nætʃərəlɪst/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES someone who studies plants, animals, and other living things nat-u-ral-ize /'nætʃərəlaɪz/ v. [T usually passive] to officially make someone who was born outside a particular country a legal citizen of that country nat-u-ral-ized /'nætʃərəlaɪzd/ adj. a naturalized citizen is someone who becomes a citizen of a country that s/he was not born in — naturalization /,nætʃərələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [U]

N

N

natural 'law n. [C,U] SOCIAL SCIENCE a rule or set of rules for moral behavior that people naturally believe in, rather than laws made by governments or religious laws

nat-u-ral-ly /'nætʃərəli/ adv. 1 in a way that you would expect: Naturally, you'll want to discuss this with your wife. | Naturally enough, she wants her child to grow up fit and strong. 2 (spoken) used in order to agree with what someone has said, or to answer "Of course" to a question: "Are you excited to be home?" "Naturally." 3 as a natural feature or quality, not made or done by people: Allison's hair is naturally curly. | Golf seemed to come naturally to him (=he was good at it without being taught). 4 in a relaxed manner, without trying to look or sound different from usual: Just speak naturally and pretend the microphone isn't there. | Try to act naturally.

natural 'resource n. [C usually plural] things such as land, minerals, energy, etc. that exist in a country natural se'lection n. [U] BIOLOGY the process by which only the plants and animals that are naturally appropriate for life in their environment will continue to live na-ture /'neɪtʃə/ n. 1 [U] everything that exists in the world that is not made or controlled by humans, such as animals, plants, weather, etc.: All of these minerals are found in nature. | the forces of nature (=wind, rain, etc.) | a nature walk/trail 2 [C,U] the character or particular qualities of someone or something: He was an optimist by nature. | The nature of my work requires a lot of traveling. | Of course she's jealous – it's human nature (=the feelings and qualities that all people have). 3 [singular] a particular type of thing: He provided support of a financial nature. 4 let nature take its course to allow events to happen without doing anything to change the results → SECOND NATURE

'nature re,serve n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES an area of land in which animals and plants are protected naught /nɔ:t/ n. [U] (old-fashioned) nothing: All their plans came to naught (=failed).

naugh-ty /'nɔ:ti/ adj. (comparative naughtier, superlative naughtiest) a naughty child behaves badly and is rude or does not obey adults —naughtiness n. [U] —naughtily adv.

nau-se-a /'nɔ:ziə, 'nɔ:ʒə, 'nɔ:fə/ n. [U] (formal) the feeling you have when you think you are going to VOMIT [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, Greek nausia "seasickness," from nautes "sailor," from naus "ship"] nau-se-at-ed /'nɔ:zi,eɪtɪd/ adj. feeling that you are going to VOMIT: When I was pregnant, I felt nauseated all the time. —nauseate v. [T] nau-se-at-ing /'nɔ:zi,eɪtɪŋ/ adj. making you feel that you are going to VOMIT: the nauseating smell of cigar smoke nau-seous /'nɔ:fəs, -ʒəs/ adj. 1 feeling that you are going to VOMIT: I suddenly felt nauseous. 2 (literary) making you feel that you are going to VOMIT: nauseous odors

nau-ti-cal /'nɔ:tɪkəl/ adj. relating to ships or sailing: a distance of 300 nautical miles [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin nauticus, from Greek, from nautes "sailor," from naus "ship"] —nautically adv.

na-val /'neɪvəl/ adj. relating to the navy: a naval battle na-vel /'neɪvəl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a small hollow or raised place in the middle of your stomach (SYN) belly button

nav-i-ga-ble /'nævɪgəbəl/ adj. a river, lake, etc. that is navigable is deep and wide enough for ships to travel on nav-i-gate /'nævə,ɡert/ v. 1 [I,T] to plan the way a car, ship, or airplane travels to a place, using a map: Rick usually drives and I navigate. 2 [I,T] IT to find your way around a particular WEBSITE, or to move from one website to another: The university's website is really easy to navigate. 3 [I,T] to find your way through a complicated system, set of rules, etc.: A social worker is helping Kelly navigate the legal system. 4 [T] to sail a boat or ship along a river or other area of water [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of navigare, from navis "ship"] —navigation /,nævə'geɪʃən/ n. [U] nav-i-ga-tor /'nævə,ɡertə/ n. [C] the officer on a ship or aircraft who plans the way along which it travels na-vy /'neɪvi/ n. (plural navies) 1 also Navy [C usually singular] the part of a country's military forces that is organized for fighting a war at sea → AIR FORCE, ARMY, MARINES: My dad was 20 when he joined the navy. | Frank is in the navy. 2 [U] navy blue [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French navie "group of ships," from Latin navigia "ships"]

navy 'blue adj. very dark blue —navy blue n. [U]

NBC n. National Broadcasting Company one of the national television and radio companies in the U.S.

NC the written abbreviation of NORTH CAROLINA

NCAA n. National Collegiate Athletic Association the organization that is in charge of sports at American colleges and universities

NCO n. [C] Noncommissioned Officer a soldier such as a CORPORAL or SERGEANT

ND the written abbreviation of NORTH DAKOTA

NE 1 the written abbreviation of NORTH-EAST 2 the written abbreviation of NEBRASKA

neap tide /'ni:p taɪd/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a TIDE in which the rise and fall of the level of the ocean is smaller than normal, that takes place at the first and third quarters of the moon → SPRING TIDE

near¹ /nɪr/ adv., prep. 1 only a short distance from someone or something: Why don't we meet near the library? | I'd like to live nearer to the ocean. | Is there a bank near here?

USAGE

Near and close are both used to talk about short distances between things.

Near can be followed directly by a noun: Is the hotel near the beach?

Close cannot be followed directly by a noun.

Close must be followed by the preposition "to" and then a noun: They live close to the park.

THESAURUS

close – not far from someone or something: He sat close to his mom.

not far (away) – not a long distance away: The park's not far away.

nearby – near here or near a particular place: Do you live nearby? | a nearby farm within walking distance (of sth) – easy to walk to from somewhere: The beach is within walking distance of the hotel.

local – used about stores, schools, etc. that are in the area where you live: your local library neighboring – used about towns, countries, etc. that are very near a particular place: discussions between Egypt and neighboring states

2 close in time to a particular event: *She got more and more nervous as the wedding drew near (=became closer in time). | The construction work is now near completion. 3 nowhere near not at all close to a particular quality or state: His latest movie is nowhere near as good as the last one. | We're nowhere near finished. 4 near perfect/impossible etc. (informal) almost perfect, impossible, etc. [SYN] nearly: a near perfect test score

near² adj. 1 only a short distance from someone or something: The nearest town (=the town that is the closest) is 20 miles away. 2 very close to having a particular quality or being a particular thing: His explanation is as near to the truth as we'll get. 3 in the near future at a time that is not very far in the future: We will have a new teacher joining us in the near future. 4 near miss a situation in which something almost hits something else near-by /ˌnɪrˈbaɪ/ adj. [only before noun] not far away: Rita was taken to a nearby hospital. —nearby adv.: The teacher stood nearby.

THESAURUS

near, close, not far (away), within walking distance (of sth), local, neighboring → NEAR¹

THESAURUS

locally, close by/close to here, in close proximity (to) → LOCALLY

near-ly /ˌnɪrli/ adv. almost, but not completely or exactly: It took me nearly five hours to write the essay. | Nearly all of our students go on to college.* | The team is not nearly as good as it could have been.

near-sight-ed /ˌnɪrˌsaɪtɪd/ adj. unable to see things clearly unless they are close to you [ANT] far-sighted —nearsightedness n. [U]

neat /nit/ adj. 1 (spoken) very good, enjoyable, interesting, etc.: What a neat idea! | He's a really neat guy. 2 carefully arranged and not messy: Chris looked neat and well shaven. | They keep their house neat and clean. 3 a neat person does not like his/her things or house to be messy 4 simple and effective: a neat solution to the problem —neatly adv. —neatness n. [U]

neb-u-la /ˈnebyələ/ n. (plural nebulas or nebulae /-li/) [C] 1 PHYSICS a mass of gas and dust among the stars, that looks similar to a bright cloud in the sky at night 2 PHYSICS a GALAXY (=large group of stars) that looks like a bright cloud in the sky at night [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin “mist, cloud”] neb-u-lous /ˈnebyələs/ adj. (formal) 1 not clear or exact at all [SYN] vague: The guidance the students were given was fairly nebulous. 2 a nebulous shape cannot be seen clearly and has no definite edges —nebulously adv. —nebulousness n. [U]

nec-es-sar-i-ly /ˌnesəˈserəli/ adv. not necessarily used to say that something may not be true or may not always happen, even if it might be reasonable to expect it to: Expensive restaurants do not necessarily have the best food.

nec-es-sar-y /ˌnesəˈseri/ adj. 1 needed in order for you to do something or have something → ESSENTIAL: Will you make all the necessary arrangements? | Don't call me unless it's absolutely necessary. | He will do anything necessary to win. | It might be necessary for me to have an operation. | We're prepared to go to war, if necessary.

THESAURUS

essential – important and necessary: Education is essential if you want a good job.

vital – extremely important and necessary: He was accused of withholding vital information from the police.

mandatory – if something is mandatory, it must be done because of a rule or law: Parents do not want school uniform to become mandatory.

N

N

compulsory – if something is compulsory, you must do it: Service in the army was compulsory.
requisite (formal) – needed for a particular purpose: He lacked the requisite skills for the job.
indispensable (formal) – something or someone that is indispensable is so important or useful that something cannot be done without that person or thing: The accounting program is indispensable for small businesses.

2 a necessary evil something bad or unpleasant that you have to accept in order to achieve what you want: He regarded work as a necessary evil. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin necessarius, from ne “not” + cedere “to give up”] ne-ces-si-tate /nəˈsɛsəˌteɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to make something necessary

ne-ces-si-ty /nəˈsɛsəti/ n. (plural necessities) 1 [C] something that you need to have or that must happen: A car is an absolute necessity in the suburbs. | A valid driver's license is a necessity for renting a car. | basic necessities like food and shelter 2 [U] the fact of something being necessary: Many parents are questioning the necessity of standardized tests. | She went back to work, but only out of necessity.

neck¹ /nek/ n. [C] 1 the part of your body that joins your head to your shoulders: She was wearing a gold chain around her neck. | Swans have long slender necks. → see picture on page A3 2 V-necked/open-necked etc. also V-neck/open-necked if a piece of clothing is V-necked, open-necked, etc., it has that type of neck: a V-neck sweater | an open-necked shirt 3 the long narrow part of something such as a bottle or a musical instrument 4 neck and neck (informal) if two people, teams, etc. are neck and neck in a competition, they both have an equal chance of winning 5 in this neck of the woods (informal) in this area or part of the country: What are you doing in this neck of the woods? 6 be up to your neck in sth (informal) to be in a very difficult situation, or to be very busy doing something: Mason is up to his neck in debt. [ORIGIN: Old English hnecca]

neck² v. [I] (informal, old-fashioned) if two people neck, they kiss for a long time in a sexual way neck-lace /ˈnek-lɪs/ n. [C] a piece of jewelry that hangs around your neck: a pearl necklace → see picture at JEWELRY neck-line /ˈnek-laɪn/ n. [C] the shape made by the edge of a woman's dress, shirt, etc. around or below the neck: a low neckline neck-tie /ˈnɛktaɪ/ n. [C] (formal) a tie nec-tar /ˈnɛktər/ n. [U] 1 thick juice made from some fruits: peach nectar 2 the sweet liquid that BEES collect from flowers nec-ta-rine /ˈnɛktərɪn/ n. [C] a round juicy yellow-red fruit that has a large rough seed and smooth skin née /neɪ/ adj. used in order to show the family name that a woman had before she was married: Lorna Brown, née Wilson

need¹ /nid/ v. [T] 1 to feel that you must have or do something, or that something is necessary: I need a vacation. | What do you need the money for? | He knows exactly what needs to be done. | David, I need you to pick up the dry cleaning. | Affordable housing is badly/desperately needed in the city.

THESAURUS

could use sth/could do with sth (spoken) – to need or want something: Let's stop. I could use a rest.

be desperate for sth – to need something urgently: a little boy who is desperate for attention can't do without sth – to be unable to manage without something: I can't do without my morning coffee.

be dependent on sth/sb – to be unable to live or continue normally without something or someone: The refugees are dependent on outside food supplies.

require – to need something in order to be successful: This sport requires a lot of skill and strength.

2 to have to do something: There's something I need to tell you. | Do we need to bring anything? | You don't need to make a reservation.

USAGE

Use must not or mustn't when saying that someone should not do something: You mustn't tell anyone about this. Must not is quite formal and is used mainly in written English.

Use don't have to when saying that it is not necessary for someone to do something: You don't have to stay if you don't want to. → MUST¹

3 sb does not need sth (spoken) used in order to say that something will make someone's life more difficult: "He's always questioning everything I do." "Yeah, you don't need that." [ORIGIN: Old English nied, ned]

need² n. 1 [singular,U] a situation in which something must be done, especially to improve the situation: I've never felt the need to diet. | There is no need to apologize. | a need for change | There's an urgent need for more nurses. | We will work all night if need be (=if it is necessary). 2 [C usually plural] something that you need in order to be healthy, comfortable, successful, etc.: We aim to meet the needs of our customers. | children with special needs (=physical or learning problems) 3 in need of sth needing attention, help, money, etc.: a large population in need of doctors 4 in need not having enough food or money: We're collecting donations for families in need.

nee-dle¹ /ˈniːdl/ n. [C] 1 a small thin piece of steel used for sewing, that has a point at one end and a hole at the other end: a needle and thread 2 the sharp hollow metal part on the end of a SYRINGE: Drug users are at risk when they share needles. 3 a small thin pointed leaf, especially from a PINE tree → see picture at PLANT¹ 4 the very small pointed part in a RECORD PLAYER, that picks up sound from the records 5 sth is like looking for a needle in a haystack used in order to say that something is almost impossible to find [ORIGIN: Old English nædl]

needle² v. [T] to deliberately annoy someone by making a lot of unkind remarks or stupid jokes need-less /'nid-lɪs/ adj. 1 needless to say used when you are telling someone something that s/he probably already knows or expects: Needless to say, with four children we're always busy. 2 not necessary, and often easily avoided: Why take needless risks? —needlessly adv.

nee-dle-work /'nidl,wɜ:k/ n. [U] the activity or art of sewing, or things made by sewing need-y /'nɪdi/ adj. 1 having very little food or money: a needy family

THESAURUS poor, destitute, impoverished, indigent, poverty-stricken, deprived → POOR

2 the needy people who do not have enough food or money ne-far-i-ous /nɪ'fəriəs, -'fær-/ adj. (formal) evil or criminal: a nefarious plot to kill the mayor —nefariously adv. —nefariousness n. [U] ne-gate /nɪ'gert/ [Ac] v. [T] (formal) to prevent something from having any effect: The decision would effectively negate last year's Supreme Court ruling. | The drug's side effects negate any possible benefit to the patient. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin, past participle of negare “to say no”] —negation /nɪ'geɪʃən/ n. [U]

neg-a-tive¹ /'negətɪv/ [Ac] adj. 1 bad or harmful [ANT] positive: The divorce had a negative effect on the children. 2 considering only the bad qualities of a situation, person, etc. [ANT] positive: a negative attitude | He has always been very negative about the U.S. 3 saying or meaning no [ANT] affirmative: The response was negative. 4 SCIENCE a medical or scientific test that is negative does not show any sign of what was being looked for [ANT] positive: She tested negative for HIV. | The blood tests came back/up/out negative. 5 PHYSICS having the type of electrical charge that is carried by ELECTRONS, shown by a (-) sign on a BATTERY [ANT] positive: Make the connection to the negative terminal on the battery. 6 MATH a negative number or quantity is lower than zero. (-) is the negative sign. [ANT] positive: They had a negative return on their investment. 7 BIOLOGY not having RHESUS FACTOR in your blood [ANT] positive: Her blood type is O negative. —negatively adv.

negative² n. 1 [C] a piece of film that shows dark areas as light and light areas as dark, from which a photograph is printed: A copy of the photograph was made from the negative. 2 [U] a statement or expression that means no [ANT] affirmative: He replied in the negative. 3 [C] something bad or harmful [ANT] positive: Another negative was the increase in unemployment. | In this case, the negatives outweigh the positives.

ne-glect¹ /nɪ'glekt/ v. [T] 1 to not pay enough attention to someone or something, or to not take care of him, her, or it very well: Each year, 700,000 children are abused or neglected. 2 to not do something, or forget to do it, especially because you are lazy or careless: Sarah neglected to tell us of the change in plans. —neglected adj.

neglect² n. [U] 1 failure to take care of something or someone well: cases of child abuse or neglect 2 the condition something or someone is in when he, she, or it has not been taken care of: inner cities in a state of neglect ne-glect-ful /nɪ'glektfəl/ adj. (formal) not taking care of something or someone very well: neglectful parents neg-li-gee /'neglɪ'ʒeɪ, 'neglɪ'ʒeɪ/ n. [C] a very thin pretty piece of clothing that a woman wears over a NIGHTGOWN neg-li-gence /'neglɪdʒəns/ n. [U] the failure to do something that you are responsible for in a careful enough way, so that something bad happens or may happen: They're suing the doctor for negligence.

neg-li-gent /'neglɪdʒənt/ adj. not being careful enough about something that you are doing, so that serious mistakes are made: The company had been negligent in its safety procedures. —negligently adv.

neg-li-gi-ble /'neglɪdʒəbəl/ adj. too slight or unimportant to have any effect [SYN] insignificant —negligibly adv.

ne-go-tia-ble /nɪ'gouʃəbəl/ adj. prices, agreements, etc. that are negotiable can be discussed and changed: Is the salary negotiable?

ne-go-ti-ate /nɪ'gouʃi,eɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to discuss something in order to reach an agreement: UN representatives are trying to negotiate a ceasefire. | The government refuses to negotiate with terrorists. 2 [T] to succeed in getting past or over a difficult place on a road, path, etc.: an old man carefully negotiating the steps [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of negotiari “to do business”] —negotiator n. [C]

ne-go-ti-a-tion /nɪ'gouʃi'eɪʃən/ n. [C usually plural, U] official discussions between two groups who are trying to agree on something: We can't discuss the details because they are still under negotiation. | Baseball owners have begun negotiations with the players' union. | budget negotiations between the White House and Congress

Ne-gro /'nɪgroʊ/ n. (plural Negroes) [C] (old-fashioned) a word used in the past for a black person. This word is now considered offensive. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Spanish, Portuguese, from negro “black,” from Latin niger] —Negro adj.

neigh /neɪ/ v. [I] to make a loud sound like a horse —neigh n. [C]

N

N

neigh·bor /ˈneɪbər/ n. [C] 1 someone who lives in a house or apartment very near you: The Nelsons are our next-door neighbors (=they live in the house next to ours). 2 someone who is sitting or standing next to you: Discuss the questions with your neighbor. 3 a country that has a border with another country: Germany and its European neighbors [ORIGIN: Old English neahgebur]

neigh·bor·hood /ˈneɪbərˌhʊd/ n. [C] 1 a small area of a town, or the people who live there: a nice neighborhood in Boston | a neighborhood school | Are there any good restaurants in the neighborhood (=in this area of town)?

THESAURUS area, district, suburb, slum, ghetto → AREA

2 in the neighborhood of sth either a little more or a little less than a particular number or amount: The car cost something/somewhere in the neighborhood of $60,000.

neigh·bor·ing /ˈneɪbərɪŋ/ adj. near the place where you are or the place you are talking about: neighboring towns

THESAURUS near, close, not far (away), nearby, within walking distance (of sth), local → NEAR¹ neigh·bor·ly /ˈneɪbərli/ adj. friendly and helpful toward your neighbors —neighborliness n. [U]

nei·ther /ˈniðər, ˈnaɪ-/ determiner, pron. not one or the other of two people or things → EITHER, NONE: Neither of them was hungry, but they had a cup of coffee. | Neither leader would admit to being wrong.

GRAMMAR

neither, neither of

Neither is used with a singular noun form and a singular verb: Neither answer is right.

Neither of is used with a plural noun form or pronoun, and the verb is usually singular:

Neither of them understood what she was saying.

neither² adv. used in order to agree with a negative statement that someone has made, or to add a negative statement to one that has just been made: "I don't like coffee." "Neither do I." | Bill can't sing at all, and neither can his brother. | "I haven't seen Greg in a long time." "Me neither."

neither³ conjunction neither ... nor ... used when mentioning two statements, facts, actions, etc. that are not true or possible: Neither his mother nor his father spoke English. | The equipment is neither accurate nor safe.

ne·o·con·ser·va·tive /ˌniːoʊkənˈsəvətɪv/ adj. [usually before noun] POLITICS supporting political ideas that include strict moral behavior and the importance of being responsible for your own actions and not being dependent on the government —neoconservative n. [C]

Ne·o·lith·ic, neolithic /ˌniːəˈlɪθɪk/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES relating to the last period of the STONE

AGE, about 10,000 years ago, when people began to live together in small groups and make stone tools and weapons: Neolithic art → PALEOLITHIC ne·ol·o·gism /niˈoləˌdʒɪzəm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a new word or expression, or a word used with a new meaning ne·on /ˈniːən/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a gas that shines brightly when electricity goes through it, used in lights and signs: neon lights ne·o·phyte /ˈniːəˌfaɪt/ n. [C] someone who has just started to learn a particular skill, art, job, etc.: a collection of CDs for jazz neophytes to listen to —neophyte adj. [only before noun]

neph·ew /ˈnefju/ n. [C] the son of your brother or sister, or the son of your husband's or wife's brother or sister → NIECE → RELATIVE¹

nep·o·tism /ˈnepəˌtɪzəm/ n. [U] (disapproving) the practice of giving the best jobs to members of your family when you are in a position of power

Nep·tune /ˈneptun/ n. PHYSICS the eighth PLANET from the Sun → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM

nerd /nɜːd/ n. [C] (informal) someone who is not fashionable and does not know how to behave in social situations: a computer nerd (=someone who is interested only in computers) —nerdy adj.

nerve /nɜːv/ n. 1 [U] the ability to stay calm in a dangerous, difficult, or frightening situation: It takes a lot of nerve to give a speech in front of so many people. | He would've won if he hadn't lost his nerve (=suddenly become very nervous).

THESAURUS courage, bravery, guts, valor, mettle → COURAGE

2 nerves [plural] the feeling of being nervous because you are worried or a little frightened: "What's wrong?" "It's just nerves. My exam is tomorrow." 3 [C] BIOLOGY one of the thin parts like threads inside your body that help control your movements, and along which your brain sends and receives feelings of heat, cold, pain, etc.: He has some nerve damage in his left hand. 4 get on sb's nerves (informal) to annoy someone, especially by doing something again and again: Joyce's complaining is getting on my nerves. 5 have the nerve to do sth (informal) to be rude without being ashamed or embarrassed about it: He had the nerve to criticize my cooking. 6 hit/touch/strike a (raw) nerve (informal) to mention something that people feel strongly about or that upsets people: I must have hit a raw nerve by asking him about his ex-wife. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin nervus]

'nerve·racking, nerve-wracking adj. very worrying or frightening: a nerve-racking wait for test results

ner·vous /ˈnɜːvəs/ adj. 1 worried or frightened about something, and unable to relax: Sam's nervous about taking his driving test again. | Would you stop staring? You're making me nervous. | nervous laughter | By the time I got to the interview, I was a nervous wreck (=was extremely nervous).

THESAURUS worried, anxious, concerned, uneasy, stressed (out), tense, apprehensive → WORRIED

2 often becoming worried or frightened and easily upset: a thin nervous man 3 relating to the nerves in your body: a nervous disorder —nervously adv. —nervousness n. [U]

'nervous 'breakdown n. [C] a mental illness in which someone becomes extremely anxious and tired and cannot live and work normally: He almost had/suffered a nervous breakdown last year.

'nervous ,system n. [C usually singular] BIOLOGY the system of nerves in your body, through which you feel pain, heat, etc. and control your movements

'nervous ,tissue n. [U] BIOLOGY TISSUE (=matter in the body made from many cells) that is made up of NEURONS (=cells that send messages to parts of the body and the brain)

nest¹ /nest/ n. [C] 1 a hollow place made or chosen by a bird to lay its eggs in and to live in: The robins were building a nest in our backyard. 2 a place where insects or small animals live: a hornets' nest 3 leave/fly the nest (informal) to leave your parents' house when you are an adult [ORIGIN: Old English] nest² v. [I] to build or use a nest: owls nesting in a tree hole

'nest egg n. [C] an amount of money that you have saved nes-tle /'nesəl/ v. 1 [I,T] to move into a comfortable position by pressing against someone or something: She nestled her head against his shoulder. 2 [I] (literary) to be in a position that is protected from wind, rain, etc.: a village nestling among the hills

net¹ /net/ n. 1 [C,U] a material made of strings, wires, or threads woven across each other with regular spaces between them: a fishing net 2 [C usually singular] a net used in particular games: The ball went straight into the net. 3 the Net the INTERNET: I read about it on the Net.

net² v. (netted, netting) [T] 1 to earn a particular amount of money as a profit after paying taxes → GROSS: Last year, they netted $52,000.

THESAURUS earn, make, get, be/get paid, gross → EARN

2 to catch a fish in a net

net³ adj. [only before noun] 1 ECONOMICS a net amount of money is the amount that remains after things such as taxes, etc. have been taken away

→ GROSS: a net profit/loss of $500,000 2 net weight the weight of something without its container 3 net worth ECONOMICS the value of a company or business after all its debts have been taken away from its profits, and the things it owns 4 net result the final result, after all the effects are known: The net result of the policy was higher prices in the stores.

net-i-quette, Netiquette /'netɪkɪt/ n. [U] IT the commonly accepted rules for polite behavior when communicating with other people on the Internet

net-ting /'netɪŋ/ n. [U] material consisting of string, wire, etc. that has been woven into a net net-tle /'netl/ n. [C] a wild plant with rough leaves that sting you

net-work¹ /'netˈwɜːk/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a group of radio or television stations that broadcasts many of the same programs in different parts of the country: the four biggest TV networks 2 IT a set of computers that are connected to each other so that they can share information: network administrators | I wasn't able to log onto the network. | Three-quarters of the traffic on their network consisted of emails. 3 a system of lines, tubes, wires, roads, etc. that cross each other and are connected to each other: the freeway network | the network of blood vessels in the body | The GPS system is based on a network of 24 satellites sending out radio signals. 4 a group of people, organizations, etc. that are connected or that work together: Trina had developed a good network of business contacts.

network² v. 1 [I] to meet other people who do the same type of work, in order to share information, help each other, etc.: Conferences can be a great opportunity to network. 2 [T] IT to connect several computers together so that they can share information: This system allows you to network all your computers.

net-work-ing /'netˈwɜːkɪŋ/ (Ac) n. [U] the practice of meeting other people who do the same type of work, in order to share information, help each other, etc.: Networking may give you the opportunity to find another job.

neu-rol-o-gy /nəˈrɒlədʒi/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the scientific study of the NERVOUS SYSTEM and the diseases that are related to it —neurologist n. [C] —neurological /ˌnɜːrəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj.

neu-ron /'nɒrən/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a type of cell in the NERVOUS SYSTEM that sends messages to muscles, the brain, and other parts of the body [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Greek “nerve”]

neu-ro-sis /nəˈrɒsɪs/ n. (plural neuroses /-ˈrɒsɪz/) [C,U] a mental illness that makes someone worried or frightened in an unreasonable way

neu-rot-ic /nəˈrɒtɪk/ adj. 1 unreasonably anxious or afraid: My aunt is neurotic about cleanliness. 2 relating to a neurosis: neurotic disorders —neurotically adv. —neurotic n. [C] neu-ter¹ /'nuːtə/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS in English grammar, a neuter PRONOUN such as “it” relates to something that has no sex, or does not show the sex of the person or animal that it relates to [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin “neither,” from ne- “not” + uter “which of two”]

N

neuter² v. [T] BIOLOGY to remove part of the sex organs of a male animal so that it cannot produce babies → SPAY

neu-tral¹ /'nu:trəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 not supporting either side in an argument, competition, or war: Switzerland was neutral during World War II. | The French government acted as a neutral observer during the talks. 2 not showing any strong feelings or opinions: “I see,” she said in a neutral tone. 3 a neutral color such as gray or brown is not strong or bright: Neutral tones give the room a feeling of space.

neutral² n. [U] the position of the GEARS of a car or machine when it will not move forward or backward: Start the car in neutral.

neu-tral-i-ty /nu:'træləti/ (Ac) n. [U] the state of not supporting either side in an argument, competition, or war: Switzerland was determined to maintain its traditional neutrality.

neu-tral-ize /'nu:trə,laɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] to prevent something from having any effect: Air freshener can help neutralize pet odors. | Higher taxes will neutralize increased wages. —neutralization /,nu:trələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [U]

neu-tron /'nu:trən/ n. [C] PHYSICS a part of an atom that has no electrical CHARGE [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Probably from neutral] → see picture at ATOM nev-er /'nevə/ adv. 1 not at any time, or not once: I've never been to Hawaii. | We waited until 11:00, but they never came. | I'll never make that mistake again. | I never knew (=I did not know until now) that you played the guitar!

THESAURUS

never ever (spoken) – used to emphasize that you mean never: I'll never ever forgive him.

not in a million years (spoken) – used to say that something is completely impossible: She wouldn't go without me – not in a million years!

not once – used to show that you are surprised or annoyed, or to emphasize something: Craig didn't phone all week – not once! → OFTEN, RARELY, SOMETIMES

2 never mind (spoken) used in order to tell someone that something was not important or that you do not want to say something again: “What did you say?” “Never mind, it doesn't matter.” 3 you never know (spoken) used in order to say that something that seems unlikely could happen: You never know, maybe you'll win.

GRAMMAR

Use never before a verb, unless the verb is “be”: I never thought that this would happen. | He's never late.

If there are two or more verbs together, never comes after the first one: She has never wanted to live anywhere else.

nev-er-the-less /,nevəðə'les/ (Ac) adv. in spite of what has just been mentioned: I know he's telling the truth. Nevertheless, I don't trust him.

THESAURUS

however, in spite of/despite, nonetheless → ALTHOUGH new /nu/ adj. 1 recently made, built, invented, or developed (ANT old): The city is building a new football stadium. | Can the new drugs help her? | technology that is completely new recent – used about something that was new or that happened a short time ago: recent news reports modern – used about things that are different from earlier things of the same kind: modern technology original – completely new and different from anything that has been done or thought of before: original ideas fresh – recently made or picked, or not done, seen etc. before: fresh bread latest – used about a film, book, fashion, etc. that is the newest one: his latest movie → OLD

THESAURUS

2 recently bought: Do you like my new dress? 3 not used or owned by anyone before (ANT used): A used car costs a lot less than a new one. | a brand new (=completely new) CD player 4 not experienced by someone before: Do you like your new teacher? | Learning a new language is always a challenge. | The idea was new to me. 5 having recently arrived in a place, or started a different job or activity: Are you a new student here? | Charlie is new to the area and eager to meet people. | It's hard being the new kid on the block (=the newest person in a job, school, etc.). 6 recently discovered: new evidence | a new planet 7 what's new? (spoken) used as a friendly greeting to ask what is happening in someone's life [ORIGIN: Old English niwe] —newness n. [U]

'New Age adj. relating to a set of beliefs about religion, medicine, and ways of life that are not part of traditional Western religions, etc.

new-bie /'nubi/ n. [C] (informal, humorous) someone who has just started doing something, especially using the Internet or computers (SYN beginner) new-born /'nubɔ:n/ n. [C] a baby that has recently been born —newborn /,nu'bɔ:n/ adj.

new-com-er /'nu,kəmər/ n. [C] someone who has recently arrived somewhere or recently started a particular activity: a newcomer to the real estate business

new-fan-gled /'nu,fæŋgəld/ adj. [only before noun] (disapproving) newfangled ideas, machines, etc. have been recently invented but seem complicated or unnecessary: newfangled ideas about raising children new·ly /'nuli/ adv. newly elected/formed etc. elected, etc. very recently: the newly appointed chairman

THESAURUS recently, just, lately →
RECENTLY

new·ly·weds /'nuli,wɛdz/ n. [plural] a man and a woman who have recently gotten married

news /nuz/ n. 1 [U] information about something that has happened recently: Have you heard (=received) any news about your job application? | I have some good/bad news for you. | We were shocked by the news that Tom had left his wife. | I don't know how I'm going to break the news to her (=tell her about something bad that has happened). | an interesting piece of news 2 [U] reports of recent events in the newspapers or on the radio or television: There is more news of fighting in the area. | a news story/report/item on the plane crash | local/national/international news | 20 years ago, environmental issues rarely made the news (=were reported in newspapers, etc.). 3 the news a regular television or radio program that gives you reports of recent events: the 11 o'clock news | We usually watch the evening news. | The teachers' strike was on the news. 4 that's news to me (spoken) said when you are surprised or annoyed because you were not told something earlier: The meeting's been canceled? That's news to me.

GRAMMAR

News is always followed by a singular verb: The news was good. You can say some news, any news, etc., or a piece of news: I have some news for you.

'news agency n. [C] a company that supplies reports on recent events to newspapers, television, and radio

'news bulletin n. [C] a very short news program about something important that has just happened, that is broadcast suddenly in the middle of a television or radio program news·cast /'nuz,kæst/ n. [C] a news program on television or the radio news·cast·er /'nuz,kæstə/ n. [C] someone who reads the news on television or the radio news·let·ter /'nuz,lɛtə/ n. [C] a short written report of news about a club, organization, or particular subject, that is sent regularly to people: our church newsletter

news·pa·per /'nuz,pɛpə/ n. 1 [C] also paper a set of large folded sheets of paper containing news, pictures, advertisements, etc. that is printed and sold daily or weekly: the local newspaper | I saw your picture in the newspaper. | a newspaper article

THESAURUS

Newspapers in general the papers, the press, the media (=newspapers, TV, radio, etc.)

tabloid – a newspaper that has small pages, a lot of photographs, short stories, and not much serious news broadsheet – a serious newspaper printed on large sheets of paper

Parts of a newspaper

front page – the first page, which usually contains the most important news sports/entertainment/food etc. sections – the set of pages dealing with sports, entertainment, etc.

the comics page/the funnies – the page with many different cartoons editorial/opinion/op-ed page – the page or pages in which the editor and other people express their opinions about the news, rather than just giving facts headlines – the titles of newspaper articles, printed in large letters above the article, and which usually show the most important pieces of news article – a piece of writing about a particular subject report – a piece of writing in a newspaper about an event story – a report in a newspaper about a recent event column – an article on a particular subject or by a particular writer, that appears regularly

People who write newspapers editor – the person who is in charge of a newspaper, magazine, etc. and decides what should be included in it, or the person who prepares an article for printing by deciding what to include and checking for mistakes reporter – someone whose job is to report on events for a newspaper or magazine, or on television or the radio journalist – someone who writes reports for newspapers and magazines correspondent – someone whose job is to report news from a distant area or about a particular subject columnist – someone who writes articles, especially about a particular subject, that appear regularly

2 [U] sheets of paper from old newspapers: We packed the dishes in newspaper. 3 [C] a company that produces a newspaper news·print /'nuz,prɪnt/ n. [U] cheap paper used mostly for printing newspapers news·stand /'nuz,stænd/ n. [C] a place on a street where newspapers are sold news·wor·thy /'nuz,wəði/ adj. important or interesting enough to be reported as news: news-worthy events news·y /'nuzi/ adj. (informal) a newsy letter is from a friend or relative and contains a lot of information about him/her newt /nut/ n. [C] a small animal with a long body, four legs, and a tail, that lives in water

N

N

New 'Testament n. the New Testament the part of the Bible that is about Jesus Christ's life and what he taught → OLD TESTAMENT new-ton /'nʊtən/ n. [C] PHYSICS (written abbreviation N) a unit for measuring force. One newton is equal to the force needed to make an object that weighs one kilogram move at a speed that increases every second by one meter a second.

Newton's First 'Law n. PHYSICS a scientific rule which says that an object will not start to move, or will not move forward faster, unless it is made to do so by an outside force new 'wave n. [C usually singular] people who are trying to introduce new ideas in music, movies, art, politics, etc.: a new wave of Hong Kong filmmakers —new-wave adj.

New 'World n. the New World HISTORY North, Central, and South America, used when talking about the time that Europeans first discovered these areas

new 'year n. [C] 1 New Year also New Year's the time when you celebrate the beginning of the year: Happy New Year! | Have you made any New Year's resolutions (=promises to improve yourself)? 2 the new year the year after the present year, especially the months at the beginning of it: We're opening three new stores in the new year.

New Year's 'Day n. a holiday on January 1, the first day of the year in Western countries

New Year's 'Eve n. a holiday on December 31, the last day of the year in Western countries, when many people have parties to celebrate the start of the new year

next¹ /nekst/ determiner, adj. 1 the next day, time, event, etc. is the one that happens after the present one: The next flight leaves in 45 minutes. | They returned to New York the next day. | Next time (=when this happens again), be more careful. | See you next week. | School starts next Monday. ▶ Don't say "the next Monday/month/year, etc." ◀

THESAURUS

following – immediately after the one you have just been talking about: The following day, she invited me to dinner.

subsequent (formal) – coming after or following something else: In subsequent years, Dr. Kim devoted all of his time to research.

succeeding – coming after something else: In the succeeding weeks, he gradually grew stronger.

later – coming in the future, or after something else: We'll discuss this at a later time.

ensuing (formal) – happening after something, often as a result of it: He realized, in the ensuing silence, that he had said the wrong thing.

2 the next place is the one closest to where you are now: Turn left at the next corner. | the people at the next table 3 the next person or thing on a list, in a series, etc. is the one that comes after the present one: Who's the next person in line? | Read the next two chapters by Friday. 4 the next best thing

the thing or situation that is almost as good as the one you really want: If we can't be together, talking on the phone is the next best thing.

next² adv. 1 immediately afterward: What should we do next? | First, write your name at the top of the page. Next, read the instructions.

THESAURUS after, afterward, later, subsequently → AFTER¹

2 next to sb/sth very close to someone or something, with nothing in between: I sat next to a really nice lady on the plane. | The baby sleeps in the room next to ours. 3 next to nothing very little: Phil earns next to nothing. 4 next to impossible very difficult: It's next to impossible to get tickets for the game.

next³ pron. 1 the person or thing in a list, series, etc. that comes after the person or thing you are dealing with now: What's next on the shopping list? | We're next in line. 2 the day/week etc. after next the day, week, etc. that follows the next one: The week after next is our spring break.

next 'door adv. in the room, building, etc. that is next to yours or someone else's: Deanna's office is right next door. | The Garcias just bought the house next door to my mother's.

'next-door adj. [only before noun] relating to the room, building, etc. that is next to yours: Our next-door neighbor will take care of the cats for us.

next of 'kin n. [U] LAW your closest living relative or relatives, for example your mother, father, son, or daughter: The victim will not be named until her next of kin are informed.

NFC n. National Football Conference a group of teams that is part of the NFL

NFL n. National Football League the organization that is in charge of professional football in the U.S.

NH the written abbreviation of NEW HAMPSHIRE

NHL n. National Hockey League the organization that is in charge of professional HOCKEY in the U.S. and Canada nib-ble /'nɪbəl/ v. [I,T] to eat a small amount of food by taking very small bites: Guests were nibbling on cheese and crackers. —nibble n. [C]

THESAURUS eat, pick at, ingest → EAT

nice /naɪs/ adj. 1 good, pleasant, attractive, or enjoyable: Did you have a nice time last night? | That's a nice sweater. | Their apartment is much nicer than ours. | You look nice today. | It's nice to see you again. | It would be nice if Chris could come. | It's really nice out (=the weather is good) today. | Let's sit by the fire where it's nice and warm.

THESAURUS

enjoyable – used for describing something that gives you pleasure because it is interesting, exciting, etc.: an enjoyable day at the beach pleasant – used for describing something that you like, especially something that is peaceful or relaxing: It had been a pleasant evening.

great/fantastic/wonderful – used for describing something that you like very much: "How was your vacation?" "Wonderful!"
 → HORRIBLE

2 friendly or kind: Matt is a really nice guy. | It was nice of you to stop by. | Be nice to your little sister!

THESAURUS kind, considerate, thoughtful, caring, warm-hearted, sympathetic → KIND²

SPOKEN PHRASES

3 (it's) nice to meet you a polite phrase used when you meet someone for the first time 4 (it was) nice meeting you a polite phrase used when you say goodbye after meeting someone for the first time 5 Have a nice day! a phrase used when you say goodbye to someone, especially to a customer in a store, restaurant, etc. 6 Nice going/move/one! said as a joke when someone makes a mistake or does something wrong: "I just spilled my coffee!" "Nice going!"

[ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French “stupid,” from Latin nescius “lacking knowledge”]
—niceness n. [U]

—nice-looking adj. fairly attractive: He's a really nice-looking guy. → ATTRACTIVE

—nice-ly /'naɪsli/ adv. 1 in a satisfactory, pleasing, or skillful way (SYN) well: Belinda is always so nicely dressed (=wearing attractive clothes). | His arm is healing nicely. 2 in a polite or friendly way: I'm sure he'll help if you ask him nicely.

—ni-ce-ty /'naɪsəti/ n. (plural niceties) [C] something small that is nice to have, but not necessary: The car includes such niceties as GPS and cruise control.

—niche /nɪtʃ/ n. [C] a job or activity that is perfect for the skills, abilities, and character that you have: After many years, she found her niche as a fashion designer.

—nick¹ /nɪk/ n. [C] 1 in the nick of time just before it is too late or before something bad happens: The doctor arrived just in the nick of time. 2 a very small cut on the surface or edge of something

—nick² v. [T] to accidentally make a small cut on the surface or edge of something: I nicked my chin when I was shaving.

—nick-el /'nɪkəl/ n. 1 [C] a coin used in the U.S. and Canada worth five cents (=1/20 of a dollar)

THESAURUS money, bill, coin, penny, dime, quarter → MONEY

2 [U] CHEMISTRY a hard silver-white metal that is an ELEMENT and is used for making other metals [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 German kupfernickel substance containing nickel, from kupfer “copper” + nickel “spirit that plays tricks;” because the substance contains no copper, even though it looks like copper]

—nick-name /'nɪkneɪm/ n. [C] a silly name or a shorter form of someone's real name, usually given by friends or family: The kids had nicknames for all the teachers. —nickname v. [T]: The puppy was soon nicknamed “Trouble.”

THESAURUS name, first name/given name, last name/family name/surname, middle name, full name, stage name, pen name/pseudonym, assumed name/alias → NAME¹

—nic-o-tine /'nɪkə,tɪn/ n. [U] a dangerous substance in tobacco [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Jean Nicot (1530–1604), French diplomat who first brought tobacco into France]

—niece /nis/ n. [C] the daughter of your brother or sister, or the daughter of your husband's or wife's brother or sister → NEPHEW → RELATIVE¹

—nif-ty /'nɪfti/ adj. (informal) very good, fast, or effective: a nifty little machine

—nig-gling /'nɪɡlɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] not very important, but continuing to annoy someone: a nigging doubt

—night /naɪt/ n. 1 [C,U] the dark part of each 24-hour period, when the Sun cannot be seen → DAY: a cold night | I stayed up all night to finish the paper. | You can see the stars really clearly here at night. 2 [C,U] the evening → TONIGHT: Some friends are coming over tomorrow night. | What did you do last night? | I fly back to New Orleans on Thursday night. | I don't want to walk home alone late at night. ▶ Don't say “this night,” say “tonight.” ◀ 3 [C,U] the time when most people are sleeping: The baby cried all night long. | We'll spend the night (=sleep) at my parents' and come back Sunday. | I woke up in the middle of the night. | What you need is a good night's sleep (=to sleep well all night). 4 nights [plural] if you do something nights, you do it regularly or often at night: Peter works nights. 5 night and day also day and night all the time: We had to work night and day to get it finished. 6 night after night every night for a long period: He goes out drinking night after night. [ORIGIN: Old English niht]

—night-club /'naɪtˈklʌb/ n. [C] a place where people can drink and dance that is open late at night

—night-fall /'naɪtˌfɔːl/ n. [U] (literary) the time in the evening when the sky becomes darker (SYN) dusk

—night-gown /'naɪtˈgaʊn/ n. [C] a piece of loose clothing, like a dress, that women wear in bed

—night-ie /'naɪti/ n. [C] (informal) a nightgown

—night-in-gale /'naɪtˈn,geɪl, 'naɪtɪŋ-/ n. [C] a small European wild bird that sings very beautifully, especially at night

—night-life /'naɪtˈlaɪf/ n. [U] entertainment in places where you can dance, drink, etc. in the evening: Las Vegas is famous for its nightlife.

N

'night light n. [C] a small not very bright light, often used in a child's room at night, so that s/he will not be afraid of the dark night-ly /'naɪtli/ adj., adv. happening every night: the nightly news | The restaurant is open nightly.

night-mare /'naɪtˈmɛr/ n. [C] 1 a very frightening dream: I still have terrible nightmares about the accident. 2 (informal) a person, thing, situation, etc. that is very bad or very difficult to deal with: Living with my parents again would be a total nightmare! —nightmarish adj.

'night owl n. [C] (informal) someone who enjoys being awake or working late at night

'night school n. [U] classes taught at night, for people who work during the day: I was working every day and going to night school.

night-stand /'naɪtstænd/ also 'night table n. [C] a small table beside a bed night-time /'naɪt-taɪm/ n. [U] the time during the night when the sky is dark (ANT daytime) ni-hil-ism /'niə,lɪzəm, 'naɪ-/ n. [U] the belief that nothing in life has any meaning or value, and that all social and political institutions should be destroyed —nihilist n. [C] —nihilistic /,niə'lɪstɪk/ adj.

nil /nɪl/ n. [U] (formal) nothing or zero: His chances of winning the election are almost/practically/virtually nil.

nim-ble /'nɪmbəl/ adj. able to move quickly and skillfully (SYN agile: nimble fingers) nim-bus /'nɪmbəs/ n. (plural nimbuses or nimbi //) [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES a dark cloud that may bring rain or snow → CIRRUS, CUMULONIMBUS, CUMULUS, STRATUS nin-com-poop /'nɪŋkəm,pup/ n. [C] (old-fashioned, informal) a stupid person (SYN idiot)

nine /naɪn/ number 1 9 2 nine o'clock: I have to be in the office by nine. | The store opens at nine. 3 nine years old: Larry will be nine next July. [ORIGIN: Old English nigon] nine-teen /,naɪn'teɪn/ number 19 —nineteenth number nine-to-five adj., adv. from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m., the hours that most people work in an office: I work nine-to-five most days. | a nine-to-five job nine-ty /'naɪnti/ number 1 90 2 the nineties a) the years between 1990 and 1999 b) the numbers between 90 and 99, especially when used for measuring temperatures 3 be in your nineties to be between 90 and 99 years old —ninetieth /'naɪntiθ/ number ninth /naɪnθ/ number 1 9th 2 1/9 nip¹ /nɪp/ v. (nipped, nipping) 1 [I,T] to bite someone or something with small sharp bites, or to try to do this: This stupid dog keeps nipping at my ankles. 2 nip sth in the bud to prevent something from becoming a problem by stopping it as soon as it starts nip² n. [C] a small sharp bite nip-ple /'nɪpəl/ n. [C] 1 the dark raised circle in the middle of a woman's breast that a baby sucks in order to get milk 2 one of the two dark raised circles on a man's chest 3 the small piece of rubber on the end of a baby's bottle nip-py /'nɪpi/ adj. (informal) weather that is nippy is a little cold (SYN chilly) nir·va·na, Nirvana /nəˈvɑnə, nɪr-/ n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the final state of complete knowledge and understanding that is the aim of believers in Buddhism [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Sanskrit nīs- “out” + vati “it blows”] nit /nɪt/ n. [C] the egg of a LOUSE (=small insect) nit-pick-ing /'nɪt,pɪkɪŋ/ n. [U] (informal, disapproving) the act of criticizing people about unimportant details —nitpick v. [I] —nitpicking adj.

ni-trate /'naɪtreɪt/ n. [C,U] CHEMISTRY a chemical compound that is mainly used for improving the soil that crops are grown in ni-tro-gen /'naɪtrədʒən/ n. [U] (symbol N) CHEMISTRY a gas that is an ELEMENT and is the main part of the Earth's air

'nitrogen cycle n. [singular] EARTH SCIENCES a continuous process by which nitrogen in the air is taken in by plants, soil, and some living creatures and is then passed back out into the air nit-ty-grit-ty /'nɪti,grɪti, 'nɪti'grɪti/ n. the nitty-gritty (informal) the basic and practical facts and details of an agreement or activity: Let's get down to the nitty-gritty and work out the cost.

nit-wit /'nɪtˈwɪt/ n. [C] (informal) a silly stupid person nix /nɪks/ v. [T] (informal) to answer no to something or refuse something: They immediately nixed my idea.

NJ the written abbreviation of NEW JERSEY

NM the written abbreviation of NEW MEXICO

no¹ /nos/ adv. 1 said in order to give a negative reply to a question, offer, or request (ANT yes: “Is she married?” “No, she's not.” | “Do you want some more coffee?” “No thanks.” | When I asked him, he said no. 2 (spoken) said when you disagree with a statement (ANT yes: “Gary's weird.” “No, he's just shy.” 3 (spoken) said when you do not want someone to do something (ANT yes: No, Jimmy, don't touch that.

no² determiner 1 not any, or not at all: There was no evidence that a crime had been committed. | There's no more milk. | He had no intention of returning the money. | There's no reason to be afraid. 2 used on a sign in order to show that something is not allowed: No smoking | No pets → no good at GOOD², in no time at TIME¹

no³ n. (plural noes) [C usually singular] a negative answer or decision: Her answer was a definite no.

no. (plural nos.) the written abbreviation of NUMBER no-bil-i-ty /noʊˈbɪləti/ n. 1 the nobility the group of people in particular countries who have the highest social class and have special titles 2 [U] the quality of being noble

no-ble /ˈnoʊbəl/ adj. 1 morally good or generous in a way that should be admired: The money is going to a noble cause. | a noble ideal/goal 2 belonging to the group of people in particular countries who have the highest social class and special titles: noble families —nobly adv.

noble² also no-ble-man /ˈnoʊbəlˌmæn/, no-ble-wom-an /ˈnoʊbəlˌwʊmən/ n. (plural noblemen /-ˌmɛn/, noblewomen /-ˌwɪmɪn/) [C] someone who belongs to the nobility noble 'gas n. [C] CHEMISTRY a gas that is an ELEMENT and that combines with only a small number of other gases or not at all no-bod-y /ˈnoʊˌbɒdi, -ˌbɑdi/ pron. no person (SYN) no one: I knocked on the door, but nobody answered.

nobody² n. (plural nobodies) [C] someone who is not important, successful, or famous no-'brainer n. [C usually singular] (informal) something that you do not have to think about because it is easy to understand: The decision is a no-brainer — take the job.

noctur-nal /nɒkˈtʊnl/ adj. 1 BIOLOGY nocturnal animals are active at night 2 (formal) happening at night [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Late Latin nocturnal, from Latin nocturnus “by night,” from nox “night”]

nod /nɒd/ v. (nodded, nodding) 1 [I,T] to move your head up and down, especially to show that you agree with or understand something: Dora nodded her head in agreement. | He nodded and smiled. 2 [I] to move your head up and down once toward someone or something, in order to greet someone or to give him/her a sign to do something: I nodded to the waiter and asked for the bill. | “Sally’s in there,” Jim said, nodding toward the door. —nod n. [C]: He gave a nod of agreement.

nod off phr. v. to begin to sleep, often without intending to: His speech was so boring I kept nodding off.

node /nɒd/ n. [C] 1 MATH a place where lines in a network, GRAPH, etc. meet or join 2 BIOLOGY a LYMPH NODE no-'fault adj. [only before noun] 1 no-fault car insurance will pay for the damage done in an accident, even if you caused the accident 2 a no-fault DIVORCE does not blame either the husband or the wife no-'frills adj. [only before noun] without any features that are not completely necessary: a no-frills airline

Noh /noʊ/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a type of traditional Japanese musical play noise /nɔɪz/ n. [C,U] a sound or sounds that is or are too loud, annoying, or not intended: the noise of the traffic | You’re making too much noise. | Do you hear that squeaking noise? | There was a lot of noise outside.

THESAURUS

A sound is anything that you can hear: the sound of voices

A noise is usually a loud, unpleasant, or unexpected sound: the deafening noise of overhead planes noise-less /ˈnɔɪzɪs/ adj. (literary) not making any sound —noiselessly adv.

'noise pol-lution n. [U] very loud continuous noise in the environment, that is considered unpleasant and harmful to people noi-some /ˈnɔɪsəm/ adj. (literary) extremely bad, ugly, etc.: The poor were forced to live in noisome slums.

nois-y /ˈnɔɪzi/ adj. (comparative noisier, superlative noisiest) making a lot of noise, or full of noise: a noisy crowd | a noisy restaurant | Their lawn mower is really noisy. —noisily adv.

THESAURUS

loud, rowdy, thunderous, deafening, ear-splitting, raucous → LOUD¹ no-mad /ˈnoʊmæd/ n. [C] 1 a member of a tribe that travels from place to place, especially to find food for their animals: the desert nomads 2 someone who often travels from place to place, or who changes jobs, homes, etc. often —nomadic /noʊˈmædɪk/ adj.: nomadic tribes

'no-man's land n. [singular, U] land that no one owns or controls, especially between two opposing armies

no-men-cla-ture /ˈnoʊmənˌkleɪtʃər/ n. [C,U] SCIENCE a system of naming things

N

nom-i-nal /'nɒmənəl/ adj. 1 a nominal price/fee/sum etc. a small amount of money: You can get the new telephone service for a nominal fee. 2 nominal leader/head etc. someone who has the title of leader, etc. but does not actually do that job nom-i-nal-ly /'nɒmənəl-i/ adv. (formal) officially described as something or as doing something, although the truth may be different: The country is nominally Catholic.

nom-i-nate /'nɒməneɪt/ v. [T] 1 to officially choose someone so that s/he can be one of the competitors in an election, competition, etc.: Ferraro was the first woman to be nominated for the job of vice president. 2 to choose someone for a particular job or position: Margaret was nominated (as) club representative.

nom-i-na-tion /'nɒməneɪʃən/ n. [C,U] 1 the act of officially choosing someone to be a competitor in an election, competition, etc., or the official choice: Who will get the Republican nomination for president? 2 the act of choosing someone for a particular job, or the person chosen: Judge Howard's nomination to the United States Supreme Court | The Senate voted to confirm his nomination as defense secretary.

nom-i-na-tive /'nɒməneɪtɪv, 'nɒməneɪ- / n. [singular] ENG. LANG. ARTS a particular form of a noun in some languages, such as Latin and German, which shows that the noun is the SUBJECT of the verb —nom-inative adj.

nom-i-nee /'nɒmə'ni/ n. [C] someone who has been nominated for a prize, duty, etc.: the Democratic Party's presidential nominee non-ag-gres-sion /'nɒnə'ɡresʃən/ n. [U] the state of not fighting or attacking: a nonaggression pact/treaty (=a promise not to attack another country)

non-a-gon /'nɒnə'ɡɒn/ n. [C] MATH a flat shape with nine sides → POLYGON non-al-co-hol-ic, non-alcoholic /'nɒnəl'kɒ'hɒlɪk/ adj. nonalcoholic drinks do not contain any alcohol: nonalcoholic beer non-cha-lant /'nɒnʃə'lənt/ adj. calm and not seeming interested in or worried about anything: She tried to look nonchalant. —nonchalance n. [U] —nonchalantly adv.

non-com-bat-ant /'nɒnkəm'bætənt/ n. [C] someone who is in the military during a war but does not actually fight, for example a doctor non-com-mit-tal /'nɒnkəm'mɪtəl/ adj. (formal) not giving a definite answer, or not willing to express your opinions: The lawyer was noncommittal about his chances of going to prison. —noncommittally adv.

non-con-form-ist /'nɒnkən'fɔrmɪst/ [AC] n. [C] someone who deliberately does not accept the beliefs and ways of behaving that most people in a society accept: Nonconformists are not tolerated in corporate environments.

non-count /'nɒn'kaʊnt/ adj. noncount noun ENG. LANG. ARTS an UNCOUNTABLE noun non-'dairy adj. containing no milk, and used instead of a product that contains milk: non-dairy creamer non-denomi'national adj. not related to a particular religion or religious group: a non-denominational chapel non-de-script /'nɒndr'skript/ adj. not having any noticeable or interesting qualities: a nondescript man in a plain gray suit

none¹ /nʌn/ quantifier, pron. 1 not any of something: "Can I have some more pie?" "Sorry, there's none left." 2 not one person or thing: None of my friends has a bike. | An old car is better than none at all. 3 none other than sb used in order to emphasize a fact when you are surprised that it is true: Pam's writing was praised by none other than Toni Morrison.

GRAMMAR

When you use none with an uncountable noun, the verb is singular: None of the money has been spent.

When you use none with a plural noun form, the verb can be singular or plural: None of the rooms is being used. | None of my friends were there.

none² adv. 1 none the worse/wiser etc. not any worse than before, not knowing any more than before, etc.: She seems none the worse for her experience. 2 none too soon/likely etc. not at all soon, not at all likely, etc.: Consumers are none too happy about the price increase.

non-en-ti-ty /'nɒn'entəti/ n. (plural nonentities) [C] someone who has no importance, power, or ability

none-the-less /'nɒnðə'les/ [AC] adv. (formal) in spite of what has just been mentioned [SYN] nevertheless: Although some residents protested, the council nonetheless voted to demolish the building. | The influence of the media was small, but nonetheless significant.

THESAURUS however, in spite of/despite, nevertheless → ALTHOUGH non-ex-ist-ent /'nɒnɪg'zɪstənt/ adj. not existing at all in a particular place or situation: Airplanes were practically nonexistent in those days.

non-fat /'nɒn'fæt/ adj. nonfat milk, YOGURT, etc. has no fat in it non-fic-tion /'nɒn'fɪkʃən/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS articles, books, etc. about real facts or events, not imagined ones [ANT] fiction —nonfiction adj.

non-flam-ma-ble /'nɒn'flæməbəl/ adj. difficult or impossible to burn [ANT] flammable, inflammable non-im-mi-grant /'nɒn'ɪməgrənt/ n. [C] someone who is living in or visiting a foreign country, but is not planning to live there permanently —nonimmigrant adj.: a nonimmigrant student visa non-in-ter-ven-tion /ˌnɒnɪntəˈvenʃən/ n. [U] the refusal of a government to become involved in the affairs of other countries non-lin-e-ar pro-gres-sion /ˌnɒnˌlɪniəˈprɒɡreʃən/ also non-linear 'sequence n. [C] MATH a series of numbers, for example 1, 3, 4, 8, with different increases between them. If you showed them on a GRAPH, they would not form a straight line. → ARITHMETIC SEQUENCE, GEOMETRIC SEQUENCE non-native 'speaker n. [C] someone who has learned a particular language as a foreign language

'no-no n. (plural no-nos or no-no's) (informal) something that is not allowed, or not socially acceptable: Chewing gum during a job interview is a definite no-no.

no-'nonsense adj. very practical, direct, and unwilling to waste time: a no-nonsense attitude toward work non-pay-ment /ˌnɒnˈpeɪmənt/ n. [U] ECONOMICS failure to pay bills, taxes, or debts: nonpayment of rent non-plussed /ˌnɒnˈplʌst/ adj. so surprised that you do not know what to say or do

THESAURUS surprised, amazed, shocked, astonished, astounded, flabbergasted, stunned, dumbfounded, taken aback → SURPRISED

non-prof-it /ˌnɒnˈprɒfɪt/ adj. ECONOMICS a non-profit organization, school, hospital, etc. uses the money it earns to help people instead of making a profit, and therefore does not have to pay taxes —nonprofit n. [C]: Danson works for a Seattle nonprofit.

non-pro-lif-er-a-tion /ˌnɒnpɹəˌlɪfəˈreɪʃən/ n. [U] the act of limiting the number of NUCLEAR or chemical weapons that are being made across the world non-re-fund-a-ble /ˌnɒnrɪˈfʌndəbəl/ adj. if something you buy is nonrefundable, you cannot get your money back after you have paid for it: nonrefundable airline tickets

non-re-new-a-ble /ˌnɒnrɪˈnuəbəl/ adj. nonrenewable types of energy, such as coal or gas, cannot be replaced after they have been used (ANT) renewable: Demand for many nonrenewable resources is still growing.

non-res-i-dent /ˌnɒnˈrezɪdənt/ n. [C] someone who does not live permanently in a particular place or country non-re-strict-ive clause /ˌnɒnrɪˈstrɪktɪvˈkloʊz/ also nonrestrictive, relative 'clause n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a CLAUSE that gives additional information about a particular person or thing, rather than saying which person or thing is being mentioned. For example, in the sentence “Perry, who is 22, worked at the company,” the phrase “who is 22” is a nonrestrictive clause. → RELATIVE CLAUSE, RESTRICTIVE CLAUSE non-sec-tar-i-an /ˌnɒnsɛkˈtəriən/ adj. not relating to a particular religion or religious group (ANT) sectarian: a nonsectarian charity non-sense /ˈnɒnsɛns, -sɛns/ n. [U] 1 ideas, statements, or opinions that are not true or that seem very stupid: That's complete/total/utter nonsense! 2 behavior that is stupid and annoying: She won't take any nonsense from the kids in her class. 3 speech or writing that has no meaning or cannot be understood: nonsense words —nonsensical /ˌnɒnˈsɛnsɪkəl/ adj.

non se-qui-tur /ˌnɒnˈsɛkwɪtʊr/ n. [C] (formal) a statement that does not seem related to the statements that were made before it [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin “it does not follow”] non-smok-er /ˌnɒnˈsmoʊkə/ n. [C] someone who does not smoke non-smok-ing /ˌnɒnˈsmoʊkɪŋ/ adj. a non-smoking area, building, etc. is one where people are not allowed to smoke non-stand-ard /ˌnɒnˈstændəd/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS nonstandard words, expressions, or pronunciations are usually considered incorrect by educated speakers of a language → STANDARD non-stick /ˌnɒnˈstriːk/ adj. nonstick pans have a special surface inside that food will not stick to non-stop /ˌnɒnˈstɒp/ adj., adv. without stopping, or without a stop: Dan worked nonstop for 12 hours. | a nonstop flight to New York non-vi-o-lence /ˌnɒnˈvaɪələns/ n. [U] the practice of opposing a government without fighting, for example by not obeying laws non-vi-o-lent /ˌnɒnˈvaɪələnt/ adj. not using or not involving violence: nonviolent protests noo-dle /ˈnuːdl/ n. [C usually plural] a long thin piece of soft food made from flour, water, and usually eggs, that is cooked by being boiled: egg noodles nook /nʊk/ n. [C] 1 a small quiet place or corner: a shady nook 2 every nook and cranny every part of a place: We've searched every nook and cranny for that key.

noon /nuːn/ n. [U] 12 o'clock in the middle of the day → MIDNIGHT: Lunch will be right at noon. | The gallery is open from noon to 5:00 p.m. [ORIGIN: Old English non “ninth hour from sunrise,” from Latin nonus “ninth”]

'no one pron. not anyone: I tried calling last night, but no one was home. | No one could remember her name.

noose /nuːs/ n. [C] a circle of a rope that becomes tighter as it is pulled, used for killing someone by hanging nope /nəʊp/ adv. (spoken, informal) no: “Aren't you hungry?” “Nope.”

N

N

no-place, 'no place /'noupləs/ adv. (informal) nowhere

nor /nɔː; strong nɔː/ conjunction 1 neither ... nor used in order to show that not one of a set of facts, people, qualities, actions, etc. is true: My mother's family was neither rich nor poor. | Neither Julie nor Mark said anything. 2 (formal) used after a negative statement when adding another negative statement: She didn't reply, nor did she look at him.

norm /nɔːm/ (Ac) n. [C] the usual or generally accepted way of doing something: Working at home is becoming the norm for many employees. | the social/cultural norms of American society | Kerouac's style of writing was a departure from the norm.

nor-mal /'nɔːməl/ (Ac) adj. 1 usual, typical, or expected: The store is open during normal business hours. | It's normal to feel nervous when you start a new job. | Under normal circumstances, such children grow into healthy adults.

THESAURUS

ordinary – not special or unusual: an ordinary day average – typical of a normal person or thing: the average family standard – used about products or methods that are the most usual type: shoes in standard sizes routine – used about something that is done regularly and is part of a normal system: a routine check of the plane conventional – used when comparing a piece of equipment, method, etc. that has been used for a long time with something that is new and different: microwaves and conventional ovens orthodox (formal) – officially accepted, and considered to be normal by most people: orthodox methods of treating disease → NATURAL¹

2 a normal person is mentally and physically healthy and does not behave strangely (ANT) abnormal: He seems like a perfectly normal child to me. | Sometimes his behavior doesn't seem entirely normal. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin normalis, from norma]

normal² n. [U] the usual state, level, or amount: The temperatures have been slightly above/below normal. | Things are finally getting back to normal.

nor-mal-i-ty /nɔː'mæləti/ (Ac) also nor-mal-cy /'nɔːməlsi/ n. [U] a situation in which everything happens in the usual or expected way: The country returned to normality after years of civil war.

nor-mal-ize /'nɔːməlaɪz/ (Ac) v. [I,T] to become normal again, or to make a situation become normal again: The two countries have normalized relations (=become friendly again after a period of disagreement). —normalization /,nɔːmələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [U]

nor-mal-ly /'nɔːməli/ (Ac) adv. 1 usually: I normally go to bed around 11. | Normally, it takes me about 20 minutes to get to work. 2 in the usual or expected way: Try to relax and breathe normally. | The engine began to run normally again.

Norse /nɔːs/ adj. relating to the people of ancient Scandinavia or their language: Norse mythology

north¹, North /nɔːθ/ n. [singular, U] 1 the direction toward the top of the world, or to the left of someone facing the rising Sun: Which way is north? 2 the north the northern part of a country, state, etc.: My relatives live in the north of the state. 3 the North the part of the U.S. east of the Mississippi River and north of Washington, D.C. [ORIGIN: Old English]

USAGE

Use north/south/east/west of sth in order to describe where a place is in relation to another place: Chicago is south of Milwaukee.

Use in the north/south/east/west of sth in order to say which part of a place you are talking about: The mountains are in the west of the province.

Use northern, southern, eastern, western with the name of a place: They have a cabin in northern Ontario.

Don't say "in the north of Ontario."

north² adj. 1 in, to, or facing north: a town 20 miles north of Salem | the north side of the street 2 north wind a wind coming from the north

north³ adv. 1 toward the north: Go north on I-5 to Portland. | The window faces north. 2 up North in or to the northern part of the U.S.: He lives most of the year up North but winters in Florida.

North A'merica n. one of the seven CONTINENTS, that includes land between the Arctic Ocean and the Caribbean Sea —North American adj.

north-bound /'nɔːθbaʊnd/ adj. traveling or leading toward the north: northbound traffic

north-east¹ /,nɔːθ'ist/ n. [U] 1 the direction that is exactly between north and east → see picture at NORTH¹ 2 the northeast the northeast part of a country, state, etc. 3 the Northeast the area of the U.S. that includes New England and the states of New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania —northeastern adj.

northeast² adj., adv. in, from, or toward the northeast: traveling northeast | a northeast wind north-er-ly /'nɔːrðə-li/ adj. 1 in or toward the north: sailing in a northerly direction 2 a northerly wind comes from the north north-ern /'nɔːrðən/ adj. in or from the north part of an area, country, state, etc.: northern California → see USAGE box at NORTH¹

north-ern-er, Northerner /'nɔːrðən-ə/ n. [C] someone who comes from the northern part of a country

Northern 'Lights n. the Northern Lights EARTH SCIENCES bands of colored lights that are seen in the night sky in the most northern parts of the world north-ern-most /'nɔːrðən,məʊst/ adj. farthest north: the northernmost tip of Maine

North 'Pole n. the North Pole EARTH SCIENCES the most northern point on the surface of the Earth, or the area around it → see picture at GLOBE north-ward /'nɔːrθwəd/ adj., adv. toward the north north-west¹ /'nɔːrθ'west/ n. [U] 1 the direction that is exactly between north and west → see picture at NORTH¹ 2 the northwest the northwest part of a country, state, etc. 3 the Northwest the area of the U.S. that includes the states of Idaho, Oregon, and Washington —northwestern adj.

northwest² adj., adv. in, from, or toward the northwest: driving northwest | a northwest wind

nose¹ /'noʊz/ n. [C]

1 FACE the part of your face that you use for smelling and breathing: a broken nose | He took out a tissue and blew his nose (=cleared it by blowing). | Don't pick your nose (=clean it with your finger). → see picture on page A3

2 sb's nose is running/sb has a runny nose if someone's nose is running, or if s/he has a runny nose, liquid is slowly coming out of it because s/he has a cold

3 red-nosed/long-nosed etc. having a nose that is red, long, etc.

4 (right) under sb's nose so close to someone that s/he should notice but does not: Lynn's husband had been having an affair right under her nose.

5 stick/poke your nose into sth (informal) to show too much interest in private matters that do not concern you: Jana's always sticking her nose into other people's business.

6 keep your nose out (of sth) (informal) to avoid becoming involved in a situation that should not involve you

7 look down your nose at sb (informal) to think that you are much better than someone else

8 turn your nose up (at sth) (informal) to refuse to accept something because you do not think it is good enough for you

9 on the nose (informal) exactly: Tanya guessed the price right on the nose.

10 AIRPLANE the pointed front end of an airplane, ROCKET, etc.

11 keep your nose to the grindstone to continue working very hard, without stopping to rest [ORIGIN: Old English nosu] → pay through the nose at PAY¹ nose² v. [I,T] to move forward, or move something forward, slowly and carefully: The ship nosed forward.

nose around (sth) phr. v. to try to find out private information about someone or something: Why were you nosing around my office?

nose-bleed /'noʊzbliːd/ n. [C] blood that is coming out of your nose: Bill has a nosebleed.

nose-dive /'noʊzdaɪv/ n. [C] 1 a sudden drop in amount, price, rate, etc.: The company's profits took a nosedive last year. 2 a sudden steep drop by an airplane, with its front end pointing toward the ground —nosedive v. [I]

'nose job n. [C] (informal) a medical operation on someone's nose in order to improve its appearance

no-'show n. [C] (informal) someone who does not arrive at a place or event where s/he was expected to be: The first baseman has been a no-show at spring training.

nos-tal-gia /nə'stældʒə, nə-/ n. [U] the slightly sad feeling you have when you remember happy events from the past: nostalgia for the good old days [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Modern Latin, Greek nostos "returning home" + algos "pain"] —nostalgic adj. —nostalgically adv.

nos-tril /'nɑːstrəl/ n. [C] one of the two holes at the end of your nose, through which you breathe → see picture on page A3 nos-y /'noʊzi/ adj. (disapproving) always trying to find out private information about someone or something: Our neighbors are really nosy. —nosiness n. [U]

not /nat/ adv. 1 used in order to make a word, statement, or question negative → NO: The museum is not open on Mondays. | She's not a very nice person. | I don't (=do not) smoke. 2 used instead of a whole phrase to mean the opposite of what has been mentioned before it: No one knows if the story is true or not. | "Is Mark still sick?" "I hope not." 3 used in order to make a word or phrase have the opposite meaning: The food is not very good there. | Not a lot/not much (=little) is known about the disease. | Most of the hotels were not that cheap (=they were fairly expensive). 4 not only in addition to being or doing something: She's not only funny, she's also smart. 5 not a sth/not one sth not any person or thing (SYN) no: Not one of the students knew the answer. | There wasn't (=was not) a cloud in the sky. 6 not bad! (spoken) said when you want to praise something, or when something is better than you expected: "See, I got a B+ on my test!" "Not bad!" 7 not that... used before a negative sentence: Sarah has a new boyfriend — not that I care (=I do not care).

N

N

no-ta-ble /'noʊtəbəl/ adj. [usually before noun] important, interesting, or unusual enough to be noticed: Freeman is the most notable player on the Texas team. | Most teachers agreed with the principal, with a few notable exceptions (=a few teachers did not).

no-ta-bly /'noʊtəbli/ adv. especially or particularly: Some politicians, most notably the President, refused to comment.

no-ta-rize /'noʊtəraɪz/ v. [T] if a document is notarized, a notary puts an official stamp on it: Have these witness statements been notarized?
—notarized adj.: a notarized statement no-tar-y /'noʊtəri/ n. (plural notaries) also notary 'public [C] LAW someone who has the legal power to make a signed document official no-ta-tion /'noʊtəʃən/ n. [C,U] a system of written marks or signs used for representing musical sounds, mathematical problems, or scientific ideas notch¹ /nɒtʃ/ n. [C] 1 a V-shaped cut in a surface or edge: Cut a notch near one end of the stick. 2 a level of achievement or a social position: Losing the game brought the team down a few notches.

notch² v. [T] 1 to cut a V-shaped mark into something 2 also notch up to win or achieve something: Craven just notched the third goal of the season.

note¹ /nəʊt/ n. 1 [C] a short informal letter: I wrote/sent Tina a note to thank her for helping. | Renee wasn't there, so we left a note on her door. 2 [C] something that you write down in order to remind you of something: She made a note of my new address. 3 notes [plural] information that a student writes down during a class, from a book, etc., so s/he will remember it: Did you take any notes (=write them) in history class? 4 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a particular musical sound or PITCH, or the sign in written music that represents this 5 take note (of sth) to pay careful attention to something: Take note of the instructions at the top of the page. 6 [singular] a particular quality or feeling that you notice in a particular person or situation: You could hear a note of weariness in her voice. | The story ended on a happy note. 7 sb/sth of note (formal) someone or something that is important or famous: a writer of note note² v. [T] 1 (formal) to notice or pay careful attention to something: Please note that these prices may change. 2 (formal) to mention something because it is important or interesting: The judge noted that Miller had no previous criminal record.

THESAURUS mention, refer to sth, raise, allude to sth, bring sth up, cite → MENTION¹

3 also note down to write something down so you will remember it: He noted my telephone number.

note-book /'noʊtˈbʊk/ n. [C] 1 a book of plain paper in which you write notes 2 IT a small computer that is about the size of a book → LAPTOP not-ed /'noʊtɪd/ adj. well-known or famous: a noted author

THESAURUS famous, well-known, legendary, celebrated, renowned, distinguished, eminent → FAMOUS note-pa-per /'noʊtˈpeɪpə/ n. [U] paper used for writing letters or notes

note-wor-thy /'noʊtˈwɜːði/ adj. (formal) important or interesting enough to deserve your attention: It is noteworthy that the recommendations have already been implemented in California's state schools.

noth-ing¹ /'nɒθɪŋ/ pron. 1 not anything or no thing: There's nothing in the bag. | I know nothing about her family. | Nothing you can say will change my mind. | There was nothing else the doctors could do. | I have nothing against New York (=I have no reason for not liking it) – I just don't want to live there. 2 something that you do not consider to be important or interesting: There's nothing on TV tonight. | I have nothing to wear to the wedding. 3 zero: The Red Sox won the game three nothing (=the Red Sox had 3; the other team had no points). 4 for nothing a) without getting the results you expected or wanted: We drove all the way down there for nothing b) without paying or being paid: My dad said he'd fix it for nothing. 5 have nothing to do with sb/sth a) if something has nothing to do with a fact or situation, it is not related to that fact or situation: She claims that the timing of the bill has nothing to do with her coming election. b) if someone has nothing to do with a situation or person, s/he is not involved in that situation or with that person: "What happened?" "I don't know. I had nothing to do with it." 6 nothing special having no very good or very bad qualities: The play was good, but nothing special. 7 nothing but sth only: We've had nothing but rain for two weeks now. | He's nothing but trouble.

SPOKEN PHRASES

8 nothing much (spoken) very little: "What did you do last weekend?" "Oh, nothing much." 9 it was nothing used when someone thanks you, in order to say that you did not mind helping: "Thanks a lot." "It was nothing." 10 (there's) nothing to it/sth used in order to say that something is easy to do: Anyone can use a computer. There's nothing to it. 11 (nonstandard) anything: I never said nothing about buying you a ring.

[ORIGIN: Old English nan thing, nothing "no thing"]

nothing² adv. 1 be nothing like sb/sth to have no qualities that are similar to someone or something else: Tommy is nothing like his father. 2 be nothing less than sth also be nothing short of sth if something is nothing less than or nothing short of a particular quality, then it has that quality: She thought his ideas were nothing less than ridiculous.

noth-ing-ness /ˈnɒθɪŋnɪs/ n. [U] 1 empty space, or the complete absence of anything: He stared into nothingness. 2 the state of not existing: With death, each person returns to nothingness.

no-tice¹ /ˈnəʊtɪs/ v. [I,T] to see, feel, or hear someone or something: I don't think I've ever noticed that painting before. | I noticed that his hands were trembling. | Did you notice how tired Frances looked?

THESAURUS see, spot, catch sight of sb/sth, behold, observe → SEE

notice² n. 1 [C] a written or printed statement that gives information or a warning to people: Put the notice up here so everyone can see it. 2 [U] information or a warning about something that will happen: You must give the bank three days/two weeks/a month's notice before closing the account. 3 take notice (of sb/sth) to pay attention to someone or something: Critics are really starting to take notice of Gwen's poetry. | Mother kept talking, but nobody took any notice. 4 give notice/hand in your notice to tell your employer that you will be leaving your job soon (SYN) resign: Ross gave notice yesterday. 5 on short notice without much warning, so that you have only a short time to do something: It will be hard to find a substitute teacher on such short notice. 6 until further notice from now until another change is announced: The store will be closed until further notice.

no-tice-a-ble /ˈnəʊtɪsəbəl/ adj. easy to notice: There's been a noticeable improvement in your work. —noticeably adv.

THESAURUS

clear – impossible to doubt or make a mistake about: clear evidence of his guilt obvious – easy to notice: an obvious mistake striking – unusual or interesting enough to be noticed: He bears a striking resemblance to his father.
eye-catching – noticeable and attractive: an attractive eye-catching design evident (formal) – easily noticed or understood: It was clearly evident that she was unhappy.
apparent (formal) – easily seen or understood: It was apparent that the enemy was stronger than they had believed.
conspicuous – very noticeable, especially because something is different from other things: I felt conspicuous in my red coat.
unmistakable – easy to notice and recognize: the unmistakable taste of garlic manifest (formal) – plain and easy to notice: a manifest error in his judgment

no-ti-fi-ca-tion /ˌnəʊtɪfəˈkeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) an act of officially telling someone about something no-ti-fy /ˈnəʊtəˌfaɪ/ v. (notified, notifies) [T] (formal) to tell someone something formally or officially (SYN) inform: Have you notified the police?

no-tion /ˈnəʊʃən/ (AC) n. [C] an idea, belief, or opinion about something, especially one that you think is wrong: She rejects the notion that women are weaker than men. | People can have very different notions of what is right or good in a situation. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin notio, from notus “known”] no-to-ri-e-ty /ˌnəʊtəˈraɪəti/ n. [U] the state of being famous for doing something bad

no-to-ri-ous /ˌnəʊˈtɔːriəs/ adj. famous for something bad: The city is notorious for rainy weather. | a notorious criminal —notoriously adv.: Their statistics are notoriously unreliable.

THESAURUS famous, legendary, infamous, celebrated → FAMOUS not-with-stand-ing /ˌnɒtˈwɪθˈstændɪŋ/ (AC) prep., adv. (formal) if something is true notwithstanding something else, it is true even though the other thing has happened: Their friendship notwithstanding, the two senators have very different ideas. | Notwithstanding his youth, his poetry was mature and profound.

noun /naʊn/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a word or group of words that represents a person, place, thing, quality, action, or idea. In the sentence “Pollution is a problem in some cities,” “pollution,” “problem,” and “cities” are nouns. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Anglo-French “name, noun,” from Old French nom, from Latin nomen] nour-ish /ˈnəʊɪʃ, ˈnʌɪɪʃ/ v. [T] to give a person or plant the food that is needed in order to live, grow, and be healthy: healthy well-nourished children

nour-ish-ing /ˈnəʊɪʃɪŋ, ˈnʌɪ-/ adj. food that is nourishing makes you strong and healthy: a nourishing meal nour-ish-ment /ˈnəʊɪʃmənt, ˈnʌɪ-/ n. [U] (formal) food that is needed so you can live, grow, and be healthy no-va /ˈnəʊvə/ n. [C] PHYSICS a star that explodes and suddenly becomes much brighter for a short time → SUPERNOVA nov-el¹ /ˈnɒvəl/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a long book in which the characters and events are usually imaginary: a novel by Hemingway | She's written several novels. | a romance/historical/mystery novel [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Italian novella, from storia novella “new story”] novel² adj. new, different, and unusual: a novel idea nov-el-ist /ˈnɒvəlɪst/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who writes novels no-vel-la /ˌnəʊˈvələ/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a story that is shorter than a novel, but longer than a short story nov-el-ty /ˈnɒvəlti/ n. (plural novelties) 1 [U] the quality of being new, different, and unusual: It was fun for a while, but the novelty wore off (=it became boring). 2 [C] something new and unusual that attracts people's attention and interest: I remember when the Internet was still a novelty.

N

No-ven-ber /nou'vembə, nə-/ (written abbreviation Nov.) n. [C,U] the eleventh month of the year, between October and December: The festival starts on November 6th. | Valerie's turning 30 in November. | Ben will be three years old next November. | The project began last November. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French Novembre, from Latin November, from novem "nine;" because it was the ninth month of the ancient Roman year]

nov-ice /'nɒvɪs/ n. [C] someone who has just begun learning a skill or activity: I'm still a novice at chess.

No-vo-cain /'nouvə,keɪn/ n. [U] (trademark) a drug used in order to stop pain during a small operation or treatment, especially on your teeth

now¹ /naʊ/ adv. 1 at the present time: Where is Heather working now? | Judy should have been home by now (=before now). | Mom says we have to be home by 9:00 from now on (=starting now and continuing into the future). | Let's leave the boxes in the closet for now (=for a short time).

THESAURUS

at the moment – now: Both men are in jail at the moment.

for the moment – happening now but likely to change in the future: The business is not for sale, at least for the moment.

at present/at the present time – happening or existing now: At present, my kids are all at college.

currently – happening or existing now: I'm currently writing a new novel.

presently (formal) – at this time: The company presently employs over 1,000 people.

2 immediately: You'd better go now – you're late. | Call her right now before she leaves. 3 used when you know or understand something because of something you have just seen, just been told, etc.: Having met his family, she now knew where his temper came from. 4 three weeks/two years etc. now used in order to say how long ago something started: I've been here for four years now. 5 (every) now and then used in order to say that something happens sometimes but not very often: We go out to dinner every now and then.

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 said when you pause because you cannot think what to say, or when you want to get someone's attention: Now, what did you say your name was? | OK, now. Watch me. 7 any day/minute etc. now very soon: She's going to have the baby any day now. 8 now you tell me! said when you are annoyed because someone has just told you something s/he should have told you before now² also now that conjunction because or after something has happened: I don't see as much of Mona now that she's married.

[ORIGIN: Old English nu]

now-a-days /'naʊə,deɪz/ adv. in the present, compared to what happened in past times: There's a lot more violence on television nowadays.

no-where /'nouwɜ:/ adv. 1 not any place: There was nowhere to sit. | There are plants on the island that grow nowhere else (=in no other place). 2 get/go nowhere to have no success, or make no progress: His career is going nowhere. 3 be nowhere to be seen/found also be nowhere in sight to be impossible to find: We looked everywhere, but the money was nowhere to be found. 4 nowhere near a) far from a particular place: Buffalo is in New York State, but it's nowhere near New York City. b) not at all: They've sold a lot of bikes, but nowhere near as many as they needed to. 5 out of/from nowhere happening or appearing suddenly and without warning: The car came out of nowhere, and just missed hitting her.

nox-ious /'nɒkʃəs/ adj. (formal) harmful or poisonous: a noxious gas [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin noxius, from noxa "harm"] noz-zle /'nɒzəl/ n. [C] a short tube attached to the end of a pipe or HOSE, that controls the flow of liquid coming out

NPR n. National Public Radio a company in the U.S. that broadcasts radio programs without advertisements

-n't /ənt/ adv. the short form of "not": He isn't (=is not) here. | She can't (=cannot) see him. | I didn't (=did not) do it.

nu-ance /'nuəns/ n. [C,U] a very slight difference in meaning, color, or feeling [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 French, Old French nuer "to make shades of color," from nue "cloud"] —nuanced adj.

nu-cle-ar /'nukliə/ (Ac) adj. 1 relating to or involving the use of nuclear weapons: nuclear war 2 PHYSICS using nuclear power, or relating to nuclear energy: a nuclear submarine | a nuclear reactor 3 PHYSICS relating to the NUCLEUS (=central part) of an atom: nuclear physics

nuclear dis'armament n. [U] the activity of getting rid of NUCLEAR WEAPONS nuclear 'energy n. [U] PHYSICS the powerful force that is produced when the NUCLEUS of an atom is either split or joined to another atom nuclear 'family n. [C] a family that has a father, mother, and children → EXTENDED FAMILY nuclear 'fission n. [U] PHYSICS the splitting of the NUCLEUS of an atom, that results in a lot of power being produced nuclear 'fusion n. [U] PHYSICS a nuclear reaction in which the NUCLEI (=central parts) of light atoms join with the nuclei of heavier atoms, which produces power without any waste nuclear 'power n. [U] power, usually in the form of electricity, produced from NUCLEAR ENERGY nuclear re'ac-tion n. [C] PHYSICS a process in which the parts of the NUCLEUS (=central part) of an atom become arranged in a different way to form new substances nuclear re'ac-tor n. [C] a large machine that produces NUCLEAR ENERGY, especially as a means of producing electricity nuclear 'waste n. [U] waste from NUCLEAR REACTORS, which is RADIOACTIVE nuclear 'weapon n. [C] a very powerful weapon that uses NUCLEAR ENERGY to destroy large areas nu-cle-o-lus /nu'kliələs/ n. (plural nucleoli /-laɪ/) [C] BIOLOGY a small round body of PROTEIN and RNA (=an important chemical that exists in all living things) contained in the NUCLEUS of most cells. It is involved in making proteins. → see picture at CELL nu-cle-on /'nukliən/ n. [C] PHYSICS a PROTON or a NEUTRON nu-cle-us /'nukliəs/ n. (plural nuclei /-kliəɪ/) [C] 1 PHYSICS the central part of an atom 2 BIOLOGY the central part of a living cell 3 the nucleus of sth the central or most important part of something: Moore and Lane form the nucleus of the team. [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Latin “center of a nut,” from nux “nut”] → see picture at CELL

nude¹ /nud/ adj. not wearing any clothes —nudity n. [U]

THESAURUS naked, undressed, bare, have nothing on, not have anything on → NAKED

nude² n. 1 in the nude without wearing any clothes: sleeping in the nude 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a painting or STATUE of someone who is not wearing clothes nudge /nʌdʒ/ v. [T] to push someone or something gently, especially with your elbow: Ken nudged me and said, “Look, there’s Cindy.” —nudge n. [C]

THESAURUS push, poke, shove, elbow → PUSH¹

nu-dist /'nʌdɪst/ n. [C] someone who enjoys not wearing any clothes because s/he believes it is natural and healthy —nudist adj.

nug-get /'nʌɡɪt/ n. [C] a small rough piece of a valuable metal found in the earth: a gold nugget nui-sance /'nuːsəns/ n. [C usually singular] someone or something that annoys you or causes problems: Jon made a nuisance of himself at Rachel’s birthday party.

nuke¹ /nuk/ v. [T] (informal) 1 to attack a place using NUCLEAR WEAPONS 2 (spoken) to cook food in a MICROWAVE

nuke² n. [C usually plural] (informal) a NUCLEAR WEAPON null and void /,nʌl ən 'vɔɪd/ adj. LAW an agreement, contract, etc. that is null and void has no legal force null-li-fy /'nʌlɪə,faɪ/ v. (nullified, nullifies) [T] LAW to state officially that something will have no legal force: The election results were nullified because of voter fraud.

numb¹ /nʌm/ adj. 1 unable to feel anything: My feet are getting numb from the cold. 2 unable to think, feel, or react in a normal way: She was numb with grief after her mother’s death. —numbness n. [U] —numbly adv.

numb² v. [T] to make someone unable to feel anything: The cold wind numbed my face.

num-ber¹ /'nʌmbə/ n.

1 SIGN [C] a word or sign that represents an amount or quantity: Pick any number between one and ten. | Add the numbers 7, 4, and 3. | an even number (=2, 4, 6, 8, etc.) | an odd number (=1, 3, 5, 7, etc.)

2 ON A PHONE [C] a set of numbers that you press on a telephone when you are calling someone: Ann’s phone number is 555-3234. | I think I dialed the wrong number. | He gave me his work/home number.

3 IN A SERIES [C] a number used in order to show the position of something in an ordered set, list, series, etc.: Look at question number five. | What’s his room number?

4 FOR RECOGNIZING PEOPLE/THINGS [C] a set of numbers used in order to name or recognize someone or something: a social security number | What’s your account number?

5 AMOUNT [C,U] an amount of something that can be counted: The number of smokers is decreasing. | We have been friends for a number of (=several) years. | People are moving to the southwest in increasing/growing numbers. | Doctors believe that a large/great/small number of people are at risk.

6 number one (informal) the best or most important person or thing in a group: California continues to be the number one travel destination in the U.S.

7 MUSIC [C] a piece of popular music, a song, a dance, etc. that forms part of a larger performance [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French nombre, from Latin numerus] number² v. [T] 1 to give a number to something that is part of a set or list: Number the items from one to ten. 2 if people or things number a particular amount, that is how many there are: The crowd numbered around 20,000. 3 sb's/sth's days are numbered used in order to say that someone or something cannot live or continue much longer: These injuries mean his days as a player are numbered.

N

nu-mer-al /'numərəl, 'numrəl/ n. [C] MATH a written sign that represents a number, such as 5, 22, etc.

nu-mer-a-tor /'numəreɪtə/ n. [C] MATH the number above the line in a FRACTION. For example, in the fraction $\frac{3}{4}$, 3 is the numerator. → DENOMINATOR nu-mer-i-cal /nu'merikəl/ adj. expressed in numbers, or relating to numbers: Are the pages in numerical order (=numbered 1, 2, 3, etc.)? —numerically adv.

num-er-ous /'numərəs/ adj. (formal) many: We discussed the plans on numerous occasions.

THESAURUS many, a large number, a lot/lots, plenty, countless, innumerable, myriad → MANY nun /nʌn/ n. [C] a woman who is a member of a group of women who live together in a CONVENT → MONK nup-tials /'nʌpʃəlz/ n. [plural] (formal) a wedding nurse¹ /nɜːs/ n. [C] someone whose job is to take care of people who are sick or injured, usually in a hospital: The nurse is coming to give you an injection. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French nurice, from Latin nutricius, from Latin nutrire “to nourish”] nurse² v. 1 [T] to take care of people who are sick or injured: Michael nursed his wife back to health. 2 [T] to rest a part of your body when you have an illness or injury, so you will get better: He's nursing a sprained ankle. 3 [I,T] to BREAST-FEED

nurs-er-y /'nɜːsəri/ n. (plural nurseries) [C] 1 a place where plants and trees are grown and sold 2 (old-fashioned) a bedroom for a baby

'nursery rhyme n. [C] a short well-known song or poem for children

'nursery school n. [C] a school for children from three to five years old → KINDERGARTEN, PRESCHOOL nurs-ing /'nɜːsɪŋ/ n. [U] the job of taking care of people who are sick, injured, or very old: Joanne plans to go into nursing.

'nursing home n. [C] a place where people who are too old or sick to take care of themselves can live → RETIREMENT HOME

nur-ture¹ /'nɜːtʃə/ v. [T] (formal) 1 to feed and take care of a child or a plant while it is growing: children nurtured by loving parents 2 to help a plan, idea, feeling, etc. develop: Reading to your child helps nurture a love of books.

nurture² n. [U] (formal) the education and care that are given to a child who is growing and developing nut /nʌt/ n. [C] 1 a large seed that you can eat that usually grows in a hard brown shell: a cashew nut 2 a small piece of metal with a hole in the middle, that is screwed onto a BOLT to fasten things together: Use a wrench to loosen the nut. 3 golf/ opera etc. nut (informal) someone who is very interested in golf, etc.: a golf nut 4 (informal) someone who is crazy or behaves strangely 5 the nuts and bolts of sth the practical details of a subject, plan, job, etc. [ORIGIN: Old English hnutu] nut-crack-er /'nʌtˈkrækə/ n. [C] a tool for cracking the shells of nuts nut-meg /'nʌtˈmeg/ n. [U] a brown powder used as a spice to give a particular taste to food [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old Provençal noz muscada “musky nut”] nu-tri-ent /'nutriənt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a chemical or food that helps plants, animals, or people to live and grow: Plants take nutrients from the soil. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin, present participle of nutrire “to feed, nourish”] nu-tri-tion /nu'triʃən/ n. [U] the process of getting the right types of food for good health and growth: good/poor nutrition —nutritional adj.: food that has little nutritional value —nutritionally adv.

nu-tri-tious /nu'triʃəs/ adj. food that is nutritious has a lot of substances that your body needs to stay healthy and grow nuts /nʌts/ adj. (informal) crazy, silly, or angry: His stupid comments drive me nuts (=annoy me very much).

THESAURUS crazy, mentally ill, insane, loony → CRAZY nut-shell /'nʌtʃəl/ n. [C] 1 (to put it) in a nutshell (informal) used in order to show that you are going to give the main facts about something in a way that is short and clear 2 the hard outer part of a nut nut-ty /'nʌti/ adj. 1 tasting like nuts: a nutty flavor 2 (informal) crazy: a nutty idea nuz-zle /'nʌzəl/ v. [I,T] to gently rub your face or head against someone in a loving way: When I took him from his crib, he nuzzled his head into my neck.

NV the written abbreviation of NEVADA

NW the written abbreviation of NORTHWEST

NY the written abbreviation of NEW YORK ny-lon /'naɪlən/ n. 1 [U] a strong artificial material that is used for making plastic, cloth, rope, etc.: a colorful nylon tent 2 nylons [plural] a piece of clothing that women wear on their legs, that is very thin and made of nylon nymph /nɪmf/ n. [C] 1 one of the spirits of nature who appears in the form of a young girl, in ancient Greek and Roman stories 2 BIOLOGY the LARVA of some insects, that looks like the adult but without full wings, and that develops into the adult without passing through any other stages nym-pho-ma-ni-ac /ˌnɪmfəˈmeɪni,æk/ n. [C] a woman who wants to have sex often, usually with a lot of different men —nympomania /ˌnɪmfəˈmeɪniə/ n. [U]

Oo

O, o /ou/ the fifteenth letter of the English alphabet

O /ou/ n. [U] 1 (spoken) zero: room 203 (=two o three) 2 a common type of blood oaf /ouf/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a large stupid awkward man or boy —oafish adj.

oak /ouk/ n. [C,U] a large tree that is common in northern countries, or the hard wood of this tree [ORIGIN: Old English ac]

oar /ɔr/ n. [C] a long pole with a wide blade at one end, used for rowing a boat [ORIGIN: Old English ar]

o-a-sis /ouˈeɪsɪs/ n. (plural oases /ouˈeɪsɪz/) [C] a place with trees and water in a desert oat /out/ n. oats [plural] a grain that is eaten by people and animals —oat adj. [only before noun]: hot oat cereal oath /ouθ/ n. (plural oaths /ouðz, ouθs/) 1 be under oath LAW to have made an official promise to tell the truth in a court of law: The witness testified under oath. 2 [C] a formal and serious promise: New U.S. citizens take/swear an oath of allegiance (=promise to be loyal to the U.S.). 3 oath of office POLITICS a formal and serious promise that someone in an official position makes to do his or her job well because of loyalty to his or her country: The president took the oath of office for his second presidential term.

oat-meal /ˈoutˌmiːl/ n. [U] crushed oats that are boiled and eaten for breakfast, or used in cooking ob-du-rate /ˈabdərət/ adj. (formal) very determined not to change your beliefs or feelings, in a way that seems unreasonable SYN stubborn: He has remained obdurate in his opposition to the changes. —obduracy n. [U]

o-be-di-ence /əˈbɪdiəns, ou-/ n. [U] doing what you are supposed to do, according to a law or to someone in authority ANT disobedience → OBEY: Obedience to authority is an essential part of their culture.

o-be-di-ent /əˈbɪdiənt, ou-/ adj. always obeying laws, rules, or people in authority ANT disobedient → OBEY: an obedient child —obediently adv.

o-bese /ouˈbiːs/ adj. very fat in a way that is unhealthy —obesity n. [U]

THESAURUS fat, overweight, big, heavy, large, corpulent, rotund → FAT¹

o-bey /əˈbeɪ, ou-/ v. (obeyed, obeys) [I,T] to do what you are supposed to do, according to the law or to what someone in authority says ANT disobey → OBEY: Children should be taught to obey the law. | “Sit!” he said, and the dog obeyed him immediately. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French obeir, from Latin oboedire, from audire “to hear”]

THESAURUS

do what sb says: I don't ask questions – I just do what the coach says.

do what you are told/do as you are told: Maybe next time you'll do what you are told.

follow sb's orders/instructions: Follow the manufacturer's instructions. | You must follow your doctor's orders.

comply (formal) – to do what you are asked to do or what a law or rule tells you to do: Those who fail to comply with the law will be fined.

observe (formal) – to obey a law, agreement, or religious rule: Both sides are observing the ceasefire.

ob-fus-cate /ˈɒbfəˌsket/ v. [T] (formal) to deliberately make something unclear or difficult to understand: The manual is written in technical language that obfuscates the safety warnings. —obfuscation /ˌɒbfəˈskeɪʃən/ n. [U]

o-bit-u-ar-y /əˈbɪtʃuəri, ou-/ n. (plural obituaries) [C] a report of someone's death in a newspaper [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Medieval Latin obituarium, from Latin obitus “death”] ob-ject¹ /ˈɒbdʒɪkt, ˈɒbdʒekt/ n. 1 [C] a thing that you can see, hold, or touch: a small metal object

THESAURUS thing, something, item, article → THING

2 [singular] the purpose of a plan, action, or activity: The object of the game is to improve children's math skills. 3 an object of desire/pity etc. someone or something that you desire, pity, etc. 4 [C] a) ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the person or thing that is affected by the action of the verb, for example “door” in the sentence “Sheila closed the door.” (SYN direct object b) ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the person who is involved in the result of an action, for example “her” in the sentence “I gave her a book.” (SYN indirect object c) ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the person or thing that is connected by a PREPOSITION to another word, for example “table” in the sentence “We sat at the table.”

ob-ject² /əb'dʒekt/ v. [I] to say that you do not like or approve of something: Reynolds objected to the plan.

ob-jec-tion /əb'dʒɛkʃən/ n. [C] a reason you give for not approving of an idea or plan: The group has strong objections to the death penalty. | Several Senators raised objections (=they objected) to the bill.

COLLOCATIONS

have an objection: I have no objection to comedians making fun of politicians.
raise an objection: Opponents of the plan have raised other objections.
state an objection: The President stated three main objections to the legislation.
voice an objection: The church has voiced strong objections to the movie.
make an objection: She was granted bail after the prosecution made no objection.
lodge/register an objection (formal) (=make one): Players have registered their strong objection to the new contracts.

THESAURUS

opposition, antagonism, hostility, antipathy → OPPOSITION ob-jec-tion-a-ble /əb'dʒɛkʃənəbəl/ adj. likely to offend people (SYN offensive): The program contains material that some people may find objectionable.

ob-jec-tive¹ /əb'dʒɛktɪv/ (AC) n. [C] something that you are working hard to achieve: The company's main objective is to increase sales overseas. | How can you achieve your objectives?

THESAURUS

goal, aim, target, mission → GOAL

objective² (AC) adj. not influenced by your own feelings, beliefs, or ideas (ANT subjective): objective news reporting | Students must try to be objective when doing an experiment. —objectively adv.: We need to look at the situation objectively. | Scientists prefer to make judgments about things they can objectively measure. —objectivity /,əbdʒɛk'tɪvəti/ n. [U] ob-li-gat-ed /'əblə,geɪtɪd/ adj. be/feel obligated (to do sth) to feel that it is your duty to do something: I don't want them to feel obligated to pay for dinner.

ob-li-ga-tion /,əblə'geɪʃən/ n. [C,U] a moral or legal duty to do something: Every father has an obligation to take care of his child. | You are under no obligation to (=do not have to) answer these questions.

o-blig-a-to-ry /ə'blɪgə,tɔəri/ adj. (formal) having to be done because of a law, rule, etc. (SYN mandatory)

o-blige /ə'blɪdʒ/ v. 1 be/feel obliged (to do sth) to feel that it is your duty to do something: You shouldn't feel obliged to work overtime. 2 [I,T] (formal) to do something that someone has asked you to do: He asked to borrow my car, and I was happy/glad to oblige. 3 (I'm/we're) much obliged (spoken, old-fashioned) said in order to thank someone very politely [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French obliger, from Latin obligare, from ligare “to tie”]

o-blig-ing /ə'blɪdʒɪŋ/ adj. willing and eager to help: a cheerful and obliging woman —obligingly adv.

o-blique /ə'blɪk, ɒu-/ adj. 1 (formal) not expressed in a direct way (SYN indirect): She made an oblique reference to his drinking problem. 2 an oblique line is sloping → see picture at LINE¹ ob'lique, angle n. [C] MATH an angle that is not 90°, 180°, or 270° → ACUTE ANGLE, OBTUSE ANGLE

ob-lit-er-ate /ə'blɪtə,reɪt/ v. [T] to destroy something completely: Large areas of the city were obliterated during World War II. —obliteration /ə'blɪtə'reɪʃən/ n. [U] ob-liv-i-on /ə'blɪvɪən/ n. [U] (formal) 1 the state of being completely forgotten: Old movie stars who have faded into oblivion. 2 the state of being unconscious or of not knowing what is happening: He spent the night drinking himself into oblivion. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin oblivio, from oblivisci “to forget”] ob-liv-i-ous /ə'blɪvɪəs/ adj. not knowing about or not noticing something happening around you (SYN unaware): She seemed completely oblivious to/of the danger.

ob-long /'əblɒŋ/ adj. having a shape that is longer than it is wide: an oblong mirror [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin oblongus, from ob- “toward” + longus “long”] —oblong n. [C] ob-nox-i-ous /əb'nɒkʃəs/ adj. very offensive or rude: Her friends were loud and obnoxious. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin obnoxius, from noxa “harm”] —obnoxiously adv.

o-boe /'əʊboʊ/ n. [C] a wooden musical instrument, shaped like a narrow tube, that you play by blowing into it → see picture at WOODWIND

ob-scene /əb'sɪn, əb-/ adj. 1 offensive and shocking in a sexual way: obscene photographs | He made an obscene gesture. 2 extremely immoral or unfair: Some players earn obscene amounts of money.

ob-scen-i-ty /əb'senəti/ n. (plural obscenities) 1 [C usually plural] a sexually offensive word or action: kids shouting obscenities 2 [U] offensive language or behavior involving sex, especially in a book, play, etc.: laws against obscenity ob-scure¹ /əb'skyʊr/ adj. 1 unclear or difficult to understand: Jarrett didn't like the plan for some obscure reason. 2 known about only by a few people: an obscure poet obscure² v. [T] 1 to prevent something from being seen or heard clearly: Parts of the coast were obscured by fog. 2 to make something difficult to know or understand: Recent successes have obscured the fact that the company is still in trouble.

ob-scur-i-ty /əb'skyʊrəti/ n. (plural obscurities) 1 [U] the state of not being known or remembered: O'Brien retired from politics and died in obscurity. 2 [C,U] something that is difficult to understand, or the quality of being difficult to understand ob-se-qui-ous /əb'sikwiəs/ adj. too eager to please people and agree with them: The waiter was helpful but not obsequious. —obsequiously adv.

ob-serv-a-ble /əb'zəvəbəl/ adj. able to be seen or noticed ob-serv-ance /əb'zəvəns/ n. [U] the practice of obeying laws or doing something because it is part of a religion or CUSTOM: Stores were closed in observance of Christmas.

ob-serv-ant /əb'zəvənt/ adj. 1 good or quick at noticing things: I can see you're very observant. 2 obeying laws, religious rules, etc.: observant Hindus

ob-ser-va-tion /əbzə'veɪʃən, -sə-/ n. 1 [C,U] the act or process of carefully watching someone or something, or one of the facts you learn from doing this: The psychologist's theories are based on his observation of children's behavior. | The patient is under close observation (=being continuously watched). 2 [C] a remark about something that you have noticed: I'd like to make an observation.

ob-serv-a-to-ry /əb'zəvətəri/ n. (plural observatories) [C] a special building from which scientists watch the moon, stars, weather, etc.

ob-serve /əb'zəv/ v. [T] 1 to watch someone or something carefully: The police have been observing his movements.

THESAURUS see, notice, spot, witness, behold → SEE

2 (formal) to see or notice something in particular: Doctors observed that the disease only occurs in women over 50. 3 to obey a law, agreement, or religious rule: Both sides are observing the ceasefire. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French observer, from Latin observare “to guard, watch”]

THESAURUS obey, do what sb says, do what you are told/do as you are told, follow sb's orders/instructions, comply → OBEY ob-serv-er /əb'zəvə/ n. [C] 1 someone who goes to a meeting, class, event, etc. to officially watch or check what is happening: International observers monitored the elections. 2 someone who sees or notices something ob-sess /əb'ses/ v. 1 [T] to think about someone or something all the time, so that you cannot think of anything else: William is obsessed with making money. 2 [I] (informal) to think about something or someone much more than is necessary and sensible: Stop obsessing about/over your weight. You look great!

ob-ses-sion /əb'seʃən/ n. [C,U] an extreme unhealthy interest in something or worry about something, which prevents you from thinking about other things: She developed an obsession with food.

ob-ses-sive /əb'sesɪv/ adj. thinking or worrying too much about someone or something so that you do not think about other things enough: She's obsessive about exercise. —obsessively adv.

ob-so-lete /əbsə'li:t/ adj. no longer useful or needed because something newer and better has been made: Floppy disks have become obsolete. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, past participle of obsolescere “to grow old, become disused”] —obsolescence /əbsə'lesəns/ n. [U]

THESAURUS old-fashioned, outdated, outmoded, dated, antiquated → OLD-FASHIONED

ob-sta-ble /'əbstɪkəl/ n. [C] 1 something that makes it difficult for you to succeed: Lack of confidence can be a big obstacle to success. | The team has had to overcome obstacles this season. 2 something that blocks your way, so that you must go around it: an obstacle in the road [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin obstaculum, from obstare “to stand in the way, stand in front of”]

'obstacle course n. [C] a line of objects that a runner must jump over, go under, etc.

ob-stet-rics /əb'stektriks, əb-/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the part of medical science that deals with the birth of children —obstetrician /əbstə'trɪʃən/ n. [C] ob-sti-nate /'əbstənɪt/ adj. refusing to change your opinions, ideas, behavior, etc. (SYN) stubborn —obstinacy n. [U] ob-strep-er-ous /əb'streperəs/ adj. noisy and refusing to agree or to do what someone else tells you to do, or showing this quality: an obstreperous group of teenagers

ob-struct /əb'strakt/ v. [T] 1 to block a road, path, passage, or someone's view of something: The truck was on its side, obstructing two lanes of traffic. 2 to try to prevent someone from doing something by making it difficult: Federal officers accused Robbins of obstructing their investigation. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, past participle of obstruere “to build in the way”] —obstructive adj.

ob·struc·tion /əb'strʌkʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] something that blocks a road, passage, tube, etc., or the fact of blocking a road, etc.: The accident caused an obstruction on the freeway. 2 [U] the act of preventing something from happening: Powell could be charged with obstruction of justice.

ob·tain /əb'teɪn/ (Ac) v. [T] (formal) to get something that you want: Information about passports can be obtained from the embassy. | Weisner is hoping to obtain funding for a second study of the children. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French obtenir, from Latin obtinere “to hold on to, own, obtain”] ob·tain·a·ble /əb'teɪnəbəl/ (Ac) adj. able to be obtained: The application form is obtainable from the secretary.

ob·tru·sive /əb'trusɪv/ adj. (formal) noticeable in a bad or annoying way (ANT) unobtrusive: The waitresses were friendly but never obtrusive.

ob·tuse /əb'tus, əb-/ adj. (formal) stupid or slow to understand something ob·tuse 'angle n. [C] MATH an angle between 90° and 180° → see picture at ANGLE¹ ob·tuse 'triangle n. [C] MATH a TRIANGLE with one angle that is between 90 and 180 degrees

ob·vi·ous /'əbvɪəs/ (Ac) adj. easy to notice or understand: the obvious choice | It was obvious (that) he hadn't actually read the book. | The need for change seemed obvious to everyone. | The need to recycle glass and other materials is obvious. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin obvius, from obviam “in the way”]

THESAURUS noticeable, clear, evident, apparent, conspicuous, unmistakable, manifest → NOTICEABLE

ob·vi·ous·ly /'əbvɪəsli/ (Ac) adv. used when something is easily noticed or understood: Obviously, I was scared. | Patrick is obviously a good father.

oc·ca·sion /ə'keɪʒən/ n. 1 [C] a time when something happens: I met with him on several occasions. 2 [C] an important event or ceremony: We're saving the champagne for a special occasion. | a joyous/happy/solemn etc. occasion

THESAURUS event, occurrence, affair, happening → EVENT

3 on occasion sometimes, but not often: Craig helps out on occasion. 4 [U] a cause or reason to do something: I'm sure we will have occasion to discuss this further.

oc·ca·sion·al /ə'keɪʒənəl/ adj. happening sometimes but not often: He has the/an occasional drink.

oc·ca·sion·al·ly /ə'keɪʒənəl-i/ adv. sometimes, but not regularly or often: We occasionally see each other. | Heat the soup, stirring occasionally.

oc·cult /ə'kʌlt/ n. the occult the knowledge and study of magic and spirits —occult adj.

oc·cu·pan·cy /'ɒkyəpənsi/ (Ac) n. [U] (formal) someone's use of a building or other space for living or working: The new college dormitory is ready for occupancy.

oc·cu·pant /'ɒkyəpənt/ (Ac) n. [C] (formal) someone who lives in a building, room, etc., or who is in it at a particular time: a letter addressed to the occupant | The occupants of the condominium were unhappy with the rise in rent.

oc·cu·pa·tion /'ɒkyə'peɪʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] (formal) a job or profession → EMPLOYMENT, WORK: the occupations available to women | Workers in low-paid occupations often suffer from poor health.

THESAURUS job, work, employment, profession, career, vocation → JOB

2 [U] the act of entering a place and getting control of it, especially by military force → OCCUPY: the German occupation of France in the war | London became an important town during the Roman occupation of Britain. 3 [C] (formal) a way of spending your time: One of his childhood occupations was collecting baseball cards.

oc·cu·pa·tion·al /'ɒkyə'peɪʃənəl/ (Ac) adj. relating to your job: Occupational injuries are common in the coal mining industry.

oc·cu·pied /'ɒkyə'paɪd/ adj. 1 busy doing or thinking about something: Bring some games to keep the kids occupied. | His father was occupied with work. 2 being used: All the rooms on the first floor are occupied. 3 an occupied place is controlled by an army: Jewish settlements in the occupied territories

oc·cu·py /'ɒkyə'paɪ/ (Ac) v. (occupied, occupies) [T] 1 to live, work, stay, etc. in a particular place: Salem Press occupies the seventh floor of the building. 2 if something occupies you or your time, you are busy doing it: Work occupies most of my day. | Only six percent of police time is occupied with criminal incidents. 3 to fill a particular amount of space: Family photos occupied almost

the entire wall. | At present, the government occupies some 70 million square feet in the Washington area. 4 to enter a place and get control of it, especially by military force → INVADE: Kuwait was occupied by Iraq from August 1990 to February 1991. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French occuper, from Latin occupare]

oc-cur /ə'kʌr/ [Ac] v. (occurred, occurring) [I] (formal) 1 to happen, especially without being planned first [Syn] take place: Earthquakes occur without any warning signs. | A third of accidental deaths occur in the home. 2 to exist or be present in a particular place: The disease mainly occurs in young children. | Chromium and nickel occur commonly in areas which are also rich in magnesium. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin occurrere, from currere “to run”] —occurrence n. [C, singular]: Stress-related illness is now a fairly common occurrence. | An increase in the occurrence of heart disease was reported.

occur to sb phr. v. to suddenly come into your mind: It never occurred to me to ask.

o-cean /'ouʃən/ n. 1 [C] EARTH SCIENCES a particular area of salt water somewhere on Earth: the Indian Ocean → see picture at WATER CYCLE 2 the ocean EARTH SCIENCES the great quantity of salt water that covers most of the Earth's surface [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin oceanus, from Greek Okeanos name of a river believed to flow around the world] —oceanic /,ouʃi'ænik/ adj.

o-cean-og-ra-phy /,ouʃə'nagrəfi/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the scientific study of the ocean —oceanographer n. [C] o'clock /ə'klɒk/ adv. one/two/three etc. o'clock one of the times when the clock shows the exact hour as a number from 1 to 12 [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 of the clock] oc-ta-gon /'aktəɡən/ n. [C] MATH a flat shape with eight sides and eight angles [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, from Greek octagonon, from okto “eight” + gonia “angle”] —octagonal /'aktəɡənəl/ adj. → see picture at POLYGON

THESAURUS polygon, pentagon, hexagon, heptagon, decagon, dodecagon → POLYGON

oc-tave /'aktəv/ n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS the range of musical notes between the first note of a musical SCALE and the last one 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the first and last notes of a musical SCALE played together [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Medieval Latin octava, from Latin octo “eight,” because there are eight notes in the range] oc-tet /'aktət/ n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS eight singers or musicians performing together 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a piece of music for an octet

Oct-to-ber /'ak'təubə/ (written abbreviation Oct.) n. [C,U] the tenth month of the year, between September and November: The group will be performing on October 22nd. | Clare's going to be two in October. | We have been in this apartment since last October. | Our membership expires next October. [ORIGIN: 1000—1100 Old French Octobre, from Latin October, from octo “eight,” because it was the eighth month of the ancient Roman year]

oc-to-pus /'aktəpəs/ n. (plural octopuses or octopi /'aktəpai/) [C] a sea creature with a soft body and eight TENTACLES (=arms) [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Modern Latin, Greek oktopous “scorpion,” from okto “eight” + pous “foot”]

OD v. (past tense and past participle OD'd, present participle OD'ing) [I] (slang) overdose to take too much of a dangerous drug odd /ad/ [Ac] adj. 1 different from what is expected or normal [Syn] strange: an odd guy | It's odd that she hasn't phoned by now.

THESAURUS strange, funny, peculiar, curious, weird, bizarre, eccentric → STRANGE¹

2 odd jobs small jobs of different types, for example fixing or cleaning things 3 an odd number cannot be divided by 2. For example, 1, 3, 5, etc. are odd numbers → EVEN 4 [only before noun] separated from its pair or set: an odd sock 5 20-odd/30-odd etc. (informal) a little more than 20, 30, etc. → ODDS odd-ball /'adbɔl/ adj. (informal) strange or unusual —oddball n. [C] odd-i-ty /'adəti/ n. (plural oddities) [C] a strange or unusual person or thing odd-ly /'adli/ adv. in a strange or unusual way → strangely/oddly/funnily enough at ENOUGH

odds /adz/ [Ac] n. [plural] 1 the odds how likely it is that something will or will not happen [Syn] chance: The odds are about 1 in 12 that a boy will be colorblind. | Doctors have improved the odds of survival for these babies. 2 difficulties that make a good result seem very unlikely: Our team won the title against all the odds (=in spite of difficulties). 3 at odds (with sb) disagreeing with someone: Mark's account of what happened is at odds with Dan's.

odds and 'ends n. [plural] (informal) various small things that have little value ode /oʊd/ n. [C] a long poem that is written in order to praise a person or thing

o-di-ous /'oudiəs/ adj. (formal) very bad or disgusting

o-dor /'oudə/ n. [C] a smell, especially a bad one

THESAURUS smell, stink, stench → SMELL²

o-dor-less /'oudəlis/ adj. not having a smell: an odorless gas od-ys-sey /'adəsi/ n. (plural odysseys) [C] (literary) a long trip with many difficulties or adventures of /əv, ə; strong ʌv/ prep. 1 used in order to show a quality or feature that someone or something has: the color of his shirt | the size of the building | It was stupid of me to say that. 2 used in order to show that something is a part of something else: the first part of the story | the tips of your fingers 3 used in order to show that something belongs to or relates to someone or something: an old shirt of his | a friend of Bobby's 4 used with words that show a particular type of group: a bunch of grapes | a herd of elephants 5 used in order to show an amount or measurement: a cup of coffee | lots of room | a drop of water 6 used in order to show that someone or something is from a larger group: That's one of her best poems. | members of a rock group 7 used in dates: the 23rd of January, 2004 8 (spoken) used in giving the time, to mean "before": It's ten of five (=ten minutes before 5:00). 9 used when giving the name of something: the city of New Orleans | the game of chess 10 used when giving the reason for or the cause of something: She died of cancer. 11 used in order to say what something shows: a picture of his family | a map of the world 12 used in order to say what something is about or what type of thing it is: Do you know the story of Tom Thumb? | the problem of crime in schools 13 used in order to show direction or distance: I live just north of here. | The school is within a mile of the park (=it is less than a mile from the park). 14 used after nouns describing actions, to show to whom the action is done or who did the action: the testing of river water for chemicals | the crying of a child 15 (literary) made from: a dress of pure silk 16 written, made, produced, etc. by someone or something: the early plays of Shakespeare 17 used in order to say where someone lives: the people of Malaysia [ORIGIN: Old English] → of course at COURSE

off /ɔf/ adv., prep., adj. 1 away from or out of a place or position: She waved and drove off. | Get your feet off the couch! | He took his shoes off. | The bus stopped, and she got off. 2 a machine, light, etc. that is off is not working or operating (ANT) on: Why are all the lights off? | Turn the lights off when you leave. | Does the machine shut itself off? 3 lower in price: You get 10%/15% off if you buy $100 worth of groceries. 4 how far away something is, or how much time there is between now and a future event: Spring is still a long way off. | mountains way off in the distance 5 away from a particular place: Oak Hills – isn't that off Route 290? | a hotel just off the main street 6 not at work or school because you are sick or on vacation: Dave's off tomorrow. | Monday is my day off. | I'm taking the day/week off. 7 if an event is off, it will not now take place: The wedding's off. 8 not as good as usual: Sales are a little off compared with last year. 9 not correct or not of good quality: His calculations are off by 20%. 10 have an off day/week etc. (spoken) to have a day, week, etc. when you are not doing something as well as you usually do 11 off and on/on and off for short periods of time, but not regularly: We've been going out together for two years, off and on. → WELL-OFF off-balance adj. [not before noun] 1 in an unsteady position and likely to fall: He staggered back, off-balance. 2 catch/throw sb off-balance to surprise or shock someone because s/he is not prepared: American forces were caught off-balance by the tactics.

off-beat /ɔf'bit/ adj. (informal) unusual and not what people expect, in an interesting way: an off-beat style of comedy off-fend /ə'fend/ v. 1 [T] to make someone angry or upset → OFFENSIVE: The senator's remarks offended many women. 2 [I] LAW to do something that is a crime off-fend-er /ə'fendə/ n. [C] LAW someone who is guilty of a crime: As a first-time offender, Joe received a fine.

THESAURUS criminal, thief, robber, burglar, shoplifter, pickpocket, attacker, mugger → CRIMINAL²

of-fense¹ /ə'fens/ n. 1 [C] LAW a crime: Drinking and driving is a serious offense. | Anyone charged with a criminal offense is entitled to a trial. | programs to prevent teenagers from committing more serious offenses 2 no offense (spoken) said in order to show that you hope what you are saying will not offend someone: No offense, but how old are you? 3 take offense/cause offense to feel offended or to offend someone: Many women took offense at the tone of his speech.

of-fense² /ə'fens/ n. [U] the action of trying to get points and win in a sports game, or the group of players responsible for doing this (ANT) defense: The team needs to work on their offense.

of-fen-sive¹ /ə'fensiv/ adj. 1 used or intended for attacking (ANT) defensive: offensive weapons 2 very insulting and likely to upset people (ANT) inoffensive: offensive jokes

THESAURUS rude, impolite, insulting, tactless → RUDE

3 relating to trying to get points and win in sports games, or relating to the players who do this (ANT) defensive: the Bears' offensive lineup —offensively adv

offensive² n. [C] 1 an attack made on a place by an army: a military offensive 2 be/go on the offensive also take the offensive to attack or criticize people of-fer¹ /'ɔfə, 'ɑfə/ v. 1 [T] to say that you are willing to give something to someone, or to hold something out to someone so that s/he can take it: Can I offer you a drink? | Did they offer you the job? | They offered us $175,000 for the house. | The company offers scholarships to inner-city students. | Stewart offers advice/help/support to women in this difficult position. 2 [I,T] to say that you are willing to do something: She didn't even offer to help. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French offrir, from Latin offerre, from ob "to" + ferre "to carry"] offer² n. [C] 1 a statement that you are willing to give something to someone or do something for someone: an offer of help | a job offer

COLLOCATIONS

make someone an offer have/receive an offer from someone consider an offer – to think about an offer carefully before making a decision accept/take an offer – to say yes refuse/reject an offer or turn it down – to say no → ACCEPT, REFUSE¹

2 something that is offered, especially an amount of money: The company made an offer of $5 million for the site.

off-fer-ing /'ɔːfɪŋ, 'ɑ-/ n. [C] something you give someone, especially God off 'guard adj. catch/take sb off guard to surprise someone by doing something or happening when s/he is not expecting anything: The storm caught everyone off guard.

off-hand¹ /ɔːf'hænd/ adv. immediately, without time to think: I can't give you an answer offhand.

off-hand² /ɔːf'hænd/ adj. said or done without thinking, or said in a way that makes something seem unimportant: an offhand remark off-ice /'ɔːfɪs, 'ɑ-/ n. 1 [C] a room with a desk, telephone, etc. in it where you do your work: the manager's office | Is Shaw in his office? | a small home office 2 [C] the building of a company or organization where people work: Are you going to the office today? | the main/central office of the company | the branch/local office of the FBI

TOPIC

Many modern offices are not divided into separate rooms. Instead, people sit at desks in small cubicles or cubes. The part of an office where you work, including your desk, computer/PC, etc. is your workstation. Somewhere in the office there is a printer, a photocopier, a fax (machine), and file/filing cabinets. The office building may have several floors. There is often a cafeteria where you can eat.

3 [C,U] an important job or position, especially in government: Richardson's achievements in office | Muller took/left office in 2007. | It takes a lot of money to run for office (=try to be elected). 4 [C] the place where a doctor or DENTIST sees patients [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin officium “service, duty, office,” from opus “work” + facere “to do”] → BOX OFFICE, POST OFFICE

off-fi-cer /'ɔːfəsə, 'ɑ-/ n. [C] 1 someone who has a position of authority in the army, navy, etc. 2 a member of the police: the officers at the scene | Officer Johnson will take your statement. 3 someone who has an important position in an organization → CEO, OFFICIAL²

off-fi-cial¹ /ə'fɪʃəl/ adj. approved of or done by someone in authority, especially the government: an official investigation | The governor was on an official visit to Mexico.

official² n. [C] someone who has a responsible position in an organization: senior bank officials of-fi-cial-ly /ə'fɪʃəli/ adv. 1 publicly and formally: The new bridge was officially opened this morning. 2 according to what you say publicly, even though this may not be true: Officially, they are not counted as unemployed.

of-fi-ci-ate /ə'fɪʃi,et/ v. [I] (formal) to perform special duties, especially at a religious ceremony of-fi-cious /ə'fɪʃəs/ adj. (disapproving) someone who is officious is always telling other people what to do off-ing /'ɔːfɪŋ/ n. be in the offing to be about to happen: Big changes are in the offing.

off-line /ɔːf'laɪn/ adv. 1 IT with your computer not connected to the Internet → ONLINE: writing emails offline 2 IT not connected to or controlled by a computer: Problems with the server kept the system offline until noon. —offline adj.

'off-ramp n. [C] a road for driving off a HIGHWAY or FREEWAY (ANT) on-ramp off 'season n. [singular] the time in the year when a sport is not usually played —off-season adj. [only before noun]

off-set /ɔːf'set, 'ɔːfset/ (Ac) v. (past tense and past participle offset, present participle offsetting) [T] if something offsets another thing, it has an opposite effect so that the situation remains the same: The new contracts should help to offset the recent losses. | Congress is required to offset the revenue lost through lowered taxes with federal spending cuts.

off-shoot /'ɔːfʃut/ n. [C] an organization, system of beliefs, etc. that has developed from a larger or earlier one: The business was an offshoot of IBM.

off-shore /ɔːf'ʃɔː/ adj., adv. in the water, at a distance from the shore: America's offshore oil reserves off-spring /'ɔːf,spɪŋ/ n. (plural offspring) [C] (formal) 1 someone's child or children 2 an animal's baby or babies off-stage /ɔːf'steɪdʒ/ adv. 1 just behind or to the side of a stage in a theater: There was a loud crash offstage. 2 when an actor is not acting: Offstage, he was very shy.

off-the-'record adj. an off-the-record remark is not supposed to be made public → off/on the record at RECORD¹ off-the-'wall adj. (informal) strange or unusual: an off-the-wall TV comedy off-year 'election n. [C] POLITICS an election to choose members of the SENATE and the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, held in one of the years between elections for the U.S. president off-ten /'ɔːfən, 'ɔːftən/ adv. 1 if something happens often, it happens regularly, many times, or in many situations (Syn) frequently: She often works weekends. | How often do you come to New Orleans? | This happens more often than you might think.

THESAURUS

a lot (informal) – very often: I've been to Boston a lot of times.

frequently – very often: He's frequently late for work.

regularly – often and at regular times, for example every day, every week, or every month: You should exercise regularly.

repeatedly – use this to emphasize that someone did something many times: I asked him repeatedly to tell me what was wrong.

constantly – very often over a long period of time: He talked constantly about his old girlfriend.

continuously – without stopping: He's been sick almost continuously for the last year.

again and again/over and over (again) – many times, and more often than you would expect: Fans of the show go to see it again and again. | I get bored doing the same thing over and over again. → NEVER, RARELY, SOMETIMES

2 all too often used in order to say that something sad or wrong happens too much: All too often, fathers don't see their children much after a divorce. 3 every so often sometimes, but not regularly: We go out for coffee every so often. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 oft]

GRAMMAR

often, very often

Use often before a verb, unless the verb is “be”: She often makes her own clothes. | He's often tired in the evenings.

If there are two or more verbs together, often comes after the first one: You can often see bears in the forest.

Very often is used at the end of a negative sentence: I don't speak to him very often.

of-ten-times /'ɒfən,taimz/ adv. (informal) often: Oftentimes the situation can get out of control.

o-gle /'oʊglə/ v. [I,T] to look at someone in an offensive way that shows you think s/he is sexually attractive

o-gre /'oʊgrə/ n. [C] 1 someone who seems cruel and frightening 2 a large ugly person in children's stories who eats people

OH the written abbreviation of OHIO

oh /oʊ/ interjection 1 used in order to express strong emotions or to emphasize what you think about something: Oh, thank goodness you're safe! | Oh, no! My wallet is gone! 2 said in order to make a slight pause, especially before replying to a question or giving your opinion on something: “Why did you do it?” “Oh, I don't know.” | “I'm finished.” “Oh, yeah, how does it look?” | “We lost.” “Oh, well, better luck next time.”

ohm /oʊm/ n. [C] PHYSICS a unit for measuring electrical RESISTANCE

'Ohm's law n. PHYSICS a scientific rule that says that the VOLTAGE in an electric current can be calculated by multiplying the RESISTANCE by the current

oil¹ /ɔɪl/ n. 1 [U] a thick dark liquid from under the ground, from which GASOLINE and other products are made (SYN) petroleum: the price of oil | the oil industry 2 [U] a smooth thick liquid that is burned to produce heat or used for making machines run easily: motor oil 3 [C,U] a smooth thick liquid made from plants or animals, used in cooking or for making beauty products: Fry the chicken in oil. | a tablespoon of olive/sunflower/vegetable oil 4 oils [plural] paints that contain oil [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French oile, from Latin oleum “olive oil”] oil² v. [T] to put oil into or onto something oiled /ɔɪld/ adj. covered with oil: Place the fish in a lightly oiled pan.

'oil painting n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a picture painted with paint that contains oil, or the art of painting with oil paint

'oil slick n. [C] a layer of oil floating on water

'oil well n. [C] a special hole dug in the ground so that oil can be taken out oil-y /'ɔɪli/ adj. 1 covered with oil, or containing a lot of oil: shampoo for oily hair | oily fish 2 looking or feeling like oil: an oily liquid oink /ɔɪŋk/ n. [C] the sound that a pig makes —oink v. [I] oint-ment /'ɔɪntˌmɛnt/ n. [C,U] a soft oily substance that you rub into your skin, especially as a medical treatment

OJ n. [U] (spoken) orange juice

OK the written abbreviation of OKLAHOMA

okay¹, OK /oʊ'keɪ/ adj., adv. (spoken) 1 not sick, injured, unhappy, etc.: Do you feel okay now? 2 satisfactory or acceptable: Does my hair look okay? | I did okay on the test. 3 used in order to ask if you can do something, or to tell someone that s/he can do something: Is it okay if I leave early? | It's okay for you to go.

okay², OK interjection 1 said when you start talking, or continue to talk after a pause: OK, can we go now? 2 said when you agree with someone or when you give permission: “We'd better be there by four.” “Okay.” 3 said to ask if someone agrees or will give permission: I'll go first, okay?

okay³, OK v. (okayed, okays) [T] (informal) to say officially that you will agree to something or allow it to happen: Are you sure the bank will okay the loan?

okay⁴, OK n. (informal) give the okay/get the okay to give or get permission to do something: I got the okay to leave early.

old /oʊld/ adj. 1 having existed or been used for a long time (ANT) new: We sell old and new books. | an old building

THESAURUS

ancient – used about buildings, cities, languages, etc. that existed long ago: ancient history | ancient cultures antique – used about furniture, jewelry, etc. that is old and valuable: an antique rug vintage – used about things that are old but of high quality: vintage cars classic – used about movies, books, television programs, and cars that are old but of very good quality: Lumet's classic film "12 Angry Men" secondhand – used about cars, books, clothes, etc. that were owned by someone else and then sold used – used about cars or other products which are being sold that are not new: a used car dealer stale – used about bread, cakes, etc. that are no longer fresh rotten – used about food, especially fruit or eggs, that is no longer good to eat → NEW, YOUNG¹

2 a) having lived for a long time (ANT) young → ELDERLY: an old man | My parents are getting old. b) the old old people 3 having a particular age: Our dog is three years old. | my ten-year-old daughter | How old is Kenny? 4 old house/job/teacher etc. (informal) a house, etc. that you had before but do not have now (SYN) former: I saw your old girlfriend last night. 5 good/poor/silly old etc. sb (spoken) used in order to talk to or about someone you know and like: Good old Larry hadn't changed a bit. 6 experienced, heard, or seen many times before (SYN) familiar: all the old familiar faces | I'm tired of listening to the same old music all the time. 7 an old friend/enemy etc. a friend, etc. that you have known for a long time 8 the old days times in the past: In the old days, only a few people were well educated. | She sat listening to her mother talk about the good old days. [ORIGIN: Old English eald]

old-en /'əʊldən/ adj. (literary) in olden days/times a long time ago

old-fashioned adj. not considered to be modern or fashionable anymore: old-fashioned values | a good old-fashioned ghost story

THESAURUS

outdated/out-of-date/outmoded – no longer useful or modern: They are still using computer equipment that is hopelessly outdated. | outdated laws | If the rules are out-of-date or unrealistic, they should be changed.

dated – looking old-fashioned: The film looks a bit dated now, but the story is still very contemporary.

antiquated (formal) – old-fashioned and not appropriate for modern needs or conditions: antiquated lab equipment obsolete – no longer useful or needed because something newer and better has been made: The textbooks had become obsolete.

old-ie /'əʊldi/ n. [C] (informal) someone or something that is old, especially a song or movie

Old Testament n. the Old Testament the part of the Bible that tells about the time before the birth of Jesus Christ → NEW TESTAMENT old-timer n. [C] (informal) someone who has been in a particular job, place, etc. for a long time

Old World n. the Old World Europe, and parts of Asia and Africa → NEW WORLD —Old World adj.

ol-i-gar-chy /'oləgərki/ n. (plural oligarchies) 1 [U] POLITICS government or control by a small group of people 2 [C] POLITICS a small group of people who run a country or state, or a country or state that is run by a small group of people [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Greek oligarchia, from oligos “few” + -archia (-ARCHY)] ol-ive /'olɪv/ n. 1 [C] a small black or green fruit, eaten as a vegetable or used for making oil 2 [U] also olive green a dull pale green color —olive adj.

O-lym-pic Games /ə,lɪmpɪk 'geɪmz/ n. the Olympic Games [plural] also the Olympics an international sports event held every four years —Olympic adj.

ome-let, omelette /'əmlɪt/ n. [C] eggs that have been beaten together and cooked, often with other foods added: a cheese omelet [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French omelette, from Latin lamella “thin plate”]

o-men /'oʊmən/ n. [C] a sign of what will happen in the future: a good/bad omen om-i-nous /'əmə nəʊs/ adj. making you feel that something bad is going to happen: ominous black clouds —ominously adv.

o-mis-sion /oʊ'mɪʃən, ə-/ n. 1 [U] the act of not including or doing something 2 [C] something that has been omitted: The report is full of mistakes and omissions.

o-mit /oʊ'mɪt, ə-/ v. (omitted, omitting) [T] (formal) to not include something, either deliberately or because you forgot to do it (SYN) leave out: Important details had been omitted.

om-nip-o-tent /əm'nɪpəʊtənt/ adj. (literary) able to do everything [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin, from omni- “all” + potens, present participle of potere “to be powerful”] —omnipotence n. [U] om-ni-scient /əm'nɪʃənt/ adj. (literary) 1 knowing everything 2 omniscient narrator ENG. LANG. ARTS if a story has an omniscient narrator, the person telling the story knows everything that happens and how every character thinks, feels, or experiences things [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Medieval Latin, from Latin omni- “all” + scire “to know”] —omniscience n. [U] omniscient point of view n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the style of telling a story in which the NARRATOR is not a character in the story but knows everything that happens and what all the characters experience, think, and feel → LIMITED POINT OF VIEW om-ni-vore /'ʌmni,vɔr/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an animal that eats both plants and other animals → CARNIVORE, HERBIVORE [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Latin omnivorus, from omni “all” + vorus, from vorare “to eat”] on /ɒn, ʌn/ prep., adj., adv. 1 touching, being supported by, or hanging from something: I got mud on my pants. | pictures hanging on the wall | a child sitting on her dad's shoulders 2 if you have a piece of clothing on, you are wearing it: He came to the door with his coat on. 3 in a particular place or area of land: The answer is on page 44. | They built a fence on our land. 4 at the side of something such as a street, road, or river: a restaurant on the river | the stores on Rodeo Drive 5 at some time during a particular day: Is there a meeting on Monday? | a party on her birthday | On May 10, Jo had a baby girl. 6 continuing without stopping: Go on, Cheryl. What happened next? | The peace talks dragged on (=continued slowly) for months. 7 forward or ahead, toward a particular place: We drove on to Kansas City. | You guys go on without me. 8 later or after a particular time: From that day/point/time on, he started eating healthy foods and exercising. 9 being broadcast by a television or radio station, or recorded on something: Keillor's program on the radio | a movie available on video | The news will be on at six. 10 about a particular subject: a book on China

THESAURUS about, concerning, regarding → ABOUT¹

11 used in order to show who or what is affected by an action: a new tax on imported wine | The divorce was hard on Jill. | medical testing done on rats 12 using something: Sam's on the phone. | a piece featuring Hawkins on saxophone | a report done on the computer | I cut myself on a piece of glass. 13 in a particular direction: The Mayor was sitting on my right. 14 in or into a vehicle such as a bus, airplane, train, etc.: Did you sleep on the plane? | I got on at Vine Street. 15 taking part in an activity or traveling somewhere: They met on a trip to Spain. 16 included in a team or group, or in a list: She's on the volleyball team. | an item on the agenda 17 operating or working (ANT) off: The TV was on. | Turn on the light. 18 taking a medicine or drugs: She's on antibiotics. 19 have/carry sth on you (informal) to have something with you now: Do you have a pen on you? 20 (spoken) used in order to say that someone is paying for something: Dinner's on me tonight. 21 if an event is on, it will happen: There's a jazz festival on this weekend. 22 (informal) if something bad happens on someone, it happens when s/he is not expecting it: You can't just quit on me! → HEAD-ON, later on at LATER¹, on and off at OFF

once¹ /wʌns/ adv. 1 on one occasion, or at a time in the past: I've only met her once. | I once ran 21 miles. | He tried skiing once before, but he didn't like it. 2 once a week/year etc. one time every week, year, etc. as a regular activity: She goes to the gym once a week. 3 (every) once in a while sometimes, but not often: We see each other every once in a while. 4 once more one more time (SYN) again: I'll call him once more, but then we have to leave. 5 at once a) at the same time: I can't do two things at once! b) (formal) immediately or without waiting: I recognized him at once. 6 all at once a) suddenly: All at once, the room went quiet. b) at the same time: A lot of things needed to be dealt with all at once. 7 in the past, but not now: They were once good friends. 8 for once (spoken) used in order to say that something should happen more often: For once, try telling me the truth. 9 once and for all definitely and finally: Let's settle this once and for all. 10 once upon a time a long time ago – used at the beginning of children's stories 11 once in a blue moon very rarely: He comes to see us once in a blue moon.

once² conjunction from the time something happens: Once you try this, you'll never want to stop.

on-com-ing /'ɒn,kʌmɪŋ, 'ʌn-/ adj. oncoming car/traffic etc. a car, etc. that is coming toward you one¹ /wʌn/ number 1 1 2 one o'clock: I have a meeting at one. 3 one year old: Katie's almost one. [ORIGIN: Old English an]

one² pron. 1 someone or something that has been mentioned or is known about: “Do you have a bike?” “No, but I'm getting one for my birthday.” | “Where are those books?” “Which ones?” | “Which candy bar do you want?” “This/that one.” | Jane's the one with the red hair. 2 one by one if people do something one by one, first one person does it, then the next, etc.: One by one, the passengers got off the bus. 3 one after the other/one after another if events or actions happen one after the other, they happen without much time between them: He's had one problem after another this year. 4 (all) in one if someone or something is many different things all in one, s/he or it is all those things: This is a TV, radio, and VCR all in one. 5 (formal) a) people in general: One must be careful to keep exact records. b) (old-fashioned) used in order to mean “I”: One is tempted to ignore the whole problem.

GRAMMAR

One of is followed by a plural noun form but a singular verb: One of her legs is shorter than the other.

one³ determiner 1 used to emphasize a particular person or thing: One reason I like the house is because of the big kitchen. | One of the children is sick. ▶ Don't say “One of the children are sick.” ◀ 2 one day/afternoon etc. a) a particular day, etc. in the past: There was one week in April when we had two feet of snow. b) any day, etc. in the future: We should go for a meal one evening. 3 for one thing used in order to introduce a reason for what you have just said 4 (spoken) used in order to emphasize your description of someone or something: That is one cute kid!

one⁴ n. [C] a piece of paper money worth $1: Do you have five ones?

one an'other pron. (formal) EACH OTHER one-di'mensional adj. a one-dimensional character in a book, movie, etc. does not seem like a real person because s/he has only one quality → THREE-DIMENSIONAL one-liner n. [C] a very short joke → GAG one-night 'stand n. [C] an occasion when two people have sex, but do not intend to meet each other again one-of-a-kind adj. special because no one or nothing else is like him, her, or it: one-of-a-kind handmade carpets one-on-'one adj. between only you and one other person: one-on-one English lessons —one-on-one adv.

one-er-ous /'ʌnərəs, 'ou-/ adj. (formal) difficult and tiring: an onerous task/job

one-'sided adj. 1 considering or showing only one side of a question, subject, etc. in a way that is unfair: a one-sided account of the war 2 an activity or competition that is one-sided is one in which one person or team is much stronger or does more than the other: a one-sided football game

one-time /'wʌntaɪm/ adj. former: a onetime TV star one-to-'one adj. 1 between only two people: one-to-one talks 2 matching one other person, thing, etc. exactly: a one-to-one correspondence between sound and symbol one-track 'mind n. have a one-track mind (disapproving) to think about only one thing all the time

one-'way adj. 1 moving or allowing movement in only one direction: one-way traffic | a one-way street 2 a one-way ticket is for taking a trip from one place to another, but not back again → ROUND-TRIP on-go-ing /'ɒŋ,ɡoʊɪŋ, 'ʌn-/ (Ac) adj. continuing: ongoing discussions on-ion /'ʌnyən/ n. [C,U] a round white vegetable with brown, red, or white skin and many layers, that has a strong taste and smell [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French oignon, from Latin unio] → see picture at VEGETABLE on-line /'ɒŋ'laɪn, 'ʌn-/ adj., adv. 1 IT connected to other computers through the Internet, or available through the Internet (ANT) offline: All the city's schools will be/go online by the end of the year. → INTERNET 2 IT directly connected to or controlled by a computer (ANT) offline: an online printer on-look-er /'ɒŋ'lʊkə, 'ʌn-/ n. [C] someone who watches something happening without being involved in it: A crowd of onlookers had gathered at the scene of the accident.

only¹ /'oʊnli/ adv. 1 not more than a particular amount, number, age, etc., especially when this is unusual: Tammy was only 9 months old when she started walking. | It's only eight o'clock. 2 nothing or no one except the person or thing mentioned: You're only wearing a T-shirt. No wonder you're cold. | parking for restaurant customers only 3 in one place, situation, or way and no other, or for one reason and no other: You can only exit through this door. | The contract will be renewed only if the work has been done to the correct standard. | Lasting security will come to the region only when the two sides make peace. 4 not very important, serious, good, etc. compared to something else: The job's interesting, but it's only temporary. | I was only kidding. 5 not only ... (but also) used in order to say that something is even better, worse, or more surprising than what you have just said: Math is not only easy for her; it's fun. 6 (formal) no earlier than a particular time: Congress passed the law only last year. | She finally tapped his shoulder, and only then did he look up. 7 if only a) used in order to give a reason for something, and say that it is not the best one: He was thinking about joining the navy, if only to get away from his parents. b) used in order to express a strong wish: If only they'd let us know in time! 8 only too very or completely: He was only too ready to leave.

only² adj. 1 used in order to say that there is one person, thing, or group in a particular situation and no others: Walking is the only exercise I get. | He's the only one who did a good job. 2 an only child a child who does not have any brothers or sisters 3 the only thing is... (spoken) used before you begin to talk about something that might be a problem: The only thing is, I have to be back by eight.

only³ conjunction except that (SYN) but: I'd help, only I'm really busy that day.

on-o-mat-o-poe-ia /,ʌnəmətə'piə/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the use of words that sound like the thing that they are describing, such as "hiss" or "boom" [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Late Latin, Greek onomatopoiia, from onoma "name" + poiein "to make"]

'on-ramp n. [C] a road for driving onto a HIGHWAY or FREEWAY (ANT) off-ramp

on-set /'ɒnsɛt, 'ʌn-/ n. the onset of sth the beginning of something, especially something bad: the onset of a bad cold on-slaughter /'ʌnslɔt, 'ɒn-/ n. [C usually singular] a very strong attack or criticism

'on-the-job adj. [only before noun] while working, or at work: on-the-job training on-to /before consonants 'ɒntə, 'ʌn-; before vowels and strong 'ɒntu, 'ʌn-/ prep. 1 used in order to show movement to a position on a surface, area, or object: The cat leaped onto the table. | Turn onto River Road. | Claire jumped out/back/over onto the sidewalk. 2 be onto sb (informal) to know who did something wrong or illegal: Briggs knew the cops were onto him.

o·nus /'ounəs/ n. the onus the RESPONSIBILITY for something: The onus is on the company to provide safety equipment.

on·ward¹ /'ɔnwəd, 'an-/ adv. 1 from ... onward beginning at a particular time and continuing after that: European history from 1900 onward 2 (formal) forward: The ship moved onward through the fog.

onward² adj. (formal) moving forward, continuing, or developing: the onward march of scientific progress oo·dles /'udlz/ n. (informal) oodles of sth a large amount of something: She earns oodles of money.

oops /ʊps, ups/ interjection said when someone has fallen, dropped something, or made a small mistake: Oops! I spilled the milk.

ooze /uz/ v. [I,T] 1 if a liquid oozes from something, or if something oozes a liquid, liquid flows from it very slowly: Blood was oozing from the cut.

THESAURUS pour, flow, drip, leak, run, come out → POUR

2 (informal) to show a lot of a particular quality: Leo positively oozes charm.

o·pal /'əʊpəl/ n. [C,U] a white stone with changing colors in it, used in jewelry

o·paque /oʊ'peɪk/ adj. 1 difficult to see through (ANT) transparent 2 hard to understand [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin opacus “dark”]

o·pen¹ /'əʊpən/ adj.

1 DOOR/BOOK/BOX ETC. not closed or covered (ANT) closed, shut: an open door | A book lay open on the table. | All the windows were wide open.

2 EYES/MOUTH not closed, so that your EYELIDS or LIPS are apart: I can barely keep my eyes open, I'm so tired.

3 STORES/BANKS ETC. ready or available for people to use, visit, etc.: The museum is open daily | When is the new library going to be open? | The restaurant's open for lunch and dinner. | Stores were open for business as usual. | The pool is only open to the public in the summer.

4 NOT RESTRICTED available to anyone, so that anyone can take part: The competition is open to children aged 7 to 14. | an open meeting

5 NOT ENCLOSED not enclosed or covered by buildings, walls, etc.: Lang grew up in the open spaces of the prairie. | classes held out in the open air (=outdoors) | an open fire

6 NOT SECRET not hiding anything: Ralph looked at her with open admiration. | testimony given in open court (=in a court where everything is done in public) | My husband and I try to be open with each other.

7 WILLING TO LISTEN willing to listen to other people: Keep an open mind (=listen without judging) until you've heard everyone's ideas. | We're open to suggestions on how to improve our service.

8 be open to criticism/blame/suspicion etc. likely to be criticized, blamed, etc.: By accepting the money, she has left herself open to criticism.

9 NOT DECIDED not finally decided: The location of the peace talks is still an open question. | The wisdom of cutting taxes is open to debate. | It's a possibility. I'm keeping my options open (=not deciding between the things I might do).

10 an open mind if you have an open mind, you deliberately do not make a decision or form a definite opinion about something: Jurors must try to keep an open mind during the trial.

11 keep your eyes/ears open (spoken) to keep looking or listening so that you will notice anything that is important

12 welcome/greet sb with open arms to greet someone with happiness and excitement [ORIGIN: Old English]

open² also open up v. 1 [I,T] to move something so that something is not closed or covered, or to be moved in this way: Dan's opening his birthday presents. | a door that opens automatically | Meg opened her eyes wide. | She opened the curtains. | Open up the window, will you?

USAGE

Do not use open and close to talk about things that use electricity or things that provide water or gas. Use turn on/off instead: Can you turn off the stove? | I turned on the TV.

For things that use electricity, you can also use switch on/off: Don't forget to switch off the lights.

THESAURUS

unlock – to open a door, drawer, etc. with a key unscrew – to open a lid on a bottle, container, etc. by turning it unwrap – to open a package by removing the paper that covers it unfold – to open a piece of paper, a cloth, etc. that was folded unfasten/undo – to open something that is fastened or tied, for example a seat belt or a piece of clothing → CLOSE¹

2 [I] if a store, bank, or public building opens at a particular time, it begins to allow people inside at that time: What time does the bookstore open on Sundays? 3 [I,T] to start, or to make something start: The restaurant opens next month. | a new play opening on Broadway | He opened up a checking account. 4 [I,T] to spread something out, or become spread out: I can't open my umbrella. | The roses are starting to open up. | Open your books to page 153. 5 [T] to make something available to be used or visited: Snowplows were out opening up the streets. | Parts of the White House will be opened to the public. 6 open fire (on sb/sth) to start shooting at someone or something

open up phr. v. 1 open sth ↔ up to become available or possible, or to make something available or possible: Education opens up all kinds of opportunities. 2 to stop being shy and say what you really think open³ n. (out) in the open a) outdoors b) not hidden or secret: The truth is finally out in the open.

open-'air adj. outdoor: open-air concerts open-'ended adj. without a definite ending time, rules, or an answer: an open-ended investigation open-ended 'question n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a question that does not have a single definite answer or result open-er /'oʊpənə/ n. [C] 1 a tool or machine used in order to open letters, bottles, or cans: a can opener 2 the first of a series of things such as sports games: the season opener against the Celtics open-heart 'surgery n. [U] a medical operation in which doctors operate on someone's heart open 'house n. [C] 1 an occasion when a school or business allows the public to come in and see the work that is done there 2 a party that you can come to or leave at any time during a particular period open-ing¹ /'oʊpənɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 an occasion when a new business, building, etc. is ready for use: the opening of the exhibition 2 the beginning of something: the opening of the concert season 3 a job or position that is available: job openings for high school graduates 4 a hole or space in something: an opening in the fence

THESAURUS hole, space, gap, crack →
HOLE¹

5 a chance to do or say something: This provides an opening for you to praise the student's effort.

opening² adj. first or beginning: the opening paragraph | Are you going to opening night (=the first night of a new play, movie, etc.)?

open-ly /'oʊpənli/ adv. honestly and not secretly: They talk openly about their problems.

open-'minded adj. willing to consider and accept new ideas, opinions, etc. —open-mindedness n. [U] open-ness /'oʊpənɪs/ n. [U] 1 the quality of being honest and not keeping things secret: the openness of a small child 2 the quality of being willing to accept new ideas or people: the country's openness to change op-er-a /'ɑpərə, 'ɑpərə/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical play in which all of the words are sung, or these plays considered as a form of art → MUSICAL → THEATER [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Italian, from Latin “works,” plural of opus] —operatic /,ɑpə'reɪtɪk/ adj.

op-er-a-ble /'ɑpərəbəl/ adj. 1 able to be treated by a medical operation (ANT) inoperable: The cancer is operable. 2 working and ready to use (ANT) inoperable: an operable machine

op-er-ate /'ɑpə'reɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] if a machine operates or you operate it, it works or you make it work: technicians who are trained to operate the scanning equipment | The engine seems to be operating smoothly. 2 [I] to cut open someone's body in order to repair or remove a part that is damaged: Surgeons operated on his knee. 3 [I,T] if a business or organization operates, or if you operate it, it is organized to do its work: an agreement to build and operate a cellular phone network | factories operating in Mexico 4 [I,T] if a system, process, or service operates, or if you operate it, it works or has a particular purpose: How does the new security system operate? | The cloth operates as a filter.

'operating system n. [C] IT a system in a computer that helps all the programs to work

op-er-a-tion /,ɑpə'reɪʃən/ n. 1 [C] the process of cutting into someone's body to repair or remove a part that is damaged: a knee operation | He needed an operation on his brain. | Taylor has had/undergone a heart bypass operation. 2 [C] a set of planned actions or activities for a particular purpose: a rescue operation 3 [U] the way the parts of a machine or system work together: Wear protective glasses when the machine is in operation. 4 [C,U] a business or company, or the work of a business: The company is expanding its overseas operations. | A literacy program has been in operation (=been working) for ten years. 5 [C] IT an action done by a computer: a machine performing millions of operations per second 6 [U] the way something such as a law has an effect or achieves a result: the operation of the tax laws

op-er-a-tion-al /,ɑpə'reɪʃənəl/ adj. 1 working and ready to be used: The system is now fully operational. 2 relating to the operation of a business, government, etc.: operational costs —operationally adv.

op-er-a-tive /'ɑpərətɪv/ n. [C] someone who does work that is secret in some way: a CIA operative op-er-a-tor /'ɑpə'reɪtə/ n. [C] 1 someone who works for a telephone company giving information to people and helping to connect calls 2 someone who operates a machine or piece of equipment: a radio operator

oph-thal-mol-o-gy /,afθəl'mələdʒi, -θə'mə-, ,ɑp-/ n. [U] the medical study of the eyes and diseases that affect them —ophthalmologist n. [C] o-pin-ion /ə'pɪnyən/ n. 1 [C,U] your ideas or beliefs about a particular subject: What's your opinion on/of the death penalty? | Teachers were not asked their opinions about the curriculum. | In my opinion, getting a divorce is too easy. | people who aren't afraid to express/give their opinions | Polls are taken to discover public opinion (=what ordinary people think about something).

THESAURUS

view – your opinion about something: What are your views about global warming?

point of view – a particular way of thinking about or judging something: The story is told from the man's point-of-view.

position – used especially about the opinion of a government or organization: The president has made his position perfectly clear.

stance – an opinion that is stated publicly: What is your stance on abortion?

attitude – your opinions and feelings about something: If you go into the game with a positive attitude, you have more chance of winning. | the French attitude toward food sentiment (formal) – an opinion or feeling that you have about something: Public sentiment against the war grew steadily over the next year.

conviction (formal) – a very strong belief or opinion: At the beginning of World War II, he had the strong conviction that America should go to Britain's aid and fight.

2 [C] judgment or advice from a professional person about something: We got a second opinion (=we asked two people) before replacing the furnace. 3 have a high/low/good etc. opinion of sb/sth to think that someone or something is very good or very bad: On the whole, people have a low opinion of politicians. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French, Latin opinio] op-pin-ion-at-ed /ə'pɪnyə,neɪtɪd/ adj. (disapproving) expressing very strong opinions about things op'inion poll n. [C] a POLL op-pi-um /'ɒpɪəm/ n. [U] an illegal drug made from POPPY seeds op-pos-sum /ə'pɒsəm, 'pɒsəm/ n. [C] an American animal that looks like a large rat and can hang from trees by its tail → see picture at MARSUPIAL op-po-nent /ə'pəʊnənt/ n. [C] 1 someone who tries to defeat another person or team in a competition, game, argument, etc.: This week, the team faces its toughest opponent. 2 someone who disagrees with a plan, idea, etc.: opponents of abortion op-por-tune /,ɒpə'tun/ adj. (formal) an opportune moment/time/place etc. a time, etc. that is appropriate for doing something op-por-tun-ist /,ɒpə'tunɪst/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who uses every chance to gain power or advantages over others —opportunism n. [U] —opportunistic /,ɒpə'tu'nɪstɪk/ adj.

op-por-tu-ni-ty /,ɒpə'tunəti/ n. (plural opportunities) [C] 1 an occasion when it is possible for you to do something → CHANCE: Children will get/have an opportunity to try several different sports. | The program gives students the/an opportunity to see live drama. | I'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped me. | Under the law, women were guaranteed equal opportunities (=chances to do things that are equal to men's chances). | This is a great/good opportunity for investors.

COLLOCATIONS

An opportunity comes along/up or arises.

You have/are given the opportunity to do something.

You take/seize/use an opportunity by doing something when you have the chance to do it.

A wasted/lost/missed opportunity is a good opportunity that you did not take.

An ideal/perfect/unique/golden opportunity is one that is very good or special, and may not happen again.

A rare opportunity is one that does not happen very often.

2 a chance to get a job: There are good opportunities for graduates in your field.

op-pose /ə'pəʊz/ v. [T] to disagree strongly with an idea or action: A local group opposes the plan for environmental reasons.

op-posed /ə'pəʊzd/ adj. 1 disagreeing strongly with someone or something, or feeling strongly that someone or something is wrong: militants who are opposed to the peace process | groups that are strongly opposed to abortion 2 as opposed to sth used in order to show that two things are different from each other: The teaching is geared to practical problems, as opposed to theory.

op-pos-ing /ə'pəʊzɪŋ/ adj. 1 opposing teams, groups, etc. are competing, arguing, etc. with each other 2 opposing ideas, opinions, etc. are completely different from each other op-po-site¹ /'ɒpəzɪt, -sɪt/ n. [C] a person or thing that is completely different from someone or something else: Hot and cold are opposites. | Most people think work and play are the opposite of each other. | the exact opposite of the truth | He said he'd do one thing, and then did the opposite.

opposite² adj. 1 completely different: Ray walked off in the opposite direction. | the two men are at opposite ends of the political spectrum 2 facing something or directly across from something: a building on the opposite side of the river 3 the opposite sex the other sex. If you are a man, women are the opposite sex.

opposite³ prep., adv. if one thing or person is opposite another, they are facing each other: the wall opposite the door | He's moved into the house opposite.

opposite 'angles n. [plural] MATH two equal angles that are formed when two lines cross, and which are opposite each other → see picture at ANGLE¹ op-po-si-tion /,ɒpə'zɪʃən/ n. [U] strong disagreement with, or protest against, something: the residents' opposition to plans for a new highway | There was stiff/strong/intense opposition from the teachers' union.

THESAURUS

objection – a reason you give for not approving of an idea or plan: Lawyers raised no objections to the plan.

antagonism (formal) – strong opposition to or hatred of someone else: antagonism between the two political parties hostility – strong opposition to a plan or idea: There has been a certain amount of hostility to the proposed reform.

antipathy (formal) – a feeling of strong dislike or opposition: a growing antipathy towards the government op-press /ə'pres/ v. [T] to treat people in an unfair and cruel way —oppressor /ə'presə/ n. [C] op-pressed /ə'prest/ adj. treated unfairly or cruelly: oppressed minority groups | the poor and the oppressed (=people who are oppressed)

op-pres-sion /ə'presjən/ n. [U] the act of oppressing people, or the state of being oppressed op-pres-sive /ə'presɪv/ adj. 1 cruel and unfair: an oppressive military government 2 making you feel uncomfortable: oppressive heat opt /apt/ v. [T] to choose one thing or do one thing instead of another: If you prefer quiet, opt for a smaller resort. | More high school students are opting to go to college.

opt out phr. v. to choose not to join in a group or system: Parents can opt out of the public school system by home schooling.

op-tic /'aptɪk/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to the eyes op-ti-cal /'aptɪkəl/ adj. relating to the way light is seen, or relating to the eyes: an optical instrument —optically adv.

optical il'lusion n. [C] a picture or image that tricks your eyes and makes you see something that is not actually there op-ti-cian /ap'tɪʃən/ n. [C] someone who makes glasses

op-ti-mism /'aptə,mɪzəm/ n. [U] a tendency to believe that good things will happen (ANT) pessimism: optimism about the country's economic future | The results give reason/cause/grounds for optimism.

op-ti-mist /'aptəmɪst/ n. [C] someone who believes that good things will happen (ANT) pessimist

op-ti-mist-ic /'aptə'mɪstɪk/ adj. believing that good things will happen in the future (ANT) pessimistic: The coach is optimistic about the team's chances of winning. | Police remain optimistic that the child will be found. —optimistically adv.

op-ti-mum /'aptəməm/ adj. best or most appropriate for a particular purpose: the optimum diet for good health

op-tion /'apʃən/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a choice you can make in a particular situation: career options | The jury had the option of finding him guilty but mentally ill. | Dropping out of school is not an option (=you cannot do it). | Press 4 to select the printer control option (=on a computer). 2 keep/leave your options open to wait before making a decision: Leave your options open until you have the results of the test. 3 ECONOMICS the right to buy or sell something in the future: stock options | All employees are given an option on 100 shares of stock. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French, Latin optio "free choice"]

op-tion-al /'apʃənl/ (Ac) adj. something that is optional is something you do not need to do or have, but can choose if you want it (ANT) mandatory: Attendance at the meeting is optional. | If they wish, students can attend an optional philosophy class.

op-tom-e-trist /ap'tamətrɪst/ n. [C] someone who examines people's eyes and orders glasses for them —optometry /ap'tamətri/ n. [U] op-u-lent /'apyələnt/ adj. decorated in an expensive way: an opulent hotel —opulence n. [U]

OR the written abbreviation of OREGON

or /ə; strong ɔ:/ conjunction 1 used between two possibilities or before the last in a series of possibilities → EITHER: Would you like pie, cake, or some ice cream? | Will the project receive state or federal funds? | You can use either milk or cream in the sauce. | They speak only a little Spanish, or else none at all. 2 or anything/something (spoken) something that is similar to what you have just mentioned: Do you want to go out for a drink or anything? 3 used after a negative verb when you mean not one thing and not another thing: Elena never learned to read or write English. 4 used in order to warn or advise someone: Hurry, or you'll miss your plane. | Businesses will have to raise prices, or else their profits will drop. | Don't be late, or else...! (=used as a threat) 5 used when you are guessing at a number, time, distance, etc. because you cannot be exact: a little girl four or five years old | There's a gas station a mile or so down the road. 6 used in order to give more specific information or to correct what has been said before: biology, or the study of living things 7 used in order to explain why something happened or why something must be true: She must be tired, or she wouldn't be so crabby. [ORIGIN: Old English oth-the]

or-a-cle /'ɔrəkəl, 'ar-/ n. [C] 1 HISTORY someone the ancient Greeks believed could communicate with the gods, who gave advice to people or told them what would happen in the future 2 HISTORY the holy place where an oracle could be found [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French, Latin oraculum, from orare; ORATION] o·ral¹ /'ɔrəl/ adj. 1 spoken, not written: an oral report 2 relating to the mouth: oral hygiene [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Late Latin oralis, from Latin os “mouth”] oral² n. [C] a test in a university in which questions and answers are spoken rather than written or·ange /'ɔrɪndʒ, 'ar-/ n. 1 [C] a round fruit that has sweet juice and thick skin which you do not eat: orange juice → see picture on page 414 2 [U] the color of an orange [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Arabic naranj, from Sanskrit naranga “orange tree”] —orange adj.

o·rang-u·tan /ə'ræŋə,tæn/ also o·rang-u·tang /ə'ræŋə,tæŋ/ n. [C] a large APE that has long arms and long orange-brown hair [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Malay orang hutan “man of the forest”] → see picture at APE

o·ra·tion /ə'reɪʃən, ɔ-/ n. [C] a formal public speech or·a·tor /'ɔrətə, 'ar-/ n. [C] (formal) someone who makes speeches and is good at persuading people or·a·tory /'ɔrə,təri, 'ar-/ n. [U] (formal) the skill of making public speeches or·bit¹ /'ɔrbɪt/ n. [C] PHYSICS the path traveled by an object that is moving around a larger object: the Moon's orbit around the Earth [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin orbita “wheel-track”] —orbital adj. → see picture at APOGEE orbit² v. [I,T] PHYSICS to travel in a circle around a larger object: a satellite that orbits the Earth or·chard /'ɔrtʃərd/ n. [C] a place where fruit trees are grown: a cherry orchard or·ches·tra /'ɔrkɪstrə/ n. [C] a large group of musicians who play CLASSICAL MUSIC on different instruments

TOPIC

Sections of an orchestra

the woodwind/wind section also the winds – the instruments made mostly of wood that you blow through the strings/the string section – the instruments that have strings the brass (section) – the instruments made of metal that you blow through the percussion (section) – the instruments such as drums

People in an orchestra:

conductor – the person who directs the music and musicians cellist – a person who plays the cello flutist – a person who plays the flute violinist – a person who plays the violin percussionist – a person who plays percussion —orchestral /ɔr'kestrəl/ adj.

'orchestra pit n. [C] the space below the stage in a theater where the musicians sit → see picture at THEATER or·ches·trate /'ɔrkɪ,streɪt/ v. [T] to organize an important event or a complicated plan, especially secretly: Was the rebellion orchestrated by the army?

or·chid /'ɔrkɪd/ n. [C] a tropical, often brightly colored flower with three PETALS or·dain /ɔr'deɪn/ v. [T] to officially make someone a religious leader → ORDINATION: John was ordained a priest.

or·deal /ɔr'di:l/ n. [C] a very bad experience that continues for a long time: She had to go through a terrible ordeal. [ORIGIN: Old English ordal “trial, judgment”] or·der¹ /'ɔrdə/ n.

1 in order (for sb/sth) to do sth so that something can happen, or so that someone can do something: In order for you to graduate next year, you'll have to go to summer school. | Plants need light in order to live.

THESAURUS

to – a shorter way of saying in order to: I went to the bank to get some money.

so (that) – in order to do something to make something possible: She's studying Japanese so that she can get a job in Japan.

for – so that you can get or do something: They were waiting for the school bus.

2 ARRANGEMENT [U] the way that several things are arranged, organized, or put on a list: Are all the slides in order? | The names were written in alphabetical order. | I think these pages are out of order (=not correctly arranged). | State the main points in order of importance. | We've got to get our finances in order (=organize them).

3 REQUEST FOR GOODS [C] a request for goods from a company or for food in a restaurant, or the goods or food that you ask for: We've received more orders for car alarms this year than ever before. | The school's just placed an order for more books. | May I take your order (=used to ask what a customer in a restaurant wants)? | Your order will be ready soon.

4 NO CRIME/TROUBLE [U] a situation in which people obey rules and respect authority: Police are working hard to maintain law and order in the area.

5 COMMAND [C] a command given by someone in authority: Captain Marshall gave the order to advance. | The soldiers had been trained to obey/follow orders.

6 out of order a phrase meaning “not working,” used especially on signs: The pay phone was out of order.

7 in order legal and correct: Your passport seems to be in order.

8 POLITICS ETC. [singular] the political, social, or economic situation at a particular time: the present economic order

9 ANIMALS/PLANTS [C] one of the groups into which scientists divide animals and plants. An order is larger than a FAMILY but smaller than a CLASS. → in short order at SHORT¹

order² v. 1 [I,T] ask for food or drink in a restaurant, bar, etc.: Are you ready to order? | We ordered coffee and dessert.

THESAURUS ask, request, demand → ASK

2 [T] to ask a company to make or send you something: They've ordered a new carpet for the bedroom. 3 [T] to tell someone that s/he must do something: The judge ordered him to pay $1 million. 4 [T] to arrange something in a particular way: Order the list of names alphabetically.

order sb around phr. v. to continuously tell someone what to do, in a way that is annoying: I wish she'd stop ordering me around.

ordered 'pair n. [C] MATH two numbers that are used to represent a point on a GRID. The first number shows which HORIZONTAL line of the grid the point is on, and the second number shows which VERTICAL line it is on.

or·der·ly¹ /'ɔ:dəli/ adj. 1 peaceful or behaving well: Please leave the building in an orderly fashion. 2 arranged or organized in a neat way: an orderly desk orderly² n. (plural orderlies) [C] someone who does unskilled jobs in a hospital

'ordinal number n. [C] MATH one of the numbers such as first, second, third, etc. that show the order of things → CARDINAL NUMBER or·di·nance /'ɔ:dn-əns/ n. [C] LAW a law of a city or town: parking ordinances

'Ordinance Powers n. [plural] POLITICS the official powers that the American president has to make certain types of decisions. These powers are given to the president by Congress and are in the U.S. CONSTITUTION. → EXCLUSIVE POWERS, RESERVED POWERS or·di·nar·i·ly /,ɔ:dn'eri/ adv. usually: I don't ordinarily go to sleep so early.

or·di·nar·y /'ɔ:dn,eri/ adj. 1 average or usual, and not different or special in any way: All the candidates are trying to reach out to ordinary people. | Art should be part of ordinary life. | It was just an ordinary day.

THESAURUS normal, average, standard, conventional → NORMAL¹

2 out of the ordinary very different from what is usual: Did you notice anything out of the ordinary?

or·di·na·tion /,ɔ:dn'eɪʃən/ n. [C,U] the act or ceremony of making someone a religious leader → ORDAIN ore /ɔ:/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES rock or earth from which metal can be obtained

o·reg·a·no /ə'regə,nou/ n. [U] a plant used in cooking, especially Italian cooking or·gan /'ɔ:gən/ n. [C] 1 a part of the body of an animal or plant that has a particular purpose: an organ transplant 2 a large musical instrument like a piano, with large pipes to make the sound, or an electric instrument that makes similar sounds [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French organe, from Latin, from Greek organon “tool, instrument”] or·ga·nelle /,ɔ:rgə'næl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of several structures in a cell that has a particular purpose, similar to the different purposes that organs have in the body. The NUCLEUS is an organelle.

or·gan·ic /ɔ:r'gænik/ adj. 1 BIOLOGY living, or relating to living things, and containing CARBON in some form (ANT) inorganic: Organic matter such as leaves, grass, and vegetable peelings can be used as compost. | organic chemistry 2 using farming methods that do not use chemicals, or produced by these methods: organic vegetables —organically adv.: organically grown vegetables or·ganic 'chemistry n. [U] CHEMISTRY the study of compounds that contain CARBON. Usually, organic chemistry deals with substances that are related to life processes. → INORGANIC CHEMISTRY or·ga·nism /'ɔ:rgə,nɪzəm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a living thing: a microscopic organism or-gan-ist /'ɔrgənɪst/ n. [C] someone who plays the organ or-ga-ni-za-tion /,ɔrgənə'zeɪʃən/ n. 1 [C] a group, such as a club or business, that has been formed for a particular purpose: student organizations | a non-profit organization

THESAURUS

institution – a large important organization such as a bank or university institute – an organization that has a particular purpose, such as scientific or educational work association – an organization for people who do the same kind of work or have the same interests

(political) party – an organization of people with the same political aims club/society – an organization for people who share an interest union – an organization formed by workers in order to protect their rights agency – an organization, especially within a government, that does a specific job

2 [U] the act of planning and arranging things effectively: Anne is responsible for the organization of the reception. 3 [U] the way in which the different parts of a system are arranged and work together: I still need to work on the organization of my essay. — organizational adj.

or-ga-nize /'ɔrgənaɪz/ v. 1 [T] to plan or arrange something: I agreed to help organize the company picnic. | Organize your ideas on paper before you write your essay. 2 [I,T] to form a UNION (=an organization that protects workers' rights), or persuade people to join one or-ga-nized /'ɔrgənaɪzd/ adj. 1 planned or arranged in an effective way (ANT) disorganized: Her presentation was well organized.

THESAURUS

efficient – working well, without wasting time or energy: an energy efficient refrigerator | efficient workers

well-run – organized efficiently: a well-run hotel | businesslike – sensible and practical in the way you do things: a businesslike attitude

2 an organized person is able to plan and arrange things in an effective way (ANT) disorganized: Barbara's a very organized person. | I need to get more organized. 3 an organized activity is arranged for and done by many people: organized religion organized 'crime n. [U] illegal activities involving powerful well-organized groups of criminals → MAFIA or-ga-niz-er /'ɔrgənaɪzə/ n. [C] someone who organizes an event or group of people: The organizers had expected about 50,000 people to attend the event.

or-gasm /'ɔr,gæzəm/ n. [C,U] the moment when you have the greatest sexual pleasure during sex or-gy /'ɔrdʒi/ n. (plural orgies) [C] a wild party with a lot of sexual activity

O-ri-ent /'ɔriənt/ n. the Orient (old-fashioned) the eastern part of the world, especially China and Japan

o-ri-ent /'ɔri,ent/ (AC) v. [T] 1 to make someone familiar with a place or situation: It takes a while to orient yourself in a new city. | There are several organizations which exist to help orient new students. 2 to find your position using a map or a COMPASS [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin, present participle of oriri “to rise”]

O-ri-en-tal /,ɔri'entl/ adj. 1 relating to the eastern part of the world, especially China or Japan 2 (old-fashioned) a word for someone from Asia, now considered offensive → ASIAN

o-ri-en-ta-tion /,ɔriən'teɪʃən/ (AC) n. 1 [C,U] the beliefs, aims, or interests that a person or group chooses to have: their political orientation 2 [U] training and preparation for a new job or activity: It's orientation week for new students. 3 sexual orientation the fact of being HETEROSEXUAL or HOMOSEXUAL: Discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation is still far too widespread. 4 [C] the direction in which something faces: This chapter deals with the orientation of the Earth's magnetic field.

o-ri-ent-ed /'ɔri,entɪd/ adj. giving attention to a particular type of person or thing: She's very career-oriented. | We provide a service oriented towards the needs of business people.

or-i-gin /'ɔrədʒɪn, 'ar-/ n. [C,U] 1 when, where, or how something began: a word of Latin origin | The theory explains the origins of the universe.

THESAURUS

source – the thing, place, or person that you get something from: Tourism is the country's main source of income. | a source of energy root – the most important reason or cause of something, especially a problem or something bad: The root of the problem is money.

etymology – the origin of a word, or the study of the origins of words in general: What is the etymology of the word “sugar?”

birthplace – the place where someone, especially someone famous, was born: We visited Martin Luther King's birthplace in Atlanta.

2 the country, race, or social class from which someone comes: Nine percent of the city's population is of Hispanic origin. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French origine, from Latin origo, from oriri “to rise”]

o-rig-i-nal /ə'ɪdʒɪnəl/ adj. 1 [only before noun] first or earliest: Our original plan was to go to Florida. | The original version of the song is much better.

THESAURUS

new, recent, modern, fresh, latest → NEW

2 completely new and different: Steve comes up with a lot of original ideas. | Her writing is truly original. 3 [only before noun] not copied, or not based on something else: an original screenplay original² n. [C] a painting, document, etc. that is not a copy: I'll keep a copy of the lease and you can have the original.

o·rig-i·nal-i·ty /əˈrɪdʒəˈnæləti/ n. [U] the quality of being completely new and different: Marie's work shows a lot of originality.

o·rig-i·nal-ly /əˈrɪdʒənəl-i/ adv. in the beginning: I'm originally from Texas. | Originally, we hoped to be finished by June.

o·rig-i·nate /əˈrɪdʒəˈneɪt/ v. [I] (formal) to start to develop in a particular place or from a particular situation: The custom of having a Christmas tree originated in Germany.

o·ri·ole /ˈɔːri,ʊl, ˈɔːriəl/ n. [C] a wild bird that is black with a red and a yellow STRIPE on its wings or·na·ment /ˈɔːrnəmənt/ n. [C] an object that you use for decoration because it is beautiful rather than useful: Christmas ornaments or·na·men·tal /ˈɔːrnəˈmentl/ adj. designed to decorate something: ornamental vases or·nate /ˈɔːneɪt/ adj. having a lot of decoration: ornate furniture [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of ornare “to decorate”] —ornately adv.

or·ne·ry /ˈɔːrnəri/ adj. (informal) behaving in an unreasonable and angry way or·ni·thol·o·gy /ˈɔːrnəˈθɒlədʒi/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the scientific study of birds [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Modern Latin ornithologia, from Greek ornis “bird”] —ornithologist n. [C] or·phan¹ /ˈɔːfən/ n. [C] a child whose parents are dead orphan² v. be orphaned to become an orphan or·phan·age /ˈɔːfənɪdʒ/ n. [C] a place where orphans live or·tho·don·tist /ˌɔːθəˈdɒntɪst/ n. [C] a DENTIST who makes teeth straight when they have not been growing correctly [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 ortho- (from Greek orthos “straight, correct”) + Greek odous “tooth”] —orthodontics n. [U] —orthodontic adj.

or·tho·dox /ˈɔːθəˈdɒks/ adj. 1 officially accepted, or considered to be normal by most people: orthodox methods of treating disease

THESAURUS normal, ordinary, standard, conventional → NORMAL¹

2 following the traditional beliefs of a religion: an orthodox Jew [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French orthodoxe, from Late Latin, from Late Greek orthodoxos, from Greek ortho- (from orthos “straight, correct”) + doxa “opinion”]

THESAURUS religious, devout, pious, god-fearing, practicing → RELIGIOUS

—orthodoxy n. [C,U]

Orthodox 'Church n. the Orthodox Church one of the Christian churches in eastern Europe and parts of Asia or·thog·o·nal draw·ing /ɔːθəɡənəl ˈdɹɔːɪŋ/ n. [C] MATH a drawing that shows what a THREE-DIMENSIONAL object looks like when you look at it directly from different directions (usually the top, the front, and one side), or a drawing that shows a collection of views of the different sides or·thog·ra·phy /ɔːθəɡrəfi/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the system for spelling words in a language, or the way in which a word is spelled —orthographic /ˌɔːθəˈɡræfɪk/ adj.

or·tho·pe·dics /ˌɔːθəˈpɪdɪks/ n. [U] the area of medicine that treats problems that affect people's bones —orthopedic adj.

Os·car /ˈɒskə/ n. [C] one of the prizes given each year to the best movies, actors, etc. in the movie industry: Who won the Oscar for best actor?

os·cil·late /ˈɒsəˌleɪt/ v. [I] 1 (formal) to keep changing between two extreme amounts or limits (SYN fluctuate): For several days, the world's stock markets oscillated wildly. 2 (formal) to keep moving regularly from side to side, between two limits: an oscillating fan 3 PHYSICS if an electric current, light wave, or sound wave oscillates, it changes frequently in size, strength, direction, etc. —oscillation /ˌɒsəˈleɪʃən/ n. [C,U] —oscillatory /ˌɒsəˌləˈtɔːri/ adj.

os·mo·sis /ˈɒzˈmouʃɪs, ɒs-/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a gradual process in which the liquid contained in one substance passes through a MEMBRANE into a substance that contains less liquid. The process continues until the amount of liquid in each substance is equal. —osmotic /ˈɒzˈmɒtɪk/ adj.

os·ten·si·ble /ˈɒstənsəbəl/ adj. [only before noun] (written) the ostensible purpose or reason for something is the one which is openly stated, but which is probably not the true reason or purpose —ostensibly adv.

os·ten·ta·tious /ˌɒstənˈteɪʃəs/ adj. (disapproving) designed or done in order to be impressive to other people: a big ostentatious engagement ring —ostentation /ˌɒstənˈteɪʃən/ n. [U] os·tra·cism /ˈɒstrəˌsɪzəm/ n. [U] 1 the action or result of ostracizing someone from a group: In those days, a pregnant woman who was unmarried faced ostracism. 2 HISTORY the process in ancient Greece by which citizens could vote to send another citizen away from their society for a limited period of time → BANISHMENT os·tra·cize /ˈɒstrəˌsaɪz/ v. [T] to behave in a an ornate clock

very unfriendly way toward someone, and not allow him/her to be part of a group: He was ostracized by the other students. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Greek ostrakizein “to send away by voting with broken pieces of pot,” from ostrakon “broken piece of pot”] os-trich /'astrɪtʃ/, 'ɒs-/ n. [C] a very large African bird with long legs, that runs very quickly but cannot fly

0

oth-er¹ /'ʌðə/ determiner, adj. 1 used in order to mean one or more of the rest of a group of people or things, when you have already mentioned one person or thing: I could do it, but none of the other boys in the class could. | Here's one sock, but where's the other one? 2 used in order to mean someone or something that is different from, or exists in addition to, the person or thing you have already mentioned: He shares an apartment with three other guys. | Sue went to the mall with some of her other friends. | Does anyone have any other questions? | Let's discuss this some other time. | A taxi stopped on the other side of the road. 3 the other day/morning etc. (spoken) recently: I talked to Ted the other day. 4 other than except: I know she has brown hair, but other than that I don't remember much about her. 5 every other day/week etc. on one of every two days, weeks, etc.: The class meets every other Thursday. 6 in other words used in order to express an idea or opinion in a way that is easier to understand: There are TV sets in 68.5 million homes; in other words, 97 percent of the population watches TV. → EACH OTHER, on the one hand ... on the other hand at HAND¹

GRAMMAR

Do not use other after “an.” Use another: He lived in another part of the city.

other² pron. 1 one or more people or things that form the rest that you are talking about: We ate one pizza and froze the other. | It looks like all the others have left. | Some MP3 players are better than others. 2 someone/something etc. or other used when you cannot be certain or definite about what you are saying: We'll get the money somehow or other.

oth-er-wise /'ʌðəˈwaɪz/ adv. 1 a word meaning “if not,” used when there will be a bad result if something does not happen: You'd better go now, otherwise you'll be late.

THESAURUS

if, as long as/provided that, on condition that, unless, in case, whether or not → IF¹

2 except for what has just been mentioned: The sleeves are too long, but otherwise the dress fits. 3 in a different way: Adam was ready to buy the house, but his wife decided otherwise.

ot-ter /'ʌtə/ n. [C] a small animal that can swim, has brown fur, and eats fish ouch /aʊtʃ/ interjection said when you feel sudden pain: Ouch! That hurt!

ought to /'ɔːtə; strong 'ɔːtu/ modal verb 1 used to say that someone should do something: We ought to give Jane a call. | You ought to be ashamed of yourself. 2 used in order to say that you expect something to happen or be true: The weather ought to be nice there in October.

ounce /aʊns/ n. [C] 1 (written abbreviation oz) a unit for measuring weight, equal to 1/16 of a pound or 28.35 grams → FLUID OUNCE 2 an ounce of truth/sense etc. a small amount of a particular quality: Don't you have even an ounce of sense?

our /ɑː/; strong aʊə/ possessive adj. belonging or relating to the person who is speaking and one or more other people: We don't have curtains on our windows. | Our daughter is in college.

ours /aʊəz, ɑːz/ pron. the thing or things belonging or relating to the person who is speaking and one or more other people: “Whose car is that?” “It's ours.” | They have their tickets, but ours haven't come yet.

our-selves /aʊəˈsɛlvz, ɑː-/ pron. 1 the REFLEXIVE form of “we”: It was strange seeing ourselves on television. 2 the strong form of “we,” used in order to emphasize the subject or object of a sentence: We started this business ourselves. 3 (all) by ourselves a) without help: Amy and I made supper all by ourselves. b) alone: Dad left us by ourselves for an hour. 4 to ourselves not having to share with other people: We'll have the house to ourselves next week.

oust /aʊst/ v. [T] (written) to force someone out of a position of power: Several other senators attempted to oust him from the chairmanship.

out¹ /aʊt/ adv., adj. 1 away from the inside of a place or container (ANT in): Close the door on your way out. | The keys must have fallen out of my pocket. 2 away from the place where you usually are, such as home or work (ANT in): Did anyone call while I was out? | He asked me out for dinner tonight (=invited me to dinner). | We eat out (=eat in a restaurant) all the time.

USAGE

out – away from the building where you live or work: Tom's out. He should be back soon.

outside – not inside a room or building but near it: I'll wait for you outside.

outdoors – not inside a building: We spent most of the summer outdoors.

outdoor (without an -s) – used to describe things that are outside, or that happen outside: an outdoor swimming pool | outdoor sports

3 outside: Why don't you go out and play? 4 in or to a place that is far away or difficult to get to: a little hotel out in the country | He's moved out to Arizona. 5 completely or carefully: Clean out the cupboard before you put the dishes in. | I'm worn out (=very tired). 6 if power, electricity, etc. is out, it is not working correctly, or not on: The electricity was out for an hour last night. | The lights are out – I don't think anyone's home. 7 not having power any more: The only way to lower taxes is to vote the

Democrats out! | He may face prosecution when he is out of office. 8 used in order to say that something has appeared: It looks like the sun is finally going to come out. 9 out loud done in a way so that people can hear your voice: parents reading out loud to their kids 10 available to be bought: Morrison has a new book out this month. 11 (spoken) not possible: “Where should we go?” “Well, skiing’s out because it costs too much.” 12 be out for sth/be out to do sth (informal) to intend to do or get something: Don’t listen to Danny – he’s just out to get attention. 13 (informal) a) asleep: Billy was out like a light by 6:00. b) not conscious: You must have hit him pretty hard – he’s out cold. 14 a player in a game who is out is no longer allowed to play, or has lost one of his/her chances to get a point 15 clothes or styles that are out are no longer fashionable 16 someone who is out has told people that s/he is HOMOSEXUAL 17 if the TIDE is out, the ocean is at its lowest level

out² prep. 1 from inside something, or through something: He was looking out the window at the beach. 2 out of a) from a particular place or time: I got a Coke out of the refrigerator. | A nail was sticking out of the wall. | The tango is a dance that comes out of Buenos Aires. b) from a larger group of the same kind: Three out of four dentists recommend the toothpaste. | Kathy was chosen out of all the kids in her class. c) having none of something that you had before: We’re almost out of gas. | The car was completely out of control. d) used in order to show what something is made from: a box made out of wood 3 out of it (informal) not able to think clearly because you are very tired, drunk, etc.: I’m really out of it today. 4 out of the way finished: Good. Now that’s out of the way, we can start working.

out³ n. 1 [C] an act of making a player in baseball lose the chance to get a RUN 2 an out (informal) an excuse for not doing something: I’m busy Sunday, so that gives me an out.

out⁴ v. [T] to publicly say that someone is HOMOSEXUAL when that person wants it to be a secret out-age /ˈaʊtɪdʒ/ n. [C] a period of time when a service, especially the electricity supply, is not provided: a power outage out-and-out adj. [only before noun] having all the qualities of a particular type of person or thing (SYN) complete: an out-and-out lie out-back /ˈaʊtˌbæk/ n. the outback the Australian COUNTRYSIDE far away from cities, where few people live out-bid /aʊtˈbɪd/ v. (past tense and past participle outbid, present participle outbidding) [T] to offer more money than someone else for something that you want to buy out-bound /ˈaʊtˌbaʊnd/ adj. moving away from you or away from a city, country, etc.: outbound flights out-break /aʊtˈbreɪk/ n. [C] the start or sudden appearance of something bad such as a war or disease: an outbreak of malaria out-burst /ˈaʊtˌbɜːst/ n. [C] a sudden powerful expression of strong emotion: an angry outburst out-cast /ˈaʊtˌkæst/ n. [C] someone who is not accepted by other people: a social outcast out-class /aʊtˈklæs/ v. [T] to be much better than someone or something else out-come /ˈaʊtˌkʌm/ (Ac) n. [singular] the final result of a meeting, process, etc.: We were eager to know what the outcome of the experiment would be. | Several factors influenced the outcome of the war.

THESAURUS result, consequences, upshot
→ RESULT¹

out-cry /ˈaʊtˌkraɪ/ n. [singular, U] an angry protest by a lot of people: There was a public outcry against the war.

out-dat-ed /ˌaʊtˈdeɪtɪd/ adj. no longer useful or modern: The textbooks were outdated and needed to be replaced.

THESAURUS old-fashioned, outmoded, dated, antiquated, obsolete → OLD-FASHIONED out-dis-tance /aʊtˈdɪstəns/ v. [T] to go faster or farther than someone else in a race

out-do /aʊtˈduː/ v. (past tense outdid /-ˈdɪd/, past participle outdone /-ˈdʌn/, third person singular outdoes /-ˈdʌz/) [T] to be better or more successful than someone else: The skaters were trying to outdo each other. | You’ve really outdone yourself (=done something extremely well) this time!

out-door /ˈaʊtdɔːr/ adj. [only before noun] happening, existing, or used outside and not in a building (ANT) indoor: outdoor activities | an outdoor swimming pool out-doors /aʊtˈdɔːrz/ adv. outside, not inside a building (ANT) indoors: I prefer working outdoors.

out-door-sy /aʊtˈdɔːrzi/ adj. (informal) someone who is outdoorsy enjoys outdoor activities, such as HIKING and camping out-er /ˈaʊtə/ adj. [only before noun] 1 on the outside of something (ANT) inner: Peel off the outer leaves of lettuce. 2 far from the middle of something (ANT) inner: the outer suburbs out-er-most /ˈaʊtəˌmoʊst/ adj. [only before noun] farthest from the middle (ANT) innermost: the outermost planets outer ‘space n. [U] the space outside the Earth’s air, where the stars and PLANETS are out-field /ˈaʊtfɪld/ n. [singular] the part of a baseball field that is farthest from the player who is batting (BAT) —outfielder n. [C] out-fit¹ /ˈaʊtˌfɪt/ n. [C] 1 a set of clothes worn together: She bought a new outfit for the party. 2 (informal) a group of people who work together as an organization: a small advertising outfit in San Diego outfit² v. (outfitted, outfitting) [T] to provide someone or something with the clothes or equipment s/he needs for a special purpose out-fit-ter /'aʊt,fiʔə/ n. [C] a store that sells equipment for outdoor activities such as camping out-go-ing /'aʊtˌɡoʊɪŋ/ adj. 1 wanting to meet and talk to new people, or showing this quality: Sally is really outgoing and easy to talk to. | an outgoing personality

THESAURUS sociable, extroverted, gregarious → SOCIABLE

2 the outgoing president/CEO etc. someone who is finishing a job as president, etc. 3 [only before noun] going out from or leaving a place (ANT) incoming: outgoing phone calls out-grow /aʊtˈɡroʊ/ v. (past tense outgrew /-ˈɡru/, past participle outgrown /-ˈɡroʊn/) [T] 1 to grow too big for something: Kara's already outgrown her shoes. 2 to no longer enjoy something that you used to enjoy out-growth /'aʊtˌɡroʊθ/ n. [C] a natural result of something: Crime is often an outgrowth of poverty.

out-house /'aʊthaʊs/ n. [C] a small building over a hole in the ground, that is used as a toilet outing /'aʊtɪŋ/ n. [C] a short enjoyable trip for a group of people: a Sunday outing to the park out-land-ish /aʊtˈlændɪʃ/ adj. strange and unusual: outlandish clothes out-last /aʊtˈlæst/ v. [T] to continue to exist or do something longer than someone else: The whole point of the game is to outlast your opponent.

out-law¹ /'aʊtˈlɔː/ v. [T] to say officially that something is illegal: The agreement outlaws chemical weapons.

outlaw² n. [C] (old-fashioned) a criminal who is hiding from the police out-lay /'aʊtˈleɪ/ n. (plural outlays) [C,U] an amount of money that is spent for a particular purpose: There will be an initial outlay of $2,500 for tools and equipment.

out-let /'aʊtˈlet, -lɪt/ n. [C] 1 a place on a wall where you can connect electrical equipment to the electricity supply 2 a store that sells things for less than the usual price: an outlet mall 3 a way of expressing or getting rid of strong feelings: I use judo as an outlet for stress. 4 a way out through which something such as a liquid or gas can flow out-line¹ /'aʊtˈlaɪn/ n. 1 [C,U] the main ideas or facts about something, without all the details: Here is an outline of the company's plan. 2 [C] a plan for a piece of writing in which each new idea is separately written down: The teacher wants an outline of our essays by Friday. 3 [C,U] a line around the edge of something that shows its shape outline² v. [T] 1 to describe the main ideas or facts about something, but not all the details: The president outlined his peace plan for the Middle East. 2 to draw or put a line around the edge of something to show its shape: We could see the huge ferris wheel outlined in colored lights.

out-live /aʊtˈlɪv/ v. [T] to live longer than someone else: She outlived her husband by ten years.

out-look /'aʊtˈlʊk/ n. 1 [C] your general attitude to life and the world: Nels has a very positive outlook on life. 2 [singular] what is expected to happen in the future: The outlook for the health care professions is good.

out-ly-ing /'aʊtˌlaɪ-ɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] far from cities, people, etc.: Housing prices are lower in some outlying areas.

out-ma-neu-ver /,aʊtˈməˌnuvə/ v. [T] to gain an advantage over someone by using skillful movements or plans out-mod-ed /aʊtˈmoʊdɪd/ adj. OUTDATED

THESAURUS old-fashioned, outdated, dated, antiquated, obsolete → OLD-FASHIONED out-num-ber /aʊtˈnʌmbə/ v. [T] to be more in number than another group: Men outnumber women in Congress.

out of 'bounds adj. 1 not inside the official playing area in a sports game: The referee said the ball was out of bounds. 2 not allowed or acceptable: Some topics, such as sex, are out of bounds for discussion. —out of bounds adv.: The ball was knocked out of bounds.

out-of-'date adj. OUTDATED → OLD-FASHIONED out-of-'state adj., adv. from, to, or in another state: out-of-state license plates out-of-the-'way adj. far from cities and people, and often difficult to find: They met in an out-of-the-way hotel.

out-pa-tient /'aʊtˌpeɪʃənt/ n. [C] someone who goes to the hospital for treatment, but does not stay there → INPATIENT out-per-form /,aʊtˈpəːfɔːm/ v. [T] to do something better than other things or people out-place-ment /'aʊtˌpleɪsmənt/ n. [U] a service that a company provides to help its workers find other jobs when it cannot continue to employ them out-post /'aʊtˈpəʊst/ n. [C] a small town or group of buildings in a place that is far away from big cities out-pour-ing /'aʊtˌpɔːɪŋ/ n. [C] a large amount of something that is produced suddenly, such as strong emotions, ideas, or help: an outpouring of grief

out-put /'aʊtˈpʊt/ (AC) n. [C,U] 1 ECONOMICS the amount of work, goods, etc. produced by someone or something (SYN) production: Economic output is down 10% this year. | In the manufacturing sector, smaller firms account for a quarter of the total output. 2 T the results produced by a computer or other process: Output from and input to the serial port can be controlled by either software or hardware.

out-rage¹ /'aʊtˈreɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] a feeling of great anger or shock, or something that causes this: a deep sense of moral outrage | The prices they charge are an outrage!

outrage² v. [T] to make someone feel very angry or shocked: I was outraged by his sexist comments. —outraged adj.

out-ra-geous /aʊtˈreɪdʒəs/ adj. very shocking or unreasonable: outrageous lies —outrageously adv.: outrageously expensive clothes out-reach /'aʊtˈri:tʃ/ n. [U] the practice of trying to help people with particular problems, especially through an organization: the church's community outreach program out-right¹ /'aʊtˈraɪt/ adj. [only before noun] 1 complete and total: an outright refusal 2 clear and direct: an outright lie out-right² /aʊtˈraɪt, 'aʊtˈraɪt/ adv. 1 clearly and directly: Nadine laughed outright at the suggestion. 2 buy/own sth outright to own something such as a house completely because you have paid the full price with your own money out-run /aʊtˈrʌn/ v. (past tense outran /-ˈræn/, past participle outrun, present participle outrunning) [T] 1 to run faster or farther than someone 2 to develop more quickly than something else: The company's spending was outrunning its income.

out-set /'aʊtset/ n. at/from the outset at or from the beginning of an event or process: The rules were agreed at the outset of the game.

out-shine /aʊtˈʃaɪn/ v. (past tense and past participle outshone /-ˈʃəʊn/) [T] to be much better at something than someone else out-side¹ /,aʊtˈsaɪd, 'aʊtsaɪd/ adv., prep also outside of prep. 1 not inside a building or room, but near it (ANT inside): Mom, can I go outside and play? | He left an envelope outside my door. 2 beyond the limits of a city, country, etc.: We live just outside Pittsburgh. 3 beyond the limits of a situation, activity, etc.: Teachers can't control what students do outside school. | I'm afraid that subject is outside the scope of this discussion.

outside² adj. [only before noun] 1 not inside a building: We turned off the outside lights. 2 involving people who do not belong to the same group or organization as you: We may need some outside help. 3 the outside world the rest of the world: Since the attack, the city has been cut off from the outside world. 4 outside interests things that you do or are interested in that are not related to your work outside³ n. 1 the outside the outer part or surface of something (ANT inside): They painted the outside of the building pink. | From the outside, the house looked very nice. 2 on the outside used in order to describe the way someone or something appears to be: Their marriage seemed so perfect on the outside.

out-sid-er /aʊtˈsaɪdər/ n. [C] someone who does not belong to a particular group, organization, etc.: Corran is a Washington outsider who has never been in office before.

out-skirts /'aʊtskɜːts/ n. [plural] the parts of a city or town that are farthest from the center: He lived on the outskirts of town.

out-smart /aʊtˈsmɑːt/ v. [T] to gain an advantage over someone using tricks or your intelligence out-sourc-ing /'aʊtˌsɔːsɪŋ/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the practice of using workers from outside a company, or of buying supplies, parts, etc. from another company instead of producing them yourself —outsource v. [T] out-spo-ken /aʊtˈspəʊkən/ adj. expressing your opinions honestly and directly, even if they shock or offend other people: an outspoken critic of the program —outsokenness n. [U] out-stand-ing /aʊtˈstændɪŋ/ adj. 1 better than anyone or anything else (SYN excellent): an outstanding performance

THESAURUS good, great, excellent, wonderful, fantastic, exceptional, superb, first-class, ace → GOOD¹

2 not yet done, paid, or solved: an outstanding debt out-stretched /,aʊtˈstretʃt/ adj. reaching out to full length: I took hold of his outstretched arm/hand.

out-strip /aʊtˈstriːp/ v. (past tense and past participle outstripped, present participle outstripping) [T] to be larger, greater, or better than someone or something else: The gains will outstrip the losses.

out-ward¹ /'aʊtˈwɜːd/ adj. 1 relating to how people, things, etc. seem to be rather than how they are (ANT inward): Amy answered with a look of outward calm. 2 going away from a place, or toward the outside: The outward flight was bumpy.

outward² also outwards adv. toward the outside (ANT inward): The door opens outward.

out-ward-ly /'aʊtˈwɜːdli/ adv. according to how people, things, etc. seem to be rather than how they are inside (ANT inwardly): Outwardly, he seems to be very happy.

out-weigh /aʊtˈweɪ/ v. [T] to be more important or valuable than something else: The advantages far outweigh the disadvantages.

out-wit /aʊtˈwɪt/ v. (past tense and past participle outwitted, present participle outwitting) [T] OUT-SMART

ova n. the plural of OVUM

o-val /'əʊvəl/ n. [C] a shape that is like a circle, but longer than it is wide → *see picture at SHAPE*¹ [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Medieval Latin ovalis, from Latin ovum “egg”] —oval adj.

THESAURUS shape, square, circle, semicircle, triangle, rectangle, cylinder → SHAPE¹

Oval 'Office n. the Oval Office the office of the U.S. President, in the White House in Washington, D.C. o-var-i-an /oʊ'veɪriən/ adj. [only before noun] BIOLOGY relating to the ovaries: ovarian cancer

o-va-ry /'oʊvəri/ n. (plural ovaries) [C] 1 BIOLOGY the part of a female that produces eggs 2 BIOLOGY the part of a flower that produces seeds → see picture at FLOWER¹

o-va-tion /oʊ'veɪʃən/ n. (formal) [C] if people give someone an ovation, they CLAP their hands to show approval: The performance received a standing ovation (=people stood up and clapped their hands).

ov-en /'ʌvən/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that food is cooked inside, shaped like a metal box with a door on it: Preheat the oven to 350 degrees. [ORIGIN: Old English ofen]

o-ver¹ /'oʊvər/ prep. 1 above or higher than something, without touching it (ANT) under: I leaned over the desk. | The sign over the door said "No Exit." | The ball went way over (=a long way above) my head. 2 moving across the top of something, or from one side of it to the other: We walked over the hill. | One of the men jumped over the counter and grabbed the money. 3 on something or someone so that he, she, or it is covered (ANT) under: I put the blanket over the baby. 4 more than a particular amount, number, or age: Mike makes over $100,000 a year. | The game is designed for children over seven years old. 5 during: Where did you go over summer vacation? 6 down from the edge of something: Hang the towel over the back of the chair. 7 be/get over sth to feel better after being sick or upset: He's mad, but he'll get over it. 8 about or concerning something: They had an argument over who would take the car. 9 using the telephone or a radio: The salesman explained it to me over the phone. → all over at ALL²

over² adv. 1 down from an upright position: Kate fell over and hurt her ankle. | The wind blew the table over. 2 used in order to show where someone or something is: I'm over here! | There's a mailbox over on the corner. 3 to or in a particular place: Pat came over to our place last night. | The weather's awful. Why don't you stay over (=spend the night at my house)? 4 above: You can't hear anything when the planes fly over. 5 again: I got mixed up and had to start over. | If you make a mistake in the recording, we can always do it over. | They just keep playing the same songs over and over again (=repeatedly). 6 think/read/talk sth over to think, read, or talk about something carefully or thoroughly before deciding what to do: I'll need to read the contract over before I sign it. 7 so that another side is showing: Turn your papers over and begin. | He rolled over and went to sleep. 8 from one person or group to another: The land was handed over (=given) to the government. 9 more or higher than a particular amount, number, or age: "Did you guess the right number?" "No, I was over by two." (=the number I guessed was two higher) | The game is best for children ages six and over.

over³ adj. 1 finished: The game's over – Dallas won.

THESAURUS done, finished, complete, through → DONE²

2 get sth over with (informal) to do something that you do not want to do, but that is necessary, so that you do not have to worry about it anymore: Well, call her and get it over with.

o-ver-all¹ /'oʊvərɔl/ (Ac) adj. including everything: The overall cost of the trip is $500. | The overall level of unemployment is approximately 12% of the population.

o-ver-all² /'oʊvərɔl/ (Ac) adv. 1 generally: Overall, the situation looks good. | Overall, females performed better than males in tests. 2 including everything: Inflation is growing at 3% a year overall. | Although there are now women in positions of power, their numbers overall are still few.

o-ver-alls /'oʊvərɔlz/ n. [plural] heavy cotton pants with a piece that covers your chest, held up by two bands that go over your shoulders → see picture at CLOTHES

o-ver-bear-ing /'oʊvər'bɛrɪŋ/ adj. (disapproving) always trying to control other people without considering their feelings or needs (SYN) domineering

o-ver-board /'oʊvər'bɔrd/ adv. 1 over the side of a ship into the water: He fell overboard in the storm. 2 go overboard to do or say something that is too extreme for a particular situation, for example by being too emotional or expensive: She managed to find a nice present, without going overboard.

o-ver-bur-dened /'oʊvər'bʊrdnd/ adj. carrying or doing too much: Some of the managers are overburdened with work. | the overburdened court system

o-ver-cast /'oʊvər,kæst/ adj. dark because of clouds: a gray overcast sky

o-ver-charge /'oʊvər'tʃɑrdʒ/ v. [I,T] to charge someone too much money for something (ANT) undercharge

o-ver-coat /'oʊvər,kəʊt/ n. [C] a long thick warm coat

o-ver-come /'oʊvər'kʌm/ v. (past tense overcame /-'keɪm/, past participle overcome) 1 [T] to succeed in controlling a feeling or problem: I'm trying to overcome my fear of flying. 2 [T] to make someone very emotional, sick, or weak: She was overcome by smoke. | Charles was overcome with grief. 3 [I,T] to fight and win against someone or something: Union troops finally overcame rebel forces in the south.

THESAURUS beat, defeat, vanquish, conquer → BEAT¹

o-ver-com-pen-sate /ˌoʊvəˈkæmpən,seɪt/ v. [I] to try to correct a weakness or mistake by doing too much of the opposite thing: She overcompensates for her shyness by talking too much. —overcompensation /ˌoʊvəˈkæmpənˈseɪʃən/ n. [U]

o-ver-crowd-ed /ˌoʊvəˈkraʊdɪd/ adj. filled with too many people or things: an overcrowded bus

o-ver-do /ˌoʊvəˈdu/ v. (past tense overdid /-ˈdɪd/, past participle overdone /-ˈdʌn/, third person singular overdoes /-ˈdʌz/) [T] to do or use too much of something: When exercising, you have to be careful not to overdo it.

o-ver-done /ˌoʊvəˈdʌn/ adj. cooked too much: an overdone steak

o-ver-dose /ˌoʊvəˈdoʊs/ n. [C] too much of a drug taken at one time: He died from a heroin overdose. —overdose v. [I] o-ver-drawn /ˌoʊvəˈdrɔn/ adj. having spent more money than you have in the bank, so you owe the bank money: If you are overdrawn, there's a $50 fee to pay. → ACCOUNT¹

o-ver-due /ˌoʊvəˈdu/ adj. 1 not done or happening when expected (SYN) late: an overdue library book

THESAURUS late, tardy, belated → LATE¹

2 something that is overdue should have happened or been done a long time ago: Salary increases are long overdue.

o-ver-eat /ˌoʊvəˈɪt/ v. (past tense overate /-ˈeɪt/, past participle overeaten /-ˈiːtɪn/) [I] to eat too much, or more than is healthy

o-ver-es-ti-mate /ˌoʊvəˈɛstə,meɪt/ (Ac) v. [I,T] to think that someone or something is larger, more expensive, or more important than he, she, or it really is: Rosa had overestimated the strength of her opponent. | The importance of education cannot be overestimated (=it is very important). —overestimate /ˌoʊvəˈɛstəmət/ n. [C]: The figure of 30% is clearly an overestimate.

o-ver-ex-tend /ˌoʊvəˈɪkˈstend/ v. [T] to try to do too much or use too much of something, causing problems: Even with extra people working, they're overextending themselves. —overextended adj.

o-ver-flow¹ /ˌoʊvəˈflaʊ/ v. [I,T] 1 if a liquid or river overflows, it goes over the edges of the container or place where it is: The sink was overflowing with water. 2 if people overflow a place, or if a place overflows with people, there are too many people to fit into it o-ver-flow² /ˌoʊvəˈflaʊ/ n. [C,U] the people, water, etc. that cannot be contained in a place because it is already full: The overflow of people from the concert was standing outside in the street.

o-ver-graz-ing /ˌoʊvəˈgreɪzɪŋ/ n. [U] a situation in which animals are allowed to eat too much of the grass in an area, with the result that the land becomes damaged o-ver-grown /ˌoʊvəˈɡroʊn/ adj. covered with plants that have grown without being controlled: Their yard was overgrown with weeds.

o-ver-hand /ˌoʊvəˈhænd/ adj., adv. thrown with your arm above the level of your shoulder (ANT) underhand: an overhand pitch

o-ver-hang /ˌoʊvəˈhæŋ/ v. (past tense and past participle overhung /-ˈhʌŋ/) [I,T] to hang over something or stick out above it: Tree branches overhung the path.

o-ver-haul /ˌoʊvəˈhɔl, ˈoʊvəˈhɔl/ v. [T] to repair or change all the parts of a machine, system, etc. that need it —overhaul /ˌoʊvəˈhɔl/ n. [C]: The truck needs a complete overhaul.

o-ver-head¹ /ˌoʊvəˈhed/ adj., adv. above your head: A plane flew overhead. | We put our bags in the overhead compartment.

o-ver-head² /ˌoʊvəˈhed/ n. [U] ECONOMICS money that you spend for rent, etc. to keep a business operating: He's trying to lower our overhead.

o-ver-hear /ˌoʊvəˈhɪr/ v. (past tense and past participle overheard /-ˈhɜrd/) [T] to hear by accident what other people are saying when they do not know that you are listening → EAVESDROP: I overheard some people saying that the food was bad.

o-ver-joyed /ˌoʊvəˈdʒɔɪd/ adj. extremely happy because something good has happened: We were overjoyed to hear that they are getting married.

THESAURUS happy, glad, pleased, delighted, thrilled, ecstatic, jubilant, elated → HAPPY

o-ver-kill /ˌoʊvəˈkɪl/ n. [U] (informal) more of something than is necessary or desirable: If your speech were any longer, it would be overkill.

o-ver-land /ˌoʊvəˈlənd/ adj., adv. across land, not by sea or air: overland travel

o-ver-lap /ˌoʊvəˈlæp/ (Ac) v. (overlapped, overlapping) [I,T] 1 if two or more things overlap, part of one thing covers part of another thing: a pattern of overlapping circles 2 if two subjects, activities, ideas, etc. overlap, they share some but not all of the same parts or qualities: Our jobs overlap in certain areas. | The study of history overlaps with the study of politics. —overlap /ˌoʊvəˈlæp/ n. [C,U]

o-ver-load /ˌoʊvəˈləʊd/ v. [T] 1 to load something with too many things or people: Don't overload the washing machine with clothes. 2 to give someone too much work to do 3 to damage an electrical system by causing too much electricity to flow through it —overload /ˌoʊvəˈləʊd/ n. [C,U]

o-ver-look /ˌoʊvəˈlʊk/ v. [T] 1 to not notice something, or to not realize how important it is: It's easy to overlook mistakes when reading your own writing. 2 to forgive someone's mistake, bad behavior, etc.: I can't overlook his drinking any longer. 3 to have a view of something from above: Our room overlooked the beach.

o-ver-ly /'oʊvəli/ adv. too much, or very: It is a problem, but we are not overly concerned about it.

o-ver-night¹ /'oʊvə'naɪt/ adv. 1 for or during the night: She's staying overnight at a friend's house. 2 (informal) suddenly: You can't expect to lose the weight overnight.

o-ver-night² /'oʊvə'naɪt/ adj. [only before noun] continuing all night: an overnight flight to Japan

o-ver-pass /'oʊvə'pæs/ n. [C] a structure like a bridge, that allows one road to go over another road

o-ver-pop-u-lat-ed /'oʊvə'pɒpyə'leɪtɪd/ adj. an overpopulated place has too many people: an overpopulated city —overpopulation /'oʊvə'pɒpyə'leɪʃən/ n. [U]

o-ver-pow-er /'oʊvə'paʊə/ v. [T] to defeat someone because you are stronger

o-ver-pow-er-ing /'oʊvə'paʊərɪŋ/ adj. very strong [SYN] intense: an overpowering smell

o-ver-priced /'oʊvə'praɪst/ adj. too expensive: overpriced restaurants

THESAURUS expensive, high, pricey, costly, extortionate, exorbitant → EXPENSIVE

o-ver-qual-i-fied /'oʊvə'kwɒlə'faɪd/ adj. having more experience or education than is needed for a particular job: Sara's overqualified for most sales jobs.

o-ver-ran /'oʊvə'ræn/ v. the past tense of OVER-RUN

o-ver-rat-ed /'oʊvə'reɪtɪd/ adj. not as good or important as some people think or say [ANT] under-rated: I think her books are overrated. —overrate v. [T] o-ver-re-act /'oʊvə'reɪkt/ v. [I] to react to something with too much anger or surprise, or by doing more than is necessary: You always overreact to criticism. —overreaction /'oʊvə'reɪkʃən/ n. [C,U]

o-ver-ride /'oʊvə'raɪd/ v. (past tense overrode /-'roud/, past participle overridden /-'rɪdn/) [T] 1 to change someone's decision because you have the authority to do so: Congress has overridden the President's veto. 2 to be more important than something else: The state of the economy seems to override other political and social questions.

o-ver-rid-ing /'oʊvə'rɑɪdɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] more important than anything else: Security is of overriding importance.

o-ver-rule /'oʊvə'rul/ v. [T] to officially change someone's order or decision because you think that it is wrong: The Supreme Court overruled the lower court's decision.

o-ver-run /'oʊvə'rʌn/ v. (past tense overran /-'ræn/, past participle overrun) [T] to spread over a place quickly and in great numbers: During the summer, the town is overrun with tourists.

o-ver-seas /'oʊvə'sɪz/ [Ac] adj., adv. to or in a foreign country that is across the ocean → ABROAD: overseas travel | Apparel retailers in the U.S. buy roughly half their merchandise overseas each year.

o-ver-see /'oʊvə'si/ v. (past tense oversaw /-'sɔ/, past participle overseen /-'sɪn/) [T] to watch a group of workers to be sure that a piece of work is done correctly [SYN] supervise: Bentley is overseeing the project. —overseer /'oʊvə'siə/ n. [C] o-ver-shad-ow /'oʊvə'ʃædɒw/ v. [T] to make someone seem less important: His work has been overshadowed by that of newer writers.

o-ver-shoot /'oʊvə'ʃu:t/ v. (past tense and past participle overshot /-'ʃɒt/) [I,T] to accidentally go a little further or spend more than you intended: The plane overshot the runway.

o-ver-sight /'oʊvə'saɪt/ n. 1 [C,U] a mistake in which you forget something or do not notice something: If Butler didn't receive the report, it was an oversight. 2 [U] if someone has oversight of something, s/he must make sure it is done correctly

'oversight ,function n. [C] POLITICS an official check by a special government committee of the decisions made by the EXECUTIVE BRANCH of the U.S. government to make sure that the government acted legally and correctly o-ver-sim-ply-fy /'oʊvə'sɪmplə'faɪ/ v. (oversimplified, oversimplifies) [I,T] (disapproving) to make a problem or situation seem more simple than it really is, by ignoring important facts —oversimplification /'oʊvə'sɪmplə'fɪkəʃən/ n. [C,U]

o-ver-sleep /'oʊvə'sli:p/ v. (past tense and past participle overslept /-'slept/) [I] to sleep for longer than you intended o-ver-spend /'oʊvə'spend/ v. (past tense and past participle overspent /-'spent/) [I,T] to spend more money than you can afford

o-ver-state /'oʊvə'steɪt/ v. [T] to talk about something in a way that makes it seem more important, serious, etc. than it really is [SYN] exaggerate [ANT] understate: A child's need for a routine cannot be overstated (=it is very important).

o-ver-step /'oʊvə'ste:p/ v. (overstepped, overstepping) [T] to go beyond an acceptable limit: Wilson has clearly overstepped his authority.

o-vert /ou'vət, 'oʊvət/ adj. (formal) done or shown in public or in an open way [ANT] covert: overt discrimination —overtly adv.

o-ver-take /'oʊvə'teɪk/ v. (past tense overtook /-'tʊk/, past participle overtaken /-'teɪkən/) [T] 1 to have a sudden strong effect on someone: He was overtaken by exhaustion. 2 to develop or increase more quickly than someone or something else: DVDs rapidly overtook video.

over-the-counter adj. over-the-counter medicines can be bought without a PRESCRIPTION (=written order) from a doctor overthrow /ˈoʊvəˈθroʊ/ v. (past tense overthrew /-ˈθru/, past participle overthrown /-ˈθroun/) [T] to remove a leader or government from power by force: Rebel forces have made an attempt to overthrow the government. —overthrow /ˈoʊvəˈθrou/ n. [U] over-time /ˈoʊvəˈtaɪm/ n. [U] time that you work on your job in addition to your usual working hours: Tom's been working/doing a lot of overtime lately.

over-took /ˈoʊvəˈtʊk/ v. the past tense of OVER-TAKE over-ture /ˈoʊvətʃə-, -tʃʊr/ n. [C] 1 a piece of music written as an introduction to a longer musical piece, especially an OPERA 2 [usually plural] an attempt to be friendly with a person, group, or country: They began making overtures to the Japanese government.

over-turn /ˈoʊvəˈtɜːn/ v. 1 [I,T] if something overturns, or you overturn it, it turns upside down or falls over on its side: an overturned car 2 overturn a ruling/verdict/law etc. to change a decision made by a court so that it becomes the opposite of what it was before over-view /ˈoʊvəˈvyu/ n. [C] a short description of a subject or situation, that gives the main ideas without explaining all the details: The article gave an overview of developments in the Middle East.

over-weight /ˈoʊvəˈweɪt/ adj. too heavy or too fat: He was 10/20 etc. pounds overweight.

THESAURUS fat, big, heavy, large, obese, chubby, plump, stout, corpulent, rotund → FAT over-whelm /ˈoʊvəˈwɛlm/ v. [T] 1 if work, a problem, etc. overwhelms someone, it is too much or too difficult to deal with: Maia is a sensitive child who is overwhelmed by the demands of school. 2 if a feeling overwhelms someone, s/he feels it very strongly: I was overwhelmed by/with grief. —overwhelmed adj.

over-whelm-ing /ˈoʊvəˈwɛlmɪŋ/ adj. 1 affecting someone very strongly: an overwhelming sense of guilt 2 extremely large or great: an overwhelming number/majority of voters —overwhelmingly adv.

over-worked /ˈoʊvəˈwɜːkt/ adj. working too much and for too long: an overworked teacher —overwork /ˈoʊvəˈwɜːk/ n. [U] ov-ule /ˈɒvyul/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a very small structure in plants that develops into a seed after the plant has been FERTILIZED

o-vum /ˈoʊvəm/ n. (plural ova /ˈoʊvə/) [C] BIOL-OGY an egg, especially one that develops inside a woman's or a female animal's body ow /aʊ/ interjection said in order to show that something hurts you: Ow! That hurt!

owe /oʊ/ v. [T] 1 to need to pay someone because s/he has allowed you to borrow money: Bob owes me $20. | How much do you still owe on your college loans?

THESAURUS

be in debt – to owe an amount of money be overdrawn – to owe money to your bank, as a result of spending more money than you have in your bank account be in the red – to have spent more money than you have

2 to feel that you should do something for someone or give something to someone, especially because s/he has done something for you: Jane will watch the kids – she owes me a favor anyway. | You owe it to your kids to teach them about healthy eating. | I think I owe you an apology.

owing to prep. (formal) because of: Greely was unable to accept the job, owing to a serious illness.

owl /aʊl/ n. [C] a bird that hunts at night and has large eyes and a loud call → see picture at NOCTURNAL

own¹ /oʊn/ determiner, pron. 1 belonging to or done by a particular person and no one else: his own car | She makes a lot of her own clothes. | I'd love a place of my own. 2 (all) on your own a) alone: Many older people still live on their own. b) without help: It's a decision you have to make on your own.

own² v. [T] to legally have something because you bought it or have been given it (SYN) possess: The city owns the buildings.

THESAURUS

possess (formal) – to own or have something: Philips was charged with possessing cocaine.
have – to own something: How many students have a cell phone?
belong to sb – if something belongs to you, you own it: The ring belonged to my grandmother.

own up phr. v. to admit that you have done something wrong: He'll never own up to his mistakes.

own-er /ˈoʊnə/ n. [C] someone who owns something: pet owners | the owner of the business —ownership n. [U] ox /ɒks/ n. (plural oxen /ˈɒksən/) [C] a male cow that has had part of its sex organs removed ox-i-da-tion /ˌɒksəˈdeɪʃən/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY the process in which a chemical combines with oxygen, losing one or more ELECTRONS ox-ide /'ɒksaɪd/ n. [C,U] CHEMISTRY a substance that is produced when a substance is combined with oxygen ox-i-dize /'ɒksədaɪz/ v. [I,T] 1 CHEMISTRY to combine with oxygen, or to make something combine with oxygen, especially in a way that causes RUST 2 CHEMISTRY to lose ELECTRONS or make another chemical compound lose electrons

'oxidizing agent n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical substance that oxidizes another substance and gives up oxygen or gains ELECTRONS in the process

ox-y-gen /'ɒksɪdʒən/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol O) a gas in the air that has no color, smell, or taste, and that all plants and animals need in order to live [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 French oxygène, from Greek oxys “sharp, acid” + French -gène “forming;” because it was believed that oxygen forms part of all acids] ox-y-mo-ran /,ɒksi'mɔrən/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a combination of words that seem to mean the opposite of each other, such as “new classics” oys-ter /'ɔɪstə/ n. [C,U] a small sea animal that has a shell and can produce a jewel called a PEARL, or the meat of this animal → see picture at SHELLFISH oz the written abbreviation of OUNCE

o-zone /'oʊzoun/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a poisonous blue gas that is a type of oxygen

'ozone layer n. [singular] EARTH SCIENCES a layer of ozone above the Earth that prevents harmful RADIATION from the Sun from reaching the Earth's surface

P

Pp

P, p /pi/ the sixteenth letter of the English alphabet

p. (plural pp.) the written abbreviation of PAGE and PAGES

PA¹ the written abbreviation of PENNSYLVANIA

PA² n. [C usually singular] public address system electronic equipment that makes someone's voice loud enough to be heard by a large group of people

Pa CHEMISTRY the written abbreviation of PASCAL pa /pa/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) father

PAC /pæk/ n. POLITICS political action committee an organization that tries to influence politicians so that they will support the organization's aims pace¹ /peɪs/ n. 1 [singular] the speed or rate at which something happens or is done: We started walking uphill at a steady/slow/rapid/fast etc.

pace. | Students are encouraged to work at their own pace.

COLLOCATIONS

pace of life – the amount of activity in people's lives and how busy they are pace of change/reform/growth – how quickly change, reform, or growth happens at your own pace – at a pace that is comfortable for you at a rapid/slow/steady etc. pace at a snail's pace – very slowly keep up the pace – continue to do something or happen as quickly as before keep pace with sth – do something at the same speed or rate as something else

2 keep pace (with sb/sth) to move or change as fast as something or someone else pace² v. [I,T] 1 to walk first in one direction and then in another, again and again, when you are waiting or worried about something: Darren paced back and forth in the waiting room. 2 pace yourself to do something at a steady speed so you do not get tired too quickly pace-maker /'peɪs,meɪkə/ n. [C] a very small machine that is attached to someone's heart to help it beat regularly

Pa-cif-ic /pə'sɪfɪk/ n. [U] (spoken) a short form of Pacific Time, the TIME ZONE in the western part of the U.S.

pa-cif-ic /pə'sɪfɪk/ adj. (literary) peaceful, loving peace, or helping peace to happen: a pacific settlement to the argument

Pa,cific 'Ocean n. the Pacific Ocean, the Pacific the large ocean between Asia and Australia in the west, and North and South America in the east

Pa,cific 'Rim n. the Pacific Rim the land and islands that are around the edges of the Pacific Ocean, especially in Asia pac-i-fi-er /'pæsə,faiə/ n. [C] a plastic or rubber object that a baby sucks on so that s/he does not cry pac-i-fism /'pæsə,fɪzəm/ n. [U] the belief that all wars and forms of violence are wrong —pacifist n. [C] pac-i-fy /'pæsə,fai/ v. (pacified, pacifies) [T] to make someone calm and quiet after s/he has been angry or upset, or to make a group or area peaceful: "You're right," Rita said, in order to pacify him.

pack¹ /pæk/ v. 1 [I,T] also pack up to put things into boxes, SUITCASES, bags, etc. in order to take or store them somewhere: The Olsons packed their bags/suitcases. | I still need to pack tonight. | They packed up and moved back to Tucson. | eggs packed in cartons 2 [I,T] if a crowd of people packs a place, there are so many of them that the place is too full: 50,000 fans packed the stadium. 3 [T] to cover, fill, or surround something closely with material to protect it: Pack some newspaper around the bottles. 4 [T] to press soil, snow, etc.

down firmly: Pack the soil firmly around the roots.

pack sb/sth ↔ in phr. v. 1 (informal) to fit a lot of people, information, ideas, etc. into a limited space: Any movie starring Brad Pitt always packs in the fans. 2 pack it in (informal) to stop doing something: Mike was ready to pack it in for the night.

pack sth into sth phr. v. to fit a lot of something into a space, place, or period of time: We packed a lot of sightseeing into two weeks.

pack sb/sth off phr. v. (informal) to send someone or something away quickly, especially in order to get rid of him/her: Our folks packed us off to camp every summer.

pack up phr. v. (informal) to finish work and put things away: The band packed up at midnight.

pack² n. [C] 1 a small container that holds a set of things: a pack of cigarettes/cards/gum 2 a group of wild animals that live and hunt together: a wolf pack 3 a group of people: A pack of reporters was yelling questions. 4 several things wrapped or tied together to make them easy to sell, carry, or send: a pack of three T-shirts | a six-pack of beer

pack-age¹ /'pækɪdʒ/ n. [C] 1 something packed into a box and wrapped in paper, especially for mailing 2 the box, bag, etc. that food is put into in order to be sold: Nutrition information is listed on the side of the package. 3 a set of related things or services that are sold or offered together: a new software package | a financial aid package for students package² v. [T] 1 to put something in a special package, ready to be sold or sent: Meat is packaged and dated in this area here. 2 to try to make an idea, person, etc. seem interesting or attractive so that people will like it or buy it: The company is packaging the band to appeal to teenage girls.

pack-ag-ing /'pækɪdʒɪŋ/ n. [U] the container or material that a product is sold in: cardboard packaging packed /pækt/ adj. 1 extremely full of people or things: The theater was packed. | The forest is tightly/densely/closely packed with pine trees.

THESAURUS full, filled with sth, crammed, stuffed (full of sth), bursting (with sth), overflowing, overloaded → FULL¹

2 if you are packed, you have put everything you need into boxes or SUITCASES before going on a trip pack-er /'pækə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to pack things that are to be moved or sold pack-et /'pækɪt/ n. [C] 1 a small envelope containing something: a packet of sugar 2 it a quantity of information that is sent as a single unit from one computer to another on a network or on the Internet

'pack ice n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a large area of ice floating in the ocean, formed by smaller pieces joining together when the ocean is very cold pack-ing /'pækɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 the act of putting things into boxes, cans, SUITCASES, etc. so that you can send or take them somewhere: I've still got to do my packing. 2 paper, plastic, cloth, etc. used for packing things

'pack rat n. [C] (informal) someone who collects and stores things that s/he does not really need pact /pækt/ n. [C] a formal or serious agreement between two groups, nations, or people: The U.S. signed a trade pact with Canada. | We made a pact to help each other out. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French pacte, from Latin pactum, from pacisci "to agree"]

pad¹ /pæd/ n. [C] 1 a thick piece of soft material, used for protecting or cleaning something, or for making something more comfortable: the helmets and pads of a football player | a heating pad 2 many sheets of paper fastened together, used for writing or drawing: a sketch pad → LAUNCH PAD

pad² v. (padded, padding) 1 [I] to walk softly and quietly: The cat padded across the floor. 2 [T] to fill or cover something with a soft material in order to protect it or make it more comfortable 3 [T] (informal) to add something unnecessary to a document or speech to make it longer, or to a price to make it higher: He was padding his expense accounts.

pad-ded /'pædɪd/ adj. filled or covered with a soft material: a padded jacket pad-ding /'pædɪŋ/ n. [U] material that fills or covers something to make it softer or more comfortable pad-dle¹ /'pædl/ n. [C] 1 a short pole with a wide flat end, used for moving a small boat along → OAR 2 an object used for hitting the ball in PING-PONG, consisting of a round flat top on a short handle paddle² v. 1 [I,T] to move a small boat through water, using a paddle 2 [T] to hit a child with a piece of wood as a punishment → DOG PADDLE pad-dy /'pædi/ also rice paddy n. (plural pad-dies) [C] a field in which rice is grown in water pad-lock /'pædlɒk/ n. [C] a lock with a curved bar at the top that you can put on a door, bicycle, etc. —padlock v. [T] → see picture at LOCK² pa-gan /'peɪɡən/ n. [C] someone who does not believe in any of the main modern religions of the world [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Late Latin paganus, from Latin, "someone who lives in the country"] —pagan adj.

page¹ /peɪdʒ/ n. [C] 1 one side of a sheet of paper in a book, newspaper, etc., or the sheet of paper itself: Do the exercises on page 10 for homework. | The story was on the front page of every newspaper. | Callie turned the page and continued reading. 2 all the writing and pictures that you can see at one time on a computer screen: a web page 3 a young person who works in a government office for a short time in order to gain experience [ORIGIN: (1) 1500–1600 French, Latin pagina] page² v. [T] 1 to call someone's name in a public place, especially using a LOUDSPEAKER: We couldn't find Jan at the airport, so we had her paged. 2 to call someone using a BEEPER (=small machine that receives messages)

P

page down/up phr. v. to press a special key on a computer that makes the screen show the page after or before the one you are reading

P pag-eant /'pædʒənt/ n. [C] 1 a competition for young women in which their beauty and other qualities are judged: a beauty pageant 2 a public show or ceremony that usually shows an event in history pag-eant-ry /'pædʒəntri/ n. [U] (formal) impressive ceremonies or events, involving many people wearing special clothes: the pageantry of a royal wedding

pag-er /'peɪdʒə/ n. [C] a BEEPER pa-go-da /pə'goudə/ n. [C] an Asian TEMPLE that has several levels, with a decorated roof at each level [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Portuguese pagode] paid /peɪd/ v. the past tense and past participle of PAY

pail /peɪl/ n. [C] 1 a container with a handle, used for carrying liquids or by children when playing on the beach (SYN bucket): a pail of water 2 a container used for carrying or holding something: a garbage pail | a lunch pail

pain¹ /peɪn/ n. 1 [C,U] the feeling you have when part of your body hurts: Soldiers lay groaning in pain (=feeling pain) on the ground. | She was given drugs to ease/relieve the pain (=make it hurt less). | These patients suffer from shoulder/chest/back pain. | As soon as I stood up, I felt the pain.

COLLOCATIONS

A terrible, severe, intense, or unbearable pain is very bad.

A sharp pain is short but severe.

A dull pain is not severe, but it continues for a long time.

If you have pain over a long period of time, you can call it chronic pain.

Another word for a pain that continues but is not very strong is an ache.

If you are in pain, you take medicine or painkillers to lessen/ease/relieve/kill the pain.

2 be a pain (in the neck/butt) (spoken) to be very annoying: This pan is a pain to wash. 3 [C,U] the feeling of unhappiness you have when you are sad, upset, etc.: Children feel a lot of pain when their parents divorce. 4 take pains to do sth to make a special effort to do something well: I took great pains not to upset them. 5 be at pains to do sth (formal) to be very careful to do something [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French peine, from pain² v. [T] (formal) to make someone feel unhappy: It pains me to see my mother growing old.

Latin poena, from Greek poine “payment, punishment”]

pained /peɪnd/ adj. worried, upset, or slightly annoyed: a pained look/expression pain-ful /'peɪnfəl/ adj. 1 making you feel physical pain: a painful injury | He was finding it painful to walk.

THESAURUS

tender – a tender part of your body is painful if someone touches it: Her feet still felt tender.

stiff – if a part of your body is stiff, your muscles hurt and it is difficult to move, usually because you have exercised too much or you are sick: My legs are so stiff!

sore – painful as a result of a wound, infection, or too much exercise: a sore throat and fever raw – skin that is raw is red and sore: Eczema is a skin condition that can leave your skin raw and itchy. → HURT¹

2 making you feel very upset or unhappy: painful memories of the war | The divorce was painful for both of us. | I made the painful decision to leave. 3 very bad and embarrassing for other people to watch, hear, etc.: The acting in the movie was so bad that it was painful to watch.

pain-ful-ly /'peɪnfəli/ adv. 1 with pain, or causing pain: Mike walked slowly and painfully to the door. | People can be painfully cruel to each other. 2 very – used to emphasize a bad or harmful quality or that something makes you upset: It was painfully obvious that she wasn't well. 3 needing a lot of effort, or causing a lot of trouble: Real change is a painfully slow process.

pain-kill-er /'peɪn,kɪlə/ n. [C] a medicine that reduces or removes pain pain-less /'peɪnlɪs/ adj. 1 without pain, or causing no pain: a painless death 2 (informal) needing no effort or hard work: There is no painless way to learn another language.

pains-tak-ing /'peɪnz,tetkɪŋ, 'peɪn,steɪ-/ adj. very careful and thorough: painstaking research — painstakingly adv.

THESAURUS careful, methodical, thorough, meticulous, systematic, scrupulous, conscientious → CAREFUL

paint¹ /peɪnt/ n. 1 [U] a colored liquid that you put on a surface to make it a particular color: a can of yellow paint | The kitchen needs a fresh coat of paint (=layer of paint). 2 [C,U] a colored substance in a small tube or block, used for painting pictures: a set of oil paints [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French peint, past participle of peindre “to paint,” from Latin pingere]

paint² v. [I,T] 1 to put paint on a surface: How much will it cost to paint the house? | The door had been painted blue. | the freshly painted (=recently painted) walls 2 to make a picture of someone or something using paint: He painted a portrait of Allen's wife. 3 paint a picture/portrait of sth to describe something in a particular way: The report paints a grim picture of family life.

paint-brush /'peɪntˈbrʌʃ/ n. [C] a special brush used for painting pictures or for painting rooms, houses, etc. → see picture at BRUSH¹ paint-er /'peɪntə/ n. [C] 1 someone who paints pictures (SYN) artist: a landscape painter 2 someone whose job is painting houses, rooms, etc.

paint-ing /'peɪntɪŋ/ n. 1 [C] a painted picture: a painting of Thomas Jefferson (=that shows Thomas Jefferson) | a painting by Mondrian (=painted by him)

THESAURUS picture, sketch, portrait, cartoon, illustration → PICTURE¹

2 [U] the act or skill of making a picture using paint: Monet's style of painting

THESAURUS art, drawing, photography, sculpture, pottery, ceramics → ART

3 [U] the act of covering a wall, house, etc. with paint

'paint thinner n. [U] a liquid that you add to paint to make it less thick pair¹ /peɪ/ n. (plural pairs or pair) [C] 1 something made of two similar parts that are joined together: a pair of scissors | two pairs of jeans | a pair of glasses 2 two things of the same kind that are used together: a pair of earrings | She has 12 pairs of shoes! 3 two people who are standing or doing something together: a pair of dancers | Work in pairs (=in groups of two) on the next exercise. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French paire, from Latin paria “equal things”] pair² also pair up v. [I,T] to form or be put into groups of two: We were each paired with a newcomer to help with training.

pair (sb ↔) off phr. v. to come together or bring two people together: The guests paired off for the first dance.

pa-ja-mas /pə'dʒɑməz, -'dʒæ-/ n. [plural] a pair of loose pants and a loose shirt that you wear in bed [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Hindi pajama (singular), from Persian pa “leg” + jama “piece of clothing”] pal /pæl/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a close friend: a college pal [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Romany phral, phal “brother, friend,” from Sanskrit bhratr “brother”] → PEN PAL pal-ace /'pælɪs/ n. [C] a large house where a king or queen officially lives: Buckingham Palace in England [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French palais, from Latin palatium, from Palatium the Palatine Hill in Rome where the ruler's palace was] pal-at-a-ble /'pælətəbəl/ adj. (formal) 1 palatable food or drinks have an acceptable taste: a palatable wine 2 an idea, suggestion, etc. that is palatable is acceptable: Can they come up with a plan that is more palatable to local residents?

pal-ate /'pælɪt/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY the top inside part of the mouth 2 [usually singular] (formal) someone's ability to taste things: The flavors must please the palate.

pa-la-tial /pə'leɪʃəl/ adj. very large and beautifully decorated: a palatial hotel pale¹ /peɪl/ adj. 1 having a much lighter skin color than usual because you are sick, frightened, etc.: Her father looked pale and nervous. 2 a pale color has more white in it than usual: pale green walls [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin pallidus]

THESAURUS light, pastel → LIGHT²

pale² v. [I] 1 pale in/by comparison to seem less important, good, etc. when compared to something else: Recent economic problems pale in comparison with those of the 1930s. 2 pale into insignificance to seem much less important when compared to something else: All our troubles paled into insignificance when we heard about the war. 3 (literary) if you pale, your face becomes much whiter than usual because you are sick, frightened, etc.

Pa-le-o-lith-ic, paleolithic /ˌpɛrliə'liθɪk/ adj.
EARTH SCIENCES relating to the earliest period of the STONE AGE (=the period many thousands of years ago when people made stone tools and weapons):
the Paleolithic era → NEOLITHIC pa-le-on-tol-o-gy /ˌpɛrliən'tɒlədʒi, -liən-/ n.

 [U] EARTH SCIENCES the study of FOSSILS (=ancient animals and plants that have been preserved in rock) [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 paleo- + Greek onta “living things” + English -ology] —paleontologist n. [C]

Pa-le-o-zo-ic /ˌpɛrliə'zəʊɪk/ n. the Paleozoic EARTH SCIENCES the period of time in the Earth's history, from about 570 million until about 250 million years ago, when fish, insects, REPTILES, and some plants first started to exist —Paleozoic adj.: the Paleozoic period → CENOZOIC, MESOZOIC, PRECAMBRIAN

pal-ette /'pælɪt/ n. [C] 1 a board with a curved edge and a hole for the thumb, on which a painter mixes colors 2 the particular set of colors a painter uses: a bright palette pal-in-drome /'pælən,drəʊm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG.

ARTS a word or phrase such as “deed” or “level,” which is the same when you read it backward pall¹ /pɔl/ n. 1 [C] a low dark cloud of smoke, dust, etc.: a pall of black smoke 2 [singular] something that spoils an event or occasion that should have been happy: The drug scandal cast a pall over (=spoiled the happy feelings at) the Olympics.

pall² v. [I] (literary) to become less interesting or enjoyable: Gradually, the novelty of city life began to pall.

pal-bear-er /'pɔl,bɛər-/ n. [C] someone who helps to carry a CASKET (=a box with a dead body inside) at a funeral pal-let /'pælɪt/ n. [C] a large flat wooden frame on which heavy goods can be lifted, stored, or moved pal-li-ate /'pæli,et/ v. [T] (formal) to make a bad situation or illness better, but not make it go away completely —palliation /ˌpæli'eɪʃən/ n. [U] —palliative adj.: cancer patients receiving pallia- tive care

THESAURUS relieve, ease, lessen, soothe, alleviate → REDUCE pal-lid /'pælɪd/ adj. (literary) looking pale and unhealthy: pallid skin

pal-lor /'pælər/ n. [singular] (literary) a pale unhealthy color of your skin or face palm¹ /pam/ n. [C] 1 the inside surface of your hand between the base of your fingers and your wrist: The boy held a penny in the palm of his hand. → see picture at HAND¹ 2 a palm tree

palm² v. [T]

palm sth ↔ off phr. v. to persuade someone to accept or buy something, especially by deceiving him/her

Palm 'Sunday n. the Sunday before Easter in Christian religions

palm-top /'pamtɒp/ n. [C] IT a very small computer that you can hold in your hand

'palm tree n. [C] a tall tropical tree with large pointed leaves at its top that grows near beaches or in deserts → see picture on page A10 pal-pa-ble /'pælpəbəl/ adj. (formal) easily and clearly noticed: Rosanne's disappointment was pal- pable. —palpably adv.

pal-pi-ta-tions /ˌpælpə'teɪʃənz/ n. [plural] irregular or extremely fast beating of your heart pal-try /'pɔltri/ adj. (disapproving) too small to be useful or important: a paltry pay raise pam-per /'pæmpər/ v. [T] to give someone a lot of care and attention, sometimes in a way that is bad for him/her: a pampered dog pam-phlet /'pæmfɪt/ n. [C] a very thin book with paper covers, giving information about something

pan¹ /pæn/ n. [C] 1 a round metal container used for cooking, usually with a handle: a large pan of boiling water | pots and pans | a frying pan 2 a metal container used for baking food, or the food that this contains: Spoon half the batter into a greased pan. | a pan of sweet rolls 3 a container with low sides, used for holding liquids: an oil pan [ORIGIN: Old English panne] pan² v. (panned, panning) 1 [T] (written) to strongly criticize a movie, play, etc. in a newspaper or on television or radio: The critics panned his first play. 2 [I,T] to move a camera while taking a picture, or follow a moving object with a camera:

The camera panned across the crowd. 3 [I] to wash soil in a pan in order to separate gold from it:
Men were panning for gold in the stream.

pan out phr. v. (informal) to happen or develop in the expected way: I got a few job interviews, but nothing panned out.

pan-a-ce-a /ˌpænə'siə/ n. [C usually singular] something that people think will make everything better or cure any illness: Money is not a panacea for the problems in our schools, but it can help.

THESAURUS solution, answer, cure, remedy → SOLUTION

pa-nache /pə'næʃ, -'nɑʃ/ n. [U] a way of doing things that is exciting and makes them seem easy:
Mr. Seaton danced with real panache.

pan-cake /'pænkɛɪk/ n. [C] a flat round type of bread made from flour, milk, and eggs that is cooked in a pan and eaten for breakfast pan-cre-as /'pæŋkriəs/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a GLAND in your body that helps your body to use the food you eat [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Modern Latin, Greek pankreas, from pan- “all” + kreas “flesh”] —pancreatic /ˌpæŋkri'ætɪk/ adj.

pan-da /'pændə/ n. [C] a large black and white animal, similar to a bear, that lives in China pan-dem-ic /pæn'demɪk/ n. [C] an illness or disease that affects the population of a very large area → EPIDEMIC: the virus that caused the deadly Spanish flu pandemic in 1918 —pandemic adj.: New strains of influenza could cause pandemic disease.

pan-de-mo-ni-um /pændə'moʊniəm/ n. [U] a situation in which there is a lot of noise and movement because people are angry, frightened, excited, etc.: For the next hour, there was pandemonium in the auditorium. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Pandaemonium city of evil spirits in the poem Paradise Lost (1667) by John Milton, from Greek pan- “all” + daimon “evil spirit”] pan-der /'pændə/ v.

pander to sth/sb phr. v. (disapproving) to try to please someone by doing what s/he wants you to do, even though you know this is wrong: Do we want a president who panders to big business?

pane /peɪn/ n. [C] a piece of glass in a window or door: a window pane | a pane of glass

pan-el¹ /'pænl/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a group of people who are chosen to discuss something, decide something, or answer questions: Six congressmen are on the panel looking into the issue. | a panel of experts | An independent review panel was set up to investigate the complaints. 2 a flat sheet of wood, glass, etc. that fits into a frame to form part of a door, wall, or ceiling: an oak door with three panels 3 instrument/control panel the place in an airplane, boat, etc. where the instruments or controls are panel² v. [T] to cover or decorate something such as a wall with flat pieces of wood, glass, etc.: an oak-paneled room pan-el-ing /'pænl-ɪŋ/ n. [U] wood in long pieces that is used for covering walls, etc.: pine paneling pan-el-ist /'pænl-ɪst/ n. [C] a member of a panel, especially on a radio or television program pang /pæŋ/ n. [C] a sudden strong and unpleasant feeling: strong hunger pangs | a pang of regret pan-han-dle¹ /'pæn,hændl/ v. [I] to ask people for money in the streets (Syn) beg —panhandler n. [C] panhandle² n. [C] a thin piece of land that is joined to a larger area: the Texas panhandle pan-ic¹ /'pænik/ n. [C,U] a sudden feeling of fear or anxiety that makes you do things without thinking carefully about them: People fled the area in (a) panic. | The announcement caused widespread panic. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French panique “caused by panic,” from Greek panikos, from Pan ancient Greek god of nature, who caused great fear]

panic² v. (past tense and past participle panicked, present participle panicking) [I,T] to suddenly feel so frightened that you do things without thinking clearly, or to make someone feel this way: Johnson panicked and ran. | Don't panic (=stay calm) —

we're getting you out of there right now. —panicky adj.

'panic-stricken adj. so frightened that you cannot think clearly: Panic-stricken parents swarmed around the school.

pan-o-ram-a /pænə'ræmə, -'rɑ-/ n. [C] an impressive view over a wide area of land: a panorama of the Rocky Mountains [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 pan- “all” + Greek horama “sight”] —panoramic /pænə'ræmɪk/ adj.: a panoramic view of the valley pan-sy /'pænzɪ/ n. (plural pansies) [C] a small flat brightly colored garden flower pant¹ /pænt/ v. [I] to breathe quickly with short noisy breaths, especially after exercising or because it is hot: Eddie was panting with the effort of the climb.

THESAURUS breathe, take a breath, inhale, exhale, wheeze, be short of breath, be out of breath, gasp for breath, gasp for air → BREATHE pant² adj. [only before noun] relating to, or part of, a pair of pants: We rolled up our pant legs and waded in the creek.

pan-the-ism /'pænθi,ɪzəm/ n. [U] the religious idea that God is present in all natural things in the universe pan-ther /'pænθə/ n. [C] a large wild black cat that is good at hunting pant-ies /'pæntɪz/ n. [plural] a piece of women's underwear that covers the area between the waist and the top of the legs → see picture at CLOTHES pan-to-mime /'pæntə,məɪm/ n. [C,U] a method of performing using only actions and not words, or a play performed using this method pan-try /'pæntri/ n. (plural pantries) [C] a small room near a kitchen, where food, dishes, etc. are kept pants /pænts/ n. [plural] a piece of clothing that covers you from your waist to your feet and has a separate part for each leg: a black pair of pants | He put it in his pants pocket. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 pantaloon] → see picture at CLOTHES

pant-suit /'pæntsut/ n. [C] a women's suit consisting of a JACKET and matching pants pan-ty-hose /'pænti,həʊz/ n. [plural] a very thin piece of women's clothing that covers the legs from the feet to the waist, usually worn with dresses or skirts pan-ty-lin-er /'pænti,lamə/ n. [C] a very thin SANITARY NAPKIN pa-pa /'papa/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) father pa-pa-cy /'peɪpəsi/ n. the papacy the position and authority of the POPE pa-pal /'peɪpəl/ adj. relating to the POPE pa-pa-raz-zi /,papa'rɑtsi/ n. [plural] people who take photographs of famous people by following them around [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 Italian, from the name of a character in the film La Dolce Vita (1960)]

P

pa-pa-ya /pə'paɪə/ n. [C,U] a sweet juicy tropical fruit with many small seeds inside it

pa-per¹ /'peɪpə/ n. 1 [U] material in the form of thin sheets, used for writing or drawing, wrapping things, etc.: Her letter was written on blue paper. | Kellen looked at the piece/sheet of paper on his desk. | She jotted her phone number on a slip/scrap of paper (=small piece of paper). | a piece of wax/tissue/wrapping etc. paper | a brown paper bag 2 [C] a newspaper: Have you seen today's paper? | an article in the paper | an ad in the local paper (=the newspaper for the area you live in) 3 [C] a piece of writing that is done as part of a class: My history paper is due tomorrow.

THESAURUS essay, composition, assignment, thesis, dissertation → ESSAY

4 papers important or official documents or letters, such as documents you use in your work, your WILL, your PASSPORT, etc.: legal papers | a set of identity papers 5 on paper a) if an idea seems good on paper, it seems good or true but has not been tested or does not work in a real situation: On paper, the company's policy of flexible working hours sounded great. b) if you put ideas or information on paper, you write them down 6 [C] a piece of writing or a speech by someone who has studied a particular subject: Einstein's first paper on relativity 7 [C,U] WALLPAPER [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French papier, from Latin papyrus]

paper² v. [T] to decorate the walls of a room by covering them with WALLPAPER pa-per-back /'peɪpə,bæk/ n. [C] a book with a stiff paper cover: Her novel's available in paper-back. → BOOK¹

'paper boy n. [C] a boy who delivers newspapers to people's houses

'paper clip n. [C] a small piece of curved wire used for holding sheets of paper together

'paper girl n. [C] a girl who delivers newspapers to people's houses pa-per-weight /'peɪpə,wet/ n. [C] a small heavy object that you put on top of papers so that they stay on a desk pa-per-work /'peɪpə,wɜ:k/ n. [U] 1 work such as writing letters or reports, which must be done but is not very interesting: Social workers have far too much paperwork to do. 2 the documents that you need for a business deal, a trip, etc.: I went to the insurance office to fill out the paperwork.

pa-pier-mâ-ché /,peɪpə mə'ʃeɪ/ n. [U] a soft substance made from a mixture of paper, water, and glue, which becomes hard when it dries

Pap smear /'pæp smɪr/ n. [C] a medical test that takes cells from a woman's CERVIX and examines them for signs of CANCER par /pɑ:/ n. 1 be on a par (with sth) to be of the same standard as something else: Their military forces are on a par with ours. 2 not be up to par also be below par to be less good or well than usual: Several students are not performing up to par. 3 be par for the course to be what you would normally expect to happen: "Lisa was late again." "That's par for the course." 4 [U] the number of STROKES a good player should take to hit the ball into a hole in golf par-a-ble /'pærəbəl/ n. [C] a short simple story that teaches a moral or religious lesson pa-rab-o-la

/pə'ræbələ/ n. [C] MATH a curved shape that looks like the curve a ball makes when it is thrown high in the air and comes down a short distance away. It is formed by a PLANE (=flat surface) crossing through the side of a CONE, so that the distances from the curve to fixed points inside and outside the curve are always the same. → CONIC SECTION —parabolic /,pærə'bɒlɪk/ adj.: a parabolic curve → see picture at HYPERBOLA

par-a-chute¹

/'pærə,ʃut/ n. [C] a large piece of cloth that is attached to the back of someone who jumps out of an AIRPLANE, which makes him/her fall slowly and safely to the ground parachute² v. 1 [I] to jump from an AIRPLANE using a parachute: A group of soldiers parachuted into the field during the night. 2 [T] to drop something from an AIRPLANE with a parachute: Supplies were parachuted into the area.

pa-rade¹ /pə'reɪd/ n. [C] 1 a public celebration when musical bands, decorated vehicles, etc. move down the street: The Rose Parade is always held on New Year's Day. | Their high school band was marching in the parade. 2 a military ceremony in which soldiers stand or march together so that they can be examined: cadets on parade

parade² v. 1 [I] to march together to celebrate or protest something: Peace demonstrators paraded through/along/in the streets. 2 [I] (disapproving) to walk around an area in order to attract attention: A couple of teenage girls were parading around the pool in their bikinis. 3 [T] to show someone to the public, especially in order to prove that you have control or power over him/her: The prisoners were paraded in front of the TV cameras. 4 [T] to show a particular quality or possession in order to make people notice you: Young athletes will get a chance to parade their skills.

par-a-digm /ˈpærədaɪm/ (Ac) n. [C] (formal) a model or typical example of something that explains an idea or process very clearly: The Holocaust of World War II is a paradigm of evil. | Pius XII remained the paradigm of what a pope should be. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Late Latin paradigma, from Greek paradeigma, from paradeiknynai “to show side by side”] —paradigmatic /ˌpærədɪɡˈmætɪk/ adj.

par-a-dise /ˈpærədaɪs, -daɪz/ n. 1 [U] a place or situation that is extremely pleasant, beautiful, or enjoyable: an island paradise 2 [singular] a place that has everything you need to do a particular activity: This mall is a shopper's paradise. 3 [U] heaven [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French, Late Latin, from Greek paradeisos “enclosed park”] par-a-dox /ˈpærədɒks/ n. [C] a statement or situation that seems strange or impossible because it contains two ideas or qualities that are very different but are both true: It's a paradox that such a very rich country has so many extremely poor people. —paradoxical /ˌpærədɒksɪkəl/ adj. —paradoxically adv.

par-af-fin /ˈpærəfɪn/ n. [U] a soft white substance used for making CANDLES par-a-gon /ˈpærəɡən/ n. [C] someone who is a perfect example of something: Alice was a paragon of wifely virtue.

par-a-graph /ˈpærəɡræf/ (Ac) n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a group of several sentences that start on a new line and deal with one idea in a piece of writing: I've only read the first paragraph of the article. | Your closing paragraph should sum up your argument. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French, Medieval Latin, from Greek, from paragraphein “to write beside”] par-a-keet /ˈpærəkiːt/ n. [C] a small brightly colored bird with a long tail, that is often kept as a pet [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Spanish periquito, from Old French perroquet] par-a-le-gal /ˌpærəˈlɪɡəl/ n. [C] someone whose job is to help a lawyer do his/her work par-al-lel /ˈpærəˌlel/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a relationship or similarity between two things, especially things that happen or exist in different places or at different times: The article draws a parallel between the political situation now and the situation in the 1930s (=it shows how they are similar). | The administration would like us to see parallels with World War II in today's conflict. | The close parallels between the two stories suggest that they come from the same source. 2 an imaginary line drawn on a map of the Earth that is parallel to the EQUATOR: The 42nd parallel is the northern border of

Pennsylvania. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin parallelus, from Greek parallelos, from para “beside” + allelon “of one another”]

parallel² adj. 1 two lines that are parallel to each other are the same distance apart along their whole length: a street parallel to/with the railroad | Draw parallel lines from the top to the bottom of the page. → see picture at LINE¹ 2 similar and happening at the same time: two parallel murder investigations | The novel has two parallel story lines.

parallel³ v. [T] (formal) to be very similar to something else: The movie's plot closely parallels a play by Shakespeare. | The increase in the birds' population has been paralleled elsewhere.

parallel 'circuit n. [C] PHYSICS an electrical CIRCUIT (=complete circle that an electric current travels in) in which electricity travels to each light or SWITCH by a straight line, without going through other lights, etc. → SERIES CIRCUIT par-al-lel-ism /ˈpærəlelɪzəm/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the use of sentences or phrases that have similar GRAMMATICAL structures in writing or poetry par-al-lel-o-gram /ˌpærəˈleləɡrəm/ n. [C] MATH a flat shape with four straight sides, in which each side is the same length as the side parallel to it → see picture at POLYGON parallel 'structure n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a way of connecting different ideas in a piece of writing or a speech by expressing them in the same GRAMMATICAL structure pa-ral-y-sis /pəˈræləsis/ n. [U] 1 the loss of the ability to move or feel part of your body: Such injuries can cause permanent paralysis. 2 a lack of ability to operate correctly or to do anything: Congress's lack of cooperation with the White House has caused political paralysis.

par-a-lyze /ˈpærəlaɪz/ v. [T] 1 to make someone lose the ability to move part of his/her body, or to feel anything in it 2 to make something or someone unable to operate normally: Heavy snow has paralyzed several cities in the eastern States. | He was paralyzed by fear. —paralyzed adj.: The stroke left him paralyzed and unable to feed himself.

par-a-med-ic /ˌpærəˈmɛdɪk/ n. [C] someone who usually works in an AMBULANCE, and is trained to help sick or injured people but is not a doctor or nurse pa-ram-et-er /pəˈræmətə/ (Ac) n. [C usually plural] a limit that controls the way that something should be done: Congress will decide on parameters for the investigation. | Business parameters are set by the market and the customers' demands. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Modern Latin para “beside” + Greek metron “measure”] par-a-mil-i-tar-y /ˌpærəˈmɪləˌtəri/ adj. organized like an army, but not part of the legal military forces of a country: extremist paramilitary groups —paramilitary n. [C] par-a-mount /'pærə,maʊnt/ adj. more important than anything else: The needs of the customer should be paramount.

THESAURUS important, of great/considerable importance, crucial, vital, essential, major, key → IMPORTANT par-a-noid /'pærə,nɔɪd/ adj. 1 believing unreasonably that you cannot trust other people, or that they are trying to harm you: All the stress about job losses is making me a little paranoid. 2 suffering from a mental illness that makes you believe that other people are trying to harm you —paranoia /,pærə'noɪə/ n. [U] par-a-pher-na-lia /,pærəfə'neɪliə, -fə'neɪl-/ n. [U] a lot of small things that belong to someone or that are used for a particular activity: photographic paraphernalia [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Medieval Latin, Greek parapherna “things brought to a marriage by a woman apart from the agreed amount of money”] par-a-phrase /'pærə,freɪz/ v. [T] ENG. LANG. ARTS to express what someone has written or said in a way that is shorter or easier to understand: Write a paragraph that paraphrases the story. —paraphrase n. [C] par-a-ple-gic /,pærə'plɪdʒɪk/ n. [C] someone who is unable to move the lower part of his/her body par-a-site /'pærə,sart/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a plant or animal that lives on or in another plant or animal and gets food from it 2 (disapproving) a lazy person who does not work but depends on other people —parasitic /,pærə'sɪtɪk/ adj.

par-a-sol /'pærə,sɒl, -,sɒl/ n. [C] a type of UMBRELLA used for protection from the Sun par-a-troop-er /'pærə,tru:pə/ n. [C] a soldier who is trained to jump out of an AIRPLANE using a PARACHUTE par-cel /'pɑːsəl/ n. [C] 1 a package 2 an area of land that is part of a larger area that has been divided: a 50-acre parcel in the foothills parcel ² v.

parcel sth ↔ out phr. v. to divide or share something among several people or groups: The foundation receives the money, then parcels it out to various projects.

'parcel post n. [U] the slowest and cheapest way of sending packages by mail in the U.S.

parched /pɑːtʃt/ adj. 1 (literary) extremely dry: parched fields 2 be parched (informal) to be very THIRSTY: I'm parched!

par-don /'pɑːdn/ v. [T] 1 pardon me (spoken) a) used in order to politely say sorry after you have made an impolite sound such as a BURP or a YAWN b) used in order to politely say sorry when you have accidentally pushed someone, interrupted him/her, etc.: Oh, pardon me, I didn't realize you were on the phone. c) also Pardon? used in order to politely ask someone to repeat what s/he has just said because you did not hear it correctly d) used in order to politely get someone's attention in order to ask a question: Pardon me, do you know what time it is? e) used before you politely correct someone or disagree with him/her: Pardon me, but I don't think that's true. 2 to officially allow someone to be free without being punished, although a court has decided s/he is guilty of a crime: Before he could serve his full term, he was pardoned by the governor. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French pardoner, from Late Latin perdonare “to give freely”] pardon ² n. [C] an official order allowing someone to be free without being punished, although a court has decided s/he is guilty of a crime: The governor was persuaded to grant/give Davis a pardon. → I beg your pardon at BEG par-don-a-ble /'pɑːdn-əbəl/ adj. (formal) possible to forgive or excuse: a pardonable error pare /per/ v. [T] to cut off the thin outer part of a fruit or vegetable: Pare the apples and slice them into chunks.

pare sth ↔ down phr. v. to gradually reduce an amount or number: Production costs have to be pared down.

par-ent /'perənt, 'pær-/ n. [C] the father or mother of a person or animal: My parents are coming to visit next week. | Many single parents (=who do not live with their child's other parent) cannot afford childcare. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French, Latin, present participle of parere “to give birth to”] —parental /pə'rentl/ adj.: parental rights par-ent-age /'perəntɪdʒ, 'pær-/ n. [U] (formal) someone's parents and the country they are from: children of French-Canadian parentage pa-ren-the-sis /pə'renθə'sɪs/ n. (plural parentheses /-sɪz/) [C usually plural] ENG. LANG. ARTS one of the marks (), used in writing to separate additional information from the main information: The numbers in parentheses refer to page numbers. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Late Latin, Greek, from parenti thenai “to put in”] par-ent-hood /'perənt,hʊd, 'pær-/ n. [U] the state of being a parent: They felt that they were not yet ready for parenthood.

pa-ri-ah /pə'reɪə/ n. [C] a person, organization, country, etc. that is hated and avoided by others: The regime was treated as an international pariah and subjected to international sanctions.

par-ish /'pærɪʃ/ n. 1 [C] the area that a priest in some Christian churches is responsible for 2 the parish the members of a particular church —parishioner /pə'reɪʃənə/ n. [C] par-i-ty /'pærəti/ n. [U] the state of being equal, especially having equal pay, rights, or power: Our employees are demanding parity with other workers in the industry.

park¹ /pɑrk/ n. [C] 1 a large open area with grass and trees in a town, where people can walk, play games, etc.: We went for a walk in the park. | a park bench | Central Park 2 a large area of land in the country, that has been kept in its natural state to protect the plants and animals there: a state/national park 3 a field where baseball is played: Fenway Park [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French parc, from Medieval Latin parricus] → AMUSEMENT PARK, BALL PARK, THEME PARK, TRAILER PARK

park² v. [I,T] to put a car or other vehicle in a particular place for a period of time: Is it okay if I park here? | Park your car in the back lot. → DRIVE¹ parka /'pɑrkə/ n. [C] a thick warm coat with a HOOD [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Aleut (a language spoken in the Aleutian Islands) “skin, outer clothing,” from Russian, “animal skin and fur,” from Yurak (a language spoken in Siberia)] park and 'ride n. [U] a system in which you leave your car in a special place in one part of a city, and then take a bus or train from there to the center of town park-ing /'pɑrkɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 the act of parking a car: The sign said “No Parking.” 2 spaces in which you can leave a car: Parking is available on Lemay Street. | We found a parking space/place near the door.

'parking ga,rage n. [C] a building with several floors where cars can be parked: an underground parking garage

'parking lot n. [C] an open area where cars can be parked

'parking meter n. [C] a machine that you put money into when you park your car next to it park-way /'pɑrkweɪ/ n. [C] a wide road, usually with grass and trees in the middle or along the sides par-lay /'pɑrleɪ, -li/ v. (parlayed, parlays) parlay sth into sth phr. v. (written) to use something that you already have, such as your skills, experience, or money, to become successful or get something that you want: She parlayed a $600 investment into the state's largest home decorating company.

par-lia-ment /'pɑrləmənt/ n. [C] the group of people in some countries who are elected to make laws and discuss important national affairs [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French parlement, from parler “to speak”] —parliamentary /,pɑrlə'mentəri, -'mentəri/ adj.

parliamentary de'mocracy n. [C,U] POLITICS a system of government in which citizens vote to elect representatives to a PARLIAMENT, or a country that has this system par-lor /'pɑrlə/ n. [C] 1 a store or type of business that provides a particular service: a beauty parlor | a funeral parlor 2 (old-fashioned) a room in a house, that has comfortable chairs and is used for meeting guests

Par-me-san /'pɑrmə,zən/ also 'Parmesan cheese n. [U] a hard strong-tasting Italian cheese [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French “of Parma,” city in Italy where the cheese was first made] pa-ro-chi-al /pə'roukiəl/ adj. 1 relating to a particular church: a parochial school (=a private school that is run by a particular church) 2 (disapproving) only interested in the things that affect you and your local area: Brian has a very parochial world view.

par-o-dy¹ /'pærədi/ n. (plural parodies) [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a performance or a piece of writing or music that copies a particular well-known style in a funny way: a parody of a romance novel parody² v. (parodied, parodies) [T] to copy someone's style or attitude in a funny way pa-role /pə'roul/ n. [U] LAW permission for someone to leave prison before the end of his/her sentence. People who are on parole must behave well and report regularly to the police or other authority. If they do not, they are sent back to prison: He was released on parole after serving five years. | She is appearing before the parole board (=the official group that can give a prisoner parole) next week. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French “speech, word, word of honor,” from Late Latin parabola] —parole v. [T] par-quet /pɑr'keɪ, 'pɑrkeɪ/ n. [U] small flat blocks of wood laid in a pattern that cover the floor of a room par-rot¹ /'pærət/ n. [C] a brightly colored tropical bird with a curved beak, that can be taught to copy human speech parrot² v. [T] (disapproving) to repeat someone else's words or ideas without really understanding them par-si-mo-ni-ous /,pɑrsə'mouniəs/ adj. (formal) extremely unwilling to spend money (SYN) stingy —parsimoniously adv. —parsimony /'pɑrsə'mouni/ n. [U] pars-ley /'pɑrsli/ n. [U] a plant with groups of curled leaves, used in cooking or as a decoration on food part¹ /pɑrt/ n.

1 OF A WHOLE [C,U] one of the pieces or features of something, such as an object, place, event, or period of time: Which part of town do you live in? | The best/worst part of the movie was the ending. | Getting Dad to agree will be the hard/easy part. | A large/good part of (=a lot of) my time is spent reading. | We waited for the better part of (=most of) an hour.

THESAURUS

piece — one of several different parts that you join together to make something: One of the pieces of the jigsaw puzzle was missing.

section — one of several parts that something is divided into: the sports section of the newspaper segment – a part of something that is different from or divided from the whole: Teenagers form a distinct segment of the market for this product.

P

portion – a part of something larger: The newspaper printed only a small portion of the interview.

chapter – one of the parts that a book is divided into: I've read the first two chapters.

scene – one of the parts that a play or movie is divided into: the opening scene | a love scene department – one part of a large organization, which is responsible for a particular kind of work: the marketing department

stage, step, phase, point, round → STAGE¹

2 SEPARATE PIECE [C usually plural] one of the separate pieces that a machine or piece of equipment is made of: Do you sell parts for Ford cars?

3 play/have a part (in sth) to be one of several things that make something happen or be successful: The college's excellent reputation played a big/important/major part in her decision to go there.

4 take part to be involved in an activity, event, etc. together with other people (SYN) participate: Ten runners took part in the race.

5 WHAT SB DID [C,U] what someone did in an activity, especially one that was shared by several people: We'd like to thank Walter for his part in organizing the concert. | It was a huge mistake on her part (=that she made).

6 IN A PLAY/MOVIE [C] the words and actions of a particular character in a play, movie, etc., performed by an actor: Kessler played/had the part of Hamlet.

7 QUANTITY [C] used to say how much of each particular substance there is or should be in a mixture containing two or more substances: Mix two parts sand to one part cement.

8 HAIR [C] the line on your head made by dividing your hair with a comb

9 for the most part also in large part mostly, in most places, or most of the time: She is, for the most part, a fair person.

10 in part (formal) to some degree, but not completely: The accident was due in part to the bad weather.

part² v. 1 [I,T] to pull the two sides of something apart, or to move apart in this way, making a space in the middle: He parted the curtains and looked out into the street. 2 [I] (formal) to separate from someone, or end a relationship with him/her: Sharon and I parted on friendly terms. 3 [T] if you part your hair, you comb some of your hair in one direction and the rest in the other direction 4 part company a) to separate from someone, or end a relationship with someone: Dick parted company with Rogers after a property deal that lost money. b) to no longer agree with someone part with sth phr. v. to get rid of something although you do not want to: She couldn't bear to part with the dress.

part³ adv. part sth, part sth if something is part one thing, part another, it consists of both those things: The English test is part written, part spoken.

par-tial /'pɑːʃəl/ adj. 1 not complete: The airline released a partial list of the flight's passengers. 2 be partial to sth (formal) to like something very much: The Beals are partial to country music. 3 unfairly supporting one person or one side against another (ANT) impartial par-ti-al-i-ty /,pɑːʃi'æləti/ n. [U] unfair support of one person or group more than another par-tial-ly /'pɑːʃəli/ adv. not completely: He's only partially to blame.

par-tic-i-pant /pɑː'tɪsəpənt, pə-/ (Ac) n. [C] someone who is taking part in an activity or event: The Chinese will be participants in the negotiations. | Jesse is an active participant in class.

par-tic-i-pate /pɑː'tɪsəpeɪt, pə-/ (Ac) v. [I] to take part in an activity or event: If you'd like to participate, send us your name and address. | Thanks to everyone who participated in the festival. | It is only in a democracy that all citizens participate equally. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of participare, from particeps “taking part”] par-ti-ci-pa-tion /pɑː'tɪsə'peɪʃən, pə-/ (Ac) n. [U] the act of taking part in something: The suspect was charged with participation in an illegal organization.

par-tic-i-pa-to-ry /pɑː'tɪsəpə'tɔːri, pə-/ (Ac) adj. [usually before noun] (formal) a participatory way of organizing something, making decisions, etc. is one that involves everyone who will be affected: Participatory management involves workers as well as managers.

par-ti-cip-i-al /,pɑːtə'sɪpiəl/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS using a participle, or having the form of a participle: a participial phrase | participial structures par-ti-ci-ple /'pɑːtə,sɪpəl/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the form of a verb, usually ending in “-ing” or “-ed,” that is used in compounds to make verb tenses, or as an adjective or GERUND → PAST PARTICIPLE, PRESENT PARTICIPLE par-ti-cle /'pɑːtɪkəl/ n. [C] 1 a very small piece of something: dust particles 2 PHYSICS one of the very small pieces of matter that an atom consists of: particles such as protons and electrons 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS an adverb or PREPOSITION that combines with a verb to form a PHRASAL VERB

par-tic-u-lar¹ /pə'tɪkylə/ adj. 1 [only before noun] a particular thing or person is the one that you are talking about, and not any other: There's one particular song I've been trying to find. | Consumers can easily find out how much caffeine a particular product contains. 2 [only before noun] special or important enough to mention separately: Police say there was no particular reason why the victim was attacked. | There was nothing in the letter of particular importance. 3 very careful about choosing exactly what you like, and not easily satisfied (SYN) fussy: He's very particular about what he eats.

particular² n. in particular special or specific: Is there anything/something in particular I can help you with?

par-tic-u-lar-ly /pə'tɪkyləli, -'tɪkyləli/ adv. 1 especially: We are hoping to expand our business, particularly in China. 2 not particularly a) not very: She's not particularly pretty. b) (spoken) not very much, or not really: "Do you like cats?" "No, not particularly."

part-ing¹ /'pɑːtɪŋ/ n. [C,U] (literary) an occasion when two people leave each other: an emotional parting at the airport

parting² adj. 1 parting kiss/gift/glance etc. something that you give someone as you leave 2 parting shot a cruel or severe remark that you make just as you are leaving: As a parting shot, Ashley told him never to call her again.

par-ti-san¹ /'pɑːtəzən, -sən/ adj. POLITICS showing support for a particular political party, plan, or leader, and criticizing all others: The Democrats were accused of partisan politics in refusing to support the bill.

par-ti-san² n. [C] 1 POLITICS someone who supports a particular political party, plan, or leader: a well-known partisan of the democratic movement in China 2 HISTORY a member of an armed group that fights against an enemy that has taken control of its country: Italian partisans fought against the Nazis during World War II.

par-ti-san-ship /'pɑːtəzənʃɪp/ n. [U] POLITICS the act of showing strong support for a particular political party, plan, or leader par-ti-tion¹ /pɑː'tɪʃən, pə-/ n. 1 [C] a thin wall that separates one part of a room from another 2 [U] POLITICS the separation of a country into two or more independent countries: the conflict led to the partition of the country into three separate states.

partition² v. [T] to divide a country, room, or building into two or more parts

THESAURUS separate, divide → SEPARATE²

partition sth ↔ off phr. v. to divide part of a room from the rest, using a partition part-ly /'pɑːtli/ adv. to some degree, but not completely: The accident was partly my fault. | The company's success is partly due to a strong economy. | The forecast is for partly cloudy skies.

part-ner /'pɑːtnə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 someone with whom you do a particular activity, for example dancing, or playing a game against two other people: my tennis partner 2 one of the owners of a business: She's a partner in a law firm. 3 one of two people who are married, or who live together and have a sexual relationship: Discuss your worries with your partner. | In some cultures, parents choose the marriage partner for their daughter.

[ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Anglo-French parcener "heir sharing half," from Old French parçon "share;" influenced by part]

part-ner-ship /'pɑːtnəʃɪp/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] the state of being a partner, especially in business: We've been in partnership with them for five years. | One big advantage of partnership is the ability to share decision-making and risk-taking. 2 [C] a relationship in which two or more people, organizations, etc. work together to achieve something: a partnership between the college and the local business community | Leaders of the two countries worked in close partnership throughout the 20th century. 3 [C] ECONOMICS a business owned by two or more partners: There is always some compromise involved in operating any business partnership.

part of 'speech n. (plural parts of speech) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, any of the types into which words are divided according to their use, such as noun, verb, or adjective par-tridge /'pɑːtrɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] a fat brown bird with a short tail, that some people shoot as a sport or for food part-time adj., adv. someone who has a part-time job works for only part of each day or week → FULL-TIME: I worked part-time at a bookstore when I was in college. | a part-time job part-way /,pɑːt'weɪ/ adv. after part of a distance has been traveled, or after part of a period of time has passed: Dave arrived partway through the lecture.

par-ty¹ /'pɑːti/ n. (plural parties) [C] 1 an occasion when people meet together to enjoy themselves by eating, drinking, dancing, etc.: We're having/giving/throwing a party on Saturday. | a birthday party | a surprise party

THESAURUS

get-together – a small informal party bash (informal) – a party dinner party – a party where people are invited to someone's house for an evening meal birthday party – a party to celebrate someone's birthday, especially a child's house-warming party – a party that you have when you move into a new house cocktail party – a party that people go to in order to talk and drink together for a few hours bachelor party – a social event that is just for men, which happens before a wedding baby/wedding/bridal shower – an event at which people give presents to a woman who is going to have a baby or get married reception – a large formal party, for example after a wedding celebration – a party that is organized in order to celebrate something

2 an organization of people with the same political aims, that you can vote for in elections: the Democratic Party 3 a group of people that has been organized in order to do something: A search party was formed to find the missing girl. | Foster; party of six, your table is ready. 4 (formal) one of the people or groups involved in an argument, agreement, etc., especially a legal one: The two parties will meet to discuss a settlement. 5 party animal (informal) someone who enjoys parties a lot [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French partie “part, party,” from partir “to divide”] party² v. (partied, parties) [I] (informal) to enjoy yourself, especially by drinking alcohol, eating, dancing, etc.: We were out partying until 4 a.m.

pas-cal /pæ'skæl/ n. [C] PHYSICS (written abbreviation Pa) a unit of pressure which is equal to a force of one NEWTON in a square meter (=square area measuring one meter high by one meter wide)

P

pass¹ /pæs/ v.

1 GO PAST [I,T] also pass by to move to a particular point, object, person, etc. and go past him, her, or it: Angie waved at me as she passed. | A car passed us doing at least 90 miles an hour. | I pass by her house every day.

USAGE

Passed is the past tense and past participle of the verb pass: We've just passed Tim's house.

Past is an adjective or noun that is used to talk about a period of time before now: The past year has been very difficult. | things that happened in the past

Past is also an adverb and a preposition used in order to describe something's movement or position in relation to other things: She drove past us on her way to work. | The hotel is just past the church.

2 MOVE IN A DIRECTION [I] to move from one place to another, following a particular direction: We passed through Texas on our way to Mexico. | A plane passed over the fields.

3 GO THROUGH/ACROSS ETC. [I,T] to go across, through, around, etc. something else, or to make something do this: The road passes through some pretty little towns. | She was just passing through (=traveling through a place) on her way to Miami. | Pass the rope around the tree.

4 GIVE [T] to take something and put it in someone's hand (SYN hand): Please pass the salt. | Can you pass me a napkin?

5 SPORTS [I,T] to kick, throw, or hit a ball or other object to another member of your team: My dad taught me how to pass a football.

THESAURUS

throw, toss, chuck, hurl, fling

→ THROW¹

6 TIME a) [I] if time passes, it goes by: A year passed before I learned the truth. b) [T] to spend time in a particular way: I cleaned my apartment to pass the time.

7 TEST/CLASS a) [I,T] to succeed in a test or class (ANT fail): You'll never pass if you don't start studying. | He's worried he won't pass history. b) [T] to officially decide that someone has passed a test (ANT fail): Do you think Mrs. Cox will pass us?

8 LAW/DECISION [T] to officially accept a law or proposal, especially by voting: The motion was passed, 15 votes to 3.

THESAURUS

approve, ratify, sanction, endorse → APPROVE

9 let sth pass to deliberately not say something when someone says or does something that you do not like: Carla made some comment about my work, but I decided to let it pass.

10 END [I] to stop existing or happening (SYN end): The storm soon passed. | Ann will be upset for a while, but it'll pass.

11 pass judgment (on sb) to say whether you think someone or something is right or wrong: I'm only here to listen, not to pass judgment.

12 DON'T KNOW THE ANSWER [I] (spoken) to say that you do not know the answer to a question: I had to pass on the last question.

pass sth ↔ around phr. v.

to give something to one person in a group, who then gives it to another person, etc.: Pass these papers around, will you?

pass away phr. v.

to die – used in order to avoid saying this directly pass sb by phr. v.

if something passes you by, it happens, but you are not involved in it: Robin felt that life was passing her by.

pass sth ↔ down phr. v.

to give or teach something to people who are younger than you or who live after you: These traditions have been passed down from one generation to the next.

pass for sb/sth phr. v.

to seem very similar to someone or something else, so that people might not realize what or who they are looking at: With her hair cut like that, she could pass for a boy.

pass sb/sth off as sth phr. v.

to try to make people think that someone or something is something that he, she, or it is not: He tried to pass himself off as a police officer.

pass sth ↔ on phr. v.

to tell someone a piece of information that someone else has told you: She said she'd pass the message on to Ms. Chen.

2 to give something to someone else: Take one and pass the rest on to the next person.

pass out phr. v.

1 to become unconscious

2 pass sth ↔ out to give something to each one of a group of people: Please pass out the dictionaries to the class.

THESAURUS give out, hand out, share, distribute → GIVE¹ pass sb ↔ over phr. v.

if you pass over someone for a job, you give the job to someone else who is younger or lower in the organization than s/he is pass sth ↔ up phr. v.

pass up a chance/opportunity/offer etc. to not use a chance to do something: I couldn't pass up an opportunity to meet the president.

pass² n. [C] 1 the act of kicking, throwing, or hitting a ball or other object to another member of your team during a game: a 30-yard pass 2 an official document that proves you are allowed to enter a building or travel on something without paying: a bus pass | a museum pass 3 a road or path that goes between mountains to the other side: a narrow mountain pass 4 make a pass at sb (informal) to try to kiss or touch another person with the intention of having sex with him/her pass-a-ble /ˈpæsəbəl/ adj. 1 (formal) good enough to be acceptable, but not very good: Al speaks passable Spanish.

THESAURUS satisfactory, good enough, acceptable, all right/okay, reasonable, respectable, adequate → SATISFACTORY

2 a road or river that is passable is not blocked, so you can travel along or across it (ANT) impassable pas-sage /ˈpæsɪdʒ/ n. 1 [C] also pas-sage-way /ˈpæsɪdʒ,weɪ/ a narrow area with walls on each side that connects one room or place to another: a dark passage at the back of the building 2 [C] a short part of a book, poem, speech, piece of music, etc.: a passage from the Bible 3 [U] the process of having a new law accepted by Congress or a similar organization: Supporters say that passage of the bill will reduce crime. 4 [U] (formal) the action of going across, over, or along something: The bridge isn't strong enough to allow the passage of heavy vehicles. 5 [C] a tube in your body that air or liquid can pass through: nasal passages 6 the passage of time the passing of time: Her condition improved with the passage of time.

pass-book /ˈpæsbʊk/ n. [C] a book for keeping a record of the money you put into and take out of your bank account pas-sé /pæˈseɪ/ adj. no longer modern or fashionable: a writing style that has become passé

pas-sen-ger /ˈpæsəndʒə/ n. [C] someone who is traveling in a car, AIRPLANE, boat, etc., but is not driving it: There were only a few other passengers. |

Police found a gun under the car's passenger seat (=the seat next to the driver).

pass-er-by /ˌpæsəˈbaɪ/ n. (plural passersby) [C] someone who is walking past a place by chance: Several passersby saw the accident.

pass-ing¹ /ˈpæsn̩/ adj. 1 going past: A passing motorist gave her a ride. 2 continuing or lasting for only a short time: He gave the report only a passing glance. | It's just a passing fad.

passing² n. 1 in passing if you say something in passing, you mention it while you are mainly talking about something else: The actress mentioned in passing that she had once worked in a factory. 2 [U] (formal) someone's death – used in order to avoid saying this directly pas-sion /ˈpæʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] a very strongly felt emotion, especially of love, hatred, or anger: He spoke with passion about the situation in his country. | her passion for two men 2 [C] a strong liking for something: a passion for golf

pas-sion-ate /ˈpæʃənɪt/ adj. showing passion, or full of passion: a passionate kiss | a passionate speech —passionately adv.

THESAURUS enthusiastic, eager, ardent, zealous → ENTHUSIASTIC pas-sive¹ /ˈpæsv/ (Ac) adj. 1 tending to accept situations or things that other people do, without attempting to change or fight against them: "I'm a very passive person," she admitted. 2 not actively involved in something that is happening: Children tend to learn more in an active situation, rather than a passive one. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin passivus, from pati “to suffer”] —passively adv. —passivity /ˈpæˈsɪvəti/ n. [U] passive² n. the passive (voice) ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, in the passive voice, the action of the verb has an effect on the subject of the sentence. It is shown in English by the verb “be” followed by a past participle. In the sentence “Oranges are grown in California,” the verb is in the passive voice. → ACTIVE: Change the verbs in the following sentences into the passive.

passive 'smoking n. [U] the act of breathing in smoke from someone else's cigarette, pipe, etc., although you do not want to Pass-o-ver /ˈpæs,ʊvə/ n. an important Jewish holiday in the spring, when people remember the escape of the Jews from Egypt [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Translation of Hebrew pesah “to pass without affecting;” because, according to the Bible, God did not kill Jewish children when he killed children of other races] pass-port /ˈpæspɔrt/ n. [C] a small official document given by a government to a citizen, which proves who that person is and allows them to leave the country and enter other countries

COLLOCATIONS

A passport holder is the person who a passport belongs to.

If you travel to a foreign country, you must show your passport at immigration (=the place in an airport, at a border, etc. where officials check your documents) when you enter the country and may have/get your passport stamped. A valid passport is officially acceptable. A passport that has expired is too old to be acceptable.

P

pass·word /ˈpæs.wɜːd/ n. [C] 1 a secret group of letters or numbers that you must type into a computer before you can use a system or program: Enter your username and password. | I've forgotten my password. 2 a secret word or phrase that you must use before being allowed to enter a place that is guarded

past¹ /pæst/ adj. 1 [only before noun] having happened, existed, or been experienced before now: He knew from past experience not to argue. | Our current problems are the result of past mistakes. 2 [only before noun] a little earlier than the present, or up until now: Tim's been out of town for the past week. | the past six months 3 finished or having come to an end: The time for discussion is past. 4 [only before noun] achieving something in the past, or holding an important position in the past [SYN] former: She's a past president of the club.

past² prep. 1 farther than: My house is just past the bridge. 2 up to and beyond: She walked right past me without saying hello. | We drove past Al's old house. 3 after a particular time: It's ten past nine (=ten minutes after nine o'clock). | It was way past midnight when the party ended. 4 I wouldn't put it past sb (to do sth) (spoken) used in order to say that you would not be surprised if someone did something bad or unusual because it is typical of him/her: I wouldn't put it past Mark to lie to his wife.

past³ n. 1 the past the time that existed before now, and the things that happened during that time: People travel more now than they did in the past. | We should ignore the past and concentrate on the future. 2 [singular] all the things that have happened to you in the time before now: I'd like to forget my past and start all over.

past⁴ adv. 1 up to and beyond a particular place: Hal and his friends drove past at top speed. 2 go past if a period of time goes past, it passes: Several weeks went past without any news from home.

pas·ta /ˈpɑːstə/ n. [U] an Italian food made from flour, water, and sometimes eggs, and cut into various shapes, usually eaten with a sauce paste¹ /peɪst/ n. 1 [U] a type of thick glue that is used for sticking paper onto things 2 [C,U] a soft thick mixture that can be easily shaped or spread: Mix the water and the powder into a smooth paste. | tomato paste

paste² v. 1 [I,T] IT to make words that you have removed or copied appear in a new place on a computer screen → COPY, CUT 2 [T] to stick something to something else using paste pas·tel /pæˈstɛl/ n. 1 [C] a soft pale color, such as pale blue or pink

THESAURUS light, pale → LIGHT²

2 [C,U] a small colored stick used for drawing pictures, made of a substance like CHALK —pastel adj.: soft pastel colors pas·teur·ize /ˈpæstʃəˌraɪz, -stəˌraɪz/ v. [T] to heat a liquid, especially milk, in a special way that kills any harmful BACTERIA in it —pasteurization /ˌpæstʃərəˈzeɪʃən/ n. [U] pas·tiche /pæˈstɪʃ/ n. 1 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a work of art that consists of a variety of different styles put together: The novel is a pastiche of diary entries, letters, and interviews. 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a piece of writing or music, or a film, etc. that is deliberately made in the style of another artist 3 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the style or practice of making a pastiche pas·time /ˈpæs.taɪm/ n. [C] something enjoyable that you do when you are not working: His pastimes include watching TV and reading. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Translation of French passe-temps “pass time”] pas·tor /ˈpæstər/ n. [C] a minister in some Protestant churches [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French pastour, from Latin pastor “someone who takes care of sheep”] pas·tor·al /ˈpæstərəl/ adj. 1 SOCIAL SCIENCE relating to the duties of a priest, minister, etc. toward the members of his/her religious group: Father Murphy made pastoral visits to all the older members of his congregation. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS typical of the simple peaceful life in the country: a pastoral scene depicting (=showing) a group of peasants working the fields past 'participle n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a PARTICIPLE that is usually formed by adding “-ed” to a verb, but that can be IRREGULAR. It can be used in compounds to make PERFECT tenses, or as an adjective. In the sentence “Look what you have done,” “done” is a past participle.

past 'perfect n. the past perfect ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the tense of a verb that shows that an action was completed before another event or time in the past. In the sentence “I had finished my breakfast before Rick called,” “had finished” is in the past perfect.

pas·tra·mi /pæˈstrɑːmi/ n. [U] smoked BEEF that contains a lot of spices and is usually eaten in sandwiches pas·try /ˈpeɪstri/ n. (plural pastries) 1 [U] a mixture of flour, fat, and milk or water, used for making the outer part of baked foods such as PIES → CRUST, DOUGH 2 [C] a small sweet cake past 'tense n. the past tense ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the tense of a verb that shows that an action or state began and ended in the past. In the sentence “We walked to school yesterday,” “walked” is in the past tense.

pas-ture /'pæstʃə/ n. [C,U] land that is covered with grass and is used for cattle, sheep, etc. to eat past-y /'peɪsti/ adj. looking very pale and unhealthy: a pasty face pat¹ /pæt/ v. (patted, patting) 1 [T] to touch someone or something lightly again and again, with your hand flat: He knelt down to pat the dog.

THESAURUS touch, feel, stroke, rub, scratch, pet, caress → TOUCH¹

2 pat sb/yourself on the back (informal) to praise someone or yourself for doing something well pat² n. [C] 1 an act of touching someone or something with your hand flat, especially in a friendly way: She gave the little boy a pat on the head. 2 a pat on the back (informal) praise for something that you have done well: Alex deserves a pat on the back for all his hard work. 3 a pat of butter a small flat piece of butter pat³ adv. have sth down pat to know something thoroughly so that you can say it, perform it, etc. without thinking about it patch¹ /pætʃ/ n. [C] 1 a small piece of material used for covering a hole in something, especially clothes: There were patches on the elbows of his jacket. 2 a part of an area that is different or looks different from the parts that surround it: We finally found a patch of grass to sit down on. 3 a small area of ground for growing fruit or vegetables: a cabbage patch

patch² also patch up v. [T] to put a small piece of material over a hole, especially in a piece of clothing patch sth ↔ up phr. v. 1 to end an argument and become friendly with someone: I've patched things up with my girlfriend. 2 to fix something quickly but not carefully: We patched up his wound until we could get him to a hospital.

patch-work /'pætʃwɜ:k/ n. [U] a type of sewing in which many different-colored pieces of cloth are sewn together to make one large piece: a patchwork quilt patch-y /'pætʃi/ adj. 1 happening or existing in some areas but not in others: patchy fog 2 not complete enough to be useful: My knowledge of biology is pretty patchy.

pâ-té /pə'teɪ, pæ-/ n. [U] a thick smooth food made from meat or fish, that you spread on bread pa-tel-la /pə'telə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY your KNEECAP pa-tent¹ /'pætɪnt/ n. [C] ECONOMICS a special document that gives you the right to make or sell a new invention or product that no one else is allowed to copy for a set period of time: The designers took out a patent on the machine.

patent² v. [T] to obtain a patent for a new invention or product: He developed and patented a device that is still used around the world in steel production.

patent³ adj. (formal) clear and easy to notice (SYN) obvious: a patent lie patent 'leather n. [U] thin shiny leather that is usually black pa-tent-ly /'pætɪntli/ adv. (formal) patently obvious/false/unfair etc. completely clear, untrue, unfair, etc., in a way that anyone can notice: patently offensive language pa-ter-nal /pə'tɜ:nəl/ adj. 1 typical of the way a father feels or acts → MATERNAL 2 paternal grandmother/uncle etc. your father's mother, brother, etc. → MATERNAL [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin paternus “of a father,” from pater “father”] —paternally adv.

pa-ter-nal-ism /pə'tɜ:nəlɪzəm/ n. [U] (disapproving) the practice of making decisions for people or organizations, so that they are never able to be responsible themselves —paternalistic /pə'tɜ:nəlɪstɪk/ adj.

pa-ter-ni-ty /pə'tɜ:nəti/ n. [U] LAW the state of being a father → MATERNITY path /pæθ/ n. (plural paths /pæðz, pæθs/) [C] 1 a track that people walk along over an area of ground: a path through the woods | I followed the path until I came to the river. 2 a way through something, made by opening a space to allow you to move forward: The police cleared a path through the crowd. | There was a truck blocking our path. 3 the direction or line along which someone or something moves: The storm destroyed everything in its path. [ORIGIN: Old English þæth] pa-thet-ic /pə'tetɪk/ adj. very bad, useless, or weak: Vicky made a pathetic attempt to apologize. —pathetically adv.

path-o-gen /'pæθədʒən/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a living thing, such as a VIRUS, that can cause disease path-o-log-i-cal /pæθə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. 1 pathological behavior or feelings are unreasonable and impossible to control: a pathological liar 2 a mental or physical condition that is pathological is caused by disease: a pathological condition

pa-thol-o-gy /pə'thɒlədʒi, pæ-/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the study of the causes and effects of diseases —pathologist n. [C] pa-thos /'peɪθəs, -θas, 'pæ-/ n. [U] (literary) the quality that a person or a situation has that makes you feel pity and sadness: The pathos of the play is reminiscent of Shakespeare or Chekhov.

path-way /'pæθweɪ/ n. [C] a path pa-tience /'peɪʃəns/ n. [U] the ability to wait calmly for a long time, or deal with difficulties without becoming annoyed or anxious (ANT) impatience: Finally, I lost my patience with him and started shouting. | The kids are beginning to try my patience (=make me stop being patient). | She has no patience for people who make excuses.

pa-tient¹ /'peɪʃənt/ n. [C] someone who is getting medical treatment: cancer patients | Dr. Ross is very popular with his patients.

patient² adj. able to wait calmly for a long time or to deal with difficulties without becoming annoyed or anxious (ANT) impatient: Be patient – I'll be off the phone in a minute. | Wendy is very patient with her students. —patiently adv.: Simpson waited patiently for his chance.

pat-i-o /'pæti,ou/ n. (plural patios) [C] a flat hard area next to a house, where people can sit outside: Sylvia was sitting out on the patio. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Spanish]

P pa-tri-arch /'peɪtri,ɑrk/ n. [C] (formal) a man who is respected as the head of a family or tribe → MATRIARCH pa-tri-arch-al /,peɪtri'ɑrkəl/ adj. (formal) 1 ruled or controlled only by men: a patriarchal society 2 relating to being a patriarch, or typical of a patriarch pa-tri-arch-y /'peɪtri,ɑrki/ n. [U] a social system in which men hold all the power → MATRIARCHY pa-tri-cian¹ /pə'triʃən/ n. [C] 1 someone who is from the highest class in society (SYN) aristocrat 2 HISTORY someone belonging to the high class of people who governed in ancient Rome → PLEBEIAN patrician² adj. 1 having the appearance, behavior, way of speaking, etc. that is typical of people from the highest social class (SYN) aristocratic: his patrician background 2 HISTORY belonging to the high class of people who governed in ancient Rome → PLEBEIAN pat-ri-lin-e-al /,pætrə'liːniəl/ adj. SOCIAL SCIENCE a patrilineal society is one in which connections between the fathers and sons are regarded as the most important → MATRILINEAL pa-tri-ot /'peɪtriət/ n. [C] (approving) someone who loves his/her country and is willing to defend it

pa-tri-ot-ic /,peɪtri'ɑtɪk/ adj. (approving) having or expressing a great love of your country: a patriotic citizen | patriotic songs —patriotism /'peɪtriətɪzəm/ n. [U] pat-rol¹ /pə'trəʊl/ v. (patrolled, patrolling) [I,T] to regularly check an area in order to prevent problems or crime: Two tanks patrolled the city center.

patrol² n. 1 [C,U] the action of regularly checking different parts of an area to prevent problems or crime: Guards were on patrol throughout the night. 2 [C] a group of police, soldiers, AIRPLANES, etc. that patrol a particular area: the California Highway Patrol pa'trol car n. [C] a police car that drives around the streets of a city pa-trol-man /pə'trəʊlmən/ n. (plural patrolmen /-mən/) [C] a police officer who patrols a particular area pa-tron /'peɪtrən/ n. [C] 1 someone who supports an organization, artist, musical performer, etc., especially by giving money: a patron of the arts 2 (formal) someone who uses a particular store, restaurant, company, etc. (SYN) customer

THESAURUS customer, client, shopper → CUSTOMER

pa-tron-age /'peɪtrənɪdʒ, 'pæ-/ n. [U] 1 (formal) the support that you give a particular store, restaurant, company, etc. by buying their goods or using their services: Thank you for your patronage. 2 the support that a patron gives to an organization, etc. 3 SOCIAL SCIENCE a system in which a powerful person gives money or important jobs to people who support him/her pa-tron-ize /'peɪtrənaɪz, 'pæ-/ v. [T] 1 (disapproving) to talk to someone in a way that seems friendly but shows that you think s/he is less important or intelligent than you: Don't patronize me. | Some of his employees believed that he patronized women. 2 (formal) to regularly use a particular store, restaurant, company, etc.

pa-tron-iz-ing /'peɪtrənaɪzɪŋ, 'pæ-/ adj. (disapproving) talking to someone or treating someone as if you think s/he is less important or intelligent than you: a patronizing attitude pat-ter /'pætə/ n. 1 [singular] the sound of something lightly hitting a hard surface again and again: the patter of footsteps 2 [singular, U] very fast and continuous talk: a car salesman's patter —patter v. [I]

pat-tern /'pætən/ n. [C] 1 the regular way in which something happens, develops, or is done: patterns of behavior | Romantic novels tend to follow a similar pattern. 2 a regularly repeated arrangement of shapes, colors, lines, etc.: a pattern of red and white squares | a dress with a rose pattern

THESAURUS

design – a pattern used for decorating something: curtains with a floral design markings – the colored patterns and shapes on an animal's fur, feathers, or skin: the tiger's black and orange markings motif – a pattern that is regularly repeated: a light blue wallpaper with a rose motif

3 a shape that you copy onto cloth, paper, etc. when making something, especially clothing: a skirt pattern pat-terned /'pætənd/ adj. decorated with a pattern: a gold and black patterned tie pat-ty /'pæti/ n. (plural patties) [C] a round flat piece of cooked meat or other food: beef patties pau-ci-ty /'pɔːsəti/ n. a/the paucity of sth (formal) less than is needed of something: a paucity of evidence paunch /pɒntʃ, pɑntʃ/ n. [C] a man's fat stomach —paunchy adj.

pau·per /ˈpəpə/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) someone who is very poor

pause¹ /pəʊz/ v. 1 [I] to stop speaking or doing something for a short time before starting again: Tom paused for a moment, and then asked, “So what should I do?” | Amanda paused to admire the view.

THESAURUS stop, have/take a break, break → STOP¹

2 [I,T] to push a button on a CD PLAYER, TAPE RECORDER, computer, etc. in order to make a CD, tape, etc. stop playing for a short time [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin pausa, from Greek pausis, from pauein “to stop”]

pause² n. [C] a short time when you stop speaking or doing something: a pause in the conversation | After a long pause, Rick said, “You’re right.”

pave /peɪv/ v. [T] 1 to cover a path, road, etc. with a hard level surface such as CONCRETE 2 pave the way to do something that will make an event, development, etc. possible in the future: Galileo’s achievements paved the way for Newton’s scientific laws.

pave·ment /ˈpeɪvmənt/ n. [U] the hard surface of a road: As she fell off the bike, her arm hit the pavement.

pa·vil·ion /pəˈvɪljən/ n. [C] a structure built in a park or at a FAIR, and used as a place for public entertainment, EXHIBITIONS, etc.

‘paving stone n. [C] one of the flat pieces of stone used to make a hard surface to walk on paw¹ /pəʊ/ n. [C] an animal’s foot that has nails or CLAWS: a lion’s paw → see picture on page A2

paw² v. [I,T] 1 if an animal paws something, it touches the thing with its paw: The dog’s pawing at the door again. 2 (informal) to touch someone in a way that is too rough or too sexual: He kept trying to paw me in the car.

pawn¹ /pɔːn/ n. [C] 1 one of the eight smallest and least valuable pieces in the game of CHESS 2 someone who is used by a more powerful person or group: We’re just pawns in a big political game.

pawn² v. [T] to leave a valuable object with a pawnbroker in order to borrow money pawn·bro·ker /ˈpɔːn,broʊkə/ n. [C] someone whose business is to lend people money in exchange for valuable objects pay¹ /peɪ/ v. (past tense and past participle paid, third person singular pays)

1 GIVE MONEY [I,T] to give someone money for something in order to buy it, or for something s/he has done for you: They ran off without paying. | Have you paid the babysitter yet? | The company’s paying for my plane tickets. | The government agreed to pay them for their land in the east. | How much did you pay for those shoes? | You can pay by check.

2 BILL/DEBT [T] to give a person, company, etc. the money that you owe for a bill or debt: We need to pay the electricity bill soon.

3 JOB [I,T] to give someone money for the job s/he does: How much do they pay you? | Plumbers get paid $40 an hour. | workers who are well/highly/poorly paid

4 pay attention (to sb/sth) to carefully listen to or watch someone or something, or to be careful about what you are doing: Sorry, I wasn’t paying attention. What did you say?

5 pay a visit to sb also pay sb a visit to go to see a particular person: It’s about time you paid a visit to the dentist.

6 pay sb a compliment to say nice things about someone’s appearance, behavior, etc.

7 pay your way to pay for your bills, food, etc. without needing to use anyone else’s money: She paid her own way through law school.

8 GOOD RESULT [I] to be worth doing, and result in an advantage for you: Crime doesn’t pay. | It pays to be on time.

9 PROFIT [I] ECONOMICS if a shop or business pays, it makes a profit: We worked hard but couldn’t make the business pay.

10 pay tribute to sb/sth to show how much you admire or respect someone or something

11 pay your respects (to sb) (formal) to greet someone politely or visit a place, especially in order to say or show that you are sorry that someone has died: Sam came over to pay his respects to the family.

12 pay your dues to work at the lowest levels of a profession or organization in order to earn the right to move up to a better position

13 pay through the nose (for sth) (informal) to pay far too much money for something → pay/give lip service at LIP pay sb/sth ↔ back phr. v.

to give someone the money that you owe him/her (SYN) repay: Can I borrow $10? I’ll pay you back tomorrow.

pay for sth phr. v.

to suffer or be punished for doing something: If you drink any more, you’ll be paying for it in the morning.

pay sth ↔ in also pay sth into sth phr. v.

to put money into a bank account: The check was paid into your account on Friday. | How much do you pay in each month?

pay off phr. v.

1 pay sth ↔ off to pay all the money that you owe for something: We’ve finally paid off the mortgage.

2 if something that you try to do pays off, it is successful after a long time: My efforts finally paid off when they called me in for an interview.

3 pay sb ↔ off to give someone money so that s/he will not tell people about something illegal or dishonest pay sth ↔ out phr. v.

to pay a lot of money for something: Last year, $123 million was paid out in health benefits.

pay up phr. v.

(informal) to pay all the money that you owe pay² n. [U] money that you are given for working

(SYN) salary: The pay will be better at my new job. | Workers say they haven't had a pay raise/increase in two years. | Teachers have refused to accept a pay cut.

COLLOCATIONS

base pay – the pay that you always receive, without payment for any extra hours overtime pay – payment for extra hours that you work take-home pay – the money you receive after tax, etc. has been taken away vacation pay – payment for the time when you are on vacation sick pay – payment for the times when you are sick and not at work → MONEY, PENSION

THESAURUS

income – money that you receive from working, investments, etc.: families on a low income salary – the pay that professional people such as teachers or lawyers earn every year: a salary of $34,000 a year wages – the pay that someone earns every hour or every week: Her wages barely cover the rent.
earnings – all the money that you earn by working: Record your earnings on the income tax form.
bonus – money added to someone's pay, especially as a reward for good work: The company offers performance bonuses to every employee.
remuneration (formal) – the pay that someone receives for his or her work: The work was hard and the remuneration was low.

pay-a-ble /'peɪəbəl/ adj. 1 a bill, debt, etc. that is payable must be paid: A standard fee of $35 is payable every three months. 2 payable to sb able to be paid to a particular person or organization: Please make the check payable to Al's Service Station (=write this name on the check).

pay-check /'peɪtʃek/ n. [C] a check that pays a worker his/her salary: a weekly paycheck pay-day /'peɪdeɪ/ n. [C usually singular] the day when you get your paycheck

'pay dirt n. hit/strike pay dirt (informal) to make a valuable or useful discovery: Crash investigators struck pay dirt when they found the aircraft's flight recorder.

pay-ee /'peɪi/ n. [C] ECONOMICS the person who should be paid money, especially by check pay-load /'peɪləʊd/ n. [C,U] the amount of goods or passengers carried by a vehicle or aircraft pay-ment /'peɪmənt/ n. 1 [C] an amount of money that must be paid or has been paid: How much are your car/house/loan payments? | He couldn't afford to make the payments on his house. | She agreed to repay the loan in monthly payments of $200. 2 [U] the act of paying: Late payment will result in a $10 fine.

pay-off /'peɪɔf/ n. [C] 1 the good result or the advantage that you get because of doing something: With electric cars, the development costs are high, but there is a big environmental payoff. 2 a payment that is made to someone, often illegally, in order to stop him/her from causing you trouble

'pay phone n. [C] a public telephone that you can use when you put in coins or a CREDIT CARD number pay-roll /'peɪrəʊl/ n. [C usually singular] 1 the people who are employed by a company: We have 127 staff on the payroll. 2 ECONOMICS the total amount of money that a company pays the people who work there

PBS n. Public Broadcasting System a company in the U.S. that broadcasts television programs without advertisements

PC¹ n. [C] IT personal computer a small computer that is used by one person at a time, at work or at home → see picture on page A6

PC² adj. POLITICALLY CORRECT

pdf, PDF /,pi di 'ef/ n. [C] IT portable document format a type of computer FILE that can be opened on most personal computers, even those that do not have the same software program that was used to produce the file

PE n. [U] physical education sports and exercises that are taught as a school subject pea /pi/ n. [C] a small round green seed that is cooked and eaten as a vegetable peace /pis/ n. 1 [singular,U] a situation or period of time in which there is no war or fighting: The country's nuclear program is a threat to world peace. | Germany has been at peace with France since 1945. | My hope is that one day our countries can live in peace. | The prime minister promised to bring peace to the region. 2 [U] a situation that is very calm, quiet, and pleasant: All I want is some peace and quiet. | Mary, let your sister read in peace (=without being interrupted). 3 [U] a feeling of being calm, happy, and not worried: I decided to see a doctor; just for peace of mind. 4 disturbing the peace LAW the crime of being too noisy or too violent in a public place 5 make (your) peace to agree to stop fighting with a person or group: He was anxious to make peace with Jill before she left. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French pais, from Latin pax]

peace-a-ble /'pi:əbəl/ adj. not liking to argue, or not causing any arguments or fights: peaceable subjects who paid their taxes and posed no threat to public order —peaceably adv.

'Peace Corps n. the Peace Corps a U.S. government organization that helps poorer countries by sending VOLUNTEERS to teach skills in education, health, farming, etc.

peace-ful /'pi:sfəl/ adj. 1 calm, quiet, and without problems or excitement: It's peaceful out here in the woods.

THESAURUS quiet, calm, tranquil, still → QUIET¹

2 not fighting a war, or deliberately not being violent: a peaceful relationship between countries | a peaceful protest —peacefully adv.

peace-keep-ing /'pis,kiptɪŋ/ adj. trying to prevent fighting or violence: peacekeeping troops —peacekeeper n. [C] peace-mak-er /'pis,mekə/ n. [C] someone who tries to persuade people or countries to stop fighting peace-time /'pis-taɪm/ n. [U] a period of time when a country is not fighting a war (ANT) wartime peach /pitʃ/ n. 1 [C] a round juicy yellow-red fruit that has a large rough seed and skin that feels FUZZY, or the tree that it grows on → see picture on page 414 2 [U] a pale pink-orange color [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French peche from Latin persicus “Persian”] pea-cock /'pikək/ n. [C] a large bird, the male of which has long blue and green tail feathers that it can spread out peak¹ /pik/ n. [C] 1 the time when someone or something is biggest, most successful, or best: Trenton is now at the peak of his career. | The company's profits reached a peak in 1992. 2 the pointed top of a mountain, or a mountain with a pointed top: the Alps' snow-covered peaks → see picture on page A11

peak² v. [I] to become the biggest, most successful, or best that someone or something can be: In the 1950s, Chicago's population peaked at around 3.6 million.

peal /pil/ n. [C] (literary) a sudden loud repeated sound, such as laughter, THUNDER, or bells ringing: I could hear peals of laughter coming from upstairs. —peal v. [I] pea-nut /'pinʌt/ n. 1 [C] a small nut you can eat that has a soft light brown shell 2 peanuts [plural] (informal) a very small amount of money: I'm tired of working for peanuts.

'peanut butter n. [U] a soft food made from crushed peanuts, usually eaten on bread: a peanut butter and jelly sandwich pear /per/ n. [C] a sweet juicy fruit with a round wide bottom that becomes thinner on top near the stem, or the tree on which it grows → see picture at FRUIT

pearl /pɜːl/ n. [C] a valuable small white round object, that forms inside an OYSTER and is used in jewelry: a pearl necklace peas-ant /'pezənt/ n. [C] a poor farmer who owns or rents a small amount of land, either in past times or in poor countries peas-ant-ry /'pezəntri/ n. the peasantry all the peasants of a particular country: The land tax was bitterly resented by the peasantry.

peat /pit/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a substance formed under the surface of the ground from decaying plants, used as soil or as FUEL

peb-ble /'pebəl/ n. [C] a small smooth stone that is usually in a river or on a beach pe-can /pr'kən, -'kæn/ n. [C] a long thin sweet nut with a dark smooth shell, or the tree on which these nuts grow: pecan pie [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French pacane, from an Algonquian language] peck¹ /pek/ v. [I,T] if a bird pecks something or pecks at something, it quickly moves its beak to hit, bite, or pick up that thing peck² n. [C] 1 a quick kiss: He gave Jill a peck on the cheek. 2 the action of a bird pecking something with its beak pe-cu-liar /pr'kyuljə/ adj. 1 strange and a little surprising: This cheese has a peculiar smell. | Something very peculiar is going on here.

THESAURUS strange, funny, curious, odd, weird → STRANGE¹

2 be peculiar to sth to be a quality that only one particular person, place, or thing has: The problem of racism is not peculiar to this country. —peculiarly adv.

pe-cu-li-ar-i-ty /pr'kyuli'ærəti/ n. (plural peculiarities) [C,U] an unusual or slightly strange habit or quality, especially one that only a particular person, place, etc. has: the peculiarities of the newspaper business | Over time, she grew to love his peculiarities.

pe-cu-ni-ar-y /pr'kyuni,eri/ adj. (formal) relating to or consisting of money: He was accused of obtaining a pecuniary advantage by deception.

ped-a-go-gi-cal /,pedə'gɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. (formal) relating to methods of teaching —pedagogy /'pedə,gɒdʒi/ n. [U] ped-al¹ /'pedl/ n. [C] the part of a bicycle, car, or MOTORCYCLE that you push with your foot in order to make it move: the gas pedal [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French pedale, from Italian, from Latin pedalis “of the foot”] → see picture at BICYCLE

pedal² v. [I,T] to ride a bicycle by pushing the pedals with your feet pe-dan-tic /pə'dæntɪk/ adj. (disapproving) paying too much attention to small details and rules: The book is fascinating, although some readers will find it pedantic.

ped-dle /'pedl/ v. [T] to go from place to place trying to sell something, especially something illegal or cheap: Eric was caught peddling drugs. —peddler n. [C] ped-es-tal /'pedəstl/ n. [C] 1 the base on which a STATUE or a PILLAR stands 2 put/place sb on a pedestal (disapproving) to admire someone so much that you treat him/her or talk about him/her as though s/he is perfect pe-des-tri-an¹ /pə'destriən/ n. [C] someone who is walking instead of driving a car, riding a bicycle, etc. [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Latin pedester “going on foot,” from pes “foot”] pedestrian² adj. (formal) ordinary, and not very interesting or exciting: I thought the orchestra's overall performance was poor and the choice of music was fairly pedestrian.

P

pe-di-a-tri-cian /ˌpɪdiə'trɪʃən/ n. [C] a doctor who treats children → DOCTOR¹

P pe-di-at-rics /ˌpɪdi'ætrɪks/ n. [U] the area of medicine that deals with children and their illnesses

ped-i-cure /ˈpɛdɪˌkyʊr/ n. [C,U] a treatment for the feet that includes cleaning them and cutting the TOENAILS → MANICURE

ped-i-gree /ˈpɛdəˌɡri/ n. [C,U] the parents and other past family members of an animal or person, or the written record of them — pedigree adj.: a pedigree Great Dane pee /pi/ v. [I] (informal) to pass liquid waste from your body (SYN urinate — pee n. [U]) peek¹ /pɪk/ v. [I] to quickly look at something, especially something you are not supposed to see: Paula opened the box and peeked inside.

THESAURUS look, glance, peep, peer → LOOK¹

peek² n. [C] a quick look at something: Take a peek down the hall and see if anyone's coming.

peek-a-boo /ˈpɪkəˌbu/ interjection, n. [U] a game played with babies and young children, in which you hide your face and then show it again and again, saying “peekaboo!”

peel¹ /pi/ v. 1 [T] to remove the skin of a fruit or vegetable: Peel the potatoes and cut them in half.

THESAURUS cut, chop (up), slice, dice, carve, shred, grate → CUT¹

2 [T] to remove a thin outside layer from the surface of an object: Peel the labels off/from the jars before recycling. 3 [I] if skin, paper, or paint is peeling, it is loose and coming off in small thin pieces: I got sunburned and now my face is peeling.

peel sth ↔ off phr. v. to take off your clothes, especially if they are wet or tight: He peeled off his damp uniform and stepped into the shower.

peel² n. [U] the thick skin of a fruit or vegetable, such as an orange, a potato, or a BANANA: orange peel → see picture on page 414 peel-ings /ˈpiːlɪŋz/ n. [plural] pieces of skin that have been removed from a fruit or vegetable: carrot peelings peep¹ /pip/ v. [I] 1 to look at something quickly and secretly: I saw Joe peeping through the curtains.

THESAURUS look, glance, peek, peer → LOOK¹

2 to appear from behind or under something: The sun finally peeped out from behind the clouds.

peep² n. [C] 1 [usually singular] a sound: I didn't hear a peep out of the kids all afternoon. 2 [usually singular] a quick or secret look at something: Did you get/take a peep at the audience? 3 a short weak high sound that some young birds make peep-hole /ˈpɪphoʊl/ n. [C] a small hole in a door that you can look through peeping Tom /ˈpɪpɪŋ ˈtəm/ n. [C] someone who secretly watches people, especially people who are taking off their clothes

peer¹ /pɪr/ n. sb's peer someone who is the same age as another person, or who has the same type of job, rank, etc.: Barton has gained the respect of his peers.

peer² v. [I] to look very carefully, especially because you cannot see something well: Harris peered into the dark closet.

THESAURUS look, glance, peek, peer → LOOK¹

'peer group n. [C] SOCIAL SCIENCE a group of people who are the same age, are from the same social class, or have the same type of job, etc.: Peer groups and popular culture both have a strong influence on teenage children.

peer-less /ˈpɪrlɪs/ adj. (formal) better than anyone or anything else: B.B. King's peerless guitar playing

'peer pressure n. [U] the strong feeling that young people have that they should do the same things that their peers are doing: It can be difficult not to give in to peer pressure (=do something just because other people are doing it).

peeve /piv/ n. pet peeve (informal) something that always annoys you, but that may not annoy other people: One of my pet peeves is people being late for meetings.

peg¹ /peg/ n. [C] 1 a short piece of wood or metal that fits into a hole or is fastened to a wall, and can be used for fastening furniture together, for hanging things, etc.: a coat peg 2 also tent peg a pointed piece of wood or metal used for keeping a tent attached to the ground peg² v. (pegged, pegging) [T] 1 to believe or say that someone has a particular type of character: Teachers had him pegged as a trouble-maker. 2 ECONOMICS to set prices, salaries, etc. in relation to a particular value: loan payment rates that are pegged to the national rates pe-jor-a-tive /prɪ'dʒɔːrətɪv, -'dʒɔːr-/ adj. (formal) a pejorative word or phrase is used in order to insult someone or to show disapproval [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Late Latin pejoratus, past participle of pejorare “to make worse,” from pejor “worse”] pel-i-can /'pelɪkən/ n. [C] a large bird that catches fish for food and holds them in the part of its large beak that is shaped like a bag [ORIGIN: 1000—1100 Late Latin pelecanus, from Greek] pel-let /'pelɪt/ n. [C] a small hard ball made from metal, ice, paper, food, etc.

pel-lu-cid /pə'lusɪd/ adj. (literary) very clear, so that it can be seen through easily or understood easily → TRANSLUCENT: the pellucid air of the mountains pelt¹ /pelt/ v. [T] to attack someone by throwing a lot of things at him/her: Two kids were pelting each other with snowballs.

pelt² n. [C] BIOLOGY the skin of a dead animal with the fur or hair still on it pel-vis /'pelvɪs/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the set of large wide curved bones at the base of your SPINE, to which your legs are joined [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin “basin”] → see picture on page A3 —pelvic adj.

pen¹ /pen/ n. 1 [C,U] an instrument used for writing and drawing in ink: a ballpoint pen | Write your essays in pen (=using a pen), not pencil. 2 [C] a small area surrounded by a fence that farm animals are kept in → PIGPEN [ORIGIN: (1) 1200—1300 Old French penne “feather, pen,” from Latin penna “feather”]

pen² v. (penned, penned) [T] (literary) to write a letter, note, etc. with a pen → WRITE pen sb/sth in/up phr. v. to prevent a person or animal from leaving an enclosed area: The protesters were kept penned up behind the fence.

pe-nal /'pɪnəl/ adj. 1 LAW relating to the legal punishment of criminals: the penal system 2 penal offense LAW a crime

'penal code n. [C] a set of laws and the punishments for not obeying these laws

pe-nal-ize /'pɪnlaɪz, 'pɛn-/ v. [T] 1 to punish someone or treat him/her unfairly: I'm being penalized for something that isn't my fault. 2 to punish a player or sports team by giving an advantage to the other team: The Bears were penalized for taking too much time.

pen-al-ty /'pɛnlɪ/ n. (plural penalties) [C] 1 LAW a punishment for not obeying a law, rule, or legal agreement: The maximum penalty for the crime is five years in prison. | He was given the death penalty (=killed as a punishment).

THESAURUS punishment, sentence, fine, community service → PUNISHMENT

2 a disadvantage given to a player or sports team for not obeying the rules [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Medieval Latin poenalitas, from Latin poena “punishment”] pen-ance /'penəns/ n. [C,U] (literary) a punishment that you accept, especially for religious reasons, to show that you are sorry for doing a bad thing pen-chant /'pɛntʃənt/ n. [C] a liking for something that you do as a habit: Bill has a penchant for fast cars.

pen-cil¹ /'pensəl/ n. [C,U] a thing that you use for writing and drawing, made of wood containing a black or colored center: Do the math problems in pencil (=using a pencil), not pen. | a sharp pencil [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French pincel “paintbrush,” from Latin penicillus “little tail”] pencil² v. [T] to write something with a pencil or make a mark with a pencil pencil sb/sth ↔ in phr. v. to make an arrangement for a meeting or other event, knowing that it might have to be changed later: I'll pencil in a meeting for next Tuesday.

'pencil sharpener n. [C] an object with a small blade inside it, used for making the pointed end of a pencil sharp pend-ant /'pendənt/ n. [C] a jewel or small decoration that hangs from a NECKLACE: a diamond pendant pend-ing¹ /'pendɪŋ/ prep. (formal) until something happens, or while something happens: The decision has been delayed pending further research.

pending² adj. (formal) not yet decided, agreed on, or finished: Their divorce is still pending.

pen-du-lum /'pendʒələm/ n. [C] a long stick with a weight on the end of it that hangs down and swings from side to side, especially in a large clock [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Modern Latin, Latin pendulus from pendere “to hang”] pen-e-trate /'pɛnə'treɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to enter something or pass through it, especially when this is difficult: bullets that can penetrate metal | Explorers penetrated deep into unknown regions.

THESAURUS enter, go in, come in, get in, trespass, intrude → ENTER¹

2 [T] to join and be accepted by an organization, business, etc. in order to find out secret information: Spies had penetrated the highest ranks of both governments. 3 [T] to understand something difficult: scientists trying to penetrate the mysteries of nature —penetration /,pɛnə'treɪʃən/ n. [U]

pen-e-trat-ing /'pɛnə'treɪtɪŋ/ adj. 1 penetrating eyes/look/gaze etc. someone who has penetrating eyes, etc. seems able to see what another person is thinking 2 a penetrating noise or voice is so loud that you hear it very clearly 3 showing an ability to understand things quickly and completely: a penetrating mind pen-guin /'pɛŋgwɪn/ n. [C] a large black and white Antarctic sea bird that cannot fly but uses its wings for swimming pen-i-cil-lin /,pɛnə'sɪlən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a substance used as a medicine to destroy BACTERIA pe-nin-su-la /pə'nɪnsələ/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a piece of land that is almost completely surrounded by water [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin paeninsula, from paene “almost” + insula “island”] —peninsular adj.

pe-nis /'pɪnɪs/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the outer sex organ of a male pen-i-tent /'penətənt/ adj. (literary) feeling sorry about doing something bad, and showing you do not intend to do it again —penitence n. [U] pen-i-ten-tia-ry /,penə'tɛnfəri/ n. (plural penitentiaries) [C] a prison: the state penitentiary

P pen-knife /'pen-naɪf/ n. (plural penknives /-naɪvz/) [C] a POCKET KNIFE

'pen name n. [C] a name used by a writer instead of his/her real name (SYN) pseudonym pen-nant /'penənt/ n. [C] a long pointed flag used by schools, sports teams, etc., or on ships as a sign pen-ni-less /'penɪləs/ adj. having no money pen-ny /'penɪ/ n. (plural pennies) [C] 1 a coin worth one cent (=1/100 of a dollar), used in the U.S. and Canada

THESAURUS money, coin, nickel, dime, quarter → MONEY

2 not a penny no money at all: I don't owe her a penny! 3 every (last) penny all of your money: He spent every penny on his car. | The new carpet wasn't cheap, but it was worth every penny (=I am happy I bought it).

'pen pal n. [C] someone to whom you write letters in order to become his/her friend pen-sion /'penʃən/ n. [C] the money that a company pays regularly to someone after s/he RETIREs (=stops working after reaching a particular age): Howe draws a yearly pension of $15,000.

'pension fund n. [C] ECONOMICS a large amount of money that a company, organization, etc. INVESTs and uses for paying pensions

'pension plan n. [C] ECONOMICS a system organized by a company for paying pensions to its workers when they RETIRE (=stop working after reaching a particular age) pen-sive /'pensɪv/ adj. (literary) thinking about something a lot and seeming slightly sad [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French pensif, from penser “to think”]

Pen-ta-gon /'pentə,gən/ n. the Pentagon the U.S. government building in Washington, D.C. from which the army, navy, etc. are controlled, or the military officers who work in this building pentagon n. [C] MATH a flat shape with five sides and five angles [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, from Greek pentagonon, from pente “five” + gonia “angle”] —pentagonal /'pentəgənəl/ adj. → see picture at POLYGON

THESAURUS polygon, hexagon, heptagon, octagon, decagon, dodecagon → POLYGON pen-tam-e-ter /'pen'tæmətə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a line of poetry with five main beats → IAMBIC PENTAMETER pen-tath-lon /'pen'tæθlən, -lən/ n. [singular] a sports competition consisting of five different sports → DECATHLON, HEPTATHLON

Pen-te-cos-tal /,pen'tɪ'kɒstəl/ adj. relating to the Christian church whose members believe that the spirit of God can help them to cure diseases and pray in special languages —Pentecostal n. [C] pent-house /'penthaus/ n. [C] a very expensive and comfortable apartment on the top floor of a tall building pent-up adj. pent-up emotions are not expressed for a long time: pent-up anger and frustration pe-nul-ti-mate /prɪ'nʌltəmət/ adj. [only before noun] (formal) next to the last: the penultimate game of the season [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin paenultimus, from paene “almost” + ultimus “last”] pe-nu-ri-ous /pə'nʊriəs/ adj. (formal) very poor → POOR

pe-on /'piən/ n. [C] (informal) someone who works at a boring or physically hard job for low pay: the office peons

peo-ple¹ /'pi:pəl/ n. 1 [plural] the usual plural form of PERSON: I like the people I work with. | How many people were at the wedding? 2 the people [plural] all the ordinary people in a country or a state: The mayor should remember that he was elected to serve the people.

THESAURUS

the public — ordinary people, not people who work for the government or other special organizations: It's the job of the media to inform the public.

society — all the people who live in a country: responsible members of society

the human race/mankind/humankind — all the people in the world, considered as a group: the origins of the human race populace (formal) — the ordinary people living in a country: Surveys say that almost 90% of the American populace believe in God.

population — the number of people or animals living in a particular area, country, etc.: What's the population of Los Angeles? | the planet's rapid population growth

3 [plural] people in general, or people other than yourself: People sometimes make fun of my name. | Computer people seem to speak a language of their own.

THESAURUS man, mankind, humankind → MAN¹

4 of all people (spoken) used in order to say that someone is the only person who you would not have expected to do something: You of all people should have realized the risks. 5 [C] (formal) a race or nation: all the peoples of the world

THESAURUS race, nation, tribe, ethnic group → RACE¹ people² v. be peopled with/by sb (literary) to be filled with people of a particular type pep¹ /pɛp/ v. (pepped, pepping)

pep sb/sth ↔ up phr. v. (informal) to make something or someone more active, interesting, or full of energy: I had some coffee to pep myself up.

pep² n. [U] (informal) physical energy —peppy adj.

pep-per¹ /ˈpɛpər/ n. 1 [U] a spicy black, pale yellow, or red powder, used in cooking: salt and pepper 2 [C] a hollow red, green, or yellow fruit with a sweet or spicy taste, that is eaten as a vegetable or added to other foods → see picture at VEGETABLE [ORIGIN: Old English pipor, from Latin piper, from Greek peperi] pepper² v. [T] 1 to scatter things all over or all through something: The article is peppered with quotations. 2 to put pepper in food pep-per-mint /ˈpɛpərˌmɪnt/ n. 1 [U] a MINT plant with sweet-smelling strong-tasting leaves, used in making candy, tea, and medicine 2 [C] a candy that has a taste like peppermint pep-pe-ro-ni /ˌpɛpəˈroʊni/ n. [U] a spicy dry Italian SAUSAGE pep, rally n. [C] an event at a school before a sports event, when people give speeches or shout to encourage and support a team pep talk n. [C] (informal) a speech that is intended to encourage people to work harder, win a game, etc.: The coach was giving the team a pep talk.

pep-tide /ˈpɛptaid/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a compound consisting of two or more AMINO ACIDS joined together in a chain per /pər/ prep. for each: Bananas are 60 cents per pound. | You need at least half a bottle of wine per person for the party.

per ca-pi-ta /pər ˈkæpɪtə/ adj., adv. ECONOMICS calculated by dividing the total amount of something by the number of people in a particular place: The average per capita income in the area is $40,000 a year. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin “by heads”]

per, capita 'income n. [U] ECONOMICS the total amount earned by all the people living in a place divided by the number of people living there, used to show how rich or poor people are on average: The average per capita income in the area is $40,000 a year. | Rapid economic growth drove per capita income up.

per-ceive /pərˈsiːv/ [Ac] v. [T] (formal) 1 to understand or think about something in a particular way: The government was widely perceived as corrupt. | Investors will pull out if they perceive that the economy is failing. 2 to notice something that is difficult to notice: The sound is too high to be perceived by humans. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French perceivre, from Latin percipere] —perceived adj.: This proposal addresses a widely perceived need to expand health care for children.

per-cent¹ /pərˈsɛnt/ [Ac] n. five/ten etc. per-cent also 5%/10% etc. five, ten, etc. in every hundred: The interest rate at the bank is six percent (=6%, or six cents on every dollar). | Five percent of $250 is $12.50. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin from per “by” + centem “hundred”] percent² [Ac] adj., adv. 1 (symbol %) equal to a particular amount in every hundred: Figures showed there had been a 43 percent reduction in crime. 2 a/one hundred percent completely: I agree with you a hundred percent.

per-cent-age /pərˈsɛntɪdʒ/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] a particular amount out of every hundred: What percentage of the population is elderly? | A small/large percentage of students receive financial aid. 2 [C usually singular] ECONOMICS a share of profits equal to a particular amount in every dollar: He gets a percentage for every book that is sold.

per-cep-ti-ble /pərˈsɛptəbəl/ adj. (formal) noticeable [ANT] imperceptible: The sound was barely perceptible.

per-cep-tion /pərˈsɛpʃən/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] the way you understand something and your beliefs about what it is like: A child's perception of the world is not the same as an adult's. | There's a perception that Margaret is not an effective leader. | We need to challenge many popular perceptions of old age. 2 [U] the way you use your sight, hearing, feeling, taste, or smell to notice things: drugs that alter perception | One theory is that caffeine somehow counteracts the perception of pain. 3 [U] the natural ability to understand or notice something quickly: I was impressed by her perception and her grasp of the facts.

per-cep-tive /pərˈsɛptɪv/ adj. good at noticing and understanding what is happening or what someone is thinking or feeling: a perceptive young man | perceptive comments

perch¹ /pɜːtʃ/ n. 1 [C] a branch, stick, etc. where a bird sits 2 [C] (informal) a high place where someone can sit or where a building is placed: He watches from his perch halfway up the mountain. 3 [C,U] (plural perch) a fish with sharp pointed FINS that lives in rivers, lakes, etc., or the meat from this fish perch² v. 1 be perched on/over etc. sth to be in a position on top of, or on the edge of, something: a house perched on a hill 2 perch (yourself) on sth to sit on top of, or on the edge of something: Wally perched on the gate and stared at us. 3 [I] if a bird perches on something, it sits on it per-co-late /ˈpɜːkəˌleɪt/ v. [I] if a liquid percolates through something, it passes slowly through a material that has small holes in it per-co-la-tor /ˈpɜːkəˌleɪtər/ n. [C] a pot in which coffee is made by passing hot water again and again through crushed coffee beans per-cus-sion /pəˈkʌʃən/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS drums and other musical instruments which you play by hitting or shaking them — percussionist n. [C] pe-ren-ni-al /pəˈreniəl/ adj. 1 [only before noun] happening again and again, or existing for a long time: the perennial problem of poverty 2 BIOL-OGY a plant that is perennial lives for more than two years [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin perennis, from per- “through” + annus “year”] perennial² n. [C] BIOLOGY a plant that lives for more than two years per-fect¹ /pəˈfɛkt/ adj. 1 complete and without any mistakes or problems (ANT imperfect → PERFECTLY: a car in perfect condition | Your English is perfect. 2 as good as possible, or the best of its kind → PERFECTLY: John was in perfect health. | a perfect solution to the problem 3 exactly right for a particular purpose: This rug's perfect for the living room. | a perfect day for a picnic

THESAURUS

ideal – being the best that something could possibly be: It's an ideal vacation spot for families.
just right – being the best or most appropriate for something: The dress was just right for the occasion.

4 used in order to emphasize what you are saying: Why did you give your phone number to a perfect stranger? | I'm sorry, I've been a perfect fool/ idiot. 5 nobody's perfect (spoken) used when you are answering someone who has criticized you: Yes, I made a mistake – nobody's perfect. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French parfit, from Latin perfectus, past participle of perficere “to do completely, finish”]

per-fect² /pəˈfɛkt/ v. [T] to make something perfect or as good as you are able to: She's spending a year in France to perfect her French.

per-fect³ /pəˈfɛkt/ n. the perfect ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the tense of a verb used when talking about a period of time up to and including the present, formed using “have” with a PAST PARTICIPLE → FUTURE PERFECT, PAST PERFECT, PRESENT PERFECT per-fec-tion /pəˈfɛkʃən/ n. [U] 1 the state of being perfect: Claire's parents demanded perfection from her. | The steak was cooked to perfection. 2 the process of making something perfect: the perfection of his golf swing per-fec-tion-ist /pəˈfɛkʃənɪst/ n. [C] someone who is not satisfied with anything unless it is completely perfect: You look fine. Don't be such a perfectionist.

per-fect-ly /pəˈfɛktli/ adv. 1 used in order to emphasize what you are saying: It's perfectly normal to feel nervous before a performance. | They had thrown away a perfectly good stereo. 2 in a perfect way: She speaks English perfectly.

perfect 'square n. [C] MATH a number whose SQUARE ROOT is a WHOLE NUMBER (=1, 3, 6, etc.), not a FRACTION (=¼, ½, etc.). For example, 25 is a perfect square whose square root is 5.

per-fid-i-ous /pəˈfɪdiəs/ adj. (literary) disloyal and not able to be trusted: his perfidious acts — perfidy /pəˈfɪdi/ n. [U] per-fo-rat-ed /pəˈfɔːreɪtɪd/ adj. a piece of paper that is perforated has a line of small holes in it so that part of it can be torn off easily per-form /pəˈfɔːm/ v. 1 [I,T] ENG. LANG. ARTS to do something to entertain people: The drama group performed “Hamlet” last week. | Karen will be performing with her band on Friday. 2 [T] to do something such as a job or piece of work, especially something difficult or complicated: Surgeons performed an emergency operation. | software that performs a specific function 3 perform well/ badly etc. to work or do something well, badly, etc.: The bike performs well on mountain trails. | The team has been performing poorly.

per-form-ance /pəˈfɔːməns/ n. 1 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS an act of performing a play, piece of music, etc., or the occasion when something is performed: a beautiful performance of Swan Lake | The next performance is at 8 o'clock. 2 [U] how well or badly someone or something does something: Linda's performance at school has greatly improved. | I was impressed with the car's performance on wet roads. 3 [U] the act of doing something, especially your work: the performance of his official duties per-form-er /pəˈfɔːmə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS an actor, musician, etc. who performs in order to entertain people: a circus performer per-forming 'arts n. the performing arts ENG. LANG. ARTS arts such as dance, music, or DRAMA, that are performed to entertain people per-fume /pəˈfyum, pəˈfyum/ n. [C,U] 1 a liquid with a strong pleasant smell that women put on their skin: She never wears perfume. 2 a pleasant smell: the rose's sweet perfume [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French parfum]

THESAURUS smell, aroma, scent, fragrance → SMELL²

—perfumed adj.: perfumed soap

per-func-to-ry /pəˈfʌŋktəri/ adj. (formal) a perfunctory action is done quickly or without interest, and only because people expect it: He shook my hand in a perfunctory way. —perfunctorily adv.

per-haps /pəˈhæps/ adv. 1 possibly (SYN maybe: Perhaps it'll be warmer tomorrow. | This is perhaps Irving's finest novel. 2 (spoken) used in order to ask or suggest something politely (SYN maybe: Perhaps you'd like to join us? [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 per “by” + haps, plural of hap “chance”])

per-i-gee /pəˈrɛdʒi/ n. [C] PHYSICS the point where the moon, a SATELLITE, or other object that is traveling in a curved path through space around the Earth is nearest the Earth → see picture at APOGEE per-il /ˈpɛrəl/ n. (literary) 1 [U] danger of being harmed or killed: Everyone feared that the sailors were in great peril.

THESAURUS danger, risk, threat → DANGER

2 the perils of sth the dangers involved in a particular activity: the perils of drug use per-il-ous /ˈpɛrələs/ adj. (literary) very dangerous: a perilous journey pe-ri-m-e-ter /ˈpɛrɪmətə/ n. [C] 1 the border around an area of land: the perimeter of the airfield

THESAURUS edge, border, boundary → EDGE¹

2 MATH the whole length of the border around an area or shape → CIRCUMFERENCE: the perimeter of a triangle

pe-ri-od /ˈpɪriəd/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a length of time: We worked together over a 15-month period. | James finished the research within a short period of time. 2 a particular length of time in history or in a person's life: We're studying the Civil War period. | the blue period in Picasso's painting | These years are a critical period in the child's development. 3 the monthly flow of blood from a woman's body 4 ENG. LANG. ARTS the mark (.) used in writing that shows the end of a sentence or an abbreviation 5 one of the equal parts that the school day is divided into: I have a history test during first/second/third etc. period on Tuesday.

THESAURUS class, lesson → CLASS¹

6 one of the equal parts that a game is divided into in a sport such as HOCKEY 7 period! (spoken) said at the end of a sentence when you have made a decision and you do not want to discuss the subject any more: I just won't do it, period! [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French période, from Latin, from Greek, from peri- + hodos “way”]

pe-ri-od-ic /ˌpɪriˈɒdɪk/ (Ac) also periodical adj. happening again and again, usually at regular times: Dale gets periodic headaches. | Periodic reforms of the voting system took place during the 19th century.

pe-ri-od-i-cal /ˌpɪriˈɒdɪkəl/ (Ac) n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a magazine, especially one about a serious or technical subject: The article appeared in a scholarly periodical.

pe-ri-od-i-cally /ˌpɪriˈɒdɪkli/ adv. happening again and again, usually at regular times: The river periodically floods the valley. | Athletes are periodically tested for drugs.

periodic table n. the periodic table CHEMISTRY a specially arranged list of the ELEMENTS (=simple chemical substances) pe-ri-ph-e-ral /pəˈrɪfərəl/ adj. 1 (formal) relating to the main idea, question, activity, etc., but less important than it: He had only a peripheral role in the negotiations. 2 peripheral vision what you can see to the side of you when you look straight ahead 3 IT peripheral equipment can be connected to a computer and used with it peripheral n. [C] IT a piece of equipment that is connected to a computer and used with it pe-ri-ph-er-y /pəˈrɪfəri/ n. [singular] the outside area or edge of something: a new neighborhood on the periphery of the city [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Old French periferie, from Late Latin, from Greek, from peripherein “to carry around”] per-i-scope /ˈpɛrəˌskoʊp/ n. [C] a long tube with mirrors inside it, used for looking over the top of something, especially in a SUBMARINE [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 from Greek peri- “around” + skopos “look”] per-ish /ˈpɛrɪʃ/ v. [I] (literary) to die: Hundreds perished when the Titanic sank.

per-ish-a-ble /ˈpɛrɪʃəbəl/ adj. food that is perishable can become bad quickly: milk and other perishable items —perishables n. [plural] per-jure /ˈpɛrdʒər/ v. perjure yourself LAW to tell a lie in a court of law per-ju-ry /ˈpɛrdʒəri/ n. [U] LAW the crime of telling a lie in a court of law

THESAURUS lie, fib, falsehood, fabrication → LIE³

perk¹ /pɜːk/ n. [C] money, goods, or other advantages that you get from your work in addition to your pay: a few extra perks like a company car and travel expenses perk² v. (informal)

perk (sb ↔) up phr. v. to become more cheerful and interested in what is happening around you, or to make someone feel this way: A cup of coffee will perk you up. | Meg perked up when the music started.

perk (sth ↔) up phr. v. to become better, more interesting, etc., or to make something do this: A little more pepper will perk up the sauce.

perk-y /ˈpɜːki/ adj. (informal) confident, happy, and full of interest: a perky little girl perm¹ /pɜːm/ n. [C] a way of putting curls into straight hair by treating it with chemicals perm² v. [T] to put curls into straight hair using chemicals: Did you have your hair permed?

per-ma-frost /ˈpɜːməˌfrɒst/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a thick layer of permanently frozen ground just below the top layer of soil, in countries such as Alaska where it is very cold for most of the year per-ma-nent /ˈpɜːmənənt/ adj. continuing to exist for a long time or for all time (ANT) tempo-rary: There was not any permanent damage to the muscle. | The UN Security Council has five permanent members. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, present participle of permanere “to stay until the end”] —permanence n. [U] per-ma-nent-ly /ˈpəməntli/ adv. always, or for a very long time: Do you plan to live here permanently? | The accident left him permanently disabled.

THESAURUS always, all the time/the whole time → ALWAYS (1) always, forever, for life, for good → ALWAYS (2) permanent 'press n. [U] a way of treating cloth so that it stays smooth, or cloth that has been treated in this way

P

per-me-ate /ˈpəmi,eɪt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to spread through every part of something: The smell of smoke permeated the house. | A feeling of sadness permeates his music.

per-mis-si-ble /ˈpəˈmɪsəbəl/ adj. (formal) allowed by law or by the rules: In some religions, divorce is not permissible.

per-mis-sion /ˈpəˈmɪʃən/ n. [U] the act of allowing someone to do something: You have to ask permission if you want to leave class early. | You must have permission to enter these areas. | Did your dad give you permission to use the car? ▶ Don't say “the permission.” ◀ per-mis-sive /ˈpəˈmɪsɪv/ adj. allowing actions or behavior that many people disapprove of: permissive parents

per-mit¹ /ˈpəˈmɪt/ v. (permitted, permitting) (formal) 1 [T] to allow something to happen, especially by a rule or law: Smoking is not permitted inside the building. | Each employee is permitted to bring a guest to the party.

THESAURUS allow, let, authorize, sanction → ALLOW

2 [I] to make it possible for something to happen: We'll probably go to the beach, weather permitting. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin permittere “to let through, allow”]

per-mit² /ˈpəˈmɪt/ n. [C] an official written statement giving you the right to do something: You can't park here without a permit. | a travel/work permit per-mu-ta-tion /ˌpəˈmyʊˈteɪʃən/ n. [C] one of the different ways in which a set of things can be arranged, or put together to make something else per-ni-cious /ˈpəˈnɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) very harmful, especially in a way that is not easily noticeable: the pernicious effects of advertising per-o-ra-tion /ˌpɛrəˈreɪʃən/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the last part of a speech, especially a part in which the main points are repeated per-ox-ide /ˈpəˈrɒk,sɪd/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a chemical liquid used in order to make dark hair lighter, or to kill BACTERIA per-pen-dic-u-lar /ˌpəˈpɛndɪkʊlə/ adj. 1 MATH if one line is perpendicular to another line, they form an angle of 90° → HORIZONTAL, VERTICAL: perpendicular lines | Main Street is perpendicular to First Street. → see picture at LINE¹ 2 exactly upright and not leaning to one side or the other (SYN) vertical: a perpendicular pole per-pe-trate /ˈpəpə,treɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to do something that is wrong or illegal: crimes perpetrated by young people [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, past participle of perpetrare “to achieve something”] per-pe-tra-tor /ˈpəpə,treɪtə/ n. [C] someone who does something illegal per-pet-u-al /ˈpəˈpɛtʃuəl/ adj. continuing forever or for a long time: the perpetual noise of the machinery | her perpetual complaining —perpetually adv.

per-pet-u-ate /ˈpəˈpɛtʃu,eɪt/ v. [T] to make a situation, attitude, etc., especially a bad one, continue to exist for a long time: The movie perpetuates stereotypes about women.

per-plex /ˈpəˈpleks/ v. [T] if a problem perplexes you, it confuses you and worries you, because it is difficult to understand: Shea's symptoms perplexed the doctors. —perplexed adj.

per-qui-site /ˈpəkwəzɪt/ n. [C] (formal) a PERK per se /ˌpəˈseɪ/ adv. (formal) used in order to show that something is being considered alone, apart from anything else: Money, per se, is not usually why people change jobs.

per-se-cute /ˈpəˈsɪˌkyut/ v. [T] to treat someone cruelly and unfairly, especially because of his/her religious or political beliefs: a writer persecuted for criticizing the government [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French persécuter, from Latin persecutus, past participle of persequi “to pursue, follow”] —persecutor n. [C] per-se-cu-tion /ˌpəˈsɪˌkyuʃən/ n. [U] the act of persecuting someone: the persecution of religious groups per-se-ver-ance /ˌpəˈsəˌvɪrəns/ n. [U] (approving) determination to keep trying to do something difficult: It took perseverance to overcome his reading problems.

per-se-vere /ˌpəˈsəˌvɪr/ v. [I] (approving) to continue trying to do something difficult in a determined way: The team has persevered through a lot of tough times.

per-sist /ˈpəˈsɪst/ (Ac) v. [I] (formal) 1 to continue to do something, even though it is difficult or other people do not like it: Students must persist in their efforts if they wish to do well. | She persisted with her studies in spite of financial problems. 2 to continue to exist or happen: Call a doctor if the pain persists for more than a few days. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French persister, from Latin persistere, from sistere “to stand firm”] per-sist-ence /ˈpəˈsɪstəns/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 determination to do something even though it is difficult or other people oppose it: Claudia's persistence paid off and she got the job. 2 when something continues to exist or happen, especially for longer than is usual or desirable: The bank needed to act because of the persistence of high inflation.

per-sist-ent /pəˈsɪstənt/ (Ac) adj. 1 continuing to exist or happen, especially for longer than is usual or desirable: persistent problems | There have been persistent rumors that the chairman is going to quit. 2 continuing to do something even though it is difficult or other people oppose it: You have to be persistent if you want to get a job. —persistently adv.: He persistently denies doing anything wrong.

per-son /ˈpɜːsən/ n. (plural people /ˈpiːpl/) [C] 1 a man, woman, or child: Diane is a really nice person. | I was the last person to be called. | Abby's a computer/cat/night etc. person (=someone who likes computers, cats, etc.).

USAGE

person – a man, woman, or child: She's a really generous person.

persons (formal) – more than one man, woman, or child – used only in official language: Police are looking for the person or persons responsible for her death.

people – many men, women, and children. In this meaning, people is the plural of person: There were about 100 people at the wedding.

people – a particular race or group that lives in a particular country. In this meaning, the plural is peoples: the peoples of the Caribbean

2 in person if you do something in person, you do it when you are in a place, not by sending a letter or using the telephone: You'll have to apply for your passport in person. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French persone, from Latin persona “actor's mask, character in a play, person”] → FIRST PERSON, SECOND PERSON, THIRD PERSON per-so-na /pəˈsəʊnə/ n. [C] 1 (plural personas or personae /-ni/) the way you behave when you are with other people: You always wonder how different movie stars are from their public personas. 2 (plural personae) ENG. LANG. ARTS the character or voice that NARRATES (=tells) the story in a book, movie, etc.: The author used the persona of a teenage girl to tell the story. 3 (plural personae) ENG. LANG. ARTS any of the characters in a book, play, etc.

per-son-a-ble /ˈpɜːsənəbəl/ adj. having a pleasant way of talking and behaving per-son-al /ˈpɜːsənəl/ adj.

1 RELATING TO YOU [only before noun] belonging or relating to one particular person, rather than to other people or to people in general: Please keep all bags and other personal belongings with you. | I know from personal experience how difficult this kind of work can be. | My personal opinion is that we began the project too late.

2 PRIVATE private and concerning only you: Can I ask you a personal question? | He won't talk about his personal life. | Beth had a lot of personal problems at that time.

THESAURUS

private, secret, intimate →

PRIVATE¹

3 DONE BY YOU used in order to emphasize that someone does something directly, instead of asking someone else to do it: The president made a personal visit to the scene of the accident. | I will give this my personal attention.

4 CRITICISM involving rude or upsetting criticism of someone: Making personal remarks like that isn't professional. | It's nothing personal (=I am not criticizing you) – I just don't agree with you.

5 personal friend someone you know well, especially someone famous or important: The editor is a personal friend of his.

6 NOT WORK not relating to your work or business: We're not allowed to make personal phone calls at work.

7 YOUR BODY [only before noun] relating to your body or the way you look: personal hygiene personal com'puter n. [C] IT a PC → see picture on page A6

per-son-al-i-ty /ˈpɜːsənəli/ n. (plural personalities) 1 [C,U] someone's character, especially the way s/he behaves toward other people: an ambitious woman with a strong personality | Childhood experiences can affect personality. 2 [C] someone who is well known to the public: a TV personality 3 [U] (informal) the qualities that make someone or something interesting: We liked the name because we thought it had personality.

per-son-al-ize /ˈpɜːsənəlaɪz/ v. [T] 1 to put your name or INITIALS on something: cars with personalized license plates 2 to decorate something in a way you like: Becky has personalized her office with photos and drawings. 3 to make something appropriate for what a particular person needs: All products can be personalized to the client's requirements.

per-son-al-ly /ˈpɜːsənəli/ adv. 1 (spoken) used in order to emphasize that you are giving your own opinion: Personally, I think it's a bad idea. 2 doing or having done something yourself: I delivered the letter personally. | She's personally responsible for all the arrangements. 3 take sth personally to get upset by the things other people say or do because you think their remarks or behavior are directed at you: Don't take it personally – he's rude to everyone. 4 as a friend, or as someone you have met: I don't know her personally, but I like her books.

personal 'pronoun n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a PRONOUN used for the person who is speaking, being spoken to, or being spoken about, such as “I,” “you,” and “they”

personal 'property n. [U] money, property, jewelry, etc. that belongs to one particular person, rather than to several people or to people in general per-so-nals /ˈpɜːsənəlz/ n. the personals [plural] a part of a newspaper in which people can have private messages printed persona non gra-ta /pəˈsoʊnə nən ˈgrætə/ n. [U] 1 (formal) someone who is not welcome in a particular place or in a particular group: After the court case, he found himself persona non grata in the business community. 2 POLITICS a DIPLOMAT (=government representative) who has been ordered to leave the country where he or she has been sent to work [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Latin “person not acceptable”] per-son-i-fi-ca-tion /pəˈsɒnəfəˈkeɪʃən/ n. 1 the personification of sth someone who has a lot of a particular quality, so that s/he is used as an example of that quality: Mrs. Grant is the personification of kindness. 2 [C,U] the REPRESENTATION of a thing or a quality as a person: the personification of Justice as a woman holding scales

P

per-son-i-fy /pəˈsɒnəˈfaɪ/ v. (personified, personifies) [T] 1 to have a lot of a particular quality or be a typical example of something: An earthquake personifies the force of nature. 2 sb is sth personified used in order to say that someone perfectly represents a quality or idea: Theresa was kindness personified. 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS to think of or represent a quality or thing as a person: Time is usually personified as an old man with a beard.

per-son-nel /pəˈsɒnəl/ n. 1 [plural] the people who work in a company or for a particular kind of employer: All personnel need to have identification cards. | military personnel 2 [U] HUMAN RESOURCES: the personnel department

per-spec-tive /pəˈspektɪv/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] a way of thinking about something that is influenced by the type of person you are or by your experiences: Becoming a mother gave Helen a whole new perspective on life. | The novel is written from a child's perspective. | We are trying to develop a broader perspective on Third World development. 2 [U] the ability to think about something sensibly, so that it does not seem worse than it is: I think Tony's lost all sense of perspective. | You've got to keep things in perspective. 3 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a method of drawing a picture that makes objects look solid and shows distance and depth: the artist's use of perspective per-spi-ca-cious /pəˈspɪˈkeɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) good at judging and understanding people and situations, or showing this quality: a perspicacious critic —perspicaciously adv. —perspicacity /pəˈspɪˈkæsəti/ n. [U] per-spi-ra-tion /pəˈspəˈreɪʃən/ n. [U] (formal) SWEAT per-spire /pəˈspaɪə/ v. [I] (formal) to SWEAT per-suade /pəˈsweɪd/ v. [T] 1 to make someone agree to do something by giving good reasons why s/he should: We eventually persuaded Mark to come with us.

THESAURUS

talk sb into sth – to persuade someone to do something: I should never have let my mother talk me into buying this dress.
get sb to do sth – to persuade or force someone to do something: I tried to get Jill to come, but she said she was too tired.

encourage sb to do sth – to persuade someone to do something, especially by telling him/her that it is good for him/her: More high schools are encouraging their students to do community service.

influence – to have an effect on what someone does or thinks: Sports figures influence kids' ideas about what's cool.

convince – to persuade someone to do something, especially something s/he does not want to do: I convinced him to stay another night.

coax – to persuade someone to do something by talking gently and kindly: “Come for Christmas,” Jody coaxed over the phone.

cajole – to persuade someone to do something by praising him/her or making promises to him/her: I managed to cajole Miguel into directing the movie.

prevail on/upon sb (formal) – to persuade someone: Her father prevailed upon her not to marry immediately.

2 to make someone believe something or feel sure about something (SYN) convince: Members of the jury were not persuaded by the lawyer's arguments. | She'll only take me back if I can persuade her (that) I've changed. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin persuadere, from suadere “to advise”]

per-sua-sion /pəˈsweɪʒən/ n. 1 [U] the act or skill of persuading someone to do something: With a little persuasion, Debbie agreed to come with us. | It took all of my powers of persuasion to convince him. 2 [C] a particular belief, especially a political or religious one: Jake and his brother are of different political persuasions.

per-sua-sive /pəˈsweɪsɪv/ adj. able to influence other people to believe or do something: Erin can be very persuasive. | It was not a very persuasive argument.

pert /pəˈt/ adj. 1 small and attractive: a pert nose 2 (literary) amusing in a way that shows a slight lack of respect: a pert answer per-tain /pəˈteɪn/ v.

pertain to sth phr. v. (formal) to relate directly to something: laws pertaining to welfare benefits per-ti-na-cious /pəˈtɪˈneɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) continuing to believe something or to do something in a very determined way —pertinaciously adv. —pertinacity /pəˈtɪˈnæsəti/ n. [U] per-ti-nent /pəˈtɪˈn-ənt/ adj. (formal) directly relating to something that is being considered (SYN) relevant: Reporters asked a few pertinent questions.

THESAURUS

related, connected, linked, relevant → RELATED per-turbed /pəˈtəʊbd/ adj. (formal) worried and annoyed: We weren't too perturbed by the delay. —perturb v. [T]

THESAURUS upset, unsettled, troubled, disturbed → UPSET¹ pe-ruse /pəˈruːz/ v. [T] (formal or humorous) to read something in a careful way: Anne looked at the book he'd been perusing. —perusal n. [C,U]

THESAURUS read, flip/thumb through sth, browse through sth, skim/scan (through) sth → READ per-vade /pəˈveɪd/ v. [T] (formal) to spread through all parts of something: A feeling of hopelessness pervaded the country.

per-va-sive /pəˈveɪsɪv/ adj. existing or spreading everywhere: the pervasive influence of violence on TV per-verse /pəˈvɜːs/ adj. behaving in an unreasonable way by doing the opposite of what people want you to do: He takes perverse pleasure in arguing with everyone.

per-ver-sion /pəˈvɜːʒən/ n. [C,U] 1 a type of sexual behavior that is considered unnatural and unacceptable 2 the act of changing something so that it is no longer right, reasonable, or true: a perversion of the truth per-vert¹ /pəˈvɜːt/ v. [T] to change someone or something in a harmful way: Athletes who cheat by taking drugs are perverting traditional Olympic values.

per-vert² /pəˈvɜːt/ n. [C] someone whose sexual behavior is considered unnatural and unacceptable per-vert-ed /pəˈvɜːtɪd/ adj. 1 relating to unacceptable and unnatural sexual thoughts or behavior 2 morally wrong or unnatural: perverted logic pes-ky /ˈpɛski/ adj. (informal) annoying and causing trouble: Those pesky kids!

pes-si-mis-m /ˈpɛsəˌmɪzəm/ n. [U] a tendency to believe that bad things will happen (ANT) optimism: a feeling of pessimism about the future [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 French pessimisme, from Latin pessimus “worst”] pes-si-mist /ˈpɛsəˌmɪst/ n. [C] someone who always expects that bad things will happen (ANT) optimist

pes-si-mis-tic /ˈpɛsəˌmɪstɪk/ adj. expecting that bad things will happen or that a situation will have a bad result (ANT) optimistic: Jonathan is pessimistic about his chances.

pest /pest/ n. [C] 1 a small animal or insect that destroys crops or food 2 (informal) an annoying person: The kids next door can be real pests.

pes-ter /ˈpɛstə/ v. [T] to annoy someone by asking for something again and again: She kept pestering her parents to let her go out.

pes-ti-cide /ˈpɛstəˌsaɪd/ n. [C] a chemical substance that kills insects that destroy crops

P

pet¹ /pet/ n. [C] an animal that you keep at home: Do you have any pets? → TEACHER'S PET

pet² v. (petted, petting) [T] to touch and move your hand gently over an animal's fur: Our cat loves being petted. → see picture on page A8

THESAURUS touch, feel, stroke, rub, scratch, pat, caress → TOUCH¹

pet³ adj. [only before noun] 1 pet project/subject etc. a plan, subject, etc. that you particularly like or are interested in: Congressmen are always looking for funding for their pet projects. 2 a pet animal is one that someone keeps at home: a pet hamster 3 pet peeve something that always annoys you, that may not annoy other people: One of my pet peeves is people being late for meetings.

pet-al /ˈpetl/ n. [C] the colored part of a flower that is shaped like a leaf: rose petals → see picture at FLOWER¹ pe-ter /ˈpiːə/ v.

peter out phr. v. to gradually become smaller, fewer, quieter, etc. and then no longer exist or happen: After a few minutes, the conversation began to peter out.

pet-i-ole /ˈpetiˌoʊl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a thin narrow part of a plant, that supports a leaf and keeps it attached to the stem pe-tite /pəˈtit/ adj. (approving) a woman who is petite is short and thin in an attractive way

THESAURUS small, little, tiny, diminutive → SMALL pe-ti-tion¹ /pəˈtɪʃən/ v. [I,T] to formally ask someone in authority to do something, especially by sending him/her a petition: Residents are petitioning against a new prison in the area. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin petitio, from petere “to try to get or find”] petition² n. [C] a piece of paper that asks someone in authority to do or change something, and is signed by a lot of people: Will you sign our petition? | a petition against nuclear testing

Pe-tri dish /ˈpitri ˌdɪʃ/ n. [C] SCIENCE a small clear dish with a cover, used especially by scientists for growing BACTERIA pet-ri-fied /ˈpetrəˌfaɪd/ adj. 1 extremely frightened: I'm absolutely petrified of dogs.

THESAURUS frightened, afraid, scared, terrified, fearful, phobic → FRIGHTENED

2 petrified wood wood that has changed into stone over millions of years [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French pétrifier, from Greek petra “rock”] —petrify v. [T]

pet-ro-chem-i-cal /ˌpetrouˈkemɪkəl/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical substance obtained from petroleum or natural gas: the petrochemical industry pe-tro-le-um /pəˈtrouliəm/ n. [U] oil that is obtained from below the surface of the Earth and is used in order to make GASOLINE and other chemical substances: petroleum-based products pet-ty /ˈpeti/ adj. 1 something that is petty is not serious or important: Don't bother me with petty details. 2 someone who is petty cares too much about things that are not very important or serious: Sometimes he's so petty about money (=he thinks too much about exactly how much people owe him). 3 petty crime a crime that is not serious, for example stealing things that are not expensive —pettiness n. [U] petty 'cash n. [U] money that is kept in an office for making small payments petty 'officer, Petty Officer n. [C] an officer who has the lowest rank in the navy pet-u-lant /ˈpetʃələnt/ adj. behaving in an impatient and angry way for no reason at all, like a child: My ex-husband is behaving like a petulant child. —petulantly adv. —petulance n. [U] pew¹ /pyu/ n. [C] a long wooden seat in a church pew² interjection said when something smells very bad: Pew! There must be a farm near here.

pew-ter /ˈpyutə/ n. [U] a gray metal made by mixing LEAD and TIN

PG n. [C,U] parental guidance – used in order to show that a movie may include parts that are not suitable for young children

PG-13 /ˌpi dʒi θəˈtɪn/ n. [C,U] parental guidance-13 – used in order to show that a movie may include parts that are not suitable for children under the age of 13

pH /piˈertʃ/ also p'H, value n. [C usually singular] CHEMISTRY a number on a scale of numbers from 0 to 14, that shows how acid or ALKALINE a substance is phag-o-cyte /ˈfægəsaɪt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a blood cell that protects the body by destroying harmful BACTERIA, VIRUSES, etc.

phal-lic /ˈfælɪk/ adj. like a PENIS, or relating to the PENIS phal-lus /ˈfæləs/ n. [C] the male sex organ, or a model of it phan-tom /ˈfæntəm/ n. [C] (literary) 1 a GHOST

THESAURUS ghost, spirit, specter, apparition → GHOST

2 something that exists only in your imagination

Phar-a-oh /ˈfəroʊ, ˈfær-/ n. [C] a ruler of ancient Egypt phar-ma-ceu-ti-cal /ˌfɑrməˈsuːtɪkəl/ n. [C usually plural] CHEMISTRY a medicine or drug [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Late Latin pharmaceuticus, from Greek pharmakeuein “to give drugs”] —pharmaceutical adj. [only before noun]: large pharmaceutical companies phar-ma-cist /ˈfɑrməsɪst/ n. [C] someone whose job is to prepare drugs and medicines in a store or hospital phar-ma-col-o-gy /ˌfɑrməˈkɒlədʒi/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY the scientific study of drugs and medicines —pharmacologist n. [C] phar-ma-cy /ˈfɑrməsi/ n. (plural pharmacies) [C] a store, or a part of a store, where medicines are prepared and sold [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Late Latin pharmacia “giving drugs,” from Greek, from pharmakeuein “to give drugs”]

phar-ynx /ˈfærɪŋks/ n. (plural pharynges /fəˈrɪndʒɪz/ or pharynxes) [C] BIOLOGY the tube that goes from the back of your mouth to your ESOPHAGUS

phase¹ /feɪz/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 one of the stages of a process of development or change: The first phase of renovation should be finished by January. | The work will be carried out in phases. | Your child is just going through a phase.

THESAURUS stage, part, step → STAGE¹

2 PHYSICS one of the changes in the appearance of the moon or a PLANET when it is seen from the Earth 3 in phase/out of phase PHYSICS two or more waves of sound, light, energy, etc. are in phase if their highest parts and lowest parts reach the same place at the same time. They are out of phase if these points do not match. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Modern Latin phasis, from Greek, “appearance of a star, phase of the moon”]

phase² v.

phase sth ↔ in phr. v. to introduce something gradually: New rules are being phased in over the next two months. | The state plans to phase in alternative sources of energy.

phase sth ↔ out phr. v. to gradually stop using or providing something: Leaded gas was phased out in the 1970s.

Ph.D. /ˌpi ɜrtʃ ˈdi/ n. [C] Doctor of Philosophy the highest university degree that can be earned, or someone who has this degree pheasant /'fɛzənt/ n. [C,U] a large colorful bird with a long tail that is hunted for food and sport, or the meat from this bird [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Anglo-French fesaunt, from Latin, from Greek phasianos, from Phasis ancient river in Asia]

phe-nom-e-nal /fɪ'namənəl/ (Ac) adj. very great or impressive: New York's phenomenal success in reducing crime | The growth in California's population during this period was phenomenal. —phenomenally adv.: phenomenally popular

phe-nom-e-non /fɪ'namənən, -nən/ (Ac) n. (plural phenomena /-mə'nə/) [C] 1 something that happens or exists in society, science, or nature that is unusual or difficult to understand: Homelessness is not a new phenomenon. | natural phenomena such as earthquakes | Language is a social and cultural phenomenon.

THE SAURUS event, occurrence, incident
→ EVENT

2 a person or thing that has a rare ability or quality [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Late Latin from Greek phainomenon, from phainein “to show”] phe-no-type /'fi'nə,təip/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the physical appearance of a living thing, that results from its GENES and the environment in which it lives → GENOTYPE phe-w /fyu, hyu/ interjection said when you feel tired, hot, or RELIEVED: Phew! I'm glad that's over.

phi-lan-der-er /fɪ'lændərə/ n. [C] (disapproving) a man who has sex with many women but does not want a serious relationship —philandering n. [U] phil-an-throp-ic /fɪlən'thrəpɪk/ adj. a philanthropic person or institution gives money to people who are poor or who need money in order to do something good or useful —philanthropically adv.

phi-lan-thro-pist /fɪ'lənθrəpɪst/ n. [C] a rich person who gives a lot of money to help poor people phi-lan-thro-py /fɪ'lənθrəpi/ n. [U] the practice of giving money and help to people who need it phil-is-tine /'fɪlə,stɪn/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who does not like or understand art, music, literature, etc. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Philistine; because the Philistines were thought by the Israelites in the Bible to be uncivilized people] phi-los-o-pher /fɪ'ləsəfə/ (Ac) n. [C] someone who studies or teaches philosophy: ancient Greek philosophers

phil-o-soph-i-cal /fɪlə'səfɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 relating to philosophy: a philosophical discussion | The debate never became philosophical. 2 accepting difficult or bad situations calmly: Anderson remains philosophical about his defeat. —philosophically adv.

phi-los-o-phize /fɪ'ləsə'faɪz/ (Ac) v. [I] to talk or think about important subjects and ideas in a serious way

phi-los-o-phy /fɪ'ləsəfi/ (Ac) n. (plural philosophies) 1 [U] the study of what it means to exist, what good and evil are, what knowledge is, or how people should live: She graduated from Yale with a degree in philosophy. | Her work explores the connections between language and philosophy. 2 [C] a set of ideas about these subjects: the philosophy of Plato 3 [C] a set of beliefs about how you should live your life, do your job, etc.: a new business philosophy | We share a similar philosophy of life. | Jefferson had to reconcile two competing philosophies of government. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French philosophie, from Latin, from Greek philo- “loving” + sophia “knowledge”]

phish-ing /'fɪʃɪŋ/ n. [U] IT an illegal activity in which someone sends an email or has a WEBSITE that is intended to trick people into giving away information such as their bank account number or their computer PASSWORD. This information is then used to get money or goods.

phlegm /flem/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a thick sticky substance produced in your nose and throat, especially when you have a cold (Syn) mucus phleg-mat-ic /fleg'mætɪk/ adj. (formal) calm and not easily excited or worried phlo-em /'fləʊəm/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the TISSUE (=material consisting of cells) in plants that carries food substances from the leaves to all parts of the plant

pho-bi-a /'fəʊbiə/ n. [C] a strong unreasonable fear of something: Holly has a phobia about snakes. [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Modern Latin, Late Latin -phobia, from Greek, from phobos “fear”] —phobic adj.

phoe-nix /'fɪnɪks/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a bird in ancient stories that burns itself at the end of its life and is born again from the ASHES [ORIGIN: 800—900 Latin, from Greek phoinix “red, Phoenician, phoenix,” from phoinos “blood-red”]

phone /'fəʊn/ n. [C] 1 a piece of equipment that you use in order to talk with someone in another place: I got up to answer the phone. | I was on the phone (=talking to someone else using a telephone) for an hour; talking to Lynn. | Will you get off the phone? I'm expecting a call. | What's your phone number? | Just as we sat down to dinner, the phone rang. | Tickets can be ordered by phone. 2 the part of a telephone that you hold close to your ear and mouth: She picked up the phone and dialed.

TOPIC

When you want to make a phone call/call sb/phone sb, you lift/pick up the receiver (=part you speak into) and dial the number you want. If the telephone rings, someone may answer it, or there may be no answer. If the number is busy, someone is already speaking on that line, and you cannot get through. If the person you are calling has an answering machine or voice mail, you can leave a message for the person to listen to later. If you get the wrong number by mistake, try dialing again. When you finish speaking on the phone, hang up (=put the receiver down). → CELL PHONE phone² v. [I,T] to talk to someone using a phone (SYN) call: Several people phoned the radio station to complain.

P

'phone book n. [C] a book containing an alphabetical list of the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all the people and businesses that have a telephone in the area

'phone booth n. [C] a partly enclosed structure containing a telephone that the public can use

'phone card n. [C] a special card that you buy and use to make phone calls on a public phone pho·neme /'foʊnɪm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the smallest speech sound that can be used to make one word different from another word, such as the "b" and the "p" in "big" and "pig" —phonemic /fə'nɪmɪk/ adj. → MORPHEME pho·ne·mics /fə'nɪmɪks/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the study and description of the phonemes of languages pho·net·ic /fə'netɪk/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to the sounds of human speech: a phonetic alphabet (=one that uses signs to represent the sounds) [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Modern Latin phoneticus, from Greek phōnetikos, from phōnein "to speak"] —phonetically adv.

pho·net·ics /fə'netɪks/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the science and study of speech sounds phon·ics /'fɑːnɪks/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a method of teaching people to read in which they are taught to recognize the sounds that letters represent pho·no·graph /'foʊnəˌɡræf/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a RECORD PLAYER

pho·nol·o·gy /fə'nɒlədʒi/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the study of the system of speech sounds in a language, or the system of sounds itself —phonological /ˌfoʊnə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj. —phonologically adv.

pho·ny /'foʊni/ adj. (informal) false or not real, and intended to deceive someone (SYN) fake: Dirk gave the cops a phony address. | a phony passport —phony n. [C]: She's such a phony!

phoo·ey /'fui/ interjection (old-fashioned) used in order to express strong disbelief or disappointment phos·phate /'fɑːsfet/ n. [C,U] CHEMISTRY one of the various forms of a salt of phosphorus, used in industry [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French acide phosphorique "phosphoric acid"] phos·pho·res·cent /ˌfɑːsfə'resənt/ adj. CHEMISTRY shining slightly in the dark but producing little or no heat —phosphorescence n. [U] phos·pho·rus /'fɑːsfərəs/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a poisonous chemical that starts to burn when it is brought out into the air —phosphoric /fɑːs'fɒrɪk, -'fɑːr-/ adj.

photic zone

pho·tic zone /'foʊtɪk ˌzəʊn/ n. the photic zone BIOLOGY the upper layer of an ocean or a lake where there is enough light from the Sun for PHOTOSYNTHESIS to take place

pho·to /'foʊtəʊ/ n. [C] (informal) a photograph: Who's the girl in this photo? | a photo of Babe Ruth | This camera takes quite good photos.

pho·to·cop·i·er /'foʊtəˌkɒpiə/ n. [C] a machine that quickly copies documents onto paper by photographing them pho·to·cop·y /'foʊtəˌkɒpi/ n. (plural photocopies) [C] a copy of a document made by a photocopier: Make a photocopy of this article for me. —photocopy v. [T]

THESAURUS copy, reproduce, duplicate, xerox → COPY²

pho·to·e·lec·tric /ˌfoʊtəʊ-ɪ'lektɪk/ adj. PHYSICS using an electric current that is controlled by light: Photoelectric panels in the roof of the building help to maintain a constant temperature.

photo 'finish n. [C] the end of a race in which the leaders finish so close together that a photograph has to be taken to show who won pho·to·gen·ic /ˌfoʊtəˌdʒenɪk/ adj. a photogenic person always looks attractive in photographs: Julie is very photogenic.

pho·to·graph¹ /'foʊtəˌɡræf/ n. [C] a picture that is made using a camera: The book includes more than 100 color photographs. | an old photograph of my grandfather | Visitors are not allowed to take photographs. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 photo- + -graph (from Greek phos “light” + graphein “to write”)] → PICTURE¹ photograph² v. [T] to take a photograph of someone or something: She was photographed by Vogue.

photo-tog-ra-pher /fə'təgrəfə/ n. [C] someone who takes photographs, especially as a job: a news photographer

photo-to-graph-ic /fəʊtə'græfɪk/ adj. 1 relating to photographs: a photographic image 2 photographic memory an ability that some people have to remember exactly every detail of something s/he has seen photo-tog-ra-phy /fə'təgrəfi/ n. [U] the art, profession, or process of producing photographs or the scenes in movies: fashion photography

THESAURUS art, painting, drawing, sculpture, pottery, ceramics → ART

pho-ton /'fəʊtən/ n. [C] PHYSICS the smallest PARTICLE of light or other form of RADIATION, that has energy but no electric charge or MASS

'photo opportunity n. [C] an occasion when someone such as a politician is photographed by the newspapers or filmed for television doing something that will make him/her look good pho-to-syn-the-sis /fəʊtə'sɪnθəsis/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the way that green plants make their food using the light from the Sun pho-tot-ro-pism /fəʊ'tɒtrə'pɪzəm/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the way that a plant moves as a reaction to light, usually by growing toward the light → TROPISM phrasal 'verb n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a verb that changes its meaning when it is used with an adverb or PREPOSITION. In the sentence “The rocket blew up,” “blew up” is a phrasal verb.

phrase¹ /freɪz/ n. [C] 1 a group of words that together have a particular meaning: Darwin's famous phrase, “the survival of the fittest”

THESAURUS

expression – a word or phrase that has a particular meaning idiom – a group of words that have a special meaning that is different from the usual meaning of each word cliché – a phrase that has been repeated so often that it is not interesting saying/proverb – a phrase that many people know, that expresses a sensible idea and is used to give advice maxim – a well-known phrase that gives a rule for sensible behavior

2 ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a group of words without a main verb that together make a subject, an object, or a verb tense. In the sentence “We have a brand new car,” “a brand new car” is a noun phrase. → CLAUSE, SENTENCE [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin phrasis, from Greek, from phrazein “to point out, explain, tell”] phrase² v. [T] to express something in a particular way: He phrased his question politely. —phrasing n. [U]: I don't remember her exact phrasing.

phras-e-ol-o-gy /freɪzi'ɒlədʒi/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the way that words and phrases are chosen and used in a particular language or subject: People such as computer technicians use a particular phraseology.

phy-lum /'faɪləm/ n. (plural phyla /-lə/) [C] BIOLOGY one of the groups into which scientists divide plants and animals. A phylum is larger than a CLASS but smaller than a KINGDOM.

phys-i-cal¹ /'fɪzɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 relating to someone's body rather than his/her mind or soul → MENTAL: a woman of great physical strength | She was in constant physical pain. | your physical appearance (=the way you look) 2 relating to real things that can be seen, tasted, felt, etc.: our physical environment | There is no physical evidence to connect him to the crime scene. 3 someone who is physical touches people a lot 4 involving touching someone in a rough or violent way: Hockey is a very physical game. 5 relating to or following the laws of nature: The world is governed by physical laws. 6 SCIENCE a science such as PHYSICS or CHEMISTRY, that studies things that are not living → ORGANIC: physical chemistry [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Medieval Latin physicalis, from Latin physica, from Greek physikos “of nature”] physical² also physical exami'nation n. [C] a medical examination by a doctor to check that you are healthy, especially when you start a new job physical edu'cation n. [U] PE

phys-i-cally /'fɪzɪkli/ (Ac) adv. 1 in relation to the body rather than the mind or soul → MENTALLY: He was physically exhausted. | I try to keep myself physically fit (=having strong muscles and not much fat). | Most people have little contact with mentally or physically handicapped people. 2 physically impossible not possible according to the laws of nature: It's physically impossible for penguins to fly.

physical 'therapy n. [U] a treatment for injuries and muscle problems that uses special exercises, rubbing, heat, etc. —physical therapist n. [C] phy-si-cian /fɪ'zɪʃən/ n. [C] (formal) a doctor

THESAURUS doctor, surgeon, specialist, psychiatrist, pediatrician → DOCTOR¹

phys-ics /'fɪzɪks/ n. [U] the science that deals with the study of physical objects and substances, and natural forces such as light, heat, and movement —physicist /'fɪzəst/ n. [C] phys-i-ol-o-gy /fɪzi'ɒlədʒi/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a science that deals with the study of how the bodies of living things work —physiological /ˌfɪziəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ adj.

phys-i-o-ther-a-py /ˌfɪziouˈθerəpi/ n. [U] PHYSICAL THERAPY

phy-sique /fɪˈzɪk/ n. [C] the shape, size, and appearance of someone's body: a man with a powerful physique phy-to-plank-ton /ˌfaiˈtoʊˈplæŋktən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the very small floating plants that are part of PLANKTON → ZOOPLANKTON pi /paɪ/ n. [U] MATH a number, about 3.1416, that is represented by the Greek letter (π) and is equal to the distance around a circle divided by its width. Pi is used to calculate the area of a circle.

pi-an-o /piˈænəʊ/ n. [C] a large musical instrument that you play by pressing the KEYS (=narrow black and white bars) —pianist n. [C] pi-a-no /piˈənəʊ/ adj., adv. ENG. LANG. ARTS played or sung quietly (ANT) forte pick /pɪk/ v. [T]

1 CHOOSE to choose something or someone from a group of people or things: In the end, Katie picked the blue dress. | Have you picked a date for the wedding yet? | He picked the Giants to win the division. | The board picked Kertzman as the man to run the company. | She can pick and choose her jobs (=she can choose only the ones she likes).

THESAURUS choose, select, opt for sth, decide on sth → CHOOSE

2 FLOWER/FRUIT to pull off or break off a flower, fruit, etc. from a plant or tree: We're going out to the farm on Saturday to pick apples. | Amy picked a bunch of flowers from her garden.

3 REMOVE/PULL OFF to remove small things from something, or to pull off small pieces from something: She got up and started picking dishes off the table. | Michael, stop picking your nose (=cleaning the inside of it with your finger).

4 pick your way through/across/among etc. sth to move carefully through an area, choosing exactly where to walk or drive: Rescue workers picked their way through the rubble.

5 pick a fight (with sb) to deliberately begin an argument or fight with someone: Adam's always picking fights with the younger kids.

6 pick sb's pocket to quietly steal something from someone's pocket, bag, etc.

7 pick sb's brain(s) to ask someone who knows a lot about a subject for information or advice about it: Can I pick your brains about a legal issue?

8 pick a lock to use something that is not a key to unlock a door, window, etc. → PICKPOCKET pick at sth phr. v.

to eat only a small amount of your food because you do not feel hungry or do not like the food: I was so nervous I could only pick at my lunch.

pick sb/sth ↔ off phr. v.

to shoot people or animals one at a time from a long distance away: Snipers were picking off anyone who came outdoors.

pick on sb phr. v.

to treat someone in a way that is not kind: Greg, stop picking on your sister!

pick sb/sth ↔ out phr. v.

1 to choose someone or something carefully from a group: We had a lot of fun picking out a present for Leslie's baby.

2 to recognize someone or something in a group of people or things: The victim was able to pick out her attacker from a police lineup.

pick sth ↔ over phr. v.

to examine a group of things carefully in order to choose the ones you want: Wash and pick over the beans.

pick up phr. v.

1 LIFT UP pick sb/sth ↔ up to lift something or someone up: Pick me up, Daddy! | I picked up the phone (=answered the phone) just as it stopped ringing. | He knelt down to pick up his keys. → see picture on page A9

2 GO GET SB/STH pick sb/sth ↔ up to go somewhere, usually in a vehicle, in order to get someone or something: I'll pick up my stuff around six, okay? | What time should we pick you up at the airport?

3 BUY pick sth ↔ up to buy something: Will you pick up something for dinner on your way home? | The company is picking up the bill/tab (=paying) for my computer.

4 CLEAN A PLACE pick sth ↔ up to put things away neatly, or to clean a place by doing this: Straighten your room and pick all those papers up. | Pick up the living room, please. | He never picks up after himself (=puts away the things he has used).

5 GET BETTER to improve: Sales should pick up before Christmas.

6 INCREASE pick up (sth) to increase or get faster: The car was gradually picking up speed (=going faster). | The wind had picked up considerably.

7 LEARN pick sth ↔ up to learn something without much effort by watching or listening to other people: I picked up some Korean when I was in the army.

8 ILLNESS pick sth ↔ up to get an illness from someone, or to become sick: She's picked up a cold from a child at school.

9 NOTICE pick sth ↔ up to notice, smell, or hear something, especially when this is difficult: The dogs were able to pick up the scent.

10 RADIO/SIGNALS pick sth ↔ up if a machine picks up a sound, movement, or signal, it is able to notice it or receive it: We didn't pick anything up on radar. | Our TV doesn't pick up channel 26 very well.

11 START AGAIN pick (sth ↔) up to begin a conversation, meeting, etc. again, starting from the point where it stopped earlier: We'll pick up where we left off after lunch.

12 POLICE pick sb ↔ up if the police pick someone up, they find him/her and take him/her to the police station: Carr was picked up and taken in for questioning.

13 SEX pick sb ↔ up to talk to someone you do not know because you want to have sex with him/her: Some guy at the bar was trying to pick up Audrey.

14 pick up the pieces (of sth) to get a situation back to normal after something bad has happened: Republicans will try to pick up the pieces after major losses in the last election.

pick up on sth phr. v.

to notice something about the way someone is behaving, especially when it is not easy to notice: Children quickly pick up on tensions between their parents.

pick² n. 1 [U] choice: There are four kinds of cake, so you can take your pick. | She'll be able to have her pick of colleges (=choose any one she wants). 2 the pick of sth (informal) the best thing or things in a group: The Doles will get the pick of the puppies. 3 [C] a pickaxe 4 [C] a small flat object that you use for playing an instrument such as a GUITAR pick-ax /'pɪk-æks/ n. [C] a large tool that you use for breaking up the ground. It consists of a curved iron bar with a sharp point on each end, and a long handle.

pick-er /'pɪkə/ n. [C] a person or machine that picks things such as fruit, cotton, etc.

pick-et¹ /'pɪkɪt/ also 'picket line n. [C] a group or line of people who picket a factory, store, etc.: Two workers were hurt today trying to cross the picket line (=trying to work during a STRIKE).

picket² v. [I,T] to stand or march in front of a factory, store, etc. to protest something, or to stop people from going in to work during a STRIKE (=time when a group of workers refuse to work): Protesters are still picketing outside the White House gates.

'picket fence n. [C] a fence made of a line of strong pointed sticks fastened in the ground pick-le¹ /'pɪkəl/ n. 1 [C,U] a CUCUMBER preserved in VINEGAR or salt water, or a piece of this: a dill pickle 2 be in a pickle (old-fashioned) to be in a difficult situation pickle² v. [T] to preserve food in VINEGAR or salt water —pickled adj.: pickled onions

'pick-me-up n. [C] (informal) something that makes you feel cheerful or gives you more energy, especially a drink or medicine

pick-pock-et /'pɪk,pəkɪt/ n. [C] someone who steals things from people's pockets, especially in a crowd

THESAURUS offender, thief, robber, burglar, shoplifter → CRIMINAL²

pick-up /'pɪkʌp/ n. 1 [C] also pickup truck a small truck with low sides that is used for carrying goods 2 [C] an occasion when someone or something is taken away from a place: There is a regular garbage pickup on Tuesdays. 3 [U] the ability of a car to reach a high speed in a short time: My old car didn't have much pickup. 4 [C] an increase or improvement in something: a pickup in sales pick-y /'pɪki/ adj. (comparative pickier, superlative pickiest) (informal, disapproving) someone who is picky is difficult to make happy because s/he only likes certain things (SYN fussy): He's not a very picky eater.

pic-nic¹ /'pɪknɪk/ n. [C] 1 an occasion when people take food and eat it outdoors, for example in a park: We used to have picnics down by the creek. | Do you want to go for a picnic this Saturday? 2 be no picnic (informal) to be difficult or unpleasant: A two-hour bus ride to work every day is no picnic! [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French pic-nique]

picnic² v. (past tense and past participle picnicked, present participle picnicking) [I] to have a picnic pic-to-ri-al /pɪk'tɔːriəl/ adj. relating to or using pictures: a pictorial history of Montana pic-ture¹ /'pɪktʃə/ n.

1 IMAGE [C] a painting, drawing, or photograph: a picture of Nelson Mandela | Draw/paint a picture of your house. | a group of tourists taking pictures (=taking photographs) | Leo's picture (=photograph of him) is in the newspaper.

THESAURUS

sketch – a picture that is drawn quickly painting – a picture made using paint snapshot – a photograph that is taken quickly portrait – a painting, drawing, or photograph of a person cartoon – a funny drawing in a newspaper or magazine that tells a story or a joke caricature – a funny drawing of someone that makes a particular feature of his/her face or body look bigger, worse, etc. than it really is illustration – a picture in a book poster – a large picture printed on paper, used in order to advertise something or as a decoration on a wall image – a picture seen on a screen, or a formal word for what is in a picture → CAMERA drawing, doodle, comic strip → DRAWING

2 SITUATION [singular] the general situation in a place, organization, etc.: The political picture has greatly changed since March. | You're missing the big/bigger/wider picture (=the situation considered as a whole).

3 DESCRIPTION [C usually singular] a description that gives you an idea of what something is like: To get a better picture of how the company is doing, look at sales. | The book paints a clear picture of life in ancient Rome.

4 be in/out of the picture (informal) to be involved or not be involved in a situation: With his main rival out of the picture, the mayor has a chance of winning the election.

5 ON A SCREEN [C] the image that you see on a television or in a movie: Something's wrong with the picture.

6 get the picture (spoken) to understand something: I don't want you around here any more – get the picture?

7 MOVIE [C] (old-fashioned) a movie: Grandma loved going to the pictures. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin pictura, from pictus, past participle of pingere “to paint”]

picture² v. [T] 1 to imagine something, especially by making an image in your mind: I can still picture him standing there with his uniform on. | I can't picture myself as a mother.

THESAURUS imagine, visualize, envision, envisage → IMAGINE

2 to show something or someone in a photograph, painting, or drawing: The governor is pictured here with his wife and children.

'picture book n. [C] a children's story book that has a lot of pictures in it pic-tur-esque /ˌpɪktʃə'resk/ adj. attractive and interesting: a picturesque seaside town pid-dling /'pɪdlɪŋ/ adj. (informal) small and unimportant: a piddling amount of money

pidg-in /'pɪdʒən/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a language that is a mixture of two other languages, which people who do not speak each other's languages will use to talk to each other [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 from a Chinese pronunciation of the English word “business”] pie /paɪ/ n. 1 [C,U] a food usually made with fruit baked inside a covering of PASTRY: a piece/slice of apple pie 2 as easy as pie (informal) very easy 3 a piece/share/slice of the pie (informal) a share of something such as money or profit: Landers wants a bigger slice of the pie. 4 pie in the sky (informal) a good plan or promise that you do not think will happen: Hope of a cure is just pie in the sky.

piece¹ /pis/ n. [C]

1 PART OF A WHOLE a part of something that has been separated, broken, or cut off from the rest of it: Do you want a piece of pizza? | There were pieces of broken glass everywhere. | The vase lay in pieces (=in small parts) on the floor. | Cut the chicken into pieces, and put it in a roasting pan.

THESAURUS

scrap – a small piece of paper, cloth, etc.: He took out the scrap of paper on which he'd written the address.

chunk – a thick piece of something solid that does not have an even shape: a stew filled with large chunks of chicken lump – a small piece of something solid that does not have a definite shape: a lump of metal fragment – a small piece that has broken off something, especially glass or metal: Fragments of glass from the crash were still on the street.

crumb – a very small piece of bread, cake, etc.: She scattered crumbs for the birds.

slice – a thin, flat piece of bread, meat, etc. cut from a larger piece: a slice of blueberry pie strip – a long narrow piece of paper, cloth, etc.: She tore a strip off her shirt to make a bandage.

block – a piece of a hard material such as wood or stone with straight sides: a block of wood

2 PART OF A SET a single thing of a particular type, often part of a set of things or part of a larger thing: a piece of paper | a chess piece | We found this perfect piece of land on the river. | a five-piece band (=one with five members) → PART¹

3 CONNECTED PART one of several different parts that can be connected together to make something: the pieces of a jigsaw puzzle | The cars were shipped in pieces (=separated into pieces) and then reassembled.

4 a piece of advice/information/gossip etc. some advice, information, etc.: Let me give you a piece of advice: don't ask her about her mother.

5 go to pieces to become so upset or nervous that you cannot think or behave normally: When he died, Liz just went to pieces.

6 smash/tear/rip etc. sth to pieces to damage something severely by breaking it into many parts: A dog had torn the bird to pieces.

7 (all) in one piece not damaged or injured: I'm glad the china arrived all in one piece.

8 give sb a piece of your mind (informal) to tell someone that you are very angry with him/her: I went back to the store and gave the manager a piece of my mind.

9 be a piece of cake (informal) to be very easy to do: Raising four children hasn't been a piece of cake.

10 ART/MUSIC ETC. something that has been written or made by an artist, musician, or writer: an impressive piece of art | They performed a piece by Mozart.

piece² v.

piece sth ↔ together phr. v. 1 to use all the facts or information that you have in order to understand a situation: Police are still trying to piece together a motive for the shooting. 2 to put all the parts of something back into the correct position or order piece-meal /'pɪsmɪl/ adj., adv. happening or done slowly in separate stages that are not planned or related: Changes were introduced in piecemeal fashion. | The house was filled with old furniture they'd bought piecemeal.

piece-work /'pi:swɜ:k/ n. [U] work for which you are paid according to the number of things you produce rather than the number of hours you work

'pie chart n. [C] MATH a circle divided into several parts that shows how big the different parts of a total amount are → see picture at CHART¹ pier /pɪr/ n. [C] 1 a structure that is built out into the water so that boats can stop next to it or people can walk along it: We were standing at the end of the pier, watching the boats. 2 a thick stone, wooden, or metal post used for supporting something such as a bridge pierce /pɪrs/ v. [T] 1 to make a hole in or through something, using an object with a sharp point: Tiffany's getting her ears pierced (=having a hole put in her ears for wearing jewelry). | A bullet pierced his body.

THESAURUS

make a hole in sth – to cause a hole to appear in something: Make a hole in the bottom of the can using a hammer and nail.

prick – to make a small hole in the surface of something, using a sharp point: She pricked her finger with the needle.

punch – to make a hole in something using a metal tool or other sharp object: I had to punch an extra hole in the belt to get it to fit.

puncture – to make a small hole in something, so that air or liquid can get out: One bullet punctured his lung.

drill – to make a hole using a special tool: They drilled a 180-foot-deep well.

bore – to make a deep round hole in a hard surface: Workers bored a hole in the wall.

2 (literary) if light or sound pierces something, you suddenly see or hear it: The car's headlights pierced the darkness.

piercing /ˈpɪərɪŋ/ adj. 1 a piercing sound is high, loud, and not nice to listen to: a piercing cry/scream

THESAURUS

high, high-pitched, shrill, squeaky → HIGH¹

2 a piercing wind is very cold 3 someone with piercing eyes seems to know what you are thinking when s/he looks at you: her piercing gaze

pi-e-ty /ˈpaɪəti/ n. [U] respect for God and religion, shown in the way you behave pig¹ /pɪɡ/ n. [C] 1 a farm animal with short legs, a fat body, and a curled tail. Pigs are kept for their meat. 2 (spoken) an impolite word meaning someone who eats too much, is very dirty, or is offensive in some way: You ate all the pizza, you pig.

pig² v. (pigged, pigging) pig out phr. v. (informal) to eat a lot of food all at once: We pigged out on ice cream last night.

pi-geon /ˈpɪdʒən/ n. [C] a gray bird with short legs that is common in cities [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French pijon, from Late Latin pipio “young bird”] pi-geon-hole¹ /ˈpɪdʒən,hoʊl/ n. [C] one of a set of small boxes built into a desk, or into a frame on a wall, into which letters or papers can be put pigeonhole² v. [T] to decide unfairly that someone or something belongs to a particular group or type: Hijuelos resists being pigeonholed as strictly a “Latino writer.”

'pigeon-toed adj. having feet that point in rather than straight forward when you walk pig-gy /ˈpɪɡi/ n. (plural piggies) [C] (spoken) a pig – used especially by children or when talking to children pig-gy-back ride /ˈpɪɡi,bæk ˌraɪd/ n. [C] a way of carrying a child by putting him/her on your back —piggyback adv.

'piggy bank n. [C] a small container, sometimes in the shape of a pig, used especially by children for saving coins pig-head-ed /ˈpɪɡ,hɛdɪd/ adj. (disapproving) determined to do things the way you want even if there are good reasons not to [SYN] stubborn pig-let /ˈpɪɡlɪt/ n. [C] a young pig pig-ment /ˈpɪgmənt/ n. [C,U] BIOLOGY a natural substance that makes skin, hair, plants, etc. a particular color pig-men-ta-tion /ˌpɪgmənˈteɪʃən/ n. [U] the natural color of living things pig-pen /ˈpɪɡpen/ also pig-sty /ˈpɪɡstaɪ/ (plural pigsties) n. [C] 1 a place on a farm where pigs are kept 2 (informal) a place that is very dirty or messy: Your bedroom is a pigpen!

pig-tail /ˈpɪɡteɪl/ n. [C] one of two long lengths of hair that has been pulled together and tied at either side of the head, worn especially by young girls: a girl with her hair in pigtails → BRAID¹, HAIRSTYLE, PONYTAIL pike /paɪk/ n. [C] 1 (plural pikes) a large fish that eats other fish and lives in rivers and lakes 2 (informal) a TURNPIKE

pile¹ /paɪl/ n. 1 [C] a large mass of things collected or thrown together in the shape of a small hill: huge piles of garbage | a pile of snow | He raked the leaves into small piles.

THESAURUS

heap – a large messy pile of things: A heap of books and papers lay on the floor.

mound – a pile of something with a round shape: a small mound of rice on the plate stack – a neat pile of things: a stack of books on the table drift – a large pile of snow, sand, etc. that has been blown by the wind: a ten-foot snow drift by the side of the road

2 [C] a neat collection of similar things put one on top of the other [SYN] stack: a pile of folded clothes 3 piles of sth/a pile of sth (informal) a lot of something: I have piles of work to do tonight. | She's making piles of money at her new job.

pile² v. 1 [I,T] also pile up to make a pile by collecting things together: A lot of dishes had piled up in the sink. 2 [T] to fill something or cover a surface with a lot of something: a plate piled high with spaghetti pile in/into sth phr. v. (informal) if a group of people pile into a place or vehicle, they all try to get into it quickly and at the same time: We all piled into the car and left.

pile out phr. v. (informal) if a group of people pile out of a place or vehicle, they all try to get out of it quickly and at the same time: As soon as we stopped, the kids piled out and ran to the beach.

pile up phr. v. to become larger in quantity or amount, in a way that is difficult to manage: Debts from the business were piling up quickly.

pile-up /ˈpaɪlʌp/ n. [C] a traffic accident involving many vehicles: a 16-car pileup

THESAURUS accident, crash, collision, wreck → ACCIDENT

pil-fer /ˈpɪlfə/ v. [I,T] to steal things that are not worth much: He was caught pilfering from the office.

THESAURUS steal, burglarize, rob, shoplift, rip off sth → STEAL¹

P

pil-grim /ˈpɪlgrɪm/ n. [C] a religious person who travels a long way to a holy place [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French peligrin, from Latin peregrinus “foreigner”] pil-grim-age /ˈpɪlgrɪmɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] a trip to a holy place for a religious reason: Every year, about two million Muslims make the pilgrimage to Mecca. → TRAVEL²

pil-ing /ˈpaɪlɪŋ/ n. [C] a heavy post made of wood, cement, or metal, used for supporting a building or bridge pill /pɪl/ n. [C] 1 a small solid piece of medicine that you swallow: She’s taking pills to control her blood pressure. | sleeping pills

THESAURUS medicine, tablet, capsule, drug, medication, prescription → MEDICINE

2 the pill a pill taken regularly by some women in order to avoid having babies: Mary has been on the pill for years now. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin pilula, from pila “ball”]

pil-lage /ˈpɪlɪdʒ/ v. [I,T] if soldiers pillage a place in a war, they steal a lot of things and do a lot of damage

pil-lar /ˈpɪlə/ n. [C] 1 a tall solid post used as a support for part of a building: Eight massive stone pillars supported the roof. 2 a pillar of the community/church etc. an active and important member of a group, organization, etc.

pil-low /ˈpɪləʊ/ n. [C] a cloth bag filled with soft material that you put your head on when you sleep [ORIGIN: Old English pyle, from Latin pulvinus] → see picture at BED¹

pil-low-case /ˈpɪləʊ,keɪs/ n. [C] a cloth cover for a pillow pi-lot /ˈpaɪlət/ n. [C] 1 someone who operates the controls of an aircraft or spacecraft: an airline pilot 2 a television program that is made in order to test whether people like it and would watch it again in the future 3 pilot program/project/study etc. a test that is done to see if an idea or product will be successful [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French pilote, from Italian pedota, from Greek pedon “oar”] — pilot v. [T]

‘pilot light n. [C] a small gas flame that burns all the time and is used for lighting larger gas BURNERS pimp /pɪmp/ n. [C] a man who makes money by controlling PROSTITUTES (=women who have sex with men for money)

pim-ple /ˈpɪmpəl/ n. [C] a small raised red spot on your skin, especially on your face — pimp adj.

THESAURUS blemish, bruise, scar, zit, wart, blister, freckle, mole → MARK²

PIN /pɪn/ n. Personal Identification Number a number that you use when you get money from a machine using a plastic card pin¹ /pɪn/ n. [C] 1 a short thin piece of metal with a sharp point at one end, used especially for fastening pieces of cloth together 2 a piece of metal, sometimes containing jewels, that you fasten to your clothes to wear as a decoration 3 one of the bottle-shaped objects that you try to knock down in a game of BOWLING 4 a thin piece of metal used to fasten things together, especially broken bones: He has to have pins put in his ankle. [ORIGIN: Old English pinn] → CLOTHESPIN, PINS AND NEEDLES, ROLLING PIN, SAFETY PIN

pin² v. (pinned, pinning) 1 [T] to fasten something somewhere, or join things together with a pin or pins: Can you pin this announcement on the bulletin board for me? | He wore campaign buttons pinned to his lapels. 2 pin your hopes on sth/sb to hope that something will happen or someone will help you because all your plans depend on this: I hope she’s not pinning all her hopes on winning. 3 [T] to make someone unable to move by putting a lot of pressure or weight on him/her: He pinned her arms to her sides. | He was pinned under the car.

pin sb/sth down phr. v. 1 to make someone decide something or tell you what the decision is: I couldn’t pin him down to a definite date for the meeting. 2 to understand something clearly or be able to describe exactly what it is: I can’t pin down his accent.

pin-ball /ˈpɪnbɔl/ n. [U] a game played on a machine with a sloping board. You push buttons to try to keep a ball from rolling off the board: a pinball machine pin-cer /ˈpɪnsə, ˈpɪntʃə/ n. [C] one of the pair of CLAWS (=sharp curved nails) that some insects and SHELLFISH have → see picture on page A2 pinch¹ /pɪntʃ/ v. 1 [T] to press a part of someone’s skin very tightly between your finger and thumb: She leaned over and pinched his cheeks. → see picture on page A8 2 [I,T] if your clothes, shoes, etc. pinch you, they are too tight and hurt you

THESAURUS hurt, sting, smart → HURT¹

3 pinch pennies to be careful to spend as little money as possible

pinch² n. [C] 1 pinch of salt/pepper etc. a small amount of salt, pepper, etc. that you can hold between your finger and thumb 2 an act of pinching someone: She gave him a pinch on the cheek. 3 in a pinch if necessary in a difficult or urgent situation: I have room for four more people, five in a pinch.

pinched /pɪntʃt/ adj. 1 not having enough money to do what you want: financially pinched schools 2 a pinched face looks thin and unhealthy, for example because the person is sick, cold, or tired

'pinch-hit v. [I] 1 to BAT² instead of another player in a game of baseball 2 to do something for someone else because s/he is suddenly not able to do it: Could you pinch-hit for Larry in the meeting today? —pinch-hitter n. [C] pin-cush-ion /ˈpɪn,kʊʃən/ n. [C] a small soft object into which you stick pins until you need to use them pine¹ /paɪn/ also 'pine tree n. [C,U] a tree with long leaves shaped like needles, or the wood of this tree [ORIGIN: 1000–1100 Latin pinus] pine² also pine away v. [I] to gradually become weaker, less active, and less healthy because you are very unhappy

pine for sb/sth phr. v. to be unhappy because you cannot be with a person, be in a place, or experience something that happened in the past again: Ten years after Amanda left, he was still pining for her. | After two months in France, I was pining for home.

pine-ap-ple /ˈpaɪn,æpəl/ n. [C,U] a large yellow-brown tropical fruit, or its sweet yellow flesh → see picture on page 414

'pine cone n. [C] the brown seed container of the pine ping /pɪŋ/ n. [C] a short high RINGING sound —ping v. [I] ping-pong, Ping Pong /ˈpɪŋpɑŋ, -pɔŋ/ n. [U] (trademark) an indoor game played on a large table, in which two people use PADDLES to hit a small ball to each other across a low net (SYN) table tennis pink /pɪŋk/ adj. pale red: a pink dress —pink n. [C,U] pink-ie, pinky /ˈpɪŋki/ n. (plural pinkies) [C] the smallest finger on your hand → see picture at HAND¹ pink 'slip n. [C] (informal) a written warning telling you that your job is going to end because there is not enough work pin-na-cle /ˈpɪnəkəl/ n. 1 [singular] the most successful, powerful, or exciting part of something: It took Carlson only eight years to reach the pinnacle of his profession. 2 [C] EARTH SCIENCES the top of a high mountain 3 [C] a pointed stone decoration like a small tower on top of a church or castle pin-point¹ /ˈpɪnpɔɪnt/ v. [T] to say exactly what something is, or exactly where someone or something is: It was impossible to pinpoint the cause of the crash. | Can you pinpoint where you last saw him?

pinpoint² adj. with pinpoint accuracy very exactly: the plane's ability to drop bombs with pinpoint accuracy pinpoint³ n. [C] a very small area or amount of something: a tiny pinpoint of light pin-prick /ˈpɪn,pɪk/ n. [C] a very small hole or mark in something, like one made by a pin pins and needles n. 1 [U] an uncomfortable feeling that you get, especially when you have not moved part of your body for a long time and the supply of blood has stopped flowing correctly 2 be on pins and needles to be very nervous: Mom's been on pins and needles waiting to hear from you.

pin-stripe /ˈpɪnstraɪp/ n. [C] one of the thin light-colored lines that form a pattern on dark cloth: a blue pinstripe suit —pinstriped adj.

pint /paɪnt/ n. [C] a unit for measuring liquid, equal to 2 cups or 0.4732 liters: a pint of milk pin-up /ˈpɪnʌp/ n. [C] 1 a picture of an attractive or famous person, often a woman wearing little clothing 2 someone who appears in one of these pictures pi-o-neer¹ /ˌpaɪəˈniə/ n. [C] 1 one of the first people to do something that other people will later develop or continue to do: one of the pioneers of the personal computer industry 2 one of the first people to travel to a new or unknown place and begin living there, farming, etc. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Old French peonier “soldier,” from peon] pioneer² v. [T] to be the first person to do, invent, or use something: a hospital pioneering a new type of surgery pi-ous /ˈpaɪəs/ adj. having strong religious beliefs, and showing this in the way you behave

THESAURUS religious, devout, god-fearing, orthodox → RELIGIOUS

pipe¹ /paɪp/ n. [C] 1 a tube through which a liquid or gas flows: a water pipe | The pipes had frozen and we had no water. 2 a thing used for smoking tobacco, consisting of a small tube with a container shaped like a bowl at one end: Harry stood on the porch, smoking his pipe. 3 one of the metal tubes that air is forced through in an ORGAN 4 a simple musical instrument like a tube, that you blow through pipe² v. [T] to send a liquid or gas through a pipe to another place: oil piped from Alaska pipe down phr. v. (spoken) to stop talking or making a noise, and become calmer and less excited: Pipe down! I'm trying to listen to this!

pipe up phr. v. (informal) to suddenly say something, especially when you have been quiet until then: Dennis piped up, saying he didn't agree.

P

'pipe dream n. [C] a hope, idea, plan, etc. that will probably never work or happen: Money and fame – isn't that all a pipe dream?

pipe-line /'paɪp-laɪn/ n. [C] 1 a long line of connecting pipes, used for carrying gas, oil, etc. over long distances 2 be in the pipeline if a plan, idea, or event is in the pipeline, it is still being prepared, but it will happen or be completed soon pi-pette /paɪ'pet/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a thin glass tube for sucking up exact amounts of liquid, used especially in chemistry pip-ing /'paɪpɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 several pipes, or a system of pipes, used for carrying a liquid or gas: copper piping 2 thin cloth CORDS used as decorations on clothes and furniture pip-ing² adv. pip-ing hot very hot: a pot of pip-ing hot tea pip-squeak /'pɪpskwɪk/ n. [C] (spoken, old-fashioned) someone who you think is not worth attention or respect, especially because s/he is small or young: Shut up, you little pipsqueak!

pi-quant /pi'kʌnt, 'pɪkənt/ adj. (formal) 1 having a pleasantly spicy taste: a piquant chili sauce 2 interesting and exciting: piquant photos of life in Paris —piquancy /'pɪkənsi/ n. [U] pi-que¹ /pɪk/ v. [T] 1 pique sb's interest/curiosity to make someone very interested in something: Emker's life story piqued the public's interest. 2 (formal) to make someone feel annoyed or upset pi-que² n. [U] (formal) a feeling of being annoyed or upset: Greta left in a fit of pique.

pi-ra-cy /'paɪrəsi/ n. [U] 1 the act of illegally copying and selling books, tapes, videos, computer programs, etc.: software piracy 2 the crime of attacking and stealing from ships at sea pi-ra-nha /pə'rænə, -'ræn-/ n. [C] a South American fish with sharp teeth that lives in rivers and eats flesh pi-rate¹ /'paɪrɪt/ n. [C] 1 someone who sails on the oceans, attacking other boats and stealing things from them 2 someone who illegally copies and sells another person's work: We're losing thousands of dollars to video pirates. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin pirata, from Greek peirates, from peiran "to attack"] pirate² v. [T] to illegally copy and sell another person's work: pirated CDs

THESAURUS copy, reproduce, duplicate, forge → COPY²

pir-ou-ette /'pɪru'et/ n. [C] a dance movement in which the dancer turns very quickly, standing on one toe or the front part of one foot —pirouette v. [I]

Pis-ces /'paɪsɪz/ n. 1 [U] the twelfth sign of the ZODIAC, represented by two fish 2 [C] someone born between February 19 and March 20 pis-ta-chi-o /prɪ'stæʃi,ʊ/ n. (plural pistachios) [C] a small green nut pis-tol /'pɪstl/ n. [C] a small gun that you can use with one hand [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French pistolet, from German, from Czech pištal "pipe"] pis-ton /'pɪstən/ n. [C] a part of an engine, consisting of a short solid piece of metal inside a tube, that moves up and down to make the other parts of the engine move pit¹ /pɪt/ n.

1 HOLE [C] a hole in the ground, especially one made by digging: a barbecue pit

2 MARK [C] a small hollow mark in the surface of something: There are tiny scratches and pits on the windshield.

3 MESSY PLACE [singular] (spoken) a house or room that is dirty, messy, or in bad condition: Erica's house is a total pit!

4 be the pits (spoken) to be very bad: My job is the pits.

5 in the pit of your stomach if you have a feeling in the pit of your stomach, you have a sick or tight feeling in your stomach, usually because you are nervous or afraid: The strange noises gave her a funny feeling in the pit of her stomach.

6 IN FRUIT [C] BIOLOGY the single large hard seed in some fruits: a peach pit → see picture on page 414

7 FOR CARS the pit/pits [C] a place beside a racetrack where a race car can quickly get more gas or be repaired

8 an ORCHESTRA PIT

9 a MINE²

pit² v. (pitted, pitting) [T] 1 to take out the single large hard seed inside some fruits 2 to put small marks or holes in the surface of something: The disease had pitted and scarred his skin.

pit sb/sth against sb/sth phr. v. to test your strength, ability, power, etc. against someone else: This week's big game pits Houston against Miami.

pi-ta /'pɪtə/ also 'pita bread n. [C,U] a type of flat bread that can be opened so you can put food into it

'pit bull also 'pit bull 'terrier n. [C] a short dog that is extremely strong and often violent pitch¹ /pɪtʃ/ v.

1 BASEBALL [I,T] to aim and throw the ball to the BATTER in baseball: Who's pitching for the Red Sox today? | He pitched three innings in Monday night's game.

THESAURUS throw, toss, chuck, hurl, fling, pass, lob → THROW¹

2 THROW [T] to throw something, especially with a lot of force: Carl tore up Amy's letter and pitched it into the fire.

3 FALL [I,T] to fall suddenly and heavily in a particular direction, or to make someone or something fall in this way: A sudden stop pitched her into the windshield. | Daley pitched forward and fell from the stage.

4 VOICE/MUSIC [T] to make a sound be produced at a particular level: The song is pitched too high for me.

5 pitch a tent to set up a tent

6 SELL/PERSUADE [I,T] (informal) to try to persuade someone to buy or do something: The meeting is your chance to pitch your ideas to the boss.

7 SAY/WRITE [T] to aim a product, film, etc. at a particular group of people, or to describe something in a particular way in order to sell it: a TV show pitched at children

8 SHIP/PLANE [I] if a ship or an aircraft pitches, it moves up and down in an uncontrolled way with the movement of the water or air pitch in phr. v. (informal) to join others and help with an activity: If we all pitch in, it won't take very long to finish.

pitch² n. 1 [C] a throw of the ball to the BATTER in baseball: The first pitch was a strike. 2 [C] how high or low someone's voice is 3 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note, or how high or low a musical note is: The high notes rang out on pitch. 4 [C] (informal) the things someone says in order to persuade people to buy or do something: *a sales pitch 5 [singular, U] the strength of your feelings or opinions about something: *Their excitement rose to fever pitch (=a very excited level). 6 [U] a dark sticky substance that is used on roofs, the bottoms of ships, etc. to stop water coming through pitch 'black adj. completely black or dark: She turned off the lights, and suddenly it was pitch black.

pitch-er /'pɪtʃə/ n. [C] 1 a container used for holding and pouring liquids, with a handle and a SPOUT (=shaped part for pouring): a pitcher of beer 2 the baseball player who throws the balls to the BATTER pitch-fork /'pɪtʃfɔrk/ n. [C] a farm tool with a long handle and two or three long curved metal points, used especially for lifting HAY (=dried cut grass) pit-e-ous /'pɪtjəs/ adj. (literary) making you feel pity: a pitious cry pit-fall /'pɪtfɔl/ n. [C] a problem or difficulty that is likely to happen: the pitfalls of fame

pith-y /'pɪθi/ adj. spoken or written in strong clear language without wasting any words: pithy comments* pit-i-ful /'pɪtɪfəl/ adj. 1 making you feel pity or sympathy: a pitiful sight 2 very bad in quality: His grades this semester are pitiful. —pitifully adv.

pit-i-less /'pɪtɪls/ adj. showing no pity: a pitiless dictator

'pit stop n. 1 make a pit stop (spoken) to stop when driving on a long trip in order to get food, gas, etc., or to use the toilet 2 [C] a time when a race car stops beside the track in order to get more gas or be quickly repaired pit-tance /'pɪtɪns/ n. [singular] a very small or unfairly small amount of money: She works for a pittance.

pi-tu-i-tar-y /pə'tuə,teri/ n. (plural pituitaries) also pi'tuitary gland [C] BIOLOGY the small organ at the base of your brain which produces HORMONES that control the growth and development of your body —pituitary adj.: The growth hormone somatotropin is a pituitary protein essential to the growth process. → see picture at BRAIN¹ pit-y¹ /'pɪti/ n. 1 [U] sympathy you feel for someone who is suffering or unhappy: I don't need your pity! | He doesn't appear to have any pity for the victims of the war. 2 [singular] used to show that you are disappointed about something and you wish things could happen differently: It's a pity (that) so much time was wasted. | "We're leaving tomorrow." "What a pity!" 3 take/have pity on sb to feel sympathy for someone and do something to help him/her [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French pitē, from Latin pietas "piety, pity"]

pity² v. (pitied, pitied) [T] to feel sympathy for someone because s/he is in a bad situation: I pity anyone who has to live with Sherry.

piv-ot¹ /'pɪvət/ n. [C] 1 a central point or pin on which something balances or turns 2 also pivot point the most important idea or event on which all the other parts of a plan, situation, process, etc. are based pivot² v. [I,T] to turn or balance on a central point, or to make something do this: The table-top pivots on two metal pins.

pivot on sth phr. v. to depend on or be planned around one important thing, event, idea, etc.: Her future pivoted on their answer.

piv-ot-al /'pɪvətəl/ adj. a pivotal time, event, or person has a very important effect on the way something develops: Parker played a pivotal role in getting the deal.

pix-el /'pɪksəl/ n. [C] IT the smallest unit of an image on a computer screen pix-ie /'pɪksi/ n. [C] a very small imaginary creature with magic powers that looks like a person piz-za /'pɪtsə/ n. [C,U] a thin flat round bread, baked with TOMATO, cheese, and usually vegetables or meat on top: *a slice of pizza [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Italian "pie"]

piz-zazz /pə'zæz/ n. [U] (informal) an exciting quality or style: *a theater show that needs more pizzazz piz-ze-ri-a /'pɪtsəriə/ n. [C] a restaurant that serves pizza pj's, PJ's /'pi dʒeɪz/ n. [plural] (spoken) PAJAMAS

plac-ard /'plækəd, -kɑrd/ n. [C] a large sign or advertisement that you carry or put on a wall pla-cate /'pleɪkeɪt, 'plæ-/ v. [T] (formal) to make someone stop feeling angry: The airline gave out free drinks in an effort to placate angry customers.

place¹ /'pleɪs/ n. [C]

1 AREA/SPACE/BUILDING ETC. any space or area, for example a particular point on a surface or a room, building, town, city, etc.: Keep your money in a safe place. | a beautiful place surrounded by mountains | She was born in a place called Black River Falls. | The water is 30 feet deep in places (=in some areas). | a sore place on my knee position – the exact place where someone or something is, in relation to other things: We need to know the enemy's position.

THESAURUS

spot (informal) – a place, especially a pleasant one where you spend time: It's a favorite spot for picnics.

point – an exact place, for example on a map: At this point the path gets narrower.

location – the place where a hotel, store, office, etc. is, or where a movie is made: The apartment's in an ideal location.

site – a place where something is going to be built, or where something important happened: the site for the new airport | an archeological site scene – a place where an accident or crime happened: Firefighters arrived at the scene within minutes.

2 WHERE YOU DO STH a building or area that is used for, or is suitable for, a particular purpose or activity: I spent 20 minutes trying to find a place to park. | a place of worship (=a church, mosque, etc.) | There's a nice Korean place (=restaurant) on the corner. | Mexico's a great place for a vacation. | A library is no place for a party.

3 take place to happen: The earthquake took place at about 5:00 this morning.

4 WHERE SB LIVES (informal) the house, apartment, or room where someone lives: I'm going over to Jeff's place (=his house) for dinner. | For months I've been looking for a new place to live.

THESAURUS

home, house, residence, dwelling, abode → HOME¹

5 SEAT/POSITION IN LINE a space where you can sit, or a position in a line: Is this place taken (=being used)? | Can you save my place (=not let anyone else use it)?

6 RIGHT POSITION/ORDER the right or usual position or order: Put the CDs back in their place. | By six o'clock, everything was in place for the party.

7 in place of sb/sth instead of someone or something: Try using mixed herbs in place of salt on vegetables.

8 in sb's place used when talking about what you would do if you were in someone else's situation: What would you do in my place?

9 IMPORTANCE the importance or position that someone or something has, compared to other people or things: No one could ever take her place (=be as important or loved as she is). | Carla has friends in high places (=with important ranks in society). | By the 1950s, cars had taken the place of (=were used instead of) trains. | There will always be a place for you here (=a position for you to have).

10 RIGHT OCCASION the right occasion or situation: This isn't the place to talk business.

11 first/second/third etc. place first, second, etc. position in a race or competition: Jerry finished in third place.

12 in the first/second/third place (spoken) used in order to introduce a series of points in an argument or discussion: Well, in the first place, I can't afford it, and in the second place, I'm not really interested.

13 all over the place (informal) everywhere: There were children all over the place!

14 it is not sb's place (to do sth) if it is not your place to do something, you do not have the duty or right to do it: It's not her place to tell me how to raise my kids.

15 out of place not appropriate for or comfortable in a particular situation: I felt really out of place at Cindy's wedding.

16 put sb in his/her place to show someone that s/he is not as important, intelligent, etc. as s/he thinks s/he is 17 go places (informal) to become successful: Work hard and you could really go places.

18 also Place used in the names of short streets: I live at 114 Seaview Place.

place² v. [T] 1 to put something somewhere, especially with care (SYN put): Seth placed his trophy on the top shelf. | She placed the money in a large brown envelope. 2 to put someone or something in a particular situation: You'll be placed with the advanced students. | This places me in a very difficult position. 3 to decide that someone or something is important or valuable: Your father has placed great trust in you. 4 can't place sb to recognize someone, but be unable to remember where you have met him/her before: I know the name, but I can't quite place her. 5 to arrange for something to be done: The police department placed an order for six new cars. | He placed an ad/advertisement in the local paper. 6 to find a job or place to live for someone: The agency had placed her in a local firm. | He was later placed with a foster family.

pla-ce-bo /plə'sibou/ n. (plural placebos) [C] BIOLOGY a harmless substance such as water, that is given to a patient instead of medicine without telling him/her it is not a medicine, often as part of a test [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Latin "I shall please," from placere]

place-ment /'pleismənt/ n. [C,U] 1 the act of finding a place for someone to live, work, or go to college: a job placement | the college placement office (=where they help you find work) 2 the act of putting something or someone in a position: He wasn't satisfied with the furniture placement. | You'll need to take a placement test (=test that decides which level of class you can take).

place-name /'pleisneim/ n. [C] the name of a particular city, mountain, etc.

pla-cen-ta /plə'sentə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an ORGAN that forms inside a woman's UTERUS to feed a baby that has not been born yet plac-id /'plæsid/ adj. calm and peaceful: There was a placid expression on her face. | the placid waters of the lake —placidly adv.

THESAURUS calm, relaxed, laid-back, easygoing, mellow, cool, serene → CALM²

plagiarism /ˈpleɪdʒəˌrɪzəm/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the act of using someone else's words, ideas, or work and pretending they are your own, or the words, etc. themselves: She was accused of plagiarism in writing her thesis. | an article full of plagiarisms [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 plagiary “plagiarism” (17—19 centuries), from Latin plagiarius “thief”] —plagiarist n. [C] plagiarize /ˈpleɪdʒəˌraɪz/ v. [I,T] ENG. LANG. ARTS to take someone else's words, ideas, etc. and copy them, pretending that they are your own: The teacher accused me of having plagiarized.

plague¹ /pleɪg/ n. 1 [C,U] any disease that causes death and spreads quickly to a large number of people 2 a plague of rats/locusts etc. a very large and dangerous number of rats, etc.

plague² v. [T] to make someone suffer over a long period of time, or to cause trouble again and again: Gloria had always been plagued by ill health.

plaid /plæd/ n. [C,U] a pattern of crossed lines and squares, used especially on cloth —plaid adj.: a plaid work shirt plain¹ /pleɪn/ adj. 1 very clear, and easy to understand or recognize: It's quite plain that you don't agree. | Why don't you tell me in plain English (=without using technical or difficult words)? 2 without anything added or without decoration (SYN simple: plain yogurt | a plain blue suit | a sheet of plain paper (=paper with no lines on it) 3 showing clearly and honestly what you think about something: Albright was known for her plain speaking. 4 a woman or girl who is plain is unattractive — used in order to avoid saying this directly [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin planus “flat, level, clear”]

plain² n. [C] also plains a large area of flat land: a grassy plain | countless miles of plains plain³ adv. plain stupid/wrong/rude etc. (spoken) clearly and simply stupid, wrong, etc.: They're just plain lazy.

plain-clothes /ˈpleɪnˌkloʊz, -kloʊðz/ adj. plainclothes police wear ordinary clothes so that they can work without being recognized plain-ly /ˈpleɪnli/ adv. 1 in a way that is easy to see, hear, or understand: Tony was plainly nervous as he began his speech. 2 simply or without decoration: a plainly dressed young girl plain-tiff /ˈpleɪntɪf/ n. [C] LAW the person who brings a legal action against another person in a CIVIL COURT (=court of law that deals with the affairs of private citizens rather than crime) → DEFENDANT plain-tive /ˈpleɪntɪv/ adj. (literary) a plaintive sound is high, like someone crying, and sounds sad: the plaintive cry of the wolf

plan¹ /plæn/ n. [C] 1 something that you have decided to do or achieve: She has no plans to retire. | Brown's plans for the future | We made plans to go out and see him in the fall. | Do you have any plans for Friday night?

THESAURUS

plot/conspiracy — a secret plan to do something bad or illegal, especially a plan that involves a lot of people: a plot to assassinate the President scheme — a plan, especially to do something bad or illegal: He created an elaborate scheme to steal from his employer.

strategy — a careful plan aimed at achieving something difficult: the government's economic strategy schedule — a plan of what someone is going to do and when s/he is going to do it: My schedule looks pretty busy.

timetable — a plan that shows the exact times when something should happen: We had to adjust the timetable for construction.

2 a set of actions for achieving something in the future: plans for dealing with a major earthquake | Under the plan, 700 acres will become a park. | a business plan (=what your business will do) for the 21st century | the zoo's master plan (=main plan for the future) 3 health/pension/retirement etc. plan ECONOMICS an arrangement in which you pay money to a company, and they give you money back if you need medical care, stop working, etc. 4 a drawing of something such as a building, room, or machine, as it would be seen from above, showing the shape, size, parts, etc.: the plans for the new library

plan² v. (planned, planning) 1 [I,T] also plan out to think about something you want to do, and how you will do it: Mary's planning a 21st birthday party for her son. | Most problems can be avoided by careful/good planning. 2 [T] to intend to do something: How long do you plan on staying? | David plans to work part-time. 3 [T] to think about something you are going to make or build, and decide what it will look like: Planning a small garden is often difficult.

plane /pleɪn/ n. [C] 1 a vehicle that flies in the air and has wings and at least one engine (SYN air-plane: What time does your plane take off? | The plane landed at O'Hare Airport. | My son held my hand as we boarded the plane. 2 a level or standard of thought, conversation, etc.: a higher plane of intellectual curiosity 3 a tool that has a flat bottom with a sharp blade in it, used for making wooden surfaces smooth 4 MATH a completely flat surface in GEOMETRY plan-et /ˈplænɪt/ n. [C] 1 PHYSICS a very large round object in space, that moves around a star, such as the Sun: Mercury is the smallest planet. → SPACE¹ 2 the planet the Earth: weapons capable of destroying the planet | the richest goldmine on the planet [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French planete, from Late Latin planeta, from Greek planes “wanderer”] —planetary /ˈplænəˌtəri/ adj.

plan-e-tar-i-um /ˌplænəˈtəriəm/ n. [C] a building where lights on a curved ceiling show the movements of planets and stars plank /plæŋk/ n. [C] 1 a long narrow flat piece of wood, used for building 2 a feature or principle that a political party says is one of its aims → PLATFORM: Education is a central plank in the candidate’s platform.

plank-ton /ˈplæŋktən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY very small plants and animals that live in the ocean and are eaten by fish [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 German, Greek, from planktos “wandering,” from plazesthai “to wander”] plan-ner /ˈplænə/ n. [C] someone who plans something, especially someone who plans the way cities grow and develop: city planners | He works as a financial planner.

plant¹ /plænt/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a living thing that has leaves and roots and grows in the ground, especially one that is smaller than a tree → HOUSE-PLANT: a plant that grows well in the shade | a bean plant 2 ECONOMICS a factory and all its equipment: a manufacturing plant

plant² v. [T] 1 to put plants or seeds in the ground to grow: Plant tomatoes in a sunny place. | a hillside planted with pine trees 2 (informal) to hide stolen or illegal goods in someone’s clothes, bags, room, etc. in order to make him/her seem guilty of a crime: The police were accused of planting evidence against him. 3 to put something firmly somewhere: He stood, his feet planted slightly apart. 4 plant an idea/doubt/suspicion (in sb’s mind) to mention something that makes someone begin to have an idea, doubt, etc.: Don’t plant ideas in the boy’s head! —planting n. [C,U]

Plan-tae /ˈplænti/ n. BIOLOGY the KINGDOM (=largest group into which scientists divide living things) that consists of all the plants → ANIMALIA plan-ta-tion /plænˈteɪʃən/ n. [C] 1 a large farm, especially in a hot country, where a single crop such as tea, cotton, or sugar is grown: a rubber plantation 2 HISTORY in the past, a large farm in the U.S. South that used SLAVES to grow cotton, tobacco, etc.

plant-er /ˈplæntə/ n. [C] 1 a container in which plants are grown 2 someone who owns or is in charge of a plantation plaque /plæk/ n. 1 [C] a piece of flat metal or stone with writing on it: A bronze plaque on the house read: “Walt Whitman was born here.” 2 [U] BIOLOGY a harmful substance that forms on your teeth, that BACTERIA can live and grow in [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French, Dutch plak, from plakken “to stick”] plas-ma /ˈplæzmə/ n. [U] 1 BIOLOGY the yellowish liquid part of the blood that contains the blood cells 2 PHYSICS a gas that exists at very high temperatures, for example in stars, which consists of IONS and ELECTRONS plas-ter¹ /'plæstə/ n. [U] a substance used for covering walls and ceilings to give them a smooth surface plaster² v. [T] 1 to spread or stick something all over a surface so that it is thickly covered: a wall plastered with posters 2 to cover a surface with plaster plas-tered /'plæstəd/ adj. (informal) very drunk plaster of Paris /,plæstə əv 'pærɪs/ n. [U] a mixture of a white powder and water that dries quickly, used especially for making STATUES or MOLDS

plas-tic¹ /'plæstɪk/ n. 1 [C,U] a light strong material that is produced by a chemical process, that can be made into different shapes when it is soft: toys made of plastic 2 [U] (informal) a CREDIT CARD: Some customers are worried about paying with plastic on the Internet.

plastic² adj. 1 made of plastic: a plastic bag | plastic cups → see picture at MATERIAL¹ 2 (disapproving) seeming artificial or not natural: a plastic smile | plastic-tasting food 3 a plastic substance such as clay can be formed into many different shapes and then keeps the shape until someone changes it

plas-tic-i-ty /plæ'stɪsəti/ n. [U] the quality of being easily made into any shape plastic surgery n. [U] the medical practice of changing the appearance of people's faces or bodies, either to improve their appearance or to repair injuries plate /plert/ n. 1 [C] a flat, usually round dish that you eat from or serve food on: a china plate | Even Jon cleaned his plate (=ate all the food that was on his plate). 2 [C] also plateful /'pleɪtfʊl/ the amount of food on a plate → DISH: a plate of scrambled eggs and toast 3 [C] a flat piece of metal, glass, bone, etc.: A brass plate on the door had the director's name on it. 4 gold/silver etc. plate [U] ordinary metal with a thin covering of gold, silver, etc. 5 [C] (informal) a LICENSE PLATE: New Jersey plates 6 [singular] the place where the person hitting the ball stands in the sport of baseball: Reid stepped up to the plate, swung, and hit the ball. 7 [C] a thin piece of plastic with FALSE TEETH in it pla-teau /plæ'təu/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a large area of flat land that is higher than the land around it 2 a period during which the level or amount of something does not change: I had reached a plateau in my career. → see picture on page A11 —plateau v. [I]

-plat-ed /'pleɪtɪd/ adj. gold-plated/silver-plated/brass-plated etc. covered with a thin layer of gold, silver, or other metal: a silver-plated spoon

plate 'glass n. [U] clear glass made in large thick sheets, used especially in store windows —plate-glass adj.: a plate-glass window plate-let /'pleɪtlət/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a type of cell in your blood that helps it to CLOT (=become solid) when you bleed, so that you stop bleeding plate tec-tonics n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a scientific idea that explains how movement in the very large sheets of rock that form the surface of the Earth produces mountains and causes VOLCANOS and EARTHQUAKES, etc. → TECTONIC PLATE

plat-form /'plætfɔrm/ n. [C] 1 a raised structure for people to stand or work on: He climbed onto the wooden platform and began to speak. | an oil platform 2 POLITICS the main ideas and aims of a political party, especially the ones that they state just before an election: Tax cuts may be included in the party platform for the next election. 3 IT the type of computer system or software that someone uses: a multimedia platform 4 a chance for someone to express his/her opinions: He used the TV interview as a platform for his views on education. 5 the place in a railroad station or SUBWAY where you get on and off a train: We were waiting on the platform.

plat-ing /'pleɪtɪŋ/ n. [U] a thin layer of metal that covers another metal surface: silver plating plat-i-num /'plætˈnəm, 'plætˈn-əm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Pt) an expensive heavy silver-white metal that is an ELEMENT and is used in making jewelry [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Modern Latin, Spanish platina, from plata “silver”] plat-i-tude /'plætəˌtʊd/ n. [C] (disapproving) a boring statement that has been made many times before: a speech full of platitudes pla-ton-ic /pləˈtɒnɪk/ adj. a relationship that is platonic is friendly, but not sexual pla-toon /pləˈtuːn/ n. [C] a small group of soldiers that is part of a COMPANY [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French peloton “ball, small group,” from pelote “little ball”] plat-ter /'plætə/ n. [C] 1 a large plate, used for serving food 2 chicken/seafood etc. platter chicken, etc. arranged on a plate with other foods and served in a restaurant plat-y-pus /'plætəpəs/ n. [C] a small Australian animal that lays eggs and has a beak, but also has fur and feeds milk to its babies [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Modern Latin, Greek platypous “flat-footed”] plau-dits /'plɔːdɪts/ n. [plural] (formal) praise and admiration: Her ideas have won plaudits from scientists.

plau-si-ble /'plɔːzəbəl/ adj. easy to believe and likely to be true (ANT) implausible: a plausible story [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin plausibilis “worth applauding,” from plaudere “to applaud”] play¹ /pleɪ/ v. (played, plays)

1 SPORT/GAME a [I,T] to take part or compete in a game or sport: men playing poker | Kara played basketball in college. | Garcia plays for the Hornets. | The 49ers are playing the Vikings on Saturday (=they are competing against the Vikings). b) [T] to use a particular piece, card, person, etc. in a game or sport: Coach Nelson will play Williams at quarterback.

2 CHILDREN/TOYS [I,T] to do things that you enjoy, especially to pretend things or to use toys: a little girl who likes playing with dolls | Outside, the kids were playing tag/catch/house etc. | Parents need to spend time just playing with their children.

3 MUSIC a) [I,T] ENG. LANG. ARTS to perform a piece of music on an instrument: The band played for 10,000 people at the Newport Festival. | Matt plays drums. b) [I,T] to make a radio, STEREO, etc. produce sounds, especially music: a story tape to play for the kids in the car | an entertainment center capable of playing CDs, DVDs and games

4 play a part/role to have an effect or influence on something: Police believe he may have played a role in the boy's death.

5 THEATER/MOVIE a) [T] ENG. LANG. ARTS to act as one of the characters in a movie, television, or theater performance: Kidman plays the role/part of Virginia Woolf in the movie. | He plays a shy, nervous man. b) [I] to be performed or shown at a theater, etc.: Where's the movie playing?

6 BEHAVE [linking verb, T] (informal) to behave in a particular way, or pretend to have a particular quality, in order to achieve something: If he asks, just play dumb (=pretend you do not know the answer). | the accusation that scientists are playing God | Doctors warned parents to play it safe (=do the safest thing) by immunizing their children. | Tracy forced herself to play it cool (=stay calm and not be too eager) with Brad.

7 play ball a) to throw, hit, kick, or catch a ball as a game or activity: Just don't play ball in the house. b) (informal) to agree to do something that someone wants you to do: They threatened to stop advertising if the magazine didn't play ball.

8 play a trick/joke/prank on sb to do something to surprise or deceive someone, and make other people laugh

9 play tricks (on you) if your mind, memory, sight, etc. plays tricks on you, you feel confused and not sure about what is happening

10 play it by ear (informal) to decide what to do as things happen, instead of planning anything: We'll see what the weather's like and play it by ear.

11 play sth by ear to be able to play music after you have heard it instead of by reading the notes

12 play games (disapproving) to not be serious about what you are doing, or not say what you really think, especially in a way that tricks or deceives other people: Stop playing games and just tell me what you want.

13 play with fire to do something that could have a very bad result: If you invest in high-risk stocks, you're playing with fire.

14 play your cards right to behave in an effective way in a situation, in order to get what you want: If you play your cards right, eventually you'll get promoted.

15 play second fiddle to sb/sth to be involved in an activity, but not be as important as the main person or group that is involved in it [ORIGIN: Old English plegan]

GRAMMAR

Do not use a preposition or "the" after play when you are talking about playing a game or sport. Say: They're playing football.

Do not say "They're playing at football" or "They're playing the football."

Always use "the" after the verb play and before the names of musical instruments: Anna plays the piano.

play around phr. v.

1 to spend time having fun, but without having a particular purpose: I didn't get good grades because I played around a lot.

2 (informal) to have a sexual relationship with someone who is not your husband or wife play sth ↔ back phr. v.

to let someone hear or see again something that has been recorded on a TAPE, VIDEO, etc.: Jody rewound the tape and played it back.

play sth ↔ down phr. v.

to make something seem less important or bad than it really is: The White House tried to play down the latest economic figures.

play on sth phr. v.

to use a feeling or idea in order to get what you want, often in an unfair way: His campaign plays on people's fear of crime.

play sth ↔ up phr. v.

to make something seem better or more important than it really is: The town has played up its location to attract tourists.

play with sth phr. v.

1 to keep touching or moving something: Stop playing with the remote control!

2 also play around with sth to organize or think about something in different ways, to see what works: I've been playing with the design of the newsletter.

play² n. 1 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a story that is written to be performed by actors, especially in a theater: a play by Shakespeare | a play about two men on trial for murder | Each year, the drama department puts on/performs a play in the spring. → THEATER 2 [C,U] the actions of the people who are playing a game or sport: On the next play, Johnson ran fifteen yards for a touchdown. 3 [U] the things that people, especially children, do for fun, such as using toys: the shouts of children at play | Children learn through play. | a play area with slides and swings 4 [U] the effect or influence of something: All of these factors are at play (=having an effect) in any human relationship. | Cultural differences come into play (=begin to have an effect) when trying to sell a product in a foreign country. | A complex system of muscles is brought into play (=begun to be used) for each body movement. 5 play on words a use of a word or phrase that is interesting or funny because it has more than one meaning → PUN play-act-ing /'pleɪ,æktɪŋ/ n. [U] (disapproving) behavior in which someone pretends to be serious or sincere, but is not play-boy /'pleɪbɔɪ/ n. (plural playboys) [C] (old-fashioned) a rich man who does not work and who spends time enjoying himself with beautiful women, fast cars, etc.

play-by-'play adj. play-by-play commentary/description a description of the action in a sports game as it happens, given on television or the radio

'Play-Doh n. [U] (trademark) a soft substance like colored clay, used by children for making shapes

play-er /'pleɪə/ n. [C] 1 someone who plays a game, sport, or musical instrument: a piano player | a basketball player 2 one of the people, companies, organizations, etc. that is involved in a situation: a major/dominant/key player in the stock market 3 a CD/record/cassette etc. player a machine that is used to play CDs, etc.

play-ful /'pleɪfəl/ adj. 1 intended to be fun rather than serious, or showing that you are having fun: playful tunes | She gave him a playful poke. 2 very active and happy: playful children tumbling in the snow —playfully adv. —playfulness n. [U] play-ground /'pleɪgraʊnd/ n. [C] an area where children can play, especially at a school or in a park, that often has special equipment that children can climb on, ride on, etc.

play-house /'pleɪhaʊs/ n. [C] 1 a theater, often used as part of a theater's name: the Pasadena Playhouse 2 a small structure like a house, that children can play in

'playing card n. [C] a CARD

'playing field n. 1 [C] a large piece of ground with particular areas marked on it for playing football, baseball, etc. 2 a level playing field a situation in which different people, companies, countries, etc. can all compete fairly with each other because no one has special advantages: Canada limits election spending in an attempt to create a level playing field.

play-mate /'pleɪmeɪt/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a friend you play with when you are a child play-off /'pleɪɔf/ n. [C usually plural] a game or series of games played by the best teams or players in a sports competition, in order to decide the final winner: The Chicago Cubs are in the playoffs.

THESAURUS competition, championship, tournament → COMPETITION play-pen /'pleɪpɛn/ n. [C] an enclosed area like an open box with a net or wooden BARS around it, in which very young children can play safely play-room /'pleɪrʊm/ n. [C] a room for children to play in play-thing /'pleɪθɪŋ/ n. [C] a toy play-time /'pleɪtaɪm/ n. [U] a period of time during which a child can play: Don't let TV take up too much playtime.

play-wright /'pleɪraɪt/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who writes plays play-za /'plæzə, 'plæzə/ n. [C] an outdoor public place, usually with a lot of stores and small businesses plea /pli/ n. [C] 1 a request that is urgent and full of emotion: a plea for help | They made a plea for more resources. 2 LAW a statement by someone in a court of law saying whether s/he is guilty or not: The defendant entered a plea of "not guilty."

'plea-bargain v. [I] LAW to avoid punishment for a serious crime by agreeing to say you are guilty of a less serious one plead /plɪd/ v. 1 [I] (past tense and past participle pleaded) to ask for something you want very much, in an urgent and emotional way (SYN) beg: Mother pleaded with Dad to be gentler with us. | He pleaded for forgiveness.

THESAURUS ask, beg, implore → ASK

2 [I,T] (past tense and past participle pleaded or pled /plɛd/) LAW to officially say in a court of law whether or not you are guilty of a crime: "How do you plead?" "Not guilty." | Parker pled guilty to four charges of theft.

pleas-ant /'plezənt/ adj. 1 enjoyable, nice, or good: It had been a pleasant evening. | a pleasant surprise

THESAURUS nice, enjoyable → NICE

2 polite, friendly, or kind: a really nice, pleasant man —pleasantly adv.: We were pleasantly surprised by how welcoming everyone was.

pleas-ant-ry /'plezəntri/ n. (plural pleasantries) [C] (formal) something that you say in order to be polite please¹ /plɪz/ interjection 1 used in order to be polite when asking someone to do something: Patty, sit down, please. | Could you please hold the line? 2 used in order to be polite when asking for something: Can I have a cookie, please? | Can I

P

please go to Becky's party? 3 (spoken) said in order to politely accept something that someone offers you: "Coffee?" "Yes, please."

please² v. 1 [I,T] to make someone feel happy or satisfied: a business that wants to please its customers | a boss who is hard to please | Children are often eager to please. 2 [I] used in some phrases to show that someone can do or have what s/he wants: Students can study whatever they please. | You can come and go as you please.

pleased /plɪzd/ adj. 1 happy or satisfied: Your mom will be really pleased. | We're very pleased with the results. | Ellen was pleased that Toby had remembered. | I was pleased to hear/see/learn etc. that things had improved.

THESAURUS happy, glad, content, delighted → HAPPY

2 (I'm) pleased to meet you (spoken) said in order to be polite when you meet someone for the first time

pleas-ing /'plɪzɪŋ/ adj. (formal) giving pleasure, enjoyment, or satisfaction: a pleasing flavor | The design of the car is very pleasing to the eye (=nice to look at).

pleas-ur-a-ble /'pleʒərəbəl/ adj. (formal) enjoyable: pleasurable activities

pleas-ure /'pleʒə/ n. 1 [U] a feeling of happiness, satisfaction, or enjoyment → PLEASANT: Marie laughed with pleasure. | I'd like more time to read for pleasure. | He took pleasure in his work. | The park has given pleasure to many people. | The kids yelled for the sheer/pure pleasure of it. 2 [C] an activity or experience that you enjoy very much: Chocolate is one of my chief pleasures. | It's a pleasure to finally meet you. 3 (it is) my pleasure (spoken) a polite phrase used in order to say that you are glad you can do something nice for someone: "Thanks for walking me home." "It was my pleasure."

pleat /plit/ n. [C usually plural] a flat fold in a piece of clothing —pleat v. [T] pleat-ed /'pli:tɪd/ adj. a pleated skirt, pair of pants, dress, etc. has a lot of flat narrow folds ple-be-ian¹ /plɪ'biən/ n. [C] HISTORY an ordinary person who had no special rank in ancient Rome → PATRICIAN [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin plebeius, from plebs "common people"] plebeian² adj. 1 (disapproving) relating to ordinary people and what they like, rather than to people from a high social class 2 HISTORY relating to plebeians in ancient Rome pled /pled/ v. a past tense and past participle of PLEAD

pledge¹ /pledʒ/ n. [C] 1 a serious promise or agreement to do something or give money to something: a pledge of support | Parents make a pledge to take their children to rehearsals. | a pledge of $100 to the public television station 2 someone who promises to become a member of a college FRATERNITY or SORORITY

pledge² v. [T] 1 to make a formal, usually public, promise: Canada pledged to provide medical aid.

THESAURUS promise, give sb your word, swear, take/swear an oath, vow, undertake to do sth, guarantee, commit → PROMISE¹

2 to make someone formally promise something: Employees were pledged to secrecy. 3 to promise to become a member of a college FRATERNITY or SORORITY

Pledge of Allegiance n. the Pledge of Allegiance an official statement said by Americans in which they promise to be loyal to the United States. It is usually said by children every morning at school.

plen-i-tude /'plenə,tud/ n. (literary) 1 a plenitude of sth a large amount of something: Hunters in the 1800s found a plenitude of beaver. 2 [U] the condition of being complete or full plen-ti-ful /'plɛntɪfəl/ adj. more than enough in amount or number: a plentiful supply —plentifully adv.

plen-ty¹ /'plɛnti/ pron. a large amount that is enough or more than enough: Eat plenty of fruits and vegetables. | We have plenty to worry about. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French plenté, from Latin plenitas "fullness"]

THESAURUS many, a large number, a lot/lots, a multitude of sb/sth, a plethora of sth, myriad → MANY enough, ample, sufficient → ENOUGH

plenty² adv. (spoken) more than enough (SYN) a lot: There's plenty more room in the car.

pleth-o-ra /'plɛθərə/ n. a plethora of sth (formal) a very large number of something pleu-ra /'plʊərə/ n. (plural pleurae /-ri/ or pleuras) [C] BIOLOGY a very thin protective layer of material that covers your lungs and the inner walls of your chest —pleural adj.

Plex-i-glas /'pleksi,glæs/ n. [U] (trademark) a strong clear type of plastic that can be used instead of glass pli-a-ble /'plaɪəbəl/ adj. (formal) 1 able to bend without breaking or cracking (SYN) flexible: Roll the clay until it is soft and pliable. 2 also pli-ant /'plaɪənt/ easily influenced by others, or willing to accept new ideas: a pliant legislature

pli-ers /'plaɪəz/ n. [plural] a small metal tool used for bending wire or cutting it: a pair of pliers

plight /plaɪt/ n. [C usually singular] a bad, serious, or sad situation that someone is in: the plight of women in that society | the university's financial plight

plod /pləd/ v. (plodded, plodding) [I] to move or do something very slowly, especially in a way that is boring or that shows you are tired: We plodded uphill. | The movie plods along without very much ever happening. —plodding adj.

plop¹ /plap/ v. (plopped, plopping) [I,T] to sit down, fall down, or drop something somewhere in a careless way: Jaime plopped down on the bed. | I plopped a couple of ice cubes into a glass.

plop² n. [C] the sound made by something when it falls or is dropped into liquid plot¹ /plat/ n. [C] 1 the events that form the main story of a book, movie, or play: The movie has a very complicated plot. 2 a secret plan you make with other people to do something illegal or harmful: a plot to kill the President

THESAURUS plan, conspiracy, scheme → PLAN¹

3 a small piece of land for building or growing things on: a two-acre plot of land

plot² v. (plotted, plotting) 1 [I,T] to make a secret plan, especially one intended to harm a particular person or organization: The group had plotted to smuggle explosives into the country. | Rebels plotted against the dictator. 2 [T] also plot out to make lines and marks on a CHART or map that represent facts, numbers, etc.: These graphs plot the company's progress.

plow¹ /pləʊ/ n. [C] 1 a large piece of equipment used on farms that cuts up the surface of the ground so that seeds can be planted 2 (informal) a SNOW-PLOW plow² v. 1 [I,T] to use a plow in order to cut earth, push snow off streets, etc.: newly plowed fields 2 [I] to move with a lot of effort or force: A ship plowed through the waves.

plow ahead phr. v. to continue to do something in spite of difficulties or opposition: She was silent, but I plowed ahead with my questions.

plow sth ↔ back phr. v. to use money that you have earned from a business to make the business bigger and more successful: Profits are plowed back into equipment and training.

plow into sth phr. v. to hit something hard with a car, truck, etc.: We plowed into a parked car.

plow through sth phr. v. to read or look at all of something even though it is difficult, long, or boring: Investigators plowed through the phone records.

ploy /plɔɪ/ n. (plural loys) [C] a way of tricking someone in order to gain an advantage: It was just a ploy to advance his political career.

pluck¹ /plʌk/ v. [T] 1 to pull something quickly in order to remove it: She put flowers plucked from the garden into a vase. | She plucks her eyebrows (=pulls out hairs from the edges of them). 2 to take someone away from a place or situation: Rescue teams plucked people from the rooftops as the water rose. 3 pluck up the courage to make yourself be brave or confident enough to do something: I finally plucked up the courage to ask for a raise. 4 to pull the feathers off a chicken or other bird before cooking it 5 to quickly pull the strings of a musical instrument

pluck² n. [U] (old-fashioned) courage and determination to do something that is difficult: It takes a lot of pluck to do what he's done. —plucky adj.

plug¹ /plʌg/ n. [C] 1 the small object at the end of a wire, that is used for connecting a piece of electrical equipment to a SOCKET (=supply of electricity) 2 a round flat piece of rubber, used for blocking the hole in a bathtub or SINK 3 (informal) a way of advertising a book, movie, etc. by talking about it on a radio or television program

plug² v. (plugged, plugging) [T] 1 also plug up to fill a hole or block it: The drain was plugged up with paper. 2 to advertise a book, movie, etc. by talking about it on a radio or television program: Susan was on the show to plug her new novel.

THESAURUS advertise, promote, market, publicize, hype → ADVERTISE plug away phr. v. to continue working hard at something: Scientists have been plugging away at the problem.

plug sth ↔ in phr. v. to connect a piece of electrical equipment to a SOCKET (=supply of electricity) (ANT) unplug: Is the TV plugged in?

plug sth into sth phr. v. to connect one piece of electrical equipment to another: Can you plug the speakers into the stereo for me?

plum /plʌm/ n. [C] 1 a soft round usually purple fruit with a single large seed, or the tree on which it grows → see picture on page 414 2 something very good that other people wish they had, such as a good job, part in a play, etc.: The governorship of California is a bigger political plum than a seat in Congress. —plum adj. [only before noun]: a plum job/role/assignment plum-age /'plʌmɪdʒ/ n. [U] (formal) the feathers covering a bird's body plumb /plʌm/ adv. (spoken, informal) exactly or completely: He's plumb crazy. | Sorry, I just plumb forgot.

plumb-er /'plʌmə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to repair water pipes, SINKS, toilets, etc. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French plommier "worker in lead," from Latin plumbarius, from plumbus "lead;" because water pipes were originally made of lead] plumb-ing /'plʌmɪŋ/ n. [U] the system of water pipes in a house or building plume /plʌm/ n. [C] 1 a small cloud of smoke, dust, gas, etc.: Plumes of black smoke were coming from the garage. 2 a large feather plum-met /'plʌmɪt/ v. [I] 1 to suddenly and quickly decrease in value: House prices have plummeted.

THESAURUS decrease, go down, drop, fall → DECREASE¹

2 to fall suddenly and very quickly from a very high place: The plane plummeted to the ground.

P

plump¹ /plʌmp/ adj. 1 attractively round and slightly fat: plump juicy strawberries 2 fat – used in order to be polite: He was 67, short, and a little plump.

THESAURUS fat, overweight, big, heavy, large, obese, chubby, stout, corpulent, rotund → FAT¹

plump² also plump up v. [T] to make a PILLOW rounder and softer by shaking or hitting it plun-der¹ /ˈplʌndə/ v. [I,T] to steal money or property from a place while fighting in a war: The Vikings invaded and plundered the town.

THESAURUS steal, burglarize, loot → STEAL¹

plunder² n. [U] things that are stolen during an attack or war plunge¹ /plʌndʒ/ v. 1 [I,T] to move, fall, or be thrown or pushed suddenly forward or downward: The plane plunged into the Atlantic shortly after takeoff. → DIVE¹ 2 [I] to suddenly decrease in amount or value: The stock market plunged more than 1,200 points.

plunge (sb/sth) into sth phr. v. to suddenly experience a bad or difficult situation, or to make someone or something do this: The company was plunged into bankruptcy.

plunge² n. 1 take the plunge to decide to do something risky, usually after delaying or worrying about it: Deming took the plunge and started his own business. 2 [C] a sudden decrease in amount, or a sudden fall plung-er /ˈplʌndʒə/ n. [C] a tool used for clearing waste that is blocking a kitchen or bathroom pipe. It consists of a straight handle with a large rubber cup on the end.

plunk /plʌŋk/ v. [I,T] (informal) to put something somewhere in a noisy, sudden, or careless way, or to suddenly sit down: Grover plunked down in front of the TV.

plunk sth ↔ down phr. v. to spend a lot of money for something: He plunked down $30 for a box of chocolates.

plu-per-fect /ˌpluːpəˈfɪkt/ n. the pluperfect ENG. LANG. ARTS the PAST PERFECT

plu-ral /ˈplʊərəl/ n. the plural ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the form of a word that represents more than one person or thing. For example, “dogs” is the plural of “dog.” → SINGULAR [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French plural, from Latin pluralis, from plus “more”] —plural adj.: a plural noun/verb plu-ral-i-ty /pluːˈræləti/ n. (plural pluralities) [C,U] the largest number of votes in an election, especially when this is less than the total number of votes that all the other people or parties have received plus¹ /plʌs/ (Ac) prep. used when one number or amount is added to another: Three plus six equals nine (3 + 6 = 9). | The jacket costs $49.95 plus tax. → CALCULATE [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin “more” (adjective and adverb)] plus² (Ac) conjunction and also: He’s going to college, plus he’s working 20 hours a week.

plus³ (Ac) adj., adv. 1 A plus/B plus/C plus etc. a grade used in a system of marking students’ work. For example, a C plus is higher than a C, but lower than a B MINUS. → MINUS 2 greater than zero or than a particular amount → MINUS: a temperature of plus 12° | She makes $50,000 a year plus. 3 plus or minus used in order to say that a number may be more or less by a certain amount: The poll’s margin of error was plus or minus 3 percentage points. | We expect a variation of plus or minus 5% in these figures. 4 plus sizes sizes for women’s clothes that are larger than regular sizes plus⁴ n. [C] 1 MATH a plus sign 2 something that is an advantage or a quality that you think is good: The restaurant’s location is a big/major plus.

plush¹ /plʌʃ/ adj. comfortable, expensive, and of good quality: a plush resort plush² n. [U] a type of cloth with a thick soft surface: a plush rabbit plus sign n. [C] MATH the sign (+)

Plu-to /ˈpluːtəʊ/ n. PHYSICS an object in space that was considered to be the smallest PLANET until 2006, when scientists decided that it was a DWARF PLANET rather than a planet plu-to-ni-um /pluːˈtəʊniəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Pu) a metal that is an ELEMENT and is used for producing NUCLEAR power ply¹ /plaɪ/ n. [U] a unit for measuring the thickness of thread, rope, plywood, etc. based on the number of threads or layers that it has: two-/three-ply etc. toilet paper ply² v. (plied, plies) 1 ply your trade/craft (written) to work at your business or special skill: He is now in his eighties, but still plying his trade. 2 [I,T] (literary) a boat or vehicle that plies between two places travels to those two places regularly ply sb with sth phr. v. to continue giving someone large amounts of something, especially food and drinks ply-wood /ˈplaɪwʊd/ n. [U] a material made of thin sheets of wood stuck together to form a hard board

p.m. used when talking about times that are between NOON and MIDNIGHT: I get off work at 5:30 p.m. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin post meridiem “after noon”]

PMS n. [U] premenstrual syndrome the uncomfortable physical and emotional feelings that many women have before their PERIOD starts pneu-mat-ic /nuːˈmætɪk/ adj. 1 filled with air: a pneumatic tire 2 able to work using air pressure: a pneumatic drill —pneumatically adv.

pneu-mo-nia /nu'moʊnyə/ n. [U] a serious illness that affects your lungs and makes it difficult to breathe

P.O. the written abbreviation of POST OFFICE

P.O. Box /pi 'ou ,baks/ n. [C] post office box a box in a post office that has a special number, to which you can have mail sent instead of to your home

P.O.W. n. [C] PRISONER OF WAR: a P.O.W. camp

poach /poutʃ/ v. 1 [T] to cook food such as eggs or fish in a small amount of boiling liquid 2 [I,T] to illegally catch or shoot animals, birds, or fish, especially from private land poach-er /'poutʃə/ n. [C] someone who illegally catches or shoots animals, birds, or fish, especially on private land

pock-et¹ /'pʌkɪt/ n. [C] 1 a small bag sewn into or onto shirts, coats, pants, or skirts, that you can put keys, money, etc. in: a key in his pants pocket 2 the amount of money you have that you can spend: Over $20 million was taken out of the pockets of American taxpayers. | a corporation with deep pockets (=a lot of money) 3 a small bag or piece of material that is attached to something such as a car seat, used for holding maps, magazines, etc. 4 a small area or amount that is different from what surrounds it: pockets of poverty in the city [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old North French pokete, from poke “bag”] pocket² v. [T] 1 to put something in your pocket 2 to get money in a way that is very easy or dishonest: One judge pocketed $500,000 in bribes.

pocket³ also pocket-sized adj. small enough to fit into a pocket: a pocket calendar

pock-et-book /'pʌkɪt,bʊk/ n. [C] 1 the amount of money you have, or your ability to pay for things: Some voters are worried that the changes could hurt their pocketbooks (=cause them to have less money). 2 (old-fashioned) a WALLET or PURSE pock-et-ful /'pʌkɪtful/ n. [C] the amount that will fill a pocket, or a large amount: a pocketful of small change pocket knife n. [C] a small knife with a blade that you can fold into its handle pod /pʌd/ n. [C] 1 the long green part of plants such as beans and PEAS that the seeds grow in 2 a group of sea animals, such as WHALES or DOLPHINS, that swim together pod-cast /'pʌdkæst/ n. [C] IT a television or radio show in DIGITAL form, that you can DOWNLOAD from a website and watch on your computer or listen to on equipment such as an MP3 PLAYER —podcasting n. [U] po-di-a-trist /pə'di:ətrɪst/ n. [C] a doctor who takes care of people's feet and treats foot diseases —podiatry n. [U] po-di-um /'pɒdiəm/ n. [C] 1 a tall narrow desk that you stand behind when giving a speech to a lot of people: Several speakers took the podium

(=spoke from it) that night. 2 a small raised area for a performer, speaker, or musical CONDUCTOR to stand on po-em /'pəʊəm/ n. [C] a piece of writing that expresses emotions, experiences, and ideas, especially in short lines using words that RHYME (=have a particular pattern of sounds) [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French poème, from Latin, from Greek poiein “to make, create”] po-et /'pəʊɪt/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who writes poems po-et-ess /'pəʊɪtɪs/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) ENG. LANG. ARTS a female poet po-et-ic /'pəʊ'etɪk/ adj. 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to poetry, or typical of poetry: poetic language 2 graceful and expressing deep emotions: a poetic and powerful ballet —poetically adv.

po-etic 'justice n. [U] a situation in which someone who has done something bad suffers in a way that you think s/he deserves po-etic 'license n. [U] the freedom to change facts, not obey grammar rules, etc. because you are writing poetry or making art po-et-ry /'pəʊətri/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS poems, or the art of writing them → PROSE: a book of Emily Dickinson's poetry po-grom /'pəʊgrəm/ n. [C] a planned killing of large numbers of people, especially Jews, done for reasons of race or religion → GENOCIDE

poign-ant /'pɔɪnyənt/ adj. making you feel sad or full of pity: a simple melody and poignant lyrics [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French, present participle of poindre “to prick, sting,” from Latin pungere] —poignancy n. [U] —poignantly adv.

THESAURUS emotional, moving, touching, emotive → EMOTIONAL poin-set-ti-a /'pɔɪn'setɪə/ n. [C] a plant with groups of large bright red or white leaves that look like flowers point¹ /pɔɪnt/ n.

1 ONE IDEA [C] a single fact, idea, or opinion in an argument or discussion: There were a lot of good points in his speech. | I made that point at a staff meeting last week. | I didn't like his attitude, but I could see his point (=understand his idea). | I had to admit that he had a point (=his opinion is correct).

2 MAIN IDEA the point the main meaning or idea in something that is said or done: Come on, Charlie, get to the point (=say your idea directly)! | The point is (that) he had been proven wrong. | What's your point, Rob? | I think you're missing the point (=do not understand the most important thing). | He's a nice guy, but that's beside/not the point. | The important/main/crucial point is that no one is wholly good or wholly evil.

3 PURPOSE [U] the purpose or aim of doing something: The whole point of traveling is to experience

P

new things. | There's no point in continuing.

► Don't say "There's no point to continue." ◀

4 IN TIME/DEVELOPMENT [C] a specific moment, time, or stage in something's development: At this/that/one/some point, Moore decided to tell him. | She had reached the point where she knew something had to change. | It's a good starting point for any future negotiations. | the turning point in the investigation (=the time when it changed)

THESAURUS stage, part, step, phase →
STAGE¹

5 PLACE [C] a particular position or place: the point where two lines cross each other

THESAURUS place, position, spot, location
→ PLACE¹

6 QUALITY [C] a particular quality or feature that someone or something has: Teachers try to focus on a learner's strong points (=best qualities or abilities), and then work on his or her weak points.

7 GAME/SPORT [C] a unit used for showing the SCORE in a game or sport: The Rams beat the Giants by six points.

8 IN NUMBERS [C] MATH the sign (.) used for separating a whole number from the DECIMALS that follow it: four point five percent (=4.5%)

9 MEASURE [C] a measure on a scale: Stocks were down 12 points today at 8,098.

10 the high/low point of sth the best or worst part of something, or the best or worst moment: It was the high point of their trip.

11 SHARP END [C] the sharp end of something (SYN) tip: the point of a needle

12 up to a point partly, but not completely: He believed her story, up to a point.

13 make a point of doing sth to deliberately do something: Don makes a point of spending Saturdays with his kids.

14 SMALL SPOT [C] a very small spot: a tiny point of light

15 LAND [C] a long thin piece of land that stretches out into the ocean

16 to the point only talking about the most important facts or ideas: Your business letters should be short and to the point.

17 the point of no return a stage in a process or activity when it becomes impossible to stop it or do something different: We've reached the point of no return, so we might as well finish the project.
→ GUNPOINT, POINT OF VIEW

point² v. 1 [I] to show someone something by holding your finger out toward it: John pointed to/toward two of the players. | "That's my car," she said, pointing at a white Ford. → see picture on page A8 2 [I,T] to aim something, or to be aimed, in a particular direction: He pointed a gun at the old man's head. | Dozens of cameras were pointed toward them. | What time is it when the little hand points to the 8, and the big hand points to the 12? 3 [T] to show someone which direction to go: There should be signs pointing the way to the beach.

THESAURUS lead, guide, direct, show →
LEAD¹

4 point the finger at sb (informal) to blame someone (SYN) accuse point out phr. v. 1 point sth ↔ out to tell someone something that s/he does not already know or has not yet noticed: The manager pointed out that he would have to raise rents to pay for the improvements. 2 point sb/sth ↔ out to show a person or thing to someone by pointing at him, her, or it: The little girl pointed out her mother to us.

point to/toward sb/sth phr. v. to show that something is probably true: The report points to stress as a cause of heart disease.

point-blank adv., adj. 1 if you say something point-blank, you say it in a very direct way: I asked/told him point-blank what was going on. 2 if you shoot a gun point-blank, the person or thing you are shooting is directly in front of you: Ralston was shot point-blank in the chest. | He was shot at point-blank range.

point-ed /'pɔɪntɪd/ adj. 1 having a point at the end: cowboy boots with pointed toes 2 a pointed question/look/remark etc. a direct question, look, etc. that deliberately shows that you are bored, annoyed, or do not approve of something point-ed-ly /'pɔɪntɪdli/ adv. deliberately, so that people notice that you are bored, annoyed, or do not approve of something: Wilton looked pointedly at the clock.

point-er /'pɔɪntə/ n. [C] 1 a helpful piece of advice (SYN) tip: I gave him some pointers on his golf technique. 2 the thin ARROW on a piece of equipment such as a computer or scale, that points to a particular place, number, or direction 3 a long stick used for pointing at things on a map, board, etc.

point-less /'pɔɪntlɪs/ adj. without any purpose or meaning, or not likely to have an effect: pointless violence on TV | It's pointless trying to call him; he isn't home.

THESAURUS
futile – having no chance of being effective or successful: a futile attempt to prevent the war useless – not useful or effective in any way: The information he provided was useless.
be a waste of time/money/effort – to be not worth doing or spending money on because little or nothing is achieved or gained: I thought the class was a waste of time.
senseless – happening or done for no good reason or with no purpose: the senseless killing of innocent civilians

'point man n. [C usually singular] 1 a soldier who goes ahead of a group to see if there is any danger 2 someone who is in charge of a particular subject in a company or organization: the administration's point man on health care point of 'view n. [C] 1 a particular way of thinking about or judging a situation: I began writing about families from a father's point of view. 2 someone's own personal opinion or attitude about something: My parents never seem to be able to see my point of view.

THESAURUS opinion, view, position, stance, attitude → OPINION

3 ENG. LANG. ARTS if a story is told from the NARRATOR's or a character's point of view, it is written as though that person is telling the story: a novel written from the point of view of a teenage boy

poin·ty /'pɔɪnti/ adj. (informal) POINTED: a pointy beard

poise¹ /'pɔɪz/ n. [U] 1 a calm confident way of behaving, and the ability to control how you feel: She spoke to the police with perfect poise. 2 a graceful way of moving or standing: the poise of a dancer poise² v. [T] to put something in a carefully balanced position, or to hold it there: He poised the bottle over her glass, ready to pour.

poised /'pɔɪzd/ adj. 1 completely prepared to do something or for something to happen, when it is likely to happen soon: The team is poised to win the championships. 2 not moving, but completely ready to move: I could sense that she was poised to run at any second. | a rocket poised for launch 3 behaving in a calm confident way, and able to control your feelings and reactions: a poised and talented girl

poi·son¹ /'pɔɪzən/ n. [C,U] 1 a substance that can kill you or make you sick if you eat it, breathe it, etc.: rat poison 2 a person, feeling, idea, etc. that makes you behave badly or makes you feel very unhappy: Hatred is a poison for the soul. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French “drink, poisonous drink, poison,” from Latin potio]

