poison² v. [T] 1 to kill or harm someone by giving him/her poison: She poisoned the neighbor's dog. 2 to make land, lakes, rivers, air, etc. dirty and dangerous, especially by using harmful chemicals: Pesticides are poisoning our rivers. 3 to have harmful effects on someone's mind or emotions, or on a situation: Money has poisoned American politics.

poi·son·ing /'pɔɪzənɪŋ/ n. [C,U] an illness that is caused by swallowing, touching, or breathing a poisonous substance: The children were suffering from food/lead poisoning.

poison ivy n. [U] a plant with an oily substance on its leaves that makes your skin hurt and ITCH if you touch it poison oak n. [U] a plant that has leaves that make your skin hurt and ITCH

poi·son·ous /'pɔɪzənəs/ adj. containing poison or producing poison: a poisonous chemical | poisonous snakes — poisonously adv.

THESAURUS harmful, toxic, detrimental, damaging, destructive → HARMFUL

poke /'pɒk/ v. 1 [I,T] to quickly push your finger or some other pointed object into something or someone: Polly poked me in the ribs. | David poked at the campfire with a stick. → see picture on page A8

THESAURUS push, shove, nudge, elbow → PUSH¹

2 [I,T] to push something through a space or out of an opening, so that you can see part of it, or to be partly through a space or opening: Eve poked her head around the door and told us to be quiet. | Weeds were poking through the cracks. 3 poke a hole to make a hole in something by pushing a pointed object through it 4 poke fun at sb to joke about someone in an unkind way: The article pokes fun at Hollywood celebrities. — poke n. [C]

poke along phr. v. (informal) to move or travel slowly

poke around phr. v. to look for something, especially by moving things: I began poking around in the cupboard.

pok·er /'pɒkə/ n. 1 [U] a card game that people usually play for money 2 [C] a metal stick used for moving coal or wood in a fire to make it burn better pok·ey, poky /'pɒki/ adj. (informal) doing things very slowly, especially in a way that you find annoying: a pokey driver

po·lar /'pəʊlə/ adj. 1 EARTH SCIENCES relating to the North Pole or the South Pole: polar ice 2 polar opposite someone or something that is completely opposite to another person or thing in character or style: Presidents Kennedy and Johnson were polar opposites in terms of style and background.

'polar bear n. [C] a large white bear that lives near the North Pole po·lar·ize /'pəʊləraɪz/ v. [I,T] (formal) to divide into two opposing groups, or to make people do this: The trial polarized the city. — polarization /ˌpəʊləraɪzɪʃən/ n. [U]

Po·lar·oid /'pəʊlərɔɪd/ n. [C] (trademark) a camera that uses a special film to produce a photograph very quickly, or a photograph taken with this kind of camera

'polar zone n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES one of the two parts of the Earth that are near the NORTH POLE and the SOUTH POLE, where the weather is always very cold → TEMPERATE ZONE, TROPICS

Pole /pəʊl/ n. [C] someone from Poland pole n. [C] 1 a long stick or post: a telephone pole (=holding up telephone wires outside) | a fishing pole 2 EARTH SCIENCES the most northern and southern point on a PLANET: an expedition to the North Pole 3 be poles apart to be very different from someone or something else: The two classes were poles apart in atmosphere. 4 PHYSICS one of two points at the end of a MAGNET where its power is strongest 5 PHYSICS one of the two points at which wires can be attached to a BATTERY in order to use its electricity

P

po-lem-ic /pə'lemɪk/ n. [C,U] strong arguments that criticize or defend a particular idea, opinion, or person —polemical adj.

'pole vault n. the pole vault a sport in which you jump over a high BAR using a special long pole —pole vaulter n. [C] po-lice¹ /pə'lis/ n. 1 the police an official organization whose job is to catch criminals, make sure that people obey the law, and protect people and property: Her neighbors called the police.

THESAURUS

People in the police

police officer/policeman/policewoman detective – a police officer whose job is to discover who is responsible for crimes plain-clothes police officer – a police officer who is wearing ordinary clothes instead of a uniform cop (informal) – a police officer

Things the police do

investigate crimes
find/collect evidence arrest sb question/interrogate/interview sb hold/keep sb in custody – to keep someone in prison while collecting more information about a crime, or before s/he goes to court charge sb with a crime – to state officially that someone might be guilty of a crime

2 [plural] the people who work for this organization: Police broke down the door. | police records/reports [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French, Late Latin politia “government,” from polites “citizen”] police² v. [T] 1 to keep control over a place using police 2 to control a particular activity or industry by making sure people obey the rules: The agency is responsible for policing the nuclear power industry. —policing n. [U] po'lice de,part-ment n. [C] the official police organization in a particular area or city po'lice force n. [C] the official police organization in a country or area po-lice-man /pə'lis-mən/ n. (plural policemen /-mən/) [C] a male police officer po'lice officer n. [C] a member of the police po'lice state n. [C] POLITICS a country where the government strictly controls most of the activities of its citizens government, democracy, republic, monarchy, regime, dictatorship, totalitarian country/state, etc. → GOVERNMENT

THESAURUS

po'lice station n. [C] the local office of the police in a town or city po-lice-wom-an /pə'lis,wʊmən/ n. (plural policewomen /-,wɪmɪn/) [C] a female police officer

pol-i-cy /'pɒləsi/ (Ac) n. (plural policies) 1 [C,U] a way of doing things that has been officially agreed and chosen by a political party, business, or organization: our foreign/economic/immigration etc. policy | the company's policy on maternity leave | government officials who make policy | monetary policy | a leading authority on welfare policies 2 [C] a written agreement with an insurance company: a health insurance policy 3 [C,U] a particular principle that you believe in: It's my policy not to gossip. [ORIGIN: (2) 1500—1600 French police “document, certificate,” from Old Italian polizza, from Greek apodeixis “proof”]

po-li-o /'pɒli,ʊ/ n. [U] a serious infectious disease of the nerves in the SPINE, that often results in someone being permanently unable to move particular muscles

po-li sci /,pɒli 'saɪ/ n. [U] (informal) POLITICAL SCIENCE

Po-lish¹ /'pɒlɪʃ/ adj. relating to or coming from Poland

Polish² n. 1 [U] the language used in Poland 2 the Polish [plural] the people of Poland pol-ish¹ /'pɒlɪʃ/ v. [T] to make something smooth, bright, and shiny by rubbing it: He polished his shoes each night.

THESAURUS

clean, do the housework, dust, vacuum, sweep (up), scrub, mop → CLEAN²

polish sth ↔ off phr. v. (informal) to finish food, work, etc. quickly or easily: The kids polished off the rest of the cake.

polish² n. 1 [C,U] a liquid, powder, or other substance that you rub into a surface to make it shiny: furniture polish | shoe polish 2 [U] a high level of skill and style in the way someone performs, writes, or behaves: Meeting new people will help give you social polish. 3 [singular] the smooth shiny appearance of something, that is produced by polishing → NAIL POLISH

pol-ish-ed /'pɒlɪʃt/ adj. 1 shiny because of being rubbed with polish: highly polished wood 2 done with great skill and style, or doing something with skill and style: a polished performance | a polished ballerina 3 polite and confident: a polished and sophisticated woman

po-lite /pə'laɪt/ adj. behaving or speaking in a way that is correct for the social situation you are in, or showing good manners: polite young people | It's not polite to talk with your mouth full. | a polite smile | Len sipped at his drink to be polite. | They weren't just making polite conversation; they really wanted to know. —politely adv. —politeness n. [U]

THESAURUS

have good manners – to behave in a polite way in social situations: Parents want to teach their children to have good manners.

well-behaved – behaving in a polite or socially acceptable way: My kids are generally well-behaved.

courteous – polite and respectful: You should be courteous to other drivers.

civil – polite but not very friendly: I know you don't like him, but try to be civil.

po-lit-i-cal /pə'litɪkəl/ adj. 1 relating to the government, politics, and the public affairs of a country: The U.S. has two main political parties. | the political issues that are important to senior citizens 2 relating to the way that different people or groups have power within a system, organization, etc.: He was promoted for political reasons. 3 [not before noun] interested in or active in politics: Mike's never been political. —politically adv. She's becoming more politically active.

po-lit-i-cally cor-rect (abbreviation P.C.) adj. politically correct language, behavior, and attitudes are carefully chosen so that they do not offend or insult anyone —political correctness n. [U] po-lit-i-cal 'prisoner n. [C] someone who is put in prison because s/he criticizes the government po-lit-i-cal 'science also poli sci (informal) n. [U] the study of politics and government pol-i-ti-cian /,pələ'tɪʃən/ n. [C] someone who works in politics, especially an elected member of the government

THESAURUS

president – someone who is elected to be the official leader of a country that does not have a king or queen congressman/congresswoman – someone who is elected to be in Congress senator – someone who is elected to be a member of the Senate governor – someone who is elected to lead the government of a state mayor – someone who is elected to lead the government of a town or city → GOVERNMENT po-lit-i-cize /pə'litɪsəɪz/ v. [T] to make a situation, position, or organization more political or more involved in politics: The Olympic Games should not be politicized. —politicized adj.

pol-i-tics /'pələtɪks/ n. 1 [U] ideas and activities relating to gaining and using power in a country, city, etc.: an important figure in American politics | a debate about local/national/international politics | They like to talk/discuss politics. 2 [U] the profession of being a politician: Smith went into politics as a young man. 3 [plural] the activities of people who are concerned with gaining personal advantage within a group: Working at home frees you from office politics. 4 [plural] someone's political beliefs and opinions: I don't agree with her politics. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Greek politiká (plural), from politikos] pol-ka /'pɒlkə, 'pʊkə/ n. [C] a very quick simple dance for people dancing in pairs, or the music for this dance —polka v. [I]

'polka dot n. [C] one of a number of round spots that form a pattern, especially on cloth used for clothing: a white dress with red polka dots —polka-dot adj.: a polka-dot scarf

poll /pɒl/ n. 1 [C] the process of finding out what people think about something by asking many people the same question, or the record of the result: a recent opinion poll | a poll conducted/taken/done by the New York Times

THESAURUS

survey – a set of questions that you ask a large number of people in order to find out about their opinions and behavior: According to a recent survey, most Americans think there is too much violence on television.

questionnaire – a written set of questions about a particular subject that is given to a large number of people, in order to collect information: Would you have a moment to fill out this questionnaire?

2 the polls [plural] the voting in an election: Voters will go to the polls (=vote) on Tuesday.

poll ² v. [T] to ask a lot of people the same questions in order to find out what they think about a subject: 35% of those polled had been on a diet recently.

THESAURUS

ask, question, interrogate, inquire → ASK

'poll book n. [C] POLITICS an official record of all the people in a PRECINCT (=area of a town or city with its own local government) who have the legal right to vote pol-len /'pələn/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a powder produced by flowers, which is carried by the wind or insects to make other flowers of the same type produce seeds pol-li-nate /'pələneɪt/ v. [T] BIOLOGY to make a flower or plant produce seeds by giving it pollen: Bees pollinate flowers. —pollination /,pələ'neɪʃən/ n. [U]

'polling place also 'polling station n. [C] the place where you can go to vote in an election poll-ster /'pɒlstə/ n. [C] someone who works for a company that prepares and asks questions to find out what people think about a particular subject pol-lut-ant /pə'lutʌnt/ n. [C] a substance that makes air, water, soil, etc. dangerously dirty pol-lute /pə'lut/ v. [I,T] to make air, water, soil, etc. dangerously dirty: Toxic waste is polluting the air/ocean/environment. —polluter n. [C] pol-lut-ed /pə'lutɪd/ adj. full of pollution: heavily/highly/badly polluted air

THESAURUS dirty, filthy, soiled → DIRTY¹

pol-lu-tion /pə'lʊʃən/ n. [U] 1 the process of polluting a place: Toxic waste is a major cause of pollution. → ENVIRONMENT 2 substances that pollute a place: a plan to reduce pollution pol-lo /'pɒləʊ/ n. [U] an outdoor game played between two teams riding horses, who use long wooden hammers to hit a small ball → WATER POLO

'polo shirt n. [C] a shirt with short SLEEVES and a collar, usually made of cotton poly-es-ter /'pɒli,estə-, 'pɒli'estə/ n. [U] an artificial material used especially to make cloth: a polyester suit poly-eth-yl-ene /,pɒli'etθə,lin/ n. [U] strong light plastic used for making bags, small containers, etc.

po-lyg-a-my /pə'liɡəmi/ n. [U] the practice of having more than one husband or wife at the same time —polygamous adj. —polygamist n. [C] pol-y-gon /'pɒli,gən/ n. [C] MATH a flat shape with three or more straight sides [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, from Greek polygonon, from poly “many” + gonia “angle”] pentagon — a flat shape with five sides and five angles hexagon — a flat shape with six sides and six angles heptagon — a flat shape with seven sides and seven angles octagon — a flat shape with eight sides and eight angles decagon — a flat shape with ten sides and ten angles dodecagon — a flat shape with twelve sides and twelve angles pol-y-graph /'pɒli,græf/ n. [C] a LIE DETECTOR: The suspect later passed a polygraph test.

THESAURUS

pol-y-he-dron /,pɒli'hidrən/ n. [C] MATH a solid shape with many sides, each of which is a polygon pol-y-mer /'pɒləmə/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical compound that has a simple structure of large MOLECULES pol-y-no-mi-al /,pɒli'noʊmiəl/ n. [C] MATH in ALGEBRA, a mathematical expression consisting of two or more MONOMIALS (=a single group of numbers or letters) added together or SUBTRACTED from each other. For example, $7x - 4x + 11$ or $3x^3 + 2x^2 + x - 5$ are polynomials. —polynomial adj.: a polynomial equation pol-yp /'pɒləp/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a small LUMP that grows inside someone's body and is caused by an illness 2 BIOLOGY a sea animal that has a body like a tube, and TENTACLES around an opening in its body that it uses both for eating and for getting rid of waste: a coral polyp [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French polype, from Latin polypus “octopus,” from Greek, from poly- “many” + pous “foot”]

pol-y-sac-cha-ride /,pɒli'sækə,raɪd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a CARBOHYDRATE consisting of simple sugar MOLECULES that have joined together → MONOSACCHARIDE

pol-y-syl-lab-ic /,pɒli'sæləbɪk/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS a polysyllabic word contains more than three SYLLABLES → DISYLLABIC, MONOSYLLABIC

pol-y-tech-nic /,pɒli'teknɪk/ n. [C] a college where you can study technical or scientific subjects pol-y-the-ism /'pɒliθi,ɪzəm/ n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the belief that there is more than one god —polytheistic adj.: polytheistic faiths, such as Hinduism pol-y-un-sat-u-rat-ed /,pɒliən'sætʃə,retɪd/ adj. polyunsaturated fats or oils come from vegetables and plants, and are considered to be better for your health than animal fats → SATURATED FAT pom-e-gran-ate /'pɒmə,grænɪt/ n. [C] a round fruit with thick red skin and many juicy red seeds that you can eat pomp /pɒmp/ n. [U] (formal) all the impressive clothes, decorations, music, etc. that are traditional for an important public ceremony pom-pom /'pɒmpəm/ also pom-pon /'pɒmpən/ n. [C] 1 a large round ball of loose plastic strings connected to a handle, used by CHEERLEADERS 2 a small wool ball used as a decoration on clothing, especially hats pomp-ous /'pɒmpəs/ adj. (disapproving) trying to make people think you are important, especially by using a lot of formal words: pompous politicians —pomposity /pəm'pəsəti/ n. [U] pon-cho /'pantʃou/ n. (plural ponchos) [C] a type of coat that is made from a single piece of thick cloth, with a hole in the middle for your head, and sometimes a HOOD (=cover for your head) [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 American Spanish, Araucanian (a group of South American languages) pontho “woolen cloth”] pond /pand/ n. [C] a small area of fresh water that is smaller than a lake [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old English pund, from Latin pondo] pon-der /'pandə/ v. [I,T] (formal) to spend time thinking carefully and seriously about something: Travers took a deep breath as he pondered the question. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French ponderer “to weigh,” from Latin ponderare, from pondus “weight”] pon-der-ous /'pandərəs/ adj. 1 moving slowly or awkwardly because of being very big and heavy: an elephant's ponderous walk 2 boring and too serious: His films are ponderous.

pon-tiff /'pantɪf/ n. [C] (formal) the POPE pon-tif-i-cate /pan'tɪfə,kert/ v. [I] to give your opinion about something in a way that shows you think you are always right: Anthony likes to pontificate about politics.

pon-toon /pan'tun/ n. [C] one of the floating metal containers that are attached to bridges, airplanes, etc. in order to make them float po-ny¹ /'pouni/ n. (plural ponies) [C] a small horse pony² v. (ponied, ponies)

pony up (sth) phr. v. (informal) to pay for something: Fans will have to pony up $34.95 to see the boxing match.

Pony Ex'press n. HISTORY a mail service in the 1860s that used horses and riders to carry the mail po-ny-tail /'pouni,tel/ n. [C] long hair that you tie together at the back of your head: Chrissy pulled her hair back in a ponytail. → see picture on page 462 pooch /putʃ/ n. [C] (informal) a dog poo-dle /'puːdl/ n. [C] a dog with thick curly hair [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 German pudel, from pudelhund “dog that splashes in water”] pooh-pooh /,pu 'pu/ v. [T] (informal) to say that you think that an idea, suggestion, etc. is not very good: At first, they pooh-poohed the idea.

pool¹ /pul/ n. 1 [C] also swimming pool a structure that has been specially built and filled with water so that people can swim or play in it: They have a nice pool in their backyard. 2 [U] a game in which you use a stick to hit numbered balls into holes in the sides and corners of a table: Let's play/shoot some pool. 3 pool of blood/water/oil etc. a small area of liquid on a surface: Creighton lay there in a pool of blood. 4 pool of light a small area of light shining on something 5 [C] a small area of still water in the ground: Mosquitoes

breed in stagnant pools of water. 6 [C] a group of people who are available to work or to do an activity when they are needed: a pool of volunteers | a jury pool 7 [C] a group of things or an amount of money that is owned or shared by a group of people: Banks lend money from the huge pool of money that people have saved with them.

pool² v. [T] to combine your money, ideas, skills, etc. with those of other people so that you can all use them: If we pool our resources, we can start our own business.

'pool hall n. [C] a building where people go to play pool

'pool table n. [C] a cloth-covered table with pockets at the corners and sides, used for playing pool poop¹ /pup/ n. [singular, U] (spoken) solid waste from your BOWELS, or the act of passing waste: dog poop

poop² v. [I,T] (informal) to pass solid waste from your BOWELS

pooped /pupt/ also 'pooped out adj. (spoken) very tired: I'm pooped!

poop-er scoop-er /'pupə ,skupə/ n. [C] (informal) a small SHOVEL and a container, used by dog owners for removing their dogs' solid waste from the streets poor /pur, pɔːr/ adj. 1 having very little money and not many possessions: She comes from a poor family. | a poor country

THE SAURUS

needy – having very little food or money: The program provides health care to needy families.

destitute (formal) – having no money, no place to live, no food, etc.: The Depression left many farmers completely destitute.

impoverished (formal) – very poor: an impoverished neighborhood in Chicago broke – not having any money for a period of time: I'm broke and I need a job.

impecunious (formal) – having very little money, especially over a long period of time: an impecunious student indigent (formal) – not having much money or many possessions: The funding is for indigent hospital patients.

penurious (formal) – lacking money and therefore poor: my penurious financial status poverty-stricken (written) – extremely poor: a poverty-stricken neighborhood

Poor and having social problems disadvantaged – having social problems, such as a lack of money, that make it difficult to succeed: students from disadvantaged backgrounds underprivileged – poor and not having the advantages of most other people in society: The center helps underprivileged children.

deprived – not having the things that are considered necessary for a comfortable or happy life: a deprived area in the inner city

2 the poor people who are poor: The charity distributes food to the poor. 3 not as good as it could be or should be: The soil in this part of the country is poor. | poor health 4 [only before noun] (spoken) said in order to show pity for someone because s/he is unlucky, unhappy, etc.: Poor Stacy – her mother's very sick. | The poor thing looks like she hasn't eaten in days. 5 not good at doing something: a poor student [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French povre, from Latin pauper]

P poor-ly /'pɔːli/, 'pɔːr- / adv. badly: a poorly lit room

pop¹ /pɒp/ v. (popped, popping) 1 [I, T] to suddenly make a short sound like a small explosion, especially when something bursts, or to make something do this: Jody squeezed the balloon until it popped.

THESAURUS break, burst → BREAK¹

2 [I] (spoken) to go somewhere quickly, suddenly, or without planning: I need to pop into the drugstore for a second. | Maybe I'll just pop in on Terry (=visit him for a short time). 3 [I] to come suddenly or without warning out of or away from something: A button popped off my jacket. | The ball popped out of her hands and rolled under the sofa. 4 [T] to cook popcorn until it bursts open 5 [I] if your ears pop, you feel the pressure in them suddenly change, for example when you go up in an airplane 6 pop the question (informal) to ask someone to marry you: Has Dan popped the question yet? 7 [T] (informal) to hit someone: If you say that again, I'll pop you. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 From the sound]

pop out phr. v. (informal) to say something suddenly without thinking about it first: I didn't mean to say that – it just popped out.

pop up phr. v. (informal) to happen or appear suddenly or without warning: Her name keeps popping up in the newspapers.

pop² n. 1 [U] also 'pop music modern music that is popular with young people: a pop concert 2 [C usually singular] (old-fashioned) father 3 [U] (informal) a sweet drink with bubbles but no alcohol

THESAURUS soft drink, soda, soda pop → SOFT DRINK

4 [C] a sudden short sound like a small explosion: the pop of an air rifle 5 pops [U] CLASSICAL MUSIC that is known and liked even by people who do not usually like classical music: the Boston Pops Orchestra

pop-corn /'pɒpkɔːn/ n. [U] a type of corn that swells and bursts open when heated, usually eaten warm with butter and salt

Pope /pəʊp/ n. [C] the leader of the Roman Catholic Church: the Pope's recent visit | Pope Paul VI

[ORIGIN: 800–900 Late Latin papa, from Greek papas “father,” used as a title of bishops]

pop-lar /'pɒplə/ n. [C] a very tall thin tree that grows very fast → see picture on page A10

pop psy'chology n. [U] the ways in which people's personal problems are dealt with on television or in books, but which are not considered scientific pop-py /'pɒpi/ n. (plural poppies) [C] a brightly colored flower, usually red, with small black seeds

'pop quiz n. [C] a short test that is given without any warning in order to check that students have been studying

Pop-si-cle /'pɒpsɪkəl/ n. [C] (trademark) frozen fruit juice on a stick pop-u-lace /'pɒpyələs/ n. [singular] (formal) the ordinary people living in a country

THESAURUS people, the public, society, population → PEOPLE¹

pop-u-lar /'pɒpyələ/ adj. 1 liked by a lot of people: His movies have become very popular. | the most popular kid in school | Tom is very popular with women.

THESAURUS

bestseller – a book that a lot of people buy blockbuster – a movie that a lot of people watch, especially an exciting movie hit – a movie, song, play, etc. that a lot of people pay to see or listen to craze/fad – a fashion, game, etc. that is very popular for a short time cult – used about a movie or a performer that is very popular among a certain group of people: cult movies

2 shared, accepted, or done by a lot of people: The party had managed to gain massive popular support. | Despite popular opinion/belief (=what most people think), not everybody in Fayette County is rich. 3 relating to ordinary people, or intended for ordinary people: Ramsay believes there's too much violence in American popular culture (=TV, pop music, action films, etc.). [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin popularis, from populus “people”] pop-u-lar-i-ty /,pɒpyə'lærəti/ n. [U] the quality of being liked or supported by a large number of people: the growing popularity of electronic music pop-u-lar-ize /'pɒpyələ,raɪz/ v. [T] to make something well known and liked: His books have helped popularize science.

pop-u-lar-ly /'pɒpyələli/ adv. by most people: It's popularly believed that people need eight hours of sleep every night.

pop-u-late /'pɒpyə,leɪt/ v. [T] if an area is populated by a particular group of people, they live there: They live in a neighborhood that is densely heavily populated by students (=has a lot of students living there). | a sparsely populated area (=with few people)

pop-u-la-tion /ˌpɒpyəˈleɪʃən/ n. [C,U] 1 the number of people or animals living in a particular area, country, etc.: What's the population of New York? | There was a population explosion (=a sudden large increase in population) between 1944 and 1964 in the U.S. 2 all of the people who live in a particular area or share a particular condition: Most of the population of Canada lives fairly near the U.S. border. | Florida has a large Hispanic population.

THE SAURUS people, the public, society, populace → PEOPLE¹

pop-u-lous /ˈpɒpyələs/ adj. (formal) having a large population: the most populous country in Africa

pop-up n. [C] IT a window, often containing an advertisement, that suddenly appears on a computer screen when you are looking at a WEBSITE — pop-up adj. [only before noun]: Google does not allow pop-up ads of any kind on its site.

por-ce-lain /ˈpɔːsəlɪn/ n. [U] a hard shiny white substance that is used for making expensive plates, cups, etc., or objects made of this porch /pɔːtʃ/ n. [C] a structure built onto a house at its front or back entrance, with a floor and roof but no walls [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French porche, from Latin porticus, from porta “gate”] por-cu-pine /ˈpɔːkyəˌpaɪn/ n. [C] an animal with long sharp needle-like parts growing all over its back and sides pore¹ /pɔːr/ n. [C] one of the small holes in your skin or in a leaf, that liquid can pass through pore² v.

pore over sth phr. v. to read or look at something very carefully for a long time: We spent all day poring over wedding magazines.

pork /pɔːk/ n. [U] 1 the meat from pigs: pork chops 2 (slang, disapproving) government money spent in a particular area in order to get political advantages [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French porc “pig,” from Latin porcus] por-nog-ra-phy /pɔːˈnɒgrəfi/ also porn /pɔːrn/ n. [U] magazines, movies, etc. that show sexual acts and images in a way that is intended to make people feel sexually excited — pornographer n. [C] — pornographic /ˌpɔːnəˈgræfɪk/ adj.

po-rous /ˈpɔːrəs/ adj. allowing liquid, air, etc. to pass through slowly: porous soil

por-poise /ˈpɔːrpəs/ n. [C] a large sea animal, similar to a DOLPHIN, that breathes air por-ridge /ˈpɔːrɪdʒ, ˈpɑː-/ n. [U] cooked OAT-MEAL

port /pɔːt/ n. 1 [C,U] a place where ships can be loaded and unloaded: The ship was back in port after a week at sea. 2 [C] a town or city with a HARBOR: the port of Veracruz 3 [C] IT a place on the outside of a computer where you can connect another piece of equipment, such as a PRINTER 4 [U] a strong sweet Portuguese wine 5 [U] the left side of a ship or aircraft when you are looking toward the front → STARBOARD [ORIGIN: (5) 1500—1600 port side; because it was the side from which ships were unloaded.]

port-a-ble /ˈpɔːtəbəl/ adj. light and easily carried or moved: a portable phone/computer — portable n. [C] por-tal /ˈpɔːtl/ n. [C] 1 IT a website that helps you find other websites 2 (literary) a large gate or entrance to a building por-tend /pɔːˈtend/ v. [T] (literary) to be a sign that something is going to happen, especially something bad: Do these strange events portend some great disaster?

por-tent /ˈpɔːtent/ n. [C] (literary) a sign or warning that something is going to happen: I hope their cooperation is a portent of the future. → OMEN

por-ter /ˈpɔːtə/ n. [C] 1 someone whose job is to carry travelers' bags at airports, hotels, etc. 2 someone whose job is to take care of the part of a train where people sleep port-fo-li-o /pɔːtˈfəʊli,ou/ n. (plural portfolios) [C] 1 a large flat case used especially for carrying pictures, documents, etc. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a collection of pictures or other pieces of work by an artist, photographer, etc.: You'll need to submit a portfolio of your work along with your application. 3 ECONOMICS a collection of STOCK owned by a particular person or company: *an investment portfolio [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Italian portafoglio, from portare “to carry” + foglio “leaf, sheet”] port-hole /ˈpɔːthəʊl/ n. [C] a small window on the side of a ship or airplane

por-ti-co /ˈpɔːtɪˌkou/ n. (plural porticoes or porticos) [C] a covered entrance to a building, consisting of a roof supported by PILLARS

por-tion¹ /ˈpɔːʃən/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a part of something larger: The news showed only a portion of the interview. | He sends a large portion of his salary home to El Salvador. | Only a small portion of the total data was examined. → PART¹ 2 an amount of food for one person, especially when served in a restaurant: Do you have children's portions? | Everyone was given a small portion of rice and beans. 3 a share of something such as blame or a duty: Both drivers must bear a portion of the blame.

portion² v.

portion sth ↔ out phr. v. to divide something into parts and give them to several people: Land was portioned out to new settlers.

P

port-ly /'pɔːtli/ adj. (written) someone who is portly, especially an old man, is fat and round: a portly gentleman por-trait /'pɔːtrɪt/ n. [C] 1 a painting, drawing, or photograph of a person: a family portrait → see picture at PAINTING

THESAURUS picture, sketch, painting, cartoon, caricature, illustration → PICTURE¹

2 a description of someone or something in a book, movie, etc.: The movie is a portrait of life in Harlem in the 1940s.

por-trai-ture /'pɔːtrɪtʃə/ n. [U] (formal) the art of painting or drawing pictures of people por-tray /pɔː'treɪ, pə-/ v. (portrayed, portrays) [T] 1 portray sb/sth as sth to describe or show someone or something in a particular way, according to your opinion of him/her: Each candidate portrayed himself as an enemy of big business.

THESAURUS call, describe, characterize, label, brand → CALL¹

2 to describe or represent something or someone: The movie portrays the life of Charlie Chaplin. 3 to act the part of a character in a play: Dan Radcliffe portrayed Harry Potter in the movies.

por-tray-al /pɔː'treɪəl, pə-/ n. [C,U] the way someone or something is described or shown in a book, film, play, etc.: an accurate portrayal of pioneer life

Por-tu-guese¹ /pɔːtʃə'gɪz/ adj. relating to or coming from Portugal

Portuguese² n. 1 [U] the language of Portugal, Brazil, and some other countries 2 the Portuguese [plural] the people of Portugal pose¹ /'pəʊz/ [Ac] v. 1 pose a problem/threat/challenge etc. to exist in a way that may cause a problem, danger, difficulty, etc.: Nuclear waste poses a threat to the environment. | The list of problems posed by global warming is growing. 2 [I,T] to sit or stand in a particular position in order to be photographed or painted, or to make someone do this: The astronauts posed for pictures near the shuttle. 3 pose a question to ask a question that needs to be thought about carefully: Nielsen's essay poses some tough questions. 4 pose as sb to pretend to be someone else in order to deceive people: The thief got in by posing as a repairman.

pose² n. [C] the position in which someone deliberately stands or sits, especially in a painting or photograph: She struck a pose (=stood or sat in a particular position) with her head to one side.

pos-er /'pəʊzə/ n. [C] someone who pretends to have a quality or social position s/he does not have, in order to seem impressive to other people posh /pɒʃ/ adj. expensive and used by rich people: a posh hotel

THESAURUS expensive, high, pricey, overpriced, fancy → EXPENSIVE

po-si-tion¹ /pə'zɪʃən/ n.

1 STANDING/SITTING [C] the way someone stands, sits, or lies, or the direction in which an object is pointing: You should be in a comfortable position when driving. | This exercise is done in a sitting/standing/kneeling position.

2 SITUATION [C usually singular] the situation that someone or something is in: The company is in a dangerous financial position right now. | I'm not sure what I would do if I were in your position. | I'm afraid I'm not in a position to help you (=do not have the power or money to help you).

3 OPINION [C] an opinion about a particular subject: The senator has changed his position on abortion.

THESAURUS opinion, view, point of view, stance, attitude → OPINION

4 PLACE [C,U] the place where someone or something is, in relation to other things: Help me put the furniture back in position. | The army took up strategic positions around the capital.

THESAURUS place, spot, point, location, site, scene → PLACE¹

5 JOB [C] a job: He decided to give up his position as coach of the football team.

THESAURUS

Describing types of positions

senior – used about someone who has an important position in a company or organization: a senior executive chief – used about someone who has the most important or one of the most important positions in a company or organization, used especially in job titles: the company's chief financial officer high-ranking – used about someone who has a high position in an organization such as the police, the army, or the government: high-ranking military officers

top – used about someone who is in a very high position in a large company or organization, or someone in an important profession, for example a lawyer or a doctor, who is very successful in his/her job: the top executives of some of the country's biggest corporations | one of the agency's top lawyers

junior – used about someone who does not have an important position or who has less experience than someone doing the same job: the junior senator from Mississippi assistant – an assistant manager, director, editor, etc. has a position just below a manager, etc.: the store's assistant manager job, work, employment, post, occupation → JOB

6 RANK [C] the level or rank someone has in a society or organization: Ask someone in a position of authority. | a study on the position of minorities in our society

7 SPORTS [C] the area where someone plays in a sport, or the type of actions s/he is responsible for doing in a game: "What position do you play?" "Second base."

8 RACE/COMPETITION [C,U] the place of someone or something in a race or competition in relation to the other people or things (SYN) place: Paldi has moved into first/second/third etc. position.

position² v. [T] to put something or someone in a particular place: Police positioned themselves around the bank.

pos-i-tive¹ /ˈpəʒəʈɪv/ (Ac) adj. 1 [not before noun] very sure that something is right or true: "Are you sure you don't want a drink?" "Positive." | I'm positive that I told her to meet us here at 2 o'clock.

THESAURUS sure, certain, convinced, confident → SURE¹

2 hopeful and confident, and thinking about what is good in a situation rather than what is bad (ANT) negative: The president sounded very positive about the state of the economy. | I always try to have a positive attitude. 3 good or useful (ANT) negative: At least something positive has come out of the situation. | Living abroad has been a positive experience for Jim. | We need to provide girls with more positive role models (=good or successful people that they will want to be like). 4 expressing support, agreement, or approval (ANT) negative: So far, we've had mostly positive reactions to the new show. 5 a medical or scientific test that is positive shows signs of what is being looked for (ANT) negative: He was banned after testing positive for drugs. | Her pregnancy test came back/up/out positive. 6 MATH a positive number or quantity is higher than zero. (+) is the positive sign. (ANT) negative: If you square any number, it gives you a positive number. 7 PHYSICS having the type of electrical charge that is carried by PROTONS, shown by a (+) sign on a BATTERY (ANT) negative: Each battery has a positive and negative terminal. 8 BIOLOGY having RHESUS FACTOR in your blood (ANT) negative: His blood type is AB positive.

positive² n. [C] a quality or feature that is good or useful (ANT) negative: You can find positives in any situation.

pos-i-tive-ly /ˈpəʒəʈɪvli, ˈpəʒəʈɪvli/ (Ac) adv. 1 (informal) used in order to emphasize what you are saying: Some patients positively enjoy being in the hospital. | This is positively the last time I'm going to say this. 2 in a way that shows you agree with something and want it to succeed: News of the changes was received positively. 3 in a way that leaves no doubt: Don't tell anyone unless you're positively certain you can trust them. 4 PHYSICS having the type of electrical charge that is carried by PROTONS: A positively charged ion has lost some electrons. → think positively at THINK pos-it-ron /ˈpəʒə, trɒn/ n. [C] PHYSICS a PARTICLE (=very small piece of matter) that has the same mass as an ELECTRON but has a positive electrical CHARGE pos-se /ˈpəsi/ n. [C] 1 a group of men gathered together in past times by a SHERIFF (=local law officer) to help catch criminals 2 (informal) someone's group of friends – used especially by young people pos-sess /pəˈzɛs/ v. [T] 1 (formal) to own or have something: Neither of them possessed a credit card. | Bauer was charged with possessing illegal weapons.

THESAURUS own, have → OWN²

2 what possessed sb (to do sth)? (spoken) said when you cannot understand why someone did something stupid: What possessed you to buy such an expensive gift? [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French possesser, from Latin possidere] —possessor n. [C] pos-sessed /pəˈzɛst/ adj. controlled by an evil spirit

pos-ses-sion /pəˈzɛʃən/ n. 1 [C usually plural] something that you own (SYN) belongings: When they left, they had to sell most of their possessions. 2 [U] (formal) the state of having or owning something: He was found in possession of stolen property. | China took possession of Hong Kong in 1997.

pos-ses-sive¹ /pəˈzɛsɪv/ adj. 1 (disapproving) wanting someone to have feelings of love or friendship only for you: I love Dave, but he's very possessive. 2 unwilling to let other people use something you own: As a child, she was very possessive of her toys.

possessive² n. the possessive ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a word such as "my," "its," "their," etc., used in order to show that one thing or person belongs to another thing or person, or is related to that thing or person —possessive adj.: a possessive adjective/pronoun pos-si-bil-i-ty /ˌpəʒəˈbɪləti/ n. (plural possibilities) 1 [C,U] if there is a possibility that something is true or that something will happen, it might be true or it might happen: There's always the possibility (that) we may all lose our jobs. | There's a strong possibility he won't be able to play on Sunday. | Is there a possibility of getting a scholarship? 2 [C] an opportunity to do something, or something that can be done or tried: We want to explore all the possibilities. | the almost endless possibilities for sales growth

pos-si-ble /ˈpəʒəbəl/ adj. 1 as long/much/soon etc. as possible as long, much, etc. as you can: They need the information as quickly as possible. | Keep him busy for as long as possible. 2 able to be done, or likely to happen, exist, or be true → IMPOSSIBLE: icy conditions are possible along the coast. | Is it possible to use the program on a Macintosh? | Computer technology now makes it possible for people to work at home. | This is the best/worst possible result (=it can be no better or worse). 3 would it be possible (for sb) to do sth? (spoken) said when asking politely if you can do or have something: Would it be possible to exchange these gloves? 4 whenever/wherever possible every time you have an opportunity to do something: She visits her grandmother whenever possible. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French, Latin possibilis, from posse “to be able”]

P

pos-si-bly /ˈpɒsəbli/ adv. 1 used when saying that something may be true or likely [SYN] perhaps: The trial will take place soon, possibly next week. | This new drug could quite possibly (=very likely) save thousands of lives. 2 used with MODAL VERBS, especially “can” and “could,” to emphasize that something is or is not possible: I couldn't possibly eat all that! | We did everything we possibly could to help them. 3 could/can you possibly...? (spoken) said when politely asking someone to do something: Could you possibly turn the radio down?

pos-sum /ˈpɒsəm/ n. [C] (informal) an OPOSSUM

post¹ /pəʊst/ n. [C] 1 a strong upright piece of wood, metal, etc. that is set into the ground, especially to support something: a fence post | the goal posts 2 (formal) an important job, especially in the government or military: She decided to leave her post at the Justice Department.

THESAURUS job, work, employment, position → JOB

3 the place where a soldier, guard, etc. is expected to be in order to do his/her job: The guards cannot leave their posts. 4 a military BASE (=place where soldiers live and work)

post² v. [T] 1 a) to put a public notice about something on a wall or BULLETIN BOARD: They've posted warning signs on the gate. b) IT to put a message or computer document on the Internet so that other people can see it: FBI agents have posted a message on the Internet describing the suspect. 2 if someone who works for the government or military is posted somewhere, s/he is sent to work there, usually for several years: His regiment have been posted to Germany. 3 ECONOMICS if a company posts its profits, sales, losses, etc., it records the money gained or lost in its accounts: In the final quarter, the company posted $12.4 million in earnings.

post-age /ˈpəʊstɪdʒ/ n. [U] the money charged for sending a letter, package, etc. by mail: Please add $3.95 for postage and handling (=the charge for packing and sending something you have bought).

'postage stamp n. [C] (formal) a STAMP

post-al /ˈpəʊstl/ adj. relating to the official mail system that takes letters from one place to another: postal workers

'postal service n. the postal service the public service for carrying letters, packages, etc. from one part of the country to another post-card /ˈpəʊstkɑːd/ n. [C] a card, often with a picture on the front, that can be sent in the mail without an envelope: Send me a postcard while you're away.

post-date /ˈpəʊstˈdeɪt/ v. [T] to write a check with a date that is later than the actual date, so that it cannot be used until that time post-er /ˈpəʊstə/ n. [C] a large printed notice, picture, etc. used in order to advertise something or as a decoration: a poster of Bob Marley

THESAURUS advertisement, commercial, billboard → ADVERTISEMENT picture, sketch, painting, snapshot, portrait, cartoon, caricature, illustration → PICTURE¹

pos-te-ri-or /pəˈstɪəriə, pəʊ-/ n. [C] (humorous) the part of the body you sit on post-er-i-ty /pəˈstɪəri/ n. [U] all the people in the future who will be alive after you are dead: I'm saving these pictures for posterity.

post-grad-u-ate /ˈpəʊstˈgrædʒuət/ adj. relating to the work people do when studying to obtain a higher degree after college: a postgraduate scholarship → STUDENT post-hu-mous /ˈpəʊstˌjəməs/ adj. happening after someone's death: a posthumous award —posthumously adv.

'Post-it n. [C] (trademark) a small piece of paper that sticks to things, used for leaving notes for people post-man /ˈpəʊstmən/ n. (plural postmen /-mənz/) [C] a MAILMAN

post-mark /ˈpəʊstmark/ n. [C] an official mark made on a letter, package, etc. that shows the place and time it was sent —postmark v. [T]: The card is postmarked Dec. 2.

post-mas-ter /ˈpəʊstˌmæstə/ n. [C] the person in charge of a post office post-mor-tem /ˈpəʊstˌmɔːtəm/ n. [C] an examination of a dead body to discover why the person died

'post office n. [C] a place where you can buy stamps, and send letters, packages, etc.

'post office box n. [C] a P.O. BOX

post-par-tum /ˈpəʊstˌpɑːtəm/ adj. relating to the time just after a woman has a baby: postpartum depression post-pone /pəʊstˈpəʊn/ v. [T] to change an event to a later time or date → CANCEL: The game was postponed because of rain. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin postponere, from post “after” + ponere “to put”] —postponement n. [C,U]

THESAURUS delay, put off, procrastinate, defer → DELAY¹

post-script /'poust,skript/ (written abbreviation P.S.) n. [C] a message written at the end of a letter below the place where you sign your name [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Modern Latin postscriptum, from Latin postscribere “to write after”] pos-tu-late /'pɑstʃə,leɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to suggest that something might have happened or might be true pos-ture /'pɑstʃə/ n. [C,U] the position you hold your body in when you sit or stand: Poor posture can lead to back trouble.

post-war /'poustwɔː/ adj. [only before noun] happening or existing after a war: the postwar years | postwar prosperity

pos-sy /'pouzi/ n. (plural posies) [C] (literary) a small BUNCH of flowers

pot¹ /pɑt/ n. 1 [C] a container used for cooking, that is round, deep, and usually made of metal, or the amount this container holds → JAR, PAN, SAUCE-PAN: pots and pans | a pot of soup 2 [C] a container with a handle and a small tube for pouring, used for making coffee or tea → JUG: a coffee pot 3 [C] a container for a plant (SYN flowerpot: The plant needs a new pot. 4 go to pot (informal) if an organization or a place goes to pot, its condition becomes worse because no one takes care of it: The farm has gone to pot since my uncle died. 5 the pot (informal) all the money that people have risked in a game of cards 6 [U] (informal) MARIJUANA [ORIGIN: Old English pott]

pot² v. (potted, potting) [T] to put a plant in a pot filled with soil

pot-a-ble /'poutəbəl/ adj. (formal) potable water is safe to drink pot-as-si-um /pə'tæsiəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol K) a silver-white soft metal that is an ELEMENT and is used in making soaps and FERTILIZERS [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Modern Latin, English potash]

pot-a-to /pə'teɪtəʊ, -tə/ n. (plural potatoes) [C,U] a hard round white root with a brown, red, or pale yellow skin, cooked and eaten as a vegetable: mashed/baked/fried/boiled potatoes [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Spanish batata, from Taino (a Caribbean language)] → see picture at VEGETABLE pot-ato chip n. [C] one of many thin hard pieces of potato that have been cooked in oil, and that are sold in packages: a bag of potato chips pot-bel-ly /'pɑtˈbɛli/ n. (plural potbellies) [C] a large round stomach that sticks out —potbellied adj.

pot-ten-cy /'poutˈnɪsi/ n. [U] 1 the strength of the effect of a drug, medicine, alcohol, etc. on your mind or body: high-potency vitamins 2 a man's ability to have sex pot-tent /'poutˈnt/ adj. powerful and effective: a potent weapons system | potent drugs

pot-ten-tate /'poutˈn,teɪt/ n. [C] (literary) a ruler with direct power over his people

po-ten-tial¹ /pə'tenʃəl/ (Ac) adj. likely to develop into a particular type of person or thing in the future: Brush regularly and avoid potential problems with your teeth. | potential customers/buyers | Today, acid rain is a potential threat to crops in the region. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Late Latin potentialis, from Latin potentia “power”]

potential² n. 1 [singular, U] the possibility that something will develop or happen in a particular way: There's a potential for conflict in the area. | It hasn't lived up to its potential. | The area has great economic potential. 2 [U] a natural ability that could develop to make you very good at something: She has/shows potential as a singer. | We want a society in which children can grow and achieve their potential.

po-tential 'difference n. [C] PHYSICS the difference in electrical force between two points in an electric CIRCUIT, measured in VOLTS po-tential 'energy n. [U] PHYSICS the energy that is stored in physical matter when it is not moving → KINETIC ENERGY po-ten-tial-ly /pə'tenʃəli/ (Ac) adv. something that is potentially dangerous, useful, etc. is not dangerous, etc. now, but may become so in the future: a potentially embarrassing situation | a potentially fatal disease (=one that could kill you) | Wind power would bring potentially significant environmental benefits.

pot-hold-er /'pɑt,hoʊldə/ n. [C] a piece of thick material used for holding hot cooking pans pot-hole /'pɑthoʊl/ n. [C] a hole in the surface of a road that makes driving difficult po-tion /'pouʃən/ n. [C] (literary) a drink intended to have a special or magic effect on the person who drinks it: a love potion pot-luck¹ /'pɑt'lʌk/ n. take potluck (informal) to choose something without knowing very much about it: Nobody knew about any good restaurants, so we took potluck.

potluck² adj. a potluck meal/dinner etc. a meal in which everyone who is invited brings something to eat pot 'pie n. [C] meat and vegetables covered with PASTRY and baked in a deep dish: chicken pot pie pot-pour-ri /'poupʊ'ri/ n. [U] a mixture of dried flowers and leaves kept in a bowl to make a room smell nice pot-ter-y /'pɑtəri/ n. [U] 1 the activity of making objects out of baked clay → CERAMICS: a pottery class 2 objects made out of baked clay: Native American pottery —potter n. [C] pot-ty /'pɑti/ n. (plural potties) [C] (spoken) a word meaning a toilet, used when speaking to children pouch /paʊtʃ/ n. [C] 1 a small leather or cloth bag that you can keep things in 2 a pocket of skin on the stomach that MARSUPIALS keep their babies in poul·try /'poultri/ n. [U] birds such as chickens, that are kept on farms for supplying eggs and meat, or the meat from these birds

P

pounce /paʊns/ v. [I] to suddenly jump on a person or animal after waiting to catch him, her, or it: He pounced on my back, forcing me to the ground.

pounce on sb/sth phr. v. to criticize someone's mistakes or ideas very quickly and eagerly: Republicans quickly pounced on the president's proposal.

pound¹ /paʊnd/ n. [C] 1 (written abbreviation lb) a unit for measuring weight, equal to 16 OUNCES or 453.6 grams: a pound of apples | Jim weighs 175 pounds. | She's lost/gained ten pounds this year (=her weight has gone down or up by 10 pounds). 2 the pound a place where lost dogs and cats are kept until the owner claims them 3 the standard unit of money in the U.K. and some other countries: It cost three pounds. | a ten-pound note [ORIGIN: (3) Old English pund, from Latin pondo]

pound² v. 1 [I,T] to hit something several times to make a lot of noise, damage it, make it lie flat, etc.: Thomas pounded on the desk with his fist. | The man suddenly began pounding his head against the wall. | The women pounded the grain to make flour.

THESAURUS hit, beat, strike, knock, bang, rap, hammer → HIT¹

2 [T] to attack a place continuously for a long time with bombs: Enemy guns pounded the city until morning. 3 [I] if your heart pounds, it beats very quickly 4 [I] to walk or run quickly with heavy loud steps: I heard the sound of heavy boots pounding on the floor.

'pound cake n. [C] a heavy cake made from flour, sugar, eggs, and butter pour /pɔːr/ v. 1 [T] to make a liquid or a substance such as salt or sand flow out of or into something: She poured coffee for everyone. | Could you pour me a glass of lemonade, please? → see picture on page A5 2 [I] to rain heavily without stopping: It's been pouring all afternoon. 3 [I] to flow quickly and in large amounts: Fuel poured out of the plane.

THESAURUS

flow – to move in a steady continuous stream: This is the place where the river flows into the ocean.

drip – to produce small drops of liquid, or to fall in drops: Water dripped onto the floor.

leak – if a liquid leaks, it passes through a hole or crack: Oil leaked from the damaged tanker.

ooze – to flow from something very slowly: Blood oozed through the bandages.

gush – to flow or pour out quickly in large quantities: Water gushed from the fountain.

spurt – to flow out suddenly with a lot of force: Blood spurted from the wound.

run – to flow: Tears ran down her cheeks.

come out – to pour out of a container, place, etc.: I turned on the faucet, but no water came out.

4 [I] if people or things pour into or out of a place, a lot of them arrive or leave at the same time: Letters are pouring in from people all over the state. | People poured out of their houses into the streets. 5 pour money/aid etc. into sth to invest a lot of money in something over a period of time in order to make it successful: Thomas has poured thousands of dollars into his store.

pour sth ↔ out phr. v. to tell someone everything about your thoughts, feelings, etc.: Sonia poured out all her frustrations to Val.

pout /paʊt/ v. [I,T] to push out your lower lip because you are annoyed, or in order to look sexually attractive: Stop pouting; you're not going, and that's final. — pout n. [C]

pov·er·ty /'pavəti/ n. [U] the situation or experience of being poor: families living in poverty | I was shocked by the abject/extreme poverty that I saw.

'poverty, line also 'poverty, level, 'poverty, threshold n. [C] ECONOMICS the income below which someone is officially considered to be very poor and in need of help: Fifteen percent of the city's residents live below the poverty level.

'poverty-stricken adj. extremely poor: a poverty-stricken neighborhood

THESAURUS poor, needy, destitute, impoverished, indigent, penurious, deprived → POOR

pow·der¹ /'paʊdər/ n. [C,U] a dry substance in the form of very small grains: talcum powder | baking powder [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French poudre, from Latin pulvis “dust”]

powder² v. [T] 1 to put powder on your skin 2 powder your nose a phrase meaning to go to the toilet, used by women in order to be polite pow·dered /'paʊdəd/ adj. produced or sold in the form of powder: powdered milk

'powder room n. [C] (old-fashioned) a polite phrase meaning a women's public toilet pow·der·y /'paʊdəri/ adj. like powder, or easily broken into powder: powdery snow

pow·er¹ /'paʊər/ n.

1 CONTROL SB/STH [U] the ability or right to control people or events → POWERFUL, POWERLESS: We all felt that the chairman had too much power. |

I resented my father's power over me. | the power of the media

2 POLITICAL [U] POLITICS political control of a country or government: The current leader has been in power for ten years. | He came to power (=began to control the country) after the revolution.

3 ENERGY [U] PHYSICS energy such as electricity, that can be used to make a machine, car, etc. work: The plane lost power and had to make an emergency landing. | The storm caused a power failure/cut (=a time when there is no electricity) in our area. | The area uses electricity produced by nuclear/solar/wind power.

4 AUTHORITY [C,U] the legal right or authority to do something: Congress has the power to declare war. | Only the police have the power of arrest.

THESAURUS ability, capacity → ABILITY

5 COUNTRY [C] a country that is very strong and important: Germany is a major industrial power in Europe. | a meeting of world powers (=the strongest countries in the world)

THESAURUS country, nation, state, land, realm → COUNTRY¹

6 PHYSICAL [U] the physical strength of something such as an explosion, natural force, or animal: The power of the eruption blew away the whole mountain side.

THESAURUS force, strength → FORCE¹

7 NATURAL ABILITY [C,U] a natural or special ability to do something: the power of sight/speech | She has the power to make an audience laugh or cry.

8 do everything in your power to do everything that you are able or allowed to do: I did everything in my power to save her.

9 a power struggle a situation in which groups or leaders try to defeat each other and get complete control

10 earning/purchasing etc. power ECONOMICS the ability to earn money, buy things, etc.: the purchasing power of middle-class teenagers

11 be in sb's power to be in a situation in which someone has control over you

12 the powers that be (informal) the people who have positions of authority, and whose decisions affect your life: The hardest part will be persuading the powers that be at City Hall to agree.

13 to the power of 3/4/5 etc. MATH if a number is increased to the power of three, four, five, etc., it is multiplied by itself three, four, five, etc. times

power² v. 1 solar-powered/nuclear-powered etc. working or moving by means of the Sun, etc.: a battery-powered flashlight 2 [T] to supply power to a vehicle or machine: Can a car be powered by solar energy? 3 [I,T] to do something quickly and with a lot of strength: North Carolina powered its way through the tournament.

power sth ↔ up phr. v. to make a machine start working: Never move a computer while it is powered up.

'power base n. [C] the group of people in a particular area that supports a politician or leader pow-er-boat /'paʊə,bɒt/ n. [C] a boat with a powerful engine that is used for racing pow-er-ful /'paʊəfəl/ adj. 1 able to control and influence events and other people's actions: a meeting of the world's most powerful leaders | the most powerful political party in the country

THESAURUS

influential – having a lot of power to influence what happens: a meeting of influential business leaders strong – having a lot of power, influence, or ability: He is a strong voice in the state assembly.

dominant – more powerful than other people or groups, and able to control what happens: England was once the dominant power in the world.

2 having a lot of power, strength, or force: a powerful engine | a powerful man | a powerful explosion 3 having a strong effect on someone's feelings or ideas: a powerful speech | a powerful argument against eating meat 4 having a strong effect on your body: a powerful drug/medicine —powerfully adv.

pow-er-house /'paʊə,haʊs/ n. [C] (informal) 1 a country, company, organization, etc. that has a lot of power or influence 2 someone who has a lot of energy pow-er-less /'paʊəlis/ adj. unable to stop or control something because you do not have the power, strength, or right to do so: The small group of soldiers was powerless to stop the attack.

—powerlessness n. [U]

'power line n. [C] a large wire carrying electricity above or under the ground

,power of at'torney n. (plural powers of attorney) [C,U] LAW the legal right to do things for someone else in his/her business or personal life, or the document that gives this right

'power plant also 'power ,station n. [C] a building where electricity is produced to supply a large area

'power ,steering n. [U] a special system that makes it easier for the driver of a vehicle to STEER (=change the direction of the vehicle)

'power tool n. [C] a tool that works by using electricity pow-wow /'paʊwau/ n. [C] 1 (humorous) a meeting or discussion 2 a meeting or council of Native American tribes

pp. the written abbreviation of PAGES: Read pp. 20–35.

PR n. 1 [U] PUBLIC RELATIONS 2 the written abbreviation of Puerto Rico

P

P

prac-ti-ca-ble /'præktɪkəbəl/ adj. (formal) possible in a particular situation: The only practicable course of action is to sell the company.

prac-ti-cal /'præktɪkəl/ adj. 1 relating to real situations and events rather than ideas: Do you have a lot of practical experience as a mechanic? | I deal with practical matters, like finding people places to stay. 2 practical plans, methods, etc. are likely to succeed or be effective: Is that a practical solution to the problem? | Treganowan's book gives practical advice for keeping your car on the road. 3 a practical person is good at dealing with problems and making decisions based on what is possible and what will really work: Be practical – at least wait for the storm to pass. 4 useful, or appropriate for a particular purpose: practical gifts, such as clothes | a practical car for a family 5 for all practical purposes used in order to describe what the real effect of a situation is: For all practical purposes, the election is over (=we already know who the winner is).

prac-ti-cal-i-ty /,præktɪ'kæləti/ n. 1 practicalities [plural] the real facts of a situation, rather than ideas about how it might be: The practicalities of raising children can be quite different from what the books say. 2 [U] how appropriate something is, and whether it will work: You need to think about comfort and practicality when choosing walking shoes.

practical 'joke n. [C] a trick that is intended to surprise someone and make other people laugh —practical joker n. [C]

prac-ti-cally /'præktɪkli/ adv. 1 (spoken) almost: Practically everyone was there. | She practically jumped out of her chair. | I've read practically all of his books. 2 in a sensible way: Vasko just doesn't think practically.

prac-tice¹ /'præktɪs/ n.

1 SKILL a) [U] regular activity that you do in order to improve a skill or ability: It takes a lot of practice to be a good piano player. | Your English will improve with practice. b) [C,U] the period of time in which you do this: football/choir etc. practice

2 STH THAT IS USUALLY DONE [C,U] a) something that people do often and in a particular way: It's common/standard/normal practice to do the payroll in this way. b) something that you do often because of your religion or your society's tradition [SYN] custom: The practice of kissing someone as a greeting is common in other countries.

THESAURUS habit, custom, tradition, convention → HABIT

3 in practice used in order to describe what the real situation is rather than what seems to be true: Annette is the head of the company, but in practice Sue runs everything.

4 DOCTOR/LAWYER [C] the work of a doctor or lawyer, or the place where s/he works: She has a successful medical/legal practice.

5 be out of practice to be unable to do something well because you have not done it for a long time: I'd like to play with you, but I'm really out of practice.

6 put sth into practice if you put an idea, plan, etc. into practice, you start to use it and see if it is effective: Now's your chance to put the skills you've learned into practice.

practice² v. 1 [I,T] to do an activity regularly to improve your skill or ability: Gail practices the piano more than an hour every day. | The Giants spent the afternoon practicing for their game on Sunday.

THESAURUS

rehearse – to practice something such as a play or concert before giving a public performance: The band was rehearsing for the show that night.

work on sth – to practice a skill, musical instrument, etc. in order to improve: Jessie has been working on her tennis serve.

train – to prepare for a sports event by exercising and practicing: Olympic swimmers train for hours every day.

drill – to teach people something by making them repeat the same exercise, lesson, etc. many times: The program allows you to drill yourself on grammar, vocabulary, and dictation.

2 [I,T] to work as a doctor or lawyer: Bill is practicing law/medicine in Ohio now. 3 [T] to do an activity as a habit, or to live according to the rules of a religion: The posters encourage young people to practice safe sex.

prac-ticed /'præktɪst/ adj. good at doing something because you have done it many times before: a practiced pilot

prac-tic-ing /'præktɪsɪŋ/ adj. 1 a practicing Catholic/Jew/Muslim etc. someone who obeys the rules of a particular religion

THESAURUS religious, devout, pious, god-fearing, orthodox → RELIGIOUS

2 a practicing doctor/lawyer/architect etc. someone who is working as a doctor, lawyer, etc.

prac-ti-tion-er /præk'tɪʃənə/ [Ac] n. [C] (formal) someone who is trained to do a particular type of work that involves a lot of skill: a tax practitioner | a medical practitioner | This sort of surgery can only be undertaken by highly skilled practitioners.

prag-mat-ic /præg'mætɪk/ adj. dealing with problems in a sensible practical way, instead of strictly following a set of ideas: The diet gives you pragmatic suggestions for eating healthily.

prag-mat-ics /præg'mætɪks/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the study of how words and phrases are used with special meanings in particular situations, for example the way “I know” can be used to agree with someone prag-ma-tism /'prægmə'tɪzəm/ n. [U] a tendency to deal with problems in a pragmatic way —pragmatist n. [C]

prai-rie /ˈpreɪri/ n. [C] a large area of flat land in North America that is covered in grass

'prairie dog n. [C] a North American animal with a short tail, that lives in holes on a prairie praise¹ /preɪz/ v. [T] 1 to say publicly that someone has done something well or that you admire him/her: Mr. Bonner praised Jill for the quality of her work. | a highly praised speech

THESAURUS

congratulate – to tell someone that you are happy that s/he has achieved something flatter – to say nice things about someone, sometimes when you do not really mean it, often in order to get something you want compliment sb/pay sb a compliment – to say something nice to someone in order to praise him or her extol (formal) – to praise something very much: One of his colleagues extolled him as “a very fine human being.”
commend (formal) – to praise someone or something publicly or formally: The children were commended for their behavior.

2 to give thanks or honor to God [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French preisier, from Late Latin pre-tiare “to value highly”] praise² n. [U] 1 words that you say or write to praise someone or something: The papers were full of praise for the quick actions of the fire department. | Teachers try to give plenty of praise and encouragement to students. 2 an expression of respect or thanks to God: Let us give praise unto the Lord.

praise-wor-thy /ˈpreɪz,wɔːði/ adj. (formal) deserving praise prance /præns/ v. [I] (disapproving) to walk or dance with high steps or large movements, in a way that makes people notice you: He started prancing around in front of the video camera.

prank /præŋk/ n. [C] a trick that is intended to make someone look silly: Chris and Keith love to play/pull pranks on each other.

prank-ster /ˈpræŋkstə/ n. [C] someone who plays pranks on people prawn /prɔːn/ n. [C] a sea animal like a large SHRIMP, that is used for food pray /preɪ/ v. [I,T] 1 to speak to a god or gods in order to ask for help or give thanks: You don't have to go to church to pray. | People are praying for peace. | She got down on her knees and prayed to God. 2 to wish or hope for something very strongly: We're praying for good weather tomorrow. | I'm just praying that I finish on time. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French preier, from Latin precari, from prex “request, prayer”]

prayer /preɪ/ n. 1 [C] words that you say when praying to a god or gods: I closed my eyes and said a prayer. | Our thoughts and prayers go out to the victims. | a prayer for the dead 2 [U] the act or regular habit of praying: a time of prayer | They bowed their heads in prayer. 3 not have a prayer (informal) to have no chance of succeeding: The Seahawks don't have a prayer of winning.

preach /pri:tʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to give a speech, usually in a church, about a religious subject: The minister preaches to large crowds every Sunday. 2 [T] to talk about how good or important something is and to try to persuade other people to do or accept it: He's always preaching the value/virtue/gospel etc. of hard work. 3 [I] to give advice in a way that annoys people: I wish you would stop preaching at me like this.

preach-er /ˈpri:tʃə/ n. [C] someone who talks about religious subjects, usually in a church preach-y /ˈpri:tʃi/ adj. (informal) trying very hard to persuade people to accept a particular opinion, in a way that annoys them: I don't like the preachy tone in her writing.

pre-am-ble /ˈpri:æmbəl/ n. [C] (formal) a statement at the beginning of a book, speech, etc.: the preamble to the Constitution pre-ar-ranged /ˌpri:ə'reɪnɪd/ adj. planned before: We can have a driver pick you up at a prearranged time.

Pre-cam-brian /ˈpri:kæmbriən/ n. the Pre-cambrian EARTH SCIENCES the period of time in the Earth's history from when the hard outer surface of the Earth first formed about 4,600 million years ago until about 570 million years ago when simple forms of life first appeared on the Earth —Precambrian adj.: Precambrian rock → CENOZOIC, MESOZOIC, PALEOZOIC pre-car-i-ous /ˈpri:kəriəs, -'kær-/ adj. 1 a precarious situation may easily or quickly become worse: The newspaper is in a precarious financial position. 2 likely to fall, or likely to cause something to fall: We had to cross a precarious rope bridge. —precariously adv.

pre-cau-tion /ˈpri:kəʃən/ n. [C] something that you do to prevent something bad or dangerous from happening: safety precautions | People were warned to stay inside as a precaution. | You have to take precautions when working with chemicals.

pre-cau-tion-a-ry /ˈpri:kəʃənəri/ adj. done as a precaution: The doctors have put him in the hospital as a precautionary measure.

pre-cede /ˈpri:sɪd/ (Ac) v. [T] (formal) to happen or exist before something else: The fire was preceded by a loud explosion. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French précéder, from Latin praecedere “to go in front”]

prec-e-dence /ˈpresədəns/ (Ac) n. take/have precedence (over sth) to be more important or urgent than something else: This project takes precedence over everything else. | Federal laws take precedence over local laws.

prec-e-dent /ˈpresədənt/ (Ac) n. [C] an action or official decision that is used as an example for a similar action or decision at a later time: The trial set a precedent for civil rights legislation. | The judge's ruling was an important precedent.

pre-ced-ing /prɪ'sɪdɪŋ, 'prɪsɪdɪŋ/ (AC) adj. [only before noun] (formal) happening or coming before something else: The events of the preceding week worried him. | The preceding chapter discussed the economic effects of slavery in the Southern states.

pre-cept /'prɪsept/ n. [C] (formal) a rule that helps you decide how to think or behave in a situation: basic moral precepts

THESAURUS rule, law, regulation, restriction → RULE¹

P

pre-cinct /'prɪsɪŋkt/ n. [C] 1 POLITICS a part of a city that has its own police force, government officials, etc.: the 12th precinct 2 POLITICS the smallest voting area in a U.S. election [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Medieval Latin praecinctum, from Latin praecingere “to put a belt around”] pre-cious¹ /'preɪʃəs/ adj. 1 something that is precious is valuable or important and should not be wasted: We cannot afford to waste precious time/days/minutes etc. 2 precious memories or possessions are very important to you because they remind you of people or events in your life: The doll is precious to me because it was my grandmother's. 3 valuable because of being rare or expensive: a precious jewel/stone/metal

THESAURUS valuable, priceless, worth a lot/a fortune → VALUABLE

4 (spoken) used in order to describe someone or something that is small and pretty: What a precious little girl! [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French precios, from Latin pretiosus, from pretium “price, money”] precious² adv. precious little/few (informal) very little or very few: We had precious little time to prepare for the trip.

prec-i-pice /'prɛsəpɪs/ n. [C] a very steep side of a mountain or cliff pre-cip-i-tate¹ /prɪ'sɪpə'teɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to make something happen suddenly: The President's death precipitated a political crisis.

pre-cip-i-tate² /prɪ'sɪpə'teɪt/ adj. (formal) done too quickly, especially without thinking carefully enough

THESAURUS impulsive, rash, hotheaded, impetuous, hasty → IMPULSIVE

pre-cip-i-ta-tion /prɪ'sɪpə'teɪʃən/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES rain or snow pre-cip-i-tous /prɪ'sɪpə'təs/ adj. (formal) 1 very sudden: a precipitous drop/decline in property values 2 dangerously high or steep: precipitous cliffs pré-cis /'preɪsi/ n. (plural précis /-sɪz/) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a short piece of writing that gives the main points from another piece of writing → SUMMARY —précis v. [T]

pre-cise /prɪ'saɪs/ (AC) adj. 1 exact or correct in every detail: The precise cause of the accident is unknown. | What is the precise location of the ship? | At that precise moment, the telephone rang. | a precise figure/number/amount | No method of measuring intelligence can be precise. 2 to be precise used when you add exact details about something: He was born in April, on the 4th to be precise. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French précis, from Latin praecisus, from praecidere “to cut off”]

pre-cise-ly /prɪ'saɪsli/ (AC) adv. 1 exactly or correctly: I do not remember precisely what happened. | at precisely 4 o'clock | Often, the children who need help most are precisely those who are afraid to ask for it. 2 (spoken) used in order to agree with what someone has just said: “So Clark is responsible for the mistake.” “Precisely.”

pre-ci-sion /prɪ'sɪʒən/ (AC) n. [U] the quality of being very exact: The weight of an atom can be measured with great precision. | The audience was impressed by the clarity and precision of his arguments. —precision adj.: precision bombing | The factory produces precision instruments such as microscopes.

pre-clude /prɪ'klud/ v. [T] (formal) to prevent something or make it impossible to happen: Poor eyesight may preclude you from driving.

pre-co-cious /prɪ'kouʃəs/ adj. a precocious child shows skill or intelligence at a young age, or behaves in an adult way [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin praecox “becoming ripe early,” from coquere “to cook, ripen”]

pre-con-ceived /,prɪkən'sɪvd/ adj. [only before noun] preconceived ideas are formed about something before you know what it is really like: He has a lot of preconceived ideas/notions about what living in America is like.

pre-con-cep-tion /,prɪkən'sɛpʃən/ n. [C] an idea that is formed about something before you know what it is really like pre-con-di-tion /,prɪkən'dɪʃən/ n. [C] something that must happen before something else can happen: An end to the fighting is a precondition for peace negotiations.

pre-cur-sor /'prɪ,kəsə, prɪ'kəsə/ n. [C] (formal) something that happened or existed before something else and influenced its development: This machine is a precursor of the computer.

pre-date /prɪ'deɪt/ v. [T] to happen or exist earlier than something else: His troubles actually predated the arrest.

pred-a-tor /'predətə/ n. [C] an animal that kills and eats other animals pred-a-to-ry /'predə'tɔri/ adj. 1 predatory animals kill and eat other animals 2 (disapproving) trying to use someone's weakness to get an advantage for yourself predatory 'pricing n. [U] ECONOMICS the practice of selling a product or service for less than the cost of producing it. Companies do this in order to increase their share of sales in a market and to force competitors out of the market.

pred-e-ces-sor /ˈprɛdəˌsɛsə/ n. [C] 1 the person who had a job before someone else began to do it: My predecessor worked here for ten years. 2 something such as a machine or system that existed before another one: The new computer is similar to its predecessors, but even faster. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French prédécesseur, from Late Latin, from Latin pre “before” + decedere “to go away, leave your job”]

pre-des-ti-na-tion /ˌprɪdɛstəˈneɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 SOCIAL SCIENCE the belief that God or FATE has decided everything that will happen and that no one can change this 2 SOCIAL SCIENCE the belief in some Christian churches that God decided before the beginning of the world who would go to heaven and who would not pre-des-tined /ˌprɪˈdɛstɪnd/ adj. something that is predestined is certain to happen and cannot be changed pre-de-ter-mined /ˌprɪdɪˈtɜːmɪnd/ adj. (formal) decided or arranged before: The doors unlock at a predetermined time.

pre-dic-a-ment /ˌprɪˈdɪkəmənt/ n. [C] a difficult situation in which you do not know what is the best thing to do: It was Raoul who got us in this predicament in the first place.

pred-i-cate /ˈprɛdɪkɪt/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the part of a sentence that has the main verb, and that tells what the subject is doing or describes the subject. In the sentence “He ran out of the house,” “ran out of the house” is the predicate.
→ SUBJECT

pred-i-ca-tive /ˈprɛdɪkətɪv, -ˌkeɪtɪv/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a predicative adjective or phrase comes after a verb and describes the subject, such as “sad” in “She is sad.”

pre-dict /ˌprɪˈdɪkt/ (Ac) v. [T] to say that something will happen before it happens: The newspapers are predicting a close election. | Analysts predict (that) college costs will continue to rise. | It's difficult to predict exactly what the effects will be. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of praedicere “to say beforehand”] prophesy/foretell – to use religious or magical knowledge to say what will happen in the future: The priestess at Delphi prophesied that Laius would be killed by his own son.

THESAURUS

forecast – to say what is likely to happen in the future, based on information you have: The number of passengers using the airport is forecast to rise.

foresee – to know that something will happen before it happens: No one could have foreseen what happened next.

have a premonition – to have a feeling that something bad is about to happen: He had a premonition of impending danger.

pre-dict-a-ble /ˌprɪˈdɪktəbəl/ (Ac) adj. behaving or happening in a way that you expect: You're so predictable! | The ending of the movie was too predictable. | The disease develops in a way that follows a predictable pattern. | The results of the experiment were highly predictable.
—predictably adv. —predictability /ˌprɪˈdɪktəˈbɪləti/ n. [U]

pre-dic-tion /ˌprɪˈdɪkʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] a statement saying that something is going to happen, or the act of making statements of this kind: It's hard to make a prediction about who will win. | predictions of climate change | Despite all our modern technology, weather prediction is still unreliable.
—predictive adj.

pred-i-lec-tion /ˌprɛdlɪˈɛkʃən, ˌprɪd-/ n. [C] (formal) the tendency to like a particular kind of person or thing: a predilection for apple pie pre-dis-posed /ˌprɪdɪˈspəʊzd/ adj. pre-disposed to/toward sth likely to behave or think in a particular way, or to have a particular health problem: Some people are predisposed to depression.

pre-dis-po-si-tion /ˌprɪdɪspəˈzɪʃən/ n. [C] a tendency to behave in a particular way or suffer from a particular health problem: a predisposition to/toward skin cancer

pre-dom-i-nance /ˌprɪˈdɒməns/ (Ac) n. (formal) 1 [singular] if there is a predominance of one type of thing or person in a group, there are more of them than any other type of person or thing: the predominance of male students in the class 2 [U] the most power or importance in a particular group or area: American predominance in world economics | Rival supermarkets are constantly fighting to achieve predominance.

pre-dom-i-nant /ˌprɪˈdɒmənt/ (Ac) adj. more powerful, common, or noticeable than others: Racism in American society is a predominant theme in Wright's novels. | The predominant mode of instruction is lectures and seminars. | These two political parties were predominant in the 19th century.

pre-dom-i-nant-ly /ˌprɪˈdɒməntli/ (Ac) adv. mostly or mainly: a predominantly middle-class neighborhood | Throughout this region, the economy is based predominantly on agriculture.

pre-dom-i-nate /ˌprɪˈdɒməneɪt/ (Ac) v. [I] to have the most importance, or to be the most in number: Democrats predominate in this district. | Sometimes, passing tests predominates over the importance of learning.

pree-mie /ˈpriːmi/ n. [C] (informal) a PREMATURE baby pre-em-i-nent /ˌprɪˈɛmənt/ adj. much more important or powerful than all others in a particular group: a preeminent political figure —preeminence n. [U]

pre-empt /pri'empt/ v. [T] to make what someone is about to do unnecessary or not effective, by doing something else first: Approval of the plan would preempt the strike. —preemptive adj.: a preemptive attack

preen /prin/ v. 1 [I,T] if a bird preens, or preens itself, it cleans itself and makes its feathers smooth 2 preen yourself (disapproving) to spend a lot of time making yourself look good: He's always preening himself in the mirror.

pre-exist-ing /pri:ɪg'zɪstɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] existing already, or before something else: a pre-existing medical condition

P

pre-fab-ri-cat-ed /pri'fæbrə,keɪtɪd/ also pre-fab /pri'fæb, 'prɪfæb/ adj. built from parts made in a factory and put together somewhere else: prefabricated homes

pref-ace¹ /'prɛfɪs/ n. [C] an introduction at the beginning of a book or speech: the preface to the novel preface² v. [T] (formal) to say or do something first before saying or doing something else: He prefaced his remarks with an expression of thanks to the audience.

pre-fer /pri'fɜ:/ v. (preferred, preferring) [T] 1 to like someone or something more than someone or something else: Which color do you prefer? | Many companies prefer to hire young workers. | I would prefer not to talk about it at the moment. | She prefers walking to driving. 2 I would prefer it if (spoken) used in order to tell someone politely not to do something: I'd prefer it if you didn't smoke in the house. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French préférer, from Latin praeferre “to put in front, prefer”]

pref-er-a-ble /'prɛfərəbəl/ adj. better or more appropriate: Anything is preferable to war.

pref-er-a-bly /'prɛfərəbli/ adv. used in order to show which person, thing, place, or idea you think would be the best choice: You should see a doctor, preferably a specialist.

pref-er-ence /'prɛfrəns, -fərəns/ n. 1 [C,U] if someone has a preference for something, s/he likes it more than another thing: We have always had a preference for small cars. | It's a matter of personal preference. 2 give/show preference (to sb) to treat someone better than you treat other people: Doctors should give preference to patients who are seriously ill.

pref-er-en-tial /'prɛfərə'ɛnʃəl/ adj. treating one person or group better than others: Why should she get preferential treatment?

pre-fix /'prɪfɪks/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a group of letters that is added to the beginning of a word in order to make a new word, such as “mis-” in “misunderstand” → SUFFIX [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Modern Latin prae-fixum, from Latin prae- “to fasten before”] preg-nan-cy /'pregnənsi/ n. (plural pregnancies) [C,U] the condition of being pregnant, or the period of time when a woman is pregnant: You should not drink alcohol during your pregnancy. | a pregnancy test

preg-nant /'pregnənt/ adj. 1 having a baby that has not been born yet growing in your body: a pregnant woman | She's three months pregnant. | Marie got pregnant soon after the wedding. | She's pregnant with her first child. 2 a pregnant silence/pause (literary) a silence or pause that is full of meaning or emotion [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin praegnans, from praegnās, from prae- “before” + gnatus “born”] pre-heat /pri'hit/ v. [T] to heat an OVEN to a particular temperature before cooking food in it pre-his-tor-ic /prihi'stɔ:ɪk/ adj. relating to the time in history before anything was written down: prehistoric cave drawings —prehistory /pri'hɪstəri/ n. [U] pre-judge /,pri'dʒʌdʒ/ v. [T] (disapproving) to form an opinion about someone or something before knowing all the facts

prej-u-dice¹ /'prɛdʒədɪs/ n. [C,U] an unreasonable dislike of someone who is different from you in some way, especially because of his/her race, sex, or religion: racial prejudice | prejudice against single mothers [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin praejudicium, from judicium “judgment”]

THESAURUS

Types of prejudice

racism – unfair treatment of people because they belong to a different race: accusations of police brutality and racism discrimination – the practice of treating one group of people differently from another in an unfair way: She accused the company of sexual discrimination.

intolerance – the fact of not being willing to accept ways of thinking or behaving that are different from your own: religious intolerance bigotry – behavior or beliefs that show that you have unreasonable opinions, especially about race or religion: In the 1930s, bigotry against immigrants increased.

sexism – the belief that one sex, especially the female sex, is weaker, less intelligent, or less important than the other, especially when this results in someone being treated unfairly: The armed forces have worked to reduce sexism in their policies.

homophobia – hatred and fear of homosexuals: Homophobia is common, and had been the cause of some serious crimes.

anti-Semitism – a strong feeling of hatred toward Jewish people: Is anti-Semitism on the rise in America and Europe?

People who are prejudiced racist – someone who believes that people of his/her own race are better than others, and treats people of other races unfairly: When he expressed his opinion, he was branded a racist.

bigot – someone who has strong unreasonable opinions, especially about race or religion: He was known to be a bigot.

prejudice² v. [T] to influence someone so that s/he has an unfair opinion about someone or something before s/he knows all the facts: Watson's wild appearance may prejudice the jury against him.

prej-u-diced /ˈprɛdʒəɪst/ adj. having an unfair feeling of dislike for someone who is of a different race, sex, religion, etc.: Kurt is so prejudiced against gay people!

prej-u-di-cial /ˈprɛdʒəˈdiʃəl/ adj. (formal) influencing people so that they have a bad opinion of someone or something: prejudicial remarks

pre-lim-i-nar-y¹ /prɪˈlɪməˌnəri/ (Ac) adj. happening before something that is more important, often in order to prepare for it: a preliminary investigation | preliminary talks/discussions | In this preliminary study, a small number of texts were examined. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French préliminaire, from Medieval Latin praeliminaris, from Latin limen “threshold”] preliminary² n. (plural preliminaries) [C usually plural] something that is done at the beginning of an activity, event, etc., often in order to prepare for it: the preliminaries of the competition prelude /ˈpreljʊd, ˈpreɪlʊd/ n. 1 be a prelude to sth to happen just before something else, often as an introduction to it: The attack may be a prelude to full-scale war. 2 [C] a short piece of music that comes before a large musical piece: Chopin's preludes pre-mar-i-tal /prɪˈmæərɪtl/ adj. happening or existing before marriage: premarital sex

pre-ma-ture /ˈprɪməˈtʃʊə, -ˈtʊə/ adj. 1 happening too early or before the right time: a premature death 2 a premature baby is born before the usual time: The baby was six weeks premature. —prematurely adv.: The sun causes your skin to age prematurely. | The baby was born prematurely.

pre-med, pre-med /ˈprɪmed/ adj. (informal) relating to classes that prepare a student for medical school, or to students who are taking these classes: a premed student pre-med-i-tat-ed /prɪˈmedəˌteɪtɪd/ adj. a premeditated action has been planned and done deliberately: a premeditated murder —premeditation /prɪˈmedəˌteɪʃən/ n. [U] pre-men-strual /prɪˈmenstrəl/ adj. happening just before a woman's PERIOD (=monthly flow of blood)

pre,menstrual 'syndrome n. [U] PMS

pre-mier¹, Premier /prɪˈmɪr, -ˈmyr, ˈprɪmɪr/ n. [C] the leader of a government

premier² adj. (formal) best or most important: a premier wine from California pre-mière, première /prɪˈmɪr, -ˈmyr, -ˈmyr/ n. [C] the first public performance of a movie or play: the 1955 premiere of “Cat on a Hot Tin Roof” —premiere v. [I, T]

prem-ise /ˈpremɪs/ n. 1 premises [plural] the buildings and land that a store, company, etc. uses: He was ordered off the premises (=out of the building). | Do not smoke on the premises (=in the building). 2 [C] (formal) a statement or idea that you think is true and use as a base for developing other ideas: His theory is based on the premise that there may be life on other planets.

pre-mi-um /ˈprɪmiəm/ n. [C] 1 an amount of money that you pay for something such as insurance: annual premiums 2 be at a premium difficult to get because a lot of people want it: Hotel rooms are at a premium around major holidays. 3 put/place a premium on sth to think that one quality or activity is much more important than others: My grandparents put a premium on education.

pre-mo-ni-tion /ˈprɪməˌnɪʃən, ˈpre-/ n. [C] a feeling that something bad is about to happen: She had a horrible premonition that something would happen to the children.

pre-na-tal /ˈpriːneɪtl/ adj. relating to unborn babies and the care of women who are PREGNANT → POSTPARTUM: prenatal care pre-oc-cu-pa-tion /ˈpriːəkyəˈpeɪʃən/ n. 1 [singular, U] the state of being preoccupied: His growing preoccupation with his health began to affect his work. 2 [C] something that you give all your attention to: Brad's main preoccupations were eating and sleeping.

pre-oc-cu-pied /ˈpriːəkyəˌpaɪd/ adj. thinking or worrying about something a lot, so that you do not pay attention to other things: What's wrong? You seem preoccupied with something today.

pre-oc-cu-py /ˈpriːəkyəˌpaɪ/ v. (preoccupied, preoccupies) [T] if something preoccupies you, you think or worry about it a lot pre-or-dained /ˈpriːəˈdeɪnd/ adj. (formal) certain to happen because God or FATE has already decided it prep /prep/ v. (prepped, prepping) [T] (informal) to prepare for something pre-paid /ˈpriːpeɪd/ adj. if something is prepaid, it is paid for before it is needed or used: a prepaid phone card

prep-a-ra-tion /ˈprepəˌreɪʃən/ n. 1 [U] the act or process of preparing something: Flowers have been ordered in preparation for the wedding. | the preparation of the report | income tax preparation 2 also preparations [plural] arrangements for something that is going to happen: They are making preparations for the President's visit.

pre-par-a-to-ry /ˈpriːpərəˌtɔːri, -ˈper-, ˈpreprə-/ adj. [only before noun] done in order to get ready for something: preparatory work

pre-pare /prɪˈper/ v. 1 [T] to make something ready to be used: The rooms still need to be prepared for the guests. | You need to prepare the soil before planting the seeds.

THESAURUS

get sth ready – to prepare something for what you are going to do: I've been getting everything ready for the party.

set sth up – to make a piece of equipment ready to be used: Kim's setting up the computer in the meeting room.

make preparations – to prepare for an important event: They spent six months making preparations for the trip.

P

2 [I, T] to make plans or arrangements for something that will happen soon: I hope you've begun to prepare for the test. | The Bears are preparing to play the Redskins next week. | We need to prepare a plan for raising the money. 3 [T] to make yourself or someone else ready to deal with something that will happen soon: You should probably prepare yourself for some bad news. 4 [T] to give someone the training, skill, etc. that s/he needs to do something: The program prepares students for a career in business. 5 [T] to make food or a meal ready to eat: This dish can be prepared the day before. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French préparer, from Latin praeparare, from prae “before” + parare “to get, make ready”]

pre-pared /prɪˈpɛrd/ adj. 1 [not before noun] ready to do something or to deal with a particular situation: He wasn't really prepared for all their questions. 2 be prepared to do sth to be willing to do something if it is necessary: Is he prepared to accept the offer? | I am not prepared to discuss this any further. 3 [only before noun] arranged and ready to be used, before it is needed: The police read out a prepared statement to the press.

pre-par-ed-ness /prɪˈpɛrɪdnɪs/ n. [U] the state of being ready for something: military preparedness

pre-pon-der-ance /prɪˈpɒndərəns/ n. [singular] (formal) a larger number or amount of one type of thing or person in a group than of any other type: There's a preponderance of women in the orchestra.

prep-o-si-tion /ˌprɛpəˈzɪʃən/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a word or phrase that is used before a noun, PRONOUN, or GERUND to show place, time, direction, etc. In the phrase “at the bank,” “at” is a preposition. —prepositional adj.: a prepositional phrase prepositional 'phrase n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a phrase consisting of a preposition and the noun, PRONOUN, or GERUND following it, such as “in bed” or “about traveling” pre-pos-sess-ing /ˌprɪpəˈzɛsɪŋ/ adj. (formal) looking attractive or pleasant: He was small and not prepossessing.

pre-pos-ter-ous /prɪˈpɒstərəs/ adj. completely unreasonable or silly (SYN) absurd: That's a preposterous story! [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin prae-posterus “with the back part in front”] prep-py /ˈprɛpi/ adj. (informal) preppy styles or clothes are very neat and CONSERVATIVE in a way that is typical of people who go to expensive private schools

'prep school n. [C] (informal) a private school that prepares students for college pre-quel /ˈprɪkwəl/ n. [C] a book or movie that tells the story of what happened before the story told in a previous popular book or movie pre-reg-is-ter /ˌprɪˈrɛdʒɪstə/ v. [I] to put your name on a list for a particular course of study, school, etc. before the official time to do so —preregistration /ˌprɪˈrɛdʒɪˈstreɪʃən/ n. [U] pre-req-ui-site /ˌprɪˈrɛkwəzɪt/ n. [C] (formal) something that is necessary before something else can happen or be done: A degree in biology is a prerequisite for the job.

pre-rog-a-tive /ˌprɪˈrɒɡətɪv/ n. [C] a special right that someone has: If you want to leave early, that's your prerogative.

pres-age /ˈpresɪdʒ, prɪˈseɪdʒ/ v. [T] (literary) to be a sign that something is going to happen, especially something bad

Pres-by-ter-i-an /ˌprɛzbəˈtɪriən, ˌpres-/ adj. relating to the Protestant church that is one of the largest churches in the U.S. and the national church of Scotland —Presbyterian n. [C] pre-school /ˈprɪskul/ n. [C] a school for young children between two and five years of age: Emma is in preschool now. —preschool adj.: preschool children —preschooler n. [C] pre-sci-ent /ˈprɛʃɪənt, -ʃənt/ adj. (formal) able to imagine or know what will happen in the future: his prescient analysis of what would happen after the elections —prescience n. [U]

pre-scribe /ˌprɪˈskraɪb/ v. [T] 1 to say what medicine or treatment a sick person should have: Doctors commonly prescribe steroids for children with asthma. 2 (formal) to state officially what should be done in a particular situation: a punishment prescribed by the law [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin praescribere “to write at the beginning, order”] pre-scrip-tion /ˌprɪˈskrɪpʃən/ n. 1 [C] a piece of paper on which a doctor writes what medicine a sick person should have, or the medicine itself: a prescription for painkillers

THESAURUS medicine, pill, tablet, capsule, eye/ear drops, drug, medication → MEDICINE

2 by prescription a drug that you get by prescription can only be obtained with a written order from the doctor (ANT) over the counter pre-scrip-tive /ˌprɪˈskrɪptɪv/ adj. (formal) saying how something should be done or what someone should do

pres-ence /ˈprezəns/ n. 1 [U] the state of being present in a particular place (ANT) absence: The ambassador's presence at the reception was a surprise. | Tests revealed the presence of poison in the blood. 2 in sb's presence/in the presence of sb with someone, or in the same place as him/her: Everyone was afraid to voice an opinion in his presence. | He blushed whenever he was in the presence of women. 3 [singular] a group of people, especially the army or the police, who are in a place to watch or control what is happening: the American military presence in Vietnam | There's a heavy police presence at the embassy. 4 have the presence of mind to do sth to have the ability to deal with a dangerous situation calmly and quickly: Bill had the presence of mind to call 911 after the fire started. 5 make your presence felt to have a strong effect on other people or situations: Hanley has made his presence felt since joining the company. 6 [U] the ability to appear impressive to people with your appearance or manner: As an actor, he has a powerful stage presence.

pres-ent ¹ /ˈprezənt/ adj. 1 be present (formal) to be in a particular place (ANT) absent: How many people were present at the board meeting? 2 [only before noun] happening or existing now: We are unable to answer your questions at the present time. | Many people are unhappy with the present situation.

THESAURUS

current – happening, existing, or being used now: What is your current address?
existing – present now and available to be used: The existing system is not working.
prevailing – very common in a particular place at a particular time: the prevailing market price for corn

3 the present day (formal) in modern times: Traditional Indian pottery designs are still used in the present day.

pre-sent ² /prɪˈzent/ v. [T] 1 to give something to someone, especially at an official or public occasion: Mr. Davis presented the winning team with a gold cup.

THESAURUS

give, award, grant → GIVE¹

2 to give or show information in a particular way: The evidence was presented to the court by Conor's lawyer. 3 present yourself the way you present yourself is the way you talk and behave when you meet new people: She presents herself as confident and experienced. 4 to cause something such as a problem or difficulty to happen or exist: The heavy rains presented a new difficulty for the rescue workers. 5 to give a performance in a theater, etc., or broadcast it on television or radio: The Roxy is presenting a production of "Waiting for Godot" this week. 6 (formal) to introduce someone formally to someone else: May I present my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benning.

pre-sent ³ /ˈprezənt/ n. 1 [C] something that you give to someone on a special occasion (SYN) gift: a birthday/Christmas/anniversary present | He didn't even give me a present. 2 the present the time that is happening now: Live in the present – don't worry about the past! 3 at present at this time: We have no plans at present for closing the factory.

pre-sent-a-ble /prɪˈzentəbəl/ adj. attractive and neat enough to be seen or shown in public: Do I look presentable? | Let me try to make the house a little bit more presentable.

pres-en-ta-tion /ˌprɪzənˈteɪʃən, ˌpre-/ n. 1 [C] the act of giving someone a prize or present at a formal ceremony: the presentation of the awards 2 [C] a formal talk about a particular subject: She gave a short presentation on/about the new product. 3 [U] the way in which something is shown, said, etc. to others: As a chef, I care about the presentation of food as well as its taste.

'present-day adj. modern or existing now: The colonists settled near present-day Charleston.

pres-ent-ly /ˈprezəntli/ adv. (formal) 1 at this time: I presently live in Berlin.

THESAURUS

now, at the moment, for the moment, at present/at the present time, currently → NOW¹

2 (old-fashioned) in a short time: The doctor will see you presently.

THESAURUS

soon, in a minute, any minute now, before long, shortly → SOON

'present 'participle n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a PARTICIPLE that is formed by adding “-ing” to a verb. It can be used in compounds to make CONTINUOUS tenses, as in “She’s sleeping,” as an adjective, as in “the sleeping child,” or as a GERUND, as in “I like cooking.”

'present 'perfect n. the present perfect ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the tense of a verb that shows a time up to and including the present, and is formed with “have” and the past participle. In the sentence “Ken has traveled all over the world,” “has traveled” is in the present perfect.

'present 'tense n. the present tense ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the form of a verb that shows what is true, what exists, or what is happening now. In the sentence “I always leave for work at 8:00,” “leave” is in the present tense.

pres-er-va-tion /ˌprezəˈveɪʃən/ n. [U] the act of keeping something unharmed or unchanged, or the degree to which it is unharmed or unchanged: the preservation of the rainforest | The painting was in a good/bad state of preservation.

pre-serv-a-tive /prɪˈzəvətɪv/ n. [C,U] a chemical substance that prevents food or wood from decaying: The bread contains no artificial preservatives.

pre-serve ¹ /prɪˈzəv/ v. [T] 1 to keep something or someone from being harmed, destroyed, or changed too much: The group is dedicated to preserving historic buildings. | We want to preserve as much open land as possible.

THESAURUS protect, guard, safeguard, give/offer/provide protection, conserve → PROTECT

2 to add something to food so that it will stay in good condition for a long time: Cucumbers preserved in vinegar are called pickles.

preserve² n. 1 [C] an area of land or water in which animals, fish, or trees are protected: Yellowstone was the nation's first wilderness preserve. 2 [singular] an activity that only one particular group of people can do, or a place that only those people can use: Politics is no longer the preserve of wealthy white males. 3 preserves [plural] a sweet food such as JAM, made from large pieces of fruit boiled with sugar: strawberry preserves pre-side /prɪˈzaɪd/ v. [I] to be in charge of a formal meeting, ceremony, important situation, etc.: Judge Baxter presided over the trial.

pres-i-den-cy /ˈprezədənsi/ n. (plural presidencies) [C] the job of being a president, or the period of time when someone is a president: He decided to run for the presidency.

pres-i-dent, President /ˈprezədənt/ n. [C] 1 the official leader of a country that does not have a king or queen: the President of Mexico | President Lincoln

THESAURUS politician, congressman/congresswoman, senator, governor, mayor → POLITICIAN

2 someone who is in charge of a business, bank, club, college, etc.: the President of Brown University [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French président, from Latin, present participle of praesidere “to sit in front of, guard, preside over”]

THESAURUS boss, manager, head, chief, CEO → BOSS¹

pres-i-den-tial /ˌprezəˈdenʃəl/ adj. relating to the job or office of president: the presidential campaign/election | the presidential nominee/candidate/contender president pro tempore also president pro tem n. (plural presidents pro tempore) [C usually singular] POLITICS a member of the U.S. SENATE who is elected by other SENATORS to be in control of the Senate's meetings when the VICE PRESIDENT is not there

'Presidents' Day n. a U.S. holiday on the third Monday in February, to remember the BIRTHDAYS of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln pre'siding officer n. [C] POLITICS the person who is officially in charge of controlling the meetings in the U.S. SENATE or the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES pre-si-di-o /prɪˈsɪdiəʊ, -ˈsɪd-/ n. [C] HISTORY a group of buildings that is protected by walls, built by Spanish SETTLERS (=people who go to live in an area where not many people like them have lived before) in areas that are now the southwest United States press¹ /pres/ v.

1 WITH FINGER [T] to push something with your finger in order to make a machine start, a bell ring, etc.: What happens if I press this button? | Mrs. Mott pressed the doorbell again. | Press F3 to save the document.

2 PUSH AGAINST [T] to push something firmly against a surface: He pressed some money into her hand. | Their faces were pressed against the window.

3 IRON [T] to make clothes smooth using heat (SYN) iron: I need to have this suit cleaned and pressed.

4 press charges to say officially that someone has done something illegal so that a court must decide if s/he is guilty

5 PERSUADE [T] to try very hard to persuade someone to do something or tell you something: He pressed me to accept the job. | Detectives had been pressing him for details.

6 MOVE [I] to move in a particular direction by pushing: The crowd pressed forward to see what was happening.

7 HEAVY WEIGHT [T] to put pressure or weight on something to make it flat, crush it, etc.: a machine for pressing grapes

THESAURUS

squash – to press something and damage it by making it flat: Put the tomatoes where they won't get squashed.

crush – to press something very hard so that it is broken or destroyed: His leg was crushed in the accident.

mash – to press fruit or cooked vegetables until they are soft and smooth: Mash the potatoes well.

grind – to press something into powder using a special machine: Can you grind the coffee beans?

squeeze – to press something from both sides, usually with your fingers: Squeeze the toothpaste tube from the bottom. | fresh-squeezed orange juice compress (formal) – to press something so that it takes up less space: The pump compresses the air, forcing it through a tube into the tire.

compact (formal) – to press something together so that it becomes smaller or more solid: The machine compacts household trash.

press on/ahead phr. v.

to continue doing something without stopping: The army crossed the river and pressed on to the border.

press² n. 1 the press newspapers, magazines, etc., or the people who work for them: Taylor refuses to speak to the press. | the freedom of the press | Mary's new play is getting the attention of the national/local press. 2 good/bad press the praise or criticism that someone is given by newspapers, radio, or television: I don't think Kurt deserves all the bad press that he's getting. 3 [C] a business that prints and sometimes sells books: the University Press 4 [C] a PRINTING PRESS 5 go to press if a newspaper, magazine, or book goes to press, it begins to be printed: All information was correct at the time we went to press. 6 [C] a piece of equipment that makes something flat or forces liquid out of something: a flower press | a wine press

'press agent n. [C] someone whose job is to give photographs or information about a famous person to newspapers, radio, or television

'press conference n. [C] a meeting at which someone makes official statements to people who write news reports: The Governor held a press conference last night.

'press corps n. [C] a group of people who usually write the news reports that come from a particular place: the White House press corps pressed /prest/ adj. be pressed for time/money etc. to not have enough time, money, etc.: I can't stop now – I'm pressed for time.

press-ing /'presɪŋ/ adj. a pressing problem, matter, question, etc. needs to be dealt with very soon [SYN] urgent: Poverty is the country's most pressing problem.

'press re,lease n. [C] an official statement that gives information to the newspapers, radio, or television

pres-sure¹ /'preʃə/ n. 1 [U] an attempt to make someone do something by using influence, arguments, threats, etc.: Kay's family is putting pressure on her to get married. | The company is under pressure to reduce costs. | The president faces pressure from militants in his own party. 2 [C,U] the conditions of your work, family, or way of living that make you anxious, and cause problems: I've been under a lot of pressure at work lately. | There is a lot of pressure on children these days. | the pressures of modern life 3 [C,U] the force that a gas or liquid has when it is pushed and held inside a container: The air pressure in the tires might be low. 4 [U] the force produced by pressing on someone or something: She felt the comforting pressure of his hand on her shoulder.

pressure² v. [T] to try to make someone do something by using influence, arguments, threats, etc.: She was pressured into signing the statement.

THESAURUS force, make, coerce, compel
→ FORCE²

'pressure cooker n. [C] a tightly covered cooking pot that cooks food very quickly using hot steam pres-sured /'preʃəd/ adj. feeling a lot of worry because of the number of things that you have to do: Her job makes her feel pressured all the time.

'pressure group n. [C] a group of people or an organization that tries to influence what the public thinks about things, and what the government does about things pres-sur-ized /'preʃəraɪzd/ adj. if an aircraft is pressurized, the air pressure inside it is similar to the pressure on the ground pres-tige /pre'stɪʒ, -'stɪdʒ/ n. [U] if you have prestige, you are respected and admired because of your job or something that you have achieved: My present job has a certain amount of prestige attached to it.

pres-tig-i-ous /pre'stɪdʒəs, -'sti-/ adj. admired or respected as one of the best and most important: a prestigious award for writers pre-sum-a-bly /prɪ'zʌməbli/ [Ac] adv. used in order to say that something is likely to be true, although you are not certain: Presumably, he's going to come back and get this stuff.

pre-sume /prɪ'zʌm/ [Ac] v. 1 [T] to think that something is likely to be true, although you are not certain: I presume (that) this price includes all transportation and hotels. | Many of these diseases are now widely presumed to be under control.

THESAURUS assume, be under the impression that ..., take it for granted (that) → ASSUME

2 [T] to accept that something is true until it is proved untrue, especially in law: She is missing and is presumed dead. 3 [I] (formal) to behave rudely by doing something that you do not have the right to do: Don't presume to tell me how to raise my children! [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French présumer, from Latin praesumere, from prae “before” + sumere “to take”]

pre-sump-tion /prɪ'zʌmpʃən/ [Ac] n. 1 [C] something that you think must be true or is very likely to be true: There should always be a presumption of innocence until someone is proven guilty. | This idea is based on the presumption that the brain is like a digital computer. 2 [U] (formal) behavior that seems rude and too confident

pre-sump-tu-ous /prɪ'zʌmpʃuəs/ [Ac] adj. doing something that you have no right to do and that seems rude: It would be presumptuous of me to try to tell you what to do. | It is perhaps presumptuous to think that we will one day understand the purpose of the universe.

pre-sup-pose /,prɪsə'pəʊz/ v. [T] (formal) to depend on something that is thought to be true [SYN] assume: All your plans presuppose that the bank will be willing to lend us the money. —presupposition /,prɪsəpə'zɪʃən/ n. [C,U] pre-teen /'prɪtɪn/ n. [C] someone who is 11 or 12 years old —preteen adj.: my preteen daughter

pre-tend¹ /prɪ'tend/ v. [I,T] 1 to behave as if something is true when you know it is not: Terry pretended to be asleep. | We can't go on pretending

(that) everything is OK. 2 to imagine that something is true or real, as a game: Let's pretend (that) we're on the moon!

pretend² adj. a word meaning IMAGINARY, used especially by children, or when talking to children: We sang songs around a pretend campfire.

pre-tense /'prɪtens, prɪ'tens/ n. 1 [singular, U] an attempt to pretend that something is true: Kevin made no pretense of being surprised. | We had to keep up the pretense that we were married. 2 under false pretenses if you do something under false pretenses, you do it by pretending that something is true when it is not: He entered the country on a Japanese passport obtained under false pretenses.

pre-tension /prɪ'tɛnʃən/ n. [C usually plural, U] an attempt to seem more important, rich, or intelligent than you really are: his honesty and lack of pretension pre-tentious /prɪ'tɛnʃəs/ adj. trying to seem more important, rich, or intelligent than you really are: There were a bunch of pretentious people at the gallery opening.

pret-er-ite, preterit /'preʃərɪt/ n. the preterite
ENG. LANG. ARTS the PAST TENSE

pre-text /'prɪtɛkst/ n. [C] a false reason that is given for doing something, in order to hide the real reason: He got into the building on the pretext of checking the heating.

pret-ty¹ /'prɪʃi/ adv. (informal) 1 fairly, but not completely: I thought the test was pretty easy. | "How are you feeling?" "Oh, pretty good." | That car was going pretty quickly.

THESAURUS rather, fairly, quite, kind of →
RATHER

2 very: Dad was pretty angry about it. 3 pretty much almost completely: I'm pretty much done with my homework. [ORIGIN: Old English prættig "tricky," from prætt "trick"]

pretty² adj. (comparative prettier, superlative prettiest) 1 a woman or child who is pretty is attractive: a very pretty little girl | Laura is much prettier than her sister.

THESAURUS attractive, good-looking, nice-looking, beautiful, gorgeous, stunning, cute → ATTRACTIVE

2 attractive or pleasant to look at or listen to: a pretty pink dress | a song with a pretty tune 3 not a pretty picture/sight very ugly, upsetting, or worrying: The plane was completely destroyed – it's not a pretty picture.

pret-zel /'pretsəl/ n. [C] a salty type of bread, baked in the shape of a loose knot [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 German pretzel, bretzel, from Latin brachiatus "having branches like arms"] pre-vail /prɪ'veɪl/ v. [I] (formal) 1 if a person, idea, or principle prevails, they achieve success after a struggle: Justice prevailed in the end.

THESAURUS win, be victorious, triumph →
WIN¹

2 if a belief or opinion prevails, it is common among a group of people: After the riots, a mood of uncertainty still prevails in the neighborhood. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin praevalere, from prae "before" + valere "to be strong"] prevail on/upon sb phr. v. (formal) to persuade someone: I might be willing to prevail upon the committee to reconsider its decision.

pre-vail-ing /prɪ'veɪlɪŋ/ adj. 1 very common in a particular place at a particular time (SYN) current: Williams' books challenged prevailing views of U.S. history.

THESAURUS present, current, existing →
PRESENT¹

2 prevailing wind the direction in which the wind usually blows over a particular area at a particular time of the year

prev-a-lent /'prɛvələnt/ adj. common at a particular time, in a particular place, or among a particular group of people: The disease is more prevalent among young people. —prevalence n. [U]: the prevalence of crime in the inner city

pre-vent /prɪ'vent/ v. [T] to stop something from happening, or stop someone from doing something: It was an accident that could have been prevented. | A knee injury prevented him from playing. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of praevenire "to come before"] —preventable adj.: preventable diseases

pre-ven-ta-tive /prɪ'ventətɪv/ adj. preventive

pre-ven-tion /prɪ'venʃən/ n. [U] the act of preventing something, or the actions that you take in order to prevent something: crime prevention | the prevention of accidents

pre-ven-tive /prɪ'ventɪv/ adj. intended to prevent something you do not want to happen: preventive medicine (=treatment to prevent people from becoming sick)

pre-view /'prɪvju/ n. [C] 1 an occasion when you see a movie, play, etc. before it is shown to the public 2 an advertisement for a movie or television program that often consists of short parts of it —preview v. [T]

pre-vi-ous /'prɪviəs/ (Ac) adj. [only before noun] happening or existing before a particular event, time, or thing: She has two children from a previous marriage. | Have you had any previous experience in accounting? | In previous generations, the elderly depended on their children. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin praevious "leading the way," from via "way"]

THESAURUS last, former → LAST¹

pre-vi-ous-ly /'prɪviəsli/ (Ac) adv. before now, or before a particular time: She previously worked at Bank of Boston. | Previously, people had believed that the sun orbited around the Earth.

THESAURUS before, earlier → BEFORE¹

pre-war /ˌpriˈwɔːr/ adj., adv. happening or existing before a war, especially World War I or World War II: the country's prewar population

prey¹ /preɪ/ n. 1 [U] an animal that is hunted and eaten by another animal: On TV, a tiger stalked its prey. 2 fall prey to sth to be affected by something unpleasant: More teenagers are falling prey to gang violence.

prey² v.

prey on sb/sth phr. v. 1 if an animal or bird preys on another animal or bird, it hunts and eats it 2 to try to influence or deceive weaker people: The police issued a warning about dishonest salesmen who prey on old people.

price¹ /praɪs/ n. 1 [C,U] the amount of money that must be paid in order to buy something: What's the price of this book? | Gas prices have gone up again. | I can't believe how high/low their prices are. | Stock prices fell yesterday. | We could rent a car or take the train – there's almost no difference in price. | price cuts

COLLOCATIONS

go up/rise/increase – to become higher increase/raise prices – to make them higher go down/fall/drop – to become lower cut/lower/slash prices – to make them lower rocket/soar – to suddenly become much higher tumble/plummet – to suddenly become much lower fluctuate – to keep becoming higher and then lower level out/off – to stop going up or down, and continue at the same amount cost, expense, charge, fee, rate → COST¹

2 [U] something bad that you must deal with in order to have or do something else: He's very busy, but I guess that's the price of success. | She's gotten the job she wanted, but at what price? 3 at/for a price used in order to say that you can buy something, but only if you pay a lot of money: You can buy excellent wine here – at a price. 4 at any price even if something is extremely difficult: They were determined to have a child at any price. 5 asking price the price that someone who is selling something says s/he wants for it: The asking price was $500, but we paid $350 for it. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French pris, from Latin pretium “price, money”]

price² v. [T] 1 to give a price to something that is for sale: a reasonably priced pair of shoes 2 to put a sign on goods that shows how much they cost

'price index n. [C] ECONOMICS a list of particular goods and services, showing how much their prices change each month. It is used as a way of measuring INFLATION (=the rate at which prices increase over a period of time).

price-less /ˈpraɪslɪs/ adj. 1 so valuable that you cannot calculate a financial value: priceless antiques

THESAURUS valuable, precious, worth a lot/a fortune → VALUABLE

2 extremely important or useful: priceless information 3 (informal) very funny or silly: The look on his face when I walked in the room was priceless.

'price war n. [C] ECONOMICS a situation in which companies that are competing against each other reduce the prices of products or services they sell, because each company is trying to get the most customers

pric-ey, pricy /ˈpraɪsi/ adj. (informal) expensive: a pricey restaurant

THESAURUS expensive, overpriced, fancy, posh → EXPENSIVE

prick¹ /prɪk/ v. 1 [T] to make a small hole in the surface of something, using a sharp point: Prick the pie dough all over with a fork. | She pricked her finger with the needle.

THESAURUS pierce, make a hole in sth, punch, puncture → PIERCE

2 prick up its ears if an animal pricks up its ears, it raises them and points them toward a sound 3 prick up your ears to start listening to what someone is saying because it is interesting prick² n. [C] 1 a slight pain you get when something sharp goes into your skin: She felt a sharp prick when the needle went into her finger. 2 a small hole in the surface of something, made by a sharp point prick-le¹ /ˈprɪkəl/ n. [C] 1 a long thin sharp point on the skin of some plants and animals 2 a stinging feeling on your skin prickle² v. [I,T] if your skin prickles, or if something prickles your skin, you feel a slight stinging pain on your skin: That sweater always prickles me.

prick-ly /ˈprɪkli/ adj. 1 covered with prickles: prickly bushes 2 causing a stinging feeling on your skin: a prickly wool jacket

pride¹ /praɪd/ n. [U] 1 a feeling of satisfaction and pleasure in what you have done, or in what someone connected with you has done → PROUD: Everyone on our team takes great pride in (=is very proud of) the quality of their work. | They always talk about their son with pride. 2 a feeling that you like and respect yourself, and that you deserve to be respected by other people: Losing his job really hurt his pride. 3 a feeling that you are better than other people: I had too much pride to ask for money. 4 sb's pride and joy someone or something that is very important to someone: Ken's new car is his pride and joy. 5 swallow your pride to ignore your feelings of pride and do something that seems necessary, even though you do not want to do it: You're just going to have to swallow your pride and apologize.

pride² v. pride yourself on sth to be very proud of something that you do well, or of a quality that you have: Sandy prides herself on her ability to speak four languages.

priest /prɪst/ n. [C] someone who performs religious duties and ceremonies in some religions → MINISTER priest-ess /ˈprɪstɪs/ n. [C] a woman with religious authority and duties in some non-Christian religions priest-hood /ˈprɪsthʊd/ n. the priesthood the position of being a priest: Angelo has decided to enter the priesthood (=become a priest).

prim /prɪm/ adj. very formal in the way you behave, and easily shocked by anything rude: Janet's much too prim and proper to laugh at a joke like that. —primly adv.

pri-ma-cy /ˈpraɪməsi/ (Ac) n. [U] the state of being the thing or person with the most importance or authority: No one ever questioned the primacy of the church.

pri-ma don-na /ˌprɪmə ˈdʌnə, ˌprɪmə-/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who thinks that s/he is very good at what s/he does, and demands a lot of attention and admiration from other people pri-mal /ˈpraɪməl/ adj. [only before noun] primal feelings are basic and seem to come from ancient times when humans were more like animals: primal instincts

pri-mar-i-ly /praɪˈmərəli/ (Ac) adv. mainly: We do sell paintings, but this is primarily a furniture store. | Natural gas consists primarily of methane.

THESAURUS mainly, chiefly, principally, largely → MAINLY

pri-mar-y /ˈpraɪˌməri, -məri/ (Ac) adj. [only before noun] 1 most important (Syn) main: Our primary concern is the safety of the children. | The primary goal of the campaign was to win the next election. 2 relating to the education of children who are between 5 and 11 years old: primary education [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin primarius, from primus “first”] primary² n. (plural primaries) [C] POLITICS an election in the U.S. in which people vote to decide who will be their political party's CANDIDATE for a political position primary 'care n. [U] the main medical help that you get, unless your doctor decides that you need to see a SPECIALIST (=doctor with special skills) primary 'cell n. [C] PHYSICS a piece of equipment that makes electricity from the energy that is produced when two or more chemicals are mixed together. This process can only happen once, and when the electricity is used up, the cell is dead.

(Syn) voltaic cell

primary 'color n. [C] one of the three colors – red, yellow, and blue – that you can mix together to make any other color primary e'lection n. [C] POLITICS a PRIMARY primary 'growth n. [U] BIOLOGY new growth in the stem of a plant, that happens at the top of its stem and at the end of its roots

'primary school n. [C] an ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

primary 'source n. [C] HISTORY a written or spoken description of an event by someone who was actually there when it happened → SECONDARY SOURCE primary 'stress n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the strongest STRESS (=force) that you give to part of a long word when you are speaking, for example like the force given to “pri” when you say “primary.” It is shown in this dictionary by the mark (/). → SECONDARY STRESS pri-mate /ˈpraɪmeɪt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a member of the group of MAMMALS that includes humans and monkeys

prime¹ /praɪm/ (Ac) adj. [only before noun] 1 most important: Smoking is the prime cause of lung disease. 2 very good: The house is in a prime location. | The church is a prime example of Gothic architecture. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French, Latin primus “first”] prime² n. 1 be in your prime/be in the prime of life to be at the time in your life when you are strongest and most active 2 [C] a PRIME NUMBER prime³ v. [T] 1 to prepare someone for a situation so that s/he knows what to do: The senators were primed to ask some tough questions. 2 to put a special layer of paint on a surface, to prepare it for the main layer 3 to prepare a pump to work by filling it with a liquid prime 'minister n. [C] the leader of the government in countries that have a PARLIAMENT

prime 'number n. [C] MATH a number that can only be divided by itself and the number one prim-er /ˈpraɪmə/ n. [C,U] a special paint that you put on wood, metal, etc. before you put on the main layer of paint

'prime time n. [U] the time in the evening when the largest number of people are watching television pri-me-val /praɪˈmivəl/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES belonging to the earliest time in the existence of the Earth or the universe: primeval forests prim-i-tive /ˈprɪmətɪv/ adj. 1 belonging to a simple way of life that existed in the past, or to an early stage in the development of humans or animals (Ant) modern: primitive societies 2 very simple, uncomfortable, or without modern features: primitive living conditions pri-mor-di-al /praɪ'mɔːdiəl/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES existing at the beginning of time or the beginning of the Earth: the primordial seas prince /prɪns/ n. [C] 1 the son of a king or queen, or one of his or her close male relatives

THESAURUS king, queen, princess, monarch, ruler, emperor, sovereign → KING

2 a male ruler of some small countries: Prince Albert of Monaco [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French, Latin princeps “leader,” from primus “first” + capere “to take”] prince-ly /'prɪnsli/ adj. impressive or large: a princely sum of money

prin-cess /'prɪnsɪs, -sɛs/ n. [C] 1 the daughter of a king or queen, or one of his or her close female relatives

THESAURUS king, queen, prince, monarch, ruler, emperor, sovereign → KING

2 the wife of a prince

prin-ci-pal /'prɪnsəpəl/ [Ac] n. 1 [C] someone who is in charge of a school: a high school principal | Helen Davies is the principal of Ferry Elementary School. 2 [U] ECONOMICS the original amount of money that is lent to someone or saved by someone, not including any of the INTEREST: The principal amounts to $50,000. 3 [C] the main person in a business or organization, who can make business decisions [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin principalis, from princeps “leader,” from primus “first” + capere “to take”] principal ² adj. most important [Syn] main: Magic is a principal ingredient in fairy tales. | Oil is the country's principal source of income.

prin-ci-pal-i-ty /'prɪnsə'pæləti/ n. (plural prin-ci-palities) [C] a country ruled by a prince prin-ci-pally /'prɪnsəpli/ [Ac] adv. mainly: The audience was principally made up of women. | The data is derived principally from national surveys.

THESAURUS mainly, chiefly, largely, primarily → MAINLY

prin-ci-ple /'prɪnsəpəl/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] a moral rule or set of ideas about what is right and wrong, that influences how you behave: the principle that everyone is equal | I refused to sign the contract as a matter of principle (=because the contract included things I believed were wrong). | our society's values and moral principles | Schools try to teach children a set of principles. 2 [C] the basic idea that a plan or system is based on: the principles of business management | The law is a violation of the basic principles of a free society. | The management principles used by the Japanese provided valuable lessons for American labor. 3 [C] a rule that explains the way something works: the basic/fundamental principles of physics | Scientific inquiry enabled man to relate the visible changes in nature with the permanent principles underlying them. 4 in principle a) if something is possible in principle, there is no good reason why it should not happen: In principle, you can leave work early on Friday, but it's not always possible. | The class is, in principle, open to all ages. b) if you agree to something in principle, you agree about a general plan or idea without the details: The arrangement has been agreed to in principle. | Approval in principle was all that was needed to get the negotiations started. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French principe, from Latin principium “beginning”]

prin-ci-pled /'prɪnsəpəld/ [Ac] adj. (written) having strong beliefs about what is morally right and wrong: a strongly/highly principled woman | Sadly, those high ideals and principled declarations had led to war, not peace.

print ¹ /prɪnt/ v. 1 [I,T] to produce words, numbers, or pictures on paper, using a machine that puts ink onto the surface: The books are printed in China. | Why isn't my document printing? 2 [T] to produce many copies of a book, newspaper, etc.: About 100 copies of the report have been printed. 3 [T] to print an article, letter, speech, etc. in a newspaper, book, or magazine: The Times printed a story about it this week. 4 [I,T] to write words by hand without joining the letters: Please print your name in capital letters. 5 [T] to produce a photograph on special paper print sth ↔ off/out phr. v. to produce a printed copy of a computer document [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French preinte, from preint, past participle of preindre “to press,” from Latin premere]

print ² n. 1 [U] writing that has been printed in books, newspapers, etc.: The print is awfully small. | People learn many words by seeing them in print, rather than hearing them said. 2 be in print/be out of print if a book is in print, it is available to buy, and if it is out of print, it is not available to buy anymore 3 the fine/small print the details of a legal document which are often in very small writing: the fine print in the contract 4 [C] a picture that has been printed from a small sheet of metal or block of wood, or a copy of a painting 5 [C] a photograph printed on paper: Why don't you order an extra set of prints? 6 [C] a mark made on a surface or in a soft substance by something that has been pressed onto it → FOOT-PRINT: There were muddy paw prints all over the floor. 7 prints [plural] someone's FINGER-PRINTS 8 [C,U] cloth that has a colored pattern on it: a print dress print-er /'prɪntə/ n. [C] 1 a machine connected to a computer, that can copy documents from a computer onto paper: a laser printer → see picture on page A6 2 someone who owns or works in a printing business print-ing /'prɪntɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] the act or process of making a book, magazine, etc. using a machine: a printing error 2 [C] an act of printing a number of copies of a book: The novel is in its third printing. 3 [U] a method of writing, in which you write each letter of a word separately rather than joining them together

'printing press n. [C] a machine that prints newspapers, books, etc.

print-out /'prɪntaʊt/ n. [C,U] paper with printed information on it, produced by a computer printer pri-or /'praɪə/ (Ac) adj. (formal) 1 prior to sth before: the week prior to the election | The AIDS virus may not have existed prior to the 1960s. 2 [only before noun] done, planned, or existing earlier than something else (Syn) previous: No change can be made without prior approval. [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Latin “earlier, older, higher in rank,” from Latin pri “before”]

pri-or-i-tize /praɪ'ɔrətaɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] to deal with something important first, or to list several things, problems, etc. in order of importance: Ask your boss to prioritize your projects. | The city needs to prioritize the needs of children in the budget. —prioritization /praɪ'ɔrətə'zeɪʃən/ n. [U]

pri-or-i-ty /praɪ'ɔrəti/ (Ac) n. (plural priorities) 1 [C,U] the thing that you think is most important and that needs attention before anything else: Education is his top priority. | The company considers training to be a high/low priority. | The development of new fuel sources is of high priority. | Increasing market share is high on the corporation's list of priorities. 2 [U] the right to be given attention first and before other people or things: Children who live near the school are given priority over those who live farther away. | Industry should place a higher priority on reducing pollution.

prism /'prɪzəm/ n. [C] 1 PHYSICS a transparent block of glass that breaks up white light into different colors 2 MATH a solid GEOMETRIC shape with two matching ends and three or more sides that are the same width from the bottom to the top

pris-on /'prɪzən/ n. [C,U] a large building where people are kept as a punishment for a crime, or while waiting to go to court for their TRIAL: He spent ten months in prison. | Williams was sent to prison for rape. | a prison sentence/term (=time that must be spent in prison)

COLLOCATIONS

go to prison: He could go to prison for 25 years.

put sb in prison: If he's caught, they'll put him in prison.

send sb to prison: Her husband was sent back to prison after violating his parole (=disobeying the rules which allowed him to leave prison early).

spend time in prison – to be in prison for committing a crime: He will spend the rest of his life in prison.

release sb from prison – to let someone leave prison: He was released from prison after serving a two-year sentence.

get out of prison – to be released from prison: The day he got out of prison, he stole a car.

escape from prison: He was killed while trying to escape from prison. → CRIME, CRIMINAL¹, PUNISHMENT

pris-on-er /'prɪzənə/ n. [C] 1 someone who is kept in a prison as a punishment for a crime (Syn) convict 2 someone who is taken by force and kept somewhere, for example during a war: Six soldiers were taken prisoner. | They kept/held her prisoner for three months.

THESAURUS

captive – someone who is kept as a prisoner, especially in a war: The rebels are holding 54 captives.

hostage – someone who is kept as a prisoner by an enemy, so that the other side will do what the enemy demands: The group demanded that 400 prisoners be released in exchange for the hostages.

prisoner of 'war n. (plural prisoners of war) (abbreviation P.O.W.) [C] a member of the military who is caught by the enemy during a war and kept as a prisoner pris-sy /'prɪsi/ adj. (informal, disapproving) behaving very correctly, and easily shocked by anything rude

pris-tine /'prɪstɪn, prɪ'stɪn/ adj. extremely clean, and not spoiled at all by use: She owns a 1973 Volkswagen Beetle in pristine condition. | the pristine white sand

pri-va-cy /'praɪvəsi/ n. [U] 1 the state of being able to be alone, and not seen or heard by other people: If he wants to smoke in the privacy of his own home, that's fine, but he can't smoke in my house. 2 the state of being able to keep your own affairs secret: Reporters invade the privacy of celebrities.

pri-vate¹ /'praɪvɪt/ adj. 1 for use by one person or group, not for everyone (Ant) public: a private jet | Rooms are available for private parties. | They were arrested for trespassing on private property. 2 secret or personal, and not for sharing with others: her private thoughts | You had no right to look at my private papers.

THESAURUS

secret – known or felt only by you, and not talked about or shown to anyone else: Dreams may reveal our secret desires.

personal – concerning only you: He asked a lot of personal questions.

innermost – your innermost feelings, desires, etc. are the ones you feel most strongly and keep private: Collins expressed her innermost feelings in her poetry.

intimate – relating to very private or personal matters: all my intimate secrets be none of sb's business – if something is none of your business, it is private and you should not ask about it: It's none of your business what I do in my free time. → SECRET¹

3 not relating to, owned by, or paid for by the government (ANT) public: a private college 4 separate from your work or your official position, and not related to it: Should reporters be prying into the private lives of politicians? 5 quiet and without lots of people: Is there a private corner where we can talk? —privately adv.: Is there someplace we can talk privately?

private² n. 1 in private without other people listening or watching: Miss Schultz, I need to speak to you in private. 2 [C] a soldier of the lowest rank in the Army or the Marines private enterprise n. [U] ECONOMICS the economic system in which private businesses can compete and the government does not control industry

THE SAURUS business, commerce → BUSINESS

private investigator also private de'tective, private 'eye (informal) n. [C] someone whom you pay to do things such as look for information or missing people, or follow someone and report on what s/he does private 'parts also private's /'praɪvɪts/ n. [plural] (informal) the sex organs – used in order to avoid naming them directly

'private school n. [C] a school that is not supported by government money, where education must be paid for by the children's parents → PUBLIC SCHOOL

private 'va-tion /praɪ'veɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) a lack of the things that everyone needs, such as food, warmth, and shelter private 'vate /'praɪvə'taɪz/ v. [T] ECONOMICS if a government privatizes an industry, service, etc. that it controls or owns, it sells it or gives contracts to private companies → NATIONALIZE

—privatization /,praɪvətə'zeɪʃən/ n. [U]

priv-i-lege /'prɪvɪlɪdʒ, -vəlɪdʒ/ n. 1 [C] a special advantage that is given only to one person or group of people: These soldiers were given special privileges. | Good health care should not be just a privilege of the wealthy. 2 [singular] something that you are lucky to have the chance to do, and that you enjoy very much: It's been a privilege to meet you, sir. | I had the privilege of working with some very interesting people. 3 [U] a situation in which people who are rich or of a high social class have many more advantages than other people: a life of wealth and privilege —privileged adj.

priv-y¹ /'prɪvi/ adj. (formal) be privy to sth to share secret knowledge of something: I was not privy to the discussion.

privy² n. (plural privies) [C] (old-fashioned) an OUT-HOUSE → TOILET

prize¹ /praɪz/ n. [C] something that is given to someone who is successful in a competition, race, game of chance, etc.: Her roses won first/second/third prize at the flower show. | Bohr won the Nobel Prize in 1922. | the Pulitzer Prize for fiction

prize² adj. 1 good enough to win a prize or to have won a prize: prize cattle 2 prize money money that is given to the person who wins a competition, race, etc.

prize³ v. [T] to think that someone or something is very important or valuable: He gave her a necklace that his mother had prized.

prized /praɪzd/ adj. very important or valuable to someone: Education is highly prized. | All her most prized possessions were lost in the fire.

prize-fight /'praɪzfaɪt/ n. [C] a BOXING match in which the competitors are paid —prizefighter n. [C] pro /prəʊ/ n. (plural pros) [C] 1 (informal) a PROFESSIONAL: a golf pro 2 something that is an advantage: We discussed the pros and cons (=the advantages and disadvantages) of starting our own business. —pro adj.: pro basketball pro-ac-tive /prəʊ'æktɪv/ adj. taking action to influence events in advance, rather than dealing with things after they happen: We need to adopt a more proactive approach to the problem of global warming.

prob-a-bil-i-ty /,prɒbə'bɪləti/ n. (plural probabilities) 1 [singular, U] how likely it is that something will happen, exist, or be true: the probability of delay | a high/low probability of success 2 in all probability very probably: There will, in all probability, be parts that you do not understand. 3 [singular] something that is likely to happen or exist: War is a real probability unless the talks succeed. 4 [C,U] MATH how likely something is to happen, measured in a mathematical calculation: The blood test shows a 99.4 percent probability that Hill is the child's father.

prob-a-ble /'prɒbəbəl/ adj. likely to happen, exist, or be true: It is probable that both genes and the environment play a role in the disease. | the probable cause of the accident prob-a-bly /'prɒbəbli/ adv. likely to happen, exist, or be true: It will probably take about a week. | "Is Julie going?" "Probably not."

pro-bate /'prəʊbeɪt/ n. [U] LAW the legal process of deciding that someone's WILL has been made correctly, or the court where this takes place pro-ba-tion /'prəʊbeɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 LAW a system that allows some criminals to leave prison early or not to go to prison at all, if they promise to behave well for a specific period of time: Preston's been on probation for three years. 2 a period of time during which an employer can see if a new worker is good enough —probationary /'prəʊbeɪʃənəri/ adj.

probation officer n. [C] LAW someone whose job is to watch, advise, and help people who have broken the law and are on probation probe¹ /prəʊb/ v. [I,T] 1 to ask questions in order to find things out: Reporters have probed into the senator's personal life. 2 to look for something or examine something, using a long thin instrument —probing adj.: probing questions

probe² n. [C] 1 a long thin instrument that doctors and scientists use to examine parts of the body 2 a SPACECRAFT without people in it that is sent into space to collect information → SPACE¹ 3 (written) a process of asking many questions in order to find the truth about something pro-bi-ty /'prəʊbəti/ n. [U] (formal) completely moral behavior: a man known for his probity

prob-lem /'prɒbləm/ n. [C] 1 a difficult situation or person that has to be dealt with or thought about: I've been having a few problems with my car. | There are problems with the equipment. | The governor has done nothing to solve these problems. | Is there a drug problem in the school? | the problem of teen pregnancy | Unemployment remains a serious problem. ▶ Don't say "an important problem." ◀ setback – a problem that stops you from making progress: The space program suffered a major setback when the space shuttle, Discovery, exploded.

THESAURUS

difficulty – a problem or something that causes trouble: the country's financial difficulties snag (informal) – a problem, especially one that you had not expected: The project has hit a major snag.

hitch – a small problem that delays or prevents something: There have been a few last-minute hitches.

trouble – when something does not work in the way it should: The plane developed engine trouble.

hassle (spoken) – a situation that is annoying because it causes problems: I wish clothes shopping was less of a hassle. | You get the smoky barbecue flavor without the hassle of getting a fire started.

flaw, bug, fault → DEFECT¹

2 something wrong with your health or with part of your body: *a woman with serious health problems | He has a back/heart/knee etc. problem. 3 a question that must be answered, especially one relating to numbers or facts: The test will have 20 algebra problems.

SPOKEN PHRASES

4 no problem a) used in order to say that you are very willing to do something: "Can you help?" "Sure, no problem." b) used after someone has thanked you or said s/he is sorry: "Thanks a lot." "Oh, no problem." 5 that's your/his/their etc. problem used in order to say that someone else is responsible for dealing with a situation, not you: If you can't get yourself there on time, that's your problem. 6 what's your problem? used in order to ask someone what is wrong, in a way that shows you think s/he is not being reasonable: Look, what's your problem? It's my decision!

[ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French problème, from Latin problema, from Greek, "something thrown forward"]

prob-lem-at-ic /ˌprɒbləˈmætɪk/ adj. full of problems and difficult to deal with: Painkillers can be problematic when combined with other medicines. —problematically adv.

pro bo-no /ˌproʊ ˈboʊnoʊ/ adj. LAW used to describe work that someone, especially a lawyer, does without getting paid for it: Turner has agreed to handle the case on a pro bono basis.

pro-car-y-ote /ˌproʊˈkæri,ot/ n. [C] another spelling of PROKARYOTE pro-ce-dure /prəˈsidʒə/ (Ac) n. [C,U] a way of doing something, especially the correct or normal way → PROCESS: What is the procedure for dealing with a fire. | Officials must follow the correct procedure. | *a common medical procedure —procedural adj.

THESAURUS

method, way, technique, strategy, approach → METHOD

pro-ceed /prəˈsid, prou-/ (Ac) v. [I] 1 to continue to do something that has already been planned or started: We will proceed with the negotiations. | The project seemed to be proceeding smoothly. 2 proceed to do sth to do something next: He took out his wallet, and proceeded to count out enough money to pay for the meal. 3 (formal) to move in a particular direction: Please proceed to the nearest exit. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French proceder, from Latin procedere "to go forward"] pro-ceed-ings /prəˈsidɪŋz, prou-/ (Ac) n. [plur] 1 an event or series of actions: A crowd gathered to watch the proceedings. 2 LAW actions taken in a court of law or in a legal case: *legal proceedings pro-ceeds /ˈprousidz/ (Ac) n. [plural] the money that has been gained from doing something or selling something: The proceeds from the carnival will go to local children's charities.

pro-cess¹ /ˈpraɪsɪs, ˈprou-/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a series of actions, developments, or changes that happen naturally: *the aging process | the natural process of evolution | Describe some of the key processes that occur in plant and animal cells. 2 a series of actions that someone does to achieve a particular result: *the peace process | Medical research is a slow process. | The process of applying to a college is often very time-consuming. 3 be in the process of doing sth to have started doing something and not yet be finished: Grady is in the process of collecting data for the study. 4 in the process while you are doing something or something is happening: I spilled my coffee, burning myself in the process. 5 a system or a treatment of materials that is used for producing goods: *an industrial process [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French proces, from Latin processus, from procedere "to go forward"] process² (Ac) v. [T] 1 to deal with information in an official way: This department processes mail order requests. 2 to make food, materials, or goods ready to be used or sold, for example by preserving or improving them in some way: In the early 1900s, companies began to process food and distribute it using the railroads. 3 IT to put information into a computer to be examined —processed adj.: processed cheese —processing n. [U] pro-ces-sion /prə'seʃən/ n. [C] 1 a line of people or vehicles moving slowly as part of a ceremony → PARADE: a funeral procession 2 several people or things of the same kind, appearing or happening one after the other: a procession of legal experts pro-ces-sor /'præsəzə/ n. [C] IT a CPU → FOOD PROCESSOR

pro-choice adj. believing that women have a right to have an ABORTION → PRO-LIFE

pro-claim /prəu'kleɪm, prə-/ v. [T] (formal) to say officially or publicly that something is true or exists: In 1948, Israel proclaimed its independence.

proc-la-ma-tion /,prəklə'meɪʃən/ n. [C] an official public statement about something important: the Emancipation Proclamation (=the speech about freeing the SLAVES in the U.S. in 1863)

pro-cliv-i-ty /prəu'klɪvəti/ n. (plural proclivities) [C] (formal) a tendency to behave in a particular way, or like a particular thing, especially something bad: Does watching violent TV shows produce a proclivity for violence?

pro-cras-ti-nate /prə'kræstə,neɪt/ v. [I] to delay doing something that you ought to do: People tend to procrastinate about paperwork. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, past participle of procrastinare, from cras “tomorrow”] —procrastinator n. [C] —procrastination /prə'kræstə'neɪʃən/ n. [U]

THESAURUS delay, postpone, put off, defer → DELAY¹

pro-cre-ate /'prəʊkri,eɪt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to produce children or baby animals —procreation /,prəʊkri'eɪʃən/ n. [U]

pro-cure /prəu'kyʊr, prə-/ v. [T] (formal) to obtain something, especially something that is difficult to get: Senator Craven helped to procure funding to build the new library. —procurement n. [U]

THESAURUS buy, purchase, acquire, get → BUY¹ prod /prəd/ v. (prodged, prodding) [I,T] 1 POKE 2 to strongly encourage someone to do something, especially when s/he is lazy or not willing: Her parents are having to prod her into completing her homework.

pro-di-gious /prə'dɪdʒəs/ adj. (formal) very large or skillful in a surprising or impressive way: The Internet contains prodigious amounts of information. —prodigiously adv.

THESAURUS big, large, substantial, huge, enormous, vast, gigantic, massive, immense, colossal → BIG prod-i-gy /'prədədʒi/ n. (plural prodigies) [C] a young person who has a great natural ability in a subject or skill → GENIUS: Mozart was a child prodigy. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin prodigium “sign telling the future, monster”]

pro-duce¹ /prə'dus/ v. [T] 1 to grow something or make it naturally → PRODUCT, PRODUCTION: Cotton is produced in the southern states. | Trees produce carbon dioxide. 2 to make something happen or develop, or have a particular result or effect: The drug can produce side effects in some people. 3 to show something so it can be seen or considered: Officer Ryan asked the suspect to produce his driver's license. 4 to make something, especially using an industrial process → PRODUCT: the costs of producing goods and services

THESAURUS make, manufacture, build, generate → MAKE¹

5 if someone produces a movie, play, or television program, s/he finds the money for it and controls the way it is made → PRODUCER 6 to make something using skill and imagination: Diane produced a fantastic meal. 7 to give birth to a baby or young animals prod-uce² /'prədus, 'prəu-/ n. [U] food, especially fruit or vegetables, that has been grown on a farm to be sold → PRODUCT: The restaurant uses fresh local produce.

pro-duc-er /prə'dusə/ n. [C] 1 a person, company, or country that makes or grows goods, foods, or materials: Scotland is a producer of high-quality wool. | oil producers in Venezuela 2 someone whose job is to control the preparation of a play, movie, etc., but who does not direct the actors: a TV producer → MOVIE 3 BIOLOGY a living thing, such as a plant or BACTERIA, that produces its own food using the energy from the Sun or from a chemical process (SYN) autotroph

prod-uct /'prədʌkt/ n. 1 [C,U] something that is grown, made in a factory, or taken from nature, usually in order to be sold → PRODUCE, PRODUCTION: None of our products are tested on animals. | milk and other dairy products 2 be the product of sth to be the result of particular experiences, situations, or processes: Abusive husbands tend to be the product of violent homes. | The report was the product of four years' hard work. 3 [C] MATH the number you get by multiplying two or more numbers pro-duc-tion /prə'dʌkʃən/ n. 1 [U] the process of making or growing things, or the amount that is produced: Steel production has decreased by 35%. 2 [C,U] a play, movie, etc. that is produced for the public, or the process of producing it: a new Broadway production of “My Fair Lady” pro-duc-tive /prə'dʌktɪv/ adj. producing or achieving a lot (ANT) unproductive: productive

land | Some workers become more/less productive under this system. —productively adv.

pro-duc-tiv-i-ty /ˌprɒdʌkˈtɪvəti, ˌprɑ-/ n. [U] the rate at which goods are produced, and the amount produced: ways of increasing/raising/improving productivity

prof /praf/ n. 1 [C] (spoken) a PROFESSOR 2 Prof. the written abbreviation of PROFESSOR pro-fane /prɒʊˈfeɪn, prə-/ adj. showing a lack of respect for God or for holy things, by using rude words or religious words wrongly → OBSCENE: profane language

P

pro-fan-i-ty /prɒʊˈfæni, prə-/ n. (plural profanities) [C,U] a swear word, or a religious word used wrongly, that shows a lack of respect for God or for holy things → OBSCENITY pro-fess /prəˈfes, prɒʊ-/ v. [T] (formal) 1 to say that you do something or are something, often when it is not really true (SYN claim: He professed to be surprised by the verdict. 2 to express a personal feeling or belief openly: Soon, Frank was professing his love and asking her to marry him. —professed adj.

pro-fes-sion /prəˈfɛʃən/ n. 1 [C] a job that needs special education and training: professions such as nursing or teaching | He's a lawyer by profession (=as his job).

THESAURUS job, work, employment, occupation, career, vocation → JOB

2 [singular] all the people in a particular profession: the medical/legal/teaching etc. profession 3 [C] (formal) a statement of your belief, opinion, or feeling pro-fes-sion-al /prəˈfɛʃənl/ (AC) adj. 1 doing a job, sport, or activity for money (ANT amateur: professional athletes | a professional army 2 professional sports are played by people who are paid (ANT amateur: professional hockey 3 relating to a job that needs special education and training: You should speak to a lawyer for professional advice. 4 showing that someone has been well trained and is good at his/her work: This report looks very professional. —professionally adv.: The service uses volunteers rather than professionally trained staff.

professional ² n. [C] 1 someone who works in a job that needs special education and training: a health care professional 2 someone who earns money by doing a job, sport, or activity that other people do just for enjoyment (ANT amateur: In this competition, the amateurs play alongside the professionals.

pro-fes-sion-al-ism /prəˈfɛʃənlɪzəm/ (AC) n. [U] the skill and high standards of behavior expected of a professional person: Gossiping about your co-workers shows a lack of professionalism.

pro-fes-sor /prəˈfesə/ n. [C] a teacher at a university or college, especially one who has a high rank: Thank you, Professor Drexler. | my history professor | a professor of economics

THESAURUS teacher, lecturer, instructor → TEACHER

prof-fer /ˈprɒfə/ v. [T] (formal) to offer something to someone

pro-fi-cien-cy /prəˈfɪjənsi/ n. [U] the ability to do something with a high level of skill: a student's proficiency in math | The classes were geared to our level of proficiency.

pro-fi-cient /prəˈfɪjənt/ adj. able to do something with a high level of skill: a proficient typist —proficiently adv.

pro-file ¹ /ˈprɒfaɪl/

n. 1 [C,U] a side view of someone's head: Callan photographed her in profile. 2 [C] a short description that gives important details about someone or something: a profile of her career 3 keep a low profile to behave quietly and avoid doing things that would make people notice you 4 high profile something that is high profile is noticed by many people and gets a lot of attention: Luria has a high profile in the arts community.

profile ² v. [T] to write or give a short description of someone or something: The artists who are profiled in his book are major 20th-century figures.

pro-fil-ing /ˈprɒfəɪlɪŋ/ n. [U] the process of examining information about a particular group, in order to know what they might want or do, or in order to know who might belong to that group: Profiling has helped U.S. Customs officers spot drug smugglers.

prof-it ¹ /ˈprɒfɪt/ n. 1 [C,U] money that you gain by selling things or doing business: NovaCorp made a profit of $39 million. | They sold the company at a huge profit. 2 [U] an advantage that you gain from doing something: reading for profit and pleasure profit ² v. (formal) 1 [I,T] to be useful or helpful to someone: Everyone profits from an education. 2 [I] to get money from doing something: The states have profited from cigarette taxes.

prof-it-a-bil-i-ty /ˌprɒfɪtəˈbɪləti/ n. [U] the state of producing a profit, or the degree to which a business or activity is profitable prof-it-a-ble /ˈprɒfɪtəbəl/ adj. producing a profit or a useful result: The company has had a profitable year. —profitably adv.

prof-it-eer /ˌprɒfəˈtɪr/ n. [C] someone who makes an unfairly large profit by selling something that is difficult to get at a very high price: black market profiteers —profiteering n. [U]: As food supplies began to run low, some merchants were criticized for profiteering.

'profit ,margin n. [C] ECONOMICS the difference between the cost of producing something and the price you sell it at to make a profit

'profit ,motive n. [U] ECONOMICS the desire to make money, which is the reason why a person or business wants to take part in a business activity

'profit ,sharing n. [U] ECONOMICS a system in which workers are allowed to share some of their company's profits prof-li-gate /'prɒflɪɡeɪt/ adj. (formal) wasting money in a careless way pro-found /prə'faʊnd/ adj. 1 very great, important, or strong: Davis had a profound impact/effect/influence on jazz music. 2 showing strong serious feelings [SYN] deep: a profound sense of guilt 3 showing great knowledge and understanding [SYN] deep: a profound book —profoundly adv.: Their lives had been profoundly affected by the war. —profundity /prə'fʌndəti/ n. [C,U]

pro-fuse /prə'fyʊs, prɒ-/ adj. given, flowing, or growing freely and in large amounts: profuse sweating | profuse apologies —profusely adv.: He thanked them profusely. —profuseness n. [U]

pro-fu-sion /prə'fyuʒən/ n. [singular, U] (formal) a very large amount: a profusion of wild flowers

prog-e-ny /'prɒdʒəni/ n. [U] (literary) the babies of a person or animal prog-no-sis /prɒɡ'nɒsɪs/ n. (plural prognoses /-sɪz/) [C] (formal) 1 a doctor's opinion of how an illness or disease will develop → DIAGNOSIS 2 a judgment about what will happen in the future, based on information or experience pro-gram¹ /'prɒɡrəm, -grəm/ n. [C] 1 a show on television or radio: a popular TV program | a program about whales → TELEVISION 2 IT a set of instructions given to a computer to make it do a particular job: an educational software program 3 a series of actions, services, courses, etc. which are designed to achieve something: Stanford's MBA program | government programs that benefit poor people | an exercise program 4 a small book or piece of paper that gives information about a play, concert, etc. and who the performers are → THEATER 5 get with the program (spoken) used in order to tell someone to pay attention to what needs to be done, and do it

program² v. (programmed, programming) [T] 1 to set a machine to operate in a particular way: I programmed the VCR to record that movie you wanted. 2 be programmed if a person or animal is programmed socially or BIOLOGICALLY to do something, he, she, or it does it without thinking: Our bodies seem programmed to want the types and amounts of foods we need. 3 IT to give a set of instructions to a computer to make it do a particular job: The computer is programmed to play chess.

pro-gram-mer /'prɒɡræmə, -grəmər/ n. [C] IT someone whose job is to write programs for computers pro-gram-ming /'prɒɡræmɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 television or radio programs, or the planning of these broadcasts: children's programming 2 IT the activity of writing programs for computers, or something written by a programmer

prog-ress¹ /'prɒɡrəs, -grəs/ n. [U] 1 the process of developing or improving, or getting closer to achieving something: The country has made great economic progress. | The tests measure the progress of individual students. | The patients with eating disorders had made progress in changing their eating habits. | Progress on the report has been slow. 2 in progress happening now, and not yet finished: Please do not enter while there is a class in progress. 3 movement toward a place: The ship made slow progress through the rough sea. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of progredi “to go forward”]

pro-gress² /prə'grɛs/ v. [I] 1 to develop, improve, or become more complete over a period of time: Work on the new building progressed quickly. 2 if an activity, event, time, etc. progresses, it continues and time passes: As the talks progressed, a deal became certain.

pro-gres-sion /prə'grɛʃən/ n. [singular, U] a process of change or development: the rapid progression of her illness

pro-gres-sive¹ /prə'grɛsɪv/ adj. 1 supporting new or modern ideas and methods: Dewey developed some of the ideas behind progressive education. 2 becoming better, worse, or more complete over a period of time: a progressive disease —progressively adv.

progressive² n. the progressive ENG. LANG. ARTS the CONTINUOUS pro-hib-it /prɒu'hɪbɪt, prə-/ [Ac] v. [T] 1 to say that an action is illegal or not allowed, especially officially: Smoking is strictly prohibited. | Stores are prohibited from selling alcohol to people under 21. | Many countries prohibit the use of cell phones while driving.

THESAURUS forbid, not allow/permit/let, ban, bar, proscribe → FORBID

2 to make something impossible or prevent it from happening [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of prohibere “to hold away, prevent”] pro-hi-bi-tion /,prɒuə'bɪʃən/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] LAW the act of saying that something is illegal or not allowed, or an order that does this: a prohibition on cigarette advertising 2 Prohibition HISTORY the period from 1919 to 1933 in the U.S., when it was illegal to produce or sell alcoholic drinks pro-hib-i-tive /prɒu'hɪbətɪv, prə-/ [Ac] adj. preventing people from doing or buying something: The cost of the trip was prohibitive (=too high). —prohibitively adv.

proj-ect¹ /ˈprɒdʒekt, -dʒɪkt/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] a carefully planned piece of work: the new highway project | Her research project involves studying people with cancer. | The project aims to provide an analysis of children's emotions. 2 the projects [plural] (informal) HOUSING PROJECTS [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin projectum, from the past participle of proicere “to throw forward”]

pro-ject² /prəˈdʒekt/ (Ac) v. 1 [T] to calculate or plan what will happen in the future, using the information you have now: The new freeway is projected to cost $230 million. | A national tour is projected for 2010. | The company projected an annual growth rate of 3%. 2 [T] to make other people have a particular idea about you: Jim always projects an image of self-confidence. 3 [I,T] to speak or sing loudly enough to be heard by everyone in a big room or theater 4 [T] to make the picture of a movie, photograph, etc. appear in a larger form on a screen or flat surface 5 [I,T] to stick out beyond an edge or surface: The roof projects over the driveway. 6 [T] (formal) to make something move up or forward with great force pro-jec-tile /prəˈdʒektɪl, -tɪl/ n. [C] (formal) an object that is thrown or fired from a weapon

pro-jec-tion /prəˈdʒekʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] a statement about something you think will happen, based on information you have now: this year's sales projections | The graph shows a projection of housing needs over the next 10 years. 2 [C] something that sticks out beyond an edge or surface 3 [C,U] the act of making a movie, photograph, etc. appear on a screen, or the image itself: film projection pro-jec-tion-ist /prəˈdʒekʃənɪst/ n. [C] someone whose job is to operate a projector pro-jec-tor /prəˈdʒektə/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that uses light to make a movie, photograph, etc. appear on a screen pro-kar-y-ote, procaryote /prouˈkæri, out/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a type of living thing whose cells do not have a NUCLEUS (=central part). Most prokaryotes, for example BACTERIA, have only one cell.

—prokaryotic /prouˈkæriˈɑːtɪk/ adj.: prokaryotic cell structure

pro-le-tar-i-at /ˌprəʊləˈteriət/ n. the proletariat the people in a society who are poor, own no property, etc. —proletarian adj.

pro-life adj. opposing ABORTION → PRO-CHOICE pro-lif-er-ate /prəˈlɪfəˌreɪt/ v. [I] (formal) to increase very quickly in number and spread to many different places: In the Triassic period, dinosaurs proliferated. —proliferation /prəˈlɪfəˌreɪʃən/ n. [singular, U] pro-lif-ic /prəˈlɪfɪk/ adj. producing a lot of something: Danielle Steel is a prolific writer. —prolifically adv.

pro-logue /ˈprəʊlɒg, -lɒg/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the introduction to a book, movie, or play pro-long /prəˈlɒŋ/ v. [T] to make something such as a feeling, activity, or state continue longer [SYN] lengthen: In hospitals, high-tech machinery prolongs people's lives. —prolonged adj.: a prolonged illness prom /prəm/ n. [C] a formal dance party for HIGH SCHOOL students, usually held at the end of a school year: the senior prom (=dance for students in their last year of school)

THESAURUS dance, ball, formal → DANCE²

prom-e-nade /ˌprəmənˈeɪd, -ˈnɑːd/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a walk for pleasure in a public place, or a wide path where you can do this —promenade v. [I] prom-i-nence /ˈprəmənəns/ n. [U] the fact of being important and famous: Condoleezza Rice rose to prominence (=became famous) during George W. Bush's administration.

prom-i-nent /ˈprəmənənt/ adj. 1 famous or important: a prominent biotech company 2 large and sticking out: prominent cheekbones 3 a prominent place/position somewhere that is easily seen: The sculpture has a prominent position in the park. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, present participle of prominere “to stick out”] —prominently adv.

pro-mis-cu-ous /prəˈmɪskyuəs/ adj. (formal) having sex with a lot of people —promiscuity /ˌprəmɪˈskjuəti/ n. [U]

prom-ise¹ /ˈprəmɪs/ v. 1 [I,T] to tell someone that you will definitely do something, or that something will definitely happen: Police have promised a full investigation. | I promised Barbara (that) I'd meet her after work. | I promise (that) I'll never do that again. | Both candidates promised to get tougher on crime. | I've already promised them a ride to the dance.

THESAURUS

give sb your word – to promise someone very sincerely that you will do something: He gave us his word and I believe him.

swear – to make a very serious promise: He had sworn not to reveal her secret.

take/swear an oath – to make a very serious promise in public: You must take an oath of loyalty to your country.

vow – to make a serious promise, often to yourself: She vowed that she would never drink alcohol again.

pledge – to make a formal, usually public, promise: Canada pledged to provide medical aid.

undertake to do sth (formal) – to promise or agree to do something: I undertook to support her, clothe her, and protect her.

guarantee – to promise something that you feel very sure about: I can guarantee you a ten percent increase on your current salary.

commit – to say that you will definitely do something: The company had committed to finishing the project by June 20.

2 [T] to make people expect that something will happen: The game promises to be exciting. 3 I can't promise anything (spoken) used in order to tell someone that you will try to do what s/he wants, but you may not be able to do it [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin promissum, from the past participle of promittere “to send out, promise”]

promise² n. 1 [C] a statement that you will definitely do something, or that something will definitely happen: She made a promise to take care of her neighbor's dog. | I didn't want to break my promise (=not do what I said I would do). | Has the president kept his promise to increase funding for education? | a promise of help 2 [U] signs that something or someone will be good or successful: He shows a lot of promise as a writer.

prom-is-ing /ˈprəmɪsɪŋ/ adj. showing that someone or something is likely to be successful in the future: a promising young singer —promisingly adv.

pro-mo /ˈprəʊmou/ n. (plural promos) [C] (informal) a PROMOTION

prom-on-to-ry /ˈprəmən,tɔːri/ n. (plural promontories) [C] EARTH SCIENCES a high piece of land that goes out into the ocean

pro-mote /prəˈmout/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to help something develop and be successful: The bureau's job is to promote tourism to the area. | A balanced diet promotes good health. 2 to give someone a better, more responsible position at work (ANT demote): Ted was promoted to senior sales manager. 3 to advertise a product or event: The author went on a national tour to promote the book.

THESAURUS advertise, market, publicize, hype, plug → ADVERTISE

4 to be responsible for arranging a large public event such as a concert or a sports game [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin, past participle of promovere “to move forward”] pro-mot-er /prəˈmoutə/ (Ac) n. [C] someone whose job is to arrange large public events such as concerts or sports games pro-mo-tion /prəˈmouʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] 1 a move to a better, more responsible position at work: She received a promotion to lieutenant. 2 an activity intended to advertise a product or event, or the thing that is being advertised: a sales promotion pro-mo-tion-al /prəˈmouʃənəl/ adj. promotional products and activities are made or organized in order to advertise something prompt¹ /prəmp/ v. 1 [T] to make someone do something, or to help him/her remember to do it: The changes prompted several people to resign from the committee in protest.

THESAURUS cause, make, result in sth, lead to sth, trigger, induce → CAUSE²

2 [I,T] to remind someone, especially an actor, of the next words in a speech [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Medieval Latin promptare, from Latin promptus, from the past participle of promere “to bring out”] prompt² adj. 1 done quickly, immediately, or at the right time: Prompt payment is requested. 2 someone who is prompt arrives at the right time or does something on time —promptly adv.: Callan dealt with the problem promptly.

prompt³ n. [C] IT a sign on a computer screen that shows that the computer has finished one operation and is ready to begin the next prom-ul-gate /ˈprəməl,geɪt/ v. [T] 1 (formal) to spread an idea or belief to as many people as possible: Family customs tend to be promulgated by women. 2 LAW to make a new law come into effect by announcing it officially —promulgator n. [C] —promulgation /ˌprəməlˈɡeɪʃən/ n. [U] prone /prəʊn/ adj. 1 likely to do something or suffer from something: This narrow river is prone to flooding. | He seems accident prone (=he often has accidents). 2 (formal) lying down flat, with the front of your body facing down —prone adv.

prong /prɒŋ, prɑŋ/ n. [C] 1 one of the thick sharp pointed parts on the end of something, such as a PLUG or a PITCHFORK → TINE 2 one of two or three ways of achieving something, that are used at the same time: the second prong of the attack —pronged adj.: a two-pronged fork pro-noun /ˈprəʊnaʊn/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a word that is used instead of a noun or noun phrase, such as “he” instead of the name “Peter” or the noun phrase “the man” pro-nounce /prəˈnaʊns/ v. [T] 1 to make the sound of a letter, word, etc. in the correct way → PRONUNCIATION: Her name is Tea, pronounced “Tay-uh.” 2 to state something officially and formally: He was pronounced dead at 11:00 p.m.

pro-nounced /prəˈnaʊnst/ adj. very strong or noticeable: Jan still has a pronounced Czech accent.

P

pro-nounce-ment /prə'naʊnsmənt/ n. [C] (formal) an official public statement

pron-to /'prɒntəʊ/ adv. (spoken) quickly or immediately – used especially when you are annoyed: Get in the house, pronto!

pro-nun-ci-a-tion /prə,nʌnsi'eɪʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] the way in which a language or a particular word is pronounced: the correct pronunciation of English words 2 [singular, U] a particular person's way of pronouncing a word or words proof /pruf/ n. 1 [U] facts, information, documents, etc. that prove something is true: There is no proof that the suspect was home when he said he was. | Drivers should carry proof of insurance. | The tests are used as proof that the students are making progress. 2 [C] a printed copy of a piece of writing that is checked carefully before the final printing is done 3 [U] a measurement of how much alcohol is in a drink. For example, 40 proof is 20% alcohol. 4 [C] MATH a test in mathematics of whether a calculation is correct, or a list of reasons that shows a THEOREM (=statement) in GEOMETRY to be true proof-read /'pruf-rið/ v. (past tense and past participle proofread /-red/) [I,T] to read something in order to correct any mistakes in it —proofreader n. [C]

prop¹ /prap/ v. (propped, propping) [T] to support something or keep it in a particular position: He propped his bike against the fence. | The gate had been propped open with a brick.

THESAURUS lean, stand, rest → LEAN¹

prop sth ↔ up phr. v. 1 to prevent something from falling by putting something against it or under it: Steel poles prop up the crumbling walls. | Frank propped himself up on his elbows. 2 to help something to continue to exist: Military spending props up the economies of several states.

prop² n. [C] 1 an object placed under or against something to hold it in a position 2 an object such as a book, weapon, etc. used by actors in a play or movie prop-a-gan-da /,prəpə'gændə/ n. [U] information that is false or which emphasizes just one part of a situation, used by a government or other group to make people agree with them: Soviet propaganda about the evils of capitalism —propagandist n. [C] —propagandize v. [I,T] prop-a-gate /'prəpə,geɪt/ v. (formal) 1 [T] to share ideas, information, or beliefs with many people 2 [I,T] BIOLOGY to grow or produce new plants, or to make a plant do this —propagation /,prəpə'geɪʃən/ n. [U] pro-pa-ne /'prəʊpeɪn/ n. [U] a colorless gas used for cooking and heating pro-pel /prə'pel/ v. (propelled, propelling) [T] 1 to make someone achieve something, or to make something happen or develop: Pearl Harbor was the attack that propelled America into World War II. 2 to move, drive, or push something forward: Paddle wheel ships were propelled by steam.

pro-pel-ler /prə'pelə/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that consists of two or more blades that spin around to make an airplane or ship move pro-pen-si-ty /prə'pensəti/ n. (plural propensities) [C] (formal) a natural tendency to behave or develop in a particular way: Doug has a propensity to gain weight.

prop-er /'prəpə/ adj. 1 correct, or right for a particular situation: You need the proper tools for the job.

THESAURUS appropriate, right, suitable, suited → APPROPRIATE¹

2 socially correct and acceptable: proper behavior for young girls 3 [only after noun] inside the limits of an area or subject: We don't live in Boston proper; it's a suburb of Boston.

prop-er-ly /'prəpəli/ adv. correctly, in a way that is right or appropriate: When used properly, car airbags save lives.

proper 'noun also proper 'name n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a noun that is the name of a particular person, place, or thing and is spelled with a capital letter, such as "Mike," "Paris," or "Easter"

prop-er-ty /'prəpəti/ n. (plural properties) 1 [U] something that someone owns: Police recovered some of the stolen property. | his personal property possessions – the things that you own: The fire destroyed most of their possessions.

THESAURUS

things – the things that you own or are carrying: Just put your things over there.

stuff (informal) – the things that you own or are carrying with you: All our stuff is still in cardboard boxes.

belongings – things you own, especially things you are carrying with you: The bell rang, and the students began gathering up their belongings.

effects (formal) – the things that someone owns: After Harding's death, the army sent his personal effects to his parents.

valuables – things that you own that are worth a lot of money, such as jewelry, cameras, etc.: Please make sure you take any valuables with you when you leave.

2 [C,U] land, a building, or both together: The property is worth about $5 million. | The building is private/public property (=it is owned by a person or business/it is owned by the government). 3 [C usually plural] SCIENCE a quality that a plant or substance has naturally: an herb with healing properties | the chemical/physical properties of the compound

THESAURUS characteristic, quality, trait, attribute, feature → CHARACTERISTIC¹

proph-e-cy /ˈprɒfəsi/ n. (plural prophecies) [C] a statement that tells what will happen in the future, often made by someone with religious or magical power proph-e-sy /ˈprɒfəsai/ v. (prophesied, prophesies) [I,T] to use religious or magical knowledge to say what will happen in the future

THESAURUS predict, foretell, forecast, foresee → PREDICT proph-et /ˈprɒfɪt/ n. 1 [C] someone who says what will happen in the future and teaches people more about a religion 2 the Prophet Mohamed, who began the religion of Islam pro-phet-ic /prəˈfɛtɪk/ adj. correctly saying what will happen in the future: His words turned out to be prophetic. —prophetically adv.

pro-pi-tious /prəˈptɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) good and likely to bring good results: It seemed a propitious moment to ask her a question. —propitiously adv.

pro-po-nent /prəˈpounənt/ n. [C] someone who supports something or persuades people to do something (ANT) opponent: a proponent of the new airport

pro-por-tion /prəˈpɔːʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] a part or share of a larger amount or number of something: The proportion of adults who smoke is lower than before. | He won a large/high proportion of the vote. | The proportion of people living below the poverty line declined to 30%. 2 [C,U] the relationship between the amounts, numbers, or sizes of related things: Girls outnumber boys at the school by a proportion of three to one. | Taxes rise in proportion to the amount you earn. | The bird's eggs are unusually small in proportion to its size. 3 proportions [plural] the size or importance of something: The flu outbreak has reached epidemic proportions. 4 [U] the correct relationship between the size or shape of the different parts of something: Her head seems large in proportion to her thin figure. 5 get/blow things out of proportion to react to a situation as if it is worse or more serious than it really is 6 sense of proportion the ability to judge what is most important in a situation 7 [U] MATH a mathematical statement showing that the relationship is the same between two pairs of numbers, as in the statement “8 is to 6 as 32 is to 24”

pro-por-tion-al /prəˈpɔːʃənəl/ (Ac) also pro-por-tion-ate /prəˈpɔːʃənɪt/ adj. staying in a particular relationship with another thing in size, amount, or importance: The number of Representatives each state has is proportional to its population. | Inner cities have more than a proportionate share of social problems. —proportionally adv.

pro-pos-al /prəˈpouzəl/ n. 1 [C,U] a plan or idea that is officially suggested for someone to consider, or the act of suggesting this: a proposal to raise bus fares 2 [C] the act of asking someone to marry you pro-pose /prəˈpouz/ v. 1 [T] to officially suggest that something be done: Smith proposes that the rules be changed. 2 [I] to ask someone to marry you: Has he proposed yet? 3 [T] (formal) to intend to do something: What does the candidate propose to do about unemployment?

prop-o-si-tion /ˌprɒpəˈzɪʃən/ n. [C] 1 a statement in which you express a judgment or opinion: The Founding Fathers supported the proposition that all people are created equal under the law. 2 an offer, plan, or idea, especially in business or politics: Jack went to Robards with a proposition. | Proposition 13 on the ballot proposition ² v. [T] to suggest to someone that s/he have sex with you, especially in exchange for money pro-pri-e-tar-y /prəˈpraɪəteri/ adj. (formal) information or products that are proprietary can only be known about or sold by a particular company pro-pri-e-tor /prəˈpraɪətə/ n. [C] (formal) an owner of a business pro-pri-e-ty /prəˈpraɪəti/ n. [singular, U] (formal) correct social or moral behavior (ANT) impropriety: There is a debate over the propriety of spanking children.

pro-pul-sion /prəˈpʌlʃən/ n. [U] the force that moves a vehicle forward, or the system used in order to make this happen: jet propulsion pro-ra-ta /ˌprɒu ˈreɪtə, -ˈrætə/ adj. [only before noun] (technical) a pro rata payment or share is calculated according to exactly how much of something is used, how much work is done, etc. —pro rata adv.

pro-rate /ˈprɒureɪt, prɒuˈreɪt/ v. [T] to calculate a price, salary, etc. according to exactly how much of something is used or how much work is done pro-rogue /prɒuˈroug/ v. [T] LAW if an institution that makes laws is prorogued, the institution's meetings officially stop for a period of time → ADJOURN, DISSOLVE pro-sa-ic /prɒuˈzeɪɪk/ adj. (formal) boring, ordinary, or lacking in imagination: a prosaic style of writing —prosaically adv.

pro-sce-ni-um /prɒuˈsɪniəm, prə-/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the part of a theater stage that is in front of the curtain [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, Greek proskēnion, from skēnē “building in front of which plays are performed”] pro-scribe /prɒuˈskraɪb/ v. [T] LAW to officially stop the existence or use of something: The laws proscribe child labor. —proscription /prɒuˈskrɪpʃən/ n. [C,U]

THESAURUS forbid, not allow/permit/let, ban, prohibit, bar → FORBID

prose /prəʊz/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS written language in its usual form, not as poetry pros-e-cute /ˈprəsəˌkyut/ v. [I,T] to say officially that you think someone is guilty of a crime and must be judged by a court of law: He was prosecuted for theft.

pros-e-cu-tion /ˌprəsəˈkyuʃən/ n. 1 the prosecution LAW the lawyers who try to prove in a court of law that someone is guilty of a crime → DEFENSE: His ex-partner will appear as a witness for the prosecution. → COURT 2 [C,U] LAW the process or act of prosecuting someone

P pros-e-cu-tor /ˈprəsəˌkyutər/ n. [C] LAW a lawyer who is trying to prove in a court of law that someone is guilty of a crime → DISTRICT ATTORNEY

pros-pect¹ /ˈprəspekt/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] something that is possible or likely to happen in the future: I was excited at the prospect of going to Europe. | a company with good prospects for growth 2 prospects [plural] chances of success in the future: Going to college will improve your job prospects. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin prospec-tus, from the past participle of prospicere “to look forward”]

prospect² v. [I,T] to look for things such as gold, silver, or oil in the ground or under the ocean: Men came to California to prospect for gold. —prospector n. [C] pro-spec-tive /prəˈspektɪv/ [Ac] adj. 1 likely to do a particular thing: a prospective buyer for the house 2 likely to happen: the prospective annual costs pro-spec-tus /prəˈspektəs/ n. [C] a document that describes a business opportunity or advertises something pros-per /ˈprəspə/ v. [I] to grow and develop in a successful way, especially by making money: Under his leadership, the company had prospered.

pros-per-i-ty /prəˈsperəti/ n. [U] the condition of having money and being successful: a time of peace and prosperity pros-per-ous /ˈprəspərəs/ adj. successful and rich: a prosperous community

THESAURUS rich, well-off, wealthy, affluent, well-to-do, rolling in it/loaded → RICH

pros-tate /ˈprəstert/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a part in the body of a man or a male animal, that produces a liquid in which SPERM are carried pros-ti-tute /ˈprəstətut/ n. [C] someone who has sex with people to earn money pros-ti-tu-tion /ˌprəstəˈtuʃən/ n. [U] the work of prostitutes pros-trate¹ /ˈprəstreɪt/ adj., adv. (formal) 1 lying flat on the ground with your face down 2 so shocked or upset that you cannot do anything: Mrs. Klinkman was prostrate with grief.

prostrate² v. prostrate yourself (literary) to lie flat on the ground with your face down, in order to show praise or respect pro-tag-o-nist /prəʊˈtægənɪst/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the main character in a play, movie, or story

THESAURUS hero, main character, anti-hero, villain → HERO

pro-te-an /ˈprəʊtɪən, prəʊˈtɪən/ adj. (literary) having the ability to change your appearance or behavior again and again: an actor's protean talents

pro-tect /prəˈtekt/ v. [T] to keep someone or something safe from harm, damage, or illness: We must protect the environment. | The vaccine protects you against disease. | The laws are meant to protect minorities from discrimination. —protected adj.: a protected species —protector n. [C]: a chest protector guard – to protect someone or something from being attacked or stolen: The building is guarded by security officers.

THESAURUS

safeguard – to protect someone or something from possible dangers or problems, especially by making a law or agreement: laws to safeguard wildlife shield – to protect someone or something from being hurt, damaged, or upset: She brought up her arms to shield her face.

give/offer/provide protection – to protect someone from something harmful: Sun lotions provide protection from the Sun's harmful rays.

shelter – to provide a place where someone is protected from the weather or from danger: At great risk to themselves, they sheltered Jews from the Nazis.

preserve – to keep someone or something from being harmed, destroyed, or changed too much: Efforts are being made to preserve the reef.

conserve – to prevent something from being wasted, damaged, or destroyed: Europe has successfully conserved many of its ancient buildings.

pro-tec-tion /prəˈtekfən/ n. [C,U] something that protects someone or something, or the act of protecting something: environmental protections | the protection of civil rights | a hat offers/provides/gives protection against the sun

pro-tec-tion-ism /prəˈtekfəˌnɪzəm/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the practice in which a government tries to protect an industry in its own country by putting a tax on foreign goods entering the country —protectionist adj., n. [C] pro-tec-tive /prəˈtektɪv/ adj. 1 used or intended for protection: a crab's protective shell 2 wanting to protect someone from danger or harm: She's fiercely protective of her children.

pro-tec-tor-ate /prəˈtektərɪt/ n. [C] POLITICS a country with its own government, that is protected and controlled by a more powerful country pro-té-gé /ˈproutə,ʒeɪ, ˈproutəˈʒeɪ/ n. [C] a young person who is taught or helped by an older more experienced person pro-teín /ˈproutin/ n. [C,U] BIOLOGY a substance in foods such as meat and eggs that helps your body to grow and be healthy. Proteins are formed by a chain of AMINO ACIDS.

pro-test¹ /ˈproutest/ n. 1 [C] a strong complaint that shows you disagree with something that you think is wrong or unfair: Almirez led a protest against the new road. | Six managers quit in protest of the board's decision. | He cleaned his room without protest. 2 do sth under protest to do something in a way that shows you do not want to do it because you think it is wrong or unfair pro-test² /ˈproutest, prəˈtest/ v. 1 [I,T] to say or do something publicly to show that you disagree with something or think that it is wrong or unfair: Demonstrators were protesting against changes in the law. | Students carried signs protesting the war.

THESAURUS

march – to protest while walking with a group of people from one place to another: Over a million people marched to protest against the war.

demonstrate – to protest while walking or standing somewhere with a group of people: A crowd of people were demonstrating outside the embassy.

riot – to protest by behaving in a violent and uncontrolled way: People were rioting in the streets in reaction to the elections.

hold/stage a sit-in – to protest by refusing to leave a place: Hundreds of students staged a sit-in.

go on a hunger strike – to protest by refusing to eat: The prisoners went on a hunger strike.

boycott – to protest about the actions of a company or country by refusing to buy something, go somewhere, etc.: In 1980, some countries boycotted the Olympic Games.

2 [T] to state very strongly that something is true, especially when other people do not believe you: Throughout the trial, he kept protesting his innocence. —protestation /ˌprəʊˈtestɪʃən, ˈprou-/ n. [C]

Prot-es-tant /ˈprəʊtəstənt/ adj. relating to a part of the Christian church that separated from the Roman Catholic church in the 16th century —Protestant n. [C] —Protestantism n. [U]

pro-test-er, protestor /ˈprou,tɛstə, prouˈtestə/ n. [C] someone who takes part in a public event to show his/her opposition to something: anti-war protesters pro-to-col /ˈproutə,kəl, -ˌkəl/ (Ac) n. 1 [singular, U] the system of rules for the correct way to behave on official occasions: Even touching the Queen is a breach of protocol (=it is not allowed). 2 [C] an official statement of the rules that a group of countries have agreed to follow in dealing with a particular problem: the Montreal Protocol on greenhouse gases [ORIGIN: 1400—

1500 Old French prothocolle, from Late Greek protokollon “first page of a document”]

pro-ton /ˈproutən/ n. [C] PHYSICS a part in the NUCLEUS of an atom, that has a positive electrical CHARGE [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Greek “first thing,” from protos “first”] → see picture at ATOM

pro-to-type /ˈproutə,taɪp/ n. [C] a model of a new car, machine, etc., used in order to test the design before it is produced in large numbers pro-tract-ed /prouˈtræktɪd, prə-/ adj. continuing for a long time, usually longer than necessary: a protracted strike

pro-trac-tor /prouˈtræktə, prə-/ n. [C] MATH a flat tool shaped like a half circle, used for measuring and drawing angles pro-trude /prouˈtrud/ v. [I] (formal) to stick out from somewhere: Rocks protruded from the water. —protrusion /prouˈtruʒən/ n. [C,U] proud /praʊd/ adj. 1 feeling pleased because you think that something you have achieved or are connected with is very good → PRIDE: My husband and I are very proud of her. | We're proud to announce the birth of our son. | I'm proud (that) the team's done so well. 2 (disapproving) thinking that you are better, more important, more skillful, etc. than other people

THESAURUS

conceited/big-headed (informal) – very proud of yourself, especially of what you can do, in a way that other people dislike vain – very proud of yourself, especially of your appearance, in a way that other people dislike arrogant – showing that you think you are better than other people stuck-up (informal) – proud and unfriendly because you think you are better and more important than other people egotistical (formal) – believing that you are more interesting or important than other people haughty (formal) – proud and unfriendly

3 too embarrassed or ashamed to allow other people to help you when you need help: Terry was too proud to ask his family for money. 4 do sb proud to make someone feel proud of you by doing something well: Vicki hopes to do her school proud. —proudly adv. → PRIDE¹ prove /pruv/ v. (past tense proved, past participle proved or proven /ˈpruvən/) [T] 1 to show that something is definitely true → PROOF: They have enough evidence to prove that she is guilty. | I know he's innocent, and I'm going to prove it to you.

THESAURUS

demonstrate, show, indicate, establish, substantiate → DEMONSTRATE

2 to show over time that someone or something has a particular quality: Any delay will prove costly. | The weather proved to be beautiful. 3 prove yourself also prove sth to sb to show that you are able to do something well: At seventeen years old, she had yet to prove herself on the pro golf tour. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French prover, from Latin probare “to test, prove”]

—provable adj.

prov-en¹ /ˈprʊvən/ adj. shown to be real or true: a proven method of learning proven² v. a past participle of PROVE prov-erb /ˈprʌvəb/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a short statement that most people know, that contains advice about life. For example, “A penny saved is a penny earned” is a proverb.

THESAURUS phrase, expression, idiom, cliché, saying, maxim → PHRASE¹

P

pro-ver-bi-al /prəˈvɛbiəl/ adj. the proverbial sth used when you describe something using a well-known expression: Ice cream was selling like the proverbial hotcakes. —proverbially adv.

pro-vid-e /prəˈvaɪd/ v. [T] 1 to give or supply something to someone: The charity provides shelter for the homeless. | Rescuers provided the lost hikers with blankets and food. 2 provide that (formal) if a law or rule provides that something must happen, it states that it must happen provide for sb/sth phr. v. 1 to give someone the things s/he needs, such as money, food, or clothing: Dad always thought a man should provide for his family. 2 to make plans in order to deal with something that might happen in the future: The hotel is examining ways to provide for the disabled.

pro-vid-ed /prəˈvaɪdɪd/ also pro'vided that conjunction used in order to say that something will only happen if another thing happens first: Talks will take place in July, provided that enough progress has been made.

prov-i-dence /ˈprʌvədəns/ n. [singular, U] a force that some people believe controls our lives in the way God wants: an act of divine providence pro-vid-er /prəˈvaɪdə/ n. [C] 1 a person or company that provides a service: a health-care provider 2 someone who supports a family pro-vid-ing /prəˈvaɪdɪŋ/ also pro'viding that conjunction used in order to say that something will only happen if another thing happens first: You can borrow the car, providing that I have it back by six o'clock.

prov-in-ce /ˈprʌvɪns/ n. 1 [C] one of the large areas into which some countries are divided: the provinces of Canada 2 the provinces [plural] the parts of a country that are not near a large city, especially the capital city: In Boston, he received a more sophisticated schooling than he had in the provinces.

pro-vin-cial /prəˈvɪnʃəl/ adj. 1 (disapproving) not interested in anything new or different: provincial attitudes 2 relating to a province, or the parts of a country that are not near the capital: the provincial government of Quebec pro-vi-sion /prəˈvɪʒən/ n. 1 [C,U] the act of providing something that someone needs now or will need in the future: the provision of services for the elderly | He has made provisions for his wife in his will (=he arranged for her to have money when he dies). 2 [C] a condition in an agreement or law: the provisions of the treaty 3 provisions [plural] food supplies, especially for a trip: We had enough provisions for two weeks.

pro-vi-sion-al /prəˈvɪʒənəl/ adj. intended to exist for only a short time and likely to be changed in the future: a provisional government pro-vi-so /prəˈvaɪzəʊ/ n. (plural provisos) [C] (formal) something that you say must happen before another thing is allowed to happen: Tom's grandson inherited his money with the proviso that he go to college.

prov-o-ca-tion /ˌprʌvəˈkeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] an action or event that makes someone angry, or that is intended to do this: My client was attacked without provocation.

pro-voc-a-tive /prəˈvʌkətɪv/ adj. 1 intending to make someone angry or cause a lot of discussion: provocative comments 2 intending to make someone sexually excited: a provocative dress —provocatively adv.

pro-voke /prəˈvʊk/ v. [T] 1 to make someone very angry, especially by deliberately annoying him/her: She did hit him, but he provoked her into doing it. 2 to cause a sudden reaction or feeling: The president's speech provoked criticism from Democrats.

pro-vost /ˈprɒvoust/ n. [C] an important official at a university prow /praʊ/ n. [C] the front part of a ship or boat prow-ess /ˈpraʊs/ n. [U] (formal) great skill at doing something: a man of great athletic prowess prowl¹ /praʊl/ v. [I,T] to move around an area quietly, trying not to be seen or heard: Tigers prowled through the jungle.

prowl² n. 1 be on the prowl if an animal is on the prowl, it is hunting 2 be on the prowl for sth/sb if someone is on the prowl for something, s/he is moving around looking for something or someone in different places: She's always on the prowl for bargains.

prowl-er /ˈpraʊlə/ n. [C] someone who moves around quietly at night, especially near your house, in order to steal something or harm you prox-im-i-ty /prɒkˈsɪməti/ n. [U] (formal) nearness in distance or time: We chose this house because of its proximity to the school.

prox-y /ˈprɒksi/ n. (plural proxies) 1 [C] someone whom you choose to represent you, especially to vote for you 2 by proxy if you do something by proxy, you arrange for someone else to do it for you prude /prʊd/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who is very easily shocked by anything relating to sex —prudish adj.

pru-dence /ˈprʊdn/ n. [U] a sensible and careful attitude that makes you avoid unnecessary risks:

The situation demanded prudence.

pru-dent /'prʊdnt/ adj. sensible and careful, especially by avoiding risks that are not necessary: It would not be prudent to invest all of your money in the same place.

prune¹ /prʊn/ also prune back v. [T] to cut some of the branches of a tree or bush to make it grow better prune² n. [C] a dried PLUM (=type of fruit)

pru-ri-ent /'prʊəriənt/ adj. (formal) showing too much interest in sex

pry /praɪ/ v. (pried, pries) 1 [T] to force something open, or to force it away from something else: They finally pried the window open. | I had to use a screwdriver to pry the lid off the paint can. 2 [I] to try to find out details about someone's private life in an impolite way: I don't want to pry, but I need to ask you one or two questions.

P.S. n. [C] postscript a note that you add to the end of a letter, that gives more information psalm /sam/ n. [C] a song or poem praising God pseu-do-ny-m /'sʊdnɪm, 'sʊdɒnɪm/ n. [C] a false name used by someone, especially a writer, instead of his/her real name [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French pseudonyme, from Greek pseudonymos, from psudes “false” + onoma “name”] psych /saɪk/ v.

psych sb ↔ out phr. v. (informal) to do or say things that will make your opponent feel nervous or confused: He would psych out opponents by screaming and jumping up and down before each game.

psych sb/yourself up phr. v. (informal) to build up your confidence before doing something difficult by telling yourself or someone else that you can do it: Soldiers have to psych themselves up for combat.

psy-che /'saɪki/ n. [C usually singular] someone's mind or basic nature that controls how s/he thinks or behaves [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Greek “breath, life, soul, mind”] psyched /saɪkt/ also psyched 'up adj. (spoken) be psyched (up) to be mentally prepared for an event and excited about it: Bryony's totally psyched about for her date.

psy-che-del-ic /,saɪkə'delɪk/ adj. 1 psychedelic drugs such as LSD make you see things that do not really exist 2 psychedelic art, clothing, etc. has a lot of bright colors and patterns psy-chi-a-trist /saɪ'kaɪətrɪst, sə-/ n. [C] a doctor who studies and treats mental illness → PSYCHOLOGIST

THESAURUS doctor, physician, surgeon, specialist, pediatrician → DOCTOR¹

psy-chi-a-try /saɪ'kaɪətri, sə-/ n. [U] the study and treatment of mental illness [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French psychiatrie, from Greek psykhe

“soul, mind” + iatreia “cure”] —psychiatric /,saɪki'ætrɪk/ adj.: a psychiatric hospital

psy-chic¹ /'saɪkɪk/ adj. 1 relating to strange events involving the power of the human mind: *a mysterious psychic phenomenon | She claims to have psychic powers. 2 someone who is psychic has the ability to know what other people are thinking or what will happen in the future 3 affecting the mind rather than the body: psychic pain/scar/wound | *people who are in psychic pain

psychic² n. [C] someone who has strange powers such as the ability to know what will happen in the future psy-cho /'saɪkou/ n. (plural psychos) [C] (informal) someone who is likely to behave in a violent or crazy way psy-cho-a-nal-y-sis /,saɪkouə'næləɪsɪs/ n. [U] a way of treating someone who is mentally ill by talking to him/her about his/her life, feelings, etc. to find out the cause of the illness —psychoanalyze /,saɪkou'ænlaɪz/ v. [T] psy-cho-an-a-lyst /,saɪkou'ænlaɪst/ n. [C] someone who treats people using psychoanalysis psy-cho-log-i-cal /,saɪkə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 relating to the way people's minds work and the way this affects their behavior: The patient has a history of psychological problems. 2 relating to the science of psychology: *a psychological test —psychologically adv.: psychologically disturbed patients psy-cho-l-o-gist /saɪ'kalədʒɪst/ (Ac) n. [C] someone who is trained in psychology → PSYCHIATRIST psy-cho-l-o-gy /saɪ'kalədʒi/ (Ac) n. (plural psychologies) 1 [U] the study of the mind and how it works: a professor of psychology 2 [C usually singular, U] what someone thinks or believes, and how this affects what s/he does: the psychology of a serial killer [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Modern Latin psychologia, from Greek psykhe “soul, mind” + logia “study”] psy-cho-path /'saɪkə,pæθ/ n. [C] someone who has a mental illness that makes him/her behave in a violent or criminal way —psychopathic /,saɪkə'pæθɪk/ adj.

psy-cho-sis /saɪ'kouɪsɪs/ n. (plural psychoses /-sɪz/) [C, U] a serious mental illness that may cause changes in someone's behavior psy-cho-so-mat-ic /,saɪkouə'smətɪk/ adj. a psychosomatic illness is caused by fear or anxiety, not by any physical problem psy-cho-ther-a-py /,saɪkou'θerəpi/ n. [U] the treatment of mental illness by talking to someone and discussing problems, rather than by using drugs or medicine —psychotherapist n. [C] psy-cho-tic /saɪ'kɒtɪk/ adj. relating to mental illness, or resulting from it: psychotic behavior —psychotic n. [C] → CRAZY

PTA n. [C] Parent-Teacher Association an organization of teachers and parents that works to improve a particular school pub /pʌb/ n. [C] a comfortable BAR that often serves food pub-er-ty /'pyubəti/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the time when your body develops from being a child to being an adult: Our daughter is just reaching puberty (=starting to develop physically).

pu-bes-cent /pyu'besənt/ adj. BIOLOGY a pubescent boy or girl is going through puberty pub-bic /'pyubɪk/ adj. relating to or near the sex organs: pubic hair pub-lic /'pʌblɪk/ adj. 1 relating to all the ordinary people in a country or city: We acted out of concern for public welfare. | The judge ruled that allowing the broadcast of the trial would be in the public interest. | The mayor seems to have public opinion on his side. 2 available for anyone to use (ANT) private: a public restroom | public transportation 3 relating to the government and the services that it provides (ANT) private: It has been eight years since she was elected to public office (=a job in the government). | Republicans want to cut public spending (=money the government spends on roads, hospitals, etc.). 4 known about by most people: Last night the name of the killer was made public. | a public figure (=well-known person) 5 intended for anyone to know, see, or hear (ANT) private: public display of affection/emotion/anger etc. (=showing your emotions so that everyone can see) 6 go public to tell everyone about something that was secret: They finally went public with news of their engagement. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French publique, from Latin publicus] → PUBLICLY

public² n. 1 the public all the ordinary people in a country or city: The museum is open to the public five days a week. | This product is not for sale to the general public. 2 in public in a place where anyone can know, see, or hear (ANT) in private: She was careful not to criticize him in public. 3 [singular, U] the people who like a particular singer, writer, etc.: A star has to try to please her public.

public 'access n. [U] a situation in which anyone can enter a place or use a service: Public access to the beach is blocked by private property.

public ad'dress system n. [C] a PA public affairs n. [plural] events or questions, especially political ones, that affect everyone public as'sistance n. [U] the government programs that help poor people get food, homes, and medical care → WELFARE

pub-li-ca-tion /,pʌblə'keɪʃən/ (AC) n. 1 [U] the process of printing a book, magazine, etc. and offering it for sale → PUBLISH: She was in New York for the publication of her new book. | There may be a delay of up to eight weeks before publication. 2 [C] a book, magazine, etc.: a monthly publication for stamp collectors 3 [U] the act of making something known to the public: The authorities tried to stop the publication of the test results.

public 'debt n. [U] ECONOMICS the total amount of money owed by the government of a country public de'fender n. [C] LAW a lawyer who is paid by the government to defend people who cannot pay for a lawyer themselves public 'figure n. [C] someone who is well known because s/he is on television or in the newspapers a lot public 'housing n. [U] houses or apartments built by the government for poor people pub-li-cist /'pʌblɪsɪst/ n. [C] someone whose job is to make sure that famous people or new products, movies, books, etc. get a lot of publicity

pub-lic-i-ty /pə'blɪsɪti/ n. [U] 1 the attention that someone or something gets from newspapers, television, etc.: His new novel has received a lot of publicity. | good/bad/negative publicity 2 the business of making sure that people know about what a famous person is doing, or about a new product, movie, book, etc.: a publicity campaign pub-li-cize /'pʌblə'saɪz/ v. [T] to tell people about a new movie, book, event, etc.: a well-publicized movie

THESAURUS advertise, promote, market, hype, plug → ADVERTISE

pub-lic-ly /'pʌblɪkli/ adv. 1 in a way that is intended for anyone to know, see, or hear: None of the players were willing to comment publicly. | Lozansky was jailed for publicly criticizing the government. 2 by the government, as part of its services: The hospitals are publicly operated in cities, suburbs, and rural areas. 3 ECONOMICS a company that is publicly owned has sold STOCK in it to the public 4 among the ordinary people in a country or city: publicly elected bodies

publicly held corpo'ration n. [C] ECONOMICS a large company that sells its STOCK on an official STOCK EXCHANGE

public re'lations (written abbreviation PR) n. 1 [plural] the relationship between an organization and the public: Organizing events for charity is always good for public relations. 2 [U] the work of explaining what a company does, so the public will approve of it: the public relations department public 'school n. [C] a free local school that is controlled and paid for by the government → PRIVATE SCHOOL public 'television n. [U] a television program or service that is paid for by the government, large companies, and the public public transportation n. [U] buses, trains, etc. that are available for everyone to use public 'works n. [plural] buildings, roads, etc. built by the government for the public to use

pub·lish /ˈpʌblɪʃ/ (AC) v. 1 [I,T] to arrange for a book, magazine, etc. to be written, printed, and sold: Huckleberry Finn was first published in 1884. | We publish mainly educational materials. 2 [T] if a newspaper, magazine, etc. publishes something such as a letter, it prints it for people to read: The article was published in the Los Angeles Times. 3 [T] to make official information available for everyone to use: New guidelines for social studies education were published this year. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French publier, from Latin publicare “to make public, publish”] —publishing n. [U]: I work in publishing.

pub·lish·er /ˈpʌblɪʃə/ (AC) n. [C] a person or company that arranges the writing, printing, and sale of books, newspapers, etc.

puck /pʌk/ n. [C] a hard flat circular piece of rubber that you hit with a stick in the game of HOCKEY

puck·er /ˈpʌkə/ also pucker up v. 1 [I,T] (informal) if your mouth puckers, or if you pucker it, your lips are pulled together tightly, for example because you are going to kiss someone 2 [I] if cloth puckers, it gets folds in it so that it is no longer flat —puckered adj.

pud·ding /ˈpʊdɪŋ/ n. [C,U] a thick sweet creamy food made with milk, eggs, sugar, and flour, that is eaten cold: chocolate pudding [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French boudin, from Latin botellus “sausage”] pud·dle /ˈpʌdl/ n. [C] a small pool of rain on a road, path, etc.: Children were splashing in the puddles.

pudg·y /ˈpʌdʒi/ adj. fatter than usual: short pudgy fingers —pudginess n. [U]

Pueb·lo /ˈpweɪblə/ n. a group of Native American tribes from the southwest U.S., who built homes made of ADOBE —Pueblo adj.

pueblo n. [C] 1 a small town or group of Native American homes in the southwest U.S., usually with more than one level, made of stone or ADOBE (=building material made from earth and STRAW) 2 a small town in the southwest U.S.

pu·er·ile /ˈpyʊərəl, -raɪl/ adj. (formal) silly and stupid (SYN) childish: puerile humor

puff /pʌf/ v. 1 [I,T] to breathe in and out while smoking a cigarette, pipe, etc.: William sat there puffing on his pipe. 2 [I] to breathe quickly and with difficulty after running, carrying something heavy, etc.: Max was puffing heavily after climbing the stairs. 3 [I,T] to blow steam or smoke out of something: The boiler was puffing thick black smoke.

puff sth ↔ out phr. v. to make something bigger by filling it with air: The frog had its throat puffed out.

puff up phr. v. 1 also puff sth ↔ up to become bigger by filling with air, or to make something do this: Birds puff up their feathers to stay warm. 2 if your eye, face, etc. puffs up, it swells: My eye puffed up where he hit me.

puff² n. [C] 1 the action of breathing smoke into your mouth and blowing it out again: He took a puff on his cigar. 2 a sudden short movement of air, smoke, or wind: Puffs of smoke came from the chimney.

puf·fin /ˈpʌfɪn/ n. [C] a North Atlantic bird with a black and white body and a large brightly colored beak puff·y /ˈpʌfi/ adj. puffy eyes, cheeks, or faces are swollen: Her eyes were red and puffy from crying. —puffiness n. [U] pug·na·cious /ˈpʌgˈneɪʃəs/ adj. (formal) very eager to argue or fight with people puke /pyuk/ v. [I,T] (slang) VOMIT —puke n. [U] pul·chri·tude /ˈpʌlkrəˌtʊd/ n. [U] (formal) beauty, especially of a woman pull¹ /pʊl/ v.

1 MOVE TOWARD YOU [I,T] to use your hands to move something toward you (ANT) push: Mom, Sara's pulling my hair! | When I count to three, start pulling. | Wilson quickly pulled the door open/shut. | Help me pull the trunk into the corner.

THESAURUS

tug – to pull something suddenly, especially several times with small movements: The little boy was tugging at her sleeve.

drag – to pull something somewhere, usually along the ground: I dragged the chair upstairs.

haul – to pull something heavy, often using a rope: Fishermen hauled in their nets.

tow – to pull another vehicle or boat: Some pickup trucks were towing trailers.

heave – to pull or lift something very heavy, especially with one movement: We managed to heave the piano into position. → PUSH¹

2 REMOVE [T] to remove something from its place, especially by using force: She has to have her wisdom teeth pulled. | The baby's pulled everything out of the cupboards.

3 MAKE STH FOLLOW YOU [I,T] to use a rope, chain, your hands, etc. to make something move behind you in the direction you are moving (ANT) push: The car was pulling a camper behind it.

4 MUSCLE [T] to injure a muscle by stretching it too much during physical activity: Martinez pulled a groin muscle and had to leave the game.

THESAURUS hurt, injure, break, bruise, sprain, twist, strain, dislocate → HURT¹

5 pull sb's leg (informal) to tell someone something that is not true, as a joke: I think he was just pulling your leg.

6 pull strings to secretly use your influence with important people in order to get something or to help someone: Barry pulled some strings and got us tickets for the football game.

7 MOVE YOUR BODY a) [I,T] to move your body or part of your body away from someone or something: She pulled away from him in horror. b) [T] to use force to move your body somewhere: The kids pulled themselves up onto the platform.

8 CLOTHING [I,T] to put on or take off clothing, usually quickly: He pulled off his gloves and placed them on the dresser.

9 pull your weight to do your share of the work: If you don't start pulling your weight around here, you'll be fired!

10 pull a stunt/trick/joke/prank (informal) to do something that annoys or harms other people: Don't you ever pull a stunt like that again!

11 TRICK [T] (spoken) to deceive or trick someone: What are you trying to pull? | Are you trying to pull a fast one on me?

12 pull the strings to control something, especially when you are not the person who is supposed to be controlling it: Who is really pulling the strings in the White House?

13 SWITCH [T] to move a control such as a SWITCH or TRIGGER toward you to make a piece of equipment work: She raised the gun and pulled the trigger.

14 GUN/KNIFE [T] to take out a gun or knife ready to use it: Suddenly the man pulled a gun and began shooting.

15 pull the rug out from under sb to suddenly take away something that someone was depending on to achieve what s/he wanted pull sth ↔ apart phr. v.

to separate something into two or more pieces or groups: Loosen the roots and gently pull the plants

apart. | the ethnic problems that pulled Yugoslavia apart pull away phr. v.

1 to move ahead of a competitor by going faster or being more successful: Chicago pulled away in the third quarter to win 107–76.

2 to start to drive away from the place where your car was stopped: Grant pulled away from the curb.

pull sth ↔ down phr. v.

to destroy a building, wall, etc.: Many of the houses were pulled down to make way for a new highway.

pull for sb phr. v. (informal) to encourage a person or team to succeed: Which team are you pulling for?

pull in phr. v.

1 pull (sth ↔) in to move a car into a particular space and stop it: Kevin pulled in behind me and parked.

2 pull sth ↔ in (informal) if you pull in a lot of money, you earn it pull off phr. v.

1 pull sth ↔ off (informal) to succeed in doing something difficult: Cruz expects to win the fight, but no one else thinks he can pull it off.

2 pull off sth to leave a road in order to stop or to turn into another road pull out phr. v.

1 to drive a car onto a road from where you have stopped

2 to get out of a bad situation or dangerous place: Investors pulled out, selling all their shares.

3 pull sb/sth ↔ out to get someone out of a bad situation or dangerous place: We plan to pull our troops out of the area.

pull (sb/sth ↔) over phr. v.

to drive to the side of a road and stop your car, or to make someone do this: We didn't realize we were speeding until the highway patrol pulled us over.

pull through phr. v.

1 pull sb through (sth) to stay alive after a serious injury or illness, or to help someone do this: We all prayed that he would pull through.

2 pull through sth to continue to live or exist after being in a difficult or upsetting situation: The city managed to pull through its financial crisis.

pull together phr. v.

1 to work hard with other people to achieve something: After the hurricane, neighbors pulled together to help each other.

2 pull yourself together (informal) to force yourself to stop being nervous, afraid, or disorganized: A year after the accident, she's finally starting to pull herself together.

pull up phr. v.

1 to stop the vehicle you are driving: A red Buick pulled up at the stop lights.

2 pull up a chair/stool etc. to get a chair and sit down near someone who is already sitting pull² n. 1 [C] an act of using force to move something toward you or in the same direction as you are going: Give the rope a good pull. 2 [C usually singular] a strong force such as GRAVITY, that makes things move in a particular direction: the pull of the ocean's tide 3 [singular, U] (informal) power that gives you an unfair advantage: a family with a lot of political pull pulley /'pʊli/ n. (plural pulleys) [C] a piece of equipment used for lifting heavy things, consisting of a wheel over which you pull a chain or rope pull-out /'pʊləʊt/ n. [C] 1 the act of an army, business, etc. leaving a particular place: the pullout of NATO troops from the region 2 part of a book or magazine that can be removed pull-o-ver /'pʊl,ʊvə/ n. [C] a SWEATER without buttons

'pull-up n. [C] an exercise in which you use your arms to pull yourself up toward a BAR that is above your head

pul-mo-nar-y /'pʊlmə,neri, 'pʌl-/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to or affecting the lungs: pulmonary disease | the pulmonary vein/artery (=tubes that carry blood from the heart to the lungs)

pulp¹ /pʌlp/ n. [U] 1 the soft inside part of a fruit or vegetable: Cut the melon in half and scoop out the pulp. 2 a very soft substance that is almost liquid: Mash the bananas to a pulp. | Timber is grown for wood pulp, which is used for making paper. 3 beat sb to a pulp (informal) to hit someone until s/he is seriously injured

pulp² adj. pulp magazines, stories, etc. are usually of poor quality and tell stories about sex and violence: pulp fiction pulpit /'pʊlpɪt, 'pʌl-/ n. [C] a structure like a tall box at the front of a church, that a priest or minister stands behind when s/he speaks: Reverend Dawson addressed the congregation from the pulpit.

pul-sate /'pʌlsət/ v. [I] to make sounds or movements that are strong and regular like a heart beating: loud pulsating music —pulsation /pʌl'seɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

pulse¹ /pʌls/ n. 1 [C usually singular] the regular beat that can be felt as your heart pumps blood around your body: He doesn't have a pulse. | Her pulse rate (=the number of beats per minute) is high. | A nurse came in and took my pulse (=counted the number of beats in a minute). 2 [C] an amount of light, sound, or energy that continues for a very short time: an electric pulse pulse² v. [I] to move or flow quickly with a steady beat or sound: Blood pulses through the veins.

pul-ver-ize /'pʌlvə,raɪz/ v. [T] 1 to crush something into powder: a machine that pulverizes rocks 2 (informal) to defeat someone completely pu-ma /'pʊmə, 'pyumə/ n. [C] a COUGAR

pum-mel /'pʌmə/ v. [T] to hit someone or something many times with your FISTS

pump¹ /pʌmp/ n. [C] 1 a machine that forces liquid or gas into or out of something: a water/fuel/gas etc. pump | an air/a bicycle pump → see picture at BICYCLE 2 a woman's plain shoe that does not fasten: a pair of black pumps 3 also gas pump a machine at a GAS STATION, used to put gasoline into a car [ORIGIN: (1) 1400—1500 Middle Low German pumpe or Middle Dutch pompe]

pump² v. 1 [T] to make liquid or gas move in a particular direction, using a pump: That's the machine that pumps water into the fields. 2 [I] to move liquid very quickly in and out or up and down: His heart was pumping fast. 3 pump sb (about sth) (informal) to ask someone a lot of questions in order to find out information 4 pump iron (informal) to do exercise by lifting heavy weights pump sth into sth phr. v. pump money into sth (informal) to spend a lot of money on something such as a project: He had to pump $10,000 of his own money into the company.

pump sth ↔ out phr. v. 1 to remove liquid from something using a pump: We had to pump the basement out after the pipes burst. 2 to produce or supply something in large amounts: I pump out a new novel every year.

pump up phr. v. 1 pump sth ↔ up to fill something such as a tire or ball with air until it is full (SYN) inflate 2 pump sb ↔ up to increase someone's interest or excitement about something: Hutchison traveled around the state the day before the election to pump up voters.

pum-per-nick-el /'pʌmpə,nɪkəl/ n. [U] a heavy dark brown bread pump-kin /'pʌmpkɪn, 'pʌŋkɪn/ n. [C,U] a very large orange fruit that grows on the ground, or the inside of this eaten as food: pumpkin pie [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 pumpion “pumpkin” (16—19 centuries), from French pompon “melon, pumpkin”] → see picture at VEGETABLE pun /pʌn/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS an amusing use of a word or phrase that has two meanings, or of words with the same sound but different meanings —pun v. [I]

THESAURUS joke, gag, wisecrack, one-liner, quip, witticism → JOKE¹

punch¹ /pʌntʃ/ v. [T] 1 to hit someone or something hard with your FIST (=closed hand): Bill was suspended from school for punching another student. → see picture on page A9

THESAURUS hit, slap, beat, smack, whack, strike, pound → HIT¹

2 to make a hole in something using a metal tool or other sharp object: The conductor came along and punched our tickets.

THESAURUS pierce, make a hole in sth, prick, puncture → PIERCE

3 punch a clock to record the time that you start or finish work by putting a card into a special machine [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French poinçonner “to make a hole in,” from poinçon “tool for making holes”] punch in phr. v. to record the time that you arrive at work by putting a card into a special machine punch out phr. v. to record the time that you leave work by putting a card into a special machine punch² n. 1 [C] a quick strong hit made with your FIST (=closed hand): a punch in the stomach 2 [U] a drink made from fruit juice, sugar, water, and sometimes alcohol: fruit punch 3 [C] a metal tool for cutting holes or for pushing something into a small hole 4 [U] a strong effective quality that makes people interested: We need something to give the ad campaign some punch.

'punching bag n. 1 [C] a heavy leather bag that hangs from a rope, that is punched for exercise 2 use sb as a punching bag (informal) to hit someone hard, or to criticize someone a lot, even though s/he has done nothing wrong punch line, punch-line /'pʌntʃlaɪn/ n. [C] the last few words of a joke or story that make it funny or surprising punc-til-i-ous /pʌŋk'tɪliəs/ adj. (formal) very careful to behave correctly and keep exactly to rules: her punctilious attention to instructions —punctiliously adv. —punctiliousness n. [U] punc-tu-al /'pʌŋktʃuəl/ adj. arriving, happening, etc. at exactly the time that has been arranged: My boss demands that we be punctual for work. —punctuality /,pʌŋktʃu'æləti/ n. [U]

punc-tu-ate /'pʌŋktʃu,ert/ v. [T] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS to divide written work into sentences, phrases, etc. using COMMAS, PERIODS, etc. 2 be punctuated by/with sth to be interrupted many times by something: The president's speech was punctuated by occasional cheers.

punc-tu-a-tion /,pʌŋktʃu'eɪʃən/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the way that punctuation marks are used in a piece of writing

'punctu'ation mark n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a sign, such as a COMMA or QUESTION MARK, that is used in dividing a piece of writing into sentences, phrases, etc.

punc-ture¹ /'pʌŋktʃə/ n. [C] a small hole made when something is punctured puncture² v. [I,T] to make a small hole in something, so that air or liquid can get out: One bullet punctured his lung.

THESAURUS pierce, make a hole in sth, prick, punch → PIERCE pun-dit /'pʌndɪt/ n. [C] someone who knows a lot about a particular subject, and is often asked for his/her opinion: political pundits [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Hindi pandit, from Sanskrit pandita “wise”]

THESAURUS expert, specialist, authority → EXPERT pun-gent /'pʌndʒənt/ adj. having a strong smell or taste: the pungent smell of onions

pun-ish /'pʌnɪʃ/ v. [T] to make someone suffer because s/he has done something wrong or broken the law: We will catch the people responsible for this crime, and we will punish them. | Don't punish him for one small mistake. | Any student caught destroying school property will be severely punished. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French punir, from Latin punire, from poena, from Greek poine “payment, punishment”] pun-ish-a-ble /'pʌnɪʃəbəl/ adj. deserving legal punishment: Murder is punishable by life imprisonment.

pun-ish-ing /'pʌnɪʃɪŋ/ adj. difficult, tiring, or extreme: a punishing walk

pun-ish-ment /'pʌnɪʃmənt/ n. 1 [C] something that is done to punish someone: Mason wants tougher punishments for youths involved with gangs. | A year in prison seems like a harsh/severe punishment for a minor offense. ▶ Don't say “strict/strong punishments.” ◀

THESAURUS

sentence – a punishment given by a judge in a court: a prison sentence | He faces a death sentence (=death as punishment for a crime).

penalty – a punishment given to someone who has broken a law, rule, or agreement: Drug dealers face severe penalties. | The prosecution will seek the death penalty (=death as punishment for a crime) for the murder.

fine – an amount of money that you must pay as a punishment for breaking a rule or law: I got a fine for speeding.

community service – unpaid work helping other people that someone does as punishment for a crime: He was ordered to do 60 hours of community service.

corporal punishment – the act of punishing a child by hitting him/her: Corporal punishment is illegal in schools.

capital punishment – the practice of killing someone as punishment for a crime

2 [U] the act of punishing someone, or the process of being punished: The terrorists will not escape punishment. | As punishment, Marshall had to stay after school.

pu-ni-tive /'pyʊnətɪv/ adj. intended as punishment: The company will seek punitive damages (=money that a court orders someone to pay as a punishment) related to the fraud conviction.

punk /pʌŋk/ n. 1 [U] also punk rock a type of loud music popular in the late 1970s and 1980s 2 [C] (informal) a boy or young man who likes to start fights, do things that are illegal, etc. 3 [C] also punk rocker someone who likes punk music and wears things that are typical of it, such as torn clothes, metal chains, and colored hair punt /pʌnt/ n. [C] in football, a long kick that you make after dropping the ball from your hands —punt v. [I,T] pu-ny /'pyʊni/ adj. small, thin, and weak: a puny little kid

pup /pʌp/ n. [C] 1 a PUPPY 2 a young SEAL or OTTER

pu-pa /'pyupə/ n. (plural pupas or pupae /-pi/) [C] BIOLOGY a young insect that is at the stage of its development in which it does not eat and is protected inside a special cover, before it becomes an adult —pupal adj.

pu-pil /'pyupəl/ n. [C] 1 (formal) a child or young person in school → STUDENT 2 BIOLOGY the small black round area in the middle of your eye → see picture at EYE¹ [ORIGIN: (1) 1300—1400 French pupille, from Latin pupillus “young boy who is looked after”] pup-pet /'pʌpɪt/ n. [C] 1 a model of a person or animal that you can move by pulling strings that are attached to parts of its body, or by putting your hand inside it: a puppet show 2 (disapproving) a person or organization that is controlled by someone else and does not make any independent decisions: a puppet government pup-pet-er /'pʌpɪtɪr/ n. [C] someone who performs with puppets pup-pet-ry /'pʌpɪtri/ n. [U] 1 the art of controlling how puppets move 2 the activity of making puppets pup-py /'pʌpi/ n. (plural puppies) [C] a young dog

'puppy love n. [U] a young boy's or girl's romantic love for someone, that people do not think of as serious

pur-chase /'pʊtʃəs/ (Ac) v. [T] (formal) to buy something: The couple recently purchased a $4 million mansion in Beverly Hills. | Tickets may be purchased from the box office. | There is a growing demand to purchase goods on credit. | Eighty percent of men's clothing is purchased by women. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French purchacier “to try to get,” from chacier “to run after and try to catch”] —purchaser n. [C]

THESAURUS buy, acquire, get, procure, snap sth up, pick sth up → BUY¹

purchase ² n. (formal) 1 [C,U] the act of buying something: Please have your credit card ready when making your purchase. | The law requires a five-day waiting period for the purchase of handguns. | A personal computer is often a family's third-biggest purchase after the house and the car. 2 [C] something that has been bought: The store will deliver your purchases.

pure /pyʊr/ adj. 1 not mixed with anything else (ANT) impure: rings made of pure gold | pure wool blankets → NATURAL¹ 2 [only before noun] complete: a smile of pure joy | It was pure chance that we were there at the same time. 3 clean, without anything harmful or unhealthy (ANT) impure: pure drinking water | In the mountains, the air is pure. 4 pure and simple used to emphasize that there is only one thing involved or worth considering: This was murder, pure and simple. 5 (literary) without any sexual experience or evil thoughts (ANT) impure 6 pure science/math etc. work done in order to increase our knowledge of something rather than to make practical use of it → APPLIED [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French pur, from Latin purus]

pu-rée /pyʊ'reɪ/ n. [C,U] food that is boiled or crushed until it is almost a liquid: tomato purée —purée v. [T]

pure-ly /'pyʊrli/ adv. completely and only: He did it for purely selfish reasons. | We met purely by chance.

pur-ga-to-ry /'pəgə,tɔri/ n. [U] 1 Purgatory a place where, according to Roman Catholic beliefs, the souls of dead people must suffer for the bad things they have done, until they are good enough to enter heaven 2 a place, situation, or time when you suffer a lot purge /pɜ:dʒ/ v. [T] 1 to force people to leave a place or organization because the people in power do not like them: The army was purged of anyone the government considered dangerous. 2 (formal) to get rid of something bad that is in your body 3 (literary) to remove bad feelings: We must purge ourselves of hatred. —purge n. [C] pu-ri-fy /'pyʊrə,fai/ v. (purified, purifies) [T] to remove the dirty or unwanted parts from something: The water should be purified before drinking. —purification /,pyʊrəfə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] pur-ist /'pyʊrɪst/ n. [C] someone who has very strict ideas about what is right or correct in a particular subject pur-it-an /'pyʊrətən, -rət'n/ n. [C] 1 someone with strict moral views who thinks that pleasures such as sex or drinking alcohol are wrong 2 Puritan HISTORY a member of a Protestant religious group in the 16th and 17th centuries, who wanted to make religion simpler pu-ri-tan-i-cal /,pyʊrətənɪkəl/ adj. (disapproving) having strict attitudes about religion and moral behavior: a puritanical and deeply religious woman pu-ri-ty /'pyʊrəti/ n. [U] the quality or state of being pure: the purity of the water | religious purity pur-ple /'pɜ:pəl/ n. [U] a dark color made from red mixed with blue [ORIGIN: 900—1000 Latin purpura, from Greek porphyra type of shellfish from which purple coloring was obtained] —purple adj.

Purple Heart n. [C] a MEDAL given to U.S. soldiers who have been wounded in battle pur-port /pəˈpɔrt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to claim to be or do something, even if this is not true: He purports to be the son of the wealthy Italian banker. | The painting is purported to be the work of Monet.

—purportedly adv.

pur-pose /ˈpəpəs/ n. 1 [C] the thing that an event, process, or activity is supposed to achieve: The purpose of this exercise is to increase your strength. | The Red Cross sent supplies for medical purposes. | For the purposes of the report, low income was defined as $30,000 a year for a family of four. | He came here with the purpose of carrying out the attack. 2 on purpose deliberately: Firefighters believe the fire was started on purpose. 3 [U] determination to succeed in what you want to do: She came back from vacation with a new sense of purpose.

pur-pose-ful /ˈpəpəsʃəl/ adj. having a clear aim or purpose [SYN] determined: She kept walking, with long, purposeful strides.

pur-pose-ly /ˈpəpəsli/ adv. deliberately: They purposely left him out of the discussion.

THESAURUS deliberately, on purpose, intentionally → DELIBERATELY

purr /pə/ v. [I] if a cat purrs, it makes a soft low sound in its throat to show that it is pleased —purr n. [C] purse¹ /pɜːs/ n. 1 [C] a bag used by women to carry money and personal things: I think my glasses are still in my purse. → see picture at BAG¹ 2 control/hold the purse strings to control the money in a family, company, etc. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Late Latin bursa “bag (for money)”] purse² v. purse your lips to bring your lips together tightly in a circle, especially to show disapproval purs-er /ˈpɜːsə/ n. [C] an officer who is responsible for the money on a ship and is in charge of the passengers’ rooms, comfort, etc.

pur-sue /pəˈsu/ [AC] v. [T] 1 to continue doing an activity or trying to achieve something over a long time: He left home to pursue a career in acting. | Students should pursue their own interests, as well as do their school work. | The program allows adult learners to pursue their studies in their own time. 2 to chase or follow someone or something in order to catch him, her, or it: A police car pursued the suspect along Nordhoff Blvd.

THESAURUS follow, chase, run after → FOLLOW

3 pursue the matter/question/argument to continue trying to ask about, find out about, or persuade someone about a particular subject: The company plans to pursue the matter in court. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Anglo-French pursuer, from Old French poursuir, from Latin prosequi “to follow and try to catch”]

pur-suit /pəˈsut/ [AC] n. 1 [U] the act of chasing or following someone: With the officers in (hot) pursuit (=following close behind), Parker pulled off the freeway and ran into the woods. 2 [U] (formal) the act of trying to achieve something in a determined way: the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness | People are having to move to other areas in pursuit of work. 3 [C usually plural] (formal) an activity that you spend a lot of time doing: Nancy enjoys outdoor pursuits.

pur-vey-or /pəˈveɪə/ n. [C] (formal) a business that supplies information, goods, or services: purveyors of fine cheeses —purvey v. [T] pus /pʌs/ n. [U] a thick yellowish liquid produced in an infected part of your body push¹ /puʃ/ v.

1 MOVE [I,T] to move a person or thing away from you by pressing him, her, or it with your hands [ANT] pull: A couple of guys were pushing an old Volkswagen down the street. | Lisa pushed Amy into the pool. | She tried to push him away. | Can you push harder? It's not moving. → see picture on page A9 roll — to push a round object so that it moves forward: He rolled the wheel over to the car.

THESAURUS

poke — to push someone or something with your finger or something sharp: Jill poked the fish to see if it was alive.
shove — to push someone or something roughly: He shoved her against a wall.
nudge — to push someone gently with your elbow to get his or her attention: “Move over,” she said, nudging my arm.
elbow — to push someone with your elbows, especially in order to move past him/her: As he left the field, he elbowed jeering spectators out of his way. → PULL¹

2 MAKE STH START/STOP [I,T] to press a button, SWITCH, etc. to make a machine start or stop working: Push the green button to start the engine.

3 TRY TO GET PAST SB [I,T] to move somewhere by pushing people away from you: Heather pushed past us without speaking. | People were trying to push their way to the front.

4 PERSUADE [I,T] to try to persuade someone to accept or do something: The agency is pushing to increase U.S. exports. | Concerned citizens are pushing for stricter gun controls. | My parents pushed me into going to college.

5 WORK HARD [T] to make someone work very hard: Royce has been pushing himself too much lately. | Coach Koepple pushes his players pretty hard.

6 INCREASE/DECREASE [I,T] to increase or decrease an amount, number, or value: New medical technology has pushed the cost of health care up/higher. | The recession has pushed stock market prices down/lower.

7 DRUGS [T] (informal) to sell illegal drugs

8 push your luck/push it (informal) to do something or ask for something again, when this is likely to annoy someone or be risky: I want to ask my boss for another day off, but I don't want to push my luck. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French poulsier “to hit, push,” from Latin pulsare, from pellere “to drive, hit”] push ahead phr. v.

to continue with a plan or activity in a determined way: The airport is pushing ahead with its program to expand.

push sb ↔ around phr. v.

(informal) to tell someone what to do in a rude or threatening way: Don't let your boss push you around.

push on phr. v.

to continue traveling somewhere or doing an activity: The others stopped for a rest, but I pushed on to the top of the mountain. | Even with disagreement growing, they decided to push on with the negotiations.

push sth ↔ through phr. v.

to get a plan, law, etc. officially accepted, especially quickly: The governor pushed through a measure to increase the state sales tax.

push² n. [C usually singular] 1 the act of pushing someone or something: Just give the door a push if it's stuck. 2 an attempt to get or achieve something: Eastern Europe then started a push to modernize its economies. | a push for longer prison terms 3 if/when push comes to shove when or if a situation becomes extremely difficult: If push comes to shove, I can always rent out the house.

push-er /'pʊʃə/ n. [C] (informal) someone who sells illegal drugs push-o-ver /'pʌʃ,ʊvə/ n. (informal) be a push-over to be easy to persuade, influence, or defeat

'push-up n. [C] an exercise in which you lie on the floor facing the ground, and push yourself up with your arms: I can only do about twenty push-ups.

push-y /'pʊʃi/ adj. (disapproving) so determined to succeed and get what you want that you behave in a rude way: pushy salespeople

puss-y-cat /'pʊsi,kæt/ n. [C] 1 a word meaning cat, used by children, or when speaking to children 2 (informal) someone who is kind and gentle: Jake's a real pussycat once you get to know him.

puss-y-foot /'pʊsi,fʊt/ v. [I] (informal) to be too careful and afraid to do something: Stop pussyfooting around and decide!

put /put/ v. (past tense and past participle put, present participle putting) [T]

1 MOVE TO PLACE/POSITION to move someone or something into a particular place or position: Where did you put the newspaper? | Put the scissors in the drawer when you're finished. | I put some money into our account. | It's time to put the kids to bed (=make them go into their beds).

2 CHANGE to change someone's situation or the way s/he feels: Ohio State's win put them in the playoffs. | The recent layoffs put 250 people out of work. | Higher insurance costs may put many companies out of business (=make the companies close down). | Politics puts me to sleep. | He put himself in danger to save the lives of others. | Listen to music to put you in a relaxed mood (=make you feel relaxed).

3 WRITE to write or print something: Put your name at the top of your answer sheet. | We put an ad in the paper.*

4 put emphasis/pressure/blame etc. on sb/sth to emphasize something, make someone feel pressure, blame someone, etc.: We want to put more pressure on Congress to pass gun control laws.

5 put an end/a stop to sth to stop an activity that is harmful or not acceptable: We want the president to put an end to this war.

6 EXPRESS to say or express something in a particular way: How can I put this? (=said to someone when you want to tell them something that they may not like) | To put it bluntly, a lot of people just don't like her. | Well, let me put it this way: he's lied to us before.

7 HAVE IMPORTANCE/QUALITY to consider something to have a particular level of importance or quality: Responsible parents always put their children first. | The new study puts UCLA among the top five research universities in the U.S.

8 put sth behind you to try to forget about a bad experience or a mistake so that it does not affect you now: Vietnam veterans talked of the need to put the war behind them.

9 put faith/confidence/trust etc. in sb/sth to trust or believe in someone or something: These people put little trust in doctors. [ORIGIN: Old English putian] → put your mind to sth at MIND¹ put sth ↔ across phr. v.

to explain your ideas, beliefs, etc. in a way that people can understand: I had a hard time putting my message across to the students.

put sth ↔ aside phr. v.

1 to ignore a problem or disagreement because you want to achieve something: Try to put your feelings aside and look at the facts.

2 to save money regularly, usually for a particular purpose: I have money put aside for emergencies.

put sth ↔ away phr. v.

to put something in the place where it is usually kept: Could you put the dishes away before you go to bed?

put sth ↔ back phr. v.

to put things or people in the place or situation they were before: Put the milk back in the fridge, please. | The program helps put people back to work.

put down phr. v.

1 put sth ↔ down to put something you are holding onto a surface: She put her case down on the floor. → see picture on page A9

2 put sb ↔ down (informal) to criticize someone and make him/her feel silly or stupid: Her father is always putting her down.

3 put sth ↔ down (informal) to write something on a piece of paper: I put down that I'd be available to work on Saturdays.

4 put sb/sth ↔ down to use force to stop people who are fighting against a government: Soldiers were sent to put down the rebellion.

put sth ↔ forward phr. v.

to suggest a plan, idea, etc.: The treaty was put forward by the Dutch.

put sth ↔ in phr. v.

1 to put a piece of equipment somewhere and connect it so that it is ready to be used: We had to have a new furnace put in.

2 to spend time or effort doing something: Doug is putting in a lot of hours at work (=he is working a lot).

3 to ask for something in an official way: Sawyer put in his expenses claim last week. | Jones put in a request for a transfer to our Dallas office.

put sth into phr. v.

1 to make money available to be used for a particular purpose: The company plans to put more money into computer technology.

2 put energy/effort/enthusiasm etc. into sth to use energy, etc. when you are doing something: Koskoff put a lot of time and effort into this project.

3 put sth into action/effect/practice to start using something such as a plan: The college hopes to put the changes into effect by August 1.

put off phr. v.

1 put sth ↔ off to delay something, or to delay doing something: Many Americans put off filling out their tax forms as long as possible. | We've decided to put off our trip to Europe until next year.

2 put sb ↔ off to make you dislike something or not want to do something: Don't be put off by the restaurant's decor; the food is excellent.

put sth ↔ on phr. v.

1 to put a piece of clothing on your body → TAKE OFF: Put your coat on – it's cold.

2 put sth ↔ on sth to do something that affects or influences something else: The government put a freeze on the construction of new nuclear power plants (=they stopped it).

3 put on weight/5 pounds etc. to become fatter and heavier

4 to make a piece of equipment begin working: It's cold in here. Why don't you put on the heat?

5 to begin to play a record, tape, video, etc.: Let's put on some music.

6 to use MAKEUP, etc. on your skin: I hardly ever put on lipstick.

7 to arrange an event, concert, play, etc., or to perform in one: The orchestra is putting on a concert for charity.

8 to start cooking something: Let me just put the potatoes on.

put out phr. v.

1 put sth ↔ out to make a fire, cigarette, etc. stop burning: It took nearly three hours to put out the fire.

2 put sth ↔ out to produce something, such as a book, record, movie, etc.: They've put out three books now on vegetarian cooking.

3 put sth ↔ out to place things where people can find and use them: I'm just going to put out cold cuts, bread, and stuff for lunch.

4 put sth ↔ out to put something outside the house: Has anybody put the trash out yet?

5 put sth ↔ out to broadcast or produce something for people to read or listen to: The company has put out a statement saying that they will replace all the defective products.

6 put sb ↔ out to make more work or cause problems for someone: Will it put you out if I bring another guest?

7 put your hand/foot/arm out to move your hand, etc. away from your body: Jack put out his foot and tripped her.

put through phr. v.

1 put sb through sth to make someone do something that is very bad or difficult: My father's drinking problem put my mother through hell.

2 put sb through school/college/university to pay for someone to go to school, etc.: He worked part-time to put himself through school.

3 put sb through to connect someone to someone else on the telephone put sth to phr. v.

to suggest something such as a plan to a person or group: The proposal was put to the committee on January 9.

put sth ↔ together phr. v.

1 to build or fix something by joining its different parts together: The store will put the bicycle together for you.

2 to prepare or produce something by collecting pieces of information, ideas, etc.: Franklin has put together a program to help families in need.

3 put together combined: He earns more than the rest of us put together.

put up phr. v.

1 put sth ↔ up to build something such as a wall or building, or to raise something so that it is upright: The developers plan to put up a 15-story office building.

2 put sth ↔ up to attach a picture, etc. to a wall or decorate things, so people can see them: Stores are already putting up Christmas decorations.

3 put sth up for sale/discussion/review etc. to make something available to be sold, discussed, etc.: We put our house up for sale.

4 put sb ↔ up (informal) to let someone stay in your house: I can put Jared up for the night.

5 put up money/$500/$3 million etc. to give money to be used for a particular purpose: Furth put up $42,000 in prize money for the contest.

6 put up resistance/a fight/a struggle to argue against or oppose something in a determined way, or to fight against someone who is attacking you: Opponents of the bill are putting up a good fight in the Assembly.

put sb up to sth phr. v.

to encourage someone to do something wrong, silly, or dangerous: Jim wouldn't usually play such a stupid trick; someone must have put him up to it.

put up with sb/sth phr. v.

to accept a bad situation or person without complaining: I'm not going to put up with being treated like that.

'put-down n. [C] (informal) something you say that is intended to make someone feel stupid and unimportant pu-tre-fy /'pyutrə,faɪ/ v. (putrefied, putrefies) [I,T] (formal) to decay and smell very bad (SYN) rot pu-trid /'pyutrɪd/ adj. decaying and smelling very bad putt /pʌt/ v. [I,T] to hit a GOLF ball gently a short distance along the ground toward the hole —putt n. [C] put-ter /'pʌtə/ v. [I] to spend time doing things that are not very important, in a relaxed way: He's been puttering around the yard all morning.

put-ty /'pʌtɪ/ n. [U] a soft substance that becomes hard when it dries, used especially for fixing glass into window frames

'put up on adj. be/feel put upon to think that other people are treating you unfairly by expecting you to do too much puz-zle¹ /'pʌzəl/ n.

[C] 1 a game or toy that has a lot of pieces that you have to fit together: a 500-piece jigsaw puzzle 2 a game in which you have to think hard to answer a difficult question or solve a problem: a book of crossword puzzles 3 something that is difficult to understand or explain: The way the stock market works has always been a puzzle to me.

puzzle² v. 1 [T] to confuse someone because s/he does not understand something: The results of the study puzzled scientists. 2 [I,T] to think for a long time about something because you cannot understand it: Jill puzzled over the first question on the test for ten minutes.

puz-zled /'pʌzəld/ adj. confused and unable to understand something: a puzzled look

THE SAURUS

confused, bewildered, baffled

→ CONFUSED

puz-zling /'pʌzliŋ/ adj. difficult to understand: a puzzling question | I find his work puzzling.

pyg-my /'pɪgmɪ/ n. (plural pygmies) [C] 1 also Pygmy someone who belongs to a race of very small people from parts of Asia and Africa 2 a very small type of animal: a pygmy rabbit

py-lon /'paɪlən/ n. [C] a tall metal structure that supports wires carrying electricity

P

pyramid

pyr-a-mid /'pɪrəmid/ n. [C] 1 a large stone building with a flat base and sides shaped like TRIANGLES that form a point at the top → see picture at SHAPE¹ 2 something that has this shape pyre /paɪə/ n. [C] a high pile of wood on which a dead body is placed to be burned in a funeral ceremony: a funeral pyre

Py-rex /'paɪrɛks/ n. [U] (trademark) a special type of strong glass that does not break at high temperatures and is used for making cooking dishes

Py-thag-o-re-an The-o-rem /pɪ,θægəriən 'θiərəm/ n. MATH a rule for calculating the length of one side of a RIGHT TRIANGLE (=one with one angle of 90°), that states that the SQUARE of the HYPOTENUSE (=longest side) is equal to the sum of the squares of the other two sides. It is written as $a^2 + b^2 = c^2$.

py-thon /ˈpaɪθən, -θən/ n. [C] a large tropical snake that kills animals for food by crushing them

Qq

Q

Q, q /kyu/ the 17th letter of the English alphabet

Q., q. the written abbreviation of QUESTION

q PHYSICS a sign for heat

Q-tip /ˈkyu tɪp/ n. [C] (trademark) a small thin stick with soft cotton at each end, used for cleaning parts of your body that are small, such as your ears quack¹ /kwæk/ v. [I] to make the sound that ducks make quack² n. [C] 1 (informal) someone who pretends to be a doctor 2 the sound a duck makes quad /kwəd/ n. (informal) 1 [C] a square open area with buildings all around it, especially in a school or college 2 quads [plural] QUADRICEPS quad-ran-gle /ˈkwadræŋɡəl/ n. [C] 1 a flat shape that has four straight sides 2 a quad quad-rant /ˈkwadrənt/ n. [C] 1 MATH a quarter of a circle → see picture at CIRCLE¹ 2 a quarter of an area, especially of land: the town's southwest quadrant 3 a tool for measuring angles 4 MATH one of four equal parts into which a PLANE is divided by two straight lines that cross each other at an angle of 90 degrees [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin quadrans “fourth part”] quad-rat-ic e-quation /kwɑːdrætɪk ɪˈkweɪʒən/ n. [C] MATH an EQUATION which includes numbers or quantities multiplied by themselves, for example $ax^2 + bx + c = y$ quad-ri-ceps /ˈkwadrəˌseps/ n. [plural] BIOLOGY the large muscle at the front of your THIGH

quad-ri-lat-er-al /ˈkwadrəˌlætərəl/ n. [C] MATH a flat shape with four straight sides —quadrilateral adj.

quad-ri-ple-gic /ˈkwadrəˌplɪdʒɪk/ n. [C] someone who is permanently unable to move any part of his/her body below his/her neck → PARAPLEGIC —quadriplegic adj.

quad-ru-ped /ˈkwadrəˌpɛd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an animal that has four feet quad-ru-ple¹ /kwɑːˈdrupəl/ v. [I,T] to increase and become four times as big or as high, or to make something do this: The city's population has quadrupled since the 1930s.

quadruple² adj., quantifier four times as big, as many, or as much: quadruple the normal dose quad-ru-plet /kwɑːˈdrʌplɪt/ n. [C] one of four babies born at the same time to the same mother quag-mire /ˈkwægmaɪə, ˈkwæg-/ n. [C] 1 a difficult or complicated situation: Vietnam became a political and military quagmire. 2 an area of soft wet muddy ground quail /kweɪl/ n. [C,U] a small fat bird with a short tail that is hunted and shot for food and sport, or the meat from this bird quaint /kweɪnt/ adj. unusual and attractive, especially in an old-fashioned way: a quaint little restaurant quake¹ /kweɪk/ v. [I] 1 to shake, usually because you are afraid: He quaked in terror. 2 if the earth, a building, etc. quakes, it shakes violently quake² n. [C] (informal) an EARTHQUAKE

Quak-er /ˈkweɪkə/ n. [C] a member of the Society of Friends, a Christian religious group that opposes violence, has no religious leaders or ceremonies, and holds its religious meetings in silence —Quaker adj.

qual-i-fi-ca-tion /ˈkwəlɪfəˈkeɪʃən/ n. 1 [C usually plural] a skill, personal quality, or type of experience that makes you right for a particular job or position: What are the key qualifications for the presidency? | Does he have the right qualifications to become a Supreme Court Justice? 2 [C,U] the official standard that must be achieved in order to do a job, enter a sports competition, etc., or the achievement of this standard: The injury puts her qualification for the Olympic swimming team into doubt. | educational qualifications 3 [C,U] something that you add to a statement to limit its effect or meaning: You have the right to refuse without qualification.

qual-i-fied /ˈkwəlɪˌfaɪd/ adj. 1 having the right knowledge, experience, skills, etc. for a particular job: a qualified teacher | The employees here are highly qualified. 2 [usually before noun] qualified agreement, approval, etc. is limited in some way because you do not completely agree: Is it worth the money? The answer is a qualified yes.

qual-i-fi-er /ˈkwəlɪˌfaɪə/ n. [C] 1 someone who has reached the necessary standard for entering a competition 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a word or phrase that limits or adds to the meaning of another word or phrase. In the phrase “her new red bike,” “new” and “red” are qualifiers.

qual-i-fy /ˈkwəlɪˌfaɪ/ v. (qualified, qualifies) 1 [I] to pass an examination, or reach the standard of knowledge or skill that you need in order to do something: I qualified as a pilot. | She has qualified for the 100-meter race. 2 [I,T] to have the right to have or do something, or to give someone this right: They qualify for food stamps. 3 [I] to have all the necessary qualities to be considered a particular thing: The organization qualifies as a charity. 4 [T] to add something to what has already been said, in order to limit its effect or meaning: Let me qualify that statement.

qual-i-ta-tive /'kwɒlətətɪv/ (Ac) adj. relating to the quality or standard of something, rather than the amount or number → QUANTITATIVE: a qualitative study of the health care program | This test allows us to make a qualitative analysis of a student's performance.

qual-i-ty¹ /'kwɒlətɪ/ n. (plural qualities) 1 [C,U] the degree to which something is good or bad: today's air quality | The quality of education they received was on the whole fairly good. | high/low-quality recording equipment | These new drugs may improve the quality of life for cancer sufferers. 2 [C usually plural] something that someone has as part of his/her character, especially good things → CHARACTERISTIC: She has many of the qualities he lacks. | leadership qualities | the qualities of honesty and independence

THESAURUS characteristic, trait, attribute, feature → CHARACTERISTIC¹

3 [C] something that is typical of something and makes it different from other things: the qualities of the rock 4 [U] a high standard: a guarantee of quality quality² adj. [only before noun] of a high standard: quality products

'quality control n. [U] the practice of checking goods as they are produced, to make sure their quality is good enough

'quality time n. [U] the time that you spend giving someone your full attention, especially time you spend with your children

qualm /kwɒm, kwɔm/ n. [C usually plural] a feeling of slight worry or doubt because you are not sure that what you are doing is right: He has no qualms about proceeding.

quan-da-ry /'kwɒndəri/ n. [C] be in a quandary about/over sth to be unable to decide what to do about a difficult problem or situation: We were in a quandary over whether to go or not.

quan-ta /'kwɒntə/ n. the plural of QUANTUM

quan-ti-fi-er /'kwɒntəfaiə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a word or phrase that is used with a noun to show quantity. In the sentence "There were only a few people at the party," "few" is a quantifier.

quan-ti-fy /'kwɒntəfai/ v. (quantified, quantifies) [T] to measure something and express it as a number: The damage to the company is difficult to quantify. —quantifiable /'kwɒntəfaiəbəl/ adj.

quan-ti-ta-tive /'kwɒntətətɪv/ adj. relating to amounts rather than to the quality or standard of something → QUALITATIVE: a quantitative improvement in production

quan-ti-ty /'kwɒntətɪ/ n. (plural quantities) [C,U] an amount of something that can be counted or measured: You cannot ignore the quantity of evidence proving his guilt. | large/great quantities of natural gas quan-tum /'kwɒntəm/ n. (plural quanta /-tə/) [C] PHYSICS the smallest unit that can be used to measure something such as light or energy. For example, a quantum of light is a PHOTON.

quantum 'leap n. [C] a very large and important improvement quantum me'chanics also quantum 'physics n. [U] PHYSICS the scientific study of the way that atoms and the parts of an atom behave and how they affect each other

'quantum theory n. [singular] PHYSICS the scientific idea that energy, especially light, travels in very small separate pieces, not in a continuous form, used to explain how atoms and the parts of an atom behave quar-an-tine /'kwɒrən,tɪn, 'kwɒr-/ n. [C,U] a time when a person or animal is kept apart from others in case he, she, or it has a disease: The dogs were kept in quarantine for three months. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Italian quarantina "period of forty days," from Old French quarante "forty"] —quarantine v. [T]

quark /kwɜrk/ n. [C] PHYSICS one of a group of PARTICLES that form the parts of an atom quar-rel¹ /'kwɒrəl, 'kwɒrəl/ n. [C] 1 an angry argument: He'd had a quarrel with his wife. | a quarrel over money 2 (formal) a reason to dislike someone or disagree with an idea, decision, etc.: We have no quarrel with the court's decision. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French querelle "complaint," from Latin querela, from queri "to complain"]

quarrel² v. [I] to have an angry argument: I had quarreled with my parents. | Downstairs, the children were quarreling over a game.

THESAURUS argue, have an argument, fight, have a fight, have a quarrel, squabble, bicker → ARGUE

quar-rel-some /'kwɒrəlsəm, 'kwɒr-/ adj. too ready to argue about things quar-ry /'kwɒri, 'kwɒri/ n. (plural quarries) [C] 1 a place where large amounts of stone, sand, etc. are dug out of the ground 2 an animal or person that you are hunting or chasing [ORIGIN: (1) 1300—1400 Old French quarriere, from quarre "square stone," from Latin quadrum "square"] —quarry v. [T] quart /kwɔrt/ n. [C] a unit for measuring liquid, equal to 2 PINTS or 0.9463 liters: a quart of milk

quar-ter /'kwɒrtə/ n. [C] 1 one of four equal parts into which something can be divided → HALF, THIRD: Cut the sandwiches into quarters. | A quarter of Canada's population is French-speaking. | three-quarters of (=75%) the country's voters 2 a period of fifteen minutes: Can you be ready in a quarter (of an) hour? | It's a quarter to/after five (=15 minutes before or after 5 o'clock). | The unloading took three-quarters of an hour (=45 minutes). 3 a coin used in the U.S. and Canada worth 25 cents (=1/4 of a dollar)

THESAURUS money, coin, penny, nickel, dime → MONEY

4 a period of three months – used when discussing business and financial matters: Profits were down in the fourth quarter. 5 one of the four periods into which a year at school or college is divided → SEMESTER 6 one of the four equal periods of time into which games of some sports are divided: The score was 66–58 in the third quarter. 7 quarters [plural] the house or rooms where you live, especially if you are a servant or in the army: Upstairs were spacious living quarters.

quar-ter-back /'kwɔrtə,bæk/ n. [C] the player in football who directs the OFFENSE and throws the ball

Q

quar-ter-fi-nal /'kwɔrtə'faɪnəl/ n. [C] one of the set of four games near the end of a competition, whose winners play in the two SEMIFINALS quar-ter-ly /'kwɔrtə'li/ adj., adv. produced or happening four times a year: a quarterly report

'quarter note n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note that continues for a quarter of the length of a WHOLE NOTE → HALF NOTE quar-tet /kwɔr'tet/ n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS four singers or musicians who perform together: a woodwind/string/brass quartet 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a piece of music written for four performers 3 a group of four things or people quar-tile /'kwɔrtail, -tl/ n. [C] 1 MATH one of four equal parts that a set of numbers representing facts or measurements can be divided into 2 MATH one of the three values dividing a set of numbers representing facts or measurements into four equal parts

quartz /kwɔrts/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a hard mineral substance that is used in making electronic watches and clocks qua-sar /'kwɛzər/ n. [C] PHYSICS a very bright, very distant object similar to a star

quash /kwɒʃ/ v. [T] (formal) 1 to officially state that a judgment or decision is no longer legal or correct: The judge quashed the decision of a lower court. 2 to say or do something to stop something from continuing: an attempt to quash rumors quat-rain /'kwatrein/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a group of four lines in a poem qua-ver /'kwɛɪvə/ v. [I,T] if your voice quavers, it shakes as you speak, especially because you are nervous quay /keɪ, ki/ n. [C] a place where boats can be tied up or loaded quea-sy /'kwɪzi/ adj. feeling that you are going to VOMIT (SYN) nauseous —queasiness n. [U] queen /kwɪn/ n. [C] 1 also Queen the female ruler of a country who is from a royal family, or the wife of a king: Queen Elizabeth II of Great Britain

THESAURUS king, prince, princess, monarch, ruler, emperor, sovereign → KING

2 a large female BEE, ANT, etc. that lays the eggs for a whole group 3 the woman who wins a beauty competition [ORIGIN: Old English cwen “woman, queen”]

'queen-size adj. larger than the standard size: a queen-size bed queer /kwɪr/ adj. (old-fashioned) strange: a queer expression

quell /kwɛl/ v. [T] 1 to make a violent situation end: The military were sent in to quell the rioting. 2 to stop feelings of doubt, worry, and anxiety from getting stronger: I struggled to quell my sense of panic.

quench /kwɛntʃ/ v. quench your thirst if a drink quenches your thirst, it makes you stop feeling thirsty quer-u-lous /'kwɛrələs, -yələs/ adj. (formal) complaining all the time in an annoying way: a querulous tone of self-pity in her voice —querulously adv. —querulousness n. [U] que-ry /'kwɪri/ n. (plural queries) [C] (formal) a question: Staff members will be available to answer your queries. —query v. [T] quest /kwɛst/ n. [C] (literary) a long search for something —quest v. [I] ques-tion /'kwɛstʃən, 'kwɛftʃən/ n. 1 [C] a sentence or phrase used in order to ask for information (ANT) answer: Can I ask you a question? | Does anyone have any questions? | questions about/on health habits | I'm not sure I can answer that question.

COLLOCATIONS

ask a question
answer a question have a question – to want to ask one put a question to sb – to ask someone a question in a formal situation pose a question – to ask a difficult question bombard sb with questions – to ask someone a lot of questions rephrase a question – to ask it in a different way avoid/evade/sidestep a question – to avoid giving a direct answer

2 [C] a subject or problem that needs to be discussed or dealt with (SYN) issue: The question of what should be done with nuclear waste has not been satisfactorily answered. | Their actions raise the question of whether they should be treated as war criminals. 3 [U] a feeling of doubt about something: The accuracy of the data has been called into question (=people have doubts about it). | There is no question that teachers prefer smaller classes. 4 without question a) definitely: The most beautiful fish here is, without question, the angelfish. b) without complaining or asking why: He followed Dennison's advice without question. 5 in question the person or thing that is in question is the one that is being discussed: The document in question is a report dated June 18, 1948. 6 be a question of sth used in order to say what the most important fact, part, or feature of something is: It's a question of all working together to solve these problems. 7 be out of the question if something is out of the question, it is definitely not possible or not allowed: Ticket prices are so high that going to the game is out of the question. 8 (that's a) good question (spoken) said when you are admitting you do not know the answer to a question: "How did she and Luke meet?" "Good question." [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin quaestio, from quaestus, past participle of quaerere "to ask"] question² v. [T] 1 to ask someone questions, especially about a crime: Police are questioning three men about the murder.

THESAURUS ask, interrogate, inquire → ASK

2 to have or express doubts about whether something is true, good, or necessary: Are you questioning my honesty? | Fans are questioning whether the team can win.

ques-tion-a-ble /'kwɛstʃənəbəl/ adj. 1 not likely to be good, honest, or morally correct: questionable business activities 2 not certain, or possibly not correct: It is questionable whether the tests are worthwhile.

ques-tion-ing¹ /'kwɛstʃənɪŋ/ n. [U] the process of asking questions: A witness is currently undergoing questioning.

questioning² adj. a questioning look or expression shows that you need more information or that you doubt something

'question mark n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the mark (?), used in writing at the end of a question ques-tion-naire /'kwɛstʃənər/ n. [C] a written set of questions about a particular subject, that is given to a large number of people in order to collect information

THESAURUS poll, survey → POLL¹

quib-ble /'kwɪbəl/ v. [I] to argue about something that is not very important —quibble n. [C] quiche /kiʃ/ n. [C] a type of food that consists of PASTRY filled with a mixture of eggs, cheese, vegetables, etc.

quick¹ /kwɪk/ adj. 1 quick actions or events continue for, or are done, in a short time (ANT) slow: I'll just take a quick shower first. | a quick response | It'd be quicker to drive.

THESAURUS short, brief, cursory → SHORT¹

2 moving or doing something fast (ANT) slow: I promise I'll be quick. | People are quick to complain but slow to help. 3 able to learn and understand things in a short time (SYN) intelligent: Carolyn's a quick learner. [ORIGIN: Old English cwīc "alive"] quick² adv. (spoken, nonstandard) quickly: Come quick! Larry's on TV! | It was all over pretty quick.

quick-en /'kwɪkən/ v. [I,T] (written) to become quicker, or to make something do this: Elaine quickened her pace (=walked faster).

quick-ie /'kwɪki/ adj. (informal) happening or done quickly: a quickie divorce (=one that is done cheaply and quickly) —quickie n. [C]

quick-ly /'kwɪkli/ adv. 1 fast, or done in a short amount of time: Don't eat too quickly. | Firefighters quickly put out the blaze.

THESAURUS fast, swiftly, rapidly, speedily, at high speed/at great speed, at a rapid rate → FAST²

2 after a very short time: I quickly realized it wasn't going to be easy. 3 for a short amount of time: I'll just run into the store quickly, and then we can go.

quick-sand /'kwɪksænd/ n. [C,U] wet sand that is dangerous because it pulls you down into it if you walk on it quick-'witted adj. able to understand things quickly and say things that are funny and smart quid pro quo /'kwɪd prou 'kwou/ n. [C] (formal) something that you give or do in exchange for something else, especially when this arrangement is not official qui-et¹ /'kwɪət/ adj. 1 not making much noise: Be quiet! I'm on the phone. | a quiet car | The classroom suddenly became quiet.

THESAURUS

Words used to describe a quiet voice or sound low – a low voice or sound is quiet and deep: A low humming noise was coming from the refrigerator.

soft – quiet in a way that is pleasant: He spoke with a soft southern accent.

muffled – a muffled sound is very difficult to hear: the muffled sound of voices in the next room hushed – if people speak in hushed tones, they speak with quiet voices, especially so that other people cannot hear them: They huddled together in a corner, speaking in hushed tones.

inaudible – too quiet to be heard: We were so far away from the stage that the actors were inaudible. → LOUD¹

2 not busy, or not full of people or activity: a quiet neighborhood | Finally, the house was quiet. | Business has been really quiet recently.

THESAURUS

Words to describe a quiet place calm – quiet and without activity or trouble: The streets remained calm again after last week's riots.

tranquil/peaceful – quiet in a way that is pleasant and relaxing: a tranquil spot for a picnic sleepy – quiet with very little happening: a sleepy little town still – quiet and calm, without any movement: The forest was completely still. → CALM²

Q

3 not speaking, or not likely to say much: a quiet, hard-working boy | Why are you so quiet tonight? → keep (sth) quiet at KEEP¹ quiet² also quiet down v. [I,T] to become calmer and less active or noisy, or to make someone do this: Quiet down and get ready for bed!

quiet³ n. [U] the state of being quiet and not active: I was looking for some peace and quiet.

qui-et-ly /'kwærətlɪ/ adv. 1 without making much or any noise: Ron shut the door quietly. | "I'm sorry," he said quietly. 2 in a way that does not attract attention: The council has been quietly preparing for the changes.

quill /kwɪl/ n. [C] 1 a large feather, or a pen made from a large feather, used in past times 2 one of the sharp needles on the backs of some animals, such as the PORCUPINE quilt /kwɪlt/ n. [C] a warm thick cover for a bed, made by sewing two layers of cloth together with a filling of cloth or feathers: a patchwork quilt [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French cuilte, from Latin culcita "mattress"] quilt-ed /'kwɪltɪd/ adj. quilted cloth consists of layers held together by lines of stitches that cross each other quint-es-sen-tial /,kwɪntə'senʃəl/ adj. being a perfect example of a particular type of person or thing: New York is the quintessential big city. —quintessentially adv. —quintessence /kwɪn'tesəns/ n. [U] quin-tet /kwɪn'tet/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS five singers or musicians who perform together

quin-tu-plet /kwɪn'tʌplɪt, -'tu-/ n. [C] one of five babies who are born at the same time to the same mother quip /kwɪp/ v. (quipped, quipping) [I] to make an amusing remark —quip n. [C] → JOKE¹ quirk /kwɜ:k/ n. [C] 1 a strange habit or feature that someone or something has: a quirk in the law 2 something strange that happens by chance:

Years later, by a strange quirk of fate, she met him again on a plane.

quirk-y /'kwɜ:ki/ adj. slightly strange or unusual: a quirky comedy

quit /kwɪt/ v. (quit, quitting) 1 [I,T] (informal) to leave a job, school, etc., usually without finishing it, especially because you are annoyed or unhappy: He quit school when he was 16. | Betty quit her job to stay home with the children.

THESAURUS

give up – to stop doing something, or stop trying to do something: She gave up her job to care for her ailing parents.

resign – to officially leave your job or position: Three board members have resigned.

retire – to leave your job, especially because you have reached the age when most people stop working: My father retired when he was 62.

give notice – to officially tell your employer that you will be leaving your job soon: She left without giving notice.

drop out – to stop going to school or stop an activity before you have finished it: Tucker dropped out of high school when he was 16.

withdraw – to stop taking part in a competition, race, etc., or to leave an organization or class: He decided to withdraw from the senate race.

2 [T] (informal) to stop doing something that is bad: I quit smoking three years ago.

quite /kwɑ:t/ adv., quantifier 1 very, but not extremely (SYN pretty): He's quite fat. | It became quite clear that we needed help.

THESAURUS

rather, fairly, pretty, kind of

→ RATHER

2 not quite not completely or not exactly: I'm not quite ready. | It wasn't quite the way he had imagined it. | Lewis isn't quite as fast as he used to be. 3 used when an amount or number is large, but not extremely large: They've had quite a bit of snow this year (=a lot of snow). | There were quite a few people at the party (=a lot of people). | We saved quite a lot of money. | We haven't seen each other in quite a while (=a long time). 4 used in order to emphasize the fact that something is unusually good, bad, etc.: That's quite a coat; where did you buy it? | Ruby made quite an impression on the kids.

quits /kwɪts/ adj. (informal) call it quits to stop doing something: Baird will call it quits after two terms as mayor.

quit-ter /'kwɪtə/ n. [C] (informal, disapproving) someone who stops doing a job, activity, or duty because it becomes difficult quiv-er¹ /'kwɪvə/ v. [I] to shake slightly because you are angry, upset, or anxious: Diana's voice quivered with emotion.

THESAURUS

shake, tremble, shiver, wobble → SHAKE¹

quiver² n. [C] 1 a slight shaking movement 2 a long case used for carrying ARROWS quix-ot-ic /kwɪk'sɒtɪk/ adj. (formal) having ideas and plans that are based on hopes and are not practical [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Don Quixote, main character of the book Don Quixote de la Mancha (1605) by Spanish writer Cervantes]

quiz¹ /kwɪz/ n. (plural quizzes) [C] 1 a short test: a math quiz | Mr. Wilson gave us a pop quiz (=an unexpected test). 2 a competition or game in which you have to answer questions: a love quiz in a magazine quiz² v. (quizzed, quizzing) [T] to ask someone a lot of questions: Webster quizzed 20 possible jurors.

quiz-zi-cal /'kwɪzɪkəl/ adj. a quizzical look/smile/expression a look, etc. that shows you have a question quo-rum /'kwɒrəm/ n. [C usually singular] the smallest number of people that must be at a meeting in order for official decisions to be made quo-ta /'kwɒtə/ n. [C] 1 an official limit on the number or amount of something that is allowed in a particular period: a quota on the amount of fish you may catch 2 an amount of something that someone is expected to do or achieve: The department is meeting its sales quota. 3 POLITICS the number of jobs or PROMOTIONS (=moves to a more important job or rank) that a law or rule says an organization must give to people from groups who have been treated unfairly in the past because of their race or sex [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Medieval Latin quota pars “how large a part”] quo-ta-tion /kwɒ'teɪʃən/ [Ac] n. 1 [C] words from a book, poem, etc. that you repeat in your own speech or piece of writing: a Biblical quotation | When writing a literary essay, always include quotations from the text. 2 [C] a written statement of the exact amount of money that a service will cost → ESTIMATE: Get quotations from two or more insurance companies. 3 [U] the act of quoting something quo-tation mark n. [C usually plural] ENG. LANG. ARTS a mark (“ or ”) used in writing before and after any words that are being quoted quote¹ /kwɒt/ [Ac] v. 1 [I,T] to repeat exactly what someone else has said or written: A doctor was quoted as saying he would not give the vaccine to his children. | He quoted a verse from the Bible. 2 [T] to give something as an example to support what you are saying: Dr. Morse quoted three successful cases in which patients used the new drug. | He quoted a figure of 220 deaths each year from accidents in the home. 3 [T] to tell a customer the price you will charge him/her for a service or product: The airline has been quoting a standard fare of $358. 4 quote ... unquote (spoken) used when you are repeating the exact words someone else used: He said it was the fault of quote “those people” unquote. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Medieval Latin quotare, from Latin quot “how many”]

quote² [Ac] n. [C] (informal) a quotation: He used a quote from Mark Twain at the beginning of his essay.

quo-tid-i-an /kwɒ'tɪdɪən/ adj. (formal) daily or ordinary: our quotidian responsibilities of work and family quo-tient /'kwɒʃənt/ n. [C] MATH a number that is the result of one number being divided by another

Rr

R, r the eighteenth letter of the English alphabet

R /ɑr/ n. [C,U] restricted – used in order to show that no one under the age of 17 can go to a particular movie unless an adult goes with him/her rab-bi /'ræbaɪ/ n. [C] (plural rabbis) a Jewish religious leader [ORIGIN: 1000–1100 Late Latin, Greek, from Hebrew, “my master”] rab-bit /'ræbɪt/ n. [C] a small animal with long ears and soft fur that lives in a hole in the ground → *see picture at PET*¹ rab-ble /'ræbəl/ n. [singular] a noisy crowd of people who are likely to cause trouble rab-id /'ræbɪd/ adj. 1 very extreme and often unreasonable: rabid anti-Americanism 2 suffering from RABIES: a rabid dog ra-bies /'reɪbɪz/ n. [U] a disease that affects animals, that people can catch if they are bitten by an infected animal rac-coon /ræ'kʊn/ n. [C] an animal with black fur around its eyes and black and white bands on its tail → see picture at NOCTURNAL

race¹ /reɪs/ n. 1 [C] a competition to find out who can run, drive, swim, etc. the fastest: The colt has won nine races already. | She finished second in the race. 2 [C,U] one of the groups that humans can be divided into, based on their skin color and other physical features: The census has questions about race and ethnicity.

THESAURUS

nation – a country and its social and political structure, or a group of people with the same history and language: The leaders of several Western nations are meeting in Paris this week. | the Mandan tribe of the Sioux nation race – one of the groups that people are divided into, based on skin color and other physical features: The survey was given to people of different races and ages.

people – a race or group of people that live in a particular country. The plural of this meaning of “people” is “peoples”: the native peoples of the United States tribe – a group of people within a country who are the same race, and who have the same traditions and the same leader: The Navajo tribe is the second largest in the U.S.

ethnic group – a group of people of the same race, nation, or tribe: Many different ethnic groups call the city home.

R

3 [C] a competition for power, a prize, or a political position: the presidential race 4 [C] a situation in which one group tries to obtain or achieve something before another group does: the race to put a man on the moon 5 a race against time a situation in which something difficult must be done before a particular time 6 the races an event at which horses are raced against each other → ARMS RACE, HUMAN RACE

race² v. 1 [I,T] to compete in a race: I'll race you to the corner! | She'll be racing against some of the world's top athletes. 2 [I,T] to go very quickly, or to make someone or something do this: I raced home after school. | Victims were raced to the hospital.

THESAURUS run, sprint, dash, tear → RUN¹
rush, dash, hurry, charge, speed, hasten → RUSH¹

3 [I] to try to do something very quickly, especially because there is little time or you want to be the first: Doctors raced to solve this medical mystery. 4 [I] if your heart or mind races, it is working harder and faster than usual: Her mind was racing – would David be there? 5 [I,T] if an engine races, or you race it, its parts are moving too fast

'race relations n. [plural] the relationship between two groups of people who are from different races but who live in the same city, country, or area race-track /'reɪs-træk/ n. [C] a track around which runners, cars, horses, etc. race rac-ial /'reɪʃəl/ adj. 1 relating to the relationships between different races of people: a fight against racial discrimination (=unfair treatment of people because of their race) 2 relating to people's race: racial groups —racially adv.: a racially motivated attack rac-ing /'reɪsɪŋ/ n. horse/car/bicycle etc. racing the sport of racing horses, cars, etc.

rac-ism /'reɪsɪzəm/ n. [U] 1 unfair treatment of people, or violence against them, because they belong to a different race from yours: the struggle against racism and poverty

THESAURUS prejudice, discrimination, intolerance, bigotry, sexism, homophobia, anti-semitism → PREJUDICE¹

2 the belief that some races of people are better than others rac-ist /'reɪsɪst/ n. [C] someone who believes that people of his/her own race are better than others, and treats people of other races unfairly: He is accused of making racist remarks. —racist n. [C] → PREJUDICE¹ rack¹ /ræk/ n. [C] a frame or shelf for holding things, usually with BARS or hooks: a coat rack rack² v. [T] 1 rack your brain(s) to think very hard or for a long time 2 to make someone feel great physical or mental pain: Afterwards, he was racked with guilt and shame.

rack sth ↔ up phr. v. (informal) to make the value, amount, or level of something increase: They racked up a nine-game winning streak.

rack-et /'rækɪt/ n. 1 [singular] (informal) a loud noise: Laura was making a terrible racket in the kitchen. 2 [C] a thing used for hitting the ball in games such as tennis, consisting of a light stick with a circle filled with tight strings at the top 3 [C] (informal) a dishonest way of obtaining money – sometimes used about an ordinary business to show that you think it is somehow unfair: the insurance racket [ORIGIN: (2) 1500–1600 French raquette, from Italian racchetta, from Arabic rahaḥ “front of the hand”] rack-et-ball /'rækɪtˌbɔːl/ n. [U] an indoor game in which two players use rackets to hit a small rubber ball against the four walls of a square court rack-et-eer-ing /,rækə'tɪrɪŋ/ n. [U] LAW a crime that consists of getting money dishonestly, using a carefully planned system —racketeer n. [C] rac-y /'reɪsi/ adj. exciting in a sexual way ra-dar /'reɪdər/ n. [C,U] a piece of equipment that uses radio waves to find the position of things and watch their movement, or the process of doing this: The missile didn't show up on radar.

ra-di-al tire /,reɪdiəl 'taɪə/ also radial n. [C] a car tire with wires inside the rubber to make it stronger and safer ra-di-ance /'reɪdiəns/ n. [U] 1 soft shining light: the moon's radiance 2 great happiness or love that shows in the way someone looks: the radiance of youth ra-di-ant /'reɪdiənt/ adj. 1 full of happiness and love, in a way that shows in your face: a radiant smile 2 PHYSICS sending out light or heat —radiantly adv.

ra-di-ate /'reɪdi,eɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] if someone radiates a feeling or quality, or if it radiates from him/her, s/he shows it in a way that is easy to see:

Janine radiates confidence. 2 [I,T] if something radiates light or heat, or if light or heat radiates, it is sent out in all directions: The fireplace radiated a comforting warmth. 3 [I] to spread out from a central point: The pain radiated down his leg.

ra-di-a-tion /ˈreɪdiˈeɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 energy in the form of heat or light sent out as waves that you cannot see → RADIOACTIVE: cancer treated with radiation 2 a form of energy that comes from NUCLEAR reactions, which in large amounts is harmful to living things → RADIOACTIVE: radiation exposure ra-di-a-tor /ˈreɪdi,etə/ n. [C] 1 the part of a car or airplane that stops the engine from getting too hot 2 a piece of equipment used for heating a room, consisting of a hollow metal container fastened to a wall, through which hot water passes ra-di-cal¹ /ˈrædɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 thorough and complete, so that something is very different: radical changes in family life | These proposals may sound radical, but we need to do far more to decrease pollution. 2 relating to a political or social idea that is very different from what exists now, or supporting these ideas: Radical demonstrators clashed with riot police. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Late Latin radicalis, from Latin radix “root”] —radically adv.: a radically different idea radical² n. [C] someone who wants thorough and complete social and political change —radicalism n. [U] radical e'quation n. [C] MATH an EQUATION containing one or more radical expressions radical ex'pression n. [C] MATH a set of numbers or letters that have a radical sign (√) before them in an EQUATION radical sign n. [C] MATH a mathematical sign (√) that appears before a number or letter, showing that you must find its SQUARE ROOT. If there is a small number before the sign, for example ³√, you must find that particular ROOT, in this case the CUBE ROOT.

ra-di-cand /ˈrædɪ,kænd/ n. [C] MATH the number or letter that appears after a radical sign, for example 3 in ³√ ra-di-i /ˈreɪdiə/ n. the plural of RADIUS

ra-di-o¹ /ˈreɪdi,ou/ n. (plural radios) 1 [C,U] a piece of electronic equipment that you use to listen to music or programs that are broadcast, or the programs themselves: the latest hits on the radio | Kelly was listening to the radio. | J.D. turned on the radio. 2 [U] the activity of making and broadcasting programs that can be heard on a radio: He'd like a job in radio. | a San Diego radio station 3 [C,U] a piece of electronic equipment that can send and receive spoken messages, or the sending or receiving of these messages: We've lost radio contact.

radio² v. (radioed, radios, radioing) [I,T] to send a message using a radio: The ship radioed for help.

ra-di-o-ac-tive /ˈreɪdiouˈæktɪv/ adj. 1 PHYSICS containing or producing RADIATION: Plutonium is highly radioactive. | radioactive waste 2 PHYSICS relating to or caused by RADIATION: radioactive decay ra-di-o-ac-tiv-i-ty /ˈreɪdiouˈæktɪvəti/ n. [U] PHYSICS the sending out of RADIATION, when the NUCLEUS (=central part) of an atom has broken apart ra-di-og-ra-phy /ˈreɪdiˈɒgrəfi/ n. [U] SCIENCE the process of taking X-RAY photographs of the inside of someone's body for medical purposes ra-di-o-i-so-tope /ˈreɪdiouˈaɪsə,toup/ n. [C] PHYSICS an ISOTOPE (=one of the different possible forms of a RADIOACTIVE atom) ra-di-ol-o-gist /ˈreɪdiˈɒlədʒɪst/ n. [C] a hospital doctor who is trained in the use of RADIATION to find out what is causing an illness and to treat people ra-di-ol-o-gy /ˈreɪdiˈɒlədʒi/ n. [U] the study of the use of RADIATION and X-RAYS in medical treatment radio 'telescope n. [C] PHYSICS a piece of equipment that receives RADIO WAVES coming from space, which scientists use to find the exact position of stars and other objects in space ra-di-o-ther-a-py /ˈreɪdiouˈθerəpi/ n. [U] the treatment of illnesses using RADIATION

R

rad-ish /ˈrædɪʃ/ n. [C] a small red or white root that has a slightly hot taste and is eaten raw as a vegetable ra-di-um /ˈreɪdiəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Ra) a RADIOACTIVE white metal that is an ELEMENT, used in the treatment of diseases such as CANCER

ra-di-us /ˈreɪdiəs/ n. (plural radii /ˈreɪdiə/)
[C] 1 MATH the distance from the center to the edge of a circle, or a line drawn from the center to the edge → see picture at CIRCLE¹ 2 within a 10-mile/100-meter etc. radius within a distance of 10 miles, etc. in all directions from a particular place: The bomb caused damage within a half-mile radius.

ra-don /ˈreɪdɒn/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Rn) a RADIOACTIVE gas that is an ELEMENT

raf-fle¹ /ˈræfəl/ n. [C] a type of competition or game in which people buy tickets with numbers on them in order to try to win prizes raffle² also raffie off v. [T] to offer something as a prize in a raffle raft /ræft/ n. [C] 1 a small flat rubber boat filled with air: He helped her onto the life raft (=used when a boat sinks). 2 a flat floating structure, usually made of pieces of wood tied together, used as a boat 3 a raft of sth a large number of things or a large amount of something: A whole raft of popular players will attend.

raf-ter /ˈræftə/ n. [C] one of the large sloping pieces of wood that form the structure of a roof raft-ing /'ræftɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of traveling down a fast-flowing river in a rubber raft rag¹ /ræg/ n. [C] 1 a small piece of old cloth: a dirty rag 2 in rags wearing old torn clothes 3 from rags to riches becoming very rich after starting your life very poor

rag² v. (ragged, ragging)

rag on sb phr. v. (spoken, informal) 1 to make jokes and laugh at someone in order to embarrass him/her (SYN tease 2 to criticize someone in an angry way: The coach was ragging on me for missing my free throws.)

rag doll n. [C] a soft DOLL made of cloth

R

rage¹ /reɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] a strong feeling of anger that you cannot control: She was shaking with rage. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin rabies “anger, wildness,” from rabere “to be wild with anger”]

rage² v. [I] 1 to continue happening with great force or violence: The rioting raged for four days. | a raging blizzard 2 to feel extremely angry about something, and to show this in the way you behave or speak: Tom raged at himself for having been so stupid.

rag-ged /'ræɡɪd/ also rag-ged-y /'ræɡɪdi/ adj. 1 torn and in bad condition: a ragged shirt 2 not straight or neat, but with rough uneven edges: a ragged beard 3 wearing clothes that are old, torn, and dirty: ragged children 4 not regular or smooth, or not done together: ragged breathing rag-tag /'ræɡtæg/ adj. looking messy and wearing dirty torn clothes: a ragtag army

rag-time /'ræɡtaɪm/ n. [U] a type of JAZZ music with a quick strong beat, popular in the U.S. in the early 1900s raid¹ /reɪd/ n. [C] 1 a short attack on a place by soldiers, airplanes, or ships, intended to cause damage but not to take control: an air raid

THESAURUS attack, invasion, ambush, counterattack → ATTACK¹

2 a sudden visit by the police to search for something illegal: an FBI raid on the apartment

raid² v. [T] 1 if the police raid a place, they enter it suddenly to search for something illegal: Police raided his home and seized his computer. 2 (informal) to take or use something that does not belong to you: Governors have raided education budgets to pay for more prisons. | The kids raided the refrigerator after school (=ate a lot of food from it). 3 to make a sudden attack on a place 4 (informal) to go into a place and steal things —raider n. [C]

rail¹ /reɪl/ n. 1 [C] a bar that is fastened along or around something, especially to keep you from falling, hang something on, etc.: Tourists stood at the rail taking pictures of the falls. | a towel rail 2 [U] a railroad system: The city is promoting light rail (=a railroad that only carries passengers) as an alternative to cars. 3 [C] one of the two long metal tracks attached to the ground, that trains move along rail² v. [I] (formal) to complain angrily about something that you think is unfair: Business leaders have been railing against the proposed tax increases.

rail-ing /'reɪlɪŋ/ n. [C] also railings [plural] a short fence consisting of upright bars or lengths of wood or metal supported by upright posts, which keeps people from falling over an edge, supports them going up stairs, etc.: the porch railing rail-road¹ /'reɪlroʊd/ n. 1 [U] a method of traveling or moving things around using trains, and things relating to this: Livestock is shipped by railroad. | a railroad station 2 [C] the tracks and ground that a train travels on 3 [C] a company that owns trains and tracks: the Southern Pacific railroad 4 the railroad the system of trains, and all the companies, work, equipment, etc. relating to it: My grandfather worked on/for the railroad all his life.

railroad² v. [T] to force or persuade someone to do something without giving him/her enough time to think about it: The workers were railroaded into signing the agreement.

rain¹ /reɪn/ n. 1 [U] water that falls in small drops from clouds in the sky: I hate going out in the rain. | He walked through the pouring/driving/heavy rain (=a lot of rain). | A light rain (=a small amount of rain) fell on the crowd. → see picture at WATER CYCLE

THESAURUS

drizzle – light rain with very small drops of water: a steady drizzle shower – a short period of rain: a light shower downpour – a lot of rain that falls in a short period of time: a heavy downpour storm – very bad weather with a lot of wind and rain: violent storms | a tropical storm hail – frozen rain that falls in the form of hailstones (=small balls of ice): A hail storm flattened crops.
sleet – a mixture of snow and rain: sleet and snow showers

2 the rains a time in the year when there is a lot of rain in tropical countries (SYN monsoon [ORIGIN: Old English regn])

rain² v. [I] if it rains, drops of water fall from clouds in the sky: Is it still raining? | It suddenly started raining hard (=raining a lot).

THESAURUS

It's pouring (rain) – it's raining very heavily It's drizzling – a small amount of rain is falling It's sprinkling – it is raining lightly

It's sleeting – it's raining and snowing at the same time

It's hailing – small balls of ice are falling rain down (sth) phr. v. if something rains down or is rained down, it falls in large quantities: Bombs rained down on the city.
→ WEATHER¹

rain sth ↔ out phr. v. if an event is rained out, it has to stop because there is too much rain rain-bow /'reɪnbəʊ/ n. [C] a large curve of different colors that can appear in the sky when there is both Sun and rain

'rain check n. [C] 1 take a rain check (spoken) used in order to say that you would like to accept an invitation or offer later, but you cannot right now: I'm sorry, but I'm busy on Saturday – can I take a rain check? 2 a piece of paper that allows you to buy something at a special price, given to people when the thing they want to buy is not available 3 a ticket for an outdoor event, game, etc. that you can use again if the event has to stop because of rain rain-coat /'reɪnkəʊt/ n. [C] a coat that you wear to protect yourself from the rain rain-drop /'reɪndrɒp/ n. [C] a single drop of rain rain-fall /'reɪnfɔːl/ n. [C,U] the amount of rain that falls on an area in a particular time: six inches of annual rainfall

'rain forest n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES an area of thick forest with tall trees that are very close together, growing in a place where it rains a lot rain-storm /'reɪnstɔːrm/ n. [C] a storm with a lot of rain and strong winds rain-water /'reɪn,wɔːtə-, -wɑː-/ n. [U] water that has fallen as rain rain-y /'reɪni/ adj. 1 having a lot of rain: a rainy weekend 2 rainy day a difficult time when you will need money that you do not need now: We have a little extra money saved for a rainy day.

raise¹ /reɪz/ v. [T]

1 MOVE to move or lift something to a higher position or to an upright position (ANT lower): The flag is raised at school every morning. | Raise your hand if you know the answer.

2 INCREASE to increase an amount, number, or level (ANT lower): a plan to raise taxes | She hopes the story will raise awareness of mental illness

(=increase people's understanding of it). | In my family, no one ever raised their voices (=spoke loudly and angrily).

3 IMPROVE to improve the quality or standard of something (ANT lower): Public schools have been trying hard to raise standards.

4 CHILDREN to take care of your children until they are adults: Michelle is a single parent raising her children alone.

5 GET MONEY/SUPPORT to collect money, support, etc. so that you can use it to help people: The dinner is being held to raise money for cancer research.

6 FARMING to grow plants or keep animals, especially to sell: The chickens are raised in cages.

7 CAUSE A REACTION to cause a particular emotion or reaction: The accident has raised concerns about safety.

8 START A SUBJECT to begin to talk or write about something that you want someone to consider (SYN bring up): The article raises questions about the fairness of the trial.

THESAURUS mention, allude to sth, bring sth up, cite → MENTION¹

9 raise your eyebrows to show surprise, a question, doubt, disapproval, etc. by moving your EYEBROWS upward

10 raise eyebrows if something raises eyebrows, it surprises and shocks people: The police chief's actions have raised eyebrows.

raise² n. [C] an increase in the money you earn: a raise of $100 a month rai-sin /'reɪzən/ n. [C] a dried GRAPE [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French "grape," from Latin racemus "bunch of grapes"]

rake¹ /reɪk/ n. [C] a tool used for removing dead leaves from areas of grass or making soil level rake² v. 1 [I,T] also rake up to move a rake across a surface in order to remove dead leaves from an area of grass or make the soil level 2 [T]

R

to move something such as a gun or a light across an area: Soldiers raked the building with gunfire. 3 rake your fingers/nails to pull your fingers or nails through something or across a surface: She raked his face with her nails. 4 rake sb over the coals to speak angrily to someone who has done something wrong rake sth ↔ in phr. v. (informal) to earn a lot of money without trying very hard: One lawyer raked in $3.5 million on a case.

rally¹ /'ræli/ n. (plural rallies) [C] 1 a large public meeting to support a political idea, sports event, etc.: a campaign rally 2 an occasion when something becomes stronger or better again, after a period of weakness or defeat: The Cubs scored three runs in a late rally.

rally² v. (rallied, rallies) 1 [I,T] to come together or bring people together to support an idea, a political party, etc.: Women's groups rallied to her defense. 2 [I] to become stronger or better again after a time of weakness or defeat: The Miami Heat rallied to beat the Chicago Bulls.

rally around (sb/sth) phr. v. if a group of people rally around, they all try to help you in a difficult situation: Her friends all rallied around when her father died.

RAM /ræm/ n. [U] random access memory IT the part of a computer that keeps information for a short time so that it can be used immediately → ROM

ram¹ /ræm/ v. (rammed, ramming) 1 [I,T] to run or drive into something, or to push something using a lot of force: A truck rammed into a line of cars. | We had to turn hard to starboard to avoid ramming the ship. 2 ram sth down sb's throat to try to make someone accept an idea or opinion by repeating it again and again ram sth ↔ through phr. v. to try to make someone accept something, without giving him/her time to consider it carefully: Democrats were trying to ram the bill through Congress.

ram² n. [C] a fully grown male sheep

Ram-a-dan /'ræmə,dæn/ n. the ninth month of the Muslim year, during which no food may be eaten during the hours of the day when it is light ram-ble¹ /'ræmbəl/ v. [I] 1 to talk in a way that is not clearly organized, and move from one subject to another in a confusing way: His speeches tend to ramble. 2 to go on a walk for pleasure ramble on phr. v. to talk or write for a long time in a way that other people think is boring: Sara rambled on about her trip.

ramble² n. [C] a long walk for pleasure ram-bling /'ræmbliŋ/ adj. 1 speech or writing that is rambling is very long and does not seem to have any clear organization or purpose: a long rambling letter 2 a building that is rambling has an irregular shape and covers a large area: a rambling old house ram-bunc-tious /ræm'bʌŋkʃəs/ adj. noisy, full of energy, and behaving in a way that cannot be controlled: a rambunctious kid

ram-i-fi-ca-tion /ræməfə'keɪʃən/ n. [C usually plural] (formal) a result of something you do, that affects things in a way that you may not have expected: What are the ramifications of oil prices rising so quickly?

ramp /ræmp/ n. [C] 1 a road for driving onto or off a large main road → OFF-RAMP, ON-RAMP 2 a slope that has been built to connect two places that are at different levels: ramps for wheelchair users

ram-page /'ræmpɛɪdʒ, ræm'peɪdʒ/ v. [I] to behave wildly or violently, especially in groups: Rioters rampaged through the city, destroying property. —rampage n. [C]: a gunman on a bloody rampage ramp-ant /'ræmpənt/ adj. spread across or affecting a large area, and difficult to control: rampant inflation —rampantly adv.

ram-rod /'ræmrɒd/ n. ramrod stiff/straight sitting or standing with your back straight and your body stiff ram-shack-le /'ræm,ʃækəl/ adj. badly built and needing to be repaired: a ramshackle farm house ran /ræn/ v. the past tense of RUN ranch /ræntʃ/ n. [C] a very large farm where cattle, horses, or sheep are raised [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Mexican Spanish rancho, from Spanish, “camp, small building, small farm”] ranch-er /'ræntʃə/ n. [C] someone who owns or works on a ranch: a cattle rancher —ranch v. [I] —ranching n. [U]

'ranch house n. [C] a type of house built on one level, with a roof that does not slope much ran-cho /'ræntʃoʊ/ n. [C] a) a ranch in the SOUTHWEST U.S. b) a simple building or group of buildings where the workers on a ranch sleep and eat ran-cid /'rænsɪd/ adj. food such as milk, butter, or meat that is rancid smells or tastes unpleasant because it is no longer fresh: rancid butter ran-cor /'ræŋkə/ n. [U] (formal) a feeling of hatred, especially when you cannot forgive someone (SYN) resentment: Political rancor has marked this election campaign. —rancorous /'ræŋkərəs/ adj.

R & B n. [U] rhythm and blues a type of popular music that is a mixture of BLUES and JAZZ

R & D n. [U] research and development the part of a business concerned with studying new ideas and planning new products ran-dom /'rændəm/ (AC) adj. 1 happening or chosen without any definite plan, aim, or pattern: a random sample of 635 patients 2 at random in a completely unplanned way: The winning numbers will be chosen at random. —randomly adv.: The lottery numbers are randomly chosen.

,random 'access ,memory n. [U] IT RAM

random 'variable n. [C] MATH a VARIABLE (=mathematical quantity that is not fixed and can be any of several amounts) whose value cannot be known certainly, but can be described using a mathematical calculation

R & R n. [U] rest and relaxation a vacation given to people in the army, navy, etc. after a long time of hard work or during a war rang /ræŋ/ v. the past tense of RING

range¹ /reɪndʒ/ (Ac) n.

1 GROUP [C] a number of people or things that are different, but belong to the same general type: students with a range of interests | books on a wide/broad range of subjects | The drug is effective against a range of bacteria.

2 NUMBER LIMITS [C] the limits within which amounts, levels, ages, etc. can be different from each other: games for the 8–12 age range | The house is beyond/out of our price range (=more than our limit). | Music has a wider frequency range than speech.

3 PRODUCTS [C] a set of similar products made by a particular company or available in a particular store: a new range of mountain bikes

4 DISTANCE a) [singular,U] the distance within which something can be seen or heard: Luckily, we were not within range when they began firing. | I was out of her range of vision. | A typical radio signal has a range of about 100 miles. b) [singular,U] the distance at which a weapon can hit something: short-range ballistic missiles c) [C] the distance a vehicle such as an aircraft can travel before it needs more FUEL: The plane has a range of more than 3,000 miles.

5 LIMITS TO POWER/ACTIVITY [C] the limits to the amount of power or RESPONSIBILITY that a person or organization has, or the types of activity they are allowed to do: The issue falls outside the range of the investigation.

6 MOUNTAINS [C] EARTH SCIENCES a line of mountains or hills: the Cascade Range → see picture on page A11

7 LAND [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES a large area of land covered with grass, used by cattle

8 FOR PRACTICE [C] an area of land where you can practice using weapons: a rifle range

9 COOKING [C] a STOVE

10 DATA [C] also range of a set of data MATH a measure of the difference between the largest and smallest quantities in a set of DATA (=information or facts)

11 RELATED VALUES [C] MATH all the different possible values that can be produced by a mathematical FUNCTION → DOMAIN

range² v. [I] 1 to include the two things mentioned and other things in between them: The men are serving prison sentences ranging from 10 to twenty years. | toys ranging in price from $5 to $25 | The population of the city ranges between 3.5 and 4 million. 2 to deal with a large number of subjects: Republicans challenged him on issues ranging from abortion to taxes. 3 if animals range somewhere, they move over a wide area of land rang-er /'reɪndʒə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to watch and take care of a forest or area of public land and the people and animals that use it: a park ranger

rank¹ /ræŋk/ n. [C,U] the position or level that someone has in an organization: an officer of high/low rank | He held the rank of sergeant. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French renc, reng "line, place, row"]

rank² v. 1 [I] to have a particular position in a list of people or things that are put in order of quality or importance: The team is ranked fourth in the city. 2 [T] to decide the position someone or something should have on a list, based on quality or importance: The wines are ranked by quality and price.

rank³ adj. having a very strong and unpleasant smell or taste: rank meat rank and 'file n. the rank and file the ordinary members of an organization rather than the leaders rank-ing¹ /'ræŋkɪŋ/ n. [C] the position or level that someone has on a list of people who have a particular skill: the skater's national ranking ranking² adj. a ranking person has a high position in an organization, or is one of the best at an activity: the ranking officer ran-kle /'ræŋkəl/ v. [I,T] if something rankles, or rankles you, it still annoys you a long time after it happened ran-sack /'rænsæk/ v. [T] 1 to go through a place stealing things and causing damage: The victim's house had been ransacked. 2 to search a place very thoroughly: She ransacked her closet for something to wear.

ran-som /'rænsəm/ n. [C,U] an amount of money paid to free someone who is held as a prisoner: a ransom note | The kidnappers demanded $200,000 in ransom. —ransom v. [T]

rant /rænt/ v. [I] to talk or complain in a loud excited confused way: She ranted about the misleading claims of diet books. —rant n. [C]

rap¹ /ræp/ n. 1 [U] also 'rap music a type of popular music in which the words are not sung, but spoken in time to music with a steady beat 2 [C] a quick light hit or knock: a rap on the door 3 [singular] blame or punishment for a mistake or crime: a murder rap | He got himself a good lawyer to beat the rap (=avoid punishment). | I'd rather drive while he reads the map, so I don't have to take the rap (=be blamed) for getting lost. 4 get a bad/bum rap (informal) to be unfairly criticized, or to be treated badly: Diet food has gotten a bad rap for the way it tastes.

rap² v. (rapped, rapping) 1 [I,T] to hit or knock something quickly and lightly: Henry rapped on the door.

R

THESAURUS

hit, beat, strike, knock, bang, tap → HIT¹

2 [T] to criticize or blame someone: The movie was rapped by critics for its violence. 3 [I] to say the words of a rap song

rape¹ /reɪp/ v. [T] to force someone to have sex, especially by using violence rape² n. 1 [C,U] the crime of forcing someone to have sex, especially by using violence: a rape victim 2 [singular] unnecessary destruction, especially of the environment: the rape of our rain forests rap-id /ˈræpɪd/ adj. done very quickly, or happening in a short time [SYN] fast, quick: rapid population growth [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin rapidus “seizing, sweeping away,” from rapere “to seize”] —rapidly adv.: Technology is rapidly changing. —rapidity /rəˈpɪdɪti/ n. [U]

R

rap-ids /ˈræpɪdz/ n. [plural] part of a river where the water looks white because it is moving very fast over rocks rapid 'transit also rapid 'transit system n. [C] a system of trains, buses, etc. for moving people around a city rap-ist /ˈreɪpɪst/ n. [C] someone who has forced someone else to have sex, especially by using violence rap-per /ˈræpər/ n. [C] someone who speaks the words of a RAP song rap-port /ˈræpər, rə-/ n. [singular U] friendly agreement and understanding between people: She's a very good teacher; who has a rapport with her students.

rap-proche-ment /ˈræprəʊʃˈmən/ n. [singular, U] (formal) the establishment of good relations between two countries or groups of people, after a time of unfriendly relations: the U.S. rapprochement with China in the 1970s rapt /ræpt/ adj. so interested in something that you do not notice anything else: The children listened with rapt attention.

rap-ture /ˈræptʃər/ n. [U] great excitement, pleasure, and happiness: He looked within rapture at her face. —rapturous adj.

rare /rer/ adj. 1 not seen or found very often, or not happening very often [ANT] common: a rare form of cancer | It is rare for her to miss school.

USAGE

Use rare when something is valuable and there is not much of it: a rare coin worth a lot of money
Use scarce when there is not enough of something available at a particular time: During the war, food was scarce.

2 meat that is rare has only been cooked for a short time and is still red [ORIGIN: (1) 1400–1500 Latin rarus] rar-e-fac-tion /ˌrərəˈfækʃən/ n. [U] PHYSICS a process in which the pressure of a gas decreases [ANT] compression rare-ly /ˈrəri/ adv. not often [ANT] frequently: She's rarely home.

THESAURUS

not very often: I go to the movies, but not very often.

hardly ever – almost never: The kids hardly ever call (=telephone) me.

seldom (more formal) – very rarely: We seldom see her nowadays.

infrequently – not happening often: She visited her parents only infrequently. → NEVER, OFTEN, SOMETIMES rar-ing /ˈrəriŋ/ adj. raring to go (informal) very eager to start an activity: We got up early, raring to go.

rar-i-ty /ˈrəri/ n. be a rarity to not happen or exist very often: In 1975, women lawyers were a rarity.

ras-cal /ˈræskəl/ n. [C] (humorous) a child who behaves badly but whom you still like

rash¹ /ræʃ/ adj. done too quickly without thinking carefully first, or behaving in this way: rash promises | a rash young man

THESAURUS

impulsive, hotheaded, impetuous, hasty, spontaneous, precipitate → IMPULSIVE

rash² n. 1 [C] a lot of red spots on someone's skin, caused by an illness or a reaction to food, plants, medicine, etc. 2 a rash of sth (informal) a large number of unpleasant events, changes, etc. within a short time: There's been a rash of injuries on the team.

rasp-ber-ry /ˈræz,beri/ n. (plural raspberries) [C] a soft sweet red BERRY → see picture on page 414

rasp-y /ˈræspi/ adj. making a rough unpleasant sound: his raspy voice —rasp v. [I] —rasp n. [singular]

rat¹ /ræt/ n. [C] 1 an animal that looks like a large mouse with a long tail 2 (informal) someone who has been disloyal to you or has deceived you: That rat Bruce just did it for the money. [ORIGIN: Old English ræt] → RAT RACE

rat² v. (ratted, ratting) [I] (old-fashioned) to tell someone in authority about something wrong that someone has done, in a way that is considered disloyal: I never ratted on Huey.

rate¹ /reɪt/ n. [C] 1 the number of times something happens over a period of time: a country with a low birth/unemployment/crime etc. rate | an area with a low/high rate of crime 2 a charge or payment set according to a standard scale: The Federal Reserve lowered interest rates today. | the hourly rate of pay

THESAURUS cost, expense, price, charge, fee, fare → COST¹

3 the speed at which something happens over a period of time: Children learn at different rates. | Car thefts have increased at an alarming rate. 4 at any rate (spoken) used when you are giving one definite fact in a situation that is not sure or not satisfactory: He's what, 17? At any rate, he's old enough to go on his own. 5 at this rate (spoken) used in order to say what will happen if things continue to happen in the same way: At this rate, we'll never afford a vacation. 6 first-rate/second-rate/third-rate of good, bad, or very bad quality: a third-rate movie

rate² v. 1 [T] to have a particular opinion about the value or worth of someone or something: 38% rated him a weak leader. 2 X-rated/rated R etc. used in order to show that a movie has been officially approved for people of a particular age to see 3 [T] (informal) to deserve something: You all rate a big thank-you for your work.

rather adv., quantifier 1 rather than a phrase meaning instead of, used when you are comparing two things or situations: We usually travel by train, rather than by plane. 2 would rather used when you would prefer to do or have one thing more than another: I hate sitting doing nothing; I'd rather be busy. | Dave would rather have a dog than a cat, but I like cats. | “Why don't you ask her?” “I'd rather not.” 3 (formal) used in order to give more correct or specific information about what you have said: Lucy, or Susie rather, asked me to come tonight. 4 fairly, or to some degree: The photograph is rather blurred.

THESAURUS

fairly: The test was fairly easy. | It's a fairly long way.

pretty (spoken): Her Spanish is pretty good. | It's pretty tough work.

quite (formal): It's quite late. | That's quite an interesting problem.

kind of (informal): It was kind of cold out.

rat-if-i-ca-tion /ˌrætəfəˈkeɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 POLITICS the act of giving official approval to an agreement: Ratification of the treaty led to a reduction in nuclear weapons. 2 POLITICS the act of approving an AMENDMENT to the U.S. CONSTITUTION rat-i-fy /ˌrætəˈfaɪ/ v. (ratified, ratifies) [T] POLITICS to make a written agreement official by signing it: Both nations ratified the treaty.

THESAURUS approve, pass, sanction, endorse → APPROVE

rat-ing /ˈreɪtɪŋ/ n. 1 [C] a level on a scale that shows how popular, good, important, etc. someone or something is: The governor's approval rating is high. 2 [singular] a letter that shows what age someone should be before s/he can see a particular movie, television show, etc.: The movie received an R rating. | There's a rating system for video games. 3 the ratings [plural] a list that shows which movies, television programs, etc. are the most popular: The show finished 20th in the ratings.

ra-ti-o /ˈreɪʃi,ou, ˈreɪʃou/ (Ac) n. (plural ratios) [C] a relationship between two amounts, represented by two numbers that show how much bigger one amount is than the other → PROPORTION: The ratio of boys to girls in the class is 2:1 (=two boys for each girl). | If the ratio of spending to income is too high, you will end up in debt. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin “calculation, reason,” from ratus past participle of reri “to calculate”] ra-tion¹ /ˈræʃən, ˈreɪ-/ n. 1 [C] a limited amount of something such as food or gas that you are allowed to have when there is not much available: a ration of sugar 2 ratios [plural] a particular amount of food given to a soldier or a member of a group ration² v. [T] to control the supply of something by allowing people to have only a limited amount of it: Gas may have to be rationed in the future. —rationing n. [U]

ra-tion-al /ˈræʃənəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 rational thoughts, decisions, etc. are based on reason rather than on emotion (ANT) irrational: a rational decision | Your analysis of the situation must be rational if you are going to make a fair judgment. 2 a rational person is able to think clearly and make good decisions (SYN) sensible (ANT) irrational: Let's try to discuss this like rational human beings. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin rationalis, from ratio “calculation, reason”] —rationally adv.: We were too shocked to think rationally. —rationality /ˌræʃəˈnæləti/ n. [U] ra-tion-ale /ˌræʃəˈnæl/ n. [C,U] (formal) the reasons and principles on which a decision, plan, etc. is based: What is the Pope's rationale for not allowing women to be priests?

THESAURUS reason, explanation, motive, grounds → REASON¹ rational e'quation n. [C] MATH an EQUATION that has a rational expression on at least one side of the equal sign rational ex'pression n. [C] MATH a mathematical statement containing a POLYNOMIAL (=several different numbers and signs which are equal to a specific amount) divided by another polynomial ra-tion-al-ism /ˈræʃənəˌlɪzəm/ n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the belief that your actions should be based on scientific thinking, not on emotions or religious beliefs: scientific rationalism ra-tion-al-ize /ˈræʃənəˌlaɪz/ (Ac) v. [I,T] if you rationalize behavior that is wrong, you think of reasons for it so that it does not seem as bad: We rationalize that junk food is part of childhood, but we're setting our kids up for health problems. —rationalization /ˌræʃənəˌzeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] rational 'number n. [C] MATH a REAL NUMBER (=number that is not the square root of a negative number) which can be written as the exact RATIO of two WHOLE NUMBERS (=1, 2, 3, etc.)

R

'rat race n. the rat race (informal) the unpleasant situation in business, politics, etc. in which people are always competing against each other rat-tle¹ /'rætl/ v. 1 [I, T] if you rattle something, or it rattles, it shakes and makes a short repeated knocking sound: There was something rattling around in the trunk. → SHAKE¹ 2 [T] (informal) to make someone lose his/her confidence and become nervous: She's a good player, but gets rattled easily.

rattle sth ↔ off phr. v. to say something very quickly and easily, especially from memory: He rattled off his phone number.

rattle² n. [C] 1 a baby's toy that makes a noise when it is shaken 2 [usually singular] the noise that you hear when the parts of something knock against each other → see picture on page A7

R rat-tler /'rætlə, 'rætl-ə/ n. [C] (informal) a rattle-snake rat-tle-snake /'rætl, sneɪk/ n. [C] a poisonous American snake that makes a noise with its tail rau-cous /'rɒkəs/ adj. a raucous voice or noise is very loud and unpleasant: a raucous laugh —raucously adv.

THESAURUS loud, noisy, thunderous, deafening, ear-splitting, shrill → LOUD¹

raun-chy /'rɒntʃi, 'rɒn-/ adj. (informal) intended to make you think about sex, in a way that seems shocking: a raunchy movie

rav-age /'rævɪdʒ/ v. [T] to destroy, ruin, or damage something badly [SYN] devastate: a forest ravaged by fire

rav-ag-es /'rævɪdʒɪz/ n. the ravages of sth (literary) damage or destruction caused by something such as war, disease, time, etc.: The country has not recovered from the ravages of war.

rave¹ /reɪv/ v. [I] 1 to talk in an excited way about something because you think it is very good: Customers rave about their chili. 2 to talk in an angry or crazy way: He was ranting and raving about something she'd done. —raving adj., adv.: raving drunk rave² adj. rave reviews strong praise for something such as a new movie, book, etc.: The book has won rave reviews.

rave³ n. [C] 1 an event at which young people dance all night to music with a strong beat 2 strong praise for a new movie, book, etc.

ra-ven /'reɪvən/ n. [C] a large black bird rav-en-ous /'rævənəs/ adj. extremely hungry ra-vine /rə'vaɪn/ n. [C] a deep narrow valley with steep sides

rav-ish-ing /'rævɪʃɪŋ/ adj. (literary) very beautiful — used especially to describe people raw /rɔ/ adj. 1 not cooked: raw onions 2 raw substances are in a natural state and have not been treated or prepared for people to use: The paper company imports its raw materials. 3 skin that is raw is red and sore

THESAURUS painful, tender, sore → PAINFUL

4 not experienced or not fully trained: raw recruits in the army (=people who have just joined the army) 5 not organized, examined, or developed: raw data | This idea was the raw material (=an idea that is not developed) for his new play. 6 a raw emotion or quality is strong, natural, and easy to notice: raw courage 7 a raw deal unfair treatment: She deserved a raise – I think she's getting a raw deal.

ray /reɪ/ n. [C] 1 a narrow beam of light from the Sun, a lamp, etc.: the rays of the Sun 2 ray of hope/comfort etc. something that provides a small amount of hope, comfort, etc.

ray-on /'reɪən/ n. [U] a smooth artificial material like silk, used for making clothes raze /reɪz/ v. [T] to destroy a city, building, etc. completely: The old theater had been razed.

ra-zor /'reɪzə/ n. [C] a sharp instrument for removing hair from the body: an electric razor

'razor blade n. [C] a small flat blade with a very sharp cutting edge, used in some razors

'razor-'sharp adj. 1 very sharp 2 showing intelligence and the ability to think quickly: a razor-sharp sense of humor

Rd. the written abbreviation of ROAD

RDA n. [singular] recommended daily allowance the amount of substances such as VITAMINS that you should have every day

-'re /ə/ v. the short form of "are": We're (=we are) ready to go.

re /ri/ prep. used in business letters to introduce the main subject: Re your letter of June 10...

THESAURUS about, on, concerning, regarding, with regard to → ABOUT¹

reach¹ /ritʃ/ v. 1 [I, T] to move your hand or arm in order to touch, hold, or pick up something: David reached for the butter. | He reached out and took her hand. | Jean can't reach the cans on the top shelf. 2 [T] to increase, decrease, or develop to a particular level, standard, or situation over time: The temperature will reach 95° today. | John had reached the point (=reached a situation) in his life at which he knew he had to make some changes. 3 reach a decision/agreement/verdict etc. to succeed in deciding something, agreeing on something, etc. 4 [T] to speak to someone, especially by telephone: Hughes could not be reached for comment. 5 [T] to arrive at a particular place: Peary's first attempt to reach the North Pole was in 1898.

THESAURUS arrive, get to → ARRIVE

6 [I,T] to be big enough, long enough, etc. to get to a particular level or point: Will the ladder reach the roof?

THESAURUS

go: The water went up almost to the top of the dam. | The road only goes as far as the farmhouse.

come: Alex is taller; he comes up to Pat's shoulder now.

7 [T] if a message, television program, etc. reaches a lot of people, they hear or see it: The TV program reaches millions of homes. [ORIGIN: Old English reccan]

reach² n. 1 [singular, U] the distance that you can stretch out your arm to touch something: The boat floated away, out of reach. | He breaks everything within reach. 2 within reach (of sth) a) within a distance that you can easily travel: We live within easy reach of the city. b) also in reach able to be achieved or gotten with the skills, power, money, etc. that you have: An agreement is within reach. 3 beyond the reach/out of reach difficult to achieve or get because you do not have enough skill, power, or money: A permanent solution is still out of reach.

re-act /ri'ækt/ (Ac) v. [I] 1 to behave in a particular way because of what someone has done or said to you → OVERREACT: How did she react to the news? | The audience reacted by shouting and booing. 2 to become ill when a chemical or drug goes into your body, or when you eat a particular food: Health workers sometimes react to the latex in gloves. 3 CHEMISTRY if a chemical substance reacts, it changes when mixed with another substance: The calcium reacts with sulfur in the atmosphere. 4 if a machine or a piece of equipment reacts, it performs a particular action because of what is happening in or around it: The thermometer is very accurate, reacting to very small temperature differences.

react against sth phr. v. to show that you do not like or agree with something by deliberately doing the opposite: He reacted against his religious upbringing. | Feminists reacted against the limitations of women's traditional roles.

re-ac-tant /ri'æktənt/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical substance which combines with another substance to form a chemical compound

re-ac-tion /ri'ækʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] something that you feel or do because of something that has happened or been said: The public reaction to the decision was furious. | My first/initial/immediate reaction to the book was quite negative. | An emergency fund was set up in reaction to the famine. 2 [C] if you have a reaction to a drug or to something you have eaten, it makes you sick: an allergic reaction to seafood | Less than 1% of patients experience a reaction. 3 reactions [plural] your ability to move quickly when something dangerous happens: an athlete with quick reactions 4 [singular] a change in someone's attitudes, behavior, etc. that happens because s/he disapproves of the way things were done in the past: The attitudes of my generation are a reaction against the selfish values of the 1980s. 5 [C,U] CHEMISTRY a change that happens when two or more chemical substances are mixed together: A chemical reaction takes place in the soil. → gut reaction/feeling etc. at GUT¹ re-ac-tion-ar-y /ri'ækʃənəri/ (Ac) adj. (disapproving) strongly opposed to social or political change —reactionary n. [C]: Reactionaries protested against giving civil rights to all citizens.

re-ac-ti-vate /ri'æktə'veɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] to make something start working again: The California legislature reactivated the death penalty in 1977.

re-ac-tive /ri'æktɪv/ (Ac) adj. 1 reacting to events or situations rather than starting or doing new things yourself: Many businesses follow a reactive strategy rather than creating new products. 2 CHEMISTRY a reactive substance changes when it is mixed with another substance: Oxygen is a highly reactive gas.

re-ac-tor /ri'æktə/ (Ac) n. [C] a NUCLEAR REACTOR

read /rɪd/ v. (past tense and past participle read /red/) 1 [I,T] to look at written words, numbers, or signs and understand what they mean: Children start learning to read in kindergarten. | She sat reading a magazine. | I can't read music.

THESAURUS

flip/thumb through sth – to look at parts of a book, magazine, etc. quickly browse through sth – to look at parts of a book, magazine, etc. slowly skim/scan (through) sth – to read something quickly to get the main ideas or to find what you want pore over sth – to read something very carefully for a long time devour sth – to read something quickly and eagerly plow/wade through sth – to read something long and boring peruse (formal) – to read something → WRITE

2 [I,T] to find out information from books, newspapers, etc.: The class has been reading about the Mayans. | He had read that walking was good for your health. 3 [I,T] to say written or printed words to other people: Will you read me a story? | Read to your kids every day. | a good book to read aloud 4 read between the lines to guess what someone really feels or means, even when his/her words do not show it 5 read sb's mind/thoughts to guess what someone is thinking: "Coffee?" "You must have read my mind." 6 [T] if a measuring instrument reads a particular number, it shows that number: The thermometer read 46 degrees. 7 [T] to understand a remark, situation, etc. in a particular way: The movie could be read as a protest against the Catholic Church. 8 well-read having read a lot of books [ORIGIN: Old English rædan]

R

read sth into sth phr. v. to think that a situation, action, etc. means more than it really does: People shouldn't read too much into the court's decision.

read sth ↔ out phr. v. to read and say words that are written down, so that people can hear: He read out the name of the winner.

read up on sth phr. v. to read a lot about something so that you know a lot about it: Patients should try to read up on their illness.

read-a-ble /'rɪdəbəl/ adj. 1 interesting, enjoyable, or easy to read: a very readable book 2 clear and able to be read → MACHINE-READABLE read-er /'rɪdə/ n. [C] 1 someone who reads a lot, or reads in a particular way: an avid/voracious reader (=someone who likes to read a lot) | a book for young readers | a fast/slow reader 2 someone who reads a particular book, newspaper, etc.: a newspaper with 30,000 readers read-er-ship /'rɪdəˌʃɪp/ n. [C,U] the people who read a particular newspaper, magazine, etc.

R

read-i-ly /'redl-i/ adv. 1 quickly and easily: The information is readily available on the Internet. 2 quickly, willingly, and without complaining: Chip readily agreed to help.

read-i-ness /'redɪnɪs/ n. 1 [singular,U] willingness to do something: I admire his readiness to help people. 2 [U] the state of being prepared and ready for something that might happen: The army was standing by in readiness for an attack.

read-ing /'rɪdɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] the activity of looking at and understanding written words: Paula loves reading. 2 [U] the books, articles, etc. that you read: I have a lot of reading to do for class. | It's light reading (=easy to read and not very serious). 3 [singular] the act of reading something: a close reading of the book 4 [C] your way of understanding what a particular statement, situation, event, etc. means (SYN) interpretation: What's your reading of the situation, Herb? 5 [C] a number or amount shown on a measuring instrument: The man came to take a reading from the electric meter. 6 [C] an occasion when something is read to people: a poetry reading

re-ad-just /,rɪə'dʒʌst/ (AC) v. 1 [I] to change the way you do things because of a new job, situation, or way of life: After living in the dorms, I needed time to readjust to life at home. | After leaving the army, soldiers often struggle to readjust. 2 [T] to make a small change to something, or move something to a new position: We lifted him up and readjusted the back of the chair. | The figures had to be slightly readjusted. —readjustment n. [C,U]

read-only 'memory n. [U] IT ROM

read-out /'rɪd-aʊt/ n. [C] IT a record of information produced by a computer, that is shown on a screen or in print read-y /'redi/ adj. [not before noun] 1 someone who is ready is prepared or able to do something: Aren't you ready yet? | We're just about ready to eat. | Go get ready for bed. | I don't think he's ready for marriage yet. 2 something that is ready has been prepared and can be used, eaten, etc. immediately: Is supper ready? | The computer is now set up and ready to use. | Is everything ready for the party? | I've got to get a room ready for our guests. | Have your passport ready when you go through immigration. 3 willing or likely to do something: She's always ready to help. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old English ræde “prepared”] ready-made adj. already prepared and ready to be used immediately: ready-made curtains

real /rɪl/ adj. 1 not imaginary but actually existing: The new system has real advantages. | There is a very real danger/possibility/risk of an explosion. 2 [only before noun] true and not pretended: What's the real reason you were late? | That's not her real name. 3 not false or artificial (ANT) fake: real leather | I don't want a plastic Christmas tree – I want the real thing (=a real Christmas tree). 4 (informal) used in order to emphasize what you are saying: Matt's a real jerk. | It's a real pleasure to meet you. 5 the real world also real life the world that people actually live in, as opposed to an imaginary one: Things don't happen like that in the real world.

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 said when something is the way you think it should be: Now that's real coffee! 7 real live used in order to emphasize how rare or unusual something is: Wow! A real live movie star! 8 are you for real? used when you are very surprised or shocked by what someone has done or said 9 for real seriously, not just pretending: He quit smoking? For real? 10 get real! used in order to tell someone that s/he is being silly or unreasonable: Get real! He'll never make the team. 11 keep it real (slang) something young people say when they mean to behave in an honest way and not pretend to be different from how they really are

[ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French, Medieval Latin realis “of things (in law),” from Latin res “thing”]

real² adv. (spoken, nonstandard) very: I'm real sorry!

'real es,tate n. [U] 1 property such as houses or land: Real estate prices fell again last year. 2 the business of selling houses or land

'real estate agent n. [C] someone whose job is to sell houses or land

re-al-ism /'rɪə,lɪzəm/ n. [U] 1 the ability to deal with situations in a practical or sensible way 2 the quality of seeming real: The program's bleak realism made it seem very authentic. 3 also Realism a style of art and literature in which everything is shown or described as it really is in life re-al-ist /'rɪəlɪst/ n. [C] someone who thinks in a realistic way

re-al-is-tic /ˌriəˈlɪstɪk/ adj. 1 practical and sensible, or dealing with situations in this way: You have to be realistic about your chances of winning (=realize that you may not win). | realistic goals (=sensible ones, that can be achieved) 2 showing things as they are in real life: His paintings are so realistic they look like photographs.

re-al-is-tic-ally /ˌriəˈlɪstɪkli/ adv. 1 in a realistic way: We can't realistically hope for any improvement so soon. 2 in a way that is very similar to real life: a realistically drawn picture

re-al-i-ty /ˌriːəˈlɪti/ n. (plural realities) 1 [C,U] what is true or what actually happens, not what is imagined or not real: Crime is one of the realities of living in the city. | She refuses to face reality. | The reality is that we can't depend on him. 2 in reality used in order to say that something is different from what seems to be true: He said he'd retired, but in reality he was fired. 3 become a reality/make sth a reality to begin to exist or happen, or to make something do this: Frank's dream of opening a restaurant became a reality last May. 4 reality check (informal) an occasion when you consider the facts of a situation, as opposed to what you would like or what you have imagined re-al-i-za-tion /ˌriələˈzeɪʃən/ n. [singular, U] 1 the act of understanding or realizing something that you did not know before: We finally came to the realization that the business wasn't going to work. 2 (formal) the act of achieving what you had planned or hoped to do: the realization of a lifelong ambition

re-al-ize /ˌriələɪz/ v. [T] 1 to know or understand the importance of something that you did not know before: Do you realize (that) you're an hour late? | It was only later that I realized my mistake.

THESAURUS

become aware – to gradually realize that something is happening or is true: I became aware that two girls were watching me.

dawn on sb – to realize something for the first time: It dawned on me that he was making fun of me.

sink in – to begin to understand something or realize its full meaning: It took a few minutes for the doctor's words to sink in.

2 realize a hope/goal/dream etc. to achieve something you have been hoping to achieve 3 sb's (worst) fears were realized used in order to say that the thing that you were afraid of has actually happened: Morris's worst fears were realized when the police came to his door.

real-ly /ˈrɪli/ adv. 1 very or very much: Tom's a really nice guy. | His letter really irritated me. | I'm really, really sorry. 2 used when you are talking about what actually happened or is true, rather than what people might wrongly think: Kevin's not really his brother. | What do you really think?

SPOKEN PHRASES

3 used in order to emphasize something you are saying: I really don't mind. | No, really, I'm fine.

Don't worry. 4 really? used when you are surprised about or interested in what someone has said: "Meg's getting married." "Really? When?" 5 not really used in order to say "no," especially when something is not completely true: "Are you hungry yet?" "Not really." 6 (yeah) really used in order to agree with someone: "Greg can be such a jerk sometimes." "Yeah, really."

realm /reɪlm/ n. [C] 1 (formal) an area of knowledge, interest, or thought: new discoveries in the realm of science 2 (literary) a country ruled over by a king or queen

THESAURUS country, nation, state, power, land → COUNTRY¹

real 'number n. [C] MATH any number that is not the square root of a negative number

'real-time adj. [only before noun] IT a real-time computer system deals with information as fast as it receives it —real time n. [U]

Real-tor /ˈrɪltɔː/ n. [C] (trademark) a REAL ESTATE AGENT who belongs to the National Association of Realtors

real-ty /ˈrɪlti/ n. [U] REAL ESTATE

ream /rɪm/ n. 1 reams of sth (informal) a lot of something: He took reams of notes. 2 [C] 500 sheets of paper reap /ri:p/ v. 1 [T] to get something good because of the hard work that you have done: Paula is starting to reap the benefits of all her hard work. 2 [I,T] to cut and gather a crop of grain rear¹ /rɪr/ n. [C] 1 the rear the back part of an object, vehicle, building, etc.: There are more seats at the rear of the theater. 2 also rear end (informal) the part of your body that you sit on 3 bring up the rear to be at the back of a line or group of people that is moving forward: The kids came around the corner, with Donny bringing up the rear.

rear² v. 1 [T] to care for a person, animal, or plant until he, she, or it is fully grown (SYN) raise: She reared seven children by herself. 2 [I] also rear up if an animal rears, it rises up on its back legs: The horse reared and threw me off.

rear³ adj. [only before noun] relating to the back of something (ANT) front: the rear wheels of the car | the rear entrance of the hospital

'rear end n. [C] (spoken) the part of your body that you sit on

'rear-end v. [T] (informal) to hit the back of someone's car with another car: Someone rear-ended us on the freeway.

re-ar-range /ˌriə'reɪndʒ/ v. [T] to change the position or order of things: We rearranged the furniture in the living room. —rearrangement n. [C,U] rear-view mir-ror /ˌrɪrvyʊ 'mɪrə/ n. [C] the mirror in a car that you use to see what is behind you rearward /ˈrɪrwəd/ adv. in, toward, or at the back of something rea-son¹ /ˈrɪzən/ n. 1 [C] the cause or fact that explains why something happens or exists: Did he give any reason for quitting? | There are many reasons why people develop heart disease. | One of the reasons (that) she came to Boston is her family.

R

THESAURUS

explanation – a reason that you give for why something happened or why you did something: Is there any explanation for his behavior?

excuse – a reason that you give for why you did something bad: I hope she has a good excuse for being late again.

motive – a reason that makes someone do something, especially something bad: The police have found no motive for the attack.

rationale (formal) – the reasons and principles on which a decision, plan, etc. is based: What is the Pope's rationale for not allowing women to be priests?

grounds – a good reason for doing, believing, or saying something: Abusive behavior is grounds for divorce.

R

2 [C,U] a fact that makes it right or fair to do something: There is no reason to panic. | You had every reason to be suspicious. 3 [U] sensible judgment or advice: He won't listen to reason (=be persuaded by sensible advice). | You can go anywhere you want, within reason (=within sensible limits). 4 [U] the ability to think, understand, and make good judgments → LOGIC: a conflict between reason and emotion 5 all the more reason to do sth used in order to say that what has just been mentioned is another reason for doing what you have suggested: "We can't agree about anything." "Well, that's all the more reason for us to sit down and talk." [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French raison, from Latin ratio "calculation, reason"]

reason² v. 1 [T] to form a particular judgment about something after thinking about the facts: The jury reasoned that he could not have committed the crimes. 2 [I] to think about facts clearly and make judgments: the ability to reason reason with sb phr. v. to talk to someone in order to persuade him/her to be more sensible: I tried to reason with her, but she wouldn't listen.

rea-son-a-ble /ˈrɪznəbəl/ adj. 1 fair and sensible (ANT) unreasonable: a reasonable request | Be reasonable – you can't expect her to do all the work on her own! | He seemed like a reasonable guy. → FAIR¹ 2 a reasonable amount, number, or price is not too much or too big: good food at a reasonable price

THESAURUS

inexpensive, good/great value, competitive → CHEAP¹ satisfactory, good enough, acceptable → SATISFACTORY

—reasonableness n. [U] rea-son-a-bly /ˈrɪznəbli/ adv. 1 fairly but not completely: I did reasonably well on the test. 2 in a way that is fair or sensible: "I'm sure we can find an answer," Steve said reasonably.

rea-soned /ˈrɪzənd/ adj. based on careful thought (SYN) logical: a reasoned argument rea-son-ing /ˈrɪzənɪŋ/ n. [U] the process of thinking carefully about something in order to make a judgment: What's the reasoning behind this proposal? → INDIRECT REASONING

re-as-sur-ance /ˌrɪəˈʃʊərəns/ n. [C,U] something that you say or do to make someone feel less worried about a problem: People sought reassurance that their pensions would still be paid, despite the failure of the company.

re-as-sure /ˌrɪəˈʃʊə/ v. [T] to make someone feel calm and less worried about a problem: Kids need to be reassured that their parents love them no matter what. | She reassured me that everything would be okay.

re-as-sur-ing /ˌrɪəˈʃʊərɪŋ/ adj. making someone feel less worried: a reassuring smile —reassuringly adv.

re-bate /ˈrɪbeɪt/ n. [C] an amount of money that is paid back to you when you have paid too much rent, taxes, etc.: a tax rebate reb-el¹ /ˈreɪbəl/ n. [C] 1 someone who opposes or fights against people in authority: Rebels have overthrown the government. 2 someone who does not do things in the way that other people want him/her to do them: She was a rebel at school. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 rebel "rebellious" (13–21 centuries), from Old French rebelle, from Latin, from bellum "war"] re-bel² /ˈrɪbeɪl/ v. (rebelled, rebelling) [I] to oppose or fight against someone who is in authority: It's part of being a teenager to rebel against your parents.

THESAURUS

disobey, break a rule/law, defy → DISOBEY

re-bel-lion /ˈrɪbeɪljən/ n. [C,U] 1 an organized attempt to change the government by using violence → REVOLUTION: He led an armed rebellion against the government.

THESAURUS

revolution, revolt, uprising, insurrection, insurgency → REVOLUTION

2 opposition to someone in authority: teenage rebellion

re-bel-lious /ˈrɪbeɪljəs/ adj. 1 deliberately disobeying someone in authority: a rebellious child 2 fighting against the government by using violence: rebellious troops re-birth /ˈrɪbəθ, ˈrɪbəθ/ n. [singular] (formal) a change that results in an old idea, method, etc. becoming popular again re-boot /ˈrɪbʊt/ v. [I,T] IT if you reboot a computer, you start it again after it has stopped working re-bound¹ /ˈrɪbaʊnd, ˈrɪbaʊnd/ v. [I] 1 if a ball rebounds, it moves quickly back after hitting something solid: The ball rebounded off the hoop. 2 to increase again after decreasing [SYN] recover: Oil prices rebounded this week.

re-bound² /ˈriˌbaʊnd/ n. on the rebound if someone is on the rebound, s/he has recently stopped being in a romantic relationship, and is likely to start another romantic relationship soon re-buff /rɪˈbʌf/ v. [T] (formal) to be unkind to someone who is trying to be friendly or helpful —rebuff n. [C] re-build /rɪˈbɪld/ v. (past tense and past participle rebuilt /-ˈbɪlt/) [T] 1 to build something again, after it has been damaged or destroyed: The freeway system was quickly rebuilt after the earthquake.

THESAURUS repair, fix, renovate, restore
→ REPAIR²

2 to make something strong and successful again: We try to help drug addicts rebuild their lives.

re-buke /rɪˈbyuk/ v. [T] (formal) to criticize someone because s/he has done something wrong [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old North French rebuker, from bukier “to hit, cut down”] —rebuken n. [C,U]

THESAURUS criticize, scold, admonish, reprimand → CRITICIZE

re-but /rɪˈbʌt/ v. (rebutted, rebutting) [T] (formal) to give reasons to show that a statement or a legal charge that has been made against you is false —rebuttal /rɪˈbʌtl/ n. [C] re-cal-ci-trant /rɪˈkælsətrənt/ adj. (formal) refusing to obey or be controlled, even after being punished —recalcitrance n. [U]

re-call¹ /rɪˈkɔl/ v. [T] 1 to remember something: I don't recall meeting him. | I seem to recall (that) we had problems finding the place. 2 if a company recalls a product, it asks people to return the product because something is wrong with it re-call² /rɪˈkɔl, ˈrɪkɔl/ n. 1 [U] the ability to remember something you have learned or experienced: She has total recall (=ability to remember everything) of what she has read. 2 [C] a situation in which a company recalls a product re-cant /rɪˈkænt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to say publicly that you no longer have a particular religious or political belief re-cap /ˈrɪkæp/ n. [C usually singular] (informal) the act of repeating the main points of something that has just been said: And now for a recap of tonight's news. —recap /ˈrɪkæp, ˈrɪkæp/ v. [I,T] re-ca-pit-u-late /ˌrɪkəˈpɪtʃəˌleɪt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to repeat the main points of something that has just been said [SYN] recap —recapitulation /ˌrɪkəpɪtʃəˌleɪʃən/ n. [C,U] re-cap-ture /rɪˈkæptʃə/ v. [T] 1 to make someone experience or feel something again: The movie recaptures the innocence of childhood. 2 to catch a prisoner or animal that has escaped re-cede /rɪˈsid/ v. [I] 1 if something you see, feel, or hear recedes, it gets further and further away until it disappears: The sound of her footsteps receded into the distance. 2 if your hair recedes, you gradually lose the hair at the front of your head: He has a receding hairline. 3 if water recedes, it moves back from an area that it was covering re-ceipt /rɪˈsit/ n. 1 [C] a piece of paper that shows that you have received money or goods: Keep your receipts for tax purposes. | credit card receipts 2 [U] (formal) the act of receiving something: The contract becomes valid on/upon receipt of (=when we receive) your letter.

re-ceive /rɪˈsiːv/ v. [T] 1 to be given something officially: He received an award from the college. 2 (formal) to get a letter, telephone call, etc.: Have you received my letter? 3 to react to something in a particular way: Her first novel was well received (=people said it was good). 4 (formal) if you receive medical treatment, an injury, etc., it happens or is done to you: He is still in the hospital receiving treatment for the cuts on his hands. 5 (formal) to accept or welcome someone officially as a guest or member of a group: Perez was received at the White House and given the award. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old North French receivre, from Latin recipere, from capere “to take”]

re-ceiv-er /rɪˈsiːvə/ n. [C] 1 the part of a telephone that you hold next to your mouth and ear → PHONE¹ 2 a piece of electronic equipment in a STEREO, that changes electrical signals into sound, then makes them loud enough to hear 3 in football, the player who catches the ball re-cent /ˈrisənt/ adj. having happened or begun to exist only a short time ago: a recent photo | the most recent edition of the magazine | The situation has improved in recent years/months.

THESAURUS new, modern, latest → NEW

re-cent-ly /ˈrisəntli/ adv. not long ago: We recently moved from Ohio. | Have you seen Anna recently? | He worked as a teacher until recently.

THESAURUS

just – only a few minutes, hours, or days ago: The show just started. | They just got back from Portland.

a little/short while ago – only a few minutes, hours, or days ago: Ned called a little while ago.

lately – in the recent past: I haven't been to the movies lately.

freshly – used to say that something was recently made, picked, etc.: freshly baked bread | freshly cut flowers newly – used to say that something happened recently, or that something was made, done, etc.

R

recently: the newly elected governor of New York | a newly married couple | newly built homes

re-cep-ta-cle /rɪˈsɛptəkəl/ n. [C] (formal) a container

re-cep-tion /rɪˈsɛpʃən/ n. 1 [C] a large formal party to celebrate something or to welcome someone: a wedding reception | a reception for the visiting professors 2 [C usually singular] a way of reacting to a person or idea that shows what you think of him, her, or it: He got a warm reception (=a friendly greeting) from the crowd. 3 [U] the quality of the sound of your radio or the picture of your television: My TV gets good/poor reception. 4 reception desk/area the desk or area where visitors who are arriving in a hotel or large organization go first re-cep-tion-ist /rɪˈsɛpʃənɪst/ n. [C] someone whose job is to answer the telephone and help people when they arrive at an office re-cep-tive /rɪˈsɛptɪv/ adj. willing to listen to new ideas or new opinions: Ron isn't very receptive to other people's suggestions.

R

re-cess /ˈrɪsɪs, rɪˈsɛs/ n. 1 [U] a time when children are allowed to go outside to play during the school day: Charlie got into a fight during/at recess. 2 [C,U] the time between when work stops and starts again in a court of law or other institution where people have been elected to make laws: Congress is in recess until January. 3 [C] a space in the wall of a room for shelves, cupboards, etc.

re-ces-sion /rɪˈsɛʃən/ n. [C] a period of time when there is less business activity, trade, etc. than usual: an economic recession | The economy is going into recession. | The country is struggling out of recession.

THESAURUS

depression – a long period when businesses do not buy, sell, or produce very much and many people do not have jobs: During the depression, many young people were unable to find any work at all.

slump – a period when there is a reduction in business and many people lose their jobs: a slump in the airline industry downturn – a time during which business activity is reduced and economic conditions become worse: Government projects helped the construction industry survive the downturn.

crash – an occasion when the value of stocks on a stock market falls suddenly and by a large amount, causing economic problems: the effects of the 1987 stock market crash re-ces-sive /rɪˈsɛsɪv/ adj. BIOLOGY a recessive GENE is passed to a child from his/her parents only if both parents have the gene (ANT) dominant: Blue eyes are recessive.

re-charge /rɪˈtʃɑrdʒ/ v. [T] to put a new supply of electricity into a BATTERY —rechargeable adj.

rec-i-pe /ˈrɛsəpi/ n. 1 [C] a set of instructions that tells you how to cook something: recipes from a vegetarian cookbook | a recipe for chocolate cake 2 be a recipe for sth (informal) to be likely to cause a particular result: Inviting Paul and his ex-wife to the party was a recipe for disaster.

re-cip-i-ent /rɪˈsɪpiənt/ n. [C] (formal) someone who receives something: Bauer has been the recipient of many honors.

re-cip-ro-cal /rɪˈsɪprəkəl/ adj. (formal) a reciprocal agreement, relationship, etc. is one where two groups of people do or give the same things to each other [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin reciprocus “returning the same way,” from re- “back” + pro- “forward”] re-cip-ro-cate /rɪˈsɪprəkeɪt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to do or give something because something similar has been done for or given to you re-cit-al /rɪˈsaɪtl/ n. [C] a public performance of a piece of music or poetry, usually by one person: a piano recital re-cite /rɪˈsaɪt/ v. [I,T] to say something such as a poem, story, etc. that you know by memory —recitation /ˌrɛsəˈteɪʃən/ n. [C,U] reck-less /ˈrɛklɪs/ adj. not caring about danger or the bad results of your behavior, or showing this quality: reckless driving —recklessly adv. —recklessness n. [U] reck-on /ˈrɛkən/ v. [T] 1 to guess a number, amount, etc. without calculating it exactly: The software company reckons it will sell 2.5 million units this year. 2 (spoken) to think or suppose: I reckon they'll be late.

reckon with sb/sth phr. v. to consider a possible problem when you think about the future: The new team is a force to be reckoned with (=something to consider seriously).

reck-on-ing /ˈrɛkənɪŋ/ n. [U] calculation that is not exact: By my reckoning, we should be there by now.

re-claim /rɪˈkleɪm/ v. [T] 1 to ask for something to be given back to you: reclaiming lost luggage 2 to make land able to be used for farming, building, etc., when it has never been used or has not been used for a while: Large areas of land will be reclaimed for a new airport. —reclamation /ˌrɛkləˈmeɪʃən/ n. [U] re-cline /rɪˈklaɪn/ v. 1 [I,T] to push the back of a seat or chair so that it slopes backward, so that you can lean back in it: The front seats of the car recline. 2 [I] to lie or sit back in a relaxed way: People reclined on the grass in the sunshine.

rec-luse /ˈrɛklus/ n. [C] someone who chooses to live alone, and avoids seeing or talking to other people: Hudson became a recluse after her husband's death. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French reclus “shut up,” from Late Latin recludere “to shut up”] —reclusive /rɪˈklusɪv/ adj.: the reclusive novelist Thomas Pynchon rec-og-ni-tion /ˌrɛkəɡˈnɪʃən/ n. 1 [singular, U] public admiration and thanks for someone's work

or achievements: She was given an award in recognition of 25 years of service. | He gained international recognition after winning the competition. 2 [singular,U] the act of realizing and accepting that something is important or true: There is a growing recognition of the importance of early childhood education. 3 [U] the act of recognizing someone or something: He looked past me with no sign of recognition. | *The city had changed beyond recognition (=so much that I could not recognize it).

rec-og-nize /ˈrɛkəg,naɪz/ v. [T] 1 to realize when you see someone that you know him/her because you have seen him/her before: He'd lost so much weight I hardly recognized him! | Social workers have been trained to recognize the signs of child abuse. 2 to accept officially that an organization, government, etc. is legal: The UN has refused to recognize the new government. 3 to accept and admit that something is true or real: It's important to recognize that stress can affect your health. 4 to thank someone officially for something s/he has done: His contribution to classical music should be recognized. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French reconoistre, from Latin recognoscere, from cognoscere “to know”] —recognizable /ˈrɛkəgˈnaɪzəbəl, ˈrɛkəg,naɪ-/ adj. —recognizably adv.

re-coil /ˈrɪkɔɪl, rɪˈkɔɪl/ v. [I] 1 to feel a strong dislike for something and want to avoid it: Most people recoil from such racist views. 2 to move back suddenly from something that you do not like or are afraid of: Emily recoiled at the sight of the snake.

rec-ol-lect /ˈrɛkəˈlɛkt/ v. [T] to remember something: I don't recollect her name.

rec-ol-lec-tion /ˈrɛkəˈlɛkʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) something from the past that you remember, or the act of remembering it: He has no recollection of the crash.

rec-om-mend /ˈrɛkəˈmɛnd/ v. [T] 1 to advise someone to do something: Dentists recommend that you change your toothbrush every few months. | We strongly recommend buying a bicycle helmet.

THESAURUS advise, urge, suggest →
ADVISE

2 to say that someone or something is good: Can you recommend a local restaurant? | I recommend this book to anyone who likes adventure stories. 3 sth has little/nothing etc. to recommend it used in order to say that something has few or no good qualities: The hotel has little to recommend it except that it's cheap.

rec-om-men-da-tion /ˈrɛkəmənˈdeɪʃən/ n. 1 [C] advice given to someone, especially about what to do: The committee was able to make detailed recommendations to the school. | The recommendation that babies should sleep on their backs has decreased the number of crib deaths.

THESAURUS advice, tip, suggestion →
ADVISE

2 [U] a suggestion that someone or something is appropriate or useful for a particular situation: We took the tour on a friend's recommendation. 3 [C] also letter of recommendation a letter which states that someone would be a good person to do a job, study at a college, etc.: Can you write a recommendation for me?

rec-om-pense /ˈrɛkəm,pens/ v. [T] (formal) to give someone a payment for trouble or losses that you have caused —recompense n. [singular, U]

rec-on-cile /ˈrɛkən,sɑɪl/ v. 1 be reconciled (with sb) to have a good relationship with someone again after arguing with him/her: His parents are now reconciled with each other. 2 [T] to show that two different ideas, situations, etc. can exist together and are not opposed to each other: How can he reconcile his religious beliefs with all this gambling?

reconcile sb to sth phr. v. to make someone able to accept a bad situation: I've reconciled myself to the fact that our marriage is over.

rec-on-cil-i-a-tion /ˈrɛkən,sɪliˈeɪʃən/ n. [singular,U] a situation in which two people, countries, etc. become friendly again after arguing or fighting with each other: There are signs of a reconciliation between the two countries.

re-con-di-tion /ˈrɪkənˈdɪʃən/ v. [T] to repair a machine so that it can be sold again re-con-nais-sance /rɪˈkənəsəns, -zəns/ n. [C,U] the activity of sending out aircraft or soldiers in order to get information about the enemy —reconnoiter /ˈrɪkəˈnɔɪtə/ v. [I,T] re-con-sid-er /ˈrɪkənˈsɪdə/ v. [I,T] to think again about something in order to decide if you should change your opinion: Won't you reconsider our offer? —reconsideration /ˈrɪkən,sɪdəˈreɪʃən/ n. [U] re-con-sti-tute /rɪˈkənstə,tut/ v. [T] 1 to make a group, organization, etc. exist in a different form: The four political groups will be reconstituted as a new party. 2 to change dried food to its original form by adding water to it re-con-struct /ˈrɪkənˈstrʌkt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to produce a complete description of something that happened by collecting pieces of information: Police have reconstructed the events leading up to the crime. 2 to build something again after it has been destroyed or damaged re-con-struc-tion /ˈrɪkənˈstrʌkʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] work that is done to repair damage to a city, industry, etc., especially after a war: The reconstruction of the South after the Civil War took many years. 2 [C usually singular] a description or copy of something that you produce by collecting information about it: a reconstruction of the crime re-con-struc-tive /ˈrɪkənˈstrʌktɪv/ adj. [only before noun] a reconstructive operation is one done to make a part of someone's body the right shape, for example after a bad injury: reconstructive surgery

R

re-cord¹ /ˈrɛkərd/ n. 1 [C,U] information about something or someone, which is either written on paper or stored on a computer: Keep a record of how much you spend on this trip. | medical records | This summer has been the driest on record (=that has been written in records).

THESAURUS

diary/journal – a book in which you write down the things that have happened to you each day file – a set of written records, or information stored on a computer under a particular name accounts – an exact record of the money that a company has received and spent books – written records of a company's financial accounts ledger – a book in which a company's financial records are kept roll – an official list of names, for example of the people attending a school log (book) – an official record of events, especially on a ship or airplane

R

2 [C] the fastest speed, longest distance, highest or lowest level, etc. ever: a record high/low temperature | She holds the world record for the long jump. | The movie broke all box office records. 3 [singular] the known facts about someone's past behavior and how good or bad it has been: an airline with a good/bad safety record | Does he have a criminal record (=has he committed any crimes)? 4 [C] a round flat piece of plastic on which music is stored: a huge record collection 5 off/on the record not official and not meant to be repeated, or official and able to be repeated 6 for the record used in order to tell someone that what you are saying should be remembered

re-cord² /ˈrɛkərd/ v. 1 [T] to write information down so that it can be looked at in the future: All the events were recorded. 2 [I,T] to store music, sound, television programs, etc. on tape or DISKS, etc. so that people can listen to them or watch them again: The group has just recorded a new album. | Are we recording yet? 3 [T] to measure the size, speed, temperature, etc. of something so that it can be seen

'record-breaking adj. better, higher, faster, etc. than anything done before: record-breaking temperatures

re-cord-er /ˈrɛkərdə/ n. [C] 1 a TAPE RECORDER 2 a small wooden musical instrument shaped like a tube, that you play by blowing into it re-cord-ing /ˈrɛkərdɪŋ/ n. [C] a piece of music, speech, etc. that has been recorded: a recording of Vivaldi's "Gloria"

'record label n. [C] a company that records and produces a singer's, group of musicians', etc. music

'record player n. [C] a piece of equipment for playing records re-count¹ /rɪˈkaʊnt/ v. [T] (formal) to tell a story or describe a series of events re-count² /ˈrɪkaʊnt/ n. [C] a process of counting votes again re-coup /rɪˈkʊp/ v. [T] to get back money you have lost or spent re-course /ˈrɪkɔːs, rɪˈkɔːs/ n. [U] (formal) something you can do to help yourself in a difficult situation, or the act of doing this: The police had no recourse but to shoot (=shooting was their only choice).

re-cov-er /rɪˈkʌvə/ (Ac) v. 1 [I] to get better after an illness, injury, shock, etc.: My uncle is recovering from a heart attack. 2 [I] to return to a normal condition after a period of trouble or difficulty: The economy will take years to recover. 3 [T] to get back something that was taken from you, lost, or almost destroyed: The stolen paintings have been recovered. 4 [T] to get back your ability to control your feelings or your body: He never recovered the use of his arm. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French recouvrer, from Latin recuperare, from capere “to take”]

re-cov-er-y /rɪˈkʌvəri/ (Ac) n. 1 [singular,U] the process of getting better after an illness, injury, etc.: His recovery from the knee injury has been slow. | Doctors expect Kelly to make a full recovery. 2 [singular,U] the process of returning to a normal condition after a period of trouble or difficulty: economic recovery 3 [U] the act of getting back something that is lost, stolen, or owed: the recovery of the stolen jewels

re-cre-ate /ˈrɪkriˈeɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] to make something exist again or be experienced again: The zoo tries to recreate the animals' natural habitats.

rec-re-a-tion /ˈrɛkriˈeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] an activity that you do for pleasure or fun: outdoor recreation [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French récréation, from Latin, from recreare “to make new, refresh”] —recreational adj.

THESAURUS

game, sport, hobby, diversion

→ GAME¹

re-crim-i-na-tion /rɪˈkrɪməˈneɪʃən/ n. [C usually plural,U] a situation in which people blame each other, or the things they say when they are blaming each other re-cruit¹ /rɪˈkrut/ v. [I,T] to find new people to work in a company, join an organization, do a job, etc.: The coaches are visiting high schools in order to recruit new players. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French recrute “new growth, new soldiers,” from Old French recroistre “to grow up again”] —recruitment n. [U] —recruiter n. [C] recruit² n. [C] someone who has recently joined a company or an organization: You could tell he was a new recruit.

rec-tan-gle /ˈrɛk,tæŋɡəl/ n. [C] a shape with four straight sides, two of which are usually longer than the other two, and four RIGHT ANGLES [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Medieval Latin rectangulus “having a right angle,” from Latin rectus “right” + angulus “angle”] —rectangular /ˈrɛkˈtæŋɡjələ/ adj. → see picture at POLYGON

THESAURUS shape, square, circle, semicircle, triangle, oval, cylinder → SHAPE¹

rec-ti-fy /ˈrɛktəˌfaɪ/ v. (rectified, rectifies) [T] (formal) to correct something that is wrong: All efforts to rectify the problem have failed. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French rectifier, from Latin rectus “right, straight”] rec-ti-tude /ˈrɛktətud/ n. [U] (formal) behavior that is honest and morally correct: He was admired for his personal rectitude.

rec-tor /ˈrɛktər/ n. [C] 1 a priest who is in charge of a local Episcopal church 2 the person in charge of some colleges or schools rec-tum /ˈrɛktəm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the lowest part of your BOWELS —rectal /ˈrɛktəl/ adj.

rec-u-per-ate /ˈrɪkʊpəˌreɪt/ v. [I] to get better after an illness, injury, etc.: Jan is still recuperating from her operation. —recuperation /ˈrɪkʊpəˌreɪʃən/ n. [U] rec-cur /rɪˈkʊr/ v. (recurred, recurring) [I] to happen again, or to happen several times: a recurring dream —recurrence /rɪˈkʊərəns, rɪˈkʊr-/ n. [C,U]

rec-cur-rent /rɪˈkʊərənt, -ˈkʊr-/ adj. happening or appearing several times: a recurrent infection | The dangers of pride are a recurrent theme in these stories.

rec-yc-la-ble /rɪˈsaɪkləbəl/ adj. able to be recycled: recyclable bottles —recyclable n. [C usually plural] rec-yc-cle /rɪˈsaɪkəl/ v. [I,T] to put used objects or materials through a special process, so that they can be used again: Can these bottles be recycled? → ENVIRONMENT —recycled adj.: recycled paper —recycling n. [U]

red¹ /rɛd/ adj. 1 having the color of blood: a red dress | bright red lipstick 2 hair that is red is an orange-brown color 3 skin that is red is a bright pink color [ORIGIN: Old English read] —redness n. [U]

red² n. 1 [C,U] a red color 2 be in the red ECONOMICS to owe more money than you have (ANT) be in the black 3 see red to become very angry red 'blood cell also red 'corpuscle n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the cells in your blood that carry oxygen to every part of your body → WHITE BLOOD CELL red-'blooded adj. red-blooded male/American etc. (humorous) used in order to emphasize that someone has all of the qualities that a typical man, American, etc. is supposed to have red 'carpet n. the red carpet special treatment that you give someone important who is visiting you

Red 'Cross n. an international organization that helps people who are suffering as a result of war, floods, disease, etc.

red-den /ˈrɛdn/ v. [I,T] to become red, or to make something do this re-dec-o-rate /rɪˈdɛkəˌreɪt/ v. [I,T] to change the way a room looks by painting, changing the furniture, etc.

re-deem /rɪˈdiːm/ v. [T] (formal) 1 redeem yourself to do something to improve other people's opinion of you, after you have behaved badly or failed 2 to exchange a piece of paper representing an amount of money for the money that it is worth: You can redeem the coupon at any store. 3 redeeming quality/value etc. a good quality, etc. that keeps someone or something from being completely bad or wrong: Maybe she has redeeming qualities, but I can't see them. 4 to make something less bad: Nothing could redeem this awful movie. —redeemable adj.

re-demp-tion /rɪˈdɛmpʃən/ n. [U] 1 past/beyond redemption too bad to be saved or improved 2 the state of being freed from the power of evil, believed by Christians to be made possible by Jesus Christ re-de-vel-op /rɪˈdɛvələp/ v. [T] to make an area more modern by putting in new buildings or changing old ones —redevelopment n. [C,U]

'red-eye n. [U] (informal) an airplane with passengers on it that flies at night and arrives early in the morning: I took the red-eye from Chicago to Seattle.

red 'flag n. [C] something that shows or warns you that something might be wrong, illegal, etc.

red-'handed adj. catch sb red-handed (informal) to catch someone at the moment when s/he is doing something wrong: She was caught red-handed taking money from the register.

red-head /ˈrɛdhɛd/ n. [C] someone who has red hair red 'herring n. [C] a fact or idea that is not important but is introduced in order to take your attention away from something that is important, especially in a story red-'hot adj. extremely hot: red-hot metal

re-di-rect /rɪˈdɪrɛkt, -daɪ-/ v. [T] to send something in a different direction, or use something for a different purpose: She needs to redirect her energy into something more useful.

re-dis-tri-bu-tion /rɪˈdɪstrəˈbyuʃən/ n. [U] the act of sharing something between people in a way that is different from in the past: the redistribution of wealth/income/land etc. —redistribute /rɪˈdɪstriˈbyut/ v. [T]: One of the purposes of taxes is to redistribute some wealth to the poor.

red-'light district n. [C] the area of a city where there are many PROSTITUTES

R

red 'meat n. [U] dark-colored meat such as BEEF red-neck /'rednek/ n. [C] (informal, disapproving) someone who lives in a country area, is not educated, and has strong unreasonable opinions re-do /ri'du/ v. (past tense redid /-'dɪd/, past participle redone /-'dʌn/, third person singular redoes /-'dʌz/) [T] to do something again: You'll have to redo this essay.

re-dou-ble /ri'dʌbəl/ v. redouble your efforts to greatly increase your efforts as you try to do something re-doubt-a-ble /ri'daʊtəbəl/ adj. (literary) someone who is redoubtable is a person you respect or fear [SYN] formidable: No one would argue with this redoubtable professor.

re-dress /ri'dres/ v. [T] (formal) to correct something that is wrong, not equal, or unfair —redress /'rɪdres, ri'dres/ n. [U]

R

red 'shift n. [U] PHYSICS a change in the light given off by an object such as a star in space, in which the light appears more red as the object is moving away from the person looking at it → BLUE SHIFT red 'tape n. [U] official rules that seem unnecessary and that delay action: The new policies are intended to cut red tape.

re-duce /ri'dus/ v. [T] to make something become less in amount, size, price, etc.: Reduce the heat and simmer the rice for another 10 minutes. | I bought a new jacket that was reduced from $75 to $35.

THESAURUS

To reduce prices, numbers, or amounts lower: The candidate promised to lower tax rates.

decrease: Salaries of middle managers have decreased in the last few years.

cut: Stores cut prices after Christmas to get rid of excess merchandise.

slash – to reduce an amount or price by a large amount: State spending was slashed in an attempt to balance the budget.

roll back (informal) – to reduce prices, costs, etc. to a previous level: There's a proposal to roll back the gas tax.

To reduce pain relieve – to make pain less severe or make it stop: Aspirin is effective at relieving headaches.

ease – to reduce pain and make someone feel more comfortable: Massage can ease the pain from tight muscles.

lessen – to reduce pain, but not make it go away: drugs to lessen pain soothe – to make a pain stop hurting so much: A hot bath will soothe aching muscles.

alleviate (formal): Sitting in a warm bath may alleviate the discomfort.

palliate (formal) – to make a bad illness better, but not make it go away completely: Can acupuncture palliate breathing difficulties?

reduce to phr. v. 1 reduce sb to tears/silence etc. to make someone cry, be silent, etc.: Many of us were reduced to tears by the tragedy. 2 reduce sb to doing sth to make someone do something that s/he would prefer not to, especially behaving or living in a way that is not as good as before: They were reduced to begging on the streets. 3 reduce sth to rubble/ashes/ruins to destroy something completely, especially a building or city [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin reducere “to lead back,” from ducere “to lead”]

re-duc-tion /rɪ'dʌkʃən/ n. [C,U] a decrease in size, amount, price, etc.: a reduction in the price of gasoline | a reduction of 30% on all sale items | an arms reduction treaty

re-dun-dant /rɪ'dʌndənt/ adj. not necessary because something else means or does the same thing. —redundancy n. [U] red-wood /'redwʊd/ n. [C,U] a very tall tree that grows near the coast in Oregon and California, or the wood from this tree → see picture on page A10

reed /ri:d/ n. [C] 1 a tall plant like grass that grows near water 2 a thin piece of wood in some musical instruments that produces a sound when you blow over it reef /ri:f/ n. [C] a line of sharp rocks or a raised area of sand near the surface of the ocean reek /rik/ v. [I] to have a strong bad smell: His breath reeked of garlic. —reek n. [singular]

reel¹ /ri:l/ n. [C] 1 a round object onto which things such as film or string for fishing can be wound 2 the amount that one of these objects will hold: a reel of film

reel² v. 1 [I] to walk in an unsteady way and almost fall over, as if you are drunk: A guy came reeling down the hallway. 2 [I] to be confused or shocked: People are still reeling from the hurricane that hit the town on Sunday. 3 [T] to wind or unwind the string on the reel of a fishing rod: It took almost an hour to reel the fish in.

reel sth ↔ off phr. v. (informal) to repeat a lot of information quickly and easily: Andy can reel off the names of all the state capitals.

re-e-lect /,riə'lekt/ v. [T] to elect someone again —reelection /,riə'lekʃən/ n. [C,U] re-en-act /,riɪ'nækt/ v. [T] to perform the actions of a story, crime, etc. that happened in the past: In church, the smaller children re-enacted the Christmas story. —re-enactment n. [C] re-en-try /ri'entri/ n. (plural reentries) [C,U] an act of entering a place or situation again: The spacecraft made a safe reentry into the Earth's atmosphere.

ref /rɛf/ n. [C] (spoken) a referee re-fer /rɪ'fɜː/ v. (referred, referring)

refer to phr. v. 1 refer to sb/sth to mention or speak about someone or something: Rachel didn't mention names, but everyone knew who she was referring to. | He likes to be referred to as "Doctor Mills." 2 refer to sth to look at a book, map, piece of paper, etc. for information: Refer to page 14 for instructions. 3 refer to sb/sth if a statement, number, report, etc. refers to someone or something, it is about that person or thing: The blue line on the graph refers to sales. 4 refer sb/sth to sb/sth to send someone or something to another place or person for information, advice, or a decision: My doctor referred me to a specialist.

ref-er-ee¹ /rɛfə'ri/ n. [C] someone who makes sure that the rules are followed during a game in sports such as football, basketball, or BOXING

THESAURUS

Referee and umpire mean the same but are used for different sports.

Use referee when you are talking about football, soccer, ice hockey, basketball, boxing, wrestling, or volleyball.

Use umpire when you are talking about baseball or tennis.

referee² v. [I,T] to be the referee for a game ref-er-ence /'rɛfrəns/ n. 1 [C,U] something you say or write that mentions another person or thing: Her writing is full of references to Chicago. | The article made no reference to previous research. 2 [C,U] the act of looking at something for information, or the book, magazine, etc. you get the information from: I'll keep a copy of the document for future reference. | the reference section of the library 3 [C] a) a letter containing information about you, written by a former employer or someone who knows you well to a new employer b) the person who writes this letter 4 [C] a note that tells you where the information that is used in a book, article, etc. comes from: a list of references at the end of the article

'reference book n. [C] a book such as a dictionary that you look at to find information → BOOK¹

'reference library also 'reference room n. [C] a public library, or a room in a library, that contains reference books that you can use but not take away ref-er-en-dum /rɛfə'rɛndəm/ n. (plural referenda /-də/ or referendums) [C,U] POLITICS an occasion when you vote in order to make a decision about a particular subject, rather than voting for a person: In Quebec, the party is campaigning for a referendum on independence.

re-fer-ral /rɪ'fɜːrəl, -'fɜː-/ n. [C,U] (formal) an act of sending someone or something to another place for help, information, etc.: The doctor will give you a referral to a specialist.

re-fill /rɪ'fɪl/ v. [T] to fill something again: A waiter refilled our glasses. —refill /'rɪfɪl/ n. [C]: Would you like a refill?

re-fi-nance /rɪ'faɪnəns, ˌrɪfə'næns/ v. [T] to replace a LOAN that you have with another loan: We plan to refinance our mortgage.

re-fi-ne /rɪ'faɪn/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to make a substance more pure using an industrial process: The sugar is refined and then shipped abroad. 2 to improve a method, plan, system, etc. by making small changes to it: Refine your analysis as you get more data.

re-fined /rɪ'faɪnd/ (Ac) adj. 1 made more pure using an industrial process: refined flour 2 improved and made more effective: a more refined technique 3 polite and well-educated

re-fi-ne-ment /rɪ'faɪnmənt/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] the process of improving something or making a substance more pure: the refinement of sugar | the refinement of their economic theories 2 [C] a change to an existing product, plan, system, etc. that improves it: We've added a number of refinements to the design. 3 [U] the quality of being polite and well-educated re-fin-er-y /rɪ'faɪnəri/ n. (plural refineries) [C] a factory where something such as oil, sugar, or metal is refined re-fin-ish /rɪ'fɪnɪʃ/ v. [T] to give the surface of something, especially wood, a new appearance by painting or POLISHING it: The hardwood floors were sanded and refinished.

re-flect /rɪ'flekt/ v. 1 be reflected in sth if an object, person, view, etc. is reflected in a mirror or in the water, you can see the person or thing in it: We could see the mountains reflected in the lake. 2 [T] if a surface reflects light, heat, or sound, it sends back the light, etc. that hits it: Wear something white – it reflects the heat. 3 [T] to show or be a sign of a particular situation, idea, or feeling: The fact that people are living longer is reflected in the latest census statistics. 4 [I] to think carefully: Please take some time to reflect on our offer. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin reflectere “to bend back,” from flectere “to bend”] reflect on sb/sth phr. v. to influence people's opinion of someone or something, especially in a bad way: Some children's behavior reflects badly on their parents.

re-flec-tion /rɪ'flekʃən/ n. 1 [C] an image that is reflected in a mirror, glass, or water: We looked at our reflections in the pool. 2 [C,U] careful thought, or an idea or opinion based on this: The book includes the writer's reflections on America in the 1920s, when he was a boy. | At first I disagreed, but on/upon reflection (=after thinking carefully about it) I realized she was right. 3 [singular] something that shows, or is a sign of, a particular situation, fact, or feeling: The rise in crime is a reflection of a violent society. | If your kids are bad, it's a reflection on you (=a sign that you are a bad parent). 4 [U] the light or heat that is reflected from something

R

re-flec-tive /rɪˈflektɪv/ adj. 1 a reflective surface reflects light: reflective tape 2 thinking quietly, or showing that you are doing this: He was in a reflective mood.

R

re-flec-tor /rɪˈflektə/ n. [C] a small piece of plastic that REFLECTS light → see picture at BICYCLE re-flex /ˈrɪfleks/ n. [C usually plural] a sudden physical reaction that you have without thinking about it: Basketball players tend to have good reflexes (=the ability to react quickly).

re-flex-ive /rɪˈfleksɪv/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a reflexive verb or PRONOUN refers back to the person or thing that does the action. In the sentence “I enjoyed myself,” “myself” is reflexive.

re-form¹ /rɪˈfɔrm/ v. 1 [T] to improve an organization or system by making a lot of changes to it: The plans to reform the health care system are controversial.

THESAURUS change, alter, reorganize, restructure, transform → CHANGE¹

2 [I,T] to improve your behavior by making a lot of changes to it, or to make someone do this: a reformed alcoholic/smoker etc. (=someone who is no longer an alcoholic, etc.)

reform² n. [C,U] a change made to an organization or system in order to improve it: the reform of the legal system | economic/political/educational reform

re-form-er /rɪˈfɔrmə/ n. [C] someone who works hard to make a lot of changes in order to improve a government or society re'form school n. [C] a special school where young people who have broken the law are sent re-fract /rɪˈfrækt/ v. [I,T] PHYSICS to change the direction of light or sound, for example when light goes from the air into a liquid or through a transparent substance: Light is refracted when it hits the surface of the water.

re-frac-tion /rɪˈfrækʃən/ (Ac) n. [U] PHYSICS a change in the direction of light or sound, for example when it goes from the air into a liquid or through a transparent substance re-frain¹ /rɪˈfreɪn/ v. [I] (formal) to stop yourself from doing something: Please refrain from smoking. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French refrenier, from Latin refrenare, from frenum “bridle” (a leather band used by a rider to control a horse)]

refrain² n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS part of a song that is repeated, especially at the end of each VERSE

re-fresh /rɪˈfreʃ/ v. 1 [T] to make someone feel less tired or hot: A shower will refresh you. 2 refresh sb's memory to say something that makes someone remember something: Please refresh my memory – what was your last job? —refreshed adj.

re'fresher course n. [C] a training class that teaches you about new developments in a subject or skill you have already studied or learned re-fresh-ing /rɪˈfreʃɪŋ/ adj. 1 making you feel less tired or less hot: a refreshing drink 2 pleasantly different from what is familiar and boring: The movie is a refreshing change from the usual Hollywood blockbusters. —refreshingly adv.

re-fresh-ment /rɪˈfreʃmənt/ n. 1 [C usually plural] food and drinks that are provided at a meeting, party, sports event, etc.: Refreshments will be served after the concert. 2 [U] food and drinks in general re-fried beans /ˌrɪfraɪd ˈbiːnz/ n. [plural] a Mexican dish in which beans that have already been cooked are crushed and FRIED with spices re-frig-er-ate /rɪˈfrɪdʒəreɪt/ v. [T] to make something such as food and drinks cold in order to preserve them: Refrigerate the sauce overnight. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of refrigerare, from frigerare “to make cold”] —refrigeration /rɪˌfrɪdʒəˈreɪʃən/ n. [U] re-frig-er-a-tor /rɪˈfrɪdʒəreɪtə/ n. [C] a large piece of kitchen equipment used for keeping food and drinks cold, shaped like a metal cupboard and kept cold by electricity (SYN) fridge

re-fuel /rɪˈfyul/ v. [I,T] to fill a vehicle or airplane with FUEL again before it continues on a trip ref-uge /ˈrefyudʒ/ n. [C,U] a place that provides protection or shelter from bad weather or danger: About 50 families have taken refuge (=found protection) in a Red Cross shelter. | We sought refuge (=looked for protection) from the 110-degree heat.

ref-u-gee /ˌrefyʊˈdʒi/ n. [C] someone who has been forced to leave his/her country, especially during a war: Refugees were streaming across the border. | refugee camps

re-fund /ˈrɪfʌnd/ n. [C] an amount of money that is given back to you if you are not satisfied with the goods or services you have paid for: If you're not completely satisfied, we'll give you a refund. —refund /ˈrɪfʌnd, ˈrɪfʌnd/ v. [T] re-fur-bish /rɪˈfəbɪʃ/ v. [T] to repair and improve a building: The hotel was recently refurbished. —refurbishment n. [C,U] re-fus-al /rɪˈfyuzəl/ n. [C,U] an act of saying or showing that you will not do, accept, or allow something: His refusal to pay the fine means he may go to prison.

re-fuse¹ /rɪ'fjuːz/ v. 1 [I,T] to say firmly that you will not do or accept something: I asked her to marry me, but she refused. | Steen refused to answer any questions. | The offer was too good to refuse (=so good that you cannot say no).

THESAURUS reject, turn down, say no, decline → REJECT¹

2 [T] to not give or allow someone to have something that s/he wants, especially when s/he has asked for it officially: We were refused permission to enter the country.

ref-use² /rɪ'fjuːs/ n. [U] (formal) waste material

THESAURUS garbage, trash, litter, waste → GARBAGE

re-fute /rɪ'fyuːt/ v. [T] (formal) to prove that a statement or idea is not correct or fair: Several scientists have attempted to refute Moore's theories.

re-gain /rɪ'geɪn/ v. [T] to get something back, especially an ability or quality that you have lost: The doctors don't know if Maria will ever regain the use of her legs.

re-gal /'rɪɡəl/ adj. typical of a king or queen and therefore very impressive [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin regalis, from rex "king"]

re-ga-lia /rɪ'geɪliə/ n. [U] traditional clothes and decorations, used at official ceremonies: a Native American chief in full regalia (=wearing traditional clothes, decorations, etc.)

re-gard¹ /rɪ'ɡɑːd/ n. (formal) 1 [U] respect for someone or something, or when you show respect to someone or something: Doctors are held in high regard (=respected very much) by society. | You have no regard for my feelings! 2 with/in regard to sth (formal) used in order to say what you are talking or writing about: Several changes have been made with regard to security. 3 regards [plural] used in order to send good wishes to someone in a polite and slightly formal way: Give my regards to your parents.

regard² v. [T] 1 [not in progressive] to think about someone or something in a particular way: I've always regarded you as my friend. | Carl's work is highly regarded by critics. 2 (formal) to look at someone or something, especially in a particular way: She regarded him thoughtfully.

THESAURUS look, glance, stare, gaze → LOOK¹

re-gard-ing /rɪ'ɡɑːdɪŋ/ prep. (formal) a word used especially in business letters to introduce the particular subject you are writing about: Regarding your recent inquiry, I've enclosed our new brochure.

THESAURUS about, concerning, with regard to, re → ABOUT¹ re-gard-less /rɪ'ɡɑːdlɪs/ adv. 1 regardless of sth without being affected by different situations, problems, etc.: The law requires equal treatment for all, regardless of race, religion, or sex. 2 if you continue doing something regardless, you do it in spite of difficulties or people telling you not to do it: He does what he wants regardless of what I say.

re-gat-ta /rɪ'ɡɑːtə, -'gæ-/ n. [C] a race for rowing or sailing boats [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Italian regattare "to compete"] re-gen-er-ate /rɪ'dʒenə'reɪt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to develop and grow strong again, or to make something do this: Given time, the forest will regenerate. —regeneration /rɪ'dʒenə'reɪʃən/ n. [U] re-gent /'rɪdʒənt/ n. [C] a member of a small group of people that makes decisions about education in a U.S. state, or that governs a university

reg-gae /'reɪgeɪ/ n. [U] a type of popular music from Jamaica [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 Jamaican English rege "rags"]

re-gime /reɪ'zɪm, rɪ-/ (Ac) n. [C] POLITICS a government, especially one that was not elected fairly, or that you disapprove of: a brutal military regime [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French régime, from Latin regimen, from regere "to rule"]

THESAURUS government, democracy, republic, monarchy, dictatorship, totalitarian country/state etc., police state → GOVERNMENT

re-gi-men /'redʒəmənt/ also regime n. [C] a special plan for eating, exercising, etc. that is intended to improve your health reg-i-ment /'redʒəmənt/ n. [C] a large group of soldiers consisting of several BATTALIONS —regimental /'redʒə'mentl/ adj.

reg-i-ment-ed /'redʒə'mentɪd/ adj. controlled very strictly: Prisoners follow a highly regimented schedule. —regimentation /'redʒəməntɪ'eɪʃən/ n. [U]

re-gion /'rɪdʒən/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a fairly large area of a state, country, etc., usually without exact limits: Snow is expected in mountain regions. | the Burgundy region of France

THESAURUS area, territory, zone, district → AREA

2 the area around a particular part of your body: He has some pain in the lower back region. 3 (some-where) in the region of sth about (SYN) approximately: It will cost in the region of $750. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin regio, from regere "to rule"] re-gion-al /'rɪdʒənəl/ (Ac) adj. relating to a particular region: a regional accent —regionally adv.

regional 'council n. [C] POLITICS a COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS

R

re-gion-al-ism /ˈrɪdʒənəlɪzəm/ n. [U] POLITICS loyalty to a particular part of a country and the desire for it to be more politically independent reg-is-ter¹ /ˈredʒəstər/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] a book containing an official list or record of something: He signed the register at the hotel. 2 [C] the place where the warm or cool air of a heating system comes into a room, with a metal cover you can open or close (Syn) vent 3 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a way of speaking or writing that is formal, informal, humorous, etc. that you use when you are in a particular situation 4 [C] a CASH REGISTER

register² (Ac) v. 1 [I,T] to record a name, details about something, etc. on an official list: The car is registered in my sister's name. 2 [I,T] to officially arrange to attend a particular school, university, or course (Syn) enroll: How many students have registered for Beginning Japanese? 3 [T] (formal) to express a feeling or opinion about something: Her face registered surprise and shock. 4 [I,T] if an instrument registers an amount, or if an amount registers on it, the instrument shows or records that amount: The thermometer registered 74°F.

R

registered 'mail n. [U] a service in which the post office records the time when your mail is sent and delivered registered 'nurse (abbreviation RN) n. [C] someone who has been trained and is officially allowed to work as a nurse

reg-is-trar /ˈredʒəstrər/ n. [C] someone who is in charge of official records, especially in a college

reg-is-tra-tion /ˈredʒəstreɪʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] the process of officially arranging to attend a particular school, university, or class (Syn) enrollment 2 [U] the act of recording names and details on an official list: laws requiring the registration of handguns 3 [C] an official piece of paper containing details about a vehicle and the name of its owner: May I see your license and registration, Ma'am?

reg-is-try /ˈredʒəstri/ n. (plural registries) [C] a place where official records are kept re-gress /rɪˈɡres/ v. [I] to go back to an earlier, less developed state (Ant) progress —regression /rɪˈɡresʃən/ n. [U]

re-gret¹ /rɪˈɡret/ v. (regretted, regretting) [T] 1 to feel sorry about something you have done and wish you had not done it: We've always regretted selling that car. | He regrets that he never went to college. | You'll regret it if you leave your job now. 2 (formal) [not in progressive] to be sorry and sad about a situation: I regret that I will be unable to attend.

regret² n. [C,U] sadness that you feel about something because you wish it had not happened or that you had not done it: The company expressed deep regret at the accident. | Carl said he had no regrets about his decision. —regretfully adv. —regretful adj.

re-gret-ta-ble /rɪˈɡretəbəl/ adj. something that is regrettable is something that you wish had not happened: a regrettable mistake —regrettably adv.

re-group /ˈriːɡrup/ v. [I,T] to form a group again in order to be more effective, or to make people do this: The party needs time to regroup politically.

reg-u-lar¹ /ˈregjələ/ adj.

1 REPEATED happening every hour, every week, every month, etc., usually with the same amount of time in between: His heartbeat is strong and regular. | We hear from him on a regular basis. | Planes were taking off at regular intervals.

THESAURUS

hourly – happening or done every hour: Legal advisors usually charge an hourly fee. | The tour of the studio departs hourly.

daily – happening or done every day: a daily newspaper | The park is open daily from 10:00 am.

weekly – happening or done every week: She writes a weekly column for the Boston Globe. | Our website is updated weekly.

monthly – happening or done every month: regular monthly meetings | The magazine is published monthly.

yearly – happening or done every year: yearly visits to his mother | The hospital keeps a record of the number of the operations performed yearly.

annual – happening every year: We hold our annual convention in May.

2 OFTEN happening or doing something very often: He's one of our regular customers. | Regular exercise will help you lose weight.

3 USUAL normal or usual: She's not our regular babysitter.

4 ORDINARY ordinary, without any special features or qualities: He's just a regular guy.

5 NORMAL SIZE of standard size: fries and a regular Coke

6 EVENLY SHAPED evenly shaped, with parts or sides of equal size: regular features (=an evenly shaped face)

7 GRAMMAR ENG. LANG. ARTS a regular verb or noun changes its forms in the same way as most verbs or nouns. The verb “walk” is regular, but “be” is not. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French reguler, from Latin regula “edge for drawing straight lines, rule”] —regularity /ˈregjəˈlærəti/ n. [U] regular² n. 1 [C] (informal) a customer who goes to the same store, restaurant, etc. very often: The bartender knows all the regulars by name. 2 [U] gas that contains LEAD

reg-u-lar-ly /ˈregjələli, ˈregjəli/ adv. 1 at regular times, for example every day, week, or month: Brush your teeth and see your dentist regularly. 2 often: Janet comes to visit regularly.

THESAURUS

often, a lot, frequently, repeatedly → OFTEN

reg-u-late /ˈregjələt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to control an activity or process, usually by having rules: The use of these drugs is strictly regulated. 2 (formal) to make a machine or your body work at a particular speed, temperature, etc.: People sweat to regulate their body heat.

reg-u-la-tion /ˈrɛɡjəˈleɪʃən/ n. 1 [C] an official rule or order: safety regulations | There seem to be so many rules and regulations.

THESAURUS rule, law, restriction, guidelines, statute → RULE¹

2 [C,U] ECONOMICS government control over the sale of particular goods or services in a country, or official limits on particular goods coming into or going out of a country: The total amount of bank credit is restricted by federal government regulations. | the regulation of trade

reg-u-la-tor /ˈrɛɡjələˌtɔː/ [Ac] n. [C] 1 someone or something that makes sure that an activity, system, or process operates in the right way: regulators of the banking system 2 an instrument or system for controlling the temperature, speed, etc. of something: Scuba divers breathe through a regulator so that they get the right amount of oxygen.

reg-u-la-to-ry /ˈrɛɡjələˌtɔːri/ [Ac] adj. (formal) having the purpose of controlling an activity or process, especially by rules: the Nuclear Regulatory Commission

reg-gur-gi-tate /rɪˈɡʊdʒəˌteɪt/ v. (formal) 1 [I,T] VOMIT 2 [T] (disapproving) to repeat facts, ideas, etc. that you have heard or read without understanding them clearly yourself —regurgitation /rɪˈɡʊdʒəˌteɪʃən/ n. [U] re-hab /ˈrihæb/ n. [U] (informal) treatment to help someone who takes drugs or drinks too much alcohol: Frank's been in rehab for six weeks.

re-ha-bil-i-tate /ˌriəˈbɪləˌteɪt, ˌrihə-/ v. [T] 1 to help someone to live a healthy or useful life again after s/he has been sick or in prison: The program helps to rehabilitate young criminals. 2 to improve a building or area so that it is in a good condition again —rehabilitation /ˌriəˈbɪləˌteɪʃən, ˌrihə-/ n. [U] re-hash /riˈhæʃ/ v. [T] (informal, disapproving) to use the same ideas again in a new form that is not really different or better: He keeps rehashing the same old speech. —rehash /riˈhæʃ/ n. [C] re-hears-al /rɪˈhɜːsəl/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a period of time or a particular occasion when all the people in a play, concert, etc. practice it before giving a public performance: a rehearsal for "Romeo and Juliet" re-hearse /rɪˈhɜːs/ v. [I,T] to practice something such as a play or concert before giving a public performance: They rehearsed the scene in her dressing room. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French rehercier, from herce “farm tool for breaking up soil”]

THESAURUS practice, work on sth → PRACTICE²

Reich /raɪk/ n. HISTORY the German state or

EMPIRE during a particular period of its history

reign¹ /reɪn/ n. 1 [C] the period of time during which someone rules a country: the reign of Queen Anne 2 [singular] a period of time during which someone is in control of an organization, business, etc.: his four-year reign as team coach 3 reign of terror a period during which a government, army, etc. uses violence to control people [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French regne, from Latin regnum, from rex “king”] reign² v. [I] 1 to be the ruler of a country 2 the reigning champion the most recent winner of a competition 3 (literary) if a feeling or quality reigns, it is the main feature of the situation: For a few moments confusion reigned.

re-im-burse /ˌrɪmˈbɜːs/ v. [T] (formal) to pay money back to someone: The company will reimburse you for your travel expenses. —reimbursement n. [U] rein /reɪn/ n. 1 [C usually plural] a long narrow band of leather that is fastened around a horse's head in order to control it 2 give sb (a) free rein to give someone complete freedom to say or do things the way s/he wants to 3 keep a tight rein on sb/sth to control someone or something strictly: The government is trying to keep a tight rein on public spending. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French rene, from Latin retinere, from tenere “to hold”] re-in-car-nate /ˌrɪnˈkɑːn,neɪt/ v. be reincarnated to be born again in another body after you have died re-in-car-na-tion /ˌrɪnkɑːnˈneɪʃən/ n. 1 [U] the belief that people return to life in another body after they have died 2 [C] the person or animal that a person becomes when they are reincarnated rein-deer /ˈreɪndɪr/ n. [C] a type of DEER with long horns that lives in very cold places re-in-force /ˌrɪnˈfɔːs/ [Ac] v. [T] 1 to support an opinion, feeling, system, etc. and make it stronger: The fire safety rules will be reinforced by regular drills. 2 to make something stronger, such as a part of a building, a piece of clothing, etc.: The concrete wall is reinforced with steel rods.

re-in-force-ment /ˌrɪnˈfɔːsmənt/ [Ac] n. 1 [U] the act of doing something to make an opinion, statement, feeling, etc. stronger: Parents should give their children positive reinforcement when their behavior is good (=praise them so that they will behave well again). 2 reinforcements [plural] more soldiers or police who are sent to help make a group stronger: The police called for reinforcements. 3 [U] the act of making something stronger: The bridge needs some structural reinforcement.

re-in-state /ˌrɪnˈsteɪt/ v. [T] 1 to put someone back into a job that s/he had before: Two employees who were wrongfully fired will be reinstated. 2 if a law, system, or practice is reinstated, it begins to be used after not being used —reinstatement n. [C,U]

R

re-in-ter-pret /ˌrɪn'təːprɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] (formal) to think about or perform something again in a slightly different way, especially to understand it in a new way: The book reinterprets the Dracula legend. —reinterpretation /ˌrɪntəˈprəʊtɪʃən/ n. [C,U] re-in-vent /ˌrɪn'vent/ v. [T] 1 reinvent yourself to completely change your appearance and image: To stay popular, pop stars must often reinvent themselves. 2 to make changes to an existing idea, method, system, etc. in order to improve it or make it more modern: The changes are an attempt to reinvent the American educational system. 3 reinvent the wheel (informal) to waste time trying to find a way of doing something, when someone else has already discovered the best way to do it re-is-sue /ri'ɪʃu/ v. [T] to produce a record, book, etc. again, after it has not been available for some time —reissue n. [C] re-it-e-rate /ri'ɪtə,reit/ v. [T] (formal) to say something more than once: Lawyers reiterated that there was no direct evidence against Mr. Evans. —reiteration /ri,ɪtə'reɪʃən/ n. [C,U] re-ject¹ /rɪ'dʒekt/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to not accept someone or something: She rejected our offers of help. | Tom was rejected by several law schools.

R

THESAURUS

reject – to say firmly that you will not accept an offer or suggestion: Morse's book was rejected by many publishers.

refuse – to say firmly that you do not want something that you have been offered: They refused all offers of help.

turn down (informal) – to say that you do not want something that you have been offered – use this especially when this is surprising: An advertising company offered her a job, but she turned it down.

say no (spoken) – to say you do not want something or will not accept a suggestion: I asked him if he wanted a drink, but he said no.

decline (formal) – to say politely that you cannot or will not accept an offer: Mr. and Mrs. Forester declined the invitation. → ACCEPT, AGREE, REFUSE¹

2 to decide that you do not believe in or agree with something: Kim has rejected her parents' religious beliefs. 3 to not give someone love or attention: She feels rejected by her parents. 4 if your body rejects an organ that doctors have put in your body to replace your own, your body produces substances that attack the organ [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of reicere “to throw back”] re-ject² /rɪ'dʒekt/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a product that is thrown away because it is damaged or imperfect 2 (spoken) someone who is not accepted or liked by other people

re-jec-tion /rɪ'dʒekʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] the act of not accepting something: The council's rejection of the proposal was unexpected. | She received many rejections before the novel was published. 2 [U] a situation in which someone stops giving you love or attention: fear of rejection 3 [U] a situation in which your body rejects an organ re-joice /rɪ'dʒɔɪs/ v. [I] (literary) to feel or show that you are very happy —rejoicing n. [U] re-join /rɪ'dʒɔɪn/ v. [T] to return to a group or person: She rejoined her friends in the lobby.

re-join-der /rɪ'dʒɔɪndə/ n. [C] (formal) a reply, especially one that is rude re-ju-ve-nate /rɪ'dʒuvə,neɪt/ v. [T] 1 to make someone feel or look young and strong again: After a workout, I feel rejuvenated. 2 to make a system or place better again: the rejuvenated downtown area —rejuvenation /rɪ,dʒuvə'neɪʃən/ n. [singular, U] re-kin-dle /rɪ'kɪndl/ v. [T] to make someone have a particular feeling, thought, etc. again: Was this a chance to rekindle an old romance?

re-lapse /rɪ'læps/ n. [C,U] a situation in which someone feels sick again after seeming to improve: He's had/suffered a relapse. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of relabi “to slide back”] —relapse v. [I] re-late /rɪ'leɪt/ v. 1 [T] to show or prove a connection between two or more things: I don't understand how the two ideas relate. 2 [I] to be concerned with or directly connected to a particular subject: How does this job relate to your career goals? 3 [T] (formal) to tell someone about something that has happened: He later related the whole story to us.

relate to sb/sth phr. v. to understand how someone feels: I find it hard to relate to kids.

re-lat-ed /rɪ'leɪtɪd/ adj. 1 connected by similar ideas or dealing with similar subjects: Police believe the murders are related. | Lung cancer and other diseases are related to smoking. | Politics and economics are closely related.

THESAURUS

connected/linked – related: These two problems are closely connected with each other. | Police think that the crimes may be linked.

relevant – related to what you are talking about: Are you sure this is relevant to our discussion?

pertinent (formal) – if something is pertinent to what is being discussed, it is directly related to it and it is important to consider it: They asked some very pertinent questions.

have nothing to do with sth (spoken) – to have no relation or effect on what you are discussing: They deserved to win. Luck has nothing to do with it.

2 stress-related/drug-related etc. caused by or relating to stress, drugs, etc.: alcohol-related violence 3 connected by a family relationship: Are you related to Paula?

re-la-tion /rɪ'leɪʃən/ n. 1 in relation to sb/sth used when comparing two things or showing the relationship between them: The area of land is tiny

in relation to the population. 2 relations [plural] official connections and attitudes between countries, organizations, groups, etc.: Are the relations between the staff and students good? | Israel's relations with its Arab neighbors | The U.S. has maintained diplomatic relations with Laos. 3 [C,U] a connection between two things: Is there any relation between the medication he was taking and his death? | This case bears no relation to (=is not connected with or similar to) the Goldman trial. 4 [C] a member of your family (SYN) relative

THESAURUS family, relative, folks, kin →
FAMILY

re-la-tion-ship /rɪˈleɪʃən,ʃɪp/ n. 1 [C] the way in which two people or groups behave toward each other: They seem to have a good relationship. | A mother's relationship with her children is important to their development. | In his speech, he mentioned the special relationship between the U.S. and Britain. 2 [C] a situation in which two people have sexual or romantic feelings for each other: *a sexual relationship | He's much happier now that he's in a relationship. 3 [C,U] the way in which two or more things are related to each other: The study looked at the relationship between pay and performance at work.

re-la-tive¹ /ˈrelətv/ n. [C] a member of your family: *a close relative (=mother, brother, cousin, etc.) | distant relatives (=second or third cousins, etc. that you rarely see)

THESAURUS family, relation, folks, kin →
FAMILY

relative² adj. 1 having a particular quality when compared with something else: The 1950s were a time of relative peace/calm/prosperity for the country. 2 relative to sth relating to or compared with a particular subject: Demand for corn is low relative to the supply.

relative 'clause n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a part of a sentence that has a verb in it and is joined to the rest of the sentence by a RELATIVE PRONOUN. In the sentence "The dress that I bought is too small," "that I bought" is the relative clause.

re-la-tive-ly /ˈrelətvli/ adv. to a particular degree, especially when compared to something similar: It's a relatively inexpensive restaurant.

relative 'pronoun n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a PRONOUN such as "who," "which," or "that," which connects a relative clause to the rest of the sentence. In the sentence "The dress that I bought is too small," "that" is the relative pronoun.

rel-a-tiv-i-ty /ˈreləˈtɪvəti/ n. [U] PHYSICS the relationship between time, space, and movement: *Einstein's theory of relativity

re-lax /rɪˈlæks/ (Ac) v. 1 [I,T] to become more calm and less worried, especially by resting or doing something enjoyable, or to make someone do this: What do you do to relax? | Taking long, deep,

regular breaths can help to relax you. 2 [I,T] if a part of your body relaxes, or if you relax it, it becomes less stiff and tight: Try to relax your neck. | Let your muscles relax. 3 [T] to make rules, controls, etc. less strict: Are there plans to relax the law? [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin relaxare "to loosen," from laxus "loose"] re-lax-a-tion /ˌrɪlæksəˈʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] the state of being relaxed in your mind and body, or the process of becoming this way: I like to cook for relaxation. 2 [U] the process of making rules, controls, etc. less strict: the relaxation of travel restrictions re-laxed /rɪˈlækst/ (Ac) adj. 1 calm and not worried or angry: He looked much more relaxed when I saw him last week.

THESAURUS calm, laid-back, easygoing, mellow, cool, serene → CALM²

2 a situation or attitude that is relaxed is informal and not strict: There's a relaxed atmosphere in class.

re-lax-ing /rɪˈlæksɪŋ/ (Ac) adj. making you feel calm: relaxing music

re-lay¹ /ˈrɪleɪ, rɪˈleɪ/ v. (relayed, relays) [T] to send a message or information from one person, thing, or place to another person, thing, or place: Could you relay the message to Mary for me?

re-lay² /ˈrɪleɪ/ also 'relay race n. [C] a race in which each member of a team runs or swims part of the distance re-lease¹ /rɪˈleɪs/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to allow someone to be free after you have kept him/her somewhere: Three hostages were released this morning. | With this type of operation, patients are usually released from the hospital the same day.. 2 to stop holding something: He released her arm when she screamed. 3 to let news or information be known publicly: Details of the crime have not been released. 4 to make a movie, record, etc. available for people to buy or see: The movie will be released in time for Christmas. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French relessier, from Latin relaxare "to loosen"]

release² (Ac) n. 1 [singular] the act of allowing someone to be free after s/he has been kept somewhere: After his release from prison, he worked as a carpenter. 2 [C] a new movie, record, etc. that is available for people to see or buy: *the singer's latest release 3 [U] a feeling that you are free from worry or pain: *a sense of emotional release 4 [C,U] an official statement, report, etc. that can be printed or broadcast, or the act of making this available: *a press release | the release of previously secret information

rel-e-gate /ˈreləˌɡeɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to make someone or something less important than before: He's been relegated to the role of assistant. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, past participle of relegare "to send back to do a job"]

re-lent /rɪˈlent/ v. [I] to let someone do something that you refused to let him/her do before: At last, her father relented and she moved into her own apartment. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin lentare “to bend”]

R

re-lent-less /rɪˈləntləs/ adj. 1 if something bad is relentless, it continues without stopping or getting less severe: There’s relentless pressure on top athletes. | the relentless heat of the desert 2 someone who is relentless continues to do something in a determined way: We will be relentless in our pursuit of criminals. —relentlessly adv.

rel-e-vant /ˈrɛləvənt/ adj. directly relating to the subject or problem being discussed (ANT) irrelevant: The question is not relevant to my point. | We told the police all the relevant facts. —relevance n. [U]

THESAURUS related, connected, linked, pertinent → RELATED

re-li-a-ble /rɪˈlaɪəbəl/ adj. someone or something that is reliable can be trusted or depended on (SYN) dependable (ANT) unreliable: a reliable car | Our babysitter is very reliable. —reliably adv. —reliability /rɪˈlaɪəbɪləti/ n. [U] re-li-ance /rɪˈlaɪəns/ n. [singular, U] the state of being dependent on something: We need to reduce our reliance on imported oil.

re-li-ant /rɪˈlaɪənt/ adj. be reliant on/upon sb/sth to depend on something or someone → RELY: She’s still reliant on her parents for money.

rel-ic /ˈrɛlɪk/ n. [C] something from the past that still exists: relics of ancient Egypt [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French relique, from Latin reliquiae “things left behind”]

re-lief /rɪˈliːf/ n. 1 [singular, U] the happy feeling you have when something frightening, worrying, or painful has ended or has not happened: Final exams are finally over. What a relief! | It was a relief to finally be alone. | No one was hurt, and we all breathed a sigh of relief. | She listened to the news with relief. 2 [U] the reduction of pain: a medicine for pain relief | relief from the intense heat 3 [U] money, food, clothing, etc. given to people who need them by a government or other organization: disaster/earthquake/flood relief operations | Relief workers distributed bottles of water. 4 [C] a person or group of people that replaces another one and does their work after they have finished: a relief pitcher

re-lieve /rɪˈliːv/ v. [T] 1 to make a pain, problem, bad feeling, etc. less severe: The county is building a new school to relieve overcrowding. | We tried to relieve the boredom/tension by singing.

THESAURUS reduce, ease, lessen, soothe, alleviate, palliate → REDUCE

2 to replace someone else at a job or duty: The guards are relieved at six o’clock.

relieve sb of sth phr. v. (formal) to help someone by carrying something heavy or by doing something difficult for him/her: He rose and relieved her of her bags.

re-lieved /rɪˈliːvd/ adj. feeling happy because something bad did not happen or is finished → RELIEF: I was relieved to be out of the hospital. | We were relieved that Brian was home safe.

re-li-gion /rɪˈlɪdʒən/ n. [C,U] belief in one or more gods, or a particular system of beliefs in one or more gods: the study of religion | people of different religions [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Latin religio]

THESAURUS faith, belief, creed → FAITH

re-li-gious /rɪˈlɪdʒəs/ adj. 1 relating to religion: We don’t share the same religious beliefs. 2 believing strongly in your religion and obeying its rules: a very religious woman

THESAURUS

devout – having very strong religious beliefs: a devout Catholic pious – believing strongly in a religion, and showing this in how you behave: a pious woman attending church

God-fearing (old-fashioned) – behaving according to the moral rules of a religion: the God-fearing men and women of this town practicing – obeying the rules of a particular religion: a practicing Muslim orthodox – believing in all the traditional beliefs, laws, and practices of a religion: orthodox Jews re-li-gious-ly /rɪˈlɪdʒəsli/ adv. 1 regularly and thoroughly or completely: He exercises religiously. 2 in a way that is related to religion: a religiously diverse country (=one with many different religions) re-lin-quish /rɪˈlɪŋkwɪʃ/ v. [T] (formal) to give up your position, power, rights, etc.

re-lish /ˈrɛlɪʃ/ v. [T] to enjoy something or like it: Jamie didn’t relish the idea of getting up early.

THESAURUS enjoy, like, love → ENJOY

re-lish ² n. 1 [C,U] a cold SAUCE eaten especially with meat to add taste: pickle relish 2 [U] great enjoyment of something: Barry ate with great relish.

re-live /rɪˈlɪv/ v. [T] to experience something again that happened in past times, or to remember it clearly: I’m focusing on the future, not reliving the past.

re-load /rɪˈləʊd/ v. [I,T] 1 to put something into a container again, especially bullets into a gun 2 IT if you reload a page on the Internet, you ask for the information shown on that page to be sent to your computer again re-lo-cate /rɪˈləʊkeɪt/ v. [I,T] to move to a new place: Our company relocated to the West Coast. —relocation /rɪləʊˈkeɪʃən/ n. [U] re-luc-tant /rɪ'lʌktənt/ Ac adj. unwilling and slow to do something: a reluctant nod | She was reluctant to ask for help. —reluctance n. [singular, U] —reluctantly adv.

re-ly /rɪ'laɪ/ Ac v. (relied, relies) [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French relier, from Latin religare “to tie back”] rely on/upon sb/sth phr. v. to trust or depend on someone or something: We're relying on him to help. | The country's economy relies heavily on agricultural exports.

re-main /rɪ'meɪn/ v. 1 [I, linking verb] to stay in the same place or condition: The others left, while I remained at home. | Veltman remained silent. 2 [I] to continue to exist after other things or parts have gone or been destroyed: Only half the statue remains. 3 [I] if something remains to be done, said, etc., it still needs to be done, said, etc.: Many questions remain to be answered. | It remains to be seen whether the operation was successful (=we do not know yet whether it was successful). [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French remanere, from Latin remanere, from manere “to stay”] re-main-der /rɪ'meɪndə/ n. the remainder (of sth) the rest of something after everything else has gone or been dealt with: the remainder of the semester re-main-ing /rɪ'meɪnɪŋ/ adj. still left when other similar things or people have gone or been dealt with: The remaining puppies were given away.

re-mains /rɪ'meɪnz/ n. [plural] 1 the parts of something that are left after the rest has been destroyed: We visited the remains of the temple. 2 (formal) a person's body after s/he has died re-make /rɪ'meɪk/ n. [C] a movie or song that has the same story as one that was made before: a remake of “The Wizard of Oz” —remake /rɪ'meɪk/ v. [T] re-mand /rɪ'mænd/ v. [T] 1 LAW if a court remands someone, it sends him/her to prison to wait for a TRIAL: The prosecutor asked the judge to remand Nelson into federal custody. 2 LAW to send a case to be dealt with in another court re-mark¹ /rɪ'mɑːk/ n. [C] something that you say: Carl made a sarcastic remark.

remark² v. [T] to say something, especially your opinion about something: One woman remarked that he was handsome. | Several people remarked on/upon the poor service.

re-mark-a-ble /rɪ'mɑːkəbəl/ adj. very unusual or noticeable in a way that deserves attention or praise: Josephine was a truly remarkable woman.

re-mark-a-bly /rɪ'mɑːkəbli/ adv. in a way that is surprising: Charlotte and her cousin look remarkably similar.

re-mar-ry /rɪ'mæri/ v. (remarried, remarries) [I,T] to marry again: After her husband's death, Carol never remarried. —remarriage n. [C,U] re-mas-ter /rɪ'mæstə/ v. [T] to improve the quality of a movie or musical recording, using a computer re-me-di-al /rɪ'mɪdiəl/ adj. 1 remedial class/education etc. a special class, etc. for students who are having difficulty learning something 2 (formal) intended to provide a cure or improvement in something rem-e-dy¹ /rɪ'mədi/ n. (plural remedies) [C] 1 a successful way of dealing with a problem: a remedy for unemployment

THESAURUS

solution, answer, cure →

SOLUTION

2 a medicine that cures pain or illness: a cold remedy [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Anglo-French remedie, from Latin remedium, from mederi “to heal”] remedy² v. (remedied, remedies) [T] to deal successfully with a problem or improve a bad situation: The hospital is trying to remedy the problem.

R

re-mem-ber /rɪ'membə/ v. 1 [I,T] to have a picture or idea in your mind of people, events, etc. from the past: Do you remember that guy Anthony from school? | I don't remember meeting her before. | I remember (that) he had a broken leg that summer. | Mr. Daniels has lived there for as long as I can remember. 2 [I,T] to bring information or facts that you know back into your mind: She suddenly remembered (that) she had to go to the dentist. | I can't remember her phone number. 3 [I,T] to not forget to do something: Remember to get some milk at the store today! 4 [T] to think about someone who has died, with special respect and honor: On Memorial Day, we remember those who have died in wars. 5 be remembered for/as sth to be famous for something important that you did [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French remember, from Latin memor “remembering”] remember – to think of something that you must do, and not forget about it: I hope he remembers to bring the wine.

USAGE

remind – to make someone remember something s/he must do or something s/he needs to know: Remind me to take a bottle of wine to the party.

re-mem-brance /rɪ'membrəns/ n. [U] the act of remembering and giving honor to someone who has died: She planted a tree in remembrance of her husband.

re-mind /rɪ'maɪnd/ v. [T] to make someone remember something that s/he must do: Remind me to tell you the story sometime. | Let me call Frank to remind him that we're picking him up at 8:00. → see USAGE box at REMEMBER remind sb of sb/sth phr. v. to seem similar to someone or something else: Carl reminds me of his father.

re-mind-er /rɪ'maɪndə/ n. [C] something that makes you notice or remember something else: a painful reminder of the war

rem-i-nisce /ˌrɛmə'nɪs/ v. [I] to talk or think about pleasant events in your past: We sat reminiscing about our college days. —reminiscence n. [C,U] rem-i-nis-cent /ˌrɛmə'nɪsənt/ adj. reminiscent of sth reminding you of something: His voice is reminiscent of Frank Sinatra's.

re-miss /rɪ'mɪs/ adj. (formal) careless about doing something that you ought to do: Investigators would be remiss if they didn't pursue every possible lead.

re-mis-sion /rɪ'mɪʃən/ n. [C,U] a period of time when an illness improves: Her cancer is in remission.

R

re-mit /rɪ'mɪt/ v. (remitted, remitting) [I,T] (formal) to send a payment by mail re-mit-tance /rɪ'mɪtəns/ n. [C,U] (formal) the act of sending money by mail, or the amount of money that is sent rem-nant /ˈrɛmnənt/ n. [C] a small part of something that remains after the rest has been used or destroyed: In New Mexico, there are remnants of old Spain in the street names.

re-mod-el /rɪ'mɑːl/ v. [T] to change the shape or appearance of something: We've had the kitchen remodeled.

rem-on-strate /ˈrɛmənstreɪt, rɪ'mənstreɪt/ v. [I] (formal) to tell someone that you strongly disapprove of what s/he has done re-morse /rɪ'mɔːs/ n. [U] a strong feeling of being sorry for doing something very bad: Keating showed/expressed no remorse for his crime. —remorseless adj.: a remorseless killer —remorseful adj.

re-mote /rɪ'moʊt/ adj. 1 far away in distance or time: a remote forest area | the remote past 2 very slight or small: There's a remote possibility/chance that the operation will not work. | The prospects for peace seem very remote. 3 very different from something else, or not closely related to it: Political subjects seemed remote from my everyday life. 4 unfriendly, and not interested in people: Her father was a remote, stern man. —remoteness n. [U]

re,mote con'trol also remote n. [C] a piece of equipment that you use to control a television, video, etc. from a distance → TELEVISION —remote-controlled adj.: a remote-controlled car re-mote-ly /rɪ'moʊtli/ adv. used in order to emphasize a negative statement: This is not even remotely funny.

re-mov-a-ble /rɪ'mʊvəbəl/ (Ac) adj. able to be removed: a child's bed with removable railings

re-mov-al /rɪ'mʊvəl/ (Ac) n. [C,U] the act of removing something: the removal of diseased trees from the park | his removal from power

re-move /rɪ'mʊv/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to take something away from, out of, or off the place where it is: He removed his glasses and rubbed his eyes. | Remove the pan from the oven to cool.

THESAURUS

Informal ways of saying "remove" take off – to remove clothing: She began to take off her clothes.

tear off – to remove part of a piece of paper or cloth by tearing it: Tear off the coupon below.

break off – to remove a part of something by breaking it: Ted broke off a piece of chocolate.

cut off – to remove a part of something by cutting it: Tree surgeons cut off the dead branches.

cut out – to remove a part of something by cutting around it: The kids were cutting pictures out of magazines.

scrape off – to remove something using a knife or sharp tool: We began by scraping off the wallpaper.

wipe off/up – to remove dirt, liquid, etc. with a cloth: He wiped the sweat off his forehead. | Julie wiped up the spilled milk.

rub off – to remove dirt, marks, etc. with a cloth or brush: He rubbed off some of the rust.

More formal ways of saying "remove"

erase – to remove writing from paper, recorded sounds from tape, or information from a computer's memory: Write in pencil so you can erase your mistakes.

efface (formal) – to remove something so that it cannot be seen or noticed: The country has tried to efface the incident, and it is not mentioned in textbooks.

expunge (formal) – to deliberately remove something such as a name or piece of information from a piece of writing: The arrest and charge were later expunged from his record.

2 to get rid of something so it does not exist anymore: Chocolate ice cream stains are difficult to remove. 3 be (far) removed from sth to be very different from something else: This job is far removed from anything that I've done before. 4 (formal) to make someone leave a job: They voted to remove her from office. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French remouvoir, from Latin removere, from move "to move"] re-mov-er /rɪ'mʊvə/ n. paint/stain etc. remover a substance that removes paint, etc. from something else re-mu-ner-ate /rɪ'myʊnəreɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to pay someone for something s/he has done —remuneration /rɪ'myʊnə'reɪʃən/ n. [C,U] ren-ais-sance /ˈrɛnəˌzɑːns, -ˌsɑːns, ˌrɛnəˌsɑːns/ n. 1 [singular] a new interest or development in something that has not been popular: the renaissance in women's sports 2 the Renaissance the time in Europe between the 14th and

17th centuries when a lot of new art and literature was produced re-nal /'rinl/ adj. [only before noun] BIOLOGY relating to the KIDNEYS: renal failure

re-name /ri'neim/ v. [T] to change the name of something ren-der /'rendə/ v. [T] (formal) 1 to cause someone or something to be in a particular state: The accident rendered her left leg useless. 2 to give someone something: It is the jury's responsibility to render a fair verdict. | payment for services rendered (=for work someone has done) ren-der-ing /'rendərɪŋ/ n. [C] the particular way a painting, story, etc. is expressed ren-dez-vous /'rændɛv, vu, -dɪ-/ n. (plural ren-dezvous /-,vuz/) [C] an arrangement to meet someone at a particular time and place, or the place where you meet: a midnight rendezvous with her lover —rendezvous v. [I] ren-di-tion /rɛn'dɪʃən/ n. [C] the way that a play, piece of music, art, etc. is performed or made: a powerful rendition of "America the Beautiful" ren-e-gade /'rɛnə,geɪd/ n. [C] someone who joins the opposing side in a war, argument, etc. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Spanish renegado, from Medieval Latin renegare "to say that something is not true"] —renegade adj.: renegade soldiers re-nege /ri'neg, -'nɪg/ v. [I] to not do something that you promised to do: He reneged on his promise to send the money.

re-new /rɪ'nu/ v. [T] 1 to arrange for something such as a contract to continue: It's time to renew our insurance. | Library books can be renewed by phone. 2 (formal) to begin to do something again [SYN] resume: The search will be renewed in the morning. —renewal n. [C,U]

re-new-a-ble /rɪ'nuəbəl/ adj. 1 a renewable contract, ticket, etc. can be made to continue after the date that it is supposed to end 2 able to be replaced by natural processes so that it is never used up (ANT) nonrenewable: Water is a natural renewable resource. | renewable energy, for example solar power

re-newed /rɪ'nud/ adj. increasing again after not being very strong: his renewed interest in religion

re-nounce /rɪ'naʊns/ v. [T] 1 to say publicly that you will no longer try to keep something, or will not stay in an important position: Grayson renounced his claim to the family fortune. 2 to say publicly that you no longer believe in or support something: We absolutely renounce all forms of terrorism.

ren-o-vate /'rɛnə,veɪt/ v. [T] to repair something such as a building so that it is in good condition again [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of renovare, from novare "to make new"] —renovation /rɛnə'veɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

THESAURUS repair, fix, restore, rebuild, recondition → REPAIR²

re-nown /rɪ'naʊn/ n. [U] the quality of being famous and admired because of some special skill or achievement: an artist of great renown

re-nowned /rɪ'naʊnd/ adj. known and admired by a lot of people [SYN] famous: a renowned architect | She was renowned for her beauty.

THESAURUS famous, well-known, legendary, celebrated, noted, distinguished, eminent → FAMOUS

rent¹ /rɛnt/ v. 1 [I,T] to pay money regularly to live in a place that belongs to someone else: They're renting an apartment near the beach. | I rented for years before buying a place.

TOPIC

When you rent a house or apartment, you are called the tenant. You usually have to pay a deposit before moving in. The deposit/security deposit is usually an amount of money equal to a month's rent, or equal to the first and last month's rent. After that you pay the rent every month to the landlord/landlady (=owner). If you do not pay the rent or behave well, the landlord can evict you (=force you to leave). If you want to stop renting the house or apartment, you have to give notice (=tell the landlord you want to leave), usually a month before you want to leave.

R

2 [T] to pay money for the use of something for a short period of time: We're probably going to rent a car while we're there. | Do you want to rent a movie? 3 [I,T] also rent out to let someone live in a place that you own, in return for money: They've rented out their house for the summer. | He refused to rent to unmarried couples. —renter n.

rent² n. [C,U] 1 the amount of money you pay for the use of a house, room, car, etc. that belongs to someone else: I don't know how we're going to pay the rent next month.

THESAURUS cost, expense, price, charge, fee, fare → COST¹

2 for rent available to be rented: She put the house up for rent a month ago.

rent-al¹ /'rentl/ n. 1 [C,U] an arrangement by which you rent something: car rental companies 2 [U] the money that you pay to rent something: Ski rental is $14.

rental² adj. available to be rented, or being rented: a rental car | rental properties

'rent con,trol n. [U] official action taken by a city or state to limit the price of renting apartments re-nun-ci-a-tion /rɪ,nʌnsi'eɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) the act of renouncing (RENOUNCE) something re-or-ga-nize /rɪ'ɔrgə,naɪz/ v. [I,T] to arrange or organize something in a new and better way: The filing system needs to be reorganized. —reorganization /rɪ'ɔrgənə'zeɪʃən/ n. [U]

THESAURUS change, alter, reform, restructure → CHANGE¹

rep /rep/ n. [C] (informal) someone who represents an organization or a company and its products [SYN] representative: a sales rep

re-pair¹ /rɪˈpeɪ/ n. 1 [C usually plural, U] something that you do to fix something that is broken or damaged: They're doing repairs on/to the bridge. | The roof is badly in need of repair. | It's damaged beyond repair (=so damaged that it cannot be repaired). 2 in good/bad repair (formal) in good or bad condition [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French reparer, from Latin reparare, from parare “to prepare”] repair² v. [T] to fix something that is broken or damaged: I have to get the TV repaired. | Jones had surgery to repair the damage to his knees.

R

THESAURUS

fix – to repair something that is broken or not working correctly: Someone's coming to fix the washing machine.

mend – to repair a hole in something, especially a piece of clothing: She was mending a pair of jeans.

renovate – to repair a building or furniture so that it is in good condition again: a renovated 19th century hotel restore – to repair something so that it looks new: The church was carefully restored after the war.

service – to examine a machine or vehicle and repair it if necessary: I need to take the car in to get it serviced.

rebuild – to build something again, after it has been damaged or destroyed: This government aid will help rebuild homes damaged by the storm.

recondition – to repair a machine so that it can be sold again: a VW camper with a reconditioned engine re-pair-man /rɪˈpɛrmən/ n. (plural repairmen /-mən/) [C] someone whose job it is to fix a particular type of thing: a TV repairman rep-a-ra-tion /ˌrɛpəˈreɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) payment made to someone for damage, injury, etc. that you have caused: The government agreed to pay reparations to victims.

re-pa-tri-ate /rɪˈpeɪtri,eɪt/ v. [T] to send someone back to his/her own country —repatriation /rɪˌpeɪtriˈeɪʃən/ n. [U] re-pay /rɪˈpeɪ/ v. (past tense and past participle repaid, third person singular repays) [T] 1 to pay back money that you have borrowed: How long will it take to repay the loan? 2 to show someone that you are grateful for his/her help: How can I ever repay you? —repayment n. [C,U] re-peal /rɪˈpiːl/ v. [T] to officially end a law: In 1933, Prohibition was finally repealed. —repeal n. [U]

re-peat¹ /rɪˈpiːt/ v. [T] 1 to say or do something again: Sally kept repeating, “It wasn’t me, it wasn’t me.” | You’ll have to repeat the class. | He’s always repeating himself (=saying the same thing again). 2 to say something that you have heard someone else say: Please don’t repeat any of this to Bill.

repeat² n. [C] an event that is just like something that happened before: I don’t want to see a repeat performance of last year (=have the same thing happen).

re-peat-ed /rɪˈpiːtɪd/ adj. done or happening again and again: She has made repeated attempts to lose weight. —repeatedly adv.: He has repeatedly denied the rumor.

re-pel /rɪˈpɛl/ v. (repelled, repelling) 1 [T] to use force to make someone who is attacking you go away: Tear gas was used to repel the rioters. 2 [T] if something repels you, you dislike it a lot and want to avoid it 3 [I,T] PHYSICS if two things repel each other, they push each other away with a MAGNETIC force: Two positive electrical charges will repel each other. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin repellere, from pellere “to drive”] re-pel-lent¹ /rɪˈpɛlənt/ n. [C,U] a substance that keeps insects away from you: mosquito repellent repellent² adj. disgusting: The sight of blood is repellent to some people.

re-pent /rɪˈpɛnt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to be sorry for something that you have done, especially something that breaks a religious law —repentance n. [U] re-pen-tant /rɪˈpɛntənt/ adj. sorry for something wrong that you have done (ANT) unrepentant: His apology was sincerely repentant. —repentantly adv.

re-per-cus-sions /ˌrɪpəˈkʌʃən/ n. [plural] the effects of an action or event, especially bad effects that happen much later: The collapse of the company will have repercussions for the whole industry.

THESAURUS

result, consequences, aftereffects → RESULT¹

rep-er-toire /ˈrɛpəˌtwɑː/ n. [C usually singular] all the plays, pieces of music, etc. that a performer or group can perform

rep-e-ti-tion /ˌrɛpəˈtɪʃən/ n. [C,U] the act of saying or doing the same thing again or many times → REPEAT: We don’t want a repetition of last year’s disaster. | Kids learn the times tables by repetition.

rep-e-ti-tious /ˌrɛpəˈtɪʃəs/ adj. saying or doing the same thing many times, so that people become bored: a repetitious speech re-pet-i-tive /rɪˈpɛtətɪv/ adj. done many times in the same way: repetitive exercises

re-phrase /rɪ'freɪz/ v. [T] to express something in different words so that its meaning is clearer or more acceptable: Let me rephrase the question.

re-place /rɪ'pleɪs/ v. [T] 1 to start doing something, or being used instead of another person or thing: Typewriters have been replaced by computers. 2 to remove someone from his/her job or something from its place, and put a different person or thing there: They have replaced thousands of full-time workers with part-timers. 3 to buy something that is newer or better, in order to use it instead of something that is old or broken: The tires need to be replaced. 4 to put something back in its correct place: Please replace the books when you are finished.

re-place-ment /rɪ'pleɪsmənt/ n. 1 [C] someone or something that replaces another person or thing: We're waiting for Mr. Dunley's replacement. 2 [U] the act of replacing something re-play /'rɪpleɪ/ n. [C] a sports game, or particular part of the game, that has been recorded and is shown again: an instant replay (=immediate replay) of the touchdown re-plen-ish /rɪ'plɛnɪʃ/ v. [T] (formal) to put new supplies into something, or to fill something again [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Old French replenir, from plein “full”] —replenishment n. [U] re-plete /rɪ'plɪt/ adj. (formal) full of something: a new car replete with leather seats

rep-li-ca /'replɪkə/ n. [C] a very good copy of a piece of art, a building, etc. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Italian “something repeated,” from Latin replīcare] rep-li-cate /'replə,keɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to do or make something again, so that you get the same result or make an exact copy: Scientists are trying to replicate Hudson's experiment.

THESAURUS copy, reproduce, duplicate → COPY²

rep-li-ca-tion /replə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the process by which a cell or DNA (=substance in a cell, that contains GENETIC information) makes an exact copy of itself: During replication, each strand of DNA generates a new strand.

re-ply /rɪ'plaɪ/ v. (replied, replies) [I,T] to answer someone by saying or writing something: “Of course,” she replied. | He never replied to our letters. | Deagal replied that he had not known what would happen.

THESAURUS answer, respond → ANSWER¹

reply ² n. (plural replies) [C,U] something that is said, written, or done in order to reply to someone: There haven't been any replies to the ad. | Billy made no reply.

re-port ¹ /rɪ'pɔ:t/ n. [C] 1 a written or spoken description of a situation or event, giving people information: a police report on the accident | a *weather report → NEWSPAPER 2 a piece of writing in which someone carefully examines a particular subject: *a book report | *an environmental impact report 3 (formal) the noise of an explosion or shot

report ² v. 1 [I,T] to tell someone about something, especially in newspapers and on television: The Daily Gazette reported the story. | A journalist reporting on the election wrote the story. 2 [T] to tell someone in authority that a crime or accident has happened: Three boys were reported missing. | Only 4% of burglaries are reported to police. 3 be reported to be/do sth used in order to say that a statement has been made about someone or something, but you do not know if it is true: Cummings was reported to be furious. 4 [I,T] to tell someone, especially your manager, about what has been happening or what you are doing, as part of your job: Each naval station reports to an admiral. 5 [I] to state officially to someone in authority that you have arrived in a place: Visitors should report to reception. | One of the soldiers had not reported for duty. 6 [T] to complain officially about someone to people in authority: A customer reported her to her supervisor.

report back phr. v. to bring someone information that s/he asked you to find: The committee reported back to Congress.

report card n. [C] a written statement by teachers about a child's work at school re-port-ed-ly /rɪ'pɔ:tɪdli/ adv. according to what some people say, but when it is not known for certain: Two soldiers reportedly were injured.

reported 'speech n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the style of speech or writing used for reporting what someone says, without repeating the actual words. The sentence “She said she didn't feel well.” is an example of reported speech. (SYN) indirect speech → DIRECT SPEECH re-port-er /rɪ'pɔ:tə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to write or tell about events in a newspaper or on radio or television → JOURNALIST: a newspaper reporter → NEWSPAPER

re-pose /rɪ'pəʊz/ n. [U] (formal) a state of calm or comfortable rest (SYN) rest: She looked pale and tired in repose. —reposeful adj.

re-pos-i-to-ry /rɪ'pəzə,tɔ:ri/ n. (plural repositories) [C] (formal) a place where things are kept safely: a repository for nuclear waste

re-pos-sess /rɪpə'zɛs/ v. [T] to take back something such as a car or furniture that someone has paid part of the money for because s/he cannot pay the rest of the money rep-re-hen-si-ble /,reprɪ'hɛnsəbəl/ adj. (formal) reprehensible behavior is very bad and deserves criticism

THESAURUS bad, immoral, wrong → BAD¹

rep-re-sent /,reprɪ'zɛnt/ v. 1 [T] to do things or speak officially for someone else, or to express his/her views or opinions: She represents the 5th congressional district of Texas. | They want a school board that represents their educational values. 2 [linking verb] to form or be something: The talks represent a significant step toward peace. 3 [T] to be a sign or mark for something else (SYN stand for): The green triangles on the map represent campgrounds. 4 [T] if art represents something, it shows or means a thing or idea: Paintings representing heaven and hell were common in medieval art. 5 [T] to describe someone or something in a particular way, especially in a way that is not true: The author was criticized for the way he represents women.

rep-re-sen-ta-tion /ˌrɛprɪzənˈteɪʃən, -zən-/ n. 1 [U] the state of having someone to speak, vote, or make decisions for you: There is no representation on the council for the Hispanic community. 2 [U] the state of being present in a place, or of taking part in something: The representation of minorities among the faculty should be increased. 3 [C] something, for example a painting or sign, that shows or describes something else: The model is a representation of a water molecule.

rep-re-sent-a-tive¹ /ˌrɛprɪˈzɛntətɪv/ n. [C] 1 someone who is chosen to act, speak, vote, etc. for someone else 2 also Representative POLITICS a member of the House of Representatives in the U.S. Congress representative² adj. 1 like other members of the same group (SYN typical): The sample is representative of the total population. 2 relating to a system of government in which people elect other people to represent them: representative democracy

re-press /rɪˈpres/ v. [T] 1 to stop yourself from expressing a feeling, remembering something, or doing something you want to do: Boys learn to repress their need to cry. 2 to control people by using force re-pressed /rɪˈprest/ adj. (disapproving) having feelings or desires that you do not express re-pres-sion /rɪˈpreʃən/ n. [U] 1 the use of force to control people: Stalin's repression of religious groups 2 the action of stopping yourself from feeling an emotion, or the state of having done this re-pres-sive /rɪˈpresɪv/ adj. controlling people in a cruel and severe way: a repressive society re-prieve /rɪˈprɪv/ n. [C] 1 a delay before something bad happens or continues: a reprieve from the pain 2 an official order that prevents a prisoner from being killed as a punishment → PARDON —reprieve v. [T]

rep-ri-mand /ˈrɛprəˌmænd/ v. [T] to tell someone officially that s/he has done something wrong: He was reprimanded for failing to do his duty. —reprimand n. [C,U]

THESAURUS scold, rebuke, admonish → CRITICIZE

re-pris-al /rɪˈpraɪzəl/ n. [C,U] a violent action that punishes your enemy for something bad that s/he has done re-prise /rɪˈprɪz/ v. [I,T] to act the same part again, play the same tune again, etc.

re-proach¹ /rɪˈprəʊʃ/ n. 1 [C,U] criticism or disapproval, or a remark that expresses this: The reproach in her voice made me pause. 2 above/beyond reproach impossible to criticize (SYN perfect): The actions of the police should be above reproach.

reproach² v. [T] to criticize someone and try to make him/her sorry for doing something: His daughter reproached him for not telling her the truth. —reproachful adj.

rep-ro-bate /ˈrɛprəˌbeɪt/ n. [C] (formal or humorous) someone who behaves in an immoral way re-pro-duce /ˌrɪprəˈdus/ v. 1 [I,T] BIOLOGY to produce young plants or animals: Most fish reproduce by laying eggs. 2 [T] to make a copy of something: The colors were difficult to reproduce.

THESAURUS copy, duplicate, replicate → COPY² re-pro-duc-tion /ˌrɪprəˈdʌkʃən/ n. 1 [U] BIOLOGY the act or process of producing babies, young animals, or plants: We studied the reproduction and diet of the elephants in the forest. 2 [C,U] the act of copying something such as a book or painting, or the copy itself: a reproduction of Homer's painting

re-pro-duc-tive /ˌrɪprəˈdʌktɪv/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to the process of producing babies, young animals, or plants: the reproductive system of mammals repro-ductive iso-lation n. [U] BIOLOGY conditions that prevent one population of living things from breeding with another, for example a physical difference between creatures or when a river, ocean, or mountain, etc. separates them re-prove /rɪˈpruv/ v. [T] (formal) to criticize someone for doing something bad rep-tile /ˈrɛptail, ˈrɛptl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a type of animal, such as a snake or LIZARD, that lays eggs, and whose body temperature changes according to the temperature around it [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Late Latin reptilis “creeping,” from Latin repere “to creep”] —reptilian /rɛpˈtɪliən/ adj.

re-pub-lic /rɪˈpʌblɪk/ n. [C] POLITICS a country governed by elected representatives and led by a president → MONARCHY [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French république, from Latin res publica, from res “thing” + publica “public”]

THESAURUS government, democracy, monarchy, regime, dictatorship, totalitarian country/state, etc., police state → GOVERNMENT

re-pub-li-can¹ /rɪˈpʌblɪkən/ adj. 1 Republican POLITICS relating to or supporting the Republican Party of the U.S. → DEMOCRATIC: a Republican candidate for the Senate 2 POLITICS relating to or supporting a system of government that is not led by a king or queen and is elected by the people: a republican government — Republicanism n. [U] republican² n. [C] 1 Republican POLITICS a member or supporter of the Republican Party of the U.S. → DEMOCRAT 2 POLITICS someone who believes in government by elected representatives only, with no king or queen

Re·pub·lican Party n. the Republican Party POLITICS one of the two main political parties of the U.S. → DEMOCRATIC PARTY

re·pu·di·ate /rɪˈpyʊdi,ert/ v. [T] (formal) to refuse to accept or continue with something, especially because you disagree strongly with it [SYN] reject: The senator repudiated the allegation (=statement saying that someone has done something wrong or illegal). — repudiation /rɪˈpyʊdiˈeɪʃən/ n. [U] re·pug·nance /rɪˈpʌgnəns/ n. [U] (formal) a feeling of strong dislike [SYN] disgust re·pug·nant /rɪˈpʌgnənt/ adj. (formal) very unpleasant and offensive: Slavery is morally repugnant.

re·pulse /rɪˈpʌls/ v. [T] 1 if something or someone repulses you, you think that he, she, or it is so unpleasant that it makes you feel sick: The terrorist attacks repulsed the nation. 2 to defeat a military attack re·pul·sion /rɪˈpʌlʃən/ n. 1 [singular, U] a sick feeling that you get from seeing or thinking about something extremely unpleasant [SYN] revulsion 2 [U] PHYSICS the electric or MAGNETIC force by which one object pushes another one away from it re·pul·sive /rɪˈpʌlsɪv/ adj. extremely unpleasant, so that you almost feel sick: a repulsive crime

THESAURUS ugly, unattractive, unsightly, hideous, grotesque → UGLY

re·p·u·ta·ble /ˈrɛpyətəbəl/ adj. respected for being honest and doing good work: a reputable construction company

re·p·u·ta·tion /ˈrɛpyətəɪʃən/ n. [C] the opinion that people have of someone or something because of what has happened in the past: Denver has a reputation as a livable city. | a reputation for honesty

re·pute /rɪˈpyut/ n. [U] (formal) reputation: a pianist of great repute re·put·ed /rɪˈpyuːtɪd/ adj. (formal) according to what most people think or say: He is reputed to be a millionaire. — reputedly adv.

re·quest¹ /rɪˈkwɛst/ n. [C] the act of asking for something politely or formally: a request for more funding | The Citizenship and Immigration Service rejected his request to remain in the U.S. | The governor of New Orleans made an official request for aid. | a formal/polite/written request | Drinks are available on request (=if you ask for them). [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French requeste, from Vulgar Latin, from requaerere “to try to find, need”]

request² v. [T] to ask for something politely or formally: She requested that everyone attend a meeting at 2 p.m. | Harris requested permission/information/aid.

THESAURUS ask, order, demand → ASK

req·ui·em /ˈrɛkwɪəm/ n. [C,U] a Christian ceremony of prayers for someone who has died, or a piece of music written for this ceremony re·quire /rɪˈkwaɪə/ [AC] v. [T] 1 to need something: The program requires 16 megabytes of memory. 2 (formal) to demand officially that someone do something because of a law or rule: Doctors are required to report certain serious diseases. | The law requires that the milk be pasteurized. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French requerre, from Vulgar Latin requaerere “to try to find, need”]

re·quire·ment /rɪˈkwaɪəmənt/ [AC] n. [C] 1 something that someone needs or asks for: The refugees' main requirements are food and shelter. | a vitamin pill that meets all your daily requirements 2 something that must be done because of a rule or law: English 4 is a requirement for English majors (=they must take this class). | the legal requirements regarding marriage

req·ui·site /ˈrɛkwəzɪt/ adj. (formal) needed for a particular purpose

THESAURUS necessary, essential, vital, mandatory, compulsory, indispensable → NECESSARY

req·ui·si·tion /ˈrɛkwəˈzɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) an official demand to have something, usually made by the army — requisition v. [T] re·route /rɪˈraʊt, rɪˈrut/ v. [T] to make vehicles, aircraft, etc. go a different way from the way they usually go: Traffic has been rerouted across the bridge.

re·run /ˈrɪrʌn/ n. [C] a television program or a movie that is being shown again: reruns of “Friends” — rerun /ˈrɪrʌn/ v. [T] re·sale /ˈrɪseɪl/ n. [U] the state of being sold again: the resale value of the house

re·sched·ule /rɪˈskɛdʒəl/ [AC] v. [T] to arrange for something to happen at a different time from the time that was originally planned: The meeting will be rescheduled for March 19.

re·scind /rɪˈsɪnd/ v. [T] to officially end a law, agreement, or decision

res-cue¹ /ˈreskyu/ v. [T] to save someone or something from harm or danger: Survivors of the crash were rescued by helicopter. | He rescued two people from the fire. —rescuer n. [C]

rescue² n. [C,U] an act of saving someone or something from harm or danger: a rescue mission/operation | A nearby boat came to the rescue (=saved or helped someone).

R

re-search¹ /ˈrisəʃ, ˈrɪsəʃ/ (Ac) n. [U] serious study of a subject, that is intended to discover new facts about it: scientific research on/into heart disease | Holmes is doing research (=finding information) for a book on the Middle Ages. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Old French recherche, from recercher “to find out about something thoroughly”]

THESAURUS

study – a piece of research on a particular subject: The study showed that children who ate a good breakfast did better at school.

experiment – a scientific test done to find out how something reacts under certain conditions, or to find out if a particular idea is true: Skinner carried out a series of experiments to test his theory.

results/findings – the information that someone has discovered as a result of research: The results of the study will be published in the New England Journal of Medicine.

conclusion – something that someone has decided after examining a subject carefully, especially when this is written at the end of an official report: Their conclusion was that the drug was effective in most cases.

re-search² /ˈrɪsəʃ, ˈrisəʃ/ (Ac) v. [I,T] to study a subject in detail, in order to discover new facts about it: She has been researching her family's history for several years. —researcher n. [C] re-sem-blance /rɪˈzɛmbləns/ n. [C,U] if there is a resemblance between two things or people, they are similar to each other: There's a slight resemblance between Mike and his cousin (=they look like each other).

re-sem-ble /rɪˈzɛmbəl/ v. [T] to look like, or be similar to, someone or something: She resembles her mother in many ways. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400

Old French resembler, from sembler “to be like, seem,” from Latin similare “to copy”]

re-sent /rɪˈzɛnt/ v. [T] to feel angry and upset about something that you think is unfair: The law was bitterly/deeply resented by voters. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French ressentir “to feel strongly about,” from sentir “to feel,” from Latin sentire] re-sent-ful /rɪˈzɛntfʊl/ adj. feeling angry and upset about something that you think is unfair: a resentful look

THESAURUS angry, annoyed, irritated, mad, indignant → ANGRY

re-sent-ment /rɪˈzɛntˈmɛnt/ n. [U] a feeling of anger about something that you think is unfair

res-er-va-tion /ˌrɛzəˈveɪʃən/ n. 1 [C] an arrangement that you make so that a place in a hotel, on an airplane, etc. is kept for you to use: a plane reservation | Have you made reservations at the restaurant yet? 2 [C,U] a feeling of doubt because you do not agree completely with a plan, idea, etc.: They have serious reservations about the proposal. 3 [C] an area of land in the U.S. that is kept separate, especially an area for Native Americans to live on re-serve¹ /rɪˈzɜːv/ v. [T] 1 to arrange for a place in a hotel, on an airplane, etc. to be kept for you to use: I'd like to reserve a table for 8:00. 2 to keep something separate so that it can be used for a particular purpose: a parking space reserved for the disabled [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French reserver, from Latin reservare “to keep back”]

THESAURUS keep, store, save → KEEP¹

reserve² n. 1 [C usually plural] an amount of something that is kept to be used if it is needed: oil reserves | A month's supply of food is kept in reserve for emergencies. 2 [U] the quality of not liking to express your emotions or talk about your problems → SHYNESS: John's natural reserve 3 [C] EARTH SCIENCES an area of land where wild animals, plants, etc. are protected: a wetlands reserve 4 [U] also reserves [plural] a military force that a country has in addition to its usual army

re-served /rɪˈzɜːvd/ adj. not liking to express your emotions or talk about your problems: a quiet reserved man

THESAURUS shy, self-conscious, retiring → SHY¹

Re,served 'Powers n. [plural] POLITICS the power that each U.S. state has to make decisions and pass laws, when the decision or law is not one that the U.S. CONSTITUTION says must be made by Congress → EXCLUSIVE POWERS, ORDINANCE POWERS

res-er-voir /ˌrɛzəˈvwɑːr, -zə-, -ˈvwɔːr/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a special lake where water is stored to be used by people in a city 2 a large amount of something that has not been used yet: a reservoir of oil beneath the desert

re-shuf·fle /rɪˈʃʌfəl/ v. [T] to REORGANIZE something re-side /rɪˈzaɪd/ (Ac) v. [I] (formal) to live in a particular place [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French résider, from Latin residere “to sit back, remain, stay,” from sedere “to sit”] res-i-dence /ˈrezədəns/ (Ac) n. (formal) 1 [C] the place where you live: a private residence

THESAURUS home, house, place, dwelling, abode → HOME¹

2 [U] the state of living in a place: What is your usual place of residence? 3 in residence living or working in a place: the job of artist/poet etc. in residence at UCLA

res-i-den-cy /ˈrezədənsi/ n. [U] 1 a period of time during which a doctor receives special training in a particular type of medicine 2 the state of living in a place, or legal permission to live in a country: After five years of residency, you may apply for citizenship.

res-i-dent¹ /ˈrezədənt/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 someone who lives in a particular place: a park for local residents 2 a doctor working at a hospital where s/he is being trained resident² (Ac) adj. 1 working regularly for a particular organization, and sometimes living in the place where you work: She had a job as the resident nurse at the resort. 2 living in a place: noncitizens who are lawfully resident in this country

res-i-den-tial /ˌrezəˈdenʃəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 a residential area consists of private houses, with no offices or businesses: a typical house in a residential neighborhood 2 relating to homes, or people who live in homes, rather than to businesses: electricity prices for residential customers

res-id-u-al /rɪˈzɪdʒuəl/ adj. (formal) remaining after a process, event, etc. is finished: the residual effects of radiation exposure

res-i-due /ˈrezə,du/ n. [C,U] a substance that remains after something else has disappeared or been removed: an oily residue re-sign /rɪˈzaɪn/ v. 1 [I,T] to officially leave your job or position: Burton resigned from the company yesterday.

THESAURUS quit, give up, retire → QUIT

2 resign yourself to (doing) sth to accept something that is unpleasant but cannot be changed: I resigned myself to paying the fees. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French resigner, from Latin resignare “to unseal, cancel, give back”]

res-ig-na-tion /ˌrezɪgˈneɪʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] the act of resigning, or a written statement to say you are doing this: Morris handed in/submitted his resignation (=gave his resignation to the manager). 2 [U] the feeling of accepting an unpleasant situation that you cannot change: I could hear the resignation in his voice.

re-signed /rɪˈzaɪnd/ adj. accepting an unpleasant situation that you cannot change, or showing that you feel this: patients who seem resigned to the pain | a resigned voice/look

re-sil-ient /rɪˈzɪliənt/ adj. 1 able to become strong, happy, or successful again after a difficult situation or event: a resilient economy 2 strong and not easily damaged by being pulled, pressed, etc.: resilient materials —resilience n. [U] res-in /ˈrezən/ n. 1 [U] a thick sticky liquid that comes from some trees 2 [C,U] CHEMISTRY a chemical substance used for making plastics

re-sist /rɪˈzɪst/ v. 1 [I,T] to stop yourself from having something that you like or doing something that you want to do: I couldn't resist the temptation to peek. | Carter found their offer hard/difficult to resist. 2 [I,T] to not accept changes, or to try to prevent changes from happening: People generally resist change. 3 [I,T] to use force to stop something from happening: The suspect resisted arrest. | I pulled her to me and she did not resist. 4 [T] to not be changed or harmed by something: Vitamin C is supposed to help you resist colds. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin resistere, from sistere “to stop”]

res-ist-ance /rɪˈzɪstəns/ n. 1 [singular, U] a refusal to accept new ideas or changes: people's resistance to change | The plan met with resistance from the U.S. ambassador. 2 [singular, U] fighting against someone or something: a resistance fighter | The rebels put up fierce resistance. 3 [singular, U] BIOLOGY the natural ability of a person, animal, or GERM (=small living thing that can make you ill), etc. to stop a disease or drug from harming it: Some types of infections have developed a resistance to antibiotics. 4 [U] PHYSICS the degree to which a substance can stop electricity from going through it re-sis-tant /rɪˈzɪstənt/ adj. 1 not easily harmed or damaged by something: flame-resistant pajamas 2 unwilling to accept something: companies that are resistant to change

res-sis-tor /rɪˈzɪstə/ n. [C] PHYSICS a piece of wire or other material used for increasing electrical resistance res-o-lute /ˈrezə,lut/ adj. doing something because you feel very strongly that you are right —resolutely adv.

res-o-lu-tion /ˌrezəˈluʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] POLITICS a formal or official decision agreed on by a group, especially after a vote: A Congressional resolution allowed the U.S. to enter the war. 2 [singular, U] the final solution to a problem or difficulty: This method means that children can find a resolution to their differences without adult help. 3 [C] a promise that you make to yourself to do something: Have you made any New Year's resolutions? 4 [U]

R

the quality of having strong beliefs and determination: his resolution to continue 5 [C,U] the power of a television, camera, TELESCOPE, etc. to give a clear picture of things: a high-resolution telescope 6 [C] POLITICS a formal decision or statement from the U.S. SENATE or the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, that does not have the force of law and does not need to be signed by the American president 7 [singular] ENG. LANG. ARTS the point near the end of a story, book, play, etc. when the CONFLICT between important characters or forces that have opposed each other during the story is fully dealt with re-solve¹ /rɪˈzɒlv/ (Ac) v. 1 [T] to find an answer to a problem or a way of dealing with it: The training helps children resolve conflicts without fighting. | They are trying to resolve their differences (=stop arguing and become friendly again) with the help of a counselor. 2 [I] to make a definite decision to do something: I resolved to lose weight.

R

THESAURUS decide, make up your mind, choose, determine → DECIDE

3 [I,T] to make a formal decision to do something, especially by voting: The transportation board resolved to rename the highway in his honor.

resolve² n. [U] (formal) strong determination to succeed in doing something: His words only strengthened her resolve to persevere.

res-o-nant /ˈrezənənt/ adj. having a deep clear loud sound that continues for a long time: a resonant voice —resonance n. [U] res-o-nate /ˈrezən,neɪt/ v. [I] 1 to make a deep clear loud sound that continues for a long time 2 if an event or idea resonates with people, it seems important to them or means a lot to them re-sort¹ /rɪˈzɔrt/ n. 1 [C] a place where many people can go for a vacation, with hotels, swimming pools, etc.: a beach resort 2 last resort what you will do if everything else fails: As a last resort, doctors will try an experimental drug.

resort² v.

resort to sth phr. v. to do something or use something in order to succeed, even if it is bad: Police fear the demonstrators will resort to violence.

re-sound /rɪˈzaʊnd/ v. [I] 1 to be full of sound: The room resounded with laughter. 2 if a sound resounds, it continues loudly and clearly for a long time re-sound-ing /rɪˈzaʊndɪŋ/ adj. 1 a resounding noise is loud and clear: a resounding crash

THESAURUS loud, noisy, thunderous, deafening, sonorous → LOUD¹

2 a resounding success/victory etc. a very great and complete success, victory, etc. —resoundingly adv.

re-source /ˈrɪsɔrs, rɪˈsɔrs/ (Ac) n. 1 [C usually plural] something such as land, minerals, or natural energy that exists in a country and can be used in order to increase its wealth: natural resources such as timber and oil 2 [C] something that can be used in order to make a job or activity easier, especially by providing information: an electronic resource for lesson plans 3 resources [plural] all the money, property, skills, etc. that you have available to use: the organization's financial resources [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French ressource, from Old French resoudre “to rise again, relieve,” from Latin resurgere] → HUMAN RESOURCES re-source-ful /rɪˈsɔrsfəl/ (Ac) adj. good at finding ways to deal with problems effectively: a resourceful leader —resourcefulness n. [U]

re-spect¹ /rɪˈspekt/ n. 1 [U] the attitude of believing that something or someone is important, and so being careful not to be rude or not to harm him, her, or it (ANT) disrespect: In Japan, people show more respect to the elderly. | These kids have no respect for other people's property. | Out of respect for the flag, you should stand. [U] admiration for someone because of his/her knowledge, skill, personal qualities, etc.: I have a lot of respect for this team. | Earhart had earned the respect of the other pilots. 3 in one respect/in some respects/in every respect used in order to say that something is true in one way, in some ways, or in every way: In some respects, very little has changed. 4 respects [plural] (formal) polite greetings: Give my respects to your parents. 5 pay your (last/final) respects to go to a funeral to show that you liked and respected someone 6 with (all due) respect (formal) used before disagreeing with someone when you want to be polite: With all due respect, I don't think that will work. 7 with respect to sth (formal) relating to a particular thing, or relating to something that has just been mentioned (SYN) regarding: The article examines what the Bible says with respect to marriage.

respect² v. [T] 1 to admire someone because of his/her knowledge, skill, personal qualities, etc.: The students like and respect him.

THESAURUS admire, look up to sb, hold sb in high esteem → ADMIRE

2 to be careful not to do anything against someone's wishes, rights, etc.: Parents should respect a teenager's need for privacy. | When traveling abroad, I always try to respect local customs. 3 respect the law/Constitution etc. to be careful not to disobey the law, Constitution, etc.

re-spect-a-ble /rɪˈspektəbəl/ adj. 1 showing standards of behavior or appearance that people approve of and admire: a respectable family 2 good or satisfactory: She jumped a respectable five and a half feet.

THESAURUS satisfactory, good enough, acceptable, reasonable → SATISFACTORY

—respectably adv. —respectability /rɪˈspektəˈbɪləti/ n. [U] re-spect-ed /rɪ'spektɪd/ adj. admired by many people because of your work, skills, etc.: a highly/widely respected musician re-spect-ful /rɪ'spektfəl/ adj. feeling or showing respect (ANT) disrespectful —respectfully adv.

re-spec-tive /rɪ'spektɪv/ adj. people's respective jobs, houses, etc. are the separate ones that each of them has: the two sisters and their respective husbands re-spec-tive-ly /rɪ'spektɪvli/ adv. each separately in the order mentioned: The dollar and yen rose 2% and 3% respectively.

res-pi-ra-tion /ˌrɛspə'reɪʃən/ n. [U] the process of breathing → ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION → BREATHE

res-pi-ra-tor /ˌrɛspə'reɪtə/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that covers the nose and mouth and helps someone to breathe res-pira-to-ry /ˌrɛsprə'tɔːri/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to breathing: the respiratory system

res-pite /ˈrɛspɪt/ n. [singular, U] a short time when something bad stops happening: a brief respite from the rain re-splend-ent /rɪ'splɛndənt/ adj. (formal) very beautiful in appearance, in a way that looks expensive

re-pond /rɪ'spɒnd/ (AC) v. 1 [I] to react to something that has been said or done: Engine Company 29 responded to the fire. | The Federal Reserve responded by raising interest rates. 2 [I,T] to say or write something as a reply: He responded that he didn't want to see her. | The mayor's office has not responded to requests for comments.

THESAURUS answer, reply → ANSWER¹

3 [I] to improve as a result of a particular medical treatment: Her cancer is responding well to the drugs. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin respondere “to promise in return, answer,” from spondere] re-pond-ent /rɪ'spɒndənt/ (AC) n. [C] someone who answers questions, especially as part of a study: 93% of the respondents agreed with the statement.

re-sponding 'variable n. [C] SCIENCE in a scientific EXPERIMENT (=test), a result that is likely to change depending on the different conditions used in the experiment (SYN) dependent variable

re-sponse /rɪ'spɒns/ (AC) n. 1 [C,U] something that is said, written, or done as a reaction or reply to something else: “No,” Thompson said in response to the question. | We've had a good response to our appeal for help. 2 [C] BIOLOGY a single reaction to a STIMULUS (=something that causes a reaction in living things), for example the way your body reacts to a particular infection

re-spon-si-bil-i-ty /rɪ'spɒnsə'bɪləti/ n. (plural responsibilities) 1 [U] a duty to be in charge of or take care of something: Do you think he's ready for more responsibility? | It's your responsibility to inform us of any changes. | The students take responsibility for planning their projects. | The federal government has responsibility for enforcing immigration laws. 2 [C] something that you have a duty to do, be in charge of, or take care of: a single parent trying to balance work and family responsibilities 3 [U] blame for something bad: No one has accepted/taken responsibility for the bombing.

re-spon-si-ble /rɪ'spɒnsəbəl/ adj. 1 if you are responsible for something bad, it is your fault: the people responsible for the murder | Can parents be held responsible when their children commit a crime? 2 in charge of or taking care of something: The Forest Service is responsible for fighting fires in national forests. | Mills is responsible for a budget of over $5 million. 3 sensible and able to be trusted: a responsible young man 4 responsi-ble job/position/post a job in which the ability to make good judgments and decisions is needed 5 be responsible to sb if you are responsible to someone, that person is in charge of your work and you must explain your actions to him/her re-spon-si-bly /rɪ'spɒnsəbli/ adv. in a sensible way that makes people trust you: Are reporters acting responsibly?

re-spon-sive /rɪ'spɒnsɪv/ (AC) adj. 1 reacting quickly, in a useful or helpful way: a company that is responsive to your business needs 2 able or eager to communicate with people, and to react to them in a positive way: a happy and responsive baby —responsiveness n. [U]

rest¹ /rest/ n. 1 the rest the part of a group, thing, etc. that is left after everything else has been used, dealt with, etc.: I'll read you the rest tomorrow night. | Each child does a dance while the rest watch. | He will have to take the medication for the rest of his life. 2 [C,U] a period of time when you can relax or sleep: You'd better get some rest. 3 put/set sb's mind at rest to make someone feel less anxious or worried 4 come to rest to stop moving: The ball came to rest near the hole. 5 lay/put sth to rest to stop people from believing, talking, or worrying about something: He has put to rest speculation that he would run for president. 6 at rest not moving 7 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a period of silence of a particular length in a piece of music, or the written sign that shows this [ORIGIN: (1) 1400–1500 French rester, from rester “to remain,” from Latin restare]

rest² v. 1 [I] to stop doing something and relax or sleep for a period of time: I usually rest for a while after lunch. 2 rest your feet/legs/eyes etc. to stop using a part of your body for a period of time because it is feeling sore or tired: The snow is so bright you have to close your eyes to rest them. 3 [T] to support an object or part of your body by putting it on or against something: The baby rested his head on my shoulder. | His briefcase rested against his chair.

THESAURUS lean, stand, prop → LEAN¹

R

4 rest assured (that) (formal) used in order to tell someone not to worry because what you say is true: You can rest assured that we'll do all we can. 5 sb will not rest until... (literary) if someone will not rest until something happens, s/he will not be satisfied until it happens 6 [I] if a dead person rests somewhere, s/he is buried there: My mother, may she rest in peace, is buried there.

rest on/upon sth phr. v. (formal) to depend on or be based on something: Their chance of going to the playoffs rests on this game.

rest with sb phr. v. if a decision rests with someone, s/he is responsible for it: The final decision rests with the Public Health Service.

re-state /ri'steɪt/ v. [T] to say something again in a different way, so that it is clearer or more strongly expressed: Jackson restated his intention to retire. —restatement n. [C,U] res-tau-rant /ˈres, trɑnt, ˈrestə, rɑnt, ˈrestərɑnt/ n. [C] a place where you can buy and eat a meal: a small Italian restaurant [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French restaurer “to restore,” from Latin restaurare “to renew, rebuild”]

THESAURUS

cafe/coffee shop – a place where you can get drinks, cakes, and small meals fast food restaurant – one where you can get meals such as hamburgers, french fries, etc.
diner – a restaurant where you can eat cheap and simple food cafeteria – a place at work or school where you can get a meal which you take to a table yourself

TOPIC

In a restaurant, the waiter or waitress brings you the menu and you choose what you want to eat. The menu may be divided into appetizers (=first courses), main courses/entrées, and desserts (=sweet food eaten at the end). When you have finished your meal, you ask for the check/bill. People usually leave a tip unless waiter service is included in the cost.

rest-ful /ˈrestfəl/ adj. peaceful and quiet: a restful weekend

'rest home n. [C] a NURSING HOME

res-ti-tu-tion /ˌrestəˈtʃʊʃən/ n. [U] (formal) the act of giving back to the owner something that was lost or stolen, or of paying for damage res-tive /ˈrestɪv/ adj. (formal) bored or not satisfied with your situation, and wanting it to change rest-less /ˈrestlɪs/ adj. 1 unable to keep still, especially because you are nervous or bored: The kids have been inside all day, and they're getting restless. 2 not satisfied and wanting new experiences: a restless man, always changing jobs —restlessness n. [U] —restlessly adv.

re-store /ri'stɔːr/ v. [T] 1 to make something exist again or return to its former state: The army was called in to restore order. | ways to restore her confidence 2 to repair something so that it is in its original condition: They're restoring a Victorian house.

THESAURUS

repair, renovate, rebuild, recondition → REPAIR²

3 (formal) to give something back to someone: The change in the law will restore benefits to legal immigrants. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French restorer, from Latin restaurare “to renew, rebuild”] —restoration /ˌrestəˈreɪʃən/ n. [C,U]: a building in need of restoration

re-strain /rɪ'streɪn/ v. [T] 1 to prevent someone from doing something, often by using physical force: They attacked a policeman who tried to restrain them from driving drunk. | He could not restrain a sigh. 2 to control or limit something: Raising prices should restrain consumer spending.

re-strained /rɪ'streɪnd/ adj. behavior that is restrained is calm and controlled re-straint /rɪ'streɪnt/ n. 1 [U] calm and controlled behavior: He urged the protesters to show restraint. 2 [C,U] something that controls what you can say or do: Budget cuts have put restraints on public spending. 3 [C] something that prevents someone from moving freely: a prisoner in restraints re-strict /rɪ'strɪkt/ v. [T] to control something or keep it within limits: regulations that restrict the sale of alcohol to minors [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of restringere, from stringere “to tie tightly, press together”] re-strict-ed /rɪ'strɪktɪd/ adj. 1 controlled or limited: The sale of alcohol is restricted. 2 only allowed to be seen or used by a particular group of people: a restricted area

re-strict-ion /rɪ'strɪkʃən/ n. [C,U] a rule or set of laws that limits what you can do or what is allowed to happen: restrictions on cigarette advertising | freedom to travel without restriction

THESAURUS

rule, law, regulation, guidelines, statute → RULE¹

re-strict-ive /rɪ'strɪktɪv/ adj. stopping people from doing something, or limiting what they can do: restrictive trade policies re,strictive 'clause also re,strictive ,relative 'clause n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a part of a sentence that says exactly which person or thing is meant. For example, in “the man who came to dinner,” the phrase “who came to dinner” is a restrictive clause because it tells someone exactly which man you mean. → NONRESTRICTIVE CLAUSE, RELATIVE CLAUSE rest-room /ˈrestrum/ n. [C] a room with a toilet, in a public place such as a restaurant or theater: Employees must wash their hands after using the restroom.

THESAURUS bathroom, women's/ladies' room, men's room, lavatory → TOILET re-structure /rɪ'strʌktʃə/ (Ac) v. [T] to change the way in which something such as a business or system is organized: companies that are cutting jobs and restructuring —restructuring n. [U]

THESAURUS change, alter, reform, reorganize → CHANGE¹

re-sult¹ /rɪ'zʌlt/ n. 1 [C,U] something that happens or exists because of something that happened before: The end/final result will be a delicious loaf of bread. | Will more students attend college as a result of the tax breaks? | Some teachers already use the system, with excellent results.

THESAURUS

consequences – the things that happen as a result of an action, event, etc.: the tragic consequences of the accident effect – a change that is the result of something: the harmful effects of pollution aftereffects – bad effects that continue for a long time after the thing that caused them: The country is still suffering from the aftereffects of the war.
side effect – an unwanted effect, especially of a type of drug or medical treatment: The drug's side effects can include headaches and nausea.
outcome – the final result of a meeting, election, war, etc.: the final outcome of the talks upshot – the final result of a situation: The upshot of higher interest rates is that products cost more to manufacture.
repercussions – bad effects caused by an event, action, or decision, which happen much later: The scandal could have serious repercussions for her political career.

2 [C] information or answers that are produced by examining something carefully, especially in a scientific way: a blood test result | the results of the police investigation [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin resultare “to jump back, result,” from saltare “to jump”] result² v. [I] to happen or exist because of something: injuries resulting from car accidents result in sth phr. v. to make something happen: The fire resulted in the death of two children.

re-sult-ant /rɪ'zʌltənt, -t̃nt/ adj. (formal) happening or existing because of something else re-sume /rɪ'zʊm/ v. [I,T] (formal) to start doing something again after a pause: The mayor hopes to resume his duties soon. —resumption /rɪ'zʌmpjən/ n. [singular, U] ré-su-mé /'rɛzə,meɪ, 'rɛzə'meɪ/ n. [C] a written list and description of your education and your previous jobs that you use when you are looking for a job: I'll put this job on my résumé.

re-sur-face /rɪ'səfɪs/ v. 1 [I] to appear again:

The issue resurfaced again during the last election. 2 [I] to come back up to the surface of the water 3 [T] to put a new surface on a road re-sur-geance /rɪ'sə'dʒəns/ n. [singular, U] if there is a resurgence of a belief or activity, it appears again and becomes stronger, after a time when it was not common: a resurgence of racism [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 resurgent (18–21 centuries), from Latin resurgere “to rise again”] —resurgent adj.

res-ur-rect /rɛzə'rekt/ v. [T] to bring an old practice, belief, etc. back into use or fashion: Designers have resurrected the styles of the 1960s.

res-ur-rec-tion /rɛzə'rekʃən/ n. 1 the Resurrection the return of Jesus Christ to life after his death on the cross, which is one of the main beliefs of the Christian religion 2 [U] the act of bringing an old practice, belief, etc. back into use or fashion re-sus-ci-tate /rɪ'sʌsə'teɪt/ v. [T] to make someone breathe again after s/he has almost died [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of resuscitare, from suscitare “to cause to move around”] —resuscitation /rɪ'sʌsə'teɪʃən/ n. [U]

re-tail¹ /'riteɪl/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the sale of goods in stores to people for their own use → WHOLESALE: retail stores | a retail price of $16.95 [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French retailier “to divide into pieces,” from taillier “to cut”] —retailing n. [U]

retail² v. retail for/at sth ECONOMICS to be sold at a particular price in stores: The wine retails for $8.95 a bottle.

retail³ adv. ECONOMICS if you buy or sell something retail, you buy or sell it in a shop re-tail-er /'rɪ'teɪlə/ n. [C] ECONOMICS someone who sells goods to the public, using a store → WHOLESALE

re-tain /rɪ'teɪn/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to keep something, or to continue to have something: Steamed vegetables retain more of their flavor. | The Republicans retained control of Congress. 2 to keep facts in your memory: She retains most of what she reads. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French retenir, from Latin retinere, from tenere “to hold”] —retention /rɪ'tenʃən/ n. [U]: The retention of good employees is vital for a healthy corporation.

re-tain-er /rɪ'teɪnə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 ECONOMICS an amount of money that you pay regularly to someone such as a lawyer, so that s/he will continue to work for you 2 a small plastic and wire object that you wear in your mouth to make your teeth stay straight re-take /rɪ'teɪk/ v. (past tense retook /-tʊk/, past participle retaken /-tɛɪkən/) [T] 1 to get control of something again: Rebels have retaken the city. 2 to take a test or class again because you failed it before → SCHOOL¹ re-tal-i-ate /rɪ'tæli,eɪt/ v. [I] to do something bad to someone because s/he has done something bad to you: Police retaliated by using tear gas. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Late Latin, past participle of retaliare, from talio “suitable punishment”] re-tal-i-a-tion /rɪˈtæliˈeɪʃən/ n. [U] the act of retaliating: The shooting appeared to be in retaliation for an attack last week.

R

re-tard /rɪˈtɑːd/ v. [T] (formal) to delay the development of something, or to make something happen more slowly —retardation /rɪˈtɑːdeɪʃən/ n. [U] re-tard-ed /rɪˈtɑːdɪd/ adj. less mentally developed than other people retch /rɛtʃ/ v. [I] if you retch, you feel like you are VOMITTING but nothing comes out of your stomach

re-ten-tive /rɪˈtɛnɪv/ (Ac) adj. (formal) someone with a retentive memory or mind is able to remember information clearly re-think /rɪˈθɪŋk/ v. (past tense and past participle rethought /-ˈθɒt/) [I,T] to think about a plan or idea again in order to decide if any changes should be made

R

ret-i-cent /ˈrɛtʃənt/ adj. not willing to talk about what you know or how you feel —reticence n. [U] ret-i-na /ˈrɛtɪnə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the area at the back of your eye that sends an image of what you see to your brain ret-i-nue /ˈrɛtɪnu/ n. [C] a group of helpers or supporters who are traveling with an important person: a retinue of aides re-tire /rɪˈtaɪə/ v. 1 [I,T] to stop working, usually because of old age, or to make someone do this: Quigley retired from the army in September.

TOPIC

In the United States, most people retire when they are 65. This is the usual retirement age, but some people take early retirement. When you retire, you must live on your pension, Social Security, or your savings. → PENSION, WORK¹, QUIT

2 [I] (formal) to go away to a quiet place: He retired to his room. 3 [I] (formal) to go to bed re-tired /rɪˈtaɪəd/ adj. retired people have stopped working, usually because they are old: a retired teacher re-tire-ment /rɪˈtaɪəmənt/ n. 1 [C,U] the act of retiring from your job: his retirement from the Senate 2 [singular, U] the period of time after you have retired: a long and happy retirement re-tire-ment home n. [C] a place where old people can live, where various services are provided such as food, social activities, and medical care → NURSING HOME re-tir-ing /rɪˈtaɪərɪŋ/ adj. 1 not wanting to be with other people: a shy and retiring woman

THESAURUS

shy, timid, reserved → SHY¹

2 the retiring president/manager etc. a president, etc. who is soon going to retire re-tort¹ /rɪˈtɔːt/ v. [T] to reply quickly, in an angry or humorous way: “None of your business!” he retorted.

retort² n. [C] 1 a short reply, that usually expresses anger or humor 2 CHEMISTRY a bottle with a long narrow bent neck, used for heating chemicals re-trace /rɪˈtreɪs/ v. [T] 1 to go back the way you have come: I tried to retrace my steps, but I can’t find the campsite. 2 to repeat exactly the same trip that someone else has made: The ships retraced Columbus’s route.

re-tract /rɪˈtrækt/ v. 1 [T] to make an official statement saying that something you said earlier is not true: He confessed to the crime but later retracted his statement. 2 [I,T] if a part of something retracts or is retracted, it moves back into the main part —retraction /rɪˈtrækʃən/ n. [C,U]

re-tract-a-ble /rɪˈtræktəbəl/ adj. a retractable part of something can be pulled back into the main part: a knife with a retractable blade

re-treat¹ /rɪˈtri:t/ v. [I] 1 to decide not to do what you have planned, because it seems too difficult or not popular: The president seems to be retreating from his pledge to cut taxes. 2 to move away from a place or person: He shouted, and the dogs retreated. 3 to stop being involved with society or other people: His way of coping is to retreat into his own world. 4 if an army retreats, it stops fighting and moves away from the enemy retreat² n. 1 [singular, U] the act of deciding to not do what you had planned, because it is too difficult or not popular: The United States must not retreat from its international responsibilities. 2 [C,U] an army’s movement away from the enemy: Napoleon’s retreat from Moscow 3 [C] a place you can go to that is quiet or safe: a mountain retreat 4 [C,U] an occasion when you go away from people, especially to pray or study, or the action of doing this: a weekend retreat for people who do yoga 5 [singular, U] a movement away from a place or person

re-tri-al /rɪˈtraɪl, ˈrɪtraɪl/ n. [C] LAW the process of judging a law case in court again: My lawyer demanded a retrial.

ret-ri-bu-tion /ˌrɛtrəˈbyuʃən/ n. [singular, U] punishment that is deserved: The victims’ families are demanding retribution for the attacks.

re-trieve /rɪˈtrɪv/ v. [T] 1 to find something and bring it back: I ran to retrieve the ball. | It took four days to retrieve all the bodies from the crash. 2 IT to get back information that has been stored in the memory of a computer [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French retrover “to find again,” from trover “to find”] —retrieval n. [U] re-triev-er /rɪˈtrɪvə/ n. [C] a type of dog that can be trained to find and bring back birds that its owner has shot ret-ro-ac-tive /ˌretroʊˈæktɪv/ adj. a law or decision that is retroactive is effective from a particular date in the past: a retroactive pay increase —retroactively adv.

ret-ro-spec-t /ˌretroʊˈspekt/ n. in retrospect thinking back to a time in the past, and knowing more now than you did then: In retrospect, I should have left him much earlier.

re-tro-spec-tive /ˌretroʊˈspektɪv/ adj. relating to or thinking about the past: a retrospective look at Capra's movies ret-ro-vi-rus /ˌretroʊˈvaɪrəs/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a VIRUS (=very small living thing that causes an infectious illness) that holds its GENETIC information in the chemical substance RNA rather than in DNA: No one has yet produced a vaccine for the retrovirus that causes AIDS.

re-turn¹ /rɪˈtɜːn/ v.

1 GO BACK [I] to go or come back to a place where you were before: Kevin has just returned from Texas. | Are you planning to return to Spain? | She didn't return until after 8 o'clock. ▶ Don't say "return back."

2 PREVIOUS STATE [I] to be in a previous state or condition again: Her heartbeat returned to normal. | Will the Democrats return to power in the next election?

3 GIVE BACK [T] to give something back, or put something back in its place: I have to return these books to the library. | It didn't fit, so I returned it (=took it back to the store).

4 HAPPEN AGAIN [I] to start to happen or exist again: Take two of these pills if the pain returns.

5 START AGAIN [I] to go back to an activity, discussion, etc. that was stopped or interrupted: He smiled and returned to his book. | Hannah returned to work part-time.

6 DO STH SIMILAR [T] to react to something someone has done by doing something similar: Why didn't you return my call? | Lisa returned his smile.

7 return a verdict if a JURY returns a VERDICT, they say whether someone is guilty or not

8 MONEY [T] if an INVESTMENT returns a particular amount of money, that is how much profit it produces return² n.

1 GOING BACK [singular, U] the act of going or coming back to a place where you were before: Jefferson's return from France | I want you to have dinner ready on/upon my return (=when I come back).

2 GIVING STH BACK [U] the act of giving, putting, or sending something back: the safe return of the prisoners of war

3 CHANGING BACK [singular] a change back to a previous state or situation: We must prevent a return to Communist rule.

4 STH HAPPENING AGAIN [singular, U] the fact of something starting to happen or to exist again: the return of spring

5 STH STARTING AGAIN [singular, U] the act of starting an activity, discussion, etc. again after stopping for a time: her return to full-time work

6 PROFIT [U] also returns [plural] ECONOMICS the amount of profit you receive from money you have INVESTED (=used to buy things such as STOCK, goods, or property, etc.): Most people get fairly low returns from their personal investments. | These investments bring a high rate of return (=level of profit).

7 COMPUTER [U] the key that you press on a computer at the end of an instruction or to move to a new line SYN enter

8 in return (for sth) in exchange for, or as payment for something: One student does childcare in return for room and board.

9 STATEMENT [C] a statement or set of figures given as a reply to an official demand: a tax return

re-turn-a-ble /rɪˈtɜːnəbəl/ adj. returnable bottles, containers, etc. can be given back to the store re-u-ni-fy /rɪˈjuːnəˌfaɪ/ v. (reunified, reunifies) [T] to join the parts of something together again, especially a country that was divided → REUNITE —reunification /rɪˌjuːnəfəˈkeɪʃən/ n. [U]: the reunification of Germany

re-un-ion /rɪˈjuːniən/ n. 1 [C] a meeting of people who have not met for a long time: a high-school reunion | a family reunion 2 [U] the state of being brought together again after a period of being separated: a day of reunion with friends

re-u-nite /rɪˈjuːnaɪt/ v. [I,T] to come together again, or to be brought together again after a period of being separated: The children were reunited with their families.

Rev. the written abbreviation of REVEREND

rev¹ /rɛv/ n. [C usually plural] (informal) one REVOLUTION of an engine

rev² also rev up v. (revved, revving) [I,T] if you rev an engine, or if it revs, it works faster re-vamp /rɪˈvæmp/ v. [T] (informal) to change something in order to improve it: a promise to revamp the welfare system

re-veal /rɪˈviːl/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to show something that was previously hidden: The magician pulled off the covering to reveal a black box. 2 to make something known that was previously secret: The company has not revealed the name of the prospective buyer. | The report revealed that many children were not reading at grade level. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French reveler, from Latin revelare “to uncover”] re-veal-ing /rɪˈviːlɪŋ/ (Ac) adj. 1 showing something about someone's character, thoughts, or feelings: a revealing comment 2 revealing clothes show parts of your body that are usually kept covered

rev-el /ˈrɛvəl/ v.

revel in sth phr. v. to enjoy something very much: Bobby revelled in my undivided attention.

rev-e-la-tion /ˌrɛvəˈleɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] a surprising and previously secret fact that suddenly becomes known, or the act of making this fact known: strange revelations about her past | revelations that two senior officers had lied in court

R

rev-el-er /rɪˈvɛləʃ/ n. [C] someone who is enjoying singing, dancing, etc. in a noisy way rev-el-ry /rɪˈvɛləri/ n. [U] wild noisy dancing, eating, drinking, etc., usually to celebrate something re-venge¹ /rɪˈvɛndʒ/ n. [U] something you do in order to punish someone who has harmed or offended you: The voters took revenge on election day. | He vowed that someday he would get revenge.

revenge² v. [T] to punish someone who has harmed or offended you → AVENGE rev-e-nue /rɪˈvɛnu/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 money that is earned by a company: The company earns $30 billion in annual revenue. 2 money that the government receives from tax [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French, past participle of revenir “to return”]

R re-ver-ber-ate /rɪˈvɜːbəreɪt/ v. [I] 1 if a loud sound reverberates, it is heard many times as it is sent back from different surfaces: Their voices reverberated around the empty church. 2 to have a strong effect that continues for a long time: News of the verdict reverberated through the city. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, past participle of reverberare “to hit back, repel,” from verberare “to hit”] —reverberation /rɪˈvɜːbəreɪʃən/ n. [C,U] re-vere /rɪˈvɪr/ v. [T] (formal) to greatly respect and admire someone

THESAURUS admire, respect, look up to sb, idolize, worship, hold sb in high esteem → ADMIRE

rev-er-ence /rɪˈvɛrəns/ n. [U] (formal) respect and admiration (ANT) irreverence: reverence for tradition —reverent adj. —reverently adv.

Rev-er-end /rɪˈvɛrənd, -ərənd/ used in the title of a minister in a Christian church: Reverend Larson

rev-er-ie /rɪˈvəri/ n. [C,U] a state of imagining or thinking about pleasant things (SYN) daydream

re-ver-sal /rɪˈvɜːsəl/ (Ac) n. [C,U] the act of changing an arrangement, process, or action in order to do the opposite: a reversal of the court's decision | Their role reversal, in which Mike is the stay-at-home parent, benefits everyone.

re-verse¹ /rɪˈvɜːs/ (Ac) v. 1 [T] to change something, such as a decision, judgment, or process, so that it is the opposite of what it was before: The court reversed the original ruling. | Unions want to reverse the decline in membership. 2 reverse yourself to change your opinion or position in an argument 3 [T] to change around the usual order of the parts of something, or the usual things two people do: Our roles as teacher and pupil had been reversed. 4 [I,T] to move backward, especially in a vehicle (SYN) back up 5 [T] to turn something over, so that it shows the back of it or so that it faces the opposite way: The image in the mirror is reversed.

reverse² n. 1 the reverse the opposite: Some people get sleepy after one drink; for others it's the reverse. 2 in reverse done in the opposite way or with the opposite effect: We went from the east coast to the west coast last year, and did the trip in reverse this year. 3 [U] the control in a vehicle that makes it go backward: I started the car and put it in reverse.

reverse³ adj. opposite to what is usual or to what has just been stated: She answered their questions in reverse order.

re,verse discrimi'nation n. [U] the practice of giving a particular number of jobs, places at university, etc. to people who are often treated unfairly because of their race, sex, etc. → AFFIRMATIVE ACTION re-vers-i-ble /rɪˈvɜːsəbəl/ adj. 1 if something that has changed is reversible, the thing that was changed can be changed back to the way it was before: Are the effects of the decision reversible? 2 a piece of clothing that is reversible can be worn with the part that is normally on the inside showing on the outside: a reversible coat re,versible re'action n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical reaction in which the substance that the reaction has produced is able to react again to return to its original state re-vert /rɪˈvɜːt/ v. revert to sth to go back to a previous situation, condition, use, or habit: Lenin-grad reverted to its former name of St. Petersburg. —reversion /rɪˈvɜːʒən/ n. [singular, U]

re-view¹ /rɪˈvju/ n. 1 [C,U] a careful examination of a situation or process: an urgent review of safety procedures | the main issue under review (=being considered) | a review committee 2 [C] an article that gives an opinion about a new book, play, movie, etc.: His book got very good reviews. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French revue, from revoir “to look over”] review² v. 1 [T] to examine, consider, and judge a situation or process carefully: The policy is being reviewed by federal wildlife officials. 2 [I,T] to write an article describing and judging a new book, play, movie, etc.: He writes a column reviewing computer software. 3 [I,T] to prepare for a test by studying books, notes, reports, etc.

re-view-er /rɪˈvjuə/ n. [C] someone who writes articles that give his/her opinion about new books, plays, movies, etc.

re-vile /rɪˈvaɪl/ v. [T] (formal) to express hatred of someone or something re-vise /rɪˈvaɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to change your opinions, plans, etc. because of new information or ideas: Plans for the building are being revised.

THESAURUS change, alter, adapt, adjust, modify, amend → CHANGE¹

2 ENG. LANG. ARTS to improve a piece of writing:

Students should be encouraged to revise their writing. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French réviser, from Latin revisere “to look at again”] re-vi-sion /rɪˈvɪʒən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] the process of changing something to improve it, especially a piece of writing: a revision of the labor laws 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a piece of writing that has been improved re-vi-tal-ize /rɪˈvaɪtl, aɪz/ v. [T] to make something become strong, active, or powerful again: The city has begun to revitalize the downtown area (=make businesses stronger, rebuild buildings, etc.). —revitalization /rɪˈvaɪtl-əˈzeɪʃən/ n. [U] re-viv-al /rɪˈvaɪvəl/ n. 1 [C,U] a process in which something becomes active, strong, or popular again: a revival of interest in traditional crafts 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a new performance of a play that has not been performed for a long time: a revival of “Oklahoma!” 3 [C] also revival meeting a public religious meeting that is intended to make people interested in Christianity re-vive /rɪˈvaɪv/ v. 1 [I,T] to become conscious, healthy, or strong, or to make someone or something do this: measures to revive a sagging economy 2 [T] to bring something back into use or existence: The workshop will help revive the ancient craft of storytelling. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French revivre, from Latin revivere “to live again”] re-voke /rɪˈvəʊk/ v. [T] LAW to officially state that a law, decision, etc. is no longer effective (SYN) cancel: Her driver's license has been revoked. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French revoquer, from Latin revocare “to call back”] re-volt¹ /rɪˈvəʊlt/ v. 1 [I] to refuse to obey a government, law, etc., often using violence against it (SYN) rebel → REVOLUTION: Rebels in the south revolted against the government. 2 [T] to make you feel sick and shocked → REVULSION: The idea revolted me. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French révolter, from Old Italian rivoltare “to defeat and remove from power”]

revolt² n. [C,U] a refusal to obey a government, law, etc., sometimes expressed by violent action against it: a revolt against an unfair tax | The people rose in revolt. | a slave revolt in 1791

THESAURUS revolution, rebellion, uprising, insurrection, insurgency, coup → REVOLUTION

re-volt-ing /rɪˈvəʊltɪŋ/ adj. extremely unpleasant: a revolting stench

THESAURUS horrible, disgusting, awful, foul, terrible, dreadful, horrendous → HORRIBLE

rev-o-lu-tion /ˌrevəˈluʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] POLITICS a time when people change a ruler or political system by using force or violence: the American Revolution

THESAURUS

rebellion – an organized attempt to change the government of a country using violence: an armed rebellion revolt – a refusal to obey a government, law, etc., or an occasion when people try to change the government of a country, often by using violence: Troops loyal to the President crushed the revolt.
uprising – an occasion when a large group of people use violence to try to change the rules, laws, etc. in an institution or country: a popular uprising (=involving ordinary people, not the army) insurrection (formal) – an attempt by a group of people within a country to take control using force and violence: an armed insurrection led by the army insurgency (formal) – the action of fighting against the government of your own country: the Communist insurgency in Vietnam in the 1950s and 60s coup – an action in which a group of people, especially soldiers, suddenly take control of their country: The President was deposed in a violent military coup.

R

2 [C] a complete change in ways of thinking, methods of working, etc.: Computer technology has caused a revolution in business practices. | the sexual revolution 3 [C,U] one complete circular movement or spin around a central point → REVOLVE: The earth makes one revolution around the sun each year. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin revolutio, from revolvere “to roll back, cause to return”]

rev-o-lu-tion-ar-y¹ /ˌrevəˈluʃənəri/ (Ac) adj. 1 completely new and different: a revolutionary new treatment for cancer 2 POLITICS relating to a political or social revolution: a revolutionary army revolutionary² n. (plural revolutionaries) [C] someone who joins in or supports a political or social revolution rev-o-lu-tion-ize /ˌrevəˈluʃən,aɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] to completely change the way people think or do things: His work revolutionized the treatment of this disease.

THESAURUS change, alter, adjust, modify, revise, reform, transform → CHANGE¹ re-volve /rɪˈvəlv/ v. [I,T] to spin around a central point, or to make something do this: The wheels began to revolve slowly. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin revolvere “to roll back, cause to return,” from volvere “to roll”]

THESAURUS turn, twist, spin, whirl, twirl, swivel, go around, rotate → TURN¹ —revolving adj.: a revolving door

revolve around phr. v. 1 revolve around sb/sth to have something as a main subject or purpose:

Jess's life has revolved around basketball. 2 revolve around sth to move in circles around something: The moon revolves around the earth.

re-volv-er /rɪˈvɒlvə/ n. [C] a type of small gun that you hold in one hand re-vue /rɪˈvyu/ n. [C] a show in a theater that includes singing, dancing, and telling jokes re-vul-sion /rɪˈvʌljən/ n. [U] a strong feeling of shock and strong dislike [SYN] disgust re-ward /rɪˈwɔːd/ n. [C,U] something that you get because you have done something good or helpful or have worked hard → AWARD, PRIZE: The police are offering a reward for information.

reward ² v. [T] to give something to someone because s/he has done something good or helpful or has worked for it: The students are rewarded for hard work. | They rewarded him with a free ticket.

re-ward-ing /rɪˈwɔːdɪŋ/ adj. making you feel happy and satisfied: a rewarding job

R

re-wind /rɪˈwaɪnd/ v. (past tense and past participle rewound /-ˈwaʊnd/) [I,T] to make a TAPE go back to the beginning re-work /rɪˈwɜːk/ v. [T] to change or improve a plan, piece of music, story, etc.: He spent some time reworking the last paragraph.

re-write /rɪˈraɪt/ v. (past tense rewrote /-ˈrəʊt/, past participle rewritten /-ˈrɪtɪn/) [T] to write something again using different words, in order to make it clearer or more effective —rewrite /ˈrɪraɪt/ n. [C] rhap-so-dize /ˈræpsəˌdaɪz/ v. [I] to talk about something in an eager, excited, and approving way: Helen rhapsodized about the wild strawberries she had found.

rhap-so-dy /ˈræpsədi/ n. (plural rhapsodies) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a piece of music that is written to express emotion, and does not have a regular form

Rhe-sus fac-tor /ˈrɪsəs ˌfæktə/ n. [singular] BIOLOGY a substance that some people have in their red blood cells

rhet-o-ric /ˈrɛtərɪk/ n. [U] 1 speech or writing that sounds impressive, but is not actually sincere or very useful: slick speeches and political rhetoric 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the art of speaking or writing in order to persuade or influence people rhe-tor-i-cal /rɪˈtɔːrɪkəl, -ˈtɑ-/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS using speech or writing in special ways in order to persuade people or to produce an impressive effect: The poem is deliberately direct, with far fewer rhetorical devices (=particular examples of rhetorical language) than in his early work. | the president's rhetorical skills [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French rethorique, from Latin, from Greek rhetorike, from rhetor “public speaker,” from eirein “to say, speak”] —rhetorically adv.

rhe-torical 'question n. [C] a question that you ask as a way of making a statement, without expecting an answer rheu-ma-tism /ˈruməˌtɪzəm/ n. [U] a disease that makes your joints or muscles painful and stiff rhine-stone /ˈraɪnstəʊn/ n. [C,U] a jewel made from glass or a rock, that is intended to look like a DIAMOND

rhi-noc-er-os /raɪˈnɒsərəs/ also rhi-no /ˈraɪnoʊ/ n. [C] a large heavy animal with thick rough skin and one or two horns on its nose [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin, Greek, from rhis “nose” + keras “horn”] rho-do-den-dron /ˈrəʊdəˌdendrən/ n. [C] a large bush with groups of red, purple, pink, or white flowers [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Modern Latin, Greek, from rhodon “rose” + dendron “tree”] rhomboid /ˈrɒmbɔɪd/ n. [C] MATH a PARALLELOGRAM in which the opposite sides are equal and the ADJACENT sides are not equal rhombus /ˈrɒmbəs/ n. [C] MATH a flat shape with four equal straight sides, especially a shape that is not a square → see picture at POLYGON

rhu-barb /ˈrubərb/ n. [U] a plant with long thick red stems that are cooked and eaten as a fruit [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French reubarbe, from Medieval Latin reubarbarum, from rha “rhubarb” (from Greek) + barbarus “foreign”] rhyme ¹ /raɪm/ v. 1 [I] ENG. LANG. ARTS if two words or lines of poetry rhyme, they end with the same sound: “House” rhymes with “mouse.” 2 [T] ENG. LANG. ARTS to put two or more words together to make them rhyme: You can't rhyme “box” with “backs.”

rhyme ² n. 1 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the use of words that rhyme in poetry, especially at the ends of lines: Parts of Shakespeare's plays are written in rhyme. 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a short poem or song, especially for children, using words that rhyme → NURSERY RHYME 3 [C] a word that ends with the same sound as another word: I can't find a rhyme for “donkey.” 4 rhyme or reason used in negative statements to say there does not seem to be a sensible reason for something: There seemed to be no rhyme or reason to the court's decision. | The facts were presented one after the other, without rhyme or reason.

rhythm /ˈrɪðəm/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a regular repeated pattern of sounds in music, speech, etc.: the rhythm of the music [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin rhythmus, from Greek, from rhein “to flow”] rhythm and 'blues n. [U] R & B

rhyth-mic /ˈrɪðmɪk/ adj. having rhythm: a rhythmic swinging motion

RI the written abbreviation of RHODE ISLAND

rib ¹ /rɪb/ n. [C] 1 one of the 12 pairs of curved bones that surround your lungs, or one of the similar bones in an animal → see picture on page A3 2 a piece of meat that includes an animal's rib: barbecued ribs

rib² v. (ribbed, ribbing) [T] (informal) to make jokes about someone and laugh at him/her, but in a friendly way (SYN) tease —ribbing n. [U] ri-bald /ˈraɪbɔld, ˈrɪbɔld/ adj. ribald jokes, remarks, songs, etc. are humorous and usually about sex ribbed /rɪbd/ adj. having a pattern of raised lines: a ribbed sweater rib-bon /ˈrɪbən/ n. 1 [C,U] a long narrow piece of cloth, used for tying things or as a decoration: Her braids were tied with bright red ribbons. 2 [C] a colored ribbon that is given as a prize in a competition → BLUE RIBBON [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 rib and “ribbon” (14–21 centuries), from Old French riban, ruban]

'rib cage n. [C] BIOLOGY the structure of ribs around your lungs and heart

ri-bo-so-mal RNA /ˌraɪbəsoʊməl ˈɑːr ɛn ˈet/ (abbreviation rRNA) n. [U] BIOLOGY RNA that is part of a ribosome ri-bo-some /ˌraɪbəsoʊm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a small part of every living cell, consisting of PROTEIN and the chemical substance ribosomal RNA. Ribosomes change AMINO ACIDS into PROTEIN. → see picture at CELL rice /raɪs/ n. [U] a white or brown grain grown in wet fields that is eaten after it has been boiled [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French ris, from Greek oryza, oryzon]

'rice paddy n. [C] a PADDY

rich /rɪtʃ/ adj. 1 having a lot of money or valuable possessions (ANT) poor: one of the richest women in America | a rich and powerful nation | a bright young lawyer who wants to get rich

THESAURUS

well-off – fairly rich, so that you can live very comfortably wealthy – used especially about people whose families have been rich for a long time prosperous (formal) – rich and successful affluent (formal) – having a lot of money, nice houses, expensive things, etc.

well-to-do – rich and having a high position in society rolling in it/loaded (informal) – extremely rich → POOR

2 rich foods contain a lot of butter, cream, or eggs, and make you feel full very quickly (ANT) light: rich desserts 3 containing a lot of something good: Oranges are rich in vitamin C. | a rich cultural heritage 4 the rich people who have a lot of money or valuable possessions 5 very deep, strong, and pleasant: the rich colors of Brett's illustrations | the rich tone of a cello | the wine's rich flavor 6 good for growing plants in: rich soil 7 expensive and beautiful: rich silk [ORIGIN: Old English rice] —richness n. [U]

rich-es /ˈrɪtʃɪz/ n. [plural] (literary) a lot of money or valuable possessions

rich-ly /ˈrɪtʃli/ adv. 1 in a beautiful or expensive way: a richly colored window | The woman was richly dressed. 2 in large amounts: Their efforts were richly rewarded. | a richly forested area 3 richly deserve to completely deserve something: They got the punishment they so richly deserved.

Rich-ter scale /ˈrɪktər ˌskeɪl/ n. [singular] EARTH SCIENCES a scale that shows how strong an EARTHQUAKE is, with 1 being very weak and 10 being the strongest rick-et-y /ˈrɪkəti/ adj. a rickety piece of furniture, set of stairs, etc. is in bad condition and is likely to break if you use it rick-shaw /ˈrɪkʃəʊ/ n. [C] a small vehicle used in Asia for carrying one or two passengers that is pulled by someone walking or riding a bicycle [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Japanese jirrikisha, from jin “man” + riki “strength” + sha “vehicle”] ric-o-chet /ˈrɪkəʃet/ v. [I] if something such as a bullet or a thrown rock ricochets, it changes direction when it hits a surface —ricochet n. [C] rid¹ /rɪd/ adj. 1 get rid of sb/sth a) to throw away something you do not want or use: Get rid of all your old clothes that don't fit. b) to make something that is unpleasant go away, stop happening, or stop existing: I can't get rid of this cold. c) to make someone leave because s/he annoys you or causes problems: It can be difficult to get rid of under-performing employees. 2 be rid of sb/sth to have gotten rid of someone who annoys you or something that is unpleasant: He's gone, and I'm glad to be rid of him. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old Norse rythja “to clear land”] rid² v. (past tense and past participle rid, ridding)

rid sb/sth of sth phr. v. 1 to remove someone or something that is bad or harmful from a place, organization, etc.: The diet is supposed to rid the body of toxins (=poisonous substances that can cause illness). 2 rid yourself of sth to stop having a feeling, thought, or problem that was causing you trouble: She's taking classes to rid herself of her Southern accent.

rid-dance /ˈrɪdn/ n. good riddance (spoken) said when you are glad that someone or something has gone away rid-dle /ˈrɪdl/ n. [C] 1 a difficult and amusing question that you must guess the answer to 2 a mysterious action, event, or situation that you do not understand and cannot explain: His disappearance is a riddle.

rid-dled /ˈrɪdlɪd/ adj. riddled with sth very full of something, especially something bad or unpleasant: a street riddled with potholes

ride¹ /raɪd/ v. (past tense rode /roudd/, past participle ridden /ˈrɪdn/) 1 [I,T] to sit on an animal, especially a horse, or on a bicycle, and make it move along: He rode his bike to school. | In the movies, the bad guys ride on black horses. 2 [I,T] to travel in a car, train, or other vehicle → DRIVE: We rode

R

the bus into New York City. | Mrs. Turnbull rode in silence. | My three-year-old loves to ride the escalators in Bloomingdale's. 3 let sth ride (spoken) to take no action about something that is wrong or unpleasant: I didn't like what he was saying, but I let it ride. 4 [T] (spoken) to annoy someone by continuously criticizing him/her or asking him/her to do a lot of things: Why are you riding her so hard? [ORIGIN: Old English ridan] ride on sth phr. v. if something is riding on something else, it depends on it: My chances of making the team are riding on tomorrow's tryouts.

ride sth ↔ out phr. v. if you ride out a difficult situation or experience, you are not badly harmed by it: The company managed to ride out the recession.

ride² n. [C] 1 a trip in a car, train, or other vehicle, when you are not driving: Have you gone for a ride in Peggy's new car yet? | a 30-minute train/bus/car etc. ride | Mick gave me a ride to work. 2 a large machine that people ride on for pleasure at a FAIR or AMUSEMENT PARK: a new ride at Disneyland 3 a trip on an animal, especially a horse, or on a bicycle: a fifteen-mile bike ride | Want to go for a ride?

rid-er /'raɪdər/ n. [C] someone who rides a horse, bicycle, etc.

ridge /rɪdʒ/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a long area of high land, especially at the top of a mountain: a ridge overlooking the valley → see picture on page A11 2 something long and thin that is raised above the things around it: There are still ridges and ruts left in the ground by wagon wheels.

rid-i-cule¹ /'rɪdɪ.kyul/ n. [U] unkind laughter, or remarks intended to make someone or something seem stupid: The other children made her an object/target of ridicule. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French, Latin ridiculum “something funny,” from ridere “to laugh”] ridicule² v. [T] to laugh at a person, idea, etc., or to make unkind remarks about him, her, or it: At the time, his ideas were ridiculed.

ri-dic-u-lous /rɪ'dɪkyləs/ adj. silly or unreasonable: That's ridiculous! I never even met him. | He looked ridiculous. —ridiculously adv.

rid-ing /'raɪdɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of riding horses: Let's go riding.

rife /raɪf/ adj. 1 rife with sth full of something bad: The office is rife with rumors. 2 if something bad is rife, it is very common riff /rɪf/ n. [C] a repeated series of notes in popular music ri-fle¹ /'raɪfəl/ n. [C] a long gun that you hold up to your shoulder to shoot [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 rifle “to cut grooves on the inside of something, especially a gun barrel” (17–21 centuries), from Old French rifler “to cut into a surface, steal”] rifle² v. [T] also rifle through to search through a place and steal things from it: Someone had been rifling through my desk.

rift /rɪft/ n. [C] 1 a serious disagreement: a growing rift between the two countries 2 a crack or narrow opening in a large piece of rock, group of clouds, etc.

'rift valley n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a valley with very steep sides, formed by the cracking and moving of the Earth's surface

rig¹ /rɪɡ/ v. (rigged, rigging) [T] 1 to dishonestly arrange or influence the result of an election, competition, etc., or the price that will be charged for something: The opposition charged that the election had been rigged. 2 also rig sth ↔ up to arrange something so that it will do something in a particular way: She rigged a mosquito net over the bed. 3 to provide a ship with ropes, sails, etc.

rig sth ↔ up phr. v. to make a piece of equipment, furniture, etc. from objects that you find around you: He'd rigged up a buzzer by his bed so he could call his wife.

rig² n. [C] 1 a large structure used for digging to find oil 2 (informal) a large truck rig-a-ma-role /'rɪɡmə,roʊl/ n. [singular, U] another spelling of RIGMAROLE rig-ging /'rɪɡɪŋ/ n. [U] all the ropes, sails, etc. on a ship

right¹ /raɪt/ adj. 1 correct or true (ANT wrong): Did you get the right answer? | You were right – it's really busy tonight.

THESAURUS

correct – used about answers, facts, etc. that are right: Is this information correct?

accurate – used about measurements, descriptions, etc. that are completely right: Can you give us an accurate description of the man?

true – based on facts, and not imagined or invented: a true understanding of the problem
→ WRONG¹

2 on the right, which is the side of the body that has the hand most people write with (ANT left): Make a right turn after the gas station. | Raise your right hand. 3 best or most appropriate for a particular situation or purpose (ANT wrong): the right choice | the right person for the job

THESAURUS

appropriate, suitable, suited, proper → APPROPRIATE¹

4 morally correct, or done according to the law (ANT wrong): I'm only trying to do what's right. | Was I right to report him to the police? 5 be in the right place at the right time to be in a place or position where something useful becomes available or is being offered

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 that's right said in order to agree with what someone says, to answer “yes” to a question, or when you remember something or are reminded of it: “You're Steve?” “That's right.” | “No, it's on Friday.” “Oh, that's right.” 7 said in order to check if what you have said is correct: There's a meeting at two, right? 8 yeah, right said when you do not believe what has just been said: He says, "I'll call you," and I'm like, "yeah, right." 9 used in order to check that someone understands and agrees with what you have said: If people are comfortable, they're more likely to talk, right?

[ORIGIN: Old English riht] → see also ALL RIGHT

right² adv. 1 exactly in a particular position or place: Shut up, he's right behind you! | I left the keys right there/here. 2 immediately: Call me back right away. | I need it right now! | It's on right after the six o'clock news. | I'll be right there (=I am coming now). | She'll be right back (=come back soon). 3 correctly (ANT) wrong: They didn't spell my name right. 4 toward the right side (ANT) left: Turn right at the lights. 5 all the way to something, through something, etc.: The school is right on the other side of town. | You can see right through her bathing suit! 6 sb will be right with you used in order to say that someone will come soon to help or talk to you: Your waitress will be right with you.

right³ n. 1 [C] something that you are allowed to do or have according to the law or according to moral ideas: Women didn't have the right to vote until 1920. | a defendant's right to a trial | the fight for equal rights (=rights that are the same for everyone) → CIVIL RIGHTS, HUMAN RIGHTS 2 [singular] the side of your body that has the hand that most people write with, or the direction toward this side (ANT) left: Traffic in the U.S. drives on the right. | the door to your right 3 [U] behavior that is morally correct: Teach your kids to know right from wrong (=know what is morally correct and what is not). 4 in his/her/its own right considered alone, without depending on anyone or anything else: San José is a city in its own right, not just a suburb of San Francisco. 5 have a right to be/do sth to have a good reason to do something, feel something, expect something, etc.: Weil has every right to be angry. | You have no right to tell me what to do! 6 the right/Right POLITICS political parties or other groups who believe that the government should keep taxes low and encourage private business rather than businesses owned by the state → CONSERVATIVE (ANT) left 7 rights [plural] LAW legal permission to print or use a story, movie, etc. in another form: the movie rights to his new book

right⁴ v. [T] 1 to put something back in an upright position: We righted the canoe. 2 to correct something: an attempt to right the wrong (=correct something bad that was done) of discrimination

'right angle n. [C] MATH an angle of 90°, like the angles at the corners of a square —right-angled adj.

'right-click v. [I,T] IT to press the right button on a computer MOUSE to make the computer do something right-eous /'raɪtʃəs/ adj. 1 righteous indignation/anger etc. strong feelings of anger when you think a situation is not morally right or fair 2 (literary) morally good and fair: a righteous man —righteousness n. [U] —righteously adv.

'right field n. [singular] the area in baseball in the right side of the OUTFIELD right-ful /'raɪtʃəl/ adj. according to what is legally and morally correct: Racism denied them their rightful place in society. —rightfully adv.

'right-hand adj. 1 on your right side: Make a right-hand turn. 2 sb's right-hand man the person who supports and helps someone the most, especially in his/her job

'right-handed adj. 1 someone who is right-handed uses his/her right hand for most things 2 done with the right hand: right-handed pitching —right-handed adv.

right-ly /'raɪtli/ adv. correctly, or for a good reason: The book has rightly been called "an American Classic." | The organization decided, rightly or wrongly, that the problem was limited.

'right of way n. (plural rights of way) 1 [U] the right to drive into or across a road before other vehicles: You have the right of way at this intersection. 2 [C,U] the right to go across private land, or a place where you can do this

'right 'triangle also 'right-angled 'triangle n. [C] MATH a TRIANGLE in which the angle opposite the longest side measures 90° → see picture at TRIANGLE

'right-wing adj. POLITICS a right-wing person or group supports the ideas and beliefs of CAPITALISM (ANT) left-wing: a right-wing newspaper —right-winger n. [C] —right wing n. [singular]

rig-id /'rɪdɪd/ (AC) adj. 1 rigid methods, systems, etc. are very strict and difficult to change (ANT) flexible: parents who set rigid rules

THESAURUS strict, firm, rigorous, stringent → STRICT

2 someone who is rigid is very unwilling to change his/her ideas (ANT) flexible 3 stiff and not moving or bending (ANT) flexible: a tent supported on a rigid frame [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin rigidus, from rigere "to be stiff"]

THESAURUS hard, firm, stiff → HARD¹

—rigidly adv. —rigidity /rɪ'dʒɪdɪti/ n. [U] rig-ma-role /'rɪgmə,roʊl/ n. [singular, U] a set of actions that seems silly: the rigmarole of filling out all these forms [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 ragman roll "document containing a long list, used in a game called "ragman"" (15—18 centuries)] rig-or /'rɪgər/ n. 1 [U] the action of taking great care and being thorough in making sure that something is correct: students who lack intellectual rigor 2 the rigors of sth the problems and difficulties of a situation: the rigors of a Canadian winter rig-or mor-tis /ˌrɪɡər ˈmɔrtɪs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the condition in which someone's body becomes stiff after s/he dies rig-or-ous /ˈrɪɡərəs/ adj. 1 careful and thorough: rigorous safety checks

R

THESAURUS strict, tough, firm, stringent → STRICT

2 very strict or severe: rigorous education standards —rigorously adv.

rile /raɪl/ also rile up v. [T] (informal) to make someone very angry rim /rɪm/ n. [C] 1 the outside edge of something, especially something circular such as a glass: the rim of the Grand Canyon

THESAURUS edge, border, boundary, perimeter, margin, hem, curb → EDGE¹

R

2 -rimmed with a particular type of rim: gold-rimmed glasses

rind /raɪnd/ n. [C,U] the thick outer skin of some foods, such as cheese or fruit

ring¹ /rɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 a piece of jewelry that you wear on your finger: a wedding ring | a diamond ring → see picture at JEWELRY 2 a circular line or mark: a dirty ring around the tub 3 an object in the shape of a circle: a key ring 4 a group of people or things arranged in a circle: a ring of young birch trees 5 a group of people who illegally control a business or criminal activity: a drug ring 6 the sound made by a bell, or the act of making this sound: a ring at the door → see picture on page A7 7 a small square area where people BOX or WRESTLE, or the large circular area surrounded by seats at a CIRCUS [ORIGIN: (1) Old English hring]

ring² v. (past tense rang /ræŋ/, past participle rung /rʌŋ/) 1 [I,T] to make a bell make a sound, especially to call someone's attention to you: Benjy rang the doorbell. 2 [I] if a bell rings, it makes a noise: The telephone's ringing. 3 [I] if your ears ring, they are filled with a continuous sound that only you can hear 4 ring a bell (informal) if something rings a bell, you think you have heard it before: Frank Gordon – the name rings a bell, but I can't be sure. 5 not ring true if something does not ring true, you do not believe it: None of these explanations rang true.

ring out phr. v. if a voice, bell, etc. rings out, it makes a loud and clear sound: Shouts rang out from the schoolyard.

ring sth ↔ up phr. v. to press buttons on a CASH REGISTER to record how much money needs to be put inside it: She rang up our purchases.

ring³ v. (past tense and past participle ringed) [T] to surround something: a house ringed by trees ring-lead-er /ˈrɪŋ,lɪdər/ n. [C] someone who leads a group that is doing something illegal or wrong ring-let /ˈrɪŋlɪt/ n. [C] a long curl of hair that hangs down ring-side /ˈrɪŋsaɪd/ n. [singular] the area nearest to the performance in a CIRCUS or BOXING match: a ringside seat ring-worm /ˈrɪŋwɜrm/ n. [U] a common disease that gives you red rough circles on your skin rink /rɪŋk/ n. [C] a building with a specially prepared area with a smooth surface where you can SKATE: an ice rink

rinse¹ /rɪns/ v. [T] to use running water and no soap in order to remove dirt, soap, etc.: He used a hose to rinse off the car. | Rinse the lettuce in cold water. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French rincer]

rinse sth ↔ out phr. v. to wash something with clean water but not soap: Chuck rinsed out his cup.

rinse² n. 1 [C,U] a product used for slightly changing the color of hair: a brown rinse 2 [C] an act of rinsing something: Add fabric softener during the final rinse.

ri-ot¹ /ˈraɪət/ n. 1 [C] a situation in which a crowd of people behaves in a violent and uncontrolled way: the race riots (=caused by problems between different races of people) of the late 1960s 2 [singular] someone or something that is very funny or enjoyable 3 read sb the riot act (informal) to warn someone angrily that s/he must stop doing something wrong [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French “quarrel”] riot² v. [I] if a crowd of people riots, they all behave violently in a public place → PROTEST² —rioter n. [C] ri-ot-ing /ˈraɪətɪŋ/ n. [U] violent and uncontrolled behavior from a crowd that is out of control: Rioting broke out in the city late last night.

ri-ot-ous /ˈraɪətəs/ adj. 1 noisy, exciting, and fun in an uncontrolled way: the kids cheered with riotous pleasure 2 noisy, possibly dangerous, and not controlled: riotous crowds

RIP Rest in Peace – written on a GRAVESTONE

rip¹ /rɪp/ v. (ripped, ripping) [I,T] to tear something, or be torn, quickly and violently: Dave ripped his jacket on the fence. | Don't pull on it; it'll rip. | I ripped a sheet of paper from my notebook. | Impatiently, Sue ripped the letter open.

rip sth ↔ apart phr. v. to destroy something by separating it into pieces: Their family has been ripped apart by the murder. | The bomb ripped apart a bus.

rip into sb phr. v. to criticize someone angrily rip off phr. v. (spoken) 1 rip sb ↔ off to charge someone too much money for something: The cab driver tried to rip me off! 2 rip sth ↔ off to steal something: Someone ripped off the liquor store.

rip through sth phr. v. to move through a place quickly and violently: typhoons that rip through the islands rip sth ↔ up phr. v. to tear something into several pieces: In frustration, she ripped up her story.

rip² n. [C] a long tear or cut ripe /raɪp/ adj. 1 ripe food or crops are ready to eat: ripe peaches 2 be ripe for sth to be in the right condition for something: The company is weak and ripe for a takeover. 3 the time is ripe (for sth) used in order to say it is the right time for something to happen: She'll grab for power when the time is ripe. 4 ripe old age if you live to a ripe old age, you are very old when you die [ORIGIN: Old English] —ripeness n. [U] rip-en /ˈrɪpən/ v. [I,T] to become ripe, or to make something do this rip-off, rip-off /ˈrɪpɒf/ n. [C] (spoken) 1 something that is unreasonably expensive, and makes you feel cheated: Most diet products are a complete ripoff. 2 a piece of music or art or a movie that copies something else without admitting it rip-ple¹ /ˈrɪpəl/ v. 1 [I,T] to move in small waves, or to make something do this: a soft breeze rippled the wheat 2 [I] to make a noise like water that is flowing gently: water rippling over rocks 3 [I] to pass from one person to the next like a wave: Laughter rippled through/around the crowd.

ripple² n. [C] 1 a small low wave on the surface of a liquid: ripples on the pond 2 a feeling or sound that spreads through a person or group because of something that happens: A ripple of laughter ran through the audience. 3 ripple effect a situation in which one action causes another, which then causes a third, etc.

rise¹ /raɪz/ v. (past tense rose /rouz/, past participle risen /ˈrɪzən/) [I]

1 INCREASE to increase in number, amount, quality, or value (ANT fall): Ocean temperatures are rising. | Tourism rose by 4% last year. | The population has risen steadily/sharply since the 1950s. | rising crime/unemployment

THESAURUS increase, go up, grow, double, shoot up, multiply → INCREASE¹

2 GO UP to go up (ANT fall): Smoke rose from the chimney. | The tide had risen. → see picture at RAISE¹

USAGE

Rise is not followed by an object: The balloon rose high into the air.

Raise is always followed by an object: Raise your hand if you know the answer.

3 STAND to stand up: Thornton rose to his feet and turned to speak to them.

4 BECOME SUCCESSFUL to become important, powerful, successful, or rich: Presley rose to fame in the 1950s.

5 VOICE/SOUND to be heard, especially by getting louder or stronger: The sound of traffic rose from the street below.

6 SUN/MOON/STAR to appear in the sky (ANT set): The moon rose over the lake.

7 EMOTION to get stronger: You could feel the excitement rising as we waited.

8 MOUNTAIN/BUILDING to be or seem taller than anything else around: the skyscrapers that rise above the Manhattan skyline

9 BREAD/CAKES if bread, cakes, etc. rise, they become bigger as they bake because there is air inside them

10 rise to the occasion/challenge to deal with a difficult situation or problem successfully by doing things better than you have done them before

11 all rise (spoken, formal) used in order to tell people to stand up when a judge enters a court of law

12 BED (literary) to get out of bed in the morning

13 AGAINST A GOVERNMENT (literary) also rise up to try to defeat the government or army that is in control of your country (SYN rebel)

rise above sth phr. v.

to be good or wise enough to not let a bad situation or influence affect you: He rose above his poverty-stricken childhood to become a top lawyer. [ORIGIN: Old English risan]

rise² n. 1 [C] an increase in number, amount, or value (ANT fall): a rise in college costs | price rises 2 [singular] the achievement of importance, success, or power (ANT fall): a book about his rise to fame/power/prominence 3 give rise to sth to be the reason something happens or begins to exist: The book's popularity gave rise to a number of imitations. 4 [C] a movement upward: the rise and fall of her chest as she breathed 5 [C] an upward slope: a slight rise in the road 6 get a rise out of sb (informal) to make someone annoyed or embarrassed by making a joke about him/her

ris-er /ˈraɪzə/ n. 1 early/late riser someone who usually wakes up very early or very late 2 risers [plural] a set of steps for a group of people to stand on

risk¹ /rɪsk/ n. 1 [C,U] the chance that something bad may happen: the risk of injury to workers | There was a risk (that) the herd would stampede. | There is no risk to public health. | Healthy eating reduces the risk of cancer.

THESAURUS danger, threat, hazard → DANGER

2 take a risk to do something even though there is a chance that something bad will happen: We knew we were taking a risk when we lent him the money. 3 at risk likely to be harmed or put in a bad situation: The firm's reputation is at risk. | Small children may be at risk from car airbags. | men at risk of/for diabetes | people whose lifestyles put them at risk for AIDS 4 run a risk to be in a situation where something bad may happen to you: The nurses run the risk of infection. 5 at your own risk if you do something at your own risk, no one else is responsible if something bad happens: Parking is at your own risk. 6 [C] something that is likely to hurt you or be dangerous: Oily rags are a fire risk. | the risk factors for heart disease (=things that make you likely to get sick) 7 [C] a person or business to whom it is a good or bad idea to give insurance or lend money: Drivers under 21 are considered poor insurance risks. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French risque, from Italian risco]

R

risk² v. [T] 1 to put something in a situation in which it could be lost, destroyed, or harmed: I'm not going to risk my life to save a cat! | If you don't make the loan payments, you risk losing your home. 2 to do something that you know may have bad results: She risked a glance back over her shoulder.

risk-y /'riski/ adj. involving a risk that something bad will happen: Doctors said that operating would be too risky. | Investing in the stock market is risky business (=a risky thing to do). —riskiness n. [U] ris-qué /rɪs'keɪ/ adj. a joke, remark, etc. that is risqué is slightly shocking because it is about sex rite /raɪt/ n. [C] 1 a ceremony that is always performed in the same way, often for a religious purpose: funeral rites 2 rite of passage a special ceremony or action that is a sign of a new time in someone's life

rit-u-al /'rɪtʃuəl/ n. [C,U] a ceremony or set of actions that is always done in the same way: religious rituals | the Christmas ritual of decorating the tree ritual² adj. 1 done as part of a rite or ritual: ritual sacrifice 2 done in a particular expected way, but without real meaning: ritual campaign promises ritz-y /'rɪtsi/ adj. (informal) fashionable and expensive: a ritzy neighborhood ri-val /'raɪvəl/ n. [C] a person, group, or organization that you compete with: a business rival [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin rivalis “someone who uses the same stream as another, rival in love,” from rivus “stream”] rival² adj. rival company/team/player etc. a person, group, or organization that competes against you: rival airlines rival³ v. [T] to be as good or important as someone or something else: The band rivaled The Doors as L.A.'s finest rock band.

ri-val-ry /'raɪvəlri/ n. (plural rivalries) [C,U] competition over a long period of time: sibling rivalry | the rivalry between the two teams river /'rɪvə/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a natural and continuous flow of water in a long line that goes into an ocean, lake, etc.: the Colorado River | trees on the river bank (=land on the edge of a river) | a boat sailing up/down river (=in the opposite direction that a river is flowing, or in the same direction) 2 a large amount of moving liquid: a river of tears [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French rivere, from Latin riparius “of a river bank”] river-bed /'rɪvə,bɛd/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES the ground over which a river flows river-side /'rɪvə,sɑɪd/ n. [singular] the land on the sides of a river: a cottage on the riverside riv-et¹ /'rɪvɪt/ n. [C] a metal pin for fastening flat pieces of metal together rivet² v. [T] 1 to attract and hold someone's attention: People sat riveted to their TVs during the trial. 2 to fasten something with rivets riv-et-ing /'rɪvətɪŋ/ adj. extremely interesting: a riveting tale of suspense

THESAURUS interesting, fascinating, absorbing, enthralling, engrossing, compelling, gripping → INTERESTING

R.N. the abbreviation of REGISTERED NURSE

RNA n. [U] BIOLOGY ribonucleic acid an important chemical that exists in all living cells and controls chemical activity in cells → DNA

roach /rootʃ/ n. [C] (informal) a COCKROACH

road /roud/ n. 1 [C,U] a specially prepared hard surface for vehicles to travel on: Tom's dad lives just up/down the road (=farther along the road). | the main road out of town | a side/back road (=a small one that is not used very much) | the traffic on Mission Road | ice on the roads (=on all the streets and roads in an area)

THESAURUS

Types of road

street – a road in a town, with houses or stores on each side main street – a road in the middle of a town where many stores, offices, etc. are avenue – a road in a town, often with trees on each side lane – a narrow road in the country, or one of the two or three parallel areas on a road which are divided by painted lines to keep traffic apart main road – a large and important road the main drag (informal) – the main road through a town highway – a very wide road for traveling fast over long distances freeway/expressway – a very wide road in a city or between cities, on which cars can travel very fast without stopping toll road – a road that you pay to use turnpike – a large road for fast traffic that you pay to use

2 on the road a) traveling for a long distance, especially in a car: We've been on the road since 7:00 a.m. b) if a sports team, group of actors, etc. are on the road, they are traveling to different places playing games or giving performances: Oregon had two losses on the road. 3 on the road to success/recovery etc. developing in a way that will result in success, health, etc. 4 down the road in the future: That may cause problems further down the road. [ORIGIN: Old English rad “ride, journey”] road-block /'rəʊdblæk/ n. [C] 1 something that stops the progress of a plan: Lack of education is a roadblock to success. 2 a place where the police are blocking the road to stop traffic: Police put/set up roadblocks to catch drunk drivers.

road-house /'rəʊdhaʊs/ n. [C] a restaurant or BAR on a road outside a city road-kill /'rəʊdkɪl/ n. [U] (informal) animals that are killed by cars on a road or HIGHWAY road-run-ner /'rəʊd,rʌnə/ n. [C] a small bird that runs very fast and lives in the southwest U.S.

road-side /'rəʊdsɑɪd/ n. [singular] the edge of a road: a roadside restaurant

'road trip n. [C] 1 a long trip in a car, taken for pleasure 2 an occasion when a sports team travels to other places to play: a four-game road trip road-way /'rəʊdweɪ/ n. [singular] the part of the road that is used by vehicles roam /rəʊm/ v. [I,T] to walk or travel for a long time with no clear purpose: Buffalo roamed the prairie. | I spent the summer roaming around/through Europe.

roar¹ /rɔː/ v. 1 [I] to make a deep, very loud noise: lions roaring | Jets roared overhead. 2 [I] if a vehicle roars somewhere, it moves very quickly and in a noisy way: Two motorcycles roared down the street. 3 [I,T] to say something or laugh with a loud voice: “What are you doing?” he roared. | The audience roared with laughter.

roar² n. [C] a deep loud continuous sound: a roar of laughter | the roar of the engine roar-ing /'rɔːrɪŋ/ adj. roaring fire a fire that burns with a lot of flames and heat roast¹ /rəʊst/ v. [I,T] to cook meat or vegetables in an OVEN or over a fire

THESAURUS cook, bake, fry, broil, grill, sauté, boil, steam, deep fry → COOK¹ roast² n. [C] 1 a large piece of roasted meat 2 an outdoor party at which food is cooked on an open fire: a hot dog roast 3 an occasion at which people celebrate someone by telling funny stories and giving speeches about him/her roast³ adj. having been roasted: roast beef

rob /rəb/ v. (robbed, robbing) [T] to steal money or things from a person, bank, etc.: The boys robbed a convenience store.

THESAURUS steal, burglarize, mug, shoplift, loot, plunder, pilfer → STEAL¹

rob sb/sth of sth phr. v. to take away an important quality, ability, etc. from someone or something: A hamstring injury robbed him of his speed.

rob-ber /'rəbə/ n. [C] someone who steals things, especially from stores or banks: a bank robber

THESAURUS criminal, offender, thief, burglar, shoplifter, pickpocket → CRIMINAL²

rob-ber-y /'rəbəri/ n. (plural robberies) [C,U] the crime of stealing money or things from a person or place: Most home robberies are drug-related. | the armed robbery (=robbery using a gun) of a bank

THESAURUS crime, theft, burglary, shoplifting → CRIME

robe /rəʊb/ n. [C] a long loose piece of clothing: pajamas and a robe | a judge's black robe

rob-in /'rəbɪn/ n. [C] a common wild bird with a red chest and brown back [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 robin redbreast “robin,” from Robin, form of the male name Robert] ro-bot /'rəʊbət, -bat/ n. [C] a machine that can move and do some of the work of a person, and is controlled by a computer: industrial robots [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Czech robota “work”] —robotic /rəʊ'bɒtɪk, rə-/ adj.

ro-bot-ics /rəʊ'bɒtɪks/ n. [U] SCIENCE the study of how robots are made and used

ro-bust /rəʊ'bʌst, 'rəʊbʌst/ adj. strong and healthy, or not likely to have problems: a robust 70-year-old man | robust economic growth [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin robustus “strong (like an oak tree),” from robur “oak, strength”]

rock¹ /ræk/ n. 1 [U] EARTH SCIENCES a type of stone that forms part of the Earth's surface: a tunnel cut through solid rock 2 [C] a large piece of stone: A ship hit the rocks in the storm. | He sat on a rock by the river, fishing. 3 [U] also rock music a type of popular modern music with a strong loud beat, played on GUITARS and drums: a rock band | a rock

R

concert 4 be between a rock and a hard place to have a choice between two things, both of which are unpleasant 5 on the rocks a) alcoholic drinks that are served on the rocks have ice in them b) a relationship or marriage that is on the rocks is failing [ORIGIN: (2) 1900–2000 Old English roccian]

rock² v. 1 [I,T] to move gently, leaning from one side to the other, or to make something do this: She rocked the cradle until the baby slept. | Hilda rocked back and forth, crying. | The boat rocked gently. 2 [T] to make the people in a place feel very shocked or surprised: a city rocked by violence 3 rock the boat (informal) to cause problems for other members of a group by criticizing something or trying to change the way something is done 4 sb/sth rocks (spoken) said in order to show that you strongly approve of someone or something rock and 'roll n. [U] another spelling of ROCK'N'ROLL

R

rock 'bottom n. hit/reach rock bottom (informal) to become as bad as something can possibly be: By June, their marriage had hit rock bottom.

'rock-bottom adj. rock-bottom prices are as low as they can possibly be

'rock ,cycle n. the rock cycle EARTH SCIENCES the series of events in which rocks are formed, changed, destroyed, and formed again as the result of different natural processes rock-er /'rəkə/ n. 1 [C] a ROCKING CHAIR 2 be off your rocker (spoken) to be crazy rock-et¹ /'rəki/ n. [C] 1 a vehicle used for traveling or carrying things into space, which is shaped like a big tube 2 a weapon shaped like a big tube → MISSILE: They began firing rockets at the ship. 3 a type of FIREWORK [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Italian rochetta “small stick used in spinning thread,” from rocca “stick used in spinning”] rocket² v. [I] 1 to move somewhere very fast: Her serve rocketed over the net. 2 to achieve a successful position very quickly: The song rocketed to number one in the charts. 3 also rocket up if a price or amount rockets, it increases quickly and suddenly: The company's shares rocketed up 46%.

'rocking chair n. [C] a chair that has two curved pieces of wood fixed under it, so that it ROCKS → see picture at SEAT¹

'rocking horse n. [C] a toy horse for children that ROCKS when you sit on it rock'n'roll /'rəkən'roul/ n. [U] a type of music with a strong loud beat, played on GUITARS and drums, that first became popular in the 1950s rock-y /'raki/ adj. 1 covered with rocks, or made of rock: the rocky coast of Maine 2 (informal) a relationship or situation that is rocky is difficult and may not continue or be successful: The team has gotten off to a rocky start this season.

rod /rad/ n. [C] a long thin pole or stick: a fishing rod [ORIGIN: Old English rodd] rode /roud/ v. the past tense of RIDE

ro-dent /'rəʊdnt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of a group of small animals with long sharp front teeth, such as rats or rabbits [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Latin, present participle of rodere “to chew with the front teeth”] ro-de-o /'rəʊdi,ou, rou'deɪou/ n. (plural rodeos) [C] a competition in which COWBOYS ride wild horses and catch cattle with ropes [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Spanish rodear “to surround”] roe /rou/ n. [C,U] fish eggs eaten as a food rogue¹ /roug/ adj. [only before noun] a rogue person or organization does not follow the usual rules or methods, and often causes trouble: The government is concerned about rogue states that may have nuclear weapons.

rogue² n. [C] (old-fashioned) a man who often behaves in a slightly bad or dishonest way, but whom people still like rogu-ish /'rougɪʃ/ adj. typical of a rogue, or behaving like a rogue: the actor's roguish image role /roul/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 the position, job, or purpose that someone or something has in a particular situation or activity: The company has played a major/key role in medical research over the years. | He has traditional views about the role of women in society. | Parents should take an active role in their child's education. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the character played by an actor: Who will play the role of Dorothy? | Kate has a leading/starring role in the movie. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French rôle “roll, role,” from Old French rolle “rolled up document”]

'role ,model n. [C] someone whose behavior or attitude people try to copy because they admire him/her: She's a good/bad/positive role model for teenagers.

'role-play n. [C,U] an exercise in which you behave in the way that someone else would behave in a particular situation: ideas for classroom role-plays —role-play v. [I,T]

roll¹ /roul/ v.

1 ROUND OBJECT [I,T] to move by turning over and over, or from side to side, or to make something do this: The ball rolled down the street. | One of the eggs rolled off the counter. | Roll the chicken breasts in flour. → PUSH¹

2 PERSON/ANIMAL [I,T]

also roll over to turn your body over when you are lying down, or to turn someone else's body over: We tried to roll him onto his side. | Beth's dog has been rolling in the mud.

3 SHAPE OF TUBE/BALL [T] to make something into the shape of a tube or ball: Roll the dough into small balls.

4 STH WITH WHEELS [I,T] to move on wheels, or make something that has wheels move: The van was starting to roll backwards. | The waitress rolled the dessert cart over to our table.

5 MAKE STH FLAT [T] also roll out to make something flat by moving something round and heavy over it: Roll the pie crust thin. → see picture on page A5

6 DROP OF LIQUID [I] to move over a surface smoothly without stopping: A tear rolled down her cheek.

7 roll your eyes to move your eyes around and up to show that you think someone or something is stupid

8 WAVES/CLOUDS [I] to move continuously in a particular direction: We watched the waves rolling onto the beach. | We could see the fog starting to roll in.

9 GAME [I,T] if you roll DICE, you throw them as part of a game

10 SOUND [I] if a drum or THUNDER rolls, it makes a long deep sound

11 MACHINE/CAMERA [I] if a machine such as a movie camera or a PRINTING PRESS rolls, it operates: Quiet! The cameras are rolling!

12 (all) rolled into one including several things in one thing: The class was a history, art, and language course all rolled into one.

SPOKEN PHRASES

13 be ready to roll used in order to say that you are ready to do something or go somewhere: After months of planning, we were finally ready to roll.

14 let's roll used in order to suggest to a group of people that you all begin doing something or go somewhere

15 be rolling in money/dough/cash/it to have or earn a lot of money roll around phr. v. (informal) if a regular time or event rolls around, it arrives or happens again: By the time Friday night rolled around, we were too tired to go out.

roll sth ↔ back phr. v.

to reduce the price of something: a promise to roll back taxes roll sth ↔ down phr. v.

roll a window down to open a car window roll in phr. v. (informal)

1 to arrive in large numbers or quantities: Investors will expect profits to start rolling in soon.

2 to arrive later than expected: They finally rolled in at 4:00.

roll up phr. v.

1 roll sth up to curl something so that it is in the shape of a ball or a tube: Painters arrived and rolled up the carpet.

2 roll your sleeves up to start doing a job even though it is difficult or you do not want to do it

3 roll a window up to close a car window

roll² n. [C] 1 a piece of paper, film, money, etc. that has been curled into the shape of a tube: I need to buy a roll of film. | rolls of toilet paper 2 a small round LOAF of bread for one person: The soup comes with a roll. 3 an official list of the names of people at a meeting, in a class, etc. → ROLL CALL, HONOR ROLL 4 be on a roll (informal) to be having a lot of success with what you are trying to do: I don't want to stop playing – I'm on a roll! 5 a thick layer of skin or fat, usually just below your waist: the rolls of fat on his stomach 6 a long deep sound: There was a roll of thunder and then the rain started coming down. 7 an action of throwing DICE as part of a game

'roll call n. [C,U] the act of reading out an official list of names to check who is present at a meeting or in a class roll-er /'roulə/ n. [C] 1 a tube-shaped piece of wood, metal, etc. that can be rolled over and over: paint rollers 2 a CURLER

Roll-er-blade /'roulə,bleɪd/ n. [C] (trademark) a special boot with a single row of wheels fixed under it that you wear for skating (SKATE) → ROLLER SKATE —rollerblade v. [I] —rollerblading n. [U]

'roller coaster n. [C] 1 a track with sudden steep slopes and curves, that people ride on in special cars at FAIRS and AMUSEMENT PARKS 2 a situation that is impossible to control because it keeps changing very quickly: I feel like I'm on an emotional roller coaster.

'roller skate n. [C] a special boot with four wheels fixed under it that you wear for skating (SKATE) —rollerskate v. [I] —rollerskating n. [U] rol-lick-ing /'rɒlɪkɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] noisy and cheerful: a rollicking good time roll-ing /'rɒlɪŋ/ adj. rolling hills have many long gentle slopes

'rolling pin n. [C] a long tube-shaped piece of wood used for making PASTRY flat and thin before you cook it ro-ly-po-ly /,rəʊli 'pɒli/ adj. a roly-poly person is short and fat

ROM /rəm/ n. [U] IT read-only memory the part of a computer where permanent instructions and information are stored → RAM

Ro-man Cath-olic /,rəʊmən 'kæθlɪk/ adj. relating to the part of the Christian religion whose leader is the Pope: the Roman Catholic Church —Roman Catholic n. [C] ro-mance /'rəʊməns, rəʊ'mæns/ n. 1 [C] an exciting relationship between two people who love each other: a summer romance 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a story, book, or movie about two people who fall in love with each other 3 [U] the feeling of excitement and adventure that is related to a particular place, activity, etc.: the romance of traveling to distant places [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French romans “French, something written in French,” from Latin romanicus “Roman”]

Roman 'numeral n. [C] a number in a system that was used in ancient Rome, that uses combinations of the letters I, V, X, L, C, D to represent numbers: XXVII is the Roman numeral for 27.

ro-man-tic /'rəʊməntɪk/ adj. 1 showing strong feelings of love: “Paul gave me roses for our anniversary.” “How romantic!” 2 involving feelings of love: I'm not ready for a romantic relationship. 3 a romantic story or movie is about love: a new romantic comedy 4 (disapproving) romantic ideas are not practical because they are based on how you would like things to be rather than how they really are (ANT) realistic: the romantic notion that Christmas shopping is a magical event —romantically adv.: They were never romantically involved.

romantic² n. [C] 1 someone who shows strong feelings of love and likes doing things that are related to love, such as buying flowers, presents, etc. 2 someone who is not practical and bases his/her actions too much on an imagined idea of the world (ANT) realist ro-man-ti-cism, Romanticism /rəʊ'mæntɪsɪzəm/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a way of writing or painting that was popular in the late 18th and early 19th centuries, in which feelings and wild natural beauty were considered more important than anything else ro-man-ti-cize /rəʊ'mæntəsaɪz/ v. [T] to talk or think about things in a way that makes them seem more attractive than they really are: a romanticized idea of country life romp /ræmp/ v. [I] 1 to play in a noisy way by running, jumping, etc.: They could hear the children romping around upstairs. 2 to win a race, competition, election, etc. very easily —romp n. [C]: the Yankees' 12–1 romp over the Red Sox

roof¹ /rʊf, ruf/ n. [C] 1 the part of a building or vehicle that covers the top of it: They finally found the cat up on the roof. | The roof is leaking. | We can probably strap the bikes to the roof of the car. 2 the top of a passage under the ground: The roof of the tunnel suddenly collapsed. 3 the roof of your mouth the top part of the inside of your mouth 4 a roof over your head a place to live: I may not have a job, but at least I've got a roof over my head. 5 under one roof/under the same roof in the same building or house: If we're going to live under the same roof, we need to get along. [ORIGIN: Old English hrof]

roof² v. [T] to put a roof on a building: a house roofed with tiles roof-ing /'rʊfɪŋ/ n. [U] material for making or covering roofs roof-top /'ruftɒp/ n. [C] the top surface of a building: People were standing on rooftops to watch the parade.

rook-ie /'rʊki/ n. [C] someone who has just started doing a job or playing a professional sport, and has little experience: a rookie policeman

room¹ /rʊm, rʊm/ n. 1 [C] a part of the inside of a building that has its own walls, floor, and ceiling: The room is quite big. | the living room/dining room | a hotel/motel room | Amanda, can you clean up your room (=your bedroom), please? 2 [U] enough space for a particular purpose: There isn't any more room in the closet. | Save room for dessert! | The kids don't have much room to play in the yard. 3 [U] the possibility that something may exist or will happen: I always try to make room for exercise. | There was little room for doubt that he was guilty. | Good work is being done, but there's still room for improvement (=the possibility of doing better). 4 [singular] all the people in a room: The whole room started singing “Happy Birthday.” [ORIGIN: Old English rum]

room² v. room with sb to share the room that you live in with someone, for example at college room and 'board n. [U] a room to sleep in, and meals: Room and board at school costs $600 a month.

room-mate /'rʊm-mert/ n. [C] someone with whom you share a room, apartment, or house: college roommates

'room ,service n. [U] a service provided by a hotel, by which food, drinks, etc. can be brought to a guest's room: We decided to order room service.

room-y /'rʊmi, 'rʊmi/ adj. with plenty of space inside: a roomy car roost /rust/ n. [C] a place where birds rest and sleep —roost v. [I] roost-er /'rustə/ n. [C] a male chicken

root¹ /rut, rot/ n. [C]

1 PLANT the part of a plant or tree that grows under the ground: Cover the roots with plenty of soil.

→ see picture at PLANT¹

2 PROBLEM the basic or main part of a problem or idea: The love of money is the root of (=is the cause of) all evil. | the root causes of crime. | A good mechanic will get to the root of the problem.

THESAURUS origin, source → ORIGIN

3 roots [plural] the origin or main part of something such as a CUSTOM, law, activity, etc. from which other things have developed: Jazz has its roots in African music.

4 sb's roots someone's connection with a place because s/he was born there or his/her family lived there: She's proud of her Polish roots.

5 put down roots to start to feel that a place is your home

6 TOOTH/HAIR BIOLOGY the part of a tooth, hair, etc. that is fixed to the rest of the body

7 take root a) if an idea takes root, people begin to accept or believe it: helping democracy take root b) if a plant takes root, it grows into the ground

8 LANGUAGE also root word ENG. LANG. ARTS a word that is used as a base to make other longer words by adding a PREFIX or a SUFFIX to it. For example, "undrinkable" includes the root "drink."

9 MATHEMATICS MATH the root of a number is a smaller number that, when it is multiplied by itself a particular number of times, equals the number that you have: 2 is the fourth root of 16 (=2 × 2 × 2 × 2 = 16). [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old Norse rot] → SQUARE ROOT, CUBE ROOT, GRASS ROOTS

root² v. 1 be rooted in sth to have developed from something and be strongly influenced by it: The country's problems are rooted in a series of economic blunders. 2 [l] to search for something by moving things around: I rooted through my purse for a pen and paper. 3 [l, t] to grow roots, or to fix a plant firmly by its roots: The bulbs will root in spring.

root for sb phr. v. (informal) to support and encourage someone to succeed in a competition, test, or difficult situation: We're all rooting for you, Bill.

root sth ↔ out phr. v. to find out where a particular problem exists and get rid of it: efforts to root out corruption in the police force

'root beer n. [C,U] a sweet non-alcoholic drink made from the roots of some plants

'root hair n. [C] BIOLOGY one of very many small hairs that stick out from the surface of a plant's root root-less /ˈrʊtlɪs/ adj. having nowhere that you feel is really your home

rope¹ /rəʊp/ n. 1 [C,U] very strong thick string, made by twisting together many threads: They tied a piece of rope around my waist and pulled me up. 2 the ropes [plural] the things someone needs to know in order to do a job: I spent the first month learning the ropes. | New employees are assigned a buddy to show them the ropes. 3 be at/near the end of your rope to have no more strength or ability to deal with a difficult situation

rope² v. [T] to tie things together using rope: Harvey roped his horse to a nearby tree. | The climbers were roped together for safety.

rope sb ↔ in/into sth phr. v. (informal) to persuade someone to help you in a job or activity: My wife and I have been roped into going to this fund-raising dinner.

rope sth ↔ off phr. v. to surround an area with ropes in order to separate it from another area: Police roped off the area of the robbery.

ro-sa-ry /ˈrəʊzəri/ n. (plural rosaries) [C] a string of BEADS used by Roman Catholics for counting prayers rose¹ /rəʊz/ n. [C] a common sweet-smelling flower that grows on a bush that has THORNS (=sharp points on a stem): a dozen red roses [ORIGIN: Old English, Latin rosa] rose² v. the past tense of RISE

ro-sé /rəʊˈzeɪ/ n. [U] pink wine

Rosh Ha-sha-nah /ˌrɒʃ həˈʃʌnə/ n. Jewish New Year, in late September or early October

ros-ter /ˈrɒstə/ n. [C] 1 a list of the names of people on a sports team, in an organization, etc.: the company's roster of top executives | Williams took Carney's place on the Miami Dolphin roster. 2 a list of people's names showing the jobs they must do and when they must do them [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Dutch rooster "frame for cooking things on, list," from roosten "to roast"]

ros-trum /ˈrɒstrəm/ n. [C] a small PLATFORM (=raised area) that you stand on in front of an AUDIENCE [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin "beak, front part of a ship," from rodere "to chew with the front teeth"]

ros-y /ˈrəʊzi/ adj. (comparative rosier, superlative rosiest) 1 seeming to offer hope of success or happiness: The company has a rosy future. 2 pink: rosy cheeks

rot¹ /rɒt/ v. (rotted, rotting) [l, t] to decay by a gradual natural process, or to make something do this (SYN) decompose: Sugar rots your teeth. | old buildings that were left to rot

rot² n. [U] the natural process of decaying, or the part of something that has decayed: a tree full of rot ro-ta-ry /ˈrəʊtəri/ adj. turning in a circle around a fixed point, like a wheel

ro-tate /ˈrəʊteɪt/ v. 1 [l, t] to turn around a fixed point, or to make something do this: The Earth rotates every 24 hours. | Rotate the handle to the right.

THESAURUS turn, twist, spin, whirl, twirl, swivel, go around, revolve → TURN¹

2 [l, t] if a job rotates, or if people rotate jobs, they each do the job for a fixed period of time: We try to rotate the boring jobs. 3 [T] EARTH SCIENCES to regularly change the crops grown on a piece of land

R

[ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, past participle of rotare, from rota “wheel”] —rotation /rou'teɪʃən/ n. [C,U]: crop rotation

ROTC /'rɑtsi, ˌɑr ɒ ti 'si/ n. Reserve Officers Training Corps an organization that trains students to be U.S. army officers rote /root/ n. learn sth by rote to learn something by repeating it until you remember it, without really understanding it ro-tis-ser-ie /rou'tɪsəri/ n. [C] a piece of equipment for cooking meat by turning it around and around on a metal rod ro-tor /'rəʊtə/ n. [C] the part of a machine that turns around on a fixed point rot-ten /'rɑtən/ adj. 1 badly decayed: rotten apples 2 (informal) very bad: I'm a rotten cook. | She felt rotten about having to fire him. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old Norse rotinn]

ro-tund /rou'tʌnd/ adj. having a fat round body → FAT¹

R

ro-tun-da /rou'tʌndə/ n. [C] a round building or hall, especially one with a DOMED rouge /ruʒ/ n. [U] pink or red powder or cream that women put on their cheeks (SYN) blush

rough¹ /rʌf/ adj. 1 having an uneven surface → FLAT, SMOOTH: Our Jeep's good for traveling over rough ground. 2 not exact, or not containing many details: Can you give us a rough idea of the cost? | a rough draft of an essay 3 using force or violence: Ice hockey is a rough sport. 4 a rough area has a lot of violence and crime: a rough part of the city 5 a rough period of time is one when you have a lot of problems and difficulties: It sounds like you had a rough day at work. | I had a rough night (=I did not sleep well). | We've been through some rough times together. 6 with strong winds or storms: Their boat sank in rough seas. 7 not fair or kind: Don't be so rough on her (=be kinder). [ORIGIN: Old English ruh] —roughness n. [U]

rough² v. rough it (informal) to live in conditions that are not very comfortable: We're going to rough it in the mountains for a few days.

rough sb ↔ up phr. v. (informal) to attack someone by hitting him/her rough³ adv. play rough to play in a fairly violent way rough-age /'rʌfɪdʒ/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a substance in some foods that helps your BOWELS to work (SYN) fiber rough-and-tumble adj. full of people competing, often in a cruel way: the rough-and-tumble world of politics rough-house /'rʌfhaʊs/ v. [I] to play in a noisy physical way rough-ly /'rʌfli/ adv. 1 not exactly (SYN) approximately, about: Roughly 100 people came.

THESAURUS about, approximately, around, or so, in the region of → ABOUT²

2 not gently or carefully: Don't pet the cat so roughly!

rough-shod /'rʌfʃəd/ adv. ride roughshod over sb/sth to behave in a way that ignores other people's feelings or opinions rou-lette /ru'let/ n. [U] a game in which people try to win money by guessing which hole a small ball on a spinning wheel will fall into round¹ /raʊnd/ adj. 1 shaped like a circle or a ball: a round table | a tree with round berries | the baby's round cheeks

THESAURUS oval, circular, triangular, rectangular, cylindrical → SHAPE¹

2 a round number is a whole number, often ending in 0, that is usually not exact: Let's make it a round number – $50. | In round numbers (=to the nearest 10, 100, 1,000, etc.), we supply 50% of the trucks in the area. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French roont, from Latin rotundus] —roundness n. [U]

round² n. [C]

1 CONNECTED EVENTS a number of events that are related: the latest round of peace talks

THESAURUS stage, part, step, phase → STAGE¹

2 DRINKS if you buy a round of drinks, you buy an alcoholic drink for all the people in your group: I'll buy the next round.

3 COMPETITION one of the parts of a competition that you have to finish or win before you can go to the next part: She made it to the second round. | the final round of the championship

4 round of applause a time when people CLAP to show that they enjoyed a performance: Let's give them a round of applause.

5 rounds [plural] the usual visits or checks that someone makes as a part of his/her job, especially a doctor: The theft was discovered by a security guard who was making his rounds.

6 SHOT a single shot from a gun: The soldier fired several rounds before escaping.

7 GOLF a complete game of golf

8 BOXING one of the periods in a BOXING match: a 15-round heavyweight bout

9 SONG ENG. LANG. ARTS a song for three or four singers who each start the same tune at different times until all of them are singing round³ v. [T] 1 to go around something such as a bend or the corner of a building: The Porsche rounded the bend at 120 mph. 2 to make something round: The edges of the counter have been rounded to make them safer.

round sth ↔ off phr. v. to change an exact figure to the nearest whole number round sth ↔ out/off phr. v. to do something pleasant at the end of an activity or event that makes the experience more satisfying: Chocolate cake served with vanilla ice cream rounded out the meal.

round up phr. v. 1 round sb ↔ up to find and gather together a group of people or things: Police rounded up 20 people for questioning. 2 round sth ↔ up to increase an exact figure to the next highest whole number round⁴ adv. AROUND → all year round at YEAR round-a-bout /'raundə,baut/ adj. [only before noun] not done in the shortest most direct way: a roundabout route to avoid heavy traffic round 'character also rounded 'character n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a character (=person) in a book, movie, etc. with many features or qualities, who is interesting and often has an effect on the way the story develops → FLAT CHARACTER round-the-'clock adj. all the time, both day and night: round-the-clock hospital care

'round-trip adj. a round-trip ticket is for taking a trip from one place to another and back again
(ANT) one-way —round trip n. [C] round-up /'raundʌp/ n. [C] 1 an occasion when a lot of people or animals are brought together, often by force: a roundup of criminal suspects 2 a short description of the main parts of the news, on the radio or on television rouse /rauz/ v. [T] 1 to make someone want to do something: The speech roused King's supporters to action. 2 (formal) to wake up, or wake someone up rous-ing /'rauzɪŋ/ adj. making people feel excited and eager to do something: a rousing speech route /raut/ v. [T] to defeat someone completely —route n. [C]

route¹ /rut, raʊt/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 the way from one place to another: What is the shortest route from Memphis to Atlanta? | the most direct route home | We had to take a longer route because of the snow. 2 a particular road or direction that something follows to get from one place to another: the parade route 3 a way of doing something or achieving a particular result: This school has chosen a different route to establishing discipline. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French, Vulgar Latin rupta (via) “broken way,” from Latin ruptus “broken”] route² v. [T] to send something or someone by a particular route → EN ROUTE: All the military supplies were routed through Turkey.

route-er /,ru:tə/ n. [C] IT a piece of electronic equipment that sends messages between different computers or between different networks very quickly

rou-tine¹ /ru'tin/ n. 1 [C,U] the usual or normal way in which you do things: Harry doesn't like any change in his daily routine. | It took us a little while to get into our old routine. 2 [C] a series of movements performed one after the other: an exercise routine

routine² adj. 1 regular and usual: a routine medical test | a few routine questions 2 ordinary and boring: a routine job —routinely adv.

THESAURUS normal, ordinary, average, standard → NORMAL¹

rov-ing /'rouvɪŋ/ adj. traveling or moving from one place to another: a roving reporter

row¹ /rou/ n. [C] 1 a line of things or people next to each other: a row of houses | children standing in a row 2 a line of seats in a theater, large room, etc.: I sat in the front row. 3 three/four etc. in a row happening three times, four times, etc. in exactly the same way or with the same result: We've lost four games in a row.

row² v. [I,T] to make a boat move by using OARS: Slowly, she rowed across the lake.

row-boat /'roubɔ:t/ n. [C] a small boat that you move by using OARS → see picture at TRANSPORTATION row-dy /'raudi/ adj. behaving in a noisy way that is not controlled: a group of rowdy children → LOUD¹ —rowdiness n. [U]

'row house n. [C] a house that is part of a line of houses that are joined to each other → HOUSE¹ row-ing /'rouɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport or activity of making a boat move through water using OARS → see picture on page A4

roy-al /'rɔ:əl/ adj. relating to or belonging to a king or queen: the royal family [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French roial, from Latin regalis]

roy-al-ty /'rɔ:əlti/ n. (plural royalties) 1 [C usually plural] ECONOMICS payments made to the writer of a book or piece of music 2 [U] members of a royal family rpm revolutions per minute a measurement of the speed at which an engine turns rRNA BIOLOGY the abbreviation of RIBOSOMAL RNA

RSI n. [U] repetitive strain injury pain in your hands or arms caused by doing the same movement many times, especially typing (TYPE)

RSVP an abbreviation that is written on invitations in order to ask someone to reply [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French répondez, s'il vous plaît “please reply”]

rub¹ /rʌb/ v. (rubbed, rubbing) [I,T] 1 to move your hand, a cloth, etc. over a surface while pressing against it: Laura took off her glasses and rubbed her eyes. | The stain will come out if you rub harder. | Can you rub some lotion on my back, please?

THESAURUS touch, feel, stroke, scratch, pat, pet, caress → TOUCH¹

2 to press something against something else and move it around: The cat was rubbing against my legs. | They were rubbing their hands together, trying to stay warm. 3 rub it in (informal) to remind someone of something embarrassing that you know s/he wants to forget: Okay, I was wrong – there's no need to keep rubbing it in! 4 rub sb the wrong way (informal) if someone rubs you the wrong way, s/he annoys you, usually without intending to 5 rub shoulders with sb also rub elbows with sb (informal) to meet and spend time with important or famous people rub off on sb phr. v. if a feeling, quality, or habit rubs off on someone, s/he starts to have it because someone else has it: Her positive attitude seemed to rub off on everyone.

R

rub² n. [C] an act of rubbing something or someone: Could you give me a back rub?

rub-ber /ˈrʌbər/ n. 1 [U] a substance used for making tires, boots, etc. that is made from chemicals or the liquid that comes out of tropical trees: rubber gloves → see picture at MATERIAL 2 [C] (informal) a CONDOM rubber 'band n. [C] a thin circular piece of rubber used to hold things together

R rub-ber-neck /ˈrʌbərˌnek/ v. [I] (informal) to look around at something such as an accident while you are driving or walking past rubber-stamp v. [T] (disapproving) to give official approval to something without really thinking about it rub-ber-y /ˈrʌbəri/ adj. looking or feeling like rubber rub-bish /ˈrʌbɪʃ/ n. [U] GARBAGE rub-ble /ˈrʌbəl/ n. [U] broken stones or bricks from a building, wall, etc. that has been destroyed: a pile of rubble rub-down /ˈrʌbdʌʊn/ n. give sb a rubdown to give someone a MASSAGE in order to make him/her relax, especially after exercise rub-el-la /ruˈbɛlə/ n. [U] (formal) GERMAN MEASLES ru-bid-i-um /ruˈbɪdiəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Rb) a soft silver-white metal that is an ELEMENT ru-bric /ˈrubrɪk/ n. [C] 1 (formal) a title for a group of things that all have the same particular qualities 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the title written at the top of a piece of writing 3 (formal) a set of rules that are used to judge something ru-by /ˈrubi/ n. (plural rubies) [C,U] a dark red jewel, or the color of this jewel [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French rubis, rubi, from Latin rubeus “reddish”] —ruby adj.

ruck-us /ˈrʌkəs/ n. [singular] (informal) a noisy argument or confused situation: What's all the ruckus about?

rud-der /ˈrʌdər/ n. [C] a flat part at the back of a boat or aircraft, that is turned in order to change the direction in which the vehicle moves rud-dy /ˈrʌdi/ adj. a ruddy face looks pink and healthy rude /rud/ adj. 1 speaking or behaving in a way that is not polite: a rude remark | Don't be rude to your grandmother! ▶ Don't say “rude with.” ◀ | It's rude to stare.

THESAURUS

impolite (formal) – not polite: You might touch the person next to you and that would be impolite.

insulting – saying or doing something that insults someone: comments that are insulting to women tactless – carelessly saying or doing things that are likely to upset someone: a tactless remark offensive – likely to upset or offend people: His remarks are offensive to African Americans.

insolent (formal) – deliberately rude, especially to someone in authority: He was insolent toward the teacher.

disrespectful – not showing respect for someone or something, when you should: The players should not be disrespectful to the coach.

impertinent (formal) – impolite and not respectful, especially to someone who is older or more important: an impertinent child impudent (formal) – rude and not showing respect, especially to someone older than you: He felt that some of the trainees were impudent.

2 a rude awakening a situation in which someone suddenly realizes something upsetting or bad [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin rudis “raw, rough”] —rudely adv. —rudeness n. [U] ru-di-men-ta-ry /ˌrudəˈmentri, -ˈmentəri/ adj. (formal) very simple and basic: a rudimentary knowledge of geometry ru-di-ments /ˌrudəˈments/ n. [plural] (formal) the most basic parts of a subject: I learned the rudiments of the language before visiting Mexico.

rue /ru/ v. [T] (literary) to wish that you had not done something [SYN] regret: She'll rue the day that she met him.

rue-ful /ˈrufəl/ adj. showing that you wish something had not happened but you accept it: a rueful smile —ruefully adv.

ruf-fle¹ /ˈrʌfəl/ v. [T] 1 to make a smooth surface uneven or messy: He reached over and ruffled my hair. 2 to offend, annoy, or upset someone: I don't want to ruffle his feathers (=upset him).

ruffle² n. [C] a band of cloth sewn in folds as a decoration around the edges of a shirt, skirt, etc. —ruffled adj.

rug /rʌg/ n. [C] a piece of thick cloth or wool that covers part of a floor, used for warmth or as a decoration → CARPET rug-by /ˈrʌgbi/ n. [U] an outdoor game played by two teams with an OVAL ball that you kick or carry [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Rugby School in England, where the game is said to have been invented] rug-ged /ˈrʌɡɪd/ adj. 1 land that is rugged is rough and uneven, with a lot of rocks: a rugged terrain full of wildlife 2 a man who is rugged is attractive and has strong features that may not be perfect: his rugged good looks ru-in' /'ruɪn/ v. [T] 1 to spoil or destroy something completely: The new road will ruin the countryside. | One stupid comment had ruined everything. 2 ECONOMICS to make someone lose all his/her money: A long strike would ruin the company. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French ruine, from Latin ruina]

ruin² n. 1 [U] ECONOMICS a situation in which someone loses his/her social position or money, especially because of a business failure: small businesses facing financial ruin 2 [C] also ruins [plural] the part of a building that is left after the rest has been destroyed: the ruins of the temple 3 be/lie in ruins to be badly damaged or destroyed: The country's economy is in ruins. 4 fall into ruin if something falls into ruin, it becomes damaged or destroyed because no one is taking care of it: The 18th-century mansion has fallen into ruin.

ru-in-ous /'ruɪnəs/ adj. causing great destruction or loss of money: a ruinous decision

rule¹ /ruːl/ n. 1 [C] an official instruction that says how something is to be done or what is allowed, especially in a game, organization, or job: Erin knows the rules of the game. | strict rules about what you can wear | If you follow the rules, you won't get into trouble. | Well, that's what happens if you break the rules (=disobey them). | It's against the rules to pick up the ball (=it is not allowed). | Can't we bend the rules (=allow something that is usually not allowed) just this once?

THESAURUS

law – a rule that people in a particular country, city, or state must obey: The law requires motorcyclists to wear helmets.
regulation – an official rule or order: environmental regulations on air pollution restriction – a rule or set of laws that limits what you can do or what is allowed to happen: new restrictions on immigration guidelines – rules or instructions about the best way to do something: the Department of Health's guidelines for a healthy diet statute (formal) – a law or rule: a federal statute prohibiting sex discrimination code – a set of rules, laws, or principles that tells people how to behave: the school's dress code precept (formal) – a general rule or idea that helps you decide how to think or behave in a situation: our basic moral precepts

2 [U] the government of a country by a particular group of people or by using a particular system: At that time, Vietnam was under French rule. | majority rule (=government by the political party that most people voted for) → INDIRECT RULE 3 [singular] something that is the case or is usually true: As a general rule, vegetable oils are much better for you than animal fats. | I worked last weekend, but that's the exception rather than the rule. 4 [C] a statement about what is usually allowed in the grammar of a language, or according to a particular system: the rules of grammar 5 rule of thumb a principle that is based on practical experience, and that works most of the time: As a rule of thumb, chicken should be cooked 15 minutes for each pound. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French reule, from Latin regula “edge for drawing straight lines, rule”]

rule² v. 1 [I,T] to have the official power to control a country and its people: The king ruled for 30 years. | Alexander the Great ruled over a huge empire. 2 [I,T] to make an official decision about something such as a legal problem: The judge ruled that the mother should have custody of the children. | The Supreme Court has not ruled on the case yet. 3 [T] if a feeling or desire rules someone, it controls his/her life, so that s/he does not have time for other things: Don't let your job rule your life. 4 sb/sth rules (spoken) used in order to say that the team, school, place, etc. mentioned is better than any other: Jefferson High rules!

rule sb/sth ↔ out phr. v. to decide that someone or something is not possible or appropriate: We can't rule out the possibility that he has left the country.

ruled /ruːld/ adj. ruled paper has parallel lines printed across it ru-ler /'ruːlə/ n. [C] 1 someone such as a king who has official power over a country and its people

THESAURUS king, queen, prince, princess, monarch, emperor, sovereign → KING

2 a flat narrow piece of plastic, wood, or metal that you use for measuring things and drawing straight lines ru-ling¹ /'ruːlɪŋ/ n. [C] an official decision, especially one made by a court of law: the Supreme Court's ruling on the case ruling² adj. the ruling class/party the group that controls a country or organization rum /rʌm/ n. [C,U] a strong alcoholic drink made from sugar rum-ble /'rʌmbəl/ v. [I] to make a lot of long low sounds: Thunder rumbled in the distance. —rumble n. [singular] ru-men /'rumən/ n. (plural rumens or rumina /-məʊnə/) [C] BIOLOGY a separate enclosed part in the stomach of an animal such as a cow, that stores and partly changes food the animal has just eaten, before passing it into the other part of the stomach ru-mi-nate /'rumə,neɪt/ v. [I] (formal) to think carefully about something rum-mage /'rʌmɪdʒ/ v. [I] to search for something by moving things around: Kerry was rum-maging through a drawer looking for a pen.

'rummage sale n. [C] an event at which old clothes, furniture, toys, etc. are sold ru-mor /'rumər/ n. [C,U] information that is passed from one person to another and which may not be true: Have you heard the rumor about Sam and Kelly? | Knox denied rumors that he might be running for office. | Rumor has it (that) (=people are saying that) Jean's getting married again. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French rumour, from Latin rumor]

ru-mored /'ruməd/ adj. if something is rumored to be true, people are saying that it may be true but no one knows for certain: It was rumored that a magazine had offered a lot of money for her story. | He's rumored to be running for president.

R

rump /rʌmp/ n. [C,U] BIOLOGY the part of an animal's back that is just above its legs rum-pled /'rʌmpəld/ adj. rumpled hair, clothes, etc. are messy run¹ /rʌn/ v. (past tense ran /ræn/, past participle run, present participle running)

1 MOVE [I] to move very quickly, moving your legs faster than when you walk: If we run, we can still catch the bus. | I ran down the stairs as fast as I could. | Billy ran over to the playground. | Stephen came running into the house. → see picture on page A9

THESAURUS

sprint – to run as fast as you can for a short distance: I sprinted toward the end zone.

dash/tear – to run very fast in a hurried way: He's always dashing off somewhere.

jog/go jogging – to run quite slowly for exercise over a long distance race – to go somewhere very quickly: I raced home from school.

bolt – to suddenly run somewhere very fast, especially in order to escape or because you are frightened: At the sound of the bell, the kids bolted for the door. → WALK¹

2 BE IN CHARGE OF STH [T] to control, organize, or operate a business, organization, etc.: Ann runs a restaurant in Atlanta. | The hotel is well run/badly run.

3 IN A RACE [I,T] to run in a race: I'm running in a marathon at the end of this month.

4 GO SOMEWHERE QUICKLY [I] (spoken) to go somewhere quickly, either walking or in a car: I need to run out to my car – I left my books in it. | I need to run to the store for some milk.

5 MACHINES [I,T] if a machine runs, or if you run it, it is operating: The radio runs on/off batteries (=uses batteries to work). | I forgot to run the dishwasher. | Nate left the engine running. | We should have the telescope up and running (=working) by the weekend.

6 COMPUTER [T] IT to start or use a computer program: You can run this software on any PC.

7 be running late to be doing things late: Sorry you had to wait – I've been running late all day.

8 ELECTION [I] POLITICS to try to be elected: It looks like he is going to run for president. | Johnstone is running against Pershing.

9 NEWS/STORIES/ADVERTISEMENTS [I,T] to print or broadcast a story, etc.: What does it cost to run an ad in the local paper? | They ran the item on the 6 o'clock news.

10 run a check/test/experiment etc. to arrange for someone or something to be checked or tested: The doctors say they need to run a few tests first.

11 MONEY/NUMBERS [I,T] to be at a particular level, length, amount, price, etc.: Unemployment is running at 5%. | The cost of repairs could run to $500.

12 WATER/LIQUIDS [I] to flow: Tears ran down her face. | Who left the water running (=still flowing from a pipe)? | My nose is running (=liquid is coming out).

THESAURUS

pour, flow, drip, leak, ooze →

POUR

13 HAPPEN [I] to happen in a particular way or for a particular time: The play ran for (=was performed for) two years | The teacher kept things running smoothly.

14 STH LONG [I,T] if something long such as a road or wire runs in a particular direction, that is its position, or that is where you put it: Developers want to run a road right through his farm. | Run the cables under the carpet.

15 BUSES/TRAINS [I] to take people from one place to another: The bus doesn't run on Sunday. | The trains should run on time (=arrive and leave at the correct time).

16 be running short of sth also be running low on sth to have very little of something left: I'm running low on money.

17 TOUCH [T] to touch something by moving your hand along its surface: She ran her fingers through her hair.

18 sth runs in the family if something such as a quality, disease, or skill runs in the family, many people in that family have it

19 run drugs/guns to bring drugs or guns illegally into a country in order to sell them

20 COLOR [I] if color or MAKEUP runs, it spreads from one area of cloth or skin to another when it gets wet

21 HOLE IN CLOTHES [I] if a hole in PANTYHOSE runs, it gets longer in a straight line

22 be running a temperature/fever to have a body temperature that is higher than normal because you are sick

23 FEELING [I] if thoughts or feelings run through you, you feel them in a very strong way: I felt a sharp pain run down my leg. [ORIGIN: Old English rinnan] run across sb/sth phr. v.

to meet or find someone or something by chance: I ran across some old love letters the other day.

run after sb/sth phr. v.

to chase someone or something: She started to leave, but Smith ran after her.

run around phr. v.

to be very busy doing many small jobs: She's been running around all day getting things ready for the wedding.

run away phr. v.

1 to leave a place in order to escape from someone or something: Kathy ran away from home at the age of 16.

2 to try to avoid an unpleasant situation: You can't run away from your problems.

run sth by sb phr. v.

to tell someone about something so that s/he can give you his/her opinion: Can you run that by me again (=repeat what you said because I did not understand)?

run down phr. v.

1 run sb/sth down to hit a person or animal with a car while you are driving, and kill or injure him, her, or it: A drunk driver ran down a 14-year-old girl.

2 run sth ↔ down to gradually lose power, or to make something do this: Don't leave it switched on – you'll run down the batteries.

3 run sb/sth ↔ down (informal) to criticize someone or something: Her boyfriend's always running her down.

run into phr. v.

1 run into sb (informal) to meet someone by chance: I ran into him in town.

2 run into sb/sth to hit someone or something with a car: He lost control and ran into another car.

3 run into trouble/problems/debt etc. to begin to have trouble, problems, etc.: She ran into trouble when she couldn't pay the hospital bills.

run off phr. v.

1 to leave your husband or wife and live with or marry someone else: Her husband had run off, leaving her and the children.

2 run sth ↔ off to quickly print copies of something: I'll need to run off 100 copies of this.

run off with phr. v.

1 run off with sb to go away with someone because you are having a sexual relationship with him/her and other people do not approve: Her husband ran off with an old girlfriend.

2 run off with sth to steal something and leave on foot: A thief ran off with her cell phone.

run out phr. v.

1 to use all of something, so that there is none left: We've run out of sugar. | I'm running out of ideas.

2 if something is running out, there will soon be none left: They need to make a deal, but time is running out.

3 to come to the end of a period of time when something is allowed to be done or used: My membership runs out in September.

run sb/sth ↔ over phr. v.

to hit someone or something with a car or other vehicle, and drive over him, her, or it: My dog was run over by a car.

run through sth phr. v.

1 to read, check, or practice something quickly: I'd like to run through the agenda with you before the meeting.

2 if a quality or feature runs through something, it exists in all parts of it: a theme which runs through the book run up sth phr. v.

to spend or borrow so much money that you have a lot to pay back: We ran up a huge phone bill.

run up against sth phr. v.

to suddenly have to deal with a problem when you are trying to do something: The school board has run up against opposition to its proposals.

run² n.

1 ON FOOT [C] a period of time spent running, the act of running, or a distance that you run: He usually goes for a run before breakfast. | It was still raining, but we decided to make a run for the car. | a 5-mile run

2 in the short/long run in the near future, or later in the future: I think in the long run you'll be happier without him.

3 BASEBALL [C] a point in a baseball game: The Cubs scored three runs in the sixth inning.

4 be on the run a) to be trying to escape from someone, especially the police: He's been on the run from the police for years. b) to be very busy doing a lot of different things and going to different places: It's hard to eat well when you're on the run all day.

5 PLAY/MOVIE ETC. [C] a period of time during which a play, movie, or television show is shown or performed regularly: The play starts an eight-week run on Friday.

6 a run of good/bad luck several lucky or unlucky things happening quickly one right after another: Losing my job was the start of a run of bad luck that year.

7 a run on sth a situation in which a lot of people take their money out of a bank or buy a lot of one particular thing at the same time: There's always a run on chocolates and flowers on Mother's Day.

8 ELECTION [C usually singular] an attempt to be elected: Turner is making his first run for public office.

9 HOLE IN CLOTHES [C] a long hole in a pair of PANTYHOSE

10 make a run for it to suddenly start running in order to escape

11 have the run of sth to be allowed to go anywhere or do anything in a place: We had the run of the house for the weekend.

12 REGULAR TRIP [C usually singular] a regular trip made by a person or a vehicle that carries a lot of people: the daily ferry run

13 give sb a run for his/her money to make an opponent or competitor work very hard to beat you:

R

The White Sox gave the A's a run for their money, but lost in the ninth inning.

run-a-round /ˈrʌnə,raʊnd/ n. give sb the run-around (informal) to deliberately avoid giving someone the information or help s/he has asked for: I keep calling to find out about my insurance, but they just keep giving me the runaround.

run-a-way¹ /ˈrʌnə,wei/ n. [C] someone, especially a child, who has left home or the place where s/he is supposed to be runaway² adj. [only before noun] 1 a runaway vehicle is out of control 2 happening quickly and suddenly: The movie was a runaway success.

run-'down adj. 1 a building or area that is run-down is in very bad condition: a run-down motel 2 [not before noun] someone who is run-down is very tired and not very healthy: He's been feeling run-down lately.

THESAURUS tired, exhausted, worn out, fatigued → TIRED

R

run-down /ˈrʌndaʊn/ n. [singular] a quick report or explanation of a situation, event, etc.: Can you give me a rundown on what happened while I was gone?

rung¹ /rʌŋ/ v. the past participle of RING

rung² n. [C] 1 one of the steps of a LADDER 2 (informal) a particular level or position in an organization: I started on the bottom rung of the company.

'run-in n. [C] (informal) an argument or disagreement with someone in authority: Barry had a run-in with the police.

run-ner /ˈrʌnə/ n. [C] 1 someone who runs as a sport: a long-distance runner 2 one of the long thin blades of metal on the bottom of a SLED 3 drug/gun runner someone who brings drugs or guns illegally into a country in order to sell them runner-'up n. (plural runners-up) [C] the person or team that finishes in second place in a race or competition run-ning¹ /ˈrʌniŋ/ n. 1 [U] the activity of running: running shoes | Do you want to go running? 2 be in the running/be out of the running to have some chance of winning or being successful, or to have no chance: Is Sam still in the running for the swim team? 3 the running of sth the way that a business, organization, etc. is managed or organized: He is not involved in the day-to-day running of the business.

running² adj. 1 running water water that comes from a FAUCET: a house with no running water 2 running battle/argument an argument that continues over a long period of time 3 running commentary a spoken description of an event while it is happening, especially a sports event 4 running total a total that is always being increased as new costs, amounts, etc. are added to it running³ adv. three years/five times etc. running for three years, five times, etc. without a change: This is the fourth day running that it has rained.

'running 'back n. [C] in football, a player whose main job is to run with the ball

'running mate n. [C] POLITICS the person who is chosen by someone who is trying to become president, who will then be the VICE PRESIDENT if s/he wins the election run-ny /ˈrʌni/ adj. (informal) 1 a runny nose has liquid coming out of it because you are sick 2 food that is runny is not as thick as normal or as you want: runny eggs

'run-off n. 1 [C] POLITICS an election or competition that is arranged when there is no clear winner of the first one 2 [U] EARTH SCIENCES rain or other liquid that flows off the land into rivers and lakes → see picture at WATER CYCLE

'run-of-the-'mill adj. not special or interesting (SYN) ordinary: a run-of-the-mill job

'run-on sentence n. [C] a sentence that has two main CLAUSES without connecting words or correct PUNCTUATION

runt /rʌnt/ n. [C] the smallest and least developed baby animal of a group born at the same time

'run-through n. [C] a short practice before a performance, test, etc.

'run-up n. the run-up to sth the period of time just before an important event: Most stores are hiring more staff in the run-up to Christmas.

run-way /ˈrʌnwei/ n. [C] a very long surface like a wide road, that aircraft leave from and come down on rup-ture¹ /ˈrʌptʃə/ n. [C,U] an occasion when something suddenly breaks apart or bursts: the rupture of a blood vessel rupture² v. [I,T] to break or burst, or to make something do this: An oil pipeline ruptured early this morning.

ru-ral /ˈrʊrəl/ adj. relating to country areas rather than the city (ANT) urban: a peaceful rural setting [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French, Latin ruralis, from rus “open land”] ruse /ruːz/ n. [C] (formal) something you do in order to deceive someone (SYN) trick

rush¹ /rʌʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to move somewhere or do something very quickly: David rushed into the room. | There's no need to rush – we have plenty of time. | Everyone was rushing to catch the last bus.

THESAURUS

race – to go somewhere as fast as you can: Carter raced downstairs.

dash – to run somewhere very fast, especially only a short distance: I dashed into my bedroom and grabbed my notebook.

hurry – to do something or go somewhere more quickly than usual, especially because there is not much time: People hurried into stores to escape the rain.

charge – to move quickly forward: The boys charged up the trail, laughing and yelling.

speed – to move very fast, used about cars, trains, etc., or the people traveling in them: The train sped toward San Francisco.

hasten (formal) – to move or do something quickly or without delay: Mr. Samuels hastened toward him. → RUN¹

2 [T] to take or send something somewhere very quickly: We had to rush Helen to the hospital. 3 [I,T] to do or decide something too quickly, without taking the time to think carefully, or to make someone do this: Don't rush me – let me think. | My mother's worried that I'm rushing into getting married.

rush around phr. v. to try to do a lot of things quickly in a short period of time rush sth ↔ through phr. v. to get something such as a new law approved more quickly than usual

rush² n. 1 [singular] a sudden fast movement of things or people: There was a rush for the door. 2 [singular, U] a situation in which you need to hurry, especially because a lot of people want to do or get something: We have plenty of time – there's no rush. | I can't stop – I'm in a rush. | There's a big rush to get tickets. 3 the rush the time when a place or group of people are very busy: *the Christmas rush 4 [singular] a sudden strong feeling: Mark felt a rush of anger.

'rush hour n. [C,U] the time of day when there are a lot of vehicles on the road because people are going to and from work: rush hour traffic

Rus-sian¹ /'rʌʃən/ adj. 1 relating to or coming from Russia 2 relating to the Russian language

Russian² n. 1 [U] the language used in Russia 2 [C] someone from Russia rust¹ /rʌst/ n. [U] the reddish-brown substance that forms on iron, steel, etc. when it gets wet rust² v. [I,T] to become covered with rust, or to make something do this: a lock that has rusted shut rus-tic /'rʌstɪk/ adj. simple and old-fashioned in a way that is attractive and typical of the COUNTRY-SIDE: a rustic mountain cabin rus-tle¹ /'rʌsəl/ v. [I,T] if leaves, papers, etc. rustle, or if you rustle them, they make a soft noise as they rub against each other rustle sth ↔ up phr. v. to find or make something quickly, especially food for a meal rustle² n. [singular] the noise made when something rustles: the rustle of dry leaves → see picture on page A7 rust-proof /'rʌstpruːf/ adj. metal that is rustproof will not rust rust-y /'rʌsti/ adj. 1 covered with rust: rusty nails 2 if a skill that you have is rusty, you are not as good at something as you used to be because you have not practiced it for a long time: My tennis is a little rusty.

rut /rʌt/ n. 1 in a rut (informal) living or working in a situation that does not change, and so is boring: I was stuck in a rut and decided to look for a new job. 2 [C] a deep narrow track left in the ground by a wheel ru-ta-ba-ga /'ruːtə,beɪgə/ n. [C] a large round yellow vegetable that grows under the ground [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Swedish rotabagge, from rot “root” + bagge “bag”]

ruth-less /'ruːθlɪs/ adj. not caring if you have to harm other people to get what you want: a ruthless dictator | ruthless determination —ruthlessly adv. —ruthlessness n. [U]

RV n. [C] recreational vehicle a large vehicle with cooking equipment, beds, etc., that a family uses for traveling or camping

rye /raɪ/ n. [U] a type of grain that is used for making bread and WHISKEY (=alcohol)

Ss

S

S, s /ɛs/ the nineteenth letter of the English alphabet

S also S. the written abbreviation of SOUTH or SOUTHERN

-s /z, s, ɪz/ 1 the short form of “is”: What's that? 2 the short form of “has”: He's gone out. 3 used in order to show the POSSESSIVE form of nouns: Bill is one of Jason's friends. | the company's profits 4 the short form of “us,” used only with “let” to form “let's”: Let's go, or we'll be late.

S&L n. [C] ECONOMICS SAVINGS AND LOAN

Sab-bath /'sæbəθ/ n. the Sabbath the day of the week that Jews or Christians consider to be a day for resting and praying, either Saturday or Sunday [ORIGIN: 900–1000 Latin sabbatum, from Hebrew shabbath “rest”]

sab-bat-i-cal /sə'bætɪkəl/ n. [C,U] a period when someone who teaches stops doing his/her usual work in order to study or travel: Prof. Morris is on sabbatical this semester. | She took a sabbatical from her job at Stanford University to coach the U.S. Olympic team.

THE SAURUS vacation, holiday, break, leave → VACATION

sa-ber /'seɪbə/ n. [C] a military sword sa-ble /'seɪbəl/ n. [C,U] an expensive fur used for making coats, or the small animal this fur comes from sab-o-tage¹ /ˈsæbəˌtɑːʒ/ v. [T] 1 to secretly damage or destroy something so that an enemy cannot use it: Soldiers sabotaged road and rail lines. 2 to deliberately spoil someone's plans because you do not want him/her to succeed: Out-side forces are trying to sabotage the Middle East peace process. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French saboter “to walk along noisily, do work badly, sabotage,” from sabot “wooden shoe”] —saboteur /ˌsæbəˈtɔː/ n. [C] sabotage² n. [U] deliberate damage done to equipment, vehicles, etc., in order to prevent an enemy or opponent from using them: an act of sabotage at the factory sac /sæk/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a part shaped like a small bag inside a plant or animal, that contains air or liquid sac·cha·rin /ˈsækəˌrɪn/ n. [U] a chemical substance that tastes very sweet and is used instead of sugar [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Latin saccharum “sugar,” from Greek sakcharon, from Sanskrit sarkara “small stones, sugar”]

S sac·cha·rine /ˈsækəˌrɪn/ adj. very romantic or involving a lot of emotion, in a way that seems silly and not sincere: a saccharine view of motherhood sack¹ /sæk/ n. [C] 1 a large bag made of strong cloth, plastic, or paper in which you carry or keep things: a sack of potatoes 2 also sackful the amount that a sack can contain [ORIGIN: Old English sacc, from Latin saccus, from Greek sakkos “bag, sackcloth”] → hit the sack at HIT¹ sack² v. [T] 1 to steal and destroy things in a city that has been defeated by an army: The Vandals sacked Rome in 455 A.D. 2 to knock down the QUARTERBACK in football sack out phr. v. (informal) to go to sleep: Karl was sacked out on the sofa.

sac·ra·ment /ˈsækrəmənt/ n. [C] an important Christian ceremony such as marriage or COMMUNION

sa·cred /ˈserkrɪd/ adj. 1 relating to a god or religion, and believed to be holy: The temple is one of the most sacred places for Hindus. | sacred text/book/writing 2 extremely important or greatly respected: Human life is sacred. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Past participle of sacre “to make holy” (13–17 centuries), from Old French sacrer] sacred 'cow n. [C] (disapproving) a belief, object, etc. that is so important to someone that s/he will not let anyone criticize or change it sac·ri·fice¹ /ˈsækrəˌfaɪs/ n. [C,U] 1 something that you decide not to have or not to do in order to get something that is more important: Her parents made a lot of sacrifices to put her through college. 2 the act of offering something to a god, or an object or animal that is killed in order to be offered to a god —sacrificial /ˌsækrəˈfɪʃəl/ adj.

sacrifice² v. [T] 1 to willingly stop having or doing something in order to get something that is more important: Ellis sacrificed a high-paying legal career to work in the inner city. | Rugiero was willing to sacrifice his life for his country. 2 to offer something to a god as part of a ceremony, often by killing it sac·ri·lege /ˈsækrələɪʒ/ n. [C,U] an occasion when someone treats something holy or important in a way that does not show respect —sacrilegious /ˌsækrəˈlɪdʒəs/ adj.

sac·ro·sanct /ˈsækrəʊˌsæŋkt/ adj. something that is sacrosanct is considered to be so important that no one is allowed to criticize or change it: Marriage no longer seems to be sacrosanct. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin sacrosanctus, probably from sacro sanctus “made holy by religious ceremonies”]

sad /sæd/ adj. (comparative sadder, superlative saddest) 1 unhappy, especially because something unpleasant has happened (ANT happy): Ted looked tired and sad. | We were sad to see him go. | a sad face

THESAURUS

unhappy – not happy: an unhappy marriage | We're unhappy with your performance.

miserable – very sad, especially because you are lonely or sick: I couldn't help feeling miserable. | I had a miserable time at college.

sorrowful (formal) – feeling great sadness, especially because someone has died or something very bad has happened: the sorrowful mothers of the soldiers who were killed depressed – sad for a long time because things are wrong in your life: Patients will get depressed over their symptoms.

down/low/blue (informal) – a little sad about things in your life: Whenever I felt down, I'd read his letter.

downhearted (literary) – sad about something that has happened: A friendly word can mean a lot to someone who is downhearted.

melancholy (formal) – sad and slightly depressed: His letters seemed increasingly melancholy.

morose (formal) – unhappy, silent, and in a bad mood: She was morose, and he could do nothing to cheer her up.

gloomy – sad because you think a situation will not improve: a gloomy mood glum – used especially to say that someone looks sad: You look glum.

2 a sad event, story, etc. makes you feel unhappy: sad news | It was a sad day for us all. | a story with a sad ending | It's sad that James couldn't come. 3 very bad or unacceptable: The house was in a sad state of neglect. | It's sad that these patients don't get the help they need. [ORIGIN: Old English sæd “having had enough”] —sadness n. [singular, U] sad·den /ˈsædn/ v. [T] (formal) to make someone feel sad or disappointed: We were deeply saddened by her death.

sad-dle¹ /ˈsædl/ n. [C] 1 a seat made of leather that is put on a horse's back so that you can ride it 2 a seat on a bicycle or a MOTORCYCLE saddle² v. [T] also saddle up to put a saddle on a horse saddle sb with sth phr. v. to give someone a job, problem, etc. that is difficult or boring: small businesses saddled with debts sad-dle-bag /ˈsædl,bæg/ n. [C] a bag that you carry things in, that is attached to a saddle on a horse or a bicycle sad-dism /ˈseɪ,dɪzəm/ n. [U] behavior in which someone gets pleasure, especially sexual pleasure, from being cruel to someone → MASOCHISM —sadist n. [C] —sadistic /səˈdɪstɪk/ adj.: a sadistic ruler sad-ly /ˈsædli/ adv. 1 in a way that shows you are sad: Jimmy nodded sadly. 2 in a way that you wish were not true [SYN] unfortunately: Sadly, most small businesses fail in the first year.

sa-fa-ri /səˈfəri/ n. [C] a trip through the country areas of Africa in order to watch wild animals: tourists on safari in Zaire [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Arabic safariy “of a trip”] safe¹ /seɪf/ adj. 1 not in danger of being harmed or stolen: People don't feel safe in their own homes. | Nothing can keep a city safe from terrorist attacks. | Both children were found, safe and sound (=unharmed). 2 not likely to cause or allow any physical injury or harm: safe drinking water | It's not safe to walk there at night. | Have a safe trip. | He stopped the car a safe distance away. 3 a safe place is one where something is not likely to be stolen or lost: Keep your passport in a safe place. 4 not involving any risk and very likely to be successful: a safe investment | U.S. Treasury bonds are a safe bet. 5 not likely to cause disagreement: I think it's safe to say that few people read the entire document. 6 to be on the safe side (spoken) used when you are being very careful in order to avoid an unpleasant situation: We'll each keep a copy of the lease to be on the safe side. 7 better (to be) safe than sorry (spoken) used in order to say that it is better to be careful, even if this takes time or effort, than to take a risk [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French sauf, from Latin salvus “safe, healthy”] —safely adv.: Drive safely!

safe² n. [C] a strong metal box or cupboard with a lock on it, where you keep money and valuable things

'safe-deposit box n. [C] a small box used for keeping valuable objects, usually in a special room in a bank safe-guard /ˈseɪfgɑrd/ n. [C] a law, agreement, etc. that is intended to protect someone or something from possible dangers or problems: safe-guards against the exploitation of children

—safeguard v. [T]

THESAURUS protect, guard, shield, give/offer/provide protection → PROTECT

'safe haven n. [C] a place where someone can go in order to escape from possible danger or attack safe-keep-ing /ˌseɪfˈkiːpɪŋ/ n. for safekeeping if you put something somewhere for safekeeping, you put it in a place where it will not get damaged, lost, or stolen

'safe sex n. [U] ways of having sex that reduce the risk of getting a sexual disease, especially by using a CONDOM

safe-ty /ˈseɪfti/ n. [U] 1 the state of being safe from danger or harm: Some students are concerned about safety on campus. 2 how safe someone or something is: Police have expressed fears for the girl's safety. | People have questioned the safety of the fireworks show.

'safety belt n. [C] a SEAT BELT

'safety net n. [C] 1 SOCIAL SCIENCE a system or arrangement that helps people if they get into a difficult situation or have serious problems: a safety net for the country's poorest people 2 a large net that is placed below someone who is performing high above the ground, to catch him/her if s/he falls 3 ECONOMICS actions taken by a government to help or protect companies or financial institutions that have serious financial problems

'safety pin n. [C] a curved metal pin for fastening things together. The point of the pin fits into a cover so that it cannot hurt you.

'safety valve n. [C] 1 something you do that allows you to express strong feelings such as anger without doing any harm: Exercise is a good safety valve for stress. 2 a part of a machine that allows gas, steam, etc. to be let out when the pressure is too high sag /sæɡ/ v. (sagged, sagging) [I] 1 to hang down or bend in the middle, especially because of the weight of something: The bookcases sagged under the weight of hundreds of books. 2 to become weaker or less valuable: a sagging economy sa-ga /ˈsagə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a long story or description of events sa-ga-ci-ty /səˈgæsəti/ n. [U] (formal) good judgment and understanding [SYN] wisdom sage /seɪdʒ/ n. 1 [C] (literary) someone, especially someone old, who is very wise 2 [U] an HERB with gray-green leaves 3 [U] EARTH SCIENCES sagebrush —sage adj.: sage advice sage-brush /ˈseɪdʒbrʌʃ/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a small bush with a strong smell, that grows on dry land in western North America

Sag-it-tar-i-us /ˌsædʒə'tɛriəs/ n. 1 [U] the ninth sign of the ZODIAC, represented by a man with a BOW and ARROWS 2 [C] someone born between November 22 and December 21

said¹ /sed/ v. the past tense and past participle of SAY¹

said² adj. used when giving more information about someone or something that has just been mentioned: The said robbery happened about 5:00.

sail¹ /seɪl/ v. 1 [I] to travel across an area of water in a boat or ship: Melville sailed to Hawaii. | the first Europeans to sail across the Atlantic 2 [I, T] to direct or control the movement of a boat or ship: We sailed the boat along the coast. | I'd like to learn how to sail. 3 [I] to start a trip by boat or ship: We sail at high tide. | The Dawn Princess will sail from San Juan.

sail through sth phr. v. to succeed in doing something very easily sail² n. [C] 1 a large piece of strong cloth attached to a boat, so that the wind will push the boat along 2 set sail to begin a trip by boat or ship: The ship will set sail at dawn.

sail-boat /'seɪlbɔ:t/ n. [C] a small boat with one or more sails sail-ing /'seɪlɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of traveling through water in a sailboat → see picture on page A4

sail-or /'seɪlə/ n. [C] 1 someone who works on a ship 2 someone who is in the Navy → see picture at ARMED FORCES saint /seɪnt/ n. [C] 1 also Saint someone who is given a special honor by the Catholic Church after he or she has died, because s/he was very good or holy: Saint Jude 2 (spoken) someone who is very good, kind, or patient: I'm certainly no saint! [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French, Late Latin sanc-tus, from Latin, “holy”] —sainthood /'seɪnthud/ n. [U]

Saint Ber-nard /,seɪntˈ bəˈnɑ:d/ n. [C] a very large strong dog with long hair sake /seɪk/ n. [U] 1 for the sake of sb also for sb's sake in order to help, improve, or please someone or something: She stayed in the marriage for the sake of the children. | Be nice to her; for Kathy's sake. 2 for goodness'/Pete's/heaven's etc. sake (spoken) said when you are annoyed, surprised, etc., or when you want to emphasize what you are saying: Why didn't you tell me, for heaven's sake?

sal-a-ble, saleable /'seɪləbəl/ adj. something that is salable can be sold, or is easy to sell sal-ad /'sæləd/ n. [C, U] 1 a mixture of raw vegetables, for example LETTUCE, CUCUMBER, and TOMATO 2 raw or cooked food cut into small pieces and served cold: potato salad [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French salade, from Old Provençal salada, from salar “to add salt to”]

'salad bar n. [C] a place in a restaurant where you can make your own salad

'salad ,dressing n. [C, U] a liquid mixture for putting on salads to give them a special taste sal-a-man-der /'sælə,mændə/ n. [C] a small animal similar to a LIZARD, that can live in water and on land sa-la-mi /sə'lemi/ n. [C, U] a large SAUSAGE with a strong taste, that is eaten cold sal-a-ried /'sælərɪd/ adj. receiving a salary: salaried workers

sal-a-ry /'sæləri/ n. (plural salaries) [C, U] money that you receive every month as payment from the organization you work for → WAGES: the average yearly/annual salary | The university may need to pay higher salaries to attract top faculty. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin salarium “money to pay for salt,” from sal “salt”]

THESAURUS

pay, income, wages, earnings, remuneration → PAY²
→ WORK¹

sale /seɪl/ n. 1 [C, U] the act of selling something, or an occasion when you sell something: The sale of alcohol is strictly controlled. | a yard/garage sale (=an occasion when you sell things you no longer need) 2 sales a) [plural] ECONOMICS the total number of products that are sold during a particular period of time: a company with sales of $60 million per year | Sales of the album have been strong. b) [U] the part of a company that deals with selling products: Sally got a job as sales manager. 3 for sale available to be bought: They had to put their home up for sale. | postcards for sale in the gift shop 4 on sale a) available to be bought: Tickets go on sale Monday. b) available to be bought for a lower price than usual: The sweaters were on sale. 5 [C] a time when stores sell their goods at lower prices than usual: Nordstrom's summer sale

'sales clerk n. [C] someone who sells things in a store sales-man /'seɪlzmən/ n. (plural salesmen) [C] a man whose job is to sell things: a used car salesman sales-person /'seɪlz,pəsn/ n. [C] someone whose job is to sell things

'sales repre,sentative also 'sales rep n. [C] someone who travels around selling his/her company's products

'sales slip n. [C] a small piece of paper that you are given in a store when you buy something (SYN) receipt

'sales tax n. [C, U] ECONOMICS a tax that you pay in addition to the cost of something you are buying sales-wom-an /'seɪlz,womən/ n. (plural sales-women) [C] a woman whose job is selling things sa-li-ent /'seɪliənt/ adj. (formal) most noticeable or important: the salient points of the plan —salience n. [U]

THESAURUS important, crucial, vital, essential, major, key, significant → IMPORTANT

sa-line /ˈseɪlɪn, -laɪn/ adj. CHEMISTRY containing or consisting of salt: a saline solution (=liquid with salt in it) [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin salinus, from sal “salt”] —saline n. [U] sa-lin-i-ty /səˈlɪnəti/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY the amount of salt which something contains sa-li·va /səˈlaɪvə/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the liquid that is produced naturally in your mouth sal-i-vate /ˈsælə,veɪt/ v. [I] 1 BIOLOGY to produce more saliva in your mouth than usual, because you see or smell food 2 (informal) to show interest in something in a way that shows you like or want it: Newspapers are salivating over the story.

sal-low /ˈsæloʊ/ adj. sallow skin looks slightly yellow and unhealthy salm-on /ˈsæmən/ n. [C,U] a large ocean fish with silver skin and pink flesh, or the meat from this fish [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Anglo-French salmon, from Latin salmo] sal-mo-nel·la /ˌsælməˈnələ/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a type of BACTERIA in food that makes you sick [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Modern Latin, from Daniel E. Salmon (1850–1914), U.S. scientist] sa-lon /səˈlɒn/ n. [C] a place where you can get your hair cut, have a MANICURE, etc.: a beauty salon [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French, from Italian salone “large hall”] sa-loon /səˈluːn/ n. [C] a place where alcoholic drinks were sold and drunk in the western U.S. in the 19th century sal-sa /ˈsælsə, ˈsɒl-/ n. [U] 1 a sauce made from onions, tomatoes, and hot-tasting peppers, which you put on Mexican food 2 a type of Latin American dance music salt¹ /sɒlt/ n. 1 [U] a natural white mineral that is added to food to make it taste better: Add some salt and pepper. 2 [C] CHEMISTRY a type of chemical, formed by combining an acid with another substance 3 salts [plural] a mineral substance like salt that is used as a medicine or to make your bath smell good [ORIGIN: Old English sealt] salt² v. [T] to add salt to food to make it taste better salt sth ↔ away phr. v. to save money for future use, especially dishonestly salt³ adj. 1 preserved by salt: salt pork 2 containing salt or saltwater: a salt lake

‘salt marsh n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES an area of flat wet ground near the ocean with many different varieties of grass growing on it, that is regularly flooded by saltwater

‘salt shaker n. [C] a small container for salt salt-wa-ter /ˈsɒltˌwɔːtə, -ˌwɑ-/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES living in salty water: saltwater fish salt-y /ˈsɒlti/ adj. tasting like or containing salt —saltiness n. [U]

THESAURUS sweet, tasty, sour, hot, spicy → TASTE¹

sal·u·ta·tion /ˌsælyəˈteɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) a word or phrase used to greet someone at the beginning of a letter or speech, such as “Dear Mr. Roberts” sal-lute¹ /səˈlut/ v. [I,T] to move your right hand to your head in order to show respect to an officer in the Army, Navy, etc.: He turned around and saluted the captain. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin salutare, from salus “health, safety, greeting”] salute² n. [C] 1 an act of saluting 2 an occasion when guns are fired into the air in order to show respect for someone: a 21-gun salute sal-vage¹ /ˈsælvɪdʒ/ v. [T] to save something from a situation in which other things have already been damaged, destroyed, or lost: He’s trying to salvage his political reputation. | a sofa salvaged from the dump salvage² n. [U] the act of salvaging something, or the things that are salvaged sal-va·tion /sælˈveɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 the state of being saved from evil by God, according to the Christian religion 2 something that prevents danger, loss, or failure: Education seemed their best chance of salvation.

Sal·va·tion ‘Army n. the Salvation Army a Christian organization that tries to help poor people salve /sæv/ n. [C,U] a substance that you put on sore skin to make it less painful —salve v. [T] sal-vo /ˈsælvəʊ/ n. (plural salvos) [C] (formal) 1 one of a series of actions or statements, especially in a situation in which people are arguing: the opening salvo of the election campaign 2 the act of shooting several guns in a battle or as part of a ceremony

Sa-mar-i-tan /səˈmærətən/ n. [C] also good Samaritan n. [C] someone who helps you when you have problems [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 From the Bible story of a person from Samaria (an area of ancient Palestine) who stopped and helped a man who had been attacked and robbed]

same¹ /seɪm/ adj. [only before noun] 1 a) one particular person, place, etc. and not a different one: We work at the same place. | Their birthdays are on the same day. b) used in order to say that two or more people, things, etc. are exactly like each other (SYN) identical: I told him the same thing. | The two of them looked exactly the same. | She does the same job as I do, but in a bigger company. ▶ Don’t say “She does the same job like I do.” ◀ 2 used in order to say that a particular person or thing does not change: He’s still the same old Peter! 3 at the same time if two things happen at the same time, they happen together: I wanted to laugh and cry at the same time. 4 the same old story/excuse etc. (informal, disapproving) something that you have heard many times before: politicians repeating the same old promises 5 same difference (spoken) used in order to say that different actions, behavior, etc. have the same result: “Should I e-mail them or fax a letter?” “Same difference.” 6 by the same token in the same way or for the same reasons: Some mothers are committed to their careers. By the same token, some fathers want to spend more time with their families. 7 be in the same boat to be in the same difficult situation that someone else is in [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old Norse samr]

GRAMMAR

Do not say “a same.” Say “the same sort of”: I’d like the same sort of car as that.

same² pron. 1 the same a) used in order to say that two or more people, actions, or things are exactly like each other: Thanks – I’ll do the same for you sometime. | The houses look the same, but one’s slightly larger. b) used in order to say that a particular person or thing does not change: It won’t be the same without you. | “How’s Danny?” “Oh, he’s the same as ever.” ▶ Don’t say “He’s same as ever.” ◀ 2 (and the) same to you! (spoken) used as a reply to a greeting, or as an angry reply to a rude remark: “Happy New Year!” “Same to you!” 3 same here (spoken) said in order to tell someone that you feel the same way as him/her: “I’d love to see you again.” “Same here.” same-ness /ˈseɪmɪnɪs/ n. [U] a boring lack of variety, or the quality of being very similar to something else: the sameness of the landscape same-sex adj. same-sex marriage/relationship etc. a marriage, etc. between two men or two women

sample¹ /ˈsæmpəl/ n. [C] 1 a small part or amount of something that is examined or used in order to find out what the rest is like: Do you have a sample of your work? | a blood/urine/tissue sample (=one that a doctor examines for a disease) | a free sample of shampoo 2 a group of people who have been chosen to give information by answering questions: a random sample of 500 college students 3 a small part of a song from a CD or record that is used in a new song [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French essample, from Latin exemplum]

sample² v. [T] 1 to taste a food or drink, go to a place, try an activity, etc. in order to see what it is like: We sampled several kinds of cheese. 2 to choose some people from a larger group in order to ask them questions: A quarter of the people sampled were college-educated. 3 to use a small part of a song from a CD or record in a new song —sampling n. [C]

‘sampling method n. [C] MATH one of several methods that can be used to collect information about people. The methods are different from each other in the way they choose the people to collect information about.

sam-u-rai /ˈsæmʊˌraɪ/ n. (plural samurai) [C] HISTORY a member of a powerful military class in Japan in past times sanc-ti-fy /ˈsæŋktəˌfaɪ/ v. (sanctified, sanctifies) [T] to make something holy sanc-ti-mo-ni-ous /ˌsæŋktəˈmɒniəs/ adj. (disapproving) behaving as if you are morally better than other people

sanc-tion¹ /ˈsæŋkʃən/ n. 1 sanctions [plural] official orders or laws stopping trade, communication, etc. with another country, as a way of forcing its leaders to make political changes: Trade sanctions were imposed on South Africa before apartheid ended. | U.S. sanctions against Cuba 2 [U] official permission, approval, or acceptance: The protest march was held without government sanction. 3 [C] something, such as a punishment, that makes people obey a rule or law: Sex outside of marriage was punished by powerful social sanctions.

sanction² v. [T] (formal) to officially accept or allow something: The UN refused to sanction the use of force.

THE SAURUS allow, let, permit, authorize → ALLOW approve, pass, endorse → APPROVE

sanc-ti-ty /ˈsæŋktəti/ n. the sanctity of sth the quality that makes something so important that it must be respected and preserved: the sanctity of marriage

sanc-tu-ar-y /ˈsæŋktʃuəri/ n. (plural sanctuaries) 1 [C,U] a peaceful place that is safe and provides protection, especially for people who are in danger: The rebel leader took sanctuary in an embassy. 2 [C] an area for birds or animals where they are protected and cannot be hunted 3 [C] the room where Christian religious services take place [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French sainctuarie, from Late Latin sanctuarium, from Latin sanc-tus “holy”] sanc-tum /ˈsæŋktəm/ n. 1 the inner sanctum (humorous) a place that only a few important people are allowed to enter 2 [C] a holy place inside a TEMPLE sand¹ /sænd/ n. [U] the substance that forms deserts and beaches, and consists of many small grains of rock [ORIGIN: Old English]

sand² v. [T] 1 to make a surface smooth by rubbing it with SANDPAPER or a special piece of equipment 2 to put sand on a frozen road to make it safer san-dal /ˈsændl/ n. [C] a light open shoe that you wear in warm weather [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin sandalium, from Greek, from sandalon] → see picture at SHOE¹ sand-bag /ˈsændbæg/ n. [C] a bag filled with sand, used for protection from floods, explosions, etc.

sand-bank /ˈsændbæŋk/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a raised area of sand in a river, ocean, etc.

sand-blast /ˈsændblæst/ v. [T] to clean or polish metal, stone, glass, etc. with a machine that sends out a powerful stream of sand sand-box /ˈsændbɒks/ n. [C] a special area of sand for children to play in sand-castle /ˈsændkæsl/ n. [C] a small model of a castle made out of sand, usually by children on a beach sand dune n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a DUNE sand-man /ˈsændmæn/ n. [singular] a man in children's stories who makes children sleep by putting sand in their eyes sand-paper /ˈsændpeɪpə/ n. [U] strong paper covered on one side with sand or another rough substance, used for rubbing wood in order to make it smooth —sandpaper v. [T] sand-piper /ˈsændpaɪpə/ n. [C] a small bird with long legs and a long beak, that lives by the ocean sand-stone /ˈsændstəʊn/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES a type of soft yellow or red rock sand-storm /ˈsændstɔːm/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a storm in the desert in which sand is blown around by strong winds sandwich¹ /ˈsændwɪtʃ/ n. [C] two pieces of bread with cheese, meat, egg, etc. between them, usually eaten for LUNCH: tuna fish sandwiches [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Earl of Sandwich (1718–92), who ate sandwiches so that he could continue gambling without leaving the table]

sandwich² v. be sandwiched between sth to be in a very small space between two other things: a motorcycle sandwiched between two vans sandy /ˈsændi/ adj. 1 covered with sand: a sandy beach 2 sandy hair is dark BLONDE sane /seɪn/ adj. 1 able to think in a normal and reasonable way (ANT) insane 2 reasonable and based on sensible thinking: a sane solution to a difficult problem sang /sæŋ/ v. the past tense of SING san-guine /ˈsæŋɡwɪn/ adj. (formal) happy and hopeful about the future (SYN) optimistic: Smith's lawyers aren't very sanguine about the outcome of the trial. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 French sanguin, from Latin sanguineus, from sanguis “blood”] san-i-tar-i-um /ˌsænəˈtɛrɪəm/ n. [C] a hospital for sick people who are getting better but still need rest and care san-i-tar-y /ˌsænəˈtɛrɪ/ adj. 1 relating to the ways that dirt, infection, and waste are removed, so that places are clean and healthy for people to use: the lack of sanitary facilities (=toilets and sinks) 2 clean and not involving any danger to your health: All food should be stored under sanitary conditions.

'sanitary napkin n. [C] a piece of soft material that a woman wears in her underwear when she has her PERIOD san-i-ta-tion /ˌsænəˈteɪʃən/ n. [U] the protection of public health by removing and treating waste, dirty water, etc.

san-i-tize /ˌsænəˈtaɪz/ v. [T] 1 to make news, literature, etc. less offensive by taking out anything unpleasant: a sanitized version of the story 2 to clean something thoroughly, removing dirt and BACTERIA

san-i-ty /ˌsænəti/ n. [U] 1 the ability to think in a normal and reasonable way: I went away for the weekend to try and keep my sanity. 2 the condition of being mentally healthy: I feared for my mother's fragile sanity. | She wondered if she was losing her sanity.

sank /sæŋk/ v. the past tense of SINK

San-ta Claus /ˈsæntəˌklaʊz/ also Santa n. an old man with red clothes and a long white BEARD, who children believe brings them presents at Christmas [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Dutch Sinterklaas, from Sint Nikolaas “Saint Nicholas,” patron saint of children]

sap¹ /sæp/ n. 1 [U] BIOLOGY the substance like water that carries food through a plant 2 [C] (informal) a stupid person who is easy to deceive or treat badly sap² v. (sapped, sapping) [T] to gradually make something weak or destroy it: The heat and humidity sapped my strength.

sap-ling /ˈsæplɪŋ/ n. [C] a young tree → see picture at PLANT¹ sap-phire /ˈsæfaɪə/ n. [C,U] a transparent bright blue jewel [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French safir, from Latin, from Greek, from Hebrew sappir, from Sanskrit sanipriya “dear to the planet Saturn”] sap-py /ˈsæpi/ adj. (disapproving) expressing love and emotions in a way that seems silly: a sappy love song

sap-wood /ˈsæpwʊd/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the younger outer wood in a tree, that is not as dark or hard as the wood in the middle, through which water, SAP, and other liquids are moved around the plant

Sa-ran Wrap /səˈrænˌræp/ n. [U] (trademark) thin transparent plastic used for wrapping food

sar-casm /ˈsɑːkæzəm/ n. [U] a way of speaking or writing in which you say the opposite of what you really mean in order to make an unkind joke or to show that you are annoyed: There was a hint of sarcasm (=a little sarcasm) in his letter. | His voice dripped with sarcasm (=showed a lot of sarcasm). [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French sarcasme, from Late Latin, from Greek sarkazein “to tear flesh, bite your lip angrily, sneer”] sar-cas-tic /sɑːˈkæstɪk/ adj. using sarcasm: He can be very sarcastic. —sarcastically adv.

sar·coph·a·gus

/sər'kɒfəgəs/ n. (plural sarcophagi) a decorated stone box for a dead body, used in ancient times → MUMMY

sar·dine

/sər'din/ n. 1 [C] a young HER-RING (=a type of fish), or the meat from this fish, usually sold in cans 2 be packed like sardines to be packed tightly together in a small space sar·don·ic /sər'danɪk/ adj. speaking or smiling in an unpleasant way that shows you do not have a good opinion of someone or something [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French sardonique, from Greek sardonios, from sardanio; influenced by Sardonios “Sardinian,” because of a plant from Sardinia (an Italian island) which causes the face to twist into a smile]

S

sa·ri /'səri/ n. [C] a type of loose clothing worn by many Indian and Bangladeshi women, and some Pakistani women

SASE n. [C] self-addressed stamped envelope an envelope that you put your name, address, and a stamp on, so that someone else can send you something sash /sæʃ/ n. [C] 1 a long piece of cloth that you wear around your waist like a belt: a white dress with a blue sash 2 a long piece of cloth that you wear over one shoulder and across your chest as a sign of a special honor [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Arabic shash “fine cloth”] sass /sæs/ v. [T] (spoken) to talk in a rude way to someone you should respect: Don't sass me, young lady! —sass n. [U] sassy /'sæsi/ adj. (informal) 1 a sassy child is rude to someone s/he should respect 2 a sassy woman is confident and does not really care what other people think about her

SAT /sæt/ n. [C] (trademark) Scholastic Aptitude Test an examination that high school students take before they go to college sat /sæt/ v. the past tense and past participle of SIT

Sa·tan /'seɪtən/ n. the Devil, considered to be the main evil power and God's opponent sa·tan·ic /sə'tænɪk, seɪ-/ adj. 1 relating to practices that treat the Devil like a god: satanic rites 2 (literary) extremely cruel or evil: satanic laughter

sa·tan·is·m /'seɪtən,ɪzəm/ n. [U] the practice of treating the Devil like a god —satanist n. [C]

sat·el·lite /'sætl,ait/ n. [C] 1 a machine that has been sent into space and goes around the Earth in order to send and receive electronic information: a live broadcast coming in by/via satellite | a satellite communications network → SPACE 2 PHYSICS a natural object such as the moon that moves around a PLANET → see picture at APOGEE 3 a country, town, or organization that is controlled by or is dependent on another larger one: the former Soviet satellites of eastern Europe [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French, Latin satelles “personal servant or guard”]

'satellite dish n. [C] a large circular piece of metal that receives the signals for satellite television

'satellite television also 'satellite T'V n. [U] television programs that are broadcast using SATELLITES in space sa·ti·ate /'seɪfi,eɪt/ v. [T usually passive] (literary) to completely satisfy a desire or need for something, for example food: They rested, satiated with the big meal. —satiated adj. —satiety /sə'taɪəti/ n. [U] sat·in /'sætɪn/ n. [U] a type of cloth that is very smooth and shiny [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French]

sat·in·y /'sætɪn-i/ adj. smooth, shiny, and soft like satin: satiny material

sat·ire /'sætəɪə/ n. 1 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a way of criticizing someone or something, in which you show his, her, or its faults in a funny way: a comedian who does political satire | a satire of the movie industry 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a play, story, etc. written in this way —satirical /sə'tɪrɪkəl/ adj. —satirically adv.

sat·i·rist /'sætəɪrɪst/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who writes satire sat·i·rize /'sætə,raɪz/ v. [T] ENG. LANG. ARTS to use satire to make people see someone's or something's faults: a movie satirizing the fashion industry

sat·is·fac·tion /sætɪs'fækʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] a feeling of happiness or pleasure because you have achieved something or gotten what you wanted (ANT) dissatisfaction: He looked around the room with satisfaction. | Liz found satisfaction in her job. | the satisfaction of knowing that I was right 2 [U] the act of getting something you want, need, or have demanded: the satisfaction of basic physical needs 3 to sb's satisfaction as well or completely as someone wants: I'm not sure I can answer that question to your satisfaction.

sat-is-fac-to-ry /ˌsætɪsˈfæktəri, -tri/ adj. good enough for a particular situation or purpose, or good enough to please you (ANT) unsatisfactory → SATISFYING: a satisfying explanation | Progress has been satisfactory. | a satisfactory result | an agreement that is satisfactory to both sides

THESAURUS

good enough – having a standard that is satisfactory for a particular purpose or situation: Well, that coat's a little big, but it's good enough.
acceptable – good enough for a particular purpose: Some students said it was easy to get acceptable grades without doing much work.
passable (formal) – good enough to be acceptable, but not very good: Al speaks passable Spanish.
all right/okay – acceptable, but not excellent: The food was all right, I guess, nothing special.
reasonable – fairly good, large, or high: a reasonable level of pay respectable – good or satisfactory: She jumped a respectable five and a half feet.
adequate – enough in quantity or of a good enough quality for a particular purpose: Are they given adequate training before starting work?

sat-is-fied /ˌsætɪsˈfaɪd/ adj. 1 pleased because something has happened in the way that you want, or because you have achieved something (ANT) dis-satisfied: satisfied customers | Are you satisfied with your job? 2 feeling sure that something is right or true: I'm satisfied (that) he's telling the truth.

THESAURUS sure, certain, convinced, confident → SURE¹

3 satisfied? (spoken) said in an annoyed way when you say or do something that you do not really want to say or do: Okay, okay, I was wrong – satisfied?

sat-is-fy /ˌsætɪsˈfaɪ/ v. (satisfied, satisfies) [T] 1 to make someone happy by providing what s/he wants or needs: One bite satisfied my craving for chocolate. | Can the school satisfy the needs of special learners? 2 to make someone feel sure that something is true or has been done correctly: The evidence did not satisfy the jury that he was guilty. 3 (formal) to be good enough for a particular purpose, standard, etc.: students who have not satisfied the requirements for graduation [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French satisfier, from Latin satisfacere, from satis “enough” + facere “to make”] sat-is-fy-ing /ˌsætɪsˈfaɪ-ɪŋ/ adj. 1 making you feel pleased and happy, especially because you have got what you wanted: a satisfying victory 2 food that is satisfying makes you feel that you have eaten enough: a satisfying meal sat-u-rate /ˈsætʃəˌreɪt/ v. [T] 1 to make something completely wet: The ground is completely saturated with rain. 2 to make something very full of a particular type of thing: an area saturated with radio stations — saturation /ˌsætʃəˈreɪʃən/ n. [U] saturated 'fat n. [C,U] a type of fat from meat and milk products

Sat-ur-day /ˈsætəˌdi, -deɪ/ (written abbreviation Sat.) n. [C,U] the seventh day of the week, between Friday and Sunday: The documents were released Saturday. | Jim's going to Phoenix on Saturday. | Would next Saturday be a good time for me to visit? | I went out and played golf last Saturday. | What are you doing Saturday night? [ORIGIN: 800–900 Translation of Latin Saturni dies “day of Saturn”]

Sat-urn /ˈsætərn/ n. PHYSICS the second largest PLANET, which is sixth from the Sun → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM

sauce /sɔːs/ n. [C,U] a thick cooked liquid that is served with food to give it a particular taste: spaghetti with tomato sauce [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin salsa, from sallere “to add salt to”] sauce-pan /ˈsɔːs-pæn/ n. [C] a deep round metal container with a handle, used for cooking sau-cer /ˈsɔːsə/ n. [C] a small round plate that you put a cup on sau-cy /ˈsɔːsi/ adj. about sex or relating to sex, in a way that is amusing but not shocking: a saucy comedy sau-er-kraut /ˈsauəˌkraʊt/ n. [U] a salty German food made of CABBAGE sau-na /ˈsɔːnə/ n. [C] 1 a room that is filled with steam to make it very hot, in which people sit because it is considered healthy 2 a time when you sit or lie in a room like this saun-ter /ˈsɔːntə, ˈsɔːn-/ v. [I] to walk in a slow and confident way: Myers sauntered up to her desk.

sau-sage /ˈsɔːsɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] a mixture of meat and SPICES, usually in a small tube shape, that is cooked and often eaten for breakfast [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old North French saussiche, from Late Latin salsicia, from Latin salsus “salted”] sau-té /sɔːˈteɪ/ v. [T] to cook something quickly in a little hot oil or fat: sautéed mushrooms

sav-age¹ /ˈsævɪdʒ/ adj. 1 very cruel and violent: a savage murder 2 criticizing someone or something very severely: a savage attack on the newspaper industry 3 very severe and harmful: savage budget cuts 4 (old-fashioned) PRIMITIVE [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French sauvage, from Latin silvaticus “of the woods, wild”] — savagely adv.

savage² n. [C] (old-fashioned, offensive) someone from a country where the way of living seems simple and undeveloped savage³ v. [T] 1 to criticize someone or something very severely: a movie savaged by the critics 2 if an animal savages someone, it attacks him/her, and causes serious injuries sav-age-ry /'sævidʒri/ n. [U] extremely cruel and violent behavior sa-van-na, savannah /sə'vænə/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES a large flat area of land covered in grass in a warm part of the world save¹ /seɪv/ v.

S

1 FROM HARM/DANGER [T] to make someone or something safe from danger, harm, or destruction: We are working to save the rain forest from destruction. | The new treatment could save his life.

2 MONEY [I,T] also save up to keep money so that you can use it later: We're trying to save money to buy a house. | I'm saving up for a trip to Europe.

3 NOT WASTE [T] to use less time, money, energy, etc. so that you do not waste any: We'll save time if we take a cab. | Buying new equipment will actually save the company money.

4 TO USE LATER [T] to keep something so that you can use or enjoy it in the future: I'm saving this bottle of champagne for a special occasion.

S

THESAURUS

keep, store, reserve → KEEP¹

5 HELP TO AVOID [T] to help someone by making it unnecessary for him/her to do something that is inconvenient or difficult: If you could pick up Lori's birthday cake, it would save me a trip to the bakery.

6 COLLECT [T] also save (sth ↔) up to keep all the objects of a particular kind that you can find so that they can be used for a special purpose: I'm saving all the bottles and cans for recycling.

7 KEEP FOR SB [T] to stop people from using something so that it is available for someone else: We'll save some dinner for you. | Will you save me a seat?

8 COMPUTER [I,T] IT to make a computer keep the work that you have done on it: Don't forget to save before you close the file. → COMPUTER

9 SPORT [T] to stop the other team from scoring a GOAL in games such as SOCCER or HOCKEY

10 saving grace the one good thing that makes someone or something acceptable: His sense of humor was his only saving grace. → lose/save face at FACE¹ save on sth phr. v.

to avoid wasting something by using as little as possible of it: We turn the heat down during the day to save on electricity. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French salver, from Late Latin salvare, from Latin salvus] save² n. [C] an action by the GOALKEEPER in SOCCER, HOCKEY, etc. that prevents the other team from getting a point sav-er /'seɪvə/ n. 1 time-saver/money-saver/energy-saver etc. something that prevents loss or waste: Shopping by mail is a great time-saver. 2 [C] someone who saves money in a bank sav-ing /'seɪvɪŋz/ n. 1 savings [plural] all the money that you have saved, especially in a bank: She lost their life savings in a Vegas casino. 2 [C] an amount of something that you have not used or do not have to spend: Enjoy 25% savings on our regular prices. | a saving of $15

'savings account n. [C] ECONOMICS a bank account that pays INTEREST on the money you have in it

'savings and 'loan (abbreviation S&L) n. [C] ECONOMICS a business similar to a bank where you can save money, and that also lends money for things such as houses

'savings bank n. [C] ECONOMICS a bank whose business is mostly from savings accounts and from LOANS on houses

sav-ior /'seɪvɪə/ n. 1 [C] someone or something that saves you from a difficult or dangerous situation: Many believed he would be the savior of the organization. 2 the/our Savior another name for Jesus Christ, used in the Christian religion sa-vor /'seɪvə/ v. [T] to make an activity or experience last as long as you can, because you are enjoying every moment of it: Drink it slowly and savor every drop.

sa-vor-y /'seɪvəri/ adj. savory food has a pleasant spicy or salty smell or taste: savory snacks [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French savouré, past participle of savourer, from savour]

sav-vy /'sævi/ n. [U] practical knowledge and ability: marketing savvy —savvy adj.: a savvy businesswoman saw¹ /sɔ/ v. the past tense of SEE saw² n. [C] a tool that has a flat blade with a row of sharp points, used for cutting wood saw³ v. (past tense sawed, past participle sawed or sawn /sɔn/) [I,T] to cut something using a saw: We decided to saw off the lower branches of the apple tree. → CUT¹ saw-dust /'sɔdʌst/ n. [U] very small pieces of wood that are left when you cut wood with a saw saw-mill /'sɔmɪl/ n. [C] a factory where trees are cut into boards sawn /sɔn/ v. a past participle of SAW³ sax /sæks/ n. [C] (informal) a saxophone sax-o-phone /'sæksə'foʊn/ n. [C] a metal musical instrument that you play by blowing into it and pressing special KEYS [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French, from Adolphe Sax (1814-94), Belgian musician who invented the instrument]

say¹ /seɪ/ v. (past tense and past participle said /sed/, third person singular says /sez/)

1 EXPRESS STH [T] to express a thought or feeling in words: "I'm so tired," she said. | They left without saying goodbye. | Dave said (that) he'd call back. | Did she say what happened? | Tom didn't say why he was angry. | That was a nice/mean/strange thing to say. | What did you say to them?

USAGE

Say cannot have a person as its object. Do not use “say me.” Use “tell me” instead. Compare these sentences: He said that he was tired. | He told me that he was tired.

THESAURUS

mention – to say something but without giving many details: He mentioned something about a party.

add – to say something more about something: Is there anything you'd like to add?

state (formal) – to give a piece of information or your opinion, especially by saying it clearly: The witness stated that he had never seen the woman before.

utter (literary) – to say something: No one uttered a word.

express – to say how you feel about something: It's hard to express how I felt.

2 PRONOUNCE [T] to pronounce a word or sound: How do you say your last name?

3 WITHOUT WORDS [I,T] to express something without using words: What is Hopper trying to say in this painting? | Her smile says it all (=her smile expresses her happiness).

4 GIVE INFORMATION [T] to give information in writing, pictures, or numbers: The clock said quarter after six. | The instructions say (that) you cook it for ten minutes.

5 sth goes without saying used when what you have said or written is so clear that it really did not need to be stated: It goes without saying that a well-rested person is a better worker.

6 say to yourself to think something: I was worried about it, but I said to myself, “You can do this.”

7 to say the least used when what you have said could have been stated much more strongly: The house needs work, to say the least.

8 having said that used before saying something that makes the opinion you have given seem less strong: The movie is poorly made, but having said that, it's still a cute picture to take the kids to.

9 that is to say used before describing what you mean in more detail or more clearly: Things still aren't equal. That is to say, women still are not paid as much as men.

SPOKEN PHRASES

10 be saying used in phrases to emphasize that you are trying to explain what you mean in a way that someone will understand better, especially in a situation in which you are arguing with someone and do not want him/her to be angry: All I'm saying is that he should have been more careful. | I'm not saying it's a bad idea, just that we need to think about it. | I'm just saying it would be easier if we made a copy. | Maybe if you stopped shouting at him, he might actually tell you what's wrong, (do you) know what I'm saying (=do you understand me)?

11 [T] to suggest or suppose that something might happen or might be true: Say you were going to an interview. What would you wear? | Let's say they don't approve our plan. What do we do then?

12 what do you say? used in order to ask someone if s/he agrees with a suggestion: What do you say we all go to a movie?

13 you can say that again used in order to say that you completely agree with someone: “It's cold in here.” “You can say that again.”

14 say when used when you want someone to tell you when you have given him/her the correct amount of something, especially a drink

[ORIGIN: Old English secan]

say² n. 1 [singular, U] the right to help decide something: Citizens should have a say in how their tax money is spent. | Members felt that they had no say in the proposed changes. | The chairman has the final say (=has the right to make the final decision about something). 2 have your say to have the opportunity to give your opinion about something: You'll all have the chance to have your say.

say-ing /'seɪ-ɪŋ/ n. [C] a well-known statement that expresses an idea most people believe is true and wise phrase, expression, idiom, cliché, proverb, maxim → PHRASE¹

THESAURUS

SC the written abbreviation of SOUTH CAROLINA scab /skæb/ n. [C] 1 a hard layer of dried blood that forms over a cut or wound 2 (informal) an insulting word for someone who works in a place where other people are on STRIKE (=refusing to work because of a disagreement with an employer)

scads /skædz/ n. [plural] (informal) large numbers or quantities of something: scads of money

scaf-fold /'skæfəld/, -foʊld/ n. [C] 1 a structure built next to a building or high wall, for people to stand on while they work on the building or wall 2 a structure used in past times for killing criminals by hanging them from it [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old North French escafauf, from Vulgar Latin catafalicum “stage, platform, scafold”]

scaf-fold-ing

/'skæfəldɪŋ/ n. [U] poles and boards that are built into a structure for people to stand on when they are working on a high wall or the outside of a building scald /skɔld/ v. [T] to burn yourself with hot liquid or steam [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old North French escalder, from Late Latin excal-dare “to wash in warm water”] scald-ing /'skɔldɪŋ/ adj., adv. extremely hot: scalding hot coffee

THESAURUS

hot, boiling/baking/scorching

(hot) → HOT

scale¹ /skeɪl/ n.

1 SIZE [singular, U] the size or level of something, when compared to what is normal: The scale of the problem soon became clear. | There has been housing development on a massive scale since 1980. | a large/small scale research project

2 MEASURING SYSTEM [C usually singular] a system for measuring the force, speed, amount, etc. of something, or for comparing it with something else: The earthquake measured 7 on the Richter scale. | Your performance will be judged on a scale of 1 to 10.

3 RANGE [C usually singular] the whole range of different types of people, things, ideas, etc. from the lowest level to the highest: Some rural schools have 50 students while at the other end of the scale are city schools with 5,000 students.

4 FOR WEIGHING [C] a machine or piece of equipment for weighing people or objects: The nurse asked me to get on the scale. → see picture at WEIGH

5 MEASURING MARKS [C] a set of marks with regular spaces between them on an instrument that is used for measuring: a ruler with a metric scale

6 MAP/DRAWING [C,U] the relationship between the size of a map, drawing, or model and the actual size of the place or thing that it represents: a scale of 1 inch to the mile

7 MUSIC [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a series of musical notes that have a fixed order and become gradually higher or lower in PITCH

8 ON FISH [C usually plural] one of the small flat pieces of hard skin that cover the bodies of fish, snakes, etc. → see picture on page A2

scale² v. [T] to climb to the top of something that is high: They scaled a 40-foot wall and escaped.

scale sth ↔ back/down phr. v. to reduce the size of something such as an organization or plan: Military operations in the area have been scaled down.

'scale drawing n. [C] a drawing of an object, building, or areas, etc. that is larger or smaller than the actual object, building, etc.

sca-lene tri-an-gle /,skeɪlɪn 'traɪ.æŋɡəl/ n. [C] MATH a TRIANGLE with three sides that are all different lengths → see picture at TRIANGLE scal-lion /'skæljən/ n. [C] a small white onion with a small round end and a long green stem that you eat raw (SYN green onion)

scal-lop /'skæləp, 'skʊləp/ n. [C] a small sea animal that has a hard flat shell, or the meat from this animal scal-loped /'skæləpt, 'ska-/ adj. cloth or objects that have scalloped edges are cut in a series of small curves as a decoration scalp¹ /skælp/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the skin on the top of your head, where your hair grows scalp² v. [T] 1 (informal) to buy tickets for an event and sell them again at a much higher price 2 to cut the scalp off a dead enemy as a sign of victory scal-pel /'skælpəl/ n. [C] a small and very sharp knife used by doctors during operations scalp-er /'skælpə/ n. [C] someone who makes money by buying tickets for an event and selling them again at a very high price

scal-y /'skeɪli/

adj. 1 an animal that is scaly is covered with small flat pieces of hard skin 2 scaly skin is dry and rough scam /skæm/ n. [C] (informal) a smart but dishonest plan to get money: an insurance scam scam-per /'skæmpə/ v. [I] to run with short quick steps, like a small animal: A mouse scampered into its hole.

scan¹ /skæn/ v. (scanned, scanning) 1 [I,T] also scan through to read something quickly in order to understand its main meaning or to find a particular piece of information → SKIM: I had a chance to scan through the report on the plane. 2 [T] to examine an area carefully, because you are looking for a particular person or thing: They anxiously scanned the streets for Billy. 3 [T] if a machine scans an object or a part of your body, it produces a picture of what is inside → SCANNER: All luggage has to be scanned at the airport. 4 [T] to copy a picture or piece of writing onto a computer by putting it into a machine attached to the computer → SCANNER [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Late Latin scandere, from Latin, “to climb”] scan² n. [C] a medical test in which a special machine produces a picture of something inside your body: a bone/brain scan scan-dal /'skændl/ n. [C,U] something that has happened that people think is immoral or shocking: He was involved in a major financial scandal. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Late Latin scandalum “offense,” from Greek skandalon] scan-dal-ize /'skændl,aɪz/ v. [T] to do something that shocks people very much scan-dal-ous /'skændl-əs/ adj. completely immoral and shocking: scandalous behavior scan-ner /'skænə/ n. [C] 1 PHYSICS a machine that passes a beam of ELECTRONS over an object or a part of your body in order to produce a picture of what is inside 2 IT a piece of computer equipment that copies an image from paper onto the computer → see picture on page A6 scant /skænt/ adj. not enough: The story has received scant attention in the press.

scant-y /'skænti/ adj. very little in size or amount: a scanty bikini —scantily adv. scantily dressed scape-goat /ˈskeɪpgout/ n. [C] someone who is blamed for something bad that happens, even if it is not his/her fault: He's been made a scapegoat for their lack of success. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 scape (from scape “to get away” (13–20 centuries), from escape) + goat] —scapegoat v. [T] scar¹ /skar/ n. [C] 1 a permanent mark on your skin from a cut or wound: The cut will leave a permanent scar.

THESAURUS blemish, bruise, pimple, zit, wart, blister, freckle, mole → MARK²

2 a feeling of fear and sadness that stays with a person after a bad experience: The war has left a deep scar on this community. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French escare, from Late Latin eschara, from Greek]

scar² v. (scarred, scarring) [T] 1 to have or be given a permanent mark on your skin from a cut or wound: The fire had left him scarred for life. 2 if a bad experience scars you, it leaves you with a feeling of sadness and fear that continues for a long time: She was deeply scarred by her father's suicide.

scarce /skɜːs/ adj. if food, clothing, water, etc. is scarce, there is not enough of it available scarce-ly /ˈskɜːsli/ adv. 1 almost not at all, or almost none at all (SYN hardly): Their teaching methods have scarcely changed in the last 10 years. | The country has scarcely any industry. 2 definitely not, or almost certainly not: Owen is really angry, and you can scarcely blame him.

scar-ci-ty /ˈskɜːsəti/ n. [singular, U] a situation in which there is not enough of something: a scarcity of medical supplies

scare¹ /skeɪ/ v. 1 [T] to make someone feel frightened: I didn't mean to scare you. | We were scared to death (=very scared). | The alarm scared the life out of me (=scared me very much)! 2 [I] to become frightened: I don't scare easily, you know. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old Norse skirra, from skjarr “shy, fearful”] scare sb/sth ↔ off/away phr. v. 1 to make someone or something go away by frightening him, her, or it: A barking dog had scared the attackers away. 2 to make someone uncertain or nervous so that s/he does not do something s/he was going to do: I'd like to call him, but I don't want to scare him off.

scare sth ↔ up phr. v. (spoken) to make something although you have very few things to make it from: I'll try to scare up some breakfast.

scare² n. 1 [singular] a sudden feeling of fear: You really gave us a scare. 2 [C] a situation in which a group of people become frightened about something: a bomb scare scare-crow

/ˈskɜːrkrou/ n. [C] an object made to look like a person, that is put in a field to frighten birds away scared /skɜːd/ adj. frightened by something or nervous about something (SYN afraid):

A lot of people are scared of flying. | She was scared (that) she might slip and fall on the ice. | Steve heard some noise, and he was scared stiff/scared to death (=extremely frightened).

THESAURUS frightened, afraid, terrified, petrified, fearful, phobic → FRIGHTENED

scarf¹ /skarf/ n. (plural scarves /skarvz/ or scarfs) [C] a piece of material that you wear around your neck, head, or shoulders to keep you warm or to make you look attractive [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Old North French escarpe, from Old French escherpe “bag hung around the neck”] → see picture at CLOTHES

scarf² v. (slang)

scarf sth ↔ down/up phr. v. to eat something very quickly: I scarfed down a candy bar between classes.

scar-let /ˈskarlɪt/ n. [U] a very bright red color [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French escarlade, from Medieval Latin scarlata, from Persian saqalat, type of cloth] —scarlet adj.

scarves /skarvz/ n. a plural of SCARF¹ scar-y /ˈskəri/ adj. (comparative scarier, superlative scariest) frightening: a scary movie scath-ing /ˈskeɪðɪŋ/ adj. scathing remarks, COMMENTS, etc. criticize someone or something very severely: a scathing attack on the president [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 scathe “to harm” (12–20 centuries), from Old Norse skatha] scat-ter /ˈskætə/ v. 1 [T] to throw or drop a lot of things over a wide area: Scatter the seeds over the soil. 2 [I,T] if people or animals scatter, or if something scatters them, they move quickly in different directions: The sound of gunfire made the crowd scatter.

scat-ter-brained /ˈskætəˌbreɪnd/ adj. (informal) tending to forget or lose things because you do not think in a practical way scat-tered /ˈskætəd/ adj. spread over a wide area or over a long period of time: The weather forecast is for scattered showers (=short periods of rain).

scav-enge /ˈskævɪndʒ/ v. [I,T] to search for food or useful objects among things that have been thrown away [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 scavenger (16–21 centuries), from scavager “tax collector, someone who cleans streets”] —scavenger n. [C]

S

sce-nar-i-o /sɪˈnəri,ou, -ˈnær-/ (Ac) n. (plural scenarios) [C] a situation that could possibly happen but has not happened yet: Even in the worst-case scenario (=if the worst possible thing happens), we'll still get the money back. | A likely scenario is that the college will hire a new head coach by June.

scene /sin/ n.

1 PLAY/MOVIE [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a part of a play or movie during which the action all happens in one place over a short period of time: She comes on in Act 2, Scene 3. | a love scene

2 ACCIDENT/CRIME [singular] the place where an accident or crime happened: Firefighters arrived on/at the scene within minutes. | the scene of the crime

3 VIEW/PICTURE [C] a view or picture of a place: a peaceful country scene ▶ Don't say "There's a nice scene from my window." Say "There's a nice view from my window." ◀

4 the music/fashion/political etc. scene a particular set of activities and the people who are involved in them: a newcomer to the political scene

5 ARGUMENT [C] a loud angry argument, especially in a public place: Sit down and stop making a scene!

6 not sb's scene (informal) not the type of thing someone likes: Loud parties aren't really my scene.

7 behind the scenes secretly, while other things are happening publicly: People are working hard behind the scenes.

8 set the scene a) to provide the conditions in which an event can happen: This agreement sets the scene for democratic elections. b) to describe the situation before you begin to tell a story [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French scène, from Latin scena, scaena "stage, scene"] sce-ner-y /ˈsɪnəri/ n. [U] 1 the natural features of a place, such as mountains, forests, etc.: What beautiful scenery! 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the painted background, furniture, etc. used on a theater stage sce-nic /ˈsɪnɪk/ adj. with beautiful views of nature: Let's take the scenic route home.

scent /sent/ n. [C] 1 a particular smell, especially a pleasant one: the scent of roses

THESAURUS smell, aroma, fragrance, perfume → SMELL²

2 the smell left behind by an animal or person [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French sentir "to feel, smell," from Latin sentire "to feel"] scent-ed /ˈsentɪd/ adj. having a pleasant smell: scented soap

sched-ule¹ /ˈskɛdʒəl, -dʒul/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] a plan of what someone is going to do and when s/he is going to do it: What's your schedule like on Wednesday? | I have a very busy/full/tight schedule this week (=I am very busy). | The project is six months behind schedule (=progressing more slowly than planned). | The building was finished ahead of schedule (=earlier than the planned time). | We are right on schedule (=doing things at the planned times). → PLAN¹ 2 [C] a list showing the times that buses, trains, etc. leave or arrive at a particular place [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French cedule "piece of paper, note," from Late Latin schedula, from Latin scheda "sheet of papyrus"] schedule² (Ac) v. [T] to plan that something will happen at a particular time: The meeting has been scheduled for Friday. | Another new store is scheduled to open in three weeks.

sche-mat-ic¹ /skiˈmætɪk/ adj. showing the main parts of something in a simple way: a schematic drawing of a circuit schematic² n. [C] a simple drawing of a structure, especially of an electrical or MECHANICAL system, that shows its main parts scheme¹ /skim/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a plan, especially to do something bad or illegal: a scheme to avoid paying taxes

THESAURUS plan, plot, conspiracy → PLAN¹

2 a system that you use to organize information, ideas, etc.: a classification scheme that divided the stories by genre 3 color scheme the different colors in which a room or house is painted scheme² v. [I] to secretly make dishonest plans to get or achieve something: politicians scheming to win votes —schemer n. [C] schism /ˈsɪzəm, ˈskɪzəm/ n. [C,U] (formal) the separation of a group of people into two groups as the result of a disagreement schiz-o-phre-ni-a /ˌskɪtsəˈfrɪniə/ n. [U] a serious mental illness in which someone's thoughts and feelings become separated from what is really happening around him/her [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 German schizophrenie, from Greek schizo- "split" + phren "mind"] —schizophrenic /ˌskɪtsəˈfrɛnɪk/ adj., n. [C] schlep /ʃlep/ v. (schlepped, schlepping) [T] (informal) to carry or pull something heavy: I don't want to schlep this bag all the way across town. [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Yiddish shleppen, from Middle High German sleppen]

THESAURUS carry, tote, lug, haul → CARRY

schlock /ʃlɒk/ n. [U] (informal) things that are cheap, bad, or useless schmaltz-y /ˈʃmɒltsi, ˈʃmɒl-/ adj. (informal, disapproving) dealing with strong emotions such as love and sadness in a way that seems silly: a schmaltzy love song [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 schmaltz "schmaltzy quality" (20–21 centuries), from Yiddish shmaltz "melted fat"] —schmaltz n. [U] schmooze /ʃmuz/ v. [I] (informal, disapproving) to talk about unimportant things at a social event in a friendly way that is not always sincere [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Yiddish shmuesn "to talk"] schmuck /ʃmʌk/ n. [C] (informal) a stupid person [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Yiddish shmok “penis, stupid person,” from German schmuck “decoration”] schnapps /ʃnæps/ n. [U] a strong alcoholic drink [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 German schnaps, from Low German snappen “to snap”] schol-ar /ˈskʊlə/ n. [C] someone who studies a subject and knows a lot about it schol-ar-ly /ˈskʊləli/ adj. 1 relating to the serious study of a particular subject: a scholarly journal 2 someone who is scholarly spends a lot of time studying, and knows a lot about a particular subject

schol-ar-ship /ˈskʊləʃɪp/ n. 1 [C] an amount of money that is given to someone by an organization to help pay for his/her education: a football/music/academic, etc. scholarship | Michael got a scholarship to college. 2 [U] the knowledge, work, or methods used in serious studying: Burns’s book is a work of great scholarship.

scho-las-tic /skəˈlæstɪk/ adj. (formal) relating to schools or teaching → ACADEMIC: an excellent scholastic record school¹ /skuːl/ n.

1 BUILDING [C,U] a place where children are taught: Which school did you go to (=attend)? | I can get some work done while the kids are at school (=studying in the school building).

TOPIC

At school, schoolchildren/students have classes with a teacher and study/learn a range of subjects. In class, students do classwork. After school, they do homework. Students take tests/exams. If they pass a test/an exam, they succeed in the test. If they fail a test/an exam, they do not succeed in the test, and may have to retake it.

2 TIME AT SCHOOL [U] a) the time spent at school: What are you doing after school? b) the time during your life when you go to a school: Joanne’s one of my old friends from school.

GRAMMAR

Do not use “the” before school when you are talking about someone studying or teaching there: What time do you leave for school in the morning?

Use “the” before school if someone goes there for some other reason, not to study or teach: We all went to see the play at the school. You must also use “the” if you describe exactly which school you are talking about: the school on Court Street

3 in school attending a school, as opposed to having a job: Are your boys still in school?

4 UNIVERSITY a) [C,U] (informal) a college or university, or the time when you study there: “Where did you go to school?” “UC San Diego.” b) [C] a department that teaches a particular subject at a university: the Harvard School of Law | I worked my way through law/medical/graduate school.

5 FOR ONE SUBJECT [C,U] a place where a particular subject or skill is taught: an art school

6 TEACHERS/STUDENTS [singular,U] the students and teachers at a school: The whole school was sorry when she left.

7 ART/IDEAS [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a number of artists, writers, etc. who are considered as a group because their style of work or their ideas are very similar: the Dutch school of painting

8 school of thought an opinion or way of thinking about something that is shared by a group of people: There are many schools of thought on how yoga should be taught.

9 FISH [C] BIOLOGY a large group of fish or other sea creatures that are swimming together: a school of dolphins [ORIGIN: Old English scol, from Latin schola, from Greek scholē “discussion, school”] school² v. [T] (formal) to train or teach someone: The children are schooled in music and art from a very early age.

school-ing /ˈskuːlɪŋ/ n. [U] education at school schoo-ner /ˈskunə/ n. [C] a fast sailing ship with two sails

S

sci-ence /ˈsaɪəns/ n. 1 [U] knowledge about the physical world that is based on testing and proving facts, or work that results in this knowledge: the teaching of science in schools | developments in science and technology 2 [C,U] the study of a particular type of human behavior: political science [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin scientia “knowledge,” from scire “to know”] science 'fiction n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS books and stories about the future, for example about traveling in time and space → BOOK¹

sci-en-tif-ic /ˌsaɪəntɪfɪk/ adj. 1 relating to science: scientific discoveries | a scientific experiment 2 using an organized system: We do keep records, but we’re not very scientific about it.

scientific 'method n. [U] SCIENCE a thorough method for doing scientific study, in which scientists test their ideas about how things work by doing EXPERIMENTS scientific no'tation n. [U] SCIENCE a way of writing very small and very large numbers. For example, 1×10^9 means one billion or 1,000,000,000; 1×10^{-9} means one billionth or 0.000000001.

sci-en-tist /ˌsaɪəntɪst/ n. [C] someone who works in science sci-fi /ˌsaɪˈfaɪ/ n. [U] (informal) SCIENCE FICTION

scin-til-lat-ing /ˌsɪntɪˈleɪtɪŋ/ adj. (formal) very interesting, exciting, and impressive: a scintillating speech scis-sors /ˈsɪzəz/ n. [plural] a tool for cutting paper, cloth, etc., made of two sharp blades fastened together in the middle, and handles with holes for your finger and thumb: Hand me that pair of scissors, please. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French cisaires, from Late Latin cisorium “cutting tool”] scle-ra /ˈsklɪrə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the white outer layer of your eye scoff /skɒf, skaf/ v. [I] to laugh at a person or idea, or to say something in a way that shows you think he, she, or it is stupid: David scoffed at my fears.

scold /skould/ v. [T] to tell someone in an angry way that s/he has done something wrong: Mom scolded the boys for taking the candy without asking first. —scolding n. [C,U]

THE SAURUS rebuke, admonish, reprimand → CRITICIZE

scoop¹ /sku:p/ n. [C] 1 a deep spoon for serving food, or the amount that a spoon contains: two scoops of ice cream 2 an important or exciting news story that is reported by one newspaper, television station, etc. before any of the others know about it

S scoop² v. [T] to pick something up with a spoon, a spoon, or with your curved hand: Cut the melon and scoop out the seeds.

scoot /skut/ v. [I] (informal) 1 to move to one side, especially to make room for someone or something else: Can you scoot over? 2 to move quickly: Go to bed, Andrew – scoot!

scoot-er /ˈsku:tə/ n. [C] 1 a small two-wheeled vehicle like a bicycle with an engine → see picture at TRANSPORTATION 2 a child's vehicle with two small wheels, an upright handle, and a narrow board that you stand on with one foot, while the other foot pushes the vehicle along the ground scope¹ /sko:p/ [Ac] n. [U] 1 the range of things that a subject, activity, book, etc. deals with: A thorough discussion of this subject is beyond the scope of this paper. 2 the opportunity to do or develop something: I want a job with scope for promotion. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Italian scopo “purpose,” from Greek skopos] scope² v.

scope sb/sth ↔ out phr. v. (informal) to look at someone or something to see what he, she, or it is like: A couple of guys were scoping out the girls.

scorch /skɔ:tʃ/ v. [I,T] if you scorch something, or if it scorches, its surface burns slightly and changes color: Turn down the iron or you'll scorch your shirt. —scorch n. [C] scorch marks from the fire scorch-er /ˈskɔ:tʃə/ n. [C usually singular] (informal) an extremely hot day scorch-ing /ˈskɔ:tʃɪŋ/ adj. (informal) extremely hot: the scorching heat of summer in New Orleans

score¹ /skɔ:r/ n. [C] 1 the number of points that each team or player has won in a game or competition: What's the score? | The final score was 35 to 17. | Who's going to keep score (=keep a record of the points won)? 2 the number of points that a student has earned for correct answers on a test: Average test scores have fallen in recent years. | I got a higher/lower score than Tracy on the geometry test. 3 sb knows the score (informal) if someone knows the score, s/he knows the real facts of a situation, including any unpleasant ones: He knew the score when he decided to get involved. 4 ENG. LANG. ARTS a printed copy of a piece of music, or the music itself: a jazz score 5 on that score (spoken) concerning the subject you have just mentioned: We've got plenty of money, so don't worry on that score. 6 scores of sth a large number of people or things: Scores of reporters gathered outside the courthouse. 7 settle a score to do something to harm someone who has harmed you in the past [ORIGIN: 1000–1100 Old Norse skor “mark cut into a surface, count, twenty”]

score² v. 1 [I,T] to win or earn points in a game, competition, or test: How many goals has he scored this year? | Dallas scored in the final minute of the game. | Anyone who scored under 70% has to take the exam again. 2 [T] to give a particular number of points in a game, competition, or test: The exams will be scored by computer. 3 score points (with sb) (informal) to do or say something to please someone or to make him/her feel respect for you: You'll score points with your girlfriend if you send her flowers. 4 [I,T] (slang) to manage to get something such as sex or illegal drugs score-board /ˈskɔ:bɔ:d/ n. [C] a sign on which the score of a game is shown as it is played score-card /ˈskɔ:kɑ:d/ n. [C] a printed card used for writing the score of a game as it is played scor-er /ˈskɔ:rə/ n. [C] 1 someone who scores a GOAL, point, etc. in a game 2 also scorekeeper someone who records the number of points won in a game or competition as it is played scorn¹ /skɔ:n/ n. [U] strong criticism of someone or something that you think is stupid or not as good as other people or things: He could barely disguise his scorn for her. —scornful adj.

scorn² v. [T] (formal) to show in an unkind way that you think that a person, idea, or suggestion is stupid or not worth considering: Skinner's ideas were scorned by many American psychologists.

Scor-pi-o /ˈskɔ:pi,ou/ n. 1 [U] the eighth sign of the ZODIAC, represented by a scorpion 2 [C] someone born between October 24 and November 21

scor-pi-on /ˈskɔ:piən/ n. [C] a tropical creature like an insect with a curving tail and a poisonous sting

Scotch /skətʃ/ n. [C,U] a type of WHISKEY (=a strong alcoholic drink) made in Scotland, or a glass of this drink

Scotch tape n. [U] (trademark) sticky thin clear plastic in a long narrow band, used for sticking paper and other light things together scot-free /ˌskɑt ˈfri/ adv. get off scot-free (informal) to avoid being punished although you deserve to be [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 scot “tax” (13—19 centuries), from Old Norse skot “shot, payment”]

Scot-tish /ˈskɑtɪʃ/ adj. relating to or coming from Scotland scoun-drel /ˈskaʊndrəl/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a bad or dishonest man scour /skaʊə/ v. [T] 1 to search very carefully and thoroughly through an area or a document: Police have scoured the area for evidence. 2 to clean something very thoroughly by rubbing it with a rough material

THESAURUS clean, do/wash the dishes, scrub, do the housework, dust, polish, sweep (up), mop → CLEAN² scourge /skɔːdʒ/ n. [C] (formal) something that causes a lot of harm or suffering: the scourge of war [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Anglo-French escorge, from Old French escorgier “to whip”] —scourge v. [T] scout¹ /skaʊt/ n. [C] 1 a soldier who is sent to search an area in front of an army and get information 2 someone whose job is to look for good sports players, musicians, etc. in order to employ them: a talent scout 3 a member of the GIRL SCOUTS or BOY SCOUTS [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French escouter “to listen,” from Latin auscultare] scout² v. 1 [I] also scout around to look for something in a particular area: I'll scout around for a place to eat. 2 [T] also scout for to look for good sports players, musicians, etc. in order to employ them scowl /skaʊl/ v. [I] to look at someone in an angry or disapproving way: Tom scowled at me from across the room. —scowl n. [C]

Scrab-ble /ˈskræbəl/ n. [U] (trademark) a game using a special board and small objects with letters on them, in which you try to make words out of the letters scrabble v. [I] to quickly feel around with your fingers in order to find something scrag-gly /ˈskrægli/ adj. growing in a way that looks uneven and messy: a scraggly beard scram /skræm/ v. (scrammed, scramming) [I] (informal) to leave a place very quickly, used especially to tell someone to leave: Get out of here! Scram!

scram-ble¹ /ˈskræmbəl/ v. 1 [I] to climb up or over something quickly and with difficulty, using your hands to help you: The kids were scrambling over the rocks. | They tried to scramble up the cliff. 2 [I] to compete and struggle with other people in order to get or reach something: people scrambling for safety 3 [I] to try to do something difficult very quickly: Builders are scrambling to keep up with demand for their services. 4 [T] to mix electronic signals so that they cannot be understood without a special piece of equipment: All messages are scrambled for security reasons. 5 [T] to mix up the order of letters, words, etc., so that the meaning is not clear scramble² n. [singular] 1 a quick and difficult climb in which you have to use your hands to help you: a rough scramble over loose rocks 2 a situation in which people rush and struggle with each other in order to get or reach something: a scramble for the best seats scrambled 'eggs n. [plural] eggs that have been cooked after mixing the white and yellow parts together scrap¹ /skræp/ n. 1 [C] a small piece of paper, cloth, etc.: He wrote his address on a scrap of paper.

THESAURUS piece, fragment, strip → PIECE¹

2 [C] a small amount of information, truth, etc.: There isn't a scrap of evidence to support her story. 3 [U] materials or objects that are damaged or not used anymore, but can be used again in another way: He collects and sells scrap metal (=metal from old cars, machines, etc. that is melted and used again). 4 scraps [plural] pieces of food that are left after you have finished eating: scraps for the dog 5 [C] (informal) a short fight or argument that is not very serious: Katie got into a little scrap at school.

THESAURUS fight, brawl, scuffle → FIGHT²

scrap² v. (scrapped, scrapping) [T] 1 (informal) to decide not to do or use something because it is not practical: We've decided to scrap the whole idea of renting a car. 2 to get rid of an old machine, vehicle, etc., and use its parts in some other way: equipment to be sold or scrapped scrap-book /ˈskræpbʊk/ n. [C] a book with empty pages in which you can stick pictures, newspaper articles, or other things you want to keep scrape¹ /skreɪp/ v. 1 [T] to remove something from a surface, using the edge of a knife, stick, etc.: Jerry bent to scrape the mud off his boots. 2 [I,T] to rub against a rough surface in a way that causes slight damage or injury, or to make something do this: I scraped my knee on the sidewalk. 3 [I,T] to make an unpleasant noise by rubbing roughly against a surface: She couldn't hear him over the racket of chairs scraping and trays being put away.

scrape by phr. v. to have just enough money to live: They just manage to scrape by on her salary.

scrape sth ↔ together/up phr. v. to get enough money for a particular purpose, when this is difficult: We're trying to scrape together enough money for a vacation.

scrape² n. [C] 1 a mark or slight injury caused by rubbing against a rough surface: Steve only got a few cuts and scrapes.

THESAURUS injury, wound, bruise, contusion, cut, laceration, bump → INJURY

2 (informal) a situation in which you get into trouble or have difficulties: Harper has had previous scrapes with the law. 3 the noise made when one surface rubs roughly against another: the scrape of chalk on the blackboard

'scrap paper n. [U] used paper on which you can write notes, lists, etc.

scrap-py /'skræpi/ adj. (informal, approving) having a determined character and always willing to compete, argue, or fight scratch¹ /skrætʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to rub your skin with your nails → ITCH: Will you scratch my back? | Try not to scratch those mosquito bites. → see picture on page A8

THESAURUS touch, feel, stroke, rub → TOUCH¹

2 [T] to cut someone's skin slightly with your nails or with something sharp: Did the cat scratch you? | The tree's branches had scratched her hands. 3 [T] to damage a surface by pulling something sharp against it: Don't drag the chair – you'll scratch the floor. 4 [I] if an animal scratches, it rubs its foot against something, making a noise: The dog kept scratching at the door to be let in. 5 scratch the surface to deal with only a very small part of a subject: He believes that we've only scratched the surface of what we can do with the internet. 6 [T] (informal) to stop planning to do something because it is no longer possible or practical: I guess we can scratch that idea. 7 [T] to remove a person or thing from a list: Her name had been scratched from/off the list of competitors.

scratch² n. 1 [C] a long thin cut or mark on the surface of something or on someone's skin: Where did this scratch on the car come from? 2 from scratch without using anything that was prepared before: I made the cake from scratch. 3 without a scratch (informal) without being injured at all: Stuart was hurt in the accident, but Max escaped without a scratch.

'scratch paper n. [U] cheap paper, or paper that has already been used on one side, that you can write notes or lists on scratch-y /'skrætʃi/ adj. 1 scratchy clothes or materials have a rough surface and are uncomfortable to wear or touch: a scratchy pair of wool socks 2 a voice that is scratchy sounds deep and rough 3 a scratchy throat is sore scrawl /skrɔːl/ v. [T] to write something in a fast, careless, or messy way: a telephone number scrawled on a piece of paper —scrawl n. [C,U] scrawny /'skrɒni/ adj. thin and weak: a scrawny little kid scream¹ /skrim/ v. 1 [I] to make a loud high noise with your voice because you are hurt, frightened, excited, etc.: There was a loud bang and people started screaming. | She lay there screaming in pain.

THESAURUS shout, shriek, yell, bellow, holler → SHOUT¹

2 [I,T] to shout something in a very loud high voice because you are angry or afraid (SYN) yell: I screamed for help. | The girls were screaming at each other.

scream² n. [C] 1 a loud high noise that you make when you are hurt, frightened, excited, etc.: He let out a scream.

COLLOCATIONS

shrill/piercing – very loud, high, and annoying high-pitched – very high ear-splitting – very loud bloodcurdling – very frightening

2 a very loud high sound: the scream of the jet engines 3 be a scream (informal) to be very funny: "How was the show?" "It was a scream."

screech /skritʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to shout loudly in a high voice, especially because you are upset: "Get out of my way!" she screeched. 2 [I] if a vehicle screeches, its wheels make a loud high noise: The car screeched to a halt. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 scritch "to screech" (13–20 centuries), from the sound] —screech n. [C]

screen¹ /skrin/ n. 1 [C] the flat glass part of a television or a computer, on which you see words, pictures, etc.: a computer with an 18-inch screen | It's easier to correct your work on screen than on paper. → see picture on page A6 2 [I] a large flat white surface that movies are shown on in a movie theater 3 [singular, U] movies in general: his first appearance on screen | Her play was adapted for the big screen. 4 [C] a wire net that covers an open door or window so that air can get inside a house but insects cannot: screens on the windows | a screen door 5 [C] a piece of furniture like a thin wall that can be moved around and is used for dividing one part of a room from another 6 [C] something that hides a place or thing: The house was hidden behind a screen of bushes. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French escren, from Middle Dutch scherm] screen² v. [T] 1 to do medical tests on people in order to discover whether they have a particular illness: Women over the age of 50 are screened for breast cancer. 2 to find out information about people in order to decide whether they can be trusted in a particular job: People wanting to work with children are thoroughly screened. 3 also screen off to hide or protect something by putting something in front of it: The hedge screens the back yard from the street. 4 screen (your) calls to let your telephone calls be answered by an ANSWERING MACHINE, so that you can decide whether or not to talk to the person who calls you 5 to show a movie or television program screen-ing /'skrinɪŋ/ n. 1 [C,U] the showing of a film or television program: a screening of Spielberg's new movie 2 [C,U] medical tests that are done on a lot of people to make sure that they do not have a particular disease: new guidelines on screening for breast cancer | The group received mammograms, then follow-up screenings in succeeding months. 3 [U] tests or checks that are done to make sure that people or things are acceptable or useful for a particular purpose: security screening of airline passengers screen-play /'skrinpleɪ/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a story written for a movie or a television show

'screen_saver n. [C] IT a moving picture that appears on a computer screen while you are not using the computer screen-writ-er /'skrin,raɪtə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who writes screenplays screw¹ /skru/ n. 1 [C] a thin pointed piece of metal that you push and turn in order to fasten pieces of wood or metal together → NAIL, SCREW-DRIVER 2 have a screw loose (informal) to be slightly crazy [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French escroe “inner screw, nut,” from Latin scrofa “female pig”]

screw² v. 1 [T] to fasten one thing to another, using a screw: Screw the shelf to the wall. 2 [T] to fasten or close something by turning it until it cannot be turned any more: Don't forget to screw the top back on.

screw around phr. v. (spoken) to waste time or behave in a silly way: Stop screwing around and get back to work!

screw up phr. v. 1 screw sth ↔ up (informal) to make a bad mistake that ruins what you intended to do: You'd better not screw up again! | He's always screwing everything up. 2 screw sb ↔ up (informal) to make someone feel extremely unhappy, confused, or anxious, especially for a long time: Carole's family really screwed her up.

screw-ball /'skrubəl/ n. 1 [C] (informal) someone who seems very strange, silly, or crazy 2 screwball comedy a film or television program that is funny because silly or crazy things happen screw-driv-er /'skru,draɪvə/ n. [C] a tool that you use to turn screws screwed 'up adj. (informal) 1 very unhappy, confused, or anxious because you have had bad experiences in the past: These poor kids, they're so screwed up from their parents' divorce. 2 not working, or in a bad condition: My left leg got screwed up playing football.

screw-y /'skruɪ/ adj. (informal) slightly strange or crazy: a screwy plan scrib-ble /'skribəl/ v. 1 [T] also scribble down to write something quickly in a messy way: He scribbled down his phone number on a business card. 2 [I] to draw marks that do not mean anything

THESAURUS

draw, sketch, doodle, trace

→ DRAW¹

—scribble n. [C,U]

scribe /skraɪb/ n. [C] someone in past times whose job was to copy or record things by writing them scrimp /skrɪmp/ v. scrimp and save to try to save as much money as you can, even though you have very little script /skript/ n. 1 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the written form of a speech, play, movie, etc. 2 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the set of letters used in writing a language (SYN) alphabet: Arabic script script-ed /'skriptɪd/ adj. a scripted speech or broadcast has been planned and written down so that it can be read scrip-ture /'skriptʃə/ n. 1 [U] also the (Holy) Scripture the Bible 2 [C,U] the holy books of a particular religion —scriptural adj.

script-writ-er /'skript,raɪtə/ n. [C] someone who writes scripts for movies, television programs, etc.

scroll¹ /skroʊl/ n. [C] a document that is rolled up, especially an official document from the past [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 scrow “scroll” (13—17 centuries), from Old French escroue “piece of paper, scroll;” influenced by roll] scroll² v. [I,T] IT to move information up or down a computer screen so that you can read it scrooge /skrudʒ/ n. [C] (informal) someone who hates to spend money [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Ebenezer Scrooge, character in A Christmas Carol (1843) by Charles Dickens]

scro-tum /'skroʊtəm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the bag of flesh on a man or male animal that contains the TESTICLES scrounge /skraʊndʒ/ v. (informal) 1 [T] to get money or something you want by asking other people to give it to you instead of earning it or paying for it yourself: We managed to scrounge up enough money to pay the bills. 2 [I] to search for something such as food or supplies: We saw children scrounging around for food in garbage cans.

scrub¹ /skrʌb/ v. (scrubbed, scrubbing) [I,T] to clean something by rubbing it very hard with a stiff brush or rough cloth: Tom was on his knees, scrubbing the floor.

THESAURUS

clean, do/wash the dishes, scour, do the housework, dust, polish, sweep (up), mop → CLEAN² scrub² n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES low bushes and trees that grow in very dry soil scruff /skrʌf/ n. by the scruff of the neck by the back of a person's or animal's neck: The cat had a kitten by the scruff of its neck.

scruff-y /'skrʌfi/ adj. dirty and messy: a scruffy kid scrump-tious /ˈskrʌmpfəs/ adj. (informal) food that is scrumptious tastes very good scrunch /skrʌntʃ/ v.

scrunch sth ↔ up phr. v. to twist and press a piece of paper into a ball scru-ple /ˈskrʊpəl/ n. [C usually plural] a belief about what is right and wrong that prevents you from doing something bad: He has no scruples about lying.

scru-pu-lous /ˈskrʊpyələs/ adj. 1 taking a lot of care to make sure that every detail is correct: This job requires scrupulous attention to detail.

THESAURUS careful, methodical, thorough, meticulous, systematic, painstaking, conscientious → CAREFUL

2 careful to be honest and fair —scrupulously adv.

scru-ti-nize /ˈskrʊtɪˈnaɪz/ v. [T] to examine someone or something very carefully and completely

THESAURUS examine, inspect, go through/go over → EXAMINE scru-ti-ny /ˈskrʊtɪˈni/ n. [U] the process of examining something carefully and completely: Closer scrutiny shows that the numbers don't add up. | The senator's office later came under scrutiny from the Justice Department.

S

scu-ba div-ing /ˈskubəˌdaɪvɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of swimming under water while breathing from a container of air on your back scuff /skʌf/ v. [T] to make a mark on a smooth surface by rubbing something rough against it: I've already scuffed my new shoes.

scuf-ful /ˈskʌfəl/ n. [C] a short fight: A policeman was injured in a scuffle with demonstrators yesterday. —scuffle v. [I,T]

THESAURUS fight, brawl, scrap → FIGHT²

sculp-tor /ˈskʌlptər/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS an artist who makes sculptures sculp-ture /ˈskʌlptʃər/ n. 1 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a work of art made from stone, wood, clay, etc.: a bronze sculpture by Peter Helzer 2 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the art of making objects out of stone, wood, clay, etc.: a sculpture class [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin sculptura, from sculpere “to carve”] → ART sculp-tured /ˈskʌlptʃəd/ adj. 1 cut or formed from wood, clay, stone, etc., or decorated with sculptures 2 sculptured muscles/features etc. muscles, etc. that have a smooth attractive shape scum /skʌm/ n. [singular, U] the thick dirty substance that forms on the surface of a liquid: a pond covered with green scum scur-ri-lous /ˈskʊələs, ˈskʌr-/ adj. (formal) scurrilous remarks, articles, etc. contain damaging and untrue statements about someone scur-ry /ˈskæi, ˈskʌri/ v. (scurried, scurries) [I] to move very quickly with small steps: workers scurrying around the factory floor

scut-tle /ˈskʌtl/ v. 1 [T] (informal) to ruin someone's plans or chance of being successful: The issue threatens to scuttle the peace talks. 2 [I] to run quickly with small steps, especially because you are afraid: Eddie scuttled down the hall. 3 [T] to sink a ship, especially in order to prevent it from being used by an enemy scythe /saɪð/ n. [C] a farming tool with a long curved blade, used for cutting grain or long grass

SD the written abbreviation of SOUTH DAKOTA

SE the written abbreviation of SOUTHEAST sea /si/ n. 1 [C] EARTH SCIENCES a large area of salty water that is smaller than an ocean, or that is enclosed by land: the Mediterranean Sea | an inland sea (=a sea that is completely surrounded by land) 2 [singular, U] a word meaning the ocean that is used when talking about traveling in a ship or boat: The boat was heading out to sea (=away from land). | four days at sea (=on a boat in the ocean) 3 a sea of sth a large number or amount of something: a sea of people 4 the seas (literary) the ocean [ORIGIN: Old English sæ]

sea-bed /ˈsiːbd/ n. the seabed EARTH SCIENCES the SEA FLOOR sea-board /ˈsiːbɔːd/ n. [C] the east side of the U.S., next to the Atlantic Ocean: the eastern/Atlantic seaboard sea 'floor n. the sea floor EARTH SCIENCES the land at the bottom of the sea sea-food /ˈsiːfud/ n. [U] ocean animals such as fish and SHELLFISH that can be eaten sea-gull /ˈsiːɡʌl/ n. [C] a common gray and white bird that lives near the ocean and has a loud cry sea-horse /ˈsiːhɔːs/ n. [C] a small sea fish that has a head and neck that look like those of a horse seal¹ /sil/ n. [C] 1 a large sea animal that has smooth fur, eats fish, and lives around coasts 2 an official mark that is put on documents, objects, etc. in order to prove that they are legal or real: the seal of the Department of Justice 3 a piece of rubber or plastic used on something such as a pipe, machine, or container in order to prevent something such as water or air from going into or out of it: a leak in the rubber seal 4 a piece of paper, plastic, WAX, etc., that you break in order to open a letter or container: Do not use this product if the seal on the bottle is broken. 5 seal of approval if you give something your seal of approval, you say that you accept or approve of it, especially officially: a diet that has the Medical Association's seal of approval

seal² v. [T] 1 also seal up to close an entrance, container, or hole with something that stops air, water, etc. from coming in or out of it: Many of the tombs have remained sealed since the 16th century. 2 to close an envelope, package, etc. using something sticky, such as TAPE or glue 3 seal a deal/agreement etc. to do something that makes a promise, agreement, etc. seem more definite or official: We shook hands, sealing the bargain.

seal sth ↔ in phr. v. to stop something from going out of the thing it is contained in: Fry the steak quickly to seal in the flavor.

seal sth ↔ off phr. v. to stop people entering a particular area or building, especially because it is dangerous: Police sealed off the street to traffic.

sealed /sild/ adj. something that is sealed is completely closed and cannot be opened unless it is broken, cut, or torn: a sealed envelope

'sea level n. [U] the average level of the sea, used as a standard for measuring the height of an area of land, such as a mountain: Its highest ridge is 6,000 feet above sea level.

'sea lion n. [C] a large type of SEAL that lives on the coasts of the Pacific Ocean seam /sim/ n. [C] 1 the line where two pieces of cloth have been sewn together 2 EARTH SCIENCES a layer of a mineral, such as coal, that is under the ground 3 the line where two pieces of metal, wood, etc. have been joined together sea-man, Seaman /'simən/ n. [C] someone who has the lowest rank in the Navy seam-less /'simlɪs/ adj. done or made so well, that you do not notice where one part ends and another part begins: The show is a seamless blend of song, dance, and storytelling.

seam-stress /'simstrɪs/ n. [C] a woman whose job is to make and sew clothes seam-y /'simi/ adj. involving unpleasant things such as crime, violence, or immoral behavior: the seamy side of politics [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 seamy “having the rough side of the seam showing” (17—19 centuries), from seam]

sé-ance /'serəns/ n. [C] a meeting where people try to talk to the spirits of dead people, or to receive messages from them

'sea plane n. [C] an airplane that can land on water sear /sɪr/ v. 1 [I,T] to burn something with a sudden very strong heat: The firestorm seared the ground. 2 [T] to cook the outside of a piece of meat quickly at a very high temperature 3 [I,T] to have a very strong unpleasant effect on you: The images sear themselves into the viewer's mind.

search¹ /sɜ:tʃ/ n. 1 [C] an attempt to find someone or something that is difficult to find: The company has begun a search for a new president. | The tiger goes in search of food. | Police have called off the search for (=officially stopped looking for) the missing children. 2 [C] IT a series of actions done by a computer to find information: I ran a search for information on diabetes. 3 [singular] an attempt to find the answer to or explanation of a difficult problem: the search for genetic causes of disease [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French cerchier “to go around, examine, search,” from Late Latin circare “to go around”] search² v. 1 [I,T] to try to find someone or something by looking very carefully: Denise searched her purse for a photo of Ben. | Jackie's searching for a job. | I searched through the papers on my desk, looking for the receipt.

THESAURUS look, try to find sb/sth, hunt for sb/sth, go through sth, have a look for sb/sth → LOOK¹

2 [T] if the police or someone in authority searches you or your house, bags, etc., they look for things you might be hiding: Police searched the house for weapons. 3 [T] IT to use a computer to find information, especially on the Internet: Try searching the Web for a cheap flight. 4 [I] to try to find an answer or explanation for a difficult problem: The Center is searching for solutions to campus overcrowding.

'search engine n. [C] IT a computer program that helps you find information on the Internet → INTERNET search-ing /'sɜ:tʃɪŋ/ adj. trying hard to find out details, facts, or someone's feelings and thoughts: searching questions

search-light /'sɜ:tʃlaɪt/ n. [C] a large bright light used for finding people, vehicles, etc. at night

'search party n. [C] a group of people who are organized to look for someone who is lost or missing

'search warrant n. [C] a legal document that officially allows the police to search a building sear-ing /'sɪrɪŋ/ adj. 1 searing pain is very severe 2 extremely hot: the searing heat of the desert sea-shell /'si:ʃəl/ n. [C] an empty shell that once covered some types of ocean animals sea-shore /'si:fɔ:/ n. the seashore the land along the edge of the ocean → BEACH

THESAURUS shore, coast, beach → SHORE¹ sea-sick /'si:sɪk/ adj. feeling sick because of the movement of a boat or ship — seasickness n. [U] sea-side /'sisaɪd/ adj. relating to the land next to a sea or ocean: a seaside restaurant

sea-son¹ /'sizən/ n. 1 [C] one of the four main periods in the year, which are winter, spring, summer, and fall: the change of the seasons 2 [C usually singular] a period of time in a year when something happens most often or when something is usually done: The rainy/wet season usually starts in May. | the first game of the season (=the time when a particular sport is played) | the hunting/football etc. season | the holiday season (=the period from Thanksgiving to New Year) 3 be in season if particular vegetables or fruit are in season, it is the time of year when they are ready to be eaten 4 out of season if someone hunts or catches fish out of season, s/he is doing it when it is not legal [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French saison, from Latin satio “act of planting seeds”] season² v. [T] to add salt, pepper, etc. to food in order to make it taste better sea-son-a-ble /'sizənəbəl/ adj. seasonable weather/temperatures weather that seems typical for a particular season (ANT) unseasonable sea-son-al /'sizənəl/ adj. only happening, available, or needed during a particular season: seasonal farm workers sea-soned /'sizənd/ adj. [only before noun] having a lot of experience of something: a seasoned diplomat sea-son-ing /'sizənɪŋ/ n. [C,U] salt, pepper, SPICES, etc. that you add to food to make it taste better

'season ticket n. [C] a ticket that allows you to go on a trip, go to a theater, watch a sports team, etc. as often as you want during a period of time

S

'sea stack n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a tall thin upright rock structure in the ocean near an island or large area of land, formed by the gradual effect of the wind and waves moving against the land seat¹ /sit/ n. 1 [C] a place where you can sit, especially one in a vehicle, restaurant, theater, etc.:

Lucy sat in the front/back seat. | We had great seats at the Giants game.

COLLOCATIONS

back/rear/front seat – the back or front seat in a car driver's seat – where the driver sits passenger seat – the seat next to the driver's window/aisle seat – a seat next to the window or aisle on an airplane front row seat – a seat in a theater, stadium, etc. that is closest to the stage, field, etc.

good seat – one in a theater, stadium, etc. from which you can see well empty/vacant seat – one that is not being used book/reserve a seat – to arrange to have a seat in a theater, on an airplane, etc. at a particular time in the future

2 take/have a seat to sit down 3 [C] the part of a chair, bicycle, etc. that you sit on: the toilet seat

4 [C] a position as a member of the government or a group that makes official decisions: Republicans hold a majority of the seats in the Senate.

| a seat on the school board 5 [singular] the part of your pants that you sit on

6 baby/child/car/safety seat a special seat that you put in a car for a baby or small child

7 seat of learning/government etc. (formal) a place, usually a city, where a university or government is based [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old Norse sæti] → take a back seat at BACK SEAT

seat² v. [T] 1 seated sitting down: We were seated at the table. | Please be seated. | Remain seated and fasten your seat belts. | The boy seated next to me had red hair.

2 seat yourself to sit down somewhere

3 to make someone sit in a particular place: The hostess will seat you soon.

4 if a room, vehicle, theater, etc. seats a number of people, it has enough seats for that number: The new Olympic stadium seats over 70,000.

'seat belt n. [C] a strong belt attached to the seat of a car or airplane, that you fasten around yourself for protection in an accident: Please fasten your seat belts.

seat-ing /'si:ɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 all the seats in a theater, restaurant, etc. 2 the places where people will sit, according to an arrangement: a seating plan for the reception

'sea urchin n. [C] a small round sea animal that is covered with sharp points sea-weed /'si:wi:d/ n. [U] a common plant that grows in the ocean se-ba-ceous /sɪ'beɪʃəs/ adj. BIOLOGY related to a part of the body that produces special oils se-bum /'sɪbəm/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a special oil that is produced by the skin sec /sek/ n. [C] (spoken) a short form of “second”: Wait a sec, will you?

se-cede /sɪ'si:d/ v. [I] (formal) to formally stop being part of a country, especially because of a disagreement: The southern states wanted to secede from the U.S. in the 1850s. —secession /sɪ'seɪʃən/ n. [singular, U] se-ces-sion-ist /sɪ'seɪʃənɪst/ n. [C] HISTORY someone who wants an area to formally stop being part of a country, especially someone who wanted the South to stop being part of the U.S. around the time of the CIVIL WAR se-clud-ed /sɪ'kludɪd/ adj. very private and quiet: a secluded beach

se-clu-sion /sɪ'kluzən/ n. [U] the state of being private and away from other people: The family lives in seclusion.

sec-ond¹ /'sekənd/ number, pron. 1 2nd; someone or something that is after the first one: September 2nd | Jane's second husband | She came in second in the women's marathon. 2 another example of the same thing, or another in addition to the one you have: A second woman came into the room. 3 have second thoughts to start having doubts about a decision you have made: I had second thoughts about going to graduate school. 4 a second chance an opportunity to try to do something again, after you failed the first time 5 be second to none to be better than anyone or anything else: His generosity is second to none.

second² n. 1 [C] a unit for measuring time. There are 60 seconds in a minute: Players have five seconds to take a shot. 2 [C usually singular] (spoken) a very short period of time: For a second, I thought he was joking. | I'll be off the phone in a second! | Just a second, I'm almost ready. 3 seconds [plural] a) another serving of the same food, after you have eaten your first serving b) goods sold cheaply because they are not perfect: factory seconds [ORIGIN: (1) 1300—1400 Medieval Latin secunda, from secunda pars minuta “second small part, one sixtieth of a minute,” from Latin secundus] sec-ond-ar-y /'sekən,dəri/ adj. 1 not as important or valuable as something else: Some of the students behave as though studying is secondary to their social life. 2 developing from something of the same type, or coming from it: a secondary infection 3 relating to secondary schools: secondary education secondary 'growth n. [U] BIOLOGY an additional increase in the width of the roots and stems of large plants or trees which supports the growing plant and helps it develop → PRIMARY GROWTH

'secondary school n. [C] a school that children go to after ELEMENTARY SCHOOL and before college → HIGH SCHOOL secondary 'source n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS a book, article, etc. that deals with a piece of literature or a historical event and that can be used to support your ideas in an ESSAY 2 HISTORY a description of an event by someone who was not there when it happened → PRIMARY SOURCE secondary 'stress n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the second strongest STRESS that you give to part of a word or sentence when you speak it, for example the “dar” in “secondary.” It is shown in this dictionary by the mark (/, /). → PRIMARY STRESS second 'base n. [U] in a game of baseball, the second of the four places that a player must touch before gaining a point second 'class n. [U] a way of traveling, especially on trains, that is cheaper but not as comfortable as FIRST CLASS second-'class adj. 1 considered to be less important than other people or things: They treated us like second-class citizens (=people who are not as important as other people in society). 2 relating to cheaper and less comfortable seats on a train, bus, etc.: second-class tickets second-'guess v. [T] 1 to criticize something after it has already happened, by saying what should have been done: A lot of people have been second-guessing the police investigation. 2 to try to say what will happen or what someone will do before s/he does it sec-ond-hand /'sekənd'hænd/ adj. 1 secondhand clothes, furniture, books, etc. have already been owned or used by someone else: a cheap secondhand car 2 a secondhand report, secondhand information, etc. is told to you by someone who is not the person who originally said it —secondhand adv.

sec-ond-ly /'sekəndli/ adv. used in order to give a second fact, reason, etc.: Firstly, I need the extra money, and secondly, I like working in a bar.

second 'nature n. [U] something you have done so often that you now do it without thinking a lot about it: After you get used to driving a car, it becomes second nature.

second 'person n. the second person ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a form of a verb or PRONOUN that you use to show the person you are speaking to. “You” is a second person pronoun, “you are” is the second person singular of the verb “to be.” → FIRST PERSON, THIRD PERSON second-'rate adj. not very good: second-rate artists second wind /'sekənd 'wɪnd/ n. [singular] a new feeling of energy after you have been working or exercising very hard, and had thought you were too tired to continue se-cre-cy /'sɪkrəsi/ n. [U] the act of keeping something such as information secret, or the state of being secret: She swore him to secrecy (=made him promise to keep a secret). | talks conducted in secrecy

se-cret¹ /'sɪkrɪt/ adj. known about by only a few people: The deal was kept secret until the contracts were signed. | He kept his marriage secret from his parents (=he did not tell his parents about it). | secret government files [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old

French, Latin secretus, past participle of secer-nere “to separate”] —secretly adv.: I secretly recorded our conversation.

THESAURUS

Confidential information is secret and not intended to be shown or told to other people: confidential FBI files

Classified information, documents, etc. are kept secret by the government or an organization: a spy who passed classified documents to the enemy

Sensitive information is kept secret because there would be problems if the wrong people knew it: The report contained sensitive information on the situation in Iraq.

Covert activities are done secretly, especially by a government or official organization: covert operations run by the CIA

Undercover work is done secretly by the police in order to catch criminals or find out information: The police mounted an undercover operation to break the drug-smuggling ring.

Clandestine meetings, arrangements, actions, etc. are organized and carried out in secret: a clandestine nuclear weapons program → PRIVATE¹

S secret² n. [C] 1 something that is kept hidden or that is known about by only a few people: Can you keep a secret (=not tell a secret)? 2 in secret in a private way or place that other people do not know about: The meetings took place in secret. 3 a particular way of achieving a good result: The secret to good French bread is steam in the oven.

secret 'agent n. [C] someone who secretly collects information or watches people for a government sec-re-tary /'sekɹə,təri/ n. (plural secretaries) [C] 1 someone whose job is to TYPE letters, keep records, arrange meetings, answer telephones, etc. in an office 2 an official who is in charge of a large government department in the U.S.: the Secretary of Defense 3 an official in an organization whose job is to write down notes from meetings, write letters, etc.: the secretary of the PTA —secretarial /,sekɹə'tɛriəl/ adj.

se-crete /sɪ'kɹɪt/ v. [T] 1 BIOLOGY if part of a plant or animal secretes a substance, it produces that substance: The male secretes a scent to mark out its territory. 2 (formal) to hide something

THESAURUS

hide, conceal → HIDE¹

—secretion /sɪ'kɹɪʃən/ n. [C,U] se-cre-tive /'sɪkɹə'tɪv/ adj. behaving in a way that shows you do not want to tell people your thoughts, plans, etc.

secret 'service n. the Secret Service a U.S. government department whose main purpose is to protect the President sect /sekt/ n. [C] a group of people who have their own set of beliefs or religious habits, especially a group that has separated from a larger group [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French secte “group, sect,” from Latin secta “way of life, type of people”]

THESAURUS

church, denomination, cult →

CHURCH

sec-tar-i-an /sek'tɛrɪən/ adj. supporting a particular religious group and its beliefs, or relating to the differences between religious groups (ANT) non-sectarian: sectarian violence

sec-tion¹ /'sekʃən/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 one of the parts that an object, group, place, etc. is divided into: the eastern section of the city | the reference section of the library | The rocket is built in sections (=in parts that are then fitted together). | the brass section of the orchestra | the poor section of society → PART¹ 2 one of the parts of a book or newspaper: the sports/travel/business etc. section | the topic discussed in section 3 [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin sectio, from secare “to cut”] —sectional adj.

section² v. [T] to separate something into parts section sth ↔ off phr. v. to divide an area into parts: The old part of the graveyard had been sectioned off by trees.

sec-tion-al-ism /'sekʃənəlɪzəm/ n. [U] POLITICS when someone, especially a politician, shows that he or she is concerned only with what is best for one part of a country, not what is best for the whole country sec-tor /'sektə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a part of an area of activity, especially of business, industry, or trade: jobs in the public/private sector (=the part controlled by the government or by private companies) 2 one of the parts that an area is divided into for military purposes: the former eastern sector of Berlin sec-u-lar /'sekyələ/ adj. not religious or not controlled by a religious authority: a secular government

sec-u-lar-ize /'sekyələraɪz/ v. [T] SOCIAL SCIENCE to remove the control or influence of religious groups from a society or an institution —secularization /,sekyələ'reɪzən/ n. [U] se-cure¹ /sɪ'kyʊə/ (Ac) adj. 1 not likely to change or be at risk: a secure job 2 safe and protected from danger: The bank's deposits remain secure. 3 fastened, locked, or guarded: Keep your passport in a secure place. 4 confident about yourself and your abilities (ANT) insecure: children who feel secure in their parents' love 5 feeling certain about a situation and not worried that it might change: He was successful and financially secure (=did not need to worry about having enough money). [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin securus, from se “without” + cura “care”] —securely adv.: The door was securely locked.

secure² v. [T] 1 to get or achieve something important, especially after a lot of effort: a treaty designed to secure peace 2 to make something safe from being attacked or harmed: Troops secured the border. 3 to fasten or tie something tightly in a particular position: Her ponytail was secured with an elastic band.

THESAURUS fasten, attach, join, glue, tape, staple, clip, tie, button (up), zip (up) → FASTEN se-cu-ri-ty /sɪ'kyʊrəti/ [Ac] n. [U] 1 the state of being safe, or the things you do to keep someone or something safe: national security | airport security checks | security cameras | tight security at the conference | the security of Internet purchases 2 protection from change, risks, or bad situations: employees with job security | Rules and order can give a child a sense of security. 3 the guards who protect a business's buildings, equipment, and workers: The receptionist called security.

se-dan /sɪ'dæn/ n. [C] a large car that has seats for at least four people and has a TRUNK se-date /sɪ'deɪt/ adj. slow, formal, or not very exciting: a sedate private club se-dat-ed /sɪ'deɪtɪd/ adj. made sleepy or calm by being given a sedative sed-a-tive /'sedətɪv/ n. [C] a drug used in order to make someone sleepy or calm sed-en-tar-y /'sedn,teri/ adj. a sedentary job involves sitting down or not moving very much [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French sédentaire, from Latin sedentarius, from sedere “to sit”] sed-i-ment /'sedəmənt/ n. [singular, U] EARTH SCIENCES the solid material, such as dirt, that settles at the bottom of a liquid sed-i-ment-a-ry /,sedə'mentri, -'mentəri/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES made of the sediment at the bottom of lakes, oceans, etc.: sedimentary rock se-di-tion /sɪ'dɪʃən/ n. [U] LAW speech, writing, or actions that try to encourage people to disobey a government —sedition adj.

se-duce /sɪ'dus/ v. [T] 1 to persuade someone to do something, especially to have sex, by making it seem extremely attractive: Are you trying to seduce me? 2 to make someone want to do something by making it seem very attractive or interesting: young people who are seduced by Hollywood [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin seducere “to lead away,” from ducere “to lead”] —seduction /sɪ'dʌkʃən/ n. [C,U] se-duc-tive /sɪ'dʌktɪv/ adj. 1 sexually attractive: a seductive look 2 very attractive to you: a seductive job offer

see /si/ v. (past tense saw /sɔ/, past participle seen /sin/)

1 NOTICE [T] to notice someone or something, using your eyes: He saw her go into the house. | Can I see your ticket, please? | Did you see where the car went off the road?

USAGE

You look at a picture, person, thing, etc. because you want to: Hey, look at these jeans.

You see something without planning to: Two people saw him take the bag.

You watch TV, a movie, or something that happens for a period of time: Did you watch the football game last night? | The kids are watching TV.

You can also say that you saw a movie, a program, etc., but you cannot say “see television”: I saw a great movie on TV last night.

THESAURUS

notice – to see something interesting or unusual: I noticed a police car outside their house.

spot – to notice or recognize someone or something that is difficult to see: Nick spotted the advertisement in the paper.

glimpse/catch a glimpse of sth/sb – to see something or someone, but only for a short time: I caught a glimpse of his face as he ran past the window.

make sth out – to see something, but only with difficulty: Ahead, I could just make out the figure of a woman.

catch sight of sb/sth – to suddenly see someone or something: She caught sight of Alec, waiting in a doorway.

witness – to see something bad happen, especially an accident or a crime: Several people witnessed the attack.

behold (literary) – to see something: The northern lights are an awesome sight to behold.

observe (formal) – to see or notice something in particular: He observed that the fuel gauge was not working. → HEAR

2 UNDERSTAND [I,T] to understand or realize something: Do you see how it works? | I could see (that) something was terribly wrong. | (You) see, you have to put in this part first (=used when you are explaining something). | “It goes in the red box.” “Oh, I see (=I understand).” | At 14, he couldn't see the point of (=understand the reason for) staying in school. | It's all coming apart here, see what I mean/see what I'm saying? (=used to check that someone understands)

3 ABILITY TO SEE [I,T] to be able to use your eyes to look at things and know what they are: I can't see a thing without my glasses.

4 VISIT/MEET [T] to visit, meet, or have a meeting with someone: I'm seeing Margo and Rod on Saturday. | You ought to see a doctor.

5 FIND OUT [T] to find out information or a fact: Plug it in and see if it's working. | Marion looked out to see what was happening. | We could see that it was dangerous.

6 WATCH [T] to watch a television program, play, movie, etc.: Karl's seen “Star Wars” about eight times.

7 CONSIDER [T] to consider someone or something in a particular way: I thought I'd done the right thing, but Bill saw it differently. | Fights on TV can make children see violence as normal. | Well, the way I see it, that school is no worse than any other.

8 EXPERIENCE [T] to have experience of something: The attorney said he had never seen a case like this before.

9 HAPPEN [T] to be the time when something happens, or the place where something happens: This year has seen a 5% increase in burglaries.

10 FUTURE [I,T] to find out something about the future, or to imagine what might happen in the future: Just wait and see if anything improves. | Call them and see if we can schedule a meeting. | I don't know – I'll see how it goes/things go. | I can't see her as a teacher.

11 MAKE SURE [T] to make sure or check that something is done correctly: Their duty is to see that the rules are kept.

12 be seeing sb to be having a romantic relationship with someone

13 see eye to eye to agree with someone: My mother and I have never really seen eye to eye.

14 see fit to do sth (formal) to decide that it is right to do something, even though many people disagree: The government has seen fit to start testing more nuclear weapons.

SPOKEN PHRASES

15 see you used in order to say goodbye to someone you will meet again: Okay, I'll see you later. | See you, Ben.

16 let's see/let me see said when you are trying to remember something or think about something: Let me see, that's two per person, so 24.

17 I don't see why not said when you mean yes: "Would that be possible?" "I don't see why not."

18 I'll/we'll see said when you do not want to make a decision immediately, especially when you are talking to a child: "Can Denise come too?" "We'll see."

19 you should have seen sb/sth said when you think someone or something you have seen was very funny, surprising, etc.: You should've seen the look on her face!

20 we'll see about that said when you intend to stop someone doing something: "She says she's leaving early today." "Really? We'll see about that."

[ORIGIN: Old English seon]

see about sth phr. v.

to make arrangements for someone to do something: I made some phone calls to see about getting him a job.

see sb ↔ off phr. v.

to go to an airport, station, etc. to say goodbye to someone who is leaving: My friends came to see me off at the airport.

see sb ↔ out phr. v.

to go with someone to the door when s/he leaves: No, that's okay, I'll see myself out (=leave without anyone coming with me).

see through phr. v.

1 see through sb/sth to be able to recognize the truth when someone is trying to deceive you: I can't lie to her; she sees right through me.

2 see sb/sth through (sth) to continue doing something difficult until it is finished, or to give help and support to someone during a difficult time: I managed to earn enough to see me through the rest of the year. | He'd promised to stay long enough to see it through.

3 see sth through sb's eyes to see something or think about it in the way that someone else does see to sth phr. v.

to deal with something or make sure that it happens: Klein saw to it that she got free tickets.

seed¹ /sid/ n. 1 a [C] a small hard object produced by plants, from which a new plant will grow: an apple seed → see picture at PLANT¹ b [U] a quantity of seeds: grass seed 2 (the) seeds of sth the beginning of something that will grow and develop: The World War I peace agreement sowed the seeds of World War II. [ORIGIN: Old English sæd]

seed² v. [T] to plant seeds in the ground

'seed coat n. [C] BIOLOGY a protective cover surrounding the seeds of a plant, that prevents it from becoming too dry

'seed cone n. [C] BIOLOGY in a tree that produces both male and female cells, a container for holding the female cells during the time when male cells are developing seed-ling /'sidlɪŋ/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a young plant grown from seed → see picture at PLANT¹ seed-y /'sɪdi/ adj. (informal) looking dirty or poor, and often being related to illegal or immoral activity: a seedy bar

see-ing /'siɪŋ/ conjunction because a particular fact or situation is true: You can stay out later tonight, seeing that/as it's Friday.

'Seeing 'Eye ,dog n.

[C] (trademark) a dog that is trained to guide blind people seek /sɪk/ (Ac) v. (past tense and past participle sought /sɒt/) [T] 1 to try to find or get something: graduates seeking employment | Ted sought advice/approval/help from his parents. | Refugees sought refuge from the civil war.

THESAURUS look, search, try to find sb/sth, hunt for sb/sth, have a look for sb/sth → LOOK¹

2 (formal) to try to achieve or do something: The governor will seek re-election. | Schools are seeking to improve test scores. [ORIGIN: Old English secan]

seem /sim/ v. [linking verb] 1 to appear to exist or be true, or to have a particular quality or feeling: It seemed very strange. | The nausea seems to be a side effect from the medication. | It seems to me you don't have much choice. | He seems to like his job. | The town seemed like a nice place. | It just didn't seem right to me.

THESAURUS

appear (formal) – to seem to have particular qualities: Light colors make a room appear bigger than it is.

look – to seem to be something, especially by having a particular appearance: William looked very tired.

sound – to seem to have a particular quality when you hear or read about someone or something: It sounds like a wonderful trip.

come across as sth – to seem to have certain qualities: She comes across as a really happy person.

2 can't/couldn't seem to do sth used to say that you have tried to do something but cannot do it: I can't seem to relax. 3 used to make what you are saying less strong or certain, and more polite: We seem to have turned onto the wrong road. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old Norse sæma “to be appropriate to,” from sæmr “appropriate”] seem-ing /ˈsiːmɪŋ/ adj. (formal) appearing to be true even though it may not be: Your seeming lack of concern worries me.

seem-ing-ly /ˈsiːmɪŋli/ adv. in a way that appears to be true but may not be (SYN) apparently: a seemingly endless road | a seemingly simple task seen /sin/ v. the past participle of SEE seep /sɪp/ v. [I] to flow slowly through small holes or cracks: Blood seeped through/into the bandages. —seepage n. [singular, U] see-saw¹ /ˈsiːsɔ/ n. [C] a long board on which children play, that is balanced in the middle so that when one end goes up the other end goes down seesaw² v. [I] to move suddenly up and down or from one condition to another and back again: Stock prices seesawed throughout the morning.

seethe /sið/ v. [I] to be so angry that you are almost shaking: Holly was seething with rage. —seething adj.

seg-ment /ˈseɡmənt/ n. [C] 1 a part of something that is different from or divided from the whole: a segment of the entertainment market | an orange segment → PART¹ 2 MATH the part of a line between two points 3 MATH a part of a circle that is separated from the rest of the circle by a straight line across it [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin segmentum, from secare “to cut”] —segmentation /ˌseɡməntəˈteɪʃən/ n. [U] —segmented /ˈseɡmentɪd/ adj.

seg-re-gate /ˈseɡrəˌgeɪt/ v. [T] to separate one group of people from others, usually because they are a different race, sex, religion, etc. (ANT) integrate: The classes are segregated by ability. | Not long ago, schools in the South were racially segregated. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of segregare, from se- “apart” + grex “herd”]

THESAURUS separate, divide, split, partition → SEPARATE²

seg-re-gat-ed /ˈseɡrəˌgeɪtɪd/ adj. segregated buildings or areas can only be used by members of a particular race, sex, religion, etc.: racially segregated schools

seg-re-ga-tion /ˈseɡrəˌgeɪʃən/ n. [U] the practice of keeping people of different races or religions apart and making them live, work, or study separately (ANT) integration: racial segregation

seis-mic /ˈsaɪzmɪk/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES relating to or caused by EARTHQUAKES: a period of seismic activity | seismic waves [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Greek seismos “shock, earthquake,” from seiein “to shake”]

seis-mo-graph /ˈsaɪzməˌɡræf/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES an instrument that measures and records the movement of the Earth during an EARTHQUAKE —seismographic /ˌsaɪzməˌɡræfɪk/ adj.

seis-mol-o-gy /saɪzˈmɒlədʒi/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the scientific study of EARTHQUAKES —seismologist n. [C] seize /siz/ v. [T] 1 to take hold of something quickly and in a forceful way (SYN) grab: Thomas seized her hand. 2 to take control of a place suddenly, using military force: Rebels seized control of the embassy. 3 to take away something such as illegal guns, drugs, etc.: Police seized 10 kilos of cocaine. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French saisir “to take possession of,” from Medieval Latin sacire] sei-zure /ˈsiːʒə/ n. 1 [U] the act of taking control or possession of something suddenly: the seizure of illegal firearms 2 [C] a short time when someone is unconscious and cannot control the movements of his/her body: an epileptic seizure seld-dom /ˈsɛldəm/ adv. very rarely: Glenn seldom eats breakfast. [ORIGIN: Old English seldan]

THESAURUS rarely, not very often, hardly ever, infrequently → RARELY

se-lect¹ /sɪˈlekt/ (Ac) v. [T] to choose something or someone (SYN) pick: The entertainers were selected to appeal to both adults and children. | the five students selected for the program | The university selected Garrett as athletics director. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin, past participle of selegere “to select,” from legere “to gather, choose”]

THESAURUS choose, pick, opt for sth, decide on sth → CHOOSE

select² adj. (formal) consisting of or used by a small group of specially chosen people: a select club se,lect com'mittee n. [C] POLITICS a small group of politicians and advisers from various parties, chosen to examine a particular subject se-lec-tion /sɪˈlektʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] the act of choosing something or someone, or the thing or person that is chosen (SYN) choice: his selection as the Democratic candidate | the selection of a new leader | Make a selection from the list. 2 [C] a collection of things of one type, especially things for sale: a wide selection of jewelry 3 [C usually singular] a number of things that have been chosen from among a group of things of the same type: a selection of Simon and Garfunkel songs

se-lec-tive /sɪˈlektɪv/ (AC) adj. careful about what you choose to do, buy, etc.: a highly selective university se-lective 'breeding n. [U] BIOLOGY the deliberate mating (MATE) of two animals in order to produce better animals than existing ones self /self/ n. (plural selves /selvz/) 1 [C usually singular] the type of person you are, including your character, abilities, etc.: He's starting to feel like his old/usual self again (=feel normal again, after feeling bad or sick). 2 [U] your feeling of being a separate person, different from other people: the need for a child to develop a sense of self self-ab'sorbed adj. interested only in yourself and the things that affect you self-ap'pointed adj. (disapproving) giving yourself a duty or job without the agreement of other people: a self-appointed guardian of morality self-as'sured adj. confident about what you are doing —self-assurance n. [U]

THESAURUS confident, self-confident, assertive → CONFIDENT self-'centered adj. interested only in yourself and never thinking about other people (SYN) selfish: a vain, self-centered man self-'confident adj. sure that you can do things well, that people like you, etc. (SYN) confident —self-confidence n. [U]

THESAURUS confident, self-assured, assertive → CONFIDENT self-'conscious adj. worried and embarrassed about what you look like or what other people think of you: "Hi," I said, suddenly self-conscious about my accent.

THESAURUS shy, timid, bashful → SHY¹ self-con'tained adj. complete in itself and not needing other things to make it work: a self-contained army base self-con'trol n. [U] the ability to control your feelings and behavior even when you are angry, excited, or upset: children learning to exercise self-control self-de'feating adj. making a situation have a bad result for you: the self-defeating attempt to stay young self-de'fense n. [U] the use of force to protect yourself from attack: She shot him in self-defense.

self-de'nial n. [U] the practice of not having or doing the things that you enjoy, either because you cannot afford them or for moral or religious reasons self-de'structive adj. self-destructive actions are likely to harm or kill the person who is doing them self-'discipline n. [U] the ability to make yourself do the things that you ought to do, without someone else making you do them: Working at home takes self-discipline. —self-disciplined adj.

self-ef'facing adj. (formal) not wanting to attract attention to yourself or your achievements (SYN) modest self-em'ployed adj. working for yourself rather than for a company self-es'teem n. [U] the feeling of being satisfied with your own abilities, and that you deserve to be liked or respected: Lack of success at school often leads to low/poor self-esteem.

self-'evident adj. clearly true and needing no proof (SYN) obvious self-ex'planatory adj. clear and easy to understand, with no need for explanation: The controls are pretty self-explanatory.

self-ful'filling 'prophecy n. [C] a statement about what will happen in the future, that becomes true because you changed your behavior to make it happen self-'government n. [U] POLITICS the government of a country or part of a country by its own citizens, rather than by another country or group self-'help n. [U] the use of your own efforts to deal with your problems instead of depending on other people: self-help books self-'image n. [C] the idea that you have of your own abilities, appearance, and character: a poor/good/positive self-image self-im'portant adj. (disapproving) thinking you are more important than other people self-im'provement n. [U] the activity of trying to learn more skills or deal with your problems better self-in'dulgent adj. (disapproving) allowing yourself to have or enjoy something that you do not need: He's irresponsible and self-indulgent. —self-indulgence n. [singular, U] self-in'flicted adj. a self-inflicted injury, problem, etc. is one that you have caused yourself: a self-inflicted gunshot wound self-'interest n. [U] the state of caring most about what is best for you, and less about what is best for other people: an action that is in the national self-interest self-ish /ˈselfɪʃ/ adj. (disapproving) caring only about yourself and not about other people (ANT) unselfish: Don't be selfish. —selfishness n. [U] —selfishly adv.

self-less /ˈselflɪs/ adj. caring about other people more than about yourself self-made adj. successful and rich because of your own efforts: a self-made millionaire self-pity n. [U] the feeling of being too sorry for yourself self-portrait n. [C] a picture that you make of yourself self-pos'sessed adj. calm and confident because you are in control of your feelings self-pres'er'vation n. [U] keeping yourself from being harmed or killed: the instinct for self-preservation self-re'liance n. [U] the ability to act and make decisions by yourself without depending on other people —self-re'liant adj.

self-re'spect n. [U] a feeling of confidence and happiness about your abilities, ideas, and character: She needs to regain her confidence and self-respect. —self-respecting adj.

self-re'straint n. [U] the ability to control what you do or say in situations that upset you self-righteous adj. (disapproving) very proud and sure that your beliefs, attitudes, etc. are right, in a way that annoys other people self-sacrifice n. [U] (approving) the act of giving up what you need or want in order to help someone else —self-sacrificing adj.

self-satisfied adj. SMUG self-service also self 'serve adj. relating to stores, restaurants, etc. where you get things for yourself, rather than being served: a self-service gas station self-serving adj. (disapproving) showing that you will only do something if it gains you an advantage: self-serving politicians

'self-styled adj. (disapproving) having given yourself a title, position, etc. without having a right to it: a self-styled expert

self-sufficient adj. able to provide all the things you need without help from other people: a country that is self-sufficient in food production —self-sufficiency n. [U] self-sup'porting adj. able to earn enough money to support yourself: a self-supporting museum

sell /sel/ v. (past tense and past participle sold /soʊld/) 1 [I,T] to give something to someone in exchange for money (ANT buy): I sold him my baseball card collection. | We sold the car for $5,000. | It is illegal to sell alcohol to minors. 2 [I,T] to offer something for people to buy: a store selling hand-crafted jewelry | Avocados sell for only a few cents each in Mexico. 3 [I,T] to make someone want to buy something: Advertisers know that sex sells. 4 [T] to be bought by people: Her novels have sold millions of copies. | Lower-priced homes continue to sell well/badly. 5 [I,T] to try to make someone accept a new plan, idea, etc., or to become accepted: the candidate's attempts to sell his policies to the voters [ORIGIN: Old English sellan] sell sth ↔ off phr. v. to sell something, especially cheaply, because you need the money or want to get rid of it: The company is selling off everything but its core business.

sell out phr. v. 1 to sell all of something, so that there is none left: The concert is almost sold out. 2 (informal) to do something that is against your beliefs or principles, in order to get power or money: a politician who has sold out to the gun lobby sell-er /ˈselə/ n. [C] 1 a person or company that sells something (ANT buyer) 2 good/best/biggest etc. seller a product that a company sells a lot of → BEST-SELLER

'selling point n. [C] a special feature of a product that will make people want to buy it sell-out /ˈseləʊt/ n. [singular] 1 a performance, sports event, etc. for which all the tickets have been sold: a sellout crowd 2 (informal) a situation in which someone does not do something s/he promised, or in which s/he does something that is against his/her beliefs or principles: Environmental groups labeled the deal a sellout.

selves /selvz/ n. the plural of SELF se-man-tics /səˈmæntɪks/ n. [U] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS the meaning of a word or phrase 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the study of the meanings of words and phrases —semantic adj.

sem-a-phrase /ˈseməˌfɔːr/ n. [U] a system of sending messages using two flags, that you hold in different positions to represent letters and numbers sem-blance /ˈseɪbləns/ n. a/some sem-blance of sth a condition or quality that is similar to another one: Life was returning to some semblance of normality.

se-men /ˈsɪmən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the liquid that is produced by the male sex organs and contains SPERM se-mes-ter /səˈmestə/ n. [C] one of two periods into which a year at school or college is divided → QUARTER: the spring/fall semester → UNIVERSITY [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 German, Latin semestris “half-yearly,” from sex “six” + mensis “month”] sem-i /ˈsemi/ n. [C] (informal) 1 a very large heavy truck consisting of two connected parts 2 a SEMIFINAL sem-i-cir-cle /ˈsemiˌsəˌkəl/ n. [C] 1 MATH half a circle → see picture at CIRCLE¹

THESAURUS shape, square, circle, triangle, rectangle, oval → SHAPE¹

2 a group arranged in a curved line: chairs arranged in a semicircle —semicircular /ˌsemiˈsəˌkyulə/ adj.

semi,circular ca'nal n. [C] BIOLOGY one of three tubes inside your INNER EAR that gives your brain information about your body's position and direction and helps to keep you balanced sem-i-co-lon /'semi,koulən/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the mark (;) used in writing to separate independent parts of a sentence or list sem-i-con-duct-or /'semikən,dəktə/ n. [C] PHYSICS a substance such as SILICON that is used in electronic equipment to allow electricity to pass through it sem-i-fi-nal /'semi,fainl, 'semaɪ-, 'semi'fainl/ n. [C] one of two sports games whose winners then compete against each other to decide who wins the whole competition → QUARTERFINAL sem-i-lu-nar valve /,semilunə 'vælv, ,semai-/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of two small parts in your heart that open and close to prevent blood flowing back into the left and right VENTRICLES → see picture at HEART

sem-i-nal /'semənəl/ adj. new and important, and influencing the way something develops in the future: Darwin's seminal work on evolution sem-i-nar /'semə,nar/ n. [C] a short course or a special meeting that people attend in order to study a particular subject: a seminar on effective management

THESAURUS lesson, course, period, lecture → CLASS¹

sem-i-nary /'semə,nəri/ n. (plural seminaries) [C] a college at which people study religion and can train to be priests or ministers se-mi-ot-ics /,semi'atiks/ also sem-i-ol-o-gy /,semi'ələdʒi/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the way in which people communicate through signs and images, or the study of this —semiotic /,semi'atɪk/ adj.

Se-mit-ic /sə'mɪtɪk/ adj. relating to the race of people that includes Jews, Arabs, and, in ancient times, Babylonians and Assyrians → ANTI-SEMITIC

Sen-ate /'senɪt/ n. the Senate POLITICS the smaller of the two groups of people who make the laws in countries such as the U.S. and Australia → HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French senat, from Latin senatus, from senex “old man”] sen-a-tor, Senator /'senətə/ n. [C] a member of the Senate: Senator Feinstein —senatorial /,senə'tɔəriəl/ adj.

THESAURUS politician, congressman/congresswoman, governor, mayor → POLITICIAN

send /send/ v. (past tense and past participle sent /sent/) [T] 1 to arrange for something to go or be taken to another place, especially by mail: Taryn sent some pictures of the baby. | I sent you an e-mail yesterday. | Do you want me to send a copy to you? | a letter sent by fax 2 to ask or tell someone to go somewhere: The UN is sending troops to the region. | The refugees were sent back to Sudan. | Frank came, but I sent him away. 3 to arrange for someone to go somewhere and stay there: Morrison was sent to jail for five years. 4 send your love/best wishes etc. to ask someone to give your greetings, good wishes, etc. to someone else: Mark sends his love. 5 to make someone or something do something: The blast sent people running for safety. | The film sent me to sleep. [ORIGIN: Old English sendan]

send away for sth phr. v. to order something through the mail send sth ↔ down phr. v. to make something lose value: The news sent shares down.

send for sb/sth phr. v. to ask or order someone to come to you, or that something be brought or mailed to you: An ambulance was sent for. | Send now for your free catalog.

send sb/sth ↔ in phr. v. 1 to send something, usually by mail, to a place where it can be dealt with: Did you send in your application? 2 to send soldiers, police, etc. somewhere to deal with a dangerous situation: The FBI sent in agents to investigate.

send sb/sth ↔ off phr. v. 1 to mail something somewhere: She sent off the completed book to her publisher. 2 to make someone go somewhere: We got sent off to camp every summer.

send sb/sth ↔ out phr. v. to make something or someone go from one place to various other places: The wedding invitations were sent out weeks ago.

'send-off n. [C] (informal) an occasion when people gather together to say goodbye to someone who is leaving: We wanted to give you a big send-off.

se-nile /'sɪnaɪl/ adj. mentally confused or behaving strangely, because of old age —senility /sɪ'nɪləti/ n. [U]

Se-nior /'sɪniə/ (written abbreviation Sr.) adj. used after the name of a man who has the same name as his son → JUNIOR: Robert Burrelli, Sr.

senior¹ n. [C] 1 a student in the last year of HIGH SCHOOL or college → STUDENT 2 be two/five/ten etc. years sb's senior to be two, five, ten, etc. years older than someone [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin “older,” from senex “old”] senior² adj. older, or of higher rank (ANT) junior: a senior officer

THESAURUS chief, high-ranking, top → POSITION¹

senior 'citizen n. [C] an old person, especially someone over the age of 65

senior 'high school n. [C] a HIGH SCHOOL

se-nior-i-ty /,sɪn'iərəti, -'jər-/ n. [U] 1 if you have seniority in a company or organization, you have worked there a long time and have some official advantages: a worker with ten years' seniority at the plant 2 the state of being older or higher in rank than someone else: a position of seniority

sen-sa-tion /sen'seɪʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] the ability to feel, or a feeling that you get from one of your five senses: Matt had a burning sensation in his arm. | Jerry realized that he had no sensation in his legs. 2 [C] a feeling that is difficult to describe, caused by a particular event, experience, or memory: I had the strangest sensation that I was being watched. 3 [C usually singular] extreme excitement or interest, or someone or something that causes this: The band's first album caused a sensation among rap fans.

sen-sa-tion-al /sen'seɪʃənəl/ adj. 1 very interesting or exciting: a sensational finish to the race 2 (disapproving) intended to excite or shock people: sensational news stories 3 (informal) very good: She looked sensational.

sen-sa-tion-al-ism /sen'seɪʃənəlɪzəm/ n. [U] (disapproving) a way of reporting events or stories that is intended to excite or shock people sense¹ /sens/ n.

1 JUDGMENT [U] good understanding and judgment, especially about practical things, that allows you to make sensible decisions → COMMON SENSE: Earl had the sense not to move the injured man much. | There's no sense in waiting any longer (=it is not sensible to continue waiting).

2 FEELING [singular] a feeling about something: She felt a strong sense of accomplishment. | A sense of panic has spread over the country.

3 make sense a) to have a clear meaning and be easy to understand: Do these instructions make any sense to you? | I can't make sense of (=understand) the report. b) if something makes sense, there seems to be a good reason for it: Why would she wander off alone? It doesn't make sense. c) to be a sensible thing to do: It makes sense to take care of your health while you're young.

4 SIGHT/SMELL ETC. [C] BIOLOGY one of the five natural powers of sight, hearing, touch, taste, and smell: Dogs have a keen sense of smell.

5 sense of humor the ability to understand and enjoy things that are funny, or to make people laugh: Larry has a great sense of humor.

6 in a sense/in one sense/in some senses used to say that something is true or correct in a particular way but there may be other ways in which it is not true or correct: We're all competitors in a sense but we also want each other to succeed.

7 sb's senses someone's ability to know and do what is sensible in a situation: I'm glad that Lisa finally came to her senses (=realized what was sensible) and sold that car. | Have you lost your senses (=are you crazy)? | It's too bad it took a lawsuit to bring them to their senses (=make them think clearly and behave sensibly).

8 ABILITY [singular] a natural ability to judge something: When we were in the woods, I lost all sense of direction (=ability to know where I was).

9 in the sense that used in order to say that something you have just said is true in a particular way: The experiment was a success in the sense that we got the results we were looking for.

10 MEANING [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the meaning of a word, phrase, sentence, etc.: The word "record" has many senses. | In what sense is the term used? [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French sens, from Latin sensus, from sentire "to feel"]

sense² v. [T] to feel that something exists or is true without being told or having proof: I could sense something was wrong. | Sonya sensed that David wanted to be alone. | I could sense how disappointed she was.

sense-less /'senslɪs/ adj. 1 happening or done for no good reason or with no purpose: the senseless killing of innocent people

THESAURUS pointless, futile, useless →
POINTLESS

2 (informal) if someone is knocked, beaten, etc. senseless, s/he is hit until s/he is unconscious sen-si-bil-i-ty /sensə'bɪlətɪ/ n. (plural sensibilities) [C,U] the way that someone reacts to particular subjects or types of behavior: We apologize if we have offended the sensibilities of our viewers. | our moral sensibility

sen-si-ble /'sensəbəl/ adj. 1 showing good judgment: Come on, be sensible. | a sensible approach to the problem

USAGE

Use sensible in order to talk about someone who makes good reasonable decisions and who does not behave in a stupid or dangerous way: She's sensible enough not to drive when she's had a drink.

Use sensitive in order to talk about someone who is easily upset or offended: He's a little sensitive about his height.

2 suitable for a particular purpose, and practical rather than fashionable: Wear sensible shoes. —sensibly adv.

sen-si-tive /'sensətɪv/ adj. 1 a sensitive person is able to understand the feelings, problems, etc. of other people (ANT) insensitive: a husband who is sensitive to his wife's needs 2 easily offended or hurt by the things that other people do or say: a very sensitive child | Chrissy is very sensitive about her weight. | Alan is very sensitive to criticism. → see USAGE box at SENSIBLE 3 easily affected, hurt, or damaged by a substance or temperature: My teeth are really sensitive to cold. | sensitive skin 4 a sensitive situation or subject needs to be dealt with very carefully because it is secret or because it may offend people: a sensitive issue/subject/topic | highly sensitive information

THESAURUS secret, confidential →
SECRET¹

5 reacting to very small changes in light, temperature, sound, etc.: a highly sensitive listening device —sensitively adv. —sensitivity /sensə'tɪvətɪ/ n. [U] sens-or /'sensə-, -sɔːr/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that is used to find light, heat, movement, etc., even in very small amounts sen-so-ry /ˈsɛnsəri/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to your SENSE of sight, hearing, smell, taste, or touch: a baby's sensory perception

sen-su-al /ˈsɛnfʊəl/ adj. relating to or enjoying physical pleasure, especially sexual pleasure: a sensual massage | She believes that food can be a sensual pleasure. —sensuality /ˌsɛnfʊˈæləti/ n. [U] sen-su-ous /ˈsɛnfʊəs/ adj. 1 pleasing to your SENSE of sight, hearing, smell, taste, or touch: the sensuous feel of silk 2 attractive in a sexual way: her sensuous curves sent /sɛnt/ v. the past tense and past participle of SEND sen-tence¹ /ˈsɛntəns, -təns/ n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS a group of written or spoken words that has a subject and a verb, and expresses a complete thought or asks a question. Sentences written in English begin with a capital letter and end with a PERIOD, a QUESTION MARK, or an EXCLAMATION POINT. 2 a punishment that a judge gives to someone who is guilty of a crime: a 10-year prison sentence | Harris is serving a 28-year sentence (=serving 28 years in prison). | He has just begun a life sentence for murder. | The defendant faces a possible death sentence (=punishment by death). [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin sententia “feeling, opinion, sentence,” from sentire “to feel”] sentence² v. [T] if a judge sentences someone who is guilty of a crime, s/he gives him/her a punishment: He was sentenced to life in prison for the murder.

THESAURUS punishment, penalty, fine → PUNISHMENT

sen-ti-ment /ˈsɛntəmənt/ n. 1 [C,U] (formal) an opinion or feeling that you have about something: Public/Popular sentiment (=what many people believe) against the war was growing. | “Anderson ought to be fired.” “My sentiments exactly (=I completely agree).”

THESAURUS opinion, view, position, attitude → OPINION

2 [U] feelings such as pity, love, or sadness that are considered to be too strong or not appropriate for a particular situation: There's no room for sentiment in business!

sen-ti-men-tal /ˌsɛntəˈmentl/ adj. 1 showing emotions such as love, pity, and sadness too strongly: a sentimental movie | Laurie still gets sentimental about our old house.

THESAURUS emotional, moving, touching, schmaltzy → EMOTIONAL

2 based on or relating to feelings rather than being practical: a sentimental view of the past | The watch wasn't worth much, but it had great sentimental value. —sentimentality /ˌsɛntəməntˈæləti/ n. [U] sen-try /ˈsɛntri/ n. (plural sentries) [C] (old-fashioned) a soldier standing outside a building as a guard se-pal /ˈsɪpəl, ˈsɛ-/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the small leaves that contains a young flower before the flower opens, and which stays directly under the flower → see picture at FLOWER¹

sep-a-ra-ble /ˈsɛpərəbəl/ adj. able to be separated from something else (ANT) inseparable

sep-a-rate¹ /ˈsɛprɪt/ adj. 1 not related to or not affected by something else: He keeps his professional life separate from his private life. | It's a completely separate issue. 2 different: a word with four separate meanings | My wife and I have separate bank accounts. 3 not joined to each other or touching something else: There is a small smoking area separate from the main dining room. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin, past participle of separare, from se- “apart” + parare “to prepare, get”] —separately adv.

sep-a-rate² /ˈsɛpəˌreɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to divide or split something into two or more parts, or to make something do this: Ms. Barker separated the class into four groups. | At this point the satellite separates from the rocket.

THESAURUS

divide – to separate something into a number of smaller parts: The teacher divided the class into groups.

split – to separate something into two or more groups, parts, etc.: We split the money between us.

break up – to separate something into smaller parts: The phone company was broken up to encourage competition.

segregate – to separate one group of people from others because of race, sex, religion, etc.: Schools were racially segregated.

partition (formal) – to divide a country, room, or building into two or more parts: After World War II, Germany was partitioned into East and West Germany.

apportion (formal) – to decide how something should be divided between various people: The funds are apportioned to each of the schools in the district.

2 [T] to be between two things so that they cannot touch each other or connect to each other: A curtain separated one patient's area from another. 3 [I] to start to live apart from your husband, wife, or sexual partner: When did Lyle and Jan separate?

THESAURUS divorce, split up/break up, leave sb → DIVORCE²

4 [I,T] to move apart, or to make people do this: Police moved in to separate the crowd. | In the fog, they got separated from the rest of their group.

sep-a-rat-ed /ˈsɛpəˌreɪtɪd/ adj. no longer living with your husband, wife, or sexual partner: Her parents are separated.

sep-a-ra-tion /ˌsepəˈreɪʃən/ n. 1 [U] (formal) the act of separating or the state of being separate: the separation of powers between Congress and the President 2 [C,U] a period of time when two or more people live apart from each other: Separation from the family is hard on children. 3 [C] a situation in which a husband and wife agree to live apart even though they are still married sepa-ration of powers n. [singular, U] POLITICS the situation that exists when each of the three parts of government, the EXECUTIVE, LEGISLATIVE, and JUDICIAL branches, are independent of each other and do different things

Sept-em-ber /sepˈtɛmbə/ (written abbreviation Sept.) n. [C,U] the ninth month of the year, between August and October: School starts in September. | We have to turn in the papers on September 2nd. | Laura moved here last September. | They're getting married next September. [ORIGIN: 1000–1100 Old French Septembre, from Latin September, from septem “seven;” because it was the seventh month of the ancient Roman year]

se-quel /ˈsɪkwəl/ n. [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS a movie, book, etc. that continues the story of an earlier one: They've made several sequels to “Batman”. 2 an event that is related to an earlier event se-quence /ˈsɪkwəns/ (Ac) n. [C,U] 1 the order in which things happen, or are supposed to happen: Two of the pages were out of sequence (=not in the correct order). | Try to place the following pictures in sequence (=in the correct order). 2 a series of related events, actions, etc. that happen in a particular order: the sequence of events that led to World War I [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Late Latin sequētia, from Latin sequi “to follow”] se-quen-tial /sɪˈkwɛnʃəl/ (Ac) adj. (formal) relating to or happening in a sequence —sequentially adv.

se-quin /ˈsɪkwɪn/ n. [C] a small shiny flat round piece of metal that is sewn on clothes for decoration se-quoi-a /sɪˈkwɔɪə/ n. [C] a REDWOOD → see picture on page A10

ser-e-nade /ˌsɛrəˈneɪd/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a love song —serenade v. [T] ser-en-dip-i-ty /ˌsɛrənˈdɪpəti/ n. [U] (literary) the process of accidentally discovering something that is interesting or valuable: Many scientific discoveries are pure serendipity.

se-re-ne /səˈrɪn/ adj. very calm or peaceful [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin serenus “clear, calm”] —serenity /sɪˈrɛnəti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS calm, relaxed, laid-back, easygoing, mellow → CALM² serf /sɜːf/ n. [C] HISTORY someone who lived and worked on land that s/he did not own and who had to obey the owner of this land, during the Middle Ages in Europe ser-geant /ˈsɜːdʒənt/ n. [C] a low rank in the Army, Air Force, police, etc., or an officer who has this rank se-ri-al¹ /ˈsɪriəl/ adj. 1 arranged or happening one after the other in the correct order: serial processing on a computer 2 serial killer/rapist etc. someone who commits the same crime several times serial² n. [C] a story that is broadcast or printed in several separate parts on television, in a newspaper, etc.

'serial number n. [C] a number put on things that are produced in large quantities, so that each one has its own different number se-ries /ˈsɪriz/ (Ac) n. (plural series) [C] 1 a group of events, actions, or things of the same kind that happen one after the other: There has been a series of accidents along this road. | the first novel in a series 2 a set of television or radio programs with the same characters or on the same subject: a new comedy series 3 a set of sports games played between the same two teams: the World Series (=in baseball) [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin serere “to join”]

'series circuit n. [C] PHYSICS an electrical CIRCUIT (=complete circle that an electric current travels in) in which electricity travels through all the lights or SWITCHES one after the other → PARALLEL CIRCUIT

se-ri-ous /ˈsɪriəs/ adj. 1 a serious problem, situation, etc. is extremely bad or dangerous: Luckily, the damage was not serious. | Drugs are a serious problem in many communities. | Her mother's been in a serious accident. 2 be serious to say what you really mean, and not joke or pretend: John is serious about finding a new career. | You can't be serious (=I do not believe you)! 3 important and deserving a lot of attention: Raising children is a serious business. 4 a serious romantic relationship is intended to continue for a long time [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 French sérieux, from Late Latin seriosus, from Latin serius] —seriousness n. [U] se-ri-ous-ly /ˈsɪriəsli/ adv. 1 in a way that is bad or dangerous: Two of the victims were seriously injured. | Something was seriously wrong. 2 in a way that shows that you think something is important: He's thinking seriously about running for governor. | Don't take everything he says so seriously (=think that it is important). 3 [sentence adverb] (spoken) used to show that what you say next is not a joke: Seriously, I really need you to be there on time.

ser-mon /ˈsɜːmən/ n. [C] 1 a talk about a religious subject, usually given at a church and based on the Bible 2 (informal, disapproving) a long talk in which someone tries to give you unwanted moral advice: I don't need another sermon on the virtues of hard work! → PREACH ser·pent /'səpənt/ n. [C] (literary) a snake [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French, Latin, present participle of serpere “to creep”] ser·rat·ed /sə'reɪtɪd, 'se, reɪtɪd/ adj. having a sharp edge made of a row of connected V-shaped points: a serrated knife se·rum /'sɪrəm/ n. [C,U] BIOLOGY a liquid containing substances that fight infection or poison, that is put into a sick person's blood serv·ant /'səvənt/ n. [C] someone who is paid to clean someone's house, cook food for him/her, etc.

serve¹ /səv/ v.

1 FOOD/DRINKS [I,T] to give someone food or drinks as part of a meal: Dinner will be served at 8:00. | The crab was served with melted butter and a slice of lemon. | Why aren't you out there serving the guests?

2 BE USED [I,T] to be appropriate for a particular purpose: The couch can also serve as a bed. | Critics claim that the weapon serves no useful military purpose.

3 DO A JOB [I,T] to spend time doing a particular job, especially one that is helpful: Kelly served a three-year term in the Army. | In 1993, Campbell became the first woman to serve as Canada's prime minister.

4 PROVIDE STH [T] to provide an area or a group of people with something that they need or use: Its Southwestern Bell subsidiary serves customers in Texas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas.

5 IN PRISON [T] to spend time in prison: Baxter served a five-year sentence for theft.

6 LEGALLY [T] to officially give or send someone a legal document to appear in court: Jones was served a summons to appear in court.

7 SPORTS [I,T] to start playing a game such as tennis by throwing the ball into the air and hitting it to your opponent

8 it serves sb right (spoken) used in order to say that someone deserves something bad, because s/he has done something stupid or unkind: “I failed my test.” “Serves you right for not studying.”

serve² n. [C] the action in a game such as tennis in which you throw the ball into the air and hit it to your opponent serv·er /'səvə/ n. [C] 1 IT the main computer on a network that controls all the others 2 someone who brings you food in a restaurant serv·ice¹ /'səvɪs/ n.

1 IN A STORE ETC. [U] the help that people who work in a restaurant, hotel, store, etc. give you: The food is terrific but the service is lousy. | the customer service department

2 WORK DONE [C,U] the work that you do for someone or an organization: He retired after 20 years of service. | You may need the services of a lawyer. | She was given an award in honor of her years of service to the Democratic Party.

3 BUSINESS [C] a business that provides help or does jobs for people rather than producing things: a cleaning service

4 public services things such as hospitals, schools, etc. that are provided by the government for the public to use

5 CEREMONY [C] a formal religious ceremony, especially in a church: The funeral service will be held on Friday.

6 HELP [singular, U] (formal) help that you give to someone: “Thank you so much.” “I’m glad to be of service (=to help).” | We’re at your service (=available to help), Ma’am.

7 the service a country's military forces, especially considered as a job

8 GOVERNMENT [C] an organization that works for the government: the foreign service

9 SPORTS [C] an act of hitting the ball to your opponent to start a game such as tennis

10 CAR/MACHINE [C] a regular examination of a car or machine to make sure that it works correctly

11 in service/out of service to be available or not available for people to use: Two of the Fire Department's trucks were out of service for much needed repairs.

service² v. [T] 1 to examine a machine or vehicle and fix it if necessary: When's the last time you had the car serviced?

THESAURUS repair, fix → REPAIR²

2 to provide people with something that they need: buses that service the local community

serv·ice·a·ble /'səvɪsəbəl/ adj. ready or able to be used

'service charge n. [C] an amount of money that is added to the price of something in order to pay for extra services that you use when buying it: For phone orders, there's a $1 service charge.

'service e,conomy n. [C] ECONOMICS a country or an economic system in which most people work for businesses that provide services, rather than businesses involved in MANUFACTURING (=producing goods)

serv·ice·man /'səvɪs,mæn, -mən/ n. (plural servicemen /-,mən, -mən/) [C] a man who is a member of the military 'service station n. [C] a GAS STATION

serv·ice·wom·an /'səvɪs,wʊmən/ n. (plural servicewomen /-,wɪmɪn/) [C] a woman who is a member of the military ser·vile /'səvəl, -vaɪl/ adj. (disapproving) very eager to obey and please someone serv·ing /'səvɪŋ/ n. [C] an amount of food that is enough for one person ser·vi·tude /'səvə,tud/ n. [U] the condition of being a SLAVE or being forced to obey someone ses·sion /'seʃən/ n. [C] 1 a period of time used for a particular purpose, especially by a group of people: a question-and-answer session | teacher-training sessions 2 a formal meeting or group of meetings, especially of a court of law or government organization: The State Court is now in session. 3 a part of the year when classes are given at a university [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin sessio “act of sitting, session,” from sed-ere “to sit”]

set¹ /set/ v. (past tense and past participle set, present participle setting)

1 PUT STH SOMEWHERE [T] to carefully put something down somewhere: Just set that bag down on the floor. | He took off his watch and set it on the dresser.

2 STANDARD [T] to decide something that other things are compared to or measured against: The agency has set standards for water cleanliness. | Parents should set an example for their children (=behave in the way they want their children to behave).

3 PRICE/TIME ETC. [T] to decide that something will happen at a particular time, cost a particular amount, etc.: The judge plans to set a date for the trial. | Officials have not yet set a price on how much the study will cost.

4 CLOCK/MACHINE [T] to move part of a clock or a piece of equipment so that it will do what you want it to do: I set my alarm for 6:30. | Do you know how to set the VCR?

5 START STH HAPPENING [I,T] to make something start happening or to make someone start doing something: Angry mobs set the building on fire. | Careless campers set fire to the dry brush. | A study by military experts was immediately set in motion. | Volunteers set to work clearing trash from the field.

6 MOVIE/STORY ETC. [T] ENG. LANG. ARTS if a play, movie, story, etc. is set in a place or at a particular time, the action takes place there or then: Clavell's epic novel is set in 17th-century Japan.

7 set a record to run faster, jump higher, etc. than anyone else: He set a new world record in the 100 meters at the games.

8 set the table to put knives, forks, etc. on a table so that you can eat a meal

9 set sb/sth straight to correct something or someone: The company wants to set the record straight (=explain the true situation) about its safety procedures.

10 set the stage/scene to make it possible for something to happen: Recent pay cuts set the stage for a strike.

11 SUN/MOON [I] when the Sun or Moon sets, it moves lower in the sky and disappears (ANT) rise

12 set your mind/sights/heart on (doing) sth to be determined to achieve something or decide that you definitely want to have it: Heath had set her sights on the U.S. Senate seat for Colorado.

13 set foot in/on sth to go into or onto a place: The event is attracting people who have never before set foot in a museum.

14 set sb/sth free/loose to allow a person or animal to be free: All the other hostages were finally set free.

15 set sail to start sailing somewhere

16 BECOME SOLID [I] if a substance sets, it becomes hard: The concrete will set within two hours.

17 set sth to music a) ENG. LANG. ARTS to write music for a story or poem: poems set to music by Lloyd Webber b) to arrange something so that it can be done while music plays: exercise routines set to music 18 set a trap a) to make a trap ready to catch an animal b) to invent a plan that will catch someone doing something wrong: Police set a trap for the thieves.

19 BONE a) [T] to move the ends of a broken bone into position so that they are in the right place to grow together again b) [I] if a broken bone sets, it joins together again

20 HAIR [T] to arrange someone's hair while it is wet, so that it will have a particular style when it is dry set about sth phr. v.

set about (doing) sth to begin doing something: Johnny set about improving his Spanish before his trip.

set sb against sb phr. v.

to make someone start to argue or fight with someone else: The civil war set brother against brother.

set sb/sth apart phr. v.

to make someone or something different from or better than other similar people or things: The movie's realistic characters set it apart from other gangster pictures.

set sth ↔ aside phr. v.

1 to save something for a special purpose: Hotels must set aside 50% of their rooms for non-smokers.

2 to decide not to be affected by a particular belief, idea, etc. because something else is more important: They should set politics aside and do what is best for the country.

set back phr. v.

1 set sb/sth ↔ back to delay the progress or development of someone or something: Officials fear that the incident will set back race relations.

2 set sb back (informal) to cost someone a lot of money: My new stereo set me back $2,000.

set sth ↔ down phr. v.

to write about something so that you have a record of it, such as a set of rules: The rules of the game were clearly set down.

set in phr. v.

if something unpleasant sets in, it begins and is likely to continue: Winter seems to be setting in early this year.

set off phr. v.

1 to start to go somewhere: Thousands of people set off for the West during the 1800s.

2 set sth ↔ off to make something start happening: The attack set off another round of fighting. | The rains set off a mudslide that killed 15 people.

3 set sth ↔ off to make something explode: The bomb was set off by a remote control device.

4 set sth ↔ off to make an ALARM start working: A fire in the kitchen set off the smoke alarms.

set forth phr. v.

1 set sth ↔ forth (formal) to write or talk about an idea, rule, etc. in a clear and organized way, especially in an official document or speech (SYN) set out: the principles set forth in the treaty

2 (literary) to start a trip (SYN) set out set out phr. v.

1 to start a trip, especially a long trip: The couple set out for Fresno at 9:30.

2 set out to do sth to deliberately start doing something in order to achieve a particular result: He set out to make a movie about his experiences in Vietnam.

3 set out sth to write or talk about ideas, rules, etc. in a clear and organized way: He is the first candidate to set out his foreign policy proposals.

set up phr. v.

1 set sth ↔ up to start a company, organization, business, etc.: The county has set up a special education program for teenage mothers.

2 set sth ↔ up to prepare equipment so that it is ready for an event, activity, or situation: Chris, could you help me set up the computer?

3 set sth ↔ up to arrange for something to happen: Call the doctor's office and set up an appointment.

4 set sth ↔ up to build or place something somewhere: The police have set up a roadblock.

5 set sb ↔ up to deliberately make people think that someone has done something wrong: Hudson accused his partners of setting him up.

6 set up shop to start a business: They set up shop in 1993 in Mason's basement.

S

set² n. [C] 1 a group of things that belong together or are related in some way: a set of dishes | a set of rules | a chess set → see picture at COLLECTION 2 a television: a TV set 3 a) a place where a movie or television program is filmed: OK, everybody, quiet on the set! b) the SCENERY, furniture, etc. used in a play, movie, or television show 4 one part of a game such as tennis or VOLLEYBALL: Hewitt leads two sets to one. 5 a performance by a band, singer, or DJ: They played a 90-minute set.

set³ adj. 1 [only before noun] a set time, amount, price, etc. is fixed and is never changed: We meet at a set time each week. | I invest a set amount of money each month. 2 [not before noun] (informal) ready to do something: If everyone is all set, we'll start the meeting. | I was just set to leave when the phone rang. 3 be set on/upon/against (doing) sth (informal) to be very determined about something: Jerry's dead set against paying the extra money for the trip. 4 in a particular place or position: a castle set on a hill

set-back ¹/ˈsetˈbæk/ n. [C] something that delays your progress or makes things worse than they were: Losing their drummer is a major setback for the band. | The peace talks suffered a setback when fighting resumed this week.

THESAURUS problem, difficulty, snag, hitch → PROBLEM set-ting ¹/ˈsetɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 the place where something is or where something happens, and all the things that surround it: a cabin in a mountain setting | the perfect setting for a wedding 2 the position in which you put the controls on a machine or instrument: Turn the microwave to its highest setting. 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS the place or time in which the events in a book, movie, etc. happen: London is the setting for his most recent novel.

set-tle ¹/ˈsetl/ v.

1 END ARGUMENT [I,T] to end an argument or solve a disagreement: an attempt to settle the case/claim/lawsuit | The union finally settled with management after a two-day strike. | They might be willing to settle out of court (=come to an agreement without going to a court of law). | They met recently to try and settle their differences (=agree to stop arguing).

2 COMFORTABLE POSITION [I,T] to move into a comfortable position: Dave settled back and turned on the TV. | Roger settled himself on a park bench for a photograph.

3 DECIDE STH [T] to decide on something, or organize the details of something that will happen in the future: So it's settled — I'll meet you in front of the theater at 7:00.

4 IN A NEW PLACE a) [I,T] to go to a place where no people have lived permanently before and start to live there: the men and women who settled Alaska b) [I] to begin to live in a place where you intend to live for a long time: My family moved around a lot before settling in Los Angeles.

5 SNOW/DUST [I] if snow, dust, etc. settles, it falls to the ground and stays there

6 BILL/DEBT [T] if you settle a bill, account, debt, etc., you pay all the money that you owe

7 settle a score to do something bad to someone because s/he has done something bad to you

8 STOMACH [I,T] if your stomach settles, or if something settles it, it stops feeling uncomfortable or making you sick settle down phr. v.

9 settle your nerves to do something to make yourself stop being nervous or upset: He took a deep breath to settle his nerves.

1 settle (sb) down to become quiet and calm, or to make someone quiet and calm: Kids, settle down and eat your dinner. | Sometimes we take the baby for a ride in the car to settle him down.

2 to start living a quiet and calm life in one place, especially when you get married: My parents want me to marry Jim and settle down.

3 to begin to do something and to give it all your attention: When he finally settled down to work, it was 10:30.

settle for sth phr. v.

to accept something that is less than what you wanted: We looked at some nice apartments, but we had to settle for the cheapest one.

settle in also settle into sth phr. v.

to become happier and more comfortable in a new situation or place: Adam seems to have settled in at his new school.

settle on/upon sth phr. v.

to decide or agree on something: They haven't settled on a name for the baby yet.

settle up phr. v. (informal) to pay money that you owe for something: I'll settle up with the bartender, then let's go.

set-tled /ˈsetld/ adj. 1 feel/be settled to feel comfortable about living or working in a particular place: We don't feel settled in our new house yet. 2 unlikely to change: the settled life of a farmer set-tle-ment /ˈsetlmənt/ n. 1 [C,U] an official agreement or decision that ends an argument: The two sides have reached a settlement (=made an agreement) in the land dispute. 2 [C,U] ECONOMICS a payment of money that you owe someone or that someone owes to you: He accepted a financial settlement of $500. 3 [U] the movement of a large number of people into a new place in order to live there: the settlement of the Oklahoma territory 4 [C] a group of houses and buildings where people live, in a place where no group lived before: a Stone Age settlement set-tler /ˈsetlə, ˈsetl-ə/ n. [C] someone who goes to live in a new place, usually where there were few people before: early settlers of the American West set-up /ˈsetʌp/ n. [C usually singular] 1 a way of organizing or arranging something: Do you like the new setup at work? 2 (informal) a dishonest plan that is intended to trick someone: I knew immediately that the whole thing was a setup.

sev-en /ˈsevn/ number 1 7 2 seven o'clock: The movie starts at seven. 3 seven years old: Patry was seven on her last birthday. [ORIGIN: Old English seofon]

sev-en-teen /ˌsevnˈtiːn/ number 17 —seventeenth number sev-enth /ˈsevnəθ/ number 1 7th 2 1/7 3 be in seventh heaven (informal) to be extremely happy sev-en-ty /ˈsevn̩ti/ number 1 70 2 the seventies a) the years between 1970 and 1979 b) the numbers between 70 and 79, especially when used for measuring temperature 3 be in your seventies to be aged between 70 and 79: She's in her early/mid/late seventies. —seventieth /ˈsevn̩tiθ/ number: her seventieth birthday

sev-er /ˈsevr/ v. [T] (formal) 1 to cut through something completely: His finger was severed in the accident. 2 to end a relationship or agreement with someone: The deal severs all ties between the two organizations. —severance n. [U]

sev-eral /ˈsevrəl/ quantifier a number of people or things that is more than a few, but not a lot → FEW: I called her several times on the phone. | I've talked to several of my students about this.

sev-erance pay /ˈsevrəns ˌpeɪ/ n. [U] money you get from a company that you worked for when they no longer have a job for you

se-vere /səˈvɪr/ adj. 1 very bad or serious: severe head injuries | severe problems 2 very strict or extreme: severe criticism | The president's plan calls for severe penalties for underage criminals. 3 not kind or friendly: a severe look on her face [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French sévère, from

Latin severus] —severity /sɪˈvɛrəti/ n. [C,U] se-vere-ly /səˈvɪrli/ adv. very badly or to a great degree: The building was severely damaged in the fire. | She was punished severely for her actions.

sew /soʊ/ v. (past tense sewed, past participle sewn /soon/ or sewed) [I,T] to use a needle and thread to make or repair clothes, or to attach something such as a button to them: My mother taught me to sew. | Can you sew a button on this shirt for me? [ORIGIN: Old English siwian] —sewing n. [U] → see picture at KNIT¹

sew sth ↔ up phr. v. (informal) to gain control over a situation so that you are sure to win or get an advantage: The Republicans think they have the election sewn up.

sew-age /ˈsuɪdʒ/ n. [U] the waste material and used water that is carried away from houses by sewers: a sewage treatment plant sew-er /ˈsuə/ n. [C] a pipe or passage under the ground that carries away waste material and used water from houses, factories, etc. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French esseweur, from essewer “to carry away water,” from Vulgar Latin exaquare] sewn /soon/ v. a past participle of SEW

sex /seks/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] BIOLOGY the physical activity that people do together in order to produce babies or for pleasure: They believe it's wrong to have sex before they're married. | the need to practice safe sex (=wear something that will protect you from sexual diseases) 2 [U] BIOLOGY the condition of being male or female: I don't care what sex the baby is, as long as it's healthy. 3 [C] one of the two groups of people or animals, male and female: He isn't comfortable with members of the opposite sex (=people that are not his own sex). | people of both sexes (=men and women) sex, chromosome n. [C] BIOLOGY either of the two CHROMOSOMES in humans and some animals that directly influence whether someone is male or female sex drive n. [C usually singular] someone's ability or need to have sex regularly sex edu,cation n. [U] education in schools about sexual activity and sexual relationships sex-ism /ˈseksɪzəm/ (Ac) n. [U] the belief that one sex is weaker, less intelligent, or less important than the other, especially when this results in women being treated unfairly: programs to lessen sexism in the workplace

THESAURUS prejudice, racism, discrimination, intolerance, bigotry, homophobia, anti-Semitism → PREJUDICE¹ sex-ist /ˈseksɪst/ adj. relating to or showing sexism: sexist remarks —sexist n. [C] sex life n. [C] someone's sexual activities sex, symbol n. [C] someone famous who many people think is very sexually attractive sex-u-al /ˈseksjuəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 relating to sex:

sexual contact | a sexual relationship 2 relating to the social relationships between men and women: a commitment to greater sexual equality —sexually adv.: the age when teenagers become sexually active (=start having sex)

sexual 'harassment n. [U] sexual remarks, looks, or touching done to someone who does not want it, especially from someone s/he works with sexual 'intercourse n. [U] (formal) the physical act of sex between two people sex-u-al-i-ty /ˌsɛkʃu'æləti/ (AC) n. [U] the things people do and feel that are related to their desire or ability to have sex: A person's sexuality is constrained by the rules of society.

sex-y /ˈsɛksi/ adj. (comparative sexier, superlative sexiest) sexually exciting or attractive: sexy clothes

SGML n. [U] Standard Generalized Markup Language a computer language that allows you to write documents in a structure that can be read on different computer systems → HTML, XML

Sgt. the written abbreviation of SERGEANT sh, shh /ʃʃ/ interjection used in order to tell someone to be quiet: Shh! I can't hear what he's saying.

S

shab-by /ˈʃæbi/ adj. 1 shabby clothes, places, or objects are old and in bad condition: shabby hotel rooms 2 unfair or wrong: I don't deserve this kind of shabby treatment. —shabbily adv.

shack¹ /ʃæk/ n. [C] a small building that has not been built very well shack² v.

shack up phr. v. (informal, disapproving) to start living with someone who you have sex with but are not married to: I found out that she was shacked up with some guy from Florida.

shack-le¹ /ˈʃækəl/ n. [C usually plural] 1 one of a pair of metal rings joined by a chain, that is used for keeping a prisoner's hands or feet together 2 the shackles of sth (written) limits that something puts on your freedom: We need to free ourselves from the shackles of the past.

shackle² v. [T] 1 to restrict what someone can do: a company shackled by debts 2 to put shackles on someone shade¹ /ʃeɪd/ n. 1 [singular, U] an area that is cooler and darker because the light of the Sun cannot reach it → SHADOW: Let's find a table in the shade. | boys sitting in the shade of a tree → see picture at SHADOW¹ 2 [C] something that reduces or blocks light, especially a cover that you pull across a window 3 [C] a particular degree of a color: a darker shade of red 4 shades [plural] (informal) SUNGLASSES 5 shade of meaning/opinion etc. a meaning, etc. that is slightly different from other ones: The word can have many shades of meaning, depending on the context. 6 a shade very slightly, a little bit: The room is a shade too hot for me. [ORIGIN: Old English sceadu] shade² v. [T] to protect something from direct light or heat: She used her hand to shade her eyes from the Sun.

shad-ow¹ /ˈʃædɔʊ/ n. 1 [C] a dark shape that an object or a person makes on a surface when he, she, or it is between that surface and the light: The sun began to cast long shadows (=make long shadows) across a grassy field. 2 [C,U] darkness caused when light is prevented from coming into a place: Margaret's face was half hidden in shadow. | He waited in the shadows. 3 without/beyond a shadow of a doubt without any doubt at all: I think he's guilty beyond a shadow of a doubt. 4 cast a shadow over/on sth to make something seem less attractive or impressive: The scandal cast a shadow over his reputation for the rest of his career.

shadow² v. [T] to follow someone closely in order to watch what s/he is doing shad-ow-y /ˈʃædɔʊi/ adj. 1 mysterious and secret: a shadowy figure from his past 2 full of shadows and difficult to see: a shadowy corner shad-y /ˈʃeɪdi/ adj. 1 protected from the Sun or producing shade: a shady spot for a picnic 2 (informal) not honest or legal: a shady business deal shaft /ʃæft/ n. [C] 1 a passage that goes up through a building or down into the ground, so that someone or something can get in or out: an elevator shaft 2 a long handle on a tool, SPEAR, etc. 3 shaft of light/sunlight a narrow beam of light shag-gy /ˈʃægi/ adj. 1 shaggy hair or fur is long and messy: a shaggy beard 2 having shaggy hair shake¹ /ʃeɪk/ v. (past tense shook /ʃʊk/, past participle shaken /ˈʃeɪkən/, present participle shaking) 1 [I,T] to move up and down or from side to side with quick movements, or to make someone or something do this: His hands were shaking. | Shake the bottle before you open it. | She shook him by the shoulders and told him to wake up.

THESAURUS

tremble – to shake because you are frightened or upset: The dog was trembling with fear.

shiver – to shake because you are very cold: I jumped up and down to stop myself shivering.

wobble – to shake from side to side: The pile of books wobbled and fell.

vibrate – to shake continuously with small fast movements: The music was so loud that the whole room vibrated.

quiver – if a person's voice or a part of their body quivers, it shakes slightly, especially because s/he is angry, upset, or anxious: The boy's top lip began to quiver (=because he was going to cry).

rattle – to shake and make a noise: The windows rattled in the wind.

2 shake your head to move your head from side to side as a way of saying no, or to show disapproval or sadness → NOD 3 shake sb's hand/shake hands (with sb) to hold someone's hand in your hand and move it up and down, as a greeting or a sign that you have agreed on something 4 [I] if your voice shakes, it sounds unsteady, usually because you are nervous or angry 5 [T] to make someone feel less confident or certain about something: This experience has shaken my confidence/fait̃h/belief in the legal system. 6 be/look/feel shaken to be frightened, shocked, or upset: Mark looked shaken as he put down the phone. [ORIGIN: Old English sceacan] shake sb ↔ down phr. v. (informal) to get money from someone by using threats shake off phr. v. 1 shake sth ↔ off to get rid of an illness, problem, etc.: I can't seem to shake off this cold. 2 shake sb ↔ off to escape from someone who is chasing you shake sth ↔ out phr. v. to shake something such as a cloth so that small pieces of dirt, dust, etc. come off shake sb/sth ↔ up phr. v. 1 if an unpleasant experience shakes someone up, s/he is shocked or upset by it: The accident really shook her up. 2 to make changes to an organization, country, etc. to make it more effective → SHAKEUP shake² n. [C] 1 an act of shaking: Give the ketchup bottle a good shake. 2 a MILKSHAKE: a vanilla shake shake-down /'ʃeɪkdaʊn/ n. [C] 1 (informal) the act of getting money from someone by using threats 2 a final test of a vehicle or system for problems before it is put into general use, to find any remaining problems shak-en /'ʃeɪkən/ v. the past participle of SHAKE¹

shake-up /'ʃeɪk-ʌp/ n. [C] a process in which an organization, company, etc. makes a lot of changes in a short time in order to be more effective

shak-y /'ʃeɪki/ adj. 1 weak and unsteady because of illness, old age, or shock: a shaky voice | She stood up, still feeling a little bit shaky. 2 likely to fail or be unsuccessful: a shaky marriage | The team got off to a shaky start (=they started badly). 3 not solid or firm: a shaky ladder

shall /ʃəl; strong ʃæl/ modal verb 1 (formal) used in official documents to state an order, law, promise, etc.: The right to a trial by jury shall be preserved. 2 shall I/we? used in order to ask a question, especially as a way of suggesting something: Shall I turn on the air conditioner? 3 (formal) used in order to say what will happen in the future: I shall keep her picture always. [ORIGIN: Old English sceal]

shal-low /'ʃæləʊ/ adj. 1 measuring only a short distance from the top to the bottom (ANT) deep: a shallow baking dish | The rice is planted in shallow water. 2 (disapproving) not interested in or not showing any understanding of important or serious matters (ANT) deep: a shallow argument | If he's only interested in your looks, that shows how shallow he is.

sham¹ /ʃæm/ n. [singular] (disapproving) someone or something that is not what s/he is claimed to be: Our marriage is a sham.

sham² adj. made to appear real in order to deceive people: sham jewelry sham-bles /'ʃæmbəlz/ n. (informal) be (in) a shambles a) to be very badly organized, and fail completely: The whole evening was a shambles – the food never even arrived. b) to be very messy or damaged: The apartment was a shambles.

shame¹ /ʃeɪm/ n. [U] 1 it's/what a shame (spoken) used in order to say that a situation is disappointing, and you wish things had happened differently: It's such a shame (that) Margaret couldn't come. | "Our game was cancelled because of the rain." "Oh, that's a shame." | What a shame we missed the wedding. 2 the feeling of being guilty or embarrassed that you have after doing something that is wrong → ASHAMED: a deep sense of shame

THESAURUS guilt, remorse → GUILT

3 Shame on you! (spoken) used in order to tell someone that s/he should feel ashamed of something that s/he has done: Shame on you, Patrick. I trusted you. 4 put sb/sth to shame to be so much better than someone or something else that it makes the other thing seem very bad or ordinary: This party puts my little dinner to shame. 5 loss of honor: His behavior brought shame on the whole family. | There's no shame in finishing second (=it should not make you feel ashamed).

shame² v. [T] to make someone feel ashamed: It shames me to say it, but I lied.

shame-ful /'ʃeɪmfəl/ adj. so bad that someone should be ashamed: a shameful secret —shamefully adv.

shame-less /'ʃeɪmlɪs/ adj. not seeming to be ashamed of your bad behavior, although other people think you should be ashamed: a shameless liar —shamelessly adv.

sham-poo¹ /'ʃæm'pu/ n. (plural shampoos) [C,U] a liquid soap used for washing your hair [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Hindi cāpo, from cāpna “to press, shampoo”] shampoo² v. [T] to wash something with shampoo: She showered and shampooed her hair.

shan-ty /'ʃænti/ n. (plural shanties) [C] a small building that has not been built very well shape¹ /ʃeɪp/ n. 1 [C,U] the form that something has, for example round, square, TRIANGULAR, etc.

S

→ SHAPED: a cake in the shape of a heart | What shape is your kitchen table?

THESAURUS

Types of shapes

square – a shape with four straight sides that are equal in length and four angles of 90 degrees circle – a round shape that is like an O semicircle – half a circle triangle – a shape with three straight sides and three angles rectangle – a shape with four straight sides and four angles of 90 degrees oval – a shape like a circle, but which is longer than it is wide cylinder – an object in the shape of a tube

Describing types of shapes square – shaped like a square: a square box circular/round – shaped like a circle: a circular table semicircular – shaped like a semicircle: a semicircular arch above the door triangular – shaped like a triangle: sails divided into triangular sections rectangular – shaped like a rectangle: a simple rectangular building oval – shaped like an oval: an oval swimming pool

cylindrical – shaped like a cylinder: The statue is on top of a tall cylindrical column.

2 in good/bad/poor shape in good, bad, etc. condition or health: The old car's still in good shape. 3 in shape/out of shape in a good or bad state of health or physical FITNESS: I need to get in shape. 4 take shape to develop into a clear and definite form 5 [C] something or someone that you cannot see clearly enough to recognize: He was just a shape in the mist.

shape² v. [T] 1 to influence something such as a belief or opinion and make it develop in a particular way: an event that shaped public opinion 2 to make something have a particular shape: Shape the clay into small balls.

shape up phr. v. (informal) 1 to improve your behavior or work: You better shape up, John, or you're off the team. 2 to make progress in a particular way: The team is starting to shape up nicely.

shaped /ʃeɪpt/ adj. having a particular shape: heart-shaped/star-shaped etc. flowers | a trophy shaped like a football shape-ly /'ʃeɪpli/ adj. having an attractive shape: her long shapely legs

share¹ /ʃer/ v. 1 [I,T] to have or use something with other people: She shares an office with her boss. | There's only one book – we'll have to share. 2 [T] to let someone have or use something that belongs to you: Will you share your toys with Ronnie? 3 [I,T] to divide something between two or more people: I took the cookies to work to share with everybody.

THESAURUS give out, hand out/pass out, distribute → GIVE¹

4 [T] to have the same interest, opinion, etc. as someone else: We share an interest in cooking. 5 [T] to tell someone else about an idea, secret, problem, etc.: Thank you for sharing your feelings with me.

share² n. 1 [singular] the part of something that you own or are responsible for: I paid my share of the bill and left. | Becky deserves a large share of the credit. 2 have/get your (fair) share to get as much of something as you could reasonably expect to have: Rob's certainly getting his share of attention from the women. | Don't worry – you'll get your fair share. 3 [C] ECONOMICS one of the equal parts into which the OWNERSHIP of a company is divided, that people can buy and sell → STOCK: He wants to buy/sell 500 shares in CNN. | shares in General Electric share-crop-ping /'ser,kɹɑpɪŋ/ n. [U] a type of farming in which the farmer rents the land from the owner and is paid a share of the value of the crop —sharecropper n. [C] share-hold-er /'ʃer,həʊldə/ n. [C] ECONOMICS someone who owns STOCK shark /ʃɑrk/ n. [C] a large sea fish with very sharp teeth sharp¹ /ʃɑrp/ adj.

1 ABLE TO CUT something that is sharp has a very thin edge or point that can cut things easily (ANT) dull, blunt: a sharp knife | The blade is razor sharp (=very sharp).

2 DIRECTION a sharp turn or bend changes direction suddenly: a sharp turn in the road | Make a sharp left/right onto Grant Avenue.

3 CHANGE a sharp increase, fall, etc. is very sudden and very big: a sharp rise/increase in prices | a sharp decline/drop in the number of smokers

4 DIFFERENCE clear and definite, so that there is no doubt: The crowd's support was in sharp contrast (=very different) to the criticism he has received lately. | a sharp difference of opinion

5 INTELLIGENT able to think and understand things very quickly: She's a very sharp lawyer. | her sharp wit

6 PAIN sudden and very bad: a sharp pain in my chest

7 REMARK criticizing in a severe and angry way: The proposal has drawn sharp criticism from the president. | He's known for his sharp tongue.

8 EYES able to see or notice things very easily: Lenny has a sharp eye for detail.

9 CLOTHES attractive and stylish: My grandfather was a sharp dresser (=wore stylish clothes).

10 SOUNDS loud, short, and sudden: a sharp cry

11 PICTURE if an image or picture is sharp, you can see all the details very clearly: a sharp picture on the TV

12 MUSIC a) F/C etc. sharp ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note that is a HALF STEP higher than the note F, C, etc., and is shown by the sign (#) → FLAT b) ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note that is sharp is played or sung slightly higher than it should be → FLAT

13 TASTE having a strong taste: sharp Cheddar cheese [ORIGIN: Old English scearp] —sharply adv. —sharpness n. [U]

sharp² adv. 1 at 8 o'clock/two-thirty etc. sharp at exactly 8:00, 2:30, etc.: I expect you to be here at 10:30 sharp. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS if you sing or play music sharp, you sing or play slightly higher than the correct note so that it sounds bad sharp-en /'ʃɑrpən/ v. [I,T] to make something sharper, or become sharper: sharpening a pencil sharp-en-er /'ʃɑrpənə/ n. [C] a tool or machine that sharpens pencils, knives, etc.

shat-ter /'ʃætə/ v. 1 [I,T] to break suddenly into very small pieces, or to make something do this: My cup fell to the floor and shattered.

THESAURUS break, smash → BREAK¹

2 [T] to completely destroy someone's hopes, beliefs, or confidence: A knee injury shattered his hopes of becoming a baseball player.

shave¹ /ʃeɪv/ v. [I,T] to cut off hair very close to the skin, especially from your face or legs, using a RAZOR: Brian had cut himself shaving. | She shaves her legs. [ORIGIN: Old English scafan] shave² n. 1 [C usually singular] an act of shaving: I need a shave. 2 a close shave a situation in which you only just avoid an accident or something bad shav-er /'ʃeɪvə/ n. [C] a tool used for shaving shav-ings /'ʃeɪvɪŋz/ n. [plural] very thin pieces of something such as wood that are cut from a surface shawl /ʃɔl/ n. [C] a piece of cloth that is worn around the shoulders or head for warmth, especially by women s/he /,ʃi æ 'hi/ pron. used in writing when the subject of the sentence can be either male or female she¹ /ʃi/ pron. a female person or animal who has been mentioned or is known about: "Where's Kate?" "She went out to the car." | "I saw Suzy today." "Oh really, how is she?" | She's (=she is) a nurse.

she² n. [singular] a female: What a cute dog! Is it a she or a he?

sheaf /ʃif/ n. (plural sheaves /ʃi:vz/) [C] several pieces of paper held or tied together shear /ʃɪr/ v. (past tense sheared, past participle sheared or shorn /ʃɔrn/) [T] to cut the wool off a sheep shears /ʃɪrz/ n. [plural] a tool like a large pair of scissors sheath /ʃiθ/ n. (plural sheaths /ʃiðz, ʃiθs/) [C] a cover for the blade of a knife or sword sheaves /ʃi:vz/ n. the plural of SHEAF

she'd /ʃɛd/ 1 the short form of “she had”: She'd forgotten to close the door. 2 the short form of “she would”: She said she'd love to come.

shed¹ /ʃɛd/ n. [C] a small building used especially for storing things: a tool shed

shed² v. (past tense and past participle shed) [T] 1 to get rid of something that you do not want: I'd like to shed a few pounds (=lose some weight) before summer. 2 BIOLOGY to allow something to fall off, especially as part of a natural process: Snakes regularly shed their skin. 3 shed tears to cry: She had not shed a single tear during the funeral. 4 shed blood to kill someone 5 shed light on sth to make something easier to understand: Recent research has shed light on the causes of the disease.

sheen /ʃi:n/ n. [singular, U] a smooth shiny appearance

S

sheep /ʃi:p/ n. (plural sheep) [C] a farm animal that is kept for its wool and its meat [ORIGIN: Old English sceap] → see picture at FARM¹

sheep-ish /ˈʃi:pɪʃ/ adj. uncomfortable or embarrassed because you have done something silly or wrong: Renny apologized, looking sheepish. —sheepishly adv.

sheer /ʃɪr/ adj. 1 sheer joy/luck/bliss etc. joy, luck, etc. with no other feeling or quality mixed with it: people dancing and singing with sheer joy 2 the sheer size/weight/numbers etc. used in order to emphasize that something is very big, heavy, etc.: The most impressive thing about Alaska is its sheer size. 3 a sheer drop, cliff, etc. is extremely steep 4 material that is sheer is fine or thin, so that you can almost see through it sheet /ʃi:t/ n. [C] 1 a large piece of thin cloth that you put on a bed to lie on or under: Have you changed the sheets (=put clean sheets on the bed)? → see picture at BED¹ 2 a thin flat piece of something such as paper, metal, or glass: a sheet of paper 3 a large flat area of something such as ice or water that is spread over a surface: The road was covered with a sheet of ice.

sheik, sheikh /ʃik, ʃeɪk/ n. [C] 1 an Arab chief or prince 2 a Muslim religious teacher or leader shelf /ʃɛlf/ n. (plural shelves /ʃɛlvz/) [C] a long flat board attached to a wall, in a frame, etc., that you can put things on: shelves of books | Could you get me that bowl off the top shelf? [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Middle Low German schelf] she'll /ʃi:l/ the short form of “she will”

shell¹ /ʃɛl/ n. [C] 1 the hard outer part that covers and protects nuts, eggs, seeds, and some types of animals: sea shells | peanut shells 2 a metal tube containing a bullet and an explosive substance, which is fired from a large gun [ORIGIN: Old English sciell] shell² v. [T] to fire shells at something, using a large gun shell out phr. v. (informal) to pay money for something, often when you do not want to: We had to shell out over $400 to get the car fixed.

shell-fish /ˈʃɛl,fɪʃ/ n. (plural shellfish) [C,U] a small sea or water animal that has a shell, or this animal eaten as a food shel-ter¹ /ˈʃɛltə/ n. 1 [C,U] a place with a roof over it that protects you from danger or the weather, or the protection that it gives: a bomb shelter | a bus shelter | The family took shelter in the cellar when the tornado hit. 2 [C] a place where people or animals can go if they have no home or are in danger from someone who treats them badly: a shelter for battered women 3 [U] a place to live, considered as one of the basic needs of life: providing food and shelter for the homeless

shelter² v. 1 [T] to provide a place where someone is protected from the weather or from danger: families who sheltered Jews from the Nazis

THESAURUS protect, guard, shield, give/offer/provide protection → PROTECT

2 [I] to stay somewhere in order to be protected from bad weather or danger: People were sheltering in doorways, under bridges, anywhere.

shel-tered /ˈʃɛltəd/ adj. 1 protected from anything that might hurt, upset, or shock you: Gina had a sheltered childhood. 2 protected from the weather: a sheltered valley shelve /ʃɛlv/ v. [T] to decide not to continue with a plan, although you might continue with it later: The project has been shelved due to lack of funding.

shelves /ʃɛlvz/ n. the plural of SHELF

shelv-ing /ˈʃɛlvɪŋ/ n. [U] a set of shelves, or the material used for them she-nan-i-gans /ʃəˈnæniɡənz/ n. [plural] (informal) tricks or slightly dishonest behavior shep-herd /ˈʃepəd/ n. [C] someone whose job is to take care of sheep sher-bet /ˈʃəbət/ n. [U] a frozen sweet food made from water, fruit, sugar, and milk sher-iff /ˈʃɛrɪf/ n. [C] a chief police officer in a COUNTY who is elected [ORIGIN: Old English scirgerefa, from scir “area with its own government” + gerefa “person in charge of an area”] sher-ry /ˈʃɛri/ n. (plural sherries) [C,U] a strong Spanish wine, or a glass of this drink [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 sherries “sherry” (16—18 centuries), from Xeres (now Jerez), city in southwestern Spain]

she's /ʃɪz/ 1 the short form of “she is”: She's my little sister. 2 the short form of “she has”: She's invited us to a party.

shield¹ /ʃɪld/ n. [C] 1 something that protects someone or something from being hurt or damaged: police carrying riot shields | the heat shield on a rocket 2 a broad piece of metal or leather used in past times by soldiers to protect themselves in battle

shield² v. [T] to protect someone or something from being hurt, damaged, or upset: Of course, you try to shield your children from bad influences. | a hat to shield your face from the sun

THESAURUS protect, guard, safeguard, give/offer/provide protection → PROTECT

shift¹ /ʃɪft/ (AC) v. [I,T] 1 to change your opinion or attitude: Washington's policy toward Taiwan appears to have shifted. 2 to move from one place or position to another, or make something do this: Jan shifted uncomfortably in her seat. | Amos shifted his chair around to get a better look. 3 to change the GEARS when you are driving: I pulled away and shifted into second gear.

shift² (AC) n. [C] 1 a change in the way most people think about something, or in the way something is done: Polls show a shift in public opinion. | the shift from communism to capitalism 2 one of the periods during each day and night when workers in a factory, hospital, etc. are at work: Lou's on the night/day shift this week. → GEAR SHIFT shift-less /ˈʃɪftlɪs/ adj. lazy and not at all interested in working

THESAURUS lazy, idle, indolent, slack, slothful → LAZY

shift-y /ˈʃɪfti/ adj. someone who is shift-y looks dishonest shim-mer /ˈʃɪmər/ v. [I] to shine with a soft light that seems to shake slightly: a lake shimmering in the moonlight —shimmer n. [singular]

THESAURUS shine, gleam, glint, glisten → SHINE¹

shin /ʃɪn/ n. [C] the front part of your leg between your knee and your foot → see picture on page A4

shine¹ /ʃaɪn/ v. (past tense and past participle shone /ʃoʊn/, present participle shining) 1 [I] to produce light: The Sun was shining. | The bright TV lights were shining in her eyes.

THESAURUS

flash – to shine brightly for a very short time:

Lightning flashed across the sky.

flicker – to shine with an unsteady light: The candle flickered and went out.

twinkle – to shine in the dark but not very brightly or continuously: stars twinkling in the sky glow – to shine with a warm soft light: I could see a lamp glowing in the window.

sparkle – to shine with many small bright points of light: diamonds sparkling in the light shimmer – to shine with a soft light that seems to shake slightly: The lake shimmered in the moonlight.

gleam – if something smooth and clean gleams, it shines: The silverware had been polished until it gleamed.

glint – if something that is shiny glints, it reflects light very strongly: The Sun glinted off the windows.

glisten – to shine and look wet or oily: Tears glistened on her cheeks.

2 [I] to look bright and smooth: Dan polished the car until it shone. 3 (past tense and past participle shined) [T] to make something bright by rubbing it: When's the last time you shined your shoes? 4 [T] to point a light toward a particular place or in a particular direction: Shine the flashlight over here. 5 [I] if your eyes or face shine, they show you are happy. 6 [I] to be very good at something: The concert will give young musicians a chance to shine. [ORIGIN: Old English scinan] shine² n. [singular, U] the brightness that something has when light shines on it: Lucy's dark hair seemed to have lost its shine.

shin-gle /ˈʃɪŋɡəl/ n. [C,U] one of many thin pieces of wood or other material used for covering a roof or a wall shin-ny /ˈʃɪni/ v. (shinnied, shinnies) shinny up/down (informal) to climb quickly up or down a tree or a pole shin-y /ˈʃaɪni/ adj. (comparative shinier, superlative shiniest) bright and smooth looking: shiny hair | shiny leather boots

ship¹ /ʃɪp/ n. [C] 1 a large boat used for carrying people and things on the ocean: a cruise ship | Supplies came by ship.

THESAURUS

Ships that carry people cruise ship, liner, ferry

Ships that carry goods freighter, tanker, barge

Fighting ships aircraft carrier, battleship, cruiser, submarine, warship

2 a space vehicle: a rocket ship [ORIGIN: Old English scip]

ship² v. (shipped, shipping) [T] 1 to deliver goods: The books will be shipped out to you within

S

24 hours. 2 to send or carry something by sea ship-load /'ʃɪpləʊd/ n. [C] the number of people or things a ship can carry ship-ment /'ʃɪpmənt/ n. [C,U] a load of goods being delivered, or the act of sending them: a shipment of grain | The goods are ready for shipment.

ship-ping /'ʃɪpɪŋ/ n. 1 shipping and handling the price charged for delivering goods: Please add $2.95 to cover shipping and handling. 2 [U] ships considered as a group, or anything that is related to business done by ships: The canal has been closed to shipping.

ship-wreck¹ /'ʃɪp-rɛk/ n. [C,U] the destruction of a ship by a storm or an accident, or a ship that has been destroyed in this way: survivors of a shipwreck shipwreck² v. be shipwrecked to have been in a ship that has been destroyed by a storm or an accident ship-yard /'ʃɪp-jɑːd/ n. [C] a place where ships are built or repaired shirk /ʃɜːk/ v. [I,T] (formal) to avoid doing something you should do: parents who shirk their duties/responsibilities towards their children

shirt /ʃɜːt/ n. [C] a piece of clothing that covers the upper part of your body and your arms, and has a collar and usually buttons down the front → BLOUSE, T-SHIRT: She was wearing a white silk shirt. | I have to wear a shirt and tie to work. [ORIGIN: Old English scyrte] → see picture at CLOTHES shirt-sleeves /'ʃɜːtsliːvz/ n. in (your) shirt-sleeves wearing a shirt but no JACKET shish ke-bab /'ʃɪʃ kəˈbɑːb/ n. [C] small pieces of meat and sometimes vegetables, cooked on a stick shiv-er¹ /'ʃɪvə/ v. [I] to shake slightly because you are cold or frightened: Come inside – you're shivering.

THESAURUS shake, tremble, wobble, quiver → SHAKE¹ shiver² n. [C] a shaking movement of your body that happens when you are cold or afraid: A shiver ran down my spine (=I felt afraid). —shivery adj.

shoal /ʃəʊl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a large group of fish that swim together

THESAURUS group, flock, herd, school, pack, litter → GROUP¹

shock¹ /ʃɒk/ n. 1 [C usually singular] an unexpected and unpleasant event or piece of news that makes you extremely upset: Rob's death came as a complete shock to us. 2 [singular,U] the feeling of surprise and DISBELIEF you have when something unexpected and unpleasant happens: She looked like she was in shock. | the shock of seeing someone in such pain 3 [C] a sudden painful feeling caused by a flow of electricity passing through your body: Ow! The toaster gave me a shock. 4 [U] a medical condition in which someone is very weak, often after an unpleasant experience: The crash victims are suffering from shock. | He is clearly in a state of shock. 5 [C] EARTH SCIENCES SHOCK WAVE 6 [C] a SHOCK ABSORBER [ORIGIN: (1) French choc, from choquer “to strike against”] shock² v. 1 [I,T] to make someone feel very surprised, and usually upset or offended: We were shocked to hear of his arrest. 2 [T] to give someone an electric shock —shocked adj.

'shock absorber n. [C] a piece of equipment connected to each wheel of a vehicle to make it travel smoothly over uneven ground shock-ing /'ʃɒkɪŋ/ adj. very offensive or upsetting: a shocking crime

THESAURUS surprising, astonishing, astounding, staggering, stunning → SURPRISING

'shock wave n. [C] 1 a strong feeling of shock that people have when something bad happens without warning: The news sent shock waves through the world's stock markets. 2 EARTH SCIENCES a strong movement of air, heat, or the earth from an explosion, EARTHQUAKE, etc.

shod¹ /ʃɒd/ adj. (literary) wearing shoes

shod² v. the past tense and past participle of SHOE shod-dy /'ʃɒdi/ adj. 1 badly or cheaply made, or not done well: shoddy goods 2 unfair and dishonest: He treated me in a pretty shoddy way. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 shoddy “cloth made from reused wool” (19–20 centuries)]

shoe¹ /ʃu/ n. [C] 1 something that you wear to cover your feet, that is made of leather or some other strong material: a pair of shoes | high-heeled shoes 2 be in sb's shoes to be in the situation that someone else is in: I wouldn't like to be in his shoes when his wife finds out what happened. [ORIGIN: Old English scoh]

shoe² v. (past tense and past participle shod /ʃəd/) [T] to put a HORSESHOE (=curved piece of metal) on a horse's foot shoe-horn /ˈʃuːhɔːn/ n. [C] a curved piece of plastic or metal that you use to help you put a shoe on easily shoe-lace /ˈʃuːləs/ n. [C] a thin piece of string or leather that you use to tie your shoes (SYN) lace shoe-string /ˈʃuːstriŋ/ n. on a shoestring done or made without spending very much money: a movie made on a shoestring shone /ʃoʊn/ v. the past tense and past participle of SHINE¹ shoo /ʃu/ interjection said in order to tell an annoying child or animal to go away —shoo v. [T]: Aunt Betty shooed us out of the kitchen.

'shoo-in n. [C usually singular] (informal) someone who is expected to win an election or race easily: He looked like a shoo-in to win the election.

shook /ʃʊk/ v. the past tense of SHAKE¹

,shook-'up adj. [not before noun] (spoken) very frightened, shocked, or upset because of something that has happened shoot¹ /ʃʊt/ v. (past tense and past participle shot /ʃɒt/)

1 GUN [I,T] to fire a gun at someone, or kill or injure someone with a gun: Stop or I'll shoot! | She pulled out a gun and shot him. | Someone on the roof was shooting at her. | He had been shot in the leg while trying to escape. | One police officer was shot dead in the incident.

2 MOVE QUICKLY [I,T] to move quickly in a particular direction, or to make something move in this way: The fountain shoots water 20 feet into the air. | A sharp pain suddenly shot through his right arm.

3 PHOTO/MOVIE [I,T] to take photographs or make a movie: The movie was shot in Rome.

4 SPORTS [I,T] to throw, kick, or hit a ball toward the place where you can make points: We were waiting for him to shoot.

5 shoot (spoken) used in order to tell someone to start speaking: "I've got a question." "Okay, shoot."

6 shoot the breeze (informal) to have a friendly conversation about unimportant things: Cal and I were sitting on the porch, shooting the breeze.

7 shoot your mouth off (informal) to talk too much, especially about your opinions or a secret: Don't go shooting your mouth off about this.

shoot sb/sth ↔ down phr. v.

1 to destroy an enemy airplane while it is flying: The plane was shot down over the ocean.

2 to say that what someone suggests is wrong or stupid: Terry's boss shot down all her ideas.

shoot for sth phr. v. (informal) to try to achieve something: Okay, we'll shoot for 1:30 (=try to do something by then).

shoot up phr. v.

to quickly increase in number, size, or amount: Prices shot up by 60%.

shoot² n. [C] 1 an occasion when someone takes photographs or makes a movie: a photo shoot 2 BIOLOGY a new part of a plant shoot³ interjection said when you are annoyed, disappointed, or surprised: Oh shoot, I forgot to go to the bank.

shoot-ing /ˈʃuːtɪŋ/ n. [C] a situation in which someone is killed or injured by a gun

,shooting 'star n. [C] PHYSICS a piece of rock or metal from space that burns brightly as it falls toward the Earth

shop¹ /ʃɒp/ n. 1 [C] a small store that sells only a particular type of goods: a card shop 2 [C] a place where things are made or repaired: a bicycle repair shop 3 [U] a subject taught in school, in which students use tools and machinery to make or repair things [ORIGIN: Old English sceoppa "stall"] → set up shop at SET UP shop² v. (shopped, shopping) [I] to go to one or more stores to buy things: I was out shopping for food. —shopper n. [C]: The store was full of Christmas shoppers.

shop around phr. v. to compare the price and quality of different things before you decide which to buy shop-lift /ˈʃɒp,lɪft/ v. [I,T] to take something from a store without paying for it —shoplifting n. [U] —shoplifter n. [C]

THESAURUS steal, burglarize, pilfer → STEAL¹

THESAURUS offender, thief, robber, burglar, pickpocket → CRIMINAL²

shop-ping /ˈʃɒpɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] the activity of going to stores to buy things: I've got to do some shopping (=buy the food, etc. that you use regularly). | Christmas shopping 2 go shopping to go to stores to buy things, often for enjoyment 3 [singular] the things you have bought, usually food: The boys helped me bring the shopping in from the car.

'shopping, center n. [C] a group of stores built together in one area

'shopping mall n. [C] a MALL

shore¹ /ʃɔː/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES the land along the edge of a large area of water: We could see a boat about a mile from shore. | The cabin stood on the shores of Lake Erie. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Middle Dutch, Middle Low German schore]

THESAURUS
coast — the land next to the ocean: The island is 15 miles off the coast of Newfoundland.
beach — an area of sand or small stones at the edge of an ocean or lake: We spent the day at the beach. | Let's take a walk on the beach at sunset. | Palm Beach, Florida seashore — the area of land next to the ocean: hotels directly on the seashore bank – the edge of a river: the banks of the Mississippi river shore² v.

shore sth ↔ up phr. v. 1 to support a wall with large pieces of wood, metal, etc. to stop it from falling down 2 to help or support something that is likely to fail or is not working well: The money is needed to shore up the failing bank.

shore-line /'ʃɔːrlaɪn/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES the land on the edge of a lake, river, or ocean (SYN) coastline: the island's rocky shoreline → see picture on page A11 shorn /ʃɔːrn/ v. a past participle of SHEAR

short¹ /ʃɔːt/ adj.

1 LENGTH/DISTANCE not very long in length or far in distance (ANT) long: His hair is very short. | a short skirt | It's only a short distance from here to the river.

2 TIME happening for only a little time or for less time than usual (ANT) long: a short meeting | I've just been living here a short time. | Life's too short to stay angry.

THESAURUS

Lasting only a short time brief – lasting only a short time, especially because there is not much time available: We made a brief visit to the Museum of Modern Art.

quick – doing something very quickly, especially because you are in a hurry: He had a quick shower and left for work.

cursory – a cursory look or check is done very quickly, without much attention to details: The officer took a cursory look inside the trunk.

temporary – something that is temporary is expected to continue for only a short time, and will not be permanent: I'm sure it's only a temporary problem.

ephemeral (formal) – existing only for a short time, and changing quickly: Fashion is very ephemeral.

using only a few words brief – using only a few words: He left a brief note saying that he would be late.

concise – short and clear, and with no unnecessary words: Try to keep your answers as concise as possible.

succinct – expressing something well but with very few words: His instructions were always short and succinct.

curt – replying in very few words, in a way that seems rude: I received a rather curt letter saying that my application had been unsuccessful.

3 PERSON not as tall as average height (ANT) tall: a short fat man

4 NOT ENOUGH not having enough of something you need: I'm short of cash right now. | I'm five dollars short.

5 on short notice with very little warning that something is going to happen: Sorry – we can't come on such short notice.

6 in the short run/term during a short period of time after the present: The crisis will affect the peace process, at least in the short term.

7 be short for sth to be a shorter way of saying a name: Her name is Becky, short for Rebecca.

8 short of breath unable to breathe easily, especially because of being unhealthy

9 be in short supply to not be available in large quantities: Fruit and sugar were in short supply then.

10 be short with sb to speak to someone in a rude or unfriendly way: Sorry I was so short with you on the phone.

11 in short order very quickly: His demands were met in short order.

12 get the short end of the stick (informal) to be given something difficult or bad to do, especially when other people have been given something better [ORIGIN: Old English scort] — shortness n. [U] short² adv. short of (doing) sth without actually doing something: They've cut the budget and the workforce – everything short of canceling the project altogether. → cut sth short at CUT¹, fall short (of sth) at FALL¹, be running short of sth at RUN¹, stop short of sth at STOP¹ short³ n. 1 shorts [plural] a) short pants that end at or above the knees: a pair of shorts b) loose underwear for men (SYN) boxer shorts 2 in short used when you want to say the most important point in a few words: In short, I don't think we can do it. 3 for short as a shorter way of saying a name: It's called the Message Handling System – MHS for short. 4 [C] (informal) a short movie that is shown before the main movie in a theater 5 [C] (informal) a SHORT CIRCUIT

short⁴ v. [I,T] (informal) to have a bad electrical connection that makes a machine stop working correctly, or to make something do this short-age /'ʃɔːtɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] a situation in which there is not enough of something that people need: food shortages | a shortage of medicine short-bread /'ʃɔːtˌbrɛd/ n. [U] a hard sweet cookie made with a lot of butter short-cake /'ʃɔːtˌkeɪk/ n. [U] cake over which a sweet fruit mixture is poured: strawberry short-cake short-'change v. [T] 1 to treat someone unfairly by not giving him/her what s/he deserves: The miners felt short-changed by the new contract. 2 to give back too little money to someone who has paid you for something short 'circuit n. [C] the failure of an electrical system caused by bad wires or a fault in a connection in the wires short-com-ing /'ʃɔːtˌkʌmɪŋ/ n. [C usually plural] a fault in something or someone, that makes it, him, or her less effective: the shortcomings of the new law | shortcomings in his research short 'cut n. [C] 1 a quicker more direct way of going somewhere: Let's take a short cut across the park. 2 a quicker way of doing something: There are no short cuts to finding a job.

short-en /'ʃɔ:t'n/ v. [I,T] to become shorter, or to make something shorter (ANT) lengthen: Her name is often shortened to Pat. | It was fall, and the days had begun to shorten.

short-en-ing /'ʃɔ:t'n-ɪŋ, -nɪŋ/ n. [U] fat made from vegetable oil that you mix with flour when making PASTRY short-fall /'ʃɔ:t'fɔ:l/ n. [C] the difference between the amount you have and the amount you need or expect: shortfalls in the city's budget* short-hand /'ʃɔ:t'hænd/ n. [U] a fast method of writing using special signs and short forms of words: *taking notes in shorthand

'short list n. [C] a list of the most appropriate people for a job, chosen from all the people who were first considered for it short-lived /'ʃɔ:t'lɪvd/ adj. existing only a short time: a short-lived fashion short-ly /'ʃɔ:tlɪ/ adv. 1 very soon: I expect him home shortly. | The president left for Washington shortly before noon.

THESAURUS soon, in a minute, any minute now, before long, presently → SOON

2 speaking in a way that is not patient: "Yes, yes, I understand," he said shortly.

,short-order 'cook n. [C] someone in a restaurant kitchen who makes the food that can be prepared easily or quickly

,short-range adj. [only before noun] short-range weapons are designed to travel or be used over a short distance short-sight-ed, short-sighted /'ʃɔ:t'saɪtɪd/ adj. 1 not considering the future effects of something: The company's decision was short-sighted. | the shortsighted option 2 NEARSIGHTED short-stop /'ʃɔ:tstɒp/ n. [C,U] the position in baseball between SECOND BASE and THIRD BASE, or the person who plays this position

,short 'story n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a short written story, usually about imaginary events

,short-'term adj. continuing for only a short time into the future (ANT) long-term: a short-term solution → in the long/short term at TERM¹

'short wave n. [U] a range of radio waves used for broadcasting around the world

shot¹ /ʃɒt/ n. [C]

1 GUN an act of firing a gun, or the sound that this makes: We heard a shot. | He quickly fired three shots.

2 SPORTS an attempt to throw, kick, or hit the ball toward the place where you can get a point: Nice shot! | Shaw made the shot and turned to run down the court.

3 MOVIES/PHOTOGRAPHS a) a photograph: a beautiful shot of the countryside around Prague b) the view of something in a movie, television program, or photograph: *a close-up shot | In the opening shot, we see a man walking down a street.

4 ATTEMPT (informal) an attempt to do something or achieve something: Marty always wanted to take a shot at acting. | *I'll give it my best shot (=try as hard as possible).

5 DRINK a small amount of a strong alcoholic drink: a shot of whiskey

6 DRUG the act of putting medicine into your body using a needle: Have you had your tetanus shot?

7 a shot in the dark an attempt to guess something without having any facts or definite ideas: My answer to the last question was a complete shot in the dark.

8 like a shot very quickly: He jumped up like a shot and ran to the door. → BIG SHOT, LONG SHOT shot² adj. be shot (informal) to be in bad condition or useless: This battery is shot – do we have another one?

shot³ v. the past tense and past participle of SHOOT¹ shot-gun /'ʃɒt'gʌn/ n. [C] a long gun, used for shooting animals and birds

,shotgun 'wedding n. [C] a wedding that has to take place immediately because the woman is going to have a baby

'shot put n. the shot put a sport in which you throw a heavy metal ball as far as you can —shot putter n. [C]

should /ʃəd; strong ʃʊd/ modal verb 1 used when giving or asking for advice or an opinion: You should have called me right away. | Should I wear my gray dress?* | Children shouldn't (=should not) take candy from strangers. 2 used in order to say that you expect something to happen or be true: Yvonne should be back by 8:00. | It should be a nice day tomorrow. 3 (formal) used like "if" in formal CONDITIONAL sentences that use the present tense: Should you decide to accept the offer, please return the enclosed form.*

shoul-der¹ /'ʃəʊldə/ n. [C] 1 one of the two parts of the body at each side of the neck where the arm is connected: Andy put his arm around his wife's shoulders. | *When we asked him what was wrong, he just shrugged his shoulders (=raised them to show that he did not know or care). → see picture on page A3 2 watch/look over sb's shoulder to watch carefully what someone is doing, sometimes so that you can criticize him/her: I can't work at the computer when someone is watching over my shoulder. 3 the part of a shirt, coat, etc. that covers your shoulders 4 a shoulder to cry on someone who gives you sympathy: Diane's always there when I need a shoulder to cry on. 5 an area of ground beside a road where drivers can stop their cars if they are having trouble shoulder² v. 1 shoulder the responsibility/blame/cost etc. to accept a difficult or unpleasant

S

RESPONSIBILITY, duty, etc.: Carrie shouldered the burden of taking care of three young kids alone. 2 shoulder your way through/into etc. to move through a large crowd of people by pushing with your shoulders: He shouldered his way through the crowd.

'shoulder bag n. [C] a woman's PURSE that hangs from the shoulder by a long piece of material

'shoulder blade n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the two flat bones on each side of your back → see picture on page A3 should-n't /'ʃʊdnt/ modal verb the short form of "should not" should've /'ʃʊdəv/ modal verb the short form of "should have"

shout¹ /ʃaʊt/ v. [I,T] to say something very loudly: "Get out of the way!" she shouted. | I wish he'd stop shouting at the children. | They shouted for help.

THESAURUS

call (out) – to shout in order to get someone's attention scream – to shout in a very loud high voice because you are so angry, excited, etc. that you cannot control your voice shriek – to shout in a loud high unpleasant voice, because you are frightened, angry, excited, etc.
 yell – to shout, for example because you are angry or excited, or because you want to get someone's attention cry out – to make a sudden loud noise, for example when you are suddenly hurt or afraid raise your voice – to say something more loudly than usual, often because you are angry about something cheer – to shout to show that you like a team, performance, etc.
 bellow – to shout loudly in a deep voice holler (informal) – to shout loudly → SCREAM¹ shout sb ↔ down phr. v. to shout so that someone who is speaking cannot be heard: She tried to argue, but was quickly shouted down.

shout sth ↔ out phr. v. to say something suddenly in a loud voice: Don't shout out the answer.

shout² n. 1 [C] a loud call that expresses anger, excitement, etc.: She heard a shout from upstairs. 2 give sb a shout (spoken) to go and find someone and tell him/her something: Give me a shout if you need any help.

shove /ʃʌv/ v. 1 [I,T] to push someone or something in a rough or careless way, using your hands or shoulders: People were pushing and shoving to get a better view. | They searched him and shoved him into a cell.

THESAURUS

push, poke, nudge, elbow → PUSH¹

2 [T] (informal) to put something somewhere quickly and carelessly: Just shove those papers into the drawer for now.

THESAURUS

stick – to put something somewhere in a careless way: Just stick the books on the table for now.
thrust – to push something somewhere suddenly or forcefully: David thrust his hands into his pockets.
dump – to drop or put something somewhere in a careless way: Don't just dump your coat on the floor!
cram/jam – to force a lot of something into a small space: Josh crammed his books and coat into his locker.

3 shove it (spoken) an impolite phrase said when you are very annoyed or angry and you do not want to talk to someone any longer: They can take their job and shove it. —shove n. [C] shove off phr. v. to push a boat away from the land, usually with a pole shovel¹ /'ʃʌvəl/ n. [C] a tool with a long handle, used for digging or moving earth, stones, etc.

shovel² v. 1 [I,T] to dig or move earth, stones, etc. with a shovel: I'm going out to shovel the driveway/sidewalk (=shovel snow from the driveway or sidewalk). 2 shovel sth into/onto sth to put something into a place quickly: He sat at the table shoveling his dinner into his mouth.

show¹ /ʃəʊ/ v. (past tense showed, past participle shown /ʃəʊn/) 1 LET SB SEE [T] to let someone see something: Karen showed us her wedding pictures. | I showed the letter to Ruth.

2 MAKE STH CLEAR [T] to make it clear that something is true or exists by providing facts or information: The report shows a rise in employment. | Studies have shown (that) consumers are buying more organic produce. | Applicants must show how their qualifications make them suitable for the job.

THESAURUS

demonstrate, indicate, suggest, prove, establish → DEMONSTRATE

3 HOW YOU FEEL [T] to show how you feel by the way that you behave: Alan tried not to show his disappointment.

4 EXPLAIN STH [T] to tell someone how to do something or where something is: I'll show you what to do. | My grandma showed me how to make cornbread.

THESAURUS

explain, tell, demonstrate → EXPLAIN

5 GUIDE SB [T] to go with someone and guide him/her to a place: Did Rachel show you where to leave your coat? | I'll show you the way.

THESAURUS

lead, guide, escort, usher → LEAD¹

6 CAN BE SEEN [I,T] if something shows, people can see or notice it easily: His anger showed on his face. | Ellen was tired, and it showed.

7 MOVIE [I,T] if a movie or television program is shown, people are able to see it at a theater or on television: The movie was shown on HBO.

8 show signs of sth used in order to say that something is starting to become noticeable: At 65, Nelson shows no signs of slowing down. | Data from the second quarter showed some signs of improvement.

9 INFORMATION [T] if a picture, map, etc. shows something, you can see it on the picture, map, etc.: a map showing all the stations

10 have something/nothing to show for sth to have achieved something or nothing as a result of your efforts: I've been practicing so hard, and I still have nothing to show for it. [ORIGIN: Old English sceawian "to look, look at, see"]

show sb around phr. v.

to go with someone around a place and show him/her what is important, interesting, etc.: His wife showed us around the house.

show off phr. v.

1 (disapproving) to try to make people admire your abilities, achievements, or possessions: Ignore him. He's just showing off.

2 show sth ↔ off to show something to many people because you are very proud of it: Jen proudly showed off her engagement ring.

show up phr. v.

1 (informal) to arrive at the place where someone is waiting for you: It was 9:20 when he finally showed up.

2 to be easy to see or notice: The bacteria showed up under the microscope.

3 show sb ↔ up to do something that embarrasses someone or make him/her seem stupid when other people are there

show² n. [C] 1 a performance in a theater or on radio or television: a new show opening on Broadway | a popular TV show → TELEVISION 2 a collection of things for the public to look at: the spring flower show | a Paris fashion show 3 a show of sth something that someone does in order to make a particular feeling or quality clear to someone else: The army marched through the town in a show of force. 4 make a show of sth (disapproving) to do something in a very clear way so that other people notice that you are doing it: She made a show of interest. 5 on show if something is on show, it is in a place where it can be seen by the public: The photographs will be on show until the end of the month. 6 let's get this show on the road (spoken) said when you want to tell people it is time to start working or start a trip show and tell n. [U] an activity for children in which they bring an object to school and tell the other children about it show biz /ˈʃoʊ bɪz/ n. [U] (informal) SHOW BUSINESS

'show business n. [U] the entertainment industry show-case /ˈʃoʊkɛɪs/ n. [C] an event or situation that is designed to show the good qualities of a person, organization, etc.: a showcase for new musical talent —showcase v. [T] show-down /ˈʃoʊdaʊn/ n. [C] a meeting, argument, fight, etc. that will settle a disagreement or competition that has continued for a long time: a showdown between the top two teams in the league show-er¹ /ˈʃaʊə/ n. [C] 1 a thing that you stand under to wash your whole body: The phone always rings when I'm in the shower. 2 an act of washing your body while standing under the shower: Hurry up! I want to take a shower too. 3 a short period of rain: Showers are expected later today.

THESAURUS

rain, drizzle, downpour, sleet

→ RAIN¹

4 a party at which presents are given to a woman who is going to get married or have a baby: We're having a baby shower for Paula on Friday.

shower² v. 1 [I] to wash your whole body while standing under a shower 2 [I,T] to cover a person or place with a lot of small things: People standing near the window were showered with broken glass. 3 [T] to give someone a lot of something: Mother showered us with gifts.

show-ing /ˈʃoʊɪŋ/ n. 1 [C] an occasion when a movie, art show, etc. can be seen or looked at: a special showing of Georgia O'Keeffe's paintings 2 [C usually singular] something that shows how well or badly you are doing: The senator made a strong showing at the polls.

show-man /ˈʃoʊmən/ n. (plural showmen /-mənz/) [C] someone who is good at entertaining people and getting a lot of public attention —showmanship n. [U] shown /ʃoʊn/ v. the past participle of SHOW¹

'show-off n. [C] (informal, disapproving) someone who always tries to show how smart s/he is or how much skill s/he has so that other people will admire him/her: Don't be such a show-off!

show-piece /ˈʃoʊpiːs/ n. [C] something that an organization, government, etc. wants people to see because it is a successful example of what they are doing show-room /ˈʃoʊrʊm/ n. [C] a large room where you can look at things that are for sale: a car showroom show-y /ˈʃoʊi/ adj. very colorful, big, expensive, etc. in a way that attracts people's attention: a showy ring shrank /fræŋk/ v. the past tense of SHRINK¹

shrap-nel /ˈʃræpnəl/ n. [U] small pieces of metal from a bomb or bullet that has exploded [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Henry Shrapnel (1761-1842), British army officer who invented such bombs]

shred¹ /ʃred/ n. [C] 1 a small thin piece that is torn or cut roughly from something: The kitten had torn/ripped the toy to shreds. 2 a very small amount: There's not a shred of evidence against him (=there is none at all).

S

shred² v. (shredded, shredding) [T] 1 to cut or tear something into shreds → *see picture at CUT*¹

THESAURUS cut, chop (up), slice, dice, peel, carve, grate → *CUT*¹

2 to put a document into a shredder shred-der /'ʃredə/ n. [C] a machine that cuts documents into small pieces so that no one can read them shrewd /ʃrud/ adj. good at judging what people or situations are really like, especially in a way that makes you successful: a shrewd businesswoman [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 shrew in the old meaning “very bad man”]

shriek /ʃrik/ v. [I,T] to shout loudly, or to say something in a very loud voice, especially because you are frightened, excited, angry, etc. [SYN] scream: They were dragged from their homes, shrieking and weeping. | “I’ll kill you,” Anne shrieked at him. —shriek n. [C]

THESAURUS shout, scream, yell, holler → *SHOUT*¹

shrill /ʃrɪl/ adj. a shrill sound is high and unpleasant: shrill voices

THESAURUS high, high-pitched, piercing → *HIGH*¹ loud, noisy, ear-splitting → *LOUD*¹ shrimp /ʃrɪmp/ n. [C,U] a small curved sea animal that has ten legs and a soft shell, or the meat from this animal shrine /ʃraɪn/ n. [C] 1 a place that is related to a holy event or holy person, and that people visit for religious reasons 2 a place that people visit and respect because it is related to a famous person: Elvis Presley’s home has become a shrine. [ORIGIN: Old English scrin, from Latin scrinium “case, box”] shrink¹ /ʃrɪŋk/ v. (past tense shrank /ʃræŋk/, past participle shrunk /ʃrʌŋk/) 1 [I,T] to become smaller, or to make something smaller: My sweater shrank in the dryer. 2 [I,T] to become smaller in amount, size, or value: Profits have been shrinking over the last year. 3 [I] to move away because you are afraid: She shrank back in fright.

shrink from sth phr. v. to avoid doing something difficult or unpleasant: Many people shrink from discussing such personal issues.

shrink² n. [C] (informal, humorous) a PSYCHIATRIST shrink-age /'ʃrɪŋkɪdʒ/ n. [U] the act of shrinking, or the amount that something shrinks shrink-wrapped adj. goods that are shrink-wrapped are wrapped tightly in plastic —shrink-wrap n. [U] shrive-el /'ʃrɪvəl/ also shrivel up v. [I,T] if something shrivels, or if it is shriveled, it becomes smaller and its surface is covered in lines because it is dry or old: The flowers had shriveled up. —shriveled adj.: her shriveled hands

shroud¹ /ʃraʊd/ n. [C] 1 a cloth that is wrapped around a dead person’s body before it is buried 2 something that hides or covers something: a shroud of fog

shroud² v. 1 be shrouded in darkness/mist/cloud etc. to be so dark that you cannot see anything, or be completely covered and hidden by mist, cloud, etc.: mountains shrouded in clouds 2 be shrouded in mystery/secret etc. to be mysterious, secret, etc.

shrub /ʃrʌb/ n. [C] a small bush shrub-ber-y /'ʃrʌbəri/ n. [U] shrubs planted close together in a group

shrug /ʃrʌg/ v. (shrugged, shrugging) [I,T] to raise and then lower your shoulders in order to show that you do not know something or do not care about something: Dan shrugged and went back to what he was doing. | Melanie shrugged her shoulders. —shrug n. [C]: “I don’t know,” he said with a shrug.

shrug sth ↔ off phr. v. to treat something as unimportant and not worry about it: Marge tried to shrug off her failure.

shrunk /ʃrʌŋk/ v. the past participle of SHRINK¹ shrunk-en /'ʃrʌŋkən/ adj. having become smaller or been made smaller: a shrunk sweater shuck /ʃʌk/ v. [T] to remove the outer cover of a vegetable such as corn or PEAS, or the shell of OYSTERS or CLAMS shucks /ʃʌks/ interjection (old-fashioned) said in order to show you are a little disappointed about something shud-der /'ʃʌdə/ v. [I] to shake because you are frightened or cold, or because you think something is very unpleasant: She shuddered at the thought. —shudder n. [C] shuf-fle¹ /'ʃʌfəl/ v. 1 [I] to walk slowly and in a noisy way, without lifting your feet off the ground: an old man shuffling across the room 2 shuffle your feet to keep moving your feet slightly because you are bored or embarrassed: Ernie looked nervous and shuffled his feet. 3 [T] to move something such as papers into a different order or into different positions: Ginny shuffled the papers on her desk. 4 [I,T] to mix playing cards into a different order before playing a game with them shuffle² n. be/get lost in the shuffle to not be noticed or considered because there are so many other things to deal with shuf-fle-board /'ʃʌfəl,bɔ:d/ n. [U] a game in which you use a long stick to push a flat round object along a smooth surface toward an area with numbers on it shun /ʃʌn/ v. (shunned, shunning) [T] to avoid someone or something deliberately: She shuns publicity.

shunt /ʃʌnt/ v. [T] to move someone or something to another place or position, especially in a way that seems unfair: Some of the children had been shunted aside into slower classes.

shush /ʃʌʃ, ʃʊʃ/ v. 1 shush! (spoken) said in order to tell someone, especially a child, to be quiet 2 [T] to tell someone to be quiet: She started to complain, but Betty shushed her.

shut /ʃʌt/ v. (past tense and past participle shut, present participle shutting) [I,T] to close something, or to become closed: Do you want me to shut the window? | I heard the back door shut. | She leaned back and shut her eyes. [ORIGIN: Old English scyttan] shut sb/sth away phr. v. to put someone or something in a place away from other people: He shut himself away in his office.

shut down phr. v. shut sth ↔ down if a company, factory, machine, etc. shuts down, or if you shut it down, it stops operating: Three nuclear generators were shut down for safety reasons. | How do I shut down this machine?

shut off phr. v. 1 shut sth ↔ off if a machine, tool, etc. shuts off, or if you shut it off, it stops operating: We shut the engine off before it overheated. | The heat shuts off automatically. 2 shut sth ↔ off to prevent goods or supplies from being available or being delivered: Food, oil, and gas supplies were shut off during the fighting. 3 shut yourself off to avoid meeting and talking to other people: After his wife's death, Pete shut himself off from the rest of the family.

shut out phr. v. 1 shut sb ↔ out to deliberately not let someone join in an activity, process, etc.: Many of the working poor are being shut out of the health care system. 2 shut sth ↔ out to stop yourself from seeing, hearing, or thinking about something: He can shut out the rest of the world when he's working. 3 shut out sb to defeat an opposing team and prevent them from getting any points: The Blue Jays shut out the Phillies 3–0.

shut up phr. v. 1 shut up! (spoken) said in order to tell someone rudely to stop talking 2 shut sb up to make someone stop talking or be quiet: I wish I could say something that would calm him down and shut him up.

shut² adj. [not before noun] not open [SYN] closed: We heard the door slam shut behind us. | Squeeze your eyes shut.

shut-down /ˈʃʌtdaʊn/ n. [C] the closing of a factory, business, or piece of machinery: a shut-down of the paper mill

'shut-eye n. [U] (informal) sleep: I really need to get/catch some shut-eye (=go to sleep).

shut-ter /ˈʃʌtə/ n. [C] 1 a wooden or metal cover that can be closed over the outside of a window 2 a part of a camera that opens to let light onto the film shut-tle¹ /ˈʃʌtl/ n. [C] 1 an airplane, bus, or train that makes regular short trips between two places: the Washington-New York shuttle | The hotel provides a free shuttle service to restaurants downtown. 2 a SPACE SHUTTLE shuttle² v. [T] to travel or move people regularly between two places: The visitors were shuttled between the hotel and the conference center twice a day.

shut-tle-cock /ˈʃʌtl,kɒk/ n. [C] a small light object that you hit over the net in the game of BADMINTON [SYN] birdie

shy¹ /ʃaɪ/ adj. 1 nervous and embarrassed about meeting and speaking to other people, especially people you do not know: As a teenager, I was painfully shy (=extremely shy). | She's too shy to speak up for herself.

THESAURUS

timid – not brave or confident: She's a good player, but timid on the court.

bashful – shy and not willing to say very much: Rachel blushed and gave me a bashful smile.

demure (formal) – a girl or woman who is demure is shy, quiet, and always behaves well: Tammy was quiet and demure.

self-conscious – worried and embarrassed about what you look like or what other people think of you: I was too self-conscious to be a good actor.

reserved – not liking to express your emotions or talk about your problems: a quiet, reserved man introverted – thinking a lot about your own interests, problems, etc., and not liking to be with other people: She was an introverted person who did not become involved in campus activities.

retiring (formal) – not wanting to be with other people: a shy and retiring woman → INSECURE, SOCIABLE

2 sb is not shy about sth used in order to say that someone is very willing to do something or get involved in something: John has strong opinions, and he's not shy about voicing them. [ORIGIN: Old English sceoh] —shyly adv.: She smiled shyly. —shyness n. [U] shy² v. (shied, shies) [I] if a horse shies, it makes a sudden movement away from something because it is frightened shy away from sth phr. v. to avoid doing something because you are not confident enough about it: Erik had always shied away from speaking in public.

shy-ster /'faɪstə/ n. [C] (informal) a dishonest person, especially a lawyer or politician sib-ling /'sɪblɪŋ/ n. 1 [C] (formal) your brother or sister: All of her siblings are still in Korea. 2 sib-ling rivalry competition between brothers and sisters for the attention of their parents sic /sɪk/ adv. ENG. LANG. ARTS used after a word that you have copied into a piece of writing in order to show that you know it was not spelled or used correctly sick /sɪk/ adj. 1 suffering from a disease or illness: His mother's very sick. | Everyone ate the same thing, but I was the only one who got sick. | Leslie called in sick (=telephoned to say she would not come to work because she was sick) today.

THESAURUS

feel sick – to feel sick in your stomach and as if you might vomit not feel good/well – to feel sick: Mommy, I don't feel good.

ill – sick: More than 50 school children became ill.

not very well: You don't look very well (=you look sick).

under the weather (spoken) – slightly sick: I've been a little under the weather lately.

ailing (formal) – weak and sick: his ailing grandmother infirm (formal) – weak or sick, especially because of being old: They looked at nursing homes for their elderly and infirm father.

2 be sick to bring food up from your stomach through your mouth (SYN vomit: I think I'm going to be sick.) 3 the sick people who are sick: nurses taking care of the sick and wounded 4 feel sick (to your stomach) to feel as if you are going to vomit: I felt so sick after eating all that popcorn. 5 be sick (and tired) of/be sick to death of to be angry and bored with something that has been happening for a long time: I'm sick and tired of her excuses. 6 make me sick (spoken) a) to make you feel strong anger and disapproval: People who treat animals like that make me sick. b) to make someone feel very JEALOUS – used humorously: He's so smart and successful it makes me sick! 7 be worried sick to be extremely worried: Why didn't you call? We were worried sick about you. 8 someone who is sick does things that are strange and cruel: The murders are obviously the work of a sick mind. 9 sick stories, jokes, etc. deal with death and suffering in a cruel or unpleasant way [ORIGIN: Old English seoc] sick-en /'sɪkən/ v. 1 [T] to make you feel strong anger and disapproval: We were sickened by newspaper reports of child abuse. 2 [I] to become sick sick-en-ing /'sɪkənɪŋ/ adj. 1 very shocking, annoying, or upsetting: It's sickening to see so many poor people in such a wealthy country. 2 disgusting and making you feel as if you want to vomit: the sickening smell of rotting meat sick-le /'sɪkəl/ n. [C] a tool with a blade in the shape of a hook, used for cutting wheat or long grass

'sick leave n. [U] the time you are allowed to be away from work because of sickness sick-ly /'sɪkli/ adj. 1 weak, unhealthy, and often sick: a sickly child 2 a sickly smell, taste, etc. is disgusting and makes you feel sick —sickly adv.: the sickly sweet smell of cheap perfume sick-ness /'sɪknɪs/ n. 1 [U] the state or feeling of being sick: soldiers suffering from hunger and sickness | motion/car/sea etc. sickness (=sickness caused by traveling in a car, boat, etc.)

THESAURUS disease, illness → DISEASE

2 [C] a particular illness: common sicknesses such as colds and ear infections → MORNING SICKNESS sick-o /'sɪkou/ n. (plural sickos) [C] (informal) someone who gets pleasure from things that most people find disgusting or upsetting: What kind of sicko would write something like that?

'sick pay n. [U] money paid by an employer to a worker who cannot work because of illness

side¹ /saɪd/ n. [C]

1 PART OF AN AREA one of the two areas that something is divided into: Jim grew up on Detroit's east side. | They own a house on the other side of the lake. | She tilted her head to one side, considering the question.

2 NEXT TO STH [usually singular] the place or area directly next to someone or something: Stand on this side of me so Dad can get a photo. | Her mother was always at/by her side in the hospital.

3 side by side a) next to each other: They walked side by side. b) if people live, work, etc. side by side, they do it together, have a good relationship, and help each other: Doctors and scientists are working side by side to find a cure for AIDS.

4 EDGE the part of an object or area that is farthest from the middle, at or near the edge: We pulled over to the side of the road.

5 OF A BUILDING/VEHICLE ETC. a part of something that is not the front, back, top, or bottom: A truck ran into the left side of the bus.

6 OF A THIN OBJECT one of the two surfaces of a thin flat object: You can write on both sides of the paper.

7 FLAT SURFACE one of the flat surfaces of something: A cube has six sides. | a five-sided shape

8 from side to side moving continuously from right to left: The boat swayed from side to side as waves hit it.

9 from all sides from every direction: enemy gunfire coming from all sides

10 SUBJECT/SITUATION one part of a subject, problem, or situation: I'd like to hear her side of the story. | You should look on the bright side (=think about the positive parts of the situation). | Who's in charge of the creative side of the project?

11 ARGUMENT/WAR ETC. one of the people, groups, teams, or countries opposing each other in an argument, war, etc.: Nancy's on our side

(=agrees with us). | We were on the winning/losing side. | *Teachers should never take sides (=support just one person or opinion).

12 FOOD a dish that you eat in addition to the main dish of a meal in a restaurant (SYN) side dish, side order: I'll have the roast beef sandwich with a side of fries.

13 on the side a) in addition to your regular job: He runs a little business on the side. b) in addition to the main dish that you order in a restaurant: Could I have a salad on the side?

14 PART OF YOUR BODY the left or right part of your body from your shoulder to the top of your leg: Turn over and lie on your right side.

15 OF A FAMILY the parents, grandparents, etc. of your mother or father: There's a history of heart disease on my mother's side.

16 MOUNTAIN/VALLEY one of the sloping areas of a hill, valley, etc.

side² adj. [only before noun] 1 in or on the side of something: You can leave by the side door. 2 side street/road etc. a street, road, etc. that is smaller than a main street: We parked the car on a side street. 3 from the side of something: a side view of the statue side³ v.

side against sb phr. v. to argue against a person or group in an argument, fight, etc.

side with sb phr. v. to support a person or group in an argument, fight, etc.: It seems like Frank always sides with Dad.

side-board /'saɪdbɔːrd/ n. [C] a long low piece of furniture in a DINING ROOM that you store dishes and glasses in side-burns /'saɪdbɜːnz/ n. [plural] hair that grows down the sides of a man's face in front of his ears [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 burnsides type of beard in which the chin is shaved, from Ambrose Burnside (1824–81), U.S. general who wore such a beard] side-car /'saɪdkɑː/ n. [C] an enclosed seat that is joined to the side of a MOTORCYCLE and has a separate wheel

'side dish n. [C] a dish that is served along with the main food at a meal

'side effect n. [C] 1 an effect that a drug has on your body in addition to the intended effect: The drug has no harmful side effects. 2 an unexpected result of an activity, situation, or event

THESAURUS result, consequences, aftereffects → RESULT¹

side-kick /'saɪd,kɪk/ n. [C] (informal) someone who is a close friend or helper of a more important person, especially in a movie or on a television show side-line¹ /'saɪdlɪn/ n. [C] 1 one of the two lines that form the edges of a field where sports are played, and the area just outside these lines 2 something that you do to earn money in addition to your regular job: Mark does translation work as a sideline. 3 on the sidelines not taking part in an activity even though you want to: There are still buyers on the sidelines waiting to get stocks.

sideline² v. be sidelined to not be included in a game or event because you are injured or because you are not as good as someone else: Their quarterback was sidelined with a knee injury.

side-long /'saɪdlɒŋ/ adj. a sidelong look/glance a way of looking at someone by moving your eyes to the side, done secretly or when you are nervous

'side order n. [C] a small amount of a food ordered in a restaurant to be eaten with a meal, but served on a separate dish: *a side order of onion rings side-show /'saɪdʃəʊ/ n. [C] a separate small part of a CIRCUS or fair, that often has very unusual performers side-step /'saɪdstɛp/ v. (sidestepped, side-stepping) [T] to avoid a difficult question or decision: Congressman Howell sidestepped the reporters' questions.

side-swipe /'saɪdswaɪp/ v. [T] to hit the side of a car or other vehicle with the side of your car side-track /'saɪdtræk/ v. [T] to make someone stop doing or saying something by making him/her interested in something else: I think we're getting sidetracked from the main issue here.

side-view 'mirror n. [C] a mirror attached to the side of a car side-walk /'saɪdwɔːk/ n. [C] a hard surface or path for people to walk on along the side of a street side-ways /'saɪdweɪz/ adv. toward one side, or with the side facing forward: Mel's car slid side-ways as it hit the ice.

sid-ing /'saɪdɪŋ/ n. [U] wood, metal, or plastic in long narrow pieces, used for covering the sides of houses: They've put new aluminum siding on their home.

si-dle /'saɪdl/ v. [I] to walk toward someone or something slowly, as if you do not want to be noticed: Theo sidled up to me with an embarrassed look.

siege /sɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] a situation in which an army surrounds a place and stops supplies of food, weapons, etc. from getting to it: *a city under siege (=surrounded by an army) si-es-ta /si'ɛstə/ n. [C] a short sleep in the afternoon, often taken by people in warm countries → NAP [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Spanish, Latin sexta (hora) "sixth hour, noon"] sieve /sɪv/ n. [C] a kitchen tool that looks like a wire net, used for separating solids from liquids —sieve v. [T]

sift /sɪft/ v. [T] 1 to put flour, sugar, etc. through a sifter in order to remove large pieces 2 also sift through to examine something very carefully in order to find something: The commission will have to sift through thousands of White House documents.

sift-er /'sɪftə/ n. [C] a kitchen tool made of a tube with a wire net inside, through which you put flour, sugar, etc. in order to remove or break up large pieces sigh¹ /saɪ/ v. [I] to breathe out loudly and slowly, especially when you are tired or in order to express a strong emotion: She sighed deeply and shook her head.

sigh² n. [C] an act or sound of sighing: Judy sat down with a sigh of relief.

sight¹ /saɪt/ n.

1 ABILITY TO SEE [U] the physical ability to see → EYESIGHT: My grandmother is losing her sight (=going blind).

2 ACT OF SEEING [singular,U] the act of seeing something: He can't stand the sight of blood. | We caught sight of (=suddenly saw) Henry as we turned the corner.

3 STH YOU SEE [C] something you can see, especially if it is something beautiful, unusual, etc.: The Wrigley Building is one of the most famous sights in Chicago. | It was a common sight to see children begging on the streets.

4 in/within sight (of sth) a) inside the area that you can see: There was nobody in sight. | We camped within sight of the lake. b) likely to happen soon: Peace is in sight.

5 out of sight (of sth) outside the area that you can see: Keep your car windows rolled up and your valuables out of sight.

6 not let sb out of your sight to make sure that someone stays near you: Stay here, and don't let the baby out of your sight.

7 lose sight of sth to forget an important part of something because you are too concerned about the details: We have lost sight of the fact that the computer is only a tool.

8 out of sight, out of mind used to say that you will soon forget someone or something if you do not see him, her, or it for a short period of time

9 ON A WEAPON [C usually plural] the part of a gun or weapon that helps you aim at something [ORIGIN: Old English gesiht]

sight² v. [T] to see something from a long distance away, especially something you have been looking for: Two bears have been sighted in the area.

sight-ed /'saɪtɪd/ adj. able to see (ANT) blind sight-ing /'saɪtɪŋ/ n. [C] an occasion when something is seen, especially when it is something unusual or rare sight-read /'saɪtˈriːd/ v. (past tense and past participle sight-read /-rɛd/) [I,T] ENG. LANG. ARTS to play or sing written music that you are looking at for the first time, without practicing it first sight-see-ing /'saɪt,siː/ n. [U] the activity of visiting famous or interesting places, especially as a tourist: We went sightseeing and saw a play.

—sightseer n. [C]

'sight word n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word which a reader recognizes immediately as a whole without needing to examine its different parts

sign¹ /saɪn/ n. [C] 1 a piece of paper, metal, etc. with words or a picture that gives people information, a warning, or instructions: Follow the signs that say "Montlake Bridge." | a no smoking sign 2 an event, fact, etc. that shows that something exists or is happening, or that it will happen in the future: The house showed no signs of a forced entry. | That's a good/bad sign! | Extreme tiredness is an early sign of the disease. | There are worrying signs that the agreement will fail.

COLLOCATIONS

clear/obvious/visible sign – one that you can clearly see or understand good/positive/encouraging sign – one that tells you that something good might happen bad/warning sign – one that tells you that something bad might happen early sign – one that shows what is happening at the beginning of a process, situation, etc.

sure sign – one that proves that something is true

3 a picture or shape that has a particular meaning [SYN] symbol: A dollar sign looks like "$." 4 a movement or sound that you make without speaking, in order to tell someone something: 'I'm ready to go,' he said, giving the crowd a thumbs-up sign. 5 one of the SYMBOLS of the ZODIAC [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French signe, from Latin signum "mark, sign, image, seal"]

sign² v. 1 [I,T] to write your name on a letter or document to show that you wrote it or agree with it, or to make it official: Rundon signed the agreement last week. | Underneath, she had signed her name. | The players signed autographs after the game. → see picture at CHECK² 2 [T] to officially agree to employ someone: Columbia Records signed her to a three-year contract. 3 [I] to tell someone something by using movements: She signed to us to get out of the way.

sign sth ↔ away phr. v. to sign a document that gives your property or legal rights to someone else: The Puyallup Tribe signed away much of their land rights.

sign for sth phr. v. to sign a document to prove that you have received something: I need you to sign for this package.

sign (sb) ↔ in phr. v. to write your name or someone's name in a book when you enter a hotel, an office building, etc.

sign off phr. v. 1 to officially say or show that you approve of a document, plan, or idea: Both sides signed off on the agreement. 2 to say goodbye at the end of a radio or television broadcast, or at the end of a letter sign on phr. v. to agree to work for someone or to do something, and usually to sign a document showing this: Several boys signed on as volunteers.

sign out phr. v. 1 sign (sb) out to write your name in a book when you leave a hotel, an office building, etc. 2 sign sth ↔ out to write your name on a form or in a book to show that you have taken or borrowed something sign sth ↔ over phr. v. to sign an official document that gives your property or legal rights to someone else: Daley signed over his shares to his partner.

sign up phr. v. 1 sign sb ↔ up if someone is signed up by an organization, s/he signs a contract and agrees to work for that organization: Navy recruiters want to sign up people with technical abilities. 2 to put your name on a list because you want to take a class, belong to a group, etc.: 500 children have signed up for the music classes.

sig-nal¹ /ˈsɪɡnəl/ n. [C] 1 a sound, action, or event that gives information or tells someone to do something: He gave the signal to start. | I phoned, but only got a busy signal (=a sound telling you the phone is being used). | The governor is sending signals that he will run for president. 2 PHYSICS a series of light waves, sound waves, etc. that carry an image, sound, or message to something such as a radio or television: After landing on the asteroid, the spacecraft will continue to send/transmit signals to Earth. | The 18-inch dish is able to receive signals directly from a satellite.

signal² v. 1 [I,T] to make a movement or sound, without speaking, that gives information or tells someone to do something: Marshall signaled for coffee. 2 [T] to make something clear by what you say or do: Carter has signaled his intention to run for mayor. 3 [T] to be a sign or proof that something is going to happen: Bad behavior may signal a learning problem. 4 [I] to show the direction you intend to turn in a car, by using lights (SYN) indicate: Don't forget to signal before you change lanes.

sig-na-to-ry /ˈsɪɡnəˌtɔːri/ n. (plural signatories) [C] (formal) one of the people or countries that sign an agreement sig-na-ture /ˈsɪɡnətʃə/ n. [C] your name written the way you usually write it, for example at the end of a letter, on a check, etc.: We need your signature on these documents. → WRITE sig-nif-i-cance /sɪɡˈnɪfəkəns/ (AC) n. [U] the importance or meaning of something, especially something that might affect you in the future: the historical significance of the battle

sig-nif-i-cant /sɪɡˈnɪfəkənt/ (AC) adj. 1 noticeable or important (ANT) insignificant: a significant 20th century artist | significant differences between the two groups

THE SAURUS important, crucial, vital, essential, major, key → IMPORTANT

2 having a special meaning that is not known to everyone: Tom gave her a significant look. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, present participle of significare, from signum “mark, sign, image, seal”] —significantly adv.

significant other n. [C] (humorous) your husband, wife, girlfriend, or boyfriend sig-ni-fy /ˈsɪɡnəˌfaɪ/ (AC) v. (signified, signifies) [T] 1 to represent, mean, or be a sign of something: The image of a dove signifies peace. | The flag signified that the ship was Japanese. 2 to express a wish, feeling, or opinion by doing something: Everyone nodded to signify their agreement.

sign-ing /ˈsaɪnɪŋ/ n. [U] the act of writing your name on something such as an agreement or a contract: the signing of the peace agreement sign language n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a language that uses hand movements instead of spoken words, used by people who cannot hear sign-post /ˈsaɪnpəʊst/ n. [C] 1 something that is used for holding a street sign up 2 something that shows you what is happening or what you should do: The employment figures are a key sign-post of the economy's performance.

si-lence¹ /ˈsaɪləns/ n. 1 [C,U] complete quiet because no one is talking, or a period of complete quiet: There was a stunned/awkward/embarrassed etc. silence. | a brief/short/long silence | The family sat eating in silence. 2 [U] complete absence of sound or noise: the silence of space | A blackbird's call broke the silence.

silence² v. [T] 1 (written) to make someone stop criticizing or giving his/her opinions: Critics of the government were silenced. 2 to make someone stop talking, or to stop something making noise: A shout from the soldier silenced everybody.

si-lenc-er /ˈsaɪlənsə/ n. [C] a thing that is put on the end of a gun so that it makes less noise when it is fired si-lent /ˈsaɪlənt/ adj. 1 not saying anything or making any noise (SYN) quiet: silent prayer | The crowd fell silent (=became quiet) when the President appeared. 2 failing or refusing to talk about something: Those closest to the actress are remaining silent about the affair. 3 [only before noun] a silent movie has pictures but no sound 4 a silent letter in a word is not pronounced [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, present participle of silere “to be silent”] —silently adv.

silent partner n. [C] someone who owns part of a business but does not make decisions about how it operates sil-hou-ette¹ /ˈsɪluːet, ˈsɪlu,et/ n. [C] a dark shape or shadow, seen against a light background [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French, from Étienne de Silhouette (1709-67), French politician famous for not liking to spend money whose name became associated with a cheap simple picture]

silhouette² v. [T] to appear as a silhouette: skyscrapers silhouetted against the sky

sil-i-cate /ˈsɪləˌkeɪt, -kæt/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES one of a group of common solid mineral substances that exist naturally in the Earth's surface sil-i-con /ˈsɪlɪˌkən, -kən/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY an ELEMENT that is often used for making glass, bricks, parts for computers, etc.

silicon chip n. [C] IT a computer CHIP silk /sɪlk/ n. [C,U] a thin thread produced by a silkworm, or the soft, usually shiny cloth made from this thread: a silk shirt silk-en /ˈsɪlkən/ adj. (literary) soft and smooth like silk, or made of silk: her silken hair silk-worm /ˈsɪlk-wɜːm/ n. [C] a type of CATERPILLAR (=insect) that produces silk silk-y /ˈsɪlki/ adj. soft and smooth like silk: silky fur sill /sɪl/ n. [C] the narrow flat piece of wood at the base of a window frame silly /ˈsɪli/ adj. (comparative sillier, superlative silliest) not sensible or serious: a silly thing to do | You're being silly. [ORIGIN: Old English sælig "happy"] —silliness n. [U]

S

sil-lo /ˈsaɪloʊ/ n. (plural silos) [C] 1 a tall round building used for storing grain, animal food, etc. 2 a large structure under the ground from which a MISSILE can be fired silt /sɪlt/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES sand or mud that is carried by the water in a river, and settles in a bend of the river or in the entrance to a port

sil-ver /ˈsɪlvə/ n. [U] 1 CHEMISTRY a valuable shiny white metal that is an ELEMENT and is used for making jewelry, spoons, etc. 2 the color of this metal [ORIGIN: Old English seolfor] silver ² adj. 1 made of silver: a silver spoon → see picture at MATERIAL 2 colored silver: a silver dress silver anni'versary n. [C] the date that is exactly 25 years after an important event, especially a wedding silver medal n. [C] a prize made of silver that is given to someone who finishes second in a race or competition sil-ver-ware /ˈsɪlvə,wɛr/ n. [U] objects such as knives, spoons, and forks that are made of silver or a similar metal sim-i-lar /ˈsɪmələ/ (Ac) adj. almost the same but not exactly the same (ANT) dissimilar → ALIKE: kids with similar backgrounds | The system is similar to one used in other schools. | The two cheeses are similar in flavor. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French similaire, from Latin similis "like, similar"] like – similar in some way to something else: It tastes a little like chicken.

THESAURUS

alike – very similar: She and her sister look alike.

comparable (formal) – similar to something else in size, number, quality, etc.: Is the pay rate comparable to that of other companies?

akin to sth – similar to something: He looked at me with something akin to awe.

analogous (formal) – similar to another situation or thing, so that you can compare them or use one thing to help you understand the other: The communication system is analogous to the body's nervous system.

identical – exactly the same: The two pictures were identical.

matching – having the same color, style, or pattern as something else: The twins were dressed in matching outfits.

sim-i-lar-i-ty /ˌsɪməˈlærəti/ (Ac) n. (plural similarities) [C,U] the quality of being similar, or a particular way in which things or people are similar: There are similarities with German, but Yiddish is a distinct language. | his similarity to my brother | Discuss the similarities and differences between the two writers.

sim-i-lar-ly /ˈsɪmələli/ (Ac) adv. in a similar way: The two cities are laid out similarly.

similar 'polygons n. [plural] MATH similar POLYGONS (=flat shapes with three or more sides) have the same shape and equal angles, but do not have to be the same size sim-i-le /ˈsɪməli/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS an expression in which you compare two things using the words "like" or "as," for example "as red as blood" → METAPHOR sim-mer /ˈsɪmə/ v. 1 [I,T] to cook food in liquid and not allow it to boil 2 simmer down (spoken) to become less excited or angry and more calm —simmer n. [singular] sim-per /ˈsɪmpə/ v. [I] to smile in a way that is silly and annoying

THESAURUS smile, grin, beam, smirk → SMILE

sim-ple /ˈsɪmpəl/ adj. 1 not difficult or complicated (SYN) easy: a simple math problem | The solution is fairly/pretty/relatively simple. | It's simple to make.

THESAURUS

easy – not difficult: It was an easy class.

straightforward – simple and easy to understand: a straightforward task uncomplicated – not difficult to understand or deal with, and not having many parts: The instructions are clear and uncomplicated.

facile (formal) – too simple and showing a lack of careful thought or understanding: a facile explanation

2 made in a plain style, without a lot of decoration or things that are not necessary: a simple white dress 3 not involving anything else: He plays for the love of music, pure/plain and simple. | The simple fact/truth is we don't have the money. ▶ Don't say "The fact is simple." ◀ 4 consisting of only one or a few necessary parts: simple tools like a hammer and saw 5 ordinary and not special in any way: I live a very simple life. 6 simple past/present/future ENG. LANG. ARTS a tense of a verb that is not formed with an AUXILIARY such as "have" or "be" [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French "plain, uncomplicated," from Latin simplus, from sim- "one" + -plus "multiplied by"] simple 'interest n. [U] ECONOMICS INTEREST that is calculated on the sum of money that you first

INVESTED, and does not include the interest it has already earned → COMPOUND INTEREST simple-minded adj. not able to understand complicated things simple 'sentence n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a sentence that consists of one main CLAUSE, for example: "He ate the cake."

sim-plic-i-ty /sɪmˈplɪsəti/ n. [U] the quality of being simple and not complicated, especially when this is attractive or useful: the simplicity of his writing style | For simplicity (=to make something easy), divide the class into three groups.

sim-ply-fy /ˈsɪmpləˌfaɪ/ v. (simplified, simplifies) [T] 1 to make something clearer and easier to do or understand → OVERSIMPLIFY: a promise to simplify the tax forms 2 MATH to change an EQUATION, FRACTION, or other mathematical expression into its simplest form, using ARITHMETIC and ALGEBRA —simplification /ˌsɪmpləˈfeɪʃən/ n. [U] sim-plis-tic /sɪmˈplɪstɪk/ adj. (disapproving) treating difficult subjects in a way that is too simple: a simplistic view of the problem

sim-ply /ˈsɪmpli/ adv. 1 only (SYN) just: You shouldn't buy something simply because it's on sale. 2 used in order to emphasize what you are saying: The movie simply isn't any good. 3 in a way that is easy to understand: To put it simply (=explain it in a simple way), inflation means that prices rise. 4 in a plain and ordinary way: Alanna was dressed quite simply.

sim-u-late /ˈsɪmyəˌleɪt/ (AC) v. [T] to make or do something that is not real but looks, sounds, or feels as though it is real: Computer models have simulated conditions on Mars. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, past participle of simulare "to copy," from similis "like, similar"] —simulator n. [C]: a flight simulator —simulated adj. → ARTIFICIAL sim-u-la-tion /ˌsɪmyəˈleɪʃən/ (AC) n. [C,U] something you do or make in order to practice what you would do in a real situation: a computer simulation used to train airline pilots si-mul-ta-ne-ous /ˌsaɪməlˈteɪniəs/ adj. happening or done at exactly the same time: a simultaneous broadcast on TV and radio [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Medieval Latin simultaneus, from Latin simul "at the same time"] —simultaneously adv.

sin¹ /sɪn/ n. 1 [C] something you do that is against religious laws: He confessed his sins to one of the priests. 2 [singular] (informal) something that you do not approve of: It's a sin to waste food.

sin² v. (sinned, sinning) [I] to do something wrong that is against religious laws sin³ MATH the written abbreviation of SINE

since /sɪns/ conjunction, prep., adv. 1 at or from a particular time in the past until now: I haven't seen him since we graduated from high school. | Paul had been waiting since 2 o'clock. | His ex-wife has since remarried, but he's still single. | We've lived here ever since we got married. | He had a car accident in 2002. Since then, he has been unemployed. 2 because: You'll have to get up early, since the bus leaves at 7 a.m. 3 since when? (spoken) used in questions to show anger or surprise: Since when did you start smoking? → see Grammar box at AGO sin-cere /sɪnˈsɪr/ adj. honest and true, or based on what you really feel or believe (ANT) insincere: a sincere apology [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin sin-cerus "clean, pure"] sin-cere-ly /sɪnˈsɪrli/ adv. 1 in a sincere way: Both men sincerely admired each other's work. 2 Sincerely/Sincerely yours/Yours sincerely an expression you write at the end of a formal letter before you sign your name sin-cer-i-ty /sɪnˈserəti/ n. [U] the quality of being honest, and really meaning or believing what you say: I don't doubt her sincerity, but I think she's got her facts wrong.

sine /saɪn/ n. [C] MATH the FRACTION that you calculate for an angle in a RIGHT TRIANGLE, by dividing the length of the side opposite the angle by the length of the HYPOTENUSE (=longest side) sin-ew /ˈsɪnju/ n. [C,U] BIOLOGY a strong CORD in the body that connects a muscle to a bone sin-ew-y /ˈsɪnyui/ adj. showing strong muscles sin-ful /ˈsɪnfəl/ adj. 1 morally wrong (SYN) wicked: a sinful man 2 (informal) very bad or wrong: a sinful waste of money

sing /sɪŋ/ v. (past tense sang /sæŋ/, past participle sung /sʌŋ/) 1 [I,T] to make musical sounds, songs, etc. with your voice: The kids sang songs about peace. | Jana sings in the church choir. | She started singing Georgie to sleep. 2 [I] if birds sing, they produce high musical sounds —singing n. [U] sing along phr. v. to sing with someone else who is already singing or playing music: Sing along to/with all your favorite tunes.

sing out phr. v. to sing or shout loudly and clearly sing. the written abbreviation of SINGULAR

singe /sɪndʒ/ v. [I,T] to burn something slightly on the surface or edge, or to be burned in this way sing-er /ˈsɪŋə/ n. [C] someone who sings, especially as a job: an opera singer

sin-gle¹ /ˈsɪŋɡəl/ adj. 1 only one: We lost the game by a single point. | a single sheet of paper 2 not married: Is he single? | a club for single men/women 3 single parent/mother/father a mother or father who takes care of her/his children by herself or himself, because s/he is not married 4 used in order to emphasize a separate thing: Smoking is the single most important cause of lung cancer. | This is the single biggest/greatest problem we face. | She visits her mother every single day. 5 intended to be used by only one person → DOUBLE: a single bed → see picture at BED¹ [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin singulus] single² n. [C] 1 a musical recording of only one song: her hit single 2 a one-dollar bill: Do you have any singles? 3 singles [plural] people who are not married: a singles bar (=where single people can go to drink and meet people) single 'file n. [U] a line with one person behind the other: The children walked in single file to the field.

single-handedly also single-handed adv. done by one person with no help from anyone else

THESAURUS alone, on your own, (all) by yourself, solo, independently, unaided → ALONE single 'market n. [C] ECONOMICS a group of countries in which there is freedom of movement of goods, services, money, and workers, and with an agreement on rules for production and trade. The European Union is a single market.

single-'minded adj. having one clear purpose and working hard to achieve it: a single-minded determination to succeed sin-gly /'sɪŋɡli/ adv. alone, or one at a time: people walking singly or in groups

S sing-song /'sɪŋsɒŋ/ n. [singular] a way of speaking in which your voice keeps rising and falling — singsong adj.

sin-gu-lar¹ /'sɪŋɡyələ/ adj. 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to the singular 2 [usually before noun] very great or noticeable: a singular achievement singular² n. the singular ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the form of a word that represents only one person or thing. For example, "child" is in the singular. → PLURAL sin-gu-lar-ly /'sɪŋɡyələli/ adv. (formal) in a way that is very noticeable or unusual: She wore a singularly inappropriate dress.

sin-is-ter /'sɪnɪstə/ adj. seeming to be bad or evil: There was something/nothing sinister about his financial dealings. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French sinistre, from Latin sinister "left-handed, unlucky"] sink¹ /sɪŋk/ v. (past tense sank /sæŋk/ or sunk /sʌŋk/, past participle sunk)

1 IN WATER [I,T] to go down below the surface of water, mud, etc., or to make something do this: The Titanic sank to the bottom of the ocean. | Submarines were ordered to sink enemy ships. → see picture at FLOAT¹ → DIVE¹

2 FALL/SIT DOWN [I] to fall down heavily, especially because you are weak or tired: I sank down into one of the soft chairs.

3 MOVE LOWER [I] to move down slowly to a lower level: The sun sank beneath the horizon.

4 GET WORSE [I] to gradually get into a worse state: In the 1930s, America sank deeper into the Depression.

5 DECREASE [I] to decrease in amount, number, value, etc.: House prices in the area are sinking fast.

6 be sunk (informal) to be in a situation in which you are certain to fail or have a lot of problems: If he doesn't lend us the money, we're sunk!

7 your heart sinks/your spirits sink if your heart or spirits sink, you lose your hope or confidence

8 a sinking feeling a feeling that you get when you realize that something very bad is beginning to happen

9 sink or swim to succeed or fail without help from anyone else

10 MONEY [T] to spend a lot of money on something (SYN) invest: They had sunk thousands into that house.

11 SPORTS [T] to get a basketball or GOLF ball into a basket or hole sink in phr. v.

if information, facts, etc. sink in, you begin to understand them or realize their full meaning: At first, what she said didn't really sink in.

sink² n. [C] an open container in a kitchen or BATHROOM that you fill with water to wash dishes, your hands, etc.: There was a pile of dirty dishes in the sink.

sin-ner /'sɪnə/ n. [C] someone who SINS sin-u-ous /'sɪnyuəs/ adj. curving and twisting smoothly, like the movements of a snake: a tree with sinuous branches si-nus /'saɪnəs/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the pair of hollow spaces in the bones of your face behind your nose sip¹ /sɪp/ v. (sipped, sipping) [I,T] to drink something slowly, swallowing only small amounts: Mrs. Hong sipped her tea.

sip² n. [C] a very small amount of a drink: He took a sip of coffee.

si-phon¹ /'saɪfən/ v. [T] 1 to take something away from the person, organization, etc. for which it was intended, especially to dishonestly take money: Aid was siphoned off by government officials for their own use. 2 SCIENCE to remove liquid from a container using a siphon siphon² n. [C] SCIENCE a bent tube that you use to get liquid out of a container, by holding one end of the tube at a lower level than the container

sir /sə/ n. 1 (spoken) used in order to speak politely to a man when you do not know his name or when you want to show respect: Can I help you, sir? | "Do you understand, Louise?" "Yes, sir." | Dear Sir (=used at the beginning of a business letter to a man when you do not know his name) 2 Sir a title used before the name of a KNIGHT: Sir Lancelot [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin senior "older"] sire /saɪə/ v. [T] (written) 1 to be the father of a child 2 to be the father of an animal — sire n. [C] si-ren /'saɪrən/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that makes very loud warning sounds, used on police cars, fire engines, etc.: I heard police sirens in the distance.

sir-loin /'sɔːləɪn/ also sirloin 'steak n. [C,U] a good piece of meat cut from the back of a cow

sis-sy /'sɪsi/ n. (plural sissies) [C] (informal) a boy that other boys do not approve of because he likes doing things that girls do —sissy adj.

sis-ter /'sɪstə/ n. [C] 1 a girl or woman who has the same parents as you → BROTHER: Mary is my big/older sister, and Kim is my little/younger sister. → RELATIVE¹ 2 used by women to talk about other women and to show that they have feelings of friendship and support toward them: Susan B. Anthony and other sisters fought for our right to vote. 3 also Sister a NUN: Sister Frances [ORIGIN: Old English sweostor] —sisterly adj.

sis-ter-hood /'sɪstəˌhʊd/ n. [U] a strong loyalty among women who share the same ideas and aims → BROTHERHOOD

'sister-in-law n. (plural sisters-in-law) [C] 1 the sister of your husband or wife 2 the wife of your brother, or the wife of your husband's or wife's brother sit /sɪt/ v. (past tense and past participle sat /sæt/, present participle sitting)

1 ON A SEAT [I] a) to be on a chair, a seat, or the ground with the top half of your body upright and your weight resting on your BUTTOCKS: The children sat around her on the floor. | I was sitting at my desk writing a letter. | Sit still (=sit without moving) and let me fix your hair. b) also sit down to move to a sitting position after you have been standing: He came and sat beside/next to her. → see picture on page A9

2 OBJECTS/BUILDINGS [I] to lie or be in a particular position or condition: Several books sat on the desk. | The house sat empty for two years.

3 NOT DO ANYTHING [I] to stay in one place for a long time, especially doing nothing useful: I can't sit here all day, I have work to do. | He was just sitting there, staring into space.

4 MAKE SB SIT [T] also sit sb down to make someone sit somewhere: She sat the boy in a corner.

5 TAKE CARE OF [I] to take care of a baby or child while his/her parents are not home (SYN) babysit

6 sit tight to stay where you are and not move, or to stay in the same situation and not do anything, while you are waiting for something: Investors should sit tight and not panic.

7 not sit well with sb if a situation, plan, etc. does not sit well with someone, s/he does not like it: A tax raise won't sit well with the voters.

8 sit on the fence to avoid saying which side of an argument you support or what your opinion is about something

9 MEET [I] to have an official meeting: The court sits once a month. [ORIGIN: Old English sittan] sit around phr. v.

to spend time resting or not doing anything useful or to spend a lot of time sitting and doing nothing useful: We were just sitting around talking.

sit back phr. v.

1 to get into a comfortable position and relax: Just sit back and relax – I'll make dinner.

2 to make no effort to get involved in something: You can't just sit back and then complain about what happens.

sit in phr. v.

to be present somewhere but not get involved in the activity: I sat in on one of his classes.

sit in for sb phr. v.

to do a job, go to a meeting, etc. instead of the person who usually does it: He's sitting in for Sally while she's gone.

sit on sth phr. v.

to be a member of an organization or other official group: Hawkins sits on several committees.

sit sth ↔ out phr. v.

to stay where you are and not take part in something until it finishes: Due to injuries, Herrera sat out the last two games.

sit through sth phr. v.

to go to a meeting, performance, etc. and stay until it finishes, even if it is very long or boring: We had to sit through a three-hour meeting this morning.

sit up phr. v.

1 to be in a sitting position or move to a sitting position after you have been lying down: He finally was able to sit up in bed and eat something. | Tommy, sit up straight and stop slouching.

2 to stay awake and not go to bed: He sat up all night reading it.

3 sit up and take notice to suddenly start paying attention to someone or something: Their live gigs became so popular that record companies began to sit up and take notice.

sit-com /'sɪtˈkɑːm/ n. [C,U] a funny television program in which the same characters appear in different situations each week → TELEVISION

'sit-down adj. 1 a sit-down meal or restaurant is one in which you sit at a table and eat a formal meal 2 sit-down protest/strike etc. POLITICS an occasion when a large group of people protest something by not moving from a particular area until their demands are listened to

site¹ /saɪt/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a place where something important or interesting happened: the site where the Pilgrims landed | archeological digs at historical sites | the site of an important battle

THESAURUS

place, position, spot, point, location → PLACE¹

2 an area where something is being built or will be built: a construction site 3 a WEBSITE 4 a place that is used for a particular purpose: a Navajo burial site [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin situs, from sinere “to leave, put”] site² v. be sited to be put or built in a particular place: The zoo is sited in the middle of the city.

'sit-in n. [C] POLITICS a protest in which people sit down and refuse to leave a place until their demands are listened to sit-ter /'sɪtə/ n. [C] (spoken) a BABYSITTER

sit-ting /'sɪtɪŋ/ n. at/in one sitting during one continuous period of time when you are sitting in a chair: Morris read the whole book in one sitting.

sit-u-at-ed /'sɪtʃu,eɪtɪd/ adj. be situated to be in a particular place or position: The hotel is situated in/near the old market district.

sit-u-a-tion /,sɪtʃu'eɪʃən/ n. [C] a combination of all the things that are happening and all the conditions that exist at a particular time and place: the present economic/political situation in the country | He asked himself what his father would have done in the same situation.

COLLOCATIONS

difficult/bad/dangerous/tough situation – one that is bad and difficult to deal with economic/political/financial situation present/current situation – one that exists now no-win situation – one that will end badly no matter what you decide to do win-win situation – one that will end well for everyone involved in it
 If a situation improves, it becomes better.
 If a situation worsens or deteriorates, it becomes worse.

S

situation 'comedy n. [C] a SITCOM

'sit-up n. [C usually plural] an exercise for your stomach, in which you sit up from a lying position while keeping your feet on the floor → CRUNCH six /sɪks/ number 1 6 2 six o'clock: I get out of class at six. 3 six years old: My folks moved here when I was six. [ORIGIN: Old English]

'six-pack n. [C] six bottles or cans of a drink sold together as a set: a six-pack of beer six-teen /,sɪk'stɪn/ number 16 —sixteenth number sixth /sɪksθ/ number 1 6th 2 1/6

sixth 'sense n. [singular] a special ability to feel or know something without using any of your five SENSES (=sight, hearing, smell, taste, or touch) → INTUITION six-ty /'sɪksti/ number 1 60 2 the sixties a) the years between 1960 and 1969 b) the numbers between 60 and 69, especially when used for measuring temperature 3 be in your sixties to be aged between 60 and 69: He's in his early/mid/late sixties. —sixtieth /'sɪkstɪθ/ number siz-a-ble, sizeable /'saɪzəbəl/ adj. fairly large: a sizable crowd

THESAURUS big, large, substantial → BIG

size¹ /saɪz/ n. 1 [C,U] how big or small something is: Class sizes are smaller at private schools. | an orange that is the size of (=the same size as) a softball | Abby and Kate are about the same size. | Shrimp vary in size. 2 [U] the fact of being very big: You should see the size of their house! | The company's sheer size gives it an advantage. 3 [C] one of the standard measures in which clothes, goods, etc. are made and sold: This shirt is the wrong size. ▶ Don't say "have a size." ▶ | They didn't have anything in my size. | a size 10 shoe 4 large-sized/medium-sized etc. large, average, etc. in size: a pocket-sized calculator

size² v.

size sb/sth ↔ up phr. v. (informal) to look at or consider a person or situation and make a judgment about them: He sized up the situation in a glance.

siz-zle /'sɪzəl/ v. [I] to make a sound like water falling on hot metal: bacon sizzling in the pan —sizzle n. [singular,U] → see picture on page A7 skate¹ /skert/ n. [C] 1 an ICE SKATE 2 a ROLLER SKATE skate² v. [I] to move on skates —skating n. [U]: Let's go skating. —skater n. [C] skate-board /'skertˈbɔrd/ n. [C] a short board with two wheels at each end, on which you stand and ride, pushing your foot along the ground in order to move —skateboarding n. [U] → see picture at BOARD¹

'skate park n. [C] a special place where children can ride skateboards skel-e-ton /'skelətˈn/ n. 1 [C] BIOLOGY the structure consisting of all the bones in a human or animal body: the human skeleton → see picture on page A3 2 have a skeleton in the closet to have a secret about something embarrassing or unpleasant that happened to you in the past 3 skeleton staff/crew/service only enough people to keep an operation or organization working [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Modern Latin, Greek, from skel-etos "dried up"] —skeletal adj.

skep-tic /'skeptɪk/ n. [C] someone who does not believe something unless s/he has definite proof [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Greek skeptikos "thoughtful," from skeptesthai "to look, consider"] skep-ti-cal /'skeptɪkəl/ adj. doubting or not believing something: Voters are highly skeptical about/of the proposal. —skepticism /'skeptə,sɪzəm/ n. [U]

THESAURUS doubtful, dubious, unconvinced → DOUBTFUL

sketch¹ /sketʃ/ n. [C] 1 a drawing that you do quickly and without a lot of details: a pencil sketch of a bird

THESAURUS drawing, picture, doodle, comic strip, cartoon → DRAWING picture, caricature, illustration → PICTURE¹

2 a short humorous scene that is part of a longer performance: a comedy sketch 3 a short written or spoken description without a lot of details: a brief sketch of each candidate [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Dutch schets, from Italian schizzo, from schizzare "to splash"] sketch² v. 1 [I,T] to draw a sketch of something

THESAURUS draw, doodle, scribble →

DRAW¹

2 [T] also sketch out to describe something in a general way, giving the basic ideas: Deming sketched out his plans for the new business.

sketch-y /'sketʃi/ adj. not thorough or complete, and not having enough details to be useful: sketchy information skew /skju/ v. [T] if something skews the result of a test, election, RESEARCH, etc. it affects the results, making them incorrect: Money is skewing our political system. —skewed adj.: Sometimes the data can be badly skewed.

skew-er /'skjuə/ n. [C] a long metal or wooden stick that you put through a piece of raw food that you want to cook —skewer v. [T] ski¹ /ski/ n. (plural skis) [C] one of a pair of long narrow pieces of wood or plastic that you fasten to boots so you can move easily on snow [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Norwegian, Old Norse skith “stick of wood, ski”] ski² v. (skied, skies) [I] to move over snow on skis —skier n. [C] —skiing /'skiɪŋ/ n. [U]: We're going skiing this weekend. → see picture on page A4 skid¹ /skɪd/ v. (skidded, skidding) [I] if a vehicle skids, it suddenly slides sideways and it is difficult to control: A car skidded on the ice. → see picture at SLIDE¹

skid² n. [C] 1 a sudden sliding movement of a vehicle, that you cannot control: skid marks | He went into a skid on an icy road. 2 be on the skids/hit the skids (informal) to begin to fail: That was when his career hit the skids.

skill /skɪl/ n. [C,U] an ability to do something very well, especially because you have learned and practiced it → TALENT: a test of basic skills in reading and math | a child's reading/writing/communication skills | We are beginning to question his managerial/leadership etc. skills. | The men rode their horses with great skill. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old Norse skil “good judgment, knowledge”] talent – a natural ability to do something well: He has a remarkable musical talent.

THESAURUS

ability – your level of skill at doing something: She has great athletic ability.

knack (informal) – a natural ability to do something well: Kate has a knack for making people feel at ease.

flair/gift – a natural ability to do something very well: He has a flair for languages.

aptitude (formal) – a natural ability or skill, especially in learning: If you want to be an accountant, you should have an aptitude for mathematics. → ABILITY skilled /skɪld/ adj. having the training and experience needed to do something well (ANT) unskilled: a highly skilled mechanic

skil-let /'skɪlɪt/ n. [C] a FRYING PAN skill·ful /'skɪlfəl/ adj. good at doing something that you have learned and practiced: a skillful painter expert very skillful and experienced at doing something: He's an expert cook.

THESAURUS

accomplished very skillful, especially at artistic or creative things: an accomplished musician talented very good at doing something because you have a natural ability: His coach saw that he was a talented young player.

gifted extremely good at doing something because you have a great natural ability: Atwood is one of the most gifted writers of her generation.

adept good at doing something that needs a lot of care and skill: She became adept at dealing with difficult customers.

cunning skillful at tricking people in order to get what you want: a cunning politician deft moving in a quick and skillful way: He finished the portrait with a few deft brush strokes.

—skillfully adv.

skim /skɪm/ v. (skimmed, skimming) 1 [T] to remove something that is floating on the surface of a liquid: Skim the fat off the soup. 2 [I,T] also skim through to read something quickly to find the main facts or ideas in it: Helen opened the newspaper and skimmed the headlines. 3 [T] to move along quickly, nearly touching the surface of something: birds skimming the trees skim sth ↔ off phr. v. to take the best people, best part of something, or money for yourself: Corrupt leaders have skimmed off much of the country's wealth.

'skim milk n. [U] milk that has had most of its fat removed from it skimp /skɪmp/ v. [I,T] to not use enough money, time, effort, etc. on something, so it is unsuccessful or of bad quality: Don't skimp on buying good shoes for your children.

skimp-y /'skɪmpi/ adj. too small in size or quantity: a skimpy little dress skin¹ /skɪn/ n.

1 ON A BODY [C,U] BIOLOGY the natural outer covering of a human's or animal's body: her beautiful dark skin | The snake was shedding its skin.

COLLOCATIONS

fair/pale skin dark/olive skin
dry/oily/sensitive skin smooth/soft skin rough/leathery skin
good/bad skin – healthy or unhealthy skin → HAIR

2 FOOD [C,U] the natural outer layer of some fruits and vegetables: banana skins

3 ANIMAL SKIN [C,U] the skin of an animal used as leather, clothes, etc.: a tiger skin rug

4 dark-skinned/smooth-skinned etc. having a particular type or color of skin: a fair-skinned woman

5 LAYER [C,U] a thin solid layer that forms on the top of a liquid such as paint or milk when it gets cool or is left uncovered

6 COMPUTER [C,U] IT the way particular information appears on a computer screen, especially when this can be changed quickly and easily

7 get under sb's skin (informal) to annoy someone, especially by the way you behave: I could tell my comment had gotten under his skin.

8 have thin/thick skin to be easily upset or not easily upset by criticism

9 (do sth) by the skin of your teeth (informal) to succeed in doing something, when you have almost failed to do it: We made it there by the skin of our teeth.

10 make sb's skin crawl to make someone feel uncomfortable, nervous, or slightly afraid

11 sth is only skin deep used in order to say that something may seem important or effective, but it really is not because it only affects the way things appear: Beauty is only skin deep. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old Norse skinn]

S skin² v. (skinned, skinning) [T] to remove the skin from an animal, fruit, or vegetable skin-flint /'skɪn,flɪnt/ n. [C] (informal, disapproving) someone who hates spending or giving away money SYN miser skin-head /'skɪnhed/ n. [C] a young person who SHAVES off his/her hair and often behaves violently toward people who are not white skin-ny /'skɪni/ adj. (comparative skinnier, superlative skinniest) very thin, especially in a way that is not attractive: a tall, skinny kid

THESAURUS thin, slim, slender, slight, lean, underweight, gaunt → THIN¹

'skinny dipping n. [U] (informal) swimming without any clothes on skin-tight adj. clothes that are skin-tight fit tightly against your body: skin-tight jeans

skip /skɪp/ v. (skipped, skipping) 1 [T] to not do something that you would usually do or that you should do: I'd skipped breakfast. | Brad got in trouble for skipping school. 2 [I] to move forward with quick jumps from one foot to the other: children skipping down/across the street

THESAURUS jump, hop, leap → JUMP¹

3 [I,T] to not read, mention, or deal with something that would normally come or happen next: I skipped question four. | Readers occasionally skip over a word they don't know. 4 [I] to go from one subject, place, etc. to another in no particular order: She skips from one topic to another.

skip-per /'skɪpə/ n. [C] (informal) someone who is in charge of a ship SYN captain skir-mish /'skɜːmɪʃ/ n. [C] a military fight between small groups of people or soldiers: a border skirmish

skirt¹ /skɜːt/ n. [C] a piece of women's clothing that fits around the waist and hangs down like the bottom part of a dress: She was wearing a white blouse and a plain black skirt. | a short/long skirt [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old Norse skyrt "shirt"] → see picture at CLOTHES

skirt² also skirt around v. [T] 1 to go around the outside edge of a place: The soldiers skirted around the town and crossed the river. 2 to avoid talking about an important problem, subject, etc.: The company spokesman skirted the question. 3 if you skirt the rules or the law, you do something that is not illegal, but that does not exactly follow the rules skit /skɪt/ n. [C] a short funny play skit-tish /'skɪtɪʃ/ adj. nervous, frightened, or not sure about something: a skittish horse skulk /skʌlk/ v. [I] to hide or move around quietly because you do not want to be seen: Two men were skulking in the shadows.

skull /skʌl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the bones of a person's or animal's head → see picture on page A3 skull-cap /'skʌlkæp/ n. [C] a YARMULKE

skunk /skʌŋk/ n. [C] a small black and white animal that produces a very bad smell if it feels threatened sky /skaɪ/ n. (plural skies) 1 [C,U] the space above the Earth where the Sun, clouds, and stars are: a clear/cloudless/overcast etc. sky | a few clouds in the sky 2 skies [plural] the sky – used especially when talking about the weather: clear skies 3 the sky's the limit (spoken) used to say that there is no limit to what someone can achieve, spend, etc. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old Norse "cloud"] sky-div-ing /'skaɪ,darvɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of jumping from an aircraft and falling through the sky before opening a PARACHUTE —skydiver n. [C] sky-'high adj. (informal) extremely high or expensive: Prices at the auction were sky-high. —sky-high adv.

sky-light /'skaɪlaɪt/ n. [C] a window in the roof of a building sky-line /'skaɪlaɪn/ n. [C] the shape made by tall buildings or hills against the sky: the New York City skyline

'sky, marshall n. [C] a specially trained person who carries a gun and whose job is to travel on an airplane and protect it from attack by TERRORISTS SYN air marshal sky-rock-et /'skaɪ,rakɪt/ v. [I] to increase suddenly and by large amounts: Property values have skyrocketed.

sky-scraper /ˈskar,skreɪpər/ n. [C] a very tall building in a city slab /slæb/ n. [C] a thick flat piece of a hard material such as stone: a concrete slab slack¹ /slæk/ adj. 1 hanging loosely, or not pulled tight: a slack rope 2 with less business activity than usual: People get laid off when things are slack. 3 (disapproving) not taking enough care to do things correctly: The waiters were slack.

slack² n. 1 slacks [plural] a pair of pants 2 take/pick up the slack a) to do something that needs to be done because the person or organization that usually does it is no longer doing it: As the government cuts programs, charities try to pick up the slack. b) to make a rope tighter 3 cut/give sb some/any slack (informal) to allow someone to do something without criticizing him/her or making it more difficult: They have no reason to cut the opposing team any slack. 4 [U] looseness in the way something such as a rope hangs or is fastened: He gave the line some slack, then slowly began reeling it in.

slack³ also slack off v. [I] to not work as quickly as you should on your job: Everything was going well, and I thought I could slack off a little. —slacker n. [C] slack-en /ˈslækən/ v. [I,T] to gradually become slower, weaker, or less active, or to make something do this: The rain slackened briefly.

slag /slæg/ n. [U] waste material that is left when metal is obtained from rock slain /sleɪn/ v. the past participle of SLAY slake /slerk/ v. (literary) slake your thirst to drink so that you are not THIRSTY

slam¹ /slæm/ v. (slammed, slamming) 1 [I,T] if a door, gate, etc. slams, or if someone slams it, it shuts loudly with a lot of force: Baxter left the room, slamming the door. | The door slammed shut. 2 [I,T] to hit something or someone against a surface with a lot of force, or to hit something with a lot of force: Manya slammed the phone down. | He was going 50 mph when he slammed into the back of a car stopped at a red light. 3 [T] (informal, written) to criticize someone strongly: Watson was slammed for not acting sooner.

slam² n. [C usually singular] the noise or action of hitting or closing something hard

'slam dunk n. [C] an action in basketball when a player jumps up high and throws the ball down through the basket —slam dunk v. [I] slan-der /ˈslændər/ n. [C,U] a spoken statement about someone that is not true and is intended to damage the good opinion that people have of him/her —slander v. [T] —slanderous adj.

THESAURUS lie, fib, falsehood, libel, perjury → LIE³ slang /slæŋ/ n. [U] very informal, sometimes offensive, language that is used especially by people who belong to a particular group —slangy adj.

THESAURUS language, lingo, jargon, terminology → LANGUAGE

slant¹ /slænt/ v. 1 [I,T] to slope, or to make something slope in a particular direction: a hat slanted over his forehead 2 [T] to provide information in a way that unfairly supports one opinion, gives an advantage to one group, etc.

slant² n. [singular] 1 a sloping position or angle: The house seems to be built at/on a slant. 2 a way of writing or thinking about a subject that shows support for a particular set of ideas or beliefs: a feminist slant on Dickens's novels slan-ted /ˈslæntɪd/ adj. 1 (disapproving) providing facts or information in a way that unfairly supports only one side of an argument or one opinion (SYN biased): The article was slanted. 2 sloping: a slanted roof

slap¹ /slæp/ v. (slapped, slapping) [T] 1 to hit someone quickly with the flat part of your hand: She slapped his face.

THESAURUS hit, punch, beat, smack, whack, strike → HIT¹

2 (informal) to suddenly make someone do something more, pay more money, etc.: In 1990, the U.S. slapped sanctions on Iraq. 3 slap sb on the back to hit someone on the back in a friendly way, often as a way of praising him/her slap sth ↔ on phr. v. to put or spread something quickly on a surface in a careless way: Just slap on a coat of paint.

slap² n. [C] 1 a quick hit with the flat part of your hand 2 a slap in the face an action that seems to be deliberately intended to offend or upset someone: The offer was so low as to be a slap in the face. 3 a slap on the wrist (informal) a punishment that is not very severe slap-dash /ˈslæpdæʃ/ adj. careless and done too quickly: a slapdash job slap-stick /ˈslæpstɪk/ n. [U] humorous acting in which the actors fall over, throw things at each other, etc.

slash¹ /slæʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to cut or try to cut something in a violent way with a sharp weapon, making a long deep cut: Someone had slashed the car's front tire. 2 [T] (informal, written) to greatly reduce an amount or price: a campaign promise to slash taxes

THESAURUS reduce, lower, decrease, cut → REDUCE slash² n. [C] 1 also slash mark a line (/) used in writing to separate words, numbers, or letters 2 a long narrow cut in something slat /slæt/ n. [C] a thin flat piece of wood, plastic, or metal, used especially in furniture slate¹ /sleɪt/ n. 1 [U] EARTH SCIENCES a dark gray rock that can be easily split into thin flat pieces 2 [C] POLITICS a list of people that voters can choose in an election

slate² v. be slated to do sth/be slated for sth if something is slated to happen, it is planned to happen in the future: The committee is slated to vote on the bill next week. | The corner office buildings are slated for demolition.

slath-er /'slæðə/ v. [T] (informal) to cover something with a thick layer of a soft substance: fresh bread slathered with butter slaugh-ter /'slɒtə/ v. [T] 1 to kill a lot of people in a cruel or violent way: Hundreds of innocent civilians had been slaughtered by government troops.

THESAURUS kill, murder, massacre, exterminate, slay → KILL¹

2 to kill an animal for food 3 (informal) to defeat an opponent by a large number of points: New York slaughtered Boston, 11–2. —slaughter n. [U]: the slaughter of innocent people

S

slaugh-ter-house /'slɒtə,haʊs/ n. [C] a building where animals are killed for their meat slave¹ /sleɪv/ n. [C] 1 someone who is owned by another person and is forced to work without pay for him/her 2 be a slave to/of sth (disapproving) to be so strongly influenced by something that you cannot make your own decisions: a slave to fashion [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French esclave, from Medieval Latin sclavus, from Sclavus “Slavic person;” because in the early Middle Ages many Slavic people in central Europe were slaves] slave² v. [I] to work very hard with little time to rest: Hector grew up watching his father slaving away at a factory job.

'slave driver n. [C] (informal, disapproving) someone who makes people work extremely hard slave labor n. [U] 1 (informal) work for which you are paid a very small amount of money 2 work done by slaves, or the slaves that do this work slav-er-y /'sleɪvəri/ n. [U] the system of having slaves, or the condition of being a slave: Slavery was abolished (=officially ended) after the Civil War. | They were captured and sold into slavery.

slav-ish /'sleɪvɪʃ/ adj. (disapproving) too willing to do what you are told to do or to behave like someone else, without thinking for yourself: slavish devotion to duty slay /sleɪ/ v. (past tense slew /slu/, past participle slain /sleɪn/) [T] to kill a person or animal violently: St. George slew the dragon. —slaying n. [C]

THESAURUS kill, murder, assassinate, slaughter → KILL¹

sleaze /slɪz/ n. [U] immoral behavior, usually involving sex or lies: allegations of political sleaze

slea-zy /'slɪzi/ adj. (comparative sleazier, superlative sleaziest) (disapproving) 1 a sleazy place is dirty, cheap, or in bad condition: sleazy bars 2 relating to sex or dishonest behavior: a sleazy lawyer sled /sled/ n. [C] a vehicle that slides over snow, often used by children —sled v. [I] sledge ham-mer /'sledʒ, hæmə/ n. [C] a large heavy hammer sleek /slik/ adj. 1 sleek hair or fur is smooth, shiny, and healthy-looking: a cat's sleek fur 2 having a smooth attractive shape: a sleek limousine

sleep¹ /slɪp/ v. (past tense and past participle slept /slept/) 1 [I] to rest your mind and body by lying down with your eyes closed → ASLEEP: “Did you sleep well?” | He was sleeping soundly when the phone rang. | I couldn't sleep last night. | If you're tired, why don't you sleep late (=sleep until late in the morning) tomorrow? | Goodnight, sleep tight (=sleep well).

USAGE

Use sleep when you are giving more information, for example how long someone sleeps, or where s/he sleeps: Most people sleep for about eight hours. | He slept downstairs.

Do not use sleep to talk about starting to sleep. Use fall asleep or go to sleep: She fell asleep in front of the TV.

COLLOCATIONS

sleep well/badly

sleep soundly – to sleep deeply and peacefully sleep like a baby/sleep like a log – to sleep very well, without waking up at all sleep late/sleep in – to deliberately sleep later than usual in the morning sleep lightly – to wake up very easily if there is any noise

2 sleep on it (spoken) to not make a decision about something important until the next day 3 [T] to have enough beds for a particular number of people: The tent sleeps six. [ORIGIN: Old English slæp] sleep around phr. v. (disapproving) to have sex with many people without having a serious relationship with any of them sleep in phr. v. to sleep later than usual in the morning: I slept in till 10:00 on Saturday.

sleep sth ↔ off phr. v. to sleep until you are no longer drunk: Why don't you take him home so he can sleep it off.

sleep over phr. v. to sleep at someone's house for a night: Mom, can I sleep over at Ann's tonight?

sleep through sth phr. v. to continue sleeping while something noisy is happening: How could you have slept through the earthquake?

sleep together phr. v. (informal) if people sleep together, they have sex with each other sleep with sb phr. v. (informal) to have sex with someone, especially someone you are not married to: Everyone knows he's sleeping with Diana.

sleep² n. 1 [U] the natural state of being asleep → ASLEEP: I rarely get more than 6 hours of sleep a night. | What time did you get to sleep (=start sleeping)? | I didn't get much sleep last night. | Ed sometimes talks in his sleep (=while he is sleeping). 2 [singular] a period when you are sleeping: You'll feel better after a good night's sleep (=a night when you sleep well). | A sudden noise woke me from a deep sleep. 3 go to sleep a) to start sleeping: Katherine went to sleep about 7:00 last night. b) (informal) if a part of your body goes to sleep, you cannot feel it for a short time because it has not been getting enough blood 4 lose (any) sleep over sth (spoken) to worry about something: If his client goes to jail, he won't lose any sleep over it. 5 put a dog/cat etc. to sleep to give an animal drugs so that it dies without pain sleep·er /ˈslɪpə/ n. [C] 1 someone who is asleep or who sleeps in a particular way: Sam's a heavy/light sleeper (=he sleeps well or wakes up easily). 2 a movie, book, etc. that is successful, even though people did not expect it to be

'sleeping bag n. [C] a large warm bag for sleeping in, especially when camping

'sleeping pill n. [C] a PILL that helps you to sleep sleep·less /ˈslɪplɪs/ adj. a sleepless night a night when you are unable to sleep —sleeplessness n. [U] sleep·walk·er /ˈslɪp,wɒkə/ n. [C] someone who walks while s/he is sleeping —sleepwalk v. [I] —sleepwalking n. [U] sleep·y /ˈslɪpi/ adj. (comparative sleepier, superlative sleepiest) 1 tired and ready for sleep: I don't know why I'm so sleepy. 2 a sleepy place is quiet and without much activity: a sleepy little town

THESAURUS quiet, calm, tranquil, peaceful → QUIET¹

—sleepily adv. —sleepiness n. [U]

sleep·y·head /ˈslɪpi,hɛd/ n. [C] (spoken) someone, especially a child, who looks as if s/he wants to go to sleep: It's time for bed, sleepyhead.

sleet /slɪt/ n. [U] freezing rain —sleet v. [I]

THESAURUS rain, drizzle, shower, downpour, hail, hailstones → RAIN¹ snow, snowflakes, slush, blizzard, frost → SNOW¹ sleeve /slɪv/ n. 1 [C] the part of a piece of clothing that covers your arm or part of your arm: a blouse with short/long sleeves 2 long-sleeved/short-sleeved with long or short sleeves: a long-sleeved shirt 3 have sth up your sleeve (informal) to have a secret plan that you are going to use later: Janssen usually has a few surprises up his sleeve. [ORIGIN: Old English sliefe] sleeve-less /ˈslɪvlɪs/ adj. without sleeves: a sleeveless dress sleigh /sleɪ/ n. [C] a large vehicle pulled by animals, used for traveling on snow sleight of hand /ˌslaɪt əv ˈhænd/ n. [U] quick skillful movements with your hands when performing magic tricks slen·der /ˈslendə/ adj. thin, graceful, and attractive: long slender fingers

THESAURUS thin, slim, slight, skinny, lean → THIN¹

slept /slept/ v. the past tense and past participle of SLEEP¹ sleuth /sluθ/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) someone who tries to find out information about a crime [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 sleuthhound “dog used for tracking people” (14—20 centuries), from sleuth “track” (12—15 centuries) (from Old Norse sloth) + hound] slew¹ /slu/ n. a slew of sth (informal) a large number: Her work as a reporter has won her a slew of awards.

slew² v. the past tense of SLAY

slice¹ /slaɪs/ n. [C] 1 a thin flat piece of bread, meat, etc. cut from a larger piece: a slice of pizza | Cut the tomato into thin/thick slices. → PIECE¹ 2 a part or a piece of something: The German company wants a slice of the U.S. market. 3 a slice of life a film, play, or book which shows life as it really is [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French esclice “thin piece broken off,” from esclicier “to splinter”]

slice² v. 1 [T] also slice up to cut meat, bread, etc. into thin flat pieces: Could you slice the bread? → see picture at CUT¹

THESAURUS cut, chop (up), dice, peel, carve, shred, grate → CUT¹

2 [I,T] to cut something easily with one movement of a sharp knife or edge: Careful – that blade could slice through your finger.

slick¹ /slɪk/ adj. 1 (disapproving) good at persuading people, often in a way that does not seem honest: a slick salesman 2 (disapproving) attractive or skillful, but not containing any important or interesting ideas: slick commercials 3 smooth and slippery: The roads are slick with ice.

slick² n. [C] an OIL SLICK

slick³ v.

slick sth ↔ down/back phr. v. to make hair smooth and shiny by putting oil, water, etc. on it

slide¹ /slaid/ v. (past tense and past participle slid /slɪd/) 1 [I,T] to move smoothly over a surface while continuing to touch it, or to make something move in this way: children sliding on the ice | She slid the box across the floor. | The door slides open automatically. 2 [I,T] to move somewhere quietly without being noticed, or to move something in this way: She slid out of the room without waking anyone. | He slid the gun into his pocket. 3 [I] ECONOMICS to become lower in value, number, or amount: Car sales slid 0.5% in July. 4 [I] to gradually become worse, or to begin to have a problem: Morrison gradually slid into alcohol and drug abuse. 5 let sth slide (informal) to ignore something: I didn't agree, but I let it slide. [ORIGIN: Old English slidan]

slide² n. [C] 1 a large structure for children to slide down while playing 2 a photograph in a frame that you shine a light through to show a picture on a screen or wall: slides of our vacation 3 a decrease in the amount, value, standard, or quality of something: a slide in interest rates | The school is worried about the slide in student performance. 4 EARTH SCIENCES a sudden fall of earth, stones, snow, etc. down a slope: a rock slide 5 SCIENCE a small thin piece of glass, used for holding something when you look at it under a MICROSCOPE → see picture at MICROSCOPE

'slide projector n. [C] a piece of equipment that makes slides appear on a screen

sliding 'scale n. [C] a system for calculating how much you pay for taxes, medical treatment, etc., in which the amount that you pay changes according to different conditions: Fees are calculated on a sliding scale.

slight¹ /slart/ adj. 1 small in degree, and not serious or important: a slight delay | a slight increase | a slight headache 2 not the slightest chance/doubt/difference etc. no doubt, chance, etc. at all: I didn't have the slightest idea who that man was. 3 someone who is slight is thin and delicate: a slight old lady

THESAURUS thin, slim, slender, skinny,
lean → THIN¹

slight² v. [T] to offend someone by treating him/her rudely: Meg felt slighted at not being invited to the party.

slight³ n. [C] (formal) a remark or action that offends someone: I consider the comment a slight on the quality of our work!

slight-ly /'slartli/ adv. 1 a little: She raised her eyebrow slightly. | The official gave a slightly different version of events. | The trip took slightly more than an hour. 2 slightly built having a thin and delicate body

slim¹ /slɪm/ adj. 1 attractively thin: tall and slim

THESAURUS thin, slender, slight, skinny,
lean → THIN¹

2 very small in amount or number: a slim lead in the polls | We have only a slim chance of winning. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Dutch “bad, of low quality”]

slim² v. (slimmed, slimming)

slim down phr. v. 1 to reduce the size or number of something: Apex Co. is slimming down its workforce to cut costs. 2 to become thinner by eating less or exercising more: I've been trying to slim down since Christmas.

slime /slaɪm/ n. [U] a thick slippery substance that looks or smells bad slim-y /'slaɪmi/ adj. 1 covered with slime: slimy rocks 2 (informal, disapproving) friendly in a way that does not seem sincere: a slimy politician sling¹ /slɪŋ/ v. (past tense and past participle slung /slʌŋ/) [T] to throw or put something somewhere in a way that is careless and forceful: She slung her purse over her shoulder.

sling² n. [C] 1 a piece of cloth tied around your neck to support your injured arm or hand: Emily's arm has been in a sling for six weeks. 2 a set of ropes or strong pieces of cloth that are used to lift and carry heavy objects sling-shot /'slɪŋʃɒt/ n. [C] a stick in the shape of a Y with a thin band of rubber across the top, used especially by children to throw stones

slink /slɪŋk/ v. (past tense and past participle slunk /slʌŋk/) [I] to move somewhere quietly and secretly, especially because you are afraid or ashamed: He lowered his eyes and slunk back into his office.

slip¹ /slɪp/ v. (slipped, slipping) 1 [I] to accidentally slide a short distance quickly, or to fall by sliding in this way: Joan slipped and fell. | Be careful not to slip on the ice. | The knife slipped and cut her finger. → see picture at SLIDE¹

THESAURUS fall, trip, stumble, lose your balance → FALL¹

2 [I] to go somewhere, without attracting other people's attention: I managed to slip out of the office before 5:00. 3 [T] to put something somewhere, or to give someone something quietly or secretly: Dad slipped me $50 when Mom wasn't looking. | Someone slipped a note under my door. 4 [I,T] to put on or take off a piece of clothing quickly and smoothly: I'll just slip into something more comfortable. | He slipped off his coat and went upstairs. 5 [I] to become worse or lower than before (SYN fall): Standards have slipped in the restaurant since the head chef left. 6 let sth slip to say something without meaning to, when you had wanted it to be a secret: Lance let it slip that Julie was planning to quit. 7 slip your mind if something slips your mind, you forget to do it: I meant to call you but it completely slipped my mind.

slip out phr. v. if something slips out, you say it without intending to: I'm sorry I spoiled the surprise; it just slipped out.

slip up phr. v. to make a mistake: They slipped up and sent me the wrong form.

slip² n. [C] 1 a small or narrow piece of paper: a slip of paper with her phone number on it 2 a slip of the tongue something that you say when you meant to say something else 3 a piece of underwear, similar to a thin dress or skirt, that a woman wears under a dress or skirt 4 give sb the slip (informal) to escape from someone who is chasing you: He gave the police the slip.

slip-knot /'slɪpnɒt/ n. [C] a knot that you can make tighter by pulling one of its ends slipped 'disc n. [C] a painful injury caused when a connecting part between the bones in your back moves out of place slip-per /'slɪpə/ n. [C] a light soft shoe that you wear in your house → see picture at SHOE¹ slip-per-y /'slɪpəri/ adj. 1 something that is slippery is difficult to hold, walk on, etc. because it is wet or GREASY: Careful, the sidewalk's slippery. 2 a/the slippery slope the beginning of something that will be hard to stop and will develop into something very bad slip-shod /'slɪpʃəd/ adj. (disapproving) done too quickly and carelessly: slipshod work

'slip-up n. [C] a careless mistake: We cannot afford another slip-up.

slit /slɪt/ v. (past tense and past participle slit, present participle slitting) [T] to make a straight narrow cut in cloth, paper, etc.: Slit the pie crust before baking. —slit n. [C] slith-er /'slɪðə/ v. [I] to slide or move across a surface, twisting and moving like a snake

sliv-er /'slɪvə/ n. [C] a very small narrow piece of something: a sliver of glass | You can just see a sliver of the ocean from our hotel.

slob /slɒb/ n. [C] (informal) someone who is lazy, dirty, and messy slob-ber /'slɒbə/ v. [I] to let SALIVA (=liquid produced in your mouth) come out of your mouth and run down: The dog's slobbered all over the rug!

slog /slag/ v. (slogged, slogging) [I] 1 to work very hard at something without stopping: I've been slogging through a boring 400 page novel. 2 to walk somewhere with difficulty: soldiers slogging through the mud slo-gan /'slougən/ n. [C] a short phrase that is easy to remember, used by politicians, companies that are advertising, etc.: The crowd shouted anti-racist slogans.

slop¹ /slɒp/ v. (slopped, slopping) [I,T] to make liquid move around or over the edge of something, or to move in this way: The coffee slopped out of the cup and all over me.

slop² n. [U] 1 food waste that is used for feeding animals 2 food that is too soft and tastes bad: I'm not eating that slop!

slope¹ /sloʊp/ n. 1 [C] a piece of ground or a surface that is higher at one end than the other: a ski slope 2 [singular] the angle at which something slopes: a slope of 30°

slope² v. [I] if the ground or a surface slopes, it is higher at one end than the other: They looked out over a broad meadow that sloped toward the water.

slop-py /'sləpi/ adj. 1 not done carefully or thoroughly: sloppy work | sloppy handwriting 2 sloppy clothes are loose-fitting and not neat: a sloppy old sweater 3 wet and disgusting: a sloppy kiss —sloppily adv. —sloppiness n. [U] slosh /slɒʃ/ v. [I] 1 to walk through water or mud in a noisy way: kids sloshing through puddles 2 if a liquid in a container sloshes, it moves against the sides of the container: water sloshing around in the bottom of the boat sloshed /slɒʃt/ adj. (informal) drunk: Gus was sloshed even before the party started.

slot¹ /slɒt/ n. [C] 1 a long narrow hole made in a surface: Which slot do the coins go in? 2 a short period of time allowed for one particular event on a program: the most popular TV show in its time slot [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French esclot "hollow place in the bone in the middle of the chest"] slot² v. (slotted, slotting) [I,T] to put something into a slot, or to go in a slot: The cassette slots in here.

sloth /slɒθ, slouθ/ n. 1 [C] a slow-moving animal from Central and South America 2 [U] (literary) laziness —slothful adj.

'slot machine n. [C] a machine in which you put coins so that you can play games or try to win money slouch¹ /slaʊtʃ/ v. [I] to stand, sit, or walk with your shoulders bent forward in a way that makes you look tired or lazy: Stanley was slouched against the wall, fast asleep.

slouch² n. 1 [singular] the position of your body when you slouch 2 be no slouch (informal) to be very good or skillful at something: He's no slouch with a camera.

slov-en-ly /'slʌvənli, 'slə-/ adj. dirty, messy, and careless: a slovenly old woman [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 sloven “dirty messy person”]

slow¹ /sləʊ/ adj. 1 not moving, being done, or happening quickly (ANT fast: The slowest runners started at the back. | They've been slow in answering our letter (=took a long time to answer it). | The police were slow to respond (=took too long to do something). | Progress has been painfully slow (=far too slow).

THESAURUS

gradual – happening slowly over a long period of time: There has been a gradual improvement in the economic situation.

leisurely – doing something slowly because you are enjoying what you are doing: They went for a leisurely walk in Central Park. | a leisurely breakfast sluggish – moving or doing something more slowly than normal: The car felt sluggish when he first started driving it.

tardy – doing something too slowly or too late: If you are tardy by more than 20 minutes it will count as an unauthorized absence.

S

2 [not before noun] showing time that is earlier than the true time (ANT fast: My watch is a few minutes slow. 3 if business is slow, there are not many customers: It's been a slow day. 4 someone who is slow does not understand things quickly or easily: The school gives extra help for slower students. [ORIGIN: Old English slaw]

slow² v. [I,T] also slow up to become slower, or to make something slower: Her breathing slowed and she fell asleep. | Road work slowed up traffic this morning.

slow down phr. v. [I,T] to become slower, or to make someone or something slower: Slow down or you'll get a speeding ticket. | Dave's back trouble is slowing him down.

slow³ adv. slowly: Can you run a little slower? I can't keep up.

slow-down /'sləʊdaʊn/ n. [C usually singular] 1 a reduction in activity or speed: a slowdown in the tourist trade 2 a period when people deliberately work slowly in order to protest about something slow-ly /'sləʊli/ adv. at a slow speed or rate: Doctors slowly removed the bandages from her arm. | Things have begun to change slowly.

slow 'motion n. [U] movement in a movie or television program shown at a much slower speed than the speed at which it happened: Let's see a replay of that goal in slow motion.

slow-poke /'sləʊpəʊk/ n. [C] (spoken) someone who moves or does things too slowly slow-witted adj. not quick to understand things sludge /slʌdʒ/ n. [U] a soft thick substance made of mud, waste, oil, etc.

slug¹ /slʌg/ n. [C] 1 a small creature with a soft body, that moves very slowly and eats garden plants 2 (informal) a bullet 3 (informal) a piece of metal used illegally instead of a coin in machines that sell things slug² v. (slugged, slugging) [T] 1 (informal) to hit someone hard with your closed hand (SYN punch: I stood up and he slugged me again. 2 slug it out to argue or fight until someone wins or something has been decided: The two sides are slug-ging it out in court. 3 to hit a baseball hard slug-gish /'slʌɡɪʃ/ adj. moving, working, or reacting more slowly than normal (SYN slow: The traffic was sluggish downtown.

sluice¹ /slus/ n. [C] a passage for water to flow through, with a gate that can stop the water if necessary sluice² v. [T] to wash something with a lot of water slum¹ /slʌm/ n. [C] an area of a city with old buildings in very bad condition, where many poor people live: She grew up in the slums of L.A. → AREA slum² v. (slummed, slumming) [I,T] to spend time in conditions that are much worse than those you are used to: We traveled around the country, slum-ming it.

slum-ber /'slʌmbə/ v. [I] (literary) to sleep —slumber n. [singular,U] —slumbers n. [plural]

'slumber party n. [C] a party in which a group of children sleep at one child's house

slump¹ /slʌmp/ v. [I] 1 ECONOMICS to suddenly go down in price, value, or number: Car sales have slumped recently. 2 to fall or lean against something because you are not strong enough to stand: He was found slumped over the steering wheel of his car.

slump² n. [C] 1 ECONOMICS a sudden decrease in prices, sales, profits, etc.: a slump in the housing market 2 ECONOMICS a period when there is a reduction in business and many people lose their jobs: an economic slump

THESAURUS recession, depression, downturn → RECESSION

3 a time when a player or team does not play well: The Yankees needed this win to pull them out of a slump.

slung /slʌŋ/ v. the past tense and past participle of SLING slunk /slʌŋk/ v. the past tense and past participle of SLINK slur¹ /slə/ v. (slurred, slurring) 1 [I,T] to speak unclearly without separating words or sounds: After a few drinks, he started to slur his words. 2 [T] to criticize someone or something unfairly slur² n. [C] an unfair criticism, or an offensive remark: racial slurs

slurp /slɒp/ v. [I,T] to drink a liquid while making a noisy sucking sound — slurp n. [C]

THESAURUS drink, sip/take a sip, gulp sth down, swig, take/have a swig → DRINK² slush /slʌʃ/ n. 1 [U] partly melted snow

THESAURUS snow, snowflakes, sleet, blizzard, frost → SNOW¹

2 [C] a drink made with crushed ice and a sweet liquid: orange slush — slushy adj.

'slush fund n. [C] a sum of money kept for dishonest purposes, especially by a politician sly /slaɪ/ adj. (comparative slier or slyer, superlative sliest or slyest) 1 using tricks and dishonesty to get what you want: He's sly and greedy. 2 showing that you know something that others do not know: a sly smile 3 on the sly (informal) secretly doing something you are not supposed to be doing: He's been seeing someone else on the sly. — slyly adv.

smack¹ /smæk/ v. [T] 1 to hit someone or something, especially with your open hand → PUNCH: She smacked him hard across the face.

THESAURUS hit, punch, slap, beat, whack, strike → HIT¹

2 smack your lips to make a short loud noise with your lips because you are hungry smack of sth phr. v. to seem to have a particular bad quality: a policy that smacks of age discrimination.

smack² n. [C] a hit with your open hand, or a noise like the sound of this: She gave him a smack on the hand.

smack³ adv. (informal) 1 exactly or directly in the middle of something, in front of something, etc.: an old building smack (dab) in the middle of campus 2 if something goes smack into something, it hits it with a lot of force: The van ran smack into the wall.

small /smɔːl/ adj. 1 not large in size or amount (ANT) big: a small dark woman | Rhode Island is the smallest state. | a store selling small appliances | This jacket is too small.

THESAURUS

little – small in size: a little house tiny – very small: a tiny baby minute – extremely small: Even in minute amounts, the chemical is very harmful.
miniature – very small, used about things that are normally a larger size: a miniature camera minuscule – extremely small: Police found a minuscule amount of poison in the bottle.
petite – used about a woman who is short and thin in an attractive way: a petite girl diminutive (formal) – very small, used especially about people: a diminutive man → BIG

2 unimportant or easy to deal with: a small problem | We may have to make a few small changes. 3 small business/farm/company a business that does not involve large amounts of money or does not employ a large number of people 4 a small child is young

THESAURUS young, little → YOUNG¹

5 a small fortune a lot of money: That house must have cost him a small fortune. [ORIGIN: Old English smæl] — small adv.: He writes so small I can't read what the note says.

'small 'change n. [U] money in coins of low value

'small 'claims court n. [C] LAW a court that deals with cases that involve small amounts of money

'small fry n. [U] (informal) 1 children 2 people or things that are not important when compared to other people or things

'small in'testine n. [singular] BIOLOGY the long tube that food goes through after it has passed through your stomach and before it enters the LARGE INTESTINE → see picture at ORGAN

'small-'minded adj. (disapproving) only interested in things that affect you, and too willing to judge people according to your own opinions: greedy small-minded people

'small po'tatoes adj. (informal) not very big or important: Compared to his salary, mine is small potatoes.

small-pox /'smɒlpaks/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a serious disease that causes spots that leave permanent marks on your skin

'small-'scale adj. not involving a lot of people, money, etc.: a small-scale project

'small talk n. [U] polite friendly conversation about unimportant subjects: He's not very good at making small talk.

'small-time adj. unimportant or not successful: a small-time drug dealer

smart¹ /smɑːt/ adj. 1 intelligent or showing good judgment (ANT) stupid: Jill's a smart kid. | I was smart enough to take advantage of a good opportunity. | I don't think that would be a very smart move (=sensible thing to do).

THESAURUS intelligent, bright, brilliant, clever, gifted → INTELLIGENT

2 smart machines, weapons, etc. use computers or advanced technology to work: smart bombs 3 saying funny things in a way that is not respectful: Don't get smart with me, young lady! 4 (old-fashioned) neat and fashionable: a smart suit — smartly adv.: smartly dressed men smart² v. [I] 1 to be upset because someone has offended you: He's still smarting from the insult. 2 if a part of your body smarts, it hurts with a stinging pain

S

THESAURUS hurt, sting → HURT¹

smart al-eck /ˈsmɑrt ˌælk/ n. [C] (informal) someone who says funny or intelligent things in a rude or annoying way

'smart card n. [C] a small plastic card with an electronic part that records and remembers information smarts /smarts/ n. [U] (spoken, informal) intelligence: Julie impressed her boss with her smarts and hard work.

smart-y-pants /ˈsmɑrti ˌpænts/ n. [C] (humorous) a SMART ALECK

smash¹ /smæʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to break into many small pieces in a forceful way, or to make something do this by dropping, throwing, or hitting it: The plates smashed on the floor. | Rioters smashed store windows and set fire to cars.

THESAURUS break, shatter → BREAK¹

S

2 [I,T] to hit an object or surface in a forceful way, or to make something do this: Murray smashed his fist against the wall. | Thompson died when his motorcycle smashed into a parked car. 3 [T] to destroy something such as a political system or criminal organization: Police have smashed a drug smuggling ring.

smash sth ↔ in phr. v. to hit something with so much force that you damage it: The door had been smashed in.

smash sth ↔ up phr. v. to damage or destroy something: She smashed up the truck in an accident.

smash² also smash hit n. [C] a very successful new play, movie, song, etc.: the latest Broadway smash smashed /smæʃt/ adj. (informal) drunk

smat-ter-ing /ˈsmætərɪŋ/ n. a smattering of sth a small number or amount of something: a smattering of applause | He has a smattering of French (=he knows a little French).

smear¹ /smɪr/ v. 1 [I,T] to spread a liquid or soft substance on a surface, or to become spread on a surface: Jill smeared lotion on Rick's back. | The note was damp and the ink had smeared. 2 [T] to spread an untrue story about someone important in order to harm him/her: an attempt to smear the party leadership

smear² n. [C] 1 a dirty or oily mark that is left on a surface: There was a smear of blood on the carpet.

THESAURUS mark, stain, spot, smudge → MARK²

2 an untrue story about someone important that is meant to harm him/her

smell¹ /smel/ v. 1 [I] to have a particular smell: The room smelled of fresh bread. | This wine smells like berries. 2 [I] to have an unpleasant smell [SYN] stink: Something in the refrigerator smells. 3 [T] to notice or recognize a particular smell, or to be able to do this: I could smell alcohol on his breath. 4 [T] to put your nose near something in order to discover what type of smell it has: Come and smell these roses.

smell² n. 1 [C] the quality that you recognize by using your nose: the smell of flowers | the strong smell of gasoline | the fresh smell of the ocean

THESAURUS

aroma – a strong pleasant smell, used especially about food: the aroma of fresh coffee scent/fragrance/perfume – a pleasant smell: the sweet fragrance of roses

2 [C] a bad smell: What's that smell in the basement?

THESAURUS

stink: the stink of rotting fish stench: the stench of burning rubber odor: the odor of alcohol on his breath

3 [U] the ability to notice or recognize smells: an excellent sense of smell smell-y /ˈsmeli/ adj. having a strong bad smell: smelly socks smelt /smelt/ v. [T] to melt a rock that contains metal in order to remove the metal smidg-en /ˈsmɪdʒən/ also smidge /smɪdʒ/ n. [singular] (informal) a small amount of something: Add just a smidgen of salt.

smile /smail/ v. 1 [I] to have a happy expression on your face in which your mouth curves up: Keith smiled at me. | a smiling baby grin – to smile continuously with a very big smile: He walked out of the bathroom grinning from ear to ear.

THESAURUS

beam – to smile because you are very pleased about something: Jenny ran across the room, beaming with pleasure.

smirk – to smile in an unpleasant way, for example because you are pleased by someone else's bad luck: Some of the snowboarders were smirking at my efforts.

simper – to smile in a way that is silly and annoying: Mary-Ann simpered and giggled.

2 [T] to say or express something with a smile: "You're welcome," she smiled. —smile n. [C]: a big smile

smirk /smɜ:k/ v. [I] to smile in a way that is not nice, and that shows that you are pleased by someone else's bad luck: Both officers smirked and laughed at him. [ORIGIN: Old English smearcian "to smile"] —smirk n. [C]

THESAURUS

smile, grin, beam, simper → SMILE

smith /smɪθ/ n. [C] 1 goldsmith/silversmith etc. someone who makes things from gold, silver, etc. 2 a BLACKSMITH

smith-er-eens /ˌsmɪðəˈrɪnz/ n. blow/smash etc. sth to smithereens (informal) to destroy something completely by breaking it violently into very small pieces smitten /ˈsmɪtən/ adj. be smitten to suddenly feel that you love someone very much: He's absolutely smitten with that new girl.

smock /smɑk/ n. [C] a loose piece of clothing like a long shirt, worn especially by artists to protect their clothes smog /smɑg, smɒg/ n. [U] dirty air caused by smoke from cars and factories in cities —smoggy adj.

smoke¹ /smoʊk/ n. 1 [U] the white, gray, or black gas that is produced by something burning: cigarette smoke | The fire sent up a huge cloud of smoke. 2 [C] an act of smoking a cigarette, etc.: He went outside for a smoke. 3 [C] (informal) a cigarette: Do you have a smoke? 4 go up in smoke (informal) if your plans go up in smoke, you cannot do what you intended to do [ORIGIN: Old English smoca]

smoke² v. 1 [I,T] to suck or breathe in smoke from a cigarette, pipe, etc., or to do this regularly as a habit: Do you mind if I smoke? | We sat on the porch smoking cigarettes. | I only smoke when I'm drinking. 2 [I] to produce or send out smoke: a smoking chimney 3 [T] to give fish or meat a special taste by hanging it in smoke: smoked salmon —smoking n. [U] smoker /ˈsmoʊkə/ n. [C] someone who smokes (ANT) nonsmoker: She used to be a heavy smoker (=someone who smokes a lot).

'smoke screen n. [C] something that you say or do to hide your real plans or actions smoke-stack /ˈsmoʊkstæk/ n. [C] a tall CHIMNEY at a factory or on a ship smoking gun n. [C usually singular] (informal) definite proof of who is responsible for something bad or how something really happened smoky /ˈsmoʊki/ adj. 1 filled with smoke: a smoky room 2 producing a lot of smoke: a smoky fire 3 having the taste, smell, or appearance of smoke: smoky cheese smolder /ˈsmoʊldə/ v. [I] 1 to burn slowly without a flame: The factory is still smoldering after last night's blaze. 2 to have strong feelings that are not expressed: Nick left Judy smoldering with anger.

smooch /smuːtʃ/ v. [I] (informal) if two people smooch, they kiss each other in a romantic way —smooch n. [C]

smooth¹ /smuːð/ adj. 1 having an even surface, without any BUMPS or holes (ANT) rough: a smooth road | smooth skin → see picture at BUMPY

THESAURUS flat, even → FLAT¹

2 a liquid mixture that is smooth is thick but has no big pieces in it: smooth peanut butter 3 with no sudden movements or changes of direction, especially in a way that is graceful or comfortable: Swing the tennis racket in one smooth motion. | a smooth flight 4 operating or happening without problems: a smooth transition from dictatorship to democracy 5 (disapproving) polite and confident in a way that people do not trust: a smooth talker —smoothly adv.: My talk went smoothly. —smoothness n. [U]

smooth² v. [T] 1 also smooth out/down to make something flat by moving your hands across it: Tanya sat down, smoothing her skirt. 2 to make a rough surface flat and even: Make sure you smooth down all the surfaces before you start painting.

smooth sth ↔ over phr. v. to make problems or difficulties seem less important: He depended on Nancy to smooth over any troubles.

smoothie /ˈsmuːdi/ n. [C] a thick drink made of fruit and fruit juices that have been mixed together until they are smooth smor-gas-bord /ˈsmɔrgəs,bɔrd/ n. [C,U] a meal in which people serve themselves from a large number of different foods smother /ˈsmʌðə/ v. [T] 1 to kill someone by putting something over his/her face so that s/he cannot breathe 2 to cover the whole surface of something with something else: a cake smothered with/in chocolate 3 to give someone so much love and attention that s/he feels like s/he is not free and becomes unhappy 4 to make a fire stop burning by preventing air from reaching it: We used a wet towel to smother the fire.

smudge¹ /smʌdʒ/ n. [C] a dirty mark: There was a smudge of lipstick on the cup. —smudgy adj.

THESAURUS mark, stain, spot, smear → MARK²

smudge² v. [I,T] if a substance such as ink or paint smudges or is smudged, it becomes messy or unclear because someone has touched or rubbed it: Now look, you've smudged my drawing! | Your lipstick is smudged.

smug /smʌg/ adj. (disapproving) showing that you are very satisfied with how smart, lucky, or good you are: a smug smile —smugly adv.

smug-gle /ˈsmʌgəl/ v. [T] to take someone or something illegally from one place to another: cocaine smuggled from South America into the United States —smuggler n. [C]: drug smugglers —smuggling n. [U] smut /smʌt/ n. [U] (disapproving) books, stories, pictures, etc. that offend some people because they are about sex —smutty adj.: a smutty T.V. show snack¹ /snæk/ n. [C] a small amount of food that you eat between main meals or instead of a meal: I only had time to grab a quick snack. | a bedtime snack → see picture at DINE

S

snack² v. [I] to eat a small amount of food between main meals or instead of a meal

'snack bar n. [C] a place where you can buy snacks sna-fu /'snæfu, snæ'fu/ n. [C] (informal) a situation in which something does not happen the way it should snag¹ /snæg/ n. [C] 1 (informal) a disadvantage or problem, especially one that is not very serious: His plans hit a snag when his plane was diverted to Chicago.

THESAURUS problem, setback, difficulty, hitch → PROBLEM

2 a thread that has been accidentally pulled out of a piece of cloth because it has gotten stuck on something sharp or pointed

snag² v. (snagged, snagging) 1 [I,T] to damage something by getting it stuck on something, or to become damaged in this way: Marty's fishing line snagged on a tree branch. 2 [T] (informal) to get someone to notice you, or to succeed in getting something that is difficult to get: Can you snag that waiter for me? | I snagged two tickets for tonight's show.

snail /sneɪl/ n. [C] 1 a small soft creature that moves very slowly and has a hard shell on its back 2 at a snail's pace extremely slowly

'snail mail n. [U] the system of sending letters through the mail, rather than by email

snake¹ /sneɪk/ n. [C] an animal with a long thin body and no legs: Paul was bitten by a poisonous snake. [ORIGIN: Old English snaca] snake² v. [I] (literary) to move in long twisting curves: The train snaked its way through the hills.

snap¹ /snæp/ v. (snapped, snapping) 1 [I,T] if something snaps, or if you snap it, it breaks with a short loud noise: Dry branches snapped under their feet. | I snapped the ends off the beans and dropped them into a bowl. | He snapped the chalk in two/half (=into two pieces).

THESAURUS break, shatter, crack → BREAK¹

2 [I,T] to move into a particular position with a short loud noise, or to make something do this: The pieces just snap together like this. | She snapped her briefcase open/shut. 3 [I,T] to speak quickly in an angry way: I'm sorry I snapped at you. | "Don't be ridiculous," she snapped. 4 [I] if a dog snaps at you, it tries to bite you 5 snap your fingers to make a short loud noise by moving a finger quickly across the thumb on the same hand 6 [I] to suddenly become unable to control a strong feeling such as anger or worry: I don't know what happened – I guess I just snapped. 7 [T] to stop a series of events: Tampa snapped an eight-game losing streak on Saturday. 8 [T] (informal) to take a photograph: We asked a policeman to snap our picture.

snap out of phr. v. (informal) to suddenly stop being sad, tired, upset, etc.: Come on, Gary, snap out of it.

snap up phr. v. 1 snap sth ↔ up to buy something immediately, especially because it is very cheap: People initially snapped up shares in dot-com companies. 2 snap sb ↔ up to eagerly take an opportunity to have someone as part of your company, team, etc.: It would shock the hockey world if the Bruins didn't snap him up.

snap² n. 1 [singular] a sudden short loud noise, especially of something breaking or closing: I heard a snap, and then the tree just fell over. 2 [C] a small metal object that fastens clothes when you press its two parts together 3 be a snap (informal) to be very easy to do: Making pie crust is a snap. → cold snap at COLD¹ snap³ adj. snap judgment/decision a judgment or decision made quickly, without careful thought or discussion snap-py /'snæpi/ adj. 1 spoken or written in a short, clear, and often funny way: Keep your answer short and snappy. 2 make it snappy (spoken) said in order to tell someone to hurry, in a way that is not polite: Get me a drink, and make it snappy. 3 (informal) snappy clothes are attractive and fashionable: a snappy blue blazer snap-shot /'snæpfət/ n. [C] a photograph taken quickly and often not very skillfully

THESAURUS picture, sketch, painting, portrait, cartoon, illustration, poster, image → PICTURE¹

snare¹ /sneɪ/ n. [C] a trap for catching an animal snare² v. [T] 1 to catch an animal using a snare 2 to catch someone, especially by tricking him/her: Last year, State Police in the area snared 257 speeding motorists with their radar guns.

snarl /snɑːl/ v. 1 [I,T] to speak or say something in an angry way: "Shut up!" he snarled. 2 [I] if an animal snarls, it makes a low angry sound and shows its teeth 3 also snarl up [I,T] if traffic snarls or is snarled, it cannot move 4 [I] if hair, thread, wires, etc. snarl, they become twisted and messy and are difficult to separate —snarl n. [C] snatch¹ /snaetʃ/ v. [T] 1 to take something away from someone with a quick violent movement: I saw two kids snatch her purse. 2 to take someone or something away from a place by force: Vargas was snatched from his home by two armed men. 3 to quickly take the opportunity to do something: I managed to snatch an hour's sleep on the bus.

snatch² n. a snatch of conversation/song etc. a short and incomplete part of something that you hear snazzy /'snaezi/ adj. (informal) very bright, attractive, and fashionable: a snazzy new car

sneak¹ /sni:k/ v. (past tense and past participle sneaked or snuck /sna:k/) 1 [I] to go somewhere quietly and secretly: She snuck out of the house once her parents were asleep. 2 [T] to take something somewhere secretly: He had tried to sneak drugs across the border. 3 sneak a look/glance at sth to look at something quickly and secretly: I sneaked a look at her diary.

sneak up phr. v. to come near someone very quietly, so s/he does not see or hear you: Don't sneak up on me like that!

sneak² n. [C] (informal) someone who does things secretly and cannot be trusted sneak-er /'sni:kə/ n. [C] a TENNIS SHOE sneak-ing /'sni:kɪŋ/ adj. have a sneaking suspicion/feeling (that) to think you know something without being sure: I had a sneaking suspicion that he was lying.

sneaky /'sni:ki/ adj. doing things in a secret and often dishonest way sneer /sni:r/ v. [I] to smile or speak in a way that is not nice and shows you have no respect for someone or something: He sneered at her taste in music. —sneer n. [C] sneeze /sni:z/ v. [I] 1 when you sneeze, air suddenly comes out of your nose and mouth in an uncontrolled way, for example when you have a cold: The dust is making me sneeze. | I've been coughing and sneezing all day. 2 sth is nothing to sneeze at (informal) used in order to say that something is impressive enough to be considered important: With 35 nations involved, the competition is nothing to sneeze at. [ORIGIN: Old English fneosan] —sneeze n. [C]

snick-er /'sni:kə/ v. [I] to laugh quietly in a way that is not nice at something that is not supposed to be funny —snicker n. [C]

THESAURUS laugh, giggle, chuckle, cackle, titter, guffaw → LAUGH¹

snide /snaɪd/ adj. funny but unkind: She started making snide remarks/comments about him.

sniff /snɪf/ v. 1 [I,T] to breathe in through your nose in order to smell something: cats sniffing at their food 2 [I] to breathe air into your nose with a loud sound, especially in short breaths: She sniffed a few times and then stopped crying. —sniff n. [C] sniff at sth phr. v. to refuse something in a proud way: A job with them is nothing to sniff at (=something you should not refuse).

sniff sth ↔ out phr. v. to discover or find something by its smell: dogs that sniff out drugs

snif-fle /'snɪfəl/ v. [I] to sniff continuously in order to stop liquid from running out of your nose, especially when you are crying or when you are sick snif-fles /'snɪfəlz/ n. the sniffles a slight cold: Max has had the sniffles all week.

snip /sni:p/ v. (snipped, snipping) [I,T] to cut something with scissors, making quick small cuts —snip n. [C]

THESAURUS cut, trim → CUT¹

snipe /snaɪp/ v. [I] 1 to shoot at people from a hidden position 2 to criticize someone in an unkind way: It's easier to snipe at someone's ideas than come up with a solution.

snip-er /'snaɪpə/ n. [C] someone who shoots at people from a hidden position snip-pet /'sni:pɪt/ n. [C] a small piece of information, music, etc.: a few snippets of conversation

snit /sni:t/ n. be in a snit (informal) to be annoyed about something in a way that seems unreasonable snitch¹ /sni:tʃ/ v. (informal) 1 [I] (disapproving) to tell someone in authority that someone else has done something wrong because you want him/her to be punished 2 [T] to steal something, especially something that is small and not valuable snitch² n. [C] someone who is not liked because s/he tells people in authority when other people do things that are wrong or against the rules snivel /'sni:vəl/ v. [I] to behave or speak in a weak complaining way, especially while crying snob /sna:b/ n. [C] 1 someone who thinks s/he is better than other people: Ellen is such a snob. 2 music/wine etc. snob someone who knows a lot about music, etc. and thinks his/her opinions are better than other people's [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 snob “shoemaker, person of low social rank” (18–19 centuries)]

snob-ber-y /'sna:bəri/ n. [U] the attitudes and behavior of snobs snob-bish /'sna:bɪʃ/ also snob-by /'sna:bi/ adj. having attitudes and behavior that are typical of a snob snoop /snu:p/ v. [I] to try to find out about someone's life or activities by secretly looking at his/her things: I caught her snooping in/around my office. —snoop n. [C] snoot-y /'snu:tɪ/ adj. rude and unfriendly because you think you are better than other people snooze /snu:z/ v. [I] (informal) to sleep for a short time —snooze n. [C] snore /snɔ:r/ v. [I] to make a loud noise each time

S

you breathe while you are asleep [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 From the sound] —snore n. [C] snor-kel¹ /'snɔrkəl/ n. [C] a tube that allows a swimmer to breathe air when his/her face is under water snorkel² v. [I] to swim using a snorkel —snorkeling n. [U] snort /snɔrt/ v. [I,T] to make a noise by forcing air out through your nose, especially in order to express anger or when laughing: Olsen snorted at the suggestion. —snort n. [C] snot /snɒt/ n. (informal) 1 [U] an impolite word for the thick MUCUS (=liquid) produced in your nose 2 [C] someone who is snotty behaves as though s/he is better than other people snot-nosed adj. snot-nosed kid/brat etc. (informal) an annoying child snot-ty /'snɒti/ adj. (informal) 1 showing that you think you are better than other people (SYN) snob-bish: You're always there with a snotty remark. 2 wet and dirty with MUCUS from your nose: the child's snotty face snout /snaʊt/ n. [C] the long nose of some kinds of animals, such as pigs

snow¹ /snoʊ/ n. 1 [U] water frozen into soft white pieces that fall like rain in cold weather: Snow was falling on the quiet street. | We are expecting six inches of snow. | The snow is already melting. | High winds and heavy snow (=a lot of snow that is falling) caused chaos on the roads. | The rain was turning to light snow.

THESAURUS

snowflakes – pieces of falling snow sleet – a mixture of snow and rain slush – snow on the road that has partly melted and is very wet blizzard – a storm with a lot of snow and a strong wind frost – white powder that covers the ground when it is cold → RAIN¹

2 [C] a period of time during which snow falls: the first snow of the winter [ORIGIN: Old English snaw]

snow² v. 1 it snows if it snows, snow falls from the sky: Look, it's snowing! | We got back home before it started snowing. 2 be snowed in to be unable to leave a place because so much snow has fallen: We were snowed in for a week. 3 be snowed under (with sth) (informal) to have more work than you can deal with: I'd love to go, but I'm totally snowed under right now. 4 [T] (informal) to make someone believe or support something that is not true: Even the banks were snowed by this charming conman.

snow-ball¹ /'snoʊbəl/ n. [C] a ball made out of snow that someone has pressed together: The kids were having a snowball fight outside.

snowball² v. [I] if a problem or situation snowballs, it quickly gets bigger or harder to control snow-board /'snoʊbɔrd/ n. [C] a long wide board made of plastic, which people stand on to go down snow-covered hills as a sport snow-board-ing /'snoʊbɔrdɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of going down snow-covered hills on a snowboard —snowboarder n. [C] snow-bound /'snoʊbaʊnd/ adj. unable to leave a place because there is too much snow snow-drift /'snoʊdrɪft/ n. [C] an area of deep snow formed by the wind snow-fall /'snoʊfɔl/ n. [C,U] an occasion when snow falls from the sky, or the amount that falls in a particular period of time: a light/heavy snowfall snow-flake /'snoʊfleɪk/ n. [C] a small soft white piece of frozen water that falls as snow snow job n. [C] (informal) an act of making someone believe something that is not true snow-man /'snoʊmæn/ n. (plural snowmen /-men/) [C] a figure of a person made out of snow snow-plow /'snoʊpləʊ/ n. [C] a vehicle or piece of equipment attached to the front of a vehicle, used for pushing snow off roads snow-shoe /'snoʊʃu/ n. [C] one of a pair of wide flat frames used for walking on snow without sinking snow-storm /'snoʊstɔrm/ n. [C] a storm with strong winds and a lot of snow snow-y /'snoʊi/ adj. if it is snowy, the ground is covered with snow or snow is falling: a snowy January day snub /snʌb/ v. (snubbed, snubbing) [T] to be rude to someone, especially by ignoring him/her when you meet —snub n. [C] snuck /snaʊk/ v. a past tense and past participle of SNEAK snuff¹ /snʌf/ v.

snuff sth ↔ out phr. v. 1 to put out a CANDLE by covering it or pressing the flame with your fingers 2 (informal) to end something in a sudden way: laws intended to snuff out smoking in public places

snuff² n. [U] 1 tobacco made into a powder, which some people breathe in through their noses 2 not be up to snuff (informal) to not be good enough: Her performance just wasn't up to snuff.

snug /snʌg/ adj. 1 warm and comfortable: The children were safe and snug in their beds. 2 clothes that are snug fit fairly tightly —snugly adv.

snug-gle /'snʌgəl/ v. [I] also snuggle up to get into a warm comfortable position: couples snuggling up on cold winter nights

so¹ /soʊ/ adv. 1 used in order to emphasize what you are saying: He was so weak that he could hardly stand up. | So many kids come from broken homes these days. | I feel so embarrassed. | That party was so boring! 2 used in order to refer back to something that has already been mentioned: If you have not sent in your payment yet, please do so immediately. | “Will I need my coat?” “I don’t think so.” 3 so do I/so is he/so would John etc. used in order to say that something is also true about someone else: “I have a lot to do today.” “So do I.” | If you’re going to have dessert then so will I. 4 be so to be true or correct: “It belongs to my father.” “Is that so?” | Please say it isn’t so! 5 or so used when you cannot be exact about a number, amount, or period of time: He left a week or so ago. | Dena had five drinks or so. 6 and so on/forth used after a list to show that there are other similar things that could also be mentioned: a room full of old furniture, paintings, rugs, and so forth 7 be just/exactly so to be arranged neatly, with everything in the right place: Everything has to be just so at Maxine’s dinner parties. 8 so as (not) to do sth (formal) in order to do or not do something: Try to remain calm so as not to alarm anyone.

SPOKEN PHRASES

9 said in order to get someone’s attention, especially in order to ask him/her a question: So, Lisa, how’s the new job going? 10 said when you are making sure that you have understood something: So you aren’t actually leaving until Friday? 11 used with a movement of your hand when you are describing how big, tall, etc. something or someone is, or how to do something: It was about so big. | Then you fold the paper like so. 12 also so what? used in order to say impolitely that you do not think that something is important: “I’m going to tell Mom what you said.” “So?” | Yes, I’m late. So what? 13 (slang) definitely: He is so not the right person for her. 14 so long! used in order to say goodbye 15 so be it used in order to show that you do not like or agree with something, but you will accept it: If this means delaying the trip, then so be it. 16 so much for sth used to say that something you tried to do did not work, or something that was promised did not happen: Well, so much for getting out of here at five o’clock. 17 so help me also so help me God said in order to emphasize how determined you are: So help me God, I will not let you down.

so² conjunction 1 used in order to show why something happens: I got hungry, so I made a sandwich. ▶ Don’t say “Since I got hungry, so I made a sandwich.” ◀

THESAURUS

therefore, as a result/consequently/as a consequence, thus, hence, accordingly → THEREFORE

2 so (that) in order to make something happen, or make something possible: I put your keys in the drawer so they wouldn’t get lost. → ORDER¹

soak /soʊk/ v. [I,T] 1 if you soak something, or if you let it soak, you cover it with liquid for a period of time: Just put that dish in the sink to soak. | Soak the beans overnight. 2 to make something completely wet, or to become completely wet: If you don’t take your umbrella, you’re going to get soaked. | The blood had soaked through the bandage.

soak sth ↔ up phr. v. 1 if something soaks up a liquid, it takes the liquid into itself (SYN) absorb: The bread will soak up the milk. 2 to enjoy everything about an experience: I just wanted to soak up the sun.

soak-ing /ˈsoʊkɪŋ/ also soaking wet adj. completely wet so-and-so n. (plural so-and-sos or so-and-so’s) [U] (spoken) used in order to talk about someone, without saying his/her name: All they care about is whether so-and-so is going to be at the party.

soap¹ /soʊp/ n. 1 [U] the substance that you use with water to wash things, especially your body: a bar of soap | Wash your hands with soap and water. 2 [C] (informal) a SOAP OPERA [ORIGIN: Old English sape]

soap² v. [T] to rub soap on someone or something soap-box /ˈsoʊpɒks/ n. be/get on your soapbox (informal, disapproving) to tell people your opinions about something in a loud and forceful way soap opera n. [C] a television or radio story about the daily lives of the same group of people, which is broadcast regularly → TELEVISION soap-y /ˈsoʊpi/ adj. containing soap: soapy water

soar /sɔːr/ v. [I] 1 to increase quickly to a high level: The temperature soared to 97°. 2 to fly, especially very fast or very high up in the air: birds soaring overhead 3 buildings, mountains, or cliffs, etc. that soar look very tall and impressive: The cliffs soar 500 feet above the ocean. —soaring adj.

sob /səb/ v. (sobbed, sobbing) [I] to cry while breathing in short sudden bursts: He began sobbing uncontrollably. —sob n. [C] so-ber¹ /ˈsoʊbər/ adj. 1 not drunk 2 extremely serious: The scale of the damage is a sober reminder of the power of nature. —soberly adv.

sober² v.

sober (sb ↔) up phr. v. to gradually become less drunk, or to make someone do this: Some black coffee might sober you up.

so-ber-ing /ˈsoʊbərɪŋ/ adj. making you feel very serious: a sobering thought so-bri-e-ty /səˈbraɪəti/ n. [U] 1 the condition of not being drunk or not drinking alcohol: Almost half the AA members had two or more years of sobriety. 2 (formal) behavior that shows a serious attitude toward life sob story n. [C] (informal, disapproving) a story that someone tells you in order to make you feel sorry for him/her so-called adj. [only before noun] 1 used in order to show that you think the name that someone or something is called is wrong: these so-called freedom fighters 2 used in order to show that something or someone is usually called a particular name: Only so-called "safe and sane" fireworks are allowed.

soc·cer /'sɒkə/ n. [U] a sport played by two teams of 11 players who try to kick a ball into their opponents' GOAL [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 association (football); because it was originally played under the rules of the English Football Association] so·cia·ble /'səʊʃəbəl/ adj. someone who is sociable is friendly and likes to be with other people: I wish my son was a bit more sociable.

THESAURUS

outgoing – liking to meet and talk to new people: an outgoing, popular girl extroverted – confident, and enjoying being with other people: an extroverted salesman gregarious – friendly and enjoying being and talking with other people: a gregarious man who loves telling stories affable – friendly and easy to talk to: an affable man in his forties genial – cheerful, kind, and friendly: a big, genial man convivial (formal) – a convivial situation is friendly and pleasant and full of people: convivial church suppers → SHY¹

S

so·cial /'səʊʃəl/ adj. 1 SOCIAL SCIENCE relating to human society and the way it is organized: social issues such as unemployment and education | The students come from a variety of social classes (=groups of people who have the same social position). 2 relating to meeting people, forming relationships with them, and spending time with them: Ellis always had an active social life. | a range of social events for employees | Children need to develop their social skills. 3 social animals live together in groups, rather than alone [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin socialis, from socius "someone you spend time with"] —socially adv.: socially acceptable behavior

social 'climber n. [C] (disapproving) someone who tries very hard to move into a higher social class social 'criticism n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the act of expressing judgments about the good and bad qualities of a particular society social de'mocracy n. 1 [U] POLITICS a political and economic system, especially in many European countries, based on some ideas of SOCIALISM combined with DEMOCRATIC principles, such as personal freedom and government by elected representatives 2 [C] POLITICS a country, especially in Europe, with a government based on this system —social 'democrat n. [C] so·cial·is·m /'səʊʃəlɪzəm/ n. [U] POLITICS an economic and political system that tries to give equal opportunities to all people, and in which most businesses belong to the government → CAPITALISM, COMMUNISM —socialist adj., n. [C] so·cia·lite /'səʊʃəlɪt/ n. [C] a rich person who is well known for going to many fashionable parties so·cial·ize /'səʊʃəlaɪz/ v. [I] to spend time with other people in a friendly way: I hate having to socialize with strangers.

social mo'bility n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the ability to move easily from one social class to another social 'science n. [C,U] subjects such as history, politics, and economics, or one of these subjects

Social Se'curity n. [U] ECONOMICS a U.S. government program into which workers must pay money, that gives money to old people and others who cannot work

'social studies n. [plural] SOCIAL SCIENCE social 'welfare n. [U] programs to help people who are poor, do not have jobs, etc.

'social worker n. [C] someone who is trained to help people with particular social problems —social work n. [U]

so·ci·e·ty /sə'saɪəti/ n. (plural societies) 1 [C,U] all the people who live in the same country and share the same laws and customs: a modern industrial society | Children are the least powerful members of society.

THESAURUS

people, the public, populace, population → PEOPLE¹

2 [C] an organization with members who share similar interests, aims, etc.: the American Cancer Society organization, institution, institute, association, club → ORGANIZATION

THESAURUS

3 [U] the rich and fashionable people in a country: a society wedding so·ci·o·ec·o·nom·ic /,səʊsiə,ekə'nəmɪk, -ɪkə-/ adj. ECONOMICS relating to both social and economic conditions so·ci·ol·o·gy /,səʊsi'ələdʒi/ n. [U] the scientific study of societies and the behavior of people in groups —sociologist n. [C] so·cio·path /'səʊsiə,pæθ, -fiə-/ n. [C] someone whose behavior toward other people is strange and possibly dangerous sock¹ /sɒk/ n. [C] 1 a piece of clothing that you wear on your foot inside your shoe: a pair of socks → see picture at CLOTHES 2 knock/blow sb's socks off (informal) to surprise and excite someone a lot [ORIGIN: (1) Old English socc, from Latin soccus "light shoe"] sock² v. [T] (informal) to hit someone very hard sock·et /'sɒkɪt/ n. [C] 1 the place in a wall where you can connect electrical equipment to the supply of electricity (SYN) outlet 2 the hollow part of something that another part fits into: eye sockets sod /sɒd/ n. [C,U] a piece of dirt with grass growing on top of it so-da /'soudə/ n. [C,U] 1 a SOFT DRINK

THESAURUS soft drink, pop, soda pop → SOFT DRINK

2 also 'soda ,water water that contains BUBBLES, often added to alcoholic drinks [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Italian, name of a plant from which soda is obtained] sod-den /'sɒdn/ adj. very wet and heavy: sodden clothing

so-di-um /'soudiəm/ n. [U] 1 CHEMISTRY (symbol Na) a silver-white metal that is an ELEMENT and usually exists in combination with other substances 2 SODIUM CHLORIDE (=salt): a low-sodium diet sodium 'chloride n. [U] CHEMISTRY the type of salt that is used in cooking and on foods so-fa /'soʊfə/ n. [C] a comfortable seat that is wide enough for two or three people to sit on [SYN couch]: She sat down on the sofa. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Arabic suffah “long seat”]

soft /sɒft/ adj. 1 not hard, firm, or stiff, but easy to press [ANT hard]: a soft pillow 2 smooth and pleasant to touch [ANT rough]: soft skin | a cat with soft fur 3 a soft sound, voice, or music is quiet and often pleasant to listen to: There was some soft music playing in the background. | Her voice was soft and calming.

THESAURUS quiet, low, muffled, hushed → QUIET¹

4 soft colors or lights are not too bright [ANT harsh]: Soft lighting is much more romantic.

THESAURUS light, pale, pastel, faded → LIGHT²

5 soft drugs are illegal drugs and are considered to be less harmful than some other drugs 6 (informal) a soft job, life, etc. is too easy and does not involve hard work or difficulties 7 (informal) not strict enough or not treating people severely enough when they have done something wrong: The Governor does not want to seem soft on crime. | Some of his rivals think he's gone soft. 8 have a soft spot for sb to like someone 9 a soft touch (informal) someone who is easy to deceive or persuade to do something such as give you money 10 soft water does not contain a lot of minerals and forms bubbles from soap easily [ORIGIN: Old English softe] —softly adv. —softness n. [U]

soft-ball /'sɒftbɔːl/ n. a) [U] an outdoor game similar to baseball but played with a slightly larger and softer ball b) [C] the ball used in this game soft-boiled adj. an egg that is soft-boiled has been boiled until the white part is solid, but the yellow part is still liquid

'soft drink n. [C] a sweet drink that contains

BUBBLES and has no alcohol in it: cola and other soft drinks

THESAURUS

Soft drink, soda, pop, and soda pop all mean the same thing. Soft drink is a general word that is used everywhere in the U.S. Soda is used mainly in the Northeast and Southwest. Pop is used mainly in the Midwest and West. Soda pop is fairly old-fashioned, but it is still used in some parts of the U.S., especially in the Midwest.

soft-en /'sɒfən/ v. [I,T] 1 to become softer, or to make something do this [ANT harden]: a lotion that helps to soften your skin 2 to become less severe and more gentle, or to make something do this: His voice softened as he spoke to her. | Goldberg tried to soften the blow (=make bad news less upsetting) with a joke.

soften sb ↔ up phr. v. to be nice to someone so that s/he will do something for you soft-en-er /'sɒfənə/ n. [C] a substance that you add to water to make clothes feel soft after washing soft-heart-ed /sɒft'hɑːtɪd/ adj. kind and sympathetic soft-ie, softy /'sɒfti/ n. (plural softies) [C] (informal) someone who is very kind and sympathetic, or is easily persuaded: He's just a big softy really.

soft-spoken adj. having a quiet gentle voice soft-ware /'sɒft-wer/ n. [U] IT the sets of programs that tell a computer how to do a particular job → HARDWARE: She loaded the new software. | software programs | a software company soft-wood /'sɒft-wʊd/ n. [C,U] wood from trees such as PINE and FIR that is cheap and easy to cut, or a tree with this type of wood → HARDWOOD

soft-y /'sɒfti/ n. [C] another spelling of SOFTIE sog-gy /'sɑːgi/ adj. very wet and soft: The pie crust was kind of soggy.

soil /sɔɪl/ n. [C,U] the top layer of the earth in which plants grow: The soil here is very poor. | rich, fertile soil [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Anglo-French “piece of ground,” from Latin solium “seat”]

THESAURUS ground, earth → GROUND¹

→ see picture at PLANT¹

soil² v. [T] (formal) to make something dirty —soiled adj.

so-journ /'sɔʊdʒən/ n. [C] (formal) a period of time that you stay in a place that is not your home —sojourn v. [I] sol-ace /'sɒləs/ n. [U] a feeling of happiness after having been very sad or upset: After the death of her son, Val found solace in the church.

so-lar /'səʊlə/ adj. PHYSICS relating to the Sun or the Sun's power → LUNAR: a solar eclipse | solar energy [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin solaris, from sol “Sun”] solar 'cell n. [C] PHYSICS a piece of equipment that can produce electric power from the light from the Sun solar plex-us /,soulə 'pleksəs/ n. [singular] 1 BIOLOGY a set of nerves inside your chest just above your stomach, that control the way the organs inside your stomach area work 2 the front part of your body below your chest

'solar system n. the solar system PHYSICS the Earth and all the PLANETS, moons, etc. that move around the Sun sold /sould/ v. the past tense and past participle of SELL sol-der /'sɒdə, 'sɔ-/ v. [T] to join metal surfaces together or to repair them using melted metal sol-dier¹ /'souldʒə/ n. [C] a member of the army, especially someone who is not an officer [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French soudier, from soude “pay,” from Late Latin solidus “gold coin”] → see picture at ARMED FORCES soldier² v.

soldier on phr. v. to continue doing something in spite of difficulties: It won't be easy without him, but we'll have to soldier on.

sold-'out adj. if a concert, movie, etc. is sold-out, all the tickets for it have been sold sole¹ /soul/ (Ac) adj. [only before noun] 1 only: He was the sole survivor of the crash. | His sole purpose in going there was to see Rachel. | the sole black member of the jury 2 not shared with anyone else: The women had to take sole responsibility for their children. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French soul, from Latin solus “alone”]

sole² n. 1 [C] the bottom of your foot or shoe: The soles of his feet were perfectly clean. → see picture at SHOE¹ 2 [C,U] a flat ocean fish, or the meat from this fish sole-ly /'souli/ (Ac) adv. only, or not involving anyone or anything else: Scholarships are awarded solely on the basis of financial need.

sol-emn /'sələm/ adj. 1 very serious: His face grew solemn. | a solemn ceremony 2 [only before noun] a solemn promise is a promise that you will definitely keep [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French solemne, from Latin solemnis “ceremonial, formal, solemn”] —solemnly adv. —solemnity /sə'lemnəti/ n. [U] so-lic-it /sə'lisɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to ask someone for money, help, or information —solicitation /sə'lisə'teɪʃən/ n. [C,U] so-lic-i-tor /sə'lisɪtə/ n. [C] 1 (formal) someone who goes from place to place trying to sell goods 2 LAW the main lawyer of a city, town, or government department so-lic-it-ous /sə'lisɪtəs/ adj. (formal) caring very much about someone's safety, health, or comfort

sol-id¹ /'sɒlɪd/ adj. 1 firm and usually hard, without spaces or holes: solid rock | The lake in the park is frozen solid. → HARD¹ 2 strong and well made: a good solid chair 3 a solid achievement or solid work is of real, practical, and continuing value: Kids need a good solid education in high school. | Julia has a solid foundation for a career in design. 4 someone or something that is solid can be depended on or trusted: a bank with a solid reputation | The prosecution has no solid evidence. 5 solid gold/silver/oak etc. completely made of gold, etc.: a solid gold necklace 6 (informal) continuous, without any pauses: She didn't talk to me for three solid weeks. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French solide, from Latin solidus] —solidly adv. —solidity /sə'lidəti/ n. [U]

solid² n. [C] 1 PHYSICS an object or substance that has a firm shape: Water changes from a liquid into a solid when it freezes. 2 solids [plural] food that is not liquid: Is the baby eating solids yet? 3 MATH a shape that has length, width, and height sol-i-dar-i-ty /,sələ'dærəti/ n. [U] the loyalty and support of a group of people that share the same aim or opinions: We are going on strike to show solidarity with the nurses.

so-lid-i-fy /sə'lidəfaɪ/ v. (solidified, solidifies) [I,T] to become solid, or to make a substance become solid so-lil-o-quy /sə'lɪləkwɪ/ n. (plural soliloquies) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a long speech made by an actor who is alone on the stage sol-ip-sis-tic /,sələp'sɪstɪk/ adj. (formal, disapproving) concerned only with yourself and the things that affect you (Syn) self-centered: his solipsistic view of the world

sol-i-taire /'sələ,teɪ/ n. 1 [U] a card game for one player 2 [C] a piece of jewelry that has only one jewel in it: a diamond solitaire ring sol-i-tar-y /'sələ,teri/ adj. 1 [only before noun] a solitary person or thing is the only one in a place: A solitary figure waited by the door. 2 [only before noun] done or experienced without anyone else around: Helena took long solitary walks to the lake. 3 spending a lot of time alone, usually because you like being alone (ANT) sociable: Hamilton was described as a solitary man.

solitary confinement n. [U] a punishment in which a prisoner is kept alone sol-i-tude /'sɒlə,tʊd/ n. [U] the state of being alone, especially when this is what you enjoy: She spent most of her life living in solitude.

so-lo¹ /'səʊləʊ/ adj. 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS performed by one musician, rather than by a group: I don't really like his solo album. 2 done alone, without anyone else helping you: his first solo flight

THESAURUS alone, on your own, (all) by yourself, unaided → ALONE

—solo adv.

solo² n. (plural solos) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a piece of music written for one performer so-lo-ist /'səʊləʊɪst/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a musician who performs a solo sols-tice /'sɒlstɪs, 'sɒl-/ n. [C] the longest or shortest day of the year: the summer/winter solstice sol-u-ble /'sɒlyəbəl/ adj. CHEMISTRY a soluble substance can be DISSOLVED in a liquid (ANT) insoluble

sol-ute /'sɒlyut/ n. [C] CHEMISTRY the substance that has DISSOLVED in a chemical solution so-lu-tion /sə'lʊʃən/ n. [C] 1 a way of solving a problem or dealing with a difficult situation: the perfect solution to all our problems | Both sides are trying to find a peaceful solution. | The only solution was to move into a quieter apartment.

THESAURUS

answer — a successful way of dealing with a problem: Some people believe that the answer to the problem of rising crime is to build more prisons.

cure — a way of completely getting rid of a problem, especially one that affects many people in society, so that it does not happen again: The only cure for unemployment is to make it easier for companies to invest and create new jobs.

remedy — a possible way of dealing with a problem: A number of remedies have been suggested, but so far none has shown itself to be effective.

panacea (formal) — something that people think will solve all their problems, used especially when you doubt that this is true: Nuclear energy was seen as a universal panacea for all our energy problems.

2 the correct answer to a question or problem: The solution to the puzzle is on page 14. 3 CHEMISTRY a liquid mixed with a solid or a gas: a weak sugar solution | saline solution

THESAURUS mixture, combination, blend → MIXTURE

solve /sɒlv/ v. [T] 1 to find a way of dealing with a problem or difficult situation: Mike thinks money will solve all his problems. 2 to find the correct answer to a question or problem, or the explanation for something that is difficult to understand: I couldn't solve the equation. | Police are still trying to solve the crime/case/mystery. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin solvere “to loosen, solve, dissolve, pay”] —solvable adj.

sol-vent¹ /'sɒlvənt/ adj. having enough money to pay your debts —solvency n. [U] solvent² n. [C] CHEMISTRY a chemical substance that can change a solid substance into a liquid, or that can remove a substance from a surface som-ber /'sɒmbə-/ adj. 1 sad and serious: a somber mood 2 dark, or not having any bright colors: a somber room

some¹ /səm; strong sɒm/ quantifier 1 a number of people or things, or an amount of something, when the exact number or amount is not said or shown: Do you want some coffee? | Of course you'll make some new friends in college.

USAGE

Use some in questions when you think the answer will be “yes”: Would you like some coffee?
Use any when you do not know what the answer will be: Were there any letters for me?

2 a number of people or things, or an amount of something, but not all: The team has some of the best young players in the country. | Some people believe in life after death. | In some cases, the damage can be repaired. 3 (formal) a fairly large amount of something: It was some time before the police finally arrived. [ORIGIN: Old English sum]

some² pron. 1 a number of people or things, or an amount of something, but not all: Many local businesses are having difficulties, and some have even gone bankrupt. | Some will live and some will not. 2 a number of people or things, or an amount of something, when the exact number or amount is not stated: We're out of milk. Could you buy some on your way home? 3 and then some (informal) and more: He has enough money to buy the house and then some!

some³ determiner 1 (informal) used when you are talking about a person or thing that you do not know, remember, or understand: Can you give me some idea of the cost? | For some reason or other they decided to move to Detroit. | He's receiving some kind/type/sort of award. 2 some friend/help! etc. (spoken) said when you are annoyed because someone or something has disappointed you: I can't believe you told Mom — some brother you are!

some⁴ adv. 1 a little more or a little less than a particular number or amount: Some 700 homes were damaged by the storm. 2 some more an additional number or amount of something: Would you like some more cake? 3 (spoken) a little: We could work some and then rest a while.

some-bod-y /ˈsʌm.bədi, -ˌbɑdi/ pron. SOME-ONE some-day /ˈsʌm.deɪ/ adv. at an unknown time in the future: Someday I'm going to go to Spain.

some-how /ˈsʌm.haʊ/ adv. 1 in some way, although you do not know how: We'll get there somehow. | I knew he was connected somehow or other with the CIA. 2 for some reason, but you are not sure why: Somehow it seemed like the right thing to do.

some-one /ˈsʌm.wʌn/ pron. a word meaning a particular person, used when you do not know or do not say who that person is (SYN) somebody: Be careful! Someone could get hurt. | "Does Mike still live here?" "No, someone else (=a different person) is renting it now."

GRAMMAR

someone, anyone

In questions and negative sentences, we usually use anyone and not someone: Can anyone hear me? | There isn't anyone else who knows about this.

S

some-place /ˈsʌm.pleɪs/ adv. (spoken) SOME-WHERE som-er-sault /ˈsʌm.ə.sɔlt/ n. [C] a movement in which you roll forward until your feet go over your head and touch the ground again [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Old French sombresaut, from Latin super “over” + saltus “jump”] —somersault v. [I]

some-thing /ˈsʌmθɪŋ/ pron. 1 used to mention a particular thing when you do not know its name, do not know exactly what it is, etc. → ANYTHING, EVERYTHING, NOTHING: There's something in my eye. | He said something about a party. | There's something wrong (=a problem) with the phone. | Can you do something about that noise? | I don't eat eggs. Could I have something else? → THING

GRAMMAR

something, anything

In questions and negative sentences, we usually use anything and not something, but if you are offering someone some food, a drink, etc., it sounds more polite to use something: Would you like something to eat?

2 something to eat/drink some food or a drink: We went out for something to eat after the movie. 3 have/be something to do with sb/sth to be connected with or related to a particular person or thing, but in a way that you are not sure about: I know Steve's job has something to do with investments. 4 make something of yourself to become successful through your own efforts 5 something like 100/2,000 etc. APPROXIMATELY 100, 2,000, etc.: There are something like 3,000 homeless people in this city. 6 twenty-something/thirty-something

(informal) used when someone is between the ages of 20 and 29, 30 and 39, etc., when you do not know exactly

SPOKEN PHRASES

7 or something said when you cannot remember or cannot be exact: Maybe I cooked it too long or something. 8 be (really) something used when something is impressive or unusual: It's really something to see all the hot air balloons taking off together. 9 a little something a small gift that is not very expensive: Here's a little something for you.

some-time /ˈsʌm.taɪm/ adv. at an unknown time in the past or future: I'll call you sometime next week.

some-times /ˈsʌm.taɪmz/ adv. on some occasions, but not always: Sometimes I don't get home until 9:00 at night. | "Do you miss your old school?" "Sometimes."

THESAURUS

occasionally/on occasion — sometimes but not often: We see each other occasionally.

(every) once in a while/every so often — sometimes but not regularly: It would be nice if he would call every once in a while.

from time to time — sometimes but not often or regularly: A situation like this arises from time to time. → OFTEN, NEVER, RARELY

some-way /ˈsʌm.weɪ/ adv. (informal) SOMEHOW some-what /ˈsʌm.wʌt/ (Ac) adv. slightly, but not very much: I feel somewhat responsible for the accident.

some-where /ˈsʌm.wɛr/ adv. 1 in a place or to a place that is not specific: My wallet must be around here somewhere. | Let's find somewhere to eat. | I want to live somewhere else (=somewhere different). | They're made somewhere in Europe. 2 somewhere around/between etc. a little more or a little less than a particular number or amount (SYN) approximately: A good CD player costs somewhere around $500. 3 be getting somewhere to be making progress: At last we're getting somewhere! 4 somewhere along the line/way used in order to say that you are not sure when something happened: Somewhere along the line I made a mistake.

GRAMMAR

somewhere, anywhere

In questions and negative sentences, we usually use anywhere and not somewhere: I can't find my keys anywhere.

som-no-lent /ˈsʌm.nələnt/ adj. (literary) 1 almost starting to sleep: her somnolent brown eyes 2 making you want to sleep: a slow somnolent song —somnolence n. [U]

son /sʌn/ n. 1 [C] your male child: My son is 12 years old. | She has two daughters and one son. |

Bill was the son of German immigrants. 2 [singular] used by an older person as a friendly way to talk to a boy or young man: What's your name, son? [ORIGIN: Old English sunu]

so-na-ta /sə'natə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a piece of CLASSICAL MUSIC usually for two instruments, one of which is a piano song /sɒŋ/ n. 1 [C] a short piece of music with words: She sang a song. | a pop/folk/love song | He suddenly burst/broke into song (=started singing). 2 [U] songs in general: a celebration of music, song and dance 3 [C,U] the musical sounds made by birds [ORIGIN: Old English sang]

son-ic /'sɒnɪk/ adj. PHYSICS relating to sound

'son-in-law n. [C] the husband of your daughter son-net /'sɒnɪt/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a poem that has 14 lines that RHYME with each other in a particular pattern [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Italian sonetto, from Old Provençal sonet “little song”] so-no-rous /'sɒnərəs/ adj. having a deep, pleasantly loud sound: a sonorous voice

soon /sun/ adv. 1 in a short time from now, or a short time after something has happened: It will be dark soon. | Paula became pregnant soon after they were married.

THESAURUS

in a minute (spoken) – used when talking about something that will happen within a few minutes: I'll be ready in a minute.

any minute now (spoken) – used when something will happen in a very short time from now, but you do not know exactly when: The train should be here any minute now.

before long – soon or in a short time: Those two will be getting married before long.

shortly (formal) – soon: Davis made a confession shortly after his arrest.

in the near future – in the next few weeks or months: They promised to contact us again in the near future.

presently (old-fashioned) – in a short time: The doctor will see you presently.

2 quickly: I'll get it fixed as soon as possible. | How soon can you get here? 3 as soon as immediately after something has happened: I tried to call you as soon as I heard the news. 4 sooner or later used to say that something will definitely happen, but you are not sure when: She's bound to find out sooner or later. 5 the sooner...the better used to say that something should happen as quickly as possible: The sooner you finish this report, the better. 6 no sooner had...than used when something has happened almost immediately after something else: No sooner had I stepped in the shower than the phone rang. → would (just) as soon at WOULD soot /sʊt/ n. [U] black powder that is produced when something burns soothe /suð/ v. [T] 1 to make someone feel calmer and less worried, angry, or upset: Lucy soothed the baby by rocking him in her arms. 2 to make a pain stop hurting as much: A massage would soothe your aching muscles. [ORIGIN: Old English sothian “to prove the truth,” from soth “true”] relieve, ease, lessen, alleviate

THESAURUS

→ REDUCE

—soothing adj.: gentle, soothing music sop /sɒp/ v. (sopped, sopping) sop sth ↔ up phr. v. to remove a liquid from a surface using something that will ABSORB the liquid: Jesse sopped up the spilled drink with a towel.

so-ph-is-ti-cat-ed /sə'fɪstə'keɪtɪd/ adj. 1 confident and having a lot of experience of life and good judgment about socially important things such as art, fashion, etc.: She's beautiful, sophisticated, and wealthy. 2 having a lot of knowledge and experience of difficult or complicated subjects and therefore able to understand them well: today's more sophisticated investors 3 made or designed well, and often complicated: a highly sophisticated alarm system [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Medieval Latin, past participle of sophisticare “to deceive with words, hide the true nature of something,” from Latin sophisticus]

THESAURUS

advanced, modern, high-tech, state-of-the-art, cutting-edge → ADVANCED —sophistication /sə'fɪstə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] soph-o-more /'sɒfmɔːr/ n. [C] a student in the second year of HIGH SCHOOL or college → STUDENT

soph-o-mor-ic /sɒf'mɔːrɪk/ adj. very silly and unreasonable: sophomoric humor sop-o-rif-ic /sɒpə'rɪfɪk/ adj. (formal) making you feel ready to sleep sop-ping /'sɒpɪŋ/ also sopping wet adj. very wet so-pra-no /sə'prænəʊ/ n. (plural sopranos) [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a woman, girl, or young boy singer with a very high voice sor-bet /sɔː'beɪ, 'sɔːrbət/ n. [C,U] a sweet frozen food made from fruit juice, sugar, and water [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Old French “fruit drink,” from Old Italian sorbetto] sor-cer-er /'sɔːsərə/ n. [C] a man in stories who uses magic (SYN) wizard sor-cer-ess /'sɔːsəɪs/ n. [C] a woman in stories who uses magic (SYN) witch

sor-cer-y /'sɔːsəri/ n. [U] magic, especially evil magic

THESAURUS

magic, witchcraft, black

magic → MAGIC¹

sor-did /'sɔːdɪd/ adj. involving immoral or dishonest behavior: all the sordid details of the scandal [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin sordidus, from sordes “dirt”]

sore¹ /sɔːr/ adj. 1 painful as a result of a wound, infection, or too much exercise: My knee's a little sore from running yesterday. | a sore throat

THESAURUS painful, tender, stiff → PAINFUL

2 sore point/spot (with sb) something that is likely to make someone upset or angry if you talk about it: Don't mention marriage – it's a sore point with him. 3 (old-fashioned) upset, angry, or annoyed [ORIGIN: Old English sar] —soreness n. [U] sore² n. [C] a painful place on your body where your skin is cut or infected: They were starving and covered with sores.

sorely /'sɔːrli/ adv. very much: He will be sorely missed by everyone.

so-ror-i-ty /sə'rɒrəti, -'rɒr-/ n. (plural sororities) [C] a club for women at a college or university → FRATERNITY

sor-row /'sərou, 'sɔː-/ n. [C,U] a feeling of great sadness, or an event that makes you feel great sadness: a time of great/deep sorrow | Our prayers are with you in your time of sorrow. —sorrowful adj.

S

sor-ry /'sari, 'sɔːri/ adj. 1 sorry/I'm sorry (spoken) a) used to tell someone that you feel bad about doing something that has upset or annoyed him/her: I'm really sorry. I didn't mean to hurt your feelings. | "Kevin! Don't do that!" "Sorry." | Sorry about the mess. | I'm sorry (that) I was late. b) used when politely saying something that disappoints or disagrees with someone: I'm sorry – we're not going to be able to come. | I'm sorry to call you so late, but this is important. 2 [not before noun] feeling bad about a situation and wishing it were different: Casey was sorry (that) he had gotten so angry. | I was sorry to hear of your father's death. 3 be/feel sorry for sb to feel pity or sympathy for someone because s/he is in a bad situation: He was lonely and I felt sorry for him. | Stop feeling sorry for yourself and do something! 4 sorry? (spoken) used to ask someone to repeat something that you have not heard correctly (SYN pardon) 5 [only before noun] (informal) very bad: That's the sorriest excuse I've ever heard. [ORIGIN: Old English sarig, from sar; influenced by sorrow]

sort¹ /sɔːt/ n. 1 [C] a type or kind of something: What sort of work does he do? | They had all sorts of (=many different kinds of) seafood on the menu.

THESAURUS type, kind, category → TYPE¹

2 sort of (spoken) used when what you are saying or describing is not very definite or exact: I still feel sort of tired. | "Do you like him then?" "Sort of." 3 [singular] if a computer does a sort, it arranges a list of things in order

sort² v. [T] to put things in a particular order, or to arrange them in groups according to size, type, etc.:

Eggs are sorted according to size. | Applications will be sorted into three piles.

sort sth ↔ out phr. v. 1 to organize something that is messy, complicated, or in the wrong order: I need to sort out all the paperwork. 2 to deal with a problem: Mike's still trying to sort out his personal life.

sort through sth phr. v. to look at a lot of things in order to find something or arrange things in order: We sorted through all his papers after he died.

sort-a /'sɔːtə/ a short form of "sort of," used in writing to show how people sound when they speak: He's sorta cute.

SOS n. [singular] a signal or message that a ship or airplane is in danger and needs help [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 S and O, letters chosen because they were easy to send by Morse code, but often understood as short for "save our souls"]

'so-so adj., adv. (spoken) neither very good nor very bad: "How was the movie?" "So-so."

souf-flé /su'fleɪ/ n. [C,U] a baked food that is light and made from eggs, flour, milk, and sometimes cheese sought /sɔːt/ (AC) v. the past tense and past participle of SEEK

'sought-after adj. wanted by a lot of people, but difficult to get: a sought-after chef

soul /soul/ n. 1 [C] the part of a person that is not physical and contains his/her thoughts, feelings, character, etc. Many people believe the soul continues to exist after death: the immortality of the human soul | He knew in his soul that Linda was never going to change. 2 [C] a person: There wasn't a soul in sight. 3 [U] a type of popular modern music that often expresses deep emotions, usually performed by black singers and musicians 4 [U] a special quality that gives something its true character: the soul of the Old Town area 5 [U] a special quality that makes you feel strong emotions: His poetry lacks soul. [ORIGIN: Old English sawol] soul-ful /'soulfəl/ adj. expressing deep, usually sad, emotions: a soulful performance soul-less /'soul-lɪs/ adj. lacking the qualities that make people feel interest, emotions, or excitement: a soulless suburb

'soul-searching n. [U] the act of carefully examining your thoughts and feelings in order to make a decision: soul-searching questions

sound¹ /saʊnd/ n. 1 [C,U] something that you hear, or something that can be heard: the sound of breaking glass | Turn the sound down/up (=make it quieter or louder) on the TV, will you?

THESAURUS

A sound is anything that you can hear: the sound of voices

A noise is usually a loud, unpleasant, or unexpected sound: the deafening noise of overhead planes

2 like the sound of sth to be interested in a plan, idea, what someone says, etc.: “Things will be changing.” “I don’t like the sound of that.” 3 from the sound of it/things (spoken) according to what you have heard or read about something: From the sound of it, they’re having marriage problems. 4 [C] EARTH SCIENCES a long wide area of water that connects two larger areas of water

sound² v. 1 [linking verb] if someone or something sounds good, strange, etc., he, she, or it seems that way when you hear or read about him, her, or it: Mike sounds like a nice guy. | It sounded wonderful – a dream trip. 2 [linking verb] to seem to show a particular quality or emotion with your voice: You sound upset. | He sounded as though/if he were having second thoughts. | You sound like you have a cold.

THESAURUS seem, appear, come across as sth → SEEM

3 [linking verb] if a noise sounds like a particular thing, that is how it seems to you when you hear it: That sounded like thunder. 4 sound a warning/the alarm to give a public warning or tell people to be careful 5 sounds good (spoken) said in order to accept something that someone has suggested: “Do you want Thai food?” “Sounds good.” 6 [I,T] to produce a noise, or to make something do this: The church bells sounded.

sound sb/sth ↔ out phr. v. 1 to talk to someone in order to find out what s/he thinks about a plan or idea: He used polls to sound out public opinion. 2 to make the sounds of the letters as you try to read a word: The children were sounding out words in class.

sound³ adj. 1 practical, based on good judgment, and likely to produce good results: His advice was sound. | a sound investment 2 in good condition and not damaged in any way 3 of sound mind LAW not mentally ill sound⁴ adv. sound asleep completely asleep

'sound barrier n. the sound barrier the point when an aircraft reaches the speed of sound

'sound bite n. [C] a short phrase from a speech or statement that presents an important idea and that is meant to be used on a radio or television news program

'sound card n. [C] IT a CIRCUIT BOARD in a computer that makes the computer able to produce sounds

'sound effects n. [plural] special sounds used in order to make a movie, television show, etc. seem more real

'sounding board n. [C] someone you discuss your ideas with before using them sound-ly /'saʊndli/ adv. 1 sleep soundly to sleep well and peacefully 2 completely or severely: Washington was soundly defeated.

sound-proof /'saʊndpruːf/ adj. a soundproof wall, room, etc. is one that sound cannot pass through, into, or out of —soundproof v. [T] sound-track /'saʊndtræk/ n. [C] the recorded music from a movie: the soundtrack to “The Mission”

soup /sup/ n. [C,U] a hot liquid food that often has pieces of meat or vegetables in it: chicken noodle soup | a bowl of soup [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French soupe “piece of bread dipped in liquid, soup”]

'soup kitchen n. [C] a place where free food is given to people who have no home sour¹ /saʊə/ adj. 1 having an acid taste, like the taste of a LEMON: sour apples

THESAURUS sweet, tasty, salty, hot, spicy
→ TASTE¹

2 milk or other food that is sour is not fresh and has a bad taste and smell: The milk had gone sour. 3 unfriendly or unhappy: a sour expression 4 turn/go sour (informal) to stop being enjoyable or satisfactory: Their marriage had turned sour. [ORIGIN: Old English sur]

sour² v. 1 [I] to stop being enjoyable, friendly, or satisfactory: Relations between the two countries had soured. 2 [I,T] to become sour, or to make a food do this

source¹ /sɔːrs/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 the thing, place, person, etc. that you get something from: gasoline and other sources of energy | Tourism is the city’s main/major/primary source of income. | We used a halogen lamp as a light source because it creates a very powerful beam of light.

THESAURUS origin, root → ORIGIN

2 the cause of a problem, or the place where it starts: Technicians located the source of the problem. 3 a person, book, or document that you get information from: Reliable sources say the company is going bankrupt. | Use sources such as books, magazines, and websites when doing research for your paper. 4 EARTH SCIENCES the place where a stream or river starts [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French source, from sourdre “to rise, spring out,” from Latin surgere “to rise”] source² (Ac) v. [T] to find out where you can obtain something from: Many companies are now sourcing both materials and labor outside the U.S.

,sour 'cream n. [U] a thick white cream with a sour taste, used in cooking sour-dough /'saʊədou/ also ,sourdough 'bread n. [U] a type of bread with a slightly sour taste

south¹, South /saʊθ/ n. [singular, U] 1 the direction that is at the bottom of a map of the world, or to the right of someone facing the rising Sun: Which way is south? → see picture at NORTH¹ 2 the south the southern part of a country, state, etc.: Rain will spread to the south later today. | the south of France 3 the South the southeastern states of the U.S. [ORIGIN: Old English suth]

S

USAGE

Use north/south/east/west of sth in order to describe where a place is in relation to another place: Memphis is south of St. Louis.

Use in the north/south/east/west, etc. of sth in order to say which part of a place you are talking about: The mountains are in the west of the province.

Use northern/southern/eastern/western, etc. with the name of a place: They have a cabin in northern Ontario. Don't say "in the north of Ontario."

south² adj. 1 in, to, or facing south: The hotel's about two miles south of Monterey. | the south wall 2 south wind a wind coming from the south

south³ adv. 1 toward the south: Go south on I-35. | The window faces south. 2 down South in or to the southeastern part of the U.S.: My folks still live down South.

South A-mer-i-ca /ˌsaʊθ ə'merəkə/ n. one of the seven CONTINENTS, that includes land south of the Caribbean Sea and north of Antarctica —South American adj.

south-bound /ˌsaʊθbaʊnd/ adj. traveling or leading toward the south: the southbound lanes of the freeway south-east¹ /ˌsaʊθ'ist/ n. [U] 1 the direction that is exactly between south and east → see picture at NORTH¹ 2 the southeast the southeast part of a country, state, etc. 3 the Southeast the area of the U.S. that includes the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, and South Carolina —southeastern adj.

southeast² adj., adv. in, from, or toward the southeast: We drove southeast. | a southeast wind south-er-ly /ˈsʌðəli/ adj. 1 in or toward the south: a southerly direction 2 a southerly wind comes from the south south-ern /ˈsʌðən/ adj. in or from the south part of an area, state, country, etc.: southern New Mexico → see USAGE box at SOUTH¹ south-ern-er /ˈsʌðənə/ n. [C] someone who comes from the southern part of a country or the southern HEMISPHERE

south-ern-most /ˈsʌðən,məʊst/ adj. farthest south

South Pa'cific n. the South Pacific the southern part of the Pacific Ocean where there are groups of islands, such as New Zealand and Polynesia

South 'Pole n. the South Pole the most southern point on the surface of the Earth, or the area around it → see picture at GLOBE south-ward /ˌsaʊθwəd/ adj., adv. toward the south south-west¹ /ˌsaʊθ'west/ n. [U] 1 the direction that is exactly between south and west → see picture at NORTH¹ 2 the southwest the southwest part of a country, state, etc. 3 the Southwest the area of the U.S. that includes the states of New Mexico, Arizona, Texas, California, Nevada, and sometimes Colorado and Utah —southwestern adj.

southwest² adj., adv. in, from, or toward the southwest: We drove southwest. | a southwest wind

sou-ve-nir /ˌsu:və'nɪr, 'suvə,nɪr/ n. [C] an object that you keep to remind yourself of a special occasion or a place that you have visited: I bought a model of the Eiffel Tower as a souvenir of Paris. | a souvenir shop [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French souvenir "to remember"]

sov-er-eign¹ /ˈsəvərɪn/ adj. 1 having the highest power or authority in a country 2 POLITICS a sovereign country is independent and governs itself —sovereignty n. [U] sovereign² n. [C] (formal) a king or queen

THESAURUS king, queen, prince, princess, monarch, ruler, emperor → KING

So-vi-et /ˈsoʊviɪt, -vi,et/ adj. relating to or coming from the former Soviet Union sow¹ /soʊ/ v. (past tense sowed, past participle sown /soun/ or sowed) [I,T] to plant or scatter seeds on a piece of ground: Sow herbs indoors in February.

sow² /saʊ/ n. [C] a female pig soy-bean /ˈsoɪbi:n/ n. [C] a bean from which oil and food containing a lot of PROTEIN is produced spa /spa/ n. [C] 1 also health spa a place that people go to in order to improve their health, especially a place where the water has special minerals in it 2 a special bathtub that sends currents of hot water around you [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Spa Belgian town with a spa] space¹ /speɪs/ n. 1 [U] the amount of an area, room, container, etc. that is empty or available to be used: The class has space for five more students. | There's not enough space in the computer's memory. 2 [C,U] an empty area that is used for a particular purpose: parking spaces | storage space 3 [U] PHYSICS the area beyond the Earth where the stars and PLANETS are: the first man in space | space exploration | an alien from outer space (=far away in space)

TOPIC

Things in space

meteor, asteroid, comet, moon, planet, star, sun, constellation, galaxy, black hole

Vehicles used in space spacecraft, spaceship, rocket, (space) shuttle, satellite, probe

Someone who travels in space astronaut

4 [C] the empty area between two things: the spaces between the words | an empty space at the back of the stage

THESAURUS hole, gap, crack, opening →
HOLE¹

5 in the space of sth within a particular period of time: They went from first place to last in the space of a season. 6 [C,U] empty land that does not have anything built on it: a fight to save the city's open spaces 7 [U] freedom to do what you want or to be alone: I want to give my students space to think for themselves.

space² v. 1 [T] to arrange objects, events, etc. so that they have an equal amount of space or time between them: Space the plants four inches apart. 2 [I] also space out (slang) to stop paying attention and begin to look in front of you without thinking —spacing n. [U]

'space-age adj. (informal) very modern: space-age design

'space ca, det also 'space case n. [C] (informal) someone who is SPACEY space-craft /'speɪs-kræft/ n. [C] a vehicle that can travel in space → SPACE¹ spaced /speɪst/ also ,spaced 'out adj. (informal) SPACEY space-ship /'speɪs,ʃɪp/ n. [C] a spacecraft — used especially in stories → SPACE¹

'space ,shuttle n. [C] a spacecraft for carrying people into space, that can be used more than once space-y /'speɪsi/ adj. (spoken) someone who is spacey does not pay attention, forgets things, and often behaves slightly strangely spa-cious /'speɪʃəs/ adj. having a lot of space in which you can move around: a spacious house spade /speɪd/ n. [C] 1 a SHOVEL 2 a playing card with one or more black shapes like pointed leaves on it → see picture at PLAYING CARD [ORIGIN: (1) Old English spadu] [ORIGIN: (2) 1500—1600 Italian spada or Spanish espada “broad sword” (used as a mark on cards)] spa-ghet-ti /spə'ɡetɪ/ n. [U] long thin pieces of PASTA that look like strings [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Italian spago “string”] spam¹ /spæm/ n. [U] IT email messages that a computer user has not asked for and does not want to read, for example from someone who is advertising something spam² v. [I,T] IT to send the same email message to many different people who have not asked for it and do not want to read it, usually as a way of advertising something —spamming n. [U]

span¹ /spæn/ n. [C] 1 the amount of time during which something continues to exist or happen: Most children have a short attention span. | The mayfly has a two-day life span. 2 a period of time between two dates or events: Over a span of five years, they planted 10,000 new trees. | a short time span³ the distance from one side of something to the other: the bird's wing span span² v. (spanned, spanning) [T] 1 to include all of a period of time: a career spanning four decades 2 to include all of a particular area: The Internet spans the globe. 3 to go from one side of something to the other: a bridge spanning the river span-iel /'spæniəl/ n. [C] a dog with long hair and long ears [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French espaingol “Spaniard, spaniel,” from Latin Hispania “Spain”]

Span-ish¹ /'spæniʃ/ adj. 1 relating to or coming from Spain 2 relating to the Spanish language

Spanish² n. 1 [U] the language used in places such as Mexico, Spain, and South America 2 the Spanish [plural] the people of Spain, considered as a single group spank /spæŋk/ v. [T] to hit a child on the BUTTOCKS with your open hand [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 From the sound] —spanking n. [C,U]

spar /spar/ v. (spared, sparring) [I] 1 to practice BOXING with someone 2 to argue with someone: Republican and Democrat senators have been sparring over the health bill.

spare¹ /spɛr/ adj. 1 spare key/battery etc. a key, etc. that you have in addition to the one you usually use, so that it is available if it is needed 2 not being used by anyone and therefore available for use: a spare bedroom 3 spare time time when you are not working: I play tennis in my spare time. 4 spare change coins that you can afford to give to someone [ORIGIN: Old English spær] spare² v. [T] 1 to prevent someone from having to do something difficult or unpleasant: I wanted to spare the kids the pain of our divorce. 2 money/time etc. to spare money or time that is left in addition to what you have used or need: We made it to the airport with 10 minutes to spare. 3 to make something such as time, money, or workers available for someone, especially when this is difficult: I guess I can spare a few dollars. | Could you spare me twenty minutes? 4 spare no expense/effort etc. to use as much money, effort, etc. as necessary to do something 5 to not damage or harm someone or something, when other people or things are being killed or damaged: If they surrendered, their lives would be spared.

spare³ n. [C] an additional key, BATTERY, etc. that you keep so that it is available if it is needed: There's a spare (=additional tire) in the trunk.

spar-ing-ly /'spɛrɪŋli/ adv. using or giving only a little of something: Use water sparingly this summer. —sparing adj.

spark¹ /spɑ:k/ n. [C] 1 a very small piece of fire coming from a larger fire or from hitting two hard objects together: sparks from the fire 2 PHYSICS a flash of light caused by electricity passing across a small space 3 spark of interest/intelligence etc. a small amount of a feeling or quality: As she spoke, she saw a spark of hope in Tony's eyes.

S

[ORIGIN: Old English spearca]

spark² v. 1 [T] to make something start happening: The argument about whether slavery should be abolished or maintained sparked off the American Civil War. 2 [I] to produce sparks sparkle /'spɑːkl̩/ v. [I] 1 to shine in small bright flashes: diamonds sparkling in the light

THESAURUS shine, flash, flicker, twinkle, shimmer, glint, glisten → SHINE¹

2 if someone's eyes sparkle, they shine because s/he is happy or excited —sparkle n. [C,U] sparkler /'spɑːkl̩/ n. [C] a type of FIREWORK that you can hold in your hand, consisting of a thin stick that burns with colored SPARKS sparkling /'spɑːklɪŋ/ adj. 1 shining brightly with points of flashing light: a sparkling brook 2 very clean: the sparkling kitchen

'spark plug n. [C] a part in a car engine that produces the SPARK to make the gas burn sparrow /'spærəʊ/ n. [C] a common small brown or gray bird [ORIGIN: Old English spearwa] sparse /spɑːs/ adj. small in number or amount, and usually scattered over a large area: sparse vegetation [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Latin sparsus “spread out,” from the past participle of spargere “to scatter”] —sparsely adv.: sparsely populated spartan /'spɑːtən/ adj. very simple and without comfort: a spartan room [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Spartan “of Sparta” (16–21 centuries), from Sparta city in ancient Greece whose people lived simply] spasm /'spæzəm/ n. [C] 1 an occasion when your muscles suddenly become tight, causing you pain: back spasms 2 a short period during which you have a sudden strong feeling or reaction to something: spasms of laughter [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French spasme, from Latin, from Greek spasmos, from span “to pull”] spasmodic /spæz'mɒdɪk/ adj. 1 happening for short periods of time but not regularly or continuously: my spasmodic efforts to stop smoking 2 relating to a muscle spasm —spasmodically adv.

S

spastic /'spæstɪk/ adj. (old-fashioned) BIOLOGY having CEREBRAL PALSY, a disease that prevents someone being able to control his/her muscles spat¹ /spæt/ n. [C] (informal) an argument or disagreement that is not important (SYN) quarrel spat² v. a past tense and the past participle of SPIT spate /speɪt/ n. a spate of sth a large number of similar events that happen in a short period of time: a spate of burglaries spatial /'speɪʃəl/ adj. relating to the position, size, or shape of things spat-ter /'spætə/ v. [I,T] if a liquid spatters, or if you spatter it, drops of it fall onto a surface: a t-shirt spattered with paint spat-u-la /'spætʃələ/ n. [C] a kitchen tool with a wide flat part, used for lifting or spreading food spawn¹ /spɒn/ v. 1 [T] to make something happen or start to exist: The book “Dracula” has spawned a number of movies. 2 [I,T] BIOLOGY if a fish or FROG spawns, it lays a lot of eggs spawn² n. [U] BIOLOGY the eggs of a fish or FROG laid together in a soft group spay /speɪ/ v. [T] BIOLOGY to remove part of a female animal's sex organs so that she cannot produce babies (SYN) neuter speak /spɪk/ v. (past tense spoke /spouk/, past participle spoken /'spoukən/)

1 TALK TO SB [I] to talk to someone about something or have a conversation: Hello, can I speak to Mr. Sherwood, please? | Solomon spoke with a reporter. | He spoke of/about his love of the theater.

2 SAY WORDS [I] to use your voice to say words: He spoke very softly.

3 LANGUAGE [T] to be able to talk in a particular language: My brother speaks French. ▶ Don't say “My brother speaks in French.” ◀ | Can you speak English?

4 OPINIONS [I] to say something that expresses your ideas or opinions: Generally speaking, money issues matter most to voters. | He spoke highly/well of (=said good things about) her.

5 so to speak (spoken) used in order to say that the words you have used do not have their usual meaning: Being beaten by a 12-year-old took the wind out of my sails, so to speak.

6 speaking of sb/sth (spoken) used when you want to say more about someone or something that has just been mentioned: Speaking of Jody, how is she?

7 speak your mind to say exactly what you think

8 no sth to speak of also without any sth to speak of nothing large or important enough to mention: There is no industry in the town to speak of.

9 GIVE A SPEECH [I] to make a formal speech: Burnett spoke at the graduation ceremony. [ORIGIN: Old English sprecan, specan] speak for sb/sth phr. v.

1 also speak on behalf of sb to express the feelings, thoughts, etc. of another person or group of people: Mr. Miles spoke for all the parents at the school.

2 sth speaks for itself to show something so clearly that no explanation is necessary: Our profits speak for themselves (=our profits show how good or bad our business is).

3 be spoken for to be promised to someone else: This puppy is already spoken for.

speak out phr. v.

to say publicly what you think about something, especially as a protest: people speaking out against human rights abuses speak up phr. v.

1 (spoken) used in order to ask someone to speak more loudly: Could you speak up please, I can't hear you.

2 to say publicly what you think about something: If you don't like what's happening, speak up!

speak-er /'spikə/ n. [C] 1 someone who makes a speech: the guest speaker for the evening 2 the part of a radio, CD PLAYER, etc. where the sound comes out → see picture on page A6 3 English/French etc. speaker someone who speaks English, French, etc. 4 also Speaker of the House POLITICS the politician who controls discussions in the U.S. House of Representatives spear¹ /spɪr/ n. [C] a pole with a sharp pointed blade at one end, used as a weapon spear² v. [T] to push a pointed object such as a fork into something spear-head /'spɪrhed/ v. [T] to lead an attack or an organized action: the troops who spearheaded the rescue mission

special¹ /'speʃəl/ adj. 1 different in some way from what is ordinary or usual, and often better or more important: a special place in the classroom for reading | Give her something special this Christmas. | a dish served on special occasions 2 particularly important to someone and deserving love, attention, etc.: He made me feel special. | her special friends 3 special care/attention etc. more care, attention, etc. than is usual: We try to give special care to the youngest patients. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French especial, from Latin specialis “particular”]

special² n. [C] 1 something that is not ordinary or usual, but is made or done for a particular purpose: a TV special on the election 2 a lower price than usual for a particular product for a short period of time: today's lunch special | Chickens are on special.

special edu'cation n. [U] education for children who have physical or mental problems special effects n. [plural] images or sounds that have been produced artificially to be used in a movie or television program spe-cial-ist /'speʃəlɪst/ n. [C] someone who knows a lot about a particular subject or has a lot of skill in it: a heart specialist

THESAURUS expert, authority → EXPERT

spe-cial-ize /'speʃəlaɪz/ v. [I] to limit most of your study, business, etc. to a particular subject or activity: a lawyer who specializes in divorce cases — specialization /'speʃələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] spe-cial-ized /'speʃəlaɪzd/ adj. developed for a particular purpose: soldiers going through specialized training spe-cial-ly /'speʃəli/ adv. 1 for one particular purpose: specially trained dogs used by blind people 2 (spoken) especially: I had it made specially for you.

special 'prosecutor n. [C] LAW an independent lawyer who is chosen to examine the actions of a government official and find out if they have done anything wrong or illegal spe-cial-ty /'speʃəlti/ n. (plural specialties) [C] 1 a subject that you know a lot about, or a skill that you have: his academic specialty 2 a food or product that is very good, produced in a particular restaurant, area, etc.: The house specialty is chicken enchiladas. 3 a particular product or business that has one purpose or sells one type of thing: specialty magazines spe-ci-a-tion /,spɪʃi'eɪʃən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the process by which one existing species of animal, plant, etc. gradually changes over a long period of time and forms into two or more different species that are GENETICALLY different spe-cies /'spɪʃɪz, -sɪz/ n. (plural species) [C] BIOLOGY a group of animals or plants of the same kind that can breed with each other → GENUS: Three different species of deer live in the forest. → see also ENDANGERED SPECIES, INVASIVE SPECIES [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin “appearance, kind,” from specere “to look (at)”] → TYPE¹ spe-cif-ic /sprɪ'sɪfɪk/ (Ac) adj. 1 detailed and exact: specific questions | Can you be more specific? 2 used when talking about a particular thing, person, time, etc.: Set a specific time aside to do homework. 3 specific to sth limited to or affecting only one particular thing: a disease specific to birds

spe-cif-i-cally /sprɪ'sɪfɪkli/ (Ac) adv. 1 for a particular type of person or thing: a book written specifically for teenagers 2 in a detailed or exact way: You were specifically requested to leave by 4 p.m.

spec-i-fi-ca-tion /,spesəfə'keɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C usually plural] a detailed instruction about how something should be done, made, etc.: The airport tower was built to FAA specifications.

spe,cific 'heat n. [U] CHEMISTRY the amount of heat that is needed to raise the temperature of one gram of a substance by one degree Celsius spe-cif-ics /sprɪ'sɪfɪks/ (Ac) n. [plural] the exact details of something: The candidate made promises but gave no specifics on how to achieve those promises.

spe-ci-fy /'spesə'faɪ/ (Ac) v. (specified, specifies) [T] to state something in an exact and detailed way: The governor did not specify what changes would be made. | His contract specifies that he work a forty-hour week.

spec-i-men /'spesəmən/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a small amount or piece of something that is taken so that it can be tested or examined: a blood/urine specimen 2 BIOLOGY a single animal, plant, etc. from a group of animals, plants, etc.: a specimen of tropical fish 3 a single example of something: a fine specimen of Roman pottery from the 1st Century A.D. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin specere “to look (at)”] spe-cious /ˈspiʃəs/ adj. (formal) seeming to be true or correct, but really false: a specious argument speck /spek/ n. [C] a very small mark, spot, or piece of something: a speck of dust speck-led /ˈspekəld/ adj. covered with a lot of small spots or marks: speckled eggs

S

spec-ta-cle /ˈspektəkəl/ n. [C] 1 (disapproving) an unusual or strange thing or situation that you see: He got drunk and made a spectacle of himself. 2 a very impressive show or scene: the magnificent spectacle of a forest in fall 3 spectacles [plural] (old-fashioned) glasses that you use to see things better

spec-tac-u-lar /ˈspekˈtækjələ/ adj. very impressive or exciting: a spectacular view of the Grand Canyon —spectacularly adv.

spectacular ² n. [C] an event or performance that is very big and impressive

S

spec-ta-tor /ˈspek,tetə/ n. [C] someone who watches an event, game, etc. → see picture at AUDIENCE

spec-ter /ˈspektə/ n. 1 the specter of sth something that frightens you because it may affect you badly: The failure of the talks raised the specter of war. 2 [C] (literary) a GHOST

THESAURUS ghost, spirit, phantom, apparition → GHOST

spec-trum /ˈspektrəm/ n. (plural spectra /-trə/) 1 [singular] a complete or very wide range of opinions, ideas, people, etc.: The policy appeals to a wide/broad spectrum of voters. | women from across the social spectrum 2 [C] PHYSICS the set of different colors that is produced when light passes through a PRISM

spec-u-late /ˈspekjəleɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to guess why something happened or what will happen next, without knowing all the facts: Officials would not speculate on/about the cause of the crash. 2 [I] ECONOMICS to buy goods, property, etc., hoping to make a large profit when you sell them [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin, past participle of speculari “to watch (secretly),” from specere “to look (at)”] —speculator n. [C] —speculation /ˈspekjəˈleɪʃən/ n. [C,U]: speculation that he will resign

spec-u-la-tive /ˈspekjələtɪv, -lətɪv/ adj. 1 based on guessing, not facts: a speculative article 2 ECONOMICS bought or done in order to make a profit later: a speculative investment sped /spɛd/ v. a past tense and past participle of SPEED

speech /spitʃ/ n. 1 [C] a talk, especially a formal one about a particular subject, given to a group of people: a campaign speech | Walters gave/made a speech at graduation. | a speech on/about immigration 2 [U] the ability to speak, or the way someone speaks: Her speech was slow. 3 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS spoken language rather than written language: In speech we use a smaller vocabulary than in writing.

speech-less /ˈspitʃlɪs/ adj. unable to speak because you are angry, shocked, upset, etc.: Boyd's answer left her speechless.

speed ¹ /spɪd/ n. 1 [C,U] how fast something moves or travels: a car traveling at high/low speed ▶ Don't say “in high speed.” ◀ | an air speed of 400 miles an hour

COLLOCATIONS

at high/low speed
at great speed
at top/full speed
at lightning speed – extremely fast at breakneck speed – dangerously fast at the speed of light

2 [U] the rate at which something happens or is done: a high-speed train | the speed of change | The city is growing at breakneck speed (=very fast). 3 [U] the quality of being fast: a player with speed and power 4 five-speed/ten-speed etc. having a particular number of GEARS 5 [U] (slang) an illegal drug that makes you very active [ORIGIN: Old English sped “success, quickness”] speed ² v. (past tense and past participle sped /spɛd/ or speeded) 1 [I] to move or happen quickly: The train sped along/by/past.

THESAURUS rush, race, dash, hurry → RUSH ¹

2 be speeding to be driving faster than the legal limit speed up phr. v. to move or happen faster, or to make something do this: an attempt to speed up production | We sped up to pass the car in front of us.

speed-boat /ˈspɪdbəʊt/ n. [C] a small boat with a powerful engine that can go very fast speed-ing /ˈspɪdɪŋ/ n. [U] the action of traveling too fast in a vehicle: Police stopped him for speeding.

'speed ,limit n. [C] the fastest speed that you are allowed to drive on a particular road: a 40 mph speed limit speed-om-e-ter /sɪˈdʌmətə/ n. [C] an instrument in a vehicle that shows how fast it is going

'speed trap n. [C] a place on a road where police wait to catch drivers who are going too fast speed-y /ˈspɪdi/ adj. (comparative speedier, superlative speediest) happening or done quickly, or working quickly: a speedy recovery —speedily adv.

spell ¹ /spel/ v. 1 [I,T] to form a word by writing or saying the letters in the correct order: My last name is Haines, spelled H-A-I-N-E-S. | a list of words that are often spelled wrong 2 spell trouble/defeat/danger etc. if a situation spells trouble, etc., it makes you expect trouble: Too many tourists could spell danger for the wilderness. 3 [T] if letters spell a word, they form it [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French espeller] spell sth ↔ out phr. v. to explain something clearly and in detail: an advert spelling out the dangers of smoking spell² n. [C] 1 a piece of magic that someone does, or the special words or ceremonies used in doing magic: The witches cast a spell on/over the young prince.

THESAURUS magic, curse → MAGIC¹

2 a period of a particular type of weather, activity, etc.: a dizzy spell | We've had a cold/warm/wet/dry spell for most of January.

spell-bound /'spelbaʊnd/ adj. extremely interested in something you are listening to: His stories kept/held us spellbound.

'spell-checker n. [C] IT a computer program that tells you when you have not spelled a word correctly —spell-check v. [I,T] spell-ing /'spelɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the ability to spell words in the correct way: His spelling has improved. 2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the way that a word is spelled: the correct spelling

'spelling bee n. [C] a spelling competition done by students spend /spend/ v. (past tense and past participle spent /spent/) 1 [I,T] to use your money to buy or pay for something: We spend $150 a week on groceries. | Spending their own money teaches kids about budgets. 2 [T] to use time doing a particular activity: I want to spend more time with my family. | We spent the day/morning etc. by the pool. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Partly from Latin expendere and partly, later, from Old French despendre, from Latin dispendere “to weigh out”] spend-ing /'spendɪŋ/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the amount of money spent on something, especially by the government: a cut in defense/public spending spend-thrift /'spendθrɪft/ n. [C] someone who spends a lot of money in a careless way spent¹ /spent/ v. the past tense and past participle of SPEND spent² adj. 1 already used and now empty or useless: spent cartridges 2 (literary) extremely tired sperm /spɜ:m/ n. (plural sperm) 1 [C] BIOLOGY a cell produced by the male sex organ that joins with an egg to produce new life 2 [U] BIOLOGY SEMEN spew /spju/ also spew out v. [I,T] to flow out of something in large quantities, or to make something do this: factories spewing out pollution sphere /sfɪr/ [Ac] n. [C] 1 the shape of a ball:

The Earth is a sphere. 2 a particular area of work, interest, knowledge, etc.: women's sphere of activity 3 sphere of influence an area of the world or a situation in which a particular country, group, or person can influence what happens 4 MATH a solid object in the shape of a ball, in which every point on the surface is exactly the same distance from the center. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French espere, from Latin sphaera, from Greek sphaira “ball, sphere”] spher-i-cal /'sfɪrɪkəl, 'sfɜ:-/ [Ac] adj. having a round shape like a ball sphinx /sfɪŋks/ n. [C] an ancient Egyptian image of a lion with a human head

spice¹ /spais/ n. 1 [C,U] a powder or seed taken from plants that is put into food to give it a special taste: herbs and spices 2 [singular,U] interest or excitement that is added to something: Travel adds spice to your life. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French espice, from Late Latin species “spices”] —spiced adj.

spice² also spice up v. [T] 1 to add interest or excitement to something: Graphics spice up your marketing materials. 2 to add spice to food spick-and-span /,spɪk ən 'spæn/ adj. very clean and neat spic-y /'spaisi/ adj. food that is spicy contains a lot of spices: a hot and spicy chili

THESAURUS sweet, tasty, sour, salty, hot → TASTE¹

spi-der /'spaidə/ n. [C] a small creature with eight legs that makes WEBS (=sticky nets) to catch insects [ORIGIN: Old English spithra, from spinnan] spi-der-web /'spaidə,web/ n. [C] a WEB → COBWEB

spi-der-y /'spaidəri/ adj. covered with or made of lots of long thin uneven lines: spidery handwriting spiel /spil, spil/ n. [C,U] (informal) a speech that the speaker has used many times before, usually intended to persuade someone to buy something spike¹ /spaɪk/ n. [C] 1 something that is long and thin with a sharp point, especially a piece of metal 2 a sudden large increase in the number, price, rate, etc. of something: a spike in share prices —spiky adj.

spike² v. 1 [T] to add something, especially alcohol or a drug, to a drink: The orange juice had been spiked with gin. 2 [I] if a number, price, rate, etc. spikes, it increases quickly: His temperature had spiked.

spill¹ /spɪl/ v. 1 [I,T] if a liquid spills or you spill it, it flows over the edge of a container by accident: I spilled coffee on my shirt. 2 [I] if people spill out of a place, they move out in large groups 3 spill your guts (informal) to tell someone a lot of personal things, especially because you are upset [ORIGIN: Old English spillan “to kill, destroy, waste”] spill over phr. v. if a problem or bad situation spills over, it begins to affect other places, people, etc.: There's a danger that the war will spill over into neighboring countries.

spill² n. [C,U] an act of spilling something, or the amount that is spilled: an oil spill

spin¹ /spɪn/ v. (past tense and past participle spun /spʌn/, present participle spinning) 1 [I,T] to turn around and around very quickly, or to make something do this: The ceiling fans were spinning. | He grabbed Lisa by the arm and spun her around (=turned her around).

THESAURUS turn, twist, whirl, twirl, swivel, go around, revolve, rotate → TURN¹

2 [T] to describe a situation or information in a way that is intended to influence the way people think about it – used especially about what politicians do: In the book, he admits his affair but spins it as best he can. 3 [I,T] to make cotton, wool, etc. into thread by twisting it together 4 sb's head is spinning if your head is spinning, you feel confused or as though you might FAINT (=become unconscious) 5 be spinning your wheels (informal) to continue trying to do something without having any success 6 [T] if an insect spins a WEB or a COCOON, it produces thread and makes it 7 spin a tale/yarn/story to tell a story that you have invented spin (sth ↔) off phr. v. to make part of a company into a separate company, or to become a separate company: The company may spin off its engineering division. [ORIGIN: Old English spinnan]

spin² n. 1 [C,U] an act of turning around quickly: the spin of the wheel 2 [singular,U] POLITICS the way someone, especially a politician, talks about information or a situation, in order to influence the way people think about it → SPIN DOCTOR: A spokesman tried to put a positive spin on the report. | political spin control (=the attempt to control the way people think about an event) 3 [singular] (informal) a short trip in a car for pleasure spin-ach /ˈspɪnɪtʃ/ n. [U] a vegetable with large dark green leaves [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French espinache, from Arabic isfanakh, from Persian]

spi-nal /ˈspainl/ adj. relating to or affecting the SPINE: a spinal injury

'spinal cord n. [C] BIOLOGY the long string of nerves that go from your brain down your back, through your SPINE → *see picture at BRAIN*¹ spin-dly /ˈspɪndli/ adj. long and thin and not strong: spindly legs

'spin doctor n. [C] POLITICS someone who describes a situation in a way that is intended to influence people's opinions of it: a White House spin doctor spine /spain/ n. [C] 1 also 'spinal column BIOLOGY the long row of bones down the center of your back → see picture on page A3 2 a stiff sharp point on an animal or plant: cactus spines 3 the part of a book that the pages are attached to spine-less /ˈspainlɪs/ adj. lacking courage and determination spin-ner-et /ˌspɪnəˈret/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a small organ on the body of a SPIDER, from which silk comes out when the spider is making a WEB

'spinning wheel n. [C] a simple machine used in past times to make thread

'spin-off n. [C] a television program using characters that were originally on a different program spin-ster /ˈspɪnstə/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a woman who is not married, especially one who is no longer young and seems unlikely to marry spi-ral¹ /ˈspairəl/ n. [C] 1 a curve in the form of a continuous line that winds around a central point 2 a process in which something gradually but continuously gets worse or better: the peso's downward spiral (=in which it continues to lose value) —spiral adj.: a spiral staircase

spiral² v. [I] 1 to move up or down in the shape of a spiral: a leaf spiraling to the ground 2 to gradually but continuously get worse in a way that cannot be controlled: The economy has spiraled downward. | He felt his life was spiraling out of control.

spire /spaɪə/ n. [C] a tower that rises steeply to a point, especially on a church

spir-it /ˈspɪrɪt/ n. 1 [C,U] the qualities that make someone live the way s/he does, and make him/her different from other people, and which many people believe continues to exist after death → SOUL: He has a generous/free/independent spirit. | I can still feel her spirit in this house. | The Olympic flame symbolizes the best of the human spirit (=the qualities that make us human). 2 spir-its [plural] how happy or sad someone feels at a particular time: The children were in high/good spirits (=happy and excited). | Her spirits rose/sank (=she became happy or unhappy) when she heard the news. | The music helped lift her spirits (=made her happier). 3 [C] a creature without a physical body, such as an ANGEL or GHOST: the spirits of our ancestors

THESAURUS ghost, phantom, specter, apparition → GHOST

4 [U] courage, energy, and determination: the team's fighting spirit 5 [singular] the attitude that you have toward something: a spirit of cooperation 6 team/community/public etc. spirit the strong feeling of belonging to a particular group and wanting to help it [ORIGIN: 1200–1300]

Anglo-French, Latin spiritus “breath, spirit”]

spir-it-ed /ˈspɪrɪtɪd/ adj. having a lot of courage, determination, and energy: a spirited discussion

spir-i-tu-al 1 /ˈspɪrɪtʃuəl, -tʃəl/ adj. 1 relating to the spirit rather than the body or mind: spiritual health 2 relating to religion: a spiritual leader —spiritually adv.

spiritual 2 n. [C] a religious song first sung by the black people of the U.S. when they were SLAVES spit 1 /spɪt/ v. (past tense and past participle spit or spat /spæt/, present participle spitting) [I,T] to force a small amount of liquid, blood, food, etc. from your mouth: He spat on the ground. | She tasted the drink and immediately spat it out. [ORIGIN: Old English spittan] spit up phr. v. if a baby spits up, it brings back milk from its stomach out of its mouth spit 2 n. 1 [U] (informal) SALIVA 2 [C] a long thin stick that you put through meat to cook it over a fire spite 1 /spaɪt/ n. [U] 1 in spite of sth without being affected or prevented by something [SYN] despite: Mrs. Helland, in spite of her age, is still beautiful.

THESAURUS however, despite, nevertheless/nonetheless → ALTHOUGH

2 a feeling of wanting to hurt, annoy, or upset someone: Lois refused to let her ex-husband see the children out of spite (=because of spite).

spite 2 v. [T] to annoy or upset someone deliberately: He's doing this just to spite me!

spite-ful /ˈspaɪtˈfʊl/ adj. being unkind deliberately in order to annoy or upset someone

THESAURUS mean, cruel, unkind, nasty, vicious, malicious → MEAN 2

splash 1 /splæʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] if a liquid splashes, or if you splash it, it falls on something or hits against it: He splashed some cold water on his face. | Water splashed down onto the rocks. 2 [I] to move around in water in a noisy way: The children were splashing around in the pool.

splash 2 n. [C] 1 the sound water makes when something hits it: Jerry jumped into the water with a loud splash. → see picture on page A7 2 a mark made by a liquid splashing onto something else: splashes of paint on my pants 3 a splash of color a small area of bright color 4 make a splash (informal) to do something that gets a lot of public attention: The story made a splash in the newspapers.

splash-y /ˈsplæʃi/ adj. big, bright, and very easy to notice: a splashy tie splat /splæt/ n. [singular] (informal) the sound made when something wet hits a hard surface splat-ter /ˈsplætə/ v. [I,T] if a liquid splatters, or if someone splatters it, it hits against a surface: rain splattering against the window splay /spleɪ/ also splay out v. [I,T] to spread your fingers, arms, or legs wide apart: He sat with his legs splayed out in front of him.

spleen /splɪn/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an organ near your stomach that helps clean your blood and fight against infections splen-did /ˈsplændɪd/ adj. 1 excellent: a splendid performance 2 beautiful or impressive: a splendid view from the balcony [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin splendidus, from splendere “to shine”] —splendidly adv.

splen-dor /ˈsplændə/ n. [U] impressive beauty: the splendor of Yosemite Valley splice /splaɪs/ v. [T] to join the ends of two pieces of film, wire, etc. so they form one piece splint /splɪnt/ n. [C] a flat piece of wood, metal, etc. used for keeping a broken bone in position while it HEALS splin-ter 1 /ˈsplɪntə/ n. [C] 1 a small sharp piece of wood, glass, or metal that has broken off of a larger piece: I have a splinter in my finger. 2 splinter group/organization a group of people that separate from a larger organization because they have different ideas splinter 2 v. [I,T] 1 to break into thin sharp pieces, or to cause something to do this 2 if a group or organization splinters, or if it is splintered by something such as a disagreement, it separates into smaller groups or organizations split 1 /splɪt/ v. (past tense and past participle split, present participle splitting) 1 [I,T] also split up to divide or make something divide into two or more groups, parts, etc.: We'll split (up) into three work groups. | Try splitting this section into two.

THESAURUS separate, divide, break up, segregate, partition → SEPARATE 2

2 [I,T] to tear or break something along a straight line, or to be torn or broken in this way: The board had split in two. | One of the boxes had split open. 3 [I,T] if a group of people splits, or if something splits them, they divide into smaller groups after disagreeing strongly about something: It was feared that the issue would split the church. 4 [T] to divide something among two or more people in equal parts: Do you want to split a pizza? | We decided to split the money between us. 5 [I] (informal) to leave a place quickly split up phr. v. to end a marriage or a relationship: Eve's parents split up when she was three.

split 2 n. [C] 1 a long straight hole caused when something breaks or tears: a split in the seam of my skirt 2 a serious disagreement that divides an organization or group of people into smaller groups: a split in the Republican Party split in'finitive n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a phrase in which you put an adverb or other word between the word “to” and an INFINITIVE (=basic form of a verb), for example in “to easily win.” Some people think that this is incorrect English.

split-level adj. a split-level house, room, or building has floors at different heights in different parts split 'second n. a split second an extremely short period of time: For a split second, I thought I was going to die. —split-second adj.: a split-second decision (=one taken very quickly) split-ting /ˈsplɪtɪŋ/ adj. splitting headache a very painful HEADACHE splurge /splɜːdʒ/ v. [I] (informal) to spend more money than you can usually afford: We went shopping and splurged on clothes.

S

spoil /spɔɪl/ v. 1 [T] to ruin something by making it less attractive, enjoyable, useful, etc.: Don't let his bad mood spoil your evening. 2 [T] to let a child do or have whatever they want, with the result that they behave badly: We've been careful not to spoil our kids. 3 [T] to treat someone in a way that is very kind or too generous: a hotel that spoils its guests 4 [I] if food spoils, it starts to decay [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French espoillier, from Latin spoliare “to strip, rob”] spoiled /spɔɪld/ adj. someone, especially a child, who is spoiled is rude and behaves badly because s/he is always allowed to do or have whatever s/he wants: a spoiled brat spoils /spɔɪlz/ n. [plural] things taken by an army from a defeated enemy, or things taken by thieves spoil-sport /ˈspɔɪlsɔːrt/ n. [C] (informal) someone who spoils other people's fun: Come on and play, don't be a spoilsport.

spoke¹ /spəʊk/ v. the past tense of SPEAK spoke² n. [C] one of the thin metal bars that connect the outer edge of a wheel to the center, especially on a bicycle → see picture at BICYCLE spok-en¹ /ˈspəʊkən/ v. the past participle of SPEAK spoken² adj. 1 spoken English/language the form of a particular language that you speak rather than write 2 softly-spoken/soft-spoken/well-spoken speaking quietly or in an educated way: a soft-spoken man (=he speaks quietly) spokes-man /ˈspəʊksmən/ n. (plural spokesmen /-mən/) [C] a male spokesperson: a spokes-man for the victims' families spokes-per-son /ˈspəʊks,pəːsən/ n. (plural spokespeople /-,pɪpəl/) [C] someone who has been chosen to speak officially for a group, organization, government, etc.: a White House spokesperson spokes-wom-an /ˈspəʊks,wʊmən/ n. (plural spokeswomen /-,wɪmɪn/) [C] a female spokesperson spoon-dee /ˈspændi/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a RHYTHM in poetry in which there are two STRESSED words or SYLLABLES next to each other, as in the phrase “praise Him” sponge¹ /spʌndʒ/ n. 1 [C,U] a piece of a very light substance that is full of small holes and is used for washing or cleaning something 2 [C] a sea animal with a soft body, from which some sponges are made [ORIGIN: 1000–1100 Latin spongia, from Greek] sponge² v. 1 [T] also sponge down to wash something with a wet sponge 2 [T] to remove liquid from a surface using a sponge 3 [I] (informal, disapproving) to get money, food, etc. from someone without working for it: He's been sponging off his friends for years.

'sponge cake n. [C,U] a light cake made with eggs, sugar, and flour but usually no fat spong-y /ˈspʌndʒi/ adj. soft and full of holes like a sponge: spongy wet earth

spon-sor¹ /ˈspənsə/ n. [C] 1 ECONOMICS a person or company that sponsors a television show, sports event, etc.: the sponsor of the French Open 2 POLITICS a politician who officially introduces or supports a proposal for a new law: Senator Kelly is one of the bill's chief sponsors. 3 someone who sponsors a person for CHARITY sponsor² v. [T] 1 ECONOMICS to give money to a television show, sports event, etc. in exchange for the right to advertise your products at the event: a competition sponsored by Campbell's Soup 2 POLITICS to officially introduce or support a proposal for a new law 3 to agree to give someone money for a CHARITY if s/he walks, runs, swims, etc. a particular distance —sponsorship n. [U]: the industry's sponsorship of major sporting events

spon-ta-ne-ous /spanˈteɪniəs/ adj. happening or done without being planned or organized: a spontaneous decision —spontaneously adv. —spontaneity /ˌspʌntəˈneɪti, ˌspantˈn'eɪ-/ n. [U]

THESAURUS impulsive, impetuous, hasty → IMPULSIVE

spoof /spʊf/ n. [C] a funny book, movie, or play, etc. that copies a serious or important book, etc. and makes it seem silly: a spoof on/of Shakespeare's "Richard III" —spoof v. [T] spook¹ /spuk/ n. [C] (informal) a GHOST

spook² v. [T] (informal) to frighten someone: Being alone all night really spooked me. | The drop in share prices spooked investors.

spook-y /ˈspuki/ adj. (informal) strange or frightening SYN eerie: a spooky old house spool /spul/ n. [C] an object shaped like a small wheel that you wind wire, thread, camera film, etc. around spoon¹ /spun/ n. [C] a tool used for eating, cooking, and serving food, shaped like a small bowl with a long handle [ORIGIN: Old English spōn “piece of wood split off”] spoon² v. [T] to pick up or move food with a spoon: Spoon the sauce over the fish.

spoon-er-ism /ˈspunəˌrɪzəm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a phrase in which the speaker accidentally exchanges the first sounds of two words, with a funny result. For example, the speaker might say

“Let me sew you to a sheet” instead of “Let me show you to a seat.”

'spoon-feed v. (past tense and past participle spoon-fed) [T] (disapproving) to give too much help to someone: Spoon-feeding students does not help them remember things.

spoon-ful /'spunfʊl/ n. [C] the amount that a spoon can hold: a spoonful of sugar

spo-rad-ic /spə'rædɪk/ adj. happening often but not regularly or continuously: sporadic bombing [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Medieval Latin sporadicus, from Greek, from sporaden “scattered in different places”] —sporadically adv.

spore /spɔːr/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a cell that is like a seed and is produced by living things which have only a single set of GENES, such as MUSHROOMS or BACTERIA. Spores can develop into new mushrooms, bacteria, etc.: Fungus spores are often spread by the wind. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Modern Latin spora, from Greek, “act of planting seeds, seed”]

sport¹ /spɔːt/ n. [C] 1 a physical activity in which people compete against each other: What's your favorite sport? | Do you play any sports? | Soccer and basketball are team sports. | Baseball is America's most popular spectator sport (=one watched by a lot of people).

THESAURUS

Places where people play sports field – a large area of ground, usually covered with grass, where team sports are played: a football/baseball/soccer field | The athletic fields are next to the school.

stadium – a large sports field with seats all around it for people to watch team sports or track and field competitions: a football stadium court – an area with lines painted on the ground, for tennis, basketball, etc.: a tennis court diamond – the area in a baseball field that is within the shape formed by the four bases, also used to refer to the whole field track – a special area for running on gym – a large room with machines which you can use to do exercises

(swimming) pool – a place where you can swim health club – a building where you can do various different sports

2 an activity such as hunting or fishing

THESAURUS

game, recreation, hobby →

GAME¹

3 a good sport someone who does not get angry when s/he loses at a game or sport 4 a bad/poor sport someone who gets angry very easily when s/he loses at a game or sport [ORIGIN: late Middle English 1300–1400 disport] sport² v. be sporting sth to be wearing or showing something in a proud way: Martin walked in sporting a tall white cowboy hat.

sport-ing /'spɔːtɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] relating to sports: a store selling sporting goods (=sports equipment) | one of the biggest sporting events of the year

sports /spɔːts/ adj. 1 relating to sports or used for sports: a sports club | sports equipment 2 on the subject of sports: I like reading the sports pages/section (=in a newspaper).

'sports car n. [C] a low fast car, often with a roof that can be folded back sports-cast /'spɔːts-kæst/ n. [C] a television program of a sports game

'sports jacket also 'sports coat n. [C] a man's comfortable jacket, worn on informal occasions sports-man-ship /'spɔːtsmən,ʃɪp/ n. [U] behavior that is fair, honest, and polite in a game or sports competition: We try to teach the kids good sportsmanship.

sports-wear /'spɔːtswɛr/ n. [U] clothes that are appropriate for informal occasions

,sport-u'tility ,vehicle n. [C] an SUV sport-y /'spɔːtɪ/ adj. (informal) designed to look attractive in a bright informal way: a sporty red car

spot¹ /spɒt/ n. [C]

1 PLACE a particular place: Oh, sorry, I'm sitting in your spot. | a popular vacation spot | a parking spot

THESAURUS

place, position, location, site

→ PLACE¹

2 COLORED AREA a small round area on a surface, that is a different color from the rest: a white dog with black spots

3 MARK a small mark on something: grease spots | There are spots of blood on his jacket.

THESAURUS

mark, stain, smudge, smear

→ MARK²

4 on the spot (informal) a) immediately: Cathy was offered the job on the spot. b) at the place where something is happening: He lit up a cigar on the spot.

5 APPEARANCE a short appearance or advertisement on TV, radio, etc.: an advertising spot | a guest spot on the Tonight Show

6 POSITION a position in a competition: The top finisher will earn a spot in the U.S. Olympic team.

7 put sb on the spot to deliberately ask someone a question that is difficult or embarrassing to answer

8 bright spot something that is good in a bad situation: Foreign trade is the one bright spot in the economy. → hit the spot at HIT¹

spot² v. (spotted, spotting) [T] 1 to notice or recognize someone or something that is difficult to see: A helicopter pilot spotted the wreckage of the plane. | She has a good eye for spotting talent. | I spotted something moving in the trees.

THESAURUS

see, notice, glimpse/catch a glimpse of sth/sb, catch sight of sb/sth → SEE

S

2 to give the other player in a game an advantage: Come on, I'll spot you 10 points if you play.

spot 'check n. [C] an examination of a few things or people in a group, to see whether everything is correct or satisfactory: Health inspectors will make spot checks throughout the state.

spot-less '/spatlɪs/ adj. 1 completely clean: Donna keeps her car spotless. 2 completely honest and good: a spotless reputation spot-light '/spɒtlaɪt/ n. 1 [C] a very powerful light that can be directed at someone or something, or the light made by this. Spotlights are often used to light a stage when actors or singers are performing. 2 the spotlight a lot of attention in newspapers, on television, etc.: Russia is back in the media spotlight again.

spotlight ² v. [T] to make people pay attention to someone or something: a music festival that spotlights modern composers spot-ty '/spɒti/ adj. good in some parts but not in others: The stock market showed spotty gains.

spouse /spaus/ n. [C] (formal) a husband or wife [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French espous(e), from Latin sponsus “promised (in marriage)”] spout ¹ /spaut/ n. [C] a small pipe on the side of a container that you pour liquid out through spout ² v. 1 [I,T] if a liquid spouts or fire spouts from somewhere, it comes out very quickly in a powerful stream: A leak spouted from the garden hose. 2 [I] (informal) also spout off to talk a lot in a boring or annoying way: He's always spouting off about politics.

sprain /spreɪn/ v. [T] to injure a joint in your body by suddenly twisting it: Amy sprained her ankle when she fell. —sprain n. [C]

THESAURUS hurt, twist, strain, pull → HURT¹ → INJURY

sprang /spræŋ/ v. a past tense of SPRING sprawl /sprɔːl/ v. [I] 1 also sprawl out to lie or sit with your arms or legs stretched out: When we got home, Carey was sprawled on the sofa. 2 if a building or town sprawls, it spreads out over a wide area in an unattractive way —sprawl n. [singular, U]: urban sprawl (=growth in the size of a town or city)

spray ¹ /spreɪ/ v. 1 [T] to make a liquid come out of a container, HOSE, etc. in a stream of very small drops: Spray a little perfume on the backs of your knees too. | She sprayed herself with perfume. → see picture at SQUIRT¹ 2 [I] to be scattered in small drops or pieces through the air: Water sprayed from the garden hose.

spray ² n. 1 [C,U] liquid that is forced out of a container in a stream of very small drops: hair spray 2 [C] a special container from which liquid comes out in small drops: a non-aerosol spray 3 [U] water that is thrown up into the air in very small drops: The boat scattered sea spray over us as it rocked up and down.

spread ¹ /spred/ v. (past tense and past participle spread)

1 OPEN/ARRANGE [T] also spread out to open something so that it covers a big area, or to arrange a number of things so that they cover a flat surface: Tracy had a map spread out over the floor. | The population is evenly spread across the state. | He sat with books and papers spread over the table.

2 AFFECT MORE PEOPLE/PLACES/THINGS [I,T] to move and affect more people, places, or a larger area, or to make something do this: Rain will spread throughout the area by tonight. | Cancer has spread to her lungs. | Only a small number of insects spread disease.

3 INFORMATION/IDEAS [I,T] to tell a lot of people about something or to become known by a lot of people: His neighbors began spreading rumors that he was a spy. | News of her arrest quickly spread.

4 SOFT SUBSTANCE [T] to put a soft substance onto a surface in order to cover it: Spread some honey on the bread.

5 PUSH APART [I,T] also spread apart to push your arms, legs, or fingers wide apart

6 DO STH GRADUALLY [T] also spread out to do something gradually over time: You can spread the payments over a year.

7 spread yourself too thin to try to do too many things at the same time so that you do not do any of them effectively

8 WINGS [T] also spread open if a bird or insect spreads its wings, it stretches them wide spread out phr. v.

if a group of people spread out, they move apart from each other in order to cover a wide area: If we spread out, it should be easier to find her.

spread ² n. 1 [singular] the increase in the area or number of people that something has an effect on: the spread of TB 2 [C,U] a soft food that you put on bread: cheese/chocolate etc. spread 3 [C] (informal) a large meal for several people on a special occasion: There was a nice spread at the reception after the wedding. 4 [C] a special article or advertisement in a newspaper or magazine: a two-page spread 5 [C] a large farm or RANCH: a 300-acre spread spread-sheet '/spredʃi:t/ n. [C] 1 it a computer program that can show and calculate financial information 2 a document that contains rows and COLUMNS of numbers that can be used to calculate something spree /spri/ n. [C] a short period in which you do something that you enjoy, especially spending money or drinking: I see you went on a shopping spree!

spring /sprɪŋ/ n. [C] a small stem or part of a branch with leaves or flowers on it: a spring of parsley

spring¹ /sprɪŋ/ n. 1 [C,U] the season between winter and summer, when leaves and flowers appear: The park opens in the spring. | I'm going to Cancun this spring. | last/next spring (=the spring before or after this one) 2 [C] a twisted piece of metal that has been made so that it will return to its original shape after it has been pressed down 3 [C] EARTH SCIENCES a place where water comes up naturally from the ground: a hot spring 4 [U] the ability of a chair, bed, etc. to return to its normal shape after being pressed down 5 [C] a sudden quick movement or jump in a particular direction

spring² v. (past tense sprang /spræŋ/ also sprung /sprʌŋ/, past participle sprung) [I] 1 to jump or move suddenly and quickly in a particular direction: He turned off the alarm and sprang out of bed. | He sprang to his feet (=stood up suddenly) and rushed after her. | The lid of the box sprang open/shut (=suddenly opened or shut). | The branch sprang back/up (=moved quickly back to its original position or shape) and hit him in the face.

THESAURUS jump, skip, hop, leap → JUMP¹

2 spring to mind if someone or something springs to mind, you immediately think of him, her, or it: Pam's name springs to mind as someone who could do the job. 3 spring into action/spring to life to suddenly become active or start doing things: The whole school springs into action at Homecoming. 4 spring to sb's defense to immediately help someone who is being attacked or criticized: Molly sprang to her daughter's defense. 5 spring a leak if a boat or a container springs a leak, it begins to let liquid in or out through a crack or hole spring for sth phr. v. (informal) to pay for something: Carol said she'd spring for lunch.

spring from sth phr. v. to be caused by something: health problems that spring from living in a cold, wet country spring sth on sb phr. v. (informal) to tell someone something or ask him/her to do something when s/he does not expect it and is not ready for it: I'm sorry to have to spring this on you.

spring up phr. v. to suddenly appear or start to exist: All along the railroad, new towns sprang up.

spring-board /'sprɪŋbɔːd/ n. [C] 1 something that helps you to start doing something: His computer knowledge provided a springboard for his career. 2 a strong board that bends, used in order to jump high, especially into water spring 'break n. [C] a vacation from school in the spring that is usually one week long spring 'chicken n. be no spring chicken (humorous) to no longer be young spring 'fever n. [U] a sudden feeling of energy and wanting to do something new and exciting, that you get in the spring spring 'tide n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a TIDE in which the rise and fall of the level of the sea is higher than normal, which takes place every two weeks when the moon is new or full → NEAP TIDE spring-time /'sprɪŋtaɪm/ n. [U] the time of year when it is spring spring-y /'sprɪŋi/ adj. returning quickly to its original shape after being pressed: springy grass

sprin-kle¹ /'sprɪŋkl̩/

v. 1 [T] to scatter small drops of liquid or small pieces of something onto something else: spaghetti sprinkled with parmesan | She sprinkled some cookie crumbs on the ice cream. 2 it is sprinkling if it is sprinkling, it is raining lightly sprinkle² n.

[C] 1 small pieces of food, or a light layer of these: chocolate sprinkles | a sprinkle of grated cheese 2 a light rain sprin-kler /'sprɪŋkl̩/ n. [C] a piece of equipment used for scattering drops of water on grass sprint /sprɪnt/ v. [I] to run very fast for a short distance —sprint n. [C] —sprinter n. [C]

THESAURUS run, dash, tear, race → RUN¹

sprout¹ /spraʊt/ v. 1 [I,T] BIOLOGY to start to grow, or produce new leaves, BUDS, or SHOOTs: a plant sprouting new flowers | seeds beginning to sprout 2 [I] also sprout up to appear suddenly in large numbers: new homes sprouting up in the suburbs

sprout² n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a new growth on a plant 2 a bean or other plant that is not fully grown and is eaten in SALADS: alfalfa sprouts 3 a BRUSSELS SPROUT spruce¹ /sprus/ n. [C,U] a tree with short leaves shaped like needles, or the wood of this tree spruce² v.

spruce (sth/sb) up phr. v. (informal) to make yourself or a place look better or neater: I want to spruce up a little before dinner.

sprung /sprʌŋ/ v. a past tense and the past participle of SPRING spry /sprɪ/ adj. a spry old person is active and cheerful spud /spʌd/ n. [C] (informal) a POTATO spun /spʌn/ v. the past tense and past participle of SPIN spunk-y /'spʌŋki/ adj. (informal) brave and full of energy and determination: the film's spunky heroine

S

—spunk n. [U]

spur¹ /spɜː/ n. 1 on the spur of the moment without planning ahead of time: We got married on the spur of the moment. 2 [C] a sharp pointed object attached to the heel of a rider's boot that s/he presses against the side of a horse to encourage it to go faster spur² v. (spurred, spurring) [T] 1 to make an improvement or change happen faster: Growth in the city was spurred by cheap housing. 2 also spur sb on to encourage someone to do or continue doing something: Her sister's success spurred her on to practice harder.

spu-ri-ous /ˈspjʊəriəs/ adj. (formal) not based on correct facts or careful thinking, and so likely to be wrong: spurious arguments [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Late Latin spurius, from Latin (noun), “child of unmarried parents”] spurn /spɜːn/ v. [T] (literary) to refuse to accept something or to refuse to have a relationship with someone, in an unkind way: a spurned lover spurt¹ /spɜːt/ v. [I] 1 to flow out suddenly with a lot of force: Blood spurted from his arm.

S

THESAURUS

pour, flow, gush, run, come out → POUR

2 to suddenly move forward very quickly: Liz spurted past the other runners.

spurt² n. [C] 1 a stream of liquid, flames, etc. that comes out of something suddenly: Water was coming out of the faucet in spurts (=quickly for short periods). 2 a short sudden increase in activity, effort, or speed: a growth spurt

sput-ter /ˈspʌtə/ v. 1 [I] if something such as a process sputters, it stops working well or effectively: The country's economic growth sputtered to a halt during 2007. 2 [I] if an engine sputters, it makes sounds like very small explosions, because it is not working correctly: The engine sputtered and died. 3 [I,T] to talk quickly in short confused phrases, especially because you are angry or shocked: “They think I'm a fool,” she sputtered.

spy /spaɪ/ v. (spied, spies) [I] to secretly collect information or watch people, usually for a government or company: She hired a private detective to spy on her husband. | He confessed to spying for North Korea. —spy n. [C]: a government spy

squab-ble /ˈskwəbəl/ v. [I] to argue about something unimportant: What are those kids squabbling about now? —squabble n. [C]

THESAURUS

argue, have an argument, fight, have a fight, quarrel, have a quarrel, bicker → ARGUE squad /skwəd/ n. [C] a group of people who work together and do a job that needs special skills: soldiers in the bomb squad [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French escouade, from escadre, from Italian squadra “square”]

'squad car n. [C] a car used by police squad-ron /ˈskwadrən/ n. [C] a military force consisting of a group of aircraft or ships squal-id /ˈskwəlɪd/ adj. extremely dirty, unhealthy, and unsafe: squalid living conditions squall /skwɒl/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a sudden strong wind that brings rain or snow squal-or /ˈskwələ/ n. [U] extremely dirty, unhealthy, and unsafe conditions: people living in squalor squan-der /ˈskwɒndə/ v. [T] to carelessly waste money, time, opportunities, etc.: They've squandered thousands on that old house.

square¹ /skwɛr/ adj. 1 having four straight equal sides and four 90° angles: a square window 2 square inch/mile etc. the measurement of an area that is a square shape with sides an inch, mile, etc. long: two square acres of land 3 like a square in shape forming a 90° angle, or seeming to do this: a square corner | a square jaw 4 be (all) square if two people are square, they do not owe each other any money: Here's your $20, so now we're square. 5 a square meal a complete satisfying meal 6 a square deal honest and fair treatment from someone: a car dealer that gives customers a square deal 7 (old-fashioned) honest: I'm being square with you. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French esquarre, from Vulgar Latin exquadra, from exquadrare “to make square”]

square² n. [C] 1 a shape with four straight equal sides forming four RIGHT ANGLES → see picture at POLYGON

THESAURUS

shape, circle, semicircle, triangle, rectangle, oval → SHAPE¹

2 a broad open area with buildings around it in the middle of a town: Times Square 3 be back to square one to be back in exactly the same situation that you started from: The development deal fell through and now we're back to square one. 4 MATH the result of multiplying a number by itself. For example, the square of 5 is 25. → SQUARE ROOT square³ v. [T] MATH to multiply a number by itself square sth ↔ away phr. v. to finish dealing with something: Peter needs another day to get things squared away at home.

square off phr. v. to get ready to fight someone square up phr. v. to pay money that you owe: I'll get the drinks, and we can square up later.

square⁴ adv. (spoken) SQUARELY squared /skwɛrd/ adj. 3/9/10 etc. squared MATH the number 3, 9, 10, etc. multiplied by itself: 3 squared equals 9.

'square dance n. [C] a type of dance in which four pairs of dancers face each other in a square square-ly /ˈskwɛrli/ adv. 1 exactly or directly: The ball landed squarely in the palm of his hand. 2 completely and with no doubt: The report puts the blame squarely on the senior managers.

square 'root n. [C] MATH the square root of a number is the number which, when multiplied by itself, equals that number. For example, the square root of 9 is 3. → CUBE ROOT squash¹ /skwʌʃ, skwɔʃ/ v. 1 [T] to press something into a flat shape, often damaging it: My hat got squashed on the flight.

THESAURUS press, crush, mash, grind, squeeze, compress, compact → PRESS¹

2 [I, T] to push yourself or someone else into a space that is too small (SYN squeeze: Seven of us squashed into the car.)

squash² n. 1 [C, U] one of a group of large vegetables with solid flesh and hard skins, such as PUMPKINS → see picture at VEGETABLE 2 [U] an indoor game similar to RACKETBALL squat¹ /skwʌt/ v. [I] 1 also squat down to balance on your feet with your legs bent under you and your bottom near the ground 2 to live in a building or on a piece of land without permission and without paying rent squat² adj. short and thick, or low and wide: small squat houses | He is short and squat.

squawk /skwɔk/ v. [I] if a bird squawks, it makes a loud angry cry —squawk n. [C] squeak /skwik/ v. [I] 1 to make a very short high noise or cry: Is that your chair squeaking? 2 squeak by/through (informal) to manage to succeed, but not by very much: The Bulls have squeaked through into the playoffs. —squeak n. [C]: the squeak of new leather → see picture on page A7

squeaky /ˈskwiki/ adj. 1 making very high noises that are not loud: a squeaky voice | squeaky bed springs

THESAURUS high, high-pitched, shrill → HIGH¹

2 squeaky clean (informal) a) never having done anything morally wrong: The incident has ruined McIntyre's squeaky clean image. b) completely clean: squeaky clean hair squeal¹ /skwil/ v. [I] 1 to make a long loud high sound or cry: His tires squealed as he swerved around the corner. | children squealing with excitement 2 squeal (on sb) (informal) to tell the police or someone in authority about someone you know who has done something wrong squeal² n. [C] a long loud high sound or cry: squeals of delight squeam-ish /ˈskwimiʃ/ adj. easily shocked or upset, or easily made to feel sick by disgusting sights: I couldn't be a doctor – I'm too squeamish.

squeeze¹ /skwiz/ v. 1 [T] to press something firmly together with your fingers or hands: She squeezed Jim's shoulder gently. 2 [T] to twist or press something in order to get liquid out of it: Squeeze some lemon juice onto the salad. → see picture on page A5

THESAURUS press, squash, crush, compress → PRESS¹

3 [I, T] to try to make a person or thing fit into a small space (SYN squash: Can you squeeze in next to Rick? | She had to squeeze past boxes of books to get to the front door. 4 squeeze sb/sth in (informal) to manage to do something although you are very busy: Professor Lang can squeeze you in at 2:00. 5 squeeze sb/sth out (of sth) to not let someone or something take part in something: Some small businesses are being squeezed out of the market. 6 [T] ECONOMICS to strictly limit the amount of money that is available to an organization: a school squeezed by budget cuts [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 quease “to press, squeeze” (15–17 centuries), from Old English cwysan]

squeeze² n. 1 a (tight) squeeze a situation in which there is only just enough room for things or people to fit somewhere: It'll be a tight squeeze with six of us in the car. 2 [C] an act of pressing something firmly with your fingers or hand: Laurie gave his hand a little squeeze. 3 [C] a small amount of something you get by squeezing: a squeeze of lime juice 4 [singular] ECONOMICS a situation in which WAGE rises, price increases, or borrowing money, etc. are strictly controlled: a squeeze on farm programs squelch /skweltʃ/ v. 1 [T] (informal) to stop something from spreading or continuing: Store owners said the law would squelch competition. 2 [I] SQUISH

squid /skwid/ n. (plural squid or squids) [C] a sea creature with a long soft body and ten arms squig-gle /ˈskwigəl/ n. [C] a short line in writing or drawing that curls and twists —squiggly adj.

squint /skwɪnt/ v. [I] to look at something with your eyes partly closed in order to see better: He looked at me, squinting in the sun. —squint n. [C] squire /skwaɪə/ n. [C] a young man in the Middle Ages who learned how to be a KNIGHT by serving one squirm /skwɜm/ v. [I] to twist your body from side to side because you are uncomfortable or nervous: Stop squirming so I can comb your hair!

squir-rel /'skwəəl/ n. [C] a small animal with a long furry tail that lives in trees and eats nuts [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Anglo-French esquirel, from Latin sciurus, from Greek skiouros, from skia “shadow” + oura “tail”] → see picture at RODENT

squirt¹ /skwɜ:t/ v. 1 [I,T] if you squirt liquid or it squirts, it is forced out of a narrow hole in a thin fast stream: Orange juice squirted onto her dress. | You need to squirt some oil in the lock. 2 [T] to hit or cover someone or something with a stream of liquid: The children squirted each other with the hose.

squirt² n. [C] 1 a fast thin stream of liquid: a squirt of ketchup 2 (spoken) a word used when speaking to a small child: Hey squirt — it's time to wake up.

squish /skwɪʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] (informal) to SQUASH something soft or wet, or to become squashed 2 [I] to make a sucking sound by moving through something soft and wet, such as mud squish-y /'skwɪʃi/ adj. soft, wet, and easy to SQUEEZE: squishy mud

Sr. the written abbreviation of SENIOR

St. 1 the written abbreviation of STREET 2 the written abbreviation of SAINT

stab¹ /stæb/ v. (stabbed, stabbing) 1 [T] to push a sharp object into someone or something: He was stabbed to death in a fight. | I was stabbed several times in the arm/chest etc. | She says he stabbed her with the bread knife. 2 stab sb in the back (informal) to do something bad to someone who likes and trusts you (SYN) betray stab² n. 1 [C] an act of stabbing or trying to stab someone: The victim had four stab wounds. 2 take a stab at (doing) sth (informal) to try to do something that is difficult or that you have never done: Carla decided to take a stab at learning to sail.

stab-bing /'stæbɪŋ/ n. [C] a crime in which someone is stabbed sta-bil-i-ty /stə'bɪləti/ (Ac) n. [U] 1 the condition of not changing very often or suddenly (ANT) instability: a long period of political stability 2 the condition of being strong and steady and not likely to fall or move in an unsafe way (ANT) instability: the structural stability of a building 3 the quality of being mentally and emotionally healthy, so that you are not likely to become mentally ill: Lawyers questioned his emotional stability.

sta-bi-lize /'sterbəlaɪz/ (Ac) v. 1 [I,T] to reach a state where changes no longer happen often or suddenly, or to make something do this → STABLE: The financial markets are finally stabilizing. 2 [T] to make something steady and not likely to fall or move in an unsafe way: A rod is put in to stabilize the broken bone. —stabilization /,sterbələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [U] sta-ble¹ /'sterbəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 steady and not likely to move: Be careful — the ladder doesn't look stable. 2 not likely to change often or suddenly: a stable marriage 3 calm, reasonable, and not easy to upset: He was clearly not a very stable person. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French estable, from Latin stabilis, from stare “to stand”] stable² n. [C] a building where horses are kept stack¹ /stæk/ n. [C] a neat pile of things: a stack of magazines on the table

THESAURUS pile, heap, mound → PILE¹

stack² v. 1 [I,T] also stack up to form a neat pile, or to put things into a neat pile: Just stack the dishes in the sink for now. | chairs that are designed to stack easily 2 [T] to put piles of things on something: Al has a job stacking shelves in the supermarket.

stack up phr. v. (informal) used to talk about how good something is compared with something else: a new PC that stacks up well against the others on the market sta-di-um /'sterdiəm/ n. (plural stadiums or stadia /-diə/) [C] a building for sports, large rock concerts, etc., consisting of a field surrounded by rows of seats: a football stadium [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin, Greek stadion “unit of length, race-track”]

staff¹ /stæf/ n. [C,U] the people who work for an organization: a meeting of library staff members | Joan is the only lawyer we have on staff. | Reiter manages a staff of forty. | a staff meeting → WORK¹

staff² v. [T] to be or provide the workers for an organization: a hospital staffed by experienced nurses —staffing n. [U]: staffing costs staff-er /ˈstæfə/ n. [C] someone who is paid to work for an organization stag /stæg/ n. [C] a fully grown male DEER

stage¹ /steɪdʒ/ n. 1 [C] a particular point or time in a process that something or someone reaches before going to the next one: The disease is still in its early stages. | At this stage (=right now) no one is sure what to do next. | The government has promised elections at some stage in the next 12 months. | Children go through various stages of development. | the planning stage of the project part – one of the pieces or features of something, such as an event or period of time: The early part of his life was spent in New York.

THESAURUS

step – one of a series of actions that you do in order to deal with a problem or achieve something: an important first step toward peace phase – a separate part in a process of development or change: Schools will receive extra funding in both phases of the plan.
point – a specific moment, time, or stage in something's development: The team is playing better than I thought they would at this point.
round – one of a number of events that are related: the first round of the negotiations

2 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the raised floor in a theater where actors, singers, musicians, etc. perform → see picture at THEATER 3 [singular, U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the profession of acting: Lina's always wanted to be on stage (=be an actor). → THEATER 4 [C] a place where something important happens: the world political stage 5 s/he's going through a stage (informal) used in order to say that someone young will soon stop behaving badly or strangely 6 stage left/right ENG. LANG. ARTS the left or right side of the stage, from the view of an actor facing the people watching [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French estage, from Latin stare “to stand”] → set the stage/scene *at SET*¹

stage² v. [T] 1 to organize a public event: They're staging five plays this summer. | Workers are staging a strike. 2 to start doing something again or being successful, after you had stopped or not been successful for some time: After trailing in the polls, he staged a remarkable comeback in the days before the election.

stage-coach /ˈsteɪdʒkəʊtʃ/ n. [C] a closed vehicle pulled by horses, that carried passengers and mail in past times

'stage fright n. [U] nervousness that some people feel before they perform in front of a lot of people

'stage manager n. [C] someone who is responsible for a theater stage during a performance

stag-ger¹ /ˈstægə/ v. 1 [I] to walk or move in an unsteady way, almost falling over: A man came staggering down the stairs. | Somehow he managed to stagger to a hospital. 2 [T] to arrange for things to be done at different times, so that they do not all happen at the same time: Student registration will be staggered to avoid delays.

stagger² n. [C] an unsteady movement of someone who has difficulty walking stag-ger-ing /ˈstægərɪŋ/ adj. extremely great or surprising: She spends a staggering amount of money on clothes.

THESAURUS surprising, extraordinary, amazing, shocking, astonishing, astounding, stunning → SURPRISING stag-ing /ˈsteɪdʒɪŋ/ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the activity or art of performing a play, or the way this is done: a modern staging of “Romeo and Juliet” stag-nant /ˈstæɡnənt/ adj. 1 stagnant water or air does not move or flow and often smells bad 2 not changing or improving: Steel production has stayed stagnant.

stag-nate /ˈstæɡneɪt/ v. [I] to stop developing or improving: a stagnating economy —stagnation /ˈstæɡneɪʃən/ n. [U]: political stagnation staid /steɪd/ adj. serious, old-fashioned, and boring: a staid old bachelor stain¹ /steɪn/ v. 1 [I,T] to accidentally make a colored mark on something, especially one that is difficult to remove, or to be marked in this way: This carpet stains easily. | a tablecloth stained with wine 2 [T] to paint wood with a stain stain² n. 1 [C] a mark that is difficult to remove: I got coffee stains on my shirt.

THESAURUS mark, spot, smudge, smear → MARK²

2 [C,U] a special liquid that you use to change the color of wood

'stainless 'steel n. [U] a type of steel that does not RUST

stair /ster/ n. 1 stairs [plural] a set of steps built for going from one level of a building to another: Bev ran up/down the stairs. | Please leave your shoes at the bottom/foot of the stairs. | I left my briefcase at the top of the stairs. | The office is up one flight of stairs (=set of stairs). 2 [C] one of the steps in a set of stairs: Jane sat on the bottom stair. [ORIGIN: Old English stæger] → DOWNSTAIRS, UPSTAIRS

stair-case /ˈsterkeɪs/ n. [C] a set of stairs inside a building, and the structure that supports it stair-way /ˈsterweɪ/ n. [C] a set of stairs and the structure that supports it, either inside or outside a building stake¹ /steɪk/ n. 1 be at stake if something that you value very much is at stake, you will lose it if a plan or action is not successful: The team goes into the game knowing their coach's job is at stake. 2 have a stake in sth a) to have an important part or share in a business, plan, etc.: Hughes had a 5% stake in the company. b) if you have a stake in something, you will get advantages

if it is successful, and you feel that you have an important connection with it: Young people don't feel they have a stake in the country's future. 3 [C] a pointed piece of wood, metal, etc. that is pushed into the ground to hold a rope, mark a particular place, etc.: tent stakes 4 [C usually plural] money that people risk on the result of a card game, horse race, etc. [ORIGIN: Old English staca “sharp post”] stake² v. [T] 1 to risk losing something valuable on the result of a game, race, etc., or on the result of a plan or action [SYN bet]: The President is staking his reputation on the peace plan. 2 stake (out) a claim to say publicly that you think you have a right to have or own something: The two tribes have both staked a claim to the territory.

stake sth ↔ out phr. v. (informal) to watch a place secretly and continuously: The police have been staking out the club for weeks.

stake-out /ˈsteɪkaʊt/ n. [C] an activity in which the police watch a place secretly and continuously in order to catch someone doing something illegal sta-lac-tite /stəˈlæktait/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a pointed object that hangs down from the roof of a CAVE, that is formed gradually by water that contains minerals dropping slowly from the roof → STALAGMITE sta-lag-mite /stəˈlægmait/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a pointed object coming up from the floor of a CAVE, that is formed gradually by water that contains minerals dropping from the roof of the cave → STALACTITE stale /steɪl/ adj. 1 no longer fresh [ANT] fresh: stale bread 2 no longer interesting: a stale old joke stale-mate /ˈsteɪlmert/ n. [C,U] a situation in which neither side in an argument, battle, etc. can gain an advantage: talks aimed at breaking the stalemate stalk¹ /stɔːk/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a long narrow part of a plant that supports leaves, fruits, or flowers: Two buds will develop on each stalk. → see picture at FLOWER¹ stalk² v. 1 [T] to follow a person or animal quietly in order to catch, attack, or kill him, her, or it: We know the rapist stalks his victims at night.

THESAURUS follow, track, tail → FOLLOW

2 [I] to walk in a proud or angry way: Sheryl turned and stalked out of the room.

stalk-er /ˈstɔːkə/ n. [C] someone who follows and watches someone else over a long period of time, in a way that is annoying or threatening —stalking n. [U] stall¹ /stɔːl/ n. [C] 1 a table or a small store with an open front, especially outdoors, where goods are sold: a market stall 2 a small enclosed private area for washing or using the toilet: a shower/bathroom stall 3 an enclosed area in a building for an animal, especially a horse

stall² v. [I,T] 1 if an engine stalls, or you stall it, it suddenly stops working: My car always stalls when it's cold. 2 (informal) to deliberately delay doing something, or to make someone else do this: Quit stalling and answer my question! | I'll try to stall him for a few minutes.

stal-lion /ˈstæljən/ n. [C] a fully grown male horse stal-wart /ˈstɔːlwɜːt/ n. [C] someone who strongly supports a particular organization or set of ideas [ORIGIN: Old English stælwierthe “useful, strong”] —stalwart adj.: a stalwart supporter sta-men /ˈsteɪmən/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the male part of a flower, that produces POLLEN → ANTHÉR stam-i-na /ˈstæmənə/ n. [U] physical or mental strength that lets you continue doing something for a long time without getting tired [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Latin, plural of stamen “thread, thread of life”] stam-mer /ˈstæmə/ v. [I,T] to speak with a lot of pauses or to repeat the first letter of some words, either because you have a speech problem or because you are nervous → STUTTER —stammer n. [singular]

stamp¹ /stæmp/ n. [C] 1 also postage stamp (formal) a small piece of paper that you stick onto an envelope or package that shows you have paid to mail it: a 41-cent stamp | a sheet/book of stamps (=set of stamps that you buy) 2 a tool for printing a mark onto a surface, or the mark made by this tool: a stamp in your passport 3 sb's stamp of approval someone's statement that s/he accepts something or gives permission for something: The Board of Education has given its stamp of approval to new standardized tests. → FOOD STAMP

stamp² v. 1 [I,T] to lift up your foot and put it down hard, or to walk in this way: She stamped out of the room. | The audience applauded and stamped their feet. 2 [T] to put a pattern, sign, or letters on something using a special tool: Please stamp the date on all incoming mail.

stamp sth ↔ out phr. v. to prevent something bad from continuing: efforts to stamp out drug abuse stam-pede /stæmˈpɪd/ n. [C] 1 an occasion when a large number of animals suddenly start running together 2 a sudden rush by a lot of people who all want to do the same thing or go to the same place [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 American Spanish estampida, from Spanish, “crush”] —stampede v. [I,T] stance /stæns/ n. [C usually singular] 1 an opinion that is stated publicly: the Senator's tough stance on crime

THESAURUS opinion, view, point of view, position → OPINION

2 the way in which you stand during a particular activity stanch /stæntʃ/ v. [T] STAUNCH stand¹ /stænd/ v. (past tense and past participle stood /stud/)

1 STAND [I] to be on your feet in an upright position: Anna was standing in front of me. | Hundreds of people stood watching. | Could you stand still (=stand without moving) and listen to me? | Don't just stand there (=stand doing nothing) – help me! | A policeman told everyone to stand back/aside (=move and stand farther away from something).

2 START STANDING [I] also stand up to rise onto your feet after you have been sitting, bending, or lying down: She stood up and put her coat on.

3 BE IN A PLACE/POSITION [I,T] to be in a place or position, or to put something in a place or position: There's now a parking lot where the theater once stood. | A lamp stood on the table. | Few houses were left standing after the tornado hit.

4 CAN'T STAND (spoken) to dislike something or someone very much: Dave can't stand dogs. | Allison can't stand the sight of blood. | I can't stand to be around cigarette smoke.

5 IN A STATE/CONDITION [linking verb] to be in a particular state or condition: The kitchen door stood open. | The house has stood empty for 20 years. | Where/how do negotiations stand right now? | The offer, as it stands (=the present offer), is not acceptable.

6 BE GOOD ENOUGH [T] to be good enough or strong enough to remain unharmed or unchanged by something: jeans that can stand the rough wear kids give them | Their marriage has certainly stood the test of time.

7 ACCEPT A SITUATION [T] to be able to accept or deal well with a difficult situation: He could hardly stand the pain.

THESAURUS tolerate, accept, put up with sth → TOLERATE

8 HEIGHT [I] to have a particular height: The Eiffel Tower stands 300 meters high.

9 LEVEL/AMOUNT [I] to be at a particular level or amount: The unemployment rate stood at 8% in January.

10 DECISION/OFFER [I not in progressive] if a decision, offer, etc. stands, it continues to exist or be correct: The court has ruled that the conviction should stand. | My offer of help still stands.

11 OPINION where sb stands if you know where someone stands, or how someone stands on a particular matter, you know what his/her opinion is: Where do you stand on the issue of gun control? | You just never know where you stand with Walter.

12 SUGGEST STH TO SB could stand (spoken) used in order to say that someone should do something or that something should be different: He could stand to lose a little weight.

13 stand a chance (of doing sth) to be likely to succeed in doing something: You don't stand a chance of going out with her.

14 stand to do sth to be likely to do or have something: The company stands to make more than $12 million on the deal.

15 stand in the way/in sb's way to prevent someone from doing something, or prevent something from happening or developing: I always encouraged Brian. I didn't want to stand in his way. | You can't stand in the way of progress!

16 stand on your own two feet (informal) to be independent and not need help from other people

17 it stands to reason (that) used in order to say that something is clearly true: It stands to reason that children will copy their parents.

18 stand trial to be brought to a court of law to have your case examined and judged

19 stand pat to refuse to change a decision or plan

20 stand on your head/hands to support yourself on your head or hands in an upright position, with your feet in the air [ORIGIN: Old English standan] stand around phr. v.

to stand somewhere and not do anything: Everybody was just standing around talking.

stand back phr. v.

to move backward away from something, or stand some distance away from something: Stand back from the edge of the platform.

stand by phr. v.

1 stand by sth to continue to believe that something you said, did, or believed is still correct or true: I stand by what I said earlier.

2 stand by sb to stay loyal to someone and support him/her in a difficult situation: Matt's parents have stood by him through his drug problem.

3 to be ready to do something: Fire crews are now standing by.

4 to not do anything to help someone, or to not prevent something from happening: People just stood by and watched him being attacked.

stand for sth phr. v.

1 to be a short form of a word or phrase: VA stands for Veterans Administration.

2 to support an idea, principle, etc.: Martin Luther King stood for fairness and racial equality.

3 not stand for sth if someone will not stand for something, s/he will not allow it to happen: Ms. Smith won't stand for any nonsense.

stand in for sb phr. v.

to do someone else's job while he or she is away: Karen stood in for me when I was sick.

stand out phr. v.

1 to be clearly better than other things or people: Morrison stands out as the most experienced candidate.

2 to be very easy to see or notice: In her red dress, she really stood out in the crowd.

stand up phr. v.

1 to be on your feet, or to rise to your feet: We stood up when the judge came in. | Stand up straight and don't slouch!

2 to be proven to be true, useful, or strong when tested: The accusations will never stand up in court.

3 stand sb up to not meet someone when you have promised to meet him/her: My date stood me up last night.

S

stand up for sb/sth phr. v.

to support or defend someone or something when s/he or it is being attacked or criticized: Don't be afraid to stand up for what you believe in.

stand up to sb phr. v.

to be brave and refuse to do or say what someone is trying to make you do or say: He became a kind of hero for standing up to local gangs.

stand² n. [C] 1 a piece of furniture or equipment for supporting something: a music stand 2 a table or small structure, usually outside or in a large building, used for selling or showing things to people: a hotdog stand 3 [usually singular] an opinion that you state publicly: Bradley was unwilling to take a stand (=say what his opinion was) on the issue. 4 the stand LAW the place in a court of law where someone sits when the lawyers ask him/her questions: Shaw had lied on the stand (=when he was answering questions). | Epstein will take the stand (=begin answering questions) Friday. 5 an effort to defend yourself or to oppose something: We have to make/take a stand against racism. 6 stands [plural] the place where people sit to watch a sports game

S

stan-dard¹ /'stændəd/ n. 1 [C,U] a level of quality, skill, or ability that is considered to be acceptable: teachers who have high/low standards | Tricia's parents set very high standards. | Students have to meet/reach a certain standard or they won't pass. | national academic/health/environmental standards 2 by ... standards compared to the normal or expected level of something else: By American standards, Rafael's salary is pretty low. 3 standards [plural] moral principles about what kind of behavior or attitudes are acceptable: She has very high moral standards. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French estandard "battle-flag"]

standard² adj. normal or usual: The shoes are available in all standard sizes. | Security checks are now standard practice/procedure.

THESAURUS normal, ordinary, average, conventional → NORMAL¹ standard deviation n. [C] MATH in STATISTICS, a calculation which shows how much each value in a set is different from the MEAN of the values in the set stan-dard-ize /'stændəˌdaɪz/ v. [T] to make all the things of one particular type the same as each other: national standardized tests —standardization /ˌstændədəˈzeɪʃən/ n. [U] standard of living n. (plural standards of living) [C] ECONOMICS the amount of wealth and comfort that a person, group, or country has: a nation with a high/low standard of living stand-by /'stændbaɪ/ n. (plural standbys) [C] 1 someone or something that is ready to be used when needed: a standby power generator 2 on standby a) ready to be used when needed: The police have been kept on standby in case of trouble. b) if you are on standby for an airplane ticket, you will be allowed to travel if there are any seats that are not being used

'stand-in n. [C] someone who does the job or takes the place of someone else for a short time stand-ing¹ /'stændɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] 1 permanently agreed or arranged: We have a standing invitation to use their beach cabin. 2 done from a standing position: a standing ovation (=when people stand to CLAP after a performance) standing² n. [U] someone's rank or position in a system, organization, etc., based on what other people think of him/her: The scandal damaged the governor's standing in the polls.

stand-off /'stændɒf/ n. [C] a situation in which neither side in a fight or battle can gain an advantage stand-off-ish /stæn'dɒfɪʃ/ adj. (informal, disapproving) unfriendly and formal stand-out /'stændaʊt/ n. [C] someone who is better at doing something than other people in a group —standout adj.

stand-point /'stændpɔɪnt/ n. [C] one way of thinking about a situation (SYN point of view: Let's look at this from a practical standpoint.

stand-still /'stændstɪl/ n. [singular] a situation in which there is no movement or activity at all: The funeral brought the city to a standstill. | The traffic came to a standstill.

stand-up /'stændʌp/ adj. [only before noun] (informal) standup COMEDY involves one person telling jokes as a performance —standup n. [U]

stank /stæŋk/ v. a past tense of STINK¹

stan-za /'stænzə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a group of lines that forms part of a poem sta-ple¹ /'steɪpl/ n. [C] 1 a small piece of thin wire that is used in order to hold pieces of paper together 2 a food that is needed and used all the time: staples like flour and rice [ORIGIN: (2) 1300–1400 Middle Dutch stapel "place of trade"] staple² v. [T] to fasten things together with a staple

THESAURUS fasten, attach, secure, join, glue, tape, clip, tie, button (up), zip (up) → FASTEN sta-pler /'steɪplə/ n. [C] a tool used for putting staples into paper

star¹ /stɑː/ n. [C] 1 PHYSICS a very large amount of burning gases in space, that looks like a point of light in the sky at night: I lay on my back and looked up at the stars. | The stars were out (=shining). | The galaxy of stars to which our sun belongs is one of millions of galaxies scattered throughout the universe. → SPACE¹ 2 a famous performer in entertainment or sports: a movie star | By the age of twenty, she was already a big star. 3 a) a shape with five or six points, that is supposed to look like a star in the sky: The U.S. flag's fifty stars represent fifty states. → see picture at SHAPE b) a mark in the shape of a star, that is used in order to show something is important: I put stars next to the items we still need to buy. 4 (informal) someone who is particularly good at something: Jim is definitely our star player. 5 the star of the show the person who gives the best performance in a play, movie, etc. 6 a mark used in a system for showing how good a hotel or restaurant is: a three-star/four-star/five-star restaurant [ORIGIN: Old English steorra]

star² v. (starred, starring) [I,T] if a movie, play, etc. stars someone, or if someone stars in a movie, play, etc., that person has one of the main parts in it: a movie starring Bruce Willis | He has also starred in comedies. | Nicole Kidman stars as Emma.

star-board /'stɑ:bɔ:d/ n. [U] the right side of a ship or aircraft when you are looking toward the front → PORT starch¹ /stɑ:tʃ/ n. 1 [C,U] BIOLOGY a substance in such foods as bread, rice, and potatoes 2 [U] a substance used for making cloth stiff starch² v. [T] to make cloth stiff using starch starch-y /'stɑ:tʃi/ adj. starchy foods contain a lot of starch star-dom /'stɑ:dəm/ n. [U] the situation of being a famous performer stare /stɜ:/ v. [I] to look at someone or something for a long time: Sue stared at him in disbelief. | He sat staring into space (=looking at nothing for a long time). [ORIGIN: Old English starian] —stare n. [C]: She gave him a hard stare.

THESAURUS look, gaze, gape, regard → LOOK¹ star-fish /'stɑ:fɪʃ/ (plural starfish) n. [C] a flat sea animal that is shaped like a star stark¹ /stɑ:k/ adj. 1 very simple and severe in appearance: the stark beauty of the desert 2 unpleasantly clear and impossible to avoid: the stark realities of drug addiction —starkly adv.

stark² adv. stark naked (informal) not wearing any clothes star-let /'stɑ:lɪt/ n. [C] a young actress who plays small parts in movies and is hoping to become famous star-light /'stɑ:lɪt/ n. [U] the light that comes from the stars star-ling /'stɑ:lɪŋ/ n. [C] a greenish-black bird that is very common in Europe and North America star-lit /'stɑ:lɪt/ adj. (literary) made brighter by the light of the stars: a starlit night star-ry /'stɑ:ri/ adj. having many stars: a starry sky starry-eyed adj. (informal) hopeful about things in a way that is silly or unreasonable: a starry-eyed teenager

Stars and Stripes n. the Stars and Stripes the flag of the U.S.

Star-Span-gled Ban-ner /'stɑ: spæŋɡəld 'bænə/ n. the Star-Spangled Banner the national ANTHEM (=song) of the U.S.

'star-studded adj. including many famous performers: a star-studded cast start¹ /stɑ:t/ v.

1 BEGIN DOING STH [I,T] to begin doing something: Have you started making dinner? | It's starting to rain. | Mark's starting school/college in the fall. | It's late, so we should get started.

USAGE

Start and begin usually mean the same thing, but start has several meanings for which you cannot use begin.

Use start in order to talk about making a machine work: I couldn't start the car this morning.

Use start in order to talk about making something begin to exist: Starting a new business is hard work.

2 BEGIN HAPPENING [I,T] to begin happening, or to make something do this: The race starts in ten minutes. | The fire was started by a loose wire.

3 BUSINESS/ORGANIZATION ETC. [T] also start up to begin a new business or business activity: Brad left his father's company to start a business of his own.

4 TRIP [I] also start off/out to begin a trip: You'll have to start early if you want to get there by noon.

5 CAR/ENGINE/MACHINE [I,T] also start up if you start a car or engine, or if it starts, it begins to work: Can't you get that engine started?

6 to start with (spoken) a) used in order to emphasize the first of a list of things you want to mention: There's a lot wrong with those kids – to start with, they're rude. b) at the beginning of a situation: I was nervous to start with, but then I was fine.

7 PRICES start at/from sth if prices start at or from a particular figure, that is the lowest figure at which you can buy something: Tickets start from $12.

8 ROAD/RIVER [I] if a road, river, etc. starts somewhere, it begins in that place: The Red River starts in New Mexico.

9 MOVE SUDDENLY [I] to move suddenly because you are surprised or afraid [ORIGIN: Old English styrtan "to jump"] start off phr. v.

to begin an activity: Let's start off by reviewing what we did last week.

start on sth phr. v.

to begin working on something: You'd better get started on your homework.

start out phr. v.

1 to begin happening or existing in a particular way, especially when this changes later: The book started out as a short article.

2 to begin your life, profession, or an important period of time: Laura started out as a teacher, and later got into writing.

start over phr. v.

to start doing something again from the beginning: If you make a mistake, just erase it and start over.

start² n. 1 [C usually singular] the beginning of an activity, event, or situation: Hurry, or we'll miss the start of the show. | They've had problems (right) from the start. | It was a close race from start to finish. | The day got off to a good/bad start. 2 it's a start (informal) used in order to say that something you have achieved may not be impressive, but it will help with a bigger achievement: We only have $2 million of the $60 million needed, but it's a start. 3 for a start (informal) said in order to emphasize the first of a list of facts or opinions: I don't think she'll get the job. She's too young, for a start. 4 [singular] a sudden movement caused by fear or surprise: Ed woke up with a start.

start-er /'stɑ:tə/ n. [C] 1 a person, horse, etc. that is in a race when it starts: Of the eight starters, only three finished the race. 2 for starters (informal) used in order to emphasize the first thing in a list: You've spelled the name wrong, for starters. 3 someone who gives the signal for a race to begin 4 also starter motor a piece of equipment for starting an engine

'starting lineup n. [C usually singular] the best players on a sports team, who play when the game begins start-le /'stɑ:tli/ v. [T] to make someone suddenly feel surprised or slightly shocked: Sorry, I didn't mean to startle you. —startling adj.: startling news

'start-up¹ adj. [only before noun] ECONOMICS start-up costs are related to starting and developing a new business

'start-up² n. [C] ECONOMICS a new small company: an Internet start-up

star-va-tion /'stɑ:və'ʃən/ n. [U] suffering or death caused by not having enough to eat: people dying of starvation starve /stɑ:rv/ v. 1 [I,T] to suffer or die because you do not have enough to eat, or to make someone do this: Thousands of people could starve to death. | starving refugees 2 be starving/starved (spoken) to be very hungry: When do we eat? I'm starving! 3 be starved for/of sth to not be given something very important: That poor kid's just starved for attention.

stash¹ /stæʃ/ v. [T] (informal) to keep something in a safe, often secret, place: He has money stashed away in a Swiss bank.

stash² n. [C] (informal) an amount of something, especially drugs or money, that is kept in a secret place: a stash of drugs state¹ /steɪt/ n. 1 [C] the condition that someone or something is in: We are concerned about the state of the economy. | Exercise can improve your state of mind (=the way you think and feel). | They found him in a state of shock. | The house was in a sorry state (=in a bad condition). 2 [C] also State POLITICS one of the areas with limited law-making powers that some countries, such as the U.S., are divided into: the state of Oklahoma 3 [C,U] also State POLITICS a country or its government: a meeting between heads of state | state-owned industries

THESAURUS country, nation, power, land, realm → COUNTRY¹

4 the States (spoken) the U.S., used especially by someone when s/he is outside of the U.S. 5 a state of affairs a situation: It is a sad/sorry state of affairs when you can kill someone and only spend a year in jail. 6 state visit/ceremony/opening etc. POLITICS an important official visit, ceremony, etc. involving governments or rulers: the President's state visit to Moscow [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French estat, from Latin status, from the past participle of stare “to stand”]

state² v. [T] (formal) 1 to give a piece of information or your opinion, especially by saying it clearly: Please state your name. | The witness stated that he had never seen the woman before.

THESAURUS say, mention, add, utter, express → SAY¹

2 if a document, ticket, etc. states information, it contains the information written clearly state 'line n. [C] the border between two states in the U.S.

state-ly /'stertli/ adj. impressive in style or size: a stately mansion

state-ment /'stertmənt/ n. [C] 1 something that you say or write officially and publicly: The president is expected to make a statement later today. | the candidate's statement about/on the economy | He gave a statement to the police. 2 ECONOMICS a list showing amounts of money paid, received, etc. and their total: a bank statement 3 make a statement to do something, such as wear particular clothing or drive a particular type of car, in order that people will have a particular opinion of you: Why get your nose pierced? Are you trying to make a statement?

state-of-the-art adj. using the newest methods, materials, or knowledge (SYN) advanced: state-of-the-art technology states-man /'steɪtsmən/ n. (plural statesmen /-mən/) [C] POLITICS a political or government leader, especially one who is known as being wise and fair —statesmanship n. [U]

'states', rights n. [plural] POLITICS the rights or powers that U.S. states have because the Constitution has not given those rights to the Federal government stat-ic¹ /'stætɪk/ adj. not moving, changing, or developing: The population of the state has remained static for many years.

static² n. [U] 1 PHYSICS noise caused by electricity in the air that spoils the sound on a radio or TV 2 PHYSICS static electricity static elec'tricity n. [U] PHYSICS electricity that is not flowing in a current, but collects on the surface of an object and gives you a small electric shock sta-tion¹ /'steɪʃən/ n. [C] 1 a place where public vehicles stop so that passengers can get on and off, goods can be loaded, etc.: a bus/train station 2 a building or place that is a center for a particular type of service or activity: a police station | a gas station 3 a company that broadcasts on radio or television, or its programs that you receive: a radio/TV station | I can only get a few stations on this radio. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French, Latin statio “place for standing or stopping,” from stare “to stand”] station² v. [T] to put someone in a particular place in order to do a particular job or military duty: My uncle's stationed in Germany right now.

sta-tion-a-ry /'steɪʃə,neri/ adj. not moving: a stationary vehicle sta-tion-er-y /'steɪʃə,neri/ n. [U] special paper for writing letters on, usually with matching envelopes

'station wagon n. [C] a car with a door at the back, and a lot of space for boxes, cases, etc.

sta-tis-tic /stə'tɪstɪk/ (Ac) n. 1 statistics a) [plural] a collection of numbers which represents facts or measurements: Statistics show that the crime rate is falling. | the poverty statistics for New York City b) [U] SCIENCE the science of using numbers to represent facts or measurements: Statistics is a branch of mathematics. 2 [singular] a single number that represents a fact or measurement: Is he aware of the statistic that two out of three marriages fail? —statistical adj.: statistical analysis —statistically adv.

stat-is-ti-cian /stætə'stɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C] someone who works with statistics stats /stæts/ n. [plural] (informal) statistics stat-ue /'stætʃu/ n. [C] an object that looks like a person or animal, and is made of stone, metal, etc.:

a statue of Abraham Lincoln | the Statue of Liberty

stat-u-ette /,stætʃu'et/ n. [C] a very small statue

stat-ure /'stætʃə/ n. [U] (formal) 1 the degree to which someone is admired or regarded as important: a musician of great stature 2 someone's height sta-tus /'steɪtəs, 'stæ-/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] the legal and social position of a person, group, country, etc.: Please state your name, age and marital status (=whether you are married or not). | the social status of women 2 [U] your social or professional rank or position, considered in relation to other people: high-status/low-status jobs | Doctors have traditionally enjoyed high social status. 3 the status of sth what is happening at a particular time in a situation: No one would comment on the status of her application. [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Latin, from the past participle of stare “to stand”] status quo /,steɪtəs 'kwou, 'stæ-/ n. the status quo the state of a situation at a particular time

'status symbol n. [C] something that you own that suggests you are rich or important

stat-ute /'stætʃut/ n. [C] LAW a law or rule

THESAURUS

rule, law, regulation → RULE¹

S

statute of limi'tations n. [C] LAW a law that gives the period of time within which the police or courts may take action on a legal question or crime stat-u-to-ry /'stætʃə,təri/ adj. LAW fixed or controlled by law: statutory rights statutory 'rape n. [C] LAW the crime of having sex with someone who is below a particular age staunch¹ /stɒntʃ, stɒntʃ/ adj. very loyal: a staunch supporter —staunchly adv.

THESAURUS

faithful, loyal, steadfast, true

→ FAITHFUL

staunch² also stanch /stæntʃ/ v. [T] to stop the flow of a liquid, especially of blood from a wound stave /steɪv/ v.

stave sth ↔ off phr. v. to stop someone or something from reaching you or affecting you for a period of time: She ate an apple to stave off hunger.

stay¹ /steɪ/ v. 1 [I] to remain in the same place, job, school, etc., and not leave: I had to stay late at work. | She decided to stay home. | Stay right there! I'll be back in a minute. 2 [I, linking verb] to continue to be in a particular state and not change: It was hard to stay awake. | The town has stayed the same for centuries. | Let's just stay calm and try to figure out what to do. 3 [I] to live in a place for a short time as a visitor or guest: She's staying with us for a week. | Where are you staying while you're here? ▶ Don't say “Where do you stay?” ◀ 4 stay put (informal) to remain in one place and not move [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French ester “to stand, stay,” from Latin stare] stay away phr. v. to not go near someone or something: Stay away from my sister!

stay behind phr. v. to stay in a place after the other people have left stay in phr. v. to stay in your home and not go out: Let's stay in and watch TV.

stay on phr. v. to continue to do a job or to study after the usual or expected time for leaving: Karen is staying on for a fifth year in college.

stay out phr. v. to remain away from home during the evening or night: She stayed out until midnight.

stay up phr. v. to not go to bed: We stayed up late last night.

stay² n. [C] a short period of time that you spend somewhere: We hope you enjoy your stay.

STD n. [C,U] sexually transmitted disease a disease such as AIDS that is passed from one person to another during sex stead /sted/ n. 1 stand sb in good stead to be very useful for someone in the future: a skill that has stood me in good stead as an actor 2 (formal) do sth in sb's stead to do something instead of someone else

S stead-fast /'stedfæst/ adj. (literary) faithful and very loyal

THESAURUS faithful, loyal, devoted, staunch, true → FAITHFUL

steady¹ /'stedɪ/ adj. 1 not moving or shaking: Keep the ladder steady. 2 continuing or developing at the same rate, without stopping or changing: He has made steady progress. | a steady speed of 50 mph 3 steady job/work/income a job, etc. that will continue over a long period of time 4 steady boyfriend/girlfriend someone that you have had a romantic relationship with for a long time —steadily adv. —steadiness n. [U]

steady² v. (steadied, steadies) [I,T] to hold someone or something so he, she, or it becomes more balanced or controlled, or to become more balanced or controlled: He put out his hand to steady himself.

steady³ adv. go steady (with sb) to have a long romantic relationship with someone steak /sterk/ n. [C,U] a thick flat piece of meat or fish [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old Norse steik]

steal¹ /stil/ v. (past tense stole /stoul/, past participle stolen /'stoulən/) 1 [I,T] to take something that belongs to someone else without his/her permission: Two local men were arrested for stealing a car. | When did you find out your partner was stealing from you?

USAGE

Use steal to talk about the things that were taken: Matt's bike was stolen yesterday.
Use rob to talk about the person that money is taken from, or the place, especially a bank: Someone robbed the bank last night.

THESAURUS

burglarize – to go into a building, car, etc. and steal things from it: The office had been burglarized.

rob – to steal money or other things from a bank, store, or person: He robbed several gas stations in the area.

mug – to attack someone in the street and steal something from him/her: He had been mugged at gunpoint.

shoplift – to steal something from a store by leaving without paying for it: The store loses a lot of money because people shoplift.

rip off sth (informal) – to steal something: Someone had ripped off $3000 worth of stereo equipment.

loot – to steal things, especially from stores that have been damaged in a war or riot: Windows were smashed and stores looted during the riot.

plunder (formal) – to steal money or property from a place while fighting in a war: The Vikings invaded and plundered the town.

pilfer (formal) – to steal things that are not worth much: He was caught pilfering office supplies from work. → CRIME, CRIMINAL¹

2 [I] (literary) to move quietly without anyone noticing you [ORIGIN: Old English stelan]

steal² n. a steal something that costs much less than it is worth: At $9.99 a bottle, their Merlot is a real steal.

stealth /stelθ/ n. [U] the action of doing something quietly and secretly [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 From an unrecorded Old English stælh “stealing”] —stealthy adj.

steam¹ /stim/ n. 1 [U] the mist that hot water produces: The kitchen was full of steam. | a steam engine (=one that uses the power produced by steam to operate) 2 let/blow off steam to get rid of your anger or energy by doing something active 3 run out of steam to no longer have the energy or the support you need to continue doing something steam² v. 1 [I] to produce steam: a cup of steaming coffee 2 [T] to cook something using steam: Steam the vegetables for five minutes.

THESAURUS cook, bake, fry, roast, broil, grill, sauté, boil, deep fry → COOK¹ steam sth ↔ up phr. v. to cover or be covered with steam: My glasses are steamed up.

steam-roll /'stimroul/ v. [T] (informal) to defeat an opponent or force someone to do something by using all your power or influence steam-roll-er /'stim,roulə/ n. [C] a heavy vehicle with very wide wheels for making road surfaces flat steam-y /'stimɪ/ adj. 1 full of steam, or covered with steam: steamy windows 2 sexually exciting: a steamy love scene steel¹ /stil/ n. [U] 1 a strong metal that can be shaped easily, consisting of iron and CARBON 2 nerves of steel the ability to be brave and calm in a dangerous or difficult situation [ORIGIN: Old English stiele, stele] steel² v. steel yourself to prepare yourself to do something unpleasant steel 'wool n. [U] a rough material made of steel wires, used in order to make surfaces smooth, remove paint, etc.

steel-y /'sti:li/ adj. extremely strong and determined: a steely expression steep¹ /sti:p/ adj. 1 a road, hill, etc. that is steep goes down or up at a sharp angle 2 a steep increase or rise in something is large and happens quickly 3 (informal) very expensive [ORIGIN: Old English steap "high, steep, deep"] —steeply adv. —steepness n. [U] steep² v. [I,T] 1 be steeped in history/tradition etc. to contain a lot of a particular quality: Yale is an old university steeped in tradition. 2 to put something such as food in a liquid and leave it there for some time: Leave the tea bag to steep for two minutes.

stee-ple /'sti:pəl/ n. [C] a tall pointed tower on a church steer¹ /sti:r/ v. 1 [I,T] to control the direction that a vehicle goes in: Maria steered while I gave directions. 2 [T] to influence someone's behavior or the way a situation develops: Helen tried to steer the conversation away from school. | My parents steered me toward a medical career. 3 [T] to guide someone to a place: Bobby took my arm and steered me into the next room. 4 steer clear (of sb/sth) (informal) to try to avoid someone or something steer² n. [C] a young male cow that has had part of its sex organs removed steer-ing /'sti:riŋ/ n. [U] the parts of a vehicle that allow you to control the direction it goes in: power steering

'steering wheel n. [C] a wheel that you turn to control the direction a vehicle goes in stel-lar /'stel:ə/ adj. 1 done extremely well: a stellar performance 2 PHYSICS relating to the stars

stem¹ /stem/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a long thin part of a plant, from which leaves or flowers grow → *see picture at PLANT*¹ stem² v. (stemmed, stemming) [T] stem the tide/flow of sth to stop something from spreading or growing: an effort to stem the rising tide of crime stem from sth phr. v. to develop as a result of something else: A lot of her emotional problems stem from her childhood.

stench /stentʃ/ n. [C] a strong unpleasant smell (SYN stink, odor: the stench of rotting food) sten-cil /'stensəl/ n. [C] a piece of paper or plastic with patterns or letters cut out of it, which you use for painting patterns or letters onto a surface —stencil v. [T] ste-nog-ra-pher /stə'nəgrəfə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to write down what someone else is saying by using SHORTHAND —stenography n. [U]

step¹ /step/ n. [C]

1 MOVEMENT the movement you make when you put one foot in front of the other when walking: He took a few steps and then stopped. | Jamie took a step forward/back.

2 ACTION one of a series of things that you do in order to deal with a problem or achieve something: We must take steps (=take action) to make sure it never happens again. | an important first step toward peace | Environmentalists called the change a step in the right direction (=a good thing to do).

3 STAIR a flat narrow surface, especially one in a series, that you put your foot on when you are going up or down, especially outside a building → STAIRS: Ellen ran up the steps and knocked on the door.

4 STAGE IN A PROCESS a stage in a process or a position on a scale: The next step will be to interview the selected candidates.

THESAURUS

stage, part, phase → STAGE¹

5 DANCING a movement of your feet in dancing

6 in step/out of step a) having ideas that are the same as, or different from, other people's: The president needs to keep in step with public opinion. b) moving your feet in the same way as, or a different way from, people you are walking or marching with

7 SOUND the sound you make when you take a step → FOOTSTEP

8 MUSIC ENG. LANG. ARTS the difference in PITCH between two musical notes that are separated by one KEY on a piano (SYN tone) [ORIGIN: Old English stæpe]

step² v. (stepped, stepping) [I] 1 to move somewhere by putting one foot down in front of the other: Step aside/back and let the doctor through. 2 to bring your foot down on something: Sorry – I didn't mean to step on your foot. 3 step on it/step on the gas (spoken) to drive faster: If you don't step on it we'll miss the plane. 4 step on sb's toes to offend or upset someone, especially by trying to do his/her work 5 step out of line to behave badly by breaking a rule or disobeying an order step down/aside phr. v. to leave your job or official position because you want to or think you should: He's decided to step down at the end of the year.

step forward phr. v. to come and offer help: Several volunteers have kindly stepped forward.

step in phr. v. to become involved in a situation, especially to stop trouble: The police stepped in and stopped the fight.

step out phr. v. to go out for a short time: Molly just stepped out – may I take a message?

step sth ↔ up phr. v. to increase the amount of an activity or the speed of a process: The airlines are stepping up security checks.

S

step-broth-er /'stɛp,brʌðə/ n. [C] the son of someone who has married one of your parents step-by-'step adj. a step-by-step plan, method, etc. deals with things carefully and in a particular order: a step-by-step guide to buying a house

step-child /'stɛp,tʃaɪld/ n. (plural stepchildren /-,tʃɪldrən/) [C] a stepdaughter or stepson step-daugh-ter /'stɛp,dɔ:tə/ n. [C] a daughter that your husband or wife has from a relationship before your marriage step-fa-ther /'stɛp,fɑ:ðə/ n. [C] a man who is married to your mother but who is not your father step-lad-der /'stɛp,lædər/ n. [C] a LADDER with two sloping parts that are attached at the top so that it can stand without support step-moth-er /'stɛp,mʌðə/ n. [C] a woman who is married to your father but who is not your mother steppe /stɛp/ n. [C,U] also the steppes EARTH SCIENCES a large area of land without trees, especially in Russia, parts of Asia, and southeast Europe

'stepped-up adj. [only before noun] done more quickly or with more effort than before → STEP UP: the stepped-up security at the airport

'stepping-stone n. [C] 1 something that helps you to improve or become more successful: a stepping-stone to a better job 2 one of a row of stones that you walk on to get across a stream step-sis-ter /'stɛp,sɪstə/ n. [C] the daughter of someone who has married one of your parents step-son /'stɛpsən/ n. [C] a son that your husband or wife has from a relationship before your marriage ster-e-o /'steri,ou, 'stɪr-/ n. (plural stereos) [C] 1 a machine for playing records, CDs, etc. that produces sound from two SPEAKERS → see picture on page A6 2 in stereo if music or a broadcast is in stereo, the sound it makes is directed through two SPEAKERS

ster-e-o-type¹ /'steriə,taɪp, 'stɪr-/ n. [C] (disapproving) an idea of what a particular type of person is like, especially one which is wrong or unfair: racial stereotypes | stereotypes about women —stereotypical /,steriəu'tɪpɪkəl/ adj.

stereotype² v. [T] (disapproving) to decide, usually unfairly, that some people have particular qualities or abilities because they belong to a particular race, sex, etc.: Too many children's books stereotype girls as helpless and weak.

ster-ile /'sterəl/ adj. 1 BIOLOGY unable to have children (SYN infertile (ANT) fertile 2 BIOLOGY completely clean and not containing any BACTERIA: a sterile bandage 3 lacking new ideas or imagination —sterility /stə'rɪlɪti/ n. [U] ster-il-ize /'stɛrə,laɪz/ v. [T] 1 BIOLOGY to make something completely clean and kill any BACTERIA in it: All the surgical instruments are sterilized before use. 2 BIOLOGY to perform an operation that makes a person or animal unable to have babies —sterilization /,sterələ'zeɪʃən/ n. [C,U] ster-ling /'stɜ:lɪŋ/ adj. sterling qualities/character/record etc. excellent qualities, character, etc.

sterling 'silver also sterling n. [U] a metal that is over 92% pure silver stern¹ /stɜ:n/ adj. very strict and severe: stern warnings | a stern voice/face —sternly adv.

THESAURUS strict, tough, firm → STRICT stern² n. [C] the back part of a ship

ster-num /'stɜ:nəm/ n. (plural sternums or sterna /-nə/) [C] BIOLOGY a BREASTBONE

ste-roid /'sterɔɪd, 'stɪrɔɪd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a drug used especially for treating injuries, that people sometimes use illegally to improve their sports performance steth-o-scope /'stɛθə,skəʊp/ n. [C] an instrument used by doctors to listen to someone's heart or breathing [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French stéthoscope, from Greek stethos “chest” + French -scope]

stew¹ /stu/ n. [C,U] a meal made by cooking meat or fish and vegetables together slowly for a long time: beef stew stew² v. [T] to cook something slowly in liquid: stewed tomatoes stew-ard /'stjuəd/ n. [C] 1 (old-fashioned) a man who is a FLIGHT ATTENDANT 2 also shop steward a worker who represents the members of a union [ORIGIN: Old English stiweard “hall-guard”] stew-ard-ess /'stjuədɪs/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a woman who is a FLIGHT ATTENDANT

stick¹ /stɪk/ v. (past tense and past participle stuck /stʌk/) 1 [I,T] to attach something to something else using a sticky substance, or to become attached to a surface: Did you remember to stick a stamp on the envelope? | leaves sticking to the windshield | The papers were all stuck together. 2 [I] to push a pointed object into something, or to be pushing into something in this way: The nurse stuck a needle in my arm. | There's a nail sticking through the board here. 3 [T] (informal) to put something somewhere: Just stick your coat on that chair.

THESAURUS shove, thrust, dump → SHOVE

4 [I] if something sticks or is stuck, it is fixed and difficult to move: Hey, this door is stuck. 5 stick in sb's mind if something sticks in your mind, you remember it well because it was surprising, interesting, etc. 6 stick your neck out (informal) to take the risk of saying or doing something that may be wrong, or that other people may disagree with [ORIGIN: Old English stician] stick around phr. v. (informal) to stay in a place or wait somewhere for someone stick by sb phr. v. to help and support someone who is in a difficult situation: My wife has always stuck by me.

stick out phr. v. 1 if part of something sticks out, it comes out further than the rest of a surface or comes out through a hole: Paul's legs were sticking out from under the car. 2 stick sth ↔ out to deliberately move part of your body forward or push it out: Don't stick your tongue out at me! 3 stick out (like a sore thumb) (informal) to be easily noticed because of looking very different from everyone or everything else 4 stick it out (informal) to continue doing something that is difficult, boring, etc.

stick to sth phr. v. 1 to decide what to do, say, or believe, and not change this: That's my story and I'm sticking to it. 2 stick to your guns to continue to say or do something, although people disagree with you stick together phr. v. (informal) if people stick together, they continue to support each other stick up phr. v. if a part of something sticks up, it is raised up or points upward above a surface stick up for sb phr. v. (informal) to defend someone who is being criticized: You'll have to learn to stick up for yourself.

stick with phr. v. (informal) 1 stick with sb to stay close to someone when there is a risk you could be separated 2 stick with sb/sth to continue supporting someone or doing something: Let's just stick with the original plan. 3 stick sb with sth to give someone a difficult or unpleasant responsibility: I'll go as long as I don't get stuck with paying the bill again! 4 stick with it (informal) to continue doing something that is difficult, boring, etc. 5 stick with sb to remain in your memory: One thing he said has stuck with me ever since.

stick² n. [C] 1 a long thin piece of wood that has fallen or been cut from a tree 2 a long thin piece of something: a stick of chewing gum 3 a long thin piece of wood or metal that you use for a particular purpose: a walking stick 4 the sticks [plural] (informal) an area that is very far away from a town or city: a kid from the sticks → get the short end of the stick at SHORT¹ stick-er /'stɪkə/ n. [C] a small piece of paper or plastic with a picture or writing on it, that you can stick onto something

'stick-in-the-mud n. [C] someone who is not willing to try anything new, or does not want to go out and have fun stick-ler /'stɪklə/ n. be a stickler for rules/punctuality etc. to think that rules, etc. are extremely important, and expect people to follow them

'stick shift n. [C] a piece of equipment in a car that you move with your hand to control its GEARS → AUTOMATIC

'stick-up n. [C] (informal) a situation in which someone steals money from people in a bank, store, etc. by threatening them with a gun

stick-y /'stɪki/ adj. 1 made of or covered with a substance that sticks to surfaces: sticky candy | Your hands are sticky. 2 (informal) a sticky situation, question, or problem is difficult to deal with 3 weather that is sticky is very hot and the air feels wet (SYN) humid —stickiness n. [U]

stiff¹ /stɪf/ adj. 1 if a part of your body is stiff, your muscles hurt and it is difficult to move: I've got a stiff neck. | My back was stiff and sore.

THESAURUS painful, tender, sore → PAINFUL

2 difficult to bend or move: stiff cardboard

THESAURUS hard, firm, rigid → HARD¹

3 more difficult, strict, or severe than usual: He faces a stiff penalty/fine/sentence. 4 thick and almost solid: Beat the egg whites until stiff. 5 unfriendly or very formal: The evening was stiff and formal. 6 a stiff drink a very strong alcoholic drink 7 a stiff wind/breeze a fairly strong wind [ORIGIN: Old English stif] —stiffly adv. —stiffness n. [U] stiff² adv. bored/scared/worried stiff (informal) extremely bored, etc.

stiff³ n. [C] 1 (slang) the body of a dead person 2 working stiff (informal) an ordinary person who works to earn enough money to live stiff⁴ v. [T] (slang) to not pay someone money that you owe him/her or that s/he expects to be given stiff-en /'stɪfən/ v. [I] to suddenly stop moving, especially because you are frightened or worried sti-fle /'staɪfəl/ v. [T] to stop something from happening, developing, or being expressed: laws that stifle competition —stifling adj.: stifling heat stig-ma /'stɪgmə/ n. 1 [singular, U] a strong feeling in society that a type of behavior or a particular illness or condition is something to be ashamed of: the stigma attached to mental illness 2 [C] BIOLOGY the top sticky part of the female structure of a flower, which receives the POLLEN that allows it to form new seeds → see picture at FLOWER¹ [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin “mark, mark burned on the skin,” from Greek, from stizein “to tattoo”] stig-ma-tize /'stɪgmətaɪz/ v. [T] to make someone feel they should be ashamed of their situation: Single mothers often feel that they are stigmatized by society. —stigmatization /,stɪgmətə'zeɪʃən/ n. [U] still¹ /stɪl/ adv. 1 up to a particular point in time and continuing at that moment: Andy's still asleep.

USAGE

Still is used to say that a situation that began in the past has not changed and is continuing: He still lives with his parents.

Always means “all the time” or “every time”: Her house is always clean. I always see him on Tuesdays.

Yet is used in negative sentences and questions to talk about something that you expect to happen, but which has not happened: I haven't finished the book yet. Is Mark back from lunch yet?

2 in spite of what has just been said or done: Clare didn't study much, but she still passed the exam. 3 used in order to say that something continues to be possible: We can still catch the bus if we hurry. 4 still colder/harder/better etc. also colder/harder/better etc. still even colder, harder, etc. than something else: Dan found biology difficult, and physics harder still. 5 be still going strong to continue to be active or successful, even after a long time: We've been married for 25 years, and we're still going strong. [ORIGIN: Old English stille]

GRAMMAR

Use still before a verb unless the verb is “be”: She still wants to go. | You're still young.

If there are two or more verbs together, still comes after the first one: I can still see him sitting there at his desk.

Still usually comes before any negative word: The car still isn't ready.

still² adj. 1 not moving: the still waters of the lake | Just keep/stand/stay still while I tie your shoes. 2 quiet and calm: The forest was completely still. → QUIET¹ 3 not windy: a hot still day → QUIET¹ —stillness n. [U] still³ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a photograph of a scene from a movie still-born /ˈstɪlˈbɔːn/ adj. BIOLOGY born dead still 'life n. (plural still lifes) [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a picture of an arrangement of objects, especially flowers and fruit → see picture at PAINTING

stilt-ed /ˈstɪltɪd/ adj. stilted writing or speaking is formal and unnatural stilts /stɪlts/ n. [plural] a pair of poles you can stand on, used for walking high above the ground stim-u-lant /ˈstɪmyələnt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a drug or substance that makes you feel more awake and active: Caffeine is a stimulant.

stim-u-late /ˈstɪmyəleɪt/ v. [T] 1 to encourage more of an activity, or to help a process develop faster: The proposed tax cuts should help to stimulate the economy. 2 to make someone excited about and interested in something: We hope the project will stimulate students' interest in science. —stimulating adj.: a stimulating conversation —stimulation /ˈstɪmyəˈleɪʃən/ n. [U] stim-u-lus /ˈstɪmyələs/ n. (plural stimuli /-laɪ/) [C,U] something that causes a development or reaction: The budget package will give a stimulus to the economy.

sting¹ /stɪŋ/ v. (past tense and past participle stung /stʌŋ/) [I,T] 1 if an insect or plant stings you, it causes a sharp pain and that part of your body swells: Jamie was stung by a bee. 2 to feel a sudden sharp pain in your eyes, throat, or skin, or to make someone feel this: The antiseptic might sting a little.

THESAURUS

hurt, smart → HURT¹

3 if you are stung by something, you are upset by it: Pearson was stung by her criticism.

sting² n. 1 [C] a wound made when an insect or plant stings you: a bee sting 2 [singular] a sharp pain that you feel in your eyes, throat, or skin 3 [C] a trick used for catching someone while s/he is doing something illegal: an undercover sting operation sting-er /ˈstɪŋə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the point on a creature's body that contains poison, for example on a BEE sting-ray /ˈstɪŋreɪ/ n. [C] a large flat fish that has a long tail like a whip with stingers on it stin-gy /ˈstɪndʒi/ adj. not willing to spend money or share something even though you have enough: She's so stingy. —stinginess n. [U]

stink¹ /stɪŋk/ v. (past tense stank /stæŋk/ or stunk /stʌŋk/, past participle stunk) [I] 1 to have a very strong bad smell: The dog's breath stinks! | The room stank of cigar smoke. 2 sth stinks (spoken) said when you think something is bad or unfair: I think the whole thing stinks. —stinky adj.

stink sth ↔ up phr. v. (informal) to fill a place with a very strong bad smell stink² n. [singular] 1 make/cause/raise a stink to complain very strongly about something 2 a very strong bad smell

THESAURUS

smell, stench, odor → SMELL² stink-er /ˈstɪŋkə/ n. [C] (informal) someone who behaves badly stink-ing /ˈstɪŋkɪŋ/ adj. having a very strong bad smell: a dump full of stinking garbage stint¹ /stɪnt/ n. [C] a period of time that you spend doing something: a five-year stint in the army

stint² v. [I] SKIMP

sti-pend /ˈstaɪpənd, -pənd/ n. [C] an amount of money paid regularly to someone such as a priest or student as a salary: a monthly stipend stip-u-late /ˈstɪpyələt/ v. [T] (formal) if an agreement, law, or rule stipulates something, it must be done: The contract stipulates that we receive 25% of the profits. —stipulation /ˈstɪpyəˈleɪʃən/ n. [C]

stir¹ /stə/ v. (stirred, stirring) 1 [T] to mix a liquid or food by moving a spoon around in it: Could you stir the sauce for me? | Stir the flour into the mixture. → see picture on page A5

THESAURUS

mix, combine, blend → MIX¹

2 [I,T] to move slightly, or to make someone or something do this: Rachel stirred in her sleep. 3 [T] to make someone feel a strong emotion: The killings stirred citizens to protest.

stir sth ↔ up phr. v. to deliberately cause problems or arguments: John was always stirring up trouble. [ORIGIN: Old English styrian]

stir² n. [C usually singular] 1 a strong feeling such as excitement or anger, felt by many people: The nude drawings at the library have caused/created quite a stir. | The movie caused such a stir that it was finally banned. 2 an act of stirring something: Give the soup a stir.

'stir-fry v. (stir-fried, stir-fries) [T] to quickly cook meat, vegetables, etc. in a little oil over very high heat —stir-fry n.

stir-rup /'stərəp, 'stɪrəp/ n. [C] one of the two metal parts on a horse's SADDLE that you put your foot in stitch¹ /stɪtʃ/ n. [C] 1 one of the small lines of thread where a piece of cloth has been sewn: tiny stitches in the sleeves 2 a piece of special thread that a doctor uses to sew together a cut or wound: Nancy had 14 stitches in her leg. 3 one of the small circles that you KNIT when you are making a SWEATER 4 in stitches (informal) laughing so much that you cannot stop: Her jokes had us all in stitches. 5 not a stitch (of clothing) (informal) no clothes at all: He stood there without a stitch on.

stitch² v. [T] to sew two pieces of cloth together, or to sew something onto a piece of cloth —stitching n. [U] stitch sth ↔ up phr. v. to sew together the edges of a wound or two pieces of cloth: The nurse stitched up the cut and left it to heal.

stock¹ /stɒk/ n. 1 [C,U] a supply of something that is kept to be sold or used later: stocks of canned food in the cupboard | Their new album is now in stock/out of stock (=available or unavailable to be sold). 2 [C,U] ECONOMICS a SHARE or shares in a company 3 [U] a liquid made from boiling meat, bones, or vegetables, used especially for making soups: chicken stock 4 take stock (of sth) to think carefully about everything that has happened so that you can decide what to do next: We need to take stock of the situation.

stock² v. [T] to have a supply of something available to be sold or used: Do you stock camping equipment?

stock up phr. v. to buy a lot of something that you intend to use later: I need to stock up on groceries.

stock-brok-er /'stɒk,broʊkə/ n. [C] ECONOMICS a person or company whose job is to buy and sell stocks, BONDS, etc. for other people —stockbroking n. [U]

'stock certificate n. [C] ECONOMICS an official document that proves you own stock in a company

'stock exchange n. [C] ECONOMICS the place where stocks, BONDS, etc. are bought and sold (SYN) stock market stock-hold-er /'stɒk,həʊldə/ n. [C] ECONOMICS someone who owns STOCK stock-ing /'stɒkɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 a very thin close-fitting piece of clothing that covers a woman's foot and most of her leg: silk stockings 2 a large sock that is hung by the FIREPLACE before Christmas to be filled with presents

'stock market n. [C] 1 ECONOMICS the place where stocks, BONDS, etc. are bought and sold (SYN) stock exchange 2 the stock market ECONOMICS the business of buying and selling stocks, BONDS etc. or their average value: She made a fortune on the stock market. | The stock market keeps going up.

stock-pile /'stɒkpɑɪl/ n. [C] a large supply of something that you collect in order to use it in the future: a stockpile of weapons —stockpile v. [T]

,stock-'still adv. not moving at all stock-y /'stɒki/ adj. a stocky person is short and heavy and looks strong: a stocky policeman stock-yard /'stɒkyɑd/ n. [C] a place where cattle are kept before being sold or killed for their meat stodg-y /'stɒdʒi/ adj. boring, formal, and old-fashioned sto-ic /'stɔɪk/ also sto-i-cal /'stɔɪkəl/ adj. not showing your emotions or not complaining when something bad happens to you [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Stoic "follower of the ancient Greek thinker Zeno, who said that happiness results from accepting what happens in life"] —stoicism /'stɔɪsɪzəm/ n. [U] stoke /stɒk/ v. [T] 1 to add more wood or FUEL to a fire 2 to cause something to increase: High economic growth could stoke inflation.

stoked /stɒkt/ adj. (slang) very happy and excited about something stole¹ /stəʊl/ v. the past tense of STEAL stole² n. [C] a long straight piece of cloth or fur that a woman wears over her shoulders sto-len /'stəʊlən/ v. the past participle of STEAL

stol-id /'stəlɪd/ adj. not showing a lot of emotion —stolidly adv.

sto-lon /'stəʊlən/ n [C] 1 BIOLOGY a long stem that grows out from a plant and produces roots where it touches the ground. New plants grow from those roots. 2 BIOLOGY part of the body wall of some very simple animals that grow together in one place, on which new members of the COLONY grow sto-ma /'stəʊmə/ n. (plural stomas or stomata /-mə'tə/) [C] BIOLOGY one of the many very small holes on the surface of a leaf, that controls the amount of water and gases that enter and leave the plant

stom·ach¹ /'stʌmək/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY the organ in your body that DIGESTS the food you eat: Sam's stomach growled (=made a noise). | Don't drink on an empty stomach. → see picture at ORGAN 2 the front part of your body, below your chest: She punched her sister in the stomach. 3 the ability and willingness to do something unpleasant: I didn't have the stomach to watch him fight. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French estomac, from Latin stomachus “throat, stomach”] → feel sick to your stomach at SICK

stomach² v. [T] to be able to deal with something that is unpleasant: I just can't stomach moving again.

stom·ach·ache /'stʌmək,eɪk/ n. [C] a pain in your stomach sto·ma·ta /'stoumətə/ n. BIOLOGY a plural of STOMA stomp /stamp, stɒmp/ v. [I] to walk with very heavy steps or put your foot down hard, usually because you are angry

S

stone¹ /stoun/ n. 1 [U] EARTH SCIENCES rock, or a hard mineral substance: a stone fireplace 2 [C] a small rock or a piece of rock: A few of the protesters began throwing stones at the police. 3 [C] a jewel: a ring set with precious stones 4 [C] BIOLOGY a ball of hard material that can form in an organ such as the KIDNEY or BLADDER [ORIGIN: Old English stan] stone² adv. stone cold/deaf/dead completely cold, DEAF, or dead stone³ v. [T] to kill or hurt someone by throwing stones at him/her

Stone Age n. the Stone Age HISTORY the very early period in human history, when only stone was used for making tools, weapons, etc. → BRONZE AGE, IRON AGE stoned /stound/ adj. (slang) feeling very excited or very relaxed after taking illegal drugs stone-wall /'stounwɔl/ v. [I,T] to deliberately delay doing something or refuse to give information about it: The union is stonewalling on the contract.

ston·y /'stouni/ adj. 1 covered with stones or containing stones 2 showing no emotion or pity: a stony silence stood /stʊd/ v. the past tense and past participle of STAND¹ stool /stul/ n. [C] 1 a seat that has three or four legs, but no back or arms: a piano stool → see picture at SEAT¹ 2 BIOLOGY a piece of solid waste from the body [ORIGIN: Old English stol] stoop¹ /stup/ v. [I] 1 to bend your body forward and down: Troy stooped to pick up his pencil. 2 to do something that other people consider to be bad or morally wrong: I never thought you'd stoop so low.

stoop² n. 1 [singular] if you have a stoop, your shoulders lean forward or seem too round 2 [C] a set of stairs leading up to a city house, or the flat area at the top of them

stop¹ /stɒp/ v. (stopped, stopping) 1 [I,T] to not continue, or to make someone or something not continue: He finally stopped smoking. | The rain's stopping. | Doctors stopped the bleeding. | He's been stopped twice by the police for speeding.

THESAURUS end, finish, come to an end, be over → END²

2 [I] to pause during an activity, trip, etc. in order to do something: We stopped for gas in Louisville. | Let's find a place to stop and eat. | She stopped to tie her shoe.

THESAURUS

have/take a break – to stop doing something for a short time in order to rest: Are you feeling tired? Let's take a break.

break – to stop for a short time in order to rest or eat something: Should we break for lunch?

pause – to stop speaking or doing something for a short time before starting again: He paused for a moment to consider the question.

interrupt (formal) – to stop a process or activity for a short time: The war interrupted the supply of oil.

3 [T] to prevent someone from doing something: I'm leaving, and you can't stop me. | We must do everything we can to stop this from happening again. 4 stop it/that! (spoken) said when you want someone to stop annoying or upsetting you: Stop it! That hurts! 5 stop short of sth to stop before you do one more thing that would be too dangerous, risky, etc.: Tom stopped short of calling her a liar. 6 stop at nothing to be ready to do anything to achieve something you want: They've said they'll stop at nothing to save the redwood trees. [ORIGIN: Old English stoppan “to block up”]

stop by phr. v. to make a short visit to a person or place, especially before going somewhere else: It was nice of Judy to stop by.

stop in phr. v. (informal) to make a short visit to a place or person, especially when you are going somewhere else: Let's stop in at Gary's on the way home.

stop off phr. v. to quickly visit a place that is on the way to where you are going: I need to stop off at the post office.

stop² n. 1 [singular] the action of stopping or of being stopped: The taxi came to a stop outside his hotel. | Mrs. Drayton put a stop to the gossip. 2 [C] a place where you stop during a trip, or the short period you spend at that place: Paris will be the first stop of the tour. 3 [C] a place where a bus or train regularly stops for its passengers: This is my stop. | the bus/subway/train stop at 45th Street stop-gap /'stɒpgæp/ n. [C] a solution, plan, person, etc. that you use until you have a better one: a stopgap measure to deal with the parking problem stop-light /'stɒplaɪt/ n. [C] a set of red, yellow, and green lights used for controlling traffic stop-o-ver /'stɒp,ʊvə/ n. [C] a short time between parts of a trip, especially a long airplane trip: a three-hour stopover in Atlanta stop-page /'stɒpɪdʒ/ n. [C] an occasion when workers stop working for a short time as a protest stop-per /'stɒpə/ n. [C] a piece of plastic, cork, etc. that you put in the top of a bottle to close it stop-watch /'stɒpwɒtʃ/ n. [C] a watch used for measuring the exact time it takes to do something, such as run a race → *see picture at WATCH*²

stor-age /'stɔːrɪdʒ/ n. [U] the act or state of keeping something in a special place when it is not being used: the safe storage of chemical weapons | The furniture is in storage.

store¹ /stɔːr/ n. [C] 1 a place where goods are sold to the public: a street lined with small stores | a grocery/book/shoe etc. store | I'm going to the store (=to a food store) to get some milk.

THESAURUS

Stores that sell particular types of goods bookstore/clothes store/record store, etc.

– a store that sells one type of goods grocery store – a store that sells food and other things used in the home supermarket – a large store that sells many different kinds of food and things people need for the house bakery – a place or area within a grocery store where bread, cakes, cookies, etc. are made or sold delicatessen/deli – a small store or an area within a grocery store that sells cheese, cooked meat, bread, etc.

liquor store – a small store where alcohol is sold drugstore – a store where you can buy medicines, beauty products, etc.

hardware store – a store that sells equipment and tools that you use in your home and yard nursery/garden center – a place where plants and trees are grown and sold newsstand – a place on a street where newspapers and magazines are sold boutique – a small store that sells fashionable clothes or decorations

Stores that sell different types of goods convenience store – a store where you can buy food, newspapers, etc., that is often open 24 hours each day department store – a large store that sells many different products, such as clothes, kitchen equipment, etc.

chain store – one of a group of stores owned by the same company superstore – a very big store, especially one that has many different types of products, or one that has a lot of one type of product

Stores that sell goods more cheaply outlet store – a store that sells things for less than the usual price warehouse store – a store that sells things in large amounts at lower prices

People who use or work in stores customer – someone who buys the things sold in a store sales assistant/clerk – someone whose job it is to help customers to buy things cashier – someone whose job is to receive and pay out money in a store

2 a supply of something that you keep to use later: secret stores of weapons 3 be in store to be about to happen to someone: There's a surprise in store for you!

store² v. [T] 1 also store away to put things somewhere and keep them there until you need them: photos stored in shoe boxes

THESAURUS

keep, save → KEEP¹

2 to keep facts or information in a computer: data stored on the hard drive store-front /'stɔːfrʌnt/ n. [C] 1 the part of a store that faces the street 2 storefront church/office/school etc. a small church, etc. in a shopping area store-house /'stɔːrhʌʊs/ n. a storehouse of information/memory etc. something that contains a lot of information, memories, etc.

store-keep-er /'stɔːr,kɪpə/ n. [C] someone who owns or is in charge of a store store-room /'stɔːr-rʊm/ n. [C] a room where goods are stored sto-rey /'stɔːri/ n. [C] a floor or level of a building (SYN) story

stork /stɔːrk/ n. [C] a tall white water bird with long legs and a long beak

storm¹ /stɔːrm/ n. [C] 1 a period of bad weather when there is a lot of wind, rain, snow, etc.: a snow storm | a winter/summer storm

THESAURUS

gale, hurricane, tornado,

typhoon → WIND¹ → RAIN¹

2 a situation in which people suddenly become angry and excited: The changes raised a storm of opposition/criticism/protest. 3 dance/talk/work etc. up a storm (informal) to do something with a lot of excitement and effort: Jenny and I cooked up a storm. 4 take sb/sth by storm to suddenly become very successful in a particular place: a new show that's taking Broadway by storm [ORIGIN: Old English] storm² v. 1 [T] to attack a place and enter it using a lot of force: Police officers stormed the building. 2 [I] to go somewhere in a fast noisy way because you are very angry: Jack stormed in, demanding an explanation.

S

storm surge n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a sudden rise in the level of the sea caused by a tropical storm, which results in large amounts of water flooding the land storm-y /'stɔːrmi/ adj. 1 with rain, strong winds, snow, etc.: stormy weather | a stormy day 2 a stormy relationship or situation is one in which people often feel angry

sto-ry /'stɔːri/ n. (plural stories) [C] 1 a description of an event that is intended to entertain people: a story about/of her father's rodeo days | The movie is based on a true story. | a ghost/detective/love story | Grandma used to read/tell us stories every night.

THESAURUS

tale – a story about things that happened long ago, or things that may not have really happened: tales of adventure myth – a very old story about gods, magical creatures, etc.: the Greek myths about Zeus legend – an old story about brave people or magical events: the legend of King Arthur fable – a traditional story that teaches a moral lesson: the legendary fable of the race between the tortoise and the hare yarn – a long story that is not completely true: He spins (=tells) wonderful yarns about his boyhood and his early career as a sailor.

narrative (formal) – a description of events that is told as a story: The book lacks a traditional narrative, and instead goes back and forth in time.

anecdote (formal) – a short interesting story about a particular person or event: As I looked through the album with my grandfather, each picture brought an anecdote with it.

2 a report in a newspaper or news broadcast about a recent event: The Post published a story on his White House visit. → NEWSPAPER 3 a floor or level of a building: a three-story building (=with three levels) 4 it's a long story (spoken) said when you think something will take too long to explain: It's a long story – I'll tell you later. 5 to make a long story short (spoken) said when you want to finish explaining something quickly: To make a long story short, she got mad and left. 6 an excuse, explanation, or lie: Do you believe his story? [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French estorie, from Latin historia] sto-ry-tell-er /'stɔːri,tɛlə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who tells stories stout /staʊt/ adj. 1 fairly fat and heavy

THESAURUS

fat, overweight, big, heavy, large, plump, corpulent, rotund → FAT¹

2 brave and determined: a stout defender of human rights stove /stouv/ n. [C] 1 a piece of kitchen equipment on which you cook food in pots and pans, and that contains an OVEN: There's a pan of rice on the stove. 2 a metal container inside which you burn wood, coal, etc. in order to heat a room: an old wood stove [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Middle Dutch, Middle Low German, “heated room,” from Vulgar Latin extufa, from Greek typhein “to smoke”] stow /stou/ also stow away v. [T] to put something away neatly in a place until you need it again: Please stow all carry-on baggage under your seat.

stow-a-way /'stəʊə,weɪ/ n. [C] someone who hides on an aircraft, ship, etc. in order to travel without paying strad-dle /'strædl/ v. [T] 1 to sit or stand with your legs on either side of something: Nick straddled a chair. 2 if something straddles a line, road, river, etc., part of it is on one side and part on the other side: a town that straddles the U.S.-Canadian border 3 to include different areas of activity, groups, time, etc.: My research straddles economics and social sciences.

strag-gle /'strægəl/ v. [I] if people in a large group straggle, they move away from the group one at a time: Travelers were beginning to straggle out of Customs.

strag-gly /'strægli/ adj. (informal) growing or spreading out in a messy uneven way: straggly hair

straight¹ /streɪt/ adv. 1 in a line or direction that is not bent, curved, or leaning: Stand up straight! | The bathroom's straight down the hall. | She sat there, staring straight ahead. 2 immediately and without any delay: Why didn't you go straight to the police? 3 happening one after the other in a series: He worked 18 hours straight. 4 not see/think straight to be unable to see or think clearly: It was so noisy, I could hardly think straight.

straight² adj. 1 not bent or curved: a straight line | long straight hair → see picture on page 462 2 level or upright, and not bent or leaning: Is this sign straight? | straight teeth 3 honest and direct: I wish you'd give me a straight answer.

THESAURUS

honest, frank, direct, straightforward, blunt, forthright → HONEST

4 one after the other: three straight victories 5 get/keep sth straight (spoken) to correctly understand the facts about a situation without being confused: I can't keep all their names straight. 6 get straight A's/B's etc. to earn the grade “A,” “B,” etc. in all of your school subjects 7 a straight face a serious expression on your face even though you want to laugh or smile: How did you keep a straight face? 8 (informal) HETEROSEXUAL 9 alcoholic drinks that are straight do not have any ice, water, etc. added to them 10 (informal) not liking to take risks or do things that are not ordinary, and often following strict moral rules: “What's his girlfriend like?” “She's pretty straight.”

straight³ n. 1 [C] (informal) someone who is HETEROSEXUAL (ANT) gay 2 the straight and narrow a sensible and moral way of living straight 'angle n. [C] MATH an angle that measures exactly 180° → see picture at ANGLE¹

straight-en

/ˈstreɪtˈn/ v. 1 [I,T] also straighten out to become straight, or make something straight: She straightened a picture on the wall. 2 [I] also straighten up to make your back straight, or to stand up straight after bending down 3 [T] also straighten up to clean a room that is messy straighten sb/sth ↔ out phr. v. 1 to deal with a difficult situation or solve a problem: I'll talk to him and see if I can straighten things out. 2 to improve your bad behavior or deal with personal problems, or to help someone do this: He's back in school and getting himself straightened out.

straighten up phr. v. to start behaving well: You straighten up right now, young man!

straight-for-ward /ˌstreɪtˈfɔrwəd/ (Ac) adj. 1 simple or easy to understand: The task was relatively/fairly straightforward.

THESAURUS simple, easy, uncomplicated → SIMPLE

2 honest and not hiding what you think: a straightforward response

THESAURUS honest, frank, direct, straight, blunt, forthright → HONEST straight-jack-et /ˈstreɪt,dʒækɪt/ n. [C] another spelling of STRAITJACKET straight 'ticket n. [C] POLITICS in an election in the U.S., a vote in which someone chooses the CANDIDATES of only one particular political party

strain¹ /streɪn/ n. 1 [C,U] worry that is caused by always being busy or always dealing with problems: She's been under a lot of strain lately. 2 [C] a problem or difficulty caused when someone or something has too much to do or too many problems to deal with: The flu epidemic has put a strain on health organizations. | strains in their marriage 3 [U] PHYSICS the physical force or pressure on something that is being pulled, stretched, or pushed: The rope snapped under the strain. 4 [C,U] an injury caused by stretching a muscle or using part of your body more than you should → SPRAIN: eye strain 5 [C] BIOLOGY one of the particular varieties of a plant, animal, or living thing: a new strain of the virus 6 strains [plural]

the sound of music being played: the familiar strains of "Happy Birthday"

strain² v. 1 [T] to injure part of your body by stretching it or using it more than you should: Kevin strained a muscle in his neck.

THESAURUS hurt, injure, sprain, twist, pull → HURT¹

2 [I,T] to try very hard to do something: She was straining to hear what they said. 3 [T] to cause problems or difficulties for someone or something: Tuition costs have strained the family's finances. 4 [T] to separate solid things from a liquid by pouring the mixture through a strainer or cloth → see picture on page A5 5 [I] to pull hard at something or push hard against something: a boat straining against the wind strained /streɪnd/ adj. 1 unfriendly, not relaxed, and showing a lack of trust: a strained conversation 2 worried and tired: Alex's pale, strained face strain-er /ˈstreɪnə/ n. [C] a kitchen tool used for separating solid food from a liquid strait /streɪt/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a narrow passage of water that joins two larger areas of water: the Strait of Gibraltar strait-jack-et, straightjacket /ˈstreɪt,dʒækɪt/ n. [C] a special coat for violent or mentally ill people that prevents them from moving their arms strand /strænd/ n. [C] a single thin piece of thread, hair, wire, etc.: He reached out and brushed a strand of hair away from her face.

strand-ed /ˈstrændɪd/ adj. needing help because you are unable to move from a particular place: I was stranded at the airport without any money.

strange¹ /streɪndʒ/ adj. 1 unusual or surprising, in a way that is difficult to understand (ANT) normal: strange noises | It looked kind of strange. | It's strange that Brad isn't here yet. | There was something strange about him.

THESAURUS

funny – a little strange or unusual: I heard a funny noise downstairs.

peculiar – strange, unfamiliar, or a little surprising: a peculiar taste curious (formal) – strange or unusual: a curious incident that puzzled the police mysterious – strange in a way that is hard to explain or understand: his mysterious disappearance odd – strange, especially in a way that you disapprove of or cannot understand: It seemed like an odd thing to say.

weird – strange and different from what you are used to: a weird experience | weird clothes bizarre – very unusual and strange in a way that is hard to explain or understand: In a bizarre twist, the judge was later arrested for impersonating a police officer.

eccentric – an eccentric person is strange and different in a way that people think is slightly amusing: an eccentric old man

2 not familiar: I was all alone in a strange country. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French estrange “foreign,” from Latin extraneus] —strangeness n. [U] strange² adv. (spoken, nonstandard) strangely

strange-ly /ˈstreɪndʒli/ adv. in an unusual or surprising way: Their son was acting/behaving strangely. | It was strangely quiet.

strang-er /ˈstreɪndʒə/ n. [C] 1 someone you do not know: Never talk to strangers. | *a phone call from a total/perfect/complete stranger 2 someone in a new and unfamiliar place or situation: a stranger to New York 3 be no stranger to sth to have had a lot of experience of something: *an artist who is no stranger to controversy

stran-gle /ˈstræŋɡəl/ v. [T] to kill someone by tightly pressing his/her throat with your hands, a rope, etc. → CHOKE: The victim was found strangled to death in her home. —strangulation /ˈstræŋɡyəˈleɪʃən/ n. [U]

S

stran-gle-hold /ˈstræŋɡəlˌhoʊld/ n. [C] the power to completely control something: Just a few companies have a stranglehold on the market.

strap¹ /stræp/ n. [C] a strong band of cloth, leather, or plastic, that is used to fasten, hang, or carry something: a watch strap → see picture at WATCH² strap² v. (strapped, strapping) [T] to fasten someone or something to a place using one or more straps: Keller strapped on his helmet.

strap-less /ˈstræpləs/ adj. a strapless dress, BRA, etc. does not have any straps over the shoulders strapped /stræpt/ adj. (informal) having little or no money to spend: I'm a little strapped for cash.

stra-ta /ˈstrætə, ˈstreɪtə/ n. EARTH SCIENCES the plural of STRATUM strat-a-gem /ˈstrætədʒəm/ n. [C] a trick or plan used for deceiving an enemy or gaining an advantage stra-te-gic /strəˈtɪdʒɪk/ (Ac) adj. 1 done as part of a military, business, or political plan: the strategic position of U.S. armed forces in Europe 2 useful for a particular purpose, especially fighting a war: strategic missiles stra-te-gic 'value n. [U] the importance or usefulness of things or places for providing a country or an army with a military advantage

strat-e-gy /ˈstrætədʒi/ (Ac) n. (plural strategies) 1 [C] a planned series of actions for achieving something: a strategy for raising funds | the company's marketing/business/development strategy | Children develop different strategies to learn material such as vocabulary.

THESAURUS method, way, approach → METHOD → PLAN¹

2 [C,U] the skill of planning the movements of armies in a war, or an example of this: military strategy [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Greek strategia “art of leading an army,” from strategos]

strat-i-fied /ˈstrætəˌfaɪd/ adj. 1 SOCIAL SCIENCE separated into different social classes: a stratified society 2 EARTH SCIENCES containing layers of earth, rock, etc. —stratify v. [T] strat-o-sphere /ˈstrætəˌsfɪr/ n. the stratosphere EARTH SCIENCES the middle part of the Earth's lower ATMOSPHERE starting about six miles above the Earth → see picture at ATMOSPHERE

strat-um /ˈstrætəm, ˈstreɪ-/ n. (plural strata /-tə/) [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a layer of a particular type of rock or dirt 2 SOCIAL SCIENCE a social class in society stra-tus /ˈstreɪtəs, ˈstræ-/ n. (plural strati /-təɪ/) [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES a low flat type of cloud that usually seems to cover the sky. If a stratus cloud is low enough, it may bring FOG or mist. → CIRRUS, CUMULONIMBUS, CUMULUS, NIMBUS straw /strɔ/ n. 1 a) [U] dried stems of wheat or similar plants, used for animals to eat or sleep on, or for making things such as baskets: a straw hat b) [C] a single stem of this 2 [C] a thin tube of plastic used for sucking a drink from a bottle or cup 3 the last/final straw the last problem in a series of problems that finally makes you get angry, give up, or refuse to accept the situation any more 4 be grasping/clutching at straws to be trying everything you can to succeed, even though the things you are doing are not likely to help or work straw-ber-ry /ˈstrɔˌberi/ n. (plural strawberries) [C] a soft sweet red berry with small pale seeds on its surface [ORIGIN: Old English streaw-berige, from streaw + berige “berry”] → see picture on page 414

straw 'poll also straw 'vote n. [C] POLITICS an unofficial test of people's opinions before an election, to see what the result is likely to be stray¹ /streɪ/ v. [I] 1 to move away from the place where you should be, especially without intending to: The plane had strayed from its flight plan. 2 to begin to deal with or think about a different subject from the main one, especially without intending to: an article that strays from the facts

stray² adj. 1 a stray animal is lost or has no home: We took in a stray dog. 2 accidentally separated from a larger group: a few stray hairs stray³ n. [C] an animal that is lost or has no home streak¹ /stri:k/ n. [C] 1 a colored line or thin mark: gray streaks in her hair

THESAURUS line, stripe, band → LINE¹

2 a quality you have that seems different from the rest of your character: a streak of independence 3 a period of time when you are always successful or always failing: The Ducks were on a four-game winning/losing streak. —streaky adj.

streak² v. 1 [T] to cover something with streaks: Marcia's face was streaked with sweat. 2 [I] to move or run very quickly: A fighter jet streaked across the sky.

stream¹ /strɪm/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a natural flow of water that is smaller than a river: a clear mountain stream → see picture at RIVER 2 a long continuous series of people, vehicles, events, etc.: a stream of cars | a steady/endless/constant stream of complaints 3 a flow of water, gas, smoke, etc.: a stream of warm air [ORIGIN: Old English]

stream² v. 1 [I] to move quickly and continuously in one direction, especially in large amounts: Tears were streaming down his cheeks. | People streamed out of the theater. 2 [I] if light streams somewhere, it shines through an opening: Sunlight streamed in through the window. 3 [T] if you stream sound or video, you play it on your computer while it is being DOWNLOADED from the Internet, rather than saving it as a FILE and then playing it stream-er /'strɪmər/ n. [C] a long narrow flag or piece of colored paper used as a decoration for special events stream-line /'strɪmlaɪn/ v. [T] 1 to make something such as a business or process become simpler and more effective: The city has streamlined the permit process. 2 to make something have a smooth shape so that it moves easily through the air or water —streamlined adj.

street /stri:t/ n. [C] 1 a road in a town or city with houses, stores, etc. on one or both sides: Be careful crossing the street. | the building down/across/up the street

THESAURUS road, main street, avenue, lane, main road → ROAD

2 the streets the busy public parts of a city, where there is a lot of activity, excitement, and crime: homeless people living on the streets [ORIGIN: Old English stræt] street-car /'stri:tˈkɑr/ n. [C] an electric bus that moves along metal tracks in the road streetlight /'stri:t-laɪt/ also street-lamp /'stri:t-læmp/ n. [C] a light at the top of a tall post in the street strength /streŋkθ, strɛŋθ/ n.

1 PHYSICAL [U] the physical power and energy that makes someone strong (symbol force) (ANT) weakness: She hardly had the strength to move.

2 DETERMINATION [U] the quality of being brave or determined in dealing with difficult situations: When she died, I didn't feel I had the strength to carry on.

3 COUNTRY/SYSTEM ETC. [U] the power of an organization, country, or system: the military/economic/political strength of the U.S.

4 FEELING/BELIEF ETC. [U] how strong a feeling, belief, or relationship is: the strength of her religious beliefs

5 QUALITY/ABILITY [C] a particular quality or ability that makes someone or something successful and effective: the strengths of the argument | her father's strengths and weaknesses

6 SUBSTANCE/MIXTURE [C,U] how strong a substance or mixture is: full-strength pesticides

7 MONEY [U] ECONOMICS the value of one country's money compared to other countries' money: The yen gained in strength against the dollar today.

8 NUMBER OF PEOPLE [U] the number of people on a team, in an army, etc.: At full strength, the squad has 12 men.

9 on the strength of sth because of something that persuaded or influenced you: She was hired mainly on the strength of her ability to translate Russian. [ORIGIN: Old English strengþu]

strength-en /'streŋkθən, 'strɛŋθən/ v. 1 [I,T] to become stronger, or to make something such as a feeling, belief, or relationship stronger (ANT) weaken: Her determination to succeed has strengthened. | Family dinners strengthen your ties/bonds/connections with your children. 2 [T] to make something such as your body or a building stronger (ANT) weaken: an exercise to strengthen your arms 3 [I,T] ECONOMICS to increase in value or improve, or to make something do this (ANT) weaken: The dollar has strengthened against other currencies. | The trade agreement will strengthen the economy.

stren-u-ous /'streɪnyuəs/ adj. using a lot of effort, strength, or determination: strenuous exercise | strenuous objections to the plan —strenuously adv.

strep throat /streɪp 'θroʊt/ n. [U] (informal) a fairly common medical condition in which your throat is very sore stress¹ /stres/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] continuous feelings of worry about your work or personal life, that prevent you from relaxing: Baxter's under a lot of stress at work. | Stress can cause severe health problems. 2 [U] special attention or importance given to an idea or activity (SYN) emphasis: He put/laid stress on the need for more teachers. 3 [C,U] PHYSICS the physical force or pressure on an object: Fractures form when the rocks are subjected to stress. 4 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the degree of force or loudness with which you say a word or part of a word, or play a note of music: The stress is on the first syllable.

stress² v. 1 [T] to emphasize a statement, fact, or idea: Herman stressed that participation is voluntary. | She stressed the need for more health education.

THESAURUS emphasize, highlight, underline, underscore → EMPHASIZE

2 [I] also stress out (spoken) to feel stressed: Terry's stressing out about his midterms. 3 [T] to say a word or part of a word loudly or with more force, or play a note of music more loudly: The word "basketball" is stressed on the first and third syllable.

stressed /strest/ (Ac) adj. 1 also stressed out (spoken) so worried and tired that you cannot relax: I was stressed out and exhausted.

THESAURUS worried, anxious, nervous, tense → WORRIED

2 PHYSICS a stressed object has a lot of pressure or force put on it: The stressed rock began to fracture. 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS a stressed word or part of a word is spoken more loudly or with more force: The last syllable is stressed.

S

stress-ful /'stresfəl/ (Ac) adj. making you worry a lot: a stressful job

'stress mark n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a mark that shows which part of a word is emphasized the most

stretch¹ /stretʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] also stretch out to become bigger or looser as a result of being pulled, or to make something become bigger or looser by pulling it: My sweater has stretched all out of shape. 2 [I,T] to reach out your arms, legs, or body to full length: Maxie got up and stretched. | Klein stretched out his hand to Devlin. → see picture on page A9 3 [I] to spread out over a large area, or continue for a long period: The line of people stretched around the corner. | The project will probably stretch into next year. 4 [I] if cloth stretches, it changes shape when you pull or wear it, and becomes its original shape when you stop: The shorts stretch to fit. 5 [T] to pull something so that it is tight: Stretch a rope between two trees. 6 be stretched (to the limit) to have hardly enough money, supplies, energy, time, etc. to do something: Our resources are already stretched to the limit. 7 stretch your legs (informal) to go for a walk stretch out phr. v. (informal) to lie down so that you can rest or sleep: He stretched out on the bed.

stretch² n. 1 [C] an area of water or land: a dangerous stretch of road 2 [C] a continuous period of time: Nurses are working up to 12 hours at a stretch (=without stopping). 3 [C] the action of stretching part of your body 4 [U] the ability of a material to become bigger or longer without tearing 5 not by any stretch (of the imagination) (spoken) used in order to say that something is definitely not true: She's not fat, by any stretch of the imagination.

stretch-er /'stretʃə/ n. [C] a covered frame on which you carry someone who is injured or too sick to walk strew /stru/ v. (past participle strewn /strun/ or strewed) [T] to throw or drop a number of things over an area in a messy way: Papers were strewn all over the floor.

strick-en /'stri:kən/ adj. (formal) very badly affected by trouble, illness, sadness, etc.: a woman stricken by grief → POVERTY-STRICKEN strict /strikt/ adj. 1 expecting people to obey rules or do what you say: Her parents are very strict.

THESAURUS

Other words meaning strict tough – very strict: Tough new laws were introduced against the sale of alcohol to minors.

firm – dealing with someone or something in a determined way and showing that you are not going to change your mind: It's important to be firm with young children.

rigorous – checking or testing something in a very careful and thorough way: Every product goes through a series of rigorous safety checks before it leaves the factory.

stern – looking very strict and serious: My father always had a stern expression on his face.

rigid – strict and difficult to change: The country has a rigid social system.

stringent – stringent rules are very strict and have high standards: The state of California already has stringent controls on pollution from cars.

draconian (formal) – draconian laws, methods, or punishments are extremely strict: The authorities had to use draconian measures to deal with the violence.

Not strict lenient – not strict and not wanting to punish someone or control his/her behavior: The younger teachers generally had a more lenient attitude toward their students.

lax – a lax system is not strict enough and does not work properly: The report criticizes the lax security at many prisons.

easygoing – an easygoing person does not care about being strict, and is usually calm and relaxed: My dad's pretty easygoing and doesn't mind if I stay out late, so long as he knows where I am.

2 a strict rule, order, etc. must be obeyed: Gun regulations aren't strict enough. | a school with strict rules/limits/controls 3 very exact and correct: He practices Chinese medicine, so is not a doctor in the strict sense. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin strictus, past participle of stringere “to tie tightly, press together”]

strict-ly /'striktli/ adv. 1 in a way that must be obeyed: Smoking is strictly forbidden. 2 exactly and correctly: That is not strictly true. | Strictly speaking, spiders are not insects. 3 used in order to emphasize what you are saying: The drug treatment program is strictly voluntary. 4 only for a particular purpose, thing, or person: These bowls are strictly for decoration.

stride¹ /straɪd/ v. (past tense strode /stroʊd/, past participle stridden /'strɪdn/) [I] to walk with quick long steps: He strode across the room.

THESAURUS walk, march, stroll, amble, trudge, limp, wade, hike → WALK¹

stride² n. [C] 1 a long step that you make when you walk 2 make (great) strides to develop or make progress quickly: Doctors have made great strides in treating this type of injury. 3 take sth in stride to deal with a problem calmly without becoming annoyed or upset: Most children take this type of teasing in stride.

strident /'straɪdnt/ adj. 1 showing determination and a strong opinion in a way that other people may think is unpleasant: strident attacks on his opponent 2 a sound that is strident is loud and unpleasant: her strident voice [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin, present participle of stridere “to make a rough unpleasant noise”] strife /straɪf/ n. [U] (formal) trouble or disagreement between two people or groups [SYN] conflict: a period of ethnic/political/marital strife

strike¹ /straɪk/ v. (past tense and past participle struck /strʌk/) 1 HIT [T] (formal) to hit someone or something: Paul fell, striking his head. | The soldiers were struck by shrapnel. | She struck him across the face.

THESAURUS hit, punch, slap, beat, smack, whack, bump, bang → HIT¹

2 THOUGHT/IDEA [T] if a thought or idea strikes you, you suddenly realize it, notice it, or think of it: It struck me that he was probably nervous as well. 3 strike sb as sth to seem to someone to have a particular quality: She strikes me as a very intelligent woman.

4 WORK [I] to deliberately stop working for a time because of a disagreement about pay, working conditions, etc.: The dock workers are striking for shorter work days.

5 ATTACK [I] to attack someone quickly and suddenly: Police fear the killer will strike again.

6 strike a balance to give the correct amount of attention or importance to two opposing ideas or situations: It's never easy to strike a balance between work and family.

7 STH UNPLEASANT [I] if something bad strikes, it happens suddenly: A magnitude 7 earthquake struck near San Francisco.

8 strike a deal to agree to do something if someone else does something for you: The company finally struck a deal with the union.

9 strike a chord to make someone feel that s/he agrees with, likes, or is similar to someone or something: This idea has struck a chord with voters.

10 strike a match to make a match burn

11 strike oil/gold etc. to discover oil, gold, etc. in the ground

12 CLOCK [I,T] if a clock strikes or strikes one, three, six, etc., its bell makes a sound one, three, six, etc. times to show what time it is: The clock struck four (=4 o'clock).

strike sth ↔ down phr. v.

to say that a law or formal decision is no longer legal or officially accepted: The Supreme Court struck down a law against flag burning.

strike out phr. v.

1 strike sb ↔ out to get three strikes in baseball so that you are not allowed to continue to try to hit, or to make someone do this: The first batter was struck out.

2 to start a difficult trip or experience: They struck out for a better life in America.

3 strike out on your own to start doing something or living independently

4 (informal) to be unsuccessful at something: “Did she say she'd go out with you?” “No, I struck out.”

strike up phr. v.

1 strike up a conversation/friendship etc. to start a conversation, friendship, etc. with someone

2 strike up (sth) to begin to play or sing something: The band struck up an Irish tune.

strike² n. 1 [C,U] a time when a group of workers deliberately stop working because of a disagreement about pay, working conditions, etc.: The union decided to go on strike. 2 [C] a military attack: threats of an air strike 3 two/three etc. strikes against a condition, situation, or quality that makes it extremely difficult for someone or something to be successful: Children from poor backgrounds have several strikes against them before even starting school. 4 [C] in baseball, an attempt to hit the ball that fails, or a ball that is thrown toward the BATTER within the correct area, but is not hit striker /'straɪkə/ n. [C] someone who is not working because s/he is on STRIKE striking /'straɪkɪŋ/ adj. 1 unusual or interesting enough to be noticed: a striking similarity/difference between the two girls

THESAURUS noticeable, clear, obvious, eye-catching, evident, conspicuous → NOTICEABLE

2 very attractive, often in an unusual way: a man with a striking face

string¹ /strɪŋ/ n. 1 [C,U] a strong thread made of several threads twisted together, used for tying things: We tied a string around the box. | a short piece of string 2 [C] a number of similar things or events that happen one after the other: a string of arrests for drug offenses 3 (no) strings attached having no special conditions or limits on an agreement, relationship, etc., or having conditions or limits: They lent him the money with no strings attached. 4 first/second/third string relating to or being a member of a team or group with the highest, second highest, etc. level of skill:

S

the second string quarterback 5 a string of pearls/beads etc. a lot of PEARLS, BEADS, etc. on a string 6 [C] one of the long thin pieces of wire that is stretched across a musical instrument to produce sound 7 the strings ENG. LANG. ARTS the people in an ORCHESTRA who play instruments such as the VIOLIN, CELLO, etc. → control/hold the purse strings at PURSE¹, pull strings at PULL¹, pull the strings at PULL¹ string² v. (past tense and past participle strung /strʌŋ/) [T] 1 to put things together onto a string, chain, etc.: Girls were stringing beads to make necklaces. 2 to hang a wire or string in the air, or hang things on a wire or string, especially for decoration: a clothesline strung between two posts string sb along phr. v. (informal) to continue to promise to do something that you do not intend to do, especially in relationships: Jerry's been stringing her along for years.

string sth ↔ together phr. v. to combine things in order to make something: words strung together into sentences

string 'bean n. [C] a GREEN BEAN string-gent /'strɪndʒənt/ adj. stringent rules, laws, etc. strictly control something

S

THESAURUS strict, tough, rigorous, draconian → STRICT string-y /'strɪŋi/ adj. 1 food that is stringy has long thin pieces in it that are difficult to eat 2 stringy hair looks like string because it is dirty

strip¹ /stri:p/ v. (stripped, stripping) also strip off 1 [I,T] to take off your clothes, or take off someone else's clothes: He stripped and got into the shower. | I stripped off her snowsuit. 2 [T] to remove something that is covering the surface of something else: Strip off the old wallpaper.

strip sb of sth phr. v. to take away something important from someone such as his/her possessions, rank, or property: The doctor was found guilty and stripped of his medical license.

strip² n. [C] 1 a long narrow piece of cloth, paper, etc.: Tear the paper into one-inch strips. 2 a long narrow area of land: a strip of sand stripe /straɪp/ n. [C] a long narrow line of color (SYN) band: a shirt with blue and red stripes striped /straɪpt, 'straɪpɪd/ adj. having a pattern of stripes: a blue and white striped shirt

'strip mall n. [C] a row of small stores built together, with an area for parking cars in front of it strip-per /'stri:pə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to perform by taking off his/her clothes in a sexually exciting way strip-tease /'striptɪz/ n. [C,U] the dance that a stripper does strive /straɪv/ v. (past tense strove /stroʊv/ or strived, past participle striven /'strɪvən/ or strived, present participle striving) [I] (formal) to try very hard to get or do something: teachers who are striving to meet the needs of their students strode /stroʊd/ v. the past tense of STRIDE

stroke¹ /stroʊk/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a sudden illness in which an ARTERY (=tube carrying blood) in your brain bursts or becomes blocked: Since Tom had a stroke he's had trouble talking. 2 a repeated movement of your arms in a sport such as swimming, or a particular style of swimming or rowing: the back stroke 3 an action done to achieve something: The change is a bold stroke on the mayor's part. | Getting those two to work together was a stroke of genius. | He managed to improve his election chances at a stroke (=with one sudden action). 4 a stroke of (good) luck/fortune something lucky that happens to you, that you did not expect 5 a single movement of a pen or brush, or a line made by doing this: *With a stroke of the pen, the deal was finalized.

stroke² v. [T] to move your hand gently over something: She stroked the baby's face. → see picture on page A8

THESAURUS touch, feel, rub, pet, caress → TOUCH¹

stroll /stroʊl/ v. [I] to walk in a slow relaxed way: We strolled along the beach. —stroll n. [C]: We went for a stroll after dinner.

THESAURUS walk, amble, trudge → WALK¹ stroll-er /'stroʊlə/ n. [C] a chair on wheels in which a small child sits and is pushed along: a baby stroller strong /strɒŋ/ adj.

1 PHYSICAL having a lot of physical power: He was small but strong. | the strongest muscles in your body

2 NOT EASILY BROKEN not easily broken or damaged: a strong rope | The door was solid and strong.

3 POWER having a lot of power, influence, or ability: a strong leader | a strong army

THESAURUS powerful, influential → POWERFUL

4 LIGHT a strong light is very bright

THESAURUS bright, brilliant, dazzling → BRIGHT

5 FEELINGS strong feelings, ideas, etc. are ones that are very important to you: a strong interest in art | a strong sense of duty

6 ARGUMENT a strong reason, opinion, etc. is one that is likely to persuade other people: There's strong evidence to suggest that he's innocent.

7 ABLE TO DEAL WITH DIFFICULTY determined and able to deal with problems without becoming upset or worried by them: Do you think she's strong enough to handle this? | a strong character

8 SKILLFUL good at something: a strong team | Jarvis's performance was very strong.

9 LIKELY likely to succeed or happen: He has a strong chance of winning in Florida.

10 EFFECT having a large effect or influence: a strong desire | He made a strong impression on me.

11 TASTE/SMELL having a taste, smell, color, etc. that is easy to notice: strong coffee

12 RELATIONSHIP a strong relationship or friendship is likely to last a long time: a strong bond between the two brothers

13 50/1,000/75,000 etc. strong used in order to give the number of people in a group: Our staff is over a thousand strong. [ORIGIN: Old English strang] strong 'acid n. [C] CHEMISTRY an acid that completely separates into IONS (=atoms with an electric charge) when it is mixed with water strong 'base n. [C] CHEMISTRY a BASE (=a chemical substance that combines with an acid to form a salt) that separates completely into HYDROXIDE IONS and metal ions when it is mixed with water strong e'lectrolyte n. [C] CHEMISTRY a liquid that allows electricity to travel through it effectively because it contains a lot of IONS (=atoms with an electric charge) strong-hold /'strɒŋhəʊld/ n. [C] 1 an area where there is a lot of support for a particular attitude, way of life, political party, etc.: a Republican stronghold 2 an area that is strongly defended: a rebel stronghold

strong-ly /'strɒŋli/ adv. 1 if you feel or believe something strongly, you are very sure and serious about it: I feel strongly that medical records should be private. | She is strongly opposed to abortion. 2 in a way that persuades someone to do something: I strongly urge/advise/encourage you to get more facts before deciding. 3 in a way that is easy to notice: The house smelled strongly of gas.

strong-willed adj. having a lot of determination to do what you want (SYN stubborn: a strong-willed child) stron-ti-um /'strɒntiəm, -ʃiəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Sr) a soft metal that is an ELEMENT strove /stroʊv/ v. a past tense of STRIVE struck /strʌk/ v. the past tense and past participle of STRIKE

struc-tur-al /'strʌktʃərəl/ (Ac) adj. relating to the structure of something: structural damage to the aircraft

struc-ture¹ /'strʌktʃə/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] the way in which the parts of something connect with each other to form a whole, or the thing that these parts make up: the chemical structure of the molecule | Paragraphs provide a structure for your writing. 2 [C,U] the way in which relationships between people or groups are organized in a society or in an organization: Children need a stable family structure to feel secure. | the city's political/social structure 3 [C] something that has been built: a huge steel structure

structure² (Ac) v. [T] to arrange something carefully in an organized way: Structure your essay so that your opinions are supported by evidence. —structured adj.: a loosely/carefully/highly structured novel strug-gle¹ /'strʌgəl/ v. [I] 1 to try very hard to do or achieve something, even though it is difficult: We're struggling to pay the bills. 2 to fight someone who is attacking you or holding you: She struggled with him, pushing him away. 3 to move somewhere with a lot of difficulty: He struggled up the stairs with the luggage.

struggle² n. [C] 1 a long hard fight for freedom, political rights, etc.: a struggle for equality | a power struggle

THESAURUS fight, battle, campaign → FIGHT²

2 a fight or argument between two people for something: a long struggle with Congress over the budget strum /strʌm/ v. (strummed, strumming) [I,T] to play an instrument such as a GUITAR by moving your fingers across the strings strung /strʌŋ/ v. the past tense and past participle of STRING strut¹ /strʌt/ v. (strutted, strutting) [I] 1 to walk in a proud way with your head up and your chest pushed forward: boys strutting down the street 2 strut your stuff (informal) to show proudly what you can do, especially in a performance strut² n. [C] a long thin piece of metal or wood used for supporting a part of a bridge, the wing of an aircraft, etc.

stub¹ /stʌb/ n. [C] 1 the short part of something that is left after the rest has been used: a pencil stub 2 the part of a ticket that is returned to you as proof that you have paid: a ticket stub stub² v. (stubbed, stubbing) [T] stub your toe to hurt your toe by hitting it against something stub sth ↔ out phr. v. to stop a cigarette from burning by pressing the end of it against something stub-ble /'stʌbəl/ n. [U] the very short stiff hairs on a man's face when he has not SHAVED —stubbly adj. → see picture at CLEAN-SHAVEN

stub-born /'stʌbən/ adj. determined not to change your opinions, beliefs, etc., because you believe you are right: a stubborn woman | his stubborn refusal to cooperate stub-by /'stʌbi/ adj. short and thick or fat: his stubby fingers stuc-co /'stʌkou/ n. [U] a CEMENT mixture used especially for covering the outside walls of houses stuck¹ /stʌk/ v. the past tense and past participle of STICK stuck² adj. 1 not able to move: I tried to open the window, but it was stuck. | We got stuck in traffic. 2 not able to continue working on something because it is too difficult: Can you help me with this? I'm stuck. 3 not able to get away from a boring or unpleasant situation: I'm stuck at home all day with the kids.

stuck-up adj. (informal) proud and unfriendly because you think you are better than other people

THESAURUS proud, conceited, big-headed, vain, arrogant, egotistical, haughty → PROUD

stud /stʌd/ n. 1 [C,U] BIOLOGY an animal, such as a horse, that is kept for breeding, or the use of animals for breeding: a stud farm | The racehorse was retired to stud after a training injury. 2 [C] a small round EARRING 3 [C] (slang) a man who is very active sexually 4 [C] a small round piece of metal that is put on a surface for decoration: a leather jacket with silver studs

stud-ded /'stʌdɪd/ adj. decorated with a lot of studs or jewels: a bracelet studded with diamonds → STAR-STUDED

stu-dent /'studnt/ n. [C] 1 someone who is studying at a school, university, etc.: She has 30 students in her class. | Sally's an A/B/C student (=she earns A's, etc.). | a first-year law/medical student a business/biology/English etc. major – someone studying a particular subject as his or her main subject at a college or university: Greg is a philosophy major.

THESAURUS

freshman – a student in the first year of high school or college: My brother is a freshman at the University of Wisconsin.

sophomore – a student in the second year of high school or college junior – a student in the third year of high school or college senior – a student in the last year of high school or college graduate – someone who has successfully completed his/her studies at a school, college, or university: a graduate of Ohio State University undergraduate – a student in the first four years of college, who is working for his/her first degree graduate student – someone who is studying after completing an advanced degree such as a Ph.D. or an M.A.

alumni – former students of a school, college, or university: the Ithaca College Alumni Association

2 a student of sth someone who is very interested in a particular subject: He's obviously an excellent student of human nature.

student 'body n. [C] all the students in a school, university, etc.

stud-ied /'stʌdɪd/ adj. studied behavior is deliberate and intended to have a particular effect on other people: She spoke with a studied politeness.

stu-di-o /'stʊdi,ou/ n. (plural studios) [C] 1 a room where television and radio programs are made and broadcast, or where music is recorded: a recording studio in Nashville | a studio audience 2 a movie company or the place where movies are made: the big Hollywood studios 3 a room where a painter or photographer works: an art studio 4 also studio apartment a small apartment with one main room stu-di-ous /'stʊdiəs/ adj. spending a lot of time reading and studying stud-y¹ /'stʌdi/ n. (plural studies) 1 [C] a piece of work that is done to find out more about a particular subject or problem, and that is usually written in a report: Several studies showed the drug can cause birth defects. | a study on/of 100 patients

THESAURUS research, experiment → RESEARCH¹

2 [U] the process of learning about a subject: the study of ancient history | ways to improve your study skills/habits 3 [C] a room in a house that is used for work or study 4 studies [plural] the work you do in order to learn about something: She began graduate studies at Berkeley. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French estudie, from Latin studium “mental effort, eagerness, study”]

study² v. (studied, studies) 1 [I,T] to spend time going to classes, reading, etc. to learn about a subject: I need to study for a midterm. | She studied at Harvard. | I'm studying English/psychology/medicine etc.

THESAURUS learn, pick sth up, get the hang of sth, acquire → LEARN

2 [T] to examine something carefully to find out more about it: An accounting firm is studying the problem. | Dr. Brock is studying how the disease affects children.

stuff¹ /stʌf/ n. [U] (informal) 1 a substance or material of any kind: What's this sticky stuff on the floor? 2 a number of different things: She brought me some books and stuff (=other things). | People still want decent housing, good health care and a bunch of other stuff. 3 sb's stuff things that belong to someone: You can put your stuff over here for now. | I've got to pack my stuff.

THESAURUS property, possessions, things, belongings, effects → PROPERTY

4 all the activities that someone does: I have a lot of stuff to do. | He likes biking and skateboarding and stuff like that. 5 different subjects, information, or ideas: a magazine with a lot of interesting stuff in it [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French estoffer, from estoffer “to provide with things needed”]

stuff² v. [T] 1 to push things into a small space quickly: He stuffed some clothes into a bag and left. 2 to fill something until it is full: a pillow stuffed with feathers | Campaign workers stuffed envelopes. 3 to fill a chicken, vegetable, etc. with a mixture of bread, rice, etc. before cooking it 4 to fill the skin of a dead animal in order to make the animal look alive stuffed /stʌft/ adj. 1 [not before noun] (informal) completely full, so that you cannot eat any more: The cake looks great, but I'm stuffed. 2 stuffed animal/toy/bear etc. a toy animal covered and filled with soft material stuffed-up adj. (informal) unable to breathe because you have a cold stuff-ing /ˈstʌfɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 a mixture of bread, rice, etc. that you put inside a chicken, vegetable, etc. before cooking it 2 material that is used for filling something such as a PILLOW stuff-y /ˈstʌfi/ adj. 1 not having enough fresh air: The room was hot and stuffy. 2 boring, formal, and old-fashioned: stuffy lawyers stum-ble /ˈstʌmbəl/ v. [I] 1 to almost fall down while you are walking: Scott stumbled over/on the step.

THESAURUS fall, trip, slip, lose your balance → FALL¹

2 to stop or make a mistake when you are reading or speaking to people: He stumbled over the words as he read his speech.

stumble on/across/upon sth phr. v. to discover something or meet someone by chance: Hubbard stumbled across the notebooks in a yard sale.

'stumbling block n. [C] a problem that prevents you from achieving something: the main stumbling block to passage of the new law

stump¹ /stʌmp/ n. 1 [C] the part of a tree that remains in the ground after the rest has been cut down 2 [C] the part of an arm, leg, etc. that remains when the rest has been cut off 3 [singular] POLITICS a place or occasion when a politician makes a speech to try to gain political support: On the stump, he talked a lot about health care.

stump² v. [T] if you are stumped by a question or problem, you are unable to find an answer to it: It's a question that has stumped everyone. | I was completely stumped.

stun /stʌn/ v. (stunned, stunning) [T] 1 to surprise or shock someone so much that s/he does not react: There was a stunned silence. 2 to make someone unconscious for a short time by hitting him/her on the head stung /stʌŋ/ v. the past tense and past participle of STING stunk /stʌŋk/ v. a past tense and the past participle of STINK¹ stun-ning /ˈstʌnɪŋ/ adj. 1 extremely attractive or beautiful: You look stunning in that dress.

THESAURUS attractive, good-looking, nice-looking, pretty, beautiful, gorgeous → ATTRACTIVE

2 very surprising or shocking: stunning news

THESAURUS surprising, shocking, astonishing, astounding, staggering → SURPRISING stunt¹ /stʌnt/ n. [C] 1 something that is done to attract people's attention: a publicity stunt 2 a dangerous action that is done to entertain people, usually in a movie 3 pull a stunt to do something that is silly or that is slightly dangerous: Don't ever pull a stunt like that again!

stunt² v. [T] to stop someone or something from growing or developing correctly: Lack of food has stunted their growth.

S

'stunt man also stunt-man n. [C] a man or woman whose job is to take the place of an actor when something dangerous has to be done in a movie

stu-pe-fied /ˈstupəˌfaɪd/ adj. unable to act or think clearly, especially because you are bored, surprised, or shocked —stupefy v. [T]: We sat stupefied in front of the TV. —stupefaction /ˌstupəˈfækʃən/ n. [U]

stu-pe-fy-ing /ˈstupəˌfaɪ-ɪŋ/ adj. making you feel extremely surprised or bored stu-pen-dous /stuˈpendəs/ adj. extremely large or impressive: a stupendous achievement

stu-pid /ˈstʊpɪd/ adj. 1 showing bad judgment or a lack of intelligence: How could you be so stupid? | a stupid question | It was stupid of me to listen to him. 2 (spoken) used when talking about something or someone that annoys you: I can't get this stupid door open! [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French stupide, from Latin stupidus, from stupere “to surprise extremely, stun”] —stupidity /ˈstʊpɪdəti/ n. [C,U]

stu-por /ˈstupɔː/ n. [C,U] a state in which you cannot think, see, etc. clearly: We found him in a drunken stupor.

stur-dy /ˈstɜːdi/ adj. (comparative sturdier, superlative sturdiest) strong and not likely to break or be hurt: sturdy walking shoes

stut-ter /ˈstʌtə/ v. [I,T] to speak with difficulty because you repeat the first sound of a word → STAMMER —stutter n. [singular]

style¹ /staɪl/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a way of doing, making, painting, etc. something that is typical of a particular period of time, place, or group of people: He's trying to copy Van Gogh's style of painting. | architecture in the Gothic style 2 [C] the particular way that someone behaves, works, or deals with other people: Carolyn has an informal style of teaching. | Yelling at her students is not her style (=is not the way she usually behaves). | I don't like loud parties – a quiet night at home is more my style (=I prefer quiet nights at home). 3 [C,U] a particular design or fashion for something such as clothes, hair, furniture, etc.: They have over two hundred styles of wallpaper to choose from. | *Long hair is in style/out of style (=fashionable or not fashionable). 4 [U] the particular way you do things that makes people admire you: You may not like him, but you have to admit that he has style. | *an actor with style 5 [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a particular set of rules for using words, FORMATTING documents, spelling, etc.: It's not considered good style to use abbreviations in essays. 6 [C] BIOLOGY the long thin part of the female structure in a flower, that is between the OVARY and the STIGMA → *see picture at FLOWER*¹ [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Latin stilus “pointed stick, stylus, style of writing”]

S

style² v. [T] to cut someone's hair in a particular way

styl-ish /'staɪlɪʃ/ (Ac) adj. attractive in a fashionable way: a very stylish woman | stylish clothes

THE SAURUS

fashionable, trendy →

FASHIONABLE

sty-lis-tic /staɪ'lɪstɪk/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to the style of a piece of writing or art: I've made a few stylistic changes to your report.

sty-lis-tics /staɪ'lɪstɪks/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the study of style in written or spoken language styl-ized /'staɪəlaɪzd/ (Ac) adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS designed, written, or drawn in an artificial style that is not natural or like real life: A stylized ocean wave is typical of Greek decoration.

sty-mie /'staɪmi/ v. [T] (informal) to prevent someone from doing what s/he has planned or wants to do: The police investigation has been stymied by a lack of witnesses.

suave /swəv/ adj. attractive, confident, and relaxed, but often in a way that is not sincere sub /sʌb/ n. [C] 1 (informal) a SUBMARINE 2 (informal) a SUBSTITUTE 3 a SANDWICH made out of a long LOAF of bread filled with meat, cheese, etc.

sub-a-tom-ic /sʌbə'tamɪk/ adj. PHYSICS smaller than an atom or existing inside an atom: subatomic particles sub-com-mit-tee /'sʌbkə'mɪti/ n. [C] a small group formed from a committee to deal with a particular subject in more detail sub-con-scious /sʌb'kənʃəs/ adj. subconscious thoughts and feelings are in your mind and affect your behavior, but you do not know that they exist — subconsciously adv.

sub-con-ti-nent /sʌb'kəntɪ'nənt, -tənənt/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a large area of land that forms part of a CONTINENT sub-cul-ture /'sʌb,kʌltʃə/ n. [C] a particular group of people in a society whose behavior, beliefs, activities, etc. make them different from the rest of the society: the drug subculture sub-di-vid-e /sʌbdə'vaɪd, 'sʌbdə'vaɪd/ v. [T] to divide into smaller parts something that is already divided sub-di-vi-sion /'sʌbdə,vɪʒən/ n. [C] an area of land for building a number of houses on, or these houses once they are built sub-due /səb'du/ v. [T] to control someone, especially by using force: The nurses were trying to subdue a violent patient. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French soduire “to lead into bad actions,” from Latin subducere “to remove;” influenced by Latin subdere “to force to obey”] sub-dued /səb'dud/ adj. 1 a person or sound that is subdued is unusually quiet: Jason looked subdued after talking to the principal. 2 subdued colors, lights, etc. are less bright than usual sub-ject¹ /'sʌbdʒɪkt/ n. [C] 1 the thing you are talking about or considering in a conversation, discussion, book, movie, etc.: Bashkiroff is the subject of the book, “For Sasha, With Love.” | While we're on the subject of money, do you have the $10 you owe me? | Stop trying to change the subject (=talk about something else)! | A member of the audience raised the subject (=started talking about it) of the president's age.

THE SAURUS

topic – a subject that people talk or write about: The course covers topics such as interview techniques and giving presentations.

theme – an important idea that appears several times in a book, movie, talk, etc.: Man's relationship with nature is a common theme in his work.

issue – an important subject or problem: Dealing with climate change is one of the biggest issues facing the world today.

matter – used when talking in a general way about a subject: I have little experience in these matters. | This is a serious matter → *see also ABOUT*¹

2 something that you study at a school or university: “What's your favorite subject?” “Science.” → UNIVERSITY 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a noun, noun phrase, or PRONOUN that usually comes before the verb in a sentence, and represents the person or thing that does the action of the verb. In the sentence “Jean loves her cats,” “Jean” is the subject. → OBJECT 4 subject matter the subject that is being discussed in a book, shown in a movie or play, etc. 5 SCIENCE a person or animal that is used in a test or EXPERIMENT: All the subjects were men between the ages of 18 and 25. 6 ENG. LANG. ARTS the thing or person that is shown in a painting or photograph: Degas frequently used dancers as his subjects. 7 POLITICS someone who was born in a country that has a king or queen, or someone who has the legal right to live there: He's a British subject. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin subjectus, from subicere “to put under your control”] subject² adj. be subject to sth a) to be likely to be affected by something: All prices are subject to change. b) to be dependent on something: The deal is subject to approval by the bank. c) if you are subject to a law, you must obey it: Congress is subject to the same laws as everyone else.

sub-ject³ /səb'dʒekt/ v.

subject sb/sth to sth phr. v. (formal) to force someone or something to experience something very bad, upsetting, or difficult: Police subjected him to hours of questioning.

sub-jec-tive /səb'dʒektɪv/ adj. a statement, attitude, etc. that is subjective is influenced by personal opinion or feelings rather than facts (ANT) objective sub-ju-gate /ˈsʌbdʒəˌgeɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to force a person or group to obey you —subjugation /ˌsʌbdʒəˌgeɪʃən/ n. [U] sub-junc-tive /səb'dʒʌŋktɪv/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a verb form used in order to express doubt, wishes, or possibility. For example, in “If I were you,” the verb “to be” is in the subjunctive.

sub-let /sʌbˈlet/, ˈsʌblet/ v. (past tense and past participle sublet, present participle subletting) [I,T] to rent to someone else a property that you rent from its owner: I'm subletting the room for the summer. —sublet /ˈsʌblet/ n. [C] sub-li-ma-tion /ˌsʌbləˈmeɪʃən/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY the process in which a solid substance changes into a gas, without ever becoming a liquid sub-lime /səˈblaɪm/ adj. excellent in a way that makes you feel very happy [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin sublimis “raised above the ordinary,” from limen “doorstep, threshold”] sub-lim-i-nal /sʌbˈlɪmənəl/ adj. subliminal messages, suggestions, etc. affect the way you think without you noticing it sub-ma-rine /ˈsʌbməˌrɪn, ˌsʌbməˈrɪn/ n. [C] a ship that can stay under water [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 sub- “under” + marine from Latin marinus, from mare “the sea”] sub-merge /səbˈmɜːdʒ/ v. [I,T] to go or put something under the surface of water: Many cars were submerged by the flood. —submerged adj.: partially submerged houses —submersion /səbˈmɜːʒən/ n. [U]

THESAURUS dive, plunge, sink → DIVE¹

sub-mis-sion /səbˈmɪʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] the state of being controlled by a powerful person or organization and accepting that you must obey him, her, or it: The prisoners were starved into submission. | his submission to what God wanted him to do 2 [C,U] the act of giving a piece of writing to someone so s/he can consider or approve it, or the piece of writing itself: All submissions must be received by the 15th of March.

sub-mis-sive /səbˈmɪsɪv/ adj. always willing to obey someone and never disagreeing with him/her: a submissive wife sub-mit /səbˈmɪt/ (Ac) v. (submitted, submitting) 1 [T] to give a plan, piece of writing, etc. to someone in authority so that s/he can consider or approve it: I submitted my plan to the committee yesterday. 2 [I] (formal) to obey someone who has power over you, especially because you have no choice: They refused to submit to the kidnapper's demands.

THESAURUS surrender, give in, concede, yield → SURRENDER sub-or-di-nate¹ /səˈbɔːdnət/ (Ac) n. [C] (formal) someone who has a lower position or less authority than someone else: a manager who has a good relationship with her subordinates subordinate² adj. (formal) less important than something else, or lower in rank or authority: a subordinate position sub-or-di-nate³ /səˈbɔːdn,eɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] to put someone or something in a less important job or position: Mothers were expected to subordinate their lives to their children's lives. —subordination /səˈbɔːdn'eɪʃən/ n. [U] subordinate 'clause n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a DEPENDENT CLAUSE sub-orn /səˈbɔːrn/ v. [T] LAW to persuade someone to tell lies in a court of law, or to persuade someone to do something else that is illegal, especially for money —subornation /ˌsʌbɔːˈneɪʃən/ n. [U] sub-plot /ˈsʌbplɒt/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a PLOT (=set of events) that is less important than and separate from the main plot in a story, play, etc.

sub-poe-na /səˈpɪnə/ n. [C] LAW a legal document ordering someone to come to a court of law and be a WITNESS [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin sub poena “under punishment” (the first words of the written order)] —subpoena v. [T]

sub-scribe /səbˈskraɪb/ v. [I] to pay money regularly to have a newspaper or magazine sent to you, or for a particular service: What magazines do you subscribe to? | households that subscribe to cable TV —subscriber n. [C] subscribe to sth phr. v. to agree with or support an idea, opinion, etc.: They obviously don't subscribe to his theory.

sub-scrip-tion /səbˈskrɪpʃən/ n. [C] an amount of money that you pay regularly to have copies of a newspaper or magazine sent to you, or to receive a particular service sub-se-quent /ˈsʌbsəkʁwənt/ [Ac] adj. [only before noun] (formal) coming after or following something else: Subsequent investigations did not uncover any new evidence. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, present participle of subsequi “to follow closely,” from sequi “to follow”] —subsequently adv.: The charges against him were subsequently dropped.

THESAURUS next, following, succeeding, later → NEXT¹ sub-ser-vi-ent /səbˈsɜːviənt/ adj. (disapproving) too willing to do what other people want you to do —subsistence n. [U]

sub-side /səbˈsaɪd/ v. [I] to become less strong or loud: The storm subsided around dawn.

sub-sid-i-ar-y /səbˈsɪdiəri/ [Ac] n. (plural subsidiaries) [C] ECONOMICS a company that is owned or controlled by another larger company: a subsidiary of General Electric

THESAURUS company, firm, business, corporation → COMPANY

subsidiary² adj. related to, but less important than, something else: He played a subsidiary role in the negotiations.

sub-si-dize /ˈsʌbsədaɪz/ [Ac] v. [T] ECONOMICS to pay part of the cost of something: housing that is subsidized by the government —subsidized adj.: subsidized health care sub-si-dy /ˈsʌbsədi/ [Ac] n. (plural subsidies) [C] ECONOMICS money that is paid by a government or organization in order to reduce the cost of something: government subsidies for small farmers [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin subsidium “soldiers kept in reserve, support, help,” from sub- “near” + sedere “to sit”] sub-sist /səbˈsɪst/ v. [I] to stay alive when you only have small amounts of food or money: The prisoners subsisted on rice and water.

—subsistence n. [U]: subsistence farming

sub,sistence 'agriculture also sub,sistence 'farming n. [U] ECONOMICS farming in which someone only produces enough food to feed his/her own family, often because the land is too poor to produce a lot of crops sub,sistence e'conomy n. [C] ECONOMICS a TRADITIONAL ECONOMY

sub-stance /ˈsʌbstəns/ n. 1 [C] a type of solid, liquid, or gas that has particular qualities: The bag was covered with a sticky substance. | a poisonous/hazardous/toxic substance | illegal substances (=drugs) 2 [singular, U] the most important ideas in a document, speech, report, etc.: The news report said little about the substance of the peace talks. 3 [U] (formal) if something has substance, it is true: There's no substance to his arguments.

[ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin substantia, from substare “to stand under”]

'substance a,buse n. [U] the habit of taking too many illegal drugs so that you are harmed by them sub-stand-ard /ˌsʌbˈstændəd/ adj. not as good as the average, and not acceptable: substandard health care

sub-stan-tial /səbˈstænfəl/ adj. 1 large in amount or number: She earns a substantial income. | substantial evidence

THESAURUS big, large, sizable, prodigious, huge, enormous, vast, gigantic, massive, immense, colossal → BIG

2 large and strongly made: a substantial piece of furniture sub-stan-tial-ly /səbˈstænfəli/ adv. very much: Prices have increased substantially.

sub-stan-ti-ate /səbˈstænfɪeɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to prove the truth of something that someone has said: The evidence failed to substantiate his claims.

THESAURUS demonstrate, show, prove, establish → DEMONSTRATE sub-sti-tute¹ /ˈsʌbstəˌtut/ [Ac] n. [C] 1 someone who does someone else's job for a limited period of time: a substitute teacher 2 something new or different that you use or do instead of what you used or did before: a sugar substitute | There is no substitute for (=nothing better than) a good diet.

substitute² [Ac] v. 1 [T] to use something new or different instead of something else: You can substitute margarine for butter in this recipe. 2 [I,T] to do someone's job for a short time until s/he is able to do it again —substitution /ˌsʌbstəˈtuʃən/ n. [C,U]

sub-ter-fuge /ˈsʌbtəˌfyudʒ/ n. [C,U] (formal) a trick or dishonest way of doing something, or the use of this sub-ter-ra-ne-an /ˌsʌbtəˈreɪniən/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES under the surface of the Earth: a subterranean lake [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin subterraneus, from sub- “under” + terra “earth”] sub-text /ˈsʌbtekst/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a hidden or second meaning in something that someone says or writes sub-ti-tles /ˈsʌbˌtaɪtlz/ n. [plural] words that translate what the actors in a foreign movie are saying, that appear on the bottom of the screen —subtitled adj.

sub-tle /ˈsʌtl/ adj. 1 not easily noticed unless you pay careful attention: She noticed some subtle changes in his personality. 2 subtle smells, colors, etc. are pleasant because they are not too strong: the subtle scent of mint in the air 3 behaving in a skillful and intelligent way, especially in order to hide what you are trying to do: I think we need a more subtle approach. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old sub-tle-ty /ˈsʌtlti/ n. (plural subtleties) 1 [U] the quality that something has when it has been done in an intelligent or skillful way: the subtlety of the wine's flavor 2 [C usually plural] something that is important but difficult to notice: The subtleties of the story do not translate well into other languages.

French soutil, from Latin subtilis “finely woven, subtle”] —subtly /ˈsʌtli-/, ˈsʌtli/ adv.

sub-tract /səbˈtrækt/ v. [T] MATH to take a number or amount from something larger: If you subtract 15 from 25 you get 10. → CALCULATE sub-trac-tion /səbˈtrækʃən/ n. [U] MATH the process of taking a number or amount from a larger number or amount → ADDITION, DIVISION, MULTIPLICATION

sub-urb /ˈsʌbərb/ n. [C] an area away from the center of a city, where a lot of people live: We moved to the suburbs last year. | a suburb of Chicago [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin suburbium, from urbs “city”]

THESAURUS area, district, neighborhood, slum, ghetto → AREA

sub-ur-ban /səbˈurbən/ adj. relating to a suburb, or in a suburb: suburban life | suburban Miami (=the suburbs around Miami)

sub-ur-bi-a /səbˈurbɪə/ n. [U] all suburbs in general: life in suburbia sub-ver-sive /səbˈvərsɪv/ adj. intending to destroy or damage a government, society, religion, etc.: subversive activities sub-vert /səbˈvɜrt/ v. [T] POLITICS to try to destroy the power or influence of a government, belief, etc.

sub-way /ˈsʌbweɪ/ n. (plural subways) [C] a railroad that runs under the ground in cities: a subway station | We took the subway home. → see picture at TRANSPORTATION

suc-ceed /səkˈsid/ v. 1 [I] to do what you have tried to do, or to do well in something such as your job (ANT fail): She gave herself five years to succeed as a writer. | Finally, I succeeded in convincing Anna that I was right. | skills that help students succeed in the classroom 2 [I] to have the result or effect that something is intended to have (ANT fail): Our advertising campaign succeeded in attracting more customers. 3 [I,T] to be the next person to take a position or do a job after someone else: Mr. Harvey will succeed Mrs. Lincoln as chairman.

suc-ceed-ing /səkˈsɪdɪŋ/ adj. coming after something else: Sales improved in succeeding years.

THESAURUS next, following, subsequent, later, ensuing → NEXT¹

suc-cess /səkˈses/ n. 1 [C,U] something that has the result or effect that you intended, or the act of achieving this (ANT failure): We had no/some success in developing a better engine. | Jackie's wedding was a big/huge/great success. | Eventually she was able to make a success of the business. | Business leaders demanded, without success, that the government build new roads. 2 [C] someone who does very well in his/her job, classes, in society, etc. (ANT failure): He was not much of a success as a comedian.

suc-cess-ful /səkˈsesfəl/ adj. 1 having the result or effect you intended (ANT unsuccessful): The surgery was completely successful. 2 making or earning a lot of money: a successful businessman | a successful movie —successfully adv.

suc-ces-sion /səkˈseʃən/ (AC) n. 1 in succession happening one after the other: The team has won four championships in succession. 2 a succession of sth a number of people or things that happen or follow one after another: She's had a succession of rich husbands. 3 [U] the act of taking over an important job, position, etc., or the right to do this suc-ces-sive /səkˈsesɪv/ (AC) adj. coming or following one after the other: Babe Ruth hit three successive home runs in one game. —successively adv.

suc-ces-sor /səkˈsesə/ (AC) n. [C] 1 someone who takes a job or position that was held before by someone else: No one was certain who Mao's successor would be. 2 (formal) a machine, system, etc. that exists after another one in a process of development: The refrigerator was the successor to the ice box.

suc-cinct /səkˈsɪŋkt, səˈsɪŋkt/ adj. clearly expressed in a few words [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, past participle of succingere “to tuck up,” from sub- “under, close to” + cingere “to put a belt around”] —succinctly adv.

THESAURUS short, brief, concise → SHORT¹

suc-cu-lent /ˈsʌkyələnt/ adj. juicy and tasting very good: a succulent steak —succulence n. [U]

suc-cumb /səˈkʌm/ v. [I] (formal) 1 to stop opposing someone or something, and allow him, her, or it to take control: Eventually, she succumbed to his charms. 2 to become very sick or die from an illness [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French succomber, from Latin succumbere, from sub- “under, close to” + cumbere “to lie down”] such /sʌtʃ/ determiner, pron. 1 used in order to talk about a person or thing that is like the one that you have just mentioned: Such behavior is not acceptable here. | “Did you get the job?” “No such luck (=I wasn't lucky).” 2 such as used when giving an example of something: big cities such as New York, Tokyo, and London 3 used in order to emphasize an amount or degree: We had such fun at your party! | Mandy's such a nice person. | I was in such a hurry that I forgot my purse. 4 there's no such person/thing as sb/sth used in order to say that a particular person or thing does not exist: There's no such thing as a perfect job. 5 not (...)

S

as such used to say that the word you are using to describe something is not exactly correct: She's not retired as such, she's just taking a long break.

GRAMMAR

such, so

Use such and so to emphasize a quality that someone or something has.

Use so before an adjective or an adverb: I'm so glad! | It's so good to see you! | We know each other so well.

Use such before a noun, or before an adjective and noun: It was such a long way! | He's such a good cook! | She has such beautiful eyes!

'such-and-such determiner (spoken) used instead of the name of something: They will ask you to come on such-and-such a day, at such-and-such a time.

suck /sʌk/ v. 1 [I,T] to hold something in your mouth and pull on it with your tongue and lips: Don't suck your thumb, Katie. | Ben was sucking on a piece of candy. 2 [I,T] to take air, liquid, etc. into your mouth by making your lips form a small hole and using the muscles of your mouth to pull air, liquid, etc. in: Michael put the cigarette to his lips and sucked in the smoke. 3 [T] to pull someone or something with a lot of force to a particular place: A man almost got sucked under by the current. 4 get/be sucked into (doing) sth to become involved in something you do not want to be involved in: I'm not going to get sucked into an argument with you guys. 5 sth sucks (slang) used to say that something is bad, unfair, dishonest, etc.: That movie sucked. [ORIGIN: Old English sucan] suck up to sb phr. v. (spoken, disapproving) to say or do a lot of nice things in order to make someone like you or to get what you want: She's always sucking up to her boss.

suck-er /'sʌkə/ n. [C] 1 (informal) someone who is easily tricked: Ellen always was a sucker. 2 be a sucker for sth to like something so much that you cannot refuse it: I'm a sucker for old movies.

su-crose /'sʊkrouz/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY the most common form of sugar → FRUCTOSE, GLUCOSE, LACTOSE suc-tion /'sʌkʃən/ n. [U] the process of removing air or liquid from a container or space so that another substance can be pulled in, or so that two surfaces stick together

sud-den /'sʌdn/ adj. 1 done or happening quickly or in a way you did not expect: We've had a sudden change of plans. | Don't make any sudden moves around the animals. 2 all of a sudden suddenly: All of a sudden, the lights went out. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French sodain, from Latin subitaneus, from subitus “sudden”] —suddenness n. [U]

sud-den-ly /'sʌdnli/ adv. quickly and in a way you did not expect: She suddenly realized what she'd done. | Smith died suddenly of a heart attack.

suds /sʌdz/ n. [plural] the BUBBLES that form on top of water with soap in it —sudsy adj.

sue /su/ v. [I,T] LAW to make a legal claim against someone, especially for money, because s/he has harmed you in some way: She plans to sue the company for $1 million. | Aaron is being sued for fraud.

suede /sweɪd/ n. [U] soft leather with a slightly rough surface: a suede jacket [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French (gants de) Suède “Swedish (gloves)”]

suf-fer /'sʌfə/ v. 1 [I,T] to feel pain or the effects of a sickness: Neil suffered a heart attack last year. | Marnie suffers from headaches. 2 [I,T] to experience a situation and be badly affected by it: Small businesses are suffering financially right now. | The team suffered its worst defeat in ten years. 3 [I] to become worse in quality: Andy's work began to suffer after his divorce. —sufferer n. [C] —suffering n. [C,U]: The war has caused so much pain and suffering.

suf-fice /sə'faɪs/ v. [I] (formal) to be enough: A light lunch will suffice.

suf-fi-cient /sə'fɪʃənt/ adj. (formal) as much as you need for a particular purpose (AC) enough (ANT) insufficient: Will $100 be sufficient? | They had sufficient evidence to send him to prison. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin, present participle of sufficere “to put under, suffice”] —sufficiency n. [singular, U]: Is there a sufficiency of time to analyze the data?

THESAURUS

enough, plenty, ample, adequate → ENOUGH suf-fix /'sʌfɪks/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a letter or letters added to the end of a word in order to make a new word, such as “ness” at the end of “kindness” → AFFIX, PREFIX [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Modern Latin suffixum, from Latin suffigere “to fasten beneath”] suf-fo-cate /'sʌfə'keɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to die because there is not enough air to breathe, or to be killed in this way: One firefighter was suffocated by the smoke. 2 be suffocating (informal) to feel uncomfortable because there is not enough fresh air —suffocation /'sʌfə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] suf-frage /'sʌfrɪdʒ/ n. [U] POLITICS the right to vote suf-fra-gette /'sʌfrə'dʒet/ n. [C] POLITICS a woman who tried to gain the right to vote for women, especially in the early 20th century suf-fra-gist /'sʌfrədʒɪst/ n. [C] POLITICS someone who tries to gain the right to vote for particular groups of people, especially women or people above a certain age sug-ar /'fʊgə/ n. [U] a sweet white or brown substance that is obtained from plants and used for making food and drinks sweet: Do you take sugar in your coffee? [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French çucure, from Medieval Latin zuccarum, from

Arabic sukkar] —sugary adj.: sugary snacks sug-ared /ˈfʊgəd/ adj. covered in sugar: sugared almonds

sug-gest /səgˈdʒest, səˈdʒest/ v. [T] 1 to tell someone your ideas about what should be done: They suggested meeting for drinks first. | Don suggested (that) we go swimming. | Wilson suggested ways students can improve their study habits.

THESAURUS advise, recommend → ADVISE

2 to say or show that something may be true: The article suggested that Nachez might run for mayor. | Are you suggesting that I cheated? → DEMONSTRATE 3 to say that someone or something is suitable for a particular job or purpose (SYN) recommend: Gina Reed's name has been suggested for the job.

sug-ges-tion /səgˈdʒestʃən, səˈdʒes-/ n. 1 [C] an idea or plan that someone suggests, or the act of suggesting it: We've had some suggestions on good plays to see in New York. | Can I make a suggestion? | They accepted the suggestion that Todd go first. | My boss is always open to suggestions (=willing to listen to ideas). | I took the class at my adviser's suggestion.

THESAURUS advice, tip, recommendation → ADVISE

2 [singular,U] a possibility of something: The police said that there was no suggestion of murder.

sug-ges-tive /səgˈdʒestɪv, səˈdʒes-/ adj. 1 making you think of sex: a suggestive remark 2 similar to something: The smells from the jars were suggestive of an herb garden in summer.

su-i-ci-dal /ˌsuəˈsaɪdl/ adj. 1 wanting to kill yourself: suicidal thoughts 2 likely to result in death: a suicidal attack

su-i-cide /ˈsuəsaɪd/ n. 1 [C,U] the act of killing yourself: Her brother committed suicide last year. | Did she leave a suicide note (=a note or letter saying why she killed herself)? 2 political/social etc. suicide something you do that ruins your job or position in society [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin sui “of oneself” + English -cide, from Latin -caedere “to kill”] suit¹ /sut/ n. 1 [C] a set of clothes made of the same material, including a jacket with pants or a skirt: a dark gray business suit 2 [C] a piece of clothing or set of clothes used for a special purpose: a bathing suit 3 [C,U] LAW a LAWSUIT: A homeowner filed suit against the county and lost. 4 [C] one of the four types of cards in a set of playing cards suit² v. [T] 1 to be acceptable or right for a person or situation: It takes time to find a college that will suit your child's needs. 2 clothes, colors, etc. that suit you make you look attractive: Short hair suits you. 3 to have the right qualities to do something:

Lucy's well/ideally suited for the job. 4 suit yourself (spoken) used to tell someone that s/he can do whatever s/he wants to do, even though you are annoyed or upset: “I'm not sure I want to go tonight.” “Suit yourself.”

suit-able /ˈsuɪəbəl/ adj. right or acceptable for a particular person, purpose, or situation: This book isn't suitable for young children. —suitably adv. —suitability /ˌsuɪəˈbɪləti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS appropriate, right, suited →
APPROPRIATE¹

suit-case /ˈsuɪtkeɪs/ n. [C] a bag or box with a handle, for carrying your clothes and possessions when you travel: She folded up the clothes and packed (=put) them in the suitcase. → see picture at CASE suite /swiːt/ n. [C] 1 a set of expensive rooms in a hotel or large building: the honeymoon suite | a suite of offices in West Palm Beach 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a piece of music made up of several short parts: the Nutcracker Suite 3 IT a group of related computer programs suit-or /ˈsuɪtə/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a man who wants to marry a particular woman sul-fur /ˈsʌlfə/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a yellow strong-smelling chemical substance sulfur di'oxide n. [U] CHEMISTRY a poisonous gas that is a cause of air POLLUTION in industrial areas sul-fu-ric a-cid /ˌsʌlˌfʊrɪk ˈæsɪd/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a powerful acid sulk /sʌlk/ v. [I] to show that you are annoyed about something by being silent and looking unhappy sul-len /ˈsʌlən/ adj. showing that you are angry or in a bad mood by being silent and looking unhappy sul-phur /ˈsʌlfə/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY SULFUR sul-tan /ˈsʌltən/ n. [C] a ruler in some Muslim countries sul-try /ˈsʌltri/ adj. 1 weather that is sultry is hot with air that feels wet 2 a woman who is sultry is very sexually attractive

sum¹ /sʌm/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 an amount of money: The city has spent a large sum of money on parks. | the sum of $5,000 2 the total when you add two or more numbers together: The sum of 4 and 5 is 9.

sum² v. (summed, summing) sum up phr. v. 1 to end a discussion or speech by giving the main information about it in a short statement: So, to sum up, we need to organize our time better. 2 to describe something in only a few words: The meeting could be summed up as a complete waste of time.

sum-ma-rize /ˈsʌməˌraɪz/ (Ac) v. [I,T] to give only the main information about an event, plan, report, etc., not all the details: The authors summarize their views in the introduction.

S

sum-ma-ry¹ /'sʌməri/ (Ac) n. (plural summaries) [C] a short statement that gives the main information about an event, plan, report, etc.: Read the article and write a summary of it. | In summary, more research is needed. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Medieval Latin summarius, from Latin summa, from summus ‘highest’] summary² adj. [only before noun] done immediately without following the usual processes or rules: The terrorists were responsible for several summary executions.

sum-ma-tion /sə'meɪʃən/ n. [C] (formal) a statement giving the main facts but not the details of something, especially one made by a lawyer at the end of a TRIAL: “If these photos are real,” the prosecution lawyer said in his summation, “you are looking at a murderer.” | a summation of the book sum-mer /'sʌmə/ n. [C,U] the season between spring and fall, when the weather is hottest: The pool is open in the summer. | We're going to Mt. Whitney this summer. | last/next summer (=the summer before or after this one) [ORIGIN: Old English sumor] summer school n. [C,U] classes that you can take in the summer at a school or college sum-mer-time /'sʌmə'taɪm/ n. [U] the time of year when it is summer summer va-cation n. [C,U] the time during the summer when schools are closed, or a trip you take during this time sum-mit /'sʌmɪt/ n. [C] 1 POLITICS a set of important meetings among the leaders of several governments: *an economic summit 2 EARTH SCIENCES the top of a mountain: Many people have now reached the summit of Mount Everest. → see picture on page A11 sum-mon /'sʌmən/ v. [T] (formal) 1 to order someone to come to a particular place: I was summoned to the principal's office. 2 also sum-mon up to make a great effort to use your strength, courage, etc.: It took her 11 years to summon the courage to leave her husband.

sum-mons /'sʌmənz/ n. (plural summons) [C] LAW an official order to appear in a court of law sump-tu-ous /'sʌmptʃuəs/ adj. very impressive and expensive: a sumptuous meal

sun¹ /sʌn/ n. 1 the Sun also the sun PHYSICS the large bright star in the sky that gives us light and heat, and around which the Earth moves → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM 2 [singular, U] the light and heat that come from the Sun: Val lay in the sun, listening to the radio. 3 [C] PHYSICS any star around which PLANETS move → SPACE¹ [ORIGIN: Old English sunne] sun² v. (sunned, sunning) [T] to sit or lie outside when the Sun is shining sun-bathe /'sʌnbetɪð/ v. [I] to sit or lie outside in the sun in order to get a TAN (=darker skin) —sunbathing n. [U] sun-block /'sʌnbloʊk/ n. [U] a cream that you put on your skin in order to completely prevent the Sun from burning you → SUNSCREEN sun-burn /'sʌnbɜ:n/ n. [U] the condition of having skin that is red and painful from spending too much time in the sun —sunburned adj.

sun-dae /'sʌndi, -dei/ n. [C] a dish of ICE CREAM, fruit, nuts, and sweet sauce: *a hot fudge sundae

Sun-day /'sʌndi, -dei/ (written abbreviation Sun.) n. [C,U] the first day of the week, between Saturday and Monday: Anna is coming back Sunday. | I have to work on Sunday. | We're going to a baseball game next Sunday. | We had friends over last Sunday. | She usually wakes up early on Sunday morning. [ORIGIN: Old English sunandæg]

'Sunday School n. [C,U] a place where children are taught about Christianity on Sundays sun-dial /'sʌndaɪl/ n. [C] an object used in the past for telling the time. The shadow of a pointed piece of metal shows the time and moves round as the Sun moves.

sun-down /'sʌndaʊn/ n. [U] SUNSET

sun-dry /'sʌndri/ adj. (formal) MISCELLANEOUS

sun-flow-er /'sʌnflaʊə/ n. [C] a tall plant with a large yellow flower and seeds that can be eaten sung /sʌŋ/ v. the past participle of SING sun-glass-es /'sʌnɡlæsɪz/ n. [plural] dark glasses that you wear in order to protect your eyes when the Sun is bright sunk /sʌŋk/ v. a past tense and the past participle of SINK¹ sunk-en /'sʌŋkən/ adj. 1 having fallen to the bottom of the ocean: a sunken ship 2 built or placed at a lower level than the surrounding area: a sunken garden 3 sunken cheeks or eyes have fallen inward, making someone look sick sun-light /'sʌnlaɪt/ n. [U] natural light that comes from the Sun: Plants need sunlight.

sun-lit /'sʌn,lɪt/ adj. made brighter by light from the Sun: a sunlit kitchen sun-ny /'sʌni/ adj. 1 full of light from the Sun: a sunny day 2 cheerful and happy: a sunny personality sun-rise /'sʌnraɪz/ n. [U] the time when the Sun first appears in the morning sun-roof /'sʌnruf/ n. [C] a part of the roof of a car that you can open sun-screen /'sʌnskri:n/ n. [C,U] a cream that you put on your skin to stop the Sun from burning you → SUNBLOCK sun-set /'sʌnsɛt/ n. 1 [U] the time of day when the Sun disappears and night begins 2 [C,U] the colored part of the sky when the Sun disappears and night begins sun-shine /'sʌnʃaɪn/ n. [U] the light and heat that come from the Sun: Let's go out and enjoy the sunshine.

sun-tan /'sʌntæn/ n. [C] a TAN sun-up /'sʌnʌp/ n. [U] SUNRISE su-per¹ /'supə/ adj. (informal) extremely good: You guys really did a super job.

super² n. [C] (spoken) a building SUPERINTENDENT super³ adv. (spoken) extremely: a super expensive restaurant su-perb /su'pəb/ adj. extremely good [SYN] excellent: The hotel was superb.

—superbly adv.

THESAURUS good, great, excellent, wonderful, fantastic, outstanding, exceptional, first-class, ace → GOOD¹

'Super Bowl n. a football game played once a year in order to decide which professional team is the best in the U.S.

su-per-cil-i-ous /,supə'sɪliəs/ adj. (formal, disapproving) behaving as if you think that other people are less important than you: She cast a supercilious glance in my direction.

su-per-fi-cial /,supə'fɪʃəl/ adj. 1 based only on the first things you notice, not on complete knowledge: a superficial understanding of physics 2 affecting only the surface of your skin or the outside part of something, and therefore not serious: She had some superficial cuts on her arm. 3 (disapproving) someone who is superficial does not think about things that are serious or important [SYN] shallow [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Late Latin superficialis, from Latin superficies “surface,” from super- “above, over” + facies “face”] —superficially adv.

su-per-flu-ous /su'pəfluəs/ adj. (formal) more than is needed or wanted [SYN] unnecessary: superfluous details su-per-he-ro /'supə'hɪrə/ n. (plural superheroes) [C] a character in a COMIC BOOK, movie, etc. who uses special powers, such as great strength or the ability to fly, to help people su-per-high-way /,supə'haɪweɪ/ n. [C] a very large road on which you can drive fast for long distances su-per-hu-man /,supə'hyʊmən/ adj. using powers that are much greater than those of ordinary people: a superhuman effort to finish the job su-per-im-pose /,supə'ɪmpəʊz/ v. [T] to put one picture, image, or photograph on top of another so that both can be partly seen: The picture had Mary's head superimposed on Greg's body.

—superimposition /,supə'ɪmpə'zɪʃən/ n. [U] su-per-in-tend-ent /,supə'ɪntəndənt/ n. [C] 1 someone who is responsible for all the schools in a particular area of the U.S. 2 someone who takes care of an apartment building 3 someone who is responsible for a place, job, activity, etc.

su-pe-ri-or¹ /sə'pɪriə, su-/ adj. 1 better than other similar people or things [ANT] inferior: I believe Matisse's work is superior to Picasso's. ▶ Don't say “superior than.” ◀ 2 extremely good in quality: superior wines 3 (disapproving) showing that you think you are better than other people: She had that superior tone of voice. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French superieur, from Latin superior “further above”] superior² n. [C] someone who has a higher rank or position than you in a job: I'll have to discuss it with my superiors.

Superior 'Court n. [C,U] LAW a law court that has more authority than other courts in a particular area su-pe-ri-o-ri-ty /sə'pɪri'ɔrɪti, -'ar-/ n. [U] 1 the quality of being better than other people or things: the country's military superiority over its neighbors 2 (disapproving) an attitude that shows you think you are better than other people: Janet always spoke with an air of superiority.

su-per-la-tive¹ /sə'pələtɪv, su-/ adj. excellent: superlative views of the city superlative² n. the superlative ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, the form of an adjective or adverb that shows the highest degree of a particular quality. For example, “fastest” is the superlative of “fast.”

su-per-mar-ket /'supə'mɑːkɪt/ n. [C] a very large store that sells many different kinds of food and things people need for the house → GROCERY STORE su-per-mod-el /'supə'mɒdl/ n. [C] a very famous fashion model su-per-nat-u-ral /,supə'nætʃərəl, -tʃrəl/ n. the supernatural events, powers, abilities, or creatures that are impossible to explain by science or natural causes —supernatural adj.: supernatural powers su-per-no-va /,supə'nouvə/ n. (plural supernovas or supernovae /-vi/) [C] PHYSICS a very large, very bright exploding star sup-er-pow-er /'supə'paʊə/ n. [C] POLITICS a country that has very great military and political power su-per-sede /,supə'sɪd/ v. [T] to replace something that is older or less effective with something new or better: TV had superseded radio by the 1960s.

su-per-son-ic /,supə'sənɪk/ adj. faster than the speed of sound: supersonic jets su-per-star /'supə'stɑː/ n. [C] an extremely famous performer, especially a musician or movie actor su-per-sti-tion /,supə'stɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (disapproving) a belief that some objects or actions are lucky and some are unlucky or cause particular results [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French, Latin superstitio, from superstes “standing over someone,” from super- “above, over” + stare “to stand”] su-per-sti-tious /ˌsʊpəˈstɪʃəs/ adj. (disapproving) influenced by superstitions su-per-struc-ture /ˈsʊpəˌstrʌktʃə/ n. [singular, U] a structure that is built on top of the main part of something such as a ship or building su-per-vise /ˈsʊpəˌvaɪz/ v. [I,T] to be in charge of an activity or person, and make sure that things are done in the correct way: Griffin closely supervised the research. —supervision /ˌsʊpəˈvɪʒən/ n. [U]: working under supervision su-per-vis-or /ˈsʊpəˌvaɪzə/ n. [C] someone who supervises an activity or a person —supervisory /ˌsʊpəˈvaɪzəri/ adj.: a supervisory role

THESAURUS boss, manager, head, foreman, forewoman → BOSS¹ sup-per /ˈsʌpə/ n. [C] the meal that is eaten in the early evening (SYN dinner: What's for supper (=what will we eat)? [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French souper]

S

sup-plant /səˈplænt/ v. [T] (formal) to take the place of another person or thing: The old factories have all been supplanted by new high-tech industries.

sup-ple /ˈsʌplə/ adj. able to bend and move easily [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French souple, from Latin supplex “bending under, willing to obey”]

sup-ple-ment¹ /ˈsʌpləmənt/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 something that is added to something else to improve it (SYN addition: vitamin supplements | For doing the extra training, he is paid a supplement to his base salary. 2 an additional part of something such as a newspaper, magazine, etc.: the Sunday supplement [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin supplementum, from supplere “to fill up, supplement, supply,” from sub- “up” + plere “to fill”]

sup-ple-ment² /ˈsʌpləmənt/ (Ac) v. [T] to add something, especially to what you earn or eat, in order to improve it: He took a night job to supplement their income. | They supplemented their diet by catching fish.

sup-ple-men-tary /ˌsʌpləˈmentri, -ˈmentəri/ also sup-ple-men-tal /-ˈmentl/ adj. additional: supplementary vitamins → MORE² supplementary 'angles n. [plural] MATH a pair of angles whose total is 180 degrees

sup-pli-er /səˈplaɪə/ n. [C] a company that provides a particular product: medical suppliers

sup-ply¹ /səˈplaɪ/ n. (plural supplies) 1 [C,U] ECONOMICS an amount of something that is available to be sold or bought, or the process of providing this → DEMAND: the nation's fuel supplies | Demand for the new model is outstripping supply. 2 [C,U] an amount of something that is available to be used: the supply of oxygen to the brain | an ample/plentiful/endless etc. supply of cash 3 supplies [plural] food, clothes, and things that are necessary for daily life, especially for a particular period: Emergency supplies are being sent to the flooded region. 4 gas/electricity/water etc. supply a system that is used to supply gas, electricity, water, etc. → be in short supply at SHORT¹

supply² v. (supplied, supplies) [T] to provide people with something that they need or want, especially regularly over a long time: Workers are supplied with masks and special clothing. | He refused to supply any information to the police.

sup-ply and de-mand n. [U] ECONOMICS the relationship between the amount of goods or services that are for sale and the amount that people want to buy, in a way that influences prices → LAW OF DEMAND, LAW OF SUPPLY

sup-port¹ /səˈpɔ:t/ v. [T] 1 to say that you agree with an idea, group, person, etc. and want him, her, or it to succeed: I don't support any one political party. | We need to support teachers in their aims. 2 to help and encourage someone: I appreciate your supporting me during my divorce. 3 to provide enough money for someone to have all the things s/he needs: I have a wife and two children to support. | You've got to learn to support yourself. 4 to hold the weight of something in order to prevent it from falling: The bridge is supported by two columns. 5 to show or prove that something is true: Is there enough data to support the theory?

support² n. 1 [U] approval and encouragement for a person, idea, plan, etc.: There is a lot of support for the war. | Many people have given us support in our campaign. 2 [U] money given to a person or organization in order to help pay for the cost of something: He provides financial support to his ex-wife. 3 [U] sympathy and help that you give to someone: Thanks for all your support. 4 [C,U] an object that holds up something else

sup-port-er /səˈpɔ:tə/ n. [C] someone who supports a particular person, group, or plan: supporters of the governor

sup-port group n. [C] a group of people who meet to help each other with a particular problem, for example ALCOHOLISM

sup-port-ing /səˈpɔ:tɪŋ/ adj. supporting actor/part/role etc. an actor who has a small part in a movie or play, or the part that they act sup-port-ive /səˈpɔ:tɪv/ adj. giving help or encouragement: All the team members are very supportive of each other.

sup-pose /səˈpəʊz/ v. [T] 1 be supposed to do/be sth a) used in order to say what someone should or should not do, especially because of official rules: You're not supposed to smoke in here. b) used in order to say what is expected or intended to happen, especially when it does not happen: The checks were supposed to arrive two weeks ago. c) used in order to say that something is believed to be true by many people: This is supposed to be the best Chinese restaurant in town.

SPOKEN PHRASES

2 I suppose a) used in order to say that you think something is probably true, although you are not sure: I suppose (that) you're right. b) used when you are agreeing to let someone do something, especially when you do not really want him/her to do it: "Can we come with you?" "I suppose so." c) used when saying in an angry way that you think something is true: I suppose (that) you thought that was funny! 3 suppose/supposing used in order to ask someone to imagine what might happen: Suppose you do get the job. Who'd take care of the kids? 4 what's that supposed to mean? said when you are annoyed by what someone has just said: "I'll keep your idea in mind." "Keep it in mind! What's that supposed to mean?" 5 do you suppose (that)...? used in order to ask someone's opinion about something: Do you suppose people will ever live on Mars?

sup-posed /sə'pouzɪd/ adj. used in order to say that what you are talking about is believed to be true, but you do not believe or agree with it yourself: the supposed link between violent movies and crime

sup-pos-ed-ly /sə'pouzɪdli/ adv. used when saying what other people say or believe is true, especially when you do not think they are right: He comes from a very wealthy family, supposedly. | How could a supposedly intelligent person make so many mistakes?

sup-po-si-tion /ˌsʌpə'zɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) something that you think is true even though you are not certain and cannot prove it sup-press /sə'pres/ v. [T] 1 to stop people from opposing the government, especially by using force: The army has suppressed the revolt. 2 to control a feeling, so that you do not show it: Andy could barely suppress his anger. 3 to prevent important information or opinions from becoming known: His lawyer suppressed some of the evidence. —suppression /sə'preʃən/ n. [U] su-prem-a-cy /sə'preməsi, su-/ n. [U] a situation in which a group or idea is more powerful or advanced than anything else su-preme /sə'prim, su-/ adj. 1 having the highest position of power, importance, or influence: the supreme commander of the fleet 2 [only before noun] the greatest possible: He made a supreme effort.

Supreme Court n. the Supreme Court LAW the court of law with the most authority in the U.S.

su-preme-ly /sə'primli, su-/ adv. extremely: a supremely confident athlete sur-charge /'sɜ:tʃɑ:dʒ/ n. [C] money that you have to pay in addition to the basic price of something sure¹ /ʃʊr, ʃə/ adj. 1 [not before noun] certain about something: "That's Sarah's cousin." "Are you sure?" | I'm sure (that) I had the keys when we left the house. | I'm not sure what happened. | Are you always so sure about everything?

THESAURUS

certain – completely sure: I'm certain that I turned off the stove. | It now seems certain that the Earth's climate is starting to change.

convinced – completely sure that something is true, especially when you cannot prove it but you have strong feelings about it: She was convinced that her son was innocent.

confident – sure that something good will happen, or that you will be able to achieve what you want: We're confident that we're going to win.

satisfied – sure that something is true, so that you have enough information to make a decision: The insurance company needed to be fully satisfied that the fire had started accidentally.

positive – completely sure – used especially when other people seem doubtful: Are you positive about that?

have no doubt – to be so certain about something that there are no doubts in your mind: I have no doubt that he will be found.

without (a) doubt – used when saying that you are completely sure about something: Tiger Woods is without doubt one of the greatest golfers of all time.

2 make sure (that) a) to check that something is true or that something has been done: He called to make sure that we got home okay. b) to do something so that you can be certain of the result: Make sure you get there early. 3 certain to happen or be true: He's sure to say something stupid. | Investing in the stock market is not a sure thing (=it is risky). 4 be sure of sth to be certain to get something or certain that something will happen: The Giants are now sure of a place in the playoffs. 5 sure of yourself confident about your own abilities and opinions 6 for sure (informal) a) certainly: I think he's married, but I don't know for sure. b) used in order to emphasize that something is certain: We'll always need teachers – that's for sure. 7 sure thing (spoken) said in order to agree to something: "See you Friday." "Yeah, sure thing." [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French sur, from Latin securus, from se "without" + cura "care"] sure² adv. 1 sure enough (informal) used in order to say that something happened that you expected to happen: Sure enough, we got lost.

SPOKEN PHRASES

2 said in order to say yes to someone: "Can I read your paper?" "Sure." 3 used as a way of replying when someone thanks you: "Hey, thanks for your help." "Sure." 4 said in order to emphasize a statement (SYN certainly): It sure is hot out here. 5 used in order to admit that something is true, before you say something very different: Sure, he's cute, but I'm still not interested.

sure-ly /'ʃʊrli, 'ʃəli/ adv. 1 used in order to show that you are surprised at something: Surely you're not leaving so soon? 2 used in order to show that you think something must be true: This will surely result in more problems.

sur-e-ty /'ʃʊrəti/ n. (plural sureties) 1 [C,U] LAW money that someone gives as a promise that someone else will come to a court of law. If the person does not come to the court, the person who pays the surety loses some or all of the money. → BAIL 2 [C] ECONOMICS someone who will pay a debt, go to court, etc. if someone else fails to do so surf /sɜ:f/ v. [I,T] 1 to ride on ocean waves standing on a special board 2 surf the Internet/Net/Web IT to look quickly at different places on the Internet for information that interests you → INTERNET —surfer n. [C] —surfing n. [U]: Didn't you go surfing at Ventura? → see picture on page A4, channel surf at CHANNEL¹

surf² n. [U] the white part that forms on the top of waves as they move toward the shore

sur-face¹ /'sɜ:fəs/ n. [C] 1 the outside or top layer of something: the Earth's surface | leaves floating on the surface of the lake 2 the surface the qualities that someone or something seems to have until you learn more about him, her, or it: On the surface she seems happy enough. | I sensed a lot of tension below/beneath the surface. 3 a flat area, for example on top of a cupboard, on which you can work: a cleaner for all your kitchen surfaces [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French sur- “above” + face “face”] surface² v. 1 [I] to become known: Rumors have begun to surface in the press. 2 [I] to appear again after being hidden or absent: Three years later he surfaced again. 3 [I] to rise to the surface of water: Whales were surfacing near our boat. 4 [T] to put a surface on a road surface 'tension n. [U] PHYSICS the way the MOLECULES in the surface of a liquid stick together so that the surface is held together surf-board /'sɜ:fbɔ:d/ n. [C] a long special board that you stand on to ride on ocean waves sur-feit /'sɜ:fit/ n. a surfeit of sth (formal) an amount of something that is too large or more than you need [SYN] excess: The world already has a surfeit of mediocre pianists.

surge¹ /sɜ:dʒ/ v. [I] 1 to suddenly move very quickly in a particular direction: The crowd surged forward. 2 also surge up if an emotion surges or surges up, you begin to feel it very strongly: Rage surged up inside her.

surge² n. [C] 1 a sudden large increase in something: a surge of excitement | a surge in oil prices 2 a sudden movement of a lot of people sur-geon /'sɜ:dʒən/ n. [C] a doctor who does operations in a hospital [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Anglo-French surgien, from Old French cirurgie, from Latin, from Greek cheirourgos “working with the hand”]

THESAURUS doctor, physician, specialist, pediatrician → DOCTOR¹

sur-ger-y /'sɜ:dʒəri/ n. (plural surgeries) 1 [U] medical treatment in which a doctor cuts open your body to fix or remove something inside: heart surgery | Jenny is having surgery tomorrow. 2 [C,U] the place where operations are done in a hospital, or the process of performing surgery: Dr. Flint is in surgery right now.

sur-gi-cal /'sɜ:dʒɪkəl/ adj. relating to or used for medical operations: surgical gloves sur-ly /'sɜ:li/ adj. unfriendly and rude [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 sirly “like a lord, proud and grand” (14—17 centuries), from sir] sur-mise /sɜ:'maɪz/ v. [T] (formal) to guess that something is true, using the information you have sur-mount /sɜ:'maʊnt/ v. [T] (formal) to succeed in dealing with a problem or difficulty [SYN] overcome

sur-name /'sɜ:neɪm/ n. [C] a LAST NAME

sur-pass /sɜ:'pæs/ v. [T] to be better or greater than someone or something else: He surpassed the previous record by 11 seconds. | The trip surpassed all our expectations (=it was better than we hoped it would be).

sur-plus¹ /sɜ:'plʌs/ n. [C,U] 1 more of something than is needed or used: a surplus of goods 2 ECONOMICS money that a country or company has after it has paid for the things it needs [ANT] deficit: a budget surplus surplus² adj. more than what is needed or used: surplus corn

sur-prise¹ /sɜ:'praɪz, sə'praɪz/ n. 1 [U] the feeling you have when something unexpected or unusual happens: Bill looked at us in surprise. | To my surprise, she agreed. | It came as no surprise when he left. 2 [C,U] something that is unexpected or unusual: What a surprise to see you here! | Dad, I have a surprise for you! | a surprise party (=a party given for someone who is not expecting it) 3 catch/take sb by surprise to happen in an unexpected way: The heavy snowfall caught everyone by surprise. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French, past participle of surprendre “to take over, surprise”]

surprise² v. [T] 1 to make someone feel surprised: Her reaction surprised me. | “Pam got fired.” “It doesn't surprise me.” 2 to find, catch, or attack someone when s/he does not expect it: A security guard surprised the robber.

sur-prise³ /sɜ:'praɪzd, sə-/ adj. having a feeling of surprise: Robert looked surprised to see me there. | I'm surprised at how much it costs. | We were surprised (that) David got the job.

THESAURUS

amazed – very surprised: I was amazed at how hard the exam was.

shocked – feeling surprised, and often upset or offended: We were all shocked by the news.
astonished – very surprised: Her lawyer was astonished at the verdict.
astounded – very surprised: I was astounded at how bad the play was.
flabbergasted – very surprised and shocked: People were flabbergasted; something like this couldn't happen.
stunned – too surprised and shocked to speak: We watched in stunned disbelief.
dumbfounded (formal) – so surprised and confused to speak: Coach Jones is dumbfounded by the team's performance.
nonplussed (formal) – so surprised that you do not know what to say or do: The stock market seems nonplussed by the figures.
taken aback – surprised by what someone says or does: At first she was taken aback, but then she laughed.

sur-pris-ing /sə'praɪzɪŋ, sə-/ adj. unusual or unexpected: It's surprising how quickly she finished the job. | A surprising number of people came. | It's hardly/scarcely surprising that they lost the game. —surprisingly adv.: The test was surprisingly easy.

THESAURUS

extraordinary – unusual and surprising: He spends an extraordinary amount of money on clothes.
amazing – very surprising or unexpected, and sometimes difficult to believe: It's amazing how fast some animals can run.
shocking – surprising and upsetting: It is shocking that a policeman could lie to the public.
astonishing – very surprising, and often difficult to believe: The population of the world is growing at an astonishing rate.
astounding – very surprising, and almost impossible to believe: the astounding success of her second novel staggering – very surprising and shocking, especially because something is so large: a staggering sum of money stunning – very surprising and shocking: In a stunning announcement, the senator said he was retiring.

sur-real /sə'ri:l/ also sur-re-a-lis-tic /sə'ri:ə'lɪstɪk/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS a surreal situation or experience is very strange, like something from a dream, often because there is a combination of unusual and unrelated events or images sur-re-al-ism /sə'ri:ə,lɪzəm/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a style of 20th century art or literature in which the artist or writer connects unrelated images and objects in a strange way —surrealist adj. —surrealist n. [C] sur-ren-der /sə'rendə/ v. 1 [I] to stop fighting because you know that you cannot win, or to stop trying to escape from the police: The rebel forces have surrendered. | The man finally surrendered to the police.

THESAURUS

give in – to accept that you have lost a fight, game, etc.: Neither side was willing to give in.
concede (formal) – to admit that you are not going to win a game, argument, battle, etc.: Davis conceded defeat in the election.
yield (formal) – to allow yourself to be forced or persuaded to do something: The government will never yield to terrorism.
submit (formal) – to obey someone who has power over you, especially because you have no choice: She did not have the right to force others to submit to her views.
admit/accept defeat – to accept that you have not won something: In July 1905, Russia admitted defeat in its war with Japan.

2 [T] (formal) to give something to someone in authority, for example weapons or official documents: They had to surrender their passports as a condition of their bail. —surrender n. [U] sur-rep-ti-tious-ly /sə'rep'tɪʃəsli, ɪsərəp-/ adv. (formal) secretly, quickly, or quietly, so that other people do not notice: He smiled surreptitiously at her. —surreptitious adj.: She gave Joe a surreptitious wave. —surreptitiousness n. [U] sur-ro-gate /'sʌrəɡɪt, 'sʌrə-/ adj. [only before noun] taking the place of someone or something else: a surrogate family —surrogate n. [C] surrogate mother n. [C] a woman who has a baby for another woman who cannot have children

sur-round /sə'raʊnd/ v. [T] 1 to be all around someone or something: a lake surrounded by trees | The police surrounded the house. 2 be surrounded by sb/sth to have a lot of a particular type of people or things near you: She is surrounded by friends. 3 to be closely related to a situation or event: Some of the issues surrounding alcohol abuse are very complex. —surrounding adj.: the surrounding countryside sur-round-ings /sə'raʊndɪŋz/ n. [plural] the place that you are in and all the things in it: It took me a few weeks to get used to my new surroundings.

sur-veil-lance /sə'veɪləns/ n. [U] the act of watching a particular person or place carefully, usually in order to catch a criminal or prevent a crime: Police have the suspect under surveillance. | surveillance cameras [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French surveiller “to watch over,” from sur- “over” + veiller “to watch”]

sur-vey¹ /'sə'veɪ/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a set of questions that you ask a large number of people in order to find out about their opinions and behavior (SYN) poll, questionnaire: ABC News conducted a survey of working women. | Surveys show that most Americans support the president. 2 a careful examination of an area of land, done in order to make a map of it: a geological survey of the area 3 a general description or report about a particular subject or situation: a survey of American History [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French surveir “to look over”] sur-vey² /səˈveɪ, ˈsəˌveɪ/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to ask a large number of people a set of questions in order to find out about their opinions or behavior: More than 50% of the students surveyed said they exercise regularly. 2 to look at someone or something carefully so that you can make a decision, or find out more information: I surveyed the damage to the car. 3 to examine and measure an area of land in order to make a map sur-vey-or /səˈveɪə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to measure and record the details of an area of land

sur-viv-al /səˈvaɪvəl/ (Ac) n. [U] the state of continuing to live or exist, especially after a difficult or dangerous situation: The operation will increase his chances of survival. | It's survival of the fittest (= a situation in which only the strongest people, animals, or organizations can continue to exist).

sur-vive /səˈvaɪv/ (Ac) v. [I,T] 1 to continue to live after an accident, illness, etc.: Only one person survived the crash. 2 to continue to live normally or exist in spite of difficulties: Few small businesses survived the recession. | How do you manage to survive on such a low salary? | It's been a tough few months, but I'll survive. 3 to continue to exist after a long time: Only a few Greek plays have survived. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French survivre “to live longer than,” from Latin supervivere] —surviving adj. [only before noun]: The couple's two surviving children will inherit the family home.

sur-vi-vor /səˈvaɪvə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 someone who continues to live after an accident, illness, etc.: There were no survivors. 2 (approving) someone who continues to live a normal life even when s/he has many difficulties or problems: He's a survivor.

sus-cep-ti-ble /səˈseptəbəl/ adj. likely to be affected by a particular illness or problem: I've always been very susceptible to colds.

su-shi /ˈsuʃi/ n. [U] Japanese food consisting of raw fish eaten with cooked rice sus-pect¹ /ˈsʌspekt/ n. [C] someone who may be guilty of a crime: the police's prime suspect (=main one) sus-pect² /səˈspekt/ v. [T] 1 to think that someone may be guilty of a crime: She is suspected of murder. 2 to think that something is probably true, especially something bad: She suspected (that) Sandra had been lying.

THE SAURUS think, believe, figure, guess

→ THINK

3 to think that someone or something is not completely honest, sincere, or real: Do you have reason to suspect his motives?

sus-pect³ /ˈsʌspekt/ adj. difficult to believe or trust: Her story is highly suspect.

sus-pend /səˈspend/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to officially stop someone from working, driving, or going to school for a fixed period, because s/he has broken the rules: Joey was suspended from school. | Her driver's license was suspended. 2 to officially stop something from continuing, usually for a short time: The bus service has been suspended until further notice. 3 (formal) if something is suspended somewhere, it is hanging down from there: a chandelier suspended from the ceiling [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French suspendre “to hang up, interrupt,” from Latin suspendere, from sub- “up” + pendere “to hang”] sus-pend-ers /səˈspendəz/ n. [plural] two bands of cloth that go over your shoulders and are attached to your pants to hold them up sus-pense /səˈspens/ n. [U] a feeling of not knowing what is going to happen next: Don't keep us in suspense. What happened?

sus-pen-sion /səˈspenʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] the act of officially stopping something from continuing for a period of time: a suspension of military activity 2 [C,U] an act of removing someone from a school or job for a short time, in order to punish him/her: a three-day suspension for cheating 3 [U] equipment attached to the wheels of a vehicle to make it comfortable to ride in 4 [U] a liquid mixture containing very small pieces of solid matter that have not completely DISSOLVED in the liquid sus-pi-cion /səˈspɪʃən/ n. 1 [C,U] a feeling that someone is probably guilty of doing something wrong or dishonest: Potter was arrested on suspicion of robbery. | I'm not sure who erased the file, but I have my suspicions. 2 [U] a feeling that you do not trust someone: She always treated us with suspicion.

sus-pi-cious /səˈspɪʃəs/ adj. 1 feeling that you do not like or trust someone or something: I'm suspicious of her intentions. | Her behavior made me suspicious. 2 making you think that something bad or illegal is happening: He died under suspicious circumstances. —suspiciously adv.: They were acting suspiciously.

sus-tain /səˈsteɪn/ (Ac) v. [T] 1 to make something continue to exist or happen over a period of time: The nation's economy was largely sustained by foreign aid. 2 (formal) to suffer damage, an injury, or loss of something: Two people sustained minor injuries. 3 (formal) to provide enough food, water, air, etc. for people to stay alive: Are we damaging the environment so badly that the Earth will be unable to sustain life? [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French sustener, from Latin sustinere “to hold up, sustain”] sus-tain-a-ble /səˈsteɪnəbəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 ECONOMICS able to continue without causing damage to the environment: sustainable economic growth 2 able to continue for a long time: Working more than sixty hours a week is not sustainable in the long-term.

sustainable development n. [U] ECONOMICS the practice of limiting how much coal, oil, and other natural materials a country or industry uses, so that they continue to last for a long time sustained /sə'steɪnd/ adj. continuing for a long time: A sustained effort is needed.

sustenance /'sʌstənəns/ [Ac] n. [U] (formal) 1 food that is needed in order to live: The buffalo provided sustenance to the Plains Indians. 2 something that helps something to continue: His religion was his sustenance.

SUV n. [C] sport utility vehicle a type of vehicle that is bigger than a car and is made for traveling over rough ground svelte /svɛlt/ adj. a svelte woman is thin and graceful [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 French, Italian svelto “stretched,” from svellere “to pull out”]

SW the written abbreviation of SOUTHWEST

swab /swʌb/ n. [C] a small stick with a piece of material on the end, used for cleaning wounds or doing medical tests: a cotton swab —swab v. [T] swag-ger /'swægə/ v. [I] to walk proudly, swinging your shoulders in a way that seems too confident —swagger n. [singular, U] swallow /'swaləʊ/ v. 1 [T] to make food or drink go down your throat: She swallowed her coffee and got up to leave. 2 [I] to make liquid in your mouth go down your throat, especially because you are nervous or afraid: He swallowed anxiously before answering. 3 [T] (informal) to believe a story or explanation that is not actually true: I found his story a little hard to swallow.

THESAURUS believe, accept, fall for sth, buy → BELIEVE

4 swallow your pride to do something that seems necessary even though you feel embarrassed or ashamed swallow sth ↔ up phr. v. to make something disappear or become part of something else: As the city grew, local farms were swallowed up.

swallow² n. [C] 1 an act of making food or drink go down your throat: Mike drank his beer in one swallow. 2 a common small bird with pointed wings and a tail with two points swam /swæm/ v. the past tense of SWIM

swamp¹ /swamp, swɒmp/ n. [C,U] EARTH SCIENCES land that is always very wet or covered with water —swampy adj.

swamp² v. [T] 1 (informal) to suddenly give someone more work, problems, etc. than s/he can deal with: We've been swamped with job applications. 2 to suddenly cover something with a lot of water so that it causes damage: Huge waves swamped the town.

swan /swʌn/ n. [C] a large white bird with a long neck, that lives near lakes and rivers swank /swæŋk/ also swank-y /'swæŋki/ adj. (informal) very fashionable or expensive: a swank New York hotel swap /swʌp/ v. (swapped, swapping) [I,T] to exchange something you have for something that someone else has: Can I swap seats with you? [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 swap “to hit” (14–19 centuries), from the sound; from the practice of striking the hands together when agreeing a business deal] —swap n. [C]

THESAURUS exchange, trade → EXCHANGE²

'swap, meet n. [C] an occasion when people meet to buy and sell used goods, or to exchange them swarm¹ /swɔːm/ v. [I] if people swarm somewhere, they quickly move there together swarm with sb/sth phr. v. to be full of people, birds, or insects: The beaches are swarming with people in the summer.

swarm² n. [C] a large group of insects that move together: a swarm of bees swarthy /'swɔːði, -θi/ adj. someone who is swarthy has dark skin swat /swʌt/ v. (swatted, swatting) [I,T] to hit an insect in order to kill it: He swatted at a fly that was buzzing near his ear. —swat n. [C] swatch /swʌtʃ/ n. [C] a small piece of cloth that is used as an example of a type of material or its quality swath /swɑːθ, swɒθ/ n. [C] (formal) a long thin area of something, especially land sway¹ /sweɪ/ v. 1 [I,T] to move slowly from one side to another: palm trees swaying in the breeze 2 [T] to try to influence someone to make a particular decision: Nothing you say will sway her.

sway² n. [U] 1 a swinging movement from one side to another: the sway of the ship 2 (literary) the power to rule or influence people: Superstitious beliefs still hold sway in the country.

swear /sweə/ v. (past tense swore /swɔːr/, past participle sworn /swɔːn/) 1 [I] to use offensive language: Don't swear in front of the children. | I'm sorry I swore at you. 2 [I,T] to promise that you will do something: Do you swear to tell the truth?

THESAURUS promise, give sb your word, take/swear an oath, vow, pledge → PROMISE¹

3 [T] (informal) used in order to emphasize that something is true: She swore that she had never seen him before. | I swear (to God) I didn't take anything out of your room. 4 I could have sworn (that)... (spoken) used in order to say that you were sure about something, but now you are not sure: I could have sworn I left my keys here.

S

swear by sth phr. v. to strongly believe that something is effective: Heidi swears by vitamin C for preventing colds.

swear sb ↔ in phr. v. 1 to make someone publicly promise to be loyal to a country or an important job: The new governor was sworn in today. 2 LAW to make someone give an official promise in a court of law: The jury had to be sworn in.

swear off sth phr. v. to decide to stop doing something that is bad for you: I'm swearing off alcohol after last night!

'swear word n. [C] a word that is considered rude or shocking

sweat¹ /swet/ v. 1 [I] BIOLOGY to have liquid coming out through your skin, especially when you are hot or nervous: The heat was making us sweat. | He was sweating heavily/profusely (=a lot). 2 [I] (informal) to work hard: I spent all night sweating over my term paper. 3 don't sweat it (spoken) used in order to tell someone not to worry about something: Don't sweat it – I'll lend you the money. sweat sth ↔ out phr. v. to continue doing something until it is finished, even though it is difficult: We had to sweat it out until the rest of the crew arrived.

sweat² n. 1 [U] BIOLOGY liquid that comes out through your skin, especially when you are hot or nervous (SYN perspiration): His shirt was soaked with sweat. | We had both worked up a sweat (=started sweating because of working hard). | Sweat poured from his exhausted body. 2 a cold sweat nervousness or fear that makes you sweat even though you are not hot: I woke up from the nightmare in a cold sweat. 3 sweats [plural] (informal) a SWEAT SUIT or the pants of a sweat suit 4 no sweat (spoken) used in order to say that you can do something easily: "Can I have a ride home?" "Yeah, no sweat!"

sweat-er /'swetə/ n. [C] a piece of warm wool or cotton clothing with long SLEEVES, which covers the top half of your body: She put her sweater on. | a wool/cotton/cashmere sweater [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 sweat; because it was originally worn when doing exercise, to make you sweat] → see picture at CLOTHES

'sweat pants n. [plural] soft thick pants, worn especially for sports sweat-shirt /'swet-ʃɜ:t/ n. [C] a thick soft cotton shirt with long sleeves, no collar, and no buttons, worn especially for sports sweat-shop /'swet-ʃɒp/ n. [C] a factory where people work hard in bad conditions for very little money

'sweat suit, sweat-suit /'swetsut/ n. [C] a set of clothes made of thick soft material, worn especially for sports → see picture at CLOTHES

sweat-y /'sweti/ adj. covered with SWEAT, or smelling like sweat: I felt hot and sweaty. | sweaty hands

sweep¹ /swip/ v. (past tense and past participle swept/swɛpt/) 1 [T] also sweep up to clean the dirt from the floor or ground using a BROOM: I've just swept the kitchen floor.

THESAURUS clean, do the housework, dust, polish, vacuum, scrub, mop → CLEAN²

2 [I,T] to move somewhere quickly or to move something quickly: The crowd swept through the gates. | I swept the papers quickly into the drawer. 3 sweep the country/nation to quickly affect or become popular with most of the people in a country: a fashion trend that is sweeping the nation 4 sweep sb off his/her feet to make someone feel suddenly and strongly attracted to you in a romantic way 5 sweep sth under the rug to try to hide something bad that has happened sweep sth ↔ away phr. v. to completely destroy something or make something disappear: Entire houses were swept away by the floods.

sweep² n. [C] 1 a long swinging movement of your arm, a weapon, etc. 2 a long curved line or area of land: the sweep of the hills in the distance 3 [usually singular] a search or attack that moves through a particular area: Soldiers made a sweep of the village.

sweep-ing /'swipɪŋ/ adj. 1 affecting many things, or affecting one thing very much: sweeping changes 2 sweeping statement/generalization (disapproving) a statement that is too general and does not consider all the facts sweep-stakes /'swipsteɪks/ n. (plural sweep-stakes) [C] 1 a type of competition in which you have a chance to win a prize if your name is chosen 2 a type of BETTING in which the winner gets all the money risked by everyone else sweet /swit/ adj. 1 having a taste like sugar: sweet, juicy peaches

THESAURUS tasty, sour, salty, hot, spicy → TASTE¹

2 having a pleasant smell or sound: a sweet-smelling rose 3 kind, gentle, and friendly: Fran is such a sweet person. | It was sweet of you to help. 4 pretty and pleasant – used when you are talking about children and small things (SYN cute): Her baby is so sweet. 5 making you feel happy and satisfied: Revenge is sweet! 6 have a sweet tooth to like to eat sweet foods 7 Sweet! (spoken) used in order to show that you think something is very good: "I got four tickets to the concert." "Sweet!" [ORIGIN: Old English swete] —sweetly adv. She smiled sweetly. —sweetness n. [U]

sweet-en /'switn/ v. 1 [I,T] to become or make something sweeter: Sweeten the mixture with honey. 2 sweeten the deal/pot/offer etc. (informal) to make a deal seem more acceptable, usually by offering more money sweet-en-er /ˈswitʃn-ə, -nə/ n. [C,U] a substance used instead of sugar to make food or drinks taste sweeter: Many diet foods are full of artificial sweeteners.

sweet-heart /ˈswiːthɑːt/ n. [C] 1 a way of talking to someone you love: Good night, sweetheart. 2 (old-fashioned) the person that you love: He married his childhood sweetheart.

sweet-ie /ˈswiti/ n. [C] (spoken) 1 a way of talking to someone you love 2 someone who is kind and easy to love: Pat's such a sweetie!

sweet po'tato n. [C] a root that looks like an orange potato, is yellow inside, and tastes sweet sweets /swits/ n. [plural] (informal) sweet food or candy swell¹ /swel/ v. (past tense swelled, past participle swollen /ˈswoulən/) 1 [I] also swell up to gradually increase in size, especially because of an injury: My ankle swelled up like a balloon. 2 [I,T] to increase to a much bigger amount or number: The city's population has swollen to 2 million. 3 swell with pride/anger etc. to feel very proud, angry, etc.

swell² n. [singular] the movement of the ocean as waves go up and down swell³ adj. (old-fashioned) very good: I had a really swell time.

swelling /ˈswelɪŋ/ n. [C,U] an area on your body that becomes larger than usual because of injury or sickness: This medicine should help reduce the swelling.

swel-ter-ing /ˈsweltərɪŋ/ adj. unpleasantly hot: a sweltering summer day

THESAURUS hot, boiling/baking/scorching (hot), scalding → HOT swept /swɛpt/ v. the past tense and past participle of SWEEP swerve /swɜːv/ v. [I] to make a sudden movement to the left or right while moving forward, usually in order to avoid hitting something: Mark swerved to avoid hitting the dog.

swift /swɪft/ adj. happening or moving very quickly: a swift response —swiftly adv.

swig /swɪɡ/ v. (swigged, swigging) [T] (informal) to drink something by taking large amounts into your mouth —swig n. [C]

THESAURUS drink, gulp sth down, down sth, knock sth back, take/have a swig, guzzle → DRINK²

swill¹ /swɪl/ n. [U] food for pigs swill² v. [T] to drink a lot of something, especially beer

swim¹ /swɪm/ v. (past tense swam /swæm/, past participle swum /swʌm/, present participle swimming) 1 [I,T] to move through the water, using your arms and legs: Can Lucy swim? | He swims 20

laps a day. | We used to swim in the lake. 2 [I] if your head swims, you feel confused or as if everything is spinning around 3 [I] if something you are looking at swims, it seems to move around, usually because you are sick: The room swam around her. 4 be swimming in/with sth to be covered by a lot of liquid: meatballs swimming in sauce [ORIGIN: Old English swimman] —swimming n. [U]: Do you want to go swimming?

swim² n. [C] a time when you swim: Would you like to go for a swim after work?

'swim ,bladder n. [C] BIOLOGY an AIR BLADDER

'swimming pool n. [C] a structure that has been built and filled with water for people to swim in [SYN] pool

'swimming suit n. [C] a SWIMSUIT

'swimming trunks n. [plural] a piece of clothing like SHORTS, worn by men for swimming swim-suit /ˈswɪmsut/ n. [C] a piece of clothing worn for swimming swin-dle¹ /ˈswɪndl/ v. [T] to get money from someone by tricking or deceiving him/her [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 swindler “person who swindles” (18—21 centuries), from German schwindler “someone confused or unbalanced”] —swindler n. [C] swindle² n. [C] a situation in which someone gets money from someone else by tricking him/her swine /swaɪn/ n. (plural swine) [C] (old-fashioned) a pig

swing¹ /swɪŋ/ v. (past tense and past participle swung /swʌŋ/) 1 [I,T] to move backward and forward while hanging from a particular point, or to make something move in this way: They walked hand in hand, swinging their arms. | The sign swung in the wind. 2 [I,T] to move smoothly in a curved direction, or to make something move this way: The screen door kept swinging open/shut. 3 [I] if opinions or feelings swing, they change a lot: Her mood swung from happiness to despair.

swing around phr. v. to turn around quickly, or to make something do this: Mitch swung around to face her.

swing at sb/sth phr. v. to try to hit someone or something with your hand or with an object that you are holding: He swung at the ball and missed.

swing by (sth) phr. v. (informal) to quickly visit a person or place before going somewhere else: Can we swing by the store on the way home?

swing² n. [C] 1 a seat hanging from ropes or chains, on which children swing: A bunch of kids were playing on the swings. 2 an attempt to hit someone or something by swinging your arm, an object, etc.: Then he tried to take a swing at me. 3 a change from one feeling, opinion, etc. to another: mood swings | a big swing in public opinion 4 be in full swing if a party, event, etc. is in full swing, it is at its highest level of activity swipe /swaɪp/ v. 1 [I,T] also swipe at to hit or try to hit someone or something by swinging your arm very quickly 2 [T] (informal) to steal something: Somebody swiped my wallet. 3 [T] to pull a plastic card through a machine that can read the electronic information on it —swipe n. [C] swirl /swɜːl/ v. [I,T] to turn around and around, or to make something do this: Mist swirled around the mountain peaks. —swirl n. [C] swish /swɪʃ/ v. [I,T] to move or make something move quickly through the air with a soft sound like a whistle: One cow swished its tail. —swish n. [singular]

Swiss¹ /swɪs/ adj. relating to or coming from Switzerland

Swiss² n. the Swiss [plural] the people of Switzerland, considered as a single group

switch¹ /swɪtʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to change from doing or using one thing to doing or using something else: If you switch to a low-fat diet, your health will improve. | He kept switching from one subject to another. | He switched sides just days before the election. 2 [T] to replace an object with a similar object, especially secretly or accidentally: We must have accidentally switched umbrellas.

switch sth ↔ off phr. v. to turn off a machine, radio, light, etc. by using a switch: Be sure to switch off the lights when you leave.

switch sth ↔ on phr. v. to turn on a machine, radio, light, etc. by using a switch: Could you switch the radio on?

switch over phr. v. to start using a different product, system, etc.: More and more people are switching over to Internet banking.

switch² n. [C] 1 the part that you press or push on a machine, radio, light, etc. so that it starts or stops operating: Where's the on/off switch? | a light switch 2 a change from one thing to another: More shoppers are making the switch to organic food.

switch-board /swɪtʃbɔːrd/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that connects all the telephone calls made to or from a particular business, hotel, etc.

swiv-el /ˈswɪvəl/ also swivel around v. [I,T] to turn around while remaining in the same place, or to make something do this: She wants a chair that swivels.

THESAURUS turn, twist, spin, whirl, twirl, go around, revolve, rotate → TURN¹

swol-len¹ /ˈswʊlən/ v. the past participle of SWELL swollen² adj. 1 a part of your body that is swollen is bigger than usual because of injury or sickness: My knee is still really swollen from the accident. 2 a swollen river has more water in it than usual swoon /swʊn/ v. [I] (old-fashioned) to feel so much emotion that you almost FAINT (=lose consciousness) swoop /swʊp/ v. [I] 1 to suddenly and quickly move down through the air, especially to attack something: An owl swooped down and grabbed a mouse. 2 if soldiers or the police swoop, they go somewhere very quickly and without warning in order to attack or ARREST someone —swoop n. [C] sword /sɔːd/ n. [C] a weapon with a long sharp blade and a handle sword-fish /ˈsɔːd,fɪʃ/ n. [C] a large fish with a long pointed upper jaw swore /swɔːr/ v. the past tense of SWEAR

sworn¹ /swɔːn/ v. the past participle of SWEAR sworn² adj. 1 sworn statement/testimony something you say or write that you have officially promised is the truth 2 sworn enemies two people or groups who will always hate each other swum /swʌm/ v. the past participle of SWIM swung /swʌŋ/ v. the past tense and past participle of SWING

syc-a-more /ˈsɪkə,mɔːr/ n. [C,U] an eastern North American tree with broad leaves, or the wood from this tree syc-o-ph-ant /ˈsɪkəfənt/ n. [C] (formal, disapproving) someone who always praises an important person in order to gain an advantage, not in an honest way —sycophantic /ˈsɪkəˈfæntɪk/ adj.

syl-lab-if-i-ca-tion /sɪˈlæbrɪˈkeɪʃən/ also syl-lab-i-ca-tion /sɪˈlæbrɪˈkeɪʃən/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the separation of a word into syllables syl-la-ble /ˈsɪləbəl/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS each part of a word that contains a single vowel sound. For example, “cat” has one syllable and “butter” has two.

syl-la-bus /ˈsɪləbəs/ n. (plural syllabi /-baɪ/ or syllabuses) [C] a plan that shows a student what s/he will be studying in a particular subject sym-bi-o-sis /ˌsɪmbiˈoʊsɪs, -baɪ-/ n. [U] 1 a relationship between people or organizations that depend on each other equally 2 BIOLOGY the relationship between two different living things that exist very closely together and depend on each other for particular advantages —symbiotic /ˌsɪmbi'ɒtɪk/ adj.

sym-bol /ˈsɪmbəl/ [Ac] n. [C] 1 a picture, person, object, etc. that represents a particular quality, idea, organization, etc.: The cross is the most important symbol in Christianity. | The dove is a symbol of peace. 2 a letter, number, or sign that represents a sound, amount, chemical substance, etc.: Fe is the chemical symbol for iron. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin symbolum, from Greek symbolon “proof of who someone is, checked by comparing its other half”] sym-bol-ic /sɪm'bɒlɪk/ [Ac] adj. 1 representing a particular idea or quality: A red rose is symbolic of love. 2 important and representing an idea or quality, but not having any real effect: The president's trip to Russia was mostly symbolic. —symbolically adv.: Fairy tales deal symbolically with the problems of growing up.

sym-bol-ism /ˈsɪmbə,lɪzəm/ [Ac] n. [U] the use of symbols to represent things: There's a lot of religious symbolism in his paintings.

sym-bol-ize /ˈsɪmbə,ləɪz/ [Ac] v. [T] if something symbolizes a quality, feeling, etc., it represents it: A wedding ring symbolizes a couple's promises to each other.

sym-met-ri-cal /sə'metrɪkəl/ also sym-met-ric /sə'metrɪk/ adj. having two sides that are exactly the same size and shape [ANT] asymmetrical sym-me-try /ˈsɪmətri/ n. [U] the quality of being symmetrical [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin symmetria, from Greek, from symmetros “symmetrical,” from syn- “together” + metron “measure”]

sym-pa-thet-ic /ˌsɪmpə'θetɪk/ adj. 1 showing that you understand how sad, hurt, lonely, etc. someone feels [ANT] unsympathetic: a sympathetic nurse | Parents aren't always very sympathetic towards their children.

THESAURUS kind, nice, caring, warm-hearted, compassionate → KIND²

2 [not before noun] willing to support someone's plans, actions, ideas, etc. [ANT] unsympathetic: He's fairly sympathetic to the staff's concerns. 3 sympathetic character/figure etc. ENG. LANG. ARTS someone in a book, play, etc. who most people like [ANT] unsympathetic —sympathetically adv.

sym-pa-thize /ˈsɪmpə,θaɪz/ v. [I] 1 to understand how sad, hurt, lonely, etc. someone feels: I can sympathize with the way you're feeling. 2 to support someone's ideas or actions: Very few people sympathize with his views.

sym-pa-thiz-er /ˈsɪmpə,θaɪzə/ n. [C] someone who supports the aims and ideas of a political organization sym-pa-thy /ˈsɪmpəθi/ n. (plural sympathies) [C,U] 1 a feeling of support for someone who is sad, hurt, lonely, etc.: I have absolutely no sympathy for students who get caught cheating on tests. | I'm sorry to hear Bill died; you have my deep sympathy. 2 support for someone's plans, actions, ideas, etc.: I do have some sympathy with their aims.

sym-pho-ny /ˈsɪmfəni/ n. (plural symphonies) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a long piece of music written for an ORCHESTRA [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French symphonie, from Latin symphonia, from Greek, from symphonos “sounding together”] symp-tom /ˈsɪmptəm/ n. [C] 1 a physical condition that shows you may have a particular disease: Common symptoms of diabetes are weight loss and fatigue. 2 a sign that a serious problem exists: Rising crime rates are another symptom of a society in trouble. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin symp-toma, from Greek, “something that happens, symptom”] —symptomatic /ˌsɪmptə'mætɪk/ adj.

syn-a-gogue /ˈsɪnə,gəg/ n. [C] a building where Jewish people go to have religious services [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French synagoge, from Late Latin, from Greek “gathering of people, synagogue”] sync /sɪŋk/ n. (informal) 1 in sync working together at the same time or speed, or in the same way 2 out of sync working at a different time or speed, or in a different way syn-chro-nize /ˈsɪŋkrə,naɪz/ v. [T] to make two or more things happen or move at the same time —synchronization /ˌsɪŋkrənə'zeɪʃən/ n. [U] syn-di-cate /ˈsɪndəkɪt/ n. [C,U] a group of people or companies that join together to achieve a particular aim: the city's largest crime syndicate syn-di-cat-ed /ˈsɪndə,keɪtɪd/ adj. a syndicated newspaper COLUMN, television program, etc. is bought and used by several different newspapers or broadcasting companies —syndication /ˌsɪndə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] syn-drome /ˈsɪndroum/ n. [C] a set of physical or mental conditions that show you have a particular disease syn-o-nym /ˈsɪnə,nɪm/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a word with the same or nearly the same meaning as another word in the same language. For example, “sad” and “unhappy” are synonyms. [ANT] antonym [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin synonymum, from Greek, from synonymos “synonymous”] syn-on-y-mous /sɪ'nɒnəməs/ adj. 1 having a strong association with another quality, idea, situation, etc.: He thinks that being poor is synonymous with being a criminal. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS two words that are synonymous have the same or nearly the same meaning syn-op-sis /sɪ'nɒpsɪs/ n. (plural synopses /-sɪz/) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a short description of the main parts of a story [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Late Latin, Greek, from synopsesthai “to be going to see together”] syn-tac-tic /sɪn'tæktɪk/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to SYNTAX (=the way that words are arranged in order to form sentences or phrases) syn-tax /'sɪntæks/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS the way that words are arranged in order to form sentences or phrases [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French syntaxe, from Late Latin syntaxis, from Greek, from syntassein “to arrange together”] syn-the-sis /'sɪnθəsis/ n. (plural syntheses /-sɪz/) [C,U] the act of combining several things into a single complete unit, or the combination that is produced [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Greek syntith-enai “to put together”] syn-the-size /'sɪnθəsaɪz/ v. [T] to combine different things in order to produce something: Scientists can now synthesize the drug.

S

syn-the-siz-er /'sɪnθəsaɪzə/ n. [C] an electronic musical instrument that can produce the sounds of various different musical instruments syn-thet-ic /sɪn'thetɪk/ adj. made from artificial substances, not natural ones: synthetic fabrics like acrylic and polyester —synthetically adv.

THESAURUS artificial, fake, man-made, imitation → ARTIFICIAL syph-i-lis /'sɪfələs/ n. [U] a very serious disease that is passed from one person to another during sex sy-ringe /sə'rɪndʒ/ n. [C] a hollow tube and needle used for removing blood or other liquids from your body, or putting drugs, etc. into it [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Medieval Latin syringa, from Greek syrinx “tube”] syr-up /'sɒp, 'sɪrəp/ n. [U] thick sticky liquid made from sugar: pancakes with maple syrup [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French sirop, from Medieval Latin, from Arabic sharab “drink, wine, syrup”] —syrupy adj.

T

sys-tem /'sɪstəm/ n. [C] 1 a group of things or parts that work together as a whole for a particular purpose: the public school system | a new computer system 2 a way of organizing or doing something: a filing system | a system of government 3 sb's system someone's body – used when you are talking about its medical or physical condition 4 get sth out of your system (informal) to do something that helps you stop feeling angry, annoyed, or upset 5 the system (informal) the official rules and powerful organizations that restrict what you can do: You can't beat the system (=avoid or break the rules). 6 BIOLOGY the parts in a human or animal body that work together to do a particular job: the digestive system sys-tem-at-ic /,sɪstə'mætɪk/ adj. organized carefully and done thoroughly: a systematic approach to training —systematically adv.

THESAURUS careful, methodical, thorough, meticulous, painstaking → CAREFUL sys-tem-ic /sɪ'stemɪk/ adj. BIOLOGY affecting your whole body: a systemic infection

Tt

T, t /ti/ the twentieth letter of the English alphabet

T /ti/ n. to a T (informal) exactly or perfectly: That dress fits you to a T.

tab /tæb/ n. [C] 1 an amount of money that you owe for a meal or drinks you have had, or for a service: Our lunch tab came to $53. | I'll put it on your tab. | The city is picking up the tab for street repairs (=is paying for them).

THESAURUS bill, check → BILL¹

2 keep tabs on sb/sth (informal) to carefully watch what someone or something is doing: The police are keeping close tabs on her. 3 a small piece of metal, plastic, or paper that you pull to open a container 4 a small piece of paper, cloth, plastic, etc. that sticks out from the edge of something, so that you can find it more easily tab-by /'tæbi/ n. (plural tabbies) [C] a cat with light and dark lines on its fur ta-ble /'teɪbəl/ n. [C] 1 a piece of furniture with a flat top supported by legs: a picnic table | He sat at the kitchen table, reading. | I'll set the table (=put knives, forks, dishes, etc. on a table before a meal). | Can you clear the table (=take the plates, etc. off the table after a meal), please. 2 a table at a restaurant: Reserve a table for four and invite your sisters. | The whole table (=all the people sitting at a table in a restaurant) got up and left. 3 a list of numbers, facts, or information arranged in rows across and down a page: the book's table of contents 4 under the table (informal) money that is paid under the table is paid secretly and illegally 5 turn the tables (on sb) to change a situation completely so that someone loses an advantage and you gain one [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old French, Latin tabula “board, list”] table² v. table a bill/proposal/offer etc. to decide to deal with an offer, idea, etc. later ta-ble-cloth /'teɪbəl,klɒθ/ n. [C] a cloth used for covering a table ta-ble-spoon /'teɪbəl,spun/ n. [C] 1 (written abbreviation tbsp.) a) a special large spoon used for measuring food b) also ta-ble-spoon-ful /-spun,ful/ the amount this spoon holds 2 a large spoon used for eating or serving food tab-let /'tæblɪt/ n. [C] 1 a small round piece of medicine that you swallow (SYN) pill: vitamin C tablets

THESAURUS medicine, pill, capsule → MEDICINE

2 a set of pieces of paper for writing on that are glued together at the top 3 a flat piece of hard clay or stone that has words cut into it

'table tennis n. [U] PING-PONG tab-loid /'tæblɔɪd/ n. [C] a newspaper that has small pages, a lot of photographs, short stories, and not much serious news → BROADSHEET → NEWSPAPER ta-boo /tə'bu, tæ-/ n. (plural taboos) [C,U] a religious or social custom which means a particular activity or subject must be avoided —taboo adj.: a taboo subject tab-u-late /'tæbyəleɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to arrange facts, numbers, or information together in lists, rows, etc. —tabulation /'tæbyə'leɪʃən/ n. [U] tac-it /'tæsɪt/ adj. tacit agreement, approval, or support is given without anything actually being said: Some people think there is a tacit agreement between the government and industry to not enforce environmental laws. —tacitly adv.

tac-i-turn /'tæsə,tɜn/ adj. a taciturn person does not talk a lot, and seems unfriendly tack¹ /tæk/ also tack up v. [T] to attach something to a wall, board, etc. using a THUMBTACK tack sth ↔ on phr. v. (informal) to add something new to something that is already complete: Joan tacked a few words on the end of my letter.

tack² n. 1 [C,U] the way you deal with a particular situation or a method that you use to achieve something: If polite requests don't work, you'll have to try a different tack. 2 [C] a THUMBTACK 3 [C] a small nail with a sharp point and a flat top: carpet tacks tack-le¹ /'tækəl/ v. [T] 1 to try to deal with a difficult problem: The program is a new attempt to tackle homelessness.

THESAURUS deal with sth, take care of sth → DEAL²

2 to force someone to the ground to stop him/her from running, especially in football: Edwards was tackled on the play.

tackle² n. 1 [C] the act of tackling someone 2 [C] in football, one of the players who play on the outside of the GUARDS 3 [U] the equipment used in some sports such as fishing tack-y /'tæki/ adj. 1 showing that you do not have good judgment about what is fashionable, socially acceptable, etc.: It's kind of tacky to give her a present that someone else gave you. 2 cheaply made and of bad quality: tacky furniture 3 slightly sticky —tackiness n. [U] ta-co /'takou/ n. (plural tacos) [C] a type of Mexican food made from a TORTILLA, that is folded and filled with meat, beans, etc. [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Mexican Spanish, Spanish, “wad, snack”] tact /tækt/ n. [U] the ability to say or do things carefully and politely so that you do not embarrass or upset someone tact-ful /'tæktfəl/ adj. careful not to say or do something that will embarrass or upset someone else (ANT) tactless: There was no tactful way of saying what he wanted to say. —tactfully adv.

tac-tic /'tæktɪk/ n. 1 [C usually plural] a skillfully planned action used for achieving something: aggressive sales tactics 2 tactics [plural] the way in which soldiers, weapons, etc. are arranged in a battle tac-ti-cal /'tæktɪkəl/ adj. 1 done in order to help you achieve what you want: His public statement was a tactical move to avoid criticism. 2 tactical aircraft/missile etc. an aircraft, MISSILE, etc. that is used over a short distance during a battle —tactically adv.

tact-less /'tæktfəl/ adj. carelessly saying or doing things that are likely to upset someone (ANT) tactful —tactlessly adv.

THESAURUS rude, impolite, insulting, offensive → RUDE tad /tæd/ n. (spoken) a tad a small amount: Could you turn up the sound just a tad?

tad-pole /'tædpəʊl/ n. [C] a small creature with a long tail that lives in water and grows into a FROG or TOAD

taf-fy /'tæfi/ n. [U] a type of soft CHEWY candy

tag¹ /tæg/ n. 1 [C] a small piece of paper, plastic, etc., attached to something to show what it is, who owns it, what it costs, etc.: I can't find the price tag on these jeans. 2 [U] a children's game in which one player chases and tries to touch the others tag² v. (tagged, tagging) [T] to attach a tag to something: Scientists have now tagged most of the bay's seals.

tag along phr. v. (informal) to go somewhere with someone, especially when s/he has not invited you: Do you mind if I tag along?

tai-ga /'taɪgə/ n. the taiga EARTH SCIENCES a forest of PINE trees (=trees with needle-shaped leaves that stay on the tree in winter) between the TUNDRA and the STEPPES of northern Russia and Asia tail¹ /teɪl/ n. 1 [C] the movable part that sticks out at the back of an animal's body: The dog wagged its tail. → see picture on page A2 2 [C] the back part of an aircraft → see picture at AIRPLANE 3 [C] the end or back part of something, especially something long and thin: the tail of a comet 4 tails a) [plural] a man's jacket with two long parts that hang down the back, worn to formal events b) [U] the side of a coin that does not have a picture of someone's head on it (ANT) heads 5 the tail end of sth the last part of an event, situation, or period of time: the tail end of the century

tail² v. [T] (informal) to secretly watch and follow someone such as a criminal

THESAURUS follow, track, stalk → FOLLOW

T

tail off phr. v. to gradually become quieter, smaller, weaker, etc.: His voice tailed off as he saw his father approaching.

tail-gate¹ /'teɪlɡeɪt/ v. [I,T] to drive too closely to the vehicle in front of you tailgate² n. [C] 1 a door at the back of a car or truck that opens out and down 2 a TAILGATE PARTY

'tailgate party n. [C] a party before a sports event or concert, where people eat and drink in the PARKING LOT of the place where the event is happening tail-light /'teɪl-laɪt/ n. [C] one of the two red lights at the back of a vehicle tai-lor¹ /'teɪlə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to make clothes, especially men's clothes, that are measured to fit each customer perfectly tailor² v. tailor sth to/for sb to make something so that it is exactly what someone wants or needs: The music class is tailored to children.

tai-lor-ing /'teɪlərɪŋ/ n. [U] the way that clothes are made, or the job of making them

'tailor-made adj. 1 exactly right for someone or something: The job seems tailor-made for him. 2 made by a tailor: a tailor-made suit tail-pipe /'teɪlpaɪp/ n. [C] a part of a car's EXHAUST

T

tail-spin /'teɪlspɪn/ n. 1 in/into a tailspin in or into a bad situation that keeps getting worse in a way that you cannot control: Raising interest rates could send the economy into a tailspin. 2 [C] an occasion when an airplane falls through the air, with the front pointing down and the back spinning in a circle taint /teɪnt/ v. [T] 1 to make someone or something seem less honest, respectable, or good: Her reputation was tainted by the scandal. 2 to damage something by adding an unwanted substance to it: The blood supplies were tainted with bacteria. —taint n. [C] taint-ed /'teɪntɪd/ adj. 1 a tainted substance is not safe because it is spoiled or contains poison: a tainted blood supply 2 affected or influenced by something illegal, dishonest, or morally wrong: tainted witnesses

Tai-wan-ese /,taɪwə'nɪz/ adj. relating to or coming from Taiwan

take¹ /teɪk/ v. (past tense took /tʊk/, past participle taken /'teɪkən/) [T]

1 MOVE to move someone or something from one place to another: Merritt was taken by ambulance to the nearest hospital. | Remember to take a jacket with you. | I was going to take some work home.

2 DO STH used with a noun to show that an action is being done: Here, take a look. | I'm going to take a shower first. | Would you mind taking a picture/photo of us? | The new rules take effect May 1. | He took the lead (=went into first place) on the final lap.

3 REMOVE to remove something from a particular place: Can you take the turkey out of the oven for me?

4 STEAL/BORROW to steal something or borrow something without asking someone's permission: They took all her jewelry.

5 HOLD/PUT to get hold of something in your hands: Let me take your coat.

6 TIME/MONEY/EFFORT if something takes a particular amount of time, money, etc., that amount of time, money, etc. is needed in order for it to happen or succeed: It takes about three days to drive there. | It'll take a lot of planning, but I think it can be done.

7 ACCEPT/RECEIVE to accept or receive something: Are you going to take the job? | Do you take Visa? | Take my advice and go see a doctor. | Why should I take the blame?

8 STUDY to study a particular subject: We had to take two years of English.

9 take a test/exam to write or do a test: I'm taking my driving test next week.

10 GET CONTROL to get possession or control of something: Rebel forces have taken control of the airport. | The communists took power in 1948.

11 ACCEPT STH BAD to accept a bad situation without becoming upset: Jeff can't take the stress. | She's taken a lot of abuse from him. | His constant drinking was hard to take (=difficult to accept).

12 MACHINE/VEHICLE if a vehicle, machine, etc. takes a particular type of gasoline or BATTERY, etc., you have to use that type of gasoline, etc. in order for it to work: Most cars take unleaded gas.

13 MEDICINE/DRUG to swallow or INJECT a medicine or drug: He doesn't smoke, drink, or take drugs (=use illegal drugs). | Why don't you take an aspirin or something?

14 TRAVEL to use a car, bus, train, etc. to go somewhere, or to travel using a particular road: I'll take the subway home. | Take Route 78 to Exit 18.

15 REACT/CONSIDER to react to someone or something or consider him, her, or it in a particular way: He takes his job very seriously. | I didn't mean for you to take what I said literally.

16 WRITE also take down to write down information: He's not here; can I take a message? | Let me take down your phone number.

17 FEELINGS/REACTIONS to have a particular feeling or reaction when something happens: His family took the news pretty hard (=were very upset). | She doesn't seem to take a lot of interest in her kids.

18 MEASURE to measure the amount, level, or rate of something: Sit here and we'll take your blood pressure.

19 HAVE SPACE FOR SB/STH to have enough space to contain a particular number of people or things: The station wagon takes six people.

20 BUY to decide to buy something: He gave me a discount so I said I'd take it.

21 SIZE to wear a particular size of clothing or shoes: Jim takes an extra large shirt.

22 not take sth lying down to refuse to accept being treated badly

23 take it upon yourself to decide to do something even though no one has asked you to do it: Parents have taken it upon themselves to raise extra cash for the school.

24 do you take sugar/milk/cream etc.? (spoken) used to ask someone whether s/he likes to have sugar or milk in a drink such as tea or coffee [ORIGIN: 1000–1100 Old Norse taka] → take care at CARE², take care of sb/sth at CARE², take part at PART¹, take place at PLACE¹ take after sb phr. v.

to look or behave like another member of your family: Jenny takes after her dad.

take sth ↔ apart phr. v.

to separate something into all its different parts (ANT) put together: Vic took apart the faucet and put in a new washer.

take sb/sth ↔ away phr. v.

to remove someone or something: One more speeding ticket and your license will be taken away. | He was taken away to begin a four-year prison sentence.

take sth ↔ back phr. v.

1 to admit that you were wrong to say something: All right, I'm sorry, I take it back.

2 to return something to the store where you bought it because it does not fit, is not what you wanted, etc.

take sth ↔ down phr. v.

to remove something from its place, especially by separating it into pieces (ANT) put up: We take down the Christmas tree on January 6.

take in phr. v.

1 take sth ↔ in to collect or earn an amount of money: We've taken in $100,000 so far for charity.

2 take sb/sth ↔ in to let someone or something stay in your house or a shelter, because she, he, or it has nowhere else to stay: The Humane Society took in almost 38,000 cats and dogs last year.

3 take sth ↔ in to notice, understand, and remember things: Babies take in an amazing amount of information.

4 take sth ↔ in to bring something to a place in order to be repaired: I need to take the car in for a tune-up.

5 take in sth to go to see something, such as a movie, play, etc.: Tourists come to New York to take in the sights.

6 be taken in (by sth) to be deceived by someone who lies to you: Don't be taken in by his promises.

7 take sth ↔ in to make a piece of clothing fit you by making it narrower: If we take in the waist, the dress will fit you.

take off

1 take sth ↔ off to remove something (ANT) put on: Your name has been taken off the list. | Take your shoes off in the house.

2 if an aircraft takes off, it rises into the air from the ground

3 (informal) to leave a place: We packed everything in the car and took off.

4 take time/a day/a week etc. off also take time, etc. off work to not go to work for a period of time: I'm taking some time off work to go to the wedding.

5 to suddenly become successful: He died just as his film career was taking off.

take on phr. v.

1 take sb ↔ on to compete or fight against someone: The winner of this game will take on Houston in the championship.

2 take on sth to begin to have a particular quality or appearance: Once we had children, Christmas took on a different sort of importance.

3 take sth ↔ on to start doing some work or to start being responsible for something: Ethel agreed to take on the treasurer's position.

4 take sb ↔ on to start to employ someone: The team has taken on a new coach.

take out phr. v.

1 take sb out to go with someone to a restaurant, movie, party, etc., and pay for his/her meal and entertainment: We're taking Sabina out for dinner.

2 take sth ↔ out to arrange to get something from a bank, court, insurance company, etc.: The couple took out a $220,000 mortgage.

take sth ↔ out on sb phr. v.

to treat someone badly when you are angry or upset, even though it is not his/her fault: Don't take it out on me just because you've had a bad day.

take sth ↔ over phr. v.

to take control of something: His son will take over the business.

take to phr. v.

1 take to sb/sth to start to like someone or something: The two women took to each other right away.

2 take to doing sth to begin doing something regularly: Sandra has taken to getting up early to go jogging.

take up phr. v.

1 take sth ↔ up to begin doing a job or activity: I've just taken up tennis.

2 take up sth to fill a particular amount of time or space: The program takes up a lot of memory on the hard drive. | Our new car takes up the whole garage.

3 take sth ↔ up to begin discussing or considering something: The Senate will take up the bill in the next few weeks.

take sb up on sth phr. v.

to accept an offer, invitation, etc.: A number of students have taken him up on his offer of extra help.

take sth ↔ up with sb phr. v.

to discuss something with someone, especially a complaint or problem: You should take it up with the police.

take² n. [C] 1 an occasion when a scene for a movie or television program is filmed 2 [usually singular] (informal) the amount of money earned by a store or business in a particular period of time tak-en /'teɪkən/ v. the past participle of TAKE take-off /'teɪk-ɒf/ n. 1 [C,U] the time when an airplane leaves the ground and begins to fly: The plane crashed shortly after takeoff. → see picture at LAND² 2 [C] a funny performance that copies the style of a particular show, movie, or performer take-out /'teɪk-aʊt/ n. [C] 1 a meal you buy at a restaurant to eat at home 2 a restaurant that sells this food —take-out adj.

T

take-over /'teɪk-əʊvə/ n. [C] 1 the act of getting control of a company by buying over half of its STOCK 2 the act of getting control of a country or political group, often using force: a military take-over tal-cum pow-der /'tælkəm ,paʊdər/ n. [U] a powder which you put on your skin after washing to make it smell nice tale /teɪl/ n. [C] a story about imaginary events: a fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen | tales of adventure

THESAURUS story, myth, legend, fable, yarn → STORY

tal-ent /'tælənt/ n. 1 [C,U] a natural ability to do something well: great musical talent | his talent for painting | Vinny has a real talent for basketball.

THESAURUS flair, gift, aptitude → SKILL

T

2 [U] a person or people who have talent: The Marlins have some of the best young talent in baseball. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 talent unit of weight or money in the ancient world (9—21 centuries), from Latin talentum, from Greek talanton; from a story in the Bible in which a man gives talents to his three servants, and two of them use them well] tal-ent-ed /'tæləntɪd/ adj. having a natural ability to do something well: a talented actor

THESAURUS expert, accomplished, gifted → SKILLFUL tal-is-man /'tælɪsmən, -lɪz-/ n. (plural talismans) [C] an object that some people believe has the power to protect them

talk¹ /tɔk/ v. 1 [I] to say things to someone as part of a conversation → SPEAK: How old was your baby when she started to talk? | Who's he talking to on the phone? | English people love to talk about the weather. | I was just talking with Louis the other day. ▶ Don't say "talk English/Chinese, etc." say "speak English/Chinese, etc." ◀

THESAURUS

have a conversation – to talk informally to another person or people in order to ask questions, exchange ideas, etc.: I had a brief conversation with him last week.

chat (with/to sb)/have a chat – to talk to someone in a friendly way about things that are not very important: She's chatting with Chris. | We ended up having a chat about sailing.

converse (formal) – to have a conversation with someone: Students like her because she can converse with them in their own language.

visit with sb (informal) – to have a conversation with someone, especially about your personal lives discuss – to talk seriously about ideas or plans: We'll discuss the matter at the meeting.

gossip – to talk about other people's private lives when they are not there: People have started to gossip about his wife.

whisper – to talk quietly, usually because you do not want other people to hear what you are saying: He turned to his mother and whispered something in her ear. | "I love you," she whispered.

2 [I,T] to discuss something with someone, especially something important: I'd like to talk with you in private. | Grandpa never talks about the war. | Those guys are always talking sports/business/politics etc. (=discussing them). 3 talk your way out of sth (informal) to use excuses or explanations to escape from a bad situation: My brother always manages to talk his way out of trouble. 4 [I] to give a speech: Professor Wilson will talk on/about the recent election in Canada. 5 [I] to tell someone secret information because you are forced to: Prisoners who refused to talk were shot.

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 talk tough (on sth) to tell people your opinions very strongly: The governor is talking tough on crime. 7 what are you talking about? used when you think what someone has said is stupid or wrong: What are you talking about? I paid you yesterday. 8 we're/you're talking $500/three days etc. used to tell someone how much something will cost, how long something will take to do, etc.: We're talking at least ten days to fix the car. 9 talk about funny/stupid/rich etc. said in order to emphasize that something is very funny, stupid, etc.: Talk about lucky. That's the second time he's won this week.

talk back phr. v. to rudely answer someone who is older or has more authority than you: Don't talk back to your father!

talk down to sb phr. v. to speak to someone as if s/he is stupid, although s/he is not: He always explained things but never talked down to me.

talk sb into sth phr. v. to persuade someone to do something: Maybe I can talk Vicky into driving us to the mall.

talk sb out of sth phr. v. to persuade someone not to do something: Brenda talked me out of quitting my job.

talk sth ↔ over phr. v. to discuss a problem with someone before deciding what to do talk² n. 1 [C] a conversation: Steve and I had a long talk last night. | I need to have a talk with Suzanne. 2 talks [plural] formal discussions between governments, organizations, etc.: the latest trade talks 3 [C] a speech: Ms. Mason will be giving a talk on/about the Civil War. 4 [U] news that is not official or not completely true: There was talk of the factory closing down. 5 [U] a particular type of conversation or way of talking: I'm tired of all this football talk. → SMALL TALK, TRASH TALK talk-a-tive /'tɒkəʊv/ adj. liking to talk a lot talk-er /'tɒkə/ n. [C] (informal) someone who talks a lot or talks in a particular way: a fast talker talk 'radio n. [U] radio programs on which people talk about various subjects, for example sports or politics

'talk show n. [C] a television show in which famous people answer questions about themselves → TELEVISION

tall /tɔl/ adj. 1 having a greater than average height (ANT small): the tallest boy in the class | tall buildings 2 having a particular height: My brother's almost 6 feet tall.

USAGE

Use tall to talk about the height of people and trees: She's only five feet tall. | a road with tall trees on either side

Use tall to talk about other narrow objects: an old house with tall chimneys | the tall mast of a ship

Use high to talk about mountains, walls, fences, etc.: the highest mountain in the world | How high will the wall be?

Use high to talk about how far something is from the ground: The shelf's too high for the kids to reach.

You can use both tall and high to talk about buildings: one of the highest buildings in the world | a city with crowded streets and tall buildings

3 a tall tale something someone tells you that is so unlikely that it is difficult to believe 4 a tall order (informal) a piece of work or a request that will be extremely difficult to do: Finding a witness to this crime is going to be a tall order.

tal-low /'tæləʊ/ n. [U] hard animal fat used for making CANDLES tal-ly¹ /'tæli/ n. (plural tallies) [C] a record of how much you have won, spent, used, etc. by a particular point in time: Somebody should be keeping a tally of (=writing down) how much we owe.

tally² v. (tallied, tallies) 1 [T] also tally up to calculate the total number of points won, things done, etc.: Can you tally up the scores? → CALCULATE 2 [I] if two numbers, statements, dates, etc. tally, they match exactly: The signatures should tally with the names on the list.

tal-on /'tælən/ n. [C] one of the sharp curved nails on the feet of some birds that hunt → see picture on page A2

tam-bou-rine /,tæmbə'rin/ n. [C] a small drum with small pieces of metal around the edge, that you hold in your hand and play by hitting or shaking it tame¹ /teɪm/ adj. 1 a tame animal is not wild any longer, because it has been trained to live with people (ANT wild): tame elephants 2 (informal) boring and disappointing: "How was the movie?" "Pretty tame."

tame² v. [T] to train a wild animal so that it will not hurt people tam-per /'tæmpə/ v.

tamper with sth phr. v. to change something without permission, usually in order to damage it: Several bottles of aspirin had been tampered with.

tam-pon /'tæmpən/ n. [C] a tube-shaped piece of cotton that a woman puts in her VAGINA during her PERIOD (=monthly flow of blood)

tan¹ /tæn/ adj. 1 having a pale yellow-brown color 2 having darker skin after spending a lot of time in the Sun: Your face is really tan.

tan² n. 1 [C] the attractive brown color that someone with pale skin gets after s/he has been in the sun (SYN suntan): Monica got a nice tan during her trip. 2 [U] a pale yellow-brown color tan³ v. (tanned, tanning) 1 [I,T] if you tan, or if the Sun tans you, your skin becomes darker because you spend time in the sun: I don't tan easily. 2 [T] to change animal skin into leather by putting a special acid on it tan-dem /'tændəm/ n. 1 in tandem (formal) together or at the same time: Police are working in tandem with local schools to reduce car thefts. 2 [C] a bicycle built for two riders sitting one behind the other tan-gent /'tændʒənt/ n. go off on a tangent to suddenly start talking or thinking about a completely different subject tan-gen-tial /tæn'dʒɛnʃəl/ adj. (formal) tangential information, remarks, etc. are only related to a particular subject in an indirect way: His lectures are full of tangential information. —tangentially adv.

tan-ger-ine /,tændʒə'rin/ n. [C] a sweet fruit that looks like a small orange [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French Tanger "Tangier," city in Morocco] tan-gi-ble /'tændʒəbəl/ adj. 1 clear enough or definite enough to be easily seen or noticed (ANT intangible): tangible proof 2 (formal) if something is tangible, you can touch or feel it tangle¹ v. [I,T] to become twisted together, or make something become twisted together, in a messy way: My hair tangles easily.

tangle with sb phr. v. (informal) to argue or fight with someone tan-gle² /'tæŋɡəl/ n. [C] hair, threads, knots, etc. that have become twisted together: a tangle of branches

T

tan-gled /'tæŋɡəld/ also tangled up
adj. 1 twisted together in a messy way: The phone cord is all tangled up. 2 complicated and confusing: tangled emotions tan-go /'tæŋɡoo/ n. (plural tangos) [C] a dance from South America with smooth movements and sudden pauses, or the music for this dance tang-y /'tæŋgi/ adj. having a pleasantly strong sharp taste or smell: a tangy lemon dessert —tang n. [singular]

tank /tæŋk/ n. [C] 1 a large container for holding liquid or gas: a fish tank | a car's gas tank 2 a heavy military vehicle with a large gun and metal belts over its wheels [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Portuguese tanque "pool"] tan-kard /'tæŋkɑ:d/ n. [C] a large metal cup used for drinking beer tank-er /'tæŋkə:/ n. [C] a vehicle or ship used for carrying a large amount of liquid or gas: an oil tanker

T tan-ta-lize /'tæntlaɪz/ v. [T] to show or promise something that someone really wants, but then not allow him/her to have it tan-ta-liz-ing /'tæntlaɪzɪŋ/ adj. making you want something very much: Tantalizing smells came from the kitchen.

tan-ta-mount /'tæntəmaʊnt/ adj. be tantamount to sth to be almost the same thing as something else that is bad: His refusal to speak was tantamount to admitting he was guilty.

tan-trum /'tæntɾəm/ n. [C] if someone, especially a child, throws or has a tantrum, s/he suddenly becomes very angry, noisy, and unreasonable: temper tantrums

Tao-ism /'taʊɪzəm, 'daʊ-/ n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE a way of thought developed in ancient China, based on the writings of Lao Tzu, emphasizing a natural and simple way of life

tap¹ /tæp/ v. (tapped, tapping) 1 [I,T] to gently hit your fingers or foot against something: Someone was tapping on the window outside. | Caroline tapped her feet in time to the music. | He turned as someone tapped him on the shoulder. → see picture on page A8

THESAURUS hit, knock, bang, rap → HIT¹

2 [I,T] to use or take what you need from a supply of something: With the Internet you can tap into information from around the world. | We need to tap the country's natural resources without destroying the environment. 3 [T] to put a tap on someone's telephone: Murray began to suspect that his phone had been tapped.

tap² n. [C] 1 an act of hitting something gently, especially to get someone's attention: Suddenly I felt a tap on my shoulder. 2 an object used for letting liquid, especially beer, out of a BARREL 3 a small electronic object that allows you to secretly listen to someone's telephone conversations 4 on tap beer that is on tap comes from a BARREL 5 a FAUCET

'tap, dancing n. [U] a type of dancing in which you wear shoes with pieces of metal on the bottom, which make a sound as you move —tap dance v. [I]

tape¹ /teɪp/ (Ac) n. 1 a [U] a thin narrow band of plastic material used for recording sounds or video pictures → VIDEOTAPE: Did you get the interview on tape (=recorded on tape)? b [C] a flat plastic case that contains this type of tape: I'll listen to the tape tomorrow. | a blank tape (=one with nothing recorded on it) 2 [C,U] a narrow band of sticky material used for sticking things together (SYN Scotch tape: A photo was stuck to the wall with tape.)

tape² (Ac) v. 1 [I,T] to record sounds or pictures onto a tape → VIDEOTAPE: Did you tape the movie? 2 [T] to stick something onto something else using tape: He has lots of postcards taped to his wall.

THESAURUS fasten, attach, secure, join, glue, staple, clip, tie, button (up), zip (up) → FASTEN

3 [T] also tape up to firmly tie a BANDAGE around an injury

'tape deck n. [C] the part of a STEREO used for recording and playing sounds on a tape

'tape, measure n. [C] a long band of cloth or metal with inches, centimeters, etc. marked on it, used for measuring things ta-per /'teɪpə/ v. [I,T] to become gradually narrower toward one end, or to make something become narrower at one end —tapered adj.: pants with tapered legs taper off phr. v. to decrease gradually: The rain finally tapered off in the afternoon.

'tape re.corder n. [C] a piece of electronic equipment used for recording and playing sounds on a tape —tape record v. [T]

tap-es-try /'tæpɪstri/ n. (plural tapestries) [C,U] heavy cloth with colored threads woven into it to make a picture, or a large piece of this cloth tape-worm /'teɪpwɔ:m/ n. [C] a long flat PARASITE that lives inside the INTESTINES of people and animals and can make them sick tap-root /'tæprʊt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the main root of some types of plants, that grows straight down and produces smaller side roots. A CARROT is an example of a plant with a taproot.

'tap ,water n. [U] water that comes out of a FAUCET tar¹ /tɑː/ n. [U] 1 a black substance that is thick and sticky, used on road surfaces, or on roofs in order to protect them from water 2 a sticky dark brown substance that is produced when tobacco burns tar² v. (tarred, tarring) [T] to cover something with tar ta·ran·tu·la /tə'rentʃələ/ n. [C] a large hairy poisonous SPIDER [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Medieval Latin, Old Italian tarantola, from Taranto city in southern Italy, where such spiders are found] tar·dy /'tɑːdi/ adj. late, or done too slowly: If you are tardy once more you'll have to stay after school. —tardiness n. [U]

THESAURUS late, overdue, belated →

LATE¹
slow, sluggish → SLOW¹

tar·get¹ /'tɑːɡɪt/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 an aim or result that you try to achieve: We're trying to reach a target of $2 million in sales. | It will take a lot of hard work to meet (=achieve) our target this year.

THESAURUS goal, aim, objective → GOAL

2 an object, person, or place that is deliberately chosen to be attacked: a military target | Cars without security devices are an easy target for thieves. 3 the person or place that is most directly affected by an action, especially a bad one: The country is a target of criticism for its human rights record. 4 something that you practice shooting at: Pete missed the target by two inches. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French targette, from targe "small shield"] target² v. [T] 1 to aim something at someone or something: Are the missiles targeted on/at American cities? 2 to make something have an effect on a limited group or area: Which welfare programs are targeted at the unemployed? 3 to choose a particular person or place to attack: Thieves have targeted smaller banks with less security.

tar·iff /'tærɪf/ n. [C] ECONOMICS a tax on goods that are brought into a country or taken out of it: The government may impose tariffs on imports.

tar·mac /'tɑːmæk/ n. [U] 1 ASPHALT 2 the tarmac the large area at an airport where airplanes land and take off [ORIGIN: 1900–2000, from tarmacadam from John L. McAdam (1756–1836), Scottish engineer who invented the process] tar·nish /'tɑːnɪʃ/ v. 1 [T] to make someone or something less impressive or respectable: More violence will tarnish the school's reputation. 2 [I] if a metal tarnishes, it becomes less shiny and loses its color tar·ot /'tærou/ n. [singular, U] a set of cards used for telling what might happen to someone in the future tarp /tɑːp/ also tar·pau·lin /tɑː'pəʊlɪn/ n. [C,U] a heavy cloth or piece of thick plastic that water cannot go through, used to protect things from the rain tar·ry /'tæri/ v. (tarried, tarries) [I] (literary) to stay in a place too long, or delay going somewhere tart¹ /tɑːt/ adj. tart food has a sour taste: tart green apples tart² n. [C] a small PIE without a top, usually containing fruit tar·tan /'tɑːtən/ n. [C,U] a traditional Scottish pattern with colored squares and lines, or cloth with this pattern tar·tar /'tɑːtə/ n. [U] a hard substance that forms on teeth, damaging them

'tartar ,sauce n. [U] a cold thick white sauce often eaten with fish task /tæsk/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] a job or particular thing that you have to do, especially a difficult or annoying one: We were given the task of rescuing crash victims. | A computer can perform (=do) several tasks at the same time.

COLLOCATIONS

easy/simple/routine task – one that is easy to do difficult/impossible task – one that is difficult to do arduous task – one that needs a lot of hard work and continuous effort daunting task – one that causes you to worry or be frightened odious task – one that is unpleasant to do thankless task – one that is difficult and you do not get much praise for menial task – one that is boring and does not need skill to do mundane task – one that is ordinary and not interesting or exciting

2 take sb to task to angrily criticize someone for doing something wrong [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old North French tasque, from Medieval Latin tasca "tax or service to be done for a ruler"]

'task force n. [C] a group formed for a short time to deal with a particular problem, especially a military or political one tas·sel /'tæsəl/ n. [C] a group of threads tied together at one end and hung as a decoration on curtains, clothes, etc.

 —tasseled adj.

taste¹ /teɪst/ n. 1 [singular, U] the feeling that is produced when your tongue touches a particular food or drink, for example how sweet it is: I don't like the taste of garlic. | a bitter/sour/sweet, etc. taste | He no longer has any sense of taste or smell.

T

THESAURUS

delicious – very good

sweet – like sugar

tasty – having a pleasant taste, but not sweet sour – like a lemon (=yellow fruit) salty – containing a lot of salt hot/spicy – containing spices that give you the feeling that your mouth is burning bland – not having an interesting taste

2 [C,U] the kind of things that someone likes: We have similar tastes in clothes. | She never lost her taste for travel. 3 [U] your judgment when you choose clothes, decorations, etc.: She has really good taste in music. 4 [C usually singular] a small amount of a food or drink, eaten to find out what it is like: Here, have a taste and tell me what you think. 5 be in good/bad/poor taste to be appropriate or inappropriate for a particular occasion: The joke was in very bad taste. 6 a taste of sth a short experience of something: The trip gave us a taste of life on board a ship.

taste² v. 1 [I] to have a particular type of taste: The chicken tastes really good. | This milk tastes a little sour. ▶ Don't say "is tasting." ◀ | What does the soup taste like (=how would you describe its taste)? 2 [T] to put a small amount of food or drink in your mouth in order to find out what it is like: Taste this and see if it needs more salt. 3 [T] to recognize the taste of a food or drink: My cold's so bad I can't taste a thing. ▶ Don't say "I am not tasting." ◀ taste-ful /'teɪstfəl/ adj. chosen, decorated, or made with good taste: Frank was dressed in casual but tasteful clothes. —tastefully adv. a tastefully furnished apartment taste-less /'teɪstlɪs/ adj. 1 chosen, decorated, or made with bad taste: tasteless jokes 2 tasteless food is unpleasant because it does not have a strong taste tast-er /'teɪstə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to test the quality of a food or drink by tasting it: wine tasters

tast-ing /'teɪstɪŋ/ n. [C] an event where you can try different kinds of food and drinks: a cheese tasting tast-y /'teɪsti/ adj. having a very good taste: a tasty meal

THESAURUS

delicious, sweet, sour, salty, hot, spicy, bland → TASTE¹ tat-tered /'tætəd/ adj. old and torn: tattered curtains tat-ters /'tætəz/ n. in tatters a) clothes that are in tatters are old and torn b) completely ruined: All his great plans lay in tatters.

tat-tle /'tætl/ v. [I] if a child tattles, s/he tells a parent or teacher that another child has done something bad tat-tle-tale /'tætl,tel/ n. [C] (spoken) someone who tattles tat-too /tæ'tu/ n. (plural tattoos) [C] a picture, word, etc. that is put permanently onto your skin using a needle and ink: He has a tattoo of a snake on his left arm. [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Tahitian (the language spoken on the Pacific island of Tahiti) tatau] —tattooed adj. —tattoo v. [T] taught /tɔ:t/ v. the past tense and past participle of TEACH taunt /tɔ:nt, tɔ:nt/ v. [T] to try to make someone upset or angry by saying something unkind: The other kids taunted him about his weight. —taunt n. [C]

Tau-rus /'tɔ:rəs/ n. 1 [U] the second sign of the ZODIAC, represented by a BULL 2 [C] someone born between April 20 and May 20 taut /tɔ:t/ adj. 1 stretched tight: a taut rope 2 seeming worried: a taut look on his face —tautly adv.

tau-tol-o-gy /tɔ'tələdʒi/ n. (plural tautologies) [C,U] (technical) a statement in which you say the same thing twice using different words in a way that is not necessary, for example "He sat alone by himself." —tautological /,tɔ:tə'lədʒɪkəl/ adj. —tautologically adv.

tav-ern /'tævən/ n. [C] a BAR [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French taverne, from Latin taberna "small simple building, shop"]

taw-dry /'tɔ:dri/ adj. cheap and of bad quality: tawdry jewelry —tawdriness n. [U]

taw-ny /'tɔ:ni/ adj. having a light gold-brown color: a lion's tawny fur

tax¹ /tæks/ n. [C,U] the money you must pay the government, based on how much you earn, what you buy, where you live, etc.: a 13% tax on cigarettes | Everyone who works pays tax. | The city will have to raise taxes to pay for the roads. | If elected, she promised to cut taxes. | *I only earn $25,000 a year after taxes (=after paying tax). | a tax increase/cut [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French taxer "to make a judgment about, tax," from Latin taxare "to feel, make a judgment about, blame"]

tax² v. [T] 1 to charge a tax on something: Incomes of under $30,000 are taxed at 15%. 2 tax sb's patience/strength etc. to use almost all of someone's PATIENCE, strength, etc.: His constant questions had begun to tax her patience.

tax-a-tion /tæks'teɪʃən/ n. [U] ECONOMICS the system of charging taxes, or the money collected from taxes

'tax base n. [C usually singular] 1 ECONOMICS all the people and companies who pay tax, and the total amount they pay 2 ECONOMICS income, goods, and property on which people or companies must pay tax

'tax-ex-empt adj. not taxed, or not having to pay tax: tax-exempt savings | a tax-exempt charity

tax-i¹ /'tæksi/ n. (plural taxis) also tax-i-cab /'tæksi,kæb/ [C] a CAB → see picture at TRANSPORTATION

taxi² v. (past tense and past participle taxied, third person singular taxis or taxies, present participle taxi-ing) [I] if an airplane taxis, it moves slowly on the ground before taking off or after landing tax-i-der-my /'tæksə,dəmi/ n. [U] the process or skill of filling the body of a dead animal, bird, or fish with a special material so that it looks alive tax-ing /'tæksɪŋ/ adj. needing a lot of effort: a taxing job

'taxi stand n. [C] a place where taxis wait in order to get passengers tax-on-o-my /tæk'sənəmi/ n. (plural taxonomies) [C,U] BIOLOGY the process or way of organizing living things such as plants or animals into a system of different groups according to the features that they share, and of giving them names —taxonomic /'tæksə'nəmɪk/ adj.: Both species are members of the same taxonomic family as shrimp.

tax-pay-er /'tæks,peɪə/ n. [C] someone who pays taxes

'tax, shelter n. [C] a plan or method that allows you to legally avoid paying taxes

TB the abbreviation of TUBERCULOSIS tbsp. the written abbreviation of TABLESPOON tea /ti/ n. 1 a) [C,U] a drink made by pouring boiling water onto dried leaves, or a cup of this drink: a cup of tea | We'll have two teas and a coffee, please. b) [U] dried leaves used for making tea 2 mint/herbal etc. tea a hot drink made by pouring boiling water onto the leaves or flowers of a particular plant [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Chinese te]

'tea bag n. [C] a small paper bag with dried leaves in it, used for making tea teach /titʃ/ v. (past tense and past participle taught /tɔ:t/) 1 [I,T] to give someone lessons, especially in a school or college: Mr. Rochet has been teaching for 17 years. | She teaches math at Jackson High School. | Firstly, we teach the children to read. | All students are taught basic computer skills. | We teach students about the dangers of drugs. 2 [T] to tell or show someone how to do something: Can you teach me one of your card tricks? | My dad taught me (how) to swim. 3 teach sb a lesson (informal) to punish someone for something s/he has done, so that s/he will not want to do it again [ORIGIN: Old English tæcan "to show, teach"] teach-er /'titʃə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to teach: my history teacher

THESAURUS

A teacher is usually someone who works in a school: Marie is a high school teacher.
A teacher can also be someone who helps a person learn something: a guitar teacher
A professor, lecturer, or an instructor teaches in a university or college. A professor has a higher rank than a lecturer or an instructor. An instructor is also someone who teaches a sport or practical skill such as swimming or driving: a driving instructor | an aerobics instructor

A coach trains a person or team in a sport: a football coach → SCHOOL¹, UNIVERSITY

'teacher's 'pet n. [C] a child who everyone thinks is the teacher's favorite student and is therefore disliked by the other students teach-ing /'titʃɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] the work that a teacher does, or the profession of being a teacher: I'd like to go into teaching (=become a teacher) when I finish college. 2 also teachings [plural] the moral, religious, or political ideas spread by a particular person or group: the teachings of the Buddha tea-cup /'tikʌp/ n. [C] a cup that you serve tea in teak /tik/ n. [C,U] a very hard yellowish-brown wood that is used for making ships and good quality furniture, or the tree that this wood comes from

team¹ /tim/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a group of people who compete against another group in a sport, game, etc.: Which team is winning? | a baseball/football etc. team → GROUP¹ 2 a group of people who are chosen to work together to do a particular job: a team of doctors | The children must work as a team to solve the problem.

team² v. [I,T] also team up to form a team with another person, company, etc. in order to work together: We're teaming up with another publisher to do the book.

team-mate /'tim-meɪt/ n. [C] someone who plays or works on the same team as you

'team player n. [C] someone who works well as a member of a team team-ster /'timstə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to drive a truck team-work /'timwɜ:k/ n. [U] the ability of a group to work well together, or the effort the group makes tea-pot /'tipɒt/ n. [C] a container used for serving tea, that has a handle and a SPOUT

tear¹ /tɛə/ v. (past tense tore /tɔ:/, past participle torn /tɔ:n/) 1 [I,T] if you tear paper, cloth, etc., or if it tears, you make a hole in it or it breaks into small pieces (SYN rip): You've torn your sleeve. | He tore the envelope open. | Oh no, I tore a hole in my jeans! | Someone had torn some pages out of the book. | Be careful, you don't want your dress to tear! → BREAK¹ 2 [T] to pull something violently from a person or place: The storm actually tore the door off its hinges. 3 [I] to move very quickly, often in a careless or dangerous way: Two kids came tearing around the corner.

THESAURUS

run, sprint, dash, race → RUN¹

tear apart phr. v. 1 tear sth ↔ apart to make a group, organization, etc. start having problems: The scandal is tearing the company apart. 2 tear sb apart to make someone feel extremely unhappy or upset: It tore me apart to see her leave.

tear sth ↔ down phr. v. to deliberately destroy a building: The old high school was torn down in the early '90s.

tear into sb/sth phr. v. (informal) to strongly criticize someone or something: Then he started tearing into her for spending too much money.

tear sth ↔ up phr. v. to tear a piece of paper or cloth into small pieces: He tore up all of Linda's old letters.

tear² /tɪr/ n. [C] a drop of liquid that comes out of your eyes when you cry: She ran away with tears in her eyes. | Garner left the courtroom in tears (=crying). | Suddenly Brian burst into tears (=started crying).

tear³ /tɛr/ n. [C] a hole in a piece of paper, cloth, etc. where it has been torn: There was a tear in his shirt.

tear-drop /'tɪdrɒp/ n. [C] a single tear tear-ful /'tɪrfəl/ adj. crying or almost crying tease¹ /tɪz/ v. 1 [I, T] to make jokes about someone in order to embarrass or annoy him/her because you think it is funny: Don't cry. I was just teasing. | His friends teased him about his accent. 2 [T] to comb your hair in the wrong direction so that it looks thicker tease² n. [C] someone who enjoys teasing people tea-spoon /'tɪspun/ n. [C] 1 (written abbreviation tsp.) a small spoon used for stirring a cup of tea or coffee 2 a) a special spoon used for measuring food b) also tea-spoon-ful /'tɪspunfəl/ the amount this spoon holds teat /tɪt/ n. [C] a NIPPLE on a female animal tech-ni-cal /'teknɪkəl/ [Ac] adj. 1 relating to the practical skills, knowledge, and methods used in science or industry: Technical experts will look into the cause of the crash. | technical training 2 relating to a particular subject or profession: a legal document full of technical terms

tech-ni-cal-i-ty /,teknɪ'kæləti/ n. (plural technicalities) 1 [C] a small detail in a law or rule: The case against him had to be dropped because of a technicality. | He got off on a technicality (=because of a technicality). 2 technicalities [plural] the details of a system or process that you need special knowledge to understand tech-ni-cally /'teknɪkli/ [Ac] adv. 1 according to the exact details of a rule or law: Technically, he's responsible for fixing all the damage. 2 relating to the way machines are used in science and industry: a technically advanced engine tech-ni-cian /teknɪ'nɪʃən/ n. [C] a skilled scientific or industrial worker: a lab technician tech-nique /teknɪ'nik/ [Ac] n. [C,U] a special skill or way of doing something: new techniques for teaching English | Tiger Woods is regarded as a golfer with excellent technique.

THESAURUS method, way, approach →
METHOD

tech-nol-o-gy /tɛk'nɒlədʒi/ [Ac] n. (plural technologies) [C,U] machines, equipment, and ways of doing things that are based on modern knowledge about science and computers: medical technology | The company is a leader in developing new technologies in agriculture. —technological /,teknə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj.: The twentieth century was a time of rapid technological change. —technologically adv.: a technologically advanced country

tec-ton-ic plate /tɛk,tənɪk 'pleɪt/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES one of the very large areas of rock that form the surface of the Earth, and that move around in relation to each other in a way that can cause EARTHQUAKES, etc.

ted-dy bear /'tɛdi ,ber/ n. [C] a soft toy shaped like a bear [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 from Theodore (Teddy) Roosevelt (1858-1919), U.S. president, who liked hunting bears]

te-di-ous /'tɪdiəs/ adj. boring, and continuing for a long time: a tedious discussion

THESAURUS boring, dull, humdrum, monotonous → BORING

te-di-um /'tɪdiəm/ n. [U] the quality of being tedious tee /ti/ n. [C] a small object used for holding a GOLF ball, or the raised area from which you hit the ball teem /tim/ v.

teem with sth phr. v. to be full of people or animals that are all moving around: The lake teemed with fish. —teeming adj.: the teeming streets of Cairo teen /tin/ n. (informal) 1 [C] a teenager 2 teens [plural] the period of your life when you are between 13 and 19 years old: She got married when she was still in her teens. —teen adj.

teen-age /'tineɪdʒ/ adj. between 13 and 19 years old, or relating to someone who is: teenage pregnancy | our teenage son ▶ Don't say "our son is teenage." ◀ teen-ag-er /'ti,neɪdʒə/ n. [C] someone who is between 13 and 19 years old

THESAURUS child, kid, adolescent, youngster, minor, juvenile → CHILD tee-ny /'tɪni/ also tee-ny-wee-ny /,tɪni 'wɪni/ adj. (spoken) very small [Syn] tiny

'tee, shirt n. [C] a T-SHIRT

tee-ter /'ti:tə/ v. [I] 1 to move or stand in an unsteady way: She stood there, teetering in her new high-heeled shoes. 2 be teetering on (the brink/edge of) sth to be very likely to become involved in a dangerous situation: The country is teetering on the brink of revolution.

teeth /tiθ/ n. the plural of TOOTH teethe /tið/ v. [I] if a baby is teething, his/her first teeth are growing tee-to-tal-er /'ti,toutlə/ n. [C] someone who never drinks alcohol — teetotal adj.

Teflon /'teflən/ n. [U] (trademark) a special material that stops things from sticking to it, often used in making cooking pans

tel-e-com-mu-ni-ca-tions

/,teləkə,myunə'keɪʃənz/ n. [U] the process of sending and receiving messages by telephone, radio, SATELLITE, etc.

tel-e-com-mut-er /'teləkə,myutə/ n. [C] someone who works for a company at home using a computer connected to the main office tel-e-con-ference /'telə,kənfrəns/ n. [C] a discussion between people in different places who talk to each other using telephones and video equipment — teleconference v. [I]

tel-e-gram /'telə,græm/ n. [C] a message sent by telegraph

tel-e-graph /'telə,græf/ n. [C,U] an old-fashioned method of sending messages using electrical signals, or the equipment used for sending these messages [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 French télégraphe, from Greek tele- “far away” + Latin -graphus “written”] telep-a-thy /tə'lepəθi/ n. [U] a way of communicating in which thoughts are sent from one person's mind to another person's mind — telepathic /,telə'pæθɪk/ adj.

tel-e-phone¹ /'telə,fəʊn/ n. [C] a PHONE [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 tele- + Greek phone “sound, voice”] telephone² v. [I,T] to PHONE teleph-o-ny /tə'lefəni/ n. [U] IT computer HARDWARE and SOFTWARE that allow a computer to make and receive telephone calls tel-e-pho-to lens /,telə,fəʊtəʊ 'lɛnz/ n. [C] a special camera LENS used for taking clear photographs of things that are far away

tel-e-scope /'telə,skəʊp/ n. [C] a piece of scientific equipment shaped like a tube with special LENSES, used for making distant objects such as stars and PLANETS look larger and closer [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Modern Latin telescopium, from Greek teleskopos “seeing a long way,” from tele- “far away” + skopos “watcher”]

tel-e-scopic /,telə'skəpɪk/ adj. relating to a telescope, or using a telescope: a telescopic lens

tel-e-thon /'telə,θən/ n. [C] a television show in which famous people provide entertainment and ask the people who are watching to give money to help people who need it tel-e-van-ge-lism /,telə'vændʒə,lɪzəm/ n. [U] the activity of giving speeches on television to persuade people to become Christians or to give money to a Christian organization

tel-e-vise /'telə,vəɪz/ v. [T] to broadcast something on television: Is the game going to be televised?

tel-e-vi-sion /'telə,vɪʒən/ also TV n. 1 also 'television, set [C] a piece of electronic equipment shaped like a box with a screen, on which you can watch programs: Will you turn on/off the television? 2 [U] the programs that you can watch and listen to on a television: He's been watching television all day. | What's on television tonight?

THESAURUS

Types of television programs movie/film: There's a good movie on Channel 7 at 9 o'clock.

soap opera – a program that is on TV regularly, often every day, about the same group of people sitcom – a funny TV program which has the same people in it every week in a different story game show – a program in which people play games in order to try and win prizes talk show – a program in which people answer questions about themselves cartoon – a movie or program that uses characters that are drawn and not real drama series – a set of TV programs about the same group of people or about a particular subject, shown regularly: a new drama series about cops and lawyers documentary – a program that gives information about a subject the news: the 6 o'clock news

T

TOPIC

When you want to watch TV, you look in the TV guide (=a list of TV programs) to see what's on. When you decide which program/show you want to watch, you turn on the TV, usually by using a remote control. Many people just turn on the TV and change channels (=television stations) until they find a program they want to watch. If you change channels a lot, you can call it channel hopping/surfing. A lot of people have cable TV or satellite TV, which gives them a lot of channels to choose from. People who watch a lot of TV are sometimes called couch potatoes.

3 [U] the activity of making and broadcasting programs on television: a job in television [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 French télévision, from Greek tele- “far away” + vision (from Latin videre “to see”)] tell /tɛl/ v. (past tense and past participle told /təʊld/)

1 INFORMATION [T] to give someone facts or information in speech or writing: Tell Mark (that) I said hi. | Did you tell Jennifer about the party? | Could you tell me how to make that cheesecake? | She wouldn't tell me why she was angry. | I don't think he's telling the truth. | Dad used to tell us bedtime stories.

USAGE

Tell and say are used differently. You “tell someone something”: I told him the good news. but you “say something to someone”: He always says hello to me. Do not say “I told to him” or “he said me”.

THESAURUS

explain, show → EXPLAIN

2 RECOGNIZE [I,T] to be able to recognize or judge something correctly: I could tell (that) it was a serious discussion. | Use plain yogurt instead of sour cream – you can't tell the difference. | “How long will it take?” “It's hard to tell.”

3 WHAT SB SHOULD DO [T] to say that someone must do something: Tell her to put on her coat – it's cold. | Stop telling me what to do!

4 tell yourself to persuade yourself to do something or that something is true: I kept telling myself to relax.

5 SIGN [T] to give information in a way other than by speech or writing: This red light tells you it's recording.

6 tell time to be able to know what time it is by looking at a clock

7 there's no telling what/how/whether etc. used in order to say that it is impossible to know what has happened or what will happen next: There's no telling how long it will take.

8 all told in total: All told, 40,000 airline workers have lost their jobs this year.

9 STH WRONG [I,T] (spoken) to tell someone in authority about something wrong that someone else has done: I was afraid my little sister would tell on us.

SPOKEN PHRASES

10 (I'll) tell you what said in order to suggest something: Tell you what, call me on Friday, and we'll make plans then.

11 I tell you/I'm telling you/let me tell you said in order to emphasize something: I'm telling you, the gossip in this place is unbelievable!

12 tell me about it said in order to say that you already know how bad something is: “She's so arrogant!” “Yeah, tell me about it.”

13 (I) told you (so) said when someone does something you have warned him/her about, and it has a bad result: I told you. You can't trust her.

14 to tell (you) the truth said in order to emphasize that you are being honest: I don't know how you cope, to tell you the truth.

15 you never can tell/you can never tell used in order to say that you can never be certain about what will happen in the future: They're not likely to win, but you never can tell.

[ORIGIN: Old English tellan]

tell sb apart phr. v.

to be able to see the difference between two people or things, even though they are similar: Carol puts the twins in different color booties so you can tell them apart.

tell sb ↔ off phr. v.

to talk angrily to someone when s/he has done something wrong: She told him off in front of the whole office.

tell-er /ˈtɛlə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to receive and pay out money in a bank tell-ing /ˈtɛlɪŋ/ adj. a remark that is telling shows what you really think, although you may not intend it to tell-tale /ˈtɛltɛɪl/ adj. clearly showing something has happened or exists, often something that is a secret: What are the telltale signs of drug addiction?

te-mer-i-ty /təˈmɛrəti/ n. [U] (formal) the quality of doing or saying something even though you know it may offend or annoy someone or get you in trouble: He had the temerity to criticize me!

temp¹ /tɛmp/ n. [C] an office worker who is only employed for a limited period of time temp² v. [I] to work as a temp: Anne's temping until she can find another job.

tem-per¹ /ˈtɛmpə/ n. 1 [C,U] a tendency to become suddenly angry: John needs to learn to control his temper. 2 lose/keep your temper to suddenly become very angry, or to stay calm 3 have a quick/hot/slow etc. temper to get angry very easily, or not very easily: Her father has a violent temper. 4 -tempered having a particular type of temper: a bad-tempered old man | an even-tempered child (=one who is calm and does not get angry easily)

temper² v. [T] 1 (formal) to make something less difficult or severe: Her criticism is tempered with humor. 2 to make metal harder by heating it and then making it cold: tempered steel tem-pera-ment /ˈtɛmprəmənt/ n. [C,U] the part of your character that makes you likely to be happy, angry, sad, etc.: a baby with a calm temperament tem-pera-men-tal /ˌtɛmprəˈmɛntl/ adj. 1 tending to get upset, excited, or angry very easily 2 a temperamental machine does not always work correctly tem-perance /ˈtɛmprəns/ n. [U] the practice of never drinking alcohol temperance movement n. [C usually singular] HISTORY a group of people whose aim was to prevent or strictly limit the drinking of alcohol, especially in the late 1800s and early 1900s tem-perate /ˈtɛmprɪt/ adj. weather or a part of the world that is temperate is never very hot or very cold: a temperate climate temperate zone n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES one of the two parts of the Earth that are between the POLAR ZONES and the TROPICS, where the weather is not usually very hot nor very cold tem-pera-ture /ˈtɛmprətʃə/ n. 1 [C,U] how hot or cold something is: Water freezes at a temperature of 32°F. | The temperature rose to 102

degrees. | Temperatures could drop to below zero tonight. | Store this product at room temperature (=the normal temperature in a room). 2 sb's temperature the temperature of your body, used as a measure of whether you are sick or not: The nurse took my temperature. 3 have a temperature to be hot because you are sick tem-pest /'tɛmpɪst/ n. [C] (literary) a violent storm tem-pes-tu-ous /tɛm'pɛstʃuəs/ adj. always full of strong emotions: a tempestuous relationship tem-plate /'tɛmpleɪt/ n. [C] 1 a sheet of paper, plastic, or metal in a particular shape, used in order to help you cut other materials in the same shape 2 it a computer document that you use as a model for producing many similar documents tem-ple /'tɛmpəl/ n. [C] 1 a building where people go to worship in some religions: a Buddhist temple 2 [usually plural] one of the two fairly flat areas on each side of your FOREHEAD [ORIGIN: (1) 800—900 Latin templum] tem-po /'tɛmpoʊ/ n. (plural tempos) [C] 1 the speed at which something happens (SYN pace): the tempo of city life 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the speed at which music is played tem-po-rar-y /'tɛmpərəri/ (Ac) adj. existing or happening for only a limited period of time (ANT permanent): a temporary visa | Linda was employed on a temporary basis. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin temporarius, from tempus “time”] —temporarily /'tɛmpərərɪli/ adv.: The library is temporarily closed.

THESAURUS short, brief → SHORT¹

tempt /tɛmpt/ v. 1 [T] to persuade someone to do something by making it seem attractive: They're offering free gifts to tempt people to join. 2 be tempted to do sth to consider doing something that may not be a good idea: I was tempted to correct him, but I didn't want to hurt his feelings. 3 tempt fate to say or do something that may cause problems —tempting adj.: a tempting offer

tempt-a-tion /tɛmp'teɪʃən/ n. [C,U] 1 a strong desire to have or do something even though you know you should not: I had to resist the temptation to slap her. | I finally gave in to temptation and had a cigarette. 2 something that you want to have or do, even though you know you should not: The candy at the check-out counter is a temptation to children.

ten¹ /tɛn/ number 1 10 2 ten o'clock: I have a meeting at ten. 3 ten years old: He's ten next week. [ORIGIN: Old English tien] ten² n. [C] a piece of paper money worth $10 ten-a-ble /'tɛnəbəl/ adj. (formal) 1 a tenable belief, argument, etc. is reasonable and can be defended successfully: The new discovery makes this theory less tenable. 2 a tenable situation can continue because any problems can be dealt with: Continuing to fight in Vietnam no longer seemed tenable.

te-na-cious /tə'neɪʃəs/ adj. very determined to do something, and unwilling to stop trying —tenaciously adv. —tenacity /tə'næsəti/ n. [U] ten-an-cy /'tɛnənsi/ n. (plural tenancies) [C,U] the period of time that someone rents a house, room, etc., or the right to use a house, room, etc. that has been rented ten-ant /'tɛnənt/ n. [C] someone who lives in a house, room, etc. and pays rent to the person who owns it → LANDLORD: The desk was left by the previous tenant.

tenant farmer n. [C] someone who farms land that is rented from someone else tend /tend/ v. 1 tend to do sth to be likely to do a particular thing: People tend to need less sleep as they get older. 2 [T] also tend to sb/sth to take care of someone or something: Rescue teams were tending to the survivors.

tend-en-cy /'tɛndənsi/ n. (plural tendencies) [C] 1 if someone or something has a tendency to do something, s/he is likely to do it: He has a tendency to talk too much. 2 the way in which a situation is beginning to develop or a change that is happening to it: There is a tendency for men to marry younger women.

ten-der¹ /'tɛndər/ adj. 1 gentle in a way that shows love: a tender look 2 a tender part of your body is painful if someone touches it: My arm is still tender where I bruised it.

THESAURUS painful, sore → PAINFUL

3 tender food is easy to cut and eat (ANT tough) 4 tender age (literary) a time when you are young or do not have much experience: He left home at the tender age of sixteen. —tenderly adv. —tenderness n. [U] tender² v. [T] (formal) to formally offer something to someone: Maria has tendered her resignation (=officially said that she is going to leave her job).

ten-der-heart-ed /'tɛndər'hɑ:tɪd/ adj. very kind and gentle ten-don /'tɛndən/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a thick strong part inside your body that connects a muscle to a bone ten-dril /'tɛndrəl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a thin curling piece on the stem of a climbing plant, by which the plant fastens to a wall ten-e-ment /'tɛnəmənt/ n. [C] a large building divided into apartments, especially in a poor area of a city ten-et /'tɛnɪt/ n. [C] a principle or belief: the tenets of Buddhism ten-nis /'tɛnɪs/ n. [U] a game in which two or four people use RACKETS to hit a ball to each other across a net

T

'tennis shoe n. [C] a light shoe used for sports ten-or /'tɛnə/ n. 1 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a male singer with a high voice 2 the tenor of sth (formal) the general meaning or quality of something: the tenor of the president's speech

tense¹ /tɛns/ [Ac] adj. 1 nervous and anxious: You seem really tense – what's wrong? | a tense atmosphere/situation/moment

THESAURUS worried, anxious, nervous → WORRIED

2 tense muscles feel tight and stiff —tensely adv.: She leaned forward tensely, listening.

tense² also tense up v. [I,T] to become tight and stiff, or to make your muscles do this tense³ n. [C,U] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, one of the forms of a verb that shows actions or states in the past, the present, or in the future. For example, “he studied” is in the past tense, “he studies” is in the present tense, and “he will study” is in the future tense.

ten-sion /'tɛnʃən/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] the feeling that exists when people do not trust each other and may suddenly attack each other or start arguing: the racial tension in American society | tension between the union workers and management 2 [U] a nervous and anxious feeling: The room was filled with tension as students waited for their exams. 3 [U] tightness or stiffness in a wire, rope, muscle, etc.: Muscle tension can be a sign of stress. 4 [C,U] a difficult situation in which different needs or ideas affect the situation in opposite ways: the tension between preserving civil liberties and increasing national security 5 [U] the amount of force that stretches something: How much tension can the wire bear before snapping?

tent /tɛnt/ n. [C] a shelter that you can easily move, made of cloth or plastic and supported by poles and ropes: Where should we pitch the tent (=put up the tent)?

ten-ta-cle /'tɛntəkəl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the long thin parts like arms of a sea creature such as an OCTOPUS ten-ta-tive /'tɛntətɪv/ adj. 1 not definite or certain: tentative plans 2 done without confidence: a tentative smile —tentatively adv.

tenth /tɛnθ/ number 10th ten-u-ous /'tɛnyuəs/ adj. a situation or relationship that is tenuous is uncertain, weak, or likely to change: There is only a tenuous connection between the two events. —tenuously adv.

ten-ure /'tɛnyə/ n. [U] 1 the right to stay permanently in a teaching job at a university 2 (formal) the period of time when someone has an important job: the Mayor's tenure in office

te-pee, teepee /'tɪpi/ n. [C] a round tent used by some Native Americans [ORIGIN: 1700–1800

Dakota Sioux tipi, from ti “to live in a place” + pi “to use for”] tep-id /'tɛpɪd/ adj. tepid liquid is slightly warm te-qui-la /tə'ki:lə/ n. [U] a strong alcoholic drink made in Mexico [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Spanish Tequila area of Mexico]

ter-a-byte /'tɛrə,bart/ n. [C] IT a unit for measuring the amount of information a computer can store or use, equal to about a TRILLION BYTES

term¹ /tɜ:m/ n. [C]

1 in terms of sth if you explain something in terms of a particular fact or event, you talk about it only in relation to that fact or event and no others: In terms of sales the book hasn't been very successful.

2 in financial/artistic etc. terms if you describe or consider something in financial, etc. terms, you are thinking of it in a financial, etc. way: A million years isn't a very long time in geological terms.

3 WORD/EXPRESSION a word or expression that has a particular meaning, especially in a technical or scientific subject: I don't understand these legal/medical/technical terms.

4 CONDITIONS terms [plural] the conditions of an agreement, contract, legal document, etc.: Under the terms of the agreement, the debt will be repaid over twenty years.

5 be on good/bad/friendly etc. terms (with sb) to have a particular type of relationship with someone: He hasn't been on good terms with his father for years.

6 SCHOOL/COLLEGE one of the periods that a school or college year is divided into → QUARTER, SEMESTER: When does the spring term start?

7 PERIOD OF TIME a fixed period of time during which someone does something or something happens: The president hopes to be elected for a second term. | Reynolds could get a prison term of up to 85 years.

8 be on speaking terms to be able to talk to someone and have a friendly relationship with him/her: We're barely on speaking terms now.

9 come to terms with sth to understand and deal with a difficult situation: It was hard to come to terms with Marie's death.

10 in the long/short term during a long or short period from now: The company's prospects look better in the long term. [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French terme “edge, limit, end,” from Latin terminus] term² v. [T] (formal) to use a particular word or phrase to describe something: The meeting could hardly be termed a success.

ter-mi-nal¹ /'tɜ:mənəl/ [Ac] adj. a terminal disease cannot be cured, and causes death: terminal cancer —terminally adv.: terminally ill terminal² n. [C] 1 a big building where you go to get onto airplanes, buses, or ships: Our flight leaves from Terminal B. 2 IT a computer KEYBOARD and screen connected to a computer that is somewhere else

ter-mi-nate /ˈtəməneɪt/ (Ac) v. [I,T] (formal) if something terminates, or if you terminate it, it ends: Who has the power to terminate the contract? | It was an agonizing decision to terminate the pregnancy.

ter-mi-na-tion /ˈtəməneɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C,U] 1 the act of ending something, or the end of something: the termination of the marriage 2 a medical operation to end the life of a developing child before it is born (Syn) abortion

ter-mi-nol-o-gy /ˈtəməˈnɒlədʒi/ n. [U] the technical words or expressions that are used in a particular subject: scientific terminology [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Medieval Latin terminus “word, term” (from Latin; TERM¹) + English -ology]

THESAURUS language, lingo, jargon →
LANGUAGE

ter-mi-nus /ˈtəməˌnəs/ n. [C] the place at the end of a railroad or bus line [ORIGIN: 1800—1900, from Latin terminus “edge, limit, end”]

ter-mite /ˈtəmaɪt/ n. [C] an insect that eats wood from trees and buildings ter-race /ˈterɪs/ n. [C] 1 a flat outdoor area next to a building or on a roof, where you can sit to eat, relax, etc. 2 a flat area cut out of the side of a hill, often used for growing crops on [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Old French “pile of earth, terrace,” from Latin terra “earth, land”] ter-ra-cot-ta /ˈterəkəʊtə/ n. [U] hard red-brown baked clay: a terracotta pot [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Italian “baked earth”]

ter-rain /təˈreɪn/ n. [C,U] land of a particular type: rocky terrain

ter-res-tri-al /təˈrestriəl/ adj. 1 EARTH SCIENCES relating to the Earth rather than to the Moon, stars, or other PLANETS 2 BIOLOGY living on or relating to land rather than water [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin terrestris, from terra “earth”]

ter-ri-ble /ˈterəbəl/ adj. very bad (Syn) awful: The food at the hotel was terrible. | a terrible accident | You’re making a terrible mistake. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French, Latin terribilis, from terrere “to frighten”]

THESAURUS bad, awful, appalling, horrific, lousy, horrendous, atrocious, abysmal →
BAD¹
horrible, disgusting, revolting, dreadful → HORRIBLE

ter-ri-bly /ˈterəbli/ adv. 1 very badly: The team played terribly. 2 extremely: I’m terribly sorry, but the answer is no.

ter-ri-er /ˈteriə/ n. [C] a type of small dog

ter-rif-ic /təˈrɪfɪk/ adj. 1 (informal) very good or enjoyable: That’s a terrific idea. | She looked terrific. 2 (formal) very large in size or degree: a terrific shock —terrifically adv.

ter-ri-fied /ˈterəˌfaɪd/ adj. very frightened: The children were terrified of the dog. | We were terrified that the bridge would collapse.

THESAURUS frightened, afraid, scared, petrified, fearful → FRIGHTENED

ter-ri-fy /ˈterəˌfaɪ/ v. (terrified, terrifies) [T] to make someone extremely afraid: The thought of giving a speech terrified her. —terrifying adj.: a terrifying experience

ter-ri-to-ri-al /ˈterəˌtɔəriəl/ adj. 1 [only before noun] relating to land or ocean that is owned or controlled by a particular country: U.S. territorial waters 2 territorial animals or people closely guard the place they consider to be their own ter-ri-to-ry /ˈterəˌtɔəri/ n. (plural territories) 1 [C,U] land or ocean that is owned or controlled by a particular country: Canadian territory | The plane was flying over enemy territory.

THESAURUS area, region → AREA

2 [U] land of a particular type: At that time, the western part of America was unexplored territory. 3 [C] land that belongs to a country, but is not a state, PROVINCE, etc.: the U.S. territory of Guam 4 [C,U] the area that an animal considers to be its own 5 [U] a particular area of experience or knowledge: We are in unfamiliar/uncharted territory (=an area that we do not yet know about) with the new drug. 6 come/go with the territory to be a natural and accepted part of a particular job, situation, place, etc.: You’d better get used to criticism from the press – it comes with the territory. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin territorium “land around a town,” from terra “earth, land”]

ter-ror /ˈterə/ n. 1 [C,U] a feeling of extreme fear, or something that causes this: She ran away in terror. | the terrors of war 2 [U] violent action for political purposes (Syn) terrorism: a campaign of terror against the West

ter-ror-ism /ˈterəˌrɪzəm/ n. [U] the use of bombs and violence, especially against ordinary people, to achieve political aims: an act of terrorism | More security at airports is part of the efforts to combat terrorism.

ter-ror-ist /ˈterərist/ n. [C] someone who uses bombs and violence, usually against ordinary people, in order to achieve political aims: a suspected terrorist —terrorist adj.: a terrorist attack ter-ror-ize /ˈterəˌraɪz/ v. [T] to deliberately frighten people by threatening to harm them, especially so they will do what you want ter-ry-cloth /ˈteriˌklɒθ/ n. [U] thick cotton cloth used for making TOWELS terse /tərs/ adj. a terse reply, message, etc. uses very few words and shows that you are annoyed —tersely adv.

test¹ /test/ n. [C] 1 a set of questions or exercises to measure someone’s skill or knowledge: I have a history test tomorrow. | Paul passed/failed his driver's test. | All students must take a placement test. ▶ Don't say "make a test." Say "take a test." ◀ 2 a medical examination on a part of your body: a blood test | a test for HIV | They don't know what's wrong with her yet – they're running/doing some tests. 3 a process used to find out whether something works, whether it is safe, etc.: In science, we did a test for chemicals in the water. 4 a situation in which the qualities of something are clearly shown: Today's race is a real test of skill. | Living together will really put their relationship to the test (=find out how good it is).

T

test² v. [T] 1 to measure someone's skill or knowledge, using a test: We're being tested on grammar tomorrow. 2 to use or check something to find out whether it works or is successful: None of our products is tested on animals. 3 to do a medical check on part of someone's body: You need to get your eyes tested. | They tested her for diabetes. 4 to show how good or strong something is: The next six months will test your powers of leadership.

tes-ta-ment /'testəmənt/ n. (formal) a testament to sth something that shows or proves something else very clearly: His latest record is a testament to his growing musical abilities.

'test ban n. [C] an agreement between countries to stop testing NUCLEAR WEAPONS

T

'test case n. [C] a legal case that makes a particular principle of law clear and is used as a model for similar cases in the future

'test drive n. [C] an occasion when you drive a car and decide if you want to buy it —test-drive v. [T] tes-ti-cle /'testɪkəl/ n. (plural testicles or testes /'testɪz/) [C] BIOLOGY one of the two round organs below a man's PENIS that produce SPERM tes-ti-fy /'testəfaɪ/ v. (testified, testifies) [I,T] to make a formal statement of what is true, especially in a court of law: Two men testified that they saw you there. | She refused to testify against my husband. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin testificari, from testis "witness"] tes-ti-mo-ni-al /'testə'moʊniəl/ n. [C] a formal statement about someone's qualities and character tes-ti-mo-ny /'testə'moʊni/ n. (plural testimonies) [C,U] 1 LAW a formal statement of what is true, especially one made in a court of law: In her testimony, Susan denied the allegations. → COURT¹ 2 (a) testimony to sth something that clearly shows or proves that something is true: This achievement is a testimony to your hard work.

tes-tos-ter-one /tɛ'stəstə,roun/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the HORMONE in men that gives them their male qualities

'test tube n. [C] SCIENCE a small glass container shaped like a tube that is used in scientific tests tes-ty /'testi/ adj. impatient and easily annoyed: It had been a long day, and we were all getting a little testy. —testily adv.

tet-a-nus /'tɛtˈn-əs, -nəs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a serious disease caused by infection in a cut or wound teth-er /'tɛðə/ n. [C] a rope or chain that is used to tie something to something else —tether v. [T]

tet-ra-he-dron /,tɛtrə'hɪdrən/ n. [C] MATH a solid shape with four sides that are shaped like TRIANGLES

Tex-Mex /,tɛks 'mɛks/ adj. [only before noun] (informal) relating to the music, cooking, etc. of Mexican-American people: a Tex-Mex restaurant

text¹ /tɛkst/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] any written material: The book has pictures but no text. | The disk can store huge quantities of text. 2 [C] a book or other piece of writing that is related to learning or intended for study → TEXTBOOK: religious texts 3 the text of sth the exact words of something: The entire text of the speech was printed in the newspaper. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French texte, from Latin textus "woven material"] text² v. [T] to send someone a text message using a CELL PHONE text-book¹ /'tɛkstbʊk/ also text n. [C] a book about a subject which students use: a history textbook textbook² adj. a textbook example/case (of sth) a very clear and typical example of how something should happen or be done tex-tile /'tɛkstail/ n. [C] any material that is made by weaving

'text ,message n. [C] a written message that you send to someone using a CELL PHONE —text messaging n. [U] tex-tu-al /'tɛkstʃuəl/ (Ac) adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to the way that a book, story, or article is written: a textual analysis of the poem tex-ture /'tɛkstʃə/ n. [C,U] the way that a surface, material, etc. feels when you touch it, and how smooth or rough it looks: fabric with a coarse texture tex-tured /'tɛkstʃəd/ adj. having a surface that is not smooth thal-a-mus /'θæləməs/ n. (plural thalami /-maɪ/) [C] BIOLOGY an area of the brain that sends the information you receive from your eyes, ears, etc. to the CEREBRAL CORTEX than /ðən; strong ðæn/ conjunction, prep. used when comparing two things or people that are different: Jean's taller than Stella. | A used car can cost less than $2,000. | I can swim better than you.

thank /θæŋk/ v. [T] 1 to tell someone that you are pleased and grateful for a gift or for something that s/he has done: We would like to thank everyone for helping. 2 thank God/goodness/heavens (spoken) said when you are very glad about something: Thank God no one was hurt! 3 have sb to thank (for sth) (spoken) used in order to say who you are grateful to: I have Phil to thank for getting me my first job.

thank-ful /ˈθæŋkfəl/ adj. glad and grateful that something good has happened: Our family has a lot to be thankful for. | I'm thankful that no one was hurt. —thankfully adv.: Thankfully, everything turned out all right.

thank-less /ˈθæŋklɪs/ adj. a thankless job is difficult and you do not get much praise for doing it thanks¹ /θæŋks/ interjection (informal) 1 used to tell someone that you are grateful for something s/he has done for you or given you (SYN thank you: Can I borrow your pen? Thanks. | Thanks for the drink. | Thanks a lot for helping out. 2 (spoken) used when politely answering someone's question about you: "How are you?" "Fine, thanks." 3 thanks/no thanks (spoken) said in order to accept or refuse something that someone is offering you: "Do you want another cup of coffee?" "Oh, thanks."

thanks² n. [plural] 1 something that you say or do to show that you are grateful to someone: He left without a word of thanks. 2 thanks to sb/sth because of someone or something: We're late, thanks to you.

Thanks-giv-ing /θæŋksˈɡɪvɪŋ/ n. a holiday in the U.S. and Canada in the fall when families have a large meal together to celebrate and be thankful for food, health, families, etc.

'thank you' interjection 1 said in order to tell someone that you are grateful for something that s/he has done: I really liked the book. Thank you. | Thank you very much. | Thank you for the perfume. 2 thank you/no thank you said in order to accept or refuse something that someone is offering you: "Would you like another cookie?" "No thank you."

'thank you' adj. thank you letter/gift/note etc. a letter, gift, etc. that is given to someone to thank him/her for something

'thank you' n. [C usually singular] something that you say or do to thank someone for something: Please accept this gift as a thank you for your support.

that¹ /ðæt/ determiner, pron. (plural those /ðoʊz/) 1 used to talk about someone or something that is far away from you or closer to another person than it is to you → THIS: My office is in that building. | Who are those boys over there? 2 used to talk about someone or something that has already been mentioned or is already known about → THIS: I've never seen that movie. | Who told you that? | Those were her exact words. 3 /ðæt/ used after a noun as a RELATIVE PRONOUN, instead of "which" or "who": a ticket that I bought last week | Have you met the couple that moved in next door?

USAGE

The relative pronoun that is often left out when it is the object of a verb: She's the woman (that) I love.

You can use that instead of which or who when you are saying which thing or person you mean: This is the man that/who called the police. You cannot use that instead of which or who if you are simply adding information: This is my father, who lives in Dublin. | She owns an old Rolls Royce, which she bought in 1954.

SPOKEN PHRASES

4 that's it a) used when what you have mentioned is all of something or the end of something: It rains in February and that's it for the year. b) used in order to tell someone that s/he has done something correctly: Turn the wheel to the left, yes, that's it. 5 that is used in order to correct a statement or give more exact information about something: It's a seven-day trip. That is, it's five days there plus two days driving. 6 that's life/men/politics etc. used to say that something is typical of a particular situation, group of people, etc.: I guess I made a mistake, but hey, that's life. 7 that's that said when something is completely finished or when a decision will not be changed: You're not going and that's that! 8 that's all there is to it said in order to emphasize that something is simple to do, explain, etc.: We lost because we didn't play well. That's all there is to it.

that² /ðæt; strong ðæt/ conjunction used after verbs, nouns, and adjectives to introduce a CLAUSE which shows what someone says or thinks, or which states a fact, gives a reason, etc.: The rules state that if the ball hits the line, it's in. | Is it true that the Nelsons are moving? | They're showing the movie that you wanted to see. | Have you gotten the letter that I sent you? → so (that) at 50²

that³ /ðæt/ adv. (spoken) 1 that long/much/big etc. used when talking about the size of something and showing it with your hands: It's about that long. 2 that good/bad/difficult etc. as good, bad, etc. as someone has already mentioned: I didn't realize things were that bad. 3 not that much/long/big etc. not very much, long, etc.: It won't cost all that much.

thatch /θætʃ/ n. [C,U] dried STRAW used for making roofs —thatched adj.

thaw¹ /θɔː/ v. 1 [I,T] also thaw out if ice or snow thaws or is thawed, it becomes warmer and turns into water (ANT freeze: The snow was beginning to thaw. 2 [I,T] also thaw out if frozen food thaws or is thawed, it becomes soft so it is ready to be cooked (ANT freeze 3 [I] to become more friendly and less formal: Relations between the two countries are beginning to thaw.

thaw² n. [singular] 1 a period of warm weather during which snow and ice melt: the spring thaw 2 a time when a relationship becomes more friendly the¹ /ðə; before a vowel ði; strong ði/ definite article 1 used before nouns to show that you are talking about a particular person or thing, especially when he, she, or it has already been mentioned or when there is only one → A: the tallest building in the world | the woman I saw yesterday | That's the dress I want. 2 used as part of the names of some countries, rivers, oceans, etc.: the United States | the Pacific Ocean 3 used before an adjective to make it into a noun that refers to a particular group of people: the economic gap between the rich and the poor 4 used before a singular noun to show that you are talking about that thing in general: The computer has changed our lives. 5 each or every: He's paid by the hour. 6 used before the names of musical instruments: Kira's learning to play the piano. 7 used in order to talk about a part of the body: The ball hit him right in the eye! 8 used before a particular date or period of time: the 1960s | the third of May 9 used in order to emphasize that someone or something is important or famous: It's definitely the movie to see.

GRAMMAR

Do not use the when you are talking about something in general using an uncountable noun or a plural noun form: Do you like pizza? | She gets a lot of emails.

Use the when you are talking about a particular thing: The pizza was still very hot. | The email was from a friend in Boston.

Do not use the before the names of airports, train stations, or streets: The plane arrives at Denver airport at 5:30. | The train leaves from Grand Central. | She lives on Carr Avenue.

Use the when you are talking about a particular airport, train station, or street without naming it: We arrived at the airport. | The train was just leaving the station. | They live on the same street.

the² adv. 1 the... the... used in comparisons to show that two things happen together: The more you practice, the better you'll play. | "When do you want this?" "The sooner the better." 2 used in front of the SUPERLATIVE form of adjectives and adverbs to emphasize that something is as big, good, etc. as it is possible to be: He likes you the best.

the-a-ter /'θi:ətə/ n. 1 [C] a building with a stage where plays are performed: the Apollo Theater

TOPIC

You go to the theater to see a play, musical, opera, or ballet. Before you go to the theater, you can reserve tickets at the box office. The place that you pay to sit in is called a seat. You have seats on the floor (=lowest level) or in the balcony (=highest level). You can get a program (=small book telling you about the play, the actors, etc.). In front of the audience (=people watching), there may be an orchestra (=group of musicians) below the stage. During the play there is usually an intermission (=when the performance stops for a short time and people can have a drink).

2 [U] the work of acting in, writing, or organizing plays: She's been working in theater for many years. 3 [C] a building where movies are shown [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French theatre, from Latin, from Greek theatron, from theasthai "to watch"] the-at-ri-cal /θi'ætrɪkəl/ adj. 1 relating to the theater: an expensive theatrical production 2 behaving in a way that is intended to make people notice you —theatrics n. [plural] theft /θɛft/ n. [C,U] the act or crime of stealing something → THIEF: car theft | She reported the theft of $200 from the office.

THESAURUS

crime, robbery, burglary, shoplifting → CRIME

their /ðə; strong ðeɪ/ possessive adj. 1 belonging or relating to the people, animals, or things that have been mentioned, or are known about: The guests left their coats on the bed. | Their daughter is a teacher. 2 (spoken) used instead of "his" or "her" after words such as someone, anyone, everyone, etc.: Everybody has their own ideas about it.

theirs /ðeɪz/ pron. 1 the thing or things belonging to or relating to the people or things that have been mentioned, or are known about: When our washing machine broke the neighbors let us use theirs. 2 (spoken) used instead of "his" or "hers" after words such as someone, anyone, everyone, etc.: Okay, get your coats. Does everyone have theirs?

them /ðəm, əm; strong ðɛm/ pron. 1 the object form of "they": Has anybody seen my keys? I can't find them. | My friends want me to go out with them tonight. 2 (spoken) used instead of "him" or "her" after words such as someone, anyone, everyone, etc.: If anyone calls, can you tell them to call back later?

the-mat-ic /θi'mætɪk/ (Ac) adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS relating to a particular theme, or organized by themes: the thematic content of the book —thematically adv.: The book is organized thematically.

theme /θim/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the main subject or idea in a book, movie, speech, etc.: Love is the main theme of the book.

THESAURUS subject, topic → SUBJECT¹

2 theme music/song/tune music or a song that is always played during a particular television or radio program [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin thema, from Greek, “something laid down, theme”] theme park n. [C] an AMUSEMENT PARK that is based on one subject such as water or space travel them-selves /ðəm'selvz, ðem-/ pron. 1 the REFLEXIVE form of “they”: People usually like to talk about themselves. 2 used in order to emphasize the subject or object of a sentence: Doctors themselves admit that the treatment does not always work. 3 (all) by themselves a) alone: Many old people live by themselves. b) without help: The kids made cookies all by themselves. 4 (all) to themselves for their own use: The kids had the pool to themselves today.

then¹ /ðen/ adv. 1 after something has happened: We could have lunch and then go shopping. 2 at a particular time in the past or future: Just then, the phone rang. | By then, he was married. | My family lived in New York back then. 3 (spoken) said in order to show that what you are saying is related in some way to what has been said before: “He can’t come on Friday.” “Then how about Saturday?” | So you’re going into nursing then? 4 used in order to say that if one thing is true, the other thing is also true or should be the correct result: “I have to pick Bobby up at school.” “Then you should leave by 2:30.” 5 used in order to add something to what you have just said: He’s really busy at work, and then there’s the new baby, too! 6 then and there immediately: I would have given up then and there if my parents hadn’t encouraged me. → but then (again)... at BUT¹, (every) now and then at NOW¹

then² adj. [only before noun] used when talking about someone who did a job at a particular time in the past: the then-President of the U.S.

the-o-lo-gian /θiə'lɒdʒən/ n. [C] someone who studies or writes about theology the-ol-o-gy /θi'ælədʒi/ n. [U] the study of religion —theological /θiə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj.

the-o-rem /θiərəm, 'θɪrəm/ n. [C] MATH a statement that can be shown to be true, especially in mathematics the-o-ret-i-cal /θiə'retɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 SCIENCE relating to scientific ideas rather than practical situations: theoretical physics 2 a theoretical situation could exist but does not yet exist the-o-ret-i-cally /θiə'retɪkli/ (Ac) adv. 1 used to say that something could happen, but it is extremely unlikely: Theoretically, every child should have an equal chance at a good education. 2 according to a theory: Is near light-speed space travel theoretically possible?

the-o-rist /θiərɪst/ (Ac) also the-o-re-ti-cian /θiə'rɛtɪʃən/ n. [C] someone who develops ideas that explain why particular things happen or are true the-o-rize /θiə'reɪz/ v. [I,T] to think of a possible explanation or reason for a particular event, fact, etc.: Police theorize that the two men were working together.

the-o-ry /θiəri, 'θɪri/ (Ac) n. (plural theo-ries) 1 [C] SCIENCE an idea that explains how something works, why something happens, etc., especially one that has not yet been proven to be true: Darwin’s theory of evolution | There are different theories about how the brain works. | The theory that light is made up of waves is commonly accepted.

THESAURUS idea, concept, hypothesis → IDEA

2 in theory something that is true in theory should be true, but may not actually be true: In theory, the crime rate should decrease as employment increases. 3 [U] the general principles or ideas of a subject: music theory [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Late Latin theoria, from Greek, from theorein “to look at”] ther-a-peu-tic /θerə'pyu:tɪk/ adj. 1 relating to the treatment or cure of a disease: therapeutic drugs 2 making you feel calm and relaxed ther-a-py /θerəpi/ n. (plural therapies) 1 [C,U] the treatment of an illness or injury over a fairly long period of time: Ted’s having physical therapy for his back. 2 [U] the treatment or examination of someone’s mental problems by talking to him/her for a long time about his/her feelings: He’s been in therapy for years. —therapist n. [C]: a speech therapist

there¹ /ðeɪ/ pron. there is/are/was/were etc. used in order to say that something exists or happens: There were several people hurt in the accident. | Suddenly, there was a loud crash. | Are there any questions? [ORIGIN: Old English thær]

there² adv. 1 in or to a particular place that is not where you are or near you → HERE: Would you hand me that glass over there? | I know Tucson well because I used to live there. | The party was almost over by the time I got there (=arrived). 2 at a particular point in time, in a situation, story, etc.: I’ll read this chapter and stop there. 3 if something is there, it exists: The money’s there if you need it. 4 be there (for sb) to be ready to help someone if s/he needs help: My folks are great — they’re always there for me. → then and there at THEN¹

SPOKEN PHRASES

5 there is sth also there it is a) said to make someone look or pay attention to something: There's the statue I was telling you about. b) said when you have found something you were looking for: "Where's my purse?" "There it is, on the couch." 6 there (you go) (informal) a) also there you are used when giving something to someone or when you have done something for someone: I'll just get you the key – there you are. b) used in order to tell someone that s/he has done something correctly or understood something: Can you turn just a little to the left? There you go. 7 there used when you have finished something: There, that's the last piece of the puzzle. 8 hello/hi there used when greeting someone, especially when you have just noticed him/her 9 there, there used in order to comfort a child: There, there, it's all right.

there-a-bouts /ˌðerə'baʊts, 'ðerə,baʊts/ adv. near a particular number, amount, or time, but not exactly: The chair costs $50 or thereabouts.

there-af-ter /ðer'æftə/ adv. (formal) after a particular event or time (SYN) afterward: The store caught fire and closed shortly thereafter.

there-by /ðer'baɪ, 'ðerbaɪ/ (Ac) adv. (formal) with the result that: Expenses were cut 12%, thereby increasing efficiency.

T

THESAURUS

therefore, so, as a result/consequently/as a consequence, thus, hence, accordingly → THEREFORE there-fore /'ðɜːfər/ adv. (formal) for the reason that has just been mentioned: The gang was armed, and therefore more dangerous. | It was clear that Lucy was unhappy. Therefore, it wasn't surprising when she quit.

THESAURUS

so – used when saying that something happens or someone does something as a result of something else: They had not eaten all day, so they were very hungry.

as a result/consequently/as a consequence – used when saying what the result of something is: The law on seat belts was changed, and as a result thousands of lives have been saved. | This disease attacks the plant, the flower does not open, and consequently no seeds are produced.

thus (formal) – as a result of what you have just mentioned: The dinosaurs all died out within a short period of time. Thus it seems likely that there must have been some kind of catastrophic event.

hence (formal) – for this reason: The lake has ice on it all year, hence the name "Iceberg Lake."

thereby (formal) – used when saying what the result of something is. You use thereby in the middle of a sentence.: These two companies merged, thereby creating the company that exists today.

accordingly (formal) – used when saying that someone makes a decision as a result of something: The jury found him not guilty. Accordingly, the judge set him free.

there-in /ðer'in/ adv. (formal) 1 in that place, or in that piece of writing: We have studied the report and the information contained therein. 2 therein lies sth used in order to state the cause of something: The two sides will not talk to each other, and therein lies the problem.

there-of /ðer'ʌv/ adv. (formal) relating to something that has just been mentioned: Money, or the lack thereof (=lack of money), played a major role in their marital problems.

there-up-on /'ðerə,pan, 'ðerə'pan/ adv. (formal) immediately after something happens and as a result of it ther-mal /'θəmə/ adj. 1 PHYSICS relating to or caused by heat: thermal energy 2 thermal clothing is made from special material to keep you warm in very cold weather: thermal underwear ther-mo-dy-nam-ics /,θə'moudaɪ'næmiks/ n. [U] PHYSICS the science that deals with the relationship between heat and other forms of energy —thermodynamic adj.

ther-mom-e-ter /θə'məmətə/ n. [C] a piece of equipment that measures the temperature of the air, your body, etc. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French thermomètre, from Greek therme “heat” + French -mètre “-meter”] ther-mo-nu-cle-ar fu-sion /,θə'mounukliə'fyuʒən/ n. [U] PHYSICS NUCLEAR FUSION that takes place when the NUCLEI of light atoms, for example those of HYDROGEN, crash into each other at very high speeds and temperatures

Ther-mos /'θəməs/ n. [C] (trademark) a special container like a bottle that keeps hot drinks hot or cold drinks cold ther-mo-sphere /'θəmə'sfɪr/ n. the thermo-sphere EARTH SCIENCES the highest layer of the Earth's upper ATMOSPHERE, which consists of the EXOSPHERE and the IONOSPHERE ther-mo-stat /'θəmə,stæt/ n. [C] an instrument that keeps a room, machine, etc. at a specific temperature the-sau-rus /θɪ'sɔːrəs/ n. (plural thesauruses or thesauri /-sɔːraɪ/) [C] a book in which words are put into groups with other words that have a similar meaning these /ðiːz/ determiner, pron. the plural form of THIS the-sis /'θɪsɪz/ (Ac) n. (plural theses /'θɪsɪz/) [C] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS a long piece of writing about a particular subject that you do as part of an advanced university degree, such as a MASTER'S DEGREE: He wrote his thesis on 18th century literature.

THESAURUS essay, composition, paper, dissertation → ESSAY

2 also thesis statement ENG. LANG. ARTS the statement in a piece of writing that gives the main idea or the writer's opinion 3 an idea or opinion about something, that you discuss in a formal way or give examples for: His thesis is that large governments no longer work very well. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin, Greek, “an act of laying down,” from Greek tithenai “to put, lay down”]

they /ðeɪ/ pron. 1 the people or things that have already been mentioned or that are already known about: Ken gave me these flowers – aren't they beautiful? | I stopped at Doris and Ed's place, but they weren't home. 2 a particular group or organization, or the people involved in it: Where are they going to build the new highway? | “Naranjas” is what they call oranges in Mexico. 3 they say/think (spoken) used in order to say what people in general say or think: They say it's bad luck to spill salt. 4 (spoken) used instead of “he” or “she” after words such as someone, anyone, everyone, etc.: Somebody at work said they saw you at the party.

they'd /ðeɪd/ 1 the short form of “they had”: They'd been missing for three days. 2 the short form of “they would”: They'd like to visit us soon.

they'll /ðeɪl, ðeɪ/ the short form of “they will”: They'll have to wait.

they're /ðeə; strong ðeɪ/ the short form of “they are”: They're very nice people.

they've /ðeɪv/ the short form of “they have”: They've been here before.

thick¹ /θɪk/ adj. 1 something that is thick is wide and not thin (ANT) thin: a thick piece of bread | a thick layer of paint 2 2 feet thick/12 inches thick etc. used in order to describe how thick something is: The wall is about 16 inches thick. 3 a substance that is thick has very little water in it: thick soup 4 difficult to see through or breathe in: The air was thick with smoke. | driving in thick fog 5 growing very close together with not much space in between: a thick forest | He has thick black hair. [ORIGIN: Old English thicce] —thickly adv.

thick² n. 1 be in the thick of sth to be involved in the most active, dangerous, etc. part of a situation: U.S. troops are right in the thick of the action. 2 through thick and thin in spite of any difficulties or problems: They stayed married through thick and thin.

thick-en /'θɪkən/ v. [I,T] to become thick, or make something thick: Thicken the soup with flour.

thick-et /'θɪkɪt/ n. [C] a group of bushes and small trees thick-ness /'θɪknɪs/ n. [C,U] how thick something is: Roll out the dough to a thickness of 1 inch.

thick-skinned adj. not easily offended or upset by criticism thief /θɪf/ n. (plural thieves /θi:vz/) [C] someone who steals things → THEFT: a car thief | Thieves broke in and stole some valuable jewelry.

THESAURUS offender, robber, burglar, pickpocket → CRIMINAL² thigh /θaɪ/ n. [C] the top part of your leg above your knee → see picture on page A4

thim-ble /'θɪmbəl/ n. [C] a small hard cap that you put over the end of your finger to protect it when you are sewing thin¹ /θɪn/ adj. (comparative thinner, superlative thinnest) 1 something that is thin is not very wide or thick

(ANT) thick: a thin slice of cheese | The walls here are paper-thin (=very thin). → see Picture at THICK¹ 2 having little fat on your body (ANT) fat: He's tall, very thin, and has dark hair.

THESAURUS

slim and slender – used about someone who is thin in an attractive way slight – used about someone who is thin and whose body structure is small skinny – used about someone who is very thin in a way that is not attractive lean – used about someone who is thin in a healthy way: He has a runner's physique: long legs and a lean body.

underweight – used, especially by doctors, about someone who is too thin, in a way that is not healthy gaunt – used about someone who is thin, pale, and unhealthy emaciated (formal) – used about someone who is extremely thin and weak because of illness or not eating anorexic (formal) – used about people who are extremely thin because they have a mental illness that makes them stop eating skeletal – used about people who are so thin that you can see the shape of their bones → FAT¹

3 if someone has thin hair, s/he does not have very much hair (ANT) thick 4 air that is thin is difficult to breathe because there is not much oxygen in it 5 a substance that is thin has a lot of water in it (ANT) thick: thin broth [ORIGIN: Old English thynnne] —thinness n. [U]

thin² v. (thinned, thinning) [I,T] to make something thinner, or to become thinner: She has really thick hair, and the hairdresser thinned it a little (=cut it so that there were fewer hairs). | Thin the paint with water.

thin out phr. v. if a crowd thins out, people gradually leave so there are fewer of them thing /θɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 a fact, idea, statement, action, or event: *A funny thing happened last week. | That's a terrible thing to say. | I have better things to do with my time. | I kept wondering if I was doing the right thing. 2 used to talk about an object without saying its name, or when you do not know its name: *Do you know how to turn this thing off?

THESAURUS

object (especially written) – a thing, especially a hard solid thing: a sharp metal object something – a thing, used especially when you do not know its name or what it is: There's something in my eye.

item – one of the things in a set, group, or list: He saved a few items and threw away the rest.

article – a thing, especially one of a group of things: an article of clothing

3 things [plural] life in general and the way it is affecting people: How are things going at work? | We can't change the way things are. 4 sb's things the things you own or the things you are carrying: Just put your things over there. 5 not know/feel/see etc. a thing to know, feel, see, etc. nothing: It was so dark I couldn't see a thing. 6 there's no such thing (as sth) used in order to emphasize that someone or something does not exist or does not happen: There's no such thing as Santa Claus! 7 the last thing sb wants/ expects etc. something that someone does not want, expect, etc. at all: The last thing we wanted was to start a fight. 8 do your own thing (informal) to do what you want, and not what someone else wants you to do

SPOKEN PHRASES

9 the thing is said when explaining a problem or the reason for something: We want to come, but the thing is we can't find a babysitter. 10 for one thing said when giving a reason for something: I don't think she'll get the part – for one thing she can't sing! 11 it's a good thing (that) used in order to say that it is lucky or good that something happened: It's a good thing the drug store's open late. 12 first thing at the beginning of the day or morning: Let's talk about the report first thing in the morning. 13 (it's) just one of those things used in order to say that something that has happened is not someone's fault or could not have been avoided 14 it's (just) one thing after another said when a lot of bad or unlucky things keep happening to you thing-a-ma-jig /'θɪŋəməˌdʒɪg/ n. [C] (spoken) said when you cannot remember the real name of the thing you want to mention think /θɪŋk/ v. (past tense and past participle thought /θɔ:t/) 1 [T] to have an opinion about something: I think that New York is a great place to live. | I don't think (that) he likes me (=I think that he does not like me). | What do you think of my new car?

THESAURUS

believe – to think that it is true: We believe that the risk is small.

suspect – to think that something, especially something bad, is true but not be sure: She suspected that he was seeing another woman.

consider – to think of someone or something in a particular way or have a particular opinion: I consider him a friend.

figure – used to say what your opinion is: I figure he's at least 19.

guess – used to say what you think is true or likely: I guess he'll be pretty upset when he finds out.

2 [T] to believe that something is true, although you are not sure: I think (that) you're right. | I thought it was going to be sunny. 3 [I] to use your mind to decide something, solve problems, have ideas, etc.: What are you thinking about? | I couldn't think of anything to say. | Just a second, I'm thinking. 4 [I] use your mind to remember something: I can't think of her name. 5 think about/of doing sth to consider the possibility of doing something: I'm thinking about moving to Florida. 6 think of sb to consider the feelings and wishes of another person, rather than just doing what you want: Bill's always thinking of others. 7 think better of sth to decide not to do something that you had intended to do: He reached for his cigarettes and then thought better of it. 8 think nothing of (doing sth) to do something easily that other people consider to be difficult or unusual: Purdey thinks nothing of driving two hours to work every day. 9 think twice to consider a decision very carefully before you decide if you will do it or not: You should think twice before signing the contract. 10 who would have thought? used in order to say that something is very surprising: Who'd have thought being a mother would make you so happy? 11 think well/highly of sb/sth to admire or approve of someone or his/her work: His teachers seem to think highly of him. 12 think positively to believe that you are going to be successful or that a situation is going to have a good result → UNTHINKABLE

SPOKEN PHRASES

13 I think so/I don't think so used when answering a question to say that you do or do not believe something is true: "Will she be back on Friday?" "I think so." 14 I think I'll... said when telling someone what you will probably do: I think I'll go to bed early tonight. 15 I thought (that) used when you are politely suggesting something to do: I thought we could go to the lake this weekend. 16 do you think (that)...? used when you are asking someone politely to do something for you: Do you think that you could give me a ride? 17 you would think (that) also you would have thought (that) used in order to say that you expect something to be true although it is not: You would think someone who can sing that well would take better care of their voice. 18 just think! said when asking someone to imagine or consider something: Just think – tomorrow we'll be in Hawaii! 19 come to think of it said when you have just remembered something that is related to your conversation: Come to think of it, I did see Rita yesterday.

[ORIGIN: Old English thencan]

think back phr. v. to think about things that happened in the past: Thinking back, it amazes me we survived on so little money.

think sth ↔ out phr. v. to think about something carefully, considering all the possible problems, results, etc.: The arguments had not been thought out very carefully.

think sth ↔ over phr. v. to consider something carefully before making a decision: Take a few days to think over the offer.

think sth ↔ through phr. v. to think carefully about the possible results of doing something: Give us time to think it through.

think sth ↔ up phr. v. to produce an idea, plan, etc. that is completely new: Who thinks up the stories for these stupid TV shows?

think-ing /'θɪŋkɪŋ/ n. [U] 1 an opinion about something, or an attitude toward something: They have a different way of thinking about the issue. 2 the activity of using your mind to solve a problem, produce thoughts, etc.: Lance's quick thinking had saved her life.

'think tank n. [C] a committee of people with experience in a particular subject that an organization or government establishes to produce ideas and give advice: a right-wing think tank thin-ly /'θɪnli/ adv. 1 if something is cut thinly, it is cut into thin pieces: a thinly sliced onion 2 with only a small number of people or things spread over a large area: a thinly populated area thin-ning /'θɪnɪŋ/ adj. if your hair is thinning, some of it has fallen out

'thin-'skinned adj. too easily offended or upset by criticism third /θɜːd/ number 1 3rd 2 1/3

'third base n. [U] in baseball, the third place that a player must touch before gaining a point

'third de'gree n. give sb the third degree (informal) to ask someone a lot of questions in order to get information from him/her

'third-degree 'burn n. [C] a very severe burn that goes through someone's skin

'third party n. [singular] LAW someone who is not one of the two main people involved in something, but who is involved in it or affected by it

'third person n. [singular] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a form of a verb or PRONOUN that you use to show the person or thing that is being mentioned. "He," "she," "it," and "they" are all third person pronouns. → FIRST PERSON, SECOND PERSON

'third-person adj. third-person narrative/account/story ENG. LANG. ARTS a story that is told by a third person narrator

'third person 'narrator n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who tells a story from outside the action of the story and who knows everything that is happening → FIRST PERSON NARRATOR

'third-rate adj. of very bad quality

'Third 'World n. the Third World a phrase meaning the poorer countries of the world that do not have developed industries, which some people consider to be offensive —Third World adj.

thirst /θɜːst/ n. 1 [singular] the feeling of wanting or needing a drink → HUNGER: Water is the best drink to quench your thirst (=stop you being thirsty). ▶ Don't say "I have thirst." say "I am thirsty." ◀ 2 [U] the state of not having enough to drink: Many of the animals had died of thirst. 3 a thirst for sth a strong need or desire for something: a thirst for knowledge thirst-y /'θɜːsti/ adj. feeling that you want to drink something → HUNGRY: I'm thirsty – can I have a glass of water? —thirstily adv.

thir-teen /,θɜː'tɪn/ number 13 —thirteenth number thir-ty /'θɜːti/ number 1 30 2 the thirties a) the years between 1930 and 1939 b) the numbers between 30 and 39, especially when used for measuring temperature 3 be in your thirties to be aged between 30 and 39: She's in her early/mid/late thirties. —thirtieth /'θɜːtiθ/ number this¹ /ðɪs/ determiner, pron. (plural these /ðɪz/) 1 used to talk about someone or something that is close to you → THAT: My mother gave me this necklace. | What should I do with this (=something I am holding and showing you)? 2 used to talk about something that has just been mentioned or is already known about: I'm going to make sure this doesn't happen again. 3 used to talk about the present time or a time that is close to the present → LAST, NEXT: What are you doing this week? | We'll be seeing Malcolm this Friday (=on Friday of the present week). 4 (spoken) used in conversation to mention a particular person or thing: This friend of mine said he could get us tickets. | We saw this really cool movie last night. 5 this is... (spoken) used in order to introduce someone to someone else: Nancy, this is my wife, Elaine.

this² adv. used when talking about the size, number, degree, or amount of something: I've never stayed up this late before. | Katie's about this tall now (=said when using your hands to show a size).

this-tle /'θɪsəl/ n. [C] a wild plant with purple flowers and leaves that have sharp points thong /θɒŋ, θɑːŋ/ n. 1 thongs [plural] a pair of open summer shoes, held on your feet by a v-shaped band that fits between your toes 2 [C] a piece of underwear, or the bottom part of a BIKINI, that has a single string instead of the back part thor-ax /'θɔːræks/ n. (plural thoraxes or thoraces /-ræsɪz/) [C] 1 BIOLOGY the part of the body between your neck and your DIAPHRAGM (=area above your stomach) 2 BIOLOGY the part of an insect's body between its head and its ABDOMEN —thoracic /θɔː'ræsɪk/ adj.

T

thorn /θɔːrn/ n. 1 [C] a sharp point that grows on a plant such as a rose 2 a thorn in your side someone or something that annoys you or causes you problems over a long time thorn-y /'θɔːrni/ adj. 1 thorny question/problem/issue etc. a question, problem, etc. that is very difficult to deal with 2 having a lot of thorns thor-ough /'θɔːʊ, 'θɔːʊ/ adj. 1 including every possible detail: The police conducted a thorough search of the property.

THESAURUS careful, methodical, meticulous, systematic, painstaking → CAREFUL

2 careful to do everything that you should and avoid mistakes: As a scientist, Madison is methodical and thorough. —thoroughness n. [U] thor-ough-bred /'θɔːə,bred, 'θɔːʊ-, 'θɔː-/ n. [C] a horse that has parents of the same very good breed

T

thor-ough-fare /'θɔːə,fɛr, 'θɔːʊ-, 'θɔː-/ n. [C] the main road through a city thor-ough-ly /'θɔːʊli, 'θɔː-/ adv. 1 completely or very much: Thanks for dinner; I thoroughly enjoyed it. 2 carefully and completely: Rinse the vegetables thoroughly.

those /ðoʊz/ determiner, pron. the plural of THAT

though¹ /ðoʊ/ conjunction 1 used in order to introduce a statement that is surprising, unexpected, or different from your other statements → ALTHOUGH: Though Beattie is almost 40, she still plans to compete. | I seem to keep gaining weight even though I'm exercising regularly. 2 used like "but" in order to add a fact or opinion to what you have said: I thought he'd been drinking though I wasn't completely sure. 3 as though used like "as if" in order to say how something seems or appears: She was staring at me as though she knew me.

though² adv. (spoken) in spite of that: Raleigh's a nice city. Mark doesn't want to leave Georgia, though.

thought¹ /θɔːt/ v. the past tense and past participle of THINK thought² n. 1 [C] something that you think of, think about, or remember → IDEA: I've just had a thought. I'll ask Terry to come. | Even the thought of flying scares me. | The thought that I might not have a job next year made me nervous. | What are your thoughts on the subject (=what is your opinion)? → IDEA 2 [U] the act of thinking: She sat at her desk, lost/deep in thought (=thinking so much she did not notice anything else). 3 [U] the act of considering something carefully and seriously: You need to give the decision plenty of thought. 4 (it's) just a thought (spoken) said when you have made a suggestion and you have not thought about it very much 5 [C,U] a feeling of caring about someone: Michael never gave any thought to others. | You are always in my thoughts (=used in order to tell someone that you think and care about him/her a lot). 6 [U] a way of thinking that is typical of a particular group, period of history, etc.: ancient Greek thought 7 [C,U] an intention or wish: He has no thoughts of running for President.

thought-ful /'θɔːtfəl/ adj. 1 serious and quiet because you are thinking about something: a thoughtful look on his face | a thoughtful silence 2 kind and always thinking of things you can do to make other people happy: You have a very thoughtful husband. | It was really thoughtful of you to remember my birthday.

THESAURUS kind, nice, considerate, caring, warm-hearted → KIND²

—thoughtfully adv. —thoughtfulness n. [U] thought-less /'θɔːtlɪs/ adj. not thinking about the needs and feelings of other people: a thoughtless remark

THESAURUS mean, unkind, cruel → MEAN²

thou-sand /'θauzənd/ number 1 1,000 2 thousands (informal) a lot of: We've received thousands of letters from fans. [ORIGIN: Old English thusend] —thousandth adj.

thrash /θræʃ/ v. 1 [T] to hit someone violently, often as a punishment 2 [I] to move from side to side in an uncontrolled way: A fish was thrashing around on the river bank. —thrashing n. [C,U] thrash sth ↔ out phr. v. to discuss a problem thoroughly until you find an answer: Officials are still trying to thrash out an agreement.

thread¹ /θred/ n. 1 [C,U] a long thin line of cotton, silk, etc. that you use to sew cloth: a needle and thread → see picture at KNIT¹ 2 [singular] the relation between different parts of a story, explanation, etc.: He lost the thread (=forgot the main part) of his argument.

thread² v. [T] 1 to put thread, string, rope, etc. through a hole: Will you thread the needle for me? 2 thread your way through/down etc. to move through a place by carefully going around things that are in the way: Bikers have to thread their way through traffic, because there's no safe bike lane.

thread-bare /'θredber/ adj. clothes, CARPETS, etc. that are threadbare are very thin because they have been used a lot threat /θret/ n. 1 [C,U] a statement in which you tell someone that you will cause damage or harm if s/he does not do what you want: He made a threat against my family. | threats of violence | a bomb threat 2 [C usually singular] someone or something that may cause damage or harm to another person or thing: a threat to national security

THESAURUS danger, risk, hazard → DANGER

3 [C usually singular] the possibility that something bad will happen: the threat of famine

threat-en /'θretˈn/ v. 1 [T] to say that you will cause someone trouble, pain, etc. if s/he does not do what you want: Sandra threatened to run away from home. | Don't you threaten me! 2 [T] to be likely to harm or destroy something: Pollution is threatening the historical buildings of Athens. 3 [I,T] if something unpleasant threatens to happen, it seems likely to happen: The fighting threatens to become a major war.

threat-en-ing /'θretˈn-ɪŋ/ adj. making threats or intended to threaten someone: a threatening letter three /θri/ number 1 3 2 three o'clock: I'll meet you at three. 3 three years old: Mikey didn't start talking until he was three. [ORIGIN: Old English thrie, threo] three-D, 3-D /θri 'diː/ adj. a three-D movie or picture is made so that it appears to be three-dimensional —three-D, 3-D n. [U]: a movie in 3-D three-di'mensional adj. 1 having or seeming to have length, depth, and height → TWO-DIMENSIONAL: a three-dimensional object 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a three-dimensional character in a book, movie, etc. seems like a real person because s/he has many different qualities → ONE-DIMENSIONAL thresh-old /'θreʃhoʊld, -foʊld/ n. [C] 1 on the threshold of sth at the beginning of a new and important event or development: In the 1990s, we were on the threshold of a new period in telecommunications. 2 the level at which something begins to happen or have an effect on something: She has a high/low pain threshold. 3 the entrance to a room, or the area of floor at the entrance threw /θru/ v. the past tense of THROW thrift /θrɪft/ n. [U] (old-fashioned) wise and careful use of money —thrifty adj.

'thrift store n. [C] a store that sells used goods, especially clothes, often in order to get money for a CHARITY thrill /θrɪl/ n. [C] a strong feeling of excitement and pleasure, or the thing that makes you feel this: For him, nothing beats the thrill of driving a fast car.

thrill² v. [I,T] to feel strong excitement and pleasure, or make someone else feel this: His music continues to thrill audiences. —thrilled adj.: We're thrilled with the results. —thrilling adj.: a thrilling game thrill-er /'θrɪlə/ n. [C] a movie or book that tells an exciting story about murder, crime, etc. → MOVIE thrive /θraɪv/ v. (past tense thrived or throve /θrouv/, past participle thrived, present participle thriving) [I] (formal) to become very successful or very strong and healthy: Cactuses are able to thrive in dry conditions. —thriving adj.: a thriving business throat /θroʊt/ n. [C] 1 the passage from the back of your mouth down the inside of your neck: I have a sore throat. → see picture on page A3 2 the front of your neck: The attacker grabbed Mark by the throat. 3 force/ram sth down sb's throat (informal) to force someone to accept your ideas or listen to your opinions when s/he does not want to 4 be at each other's throats if two people are at each other's throats, they are fighting or arguing with each other → clear your throat at CLEAR², jump down sb's throat at JUMP¹ throat-y /'θrouʃi/ adj. a throaty sound is low and rough throb¹ /θrɒb/ v. (throbbled, throbbing) [I] 1 if a part of your body throbs, you get a regular feeling of pain in it: I woke up with a throbbing headache.

THESAURUS hurt, ache, smart → HURT¹

2 to beat strongly and regularly throb² n. [C] a strong regular beat: the low throb of the music throes /θrouz/ n. in the throes of sth in the middle of a very difficult situation: El Salvador was in the throes of a bloody civil war.

throne /θroʊn/ n. [C] 1 the chair on which a king or queen sits 2 the throne the position and power of being king or queen: In 2002, Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain celebrated her 50th year on the throne.

throng¹ /θrɒŋ, θraŋ/ n. [C] (literary) a large group of people in one place (SYN) crowd throng² v. [I,T] (literary) if people throng a place, they go there in large numbers: Crowds thronged Times Square on New Year's Eve.

throt-tle¹ /'θrɒtl/ v. [T] to hold someone's throat very tightly so that s/he cannot breathe (SYN) strangle throttle² n. [C] a piece of equipment that controls the amount of gas going into an engine

through¹ /θru/ prep., adv. 1 from one side or end of something to the other: He climbed in through the window. | The train went through a tunnel. | We found a gap in the fence and climbed through. 2 from the beginning to the end, including all parts of something: She slept through the movie. | I've searched through my files but I can't find the receipt. | Make sure you read the contract through before signing it. 3 if you see or hear something through a window, wall, etc., the window, wall, etc. is between you and it: I could see him through the window. | Music was coming through the walls. 4 because of someone or with the help of something or someone: She succeeded through sheer hard work. | I got the job through an employment agency. 5 going into an area, group, etc. and moving across it or within it: Planes fly through the air. | a trip through Europe 6 Friday through Sunday/March through May etc. from Friday until the end of Sunday, from March until the end of May, etc.: The exhibit will be here through July 31st. 7 through and through completely: He came in from the rain soaked through and through. → come through at COME, get through at GET, go through at GO¹, pull through at PULL¹

T

through² adj. 1 be through (with sth) (informal) to have finished using something, doing something, etc.: I'm through with the phone now if you still need it.

THESAURUS done, finished → DONE²

2 (informal) be through (with sb) to no longer have a romantic relationship with someone: Steve and I are through!

through-out /θruˈaʊt/ adv., prep. 1 in every part of a place: Thanksgiving is celebrated throughout the U.S.

THESAURUS everywhere, all over sth → EVERYWHERE

2 during all of a particular time: She was calm throughout the interview.

thrive /θruːv/ v. a past tense of THRIVE

throw¹ /θrou/ v. (past tense threw /θru/, past participle thrown /θroun/)

1 THROW A BALL/STONE ETC. [I,T] to make an object move quickly from your hand through the air by moving your arm: Kids were throwing snowballs at each other. | Throw the ball to Daddy. → see picture on page A9

THESAURUS

toss – to throw something, especially in a careless way: She tossed her coat onto the bed.

chuck (informal): Kids were chucking snowballs at passing cars.

hurl – to throw something with a lot of force: They hurled a brick through his window.

fling – to throw something somewhere with a lot of force, often in a careless way: He flung her keys into the river.

cast – to throw something somewhere, especially when fishing: The fishermen cast their nets into the water.

to throw a ball in a sport pass – to throw, kick, or hit a ball to another member of your team pitch – to throw the ball to the person who is trying to hit the ball in a game of baseball lob – to throw or hit a ball so that it moves slowly in a high curve bow – to roll a heavy ball in the game of bowling

2 PUT STH CARELESSLY [T] to put something somewhere quickly and carelessly: Just throw your coat on the bed.

3 PUSH ROUGHLY [T] to push someone or something roughly toward a particular direction or position: Police threw the man to the ground. | She threw open the windows.

4 throw yourself on/down etc. to move somewhere suddenly and with force: Elise threw herself on the bed and started to cry.

5 throw yourself into sth to start doing something with a lot of effort and energy: I threw myself into my work.

6 throw sb/sth into confusion/crisis/chaos etc. to do something that causes people to be confused, worried, etc.: The changes to welfare threw millions of children deeper into poverty.

7 MOVE HANDS/HEAD ETC. [T] to suddenly move your hands, arms, head, etc. in a particular direction: Vic threw his head back and laughed.

8 throw sb in jail/prison (informal) to put someone in prison

9 throw sb (spoken) to confuse or shock someone, especially by suddenly saying something: His reaction threw me for a loop (=completely confused me).

10 throw a party to organize a party and invite people

11 throw a glance/look/smile etc. (at sb) to quickly look at someone, smile at someone, etc., especially in a way that shows what you are feeling: He threw her a worried look.

12 throw a game/fight to deliberately lose a game or fight that you could have won

13 throw the book at sb to punish someone as severely as possible

14 MAKE SB FALL [T] if a horse throws its rider, it makes him/her fall off throw sth ↔ away phr. v.

1 to get rid of something that you do not want or need: Instead of throwing away junk mail, recycle it.

2 to lose or waste a chance, advantage, etc.: The Wildcats just threw away their shot at the championship.

throw in phr. v.

1 throw sth ↔ in to add something, especially to what you are selling: I bought a new computer with some software thrown in.

2 throw in the towel (informal) to admit that you have been defeated throw sb/sth ↔ off phr. v.

1 to take off a piece of clothing quickly and carelessly

2 to escape from someone or become free from something or someone: During the American Revolution, the colonists threw off British rule.

3 to confuse a situation or make it not work correctly: The changes will throw off the schedule.

throw sth ↔ on phr. v.

to put on a piece of clothing quickly and carelessly throw sb/sth ↔ out phr. v.

1 to get rid of someone or something that you do not want or need: I threw a lot of stuff out.

2 to make someone leave a place quickly because s/he has behaved badly: Cooper got thrown out of the Navy for taking drugs.

3 if people throw out a plan or suggestion, they refuse to accept it throw sth ↔ together phr. v.

to make something quickly and not very carefully: How about throwing some sandwiches together?

throw up phr. v. (informal)

to VOMIT

throw² n. [C] an action in which someone throws something: a good throw to first base throw-a-way /'θrouə,weɪ/ adj. 1 throwaway remark/line etc. a short remark that is said quickly and without thinking carefully 2 throw-away society a society that wastes things instead of caring about the environment throw-back /'θroubæk/ n. [C usually singular] something that is similar to something that existed in the past: The machine looks like a throwback to an earlier era.

thrown /θroun/ v. the past participle of THROW thru /θru/ prep., adj., adv. (informal) THROUGH thrust¹ /θrʌst/ v. (past tense and past participle thrust) [T] 1 to push something somewhere with a sudden or violent movement: Dean thrust some money into the driver's hand.

THESAURUS shove, stick → SHOVE

2 to be put in a difficult situation or forced to accept it: The incident thrust the nation into an economic crisis.

thrust² n. 1 the thrust the main meaning or most important part of what someone says or does: The main/major/whole thrust of his argument is that all of life is political. 2 [U] PHYSICS the force of an engine that makes a car, train, or airplane move forward thru-way /'θruweɪ/ n. [C] a wide road for fast traffic thud /θʌd/ n. [C] the low sound that is made by a heavy object hitting something else: He landed with a thud. —thud v. [I] thug /θʌg/ n. [C] a violent man

thumb¹ /θʌm/ n. [C] 1 the short thick finger on the side of your hand that helps you to hold things → see picture at HAND¹ 2 give/get the thumbs up/down to show that you approve or disapprove of something, or that you are ready to do something: His new movie got the thumbs up from the public. | Ralph gave Captain Baker the thumbs-up sign. 3 be under sb's thumb if you are under someone's thumb, s/he controls what you do → rule of thumb at RULE¹, stick out (like a sore thumb) at STICK OUT

thumb² v. thumb your nose at sb/sth to show that you do not respect rules, laws, someone's opinion, etc.: Protesters feel the government is thumbing its nose at citizens' basic rights.

thumb through sth phr. v. to look through a book, magazine, etc. quickly thumb-nail¹ /'θʌmneɪl/ n. [C] the nail on your thumb thumbnail² adj. thumbnail sketch/description a short description that gives only the main facts thumb-tack /'θʌmtæk/ n. [C] a short pin with a wide flat top, used for attaching papers to walls thump /θʌmp/ v. 1 [I,T] to make a dull sound by hitting against something: The dog thumped his tail on the floor. 2 [I] if your heart thumps, it beats very quickly because you are frightened or excited 3 [T] (informal) to hit someone: Brasco thumped him on the back. —thump n. [C]

thun-der¹ /'θʌndə/ n. [U] the loud noise that you hear during a storm, usually after a flash of LIGHTNING: a storm with thunder and lightning | Suddenly, there was a great clap/crack of thunder. [ORIGIN: Old English thunor] thunder² v. 1 it thunders if it thunders, a loud noise comes from the sky, usually after LIGHTNING 2 [I] to make a very loud noise: The kids came thundering downstairs.

thun-der-bolt /'θʌndə,bəʊlt/ n. [C] a flash of LIGHTNING that hits something thun-der-clap /'θʌndə,klep/ n. [C] a loud noise of thunder thun-der-cloud /'θʌndə,klaud/ n. [C] a large dark cloud in a storm thun-der-ous /'θʌndərəs/ adj. extremely loud: thunderous applause → LOUD¹

thun-der-storm /'θʌndə,stɔ:m/ n. [C] a storm with thunder and LIGHTNING

thun-der-struck /'θʌndə,stra:k/ adj. extremely surprised or shocked

Thurs-day /'θɜ:zdi, -deɪ/ (written abbreviation Thurs.) n. [C,U] the fifth day of the week, between Wednesday and Friday: I tried to call you Thursday. | Kim is leaving for Chicago on Thursday. | He was arrested last Thursday. | I made the appointment for next Thursday. | Jason arrived late Thursday night. [ORIGIN: Old English Thunresdæg, from Thunor god of the sky + dæg "day"]

thus /ðʌs/ adv. (formal) 1 as a result of something that you have just mentioned (SYN so): Traffic will become heavier, thus increasing pollution.

THESAURUS therefore, so, as a result/consequently/as a consequence, hence, thereby, accordingly → THEREFORE

2 in this way: The oil spill could thus contaminate the water supply. 3 thus far until now: Reviewers have said it's the best movie thus far this year.

thwart /θwɔːt/ v. [T] to prevent someone from doing what s/he is trying to do thy-roid /'θaɪrɔɪd/ also 'thyroid gland n. [C] BIOLOGY an organ in your neck that produces HORMONES (=substances that affect the way your body grows and the way you behave) ti-a-ra /ti'ərə, ti'ɛrə/ n. [C] a piece of jewelry like a small CROWN

tib-i-a /'tɪbiə/ n. (plural tibias or tibiae /-bi-i/) [C] BIOLOGY a bone in the front of your leg → FIBULA

tic /tɪk/ n. [C] a sudden movement of a muscle in your face, that you cannot control tick¹ /tɪk/ n. [C] 1 the short repeated sound that a clock or watch makes every second 2 a small creature with eight legs that attaches itself to animals and sucks their blood tick² v. 1 [I] if a clock or watch ticks, it makes a short sound every second 2 what makes sb tick (informal) the reasons that someone behaves in a particular way tick sb/sth ↔ off phr. v. 1 (informal) to annoy someone: Her attitude really ticks me off. 2 to tell someone a list of things: McCoy ticked off a list of the speakers.

,ticked-off adj. (informal) very annoyed

tick-et /'tɪkɪt/ n. [C] 1 a printed piece of paper that shows that you have paid to do something, for example see a movie or travel on an airplane: two tickets to/for the Lakers game | a concert/bus/airplane ticket

THESAURUS

Types of tickets

one-way ticket – a ticket that lets you go to a place but not back again round-trip ticket – a ticket that lets you go to a place and back again off-peak ticket – a ticket that is cheaper than the usual price because you cannot use it at the busiest times season ticket – a ticket that lets you make the same trip every day for a particular period of time

e-ticket – a ticket that you buy over the Internet, which you print from your computer or which you pick up when you arrive at the airport to go on your trip

2 a printed note saying that you must pay money because you have done something illegal while driving or parking your car: a speeding/parking ticket 3 a list of the people supported by a particular political party in an election: the Democratic ticket [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Early French etiquet “notice attached to something,” from Old French estiquier “to attach”] ticket² v. [T] to give someone a ticket for parking his/her car in the wrong place or for driving too fast tick-le¹ /'tɪkəl/ v. 1 [T] to move your fingers lightly over someone's body in order to make him/her laugh: Stop tickling me!

THESAURUS touch, feel, stroke, rub, scratch, pat, pet, brush, caress → TOUCH¹

2 [I,T] if something touching your body tickles you, it makes you want to rub your body because it is uncomfortable: Mommy, this blanket tickles. 3 [T] if a situation, remark, etc. tickles you, it amuses or pleases you: Mom will be tickled pink/tickled to death (=very pleased) when she hears you're coming.

tickle² n. [C] a feeling in your throat that makes you want to cough tick-lish /'tɪklɪʃ/ adj. 1 someone who is ticklish is very easy to tickle 2 (informal) a ticklish situation or problem must be dealt with very carefully tic-tac-toe /tɪk tæk 'toʊ/ n. [U] a children's game in which two players draw the marks X and O in a pattern of nine squares, trying to get three in a row

tid-al /'taɪdl/ adj. relating to the regular rising and falling of the ocean: tidal pools

'tidal wave n. [C] a very large ocean wave that flows over the land and destroys things tid-bit /'tɪd,bɪt/ n. [C] 1 a small piece of food that tastes good 2 a small piece of interesting information, news, etc.

tide¹ /taɪd/ n. 1 [C] the regular rising and falling of the level of the ocean: It's high/low tide. → NEAP TIDE, SPRING TIDE 2 [singular] the way in which events or people's opinions are developing: The tide has turned, and more jobs are being created than lost. 3 [singular] a large amount of something that is increasing: a rising tide of hate crimes

tide² v.

tide sb over phr. v. to help someone deal with a difficult time: Could you lend me $50 to tide me over until payday?

ti-dy /'taɪdi/ adj. carefully arranged, and not messy

tie¹ /taɪ/ v. (past tense and past participle tied, present participle tying, third person singular ties) 1 [I,T] to fasten something or hold it in a particular position using a rope, string, etc.: The dress ties in the back. | She tied the scarf around her neck. | a dog tied to the fence

THESAURUS fasten, attach, secure, join, glue, tape, staple, clip, button (up), zip (up) → FASTEN

2 [T] to make a knot in a rope, string, etc.: Can you tie your shoelaces yet? 3 [I] also be tied to have the same number of points in a competition: The two teams are tied for first place. | The score is tied. 4 be tied to sth to be related to something and dependent on it: Pay is tied to performance.

tie sb down phr. v. to stop someone from being free to do what s/he wants to do: I didn't want to be tied down with a child.

tie in phr. v. if one idea or statement ties in with another one, they are similar or related: The displays tie in with the advertising campaign.

tie sb/sth ↔ up phr. v. 1 to tie someone's arms, legs, etc. so that s/he cannot move: They had tied her up so she couldn't escape. 2 to fasten something together by using string or rope: The package was tied up with string. 3 to use a system so much that it stops working effectively: Sorry I'm late – I got tied up in traffic. | The case could tie up the courts for months. 4 be tied up a) to be very busy b) if your money is tied up in something, it is all being used for that thing: Our money's tied up in real estate.

tie² n. [C] 1 a long narrow piece of cloth that men wear around their neck, tied in a knot outside their shirts → see picture at CLOTHES 2 a relationship between two people, groups, or countries: close family ties | diplomatic/economic/political etc. ties with Japan 3 a piece of string, wire, etc. used in order to fasten or close something such as a bag 4 the result of a game, competition, or election in which two or more people get the same number of points, votes, etc.: The game ended in a tie.

tie-breaker /ˈtaɪbreɪkər/ n. [C] an additional question or point that decides the winner when two people or teams are tied tie-dye v. [T] to make a pattern on clothing or other material by tying string around it and coloring it with DYE tier /tɪr/ n. [C] 1 one of several layers or levels that rise up one above another: the top tier of seats 2 one of several levels in an organization or system: four tiers of management tiff /tɪf/ n. [C] a slight argument between friends ti-ger /ˈtɪgər/ n. [C] a large strong wild cat with orange and black lines on its fur tight¹ /taɪt/ adj.

1 CLOTHES fitting part of your body very closely: These shoes feel too tight. | tight jeans

2 FIRMLY PULLED pulled or stretched firmly: a tight bandage

3 FIRMLY FIXED firmly fixed and difficult to move: Make sure the screws are tight.

4 FIRMLY CONTROLLED controlled very strictly and firmly: Security is tight for the President's visit.

5 MONEY a) (informal) if money is tight, you do not have enough of it b) (disapproving) someone who is tight tries hard to avoid spending money

6 TIME if time is tight, it is difficult for you to do the things you need to do in the time you have: a tight schedule

7 COMPETITION a tight election, game, competition, etc. is one in which the competitors have an almost equal chance of winning: a tight race for the Senate seat —tightly adv.

tight² adv. very firmly or closely (SYN) tightly: Hold tight and don't let go. | Put the lid on tight. | tight-fitting jeans tight-en /ˈtaɪtən/ v. 1 [T] to close or fasten something firmly by turning it: Tighten the clamps in place. 2 [I,T] if you tighten a rope, wire, STRAP, etc., or if it tightens, it is stretched or pulled until it is tight: I tightened the bindings of the snowshoes. 3 [T] also tighten up to make a rule, law, or system more strict: The government has tightened border controls. 4 [I,T] if your muscles or a part of your body tightens, or you tighten it, it becomes stiff: Miguel's lips tightened in anger. 5 [I,T] to close firmly around something: Richard tightened his grip on her arm. 6 tighten your belt (informal) to try to spend less money than you usually spend tight-fisted adj. (informal, disapproving) not generous with money (SYN) stingy tight-lipped adj. not willing to talk about something tight-rope /ˈtaɪtˈroʊp/ n. [C] a rope or wire high above the ground that someone walks along in a CIRCUS tights /taɪts/ n. [plural] a piece of women's clothing made of thick colored material that fits tightly over the feet and legs and goes up to the waist til-de /ˈtɪldə/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a mark (˘) that is placed over the letter "n" in Spanish when it is to be pronounced /ny/tile /taɪl/ n. [C] a thin square piece of baked clay or other material that is used for covering roofs, walls, or floors —tile v. [T] till¹ /tɪl, tɪ/ prep., conjunction (spoken) until: I was up till 1:00 a.m.

till² v. [T] to prepare land for growing crops tilt /tɪlt/ v. [I,T] 1 to move into a position where one side is higher than the other, or to make something do this: She listened, her head tilted to one side. 2 if an opinion or situation tilts, or something tilts it, it changes so that people start to prefer one person, belief, or action to others: Public opinion had been tilting toward supporting the war. —tilt n. [C,U] tim-ber /ˈtɪmbər/ n. [U] trees that are cut down and used for building or making things time¹ /taɪm/ n.

1 MINUTES/HOURS ETC. [U] the thing that is measured in minutes, hours, years, etc. using clocks: Time seemed to pass/go by very quickly. | a three-month period of time

T

2 ON THE CLOCK [singular] a particular point in time that is shown on a clock in hours and minutes: What time is it? | Evan is just learning to tell time (=look at a clock to see what time it is).

3 OCCASION [C] an occasion when something happens or someone does something: We visit him two or three times a month. | When was the first/last time you saw Kelly? | It makes me laugh every/each time I see it. | The next time you come, we'll go to a show. | Smoking is not allowed at any time.

4 HOW OFTEN/HOW LONG [singular, U] a period of time during which something happens or someone does something, used especially to emphasize how often or how long it happens: I used to play tennis all the time (=often). | They seem to spend most of the time arguing (=they argue a lot). | Mandy's been gone for a long/short time. | Patty whined the whole time (=during all of a period of time). | These pictures were taken some time ago (=a fairly long time ago).

5 WHEN STH HAPPENS [C,U] the particular minute, hour, day, etc. when something happens or someone does something: At that/the time (=at that particular time in the past), few people had cars. | I was really hungry by the time I got home. | We left the building at the same time. ▶ Don't say "in the same time." ◀ | The program's on at breakfast/supper time. | You've caught me at a bad time (=a time that is not convenient) – can I call you back later? | This isn't the right time to ask for a raise.

6 it's time... used in order to say when something should be done, should happen, or is expected to happen: It's time for dinner. | It's time to go.

7 TIME NEEDED [U] the amount of time that is available or needed to do something: Learning a language takes time (=takes a long time). | I won't have time to cook dinner. | I want to spend more time with my family. | Come on – stop wasting time. | There is time for questions afterward.

8 be on time to arrive or happen at the correct time or the time that was arranged: The buses are never on time. ▶ Don't say "be in time." ◀

9 in time early or soon enough to do something: They arrived in time for dinner. ▶ Don't say "on time to" or "on time for." ◀

10 from time to time sometimes, but not regularly or very often: He comes up to visit from time to time.

11 ahead of time before an event or before you need to do something, in order to be prepared: We need to get there ahead of time to get a good seat.

12 at all times always: Keep your hands inside the car at all times.

13 in no time soon or quickly: We'll be there in no time.

14 it's about time (spoken) said when you feel strongly that something should happen soon or should already have happened: It's about time you got a job!

15 half the time if something happens half the time, it happens quite often: Half the time, Alan doesn't even return her phone calls.

16 when the time comes when something that you expect to happen actually happens, or when something becomes necessary: She'll make the right choice when the time comes.

17 one/two etc. at a time allowing only a specific number of things to happen or exist at the same time: You can borrow three books at a time.

18 take your time to do something slowly or carefully without hurrying: Take your time and look over your essay before turning it in.

19 for the time being for a short period of time from now, but not permanently: For the time being, she's living with her father.

20 good/bad/difficult etc. time a period of time or an occasion when you have experiences that are good, bad, etc.: That was the happiest time of my life. | Did you have a good time at Laura's?

21 IN HISTORY [C] a particular period in history: It happened in the time of the Romans.

22 times [plural] the present time or a particular period in history, and the ways that people do or did things during that period: modern times | Their technology is 30 years behind the times.

23 time's up (spoken) said in order to tell people to stop doing something because there is no more time left: Okay, time's up. Put down your pencils.

24 in time to sth if you do something in time to a piece of music, you do it using the same RHYTHM and speed as the music

25 do time (informal) to spend time in prison [ORIGIN: Old English tima]

time² v. [T] 1 to do something or arrange for something to happen at a particular time: The bomb was timed to go off at 5:00. | an ill-timed/well-timed announcement (=one that happens at a bad or good time) 2 to measure how fast someone or something is going, how long it takes to do something, etc.: Christie was timed at 10.02 seconds.

time and a half n. [U] one and a half times the normal rate of pay time bomb n. [C] 1 a situation that is likely to become a very serious problem: It's an environmental time bomb. 2 a bomb that is set to explode at a particular time time card n. [C] a card on which the hours you have worked are recorded by a machine time-consuming adj. needing a long time to do: a time-consuming process time frame n. [C] the period of time during which you expect or agree that something will happen or be done time-honored adj. a time-honored method, custom, etc. is one that has existed or worked well for a long time time-keeper /'taɪm,ki:pə/ n. [C] someone who officially records how long it takes to do something, especially at a sports event time-less /'taɪmlɪs/ adj. always remaining beautiful, attractive, etc.: timeless melodies time limit n. [C] the longest time that you are allowed to do something in: There is a time limit for using the library computer.

time-ly /'taɪmli/ adj. done or happening at exactly the right time: a timely decision time 'off n. [U] time when you are officially allowed not to be at work or studying time 'out n. 1 take time out to rest or do something different from your usual job or activities 2 [C] a short time during a sports game when the teams can rest and get instructions from the COACH tim-er /'taɪmər/ n. [C] an instrument for measuring time, when you are doing something such as cooking times /taɪmz/ prep. MATH multiplied by: Two times two equals four. → CALCULATE time-ta-ble /'taɪm,təbəl/ n. [C] a plan of events and activities, with their dates and times [SYN] schedule: Many people are calling for a timetable for withdrawing the troops.

'time warp n. be (caught/stuck) in a time warp to have not changed even though everyone or everything else has: The sleepy little town seems to be caught in a time warp.

'time zone n. [C] one of the 24 areas the world is divided into, each of which has its own time

tim-id /'tɪmɪd/ adj. not brave or confident: a timid child —timidly adv. —timidity /tə'mɪdəti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS shy, bashful, self-conscious
→ SHY¹

tim-ing /'taɪmɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] the skill of doing something at exactly the right time: A comedian has to have good/bad/wonderful timing or his jokes will fall flat. 2 [C,U] the time when someone does something or when something happens: the timing of his resignation tim-or-ous /'tɪmərəs/ adj. (formal) lacking confidence and easily frightened: a small, timorous woman —timorously adv.

tin /tɪn/ n. [U] a soft white metal used for making cans, building materials, etc.: a tin can tin-der /'tɪndər/ n. [U] material that burns easily, used for lighting fires time /taɪm/ n. [C] a pointed part of something that has several points, for example on a fork tin-foil /'tɪnfɔɪl/ n. [U] (old-fashioned) FOIL tinge /tɪndʒ/ n. [C] a very small amount of a color, emotion, or quality: a tinge of sadness in her voice | white paint with a yellow tinge —tinged adj.

tin-gle /'tɪŋɡəl/ v. [I] to feel a slight sting on your skin: My fingers tingled with the cold. —tingle n. [C] tin-ker /'tɪŋkər/ v. [I] (informal) to make small changes to something in order to repair it or improve it: Dad was tinkering with the engine.

tin-kle /'tɪŋkəl/ v. [I] to make high soft ringing sounds: a tinkling bell —tinkle n. [C] tin-ny /'tɪni/ adj. a tinny sound is unpleasant to listen to, and sounds like it is coming from something made of metal: tinny music tin-sel /'tɪnsəl/ n. [U] thin pieces of shiny silver paper, used especially as Christmas decorations tint¹ /tɪnt/ n. [C] a small amount of a light color [SYN] shade: The sky had a pink tint.

tint² v. [T] to change the color of something, especially hair ti-ny /'taɪni/ adj. extremely small: thousands of tiny little fish | a tiny fraction of the budget

THESAURUS small, little, minute, miniature, minuscule → SMALL

tip¹ /tɪp/ n. [C] 1 the end of something, especially something pointed [SYN] point: the tip of your nose | the northern tip of the island 2 a small amount of additional money that you give to someone such as a WAITER or taxi driver for his/her service: Did you leave a tip? | a $5 tip 3 a helpful piece of advice: tips on/for losing weight | He gave me some tips on taking good pictures.

THESAURUS advice, suggestion, recommendation → ADVICE

4 on the tip of your tongue if a word, name, etc. is on the tip of your tongue, you know it but cannot remember it immediately 5 the tip of the iceberg a small sign of a problem that is much larger: These figures are just the tip of the iceberg.

tip² v. (tipped, tipping) 1 [I,T] to lean at an angle, or to make something do this: The boat tipped a little to that side. | Jesse tipped his chair back. 2 [I,T] to give a tip to a WAITER, taxi driver, etc. for his/her service: I tipped him $5. 3 be tipped with sth to have one end covered in something: The arrows were tipped with poison tip sb ↔ off phr. v. (informal) to give someone such as the police secret information about something illegal: The police must have been tipped off about the robbery.

tip (sth ↔) over phr. v. to fall or turn over, or to make something do this: The canoe suddenly tipped over. | The baby tipped the plant over.

ti-pi /'tɪpi/ n. [C] a TEPEE

'tip-off n. [C] (informal) 1 a warning or message about something illegal that is given secretly to the police, a government, etc. 2 the beginning of a basketball game, when the ball is thrown in the air and two players jump for it

tip-ster /'tɪpstər/ n. [C] (written) someone who gives the police, a REPORTER, etc. secret information about something that is going to happen tip-sy /'tɪpsi/ adj. (informal) slightly drunk tip-toe¹ /'tɪptəʊ/ n. on tiptoe standing on your toes, with the rest of your feet off the ground: Matt stood on tiptoe to see.

tiptoe² v. [I] to walk on tiptoe: Rita tiptoed downstairs. → see picture on page A9

T

ti·rade /ˈtaɪreɪd/ n. [C] a long angry speech criticizing someone or something: a tirade against/at polluters

tire¹ /taɪə/ n. [C] a thick round piece of rubber that fits around the wheel of a car, bicycle, etc.: I had a flat tire (=all the air went out of it) on the way home.

tire² v. 1 [I,T] to become tired, or to make someone feel tired: Even short walks tire her. 2 tire of sth to become bored with something: We never tired of her stories.

tire sb ↔ out phr. v. to make someone very tired: All that walking tired me out.

tired /taɪəd/ adj. 1 feeling that you want to sleep or rest: I was too tired to move. | Ben looks tired out.

THESAURUS

exhausted – extremely tired: I was completely exhausted after the long trip.

worn out – very tired because you have been working or playing hard: By the end of the season, many players are worn out.

weary – very tired, especially because you have been doing something for a long time: She grew weary (=became weary) of spending every day in the car. | weary travelers run-down – tired and unhealthy: If you're feeling run-down, you probably need a holiday.

beat (informal) – very tired: I'm beat.

fatigued (formal) – extremely tired: They were fatigued after the long voyage.

T

2 tired of (doing) sth bored or annoyed with something: I'm tired of waiting.

tire-less /ˈtaɪələs/ adj. working very hard in a determined way: a tireless worker —tirelessly adv.

THESAURUS

energetic, vigorous →

ENERGETIC

tire-some /ˈtaɪə-səm/ adj. annoying and boring → TIRING: a tiresome conversation tir-ing /ˈtaɪərɪŋ/ adj. making you feel tired: The trip had been tiring.

tis-sue /ˈtɪʃu/ n. 1 [C] a piece of soft thin paper, used for blowing your nose 2 [U] BIOLOGY the material forming animal or plant cells: damaged lung tissue tit-for-tat /ˌtɪt fə ˈtæt/ n [U] (informal) something bad that you do to someone because s/he has done something bad to you tithe /taɪð/ n. [C usually plural] 1 SOCIAL SCIENCE a particular amount, usually 10% of income, that members of some Christian churches are expected to give to the church 2 HISTORY a tax paid to the church, in past times tit-il-late /ˈtɪtɪleɪt/ v. [T] to make someone feel excited or interested, especially sexually: TV news seems often meant to titillate you, not inform you.

ti-tle¹ /ˈtaɪtl/ n. 1 [C] the name given to a book, painting, play, etc.: What is the title of her new book? 2 [C] (written) a book: this year's best-selling titles 3 [C] a word or name that describes someone's rank or position: Her official title is editorial manager. 4 [C] a word such as "Mrs.," "Dr.," "Senator," etc. that is used before someone's name to show whether s/he is married or what his/her rank or position is 5 [C] the position of being the winner of an important sports competition: the National League batting title 6 [singular, U] LAW the legal right to own something: Who has the title to this land?

title² v. [T] to give a name to a book, play, etc.: The concert was titled "Home for the Holidays."

title role also title character n. [C] the main character in a play, movie, etc., which is the same as the name of the play, etc.

tit-ter /ˈtɪtə/ v. [I] to laugh quietly, especially in a nervous way —titter n. [C]

THESAURUS

laugh, giggle, chuckle, snicker → LAUGH¹

tiz-zy /ˈtɪzi/ n. (informal) in a tizzy feeling nervous, upset, and sometimes confused

TLC n. [U] (informal) tender loving care kindness and love that you give to someone when s/he is sick or upset

TN the written abbreviation of TENNESSEE

TNT n. [U] a powerful explosive

to¹ /tə; before vowels tʊ; strong tu/ [used with the basic form of a verb to make the infinitive.] ▶ Do not use "to" with modal verbs. ◀ 1 used after a verb, noun, or adjective when the INFINITIVE completes its meaning: I'd love to go! | It's starting to rain. | The men were told to leave the bar. | If you get a chance to see the play, you should. | Dad says he's not ready to retire yet. | It's great to see you! 2 used by itself instead of an INFINITIVE in order to avoid repeating the same verb: You can go if you want to. 3 used after "how," "where," "who," "whom," "whose," "which," "when," "what," or "whether": Can you show me how to do this? | Maria didn't know whether to call Tim or not. 4 used in order to show the purpose of an action: He covered the child to keep her from getting cold. | To begin with, let's look at chapter three. 5 used after "too" and an adjective: It's too cold to go outside. 6 used after an adjective and "enough": Are you feeling well enough to go back to work? 7 used after "there is" and a noun: There's nothing to do here.

to² prep. 1 in order to be in a particular place, event, state, etc.: The drive to the city takes five hours. | I couldn't go to sleep. | Are you going to the wedding?

THESAURUS

in order to, so (that), for →

ORDER¹

2 toward or in the direction of a place: She went to the door. | Throw the ball to me. 3 used in order to show the position of something, especially in relation to something else: The water came up to our knees. | They live in a town 50 miles to the south of Denver. | My back was to the door (=facing the door). 4 used in order to show who receives or owns something, or to whom speech is directed: Angie said "hi" to me this morning. | The ring belongs to her mother. 5 used in order to show where something is touching, fastened, or connected: We tied the rope to a tree. | The computers are linked to a server. 6 used to show a relationship with someone or something: She's married to Gary's cousin. 7 starting with one thing or in one place and ending with or in another: A to Z | Count to 10. | It's 30 miles from here to Toronto. 8 used when showing who or what is affected by an action or situation: Mr. Reger is nice to everyone. | The chemicals are a danger to ocean life. 9 fitting or being part of a machine or piece of equipment: I have a key to the office. 10 used when comparing two numbers, things, etc.: The Bears won, 27 to 10. 11 used in order to mean "before" when you are giving the time: It's ten to four. | two weeks to Christmas toad /toud/ n. [C] an animal like a large FROG but brown in color toad-stool /'toudstul/ n. [C] a plant that looks like a MUSHROOM, but is usually poisonous toad-y /'toudi/ n. (plural toadies) [C] (disapproving) someone who pretends to like an important person and does whatever that person wants, especially in order to gain an advantage in the future toady² v. (toadied, toadies)

toady to sb phr. v. (disapproving) to pretend to like an important person, organization, etc., and do whatever that person or organization wants, so that they will help you or like you —toadying also toadyism n. [U] (disapproving) to and fro /,tu ən 'frou/ adv. moving in one direction and then back again: They swung to and fro.

toast¹ /toust/ n. 1 [U] bread that has been heated until it is brown and CRISP: a slice/piece of toast 2 [C] an occasion when you toast someone: They raised their glasses in a toast to the happy couple.

toast² v. [T] 1 to drink a glass of wine, etc. with other people in order to thank someone, wish someone luck, or celebrate something: We toasted our victory with champagne. 2 to make bread or other food turn brown by heating it toast-er /'toustə/ n. [C] a machine used for making toast toast-y /'tousti/ adj. (spoken) warm in a way that makes you feel comfortable to-bac-co /tə'bækou/ n. [U] dried brown leaves that are smoked in cigarettes, CIGARS, etc., or the plant that these come from to-bog-gan-ing /tə'bəgənɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of sliding down snow-covered hills on a special wooden or plastic board that curves up at the front —toboggan n. [C] —toboggan v. [I]

to-day¹ /tə'deɪ/ n. [U] 1 the day that is happening now: Today is Wednesday. | today's paper 2 the present time: young people of today

today² adv. 1 during the day that is happening now: Mom, can we go to the park today? 2 in the present time: Today, heart disease is the leading cause of death in women.

tod-dle /'tadl/ v. [I] to walk with short unsteady steps, like a very young child does tod-dler /'tadlə/ n. [C] a child between the ages of about 1 and 3 to-'do n. [singular] (informal) unnecessary excitement or angry feelings about something (SYN) fuss

toe¹ /tou/ n. [C] 1 one of the five separate parts at the end of your foot: I hurt my big toe (=largest toe). → see picture on page A3 2 on your toes ready for anything that might happen: The managers come to the factory floor, just to keep us on our toes. → step on sb's toes at STEP²

toe² v. toe the line to do what you are told to do by people in authority

TOEFL /'təʊfəl/ n. Test of English as a Foreign Language a test that students can take if their first language is not English, that proves that they can understand English toe-hold /'təʊhoʊld/ n. [singular] your first involvement in a particular activity, from which you can develop and become stronger: It took us five years to gain a toehold in the market.

toe-nail /'təʊneɪl/ n. [C] the hard flat part that covers the top end of your toe toe-to-'toe adv. go/stand/fight toe-to-toe (with) sb to argue or fight with someone in a way that shows you will not stop tof-fee /'tɒfi, 'təfi/ n. [C,U] a sticky brown candy made from sugar and butter, or a piece of this to-fu /'təʊfu/ n. [U] a soft white food that is made from SOYBEANS to-ga /'təʊgə/ n. [C] HISTORY a long loose piece of clothing worn by people in ancient Greece and Rome to-geth-er¹ /tə'geðə/ adv. 1 if two or more things are put together, they form a single subject, group, mixture, or object: Add the numbers together. | We put the puzzle together last night. 2 with or next to each other: Kevin and I went to school together. | Keep everything together in a folder. | We were crowded/packed etc. together in one little room. 3 if two people are together, they are married or have a romantic relationship: Mark and Sarah decided to live together. 4 at the same time: Why do all the bills seem to come together? → get your act together at ACT² together² adj. (spoken) thinking clearly, being very organized, etc.: Carla seems really together.

to-geth-er-ness /tə'geðənɪs/ n. [U] a feeling of having a close relationship with other people tog-gle /'təgəl/ n. [C] IT something such as a key on a computer that lets you change from one operation to another —toggle v. [I,T] togs /təgz, tɒgz/ n. [plural] (informal) clothes toil /tɔɪl/ v. [I] (literary) to work very hard for a long period of time —toil n. [U] toi-let /'tɔɪlɪt/ n. [C] a large bowl that you sit on to get rid of waste matter from your body [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French toilette “cloth put around the shoulders while arranging the hair or shaving, toilette, toilet,” from toile “net, cloth”]

THESAURUS

Do not use toilet to talk about a room with a toilet in it.

bathroom — a room in a house with the toilet in it restroom, women's/ladies' room, men's room — a room in a public place that has one or more toilets in it lavatory — a room with a toilet in it, especially a room in a public building such as a school or on an airplane latrine — an outdoor toilet at a camp or military area outhouse/privy — a small outdoor building in which the waste goes into a hole below the building, used in campgrounds and in the past behind houses

T toilet paper n. [U] soft thin paper used for cleaning yourself after you have used the toilet toi-let-ries /'tɔɪlətriːz/ n. [plural] things such as soap and TOOTHPASTE that are used for washing and cleaning yourself to-ken /'tɒkən/ n. [C] 1 a round piece of metal that you use instead of money in some machines 2 something that represents a feeling, fact, event, etc.: This is a token of our appreciation.

token adj. 1 a token action, change, etc. is small and not very important, but is done to show that you are dealing with a problem or will keep a promise: He receives a token salary for his help. 2 token woman/minority/black etc. someone who is included in a group to make everyone think that it has all types of people in it, when this is often not really true to-ken-ism /'tɒkənɪzəm/ n. [U] actions that are intended to make people think that an organization deals fairly with people or problems when in fact it does not told /təʊld/ v. the past tense and past participle of TELL tol-er-a-ble /'tɒlərəbəl/ adj. something that is tolerable is not very good, but you are able to accept it (ANT) intolerable: The heat was barely tolerable. —tolerably adv.

tol-er-ance /'tɒlərəns/ n. 1 [U] willingness to allow people to do, say, or believe what they want: society's need for religious/racial tolerance | He had little tolerance for/of mistakes. 2 [C,U] the degree to which someone or something can suffer pain, difficulty, etc. without being harmed: plants with limited tolerance for/to the cold 3 [C,U] MATH the amount by which a measurement can be different from what is wanted

tol-er-ate /'tɒləreɪt/ v. [T] to accept something, even though you do not like it: The school will not tolerate sexual harassment. | My stepmother barely tolerated me. —tolerant adj. —toleration /'tɒlə'reɪʃən/ n. [U]

THESAURUS

accept — to agree or deal with a situation you do not like but cannot change: She found it hard to accept his death.

stand — to be able to accept or deal well with a difficult situation: It was so noisy in there that I could hardly stand it.

put up with sth — to accept an annoying situation or someone's annoying behavior, without trying to stop it or change it: I don't see how you can put up with the constant noise.

live with sth — to accept a bad situation as a permanent part of your life that you cannot change: Stress is just something you have to learn to live with.

condone (formal) — to accept or allow behavior that most people think is wrong: I cannot condone the use of violence.

toll /tɒl/ n. [C] 1 [usually singular] the number of people killed or injured at a particular time: The death toll has risen to 83. 2 [usually singular] a bad effect that something has on someone or something over a long period of time: Years of smoking have taken their toll on his health. 3 the money you have to pay to use a particular road, bridge, etc.

toll v. [I,T] if a bell tolls, or you toll it, it keeps ringing slowly toll booth n. [C] a place where you pay to use a particular road, bridge, etc.

toll-free adj. a toll-free telephone call does not cost any money: Call our toll-free number now.

tom-a-hawk /'tɒmə,hɔːk/ n. [C] a light AX used by some Native Americans in past times to-ma-to /tə'meɪtəʊ/ n. (plural tomatoes) [C] a soft round red fruit, eaten as a vegetable raw or cooked: a tomato sauce [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Spanish tomate, from Nahuatl (a language from Southern Mexico and Central America) tomatl] → see picture at VEGETABLE tomb /tʊm/ n. [C] a grave, especially a large one above the ground: the tomb of China's first emperor [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Anglo-French tumbe, from Late Latin tumba “pile of earth under which a body is buried”] tom-boy /'tɒmbɔɪ/ n. [C] a girl who likes to play the same games as boys tomb-stone /'tʊmstəʊn/ n. [C] a GRAVESTONE tom-cat /'tɒmkæt/ n. [C] a male cat tome /təʊm/ n. [C] (literary) a large heavy book to-mor-row¹ /tə'morəʊ, -'mɔː-/ adv. on or during the day after today: Hanson is leaving tomorrow. | I'll see you tomorrow morning/afternoon/night. [ORIGIN: Old English to morgen, from to "to" + morgen "morning"]

tomorrow² n. [U] 1 the day after today → TODAY, YESTERDAY: Tomorrow is Thursday. 2 the future, especially the near future: the schools of tomorrow 3 do sth like there's no tomorrow to do something without worrying about the future: We're spending money like there's no tomorrow.

ton /tʌn/ n. [C] 1 a unit for measuring weight, equal to 2,000 pounds 2 (informal) a very large quantity or weight: Your suitcase weighs a ton! | She spent tons of money.

tone¹ /toʊn/ n. 1 [C,U] the way your voice sounds, which shows how you are feeling or what you mean: Ben's calm, relaxed tone of voice | "Yes," she replied, in an amused tone. 2 [singular, U] the general feeling or attitude expressed in a piece of writing, activity, etc.: The argument set the tone (=began a feeling that continued) for the evening. | the formal tone of her poems 3 [C] a sound made by a piece of electronic equipment: Please leave a message after the tone. 4 [U] the quality of a sound, especially the sound of a musical instrument or someone's voice 5 [U] how strong and firm your muscles, skin, etc. are: Exercise will improve your muscle tone. 6 [C] a SHADE of a particular color 7 [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the difference in PITCH between two musical notes that are separated by one KEY on the piano (SYN) step tone² also tone up v. [T] to improve the strength and firmness of your muscles, skin, etc.: Do these exercises to tone your stomach muscles.

tone sth ↔ down phr. v. to make something such as a speech or piece of writing less offensive, exciting, etc.: Advisers told him to tone down his statement.

tone-deaf adj. unable to hear the difference between different musical notes ton-er /'təʊnə-/ n. [U] a type of ink that is used in machines that print or copy documents tongs /tʌŋz, tɒŋz/ n. [plural] a tool for picking up objects, made of two movable BARS that are attached at one end tongue /tʌŋ/ n. [C] 1 the soft part in your mouth that you can move and that you use for tasting and speaking 2 bite/hold your tongue to stop yourself from saying something: Jim struggled to hold his tongue. 3 a language: your mother/native tongue (=the language you learned as a child)

THESAURUS language, dialect →
LANGUAGE

4 the part of a shoe under the LACES (=strings that you tie them with) [ORIGIN: Old English tunge] → a slip of the tongue at SLIP², on the tip of your tongue at TIP¹ tongue-in-cheek adv. said or done seriously, but meant as a joke tongue-tied adj. unable to speak easily because you are nervous tongue twister n. [C] a word or phrase with many similar sounds that is difficult to say quickly ton-ic /'tɒnɪk/ n. 1 [C,U] also tonic water a bitter-tasting drink with BUBBLES, that you mix with some alcoholic drinks 2 [C] something, especially a medicine, that gives you more energy or strength tonic sol-fa /'tɒnɪk sɒl 'fɑ/ n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a system of using SYLLABLES to represent the notes of a musical scale to-night¹ /tə'naɪt/ adv. on or during the night of today: I think I'll go to bed early tonight.

tonight² n. [U] the night of today: Tonight is a very special occasion. | tonight's news ton-nage /'tɒnɪdʒ/ n. [U] 1 the number of TONS that something weighs 2 the size of a ship or the amount of goods it can carry, shown in TONS ton-sil /'tɒnsəl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of two small organs at the sides of your throat near the back of your tongue ton-sil-li-tis /'tɒnsəl'laɪtɪs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY an infection of the tonsils

To-ny /'təʊni/ n. (plural Tonies) [C] a prize given each year to the best plays, actors, etc. in New York's theaters too /tu/ adv. 1 more than is needed, wanted, or possible: You're going too fast! | He was too sick to travel.

USAGE

Too is usually used to show that you do not like or approve of something: This happens too often. | You're too old to go clubbing. | Help came too late to save the struggling animal.

Very is used to emphasize something which can be either good or bad: It's very hot today. | She's always very busy.

2 also: Sheila wants to come too. | "I'm really hungry." "I am too!" 3 very: It shouldn't be too long until dinner's ready. 4 be too much for sb used in order to say that something is so difficult, tiring, or upsetting that someone cannot do it 5 I am too/I did too! etc. (spoken) used when you disagree with what someone has said about you: "You're not old enough." "I am too!"

took /tʊk/ v. the past tense of TAKE tool¹ /tu/ n. [C] 1 something such as a hammer, SCREWDRIVER, etc. that you use to make or repair things: He has all the tools needed for the job. 2 something such as a piece of equipment or skill that is useful for a particular purpose: Music can be a useful/valuable/powerful tool for learning.

T

tool² v.

tool around/along phr. v. (informal) to drive, especially for fun tool-box /ˈtulbaks/ n. [C] a special box for keeping tools in toot /tut/ v. [I,T] if a horn toots, or if you toot it, it makes a short sound —toot n. [C]

tooth /tuθ/ n. (plural teeth /tiθ/) [C] 1 one of the hard objects in your mouth that you use for biting and chewing your food: The wolf had fierce eyes and sharp teeth. | Did you brush your teeth (=clean them)? → see picture on page A3 2 one of the pointed parts that sticks out from a comb, saw, etc. 3 fight (sb/sth) tooth and nail to try with a lot of effort and determination to do something: Neighborhood groups fought tooth and nail against the closing of the school. [ORIGIN: Old English toth] → have a sweet tooth at SWEET tooth-ache /ˈtuθeɪk/ n. [C,U] a pain in a tooth tooth-brush /ˈtuθbrʌʃ/ n. [C] a small brush for cleaning your teeth → see picture at BRUSH¹ tooth-paste /ˈtuθpeɪst/ n. [U] a substance used for cleaning your teeth

T

tooth-pick /ˈtuθpɪk/ n. [C] a small pointed piece of wood used for removing pieces of food from between your teeth

top¹ /təp/ n. [C]

1 HIGHEST PART the highest part of something [ANT] bottom: the tops of the mountains | Write your name at the top of the page. | an ice cream sundae with nuts on top of it

2 UPPER SURFACE the flat upper surface of an object: The table has a glass top. | Photographs of the family were displayed on top of the piano.

3 on top of sth a) in addition to something: On top of everything else, I need $700 to fix my car! b) in control of a situation: He felt alert and on top of things.

4 the top the best, most successful, or most important position in an organization, company, competition, etc.: The people at the top make the decisions. | What do these men, who have reached the top of their professions, have in common?

5 CLOTHING clothing that you wear on the upper part of your body: a pink top

6 COVER a cover for a pen, container, etc., especially something that you push or turn: I can't get the top off this jar.

THESAURUS cover, lid, cap → COVER²

7 off the top of your head (informal) said without checking the facts: Off the top of my head I'd say there were about 50.

8 at the top of your voice/lungs shouted or sung as loudly as you can

9 TOY a toy that spins and balances on its point when you twist it

10 on top of the world (informal) extremely happy

top² adj. 1 at the top [ANT] bottom: the top button of my shirt 2 best or most successful: a top salesman | the top score → POSITION¹

top³ v. (topped, topping) [T] 1 to be higher, better, or more than something: Their profits have topped $5 million this year. 2 be topped by/with sth to have something on top: ice cream topped with maple syrup top sth ↔ off phr. v. (informal) to do one final thing before finishing something: She topped it off by being named the most valuable player.

top out phr. v. if something that is increasing tops out, it reaches its highest point and stops rising: The Dow Jones average topped out at 5999.75 today.

top 'hat n. [C] a man's tall hat with a flat top, worn in past times → see picture at HAT top-heavy adj. 1 too heavy at the top and therefore likely to fall over 2 a top-heavy organization has too many managers top-ic /ˈtəpɪk/ [Ac] n. [C] a subject that people talk or write about: The discussion was on the topic of human rights. | the main topic of conversation | The environment is a hot topic (=important topic) during this election year. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin Topica “Topics,” from Greek Topika, from topikos “of a place, of a useful quotation.” This was the title of a book by the ancient Greek thinker Aristotle.]

THESAURUS subject, theme, issue, matter
→ SUBJECT¹

top-i-cal /ˈtəpɪkəl/ [Ac] adj. relating to something that is important at the present time: The show deals with topical issues.

topic sentence n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the sentence in a PARAGRAPH that states the main idea you are writing about top-less /ˈtəplɪs/ adj. a woman who is topless is not wearing any clothes on the upper part of her body top-most /ˈtəpmoust/ adj. highest: the topmost branches top-notch adj. (informal) having the highest quality or standard: top-notch schools top-o-graph-ic /ˌtəpəˈgræfɪk/ also top-o-graph-i-cal /ˌtəpəˈgræfɪkəl/ adj. EARTH SCIENCES relating to topography to-pog-ra-phy /təˈpəgrəfi/ n. [U] 1 EARTH SCIENCES the science of describing or making a map of an area of land 2 EARTH SCIENCES the shape of an area of land, including its hills, valleys, etc. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Late Latin topographia “description of a place,” from Greek, from topographein “to describe a place”] —topographer n. [C] top-ping /ˈtɒpɪŋ/ n. [C,U] food that you put on top of other food to make it taste or look better: pizza toppings top-ple /ˈtɒpəl/ v. 1 [I,T] to fall over, or to make something do this: Several trees toppled over in the storm. 2 [T] to take power away from a leader or government: The scandal could topple the government.

top-secret adj. top-secret documents or information must be kept completely secret top-sy-tur-vy /ˌtɒpsi ˈtə-vi/ adj. (informal) in a state of complete disorder or confusion torch¹ /tɔ:tʃ/ n. [C] a long stick that you burn at one end for light or as a symbol: the Olympic torch torch² v. [T] (written) to start a fire deliberately in order to destroy something: Someone torched the old warehouse.

to-re /tɔ:r/ v. the past tense of TEAR tor-ment¹ /ˈtɔ:ment/ n. [C,U] severe pain and suffering, or something that causes this tor-ment² /tɔ:'ment/ v. [T] to make someone suffer a lot of mental or physical pain: He was tormented by guilt. —tormentor n. [C] turn /tɜ:n/ v. the past participle of TEAR

tor-na-do /tɔ:'neɪdɒ/ n. (plural ornadoes) [C] an extremely violent storm consisting of air that spins very quickly [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Spanish tronada “thunderstorm”]

THESAURUS wind, gale, storm, hurricane, typhoon → WIND¹

tor-pe-do /tɔ:'pɪdɒ/ n. (plural torpedoes) [C] a weapon that is fired under the surface of the ocean and explodes when it hits something [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 torpedo type of fish that can produce electricity to protect itself (16—21 centuries), from Latin, “stiffness, numbness, torpedo fish”] —torpedo v. [T] tor-pid /ˈtɔ:pɪd/ adj. (formal) lazy or sleepy, and with no energy, activity, or excitement: the torpid warmth of the evening —torpidly adv.

tor-rent /ˈtɔ:rənt, ˈtə-r-/ n. 1 a torrent of sth a lot of something: a torrent of criticism 2 [C] a large amount of water moving very quickly in a particular direction —torrential /tə'renʃəl, tɔ-/ adj.: torrential rain tor-rid /ˈtɔ:rɪd, ˈtə-r-/ adj. 1 involving strong emotions, especially sexual excitement: a torrid love affair 2 extremely hot tor-so /ˈtɔ:rsɒ/ n. (plural torsos) [C] your body, not including your arms, legs, or head tort /tɔ:t/ n. [C] LAW an action that is wrong but not criminal and can be dealt with in a CIVIL court of law tor-ti-lla /tɔ:'ti-yə/ n. [C] a thin flat Mexican bread made from CORNMEAL or flour

tor-toise /ˈtɔ:tɔɪs/ n. [C] a slow-moving animal that can put its legs and head inside the shell that covers its body [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Old French tortue, from Vulgar Latin tartaruca, from Late Latin tartaruchus “of Tartarus, the land of the dead in ancient stories;” because it used to be thought that tortoises and turtles came from hell]

tor-tu-ous /ˈtɔ:tʃuəs/ adj. 1 complicated, long, and therefore confusing: a tortuous process 2 a tortuous road has a lot of turns and is difficult to travel on tor-ture¹ /ˈtɔ:tʃə/ n. [C,U] 1 the act of torturing someone 2 mental or physical suffering: The waiting must be torture for you.

torture² v. [T] to deliberately hurt someone in order to force him/her to tell you something, to punish him/her, or to be cruel: He was tortured to death in prison.

toss /tɒs/ v. 1 [T] to throw something without much force: Could you toss me my keys? | He tossed the apples into a barrel.

THESAURUS throw, chuck, fling, lob → THROW¹

2 [I,T] to move around continuously in a violent or uncontrolled way, or to make something do this: The kite was being tossed by the wind. | I was tossing and turning (=changing my position in bed because I could not sleep) all night. 3 [T] also toss out (informal) to get rid of something: “Where’s the newspaper?” “I tossed it.” 4 [T] to cover food in a liquid by moving it around in the liquid: Toss the carrots in melted butter. —toss n. [C] → toss/flip a coin at COIN¹ toss-up n. it’s a toss-up (spoken) said when you do not know which of two things will happen, or which of two things to choose: So far the election is a toss-up.

tot /tɒt/ n. [C] (informal) a small child to-tal¹ /ˈtəʊtəl/ adj. 1 complete, or as great as is possible: Their marriage was a total disaster. | She has been slowed down by the almost total loss of her sight. 2 total number/amount/cost etc. the number, amount, etc. that is the total: The total cost of the building will be $6 million.

total² n. [C] the number that you get when you have added everything together: The city spent a total of two million dollars on the library. | I was out of work for 34 days in total.

total³ v. 1 [linking verb] to add up to a particular amount: Prize money totaling $5,000 will be awarded. 2 [T] (informal) to damage a car so badly that it cannot be repaired: Chad totaled his dad's new Toyota.

to-tal-i-tar-i-an /toʊ,tælə'terɪən/ adj. POLITICS based on a political system in which people are completely controlled by the government —totalitarianism n. [U]

to-tal-i-ty /toʊ'tæləti/ n. [U] (formal) the whole of something to-tal-ly /'toʊtl-i/ adv. completely: I totally agree. | He's become a totally different person. | These mistakes are totally unacceptable.

THESAURUS completely, absolutely, entirely, wholly, utterly → COMPLETELY tote /tout/ v. [T] (informal) to carry something

THESAURUS carry, lug, cart, haul, schlep → CARRY

'tote bag n. [C] a large bag in which you carry things to-tem pole /'toʊtəm poʊl/ n. [C] a tall wooden pole with images of animals or faces cut into it, made by some Native American tribes

tot-ter /'tɒtə/ v. [I] to walk or move in an unsteady way

T

touch¹ /tʌtʃ/ v. 1 [T] to put your finger, hand, etc. on something or someone: Don't touch the paint – it's still wet! | She reached out to touch his arm.

THESAURUS

feel – to touch something with your fingers to find out about it: Feel this teddy bear – it's so soft!

handle – to touch something or pick it up and hold it in your hands: Please do not handle the merchandise.

stroke – to move your hand gently over something: She stroked the baby's face.

rub – to move your hand or fingers over a surface while pressing it: Bill yawned and rubbed his eyes.

scratch – to rub your nails on part of your skin: Try not to scratch those mosquito bites.

pat – to touch someone or something lightly again and again, with your hand flat: He knelt down to pat the dog.

pet – to touch and move your hand gently over an animal: Do you want to pet the cat?

brush – to touch someone or something lightly as you pass by: Her hand brushed mine.

caress – to gently move your hand over a part of someone's body in a loving way: Miguel gently caressed her hair.

tickle – to move your fingers lightly over someone's body in order to make him/her laugh: Minna tickled the baby's feet and he gurgled.

2 [I,T] if two things are touching, there is no space in between them: Make sure the wires aren't touching. 3 not touch sth a) to not use or handle something: My brother won't let me touch his bike. b) to not eat or drink something: She didn't touch her breakfast. c) to refuse to deal with or become involved in a particular situation or problem: Our lawyer said he wouldn't touch the case. 4 not touch sb/sth to not hurt someone or not damage something: I swear Mom, I didn't touch him! 5 [T] to affect someone's emotions, especially by making him/her feel pity or sympathy → TOUCHED: His speech touched everyone present. 6 touch base to talk to someone in order to find out how s/he is or what is happening: I wanted to touch base with you before the meeting.

touch down phr. v. if an aircraft touches down, it lands on the ground touch sth ↔ off phr. v. to cause a bad situation or violent event to begin: The report touched off a fierce debate.

touch on/upon sth phr. v. to mention something when you are talking or writing: Her songs touch on social issues.

touch sth ↔ up phr. v. to improve something by making small changes to it: Norma touched up her makeup for the picture.

touch² n. 1 [C] the action of putting your finger, hand, etc. on someone or something: Rita felt the touch of his hand on her shoulder. 2 in touch (with sb) talking or writing to someone: I've been trying to get in touch with (=phone or talk to) you all morning. | Bye. I'll be in touch. | We've stayed/kept in touch (=continued to write or call each other, even though we do not see each other often) since college. | I've lost touch with (=stopped writing or talking to) my high school friends. 3 in touch/out of touch having or not having the latest information or knowledge about a subject, situation, or the way people feel: I think he's out of touch with the American people. 4 [U] the ability to know what something is like when you feel it with your fingers: Her skin was cool to the touch. 5 a touch of sth a small amount of something: a touch of sadness in her voice | Make the salad dressing with a touch of lemon juice for extra flavor. 6 [C] a small detail or change that improves something: Becky put the finishing touches on the cake. 7 [U] a particular way of doing something skillful: I must be losing my touch – I can't hit anything today.

touch-and-go adj. (informal) if a situation is touch-and-go, there is a risk that something bad could happen: After Dad's operation, it was touch-and-go for a while.

touch-down /'tʌtʃdaʊn/ n. [C] 1 the action in football of moving the ball into the opponents' END ZONE in order to gain points 2 the moment that a space vehicle lands on the ground touched /tʌtʃt/ adj. feeling happy and grateful because of what someone has done for you: We were touched by their concern.

touch-ing /'tʌtʃɪŋ/ adj. making you feel sympathy or sadness: Fox gave a touching tribute to his late father.

THESAURUS emotional, moving, poignant → EMOTIONAL

touch-stone /ˈtʌtʃstəʊn/ n. [C] a standard used for measuring the quality of something touch-y /ˈtʌtʃi/ adj. 1 easily offended or annoyed → SENSITIVE: She is very touchy about her past. → GRUMPY 2 touchy subject/question etc. a subject, etc. that needs to be dealt with very carefully because it may offend or upset people tough /tʌf/ adj. 1 difficult and needing a lot of effort: Working as a fireman is tough. | a tough question | a tough choice/decision

THESAURUS difficult, hard, challenging, demanding, arduous → DIFFICULT

2 a tough person is very strong or determined: a tough businesswoman 3 very strict: tough anti-smoking laws

THESAURUS strict, firm, stringent, draconian → STRICT

4 tough material is not easily broken or damaged: tough durable plastic 5 tough meat is difficult to cut or eat (ANT) tender: a tough steak 6 tough!/tough luck! (spoken) said when you do not have any sympathy for someone else's problems: "I'm freezing!" "Tough! You should have worn your coat." 7 a tough place, area, etc. is likely to have a lot of violence and crime: He grew up in a tough neighborhood. —toughness n. [U] tough² v.

tough sth out phr. v. to deal with a very difficult situation by being determined to continue: He could've gone home, but he stayed and toughed it out.

tough-en /ˈtʌfən/ also toughen up v. [I,T] to become tougher, or to make someone or something do this: Hard work has toughened her up.

tou-pee /tuˈpeɪ/ n. [C] a piece of artificial hair that a man can wear when he has no hair on part of his head tour¹ /tʊr/ n. [C] 1 a trip to several different places in a country, area, etc.: a 7-day tour of Egypt

THESAURUS travel, trip, excursion → TRAVEL²

2 a short trip through a place to see it: We went on a tour through/of the Smithsonian. | Sue once worked as a tour guide in Boston. 3 a planned trip by a group of musicians, a sports team, etc. in order to play in several places: The band goes on tour later this year.

tour² v. [I,T] to visit a place on a tour: We're going to tour New England this summer.

tour-ism /ˈtʊrɪzəm/ n. [U] the business of providing tourists with places to stay and things to do: The island depends on tourism for most of its income.

tour-ist /ˈtʊrɪst/ n. [C] someone who visits a place for pleasure: San Francisco is always full of tourists in the summer. | The Statue of Liberty is a major tourist attraction.

tour-na-ment /ˈtʊrnəmənt, 'tə-/ n. [C] a competition in which many players or teams compete against each other until there is one winner

THESAURUS competition, championship, contest, playoff → COMPETITION tour-ni-quet /ˈtʊrnɪkɪt, 'tə-/ n. [C] a band of cloth that is twisted tightly around an injured arm or leg to make blood stop coming out tou-sle /ˈtaʊzəl, -səl/ v. [T] to make someone's hair look messy —tousled adj.

tout /taʊt/ v. [T] to praise someone or something in order to persuade people that he, she, or it is important or worth a lot: Paul's band is being touted as the next big thing.

tow¹ /tu/ v. [T] if one vehicle tows another one, it pulls the other vehicle along behind it: Our car had to be towed away.

THESAURUS pull, tug, drag → PULL¹

→ see picture at PULL¹

tow² n. 1 [C, usually singular] an act of towing a vehicle or ship 2 in tow following closely behind someone or something: Mattie arrived with all her children in tow.

to-ward /tərd, tə'wɔrd/ also towards prep. 1 in a particular direction: All the windows face toward the river. | I saw a man coming toward me. ▶ Don't say "I saw a man coming to me." ◀ 2 concerning someone or something: How do you feel toward her? | Different cultures have different attitudes towards divorce. 3 in a process that will produce a particular result: We should always be working toward peace. 4 money put, saved, or given toward something is used to pay for it: So far I've saved $4,000 toward a new car. 5 just before a particular time: I felt tired toward the end of the day. 6 near a particular place: We're building a pipeline down toward Abilene.

tow-el /ˈtaʊəl/ n. [C] a piece of cloth used for drying something: a bath towel (=for drying yourself) | a dish towel [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French toaille] towel² also towel off/down v. [I,T] to dry your body using a towel tow-er /ˈtaʊə/ n. [C] 1 a tall narrow building or part of a building: the Eiffel Tower | a church tower 2 a tall structure used for signaling or broadcasting: a radio/television tower

tower² v. [I] to be much taller than the people or things around you: Lewis towered over his opponent. —towering adj.

town /taʊn/ n. 1 [C] a place with houses, stores, offices, etc. where people live and work, that is smaller than a city: a little town on the coast 2 [U]

T

the town or city where you live: How long have you been in town? | She's from out of town (=lives in a different town). | I'll be out of town this weekend. 3 [U] the business or shopping center of a town: "Where's Dad?" "He's gone into town." 4 [singular] all the people who live in a particular town: The whole town got involved in the celebrations. 5 (out) on the town (informal) going to restaurants, theaters, etc. for entertainment in the evening: Everyone went out for a night on the town. 6 go to town (on sth) (informal) to do something eagerly and with a lot of energy: The school really went to town on their production of "The Wizard of Oz." (=they did the play well and worked hard on it). [ORIGIN: Old English tun "yard, buildings inside a wall, village, town"]

'town 'hall n. [C] a public building used for a town's local government town-house /'taʊnhaʊs/ n. [C] a house in a group of houses that share one or more walls → HOUSE¹ town-ship /'taʊnʃɪp/ n. [C] an area where people live and work that is organized under a local government towns-people /'taʊnz,pɪpəl/ also towns-folk /'taʊnzfoʊk/ n. [plural] all the people who live in a particular town

'tow truck n. [C] a strong vehicle that can pull cars behind it

tox-ic /'tɒksɪk/ adj. poisonous: toxic chemicals [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Late Latin toxicus, from Latin toxicum "poison"] —toxicity /tə'ksɪsəti/ n. [U] → HARMFUL

tox-i-col-o-gy /təksɪ'kɒlədʒi/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the medical study of poisons and their effects

'toxic 'waste n. [C,U] waste products from industry that are harmful to people, animals, or the environment

tox-in /'tɒksɪn/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a poisonous substance, especially one made by BACTERIA

toy¹ /tɔɪ/ n. [C] an object for children to play with: Her husband brought home some new toys for the baby. | a toy car | The children were playing with their new toys.

toy² v.

toy with phr. v. 1 toy with sth to think about an idea, plan, etc. for a short time and not very seriously: She toyed with the idea of becoming an actress. 2 toy with sb/sth to lie to someone or trick him/her, for example saying that you love him/her when you do not trace¹ /treɪs/ [AC] v. [T] 1 to study or describe the history, development, or origin of something: He traced his family history (back) to the 17th century. 2 to copy a picture by putting a thin piece of paper over it and drawing the lines that you can see through the paper → DRAW¹ 3 to find someone or something that has disappeared: Police are still trying to trace the missing child.

THESAURUS find, locate, track sb/sth

down → FIND¹

4 to find out where a telephone call is coming from, using electronic equipment: Police were able to trace the call to an apartment in Brooklyn. —traceable adj.: Drug smugglers do not want the money to be traceable.

trace² n. 1 [C,U] a sign that someone or something has been in a place: We found no trace of them on the island. | He disappeared without a trace (=completely). 2 [C] a very small amount of a substance, quality, emotion, etc. that is difficult to notice: There was a trace of poison in the glass. | a trace of sorrow in his voice

'trace element n. [C] CHEMISTRY 1 a chemical ELEMENT that your body needs a very small amount of to live 2 a chemical ELEMENT that only exists in small amounts on Earth tra-che-a /'treɪkiə/ n. (plural tracheas or tracheae /-ki-i/) [C] BIOLOGY the tube down which air goes from the throat to the lungs [SYN] windpipe → see picture at LUNG track¹ /træk/ n.

1 keep/lose track of sb/sth to pay attention to someone or something so that you know what is happening, or to fail to do this: She lost track of all the money she spent.

2 be on the right/wrong track to think in a way that is likely to lead to a correct or incorrect result: Keep going, you're on the right track.

3 FOR RACING [C] a course with a special surface on which people, cars, horses, etc. race

4 SPORT [U] the sport of running on a track: He ran track in high school. → see picture on page A4

5 be on/off track to be in a state or situation that will lead to success or failure: I feel that my career is back on track now.

6 RAILROAD [C] the two metal lines that a train travels on: railroad tracks → TRAIN¹

7 tracks [plural] marks on the ground made by a moving animal, person, or vehicle: We saw bear tracks in the mud.

8 SONG [C] one of the songs or pieces of music on a record: the best track on the album

9 make tracks (informal) to leave somewhere quickly, or hurry when going somewhere → fast track at FAST¹, off the beaten track/path at BEATEN, ONE-TRACK MIND track² v. [T] 1 to search for a person or animal by following a smell or tracks on the ground: We tracked the moose for hours.

THESAURUS follow, tail, stalk → FOLLOW

2 to follow the movements of an aircraft or ship by using RADAR 3 to leave mud or dirt behind you when you walk: Who tracked mud all over the floor?

track sb/sth ↔ down phr. v. to find someone or something after searching in different places: We finally were able to track down her parents.

track and field n. [U] the sports that involve running races, jumping, and throwing things → see picture on page A4 track meet n. [C] a sports competition with a variety of running, jumping, and throwing events track record n. [singular] all the things that a person or organization has done in the past that show how well she, he, or it is likely to do similar things in the future: The company has a track record of promoting women to high positions.

tract /trækt/ n. [C] 1 the digestive/respiratory/urinary etc. tract BIOLOGY a system of connected organs in your body that have one purpose 2 a large area of land: a tract of forest trac-ta-ble /'træktəbəl/ adj. (formal) easy to control or deal with (ANT) intractable: She's not a tractable child. —tractability /,træktə'bɪləti/ n. [U] trac-tion /'trækʃən/ n. [U] 1 the force that prevents something such as a wheel from sliding on a surface: The car lost traction and ran off the road. 2 the process of treating a broken bone with special medical equipment that pulls it trac-tor /'træktər/ n. [C] a strong vehicle with large wheels, used for pulling farm equipment

trade¹ /treɪd/ n. 1 [U] the business of buying and selling things, especially between countries: foreign trade | the trade in oil

THESAURUS business, commerce, industry, private enterprise → BUSINESS

2 the banking/retail/tourist etc. trade the business that comes from or is done by banks, etc. 3 [C] an exchange: Let's make a trade – my frisbee for your baseball. 4 [C,U] a particular job, especially one in which you work with your hands: Jerry's a plumber by trade.

trade² v. 1 [I,T] to buy and sell goods and services: Penalties were imposed on U.S. companies that traded with Cuba. 2 [I,T] to exchange one thing for another: I'll trade my apple for your candy bar.

THESAURUS exchange, swap → EXCHANGE²

3 if two or more people trade insults or blows, they insult or hit each other trade sth ↔ in phr. v. to give something old that you own, such as a car, as part of the payment for something new: I traded my Chevy in for a Honda.

trade on sth phr. v. to use a situation or someone's kindness in order to gain an advantage for yourself: She's trading on her father's fame to try to make it in the music business.

trade up phr. v. to sell something such as a car or house so that you can buy a better car or house trade association also 'industry association n. [C] ECONOMICS a nonprofit organization that supports and protects the rights of a particular industry, for example by trying to persuade the government to make changes to certain laws, so that the industry will develop and be successful

'trade barrier n. [C] ECONOMICS something such as a tax or a law that prevents foreign goods or services from entering a country easily

'trade-in n. [C] a car, piece of equipment, etc. that you give as part of the payment for the newer one that you are buying trade-mark /'treɪdmɑːk/ n. [C] a special word or picture on a product that shows it is made by a particular company, that cannot be used by any other company

'trade-off n. [C] ECONOMICS the act of accepting something that you do not like or giving up an advantage that you have because it allows you to have or achieve something that you want: Inflation is often a trade-off for healthy economic growth.

trad-er /'treɪdər/ n. [C] 1 ECONOMICS someone who buys and sells goods 2 ECONOMICS someone who buys and sells STOCKS, BONDS, or CURRENCY, etc. on a financial market

'trade route n. [C] ECONOMICS a way across land or the ocean used by traders' vehicles, especially ships, in the past

'trade school n. [C] a school where people go in order to learn a particular TRADE¹

'trade secret n. [C] a piece of secret information about a particular business, that is only known by the people who work there

'trade war n. [C] ECONOMICS a situation in which companies or countries compete against each other very strongly, and which usually involves governments putting higher taxes on particular goods brought in from another country

tra-di-tion /trə'dɪʃən/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] something that people have done for a long time, and continue to do: an old family/Jewish/American etc. tradition | This country has a long tradition of welcoming immigrants. | It's a tradition that the groom should not see the bride before the wedding.

THESAURUS habit, custom, convention → HABIT

2 (be) in the tradition of sth to have many of the same features as something made or done in the past: He is an entertainer in the great tradition of vaudeville. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin traditio “act of handing over”]

tra-di-tion-al /trə'dɪʃənl/ (Ac) adj. 1 relating to the traditions of a country or group of people: a traditional Irish folk song | traditional Mexican food | It is traditional to exchange gifts at Christmas. 2 following ideas, methods, etc. that have existed for a long time rather than doing something new or different: A woman's traditional role is as a mother. —traditionally adv. Traditionally, blacks have voted for Democratic candidates.

tra-ditional e-conomy n. [C] ECONOMICS an economic system that uses only ideas and methods that have existed for a long time, rather than using new or different ideas or methods (SYN) subsistence economy tra-di-tion-al-ist /trə'dɪʃənəl-ɪst/ (Ac) n. [C] someone who likes traditional ideas and does not like change

T

traf-fic /'træfɪk/ n. [U] 1 the vehicles moving along a particular road: We left early to avoid the traffic. | heavy/light traffic (=a small or large amount of traffic) 2 the movement of aircraft, ships, or trains from one place to another: air traffic control

'traffic jam n. [C] a long line of vehicles on the road that cannot move, or that move very slowly: We were stuck in a traffic jam for two hours!

traf-fick-ing /'træfɪkɪŋ/ n. drug/arms traffick-ing the activity of buying and selling illegal drugs or weapons —trafficker n. [C] —traffic v. [I,T]

'traffic light also 'traffic signal n. [C] a set of red, green, and yellow lights used for controlling traffic (SYN) light

trag-e-dy /'trædʒədi/ n. (plural tragedies) [C,U] 1 a very sad and shocking event: the tragedy of a child's death 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS a serious play that ends sadly, or this style of writing: Shakespeare's tragedies [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French tragédie, from Latin, from Greek tragedia] tra-gic /'trædʒɪk/ adj. very sad and shocking: We heard the news of Holly's tragic death in a plane crash. —tragically adv.

T

trail¹ /treɪl/ v. 1 [I,T] also trail behind to be losing a game, competition, or election: The Cowboys are trailing 21–14. 2 [I,T] to pull something behind you, especially along the ground, or to be pulled in this way: The wedding dress trailed on the ground behind her. 3 [I] to follow someone: The two mothers walked along with their kids trailing behind them. 4 [T] to follow someone by looking for signs that s/he has gone in a particular direction trail off phr. v. if your voice trails off, it becomes quieter and quieter until it cannot be heard: Her words trailed off as Mrs. Hellman walked into the room.

trail² n. 1 [C] a path across open country or through a forest: a hiking trail in the mountains 2 a trail of blood/clues/destruction etc. a series of marks or signs left behind by someone or something that is moving 3 be on the trail of sb/sth to be looking for a person or information that is difficult to find: He is always on the trail of a big story.

trail-blaz-er /'treɪl,bleɪzə/ n. [C] (informal) someone who is the first to discover or develop new methods of doing something: She is a trailblazer in the field of medical research.

trail-er /'treɪlə/ n. [C] 1 a vehicle that can be pulled behind a car, used for living in during a vacation 2 a vehicle that can be pulled behind another vehicle, used for carrying something heavy 3 a short advertisement for a movie or television program

'trailer park n. [C] an area where trailers are parked and used as people's homes

train¹ /treɪn/ n. [C] 1 a long vehicle which travels along a railroad carrying people or goods. It consists of a line of carriages pulled by an engine: the train to Detroit | It'll take about 4 hours by train. | I take the train to work. | Hurry up or we'll miss our train. → see picture at TRANSPORTATION

TOPIC

You decide which train you are going to get/catch. You buy your ticket at the ticket office. You look at the departure board to check which platform/track your train leaves from. Sometimes the train is on time but sometimes it is running late or delayed. When your train arrives, you get on and find a seat in one of the cars (=one of the connected parts of a train). You can usually get a drink or small meal in the dining car.

2 train of thought a related series of thoughts that are developing in your mind: Sorry, I've lost my train of thought. 3 a long line of moving animals, vehicles, or people: a camel train 4 a part of a dress that spreads out over the ground behind the person wearing it train² v. 1 [I,T] to teach someone or be taught the skills of a particular job or activity: Sally spent two years training as a nurse. | He's training to be a pilot. 2 [T] to teach an animal to do something or to behave correctly: I've trained the dog to sit. 3 [I,T] to prepare for a sports event by exercising and practicing, or to make someone do this: He is training for the Olympics. → PRACTICE² —trained adj.

train-ee /treɪ'ni/ n. [C] someone who is being trained for a job: a sales trainee train-er /'treɪnə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to train people or animals to do something train-ing /'treɪnɪŋ/ n. 1 [singular, U] the process of teaching or being taught skills for a particular job: Myers has no formal training in music. 2 [U] special physical exercises that you do to stay healthy or prepare for a competition: weight training | She's in training for the Boston Marathon.

trait /treɪt/ n. [C] a particular quality in someone's character (SYN) characteristic: His jealousy is one of his worst traits.

THESAURUS characteristic, quality → CHARACTERISTIC¹

trai-tor /'treɪtə/ n. [C] someone who is not loyal to his/her country, friends, etc.: He had been a traitor to his country.

tra-jec-to-ry /trə'dʒektəri/ n. (plural trajectories) [C] PHYSICS the curved path of an object that is fired or thrown through the air tram /træm/ n. [C] a STREETCAR

tramp¹ /træmp/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) someone who has no home or job and moves from place to place, often asking for food or money tramp² v. [I,T] to walk somewhere with heavy steps: Kids were tramping through the snow on their way to school.

tram-ple /'træmpəl/ v. [I,T] 1 to step on something heavily so that you crush it with your feet: One woman was trampled to death by the crowd. 2 to ignore or not care about someone's rights or feelings: The new rule tramples on people's right to free speech.

tram-po-line /,træmpə'lin, 'træmpə,lin/ n. [C] a piece of sports equipment that you jump up and down on, made of a sheet of material tightly stretched across a large frame trance /træns/ n. [C] a state in which you seem to be asleep but you are still able to hear and understand what is said to you: He seemed to be in a trance. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French transe, from transir “to pass away, become unconscious,” from Latin transire] tran-qui /'træŋkwəl/ adj. pleasantly calm, quiet, and peaceful: a tranquil spot for a picnic —tranquility /træŋ'kwɪləti/ n. [U]

THESAURUS quiet, calm, peaceful → QUIET¹

tran-qui-liz-er /'træŋkwə,laɪzə/ n. [C] a drug used in order to make a person or animal calm or unconscious —tranquelize v. [T] trans-act /træn'zækt/ v. [I,T] (formal) to do business trans-ac-tion /træn'zækʃən/ n. [C] (formal) a business deal: the company's financial transactions

trans-at-lan-tic /,trænzət'læntɪk/ adj. crossing the Atlantic Ocean, or involving people on both sides of the Atlantic: a transatlantic flight | a transatlantic business deal tran-scend /træn'send/ v. [T] (formal) to go above or beyond the usual limits of something: The appeal of baseball transcends age and class. —transcendence n. [U] tran-scen-den-tal /,trænsen'dentl/ adj. existing above or beyond human knowledge or understanding tran-scen-den-tal-ism

/,trænsen'dentl,ɪzəm/ n. [U] 1 SOCIAL SCIENCE the belief, held especially by Kant, that knowledge can be obtained by studying thought and not only by practical experience 2 SOCIAL SCIENCE a 19th-century set of beliefs, held especially by Emerson, that emphasized a person's natural ability to know the SPIRITUAL nature of things —transcendentalist n. [C] trans-con-ti-nen-tal /,trænskəntən'entl, ,trænz-/ adj. crossing a CONTINENT: the first transcontinental railroad tran-scribe /træn'skraɪb/ v. [T] to write down the words that someone has said, or the notes of a piece of music —transcription /træn'skrɪpʃən/ n. [C,U] tran-script /'trænskɪpt/ n. [C] 1 an exact written or printed copy of something that was said: a transcript of the witness's testimony 2 an official college document that has a list of the classes you took as a student and the grades you received trans-fer¹ /'trænsfə, træn'sfə/ (Ac) v. (transferred, transferring) 1 [I,T] to move from one place, job, etc. to another, or to make someone or something do this: After his first year at Valley College he transferred to UCLA. | They're transferring him from accounts to the shipping department. 2 [T] to move money from one account or institution to another: I'd like to transfer $500 to my checking account. 3 [T] LAW to officially give property or money to someone else [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin transferre, from trans “across” + ferre “to carry”] —transferable /træns'fəəbəl/ adj.: Organization and dealing well with people are skills that are transferable to any job.

trans-fer² /'trænsfə/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] the process of transferring someone or something: Your bank will organize the transfer of funds. | a job transfer 2 [C] a ticket that allows a passenger to change from one bus, train, etc. to another without paying more money: You should ask the bus driver for a transfer.

transfer RNA (abbreviation tRNA) n. [U] BIOL-OGY MOLECULES of RNA that carry AMINO ACIDS to RIBOSOMES (=a small part of every living cell) trans-fixed /træns'fɪkst/ adj. unable to move because you are shocked, frightened, etc.: We were transfixed by the pictures of the storm on TV.

trans-form /træns'fɔrm/ (Ac) v. [T] to change the appearance, character, etc. of someone or something completely, especially in a good way: Will the attempt to transform the country into a democracy succeed? —transformation /trænsfə'meɪʃən/ n. [C,U]: the complete transformation of the city

T

THESAURUS change, alter, reform, revolutionize → CHANGE¹

trans-form-er /træns'fɔrmə/ n. [C] PHYSICS a piece of equipment for changing electricity from one VOLTAGE to another trans-fu-sion /træns'fyuʒən/ n. [C,U] the process of putting one person's blood into the body of someone else as a medical treatment trans-gress /trænz'gres/ v. [I,T] (formal) to do something that is against the rules of a religion or society [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 French trans-gresser, from Latin, past participle of transgredi "to step beyond," from trans "across" + gredi "to step"] —transgression /trænz'greʃən/ n. [C,U] trans-ient¹ /'trænzənt/ adj. (formal) 1 continuing only for a short time: His success was transient. 2 working or staying somewhere for only a short time: transient workers transient² n. [C] someone who has no home and moves from place to place tran-sis-tor /træn'zɪstə/ n. [C] PHYSICS a piece of electronic equipment that controls the flow of electricity in radios, televisions, etc.

tran-sit /'trænzɪt/ [Ac] n. [U] 1 the process of moving people, products, etc. from one place to another: The shipment must have been lost in transit. 2 the system of moving people or things from one place to another: Is it easy to get there using public transit? (=buses, trains, etc.) [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin transitus, from transire "to go across," from trans "across" + ire "to go"] tran-si-tion /træn'zɪʃən/ [Ac] n. [C,U] (formal) the process of changing from one form or condition to another: The transition from full-time work to retirement can be difficult.

tran-si-tion-al /træn'zɪʃənəl/ [Ac] adj. relating to a period of change from one form or condition to another: transitional housing | a transitional period between jobs tran-si-tive verb /,trænzətɪv 'vəb/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a transitive verb has an object. In the sentence "She makes her own clothes," "makes" is a transitive verb. → INTRANSITIVE VERB tran-si-to-ry /'trænzə'tɔri/ [Ac] adj. TRANSIENT trans-late /'trænzleɪt, 'trænz'leɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to change speech or writing from one language to another → INTERPRET: He translated the book into German. 2 translate into sth if one thing translates into another, the second thing happens as a result of the first: Will more investment translate into more jobs? —translation /trænz'leɪʃən/ n. [C,U] trans-la-tor /'trænz,leɪtə/ n. [C] someone who changes writing or speech into a different language → INTERPRETER trans-lu-cent /trænz'lusənt/ adj. not transparent, but clear enough for some light to pass through

[ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, present participle of translucere "to shine through," from lucere "to shine"] —translucence n. [U]

trans-mis-sion /trænz'mɪʃən/ [Ac] n. 1 [C,U] the process of sending out radio or television signals or programs, or the signals or programs themselves 2 [C] the part of a vehicle that uses the power from the engine to turn the wheels: The car has automatic transmission. 3 [U] (formal) the process of sending or passing something from one place, person, etc. to another: the transmission of disease 4 [U] (formal) the process of passing information, ideas, CUSTOMS, etc. between people: the transmission of values from parent to child trans-mit /trænz'mɪt/ [Ac] v. (transmitted, transmitting) 1 [I,T] to send out electric signals for radio or television [Syn] broadcast 2 [T] to send or pass something from one place, person, etc. to another: The virus is transmitted through the blood. 3 [T] (formal) to pass knowledge, ideas, CUSTOMS, etc. from one person or group to another: Schools transmit both knowledge and culture to students. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin transmittere, from trans "across" + mittere "to send"] trans-mit-ter /trænz'mɪtə, 'trænz,mɪtə/ n. [C] equipment that sends out radio or television signals trans-mute /trænz'myut/ v. [I,T] (formal) to change from one substance or type of thing into another, or to make someone or something do this: The article shows how traditional African music was transmuted into modern forms such as jazz or gospel. —transmutable adj. —transmutation /,trænzmyu'teɪʃən/ n. [C,U]

trans-par-ent /træns'pærənt, -'pær-/ adj. 1 if something is transparent, you can see through it: transparent glass 2 easy to notice and not deceiving anyone [Syn] obvious: The ad was a transparent attempt to fool the voters. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Medieval Latin, present participle of transparere "to show through," from Latin trans "through" + parere "to show"] —transparency n. [U] —transparently adv.

tran-spi-ra-tion /,træns'pəreɪʃən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the process that happens when a plant loses water through its leaves tran-spire /træn'spaɪə/ v. [I] (formal) to happen: Nobody knows what transpired that day.

trans-plant¹ /træns'plænt/ v. [T] 1 to move an organ, piece of skin, etc. from one person's body to another 2 to move a plant from one place and put it in another [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Late Latin transplantare, from Latin trans "across" + plantare "to plant"] trans-plant² /'trænsplænt/ n. [C,U] a medical operation in which an organ from someone's body is put into another person, or the organ itself: a heart transplant trans-port /træns'pɔrt/ [Ac] v. [T] to move or carry goods, people, etc. from one place to another in a vehicle: Helicopters will transport the equipment. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French transporter, from Latin, from trans “across” + portare “to carry”]

THESAURUS carry, cart, haul → CARRY trans-por-ta-tion /ˌtrænsˈpɔːtɪʃən/ [Ac] n. [U] 1 a system or method for carrying passengers or goods from one place to another: Buses are the main form of public transportation. 2 the process or business of taking goods from one place to another: the transportation of goods trans-pose /trænsˈpoʊz/ v. [T] (formal) to change the order or position of two or more words, letters, etc.

trans-sex-u-al /trænzˈsɛksʃuəl/ n. [C] someone who has had a medical operation to become a person of the opposite sex trans-verse /ˌtrænzˈvɜːs/ adj. lying or placed across something trans-ves-tite /trænzˈvɛstɪt/ n. [C] someone, especially a man, who enjoys dressing like a person of the opposite sex trap¹ /træp/ n. [C] 1 a piece of equipment for catching animals: a mouse trap 2 a bad situation from which it is difficult to escape: the deadly trap of drug addiction 3 a trick that is intended to catch someone or make him/her say or do something that s/he did not intend to trap² v. (trapped, trapping) [T] 1 to prevent someone from escaping from somewhere, especially a dangerous place: Up to 25 people may be trapped in the burning building. 2 to trick someone so that s/he says or does something that s/he did not intend to: The police trapped him into confessing. 3 be/feel trapped to be in a bad situation from which it is difficult to escape: She was trapped in an unhappy marriage. 4 to catch an animal in a trap

THESAURUS catch, capture, corner → CATCH¹

5 to prevent something such as water, dirt, heat, etc. from escaping or spreading: The filter traps dust.

trap door n. [C] a small door that covers an opening in a floor or roof tra-peze /træˈpiːz/ n. [C] a short BAR hanging

T

from two ropes high above the ground, used by ACROBATS tra-pe-zi-um /trə'piziəm/ n. (plural trapezia /-ziə/ or trapeziums) [C] MATH a shape with four sides, none of which is parallel with any other side trap-e-zoid /'træpəzɔɪd/ n. [C] MATH a shape with four sides, only two of which are parallel → see picture at POLYGON trap-per /'træpə/ n. [C] someone who traps wild animals for their fur trap-pings /'træpiŋz/ n. [plural] all the clothes, possessions, etc. that show how rich, famous, or powerful someone is: He has all the trappings of stardom.

trash¹ /træʃ/ n. [U] 1 things that you throw away, such as old food, dirty paper, etc. (SYN garbage: Just put it in the trash. | Will someone please take out the trash (=take it outside the house)?)

THESAURUS garbage, refuse, litter, waste
→ GARBAGE

2 (informal) something that is of very poor quality: There's so much trash on TV these days.

trash² v. [T] (informal) 1 to destroy something completely: You can't have parties if your friends are going to trash the place. 2 to criticize someone or something severely: Critics have trashed the movie.

T

'trash can n. [C] a GARBAGE CAN

'trash compactor n. [C] a machine used for pressing trash into a small mass

'trash talk also 'trash talking n. [U] the act of saying rude or insulting things to or about a sports player during a game or competition trash-y /'træʃi/ adj. of extremely bad quality: trashy novels

trau-ma /'trɒmə, 'traʊmə/ n. [C,U] a state of extreme shock that is caused by a very bad or frightening experience, or the experience itself: the trauma of divorce | soldiers suffering from trauma [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Greek “wound”]

trau-mat-ic /trə'mætɪk, trɔ-/ adj. very shocking and upsetting: a traumatic experience trau-ma-tize /'trɒmətaɪz, 'traʊ-/ v. [T] to shock someone so badly that s/he is affected by it for a very long time: He was traumatized by his war experiences.

'trav-el¹ /'trævəl/ v. 1 [I,T] to make a trip from one place to another, especially to distant places: Rick's traveling across/through the U.S. with a backpack. | We always travel light (=without taking many bags). | We traveled by bus/train etc. through France. | He spent years traveling the country/world.

THESAURUS
Ways of traveling drive or go by car fly or go by plane

sail or go by boat/ship take a train/bus/taxi/cab or go by train/bus etc.
walk/hike or go on foot bike or go by bike

Someone who travels traveler – any person who is traveling passenger – someone who is traveling in a car, bus, train, airplane, etc.

tourist – someone who is traveling somewhere for a vacation explorer – someone who travels to places that people have not visited before commuter – someone who travels a long distance to work every day → AIRPORT, JOURNEY, PASSPORT

2 [I] to move from one place or person to another: News travels fast in a small town. 3 [I,T] to go a particular distance or at a particular speed: We traveled over 400 miles the first day of our trip. | The bus was traveling at a high speed.

travel² n. 1 [U] the act or activity of traveling: Heavy rain is making road travel difficult.

USAGE

You can take, make, or go on a trip, journey, or voyage, but you cannot use these verbs with travel.

THESAURUS

travel/traveling – the general activity of going from one place to another, especially for long distances and long periods of time: a special ticket for train travel around Europe | I haven't really done much traveling.

trip – the time spent and the distance traveled in going from one place to another: a trip to the grocery store | They're planning a trip to Hawaii.

journey (formal) – a trip that is long or difficult: the journey across the plains in a covered wagon travels – trips to places that are far away, or the act of moving from place to place over a period of time: her travels in South America voyage – a trip in which you travel by ship or in a spacecraft, used mainly in stories: Columbus's voyage across the ocean tour – a trip for pleasure, during which you visit several different towns, areas, etc.: a tour of Europe expedition – a long and carefully organized trip, especially to a dangerous or unfamiliar place: Lewis and Clark's expedition across North America excursion – a short trip to visit a place, usually by a group of people: an all-day excursion to Catalina Island pilgrimage – a trip to a holy place for religious reasons: a pilgrimage to Lourdes

2 travels [plural] trips, especially to places that are far away: She made a lot of friends on her travels.

'travel agency n. [C] a business that arranges travel and vacations

'travel agent n. [C] someone who works in a travel agency trav-el-er /'trævələ/ n. [C] someone who is on a trip or who travels often

'traveler's check n. [C] a special check that can be exchanged for the money of a foreign country tra-verse /trə'vəs/ v. [T] (formal) to move across, over, or through something, especially land or water trav-es-ty /'trævisti/ n. (plural travesties) [C] something that is very bad because it is not what it should be: The trial was described as a travesty of justice.

trawl /trɔl/ n. [C] a wide net that is pulled along the bottom of the ocean to catch fish —trawl v. [I,T] trawl-er /'trɔlə/ n. [C] a fishing boat that uses a trawl tray /treɪ/ n. [C] a flat piece of plastic, metal, or wood with raised edges, that is used for carrying things such as plates, food, etc.

treach-er-ous /'tretʃərəs/ adj. 1 someone who is treacherous cannot be trusted because s/he secretly intends to harm you 2 extremely dangerous because you cannot see the dangers: Black ice on the roads made driving treacherous.

treach-er-y /'tretʃəri/ n. [U] actions that are not loyal to someone who trusts you tread¹ /tred/ v. (past tense trod /trad/, past participle trodden /'trɒdn/) 1 tread carefully/lightly etc. to be very careful about what you say or do in a difficult situation: It's best to tread lightly when the boss is in a bad mood. 2 tread water to stay floating upright in deep water by moving your legs as if you were riding a bicycle 3 [I,T] (old-fashioned) to walk or step on something tread² n. 1 [C,U] the pattern of lines on the part of a tire that touches the road 2 [C] the part of a stair that you put your foot on tread-mill /'tredmɪl/ n. 1 [C] a piece of exercise equipment that has a large belt around a set of wheels, that you can walk or run on while staying in the same place 2 [singular] work or a way of life that seems very boring because you always have to do the same things treason /'trizən/ n. [U] the crime of being disloyal to your country or government, especially by helping its enemies treasure¹ /'treʒə/ n. 1 [U] a group of valuable things, such as gold, silver, jewels, etc.: a story about buried treasure 2 [C] a very valuable and important object such as a painting or ancient document: the treasures of the Art Institute of Chicago treasure² v. [T] to treat something or someone as very special, important, or valuable: I'll always treasure the memories of this day.

'treasure hunt n. [C] a game in which you have to find something that has been hidden by answering questions that are left in different places treas-ur-er /'treʒərə/ n. [C] someone who takes care of the money for an organization treas-ur-y /'treʒəri/ n. (plural treasuries) [C] 1 the money in an organization's accounts 2 a government office that controls a country's money: the Treasury Department

treat¹ /trit/ v. [T] 1 to behave toward someone in a particular way: Why do you treat me like an idiot? | My parents always treated me as an equal. | Mr. Parker treats everyone equally/fairly. 2 to consider something in a particular way: You can treat these costs as business expenses. 3 to give someone medical attention for a sickness or injury: Eleven people were treated for minor injuries. 4 to buy or arrange something special for someone: We're treating Mom to dinner for her birthday. 5 to put a special substance on something or use a chemical process in order to protect or clean it: The wood has been treated to make it waterproof.

treat² n. 1 [C] something special that you give someone or do for him/her: If you're good, I'll buy you a treat. 2 [singular] an unexpected event that gives you a lot of pleasure: Getting your letter was a real treat. 3 my treat (spoken) used in order to tell someone that you will pay for something: Put away your money – dinner's my treat.

treat-a-ble /'tri:təbəl/ adj. able to be medically treated: The disease is treatable with antibiotics.

treasure-tise /'tri:təs/ n. [C] a serious book or article about a particular subject: a treatise on political philosophy treat-ment /'tritˌmənt/ n. 1 [C,U] a method that is intended to cure an injury or sickness: a new treatment for cancer | She was given emergency treatment by paramedics. 2 [U] a particular way of behaving toward someone or of dealing with him/her: Western society's treatment of women has improved. | The coach denied giving his son preferential/special treatment. 3 [C,U] a particular way of dealing with or talking about a subject: I didn't think the program gave the issue serious treatment. 4 [U] a process by which something is cleaned, protected, etc.: a waste treatment plant

treas-ty /'tri:tɪ/ n. (plural treaties) [C] POLITICS a formal written agreement between two or more countries: a peace treaty tre-ble¹ /'trebəl/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the upper half of the whole range of musical notes treble² v. [I,T] to TRIPLE tree /tri/ n. [C] a very tall plant that has a TRUNK (=thick wooden stem), branches, and leaves: an apple tree | As a kid, I loved to climb trees. [ORIGIN: Old English treow]

THESAURUS

Types of tree

evergreen – an evergreen tree does not lose its leaves in winter deciduous – a deciduous tree loses its leaves in winter

T

conifer – a tree such as a pine or fir that has leaves like needles and produces cones containing seeds fruit tree – a tree that produces fruit that can be eaten

Areas of trees

the woods – a large area with many trees woodland – an area of land that is covered with trees forest – a very large area with a lot of trees growing closely together rain forest – a tropical forest with tall trees, in an area where it rains a lot jungle – a tropical forest with trees and large plants bush – wild country with trees and bushes in Australia or Africa grove – a piece of land with trees growing on it, usually the same type of tree

Material from trees

wood – the usual word for the hard material that trees are made of lumber/timber – wood used for building and making things hardwood – strong heavy wood from trees such as oaks softwood – wood from trees such as pine and fir that is cheap and easy to cut firewood – wood that has been cut or collected in order to be burned in a fire

→ see picture at PLANT¹

tree-top /'tritɒp/ n. [C usually plural] the top branches of a tree trek /træk/ v. (trekked, trekking) [I] to make a long and difficult trip on foot: Lewis and Clark, the explorers, trekked across the Rockies. —trek n. [C]: a trek across the country —trekking n. [U] trellis /'trɛlɪs/ n. [C] a wooden frame for supporting climbing plants

trem-ble /'trɛmbəl/ v. [I] to shake because you are upset, afraid, or excited: Her lip trembled as she spoke. | Ray's voice was trembling with fear/anger.

THESAURUS shake, shiver, quiver → SHAKE¹

tre-men-dous /trɪ'mendəs/ adj. 1 very great in amount, size, power, etc.: I have tremendous respect for her. | a runner with tremendous speed 2 excellent: The play was a tremendous success. —tremendously adv.

trem-or /'trɛmər/ n. [C] 1 a small EARTHQUAKE 2 a slight shaking movement in your body that you cannot control: There was a tremor in her hands.

trem-u-lous /'trɛmyələs/ adj. (literary) shaking slightly, especially because you are nervous: a tremulous voice —tremulously adv.

trench /trɛntʃ/ n. [C] a long narrow hole that is dug along the ground tren-chant /'trɛntʃənt/ adj. (written) expressed very strongly, effectively, and directly: a trenchant criticism of big business

'trench coat n. [C] a long RAINCOAT with a belt trend /trɛnd/ (AC) n. [C] 1 the way a situation is generally developing or changing (SYN) tendency: There's a trend toward more part-time employment. | recent trends in education 2 a way of doing something or a way of thinking that is becoming fashionable: fashion trends trend-y /'trɛndi/ adj. (comparative trendier, superlative trendiest) (informal) modern and fashionable: the trendiest club in town

THESAURUS fashionable, stylish → FASHIONABLE

trep-i-da-tion /,trɛpə'deɪʃən/ n. [U] (formal) a feeling of anxiety or fear about something that is going to happen tres-pass /'trɛspæs/ v. [I] to go onto someone's land without permission —trespasser n. [C]

THESAURUS enter, sneak in, get in, intrude → ENTER¹

tres-tle /'trɛsəl/ n. [C] a wooden support made of beams in an "A" shape under a table or bridge

tri-al /'traɪəl/ n. 1 [C,U] a legal process in which a court of law examines a case to decide whether someone is guilty of a crime → TRY: a murder trial | Holt is on trial for (=being judged in a court for) bank robbery. | He stands trial (=will be judged in a court) in June. | The defendant has a right to a fair trial. 2 [C,U] a test to know if something works well and is safe: clinical trials of a new drug 3 [C,U] a short period during which you use something or employ someone to find out whether he, she, or it is satisfactory for a particular purpose or job: Bonnie's been hired on a trial basis. 4 trial and error testing different ways of doing something in order to find the best one: I learned to cook by/through trial and error. 5 tri-als [plural] a sports competition in which people who want to be on a team are tested to find out who is best (SYN) tryout: the Olympic swimming trials 6 trials and tribulations difficult experiences and troubles: He's undergoing all the trials and tribulations of being a teenager.

trial 'run n. [C] an occasion when you test something new in order to see if it works tri-an-gle /'traɪ,æŋɡəl/ n. [C] 1 a flat shape with three straight sides and three angles → see picture at POLYGON

THESAURUS shape, square, circle, semicircle, rectangle, oval → SHAPE¹

2 a small musical instrument shaped like a triangle, that you play by hitting it with a small metal BAR [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin triangulum, from tri- "three" + angulus "angle"] —triangular /'traɪ,æŋɡjələs/ adj.

tri-ath-lon /traɪ'æθlən, -lən/ n. [C] a sports competition in which you run, swim, and ride a bicycle tribe /traɪb/ n. [C] a social group that consists of people of the same RACE who have the same beliefs, customs, language, etc. and live in one area ruled by a chief: the tribes of the Amazon jungle —tribal adj.: tribal art | tribal leaders

THESAURUS race, nation, people, ethnic group → RACE¹

trib-u-la-tion /ˈtrɪbyʊˈleɪʃən/ n. [C,U] (formal) serious trouble or a serious problem → trials and tribulations at TRIAL

tri-bu-nal /traɪ'byʊnəl, trɪ-/ n. [C] a type of court that has official authority to deal with a particular situation or problem: a war crimes tribunal tri-bu-tar-y /ˈtrɪbyʊˌtəri/ n. (plural tributaries) [C] a river or stream that flows into a larger river trib-ute /ˈtrɪbyut/ n. [C,U] something that you say, do, or give in order to express your respect or admiration for someone: The concert will be a tribute to Bob Dylan. → pay tribute to sb/sth *at PAY*¹ [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin tributum, from tribuere “to give out to the tribes, pay”] tri-ceps /ˈtraɪseps/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the large muscle at the back of your upper arm

trick¹ /trɪk/ n. [C] 1 something you do in order to deceive someone: It was just a trick to get me to agree. 2 something you do to surprise someone and make other people laugh: The kids like playing tricks on the grownups. 3 a skillful set of actions that seem like magic, done in order to entertain people: a magic trick 4 do the trick (spoken) if something does the trick, it solves a problem or achieves what you want: A little salt should do the trick. 5 an effective way of doing something: There's a trick to getting the audience's attention.

trick² v. [T] to deceive someone in order to get something from him/her or make him/her do something: Believe me, we're not trying to trick you. | Clients were tricked into believing he'd invest the money.

trick-er-y /ˈtrɪkəri/ n. [U] the use of tricks to deceive or cheat people trick-le /ˈtrɪkəl/ v. [I] 1 if liquid trickles somewhere, it flows slowly in drops or in a thin stream:

Sweat trickled down his face. 2 if people, vehicles, goods, etc. trickle somewhere, they move there slowly in small groups or amounts: Refugees have begun to trickle across the border. —trickle n. [C]: a trickle of blood trick or 'treat v. go trick or treating if children go trick or treating, they put on COSTUMES and go from house to house on Halloween and say “trick or treat” in order to get candy trick-ster /ˈtrɪkstə/ n. [C] someone who deceives or cheats people trick-y /ˈtrɪki/ adj. (comparative trickier, superlative trickiest) something that is tricky is difficult to deal with or do because it is complicated and full of problems: Finding out how the trouble started will be tricky.

tri-cus-pid valve /traɪ'kʌspɪd ,vælv/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a part on the right side of your heart that opens and closes to allow blood to flow from the right ATRIUM into the right VENTRICLE and prevent blood from flowing back into the atrium → see picture at HEART

tri-cy-cle /ˈtraɪsɪkl/ n. [C] a small vehicle, used especially by young children, with one wheel at the front and two wheels at the back tri-dent /ˈtraɪdnt/ n. [C] a weapon with three points that looks like a large fork tried¹ /traɪd/ v. the past tense and past participle of TRY tried² adj. tried and tested/true used successfully many times: tried and tested methods tri-file /ˈtraɪfəl/ n. [C] 1 a trifle... a little (SYN) slightly: The soup is a trifle salty. 2 something that has little value or importance trigger¹ /ˈtrɪgə/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 the part of a gun that you press with your finger to fire it: Carter aimed and pulled the trigger. 2 be the trigger (point) to be the thing that causes a serious problem trigger² also trigger off v. [T] to make something happen: Heavy rain may trigger mudslides. | Peanuts can trigger an allergic reaction in some people.

THESAURUS cause, bring about sth, result in sth, lead to sth, prompt → CAUSE² trig-o-nom-e-try /ˈtrɪgəˈnəmətri/ n. [U] MATH the part of mathematics that is concerned with the relationship between the angles and sides of TRIANGLES [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Modern Latin trigonometria, from Greek trigonon “triangle” + -metria “measuring”]

trike /traɪk/ n. [C] (informal) a TRICYCLE tri-lat-er-al /ˈtraɪˌlætərəl/ adj. including three groups or countries: a trilateral agreement

trill /trɪl/ n. [C] a musical sound made by quickly repeating two notes that are very similar: a bird's trill —trill v. [I,T] tril·lion /ˈtrɪljən/ number 1,000,000,000,000 tril·o·gy /ˈtrɪlədʒi/ n. (plural trilogies) [C] a group of three books, plays, movies, etc. that have the same subject or characters [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Greek trilogia “group of three plays,” from tri- “three” + -logia “-logy”] trim¹ /trɪm/ v. (trimmed, trimming) [T] 1 to cut a small amount off something, especially to make it look neater: Trim off the excess fat.

THESAURUS cut, snip → CUT¹

2 to reduce the size or amount of something, especially to save money: The mayor has plans to trim the city's budget. 3 to decorate something around its edges: a coat trimmed with velvet trim² adj. thin and healthy looking: a trim figure trim³ n. 1 [singular] an act of cutting something in order to make it look neater: Your beard needs a trim. 2 [singular, U] a decoration around the edges of a car, piece of clothing, etc.: a blue car with white trim

tri·mes·ter /ˈtraɪməstər, trarˈməstər/ n. [C] 1 one of three periods into which a year at school or college is divided 2 BIOLOGY one of the three-month periods of a woman's PREGNANCY: Many women feel sick during the first trimester of pregnancy. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French trimestre, from Latin trimestris, from tri- “three” + mensis “month”] trim·mings /ˈtrɪmɪŋz/ n. all the trimmings all the other types of food that are traditionally served with the main dish of a meal: a turkey dinner with all the trimmings trin·i·ty /ˈtrɪnəti/ n. the (Holy) Trinity in the Christian religion, the union of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in one God trin·ket /ˈtrɪŋkɪt/ n. [C] a piece of jewelry or a small pretty object that is not worth much money tri·no·mi·al /trarˈnoʊmiəl/ n. [C] MATH a mathematical expression that has three parts connected by the sign + or the sign −, for example $x + y + z$ —trinomial adj.

tri·o /ˈtriʊ/ n. (plural trios) [C] 1 a group of three people or things: a jazz trio 2 a piece of music for three performers

trip¹ /trɪp/ n. [C] 1 an occasion when you go from one place to another, often to visit a place or person: a trip to the grocery store | I'd met him on my last trip to Japan. | They recently took a trip to Florida. | a camping/fishing/ski trip | a week-long business trip

THESAURUS travel, journey, voyage, tour, expedition, excursion, pilgrimage → TRAVEL²

2 (slang) the strange mental experiences someone has when s/he takes an illegal drug such as LSD trip² v. (tripped, tripping) 1 [I] to hit something with your foot by accident so that you fall or almost fall: Jack tripped on/over the bottom step.

THESAURUS fall, slip, stumble, lose your balance → FALL¹

2 [T] also trip up to make someone fall by putting your foot in front of him/her when s/he is moving 3 [T] to accidentally make an electrical system operate by moving part of it: An intruder had tripped the alarm.

trip (sb ↔) up phr. v. to make a mistake, or to cause someone to make a mistake: The question was intended to trip him up.

tri·par·tite gov·ern·ment /traɪˌpɑːrtart ˈɡʌvəmənt/ n. [C,U] POLITICS a government in which three political parties share power tripe /traɪp/ n. [U] the stomach of a cow or pig, used as food tri·ple¹ /ˈtrɪpəl/ adj. having three parts, or involving three people or groups: a triple gold medal winner triple² v. [I,T] to increase by three times as much, or to make something do this: The landlord tripled the rent.

tri·plet /ˈtrɪplɪt/ n. [C] one of three children born at the same time to the same mother trip·li·cate /ˈtrɪpləkeɪt/ n. in triplicate if a document is written in triplicate, there are three copies of it tri·pod /ˈtraɪpɒd/ n.

[C] a support with three legs, used for a camera, TELESCOPE, etc.

trite /traɪt/ adj. a trite remark, idea, etc. has been used so often that it seems boring and not sincere tri·umph¹ /ˈtraɪəmf/ n. 1 [C] an important success or victory, especially after a difficult struggle: a foreign policy triumph | Fans celebrated San Francisco's triumph over Cincinnati in the Super Bowl.

2 [U] a feeling of pleasure and satisfaction that you get from success or victory: shouts of triumph —triumphant /trarˈʌmfənt/ adj.: a triumphant army triumph² v. [I] to gain a victory or success, especially after a difficult struggle: Good will triumph over evil.

THESAURUS win, be victorious, prevail → WIN¹ tri·um·phal /trarˈʌmfəl/ adj. done or made in order to celebrate a victory or success: a triumphal parade triv·i·a /ˈtrɪviə/ n. [plural] 1 detailed facts about history, famous people, sports, etc.: movie trivia | a trivia quiz/game/contest 2 unimportant or useless details: meaningless trivia triv-i-al /ˈtrɪviəl/ adj. not important, valuable, or serious: This issue is not a trivial matter. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin trivialis “found everywhere, common,” from trivium “place where three roads meet, crossroads”] triv-i-al-ize /ˈtrɪviəlaɪz/ v. [T] to make something important seem less important than it really is: The media seemed to trivialize the court’s decision.

tRNA /ˈti ər ɛn ˈeɪ/ BIOLOGY the abbreviation of TRANSFER RNA tro-chee /ˈtroʊki/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a RHYTHM in poetry, that has a STRESSED (=emphasized) word or SYLLABLE (=part of a word) followed by a word or syllable that is not stressed, for example in the word “father” trod /trəd/ v. the past tense of TREAD trod-den /ˈtrɒdn/ v. the past participle of TREAD troll /troʊl/ n. [C] an imaginary creature in ancient Scandinavian stories, like a very large or very small ugly person trol-ley /ˈtrɒli/ n. [C] an electric vehicle for carrying passengers, that moves along the street on metal tracks trom-bone /trəmˈboʊn/ n. [C] a metal musical instrument, that you play by blowing into it and moving a long sliding tube —trombonist n. [C] tramp /træmp, trɒmp/ v. [I] (informal) to walk around or through a place with firm heavy steps troop¹ /truːp/ n. 1 troops [plural] soldiers in an organized group: Troops were sent in to stop the riots. 2 troop movement/withdrawal/morale/readiness etc. the movements, etc. of soldiers 3 [C] a group of soldiers, especially on horses or in TANKS 4 [C] an organized group of people or animals: a Girl Scout troop [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French, Late Latin tróppus “group of sheep”] troop² v. [I] (informal) to move together in a group: People trooped across/along/down etc. the street.

troop-er /ˈtruːpə/ n. [C] a member of a state police force in the U.S.

tro-phy /ˈtroʊfi/ n. (plural trophies) [C] a prize for winning a competition, especially a silver cup or a PLAQUE: He was presented with the championship trophy.

trop-ic /ˈtrɒpɪk/ n. 1 the tropics [plural] EARTH SCIENCES the hottest part of the world, which is between the Tropic of Cancer and the Tropic of Capricorn 2 [C] EARTH SCIENCES of the two imaginary lines around the world, either the Tropic of Cancer which is 23½° north of the EQUATOR, or the Tropic of Capricorn which is 23½° south of the equator → see picture at GLOBE

trop-i-cal /ˈtrɒpɪkəl/ adj. 1 coming from or existing in the hottest and wettest parts of the world: tropical flowers 2 weather that is tropical is hot and the air seems wet tropical zone n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES parts of the Earth near the tropics, where the weather is always hot and the Sun shines for most of the year tro-pism /ˈtroʊpɪzəm/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the ways in which a plant moves or grows as a reaction to things such as light, GRAVITY, or being touched tro-po-sphere /ˈtroʊpəˌsfɪr, ˈtrə-/ n. the troposphere EARTH SCIENCES the lowest level of the Earth’s ATMOSPHERE, from the surface to about eleven miles above the Earth → see picture at ATMOSPHERE

trot /trət/ v. (trotted, trotting) [I] 1 if a horse trots, it moves fairly quickly with short steps 2 to run fairly slowly with short steps: Jimmy trotted along behind his parents. —trot n.

trot sb/sth ↔ out phr. v. (informal) to use an explanation, idea, opinion, etc. that has been used many times before: He trotted out the same old excuses.

trou-ba-dour /ˈtrʊbəˌdɔːr/ n. [C] a singer and poet who traveled around in past times trou-ble¹ /ˈtrʌbəl/ n.

1 PROBLEMS [C,U] problems that make something difficult, make you worry, spoil your plans, etc.: They’re having some trouble with their car. | We had trouble getting reservations. | a plane with engine trouble | the company’s financial troubles | It took her mind off her troubles.

THESAURUS problem, difficulty, hassle → PROBLEM

2 BAD POINT [singular] (spoken) used when saying what is not satisfactory about something or someone or what causes problems: The trouble with you is you don’t listen. | There isn’t enough time. That’s the trouble.

3 in/into/out of trouble a) if someone or something is in trouble, she, he, or it is in a situation that has a lot of problems or that is difficult or dangerous: Their marriage was in trouble. | The agency was in serious/big/deep trouble. b) if someone is in trouble, s/he has done something which someone will punish him/her for or be angry about: My daughter’s gotten into trouble at school. | Joe’s in trouble with the police. | After-school activities help kids stay/keep out of trouble.

4 HEALTH [U] (informal) a problem that you have with your health: He has heart/back trouble.

5 EFFORT [U] an amount of effort and time that is needed to do something: She took the trouble to explain it to us again. | “Could you help me carry this?” “Sure, it’s no trouble (=I am happy to help).”

6 be asking for trouble (informal) to take risks or do something stupid that is likely to cause problems: You’re asking for trouble if you don’t get those brakes fixed.

7 ARGUMENT/VIOLENCE [C,U] a situation in which people argue or fight with each other: The police stepped in to stop the troubles outside the courthouse.

T

trouble² v. [T] (formal) 1 if a problem troubles you, it makes you feel worried or upset: His behavior toward her troubled me. 2 to say something or ask someone to do something which may use his/her time or upset him/her: I won't trouble you again.

trou-ble /'trʌbəl/ adj. 1 worried or anxious: Clayton looked troubled.

THESAURUS upset, unsettled, disturbed, perturbed → UPSET¹

2 having many problems: our troubled public schools | We are living in troubled times. 3 having many mental or emotional problems: a deeply troubled man

trou-ble-mak-er /'trʌbəlˌmeɪkə/ n. [C] someone who deliberately causes problems trou-ble-shoot-er /'trʌbəlˌʃuːtə/ n. [C] someone whose job is to deal with serious problems in a company, organization, etc. —troubleshooting n. [U] trou-ble-some /'trʌbəlsəm/ adj. causing problems: troublesome questions

'trouble spot n. [C] a place where trouble often happens, especially war or violence: Troops are being sent to trouble spots abroad.

T trou-ble-ing /'trʌblɪŋ/ adj. worrying: The results raise some troubling questions.

trough /trɒf/ n. [C] 1 a long narrow open container that holds water or food for animals 2 ECO-NOMICS the lowest point in an economic period that has high and low points, when the total value of all goods and services produced in a country will not fall any further trounce /traʊns/ v. [T] to defeat someone completely: Colorado trounced Minnesota, 58–7.

THESAURUS beat, defeat, clobber, cream → BEAT¹ troupe /trup/ n. [C] a group of singers, actors, dancers, etc. who work together trou-sers /'traʊzəz/ n. [plural] a piece of clothing that covers the lower half of your body and that has a separate part for each leg SYN pants trout /traʊt/ n. (plural trout) [C,U] a common river fish, or the meat from this fish trove /troʊv/ n. [C usually singular] a large number of special or valuable things: a treasure trove of antique furniture trou-el /'traʊəl/ n. [C] a small garden tool used for digging tru-ant /'truənt/ adj. staying away from school without permission [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French “wanderer”] —truancy n. [U] —truant n. [C] truce /truːs/ n. [C] an agreement between two enemies to stop fighting or arguing for a short time: The warring sides have called/declared a truce.

truck¹ /trʌk/ n. [C] a large road vehicle that is used for carrying heavy loads: a truck driver | a garbage/dump/delivery etc. truck → PICKUP → see picture at TRANSPORTATION truck² v. [T] to take something somewhere by truck: Food and medicine were trucked in.

truck-er /'trʌkə/ n. [C] someone whose job is driving a truck

'truck farm n. [C] a farm that grows vegetables and fruit for sale directly to customers truck-ing /'trʌkɪŋ/ n. [U] the business of taking goods from place to place by truck truck-load /'trʌklaʊd/ n. [C] the amount of something that a truck can carry

'truck stop n. [C] a cheap place to eat and buy gas on a HIGHWAY, used especially by truck drivers truc-u-lent /'trʌkyələnt/ adj. (formal) easily annoyed and always willing to argue with people trudge /trʌdʒ/ v. [I] to walk with slow heavy steps because you are tired, or it is difficult to walk: A group of soldiers trudged up/down the hill.

THESAURUS walk, march, stride, hike → WALK¹

true /tru/ adj. 1 based on facts and not imagined or invented (ANT) false: It is true that people are living longer. | The movie is based on a true story.

THESAURUS right, correct → RIGHT¹

2 [only before noun] real and correct: the true meaning of Christmas | The house was sold for only a fraction of its true value. 3 (spoken) used when admitting that something is a fact: True, he has a college degree, but he doesn't have enough job experience. 4 true love/courage/friend etc. love, a friend, etc. that has all the qualities that he, she, or it should have: He's a true friend. 5 come true if dreams, wishes, etc. come true, they happen: Their wish for a child finally came true. 6 faithful and loyal, or doing what you have promised to do: She stayed true to her husband during the trial. | He was true to his word and didn't say anything to anyone. [ORIGIN: Old English treowe “faithful”]

THESAURUS faithful, loyal, staunch, steadfast → FAITHFUL

'true-life adj. based on what really happened, and not invented: a true-life adventure

truf-ple /'trʌfəl/ n. [C] 1 a soft chocolate candy 2 a FUNGUS you can eat that grows under the ground tru-ism /'truɪzəm/ n. [C] a statement that is clearly true, so that there is no need to say it tru-ly /'truːli/ adv. 1 used in order to emphasize that the way you are describing something is true

(SYN) really: What is truly important? | I truly believe Alex saved my life. 2 in an exact or correct way: A spider can't truly be called an insect. → yours (truly) at YOURS

trump¹ /trʌmp/ n. [C] 1 a SUIT or a playing card that is chosen to be of a higher value than the others in a particular card game 2 trump card something that you can do or use in a situation, which gives you an advantage trump² v. [T] to play a trump that beats someone else's card in a game trump sth ↔ up phr. v. to use false information to make someone seem guilty of a crime —trumped-up adj.: trumped-up charges trumpet¹ /'trʌmpɪt/ n. [C] 1 a musical instrument that you blow into, which consists of a long bent metal tube that is wide at one end 2 the loud noise that an ELEPHANT makes trumpet² v. [T] to tell everyone about something you think is important or are proud of: The headlines trumpeted their victory.

trumpet-er /'trʌmpɪtə/ n. [C] someone who plays a trumpet truncate /'trʌŋkɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to make something shorter (SYN) shorten: The speech had to be truncated because of a lack of time.

—truncation /trʌŋ'keɪʃən/ n. [U] truncated /'trʌŋkɪtɪd/ adj. made short, or shorter than before: a truncated speech trundle /'trʌndl/ v. [I,T] to move slowly on wheels, or to make something do this by pushing it or pulling it trunk /trʌŋk/ n. [C] 1 the thick central wooden stem of a tree that branches grow from: A sign was tacked to a tree trunk. → see picture at PLANT¹ 2 an enclosed space at the back of a car where you can put bags, tools, etc.: Put the suitcases in the trunk. 3 the very long nose of an ELEPHANT 4 a large box made of wood or metal, in which clothes, books, etc. are stored or packed for traveling 5 trunks [plural] short pants that men wear when swimming 6 (formal) the main part of your body, not including your head, arms, or legs

→ TORSO

trust¹ /trʌst/ v. 1 [T] to believe that someone is honest and will not do anything bad or wrong: I've never trusted her. | Can you trust him with your car (=believe he will not damage it)? | Managers must trust employees to get the job done. 2 [T] to depend on something and believe it is correct or will work: I trust his judgment. | Not trusting her voice, she nodded.

THESAURUS depend, rely on/upon, count on → DEPEND

3 I trust (spoken, formal) used in order to say that you hope something is true: The reasons, I trust, are clear.

trust in sb/sth phr. v. (formal) to believe that you can depend on someone or something trust² n. 1 [U] the belief that you can trust someone (ANT) distrust: It took three years to earn his trust. | At first, there was a lack of trust between them. | I had put my trust in the doctor. 2 [U] an arrangement in which someone legally controls your money or property, usually until you are old enough to use it: $100,000 is being held in trust for his daughter. 3 [C usually singular] an organization or group that has control over money that will be used to help someone else: the J. Paul Getty trust 4 [C] a group of companies that work together to reduce competition: a railroad trust 5 [C] ECONOMICS a group of separate companies that are placed under the control of a single managing board trust-ee /trʌ'sti/ n. [C] a person or company that has control of money or property that is in a trust for someone else trust fund n. [C] money belonging to someone that is controlled for him/her by a trustee trust-ing /'trʌstɪŋ/ adj. willing to believe that other people are good and honest: a trusting little child trust-wor-thy /'trʌst,wəði/ adj. able to be trusted or depended on trust-y /'trʌsti/ adj. (humorous) a trustworthy weapon, horse, friend, etc. is one you can depend on truth /truθ/ n. 1 the truth the true facts about something: Do you think he's telling the truth? | He finally told the truth about what he had done in the war. | It was months before the whole truth was discovered. 2 [U] the state or quality of being true: There was no truth in the rumor. 3 [C] (formal) an important fact or idea that is accepted as being true: scientific truths 4 to tell (you) the truth (spoken) used when you admit something or tell someone your true opinion: To tell you the truth, I just don't care.

truth-ful /'truθfəl/ adj. giving the true facts about something: truthful answers —truthfully adv.

try¹ /traɪ/ v. (tried, tries) 1 [I,T] to attempt to do something: Try again when you're not so tired. | Please try to come early. | Greg tried hard not to laugh.

THESAURUS

attempt – to try to do something, especially something difficult: He was attempting to climb Mt. Everest without oxygen.

see if you can do sth (spoken) – to try to do something: I'll see if I can get you a ticket.

do your best – to try very hard, even if something is difficult and you are not sure you will succeed: They'll do their best to get it finished by Friday.

make an effort to do sth – to try to do something, especially something difficult: The teachers make an effort to identify a student's strengths and weaknesses.

endeavor (formal) – to try very hard to do something: The company endeavors to satisfy its customers.

T

2 [T] to do or use something, go somewhere, taste something, etc. in order to find out if it is useful, successful, or enjoyable: Try logging off and logging on again. | Doctors are trying some new drugs in the cancer battle. | Have you tried Thai food? 3 [T] to examine and judge a person or a legal case in a court of law: Three men were tried for the murder. 4 try sb's patience/nerves/temper etc. to make someone start to feel impatient, nervous, angry, etc.

try sth on phr. v. to put on a piece of clothing to find out if it fits or makes you look attractive: I tried on one of her silk dresses.

try out phr. v. 1 try sth ↔ out to use something such as a method or piece of equipment to find out if it works or is good: Are you going to try out your new bike? 2 to show your skills in an attempt to be chosen as a member of a team, an actor in a play, etc.: Sandra's trying out for the girls' basketball team.

try² n. (plural tries) [C usually singular] an attempt to do something: It looks hard, but I'll give it a try. | Good try, kid.

trying /'traɪ-ɪŋ/ adj. difficult and unpleasant to deal with: a trying time

try-out /'traɪ-aʊt/ n. [C] an occasion when someone shows his/her skills in an attempt to be chosen for a sports team, play, etc. → AUDITION

T tsar /zar, tsar/ n. [C] another spelling of CZAR

T-shirt /'ti ʃə:t/ n. [C] a soft cotton shirt, with short SLEEVES and no collar → see picture at CLOTHES

tsp. the written abbreviation of TEASPOON tsu-na-mi /tsu'na:mi/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a very large wave which can cause a lot of damage when it reaches land. A tsunami is usually caused by an EARTHQUAKE.

tub /tʌb/ n. [C] 1 a large container in which you sit to wash yourself (SYN bathtub) 2 a plastic or paper container with a lid, that food is sold in: a tub of ice cream 3 a large round container used for washing things, storing things, etc.

tu-ba /'tubə/ n. [C] a large metal musical instrument with a wide opening that points straight up, that you play by blowing and that produces very low sounds tub-by /'tʌbi/ adj. (informal) short and fat tube /tub/ n. [C] 1 a pipe made of metal, plastic, glass, etc., especially one that liquids or gases go through: The patients are fed through tubes. 2 a container for a soft substance, that you SQUEEZE to push the substance out: a tube of toothpaste 3 a tube-shaped part inside your body: a fallopian tube (=part of a woman's organs for having babies) 4 the tube (spoken) the television: What's on the tube? 5 go down the tubes if a situation goes down the tubes, it suddenly becomes bad: Small businesses are going down the tubes.

tu-ber /'tubə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a round swollen part on the stem of some plants, that grows below the ground and from which new plants grow. A potato is a tuber.

tu-ber-cu-lo-sis /tʊ,bə'kyə'lou:sis/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a serious infectious disease that affects the lungs and other parts of the body tub-ing /'tubɪŋ/ n. [U] tubes, usually connected together in a system: copper tubing tu-bu-lar /'tubyələ/ adj. made of tubes or shaped like a tube tuck¹ /tʌk/ v. [T] 1 to push the edge of a cloth or piece of clothing into something so that it stays in place: He tucked in his shirt. 2 to put something in a small space or a safe place: She tucked the money into her pocket. 3 to tuck an arm, leg, or head close to the body and keep it there: The duck had its head tucked under its wing.

tuck sth ↔ away phr. v. 1 to put something in a safe or hidden place: She tucked it away in a drawer. 2 be tucked away to be in a safe or hidden place: They own a cabin tucked away in the mountains.

tuck sb ↔ in phr. v. to make a child feel comfortable in bed by arranging the BLANKETS around him or her tuck² n. [C] 1 a fold of cloth sewn flat in a piece of clothing 2 a medical operation to make someone look thinner or younger: a tummy tuck

Tues-day /'tuzdi, -dei/ (written abbreviation Tues.) n. [C,U] the third day of the week, between Monday and Wednesday: He'll be back Tuesday. | Martha is going to St. Louis on Tuesday. | I'll see you next Tuesday. | We had the exam last Tuesday. | The meeting is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon. [ORIGIN: Old English tiwesdæg, from Tiw god of war + dæg "day"] tuft /tʌft/ n. [C] a short thick group of hairs, feathers, grass, etc.: a tuft of hair —tufted adj.

tug¹ /tʌg/ v. (tugged, tugging) [I,T] to pull something suddenly and hard: Alice tugged at my hand.

THESAURUS pull, drag → PULL¹

tug² n. [C] 1 also tug boat a small strong boat used for pulling ships 2 a sudden strong pull tug-of-war n. [singular] 1 a competition in which two teams pull on the opposite ends of a rope 2 a situation in which two people or groups compete to get or keep the same thing tu-i-tion /tu'ɪʃən/ n. [U] 1 the money you pay for being taught: What is the cost of tuition at a private college? 2 the act of teaching tu-lip /'tulɪp/ n. [C] a tall brightly colored garden flower, shaped like a cup [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Modern Latin tulipa, from Turkish tülbend "turban;" from the shape of the flower] tum-ble /'tʌmbəl/ v. [I] 1 to fall or roll in a sudden uncontrolled way: Rocks tumbled down the hillside. 2 to decrease suddenly: Oil prices have tumbled. —tumble n. [C] tum-bler /'tʌmblə/ n. [C] a glass with a flat bottom and no handle tum-my /'tʌmi/ n. (plural tummies) [C] (informal) stomach – used especially by or to children tu-mor /'tʊmə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a group of cells in the body that grow too quickly and cause sickness or health problems: a brain tumor tu-mult /'tʊmʌlt/ n. [C,U] (formal) a state of confusion, excitement, or other strong emotion: the tumult of civil war — tumultuous /tʊ'mʌltʃuəs/ adj.

tu-na /'tʊnə/ n. [C,U] a large common ocean fish, or the meat from this fish, usually sold in cans [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 American Spanish, Spanish atun, from Arabic tun] tun-dra /'tʌndrə/ n. [U] EARTH SCIENCES the large flat areas of land in northern areas where it is very cold and there are no trees

tune¹ /tʊn/ n. 1 [C] a series of musical notes that are nice to listen to: a pretty tune | It's sung to the tune of "Happy Birthday." 2 in tune/out of tune playing or singing the correct musical notes, or playing or singing notes that are slightly too high or low: My guitar's completely out of tune. 3 in tune with sb/sth, out of tune with sb/sth able or unable to realize, understand, or agree with what someone else thinks or wants: Do we want a president who is in tune with ordinary Americans? 4 to the tune of $100/$15 million etc. (informal) used in order to emphasize how large an amount or number is 5 change your tune to suddenly have a different opinion about something tune² v. [T] 1 to make a musical instrument play the correct PITCH: The piano needs to be tuned. 2 to make a television or radio receive broadcasts from a particular CHANNEL or STATION: Stay tuned for more great music on KHPI. 3 also tune up to make small changes to an engine so that it works better tune in phr. v. 1 to watch or listen to a particular television or radio program, or to make your television or radio receive that program: I tuned in to the Giants' game. 2 (informal) to realize or understand what is happening or what other people are thinking: Try to tune in to your spouse's needs.

tune (sb/sth ↔) out phr. v. (informal) to ignore or stop listening to someone or something: It's hard to tune out the noise in the office sometimes.

tune up phr. v. when musicians tune up, they prepare their instruments so that they play at the same PITCH

'tune-up n. [C] an occasion when someone fixes and cleans your car's engine, or the process of doing this tu-nic /'tʊnɪk/ n. [C] 1 a long loose piece of clothing, usually without SLEEVES, worn in the past 2 a woman's long loose shirt tun-nel¹ /'tʌnl/ n. [C] a passage that has been dug under the ground or through a mountain, usually for cars or trains [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French tonel "barrel," from tonne, from Medieval Latin tunna] tunnel² v. [I] to dig a tunnel tunnel 'vision n. [U] 1 the tendency to think about only one subject, so that you forget other things that may be important too 2 a condition in which someone's eyes are damaged so that s/he can only see straight ahead

Tup-per-ware /'tʌpə,wɛr/ n. [U] (trademark) a type of plastic container with a tight lid, used for storing food

tur-ban /'tʌbən/ n. [C] a long piece of cloth that is worn twisted around the top of your head tur-bine /'tʌbaɪn, -baɪn/ n. [C] an engine that works when the pressure from a liquid or gas moves a special wheel around tur-bu-lence /'tʌbyələns/ n. [U] 1 irregular and strong movements of air or water that are caused by the wind: There was a lot of turbulence during the flight. 2 a situation in which people's thoughts, actions, and emotions are always changing: political turbulence

tur-bu-lent /'tʌbyələnt/ adj. 1 experiencing a lot of sudden changes and often wars or violence: The book is set during the turbulent years before the American Revolution. 2 turbulent winds, oceans, etc. move around a lot with strong movements turd /tɜːd/ n. [C] (informal) a piece of solid brown waste passed from the body tu-reen /tʊ'reɪn/ n. [C] a large dish with a lid, used especially for serving soup turf /tɜːf/ n. [U] 1 grass and soil on the ground's surface, or an artificial substance made to look like this: thick green turf 2 (informal) an area that someone knows well and feels that s/he controls or owns: Davis's political turf

tur-gid /'tɜːdʒɪd/ adj. 1 boring and difficult to understand: turgid poetry 2 swollen, especially with liquid tur-key /'tɜːki/ n. [C,U] a bird similar to a chicken but larger, or the meat from this bird [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Turkey; because the bird looked like the guinea fowl, which was brought into Europe through Turkey] → COLD TURKEY

tur-moil /'tɜːmɔɪl/ n. [singular, U] a state of confusion, excitement, and trouble: In 1967 the country was in racial turmoil.

T

turn¹ /tɜːn/ v.

1 YOUR BODY [I] to move your body so that you are looking in a different direction: Alison turned and walked away. | Turn around so I can zip you up. | He turned to look behind him.

2 OBJECT [T] to move an object so that it is facing in a different direction: She turned the box around/over to look at the label. | A boat was turned upside down on the beach.

3 DIRECTION [I] a) to go in a new direction when you are walking, driving, etc.: Turn right at the next light. b) if a road, river, etc. turns, it curves and starts to go in a new direction: Further on the river turns east.

4 MOVE AROUND A CENTRAL POINT [I,T] to move around a central point that does not move: The wheels turned slowly.

THESAURUS

twist – to turn something using a circular movement: She twisted her hair up into a bun.

spin – to turn around and around very quickly: Skaters were spinning on the ice.

whirl – to turn around and around very quickly, or to make something do this: the noise of the whirling fans twirl – to turn around and around or to make something do this, especially as part of a dance or performance: Half a dozen couples were twirling to a waltz.

swivel – to turn around while remaining in the same place, or to make something do this: a desk chair that swivels go around – to move in a continuous circular movement: The fans go around to move the air and cool the room.

revolve – to turn around a central point: The wheels began to revolve slowly.

rotate – to turn or move around a particular point: The Earth rotates every 24 hours.

5 AGE [linking verb] to become a particular age: Megan's just turned four.

6 CHANGE [linking verb] to start to have a different quality than before: The weather will turn colder. | The protests turned violent. | His hair is turning gray. | Helen turned bright red (=because she was embarrassed).

7 PAGE [T] to move a page in a book or magazine so that you can see the next one

8 ATTENTION/THOUGHTS [I,T] to start to think about, deal with, look at, etc. a particular person, thing, or subject, instead of what you were thinking about, etc. before: The reporters turned their attention to Dugan. | The conversation turned to events in Eastern Europe.

9 turn your back (on sb/sth) to refuse to help or be involved with someone or something: She wouldn't turn her back on her friends.

10 turn over a new leaf to decide that you will change your behavior to make it better

11 turn a deaf ear/turn a blind eye to ignore what someone is saying or doing: The administration turned a blind eye to the arms shipments.

12 turn sb/sth loose to allow a person or animal to be free to do what she, he, or it wants to make someone stop liking or agreeing with someone or something: His experiences in Vietnam turned him against the war.

13 turn a profit to make a profit → turn your nose up (at sth) at NOSE¹, turn the tables (on sb) at TABLE¹, turn sth upside down at UPSIDE DOWN turn (sb) against sb/sth phr. v.

turn around phr. v.

1 turn (sth ↔) around if a situation, business, game, etc. turns around, or if you turn it around, it changes and starts to become successful or to develop in the way you want: The economy appears to be turning around. | They've turned the business around.

2 turn around and say/do sth to say or do something that is unexpected or that seems unreasonable: I don't want him to turn around and sue us.

turn away phr. v.

1 turn sb ↔ away to refuse to let people into a theater, restaurant, etc. because it is too full: By 6:00, we were turning people away.

2 turn (sb ↔) away to refuse to give sympathy, help, or support: The hospital will never turn a sick child away. | The U.S. cannot just turn away from the world's problems.

turn back phr. v.

1 turn (sb ↔) back to go in the opposite direction, or to tell someone to do this: Snow covered the trail, and we had to turn back. | The journalists were turned back at the border.

2 to return to doing something in the way it was done before: Once you've left her, there will be no turning back. → turn/set the clock back at CLOCK¹ turn sb/sth ↔ down phr. v.

1 to make a machine such as a television, OVEN, etc. produce less sound, heat, etc.: Turn the TV down!

2 to refuse an offer, request, or invitation: She was offered promotion, but turned it down.

turn in phr. v.

1 turn sth ↔ in to give something to someone in authority: They turned in a petition with more than 160,000 signatures.

2 turn sth ↔ in to give work that you have done to your teacher: Have you turned in your homework?

3 turn sb ↔ in to tell the police where a criminal is 4 (informal) to go to bed: I think I'll turn in.

turn (sth) into sth phr. v.

to become something different, or to make someone or something do this: The argument turned into a fight. | The witch turned the frog into a prince.

turn off phr. v.

1 turn sth ↔ off to stop a supply of water, electricity, etc., especially so that a machine stops working: Turn off the TV – it's dinner time.

2 turn off sth to drive off one road and onto another, often a smaller one: We turned off the highway looking for a place to eat.

3 turn sb off to make someone decide that s/he does not like someone or something: Many voters are turned off by politics. → TURN OFF turn on phr. v.

1 turn sth ↔ on to make the supply of water, electricity, etc. begin to flow through a pipe, machine, etc., so that it starts working: Alice turned on a light.

2 turn on sb to suddenly attack someone physically or by using unpleasant words: "That's right, cry!" he said, turning on me.

turn out phr. v.

1 to happen in a particular way, or to have a particular result: Luckily, everything turned out okay/all right/fine/well. | It turned out that we were right. | The trail turned out to be much rougher than they expected.

2 turn sth ↔ out if you turn out a light, you push a button to stop the flow of electricity

3 if people turn out for an event, they go to it or take part in it: Only about 30 people turned out for the show. → TURN OUT

4 turn sth ↔ out to produce or make something: The factory turns out 100,000 trucks a year.

5 turn sb out to make someone leave his/her home turn over phr. v.

1 turn sth ↔ over to sb to give someone the right to own something such as a plan, business, piece of property, or to make him/her responsible for it: Some of the work is being turned over to private firms.

2 turn sb/sth ↔ over to bring a criminal or information to the police or another official organization: Benson was turned over to the FBI yesterday. | The documents will be turned over to the IRS.

3 turn over sth if a business turns over a particular amount of money, it makes that amount during a period of time → TURN OVER turn to phr. v.

1 turn to sb/sth to try to get help, advice, or sympathy from someone: Biotechnology firms turned to Wall Street for financing.

2 turn to sth to go to a particular page in a book, magazine, etc.: Turn to page 45.

3 turn to sth to begin thinking about or doing something new: Bateman turned to politics after law school.

4 turn (sth) to sth to become different in some way, or to make something do this: The land is turning to desert.

turn up phr. v.

1 turn sth ↔ up to make a machine such as a radio, oven, etc. produce more sound, heat, etc.: Turn up the radio a little.

2 to be found, especially by chance, after being searched for: The keys turned up in the silverware drawer.

3 turn sth ↔ up to find something by searching for it thoroughly: An inspection of the brakes turned up no defects.

4 to arrive: Danny turned up late as usual.

5 if an opportunity or situation turns up, it happens, especially when you are not expecting it: Don't worry, a job will turn up soon.

turn² n.

1 CHANCE TO DO STH [C] the time when it is your chance, duty, or right to do something that a group of people are doing, one after another: Whose turn is it to set the table? | It's your turn, Bob.

2 take turns if a group of people take turns doing something, one person does it, then another person does it, etc.: We took turns driving. | Take turns on the swing!

3 in turn a) one after another: He spoke to each of the students in turn. b) as a result of something: Interest rates were cut, and in turn, share prices rose.

4 CHANGE DIRECTION [C] a change in the direction you are moving in: Make a left/right turn at the stop sign.

5 TWO ROADS JOIN [C] a place where a road joins another road: I think we missed our turn. | Take the second turn on the left.

6 CHANGE IN EVENTS [C] a sudden or unexpected change that makes a situation develop in a different way: Her health took a turn for the worse/better. | Monday's turn of events was an embarrassment for the administration.

7 MOVE STH [C] the act of turning something: Give the wheel another turn.

8 the turn of the century the beginning of a century

9 do sb a good turn to help someone turn-a-round /'tʌnə,raʊnd/ n. [singular] 1 an important and complete change from a bad situation to a good one: Brock has been key to the team's turnaround. 2 the time it takes to receive something, deal with it, and send it back: What is the turnaround time on maintenance requests?

turn-coat /'tʌnkəʊt/ n. [C] someone who stops supporting a political party or group and joins the opposite group turning point n. [C] the time when an important change starts to happen: The win was a turning point in his athletic career.

tur-nip /'tʌnɪp/ n. [C,U] a large round pale yellow or white root, cooked and eaten as a vegetable turn-off, turn-off /'tʌnɒf/ n. [C] 1 a smaller road that leads off a main road: Take the Ramsey Canyon turnoff. 2 something that makes you dislike or lose interest in something, usually sex turn-out /'tʌnaʊt/ n. [singular] the number of people who go to an event such as a party, meeting, or election: Voter turnout was 93%.

turn-o-ver /'tʌn,əʊvə/ n. 1 [singular] the amount of money a business earns in a particular period: an annual turnover of $35 million 2 [U] the rate at which people leave an organization and are replaced by others: The company has a high rate of turnover. 3 [C] a small fruit PIE: apple turnovers turn-pike /'tʌnpaɪk/ n. [C] a main road that you have to pay a TOLL to use [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 turnpike road (18–20 centuries), from turnpike “turning post with sharp points fixed into it, used to control movement past it”]

T

THESAURUS road, street, highway, freeway, expressway → ROAD turn signal n. [C] one of the lights on a vehicle that flash to show which way the vehicle is turning turn-stile /'tɜːnstɑːl/ n. [C] a gate that spins around and only lets one person through at a time turn-table /'tɜːn,teɪbəl/ n. [C] a piece of equipment used for playing records tur-pen-tine /'tɜːpən,tain/ n. [U] a strong-smelling oil used for removing paint tur-pi-tude /'tɜːpətud/ n. [U] (literary) evil: He was criticized for his moral turpitude.

tur-quoise /'tɜːkwɔɪz, -kɔɪz/ n. [U] a bright blue-green color [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French turquoise, from turqueis “Turkish”] —turquoise adj.

tur-ret /'tɜːrɪt, 'tʌrɪt/ n. [C] a small tower on a large building, especially a castle turtle /'tɜːtl/ n. [C] a REPTILE (=type of animal) that has four legs and a soft body covered with a hard shell turtleneck /'tɜːtl,nek/ n. [C] a type of shirt or SWEATER with a high close-fitting collar that covers most of your neck tush /tʊʃ/ n. [C] (informal) the part of your body that you sit on tusk /tʌsk/ n. [C] one of the two very long teeth that stick out of an animal's mouth, for example an ELEPHANT'S tussle /'tʌsəl/ n. [C] a struggle or fight —tussle v. [I] tu-tor /'tuːtə/ n. [C] someone who is paid to teach only one or a few students, especially students who are having difficulty with a subject: my French tutor [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Latin tutus, past participle of tueri “to look at, guard”] —tutor v. [T]: He's tutoring me in math.

tu-to-ri-al /tu'tɔːriəl/ adj. relating to a TUTOR or the teaching that s/he does tux-e-do /tʌk'sɪdəʊ/ also tux /tʌks/ n. (plural tuxedos) [C] a man's suit that is usually black, worn on formal occasions [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Tuxedo Park, town in New York State]

TV n. [C,U] television: What's on TV? | The kids were watching TV. | Sue just bought a new TV. | a good TV show/program/series

TV dinner n. [C] a frozen prepared meal you can buy from the store, that you heat up and eat at home

TV set n. [C] a television twang /twæŋ/ n. [C usually singular] 1 a quality in the way someone speaks, when the sound comes through the nose as well as the mouth 2 a short ringing sound like the one made by pulling a tight string and quickly letting it go —twang v. [I,T] twas /twʌz/ (literary) it was – used in past times tweak /twɪk/ v. [T] 1 to make small changes to something in order to improve it: Congress has tweaked the tax system again. 2 to quickly pull or twist something: Grandpa tweaked my nose.

tweed /twɪd/ n. [U] a rough wool cloth used especially for making JACKETS tweet /twɪt/ v. [I] to make a quick high sound like a small bird —tweet n. [C] tweez-ers /'twizəz/ n. [plural] a small tool made from two thin pieces of metal joined at one end, used in order to pull or move very small objects: a pair of tweezers twelfth /twelfθ/ number 1 12th 2 one of twelve equal parts of something twelve /twelv/ number 1 12 2 12 o'clock: I'm going to lunch at twelve. 3 12 years old: He's twelve. [ORIGIN: Old English twelf] twelve-bar blues n. [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS a series of CHORDS that does not repeat itself until 12 BARS have been played. It is the most common musical form used in BLUES music.

twelve-tone scale n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical scale consisting of 12 notes, counting both the black and white keys on a piano. It is based on dividing an OCTAVE into 12 exactly equal INTERVALS.

twen-ty /'twenti/ number 1 20 2 20 years old: She's almost twenty. 3 the twenties a) the years between 1920 and 1929 b) the numbers between 20 and 29, especially when used for measuring temperature 4 sb's twenties the time when someone is 20 to 29 years old: a woman in her early/late twenties [ORIGIN: Old English twentig] —twentieth number twenty ² n. (plural twenties) [C] a piece of paper money worth $20 twenty-four/seven usually written as 24/7 adv. (informal) if something happens twenty-four/seven, it happens all day, every day

twenty-one n. [U] BLACKJACK twerp /twɜːp/ n. [C] (spoken) a stupid or annoying person twice /twɑːs/ adv. two times: I've seen that movie twice. | The island is twice the size of Massachusetts. | He makes twice as much money as I do. → TWO

twid-dle /'twɪdl/ v. [T] to move your fingers around, or to turn something with them many times, usually because you are bored twig /twɪɡ/ n. [C] a very thin branch that grows on a larger branch of a tree twi-light /'twɪlaɪt/ n. [U] the time between day and night when the sky starts to become dark, or the pale light at this time twin¹ /twin/ n. [C] one of two children who are born at the same time to the same mother: Jenny and Julie are identical twins (=twins who look exactly the same). | I have a twin brother.

twin² adj. 1 like something else and considered with it as a pair: the jet's twin engines 2 used in order to describe two things that happen at the same time and are related to each other: the twin problems of poverty and unemployment

twin 'bed n. [C] a bed for one person twine¹ /twain/ n. [U] thick strong string twine² v. [I,T] to twist something, or to twist around something: Morning glories had twined around the fence.

twinge /twindʒ/ n. [C] 1 a sudden pain 2 a twinge of guilt/fear/jealousy etc. a sudden slight feeling of guilt, fear, etc.: He felt a twinge of guilt for not calling.

twin-kle /'twɪŋkəl/ v. [I] 1 if a star or light twinkles, it shines in the dark with an unsteady light

THESAURUS shine, flash, flicker, sparkle, shimmer, glint, glisten → SHINE¹

2 if someone's eyes twinkle, s/he has a happy expression: Her eyes twinkled with amusement. —twinkle n. [C usually singular]

twirl /twɜːl/ v. [I,T] to continue turning around quickly, or to make something do this: Dancers were twirling on stage. —twirl n. [C]

THESAURUS turn, twist, spin, whirl, swivel, go around, revolve, rotate → TURN¹

twist¹ /twɪst/ v. 1 [I,T] to bend, turn, or wind something using a circular movement, especially something such as wire, hair, or cloth: Twist the ends together. | The sheets were twisted tightly around him. | Twist off the bottle cap (=remove it by twisting).

THESAURUS turn, spin, whirl, twirl, rotate → TURN¹

2 [I,T] to turn a part of your body around or change your position by turning: He twisted around to look at me. | I twisted my ankle (=hurt it by turning it in the wrong direction) playing soccer. →

HURT¹ 3 [T] to change the true or intended meaning of someone's statement (SYN) distort, misrepresent: He accused her of twisting his words for political reasons. 4 [I] if a road, river, etc. twists, it has a lot of curves in it 5 twist sb's arm (informal) to persuade someone to do something that s/he does not want to do twist² n. [C] 1 an unexpected change in a story or situation: The lemon grass gives a new twist on/to a classic dish. 2 something that is twisted into a shape: pasta twists 3 a bend in a road, river, etc.

twist-ed /'twɪstɪd/ adj. 1 bent in many directions or turned many times: twisted metal → see picture at BENT²

THESAURUS bent, curved, warped, crooked → BENT²

2 strange and slightly cruel: a twisted joke twist-er /'twɪstə/ n. [C] (informal) a TORNADO

twit /twɪt/ n. [C] (spoken) a stupid or silly person twitch /twɪtʃ/ v. [I] if a part of your body twitches, it makes a sudden small uncontrolled movement: A muscle near his mouth twitched. —twitch n. [C] twit-ter /'twɪtə/ v. [I] if a bird twitters, it makes a lot of short high sounds —twitter n. [singular]

two /tu/ number 1 2

THESAURUS

a pair (of sth) – two things of the same type that you use together: a pair of shoes a couple (of sth) – two things of the same type: a couple of stamps a couple – two people who are married or have a romantic relationship: a married couple twins – two children who were born on the same day to the same mother double room/bed etc. – a room, bed, etc. for two people twice – two times: I phoned her twice yesterday.
for two – for two people: A table for two, please.

2 two o'clock: The game begins at two. 3 two years old: My daughter is two. [ORIGIN: Old English twa]

'two-bit adj. (slang) not very good or important: a two-bit actor

,two-by-'four n. [C] a long piece of wood that is two inches thick and four inches wide

,two-di'mensional adj. flat, having length and height, but no depth → THREE-DIMENSIONAL: a two-dimensional drawing

,two-faced adj. (informal, disapproving) changing what you say according to who you are talking to, in a way that is not honest or sincere two-fold /'tuːfəʊld/ adj. two times as much or as many of something: a twofold increase in cases of TB —twofold adv.

'two-piece adj. a two-piece suit has a coat and pants that match two-some /'tusəm/ n. [C] a group of two people

'two-time v. [T] (informal) to have a secret relationship with someone who is not your regular girlfriend, husband, etc.

'two-tone adj. having two different colors

two-way adj. 1 moving or allowing movement in both directions: two-way traffic 2 a two-way radio sends and receives messages 3 involving two people, groups, countries, etc., in such a way that each person, etc. is doing something with the other: two-way trade

TX the written abbreviation of TEXAS

ty-coon /tar'kun/ n. [C] someone who is very successful in business and has a lot of money: an oil tycoon ty-ing /'taɪ-ɪŋ/ v. the present participle of TIE tyke /taɪk/ n. [C] (informal) a small child tym-pan-ic mem-brane /tɪm,pænik 'membreɪn/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the EARDRUM or a similar part in animals or insects type¹ /taɪp/ n. 1 [C] a group of people or things that have similar features or qualities, and that are different from other people or things: different types of people | What's your blood type? | Romantic novels of this type sell well.

T

THESAURUS

kind – a slightly more informal word for type: What kind of fish is this?
sort – a slightly more informal word for type: They carry all sorts of toys for indoor and outdoor play.
category – a group of people or things that are all of the same type: The novels are divided into three categories: romances, mysteries, and science fiction.
brand – a type of produce made by a particular company: several different brands of soap make – a type of product made by a particular company: "What make of car do you drive?" "A Ford."
model – one particular type or design of a vehicle, machine, weapon, etc.: The new models come out in September.
genre – a type of art, music, literature, etc. that has a particular style or feature: He has written novels in several genres, most notably science fiction.
variety – a particular type of something that is different from other things of a particular kind: different varieties of apples species – a group of animals or plants of the same type that can breed with each other: three species of deer

2 [C] someone with particular qualities, interests, appearance, etc.: the athletic type 3 not be sb's type (informal) to not be the kind of person that someone is attracted to: Alex is OK – but he's not really my type. 4 [U] printed letters: italic type type² v. [I,T] to write something using a computer or TYPEWRITER type-cast /'taɪpkæst/ v. (past tense and past participle typecast) [T] to always give an actor the same type of character to play: He does not want to be typecast as a bad guy.

type-face /'taɪpfets/ n. [C] a group of letters, numbers, etc. of the same style and size, used in printing type-writ-er /'taɪp,rɪtə/ n. [C] a machine that prints letters, numbers, etc. onto paper → PRINTER type-writ-ten /'taɪp,rɪtɪn/ adj. written using a typewriter: a typewritten manuscript ty-phoid /'taɪfɔɪd/ also typhoid 'fever n. [U] BIOLOGY a serious infectious disease that is caused by BACTERIA in food or water ty-phoon /taɪ'fun/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a very violent storm in tropical areas in which the wind moves in circles at speeds of over 74 miles per hour [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 touffan “typhoon” (16–19 centuries), from Arabic tufan “hurricane;” influenced by Chinese daai fong “great wind”]

THESAURUS wind, gale, storm, hurricane, tornado → WIND¹ ty-phus /'taɪfəs/ n. [U] BIOLOGY a serious infectious disease that is caused by the bite of an insect

typ-i-cal /'tɪpɪkəl/ adj. 1 having the usual features or qualities of a particular thing, person, or group: the typical American diet | At age 2, the typical child talks in two-word sentences. | Cool weather is typical of early April. 2 (that's) typical! (spoken) said when you are annoyed that something bad has happened again: The car won't start – typical!

typ-i-cally /'tɪpɪkli/ adv. 1 in the way that something usually happens: Summer classes typically last six weeks. 2 in the way that a person or group usually behaves, or that shows the usual features of something: The female is typically smaller than the male.

typ-i-fy /'tɪpə,faɪ/ v. (typified, typifies) [T] to be a typical example or feature of something: This is one of the dark paintings that typify her work.

typ-ing /'taɪpɪŋ/ n. [U] the activity of writing using a TYPEWRITER or KEYBOARD typ-ist /'taɪpɪst/ n. [C] someone who uses a TYPEWRITER or KEYBOARD ty-po /'taɪpou/ n. [C] (informal) a small mistake in the way something has been TYPED or printed ty-ran-ni-cal /tɪ'rænikəl/ adj. behaving in an unfair or cruel way toward someone you have power over: a brutal and tyrannical government —tyrannize /'tɪrə,naɪz/ v. [T] tyr-an-ny /ˈtɪrəni/ n. (plural tyrannies) 1 [U] strict, unfair, and often cruel control over someone: her husband's abusive tyranny 2 [C,U] POLITICS government by a cruel ruler who has complete power: The country suffered decades of tyranny.

ty-rant /ˈtaɪrənt/ n. [C] someone, especially a ruler, who uses his/her power in an unfair or cruel way tzar /zɑː, tsɑː/ n. [C] a CZAR

Uu

U, u /yu/ the twenty-first letter of the English alphabet u-biq-ui-tous /yuˈbɪkwətəs/ adj. (formal) seeming to be everywhere: New York's ubiquitous yellow cabs —ubiquity n. [U] ud-der /ˈʌdər/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the part of a cow, female goat, etc. that produces milk

UFO n. [C] Unidentified Flying Object a strange moving object in the sky that some people believe is a SPACESHIP from another world ugh /ʌg, ʌk, ʌh/ interjection used in order to show strong dislike: Ugh! That tastes terrible!

ug-ly /ˈʌgli/ adj. (comparative uglier, superlative ugliest) 1 very unattractive, and not nice to look at: an ugly building | She's not pretty, but she's not ugly either.

THESAURUS

unattractive – an unattractive person or thing is not pleasing to look at: He always thought he was unattractive to women. | a dirty and unattractive building unsightly (formal) – an unsightly mark, building, etc. is not pleasing to look at: The illness can cause unsightly marks on the skin.

hideous – extremely ugly: She was wearing a hideous purple and orange sweater.

repulsive – having an ugly or unpleasant appearance that makes people feel uncomfortable: There was something rather repulsive about him.

grotesque – extremely ugly in a strange or unnatural way: The movie was full of grotesque images of violence.

be an eyesore – if a place or building is an eyesore, it is very ugly: The garbage dump is an eyesore.

2 very unpleasant or violent in a way that makes you feel frightened: The game turned ugly as fans threw things at the players. | an ugly scene at the bus stop [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old Norse uggligr “frightening,” from uggr “fear”] —ugliness n. [U] uh /ʌ/ interjection said when you are deciding what to say next: I, uh, I'm sorry I'm late.

UHF n. [U] ultra-high frequency a range of radio waves that produces very good sound quality uh huh /n'hɪn, m'hɪm, ə'hɪn/ interjection (informal) used in order to say yes or to show that you understand something: “Is this the one you want?” “Uh huh.”

uh oh /ʊˈʌ ˈoʊ/ interjection (informal) said when you have made a mistake or have realized that something bad has happened: Uh oh, I forgot my keys.

uh uh /ʊˈʌn ˈʌn, ˈmɪm/ interjection (informal) used in order to say no: “Did Ann call?” “Uh uh.”

ul-cer /ˈʌlsər/ n. [C] a sore area on your skin or inside your body: a stomach ulcer ul-na /ˈʌlnə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the two bones in your lower arm, on the side opposite your thumb → RADIUS ul-te-ri-or /ʌlˈtɪəriə/ adj. ulterior motive/purpose/reason a reason for doing something that you deliberately hide in order to get an advantage for yourself: He's just being nice. I don't think he has any ulterior motives.

ul-ti-mate¹ /ˈʌltəmət/ (Ac) adj. [only before noun] 1 an ultimate purpose, aim, reason, etc. is the final and most important one: Her ultimate goal is a career in politics. 2 better, bigger, worse, etc. than all other people or things of the same kind: A Rolls Royce is the ultimate symbol of wealth. 3 the ultimate result of a long process is what happens at the end of it: the ultimate failure of the project 4 an ultimate decision, responsibility, etc. is one that you cannot pass on to someone else: Who has the ultimate authority in the family? [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Late Latin ultimatus “last,” from ultimare “to come to an end, be last”] ultimate² n. the ultimate in sth the best or most modern example of something: The Orient Express is the ultimate in rail travel.

ul-ti-mate-ly /ˈʌltəmətli/ (Ac) adv. 1 [sentence adverb] after everything else has been done or considered: Ultimately it's your decision. | Their efforts ultimately resulted in his release from prison. 2 being the person responsible for important final decisions: In most families, the mother is ultimately responsible for the children.

ul-ti-ma-tum /ˈʌltəˈmeɪtəm/ n. [C] a statement saying that if someone does not do what you want, s/he will be punished: She finally gave him an ultimatum: either stop drinking or move out.

ul-tra-son-ic /ˈʌltrəˈsɒnɪk/ adj. PHYSICS ultrasonic sounds are too high for humans to hear, and ultrasonic sound waves measure more than 20,000 Hertz ul-tra-sound /ˈʌltrəˈsaʊnd/ n. [C,U] a medical process that uses sound waves to produce images of something inside of your body

U

ul·tra·vi·o·let /ˌʌltrəˈvaɪələt/ adj. PHYSICS ultraviolet light cannot be seen but makes your skin darker when you are in the sun um /m, əm/ interjection said when you are deciding what to say next: Um, yeah, I guess so.

um·bil·i·cal cord /ʌmˈbɪlɪkəl ˌkɔrd/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a tube that joins a baby that has not been born yet to its mother um·brage /ˈʌmbɪdʒ/ n. take umbrage (at sth) (formal) to be offended by something that someone has done or said um·brel·la /ʌmˈbrɛlə/ n. [C] an object that you hold above your head to protect yourself from the rain: He stood there under his umbrella, watching the rain. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Italian ombrello, from Latin umbella, from umbra “shade, shadow”] um·laut /ˈumlaut, ˈʊm-/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a sign written like two periods over a vowel in German and some other languages to show how it is pronounced, for example ü ump /ʌmp/ n. [C] (spoken, informal) an umpire um·pire /ˈʌmpaɪə/ n. [C] the person who makes sure that the players obey the rules in sports such as baseball and tennis —umpire v. [I, T] → REFEREE¹

ump·teen·th /ˈʌmptɪnθ, ˈʌmˈtɪnθ/ quantifier (informal, disapproving) if something happens for the umpteenth time, it happens too many times: They're showing “The Wizard of Oz” for the umpteenth time. —umpteenth quantifier

U

UN n. the United Nations an international organization that tries to find peaceful solutions to world problems un·a·bashed /ˌʌnəˈbæʃt/ adj. not shy or embarrassed: the child's unabashed curiosity un·a·bat·ed /ˌʌnəˈbeɪtɪd/ adj. continuing without becoming weaker or less violent: The storm continued unabated.

un·a·ble /ˌʌnˈeɪbəl/ adj. not able to do something → INABILITY: She was unable to sleep. | I'm sorry; I'm unable to help you.

un·a·bridged /ˌʌnəˈbrɪdʒd/ adj. a piece of writing, speech, etc. that is unabridged has not been made shorter un·ac·cept·a·ble /ˌʌnəkˈseptəbəl/ adj. something that is unacceptable is wrong or bad and should not be allowed to continue: Nancy's behavior is unacceptable. —unacceptably adv.

un·ac·com·pa·nied /ˌʌnəkˈkɑmpənɪd/ (Ac) adj. having no one with you: an unaccompanied child un·ac·count·a·ble /ˌʌnəkˈkauntəbəl/ adj. 1 not having to explain your actions or decisions to anyone else 2 very surprising and difficult to explain: It was a good product that flopped for unaccountable reasons. —unaccountably adv.

un·ac·cus·tomed /ˌʌnəkˈkʌstəmd/ adj. (formal) 1 unaccustomed to (doing) sth not used to something: He was unaccustomed to dealing with children. 2 [only before noun] not usual, typical, or familiar: This winter's unaccustomed warmth prompted questions about global warming.

un·a·dul·ter·at·ed /ˌʌnəˈdʌltəˌreɪtɪd/ adj. complete or pure: pure unadulterated pleasure un·af·fect·ed /ˌʌnəˈfektɪd/ (Ac) adj. not changed or influenced by something: Parts of the city remained unaffected by the fire.

un·aid·ed /ˌʌnˈeɪdɪd/ (Ac) adj. without help: He could not stand up unaided.

THESAURUS on your own, (all) by yourself, independently → ALONE

un·al·i·en·a·ble /ˌʌnˈeɪliənəbəl, -lyə-/ adj. INALIENABLE

un·al·ter·a·ble /ˌʌnˈɔltərəbəl/ (Ac) adj. not able to be changed: an unalterable decision un·al·tered /ˌʌnˈɔltəd/ adj. not changed un·am·big·u·ous /ˌʌnəmˈbɪɡyʊəs/ (Ac) adj. very clear and not confusing: an unambiguous answer —unambiguously adv.

un·A·meri·can adj. not supporting or loyal to American customs, ideas, etc.

un·an·i·mous /yuˈnænəməs/ adj. a unanimous decision, vote, etc. is one on which everyone agrees → AGREE —unanimously adv. —unanimity /ˌyʊnəˈnɪməti/ n. [U]

un·an·nounced /ˌʌnəˈnaʊnst/ adj., adv. happening without anyone knowing about it or expecting it: Several people arrived unannounced. | an unannounced visit un·an·swered /ˌʌnˈænsəd/ adj. an unanswered telephone call, letter, question, etc. has not been replied to un·an·tic·i·pat·ed /ˌʌnænˈtɪsɪˌpeɪtɪd/ adj. not expected: an unanticipated expense un·ap·peal·ing /ˌʌnəˈpiːlɪŋ/ adj. not pleasant or attractive: an unappealing brown color un·ap·pre·ci·at·ed /ˌʌnəˈpriːʃiˌeɪtɪd/ adj. if someone or something is unappreciated, people do not recognize their good qualities or value: Some of the workers felt unappreciated.

un·ap·proach·a·ble /ˌʌnəˈprəʊtʃəbəl/ adj. seeming unfriendly and therefore difficult to talk to: a silent and unapproachable man un·armed /ˌʌnˈɑrmd/ adj. not carrying any weapons: An officer shot an unarmed man.

un·as·sist·ed /ˌʌnəˈsɪstɪd/ (Ac) adj. without help: She was able to walk unassisted.

un·as·sum·ing /ˌʌnəˈsʊmɪŋ/ adj. quiet and showing no desire for attention (SYN) modest un·at·tached /ˌʌnəˈtætʃt/ (Ac) adj. 1 not involved in a romantic relationship 2 not fastened or connected to anything un·at·tain·a·ble /ˌʌnəˈteɪnəbəl/ (Ac) adj. impossible to achieve: an unattainable goal un-at-tend-ed /ˌʌnə'tendɪd/ adj. left alone without anyone in charge: Do not leave your children unattended.

un-at-trac-tive /ˌʌnə'træktɪv/ adj. 1 not physically attractive or beautiful

THESAURUS ugly, unsightly, hideous → UGLY

2 not good or desirable: two unattractive options un-au-thor-ized /ˌʌn'ɔθəraɪzd/ adj. done without official approval or permission: an unauthorized biography un-a-vail-a-ble /ˌʌnə'veɪləbəl/ (Ac) adj. 1 not able to be obtained: The album was previously unavailable on CD. 2 not able or willing to meet with someone: Mr. Foster is unavailable for comment (=not able or willing to speak to reporters).

un-a-void-a-ble /ˌʌnə'vɔɪdəbəl/ adj. impossible to prevent: an unavoidable delay un-a-ware /ˌʌnə'weɪr/ (Ac) adj. not noticing or realizing what is happening: He was unaware of his legal rights.

un-a-wares /ˌʌnə'weɪrɪz/ adv. catch/take sb unawares if something catches you unawares, it happens when you are not prepared for it: Events in the Middle East caught the CIA unawares.

un-bal-anced /ˌʌn'bælənst/ adj. 1 slightly crazy: mentally unbalanced 2 an unbalanced report, argument, etc. is unfair because it emphasizes one opinion too much un-bear-a-ble /ˌʌn'bɛərəbəl/ adj. too bad, painful, or annoying for you to deal with: Her pain had become unbearable. —unbearably adv.

un-beat-a-ble /ˌʌn'bi:təbəl/ adj. something that is unbeatable is the best of its kind: unbeatable prices un-beat-en /ˌʌn'bit̩n/ adj. a team, player, etc. that is unbeaten has not been defeated un-be-liev-a-ble /ˌʌnbɪ'li:vəbəl/ adj. 1 used to emphasize how good, bad, surprising, etc. something is: The sound quality of this stereo is unbelievable. | an unbelievable amount of money 2 very difficult to believe and probably not true: Yvonne's excuse was totally unbelievable. —unbelievably adv.

un-bi-ased /ˌʌn'baɪəst/ (Ac) adj. unbiased information, opinion, advice, etc. is fair because the person giving it is not influenced by their own or other people's opinions (Syn) impartial: We aim to provide a service that is balanced and unbiased. | an unbiased observer

THESAURUS fair, impartial → FAIR¹

un-born /ˌʌn'bɔ:n/ adj. [only before noun] not yet born: an unborn child un-bound-ed /ˌʌn'baʊndɪd/ adj. (formal) very great and seeming to have no limit: unbounded optimism un-bri-dled /ˌʌn'braɪld/ adj. not controlled and too extreme: unbridled anger un-but-ton /ˌʌn'bʌt̩n/ v. [T] to undo the buttons on a piece of clothing un-called-for /ˌʌn'kɔld ˌfɔr/ adj. behavior or remarks that are uncalled-for are insulting, unfair, or inappropriate un-can-ny /ˌʌn'kæni/ adj. very strange and difficult to explain: The team has an uncanny ability to win close games. —uncannily adv.

un-cer-tain /ˌʌn'sɜ:t̩n/ adj. 1 feeling doubt about something: I'm uncertain about what to say to her. | She was uncertain of whether to confront him. 2 not clear, definite, or decided: His future with the company is uncertain. 3 in no uncertain terms if you say something in no uncertain terms, you say it in a clear way, without trying to be polite: We were told in no uncertain terms not to come back. —uncertainty n. [C,U]: uncertainty about the future —uncertainly adv.

un-chang-ing /ˌʌn'tʃeɪndʒɪŋ/ also un-changed /ˌʌn'tʃeɪndʒd/ adj. always staying the same un-chart-ed /ˌʌn'tʃɑ:tɪd/ (Ac) adj. uncharted territory/waters a situation or activity that you have never experienced or tried before un-checked /ˌʌn'tʃɛkt/ adj. if something bad goes unchecked, it is not controlled or stopped and continues or gets worse: Left unchecked, the disease will spread.

un-civ-i-lized /ˌʌn'sɪvəlaɪzd/ adj. 1 behavior that is uncivilized is rude or socially unacceptable 2 (old-fashioned) societies that are uncivilized have a very simple way of life (Syn) primitive

un-cle /ˌʌŋkəl/ n. [C] the brother of your mother or father, or the husband of your AUNT: I went to stay with my aunt and uncle for a few days. | Uncle Bill [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin avunculus “mother's brother”]

un-clean /ˌʌn'kli:n/ adj. dirty un-clear /ˌʌn'klɪr/ adj. difficult to understand or know about: The terms of the contract are very unclear.

Uncle Sam /ˌʌŋkəl 'sæm/ n. (informal) the U.S., or U.S. government, usually represented by the figure of a man with a white BEARD and tall hat

Uncle Tom /ˌʌŋkəl 'tɒm/ n. [C] (disapproving) a black person who is too respectful to white people

un-com-fort-a-ble /ˌʌn'kɒmfətəbəl, ˌʌn'kɒmfəʔəbəl/ adj. 1 not feeling physically comfortable, or not making you feel comfortable: These shoes are uncomfortable. 2 unable to relax because you are embarrassed: I feel uncomfortable talking about sex. | an uncomfortable silence —uncomfortably adv.

un-com-mon /ˌʌn'kɒmən/ adj. rare or unusual: It is not uncommon for (=it is fairly common for) employees to work sixty hours a week. —uncommonly adv.

U

un-com-pro-mis-ing /ʌn'kɒmprəˌmaɪzɪŋ/ adj. determined not to change your opinions or intentions: He has always been an uncompromising supporter of gun control.

un-con-cerned /ʌnkən'sənd/ adj. not worried about something, or not interested in it: Americans cannot be unconcerned about the problem of the world's poor.

un-con-di-tion-al /ʌnkən'dɪʃənəl/ adj. not limited by or depending on any conditions: We are demanding the unconditional release of the hostages. —unconditionally adv.

un-con-firmed /ʌnkən'fəmd/ adj. not proved or supported by official information: There has been an unconfirmed report/rumor etc. of a nuclear accident.

un-con-scion-a-ble /ʌn'kənʃənəbəl/ adj. (formal) morally wrong or unacceptable un-con-scious¹ /ʌn'kənʃəs/ adj. 1 unable to see, move, feel, etc. because you are not conscious: The car's driver was knocked unconscious. 2 an unconscious feeling is one that you have without realizing it (SYN) subconscious: unconscious feelings of guilt 3 be unconscious of sth to not realize the effect of something you have said or done: Barb seemed unconscious of the attention her dress was attracting. —unconsciously adv. —unconsciousness n. [U] unconscious² n. the/sb's unconscious the part of your mind in which there are thoughts and feelings that you do not realize that you have → SUBCONSCIOUS un-con-sti-tu-tion-al /ʌnkanstə'tuʃənəl/ (Ac) adj. not allowed by the rules that govern a country or organization: The Supreme Court ruled that the law was unconstitutional.

un-con-trol-la-ble /ʌnkən'trəʊləbəl/ adj. impossible to control or stop: uncontrollable rage un-con-trolled /ʌnkən'trəʊld/ adj. 1 uncontrolled emotions or behavior continue because no one stops or controls them 2 without rules or laws: an uncontrolled free market un-con-ven-tion-al /ʌnkən'venʃənəl/ (Ac) adj. very different from the normal way people behave, think, dress, or do things: his unconventional lifestyle un-con-vinc-ed /ʌnkən'vɪnst/ (Ac) adj. not persuaded that something is right or true: He was unconvinced that the idea would work.

THESAURUS doubtful, dubious, skeptical → DOUBTFUL

un-cool /ʌn'ku:l/ adj. (slang) not fashionable or acceptable: My parents are hopelessly uncool.

un-co-op-er-a-tive /ʌnkou'əprətɪv/ adj. not willing to work with or help someone un-count-a-ble /ʌn'kaʊntəbəl/ adj. uncountable noun ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a noun that has no plural form, such as “water,” “gold,” or “furniture” (ANT) countable un-couth /ʌn'kuθ/ adj. behaving or speaking in a way that is rude and unacceptable un-cov-er /ʌn'kʌvə/ v. [T] 1 to discover something that has been kept secret or hidden: Customs officials uncovered a plot to smuggle drugs into the country. 2 to remove the cover from something unc-tu-ous /'ʌŋktʃuəs/ adj. (formal, disapproving) behaving in a way that is not sincere, by being too friendly or praising other people too much, or showing this behavior: He was friendly without being unctuous.

un-cut /ʌn'kʌt/ adj. 1 a movie, book, etc. that is uncut has not been made shorter, for example by having violent or sexual scenes removed 2 an uncut jewel has not yet been cut into a particular shape un-daunt-ed /ʌn'daʊntɪd/, -'daʊn-/ adj. not afraid to continue doing something in spite of difficulties or danger: Nelson was undaunted by the opposition to his plan.

un-de-cid-ed /ʌndr'saɪdɪd/ adj. not having made a decision about something: Many voters are undecided about which candidate to choose.

un-de-ni-a-ble /ʌndr'nəɪəbəl/ (Ac) adj. definitely true or certain: an undeniable fact —undeniably adv.

un-der /'ʌndə/ prep., adv. 1 below or at a lower level than something, or covered by it (ANT) over: She's hiding under the blanket. | The dog was sleeping under the bed. | Lee wore a sweater under his jacket. | He pushed Lonnie's head under the water. 2 less than a particular age, number, amount, or price (ANT) over: You can't get a ticket for under $10. | Children six and under can ride the bus for free. | I can't buy beer — I'm under age (=not old enough). 3 controlled or governed by a particular leader, government, system, etc.: a country under Marxist rule 4 be under discussion/construction/attack etc. to be in the process of being discussed, built, etc. 5 under way happening or in the process of being done: Construction is already under way on the new airport. 6 affected by a particular influence, condition, or situation: She performs well under pressure. | He was accused of driving while under the influence of alcohol/drugs. 7 if you work under someone, that person is in charge of what you do at work: She had a total staff of ten working under her. 8 according to a particular law, agreement, etc.: Under state law, we are entitled to inspect your accounts. 9 used to say in which part of a book, list, or system you can find particular information: The baby's records are filed under the mother's name. → be under the impression (that) at IMPRESSION

un-der-a-chiev-er /ʌndərə'tʃɪvə/ n. [C] someone who does not do as well at school or at work as s/he could do if s/he worked harder —underachieve v. [I] —underachievement n. [U]

un-der-age /ˌʌndəˈeɪdʒ/ adj. too young to legally buy alcohol, drive a car, etc.: underage drinking → YOUNG¹ un-der-charge /ˌʌndəˈtʃɑːdʒ/ v. [I,T] to charge someone too little money for something (ANT) over-charge un-der-class /ˌʌndəˈklæs/ n. [singular] the lowest social class, consisting of people who are very poor un-der-class-man /ˌʌndəˈklæsmən/ n. (plural underclassmen /-mənz/) [C] a student in the first two years of HIGH SCHOOL or college → UPPER-CLASSMAN un-der-cov-er /ˌʌndəˈkʌvə/ adj. undercover work is done secretly by the police in order to catch criminals or find out information: an undercover agent/cop

THESAURUS secret, covert, clandestine → SECRET¹

un-der-cur-rent /ˌʌndəˈkʌrənt, -ˌkʌr-/ n. [C] a feeling that someone does not express openly: There was an undercurrent of suspicion about the newcomers.

un-der-cut /ˌʌndəˈkʌt, ˌʌndəˈkʌt/ v. (past tense and past participle undercut, present participle undercutting) [T] 1 to make something weaker or less effective: Such activity could undercut public confidence in Congress. 2 to sell something more cheaply than someone else: Supermarkets are able to undercut local stores.

un-der-dog /ˌʌndəˈdɒɡ/ n. the underdog the person or team in a competition that is not expected to win un-der-es-ti-mate /ˌʌndəˈɛstəˌmeɪt/ (AC) v. 1 [I,T] to think that something is smaller, cheaper, easier, etc. than it really is (ANT) overestimate: They underestimated the cost of the construction. 2 [T] to think that someone is less skillful, intelligent, etc. than s/he really is un-der-go /ˌʌndəˈɡoʊ/ (AC) v. (past tense underwent /-ˈwɛnt/, past participle undergone /-ˈɡɒn/, third person singular undergoes) [T] if you undergo a change, a bad experience, etc., it happens to you or is done to you: He'll have to undergo major heart surgery.

un-der-grad-u-ate /ˌʌndəˈɡrædʒuːt/ n. [C] a student in college, who is working for his/her BACHELOR'S DEGREE → STUDENT —undergraduate adj.

un-der-ground /ˌʌndəˈgraʊnd/ adj., adv. 1 under the earth's surface: an underground tunnel | creatures that live underground 2 an underground political organization is secret and illegal 3 go underground to start doing something secretly, or hide in a secret place: The Ukrainian church went underground during the Communist era.

Underground 'Railroad n. the Underground Railway HISTORY a secret system that helped SLAVES in the southern U.S. escape and travel to a safe place in the north un-der-growth /ˌʌndəˈɡroʊθ/ n. [U] bushes, small trees, etc. that grow around and under bigger trees un-der-hand /ˌʌndəˈhænd/ adj., adv. thrown with your arm under the level of your shoulder (ANT) overhand un-der-hand-ed /ˌʌndəˈhændɪd/ adj. dishonest and done secretly: an underhanded deal

un-der-lie /ˌʌndəˈlaɪ/ (AC) v. (past tense underlay /-ˈleɪ/, past participle underlain /-ˈleɪn/, present participle underlying, third person singular underlies) [T] (formal) to be the cause of something, or be the basic thing from which something else develops: Unless we deal with the problems that underlie crime, crime rates will never decrease.

un-der-line /ˌʌndəˈlaɪn, ˌʌndəˈlaɪn/ v. [T] 1 to draw a line under a word 2 to show that something is important: The rise in crime underlines the need for more jobs.

THESAURUS emphasize, highlight, accentuate, underscore → EMPHASIZE un-der-ly-ing /ˌʌndəˈlaɪ-ɪŋ/ (AC) adj. underlying reason/cause/problem etc. the reason, cause, etc. that is most important but that is not easy to discover: The underlying causes of her depression lay in her childhood.

THESAURUS basic, fundamental → BASIC

U

un-der-mine /ˌʌndəˈmaɪn, ˌʌndəˈmaɪn/ v. [T] to gradually make someone or something less strong or effective: This could seriously undermine the peace process.

un-der-neath /ˌʌndəˈniθ/ prep., adv. directly below or under something → BENEATH: We turned some rocks over to see what was underneath. | There's nice wood underneath all that paint.

un-der-nour-ished /ˌʌndəˈnɔːrɪʃt, -ˈnʌrɪʃt/ adj. not healthy because you have not eaten enough food or the right type of food un-der-paid /ˌʌndəˈpeɪd/ adj. earning less money than you deserve —underpay /ˌʌndəˈpeɪ/ v. [I,T] un-der-pants /ˌʌndəˈpænts/ n. [plural] a short piece of underwear worn on the lower part of the body → see picture at CLOTHES un-der-pass /ˌʌndəˈpæs/ n. [C] a road or path that goes under another road or path un-der-priv-i-leged /ˌʌndəˈprɪvɪlɪdʒd/ adj. very poor and not having the advantages of most other people in society: underprivileged children

THESAURUS poor, disadvantaged, deprived → POOR un·der·rat·ed /ˌʌndəˈreɪtɪd/ adj. better than people think or say (ANT overrated: an underrated actor — underrate v. [T]) un·der·score /ˌʌndəˈskɔː/ v. [T] to emphasize that something is important: The survey underscores the division between rich and poor in America.

THESAURUS emphasize, stress, highlight, underline → EMPHASIZE un·der·shirt /ˌʌndəˈʃɜːt/ n. [C] a piece of underwear worn under a shirt un·der·side /ˌʌndəˈsaɪd/ n. the underside of sth the bottom side or surface of something un·der·sized /ˌʌndəˈsaɪzd/ adj. too small un·der·staffed /ˌʌndəˈstæft/ adj. not having enough workers, or having fewer workers than usual: The lines are so long because we're understaffed right now.

un·der·stand /ˌʌndəˈstænd/ v. (past tense and past participle understood /-stʊd/) 1 [I,T] to know the meaning of what someone is saying to you, or the language that s/he speaks: Do you understand Spanish? | I could barely understand what he was saying. | I'm not very good at German but I can make myself understood (=make what I say clear to other people). ▶ Don't say "I am understanding." ◀ 2 [I,T] to know how someone feels and why s/he behaves the way s/he does, and to be sympathetic: Believe me, John — I understand how you feel. | Just tell him what happened — I'm sure he'll understand. 3 [I,T] to know how or why a situation, event, etc. happens, especially through learning or experience: My father never understood baseball. | Do you understand how this works? 4 [T] to believe that something you have heard or read is true: I understand (that) you want to buy a car.

un·der·stand·a·ble /ˌʌndəˈstændəbəl/ adj. understandable behavior, reactions, etc. seem reasonable because of the situation you are in: It's understandable that he's a little afraid. | Your anger toward him is perfectly understandable.

un·der·stand·ing¹ /ˌʌndəˈstændɪŋ/ n. 1 [singular, U] knowledge about something, based on learning and experience: She has a basic understanding of computers. 2 [singular, U] sympathy toward someone's character and behavior: Harry thanked us for our understanding. 3 [C] an informal private agreement about something: I thought we had come to an understanding about the price. 4 [U] the ability to think and learn understanding² adj. showing sympathy and pity for other people's problems: an understanding boss un·der·state /ˌʌndəˈsteɪt/ v. [T] to describe something in a way that makes it seem less important or serious than it really is (ANT overstate: The report understates the severity of the problem.) un·der·stat·ed /ˌʌndəˈsteɪtɪd/ adj. (approving) simple in a way that is attractive: I liked the understated decoration of his office.

un·der·state·ment /ˌʌndəˈsteɪtmənt/ n. [C] a statement that is not strong enough to express how good, impressive, bad, etc. something really is: To say the movie was bad is an understatement.

un·der·stood /ˌʌndəˈstʊd/ v. the past tense and past participle of UNDERSTAND un·der·stud·y /ˌʌndəˈstʌdi/ n. (plural understudies) [C] an actor who learns a part in a play so that s/he can act if the usual actor cannot perform un·der·take /ˌʌndəˈteɪk/ (AC) v. (past tense undertook /-tʊk/, past participle undertaken /-teɪkən/) [T] (formal) 1 to start to do a piece of work, especially one that is long and difficult: The country undertook a massive reform of its legal system. 2 undertake to do sth to promise or agree to do something un·der·tak·er /ˌʌndəˈteɪkə/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) someone whose job is to arrange funerals (SYN funeral director) un·der·tak·ing /ˌʌndəˈteɪkɪŋ/ (AC) n. [C usually singular] an important job, piece of work, etc. for which you are responsible: Holding the Olympic Games is a massive undertaking.

un·der·tone /ˌʌndəˈtoʊn/ n. [C] a feeling or quality that exists but which is not easy to notice: an undertone of sadness in her voice un·der·tow /ˌʌndəˈtoʊ/ n. [C] a strong current under the ocean's surface that pulls water away from the shore un·der·wa·ter /ˌʌndəˈwɔːtə/, -ˈwɑː-/ adj. [only before noun] below the surface of the water, or able to be used there: an underwater camera — underwater adv.

un·der·wear /ˌʌndəˈweɪ/ n. [U] clothes that you wear next to your body under your other clothes un·der·weight /ˌʌndəˈweɪt/ adj. weighing less than is expected or usual (ANT overweight: an underweight baby)

THESAURUS thin, slight, skinny, lean, gaunt → THIN¹

un·der·world /ˌʌndəˈwɜːld/ n. [singular] the criminals in a particular place and the activities they are involved in un·der·write /ˈʌndəˈraɪt, ˌʌndəˈraɪt/ v. (past tense underwrote /-rʊt/, past participle underwritten /-rɪtˈn/) [T] (formal) to support an activity, business, etc. with money: The project is underwritten by a National Science Foundation grant.

un·de·sir·a·ble /ˌʌndɪˈzɑɪəbəl/ adj. (formal) someone or something that is undesirable is not welcome or wanted because they may have a bad effect: The drug can produce undesirable side effects.

un·de·ter·mined /ˌʌndɪˈtɜːmɪnd/ adj. not known, decided, or calculated: The cause of death is undetermined.

un·de·vel·oped /ˌʌndɪˈveləpt/ adj. undeveloped land has not been built on or used for a particular purpose un·di·min·ished /ˌʌndɪˈmɪnɪʃt/  adj. not weaker or less important than before: His love for her was undiminished.

un·dis·closed /ˌʌndɪsˈkloʊzd/ adj. not known publicly: an undisclosed amount/sum of money un·dis·guised /ˌʌndɪsˈgaɪzd/ adj. an undisguised feeling is clearly shown and not hidden: undisguised hatred un·dis·put·ed /ˌʌndɪˈspjuːtɪd/ adj. undisputed leader/master/champion etc. someone whom everyone agrees is the leader, etc.

un·dis·turbed /ˌʌndɪˈstɜːbd/ adj., adv. not interrupted or moved: They let her rest undisturbed.

un·di·vid·ed /ˌʌndɪˈvaɪdɪd/ adj. complete: Please give me your undivided attention.

un·do /ʌnˈdu/ v. (past tense undid /-ˈdɪd/, past participle undone /-ˈdʌn/, third person singular undoes /-ˈdʌz/) [T] 1 to untie or open something that is tied or closed: I can't get the clasp on my necklace undone. 2 to try to remove the bad effects of something: The courts have tried to undo the legal abuses of the past. 3 to change something back to the state or condition it was in before improvements were made: Changing the law will undo decades of progress.

un·do·ing /ʌnˈduɪŋ/ n. be sb's undoing to cause someone's failure, defeat, shame, etc.: Borrowing too much money proved to be his undoing.

un·done /ʌnˈdʌn/ adj. 1 not tied or closed: Your shirt button has come undone. 2 not finished or completed: Much of the work on the bridge has been left undone.

un·doubt·ed·ly /ʌnˈdaʊtɪdli/ adv. used in order to emphasize that something is definitely true: He's undoubtedly one of the best guitar players of all time.

un·dress /ʌnˈdres/ v. [I,T] to take your clothes off, or take someone else's clothes off: Yvonne undressed and got into bed.

un·dressed /ʌnˈdrest/ adj. not wearing any clothes: He started to get undressed (=take his clothes off).

THESAURUS naked, bare, have nothing on, not have anything on → NAKED un·due /ˌʌnˈdu/ adj. (formal) more than is reasonable, appropriate, or necessary: The tax creates an undue burden on farmers.

un·du·lat·ing /ˌʌndʒəˈleɪtɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] (formal) moving or shaped like waves that are rising and falling: the undulating green hills —undulate v. [I] —undulation /ˌʌndʒəˈleɪʃən/ n. [C,U] un·du·ly /ʌnˈduli/ adv. (formal) more than is normal or reasonable: unduly harsh punishment un·dy·ing /ˌʌnˈdaɪɪŋ/ adj. (literary) continuing for ever: undying love un·earth /ʌnˈɜːθ/ v. [T] 1 to find something that was buried in the ground: Scientists have unearthed eight more skeletons at Pompeii.

THESAURUS find, discover, turn sth up → FIND¹

2 to find out information or the truth about something un·earth·ly /ʌnˈɜːθli/ adj. very strange and unnatural: an unearthly greenish light un·eas·y /ˌʌnˈizi/ adj. worried and anxious because you think something bad might happen: We felt uneasy about his decision. —unease n. [U] —uneasiness n. [U] —uneasily adv.

THESAURUS worried, anxious, concerned, nervous, apprehensive → WORRIED un·ec·o·nom·i·cal /ˌʌnekəˈnəmɪkəl, -ɪkəl/ adj. using too much effort, money, or materials to make a profit un·ed·u·cat·ed /ʌnˈɛdʒəˈkeɪtɪd/ adj. not having much education, or showing that someone is not well educated un·em·ployed /ˌʌnɪmˈplɔɪd/ adj. without a job: an unemployed actor | I've been unemployed for six months.

un·em·ploy·ment /ˌʌnɪmˈplɔɪmənt/ n. [U] 1 the condition of not having a job, or the number of people who do not have a job: Unemployment remains relatively low/high. | The unemployment rate is rising. 2 money paid regularly by the government to people who have no job: He's been on unemployment for three months.

un·end·ing /ʌnˈɛndɪŋ/ adj. something, especially something bad, that is unending seems as if it will continue for ever: an unending stream of people un·e·qual /ʌnˈɪkwəl/ adj. 1 unfairly treating different people or groups in different ways: the unequal treatment of minorities 2 not the same in size, amount, value, rank, etc.: two rooms of unequal size un·e·quiv·o·cal /ˌʌnɪˈkwɪvəkəl/ adj. (formal) completely clear and definite with no doubts

U

un-er-ring /ʌn'ɛrɪŋ, ʌn'əɪŋ/ adj. always right: his unerring judgment un-eth-i-cal /ʌn'ɛθɪkəl/ (Ac) adj. considered to be morally wrong: an unethical banking practice un-e-ven /ʌn'ivən/ adj. 1 not flat, smooth, or level: uneven ground 2 not equal or balanced: The racial mix of the school is uneven. 3 good in some parts and bad in others: a music album of uneven quality —unevenly adv.

un-ex-cused /ʌn'ɪkskuzd/ adj. unexcused absence an occasion when you are away from school or work without permission un-ex-pect-ed /ʌn'ɪkspektɪd/ adj. surprising because of not being expected: the unexpected death of his father —unexpectedly adv.

un-ex-pur-gat-ed /ʌn'ɪkspəˌɡetɪd/ adj. (formal) an unexpurgated book, play, etc. is complete and has not had parts that might offend people removed (ANT) expurgated un-fail-ing /ʌn'feɪlɪŋ/ adj. always there, even in times of difficulty or trouble: her unfailing kindness

un-fair /ʌn'feɪr/ adj. not right or fair: an unfair decision | The system is unfair to the poor. —unfairly adv. —unfairness n. [U]

un-faith-ful /ʌn'feɪθfəl/ adj. someone who is unfaithful has sex with someone who is not his/her wife, husband, or usual partner: Kurt had been unfaithful to his wife on several occasions.

un-fa-mil-i-ar /ʌnfəˌmɪliər/ adj. not known to you: an unfamiliar face | I am unfamiliar with his books. —unfamiliarity /ʌnfəˌmɪl'jærəti/ n. [U]

U un-fash-ion-a-ble /ʌn'fæʃənəbəl/ adj. not popular or fashionable at the present time (ANT) fashionable: unfashionable shoes un-fas-ten /ʌn'fæsən/ v. [T] to undo something: Lewis unfastened his seat belt.

un-fa-vor-a-ble /ʌn'feɪvərəbəl/ adj. 1 showing that you do not like something: an unfavorable review of the movie 2 unfavorable conditions, events, etc. are not good: an unfavorable weather report un-feel-ing /ʌn'fi:lɪŋ/ adj. not showing sympathy for others: How can she be so cold and unfeeling?

un-fet-tered /ʌn'fetəd/ adj. not restricted in any way un-fit /ʌn'fɪt/ adj. not good enough to do something or to be used for something: That woman is unfit to raise a child! | The land is unfit for cultivation.

un-fold /ʌn'fould/ v. [I, T] 1 if a story, plan, etc. unfolds, it becomes clearer as you hear or learn more about it: The case began to slowly unfold in court. 2 to open something that was folded: She unfolded the map.

un-fore-seen /ʌnfər'si:n, -fə-/ adj. an unforeseen situation is one that you did not expect to happen: an unforeseen delay | Due to unforeseen circumstances, the play has been canceled.

un-for-get-ta-ble /ʌnfəˈɡetəbəl/ adj. something that is unforgettable is so beautiful, good, exciting, etc. that you remember it for a long time: an unforgettable sight un-for-tu-nate /ʌn'fɔrtʃənɪt/ adj. 1 happening because of bad luck: an unfortunate accident

THESAURUS unlucky, ill-fated → UNLUCKY

2 someone who is unfortunate has something bad happen to him/her: When we entered the room, the teacher was yelling at some unfortunate student. 3 an unfortunate situation, condition, quality, etc. is one that you wish was different: It's unfortunate (that) so few people seem willing to help.

un-for-tu-nate-ly /ʌn'fɔrtʃənɪtli/ adv. [sentence adverb] used when you are mentioning a fact that you wish was not true: Unfortunately, it's too late for me to do anything about it.

un-found-ed /ʌn'faʊndɪd/ (Ac) adj. not based on facts or EVIDENCE (SYN) wrong: The company insisted that our complaints were unfounded.

un-friend-ly /ʌn'frendli/ adj. 1 not kind or friendly: The neighbors seemed unfriendly. 2 not helping or wanting a type of person or thing: Many American cities are unfriendly to pedestrians. 3 an unfriendly government or nation is one that opposes yours un-furl /ʌn'fɜ:l/ v. [T] to unroll and open a flag, sail, etc.

un-gain-ly /ʌn'geɪnli/ adj. awkward and not graceful: an ungainly teenager un-grate-ful /ʌn'ɡreɪtfəl/ adj. not thanking someone for something s/he has given to you or done for you un-hap-py /ʌn'hæpi/ adj. 1 not happy: an unhappy childhood | She had been unhappy for a long time.

THESAURUS sad, depressed, down, low, blue → SAD

2 feeling worried or annoyed because you do not like what is happening (SYN) dissatisfied: Many Americans are deeply unhappy with the state of the nation. | Dennis is unhappy about having to work on a Saturday. —unhappiness n. [U] —unhappily adv.

un-health-y /ʌn'hɛlθi/ adj. 1 likely to make you sick: unhealthy city air 2 not physically healthy: an unhealthy baby 3 not normal or natural and likely to cause harm: Any obsession is unhealthy.

un-heard-of /ʌn'hɜ:d ʌv/ adj. something that is unheard of is extremely unusual or has never happened before: The opera raised the price of its seats to an unheard-of $100 each!

un-help-ful /ʌn'hɛlpfəl/ adj. not useful, and likely to make a situation worse (ANT) helpful: I think it's really unhelpful to focus only on the school's failings. —unhelpfully adv.

un-ho-ly /ʌnˈhoʊli/ adj. 1 an unholy alliance an agreement between two people or organizations who would not normally work together, usually for a bad purpose 2 very great and very bad: We're in an unholy mess.

un-hook /ʌnˈhʊk/ v. [T] to unfasten or remove something from a hook

UNICEF /ˈyʊnəˌseɪf/ n. the United Nations Children's Fund an organization that helps children who suffer from disease, HUNGER, etc.

u-ni-corn /ˈyʊnəˌkɔːn/ n. [C] an imaginary animal like a white horse with a long straight horn on its head un-i-den-ti-fied /ˌʌnərˈdentəˌfaɪd/ , ʌnə-/ adj. an unidentified person or thing is one that you do not know the name of: an unidentified body

u-ni-fi-ca-tion /ˌyʊnəˌfaɪˈkeɪʃən/ (AC) n. [U] the act of combining two or more groups, countries, etc. to make a single group or country: the unification of Germany after the fall of the Berlin Wall

u-ni-form /ˈyʊnəˌfɔːm/ (AC) n. [C] 1 a particular type of clothing that the members of an organization wear to work: Here's a picture of me wearing my football uniform. 2 in uniform a) wearing a uniform b) in the army, navy, etc. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French uniforme, from Latin uniformis, from uni- “one” + -formis (from forma “form, shape”)] —uninformed adj.: uninformed police officers uniform (AC) adj. things that are uniform are all the same shape, size, etc.: Grade A eggs must be of uniform size. —uniformly adv.: She received uniformly high grades. —uniformity /ˌyʊnəˌfɔːməti/ n. [U]: There is no uniformity of opinion on the issue.

u-ni-fy /ˈyʊnəˌfaɪ/ (AC) v. (unified, unifies) [T] to combine the parts of a country, organization, etc. to make a single unit → UNIFICATION: Spain was unified in the 16th century. —unified adj.: a unified military leadership

u-ni-lat-er-al /ˌyʊnəˌlætərəl/ adj. a unilateral action or decision is made by only one of the groups involved in a situation without the agreement of the others → BILATERAL, MULTILATERAL: a unilateral ceasefire un-i-ma-gin-a-ble /ˌʌnɪˈmædʒənəbəl/ adj. not possible to imagine: unimaginable wealth —unimaginably adv.

un-i-ma-gin-a-tive /ˌʌnɪˈmædʒənətɪv/ adj. 1 lacking the ability to think of new or unusual ideas 2 ordinary and boring, and not using any new ideas: unimaginative architecture

un-im-por-tant /ˌʌnɪmˈpɔːtnt/ adj. not important un-im-pressed /ˌʌnɪmˈprest/ adj. not thinking that someone or something is good, interesting, etc.: Board members were unimpressed with/by the plan.

un-im-pres-sive /ˌʌnɪmˈpresɪv/ adj. not as good, large, etc. as expected or necessary: The school's test results were unimpressive.

un-in-formed /ˌʌnɪnˈfɔːrmd/ adj. not having enough knowledge or information: He seemed uninformed about foreign policy.

un-in-hab-it-ed /ˌʌnɪnˈhæbɪtɪd/ adj. an uninhabited place does not have anyone living there (SYN) deserted: an uninhabited island un-in-hib-it-ed /ˌʌnɪnˈhɪbɪtɪd/ adj. confident or relaxed enough to do or say what you want to un-in-jured /ʌnˈɪndʒəd/ adj. not hurt or damaged un-in-spired /ˌʌnɪnˈspəɪəd/ adj. not showing any imagination, and so not interesting or exciting: an uninspired performance un-in-sured /ˌʌnɪnˈʃʊəd/ adj. having no insurance: uninsured drivers un-in-tel-li-gi-ble /ˌʌnɪnˈtelədʒəbəl/ adj. impossible to understand: Most of what he said was unintelligible.

un-in-ten-tion-al /ˌʌnɪnˈtenʃənəl/ adj. not done deliberately: unintentional errors on his tax form —unintentionally adv.

un-in-ter-est-ed /ʌnˈɪntrɪstɪd, -ɪntəˌres-/ adj. not interested un-in-ter-rupt-ed /ˌʌnɪntəˈrʌptɪd/ adj. continuous without stopping or being interrupted: eight hours of uninterrupted sleep

u-ni-on /ˈyʊniən/ n. 1 [C] a LABOR UNION: the teachers' union | Are you going to join the union?

THE SAURUS organization, association → ORGANIZATION

2 [singular] a group of countries or states with the same central government: countries that were part of the former Soviet Union 3 the Union HISTORY used to talk about the U.S., or about the northern states of the U.S., during the Civil War: Union soldiers 4 [singular, U] (formal) the act of joining two or more things together, or the state of being joined together: the union of East Germany with West Germany 5 [C,U] (formal) marriage un-ion-ized /ˈyʊniəˌnaɪzd/ adj. having formed a union, or belonging to one —unionize v. [I,T] u-nique /yuˈnik/ (AC) adj. 1 (informal) unusually good and special: The workshop will give participants a unique opportunity to study with an artist. 2 being the only one of its kind: Every person is unique. 3 unique to sb/sth existing only in a particular place, person, or group, etc.: The issues being discussed here are not unique to the U.S. —uniquely adv.: a uniquely talented artist —uniqueness n. [U]: the uniqueness of each individual person

u-ni-sex /ˈyʊnəˌseks/ adj. appropriate for both men and women: a unisex jacket

U

u-ni-son /'yʊnəsən/ n. in unison if a group of people do something in unison, they all do it together at the same time

u-nit /'yʊnɪt/ n. [C] 1 a person or thing that is one whole part of something larger: The family is the smallest social unit. | an eight-unit apartment building (=it has eight apartments) 2 a group of people who work together as part of a larger group: the emergency unit of the hospital 3 an amount of something used as a standard of measurement: The dollar is the basic unit of money in the U.S. 4 one of the numbered parts into which a TEXTBOOK (=a book used in schools) is divided → CHAPTER 5 a piece of furniture that can be attached to others of the same type: a kitchen unit 6 a piece of equipment that is part of a larger machine: The cooling unit is broken.

U-ni-tar-i-an /'yʊnə'terɪən/ n. [C] a member of a Christian group that does not believe in the Trinity —Unitarian adj.

u-nite /yu'nait/ v. [I,T] to join together as one group, or to make people join together in this way, especially in order to achieve something: Congress united behind the President. | The deal would unite two of the country's oldest electronics firms.

u-nit-ed /yu'naitɪd/ adj. 1 involving or done by everyone: Business and government need to make a united effort to clean up the environment. 2 closely joined by sharing feelings, aims, etc.: a united community

U-nited 'Nations n. the UN

U

u-ni-ty /'yʊnəti/ n. [U] a state or situation in which people work together to achieve something that they all agree on: The team suffers from a lack of unity.

u-ni-ver-sal /'yʊnə'vɜ:səl/ adj. 1 involving everyone in the world or in a particular group: With some exceptions, citizens in the U.S. have universal voting rights. | a universal health care program 2 true or appropriate in every situation: a universal truth —universally adv.

u-ni-verse /'yʊnə'vɜ:s/ n. the universe all of space, including all the stars and PLANETS u-ni-ver-si-ty /'yʊnə'vɜ:səti/ n. (plural universities) [C] a school at the highest level, where you study for a DEGREE → COLLEGE: a graduate of Harvard University | He later attended the University of California.

TOPIC

People who go to college to study a subject are called students. Students choose a major (=main subject to study) and sometimes a minor (=second subject to study). Students must also study subjects that are not related to their main subjects, in order to get a good general education. During the four or five years that they go to university, students go to/attend lectures, classes, and seminars. They are taught by professors or sometimes by teaching assistants (T.A.), who are graduate students in the subject they are teaching. Students must write papers and, in science subjects, do lab (=laboratory) work, and they take midterm and final exams. Final exams take place at the end of each semester or quarter (=periods of time that the college year is divided into). Students earn credits for each class. Once a student has earned enough credits, s/he graduates and gets a degree (=academic title).

un-just /,ʌn'dʒʌst/ adj. not fair or reasonable: unjust laws

un-jus-ti-fied /,ʌn'dʒʌstə'faɪd/ [Ac] adj. done without a good reason: an unjustified attack —unjustifiable adj.

un-kempt /,ʌn'kempt/ adj. not neat: Her hair was dirty and unkempt.

un-kind /,ʌn'kaɪnd/ adj. cruel or not nice: an unkind remark

THESAURUS mean, thoughtless → MEAN²

un-know-ing-ly /ʌn'noʊŋli/ adv. without realizing what you are doing or what is happening: Millions of people may have been unknowingly infected.

un-known¹ /,ʌn'nəʊn/ adj. 1 not known about: An unknown number of rebels are in hiding. 2 not famous: an unknown musician unknown² n. [C] someone who is not famous: Early in her career, she was still an unknown.

un-law-ful /ʌn'lɔ:fəl/ adj. not legal un-lead-ed /,ʌn'ledɪd/ n. [U] gas that does not contain any LEAD → REGULAR un-leash /ʌn'li:f/ v. [T] to cause or make something start happening suddenly and with a strong effect: The ceremony unleashed memories of the war.

un-less /ən'les, ʌn-/ conjunction used in order to say that something will happen or be true if another thing does not happen or is not true: We can go in my car unless you want to walk. | He won't go to sleep unless you tell him a story. ▶ Don't say "unless if." ◀ → IF¹

un-li-censed /ʌn'laisənst/ [Ac] adj. without a LICENSE (=an official document that gives you permission to do or have something): unlicensed guns un-like /,ʌn'laɪk/ prep. 1 completely different from another person or thing: Unlike me, she's intelligent. 2 not typical of someone: It's unlike Judy to leave without telling us.

un-like-ly /ʌn'laɪkli/ adj. not likely to happen: It's unlikely (that) I'll be able to get an earlier flight. | The weather is unlikely to improve over the next few days. —unlikelyhood n. [U]

un-lim-it-ed /ʌn'lɪmɪtɪd/ adj. without any limit: a rental car with unlimited mileage un-list-ed /ˌʌnˈlɪstɪd/ adj. not in the list of numbers in the telephone book: an unlisted phone number

un-load /ˌʌnˈləʊd/ v. 1 [I,T] to remove goods from a vehicle or large container, or to have them removed: I unloaded the dishwasher. | The ship took a long time to unload. 2 [T] (informal) to get rid of something by selling it quickly: The warehouse is trying to unload a huge quantity of goods at discount prices. 3 [I,T] to take film out of a camera or bullets out of a gun un-lock /ˌʌnˈlɒk/ v. [T] to undo the lock on a door, box, etc.

un-luck-y /ˌʌnˈlʌki/ adj. 1 having bad luck: Chicago was unlucky to lose in the final minute of the game. | She's been unlucky in love (=not able to find someone to love romantically).

THESAURUS

unfortunate – unlucky: They were unfortunate not to win.

ill-fated – unlucky and leading to serious problems or death: 16 soldiers died during the ill-fated mission to rescue the hostages.

jinxed – very unlucky, and causing you to be unsuccessful or have problems: That's the third fire we've had here. I'm beginning to think this place is jinxed.

inauspicious (formal) – making people think that bad things could happen: The defeat was an inauspicious beginning to his major league career.

2 happening as a result of bad luck: It was unlucky for us that the bank closed just as we got there. 3 believed to cause bad luck: Some people think black cats are unlucky.

un-manned /ˌʌnˈmænd/ adj. an unmanned vehicle or building does not have anyone in it: an unmanned spacecraft un-marked /ˌʌnˈmɑːkt/ adj. something that is unmarked has no words or signs on it: an unmarked police car un-mar-ried /ˌʌnˈmæriəd/ adj. not married (SYN) single un-mask /ˌʌnˈmæsk/ v. [T] to make a truth that has been hidden become known: He was unmasked as an enemy spy.

un-mis-tak-a-ble /ˌʌnmɪˈsteɪkəbəl/ adj. easy to recognize: the unmistakable taste of garlic

THESAURUS

noticeable, clear, obvious, striking, evident, conspicuous → NOTICEABLE

un-mit-i-gat-ed /ˌʌnˈmɪtəˌgeɪtɪd/ adj. [only before noun] used to emphasize how bad something is: The night turned into an unmitigated disaster. | He had the unmitigated gall to complain.

un-moved /ˌʌnˈmuːvd/ adj. feeling no pity, sympathy, or sadness: The judge was unmoved by his excuses.

un-named /ˌʌnˈneɪmd/ adj. an unnamed person, place, or thing is one who is mentioned, especially by a newspaper, but whose name is not given: The newspaper quoted an unnamed diplomatic source.

un-nat-u-ral /ˌʌnˈnætʃərəl/ adj. 1 different from normal, especially in a way that is strange or wrong: It's unnatural for a child to spend so much time alone. 2 seeming false, or not real or natural: Julia's laugh seemed forced and unnatural. 3 different from what is produced in nature → ARTIFICIAL, MAN-MADE: an unnatural shade of red 4 different from normal human behavior in a way that seems morally wrong (SYN) abnormal —unnaturally adv.

un-nec-es-sar-y /ˌʌnˈnesəˌsəri/ adj. not needed, or more than is needed: unnecessary risks —unnecessarily /ˌʌnˈnesəˌserəli/ adv.

un-nerve /ˌʌnˈnəːv/ v. [T] to upset or frighten someone so that s/he loses his/her confidence or ability to think clearly: Dave was completely unnerved by the argument with Terry. —unnerving adj.

un-no-ticed /ˌʌnˈnəʊtɪst/ adj. without being noticed: She sat unnoticed at the back.

un-ob-served /ˌʌnəbˈzəvd/ adj., adv. not seen, or without being seen: Bret left the meeting unobserved.

un-ob-tru-sive /ˌʌnəbˈtruːsɪv/ adj. not easily noticed or not trying to be noticed: an efficient unobtrusive waiter

un-oc-cu-pied /ˌʌnˈɒkjəˌpaɪd/ adj. a seat, house, room, etc. that is unoccupied has no one in it un-of-fi-cial /ˌʌnəˈfɪʃəl/ adj. 1 done or produced without the approval of or permission from someone in authority: According to unofficial results, Carey received 52 percent of the vote. 2 not done as part of official duties: The President made an unofficial visit to a children's hospital. —unofficially adv.

un-or-tho-dox /ˌʌnˈɔːθəˌdɒks/ adj. different from what is usual or accepted by most people: unorthodox behavior un-pack /ˌʌnˈpæk/ v. [I,T] to take everything out of a box or SUITCASE: I haven't had a chance to unpack yet.

un-paid /ˌʌnˈpeɪd/ adj. 1 an unpaid bill or debt has not been paid: unpaid taxes 2 done without getting any money: unpaid work | unpaid leave/time off (=unpaid time away from work)

un-par-al-leled /ˌʌnˈpærəˌleɪd/ (AC) adj. (formal) much bigger, better, or worse than anything else: Those years were a time of unparalleled happiness in our lives.

un-planned /ˌʌnˈplænd/ adj. not planned or expected: an unplanned pregnancy un-pleas-ant /ˌʌnˈplezənt/ adj. 1 not pleasant or enjoyable (ANT) nice: an unpleasant surprise 2 not kind or friendly (ANT) nice: He said some very unpleasant things.

U

un-plug /ʌnˈplʌɡ/ v. (unplugged, unplugging) [T] to disconnect a piece of electrical equipment by taking its PLUG out of a SOCKET un-plugged /ʌnˈplʌɡd/ adj. if a group of musicians perform unplugged, they perform without electric instruments un-pop-u-lar /ʌnˈpɒpyələ/ adj. not liked by most people: an unpopular decision | The plans were unpopular with voters.

un-prec-e-dent-ed /ʌnˈpresədɛntɪd/ (Ac) adj. never having happened before, or never having happened so much: The Steelers won an unprecedented four Super Bowls in six years.

un-pre-dict-a-ble /ʌnpriˈdɪktəbəl/ (Ac) adj. changing so much that you do not know what to expect: unpredictable weather —unpredictably adv. —unpredictability /ʌnpriˈdɪktəˈbɪləti/ n. [U]: the unpredictability of her behavior un-pre-pared /ʌnpriˈpɛəd/ adj. not ready to deal with something: I was totally unprepared for that question.

un-pre-pos-sess-ing /ʌnpriˈpɒsɪŋ/ adj. not special, attractive, or interesting, and not likely to be noticed: an unprepossessing girl of 14

un-prin-ci-pled /ʌnˈprɪnsəpəld/ (Ac) adj. (formal) not caring whether what you do is morally right: Duncan called him an unprincipled liar.

un-print-a-ble /ʌnˈprɪntəbəl/ adj. unprintable words, jokes, songs, etc. are so rude or shocking that they cannot be printed in a newspaper or magazine

U un-pro-duc-tive /ʌnpɹəˈdʌktɪv/ adj. not achieving very much: an unproductive meeting un-pro-fes-sion-al /ʌnpɹəˈfɛʃənəl/ adj. behaving in a way that is not acceptable in a particular profession: Osborn was fired for unprofessional conduct.

un-prof-it-a-ble /ʌnˈprəfɪtəbəl/ adj. 1 making no profit: an unprofitable business 2 (formal) producing no advantage un-pro-TECT-ed /ʌnpɹəˈtɛktɪd/ adj. 1 not protected against damage or harm: Without a roof the building was unprotected from the weather. 2 unprotected sex/intercourse sex without a CONDOM un-pro-voked /ʌnpɹəˈvʊkt/ adj. an unprovoked attack or unprovoked anger, etc. is directed at someone who has not done anything to deserve it un-pub-lished /ʌnˈpʌblɪʃt/ (Ac) adj. unpublished writing, information, etc. has never been printed un-qual-i-fied /ʌnˈkwələˌfaɪd/ adj. 1 not having the right knowledge, experience, or education to do something: The hospital was accused of hiring unqualified health workers. 2 complete: The movie is an unqualified success.

un-ques-tion-a-bly /ʌnˈkwɛstʃənəbli/ adv. in a way that leaves no doubt: This is unquestionably the coldest winter in years.

un-ques-tioned /ʌnˈkwɛstʃənd/ adj. accepted by everyone: The king had an unquestioned right to rule.

un-quote /ˈʌnkwʊt/ v. (spoken) → quote... unquote at QUOTE¹ un-rav-el /ʌnˈrævəl/ v. 1 [T] to understand or explain something that is very complicated: Detectives are still trying to unravel the mystery surrounding her death. 2 [I,T] if you unravel threads or if they unravel, they become separated un-real /ʌnˈrɪl/ adj. 1 an experience, situation, etc. that is unreal seems so strange that you think you must be imagining it: It seemed unreal to be sitting and talking to someone so famous. 2 not relating to real things that happen: Test questions often deal with unreal situations.

un-re-al-is-tic /ʌnrɪəˈlɪstɪk/ adj. unrealistic ideas or hopes are not reasonable or sensible: He has unrealistic expectations about what kind of job he'll get. | It's unrealistic to expect her to be happy all the time.

un-rea-son-a-ble /ʌnˈrɪzənəbəl/ adj. 1 not fair or sensible: It's unreasonable to give a 10-year-old so much responsibility. | He has a talent for dealing with the kids when they're being unreasonable. 2 behaving in a way that is not pleasant, not sensible, and often silly 3 unreasonable prices, costs, etc. are too high un-rec-og-niz-a-ble /ʌnrekəɡˈnaɪzəbəl/ adj. changed or damaged so much that you cannot recognize someone or something: The downtown area is almost unrecognizable.

un-rec-og-nized /ʌnˈrekəɡˌnaɪzd/ adj. 1 not receiving the respect someone deserves: The recording features an unrecognized jazz musician of the 1930s. 2 not noticed or not thought to be important: Some of these problems had gone unrecognized for years.

un-re-cord-ed /ʌnrɪˈkɔrdɪd/ adj. not written down or recorded: Their courage went largely unrecorded.

un-re-fined /ʌnrɪˈfaɪnd/ adj. 1 an unrefined substance is in its natural form: unrefined sugar 2 (formal) not polite or educated un-reg-u-lat-ed /ʌnˈregyələɪtɪd/ (Ac) adj. not controlled by a government or law: unregulated trade un-re-lat-ed /ʌnrɪˈleɪtɪd/ adj. events, actions, situations, etc. that are unrelated are not connected with each other: He will now stand trial on unrelated charges.

un-re-lent-ing /ʌnrɪˈlentɪŋ/ adj. (formal) an unpleasant situation that is unrelenting continues for a long time without stopping or improving: two days of unrelenting rain un-re-li-a-ble /ʌnrɪˈlaɪəbəl/ (Ac) adj. unable to be trusted or depended on: unreliable information | My old car is unreliable in the winter.

un-re-lieved /ʌnrɪˈlɪvd/ adj. a bad situation that is unrelieved continues for a long time because nothing happens to change it: unrelieved pain un-re-mit-ting /ˌʌnrɪ'mɪtɪŋ/ adj. (formal) continuing for a long time and not likely to stop: unremitting criticism un-re-pent-ant /ˌʌnrɪ'pɛntənt/ adj. not ashamed of behavior or beliefs that other people think are wrong: He's an unrepentant racist.

un-re-quit-ed /ˌʌnrɪ'kwɪtɪd/ adj. unrequited love romantic love that you feel for someone who does not feel the same love for you un-re-solved /ˌʌnrɪ'zɒlvd/ (Ac) adj. an unresolved problem or question has not been answered or solved: There was unresolved conflict between the two men.

un-re-spon-sive /ˌʌnrɪ'spɒnsɪv/ (Ac) adj. not reacting to something or not affected by it: The disease is unresponsive to drugs.

un-rest /ʌn'rest/ n. [U] a political situation in which people protest or behave violently: Troops are attempting to control the civil/political etc. unrest in the country.

un-re-strained /ˌʌnrɪ'streɪnd/ (Ac) adj. not controlled or limited: unrestrained laughter un-res-tract-ed /ˌʌnrɪ'strɪktɪd/ (Ac) adj. not limited by anyone or anything: an unrestricted choice of doctors un-ri-valed /ʌn'raɪvəld/ adj. (formal) better than any other: an unrivaled collection of 19th-century art un-roll /ʌn'roʊl/ v. [I,T] to open something that was in the shape of a ball or tube, and make it flat, or to become open in this way: He unrolled the sleeping bag.

un-ru-ly /ʌn'ruli/ adj. 1 violent or difficult to control: unruly children 2 unruly hair is messy un-safe /ʌn'seɪf/ adj. 1 dangerous and likely to cause harm: It's unsafe to swim in the river. 2 in danger and likely to be harmed: Many people feel unsafe walking alone at night.

un-said /ʌn'seɪd/ adj. be left unsaid if something is left unsaid, you do not say it although you think it: Some things are better left unsaid (=it is better not to mention them).

un-san-i-tar-y /ʌn'sæni'təri/ adj. dirty and likely to cause disease: unsanitary conditions un-sat-is-fac-to-ry /ˌʌnsætɪs'fæktəri/ adj. not good enough: Your work is unsatisfactory.

un-sa-vor-y /ʌn'seɪvəri/ adj. bad, dishonest, or morally unacceptable: unsavory business deals un-scathed /ʌn'skeɪd/ adj. not hurt by a bad or dangerous situation: The driver came out of the crash unscathed.

un-screw /ʌn'skru/ v. [T] 1 to open something by twisting it: Turn off the light before unscrewing the bulb. 2 to take the screws out of something un-scru-pu-lous /ʌn'skrʊpyələs/ adj. behaving in an unfair or dishonest way: an unscrupulous lawyer un-sea-son-a-bly /ʌn'siːzənəbli/ adv. unseasonably warm/cold/mild etc. used for saying that the weather is warmer, colder, etc. than usual at a particular time of year —unseasonable adj.

un-seat /ʌn'siːt/ v. [T] to remove someone from a position of power: Two candidates are trying to unseat the mayor.

un-seem-ly /ʌn'simli/ adj. (formal) unseemly behavior is not polite or appropriate: It was considered unseemly for women to smoke.

un-seen /ʌn'siːn/ adj., adv. (formal) not noticed or seen: She left the office unseen.

un-self-ish /ʌn'selfɪʃ/ adj. caring about other people and thinking about their needs and wishes rather than your own —unselfishly adv. —unselfishness n. [U] un-set-tle /ʌn'setl/ v. [T] to make someone feel slightly worried or nervous: Being in a room full of strangers unsettled me.

un-set-tled /ʌn'setld/ adj. 1 making people feel unsure about what will happen: The country faces an unsettled future. 2 slightly worried, upset, or nervous: The children are feeling unsettled by the divorce.

THESAURUS

upset, troubled, disturbed →

UPSET¹

3 an unsettled argument continues without reaching any agreement: The issue remains unsettled. 4 if the weather is unsettled, it keeps changing and there is a lot of rain 5 feeling slightly sick: My stomach's a little unsettled after all that rich food.

un-set-ting /ʌn'setlɪŋ/ adj. causing worry: There have been some unsettling changes in the industry.

un-shav-en /ʌn'ʃeɪvən/ adj. a man who is unshaven has short hairs growing on his face because he has not SHAVED → see picture at CLEAN-SHAVEN un-sight-ly /ʌn'saɪtli/ adj. not nice to look at: unsightly office buildings

THESAURUS

ugly, unattractive, hideous →

UGLY

un-skilled /ʌn'skɪld/ adj. 1 not trained for a particular type of job: unskilled workers 2 unskilled work does not need people with special skills un-so-lic-it-ed /ˌʌnsə'lɪsɪtɪd/ adj. not asked for and often not wanted: unsolicited advice un-so-phis-ti-cat-ed /ˌʌnsə'fɪstə'keɪtɪd/ adj. 1 not having much knowledge or experience of modern and fashionable things: unsophisticated audiences 2 unsophisticated tools, methods, or processes are simple or not very modern un-sound /ˌʌn'saʊnd/ adj. 1 unsound arguments, methods, etc. are not based on fact or reason 2 an unsound building or structure is in bad condition un-speak-a-ble /ˌʌn'spi:kəbəl/ adj. extremely bad: unspeakable crimes un-spe-ci-fied /ˌʌn'spesə'faɪd/ [Ac] adj. not known or not stated: The ticket is valid for an unspecified period of time.

U

un-spoiled /ˌʌn'spɔɪld/ adj. an unspoiled place is beautiful because it has not changed and there are no buildings there: unspoiled beaches un-spo-ken /ˌʌn'spəʊkən/ adj. understood but not discussed: There was an unspoken agreement between us that we would tell Dee.

un-sports-man-like /ˌʌn'spɔ:tsmən,lɜ:k/ adj. not behaving in a fair honest way when playing sports un-sta-ble /ˌʌn'steɪbəl/ [Ac] adj. 1 likely to change suddenly and become worse: an unstable economy 2 dangerous and likely to fall over: an unstable wall 3 someone who is unstable changes very suddenly so that you do not know how s/he will react or behave → CRAZY

un-stead-y /ˌʌn'steɪdi/ adj. shaking or moving in an uncontrolled way, or likely to move or shake: I felt unsteady on my feet. | The old bridge had become unsteady.

un-stop-pa-ble /ˌʌn'stɒpəbəl/ adj. unable to be stopped: The team seems unstoppable this year.

U

un-stressed /ˌʌn'strest/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS an unstressed word or part of a word is pronounced with less force than other ones un-sub-stan-ti-at-ed /ˌʌnsəb'stænʃi,eɪtɪd/ adj. not proved to be true: The allegations of child abuse were unsubstantiated.

un-suc-cess-ful /ˌʌnsək'sesfəl/ adj. not achieving what you wanted to achieve: an unsuccessful attempt to win the election —unsuccessfully adv.: We tried, unsuccessfully, to convince Hererra of the truth.

un-suit-a-ble /ˌʌn'suɪəbəl/ adj. not having the right qualities for a particular person, purpose, or situation: This movie is unsuitable for young children.

un-sung /ˌʌn'sʌŋ/ adj. not praised or famous for something you have done, although you deserve to be: Men like Garcia are the unsung heroes of the war.

un-sure /ˌʌn'sʊə/ adj. 1 not certain about something or about what you have to do: If you're unsure of the rules, ask the teacher. 2 unsure of yourself not having enough confidence: Clara seemed shy and unsure of herself.

un-sus-pect-ing /ˌʌnsə'spektɪŋ/ adj. not knowing that something bad is about to happen: Criminals can make easy money from mugging unsuspecting tourists.

un-swerv-ing /ˌʌn'swə-vɪŋ/ adj. never changing in spite of difficulties: unswerving loyalty

un-sym-pa-thet-ic /ˌʌnsɪmpə'θetɪk/ adj. 1 not kind or helpful to someone who is having problems (ANT) sympathetic: The immigration officer was utterly unsympathetic. 2 [not before noun] not willing to support someone's plans, actions, ideas, etc. (ANT) sympathetic: The college stands accused of being unsympathetic to/toward minority students. 3 unsympathetic character/figure etc. ENG. LANG. ARTS someone in a book, play, etc. who most people do not like (ANT) sympathetic —unsympathetically adv.

un-tan-gle /ˌʌn'tæŋɡəl/ v. [T] 1 to make things straight that are twisted together: Conditioner helps untangle your hair after you wash it. 2 to understand something that is very complicated un-tapped /ˌʌn'tæpt/ adj. an untapped RESOURCE, market, etc. has not yet been used un-ten-a-ble /ˌʌn'tenəbəl/ adj. an untenable situation has become so difficult that it is impossible to continue: The scandal put the President in an untenable position.

un-think-a-ble /ˌʌn'θɪŋkəbəl/ adj. impossible to accept or imagine: It was unthinkable a few years ago for a woman to run for President.

un-ti-dy /ˌʌn'taɪdi/ adj. (formal) messy: an untidy room un-tie /ˌʌn'taɪ/ v. [T] to undo the knots in something, or undo something that has been tied: Mommy, can you untie my shoelaces?

un-til /ən'tɪl, ʌn-/ prep., conjunction 1 if something happens until a particular time, it continues and then stops at that time: I have classes until 7 p.m. today. | Debbie's on vacation until Monday.

USAGE

Until and till are used to talk about the time when something stops: They stayed until/till after midnight.

As far as is used to talk about the place where something stops: Does the bus go as far as the station?

Up to is used mainly to talk about the final number or the biggest possible number: The children had to count up to fifty.

2 not until used in order to say that something will not happen before a particular time: The movie doesn't start until 8 p.m. | The doctor's not available until tomorrow.

un-time-ly /ˌʌn'taɪmli/ adj. happening earlier than it should or than you expected: an untimely death un-tir-ing /ˌʌn'taɪərɪŋ/ adj. (approving) never stopping while working or trying to do something: She was honored for her untiring efforts to help the homeless.

un-told /ˌʌn'təʊld/ adj. too much or too many to be counted: Floods did untold damage to farmland.

un-touch-a-ble /ˌʌn'tʌtʃəbəl/ adj. someone who is untouchable is in such a strong position that s/he cannot be affected by, or punished for, anything: These drug dealers think they're untouchable.

un-touched /ʌn'tʌtʃt/ adj. not changed, affected, or damaged in any way: The town was almost untouched by the war.

un-toward /ʌn'tɔːd/ adj. (formal) unexpected, unusual, or not wanted: Neighbors say that nothing untoward had happened on the night of the shooting.

un-tried /ʌn'traɪd/ adj. something that is untried has not yet tested to see whether it is successful: an untried theory un-true /ʌn'truː/ adj. not based on facts that are correct (SYN) false un-truth-ful /ʌn'truːθfəl/ adj. dishonest or not true un-used¹ /ʌn'yuzd/ adj. not being used, or never used: unused plane tickets* un-used² /ʌn'yust/ adj. unused to (doing) sth not experienced in dealing with something: She's unused to driving at night.

un-u-su-al /ʌn'yuzuəl, -ʒəl/ adj. different from what is usual or normal: Our team has an unusual number of talented players. | unusual clothes* | It's unusual for Dave to be late.*

un-u-su-al-ly /ʌn'yuzuəli, -ʒəli/ adv. unusually hot/difficult etc. more hot, difficult, etc. than is usual un-veil /ʌn'veɪl/ v. [T] 1 to show or tell people something that was a secret: The mayor will unveil plans for a new park. 2 to remove the cover from something as part of a formal ceremony un-voiced /ʌn'vɔɪst/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS unvoiced CONSONANTS are produced without moving your VOCAL CORDS; for example /d/ and /g/ are VOICED consonants, and /t/ and /k/ are unvoiced un-want-ed /ʌn'wʌntɪd/, -'wʌn-, -'wɒn-/ adj. not wanted or needed: an unwanted pregnancy un-war-rant-ed /ʌn'wɒrəntɪd, -'wɒr-/ adj. not done for any good reason: Shafer said the criticism was unwarranted.

un-wel-come /ʌn'welkəm/ adj. not wanted: This is unwelcome news for farmers. | Many minority students felt unwelcome at the southern university.

un-wield-y /ʌn'wɪldi/ adj. an unwieldy object is heavy and difficult to carry un-will-ing /ʌn'wɪlɪŋ/ adj. not wanting to do something: He's still unwilling to admit he was wrong. | unwilling participants*

un-wind /ʌn'waɪnd/ v. (past tense and past participle unwound /-ˈwaʊnd/) 1 [I] to relax and stop feeling anxious: Swimming helps me unwind. 2 [I,T] to undo something that is wrapped or twisted around something else un-wise /ʌn'waɪz/ adj. not based on good judgment: It would be unwise to make him mad.

un-wit-ting-ly /ʌn'wɪtɪŋli/ adv. without knowing or realizing something: Several employees unwittingly became involved in illegal activities. —unwitting adj.

un-wor-thy /ʌn'wɜːði/ adj. not deserving respect, attention, etc.: This idea is unworthy of serious consideration.

un-wrap /ʌn'ræp/ v. (unwrapped, unwrapping) [T] to remove the paper, plastic, etc. that is around something: Brianna was unwrapping her birthday presents.

un-writ-ten /ʌn'tɪtɪn/ adj. known about and understood by everyone but not written down: an unwritten rule un-yield-ing /ʌn'yɪldɪŋ/ adj. (formal) not willing to change your ideas or beliefs: The senator expressed her unyielding support for the president.

un-zip /ʌn'zɪp/ v. (unzipped, unzipping) [T] to unfasten the ZIPPER on a piece of clothing, bag, etc.

up¹ /ʌp/ adv., prep. 1 toward a higher place or position (ANT) down: Duncan climbed up into the tree. | Walk up the hill and turn right. | Could you come up here and help us? | Put your hand up if you know the answer. 2 in a higher place or position (ANT) down: "Where's Dave?" "He's up in his room." | The cat's up a tree. | A balloon floated up above us. 3 in or to a place that is further along something such as a road or path (SYN) down: I'm going up the road to see Jill. 4 into an upright or raised position: The choir stood up to sing. | The hair on the dog's back was sticking up. 5 toward or in the north (ANT) down: I'm driving up to see my parents. | His relatives all live up north. 6 very close to someone or something: The cop came up to the car and asked Chad for his license. 7 increasing in loudness, strength, heat, activity, etc. (ANT) down: Turn up the TV. | Violent crime was up 3% this month. 8 completely done, used, etc., so that there is nothing left: All the space in the basement is filled up. | Eat up your dinner! 9 broken or divided completely: She tore the letter up into tiny pieces. | We'll split the money up evenly. 10 firmly fastened, covered, or joined: The box was tied up with string. | Her dad covered her up and said goodnight. 11 brought or gathered together: Add up the following numbers. | He gathered up all the pens he could find. 12 toward the place where a river starts: We sailed up the river. 13 above and including a particular number or amount: This movie is suitable for children aged 12 and up. 14 up to sth a) used in order to show the highest amount or level of something, or the latest time something can happen: Up to 10 people are allowed in the elevator at one time. | This offer is valid up to December 15. b) used in order to say or ask what someone is doing: What have you been up to lately? | I'm sure Bob's up to something (=doing something secret or bad). c) good enough or well enough to do something: The local police just aren't up to the job (=not good enough to do it). | Do you feel up to a walk today? 15 up and down a) higher and lower: The kids were so excited they were jumping up and down. b) to one end of something and then back again: We walked up and down the street trying to find the house. 16 it's up to you (spoken) said to tell someone that you want him/her to make a decision: "Do you think I should get the dress?" "It's up to you." 17 up close very near someone or something: If you look up close, you can see the cracks. 18 meet/see/know etc. up close to meet someone or experience something that you had previously only read or heard about: I was surprised by how short he was when I met him up close.

up² adj. 1 awake: "Sorry, were you in bed?" "No, I'm still up." 2 IT a computer system that is up is working (ANT) down 3 a level, number, or amount that is up is higher than before (ANT) down: Profits were up by 4% this year. 4 beating your opponent by a certain number of points (ANT) down: With 5 minutes left, Boston is up by 8 points. 5 (informal) if a period of time is up, it is finished: I'll give you a signal when the ten minutes are up. 6 be up against sb/sth to have to deal with a difficult situation or fight an opponent: We're up against some of the biggest companies in the world. 7 be up for sth a) to be intended for a particular purpose: The house is up for sale. | The topic will be up for discussion at the meeting. b) (spoken) to be interested in doing something, or willing to do something: Is anybody up for a game of tennis? 8 be up and running if a machine or process is up and running, it is working correctly: The equipment should be up and running in about three weeks. 9 be up before sb/sth to be judged in a court of law: He was up before the grand jury on charges of fraud.

SPOKEN PHRASES

10 What's up? used in order to greet someone, or to ask if there is a problem: Hey, Mark! What's up? 11 be up on (sth) to know a lot about something: I'm not really up on the way things work here.

up³ n. 1 ups and downs the good things and bad things that happen in a particular situation: We've had our ups and downs like all couples. 2 be on the up and up (spoken) if a person or business is on the up and up, he, she, or it is honest and does things legally up⁴ v. (informal) 1 (upped, upping) [T] to increase the amount or level of something: They've upped Don's salary by $2,500. 2 up and do sth to suddenly do something different or surprising: Without saying another word, he up and left.

up-and-'coming adj. likely to be successful and popular: an up-and-coming actor up-beat /ˌʌpˈbi:t/ adj. cheerful and making you feel that good things will happen: We remained calm and upbeat about the situation.

up-braid /ˌʌpˈbreɪd/ v. [T] (formal) to tell someone angrily that s/he has done something wrong: I heard a manager upbraiding one of the workers.

up-bring-ing /ˌʌpˈbrɪŋɪŋ/ n. [singular, U] the way that your parents care for you and teach you to behave when you are growing up: He had a very strict upbringing.

up-chuck /ˌʌp-tʃʌk/ v. [I] (spoken, informal) to VOMIT up-com-ing /ˌʌpˈkʌmɪŋ/ adj. happening soon: the upcoming elections

up-date¹ /ˌʌpdeɪt, ˌʌpˈdeɪt/ v. [T] 1 to add the most recent information to something: The system needs to be updated. 2 to make something more modern in the way it looks or operates: We need to update our image.

up-date² /ˌʌpdeɪt/ n. [C] the most recent news about something: an update on the earthquake up-end /ˌʌpˈend/ v. [T] to turn something over so that it is upside down up-front /ˌʌpˈfrʌnt/ adj. 1 talking or behaving in a direct and honest way: Jill's always been upfront with him.

THESAURUS honest, frank, candid, direct, straight, straightforward, forthright → HONEST

2 paid before any work has been done or before goods are supplied —upfront adv.: We'll need $300 upfront.

up-grade /ˌʌpgreɪd, ˌʌpˈgreɪd/ v. [T] to improve something, or to exchange something for something better: I was upgraded to first class on the flight back. | We need to upgrade our computer. —upgrade /ˌʌpgreɪd/ n. [C] up-heav-al /ˌʌpˈhɪvəl, ˌʌpˈhɪvəl/ n. [C,U] a very big change that often causes problems: political upheaval

up-hill /ˌʌpˈhɪl/ adj., adv. 1 toward the top of a hill (ANT) downhill: an uphill climb 2 an uphill battle, job, etc. is very difficult and needs a lot of effort: Kent faces an uphill battle if he wants to win.

up-hold /ˌʌpˈhəʊld/ v. (past tense and past participle upheld /-ˈheld/) [T] 1 to defend or support a law, system, or principle so that it is not made weaker: They want to uphold family values. 2 LAW if a court upholds a decision that is made by another court, it states that the decision was correct up-hol-ster /ə'poulstə-, ʌp'houl-/ v. [T] to cover a chair with material —upholstered adj.

up-hol-ster-y /ə'poulstəri/ n. [U] material that is used for covering chairs, or the process of doing this up-keep /'ʌpki:p/ n. [U] the care that is needed to keep something in good condition: the upkeep of a big house up-lift-ing /,ʌp'lɪftɪŋ/ adj. making you feel more cheerful: uplifting music

up-on /ə'pɒn, ə'pɒn/ prep. (formal) on: We are completely dependent upon your help. | The king was sitting upon the throne.

up-per /'ʌpə/ adj. [only before noun] 1 in a higher position than something else (ANT) lower: the upper jaw 2 near or at the top of something (ANT) lower: the upper floors of the building 3 more important or higher in rank than other parts in an organization (ANT) lower: upper management 4 have/gain the upper hand to have more power than someone else, so that you are able to control a situation: Rebels have gained the upper hand in some areas.

up-per-case /,ʌpə'keɪs/ n. [U] letters written in their large form, such as A, B, C, etc. → CAPITAL (ANT) lowercase upper 'class n. the upper class SOCIAL SCIENCE the group of people who belong to the highest social class → LOWER CLASS, MIDDLE CLASS, WORKING CLASS —upper-class adj.: upper-class communities up-per-class-man /,ʌpə'klæsmən/ n. (plural upperclassmen /-mə'n/) [C] a student in the last two years of HIGH SCHOOL or college → UNDER-CLASSMAN up-per-most /'ʌpə'moʊst/ adj. 1 most important: Your safety is uppermost in my mind (=I think it is most important). 2 highest: the uppermost branches of the tree up-pi-ty /'ʌpəti/ adj. (spoken, informal) behaving as if you are more important than you really are, or not showing someone enough respect up-right /'ʌp-raɪt/ adj., adv. 1 standing, sitting, or pointing straight up: Andy stood upright when he heard the noise. | Please put your seat in an upright position. 2 always behaving in an honest way: upright citizens

up-ris-ing /'ʌp,rarɪŋ/ n. [C] an occasion when a large group of people use violence to try to change the rules, laws, etc. in an institution or country: a popular uprising (=by the ordinary people in a country)

THESAURUS revolution, rebellion, revolt, insurrection → REVOLUTION up-riv-er /'ʌp'rɪvə/ adv. toward the place where a river begins, in the opposite direction from the way the water is flowing up-roar /'ʌp-rɔɪ/ n. [singular, U] a lot of noise or angry protest about something: The announcement caused an uproar.

up-root /,ʌp'rʊt/ v. [T] 1 to pull a plant and its roots out of the ground 2 to make someone leave his/her home and move to a new place, especially when this is difficult: Steven's new job will mean uprooting the family.

up-scale /,ʌp'skeɪl/ adj. made for or relating to people from a high social class who have a lot of money: an upscale department store

up-set¹ /,ʌp'set/ adj. 1 [not before noun] unhappy and worried because something bad or disappointing has happened: What are you so upset about? | He was upset that Helen had lied to him. | When I told him he'd failed, he got very upset.

THESAURUS

unsettled – slightly worried, upset, or nervous: The children are feeling unsettled by the divorce.

troubled – slightly worried and upset: She looked troubled by this news.

disturbed – worried and upset: He had been too much disturbed to sleep.

perturbed – worried, upset, and annoyed: The criticism drew a perturbed reaction from the team's coach.

distressed – very sad, worried, and upset: Her family were very distressed that she had not contacted them.

distraught – extremely worried, sad, and upset: Friends tried to comfort his distraught mother.

traumatized – shocked and upset by a bad experience for a very long time: He was traumatized by his war experiences.

2 an upset stomach/tummy an illness that has an effect on the stomach and makes you sick up-set² /'ʌp'set/ v. (past tense and past participle upset, present participle upsetting) [T] 1 to make someone feel unhappy or worried: Kopp's comments upset many of his listeners. 2 to change something in a way that causes problems: I hope I haven't upset all your plans. 3 upset sb's stomach to make someone feel sick up-set³ /'ʌpset/ n. [C] an occasion when a person or team that is not expected to win defeats a stronger opponent in a competition, election, etc.

up-set-ting /'ʌp'setɪŋ/ adj. making you feel upset: an upsetting experience up-shot /'ʌpʃat/ n. the upshot (of sth) the final result of a situation (SYN) outcome: The upshot is that she's decided to take the job.

up-side /'ʌpsaɪd/ n. the upside the positive part of a situation (ANT) downside upside 'down adj., adv. 1 with the top at the bottom and the bottom at the top: Isn't that picture upside down? 2 turn sth upside down a) to move a lot of things and make a place messy because you are looking for something: We turned the house upside down looking for my keys. b) to change something completely: Her life had been turned upside down by the accident.

U

up-stage /ˌʌp'steɪdʒ/ v. [T] to do something that takes people's attention away from a more important person or event

up-stairs /ˌʌp'steɪz/ adj., adv. 1 on or toward a higher floor of a building (ANT downstairs: Her office is upstairs on your right. | the upstairs bathroom 2 the upstairs one or all of the upper floors of a building: Would you like to see the upstairs?

up-standing /ˌʌp'stændɪŋ/ adj. (formal) honest and responsible: an upstanding citizen up-start /ˌʌp'stɑːt/ n. [C] someone who is new in his/her job and behaves as if s/he is more important than s/he is up-state /ˌʌp'steɪt/ adj. in or toward the northern part of a state (ANT downstate: upstate New York —upstate adv.

U

up-stream /ˌʌp'striːm/ adv. along a river, in the opposite direction from the way the water is flowing (ANT downstream —upstream adj.

up-surge /ˌʌpsɜːdʒ/ n. [C] a sudden increase: a recent upsurge in car sales up-swing /ˌʌpswɪŋ/ n. [C] an improvement or increase in the level of something → UPTURN: an upswing in the economy | Incomes are on the upswing.

up-take /ˌʌpteɪk/ n. be slow/quick on the uptake (informal) to be slow or fast at learning or understanding things up-tight /ˌʌp'taɪt/ adj. (informal) behaving in an annoyed way because you are feeling nervous and worried: You shouldn't get so uptight about it.

up-to-date adj. 1 including all the newest information: up-to-date travel information | Doctors must keep up-to-date with medical research. 2 modern or fashionable: the most up-to-date technology | The old system should be brought up-to-date (=made modern).

up-to-the-minute adj. including the most recent information, details, etc.: up-to-the-minute news up-town /ˌʌp'taʊn/ adj., adv. to or in the northern area of a city where the richer people live → DOWNTOWN: The Parkers live uptown.

up-turn /ˌʌptɜːn/ n. [C] a time when business activity is increased and conditions improve (ANT downturn → UPSWING: an upturn in oil production up-turned /ˌʌptɜːnd, ˌʌp'tɜːnd/ adj. 1 pointing upward at the end: an upturned nose 2 turned upside down: upturned boxes up-ward /ˌʌpwɜːd/ adj. [only before noun] 1 moving or pointing toward a higher position (ANT downward: an upward movement of the hand 2 increasing to a higher level (ANT downward: the upward trend in house prices upward² also upwards adv. 1 from a lower place or position to a higher one (ANT downward: Billy pointed upward at the clouds. 2 increasing to a higher level (ANT downward: Salaries have been moving upwards.

u-ra-ni-um /yʊ'reɪniəm/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY a heavy RADIOACTIVE white metal that is used in producing NUCLEAR energy and weapons

U-ra-nus /yʊ'reɪnəs, 'jʊrənəs/ n. PHYSICS the seventh PLANET from the Sun → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM

ur-ban /ˈɜːbən/ adj. in or relating to a town or city → RURAL, SUBURBAN: the growth of urban areas | the urban poor [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin urbanus “urban, sophisticated,” from urbs “city”] ur-bane /ə'beɪn/ adj. behaving in a relaxed and confident way in social situations ur-ban-ize /ˈɜːbənaɪz/ v. [T usually passive] 1 SOCIAL SCIENCE to build houses, cities, etc. in the COUNTRYSIDE 2 SOCIAL SCIENCE if a society is urbanized, people live mainly in cities —urbanization /ˌɜːbənaɪ'zeɪʃən/ n. [U] urban re'newal n. [U] the process of improving poor city areas by building new houses, stores, etc.

urban 'sprawl n. [U] the spread of city buildings and houses into an area that was COUNTRYSIDE ur-chin /ˈɜːtʃɪn/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a small dirty child u-re-ter /yʊ'reɪtə, 'jʊrətə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a tube inside the body that carries URINE (=the yellow liquid waste produced by the body) from the KIDNEYS to the BLADDER

u-re-thra /yʊ'reɪθrə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the tube through which URINE (=waste water) flows out of the body from the BLADDER, and also through which the SEMEN of males flows

urge¹ /ɜːdʒ/ v. [T] to strongly advise someone to do something: Cal's family urged him to find another job. | Environmental groups have urged that the land remain undeveloped.

THE SAURUS advise, recommend, suggest urge sb ↔ on phr. v. to encourage someone to try harder, go faster, etc.: Urged on by the crowd, they scored two more goals.
→ ADVISE

urge² n. [C] a strong wish or need: sexual urges | I felt a sudden urge to hit him.

ur-gent /'ʊdʒənt/ adj. very important and needing to be dealt with immediately: an urgent message | She's in urgent need of medical attention.

—urgency /'ʊdʒənsi/ n. [U]: a matter of great urgency —urgently adv.: Help is urgently needed.

u-ri-nar-y /'yʊrə,neri/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to urine or to the parts of your body through which urine passes u-ri-nate /'yʊrə,neɪt/ v. [I] BIOLOGY to make urine flow out of your body u-rine /'yʊrɪn/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the liquid waste that comes out of your body when you go to the toilet

URL n. [C] IT uniform resource locator an address for a particular WEBSITE on the Internet urn /ʊn/ n. [C] 1 a container that holds and pours a large amount of coffee or tea 2 a decorated container, especially one that is used for holding the ASHES of a dead body us /əs; strong ʌs/ pron. the object form of “we”: He walked by, but he didn't see us.

U.S. n. the U.S. the United States of America

U.S.A. n. the U.S.A. the United States of America

us-a-ble /'yuzəbəl/ adj. something that is usable can be used: The software converts raw data into usable information.

us-age /'yusɪdʒ/ n. 1 [C,U] the way that words are used in a language: a book on modern English usage 2 [U] the way in which something is used, or the amount of it that is used: Homeowners must cut water usage.

USB n. [C] IT universal serial bus a way of connecting equipment such as a mouse or a PRINTER to a computer, using a wire

USB 'drive n. [C] IT universal serial bus drive a small piece of equipment for storing information, that connects into the USB port on a computer. A USB drive can be removed and put into another computer. (SYN) jump drive

USB 'port n. [C] IT universal serial bus port a place on a computer where you can connect a piece of equipment, through which information can be sent and received very quickly

use¹ /yuz/ v. 1 [T] if you use something, you do something with it for a particular purpose: Can I use your phone? | I need to use the bathroom (=go to the toilet). | Use a food processor to grate the vegetables. | The system is easy to use. | We only use the car for driving in the city. 2 [T] to need or take an amount of food, gas, money, etc.: These light bulbs use less electricity. | Our car's using too much oil. 3 [T] to treat someone in an unkind and unfair way in order to get something that you want: Can't you see that Andy is just using you? 4 [T] to say or write a particular word or phrase: I try not to use bad language around the kids. 5 [I,T] to take illegal drugs [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French user, from Latin usus, past participle of uti “to use”] use sth ↔ up phr. v. to use all of something: Who used up all the toothpaste?

use² /yus/ n.

1 ACT OF USING STH [singular, U] the act of using something: the use of computers in education

2 WAY STH IS USED [C] a purpose for which something can be used: The drug has many uses.

3 the use of sth the right or ability to use something: Joe's given me the use of his office. | She lost the use of both legs.

4 make use of sth to use something that is available in order to achieve something or to get an advantage for yourself: It's a shame that students don't make more use of the computer lab. | Try to make good use of your time.

5 put sth to (good) use to use knowledge, skills, etc. for a particular purpose: The job will give you a chance to put your first-aid training to good use.

6 be (of) no use (to sb) to be completely useless: The books are of no use to me now.

7 it's no use doing sth (spoken) used in order to tell someone not to do something because it will have no effect: It's no use arguing with Kathy. She won't listen.

8 it's no use! (spoken) used in order to say that you are going to stop doing something because you do not think it will be successful: It's no use! I can't fix this.

9 have no/little use for sb/sth to not like or respect someone or something: She has no use for people who are always complaining.

10 be in use being used: The computer room's in use all morning.

11 for the use of sb for a particular person or group to use: The gym is for the use of employees only.

12 WORDS [C] one of the meanings of a word, or the way that a particular word is used → USAGE: The use of the word “gay” to mean “happy” is old-fashioned.

used¹ /yust/ adj. be used to (doing) sth if you are used to something, you have experienced it many times before and it no longer seems surprising, difficult, etc.: Kathy is used to getting up early. | He still hasn't gotten used to the weather here.

used² /yuzd/ adj. used cars/clothes/books etc. cars, clothes, etc. that have already had an owner (SYN) secondhand used to /'yustə; final or before a vowel 'yustu/ modal verb if something used to happen, it happened often or regularly in the past but does not happen now: We used to go to the movies every week. | “Do you play golf?” “No, but I used to.”

USAGE

Used to is used in order to talk about something that someone did regularly in the past but does not do anymore: I used to play tennis twice a week, but I don't have time now.

Be used to and get used to are used in order to talk about being or becoming more comfortable with a situation or activity, so that it does not seem surprising, difficult, etc. anymore: Are you used to the cold winters yet? | I can't get used to living in a big city.

U

use-ful /'yusfəl/ adj. helping you to do or to get what you want: useful information | It's useful to make a list before you start. —usefully adv. —usefulness n. [U]

use-less /'yuslɪs/ adj. not useful or effective in any way: These scissors are completely/totally useless. | It's useless to complain. → POINTLESS

us-er /'yuzə/ n. [C] someone who uses a product, service, etc.: The CD-ROM allows the user to hear how all of the words in the dictionary are pronounced. | Ramps designed for wheelchair users have been added to the building. | Users of cell phones pay more for calls.

user-'friendly adj. easy to use or operate us-er-name, user name /'yuzə,neɪm/ n. [C] IT a name or special word that proves who you are and allows you to enter a computer system or use the Internet ush-er /'ʌʃə/ n. [C] someone who shows people to their seats at a theater, wedding, etc.

usher ² v. [T] to take someone into or out of a room or building: His secretary ushered us into the office.

THESAURUS lead, guide, show, escort → LEAD¹

usher in sth phr. v. to make something new start happening: Gorbachev ushered in a new era of reform.

V

u-su-al /'yuzʊəl, -zəl/ adj. 1 the same as what happens most of the time or in most situations: Let's meet at the usual place. | I woke up a little earlier/later than usual. 2 as usual in the way that happens or exists most of the time: They were late, as usual.

u-su-al-ly /'yuzʊəli, -zəli/ adv. used when describing what happens on most occasions or in most situations: We usually go out for dinner on Saturday. | Usually, I just get a sandwich for lunch.

u-surp /yu'səp/ v. [T] (formal) to take someone else's power, position, job, etc.

UT the written abbreviation of UTAH u-ten-sil /yu'tensəl/ n. [C] a tool or object that you use to prepare, cook, or eat food: cooking utensils [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French utensile, from Latin utensilis “useful”] u-ter-us /'yutərəs/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the organ in a woman or female MAMMAL where babies develop u-til-i-tar-i-an /yu,tɪlə'terɪən/ adj. (formal) useful and practical rather than being used for decoration: utilitarian clothes

u-til-i-ty /yu'tɪləti/ (Ac) n. (plural utilities) [C] usually plural] a service such as gas or electricity that is provided for people to use: Does the rent include utilities?

u-til-ize /'yuɪl,aɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] (formal) to use something [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French utiliser, from utile “useful”] —utilization /,yuɪl-ə'zeɪʃən/ n. [U] ut-most¹ /'ʌtˈmoʊst/ adj. the utmost importance/care/etc. the greatest possible importance, care, etc.: This is a matter of the utmost importance.

utmost² n. [singular] 1 to the utmost to the highest limit, EXTENT, degree, etc. possible: The piece challenges singers to the utmost. 2 do your utmost to try as hard as you can in order to achieve something: We've done our utmost to make them feel welcome.

u-to-pi-a /yu'toʊpiə/ n. [C,U] an imaginary perfect world where everyone is happy —utopian adj.

u-to-pi-an-ism /yu'toʊpiə,nɪzəm/ n. [U] SOCIAL SCIENCE the set of ideas, beliefs, etc. on which the development of a UTOPIAN society are based. These ideas are often seen as not practical or possible.

ut-ter¹ /'ʌtə/ adj. complete or extreme: We watched in utter amazement. —utterly adv.: He felt utterly exhausted.

utter² v. [T] (literary) to say something: No one uttered a word. → SAY¹ —utterance n. [C]

U-turn /'yu təʊn/ n. [C] a turn that you make in a vehicle, so that you go back in the direction you came from: Shea made a U-turn and drove away.

u-vu-la /'yuvyələ/ n. (plural uvulas or uvulae /-li/) [C] BIOLOGY a small soft piece of flesh that hangs down from the top of your mouth near your throat

Vv

V, v /vi/ 1 the twenty-second letter of the English alphabet 2 the number 5 in the system of ROMAN NUMERALS 3 PHYSICS the written abbreviation of VOLT

v. a written abbreviation of VERSUS

VA the written abbreviation of VIRGINIA

va-can-cy /'veɪkənsi/ n. (plural vacancies) [C] 1 a room in a hotel that is available for someone to stay in: The motel sign said “no vacancies.” 2 (formal) a job that is available for someone to start doing: The principal is interviewing candidates to fill several vacancies at the school.

va-cant /'veɪkənt/ adj. 1 empty and available for someone to use: vacant apartments

THESAURUS empty, free → EMPTY¹

2 (formal) if a position in an organization is vacant, the job is available because no one is doing it 3 if someone has a vacant expression, s/he does not seem to be thinking about anything —vacantly adv.: Cindy was staring vacantly out into empty space.

va-cate /'veɪkət/ v. [T] (formal) to leave a seat, room, etc. so that someone else can use it: Guests must vacate their rooms by noon.

va-ca-tion /veɪ'keɪʃən, və-/ n. 1 [C,U] a time that is spent not working or not at school, especially time spent in another place for enjoyment: They're on vacation for the next two weeks. | How did you spend your summer vacation? | We'd like to take a vacation in the Virgin Islands.

THESAURUS

vacation – time you spend away from school or work: a two-week vacation in Mexico | a real family vacation

holiday – a day when no one officially has to go to work or school: the Thanksgiving holiday break – a time when you stop working or studying in order to rest, or a short vacation from school: a ten-minute coffee break | We spent spring break in Florida.

leave – a time when you are allowed not to work for a special reason: Angela is on maternity leave.

furlough – a short period of time in which someone is allowed to be away from his/her job, especially in the military: a soldier home on furlough

R & R – rest and relaxation; a vacation given to people in the army, navy, etc. after a long time of hard work or during a war: During the Vietnam War, soldiers were sent to Hawaii for R & R.

sabbatical – a period when someone who teaches stops doing his/her usual work in order to study or travel: Prof. Morris is on sabbatical this semester.

2 [U] the number of days, weeks, etc. that you are allowed as paid holiday by your employer: All employees get three weeks' paid vacation each year. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin vacatio “freedom”] —vacation v. [I] vac-ci-nate /'væksə,neɪt/ v. [T] to protect someone from a disease by giving him/her a vaccine [SYN] immunize: Have you been vaccinated against measles? —vaccination /'væksə'neɪʃən/ n. [C,U] vac-cine /væk'sɪn/ n. [C,U] a substance that is used to protect people from a disease, that contains a weak form of the virus that causes the disease: a polio vaccine [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Latin vaccinus “of a cow,” from vacca “cow,” because the substance was originally obtained from sick cows] vac-il-late /'væslə,leɪt/ v. [I] (formal) to continue to change your opinions, ideas, etc. because you cannot decide between two choices vac-u-ole /'vækyu,oul/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a small space inside a living cell, used for storing water, food, or waste vac-u-ous /'vækyuəs/ adj. (formal) lacking in serious thought or intelligence: a vacuous remark —vacuously adv. —vacuousness n. [U] vac-u-um¹ /'vækyum/ n. 1 [C] a vacuum cleaner 2 [C] PHYSICS a space that is completely empty of all air or gas 3 [singular] a situation in which someone or something is missing or lacking: Her husband's death left a vacuum in her life. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Latin vacuus “empty”] vacuum² v. [I,T] to clean a place using a vacuum cleaner: She vacuumed the living room.

THESAURUS clean, do the housework, dust, polish, sweep (up), scrub, mop → CLEAN²

'vacuum cleaner n. [C] a machine that cleans floors by sucking up the dirt from them

'vacuum-packed adj. vacuum-packed food is packed in a container from which the air is removed, in order to keep the food fresh va-ga-ries /'veɪgəriz/ n. [plural] (formal) unexpected changes in a situation that you cannot control: the vagaries of the weather va-gi-na /və'dʒaɪnə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the passage from a woman's outer sexual organs to her UTERUS —vaginal /'vædʒənəl/ adj.

va-grant /'veɪgrənt/ n. [C] (formal) someone who has no home or work vague /veɪg/ adj. 1 unclear because someone does not give enough details or say exactly what s/he means: John was a little vague about where he was going. | vague promises to end the war 2 have a vague idea/feeling etc. to think that something might be true or that you remember something, although you are not sure vague-ly /'veɪgəli/ adv. 1 slightly: She looked vaguely familiar. 2 not clearly: His statement was very vaguely worded. 3 in a way that shows you are not thinking about what you are doing: He smiled vaguely.

vain /veɪn/ adj. 1 (disapproving) too proud of your appearance or your abilities → VANITY: Men can be just as vain as women.

THESAURUS proud, conceited, big-headed, stuck-up, egotistical → PROUD

2 in vain without success: I tried in vain to convince Paul to come. 3 vain attempt/hope etc. an attempt, hope, etc. that is not successful [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin vanus “empty, vain”] —vainly adv.

va-lence /'veɪləns/ also va-len-cy /'veɪlənsi/ n. (plural valencies) [C] CHEMISTRY a measure of the ability of atoms to combine to form COMPOUNDS val-en-tine /'vælən,təɪn/ n. [C] 1 a card given on Valentine's Day 2 a name for someone you love or like, who you send a card to on Valentine's Day: Will you be my valentine?

V

'Valentine's Day n. a holiday in some countries when people give special cards, candy, or flowers to people they love val-et /væ'lei, 'vælei/ n. [C] 1 someone who parks your car for you at a hotel or restaurant 2 a male servant who takes care of a man's clothes, serves his meals, etc.

val-iant /'vælyənt/ adj. (formal) very brave: a valiant rescue attempt

THESAURUS brave, courageous, heroic → BRAVE¹

val-id /'vælid/ [AC] adj. 1 a valid ticket, document, or agreement can be used legally or is officially acceptable [ANT] invalid: a valid passport 2 based on strong reasons or facts: They had some valid concerns about the safety of the airplane. | In order to make a valid comparison, the tests must be carried out under comparable conditions. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French valide, from Latin validus “strong, effective,” from valere “to be worth, be strong”] —validity /və'lidəti/ n. [U]: Scientists are questioning the validity of his research.

val-i-date /'vælədeɪt/ [AC] v. [T] (formal) to show or prove that something is true or correct [ANT] invalidate: It is hoped that the results of the study will be validated by future research.

val-ley /'væli/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES an area of lower land between two lines of hills or mountains: the San Fernando Valley [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French valee, from val] → see picture on page A11

V

val-or /'vælə/ n. [U] (literary) great courage, especially in war

THESAURUS courage, bravery, guts → COURAGE val-u-a-ble /'vælyəbəl, -yuəbəl/ adj. 1 worth a lot of money: a valuable ring

THESAURUS
precious – valuable because of being rare or expensive: precious gems priceless – so valuable that you cannot calculate a financial value: a priceless painting by Rembrandt worth a lot/a fortune – to be worth a very large amount of money: their house is now worth a fortune. → EXPENSIVE

2 valuable help, advice, etc. is very useful → INVALUABLE: I think we've all learned a valuable lesson today.

val-u-a-bles /'vælyəbəlz/ n. [plural] things that you own that are worth a lot of money, such as jewelry, cameras, etc.: Guests should leave their valuables in the hotel safe.

THESAURUS property, possessions, things, belongings, effects → PROPERTY

val-ue¹ /'vælyu/ n. 1 [C,U] the amount of money that something is worth: the value of the house | The dollar has been steadily increasing/decreasing in value. | Did the thieves take anything of value (=worth a lot of money)? 2 [U] the importance or usefulness of something: His research was of great value to doctors working with this disease. | These earrings have sentimental value (=are important to you because they were a gift, remind you of someone, etc.). 3 values [plural] your beliefs about what is right and wrong, or about what is important in life: traditional family values 4 good/great etc. value something that is worth the amount you pay for it [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Vulgar Latin valuta, from Latin valere “to be worth, be strong”] value² v. [T] 1 to think that something is important and worth having: I value your friendship. 2 to say how much something is worth: a painting valued at $5 million valve /vælv/ n. [C] 1 a part of a tube or pipe that opens and closes like a door in order to control the flow of liquid, gas, air, etc. passing through 2 BIOLOGY a part of an ARTERY (=tube that blood flows through) or VEIN that folds or closes in order to stop blood flowing back in the direction it came from [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Latin valva “part of a door”] → see picture at BICYCLE vam-pire /'væmpaɪə/ n. [C] in stories, a dead person who sucks people's blood by biting their necks van /væn/ n. [C] 1 a truck with an enclosed back, used for carrying goods: Jerry began unloading the van. 2 a large box-like car van-dal /'vændl/ n. [C] someone who deliberately damages things, especially public property van-dal-ism /'vændlɪzəm/ n. [U] the crime of deliberately damaging things, especially public property van-dal-ize /'vændlaɪz/ v. [T] to damage or destroy things deliberately, especially public property: The church property had been vandalized.

van-guard /'væŋɡɑrd/ n. in the vanguard (of sth) involved in an important activity, and trying to achieve something or develop new ideas: a group in the vanguard of political reform

va-nil-la /və'nɪlə/ n. [U] a substance with a slightly sweet taste, used in ICE CREAM and other foods van-ish /'vænɪʃ/ v. [I] to disappear suddenly, especially in a way that cannot be easily explained: When I looked again, he'd vanished. | The ship vanished without a trace (=disappeared, leaving no sign of what had happened to it).

van-i-ty /'vænəti/ n. [U] (disapproving) the quality of being too proud of yourself → VAIN van-quish /'væŋkwɪʃ/ v. [T] (literary) to defeat someone or something completely (SYN) beat, conquer van-tage point /'væntɪdʒ, pɔɪnt/ n. [C] 1 a good position from which you can see something 2 a way of thinking about things that is influenced by your own situation (SYN) point of view

vap-id /'væpɪd/ adj. (formal) lacking intelligence, interest, or imagination: a vapid TV show —vapidly adv. —vapidity n. [U] —vapidity /və'pɪdɪti/ n. [U] va-por /'veɪpə/ n. [C,U] CHEMISTRY many small drops of liquid that float in the air: water vapor

var-i-a-ble¹ /'veriəbəl, 'væ-/ (Ac) adj. 1 likely to change often or be different: a variable rate of interest | Hospital food is highly variable in quality. 2 variable cost ECONOMICS a cost to a company or business that changes when the amount of goods being produced changes

variable² n. [C] 1 something that may be different in different situations: A number of variables can affect a student's performance. | Variables such as social class and education influence political beliefs. 2 MATH a mathematical quantity which can represent different values, usually shown as a letter → CONSTANT —variability /,veriə'bɪləti, 'væ-/ n. [U] variable ex'pression n. [C] MATH a mathematical expression that has a variable in it, for example $2x + 3$ var-i-ance /'veriəns, 'væ-/ (Ac) n. be at variance (with sth/sb) (formal) if two people or things are at variance with each other, they do not agree or are very different: The results from later experiments were considerably at variance with the original ones.

var-i-ant /'veriənt, 'væ-/ (Ac) n. [C] something that is slightly different from the usual form of something: a spelling variant | The moth is a variant of the species that arrived here from Europe in 1869. —variant adj.

var-i-a-tion /,veri'eɪʃən, 'væ-/ (Ac) n. 1 [C,U] a difference between similar things, or a change from the usual amount or form of something: variations in prices from store to store | Slight temperature variations are not critical. 2 [C] something that is done in a slightly different way from normal: This is the traditional recipe, but of course there are many variations. | There are several variations of socialism, including communism.

var-i-cose veins /,væɪəkəʊs 'veɪnz/ n. [plural] a medical condition in which the VEINS in your leg become swollen and painful var-ied /'verɪd, 'væ-/ (Ac) adj. including many different types of things or people: a varied diet | This essay discusses the many varied groups in American society.

var-i-e-gat-ed /'veri,geɪtɪd, 'væ-/ adj. 1 BIOLOGY a variegated plant, leaf, etc. has different colored marks on it: variegated holly 2 (formal) consisting of a lot of different types of people or things

va-ri-e-ty /və'reɪəti/ n. (plural varieties) 1 a variety of sth a lot of different things or people: The girls come from a variety of different backgrounds. | The T-shirts are available in a wide variety of colors. 2 [U] the differences within a group, set of actions, etc. that make it interesting: She wants more variety in her work. 3 [C] a particular type of something that is different from other things of a similar kind: different varieties of apples [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French variété, from Latin varietas, from varius “various”]

THESAURUS type, kind, sort, category →
TYPE¹

va'riety show n. [C] a television or radio program or a play that consists of many different performances, especially funny ones

var-i-ous /'veriəs, 'væ-/ adj. several different: This coat comes in various colors. | He decided to leave school for various reasons.

var-i-ous-ly /'veriəsli, 'væ-/ adv. in many different ways: He's been variously called a genius and a madman.

var-nish¹ /'vɑːnɪʃ/ n. [C,U] a clear liquid that is painted onto things that are made of wood, to protect them and give them a shiny surface [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French vernix, from Medieval Latin veronix, type of resin used for making varnish] varnish² v. [T] to paint something with varnish var-si-ty /'vɑːsɪti/ n. (plural varsities) [C,U] the main team that represents a university, college, or school in sports: the varsity basketball team

var-y /'veri, 'væri/ (Ac) v. (varied, varies) 1 [I] if several things of the same type vary, they are all different from each other: Prices vary from $10 to $50. | The flowers vary in color and size. | Test scores varied widely from child to child. 2 [I] to change often: The price of seafood varies according to the season. | “How often do you play tennis?” “Oh, it varies.” | The level of pay varies with the experience of the employee. 3 [T] to regularly change what you do or the way that you do it: You need to vary your diet. | Good writers vary the length and structure of their sentences. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin varius “various”] —varying adj.: varying degrees of success

vas-cu-lar /'væskjələ/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to the tubes through which liquids, for example blood, flow in the bodies of animals or in plants vascular 'tissue n. [U] BIOLOGY material through which water, SAP, and other liquids are carried around a plant vase /veɪs, veɪz, vɑːz/ n. [C] a container used to put flowers in [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French, Latin vas “container”]

V

va-sec-to-my /və'sektəmi/ n. (plural vasectomies) [C,U] a medical operation that makes a man unable to produce children

Vas-e-line /'væsəlin, 'væsə'lin/ n. [U] (trade-mark) a thick clear substance used on the skin to make it less dry vas-sal /'væsəl/ n. [C] HISTORY a man in the Middle Ages who was given land to live on by a LORD in return for promising to work or fight for him vast /væst/ adj. 1 extremely large: vast areas of rainforest

THESAURUS big, large, huge, enormous, gigantic, massive, immense → BIG

2 the vast majority (of sth) almost all of a group of people or things [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin vastus “empty, desolate, very large”] vast-ly /'væstli/ adv. very greatly: vastly different opinions vat /væt/ n. [C] a very large container for keeping liquids in vault¹ /vɔlt/ n. [C] 1 a room with thick walls and a strong door, where money, jewels, etc. are kept safely 2 a room where people from the same family are buried 3 a jump over something vault² also vault over v. [T] to jump over something in one movement, using your hands or a pole to help you: He vaulted over the fence and ran off.

THESAURUS jump, leap, spring, hurdle → JUMP¹

V chip /'vi tʃip/ n. [C] a CHIP in a television that allows parents to prevent their children from watching programs that are violent or have sex in them

V

VCR n. [C] video cassette recorder a machine that is used for recording television shows or watching VIDEOTAPES

VD n. [U] (old-fashioned) venereal disease a disease that is passed from one person to another during sex

VDU n. [C] IT visual display unit a computer screen (SYN) monitor

-'ve /v, əv/ the short form of “have”: We've finished.

veal /vil/ n. [U] the meat from a CALF (=young cow) vec-tor /'vɛktə/ n. [C] also vector quantity MATH a quantity that has a direction as well as a size, usually represented by an ARROW veer /vir/ v. [I] to change direction suddenly: The car veered sharply to the left.

veg /vedʒ/ also veg out v. [I] (informal) to relax and not do anything important ve-gan /'vigən, 'veɪ-, 'vedʒən/ n. [C] someone who does not eat meat, fish, eggs, or milk products vege-ta-ble /'vedʒtəbəl/ n. [C] a plant such as corn or potatoes, which you can eat: fresh fruits and vegetables | We have a small vegetable garden. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Medieval Latin vegetabilis “growing,” from vegetare “to grow”] veg-e-tar-i-an /'vedʒə'tɛəriən/ n. [C] someone who does not eat meat or fish: I'm thinking about becoming a vegetarian. —vegetarian adj.

veg-e-ta-tion /'vedʒə'teɪʃən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY plants in general, especially all the plants in one particular area: a meadow with thick vegetation veg-gie¹ /'vedʒi/ n. [C usually plural] (informal) a vegetable veggie² adj. a veggie burger/sandwich etc. (informal) a HAMBURGER, SANDWICH, etc. that is made using vegetables or grain, rather than meat ve-he-ment /'viəmənt/ adj. showing very strong feelings or opinions: vehement protests —vehemently adv.: Hoff vehemently denies the accusations. —vehemence n. [U]

ve-hi-cle /'viɪkəl/ (Ac) n. 1 [C] (formal) a thing such as a car, bus, etc. that is used for carrying people or things from one place to another: a description of the stolen vehicle 2 a vehicle for (doing) sth something that you use as a way of spreading your ideas, opinions, etc.: The newspaper is a vehicle for government propaganda. | Drawing, like writing, can be a vehicle for exploring your feelings. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French véhicule, from Latin vehiculum, from vehere “to carry”] veil /veɪl/ n. [C] 1 a thin piece of material that women wear to cover their faces: a bridal veil 2 a veil of secrecy/silence etc. something that stops you knowing the full truth about a situation: A veil of mystery surrounded Gomez's death.

veiled /veɪld/ adj. 1 veiled criticism/threats etc. criticisms, threats, etc. that are not said directly 2 be veiled in mystery/secret if something is veiled in mystery, secrecy, etc., very little is known about it vein /veɪn/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY one of the tubes through which blood flows to your heart from other parts of your body → ARTERY: Death was caused by a wound to the jugular vein (=the large vein in your neck). 2 BIOLOGY one of the thin lines on a leaf or on the wing of an insect 3 EARTH SCIENCES a thin layer of coal, gold, etc. in rock 4 in a ... vein in a particular style of speaking or writing: Her speech continued in the same vein.

Vel-cro /'velkrou/ n. [U] (trademark) a material used for fastening shoes, clothes, etc., made from two special pieces of cloth that stick to each other ve-loc-i-ty /və'lasəti/ n. (plural velocities) [C,U] PHYSICS the speed at which something moves in a particular direction over a period of time: the velocity of light [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French vélocité, from Latin velocitas, from velox “fast”] vel-vet /'velvɪt/ n. [U] cloth with a soft surface on one side [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French veluotte, from velu “hairy,” from Latin villus “rough hair”] vel-vet-y /'vɛlvɪtɪ/ adj. looking, feeling, tasting, or sounding smooth and soft: a velvety voice

ve-na ca-va /ˌvɪnə 'keɪvə/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of two large tubes that carry blood back to your heart from different parts of your body: the superior vena cava (=tube that returns blood to the heart from the head and the upper part of the body) | the inferior vena cava (=tube that returns blood to the heart from the lower part of the body) → see picture at HEART

ven-det-ta /vɛn'detə/ n. [C] a situation in which one person tries for a long time to harm another person vend-ing ma-chine /'vɛndɪŋ məʃɪn/ n. [C] a machine that you can get cigarettes, candy, drinks, etc. from, by putting in money ven-dor /'vɛndə/ n. [C] someone who sells things, especially in the street: street vendors

ve-neer /və'niːr/ n. 1 [C,U] a thin layer of good quality wood that covers the outside of a piece of furniture that is made of a cheaper material: oak veneer 2 a veneer of sth (formal) behavior that hides someone's real character or feelings: a veneer of politeness ven-er-a-ble /'vɛnərəbəl/ adj. (formal) a venerable person or organization is very old and respected: venerable institutions ven-er-ate /'vɛnə'reɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to treat someone or something with great respect, especially because she, he, or it is old, holy, or connected with the past ve-ne-re-al dis-ease /və'nɪəriəl dɪˌzɪz/ n. [C,U] VD

Ve-ne-tian blind /və'nɪʃən 'blaɪnd/ n. [C] a covering for a window, made of long flat bars that can be raised or lowered to let in light → see picture on page A6

venge-ance /'vɛndʒəns/ n. [singular, U] 1 something violent or harmful that you do to someone in order to punish him/her for hurting you: a desire for vengeance 2 with a vengeance with much more force or effort than is expected or normal: The Colts started the season with a vengeance, winning three straight games.

venge-ful /'vɛndʒfəl/ adj. (literary) very eager to punish someone who has hurt you ven-i-son /'vɛnəsən/ n. [U] the meat of a DEER

Venn di-a-gram /'vɛn ˌdaɪəɡrəm/ n. [C] MATH a picture that shows the relationship between two sets of things by using circles that OVERLAP each other. The part of each set that is the same for both sets is put into the place where the circles cross.

ven-om /'vɛnəm/ n. [U] 1 a liquid poison that some snakes, insects, etc. produce 2 extreme anger or hatred: a speech full of venom —venomous adj.

vent¹ /vɛnt/ n. 1 [C] a hole or pipe through which gases, smoke, or liquid can enter or go out: an air vent 2 give vent to sth (formal) to do something to express a strong feeling vent² v. [T] to do something to express your feelings, often in a way that is unfair: Jay vented his anger on/at his family.

ven-ti-late /'vɛntl,eɪt/ v. [T] to let fresh air into a room, building, etc. [ORIGIN: 1400—1500 Latin, past participle of ventilare, from ventus “wind”] —ventilated adj.: Mechanics should work in a well-ventilated space. —ventilation /,vɛntl'eɪʃən/ n. [U]

ven-ti-la-tor /'vɛntl,eɪtə/ n. [C] a RESPIRATOR ven-tral /'vɛntrəl/ adj. [only before noun] BIOLOGY relating to the stomach of an animal or fish → DORSAL ven-tri-cle /'vɛntrɪkəl/ n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the two spaces inside the bottom of your heart from which blood is pumped into your body → ATRIUM, AURICLE → see picture at HEART ven-tril-o-quist /vɛn'trɪləkwɪst/ n. [C] someone who speaks without using his/her lips, in a way that makes the sound seem to come from somewhere else, especially from a PUPPET —ventriloquism n. [U] ven-ture¹ /'vɛntʃə/ n. [C] ECONOMICS a new business activity that involves taking risks: a new joint venture (=an agreement between two companies to do something together)

venture² v. (formal) 1 [I] to risk going somewhere when it could be dangerous: Several boats ventured out to sea, despite the weather. 2 [T] to say or do something although you are not sure of it, or are afraid of how someone may react to it: No one else ventured an opinion.

V ven-ue /'vɛnyu/ n. [C] a place where an organized meeting, concert, etc. takes place: a popular jazz venue [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Old French “coming,” from venir “to come,” from Latin venire]

Ve-nus /'vɪnəs/ n. PHYSICS the second PLANET from the Sun → see picture at SOLAR SYSTEM

ve-rac-i-ty /və'reɪsəti/ n. [U] (formal) the quality of being true or of telling the truth: They doubted his veracity. —veracious /və'reɪʃəs/ adj.

ve-ran-da /və'rændə/ n. [C] a PORCH verb /vəb/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS in grammar, a word or group of words that is used in order to describe an action, experience, or state. In the sentence “They arrived late,” “arrived” is a verb. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French verbe, from Latin verbum “word, verb”] ver-bal /'vɜ:bəl/ adj. 1 spoken, not written: a verbal agreement 2 relating to words or using words: verbal skills —verbally adv.

ver-ba-tim /və'beɪtɪm/ adj., adv. repeating the actual words that were spoken or written ver-bose /və'boʊs/ adj. (formal) using or containing too many words ver-dant /'vɜ:dənt/ adj. (literary) verdant land is covered with freshly growing green grass and plants ver-dict /'vɜ:dɪkt/ n. [C] 1 LAW an official decision that is made by a JURY in a court of law about whether someone is guilty or not guilty of a crime: Has the jury reached a verdict (=made a decision)? → COURT¹ 2 an official decision or opinion made by a person or group that has authority: The panel will give their verdict tomorrow. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Anglo-French, Old French ver “true” + dit “saying, judgment”] verge¹ /vɜ:dʒ/ n. be on the verge of sth to be about to do something: Andy was on the verge of tears.

verge² v.

verge on/upon sth phr. v. to be very close to a harmful or extreme state: Their behavior sometimes verges on insanity.

ver-i-fy /'vɜ:rə,fai/ v. [T] (verified, verifies) to find out if a fact, statement, etc. is correct or true: There was no way to verify his story. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French verifier, from Medieval Latin verificare, from Latin verus “true”]

—verification /,vɜ:rəfə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] ver-i-ta-ble /'vɜ:rətəbəl/ adj. (formal) used in order to emphasize your description of someone or something: a veritable army of tourists (=a very large number of them) ver-min /'vɜ:mɪn/ n. [plural] small animals or insects that are harmful or difficult to control [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin vermen “worm”] ver-nac-u-lar /və'nækjələ/ n. [C usually singular] ENG. LANG. ARTS the language or DIALECT that ordinary people in a country or area speak, especially when this is not the official language or formal language: Instead of being in Latin, the church service was held in the vernacular.

THE SAURUS language, dialect →
LANGUAGE

ver-sa-tile /'vɜ:sətl/ adj. 1 good at doing a lot of different things and able to learn new skills quickly and easily: a versatile singer 2 having many different uses: Cotton is a versatile material. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 French, Latin versatilis “turning easily,” from versare “to turn”] —versatility /,vɜ:sə'tɪləti/ n. [U]

verse /vɜ:s/ n. 1 [C] a set of lines that forms one part of a poem or song, and that usually has a pattern that is repeated in other parts 2 [U] ENG. LANG. ARTS words arranged in the form of poetry: a book of verse | Parts of the play are written in verse.

versed /vɜ:st/ adj. be (well-) versed in sth to know a lot about a subject or to have a lot of skill in doing something: lawyers who are well-versed in these matters

ver-sion /'vɜ:ʒən/ (Ac) n. [C] 1 a copy of something that is slightly different from other forms of it: the original version of the movie | a new version of an old song | Many devout people have objected to each new version of the Bible. 2 a description of an event that is given by one person: I'm not sure I believe Bobby's version of the story. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French, Medieval Latin versio “turning,” from Latin versus] ver-sus /ˈvɜːsəs/ prep. 1 (written abbreviation vs. or v.) used in order to show that two people or teams are against each other in a game or a court case: the Knicks versus the Lakers 2 used when comparing the advantages of two different things or ideas: It's a question of quantity versus quality. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Medieval Latin “toward, against,” from Latin vertere] ver-te-bra /ˈvɜːtəbrə/ n. (plural vertebrae /-breɪ, -bri/) [C] BIOLOGY one of the small hollow bones down the center of your back ver-te-brate /ˈvɜːtəbrət, -breɪt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY an animal that has a BACKBONE → INVERTEBRATE ver-tex /ˈvɜːtɛks/ n. (plural vertices /ˈvɜːtɛsɪz/ or vertexes) [C] 1 MATH the point where two sides of a POLYGON or three or more sides of a POLYHEDRON meet 2 MATH the highest or lowest point on a PARABOLA ver-ti-cal /ˈvɜːtɪkəl/ adj. pointing straight upward: a vertical line —vertically adv. → see picture at LINE¹ ver-ti-go /ˈvɜːtɪɡoʊ/ n. [U] a sick DIZZY feeling that is caused by looking down from a very high place verve /vɜːv/ n. [U] (literary) if someone does something with verve, s/he does it with energy and excitement

ve-ry /ˈvɛri/ adv. 1 used in order to emphasize an adjective, adverb, or expression → REALLY: It's a very good book. | My family is very important to me. | Sid gets embarrassed very easily. | Carter went to the very best schools. | The two brothers died on the very same (=exactly the same) day.

USAGE

Do not use very with adjectives and adverbs that already have a strong meaning, for example “huge” or “terrible.” Say “a terrible war,” not “a very terrible war.”

You can use really instead: That was a really awful movie.

Do not use very with the comparative form of adjectives. Do not say “This school's very better.”

Use much instead: This school's much better. → TOO

2 not very a) used before a quality to mean exactly the opposite of that quality: She wasn't very happy about working overtime (=she was angry). b) only slightly: “Was the game very exciting?” “Not very.” 3 your very own used in order to emphasize that something belongs to one particular person: I finally have my very own bedroom. 4 very much a lot: It didn't cost very much. ▶ Don't say “It cost very much.” Say “It cost a lot.” ◀ | I enjoyed my visit very much. ▶ Don't say “I very much enjoyed my visit.” ◀ [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French verai, from Latin verax “truthful,” from verus “true”]

very² adj. [only before noun] used in order to emphasize that you are talking about one particular thing or person: Start again from the very beginning. | You come here this very minute (=now)! | The very thought (=just thinking about it) of food makes me feel sick.

very high frequency n. [U] VHF ves-sel /ˈvɛsəl/ n. [C] (formal) a ship or large boat → BLOOD VESSEL vest /vɛst/ n. [C] 1 a piece of clothing without SLEEVES that has buttons down the front, worn over a shirt as part of a suit 2 a piece of special clothing without SLEEVES that is worn to protect your body: a bulletproof vest [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 French veste, from Latin vestis “piece of clothing”] vest-ed in-ter-est /ˌvɛstɪd ˈɪntrɪst/ n. [C] if you have a vested interest in something happening, you have a strong reason for wanting it to happen because you will get money or advantages from it ves-ti-bule /ˈvɛstəˌbyul/ n. [C] (formal) a wide passage or small room inside the front door of a public building ves-tige /ˈvɛstɪdʒ/ n. [C] (formal) a small part or amount of something that remains when most of it no longer exists: a policy that is one of the last vestiges of the Cold War vet /vɛt/ n. [C] 1 a VETERINARIAN someone who is trained to give medical care and treatment to sick animals 2 (informal) a VETERAN: Vietnam vets vet-er-an /ˈvɛtərən/ n. [C] 1 someone who has been a soldier, sailor, etc. in a war: veterans of the Korean War 2 someone who has had a lot of experience in a particular activity: a veteran journalist vet-er-i-nar-i-an /ˌvɛtərəˈnɛəriən, ˌvɛtrə-, ˌvɛtˈn-/ n. [C] a VET vet-er-i-nar-y /ˌvɛtərəˈnɛəri, ˌvɛtrə-, ˌvɛtˈn-/ adj. relating to the medical care and treatment of sick animals ve-to¹ /ˈviːtoʊ/ v. (past tense and past participle vetoed, third person singular vetoes) [T] POLITICS to officially refuse to allow something to happen, especially something that other people or organizations have agreed: The President vetoed the bill. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin “I refuse to allow,” from vetare “to forbid”] veto² n. (plural vetos) [C,U] POLITICS a refusal to give official permission for something, or the right to refuse to give such permission: the governor's veto of a bill vex /vɛks/ v. [T] (old-fashioned) to make someone feel annoyed or worried

THESAURUS annoy, irritate, bother, irk → ANNOY

V

VHF n. [U] very high frequency radio waves that move very quickly and produce good sound quality

VHS n. [U] (trademark) a type of VIDEOTAPE

vi-a /'vaɪə, 'viə/ (Ac) prep. 1 traveling through a place on the way to another place: We're flying to Denver via Chicago. 2 using a particular machine, system, person, etc. to send, receive, or broadcast something: The concert was broadcast around the world via satellite. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin “by way of,” from via “way”]

vi-a-ble /'vaɪəbəl/ adj. something that is viable is able to exist or succeed: Solar energy is a viable alternative to coal or gas. | The plan isn't economically/commercially viable.

vi-a-duct /'vaɪə, dʌkt/ n. [C] a long high bridge across a valley vi-al /'vaɪəl/ n. [C] a very small bottle, used especially for liquid medicines vibe /vaɪb/ n. [C usually plural] (informal) the feelings that a particular person, group, or situation seems to produce and that you react to: I'm getting good/bad vibes from this guy.

vi-brant /'vaɪbrənt/ adj. 1 exciting, full of energy, and interesting: a vibrant personality 2 a vibrant color is bright and strong vi-brate /'vaɪbreɪt/ v. [I,T] to shake continuously with small fast movements, or to make something do this: The music got louder and the walls began to vibrate.

THESAURUS shake, tremble, shiver → SHAKE¹

vi-bra-tion /vaɪ'breɪʃən/ n. [C,U] a continuous slight shaking movement: the vibrations of the plane's engine

vic-ar /'vɪkə/ n. [C] a priest in the Church of England or in the Episcopal church vi-car-i-ous /vaɪ'kəriəs/ adj. experienced by watching or reading about someone else doing something, rather than by doing it yourself: Parents get vicarious pleasure/satisfaction from their children's success. [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Latin vicarius “acting in place of another,” from vicis “change, alternation, position”] vice /vaɪs/ n. 1 [U] criminal activities that involve sex or drugs 2 [C] a bad habit: Smoking is my only vice. 3 [C] a bad or immoral quality in someone's character (ANT) virtue: the vice of greed vice president n. [C] 1 the person who is next in rank to the president of a country 2 someone who is responsible for a particular part of a company: the vice president of marketing vice squad n. [C] the part of the police force that deals with crimes involving sex or drugs

vi-ce ver-sa /,vaɪs 'vɜːsə, ,vaɪsə-/ adv. used when the opposite of a situation you have just described is also true: Whatever Susie wants, James doesn't, and vice versa.

vi-cin-i-ty /və'sɪnəti/ n. in the vicinity (of sth) in the area around a particular place: The car was found in the vicinity of the bus station.

vi-cious /'vɪʃəs/ adj. 1 violent and dangerous, and likely to hurt someone: a vicious dog 2 cruel and deliberately trying to upset someone: a vicious rumor

THESAURUS mean, cruel, unkind, nasty, spiteful, malicious → MEAN²

—viciously adv. —viciousness n. [U] vicious 'circle n. [singular] a situation in which one problem causes another problem that then causes the first problem again

vi-cis-si-tudes /və'sɪsə,tudz/ n. [plural] (formal) the continuous changes and problems that affect a situation or someone's life: the vicissitudes of married life

vic-tim /'vɪktɪm/ n. [C] 1 someone who has been hurt or killed by someone or something, or who has been affected by a bad situation: victims of gang violence | a murder/rape victim | an aid program for flood/earthquake/famine victims 2 something that is badly affected or destroyed by a situation or action: Some small businesses have fallen victim to budget cuts.

vic-tim-ize /'vɪktə,maɪz/ v. [T] to deliberately treat someone unfairly vic-tor /'vɪktə/ n. [C] (formal) the winner of a battle or competition vic-to-ri-ous /vɪk'tɔːriəs/ adj. successful in a battle or competition

vic-to-ry /'vɪktəri/ n. (plural victories) [C,U] the success you achieve by winning a battle, game, election, etc. (ANT) defeat: Napoleon's military victories | the Lakers' victory over/against the Celtics | The government has won an important victory. | This ruling represents a victory for all women. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French victorie, from Latin victoria, from victus, past participle of vincere “to defeat, win”]

vid-e-o /'vɪdiəʊ/ n. (plural videos) 1 [C] a copy of a movie or television program that is recorded on VIDEOTAPE → DVD, TAPE: Let's rent a video tonight. | Has the movie come out on video yet?

COLLOCATIONS

go to a video/movie store

get/rent a video or movie watch a video

rewind a video – to press a button to go back to an earlier part fast forward a video – to press a button to go to a later part pause a video – to stop the video for a short time make a video – to use a video camera to film someone or something

2 [C,U] a VIDEOTAPE: Do we have a blank video (=one with nothing recorded on it) anywhere? 3 [U] the process of recording and showing television programs, movies, real events, etc. using video equipment: the use of video in the classroom video² adj. [only before noun] relating to recording and broadcasting sound and pictures on a VIDEO- TAPE → AUDIO: video equipment video cas'sette re,corder n. [C] a VCR vide-o-disk /'vɪdiəʊ,dɪsk/ n. [C] a round flat piece of plastic from which movies can be played in the same way as from a VIDEOTAPE → DVD

'video game n. [C] a game in which you move images on a screen by pressing electronic controls

vide-o-tape¹ /'vɪdiəʊ,tɛp/ n. [C] a long narrow band of MAGNETIC material in a plastic container, on which movies, television programs, etc. can be recorded videotape² v. [T] to record a movie, television program, etc. on a videotape vie /vaɪ/ v. (vied, vying, vies) [I] to compete very hard with someone in order to get something: The two brothers vied for her attention.

view¹ /vyu/ n. 1 [C] your belief, opinion, or attitude about something → POINT OF VIEW: We have different views on this issue. | Not all her friends shared her views. | What are your views about global warming? | In my view, our civil liberties are just as important as national security.

THESAURUS

opinion, position, attitude →

OPINION

2 [C,U] what you are able to see or the possibility of seeing it: We had a really good view of the stage. | I sat behind a tall guy who blocked my view (=stopped me from seeing something). | Suddenly the pyramids came into view (=began to be seen). 3 [C] the whole area that you can see from somewhere, especially when it is very beautiful or impressive: a spectacular view of the mountains | A new factory now spoils the view (=makes it look less beautiful) of the park.

USAGE

View is used to talk about all the things you can see from a place: We had a spectacular view of the ocean from the hotel.

Scenery is used to talk about the natural features of a place, such as mountains, forests, etc.: the breathtaking scenery in Arizona You cannot say "sceneries."

4 [C] a photograph or picture that shows a beautiful or interesting place: The postcards show scenic views of New York. 5 on view paintings, photographs, etc. that are on view are in a public place where people can go to look at them 6 in view of sth (formal) used in order to introduce the reason for a decision, action, or situation: In view of all that has happened, Smith is expected to resign. [ORIGIN: 1400–1500 Old French veue, vue, from veoir, voir "to see," from Latin videre]

view² v. 1 [T] to think of something or someone in a particular way: My grandparents viewed the United States as a land of opportunity. | Some of the local people view tourists with suspicion. 2 [T] (formal) to look at or watch something: The mountain is best viewed from the north side.

view-er /'vyuə/ n. [C] someone who watches television: The series is watched by millions of viewers.

view-point /'vyupɔɪnt/ n. [C] 1 a particular way of thinking about a problem or subject (SYN) point of view: From his viewpoint, he had done nothing wrong. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the opinion or attitude of the person who is writing a story, especially when it has an influence on the story itself (SYN) point of view → LIMITED POINT OF VIEW, OMNISCIENT POINT OF VIEW

vig-il /'vɪdʒəl/ n. [C,U] 1 a silent political protest in which people gather outside, especially during the night: Demonstrators held a candlelight vigil at the site of the bombing. 2 a time, especially during the night, when you stay awake in order to pray or stay with someone who is sick: John's been keeping a vigil beside his son in the hospital.

vig-i-lant /'vɪdʒələnt/ adj. (formal) giving careful attention to what is happening, so that you will notice if something bad happens: Doctors should remain vigilant for signs of infection. —vigilance n. [U] vig-i-lan-te /,vɪdʒələnti/ n. [C] someone who tries to catch and punish criminals without having any legal authority to do so vig-or /'vɪgə/ n. [U] physical and mental energy and determination

vig-or-ous /'vɪgərəs/ adj. 1 using a lot of energy and strength or determination: vigorous exercise | a vigorous opponent of gun control

THESAURUS

energetic, full of energy, dynamic → ENERGETIC

2 strong and very healthy: a vigorous athlete vile /vaɪl/ adj. (informal) very bad or disgusting: The bombing was a vile act of terrorism.

vil-i-fy /'vɪlɪfaɪ/ v. (vilified, vilifies) [T] (formal) to say bad things about someone in order to make other people have a bad opinion of him/her: He was vilified by the press.

V

vil-la /'vɪlə/ n. [C] a big country house vil-lage /'vɪlɪdʒ/ n. [C] 1 a very small town: My parents live in a small village in Mexico. 2 the village the people who live in the village: The whole village came to the wedding. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French ville “farm, village,” from Latin villa] vil-lag-er /'vɪlɪdʒə/ n. [C] someone who lives in a village vil-lain /'vɪlən/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the main bad character in a movie, play, or story

THESAURUS hero, main character, protagonist, anti-hero → HERO

vil-lain-y /'vɪləni/ n. [U] (literary) evil or criminal behavior vin-di-cate /'vɪndə,keɪt/ v. [T] (formal) to prove that what someone said or did was right, especially when many people believe s/he was wrong —vindication /'vɪndə'keɪʃən/ n. [U] vin-dic-tive /vɪn'dɪktɪv/ adj. deliberately cruel and unfair vine /vaɪn/ n. [C] a climbing plant that grows long stems that attach themselves to other plants, trees, buildings, etc.: grape vines vin-e-gar /'vɪnɪgə/ n. [U] a sour-tasting liquid that is made from wine, used for improving the taste of food or preserving it [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French vinaigre, from vin “wine” + aigre “sour”] vine-yard /'vɪnyəd/ n. [C] a piece of land where GRAPES are grown in order to make wine

V

vin-tage¹ /'vɪntɪdʒ/ adj. [only before noun] 1 vintage wine is good quality wine that is made in a particular year 2 old and showing high quality: a vintage car

THESAURUS old, antique, classic → OLD vintage² n. [C] a particular year or place in which a wine is made, or the wine itself

vi-nyl /'vaɪnl/ n. [U] a type of strong plastic vi-o-la /vi'əʊlə/ n. [C] a wooden musical instrument shaped like a VIOLIN but larger and with a lower sound

vi-o-late /'vaɪə,leɪt/ (Ac) v. [T] LAW to disobey or do something against a law, rule, agreement, etc.: The military action violated international law. | Within less than a year, the agreement had been violated.

THESAURUS disobey, break a rule/law, defy, flout, contravene → DISOBEY

vi-o-la-tion /,vaɪə'leɪʃən/ (Ac) n. [C] LAW an action that breaks a law, rule, agreement, etc.: human rights violations | traffic violations | What happened was a major violation of international law.

vi-o-lence /'vaɪələns/ n. [U] 1 behavior that is intended to hurt other people physically: There's too much violence on TV. | violence against women | We condemn any act of violence. 2 extreme force: the violence of a tornado

vi-o-lent /'vaɪələnt/ adj. 1 violent actions are intended to hurt people: an increase in violent crime | The riots ended in the violent deaths of three teenagers. 2 someone who is violent is likely to attack, hurt, or kill other people: a violent and dangerous criminal | The demonstrators suddenly turned violent (=became violent). 3 violent movie/play etc. a movie, play, etc. that shows a lot of violence 4 violent feelings or reactions are strong and very difficult to control: Joe has a violent temper. | a violent coughing fit 5 violent storm/earthquake etc. a storm, EARTHQUAKE, etc. that happens with a lot of force [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin violentus]

vi-o-let /'vaɪələɪt/ n. [C] a small sweet-smelling dark purple flower

vi-o-lin /,vaɪə'lɪn/ n. [C] a wooden musical instrument that you hold under your chin and play by pulling a BOW (=a special stick) across the strings —violinist n. [C]

VIP n. [C] very important person someone who is famous or powerful and is treated with respect

vi-per /'vaɪpə/ n. [C] a small poisonous snake

vi-ral /'vaɪrəl/ adj. BIOLOGY relating to or caused by a VIRUS: His viral infection is being treated with antibiotics.

vir-gin¹ /'vɜːdʒɪn/ n. [C] someone who has never had sex vir-gin² adj. virgin land/forest etc. land, forest, etc. that is still in its natural state and has not been used or changed by people vir-gin-i-ty /vəˈdʒɪnəti/ n. [U] the condition of never having had sex: He was 20 when he lost his virginity (=had sex for the first time).

Vir-go /'vɜːgoʊ/ n. 1 [U] the sixth sign of the ZODIAC, represented by a VIRGIN 2 [C] someone born between August 23 and September 22

vir-ile /'vɪrəl/ adj. (approving) a man who is virile is strong in a sexually attractive way —virility /vəˈrɪləti/ n. [U]

vi-rol-o-gy /vaɪˈrələdʒi/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the scientific study of VIRUSES and the diseases caused by them vir-tu-al /ˈvɜːtʃuəl/ (Ac) adj. [only before noun] 1 very nearly a particular thing: The two countries are locked in a virtual state of war. | Some scientists claim that the existence of other universes is a virtual certainty. 2 made, done, seen, etc. on the Internet, rather than in the real world: The website allows you to take a virtual tour of the art gallery. → ARTIFICIAL vir-tu-al-ly /ˈvɜːtʃuəli, -tʃəli/ (Ac) adv. almost completely: He was virtually unknown until the elections. | Virtually all studies show that global temperatures are rising.

virtual re-ality n. [U] IT an environment produced by a computer that looks and seems real to the person experiencing it vir-tue /ˈvɜːtʃu/ n. [C,U] 1 (formal) behavior that is morally good, or a good quality in someone's character (ANT vice): a life of virtue | Stella has many virtues. 2 an advantage that makes something better or more useful than something else: the virtues of organic farming 3 by virtue of sth (formal) by means of or as a result of something: He became chairman by virtue of hard work. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old French virtu, from Latin virtus “strength, virtue,” from vir “man”] vir-tu-o-so /ˌvɜːtʃuˈoʊsoʊ/ n. (plural virtuosos) [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS someone who is a very skillful performer, especially in music: a piano virtuoso —virtuoso adj.: a virtuoso performance vir-tu-ous /ˈvɜːtʃuəs/ adj. (formal) behaving in a very honest and moral way vir-u-lent /ˈvɪrələnt, ˈvɪrɪə-/ adj. 1 (formal) full of hatred: virulent racism 2 a poison, disease, etc. that is virulent is very dangerous and affects people very quickly vi-rus /ˈvaɪrəs/ n. [C] 1 BIOLOGY a very small living thing that causes infectious illnesses, or the illness caused by this: the common cold virus 2 IT a set of instructions secretly put into a computer that can destroy information stored in the computer [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 Latin “thick slippery liquid, poison, bad smell”]

vi-sa /ˈvɪzə/ n. [C] an official mark that is put on your PASSPORT, that allows you to enter or leave another country: a three-month tourist/visitor's visa | He has been granted a visa by the State Department. [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 French, Latin, “things seen,” from visus] vis-age /ˈvɪzɪdʒ/ n. [C] (literary) a face vis-à-vis /ˌvɪzəˈvi/ prep. (formal) in relation to or in comparison with something or someone vis-cous /ˈvɪskəs/ adj. a viscous liquid is thick and does not flow easily —viscosity /vɪˈskasəti/ n. [U] vise /vaɪs/ n. [C] a tool that holds an object firmly so that you can work on it using both of your hands vis-i-bil-i-ty /ˌvɪzəˈbɪləti/ (Ac) n. [U] the distance that it is possible to see at a particular time: There is poor visibility on the roads due to heavy fog. | The ship set out in good visibility and fairly calm seas.

vis-i-ble /ˈvɪzəbəl/ (Ac) adj. something that is visible can be seen or noticed (ANT invisible): The mountains weren't visible because of the clouds. | a visible change in her attitude | On a clear night, the moon's craters are visible from Earth. [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin visibilis, from visus, past participle of videre “to see”] —visibly adv.: She was visibly upset by the news. | When a hive of bees is about to swarm, it becomes visibly agitated.

vi-sion /ˈvɪʒən/ (Ac) n. 1 [U] the ability to see (SYN sight): Will the operation improve my vision? | She has good/poor vision. | The drug's side effects may include headaches, muscular pain, and vision problems. 2 [U] the area that you can see: For a moment, the passing car was outside my field of vision. 3 [C] an idea of what you think something should be like: He had a clear vision of how he hoped the company would develop. | The President outlined his vision for the future. | People who change the world have an original vision, rooted in dreams rather than experience. 4 [C] something you believe you see as part of a religious experience: She said that an angel appeared to her in a vision. 5 [U] the knowledge and imagination that are needed in planning for the future with a clear purpose: We need a leader with vision. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French, Latin visio, from visus, past participle of videre “to see”]

vi-sion-ar-y /ˈvɪʒəˌnəri/ adj. having clear ideas of how the world can be better in the future —visionary n. [C]

vis-it /ˈvɪzɪt/ v. 1 [I,T] to go and spend time with someone: Eric went to Seattle to visit his cousins. | My aunt is coming to visit next week.

THESAURUS

You go to a movie, museum, theater, etc.:
Everyone likes to go to the movies.
You go to see or go and see a person or place:
We went to see my aunt last week.
If you go sightseeing, you visit places of interest in a country.
If someone comes by/over, s/he visits you informally in your home.
If someone drops in/by, or stops by/in, s/he visits you in your home, especially on the way to another place.

2 [I,T] to go and spend time in a place, especially as a tourist: We want to visit the Grand Canyon on our trip. 3 [T] to look at a website on the Internet: Over 1,000 people visit our site every week. 4 [I] (informal) to talk socially with someone: We watched TV while Mom visited with Mrs. Levinson.

visit² n. [C] 1 an occasion when someone visits a place or person: a visit to London | We're just here on a short visit. | When are you going to pay us a visit? | We've just had a visit from the police. 2 (informal) an occasion when you talk socially with someone, or the time you spend doing this: Barbara and I had a nice long visit.

V

vis-it-a-tion /ˌvɪzə'teɪʃən/ also visi'tation rights n. [U] LAW the right that a parent who is DIVORCED has to see his/her children vis-i-tor /ˈvɪzətə/ n. [C] someone who comes to visit a place or a person: a guidebook for visitors to Mexico City | Let's not bother them now – they have visitors (=people are visiting them).

vi-sor /ˈvaɪzə/ n. [C] 1 the curved part of a hat or HELMET that sticks out above your eyes, or a special hat that consists only of this 2 the part of a HELMET that can be lowered to protect your face 3 a flat object above the front window of a car that you pull down to keep the sun out of your eyes vis-ta /ˈvɪstə/ n. [C] (literary) a view, especially over a large area of land vis-u-al /ˈvɪʒuəl/ (Ac) adj. relating to seeing or to your sight: The movie has a strong visual impact. | The nerves carry visual information from the eyes to the brain. —visually adv.: Of the information our senses receive, 75% is received visually.

visual² n. [C usually plural] something such as a picture or part of a movie, video, etc. that you can see, not the parts that you hear: the movie's stunning visuals visual 'aid n. [C] something such as a map, picture, or movie that is used for helping people to learn visual 'arts n. [plural] ENG. LANG. ARTS art such as painting, SCULPTURE, etc. that you look at, rather than literature or music

V vis-u-al-ize /ˈvɪʒuəlaɪz/ (Ac) v. [T] to form a picture of someone or something in your mind (SYN) imagine: I tried to visualize the house as he described it. | Part of your preparation should be to visualize the race before you run it.

THESAURUS imagine, picture, envision, envisage → IMAGINE

vi-tal /ˈvaɪtl/ adj. 1 extremely important or necessary: These computer systems are vital to our business. | Regular exercise is vital for your health. | Tourism plays a vital role in the country's economy.

THESAURUS important, of great/considerable importance, crucial → IMPORTANT necessary, essential, indispensable → NECESSARY

2 full of life and energy: Their music still sounds as fresh and vital as the day it was written. [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 Old French, Latin vitalis “of life,” from vita “life”]

THESAURUS energetic, vigorous, dynamic → ENERGETIC

vi-tal-i-ty /vaɪ'tæləti/ n. [U] life and energy: He has the vitality of a man half his age.

vi-tal-ly /ˈvaɪtl-i/ adv. in an extremely important or necessary way: It's vitally important that you attend the meeting.

vital 'organ n. [C] BIOLOGY a part of your body that is necessary to keep you alive, such as your heart and lungs vital sta'tistics n. [plural] facts about people such as their age, race, and whether they are married, especially in official records vi-ta-min /ˈvaɪtəmɪn/ n. [C] a chemical substance found in food that is necessary for good health: Oranges are full of vitamin C.

vit-ri-ol-ic /ˌvɪtri'əlɪk/ adj. something you say that is vitriolic is very cruel and angry toward someone: a vitriolic attack on the senator's character

vi-tu-per-a-tion /vaɪ'tupə'reɪʃən, vɪ-/ n. [U] (formal) angry and cruel criticism —vituperative /vaɪ'tupərətɪv, -reɪtɪv/ adj. —vituperate /vaɪ'tupə'reɪt/ v. [I] vi-va-cious /vɪ'veɪʃəs, vaɪ-/ adj. someone, especially a woman, who is vivacious has a lot of energy and is fun to be with —vivaciously adv.

viv-id /ˈvɪvɪd/ adj. 1 vivid memories, dreams, descriptions, etc. are so clear that they seem real: He had a vivid picture of her in his mind. 2 vivid imagination an ability to imagine unlikely situations very clearly 3 vivid colors or patterns are very bright —vividly adv.

viv-i-sec-tion /ˌvɪvə'sekʃən/ n. [U] the practice of operating on animals in order to do scientific tests on them [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Latin vivus “alive” + English section “cutting”]

V-neck /ˈvi nek/ n. [C] a type of shirt or SWEATER with a collar that is shaped like the letter V vo-cab-u-lar-y /vəʊ'kæbyə,ləri, və-/ n. (plural vocabularies) [C,U] 1 ENG. LANG. ARTS all the words that someone knows, learns, or uses: Reading is one of the best ways to improve your vocabulary. 2 ENG. LANG. ARTS the words that are used when talking about a particular subject: Most technical jobs use a specialized vocabulary. 3 ENG. LANG. ARTS all the words in a particular language: English has the largest vocabulary of any language. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French vocabulaire, from Latin vocabulum “word, name”] vo-cal /ˈvəʊkəl/ adj. 1 expressing your opinion strongly or loudly: a vocal critic/opponent of the president 2 relating to the voice: vocal music —vocally adv.

vocal² n. [C usually plural] the part of a piece of music that is sung rather than played on an instrument: The song has Maria McKee on vocals.

'vocal cords, vocal chords n. [plural] BIOLOGY thin pieces of muscle in your throat that produce sound when you speak or sing

vo-cal-ist /'vəʊkəlɪst/ n. [C] someone who sings, especially with a band vo-ca-tion /vəʊ'keɪʃən/ n. [C,U] the feeling that the purpose of your life is to do a particular job, or the job itself: Teaching isn't just a job to her – it's her vocation.

THESAURUS job, occupation, profession, career → JOB

vo-ca-tion-al /vəʊ'keɪʃənəl/ adj. vocational school/training/education etc. a school or method of training that teaches you the skills you need to do a particular job vo-cif-er-ous /vəʊ'sɪfərəs/ adj. (formal) loud and determined in expressing your opinions: a vociferous opponent of the plan —vociferously adv.

vod-cast /'vɒd,kæst/ n. [C] IT a PODCAST that contains VIDEO images or pictures vod-ka /'vɒdkə/ n. [U] a strong clear alcoholic drink, first made in Russia vogue /vɒʊ/ n. be in vogue/be the vogue to be fashionable and popular: Long skirts are back in vogue. [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 French “act of rowing, course, fashion,” from Old Italian voga, from vogare “to row”] voice¹ /vɔɪs/ n. 1 [C,U] the sound you make when you speak or sing, or the ability to make this sound: I thought I heard voices downstairs. | Andrea has a really deep voice for a woman. | He called out in a loud voice. | He's caught a bad cold and lost his voice (=cannot speak). | I can hear you – you don't have to raise your voice (=speak louder, especially in an angry way). | Keep your voice down (=speak more quietly) – we don't want to wake everyone up. 2 [C,U] an opinion or wish that is expressed: Shouldn't parents have a voice in deciding how their children are educated? 3 [singular] a person, organization, newspaper, etc. that expresses the wishes or opinions of a group of people: Dr. King became the voice of the civil rights movement. 4 the voice of reason/experience etc. opinions or ideas that are reasonable, based on experience, etc., or someone who has these ideas: Ben has been the voice of reason throughout the crisis. 5 the active/passive voice ENG. LANG. ARTS the form of a verb that shows whether the subject of a sentence does an action or has an action done to it [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old French vois, from Latin vox]

voice² v. [T] to tell people your opinions or feelings about a particular subject: We all voiced our concerns about the plan.

voiced /vɔɪst/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS voiced sounds are made using the VOCAL CORDS. For example, /d/ and /g/ are voiced consonants. → VOICELESS voice-less /'vɔɪsləs/ adj. ENG. LANG. ARTS voiceless sounds are made without using the VOCAL CORDS. For example, /p/ and /k/ are voiceless consonants.

'voice mail n. [U] a system that records telephone calls so that you can listen to them later → ANSWERING MACHINE

void¹ /vɔɪd/ adj. 1 LAW a contract or agreement that is void is officially no longer legal: They were demanding that the elections be declared void. 2 be void of sth (literary) to completely lack something: Her eyes were void of all expression.

void² n. [C] 1 a feeling of great sadness that you have when someone you love dies or when something important is missing from your life: Work helped to fill the void after his wife died. 2 an empty space where nothing exists void³ v. [T] LAW to make a contract or agreement void so that it has no legal effect: The ruling party voided elections in 14 cities.

vol-a-tile /'vɒlətɪl/ adj. 1 a volatile situation is likely to change suddenly and without much warning 2 someone who is volatile can suddenly become angry or violent 3 CHEMISTRY a volatile liquid or substance changes easily into a gas —volatility /ˌvɒlə'tɪləti/ n. [U]

vol-ca-no /vɒl'keɪnɒs/ n. (plural volcanoes or volcanos) [C] EARTH SCIENCES a mountain with a large hole at the top out of which rocks, LAVA, and ASH sometimes explode: This island has several active volcanoes (=volcanoes that may explode at any time). —volcanic /vɒl'kænɪk/ adj.: volcanic rocks vo-li-tion /və'lɪʃən, vɒ-/ n. of your own volition (formal) because you want to do something and not because you are forced to do it: Robin left the company of her own volition.

vol-ley /'vɒli/ n. [C] 1 a large number of bullets, ARROWS, rocks, etc. fired or thrown at the same time: a volley of shots 2 a lot of questions, insults, attacks, etc. that are all said or made at the same time: a volley of abuse

vol-ley-ball /'vɒli,bɔːl/ n. 1 [U] a game in which two teams hit a ball to each other across a net with their hands and try not to let it touch the ground 2 [C] the ball used in this game volt /vɒlt/ n. [C] PHYSICS a unit for measuring the force of an electric current [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Alessandro Volta] voltage /'vɒltɪdʒ/ n. [C,U] PHYSICS the force of an electric current measured in volts voltaic cell /vɒl'teɪ-ɪk 'sɛl/ n. [C] PHYSICS a PRIMARY CELL volume /'vɒljəm, -yʊm/ [Ac] n. 1 [U] the amount of sound produced by a television, radio, etc.: Can you turn the volume up/down? 2 [U] the amount of space that a substance fills or an object contains: Let the dough double in volume before you bake it. | The ocean is so deep that its volume is six times greater than all land above sea level. 3 [C,U] the total amount of something: an increase in the volume of traffic | The system can process large volumes of data. 4 [C] a book, especially one of the books into which a very long book is divided: a 12-volume set of poetry | The focus of most of the other chapters in this volume is on World War II. [ORIGIN: (4) 1300—1400 Old French, Latin volumen “roll, scroll,” from volv-ere “to roll”] voluminous /və'lʊmənəs/ adj. (formal) 1 very large: a voluminous skirt 2 voluminous books, documents, etc. are very long and contain a lot of information voluntary /'vɒləntəri/ [Ac] adj. done willingly and without being forced or being paid: voluntary work | We're asking for people to help on a voluntary basis (=without being paid). | The new law is supported by many professionals and voluntary organizations. —voluntarily /,vɒlənt'etərɪli/ adv.

volunteer /,vɒlənt'ɪr/ [Ac] v. 1 [I,T] to offer to do something without expecting any reward: Ernie volunteered to wash the dishes. | I volunteered for the job. | Chris volunteers at the local food bank. 2 [T] to tell someone something without being asked: Michael volunteered the information before I had a chance to say anything. | He never volunteers answers in class. 3 [I] to offer to join the army, navy, etc.: When the war began, my brother immediately volunteered. | She volunteered for military service. [ORIGIN: 1500—1600 French volontaire, from Latin voluntarius, from voluntas “will”] volunteer [Ac] n. [C] 1 someone who does something without being paid, or who is willing to offer to help someone: We need volunteers to help look for the children. | Most of the relief work was done by volunteers. 2 someone who offers to join the army, navy, or air force voluptuous /və'lʌptʃuəs/ adj. a woman who is voluptuous has large breasts and a soft curved body vomit /'vɒmɪt/ v. [I,T] (formal) if you vomit, food or drink comes up from your stomach and out through your mouth vomit n. [U] the food or drink that comes out when someone vomits voodoo /'vʊdʊ/ n. [U] magical beliefs and practices used as a form of religion, especially in parts of Africa, Latin America, and the Caribbean

THESAURUS magic, witchcraft, sorcery, black magic, the occult → MAGIC¹

voracious /və'reɪʃəs, vɔ-/ adj. (formal) wanting to do something a lot, especially eating: He had a voracious appetite. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Latin vorax, from vorare “to swallow”] —voracity /və'ræsəti/ n. [U] vortex /'vɔrtɛks/ n. (plural vortices /'vɔrtəsɪz/ or vortexes) [C] a large area of wind or water that spins quickly and pulls things into its center

vote /vout/ v. 1 [I,T] POLITICS to show which person you want to elect or whether you support a plan by raising your hand, marking a paper using a pen or a machine, or CLICKING on a WEB PAGE on the Internet: Who did you vote for? | Only Stevens voted against the measure. | If we can't agree, we'll have to vote on it. | Congress voted to reduce taxes by 2%. 2 [T] to choose someone or something for a particular prize by voting for him/her: The program was voted best documentary show on television. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Latin votum “promise, wish,” from vovere “to promise”] vote n. [C] 1 POLITICS a choice or decision that you make by voting: He's certainly not going to get my vote! | There were 1,079 votes for Mr. Swanson, and 766 for Mr. Reynolds. | You have until 8:00 to cast your vote (=to vote). 2 an act of making a choice or decision by voting: We couldn't decide, so we took a vote on it. | Congress will put the bill to a vote tomorrow. 3 the vote a) POLITICS the total number of votes made in an election or the total number of people who vote: Davis won the election with 57% of the vote. | efforts to win the African American/Irish/Jewish vote (=all the votes of African Americans, Irish people, etc.) b) POLITICS the right to vote: In France, women didn't get the vote until 1945. 4 vote of confidence the action of showing publicly that you support someone voter /'vɒtə/ n. [C] someone who votes or has the right to vote: Let the voters decide the issue.

voting booth n. [C] POLITICS an enclosed place where you can vote without being seen vouch /vaʊtʃ/ v.

vouch for sb/sth phr. v. 1 to say that you have a firm belief that something is true or good because of your experience or knowledge of it: I'll vouch for the accuracy of that report. 2 to say that you believe that someone will behave well and that you will be responsible for his/her behavior, actions, etc.: Don't worry about Andy — I can vouch for him.

vouch-er /'vaʊtʃə/ n. [C] a type of ticket that can be used for a particular purpose instead of money vow¹ /vaʊ/ n. [C] a serious promise: marriage vows | She made a vow to herself that she would never go back. [ORIGIN: 1200—1300 Old French vou, from Latin votum “promise, wish”]

vow² v. [T] to make a serious promise to yourself or someone else: Supporters have vowed to continue the protest until Adams is released. | I vowed (that) I would never drink again.

THESAURUS promise, swear, take/swear an oath, pledge → PROMISE¹ vow-el /'vaʊəl/ n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS the sounds represented in English by the letters a, e, i, o, or u, and sometimes y → CONSONANT [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Old French vowel, from Latin vocalis, from vox “voice”] voy-age /'vɔɪ-ɪdʒ/ n. [C] 1 a long trip, especially in a ship or a space vehicle: the voyage from England to America

THESAURUS travel, trip, journey → TRAVEL²

2 voyage of discovery a voyage made by EXPLORERS, to find out more about the world or about something scientific —voyage v. [I] (literary)

voy-eur /'vɔɪə/ n. [C] someone who gets sexual pleasure from secretly watching other people's sexual activities —voyeurism /'vɔɪə,rɪzəm/ n. [U] —voyeuristic /'vɔɪə'rɪstɪk/ adj.

vs. /'vɜːsəs/ a written abbreviation of VERSUS

VT the written abbreviation of VERMONT

vul-gar /'vʌlgə/ adj. 1 vulgar language, humor, etc. is not polite because it talks about things such as sex or going to the toilet in a rude way: vulgar jokes 2 not showing good judgment about what is attractive or appropriate: a vulgar display of wealth [ORIGIN: 1300—1400 Latin vulgaris, from vulgus, vulgus “common people”] —vulgarity /'vʌl'gærəti/ n. [U]

vul-ner-a-ble /'vʌlnərəbəl/ adj. easy to harm, hurt, or attack (ANT) invulnerable: The army was in a vulnerable position. | She looked so young and vulnerable. [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Late Latin vulnerabilis, from Latin vulnus “wound”] —vulnerability /'vʌlnərə'bɪləti/ n. [U] vul-ture /'vʌltʃə/ n. [C] a large wild bird that eats dead animals vy-ing /'vaɪ-ɪŋ/ v. the present participle of VIE

Ww

W, w /'dʌbəl,yu, 'dʌbəyu/ 1 the twenty-third letter of the English alphabet 2 PHYSICS the written abbreviation of WATT

W also W. the written abbreviation of WEST or WESTERN

WA the written abbreviation of WASHINGTON

wack-y /'wæki/ adj. (informal) silly in an amusing way wad¹ /wəd/ n. [C] 1 a thick pile of thin sheets of something, especially money: a wad of dollar bills 2 a thick soft mass of material that has been pressed together: a wad of bubble gum wad² also wad up v. (wadded, wadding) [T] to press something such as a piece of paper or cloth into a small tight ball: Aaron wadded up his paper towel and threw it into the trash.

wad-dle /'wɒdl/ v. [I] to walk with short steps, swinging from one side to another like a duck —waddle n. [C]

wade /weɪd/ v. [I,T] to walk through water that is not deep → WALK¹

wade in/into sth phr. v. to start taking part in a discussion, argument, attack, etc., in a forceful or annoying way: Celebrities waded in to complain about the tabloids.

wade through sth phr. v. to read or deal with a lot of long and boring written work: Preston was wading through a 500-page report.

wa-fer /'weɪfə/ n. [C] a very thin cookie waf-fle¹ /'wɒfl/ n. [C] a flat bread with a pattern of deep squares, often eaten for breakfast waffle² v. [I] (informal) to be unable to decide what action to take: He cannot continue to waffle on this issue.

waft /wɒft, wæft/ v. [I,T] to move gently through the air: The smell of bacon wafted up from the kitchen.

wag /wæg/ v. (wagged, wagging) [I,T] 1 if a dog wags its tail, or the tail wags, it shakes from one side to another 2 to move your head, finger, etc. from side to side, especially in order to show disapproval: “Not now,” said Ralph, wagging his finger at the girls. —wag n. [C]

wage¹ /weɪdʒ/ n. 1 [singular] the amount of money you earn, usually for each hour that you work: He earns a good wage. | an hourly wage | the minimum wage ▶ Don't say “an annual wage.” Say “an annual salary.” ◀ 2 wages [plural] the money you are paid each day, week, or month: Unskilled workers are paid lower wages.

THESAURUS pay, income, salary, earnings
→ PAY²

W

wage² v. [T] to be involved in a war, struggle, or fight against someone or something: The police are waging a campaign/war against drug pushers.

wage-price spiral n. [C] ECONOMICS a process in which higher wages lead to an increase in the cost of producing goods, so that prices rise. Wages then have to rise again so that people can buy goods, and this leads to higher and higher prices.

wa-ger¹ /'weɪdʒə/ n. [C] 1 an agreement to risk money on the result of a race, game, etc. (SYN) bet 2 the money that you risk: a $10 wager wager² v. [T] to risk money on the result of a race, game, etc.: Brad wagered $20 on the game.

wag-on /'wæɡən/ n. [C] 1 a strong vehicle with four wheels, pulled by horses 2 a small CART with four wheels and a long handle in the front, used as a toy for children 3 (informal) a STATION WAGON 4 be on the wagon (informal) to no longer drink alcohol

'wagon train n. [C] a large group of wagons traveling together in past times waif /weɪf/ n. [C] someone, especially a child or a young woman, who is pale and thin and looks as if s/he does not have a home wail /weɪl/ v. 1 [I] to cry out with a long high sound because you are in pain or very sad: Some-where behind them, a child began to wail. 2 [T] to say something in a loud, sad, and complaining way: "My money's gone!" she wailed. 3 [I] to make a long high sound: Sirens were wailing in the distance —wail n. [C] waist /weɪst/ n. [C] 1 the part in the middle of your body just above your HIPS: a slim waist 2 the part of a piece of clothing that goes around your waist: These pants are too big in the waist.

waist-band /'weɪstbænd/ n. [C] the part of a skirt, pants, etc. that fastens around your waist waist-line /'weɪstlaɪn/ n. 1 [singular] the measurement around your waist 2 [C] the position of the waist of a piece of clothing

wait¹ /weɪt/ v. 1 [I] to not do something until something else happens, someone arrives, etc.: Hurry up! Everyone's waiting. | Wait right here until I come back. | people waiting for the bus | Henson has been waiting to hear from Miller.

USAGE

Wait is never followed directly by a noun. You must say "wait for": I'm waiting for a phone call. Or you can say "wait to do something": We're waiting to hear the news.

Expect can be followed directly by a noun. Use it to say that you strongly believe that something will come, happen, etc.: I'm expecting a phone call. | The police are expecting trouble.

Look forward to means to be excited and pleased about something that you know is going to happen: I'm looking forward to seeing you all.

2 wait tables to serve food to people at their table in a restaurant

SPOKEN PHRASES

3 wait a minute/second said in order to ask someone to wait for a short time: Wait a second – I'll get my coat. 4 sb can't wait/can hardly wait said to emphasize that someone is very excited about something and eager for it to happen: I can't wait to see the look on his face. 5 sth can/can't wait if something can wait, it does not have to be done immediately. If something can't wait, it must be done now: Which bills have to be paid and which can wait? 6 wait and see used in order to say that someone should be patient because s/he will find out about something later, but not now 7 wait until/till used when you are excited about telling or showing someone something: Wait till I tell Janice! 8 wait your turn to wait until it is your turn to do something wait around phr. v. to do nothing while you are waiting for something to happen, someone to arrive, etc.: I waited around for 10 minutes.

wait on sb phr. v. 1 to serve food to someone at his/her table, especially in a restaurant 2 wait on sb hand and foot (humorous) to do everything for someone wait up phr. v. 1 to wait for someone to return before you go to bed: Please don't wait up for me. 2 Wait up! (spoken) used to tell someone to stop and wait for you: Hey, wait up, you guys!

wait² n. [singular] a period of time in which you wait for something to happen, someone to arrive, etc.: a three-hour wait for our flight | They'll have a long wait.

wait-er /'weɪtə/ n. [C] a man who serves food in a restaurant → RESTAURANT

'waiting list also 'wait list n. [C] a list of people who want to do or buy something, but who must wait before they can do or have it: Over 500 students are on the waiting list.

'waiting room n. [C] a room for people to wait in, for example to see a doctor wait-ress /'weɪtrɪs/ n. [C] a woman who serves food at the tables in a restaurant → RESTAURANT

waive /weɪv/ v. [T] to state officially that a right, rule, etc. can be ignored: She waived her right to a lawyer.

waiv-er /'weɪvə/ n. [C] an official statement saying that a right, rule, etc. can be ignored

wake¹ /weɪk/ also wake up v. (past tense woke /wʊk/, past participle woken /'wʊkən/) [I,T] to stop sleeping, or to make someone stop sleeping: Try not to wake the baby. | I woke up early.

wake up to sth phr. v. to start to realize and understand a danger, an idea, etc.: The public is just beginning to wake up to the impact of these changes.

wake² n. [C] 1 in the wake of/in sth's wake as a result of something: Five councilors resigned in the wake of the scandal. 2 the track or path made behind a car, boat, etc. as it moves along: The car left clouds of dust in its wake. 3 the time before a funeral when people meet to remember the dead person wak·en /'weɪkən/ v. [I,T] (formal) to wake, or to wake someone: The sound had wakened him.

wak·ing /'weɪkɪŋ/ adj. waking hours/life etc. all the time when you are awake: He spends every waking moment with that girl!

walk¹ /wɔːk/ v. 1 [I,T] to move forward by putting one foot in front of the other: We must have walked ten miles. | Do you walk to work? | Lori walked into his office. | tourists walking around the downtown area → see picture on page A9

THESAURUS

march – to walk like soldiers, with regular steps stride – to walk with long steps in a determined way stroll – to walk in a relaxed way, especially for pleasure amble – to walk slowly in a relaxed way trudge – to walk in a tired way or when it is difficult to continue walking limp – to walk with difficulty because one leg is hurt wade – to walk through water hike – to take a long walk in the country, mountains, etc. → RUN¹, TRAVEL¹

2 [T] to walk through or across a particular area: It's not safe to walk the streets at night. | He spent two years walking the Baja coastline. 3 [T] to walk somewhere with someone: It's late – I'll walk you home. 4 walk the dog to take a dog outside to walk 5 walk all over sb (informal) to treat someone very badly: She lets those kids walk all over her. 6 [I] also walk free (informal) to leave a court of law without being punished or sent to prison 7 walk the walk (informal) to do the things that a particular type of person is expected to do: She doesn't call herself a feminist, but she walks the walk.

walk away phr. v. to leave a bad or difficult situation: You can't just walk away from eight years of marriage!

walk away with sth phr. v. to win something easily: Bradley won, walking away with $50,000.

walk in on sb phr. v. to go into a place and accidentally interrupt someone whom you did not expect to be there walk into sth phr. v. 1 to hit an object accidentally as you are walking: She walked straight/right into a tree. 2 to become involved in an unpleasant situation without intending to: The soldiers walked into an ambush. 3 to do something that makes you seem stupid: You walked straight into that one!

walk off phr. v. to leave someone by walking away from him/her walk off with sth phr. v. to steal something, or to take something by mistake: Someone walked off with my new jacket!

walk out phr. v. 1 to stop working or leave a situation as a protest: Most miners have walked out. 2 to leave your husband, wife, etc. suddenly: Mary just walked out on him one day.

walk² n. 1 [C] a trip that you make by walking: Let's go for a walk. | I like to take a walk after lunch. | It's only a ten-minute/two-mile walk from here. 2 [C] a particular path or ROUTE for walking: popular walks in Yellowstone National Park 3 [singular] the way someone walks: Do you remember that guy with a funny walk? → WALK OF LIFE

walk·er /'wɔːkə/ n. [C] 1 a metal frame that old or sick people use to help them walk 2 someone who is walking, especially at a particular speed, in a particular place, etc.: a nice area for walkers | He's a fast/slow walker.

walk·ie-talk·ie /'wɔːki 'tɒki/ n. [C] one of a pair of radios that you can carry with you, and use to speak to the person who has the other radio

'walk-in adj. big enough for a person to walk inside: a walk-in closet

'walking stick n. [C] a long thin stick, used to help support you when you walk

Walk·man /'wɔːkmən/ n. [C] (trademark) a small machine that plays TAPES and has HEADPHONES, that you carry with you to listen to music

'walk of life n. (plural walks of life) [C] the position in society that someone has: The club has members from all walks of life.

'walk-on n. [C] a small acting part in a play or movie in which the actor has no words, or an actor who has this part —walk-on adj.

walk-out /'wɔːk-aʊt/ n. [C] an occasion when people stop working or leave somewhere as a protest: City employees staged a walkout.

'walk-up n. [C] (informal) an apartment that you have to walk up the stairs to, because there is no ELEVATOR in the building walk-way /'wɔːk-weɪ/ n. [C] a path, often above the ground, built to connect two parts of a building or two buildings wall /wɔːl/ n. [C] 1 one of the sides of a room or building: Her bedroom walls were covered with posters. | We pushed the bed against the wall. 2 an upright structure made of stone or brick, that divides one area from another: the wall surrounding the apartment complex 3 the side of something hollow, such as a pipe or tube: the walls of the blood vessels 4 something that prevents you from doing something or going somewhere: A wall of people was blocking my way. [ORIGIN: Old English weall] —walled adj. → have your back to/against the wall at BACK², drive sb up the wall at DRIVE¹ wal·let /'wɔːlɪt, 'wɔː-/ n. [C] a small object that you keep money in, that is usually made of leather and that you carry in your pocket or PURSE wal·lop /'wɔːləp/ v. [T] (informal) to hit someone or something very hard —wallop n. [C] wal·low /'wɔːləʊ/ v. [I] 1 (disapproving) to spend too long feeling an emotion, especially a negative emotion: You don't have time to wallow in self-pity. 2 to roll around in mud or water wall-paper /'wɒl,peɪpə/ n. [U] 1 paper that you stick onto the walls of a room in order to decorate it 2 the picture that you have as the background on the screen of a computer —wallpaper v. [T]

W

'Wall Street n. 1 a street in New York City where the American STOCK EXCHANGE is 2 ECO-NOMICS the American STOCK EXCHANGE wall-to-'wall adj. covering the whole floor: wall-to-wall carpeting wal-nut /'wɒlnʌt/ n. 1 [C] a slightly bitter nut with a large light brown shell, or the tree on which this grows 2 [U] the dark brown wood of this tree wal-rus /'wɒlrʌs, 'wɒl-/ n. [C] a large sea animal with two long thick teeth coming down from the sides of its mouth waltz¹ /wɒltz/ n. [C] a fairly slow dance with a RHYTHM consisting of patterns of three beats, or the music for this dance [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 German walzer, from walzen “to roll, dance”] waltz² v. [I] 1 to dance a waltz 2 (informal, disapproving) to walk somewhere calmly and confidently: Eric waltzed in late again.

wan /wʌn/ adj. looking pale, weak, or tired: a wan smile wand /wʌnd/ n. [C] a thin stick you hold in your hand to do magic tricks wan-der /'wʌndə/ v. 1 [I,T] to walk slowly across or around an area, usually without having a clear direction or purpose: We wandered around the city. | Homeless people wandered the streets. 2 [I] also wander off to move away from where you are supposed to stay: The kids got bored and started to wander off. 3 [I] to start to talk or write about something not related to the main subject that you were talking or writing about before 4 [I] if your mind, thoughts, etc. wander, you no longer pay attention to something: He began to read, but his mind wandered. [ORIGIN: Old English wandrian] —wanderer n. [C] wane¹ /weɪn/ v. [I] 1 if something such as power, influence, or a feeling wanes, it becomes gradually less strong or less important: My enthusiasm for the project was waning. 2 when the moon wanes, you gradually see less of it (ANT) wax wane² n. on the wane becoming smaller, weaker, or less important: The show's popularity is on the wane.

wan-gle /'wæŋɡəl/ v. [T] (informal) to get something by persuading or tricking someone: I managed to wangle an invitation.

wan-na /'wʌnə, 'wʌnə/ a short form of “want to” or “want a,” used in writing to show how people sound when they speak: I don't wanna go.

wan-na-be /'wʌnə,bi/ n. [C] (informal) someone who tries to look, behave, or do something like a famous or popular person: an Elvis wannabe

want¹ /wʌnt, want, wɒnt/ v. [T] to have a desire or need for something: What do you want for your birthday? | This is a team that really wants to win. | Do you want me to read you a story? | Want (=do you want) a drink? | *I can pick it up on my way to work, if you want (=if you would like that).

want for sth phr. v. to not have something that you need: Those kids have never wanted for anything. [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old Norse vanta] want² n. [C,U] something that you desire or need but do not have: They are dying for want of food and medicine.

'want ad n. [C] a small advertisement that you put in a newspaper if you want to employ someone to do a job want-ed /'wʌntɪd/ adj. someone who is wanted is being looked for by the police: He is wanted for murder.

want-ing /'wʌntɪŋ/ adj. lacking or missing something that is needed: Security procedures were found wanting.

wan-ton /'wʌntɪn, 'wɒn-/ adj. 1 deliberately causing damage or harm for no reason: wanton destruction 2 (old-fashioned) sexually uncontrolled: She felt wanton and wild.

war /wɔː/ n. [C,U] 1 a time when two or more countries, or opposing groups within a country, fight each other with soldiers and weapons (ANT) peace: World War II | In 1793, England was at war with France. | the war with/against Germany | *the soldiers killed in the war | *Was it right to go to war (=take part in a war)? | the war between the states warfare – the activity of fighting in a war – used especially when talking about particular methods of fighting: guerrilla warfare fighting – an occasion when people or groups fight each other in a war, in the street, etc.: One thousand people have died since the fighting began.

THESAURUS

conflict – fighting or a war: the conflict in the Middle East combat – fighting during a war: The soldiers were wounded in combat.

action – fighting in a war: He had been killed in action.

hostilities – fighting in a war: the formal cessation of hostilities

2 a struggle to control or stop a bad or illegal activity: the war on/against drugs 3 a situation in which a person or group is fighting for power, influence, or control: a trade war [ORIGIN: 1100—1200 Old North French werre, from Old French guerre] —war v. [I] war-ble /'wɔːbəl/ v. [I,T] to sing with a high continuous but quickly changing sound, the way a bird does

'war crime n. [C] HISTORY a cruel act done during a war, that is illegal under international law —war criminal n. [C]

ward¹ /wɔːd/ n. [C] 1 a part of a hospital where people who need medical treatment stay: the maternity ward (=for women who are having babies) | the children's ward 2 LAW someone, especially a child, who is under the legal protection of another person or of a court of law 3 POLITICS one of the small areas that a city has been divided into for the purpose of local elections ward² v.

ward sth ↔ off phr. v. to do something to protect yourself from an illness, danger, attack, etc.: a spray to ward off insects war-den /'wɔːdn/ n. [C] the person in charge of a prison war-drobe /'wɔːdroʊb/ n. [C] the clothes that someone has: her large wardrobe ware-house /'werhaʊs/ n. [C] a large building for storing large quantities of goods

'warehouse store n. [C] a type of store that sells things in large amounts at lower prices than normal stores wares /werz/ n. [plural] (written) things that are for sale, usually not in a store: craftspeople selling their wares

war-fare /'wɔːfə/ n. [U] the activity of fighting in a war — used especially when talking about particular methods of fighting: guerrilla warfare (=when small groups of fighters attack a larger army many times) | The Geneva Convention bans all forms of chemical/biological/germ warfare.

THESAURUS war, fighting, conflict → WAR

'war game n. [C] an activity in which soldiers fight an imaginary battle in order to test military plans war-head /'wɔːhed/ n. [C] the explosive part at the front of a MISSILE war-like /'wɔːlaɪk/ adj. threatening war or attack, or seeming to like war: a warlike gesture war-lock /'wɔːlək/ n. [C] a man who has magic powers, especially to do bad things war-lord /'wɔːlərd/ n. [C] a leader of an unofficial military or fighting group who controls an area of land warm¹ /wɔːm/ adj. 1 slightly hot, especially in a pleasant way (ANT cool): Are you warm enough? | warmer weather | a warm bath | They huddled together to keep warm.

THESAURUS hot, lukewarm → HOT

2 able to keep in heat or keep out cold: warm clothes 3 friendly: a warm smile [ORIGIN: Old English wearm]

THESAURUS friendly, cordial, amiable, welcoming → FRIENDLY

—warmly adv.

warm² also warm up v. [I,T] to become warm or warmer, or to make someone or something do this: There's some soup warming up on the stove. → GLOBAL WARMING warm to sb/sth also warm up to sb/sth phr. v. to begin to like someone or something: Bruce didn't warm to him as he had to Casey.

warm up phr. v. 1 to do gentle physical exercises to prepare your body for exercise, singing, etc.: The girls are warming up before the game. 2 warm (sth ↔) up if a machine or engine warms up, or if you warm it up, it becomes ready to work after being turned on

'warm-blooded adj. BIOLOGY having a body temperature that remains fairly high whether the temperature around it is hot or cold → COLD-BLOODED: Mammals are warm-blooded animals.

'warmed over adj. 1 food that is warmed over has been cooked before and then is heated again for eating 2 an idea or argument that is warmed over has been used before and is no longer interesting or useful

'warm-hearted adj. friendly and kind: a warm-hearted old lady

THESAURUS kind, nice, caring, compassionate, sympathetic → KIND² war-mon-ger /'wɔːr,mʌŋgə, -,mʌŋ-/ n. [C] someone who is eager to start a war —warmongering n. [U] warmth /wɔːmθ/ n. [U] 1 a feeling of being warm: the warmth of the sun 2 friendliness: the warmth of her smile

'warm-up n. [C] a set of gentle exercises that you do to prepare your body for exercise, dancing, singing, etc.

warn /wɔːn/ v. [I,T] to tell someone that something bad or dangerous might happen, so that s/he can avoid it or prevent it: A sign warned of/about the presence of snakes. | I warned you not to walk home alone. | The label warns that pregnant women should not drink alcohol.

warn-ing /'wɔːnɪŋ/ n. [C,U] something that tells you that something bad or dangerous might happen, so that you can avoid it or prevent it: a warning of/about the risks involved | The planes attacked without warning. | a warning to women over 50 | You've been given several warnings already. | Be aware of warning signs (=pain, etc. that shows that an illness is coming) such as tiredness and headaches.

THESAURUS advice, suggestion, recommendation → ADVICE

warp /wɔːp/ v. [I,T] 1 to become bent or twisted, or to make something do this: The wood had warped in the heat. 2 to influence someone in a way that has a harmful effect on how s/he thinks or behaves → TIME WARP war-path /'wɔrpæθ/ n. be on the warpath (humorous) to be angry about something and want to punish someone for it warped /wɔrpt/ adj. 1 someone who is warped has ideas or thoughts that most people think are unpleasant or not normal: a warped sense of humor 2 bent or twisted into the wrong shape: a warped door

W

'warp speed n. [U] (informal) a very fast speed war-rant¹ /'wɔrənt, 'wɑ-/ v. [T] to be a good enough reason for something to happen or be done → UNWARRANTED: The story doesn't warrant the attention it's been given.

warrant² n. [C] LAW an official paper, signed by a judge, that allows the police to do something, for example ARREST someone or search a building: a warrant for Bryson's arrest | The local judge issued the warrant.

war-ran-ty /'wɔrənti, 'wɑ-/ n. (plural warranties) [C,U] a written promise that a company will fix or replace something if it breaks after you have bought it: The TV comes with a 3-year warranty.

war-ren /'wɔrən, 'wɑ-/ n. [C] 1 a set of holes and passages under the ground, that rabbits live in 2 a lot of narrow passages in a building or between buildings: a warren of corridors war-ring /'wɔrɪŋ/ adj. fighting in a war: warring factions war-ri-or /'wɔriə, 'wɑ-/ n. [C] (literary) a soldier, especially an experienced and skillful one

'warrior code n. [C] SOCIAL SCIENCE a set of moral rules and principles followed by men, especially those from the highest social class, who live in a society where they are expected to fight if necessary

W

war-ship /'wɔrfɪp/ n. [C] a navy ship with guns wart /wɔrt/ n. [C] a small hard raised spot on your skin caused by a VIRUS

THESAURUS blemish, bruise, scar, pimple, zit, blister, freckle, mole → MARK² war-time /'wɔrtaim/ n. [U] the time during which a war is happening: his wartime experiences

'war-torn adj. being damaged or destroyed by war: his war-torn homeland war-y /'wəri/ adj. careful and worried about danger or problems: Teach children to be wary of strangers. —warily adv.

was /wəz; strong wɒz, wɔz/ v. the past tense of BE in the first and third person singular

wash¹ /wɒʃ, wɔʃ/ v. 1 [T] to clean something with water and usually soap: She helped Penny wash the dishes. | Wash the mud off the truck.

THESAURUS clean, do/wash the dishes, scour, scrub, mop, do the laundry, dry clean → CLEAN²

2 [I,T] to clean your body with water and usually soap: Wash your hands thoroughly. | I'm going upstairs to wash. 3 [I,T] if water, a river, the ocean, etc. washes, it flows somewhere or makes something move somewhere: waves washing against the shore | Floods washed much of the topsoil away. | Their boat washed up/ashore about five miles south. 4 sth doesn't/won't wash (spoken) said when you do not believe or accept someone's explanation, reasons, etc.: His explanation just didn't wash. 5 wash your hands of sth to refuse to be responsible for something: Congress can't wash its hands of this. [ORIGIN: Old English wascan]

wash sth ↔ down phr. v. 1 to drink something in order to help you swallow food or medicine: He washed down a mouthful of toast with coffee. 2 to clean something using a lot of water: Ted was washing down the driveway.

wash off phr. v. if a substance washes off, you can remove it from the surface of something by washing: Will this paint wash off?

wash out phr. v. 1 if a substance washes out, you can remove it from a material by washing it: I don't know if that ink will wash out. 2 wash sth ↔ out to wash the inside of something: Will you wash out the cups?

wash up phr. v. to wash your hands: Go wash up for supper.

wash² n. 1 [C,U] clothing, sheets, etc. that have been washed or that need washing: I did three loads of wash. | Your blue shirt is in the wash (=being washed or waiting to be washed). 2 [C] EARTH SCIENCES a river in a desert area that has no water in it most of the time 3 it will all come out in the wash (spoken) said when you think that a problem will be solved without you having to do anything about it → CAR WASH wash-a-ble /'wɒʃəbəl/ adj. able to be washed without being damaged: a machine washable sweater wash-basin /'wɒʃbeɪsən/ also wash-bowl /'wɒʃbəʊl/ n. [C] a SINK wash-cloth /'wɒʃklɒθ/ n. [C] a small square piece of cloth that you use to wash yourself

,washed-out adj. very tired and pale: the old man's washed-out eyes

,washed-up adj. (informal) someone who is washed-up is no longer successful: a washed-up rock star

wash-er /'wɒʃə/ n. [C] 1 a washing machine 2 a small ring of plastic or metal that you put between a NUT and a BOLT, or between two pipes, to make them fit together tightly wash-ing /'wɒʃɪŋ/ n. [U] clothes, etc. that need to be washed or have just been washed

'washing machine n. [C] a machine that washes clothes wash-room /'wɑːʃrʊm, -rʊm/ n. [C] (old-fashioned) a RESTROOM wasn't /'wʌzənt, 'wɒzənt/ v. the short form of "was not": He wasn't there.

WASP. Wasp /wɒsp/ n. [C] white Anglo-Saxon Protestant a white American whose family was originally from northern Europe, and who is therefore considered to be part of the most powerful group in society wasp /wɒsp, wɒsp/ n. [C] a black and yellow flying insect similar to a BEE, that can sting you

waste¹ /weɪst/ n. 1 [singular, U] the use of something such as money or skills in a way that is not effective, useful, or sensible: a waste of resources | My father thought college would be a waste of time/money. 2 go to waste if something goes to waste, it is not used: A lot of the food ended up going to waste. 3 [C,U] unwanted things or substances that are left after you have used something: household waste | the safe disposal of nuclear/toxic/hazardous wastes

THESAURUS garbage, trash, refuse →
GARBAGE

waste² v. [T] 1 to use something in a way that is not effective, or to use more of it than you should: Don't waste electricity! | They wasted a lot of time trying to fix it themselves. 2 be wasted on sb if something is wasted on someone, s/he does not understand it or does not think it is worth anything: The joke was wasted on him.

waste away phr. v. to gradually become thinner and weaker because you are sick waste³ adj. not being used effectively, or no longer useful: waste paper waste-bas-ket /'weɪst,bæskɪt/ n. [C] a container into which you put paper, etc. that you want to get rid of wast-ed /'weɪstɪd/ adj. 1 useless: It had been a wasted trip. 2 (spoken) having drunk too much or taken drugs: Chuck got wasted at Bryan's party.

waste-ful /'weɪstfəl/ adj. using more than is needed of something, or using it badly, so that it is wasted: wasteful packaging on groceries waste-land /'weɪstlənd/ n. [C,U] 1 an area of land that is not or cannot be used for anything: a desert wasteland 2 a place, situation, or time that has no excitement or interest: Television is a vast wasteland.

waste-pa-per bas-ket /'weɪst,peɪpə-,bæskɪt/ n. [C] a WASTEBASKET watch¹ /wɒtʃ, wɒtʃ/ v. 1 [I,T] to look at and pay attention to something or someone: Harry was watching the game on TV. | I watched him go. | Watch closely – can you see it moving?

USAGE

You look at a picture, person, thing, etc. because you want to: Hey, look at these jeans.

You see something without planning to: Two people saw him take the bag.

You watch TV, a movie, or something that happens for a period of time: Did you watch the football game last night? | The kids are watching TV.

You can also say that you saw a movie, a program, etc., but you cannot say "see television": I saw a great movie on TV last night.

2 [T] to be careful about something, in order to avoid an accident or unwanted situation: Watch your head – the door's low. | Watch your weight (=be careful not to become fat) and exercise. | Why don't you watch where you're going? | Hey, watch it – you stepped on my toes. 3 watch your language/mouth/tongue to not say things that might hurt or offend other people: Watch your language, Bill, there's ladies present. 4 [T] to take care of someone or guard something: Could you watch the kids for me Saturday night? 5 watch the clock to keep looking to see what time it is because you are bored or do not want to work [ORIGIN: Old English wæccan]

watch (out) for sth phr. v. to look for something, so that you are ready to deal with it: I watched for the White Oak exit. | You can ride your bike, but watch out for cars.

watch out phr. v. used in order to tell someone to be careful: Watch out! It's hot!

watch over sth phr. v. to take care of something, or guard it: The eldest child watches over the younger ones.

W

watch² n. 1 [C] a small clock that you wear on your wrist or carry in your pocket: Scott looked at his watch. 2 [singular,U] the process of checking a situation or a place carefully so that you always know what is happening and are ready to deal with it: Police kept a 24-hour watch on the house. | Several soldiers stood watch. | Douglas kept watch while the others slept. 3 be on the watch for sb/sth to be looking and waiting for someone you might see or something that might happen: Be on the watch for pickpockets. 4 [C,U] people employed to guard or protect someone or something, or the fixed period of the day or night when they do this: the night watch | It was my turn to be on watch.

watch-dog /'wɒtʃdɒɡ/ n. [C] 1 a person or group that makes sure other people follow rules: a consumer watchdog group 2 a dog that protects someone's property watch-ful /'wɒtʃfəl/ adj. careful to notice what is happening, in order to prevent something bad happening: She learned to bake under the watchful eye of her mother.

watch-mak-er /'wɒtʃ,meɪkə/ n. [C] someone who makes and repairs watches and clocks watch-man /'wɒtʃmən/ n. (plural watchmen /-mənz/) [C] someone whose job is to guard a building or area: the night watchman watch-word /'wɒtʃwɜːd/ n. [singular] the main principle or rule that you think about in a particular situation: The school's watchword is "a community of learners."

wa-ter¹ /'wɒtə, 'wɑ-/ n. 1 [U] the clear colorless liquid that falls from the sky as rain, forms lakes, rivers, and oceans, and is used for drinking, washing, etc.: a drink of water | Mike waded out into the water. | Floods left the area under water. | a cabin with no running water (=water from pipes) | fresh water (=from a lake, river, etc., not from an ocean) fish → see picture at WATER CYCLE 2 waters [plural] a) EARTH SCIENCES the part of the ocean near or belonging to a particular country: boats fishing in Icelandic waters b) EARTH SCIENCES the water in a particular lake, river, etc.: The waters of the Amazon flow into the ocean. 3 in/into hot water in a situation in which you have a lot of trouble: My brother got into hot water at school. [ORIGIN: Old English wæter]

W

water² v. 1 [T] to pour water on a plant or seeds in the ground to help them grow 2 [I] if your eyes water, they fill with water because they hurt: Her eyes watered and her throat hurt. 3 [I] if your mouth waters, it fills with water because you see something that looks good to eat water sth ↔ down phr. v. 1 to make something weaker by adding water: The whiskey had been watered down. 2 to make an idea, statement, etc. less strong so that it does not offend or upset anyone: The bill got watered down in the Senate.

wa-ter-bed /'wɒtə,bed/ n. [C] a bed made of rubber or soft plastic and filled with water wa-ter-borne /'wɒtə,bɔːn/ adj. carried by water: waterborne bacteria wa-ter-col-or /'wɒtə,kɒlə/ n. [C,U] a special paint mixed with water, or a painting made with these

'water ,cooler n. [C] a WATER FOUNTAIN

'water ,cycle n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES a continuous process in which water on the ground or in the ocean becomes heated by the Sun and changes into very small drops of liquid. These drops rise into the air and then fall back onto the ground or into the ocean as rain.

'watered-'down adj. a watered-down statement, plan, etc. is not as strong or offensive as a previous one: a watered-down version of the proposal

wa-ter-fall

/'wɒtə,fɔːl/ n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES water that falls straight down over a rock or from the top of a mountain

'water ,fountain n. [C] a piece of equipment in a public place, that produces a stream of water that you can drink from wa-ter-front

/'wɒtə,frʌnt/ n. [C] land at the edge of a lake, river, etc.: a restaurant on the waterfront

wa-ter-hole /'wɒtə,həʊl/ n. [C] a WATERING HOLE

'watering can n. [C] a container with a long hollow part on the front for pouring water on plants

'watering hole n. [C] (informal) 1 a place such as a club or BAR where people can buy drinks: the students' favorite watering hole 2 EARTH SCIENCES a small area of water in a dry place, where wild animals go to drink wa-ter-logged /'wɒtə,lɒgd, -,lɑgd/ adj. land or an object that is waterlogged is so wet it cannot hold any more water wa-ter-mark /'wɒtəˌmɑːk/ n. [C] 1 a special design on a piece of paper, that you can only see when it is held up to the light 2 the mark showing the highest level of a lake, river, etc.

wa-ter-mel-on /'wɒtəˌmɛlən/ n. [C,U] a large round green fruit with juicy dark pink flesh and black seeds → see picture on page 414

'water polo n. [U] a game played in a swimming pool, in which two teams of players try to throw a ball into their opponents' GOAL wa-ter-proof /'wɒtəˌpruːf/ adj. not allowing water to go through: waterproof boots

'water re,sistant adj. not letting water in easily, but not keeping all water out: a water resistant watch wa-ter-shed /'wɒtəˌʃed/ n. 1 [singular] the point at which an important change happens: The beginning of television was a watershed in 20th-century culture. 2 [C] EARTH SCIENCES the high land separating two river systems wa-ter-side /'wɒtəˌsaɪd/ adj. at the edge of a lake, river, etc.: a waterside restaurant —waterside n. [singular]

'water skiing n. [U] a sport in which someone is pulled along on skis over water by a boat: Do you want to go water skiing? —water ski v. [I] —water skier n. [C]

'water, table n. [C] EARTH SCIENCES the level below the surface of the ground, where there is water wa-ter-tight /'wɒtəˌtaɪt/ adj. not allowing water to get in: a watertight container wa-ter-way /'wɒtəˌweɪ/ n. (plural waterways) [C] an area of water, often part of a river, that ships can go through wa-ter-works /'wɒtəˌwɜːks/ n. [plural] buildings, pipes, and supplies of water that form a public water system wa-ter-y /'wɒtəri/ adj. containing too much water: watery soup | watery eyes watt /wɒt/ n. [C] PHYSICS a unit for measuring electrical power: a 100-watt light bulb [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 James Watt] watt-age /'wɑːtɪdʒ/ n. [singular, U] PHYSICS the power of a piece of electrical equipment measured in watts

wave¹ /weɪv/ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES an area of raised water that moves across the surface of the ocean or another large area of water: waves breaking on the beach 2 a sudden increase in a particular emotion, activity, number, etc.: a recent crime wave | a wave of nostalgia for his childhood | a sudden wave of nausea | a great wave of immigrants from Eastern Europe 3 the movement you make when you wave your hand: She left with a wave of her hand. 4 a part of your hair that curls slightly: a wave in her hair 5 PHYSICS the form in which some types of energy move: light/sound/ radio waves 6 make waves (informal) to cause problems: We have a job to finish, so don't make waves, OK? → HEAT WAVE

wave² v. 1 [I,T] to move your hand, or something you hold in your hand, from side to side as a signal or greeting, or to express something: demonstrators waving their signs | The boys waved at her. | John waved to the waiter, asking for the check. | I waved goodbye. | One of the cops waved me through/away (=moved his hand to show me which way to go). → see picture on page A8 2 [I] if a flag waves, it moves with the wind wave sth ↔ aside phr. v. to refuse to pay attention to a person, or to his/her opinions, questions, ideas, etc.: "Not true!" she said, waving aside any further questions.

wave-length /'weɪvlɛŋkθ/ n. [C] 1 PHYSICS the size of a radio wave or the distance between two waves of energy such as sound or light 2 be on the same wavelength (informal) to think in the same way about something as someone else does wa-ver /'weɪvə/ v. [I] 1 to be unsteady: Her voice wavered slightly. 2 to become weaker or less certain: Their faith in me never wavered. 3 to not make a decision because you have doubts: Harland is wavering between two options.

wav-y /'weɪvi/ adj. having waves (=even curved shapes): wavy hair → see picture on page 462 → BENT²

wax¹ /wæks/ n. [U] 1 a thick substance made of fats or oils, used for making things such as CANDLES 2 a natural sticky substance in your ears

wax² v. 1 [T] to put wax on something to protect it or make it shine 2 wax romantic/eloquent etc. to talk eagerly about someone or something you admire, especially for a long time: He waxed nostalgic about the one-room schools of his youth. 3 [I] when the moon waxes, it seems to get bigger every night (ANT) wane 4 [T] to use wax to remove the hair from your legs waxed 'paper also 'wax paper n. [U] paper with a thin layer of wax on it, used for wrapping food wax-y /'wæksi/ adj. made of wax, covered in wax, or feeling like wax: apples with a waxy skin —waxiness n. [U] way¹ /weɪ/ n.

1 ROAD/PATH [C] the road, path, etc. that you have to follow in order to get to a particular place: Which way should we go? | Can you mail this on your way downtown/home? | Could you tell me the way to the police station from here? | Ben knows the way. | I can give you a ride; it's on my/the way. | Can you move your bag; it's in the way.

USAGE

Use on the way when you will do something or pass something as you go to a place: I'll get some gas on the way home.

Use in the way when something is preventing you from getting to the place you are going to: I couldn't get out of the driveway because Mark's car was in the way.

W

2 DIRECTION [C] a particular direction: Which way is north? | Face this way, please.

3 METHOD [C] a manner or method of doing something or thinking about something: Is there any way to tell how old it is? | I'd like to tell her in my own way. | Grief does not affect everyone in the same way. | Look at the way that guy's dressed! | Ryan has a funny way of talking.

THESAURUS method, technique, approach
→ METHOD

4 in a way/in some ways/in one way used in order to say that something is partly true: In a way, I like working alone better.

5 DISTANCE/TIME [singular] the distance or time between two places or events, especially if it is long: a long way from home | We have a way to go yet before we're done. | Did he actually come all the way (=the whole distance) from Bali?

6 have/get your way to do what you want even if someone else wants something different: They always let that kid get his own way.

7 the way/sb's way where someone wants to go: There was a big truck in the way (=preventing people from going past). | Get out of my way (=move aside!)

8 get in the way of sth to prevent something from happening: Don't let your social life get in the way of your studying.

9 come a long way to have developed a lot: Psychiatry has come a long way since the 1920s.

10 be/have a long way to go to need a lot of time to develop or reach a particular standard: There is a long way to go before democracy is accepted there.

11 under way happening or moving: Building work is scheduled to get under way (=start happening) today.

W

12 be on the way/its way/sb's way to be arriving soon or traveling to a place: The check is on its way. | Carla's already on her way here.

13 way around/up a particular order or position that something should be in: Which way around does this skirt go? | Make sure all the pictures are the right way up.

14 give way to sth if one thing gives way to another thing, this other thing replaces it or controls it: fear gave way to anger

15 go out of your way to do sth to do something that involves making a special effort, especially for someone else: Ben went out of his way to help us.

16 you can't have it both ways used in order to say that you cannot have the advantages of two different possible decisions

17 make way a) to move to one side so that someone or something can pass b) if one thing makes way for something else, this other thing replaces it: Several houses were torn down to make way for a new fire station.

SPOKEN PHRASES

18 by the way said when you want to begin talking about a new subject that you have just remembered: Oh, by the way, I saw Marie yesterday.

19 no way! a) used in order to say that you will definitely not do or allow something: No way am I letting him know about this. b) used in order to say that you do not believe something or are surprised by it: "She's 45." "No way!"

20 that's the way used in order to tell someone that s/he is doing something correctly: Keep your arms straight out – that's the way.

21 way to go! used in order to tell someone that s/he has done something good, or done something very well → out of the way at OUT²

[ORIGIN: Old English weg]

way² adv. 1 long in distance or time: a boat way out on the lake | a movie made way back before they used sound 2 way more/bigger/longer etc. (spoken, informal) a lot more, bigger, longer, etc.: This test was way harder than the last one.

way-lay /'weɪleɪ/ v. (past tense and past participle waylaid) [T] to stop someone when s/he is trying to go somewhere, so that you can talk to him/her, or in order to rob or attack him/her way of 'life n. (plural ways of life) [C] the way someone lives, or the way people in a society usually live: the American way of life way-'out adj. (spoken) very modern and strange: I like jazz, but not the way-out stuff.

way-side /'weɪsaɪd/ n. fall/go by the wayside to stop being successful, important, popular, etc.: My dream of college fell by the wayside.

way-ward /'weɪwəd/ adj. not following rules, and causing problems: a wayward teenager

we /wi/ pron. 1 the person who is speaking and one or more other people: We went to a movie. | We live in Dallas. 2 people in general: We know almost nothing about what causes the disease. | We all dream of being rich one day.

weak /wik/ adj. 1 not physically strong: He felt weak and dizzy. | a weak heart | Nina was weak from/with hunger. 2 not strong in character, and easily influenced: He's weak and indecisive. 3 not having much ability or skill in a particular activity or subject: I'm good at math, but weak at/in science. | the team's weak shooting 4 not having much power or influence: a weak leader 5 not being good enough to persuade, influence, or interest people: a weak excuse | a weak joke 6 not financially successful: the country's weak economy 7 containing a lot of water or having little taste: weak tea [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old Norse veikr] → weakly adv.

weak 'acid n. [C] CHEMISTRY an acid that does not completely separate into IONS (=atoms with an electric charge) when it is mixed with water weak 'base n. [C] CHEMISTRY a BASE (=a substance that combines with an acid to form a salt)

that does not completely separate into IONS (=atoms with an electric charge) when it is mixed with water, and has a low PH weak e'lectrolyte n. [C] CHEMISTRY a liquid that does not allow electricity to travel through it effectively because it does not contain many IONS (=atoms with an electric charge)

weak-en /'wɪkən/ v. [I,T] 1 to become less powerful or physically strong, or to make someone or something do this: The disease has weakened her heart. | a country weakened by war 2 to become less determined, or to make someone do this: Nothing could weaken her resolve/determination. 3 if money, the economy, etc. weakens, or if they are weakened, their value is reduced: the country's weakened economy weak-ling /'wɪk-lɪŋ/ n. [C] (disapproving) someone who is not physically strong weak-ness /'wɪknɪs/ n. 1 [C] a fault in someone's character or in a system, organization, design, etc.: What are your strengths and weaknesses? | a major weakness in the program 2 [U] the state of lacking strength in your body or character: weakness in the muscles 3 [U] lack of power, strength, or influence: moral weakness in our society | the weakness of our currency 4 a weakness for sth if you have a weakness for something, you like it very much even though it may not be good for you: She's always had a weakness for chocolate.

wealth /wɛlθ/ n. 1 [U] a large amount of money and possessions: their family's personal wealth | the nation's mineral wealth 2 a wealth of sth a lot of something useful or good: the wealth of information on the Internet wealth-y /'wɛlθi/ adj. (comparative wealthier, superlative wealthiest) 1 having a lot of money or valuable possessions: a very wealthy man

THESAURUS rich, well-off, affluent, well-to-do → RICH

2 the wealthy people who have a lot of money or valuable possessions wean /wɪn/ v. [T] BIOLOGY to gradually stop feeding a baby his/her mother's milk and start giving him/her ordinary food wean sb off/from sth phr. v. to make someone gradually stop doing something you disapprove of: He'll need to be weaned off the drug slowly.

be weaned on sth phr. v. to be influenced by something from a very early age: young movie directors who were weaned on MTV videos weapon-on /'wɛpən/ n. [C] 1 something that you use to fight with, especially a knife or gun: soldiers carrying their weapons | the danger posed by nuclear/chemical/biological weapons 2 an action, piece of information, piece of equipment, etc. that you can use to win or be successful in doing something: a new weapon in the fight against cancer [ORIGIN: Old English wæpen] —weaponry n. [U]

wear¹ /wɛr/ v. (past tense wore /wɔr/, past participle worn /wɔrn/) 1 [T] to have something on your body, especially clothes or jewelry: Why aren't you wearing your glasses? | a girl wearing a pink sun dress | His wife was wearing black/white/blue etc. (=wearing black, etc. clothes). 2 [T] to have your hair in a particular style: Fay wore her hair in braids. 3 [I,T] to become thinner, weaker, etc. by continued use, or to make something do this: He's worn a hole in his pants already. 4 [T] to have a particular expression on your face: She was wearing a smile. 5 wear well to remain in good condition after a period of time: Expensive fabrics don't always wear well. 6 sth is wearing thin (informal) if an excuse, explanation, opinion, etc. is wearing thin, it has been used so often that you no longer believe or accept it 7 wear the pants (informal) to be the person in a family who makes the decisions wear (sth ↔) away phr. v. to gradually become thinner, weaker, etc., or to make something do this by using it, rubbing it, etc.: The paint is almost all worn away. | The water is gradually wearing away the rock.

wear down phr. v. 1 wear (sth ↔) down to gradually become smaller, or to make something do this by using it, rubbing it, etc.: My shoes have worn down at the heel. 2 wear sb ↔ down to gradually make someone physically weaker or less determined: The constant stress is wearing her down.

wear off phr. v. if pain or the effect of something wears off, it gradually stops: The anesthesia was starting to wear off.

wear on phr. v. if time wears on, it passes very slowly, especially because you are bored: It became hotter as the day wore on.

wear out phr. v. 1 wear sth ↔ out to become weak, broken, or useless, or to make something do this by using it a lot or for a long time: I think these batteries have worn out. 2 wear sb out to feel extremely tired, or to make someone feel this way: You look really worn out. 3 wear out your welcome to stay at someone's house longer than s/he wants you to [ORIGIN: Old English werian]

wear² n. [U] 1 clothes of a particular type, or worn for a particular activity: evening wear 2 normal damage caused by continuous use over a long period: Check the tires for wear and tear. 3 the amount of use you can expect to get from something: You'll get a lot of wear out of a sweater like that.

wea-ri-some /'wɪrɪsəm/ also wear-ing /'wɛrɪŋ/ adj. (formal) making you feel bored, tired, or annoyed: a wearisome task

wea-ry¹ /'wɪri/ adj. (comparative wearier, superlative weariest) very tired: She was weary of arguing. | The nation is weary of war. —wearily adv. —weariness n. [U]

THESAURUS tired, exhausted, worn out, beat, fatigued → TIRED

W

weary² v. (wearied, wearies) [I,T] (formal) to become very tired or no longer enjoy something, or to make someone feel this way: Jacobs wearied of his job at the bank.

weasel¹ /'wizəl/ n. [C] 1 a small thin furry animal that kills other small animals 2 (informal) someone who has not been loyal to you or has deceived you weasel² v.

weasel out of sth phr. v. (informal) to avoid doing something you should do by using dishonest excuses or lies: He's in court trying to weasel out of his debts.

weather¹ /'weðə/ n. 1 [singular, U] the temperature and other conditions such as sun, rain, and wind: What's the weather like today? | Our flight was delayed because of bad weather. | very cold/warm/hot/dry weather 2 under the weather (informal) slightly sick: I'm feeling a little under the weather. [ORIGIN: Old English weder]

weather² v. 1 [T] to come through a very difficult situation without failing: Business was bad, but we knew we would weather the storm. 2 [I,T] if a surface is weathered, the wind, rain, and sun gradually change its appearance: a weathered stone monument | Her face was weathered by the sun.

'weather forecast n. [C] a report on the television or radio that says what the weather will be like —weather forecaster n. [C]

'weather vane n. [C] a metal object attached to the top of a building, that moves to show the direction the wind is blowing weave¹ /wiv/ v. 1 (past tense wove /wouv/, past participle woven /'wʊvən/) [I,T] to make cloth, a CARPET, a basket, etc. by crossing threads or thin pieces under and over each other by hand or on a LOOM: traditional basket weaving 2 (past tense wove, past participle woven) [T] to put many different ideas, subjects, stories, etc. together and connect them smoothly: Her novels weave together suspense and romance. 3 (past tense and past participle weaved) [I,T] to move somewhere by turning and changing direction a lot: The car was weaving in and out of traffic.

weave² n. [C] the way in which a material is woven, and the pattern formed by this: a fine weave web /web/ n. 1 the Web IT the system that connects together computers around the world so that people can use and find information on the Internet (SYN the World Wide Web: popular sites on the Web) 2 [C] a net of sticky thin threads made by a SPIDER to catch insects: a spider spinning its web → see picture at SPIDER 3 a web of sth a closely related set of things that can be very complicated: a web of lies webbed /wɛbd/ adj. webbed feet or toes have skin between the toes → see picture on page A2 web-cam /'webkəm/ n. [C] IT a video camera that is connected to a computer and broadcasts images onto a website → see picture on page A6 web-cast /'webkæst/ v. (past tense and past participle webcast) [I,T] IT to broadcast an event on the Internet, at the time the event happens

'web page n. [C] IT all the information that you can see in one part of a website web-site /'websaɪt/ n. [C] IT a place on the Internet where you can find information about something, especially a particular organization: For more information, visit our website. → INTERNET we'd /wid/ 1 the short form of "we had": We'd better go now. 2 the short form of "we would": We'd rather stay.

wed /wed/ v. (past tense and past participle wedded or wed, present participle wedding) 1 [I,T] (literary) to marry someone 2 be wedded to sth to believe strongly in a particular idea or way of doing things

wed-ding /'wedɪŋ/ n. [C] a marriage ceremony, especially one with a religious service: Have you been invited to their wedding? | a simple wedding reception (=a special meal or party after a wedding) | a wedding dress/cake/present

TOPIC

At a wedding ceremony/service the most important people are the bride (=woman getting married) and the groom (=man getting married). The best man helps the groom and the maid of honor and the bridesmaids help the bride. After the ceremony, there is usually a reception. Then the bride and groom go on a honeymoon (=special vacation). → ENGAGED, MARRIED

'wedding ring n. [C] a ring that you wear to show that you are married wedge¹ /wedʒ/ n. [C] 1 a piece of wood, metal, etc. that has one thick edge and one pointed edge, used for keeping a door open, splitting wood, etc. 2 something shaped like a wedge: a wedge of chocolate cake wedge² v. [T] 1 to force something firmly into a narrow space: We wedged a towel under the door to keep the cold air out. 2 wedge sth open/shut to put something under a door, window, etc. to make it stay open or shut

wed-lock /'wedlɒk/ n. (old-fashioned) born out of wedlock if a child is born out of wedlock, his/her parents are not married when s/he is born

Wednes-day /'wenzdi, -dei/ (written abbreviation Wed.) n. [C,U] the fourth day of the week, between Tuesday and Thursday: Classes start Wednesday. | What time are you coming on Wednesday? | I have to work next Wednesday. | Eva had surgery last Wednesday. | We're all going out to dinner on Wednesday night. [ORIGIN: Old English wodnesdæg, from Woden "Odin" + dæg "day"] wee /wi/ adj. 1 (literary) very small: a wee child 2 the wee hours the early hours of the morning, just after MIDNIGHT

weed¹ /wid/ n. [C] 1 a wild plant that grows where you do not want it to grow: She was pulling weeds in the back yard. 2 like weeds quickly and in large numbers: Housing developments began to spring up like weeds.

weed² v. [I,T] to remove weeds from a place weed sb/sth ↔ out phr. v. to get rid of people or things that are not very good: Weaker students were weeded out of the program.

week /wik/ n. [C] 1 a period of time equal to seven days, beginning on Sunday and ending on Saturday: I can't see you this week. | last/next week (=the week before or after this one) 2 any period of time equal to seven days and nights: I've been living here for six weeks. | This is the second time the Yankees have lost in a week. | I'll be back a week from today/tomorrow/Friday (=a week after today, etc.). | Are you busy the week after next (=the week that follows next week)? 3 also work week the part of the week when you go to work, usually from Monday to Friday: a 40-hour week | I don't see the kids much during the week. [ORIGIN: Old English wicu]

week-day /'wikdeɪ/ n. (plural weekdays) [C] any day of the week except Saturday and Sunday week-end /'wikend/ n. [C] Saturday and Sunday: What are you doing this weekend? | Jerry sees the children mainly on weekends. | last/next weekend (=the weekend before or after this one) | We went to the beach over the weekend (=during the weekend).

week-ly /'wikli/ adj. happening or done every week: a weekly radio show | weekly meetings —weekly adv.

THESAURUS hourly, daily, monthly, yearly
→ REGULAR¹

week-night /'wiknaɪt/ n. [C] any night except Saturday or Sunday wee-nie /'wini/ n. [C] (spoken) a HOT DOG weep /wɪp/ v. (past tense and past participle wept /wɛpt/) [I,T] (literary) to cry: She wept quietly for a few moments.

weigh /weɪ/ v. 1 [linking verb] to have a particular weight: The baby weighs 12 pounds. | How much do you weigh? 2 [T] to measure how heavy someone or something is: Have you weighed yourself lately? 3 [T] also weigh up to consider something carefully before making a decision: I had to weigh the options pretty carefully.

weigh sb ↔ down phr. v. 1 if something weighs you down, it is heavy and difficult to carry 2 if you are weighed down by your problems and difficulties, you worry a lot about them: He felt weighed down by his responsibilities.

weigh in phr. v. 1 to have your weight measured before taking part in a competition 2 to add a remark to a discussion or an argument: The chairman then weighed in with his own opinion.

weigh on sb phr. v. to make someone feel worried: The problem's been weighing on my mind for a long time.

weight¹ /weɪt/ n.

1 WHAT SB/STH WEIGHS [U] how heavy someone or something is: She's always worried about her weight. | Have you lost weight (=become thinner)? | I think he's put on some weight (=become fatter). | I'm watching my weight (=being careful not to gain weight).

2 HEAVINESS [U] the fact of being heavy: The weight of her boots made it hard for her to run.

3 HEAVY THING [C] something that is heavy: I can't lift heavy weights because of my bad back.

4 RESPONSIBILITY/WORRY [singular] something that makes you worry: the weight of responsibility | Selling the house was a great weight off my mind.

5 IMPORTANCE [U] if something has weight, it is important and influences people: Tina's opinion doesn't carry much weight around here.

6 FOR MEASURING QUANTITIES [C] a piece of metal weighing a particular amount that is balanced against something else to measure what it weighs

7 weights [plural] heavy pieces of metal, usually fixed to a metal bar, that people lift to make their muscles bigger → WEIGHTLIFTING: I've been lifting weights for years. → pull your weight at PULL¹

weight² also weight down v. [T] to add something heavy to something or put a weight on it, especially in order to keep it in place: fishing nets weighted with lead weight-ed /'weɪtɪd/ adj. giving an advantage or disadvantage to one particular group or activity: The voting system is weighted against the smaller parties.

weight-less /'weɪtlɪs/ adj. having no weight, especially when you are floating in space —weightlessness n. [U] weight-lift-ing /'weɪt,lɪftɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of lifting weights attached to the ends of a bar —weight-lifter n. [C] weight-y /'weɪtɪ/ adj. important and serious: a weighty problem

weird /wɪəd/ adj. (informal) unusual and strange: I had a really weird dream. | There's something weird about him. | The weird thing is that no one else seemed to notice.

THESAURUS strange, funny, peculiar, odd, bizarre → STRANGE¹ weird-o /'wɪrdɔː/ n. (plural weirdos) [C] (spoken) someone who seems strange wel-come¹ /'welkəm/ interjection said in order to greet someone who has just arrived: Welcome to Chicago! | Welcome back – it's good to see you again. [ORIGIN: Old English wilcume, from wilcuma "person you are glad to have as a guest"]

W

welcome² adj. 1 if you are welcome in a place, the other people want you to be there: I had the feeling I wasn't really welcome. | They did their best to make me feel welcome. 2 if something is welcome, people are pleased that it has happened because it is useful, pleasant, etc.: a welcome suggestion | a welcome breeze on a hot day

SPOKEN PHRASES

3 you're welcome said in order to reply politely to someone who has just thanked you for something: "Thanks for the coffee." "You're welcome." 4 be welcome to sb/sth used in order to say that someone can be with someone or have something if s/he wants to, because you do not want to: If Rob wants that job, he's welcome to it! 5 be welcome to do sth used in order to say that someone can do something if s/he wants to: You're welcome to stay for lunch.

welcome³ v. [T] 1 to say hello in a friendly way to someone who has just arrived: Jill was welcoming guests at the door. | They welcomed us warmly. 2 to be glad when something happens or is done, or to say that you are glad: We would welcome a change in the law.

welcome⁴ n. [C] the way in which you greet someone when s/he arrives at a place: They gave him a very warm welcome when he returned to work. → wear out your welcome at WEAR OUT wel-com-ing /'wɛlkəmɪŋ/ adj. making you feel happy and relaxed: a welcoming smile

THESAURUS friendly, warm, cordial, hospitable → FRIENDLY weld /weld/ v. [T] to join metal objects to each other by heating them and pressing them together when they are hot — welder n. [C]

wel-fare /'wɛlfə/ [Ac] n. [U] 1 also Welfare money paid by the government to people who are very poor, not working, sick, etc.: Most of the people in this neighborhood are on welfare. | The study found that 90 percent of welfare recipients are employable. 2 someone's welfare is his/her health, comfort, and happiness: We're only concerned with your welfare. | It is our responsibility to look after the welfare of animals.

we'll /wɪl/ the short form of "we will": We'll have to leave soon.

well¹ /wɛl/ adv. (comparative better, superlative best) 1 in a good, successful, or satisfactory way: Did you sleep well? | She doesn't hear very well. | Is the business doing well? | I hope your party goes well. 2 thoroughly or completely: I don't know her very well. | Mix the flour and eggs well. 3 as well (as sb/sth) in addition to someone or something else: I'm learning French as well as Italian. 4 may/might/could well used in order to say that something is likely to happen or is likely to be true: What you say may well be true. 5 sb may/might as well do sth (informal) a) used in order to say that you will do something even though you do not particularly want to do it: I guess we may as well get started. b) used in order to say that doing something else would have an equally good result: The traffic was so bad we might as well have walked here. 6 very much, or very long in time: I'm well aware of the problem. | It was well after 2:00 by the time we finished.

well² adj. (comparative better, superlative best) 1 healthy: My mother's not very well. | I'm a lot better, thanks. | I hope you get well soon. → HEALTHY 2 all is well/all is not well (formal) used in order to say that a situation is satisfactory or not satisfactory: All is not well with their marriage. 3 it's just as well (that) (spoken) used in order to say that things have happened in a way that is lucky or good: It's just as well I took the train today – I heard the traffic was really bad. 4 it's/that's all very well (spoken) used in order to say that you are not happy or satisfied with something: It's all very well for you to say you're sorry, but I've been waiting here for two hours!

well³ interjection 1 used in order to pause before saying something, or to emphasize what you are saying: Well, let's see now, I could meet you on Thursday. | Well, I mean, you shouldn't just take things without asking. | "Jim doesn't want to come." "Well then, let's go on our own." 2 also oh well said in order to show that you accept a situation even though it is not a good one: Oh well, at least you did your best. 3 also well, well used in order to express surprise or amusement: Well, so Steve got the job. 4 said in order to connect two parts of a story that you are telling: You know that guy I was telling you about? Well, he's been arrested! 5 Well? used in order to ask someone to reply to you or tell you what has happened: Well? What did he say?

well⁴ n. [C] 1 EARTH SCIENCES a deep hole in the ground from which water is taken 2 EARTH SCIENCES a very deep hole in the ground from which oil is taken well⁵ also well up v. [I] (literary) if a liquid wells up, it rises and may start to flow: Tears began to well up in her eyes.

well-ad'justed adj. emotionally healthy and able to deal well with the problems of life: a happy, well-adjusted child well-'balanced adj. 1 a well-balanced person is sensible and does not suddenly become angry, upset, etc. 2 a well-balanced meal or DIET contains all the things you need to stay healthy well-be'haved adj. behaving in a polite or socially acceptable way: a well-behaved child → POLITE well-'being n. [U] a feeling of being comfortable, healthy, and happy well-brought-up adj. a child who is well-brought-up has been taught to be polite and to behave well well-'done adj. meat that is well-done has been cooked thoroughly → MEDIUM, RARE: He likes his steak well-done.

well-dressed adj. wearing attractive fashionable clothes: an attractive well-dressed young woman well-earned adj. deserved because you have worked hard: a well-earned vacation well-fed adj. having plenty of good food to eat: well-fed children well-groomed adj. someone who is well-groomed has a very neat and clean appearance: a well-groomed young man well-heeled adj. (informal) rich well-intentioned adj. WELL-MEANING well-known adj. known by a lot of people: a well-known artist

THESAURUS famous, renowned, noted, distinguished, eminent → FAMOUS well-meaning adj. intending or intended to be helpful, but often failing or making things worse: well-meaning advice well-ness /ˈwelnis/ n. [U] the state of being healthy: The gym offers a variety of wellness programs (=programs to help people stay healthy).

well-off adj. having enough money to have a very good standard of living: Stella's family is well-off.

THESAURUS rich, wealthy, affluent, well-to-do → RICH

well-paid adj. providing or receiving a good salary: a well-paid job | well-paid executives

well-read /ˌwelˈred/ adj. someone who is well-read has read many books and knows a lot about different subjects well-rounded adj. someone who is well-rounded has had a wide variety of experiences in life well-spoken adj. able to speak in a clear and polite way well-thought-of adj. liked and admired by other people well-timed adj. said or done at the most appropriate time: My arrival wasn't very well-timed.

well-to-do adj. rich (SYN) wealthy: a well-to-do family well-wisher n. [C] someone who does something to show that s/he wants someone to succeed, be healthy, etc.: She received hundreds of cards from well-wishers.

Welsh /welʃ/ adj. relating to or coming from Wales welt /wɛlt/ n. [C] a raised mark on someone's skin where s/he has been hit wel-ter /ˈwɛltə/ n. (formal) a welter of sth a large and confusing number of different details, emotions, etc.: a welter of information went /wɛnt/ v. the past tense of GO wept /wɛpt/ v. the past tense and past participle of WEEP we're /wɪr/ the short form of “we are”: We're going to the library.

were /wə/ v. a past tense of BE weren't /wənt, ˈwɒnt/ v. the short form of “were not”: Why didn't you tell me that you weren't happy?

were-wolf /ˈwɜrwʊlf/ n. (plural werewolves) [C] a person in stories who changes into a WOLF

west¹, West /west/ n. [singular, U] 1 the direction toward which the Sun goes down: Which way is west? → see picture at NORTH¹ 2 the west the western part of a country, state, etc.: Rain will spread to the west later today. | the west of Ireland 3 the West a the part of the U.S. west of the Mississippi River b the countries in North America and the western part of Europe [ORIGIN: Old English]

USAGE

Use north/south/east/west of sth in order to describe where a place is in relation to another place: Chicago is south of Milwaukee.

Use in the north/south/east/west of sth in order to say which part of a place you are talking about: The mountains are in the west of the province.

Use northern, southern, eastern, western with the name of a place: They have a cabin in northern Ontario.

Don't say “in the north of Ontario.”

west² adj. 1 in, to, or facing the west: four miles west of Toronto | the west coast of Florida 2 west wind a wind coming from the west

west³ adv. 1 toward the west: Go west on I-90 to Spokane. | The window faces west. 2 out West in or to the western part of the U.S.: My family moved out West to Arizona last year.

west-bound /ˈwestbaʊnd/ adj. traveling or leading toward the west: westbound traffic | the west-bound lanes of the freeway

west-er-ly /ˈwestəli/ adj. 1 in or toward the west: sailing in a westerly direction 2 a westerly wind comes from the west west-ern¹ /ˈwestən/ adj. 1 in or from the west part of an area, country, state, etc.: western Iowa 2 Western in or from the countries in North America and the western part of Europe: Western technology → see USAGE box at WEST¹ western² n. [C] a movie about life in the 19th century in the American West → MOVIE west-ern-er, Westerner /ˈwestənə/ n. [C] someone who comes from the western part of a country or the western HEMISPHERE

Western 'Europe n. the western part of Europe, including places such as Great Britain and Italy — Western Euro'pean adj.

W

west-ern-ized /ˈwestərˌnaɪzd/ adj. [only before noun] influenced by and behaving like the people in North America and Western Europe —westernize v. [T] west-ern-most /ˈwestərˌmoʊst/ adj. farthest west: the westernmost part of the island

west-ward /ˈwestwəd/ adj., adv. toward the west

wet¹ /wet/ adj. (comparative wetter, superlative wettest) 1 covered in or full of water or another liquid [ANT] dry: Try not to get your feet wet. | a wet sponge | We were soaking wet (=extremely wet). 2 rainy: It's very wet outside. 3 not yet dry: wet paint 4 wet behind the ears (informal) very young and without much experience —wetness n. [U]

wet² v. (past tense and past participle wet or wetted, present participle wetting) [T] 1 to make something wet: Wet this cloth and put it on her forehead. 2 wet the bed/wet your pants to make your bed or pants wet because you URINATE by accident

'wet suit n. [C] a thick piece of clothing, usually made of rubber, that swimmers wear to keep warm when they are in the water we've /wiv/ the short form of "we have": We've got to leave by 6:00.

whack¹ /wæk/ v. [T] (informal) to hit someone or something hard

THESAURUS hit, punch, slap, beat, smack, strike → HIT¹

whack² n. (informal) 1 out of whack if a machine or system is out of whack, it is not working correctly 2 take a whack at sth to try to do something: I can't open this jar; do you want to take a whack at it? 3 [C] the act of hitting something hard, or the noise this makes whacked /wækt/ also 'whacked 'out adj. (spoken) 1 very tired 2 behaving in a very strange way whale¹ /weɪl/ n. [C] a very large animal that swims in the ocean and breathes through a hole on the top of its head [ORIGIN: Old English hwæl] whale² v.

whale on sb/sth phr. v. to start hitting someone or something whal-er /ˈweɪlə/ n. [C] 1 someone who hunts whales 2 a boat used for hunting whales

whal-ing /ˈweɪlɪŋ/ n. [U] the activity of hunting whales wham¹ /wæm/ interjection 1 said when describing the sound of one thing hitting another thing very hard: The car went wham into the wall. 2 said in order to show that something very unexpected suddenly happens: Everything is going OK and then, wham, you lose your job.

wham² n. [C] the sound made when something is hit very hard wharf /wɔːrf/ n. (plural wharves /wɔːrvz/) [C] a structure that is built out into the water so that boats can stop next to it [SYN] pier

what /wət/; strong wət, wɑt/ determiner, pron. 1 used in order to ask for information about something: What are you doing? | What did Ellen say? | What kind of dog is that? | "I didn't think it would be like this." "What do you mean?" 2 used in order to talk about something that is not known or certain: No one knows what happened. | I'm not sure what to do. 3 the thing which: Show me what you bought. | I believe what he told me. 4 used at the beginning of a sentence, to emphasize what you are saying: What an idiot! | What I need is a nice hot bath. 5 have what it takes to have the ability or courage to do something: Whitman didn't have what it takes to do the job. → guess what/you'll never guess at GUESS¹, so what? at SO¹

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 what? a) used in order to ask someone to repeat something that s/he has just said because you did not hear it very well: "Do you want a fried egg?" "What?" b) used when you have heard someone calling your name and you are asking him/her what s/he wants: "Anita?" "What?" "Can you come here for a minute?" c) used in order to show that you are surprised by what someone has said 7 what about...? a) used in order to make a suggestion: What about sending him an e-mail? b) used in order to introduce a new person or thing into the conversation: What about Patrick? What's he doing nowadays? 8 What's up? used when saying hello to someone you know well: "Hey, Chris! What's up?" "Not much." 9 what's up with sb/sth? used in order to ask what is wrong or what is happening: What's up with this printer – does it work? 10 what (...) for? a) used in order to ask the reason for something or purpose of something: What's this thing for? b) why: "She's decided to work part-time." "What for?" 11 what if...? a) used in order to ask what will happen, especially when it could be something bad or frightening: What if we get stuck out there in the snow? b) used when making a suggestion: What if you just take that part out of the speech? 12 what's his/her/its name used when talking about a person or thing whose name you cannot immediately remember: Is what's his name still working here? 13 ...or what? a) used in order to ask if there is another possibility: Are they doing that to save money, or what? b) used in order to show you are impatient when asking a question: Are you coming now, or what? 14 what's what the real facts about a situation that are important to know: She's been working here long enough to know what's what. 15 what's with sb? used in order to ask why someone is behaving strangely or why something strange is happening: What's with Nicky? He seems really mad. 16 what's with sth? used in order to ask the reason for something: *What's with all the sad faces?

[ORIGIN: Old English hwæt]

what·cha·ma·call·it /ˈwʌtʃəməˌkɔlɪt/ n. [C] (spoken) a word you use when you cannot remember the name of something what·ev·er¹ /wətˈevə/ determiner, pron. 1 any or all of the things that are wanted, needed, or possible: Just take whatever you need. | He needs whatever help he can get. 2 used in order to say it is not important what happens, what you do, etc. because it does not change the situation: Whatever I say, she always disagrees. 3 ...or whatever (spoken) used in order to refer to other things of the same kind: You can go swimming, scuba diving, or whatever. 4 (spoken) used in order to say that you do not know the exact meaning of something or the exact name of someone or something: Why don't you invite Steve, or whatever he's called, to supper? 5 whatever you say/think/want (spoken) used in order to tell someone that you agree with him/her or will do what s/he wants, especially when you do not really agree or want to do it: "How about camping, just for a change?" "OK, whatever you want." 6 used as a reply to say that you do not care what is done or chosen, or that the exact details of something do not matter: "What flavor do you want? Strawberry, vanilla...?" "Whatever."

whatever² also what·so·ev·er /ˌwʌtsouˈevə/ adv. used in order to emphasize a negative statement: She had no money whatsoever.

what·not /ˈwʌtˈnɒt/ n. and whatnot (spoken) an expression used at the end of a list of things when you do not want to give the names of everything: Put all your paper, pencils, and whatnot in this drawer.

wheat /wɪt/ n. [U] a plant that produces a grain used for making flour, or this grain [ORIGIN: Old English hwæte] whee·dle /ˈwiːdl/ v. [I,T] to persuade someone to do something by saying pleasant things that you do not really mean: She managed to wheedle $15 out of him.

wheel¹ /wɪl/ n. [C] 1 one of the round things under a car, bicycle, etc. that turns and allows it to move: the car's front/rear wheels → see picture at BICYCLE 2 a STEERING WHEEL: He had fallen asleep at the wheel (=while driving). 3 a flat round part in a machine, that turns when the machine operates: a gear wheel wheel² v. 1 [T] to move something that has wheels: She wheeled her bike into the garage. 2 [I] to turn around suddenly: Anita wheeled around and started yelling at us. → WHEELING AND DEALING wheel·bar·row /ˈwɪlˌbærou/ n. [C] a small CART with one wheel in the front and two long handles for pushing it, that you use outdoors to carry things wheel·chair /ˈwɪlˌtʃeɪ/ n. [C] a chair with wheels, used by people who cannot walk wheel·ie /ˈwɪli/ n. do/pop a wheelie (informal) to balance on the back wheel of a bicycle or MOTORCYCLE that you are riding wheeling and dealing n. [U] activities that involve a lot of complicated and sometimes dishonest deals, especially in politics or business —wheeler-dealer n.

wheeze /wɪz/ v. [I] to breathe with difficulty, making a whistling sound in your chest —wheezy adj.

THESAURUS breathe, pant, be short of breath, be out of breath, gasp for breath, gasp for air → BREATHE when /wɛn/ adv., conjunction 1 used when asking what time something will happen: When are we leaving? | I'll tell you when to stop. 2 at or during the time that something happens: He was nine when his father died. | I was in the shower when the doorbell rang. | The best moment was when Barnes scored the winning goal.

THESAURUS

at the time – used in order to talk about a particular time in the past when two things happened at the same time: I couldn't go to the wedding as I was in New York at the time.

by the time – used in order to say that one thing has or will have already happened when something else happens: By the time a child is five, he will have watched hundreds of hours of television.

by that time – used in order to mention a particular time when something has already happened: She called at six, but by that time we had already left.

3 after or as soon as something happens: I'll phone you when I get home. 4 even though something is true: Why do you want a new bike when this one is perfectly good? [ORIGIN: Old English hwanne, hwenne] → since when at SINCE when·ev·er /wɛˈnevə, wə-/ adv., conjunction 1 every time: Whenever we come here, we see someone we know. 2 at any time: Come over whenever you want. 3 (spoken) used in order to say that it does not matter when something happens: "Should I come over around six?" "Whenever."

where /wɛr/ adv., conjunction 1 at, to, or from a particular place or position: Where do you live? | I asked Lucy where she was going. | Do you know where my glasses are? 2 used in order to ask or talk about the situation or state of something: Where do you see yourself in ten years? | Where do we go from here (=what do we do now)? [ORIGIN: Old English hwær]

where·a·bouts¹ /ˈwɛrəˌbaʊts, ˌwɛrəˌbaʊts/ adv. (spoken) used to ask in a general way where a place is: Whereabouts do you live?

where·a·bouts² /ˈwɛrəˌbaʊts/ n. [U] the place where someone or something is: His whereabouts are still a mystery.

where·as /wɛrˈæz; weak wɛrəz/ (Ac) conjunction (formal) used in order to say that although something is true of one thing, it is not true of another:

W

Nowadays the trip takes six hours, whereas then it took several weeks. | Stafford had years of experience, whereas Lufkin was new to the job.

where-by /wɛrˈbaɪ/ (Ac) adv. (formal) by means of which, or according to which: The government passed a law whereby all children receive free education.

where-in /wɛrˈɪn/ adv., conjunction (formal) in which place or part: The San Francisco house, wherein he and his family live, was damaged by the earthquake.

where-u-pon /ˌwɛrəˈpɑːn, ˈwɛrəˈpɑːn/ conjunction (formal) after which: One of them called the other a liar, whereupon a fight broke out.

where-ev-er /wɛrˈɛvə/ adv., conjunction 1 to or at any place: If you could go wherever you wanted to in the world, where would you go? | Sit wherever you like. 2 wherever possible when it is possible to do something: We try to use locally produced food wherever possible. 3 (spoken) used at the beginning of a question to show surprise: Wherever did you find that old thing?

where-with-al /ˌwɛrwɪˌðəl, -θəl/ n. the wherewithal to do sth the money or ability you need in order to do something: He just didn't have the wherewithal to do more with his life.

whet /wɛt/ v. (whetted, whetting) whet sb's appetite (for sth) to make someone want more of something by letting him/her try it or see what it is like wheth-er /ˈwɛðə/ conjunction 1 used when talking about a choice between different possibilities: He asked her whether she was coming. | I couldn't decide whether or not I wanted to go. 2 used in order to say that something definitely will or will not happen in spite of what the situation is: Whether you like it or not, you have to take that test.

whew /hwyu, hwu/ interjection said when you are surprised, very hot, or feeling glad that something bad did not happen: Whew! That was close!

which /wɪtʃ/ determiner, pron. 1 used in order to ask or state what things you mean when a choice has to be made: Which of these books is yours? | Ask him which one he wants.

USAGE

Which and what are both used when you are asking about one thing out of a number of possible things.

Use which when the answer is one of a limited set of possible things: Which house does Tom live in?

Use what when there are a very large number of possibilities: What's his name? | What is the answer to question 12?

Which can be followed by "of," but what cannot: Which of these dresses do you like best?

2 used in order to show what specific thing or things you mean: This is the book which I told you about. 3 used in order to add more information about something, especially in written language after a COMMA: The house, which was completed in 1856, was famous for its huge marble staircase. | The train only takes two hours, which is quicker than the bus. [ORIGIN: Old English hwilc]

which-ev-er /wɪtʃˈɛvə/ determiner, pron. 1 used in order to say that it does not matter which person or thing is chosen because the result will be the same: You get the same result whichever way you do it. 2 any of a group of things or people: You can have whichever you like best.

whiff /wɪf/ n. [C] a smell of something that is not strong: As she walked past, I caught a whiff of (=smelled) her perfume.

while¹ /waɪl/ n. a while a period of time, especially a short one: Can you wait a while? | For a while, I worked in the Sales Department. | I'll be back in a little while. [ORIGIN: Old English hwil] → AWHILE, worth your while at WORTH¹

while² conjunction 1 during the time that something is happening: They arrived while we were having dinner. | I like to listen to music while I'm taking a bath. 2 in spite of the fact that (SYN) although: While it was a good school, I was not happy there. 3 used in order to say that, although something is true of one thing, it is not true of another (SYN) whereas: That region has plenty of water, while this one has little water.

while³ v. while away the hours/evenings/days etc. to spend time in a pleasant and lazy way: We whiled away the summer evenings talking.

whim /wɪm/ n. [C] a sudden desire to do or have something, especially when there is no good reason for it: I went to visit her on a whim.

whim-per /ˈwɪmpə/ v. [I] to make low crying sounds because you are sad, frightened, or in pain: The dog ran off whimpering. —whimper n. [C] whim-si-cal /ˈwɪmzɪkəl/ adj. unusual or strange and often amusing: whimsical drawings

whine /waɪn/ v. [I] 1 to complain in a sad annoying voice about something: Stop whining! | She was whining about how hard her life is. 2 to make a long high sound because you are in pain or unhappy: The dog was whining at the door. —whine n. [C] whin-ny /ˈwɪni/ v. (whinnied, whinnies) [I] if a horse whinnies, it makes a high sound whip¹ /wɪp/ n. [C] a long thin piece of rope or leather with a handle, used for making animals move faster, or for hitting people as a punishment whip² v. (whipped, whipping) 1 [T] to hit a person or animal with a whip 2 [I] to move suddenly or violently: Bill whipped around to see what was happening. 3 [T] (informal) to move something with a quick sudden movement: He whipped out a gun. 4 whip sb/sth into shape (informal) to make a system, group of people, etc. start to work in an organized way 5 [T] to mix cream or the clear part of an egg very hard until it becomes stiff (SYN) beat: Whip the cream until thick.

whip up phr. v. 1 whip sb ↔ up to try to make people feel strongly about something: The speech was an attempt to whip up opposition to the plan. 2 whip sth ↔ up (informal) to quickly make something to eat: I could whip up a salad.

whiplash /'wɪplæʃ/ n. [U] a neck injury caused when your head moves forward and back again suddenly and violently, especially in a car accident whip-ping /'wɪpɪŋ/ n. [C] a punishment given to someone by hitting him/her, especially with a whip whir /wɜː/ v. (past tense and past participle whirred, present participle whirring) [I] if a machine whirs, it makes a continuous low sound —whir n. [singular]: the whir of a lawnmower whirl¹ /wɜːl/ v. [I,T] to turn or spin around very quickly, or to make someone or something do this: He whirled her around the dance floor.

THESAURUS turn, twist, spin, twirl, swivel, go around, revolve, rotate → TURN¹ whirl² n. 1 give sth a whirl (informal) to try something that you are not sure you are going to like or be able to do 2 [singular] a lot of activity of a particular kind: a whirl of social activity 3 be in a whirl to feel very excited or confused about something 4 [C usually singular] a spinning movement, or the shape of a substance that is spinning: a whirl of dust whirl-pool /'wɜːlpʊl/ n. [C] a powerful current of water that spins quickly and pulls things down into it whirl-wind /'wɜːl,wɪnd/ n. 1 a whirlwind romance/tour etc. something that happens much more quickly than usual 2 [C] an extremely strong wind that moves quickly with a circular movement, causing a lot of damage 3 a whirlwind of activity/emotions etc. a situation in which you quickly experience a lot of different activities or emotions one after another whisk¹ /wɪsk/ v. [T] 1 to mix liquids, eggs, etc. very quickly, using a fork or a whisk → BEAT, WHIP: Whisk the yolks and sugar in a bowl. → see picture on page A5 2 to quickly take something or someone somewhere: They whisked her off to the hospital.

whisk² n. [C] a small kitchen tool made of curved pieces of wire, used for whisking eggs, cream, etc.

whisk-er /'wɪskə/ n. 1 [C] one of the long stiff hairs that grow near the mouth of a cat, mouse, etc. → see picture on page A2 2 whiskers [plural] the hair that grows on a man's face whis-key /'wɪski/ n. (plural whiskeys or whiskies) [C,U] a strong alcoholic drink made from grain, or a glass of this drink [ORIGIN: 1700—1800 Irish Gaelic uisce beathadh and Scottish Gaelic uisge beatha “water of life”] whis-per /'wɪspə/ v. 1 [I,T] to speak or say something very quietly, using your breath rather than your voice: He leaned over to whisper something to her. | “I love you,” she whispered in his ear. 2 [I] (literary) to make a soft sound: The wind whispered in the trees. —whisper n. [C]: She spoke in a whisper.

whis-tle¹ /'wɪsəl/ v. 1 [I,T] to make a high or musical sound by blowing air out through your lips: Adam whistled to/at me from across the street. 2 [I] to make a high sound by blowing into a whistle: The referee whistled and the game began. 3 [I] to move quickly with a high sound: Bullets were whistling through the air. 4 [I] to make a high sound when air or steam is forced through a small hole: a whistling kettle

whistle² n. [C] 1 a small object that produces a high sound when you blow into it: The referee blew his whistle. 2 a high sound made by blowing air through a whistle, your lips, etc. → blow the whistle (on sb) at BLOW¹ white¹ /waɪt/ adj. 1 having the color of milk, salt, or snow: white paint 2 belonging to the race of people with pale skin who were originally from Europe: The suspect is a young white man. 3 looking pale because of illness, strong emotion, etc.: Are you OK? You're as white as a sheet (=extremely pale). [ORIGIN: Old English hwit] —whiteness n. [U] white² n. 1 [U] the color of milk, salt, or snow: She was dressed completely in white. 2 [C] also White someone who belongs to the race of people with pale skin who were originally from Europe 3 [C,U] the part of an egg which surrounds the YOLK and becomes white when cooked white 'blood cell n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the cells in your blood that fights against infection → RED BLOOD CELL

'white-bread adj. (informal) relating to people who are white and who have traditional American values, and who are often considered boring: a white-bread suburban family

white-collar adj. [only before noun] white-collar workers have jobs in offices, banks, etc. rather than jobs in factories, building things, etc. → BLUE-COLLAR

'White House n. 1 the White House the official home in Washington, D.C., of the President of the U.S. 2 [singular] the President of the U.S. and the people who advise the President: The election resulted in a Democratic White House. —White House adj.: a White House spokesperson white 'lie n. [C] (informal) a lie that is not very important, especially one that you tell in order to avoid hurting someone's feelings white 'light n. [U] PHYSICS all the different colors of light in the SPECTRUM mixed together, so that they appear white. Sunlight is an example of white light.

whit-en /'waɪtɪn/ v. [I,T] to become white, or to make something do this

W

White Pages n. the White Pages the white part of a telephone DIRECTORY, containing the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of people with telephones → YELLOW PAGES white trash n. [U] (informal) an insulting expression meaning white people who are poor and uneducated white-wash /'waɪt'wɒʃ, -wɒʃ/ n. 1 [C usually singular] an attempt to hide the true facts about a serious accident or illegal action: One magazine called the report a whitewash. 2 [U] a white liquid mixture used for painting walls, fences, etc. —whitewash v. [T]

white-water /'waɪt'wɔː, -wa-/ n. [U] a part of a river that looks white because the water is flowing very quickly over rocks whittle /'wɪtl/ v. 1 [I,T] to cut a piece of wood into a particular shape by cutting off small pieces 2 [T] also whittle down to gradually make something smaller by taking parts away: I've whittled down the list of guests from 30 to 16.

whittle sth away also whittle away at sth phr. v. to gradually make something smaller or less effective: Congress has been whittling away at our freedom of speech.

whiz /wɪz/ v. (whizzed, whizzing, whizzes) [I] (informal) to move very quickly: Marty whizzed past us on his motorbike.

whiz n. [C] (informal) someone who is very skilled at something

'whiz kid n. [C] (informal) a young person who is very skilled or successful at something who /hu/ pron. 1 used in order to ask or talk about which person is involved, or what the name of a person is: "Who is that?" "That's Amy's brother." | Who locked the door? | I know who sent you that card. 2 used in order to add more information about someone: That's the woman who owns the house. | She asked her English teacher, who had studied Latin. [ORIGIN: Old English hwa]

W

whoa /wəʊ, hwoʊ, hoʊ/ interjection 1 used in order to tell someone to become calmer or do something more slowly 2 used in order to show that you are surprised or that you think something is impressive who'd /hʊd/ 1 the short form of "who had": The doctors were treating a young girl who'd been attacked. 2 the short form of "who would": Who'd know where I can get tickets?

who-dun-it /hʊ'dʌnɪt/ n. [C] (informal) a book, movie, etc. about a murder, in which you do not find out who the murderer is until the end who-ev-er /hʊ'evə/ pron. 1 used in order to talk about someone when you do not know who s/he is: Whoever did this is in big trouble. 2 used in order to show that it does not matter which person does something: Whoever gets there first can find a table.

whole /hoʊl/ n. 1 the whole of sth all of something: The whole of the morning was wasted. 2 on the whole generally or usually: On the whole, life was much quieter after John left. 3 as a whole used in order to say that all the parts of something are being considered: We must look at our educational system as a whole. 4 [C usually singular] something that consists of a number of parts, but is considered as a single unit: Two halves make a whole. [ORIGIN: Old English hal "healthy, unhurt, complete"] whole adj. 1 all of something (SYN entire): She drank a whole bottle of wine. | The whole thing (=everything about a situation) just makes me sick. 2 complete and not divided or broken into parts: Place a whole onion inside the chicken.

whole-hearted /,hoʊl'hɑːtɪd/ adj. involving all your feelings, interest, etc.: You have our wholehearted support. —wholeheartedly adv.

'whole note n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a musical note that continues for as long as two HALF NOTES

'whole number n. [C] MATH a number such as 0, 1, 2, etc. that is not a FRACTION whole-sale /'hoʊlseɪl/ adj. 1 relating to the sale of goods in large quantities, usually at low prices, to people or stores that then sell them to other people → RETAIL: a wholesale price 2 (disapproving) affecting almost everything or everyone, and often done without any concern for the results: the wholesale destruction of the rainforest —wholesale adv. —wholesaler n. [C] whole-some /'hoʊlsəm/ adj. 1 likely to make you healthy: a good wholesome breakfast 2 considered to be morally good or acceptable: a nice clean wholesome kid

'whole wheat adj. whole wheat flour or bread is made using every part of the wheat grain, including the outer layer who'll /hʊl/ the short form of "who will": This is Denise, who'll be your guide today.

whol-ly /'hoʊli/ adv. (formal) completely: The club is wholly responsible for the damage.

THESAURUS completely, absolutely, totally, entirely → COMPLETELY whom /hʊm/ pron. 1 (formal) the object form of "who": To whom am I speaking? | He spoke to a man with whom he used to work. 2 many/all/some etc. of whom many, all, etc. of the people just mentioned: They had four sons, one of whom died young.

whoop /hʊp, wʊp/ v. [I] to shout loudly and in a happy way —whoop n. [C] whoops /wɒps/ interjection said when you make a small mistake, drop something, or fall whoosh /wʊʃ, wʊʃ/ v. [I] (informal) to move very fast with a soft rushing sound: Cars whooshed past. —whoosh n. [C] whop-per /'wɒpə/ n. [C] (informal) something that is unusually large whop-ping /'wɒpɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] (informal) very large: a whopping 28% increase who're /'huə, hʊr/ the short form of "who are": Who're those two guys?

who's /hʊz/ 1 the short form of "who is": Who's sitting next to Josh? 2 the short form of "who has": That's Karl, the guy who's studied in Brazil.

whose /hʊz/ possessive adj., pron. 1 used in order to ask which person or people a particular thing belongs to: Whose jacket is this? 2 used in order to show the relationship between a person and something that belongs to that person: That's the man whose house burned down.

who've /hʊv/ the short form of "who have"

why /waɪ/ adv., conjunction 1 for what reason: Why are these books so cheap? | Why haven't you finished it yet? | I don't know why she won't talk to me. 2 why don't you/why doesn't he etc. ...? (spoken) used in order to make a suggestion: Why don't you try this one? 3 why not? (spoken) a) used in order to ask someone why s/he has not done something: "I haven't done my homework." "Why not?" b) used in order to agree to do something: "Do you want to come along?" "Yeah, why not?"

WI the written abbreviation of WISCONSIN

wick /wɪk/ n. [C] the string on a CANDLE or in an oil lamp, that is burned wick-ed /'wɪkɪd/ adj. 1 morally bad or evil: the wicked step-mother in the story of Cinderella

THESAURUS bad, evil, immoral, wrong →
BAD¹

2 bad in a way that is amusing: a wicked grin | his wicked sense of humor 3 (slang) very good: a wicked concert

wick-er /'wɪkə/ adj. made from thin dry branches woven together: a wicker basket

wide¹ /waɪd/ adj. 1 measuring a large distance from one side to the other (ANT) narrow: a wide street | The quake was felt over a wide area. | Roberto's face broke into a wide grin.

2 measuring a particular distance from one side to the other: The bathtub's three feet wide and five feet long. | How wide is the door? 3 including a lot of different people, things, or situations: We offer a wide range of vegetarian dishes. | We want to reach a wider audience. 4 happening among many people or in many places: The trial was given wide coverage in the media. | We fear that the fighting will develop into a wider conflict. 5 statewide/citywide/company-wide etc. affecting all the people in a place: Teen drug use is a citywide problem. 6 wide difference/gap etc. a large and noticeable difference: wide differences of opinion [ORIGIN: Old English wid]

wide² adv. 1 completely, or as much as possible: Somebody left the door wide open. | It was 3 a.m., but I was wide awake. | The guards stood with their legs wide apart. | He stretched his arms wide, waiting for her hug. 2 wide open a competition, election, etc. that is wide open can be won by anyone: The presidential race is still wide open. 3 away from the point you were aiming at: His shot went wide.

wide-ly /'waɪdli/ adv. 1 in a lot of different places, or by a lot of people: Are these products widely available? | Salinger is widely known as the author of "The Catcher in the Rye." 2 to a large degree (SYN) a lot: Taxes vary widely from state to state.

wid-en /'waɪdn/ v. [I,T] 1 to become wider, or to make something wider (ANT) narrow: His eyes widened in fear. | The old trail was widened into a road. 2 to become greater or larger, or to make something do this: The gap between low and high incomes began to widen after 1974.

wide-spread /'waɪd'spreɪd/ (AC) adj. happening in many places: the widespread use of illegal drugs | This type of fish is widespread throughout South East Asia.

wid-ow /'waɪdʊ/ n. [C] a woman whose husband has died and who has not married again: She's the widow of the late Thomas Franklin.

wid-owed /'waɪdʊd/ adj. a widowed person is someone whose husband or wife has died: my widowed mother/father wid-ow-er /'waɪdʊə/ n. [C] a man whose wife has died and who has not married again width /wɪð, wɪtθ/ n. [C,U] the distance from one side of something to the other: the width of the window | It's ten inches in width. → see picture at DIMENSION wield /waɪld/ v. [T] 1 wield power/influence/authority etc. to have a lot of power, influence, etc., and use it: During the Middle Ages, the Church wielded a lot of influence. 2 to hold a weapon or tool that you are going to use wife /waɪf/ n. (plural wives /waɪvz/) [C] the woman that a man is married to → HUSBAND: This is my wife Elaine. | He had two children with his first wife.

Wi-Fi, wi-fi /'waɪ faɪ/ n. [U] (trademark) it a way of connecting computers to the Internet or to a network, without using wires wig /wɪɡ/ n. [C] artificial hair that you wear on your head → TOUPEE [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 periwig type of wig (16—21 centuries), from Old Italian perrucca “hair, wig”] wiggle /ˈwɪɡəl/ v. [I,T] to make small movements from side to side or up and down, or to make something move this way: Wiggle your toes. —wiggle n. [C] wig-wam /ˈwɪgwəm/ n. [C] a type of tent that was used in past times by some Native Americans [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Abnaki and Massachusetts (Native American languages) wikwam] wik-i /ˈwɪki/ n. [C,U] IT a WEB PAGE, or series of web pages, which can be written or changed by the people who use that website

W

wild¹ /waɪld/ adj. 1 wild animals or plants live or grow in a natural state, without being controlled by people (ANT tame): wild horses | wild flowers → NATURAL¹ 2 showing strong uncontrolled emotions such as excitement, anger, or happiness: a wild look in her eyes | wild laughter | The kids were wild with excitement. 3 (spoken) exciting, interesting, or unusual: Sarah's party was wild. | a wild hair-cut 4 [only before noun] done or said without knowing all the facts or thinking carefully about them: a wild guess 5 be wild about sb/sth (informal) to like someone or something very much: I'm not too wild about his movies. 6 a wild card in a game can represent any card that you want it to be 7 a wild area of land is in a completely natural state and does not have farms, towns, etc. on it wild² adv. 1 run wild to behave in an uncontrolled way because you have no rules or people to control you 2 go wild to suddenly become very noisy and active because you are excited or angry: The crowd went wild when the Giants won.

wild³ n. in the wild in an area that is natural and not controlled or changed by people → CAPTIVITY: The reserve gives protection to animals that live in the wild.

W

wil-der-ness /ˈwɪldərnɪs/ n. [singular, U] a large area of land that has never been built on or used for growing crops or raising animals: the Alaskan wilderness wild 'goose chase n. [singular] a situation in which you waste a lot of time looking for something that cannot be found wild-life /ˈwaɪldlaɪf/ n. [U] animals and plants that live in natural conditions wild-ly /ˈwaɪldli/ adv. 1 extremely: Baseball is wildly popular. 2 in a very uncontrolled or excited way: The crowd cheered wildly.

wiles /waɪlz/ n. [plural] things you say or tricks you use in order to persuade someone to do what you want will¹ /wəl, əl, l/ strong wɪl/ modal verb 1 used in order to make the future tense: Kathy will be there tomorrow. | What time will she get here? | I'll (=I will) go shopping later. 2 used in order to say that you are ready or willing to do something: I'll do whatever you say. | Vern said he won't (=will not) work for Joe. 3 used in order to ask someone to do something: Will you do me a favor? 4 used in CONDITIONAL sentences that use the present tense: If it rains, we'll (=we will) have the barbecue in the clubhouse. 5 used like “can” to show what is possible: This car will seat 5 people. 6 used in order to say what always happens, or what is generally true: Accidents will happen. 7 Will you... (spoken) used to give an order: Will you shut up!

will² /wɪl/ n. 1 [C,U] the determination to do what you have decided to do: He's lost the will to live. | a woman of high intelligence and strong will 2 [C] a legal document that shows who you want to have your money and property after you die: Grandma Stacy left me $7,000 in her will. | Have you made a will? 3 [singular] what someone wants to happen in a particular situation: No one can force him to stay here against his will (=if he does not want to). 4 at will whenever you want, and in whatever way you want: They can just change their policies at will. 5 where there's a will there's a way (spoken) used in order to say that if you are determined enough you will succeed

will³ v. [T] 1 to try to make something happen by thinking about it very hard: He shut his eyes, willing her to win. 2 to officially give something to someone after you die: She willed the house to her son.

will-ful, wilful /ˈwɪlfəl/ adj. (disapproving) doing what you want even though people tell you not to: a willful child —willfully adv.

will-ing /ˈwɪlɪŋ/ adj. 1 be willing to do sth to be prepared to do something: How much are they willing to pay? 2 eager to do something: They were willing participants in the fraud. —willingness n. [U] —willingly adv.

wil-low /ˈwɪloo/ n. [C] a tree with very long thin branches, that grows near water → see picture on page A10

wil-low-y /ˈwɪloʊi/ adj. tall, thin, and graceful will-pow-er /ˈwɪlpaʊə/ n. [U] the ability to make yourself do something even if it is difficult or unpleasant: I don't have the willpower to diet.

wil-ly-nil-ly /ˈwɪliˈnɪli/ adv. something that happens to you willy-nilly happens whether you want it to or not wilt /wɪlt/ v. [I] if a plant wilts, it becomes soft and bends because it needs water or is old wil-y /ˈwaɪli/ adj. good at using tricks in order to get what you want: a wily politician wimp /wɪmp/ n. [C] (informal) someone who is weak and afraid: Don't be such a wimp. —wimpy adj.

wimp² v.

wimp out phr. v. (spoken) to not do something that you intended to do, because you do not feel brave enough, strong enough, etc.

win¹ /wɪn/ v. (past tense and past participle won /wʌn/, present participle winning) 1 [I,T] to be the best or first in a competition, game, election, etc.
[ANT] lose: Who do you think will win the Super Bowl? | Dad won at chess again. | Marcy's team won by 3 points. | We could not have won the war without them.

THESAURUS

come in first – to win a competition, game, etc.
be/come in first/second etc. place – used to describe someone's position at the end of a race be in the lead or be ahead – to be winning at a particular time during a competition be victorious (formal) – to be the winner in a battle or competition triumph (formal) – to gain a victory or success, especially after a difficult struggle prevail (formal) – if a person, idea, or principle prevails, s/he or it achieves success after a struggle the winning team/horse etc. – the one that wins
 If you are the champion or you hold the record for something, you are the person who has beaten all other people in a series of competitions.

2 [T] to earn a prize at a competition or game: Thorpe won a gold medal. | I won $200 playing poker. 3 [T] to get something good because of all your efforts and skill [SYN] gain: Dr. Lee's work won her the admiration of scientists worldwide. [ORIGIN: Old English winnan "to work, fight"] win out phr. v. to succeed after being unsuccessful for a long time: Sooner or later, good sense will win out.

win sb ↔ over phr. v. to persuade someone to like you or support you win² n. [C] a victory or success, especially in a sport: a record of seven wins and six losses wince /wɪns/ v. [I] to suddenly change the expression on your face when you see or remember something painful or embarrassing: I still wince at the memory of how badly I sang.

winch /wɪntʃ/ n. [C] a machine with a rope or chain, used for lifting heavy objects — winch v. [T]

wind¹ /wɪnd/ n. 1 [C,U] the air outside when you can feel it moving around you: An icy wind blew through the open door. | Expect strong winds and rain tomorrow. | a gust of wind (=a short strong wind) | A cold east/west etc. wind (=from the east, etc.) was blowing.

THESAURUS

breeze – a light wind gust – a sudden strong movement of wind gale – very strong wind → RAIN¹, SNOW¹

2 get wind of sth to find out about something private or secret 3 [C] your ability to breathe easily: Rae got the wind knocked out of her (=was hit in the stomach and could not breathe for a short time). 4 the winds the people in an ORCHESTRA or band who play musical instruments that you blow into, such as the FLUTE [ORIGIN: Old English]

wind² /waɪnd/ v. (past tense and past participle wound /waʊnd/) 1 [I,T] to turn or twist something several times around something else: Don't wind the cord around the iron. 2 [T] also wind up to make a machine, toy, clock, etc. work by turning a small handle around several times: I forgot to wind my watch. 3 [I] if a road, river, etc. winds, it curves or bends many times wind down phr. v. to gradually end: The party started winding down after midnight.

wind up phr. v. 1 to be in a bad situation or place after a lot has happened: Most of them wound up in prison. 2 wind sth ↔ up to end an activity, meeting, etc.: It's almost 5:00 – we'd better wind things up.

Wind-break-er /ˈwɪndˌbreɪkə/ n. [C] (trade-mark) a type of coat that protects you from the wind wind-chill fac-tor /ˈwɪndtʃɪl ˌfæktə/ n. [U] the effect the wind has in cold weather, making the temperature even colder wind-ed /ˈwɪndɪd/ adj. having difficulty breathing because you have exercised too much or have been hit in the stomach wind-fall /ˈwɪndfɔːl/ n. [C] an amount of money that you get when you do not expect it wind-ing /ˈwaɪndɪŋ/ adj. having bends or curves: a long winding river wind in-stru-ment /ˈwɪnd ˌɪnstrəmənt/ n. [C] a musical instrument such as the FLUTE that you play by blowing into it wind-mill /ˈwɪndmɪl/ n. [C] a tall structure with parts that are turned by the wind, used to crush grain or make electricity win-dow /ˈwɪndəʊ/ n. [C] 1 a space or an area of glass in the wall of a building or vehicle, that lets in light: Can I open/close/shut the window? | He was looking/gazing out the window. | I could see her face in the window (=on the other side of the window). 2 IT one of the areas on a computer screen where different programs are operating [ORIGIN: 1200–1300 Old Norse vindauga, from vindr "wind" + auga "eye"]

'window dressing n. [U] 1 an attempt to make something seem better than it really is 2 the art of arranging things in a store window so that they look attractive to customers win-dow-pane /ˈwɪndəʊˌpeɪn/ n. [C] a whole piece of glass used in a window

W

'window shopping n. [U] the activity of looking at goods in store windows without intending to buy them win-dow-sill /'wɪndəʊsɪl/ n. [C] a shelf at the bottom of a window wind-pipe /'wɪndpaɪp/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the tube through which air passes from your throat to your lungs wind-shield /'wɪndʃɪld/ n. [C] the large window at the front of a vehicle

'windshield wiper n. [C] a long thin object that moves across a windshield to remove rain wind-surf-ing /'wɪnd,sɜːfɪŋ/ n. [U] the sport of sailing across water by standing on a special board and holding onto a large sail → see picture on page A4 wind-swept /'wɪndswɛpt/ adj. 1 a place that is windswept is often very windy and has few or no trees or buildings to protect it 2 made messy by the wind: windswept hair

wind-y /'wɪndi/ adj. if it is windy, there is a lot of wind: It's been windy all day. | a windy beach

wine¹ /waɪn/ n. [C,U] an alcoholic drink made from GRAPES, or a type of this drink: a glass of red/white wine | a fine selection of wines [ORIGIN: Old English win, from Latin vinum] wine² v. wine and dine to entertain someone with good food, wine, etc.

wine-glass /'waɪŋglæs/ n. [C] a tall glass with a thin stem, used for drinking wine win-er-y /'waɪnəri/ n. (plural wineries) [C] a place where wine is made and stored wing¹ /wɪŋ/ n. [C] 1 the part of a bird's or insect's body used for flying: The ducks started flapping their wings. → see picture on page A2 2 one of the large flat parts that stick out of the sides of an airplane and help it stay in the air → see picture at AIRPLANE 3 one of the parts that a large building is divided into: the east wing of the library 4 POLITICS a group of people within a political party or other organization who have a particular opinion or aim → LEFT-WING, RIGHT-WING: the liberal wing of the Democratic Party 5 take sb under your wing to help or protect someone younger or less experienced than you 6 waiting in the wings ready to be used, or ready to do something: At least two potential buyers are waiting in the wings. 7 the wings [plural] the side parts of a stage, where actors are hidden from people watching the play wing² v. wing it (informal) to do something without any planning or preparation: We'll just have to wing it.

winged /wɪŋd/ adj. having wings: winged insects wing-span /'wɪŋspæn/ n. [C] the distance from the end of one wing to the end of the other wing-tip /'wɪŋtɪp/ n. [C] 1 a type of man's shoe with a pattern of small holes on the toe 2 the end of an airplane's or bird's wing wink /wɪŋk/ v. [I] to close and open one eye quickly, usually to show that you are joking or being friendly: "Don't tell Mom," he said, winking at her. —wink n. [C]: He smiled and gave her a wink.

win-ner /'wɪnə/ n. [C] 1 someone who wins something: The winner will receive $5,000. | a Nobel Prize winner | the winner of the Boston Marathon 2 (informal) someone or something that is likely to be successful: His new movie looks like a winner.

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

win-ning /'wɪnɪŋ/ adj. 1 the winning person or thing is the one that wins a competition or game: the winning team | the winning run | I'm on a winning streak (=continuing to win). 2 winning smile/charm/personality etc. a feature you have that makes people like you

wipe out phr. v. 1 wipe sb/sth ↔ out to destroy or remove someone or something completely: Fires wiped out half of the city. 2 wipe sb ↔ out (informal) to make you feel extremely tired: All that running wiped me out. 3 (spoken) to fall or hit something when driving a car, riding a bicycle, etc. wipe sth ↔ up phr. v. to remove liquid from a surface using a cloth: Wipe up this mess!

wip-er /'waɪpə/ n. [C] a WINDSHIELD WIPER wire¹ /waɪə/ n. 1 [U] metal that is long and thin like thread: a wire fence 2 [C] a long thin piece of metal that is used to carry electricity: a telephone wire 3 [C] (old-fashioned) a TELEGRAM wire² v. [T] 1 also wire up to connect electrical wires so that a piece of equipment will work: I'm almost finished wiring up the alarm. 2 to fasten two or more things together using wire 3 to send money electronically 4 (old-fashioned) to send a TELEGRAM wire-less /'waɪə-lɪs/ adj. IT relating to a system of communication that does not use electrical or telephone wires: wireless Internet connections wire-tap /'waɪə,tæp/ v. (wiretapped, wiretapping) [I,T] to secretly listen to someone's telephone conversations by attaching electronic equipment to the wires of his/her telephone —wiretap n. [C] wiring /'waɪərɪŋ/ n. [U] the network of wires that form the electrical system in a building, vehicle, or piece of equipment: You need to replace the wiring.

wiry /'waɪəri/ adj. 1 someone who is wiry is thin but strong 2 wiry hair is stiff and curly wis-dom /'wɪzdəm/ n. [U] 1 good judgment and the ability to make wise decisions based on your knowledge and experience 2 question/doubt the wisdom of (doing) sth used to say that you think something is not sensible: Many experts question the wisdom of sending these men to prison.

'wisdom tooth n. [C] BIOLOGY one of the four large teeth at the back of your mouth that do not grow until you are an adult

wise¹ /waɪz/ adj. 1 based on good judgment and experience: It's wise to leave before the traffic gets too heavy. | a wise decision 2 a wise person makes good decisions and gives good advice because s/he has a lot of experience: a wise leader

THESAURUS intelligent, smart, bright, brilliant → INTELLIGENT

3 be none the wiser a) to not understand something even though it has been explained to you: They sent me on a training course, but I'm still none the wiser. b) used to say that no one will find out about something bad someone has done: He could have taken the money, and we would have been none the wiser. 4 price-wise/time-wise etc. (informal) used for saying which feature of a situation you are referring to: It would have been a problem transportation-wise. [ORIGIN: Old English wis] —wisely adv.

wise² v.

wise up phr. v. (informal) to realize the truth about a situation: Corporations should wise up and realize that employees aren't machines.

wise-crack /'waɪzkræk/ n. [C] (informal) a quick, funny, and often slightly unkind remark

THESAURUS joke, gag, one-liner, quip, witticism → JOKE¹

'wise guy n. [C] (informal) an annoying person who thinks that s/he knows more than s/he really does wish¹ /wɪʃ/ v. 1 [T] to want something to happen even though it is unlikely: I wish they'd hurry up! | I wish (that) I could remember his name. 2 [I,T] (formal) to want to do something: I wish to make a complaint. 3 [T] to say that you hope someone will be happy, successful, lucky, etc.: Wish me luck! 4 I/you wish! (spoken) said when you do not think something is true or possible, but you want it to be: "I'm going to get a role in his new movie." "Yeah, you wish!"

wish for sth phr. v. to want something to happen, or want to have something, especially when it seems unlikely: If you could have anything, what would you wish for? [ORIGIN: Old English wyscan]

wish² n. [C] 1 the act of wishing for something that you want, or the thing that you wish for: Close your eyes and make a wish! | Did you get your wish? 2 (formal) a desire for something: It's important to respect the wishes of the patient. | He left school against his parents' wishes (=his parents did not want him to leave school). | I had no wish to see him. 3 best wishes a friendly phrase that you write before your name in cards and letters wish-bone /'wɪʃboʊn/ n. [C] a Y-shaped chicken bone that two people pull apart in order to find out who will get his/her wish wishful 'thinking n. [U] a way of thinking that is based on what you want to happen rather than what is likely to happen wish-y-wash-y /'wɪʃi ,wɑʃi, -,wɔʃi/ adj. (informal, disapproving) a wishy-washy person does not have firm or clear ideas, and seems unable to decide what s/he wants wisp /wɪsp/ n. [C] 1 a small thin amount of hair, grass, etc.: A wisp of hair had escaped from under her hat. 2 a small thin line of smoke or cloud —wispy adj.

wist-ful /'wɪstfəl/ adj. slightly sad because you cannot have something you want: a wistful expression —wistfully adv.

wit /wɪt/ n. 1 [U] the ability to say things that are funny and smart 2 [C] someone who has this ability 3 wits [plural] your ability to think quickly and make the right decisions: Without a gun, he knew he'd have to rely on his wits. | Somehow, Austin kept his wits about him (=thought quickly and dealt with a difficult situation). 4 be at your wits' end to be upset because you have tried everything possible to solve a problem 5 scare sb out of his/her wits to frighten someone very much witch /wɪtʃ/ n. [C] a woman who has magic powers, especially to do bad things witch-craft /'wɪtʃkræft/ n. [U] the use of magic, usually to do bad things

W

THESAURUS magic, sorcery, black magic, the occult, voodoo → MAGIC¹

'witch doctor n. [C] a man who is believed to be able to cure sick people using magic, especially in some parts of Africa

'witch hunt n. [C] (disapproving) an attempt to find and punish people whose opinions, political beliefs, etc. are considered to be wrong or dangerous

with /wɪθ, wɪð/ prep. 1 used in order to show that two or more people or things are together in the same place: She went to the beach with her friends. | Put this bag with the others. | eggs mixed with milk | Make sure you take an umbrella with you. 2 having, possessing, or carrying something: a boy with a broken arm | Where's the dish with the blue pattern? 3 because of something, or as a result of something: Connie smiled with pride. | The room was bright with sunlight. 4 including: Your dinner comes with fries. 5 using something, or by means of something: Don't eat with your fingers! | What will you buy with the money? 6 used in order to say what covers or fills something: I prefer a pillow filled with feathers. | His hands were covered with blood. 7 relating to something: What's wrong with the radio? | Be careful with that glass. 8 supporting someone or sharing his/her opinion: I agree with you. | You're either with me or against me. 9 used to say who or what someone has a particular feeling toward: She's in love with you. 10 used to say which other person, group, or country is involved in an action or activity: He's always arguing with his son. | the war with Germany 11 used to say how someone does something, or how something happens: The fuel has to be handled with great care. 12 at the same rate as something else, and because of it: The wine will get better with age. 13 be with me/you (spoken) to understand what someone is saying: Are you with me? 14 employed by someone: Jack has been with the company for 25 years. 15 used to talk about the position of someone's body: He stood with his back to the wall.

with-draw /wɪθ'drɔ, wɪð-/ v. (past tense with-drew /-'dru/, past participle withdrawn /-'drɒn/) 1 [T] to take money out of a bank account: He withdrew $200 from his savings account. 2 [T] to stop giving support or money to someone or something: Congress threatened to withdraw support for the space project. 3 [I,T] to stop taking part in a competition, race, etc., or to leave an organization: She was withdrawn from Winston Academy. | The third candidate has withdrawn.

THESAURUS quit, give up, drop out → QUIT

4 [I,T] if soldiers withdraw from an area, they leave it: American troops were gradually withdrawn. 5 [T] if you withdraw a threat, request, proposal, etc., you say that you no longer intend to do what you said or no longer want what you asked for: We have withdrawn our offer to buy the company.

with-draw-al /wɪθ'drɔəl/ n. 1 [C,U] the action of taking money out of a bank account, or the amount you take out: I'd like to make a withdrawal, please. 2 [C,U] the action of moving an army, its weapons, etc. away from the area where it was fighting: Many people are calling for the withdrawal of troops. 3 [U] the action of not continuing to give something: Their leader was threatened with the withdrawal of U.S. aid. 4 [U] the act of no longer taking part in an activity or being a member of an organization: Hanson's withdrawal from the competition surprised everyone. 5 [U] the pain, bad feelings, etc. that someone suffers when s/he stops regularly taking a drug: Many people have withdrawal symptoms when they quit smoking.

with-drawn /wɪθ'drɒn/ adj. quiet, and not wanting to talk to people: As the years passed, he became increasingly withdrawn.

with-er /'wɪðə/ also wither away v. [I] 1 if a plant withers, its leaves become dry and it starts to die 2 to become weaker and then disappear: Our morale eventually withered away.

with-hold /wɪθ'hoʊld, wɪð-/ v. (past tense and past participle withheld /-'held/) [T] to refuse to give someone something: They said McShane had withheld information from Congress.

with-in /wɪ'dɪn, wɪ'θɪn/ adv., prep. 1 during the period of time mentioned, or before the period of time ends: The movie should start within the next five minutes. | Within a month of meeting him, I knew I was in love. 2 less than a certain distance from a particular place: We need a hotel within a mile of the airport. 3 inside an organization, society, or group of people: There have been a lot of changes within the department since I joined. 4 according to particular limits or rules: You must drive within the speed limit.

with-out /wɪ'daʊt, wɪ'θaʊt/ adv., prep. 1 not having a particular thing: I can't see anything without my glasses. | They went without food and water for two days. 2 not having someone with you: Why did you leave without me? | We can't finish this job without Jake. 3 not doing a particular thing: He left without saying goodbye. | Suddenly, without warning, Griffin turned and ran. 4 not showing a particular emotion: The mayor announced his resignation without bitterness.

with-stand /wɪθ'stænd, wɪð-/ v. (past tense and past participle withstood /-'stud/) [T] to not be harmed or affected by something: The buildings have withstood earthquakes since 1916.

wit-ness¹ /'wɪtnɪs/ n. [C] 1 someone who saw an accident or a crime: Unfortunately, there were no witnesses to the robbery. 2 LAW someone who describes in a court of law what s/he knows about a crime: He asked the witness how well she knew the defendant. | Michael was a crucial witness for the prosecution. 3 someone who watches another person sign an official document, and then signs it also to prove this witness² v. [T] 1 to see something happen, especially an accident or a crime: Few people actually witnessed the event.

THESAURUS see, notice, behold, observe → SEE

2 to watch someone sign an official document, and then sign it also to prove this witness stand n. [C] the place in a court of law where a witness answers questions wit-ti-cism /'wɪtɪˌsɪzəm/ n. [C] a smart and amusing remark

THESAURUS joke, gag, wisecrack, one-liner, quip, pun, funny story → JOKE¹

wit-ty /'wɪtɪ/ adj. (comparative wittier, superlative wittiest) smart and funny: a witty young man | a witty response

THESAURUS funny, amusing, humorous, comical → FUNNY¹ wives /waɪvz/ n. the plural of WIFE wiz-ard /'wɪzəd/ n. [C] 1 a man who has magic powers 2 also wiz /wɪz/ (informal) someone who is very good at doing something: a computer wizard wiz-ened /'wɪzənd/ adj. old and having dry skin with a lot of WRINKLES (=lines)

wk. the written abbreviation of WEEK

wob-ble /'wɒbəl/ v. [I] to move from side to side in an unsteady way —wobbly adj.: a wobbly chair —wobble n. [C]

THESAURUS shake, tremble, shiver, quiver → SHAKE¹

woe /wəʊ/ n. 1 woes [plural] (formal) problems that are affecting someone: the country's economic woes 2 [U] (literary) great sadness woe-be-gone /'wəʊbɪˌɡɒn, -ˌɡʌn/ adj. looking very sad woe-ful /'wəʊfəl/ adj. 1 very bad or serious: the woeiful state of the economy 2 (literary) very sad: a woeiful goodbye —woefully adv.: woefully inadequate facilities wok /wʌk/ n. [C] a large round pan, used especially in Chinese cooking woke /wəʊk/ v. the past tense of WAKE wok-ken /'wəʊkən/ v. the past participle of WAKE wolf /wʊlf/ n. (plural wolves /wʊlvz/) [C] a wild animal similar to a large dog wolf² also wolf down v. [T] (informal) to eat something very quickly: She wolfed down a couple of hamburgers.

wom-an /'wʊmən/ n. (plural women /'wɪmɪn/) 1 [C] an adult female person → MAN: Who was that woman you were talking to? | Ireland's first woman president | single women 2 [singular] women in general: It's not safe there for a woman traveling alone. [ORIGIN: Old English wifman, from wif "woman, wife" + man "person"]

wom-an-hood /'wʊmənˌhʊd/ n. [U] the state of being a woman, or the time when a female person is an adult → MANHOOD wom-an-iz-er /'wʊmənˌaɪzə/ n. [C] a man who tries to have sexual relationships with many different women wom-an-kind /'wʊmənˌkaɪnd/ n. [U] women considered together as a group womb /wʊm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the part of a female's body where her baby grows before it is born (SYN) uterus wom-en /'wɪmɪn/ n. the plural of WOMAN won /wʌn/ v. the past tense and past participle of WIN

won-der¹ /'wʌndə/ v. [I,T] 1 to think about something that you are not sure about, and try to guess what is true, what will happen, etc.: I wonder if she knows we're here. | I wonder how Wendy's feeling today. | We wondered where you'd gone. 2 I was wondering if/whether (spoken) a) used in order to ask someone if s/he would like to do something: We were wondering whether you'd like to come with us. b) used in order to politely ask for something: I was wondering if I could use your phone. 3 to doubt whether someone or something is good or true: I began to wonder about this business of his. 4 to be surprised by something: I wonder why she didn't call the police.

wonder² n. 1 [U] a feeling of admiration and surprise: They listened to Lisa's story in/with wonder. 2 no wonder (spoken) said when you are not surprised about something: No wonder you feel sick – you ate a whole pizza! 3 [C usually plural] something that is very impressive: the wonders of modern technology wonder³ adj. [only before noun] very good and effective: a new wonder drug won-der-ful /'wʌndəfəl/ adj. extremely good (SYN) great: Congratulations! That's wonderful news! | We had a wonderful time. —wonderfully adv.

THESAURUS good, excellent, outstanding, exceptional, superb → GOOD¹ nice, great, fantastic → NICE won't /wəʊnt/ v. the short form of "will not": Dad won't like it.

W

wont¹ /wɒnt, wəʊnt/ adj. be wont to do sth (formal) to be likely to do something wont² n. as is sb's wont (formal) used in order to say that it is someone's habit to do something woo /wu/ v. [T] 1 to try to persuade someone to do something such as support you, vote for you, or buy something from you: Politicians were busy wooing voters. 2 (old-fashioned) to try to persuade a woman to love you and marry you

wood /wud/ n. 1 [C,U] the material that trees are made of, which is used to make things: polished wood floors | The table was made from three different types of wood. 2 the woods [plural] a small forest: I went for a walk in the woods. → knock on wood at KNOCK¹ wood-chuck /'wʊdʃʌk/ n. [C] a GROUNDHOG

wood-ed /'wʊdɪd/ adj. covered with trees wood-en /'wʊdn/ adj. made from wood: a wooden bench → see picture at MATERIAL¹ wood-land /'wʊdlənd, -lənd/ n. [C,U] an area of land that is covered with trees wood-peck-er /'wʊd,pɛkə/ n. [C] a bird that uses its long beak to make holes in trees wood-wind /'wʊd,wɪnd/ n. [C usually plural] ENG. LANG. ARTS the group of musical instruments that you play by blowing and pressing KEYS wood-work /'wʊdwɜ:k/ n. [U] 1 the parts of a building that are made of wood 2 the skill of making wooden objects wood-y /'wʊdi/ adj. looking, smelling, tasting, etc. like wood: woody plants woof /wʊf/ interjection the sound a dog makes when it BARKS wool /wʊl/ n. [U] 1 the soft thick hair of a sheep, used for making cloth and YARN 2 material made from wool: a wool skirt | wool blankets → see picture at MATERIAL¹ wool-en /'wʊlən/ adj. made of wool: woolen socks wool-ens /'wʊlənz/ n. [plural] clothes that are made from wool wool-y /'wʊli/ adj. made of or feeling like wool: a wooly hat woo-zy /'wʊzi/ adj. (informal) feeling weak and unsteady (SYN) dizzy word¹ /wɜ:d/ n.

W

1 LANGUAGE PART [C] a group of sounds or letters that have a particular meaning: "Casa" is the Spanish word for "house." | Write a 500-word essay about your family. | I know the tune, but not the words.

2 STH SAID/WRITTEN [C] something that you say or write: Tell us what happened in your own words. | Promise you won't say a word (=not say anything) about the accident to John.

3 not believe/hear/understand a word used to emphasize that you do not believe or cannot hear any part of what someone is saying: I didn't understand a word you said.

4 STATEMENT [C] something important that someone says to you: Mr. Gleeson would like a word with you in his office. | Can I give you a word of caution/advice/encouragement etc. (=used when you want to warn someone not to do something, give them some advice, etc.)? | Mr. Martin will now say a few words (=make a short speech).

5 in other words used when you are repeating a statement in a clearer way: Some people aren't demonstrative. In other words, they don't express their feelings.

6 NEWS [singular, U] a piece of news or a message: The word is the company's closing its offices in Houston. | Have you had any word from your lawyers yet? | The group went on television to spread the word (=tell other people the news) about child abuse. | Many people learned about the band by word of mouth (=because someone told them about the band).

7 sb's word someone's promise or statement that something is true: I give you my word; we'll take good care of him. | I trust him to keep his word. | The money's all there — take my word for it (=believe what I say is true). | He's a man of his word (=does what he promises to do).

8 swear/dirty/cuss word a word that is considered to be offensive or shocking by most people

9 word for word in exactly the same words: That's not what he said word for word, but it's close.

10 put in a good word for sb to try to help someone get or achieve something by saying good things about him/her to someone else: Could you put in a good word for me with your boss?

11 the last word the last statement in a discussion or argument: She's not content unless she has the last word.

12 not in so many words not in a direct way: "So Dad said he'd pay for it?" "Not in so many words."

13 give/say the word to tell someone to start doing something: Don't move until I give the word.

14 the final word the power to decide whether or how to do something: My boss has the final word on hiring staff.

word² v. [T] to use words that are carefully chosen when saying or writing something: a carefully worded letter

'word ,family n. [C] ENG. LANG. ARTS a group of related words that are all formed from the same base word. For example, the word family of the word "final" includes "finally," "finalist," and "finality."

word-ing /'wɜːdɪŋ/ n. [U] the words and phrases used in order to express something: the exact word-ing of the contract

'word ,processor n. [C] a small computer or computer software that you use for writing —word processing n. [U] word-y /'wɜːdi/ adj. (disapproving) using too many words: a wordy explanation work /wɜːk/ v. the past tense of WEAR work¹ /wɜːk/ v.

1 DO A JOB [I,T] to do a job in order to earn money, or to do the activities and duties that are part of your job: "Where do you work?" "I work in the city." | Heidi works for a law firm in Montreal. | I used to work at Burger King. | She works as a bartender in a nightclub. | He's working with children who have learning difficulties. | Are you willing to work nights/weekends etc.?

TOPIC

If you work for a company or organization, you are an employee.

The person or organization you work for is your employer.

Your employer pays your salary or wages.

An organization's staff are all the people who work for the organization.

Your colleagues or co-workers are the people you work with.

When you reach the age to stop working permanently, you retire. → JOB

2 MACHINE/EQUIPMENT a) [I] if a machine or piece of equipment works, it does what it is supposed to do: The CD player isn't working. b) [T] to make a machine or piece of equipment do what it is supposed to do: Does anyone know how to work the printer?

3 BE EFFECTIVE [I] to be effective or successful: This plan isn't going to work. | I hope this cough medicine works.

4 DO AN ACTIVITY [I] to do something that needs effort in order to achieve a result: He's working toward a better life for his family. | She's been working hard to get the house ready.

5 work your way through/to etc. sth a) to move somewhere slowly and with difficulty: He worked his way through the crowd. b) to achieve something gradually by working: Dave worked his way to the top of the firm.

6 work your way through school/college to do a job while you are in college because you need the money to help pay for it

7 HAVE AN EFFECT [I] to have a particular effect on someone or something: Unfortunately, her bad grades worked against (=caused problems for)

her. | Your job experience should work in your favor (=help you).

8 MOVE SLOWLY [I,T] to move into a position slowly with many small movements, or to move something in this way: Slowly, he worked the screwdriver into the crack.

9 SHAPE STH [T] if you work a material such as clay, leather, or metal, you bend it, shape it, etc. in order to make something

10 EXERCISE [T] to exercise a muscle or part of your body

11 LAND [T] if you work the land or the soil, you try to grow crops on it [ORIGIN: Old English wyrcan] work on phr. v.

1 work on sth to try to repair, complete, or improve something: Dad's still working on the car. | I need to work on my essay.

2 work on sb to try continuously to influence someone, or persuade him/her to do something work out phr. v.

1 if something works out, it gradually stops being a problem: Don't worry. I'm sure everything will work out fine.

2 to do a set of exercises that make you stronger: Sue works out in the gym twice a week.

3 work sth ↔ out to calculate an amount, price, or value: Have you worked out how much we owe them?

4 to cost a particular amount: The hotel works out to/at about $50 a night.

5 work sth ↔ out to find a solution to a problem, or make a decision after thinking carefully: He still hasn't worked out which college he's going to.

work up phr. v.

work up an appetite/a sweat to do so much exercise that you become very hungry or SWEATY work up to sth phr. v.

to gradually prepare yourself for something difficult: I started with 10 laps and now I've worked up to 20.

work² n. 1 [U] your job or the activities that you do regularly to earn money: Much of our work involves meeting clients. | Do you want to go to dinner after work (=after you have finished working)? | Hurry up, or we'll be late for work. | I've been out of work (=without a job) for a year. | Rob's still looking for work. ▶ Don't say "I have a work." Say "I have a job." ◀

THESAURUS

job, occupation, profession, career → JOB

2 [U] the place where you do your job: I'll see you at work on Monday. 3 [U] physical or mental activity and effort: Looking after children can be hard work. | Stop talking and get to work (=start working)! | They've done a lot of work on their house. 4 [U] the things you produce for your job, as part of a class, etc.: We're pleased with your work. | an excellent piece of work 5 [C] a painting, book, play, piece of music, etc.: great works of art 6 at work doing a job or an activity: Crews were at work repairing the roads. 7 have your work cut out (for you) (informal) used to say that it will be very difficult to do something 8 work clothes clothes designed for people to work in 9 the (whole) works (spoken) everything that is available with something you are buying: a hamburger with the works (=with onions, cheese, etc.) 10 works [plural] a building where goods are produced or an industrial process takes place: a gas works 11 [U] PHYSICS the movement of energy into an object, measured as the amount of force placed on an object multiplied by the distance the object moves → do sb's dirty work at DIRTY¹ work-a-ble /'wɜ:kəbəl/ adj. a workable plan or system can be used or done effectively: a workable solution work-a-hol-ic /,wɜ:kə'hɒlɪk/ n. [C] (informal) someone who spends all his/her time working work-bench /'wɜ:kbeɪntʃ/ n. [C] a strong table used for working on things with tools work-book /'wɜ:kbu:k/ n. [C] a school book with questions and exercises in it worked 'up adj. (informal) very upset or excited about something: Don't get so worked up about your daughter.

W

work-er /'wɜ:kə/ n. [C] 1 someone who works for a company or organization, especially someone who is not a manager: Fifty workers lost their jobs. | a farm worker 2 someone who works in a particular way: Lisa's a good/hard/slow etc. worker.

workers' compen'sation also workers' 'comp n. [U] money that a company must pay to a worker who is injured or becomes sick as a result of his/her job work-fare /'wɜ:kfə/ n. [U] a system under which unemployed people must work before they are given money by the government work-force /'wɜ:kfɔ:s/ n. [singular] all the people who work in a particular country, industry, or company: There are still more men than women in the workforce.

W

work-ing /'wɜ:kɪŋ/ adj. [only before noun] 1 having a job: a working mother 2 relating to work: bad working conditions 3 in working order working correctly and not broken: My watch is still in good working order. 4 a working knowledge of sth enough practical knowledge about something to use it effectively working 'class n. the working class SOCIAL SCIENCE the group of people in society who usually do physical work and who do not have much money or power → LOWER CLASS, MIDDLE CLASS, UPPER CLASS —working-class adj.: a working-class neighborhood work-ings /'wɜ:kɪŋz/ n. [plural] the way something works: The article explains the workings of government departments.

work-load /'wɜ:klaʊd/ n. [C] the amount of work that a person is expected to do: a heavy workload (=a lot of work) work-man /'wɜ:kməɪn/ n. (plural workmen) [C] someone who does physical work such as building or repairing things work-man-like /'wɜ:kməɪnlaɪk/ adj. skillfully and carefully done, but often in an uninteresting way: a workmanlike performance work-man-ship /'wɜ:kməɪnʃɪp/ n. [U] the skill with which something has been made work-out /'wɜ:k-aʊt/ n. [C] a series of physical exercises that you do to keep your body strong and healthy: I started my workout with some stretching exercises. → EXERCISE² work-sheet /'wɜ:kʃi:t/ n. [C] a piece of paper with questions, exercises, etc. for students work-shop /'wɜ:kʃɒp/ n. [C] 1 a room or building where people use tools and machines to make or repair things 2 a meeting at which people try to improve their skills by discussing their experiences and doing practical exercises: a writing workshop work-sta-tion /'wɜ:k,steɪʃən/ n. [C] the part of an office where you work, including your desk, computer, etc.

world /wɜ:ld/ n.

1 the world the PLANET we live on, and all the people, countries, etc. on it (SYN Earth: the world's longest river | Athletes from all over the world/around the world compete in the Olympics. | The practice is illegal in many parts of the world. → EARTH

2 SOCIETY [singular] our society, and the way that people live and behave: I want a better world for my kids. | In an ideal world, you and your sister would get along.

3 AREA OF ACTIVITY/WORK [C usually singular] a particular area of activity or work, and the people who are involved in it: the world of sports | the music world

4 COUNTRIES [singular] a particular group of countries: the Western world | the industrialized world

5 DIFFERENCE/CHANGE [C] used to emphasize that a difference or change is very great: There's a world of difference between his public and private life. | We're worlds apart.

6 SB'S LIFE [C] the life and experiences of a particular person or group of people: He lives in a world of his own. | The book explores the writer Hemingway's world.

7 in the world used in order to emphasize what you are saying: You're the best dad in the world. | Why in the world should I listen to you?

8 the animal/plant/insect world animals, etc. considered as a group

9 ANOTHER WORLD [C] another PLANET that is not the Earth: a science fiction novel set on a world light years away from Earth

10 have the best of both worlds to have the advantages of two completely different things

11 out of this world (informal) very good: Their ice cream is out of this world!

12 do sb a world of good (informal) to make someone feel much better: A vacation would do you a world of good.

13 be/feel on top of the world (informal) to feel extremely happy

14 mean the world to sb/think the world of sb if someone or something means the world to you, or if you think the world of him/her, you love or respect him/her very much [ORIGIN: Old English woruld "human existence, this world, age"] → the outside world at OUTSIDE² world-class adj. among the best in the world: a world-class athlete world-famous adj. known about by people all over the world: a world-famous musician world-ly /'wɜːldli/ adj. 1 sb's worldly goods/possessions everything someone owns 2 knowing a lot about people and society, based on experience: worldly young men world power n. [C] a powerful country that has a lot of influence in many parts of the world

world record n. [C] the fastest time, longest distance, highest level, etc. that anyone has ever achieved anywhere in the world, especially in a sport: He set a new world record for the marathon. | the 800-meter world record holder —world-record adj.

World Series n. the World Series the last series of baseball games that is played each year in order to decide the best professional team in the U.S. and Canada world-wide /ˌwɜːldˈwaɪd/ adj. everywhere in the world: worldwide fame → EVERYWHERE —worldwide adv.

World Wide Web (abbreviation WWW) n. the World Wide Web IT the system that connects computers around the world together so that people can use and find information on the Internet (SYN) the Web worm¹ /wɜːm/ n. [C] 1 a small tube-shaped creature with a soft body and no legs that lives in the ground 2 IT a type of computer VIRUS that can make copies of itself and destroy information on computers that are connected to each other [ORIGIN: Old English wyrm "snake, worm"] → a (whole) can of worms at CAN²

worm² v. worm your way into/through etc. sth to move slowly through or into a small place or a crowd: My daughter wormed her way into my sleeping bag.

worn¹ /wɔːn/ v. the past participle of WEAR worn² adj. a worn object is old and slightly damaged because it has been used a lot: worn stone steps worn out, worn-out adj. 1 very tired because you have been working or playing hard

THESAURUS tired, exhausted, beat, fatigued → TIRED

2 too old or damaged to be used: a pair of worn-out sneakers

wor-ried /'wɜːɪd, 'wʌɪd/ adj. unhappy or nervous because you are worrying about someone or something: We were really worried about you! | I got worried when you didn't call. | People are worried that they may lose their jobs.

THESAURUS

anxious – very worried and unable to relax: She was getting anxious about the children.

concerned – worried about a social problem, or about someone's health, safety, etc.: Many scientists are concerned about global warming.

nervous – worried or frightened about something, and unable to relax: I get really nervous about exams.

uneasy – worried because you think something bad might happen: I felt uneasy leaving the kids with him.

stressed (out) – so worried that you cannot relax: I'm getting totally stressed out about work.

tense – feeling nervous and worried because something bad might happen: All the guys were tense, clutching their rifles.

apprehensive (formal) – worried about something that you are going to do, or about the future: The girls were apprehensive before the game, knowing that Illinois was a tough opponent.

wor-ry¹ /'wɜːɪ, 'wʌɪ/ v. (worried, worries) 1 [I] to think about someone or something a lot, because you feel nervous or unhappy about him, her, or it: I worry about Dave. | She worried that she would get pregnant. | Parents worry about/over their children's safety. 2 don't worry (spoken) a) said when you are trying to make someone feel less anxious: Don't worry, we're fine. b) used in order to tell someone that s/he does not have to do something: Don't worry about the kids – I'll take them to school. 3 [T] to make someone feel nervous, unhappy, or upset: It worries me that she hasn't called yet. [ORIGIN: Old English wyrgan "to strangle"]

worry² n. (plural worries) 1 [C] a problem or bad situation that makes you unhappy because you do not know how to solve it: financial worries 2 [U] the feeling of being anxious about something: Her father was frantic with worry.

wor-ry-ing /'wɜːɪŋ, 'wʌɪ-/ adj. making you feel worried: a worrying development

worse¹ /wɜːs/ adj. [the comparative of "bad"] 1 not as good as, less pleasant than, or more severe than someone or something else: Traffic always gets worse after 4:30. | The accident could have been much/far worse. | Don't go see her; it will only make matters/things worse. 2 more sick than before, or in a condition that is not as good: Do you feel any worse? | His hearing has gotten worse. | He seemed none the worse for his ordeal. 3 go from bad to worse to continue getting worse: Things went from bad to worse and finally we got divorced.

worse² adv. 1 in a more severe or serious way than before: It hurt worse than anything. 2 not as well, or less successfully: Margo sings even worse than I do!

W

worse³ n. [U] something worse: Critics are wrong to say the changes are for the worse (=make things worse).

wors-en /'wɜːsən/ v. [I,T] to become worse, or to make something become worse: The weather had worsened.

worse 'off adj. poorer, less successful, or having fewer advantages than you did before: There are a lot of people worse off than I am.

wor-ship /'wɜːʃɪp/ v. (past tense and past participle worshipped or worshipped, present participle worshipping or worshipping) 1 [I,T] to show respect and love for a god, especially by praying in a church, TEMPLE, etc.: People have worshipped in this church for hundreds of years. 2 [T] to love and admire someone very much: She worships her grandpa. —worship n. [U]: a house of worship (=a church or building where people can pray) —worshiper, worshipper n. [C]

THESAURUS

admire, respect, look up to sb, idolize, revere → ADMIRE

worst¹ /wɜːst/ adj. [the superlative of "bad"] worse than anything else of the same type: It was the worst movie I've ever seen. | the worst snowstorm in years

worst² n. 1 the worst someone or something that is worse than all others: This is the worst I've ever done on a test. | The worst of the storm seemed to be over. | What's the worst that can happen? 2 at worst if a thing or situation is as bad as it can be: At worst, the repairs will cost you around $700. 3 if (the) worst comes to (the) worst if the worst possible thing happens: If worst comes to worst, we'll have to sell the house.

W

worst³ adv. 1 in the worst way, or most severely: Their city was worst affected by the war. 2 worst of all used to say what the worst feature of someone or something is: He is mean, selfish and, worst of all, lazy.

worth¹ /wɜːθ/ adj. 1 be worth sth to have a particular value, especially in money: Our house is worth about $350,000. | Each question is worth 4 points. 2 be worth (doing) sth to be helpful, valuable, interesting, or good for you: The Getty Museum is definitely worth a visit/worth visiting. | It was a lot of hard work, but it was worth it. | Stop crying over him. He's not worth it. | It is worth pausing to examine this more closely. | It's worth a try (=you might get what you want if you try doing something). 3 worth your while valuable to you because you could gain something you want or need: It'd be worth your while to talk to someone who works there.

worth² n. 1 ...worth of sth an amount of something based on how much money you spend, how much time you use, etc.: 20 dollars' worth of gas | a year's worth of training 2 [U] the worth of someone or something is how important or useful he, she, or it is: children who have a sense of their own worth | The new computer system has already proved its worth. 3 [U] the worth of something is its value in money: It is difficult to estimate the current worth of the company.

worth-less /'wɜːθlɪs/ adj. 1 not valuable, not important, or not useful: The data was worthless. 2 a worthless person has no good qualities or useful skills worth-while /'wɜːθ'waɪl/ adj. if something is worthwhile, it is important or useful, or you gain something from it: All that work finally seemed worthwhile.

wor-thy /'wɜːði/ adj. 1 good enough to deserve respect, admiration, or attention: a worthy opponent | worthy achievements 2 be worthy of sth (formal) to deserve something: We need a leader who is worthy of respect.

would /wəd, əd, d; strong wud/ modal verb 1 used as a past tense of "will" when reporting what someone has said or thought: Mr. Thomas said it would be okay to go. | She told me she wouldn't (=would not) come. 2 used when talking about a possible situation or about a situation that does not exist: Dad would be really mad if he knew. | I'd (=I would) help you if I could. | If you had listened to me, you wouldn't have gotten in trouble. 3 used in order to say what you intended to do or expected to happen: I thought Caroline would be happy, but she got really mad at me. | Glenn knew he'd (=he would) be tired the next day. 4 used in order to say that something happened regularly in the past: In the evenings, we'd (=we would) read or play games. 5 would not/ wouldn't used in order to say that someone refused to do something or that something did not happen even though you tried to make it happen: Blair would not answer the question. | The door wouldn't open.

SPOKEN PHRASES

6 would like/would love used in order to say that you want something: I would love to see your new house! 7 Would you...? said in order to ask for or offer something politely: Would you bring me that broom? | Would you like a drink? | Would you mind waiting until tomorrow? 8 I would/I wouldn't used in order to give advice: I'd (=I would) try to get there early. | I wouldn't go by myself, if I were you. 9 used before verbs that express what you think, when you want to make an opinion less definite: I would guess that he'd bring a friend. | I would have thought you'd be tired. 10 would sooner/would (just) as soon used when you are saying what you would prefer to happen or be done: I'd just as soon stay in and watch TV. | We would just as soon you didn't tell her. 11 would rather said when you prefer doing or having one thing instead of another: I would rather take a nice vacation than spend a lot on clothes. 12 would in order to show you are annoyed about something that someone has done: You would go and tell the teacher!

would-be adj. would-be actor/robber etc. someone who hopes to have a particular job or intends to do a particular thing would-n't /'wʊdnt/ v. the short form of "would not": She wouldn't answer.

would've /'wʊdəv/ v. the short form of "would have": You would've liked it.

wound¹ /wʊnd/ n. [C] 1 an injury, especially a deep cut made in your skin by a knife or bullet: gunshot wounds | Keston suffered/received severe wounds in the attack.

THESAURUS injury, bruise, contusion, cut, laceration, scrape → INJURY

2 damage, problems, or emotional pain caused by something bad happening: It will take more than an apology to heal the wounds.

wound² v. [T] 1 to injure someone, especially with a knife or gun: Two officers were badly/seriously/severely wounded.

THESAURUS hurt, injure, maim → HURT¹

2 to make someone feel unhappy or upset: She was deeply wounded by the criticism. —wounded adj.

wound³ /waʊnd/ v. the past tense and past participle of WIND wound up /waʊnd 'ʌp/ adj. very angry, nervous, or excited: He got so wound up he couldn't sleep.

wove /wʊv/ v. the past tense of WEAVE wo-ven /'wʊvən/ v. the past participle of WEAVE wow¹ /waʊ/ interjection said when you think something is impressive or surprising: Wow! You look great!

wow² v. [T] (informal) to make people admire you a lot: The movie has wowed the critics.

wpm /ˌdʌbəlju pi 'em/ words per minute used to describe the speed at which someone can write using a KEYBOARD wran-gle /'ræŋɡəl/ v. [I] to argue with someone angrily for a long time: Congress is still wrangling over Social Security. —wrangle n. [C] wran-gler /'ræŋɡlə/ n. [C] (informal) a COWBOY

wrap¹ /ræp/ v. (wrapped, wrapping) [T] 1 to fold cloth, paper, etc. around something, especially in order to cover it: I haven't wrapped her present yet. | Here, wrap this blanket around you. 2 to hold someone or something by putting your arms, legs, or fingers around him, her, or it: I wrapped my arms around my daughter. → HUG¹ 3 have sb wrapped around your (little) finger to be able to persuade someone to do whatever you want wrap sth ↔ up phr. v. 1 to completely cover something by folding paper, cloth, etc. around it: My sandwiches were wrapped up in foil. 2 to finish or complete a job, meeting, etc.: Investigators hope to wrap up the case soon. 3 be wrapped up in your children/work etc. to give so much attention to your children, work, etc. that you do not have time for other things wrap² n. 1 [U] thin clear soft plastic that you wrap around something to protect it or keep it clean: Cover the food with plastic wrap. 2 [C] a SANDWICH made of a TORTILLA folded around meat, cheese, etc. 3 [C] (old-fashioned) a SHAWL wrap-per /'ræpə/ n. [C] the paper or plastic that covers a piece of food, especially candy: gum wrappers → COVER² wrapping paper n. [C,U] colored paper used for wrapping presents wrath /ræθ/ n. [U] (formal) very great anger wreak /rik/ v. (literary) wreak havoc to cause a lot of damage, problems, or suffering wreath /riθ/ n. [C] a decoration made from flowers and leaves arranged in a circle wreck¹ /ræk/ v. [T] (informal) 1 to completely spoil something so that it cannot continue in a successful way: His drinking problem wrecked their marriage. 2 to damage something, such as a car or building, so badly that it cannot be repaired wreck² n. [C] 1 a bad accident involving cars or airplanes: Only one person survived the wreck.

THESAURUS accident, crash, collision, pile-up → ACCIDENT

2 a car, airplane, or ship that is so damaged it cannot be repaired 3 (informal) someone who is very nervous, tired, or unhealthy: I was a wreck, physically and emotionally. 4 (informal) something that is very messy and needs a lot of repairs: The house was a wreck when we bought it.

wreck-age /'rɛkɪdʒ/ n. [U] the broken parts of a car, airplane, or building that has been destroyed in an accident: the wreckage of the plane wren /ren/ n. [C] a very small brown bird that sings wrench¹ /rentʃ/ v. [T] 1 to twist and pull something from its position using force: Prisoners had even wrenched doors off their hinges. 2 to injure part of your body by twisting it suddenly: Sam wrenched his back.

wrench² n. [C] 1 a metal tool with a round end, used for turning NUTS 2 be a wrench an experience that is a wrench is difficult, and involves strong emotions: It was a wrench to leave San Diego.

wrench-ing /'rentʃɪŋ/ adj. extremely difficult to deal with, and involving strong emotions: a wrenching choice | a gut-wrenching/heart-wrenching story (=one that makes you feel strong emotions) wrest /rest/ v. (formal) wrest sth from sb a) to take away someone's power or influence b) to violently pull something away from someone wres-tle /'resəl/ v. 1 [I,T] to fight by holding onto someone and trying to push or pull him/her down 2 [I] to try to deal with a difficult problem or emotion: Several cities are wrestling with budget deficits.

W

wres-ting /ˈresɪŋ/ n. [U] a sport in which you try to throw your opponent to the ground and hold him/her there —wrestler /ˈreslə/ n. [C] wretch /retʃ/ n. [C] (literary) someone whom you pity wretch-ed /ˈretʃɪd/ adj. extremely unhappy, especially because you are lonely, sick, poor, etc.

wrig-gle /ˈrɪɡəl/ v. [I,T] to twist from side to side with small quick movements, or to move part of your body this way: A small child sat wriggling in her lap. —wriggle n. [C] wring /rɪŋ/ v. (past tense and past participle wrung /rʌŋ/) [T] 1 also wring out to tightly twist wet clothes, sheets, etc. in order to remove water from them 2 to succeed in getting something from someone, after a lot of effort: The company is trying to wring more work from its employees. 3 wring your hands to rub and press your hands together because you are nervous or upset 4 wring sth's neck to kill an animal or bird, such as a chicken, by twisting its neck wring-er /ˈrɪŋə/ n. 1 go through the wringer (informal) to have an unpleasant or difficult experience 2 [C] a machine used especially in past times for pressing water out of washed clothes wrin-kle ¹ /ˈrɪŋkəl/ n. [C] 1 a line on your face or skin, that you get when you are old 2 a line in cloth, paper, etc. caused by crushing it or accidentally folding it: wrinkles in his shirt

W

wrinkle ² v. [I,T] to form small folds in something such as clothes or skin, or to be shaped in these folds: Linen wrinkles easily. | Patty wrinkled her nose in disgust. —wrinkled adj.: his wrinkled face wrist /rɪst/ n. [C] the joint between your hand and your arm: She had a silver bracelet on her wrist. → see picture at HAND¹ wrist-watch /ˈrɪst-watʃ/ n. [C] a watch that you wear on your wrist writ /rɪt/ n. [C] LAW a legal document that orders someone to do something or not to do something write /raɪt/ v. (past tense wrote /rout/, past participle written /ˈrɪtɪn/) 1 a [I,T] to produce a new book, story, article, etc.: Bombeck wrote about family life in a funny way. | a poem written by Walt Whitman b [I] to earn money by writing books, plays, articles, etc.: He writes for "The Chronicle." 2 [I,T] to write a letter to someone: Have you written to Mom yet? | I wrote her last week. | He finally wrote me a letter. 3 [I,T] to form words, letters, or numbers with a pen or pencil: In kindergarten, kids start learning to write. | Please write your name on the form.

THESAURUS

make a note (of sth) – to write down information that you might need later jot sth down – to write something very quickly scribble sth – to write something very quickly and in a messy way take/get sth down – to write down what someone is saying fill sth out/in – to write information about yourself on a form or other official document sign sth – to write your signature (=name) at the end of a letter, document, etc.

key sth in/type sth in/enter sth – to write or record information on a computer compose (formal) – to write a letter, poem, etc., thinking very carefully about it as you write it pen (literary) – to write a letter, note, etc. with a pen inscribe (formal) – to write words on something hard, usually by cutting them into the surface of something such as a stone or coin → READ

4 IT to record information in the memory of a computer, on a DISK, etc. [ORIGIN: Old English writan “to scratch, draw, write”] write (sb) back phr. v. to reply to someone's letter by writing a letter and sending it to him/her: Write back soon!

write sth ↔ down phr. v. to write something on a piece of paper: I wrote down her phone number.

write in phr. v. 1 to write a letter to an organization in order to complain, ask for information, or give an opinion 2 write sb ↔ in to add someone's name to your BALLOT in order to vote for him/her write off phr. v. 1 write sb ↔ off to decide that someone or something is useless, unimportant, or a failure: Casey had been written off as a “problem student.” 2 write sth ↔ off to decide that a debt will never be paid to you, and officially accept it as a loss write sth ↔ out phr. v. to write all the information that is needed for a list, report, check, etc.: Gina wrote out a check for $820.

write sth ↔ up phr. v. to write something such as a report, article, etc., based on notes you made earlier: Doug is writing up the results of his research.

'write-in n. [C] POLITICS a vote that you give someone who is not on the BALLOT by writing his/her name on it

'write-off n. [C] an official agreement that someone does not have to pay a debt writ-er /ˈraɪtə/ n. [C] someone who writes books, stories, etc. in order to earn money → AUTHOR: a writer of children's books | a speech writer

'write-up n. [C] an opinion about a new book, play, product, etc., that appears in a magazine or newspaper writhe /raɪð/ v. [I] to twist your body because you are suffering pain: A soldier was writhing in pain/agony.

writ-ing /'raɪtɪŋ/ n. 1 [U] words that are written or printed: She was wearing a T-shirt with Japanese writing on the back. 2 [U] the particular way someone writes with a pen or pencil (SYN) hand-writing: her neat writing 3 in writing a promise, agreement, etc. that is in writing has been written down, which proves that it is official 4 [U] the activity or job of writing books, stories, etc.: creative writing | The children were working on a piece of writing. 5 [U] books, stories, and poems in general: European writing from the 1930s 6 writings [plural] the books, stories, poems, etc. that a particular person writes: Mark Twain's writings writ-ten /'rɪtɪn/ v. the past participle of WRITE

wrong¹ /rɒŋ/ adj. 1 not correct, not the one you intended, or not the one you should use (ANT) right: You're wrong – I was there and I know. | I bought the wrong size. | I got question 4 wrong. | You must have dialed the wrong number (=not the telephone number you wanted).

THESAURUS

incorrect – used about facts, answers, etc. that are completely wrong erroneous (formal) – not correct: The information we received was erroneous.
inaccurate – used about information, a number, etc. that is not exactly right: The sales figures were inaccurate.
misleading – used about a statement or piece of information that makes people believe something that is wrong: He admitted making a false and misleading statement to Congress. | misleading advertising false – used about facts that are untrue and wrong: He used false financial statements to defraud investors.
fallacious (formal) – containing or based on false ideas: a fallacious statement be mistaken (formal) – used about a person whose opinion about something is wrong: No, I've never been there. You must be mistaken.
 → RIGHT¹

2 not morally right or acceptable (SYN) bad (ANT) right: He didn't do anything wrong! | What's wrong with making a profit? → BAD¹ 3 not suitable (ANT) right: It was the wrong time to make such a big decision. | I think they're wrong for each other. 4 used in order to describe a situation where there are problems, or when someone is sick or unhappy: Ed noticed that there was something wrong, as his son's grades started slipping. | What's wrong, Jenny? | What's wrong with your shoulder? 5 if something is wrong with a vehicle or machine, it is not working correctly: What's wrong with the phone? 6 be in the wrong place at the wrong time to become involved in a bad situation without intending to 7 the wrong side of the tracks (informal) a poor part of a town or a poor part of society: The story is about a boy growing up on the wrong side of the tracks. [ORIGIN: 1100–1200 Old Norse rangr 'not correct or as planned']

wrong² adv. 1 not done in the correct way (ANT) right: You spelled my name wrong. 2 go wrong to develop problems and stop being good, successful, useful, etc.: Everything went wrong yesterday. | Something has gone wrong with the car. 3 get sth wrong to make a mistake in the way you remember or understand something: I got the answer wrong. | Don't get me wrong – I like Benny. | I just don't like what he's doing.

wrong³ n. 1 [U] behavior that is not morally correct: Parents teach their children the difference between right and wrong. 2 [C] an action, decision, situation, etc. that is not fair: We want a chance to right the wrongs they have suffered (=have a fair solution to an unfair situation). 3 be in the wrong to make a mistake, or deserve the blame for something 4 sb can do no wrong used in order to say that someone seems to be perfect wrong⁴ v. [T] (formal) to treat someone unfairly or judge him/her unfairly: They believe that they have been wronged.

wrong-do-ing /'rɒŋ,duɪŋ/ n. [C,U] (formal) illegal actions or immoral behavior —wrongdoer n. [C] wrong-ful /'rɒŋfəl/ adj. unfair or illegal: a wrongful death suit —wrongfully adv.

wrong-ly /'rɒŋli/ adv. not correctly, or in a way that is unfair or immoral: He was wrongly accused of fighting.

wrote /root/ v. the past tense of WRITE wrought 'iron n. [U] long thin pieces of iron formed into shapes: a wrought iron gate wrung /rʌŋ/ v. the past tense and past participle of WRING wry /raɪ/ adj. showing in a humorous way that you are not pleased by something: a wry smile

WV the written abbreviation of WEST VIRGINIA

WWW n. IT the written abbreviation of the WORLD WIDE WEB

WY the written abbreviation of WYOMING

WYSIWYG /'wɪzi,wɪg/ n. [U] what you see is what you get IT a way of showing information, a document, etc. on a computer screen in the way that it will look when it is printed

W

Xx

X, x /ɛks/ 1 the 24th letter of the English alphabet 2 the number 10 in the system of ROMAN NUMERALS 3 a mark used to show a kiss: Love, Grandma XXX

x /ɛks/ MATH a sign used in mathematics, representing a number or quantity that is not known but can be calculated: If $3x = 6$, then $x = 2$.

x-axis /'ɛks ˌæksɪs/ n. [C] MATH the line that goes from left to right of a GRAPH → Y-AXIS

X-chro-mo-some /'ɛks ˌkroʊməˌsoʊm, -ˌzoʊm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a type of CHROMOSOME that exists in pairs in female cells, and with a Y-CHROMOSOME in male cells

x-co-or-di-nate /'ɛks kooˌɔrdn-ɪt/ n. [C] MATH the position of a point in relation to the x-axis of a GRAPH → Y-COORDINATE xen-o-pho-bi-a /ˌzɛnəˈfoʊbiə/ n. [U] an extreme fear or dislike of people from other countries [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 Greek xenos “strange” + phobos “fear”] → xenophobe /ˌzɛnəˈfoʊb/ n. [C]

x-in-ter-cept /'ɛks ˌɪntəsept/ n. [singular] MATH the point where a line crosses the X-AXIS of a GRAPH → Y-INTERCEPT

XL extra large used on clothes to show that a piece of clothing is very big

X-mas /'krɪsməs, 'ɛksməs/ n. [C,U] (informal) a written form of the word Christmas

XML n. [U] IT Extensible Markup Language a computer language that allows you to write documents in a structure that can be read on different computer systems → HTML, SGML

Y

X-ray /'ɛks reɪ/ n. [C] 1 PHYSICS a beam of RADIATION that can go through solid objects and is used for taking photographs of the inside of the body 2 an X-ray photograph taken by doctors in order to search for broken bones, injuries, etc. inside someone's body: The X-ray showed that her leg was not broken.

X-ray² v. (X-rayed, X-rays, X-raying) [T] to photograph part of someone's body using X-rays

'X-ray telescope n. [C] PHYSICS a special TELESCOPE that can see the X-rays sent out from distant objects in space, such as stars or BLACK HOLES

xy-lem /'xaɪləm/ n. [singular, U] BIOLOGY in a plant stem, the woody structure that carries water up from the roots to the other parts of the plant xy-lo-phone /'zaɪləˌfoʊn/ n. [C] a musical instrument with flat metal BARS, that you play by hitting them with a stick

Yy

Y, y /waɪ/ the 25th letter of the English alphabet yacht /yɑt/ n. [C] a large expensive boat used for sailing, racing, and traveling for pleasure [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Early modern Dutch jaght, from Middle Low German jachtschiff “hunting ship”] → see picture at TRANSPORTATION

yak¹ /yæk/ n. [C] a long-haired cow from central Asia yak² v. (yakked, yakking) [I] (informal) to talk a lot about things that are not serious y'all /yɔl/ pron. (spoken) a word meaning “you” or “all of you,” used mainly in the southern U.S.: How are y'all doing?

yam /yəm/ n. [C,U] a SWEET POTATO [ORIGIN: 1500–1600 Portuguese inhame and Spanish ñame, from a West African language]

yank /yæŋk/ v. [I,T] to pull something quickly and with force: Kendall yanked on the door handle.

Yan-kee /'yæŋki/ n. [C] 1 HISTORY someone who fought against the southern states in the American Civil War 2 also Yank a U.S. citizen – sometimes considered an insult when used by someone who is not American yap /yəp/ v. (yapped, yapping) [I] if a small dog yaps, it BARKS in an excited way → yap n. [C] yard /jɑrd/ n. [C] 1 the land around a house, usually covered with grass: The kids were playing in the front/back yard. 2 (written abbreviation yd.) a unit for measuring length, equal to 3 feet or 0.9144 meters: The beach was only a hundred yards from my back door. [ORIGIN: (1) Old English geard “enclosed area”]

'yard sale n. [C] a sale of used clothes, furniture, toys, etc. from someone's house that takes place in his/her yard → GARAGE SALE yard-stick /'jɑrdˌstɪk/ n. [C] 1 something that you compare another thing with, in order to judge how good or successful it is: He uses his dad's accomplishments as a yardstick against which to measure his own achievements. 2 a special stick that is exactly one yard long, used for measuring yar-mul-ke /'yaməkə, 'yarməkə/ n. [C] a small round cap worn by some Jewish men yarn /yɑ:n/ n. 1 [U] a thick type of thread used for KNITTING 2 [C] (informal) a long story that is not completely true

THESAURUS story, tale, myth, legend, fable, narrative, anecdote → STORY

yawn¹ /yɔ:n/ v. [I] 1 to open your mouth wide and breathe deeply, usually because you are tired or bored 2 yawning gap/chasm a very large difference between two groups, things, or people: There are yawning gaps in the medical care available to Americans.

yawn² n. 1 [C] an act of yawning 2 [singular] (informal) someone or something that is boring: The movie was a yawn.

y-axis /'waɪ, æksɪs/ n. [C] MATH the line that goes from top to bottom on a GRAPH → X-AXIS

Y-chro-mo-some /'waɪ, 'kroumə, sɒm, -, zəʊm/ n. [C] BIOLOGY the CHROMOSOME that makes someone a male instead of a female → X-CHROMOSOME

y-co-or-di-nate /'waɪ kəʊ, ɔ:dn-ɪt/ n. [C] MATH the position of a point in relation to the y-axis of a GRAPH → X-COORDINATE

yd. the written abbreviation of YARD

yeah /jeə/ adv. (spoken, informal) yes

year /jɪr/ n. [C] 1 also calendar year (written abbreviation yr.) a period of time equal to 365 or 366 days, divided into 12 months, beginning on January 1 and ending on December 31: Where are you spending Christmas this year? | at the start of school last/next year | The museum has 100,000 visitors a year. 2 any period of time equal to about 365 days or 12 months: Jenny is five years old. | My passport expires in a year. | I met him a year ago. | The tax year begins in April. 3 years [plural] (informal) many years: It's been years since I've ridden a bike. | I haven't seen her in/for years. 4 a particular period of time in someone's life or in history: the war years 5 school/academic year the period of time during a year when students are in school, college, etc.: the 2004–05 academic year 6 all year round during the whole year: It's sunny there all year round.

year-book /'jɪrbʊk/ n. [C] a book printed once a year by a school or college, about its students, sports events, clubs, etc. during that year year-ling /'jɪrlɪŋ/ n. [C] a young animal, especially a horse, between the ages of one and two year-ly /'jɪrli/ adj., adv. happening or done every year or once a year: Our yearly trip to Florida was a lot of fun.

THESAURUS hourly, daily, weekly, monthly → REGULAR¹

yearn /jɜ:n/ v. [I] (literary) to want something very much, especially something extremely difficult to get: They yearned to go home. | She yearned for a child. —yearning n. [U] yeast /jɪst/ n. [U] a substance used for making bread rise and for producing alcohol in beer or wine yell /jel/ v. [I, T] to shout or say something very loudly because you are angry, excited, or frightened: Don't yell at me! | Someone yelled out the score. | She yelled, "Come back here!" —yell n. [C]

THESAURUS shout, scream, cry out, bellow, holler → SHOUT¹

yel-low¹ /'jeləʊ/ adj. having the same color as LEMONS or butter: yellow flowers [ORIGIN: Old English geolu] yellow² n. [U] a yellow color —yellow v. [I, T]: The pages had yellowed with age.

Yellow Pages n. (trademark) the Yellow Pages a book that lists the telephone numbers and addresses of stores, restaurants, and businesses in a particular area yelp /jelp/ v. [I] to make a short high cry like a dog makes, because of pain, excitement, etc. —yelp n. [C] yen /jen/ n. (plural yen) 1 [C] a standard unit of money used in Japan 2 [singular] a strong desire: a yen to travel yeo-man /'ju:mən/ n. (plural yeomen /-məʊn/) [C] 1 an officer in the U.S. Navy who often works in an office 2 HISTORY a farmer in Britain and Canada in the past who owned and worked on his own land yep /jep/ adv. (spoken, informal) yes

yes /jes/ adv. (spoken) 1 said in order to give a positive reply to a question, offer, or request: "Is it real gold?" "Yes." | "Nancy, did you want some pie?" "Yes, please." | I'm sure Dad will say yes. 2 said in order to agree with a statement: "It's such a nice day." "Yes, it is." 3 said in order to disagree with a negative statement, to say that the opposite is true: "John doesn't like me anymore." "Yes, he does!" | "There's no bread." "Yes, there is, in the freezer." 4 said when you have noticed that someone wants your attention: "Linda!" "Yes?" | Yes, sir, how may I help you? 5 said when you are very happy or excited: Yes! I got the job!

yes-ter-day¹ /'jestədi, -dei/ adv. on or during the day before today: Where did you go yesterday? | He arrived yesterday morning.

yesterday² n. [U] 1 the day before today: Did you go to yesterday's meeting? 2 the recent past:

Y

The problems of yesterday look easy compared with those of today. [ORIGIN: Old English giestran dæg, from giestran “yesterday” + dæg “day”]

yet¹ /yet/ adv. 1 used in negative statements and questions to mean “at the present time” or “already”: I don’t think she’s awake yet. | Have you eaten yet? | “Is Lori here?” “Not yet.” 2 at some time in the future: She may change her mind yet. | We have yet to hear from them (=we still have not heard). 3 in addition to what you have already gotten, done, etc.: He’s made yet another mistake. | I’m sorry to ask for help yet again (=one more time after many others). 4 better/worse yet used in order to emphasize that something is even better or worse than the thing mentioned before: Respond by letter, or better yet, a telephone call. 5 in spite of something [SYN] but: a quiet yet powerful leader

yet² conjunction used in order to introduce a statement that is surprising: an inexpensive yet effective solution | We sent thousands of forms, yet fewer than 50 were returned.

yew /yu/ n. [C,U] a tree or bush with leaves that look like flat needles, or the heavy wood of this tree

Yid-dish /ˈyɪdɪʃ/ n. [U] a language similar to German, used in many places by Jewish people —Yiddish adj.

yield¹ /yɪld/ v. 1 [T] to produce something: One study has yielded some interesting results. 2 [I,T] to allow yourself to be forced or persuaded to do something: The government will never yield to terrorism.

THESAURUS surrender, give in, concede, submit → SURRENDER

3 [I] to allow the traffic from a bigger road to go first 4 [I] to move, bend, or break because of physical pressure

yield² n. [C] 1 the amount of something that is produced, especially crops 2 ECONOMICS the amount of profit that you receive from a STOCK or BOND

Y y-in-ter-cept /ˈwaɪ ˌɪntəsept/ n. [singular] MATH the point where a line crosses the Y-AXIS of a GRAPH → X-INTERCEPT

yip-pee /ˈyɪpi/ interjection said when you are very happy or excited about something

YMCA n. Young Men’s Christian Association an organization that provides places to stay, sports activities, and training for young men, especially in large cities → YWCA yo /you/ interjection (slang) said in order to greet someone or get his/her attention, or as a reply when someone says your name yo-del /ˈyoʊdl/ v. [I] to sing while changing your natural voice to a very high voice and back again many times yo-ga /ˈyoʊgə/ n. [U] a system of exercises in which you control your body and mind [ORIGIN: 1700–1800 Sanskrit “union”] yo-gurt /ˈyoʊgət/ n. [U] a smooth thick liquid food that tastes slightly sour, made from milk: a bowl of yogurt [ORIGIN: 1600–1700 Turkish] yoke /yoʊk/ n. [C] a wooden BAR used for joining together two animals, especially cattle, in order to pull heavy loads —yoke v. [T] yo-kel /ˈyoʊkəl/ n. [C] (humorous) someone from the country who has not experienced living in modern society yolk /yoʊk/ n. [C,U] the yellow part in the center of an egg [ORIGIN: Old English geoloca, from geolu “yellow”] yon-der /ˈjʌndə/ adv., determiner (literary) over there you /yə, yu; strong yu/ pron. [used as a subject or object] 1 the person or people someone is speaking or writing to: You must be hungry. | Do you want a drink? | I can’t hear you. 2 people in general → ONE: You can’t trust anybody these days. | You never know what Jim will say. 3 used with nouns or phrases when you are talking to or calling someone: You jerk! | You kids, be quiet! 4 you all (spoken) used instead of “you” when speaking to two or more people: What do you all want to do tonight?

you’d /yəd, yud; strong yud/ 1 the short form of “you would”: I didn’t think you’d mind. 2 the short form of “you had”: You’d better do what he says.

you’ll /yəl, yul; strong yul/ the short form of “you will”: You’ll have to speak louder.

young¹ /yʌŋ/ adj. 1 at an early stage of life or development [ANT] old: young children | You’re too young to get married. | a young country

THESAURUS

A small/little child is a very young child. Someone who is youthful seems or is young. Someone who is immature behaves in a way that is not sensible because it is typical of the behavior of someone much younger. Someone who is green is young and lacks experience. Someone who is underage is too young to legally buy alcohol, drive a car, etc. If someone is at a tender age, s/he is very young and easily influenced. → OLD, CHILD

2 seeming or looking younger than you are [SYN] youthful: You too can have healthier, younger-looking skin. 3 designed or intended for young people: Is this dress too young for me?

young² n. 1 the young young people considered as a group 2 [plural] young animals: a turtle and her young young-ster /'yʌŋstə/ n. [C] a young person

THESAURUS child, kid, teenager, adolescent, minor, juvenile → CHILD

your /jɔː/ strong jʊr, jɔː/ possessive adj. 1 belonging or relating to the person or people someone is speaking to: Is that your mother? | It's not your fault. 2 belonging or relating to any person: If you are facing north, east is on your right.

you're /jɔː/ strong jʊr, jɔː/ the short form of "you are": You're bothering me.

yours /jɔːz, jɔːr/ pron. 1 the thing or things belonging or relating to the person or people someone is speaking to: Yours is over there. | That bag is yours, isn't it? | Is he a friend of yours? 2 yours (truly/sincerely) also sincerely yours a phrase you write before you sign your name at the end of a letter 3 yours truly (humorous) used instead of "I": Yes, yours truly finally quit smoking.

your-self /jɔː'self/ pron. (plural yourselves /jɔː'selvz/) 1 used when talking to someone to show that s/he is affected by his/her own action: Don't hurt yourself! | Make yourself a cup of coffee. 2 used in order to emphasize "you": Why don't you do it yourself? 3 (all) by your-self a) without help: Do you think you can move the sofa by yourself? b) alone: You're going to Ecuador by yourself? 4 (all) to yourself for your own use: You'll have the house all to yourself this weekend.

youth /juθ/ n. (plural youths /juθz, juθs/) 1 [U] the period of time when someone is young, or the quality of being young: Despite his youth, he was traveling alone. | She had been beautiful in her youth. 2 [U] young people in general: the youth of the 1960s | a church youth group | youth culture 3 [C] a boy or young man, especially a TEEN-AGER: A youth was arrested for stealing.

THESAURUS man, boy, male → MAN¹

youth-ful /'juθfəl/ adj. typical of young people, or seeming young: youthful energy | He was youthful in appearance. → YOUNG¹

'youth hostel n. [C] a place where people, especially young people who are traveling, can stay very cheaply for a short time you've /jəv, yʊv/ strong yʊv/ the short form of "you have": Okay, you've persuaded me.

yo-yo /'yoʊyoʊ/ n. (plural yo-yos) [C] a small toy that is made of two circular parts joined together that go up and down a string as you lift your hand up and down yr. the written abbreviation of YEAR

yuc-ca /'yʌkə/ n. [C] a desert plant with long pointed leaves and a thick stem → see picture on page A10

yuck /yʌk/ interjection said when you think something is unpleasant: Yuck! This tastes horrible! —yucky adj.

Yule /yul/ n. [C] (literary) Christmas

Yule-tide /'yultaid/ n. [U] (literary) the period from just before Christmas until just after it yum /yʌm/ interjection said in order to emphasize that you think something tastes good: Yum! Apple pie!

yum-my /'yʌmi/ adj. (informal) food that is yummy tastes very good yup-pie /'yʌpi/ n. [C] (informal) a young person who only seems interested in having a professional job, earning a lot of money, and buying expensive things [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 young urban professional]

YWCA n. Young Women's Christian Association an organization that provides places to stay, special help, and training for young women, especially in large cities → YMCA

Zz

Z, z /zi/ the 26th and last letter of the English alphabet

Z /zi/ n. catch/get some Zs (spoken) to sleep

za-ny /'zeɪni/ adj. crazy or unusual in a way that is amusing and exciting: a zany new TV comedy

zap /zæp/ v. (zapped, zapping) [T] (informal) 1 to kill, destroy, or attack something extremely quickly, especially by using electricity or a LASER beam 2 to cook something quickly in a MICRO-WAVE 3 to send information quickly from one computer to another zeal /zi/ n. [U] eagerness to do something, especially to achieve a particular religious or political aim: The Republicans are known for their zeal to cut taxes.

zeal-ous /'zeləs/ adj. extremely interested in and excited about something that you believe in very strongly, and behaving in a way that shows this: a zealous environmental activist

THESAURUS enthusiastic, passionate, ardent, fanatical → ENTHUSIASTIC

—zealously adv. —zealousness n. [U] ze-bra /'zibrə/ n. [C] a wild African animal like a horse, that has black and white bands on its body [ORIGIN: 1600—1700 Italian "wild donkey"]

Z

Zen /zen/ also Zen 'Buddhism n. [U] a type of Buddhism from Japan that emphasizes MEDITATION ze-nith /ˈziːnɪθ/ n. [C usually singular] 1 the most successful point in the development of something: This album shows Simon at the zenith of his powers. 2 the highest point that the Sun or a star reaches in the sky zeph-yr /ˈzɛfə/ n. [C] (literary) a soft gentle wind ze-ro¹ /ˈziːroʊ, ˈziːroʊ/ number 1 the number 0 nothing: The score was twenty-two to nothing.

THESAURUS

O /ou/ – used to say the number zero like the letter O: Their zip code is O two one two five. (=02125).

zip (informal): We were behind 3-zip.

nil (formal) – nothing or zero: His chances of winning were practically nil.

2 SCIENCE the point between – and + on a scale for measuring something, especially temperature. In the Celsius system of measuring temperature, 0 is the point at which water freezes: It was 20° below zero.

zero² v. (zeroed, zeroes, zeroing) zero in on sb/sth phr. v. to aim at one thing, or give special attention to one person or thing: War planes zeroed in on a target.

zest /zɛst/ n. [U] 1 a feeling of eagerness, excitement, and enjoyment: a zest for life 2 the outer skin of an orange or LEMON, used in cooking zig-gu-rat /ˈziːɡəræt/ n. [C] HISTORY a tall structure with a TEMPLE (=place where people pray to God) on the top, built in ancient Mesopotamia. It has a RECTANGULAR base and many levels, each of which is smaller than the one below.

zig-zag¹ /ˈziːgzæg/ n. [C] a line that looks like a row of z's joined together zigzag² v. (zigzagged, zigzagging) [I] to move forward in sharp angles, first to the left and then to the right, etc.: The path zigzags across the mountain.

Z

zilch /zɪltʃ/ n. [U] (informal) nothing at all: I've looked for jobs everywhere, but come up with zilch.

zil-lion /ˈziːljən/ number (informal) an extremely large number or amount: She asked a zillion questions.

zinc /zɪŋk/ n. [U] CHEMISTRY (symbol Zn) a white metal that is an ELEMENT. Zinc is used to make BRASS and to cover and protect objects made of iron.

zip¹ /zɪp/ v. (zipped, zipping) 1 [T] also zip up to close or fasten something using a ZIPPER: Zip up your coat.

THESAURUS

fasten, secure, join, glue, tape, staple, clip, tie, button (up) → FASTEN

2 [I] to go somewhere or do something very quickly: A few cars zipped past us.

zip² n. (spoken) 1 [C usually singular] a short form of ZIP CODE 2 [U] nothing at all, or zero: We beat them 10-zip.

THESAURUS

zero, nothing, O, nil → ZERO¹

'zip code n. [C] a number that you put below the address on an envelope to help the post office deliver the mail more quickly [ORIGIN: 1900–2000 zone improvement plan]

'zip file n. [C] IT a computer FILE that has been made smaller so that it is easy to store and move zip-per /ˈzɪpə/ n. [C] an object for fastening clothes, bags, etc., with two lines of small pieces of metal or plastic that slide together zit /zɪt/ n. [C] (slang) a PIMPLE

zo-di-ac /ˈzouːdi.æk/ n. the zodiac an imaginary circle in space that the Sun, Moon, and PLANETS follow as a path, which some people believe influences people's lives [ORIGIN: 1300–1400 French zodiaque, from Greek zōidiakos “animal figures”] zom-bie /ˈzambi/ n. [C] 1 (informal) someone who moves very slowly and cannot think clearly because s/he is very tired 2 a dead body that is made to move, walk, etc. by magic [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 Kimbundu (an African language) nzumbi “spirit of a dead person”]

zone /zoun/ n. [C] part of an area that has a specific purpose or has a special quality: a no-parking zone | the war/battle/combat zone → TIME ZONE

THESAURUS

area, region, territory, district

→ AREA

zon-ing /ˈzounɪŋ/ n. [U] a system of choosing areas to be used for particular purposes, such as building houses —zone v. [T] zoo /zu/ n. (plural zoos) [C] a place where many different types of animals are kept so that people can see them: How about taking the children to the zoo?

zo-o-l-o-gy /zouˈalədʒi/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the scientific study of animals and their behavior —zoologist n. [C] —zoological /ˌzouˈalədʒɪkəl/ adj.

zoom /zum/ v. [I] (informal) 1 to go somewhere or do something very quickly: A red car zoomed past. 2 to increase suddenly and quickly: Inflation zoomed 123%. [ORIGIN: 1800–1900 From the sound] zoom in/out phr. v. if a camera zooms in or out, it makes the object you are taking a photograph of seem closer or farther away

'zoom ,lens n. [C] a camera LENS that moves in order to make the objects you are taking a photograph of seem closer and larger

zo·o·plank·ton /ˌzoʊəˈplæŋktən/ n. [U] BIOLOGY the very small animals floating in water that are part of PLANKTON zuc·chi·ni /zuˈkɪni/ n. [C,U] a long smooth dark green vegetable [ORIGIN: 1900—2000 Italian zucca “gourd”] → see picture at VEGETABLE

zy·gote /ˈzɑɪɡoʊt/ n. [C] BIOLOGY a cell that is formed when a female’s egg cell is FERTILIZED [ORIGIN: 1800—1900 Greek zygotos “joined together”]

Zzz used in writing to represent sleep

Contents

Picture Dictionary

Animals	A2
Body	A3
Sports	A4
Kitchen Verbs	A5
Computers and Technology	A6
Sounds	A7
Verbs of Movement (hands)	A8
Verbs of Movement (body)	A9
Plants and Trees	A10
Geographical Features	A11
Map of USA	A12

Geographical Names	A13
---------------------------	-----

Animals

Jaguar

Salmon

Puffin

Lobster

Moose

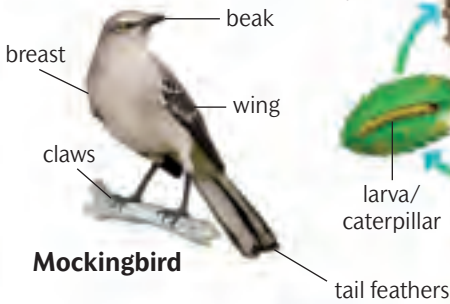

Butterfly

Eagle

Mockingbird

Buffalo/Bison

Alligator

Body

Face

Body

Skeleton

Internal organs

Sports

baseball

track

gliding

ice hockey

golf

parachuting

kayaking

mountain biking

swimming

football

rowing

climbing

sailing

skiing

wind surfing

surfing

Kitchen Verbs

beat

sprinkle

knead

whisk

strain

crush

roll/roll out

pour

mix

squeeze

spread

stir

Computers and Technology

webcam

DVD player

DVDs

games console

joystick

laptop

monitor

screen

cell phone

scanner

mp3 player

digital camera

memory stick

mouse

headphones

mouse pad

keyboard

PC/computer

printer

harddrive

Sounds

ring

crash

squeak

creak

bang

splash

buzz

rustle

rattle

crunch

click

sizzle

crackle

fizz

hiss

Verbs of Movement (hands)

clap

flick

hold hands

tap

pinch

point

scratch

poke

squeeze

pet/stroke

wave

Verbs of Movement (body)

pick up

put down

lift

carry

hold

stretch

bend

squat

kneel

hop

jump rope

jump

lean

crouch

drag

push

pull

drop

climb

fall

jog

walk

march

sit crawl

tiptoe

run

throw

kick

punch

catch

Plants and Trees

cactus

cedar

maple

palm

poplar

willow

holly

redwood/sequoia

bush

fir

yucca

Geographical Features

ridge

peak

summit

mountain range

plateau

gorge

foothills

forest

valley

lake

fields

dunes

bay

delta

beach

cliffs

coastline

ocean

Map of USA

Geographical Names

Name

Afghanistan	/æf'gænə,stæn/
Africa	/'æfrɪkə/
Albania	/æl'bɛɪniə, əl-/
Algeria	/æl'dʒɪrɪə/
America (=the U.S.)	/ə'merɪkə/
North America	/nɔrθ ə'merɪkə/
South America	/sauθ ə'merɪkə/
Andorra	/æn'dɔrə/
Angola	/æŋ'gɒlə/
Antarctic	/æn'tɑːktɪk/
Antigua and Barbuda	/æn'tɪgə, -gwə ənd bɑː'budə/
Arctic	/'ɑːktɪk/
Argentina	/,ɑːrdʒən'tɪnə/
Armenia	/ɑːr'mɪniə/
Asia	/'eɪʒə/
Atlantic	/ət'læntɪk/
Australia	/ə'streɪljə, ə-/
Austria	/'ɔːstriə, 'ɑ-/
Azerbaijan	/'æzə'bɑː'dʒɑːn, ə-/
Bahamas, the	/bə'hɑːməz/
Bahrain	/bə'reɪn/
Baltic	/'bɔːltɪk/
Bangladesh	/,bɑŋɡlə'dɛʃ, ˌbæŋ-/
Barbados	/bɑːr'beɪdɔːs/
Belarus	/,bɛlə'rʊs/
(Belorussia)	/,bɛləʊ'rʌʃə/
Belgium	/'bɛldʒəm/
Belize	/bə'lɪz/
Benin	/bə'nɪn/
Bermuda	/bə'mɪjʊdə/
Bhutan	/bu'tæn, -'tæn/
Bolivia	/bə'lɪvɪə/
Bosnia and Herzegovina	/,bəznɪə ənd ˌhɜːtsəɡəʊ'vɪnə/
Botswana	/bat'swənə/
Brazil	/brə'zɪl/
Brunei	/bru'nai/
Bulgaria	/bʌl'ɡerɪə/
Burkina Faso	/bə'kɪnə 'fasou/
Burma (former name of Myanmar)	/'bɜːmə/
Burundi	/bu'rʊndɪ/
Cambodia	/kæm'bɒdɪə/

Adjective and name of a person from this place

Afghan or Afghanistani	/'æfgæn/
African	/'æfrɪkən/
Albanian	/æl'bɛɪniən, əl-/
Algerian	/æl'dʒɪrɪən/
American	/ə'merɪkən/
North American	/nɔrθ ə'merɪkən/
South American	/sauθ ə'merɪkən/
Andorran	/æn'dɔːrən/
Angolan	/æŋ'gɒlən/
adj: Antarctic	/æn'tɑːktɪk/
Antiguan or Barbudan	/æn'tɪɡən, -gwən/
adj: Arctic	/'ɑːktɪk/
adj: Argentinian	/,ɑːrdʒən'tɪniən/person: Argentinian or Argentine	/'ɑːrdʒəntɪːn/
Armenian	/ɑːr'mɪniən/
Asian	/'eɪʒən/
adj: Atlantic	/ət'læntɪk/
Australian	/ə'streɪljən, ə-/
Austrian	/'ɔːstriən, 'ɑ-/
Azerbaijani	/'æzə'bɑː'dʒɑːni, ə-/
Bahamian	/bə'hɛɪmiən/
Bahraini	/bə'reɪni/
adj: Baltic	/'bɔːltɪk/
Bangladeshi	/,bɑŋɡlə'dɛʃɪ, ˌbæŋ-/
Barbadian	/bɑːr'beɪdiən/
Belorussian	/,bɛləʊ'rʌʃən/
Belgian	/'bɛldʒən/
Belizean	/bə'lɪziən/
Beninese	/,bɛnɪ'nɪz/
Bermudan	/bə'mɪjʊdn/
Bhutanese	/,butn'ɪz/
Bolivian	/bə'lɪviən/
Bosnian	/'bəznɪən/
Herzegovinian	/,hɜːrtsəɡəʊ'vɪniən/
adj: Botswanan	/bat'swənən/person: Motswana	/mɑːt'swənə/
people: the Batswana	/bæt'swənə/
Brazilian	/brə'zɪliən/
Bruneian	/bru'naiən/
Bulgarian	/bʌl'ɡerɪən/
Burkina or Burkinabe	/,bə'kɪnə'beɪ/
Burmese	/bə'mɪz/
Burundian	/bu'rʊndiən/
Cambodian	/kæm'bɒdiən/

Name

Cameroon /,kæmə'run/
 Canada /'kænədə/
 Cape Verde /keɪp 'və:d/Caribbean /kə'ribiən, ,kærə'biən/
 Cayman Islands /'keɪmən ,aɪləndz/

Central African Republic /,sentrəl ,æfrɪkən rɪ'pʌblɪk/Chad /tʃæd/
 Chile /'tʃɪli/
 China /'tʃaɪnə/
 Colombia /kə'læmbɪə/
 Comoro Islands, the /'kəmə,rou aɪləndz/Congo, the Democratic Republic of /,deməkræɪtɪk rɪ'pʌblɪk əv 'kəŋɡou/

Congo, Republic of /rɪ'pʌblɪk əv 'kəŋɡou/Costa Rica /,koustə 'rɪkə/Croatia /krou'eɪʃə/
 Cuba /'kyubə/
 Cyprus /'saɪprəs/
 Czech Republic, the /,tʃɛk rɪ'pʌblɪk/

Denmark /'denmɑ:k/
 Djibouti /dʒɪ'buʊti/
 Dominica /,dəmə'nɪkə/
 Dominican Republic, the /də'mɪnɪkən rɪ'pʌblɪk/

East Timor /,ɪst 'tɪmɔ:/
 Ecuador /'ekwədɔ:/
 Egypt /'ɪdʒɪpt/
 El Salvador /el 'sælvə,dɔ:/
 England /'ɪŋɡlənd

Equatorial Guinea /,ekwətɔ:riəl 'ɡɪni/Eritrea /,erɪ'triə/
 Estonia /ɛ'stouniə/
 Ethiopia /,iθi'əʊpiə/
 Europe /'yurɒp/

Fiji /'fɪdʒi/
 Finland /'fɪnlənd/

France /fræns/

Gabon /gə'boun/
 Gambia, the /'gæmbɪə/

Adjective and name of a person from this place

Cameroonian /,kæm'runiən/Canadian /kə'neɪdiən/Cape Verdean /keɪp 'və:diən/adj: Caribbean
adj: Cayman Island
person: Cayman Islander

Central African /,sentrəl 'æfrɪkən/Chadian /'tʃædiən/
 Chilean /'tʃɪliən/
 Chinese /,tʃaɪ'nɪz/
 Colombian /kə'læmbiən/
 Comoran /'kəmərən/
 Congolese /,kəŋɡə'lɪz/

Congolese /,kəŋɡə'lɪz/
 Costa Rican /,koustə 'rɪkən/
 Croatian /krou'eɪʃən/
 Cuban /'kyubən/
 Cypriot /'saɪprɪət/
 Czech /tʃɛk/

adj: Danish /'deɪnɪʃ/person: Dane /deɪn/
 Djiboutian /dʒɪ'butiən/
 Dominican /,dəmə'nɪkən/Dominican /də'mɪnɪkən/

Timorese /,tɪmə'rɪz/
 Ecuadorian /,ekwədɔ:riən/Egyptian /ɪ'dʒɪptʃən/Salvadorian /,sælvə'dɔ:riən/adj: English /'ɪŋɡlɪʃ/
person:
 Englishman, /'ɪŋɡlɪʃmən/Englishwoman /-,wʊmən/people: the English

Equatorial Guinean /,ekwətɔ:riəl 'ɡɪniən/Eritrean /,erɪ'triən/
 Estonian /ɛ'stouniən/
 Ethiopian /,iθi'əʊpiən/
 European /,yurə'piən/

Fijian /'fɪdʒiən/
adj: Finnish /'fɪnɪʃ/person: Finn /fɪn/
adj: French /frɛntʃ/
person:
 Frenchman, /'frɛntʃmən/Frenchwoman /-,wʊmən/people:
 the French

Gabonese /,gæbə'nɪz/
 Gambian /'gæmbiən/

Name

Georgia	/ˈdʒɔrdʒə/
Germany	/ˈdʒəˌmæni/
Ghana	/ˈɡənə/
Gibraltar	/dʒɪˈbrɔltə/
Great Britain	/ˌɡreɪt ˈbrɪt̪n/
Greece	/ɡris/
Greenland	/ˈɡrɪnlænd/
Grenada	/ɡrəˈneɪdə/
Guatemala	/ˌɡwɑtəˈmælə/
Guiana also	/ɡiˈænə, -ˈənə/
French Guiana
Guinea	/ˈɡɪni/
Guinea-Bissau	/ˌɡɪni brɪˈsau/
Guyana also	/ˌɡaɪˈænə/
British Guyana
Haiti	/ˈheɪti/
Holland (another name for The Netherlands)	/ˈhʌlənd/
Honduras	/ˈhʌnˈdʊrəs/
Hong Kong	/ˈhʌŋ ˌkʌŋ/
Hungary	/ˈhʌŋɡəri/
Iceland	/ˈaɪslənd/
India	/ˈɪndiə/
Indonesia	/ˌɪndəˈniʒə/
Iran	/ɪˈræn, -ən/
Iraq	/ɪˈræk, -ək/
Ireland, Republic of, the	/ɪˌrɪˌpʌblɪk əv ˈaɪrlənd/
Israel	/ˈɪzriəl/
Italy	/ˈɪtli/
Ivory Coast (former name of Cote d'Ivoire)	/ˌaɪvəri ˈkəʊst/
Jamaica	/dʒəˈmeɪkə/
Japan	/dʒəˈpæn/
Jordan	/ˈdʒɔrdn/
Kazakhstan	/ˈkʌzəkˌstæn/
Kenya	/ˈkenyə, ˈki-/
Kirabati	/ˌkɪrɪˈbati/
Korea, North	/ˌnɔθ kəˈriə/
Korea, South	/ˌsaʊθ kəˈriə/
Kuwait	/kəˈweɪt/
Kyrgyzstan	/ˈkɪrɡɪˌstæn/
Laos	/ˌlaus, ˈleɪəs/

Adjective and name of a person from this place

Georgian	/ˈdʒɔrdʒən/
German	/ˈdʒəˌmæn/
Ghanaian	/ɡəˈneɪən/
Gibraltarian	/ˌdʒɪbrɔlˈteɪriən/
adj: British	/ˈbrɪt̪ʃ/
person: Briton	/ˈbrɪt̪n/
people: the British Greek	/ɡrɪk/
adj: Greenlandic	/ɡrɪnˈlændɪk/
person: Greenlander	/ˈɡrɪnləndə/
Grenadian	/ɡrəˈneɪdiən/
Guatemalan	/ˌɡwɑtəˈmælən/
Guianese	/ˌɡaɪəˈnɪz/
Guinean	/ˈɡɪniən/
Guinea-Bissauan	/ˌɡɪni brɪˈsauən/
Guyanese or Guyanan	/ˌɡaɪəˈnɪz/
Haitian	/ˈheɪfən/
adj: Dutch	/dʌt̪ʃ/
person: Dutchman, Dutchwoman	/ˈdʌt̪ʃmən/
people: the Dutch	/-,wʊməŋ/
Honduran	/ˈhʌnˈdʊrən/
Hong Kong
Hungarian	/hʌŋˈɡeəriən/
adj: Icelandic	/aɪsˈlændɪk/
person: Icelander	/ˌaɪsləndə/
Indian	/ˈɪndiən/
Indonesian	/ˌɪndəˈniʒən/
Iranian	/ɪˈreɪniən/
Iraqi	/ɪˈræki, -aki/
adj: Irish	/ˈaɪrɪʃ/
person: Irishman, Irishwoman	/ˈaɪrɪʃmən/
people: the Irish	/-,wʊməŋ/
Israeli	/ɪzˈreɪli/
Italian	/ɪˈtæliən/
Ivorian	/aɪˈvɔəriən/
Jamaican	/dʒəˈmeɪkən/
Japanese	/ˌdʒæpəˈnɪz/
Jordanian	/dʒɔrˈdeɪniən/
Kazakh	/ˈkʌzək/
Kenyan	/ˈkenyən, ˈki-/
Kirabati	/ˌkɪrɪˈbati/
North Korean	/ˌnɔθ kəˈriən/
South Korean	/ˌsaʊθ kəˈriən/
Kuwaiti	/kəˈweɪti/
Kyrgyz	/kɪrˈɡɪz/
Laotian or Lao	/ˈləʊfən/
	/ləʊ/

Name

Latvia	/ˈlætviə/
Lebanon	/ˈleɪbənən, -nən/
Lesotho	/ləˈsoutou/
Liberia	/laɪˈbɪriə/
Libya	/ˈlɪbiə/
Liechtenstein	/ˈliktənˌstain/
Lithuania	/ˌliθəˈweɪniə/
Luxembourg	/ˈlʌksəmˌbɜːɡ/
Macedonia	/ˌmæsiˈdounyə/
Madagascar	/ˌmædəˈgæskə/
Malawi	/məˈlawi/
Malaysia	/məˈleɪzə/
Maldives, the	/ˈmɒldivz/
Mali	/ˈmali/
Malta	/ˈmɒltə/
Marshall Islands, the	/ˈmɑːʃəl ˌaɪləndz/
Mauritania	/ˌmɔːrəˈteɪnyə/
Mauritius	/məˈriːʃəs/
Mediterranean	/ˌmedətəˈreɪniən/
Melanesia	/ˌmeləˈniːzə/
Mexico	/ˈmeksɪkou/
Micronesia	/ˌmaɪkrouˈniːzə/
Moldova	/məˈdoʊvə/
Monaco	/ˈmənəˌkou/
Mongolia	/məŋˈɡəʊliə/
Montserrat	/ˌmɒntseˈræt/
Morocco	/məˈrɑːkou/
Mozambique	/ˌmoʊzəmˈbɪk/
Myanmar	/ˈmyanmar/
Namibia	/nəˈmɪbiə/
Nauru	/nəˈuːru/
Nepal	/nɪˈpɒl/
Netherlands, The	/ðə ˈneðəˌləndz/
New Zealand	/nu ˈziːlənd/
Nicaragua	/ˌniːkəˈrɑːɡwə/
Niger	/ˈniːdʒə/

Adjective and name of a person from this place

Latvian	/ˈlætviən/
Lebanese	/ˌleɪbəˈniːz/
adj: Sotho	/ˈsoutou/
person: Mosotho	/məˈsoutou/
people: the Basotho	/bəˈsoutou/
Liberian	/laɪˈbɪriən/
Libyan	/ˈlɪbiən/
adj: Liechtenstein
person: Liechtensteiner	/ˈliktənˌstainə/
Lithuanian	/ˌliθəˈweɪniən/adj: Luxemburg
person: Luxemburger	/ˈlʌksəmˌbɜːɡə/
Macedonian	/ˌmæsiˈdounyən/
Malagasy	/ˌmæləˈɡæsi/
Malawian	/məˈlawiən/
Malaysian	/məˈleɪzən/
Maldivian	/mɒlˈdiviən/
Malian	/ˈmaliən/
Maltese	/ˌmɒlˈtiːz/
adj: Marshallese	/ˌmɑːʃəˈliz/person: Marshall Islander	/ˌmɑːʃəl ˌaɪləndə/
Mauritanian	/ˌmɔːrəˈteɪniən/
Mauritian	/məˈriːʃən/
adj: Mediterranean
Melanesian	/ˌmeləˈniːzən/
Mexican	/ˈmeksɪkən/
Micronesian	/ˌmaɪkrouˈniːzən/
Moldovan	/məˈdoʊvən/
Monegasque or Monacan	/ˌmənəˈɡæsk/
Mongolian or Mongol	/ˌmɒŋɡəl/
Montserratian	/ˌmɒntseˈreɪʃən/
Moroccan	/məˈrɑːkən/
Mozambican	/ˌmoʊzəmˈbɪkən/
Burmese	/ˌbɜːˈmɪz/
Namibian	/nəˈmɪbiən/
Nauruan	/nəˈuːruən/
adj: Nepalese	/ˌnepəˈliːz/person: Nepali or Nepalese	/ˌnepəˈli/
adj: Dutch	/dʌtʃ/
person: Dutchman, Dutchwoman	/ˈdʌtʃmən/
pl. people: the Dutch	/-ˌwʊmən/
adj: New Zealand
person: New Zealander	/nu ˈziːləndə/
Nicaraguan	/ˌniːkəˈrɑːɡwən/
Nigerien	/ˌniːʒəriən/

Name

Nigeria	/naɪ'dʒɪriə/
Norway	/'nɔrwɛɪ/
Oman	/ou'man/
Pacific	/pə'sɪfɪk/
Pakistan	/,pækɪ'stæn/
Palestine	/'pæləstæn/
Panama	/'pænəmə/
Papua New Guinea	/'pæpyuə nu 'ɡɪni/
Paraguay	/'pærəɡwɑɪ/
Persia (former name of Iran)	/'pɜːʒə/
Peru	/pə'ru/
Philippines	/'fɪləpɪnz/
Poland	/'pəʊlənd/
Polynesia	/,pələ'nɪzə/
Portugal	/'pɔrtʃəɡəl/
Puerto Rico	/'pɔrtə 'rɪkəʊ/
Qatar	/'kætə/
Romania	/rou'meɪniə/
Russia (Russian Federation, the)	/'rʌʃə/
Rwanda	/'ru'ændə/
Saint Kitts & Nevis	/seɪnt ,kɪts ənd 'nɪvɪs/
Saint Lucia	/seɪnt 'luːʃə/
Saint Vincent and the Grenadines	/seɪnt ,vɪnsənt ən ðə ,ɡrenə'dɪnz/
Samoa	/sə'mouə/
San Marino	/sæn mə'reɪnəʊ/
São Tomé & Príncipe	/'saʊn tə'meɪ ənd 'prɪnsəpə/
Saudi Arabia	/'saʊdi ə'reɪbiə/
Scotland	/'skɒtlənd/
Senegal	/,senɪ'ɡɔl/
Seychelles, the	/seɪ'ʃelz/
Sierra Leone	/sɪ,erə li'oun/
Singapore	/'sɪŋəpɔːr/
Slovakia	/'sləʊvækɪə/
Slovenia	/sləʊ'vɪniə/
Solomon Islands, the	/'sələmən ,aɪləndz/
Somalia	/sou'maliə/
South Africa	/saʊθ 'æfrɪkə/
Spain	/speɪn/

Adjective and name of a person from this place

Nigerian	/naɪ'dʒɪriən/
Norwegian	/nɔr'wɪdʒən/
Omani	/ou'mani/
adj: Pacific
Pakistani	/,pækɪ'stæni/
Palestinian	/'pælə'stɪniən/
Panamanian	/'pænə'meɪniən/
Papuan or Papua New Guinean	/'pæpyuən/
Papua New Guinean	/'pæpyuə nu 'ɡɪniən/
Paraguayan	/'pærə'ɡwɑɪən/
Persian	/'pɜːʒən/
Peruvian	/pə'ruviən/
adj: Philippine	/'fɪləpɪn/
person: Filipino	/'fɪlə'pinəʊ/
adj: Polish	/'pəʊlɪʃ/
person: Pole	/'pəʊl/
Polynesian	/'pələ'nɪzən/
Portuguese	/'pɔrtʃə'ɡɪz/
Puerto Rican	/'pɔrtə 'rɪkən/
Qatari	/'kʌ'tari/
Romanian	/rou'meɪniən/
Russian	/'rʌʃən/
Rwandan	/ru'ændən/
Kittitian, Nevisian	/kə'tɪʃən/, /nɪ'vɪzən/
Saint Lucian	/seɪnt 'luːʃən/
Vincentian	/'vɪn'senʃən/
Samoa	/sə'mouən/
Sammarinese	/'sæməərə'nɪz/
San Marinese	/'sæn məərə'nɪz/
São Tomean	/'saʊn tə'meɪən/
adj: Saudi Arabian	/'saʊdi ə'reɪbiən/
person: Saudi	/'saʊdi/
adj: Scottish	/'skɒtɪʃ/
person: Scot	/'skɒt/
Senegalese	/'senɪɡə'lɪz/
Seychellois	/'seɪʃəl'waɪ/
Sierra Leonean	/'sɪ,erə li'ouniən/
Singaporean	/'sɪŋə'pɔːriən/
Slovakian	/'sləʊvækɪən/
Slovenian or Slovene	/'sləʊ'vɪniən/
adj: Solomon Island	/'sələmən 'aɪləndə/
person: Solomon Islander	/'sələmən 'aɪləndə/
Somali	/sou'mali/
South African	/saʊθ 'æfrɪkən/
adj: Spanish	/'spæniʃ/
person: Spaniard	/'spæniərd/
people: the Spanish

Name

Sri Lanka	/sri 'lʌŋkə/
Sudan	/su'dæn/
Surinam, Suriname	/,sʊrɪ'nʌm/
Swaziland	/'swʌzɪlənd/
Sweden	/'swɪdn/
Switzerland	/'swɪtsə'lænd/
Syria	/'sɪrɪə/
Tahiti	/tə'hɪtɪ/
Taiwan	/,taɪ'wʌn/
Tajikistan	/tə'dʒɪkɪ'stæn/
Tanzania	/,tænzə'niə/
Thailand	/'taɪlənd, -lənd/
Tibet	/tɪ'bet/
Togo	/'tougou/
Tonga	/'tʌŋɡə/
Trinidad and Tobago	/,trɪnɪdæd ən tə'beɪɡou/
Tunisia	/tu'niʒə/
Turkey	/'tɜ:ki/
Turkmenistan	/,tɜ:kmeni'stæn/
Tuvalu	/tu'valu/
Uganda	/yu'gændə/
Ukraine	/yu'kreɪn/
United Arab Emirates	/yu,naɪtɪd ,ærəb 'emərɪts/
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the	/yu,naɪtɪd ,kɪŋdəm əv greɪt ,brɪt'ɪn ənd ,nɔ:ðə'n 'aɪrlənd/
United States, the	/ju,naɪtɪd 'steɪts/
Uruguay	/'yʊrə'ɡwʌɪ/
Uzbekistan	/ʊz'bɛkɪ'stæn/
Vanuatu	/,vænu'atu, ,vænwa'tu/
Venezuela	/,venə'zweɪlə/
Vietnam	/,vyet'nʌm/
Wales	/weɪlz/
Yemen	/'jemən/
Yugoslavia	/,yʊɡə'slaviə/
Zambia	/'zæmbiə/
Zimbabwe	/zɪm'bʌbweɪ/

Adjective and name of a person from this place

Sri Lankan	/sri 'lʌŋkən/
Sudanese	/,sʊdn'ɪzə/
adj: Surinamese	/,sʊrɪnə'mɪzə/person: Surinamer	/,sʊrɪ'nʌmə/
Swazi	/'swʌzi/
adj: Swedish	/'swɪdɪʃ/
person: Swede	/swɪd/
Swiss	/swɪs/
Syrian	/'sɪrɪən/
Tahitian	/tə'hɪfən/
Taiwanese	/,taɪwə'nɪzə/
Tajik	/tə'dʒɪk/
Tanzanian	/,tænzə'niən/
Thai	/taɪ/
Tibetan	/tɪ'bet'ɪn/
Togolese	/,tougə'lɪz/
Tongan	/'tʌŋɡən/
Trinidadian or Tobagonian	/,trɪnɪ'dædɪən/ ,toubə'ɡounɪən/
Tunisian	/tu'niʒən/
adj: Turkish	/'tɜ:rkɪʃ/
person: Turk	/tɜ:k/
Turkmen	/tɜ:kmen/
Tuvaluan	/tu'valuən/
Ugandan	/yu'gændən/
Ukrainian	/yu'kreɪniən/
Emirati	/,emɪ'rati/
adj: British	/'brɪtɪʃ/
person: Briton	/'brɪt'ɪn/people: the British adj: American	/ə'merɪkən/
Uruguayan	/,yʊrə'ɡwʌɪən/
Uzbek	/'ʊzbek/
Vanuatuan	/,vænu'atuən, ,vænwa'tuən/
Venezuelan	/,venə'zweɪlən/
Vietnamese	/,vjɛtnə'mɪzə/
adj: Welsh	/welʃ/
person: Welshman, Welshwoman	/'welʃmən/ ,-,wʊmən/people: the Welsh
Yemeni	/'jeməni/
Yugoslavian or Yugoslav	/,yʊɡə'slaviən/ ,'yʊɡə'slav/
Zambian	/'zæmbiən/
Zimbabwean	/zɪm'bʌbweɪən/

